

Doctrines Of The Faith - A Study in Truth

What The Bible Says About...

OURANOLOGY

The Doctrine of Heaven

PASTOR ART KOHL

Ouranology

The Doctrine of Heaven

by Pastor Art Kohl

Scripture verses in this booklet are from the King James Holy Bible.

Doctrine of the Faith - A Study in Truth

Other booklets in this series:

- Angelology
- Anthropology
- Baptism
- Bibliology
- Christology
- Ecclesiology
- Eschatology
- Hamartiology
- Mary
- Paterology
- Pneumatology
- Sotieriology
- Thanatology
- Theology
- Tongues

Published by

Faith Bible Baptist Church

8688 S. Main Street • Eden, NY 14057

www.fbbc.com

Copyright © 2007-15

Permission granted to freely copy.

Ouranology

Doctrine of Heaven

Introduction.....	1
I. The Creation of the Heavens	2
A. Made By God	2
B. Made by the Son of God.....	2
C. Made By the Holy Spirit.....	2
D. Made By the Word of the Lord	2
II. The Three Heavens	3
A. The First Heaven	3
B. The Second Heaven	3
C. The Third Heaven	4
> Paul’s Witness of the Third Heaven	5
> Isaiah’s Witness of the Third Heaven	5
> John’s Witness of the Third Heaven	6
III. The New Heaven and the New Jerusalem	14
A. The New Heaven	14
B. The New Jerusalem	15

Introduction

Deuteronomy 10:14, "Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heavens is the LORD's thy God, the earth also, with all that therein is."

All of the heavens and heaven belong to God. The earth belongs to God and we belong to God. God is the Maker and Owner of all things. Heaven is the Lord's. Heaven comes from the Greek word "ouranos" (oo-ran-os) thus the Doctrine of Heaven is called Ouranology.

What does "heaven" mean? The word "heaven" means "lofty" or "elevation." "Heaven" is mentioned in the Bible 551 times, 313 times in the Old Testament, and 238 times in the New Testament. Consider that "hell" is mentioned only 54 times in the Bible. The Bible speaks of Heaven over 10 times more than hell. Heaven is where God wants us! Be sure you are saved from your sins so you can go there someday.

The word "heavens" (plural) appears an additional 127 times in our King James Bible. Thus, the total times mentioned is 678.

I. The Creation of the Heavens

A. Made by God.

Genesis 1:1, "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth."

Heaven and earth did not always exist, as God has. They were made. Their creation marked "the beginning."

Nehemiah 9:6, "Thou, even thou, art Lord alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee."

B. Made by the Son of God

Colossians 1:16, "For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:"

C. Made by the Holy Spirit

Job 26: 13, "By his spirit he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath formed the crooked serpent."

D. Made by the Word of the Lord

Psalms 33:6, "By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth."

The whole Trinity was involved in the creation of Heaven. They spoke it into existence. Man cannot speak anything into existence, but God can. That is the power of His Word. God uses His Word to do His work! We should too.

II. The Three Heavens

Because of the presence of the word “heavens”, there must be more than one. The Apostle Paul affirmed this in 2 Corinthians 12:2, “I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven.” Let us study these three heavens.

A. The First Heaven

The word “Heaven” is found seven times in the first chapter of the Bible alone. It is the seventh word into the Bible. In Genesis 1, we see that it means more than the Celestial City.

In Genesis 1:8 we read the word “firmament.” This means “expanse or sky.” The first heaven is what we call the atmosphere. This is where the air is.

Twenty-one times the Bible speaks of the birds or fowls of the “air.” One example is in Matthew 8:20, “And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.” (See also Genesis 1:20.) Birds and other fowl are also said to occupy “heaven” twenty-one times. For example: Psalm 104:12, “By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which sing among the branches.”

This is where dew comes from. “Dew of Heaven” is mentioned seven times. One example is Genesis 27:28, “Therefore God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine:”

This is also where rain comes from. Acts 14:17, “Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.”

Therefore the air, the atmosphere, and “heaven” are one and the same: The First Heaven.

B. The Second Heaven

This is the region we call outer space. It is filled with stars, planets, galaxies, black holes, and so on.

The phrase “stars of heaven” occurs eleven times in scripture. Back in the first chapter of the Bible we see creation of this “Second Heaven”. Genesis 1: 14-17, “And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years: And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so. And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also. And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth,” These verses speak of our sun and moon.

Many other verses could be quoted here. Here are a few:

Isaiah 13:10, “For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.”

Psalm 8:3, 4, “When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?”

Let us give glory to God for these first two heavens and, like David, “consider” them.

Psalm 19:1, “The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.”

C. The Third Heaven

This is where God currently dwells. (Note: This is not the New Heaven described in Revelation 21 and 22.)

The third heaven is called a city. It was said of Abraham, “For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.” Hebrews 11:10. We should be like Abraham. “For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.” Hebrews 13:14.

This city is described in Hebrews 12:22-24, “But ye are come unto mount Zion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.”

The third heaven is also called a country. “But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.” Hebrews 11:16.

The third heaven is called Paradise. Paradise refers to forests, orchards, preserves, and enclosed gardens. It comes from the Hebrew word pardec. Examples are found in Nehemiah 2:8, Ecclesiastes 2:5, and Song of Solomon 4:13.

“Paradise” is a New Testament word, too (Greek: Paradeisos). It is found in the following three texts:

Luke 23:43, “And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.”

2 Corinthians 12:4, “How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.”

Revelation 2:7, “He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.”

Whether a person likes the city, country, forest, or gardens, heaven will be a paradise! It will be bliss.

> Paul’s Witness of the Third Heaven

The Apostle Paul went there and came back. He revealed nothing he saw. He only commented on what he heard. Yet he considered it so sacred that it could not be shared with this world. May God help us to be more in awe of what we hear from God than what we see with our eyes.

2 Corinthians 12:2-4. “I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven. And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.”

He probably referred to this experience when he quoted the prophet Isaiah (Isaiah 64:4) in 1 Corinthians 2:9, “But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.”

> Isaiah’s Witness of the Third Heaven

Isaiah was also given a glimpse of Heaven. The record is in Isaiah 6:1-7, “In the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple. Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory. And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke. Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts. Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar: And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.”

From this text we learn that in the Third Heaven:

1. The Lord is sitting upon a throne.
2. The Lord is wearing a robe with a very long train (hem).
3. There is a temple in Heaven where He sits. Other scriptures that speak of this temple are Revelation 3:12; 7:15; 11:19; 14:15, 17; 15:5, 6, 8; 16:1, 17. (Contrast these with the New Heaven of the future: Revelation 21:22 “And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.”)
4. Six winged seraphims ceaselessly fly above the throne of God and cry one to another, announcing the holiness of the Lord of Hosts.
5. There is an altar of live coals.

When Isaiah saw the Lord, he felt condemned, unclean, and undone. He was particularly troubled by his unclean lips and the unclean lips of the people of the world. Do our words bother us?

> John’s Witness of the Third Heaven

It pays to be in the Spirit on the Lord’s Day, which is Sunday! The entire book of Revelation was given to John on that day (Revelation 1:10). The greatest revelations of our lives usually come to us when we hear “what the Spirit saith unto the churches” (Revelation 2:7, 11, 17, 29; 3:6, 13, 22). This usually takes place on Sundays (Acts 20:7; 1 Corinthians 16:1, 2).

In this revelation we learn more of the Third Heaven. The following 66 observations are from the book of Revelation. Those who are in Heaven at the Rapture will probably observe the following:

1. There is a door in Heaven (4:1). This is a type of the rapture. The door is opened to all who hear the first audible voice and the sound of the trumpet. Trumpets are mentioned several times in Revelation. They are most often used by angels. God is also said to have a trumpet (1 Thessalonians 4:16).
2. There is a throne set in Heaven. It is the same one Isaiah saw (Isaiah 4:2).
3. God who sits on the throne is described as being like jasper (clear crystal) and a sardine stone (dark red). This was the best way John could describe God’s glory (4:3).
4. There is a rainbow about the throne (4:3). Our rainbows on earth are made of red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo, and violet. This one appears as an emerald, which is green. Green represents life.
5. Around God’s throne are twenty-four seats. There are 24 elders, clothed in white raiment, sitting on the seats. They wear crowns of gold (4:4).
6. Lightning, thunder, and voices proceed from the throne of God (4:5).

7. There are 7 lamps burning before God's throne (4:5). These are the 7 Spirits of God (1:4; 3:1; 4:5; 5:6). Isaiah 11:2 reveals these 7 Spirits to us:

The spirit of the Lord
The spirit of Wisdom
The spirit of Understanding
The spirit of Counsel
The spirit of Might
The spirit of Knowledge
The spirit of the Fear of the Lord

8. There is a sea of glass, like crystal, before the throne (4:6).
9. Four beasts, like the seraphim Isaiah saw, are seen (4:6-8). They continually announce the holiness of God "which was, and is, and is to come." (Look at Isaiah 6:1-3.) At times these beasts also give glory, honor, and thanks to God. When they do, the twenty-four elders fall down before God on His throne and worship Him, casting their crowns before Him. They exalt the Lord, Who created all things for His pleasure. There is worship in the Third Heaven (4:9-11)! Things should be done in earth as they are in Heaven (Matthew 5:10). We should worship God and fall down before Him. We must study Heaven to know what we should be doing on earth (Luke 11:2).
10. There is a seven-sealed scroll in heaven, waiting to be opened. No person in Heaven is worthy to open this book (scroll), or even look at it. Jesus alone is worthy and will open it in the future (5:1-7). Jesus is described as a Lion who will conquer Satan and evil. He is also described as a Lamb slain to satisfy God's will. This Lamb has seven horns and seven eyes. The horns represent the power He has to execute all of the will of God. The eyes represent the Spirits of God, and Jesus' wisdom to understand all of the will of God. He has been given the Holy Spirit without measure. He is the only one who ever approaches the throne in Heaven and takes the book.
- 11 There is universal worship of God and the Lamb, Jesus Christ, in Heaven. Jesus is described as a "Lamb" (with a capital "L") on thirty different occasions in the New Testament. Two of them refer to Him while on earth (John 1:29, 36). The other 28 refer to Him in Heaven. When we see Christ in Heaven we will meet Him as a Lamb! This shows that meekness always wins in the end.
12. The beasts, the elders, all angels, and all people worship God (5: 8, 11-14).
13. There are harps in heaven (5:8; 14:2; 15:2).
14. There are golden vials full of odors (perfume), which are the prayers of the saints (5:9).
15. There is singing in Heaven. The theme is redemption through the blood of Jesus Christ (5:9).

16. There are people out of every kindred, tongue, people, and nation. The gospel has worked on earth! Heaven is full of people who will rule and reign with Christ; it is a people place (5:9, 10)!
17. There is a loud voice of worship in Heaven (5:11, 12). John numbers the angels present as 100 million (“ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands”). Paul used the word “innumerable” to describe the angels he saw (Heb. 12:22).
18. All of the creatures of God’s creation are heard worshiping God (5:13). Everyone in Heaven and out of Heaven will worship God some day. (Compare the wording of this verse with Philippians 2:10, 11.) How and when this will happen we do not know; it may happen often.
19. Martyrs will be in Heaven (6:9-11). They are clothed in white robes. They are so close to God they are described as being under the altar! Do not feel sorry for martyrs. They will be close to God forever.
20. There are still questions in Heaven (6:10). We will not understand everything yet. God still keeps some things a mystery.
21. There is rest in Heaven (6:11).
22. Saints saved out of the Tribulation period will join those already there in worship (7:9-15). These Tribulation converts are also clothed in white robes. They have palm leaves in their hands. (A palm is a token of victory and peace.) This is a great crowd which no man can number. They also cry out with a loud voice. The phrase “loud voice” is found 12 times in the book of Revelation. Eight of these refer to events in Heaven. Heaven is a loud place!
23. There is no hunger in the Third Heaven (7:16,17). Jesus will feed us.
24. There is no thirst in the Third Heaven (7:16,17). Jesus will give us water.
25. There is no oppressive heat or sunlight in the Third Heaven (7:16,17). Jesus will be our light and banish our sorrows.
26. As noisy and loud as Heaven is, there will be one space of eerie silence lasting 30 minutes (8:1). Millions of angels and millions of people will keep silent for a half an hour as God’s wrath towards those that are on earth rises and seven angels are given seven trumpets to blow, announcing the fury of God (8:1-2).
27. There is an altar in the Third Heaven. As the Holy Golden Altar of Incense in the Old Testament tabernacle was the closest piece of furniture to the Holy of Holies, so this altar is directly before God. True prayer is about as close as we can get to God! (Compare Exodus 30:6.) Spend much time in prayer.
28. There is a golden censer in the Third Heaven (8:3-4). With the censer an angel offers up much incense with the prayers of the - saints. It ascends up before God. (See Psalm 141:2, Leviticus 16:12, 13.)

29. The angel will fill the censer with fire from the altar and cast it out on earth (8:5).
 30. An angel will fly through the midst of Heaven pronouncing woes (grief, sorrow, misery) on earth (8:13).
 31. A star will fall from heaven to the earth (9:1,2). This star is an angel. (Compare 1:20.) He will have the key to the bottomless pit (Chapter 9), which he opens.
 32. Another mighty angel will come down to earth from the Third Heaven (10:1). He will have a little book. John is given the book and must eat it. It is sweet in his mouth and bitter in his stomach, preparing him to prophesy again (10:8-11). Bitter words are to come against the earth.
 33. The two witnesses, who prophesied on the earth for 3 1/2 years and were martyred, are seen resurrected and have been raptured to the third heaven. (Chapter 11:1-12).
 34. Another worship session in Heaven is triggered by the sounding of a seventh angel (11:15-17).
 35. The Temple of God is opened (11:19). The Ark of the Testament is seen. This is unique to Heaven-dwellers. Earth-dwellers could not look at the Ark (it had to be covered by a veil, badger's skins, and blue cloth. See Numbers 4:4-6.) It resided in the Holiest of Holy places. Only the high priest saw it, and only once a year. It was hidden by a thick veil.
 36. Unusual things are described in Chapter 12:
 - a. A Wonder: Israel (12:1-2). Compare Genesis 37:9-11 and Romans 9:27, 11:26.
 - b. Another Wonder: Satan and demonic activity (12:3-4)! This is symbolic of Satan's long war against Israel, because Israel was used to bring Jesus Christ to the earth. About one-third of the stars (angels) are cast out of heaven to the earth.
 - c. A War: Michael and his angels (probably 2/3 of all angels created) against the Devil and his angels (devils, demons, probably 1/3 of all angels created). This will probably be the most violent war ever. Think of how powerful the angels are and how many there are. Think of how violent demons can be and how they are now fighting for the greatest turf war ever. Every devil from earth will be summoned to the Third Heaven for this battle. Satan and his angels will lose and be cast out once and for all (12:7-9, 12-17). Satan will fall to earth in great wrath.
 - d. The Witness: Satan had been in Heaven for thousands of years accusing us before God for our sins. Thank God for our advocate Jesus Christ the Righteous! (See 1 John 2:1,2.) We overcome the Devil by having a testimony of faith in Christ and by the power of our Lord's blood. Everything is alright in Heaven from now on (12:10, 11).

37. 144,000 stand with Jesus Christ, the Lamb, on Mount Zion in Heaven. (The heavenly Jerusalem, like earthly Jerusalem, has a Mount Zion 14:1-5.) These 144,000 were seen previously on earth (7:1-8). Now, 3 ½ years later, they are in heaven forming another group close to Jesus. Why?
- a. They belong to God. They have the Father's name in their foreheads (14:1).
 - b. They were never defiled with women (14:4). They are virgins. They are so committed to Christ that they never got married (Compare 1 Corinthians 7:4, 25-26, 32, 34). The single, spiritual life is honored in this group.
 - c. They follow the Lamb wherever He goes. They are not only believers, but followers (14:4).
 - d. They are the redeemed from the earth and from among men (14:3, 4).
 - e. They are the first fruits of the Tribulation period unto God and the Lamb. This shows the pre-Tribulation rapture of all other saints (14:4).
 - f. There is no guile found in their mouths (14:5). Guile means "trickery, a decoy, deceit, to trap". See 1 Peter 2:22.
 - g. They are without fault before the throne of God. This means they are unblameable. They have an exemplary testimony. (14:5).
38. These 144,000 form a powerful choir. The choir sounds like many waters, like standing next to Niagara Falls. They are accompanied by harpists. Their voices combine to sound like a great thunder (14:2)
39. They sing a new song that no one else will be able to learn (14:3). All things are not equal in Heaven. Those who live for God on this earth have special blessings. (There are some secrets in Heaven between God and His people. Compare 2:17.) This is the second new song in the Third Heaven (5:9).
40. Another angel flies from the middle of Heaven with the everlasting gospel to preach to the people left on earth (14:6-7). God still cares for the earth inhabitants. The saints are in Heaven. Those saved out of the Tribulation are now in Heaven. The 144,000 are now in Heaven. Yet God still cares for the souls on earth. A new method to reach them is sent – an angel! How could any on earth resist that? Yet some do.
41. His message is "Fear God and give glory to Him" (14:6-7). There is no confusion anymore as to God's identity (study 10:7 – no more mystery.) The whole world knows His name is Jesus. He is the Creator (Colossians 1:16).
42. Another angel follows this angel with a message of condemnation for Babylon because their evil world system has caused people to turn from God (14:8). Babylon represents the world's system of religious, commercial, and political oneness that rejects God and exalts man. Love for the world is spiritual fornication. (James 4:4.)

43. A third angel leaves the Third Heaven with a message of damnation to all who receive the mark of the beast (14:9-11). They will be tormented in fire and brimstone forever. They have been warned!
44. A voice is heard in the Third Heaven saying that, from this point on, those on earth who die in the Lord are blessed (14:13). Death will deliver them from the great Tribulation. This is a good thing, seeing that this time period will be the most horrific in history (Matthew 24:21). This verse also indicates that heaven will be a place of reward and rest.
45. A white cloud is seen in Heaven. Jesus is sitting on it with a golden crown on His head and a sharp sickle in His hand (14:14).
46. An angel comes out of the temple in Heaven and, with a loud voice, encourages Jesus to thrust in His sharp sickle and reap the harvest from the earth. This is the gathering of the just to Christ in Heaven (14:15, 16).
47. An angel with a sharp sickle also comes out of the temple (14:17).
48. An angel comes from the altar and asks the angel with the sickle to gather the unjust to the winepresses of the wrath of God. Jesus gathers only the righteous. That angel gathers the ungodly (14:18-20). The Lord uses 6 angels to do His work in this chapter.
49. A new group is seen in heaven. These are they who overcame the Beast during the last half of the Tribulation. God is still saving souls! They stand before God on a sea of glass mingled with fire (15:2).
50. A third song is heard (15:3, 4). It is a song that originated with Moses and the Lamb, Jesus Christ. Maybe some songs written by other humans will be sung in Heaven; we cannot tell.
51. The Temple in Heaven becomes so filled with the glory of God (in the form of smoke) that no man in Heaven will be able to enter it until the 7 plagues are fulfilled (15:8). Compare 2 Chronicles 5:12-14.
52. Now we see seven more angels doing the Lord's work. They have seven vials containing seven plagues that will be poured out on earth (15:1,5-7). These plagues are the wrath of God.
53. A voice in the Temple is heard instructing the seven angels to pour out the wrath of God on earth (16:1).
54. After the third vial is poured out, another voice is heard saying God's judgments are true and righteous (16:7).

55. After the seventh vial is poured out, a great voice comes from the throne in the Temple saying, “It is done.” (16:17).
56. A angel with great power leaves Heaven. He is so glorious that he lights the whole earth. He pronounces judgment on Babylon (the one-world commercial, religious, and political system of the anti-Christ). All devils have been cast out of Heaven and now inhabit the earth. It becomes more foul, unclean, and hateful than ever before (18:1-3).
57. A voice comes from heaven to believers yet on earth. Its message is complete separation from the world to avoid being hurt by its plagues (18:4).
58. There is a celebration in the Third Heaven. A great voice of many people proclaims “Alleluia” (19:1-6). There are many people in heaven! God has delivered His people, judged the great whore (One-World Babylon), and avenged the blood of the martyrs. God will have His way and the last word. The all powerful God will reign!
59. The Marriage of the Lamb (19:7-9). The Groom is Christ. The bride is made up of all the saved. The espousal stage of marriage is over (2 Corinthians 11:2; Romans 7:4). There is no longer a physical separation. We are now physically together forever, thus is John 14:2, 3 fulfilled. (Study the parable of the Great Supper in Luke 14:16-24, or the parable of the King’s Son in Matthew 22:1-14 for similarities.)
60. Those in Heaven will not be allowed to worship angels or men (19:10). Compare 22:8, 9. They are allowed to worship only God.
61. The Heaven will open as Jesus, on a white horse, and His armies descend to the earth for the great battle (19:11-16). How does Christ appear?
- He is described as Faithful and True, The Word of God, and THE KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS (19:11,13,16). He judges and makes war with those on earth.
 - His eyes are as a flame of fire (19:12).
 - On His head are many crowns (19:12). “Crown Him with many crowns...” the songwriter wrote, inspired by this text.
 - He will have a name that no one knows but Himself (19:12). There are some secret things in Heaven.
 - His vesture (garment) is dipped in blood (19:13).
 - He holds a sharp sword and an iron rod (19:15).
62. In the fierceness and wrath of God, Jesus will trample the enemies of God under His feet. Will we be in Jesus’ army? It seems to depend on our faithfulness (Matthew 25:21, 23; Luke 19:17-19) or our suffering for Christ (2 Timothy 2:12).
63. Another angel comes down from Heaven having the key to the Bottomless Pit (20:1-3). He lays hold on Satan, binds him with a great chain, and casts him into the Pit. Satan stays there for

1,000 years. This seems to be the last sight that originates in the Third Heaven.

The rest of John's vision takes place on earth, or during the Great White Throne Judgment of sinners before God. This event doesn't seem to take place in either heaven or earth (read carefully 20:11). The Judgment will be such a sobering, horrific sight that the earth and Heaven "fled away" (20:11). This phrase means "to seek safety by flight, to escape safely out of danger, to vanish". This will probably be the end of the Third Heaven.

III. The New Heaven and the New Jerusalem

2 Peter 3:10-13 “But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.”

The three heavens are dissolved and melted with a fervent heat and a great noise. This is in fulfillment of the prophecies of Isaiah:

Isaiah 65:17 “For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.”

Isaiah 66:22 “For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain.”

What precious promises! Though the current Third Heaven is glorious (Philippians 1:21, 23), it has been contaminated by the devil and demons (Revelation 12:7-10) and God has to humble Himself just to look upon it (Psalm 113:6). He does not consider it clean (Job 15:15). Now go back and read what Peter and Isaiah just promised about the New Heaven.

Let us return to Revelation 21 and 22 to learn what the New Heaven and the New Jerusalem will be like.

A. The New Heaven

1. There will be no more sea (21:1). There will be a fountain of water (21:6) and a river of water (22:1), but no sea.
2. God will wipe away all tears from our eyes (21:4). Never will a person cry. No one will ever die. The saved are immortal (1 Corinthians 15:54). Sorrow will be banished. Never will one feel sorrow, guilt, shame, embarrassment, or remorse. All tears of the past will be wiped away and never will one cry in the future. There will be no more pain. This is unimaginable, no pain of any kind! The former things are passed away and will not be remembered (Isaiah 65:17). All of this was prophesied in Isaiah 25:8.
3. The Lord on His throne declares He will make all things new! His words, as always, are true and faithful (21:5).
4. In light of the description in 21:1-5, verses 6-8 seem to be a gospel invitation:
Verse 6 - Jesus is the Water of Life. Anyone can partake freely.
Verse 7 - Those who overcome become His children and inherit all things (1 John 5:4, 5; Romans 8:16-17).

Verse 8 - Those who do not believe will have their part in the Lake of Fire.

5. The New Jerusalem, a city prepared by Christ for His bride (John 14:2), will be seen coming down from the New Heaven to the New Earth. It looks like a bride adorned for her husband (21:2). This city is prefixed by the word “holy” three times (21:2, 21:10, 22:8).
6. This thrice-holy city will be inhabited by God Himself (21:3). This is announced by a great voice from Heaven. The Tabernacle of God is God Himself. As glorious as the description of the New Heaven will get; nothing is greater than the fact that God will dwell with men. This will be as real as when God used to walk with Adam and Eve.

B. The New Jerusalem

1. One of the seven angels that had poured out a vial of God’s wrath on the old earth now shows John the Bride and the New Jerusalem. The Bride (21:9) is defined as “the nations of them which are saved” (21:24).
2. The city has the glory of God (21:11). That statement alone cannot be fathomed.
3. The city’s lighting is described as a jasper stone, clear as crystal (21:11). The ancient philosopher Pliny once spoke of white jasper called Astrios which he says is “crystallo propinquans” or, “near to crystal.” This stone can be found in India.
4. The city has no need of a sun or moon for the glory of God lightens it and the Lamb, Jesus Christ, is the light. See 1 John 1:5. Both spiritually and literally, God is Light.
5. The wall of the city is described in chapter 21:12-13. Do not confuse the wall around the city with the wall of the city (about 1500 miles high!).
 - a. The wall around the city is 144 cubits high. A cubit is approximately 18 inches: the distance from a man’s elbow to the tip of his middle finger. This wall is 20-24 stories high!
 - b. The wall has twelve gates, three on each side. Each gate has an angel posted at it. These gates will not be shut during the day. Seeing there will be no night, they will never be shut! How contrary to the story in Genesis 3:24, praise God.
 - c. Each gate has a name of one of the twelve tribes of Israel on it (these are listed in 7:5-8). God loves Israel and will honor her forever. Israel is God the Father’s wife (Jeremiah 3:14; Isaiah 54:5, 62:1-5; Hosea 2:19, 20; Ezekiel 16:8).
 - d. The wall is like jasper, a precious stone of various colors. So God looks like jasper (4:3), the lighting of the New Jerusalem is like jasper (21:11), the wall around the city is like jasper (21:18), and, as we'll see in Point 7 below, the first of the 12 foundations of the city is like jasper (21:19).

6. The wall of the city is described in 21:14-16, 18-27. This wall has twelve foundations (21:14). Each one is labeled with the name of an apostle: Peter, Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James, Simon, Judas (not Judas Iscariot), and Matthias (Acts 1:26). What an eternal honor for these men who lived and died for Christ.
7. These 12 foundations are made of 12 stones (21:19-20):
 - Jasper - purple, blue green, brass, or clear
 - Sapphire - blue, red, violet, yellow, green, or white
 - Chalcedony - gray, clouded with blue, yellow or purple
 - Emerald - green
 - Sardonyx - red color of carnelian, white of the onyx
 - Sardius - flesh color
 - Chrysolite - gold
 - Beryl - pale green
 - Topaz - greenish yellow
 - Chrysoprasus - green and gold
 - Jacinth - dark blue verging on black
 - Amethyst - violet and purple
8. The city is a cube (21:15, 16). The length, height, and breadth of it are equal - 12,000 furlongs. A furlong is 1/8 of a mile. That would make the city 1500 miles in each direction. That is the distance between Buffalo, NY and Amarillo, TX. The city is so high that an airplane flying at 35,000 feet would crash 1/20th of the way up the first foundation. The land mass equals 2,250,000 square miles. The total mass of the city is 3.375 billion cubic miles.
9. The street of the city and the city itself are pure gold, like transparent glass (21:18, 21). That is a lot of gold!
10. There is no temple. God and the Lamb are the Temple (21:22).
11. There will be nations and kingdoms on the new earth. All people are saved (21:24). This is the last time the word "saved" appears in the Bible. It refers to those rescued from the destruction. The saved bring their glory and honor into the city (21:26). They are further described as "they which are written in the Lamb's book of life" (21:27).
12. Nothing defiling, disgusting, or deceitful will ever enter the city (21:27).
13. Although there is no temple, there is still a throne (22:1). It is for the Father and the Son. We will not become deities in the future as cults teach. There is only one throne and it is for God!
14. From the throne flows a pure river of water, clear as crystal. There is also a fountain with the water of life (21:6).
15. The tree of life is in the New Jerusalem. It appears as an amazingly large tree that grows out of both sides of the river and the middle of the street. It has 12 different fruits, and bears fruit every month. The fruit is for the food and the leaves are for the healing (Greek: therapeia) of the nations (22:2).

16. There will be no curse (22:3). The word curse means “to invoke an evil on someone”. That will never happen again because there is no evil. God is on His throne and we will all serve Him.
17. We shall see God’s face (22:4)! Contrast with Exodus 33:20; John 1:18; 1 John 4:12.
18. God’s name will be in our foreheads, denoting ownership.
19. There will be no need of the sun because the Lord’s brilliance will be the light. There will be no night (22:5).

The seven “no’s” in review:

- No sea, 21:1
- No sorrow, 21:4
- No crying, 21:4
- No pain, 21:4
- No death, 21:4
- No curse, 22:3
- No night, 22:5

20. God’s servants will reign forever and ever (22:5). We will be rewarded according to our work for Jesus Christ (22:12). Other Scriptures to study: Psalm 62:12; Jeremiah 17:10; Matthew 16:27; 2 Corinthians 5:10; 1 Corinthians 3:11-15; 15:40-42a; Daniel 12:3.
21. Those who are obedient will have access to the Tree of Life, and may enter the gates of the New Jerusalem (22:14). Obedience is of utmost importance in our eternal standing. In the New Jerusalem, there will be limitations on those who were disobedient on earth. Read Matthew 5:19; 19:29,30; 1 Corinthians 15:40-42a. (Note: salvation and inheritance are two different things. Salvation can’t be lost, but inheritance can. Read 2 John 8, Nehemiah 13:14; Colossians 2:18.)
22. There may be limited or no access to the Holy City for some believers who did not live for God. They may just be on the New Earth looking at the city (22:18, 19). The word “part” in 22:19 means “to get as a section or allotment, a division or share, a lot.” “Out of” means “a separation of part from the whole.”
28. It seems there will be more written in the book of life than just names. Psalm 56:8 implies our burdens are recorded there as well. Also see Malachi 3:16, 17.
29. When someone tampers with the Word of God on earth, they forfeit rewards and access to the Holy City in the New Heaven. This is the last warning and insight we have into the New Heaven.

This booklet just scratches the surface of this doctrine. Heaven is a wonderful place! I hope you have prepared to go there. If you need more information, please contact us, or visit our website.

Pure waters of life there are flowing,
And all who will drink may be free.
Rare jewels of splendor are glowing –
How beautiful Heaven must be.

How beautiful Heaven must be –
Sweet home of the happy and free,
Fair haven of rest for the weary,
How beautiful Heaven must be.

~ Mrs. A.S. Bridgewater

“Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.”

2 Timothy 2:15
