As mentioned above the NASB draws heavily from two of the most corrupt Greek manuscripts ever found, Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Vaticanus. This fact alone, when it is brought to one's attention, should cause discerning Bible students to stay clear of the NASB. To be sure that translation contains many passages which are identical to the KJV (as do all SBS Sermon Notes and Bible Lessons) but that does not make the NASB (or my own writings) the very Word of God! In my opinion the NASB is a clever and extremely dangerous counterfeit; a Bogus Bible posing as the very Word of God! It must be exposed for what it really is - the Work of Satan!

In the 70+ verses that follow I have highlighted in bold type the words, phrases and verses which have been changed or deleted in the NASB. In a few instances I have included a COMMENT; but where I have not, the reader is advised to pause and consider the gravity of the corruption of which the NASB is guilty.

4. DOUBT-LADEN FOOTNOTES

The NASV like many other modern translations contains many doubt-laden footnotes such as:

- 'Many mss.(manuscripts) do not contain this verse.'
- 'The earliest mss read.'
- 'Some ancient mss add.'
- 'Many ancient authorities read.'
- 'Not found in the most of the old mss.'
- 'Some mss insert.'
- 'Some ancient mss do not contain.'

Unlike a good Chain-Reference Bible that points the reader to other texts on the same subject, these footnotes clearly show that the NASB translators, whilst putting on a show of apparent fairness, are really unsure of their own product. 'Is the NASB God's Word for Today or Not?' They obviously don't know or don't believe, else they would not insert so many conflicting footnotes; which not only cast doubt on the King James Bible, but also on their own version which within 28 years of its publication in 1971 is now being phased out.

These dubious footnotes impliedly teach that since there are so many disagreeing manuscripts no one can be certain as to which is the real Word of God. In effect they say: 'Take your pick, decide for yourself which manuscript or version you want to accept; for the fact is, no one can be certain what God actually said.'

'Yea hath God said?' (Genesis 3:1b) was, and still is, Satan's main weapon against truth. He deceived Eve in the Garden of Eden by planting doubt about God's Word in her mind. Satan is doing the very same thing with the modern translations of the Bible. They all cast doubt on the real Word of God (the KJV); and those insinuating footnotes are the latest Satanic way of saying: 'Hath God said?

With these thoughts in mind we will now turn our attention to the actual verses which have been corrupted in the NASB. Remember that these texts are from the KJV and the words or phrases in bold type indicate where the NASB has twisted or deleted God's Word.

Luke 4:4, "And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God."

Luke 4:8, "And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve."

Matthew 25:13, "Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh."

Matthew 27:35: And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots."

Mark 6:11, "And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city."

Mark 13:14, "But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that be in Judaea flee to the mountains."

John 7:8, "Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come."

COMMENT: By omitting the word 'yet' the NASB makes the Saviour a liar, because He did later go up to the feast. (John 7:10)

John 3:15, "That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life."

COMMENT: This is an extremely powerful verse. It guarantees that whoever believes in Jesus (identified in verse 14) should not perish but have eternal life. But what do the NASB translators make of this verse? They mutilate it by deleting the words 'should not perish.' Then they inject uncertainty by using the word 'may.' There is no assurance here, no divine guarantee or promise. Instead, 'the believer... MAY in him have eternal life;' implying thereby that he 'May Not!'

> Romans 14:10, "But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ."
> Colossians 3:6, "For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience."
> 1st Timothy 3:16, "And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory."

COMMENT: The word "God" has been changed to He. This is an attack on a cardinal truth namely that Jesus Christ is God incarnate; that is, God in human flesh! To replace the word God with He is a corruption of the text. It casts doubt on the divinity of Jesus Christ.

> 1 John 4:3, "And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world."

COMMENT: the word Christ means 'the anointed One, the Messiah! In this verse the NASV omits the fact that Jesus was indeed the Messiah, the anointed of God, the Christ! Indeed whenever the word 'Christ' is omitted from its rightful place in a modern translation, the fact that He is the Messiah, the anointed of God, is being silently denied.

> 1 Corinthians 5:7, "Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us."
> Colossians 1:14, "In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:"
>
> 1 Peter 4:1, "Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin."

In Me / On Me / Of Christ / In Christ / Through Christ.

> Mark 9:42, "And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea."

John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek."

Galatians 3:17, "And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect."

Galatians 4:7, "Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ."

Galatians 6:15, "For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature."

Denial of a Literal Heaven

The NASB translators have a strange aversion to Heaven. Notice how in the following six verses the references to heaven have been removed.

Luke 11:2, "And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth."

COMMENT: The NASB translators have mutilated this verse, which has 32 words, by deleting 14 of them!

Another 5 words from this famous prayer have been deleted in the next verse:

"And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil."

Hebrews 10:34, "For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance."

1 John 5:7, "For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. 8: And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one."

COMMENT: Here is another example of massive mutilation.

Luke 24:51, "And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven."

Revelation 16:17, "And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done."

John 3:13, "And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven."

Luke 2:33, "And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him."

COMMENT: The name Joseph has been changed to His father, thereby denying that God was the Saviour's Father not Joseph."

John 8:59, "Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by."

Philippians 4:13, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."

COMMENT: As stated previously, the word Christ means the anointed One, the Messiah. The NASB replaces this powerful title with the word Him, which could mean anyone or any God for that matter.

Revelation 21:24, "And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it."

COMMENT: Deleting words from the Bible, especially from the book of Revelation, carry an extremely heavy penalty (Revelation 22:18-19). The NASB translators by deleting the words 'of them which are saved' have removed a vital proviso and allowed all nations to enter the new Jerusalem. It's not just 'the nations' but rather 'the nations of them which are saved.'

2nd Corinthians 4:14, "Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you."

COMMENT: The word by has been changed to with! This change makes the whole sentence nonsense; because this letter to the Corinthians was written over 25 years after the resurrection of Jesus. So how could any believer at that time be resurrected 'with' Jesus?

Ephesians 3:9, "And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ."

COMMENT: The Bible plainly teaches that Jesus Christ (the living Word of God) created the universe. His Father was the architect, but the Son was the builder. The NASV translators deny this fact in the above verse by deleting the words 'by Jesus Christ.'

James 5:16, "Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much."

COMMENT: The word 'faults' has been changed to 'sins.' There is a subtle difference between a 'fault' and a 'sin.' A 'fault' is a defect or weakness (i.e. a short temper, an inclination to over drink, over eat etc.) A 'sin' is a direct transgression or violation of a divine command. 'Faults' may lead to sin if no control is exercised. But 'faults' are not 'sins.' 'Faults' are weaknesses which could result in 'sin' if not controlled; but faults are not sins.

However, the main danger of the change in this verse is that it raises the issue of 'Christians confessing their sins to a priest?' Is that what the Bible teaches? [4]Confession.

> Acts 2:30, "Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne."
> Revelation 1:8, "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty."
>
> Revelation 1:11, "Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea."
>
> Revelation 2:9, "I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan."
> Revelation 2:20, "Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols."

COMMENT: The term 'acts of immorality' have been substituted for 'fornication.' 'Acts of immorality' mean different things to different people. Any solicitor will tell you that God's warning about 'fornication' in this verse has been considerably weakened; especially in view of the specific instruction about 'fornication' given in Acts 15:20 to the newly converted Gentiles.

> Revelation 2:15, "So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate."
> Revelation 5:14, "And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever."
>
> Revelation 11:17, "Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned."
>
> Revelation 16:5, "And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus."

Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord."

And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief."

Luke 9:57

And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest."

And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat."

And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom."

Romans 6:11

Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord."

1 Corinthians 15:47

The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven."

2 Corinthians 4:10

Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body."

Galatians 6:17

From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus."

1 Timothy 1:1

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope."

1 Timothy 5:21

I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality."

I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom."

Titus 1:4

To Titus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour."

Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love."

John 6:69, "And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God."

COMMENT: This vital verse which identifies Jesus as the ’Messiah,’ the ’Christ,’ the ’Son of the living God’ has been changed to read: the ’holy one of God;’ a term which could apply to any prophet or godly person. Pause dear reader and try to take in what that means.

’MY Father’ changed to ’THE Father’

The NASB casts doubt on the fact that GOD not Joseph was the Father of Jesus Christ.

Notice how in the following four verses my Father is changed to the Father.

Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things."

Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?"

Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I."

Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more."

Colossians 1:2

To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ."

And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy."

5. BRACKETED VERSES

Bracketed verses in the NASB are accompanied with Misleading Notes which, as pointed out previously, all cast doubt on the veracity of the King James Version. The corrupt NASB reads:

Matthew 18:11

[For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.]"

COMMENT: These 12 verses are [bracketed] and the following misleading note appears at the foot of the page: ’Some of the oldest mss. do not contain verses 9-20.’

Luke 9:56, "[For the Son of man is not come to destroy men’s lives, but to save them.] And they went to another village."

Luke 24:40, "[And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.]"

John 7:53 - 8:11

COMMENT: As in the above verses this entire passage is also [bracketed] and its authenticity questioned by the dubious Note: John 7:53-8:11 is not found in most of the old manuscripts.

Mark 15:28, "[And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors.]"

COMMENT: As in the above passages this verse is also [bracketed] and its authenticity questioned by the dubious Note: ’many mss. Do not contain this verse.’

Luke 24:12, "[Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.]"

COMMENT: As in the above cases this verse is also [bracketed] and its authenticity questioned by the dubious Note: ’Some ancient mss. Do not contain verse 12.’

Acts 8:37, "[And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.]"

6. NO DOCTRINAL DIFFERENCES?

Some believers claim that, even allowing for the above changes, no doctrinal differences can be found in the NASB. Is this the case? Are we making a mountain out of a molehill?

The reader will have noticed that in the passages already quoted many basic Christian doctrines are affected. To name a few:

- Is Christ the Creator?
- Did He actually make all things?
- Is Jesus God?
- Should He be called Lord?
- Is He the Son of God?
- Is He God incarnate, God in human flesh? Or was Joseph His father?

The Saviour’s Title:

- Is Jesus the Christ, the Messiah, the promised Anointed One?
- Was Jesus a liar, or was He sinless?
- Is Jesus the Alpha and Omega? Or is he deceiving Himself and us?

The Resurrection:

- Did the Lord Jesus Christ actually come from heaven and did He return to heaven after His resurrection?
- Is he in Heaven?
- Is there a Temple in Heaven?

And lastly are the translators of the NASB confident that their work is indeed the Word of God?

Or are those numerous footnotes evidence of their colossal doubt; evidence that they themselves do not believe that there is any such thing as the real WORD OF GOD in existence today!

It is poor reasoning to justify a missing doctrine in one text by claiming that it can be found in another part of the Scriptures. Who are we to decide or judge how often God specifies a doctrine? If He chooses to repeat anything, be it a command or a doctrine, let us beware of amending His work! There is absolutely no excuse for altering God's Holy Word.

As Evangelist Samuel C Gipp once said:

> 'Cut just one vein and you could kill a man as surely as if you had blown him to pieces!'

If Satan had altered every text concerning a single doctrine, his deception would have been soon discovered by even the casual Bible student. All he needed to deceive God's people was to alter a word, or sentence here, and another word or sentence there. That was all that was necessary; and that is what he has so successfully done with every modern translation which is based on corrupt manuscripts. Satan has deceived millions of sincere Christians and I was one of them!

In his book, Missing In Modern Bibles: Is the Full Story Being Told?, Pastor Jack Moorman has actually counted every word in the New Testament Greek Texts, both of the Received Text (Textus Receptus) and the Revised Text. He found that of the 140,521 Greek words in the Received Text, a total of 2,886 words were omitted from the Revised Text of Nestle-Aland and Westcott and Hort. These 2,886 words have affected 356 doctrinal passages! Pause and take note of that astonishing fact!

Pastor Moorman reviews these 356 passages in another of his books entitled, Early Manuscripts and The Authorized Version: A Closer Look. If you really want to ensure that the Bible you are studying every day is the very inspired Word of God, then take steps to obtain these books and study them.

Another highly recommended book is by Dr. David A. Waite entitled: '[5]Defending the King James Bible' (free .pdf version). These books and many, many others on this same subject of Bible Versions are published by The Bible For Today (Press: 900 Park Avenue, Collingswood, New Jersey 08108. U.S.A.)

SUMMARY

Though this article deals exclusively with textual corruption found in the New American Standard Version (NASB); the reader may compare any modern translation against the texts listed in this article. If you've seen one Westcott and Hort bible, you've seen them all. That is simply because they all contain the SAME corruptions. Only the trustworthy inspired King James Bible stands alone.

Every single word in the Holy Bible is vitally important. Any attempt to add, delete or change a word or text in the Bible, especially in the book of Revelation, will attract the wrath of God and could result in the loss of eternal life (Deuteronomy 4:2; Proverbs 30:5-6; Revelation 22:18-19).

The NASB is strongly influenced by two corrupt manuscripts: Codex Sinaiticus and Codex Vaticanus. These have defiled the entire publication. They have polluted the entire population.

Doubt-laden Footnotes in the NASB cause one to conclude that the translators themselves do not believe the NASB (nor indeed any other translation) is the Word of God!

In other words they are not sure. They don't know. They don't believe!

Bracketed Texts are also evidence that the translators do not believe that the Almighty has preserved His inspired Word. So they include these verses - just in case.

Some 2,886 words are missing from the Greek text that underlies the NASB.

These words affect 356 doctrinal passages! Dare anyone accuse God of unnecessarily repeating three, four or five times the same doctrine!

Let the reader consider over and over again what is presented in this article. Because no greater deception can be aimed at the Christian Church than to make it doubt the tried and tested inspired Word of God, the Authorized King James Bible. END

Beware Of The New American Standard Bible PERversion!

by David J Stewart

That was great truth! Please compare these two Bible passages from John 3:16. ...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - John 3:16, " For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

> NEW AMERICAN STANDARD BIBLE(NASB) - John 3:!6, " "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him will not perish, but have eternal life."

Did you see what the Devil did? He removed the all-important word “begotten” from the Word of God. Dear reader, this is heresy! Every born-again saint is an ADOPTED child of God, but Jesus is the only BEGOTTEN (BIOLOGICAL) child of God. John 1:12-13, “But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.” The redeemed are “adopted” son of God. Romans 8:15, “For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.” For the BASB (all all modern Devil’s perversions of the Bible) to remove the word “ ” is a major attack upon the deity of Jesus Christ.

It frustrates and saddens me, that hardly even a week goes by, but that some foolish woefully ignorant churchgoer wants to challenge and debate me on the issue of the exclusivity of the King James Bible. They all ignorantly claim that it is okay to use the Devil’s modern corrupt Bible revisions, while wilfully being totally oblivious to the mountain of irrefutable evidence showing that ALL modern Bible revisions are corrupt. Sadly, they have dug their own grave.

Brother David B. Loughran and I have shown you umpteen examples of what is terribly wrong with the NASB. You, dear reader, must make a decision. You must decide whether you are going to honor the Lord Jesus Christ by using the inspired King James Bible, which uplifts Jesus’ deity and magnifies His Godhood as the only begotten Son of God; or else, you will continue to dishonor the Lord by using a corrupt Bible revision that attacks His deity, obscures the truth, removes the Godhead and other vital fundamental doctrines of the Christian faith.

In the King James Bible, you will find the important word “godhead” in Romans 1:20, Acts 17:29 and Colossians 2:9. I triple-dog dare you to check any modern Bible versions, and you will NOT find this word in any of them. The Devil is a dirty manipulative liar (John 8:44; Romans 1:25). In most versions you’;; instead find something about the “divine nature,” which sounds like new-age trash to me. It sure ain’t the ’Godhead.’ You know, God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit.

Here is a book exposing the Devil’s [6]English Standard Version (ESV). If you pay careful attention, you’ll find most of the same corruptions in both the ESV and the NASB, just as you’ll find true of ALL the modern Westcott and Hort based Bible perversions. The Devil is a beautiful liar, and don’t you forget it dear friend.

4.9.12 I Hate The Ungodly American Lying News Media (2023-09-18 09:16)

John 8:44, “ Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. ”

Reasons Why You Cannot Trust The Mainstream News Media:

1. The News Is Controlled And All Comes From One Source. You would be wise my friend to question everything that the American news media spoon feeds you. I say that for a few reasons, the first of which is that all of the news that we hear today from the mainstream newsmedia is controlled, originating from one major source. There used to be about 50 major news outlets, but they were bought up and consolidated in the past couple decades into just 6 media outlets.

   But please don’t take my word for it, [1]listen to the news media parrot the same talking points over and over and over . Clearly, they are mindlessly reading off of a teleprompter. The American people are as sheep, and our highest leaders are wolves in sheep’s clothing. Every 4 to 8 years we get a new U.S. President, and with each revolving-door president they take the heat, blame and anger of a tired, oppressed and frustrated public with them. Yet, the conspiracy toward a sinister New World Order continues from generation to generation. We are beholding the deliberate dismantling of the United States.

   Put another way, the Old World Order must be totally destroyed first, before a New World Order can arise from its ashes. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) explains this prophetic phenomena in his 1970 sermon titled: ’[2]WHY THE ANTICHRIST MUST COME SOON.’ Our nation is in shambles today in 2023—morally, physically, economically, socially, educationally, agriculturally, spiritually and in every other way. God will not continue to bless an ungodly nation of proud and immoral thrill-seekers, drunkards, drug attics, abortionists, idolaters, homosexuals, adulterers, thieves, nudists, blasphemers and greedy liars.

2. The News Media Are Deceptive Liars. A second reason why you cannot trust anything that the news media says (American, Australian and European alike) is that they lie continually. I was disgusted this week to hear in the news that syndicated radio host Alex Jones is living large. According to multiple news media sources, [3]Alex splurged in the month of July, spending upwards of $100,000. But I listened to Alex himself yesterday on The Alex Jones Show, in which he denied the allegations. According to Alex, he spent most of that money to pay his attorney’s fees, taxes owed and to renovate his dilapidated office. Do you see how the news media lies just to hurt people?

   Granted, we don’t know exactly how large Alex lives. But so what? And I’ll tell you another thing. What the state of Connecticut did to Alex Jones is wicked as can be, requiring him through some kangaroo court to pay $965,000,000 in damages to the families of the alleged Sandy Hook shooting victims in 2021. What was Alex horrible offense? The man merely had an opinion. Alex said publicly in 2012 that he didn’t believe any children were killed at Sandy Hook, Connecticut, and that it was a False Flag staged terror attack.

Alex has a right to his opinion. Is this not America?

I understand that this doesn't give anyone the right to shout

"fire" in a crowded theater, but Alex having an opinion didn't do anything but perhaps hurt some feelings. Far more likely is that Alex got too close to THE TRUTH and the Luciferian powers lurking behind Washington DC to subvert and destroy our country are making an example of Alex. One thing is clear, the powers that be want to destroy and silence Alex Jones.

The News Media are professional thug bullies, manipulators and liars. They could make Adolf Hitler shine like Mother Teresa, or make Jeffrey Dahmer look like an angel. Proof of what I say is that mass-murdering, racist, [4]eugenicist Margaret Sanger is much praised by the American media. Sanger publicly stated that [5]their goal was to exterminate the Negro population. Truth is stranger than fiction. Margaret Sanger was an ungodly monster!

I am against what the state of Connecticut is doing to Alex Jones. I have a right to my opinion. [6]In this article I explain why I don't think anyone was killed at Sandy Hook. Facebook has banned my Lovethetruth.com website because of the the preceding article, because they want to suppress public opinion that questions their bogus official narrative. Soon after the alleged Sandy Hook shooting took place in 2012, the first thing the governor of Connecticut did was threaten to have arrested any citizen who dared to question the official Sandy Hook story. Who does that? What were they trying to hide? I smell a dead rat.

As far as I'm concerned, Alex Jones doesn't owe anybody anything. When bad men make rules, it takes good men to break them. When Mickey Delp in California falsely accused Boston band founder Tom Scholz of causing Brad Delp's suicide in 2007, Tom rightly sued her and The Boston Herald for defamation. Sadly, Tom lost in court and was ordered to pay $140,000 for legal costs to the The Boston Herald. What hypocrisy exists in this country! Why is it that Mickey Delp (Brad's former wife) and The Boston Herald can smear Tom's name in the mud based on mere hearsay and opinion, but Alex Jones cannot have a contrary opinion about Sandy Hook? What the hell is going on in America? As the true saying goes: "Justice is very human."

God knows that I do not hate any living soul. I love people, but I hate the lies that harm people. The news media in the United States is full of lies and deception. Anyone who is familiar with science or mechanics, fully knows that it would have been utterly impossible for some random fires to cause an entire 47-story tower to implode in just 6.5 seconds, in a perfect symmetrical systematic order. Anyone who is familiar with controlled demolition knows that buildings 1, 2 and 7 were "

Like many thinking Americans, I was sickened in the years following the September 11th, 2001 attacks on the World Trade Center (WTC) in New York. I know bullcrap when I hear it. How do 2 planes bring down 3 buildings? It is IMPOSSIBLE! How do planes cause two 110 story skyscrapers to collapse in just 10 seconds each, when not one steel framed skyscraper has ever imploded in such a manner? I smell another dead rat.

The [7]University of Fairbanks, Alaska, did a study and concluded that it was IMPOSSIBLE for fire to cause the 6.5 second implosion and collapse of WTC building #7. Yet, [8]the liars at USA Today continue to LIE to the American people, still laying to us that fire caused a 57-story building to implode in just 6.5 seconds. Watch the controlled demolition for yourself at 3:25 time in the video. ...

(fires did not do this, controlled demolition did)

We've all been lied to by the controlled news media, as controlled as those carefully placed explosives were on that fateful day for 2,977 victims on September 11th, 2001. Pastor Jack Hyles was so right: "The only thing you can believe in the daily newspaper is the date."

4.9.13 What Is Lordship Salvation? (2023-09-18 09:17)

Matthew 7:21-23, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

Here is Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold's helpful definition of 'Lordship Salvation':

> "Lordship Salvation is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the performance of good works, the promise of good works, or the evidence of good works, must accompany faith in Christ to establish or provide evidence that such faith has resulted in eternal life." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, "[1]Jesus Versus John MacArthur"

God's Word clearly states that salvation is by Grace alone, through Faith alone, in Jesus Christ alone.

> Ephesians 2:8-9, " For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast. "

As Dr. Yankee Arnold said, Lordship "salvation" is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the PERFORMANCE of good works, the PROMISE of good works, or the EVIDENCE of good works MUST accompany faith in Christ in order to establish, or provide evidence, that such faith has resulted in eternal life:

1. Lordship Salvation can be overt (i.e., one must forsake all of his sins and follow Christ in obedience and discipleship in order to receive eternal life);
2. Or it can be VERY SUBTLE [i.e., one's behavior will change once he has received eternal life, one must desire to get better (sometimes expressed as one must want to be delivered from the power of sin, or that one must want to be freed from the practice of sin) in order to receive eternal life, and one must want to have a relationship with Jesus in order to receive eternal life].

Nowhere in the Bible does it say that any of these man-made conditions are necessary for a lost sinner to receive eternal life. And yet, such things are sadly taught today by many churches, ministries and pastors throughout professing Christendom. Lordship Salvation is a perversion of the Gospel.

Christians must expose the people who promote Lordship Salvation

because, they:

1. Keep people lost (Matthew 7:21-23; Luke 8-12; 2nd Corinthians 4:3-4)
2. Subvert whole houses (Titus 1:9-14)
3. Preach another gospel (Galatians 1:6-7)
4. Are accursed by God (Galatians 1:8-9)
5. Deceptively appear as ministers of righteousness (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15)
6. Obscure the truth (Matthew 7:13-14; 2nd Corinthians 4:3-4)
7. Negate God's grace (Romans 11:6)
8. Frustrate God's grace (Galatians 2:21)
9. Make salvation of Debt instead of by Grace (Romans 4:4)
10. Bewitch churches with a counterfeit gospel (Galatians 3:1)
11. Have fallen from grace (Galatians 5:4)
12. Are to be marked and avoided (Romans 16:17-18)

In addition to the above,

causes people to focus on themselves, rather than on Christ, for assurance of salvation.

We cannot know whether or not someone influenced by Lordship Salvation is saved. In some cases, they may have never even heard the Gospel presented clearly, and may have never believed on Jesus as their Savior (Acts 15:1). In other cases, they may have believed in Jesus as their Savior, and are saved, but have received bad teaching that causes them ongoing confusion (Acts 15:5). We cannot tell which is which. But, in any case, they need our prayers and they need [2]a clear presentation of the Gospel.

Although the following list is by no means complete, these are some of the terms which are commonly associated with Lordship Salvation (taught as being requirements for receiving eternal life):

1. "Repent of your sins"
2. "Turn from your sins"
3. "Forsake a lifestyle of sinning"
4. "Be willing to turn from your sins"
5. "Put Christ on the throne of your life"
6. "Surrender all to Christ"
7. "Give your life to Christ"
8. "Change your behavior to prove you've repented to be saved"

9. “Become a Christ follower”
10. “Commit to follow Christ”
11. “Invite Christ into your life”
12. “Invite Jesus into your heart”
13. “Give the steering wheel of your life to God”
14. “Live a lifestyle of repentance”
15. “Pray a sinner’s prayer”

Most proponents of Lordship Salvation will claim to believe that salvation is by Grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone; but then they will insist that a saved person will show signs of being saved, such as sinning less and doing good works. If these “signs” are not present, they will insist (or at least heavily suspect) that a person has never believed in Christ as Savior. This thought process can never lead to assurance of salvation, because it is always dependent on how one thinks he is DOING at any given point in time (I put DOING in all cap letters, because it is a WORK). Jonah 3:10b says that “ God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way...

” Turning from one’s sin is WORKS!!!

Other folks may think that God knows whether or not they are TRYING (we put TRYING in all caps, because it is also a WORK). Trying to turn from sin will not help you attain eternal life. Eternal life is a free gift, which Jesus paid for with His precious blood, freely received when someone trusts in Christ alone for it. You must simply BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for you.

If you think you may be under the influence of Lordship Salvation, and would like to read a clear presentation of the Gospel by Pastor Ron Shea, click here: ’[3]The Gospel’

Here is a [4]related blog that I wrote.

Here is Pastor Jack Hyles [5]explaining and refuting the false teaching of Lordship Salvation.

Pastor Curtis Hutson authored a helpful book titled, "Salvation Crystal Clear." The last chapter in his book is titled: "[6]Lordship Salvation: A Perversion Of The Gospel."

Those resources should answer the question: ’WHAT IS LORDSHIP SALVATION?’ Lordship Salvation is adding lordship to faith. The Bible teaches that a person gets saved by coming to God as a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20), and BELIEVING the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) that Jesus died on a cross to pay our debt of sin, He was buried, and then He bodily resurrected three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

In sharp contrast, Lordship Salvation requires MORE. Those who preach Lordship Salvation require that a person turn away from their sinful ways, surrender ’all’ to Jesus as the supreme "Lord" (Master) of one’s life, so that their life and behavior will improve.

I knew a Christian lady who attended the incompetent Family Baptist Church on Guam. At church on a particular Sunday, when people were asked to share testimonies, she stood up and shared with the church how she led 3 co-workers to Christ that previous week. The ungodly intern pastor corrected her, saying that she doesn't really know if they are saved yet, until we have watched their lives for a couple years to see if their lives have changed. That is false doctrine.

You see, that is Lordship Salvation. That terrible wannabe pastor is errantly teaching people that we cannot know if someone is saved without monitoring their behavior. That is works! When 3,000 souls were saved in Acts 2:41, nobody's life was watched and monitored to see if their behavior had changed. They simply GLADLY RECEIVED the Gospel Peter preached and they were all immediately saved. That is the simplicity that is in Christ.

We hear a preacher preach the Gospel and we receive THE TRUTH and are saved. Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or □□ □□□ □□□□□□□ □□ □□□□□?" I love that! We get saved by putting our faith in the Gospel as we hear it preached (Hebrews 4:2). That is the hearing of faith.

It is that simple to get to Heaven.

Unfortunately, Lordship Salvation says faith is not enough to be saved. In addition, proponents of Lordship Salvation falsely claim you must also follow Christ as "Lord" of your life. You must be willing to do whatever Jesus wants you to do. You must turn away from the world, and forsake your former sinful ways which results in a changed holy life. Anybody who claims to be saved, but is still living a lifestyle of sinning, is wrongly accused of not being saved. That person is told they have never repented of their sins and are not truly saved. Of course, none of this is what the Bible teaches.

Misunderstood Repentance And Lordship Salvation

There is the popular deadly false teaching of [7]Misunderstood Repentance, which is similar but sometimes taught separately from Lordship Salvation.

Usually the lies of Lordship Salvation and Misunderstood Repentance co-exist, but some pastors actually reject Lordship Salvation, while still preaching the error of Misunderstood Repentance. [8]Sam Adams is one such corrupt preacher. [9]David W. Cloud is another. Please don't fall hook, line and sinker (like so many do today) for the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. Remember, Satan is a beautiful liar!

We do not have a part in God's free gift of salvation. Our part is to cease from our own WORKS (as God did from His on the 7th day of creation), and to completely REST in what Jesus did to pay for our debt if sin through Calvary's cross. Hebrews 4:10-11,

"For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief." The man who has ceased from his own works, and is resting solely in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ is saved. ...

> "More people will die and burn in Hell, because they're trusting too much!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[10]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"

> "Everything that's hard and complicated about salvation is God's side of it!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[11]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"

Dear reader, the very idea that you must repent of your sins to get to Heaven is preposterous, in lieu of the fact that NO ONE has ever turned from his or her sins. You may clean up your life of obvious sins, so as to live above reproach and convince others that you are a changed person, but the fact of the matter is that you are still a dirty rotten sinner! Whether you are trying to live right, or not, it doesn't matter as far as getting saved in concerned because you are still a sinner. Committing even one sin makes you guilty, as if you broke all of God's commandments. Either way, you are unclean (James 2:10).

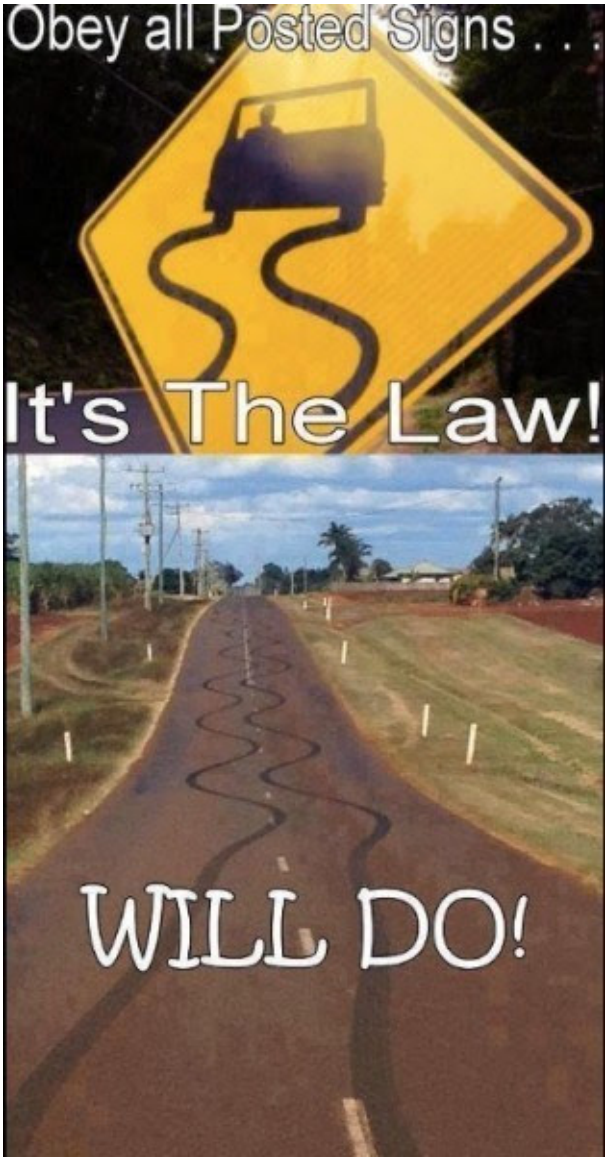
The great unbiblical error of "repenting of your sins" to be saved has consumed the religious masses today. This dangerous heresy has infected nearly every neo-evangelical church and Bible college today, espousing doctrines of devils. The only thing that you and I contribute to our own salvation is the sin that made it necessary. Salvation is of the LORD. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.



Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan said it best, I humbly think...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Bravo! To protect and Gospel of free grace, it is imperative that we always keep service separate from salvation. We must keep discipleship completely sperate from sonship. One thing has nothing to do with the other thing.

4.9.14 The Deity Of Christ And Satan's Modern Bible PERversions (2023-09-18 17:21)

Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar."

The Deity of Jesus Christ has always been a strong belief of true Christianity. Likewise, those "churches", groups, or organizations who do not recognize the Deity of Jesus Christ are easily seen to not be true Christians but rather false religions. The contention regarding the Deity of Christ is certainly nothing new. Ever since the days of Jesus there has been a great dispute as to whether He was God or not. As you know many times the Pharisees took up stones to stone Him because He made the claim that He was God (John 10:24-33). The Pharisees of His day rejected His claim, so too have many throughout history even up to our present day.

Gnosticism, a pre-Christian pagan religion, is one such group that denies the Deity of Jesus. After the death of Christ, however, Gnosticism began to infiltrate the church (around 85 to 90 AD). Dr. Thomas Holland writing in his Introduction to the Epistle of 1st John makes the following comments, "Gnostics believed in the duel nature of all things. They claimed that whatever is spiritual is good, and what is physical is evil. Since God is a Spirit, He is good and could not have created the physical universe, which they considered evil. They also believed God created other gods (called "aeons") who created the physical universe.

One such Gnostic, Cerinthus, took the teachings of pagan Gnosticism and mixed them with Christianity. He taught that Jesus was born of Joseph and Mary and became the "Christ" thirty years later at the time of his baptism. Therefore, according to this form of Gnosticism, Jesus Christ had a dual nature. He was both Jesus (physical) and the "Christ" (spiritual). At the crucifixion, so taught Cerinthus, the "Christ" departed leaving only the human Jesus to die. He claimed there was no resurrection of the physical body of Jesus. Cerinthus also proclaimed that "Christ" was the aeon (a lesser god) who made the earth. ...Much of Cerinthus' false doctrine can still be seen in the modern teachings of the Jehovah's Witnesses."

Most, if not all, Christians recognize the Jehovah's Witnesses as a false religion. They also acknowledge that the New World Translation, the Jehovah's Witnesses' Bible, is a corrupt work. What they don't know is that the modern translation they are using is a close parallel to the New World Translation (NWT). Since we know that the Jehovah's Witnesses deny the Deity of Christ and have altered their Bible to correspond with their belief. I thought it necessary to take a look at some of the most important scriptures dealing with the Deity of Christ to see just how the modern translations compare with the NWT and with the King James Version (KJV). Obviously, we won't be able to cover every verse due to time and space but we will cover as many as possible. Due to the amount of verses we will be looking at I will attempt to keep my comments to as little as possible.

We will begin examining the belief that Joseph and Mary was His father and mother. Luke 2:33 reads as follows:

> New International Version (NIV) - The child's father and mother marveled at what was said about him.

New American Standard Bible (NASB) - And his father and his mother were marveling at the things which were spoken concerning him;

New World Translation (NWT) - And its father and mother continued wondering at the things being spoken about it.

King James Version (KJV) - And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

Notice how the NIV, NASV, and NWT all agree in calling Joseph Jesus' "father". The KJV rightly states "Joseph" instead of "father" knowing that Joseph was not Jesus' Father. Let's look at one more example: Luke 2:43 reads as follows:

NIV - After the Feast was over, while his parents were returning home, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem, but they were unaware of it.

NASB - and when they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and his parents knew it not;

NWT - and completed the days. But when they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, and his parents did not notice it.

KJV - And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.

Again, we see that the NIV and NASV agree with the NWT. And again the KJV is careful to call him "Joseph". Think this is insignificant? Remember the beliefs of the Gnostics and the Jehovah's Witnesses (JW's). Any small change is important when it fosters heresy. But believe me it only gets worse from here.

* * * * * *

Remember the Gnostic/JW's belief that the "Christ" did not die on the cross? They believe that the "Christ" (the spiritual) left, leaving only "Jesus" (the physical) to die on the cross. Let's take a look at a verse that pertains to this exact issue. Luke 23:42 reads as follows:

NIV - Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

NASB - And he said, Jesus, remember me when thou comest in thy kingdom.

NWT - And he went on to say: "Jesus, remember me when you get into your kingdom."

KJV - And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

Again, notice the NIV, NASV, and NWT are all in agreement in having the malefactor call Him "Jesus" (the physical) , his earthly name. This adds to the belief that the "Christ" (the spiritual) had left. However, the KJV rightly records the malefactor as saying "Lord" (the spiritual) thus refuting the belief that “Christ” had left before the crucifixion. Again, this may seem like a small thing to you but it carries a lot of weight doctrinally.

* * * * * *

All are familiar with the story of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego in the fiery furnace. Let’s take a quick look at how our Bibles translate Daniel 3:25 as follows:

> NIV - He said, "Look! I see four men walking around in the fire, unbound and unharmed, and the fourth looks like a son of the gods."
> NASB - He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the aspect of the fourth is like a son of the gods.
> NWT - He was answering and saying: “Look! I am beholding four able-bodied men walking about free in the midst of the fire, and there is no hurt to them, and the appearance of the fourth one is resembling a son of the gods.”
> KJV - He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God.

I don’t think this one needs a whole lot of commentary. I believe you can see the absurdity of the NIV, NASV, and NWT translation of “a son of the gods”. Again, the KJV upholds the integrity of “the Son of God.”

* * * * * *

Another attack on the Sonship of Jesus can be found in Acts 3:13, 4:27, and 4:30. For the article we will only look at Acts 3:13:

> NIV - The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus.
> NASB - The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Servant Jesus;
>
> NWT - The God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob, the God of our forefathers, has glorified his Servant, Jesus,
> KJV - The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus;

Again, the NIV and the NASV stand shoulder to shoulder with the NWT. Now Jesus is no longer a “Son” but rather a “servant.”

* * * * * *

For our next example we want to look at Romans 14:10b &12. Remember we are talking about how the modern versions take away from the Deity of Christ as found in scripture. Romans 14:10b and 12 reads as follows:

NIV - "...For we will all stand before God's judgment seat. 12 So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God."

NASB - ...For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of God. 12 So then each one of us shall give account of himself to God.

NWT - ...For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of God; 12 So, then, each of us will render an account for himself to God.

KJV - ...for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. 12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

Here the change is very subtle but has great implications. As you see in the NIV, NASB, and NWT they each say we will stand before "God's judgment seat" and then we will give an account to "God." However, the KJV renders it quite different. The KJV says we will stand before the "judgment seat of Christ" and then we will give an account to "God". Here is a very clear statement by the KJV that Christ is indeed God. Again the NIV and the NASB agree with the NWT in making the change from "Christ" to "God" in Romans 14:10 thus in these verses they deny the Deity of Christ.

Now we want to look at Philippians 2:6. This is a very familiar verse that should be well-known to most. Pay special attention to the wording of each Bible. (emphasis mine)

NIV - Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped,

NASB - who, although He existed in the form of God, did not regard equality with God a thing to be grasped,

NWT - who, although he was existing in God's form, gave no consideration to a seizure, namely, that he should be equal to God.

KJV - Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

Did Jesus consider Himself equal with God or not? Both cannot be correct! Here the NIV, NASB, and NWT all agree, however, they are in direct opposition to what the KJV says. The NIV, NASB, and NWT clearly contradict the teaching of the Trinity and negates much of the teaching of past church history. It is easy to see how and why the NWT does so but what about the NIV and NASB? Again we see that the NIV and the NASB side with the Jehovah's Witnesses Bible in detracting from the Deity of Christ.

* * * * * *

Next we want to look at what perhaps is the greatest statement in scripture declaring that Jesus was "God." Nothing could be more clearer about the Deity of Christ than I Timothy 3:16. Let's see how the various translations handle this verse.

NIV - Beyond all question, the mystery of godliness is great: He appeared in a body,...

NASB - And by common confession great is the mystery of godliness: He who was revealed in the flesh,

NWT - Indeed, the sacred secret of this godly devotion is admittedly great: 'He was made manifest in flesh,

KJV - And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh,

Here it is easy to see why the Jehovah's Witnesses translated this verse as they did since they completely reject that Jesus was "God manifest in the flesh". It is quite shameful that the NIV and the NASB have followed along with this corrupt work in changing "God" to "He." Of course "He" appeared in a body, Paul appeared in a body, you appeared in a body, and I appeared in a body. The NIV and the NASB have completely changed the essence of this verse by translating it as "He."

Despite the overwhelming manuscript evidence the NIV and the NASB alter their text to read "He." Dean Burgon, perhaps the greatest scholar ever, had this to say, "The reading adopted by the revisors, is not found in more than two copies, is not supported by a single version, and is not clearly advocated by a single Father." I am not going to cover all the evidence for the reading "God", as found in the KJV, in this essay. I will, however, devote another whole essay to I Timothy 3:16. In it we can look at the reading "God" in much greater detail.

* * * * * *

Perhaps one of the most favorite verses of the modern version propionate is 1st John 5:7. I John 5:7 is one of the clearest verses on the Trinity in the entire Bible. Here we see clearly that Jesus and God are one. 1st John 5:7 reads as follows:

NIV - For there are three that testify:

NASB - And it is the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is the truth.

NWT - For there are three witness bearers,

KJV - For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. (emphasis mine)

Here you can see that the NIV and the NASB are again in agreement with the NWT. They each omit the wonderful phrase "in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one" which plainly speaks of Jesus' Deity. Again we can see that the NIV and NASB have sided with the NWT in denying the Deity of Christ. Since there is so much controversy regarding 1st John 5:7 I will discuss this verse in greater detail in another essay.

I know this was a rather lengthy essay but I felt it was necessary considering the subject we were dealing with. The Deity of Christ is of vital importance to the Christian and we must be sure that the Bible we are using upholds the Deity of Christ in every point. As I said at the beginning this is by no means all the verses where the modern versions take away from the Deity of Christ. I could have easily listed many more but I believe the ones listed at least make you aware of the problem in modern versions. The argument is often made that the modern versions don't completely deny the Deity of Christ. To this I will agree. There are still some verses in the modern versions that attest to the Deity of Christ. However, as you have seen, it is a whole lot harder to prove the Deity of Christ in the modern versions than it is in the KJV.

The question must also be asked, "what will they alter in the versions that are yet to be translated?" If they have went this far out of the way to water down the Deity of Christ one would have to wonder when they will eventually do away with any reference to the Deity of Christ. As I have shown you the KJV is far superior in presenting and preserving the Deity of Christ. As Christians we must reject any translation that deals treacherously with the Deity of Christ. It is our job to "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints." If we will do this honestly we will cling to the Bible that without question bolsters the Deity of Christ. And that Bible is the King James Version. END

The Alexandrian Based Modern Revisions All Attack Jesus' Deity

The Alexandrian Bible texts refer to their origin from Alexandria, Egypt), upon which all modern Bible revisions are either wholly based, or adversely influenced to some degree.

I gratefully attended an awesome King James Bible seminar taught by Dr. Al Lacy back in 1992 at Hyles-Anderson College (HAC). [1]I have transcribed my notes, which you are welcome to share with others, and copy to your own website or social media (as is true of everything that I post on social media; freely help yourself). I want THE TRUTH to get out to everyone!

It was no coincidence that the Alexandrian texts (which Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort based their Greek translation upon, completed in 1881), brutally attack all the key passages concerning Christ's deity and the Godhead. The word "godhead" has been completely obliterated from Romans 1:20, Acts 17:29 and Colossians 2:9 (the only three mentions of this important word are found in the King James Bible). Satan has removed each mention of "godhead" from all of the new Bible versions.

YOU CAN TRUST YOUR INSPIED KING JAMES BIBLE!!! And may I say, the King James Bible is God's Word, not merely a "version."

One of Satan's most blatant attacks on the Holy Scripture is found in John 3:16. ...

> King James Bible (KJB) - John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." [emphasis added]
> New International Version (NIV) - John 3:16, "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life." [emphasis added]

All of the Alexandrian based corrupt Bible revisions remove the word begotten, perverting the Word of God into a lie. God has many sons. John 1:12, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name."* [emphasis added]. Every born-again believer is an adopted son of God . . . "Whereby we cry, Abba, Father" (Romans 8:15b). God has many adopted sons (the saints), but He only has one biological (i.e., begotten Son), and that is the precious Lord Jesus Christ! The NIV, NASB, ESV and all modern Bible revisions and paraphrases, pervert the living Words of God almighty, changing THE TRUTH into a lie (Romans 1:25).

The New International Version (NIV) is of the Devil. So also are The Voice (VOICE), the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV), the Holman Christian Standard Bible (HCSB), the New King James Version (NKJV), the Contemporary English Version (CEV), and hundreds more English perversions!!! Folks, God only authored ONE BOOK! I hold a faithful translation of that inspired, preserved, inerrant, holy, infallible, perfect Book in my hand, which is the precious King James Bible!!! The King James Bible is preserved and inspired dear reader!!! If that makes me a member of a cult in the view of some fools, then so be it, but I have THE TRUTH.

In every place in the New Testament where someone "worshipped" Jesus, the nefarious Alexandrian gang maliciously changed the word to a mere "bowed" or "knelt." Well, if I drop something onto the floor by accident and bow down to pick it up, I am not worshipping it, am I?

> King James Bible (KJB) - Matthew 8:2, "And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean."
> New International Version (NIV) - Matthew 8:2, "A man with leprosy came and knelt before him and said, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean." [emphasis added]

This is a blatant attack against Jesus' deity (i.e., the truth that He is almighty God). Oh dear friend, how many more corrupt Bible passages do I need to show you, in order to fully convince you that ALL of today's Bible revisions are of the Devil? In all the modern Bible revisions, Christ is no longer worshipped. I triple-dog dare you to check and see for yourself. Go and open any modernized Westcott and Hort Bible version to Matthew 8:2. Does your Bible version say that the leper worshipped Jesus, or merely knelt before Him? The corrupt revisions attack Christ's preeminence and deity. Now you know.

Only The King James Bible Translators Inserted Italics For Clarity

The following corruption is subtle, yet profound. The 47 translators (there were originally 54, but 7 men purportedly didn't feel worthy enough to translate God's word and resigned) of the King James Bible, were so scholarly that they used italics for any words added that they felt added clarity to a Scripture passage. I have intentionally not italicized the following quoted Scriptures, so you can see which word(s) were italicized by the King James translators. (And please note, the translators of the New International Version (NIV) and all modern revisions were so dishonest that none of them used italics. That speaks volumes concerning which Bible you can trust!

King James Bible (KJB) - John 8:24, “I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.” [emphasis added]

New International Version (NIV) - John 8:24, “I told you that you would die in your sins; if you do not believe that I am he, you will indeed die in your sins.” [emphasis added]

Notice that the pronoun “he” is italicized in the King James Bible, but not in the NIV. Hence, the original Textus Receptus Greek says, “I AM.” Jesus is saying that if you do not believe that “I AM,” you will perish in your sins (i.e., go to Hell forever). To understand the significance of “I AM,” please read Exodus 3:14: “And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.” To claim to be “I AM” is to claim to be God almighty. Jesus was claiming to be God almighty.

The NIV translators assumed (ass-u-me) what God meant, and just put whatever they felt like putting in their new translation. The King James Bible translators were not so arrogant.

The truth is further evidenced in John 8:58, “Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.” It is very clear that the Jews understood what Jesus was claiming, because in verse 59 they tried to stone Him to death, but He hid Himself. John 8:59, “Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.”

By removing the italics, the modern Bible corrupters have removed Jesus’ claim of being the “I AM” from John 8:24. It is for you the reader to decide what was intended in the original Greek, which is exactly why the King James translators put those added words for clarity in italics . If you understand the significance of what I am saying, then you ought to have a deep appreciation for the superb scholarship of the King James Bible. The King James Bible leave the choice of meaning up to you, the reader. Even the 54 translators of the King James Bible refused to take it upon themselves to assume what God meant.

Those italics in the King James Bible (if you have a more expensive Bible) show us the high level of honesty and scholarship that was used in translating the beloved King James Bible. Not one modern paraphrase nor revision is that honest. None of them use italics. (And also keep in mind that online versions of the King James Bible often DO NOT use italics, which are not authentic King James Bibles.) If you go to the store and buy a quality King James Bible, it will come with the italics. Pay close attention to the italics when studying your Bible.

4.9.15 The FALSE GOSPEL of ANSWERS IN GENESIS and KEN HAM (2023-09-20 00:37)

Galatians 1:6-7, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto *another gospel:*Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.”

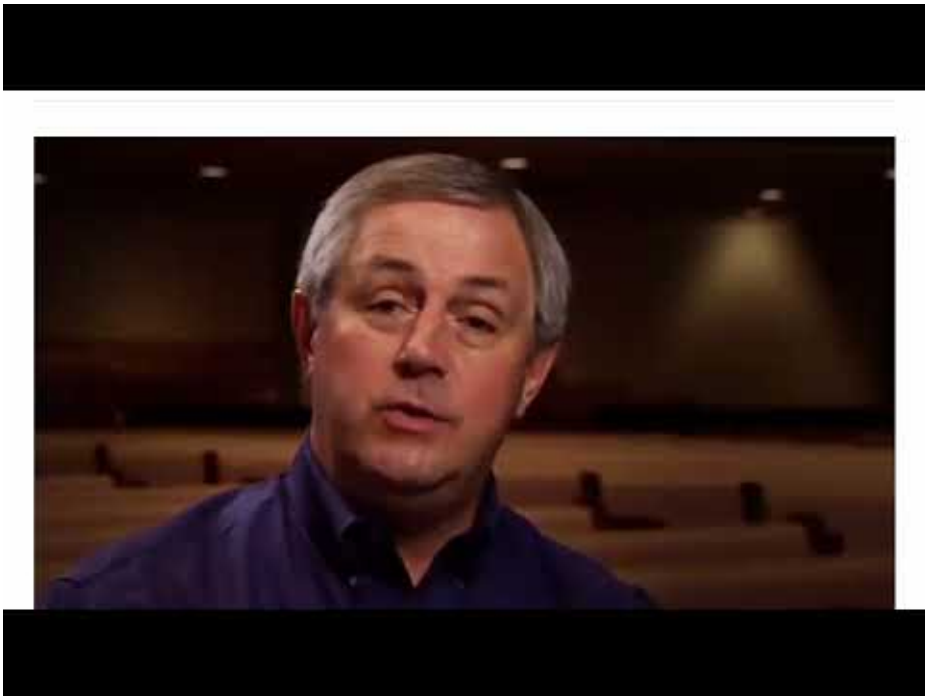
The Apostle Paul warned the Galatians that FALSE TEACHERS were preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL, but he quickly points out that it is not another Gospel, for the simple reason that THERE IS ONLY ONE GOSPEL. The “gospel” according to John 20:31, 1st Corinthians 1:18 and 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 is the ’GOOD NEWS’ that Jesus is the Christ (the only begotten Son of God), who DIED on a cross, was BURIED, and then by the power of God He miraculously physically RESUURECTED bodily from the dead three days later.

You must understand that you are a guilty sinner (you’ve got to know why you need to be saved); and that there is a penalty for your sinning (which is eternal damnation in the fires of Hell). If you come to God on those terms as a needy sinner, and by faith receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that Christ rose from the dead, you are forever permanently saved dear reader. Either you are saved forever or you are not saved!

Tragically, Pensacola Christian College, Crown College, Commonwealth Baptist College, and umpteen more Bible colleges today either bring their students to Ken Ham’s Ark Encounter (or, they invite Ken Ham to speak at their colleges while honoring Ken Ham).

To my knowledge NONE of the aforementioned colleges expose and preach against Mr. Ham, ’REBUKING HIM SHARPLY’ for preaching another gospel (Titus 1:9-11).

According to Ken Ham’s ANSWERS-IN-GENESIS cult, to get to Heaven you must do THREE THINGS:



1. Trust in Jesus

2. Repent, by turning from your wicked way

3. Begin to follow Christ

BLASPHEMY!!! Watch the heretical Answers-In-Genesis video for yourself:

The FALSE GOSPEL of ANSWERS IN GENESIS and KEN HAM

The Holy Bible disagree with Answers-In-Genesis and teaching something very different.

Pensacola Christian College (PCC) wickedly bids Godspeed to infidel Ken Ham. ...

[1]Ken Ham on Twitter: "Such a blessing to speak to 4,000+ students at PCC

[2]The FALSE GOSPEL of ANSWERS IN GENESIS and KEN HAM

2nd John1:10-11, “

If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed:

For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.” Pensacola Christian College refuses to contend for the Christian faith; therefore, [3]they have been corrupted themselves.

It is a sad day in the United States when so-called ’Bible colleges’ like PCC [4]deny that we have an inspired perfect Holy Bible today. Consequently, PCC’s doctrine has deteriorated, going over to the power of the dark side with Darth Vader, now preaching another gospel. Yes, you read right dear friend, [5]PCC denies that we have God’s inspired Words for today.

What saith the Scripture? [illegible] "[illegible], [illegible], [illegible] [illegible]? [illegible], [illegible] [illegible]." I don’t see anything in the Bible about turning from your wicked ways, do you? I don’t see anything about beginning to following Christ, do you? I don’t either.

[illegible] "[illegible]; [illegible]." Did you see that? GOD SAW THEIR WORKS, that the Ninevites turned from their evil way. What saith the Scripture? □□□□□□ □:□□, "□□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□ □□□□□ □□□□□ □□ □□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□: □□□ □□ □□□ □□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□." Romans 4:4-7 teaches that salvation is by grace alone, and that a man's faith is counted (imputed) for righteousness, WITHOUT WORKS! □□□□□□□□□ □:□-□, "□□□ □□ □□□□□ □□□ □□ □□□□□ □□□□□□□ □□□□□; □□□ □□□□ □□□ □□ □□□□□□□□□□: □□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□: □□□ □□ □□□□□, □□□□ □□□ □□□ □□□□□□ □□□□□."

Where, Oh where, did Ken Ham and his staff at Answers-In-Genesis get the heretical false idea that more than faith is necessary to get to Heaven? Dear reader, there is only ONE GOSPEL.

Galatians 1:6-7, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ." What Ken Ham is teaching is in direct contradiction to the Holy Scripture.

History documentary producer Ken Burns, made an intriguing film series titled: '[6]The American Civil War'. It is heartbreaking history! If you want to learn all about The Civil War, you'll appreciate this docuseries. I just heard a quote in the film by President Abraham Lincoln that caught my attention...

> "In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!" —President Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865)

Why did Mr. Lincoln say that? It is because both the Northern Union and the Southern Confederacy claimed to be doing "God's will" in fighting The Civil War (1860-1965). Both President Jefferson Davis in the south, and President Abraham Lincoln in the north, said they were doing "God's will." As Mr. Lincoln wisely points out, that is IMPOSSIBLE! When two opposing parties are warring against each other, each claiming to be doing God's will, obviously someone is WRONG! That is why Abraham Lincoln made that powerful statement!

The same contradiction exists today between the free grace Gospel camp, versus the Lordship Salvation camp. Both sides may be, but one must be, WRONG! I t is absolutely IMPOSSIBLE that both sides are right. Either faith alone in Jesus Christ is enough to get to Heaven; or else faith plus works (turning from your evil way - Jonah 3:10) is necessary. Both of these two different plans of salvation may be wrong, but one must be. One of them may be correct, but both absolutely cannot be correct. We just read in Galatians 1:6-7 that there is only ONE GOSPEL. To lay the matter to rest, here is the Gospel as defined by the Apostle Paul:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "
>
> Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;
>
> By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.
>
> For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;
>
> And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

To be saved, you simply need to receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that after being buried, He physically resurrected from the dead three days later. 1st Thessalonians 4:14, " For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." Ken Ham is a theological liar! Nowhere does the inspired Holy Bible tell us to follow Christ, turn from our sinful way, or invite Jesus into our life to be saved. You may do all these things and have never been saved at all.

Jesus exclaimed to Nicodemus in no uncertain terms in John 3:7b that to enter into God's Kingdom,

YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN.

" Have you experienced the new birth from above dear reader? You get born-again by placing your childlike faith (confidence) in the seed of God's Word concerning Jesus Christ. If you will simply BELIEVE the written record, as recorded by almighty God in His inspired Word, you will be saved immediately, irrevocably and forever. ...

> 'Tis so sweet to trust in Jesus,
> Just to take Him at His Word;
> Just to rest upon His promise,
> And to know, "Thus saith the Lord!"
> Jesus, Jesus, how I trust Him!
> How I've proved Him o'er and o'er;
> Jesus, Jesus, precious Jesus!
> Oh, for grace to trust Him more!

Amen and amen! ...

> My hope is built on nothing less > Than Jesus Christ, my righteousness;
> I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
> But wholly lean on Jesus' name.
> On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
> All other ground is sinking sand,
> All other ground is sinking sand.

Boy, I really love those hymn lyrics! My hope is built on nothing less than Jesus Christ, who is my righteousness. My sin belongs to me, but my righteousness is Jesus Christ's. I dare not trust the sweetest frame of good works, forsaking a lifestyle of sinning, inviting Jesus into my life, asking Jesus into my heart, surrendering 'all' to Christ, church membership, water baptism, sacraments, or Lordship Salvation, but WHOLLY trust on Jesus' name.

If one day I go to Hell, it will be solely Jesus' fault, because I am WHOLLY trusting in His sacrifice on the cross, His burial and bodily resurrection. I am trusting in the precious blood that Jesus applied to the heavenly Mercy Seat in the presence of God the Father on my behalf (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24).

> Acts 20:27-28, "For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood."

The word 'purchased' means the right price applied to the right place.

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) explains this wonderful Bible truth in his book titled: '[7]THE CHURCH', in chapter 17 titled: ' [8]The Price For The Church. ' The PLACE is the Mercy Seat in the heavenly Holy Place in the Tabernacle (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24). The PRICE is the precious BLOOD of Jesus (Acts 20:28). Dr. John MacArthur denies that Jesus' literal liquid blood is applied (sprinkled according to Hebrews 12:24) to the Mercy Seat. The blood had to be applied or no one could ever have been redeemed.

For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect. " As we just read, the Old testament LAW was a SHADOW of good things to come. That is, everything holy that happened within the Old Testament tabernacle, was a prototype of the one in Heaven.

But instead of having a high priest each year—who killed a male lamb without spot nor blemish (symbolizing the perfect sinless Lamb of God), and then carrying that blood in a basin into the Holy of Holies (the most holy place in existence at the time), and then sprinkled that lamb's blood upon the mercy seat (which overlaid the Ark of the Covenant) in the presence of God (between the two cherubims looking down upon the mercy seat)—Jesus is our resurrected HIGH PRIEST today. ...

> Hebrews 4:14-15, "Seeing then that we have *a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin."

Jesus died as our sacrificial LAMB, but He raised up three days later and ascended into Heaven as our HIGH PRIEST. Romans 8:34, "Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us." What a wonderful God, Lord and Savior!!!

RUN from Ken Ham. The Apostle Paul wisely said in Galatians 2:4-5, "And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you." Paul saw that there were FALSE BRETHREN (like Ken Ham) who crept in unawares. Paul said they did not tolerate such lying false teachers, NO, NOT FOR AN HOUR!!!

So, why does PCC, Crown College, Commonwealth Bible College and other professed Christian institutions today wickedly TOLERATE Ken Ham and his sideshow circus, while he preaches another gospel of partial faith in Jesus plus works, which is accursed by God? Enough is enough! The time is now for every child of God to stop supporting Ken Ham and his counterfeit plan of salvation, and his heretical Young Earth theories (but that is a different blog). Ken Ham is not friend to the Gospel. To attack the grace of God is to attack the God of grace. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

John 8:44-45, "

Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not."

In Genesis 3:15, Eve was able to justify in her own mind eating of the forbidden fruit. In Genesis 2:16-17 God expressly forbade Adam and Eve from eating of the fruit from the Tree of Knowledge in the midst of the Garden of Eden. But God did give them permission to eat of all the other trees in the garden. But notice how sneaky the serpent (Satan) is. Genesis 3:1, "Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?" Did you catch that? The serpent told Eve that God said they COULDN'T eat of any of the trees, but that is not what God said. The Lord said they COULD eat of all the trees, except one. The important lesson to learn here is that the Devil always lies.

While Russian president Vladimir Putin repeatedly denies targeting nurseries, hospitals and schools with Russian bombs, women and children continue to die from Russian artillery. It couldn't be more obvious that Putin is a blatant liar. Sadly, our own U.S. leaders have also proven themselves to be notorious liars. The [1]controlled U.S. newsmedia still insist 22 years later that it was fires that caused the three World Trade Center buildings to collapse on September 11th, 2001. But that is one of the biggest lies ever told. The [2]University of Fairbanks, Alaska, did a study decades after 911 and concluded that fires DIDN'T cause the collapse of those three World Trade Center buildings.

Lies, lies and more lies. We unfortunately live in a world of liars, especially in the United States. False advertising has become the norm in American culture. I have written some other blogs about this sad reality today. Here is one blog that I wrote titled: " [3]Most 'Free' Things Are Not Really Free .

" From the dishonest bank that promises you a 'free' gift for opening a new bank account, to the shady preacher who teaches that eternal life is a free gift from God but you must forsake a lifestyle of sinning to obtain it, they are all liars!

If you have to open a new account to obtain a gift from a bank, then it is actually an exchange of sorts, not a gift. To truly be a gift,

something can only be freely offered and freely taken. The dictionary defines a

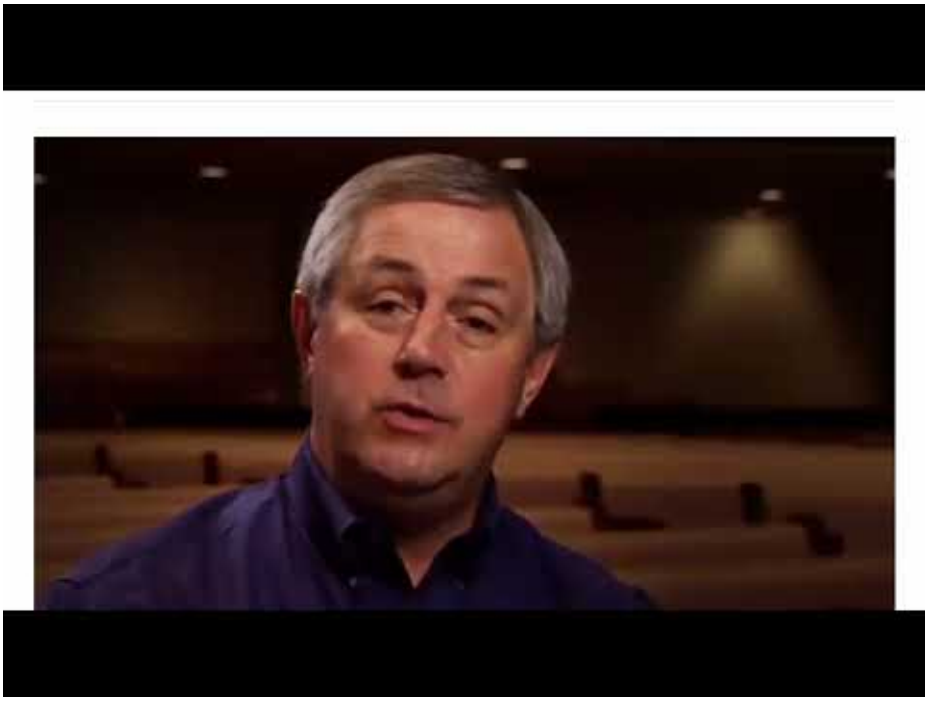
as something given freely without compensation.

One of the biggest religious con men in this generation is Pastor John MacArthur of ’Grace To You’ ministry in California. Whereas the inspired Word of God teaches in Romans 6:23 and Ephesians 2:8-9 that eternal life is a free gift from God, [4]Dr. MacArthur says that getting saved is an exchange, a trade of sorts (those are his exact words). How can something be a free gift, if you are required to give something in exchange for it? That wouldn’t be a gift, it would be a reward for doing your part.



This is why it should be obvious to you dear reader, what is so very wrong about the false teaching today that you have to repent “of your sins” or “turn from your sins” to get to Heaven. That would be an exchange, a trade of sorts, as John MacArthur errantly teaches. The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. Jesus came into the world to bare the weight and penalty of our debt of sin on the cross. John 3:17, “For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.”

The reason why Jesus didn’t need to condemn anybody is simply because the Old Testament law already does that. Romans 3:19-20, “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.” Most people don’t understand the purpose for which God gave the Ten Commandments (which is a summarization of the law as a whole, which in its entirety contains about 720 commandments). This includes moral, civil and ceremonial laws, which every Jew was commanded to obey under Mosaic law).

The true primary purpose of the law was not to keep in order to get to Heaven (which is what most people errantly think). The primary purpose for which the law was given by God is to give men THE KNOWLEDGE OF SIN (as we just read in Romans 3:20). God intended that when humanity tried to keep the law, but failed, the law would reveal our sinnership as humans, and bring us to Jesus Christ to be saved by God’s grace, through faith alone. God never intended for anyone to earn their way to Heaven by obeying the law. No one has ever been saved by keeping the law (Romans 3:20). Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Speaking of liars, here is Ken Ham's heretical 'Answers-In-Genesis' website, and one of his ministers of unrighteousness preaching a counterfeit Gospel. ...

[6]The FALSE GOSPEL of ANSWERS IN GENESIS and KEN HAM

The plan of salvation presented by ANSWERS-IN-GENESIS woefully contradicts the plan of salvation taught in the inspired King James Bible. Something is wrong! I smell a dead rat in Ken Ham's house. If you'd like to know more about what is wrong with Ken Ham's plan of salvation, [7]please read this helpful article that I wrote today. Ken Ham is bad news!!! And sadly, so are Pensacola Christian College for honoring his. This is unreal. You couldn't make this stuff up. Who would have thought 50 years ago when PCC opened their college doors in 1975, that they would be one of the biggest promoters of Satanic false doctrine concerning God's simple plan of salvation.

Here again is the same video as before (because I don't want you to miss this). By the way, [8]here is a simple free webpage where you can copy/paste a desired YouTube video into the 'Start' window, and then convert and save the file as an MP4 video on your computer. By God's grace, I now have a massive collection of favorite videos. This is also how I copy videos and reupload them to my own YouTube channels, as MP4's, which you are also welcome to do with any of my videos. I love to share. The more the merrier. God knows my labors (1st Corinthians 3:7-9). According to Ken Ham's ANSWERS-IN-GENESIS cult, to get to Heaven you must do THREE THINGS:

1. Trust in Jesus
2. Repent, by turning from your wicked way
3. Begin to follow Christ

BLASPHEMY!!! [9]Watch the heretical Answers-In-Genesis video again for yourself. The Holy Bible disagrees with Answers-In-Genesis and teaches something very different.

Another apostate institution today is Pensacola Christian College (PCC), who wickedly bid God-speed to hellbound infidel Ken Ham. ...

> [11]Ken Ham on Twitter: "Such a blessing to speak to 4,000+ students at PCC

2nd John 1:10-11, "If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." Pensacola Christian College (PCC) refuse to contend for the Christian faith (Jude 1:3; Titus 1:9-14; Ephesians 5:11); therefore, [13]they have been corrupted themselves. PCC has MUCH blood on their hands according to 2nd John 1:11, because they wickedly support, praise, honor and bid Godspeed to wicked FALSE TEACHERS like Ken Ham, Gary Walton, Steve Pettit, Tim Zacharias and Jeff Redlin. The Devil always lies! Please remember that. You can NEVER trust anything that the Devil or his children say. You can always tell when the Devil is lying, just look for when his lips move.

And then there's a lot of false or bad information available on cyberspace. For example: For decades elderly Americans have been told that taking an aspirin pill each day is a good way to prevent a heart attack or a stroke, since aspirin is known to think the blood to prevent blood clots, right. We'll, not so fast partner, [14]recent studies have shown that taking an aspirin each day can be risky and in some cases even cause a stroke or a heart attack. In fact, the FDA in recent years has advised against taking aspirin each day as a means of preventing blood clots. My own former doctor on Guam suggested that I take an aspirin pill each day, to prevent a stroke. That is what prompted me to do some research into the matter. What I found scared me, and convinced me that I need a different better doctor. Granted, I don't think my doctor meant to lie to me, but false information is just as dangerous as deliberate lies.

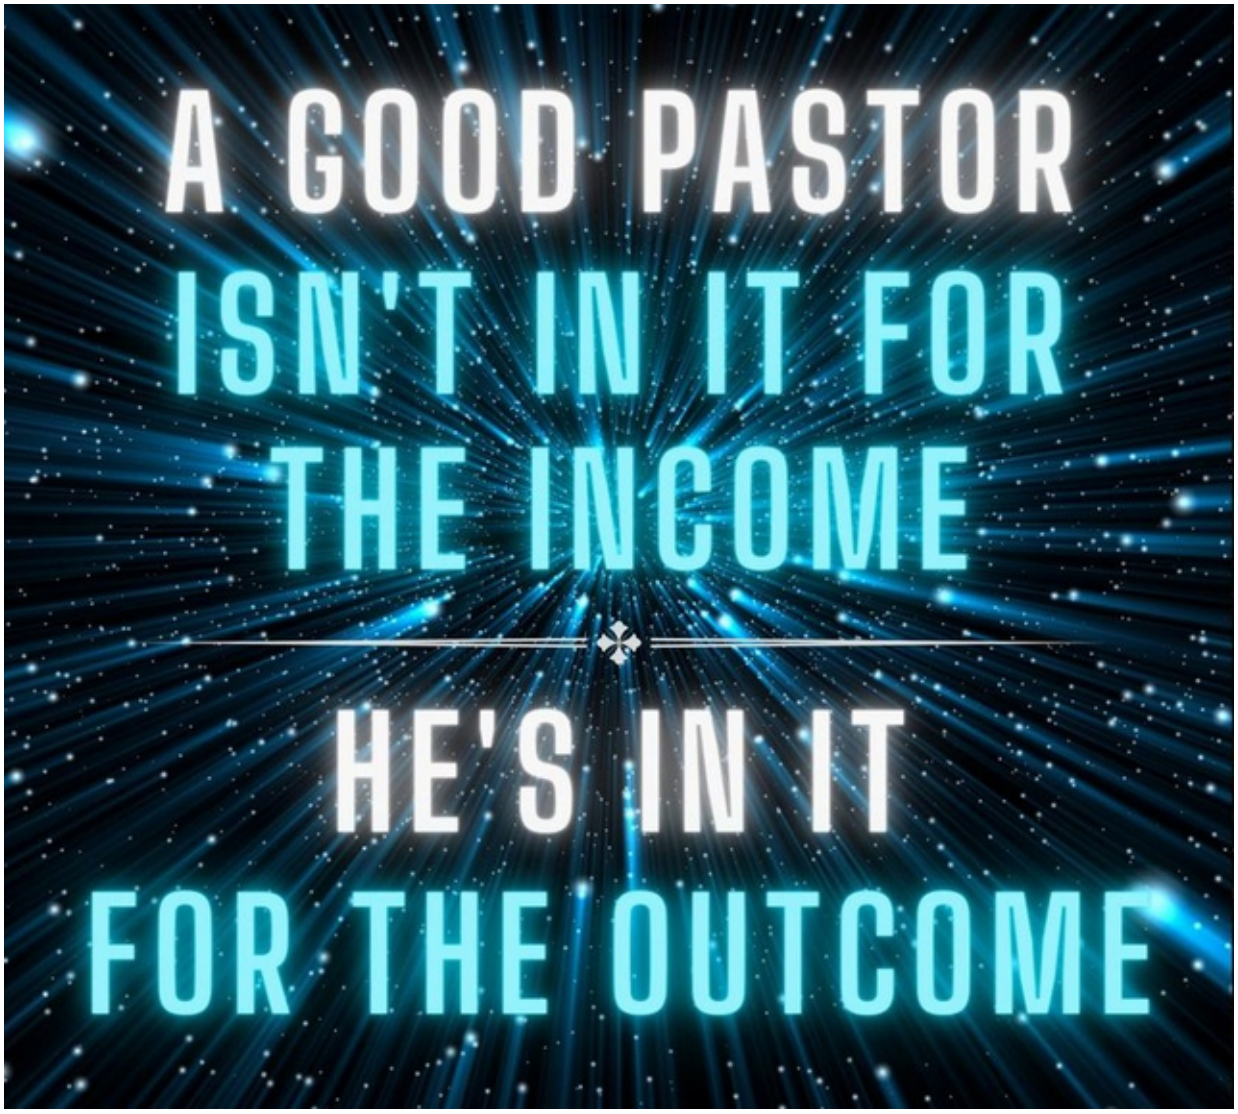
We live in a world of misinformation, disinformation and flat out blatant lies. I'd dare say that at least 80 % of the health advice provided online about dieting, losing weight, body building and fasting is WRONG information. Yet, millions of lazy people continue to purchase powders which come in bottles and packages, believing all the hype that somehow such gimmicks will restore, maintain and improve one's health. Supplements have become a multi-billion dollar lucrative industry in America. Dear reader, nothing can substitute for [15]a daily habit of eating fresh fruits, vegetables, whole grains, seeds, nuts, unprocessed meats and whole foods.



Cancer is virtually unheard of in Central and South America because they eat a diet rich in seeds, nuts, vegetables, fruits, whole meats; and they avoid processed foods which are devoid of nutrients and full of toxins (e.g., Titanium Dioxide and Sodium Aluminum Phosphate, which absolutely saturate our U.S foods). You cannot purchase 99 % of baking goods that don't contain Sodium Aluminum Phosphate (which absorbs moisture to retard spoilage). Why aren't the food companies warning everyone about the risks of eating these toxic chemicals?

And then there are the crooked banks. In case you didn't know, [16]our entire banking system in America is based on blatant fraud. The [17]Federal Reserve Act of 1913 has perpetuated the most heinous scam and fraudulent Ponzi Scheme upon the American public since it was enacted. That's why you have to slave away for 30 to 40 years to pay down your house's mortgage (two thirds of which is just interest paid to the ungodly thieves who [18]run the scam).

That is why I recommend that married couples save as much as they can for a downpayment on a cheaper home, and don't buy anything that you can't pay off in 10 years at most (even though you may acquire a 30-year mortgage. Just make sure that there are no penalties for paying down your loan early). That way you have the security of having 30 years to pay off your loan, if something happens and you cannot afford the higher payments; but in your mind you should buy something that you calculate you should be able to pay off early after only 10 years. The interest will kill you!

I truly [19]hate the banks with all my heart, because they are [20]dirty rotten thieving scoundrels. Our treasonous government leaders are mostly to blame for allowing this fraud. President Woodrow Wilson is a traitor to his oath, country and people, because it was on his watch that evil men railroaded the Federal Reserve Act fraud into law in 1913, over a quiet Christmas weekend while most members of Congress were absent. Even still today, the American public are being kept in the dark about THE TRUTH, lied to incessantly, [21]told that fraud is law, and thievery is justice. It is shameful that less than 1 % of church pastors expose fraud, deception and corruption in our U.S. federal government.

I could go on and on about all the lying deceit and deceivers in the world today, but it would require a volume of books that I couldn't possibly write in ten lifetimes! Thanks for reading. Thankfully, we have a sure source of TRUTH that we can always go to, the Holy Bible. Someone once asked me if I could sum up the Bible in as few words as possible. I said, "That's easy, just one word: TRUTH." John 17:17, "

Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. "

4.9.17 The Trail Of Blood (by J. M. Carroll) (2023-09-21 12:27)

This is a brief but accurate history of local Baptist churches today. Unlike Protestant churches which came out of Martin Luther's (1483-1546) infamous 95 Thesis of protest against Roman Catholic church, which Luther nailed to the door of a Catholic church in Germany, Baptist churches follow a trail of blood and martyrdom back to Jesus Christ in the New Testament. ...

The History of Baptist Churches From the Time of Christ, Their Founder, to the Present Day

by J. M. Carroll

THIS LITTLE BOOK is sent forth for the purpose of making known the little-known history of those FAITHFUL WITNESSES of the Lord Jesus, who, as members of the CHURCH JESUS BUILT, "Overcame Satan by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony: and they loved not their lives unto death," Rev. 12:11.

The Trail of Blood

INTRODUCTION

By CLARENCE WALKER

I

Dr. J. M. Carroll, the author of this book, was born in the state of Arkansas, January 8, 1858, and died in Texas, January 10, 1931. His father, a Baptist preacher, moved to Texas when Brother Carroll was six years old. There he was converted, baptized, and ordained to the Gospel ministry.

Dr. Carroll not only became a leader among Texas Baptist, but an outstanding figure of Southern Baptists, and of the world.

Years ago he came to our church and brought the messages found in this book. It was then I became greatly interested in Brother Carroll's studies. I, too, had made a special research in Church History, as to which is the oldest Church and most like the churches of the New Testament.

Dr. J. W. Porter attended the lectures. He was so impressed he told Brother Carroll if he would write the messages he would publish them in a book. Dr. Carroll wrote the lectures and gave Dr. Porter the right to publish them along with the chart which illustrates the history so vividly.

However, Dr. Carroll died before the book came off the press, but Dr. Porter placed them before the public and the whole edition was soon sold. Now, by the grace of God, we are able to present this 66th edition of 20,000. I want to ask all who read and study these pages to join me in prayer and work that an ever-increasing number shall go forth.

"To make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Christ Jesus; to the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in Heavenly places might be known by the Church, the manifold wisdom of God ... unto Him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end, Amen." (Eph. 3:9-10, 21)

II

It was wonderful to hear Dr. Carroll tell how he became interested in the history of the different denominations—ESPECIALLY THEIR ORIGIN. He wrote the book after he was 70 years old, but he said, "I was converted unto God when I was just a boy. I saw the many denominations and wondered which was the church the Lord Jesus founded."

Even in his youth he felt that in the study of the Scriptures and history, he could find the church which was the oldest and most like the churches described in the New Testament.

This research for the truth led him into many places and enabled him to gather one of the greatest libraries on church history. This library was given at his death to the Southwestern Baptist Seminary, Ft. Worth, Texas.

He found much church history—most of it seemed to be about the Catholics and Protestants. The history of Baptists, he discovered, was written in blood. They were the hated people of the Dark Ages. Their preachers and people were put into prison and untold numbers were put to death. The world has never seen anything to compare with the suffering, the persecutions, heaped upon Baptists by the Catholic Hierarchy during the Dark Ages. The Pope was the world's dictator. This is why the Ana-Baptists, before the Reformation, called the Pope The Anti-Christ.

Their history is written in the legal documents and papers of those ages. It is through these records that the "TRAIL OF BLOOD" winds its way as you find such statement:

> "At Zurich, after many disputations between Zuinglius and the Ana-Baptists, the Senate made an Act, that if any presume to rebaptize those who were baptized before (i.e. as infants) they should be drowned. At Vienna many Ana-Baptists were tied together in chains that one drew the other after him into the river, wherein they were all suffocated (drowned)." (Vida Supra, p.61)
> "In the year of our Lord 1539 two Ana-Baptists were burned beyond Southwark, and a little before them 5 Dutch Ana-Baptists were burned in Smithfield," (Fuller, Church History.)
> "In 1160 a company of Paulicians (Baptists) entered Oxford. Henry II ordered them to be branded on the forehead with hot irons, publicly whipped them through the streets of the city, to have their garments cut short at the girdles, and be turned into the open country. The villages were not to afford them any shelter or food and they perished a lingering death from cold and hunger." (Moore, Earlier and Later Nonconformity in Oxford, p. 12.)

The old Chronicler Stowe, A.D. 1533, relates:

> "The 25th of May—in St. Paul's Church, London–examined 19 men and 6 women. Fourteen of them were condemned; a man and a woman were burned at Smithfield, the other twelve of them were sent to towns there to be burned."

Froude, the English historian, says of these Ana-Baptist martyrs:

> "The details are all gone, their names are gone. Scarcely the facts seem worth mentioning. For them no Europe was agitated, no court was ordered in mourning, no papal hearts trembled with indignation. At their death the world looked on complacent, indifferent or exulting. Yet here, out of 25 poor men and women were found 14, who by no terror of stake or torture could be tempted to say they believed what they did not believe. History has for them no word of praise, yet they, too, were not giving their blood in vain. Their lives might have been as useless as the lives of most of us. In their death they assisted to pay the purchase of English freedom."

Likewise, in writings of their enemies as well as friends, Dr. Carroll found, their history and that their trail through the ages was indeed bloody:

Cardinal Hosius (Catholic, 1524), President of the Council of Trent:

> "Were it not that the Baptists have been grievously tormented and cut off with the knife during the past twelve hundred years, they would swarm in greater number than all the Reformers." (Hosius, Letters, Apud Opera, pp. 112, 113)

The "twelve hundred years" were the years preceding the Reformation in which Rome persecuted Baptists with the most cruel persecution thinkable.

Sir Isaac Newton:

> "The Baptists are the only body of known Christians that have never symbolized with Rome."

Mosheim (Lutheran):

> "Before the rise of Luther and Calvin, there lay secreted in almost all the countries of Europe persons who adhered tenaciously to the principles of modern Dutch Baptists."

Edinburg Cyclopedia (Presbyterian):

> "It must have already occurred to our readers that the Baptists are the same sect of Christians that were formerly described as Ana-Baptists. Indeed this seems to have been their leading principle from the time of Tertullian to the present time."

Tertullian was born just fifty years after the death of the Apostle John.

III

Baptists do not believe in Apostolic Succession. The Apostolic office ceased with the death of the Apostles. It is to His churches that He promised a continual existence from the time He organized the first one during His earthly ministry until He comes again. He promised:

> "I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." (Matthew 16:18)

Then, when He gave the great Commission, which tells what His churches are to do, He promised:

> "I will be with you alway, even unto the end of the age." (Matthew 28:20)

This Commission—this work—was not given to the Apostles as individuals, but to them and the others present in their church capacity. The Apostles and the others who heard Him give this Commission were soon dead—BUT, His Church has lived on through the ages, making disciples (getting folks saved), baptizing them, and teaching the truth—the doctrines—He committed to the Jerusalem Church. These faithful churches have been blessed with His presence as they have traveled the TRAIL OF BLOOD. This history shows how the Lord's promise to His churches has been fulfilled. Dr. Carroll shows that churches have been found in every age which have taught the doctrines He committed unto them. Dr. Carroll calls these doctrines the "marks" of New Testament Churches

"MARKS OF THE NEW TESTAMENT CHURCH"

1. Its Head and Founder—CHRIST. He is the law-giver; the Church is only the executive. (Matthew 16:18; Colossians 1:18)
2. Its only rule of faith and practice—THE BIBLE. (II Timothy 3:15-17)
3. Its name—"CHURCH," "CHURCHES." (Matthew 16:18; Revelation 22:16)
4. Its polity—CONGREGATIONAL–all members equal. (Matthew 20:24-28; Matt. 23:5-12)

5. Its members—only saved people. (Ephesians 2:21; I Peter 2:5)
6. Its ordinances—BELIEVERS' BAPTISM, FOLLOWED BY THE LORD'S SUPPER. (Matthew 28:19-20)
7. Its officers—PASTORS AND DEACONS. (I Timothy 3:1-16)
8. Its work—getting folks saved, baptizing them (with a baptism that meets all the requirements of God's Word), teaching them ("to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you"). (Matthew 28:16-20)
9. Its financial plan—"Even so (TITHES and OFFERINGS) hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel," (I Corinthians 9:14)
10. Its weapons of warfare—spiritual, not carnal. (II Corinthians 10:4; Ephesians 6:10-20)
11. Its independence—separation of Church and State. (Matthew 22:21)

IV

In any town there are many different churches—all claiming to be the true church. Dr. Carroll did as you can do now—take the marks, or teachings, of the different churches and find the ones which have these marks, or doctrines. The ones which have these marks, or doctrines, taught in God's Word, are the true churches.

This, Dr. Carroll has done, to the churches of all ages. He found many had departed from "these marks, or doctrines." Other churches, however, he found had been true to these marks" in every day and age since Jesus said,

> "I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." (Matthew 16:18)
> "I will be with you alway, even unto the end of the age." (Matthew 28:21)

"THE TRAIL OF BLOOD"

or

Following the Christians Down Through the Centuries

From The Days of Christ to the Present Time

Or to express it differently, but still expressively—"A history of the Doctrines as taught by Christ, and His Apostles and those who have been loyal to them."

FIRST LECTURE "Remember the days of old. Consider the years of many generations; Ask thy father and he will show thee. Thy elders and they will tell thee." (Deuteronomy 32:7)

1. What we know today as "Christianity" or the Christian Religion, began with Christ, A.D. 25-30 in the days and within the bounds of the Roman Empire. One of the greatest empires the world has ever known in all its history.
2. This Empire at that period embraced nearly all of the then known inhabited world. Tiberius Caesar was its Emperor.

3. In its religion, the Roman Empire, at that time, was pagan. A religion of many gods. Some material and some imaginary. There were many devout believers and worshipers. It was a religion not simply of the people, but of the empire. It was an established religion. Established by law and supported by the government. (Mosheim, Vol. 1, Chap. 1.)

4. The Jewish people, at that period, no longer a separate nation, were scattered throughout the Roman Empire. They yet had their temple in Jerusalem, and the Jews yet went there to worship, and they were yet jealous of their religion. But it, like the pagan, had long since drifted into formalism and had lost its power. (Mosheim, Vol. 1, Chap. 2.)

5. The religion of Christ being a religion not of this world, its founder gave it no earthly head and no temporal power. It sought no establishment, no state or governmental support. It sought no dethronement of Caesar. Said its author, "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's." (Matthew 22:19-22; Mark 12:17; Luke 20:20). Being a spiritual religion it was a rival of no earthly government. Its adherents, however, were taught to respect all civil law and government. (Romans 13:1-7; Titus 3:1; 1 Peter 2:13-16)

6. I want now to call your attention to some of the landmarks, or ear-marks of this religion—the Christian Religion. If you and I are to trace it down through 20 long centuries, and especially down through 1,200 years of midnight darkness, darkened by rivers and seas of martyr blood, then we will need to know well these marks. They will be many times terribly disfigured. But there will always be some indelible mark. But let us carefully and prayerfully beware. We will encounter many shams and make-believes. If possible, the very elect will be betrayed and deceived. We want, if possible, to trace it down through credible history, but more especially through the unerring, infallible, words and marks of Divine truth.

Some Unerring, Infallible Marks

If in going down through the centuries we run upon a group or groups of people bearing not these distinguishing marks and teaching other things for fundamental doctrines, let us beware:

1. Christ, the author of this religion, organized His followers or disciples into a Church. And the disciples were to organize other churches as this religion spread and other disciples were "made." (Ray, Bapt, Succession, Revised Edition, 1st Chap.)

2. This organization or church, according to the Scriptures and according to the practice of the Apostles and early churches, was given two kinds of officers and only two—pastors and deacons. The pastor was called "Bishop." Both pastor and deacons to be selected by the church and to be servants of the church.

3. The churches in their government and discipline to be entirely separate and independent of each other, Jerusalem to have no authority over Antioch—nor Antioch over Ephesus; nor Ephesus over Corinth, and so forth. And their government to be congregational, democratic. A government of the people, by the people, and for the people.

4. To the church were given two ordinances and only two, Baptism and the Lord's Supper. These to be perpetual and memorial.

5. Only the "saved" were to be received as members of the church (Acts 2:47). These saved ones to be saved by grace alone without any works of the law (Ephesians 2:5, 8, 9). These saved ones and they only, to be immersed in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19). And only those thus received and baptized, to partake of the Lord's Supper, and the supper to be celebrated only by the church, in church capacity.

6. The inspired scriptures, and they only, in fact, the New Testament and that only, to be the rule and guide of faith and life, not only for the church as an organization, but for each individual member of that organization.

7. Christ Jesus, the founder of this organization and the savior of its members, to be their only priest and king, their only Lord and Lawgiver, and the only head of the churches. The churches to be executive only in carrying out their Lord's will and completed laws, never legislative, to amend or abrogate old laws or to make new ones.

8. This religion of Christ to be individual, personal, and purely voluntary or through persuasion. No physical or governmental compulsion. A matter of distinct individual and personal choice. "Choose you" is the scriptural injunction. It could be neither accepted nor rejected nor lived by proxy nor under compulsion.

9. Mark well! That neither Christ nor His apostles, ever gave to His followers, what is know today as a denominational name, such as "Catholic," "Lutheran," "Presbyterian," "Episcopal," and so forth—unless the name given by Christ to John was intended for such, "The Baptist," "John the Baptist" (Matthew 11:11 and 10 or 12 other times.) Christ called the individual follower "disciple." Two or more were called "disciples." The organization of disciples, whether at Jerusalem or Antioch or elsewhere, was called Church. If more than one of these separate organizations were referred to, they were called Churches. The word church in the singular was never used when referring to more than one of these organizations. Nor even when referring to them all.

10. I venture to give one more distinguishing mark. We will call it—Complete separation of Church and State. No combination, no mixture of this spiritual religion with a temporal power. "Religious Liberty," for everybody.

And now, before proceeding with the history itself, let me call your attention to—

I believe, if you will study carefully this chart, you will better understand the history, and it will greatly aid your memory in retaining what you hear and see.

Remember this chart is supposed to cover a period of two thousand years of religious history.

Notice at both top and bottom of the chart some figures, the same figures at both top and bottom - 100, 200, 300, and so on to 2,000.

They represent the twenty centuries of time—the vertical lines separating the different centuries.

The lines are about the same distance apart as the vertical lines. But you can't see them all the way. They are covered by a very dark spot, representing in history what is known as the "dark ages." It will be explained later. Between the two lowest lines are the names of countries . . . Italy, Wales, England, Spain, France, and so forth, ending with America. These are names of countries in which much history is made during the period covered by the names themselves.

Of course not all the history, some history is made in some of the countries in every period. But some special history is made in these special countries, at these special periods.

Now notice again, near the bottom of the chart, other lines a little higher. They, too, covered in part by the "dark ages," they also are full of names, but not names of countries. They are all "nick-names." Names given to those people by their enemies. "Christians"—that is the first: "The disciples were called Christians first at Antioch" (Acts 11:26). This occurred about A.D. 43. Either the pagans or Jews gave them that name in derision. All the other names in that column were given in the same manner—Montanists, Novationists, Donatists, Paulicians, Albigenses, Waldenses, etc., and Ana-Baptists. All of these will again and again be referred to as the lectures progress.

But look again at the chart. See the red circles. They are scattered nearly all over the chart. They represent churches. Single individual churches in Asia, in Africa, in Europe, in mountains and valleys, and so forth. Their being blood red indicates martyr blood. Christ their founder died on the Cross. All the Apostles save two, John and Judas, suffered martyr deaths. Judas betrayed his Lord and died in a suicide. The Apostle John, according to history, was boiled in a great cauldron of oil.

You will note some circles that are solidly black. They represent churches also. But erring churches. Churches that had gone wrong in life or doctrine. There were numbers of these even before the death of Peter, Paul and John.

Having now about concluded with a general introduction and some very necessary and even vital preliminaries, I come to the regular history.

FIRST PERIOD A.D. 30-500

1. Under the strange but wonderful impulse and leadership of John the Baptist, the eloquent man from the wilderness, and under the loving touch and miracle-working power of the Christ Himself, and the marvelous preaching of the 12 Apostles and their immediate successors, the Christian religion spread mightily during the first 500-year period. However, it left a terribly bloody trail behind it. Judaism and Paganism bitterly contested every forward movement. John the Baptist was the first of the great leaders to give up his life. His head was taken off. Soon after him went the Savior Himself, the founder of this Christian religion. He died on the Cross, the cruel death of the Cross.

2. Following their Savior in rapid succession fell many other martyred heroes: Stephen was stoned, Matthew was slain in Ethiopia, Mark dragged through the streets until dead, Luke hanged, Peter and Simeon were crucified, Andrew tied to a cross, James beheaded, Philip crucified and stoned, Bartholomew flayed alive, Thomas pierced with lances, James, the less, thrown from the temple and beaten to death, Jude shot to death with arrows, Matthias stoned to death and Paul beheaded.

3. More than one hundred years had gone by before all this had happened. This hard persecution by Judaism and Paganism continued for two more centuries. And yet mightily spread the Christian religion. It went into all the Roman Empire, Europe, Asia, Africa, England, Wales, and about everywhere else, where there was any civilization. The churches greatly multiplied and the disciples increased continuously. But some of the churches continued to go into error.

4. The first of these changes from New Testament teachings embraced both policy and doctrine. In the first two centuries the individual churches rapidly multiplied and some of the earlier ones, such as Jerusalem, Antioch, Ephesus, Corinth, etc., grew to be very large; Jerusalem, for instance, had many thousand members (Acts 2:41; 4:4, 5:14), possibly 25,000 or even 50,000 or more. A close student of the book of Acts and Epistles will see that Paul had a mighty task even in his day in keeping some of the churches straight. See Peter's and Paul's prophecies concerning the future (II Peter 2:12; Acts 20:29-31. See also Rev., second and third chapters).

These great churches necessarily had many preachers or elders (Acts 20:17). Some of the bishops or pastors began to assume authority not given them in the New Testament. They began to claim authority over other and smaller churches. They, with their many elders, began to lord it over God's heritage (III John 9). Here was the beginning of an error which has grown and multiplied into many other seriously hurtful errors. Here was the beginning of different orders in the ministry running up finally to what is practiced now by others as well as Catholics. Here began what resulted in an entire change from the original democratic policy and government of the early churches. This irregularity began in a small way, even before the close of the second century. This was possibly the first serious departure from the New Testament church order.

5. Another vital change which seems from history to have had its beginning before the close of the second century was on the great doctrine of Salvation itself. The Jews as well as the Pagans, had for many generations, been trained to lay great stress on Ceremonials. They had come to look upon types as anti-types, shadows as real substances, and ceremonials as real saving agencies. How easy to come thus to look upon baptism. They reasoned thus: The Bible has much to say concerning baptism. Much stress is laid upon the ordinance and one's duty concerning it. Surely it must have something to do with one's salvation. So that it was in this period that the idea of "Baptismal Regeneration" began to get a fixed hold in some of the churches. (Shackelford, page 57; Camp p. 47; Benedict, p. 286; Mosheim, vol. 1, p. 134; Christian, p. 28.)

6. The next serious error to begin creeping in, and which seems from some historians (not all) to have begun in this same century and which may be said to have been an inevitable consequence of the "baptismal regeneration" idea, was a change in the subjects of baptism. Since baptism has been declared to be an agency or means to salvation by some erring churches, then the sooner baptism takes place the better. Hence arose "infant baptism." Prior to this "believers" and "believers" only, were regarded as proper subjects for baptism. "Sprinkling" and "pouring" are not now referred to. These came in much later. For several centuries, infants, like others, were immersed. The Greek Catholics (a very large branch of the Catholic church) up to this day, have never changed the original form of baptism. They practice infant baptism but have never done otherwise than immerse the children. (Note: Some of the church historians put the beginning of infant baptism within this century, but I shall quote a short paragraph from Robinson's Ecclesiastical Researches.)

   "During the first three centuries, congregations all over the East subsisted in separate independent bodies, unsupported by government and consequently without any secular power over one another. All this time they were baptized churches, and though all the fathers of the first four ages, down to Jerome (A.D. 370), were of Greece, Syria and Africa, and though they give great numbers of histories of the baptism of adults, yet there is not one of the baptism of a child till the year 370." (Compendium of Baptist History, Shackelford, p. 43; Vedder, p. 50; Christian, p, 31; Orchard, p. 50, etc.)

7. Let it be remembered that changes like these here mentioned were not made in a day, nor even within a year. They came about slowly and never within all the churches. Some of the churches vigorously repudiated them. So much so that in A.D. 251, the loyal churches declared non-fellowship for those churches which accepted and practiced these errors. And thus came about the first real official separation among the churches.

8. Thus it will be noted that during the first three centuries three important and vital changes from the teachings of Christ and His Apostles had their beginnings. And one significant event took place, Note this summary and recapitulation

   (1) The change from the New Testament idea of bishop and church government. This change grew rapidly, more pronounced, and complete and hurtful.

   (2) The change from the New Testament teachings as to Regeneration to "baptismal regeneration."

   (3) The change from "believers' baptism" to "infant baptism." (This last, however, did not become general nor even very frequent for more than another century.)

9. "Baptismal regeneration" and "infant baptism." These two errors have, according to the testimony of well-established history, caused the shedding of more Christian blood, as the centuries have gone by, than all other errors combined, or than possibly have all wars, not connected with persecution, if you will leave out the recent "World War." Over 50,000,000 Christians died martyr deaths, mainly because of their rejection of these two errors during the period of the "dark ages" alone–about twelve or thirteen centuries.

10. 10. Three significant facts, for a large majority of the many churches, are clearly shown by history during these first three centuries.

    (1) The separateness and independence of the Churches.

    (2) The subordinate character of bishops or pastors.

    (3) The baptism of believers only. I quote now from Mosheim–the greatest of all Lutheran church historians. Vol., 1, pages 71 and 72: "But whoever supposes that the bishops of this golden age of the church correspond with the bishops of the following centuries must blend and confound characters that are very different, for in this century and the next, a bishop had charge of a single church, which might ordinarily be contained in a private house; nor was he its Lord, but was in reality its minister or servant. . . All the churches in those primitive times were independent bodies, or none of them subject to the jurisdiction of any other. For though the churches...

SECOND LECTURE-600-1300

1. We closed the first Lecture with the close of the fifth century. And yet a number of things had their beginnings back in those early centuries, which were not even mentioned in the first Lecture. We had just entered the awful period known in the world's history as "The Dark Ages." Dark and bloody and awful in the extreme they were. The persecutions by the established Roman Catholic Church are hard, cruel and perpetual. The war of intended extermination follows persistently and relentlessly into many lands, the fleeing Christians. A "Trail of Blood" is very nearly all that is left anywhere. Especially throughout England, Wales, Africa, Armenia, and Bulgaria. And anywhere else Christians could be found who were trying earnestly to remain strictly loyal to New Testament teaching.

2. We now call attention to these Councils called "Ecumenical," or Empire wide. It is well to remember that all these Councils were professedly based upon, or patterned after the Council held by the Apostles and others at Jerusalem (see Acts 15:1), but probably nothing bearing the same name could have been more unlike. We here and now call attention to only eight, and these were all called by different Emperors, none of them by the Popes. And all these held among the Eastern or Greek churches. Attended, however, somewhat by representatives from the Western Branch or Roman Churches.

3. The first of these Councils was held at Nice or Nicea, in A.D. 325. It was called by Constantine the Great, and was attended by 318 bishops.

   The second met at Constantinople, A.D. 381, and was called by Theodosius the Great. There were present 150 bishops. (In the early centuries, bishops simply meant pastors of the individual churches.)

   The third was called by Theodosius II, and by Valentian III. This had 250 bishops present. It met at Ephesus, A.D. 431.

   The fourth met at Calcedon, A.D. 451, and was called by Emperor Marian; 500 or 600 bishops or Metropolitans (Metropolitans were City pastors or First Church pastors) were present. During this Council the doctrine of what is now known as Mariolatry was promulgated. This means the worship of Mary, the mother of Christ. This new doctrine at first created quite a stir, many seriously objecting. But it finally won out as a permanent doctrine of the Catholic Church.

   The fifth of these eight councils was held at Constantinople (which was the second to be held there). This was called by Justinian, A.D. 553, and was attended by 165 bishops. This, seemingly, was called mainly to condemn certain writings.

   In the year A.D. 680 the Sixth Council was called. This was also held at Constantinople and was called by Constantine Pegonator, to condemn heresy. During this meeting Pope Honorius by name was deposed and excommunicated. However, at this time infallibility had not yet been declared.

   The Seventh Council was called to meet at Nicea A.D. 787. This was the second held at this place. The Empress Irene called this one. Here in this meeting seems to have been the definite starting place, of both "Image Worship" and "Saints Worship." You can thus see that these people were getting more markedly paganized than Christianized.

   The last of what were called the "Eastern Councils," those, called by the Emperors, was held in Constantinople, in A.D. 869. This was called by Basilius Maredo. The Catholic Church had gotten into serious trouble. There had arisen a controversy of a very serious nature between the heads of the two branches of Catholicism—the Eastern and Western, Greek and Roman–Pontius the Greek at Constantinople and Nicholas the 1st at Rome. So serious was their trouble, that they had gone so far as to excommunicate each other. So for a short time Catholicism was entirely without a head. The council was called mainly to settle, if possible, this difficulty. This break in the ranks of Catholicism has never, even to this day, been satisfactorily settled. Since that far away day, all attempts at healing that breach have failed. The Lateran-power since then has been in the ascendancy. Not the Emperors, but the Roman Pontiffs calling all Councils. The later Councils will be referred to later in these lectures.

4. There is one new doctrine to which we have failed to call attention. There are doubtless others but one especially—and that "Infant Communion." Infants were not only baptized, but received into the church, and being church members, they were supposed to be entitled to the Lord's Supper. How to administer it to them was a problem, but it was solved by soaking the bread in the wine. Thus it was practiced for years. And after awhile another new doctrine was added to this—it was taught that this was another means of Salvation.

As still another new doctrine was later added to these, we will again refer to this a little later in the lectures.

5. During the 5th Century, at the fourth Ecumenical Council, held at Chalcedon, 451, another entirely new doctrine was added to the rapidly growing list—the doctrine called "Mariolatry," or the worship of Mary, the Mother of Jesus. A new mediator seems to have been felt to be needed. The distance from God to man was too great for just one mediator, even though that was Christ, God's Son, the real God-Man. Mary was thought to be needed as another mediator, and prayers were to be made to Mary. She was to make them to Christ.

6. Two other new doctrines were added to the Catholic faith in the 8th Century. These were promulgated at the Second Council held at Nicea (Nice), the Second Council held there (787). The first of these was called "Image Worship, a direct violation of one of the commands of God.

   "Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image," (Exodus 20:3, 4, 5). Another addition from Paganism. Then followed the "worship of Saints." This doctrine has no encouragement in the Bible. Only one instance of Saint worship is given in the Bible and that is given to show its utter folly—the dead rich man praying to Abraham, (Luke 16:24-31). These are some, not all of the many revolutionary changes from New Testament teachings, that came about during this period of Church history.

7. During the period that we are now passing through the persecuted were called by many and varied names. Among them were Donatists, Paterines, Cathari, Paulicians, and Ana Baptists; and a little later, Petro-Brussians, Arnoldists, Henricians, Albigenses, and Waldenses. Sometimes one group of these was the most prominent and sometimes another. But some of them were almost always prominent because of the persistency and terribleness of their persecution.

8. Let it not be thought that all these persecuted ones were always loyal in all respects to New Testament teachings. In the main they were. And some of them, considering their surroundings, were marvelously so. Remember that many of them at that far away, time, had only parts of the New Testament or the Old Testament as to that. The book was not printed. It was written in manuscript on parchment or skins or something of that kind, and was necessarily large and bulky. Few, if any, families or even simple churches had complete copies of the whole Bible. Before the formal close of the Canon (end of fourth century) there were probably very few simple manuscripts of the entire New Testament. Of the one thousand known manuscripts only about 30 copies included all the books.

9. Furthermore, during all the period of the "Dark Ages," and the period of the persecution, strenuous efforts were made to destroy even what Scripture manuscripts the persecuted did possess. Hence in many instances these people had only small parts of the Bible.

10. It is well to note also that in order to prevent the spread of any view of any sort, contrary to those of the Catholics very extreme plans and measures were adopted. First, all writings of any sort, other than those of the Catholics, were gathered and burned. Especially was this true of books. For several centuries these plans and measures were strictly and persistently followed. That is, according to history, the main reason why it is so difficult to secure accurate history. About all persistent writers and preachers also died martyr deaths. This was a desperately bloody period. All of the groups of persistent heretics (So-called) by whatever name distinguished, and wherever they had lived, were cruelly persecuted. The Donatists and Paulicians, were prominent among the earlier groups. The Catholics, strange as it may seem, accused all who refused to depart from the faith with them, believe with them—accused them of being heretics, and then condemned them as being heretics. Those called Catholics became more thoroughly paganized and Judaized than they were Christianized, and were swayed far more by civil power, than they were by religious power. They made far more new laws, than they observed old ones.

11. The following are a few of the many new variations that came about in New Testament teachings during these centuries. They are probably not always given in the order of their promulgation. In fact it would sometimes be next to impossible to get the exact date of the origin of some of these changes. They have been somewhat like the whole Catholic system. They are growths of development. In the earlier years especially, their doctrines or teachings were subject to constant change—by addition or subtraction, or substitution or abrogation. The Catholic Church was now no longer, even if it had ever been, a real New Testament Church. It no longer was a purely executive body, to carry out the already made laws of God, but had become actively legislative, making new ones, changing or abrogating old ones at will.

12. One of their new doctrines or declarations about this time was "There is no salvation outside of the Church"–the Catholic Church, of course, as they declared there was no other–be a Catholic or be lost. There was no other alternative.

13. The doctrine of Indulgences and the Sale of Indulgences was another absolutely new and serious departure from New Testament teachings. But in order to make that new teaching really effective, still another new teaching was imperatively necessary: A very large Credit Account must somehow be established—a credit account in heaven, but accessible to earth. So the merit of "good works" as a means of Salvation must be taught, and as a means of filling up, putting something in the credit account, from which something could be drawn. The first large sum to go into the account in heaven was of course the work of the Lord Jesus. As He did no evil, none of His good works were needed for Himself, so all His good works could and would of course, go into the credit account. And then in addition to that, all the surplus good works (in addition to what each might need for himself) by the Apostles, and by all good people living thereafter, would be added to that credit account, making it enormously large. And then all this immense sum placed to the credit of the church—the only church(?)! and permission given to the church to use as needed for some poor sinning mortal, and charging for that credit as much as might be thought wise, for each one needed the heavenly credit. Hence came the Sale of Indulgences. Persons could buy for themselves or their friends, or even dead friends. The prices varied in proportion to the offense committed—or to be committed. This was sometimes carried to a desperate extreme, as admitted by Catholics themselves. Some histories or Encyclopedias give a list of prices charged on different sins for which Indulgences were sold.

14. Yet another new doctrine was necessary, yea imperative, to make thoroughly effective the last two. That new doctrine is called Purgatory, a place of intermediate state between heaven and hell, at which all must stop to be cleansed from all sins less than damning sins. Even the "Saints" must go through purgatory and must remain there until cleansed by fire—unless they can get help through that credit account, and that they can get only through the prayers or the paying for Indulgences, by those living. Hence the Sale of Indulgences. One departure from New Testament teachings lead inevitably to others.

15. It may be well just here to take time to show the differences between the Roman and Greek Catholics:

    (1) In the Nationalities: The Greeks mainly are Slavs, embracing Greece, Russia, Bulgaria, Serbia, etc., speaking Greek. The Romans are mainly Latins, embracing Italy, France, Spain, South and Central America, Mexico et cetera.

(2) The Greek Catholics reject sprinkling or pouring for baptism. The Romans use sprinkling entirely, claiming the right to change from the original Bible plan of immersion.

(3) The Greek Catholics continue the practice of Infant Communion. The Romans have abandoned it though once taught it as another means of Salvation.

(4) The Greeks in administering the Lord's Supper give the wine as well as the bread to the laity. The Romans give the bread only to the laity–the priests drink the wine.

(5) The Greeks have their priests to marry. The Roman priests are forbidden to marry.

(6) The Greeks reject the doctrine of Papal "Infallibility," the Romans accept and insist upon that doctrine. The above are at least the main points on which they differ, otherwise the Greek and Roman Catholic churches, it seems, would stand together.

16. In our lectures we have just about gotten through with the ninth century. We begin now with the tenth. Please note the chart. Just here where the separation has taken place between the Roman and Greek Catholics. You will soon see as the centuries advance, other new laws and doctrines–and other desperately bitter persecution. (Schaff, Herzogg, Encyclopedia, Vol. 11, page 901)

17. I again call your attention to those upon whom the hard hand of persecution fell. If fifty million died of persecution during the 1,200 years of what are called the "Dark Ages," as history seems positively to teach—then they died faster than an average of four million every one hundred years. That seems almost beyond the limit of, human conception. As before mentioned, this iron hand, dripping with martyr blood, fell upon Paulicians, Arnoldists, Henricians, Petro Brussians, Albigenses, Waldenses and Ana-Baptists–of course much harder upon some than others. But this horrid part of our story we will pass over hurriedly.

18. There came now another rather long period of Ecumenical Councils, of course not continuously or consecutively. There were all through the years many councils that were not Ecumenical, not "Empire Wide." These Councils were largely legislative bodies for the enactment or amendment of some civil or religious (?) laws, all of which, both the legislation and the laws, were directly contrary to the New Testament. Remember these were the acts of an established church—a church married to a Pagan government. And this church has become far more nearly paganized than the government has become Christianized.

19. When any people discard the New Testament as embracing all necessary laws for a Christian life, whether for the individual Christian or the whole church, that people has launched upon a limitless ocean. Any erroneous law, (and any law added to the Bible is erroneous) will inevitably and soon demand another, and others will demand yet others, without ever an end. That is why Christ gave His churches and to preachers no legislative powers. And again, and more particularly, that is why the New Testament closes with these significant words,

"For I certify unto every man that heareth the words of this book, if any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book. And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the Holy City, and from the things which are written in the book." Revelation 22:18, 19

NOTE: We insert here this parenthetical clause, as a warning. Let Baptist Churches beware of even disciplinary and other varieties of resolutions, which they sometimes pass in their conferences, which resolutions might be construed as laws or rules of Church government, The New Testament has all necessary laws and rules.

20. The extreme limit of this little book precludes the possibility of saying much concerning these councils or law-making assemblies, but it is necessary to say some things.

21. The first of these Lateran or Western Councils, those called by the popes, was called by Calixtus II, A.D. 1123. There were present about 300 bishops. At this meeting it was decreed that Roman priests were never to marry. This was called the Celibacy of the priests. We of course do not attempt to give all things done at these meetings.

22. Years later, 1139 A.D., Pope Innocent II, called another of these Councils especially to condemn two groups of very devout Christians, known as Petro-Brussians and Arnoldists. 23. Alexander III called yet another, A.D. 1179, just forty years after the last. In that was condemned what they called the "Errors and Impieties" of the Waldenses and Albigenses. 24. Just 36 years after this last one, another was called by Pope Innocent III. This was held A.D. 1215, and seems to have been the most largely attended of possibly any of these great councils. According to the historical account of this meeting, "there were present 412 bishops, 800 Abbots and priors, Ambassadors from the Byzantine court, and a great number of Princes and Nobles." From the very make-up of this assembly you may know that spiritual matters were at least not alone to be considered.

    At that time was promulgated the new doctrine of "Transubstantiation," the intended turning of the bread and wine of the Lord's,

THIRD LECTURE—1400-1600

1. These three centuries, fifteenth, sixteenth, and seventeenth, are among the most eventful in all the world's history, and especially is this true in Christian history. There was almost a continual revolution inside the Catholic Church–both Roman and Greek—seeking a Reformation. This awakening of long dormant Conscience and the desire for a genuine reformation really began in the thirteenth century or possibly even a little earlier than that. History certainly seems to indicate it.

2. Let's go back just a little. The Catholic Church by its many departures from New Testament teachings, its many strange and cruel laws, and its desperately low state of morals, and its hands and clothes reeking with the blood of millions of martyrs, has become obnoxious and plainly repulsive to many of its adherents, who are far better than their own system and laws and doctrines and practices. Several of its bravest and best and most spiritual priests and other leaders, one by one, sought most earnestly to reform many of its most objectionable laws and doctrines and get back, at least nearer, to the plain teachings of the New Testament. We give some striking examples. Note, not only how far apart and where the reformatory fires began, but note also the leaders in the reformation. The leaders were, or had been, all Catholic priests or officials of some kind. There was, even yet, a little of good in the much evil. However, at this time there was probably not one solitary unmarred doctrine of the New Testament retained in its original purity–but now note some of the reformers and where they labored.

3. It is well to note, however, that for many centuries prior to this great reformation period, there were a number of noted characters, who rebelled against the awful extremes of the Catholic–and earnestly sought to remain loyal to the Bible—but their bloody trail was about all that was left of them. We come now to study for awhile this most noted period—the "Reformation."

4. From 1320 to 1384 there lived a man in England who attracted world-wide attention. His name was John Wycliff. He was the first of the brave fellows who had the courage to attempt a real reformation inside the Catholic Church. He is many times referred to in history as "The Morning Star of the Reformation." He lived an earnest and effective life. It would really require several volumes to contain anything like an adequate history of John Wycliff. He was hated, fearfully hated, by the leaders of the Catholic hierarchy. His life was persistently sought. He finally died of paralysis. But years later, so great was Catholic hatred, his bones were dug and burned, and his ashes scattered upon the waters.

5. Following tolerably close on the heels of Wycliff came John Huss, 1373-1415, a distinguished son from far away Bohemia. His soul had felt and responded to the brilliant light of England's "Morning Star." His was a brave and eventful life, but painfully and sadly short. Instead of awakening a responsive chord among his Catholic people in favor of a real reformation, he aroused a fear and hatred and opposition which resulted in his being burned at the stake—a martyr among his own people. And yet he was seeking their own good. He loved his Lord and he loved his people. However, he was only one of many millions who had thus to die.

6. Next to John Huss of Bohemia, came a wonderful son of Italy, the marvelously eloquent Savonarola, 1452-1498. Huss was burned in 1415, Savonarola was born 37 years later. He, like Huss, though a devout Catholic, found the leaders of his people—the people of Italy—like those of Bohemia, against all reformation. But he, by his mighty eloquence, succeeded in awakening some conscience and securing a considerable following. But a real reformation in the Hierarchy meant absolute ruin to the higher-ups in that organization. So Savonarola, as well as Huss, must die. HE TOO WAS BURNED AT THE STAKE. Of all the eloquent men of that great period, Savonarola possibly stood head and shoulders above all others. But he was contending against a mighty organization and their existence demanded that they fight the reformation, so Savonarola must die.

7. Of course, in giving the names of the reformers of this period, many names are necessarily to be left out. Only those most frequently referred to in history are mentioned here. Following Italy's golden tongued orator came a man from Switzerland. Zwingle was born before Savonarola died. He lived from 1484 to 1531. The spirit of reformation was beginning now to fill the whole land. Its fires are now breaking out faster and spreading more rapidly and becoming most difficult to control. This one kindled by Zwingle was not yet more than partially smothered before another, more serious than all the rest, had broken out in Germany. Zwingle died in battle.

8. Martin Luther, probably the most noted of all the fifteenth and sixteenth century reformers, lived 1483 to 1546, and as can be seen by the dates, was very nearly an exact contemporary of Zwingle. He was born one year earlier and lived fifteen years later. Far more, probably, than history definitely states, his great predecessors have in great measure made easier his hard way before him. Furthermore, he learned from their hard experience, and then later, and most thoroughly from his own, that a genuine reformation inside the Catholic Church would be an utter impossibility. Too many reform measures would be needed. One would demand another and others demand yet others, and so on and on.

9. So Martin Luther, after many hard fought battles with the leaders of Catholicism, and aided by Melancthon and other prominent Germans, became the founder in 1530, or, about then, of an entirely new Christian organization, now known as the Lutheran Church, which very soon became the Church of Germany. This was the first of the new organizations to come directly out of Rome and renounce all allegiance to the Catholic Mother Church (as she is called) and to continue to live thereafter.

10. Skipping now for a little while, the Church of England, which comes next to the Lutheran in its beginnings, we will follow for a little while the Reformation on the Continent. From 1509 to 1564, there lived another of the greatest of the reformers. This was John Calvin, a Frenchman, but seeming at the time to be living in Switzerland. He was really a mighty man. He was a contemporary of Martin Luther for 30 years, and was 22 years old when Zwingle died. Calvin is the accredited founder of the Presbyterian church. Some of the historians, however, give that credit to Zwingle, but the strongest evidence seems to favor Calvin. Unquestionably the work of Zwingle, as well as that of Luther, made much easier the work of Calvin. So in 1541, just eleven years (that seems to be the year), after the founding by Luther of the Lutheran Church, the Presbyterian Church came into existence. It too, as in the case of the Lutherans, was led by a reformed Catholic priest or at least official. These six: Wycliff, Huss, Savonarola, Zwingle, Luther and Calvin, great leaders in their great battles for reformation, struck Catholicism a staggering blow.

11. In 1560, nineteen years after Calvin's first organization in Geneva, Switzerland, John Knox, a disciple of Calvin, established the first Presbyterian Church in Scotland, and just thirty-two years later, 1592, the Presbyterian became the State Church of Scotland.

12. During all these hard struggles for Reformation, continuous and valuable aid was given to the reformers, by many Ana-Baptists, or whatever other name they bore. Hoping for some relief from their own bitter lot, they came out of their hiding places and fought bravely with the reformers, but they were doomed to fearful disappointment. They were from now on to have two additional persecuting enemies. Both the Lutheran and Presbyterian Churches brought out of their Catholic Mother many of her evils, among them her idea of a State Church. They both soon became Established Churches. Both were soon in the persecuting business, falling little, if any, short of their Catholic Mother. Sad and awful was the fate of these long-suffering Ana-Baptists. The world now offered no sure place for hiding. Four hard persecutors were now hot on their trail. Surely theirs was a "Trail of Blood."

13. During the same period, really earlier by several years than the Presbyterians, arose yet another new denomination, not on the continent, but in England. However, this came about not so much by way of reformation (though that evidently made it easier) as by way of a real split or division in the Catholic ranks. More like the division in 869, when Eastern Catholics separated from the Western, and became from that time on, known in history as the Greek and Roman Catholic Churches. This new division came about somewhat in this wise: England's king, Henry VIII, had married Catherine of Spain, but unfortunately, after some time his somewhat troublesome heart had fallen in love with Anne Boleyn. So he wanted to divorce Catherine and marry Annie. Getting a divorce back then was no easy matter. Only the Pope could grant it, and he in this case, for special reasons, declined to grant it. Henry was in great distress. Being king, he felt he ought to be entitled to follow his own will in the matter. His Prime Minister (at that time Thomas Cromwell) rather made sport of the King. Why do you submit to papal authority on such matters? Henry followed his suggestion, threw off papal authority and made himself head of the Church of England. Thus began the new Church of England. This was consummated in 1534 or 1535. At that time there was no change in doctrine, simply a renunciation of the authority of the Pope. Henry at heart really never became a Protestant. He died in the Catholic faith.

14. But this split did ultimately result in some very considerable change, or reformation, While a reformation within the Catholic Church and under papal authority, as in the case of Luther and others, was impossible, it became possible after the division. Cranmer, Latimer, Ridley and others led in some marked changes. However, they and many others paid a bloody price for the changes when a few years later, Mary, "Bloody Mary," a daughter of the divorced Catherine, came to the English throne, and carried the new Church back under the papal power. This fearful and terrific reaction ended with the strenuous and bloody five-year reign of Mary. While the heads were going under the bloody axe of Mary, hers went with them. The people had gotten, however, a partial taste of freedom so when Elizabeth, the daughter of Anne Boleyn (for whom Catherine was divorced), became Queen, the Church of England again overthrew papal power and was again re-established.

15. Thus, before the close of the Sixteenth Century, there were five established Churches—churches backed up by civil governments–the Roman and Greek Catholics counted as two; then the Church of England; then the Lutheran, or Church of Germany; then the Church of Scotland, now known as the Presbyterian. All of them were bitter in their hatred and persecution of the people called Ana-Baptists, Waldenses and all other non-established churches, churches which never in any way had been connected with the Catholics. Their great help in the struggle for reformation had been forgotten, or was now wholly ignored. Many more thousands, including both women and children were constantly perishing every day in the yet unending persecutions. The great hope awakened and inspired by the reformation had proven to be a bloody delusion. Remnants now find an uncertain refuge in the friendly Alps and other hiding places over the world.

16. These three new organizations, separating from, or coming out of the Catholics, retained many of their most hurtful errors, some of which are as follows:

    (1) Preacher-church government (differing in form).

    (2) Church Establishment (Church and State combination).

    (3) Infant BAPTISM (4) Sprinkling or Pouring for Baptism.

    (5) Baptismal Regeneration (some at least, and others, if many of their historians are to be accredited).

    (6) Persecuting others (at least for centuries).

17. In the beginning all these established Churches persecuted one another as well as every one else, but at a council held at Augsburg in 1555, a treaty of peace, known as the "Peace of Augsburg" was signed between the "Catholics" on the one hand, and the "Lutherans" on the other, agreeing not to persecute each other. You let us alone, and we will let you alone. For Catholics to fight Lutherans meant war with Germany, and for Lutherans to fight or persecute Catholics meant war with all the countries where Catholicism predominated.

18. But persecutions did not then cease. The hated Ana-Baptists (called Baptists today), in spite of all prior persecutions, and in spite of the awful fact that fifty million had already died martyr deaths, still existed in great numbers. It was during this period that along one single European highway, thirty miles distance, stakes were set up every few feet along this highway, the tops of the stakes sharpened, and on the top of each stake was placed a gory head of a martyred Ana-Baptist. Human imagination can hardly picture a scene so awful! And yet a thing perpetrated, according to reliable history, by a people calling themselves devout followers of the meek and lowly Jesus Christ.

19. Let it be remembered that the Catholics do not regard the Bible as the sole rule and guide of faith and life. The claim that it is indeed unerring, but that there are two other things just as much so, the "Writings of the Fathers" and the decrees of the Church (Catholic Church) or the declarations of the Infallible Pope. Hence, there could never be a satisfactory debate between Catholic and Protestant or between Catholic and Baptist, as there could never possibly be a basis of final agreement. The Bible alone can never settle anything so far as the Catholics are concerned.

20. Take as an example the question of "Baptism" and the final authority for the act and for the mode. They claim that the Bible unquestionably teaches Baptism and that it teaches immersion as the only mode. But they claim at the same time that their unerring Church had the perfect right to change the mode from immersion to sprinkling but that no others have the right or authority, none but the infallible papal authority.

21. You will note of course, and possibly be surprised at it, that I am doing in these lectures very little quoting. I am earnestly trying to do a very hard thing, give to the people the main substance of two thousand years of religious history in six hours of time.

22. It is well just here to call attention to facts concerning the Bible during these awful centuries. Remember the Bible was not then in print and there was no paper upon which to have printed even if printing had been invented. Neither was there any paper upon which to write it. Parchment, dressed goat of sheep skins, or papyrus (some kind of wood pulp), this was the stuff used upon which to write. So a book as big as the Bible, all written by hand and with a stylus of some sort, not a pen like we use today, was an enormous thing, probably larger than one man could carry. There were never more than about thirty complete Bibles in all the world. Many parts or books of the Bible like Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, or Acts, or some one of the Epistles, or Revelation or some one book of the Old Testament. One of the most outstanding miracles in the whole world's history—according to my way of thinking—is the nearness with which God's people have thought and believed together on the main and vital points of Christianity. Of course God is the only solution. It is now a most glorious fact that we can all and each, now have a full copy of the whole Bible and each in our own native tongue.

23. It is well also for us all to do some serious and special thinking on another vital fact concerning the Bible. It has already been briefly mentioned in the lecture preceding this, but is so very vital that it will probably be wise to refer to it again. It was the action taken by the Catholics at the Council of Toulouse, held in 1229 A. D., when they decided to withhold the Bible, the Word of God from the vast majority of all their own people, the "Laymen." I am simply stating here just what they stated in their great Council. But lately in private a Catholic said to me, "Our purpose in that is to prevent their private interpretation of it." Isn't it marvelous that God should write a book for the people and then should be unwilling for the people to read it. And yet according to that book the people are to stand or fall in the day of judgment on the teachings of that book. No wonder the declaration in the book–"Search the Scriptures (the book) for in them ye think ye have eternal life. And they are they which testify of me." Fearful the responsibility assumed by the Catholics!

FOURTH LECTURE—17th, 18th, 19th Centuries

1. This lecture begins with the beginning of the Seventeenth Century (A.D. 1601). We have passed very hurriedly over much important Christian history, but necessity his compelled this.

2. This three-century period begins with the rise of an entirely new denomination. It is right to state that some historians give the date of the beginning of the Congregational Church

(at first called "Independents") as 1602. However, Schaff-Herzogg, in their Encyclopedia, place its beginning far back in the sixteenth century, making it coeval with the Lutheran and Presbyterian. In the great reformation wave many who went out of the Catholic Church were not satisfied with the extent of the reformation led by Luther and Calvin. They decided to repudiate also the preacher rule and government idea of the churches and return to the New Testament democratic idea as had been held through the fifteen preceding centuries by those who had refused to enter Constantine's hierarchy.

3. The determined contention of this new organization for this particular reform brought down upon its head bitter persecution from Catholic, Lutheran, Presbyterian and Church of England adherents—all the established churches. However, it retained many other of the Catholic made errors, such for instance as infant baptism, pouring or sprinkling for baptism, and later adopted and practiced to an extreme degree the church and state idea. And, after refugeeing to America, themselves, became very bitter persecutors.

4. The name "Independents" or as now called "Congregationalists," is derived from their mode of church government. Some of the distinguishing principles of the English Congregationalists as given in Schaff-Herzogg Encyclopedia are as follows:

   (1) That Jesus Christ is the only head of the church and that the Word of God is its only statue book.

   (2) That visible churches are distinct assemblies of Godly men gathered out of the world for purely religious purposes, and not to be confounded with the world.

   (3) That these separate churches have full power to choose their own officers and to maintain discipline.

   (4) That in respect to their internal management they are each independent of all other churches and equally independent of state control.

5. How markedly different these principles are from Catholicism, or even Lutheranism, or Presbyterianism or the Episcopacy of the Church of England. How markedly similar to the Baptists of today, and of all past ages, and to the original teachings of Christ and His apostles.

6. In 1611, the King James English Version of the Bible appeared. Never was the Bible extensively given to the people before. From the beginning of the general dissemination of the Word of God began the rapid decline of the Papal power, and the first beginnings for at least many centuries, of the idea of "r

7. In 1648 came the "Peace of Westphalia." Among other things which resulted from that peace pact was the triple agreement between the great denominations–Catholic, Lutheran and Presbyterian, no longer to persecute one another. Persecutions among these denominations meant war with governments backing them. However, all other Christians, especially the Ana-Baptists, were to continue to receive from them the same former harsh treatment, persistent persecution.

8. During all the seventeenth century, persecutions for Waldenses, Ana-Baptists, and Baptists (in some places the "Ana" was now being left off) continued to be desperately severe; in England by the Church of England, as John Bunyan and many others could testify; in Germany by the Lutherans; in Scotland by the Church of Scotland (Presbyterian); in Italy, in France, and in every other place where the papacy was in power, by the Catholics. There is now no peace anywhere for those who are not in agreement with the state churches, or some one of them.

9. It is a significant fact well established in credible history that even as far back as the fourth century those refusing to go into the Hierarchy, and refusing to accept the baptism or those baptized in infancy, and refusing to accept the doctrine of "Baptismal Regeneration" and demanding rebaptism for all those who came to them from the Hierarchy, were called "Ana-Baptists." No matter what other names they then bore, they were always referred to as "Ana-Baptists." Near the beginning of the sixteenth century, the "Ana" was dropped, and the name shortened to simply "Baptist," and gradually all other names were dropped. Evidently, if Bunyan had lived in an earlier period his followers would have been called "Bunyanites" or "Ana-Baptists." Probably they would have been called by both names as were others preceding him.

10. The name "Baptist" is a "nickname," and was given to them by their enemies (unless the name can be rightfully attributed to them as having been given to them by the Savior Himself, when He referred to John as "The Baptist"). To this day, the name has never been officially adopted by any group of Baptists. The name, however, has become fixed and is willingly accepted and proudly borne. It snugly fits. It was the distinguishing name of the forerunner of Christ, the first to teach the doctrine to which the Baptists now hold.

11. I quote a very significant statement from the Schaff- Herzogg Encyclopedia, under "History of Baptists in Europe," Vol. 1, page 210, "The Baptists appeared first in Switzerland about 1523, where they were persecuted by Zwingle and the Romanists. They are found in the following years, 1525-1530, with large churches fully organized, in Southern Germany, Tyrol and in middle Germany. In all these places persecutions made their lives bitter."

    (Note: that all this is prior to the founding of the Protestant churches–Lutheran, Episcopal, or Presbyterian.) We continue the quotation:

    > "Moravia promised a home of greater freedom, and thither many Baptists migrated, only to find their hopes deceived. After 1534 they were numerous in Northern Germany, Holland, Belgium, and the Walloon provinces. They increased even during Alva's rule, in the low countries, and developed a wonderful missionary zeal." (Note–"Missionary Zeal." And yet some folks say that the "Hardshells" are primitive Baptists.)
    > Where did these Baptists come from? They did not come out of the Catholics during the Reformation. They had large churches prior to the Reformation.

12. As a matter of considerable interest, note the religious changes in England as the centuries have gone by: The Gospel was carried to England by the Apostles and it remained Apostolic in its religion until after the organization of the Hierarchy in the beginning of the fourth century, and really for more than another century after that. It then came under the power of the Hierarchy which was rapidly developing into the Catholic Church. It then remained Catholic–that was the state religion, until the split in 1534-1535, during the reign of Henry VIII. It was then called the Church of England. Eighteen years later, 1553-1558, during the reign of Queen Mary ("Bloody Mary") England was carried back to the Catholics, and a bloody five-years period was this. Then Elizabeth, a half-sister of Mary, the daughter of Anna Boleyn, came to the throne, 1558. The Catholics were again overthrown, and again the Church of England came into power. And thus things remained for almost another century, when the Presbyterian Church came for a short while into the ascendancy, and seemed for a while as if it might become the State Church of England as well as that of Scotland. However, following the time of Oliver Cromwell, the Church of England came back to her own and has remained the established church of England ever since.

13. Note the gradual softening down of religious matters in England from the hard and bitter persecutions of the established church for more than a century.

    (1) The first toleration act came in 1688, one hundred and fifty-four years after the beginning of this church. This act permitted the worship of all denominations in England except two—the Catholics and the Unitarians.

    (2) The second toleration act came in 1778, eighty-nine years still later. This act included in the toleration the Catholics, but still excluded the Unitarians.

    (3) The third toleration act came in 1813, thirty-five years later. This included the Unitarians.

    (4) In 1828-1829 came what is known as the "Test Act" which gave the "dissenters" (the religionists not in accord with the "Church of England") access to public office and even to Parliament.

    (5) In 1836-37 and 1844 came the "Registration" and "Marriage" acts. These two acts made legal baptisms and marriages performed by "dissenters."

    (6) The "Reform Bill" came in 1854. This bill opened the doors of Oxford and Cambridge Universities to dissenting students. Up to this time no child of a "dissenter" could enter one of these great institutions.

14. Thus has been the march of progress in England toward "Religious Liberty." But it is probably correct to state that real religious liberty can never come into any country where there is and is to remain an established church. At best, it can only be toleration, which is certainly a long way from real religious liberty. As long as one denomination among several in any country is supported by the government to the exclusion of all others this favoritism and support of one, precludes the possibility of absolute religious liberty and equality.

15. Very near the beginning of the eighteenth century there were born in England three boys who were destined to leave upon the world a deep and unfading impression. These boys were John and Charles Wesley, and George Whitfield.

    John and Charles Wesley were born at Epworth (and here comes a suggestion for the name Epworth League), the former June 28, 1703, and the latter March 29, 1708. George Whitfield was born in Gloucester, December 27, 1714. The story of the lives of these boys cannot be told here, but they are well worth being told, and then retold. These three boys became the fathers and founders of Methodism. They were all three members of the Church of England, and all studying for the ministry; and yet at that time, not one of them converted (which at that time was not unusual among the English clergy. Remember, however, that in those days, the parent frequently, if not usually, decided on the profession or line of the life to be followed by the boy). But these boys were afterwards converted, and genuinely and wonderfully converted.

16. These men seemed to have no desire to be the founders of a new denomination. But they did seem to greatly desire and earnestly strive for a revival of pure religion and a genuine spiritual reformation in the Church of England. This they tried in both England and America. The doors of their own churches were soon closed against them. Their services were frequently held out in the open, or in some private house, or, as especially in the case of Whitfield, in the meeting houses of other denominations. Whitfield's great eloquence attracted markedly great attention everywhere he went.

17. The definite date of the founding of the Methodist Church is hard to be determined. Unquestionably Methodism is older than the Methodist Church. The three young men were called Methodists before they left college. Their first organizations were called "Societies." Their first annual conference in England was held in 1744. The Methodist Episcopal Church was officially and definitely organized in America, in Baltimore in 1784. Their growth has really been marvelous. But, when they came out of the Church of England, or the Episcopal Church, they brought with them a number of the errors of the mother and grandmother churches. For instance, as the Episcopacy, or preacher-church government. On this point they have had many internal wars and divisions, and seem destined to have yet others. Infant Baptism and sprinkling for baptism, etc., but there is one great thing which they have, which they did not bring out with them, a genuine case of spiritual religion.

18. September 12, 1788, there was born in Antrium, Ireland, a child, who was destined in the years to come, to create quite a religious stir in some parts of the world, and to become the founder of a new religious denomination. That child was Alexander Campbell. His father was a Presbyterian minister. The father, Thomas Campbell, came to America in 1807. Alexander, his son, who was then in college, came later. Because of changed views, they left the Presbyterians and organized an independent body, which they called "The Christian Association," known as "The Brush Run Church." In 1811, they adopted immersion as baptism and succeeded in persuading a Baptist preacher to baptize them, but with the distinct understanding that they were not to unite with the Baptist Church. The father, mother, and Alexander were all baptized. In 1813 their independent church united with the Red Stone Baptist Association. Ten years later, because of controversy, they left that association and joined another.

FIFTH LECTURE—RELIGION IN THE UNITED STATES

1. Through the Spanish and others of the Latin races, the Catholics as religionists, came to be the first representatives of the Christian religion in South and Central America. But in North America, except Mexico, they have never strongly predominated. In the territory of what is now the United States except in those sections which were once parts of Mexico they have never been strong enough, even during the Colonial period to have their religious views established by law.

2. Beginning with the Colonial period, in the early part of the seventeenth century, the first settlements were established in Virginia, and a little later in that territory now known as the New England States. Religious, or more properly speaking—irreligious persecutions, in England, and on the continent, were, at least, among the prime causes which led to the first settlement of the first United States Colonies. In some of the groups of immigrants which first came, not including the Jamestown group (1607) and those known as the "Pilgrims" (1620), were two groups, one, at least, called "Puritans"—these were "Congregationalists." Governor Endicott was in control of their colony. The other group were Presbyterians. Among these two groups, however, were a number of Christians with other views than theirs, also seeking relief from persecution.

3. These refugeeing Congregationalists and Presbyterians established different Colonies and immediately within their respective territories established by law their own peculiar religious views. In other words, "Congregationalism" and "Presbyterianism" were made the legal religious views of their colonies. This to the absolute exclusion of all other religious views. Themselves fleeing the mother country, with the bloody marks of persecution still upon them and seeking a home of freedom and liberty for themselves, immediately upon being established in their own colonies, in the new land and having the authority, they deny religious liberty to others, and practice upon them the same cruel methods of persecution. Especially did they, so treat the Baptists.

4. The Southern colonies in Virginia, North and South Carolina were settled mainly by the adherents of the Church of England. The peculiar views of the Church were made the established religion of these colonies. Thus in the new land of America, where many other Congregationalists, Presbyterians and Episcopalians have come seeking the privilege of worshipping God according to the dictates of their own consciences, there were soon set up three established churches. No religious liberty for any except for those who held governmental authority. The Children of Rome are following in the bloody footsteps of their mother. Their own reformation is yet far from complete.

5. With the immigrants to America came many scattering Baptists (by some still called "Ana-Baptists"). There were probably some in every American-bound vessel. They came, however, in comparatively small groups, never in large colonies. They would not have been permitted to come in that way. But they kept coming. Before the colonies are thoroughly established the Baptists are numerous and almost everywhere. But they soon began to feel the heavy hands of the three State churches. For the terrible offenses of "preaching the Gospel" and "refusing to have their children baptized," "opposing infant baptism," and other like conscientious acts on their part, they were arrested, imprisoned, fined, whipped, banished, and their property confiscated, etc. All that here in America. From many sources, I give but a few illustrations.

6. Before the Massachusetts Bay Colony is twenty years old, with the Congregational as the State Church, they passed laws against the Baptists and others. The following is a sample of the laws:

> "It is ordered and agreed, that if any person or persons, within this jurisdiction, shall either openly condemn or oppose the baptizing of infants, or go about secretly to seduce others from the approbation or use thereof, or shall purposely depart the congregation at the ministration of the ordinance . . . after due time and means of conviction—every such person or persons shall be sentenced to banishment." This law was enacted especially against the Baptists.

7. By the Authorities in this colony, Roger Williams and others were banished. Banishment in America in those days was something desperately serious. It meant to go and live among the Indians. In this case Williams was received kindly and for quite a while lived among the Indians, and in after days proved a great blessing to the colony which had banished him. He saved the colony from destruction by this same tribe of Indians, by his earnest entreaties in their behalf. In this way he returned good for evil.

8. Roger Williams, later, together with others, some of whom, at least, had also been banished from that and other of the colonies among whom was John Clarke, a Baptist preacher, decided to organize a colony of their own. As yet they had no legal authority from England to do such a thing, but they thought this step wiser under existing conditions than to attempt to live in existing colonies with the awful religious restrictions then upon them. So finding a small section of land as yet unclaimed by any existing colony they proceeded to establish themselves on that section of land now known as Rhode Island. That was in the year 1638, ten years later than the Massachusetts Bay Colony, but it was about 25 years later (1663) before they were able to secure a legal charter.

9. In the year 1651 (?) Roger Williams and John Clarke were sent by. the colony to England to secure, if possible legal permission to establish their colony. When they reached England, Oliver Cromwell was in charge of the government, but for some reason he failed to grant their request. Roger Williams returned home to America. John Clarke remained in England to continue to press his plea. Year after year went by. Clarke continued to remain. Finally Cromwell lost his position and Charles II sat upon the throne of England. While Charles is regarded in history as one of the bitterest of persecutors of Christians, he finally, in 1663, granted that charter. So Clarke, after 12 long years of waiting returned home with that charter. So in 1663, the Rhode Island colony became a real legal institution, and the Baptists could write their own constitution.

10. That Constitution was written. It attracted the attention of the whole wide world. In that Constitution was the world's first declaration of "Religious Liberty."

    The battle for absolute religious liberty even in America alone is a great history within itself. For a long time the Baptists seem to have fought that battle entirely alone, but they did not fight it for themselves alone, but for all peoples of every religious faith. Rhode Island, the first Baptist colony, established by a small group of Baptists after 12 years of earnest pleading for permission was the first spot on earth where religious liberty was made the law of the land. The settlement was made in 1638; the colony legally established in 1663.

11. In this colony two Baptist churches were organized even prior to the legal establishment of the colony. As to the exact date of the organization of at least one of these two churches, even the Baptists, according to history, are at disagreement. All seem to be agreed as to the date of the organization of the one at Providence, by Roger Williams, in 1639. As to the date of the one organized at Newport by John Clarke, all the later testimony seems to give the date at 1638. All the earlier seems to give it later, some years later. The one organized by Roger Williams at Providence seems to have lived but a few months. The other by John Clarke at Newport, is still living. My own opinion as to the date of organization of Newport church, based on all available data, is that 1638 is the correct date. Personally, I am sure this date is correct.

12. As to the persecutions in some of the American colonies, we give a few samples. It is recorded that on one occasion one of John Clarke's members was sick. The family lived just across the Massachusetts Bay Colony line and just inside that colony. John Clarke, himself, and a visiting preacher by the name of Crandall and a layman by the name of Obediah Holmes–all three went to visit that sick family. While they were holding some kind of a prayer service with that sick family, some officer or officers of the colony came upon them and arrested them and later carried them before the court for trial. It is also stated, that in order to get a more definite charge against them, they were carried into a religious meeting of their church (Congregationalist), their hands being tied (so the record states). The charge against them was "for not taking off their hats in a religious service." They were all tried and convicted. Gov. Endicott was present. In a rage he said to Clarke, while the trial was going on, "You have denied infants baptism" (this was not the charge against them). "You deserve death. I will not have such trash brought into my jurisdiction." The penalty for all was a fine, or be well-whipped. Crandall's fine (a visitor) was five pounds ($25.00), Clarke's fine (the pastor) was twenty pounds ($100.00). Holmes' fine (the records say he had been a Congregationalist and had joined the Baptists) so his fine was thirty pounds ($150.00). Clark's and Crandall's fines were paid by friends.

Holmes refused to allow his fine paid, saying he had done no wrong, so was well whipped. The record states that he was "stripped to the waist" and then whipped (with some kind of a special whip) until the blood ran down his body and then his legs until his shoes overflowed. The record goes on to state that his body was so badly gashed and cut that for two weeks he could not lie down, so his body could touch the bed. His sleeping had to be done on his hands or elbows and knees. Of this whipping and other things connected with it I read all records, even Holmes' statement. A thing could hardly have been more brutal. And here in America!

13. Painter, another man, "refused to have his child baptized," and gave as his opinion "that infant baptism was an anti-Christian ordinance." For these offenses he was tied up and whipped. Governor Winthrop tells us that Painter was whipped "for reproaching the Lord's ordinance."

14. In the colony where Presbyterianism was the established religion, dissenters (Baptist and others) seemed to fare no better than in the Massachusetts Bay Colony where Congregationalism was the established religion.

    In this colony was a settlement of Baptists. In the whole settlement were only five other families. The Baptists recognized the laws they were under and were, according to the records, obedient to them. This incident occurred:

    It was decided by authorities of the colony to build a Presbyterian meeting house in that Baptist settlement. The only way to do it seemed by taxation. The Baptists recognized the authority of the Presbyterians to levy this new and extra tax, but they made this plea against the tax at this time—"We have just started our settlement. Our little cabins have just been built, and little gardens and patches just been opened. Our fields not cleared. We have just been taxed to the limit to build a fort for protection against the Indians. We cannot possibly pay another tax now." This is only the substance of their plea. The tax was levied. It could not possibly be paid at that time. An auction was called. Sales were made. Their cabins and gardens and patches, and even their graveyards, were sold—not their unopened fields. Property valued at 363 pounds and 5 shillings sold for 35 pounds and 10 shillings. Some of it, at least, was said to have been bought by the preacher who was to preach there. The settlement was said to have been left ruined.

    A large book could be filled with oppressive laws. Terrifically burdensome acts of taxation, hard dealing of many sorts, directed mainly against the Baptists. But these lectures cannot enter into these details.

15. In the southern colonies, throughout the Carolinas and especially Virginia, where the Church of England held sway, persecution of Baptists was serious and continuous. Many times their preachers were fined and imprisoned. From the beginning of the colonial period to the opening of the Revolutionary War, more than 100 years, these persecutions of Baptists were persisted in.

SOME AFTER WORDS

1. During every period of the "Dark Ages" there were in existence many Christians and many separate and independent Churches, some of them dating back to the times of the Apostles, which were never in any way connected with the Catholic Church. They always wholly rejected and repudiated the Catholics and their doctrines. This is a fact clearly demonstrated by credible history.

2. These Christians were the perpetual objects of bitter and relentless persecution. History shows that during the period of the "Dark Ages," about twelve centuries, beginning with A.D. 426, there were about fifty millions of these Christians who died martyr deaths. Very many thousands of others, both preceding and succeeding the "Dark Ages," died under the same hard hand of persecution.

3. These Christians, during these dark days of many centuries, were called by many different names, all given to them by their enemies. These names were sometimes given because of some specially prominent and heroic leader and sometimes from other causes; and sometimes, yea, many times, the same people, holding the same views, were called by different names in different localities. But amid all the many changes of names, there was one special name or rather designation, which clung to at least some of these Christians, throughout all the "Dark Ages," that designation being "Ana-Baptist." This compound word applied as a designation of some certain Christians was first found in history during the third century; and a suggestive fact soon after the origin of Infant Baptism, and a more suggestive fact even prior to the use of the name Catholic. Thus the name "Ana-Baptists" is the oldest denominational name in history.

4. A striking peculiarity of these Christians was and continued to be in succeeding centuries: They rejected the man-made doctrine of "Infant Baptism" and demanded rebaptism, even though done by immersion for all those who came to them, having been baptized in infancy. For this peculiarity they were called "Ana-Baptists."

5. This, special designation was applied to many of these Christians who bore other nicknames; especially is this true of the Donatists, Paulicians, Albigenses and Ancient Waldenses and others. In later centuries this designation came to be a regular name, applied to a distinct group. These were simply called "Ana- Baptists" and gradually all other names were dropped. Very early in the sixteenth century, even prior to the origin of the Lutheran Church, the first of all the Protestant Churches, the word "ana" was beginning to be left off, and they were simply called "Baptists."

6. Into the "dark ages" went a group of many churches which were never in any way identified with the Catholics. Out of the "dark ages" came a group of many churches, which had never been in any way identified with the Catholics.

   The following are some of the fundamental doctrines to which they held when they went in: And the same are, the fundamental doctrines to which they held when they came out: And the same are the fundamental doctrines to which they now hold.

FUNDAMENTAL DOCTRINES

1. A spiritual Church, Christ its founder, its only head and law giver.

2. Its ordinances, only two, Baptism and the Lord’s Supper. They are typical and memorial, not saving.

3. Its officers, only two, bishops or pastors and deacons; they are servants of the church.

4. Its Government, a pure Democracy, and that executive only, never legislative.

5. Its laws and doctrines: The New Testament and that only.

6. Its members. Believers only, they saved by grace, not works, through the regenerating power of the Holy Spirit.

7. Its requirements. Believers on entering the church to be baptized, that by immersion, then obedience and loyalty to all New Testament laws.
8. The various churches–separate and independent in their execution of laws and discipline and in their responsibilities to God—but cooperative in work.
9. Complete separation of Church and State.
10. Absolute Religious liberty for all.

4.9.18 The Tragedy Of Preachers Who No Longer Stand (2023-09-21 17:49)

Ephesians 6:10-13, " Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand."

One of the saddest thing that Pastor Jack Hyles said h saw in his lifetime, and this was back in the 1970's, was that preachers no longer stand. Here is a direct quote from Dr. Hyles:

> "I've been preaching a long time, and I've watched a lot of things happen. To me the saddest thing that I've watched in my life, apart from my own country going to the Devil nearly, has been the change of preachers and churches. I find myself amazed and stunned with near disbelief, as I see men who once stood who don't stand anymore ... I know every week I cry some, I mean cry, I mean tear cry, because of preachers who are turning." —Pastor Jack Hyles, 'I[1] SHALL NOT BE MOVED'

Well, they've turned alright.

It is now 2023 and it is nearly impossible today to find a preacher who has the guts, backbone and doctrinal integrity to STAND. Brother Hyles went to Heaven in 2001, the same year that my beloved mother graduated to Heaven. I couldn't agree more with Dr. Hyles that preachers no longer stand anymore today. Dr. Hyles said he literally cried because of preachers who were TURNING, but Brother they have long ago turned.

It is tragic that 99 % of church pastors are not Bible preachers. They are mere administrators, some are counselors, a few are college chancellors (e.g., Dr. Clarence Sexton), and some motivational speakers (e.g., Joel Osteen). Sadly, hardly any of them are Bible preachers anymore! They refuse to 'STAND' as the Bible commands in our text passage from Ephesians 6:13. In Ephesians 6:10-13 we see that the Christian's battle is in stages:

1. We wrestle (i.e., we fight) against the wiles, or trickery, of the Devil
2. We withstand (hang in there during the battle, don't give up)
3. We stand (when all strength is gone, don't change you beliefs or convictions)

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) while visiting as a guest preacher in Texas, [2]preached a beautiful life-changing sermon on this very topic from Ephesians 6:10-13. You won't regret listening to it!

Tragically, I dare say 99 % of pastors today do not stand for or against anything. Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) comes to mind. PCC is a disgrace to the cause of Jesus Christ. PCC refuses to get their hands dirty. Listen, when you don't stand against doctrinal error, over time you end up being sucked in yourself and deceived. John Wesley was right: "What one generation tolerates, the next generation will embrace." PCC invites, honors and promotes [3]hellbound infidel, Ken Ham, who teaches that faith is not enough to get to Heaven. God's hand of blessing has long departed from the PCC camp. Like the ungodly Laodicean church in Revelation 3:15-17, PCC foolishly think they are prospering, when in reality God calls them spiritually blind, naked, wretched, poor and miserable!!! SHAME on PCC and Campus Church for wickedly bidding Godspeed to Ken Ham and his religious 3-ring circus that damns men's souls to Hell. PCC is pulling on the same rope as the Devil.

I shall not be moved! The love of money has corrupted PCC and other religious institutions today. Bob Jones University (BJU) has become a Satanic cult, preaching hardcore Lordship Salvation today instead of a free grace Gospel. PCC is in bed committing spiritual whoredom with the Bob Jones cult, hiring each other's graduates, allowing their students to compete in intercollegiate sports, operating shared radio stations, promoting each other's sermons, et cetera. God's curse is upon PCC and BJU for preaching another Gospel. [4]Here is the counterfeit gospel being taught at PCC to their thousands of students and church cult members.

It is tragic and sad that preachers no longer stand against the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions. Go into just about any church today, and you will find that they don't use the inspired King James Bible. Instead, they use the Devil's New American Standard Bible (NASB), or the New King James Version (NKJV), or the corrupt English Standard Version (ESV), et cetera. All of these latter named Bibles are of the Devil, corrupt in many ways, all attacking Jesus' deity.

When I attended the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for one year, I stayed quiet for the first several months, because I hadn't been in church for some time. I needed their love and acceptance, which they all did at first. But as I saw the Devil's Bible revisions being used, and wrong repentance being taught, and the Devil's Lordship Salvation being preached by Pastor Marty Herron from the pulpit, God's Holy Spirit burdened my heart for my church family. So I decided to TELL THE TRUTH, and I did. I spent $1,000 for 50 King James Bible DVD's read by Alexander Scourby, for the church to do with as they wish. I gave them to the office.

I also spent hundreds of dollars for books authored by fundamentalist pastors like Jack Hyles, Al Lacy and Max Younce, and gave hard copies to Harvest's pastors. I gave them one of my favorite books in defense of the Gospel, titled: "[5]I NEVER KNEW YOU" by Michael P. Bowen. Sadly, Harvest's pastors resented all of the books that I gave them, which told THE TRUTH. Harvest's incompetent, arrogant and deceived pastors rejected THE TRUTH. The next thing that happened was that they kicked me out of church, and then banned me from coming back to attend church. As happened to the Apostle Paul in Galatia, they counted me as their enemy because I told them THE TRUTH. Galatians 4:16,

Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

" Yes Paul, you and I are counted as their enemies, by professed Christians (go figure), simply because we told them THE TRUTH. Jesus ran into the same problem. John 8:45, "

And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

Where are the preachers today who stand? You won't find any at BJU. You won't find any in the PCC camp. You won't find any at Crown College or Temple Baptist Church in Powell, Tennessee. Shamefully, in December of 2022, Pastor Clarence Sexton preached in BJU chapel, wickedly bidding Godspeed to BJU. Hellbound heretic, Paul Washer, was also invited and honored at the event, poisoning the minds of BJU's thousands of students with his Reformed Calvinist Theology from Hell. Calvinism is NOT the Gospel. Lordship Salvation is a perversion of the grace of God.

I don't claim to be a good Christian. That is not for me to say. Other people would have to say that about me for it to be true. No man has a right to proclaim his own goodness, only others can bestow that honor upon someone. Then again, brainwashed people in a cult like PCC would probably brag on their leaders, as they fornicate spiritually with the deadly Lordship Salvation cult at BJU. So ultimately, it is only God who can determine if someone is good or bad. What does God know about you dear friend.

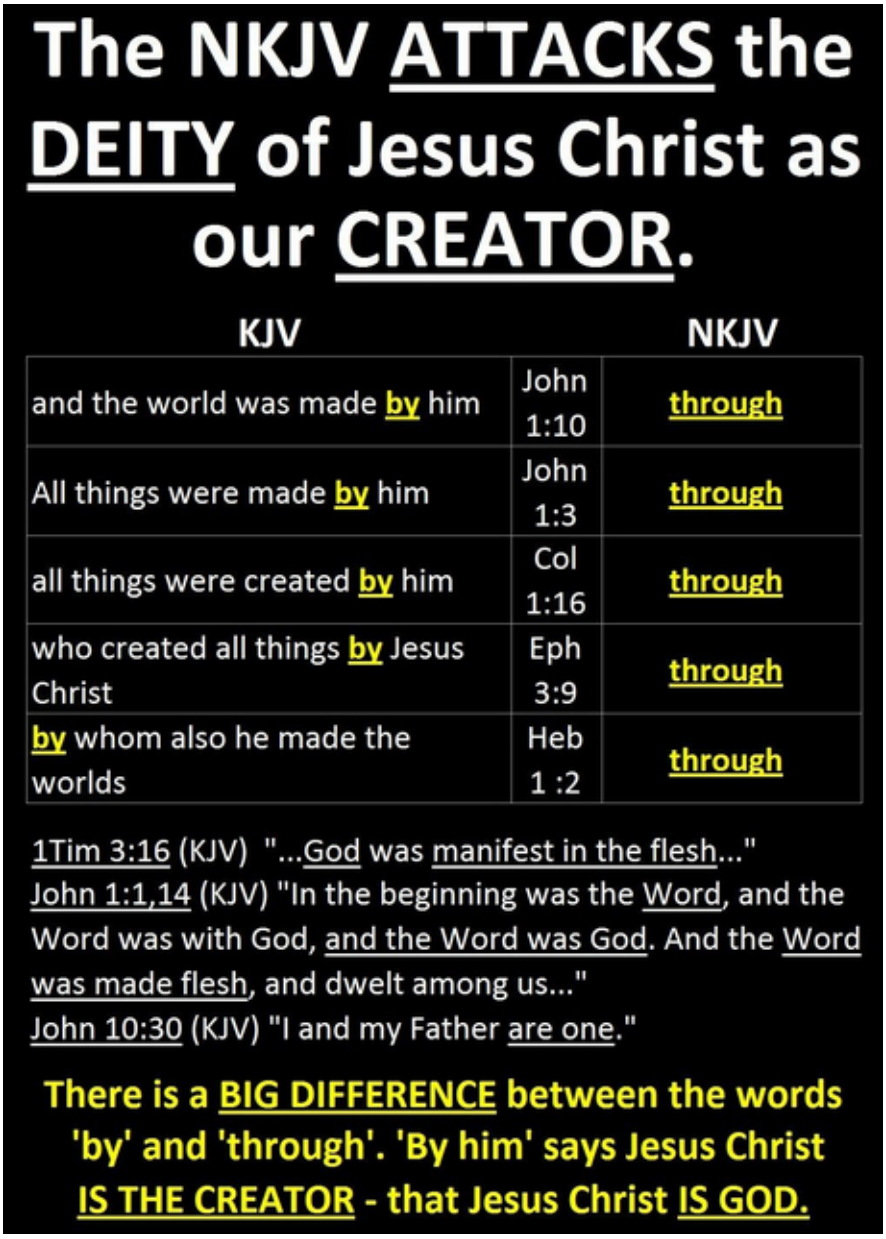
God knows that I am far from perfect, but the Lord knows that I truly do care about and love everybody unconditionally with God's love. God knows that for the past 21 years of internet labor, since 2002 when I began my website ministry, I have been faithful to contend for the Christian faith, to tell THE TRUTH, and I have not compromised for any reason. I have never accepted a penny for my ministry labors, and I never will. I want everyone to know where my heart is. Ministers who accept money may or may not be sincere, you don't know. I have returned uncashed checks to pastors, and refused donations countless times. One web visitor begged me to start a Go Fund Me account, so he could donate money to my ministry, but I kindly and humbly declined his suggestion. I don't need or want the money. Your continued interest in my ministry labors, and your occasional prayers, are all that I desire. I have a full reward waiting for me in Heaven (1st Corinthians 3:7-9).



I agree with Pastor Lester Roloff (1914-1981) who said: "The greatest need of the hour is preaching preachers!" Pastor Jack Hyles said the same thing:

> "Old-fashioned, Spirit-filled, Christ-honoring, sin-hating, soul-winning, Bible preaching! It is the hope of the church! It is the hope of the nation! It is the hope of the world!" — [6]Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001)

Where are those preaching preachers today? Sadly, 99 % of pastors, chaplains, missionaries, clergy and evangelists are not preachers. They are mere employees of some religious organization or missionary board. We don't need any more pastors, evangelists or idle laymen in the churches. We need men of God whose hearts burn with THE TRUTH. The Bible says that when the heathen magistrates saw the BOLDNESS of Peter and John, they perceived that they had BEEN WITH JESUS! Amen. If you spend time walking with Jesus, then you too will become BOLD to preach THE TRUTH, as I do.

I may not be a great Christian, but I do know Jesus and spend time walking with Him. We are friends. The Lord's blessed Holy Spirit convicts me a lot about all the things that could use some improvement in my Christian life, but He knows that I am on His side and just want to be a blessing to others for Him. I wish PCC leaders could see that about me—that my heart is in the right place, that I don't want to be their enemy—but sadly, PCC leaders are in bed committing spiritual adultery with the cult at BJU, which I expose and preach against, so PCC despises me because of my faithful and courageous biblical STAND against BJU and their Devil's Bibles, misunderstood repentance and Lordship Damnation heresy. Somebody needs to get upset! Somebody needs to care! I care! I hope you do too dear reader. Are you taking a STAND against false doctrine? If nothing else, you can help promote my blog and website articles on social media, getting people to think and face the issues.

Every local so-called "church" today that uses the Devil's bibles should be challenged and if need be, exposed. The Devil's Bible versions have flooded into the churches like water crashing through town after a local dam breaks. We see signs of Satan everywhere today

The NKJV Attacks Jesus' Deity

If we don't stand as believers, then who will? If not us, who? If not now, when? If not here, where? Titus 1:13-14, "This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

" Those words,

"the truth," keep appearing throughout the Holy Bible, because truth is very important, don't you agree? The words, "the truth," appear 20 times in the Old Testament, and 62 times in the New Testament. That is a total of 82 times in the Word of God that we find mention of the words

"the truth." John 17:17,

“Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. ”

Today’s churches are in big trouble. The biggest threat are today’s SPIITUALLY DEAD Bible colleges (e.g., PCC, BJU, Crown College, Liberty University, Dallas Theological Seminary, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, Maranatha Baptist University, et cetera). Less than 1 % of today’s religious colleges teach that we actually have an inspired perfect Bible today in English language. The other apostate 99 % errantly teach that only the non-existent original autographs were inspired by God. [8]This is the garbage taught at PCC.

[9] It’s Time To Come Out Of The Closet

(Pastor Jack Hyles, 1926-2001)

There are Christians all across America who are sitting home. They do not attend any church, simply because nobody cares enough to go to their door and invite them to come to the local church. DO IT MY FRIEND!!! Go knock on your neighbour’s door and ask them to come to church. I have invited all of my neighbour’s to come to church with me. Most won’t come, but I am not giving up. People just want to be loved. That statement scares a lot of people, because they are afraid to love and be loved, but God is love. Every child of God, if you get close to God your Savior, WILL love other people, individually (not just as a group, like PCC does insincerely). I don’t think they love anybody at PCC, except themselves and their 6-digit paychecks. Either you love everybody, or else you don’t love anybody. Judas called Judas, the man who betrayed Him to death, “

It is sad that pastors today are no longer Bible preachers. Preaching is TRUTH set on fire. Teaching is the transfer of knowledge from one mind to another; but Preaching is trying to change someone’s beliefs and convictions. I am a born-again fundamentalist Bible preacher!

God is recruiting. He needs a few weak men, so that the power of Christ may be strong through our weakness. 2nd Corinthians 12:9, “And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.” Most pastors are too full of themselves, like those Bozo clowns’ Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias at PCC’s Campus Church circus, to be made effectively use of by God. I say that kindly but truthfully. They have banned me in writing as of August 2, 2022 from attending Campus Church. Only wicked pastor selectively care about people. PCC is a secular business and a religious cult, not a church. SHAME on PCC!!!

My constant prayer and desire is that I might be deemed utterly weak in God’s eyes, so that His power may rest upon my humble ministry labors for Him. James 4:10, “Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.” 1st Peter 5:6-7, “Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.” Have you humbled yourself to God dear friend? The Bible promises that if you draw near unto God, He WILL draw near unto you (James 4:8). Most people don’t want to get close to God, because of their love for sin. We live in a very wicked society today. To walk with God we must take time to be alone with God, away from all the things that clamour for our time to keep us from spending time with God.

The average pastor is so woefully ignorant of the preceding evils, that if his life depended on it he couldn't expose them. We need a whole new breed of preachers in this country! The Bible commands men of God to contend for the faith.

Jude 1:3-4, "Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ."

It's been rightly said that the smallest Bible in the world is the one we choose to live. Sadly, that is true. Everybody has their own book that they live by. I have often told people that I am as narrow-minded as the Bible.

Ironically, I heard Johnny Esposito say that in chapel while he was employed at Hyles-Anderson College (back in the late 1980's). I was a student then. I never forgot what he said, because he is exactly right! Yet, I learned recently that Johnny Esposito is scheduled to speak at PCC. That is sickening! [10]PCC wickedly bids Godspeed to Hellbound false teacher, Ken Ham! Just because PCC has grown too big for their britches doesn't give them a free pass from contending for the faith. PCC is just as obligated to expose false teachers as any other believer. What has happened is that the gods (arrogant leaders) at PCC have made up their own rules which supersede God's commandments in the Word of God (Mark 7:9).

Some of my enemies would falsely accuse me of not being able to get along with anybody in churches, but they would be very wrong. The truth is that pastors keep getting upset with me, because they are dropping the ball for God, and I am exposing them as being incompetent. Here is a list of incompetent pastors that I have exposed, for which I make no apologies:

1. Marty Herron (preaches Lordship Salvation & Wrong Repentance)
2. Gary Walton (preaches Lordship Salvation & Wrong Repentance)
3. Steve Pettit (Bob Jones University; preaches Lordship Salvation & Wrong Repentance)
4. Sam Horn (preaches Lordship Salvation & Wrong Repentance)
5. John MacArthur (preaches Lordship Salvation & Wrong Repentance)
6. Sean Quinlan (wickedly bids Godspeed to Lordship Salvation pastors)
7. Jeff Redlin (wickedly bids Godspeed to Lordship Salvation pastors & preaches Wrong Repentance)
8. Clarence Sexton
   (wickedly bids Godspeed to Lordship Salvation pastors)
9. Sam Adams (preaches Lordship Salvation & Wrong Repentance)
10. Joe Hensen (preaches Lordship Salvation & Wrong Repentance)
11. Jared Baldwin (preaches Lordship Salvation & Wrong Repentance)
12. Timothy Zacharias (wickedly bids Godspeed to Lordship Salvation pastors & preaches Wrong Repentance)
13. Unshackled (Pacific Garden Mission; preaches Lordship Salvation & Wrong Repentance)
14. Chuck Phelps (preaches Lordship Salvation & Wrong Repentance)

Those are the names of 14 disgraceful pastors in the pulpit today.

Whereas Titus 1:9-14 command us as saints to "REBUKE THEM SHARPLY" who subvert whole households with another gospel, PCC have become partaker of Ken Ham's evil deeds (2nd John 1:11), by helping promote his counterfeit plan of salvation (Galatians 1:6-9, 3:1, 5:4, 6:7). If you have to turn from your evil way to be saved, then you're going to Hell, because the Bible says in Romans 3:20, "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." Jonah 3:10 says that God saw their WORKS in Nineveh, that they turned from their evil way. No one has ever been saved by WORKS according to Romans 4:1-7.

Regarding Pastor Jeff Redlin at PCC, he is a wicked man for bidding Godspeed to [11]Ken Ham, who preaches another Gospel. PCC has a tremendous amount of influence upon thousands of churches and Christians, so they will be held doubly accountable by God. Furthermore, PCC and Campus Church wickedly bid Godspeed to the accursed [12]Bob Jones University CULT and their damnable Lordship Salvation garbage.

Sadly, nearly all professed Christians today have become complacent, at ease in mediocrity and apostasy, just sinfully going along to get along. Just because PCC is comfortable hobnobbing with infidels doesn't make it okay or acceptable with God. PCC has banned me from attending their Campus Church, because they hate my guts for exposing them. They are arrogant and proud. Churchgoers today just listen to what they want to hear on the radio or internet. ...

> 2nd Timothy 4:2-4,"Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables."

Today's modern corrupt Bible revisions are full of fables. The damnable lie of Lordship Salvation that is being preached in 90 % of churches today (sadly that includes independent Baptist churches) is a fable. People's ears have bene turned away from the truth, lied to and told that they must turn away from their sinning to get to Heaven, which is WORKS, not GRACE. Romans 4:4 settles the matter once and for all, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt." If getting saved has ever been (even for one moment) of human civilization, by WORKS, then it would have by owed by DEBT from God, and not by God's merciful undeserving GRACE. You listen close dear friend: GOD DOESN'T OWE YOU OR ME ANYTHING!!! We all deserve to plunge immediately down into the fires of Hell, beneath in the center of the earth (Proverbs 15:24). Like the game Monopoly says: 'Do Not Pass Go, Do Not Collect $200, Go Directly To Jail.'

I have mindfully paid attention to their and ways at Campus Church and PCC, and they should be ashamed and exposed (Romans 16:17-18). PCC are doing a lot of good, while also doing incalculable damage to the cause of Jesus Christ. By sinfully bidding Godspeed to infidel Ken Ham and the accursed Bob Jones camp, PCC have much blood on their hands. They are as the wicked church at Laodicea, who thought they were prospering, but Christ Himself called them "blind, miserable, naked, wretched and poor" (Revelation 3:15-17).

Beware Of The Accursed Bob Jones University Cult

Dear reader, have you been listening to me in my blogs for the past few years? I humbly hope that you have, but just in case you haven't, please take a look at the Satanic tommyrot that is being taught to thousands of students today at Bob Jones University. Dt. Steve Peter said:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[13]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [14]11:34)

Lest you have any doubts that this wicked man is a child of the Devil, please read what else he says:

> “God’s people HAVE TO continue in the faith! They MUST PERSEVERE, because perseverance is the testimony of the reality of your faith!” [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” [emphasis added] - [15]25:13)

> “For the real reality of the genuineness of your faith is that you are faithful to run the race!” —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” [emphasis added] - [16]22:44)

This is Calvinism!!! Dr. Petit (president of BJU from 2014 to 2023) teaches that if you aren’t living in holiness, then your faith in not real and you were never saved at all. Pettit continues:

> “’The race’ is a description of the whole of the Christian life of faith.” —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - [17]4:26)

That is some dangerous talk when you include the next quote from Dr. Pettit, in which he teaches 3,000 BJU students that the “AWARD” for running ’The Race’ is “Heaven itself”!!!

> “We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what’s the prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don’t believe its referring to crowns in Heaven. I think it is referring to Heaven itself.” [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - [18]22:57)

Dr. Pettit is 100 % predicating (i.e., conditioning) your salvation upon your good behavior and performance. This is NOT the simple plan of salvation taught in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Nothing can truly be a “ free gift

(Romans 5:15-18), if you are obligated to live a certain way to

for it, as Steve Pettit heretical teaches. This man is NOT saved!

Dear reader, this is not the simple plan of salvation which Jesus and the apostles preached, which was to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, AND THOU SHALT BE SAVED *Acts 16:30-31). Damnable false teachers have crept into BJU, Crown College, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, Moody Bible Institute and PCC, and nobody is getting upset about it except me. Why is that?

Yet, I have been kicked out and banned from the ungodly Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (a cesspool of BJU alumni), and sadly, even from Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (who are spiritually fornicating in bed with the BJU cult). God’s judgment will not sleep forever on these wicked institutions. Rather than heed THE TRUTH, PCC and BJU have banned and ostracized me from their churches, counting me as their enemy and a troublemaker, just as the wicked Galatians did to Paul (Galatians 4:16), and wicked Ahab did to Elijah (1st Kings 18:17-28). God will not be mocked, PCC and BJU will pay the consequences (Galatians 6:7). Sadly, I am the only one who has done the right thing in this critically important matter. While I have been faithfully contending for the faith, cowards and irresponsible pastors like Clarence Sexton, Jeff Redlin, Timothy Zacharias, Kurt Skelly and countless more wicked preachers have bid Godspeed to Ken Ham, BJU and other infidels. Well, by God's grace I am humbly exposing them all! I am STANDING, as Ephesians 6:13 commands me to do, and I will die STANDING against the wiles (trickery) of the Devil.

Acts 4:13, "Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus." Just like Peter and John, I am just a simple guy, a nobody really. I don't claim to be a good Christian, but I want to do better each day. Many people think I am just a troublemaker, like Ahab thought of Elijah (1st Kings 18:17-18). It is BJU and PCC who are troubling the churches today, not me; I am trying to rescue them from the poisonous tentacles of today's apostate so-called "

Bible colleges.

" Those sorry devils don't even believe that we have an inspired perfect Holy Bible today!

But I do know and walk with Jesus, my God, Lord and Savior. I cannot speak for others, only myself, but as I walk with the Lord in the light of the truth of His Word, my heart burns to preach (Jeremiah 20:9). Psalms 119:104, "Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way."

Ephesians 6:10-13, " Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand."

Revelation 3:2,

Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain*, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

Most pastors today just collect a paycheck, never go soulwinning, never preach against sin, don't feed God's flock, sinfully hold grudges against unwanted people in church, and wickedly hobnob with false teachers. I'm probably taking about your sorry pastor. The United States is going to Hell today because of sorry pastors who no longer STAND for or against anything. In closing I'll repeat Dr. Hyles' tremendous statement, which I think about often because it is absolutely true:

> "I've been preaching a long time, and I've watched a lot of things happen. To me the saddest thing that I've watched in my life, apart from my own country going to the Devil nearly, has been the change of preachers and churches. I find myself amazed and stunned with near disbelief, as I see men who once stood who don't stand anymore ...I know every week I cry some, I mean cry, I mean tear cry, because of preachers who are turning." —Pastor Jack Hyles, 'I [19] SHALL NOT BE MOVED '

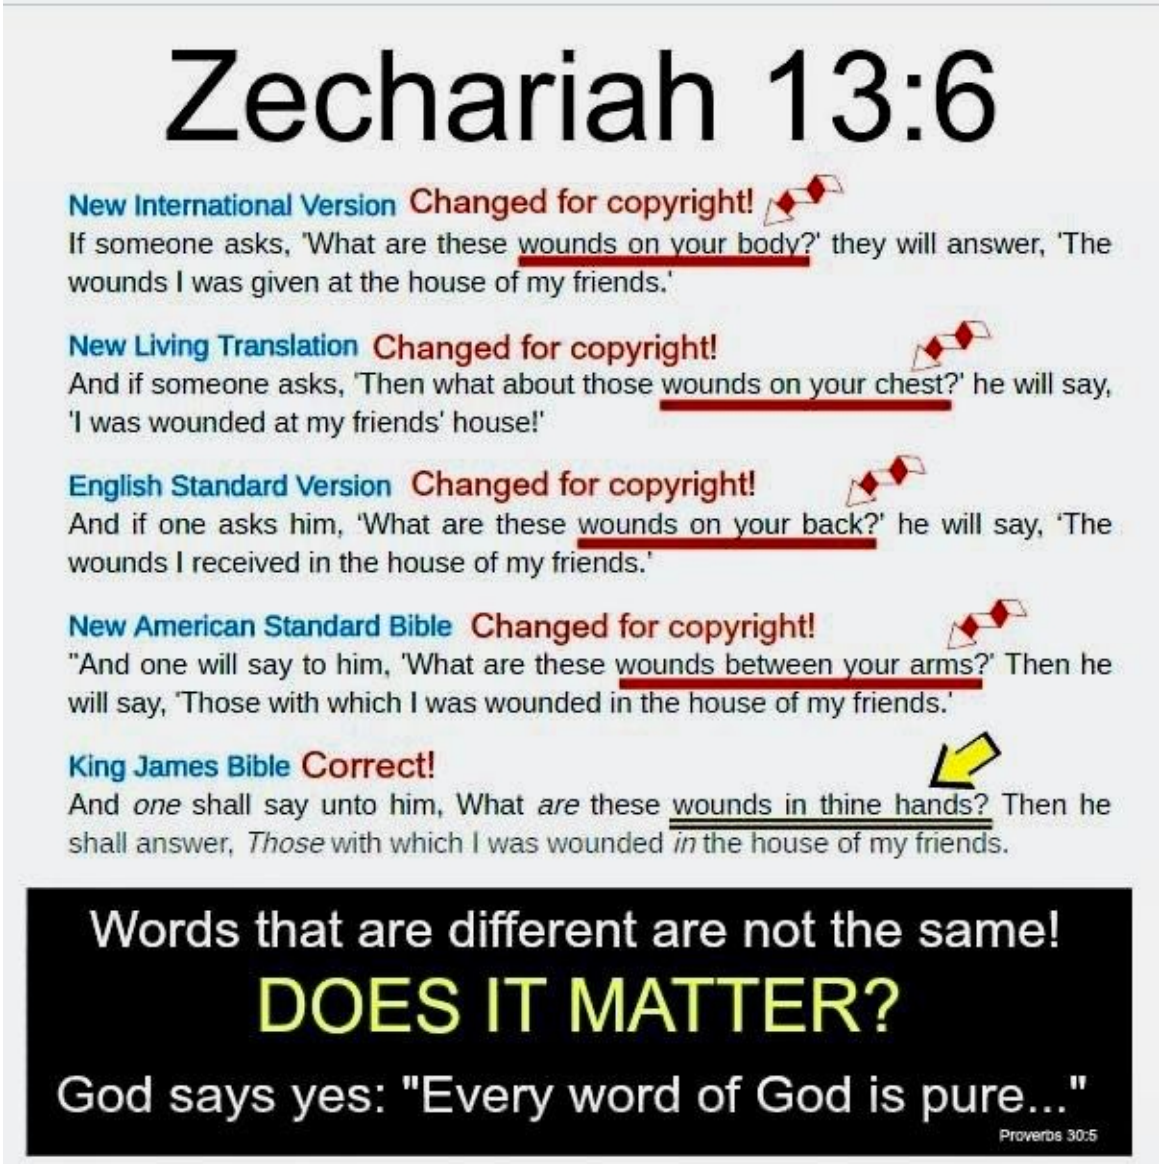
4.9.19 It Really Does Matter Which Bible You Use (2023-09-22 12:50)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, "For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ."



The preceding text Bible verse has been corrupted in every modern Bible version. See for yourself:

> KING JAMES BIBLE — 2nd Corinthians 2:17, "For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ." [emphasis added]
> NEW INTERNATIONAL READER'S VERSION (NIRV) — 2nd Corinthians 2:17, "Unlike many people, we aren't selling God's word to make money. In fact, it is just the opposite. Because of Christ we speak honestly before God. We speak like people God has sent."
> NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION (NIV) - 2nd Corinthians 2:17, "Unlike so many, we do not peddle the word of God for profit. On the contrary, in Christ we speak before God with sincerity, as those sent from God."

Biblica (formerly the International Bible Society) and Zondervan sell Bibles to make money! So according to their own corrupt translations, they are doing evil by selling the Scriptures! Honestly, is it a sin to sell Bibles? No, it is a sin to CORRUPT the inspired Word of God, as the King James Bible accurately warns.

The following comparison between different Bible versions speaks 1,000 words, which should silence honest critics. ...

Bible Corrupted To Obtain A legal U.S. Copyright

A sincere man on Facebook critiqued me recently, saying that we should be focused on winning souls and not bickering over which Bible to use; but that is the whole point I kindly told him, because the Devil's modern Bible revisions change and pervert the meaning of "repent" (and in so doing change and corrupt God's simple plan of salvation). Jesus Christ came into the world to die on a cross to pay our debt of sin (Romans 5:6-9; 2nd Corinthians 5:21), He doesn't demand that we forsake our sinful bad habits as a prerequisite to receiving God's free gift of forgiveness of those sins.

Yet, tragically, in nearly every church today (sadly this includes so-called "independent fundamental Baptist" churches), we hear the pastor foolishly teaching that you cannot go to Heaven unless you repent " of your sins

turn from your sins

" (phrases nowhere found in the Holy Bible). This is a counterfeit plan of salvation, which does not match what the King James Bible teaches. I encourage you dear reader to read Michael P. Bowen's helpful book titled: '[2]I NEVER KNEW YOU' in defense of the true Gospel. It is one of my favorite books.

The ugly blatant truth friend is that Satan has corrupted today's Bible revisions to hinder people from being born-again. Satan's greatest weapon in his arsenal is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. For example:

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: □□□□□□ □□, and believe the gospel." [emphasis added]
> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — Mark 1:15, "He said, "The right time is now here. God's kingdom is very near. □□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□, and believe the Good News!" [emphasis added]

Is that how we get saved, by changing our hearts and lives? No, it is not.

Here's another example, this time from the New Life Version (NLV):

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: □□□□□□ □□, and believe the gospel."
> NEW LIFE VERSION (NLV) - Mark 1:15, "He said, 'The time has come. The holy nation of God is near. □□ □□□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□, □□□□ □□□□ □□□□, and believe the Good News."'

Does a lost sinner have to be sorry (an emotion) for sins, and turn from them, to get to Heaven? No, you won't find that nonsense in an inspired King James Bible. Feeling sorry for sin is penitence, not repentance. Making a mend for sin is penance, not repentance. Changing one's behavior is reformation, not Bible repentance.

Here's another comparison:

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Hebrews 6:1, “Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of □□□□□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□□, and of faith toward God.” [emphasis added]

EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — “So we should be finished with the beginning lessons about Christ. We should not have to keep going back to where we started. We began our new life □□ □□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□ □□ □□□ □□□□ and by believing in God.” [emphasis added]

If I had my way, the people responsible for this butchery of God’s Word would be behind bars in prison for a long time, and also every pastor who corrupts people’s minds with these trashy perverted translations. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! No honest person can claim that it just doesn’t matter which Bible we use.

Argue as many still may, the following comparison charts (as well as the comparisons I have just shown you), should settle the matter for any honest observer.

The NKJV ATTACKS the DEITY of Jesus Christ as our CREATOR.

KJV		NKJV
and the world was made by him	John 1:10	through
All things were made by him	John 1:3	through all things were created by him	Col 1:16	through who created all things by Jesus Christ	Eph 3:9	through by whom also he made the worlds	Heb 1 :2	through

1Tim 3:16 (KJV) "...God was manifest in the flesh..."
John 1:1,14 (KJV) "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us..."
John 10:30 (KJV) "I and my Father are one."

There is a BIG DIFFERENCE between the words 'by' and 'through'. 'By him' says Jesus Christ IS THE CREATOR - that Jesus Christ IS GOD.

God's love warns the wicked, new versions "take hold of his words" (Luke 20:20) and turn them upside down —

4.9.20 John R. Rice's "Sword Of The Lord" Not KJV Only (2023-09-23 14:53)

Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever."

Someone sent me a blog today titled: "[1]John R. Rice's "Sword of the Lord" Not KJV Only."

Kindly, just because those believers joined together hand in hand doesn't make them correct. Dr. Rice didn't have the internet and exponential access to data that we have today. Dr. Hyles did flip-flop on the issue. In his early ministry Dr. Hyles corrected the King James Bible (e.g., in his book: Let's Study The Revelation), but then after Dr. Rice died Dr. Hyles became King James Bible only in the early 1980's. John R. Rice was 31 years older than Dr. Hyles, and Brother Hyles deeply respected Dr. Rice as a mentor, which he admitted on many occasions. I think Dr. Hyles went along with Brother Rice because he loved and respected him. They shared the pulpit together in over 2,000 preaching engagements, during their 22 years of traveling across the country as a team.

They did have a few feuds over the years.

Dr. Rice wasn't the easiest man to get along with. Pastor Hyles once paid the Sword of the Lord tens of thousands of dollars to publish 7,000 Hyles Church Manual books, but the Sword messed up and the pages were not positioned correctly in the book. Dr. Rice wanted Brother Hyles to just insert a paper in front of the book explaining which pages were out of place. Dr. Hyles refused, saying to Dr. Rice that he was trying to teach his preacher boys to do things the right way, and that little things are important. Dr. Rice refused to do the right thing. So Dr. Hyles took the loss and destroyed the 7,000 books. Pastor Hyles bought his own equipment at Hyles-Anderson College and from that day forth they published all their own books.

Psalms 12:6-7 Has Been Corrupted In ALL Modern Bible Revisions

Anybody who foolishly thinks that only the originals were inspired is denying that God kept His promise in Psalms 12:6-7 to keep and preserve His “ forever. It is so obvious that all of these modern Bibles have been corrupted. I am surprised how ignorant people are on the matter. No matter [2]how much evidence I show people how corrupt these Devil’s Bibles are, they want to argue and defend their 12 different conflicting Bible versions. It is wickedness and insanity. God is not the author of confusion (1st Corinthians 14:33). God would NEVER give us hundreds of English Bible revisions, all slightly different (some majorly different) to choose the truth from.

According to the American Bible Society (ABS), there are approximately 900 different English Bible versions. ...

> I am afraid no one can give you an exact number for the English translations and paraphrases of the Bible printed since Tyndale’s New Testament of 1526. In part this is due to the difficulty of determining what should be defined as a new translation as opposed to a correction or a revision of an existing translation. There is the additional question of how we should count translations that include not a complete Bible or Testament, but just a group of books or even a single book. And then, of course, there is the difficulty of sheer numbers. With all these caveats in mind, the number of printed English translations and paraphrases of the Bible, whether complete or not, is about 900. [emphasis added]

Wowza! 900??? Good night!

Sadly, I know Independent Baptist churches where multiple plans of salvation are permitted and taught. When I attended the incompetent Harvest Baptist Church on Guam from 2013 to 2015, their senior pastor Marty Herron distributed Calvinist materials by Dr. John MacArthur to church members. Yet, I ask for permission from Pastor Herron to pass out literature by Dr. Curtis Hutson and he instantly agreed. This convinced me that Pastor Herron (who is a neo-evangelical graduate of Bob Jones University) is ignorant of the Gospel.

Any pastor who is okay with multiple plans of salvation doesn’t know what he is doing theologically, which I find to be the sad case with 99 % of neo-evangelicals. Just so you can see for yourself, here is [4]Dr. Hutson’s plan of salvation; and then here is [5]Dr. John MacArthur’s plan of salvation. As you can clearly see, they are world’s apart and cannot both be the truth.

Dr. John MacArthur is not a saved man. There is no way that MacArthur can be a born-again child of God, while teaching a ’partial faith in Christ plus works’ false plan of salvation.

> “ Is it possible to obtain eternal salvation with no sense of the gravity of one’s own sin and alienation from God? That is the implication of radical no-lordship teaching.
>
> But the predominate no-lordship view on repentance is simply to redefine repentance as a change of mind—not a turning from sin or a change of purpose.

...

Repentance is not just a change of mind; it is a change of heart. It is a spiritual turning, a total about-face. Repentance in the context of the new birth means turning from sin to the Savior. It is an inward response, not external activity, but its fruit will be *evident in the true believer's behavior (Luke 3:8)." [emphasis added]

SOURCE: Dr. John MacArthur, ' [6]What Is Biblical Repentance? '

That is Lordship Salvation! Dr. MacArthur's reasoning makes sense to the carnally minded man who views works as being necessary to appease God's wrath against sin.

1st Corinthians 14:11, "For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints." Here's [7]THE UGLY TRUTH ABOUT THE DIFFERENT BIBLE VERSIONS TODAY, WHICH ARE ANYTHING BUT HONEST SCHOLARSHIP. Please don't become the Devil's fool. Get you a King James Bible and love it, defend it, cherish it, read it, mediate on it, memorize it, proclaim it, study it, obey it and abide (live) therein!!!!!!!

Dr. Shelton Smith is the editor of the Sword of the Lord today, and I think he is doing a fabulous job, taking the Sword of the Lord to a King James Bible only position, as it should be!

Please hear me out dear reader. I so much wish, hope and pray that professed Christians all across America would wake up to righteousness, and reject the modern Bible versions! I am making a sincere appeal to the wretched Bob Jones University camp—all you apostates from Bob Jones University that don't care about THE TRUTH—who accept the Devil's [8]corrupt Alexandrian based Bible revisions.

This applies also to the Moody Bible Institute camp, East Texas Baptist College, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Cemetery, the Southern Baptist Convention, and other shameful religious institutions today. Oh, how apostasy has infiltrated Bible colleges and churches today. Dear Christian reader, what I am about to show you is not my opinion, it is a shocking FACT! Truth is like the sun, clouds can only hide it for so long until it shines forth!

I ask you to please read the passage of Scripture (our text passage) from Psalms 12:6-7, which in no uncertain terms proclaims THE TRUTH, that God Himself PROMISED to preserve His "PURE WORDS" FOREVER!!! Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever." The content and meaning is abundantly clear—God's Words are PURE WORDS, and God has promised to keep and preserve those "WORDS" forever!!! "THEM" refers to God's "PURE WORDS"!

Yet (and this is so ungodly and wicked), look at what the Devil's Bible revisions do to remove this promise from God to keep and preserve His "PURE WORDS." Here is the accurate inspired King James Bible, followed by umpteen corrupt modern PERversions...

King James Bible (KJB)

Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever."

Verse 6 defines verse 7. Verse 6 tells us exactly what is being kept and preserved by the pronoun “THEM”—God’s pure Words!!

The Hebrew word for “KEEP” in Psalm 12:7 is shamar , which means: “hedge about (as with thorns), that is, guard; generally to protect, attend to.” Notice my friend that GOD HIMSELF protects, guards and attends to His very pure Words, putting a divine hedge around them! Kindly, SHAME on Bob Jones University in South Carolina, and SHAME on Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, for wholeheartedly supporting the woeful evil of corruptible seed. YOU BE THE JUDGE dear reader! Are you okay with the following garbage (that BJU, their alumni and apostate churches support)? ...

Easy-To-Read version (ERV)
Psalms 12:6-7, “The Lord’s words are true and pure, like silver purified by fire, like silver melted seven times to make it perfectly pure. Lord, take care of the helpless. Protect them forever from the wicked people in this world.”

English Standard Version (ESV)
Psalms 12:6-7, “The words of the Lord are pure words, like silver refined in a furnace on the ground purified seven times. You, O Lord, will keep them; you will guard us from this generation forever.”

The Living Bible (TLB)
Psalms 12:6-7, “The Lord’s promise is sure. He speaks no careless word; all he says is purest truth, like silver seven times refined. O Lord, we know that you will forever preserve your own from the reach of evil men,”

The Amplified Bible (AMP)
Psalms 12:6-7, “The words and promises of the Lord are pure words, Like silver refined in an earthen furnace, purified seven times. You, O Lord, will preserve and keep them; You will protect him from this [evil] generation forever.”

The Common English Bible (CEB)
Psalms 12:6-7, “The LORD’s promises are pure, like silver that’s been refined in an oven, purified seven times over! You, LORD, will keep us, protecting us from this generation forever.”

The Complete Jewish Bible (CJB)
Psalms 12:6-7, “The words of ADONAI are pure words, silver in a melting-pot set in the earth, refined and purified seven times over. You, ADONAI, protect us; guard us forever from this generation.”

The Message Bible (MSG)

Psalm 12:6-7, “God’s words are pure words, Pure silver words refined seven times In the fires of his word-kiln, Pure on earth as well as in heaven. God, keep us safe from their lies, From the wicked who stalk us with lies.”

New Revised Standard Bible (NRSB)
Psalms 12:6-7, “The promises of the Lord are promises that are pure, silver refined in a furnace on the ground, purified seven times. You, O Lord, will protect us; you will guard us from this generation forever.”

Lexham English Bible (LEX)
Psalms 12:6-7, “The words of Yahweh are pure words like silver refined in the crucible on the ground, refined seven times. You, O Yahweh, will protect them. You will preserve him from this generation always.”

Common English Bible (CEB)
Psalms 12:6-7, “The Lord’s promises are pure, like silver that’s been refined in an oven, purified seven times over! You, Lord, will keep us, protecting us from this generation forever.”

Christian Standard Bible (CSB)
Psalms 12:6-7, “The words of the Lord are pure words, like silver refined in an earthen furnace, purified seven times. You, Lord, will guard us; you will protect us from this generation forever.”

Good News Translation (GNT)
Psalm 12:6-7, “The wicked are everywhere, and everyone praises what is evil. Keep us always safe, O Lord, and preserve us from such people.”

...AND ON THEY GO, THE NEW VERSIONS JUST KEEP COMING TO CORRUPT THE CHURCHES!!!

THEY’VE PERVERTED THE LIVING WORDS OF ALMIGHTY GOD!! THEY’VE CHANGED PSALM 12:7! Instead of saying that God keeps and preserves His “PURE WORDS,” the Devil’s crowd changed it to say that God keeps and preserves “US” (THE SAINTS). BLASPHEMY!!!

I just quoted to you TWELVE CORRUPTED BIBLE REVISIONS (all based upon the Alexandria, Egypt manuscripts). Two of those 12 PERversions are the ESV (which Bob Jones University shamefully sanctions, uses and sells; and the ERV (which Harvest Baptist Church on Guam shamefully sanctions, uses and sells). In the religious world of mooching off the churches, truth takes a backseat to making money for a living! It is sad but true that ecumenism and money are synonymous.

Churches and Bible colleges that desire to make money, sinfully dip their sails so that they tolerate, accept and go along with apostasy; and they refuse to criticize heresy and Satan creeping into their midst. These damned Bible revisions today are straight from the pits of Hell, but the average religious leader today is indifferent, complacent and a part of the problem. SHAME ON BJU!!! SHAME ON MOODY BIBLE INSTITUTE!!! SHAME ON HARVEST BAPTIST CHURCH ON GUAM!!! SHAME ON ANYONE WHO ACCEPTS THE CORRUPTED GARBAGE THAT I JUST SHARED WITH YOU!!!

The King James Bible is Inspired by God

By “inspired” I simply mean that they are God’s Words. Why is that so hard to accept? Sadly, 99 % of today’s clergy have bought into the lie, that only the original Words of God (which were spoken through the Holy Spirit to holy men of old) were inspired. Beyond that point, today’s misled scholars claim that flawed and sinful human men attempted to translate the Bible the best they could, but failed to achieve a perfect translation. So, we are being foolishly led to believe today, that to find THE TRUTH we are at the mercy of hundreds of different Bible revisions. Now does that sound like something God would do in lieu of 1st Corinthians 14:33, “For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.”? As I showed you earlier, According to the American Bible Society there are now approximately 900 different English Bible versions, in part or whole. These translations are deadly. Most attack Jesus’ deity and the Godhead.

Dr. John R. Rice was just a flawed and sinful man, just like Dr. Jack Hyles, you, myself, and everybody else on the planet. I humbly believe that Dr. Rice was wrong on the inspiration of the Holy Bible, by denying that we have an inspired perfect Holy Bible today. In his 1975 book titled, ’I Am A Fundamentalist,’ Dr. Rice speaks highly of infidels Westcott and Hort, actually defending their heretical work in corrupting the Bible. Here, [9]read what Dr. Rice says for yourself.

Now, in fairness to Dr. Rice, he didn’t have the exponential wealth of information that we have today in 2023, because of the internet which has made the world a much smaller place. Modern mass-communication is nothing short of miraculous. I read a biography years ago about U.S. President George Washington during The Revolutionary War. I was amazed to learn that our nation’s leaders sent important messages back in the 18th century, by means of horse riders. Literally, critically important information took days to get from one point to another, as a weary rider tread storms, heavy downpours, freezing cold winters, scorching hot summers and bandits along the journey. We are so blessed in these modern times, to just be able to pick up a mobile phone and call someone across the planet. A century ago making such a phone call could cost you upward of hundreds of dollars (or even more).

Dr. Rice is one of my mentors and I admire the man dearly. Albeit, my loyalty is to God, truth and biblical principles first. Dr. Rice was wrong on numerous issues. I think he was wrong about the age of the earth. Brother Rice foolishly taught that dinosaurs existed with man back in the Old testament, but that Noah just left them behind. That is absurd. Dr. Rice’s successor, Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) taught an Old Earth, which is what I believe and teach. Psalms 102:25, “Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.”

Dr. Rice also taught, in his book titled: “Dr. Rice, Here Are More Questions,” that it is a sin for a refined white woman to marry an unrefined Negro. Now, I don’t particularly care for blacks and whites marrying either. In fact, it disgusts me to be honest. But what saith the Scripture? Hebrews 13:4, "Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

" Obviously, Dr. Rice wasn't correct on everything.

I am simply saying that John R. Rice made some errors in his doctrine. And so have I at times, which I had to change. I used to tell people to, "Ask Jesus into their heart," but then I learned from Pastor Max D. Younce not to do that anymore, because it is not biblical, and it confuses people (especially little children). A heart is a muscle about twice the size of your fist that pumps blood. So how do you invite Jesus into your muscle? It makes no sense to children. But any child can understand teaching them to put their trust in the name of Jesus, which is biblical (John 1:12).

Dear reader, I humbly believe that the King James Bible is 100 % verbally (word for word), and plenary (the entire canon), inspired by God today, not just the original autographs. God said in Matthew 4:4, "But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." If I am commanded to live BY EVERY WORD that proceedeth out of God's mouth (which is what the single word "inspired" means, God breathed, or God and air in 2nd Timothy 3:16; Greek: theopneustos), then I absolutely need AN EVERY WORD BIBLE.

Since all of the different English Bible versions vary in context and meaning, conflicting one another, they simply cannot all be inspired by God. Sadly, 99 % of the clergy today would try to lead you to believe that none of them are inspired, in a wicked attempt to justify all of them. I hope you are not that foolish friend. Common sense tells us that in any particular language, there can only be ONE TRUE HOLY BIBLE.

Like all honest preachers will admit, Dr. Hyles changed his beliefs as he matured in the Lord. The following is a wonderful excerpt that I typed out from one of Pastor Hyles' sermons:

Pastor Jack Hyles On The Importance Of Bible Infallibility

John 12:47-48, "And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day."

John 14:23, "Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him."

Folks, I'm going to go to seed [to become worn] before I die on defending this > Book—I'm going to go to seed on it! I'm a little tired—by the way, every preacher in America, before he met a theologian, believed exactly what I'm preaching tonight! Theologians messed us all up—they messed me up for a while, I'll be honest with you—messed us all up! When I went off to college, I thought I had the words of God in this Book right here. When I was in college for awhile I found out I didn't. Not only that, I found out nobody did! Not only that, I found out you couldn't have them! Not only that, I found out there was no such thing as any book in all the world that had the words of God in 'em!

> But my Bible said that we're supposed to keep His "WORDS"; not His truths, not just His doctrine, but His "WORDS"! ...
> > Mark 8:38,"Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

Folks, here's what's happening in America. The old-time preachers that built this country believed that this Book right here had the words of God in it! Your grandpa and grandma, that built this country, shed their tears on this Book, thinking they had the very words of God in their hands. And fundamentalists ALL believed what I'm preaching tonight, until we got our own Bible colleges, and seminaries, and sent our professors off to train at the feet of Karl Barth, and Reinhold Neuber, Emil Brunner, and others, who said that the Bible does not have the "words" of God, it is the Word of God, and that all the Bible is not inspired word-for-word. So we did not want to be considered "unintellectual" by the intellectual community; we're not willing to be called "nuts" and "fools"—just chalk me up as a nut! Chalk me up as a fool! Yea! Chalk me up as an uneducated illiterate if you want to, but I guarantee Ya—I'd rather study my A-B-C's in Heaven, then Greek and Hebrew in Hell!

Whosoever shall be ashamed of "ME AND MY WORDS"; it didn't say His "WORD," it says His "WORDS"!

> SOURCE: Pastor Jack Hyles, a beautiful quote from the sermon, "[11]There Are Too Many Smiths In The Land."

So, just because Dr. John R. Rice didn't think that we have an inspired Holy Bible today, doesn't mean that he was correct. Nobody is always 100 % correct on Bible doctrine. Even the best preachers sometimes make mistakes and get something wrong. That is why Jesus exhorted everyone in John 5:39 to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!!!Get into your Bible dear reader, and verify the things that your pastor, or some internet preacher, tells you, to make sure that you haven't been tricked.

Dr. Rice Defends One Alexandrian Perversion While Critiquing Others

Nevertheless, here are the shocking words of Dr. John R. Rice from 1975:

> When Peter Ruckman sets out to say that only he and a few others in the world are right on the matter of manuscript evidence for the Bible and says that in the King James Version the translation itself was inspired of God and is without > error and that all other translations, even the American Standard Version, are perversions; when he says that Origen and Westcott and Hort and others all united to pervert the Scriptures and go against the Bible and God and that all are modernists or hypocrites or ignorant who do not agree that the King James Version—even the translation—is inspired perfectly, then we know that that arrogant attitude, that calling of good men by bad names, shows the man cannot be trusted in doctrine.

Dr. Rice is so very wrong! We know from [13]the evidence that Westcott and Hort were occultists, and DID go against the Holy Bible and God!!! Respectfully, Dr. Rice speaks double-talk. In the words to follow in his book (which I quote below), he explains that he is against any modern translation that attacks the deity of Jesus, yet the very Alexandrian texts that he just defended (the ASV) brutally attacks the deity of Christ in Philippians 2:6 and 1st Timothy 3:16. You can't have it both ways!

Dr. Rice goes on to state on page 74:

> I can say I prefer the King James Version of the Bible. I think for general use it is the best. I use it continually in preaching, in study, in memory work. I read it almost exclusively in private devotions. But I know that translations themselves are not guaranteed by the Scriptures, and I know that sometimes the American Standard Version can give help in places where other translations are not perfect.

I wrote an important article back in 2004 [15]exposing the corrupt American Standard Version (originally published in 1901, which is now in the public domain). Since the version copyright had expired, the publisher came along in 1960 with the "New American Standard Version" (NASB), which is even more corrupt than the ASV.

> [17]BATTLE OF THE AGES (MP3, Dr. Jack Hyles, "The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!")

ASV and NASB are of the Devil, Both Translated from Alexandrian Texts

Take a look at a comparison below of Psalms 12:6-7 between the ASV and NASB. Notice that the ASV still correctly says God promises to preserve His WORD ("them") unto every generation, but the NASB horribly gets it wrong, saying that God promises to preserve "HIM." Who is "him"? All of the other satanic modern perversions say that God preserves the saints, not His words. It is obvious why Satan corrupted this verse, since there are literally hundreds of Bible versions nowadays...

> American Standard Version (ASV) - Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of Jehovah are pure words; As silver tried in a furnace on the earth, Purified seven times. Thou wilt keep them, O Jehovah, Thou wilt preserve them from this generation for ever."
> New American Standard Bible (NASB) - Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the Lord are pure words; As silver tried in a furnace on the earth, refined seven times. You, O Lord, will keep them; You will preserve him from this generation forever."

I am saddened and amazed that Dr. John R. Rice ignorantly supported this wickedness, because he had the NASB to compare. I can only conclude that he was deceived by the Devil concerning the Alexandrian texts, as are most evangelicals today. No one is beyond being corrupted!

It is my humble opinion as a Baptist preacher that Dr. Rice was trying to appease some friends on the other side of the Bible issue debate, because birds of a feather flock together. The fact of the matter, as I evidence in my article above, that the ASV contains many of the SAME Alexandrian corruptions as all the other perversions. They remove the Trinity from 1st John 5:7, attack Christ's deity in 1st Timothy 3:16 and Philippians 2:6, remove Christ as Creator in John 1:3 and Colossians 1:16, and remove the blood of Jesus from Colossians 1:14. Need I say more? It is silly and hypocritical for Dr. Rice to defend one Alexandrian perversion, while defending another Alexandrian perversion. What was he thinking?

[18] King James Bible - The ONLY Accurate Translation!

(MP3, Dr. Ralph Yankee Arnold)

> "To change the truth into a lie is to make the truth of no effect. Truth is very important! Our whole life is based upon truth. Truth is the real world. If you don't know truth, you believe a lie. And many people never know the truth!" —Dr. Yankee Arnold, an excellent quote from the awesome MP3 sermon, "[19]Satanic Bible Revisions vs. King James Bible 03 | [20]Part 01 | [21]Part 02"

Anytime we tell the truth, someone is going to call us "crazy"! Festus told the apostle Paul that he was beside himself (nuts). Dwight L. Moody was called "crazy Moody!" 1st Corinthians 1:18 says that the preaching of the cross (i.e., the Gospel) is "to them that perish foolishness." Dr. Rice in his book attacks Dr. Peter Ruckman as a "nut" for telling the truth about the Word of God. All of the modern Bible versions are of satanic origin! Even the [22]New King James Version (NKJV), which allegedly has been translated from the Textus Receptus, [23]has many of the Alexandrian corruptions in it! The ASV may be the least corrupted of the modern Alexandrian translations (which is why Dr. Rice picked it), but it is still of Alexandrian origin and corrupt to some degree. In hindsight, as viewed from the year 2018, we can now see a horrifying trail of collateral damage in the churches because of the modern Bible perversions!

Look at all the dying and dead churches today, and you'll find that they all have one thing in common, that is, a tolerance for the Alexandrian Bible perversions!!! I would have preferred that Dr. John R. Rice were a nut, than that he should defend the Devil's counterfeit Bible versions! Dr. Ruckman had some strange beliefs, such as that Old Testament saints were saved by works and faith (which is false), but he was 100 % correct that the Alexandrian Bible versions are corrupted by Satan, and that we can trust our inspired King James Bible!!! So I gladly admit that if being loyal only to the King James Bible makes me a “nut,” then I’m as whacko as they come!!! I’m coco for cocoa-puffs!

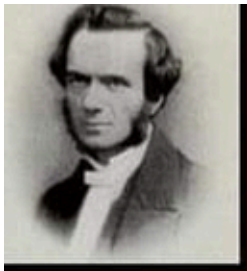
Scriptures by Dr. Gail Riplinger, showing, why some great men are deceived...

Hosea 7:13, “Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.”

Ecclesiastes 3:16-17, “And moreover I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there. I said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work.”



Job 32:4-9, “Now Elihu had waited till Job had spoken, because they were elder than he. And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and durst not shew you mine opinion. I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom. But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding. Great men are not always wise: neither do the aged understand judgment.”

Jeremiah 5:5, “I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.”

Always Have A Pure Heart...

1st Peter 1:22, “Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently.”

Westcott and Hort

"Fathers of the Modern Bible"

- "I reject the word infallibility of Holy Scriptures overwhelmingly."
- "He (Jesus) never speaks of Himself directly as God, but the aim of His revelation was to lead men to see God in Him."

- Called the TR "vile"
- Discredited the TR
- Believed that the Bible was no different then the works of Shakespeare or Plato
- Did not believe in the inspiration of Scripture
- "Evangelicals seem to me perverted."

One of my Facebook “friends” today unkindly called me an “ignorant man,” because I told her that she is wrong to deny OSAS (Once Saved Always Saved, i.e., Eternal Security). Dear reader, if you are not saved FOREVER you are not SAVED at all. Eternal Life is the believer’s Eternal Security! These are not two separate Bible doctrines, they are one and the same. If you have been born again by faith alone in Jesus Christ, then you have Eternal Life, which is your Eternal Security. It is IMPOSSIBLE to risk, jeopardize or ever lose God’s PROMISE (Titus 1:2) of forgiveness of sins and eternal life (Romans 6:23), which is by faith in the ’GOOD NEWS’ (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and bodily risen from the dead the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Thank you for reading my blog.

4.9.21 You Don't Have To "Get Out Of Your Sin" To Be Saved (2023-09-24 10:00)

Romans 4:3-5, "For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

In the following YouTube video, you will see two men arguing over which plan of salvation is correct. What the man in the grey hoodie is preaching is [1]the same exact damnable heresy that Ray Comfort preaches, that you cannot live a lifestyle of sin and go to Heaven. ...

Street Preachers Got Really Mad at Me

The guy wearing the grey hoodie is totally WRONG! He insists that you have to: "Get out of your sin

Dear reader, the truth is that we all live a lifestyle of sinning. Oh, yes you do; and so do I. We all sin every day, multiple times, whether in thought or in deed.

May I truthfully say, behavior modification is NOT part of getting saved. The guy with the grey hoodie errantly cites Hebrews 12:14 in an attempt to bolster up his strawman heresy that you must, "Get out of your sin to be saved." What saith the Scripture? Hebrews 12:14, "Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:" Sadly, he makes the fatal mistake that so many unlearned Bible students make, by lifting a text out of context to create a new pretext (i.e., strange doctrine).

If he would have just included the next two verse, then he would have found the proper meaning.

Carefully notice what the next couple verses read in Hebrews 12:15-16,

Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

The writer of Hebrews (whom I humbly think is the Apostle Paul) is quoting from Deuteronomy 29:18, "Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a root that beareth gall and wormwood;" The Bible is simply teaching in Hebrews 12:14-16 that if your testimony is poor as a believer that others around you will be adversely affected by it. You may be the only Jesus that somebody knows. Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899) rightly said: "Out of 100 men, one will read the Bible, the other 99 will read the Christian."

SHAME on [2]Pensacola Christian College (PCC) for preaching this same theological garbage, lying to people, telling them that if their behavior hasn't changed they didn't really get saved. That is Lordship Salvation! Many unsaved hellbound churchgoers live morally upright lives, they do

"many wonderful works," and preach in Jesus' name; yet they are fools, woefully ignorant of the Scripture, lost in their self-righteousness. Listen, anything that an unsaved person can do CANNOT be used as evidence of being saved. The ONLY thing that determines whether a person is saved or not is one's FAITH. 1st John 5:4, " For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith." Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

The True Meaning of Hebrews 12:14

It is tragic that John MacArthur and other heretics misinterpret Hebrews 12:14, claiming that it means you cannot go to Heaven unless you live a holy life. As I have shown you, that is NOT what it means. A Christian who hides his light for Christ and tarnishes his testimony by choosing rather to live in open sin, he becomes a root of bitterness to those around him; thereby many be defiled. When King David commit adultery and murder, his entire family and kingdom were adversely affected by his actions.

The guy with the orange Texas shirt is 100 % correct. Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan (1628-1688) said it best:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —Evangelist John Bunyan

Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) made this tremendous statement:

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, "Hebrews"; Zondervan Publishing House; 1959 (p. 117)

Anybody who associates a change of behavior with the new birth is preaching another gospel. Sadly, the official doctrinal position of [4]Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is, quote:

> "Repentance is a change of mind resulting in a change of behavior."

That is another gospel. PCC is preaching a counterfeit plan of salvation. The Gospel does not teach partial faith in Christ plus works; but rather, childlike faith in Jesus' death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection from the dead three days later (1 Corinthians 15;1-4).

➜ Roman Catholicism errantly says to be saved a person □□□□ do good works.
➜ Calvinism errantly says a saved person □□□□ do good works.

Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. [5]Beginning at 1:34 time in the video, the guy wearing the grey hoodie says that if he hadn't forsaken his sinful bad habits in prison, he wouldn't be going to Heaven. That is justification by the works of the law, which is impossible (Romans 3:19-20). His defense is to misinterpret Hebrews 12:14, as I have just refuted. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. The guy wearing the grey hoodie is NOT saved. Nobody is saved who has partial faith in Christ, plus trusting in something else.

I am tired of hearing fools (e.g., the [6]Bob Jones University cult) speak with a forked tongue. On one side they say that we are saved by grace alone, which is true. But then on the other side they utter lies, saying that you cannot be saved without forsaking your sinful ways, which is 100 % WORKS. This is typical false prophet hypocritical lingo.

Jehovah's Witnesses

Ray Comfort

Many people have been told that "believing on Jesus" is a single act and that our faith does not have to be strong enough to prompt obedience. But the Bible disagrees* . Jesus did not say that people who begin the Christian course are saved. Instead, he said: "He that has endured to the end is the one that will be saved." (Matthew 10:22) The Bible likens our Christian course to a race, with salvation being the prize at its end. And it urges: "Run in such a way that you may attain it."—1 Corinthians 9:24.

Thus, "accepting Christ" involves far more than just accepting the blessings that Jesus' superlative sacrifice offers. Obedience is required. ...

Salvation is a free gift from God. It cannot be earned. Yet it does require effort on our part.

SOURCE: [7]Jehovah's Witnesses - What Must We Do To Be Saved?

Those FALSE TEACHERS today who say that more than faith is necessary to be saved, that you must also turn away from your sinful bad habits, are preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL of partial faith in Christ plus WORKS!

"There are a number of people who say I'm a heretic, because I tell the unsaved they must REPENT, and trust in Jesus to be saved. They say that I'm preaching WORKS SALVATION, because I'm telling them to repent, something of which they say they're incapable.

They maintain all a sinner needs to do is BELIEVE IN JESUS. They say he's incapable of repentance

, but he is capable of believing, that is, of having faith."

SOURCE: [8]Ray Comfort Addresses Accusation Of Heresy

Note: You need to understand that Ray Comfort, and all Calvinists, have a WRONG idea of what Biblical "repentance" for salvation means. They think it means to "TURN FROM YOUR SINFUL BEHAVIOR," but the accurate meaning is simply: "A CHANGE OF MIND." Repentance is a change of mind from WRONG THINKING to believing THE GOSPEL to be saved!

THE TRUTH my friend is that Jesus Christ came into the world to pay your debt of sin on Calvary's cross. Romans 5:6-9, " For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him." Christ died for the UNGODLY. That means you! That means me! That includes every human being!

No, you don't have to forsake your sinful ways to be saved, which would be WORKS. Getting saved is strictly a matter of you coming to God as a needy guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-23), and receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, but then physically resurrected from the dead three days later. This is **"

the gospel

4.9.22 Suggested Bible Passages To Memorize (2023-09-25 15:19)

Psalms 119:11, “ Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.”

I just memorized 1st Peter 1:7-9 today. I’ve been working on it for the past three days. What I do is [1]listen to Alexander Scourby read the King James Bible. When I hear a Scripture verse or passage that burns my heart, I make a note of it. If I decide to commit it to memory, I take a pen and paper (like in the good old days) and I write the Bible passage down. I just take a regular sheet of white paper and fold it into four. Or sometimes I’ll use a post-it for a short verse, but you can use anything really. I then stick that piece of paper into my pocket and carry it around with me wherever I go. I mentally keep going over the passage, looking at the paper when I get stuck, until I have it down pat. It works!

Here’s what I finished memorizing today . . .

> 1st Peter 1:7, “That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.”

I encourage you to memorize God’s Word. Only use the King James Bible!

Without further ado, here are numerous favorite Bible passages that I humbly think are excellent to commit to memory. I have personally memorized all of these passages:

1. Genesus 1:1-2

The Importance of Abiding in the Holy Scriptures

In our text Verse from Psalms 119:11, the Psalmist (David) says, "Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee." What a precious truth! If our minds were filled with the inspired Word of God instead of aimless television, it would reflect in our daily lives. Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life."

> Philippians 2:5, "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus." 1st Corinthians 2:16, "For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ." Amen! The way you obtain the mind of Christ as a believer is to saturate your daily life with the Word of God.

Have you ever cherished the Word of God so much that it broke your heart? David was love sick for the Scriptures. Psalms 119:20, "My soul breaketh for the longing that it hath unto thy judgments at all times." Oh, that the inspired Word of God meant that much to us as believers!

Here is a beautiful passage of Scripture. Notice the last line which reads, "LET THE WORD OF CHRIST DWELL IN YOU RICHLY IN ALL WISDOM" . . .

> Colossians 3:9-16a, "Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him: Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all. Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom..."

Amen! If we want the mind of Christ, then we must wallow like a pig in mud, but instead in the Scriptures. John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me."

Psalms 1:1-3, “Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.”

Do You Remember How You Were Saved?

1st Corinthians 15:1-2, “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.” In other words, you’ve got to know what you’re believing in to be saved. Notice that the Bible says we must “KEEP IN MEMORY” how we were saved. Otherwise, how can you say that you’re saved, if you don’t know what you’re trusting in? The Bible says you’ve BELIEVED IN VAIN!!! Many people profess to believe in Christ, but they have no idea what they are believing in. This describes 90 % of churchgoers today who profess faith in Christ. If their life depended on it, they couldn’t tell you what they’re trusting in to get to Heaven. The apostle Paul plainly preaches, “ [2]THE GOSPEL ,” by which we are saved if we understand what we are believing in. What must we understand?

1. You must know that you are a guilty needy sinner in God’s sight (Romans 3:19; 1st John 1:8-10).

2. You need to know what you deserve as punishment: Hell. There is a penalty for sin, which is death (Romans 6:23; Revelation 21:8). If you’re not a hell-deserving sinner, then why would you need a Savior?

3. You need to believe that Christ died on the cross to pay for your sins.

4. You need to believe that Christ was buried.

5. You must believe that Jesus bodily raised up from the dead three days later. This is “the Gospel” according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4.

The Bible teaches in 1st Corinthians 15:2 that if you cannot remember how you got saved, you never were saved, because you have believed in vain. How can you be saved if you don’t even know what you’re believing in? Believing in Jesus is not the Gospel. You must believe in the crucified, buried and risen Son of God to be saved. John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.”

4.9.23 The Children Of Ephraim Were Prepared For Battle, But Turned Back In The Day Of Battle (2023-09-27 17:53)

Psalms 78:9-11, “

The children of Ephraim, being armed, and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle*.

They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his law;

And forgat his works, and his wonders that he had shewed them."

Joseph was the son of Jacob and Rachel. Joseph was sold into slavery and taken to Egypt. Through the providence of God, Joseph ascended to become the governor over all of Egypt, second only to Pharaoh. Pharaoh gave Asenath to Joseph to be his wife. God gave them two children, which they named Manasseh and Ephraim. The descendants of Ephraim's became known as "the children of Ephraim.

Our text passage from Psalms 78:9-11 says that the children of Ephraim were armed. They were prepared to go to battle, to war. They carried bow and arrows, which they were skilled at using. Yet, when the time came to go fight, they chickened out. They chose not to keep the covenant which God has made with His people, the Jews. The Ephraimites refused to obey God's laws, to walk in them.

This precious passage of Scripture sadly reminds me of today's spiritually dead churches and umpteen corrupt Bible colleges. Tragically, one corrupt Bible colleges adversely affects hundreds if not thousands of churches whom their graduates pastor and work in. Case in point is Pensacola Christian College (PCC). The PCC camp do not contend for the faith. I am not aware of even one PCC graduate who preaches against the demonic cult at Bob Jones University (BJU), a cesspool of the [1]Devil's Calvinist Lordship Salvation heresy! I fully agree with Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) that '[2]Lordship Salvation Is A Perversion Of The Gospel.'

There are churches all over today who use the inspired King James Bible. Yet, when it comes time to contend for the faith, they chicken out. PCC uses the King James Bible, and they know the truth, and yet they pander to the ungodly BJU cult. The children of Ephraim were prepared for battle, but they turned back in the day of battle. Likewise, Christian pastors and laymen today have turned back from the battle. Instead of rising up to fight the good fight of faith, they are sitting idle for God. When they should be Standing On The Promises, they are idly Sitting On The Premises!!! Matthew 20:6, " And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, *Why stand ye here all the day idle?"

May we all be diligent to fight the good fight of faith, and not just let the world go to Hell unwarned. Every saint of God ought to be a soul-warner. Thank you for reading.

4.9.24 "I'd be a Christian if it were not for the Christians." —Mahatma Gandhi (2023-09-28 00:52)

Ephesians 4:30-32, "

And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

Dear reader, you may be the only Jesus that someone knows. Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899) rightly said: “Out of 100 men, one will read the Bible, the other 99 will read the Christian.” That is absolutely true! Having said that as introduction, please read this:

> [redacted] [redacted] [redacted], ‘[redacted] [redacted]’[redacted] [redacted] [redacted], [redacted]’[redacted] [redacted] [redacted] [redacted]?’ [redacted] [redacted] [redacted] [redacted] ([redacted])

> Chuck Stanford, lama emeritus, Rime Buddhist Center: To fully understand this quote, it is important to know the backstory from where it came.
> While Gandhi was a practicing Hindu, Christianity intrigued him. In his reading of the Gospels, Gandhi was impressed by Jesus whom Christians worshiped and followed. He wanted to know more about this Jesus that Christians referred to as “the Christ, the Messiah.”
>
> The Rev. Pattison tells the following story: One Sunday morning Gandhi decided that he would visit one of the Christian churches in Calcutta. Upon seeking entrance to the church sanctuary, he was stopped at the door by the ushers.
>
> He was told he was not welcome, nor would he be permitted to attend this particular church as it was for high-caste Indians and whites only. He was neither high caste, nor was he white. Because of the rejection, the Mahatma turned his back on Christianity.
>
> With this act, Gandhi rejected the Christian faith, never again to consider the claims of Christ. He was turned off by the sin of segregation that was practiced by the church. It was due to this experience that Gandhi later declared, “I’d be a Christian if it were not for the Christians.’“

4.9.25 Trusting Jesus Is Not The "Second" Thing To Be Saved (2023-09-29 00:26)

Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith."

Tragically, we've got a bunch of false prophets across America, who preach what the Holy Bible calls, "ANOTHER GOSPEL." Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed." There is only [1]one clear and concise Gospel.

One of the most deadly false prophets today is Evangelist Ray Comfort, who actually uses the phrase "LIVING A LIFESTYLE" while witnessing to a woman. In the following YouTube video clip, look at the BIG LIE Evangelist Ray Comfort tells this poor deceived woman passenger on an airplane. Kindly, Ray says that "repentance" means "LIVING A LIFESTYLE THAT PROVES THE REALITY OF YOUR REPENTANCE!" And then he adds, "IT'S A CONTINUAL THING!" Read for yourself what Mr. Comfort horribly teaches this woman, in this transcript from the Living Waters video:

> "So if the plane goes down, you'd end up in Hell! There are two things you have to do to be saved. Do you remember what they are? I told you what they are—You've got to repent and trust the Savior! ... God's offering you everlasting life upon your repentance and faith in Christ. Who in his right mind wouldn't say, 'Whoa! That's a good offer!' (The curious woman asks what it means to "repent"?)... Have you ever said you're sorry to someone you did something wrong to? That's all repentance is—You've sinned against God; it's a matter of saying, 'God, I'm sorry,' and then LIVING A LIFESTYLE that proves the reality of your repentance. That's what repentance is, it's a continual thing! God, 'I'm sorry, but I'm not going going to lie or steal or blaspheme Your name ever again. It has that attitude! And the second thing—trust in Jesus!" [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: Evangelist Ray Comfort, "[2]I've never killed anyone" ([3]MP3 clip from video)

Kindly said, Evangelist Ray Comfort is an unsaved infidel, a false teacher. Dear reader, trusting Jesus as your personal Savior is not the "SECOND THING" that you must do to be saved. This very question was asked by the Philippian jailer in Rome: "What must I do to be saved?" What saith the Scripture? Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." The answer is very plain to see. The Bible answer to "

What must I do to be saved?" is to simply,

Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ." This was NOT the second thing that Paul and Silas told the Philippian jailer to do, it was the ONLY thing!

Furthermore, I triple-dog dare you to show me even one verse from the inspired Holy Bible that teaches "LIVING A LIFESTYLE" of repentance is required as part of being saved. You cannot! Now my friend, "a double-dog dare" is serious business, but a triple-dog dare is something you don't want to mess around with! I triple-dog dare you to show me even one Bible verse that agrees with these false statements by Ray Comfort.

Ray Comfort Preaches a FALSE Gospel & Needs to Repent!

In the preceding video, at 09 seconds time in the video, Ray makes this heretical statement to the man: "Repentance is where you actually perpetually turn from sin." That is damnable heresy!!! Ray is preaching 100 % salvation by WORKS. Jonah 3:10, "And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not." According to this passage turning from your sins is WORKS, and the Bible is explicitly clear that we are not saved BY WORKS, nor THROUGH WORKS

(Romans 3:19-20; 4:4-7; Hebrews 6:1)

; but rather, but grace and through faith plus nothing (Galatians 3:26; Ephesians 2:8-9; Titus 3:5).

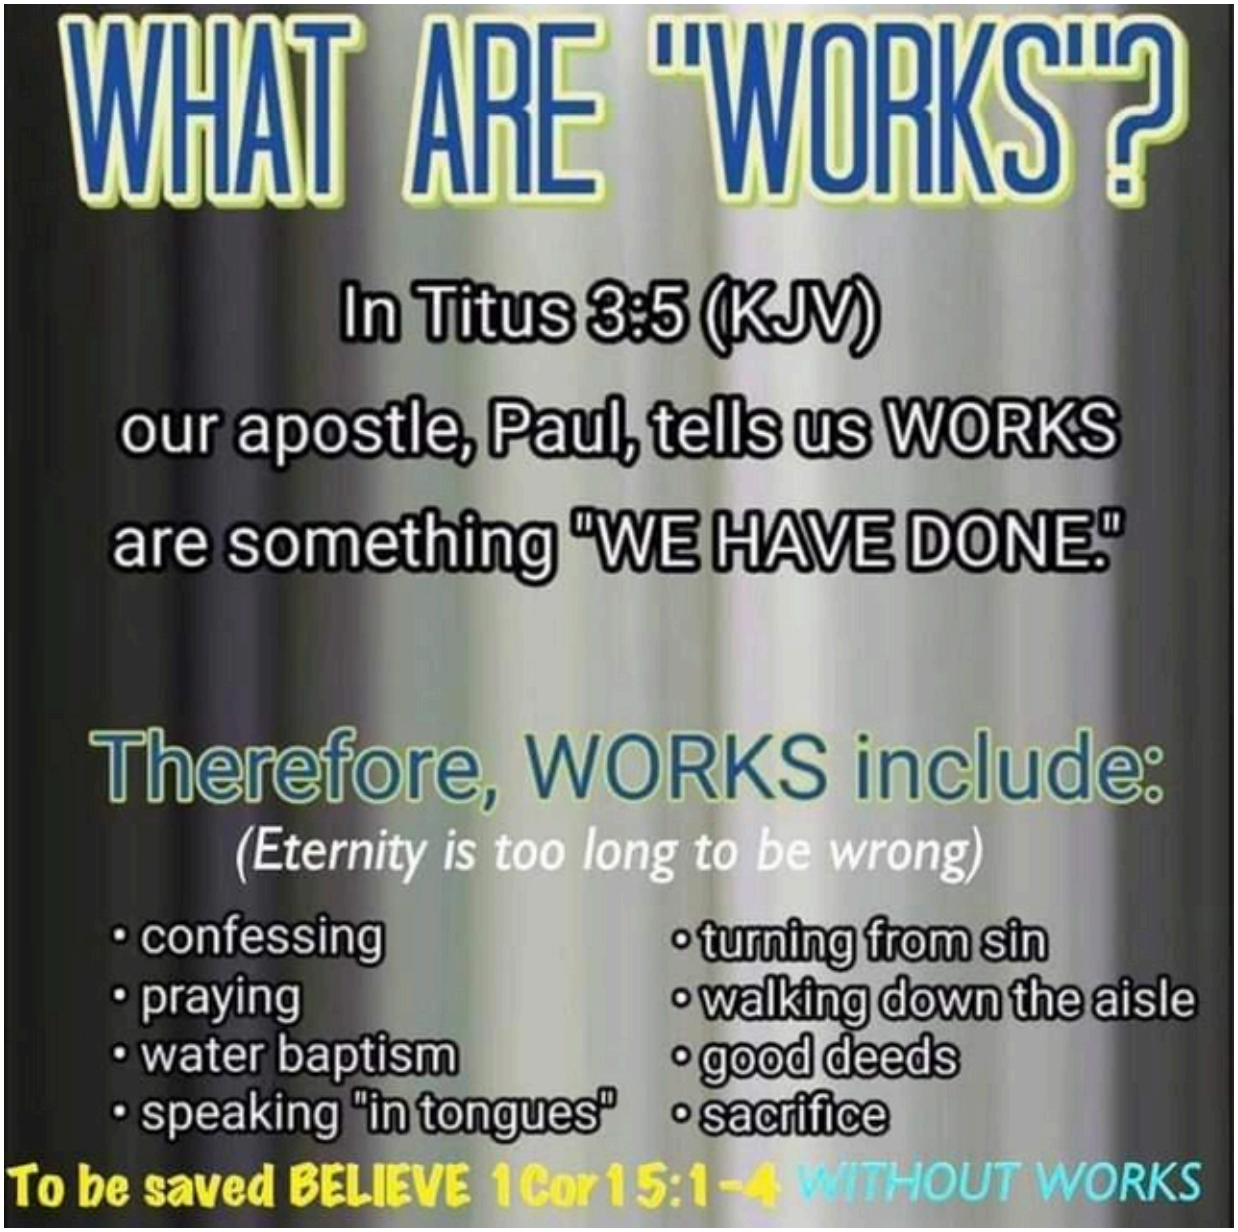
Please understand that I am not saying Ray Comfort is insincere. Quite the contrary, I think he is very sincere, but what saith the Scripture? Proverbs 16:25, "There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." It makes perfect sense to the natural (unsaved) man—to the carnal man—that one must forsake sinful ways as a prerequisite to get to Heaven. Surely a lost sinner cannot come to God, placing's one's faith in the sinless Lamb of God who was brutally crucified on a cross to pay for our debt of sin, while we still have a flagrant desire to continue living in sin. That is how guys like Ray Comfort errantly think. The truth is that Christ was sent into the world by the heavenly Father, to die on a cross to pay for everyone's sins (John 3:14-18). Christ died for our sins, because there is nothing we can do to remedy the debt we owe. Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt we could not pay. What a precious Savior, Lord and God!!!

> "Religious people go to Hell; Saved people go to Heaven. Don't ever blame religion on God. He didn't come up with it, Satan did. Religion is of the Devil; Salvation is of the Lord." —Pastor Al Lacy, "[4]No Unbelievers In Hell"



The Gospel of John is God's Gospel track. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." PLEASE DON'T MISS THAT! God authored the Gospel of John specifically so "that believing ye might have life through his name." That means we don't need any other Scripture than what is found in the Gospel of John to be saved.

Where in the Gospel of John are we taught that, "LIVING A LIFESTYLE," is necessary to receive eternal life? You cannot! Mr. Comfort is a bold-faced theological liar! Ray is ADDING to the Gospel, perverting it! This means Mr. Comfort is accursed by God. Galatians 1:9, "As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed." I didn't say that, almighty God did!

Furthermore, where in the Gospel of John are we taught that to be saved, we must have a drastic change of attitude that is resolved to reform? Ray errantly says to be saved we must have the new attitude, "GOD, I'M SORRY, BUT I'M NOT GOING TO LIE OR STEAL OR BLASPHEME YOUR NAME EVER AGAIN!" And then he horribly says, "IT'S A CONTINUAL THING!" None of this is Biblical! There is absolutely nothing in the Gospel of John about having a sincere desire to reform our ways, clean up our life of sin, turn over a new leaf, do better, forsake the world, turn away from sins, nor any other garbage that false prophets are teaching nowadays in churches, poisoning people with their lies!

Actually, free Grace is rejected both by the world and fake Christians, so it's not a popular belief. In fact, it's the most unpopular belief even though free Grace is true. It's absolutely the only way to go to Heaven. "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16:31b). Having to "perpetually turn from sin" as Ray Comfort teaches is not repentance, it is reformation (works). Behavior modification is not part of the Gospel. What saith the Scripture? Isaiah 64:6, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away."

Tragically, Ray Comfort is preaching another gospel. When the Philippian jailer in Rome asked Paul and Silas: "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?," their simple answer to: "BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST" wasn't the "SECOND" thing they told him to do, it was THE ONLY THING!!!

4.10.1 Repentance From Your Belief System To Trusting Jesus (2023-10-01 18:19)

Hebrews 6:1-2, " Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment."

Today at church my pastor got repentance for salvation correct. I was proud of him. He said that Bible repentance is changing your mind about your BELIEF SYSTEM to TRUSTING JESUS CHRIST to save you. That is exactly right!

A few years ago in 2018, an incompetent intern pastor from Pensacola Christian College (PCC), Sean Quinlan at the Light House Baptist Church on Guam, shamefully accused me of being "

OBSESSED over the Bible issue.

" Pastor Quinlan became angry when he overheard me tell a church member that

"Bob Jones University sells corruptible seed." You see, PCC is in bed spiritually committing whoredom with Bob Jones University (BJU), wickedly bidding them Godspeed. I told THE TRUTH about BJU, for which I make no apologies.

Although he meant it as a criticism, I took it as a badge of honor. You had better believe it buster, that I am "obsessed" over the Bible issue! America is going to Hell because of cowardly Caspar Milquetoast pastors who refuse to stand. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS! That means it is critically important which Bible we use, because the various different changes in today's hundreds of English Bible revisions often affect the intended meaning. Shame on PCC for supporting BJU's Lordship Salvation and counterfeit Bible versions!

You Repent Of Unbelief To Be Saved

Perhaps some of my blog readers wonder why I harp on the topic of repentance all the time. The answer is simply because so many clergy and laymen alike have repentance wrong today. The following helpful excerpt is from Michael Patrick Bowen's book, "

I NEVER KNEW YOU

> The plan of salvation according to Ray Comfort and his cohort Kirk Cameron defines repentance incorrectly. In the most elemental sense possible, their plan of salvation is based upon an academic flaw. Repent, as Christ meant it to be in terms of salvation, means to change your mind from trusting in what you can do for God to trusting only in what He can do for you. Neither of these gentlemen use the original Greek meaning of the word for repent which is metanoia. As defined in the Greek language, metanoia is "meta"(change) and "noia"(mind). Metanoia is simply a "change of mind." That is all it means. Nothing else is added to it. If someone says it means a change of mind about bananas, they would be wrong. If a crafty pastor who claims salvation is by faith “plus” works and deeds of the law (under the clever guise of “committing your life to Christ”) says that metanoia means a change of mind about sin, he would be wrong. Metanoia, by itself, simply means a “change of mind.” When Christ used the word “repent” He was always referring to “a change of mind.” In proper context, Christ used “a change of mind” to refer to what people were trusting in to get them to heaven. Jesus would tell people to “change their minds” from keeping all the established laws of righteousness to instead trust upon Him alone in terms of Him being the sin-bearer, that He would “solve” the problem of sin once and for all by His death and subsequent resurrection from the dead. You see, Christ took care of the sin problem. When we, in any way whatsoever, attempt to remedy the problem of sin by turning our backs on it, forsaking it, or promising God that we will quit certain things that we know bring Him grief, we are essentially telling Christ that our faith in His death and resurrection from the grave is “not enough” to save us. If there was any way at all we could save ourselves by our works and behavioral changes, Christ may not have had to die on that cross; however, we know that God says in Romans 6:23 that the “wages of sin is death.” That means one sin, such as a small lie, condemns us to the spiritual “death penalty.” And because the wages, or payment, for that small lie is death, the “only way” we could pay for it is to be cast into the eternal lake of fire. We “cannot” pay for a single sin by promising God we will change our behaviors, or by “turning from sins.” It will not erase the “death sentence” that God has passed upon sin. For us to be able to enter into God’s heaven, we must be “as righteous” as God is righteous. In no way can our works, deeds, discipleship or promises ever make us “as righteous as God.” That is precisely why we need a “savior” and that is precisely why Comfort and Cameron’s plan of salvation will not work — it is not the gospel message of the bible; therefore, it is counterfeit. But that is not to say that these are not good men, for they are good men. They are moral, they espouse many biblical doctrines correctly, and they are masters at getting people to see their sinful natures before a holy and righteous God; however, because of one academic flaw — the misinterpretation of the word repent — their plan of salvation does not match with the plan of salvation that Christ offers to us in the bible. [emphasis added]

The English dictionary meaning of repentance is NOT the Bible meaning, as Michael Bowen just explained.

Here is an excellent writing by [2]Dr. Mark G. Cambron (1911-2000) on the subject of REPENTANCE. Please read the following quote carefully, because Dr. Cambron is one of few theologian who gets it, that is, he understands the simplicity of the Gospel and that repentance does not mean turning from sin as proponents of Lordship Salvation foolishly teach. ...

> Repentance is necessary for salvation.
>
> The Greek word for repent is metanoeo, which, translated into English is: to change ones mind. It does not mean to turn from sin. That would add works to salvation.
>
> Repentance for salvation means a change of mind from men's ideas of salvation and religion, to an acceptance of Gods only way of salvation.
>
> This results in a completely new creation, not a reformation of the old. The old nature remains as evil as ever after salvation and has not been reformed . . . The old nature can now be controlled by the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit.
>
> God guarantees salvation. This is His gift to us.
> God guarantees reward and fruit to the obedient son.
> God guarantees chastening and loss of rewards to the disobedient son.
>
> God does not cast out disobedient children, but in some cases, does take them home. He does not permit His children to live as they please without His discipline and guidance.
>
> Many teach repentance for salvation incorrectly, by including some form of human effort or righteousness, such as willingness to turn from sin, or turning from sin. This is heresy and has confused many people. It adds works to salvation and causes many to not understand Gods great gift. It is probation, not salvation. It is completely unscriptural. It is Galatianism and a counterfeit of the gospel.
>
> It is a tragedy that many Christians live shallow Christian lives. The Cambron Institute is dedicated to the task of training Christian men and women in the importance of total dedication and making Jesus the Lord of their lives not to be saved but because they are saved.
>
> Shallow Christianity cannot be cured by adding works to salvation.
>
> Salvation is not the result of what we do, but is by receiving what God has done for us. Acts 13:38, 39; Acts 20:20: Gal. 1:8,9; Gal. 2:4; Gal. 2:21; Gal. 3:1.3; Gal. 5:1-4; Eph. 2:8-10; II Cor. 5:21;John 3:16-18; Phil. 3:9; Titus 3:5-8:11 Cor. 11:13-15.

Christians Should Repent Of Sins

Having said all this, I have no issue with a preacher telling Christian believers that they should repent of our sins. Although the term is not found in the Bible, we read in 2nd Timothy 2:19, "

Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

" I think we can safely say that this command is the same as "turn from your sin." That God's children should depart from iniquity is clearly taught in the Scripture.

When the adulterous woman in John chapter 8 was dragged by the self-righteous crowd before Jesus, He refused to condemn her. The Lord's kind response to her was simply to "Go and sin no more." I think we can safely say that this is the same as "turn from your sin." Of course, no one has ever fully turned from all their sins. All we can do is allow the Lord to live the Christian life through us, which is what Galatians 2:20 teaches, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me."

In John chapter 5 we read about a man who had an infirmity for 38 years. Jesus healed him, and then told him in John 5:14, "Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee." Again, I think we can safely say that Jesus was telling this man to repent of his sins. I am seeing that there is a doctrinally corrupt group on both sides of the spectrum:

1. On one side we have the Lordship Salvation camp, who errantly teach that a lost sinner cannot be saved unless they turn away from their sinful behavior. That is wrong. Christ came into the world to die on a cross to pay our sin debt. He doesn't demand that we first reform, nor be willing to reform, to receive that payment. It is a free gift from God.

2. On the other side of the spectrum we have the group who criticize and gang up on anyone who dares to teach that a Christian believer should repent of their sins. The word "repent" simply means to think differently. Should we as believers think differently about our sins? Yes, absolutely! So I have no problem with a pastor telling God's children that should repent of our sins, and turn away from them. That is what the Holy Bible teaches. We are exhorted by the Apostle Peter (who is writing under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit) to "be ye holy in all manner of conversation; Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy" (1st Peter 1:15-16).

The problem arises with the phrases "repent of your sins" and "turn from your sin," when they are applied to getting saved, thus perverting the Gospel of free grace. My favorite preacher quote of all preacher quotes is by Pilgrim's Progress author, John Bunyan (1628-1688):

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan

This one quote sums up the ongoing raging battle in churches today between the Lordship Salvation cult, and those who adhere to a free grace Gospel. John Bunyan understood the importance of maintaining separation between justification versus sanctification, between sonship versus discipleship, between salvation versus service. One thing has nothing to do with the other. Of course, you must get saved first, otherwise God's wrath abides upon you (John 3:36; Psalms 7:11).

Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) made this tremendous statement:

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, "Hebrews"; Zondervan Publishing House; 1959 (p. 117)

Anybody who associates a change of behavior with the new birth is preaching another gospel. Sadly, the official doctrinal position of [4]Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is, quote:

> "Repentance is a change of mind resulting in a change of behavior." —Campus Church 'Foundation's Class' at PCC

That is another gospel. PCC is preaching a counterfeit plan of salvation. The Gospel does not teach partial faith in Christ plus works; but rather, childlike faith in Jesus' death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection from the dead three days later (1 Corinthians 15;1-4).

➔ Roman Catholicism errantly says to be saved a person □□□□ do good works.

Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. [5]Beginning at 1:34 time in the video, the guy wearing the grey hoodie says that if he hadn't forsaken his sinful bad habits in prison, he wouldn't be going to Heaven. That is justification by the works of the law, which is impossible (Romans 3:19-20). His defense is to misinterpret Hebrews 12:14, as I have just refuted. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. The guy wearing the grey hoodie is NOT saved. Nobody is saved who has partial faith in Christ, plus trusting in something else.

As we read earlier from Michael Bowen, anybody who says that repentance is "a change of mind about _ _ _ _ _" is in error. Repentance concerning salvation in the New Testament is always translated from either the Greek noun metanoia (a change of mind); or the Greek verb metanoeo (to think differently). There must be supplemental information to determine what to change our mind about. For example: In Acts 20:21b we read about "repentance toward God." In 2nd Timothy 2:25b we read about "repentance to the acknowledging of the truth." In Hebrews 6:1b we read about "repentance from dead works." So, in these passages we learn that repentance involves a change of mind about God, the truth and dead works. But you cannot show me any Scripture passage that says to “turn from your sin” or “repent of your sin” to be born again. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Christian author Michael Patrick Bowen writes in his excellent book titled, “ [6]I NEVER KNEW YOU ,” on page 114...

> “Repent, as Christ meant it to be in terms of salvation, means to change your mind from trusting in what you can do for God to trusting only in what He can do for you.”
> SOURCE: Michael Patrick Bowen, a quote from the awesome book, “[7]I NEVER NEW YOU” (p. 114)

Pastor Bob Gray Sr. of the Longview Baptist Temple church in Texas correctly says:

> “Repentance means to change your mind—change your mind—change your mind about how you want to get to Heaven to what God says you’ve got to do to get to Heaven. If you’ve got to repent of all your sins, you’re still headed for Hell tonight.”
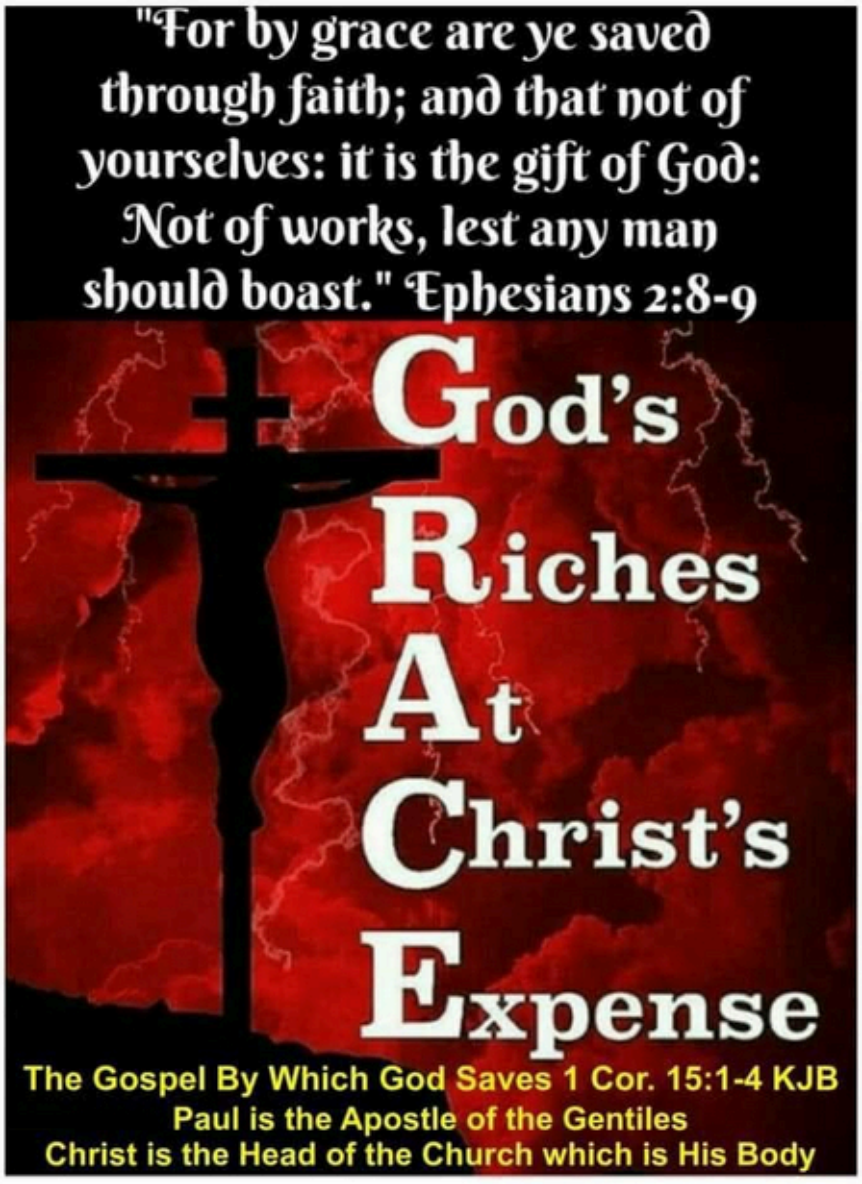
> SOURCE: Pastor Bob Gray Sr., ’[8]Why You Should Be A Part Of A Growing Church’

To be saved, you must repent (change your mind) from your BELIEF SYSTEM instead to TRUST JESUS CHRIST; receive His sacrifice on the cross as payment for sin, believe that Jesus was buried, but after three days bodily resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).



Consider the following quote by the mighty man of God, Dr. Harry Ironside (1876-1951)...

> "Repentance is the recognition of my sinnership — the owning before God that I am as vile as He has declared me to be in His holy Word."

This is vastly different than actually ceasing from one’s sin to be saved, which is a false gospel. Pastor Ironside is correct — repentance is simply realizing that one is a guilty, dirty, rotten, hopeless sinner in God’s eyes. This is why we need a Savior. Thankfully, Jesus paid the price with His own literal precious blood (1st Peter 1:18,19; Hebrews 9:12).

Repentance is the admission that I am as guilty a sinner as a holy God hath declared me to be in His Holy Word (Romans 3:19). This is Biblical repentance... turning to the Lord. To turn towards Jesus Christ in faith for salvation is to turn one’s back against sin, even though the person may not be willing to forsake sin at the time of salvation. It is ludicrous for anyone to teach that a lost sinner must give up their sins to be saved. As we saw with Lot and Samson in the Old Testament, and Demas and Peter in the New Testament, not all believers always live for God. Jesus even called the apostle Peter, “Satan” (Matthew 16:23).

4.10.2 Why People Hate Pensacola Christian College So Much (2023-10-03 20:31)

Since I was kicked out of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) in 2022, I have written numerous blogs and webpages about my own unfortunate experience at PCC. Sadly, the cult system always comes first at PCC, but individual people don't matter. They have a bunch of strict rules at PCC, but without any genuine love or compassion for human beings. The following testimony is from one of PCC's former disgruntled students, which with I agree 100 %.

> As a former student at Pensacola Christian College...
>
> Yes. I did go to Pensacola Christian College. After my experience of one semester there, I will never go back. And since I don't go there anymore, I figured I might as well share my experience of what really goes on from the inside.
>
> When I first arrived there, it was big. . It's pretty big for a Christian college. Anyway, the first few days were basically registration and getting things in order. Not to also mention a church service every night until classes began. But I'll discuss that in a little bit.
> Anyway, the first thing I want to share with you is there " Work Assistance" program. They will tell you about the "wonderful opportunities" they have and Student Testimonies about how they got through college just by working there. Guys, it's all a scam. It's not going to help pay for even less that HALF of your tuition. As a student working there, they pay less than 25 % of your tuition, and you have to pay the rest yourself. Yes, they pay minimum wage for hard labor and work to students who are in deep financial need. I won't tell you where i worked at, since I'm going to remain anonymous, but I can tell you that where I worked at, they treat you like they would in the real world. Crap. You get to work. And let me tell you, I almost didn't make it. I was telling myself it wasn't worth waking up early to do this job, and then have to go to classes with barely enough time to shower and get something to eat. Then I had to do the make-up chapel service, since I was one of many students who had to work. If we didn't, then we would get demerits. To sum it up, it sucked big time.
>
> Classes, they were OK. I really didn't have a problem with it at the start. Aside from the Christian principles they had, It was fine with me. Most teachers there are very smart and wise. They seem to know what they were doing. Some teachers, however, were new grads and they didn't have a clue on how to run a class. That's all I'm going to say about that.
>
> Chapel is pretty much just like Campus Church. Only it's shorter, with announcements. Yep. We pretty much had Church everyday except for Wednesdays, which we had night service. Sometimes Chapel can be fun, but most of the time it was just like church.
> Church services on Wednesday night and Sunday was like attending a funeral almost every time. It's too repetitive. When we go in, the church band would play the same thing over and over again. Then someone would come up, and conduct the church body like a choir with his hand. It was silly, and it still is. There's no real worship, no emotion. It seems like a job they wanted to do just to get over with. They looked like they were happy to be there, but I wondered if they just wanted to go home. And most of the time as I observed it, most people really didn't want to be there as well. The only thing that seem excited by the student body is the fact that they can sit next to each other. That's one of the only freedom the students had and they didn't take advantage of that. I remember groups of 20 people going into a row of two, just to sit together. Most didn't care about church, as I've observed. They just wanted to socialize. And at the same time, they looked like they wanted to go leave as well. But we didn't have a choice. We were forced to go to Church. Sometimes we would have special guests, but most of the time it was either Pastor McBride, or Mullenix.

Mullenix is someone who would put many, many people to sleep as I observed. He put me to sleep sometimes as well. Yes, he does speak on important topics, but the way he does it doesn't make it effective. I even asked one of my friends if he was ever like this and they told me that you will get used to it. I never did, so whenever he speaks, I just didn't care. Even I just wanted to go to bed. Pastor McBride was cool. Everybody pretty much likes him. But I feel that there's only so much he can do as a pastor, since the system controls what he can and can't do. One more thing. We had to dress up for every service. We couldn't leave the halls without someone spotting you for wearing the wrong thing. To me, they feel like dressing up makes you better than everyone else in the world.

Residence hall life. Now, since I was older, it really wasn't much of a problem. Yeah, we had floor leaders, but they were cool. As far as my roommates go, I can't reveal much information as I want to keep them anonymous as well. But what I can say is that for myself, I didn't care about the rules after a while. For instance, they are tight on no headphones. At first I complied, but after making some friends who knew the system and broke that rule, I bought headphones and listened to anything I wanted. I was careful about where to use them and didn't get caught. Even when I walked off campus sometimes, I would slip them on and listen to my music.

Yeah. They are tight about that as well. But, from what I learned, most of my friends listened to music that wasn't allowed. I even had incidents where I would walk into one of my friends rooms and they would be listening to artists like Imagine Dragons, or Bruno Mars. So, I did the same. Even for movies. I would go to an undisclosed location and use the internet to get movies or TV shows that I missed. To sum it all up, you can beat the system, but you have to be careful. Fortunate for me, I never got caught because I was.

Dress code. It wasn't a problem for me, but they are strict on what you wear. They want you to be an example as a Christian and to the world.

The segregation of males and females. Yes, they are serious about that as well. When I was there, most people told me that things changed, but some things stayed the same. There's a separate elevator and stairwell so that we can't walk together. There's no dating, unless we are older. At the commons they would watch people who are sitting together. There's no touching or hugging, which I've done a few times and didn't get caught. But it seems to me that people do it anyway, if they are careful. I heard a story from one of my friends that a guy and a girl had sex on campus and got caught by a security guard. Yes, they got expelled, but because of what the college stands for, that's why people do what they want. They love to enforce the rules, that it gets to a point where people just don't care anymore and do what they want. I knew people who were there for a few years and I was surprised at what they did. Some people make those choices, and whatever happens, it's on them.

The food there is good until it gets to the point where it gets sick to your stomach. That's all I'm going to say about that.

The Student Court is just ridiculous. You have to check on your computer to see if you have to go to student court. If you do, you have to wait in a long line full of students who most of them are there for no apparent reason. For example, since I was working, I couldn't go to some events. They actually have attendance cards that you have to give when you go in. If you don't, then you have to go to student court. Then you have to waste your time and tell whosoever "judging" you that you are working. Then you are on your merry way. I had to tell my boss that I was getting these notices and they should know that I was working. So they had to actually tell the office that I was working, and yet again I had to go down there again! Seriously...

But one thing bothered me a lot even before going to the college was that they really don't care about victims of rape. [1]You can read Samantha's tragic story here.

After what I read, I couldn't believe that a Christian college who claimed to be caring would expel people because they were in a situation that they had no control of. As I read more stories of the victim, and the more time I was on the campus, I was beginning to understand that the administration has no heart. They only care about enforcing the rules, no matter what. They stick to their code, and get a paycheck at the end of the day. They don't have compassion and reach out their hand, like Jesus would and comfort them. They don't want the police involved because obviously they are a private school and don't want to ruin their reputation. They brush them off like dirt and take their money. And then the people who are responsible for doing it walk away with a degree. It's just sickening. Now, I know that some stories may not be what it seems, but is it hard to believe that PCC would turn their backs on their students? Is it?

In all, I wouldn't encourage anyone to go to this school. It's like a cult. A daily routine with no change. Even with the friendly people and some people who care, it's just not worth it. Even the most of the education there is not accredited. That means all of your hard work and money spent just goes to waste, because you can't' get a job in most places. And that's bad. I won't take anything from that college except for the friends I've made there. Like I said before, I'm not going there anymore and don't plan to. So, I decided to write about it, and I did. I recently read these negative reviews about PCC on Google...

Erich Baacke - a month ago

This collage has the worst set of rules I have ever seen for a college. this college needs to be checked by an ethics committee and someone to change rules to be less of a cult. I would never consider sending my child to this school.

Thyino Jinko - 3 weeks ago

Absolutely sickening. You wonder why religion is falling apart it’s because of freaks like this college.

donna lie - a week ago

Horrid rules, horrid system. i do not understand why this school is still open. it is ruining people lives.

I am so sorry for the people in these reviews who have been brainwashed by this school.

My Own Testimony Of Abuse At PCC

I used to attend Campus Church, but left because of Pastor Jeff Redlin’s abusive behavior. He is a graduate of PCC also. I was berated because I am divorced. I was 54 years old and a grandfather when I started attending Campus Church in July of 2021. I emailed the kindest introduction letter to Pastor Redlin to ask how I can serve God at Campus Church. I kindly mentioned that I have been divorced since 2006, when my wife abandoned me. I mentioned to Redlin about my ongoing chronic neck pain and related bodily afflictions since 2004.

I also kindly made a one sentenced comment that I hoped to “find a wife” at Campus Church. Of all the thousands of words in my heartfelt email, Pastor Redlin zeroed in on my comment about finding a wife, scolding me as a 54-year old man for coming to church to find a wife. I was cut to the heart that the senior pastor of such a large religious institution could be so cruel, stupid, heartless and rotten to scold a divorced man who is lonely and desires companionship (just like his wife provides for him). I wrote back and informed him kindly that he wrongly judged me, and that I never said the reason I came to Campus Church was to find a wife. I simply mentioned in passing that I hoped to meet a Christian woman to marry.

Kindly said, Pastor Jeff Redlin is a narcissist. A narcissist is a self-centered personality style characterized as having an excessive preoccupation with oneself and one's own needs, often at the expense of others. Narcissistic personality disorder is a mental health condition in which people have an unreasonably high sense of their own importance. What saith the Scripture? Philippians 2:3, "Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves." God knows my heart, that I was willing to make peace with the PCC camp in 2022, but they refused. They refused to forgive me because they think they are better than others. That is why they refuse to make things right with Samantha Field, Allen Armentrout and other wounded former students at their college. Of course, PCC leaders would never admit such a sinful thing, but their shameful unforgiving behavior proves that they are not humble, not in the least.

> "Don't go here if you're a Christian; they don't actually follow the Bible. They just use it as an excuse to treat people like trash." —Danielle Tate (2016)
> "This institution did more to harm my personal development than any other. As a 38 year old professional, I still bear the scars of how I was treated by this harsh, unloving, uncaring college." —Greg S (2015), a former abused PCC student

> “17 years later and I’m still shaking off the trauma. So many extra-biblical rules it’ll make your head spin. Great place for Pharisaical training if your into that. The rule book has more rules than the Bible.” —Jorn Anderson (September 2022), former mistreated PCC student

> “Pcc is the worst school ever. It was a complete waste of my time and money. They kicked me out for going to the wrong Sunday school class. And that was a year ago. They still will not release my transcripts which has put me behind in my college career. They schools not be called a Christian college if they cannot even live by what the Bible has to say. If I was able to take it all back and not go there I would in a heartbeat. I am warning you if you are thinking about going DONT DO IT!!!!” —Gavin Bufford (2017), abused former PCC student

> “I’m a 2018 graduate of PCC and I went here for all 4 years. It’s really sad that this place calls itself Christian, its legalistic places like pcc that give Christians a bad name. They do have a lot of rules regulating most areas of life. I was treated very poorly and rude by several "Christians" on staff and faculty and I saw many of my friends treated the same way. I’ve personally seen people who were once people I would hang out with, when given positions of leadership become legalistic monsters taking joy in getting as many students in trouble as possible, and this is done in the name of Christ! As a student you are guilty until proven innocent and can be kicked out just because someone accuses you of something.” —Nick Harrison (2019), a mistreated PCC alumni

> “It is NOT a friendly environment. All they care about is rules instead of encouraging and building you up in your Christian walk.” —Hannah Elizabeth Kirchhoff (December 2022), mistreated former PCC student

> “They call themselves Christians, but Christians are supposed to show compassion and patience.” —Angela (January 2023), mistreated former PCC student

> “In retrospect, I thank God for not having the opportunity to attend here (Pensacola Christian College) and myself for not making the decision to enroll.” —Richard Deuto (January 2023)

> “Crackpot unaccredited school.” —Meryl Montgomery (November 2022)

Pastor Redlin’s cruel, judgmental, patronizing and childish response to my initial contact with him in 2021 is sadly typical of the holier-than-thou hypocritical attitudes of the PCC camp. In truth, Jeff Redlin is a religious bully, a pulpit punk, a disgrace to the name of Jesus Christ. Pastor Redlin is a fool to patronize a 54-year old grandfather. I am older than Jeff Redlin, and he should show some respect, just as I did toward him as the pastor of Campus Church. What is the problem at PCC? I’ll tell you, PCC have grown too big for their britches. PCC takes in tens of millions of dollars revenues. They have tens of thousands of supports worldwide. So like the carnal church at Laodicea in Revelation 3:15-17, PCC thinks they are prospering, when in reality Jesus called them spiritually “naked, poor, wretched, miserable and blind.”

Here are [4]hundreds more negative reviews of Pensacola Christian College (PCC). The irony of all this is that I actually felt lonely in 2022 and begged to return to Campus Church. I moved from the island of Guam to Pensacola, Florida in July of 2021. I left Campus Church because of Pastor Redlin’s abusive words and mistreatment of me. I criticized him on social media for the next several months, going into 2022. But then I felt sad and lonely, and I wanted to lay down my keyboard and mouse and reconcile with the PCC family. I wrote to Pastor Redlin in June of 2022, apologizing and pleading for a second chance. I offered to do whatever PCC required to make peace with them, even if it meant standing up in front of Campus Church and apologizing.

To no surprise, Pastor Redlin totally ignored me for weeks. So I write two more letters and mailed them through the U.S. Postal Service. One letter went to all the pastors of Campus Church, and the other to PCC leaders as a courtesy copy (so they could see how their shameful pastor was behaving like an unforgiving heathen). To no surprise again, both PCC and Campus Church completely blew me off for 6 weeks. No one cared enough, or valued me enough as a human being created in God's image, to respond.

So I became frustrated and started to openly criticize them on social media again, and they deserve it. Only then did their wicked pastor, Jeff Redlin (the Devil's little helper), email me to tell me that I am permanently banned from attending Campus Church. We have bene enemies ever since, and that is totally on them, not me. I tried to reconcile with them, but there is no peace the Bible says when dealing with a fool. Proverbs 29:9, "If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest." God knows that the pastors and complicit leaders at PCC are fools, unable to be reasoned with. It doesn't matter if I am nice and apologetic toward them (as I was in 2022), or expose and criticize them all over social media (and I am just getting started), either way PCC's horrible leaders refuse to reconcile and couldn't care less.

Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001) didn't like PCC, because they are not based in a New Testament church, they are a secular institution that started their own campus chapel, erroneously labeling it as a "church." The sad fact that I am not allowed to attend their Campus Church just proves that it is a private cult (like the private Jehovah's Witnesses), and not a genuine Bible church. Everybody is welcome in a true church!!!

> "I am all for standards, but I am not for standards without love." —Pastor Jack Hyles

> "The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they've been [6]trained by people that have never built churches, and [7]they have no compassion." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[8]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard"

SHAME on Pensacola Christian College and their pathetic Campus Church. The reason why many people hate PCC is because they are like big retail stores that have a monopoly over everything. I remember years ago that K-mart laughed at customers who had complaints, simply because K-mart was so massive a company that they could get away with mistreating and ignoring the 2 % who were upset and frustrated. Well, K-mart went out of business, and in God’s eyes so has Pensacola Christian College spiritually. PCC today wickedly bids Godspeed to false teacher [9]Ken Ham, who preaches the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation. PCC also wickedly bids Godspeed to Bob Jones University and their ungodly Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (a cesspool of [10]BJU graduates who preach Lordship Salvation). Dear reader, please read this important sermon by Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) titled, “

” RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

At PCC they sing pretty religious songs, but their heart is far from God. When I attended Campus Church in 2021, I sickeningly heard assistant pastor Timothy Zacharias claim that “ Campus Church is Heaven on earth.

” I don’t think so, not by a long shot! I might by Hell on earth, but it sure ain’t Heaven. In Heaven they are humble, not so high-minded and arrogant that they refuse to allow a fellow Christian brother to attend church. Perhaps their leaders are not saved at PCC, which would explain their hatred, pride and stubborn refusal to forgive me and let me attend Campus Church. It’s not about me, it’s about loving people as individuals. People just want to be loved. PCC hates people and selectively chooses who matters, that is, who can come to church and who cannot. That is wickedness!

Granted, PCC does some good, but so also did the false prophets in Matthew 7:21-23 who boasted to Jesus of their “many wonderful works.” Yet, Christ denied knowing them as His sheep. I wouldn’t be surprised at all if PCC’s leaders and pastors have succumbed to the damnable heresy being taught at Bob Jones University (BJU) today, which is NOT the Gospel of free grace. I question if Pastor Jeff Redlin is a born again believer, since he is okay with supporting infidels like Gary Walton at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam; since he is okay with supporting infidels like Ken Ham; since he is okay with infidels like Dr. Steve Pettit (former president of BJU). Birds of a feather flock together!

There Is Only One Gospel

In a million years I wouldn’t bid Godspeed to a cult like BJU that promotes Satan’s corruptible seed (i.e., the Devil’s modern perversions of God’s Word). The reason why I harp on this topic so much is because no one else is taking the issue seriously. Dear friend, Galatians 1:6-8 warns that there is only ONE GOSPEL. ...

> Galatians 1:6-8, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.”

Having said all that, God knows that I LOVE EVERYBODY, including everybody in the PCC family. I am not the one who refuses to forgive and reconcile, they refuse to forgive at PCC and Campus Church.

Judges 6:13, “

And Gideon said unto him, Oh my Lord, if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.”

The United States doesn’t deserve God’s blessing. I attended a Hawaiian music event in 2008 in Honolulu. I was there on the island of Oahu for medical reasons. At the end of the musical concert, everybody joined hands to sing: "God Bless America." I just couldn’t sing that song, because America has become worse than Sodom. I was the only one of about 40 people not singing. I have no regrets for not participating. I hate what America has become.

From legalized abortion to legalized same-sex marriage (perversion), from social covetousness and corporate greed to the fraudulent Federal Reserve Ponzi Scheme, from lying politicians to lying preachers, from corrupt so-called "Bible" colleges like Pensacola Christian College (who deny that we have an inspired Holy Bible today) to the damnable cult at Bob Jones University who promote the Devil’s tainted Bible versions, from shady manipulative business policies to cutthroat lawyers, from an epidemic of fornication and adultery to the super ease of getting a divorce, from wicked Hollywood to the Satanic music industry, from massive government recklessness and blatant theft of taxpayer money to the open borders that are destroying our stability as a nation, from the deadly lies of Lordship Salvation and misunderstood repentance to the abundance of demonic religious cults across the nation — I pray for God to damn this ungodly country!

And if you aren’t aware of how corrupt Bob Jones University (BJU) has become over the past 40 years, [1]please read this shocking exposure of their cult.

Someone recently asked me why God won't answer their prayers. I kindly directed them to [illegible] 6:13, "[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

4.10.5 I Don’t Stand With Israel (2023-10-07 16:16)

Exodus 19:5-6, “Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine: And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.”

Before I say anything, let me state clearly that I love Jewish people. Racism is a sin! I am not anti-Semite, I am anticorruption. I am for the truth, whatever it may be. The truth can be dealt with, but a lie cannot. As a fundamentalist Baptist preacher my desire, duty and obligation to God is to preach the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, so help me God.

[1]Why Are Jews And Arab Muslims Fighting In The Middle East?

Every time Israel gets attacked, pastors across America rally behind Israel. Such was the case this past week when rockets attacked Israel. ...

> The Palestinian militant group Hamas launched the [2]largest attack on Israel in decades early Saturday, invading multiple Israeli towns from Gaza and launching masses of missiles into the country. At least 200 Israelis and about 200 Palestinians have been killed in the fighting, according to Israeli media reports and the Palestinian government. [3]SOURCE

Palestinian Militants Launch Massive Surprise Attack on Israel

Why doesn't the U.S. newsmedia [4]ever condemn Israel for attacking Palestinians? I'll tell you why, because the U.S. mainstream newsmedia is controlled by ungodly Zionists. "Zion" refers to the city of Jerusalem in the Bible. There is a good Zionism taught in the Bible, concerning the future restoration of true Israel when Jesus Christ returns at His SECOND COMING; and then there is a bad Zionism which promotes Satan's imitation of Israel today.

Israel, Not The Jews, The Apple Of God's Eye

Israel is the "

apple of God's eye

we read in Zechariah

2:8, "

For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.

” Now, there is much misunderstanding about this passage of Scripture. Some foolish people claim that wicked Israel today is still blessed of God. They would have us as born-again Christians to foolishly think that wicked Israel today is the apple of God’s eye, regardless of her depth of wickedness, and that we are obligated as saints to support ungodly Israel. Nothing could be further from the truth. True Israel doesn’t exist today! What exists today is a manmade imitation of God’s Israel.

By being the

apple of God’s eye,

” the Bible is simply referring to what Israel represents in God’s eyes. God gave the world the Holy Bible though Israel. God gave humanity the blessed Savior, His only begotten Son, through Israel (Jesus being a Jew). The Bible is essentially a Jewish history book. God’s intent for Israel was to be ambassadors to mankind. Sadly, they refused to keep God’s commandments, ruining things for themselves. When Zechariah the prophet speaks of Israel being the apple of God’s eye,

” he is not saying that Jews are better than Gentiles, nor that we owe them some special treatment. The prophet is simply declaring that the nation of Israel itself is special to God, because He has a divine purpose for the nation. We must distinguish between the nation itself and the individual people.

As an illustration, the United States was founded with the idea that this would become a great nation, where it’s citizens would be completely free from tyranny. But this doesn’t mean that Americans always do the right thing. Millions of Americans are incarcerated in prison today. Our culture today is decadent, full of pride, drug addiction, crime, abortion, public nudity, gossip, homosexuality, adultery, fornication, divorce, stealing, arrogance, bullying and every other form of evil. But just because Americans choose to commit wickedness and forget God, doesn’t change the ideologies that our founding fathers had in mind when they founded the United States back in 1776. The United States represents something much greater than its individual citizens.

Likewise, Israel was founded with the idea that they would preach the Gospel to the world, and be God’s people. As our text passage from Exodus 19:5-6 says, God wanted a peculiar people who were zealous to do good works. But the Jews rebelled and chose to worship idols instead. The Jews did wickedly, so God chastised them using heathen nations. Ultimately, God divorced Israel. Since 586 BC Israel no longer exists anymore, utterly destroyed by Babylon. However, the philosophical noble ideologies behind why Israel was formed in the first place haven’t changed, which is what the

apple of God’s eye

” refers to. God never defended the Jews when they committed wickedness. For example: In Judges 6:1 Israel did wickedly, so God gave them into the hands of the Midianites for 7 years to suffer famine in the land.

Kindly, if you think that ungodly Christ-rejecting Jews in Israel today, who spit upon the name of Lord Jesus Christ, have some special claim or right to being supported by churches, you are woefully deceived. You will not receive God’s blessing for donating money or help to ungodly Jews. Jesus said in Mark 9:41 that if you give even a cup of water to someone “because ye belong to Christ,” God will reward you. That means if you help my ministry, because I am serving Christ, God will reward you. I’ve never accepted any money and never will. This is a labor of love for Jesus Christ. Many people share my blogs and website articles on social media, they pray for my health and ministry, they love and they encourage me when I am feeling down, et cetera. God will reward them for being fellowhelpers to the truth. 3rd John 1:8, “ We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth.”

Notice in our text Scripture passage from the Old Testament, that God’s promise to bless Israel was CONDITIONAL upon their continued OBEDIENCE. ...

> Exodus 19:5-6, “
>
> Now therefore,if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine:
>
> And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.
>

Don’t overlook that conditional word, “

if.

” The Bible says

if ye obey me,

” then will God bless them. Sadly, the Israelites didn’t obey God most of the time. The Jews went into idolatry. That is what the Old Testament book of Ezekiel is about, Israel’s whoredom with idols. Jeremiah 3:8, “

And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

” The Bible is speaking here about spiritual adultery with idols.

God divorced the nation of Israel, but he made a way for His people to be graffed back into the Olive Tree.

Romans 11:23-24, “And they also, if they [Jews] abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again. For if thou [Gentiles] wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these [Jews] , which be the natural branches, be graffed into their own olive tree?” In other words, only born-again Jews by faith in Jesus Christ are going to Heaven, and are counted among the seed of Abraham. ...

>
> Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

Galatians 3:29, “

And if ye be Christ’s, then are ye Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Lest you have any reluctance to believe what I am teaching you, consider the following Scripture passage...

Romans 2:28-29, “For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.”

A person is NOT a Jew who is one nationally, culturally, ethnically, religiously or biologically; but rather, spiritually (i.e., “YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN” Jesus warned in John 3:3-7). Please let me quote these Bible verses again, because they lay to rest any debate in the matter:

Galatians 3:7, “

Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

Galatians 3:29, “

And if ye be Christ’s, then are ye Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Only born-again Jews and Gentiles are “THE CHOSEN.” No unbelieving Jew will ever enter into God’s Kingdom, and no believing Gentile will ever plunge into the fires of Hell. Being Jewish no more guarantees a lost sinner of eternal life, than being Swedish would guarantee a man the right to become the President of the United States. The only qualifying condition to enter through the Pearly Gates of Heaven is the new birth, which is by faith alone in the Lord Jesus Christ. Philippians 3:9-11, “And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.”

Present-Day Israel Is Not The Fulfillment Of Bible Prophecy

Here is an accurate, biblical, gentlemanly and excellent statement from Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988) concerning why present-day Israel is NOT the fulfillment of Bible prophecy...

> “Israel is just like any other nation. Some think they’re a little brutal, but my friend, they’re on the defense over there, you can be sure of that. And they have to exercise a strong defense system. They’re not backing that land in fulfillment of prophecy. They have returned to the land, but they have not yet returned to the Lord. When they return to the Lord there will be blessing. They have not yet done that!
> ...they went out in 70 A.D. And they actually have never returned to the land according to the Word of God. Now hear me very carefully because this is very important to see. They have returned to the land today, and it’s remarkable what has happened over there, but it’s not the fulfillment of prophecy, because the prophecy says when they return they’ll return TO GOD!”
> SOURCE: Pastor J. Vernon McGee; THRU-THE-BIBLE; [5]Hosea 2:19-23 and Hosea 3:4

In his “[6]THRU-THE-BIBLE” commentary for Hosea 3:5, Dr. McGee stresses the truth that there are more Arab Christians in Israel today than there are Jewish Christians. Upon a return trip to visit Israel, Pastor McGee makes the startling comment, “Over there there’s no turning to God, at all!” While visiting he saw a big motto in Israel which read: “SCIENCE WILL BRING PEACE TO THIS LAND.” Israel is a Godless nation today! Dr. McGee cites a credible source as saying that there are less than 300 Israelites that are real believers in Israel today! The Russian Catholic Church owns much land in Israel today, as do Greek Orthodox and Muslims. Dr. McGee rightly states, “We’re a nation of Biblical ignoramuses! We do not know the Word of God today in this land” (Pastor J. Vernon McGee, THRU-THE-BIBLE, commentary from [7]Hosea 4:1-2).

Hosea 3:5 evidences the fact that Israel’s present return to the land is not the fulfillment of Biblical prophecy today. When Jesus Christ returns at the Second Coming, and true Israel is returned to the Promised Land, Hosea 3:5 says they will SEEK AND FEAR THE LORD THEIR GOD! Love The Arab People

God is not a respecter of person, whether Jew or Gentile:

> Romans 10:12, “For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.”

I love the Arab people very much. I am wearied with the bigotry of professed Christians who lash out with hate against the Arab peoples. Romans 10:12 plainly states that there is NO DIFFERENCE in God’s eyes between the Jews and the Gentiles (all non-Jews). If you have been led to believe that Jewish people are more special than Gentiles, you have been woefully deceived.

The doctrine of religious and political Zionism is a false teaching. Jesus promised to [9]regather Israel at His Second Coming, and not before. And furthermore, only born-again Jews, i.e., those who have Christ’s righteousness by faith in Him, will see the Promised Land. And, every Arab can enjoy the same promise of entering into the Promised Land, which was made to them as much as the Jews. Romans 4:13, “For THE PROMISE, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.” Amen! Any Arab (Gentile) who comes to God the Father through faith in His only begotten Son for forgiveness of sins, will enjoy the Promised Land when Jesus returns. Galatians 3:29, "And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise." Born-again Arabs are of the seed of Abraham!!!

Many people wrongly blame Islam for the 911 attacks; but [10]Islam was not to blame in the least. It is unfair for Americans to focus on the terrorist attacks of a few Shiite Muslims throughout the Middle East, while completely ignoring our own murderous holocaust right here in America against innocent babies in the womb. Statistically, a mother's womb is the most dangerous place in the world to be. This ought not be. Can you imagine? The Arab people put Americans to shame morally.

Who are we as Americans to criticize the Muslims, considering the utter hypocrisy of our nation toward its weak, unborn and elderly? Poor [11]Terri Schiavo. Americans sat back, while Florida officials tortured that innocent woman to death. How can Americans sit in judgment upon the Arabs? The churches have been deceived by the New World Order, supporting the manmade nation of Israel today, which was reestablished in May of 1948 by the Council On Foreign Relations. God did not reestablish Israel, unbelieving heathen men did.

British and United States led ally military soldiers forced the Palestinian people out of Israel at gunpoint, robbing them of their homes and possessions. Can you blame those victimized people for being angry and wanting revenge? It's not hard to understanding why some Arabs would strap themselves with dynamite, and as a suicide-bomber blow up a bus or McDonalds in Israel, when their ancestors had their homes stolen from them in 1948. Remember, God drove them from their homeland in 70 AD, when the Roman Emperor Titus destroyed Jerusalem and the Jews were scattered throughout the world. Deuteronomy 28:64, " And the LORD shall scatter thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and there thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone."

[12]Jack Chick, John Hagee and many other Zionist ministers, have demonized the Arab people, while white-washing the Jews. It is Americans who are behaving demonically! Jack Chick has a publication (which I won't call a Gospel tract), called LOVE THE JEWISH PEOPLE. That bothers me to no end, because America gives tens-of-billions of dollars to Israel every year; but we give nothing to suffering Palestinians living in poverty and make-shift tents. I'm not elevating any group over another. Biblically, we're supposed to love all mankind equally. That's exactly what Jesus taught, "Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself" (Matthew 22:39). Everyone is my neighbour (Luke 10:33).

Truly, America has become THE GREAT SATAN! In fact, that's exactly what a high priest in the [13]Church of Satan stated. Do the Arabs have a Church of Satan? No, only in America!

Please don't misunderstand me, I am not endorsing the religion of Islam in any way; nor can I, for they deny Jesus is the Son of God and the Messiah. However, I have a lot of respect for most Arab people, whose women dress modestly, and their men are men. I do not endorse any form of abuse; however, the Arabs have been unfairly stereotyped to a large extent by feminists in the United States. The total Arab submission of their women comes MUCH closer to Biblical living than the hussy, rebellious, bratty, arrogant, bimbo, whorish, lesbian behavior of American women.

We've abused our freedoms in America to the point where we're destroying ourselves as a people. Americans party to the sinful lyrics of "get down on it," "all night long," "shake your booty," "do it like a virgin," "freak out," "get down tonight" ... and then wonder why nearly half the children in America are murdered by abortion, by irresponsible and Godless parents who commit sexual sins. The Arab people have more decency, morality and respect for themselves than to live like that. Americans have well-earned the title of THE GREAT SATAN for our sin-loving nation. How can we argue with such an allegation against our nation, when we officially nickname one of our biggest cities to SIN CITY?

Salem, Massachusetts, brags of the witchcraft roots of their city. All of their police officers wear arm patches that boast... [14]SALEM: THE WITCH CITY. Do we really trust in God as a nation? We have [15]forgotten God. How can anyone in America sing, GOD BLESS AMERICA, in the midst of such hypocrisy, evil and rebellion against God? Late Night's [16]Conan O'Brien sings with cheer that he's going to Hell when he dies. Oh, that it would not be so. [17]Hell is forever!

America's youth are behaving like animals, because that is what evolution calls them in the public schools. [18]In 1962 we kicked prayer out of the schools, and the Bible in 1963. We said, "Goodbye God!" And now our nation is in shambles! So, it shouldn't come as a surprise today that we see [19]young people committing Smash & Grab crimes nationwide. Isaiah 3:12, " As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths."

We Americans could learn a lot from the Arab peoples about respect, decency and gratitude. Shame on America! Our leaders have [20]committed blatant evil against other nations, including the Arab nations; while we sit idle playing with our MP3 player and TV remote. We Americans don't deserve our freedoms, because we have abandoned the responsibility that comes with them. Revelation 11:8, " And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. " Wow, what an indictment against the city of Jerusalem! This is the city where the Lord was crucified. The Bible calls Jerusalem, spiritually, " Sodom and Egypt

" (two of the most wicked places in history). Spiritually, the city of Jerusalem is as wicked as Sodom and Egypt.

The Jewish publication, FORWARD , has dubbed the city of Tel Aviv as [21]the 'Gay Mecca' for homosexuals . So much for the misnomer: 'The Holy Land.' The city of Sodom obtained its disparaging name from the fact that homosexuality was a major problem in the ancient city. In Genesis chapter 19 we read about a wicked mob of lustful out of control homosexuals, who were roaming the city for their next victims to sodomize. The sodomites set their criminal perverse desires upon the two angels whom God had sent to Lot's house. Statistically, homosexuals are more prone to violence then heterosexuals.

The National Intimate Partner and Sexual Violence Survey (NISVS) from 2010.

> The CDC also stated that 43.8 % of lesbian women reported experiencing physical violence, stalking, or rape by their partners. The study notes that, out of those 43.8 %, two thirds (67.4 %) reported exclusively female perpetrators. The other third reported at least one perpetrator being male, however the study made no distinction between victims who experienced violence from male perpetrators only and those who reported both male and female perpetrators. Similarly, 61.1 % of bisexual women reported physical violence, stalking, or rape by their partners in the same study with 89.5 % reporting at least one perpetrator being male. In contrast, 35 % of heterosexual women reported having been victim of intimate partner violence, with 98.7 % of them reporting male perpetrators exclusively.

Young people in America aren’t taught anymore to respect the things of others, nor to respect their elders. Kids are brats these days—pushing adults out of their way in public, littering the ground like pigs, and showing no respect for their neighbours. In contrast, Arab children are largely well-behaved and dare not disrespect their elders. The elderly are forgotten about in nursing homes, most of which fail to meet government quality standards. In sharp contrast, in the Asian and Middle Eastern cultures they take care of their elderly. In America, our elderly have to take buses to Canada and travel down to Mexico to purchase affordable medications and to obtain affordable dental care. That’s how we mistreat our elderly in the United States.

Please don’t misunderstand, I am not anti-American. On the contrary, I love America, which is why I speak the truth. What has our nation deteriorated into? When did we stop showing our gratitude for God? We certainly don’t show our appreciation by [23]42,000,000 visitors flocking to SIN CITY each year. Those 42 million tourists spend a staggering $6,500,000,000 each year in Las Vegas. America is a wicked and [24]mentally-ill society.

So I say to you, whoever you may be, love the Arab people, and don’t be so hard on them. We have a lot of junk in our own backyard that needs to be cleaned up in America. In fact, we’ve got a rotten morgue in America to deal with—rigor mortis having set in a long time ago. We’ve passed Code Blue in the United States. We’re spiritually dead as a nation. I love Arabs and Jews alike. This is what the Bible teaches. If you favor the Jews but despise Muslim people, you are not right with God. Less than 2.5 % of the inhabitants of Israel today profess faith in Jesus Christ (and that includes hellbound Mormons, Roman Catholics, Church of Christ, Jehovah’s Witnesses, Lutherans, Seventh-Day Adventists and other heretical religious cults who are wrong on the Gospel).

[25]FREE PALESTINE (Backup)
(a helpful sermon by Pastor Steven Anderson)

Satan Imitates The Things Of God

The Bible teaches that Satan is an imitator, that is, a master counterfeiter. 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15, "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; *whose end shall be according to their works" (cf. Matthew 7:21-23). Let me ask you a question friend: Who are the ministers of unrighteousness today? I'll bet you never thought about that. Is it the Pope? I would say, yes, definitely. Is it [26]Billy Graham (1918-2018)? Sadly, I would say yes! Tragically, 99 % of our estimated 350,000 churches in the United States are full of false teachers! Is it [27]Dr. John MacArthur? Yes, sadly, he is a sinister minister! Any pastor who preaches the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation is a minister of unrighteousness!!!

"Lordship Salvation"

is the unbiblical teaching that faith is not enough to get to Heaven, but in addition, you must "turn from your sin; turn from your evil way, and begin to follow Jesus." That is exactly the [28]damnable heresy that Ken Ham and his Answers-In-Genesis religious business foolishly teach. At Answers-In-Genesis, they even mention the "second thing" that you must do to be saved. Dear reader, there is NO SECOND THING that you must do to be saved. There is ONLY ONE THING, which according to Acts 16:31b is to "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ."

> Hosea 3:5, "Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days."

For the preceding reasons, and because I am not a respecter of persons (just as God is not a respecter of persons), I do not support Israel when they are attacked. [29]Israel has much blood on their hands, not just the Arabs. I highly encourage you dear reader to watch this eye-opening sermon by Pastor Steven Anderson titled: '[30]FREE PALESTINE.' Regardless of what you may think about Brother Anderson (I disagree with him on several issues), this sermon is needful. Israel is just as guilty, if not much more, of being unfair, racist and hateful toward their Palestinian neighbours. If you take either side you are not right with God. A proper Christian attitude toward the quagmire in the Middle East is that they all need the dear Savior. Both Jews and Arabs alike need the Gospel of free grace, which is the only way they will ever come to their senses, by faith in Jesus Christ. Sadly, 99 % of both Jews and Muslims today reject Jesus as their Messiah, which means none of them are born-again; and therefore, none of them in their unregenerate state can go to Heaven.

Please watch this insightful 1:53 hour documentary called: 'BEYOND JORDAN' by Pastor Anderson. This well-made video documentary explores the intriguing region of Palestine...

[31]Beyond Jordan - Bible Documentary

God loves the Palestinian people, JUST AS MUCH as He loves the people living within the borders of Israel. It is shameful, wicked and unbiblical that tens of thousands of churches today in America automatically take the side of Israel, but couldn't care less about the people living in Palestine outside of Israel.

I do not support Israel today because true Israel doesn't exist anymore. God allowed Babylon to annihilate the city of Jerusalem in 586 BC, which was the end of Israel as a nation. Northern Israel, the city of Samaria, were destroyed by the Assyrians in 722 BC. Unbelieving men reestablished manmade Israel in 1948, just like Abraham and Sarah sinfully conceived Ishmael because they didn't have the faith or patience to wait for the son that God had promised them, Isaac. God promised in Hosea 3:4-5 that He will regather Israel when Jesus returns, when the Jews repent toward God, which they haven't done yet. Pastor J. Vernon McGee is correct that the nation of Israel today is no different than any other heathen nation. Israel today is not the fulfillment of Bible prophecy.

The Devil always imitates the things of God:

1. Jesus Christ = imitated by the coming Antichrist (i.e., in place of Christ)
2. True Israel = imitated by modern manmade fake Israel
3. Christ's Millennial Kingdom = imitated by Satan's New World Order

Please don't fall for the Devil's deceptive imitations. Our focus today as saints should be upon preaching the Gospel to the four corners of the earth, not idolizing a bunch of Christ-rejecting heathen Jews in Israel.

I hear pastor after pastor ignorantly citing Genesis 12:3 as evidence that we are commanded as believers to support Israel today. Genesis 12:3, "And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed." Dear reader, God made that promise to Abraham and only Abraham. Proof of this is found in our text passage from Exodus 19:5-6, "Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine: And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel." As you can plainly see for yourself, God's promise to bless the Jews was CONDITIONAL. If they refused to obey God's statutes and walk in His righteous ways, then all bets were off!

Nearly all of God's promises to mankind are conditional. If you want to go to Heaven, then you must put your trust (faith, confidence) in Jesus Christ alone (John 3:16-18). And if you are a Jew who wants God to bless you, then you must also believe on Jesus Christ to be graffed back into the Olive Tree of God's Kingdom. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. If you think that we are obligated by God as saints to serve and put up on a pedestal, wicked unbelieving Jews today, then you are greatly in error my friend. We as Christians are THE CHOSEN, not the outward Jews. Romans 2:28-29, "For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God." YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN.

Why should I stand with Israel just because Hamas bombed them, again? I am sick and tired of the churches and American media refusing to stand with Palestine, ever. In other words, I refuse to take sides in the ongoing conflict in the Middle East, which has existed for millenniums, and always will exist according to the Bible. Genesis 16:11-12, "And the angel of the LORD said unto her [Hagar], Behold, thou art with child, and shalt bear a son, and shalt call his name Ishmael; because the LORD hath heard thy affliction. And he will be a wild man; his hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren [the Jews] **. "

When I went to Los Angeles in 2009 for my first major neck surgery, the hospital had different languages posted. The nurse explained that if at least 5 % of the community spoke a certain language, the hospital was legally required to post information in that language. So I saw that there were instructions in Arabic. While staying in West Hollywood and visiting Los Angeles, I saw Jewish synagogues everywhere. The Bible is true, which says in Genesis 16:12 that wherever there are Jews, you will also find Arabs. Hollywood is full of Jews and Arabs! That is very interesting.

I don't stand with the Jews or the Palestinians, I stand with Jesus. If you want to stand with Israel, then you had better also stand with the people of Palestine, otherwise you are a wicked respecter of persons. Someone said to me today that they think the Rapture is imminent because Hamas attacked Israel. Dear reader, that is not so. What saith the Scripture? Luke 21:24, " And they [

the Jews in Israel

] shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled." Did you understand that prophecy friend? The Bible is teaching that it is NORMAL for the Gentiles (which includes the Palestinians) to trod down and attack Jerusalem. This will continue until the Times Of The Gentiles be fulfilled. This will happen at the end of the world as we know it, when Jesus Christ returns at His Second Coming.

We see this event depicted in Nebuchadnezzar's dream (in the book of Daniel). The king saw an image with a head of gold. As we descend down the image, representing succeeding kingdoms, the type of value of metal decreases, until finally we get down to the feet of iron mixed with clay (signifying communism mixed with freedom in the world). But what I want you to see is the stone cut from the mountain without hands, which smashes into the image and crushes it into smithereens. That stone cut from the mountain without hands is none other than our precious Savior, Jesus. The Time Of The Gentiles will end when Christ returns to establish His millennial reign over the earth, reigning as a King seated upon the throne of David from the true restored nation of Israel. Present-day Israel is a farce, a poor imitation, a cheap decoy.

To clarify, I am not against Israel, nor am I against the Palestinians. There is guilt, blame and blood shed from both sides of the struggle in the Middle East. I humbly think it is wrong for church pastors and congregations to side with Israel, as if the Palestinians are garbage. Israel is as much to blame as the Palestinians. [32]Israel has made life for the Palestinian people untenable. Israel's leaders are arrogant and full of sinful pride, unwilling to treat their Palestinian neighbours as human beings. Israel treats their neighbours worse than dogs. Shame on the American government and media for only supporting Israel, having zero regard for the Palestinian people who just want to coexist in harmony with Israel today.

Increasingly, [33]the world is becoming disgusted with Israel's hatred and tyranny toward the struggling Palestinian people. If Israel doesn't humble herself to allow the Palestinian people to coexist, war is inevitable. The struggle between Israel and the Arab Muslims is over who owns what and how it is controlled. They are all fighting over the same plot of land. Jews today have no right to claim land that God stripped away from them in 586 BC. The fighting will never cease, because wicked men are attempting to force the hand of God, just as did Abraham and Sarah when they conspired to impregnate Hagar. God has promised to restore true Israel at the Second Coming of Jesus Christ, and not until that time.

4.10.6 Repent Of Your Sins And Thou Shalt Stay LOST (2023-10-09 09:54)

Jonah 3:10, "And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not."

One of the biggest false teachings today is the lie that to be saved you must "repent of your sins." What they mean is that you must forsake a lifestyle of sinning. They errantly think you are required by God to make an effort to stop sinning. They erroneously call this repentance, but this is not Bible repentance. What hypocrites! None of them have ever turned from their sinning. Even the best Christian still chooses to sin (Romans 7:14-25). What they are teaching is in fact reformation (a change of behavior). They are teaching penitence (sorrow for sins). They are teaching penance (making a mend for one's sins).

Repenting of your sins is actually keeping you from coming to Christ to be saved.

In Matthew 27:3b we read that "Judas repented himself." The Greek word used here is "metamellomai" which means "to care afterwards, i.e., regret." This is penitence, not true Bible repentance for salvation. This is a VERY different word than the word "repent" concerning salvation used in Mark 1:15, "metanoeo," which means, "to think differently." In every case of a Scripture passage teaching about salvation, either the Greek noun "

(a change of mind is used, or the Greek verb “metanoeo” *to think differently). Turning from your sins is NOT accepting God’s free gift of eternal life, it is trying to pitch in and do your part to help Christ save you. The only ones going to Heaven are the EASY-BELIEVISM people.

Beware Of The Devil’s Modern Corrupt Bibles

Turning from your sins is self-righteousness. You cannot show me anywhere in the inspired King James Bible where is teaches to repent “of your sins.” Wicked men ADDED those words. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 30:5-6, “

Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

” See for yourself how corrupt today’s Bible revisions really are...

Beware Of The Devil's Corrupt Bible Revisions!

All of the ignorant preachers and laymen today who are saying that you must "turn from your sin" to get to Heaven are woefully deceived. They are teaching a different meaning of repentance than the inspired King James Bible teaches. By the way, please avoid ALL modern Bible revisions, because Satan has corrupted them.

Here's are some examples how the modern Bible versions corrupt God's intended meaning of repentance...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel." [emphasis added]
> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — Mark 1:15, "He said, "The right time is now here. God's kingdom is very near. Change your hearts and lives, and believe the Good News!" [emphasis added]

NEW LIFE VERSION (NLV) - Mark 1:15, “He said, ’The time has come. The holy nation of God is near. Be sorry for your sins, turn from them, and believe the Good News.”’ [emphasis added]

GOOD NEWS TRANSLATION (GNT) - Mark 1:15, “The right time has come,” he said, “and the Kingdom of God is near! Turn away from your sins and believe the Good News!” [emphasis added] saying, ’Now is the time! Here comes God’s kingdom! Change your hearts and lives, and trust this good news!’

COMMON ENGLISH BIBLE (CEB) - Mark 1:15, “

LIVING BIBLE (TLB) - Mark 1:15, “At last the time has come!” he announced. “God’s Kingdom is near! Turn from your sins and act on this glorious news!”

[emphasis added]

As I have just showed you, what the modern Bible versions are teaching is DRASTICALLY DIFFERENT than what the inspired King James Bible reads. Either repentance means “to turn away from sins” or it means “to change your mind,” but it cannot mean both. In the Word of God, the word for “repent” is [4]metanoia, which only means “a change of mind.” We don’t know what to change our mind about, because the word itself doesn’t tell us. It is an open-ended all-inclusive term, which requires supplemental information. God did this deliberately, so that repentance would include anything and everything which hinders a person from believing the Gospel. Hence, to “repent” means to think differently about whatever it is that has been hindering you from BELIEVING THE GOSPEL to be saved. Giving up your lifestyle of sinning would be WORKS! We’re not saved by anything we do, or don’t do; we are saved by BELIEVING ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31).

Here are some important contrasts between the Biblical Gospel verses demonic Lordship Salvation...

1st Corinthians 1:21, "For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." Please notice that the Bible doesn't say God "saves them that repent"; no, it says, "TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE"! But don't you have to repent to be saved? Yes, but repentance is automatic. No one has ever believed the Gospel who didn't simultaneously turn away from unbelief. You obviously have to turn FROM something in order to turn TO something, but we are not saved by turning from anything, we are saved by BELIEVING on the name of Jesus. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

This is why we find the words "believe," "believest" and "believeth" mentioned 87 times in the Gospel of John, which is God's Gospel tract according to John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." Not once, NOT ONCE, is any mention made of "repentance" in the Gospel of John. The word "repent" is not mentioned even once! That is because repentance is an automatic thing. That is, the person who believes has also repented. No one can place their trust in the Gospel without first turning away from whatever was hindering them from believing the Gospel in the first place. Therefore, it is not necessary to mention repentance when sharing the Gospel with someone.

As I have warned you before from the holy Scriptures, so warn I you again (all you independent Baptist pastors, non-denominational, et cetera), "beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked" (2nd Peter 3:17). Sadly, I have found that often church congregations control the pastor. They hire a slackdog ecumenical pastor from the get-go, expecting apostasy from the very beginning, and that's what they get!!! America was much better off spiritually when being a pastor meant having "a call" instead of being a mere "profession." Today church pastors are shameful, despising and standing afar off from truth-tellers like me, who actually care about doctrinal integrity, care about the purity of the Word of God, and care about the accuracy of the Gospel. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

Turning from your sins is not accepting God's free gift of eternal life. You are in fact trusting to some extent in yourself, by saying "I have repented of all MY sins." This is a wicked heretical doctrine of devils which has crept into most Baptist churches today, damning those who embrace this false doctrine.

They need to repent of their "repent of your sins" heresy to be saved.

Here is the best quote that I've found on repentance, by Dr. Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951):

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.'

> So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ([5]Except Ye Repent, p. 16)

Wow! Now dear reader do you understand why I preach so often against the Devil's modern Bible PERversions? Nobody goes to Heaven because he repented of his sins. The only people who goes to Heaven are those who trust in Jesus Christ alone, and they put all their faith in what He did. Jesus died on the cross for our sins. He was buried. Three days later He miraculously resurrected from the dead. They need to repent of their false repentance to be saved.

> "Religious people go to Hell; Saved people go to Heaven. Don't ever blame religion on God. He didn't come up with it, Satan did. Religion is of the Devil; Salvation is of the Lord." —[6]Pastor Al Lacy (a quote from the sermon titled: "[7]No Unbelievers In Hell"

Repenting of your sins is actually keeping you from coming to Christ to be saved.

Good works are not the payment for sin, the payment for sin is death.

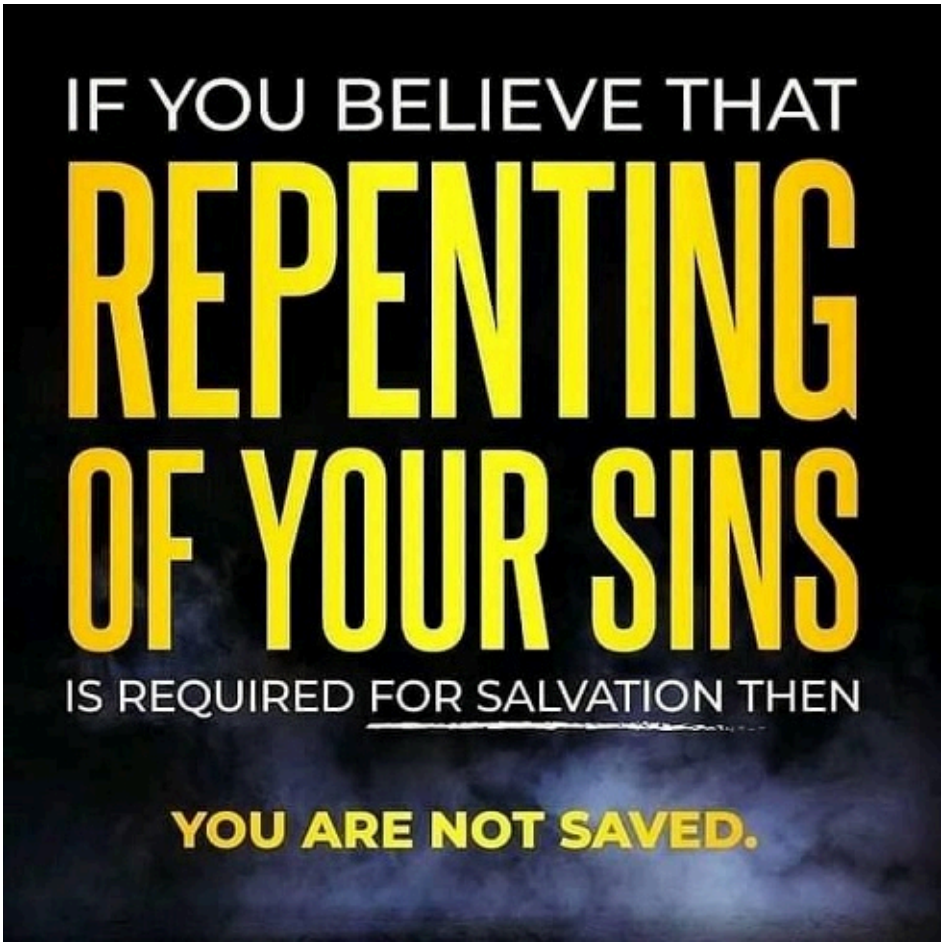
Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.



The Gospel is not "turn from your sin and wicked way," and then SECOND, trust Jesus Christ. The Gospel is the 'GOOD NEWS' that Jesus is the Christ who died on a cross to pay for our sins. He was buried. Three days later Jesus physically resurrected from the dead. These three things are 'THE GOSPEL.' Jesus' death, burial and resurrection comprise the Gospel. Whosoever BELIEVES IT is saved. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." When you hear the Gospel (Good News) preached, and you put your faith (confidence, trust) in it, you are saved. That is why the Apostle Paul wrote in Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or *by the hearing of faith?" I love that last phrase... BY THE HEARING OF FAITH.

In Acts 2:41b, the Bible says that 3,000 people "gladly received his word" and were saved. That is, while the Apostle Peter was preaching the 'GOOD NEWS' of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen for their sins, the people BELIEVED IT and were saved. Getting saved is that easy and simple! To get to Heaven dear friend, you just need to BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for you. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Remember, Judas repented of his sins and still went to Hell. Judas had a devil in him (John 6:70). Jesus said that it would have been better for Judas if he had never been born (Matthew 26:24).

Dear reader, if you don't think turn from your sins is a WORK, you are woefully mistaken. Jesus was asked by some people what WORK they needed to do to please God. John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." The only "WORK" which God requires or allows to enter into the Kingdom of God is to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. Thank you for reading.

4.10.7 Serving Jesus Christ With All Our Heart, Mind And Soul (2023-10-10 18:02)

Luke 9:58-62, "And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

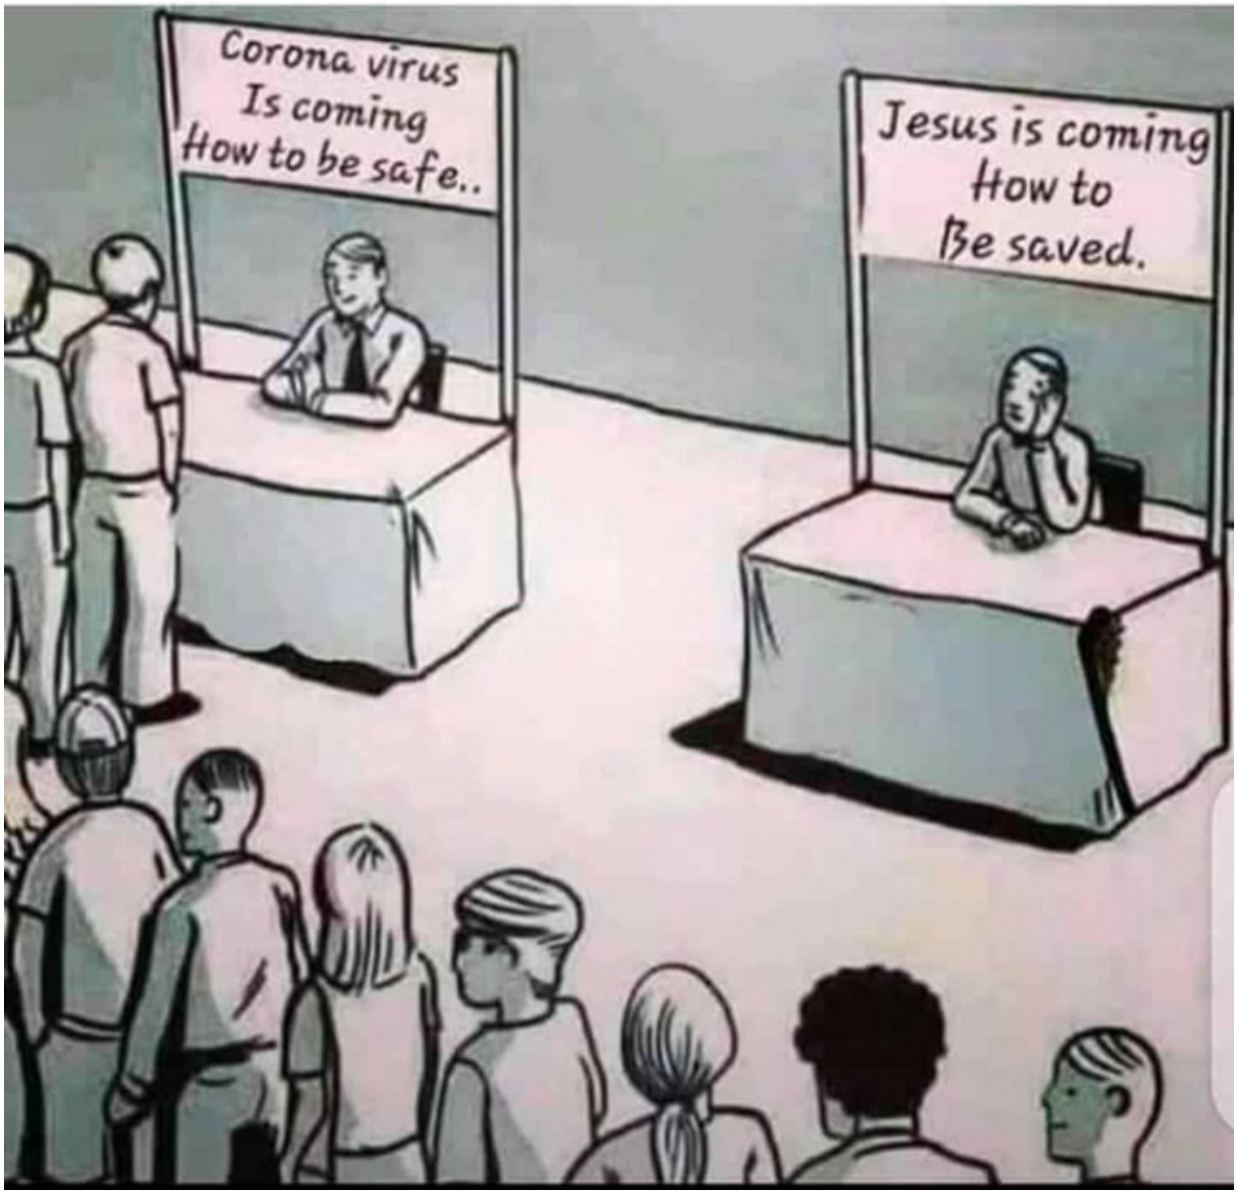
I just checked Halley's Bible Handbook on page 506 for Luke 9:62, which reads:

> Jesus means that the things of God are of infinitely greater importance, and in case of conflict there should not be a moment's hesitation. God first always. —Halley's Bible Handbook, p. 506; commentary for Luke 9:58-62

In this passage we know that Jesus is speaking about DISCIPLESHIP, not SONSHIP. That is, Jesus is speaking about Christian SERVICE, not SALVATION. As my regular blog readers know, my favorite preacher quote is by Pilgrim's Progress book author, John Bunyan:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

As Brother Bunyan so eloquently said, it is imperative that we always keep SANCTIFICATION (which involves a believer's works for Christ), completely separate from JUSTIFICATION (which is a believer's faith In Christ). One thing has nothing to do with the other. Becoming a Christian happens in a moment of time when we trust Christ, but becoming Christlike takes a lifetime of growing in God's grace.



The Bible likens preachers and Christian leaders to military soldiers in the Lord's army...

> 2nd Timothy 2:1-10, "Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also. Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier. And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully. The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits. Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things. Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel: Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound. Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory."

Sadly, most church today have become fun centers, where worldly entertainment must be used to get carnal people to come to church. But again, Jesus in this passage from Luke 9:58-62 is not speaking about salvation; but rather, discipleship. To prevent corrupting the Gospel, we must always keep living the Christian life entirely separate from the new birth. It is unfortunate that so few pastors today have the courage, training and concern to mentor their converts in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Today's churches are pathetic!

Jesus doesn't want to be first place in your life, because then He isn't part of everything you do. The Lord wants to be the center of our life, a part of all that we say, plan and do. I speak to believers, not lost sinners. If you have never been born-again, you can live the Christian life and still die in your sins and go to Hell forever. [1]YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN!!! (John 3:3-7)

4.10.8 If Pensacola Christian College Were Right With God (2023-10-10 18:06)

John 15:11-20, “ These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you*.

Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

These things I command you, that ye love one another*.

If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.”

I love everybody at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and their Campus Church. God knows my heart that I speak the truth. Unfortunately, they don’t reciprocate that love at all. I have often said that PCC is a religious cult and I stand firmly by that truthful claim.

When I moved from the island of Guam to Pensacola, Florida in July of 2021, I decided to attend PCC’s Campus Church. It is a large church with over 10,000 members. Sadly, their ungodly pastors are respecters of persons, selectively choosing who matters, who can attend Campus Church and who cannot. Their senior Campus Church pastor, Jeff Redlin, emailed me on August 2, 2022 to inform me that I am permanently banned from attending their Campus Church. We have been enemies since that day. I say that to their utter shame at PCC. We expect to see ugliness in lost sinners, but that ought not be the poor testimony of professed Christians and church pastors. Sadly, PCC’s leaders and pastors are arrogant, having huge sinful egos.

No pastor is right with God, nor does he have the great heart of God, who selectively decides who matters and who doesn’t. A true man of God loves everyone, not just whom he prefers. In God’s economy ALL LIVES MATTER. I was created by God in His very image, yet I am not welcome to attend a so-called New Testament “church.” SHAME on the PCC camp. SHAME on their immature pastors who mistreat hurting people. Only a manmade cult selectively cares about people. A genuine man of God loves everybody, and he welcomes everybody to attend church.

Kindly said, Pastor Jeff Redlin is sadly a little man who is holding a sinful grudge against me, for which God will judge him (Romans 14:10-12; Matthew 7:1-5; Galatians 6:7). The ball is in their court alone at PCC. They are the ones who refuse to reconcile. I have tried multiple times already in 2022 to humbly make peace with PCC, but they hate me as heathens do.

If Pensacola Christian College's leaders and pastors were right with God, Pastor Jeff Redlin would have replied to my humble apology in June of 2022 something like this:

(and request to come back to church)

> "Thank you Brother Stewart for your email. We appreciate your apology. Although we are a bit grieved about your critique of us and our ministry, we still sincerely love you as our Brother in Christ. We kindly ask and hope that you will remove your criticism of us from social media, but even if you don't, you are still very welcome to attend our Campus Church. Our Campus Church is not a private club for only certain members of the Body of Christ, but for every child of God (as every New Testament church should be). Please accept our apologies for disappointing your expectations while attending Campus Church. We are at best flawed sinners, trying to serve God the best we can by His grace, and we trust that you will understand. We hope to see you soon. God bless.

Now that would have broke my heart, to see that they love me despite criticizing them. But instead Pastor Redlin cold-heartedly replied by telling me that, "Your remarks were consequential," and that I couldn't return to church. Those were his exact words that he typed. What Redlin doesn't realize is that his words are also consequential, not only in this lifetime, but on Judgment Day when he answers to God for setting at nought his Christian brother.

> Romans 14:10-12, "But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God."

PCC is judging and condemning me, setting me at nought, even after I apologized multiple times to them, and I humbly offered to do whatever they require to make peace with them. Sadly, PCC's leaders are self-righteous hypocrites, respecters of persons, immature spiritual babies. There is nothing that I can do except warn people about PCC's ungodly leaders.

Dear reader, the Bible teaches that we ought to have a forgiving heart, a compassionate heart and a tender heart. Ephesians 4:30-32, "And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you." In the darkness of their gossiping office and cell phones, the wicked pastors of Campus Church have spoken evil of me. Jeff Redlin admitted to me that one of my enemies had contacted him, to give him an earful of slander. Those ungodly pastors ought not be listening to the wicked pastors who I have exposed for polluting the Gospel.

Sean Quinlan (the former incompetent PCC intern pastor of the Light House Baptist Church on Guam), shamefully scolded me in front of his church members, for saying to a fellow church member (who was a friend of mine):

"[1]Bob Jones University sells corrupting seed." That single truthful statement made Sean Quinlan angry! I kindly told Pastor Quinlan in front of his church members that Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is a cesspool of Bob Jones University (BJU) graduates, and that they preach the damnable heresy of Calvinism at Harvest. That shameful rascal, Sean Quinlan, shamefully replied: "Harvest is our sister church!" Oh my God!!!

I shouted: "SHAME ON YOU!" as I went to my car and drove away never to return. Dear reader, this is exactly why America has gone to hell today! We've got a bunch of sinfully compromised, cowardly, indifferent, wicked, Caspar Milquetoast (wimpy), shameful pastors today who refuse to stand for THE TRUTH. They refuse to get their hands dirty by fighting sin and exposing doctrinal error in the churches. They don't want to suffer reproach for the name of Christ. They don't want to be put outside the gate with Jesus! One of my favorite MP3 sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) is titled: '[2]OUTSIDE THE GATE WITH JESUS.'

Those wicked incompetent pastors at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam just want to make money. They hide their Statement of Faith online because they are straddling the fence between two different plans of salvation (or should I say, slavation). If you take a look at the plan of salvation taught by [3]Dr. Curtis Hutson, it is night and day difference from the plan of salvation taught by [4]Dr. John MacArthur. Galatians 1:6-7 makes it abundantly clear that there is only ONE GOSPEL (cf. 1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

For faithfully exposing the [5]damnable Lordship Salvation heresy which is being taught at BJU and Harvest Baptist Church today (I know because I attended there for one year), PCC is wickedly casting me out, banning me and holding a grudge against me. PCC has much blood on their hands for bidding Godspeed to false prophets (2nd John 1:11). I was also forced out and banned from returning to the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam by Pastor Marty Herron. His ungodly successor, Gary Walton, also refused to let me attend Harvest.

I never should have tried to go back, but at the time I was very lonely, recovering from a divorce that I didn't want in 2006. My life was upside down like the Poseidon ship in the movie. When I desperately needed Harvest's love, compassion and help the most, they wickedly threw me under the bus and killed me. Senior pastor, Maty Herron, walks around with a big phony Cheshire Cat smile on his face, but that wicked man is a devil who has destroyed thousands of lives with his Satanic heresy of Lordship Salvation.

With my own two ears, sitting in church one Sunday morning at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014, I heard Pastor Herron say, and I quote: "It is not enough to admit you are a sinner, you must forsake a lifestyle of sinning to get to Heaven." Liar, liar pants on fire! That is another Gospel, which cannot produce the new birth. The Bob Jones crowd are doctrinally corrupt, influenced by Calvinists like Steve Pettit. In December of 2022, BJU wickedly invited Calvinist, Paul Washer, to preach to their thousands of students. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

4.10.9 Dennis Corle's "REVIVAL FIRES" Get Repentance Wrong (2023-10-11 10:17)

2nd Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will."

At their website with the heading: "

REVIVAL FIRES: FUNDAMENTALISM'S POSITIVE VOICE,

Dr. Dennis Corle makes the following statements:

> God does expect us to obey Him after we become His children, and the very first command that He gives is found in Acts 2:38. "...Repent, and be baptized every one of you..." Repentance takes place within, when I turn away from sin and self and turn to Christ as my Saviour. [emphasis added] —SOURCE: Revival Fires, '[1]Eternity'

Where does the Bible teach that repentance takes place "when I turn away from sin and self"? Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." Well meaning and sincere clergy have ADDED words to the inspired King James Bible which God never put in there. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

It is sadly a trifle matter to thousands of preachers today to change God's simple plan of salvation. Telling a lost sinner that God requires them to "turn away from sin and self" to be saved is WORKS! Argue as many will, requiring someone to TURN AWAY FROM SIN AND SELF places a heavy burden and obligation upon a sinner to DO SOMETHING in order for them to receive God's free gift of eternal life.

> "More people will die and burn in Hell, because they're trusting too much!"—Pastor Jack Hyles, "[2]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"

> "Everything that's hard and complicated about salvation is God's side of it!"—Pastor Jack Hyles, "[3]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"

You cannot show me in the Gospel of John where it reads,

"turn away from sin and self" to be saved. Shame on Revival Fires for corrupting the Gospel. The Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract according to John 20:21,

But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

" We keep hearing infidel fools like Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, John MacArthur and other proponents of the Lordship Salvation heresy citing Scripture passages from Matthew, Mark, and Luke (to bolster up their Strawman heresy of Lordship Salvation); but God authored the Gospel of John to convince us that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, so that by BELIEVING we would be saved.

- The Gospel of Matthew was written to convince us that Jesus is a King.
- The Gospel of Mark was written to convince us that Jesus is a Servant.
- The Gospel of Luke was written to convince us that Jesus is a Man.
- The Gospel of John was written to convince us that Jesus is the Christ.

So any time you hear a corrupt preacher citing passages from other books of the Bible to support their damnable heresy, just go read or listen to the Gospel of John to clarify God's simple plan of salvation. In John chapters 19 and 20 we read about Jesus' crucifixtion, His burial and bodily resurrection. That is the Gospel. Jesus died on a cross in your place and mine, to pay our debt of sin. Nicodemus and Joseph of Arimathea buried Jesus' body in a tomb. Three days later by a miracle of God, Jesus physically resurrected from the dead. Amen. If you acknowledge THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner and turn to Jesus Christ by faith, that is REPENTANCE.

Some of the best help in understanding repentance comes from Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951). Please consider the following eloquent quotations:

Dr. Harry Ironside On Repentance

"Repentance is the sinner's recognition of and acknowledgment of his lost estate." ('Except Ye Repent,' p. 11)

"No one was ever saved in any dispensation excepting by grace. Neither sacrificial observances, nor ritual service, nor works of law ever had any part in justifying the ungodly. Nor were any sinners ever saved by grace until they repented. Repentance is not opposed to grace; it is the recognition of the need of grace. 'They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.'" ('Except Ye Repent,' p. 10)

"There is no saving merit in owning my true condition. There is no healing in acknowledging the nature of my illness. And repentance, as we have seen, is just this very thing." ('Except Ye Repent,' p. 12)

"Need I add that repentance then is not to be considered synonymous with joining a church or taking up one's religious duties, as people say. It is not doing anything." ('Except Ye Repent,' p. 14)

I think the following quote From Dr. Ironside is one of the best I've found on repentance:

"Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." (Except Ye Repent, p. 16)

QUESTION 67: I understand that you teach that repentance is a prerequisite to salvation, that is, that a man has to show a certain amount of sorrow for sin before God will cooperate with him and save him. Is this your position?

ANSWER: It certainly is not. In the first place, repentance is not mere penitence or sorrow for sin. Repentance is simply a man's recognition of his own true condition before God. No man would desire to come to the Saviour unless he realized his need of a Saviour. The realization of this need and the acknowledgment of it is, in the truest sense, the work of repentance. Thus men repent and through believing the Gospel are eternally saved. We who are saved, however, have done more repenting since we were converted than we did before.

QUESTION 166:

Is repentance the first or the second step in salvation?

ANSWER:

Repentance is not a "step" at all, yet there is no salvation without repentance. But repentance is a changed attitude on the part of man. This is what takes place when he believes the Word of Truth as to his lost condition and need of a Saviour. Thus faith and repentance are indissolubly linked together. [Harry A. Ironside, ' What's the Answer? 362 Bible Questions Answered,' pp. 36, 76]

* * * * * * *

You confess you are a sinner, unable to save yourself, and you are willing to be saved in God's way. This is repentance. And remember, it is not the amount of repentance that counts: it is the fact that you turn from unbelief to God that puts you in the place where His grace avails through believing the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

> "Strictly speaking, not one of us has ever repented enough. None of us has realized the enormity of our guilt as God sees it. But when we judge ourselves and trust the Saviour whom He has provided, we are saved through His merits. As recipients of His lovingkindness, repentance will be deepened and will continue day by day, as we learn more and more of His infinite worth and our own unworthiness." SOURCE: From

> by Harry A. Ironside, pages 89-90

The following statement is from Dr. Ironside's commentary on Luke: "Repentance is just the sick man's acknowledgment of his illness. It is simply the sinner recognizing his guilt and confessing his need of deliverance" (Luke, p. 253).

Thus, to Dr. Harry Ironside (1976-1951) repentance is simply the sick man acknowledging his illness; the sinner recognizing his need. It is a man realizing his utter bankruptcy before God, judging himself as a Hell-deserving, lost, corrupt sinner before God. A person cannot be saved apart from acknowledgment of his sinful lost condition before God. I agree with Dr. Ironside.

[4]What Is Bible Repentance?

Simply come to God as a guilty sinner, and receive Jesus' sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that after He was buried for three days, Jesus miraculously resurrected bodily from the dead. Jesus conquered sin and the grave for you and me dear reader. That is what the Apostle Paul means in 1st Corinthians 15:55-57, " O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. " Just like a bee that stings its victim, but then dies so it can never sting anyone again, Jesus removed the sting from death for those who trust in Him. For the born-again child of God, we need have no fear whatsoever of dying, because Jesus took the sting out of death, by His precious blood which He shed on the cross, and sprinkled upon the heavenly Mercy Seat (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24). Simply BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS, Oh sinner, and you will be saved immediately and forever. It is that simple to go to Heaven, when your body can no longer house your soul and spirit.

Pastor Harry Ironside taught a free grace view of the Gospel. Consider further the following awesome quote by Dr. Ironside:

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past …
>
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all."
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: [5]What Is The Gospel?

Sadly, Moody Church and their Moody Bible Institute today are doctrinally corrupt, teaching the fallacies of Calvinism instead of the Gospel of free grace. That is why Moody Ministries today support, honor and publish the heretical books of infidel John MacArthur.

Dear friend, the Revival Fires ministry are dropping the ball for God, by teaching a woeful misunderstanding about what it means to repent to be saved. Kindly said, Dr. Dennis Corle is very wrong that repentance means to,

"turn away from sin and self." That is a despicable form of Lordship Salvation, adding to the Gospel, by requiring sinners to do more than simply put one's childlike faith in the 'GOOD NEWS' (GOSPEL) of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Dr. John R. Rice was a godly man, whom I respect and admire for his faithfulness to the Lord. However, Dr. Rice did a woeful injustice to the Christian world by using such unbiblical phrases as "repent of your sins with all your heart" and "turn from your sin" to be saved. I would have exposed John R. Rice as an unsaved heretic if it weren't for his clarifying of exactly what he meant by "turn from your sin" to be saved.

Anyone who represents Dr. Rice as teaching that you have to turn from sins, as a separate act from believing, is slandering him! Please read what Dr. Rice actually believed and taught:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God "now commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ*. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.
> Everyone who genuinely repented under the preaching of John the Baptist put his trust in the Saviour John the Baptist preached, and was regenerated. There is no such thing as being "a disciple of John the Baptist" in any honest sense without being a disciple of Jesus, that is, without trusting Christ for salvation. [emphasis added]
>

Oh dear friend, that is so beautiful. Please don't miss it! The only change of mind concerning sin that you need to have to be saved, is to ADMIT that you are one. Romans 3:19-20, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." To be saved, you just need to realize that you are a GUILTY SINNER, so that you will know what you are being saved from. As guilty sinners we all deserve to be punished by God's wrath in a burning Hell forever and ever (Revelation 20:12-15).

Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible are we ever told to "turn away from sin and self" to be saved. Rather, we read in 2nd Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will." Repentance is acknowledging THE TRUTH that you are a dirty sinner and that Jesus is the blessed Savior. Repentance is not turning away from your sin; but rather, your unbelief. Repentance is turning to Christ in faith to be saved, not turning away from your evil way, which according to Jonah 3:10 would be WORKS, **"

And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

Listen, Jesus Christ came into the world to die on a cross to pay your sin debt and mine, He doesn't demand that we first reform (nor commit to reform) to change our behavior as a pre-requisite to saving faith. That would be WORKS! Romans 4:5-7, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered." Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

By sloppy preachers (like Revival Fires) foolishly using phrases like,

"turn away from sin and self" to be saved, it utterly confuses people. What does that even mean,

"turn away from sin and self," to be saved? Do they mean to literally forsake your sinful bad habits? Do they mean that you must stop being so selfish in your dealings with others? We simply don't know, because the terminology that they use is so vague. Do they mean what John R. Rice meant, that the way you turn from sin is to believe on Christ? Do they mean that repentance is an extra step to be saved, or part of just believing? The burden of trying to figure out what Revival Fires meant is a serious problem. This is another reason why I absolutely hate phrases like

"repent of your sins" or

"turn from your sin" to be saved, because they are very ambiguous terms that leave much room for wild speculation. We simply don't know what preachers and laymen mean, when they use such unbiblical lingo.

Dear reader, a Gospel presentation ought never be so confusing that a lost sinner feels burdened, not knowing what to do to be saved. When the Philippian jailer in Rome asked Paul and Silas in prison, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" in Acts 16:30, their simply answer in verse 31b was to, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved..." They didn't tell the man to " turn from his sins and self.

" In fact, I cannot find even one passage of Scripture in the King James Bible, where anyone was told to "turn from their sin" to be saved. Ungodly clergy have wrested the Holy Bible to fit their whims and agendas, perverted the Gospel. Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. Thank you for reading.

4.10.10 Didn’t Jesus Tell The Woman Caught In The Act Of Adultery To Turn From Her Sins? (2023-10-12 09:38)

Jesus went unto the mount of Olives.

And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

I don’t see any reference in this Scripture passages about woman caught in the act of adultery, or the man who was afflicted for 38 years which we will address next, that they were saved during their interactions with Jesus. The issue was that the woman had been caught "in the very act" of committing adultery. Interestingly, the Pharisees didn’t bring the man, who was also caught in the act. I think that is what Jesus pointed out to them when He wrote something on the ground with His finger. But we don’t know what He wrote. We can only speculate. But the fact of the matter is that they failed to drag the guilty man to Jesus. What hypocrites!

Turning from one’s sinful behavior is not required to be saved. Repentance is necessary for salvation, but Bible repentance simply means "to think differently." What must we think differently about? The Bible mentions "repentance toward God" in Acts 20:21. The Bible mentions "repentance to the acknowledging of the truth" in 2nd Timothy 2:25. Hebrews 6:1 mentions "repentance from dead works." But nowhere does the inspired King James Bible mention "repent of your sins." Christ came into the world to die in our place on Calvary’s cross, to pay down our debt of sin; but He does not require that we first commit to reform our life of sin.

A proponent of the heresy of Lordship Salvation challenged my theology this week on Facebook. He asked, "Would God put His Holy Spirit in a filthy vessel?" He was alleging that God will not save a person who lives an unholy life; that God will not indwell a person who is unwilling to try to stop sinning. Sadly, it just shows that he has never been saved, and he is sinfully leaning upon his own understanding instead of trusting God’s inspired Word. I replied to him that,

"Yes, God will indwell a filthy vessel. We are all filthy. Even the best Christian is still a filthy vessel, except that we have been made righteous in God's sight by FAITH in the precious blood of Jesus that cleanseth all our sins away."

The guy kept arguing and trying to convert me over to his Lordship Salvation garbage, so I unfriended him. I don't waste my time arguing with fools. I am trying to feed Jesus' sheep. I don't mind having atheists for friends, if they want to learn and respect the truth, but I don't give space to false teachers to promote their damnable heresy. The Apostle Paul in Galatians 2:5 said that he refused to listen to a false teacher for even one hour, to protect the simplicity of the Gospel. Galatians 2:4-5, "And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you."

The Bible definitely teaches that believers should depart from iniquity. I like what Brother Lester Roloff said: "God saved you so that you wouldn't live like that anymore." But even the best saint still chooses to sin at times (Romans 7:14-25). When we do choose to sin, God's saving grace abounds, so that we can never again be in danger of going to Hell (Romans 5:20, 6:1; John 3:18). Believers call "in grace," but never "from grace." Only the unsaved person who is attempting to get to Heaven by WORKS has fallen from grace (Galatians 5:4). It is IMPOSSIBLE for a redeemed child of God to fall from God's saving grace, no matter how deep into sin we may choose to go. We are saved by Jesus' goodness, and not our own. Isaiah 64:6 teaches that even our best righteousness is total filthy to God. Even committing one sin alienates us from God (James 2:10).

Jesus Tells Man Afflicted With Disease For 38 Years To Sin No More

John 5:1-14, "After this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches. In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water. For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had. And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years. When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole? The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me. Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk. And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath. The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed. He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk. Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk? And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place. Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee."

Jesus told the man whom he healed (who had been physically crippled by an affliction for 38 years), that he must go and sin no more lest a worse thing happen to him. It is my humble opinion that the man may have suffered from STD's because of fornicating, which ruined his health. It is apparent to me that whatever affliction he had, it was caused by committing a particular sin. That is speculation of course. We don't know what caused his situation, but the fact that Jesus told him not to continue sinning, to me suggests that the man had caused his own dilemma. In general biblical terms, all bodily affliction is caused because we are inherently sinful by nature and by choice. The wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23).

Jesus also exhorted the woman in John chapter 8 to " Go, and sin no more. "

Obviously this didn't mean she would be perfect. It just meant that she should avoid the same situation that she had created for herself by committing adultery, likely prostitution. Some Bible students claim that this was Mary Magdalene, but we don't know. We do know that Jesus cast the demons out of Mary Magdalene and she became one of His most loyal followers. I am not saying that these people who were healed by Jesus didn't get saved, but there is nothing in either passage that says they BELIEVED ON HIM.

The Bible does teach that believer should turn away from sinful ways, because we are saved. 2nd Timothy 2:19, "Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity." It is important to make these distinctions:

- Roman Catholics errantly teach to be saved a person MUST do good works.
- Calvinists errantly teach that a saved person WILL do good works.
- The Holy Bible teaches that a saved person SHOULD do good works.

That is the issue, adding works to faith to be saved, which is heresy.

My favorite preacher quote is by Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

What a great quote! John Bunyan understood that the new birth is by faith alone without works, and that living the Christian life (which includes continually turning away from our sins) was a completely separate matter of discipleship, not sonship. The former matter is salvation (Ephesians 2:8-9), and the latter service (Romans 12:1). So, in my humble opinion Jesus told the woman taken in adultery, and the man who had been bodily afflicted for 38 years, to turn from their sins as a matter of self preservation, not to be saved.

As an Old Testament example, when the Ninevites responded to Jonah's preaching, they turned from their evil ways and God spared judgment upon their nation. Jonah 3:10, "And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not." Notice that God saw their WORKS, that they turned from their evil ways. Turning from one's sinful ways is WORKS. Also, please notice that "God repented of the evil." That is, God changed His mind about bring destruction upon the Assyrians. Here we see that repentance doesn't mean turning from one's sins in the Bible, because God cannot sin and God Himself repented. We also see that God saw their WORKS, that they turned from their evil way. Turning from sin is WORKS!!!

The main reason why churches are filled with so much sin today is because pastors no longer want to preach against sin as they ought. Most churches today are nothing more than entertainment fun centers. Most churches today are pathetic. Pastors need to preach against sin, all sin. Today's woeful lack of pulpit preaching has consequently caused churches to stop warning lost sinners about coming imminent Hell, fire and judgment.

Without Bible preaching against sin, there won't be Holy Spirit conviction and souls saved. The Gospel (Good News) is worthless without the Bad News (the truth that we are all guilty sinner deserving of death and burning in a literal Lake of Fire forever). Ungodly pastors like Joel Osteen are afraid to tell people the truth that they are all rotten, dirty, guilty, sinners. Today's dead pulpit sermons are so drastically foreign to true Bible preaching. Jesus told the woman taken in adultery, and the man who was afflicted for 38 years, not to sin anymore.

To clarify what I am trying to get across to you dear friend, we should all turn away from our sinful ways as God's children, but we must never combine and confuse living the Christian life with God's free gift of salvation. One thing has nothing to do with the other. I like how Pastor M.R. DeHaan explains it:

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, "Hebrews"; Zondervan Publishing House; 1959 (p. 117)

Dear reader, God authored the entire Gospel of John to show us how to get to Heaven, which is by faith alone in Jesus Christ, trusting Him because of what He did through Calvary's cross to pay our debt of sin, and believing that He resurrected bodily from the dead the third day. If either the woman in John chapter 8 or the man in John chapter 5 had been saved, then the Bible would have told us so, but it doesn't.

We must never confuse the believer's sanctification (which should result in living a changed life), versus justification that saves a lost sinner by faith alone. You don't have to turn from your sinful behavior to receive God's free gift of eternal life. The misnomer that you could ever even "turn from your sins" is impossible. No one has ever turned from your sins! You may have rid your life of the worst sins, but I don't care how good of a Christian you may think you are today, you are still a dirty sinner!!! All we can do, at best, is to try to live above reproach with God's help (Galatians 2:20). Thank you for reading.

Exodus 20:13, “Thou shalt not kill.”

Taxpayer-funded National Public Radio (NPR) enthusiastically advocates for abortion on a regular basis. A few months ago, their show Morning Edition even aired audio of an abortion taking place as clinic workers cheered it on. It is WICKEDNESS!!!

On Wednesday, their morning “news” show turned to Memphis-based WKNO reporter, Christopher Blank, who [1]promotes billboards encouraging women driving up and down Interstate 55 between Tennessee and Carbondale, Illinois to have abortions. ...

Abortion is cold-blooded murder in God's sight (Exodus 20:13). Shame on the ungodly fools at NPR. 4.10.12 There Is No Bible Preservation Without Inspiration (2023-10-13 09:31)

Lamentations 1:12, "Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by?"

John 6:63, "It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life."

I am sick and tired of hearing today's apostate Bible colleges (which are training thousands of apostate church pastors) advertise a "preserved" King James Bible that is not "inspired"! It is woeful apostasy! In our text Bible verse, Jesus said that the Words He spoke are "SPIRIT" and "THEY ARE LIFE." That is the difference between the words of a mortal man, versus the inspired Words of almighty God! [1]It is a very big deal! It is a big deal to inspiration-deniers too, which is why they are so adamant to defend their wrong position. To save face and be loyal to their peers in the business of religion, today's ungodly Bible colleges and apostate churches are claiming that God only inspired the "original manuscripts" and then He "supernaturally preserved" those words. That is exactly what Bob Jones University believes and teaches their students...

> "We believe in the verbal, plenary inspiration of the Bible in the original manuscripts, and we believe that God has supernaturally preserved every one of His inspired words for us today. However, from the founder to the present administration, we have never taken the position that there can be only one good translation in the English language." [emphasis added]
> [2]http://www.bju.edu/about/what-we-believe/translation.php

That is an impossible statement! Bob Jones University (BJU) [3]sells multiple different Bible versions in their campus bookstore. BJU has a big problem doctrinally, because there are [4]literally HUNDREDS of English Bible versions, and they differ in content [5]DRASTICALLY!!! How can BJU claim to believe that God has "SUPERNATURALLY PRESERVED EVERY ONE OF HIS INSPIRED WORDS IN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE," while at the same time tolerating conflicting English Bible versions that [6]completely contradict each other in words and meaning??? It is utter apostasy! If, as Bob Jones College asserts, God has "supernaturally preserved" His inspired words in multiple modern Bible revisions, then WHICH ONES? Bob Jones makes a bold statement, but then doesn't back it up. You cannot just claim to believe there are more Bibles than the King James Bible, but refuse to specify which ones.

Although I don't agree with Pastor Peter Ruckman on several doctrinal issues (such as his view of [7]Old Testament salvation by works), his work exposing the modern Bible versions is impeccable...

[8] The Alexandrian Cult Series

(awesome .PDF book by Dr. Peter S. Ruckman)

Does BJU think the [9]Alexandrian texts are also preserved by God? Yes, that is exactly what they are saying, and they are pulling on the same rope as the Devil by doing so. How can God's Words be "supernaturally preserved" in multiple Bible versions. I've been in churches pastored by Bob Jones' graduates, who use the satanic [10]Easy-To-Read Version (ERV), which is translated from the corrupt [11]Alexandrian manuscripts. What kind of "Bible college" cannot decide which Bible is the genuine McCoy among literally hundreds of English Bible versions? It is apostasy!!! God said he vomits out "LUKEWARM" churches!

I cannot think of anything more "lukewarm" than straddling-the-fence in the matter of the Bible version debate. God only authored ONE BOOK!!! Psalms 138:2, "I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name." Seeing that God magnifies His Word above all His own holy name, I'd say the holy Bible is an important matter to fight over!!!

Oh, how sad and how tragic it is that today's professed Christians are indifferent toward the inspiration of the Word of God. It is a big deal, because the foundation upon which the Devil's crowd continue to translate and publish more English Bible versions, is that ONLY THE ORIGINAL MANUSCRIPTS WERE INSPIRED. Therefore, it is open-season on the Word of God, since we don't have those perfect originals today! [12]Biblica.com (the translators of the New International Version) openly admit, that they believe God merely gave man His thoughts to humanity, and then holy men of old merely wrote down their own words, using their own unique style and bias.

God Is Not The Author Of Confusion

> "I'd rather be a prostitute, or one who sells prostitutes, at the Judgment of Christ, than to be a professor who shakes the faith of young people." —Dr. Jack Hyles (a quote from the sermon titled, "[14]It Seemeth Right")

Consequently, the NIV translators have a very liberal mindset toward their approach in translating the Scriptures. In other words, anything goes! The fact that you can pick up a dozen different Bible versions and they'll all read differently proves what I say. This horrible and ungodly attitude toward translating goes 100 % contrary to the plain words of our Lord, Who said in Matthew 5:18, "For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled." And again the Lord said in Matthew 4:4, "But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." If we are to live by "EVERY WORD" from the mouth of God, then we need an "EVERY WORD" Bible!!! Pastor Jack Hyles rightly states:

> "'The Battle Of The Ages' is seed verses seed, God's seed verses Satan's seed, God's Word verses Satan's word; but Satan's word is always a changing or paraphrasing of God's Word. So we have a battle going on between incorruptible seed and corruptible seed, or EVERY WORD of God verses the thought inspiration and other translations or versions, if you please!"

The Betrayal of the Eternally Inspired Words of God

Job 15:6 “Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea, thine own lips testify against thee.”

Don’t take my word for it, go to each Bible college’s Statement of Faith and read what they say. You’ll read something about God’s Words being “inspired in the originals,” but that God only “preserved” those words for today. Case in point, here is the Statement of Faith of ’The Crown College’ in Powell, Tennessee...

> The Scriptures
> We believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Bible, “as it is in truth, the Word of God…” (I Thessalonians 2:13). We believe in verbal, plenary inspiration in the original writings, and God’s preservation of His pure words to every generation (II Timothy 3:16, Psalms 12:6-8). We believe that the Scriptures are inerrant, infallible, and God-breathed. The Masoretic Text of the Old Testament and the Received Text of the New Testament (Textus Receptus) are those texts of the original languages we use; the Authorized King James Version of the Bible is the English version we use in the English-speaking world. The Bible is our sole and final authority for faith and practice. [emphasis added]

They just won’t say that the King James Bible is “inspired”! Do you see what I mean? They believe in a PRESERVED Bible that is not INSPIRED. Here’s what West Coast Baptist College believes, where Dr. Paul Chappell is the pastor...

> The Bible
> We believe the Bible to be the revealed Word of God, fully and verbally inspired of God. We believe the Scriptures to be the inerrant, infallible Word of God, as found within the 66 books from Genesis to Revelation. We believe that God not only inspired every word, but that He has preserved them through the ages. We believe that the King James Version is the preserved Word of God for the English-speaking people and is the only acceptable translation to be used in this church. (Psalm 12:6–7; 2 Timothy 3:15-17; 1 Peter 1:23-25; 2 Peter 1:19-21) [emphasis added]

They just won’t say that the King James Bible is “inspired”! Here is the Statement of Faith for the apostate ’Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary’ (cemetery)...

They just won't say that the King James Bible is "inspired"! Here is the Statement of Faith of 'Hyles-Anderson College' (my dear ole home college where I was trained to serve God). Notice how they intentionally separate the King James Bible on the bottom from any mention of inspiration on the top. It is shameful! I don't blame Dr. Russell Anderson for requesting that his name be removed from the college...

> Scripture
> We believe the Word of God as found in the sixty-six (66) books from Genesis to Revelation is infallible and inerrant and perfect;1 it is the plenary and verbally inspired2 words of God to men.3 We believe God has also preserved every single word4 through the ages.

They just won't say that the King James Bible is "inspired"! Pastor Jack Schaap made disparaging insults against preachers who held to a King James Bible only view, literally calling them such derogatory terms as: "rats in the woodpile," "ignorant hillbillies," "espousing Catholic theology" and "barbarians"! In response to this brutal assault from the First Baptist Church Of Hammond pulpit against the King James Bible crowd, Dr. Russell Anderson personally [20]wrote an open letter to Brother Hyles in Heaven, rebuking Dr. Jack Schaap for his betrayal of the inspired Word of God. Dr. Schaap held to his new errant position, and the FBCH congregation went along with his apostasy, which meant HAC were done for (since the church owns and controls the college).

When Pastor John Wilkerson replaced Dr. Schaap, Dr. Russell Anderson wrote [21]another open letter in 2015 to Pastor John Wilkerson, requesting for his name to be removed from Hyles-Anderson College because of their refusal to return to the college's former position that the King James Bible is inspired. I don't understand all the arrogance, pride, hatred and refusal to comply with THE TRUTH. You'd have an easier time giving a cat a bath than you would convincing today's average Bible college to profess the inspiration of the King James Bible!!!

Kindly, Pastor Jack Schaap tried to defend himself, [22]doing damage control in 2009 in 'THE VOICE', stooping lower-than-low by attempting to prove that Pastor Hyles believed and taught THE SAME GARBAGE as Brother Schaap believes, that the King James Bible has a bunch of mistakes and is not inspired by God as were the originals. Dr. Jack Schaap is a liar! In fact, Brother Hyles did renounce his own errant beliefs from the earlier days of his ministry, fully admitting that Bible colleges had MESSED HIM UP TOO! Please read this, in his own words...

Pastor Jack Hyles On The Importance Of Bible Infallibility

John 12:47-48, "And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day."

John 14:23, "Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him."

Pastor Jack Hyles

Dr. Hyles admirably admits that he was misled by his Bible college professors regarding the inspiration and trustworthiness of the Holy Bible...

> Folks, I'm going to go to seed [to become worn] before I die on defending this Book—I'm going to go to seed on it! I'm a little tired—by the way, every preacher in America, before he met a theologian, believed exactly what I'm preaching tonight! Theologians messed us all up—they messed me up for a while, I'll be honest with you—messed us all up! When I went off to college, I thought I had the words of God in this Book right here. When I was in college for awhile I found out I didn't. Not only that, I found out nobody did! Not only that, I found out you couldn't have them! Not only that, I found out there was no such thing as any book in all the world that had the words of God in 'em! [emphasis added]
> But my Bible said that we're supposed to keep His "WORDS"; not His truths, not just His doctrine, but His "WORDS"! ...

> Mark 8:38,“Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.”

Folks, here’s what’s happening in America. The old-time preachers that built this country believed that this Book right here had the words of God in it! Your grandpa and grandma, that built this country, shed their tears on this Book, thinking they had the very words of God in their hands. And fundamentalists ALL believed what I’m preaching tonight, until we got our own Bible colleges, and seminaries, and sent our professors off to train at the feet of Karl Barth, and Reinhold Neuber, Emil Brunner, and others, who said that the Bible does not have the “words” of God, it is the Word of God, and that all the Bible is not inspired word-for-word. So we did not want to be considered “unintellectual” by the intellectual community; we’re not willing to be called “nuts” and “fools”—just chalk me up as a nut! Chalk me up as a fool! Yea! Chalk me up as an uneducated illiterate if you want to, but I guarantee Ya—I’d rather study my A-B-C’s in Heaven, then Greek and Hebrew in Hell!

Whosoever shall be ashamed of “ME AND MY WORDS”; it didn’t say His “WORD,” it says His “WORDS”!

SOURCE: Pastor Jack Hyles, a beautiful quote from the sermon, “[23]There Are Too Many Smiths In The Land

Kindly, Pastor Jack Schaap very dishonestly misrepresented Dr. Hyles, by not telling THE WHOLE STORY. Brother Hyles was a truth-seeker, like me. I am sick of religious men merely collecting a salary, pursuing the ministry as a mere money-making opportunity, having no zeal or concern for THE TRUTH. Read again what Dr. Hyles himself said about his errant earlier views on the King James Bible being corrupt. You’ve gotta love a man like this, who is big enough to admit when he was wrong, and repent, and move toward a right position. That is another reason why I love Dr. Hyles so much—he wanted to DO RIGHT and preach THE TRUTH, even if it meant admitting to the world that he had been previously wrong. How does that compare to First Baptist Church Of Hammond today, who are too arrogant and proud to do the same thing (or else they are sincerely deceived by the Devil and no longer agree with Dr. Hyles)...

> “I’m a little tired—by the way, every preacher in America, before he met a theologian, believed exactly what I’m preaching tonight! Theologians messed us all up—they messed me up for a while, I’ll be honest with you—messed us all up! When I went off to college, I thought I had the words of God in this Book right here. I say this all in a spirit of care and love, God knows my humble heart. I feel like David going up against Goliath, because of the fame and influence of the First Baptist Church Of Hammond. They obviously want to make this all go away and say as much as they possibly can, falling just short of saying THE TRUTH, the all-important truth that the King James Bible is verbally inspired. There is a prevalent attitude today in fundamental Baptist churches that soulwinning is what really matters, but I contend that if it is so trifle a matter, THEN WHY WON'T THEY COME OUT AND SIMPLY SAY THAT THE KING JAMES BIBLE IS INSPIRED! See, it is a gigantic issue to them, they're just in the wrong!!! The famous motto of the Texas Rangers is: "No man in the wrong can stand up against a fellow that's in the right and keeps on acomin'!"

> "I still believe that I'm right, that's the reason I can stay in the fight!" —Evangelist Lester Roloff, "[25]The Lost Fear Of God"

We Have a 100 % Verbally-Inspired King James Bible Today

Dr. Shelton Smith of The Sword of The Lord is bold to proclaim the verbal inspiration of the King James Bible. We KNOW where he stands...

> "What He at first inspired, the Lord God has now preserved. Therefore, when I hold the King James Bible in my hand, I hold the inspired text. It was inspired and now that inspired Word has been protected, preserved and provided for us!" [emphasis added]—[26]Dr. Shelton Smith (editor of the Sword of the Lord ministry, Murfreesboro, Tennessee)

I tell you, if the King James Bible that you hold in your hand is not INSPIRED, then it surely hasn't been PRESERVED. Let the intellectuals running (and ruining) the Bible colleges today debate among themselves, there is no controversy if you believe the Word of God. Pastor Jack Hyles believed and taught that the King James Bible is 100 % presently verbally-inspired, and he thought it was worth fighting over!!! ...

> "I'm tired of colleges and universities advertising that they use the King James Bible. Tell the whole story! Tell everyone that you do not believe that it is inspired word for word." —Dr. Jack Hyles, "The Need For An Every Word Bible," page 54

> "I would not give, knowingly, one thin dime to a college that does not believe in the verbal inspiration of this Book I hold tonight." —Pastor Jack Hyles, from the timeless sermon, "[27]YOU MUST GO THROUGH ARABIA"; preached October 11, 1981

Dear reader, put today's Christian leaders to the test. Don't let them weasel their way around the issue of inspiration. Ask them the question: "DO YOU BELIEVE THAT THE KING JAMES BIBLE TODAY IS WORD-FOR-WORD INSPIRED?" And then ask them the question: "DO YOU BELIEVE THERE ARE ANY MISTAKES IN THE KING JAMES BIBLE?" [28]I thank God for Pastor Al Lacy, he was a friend to the inspired King James Bible!

[29] On The King James Bible
(an awesome MP3 sermon by Pastor Al Lacy)

Those devils (pseudo-theologians) in today's Bible colleges will mess with your mind, by saying that the Bible was inspired only in the originals, and then God preserved those words; but THEY ARE LYING DEVILS, because if the King James Bible is not inspired today, then it hasn't been preserved. What they are really saying is that AT BEST today we only have a screwed-up Bible translation. YOU TALK ABOUT STINKING PRIDE!!! Let me ask you a very reasonable question: "WHAT GOOD IS PRESERVATION WITHOUT INSPIRATION?" I mean, what would be the purpose of preserving God's very pure words if they have lost their inspiration? The reason why I get so worked-up over this issue, is because I know that the foundation of the Bible-corrupting movement is that we do not have an inspired Bible today. That is what infamous atheist Voltaire believed...

> "The Bible is not the inspired, inerrant and 100 % historically true words of God. ... If we would destroy the Christian religion, we must first of all destroy man's belief in the Bible." —Voltaire (French philosopher and former unbeliever 1694-1778 - He now knows better [in Hell])

Did you get that? If you won't listen to a fellow brother in the Lord like me, then hear with this hellbound atheist said! Voltaire understood that the key to destroy the Christian religion is to destroy man's belief in an inspired Bible. Voltaire even used the word "inspired"! Respectfully, the First Baptist Church Of Hammond today are in agreement with Voltaire that the Bible is not inspired! Since 2008 they have denied the inspiration of the King James Bible. Respectfully, Pastor Jack Schaap didn't ruin First Baptist Church of Hammond, he merely led the congregation down a wrong path, but had they been right with God they never would have followed him down that path of apostasy, once he strayed away from THE TRUTH! They destroyed themselves! A church can only be destroyed from within!

> "We're in a battle for the Word of God, that's the big battle!" —[30]BATTLE OF THE AGES (an MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles, "The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!")

Why An Inspired King James Bible is So Critically Important

Jesus exclaimed THE TRUTH in John 6:63, "It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life." Dear friend, the Lord's Words are more than merely "pure words" and "preserved" (Psalms 12:6-7), they are "spirit" and they are "life"! They are inspired! Revelation 19:13, "And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God." John 1:1-3 and 14, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. ...And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth." Jesus is the Living Word and the Bible is the Written Word! We have an inspired King James Bible. 2nd Timothy 3:16, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness." Inspiration means that God's Holy Spirit gave men those Words, they are divine! The Holy Bible is God's inspired Word, every single word of it!!!!!!! Those men who say it is not inspired are in good company with atheists like Voltaire!

Read this powerful quote dear reader...

> Marcus Borg [1942-2015] in his book The Heart of Christianity argues that faith would be considerably strengthened if the Bible were not regarded as inspired (at least in the usual sense), but instead were regarded as the product of writers from the historical communities of ancient Israel and the early Christian movement. This perspective, he argues, does not deny God, but sees the Bible as the response to God from and within these two communities. "It is not God's witness to God (not a Divine product) but their witness to God." If the Bible were so conceived, one would not be forced to reconcile the various perspectives presented as one harmonious whole. From Borg's perspective, one could replace bad or forced faith with genuine faith. [emphasis added]

In other words, more infidels would accept the Bible if it were merely viewed as being authored by men instead of God. Do you see friend why inspiration is so important? Sadly, Hyles-Anderson College and First Baptist Church of Hammond no longer believe that the King James Bible is inspired by God, which means that men like Cain gave us their best efforts, but it is not 100 % perfect. FBCH and HAC cannot reasonably claim that God preserved His pure words, but they are no longer inspired words. In '[32]THE VOICE' from February of 2009, published by FBCH, they plainly said that the King James Bible has a bunch of errors in it, and Dr. Schaap attempted to say that Brother Hyles believed the same (which he didn't in his latter ministry, as I have evidenced to you). Well which is it then? Does the Bible have a bunch of mistakes in it, or is it PURE WORDS? How can they be pure words if they are not inspired? By "inspired" I mean what the Bible means in 2nd Timothy 3:16, theopneustos, "GIVEN BY INSPIRATION OF GOD" (God-air). Theo means God in Greek.

Our modern English modern word "pneumatic" comes from the same word neustos. For example: a pneumatic power tool, which is operated by air pressure. Who breathed those words to holy men of old? It was God, whose Holy Spirit breathed upon those flawed men. So are those words in the King James Bible still the Holy Spirit's words? Yes, they absolutely must be! Why do they have to be inspired? Simply because if they are not inspired, then flawed men did their best but were incapable of giving us a perfect Bible today. I refuse to believe that the omnipotent, omnipresent, omnibenevolent, omnisapient and omniscient God who created the universe by the Word of His mouth, was too impotent to preserve His very pure words as He promised. 2nd Peter 3:5, "For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water."

So if you don't listen to anything else I say dear reader, pay attention now, please. AN INSPIRED BIBLE MEANS AN ABSOLUTELY PERFECT BIBLE! Don't believe these liars who claim to believe in an infallible, inerrant, preserved and perfect King James Bible that is NOT INSPIRED! It just doesn't exist! If those King James translators fell short of giving us God's "very pure" words (Psalms 119:140), then they are not inspired words. That is exactly what today's apostate Bible colleges believe. They all believe that even the best Bible, the King James translation, has mistakes and errors in it ([33]Listen Dr. Jack Schaap himself TRASH THE KING JAMES BIBLE!). Psalms 19:7, "The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple." I HAVE NEVER FOUND A SINGLE MISTAKE IN THE BELOVED 'KING JAMES BIBLE.' (And neither did Dr. Jack Hyles by the way.) You can hear Brother Hyles for yourself say that in his MP3 sermon titled, "[34]I FIND NO FAULT IN THIS MAN!" The King James Bible was my mother's Bible. It was Dr. Hyles' mother's Bible. The King James has been my only Bible since I became born-again at age 13. I was born-anew, begotten by the inspired Word of God! 1st Peter 1:23, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever." How can that word not be inspired by God?

I am so sick of deeper-life theologians telling us that the Bible is not inspired today. Do you know why they say that? It is because they do not believe we have a perfect Bible today! Since they cannot reconcile having an imperfect Bible, with God's Words being perfect, they have to lie and say we don't have an "INSPIRED" King James Bible. If it's not the King James Bible, then prey tell me, which version is it? Is it the New International Version (NIV). Or how about one of [35]these versions, expressed by their proper acronyms...

Where do you think all those English Bible versions came from? If you guessed "THE DEVIL," I'd say YOU ARE CORRECT! If you cannot get rid of the Bible, the next best thing is to publish hundreds of counterfeit Bibles to obscure God's inspired Words. SHAME ON HYLES-ANDERSON COLLEGE! SHAME ON FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF HAMMOND! SHAME ON BOB JONES UNIVERSITY! Proverbs 16:5, "Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished." Pastor Jack Hyles thought the inspiration of the Word of God was worthy fighting and even dying over. I'll die before I'll give up the fight! Proverbs 11:21, "Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered."

Evangelist Billy Sunday (1862-1935) saw the potential dangers of apostate Bible colleges and dead churches a century ago...

> "We've got churches, lots of them. We've got preachers, seminaries, and they are turning out preachers and putting them into little theological molds and keeping them there until they get cold enough to practice preaching." —Billy Sunday, "Criticism and Criticism" (chapter 18), from his biography by William T. Ellis titled, "Billy Sunday: The Man And His Message."

The modern perversions of the Bible are Satan's weapons against the churches...

> Isaiah 54:17, "No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD."

I thank God for men of God who still proclaim the inspiration of God's Words; such as, Pastor Bob Gray Sr. This is great truth! ...

> Mark 13:31- "Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away."

> False bibles come from false premises. We have found ourselves downplaying verbal inspiration at the expense of so-called higher education and Christian publications. The attempt by Bob Jones University and other Bible colleges to establish the premise of thought inspiration is, and should be, astounding to fundamentalists everywhere.
>
> There is a difference between verbal inspiration, plenary inspiration, thought inspiration, and truth inspiration.
> Thought inspiration is ludicrous. Truth inspiration is just as ridiculous. Plenary inspiration demands a canon of Scriptures while verbal inspiration demands a word for word Scripture. Accordingly, somebody somewhere ought to stand up for the Words of God via verbal and plenary inspiration. God Himself has promised to deliver preserved inspiration of Holy Scriptures to every nation.

> America is in a precarious position. On one hand, we find the Charismatics pushing substitutes for the words of God. On the other hand, we find the neo-fundamentalists, like Bob Jones University, pushing thought inspiration and truth inspiration. Both positions are dangerous, and the squeeze is on! Those caught in the middle are the ones attempting to win souls, baptize converts, and send off their young people to be trained to do the same, only in a greater way.
> Yet, our young people are pressured by so-called Christian television personalities and so-called fundamentalist personalities to be conformed to their beliefs about the Words of God. Consequently, they find themselves questioning the very Words of God. As a result, their faithful man of God back home, who gave them the Gospel, is suddenly ignorant and unlearned when it comes to the Words of God. How tragic it is and how dangerous it is to fool with the lives of these young people that desire to serve God. Satan has always tried to put a question mark on the Words of God, and now Christians are helping him to do so. [emphasis added]...

[38]Pastor Bob Gray Sr., a former Hyles-Anderson graduate (1972-1976) like me (1985-1993), wisely said:

> “Somebody said about a preacher, ’He changed his position.’ Listen carefully, nobody ever changes his position. CHANGE IS A POSITION!!! ... When you change, you never have a set position anymore. Truth is set. Truth is stable. Change is not. When you leave the truth, you don’t stop anywhere, you keep on changing! And that’s why it’s called ’backsliding’!” —Dr. Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the sermon, [39]Truth Vs. Change.
>
> “The process of changing is what error is!” —Dr. Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the sermon, [40]Truth Vs. Change.
>
> “Error has no boundaries, truth does!” —Dr. Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the sermon, [41]Truth Vs. Change.
> “The best thing in the world to do is stay behind truth. I don’t care how much it hurts. I don’t care how much pain it is. Or how much the kids don’t like it, or anybody don’t like it—YOU STAY BEHIND TRUTH!!! Why? Cause it’s right! And it’ll protect you! And if the leader goes down, the followers are gonna follow...” —Dr. Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the sermon, [42]Truth Vs. Change.

I love Brother Gray and he is an encouragement to many preachers, myself included! THE TRUTH matters! It really does.

[43] King James Bible Inspiration

(a great MP3 [44]defense of the Christian faith, Pastor David Baker)

I love everybody, and I have no personal beef with FBCH or HAC. Quite the contrary, they are my home college and I love my roots. It breaks my heart to expose them, but one of the great joys of the Christian life is contending for the faith. So it is with joy that I refute ANYBODY who is wrong on the truth. One of the reasons why I am so hard on FBCH and HAC is because THEY KNOW BETTER! They aren't merely sincerely ignorant and growing, they chose to abandon a right position and chose to abandon truth.

I find it more than ironic that the apostle Paul begins 2nd Timothy chapter three by telling young Timothy that in the last days "PERILOUS TIMES SHALL COME," and then he finishes the chapter by reminding Timothy that from a small child he has "known the holy Scriptures," which are ALL "given by INSPIRATION of God," able to complete the man of God by furnishing him with everything that he needs in the faith. ...

> 2nd Timothy 3:1 and 15-17, "This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. ... And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works."

There is absolutely nothing in the Greek word theopneustos that limits inspiration to the process of giving God's Words to man. The 54 King James translators chose to use five English words to render this one Greek word theopneustos, i.e., "GIVEN BY INSPIRATION OF GOD" in 2nd Timothy 3:16. But the literal meaning of the two words is simply: "GOD + AIR." Jesus likens the moving of the Holy Spirit to blowing air in John 3:8, "The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit." The matter of Bible inspiration is simply that God's Holy Spirit speaks through God's Word. They are not the mere words of sinful men. 2nd Peter 1:21, "For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost."

Inspiration obviously refers to the Words themselves, telling Timothy that they are from almighty God. Paul was telling young Timothy that God is the divine Author of all the Bible. The term "plenary" refers to the compete cannon of Scripture. The term "verbal" refers to the Words themselves. This, as God-fearing Christians we believe in the plenary and verbal inspiration of the Scriptures. That is, we believe that every word of the entire cannon of Scripture is inspired by God.

[45] What It Means To Be King James Bible Only

(awesome truth by Pastor Steven L. Anderson)

I'm On the Side of Truth!

Like Dr. Bob Gray Sr. says (MP3 sermon: "[46]TRUTH vs. CHANGE"), change is error itself. Dr. Hyles taught us (as students of HAC) to withdraw our support from FBCH and HAC if they change their doctrinal position and stand (AND THEY SURE HAVE!)...

> “Students of Hyles-Anderson College, do not give your loyalty to Hyles-Anderson College. You give your loyalty to what we stand for today, and if tomorrow we don’t stand for it, you withdraw your loyalty—loyalty to principle, loyalty to right, loyalty to character, loyalty to integrity, loyalty to conviction, loyalty to truth; not loyalty to institutions.” —Dr. Jack Hyles, from the sermon titled, “[47]Filled With All The Fulness Of God.”

The inspiration of the King James Bible is a big deal to me, because it is a big deal to God! And the inspiration of the King James Bible is a big deal to the people at FBCH and HAC today. IT SURE IS! It is such a big deal that FBCH and HAC were willing to part ways with their co-founder Dr. Russell Anderson. Oh yes, inspiration is a very BIG DEAL to the folks at First Baptist Church Of Hammond, which is why they are willing to go to war with the religious world to DENY THE INSPIRATION OF GOD’S WORD. They could simply go back to their former correct position, that the King James Bible is inspired, but they would rather lose everything than humble themselves to embrace THE TRUTH! They can side with other wicked people all they want to, but that doesn’t make them right. With each year that passes in their new incorrect doctrinal position on the Holy Bible, FBCH and HAC are solidifying their apostasy!

Kindly, I feel sorry for their students. God knows that I still feel a spirit of love and friendship toward all the people at First Baptist Church Of Hammond and Hyles-Anderson College. They are my home college. My life was forever changed and impacted for God in Hammond and Crownpoint. How could I not love them immensely? Of course I do. I wish things were different, I really do. But I also have the zealous fighting spirit of Dr. Jack Hyles, who discerned what Satan was doing by shaking the faith of our young people in the inspired Word of God. It is a very big deal, evidenced by the unwillingness of FBCH and HAC to return to their former position held by Dr. Hyles and Dr. Anderson. They may downplay the issue as not worth fighting over, yet that is exactly what they are willing to do… FIGHT OVER IT! So it is a big deal! It’s as big a deal for them not to proclaim the inspiration of the King James Bible, as it is for a small handful of faithful HAC graduates (like me) to proclaim it! I actually paid attention when I attended FBCH and HAC, it wasn’t just a social club to me. I sat on the edge of my seat, like a sponge.

> “God has a special rebuke, again and again and again in the Bible, toward those people who keep their neutrality in the work of God!”—SOURCE: Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the great MP3 sermon, “[48]Where Were You In The Battle?”

God Uses Weakness and Misfits (Like Me)

All my life I have been nervous to be around people. That is why I never became a church pastor. I have an earned 4-year bachelor’s degree in Pastoral Theology. Go figure! When I sat in the First Baptist Church of Hammond main auditorium, I felt like everyone in the choir was looking at me, and it made me nervous, so nervous that I always kept my head down often during the preaching. I couldn’t help it. I tried sitting all the way in the back on the last row, but I still felt nervous. I once sat way up front for a couple months, by Dr. Hyles’ pulpit, because I wanted to sit close to the pulpit in my heart, but that was one of the hardest things I ever did. After a couple months I could do it anymore emotionally.

Each service was a form of torture for me, trying to hide my nervousness. I used to pray for God to help me not to be so self-conscious, but I came to learn that this is just who I am, and there is nothing wrong with me. I am just a loner. I am a private person and like it that way. Unfortunately, that is why I will very likely never find a wife, because I am not a social person. That is just who I am. I am a lot like John the Baptist, whom my middle name is named after (John). My first name is named after the humble shepherd boy, David. I like my names that my parents gave me in the Lord. Jesus is precious!

They had a rule at FBCH that no one was allowed into the main auditorium after the offering, so as to not disturb the preaching. I used to deliberately leave my Bible on the church bus over by the train tracks, and then pretend like I forgot my Bible, and walk two blocks back to go get it, making sure that I was late, so I would have to sit in the side soulwinning room instead (where mothers with crying babies and other latecomers would sit) to watch Dr. Hyles via monitor screens. That way I wasn't nervous, not thinking that the whole choir was looking at me, and I could enjoy the sermon despite the noise around me. I heard many great life-changing sermons while sitting in a folding chair in that overflow side-room at FBCH. I remember hearing the beautiful sermon titled: "[49]Is There No King In Thee?" ([50]video) from my chair in that room. That "King" is Jesus living in me as a believer. And if you are a born-again believer, you also have a "King" within your bosom too! I hope you will take the time to listen to this sermon for your edification.

I have often marvelled with admiration at how men at FBCH on staff, can sit on the platform like the rock of Gibraltar, emotionless throughout the announcements, special music and sermons, and never flinch. Wow! I sure wish I could do that! I would cry like a baby during the special music, because I have a very sensitive and tender heart. Every time a preacher mentions a sin, I would wonder if someone thought I was guilty of that particular sin. I wish it were as simple as just deciding not to think too much. Everybody is different.

If you saw me in a church today, you would see me in a pew with my head down most of the time, listening attentively but looking at my Bible while I listen. I always look at a preacher when he says to "Look up here," but it is a struggle for me to cope with my nervousness. I get nervous making eye contact with the speaker. I am a very expressive and passionate person, which is why I love the very expressive steel guitar instrument and music so much. So my nervousness is a weakness for me, which God uses as a strength, compelling me to preach in the only way I have set before me, on the internet.

Thankfully, as I have grown older, now at age 56, I am not nearly as nervous as I used to be. Strangely enough, I know I could boldly preach a sermon to a crowd of 10,000 people, but then I would feel awkward once I left the pulpit. My boldness is in Jesus Christ (Acts 4:13). If I weren't so nervous to be around people, then I would never have made my website ministry since 2002. God is using my weakness, so that way He gets all the credit, glory and praise. I am just a humble broken sinner, who is too weak to even sit on a platform in front of people. I can do it, but you would see me get nervous and fidgety. I would be a spectacle. I am glad that God uses nobodies like me!

Another one of my favorite MP3 sermons by Brother Hyles is titled: "[51]Where Did David Get His Mighty Men?" God uses misfits, losers, people in debt, criminals, those who are down and out, the despised, the rejected, the unwanted and cast outs of society. THANK GOD FOR USING A SINNER LIKE ME! Genesis 32:10, “I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands.”

I love the following sermon from 1995. Brother Hyles teaches that we ought to love others and not hide our feelings. Many people are afraid to love, lest they get hurt, so they put up a defensive shield. I know the frustration of loving people in local churches, but they won’t love. They are cold, unforgiving, calloused and won’t give me a chance. They hold a grudge. We need to start saying, “I LOVE YOU” to others. Our churches today are afraid to love and be loved. Our country is dying for love and compassion in our churches. ...

> “Let emotion in. Let tears in. You’re missing life. Let love in! ... America’s dying for a lack of love and compassion! And our churches are dying...” —Dr. Jack Hyles, a life-changing quote from the excellent MP3 sermon titled, "[52]Take The Shield Down"

> “There’s nobody in this world that deserves your trust! And if you only trust folks that deserve it, you’re never going to trust anybody. Now I don’t know what you’re going to do, but I’m going to trust everybody!” —Dr. Jack Hyles, a life-changing quote from the excellent MP3 sermon titled, "[53]Take The Shield Down"

Isn’t that beautiful? Sure it is. I cried often at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam when I attended a few years ago, especially during the singing, because I have a tender heart and care. I like who God made me. I don’t want to become hard-hearted. I don’t want to grow thicker-skin. I don’t want to become tough and calloused like the dying heathen world. I used to feel bad about myself, wondering why I am so nervous to be around people, but the Lord showed me over the years that He uses weakness. It’s like the pendulum on a grandfather’s clock. That is, the farther the pendulum swings one way, the farther it swings the other way.

Dr. Hyles preached a wonderful MP3 sermon titled: “[54]DON’T CHASE THE PENDULUM!” The flip side of being a very caring person is that I am also very sensitive. I admit that I am not comfortable being around people, BUT I LOVE AND NEED TO BE AROUND THEM!!! Everybody needs a church family. Thank God that He uses weak people and misfits like me. 2nd Corinthians 12:9, “And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.” 2nd Corinthians 13:4, “For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.” To God be the glory, great things He hath done and is doing! I LOVE YOU DEAR READER!!! I CARE ABOUT YOU!!!

I am just a nobody, but I am [55]A VOICE! (MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles). Galatians 6:3, “For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.” As Brother Hyles used to say, “I know I am inferior but I don’t have an inferiority complex!” Psalms 27:1, “The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?” So what strength I do have is in Christ, and the Lord gives me what boldness I do have. My boldness to preach THE TRUTH is the Holy Spirit working in me as God’s child. My parents dedicated me to the Lord at age one in the Salvation Army. I am glad they did that, and I feel and believe that God has honored their dedication through my life as a Gospel minister. I wish I could live my life over. I would do things differently. I would still attend Hyles-Anderson College. I have no regrets there.

Once Fundamental Churches Are Turning

The main truth that compelled me throughout my years at Bible college was knowing that the King James Bible is inspired. My heart burned when Brother Hyles preached about it. In fact, Pastor Hyles called the battle over Bible inspiration, “[56]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES” (1994). Respectfully, what is wrong with First Baptist Church of Hammond today? They’ve turned, just like Brother Hyles warned. ...

> “Everything born is born dying... Death is inevitable... The length of your life depends on how much you fight the inevitable death... The day will come when Hyles-Anderson College will be liberal. The day will come when this Bible is not believed in Hyles-Anderson College, if the Lord tarries... The day will come when this church will turn.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, from the timeless sermon, “[57]The Church First”

And so it is today already! It is so heartbreaking and sad. Before long they will become as hardened in their hearts and stiff-necked as Bob Jones University toward the inspiration of the Word of God. It may not be tomorrow or in a few years, but I promise you the day will come when Hyles-Anderson College will allow the Alexandrian versions of the Bible. Don’t believe me, listen to the soulwinning preacher, John Wesley...

> “What one generation tolerates, the next generation will embrace.” —John Wesley (1703-1791)

Apostate neo-evangelicals have infiltrated FBCH and HAC! The Devil just needed to get his foot in the door, and he has. FBCH has given the Devil an inch, and now in the time to come he WILL take a foot, and then he’ll become a ruler! ...

> “As long as I’ve got breath to breathe, I’ll not dip my sails. Let me tell you something—This battle we have tonight is a battle between the new-evangelical crowd and fundamentalist crowd. What it is!” —Dr. Jack Hyles, "[58]Nebuchadnezzar, God’s Servant"

The matter of Bible inspiration is a big deal to BOTH SIDES of the argument. It is such a big deal to them at FBCH and HAC that they were willing to go against the most important TRUTH Dr. Hyles ever taught them. Only a fool would dare go back to Brother Hyles early days, when [59]he admits to being messed-up by Bible theologians, and try to say that Pastor Hyles thinks the King James Bible has a bunch of mistakes in it. That is wicked and deceitful what Dr. Jack Schaap did to brother Hyles! I am not condemning Jack Schaap, I am defending Pastor Jack Hyles! I cannot even fathom an independent fundamental Baptist preacher making light of the inspiration of our beloved King James Bible! A century ago ago NO ONE debated inspiration. What saith the Scripture? ...

John 6:63, “It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.”

If the King James Bible is not inspired, then God’s Holy Spirit does not speak through its words. The ONLY thing that makes the Bible different than the tens of millions of books authored by mortal men, is one word—INSPIRATION!!!

Deception is Everywhere Today

We are truly living in perilous times of universal deceit. It was prolific author George Orwell (1903-1950) who stated, “In times of universal deceit, telling the truth is a revolutionary act!” That is so very true! May I say kindly, yet boldly with all Biblical confidence, that the entire King James Bible is inspired word-for-word. May I say, the offer of eternal life is not on a trial basis. It is not limited to see how well you perform, or whether your life changes for the better, nor whether you like it or not, nor anything else.

Salvation is a free gift from God, which is simply received by childlike faith in the Good News (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified on the cross, buried and bodily risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-6)! That is why I diligently fight against the modern Bible versions, because they all [60]corrupt the Gospel by errantly redefining repentance to mean to “turn from sinful behavior” to be saved. I make a big fuss over King James Bible inspiration, because I know that denying that inspiration is the first step downward. It is the Devil’s foot in the door. It is the Trojan Horse that ultimately destroys a church and Bible college!

Only a small remnant of Christian truth-tellers remain in the world today, who haven’t bowed their knee to Baal. Pastor Texe Marrs wrote the following excellent words...

A Faithful Remnant Remains

Thank God, there is still in existence a tiny but faithful remnant of true Christian believers. Though few in number, true Christian believers cannot be deceived for long. They miraculously are able to spiritually recognize each other. Gifted with discernment, they know the genuine from the counterfeit. The remnant is hardy and tough. They refuse to bow down to Baal.

I long ago gave my heart and life over to be a part of the remnant. I pray you have done the same. If not, may I beseech and implore you to make this vital and everlasting decision today, before it is too late?

Yes, trust in Christ alone and join us. Be assured: We of the remnant will never, never, never give up. Praise God, with Him as our companion and strength, we shall overcome the evildoers:

> Revelation 12:11, "And they overcame him (the Devil, Satan) by the blood of the lamb and by the word of their testimony and they loved not their lives unto the death."

Have you believed a lie? The churches today are quickly filling up with lies. Counterfeit Bible versions bring with them a counterfeit gospel. My friend, I ask you: What good is PRESERVATION without INSPIRATION? That's kind of like asking: How did TWO planes bring down THREE buildings on 9/11? These are disturbing questions that reveal truth! It is insane to claim that our omnipotent God was able to "preserve" His "pure words" as Psalms 12:6-7 promised, but that those words "given by inspiration of God" according to 2nd Timothy 3:16 are no longer inspired. If that be true, that God's Words have lost their inspiration, then they cannot be perfect. It would be insane to claim that God's Words are perfect in the English language, if they are only inspired in the original Hebrew, Chaldean and Greek. We know from "THE VOICE" magazine published in February of 2009 by FBCH, that they believe the King James Bible is full of mistakes!

So it is very DECEITFUL for them today to give the impression in their Statement of Faith at HAC that they believed God has preserved His PURE WORDS! God knows that I am not trying to be a Smart Alec, nor am I trying to cause trouble, nor do I have any personal grudges against my beloved Bible college at HAC and FBCH where I was honed, prepared and trained to serve our precious Lord and Savior. I am simply "A VOICE" preaching against "[62]THE VOICE" published in 2009! There are no mistakes in the King James Bible.

Shame on FBCH for attempting to shed a bad light on Brother Hyles in THE VOICE, claiming that he believed the King James Bible is full of errors. As I have pointed out repeatedly, and will continue to do so, Dr. Hyles recanted his earlier statements from the 1960's and 70's, moving toward a King James Bible only position since the 1980's, and made it VERY CLEAR that there were NO MISTAKES in the King James Bible. If you don't agree with Dr. Hyles, fine, then so be it, but don't misrepresent what the man believed and taught in the decades before he went to Heaven! Please listen to the insightful MP3 sermon by Pastor Hyles titled: "[63]THE REAL BATTLE".

Respectfully, ever since I heard Dr. Jack Schaap claim in 2008 that Dr. Hyles believed in preservation without inspiration, I have kept my ears open while listening to Brother Hyles' sermons, to prove Dr. Schaap wrong! Pastor Hyles did in fact believe and teach that the King James Bible is inspired!!! ...

> “Every word in this Bible is inspired by God almighty!” —Dr. Jack Hyles (a great quote from the classic sermon, “[64]A Friend At Midnight”)

A man with two watches cannot know what time it is;

And a man with two Bibles cannot know what the Word of God is!!!

I make a big fuss over the inspiration of the King James Bible because I see THE UGLY TRUTH. You can see the ugly truth too, by reading “[67]THE VOICE” published in 2009—THE UGLY TRUTH that the real issue behind Bible inspiration is over the accuracy and purity of the Word of God! Don’t believe anyone who deceives you by claiming that we have a preserved, very pure, King James Bible today, but it is NOT (plenary and verbally) inspired. What they are really saying is that our omnipotent, omniscient, omnipresent, omnibenevolent and omnisapient God was too impotent (lacking power or ability) to give us a perfect Bible today, so what He once inspired alone by His Holy Spirit He has allowed to fall into the hands of sinful, flawed, tainted, human, scholarly, emotional, mortal, men! Does that make any sense to you? I mean, at all?

If the 54 brilliant scholarly men who translated the King James Bible (47 men by the time they finished 8 years later in 1611), did the best they could, but were incapable of giving us a perfect Bible, and there are no original manuscripts available today, then we don’t have God’s very pure words today (who can say) and we are at the mercy of scholars (men), and we cannot really know what is truth or what is a lie. I am tired of preachers correcting the King James Bible, which leaves us at the mercy of scholars (men).

If only the originals were inspired, then God lied to us! [68]Bible colleges are deceivers! They profess to have the “preserved pure words” of God, but then deny that those words are still inspired today. They are lying to you because they do not believe the King James Bible is without error, which is the entire reason why scholars today deny its inspiration! I am making a big deal over all this because I see clearly that inspiration is synonymous with perfection! So if the King James Bible is not inspired, it cannot be perfect, and if it’s not perfect, then we must look to Hebrew and Greek scholars (imperfect men) to teach us what the Word of God really says, because we could get it wrong and go to Hell. I cannot accept that notion!

I cannot accept the idea that the Bible I hold in my hand is full of mistakes, and I must seek the wisdom of intellectuals to guide me through my King James Bible minefield of errors, lest I damn my soul to Hell, or succumb to a false teaching that will lead me outside the will of God. Do you see how important this matter is dear reader?

You need to know that the King James translators did NOT interpret the Bible, they translated it! They did not give us their opinions or a paraphrase, they diligently translated what God has already said, so that the English-speaking people of the world could know what God said. All of the new, corrupt, modern, Bible versions are paraphrases and opinions, not authentic translations. That is why they all disagree. Biblica.com (the NIV's translators) even admit that they believe in "thought inspiration," which is crazy! They believe that God gave His general thoughts to holy men of old, and then those men penned down what they think God specifically said. That is how the Devil makes Bibles! God through His Holy Spirit gave holy men of old His exact words, word for word, which pseudo-scholars today speak of disparagingly as "mechanical dictation." Call it what you what, that is '[69]How We Got God's Word!' | [70]MP3 (Dr. Jack Hyles).

The Modern Versions Are More Deadly Than Rattlesnakes

A poisonous rattlesnake may bite you and send you to your physical grave, but a counterfeit Bible version may poison your soul and send you to the Lake of Fire for ever and ever! If you doubt what I say, read what the [71]New Life Version (ESV) changes [72]Mark 1:15 to read:

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel."

How does the "work" of turning from sins reconcile with the "free gift" of God? Romans 5:15b and 18 even use the exact term "free gift." I love Romans 6:23, which I learned as a small child, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." I am so sick and tired of false prophets, deceived preachers like [73]Dr. John Goetsch of West Coast Baptist College, teaching that salvation is a gift obtained solely by grace through faith, yet they insist you ALSO must "be willing to turn away from sinful ways" (and they don't considered that "a work"). I triple-dog dare you Bible student, go investigate what the cults (Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Seventh-Day Adventists and) believe, and you'll see that the cults all teach the damnable heresy of turning away from sins to be saved. Don't you get it?

The Devil is behind all this deception! The Gospel (or 'GOOD NEWS') is that despite being a dirty, filthy, rotten, hell-deserving, guilty sinner, Jesus Christ paid your debt of sin, by DYING in your place on the cross, being BURIED, and then physically RESURRECTING three days later for our justification (because a dead Savior cannot save anybody). 1st Corinthians 15:14, "And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain." 1st Corinthians 15:17, "And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins." Praise God, we serve a RISEN SAVIOR!!!

So you see, the very notion that a sinner must be sorry and turn away from sins is of the Devil. Judas was sorry for betraying Christ. Judas turned from his sins, even returning the 30 pieces of silver to the Pharisees. Yet, Judas went straight to Hell forever in his sin of unbelief. Clearly, sorrow and turning away from sins is NOT a part of the Gospel. I think Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) said it best...

> “The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past …
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all.”
> SOURCE: Pastor Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: [74]What Is The Gospel?

Isn’t that beautifully expressed? Did you know that Harry Ironside never had any former education? That’s right, he never went to Bible seminary! So he wasn’t messed with! Every preacher who I am aware of that denies the inspiration of the King James Bible, is a graduate of some apostate Bible college! What irony! Think about that! You’d think that the one place on the planet where your faith would be strengthened in the inspiration of God’s Word would be in a Bible college!

Tragically, Bible colleges today are the most dangerous place in the world today for young people, where their faith is shaken in the inspiration of God’s Word. That ought not be! Call me what you will, hate me, label me, laugh at me, degrade me and categorize me, but I BELIEVE IN AN INSPIRED KING JAMES BIBLE!!! What God originally inspired stayed inspired. God’s Words will always be GOD’S WORDS. Beware of anyone who professes to believe in the “very pure” and “preserved” words of God today, but they fall short of using the word “INSPIRED.” I simply cannot express the severity of the issue in mortal words! IT IS A BIG DEAL!!!

I marvel how anybody could say that God gave His words to man through the process of inspiration, but then those words are no longer INSPIRED, they are merely PRESERVED. If it seems like a trifle issue to you, then it is only because you are not awake to righteousness, and you utterly fail to see the Devil’s methods. Speaking of brotherly forgiveness, Paul said in 2nd Corinthians 2:11, “Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.” Likewise, learned believers today are not ignorant of the Devil’s device of using counterfeit Bible versions to infiltrate, corrupt and destroy the churches. Lest you think I’m over-reacting, [75]when Brother John Wilkerson spoke as a candidate for the position of pastor at the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, he said:

> “I believe that the Bible is God’s Word. I believe that it is God’s Word, inspired Word, and by preservation God has preserved it for us in the King James version of the Bible. And I use nothing else. I believe it’s God’s Word.
> I have a little bit of a hard time if someone takes another Bible, and starts tearing it up, and throwing it around, and kicking it, even if it’s not that version. I just think it’s disrespectful to, and is offensive and hurtful, to people who may have a different, I think it’s just, you know it maybe proves a point, but I just, I don’t know,

> I, I kind of cringe. I've been to a few services where somebody's done that, and to me, I just feel like, I may feel differently about it whether I think it's God's Word or not, but I think that there's weaker Christians who would think that as very, very, hurtful, and I think it would cause more difficulty there." [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: Pastor John Wilkerson; [76]Candidating Questions and Answers (2013)

Well I have a big problem when pastors don't bash corrupt Bible versions!!! I have nothing personal against Pastor Wilkerson, God knows my heart. However, his attitude toward Satan's deadly counterfeit Bible versions is cause for alarm! Dr. Hyles saw the danger of the modern Bible versions and warned his people! [77]I see the danger of the modern versions! If you have done your homework, Oh Christian, [78]then you know the danger too!

Evangelist Lester Roloff (1914-1982) was 100 % right, who saw the modern Bible versions and their writers as RATTLESNAKES! ...

> "The Word of God is our only hope—that's our only hope! This has been the generation of translations and abominations, and perversions, of the Word of God! It's been a long time; now when the Revised Standard Version came out, I stood against it before I knew what it was, because the wrong crowd heard of that, and the wrong crowd received it, and I knew it got too much publicity to be right! And I knew if the newspapers publicized something, it had to be wrong! And so I knew that the American people and a lot of American preachers—they welcomed it into their house before they knew it was a rattlesnake!" —[79]Brother Lester Roloff, a needful quote from the MP3 sermon titled, "[80]'THE LIVING BIBLE' EXPOSED!"
> "The worst rattlesnake on this earth, is the man that twists or seeks to modernize, or take from or add to, the Word of God!" —Brother Lester Roloff, a needful quote from the awesome MP3 sermon titled, "[81]'THE LIVING BIBLE' EXPOSED!"
>
> "Now the serpent (there's your rattlesnake right there!)... question the Word of God... This has been the same generation questioning the Word of God. I'm sick of hearing about all the mistakes in the King James version! "It's not dependable" [critics say]. It is! The night I got saved it was dependable! The night God called me to preach it was dependable! For 43 years, I've been preaching it and declaring it, and it's been dependable to rescue the perishing and care for the dying, and sober the drunkard, and to deliver the dope head! I've never found anything any better! And so you're not going to get me to raise a bunch of questions about the Word of God! When I say the 'Word of God,' I consider the King James Version the Word of God!!!" —Brother Lester Roloff, a needful quote from the awesome MP3 sermon titled, "[82]'THE LIVING BIBLE' EXPOSED!"

. . . THE MODERN BIBLE VERSIONS ARE DEADLY RATTLESNAKES!!!

Ironically, Brother Roloff used to preach in chapel to the students at Bob Jones University. BJU tried to honor Brother Roloff with an honorary Doctorates Degree, but he refused it. Amen! Contrary to BJU's claims that they haven't changed since they first opened their college's doors in 1927, THEY HAVE CHANGED, horribly so, by not taking a stand against the Devil changing the Word of God!!!

> “Did you realize tonight that we’re living in a Godless nation, a Christless nation, a Bibleless nation?” —[83]Brother Lester Roloff, a needful quote from the MP3 sermon titled, “[84]’THE LIVING BIBLE’ EXPOSED!”

If you have been tricked by the Devil, to accept a counterfeit Bible version, then effectively you have the commandments of men! Eve was deceived by the crafty serpent (Satan). Whereas God had commanded Adam and Eve not to eat of the forbidden fruit, the serpent came along and questioned what God had said, thus introducing a SECOND AUTHORITY! Consequently, Eve was compelled to decide which of the TWO AUTHORITIES was correct! Had Eve refused to even consider a SECOND AUTHORITY, she never would have sinned. Don’t miss that important observation, because that is exactly what the Devil is doing today, shaking the faith of young people in the Word of God by [85]introducing a SECOND AUTHORITY (i.e., the Alexandrian manuscripts upon which the modern revisions are based).

Dr. Jack Hyles foretold of this battle over the King James Bible today...

> “The biggest split that has ever come will come in the next ten years, if not sooner, over the King James Bible - and it couldn’t come soon enough for me. I’m tired of colleges and universities advertising that they ’use’ the King James Bible - tell the whole story! Tell everyone that you do not believe that it is inspired word for word.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, from the Wednesday night Bible study titled, “Revelation to Illumination” (1998)

Kindly and respectfully, I never would have imagined in my mind, that I would one day be exposing the First Baptist Church Of Hammond and Hyles-Anderson College, that I attended for eight blessed years between 1985 to 1993. It blows my mind! Even more creepy is that the preceding quote by Pastor Hyles was fulfilled in 2008 at Pastor’s School (when [86]Pastor Jack Schaap denied the inspiration of the King James Bible), exactly TEN YEARS later, as Dr. Hyles [87]warned everyone from the church pulpit. I mean, you couldn’t make this stuff up! But most creepy of all are the HAC alumni today who still support Hyles-Anderson College.

Dr. Wendell Evans is one of my heroes of the faith, but I was saddened to read recently that he is now teaching once again at Hyles-Anderson College. Why? Respectfully, Dr. Russell Anderson won’t have anything to do with FBCH or HAC, since 2008, because of their betrayal of the inspired Word of God. I admire Dr. Anderson for taking that important stand. I don’t understand why so many HAC alumni today don’t care about inspiration. I promise you that to the SAME DEGREE that a preacher is upset over the Devil’s corrupt Bible versions, to that SAME DEGREE he makes a big issue over Bible inspiration! Dr. Hyles made an issue of inspiration and he hated the Devil’s false Bibles...

> “Now you say, ’Brother Hyles, you make an issue.’ You dead sure better know I’ll make an issue!” —[88]BATTLE OF THE AGES (MP3, Dr. Jack Hyles, “The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!”)

That is the big problem today. That is, most preachers don’t hate evil like they ought to! Psalms 97:10a, “Ye that love the LORD, hate evil... ” Proverbs 28:4, “They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them.” I am contending brother! I am contending with the Bible corrupting crowd! I am contending with the apostate Bob Jones University crowd, who make light of verbal inspiration and sanction [89]Satan's Alexandrian manuscripts! Somebody's got to care! I CARE!!!

And may I say, humbly, First Baptist Church Of Hammond has [90]betrayed Dr. Russell Anderson as well. It is unthinkable and horrible! The two honorable men who planned, built and raised the money to build Hyles-Anderson College in 1972—Pastor Jack Hyles and Dr. Russell Anderson—who BOTH BELIEVE UNCOMPROMISINGLY THAT THE KING JAMES BIBLE IS 100 % VERBALLY INSPIRED WORD-FOR-WORD, have been woefully betrayed by the church in First Baptist Church in Hammond and HAC. They might as well spit on these godly men and God Himself. [91]IT IS A BIG DEAL!!!!!!!

I am not speaking for Pastor Hyles or Dr. Anderson, these honorable men have already spoken for themselves. I am speaking for myself. Where are all the other HAC graduates? I ask you as did the prophet Jeremiah after the fall of Jerusalem—"Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by?" (Lamentations 1:12). Well it means something to me! Dr. Hyles taught us to take a stand against evil. Moreover, that's exactly what the Holy Bible commands. Ephesians 5:11, "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove expose them." We must expose all falsehoods. I am sick of money-hungry religious schools that don't care about the inspiration of God's Word. You look at [92]these Bible colleges today who make light of inspiration, and I'll guarantee you THAT THEY ARE EERILY SILENT ABOUT [93]HOW CORRUPT THE MODERN BIBLE PERVERSIONS ARE!!!

One of the grossest perversions in the modern Bible versions is [94]the complete removal of Acts 8:37, which says that Jesus is the SON OF GOD!!! Without Verse 37, the passage now teaches that water baptism saves. Only a pastor or Bible student that is indifferent, uncaring about THE TRUTH, would tolerate such a gross perversion of God's Word. And get this, [95]Bob Jones University SELLS the English Standard Version (ESV) in their campus bookstore. Most of the churches today, and religious institutions like Bob Jones University (BJU) are merely [96]playing church instead of loving THE TRUTH!!! Don't miss it...

[97] The Sin of Playing Church Verses Loving Truth

(Or, The opposite of love is not hate, it's indifference!)

The TRUTH, if you want it, is that ALL modern English Bible versions are translated from the Satanic Greek work of reprobates Westcott and Hort. Only the precious King James Bible comes from the Textus Receptus. According to BJU's foolishness, they would have us to believe that God has preserved His words through both the Textus Receptus (from Antioch, Syria) and the Westcott and Hort manuscripts (from Alexandria, Egypt). [98]Here's a chart. Which is it? These two Greek sources differ drastically, and for all we know, the Alexandrian manuscripts were [99]a big fraud, like Westcott and Hort (both unsaved reprobates). Does it matter what we believe as Christians? I think it does, which is why I am writing this article. The Word of God is more dear to me than anything else in this world, and I'm not going to sit back while ungodly sinners spiritually ravish it and rip it apart!!!

The 1984 New International Version (NIV) changes or removes over 65,000 words from the King James Bible. Their [100]latest 2011 NIV changed 38.8 % of the content as compared to the 1984 NIV. In early September 2016, the publishers of the [101]ESV translation said they had updated their revision, and these changes were FINAL. But wait a minute! Just weeks later, by the end of the month, they turned around and said these changes were not final. You couldn't make this stuff up... change this, change that, where does the Merry-go-round stop? [102]They CHANGED Their Mind AGAIN! How does this travesty of Bible mistranslation reconcile with BJU's claim of divine preservation in more than one English version? How does God preserve EVERY ONE of His inspired words in [103]900 different Bible versions? [104]Our churches are going to the Devil, perverting what it means to be saved, because of the [105]corrupt new Bible versions that redefine repentance to mean [106]a change of lifestyle rather than a change of mind. Here's the [107]ugly truth about Bible versions! Here's another example of corruption: The modern Bible revisions teach baptismal regeneration by [108]completely removing Acts 8:37.

> "I'd rather hear a man say 'I seen something' who saw, then hear a man say 'I have seen it' who didn't see anything!" —Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968)

The King James Bible is Inspired!

Please understand my motive in writing this article. I am simply warning others that Satan is tampering with our spiritual food, which is the Word of God. BJU wants to maintain the appearance of believing that God has faithfully preserved EVERY ONE OF HIS INSPIRED WORDS IN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE, while at the same time catering to ecumenical apostates by saying that they support more than one Bible translation. Ok, which ones? Which Bible(s) are good besides the King James Bible? Are they all good? Which ones can we trust? 'Com on, if anyone should know it's a Bible university!!! They dare not tell you, lest they make enemies in the religious world.

I thank God that I'm outside the gate with Jesus and the King James Bible only crowd!!! I'm tired of Bible colleges claiming to believe that the Bible is the inspired pure Words of God, while endorsing dozens of satanic Bible versions which ALL DISAGREE THEOLOGICALLY. You cannot have it both ways. Either we have a perfect Bible translation today or we do not. It cannot be God's "PURE WORDS" that have been "PRESERVED" if they are imperfect and non-inspired. I ask you dear reader, what is the great harm in simply proclaiming that the King James Bible is "INSPIRED"? Why won't today's messed-up churches and Bible colleges say it? It is because they don't believe it, and they want those who do to shut up and go away! We'll I'm not going to shut up! Satan wants us to SHUT UP, but God wants us to SPEAK UP!

Does God expect us to figure out where His "very pure" words got lost in the mix? Psalms 119:140, "Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it." Do you really expect me to believe that somewhere in the vast sea of English Bible translations that God's Word partially exists, a little over here and a little over there? What BJU claims to believe is utterly contradictory and confusing. How can we have EVERY INSPIRED WORD of God, supernaturally preserved, if we don't have one perfect Bible??? I do believe that God has preserved every word in the King James Bible (the Textus Receptus Greek and Masoretic Hebrew), and all other versions that originate from Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort's Alexandrian 1881 Greek manuscripts are corrupt.

Consider this my friend...

A REASONABLE CONCLUSION: For any Bible college to support multiple Hebrew and Greek manuscript sources (which you would have to do, to support dozens of English Bible versions), while contrarily professing to believe God has supernaturally preserved EVERY ONE OF HIS INSPIRED WORDS, speaks volumes as to their indifference, lack of conviction, lack of scholarship, hypocrisy and shameful spiritual condition.

To say that God has supernaturally preserved His inspired Words amidst hundreds of English Bible versions is IMPOSSIBLE, because the different versions often [109]drastically contradict each other doctrinally.

> "The King James Bible is the One they pick-on in religion classes. That's another proof it's the right One by the way. You can tell a lot about something by its enemies and critics." —Pastor Danny Castle, a quote from the needful sermon, [110]Procrastination: The Devil's Best Trick Either Jesus is the only "begotten" Son of God or not. The King James Bible says "BEGOTTEN" in John 3:16, but all the new fake Bible versions don't. They removed the word completely, thus perverting the truth. My friend, what I'm about to show you is 100 % PROOF that Satan is behind the New International Version. In the 1984 NIV, Matthew 21:42 changes Jesus from being the "head of the corner" to the "[111]CAPSTONE" (look at the top of the pyramid on back of a U.S. one dollar bill.

The All Seeing Eye of Lucifer is in the Capstone). Clearly, the 1984 NIV refers to the coming Antichrist, Alice Bailey's Christ (whom she mentions 666 times in her popular book, [112]The Externalisation Of The Hierarchy). The ancient occult mysteries and the New World Order are being revealed to mankind. Satan's kingdom of darkness is being brought to light, and the sinful world being prepared to embrace the coming Antichrist. A world of sin will receive the man of sin! It is not a coincidence that only in the past 100 years has Satan published literally HUNDREDS of English Bibles (and they're still coming).

Either people worshipped Jesus, or they merely knelt before Him. In Matthew 8:2 the King James Bible says a leper worshipped Jesus, but the new Devil's Bible versions merely say he knelt before Jesus. You can kneel before a king without worshipping him. Please only use the King James Bible and cry aloud against the counterfeit Westcott and Hort Bible versions which attack Christ's deity, remove the Godhead and diminish Jesus' preeminence.

> "Everything born is born dying... Death is inevitable... The length of your life depends on how much you fight the inevitable death... The day will come when Hyles-Anderson College will be liberal. The day will come when this Bible is not believed in Hyles-Anderson College, if the Lord tarries... The day will come when this church will turn." —Pastor Jack Hyles, from the timeless sermon, "[113]The Church First"

I think there is a direct correlation between caring about the truth as Christians, and caring about anything. I mean, you either care or you don't. [114]Bob Jones University doesn't care. Sadly, neither does Hyles-Anderson College. If they cared, they'd return to their former accurate position at the First Baptist Church Of Hammond that the King James Bible is inspired today. Dr. Hyles himself said a church is not a real church if they deny the inspiration of the Bible. If you don't have an inspired Bible, you don't have God's preserved Words! If it's not preserved, it's not inspired! [115]THE KING JAMES BIBLE IS NOT ONLY THE BEST BIBLE, IT IS THE ONLY BIBLE! (Dr. Jack Hyles). I am tired of Bible colleges claiming that they use only the King James Bible. Why don't they tell the whole story? Why don't they tell everyone that they don't believe the King James Bible is verbally inspired Word-for-Word?

> "Don't come to me with your stinkin' 'only the original is inspired'! You're not intellectual... you're retarded!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, " [116]Keep your Stinkin' Feet Out of My Drinking Water " (1998 Wednesday night Bible study)

Pastor Martin R. DeHaan (1891-1965) saw the Devil's hand at work in the insane modern Bible translation movement...

> "Be on guard against any tampering with the Word, whether disguised as a search for truth, or a scholarly attempt at apparently hidden meanings; and beware of the confusion created by the senseless rash of new versions, translations, editions, and improvements upon the tried and tested Bible of our fathers and grandfathers." —[117]Dr. M.R. DeHaan, from the excellent book, THE TABERNACLE, p. 101

Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) saw the Devil's hand at work in the modern Bible perversions...

> "Can't you see what the Devil is seeking to do to our people today? Modernists and infidels have taken over the chore of rewriting the Bible, and say—he goes ahead to say that—'We have written a book that everybody can understand.' Dear friend, that's the most stupid statement a man could ever make! Nobody has ever understood all of God or all of God's Word!" —Brother Lester Roloff, a wonderful quote from the MP3 sermon titled, "[118] 'THE LIVING BIBLE' EXPOSED!"

Pastor Danny Castle wisely said:

> "The Devil will put just enough truth, mixed-in with the lie, to get you messed up!" —Pastor Danny Castle (a quote from the sermon, "[119]You Can't Trust Your Feelings! | [120]MP3")

That is why each Bible version is just a little different than the next, deceiving the churches everywhere! I thank God for the unchanging King James Bible, which has stood the test of time over the centuries. Before the year 1881 no one questioned the Word of God; but when Westcott and Hort produced their text, The New Testament In The Original Greek, upon which all of the modern corrupt Bible versions are based, the Devil succeeded in tricking the churches. Instead of saying, "THUS SAITH THE LORD" in the inspired King James Bible, now all of the Bible versions compel everyone to ask, "HATH GOD SAID?"

> "Only one life, 'twill soon be past,
> Only what's done for Christ will last.

4.10.13 Immature Pastors Who Don’t Love People (2023-10-14 00:50)

Galatians 6:1-3, “

Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

Bear ye one another’s burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

I am saddened by pastors I see who fail to love people. I know the personal pain of being shunned from churches for telling the truth. When I attended the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for a year in 2013-2014, I saw much heresy in the church. God convicting my heart to help them. So with my own money I purchased several hundred dollars worth of books and gave them to the church pastors. They were greatly offended. They called me into the church office to scold me, falsely accusing me of causing confusion and divisiveness in the church, and I was forced out of my church family. The truth is that they are already a confused house, using dozens of different Bible revisions. They couldn't have cared less about right doctrine, all they care about is the love of money (their jobs). I left Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and I sadly never heard from anybody again.

Heavy, heavy hang God's judgment upon pastors' Marty Herron, Joe Hensen, Jared Baldwin and Gary Walton, to name the main culprits. They have much blood on their hands for preaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, for promoting the Devil's Bibles, for preaching a misunderstanding of repentance (aka, the turn from your sin heresy). 2nd John 1:11, " For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds. "

Then when I moved from Guam to Pensacola in 2021, I chose to attend Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). To my horror, I found out quickly that PCC and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam are best of buddies in spiritual crime. Pastor Jeff Redlin showed his ugly colors immediately, insulting me from the first email I sent to him. I was kind and very respectful to him, but he was rude, disrespectful and woefully lacking in love or compassion for me as a human being. He resented that I mentioned that I am a graduate of Hyles-Anderson College. I learned quickly how immature Jeff Redlin is as a pastor and man.

Sadly, just like Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, I was soon banned from attending Campus Church. I left Campus Church in frustration in late 2021. In 2022 I missed the friends that I had made at Campus Church. So in the summer of 2022 I mailed three letters to Campus Church and PCC, apologizing for criticizing them and asking if I could please come back to church. They refused and couldn't have cared less about me as a human being. They ignored me for six weeks. Finally, I received a cruel email from Pastor Redlin forbidding me from returning to Campus Church, refusing to forgive me, so we have been enemies ever since. God knows that PCC are the one's who refuse to forgive their Christian brother.

Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

Sadly, that is not what many pastors do. If the pastors of Campus Church were right with God, they would beg me to come back to church

Ironically, I heard a local Baptist Baptist say in a helpful sermon that when people leave the church, we should beg them to come back. Yet that very same pastor has shunned a man from attending church. What was his offense? He told the pastor the truth, that he ought to be warning his church members about the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions. The immature pastor became offended and told him where the door was, and that he could leave and not come back. The man left in anger, also being immature. This type of fighting in churches grieves the great heart of God. I would love for nothing more than to reconcile with the PCC family, but they are too shallow and immature to love me enough to welcome me back. I did apologize three times to them at Campus Church and PCC. They selectively pick and choose who is welcome and who is not at their so-called "church." But that is not a church, it is a religious cult, where only select members can attend. Shame on PCC's pastors and leaders!!! I am not the hypocrite, they are, because they are the one's who refuse to reconcile with me.

Pastors should walk head and shoulders above the church members, by setting an example of Christ's unconditional love, forgiveness and a sincere willingness to reconcile with disgruntled church members. It saddens me to see pastors behaving no better than the heathen world. When a pastor tells a man that he cannot attend church anymore, those are inflammatory fighting words. Instead of trying to calm the man and befriend him with Christ's love, the pastor I mentioned has a bad attitude. He has the poor attitude that, "There's the door, leave."

And may I kindly say, shame on any pastor who refuses to contend for the faith. That is one of the biggest problems at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) today, they refuse to fight the good fight of faith. They refuse to warn people about using the Devil's Bibles. They refuse to warn people about the Devil's counterfeit Gospel of Lordship Salvation. They refuse to suffer reproach for Christ. They refuse to be put outside the gate with Jesus. Jesus has always been outside the gate!!! PCC wants to merely Sit On The Premises instead of faithfully Standing On The Promises. PCC represents everything wrong with Bible colleges and churches today, prioritizing making money over right doctrine.

America is dying today for Christian pastors and churches to love people.

> "Let emotion in. Let tears in. You're missing life. Let love in! America's dying for a lack of love and compassion! And our churches are dying..." —Dr. Jack Hyles, "[1]Take Your Shield Down"

> "The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they've been [2]trained by people that have never built churches, and [3]they have no compassion." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[4]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard"

No mediocre pastor will ever grow to become a godly pastor, until he first acquires the great heart of God. We ought to beg fallen people to come back to church. I realize that some men are difficult, but so was the Apostle Peter. Peter was impetuous, swinging his sword first and asking questions latter. When soldiers came to arrest Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane, Peter swung his sword and cut off the ear of Malchus, the high priest's servant.

Jesus picked up the man's ear and miraculously reattached it, as only God can do. Peter was quick to cause trouble, a hot head. How sad it is that our dear Savior had patience with Peter, but many of today's pastors have zero patience with difficult people? Pastors are under-shepherds, feeding Jesus' sheep in His absence. A pastor should love everybody and set an example of seeking reconciliation and restoration with difficult people, not shun them.

What saith the Scripture? Matthew 5:23-24, " Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee; Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift." The Bible teaches that if your Christian brother is offended and upset with you. YOU have the responsibility and burden to go to him to seek reconciliation. This is why I know that Pastor Jeff Redlin and PCC's leaders are not right with God, because I have ought against them but they all refuse to reconcile with me. I have already gone to them and apologized in 2022, but biblically they should have first come to me, since I have ought against them. Sadly, PCC has sinfully decided to live by their own book, selectively picking and choosing which parts of the Holy Bible they want to obey, and ignoring the rest.

God's Holy Spirit power and blessing will not come down from Heaven upon a church, if their pastor is biased against some people, but favors for others. That type of pastor is a respecter of persons. When I handed THE TRUTH to the incompetent pastors of the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, they were filled with hubris, arrogance and resentment for me, offended that I would dare to question there doctrine and use of 24 different Bible versions. I know that on Judgment Day I will be vindicated by God, because I was faithful to "rebuke them sharply" that they might be sound in the faith (Titus 1:13b).

I love pastors, God knows my heart. God also knows that I have attended numerous churches where I kept my opinions to myself, lest the pastor show me the door. I cannot help a pastor who doesn't want my help as a fellow preacher. Dr. Jack Hyles wisely said: "Unsought advice is seldom taken and usually resented." Brother Hyles sure was right about that!

I see struggling Baptist churches that are hardly growing, because the pastor doesn't believe in door-to-door soulwinning (Acts 20:20). Soulwinning builds churches! Prayer strengthens churches. Granted, no pastor is perfect, and it is wrong to expect any pastor to be perfect. That is one reason why I have learned to just stay quiet in the churches I attend, trusting God to work in the pastor's heart. All I can do is pray and hope that God will convict a pastor about the changes which need to be made in his life. It is tragic that nearly all pastors today are stuck in their comfort zone. If we would change the future, we must disturb the present.

No one can make a pastor love everybody. Only God can do that. The Bible teaches in 1st Corinthians 13:1-8 that all the greatest preaching, and the highest degree of faith, and understanding all mysteries and prophecy, are totally meaningless without LOVE. People just want to be loved. That man whom the local Baptist pastor refuses to allow to come back to church, made the tragic statement recently: "Nobody cares about me." Well, he's wrong, because I sure do care about him, perhaps the only one. The last time I saw that hurting man I told him that I loved him with Christ's love. He needed to hear that, but not mostly from me; He needed to hear it from his former pastor, but his pastor is too immature to love him because he is difficult, opinionated and a bit high strung emotionally.

By God's grace, I preach against the cults at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and Bob Jones University (BJU). If people aren't shown the reality of what's going on, nothing will ever change. I humbly think people need to see this. That is why I preach against Pensacola Christian College (PCC) often, because Christians need to know what is going on there (and not going on). PCC is as useless spiritually today as tits on a bore pig. PCC's superficial phony type of shallow Christianity is what is sending this world to Hell. PCC's unofficial motto is: "Do what I say, not what I do." PCC makes God vomit, and all the dead churches like Campus Church at PCC who follow their pernicious ways. PCC is doing woeful harm by [5]wickedly bidding Godspeed to infidel Ken Ham.

May any pastor reading this decide to seek to have the great heart of God toward people, without which no man should be a pastor. Who am I? I am a nobody. Galatians 6:2-3, " Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself." What a beautiful Scripture!!! To love one another is to fulfill the law of Christ. Do you know what that means friend?

Galatians 5:14, "

For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

" All of the Old Testament law is fulfilled when we love others.

Of course, that is not how we get saved, so we can go to Heaven. Jesus Christ perfectly fulfilled the law, living a perfect sinless life while on earth.

Romans 10:3-4, " For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." Concerning the new birth, all of the law is fulfilled by one's childlike faith (trust) in Jesus Christ. Committing even one sin is enough to keep a man out of Heaven. The only other place to go is Hell, to be punished for sin. But Jesus paid our sin debt through Calvary's cross, by the precious blood that He shed.

And then after a lost sinner trusts Christ to be saved, God desires for us to keep the law; not to be saved, but because we are saved. God simplified all of His commandments for His redeemed children, which is to LOVE—to love God with all our heart, mind and soul; and to love thy neighbour as our self. Why don't pastors obey this commandment from God? People just want to be loved.

4.10.14 Bride And Gloom (2023-10-17 12:42)

Ephesians 5:21-28, "Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body. Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself."

I listened to a wonderful sermon today by Pastor Donald R. Hubbard (1930-2020). The sermon is titled: 'BRIDE AND GLOOM.'

Description: The role of a mother is one of the most important in the family. God has designed the woman to effectively perform her role in the home as God strengthens and helps her. Many brides say marriage is filled with gloom. But God has designed the institution of marriage as one of teamwork and satisfaction. The listener will see what the Bible says about love and marriage for the woman.

- [1] Message Number 1 - Bride and Gloom — Donald Hubbard
- [2]Message Number 2 - Bride and Gloom — Donald Hubbard

If you are married or planning on getting married, I sincerely hope that you will take the time to listen to these life transforming Bible sermons by Pastor Hubbard. Sadly, marriage are failing at an alarming rate in America today. Wicked legislatures, judges and greedy lawyers have made it extremely easy to bail out when the going gets tough in one's marriage, and just quit one's marriage vows. I love that in the Philippines there are no divorce courts, because divorce is illegal there. Would to God that it were so in the United States and its territories.

Divorce is always a sin. There are no grounds for divorce. Should a spouse who is being abused leave? Yes, if it is serious abuse. There are fools today who file for divorce if their spouse calls them a name. That is ungodly. When you agreed to get married, you promised to stay together no matter what. I don't blame some people for leaving their abusive spouse, but divorce ought never be an option. The Lord was willing to endure the harsh brutality, shame and cruel humility of the cross because He loves us, yet most people aren't even willing to tolerate their spouse's flaws. No marriage is perfect.

Albeit, having said that, if every married couple will listen to this 2-part helpful sermon by Pastor Donald Hubbard, who went to Heaven to be with Jesus in 2020, it will do miracles to improve or even save your marriage dear friend. Thank you for reading my blogs. I love you unconditionally with Christ's love, whoever you may be. Jesus is precious!!!

4.10.15 The Damnable Lordship Salvation Of 'UNSHACKLED' Radio (2023-10-18 12:15)

I drop in once in a while to listen to the latest "UNSHACKED" radio program, which has been produced by Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago since 1950. Throughout the 1970's when I was a boy, my Mom used to play the piano at Pacific Garden Mission, and my Dad would preach, and I would quote a Bible verse. My Mom was friends with Lucille who played the organ on all their UNSHACKLED episodes back then.

There was a tavern next to the old mission, whose address was literally 666 S. State street. The tavern called itself: "THE 666 LOUNGE." You couldn't make this stuff up! I remember seeing a long beer truck one day in front of the mission, unloading booze for the tavern next door, and I read the message on the side of the semi-truck: "Pure brewed from God's country." What irony!

Anyway, today I [1]listened to the latest UNSHACKLED episode 3,796 about Vernon Goff. I wanted to vomit at the end when the mission narrator presented his Satanic counterfeit plan of salvation. Nowhere in his presentation did the man even mention Jesus' death on the cross, burial or bodily resurrection (which three things comprise "the Gospel"). The narrator starts off okay by acknowledging that salvation is a "gift" and that we are not saved by our own goodness, but then he goes horribly astray by requiring you to "believe in Him as Lord" and then to "begin the process of completely submitting yourself to the one true King." What you are about to hear is: [2]The Damnable Heresy Of Lordship Salvation.

[3]Pilgrim's Progress Scene - Cast Into Hell From Heaven's Gates

When the unsaved Philippian jailer asked Paul and Silas in Acts 16:30b, "□□□□, □□□□ □□□□ □ □□ □□ □□ □□□□□?," their simple answer in verse 31b was to, "□□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□□ □□□□□□, □□□ □□□□ □□□□□ □□ □□□□□." They simply told the man to BELIEVE on the "Lord Jesus Christ," not to believe in Him "as Lord." There is a BIG difference.

They didn't tell the jailer to "begin the process of completely submitting yourself to the one true King." Getting saved is NOT a process, it is an immediate new birth. Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible are we taught to completely submit our self to Jesus as the one true King to get to Heaven. You simply need to trust Jesus as your Savior to be saved—not your King, not your Lord, not your Friend, not your Buddy, not your Leader—but your Saviour. □□□□ □:□□-□□, "□□□ □□ □□□□ □□ □□□□□□□□ □□□, □□ □□□□ □□□□ □□ □□□□□ □□ □□□□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□, □□□□ □□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□: □□□□□ □□□□ □□□□, □□□ □□ □□□□□, □□□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□, □□□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□, □□□ □□ □□□."

These are not mere embellishments of the Gospel, they are damnable heresies which cannot produce the new birth in Christ. The trash that Pacific Garden Mission is preaching is another gospel accursed by God (Galatians 1:6-9). Former PGM director Harry Saulnier (1902-1990) would have a heart attack today if he came back from Heaven and saw the demonic garbage that they are teaching people.

God authored the entire Gospel of John for one specific purpose, which according to John 20:31 is to convince the reader that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, the Christ, and that by BELIEVING you will be saved. The Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract. Nowhere in John will you find any teaching that you must "believe in Him as Lord" to be saved. Nor will you find anything in John which says to "begin the process of completely submitting yourself to the one true King." I HATE the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, because it robs Christ of His due credit for the work of redemption, and instead places part of the burden of remedying sin upon the sinner's shoulder, demanding that he or she amend their way to get to Heaven, which is 100 % works.

The truth is that you CAN get saved by simple childlike faith (trust) in the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ (1st Corinthians 15:1-6), and continue living like the Devil committing sin and still be 100 % assured of Heaven and eternal life. What saith the Scripture? □□□□□□ □:□, "□□□□ □□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□? □□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□□ □□ □□□, □□□□ □□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□?" God doesn't want us to continue living in flagrant sin (2nd Timothy 2:19), and if we do there will be chastisement and consequences at some point (Hebrews 12:6-8); but nothing we could ever do, or fail to do as a believer, could separate us from God's free gift of eternal life, which is obtained by FAITH ALONE. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. Once Saved, Always Saved (OSAS).

Here is another heretical quote from UNSHACKLED...

> "I repented of all my sins, all my past! And I believed in Jesus, to be the leader of my life!" —[4]Doug Ehrhardt (Program #3613 - Aired in 2020)

That is a counterfeit gospel! That is not what the inspired Word of God teaches. Sadly, religious reprobates have taken control over Pacific Garden Mission, who are not saved. Harry Saulnier NEVER would have allowed this garbage theology to be taught on 'Unshackled.' No one has ever repented of all their sins! You cannot show me anywhere in the Scripture that requires a person to repent from their sins, or turn from their sins, let alone "all my sins" to be saved. Tragically, PGM and UNSHACKLED are pulling on the same rope as the Devil.

Furthermore, nowhere does the inspired King James Bible tell us to believe in Jesus “to be the leader of my life.” You need to by faith receive Jesus as your personal Savior, not your Leader. The never-ended rash of Satan’s new counterfeit plans of salvation are getting weirder and stranger every day.

RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

4.10.16 The True Nature Of Satanism (2023-10-19 21:37)

Acts 26:18, “

To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

Most people think of Satanism as involving esoteric cults, pentagrams, lit candles and some mysterious beliefs; but Satanism is really just the reversal of the natural and God’s divine order. The natural order is masculinity and femininity. The reason why Satanists want to mess up gender is to destroy marriage and the family—a longtime communist goal, to depopulate the planet. They don’t want us to have families, because families are often raised up to have family values instead of adhering to the Satanic values preached by the ungodly media, illuminati and government, which are the enemy of the New World Order.

There is a relentless attack today against the family. A child enrolled into the government’s public fool system can expect to be attacked to challenge their gender identify. Satanism strives to turn God’s natural order on its ear. There is an ongoing revolution today by Satanists to invert God’s program, perverting everything, reversing the order of things.

The Insane Woke Culture is Satanism

We could talk for days about this topic. I read in the news today about a woman who spent $12,000 to have devil horns surgically implanted into her head, and to have piercings made in her face. She [not theirs or them] insists that her mental health has never been better. Do you agree? ...

The world is becoming stranger and more evil with each and every passing day. I reject (and I also strongly encourage you to reject) the ungodly woke nonsense that is rearing its ugly head everywhere nowadays. In the following information that I found at DailyMail.com, they intentionally avoid using the pronoun her, instead referring to Jessy as “theirs” and “them.” She calls herself “nonbinary” (neither female or male). This is how wacky the United States has become. ...

> A Kansas blogger who has battled eating disorders claims weightlifting and extreme body modifications have helped them cope with trauma and ’defeat’ their eating disorder.
> Jessy Kirkpatrick, 27, who is nonbinary and uses the pronouns they/them, had a healthy relationship with food as a child.
>
> However, in their late teens, they began suffering from anorexia, which they believe stems from severe trauma they experienced as a child.
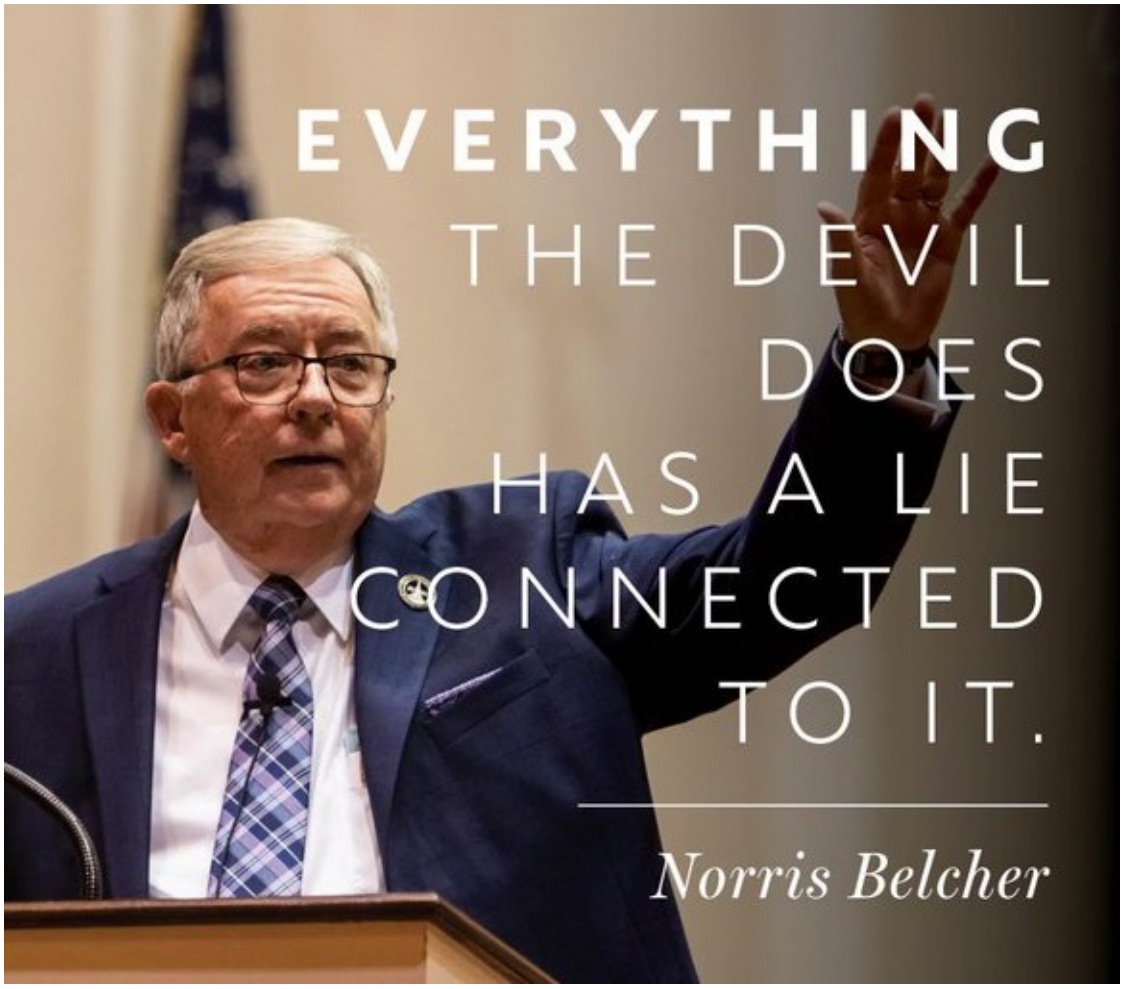
> Kirkpatrick turned to modifications to heal their mental health. The extreme body modifications include a stretched septum - the structure separating the right and left nostrils - multiple lip piercings, a stretched tongue, a stretched lip, stretched nostrils and silicone horn implants in the forehead that make them look like a devil. [2]SOURCE

Isn’t that crazy? Dear reader, the bizarre woke culture is rooted in Satanism, which tries to turn everything in God’s natural order on its ear. Please don’t go along with that insanity.

“Insanity because we’re in sin!” —Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982), “ [3]Steps In The Degeneration Of Our Nation ”



It was considered proper for men to maintain short hair for hundreds of years in the United States, but Satanism introduced the hippie culture in the 1960’s, and millions of young men grew long hippie hair. The drug-infested hippie culture of the 1960’s was no mere coincidence, it was intentionally created and nurtured by Satanists. The homosexual movement in the United States has been no mere coincidence, but has been deliberately implemented through Hollywood and the ungodly media. Today’s wicked LGBTQ and transgender culture have not developed by mere happenstance; this perversion has been deliberately created in the United States with funding from the government, promotion by the media and even support from many apostate pastors and churches. Go figure. Truth is stranger than fiction.

Satanists Want You To Be Your Own God

The Devil’s primary goal for your life is to hinder you from doing God’s will. Satanists have done their best to convince the masses of humanity that there is no God. The reason why is because they want you to become your own God, doing your own thing instead of obeying God’s commandments (Ecclesiastes 12:13). Satan has no will for your life, except to prevent you from fulfilling God’s will for your life.

So, instead of acknowledging God, they try to replace him. That is the whole reason for the Satanic lies of evolution, which have been used to indoctrinate children for the past century in public schools. Evolution is the most blatant fraud ever perpetrated upon humanity by Satanists.

Jesus said that the Devil is a liar. John 8:44-45, “Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.” The Devil is not a good guy, he is evil and bad. The true nature of Satanism is to lie, kill and destroy its victims (John 10:10).

Satan is behind the flood of corrupt Bible revisions into the churches today. The Devil is a beautiful liar. The Devil's big lie is that the inspired King James Bible is too hard to understand, and that we continually need a " new

Bible revision. Consequently, today's Bible's [5]pervert the true meaning of repentance to be saved, sending people to Hell.

The Devil turns everything on its head, confusing as many people as he can. Satan lies, that's all he does, he lies! The Devil has today's American children, and even gullible parents today, confused about their gender. It is insanity! The Devil makes people crazy. Our nation is in insanity today because of sin.

In major cities across the United States, we have seen and heard in the daily news about bold criminals [6]committing smash & grab theft of store merchandise, with impunity. I just heard in the news today that Target is closing down seven of their stores because of out of control shoplifting in Los Angeles, Seattle, Portland and other major cities. The ungodly liberal progressive politicians, judges and lawyers in these troubled cities are making it easy for criminals to get away with crime.

Ecclesiastes 8:11, “

Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

” The punishment doesn’t fit the crime anymore. In fact, there is no punishment oftentimes for criminals.

Dear reader, please don’t jump on the Devil’s bandwagon. Don’t support Satan’s LGBTQ wickedness. Don’t go along with Lucifer’s gender-bending insanity. Don’t use the Devil’s corrupt modern Bible PERversions. Please don’t fall for Satan’s falsehood of present-day manmade Israel, and the heresies of Zionism, and heretical dispensational Bible teaching.

Satanism Makes A God Of Sex

In his excellent eye-opening book, “Satan: Prince Of This World,” retired Navy Commander William Guy Carr (1895-1959) makes the following shocking revelation about the relationship between Satanism and immoral sex...

> “Lust is sexual desire outside the Natural Law of God. Therefore Christ Himself seems to have confirmed that Satan was lustful and is father of the Synagogue of Satan as those who are Satanists teach and believe. Satanists have always used sex-bribery and the depravities and perversions of sex to obtain control of men and women they wished to use to further the secret plans of their diabolical conspiracy. Satanism makes a God of sex. They worship the human body because of its sexual abilities. When men and women prove they are unyielding to all other forms of devilish temptation, they often fall as the result of becoming involved in illicit relationships and perversions. Did not David commit abominable sexual crimes, including incest?” [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [7]Satan: Prince Of This World, by Retired Canadian Navy Commander, William Guy Carr, p. 22

I highly recommend that you read William Guy Carr’s numerous books. Satanists teach that Satan had sex with Eve in the Garden of Eden. Satanist’s entire belief system is rooted in human debasing sex-perversion. Thus, Satanism and sex are inseparable. With this disturbing truth in mind from Cmdr. Carr, it will become obvious to you just how evil and dangerous the sensual, promiscuous and sexualizing music videos of Taylor Swift, Amy Grant, Miley Cyrus, Carrie Underwood, and hundreds of other Satanic servants are!

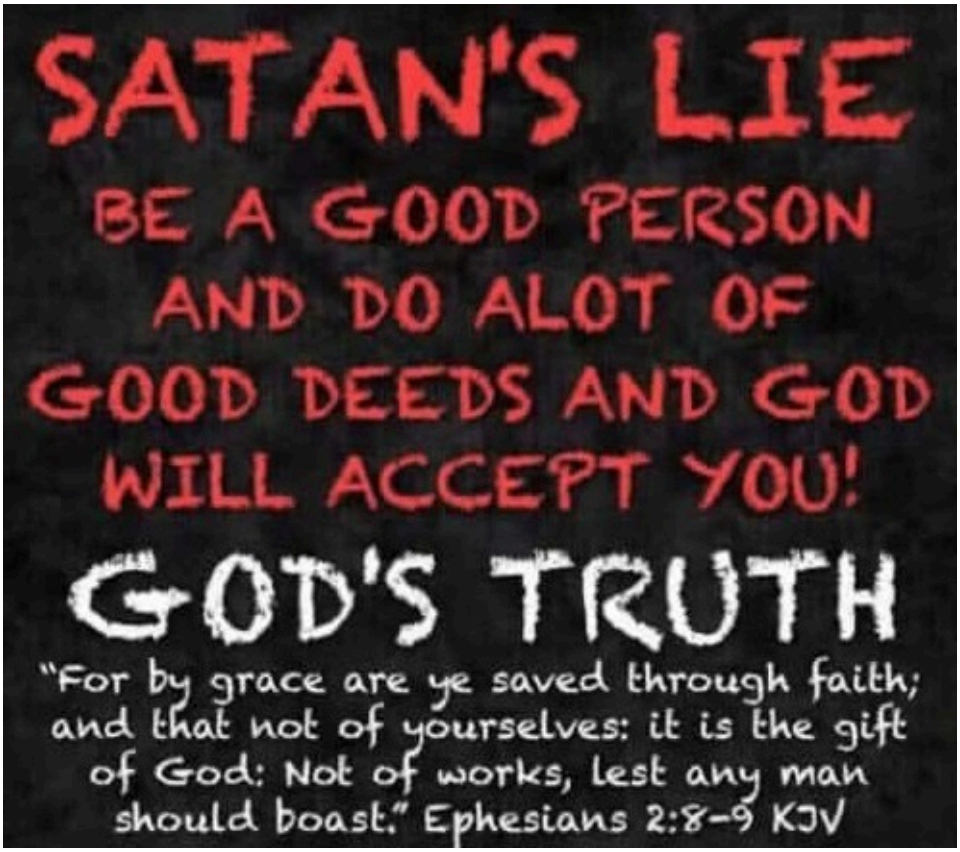
What saith the Scripture? Ecclesiastes 12:13, “Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.” Satanism does the exact opposite, it encourages you not to fear God; but rather, to commit sin and be your own God. Evidence of what I say can be seen in infamous Satanist, Aleister Crowley’s (1875-1947) motto: “

DO AS THOU WILT SHALL BE THE WHOLE OF THE LAW.”

I do fully agree with a great quote from Satanist, Anton LaVey (1930-1997), who said:

“It’s too bad that stupidity isn’t painful.” Yeah Buddy, ain’t it the truth. Sadly, I have no doubt that Aleister Crowley and Anton LaVey both died in their sins and went to Hell, because of their unbelief in Jesus Christ. That is so sad. Anton was stupid to reject Jesus as his personal Savior, yet he considered other people stupid. Isn’t that so much like us humans, to be guilty of the very thing that we accuse others of doing? LaVey himself said:

> "I’m one helluva liar. Most of my adult life, I’ve been accused of being a charlatan, a phony, an impostor. I guess that makes me about as close to what the Devil’s supposed to be as anyone ... I lie constantly, incessantly." —Anton LaVey



Good point. Well made. LaVey’s popular claim that he was once a lion tamer is completely false. He never worked taming lions, nor did he work as a paranormal investigator. Just like the Devil, his children are liars. Jesus told the world that He is THE TRUTH (John 14:6b). Amen. The Devil’s greatest trick has been to convince the world that he doesn’t really exist, but anyone who believes the inspired Holy Bible knows that the Devil exists.

[8]Taylor Swift And Satanism

Satanism is everywhere we turn today, but very few people recognize it. The corrupt Bibles, manmade Zionism, liberal churches, open borders, counterfeit plan of Lordship Salvation, wrong repentance, ease of divorce, tattoo craze, an epidemic of drug abuse, LGBTQ movement, abortion, public nudity at beaches, gender identity confusion, disparaging of parental authority by Hollywood, adultery in Hollywood, hating preachers, delayed court cases, government support of ungodly agendas like abortion and unprovoked wars, and sexual perversion in society today is all a part of Satanism. There are many other things that I could also mention that are goals of Satanism.

These ungodly pastors today, like Marty Herron (incompetent vice president of Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Iowa) and Gary Walton (incompetent present pastor of the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam), who preach another gospel of Lordship Salvation, are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. They are far more deadly than Satanists like Anton LaVey and Aleister Crowley. The reason why is because frauds like Herron and Walton, and John MacArthur their mentor, all masquerade as ministers of righteousness deceiving the simple (2nd Corinthians 11:13-14).

Satanism is quite simple—the Devil is a murdering liar and deceiver, whose goal is to destroy everything he can, to thwart God’s plan for your life. Satan hates teenagers! He wants to ruin their lives as soon as possible to cause them a lifetime of heartache, misery, failure and pain. Satan always goes after the best! He loves to ruin the preacher, if he can. If the Devil can’t ruin a preacher, then he’ll raise up enemies to lie about the preacher, scrutinize his every fault, and nip at his heels to destroy his reputation. That is what the Devil does! That is what his children do! Revelation12:10, “And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.”

4.10.17 What Should Be A Christian's Attitude Toward Israel Today? (2023-10-21 12:32)

Romans 2:28-29, "For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God."

God chose Israel as the means by which to BLESS the world with the Word of God, the Savior, the Apostles, salvation, and Christianity itself. This is why the nation of Israel was precious in the eyes of God. However, the Bible plainly states that God is NO respecter of persons (Acts 10:34) and that there is NO difference between the Jew and the Gentile (Romans 10:12).

Christians are not obligated, nor expected to befriend the heathen nation of Israel today. Luke 21:24 plainly states... "And they [Jews] shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled."

This means, Biblically, that the Jews have NO GUARANTEE of possessing their homeland until the Second Coming of Jesus Christ, i.e., when all Gentile world power is destroyed by the "stone cut out without hands" (Daniel 2:34,35,44). The "Stone" will be the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ in Glory (Revelation 19:11,21). Christ-rejecting Jews are NOT God's people; but believing Arabs ARE God's people. Any Gentile who believes the Gospel (death, burial and resurrection) of Jesus Christ is saved and God's people according to Romans 11:1-2,19-23 and Galatians 3:26-29.

1st Kings 11:36, "And unto his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a light alway before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there." God punished Solomon for his idolatries by rending the kingdom away from his son, Rehoboam; nevertheless, God left one tribe (Judah) for Rehoboam to rule over for David's sake, who kept the commandments of the Lord. The smallest tribe, Benjamin, also remained with the throne of David in Jerusalem with Rehoboam. God was never loyal to idolatrous Jews. God gave the idolatrous 10 northern tribes of Israel into destruction to the Assyrians. Only a fool would teach that God's promise of blessings upon Abraham's seed in the Old Testament applies to wicked Christ-rejecting Jews.

Galatians 3:28-29, "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise." These Scriptures plainly teach that only those who are in Jesus Christ by faith are Abraham's seed according to promise. This is why nearly all Jews today reject the New Testament. It matters not whether you are Jew or Gentile, free or imprisoned, male or female... we are all one in Christ Jesus! Followers of Judaism openly reject Jesus as the Christ and are therefore of the Devil. God blesses those who do good unto those who are in Christ by faith. Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

The New Testament teaches that Christians are to focus on the heavenly Jerusalem, not the earthly one (John 4:21, Galatians 4:24-28, Hebrews 12:18-24). We are told in Hebrews 11:13-16 that even Abraham has no further interest in a restored Jewish state on earth, because he is in a much better place in Heaven. How foolish that so many believers today are choked by the cares and riches of this world (Luke 8:14), when they ought to be soulwinners preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ to this lost and sinful world.

Everything that God ever did through Israel was with one intent—to bring salvation to the human race. Thanks be to God for the precious redeeming literal blood of Jesus Christ that washes our sins away (1st Peter 1:18,19; Revelation 1:5).

Jack Bernstein states:

> The American people have been misled to believe that Jews are "God's Chosen People." This myth was started by a small group of Jews. A few Jewish leaders took excerpts from the Bible and interpreted them as "Chosen People." But, isn't it odd that it is not the religious Jews who claim to be "God's Chosen People." It is the atheistic non-believing Jews who claim that honor.

Leading the cry, "We are God’s Chosen People" are the Zionist/Marxist (Ashkenazi) Jews who for political purposes chose Judaism and who don’t have a drop of biblical Jewish blood in them.

SOURCE: [1]The Life of an American Jew in Racist Marxist Israel, written in 1985 by Jack Bernstein

I love Jewish people. The issues in this blog is not being Jewish, it is the fraud of manmade Zionism. What saith the Scripture? Romans 2:28-29, “For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.” A true Jew is a born-again Christian. This includes Gentiles according to Galatians 3:29. As believers we are all one in Jesus Christ. It matters not if you are male or female, bond or free, black or white, Jew or Gentile, rich or poor, healthy or sick, homosexual or straight. We are all sinners, each and every one. The only thing that makes any believer righteous is the precious blood of Jesus (1st Peter 1:18-19).

Good wants a good life for each of His children; whereas the Devil comes only to kill, steal and destroy, like he did to Adam and Eve.

4.10.18 Beware Of That Little Devil Brat Taylor Swift (2023-10-22 08:52)

Ephesians 4:17-19, "This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness."

This is so ungodly. Taylor Swift is of the Devil. In this terrible YouTube video titled, '[1]You Need To Calm Down,' Miss Taylor Swift is attempting to lessen the severity of the awful sin of homosexuality. No God-fearing saint will ever "calm down" about the LGBTQ perversion which the Devil has pushed on American culture. To clarify, God hates sin but He loved people, which is why He sent His only begotten Son to die on a cross to pay for our sins. Jesus was crucified, buried and bodily risen three days later. That is the Gospel, the Good News, by which anyone who BELIEVES IT is saved.

The last thing Christians should do in 2023 is calm down! We need to get upset more than ever. I don't mean to become violent; but rather, to speak up for God.

Psalms 94:16, " Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity? " Will you stand up dear reader? Will you take a stand for the Lord against the wickedness of our generation? I am standing. By God's grace, I started my website ministry back in 2002. The internet has changed quite a bit since back then. One big change has been the transition from full desktop sized computers to mobile devices, such as cell phones and I-pads. As of 2023, at least half of all my website visitors are accessing my ministry with mobile devices. So I have been diligently working night and day to add code to each webpage to make them mobile friendly. I still have a lot of work to do.

Shame on Taylor Swift for making a mockery of sin. Homosexuality is not okay! It is against natural, against God's commandments, and it is a sin that brings the judgment of God according to Romans 1;24-32. God will not be mocked. Taylor Swift will grow old and turn to dust, just like all of us. Then she will give account to God for promoting sin and making fun of the Bible preachers like me who expose sin (Hebrews 9;27). Taylor Swift is an ungodly brat. Her hundreds of millions of dollars won't be able to buy any lawyers to rescue her from the imminent judgment of God.

Kindly said, woe unto Taylor Swift and her raunchy music videos, foul lyrics and pro-homosexual propaganda in her videos. She is working to destroy the lives of young people.

In another video by Taylor Swift, she does something very filthy and despicable, something that should anger every parent. Sadly, parents today don't care, or don't know. The video is titled, "Wildest Dreams"...

" Wildest Dreams "

Here is what you just saw if you watched the video (I added my own comments to expose this evil)…

What do you think about that? Do you think young teenagers should be seeing this kind of sexual filth on YouTube? If I found it as a 56 year old man, do you think kids (who notice everything) are going to miss it? Not a chance dear friend, not a chance. I am very grateful to Google and YouTube for the opportunity to upload videos for free, and to write blogs. Albeit, it offends me that YouTube regularly removes sermon videos by fundamentalist Bible preachers, while allowing filth like this from Taylor Swift to remain.

I love writing. I am not very good at giving speeches or audible sermons, but I am good at writing, because I have time to compose my thoughts. Dear reader, if you are not upset, you are not paying attention! I am angry about this filth. Taylor Swift is evil. If you don't see that, it is only because you are not right with God. Taylor Swift's raunchy videos are blatant evil. I mean, who does this? Who does the despicable filthy act that Taylor Swift is doing in this video? Why would she do that? What is the purpose? I'll tell you why, because Taylor Swift's Satanist handlers want to corrupt our children's souls. No 13 year old teenager should be subjected to sexual filth like this.

Dear reader, let me ask you a question. What if a local pastor made a video like this? What if for just one second in his sermon video on YouTube, a scene flashed of him masturbating? The ungodly news media would have a hey day! Every godly and wicked organization alike in the United States would go after him, and rightfully so. Parents everywhere would be outraged. The police would want to interrogate the pastor, concerned about his lewd behavior. Yet when Taylor Swift does it at 2:12 minutes in her filthy “ Wildest Dreams” music video, no one cares. Why is that? The Bible tells us in John 15:19,

“If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.” Now you know the reason dear friend.

It saddens me that YouTube censors and removes the sermons of pastors who preach biblically against the sin of homosexuality. My friend, Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023), received his second strike from YouTube last year, for biblically preaching against the sin of homosexuality, and upholding capital punishment for such wickedness. In 1962, homosexuality was a punishable crime in all 50 states in our country. God hasn’t changed (Malachi 3:6; Hebrews 13:8). The Holy Bible hasn’t changed (Matthew 5:18). THE WORLD HAS CHANGED.

Any mention of the truthful content of Leviticus 20:13 from the inspired Holy Bible guarantees having your sermon video removed from YouTube, deemed as “hate speech.” Who would have thought that the time would come, when preaching the inspired Word of God is now deemed hate speech? How sad and tragic. In Canada preachers have been arrested and imprisoned for preaching to guide young people away from a deathstyle of homosexuality. If this makes me guilty of hate speech, then so be it, but my preaching WILL BE avenged in eternity, so says the Word of God.

This ungodly despicable filth by Taylor Swift is allowed on YouTube, aimed at young kids and teenagers (especially girls). If I, being a dirty sinner like you, see this utter hypocrisy, do you think our holy God and Creator hasn’t seen it? God has seen it, I assure you dear reader. I am sick and tired of Big Tech companies silencing the opinions of God-fearing Christians, while giving an open platform for kooks, quacks and queers to voice their ungodly evil filth. Thankfully, all the silencing in the world of the saints cannot silence God, nor allow the wicked to escape God’s fiery judgment.

I am alarmed friend. I am alarmed when [3]I read today that churches are inviting Taylor Swift to speak to their congregations! In this video titled, “betty,” she sings the foul lyrics at 0:59 minutes: “[4]Go fu@k myself,” which you can hear for yourself. Is this the kind of language that you want your children to hear and learn from Taylor Swift? Sadly, such shameful language has become commonly accepted in the United States, but it ought not be. I speak this to our shame as a people and culture. There was a time in America 75 years ago when men were careful not to cuss or talk dirty in the presence of a woman, but today women cuss and talk dirty everywhere they go. We have lost our good moral values as a society!

I have shown you how despicable Taylor Swift really is. Please understand that I do not hate anybody. I love people, which is why I make a fuss; but it is not okay to become a homosexual, which the Bible rightly calls a

Sodomite

(because of the judgment which befell the Old Testament city of Sodom as an example of eternal damnation for the wicked). Jude 1:7,

"Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire." The consequences of all sin is death (Romans 6:23). This includes the "second death" (Revelation 21:8). Thankfully, there is a sure way of escape through faith in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:26).

Jesus is precious!!!

Let every parent shelter their child from the ungodly influence of Taylor Swift, who is no friend of God, truth or righteousness. I could show you much more of her raunch and filth, but there is no need, because in this humble blog I have already shown you enough to be shocked. Our children need positive moral heroes, not filthy sodomite-promoting reprobates. That is not hate speech, it is THE TRUTH. Taylor Swift is pulling on the same rope as the Devil, corrupting our youth with her filthy. She also has a problem keeping her clothes on.

In her shameful video,

' [5]You Need To Calm Down ,' Taylor Swift is behaving as a lesbian, ogling another female. The Bible says fools make a mock at sin. Proverbs 14:9, "

Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour.

" Years ago, Late Night Host Conan O'Brien mocked God [6]by singing that he wants to go to Hell when he dies. Sadly, that is exactly where Conan is going unless he repents of his unbelief and trusts Jesus Christ. It is a very horrible and wicked thing to mock sin, making light of the seriousness of committing sin. Taylor Swift wants everyone to "calm down" about the sin of homosexuality, effeminacy and transgenderism; but God has not calmed down and won't, because He is holy. Psalms 97:10, " Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked."

Perhaps you are a backslidden believer, the same as Lot in the Old Testament. Yet, Lot was vexed in his soul with the unrighteous deeds of the wicked. 2nd Peter 2:7-8, "And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked: (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)" If you are a born-again believer, then in your heart of hearts you despise and loathe the wickedness of America today.

I don't know about you friend, but as a redeemed child of God my soul burns with anger against the wickedness of our American society today. I hate all the public nudity wherever there is water. I hate our perverse culture of fornication and adultery. Internet dating sites commonly make provision for adulterous couples (aka, swingers). It is evil, no matter if a couple agrees to have an open marriage. It is of Sodom and Gomorrha! I hate the greed that we see in every business today, forcing gratuity and then pressuring customers for a tip on top of that. It didn't used to be that way 50 years ago! I absolutely hate forced gratuity!!!

I hate our crooked treasonous federal government, who are the biggest criminals and threat to our nation's sovereignty. They had no right to allow over 60,000,000 illegal aliens to flood into our country since the 1970's. It is treason!!! OUR government has no right to give OUR money to Israel and a slew of other foreign nations, without OUR permission. Voting is a big waste of time, because both Democratic and Republican parties only allow corrupt blackmailable candidates to run for office. They give us a choice of criminal A or criminal B. The answer is not the Donkey or the Elephant, but the LAMB!!! John 1:29, " The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

Taylor Swift has so many millions of loyal fans that [7]she is now considered her own church, or "cult" better said. It is the sin of idolatry! Taylor Swift does not give glory to the holy God of the Holy Bible (Daniel 5:23). Instead, she glorifies sin, wickedly bidding Godspeed to LGBTQ evildoers. There is no middle ground dear reader, you must choose up sides in this conflict. James 4:4, "Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God." Taylor Swift is a friend of the world. She is the world!

> 'The world' includes the mass of humanity that is alienated from God and therefore hostile to the cause of Christ. It involves worldly affairs, earthly things, riches, pleasures, and pursuits that are shallow, frail, and fleeting. These things stir desire, draw us away from God, and are obstacles to the cause of Christ. The divorced or torn relationships between Heaven and earth, between God and His creatures, finds its expression in the term 'the world."' —Pastor Edward M. Bounds (1835-1913), [8]"Guide To Spiritual Warfare"

Dear reader, you must make a decision. You must choose to either side with the eternally inspired Word of God, or side with the Satanic LGBTQ crowd and their rebellion against a holy God. Taylor Swift has already chosen to serve sin and Satan. She has "sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the Lord" (1st Kings 21:20b). Whom will you choose to serve dear reader, God or the world? Joshua 24:15, "

And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

4.10.19 The Biggest Problem Is People Who Don't Care (2023-10-22 14:32)

Matthew 9:36, " But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd."

Matthew 14:14, " And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick."

Matthew 15:32, " Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way."

One thing that I love about our dear Savior is that He cared about everyone and showed compassion on others. Sadly, ninety-nine percent of religious leaders and church pastors today have zero compassion for hurting people. I am speaking of Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and there cold-hearted leaders and pastors at Campus Church. Dr. Jack Hyles said it well:

> "The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they've been [1]trained by people that have never built churches, and [2]they have no compassion." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[3]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard"

Pastor Hyles is so right! The famous man Mahatma Gandhi once became curious about the Christian faith, so he tried to visit a Christian church. The men in the church were abusive and forbade Mahatma from entering into the church building. His feet never tried to enter a Christian church again. Oh, how professed Christians are often Jesus' worst enemies!

> "I'd be a Christian if it were not for the Christians." —Mahatma Gandhi

I recently heard these powerful sermon truths from Dr. Thomas Cucuzza...

> "The closer the counterfeit is to the real thing, the more people will be deceived into having a false hope." —Pastor Thomas M. Cucuzza, "[4]Important Truths Satan Does Not Want You to Know"
> "The Devil is doing his greatest work behind pulpits. [I] hate to say it, but that's the truth; because people have the presupposition that when you come to church, and somebody gets up to speak, that person is speaking truth. That's the way we've been raised." —Pastor Thomas M. Cucuzza, "[5]Important Truths Satan Does Not Want You to Know"

I could testify for hours if asked, about the mistreatment I have suffered at the cruel hands of pastors from both the Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and Bob Jones University (BJU) cults. I read this good quote today. ...

> "The Satanic message for this age will be reformation and self-development, while the message of God is regeneration by the power of the spirit." —Lewis Sperry Chafer

[6]BJU and [7]PCC are both guilty of teaching reformation for salvation. You get saved by repenting of your UNBELIEF, not turning away from your SINNING. BJU and PCC both have it wrong! Sadly, they don't care! I have preached against both of them, to no avail. I have personally spoken to and warned their pastors about their false teachings, to no avail. The stench of PCC's and BJU's hubris and cocky arrogance reaches to the pearly gates of Heaven. I am just a humble broken sinner—a hurting lonely divorced man—a redeemed child of God with a voice for God. I may not be much in this temporary world, but I am nonetheless A VOICE in cyberspace.

The biggest problem in the world today is uncaring people. Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001) used to wisely say: "The most important job is the one that doesn't get done." S very true!

Sadly, nearly every pastor and church layman today uses, promotes, sanctions and tolerates the Devil's plethora of corrupt Bible revisions. In fact, they couldn't care less about examining the matter to see if the new Bible revisions are corrupt (and they sure are corrupt). If you try to reason with the average Baptist pastor today, by trying to convince him of a pastor's solemn duty to warn people about the Devil's Bible versions, that pastor will resent your help and show you the exit door to his church. It certainly is not God's church, because in a true New Testament church the truth is welcomed, not shunned. The Word of God is truth (John 17:17).

Our government leaders don't care all too often. I have suffered in horrible chronic neck pain since 1992, when I was rear-ended by a church bus. Then I fell down a mailslide in 2004, which worsened my neck injury. I have what is medically called: "Cervical Degenerative Disk Disease." I suffer in constant pain. Yet, the state of Florida refuses to allow doctors to adequately prescribe pain medications. When I lived on the island of Guam for 17 years, I took at least 80 mg per day of prescription Oxycontin for 11 years. Since I have moved to Florida in 2021, I cannot find a pain doctor who will prescribe more than 40 mg per day. I told me doctor that I am taking over-the-counter Tylenol pills because I need more pain relief. She sadly doesn't care if I die of a drug overdose at my own hands, just as long as she didn't prescribe the drugs. I hate that our state and federal governments don't care about people suffering in pain. The 70,000 idiots who die each year from pain drugs, mostly take them illegally, and die from a Fentanyl overdose. Why am I being punished with criminals? Shame on our incompetent state and federal governments. They are woefully ignorant and apathetic.

Whether it be the government allowing physically suffering people to suffer, by denying them available pain drugs; or by incompetent pastors who refuse to expose the Devil's counterfeit Bible revisions—we sadly live in a culture today that doesn't care.

Take a look at the city of Philadelphia today, how drug infested it is. This is the so-called "City Of Brotherly Love." I don't think so! Where is the love? The police don't care. The mayor doesn't care. The local politicians don't care. The citizens don't care. The people on the street in many cases don't care. If they cared this problem wouldn't exist. If we keep doing what we have always done, then nothing will ever change.

The horrors of Kensington - Part 2

I could mention thousands of things as evidence of a world that doesn't care. I have often said that the hallmark character trait of a Christian who walk closely with God is that they CARE. When I attended Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), it became very apparent to me my first couple months there that their senior pastor, Jeff Redlin, doesn't care about anybody except himself. What a sad little man with a small heart. What irony that such a large organization as Campus Church, has a pathetic pastor with such s small heart. Redlin patronized me as a divorced person. It didn't matter to him that I was hurting in emotional pain of soul and loneliness, he threw me under the bus and left me for dead. That is sadly so typical of the PCC crowd, superficial and phony.

And then there is the Devil's deadly lie of Lordship Salvation, promoted by Pastor John MacArthur and his infidel followers (e.g., Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Gary Walton, Bob Jones University, et cetera). [8]Lordship Salvation is a perversion of the Gospel (by Dr. Curtis Hutson). Shame on Bon Jones University (BJU), and PCC for wickedly bidding Godspeed to BJU. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! Sadly, none of them cares.

As I type, I have been banned from attending the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Their pastors have banned me in writing since 2014 until present. I have also been banned from attending Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, where I now live in Pensacola, Florida. Pastor Jeff Redlin emailed me on August 2, 2022 to inform me that I am not permitted to attend their church, so PCC are now the enemies of Jesus Christ. Both of the ungodly groups have banned me from attending their churches, as they did the Apostle Paul at Galatia, because I TOLD THE TRUTH. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?" PCC cannot ban God's preacher and think God still accepts them. PCC sings their sycophantic songs, offering insincere worship to God, while banning me because I was the only one faithful enough to TELL THE TRUTH!!!

On their KHMG 88.1 FM radio webpage for the Harvest Baptist Church cult on Guam, they have Jeff Redlin's sorry name listed, as one of the pastors whom they promote. They broadcast his sermonettes throughout Micronesia. My point dear reader is that PCC and Harvest (a cesspool of BJU graduates) are all fornicating spiritually in bed together, joined in ecumenical apostasy. God's curse is upon Bob Jones University and their complicit alumni for preaching another gospel of [9]LORDSHIP SALVATION. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

My friend, there is only one true Gospel. It is the 'GOOD NEWS' that Jesus Christ DIED on a cross to pay for our sins, He was BURIED, and after three days He RESURRECTED from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). ...

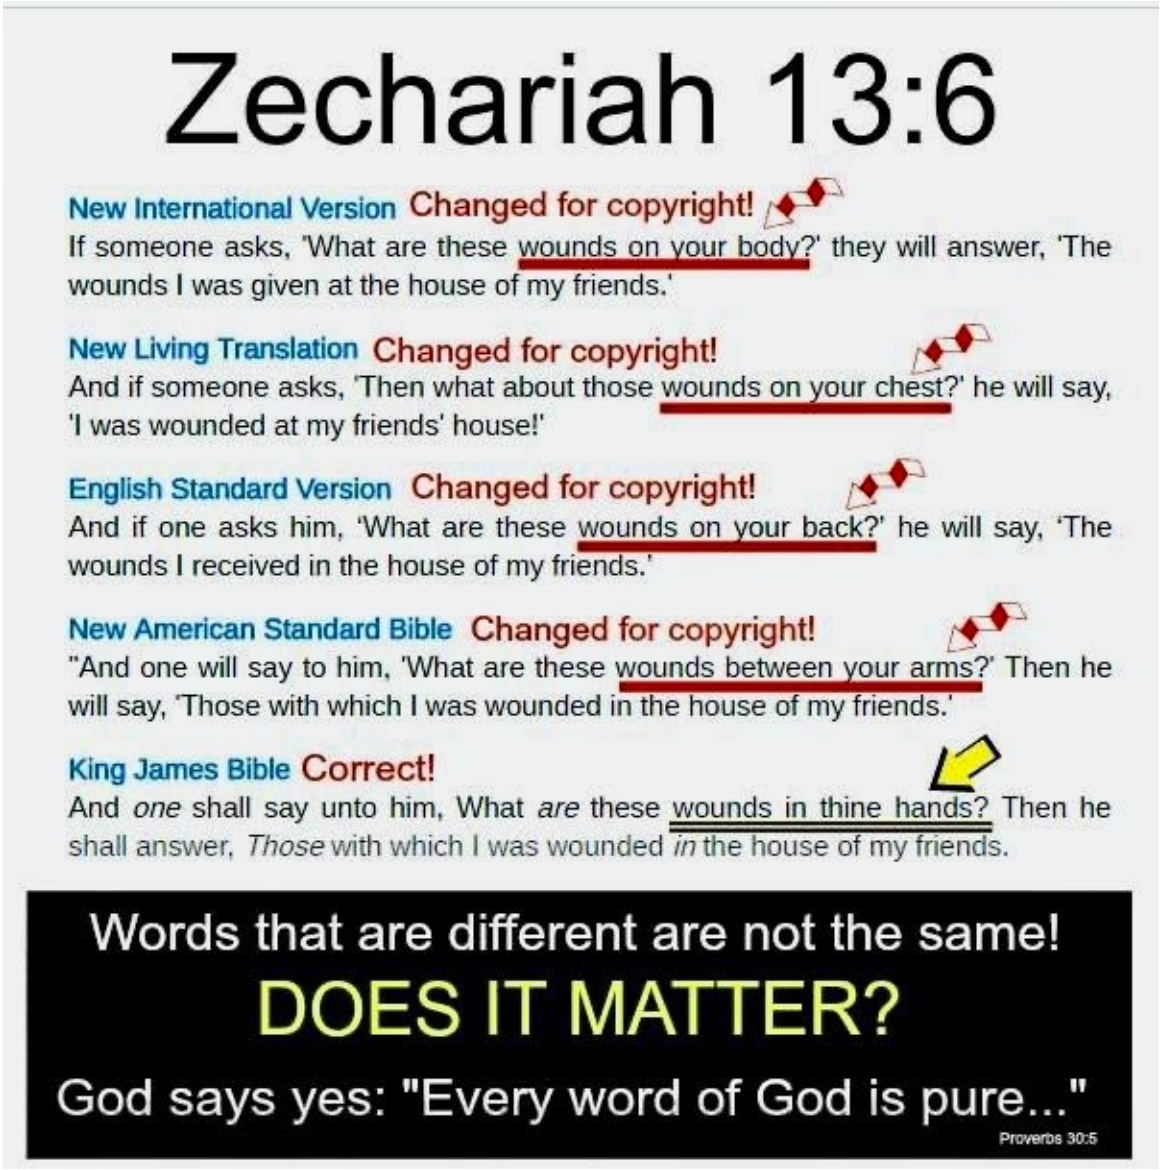
> "To add anything to salvation other than the sacrificial death of Jesus on the cross is to say that His death was not sufficient payment for our sins." —Dr. Curtis Hutson

Yet, the following is some of the garbage that you will hear required to get to Heaven:

1. walk an aisle
2. pray a prayer
3. join a church, denomination or convention
4. turn from your sins
5. repent of your sins
6. be willing to turn away from sin
7. feel sorrow for your sins
8. forsake a lifestyle of sinning
9. be baptized in water
10. speak in "tongues"
11. turn over a new leaf
12. ask Christ into your heart
13. invite Jesus into your life
14. surrender your entire personality to Christ
15. surrender all
16. begin to follow the King
17. live a holy life

18. live a changed life
19. give control of your life over to Christ
20. faithfully run the race
21. count the cost and pay the price
22. live a lifestyle of repentance from sins
23. turn away from the old life
24. follow Jesus no matter what the cost
25. make Jesus the “Lord” (Master) of your life
26. be sorrow for your sin
27. confess Christ publicly
28. keep the Sabbath Day
29. keep God’s Ten Commandments
30. get rid of sinful bad habits and vices
31. ask Jesus into your heart
32. have a religious experience
33. feel hatred for sin
34. begin the process of submitting to the one true King
35. believe in Jesus as the religious leader of your life
36. have a relationship with Jesus
37. become a Christ follower
38. perpetually turn from your sins
39. endure until the end
40. faithfully run the race
41. make full submission

NONE of these things are required to get to Heaven, but how many pastors or Bible professors do you know who actually care? I can count on two hands the preachers I know who actually care (i.e., Pastors’ Ralph Yankee Arnold, Steven Anderson, Roger Jimenez, Jonathan Shelley, Bruce Mejia and humbly, myself). I am not counting deceased preachers, but I thank God for Max Younce, Jack Hyles, Harry Ironside and Curtis Hutson (to name but a few).



The pastors who don’t care refuse to expose false teachers, refuse to weed out bad pastors, and refuse to refute false doctrine. We are commanded to earnestly contend for the Christian faith (Jude 1:3(, to rebuke them sharply that they might be sound in the faith (Titus 1:13). Tragically, over 95 % of pastors today are cowards, who prioritize making more money over preaching the truth that offends unbelievers. The $64,000 question is: Do you care? I care, which is why I have been diligently laboring free of charge since 2002 on social media. Unlike Pastor Jeff Redlin at PCC, I don't get paid $175,000 a year like he shamefully does. God pukes over PCC and their horrible Campus Church. Pastor Curtis Hutson is absolutely correct. ...

> "To add anything to salvation other than the sacrificial death of Jesus on the cross is to say that His death was not sufficient payment for our sins." —Dr. Curtis Hutson

We learn from the wicked city of Sodom, that God hears the cry of victims (Genesis 18:21; 19:13).[10] God hears the cry of former PCC student and graduate, Samantha Field. God hears my cry, another victim of PCC's machine that runs over hurting people, showing no mercy, no love and no compassion. There are no second chances at PCC or Campus Church, where there is no love of God for needy sinners. The [11]list of victims of these so-called fundamentalist organizations is quickly growing. God hears the cry dear hurting friend, He surely does. If you are a victim of today's phony fundamentalist churches and religious colleges, so am I. The problem is not with fundamental Christianity, it is with the ungodly imposters, incompetent pastors who parasite off the churches, ungodly puppets like Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias at PCC's shallow Campus Church. They are wicked respecters of person, selectively choosing who can attend church and who cannot, which is very wrong.

They just don't care! Chances are good that your pastor doesn't care either. Does your church use the Devil's modern corrupt Bibles? If so, why? Doesn't your pastor care about the purity of God's Word. A picture is worth 1,000 words. ...

God's Word Corrupted for Copyright Purposes

People throw their trash on the ground because they don't care.

Women take off their clothes and walk naked on the sandy beach because they don't care.

Fools drink booze and then get behind the wheel of a car because they don't care.

Women have an abortion because they don'

t care.

Pastors and churches use the Devil's modern corrupt Bibles because they don't care.

Pastors promote Martin Luther (1883-1546) as a born-again Christian, even though he taught the damnable heresy of Baptismal Regeneration all his life, because they don'

t care.

The pastors at PCC won't allow me to attend Campus Church because they don't care.

The pastors at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam won't allow me to attend church because they don't care.

Whether somebody cares or not, people pick up on that real quickly.

I care and I hope you do too. The Bible says that God cares in 1st Peter 5:7-9, "Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world."

If you don't care, but want to start caring, then just PRETEND that you care, and in time you will care. Start listening to the inspired Holy Bible every day. Spend time walking with God. Talk to Him like you would a friend. Tell the Lord how you feel, and search the Scriptures for life's answers, and you'll find them. I encourage you to listen to Bible preaching, by soul winning pastors who genuinely care about people; not by these low-life hypocrites at Pensacola Christian College who couldn't care less about people. I am living proof of that sad fact!

People just want to be loved. Thank you for reading.

4.10.20 The Purpose Of The Church (2023-10-22 23:02)

Ezekiel 34:16, "I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment."

I listened to a wonderful MP3 sermon today by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) titled: "[1]The Purpose Of The Church."

In this very needful sermon, Dr. Jack Hyles preaches a precious truth that is almost non-existent in Baptist churches today—that we as saints have the responsibility to work to restore fallen and broken sinners to fellowship with the church.

Sadly, Pensacola Christian College (PCC) still hasn't learned this great truth. If they did, they would beg me to come back to Campus Church with open arms. Instead, they won't even communicate with me, because they are carnally minded and filled with hatred. What they have at Campus Church and PCC is NOT Christianity!!!

“It’s time we decided to take responsibility for those folks who fall away; driven away, driven away by unfaithfulness, by unfriendliness.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “ [2] The Purpose Of The Church

“We are far too hard on people that go into sin.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[3]The Purpose Of The Church”

“Every person in this church that goes astray, we ought to consider him with the same tenderness we’d consider flesh of our flesh, and bone of our bone, if they went astray.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “
[4] The Purpose Of The Church

[5] The Purpose Of The Church

In the preceding last quote, Dr. Hyles is not referring to Charismatic physical healing of diseases of the body; but rather, spiritual healing of the soul.

I humbly agree with Pastor Hyles that every time someone leaves a church the pastor and congregation are partly to blame. We are all guilty at times of driving people away! People just want to be loved.

Dear reader, you may be the only Jesus that someone knows. Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899) rightly said: “Out of 100 men, one will read the Bible, the other 99 will read the Christian.” That is absolutely true! Having said, please read this:

□□□ □□□ □□□□□□ □□□, ‘□□ □□ □□□□□’□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□□, □’□ □□ □ □□□□□□□□□?’ □□□ □□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□ (□□□)

Chuck Stanford, lama emeritus, Rime Buddhist Center: To fully understand this quote, it is important to know the backstory from where it came.

While Gandhi was a practicing Hindu, Christianity intrigued him. In his reading of the Gospels, Gandhi was impressed by Jesus whom Christians worshiped and followed. He wanted to know more about this Jesus that Christians referred to as “the Christ, the Messiah.”

The Rev. Pattison tells the following story: One Sunday morning Gandhi decided that he would visit one of the Christian churches in Calcutta. Upon seeking entrance to the church sanctuary, he was stopped at the door by the ushers.

He was told he was not welcome, nor would he be permitted to attend this particular church as it was for high-caste Indians and whites only. He was neither high caste, nor was he white. Because of the rejection, the Mahatma turned his back on Christianity.

With this act, Gandhi rejected the Christian faith, never again to consider the claims of Christ. He was turned off by the sin of segregation that was practiced by the church. It was due to this experience that Gandhi later declared, “I’d be a Christian if it were not for the Christians.’“

I couldn’t help but be reminded of the cold-hearted leaders at Campus Church and Pensacola Christian College (PCC). As of August 2, 2022 their rotten pastors have banned me from attending their church. It didn’t matter that I apologized for criticizing them on social media, nor that I offered to do whatever they require to reconcile and make things right, they still refused. That is why we are enemies today. I speak that to their shame at PCC. The ball is in their court alone. I have done all that I can to seek fellowship and restoration, but [8]PCC is a cult where only SOME LIVES MATTER.

Mahatma Gandhi was told he was not welcome in (just like I was told I am not welcome), nor would he be permitted to attend this particular church (just like I am not permitted to attend Campus Church). If I didn’t know any better, I’d never become a Christian because of the bigotry, hatred, Pharisaism and woeful lack of compassion for individual people at PCC. The way we treat people matters. It really does! People just want to be loved.

“Our job is not to criticize those who have been driven away; our job is not to look down on those who have been driven away; our job is to bring back those who have been driven away.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “

[9] The Purpose Of The Church

The purpose of the local New Testament church is not to entertain you.

God’s purpose of the church is soulwinning, to seek and to save that which was lost.

The purpose of the church is to bring again that which was driven away.

The purpose of the church is to bind up that which was broken.

The purpose of the church is to strengthen that which was sick.

Dear reader, I love the local New Testament church. I don't blame most people today who are sick and tied of today's pathetic churches, with pastors who don't truly love or care about sinners (horrible places like Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College). But if you have ever been in a good Bible believing church, then you know how wonderful it is to be in God's house in the presence of God's children. The pastor makes the church. Everything rises and falls on leadership. Sadly, I cannot find one great church in Pensacola. We have some fairly decent churches here, but nothing that I would be glad to brag about.

Most of today's churches are caught up in the entertainment phenomena. I loathe Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) in churches. From my own experience, I have learned that such modern Neo-evangelical churches are superficial, lacking humility and don't genuinely care about people. The pastors are usually yuppie type ministers. It saddens me that most churches today have removed their pews and replaced them with stackable chairs. Today's churches look more like political convention centers than churches. I don't like the deteriorating direction that the churches are headed.

I thank God for local churches. There is no one universal Church today, there are only local churches. The Body of Christ will not assemble as a whole until the Rapture. I receive many emails from distraught believers who are at the end of their rope. They share all sorts of burdens, problems, heartaches and frustrations with me. In nearly every case they are not attending a local Bible preaching church. They just stay home. Dear friend, you and I need to be in church. We all need fellowship with other Christian believers. We need their encouragement and comfort, and they need ours.

I know the inexplicable pain of going it alone in life. I have been through difficult times so bad that I wanted to die. I despaired even of life itself. Sadly, I had visited a local church on Guam, the Agana Heights Baptist Church, but the senior pastor deliberately mistreated me and didn't want me to come back. God knows what evil thing that he did. I wrote down my phone number and address and gave them to the pastor, but he never contacted me. I was cut to the heart when he insulted me, and then abruptly walked away, making clear that he didn't want me in his church. So I left and never returned. I know what it feels like to be dissed and hurt by pastors.

So in my despair and grief I didn't attend any church for the next five years. Then in 2013, I started attending the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I was happy to finally have a church family, and I loved them very much. But they are neo-evangelicals who preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, waring repentance and use the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions. I loved them enough to tell them the truth about these woeful evils, for which I was forced out and banned from returning to church. I lost my beloved church family. That wicked devil, senior pastor Marty Herron, couldn't have cared less. It was all a big joke to him.

Pastor Marty Herron refused to allow me to come back to church, so for the next 7 years on Guam I stayed home depressed with no church to attend. I wanted to die. Nobody cared about me from Harvest Baptist Church. Nobody visited me. Nobody remembered me, because their God wicked damned pastors told everyone to avoid me, and they slandered and demonized me because I told THE TRUTH. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

I know and pray that God will avenge me for what those ungodly pastors did to hurt me. The fastest way to get kicked out of a church today, and banned from returning, is to just TELL THE TRUTH. Isn't that sad and tragic? The Devil has succeeded in infiltrating most churches today with the lie that faith is not enough to be saved. Those wicked fools teach that there is a second thing you must do, which they say is to turn from your sinful behavior, which is works, not grace. Very few pastors get the Gospel correct. If you do not know what the Gospel is, I highly encourage you to read this helpful book by Michael P. Bowen, titled: '[10]I NEVER KNEW YOU.'

If you attend a so-called church and they preach Lordship Salvation, you are in fact in a cult, not a Bible-believing church. Bob Jones University (BJU) is a deadly cult today, steeped in the corrupt Bible revisions which originated in Alexandria, Egypt (i.e., Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort's perverse 1881 Greek translation) and the Devil's damnable Lordship Salvation heresy. Please search my blog for these topics if you desire to learn more, as I have written extensively about them. God is so good! It is not the Lord's fault that preachers today have become Caspar Milquetoast wimps and indifferent concerning right doctrine and moral standards. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! It matters which Bible that you use. Thank you for reading my blog.

4.10.21 God Doesn't Miss A Thing (2023-10-24 16:30)

Job 14:16, "

For now thou numberest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin?

Job 31:4, "

Doth not he see my ways, and count all my steps?

I was listening yesterday to the Old Testament book of Job. I love hearing Alexander Scourby (1913-1985) read the King James Bible. In his lifetime, Alexander read over 400 books so that blind people could benefit from hearing them. In my humble opinion, the crowning accomplishment of Scourby's life was his reading of the inspired King James Bible.

The Book Of Job Read By Alexander Scourby

As I was listening to Job today, the following Scripture caught my attention.

Job 14:16, "

For now thou numberest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin?

" Wow! I had never noticed that Bible verse that before. I already knew from Matthew 10:29-20 that the very hairs of our head are numbered by God, but I didn't know that also He counts our steps. Job reasoned that if God counts our very steps, do you think that He has missed our sins?

Hebrews 4:13 , " Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

" Romans 14:10-12 warns that we must all someday give account to God. Jesus warned in Matthew 12:36,

"But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment." Wow! In eternity God is going to hold all mankind accountable, as individuals, even for our wasted words. When we could have seasoned our words with grace and witnessed to somebody with the Gospel, but we chose rather to remain silent about it and make small talk instead, God will hold us accountable and require the blood of that lost sinner upon our hands. You and I dear friend may be the only Jesus that somebody knows. If we don't share the truth of how to get to Heaven with them, then who will?

Job 31:4, "

Doth not he see my ways, and count all my steps?

" The omniscient eyes of the Lord are upon the evil and the good. God doesn't miss a thing! Carefully read the following passage from the Old Testament, concerning David...

Psalms 139:1-6, "O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me.

Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off.

Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.

Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

God knows our every thought, word and deed. God is the keeper of our soul. ...

Proverbs 24:2, “

If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?

Now I don’t know about you, but I want to be completely honest and transparent with God, so as to not live in denial and deceive myself. You cannot deceive God.

Job 14:16, “

For now thou numberest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin?

” Our every step is numbered by God. Nothing ever occurs to God. The Lord has no need to be reminded of anything, because He is omniscient (all-knowing).

Scientists tell us that so far they have discovered 6,000,000,000,000,000,000,000 stars. That’s six sextillion stars!!! Did you know that it would take a human being 2 years just to count to one billion? Dear reader, in fact, you couldn’t count to six sextillion in 1,000,000 lifetimes!!! That is how high a number there are stars in the universe. And yet, the Bible says that God calls each and every star by their name. Psalms 147:4, “He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names.” God’s greatness is truly unsearchable. Psalms 145:3, “Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.”

One day all things will be revealed. Everyone’s secret sins, and secret good deed done, your time spent laboring in private for Christ, will all be made openly known in eternity. Mark 4:22, “

For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad. ” That compels me to live in such a way that I have nothing to be ashamed of if the world saw my hidden life. Amen. That is why my favorite Bible verse is Proverbs 4:23, “ Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

God doesn’t miss a thing friend. He sees all. God knows the number of hairs upon your head. He numbers your steps and knows everything about you, even things that you don’t see. I don’t know how many hairs are upon my head. I don’t know how many steps I have taken today. Albeit, I thank God for what hair I have left. And I thank God that I have legs and feet to walk. God is so very good to us all. What a wonderful God and Savior!!!

4.10.22 Shame On “Gideons International” For Promoting Corrupt Bibles And A Perverse Gospel (2023-10-27 12:04)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, “For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

Galatians 1:6-7, “ I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.”

In our two text passages of Scripture we read that there are those who corrupt both the Word of God and the Gospel. There is nothing knew under the sun. Just as many people corrupted the Word of God in New Testament times, so do they also today in 2023. So also today do ungodly people pervert the Gospel of free grace.

This is the third year that I attended the Pensacola Interstate Fair. I always enjoy going to the fair. Everyone who attends the fair is required to enter through the Exhibit Building. This is where all the religious booths are located, including the Jehovah’s Witness and Pensacola Christian College cults. In the same building the Gideons International organization of religious businessmen have a booth and table set up. As I walked by one of the Gideon men offered me a small orange New Testament (that includes Psalms and Proverbs), which I gladly received and thanked him.

When I got home from the fair the other night, I looked inside the pocket New Testament to see what version he gave me. It was an English Standard Version (ESV). I was instantly disgusted, because the ESV is corrupted horribly by Satan. For example, take a look at how the ESV corrupts Psalms 12:6-7...

> King James Bible (KJB)
> Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever."
>
> English Standard Version (ESV)
> Psalms 12:6-7, “The words of the Lord are pure words, like silver refined in a furnace on the ground purified seven times. You, O Lord, will keep them; you will guard us from this generation forever.”

It is plain to see in the King James Bible that the pronoun “them” in Psalms 12:7

refers to the “pure words” mentioned in Psalms 12:6. But the ESV corrupts the inspired Word of God, by changing “them” to “us” (which switches God’s promise to preserve His pure Words to instead guide the saints). Do you see how subtle the Devil and his servants are?

I could show you hundreds of similar passages in the Devil’s modern Bible revisions, which have been subtly corrupted to convey a different meaning that what God originally intended.

Why did the Devil and his children do this? It is to satisfy the wicked agendas of our generation, and to appease unbelieving infidels who deny Jesus' deity, deny the Godhead, and deny the truth that we have an inspired Holy Bible today today in the King James Bible. Don't ever forget that the Devil is a liar of liars, and a deceiver of deceivers! Satan deceived Eve in the Garden of Eden, he tried to deceive Jesus when tempting Him in Matthew 4:1-10, and if you are weak in the faith Satan will deceive you too.

Gideons International are pulling on the same rope as the Devil, by publishing and distributing English Standard Version (ESV) perversions of God's Word.

Gideons Promote Corrupt ESV Bible That Attacks Jesus' Deity

The ESV and all modern Devil's Bible revisions ruthlessly attack 1st Timothy 3:16. First, please see what the trustworthy inspired King James Bible reads...

> 1st Timothy 3:16, "And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory."

Now take a look at how wicked sinners corrupt 1st Timothy 3:16b in the English Standard Version (ESV) that Bob Jones University sanctions, uses and sells; and kindly take a look at the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) that Harvest Baptist Church on Guam sanctions, uses and sells; and take a look at several other modern PERversions...

KJB - "God was manifest in the flesh"

ESV - "He was manifested in the flesh"

ERV - "Christ was shown to us in human form"

NRSV - "He was revealed in flesh"

NIV - "He appeared in the flesh"

RSV - “He was manifested in the flesh”

TLB - “Christ, who came to earth as a man”

NCV - “He was shown to us in a human body”

NLT - “Christ was revealed in a human body”

TLV - “He was revealed in the flesh”

HCSB - “He was manifested in the flesh”

CEB - “he was revealed as a human”

MSG - “He appeared in a human body”

VOICE - “He was revealed in the flesh”

Where is God?

Where is God?

I said where is God? They removed Him!

Kindly, with powdered sugar on top—SHAME ON BOB JONES UNIVERSITY! And kindly, with candy sprinkles—SHAME ON HARVEST BAPTIST CHURCH ON GUAM!!! Shame on all of them for promoting this ungodly corrupt filth!!! SHAME ON PENSACOLA CHRISTIAN COLLEGE for wickedly bidding Godspeed to Harvest and BJU. The Devil’s Bible versions have REMOVED GOD FROM 1ST TIMOTHY 3:16!!! Where’s Waldo? Oh, sorry! Where’s God? I could have quoted the same corrupt rendering of 1st Timothy 3:16 from several dozen more PERversions of God’s Word, which all remove “GOD.” The King James Bible (in no uncertain terms) proclaims THE TRUTH that GOD was manifest (revealed) in the flesh (the incarnate body of the Son of God, Jesus Christ). ...

> John 1:1-3 and 14, “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. ...And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.”

Look again for yourself, how Satan’s Bible revisions (all from [1]Westcott and Hort’s corrupt 1881: The New Testament In The Original Greek), change 1st Timothy 3:16 to eliminate the deity of Jesus Christ! It is wickedness!!!

Did you know that the Jehovah’s Witness “[2]New World Translation” (NWT) was also translated from Westcott and Hort’s Greek translation? That means if you are using the ESV or the ERV, you are using the same corrupt Bible translation as the Jehovah's Witnesses! Do you know why JW's choose the Alexandrian text? It is because they deny Jesus' deity and the Godhead, so they are naturally going to choose a corrupt Bible text that assaults and removes these doctrines.

Am I such a bad person for refuting this heresy, so despised that Harvest Baptist Church on Guam has banned me from returning to their church family since 2014? I very much love them all, but they don't love THE TRUTH!!! Galatians 4:16-17, "

Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them." The cult at BJU and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam zealously affect the PCC camp, to their damnation!!!

Instead of rightly obeying God's command in Titus 1:13 to "rebuke them sharply,"

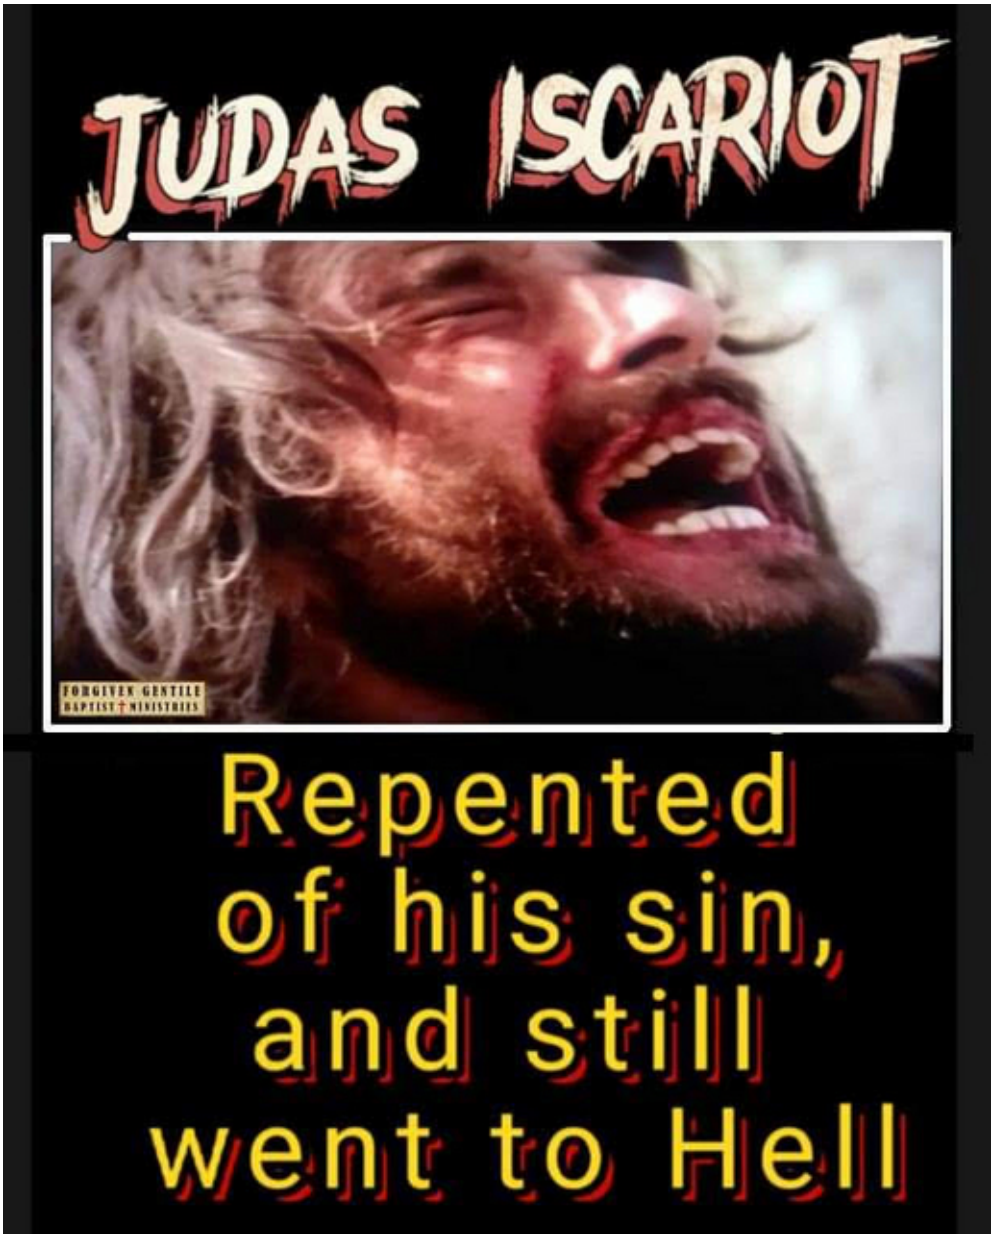
PCC is in bed spiritually fornicating with the ungodly corrupt [3]Bob Jones University cult. BJU is so far gone that in December of 2022, they invited hellbound Calvinist Paul Washer to preach in BJU chapel. Sadly, another apostate, Pastor Clarence Sexton from Temple Baptist Church in Powell, Tennessee, also attended and preached at this event at BJU, wickedly bidding Godspeed to BJU. SHAME!!! Shame on Clarence Sexton! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

Gideons Are Preaching A Perversion Of The Gospel

Moving on, I have the little orange pocket New Testament in front of me, which was handed to me at the Pensacola Interstate Fair this year. On the back page, which is numbered as page 187, it displays the Gideon's plan of salvation. This is the suggested prayer they offer:



> "God, from my heart, I admit to You that I am a sinner and I ask for Your forgiveness. I believe that Your Son, Jesus, took the punishment I deserve by shedding His blood on the cross. He gave His life as the full payment for my sins and rose again from the dead. Thank you for changing my heart. I now confess and *turn from my sins and receive Your Son, Jesus, as my Saviour and Lord. Amen."
> SOURCE: Gideons' New Testament Bible, p. 187, © Crossway, a publishing ministry of Good News Publishers; Wheaton, Illinois

What you just read dear reader is a perversion of the Gospel. If you do what the Gideons are requiring you to do to get to Heaven, you will assuredly spend eternity burning in the fires and torments of Hell. The preceding plan of salvation cannot produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God. The changes may seem trifle and insignificant to you, but to TURN FROM YOUR SINS is works, not grace. What saith the Scripture? Jonah 3:10, "And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not. " Romans 3:20, " " Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

> "Christianity is not the sacrifice we make, but the sacrifice we trust. LIVING YOUR life for Jesus won't save you, but BELIEVING Jesus gave HIS LIFE for you will." —Pastor Thomas Cucuzza, "[4]Important Things Satan Does Not Want You To Know"

Nowhere in the Bible are we taught that our heart must change to be saved, or that our heart will change when we get saved. The disturbing implication made by the Gideons is that your heart must change to get to Heaven. When the unsaved Philippian jailer in Rome asked Paul and Silas in Acts 16:30b, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?,” their simply answer in verse 31 was to, “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.” Paul and Silas didn’t tell the man to change his heart, nor did they tell him to turn from his sins to be saved. They simply told him to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST!!! Why do men always complicate God’s simple plan of salvation?

Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible are we taught to “repent of your sin” or “turn from your sin” to get to Heaven. To do so is WORKS! Matthew 27:3 says that Judas “repented himself” of his sins, compelling him to do penance by returning the 30 pieces of silver. Judas had a changed heart. Judas was sorry (which is penitence) for betraying an innocent man, Jesus. Judas was reformed, having turned from his sins, and yet Jesus said it would have been better for Judas if he had never been born, because Judas went to Hell forever to burn.

Dear reader, if you want to be saved and go to Heaven someday, then YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN Jesus said (John 3:1-7). You can only be born-again by ceasing from all your own self-righteous works (like trying to turn from your sinful way), and instead REST completely in what Jesus did to pay for your sins through His sacrifice on Calvary's cross.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work. If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from? The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. It's not what you are doing that gets you to Heaven; but rather, it is where you are looking. LOOK TO JESUS!!! Isaiah 45:22, "Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else."

4.10.23 Erasing Palestine (2023-10-27 12:30)

Romans 10:12, " For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him."

Galatians 3:26-29, " For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

There is neither Jew nor Greek*, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

As a born-again Christian I love everybody. I am sick and tired of hearing Zionist brainwashed believers speak lovingly in support of Israel, while speaking nothing but contemptuously and with cruel intentions toward the Arab people in Palestine. Dear reader, you are not right with God if you love Jewish people more than Arab Muslims. As we read in our text passage, there is NO DIFFERENCE between Jew or Gentile, who are both alike saved by faith alone in Jesus Christ.

I heard a needful sermon today by Pastor Chuck Baldwin titled: "[1]ERASING PALESTINE." I am glad that Pastor Baldwin is taking a stand on this important issue, raising awareness to the hateful bigotry and wicked hatred of Muslims by Christians today. I am shocked, disgusted and saddened that I have been hearing professed Christian pastors and laymen alike calling for the total annihilation of the people in Gaza, in Palestine. May I say, present-day manmade Israel since 1948 is NOT the fulfillment of Bible prophecy concerning future Israel.

Before I say anymore, let me say that I HUMBLY DISGREE with Pastor Baldwin that there will be no Rapture of the Church. 1st Corinthians 15:51-58 and 1st Thessalonians 4:13-18 clearly teach the Rapture. These passages are very different from other Scripture passages about Jesus' Second Coming. What you choose to believe about the Rapture won't affect getting saved, but it will affect your attitude toward serving God. One of the hallmark foundational truths of Christendom is the imminent and sudden return of Jesus Christ without warning. Jesus could return today!!!

Kindly said, if Chuck Baldwin is correct that there will be no Rapture, then Jesus cannot return until the Man of Sin, Antichrist, first appears during the Tribulation period. We would know WHEN Jesus is coming back, because the book of Daniel tells us the exact number of days which will lapse between the Abomination of Desolation and Christ's return at the end of the Tribulation period. There will be 1,290 days (Daniel 12:11-12). Clearly, this contradicts the plainest teaching of the Scripture that no man know the time of Christ's return. I humbly think that the Bible teaches there will be a Pretribulation Rapture.

Letter from Our Palestinian brethren!

The Voice of Christian community from Palestine:

Excerpt:

> We also remind ourselves and our Palestinian people that our sumud ("steadfastness") is anchored in our just cause and our historical rootedness in this land. As Palestinian Christians, we also continue to find our courage and consolation in the God who dwells with those of a contrite and humble spirit (Isa 57:15). We find courage in the solidarity we receive from the crucified Christ, and we find hope in the empty tomb. We are also encouraged and empowered by the costly solidarity and support of many churches and grassroots faith movements around the world, challenging the dominance of ideologies of power and supremacy. We refuse to give in, even when our siblings abandon us. We are steadfast in our hope, resilient in our witness, and continue to be committed to the Gospel of faith, hope, and love, in the face of tyranny and darkness. "In the absence of all hope, we cry out our cry of hope. We believe in God, good and just. We believe that God's goodness will finally triumph over the evil of hate and of death that still persist in our land. We will see here 'a new land' and 'a new human being', capable of rising up in the spirit to love each one of his or her brothers and sisters" (Kairos Palestine, §10).

Nearly everything that we've been told by the newsmedia and pastors in America regarding the present Middle East crisis is a lie. Innocent poor people in Gaza are being genocided. The latest death count is now at 6,700 dead Palestinians from Israel's missile bombs. ...

Is The Hamas/Israeli War A Part Of Bible Prophecy?
(October 15, 2023 - by Pastor Chuck Baldwin)

Israel has a world-class military with advanced weaponry, paid for by the United States (our wicked government gives Israel $4,000,000,000 each year). That is our money! Yet, the poor Palestinian people have nothing. Hamas is Hamas, not the poor people in Gaza. Israel is collectively punishing a bunch of poor people for what some terrorists are doing. As God's children we ought not take sides in this slaughter, but if I did have to take sides, it would be with the Palestinian victims. As believers our proper attitude should be that BOTH sides need to get born-again by faith in Jesus Christ. They all need Jesus! People need the dear Savior!!!

4.10.24 Several Hundred Audio Sermons By Pastor Danny Castle (2023-10-28 17:44)

Boy, Christmas came early this year! . . .

A ministry friend in Canada sent me this wonderful webpage today, with links to several hundreds sermons by one of my favorite Bible preachers, Pastor Danny Castle of the Shining Light Baptist Church located in Morganton, North Carolina. ...

4.10.25 Pastor Jack Hyles Preaches On Hell (2023-10-31 12:01)

Luke 16:23-24, " And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame."

Sadly, the average Baptist pastor doesn't preach on the subject of Hell even once every two years. That ought not be! Dear reader, do we really believe in a literal place of Hell? Do we really believe that men who die in their sins without Jesus as their personal Savior will go to burn in Hell forever? If so, why do 99 % of churches today not go door-to-door soulwinning? Shame on all of us for not doing more to warn lost sinners of coming judgment and damnation in the everlasting Lake of Fire. Here are some sermons about Hell by Pastor Jack Hyles:

1. [1]Who Is In Hell?
2. [2]Why Hell?
3. [3]Is There A Hell?
4. [4]The Hottest Hell of All

Here is a sermon excerpt from Dr. Hyles, preaching about Hell...

Is There A Hell?
(by Pastor Jack Hyles)

Dear reader, the $64,000 question is: [5]Have you been born again? If you are not sure, please do not go to sleep tonight without settling the matter. If you admit that you are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God, and you will simply receive Jesus' sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried and then resurrected three days later, you will be saved instantly, irrevocably and eternally. ...

4.11.1 By Peace The Antichrist Shall Destroy Many (2023-11-01 09:26)

Daniel 8:25, "And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand."

The Bible foretells of “perilous times” in the last days. I was born in 1967 in Chicago. Things have drastically changed in the United States over the past 56 years. ...

2nd Timothy 3:1-7,

“This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.”

The preceding passage practically gives the address of America! I’ve never seen things so bad as they are now in the United States. What we are beholding today is anything but normal. As an example: the prevalent homosexual agenda didn’t just happen naturally in America; but rather, it has been carefully plotted and implemented by the Luciferian powers working relentlessly behind the scenes through the entertainment industry, newsmedia, television networks and government to subvert our American culture.

It is no mere coincidence that the Woke movement has risen to influence in our culture. This has all bene planned and orchestrated by Satan’s minions. No sane person would try to convince a boy that he was really meant to be a girl, and vice versa. The [1]entire idea of being “ ”non-[2] binary

[3] (i.e., neither male or female) is crazy. The left eats its own! This utter insanity is just getting started in America. The end will be our own destruction as a society and country.

Do you really think open borders is just our government’s concern for poor foreign people who need help? You are extremely naïve if that is what you think. Dear reader, this is all by Satanic design [4]to destroy the Old World Order, to make way for a New World Order.

Do you really think that all of the Smash & Grab violent pillaging and robbing of stores across the country is mere happenstance? Not a chance. This is all be design. The ungodly corrupt judges, greedy lawyers and liberal lawmakers and politicians are doing everything in their power to undermine and destroy our society. ...

Looting Erupts In Philadelphia; Foot Locker, Apple and Lululemon Stores Hit

I just heard in the news today that Target store chain is closing eight major stores in cities like Seattle, San Francisco and New York, due to violent store riots and massive theft of their merchandise. Like many companies today, Target is worried about employee safety and lawsuits for failing to protect their employees. I really hate lawyers, who are predators who prey upon people to make money. Lawyers have ruined this country! I highly recommend reading the shocking book by former judge and attorney, Katherine Crier, who exposes the criminally insane legal industry. The book is titled: '[5]The Case Against Lawyers!' After reading this book you will need to go take a long walk to clear your mind, blown away by the truth.

Why is all this insanity happening today? And it's not just in the secular realm. Why are there hundreds of different English Bible revisions to choose from today? Why are there hundreds of different plans of salvation? Why are there 4,200 different religions to choose from in the world? Friend, Satan is the god of this rotten world (2nd Corinthians 4:4). We have been lied to on nearly level.

The American mainstream newsmedia is saturated with lies, disinformation and fraud...

> "We'll know that our disinformation program is complete when everything the American public believes is FALSE."
> SOURCE: William Casey, CIA Director (Quote - 1981 internal staff meeting notes)

Yes Sir, that is exactly true! Lie, lies and more lies! Satan is a beautiful liar. What saith the Scripture? John 8:44, "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it." The Devil always lies!!!

I'll be honest with you, I am at the place where I don't want to go outside my home's door anymore. I am a homebody by nature. My Dad used to say to me: "I want you to play in your own backyard, you can't get into trouble playing in your own backyard." Dad was so right! I love staying home, I can't get into trouble when I stay home. Pastor Jack Hyles used to tell us at Hyles-Anderson College when I was a student there (1985-1993): "It's a jungle out there!" Brother Hyles sure was right! I am reluctant to leave my home anymore, because of the way people have become. People are angry, stressed out, miserable, proud, selfish and only care about themselves! ...

2nd Timothy 3:1-7,

"This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth."

Please don't just read through that list of sins and fail to grasp what it means. Think about just the word "unholy." People today are unholy! That is frightening. "F alse accusers.

Oh my!

"Fierce." Again, that is scary! Liars, trucebreakers, unthankful, disobedient to parents, blasphemers, proud, covetous, boasters, et cetera. This describes Americans today! This woeful list of sins doesn't just describe the punks who violently steal from retail stores, it sadly describes many of the police officers today who bully and abuse the public. Sadly, it also describes many pastors today, who are full of sinful pride, who lie about how to get to Heaven, and they are greedy and fierce, unreasonable and selfish, lovers of their own selves!

As God's children we must be ON GUARD like never before. None of us are perfect. Time after time I have ended up in unpleasant altercations with wicked people in public, regretting that I left my house that day. I just love staying home as much as possible. Proverbs 4:23, "

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

" Dear friend, I don't won't bad things to happen to you. So, be careful where you go, what you say, how you respond to situations, and always keep in mind that we are living in unprecedented times of wickedness in 2023. Many of the American people have gone insane!

I rarely go driving without seeing angry drivers laying on the horn. I always see some driving way over the speed limit. I have been run off the road by angry drivers quite a few times by angry drivers. You just don't know what is going on in someone's mind. Oh, how people need the dear Savior. We should all be soulwinners! We must be on guard everywhere we go at all times, because the Bible says we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against the spiritual forces of Satan. I have visited several Baptist churches in Pensacola and I'm not impressed with any of them. Pastors sadly all have their own agenda, but I haven't felt wanted in any of their churches. There's something wrong when you attend a church for over 2 years and the pastor has never once initiated a conversation with you. I'm not kidding. That is really bad!

I [6]read today that in 2022 there were 49,499 suicides in the United States. In 2021 there were 48,183 suicides in our country. That is so sad. Suicides are much higher among minority groups; such as, blacks, Asians and Hispanics. Women commit suicide more than men. Younger people commit suicide more than older people. Oh, how people need the dead Savior! My heart has been heavy lately, seeing all this sin, wickedness, war and death in our world.

To be honest, I am glad to be 56 years old, rather than 26, because it means that I am nearing the end of my time here on planet earth. 2nd Corinthians 5:8,

"We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord." I don't want to be here anymore, but I am not suicidal. The Apostle Paul felt the same way that I do, who said in Philippians 1:21, "

For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

" As long as I am alive on earth, I will continue to preach the Gospel of free grace, and earnestly contend for the faith once delivered unto the saints. But I would just as happy to go to Heaven, to be home with Jesus my blessed God, Lord and precious Savior.

[7] Seven Reasons Why I Want To Go To Heaven
([8]Pastor Danny Castle)

It grieves my soul to see my country ripping itself apart. I grieves my soul to meet people who are angry, frustrated and stressed out over everything from the faltering economy to the mistreatment they endure from companies, police, the government and local churches (Go figure!). So many Americans are wound up, ready to blow, angry and have a big chip on their shoulder, having very thin skin. It doesn't take much to bring out their true ugliness. Too many people have zero understanding or patience, itching to call security or police on anybody who dares to offend them. Put another way, the United States has become a big overgrown nursery of big spoiled brat babies!!! Americans are sickening today.

Over 90 % of American women have little to no morals. They take off 95 % of their clothes at the beach, or wherever there is water, causing ungodly men and lesbian women to lust. Ninety-nine percent of American men will commit fornication or adultery if given the chance. The Luciferian elite lurking behind the scenes to corrupt America's families have sexualized the United States. Read the prolific words of former retired Canadian Navy commander, William Guy Carr (1895-1959):

> "Lust is sexual desire outside the Natural Law of God. Therefore Christ Himself seems to have confirmed that Satan was lustful and is father of the Synagogue of Satan as those who are Satanists teach and believe. Satanists have always used sex-bribery and the depravities and perversions of sex to obtain control of men and women they wished to use to further the secret plans of their diabolical conspiracy. Satanism makes a God of sex. They worship the human body because of its sexual abilities. When men and women prove they are unyielding to all other forms of devilish temptation, they often fall as the result of becoming involved in illicit relationships and perversions. Did not David commit abominable sexual crimes, including incest?" [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [9]Satan: Prince Of This World, by Commander William Guy Carr, p. 22

I highly recommend that you read William Guy Carr's numerous books. Satanists teach that Satan had sex with Eve in the Garden of Eden (which claim I totally disagree with). Satanist's entire belief system is rooted in human debasing with sex-perversion. Thus, Satanism and sex are inseparable. With this disturbing truth in mind from Commander Carr, it will become obvious to you just how evil and dangerous the sensual, promiscuous and sexualizing [10]music videos of Taylor Swift, Miley Cyrus, Carrie Underwood and thousands of other Satanic servants are! We are now living in Sodom and Gomorrha on earth in America!!! We truly have become The Great Satan.

I am at the place where I am reluctant to go outside of my home anymore, because of the insanity of Americans today. Road rage can happen at any moment. The police are bullies and corrupt. You simply do not know what type of cop you might meet, a nice one or a thug. I am not saying that I am afraid to leave my home, I'm simply saying that I really don't want to be around Americans anymore, because of how rotten we've all become. We are the most spoiled rotten people in the world in the United States!!! Have you thanked God today for the blessings in your life? I have. There are 86,400 seconds in a day, make sure that you thank your Creator with at least a few of those seconds.

I'll be so glad when this miserable life is over. I hate being vulnerable. I hate being subject to becoming victim at any moment in this world. I don't want to lose my legs in a car accident, or go blind because someone else does something stupid and I get hurt. Two men were walking in a mechanic's shop. Across the building another mechanic was using a hydraulic press to remove a bearing from a shaft. He put the press adapter on the outer race instead of the inner race of the ball-bearing. When he applied 7,000 pounds of force on the outer race, it broke apart and ball-bearings shot out like bullets. One tore into the eye of one of the men walking across the other wide of the building. That unfortunately man is blind today in one eye. I hate being vulnerable to accidents. I could go on for hours, and so could you, about all the crazy things that can happen, to hurt or maim or kill someone. In Heaven we won't be susceptible like that anymore.

As I type, my propane tank is chained with a thick 3/8" chain to a big pole in my backyard, because some punk(s) stole my other one last year, which cost me $75. I hate thieves!!! They came back a month later and stole my King James Bible and radios from my car. I called the police, but they couldn't have cared less. They filed a police report and said a detective would call me to follow up. Nobody ever called. So, I called them, three times, but no one ever called back to follow up. Our sheriff's department here in Pensacola sucks! They just don't care.

Sadly, nobody seems to care anymore. The police don't care. Pastors and clergy don't care. Churches don't care. The biggest problem in the medical profession today is a woeful lack of compassion for patients. Likewise, the biggest problem in churches and Bible colleges today is a woeful lack of compassion for people. Dear reader, everybody and their dog today is walking around with a cellphone in their hand, just waiting to call the cops on you if you give them a reason. I honestly don't want to be around people anymore, because of the way Americans have become big babies. All over Pensacola, as I drive down the streets and highways, I see several dozen billboards by greedy ambulance-chasing lawyers, begging people to sue their neighbours. That is evidence of a decadent wicked culture of selfishness and greed, encouraging people to sue anybody they can for money (mostly for the attorneys).

The Bible prophecies in the book of Daniel that “by peace” the coming man of Sin (Antichrist, meaning “in place of” Christ) shall destroy many. I humbly think this refers to what we call “Democracy” today in America. Democracy is mob rule! Democracy is NOT freedom!!! When the majority get their way, but individual rights do not matter, that is not freedom. What we have in the United States today is not freedom.

Sadly, it is our Democratic system that so many Americans are so proud of that is destroying our society, families and country. God never intended for people to be free to have abortions, free to go naked at beaches, free to lie in business and take advantage of people, free to commit homosexuality and adultery, free to divorce, free to commit wickedness! By “peace” (Democracy) the Man of Sin will destroy many people. It is already happening today and the Antichrist hasn’t even appeared yet, but his minions are preparing the stage for his coming.

Liberty is a gift from God. How we choose to use that liberty will determine whether we remain free or become enslaved. Sadly, we are slowly enslaving ourselves because of sin. John 8:34, “ Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.” We Americans don’t to remain free anymore, [11]because of the stench of our wickedness!

This ungodly insanity cannot continue if we want God to continue to bless our nation! Tragically, God’s hand of blessing has long departed from America. Half of the American people have rotten teeth due to the insanely high cost of dental work. That is not freedom!

I read this article today about the [12]Medicare Advantage scam in the United States . Like me, you’ve probably been bombarded with hundreds of Tv commercials, whether it be on YouTube or Tv, with Medicare Advantage ads. What is that about? I’ll tell you. Those ads are paid for and promoted by greedy private insurance companies who have nothing to do with Medicare. If you switch to one of their so-called “advantage plans,” they’ll get a set amount of money each month from the U.S. federal government, whether they pay for your medical bills and drugs or not. Sadly, statistics show that these rotten private insurance companies very often reject claims and refuse to pay your medical bills. In other words, they screw you! I have the original Medicare, parts A and B, and that is all I want. Please don’t get scammed dear friend, because I love you with Christ’s love and want what’s best for you, truly.

You would think in a so-called “free” country like the United States that things would be so much better than it is. I’m sure you’ve seen the epidemic of panhandlers and homeless people everywhere today. How is it that our government can give Ukraine $190,000,000,000 for war since 2020, but then the government doesn’t have any money to construct affordable housing and jobs for the homeless? I really like the idea of [13]Tiny House Villages, which could solve the homeless crisis in the United States. Something desperately needs to be done to help the poor and misfortunate. Greed is ruining our society.

I watched a interesting YouTube documentary the other day about highspeed trains in China. They’ve constructed [14]26,000 miles of highspeed train track rails in China. Those trains travel at 200 mph. Wow! Sadly, in the United States we have no highspeed trains. Our fastest train in the U.S. only travels at 65 mph. The reason why we don’t have highspeed trains is because of greed. The documentary said that it costs 10 times more in the U.S. than it does in China to build the system. Something is very wrong with our American culture, when it costs $4,000 for a root canal on your tooth.

I suffered back in July of this year from severe pain under my left shoulder blade, and on my right flank under my ribs. The earliest doctor’s appointment I could schedule was a couple months out, so I had no choice but to go to the local Emergency Room (ER) at Baptist Hospital in Pensacola. The ER doctor ordered blood tests and a CT scan with dye. She said the CT scan didn't show any problems with my kidney on the right side, or any other issues. She thought the shoulder pain was muscle related. After spending four hours in the ER and being given a shot of morphine, I was sent home. I received a billing statement weeks later from Medicare. I was shocked when I saw what just 4 hours in the ER cost (at the only so-called non-profit hospital in Pensacola)... $16,758!!! Just the CT scam (I mean scan) cost $12,000. Yikes! What is wrong with this country? That is pure greed. Thankfully Medicare paid the whole bill and it didn't cost me a penny. Praise God!

I am bewildered as a U.S. citizen, to see all the insanity in American society and government today. Pastor Texe Marrs (1944-2016) used to broadcast an ongoing Power Of Prophecy series titled: "Churches Gone Wild!" Texe sure nailed it! Our country is sadly tearing itself apart. Things are getting more crazy every day. The Bible says that when wicked men rise to power, righteous men go hide somewhere...

> Proverbs 27:12, " A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished. "

> Proverbs 28:28, " When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase. "

Yeah buddy! I've been doing a lot of hiding myself in recent years, just staying home and avoiding public events. When I went to the Pensacola Interstate Fair this year, cops were everywhere. They even had a big mobile home Command Center on the premises...lol. You'd think they were anticipating a terrorist attack or something. American society has become so bad these days, that you cannot even go to a public event without feeling like you're in fascist Nazi-Germany. You can see the paranoia on the cop's faces, like everyone is a suspect. I doubt if I'll go to the fair next year, because it is getting creepy. Dr. Jack Hyles is so right, who said to us preacher boys at Hyles-Anderson College 35 years ago: "Fellas, it's a jungle out there!" It sure is. It sure is!

From time to time I like to go visit the First Baptist Church of Pensacola. Unfortunately, they preach the Devil's damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation, and they use the Devil's modern corrupt Bible revisions. I go because I made some friends there when I first moved to Pensacola back in 2021, and I like to go visit them. Anyway, it is creepy at their church, because they have not one, but two, patrol vehicles parked outside at all times during church services

. When people exit the church auditorium after the service, cops are standing in the hallways monitoring everything

. Yes folks, things have gotten so bad in our culture today, that churches have to have police officers standing in the hallways to keep the peace, lest church members commit crime. You couldn't make this stuff up!

I find it disturbingly ironic that the Bible tells us that the sinister Antichrist will use

” (of all things)

to destroy people. Goodnight in the morning! Wow! Satan tried bombs, napalm, deceit, bullets and murder used in war to destroy people, which were effective in the short terms, but the Devil found the most effective weapon of all —FREEDOM! If you doubt what I say, please view the following shocking data, which compares the number of men killed in every American war since The Revolutionary War versus those murdered by abortion in the United States...

Abortion War (1973-present)

This is what peace has done for America!!! This is what we have done with our liberty and freedom. We should be ashamed of ourselves as Americans. God will not bless a nation that murders its children in the womb. Woe unto the United States!

The coming Antichrist will take things to the next level, influencing people to use their God-given freedoms to commit wickedness. In do doing we will continue to enslave ourselves. Perhaps that is why the government has allowed 60,000,000 illegal aliens to flood into the country, to compensate for the 60,000,000 aborted human beings in the womb since Roe Vs. Wade in 1973 (which was finally overturned in 2022). Sadly, the FDA just approved an abortion pill, so that abortuaries (ungodly abortion clinics) are no longer needed. Life is no longer sacred to Americans. We abuse our veterans, many of whom are homeless on the streets. We abuse our elderly, leaving them no choice by to travel to Canada for affordable medications. We abuse our children, by allowing homosexuals to adopt them. Shame!

I know the prophet Daniel foretold that the coming Man of Sin will destroy many by using peace. However, I can't help but think that we are doing a pretty darn good job of destroying ourselves with the freedoms which God has granted to us, for which millions of soldiers died on the battlefield to secure and preserve. What is it to you dear reader?

If you truly appreciate the liberty and the freedom which it brings that God gave you, then do what is right. Keep the Lord's commandments. Abstain from evil. Most of all, make sure that you have received the Sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the cross of Calvary as payment for your sins, believing that after three days He bodily resurrected from the dead. This is the Gospel (i.e., the GOOD NEWS) by which all who BELIEVE IT are instantly, irrevocably and forever saved. You have God's promise of it! Thank you for reading my blog.

4.11.2 Damnable Heresy At Pensacola Christian College (2023-11-01 15:53)

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

I live in the city of Pensacola. In my mailbox today I found an envelope from Campus Church with my address and the words "To Our Neighbor" on it. I opened the envelope and inside I found a booklet of John & Romans. The booklet has 64 pages in it. The Campus Church logo is printed on the front cover.

I was shocked on page 60 when I read PCC's counterfeit plan of salvation. What I am about to show you is straight from Satan dear reader:

> "REPENTANCE — Now is the time to turn from your sin and embrace God. The act of turning away from sin is called 'repentance.' This word implies an inward decision to follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins*. It means changing your mind about sin and seeing it as something that grieves God. The Bible says that God patiently waits for all people to make this decision." [emphasis added]

Do you still think I bumped my head? I've been [1]exposing the cult at Bob Jones University (BJU) since 2014, and now I have been exposing the cult at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) since 2021. By God's grace, I will continue to expose these wicked organizations.

I thank God for the New IFB (New Independent Fundamental Baptist) movement in the United States. People can criticize Pastor Steven Anderson all they want, at least I know I can trust him to get the inspiration of the King James Bible right, and a free grace Gospel right. Pastor Anderson admirably [2]exposes the Devil's rotten Bible versions, whereas PCC wickedly bids Godspeed to the toxic Bob Jones cult and their multiple corrupt Bible revisions. Pastor Anderson rightly preaches the truth about '[3]Repentance & Salvation.'

I feel sick! The cult at PCC are aggressively spreading their damnable heresy throughout Pensacola, mailing spiritual poison to people's mailboxes. With neighbour's like Campus Church at PCC, who needs an enemy like the Devil? PCC has much blood on their hands! Dear friend, nowhere in the inspired King James Bible does it teach that you must repent "of your sin" or "turn from your sin" to get to Heaven. Yet, PCC and their Campus Church arrogantly have changed God's simple plan of salvation, perverting Bible repentance to mean, "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins." Oh my! That is the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation!!!

Shame on Campus Church and PCC! My accurate Bible preaching against PCC's apostasy will be vindicated. Campus Church just mailed ammunition to my home mailbox today, revealing their underbelly so that by God's grace I can further expose their dangerous religious cult at PCC. [4]I wrote this article to help teach people what true Bible repentance is. Dear reader, you cannot be born-again if you place your trust in a counterfeit Gospel. What PCC and their Campus Church are preaching is another gospel, not the free grace of God, which is without works. As I read further in PCC's rotten plan of salvation, just like the pseudo-Christian cults (Mormons, Roman Catholics, Seventh-Day Adventists, et cetera), they speak out of both sides of their mouth—claiming that salvation is free and by grace, yet at the same time requiring you to "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins."

To make matters even worse, on page 62 of the "John & Romans" booklet, Campus Church tells the reader that to be saved, you must make a mental check requiring the reader to agree to:

> "I repent of my sins. I realize that sin is something that God hates and I no longer want to hold onto sinful bad habits." [emphasis added]
>

Oh My! Folks, this is NOT part of the Gospel which the Apostle Paul preached in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4...

> 1st Corinthians15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

There you have it! The "Gospel" is the "GOOD NEWS" that Jesus Christ DIED on a cross for our sins, He was BURIED and after three days He physically RESURRECTED from the dead. In Paul's Gospel (which Paul said he received directly from Jesus in Galatians 1:12), did you see anything that reads: "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins"? No, that is not what Paul taught. So why is PCC and their Campus Church promoting this filth?

The only requirement to believe the Gospel is to know why you need to be saved? You need to know what you're being saved from. You are a guilty sinner, and so am I. No one has ever lived who didn't sin (Romans 3:10-23), except Jesus (Hebrews 4:15). He is the perfect sinless Lamb of God (John 1:29). The Bibles teaches and warns that the wages we earn from our sinning is death (Romans 5:12, 6:23). This includes a second death in Hell, fire and brimstone forever (Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8). If you admit by faith to God that you are a guilty sinner deserving of Hell, then that is all you need to know to believe the GOOD NEWS that Jesus Christ died on a cross to pay for your sins, was buried and three days later He bodily raised up from the dead for your justification. BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS, oh sinner, and you are saved!

The booklet of "John & Romans" says inside the front cover that it was published by “Concerned Independent Baptist Churches” and is distributed by the First Baptist Church in Milford, Ohio. The church has an email inside the back cover. Please let these people know that they are extremely wrong for perverting God’s simple plan of salvation...

You can also contact PCC’s Campus Church information desk and their senior pastor, Jeff Redlin, at:

[8]info@campuschurch.com

Please let these ungodly people know that they are wrong for corrupting the Gospel. I took some photos of the booklet that came in my mail today, so you can see for yourself the trash that PCC is preaching today, sending people to Hell with this heresy. What PCC is teaching cannot produce the new birth in Christ, because this is NOT the Gospel. PCC are damning the people of Pensacola to the Lake of Fire, by preaching the same damnable wrong understanding of repentance as the Jehovah’s Witnesses, Seventh-Day Adventists, Roman Catholics and Churches of Christ. Bible repentance to be saved does NOT mean to turn from your sins, it means a change of mind from unbelief to BELIEVING THE GOSPEL. ...

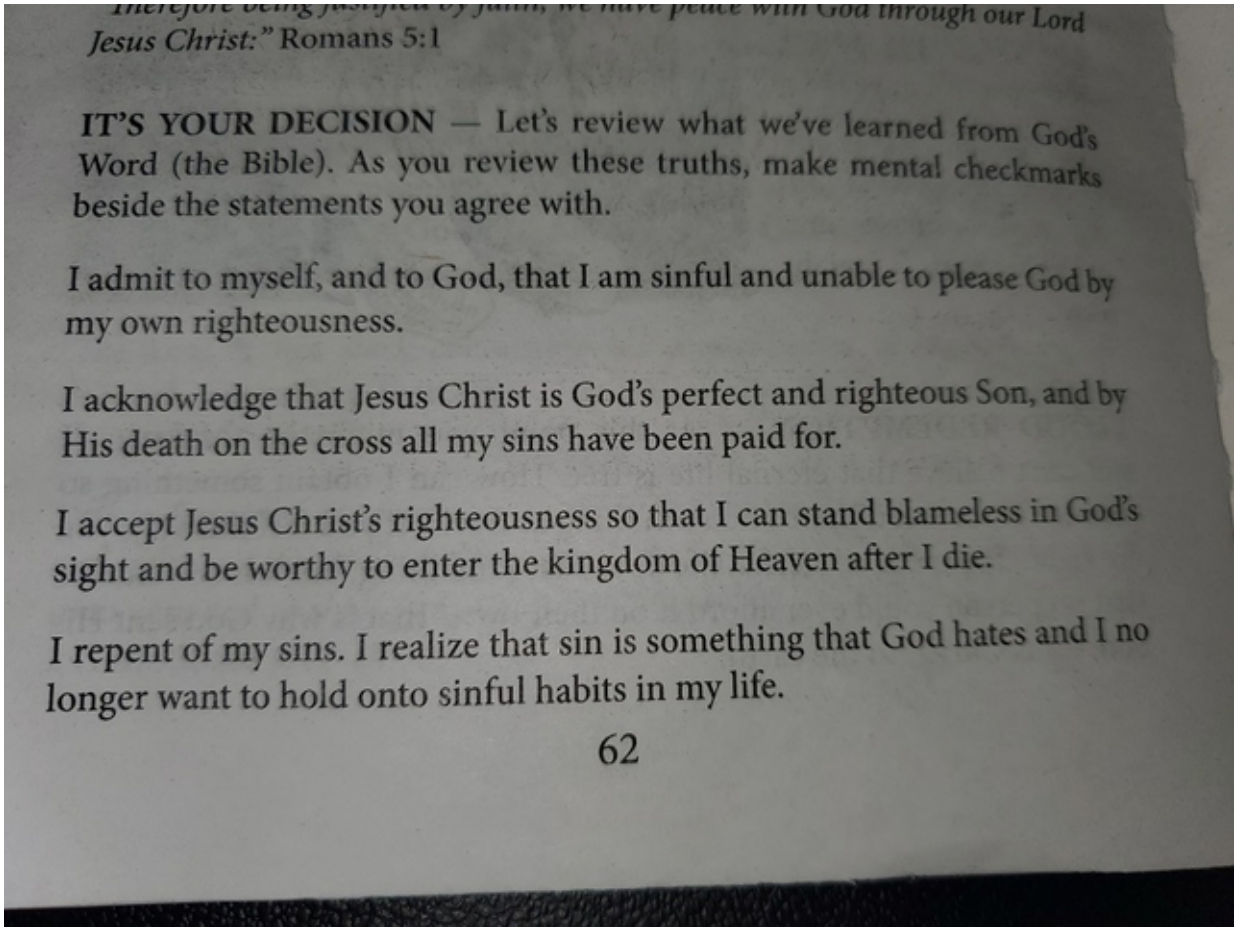
kingdom of God." Galatians 5:19-21



REPENTANCE — Now is the time to turn from your sin and embrace God. The act of turning away from sin is called "repentance." This word implies an inward decision to follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins. It means changing your mind about sin and seeing it as something that grieves God. The Bible says that God waits patiently for all people to make this decision:

"The Lord is not slack concerning his promise...but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." 2 Peter 3:9

"Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty." 2 Corinthians 6:17-18

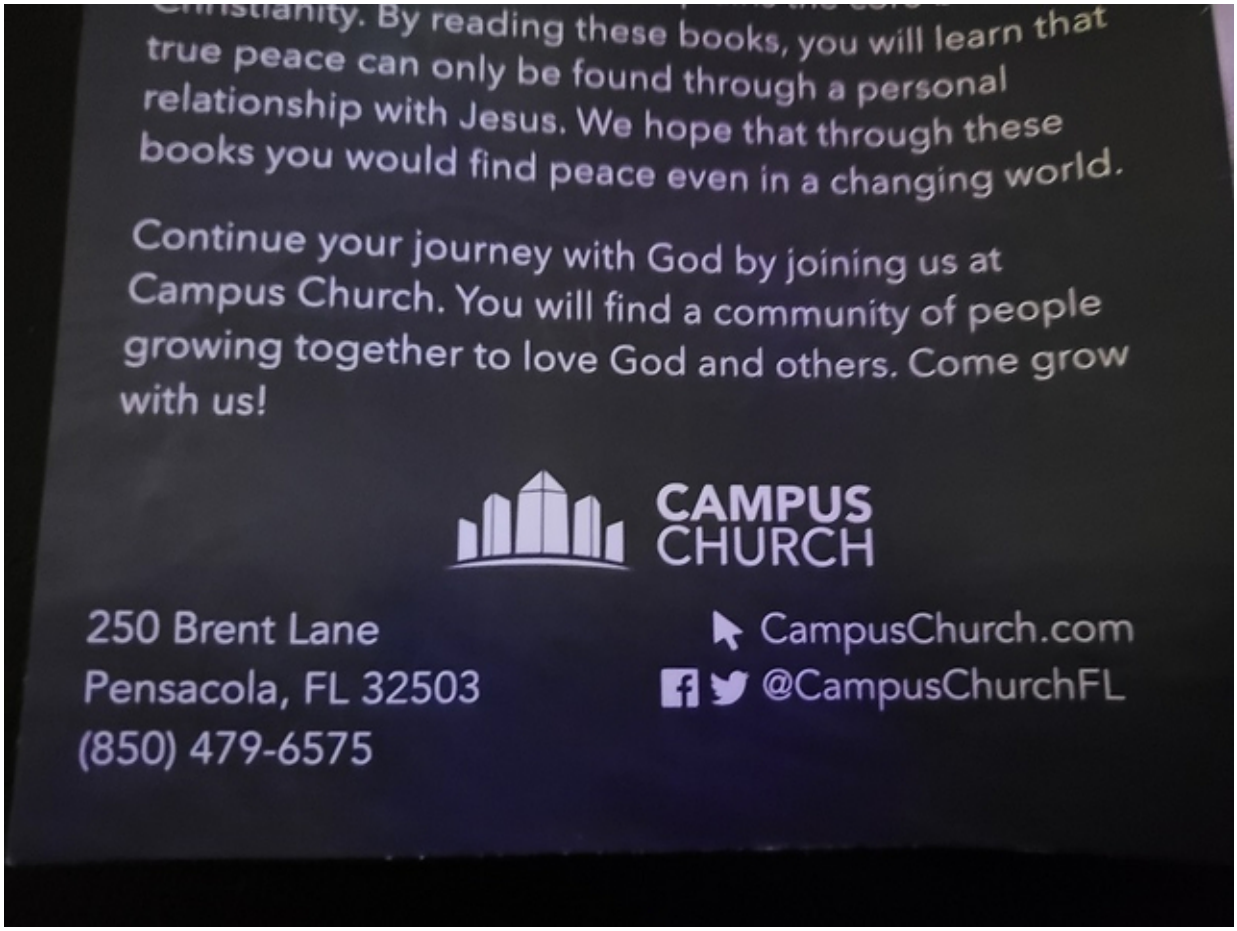
Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:" Romans 5:1

IT'S YOUR DECISION — Let's review what we've learned from God's Word (the Bible). As you review these truths, make mental checkmarks beside the statements you agree with.



I admit to myself, and to God, that I am sinful and unable to please God by my own righteousness.

I acknowledge that Jesus Christ is God's perfect and righteous Son, and by His death on the cross all my sins have been paid for.

I accept Jesus Christ's righteousness so that I can stand blameless in God's sight and be worthy to enter the kingdom of Heaven after I die.

I repent of my sins. I realize that sin is something that God hates and I no longer want to hold onto sinful habits in my life.

Pensacola Christian College's Satanic Plan Of Salvation

On page xii of his helpful book titled, "I Never Knew You: The Horror Of The Great White Throne Judgment And How You Can Avoid It," Brother Bowen writes these helpful words...

> Here is the gospel: God says that we are sinners and that no amount of good works or behavioral changes on our part could ever make us holy enough to enter heaven. God sent His Son to pay for all of our sins. Jesus paid for our crimes by dying on the cross for us all. His dead body was buried in a grave. On the third day, Jesus arose from the dead. The instant you believe this, He knows it and He saves you. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on Me hath everlasting life" (John 6:47). The free gift is based solely upon your trust in what Jesus did for you and has nothing at all to do with what you do for Him. "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast" (Ephesians 2:8-9).
> SOURCE: "[13]I Never Knew You," p. xii, Michael P. Bowen

Here are some of my favorite Gospel related quotes:

> Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

> Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.
>
> Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.
>
> If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?
>
> The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.
>
> We must stay true to the simplicity of the Gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief!!! We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3).
> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

God intentionally made His plan of redemption simple, easy and free for mankind. God did this because there's a lot of uneducated, educible slow and base people in the world. God's plan of salvation is so simple that even a small child can be saved, simply by understanding that he or she has sinned and Jesus paid for those sins by sacrificing Himself on the cross. Jesus didn't remain dead, He resurrected three days later. 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him."

In closing, by the will of God I have declared war on every rotten church today (particularly Baptist churches) who have perverted God's simple plan of salvation. There is nothing in the inspired King James Bible which teaches to "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins" to get to Heaven. Nor will you find anything in the Bible about repenting of your sins and giving up your sinful bad habits. To do so is WORKS, not GRACE. ...

> Romans 4:4-5, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

The true way of salvation is to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, not to follow and obey God's will instead of your own self-serving sin. Campus Church is requiring lost sinners to KEEP THE LAW to be saved. The Bible warns that no flesh will be justified be keeping the Old Testament law of Moses (Romans 3:20). Jesus warned in John 3:3... YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN!!!

Shame on PCC and their corrupt Campus Church. God knows that I love the folks at Pensacola Christian College and their Campus Church. I am not their enemy, they are God's enemy. PCC are the one's who have perverted the Gospel, not me. Not one word in the inspired King James Bible teaches to begin to follow Christ and turn from your wicked way, but that is exactly what [14]infidel Ken Ham preaches on Answers-In-Genesis. Tragically, PCC honors and wickedly bids Godspeed to Ken Ham, partaker of his evil deeds (2nd John 1:11). In 2022 PCC invited Ken Ham to speak to their thousands of victim students, who are being corrupted by PCC's toxic false theology. God is not a respecter of person. God is on my side for one reason—because I am telling THE TRUTH and PCC are theological liars!!!

I think Michael P. Bowen said it best. ...

> I am at eternal odds with the false, counterfeit messages of salvation-by-works that are taught from virtually every pulpit today, on every television channel, and on every Christian radio station; however, I am not at eternal odds with the individuals who preach these counterfeit messages. My heart literally goes out to all of them because they simply do not understand Christ's plan of salvation. They have been lied to by a crafty enemy named Satan, whose sole aim is to take as many people with him to the lake of fire as he can possibly manage to steal away from God using a counterfeit plan of salvation that appears so real, so genuine, and so holy that few ever realize they have been deceived by it. Oh reader, so many of today's professing Christians who think they are going to heaven when they die are not going to make it to heaven as they had assumed because they've been lied to by today's error-filled gospel messages.

Search the Scriptures dear friend. Please don't become another victim of Pensacola Christian College's damnable heresy. If you foolishly think, as PCC and Campus Church does, that you must forsake your sinful bad habits to get to Heaven, then you are guaranteed to go straight to Hell when you breathe your last breath. If you want to go to Heaven someday, then you had better cease from your dead works and by faith rest in Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He is risen (Hebrews 4:10-11).

Nothing is a free gift if you are obligated to give up your sinful bad habits to obtain it. The truth is that you come to God as a helpless, miserable, guilty, ungodly sinner, and simply trust Christ by believing that He has already done it all for you through Calvary's cross. Then after you are saved, whatever changes in your behavior God wants to see is His department, and you can be assured that He will attend to it. The only thing that you get at the time of the new birth is God's gift of the indwelling Holy Spirit. Your behavior doesn't change, nor does God require that your behavior change to be saved. Your behavior may never change. PCC and their knucklehead incompetent pastors at Campus Church evidently don't understand the meaning of a "gift." A "gift" is something freely given without any stipulations or obligations. If God requires anything from you in return for the new birth, then it cannot be a gift; it would be a reward or a trade of sorts, which is the [17]Satanic heresy which Dr. John MacArthur preaches.

I HATE The 'Repent Of Your Sins' HERESY!

PCC Are Creating Doubts, Not Dissolving Them

Wow! I can't believe Campus Church at PCC mailed that out. That place is a cesspool of iniquity, sending people to Hell and teaching tomorrow's pastors to preach a confusing message. What a damn shame! I read a Bible verse in Daniel this morning and realized that PCC and Campus Church are CREATING DOUBTS, not dissolving doubts. ...

> Daniel 5:16, "And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom."

King Belshazzar said that he'd heard the prophet Daniel could "dissolve doubts" with his dream interpretations. Dear reader, this is what every Christian soulwinner is supposed to do with the Gospel, DISSOLVE DOUBTS in people. But we can only do this if we have a correct understanding of the truth of the Gospel in the first place. You cannot preach the truth if you do not have the truth!

I love this quote from one of my favorite free grace preachers, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold...

> "There is power in this [18]Gospel message. Most people just don't know how to present it... The clarity of the Gospel is what makes it easy for them to believe."—Pastor Yankee Arnold, a quote from the excellent MP3 sermon titled, "[19]WHY GRACE CAN SAVE THE WORST MAN!"

Any pastor who supports this rotten institution or church at PCC is partaking in their EVIL DEEDS!!! Campus Church and PCC cannot dissolve doubts that someone has in regards to salvation or eternal security. They are only creating doubt with their [20]Misunderstood Repentance (Dr. Jack Hyles exposes this damnable heresy and enemy of soulwinning). WICKED WICKED WICKED!!! By God's grace, I will continue to expose these devils!!!!!!! PCC and their pathetic Campus Church CREATE DOUBTS, they don't dissolve them.

I love you with Christ's unconditional love whoever you may be. Thank you for visiting my blog ministry. God bless you dear reader, unless you support PCC's damnable tommyrot, balderdash and poppycock! If you are okay with PCC's false doctrine, then you are cursed by God for supporting a counterfeit gospel, and you need to get saved (Galatians 1:6-9). No one has ever been born-again who turned from their sinful behavior to be saved (because that is works). Read for yourself what "works" Jesus said you must do to be saved. John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. You won't be saved until you trust in Jesus Christ alone." Carefully notice that Jesus Himself didn't say to "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins." No, Jesus said the "work" of God to to BELIEVE ON JESUS!!!

In fact, the Greek noun for repent is metanoia, which simply means "a change of mind." The Greek verb form is metanoeo which means "to think differently." These words do NOT mean to "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins." These Greek words for repent do NOT mean "I repent of my sins. I realize that sin is something that God hates and I no longer want to hold onto sinful bad habits." I applaud Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) for getting repentance correct, who said:

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ([21]Except Ye Repent, p. 16)

The only thing that we need to repent from to be saved is UNBELIEF. Repentance is admitting to God that you are a guilty sinner, not turning away from your sinful behavior. I love this helpful quote by Dr. Ironside...

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past …

> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all."
>
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: '[22]What Is The Gospel?'

Amen, bravo Pastor Ironside! Here is another awesome quote from Dr. Harry Ironside...

> "Repentance is the recognition of my sinnership—the owning before God that I am as vile as He has declared me to be in His holy Word."
>

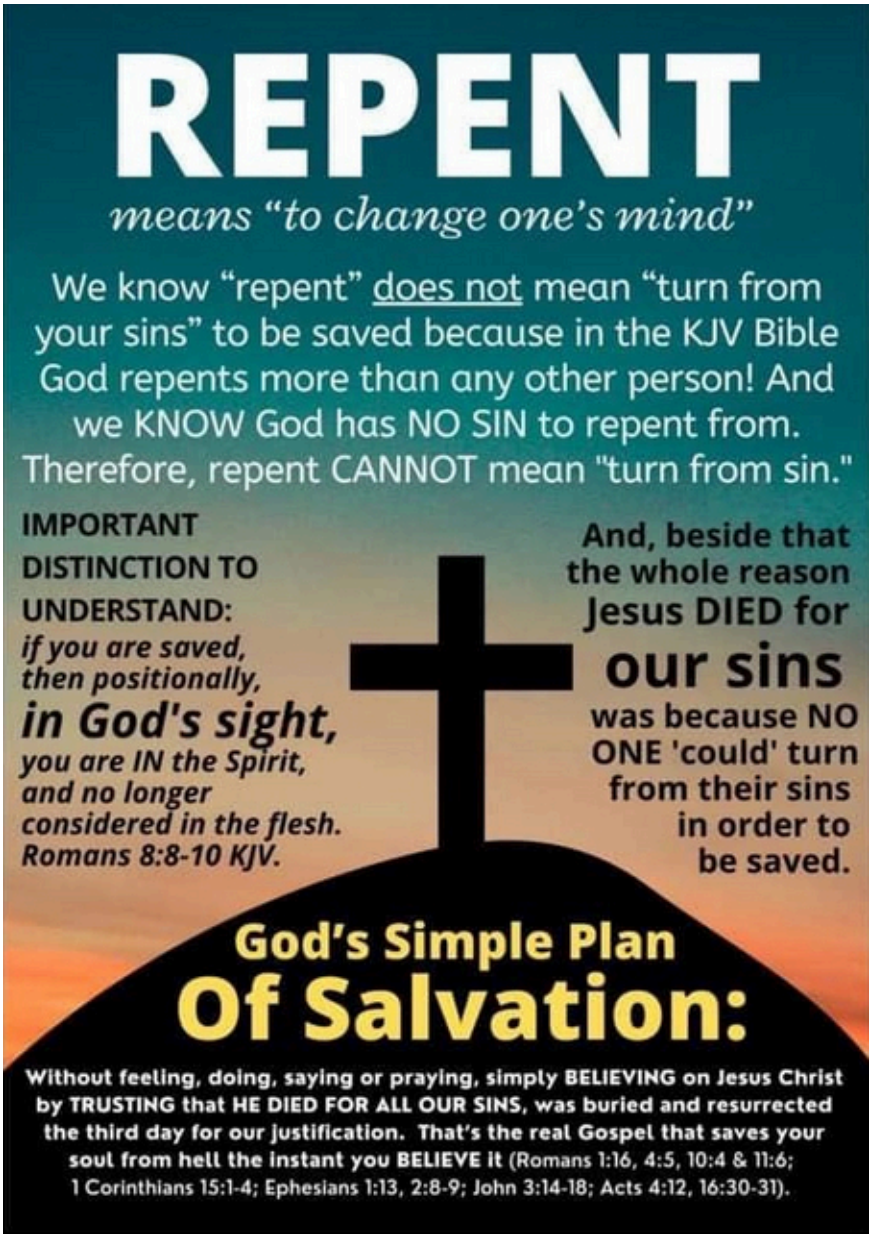
Dr. Jack Hyles 100 % correctly and Biblically states concerning repentance...

> "Repentance is not some little silly, 'I'm sorry.' Repentance is not simply a fear of God. Repentance is not a monk fasting and afflicting his body in a monastery. Repentance is not remorse because of sin's consequences. Repentance is not penance performed before the pope as you kiss his toe... Repentance is not being sorry for what I've done wrong. It is not confessing one's sins to a priest. It is not just conviction of sin. It is not the signing of a pledge of abstinence. Repentance is that thing when you come before God and see yourself as you are, and see Him as he is, and say with Isaiah 'Woe is me, for I am unclean!"' —Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), a quote from the timeless MP3 sermon, '[24]THE GOODNESS OF GOD LEADETH TO REPENTANCE!'

Do we need to realize our sinful condition to be saved? Of course, yes! But there is not one verse in the entire Bible which requires a person to forsake sin to be saved, nor be willing to give up their sinful lifestyle to be saved.



I want to share this excellent quote again by Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold...

> "There is power in this [25]Gospel message. Most people just don't know how to present it... The clarity of the Gospel is what makes it easy for them to believe."—Pastor Yankee Arnold, a quote from the excellent MP3 sermon titled, "[26]WHY GRACE CAN SAVE THE WORST MAN!"

Tragically, PCC and Campus Church are confusing tens of thousands of people throughout Pensacola, by mailing poisonous booklets that preach another gospel. Nothing is clear about their toxic plan of damnation. Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) is so right, who said that it's like buttoning a dress shirt—if you get the first button wrong, then all the other buttons will be wrong too. If a man is wrong on repentance, then he is going to be wrong on everything else too! We simply cannot trust PCC and Campus Church doctrinally, because they are wrong on repentance; and therefore, wrong on the Gospel. I am shocked that PCC is distributing this damnable heresy throughout Pensacola! PCC have complicated God's simple plan of salvation, changing it by adding damnable embellishments, so that no one can be saved from it.

I love you with Christ's unconditional love whoever you may be. Thank you for visiting my blog ministry.

4.11.3 Pastor Johnny Pope's Perverse Plan of Salvation (2023-11-04 15:41)

Revelation 3:2, "Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God."

When I attended Hyles-Anderson College (HAC) between 1985 to 1993 (when I graduated with a bachelor's degree in Pastoral Theology), we attended chapel Monday through Friday at the college. One day in chapel I heard a staff member named Johnny Pope preach to all the students. He said something that I have never forgotten: "We need a whole new breed of preachers in this next generation!" Johnny Pope was so right!

Unfortunately, [1]Johnny Pope is scheduled to speak at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) next year in 2024 on February 28 to March 1. Sadly, Raymond Barber is also scheduled to speak at the Bible Conference. Dear read, in case you didn't already know, [2]PCC is a cult that preaches another Gospel. At PCC they errantly teach that to get to Heaven you must "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins." Oh my! That is the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation!!! PCC also errantly teaches that to be saved you must have the mindset, "I repent of my sins. I realize that sin is something that God hates and I no longer want to hold onto sinful bad habits."

Oh my! That is the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation!!! ...

> "I repent of my sins. I realize that sin is something that God hates and I no longer want to hold onto sinful bad habits." [emphasis added]

SOURCE: “[3]John & Romans,” Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, p. 62

That is another gospel, not what the Gospel that the inspired Holy Bible teaches in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Why, oh why, would Johnny Pope support such wickedness? I’ll tell you why, because he is also deceived by the Devil. Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) made a great statement:

“

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.

” I’ll apply this principle a little later.

Johnny Pope is the pastor of Christ Church Baptist Fellowship in Houston, Texas. On their church website, on the page titled: ’What Is Your Answer?,’ you’ll read the following words...

What to do to be saved

There are two commandments in the Bible for the sinner to obey in order to be saved. They are not outward deeds, but one decision of the heart and mind. You can obey these two commandments without moving a muscle! These commandments are: repent and believe.

“Repent ye, therefore, and be converted [turn], that your sins may be blotted out.” [Acts 3:19] To repent is to confess that you are a sinner, turn from sin to God and pray to Him for mercy and forgiveness through the blood of His Son, Jesus Christ. [Luke 18:13; Romans 3:25] You remember how you have told your parents you were sorry and asked forgiveness, or how you made up to a friend you had wronged, don’t you? Well, you have done wrong before God, and you must “square” things with Him. You must be willing to run from sin (be converted), but you cannot do this on your own power—that is where faith (believing) comes in.

“Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.” [Acts 16:30,31] You must not only believe facts about Him, you must believe on Him. By illustration, it is not enough to believe facts about a doctor. If a doctor saves your life when you have had a serious illness, you must trust him with your life. And you do not help him, you simply submit to him, don’t you? Saving faith, then, is to receive Jesus Christ [John 1:12], to trust Him to take you to Heaven, and believe that He will. Once you put your soul into His hands, you are His responsibility. He takes your sin, and you take His righteousness [2 Corinthians 5:21]. You will then become God’s child, born again by His Spirit, sealed forever! [Ephesians 1:13; 4:30] You will then be saved—and saved means “to be made safe.” [emphasis added]

Dear reader, what you have just read is damnable heresy!!! I am going to refute the preceding heresies below:

1. There are NOT two things that you must do to be saved. There is only ONE, which is to believe the Gospel (i.e., the 'GOOD NEWS' of Jesus' death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection - 1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

2. Repentance does NOT mean to turn from your sin. Bible repentance concerning salvation is always either the Greek noun metanoia (which means: "a change of mind"), or the Greek verb metanoeo (which means: "to think differently"). Repent does not mean to "turn from your sins" to be saved; it does not mean to "run from sin."

3. Johnny Pope perverts the meaning of Acts 3:19. Pastor Pope heretically says, "you must 'square' things with Him. You must be willing to run from sin (be converted)." Oh my, that is damnable heresy! Dear reader, you absolutely cannot square things away with God on your own. You can turn from your sins all you want, but that won't make you one iota right with God. That is the whole reason why Jesus had to come into the world to die on a cross to pay your debt of sin (and mine). Johnny Pope was inspired by demons when he wrote his plan of damnation. Pastor Pope horribly misinterprets Acts 3:19, "Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;" Pastor Pope ASS-U-MEs that the word "converted" means to turn from our sins. Although it is accurate that the word "converted" means "to revert," from which the English word "turn" used elsewhere in the New Testament is also translated; the word converted is not referring to turning from your sins, it means to be saved. We know this by taking into consideration the whole of Scripture. Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) made the following helpful statement: "A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one." Kindly said, Johnny Pope is using an obscure passage of Scripture from Acts 3:19, while completely ignoring the entire Gospel of John (which God authored for the primary purpose of showing humanity how to have eternal life). Not one verse in the Gospel of John teaches to "turn from your sin" to be saved. Ungodly but well-meaning religious men have embellished God's simple plan of salvation, adding to God's Word, making themselves liars (Proverbs 30:5-6).

4. You don't have to "square things" with God by turning from your sins to be saved. Johnny Pope is telling a big lie. Burger King aren't the only one who sell Whoppers!!!

Dear reader, somebody's got to care. If a preacher is wrong on repentance, then he is wrong on the Gospel and is preaching another gospel. I love what Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) said:

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past …

> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all."
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: [5]What Is The Gospel?

Bravo Pastor Ironside!!! I wish every pastor and preacher today had this sound Bible understanding of repentance and the Gospel. It is very wrong that Johnny Pope has based his heresy (that you must "turn from your sin") upon one obscure Bible verse, while he totally ignores the rest of the inspired Holy Bible.

When the Philippian jailer asked Paul and Silas in Acts 16:30b, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?," their simple answer in verse 31b was to "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ." No mention is made that the jailer must run from his sins, or turn from his sins, to be saved. Wicked false prophets added these extra words, to appease their hatred for sinning. But dear reader, perverting the Gospel will not save anyone. Acts 3:19 simply teaches that if a man repents (i.e., changes his mind) to believe the Gospel (be converted), his sins will be blotted out immediately, irrevocably and eternally. That is what the inspired King James Bible teaches!!!

I am saddened that Pastor Johnny Pope has the Gospel wrong, which means he is not saved. He's been preaching for over 42 years now, messed up doctrinally. Please read the simplicity of God's plan of salvation in the following passages...

> John 6:28-29, " Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?
>
> Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. "

> John
>
> 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.
> **"

I didn't see anything about running away from your sins, or turning from your sins, did you? Why does Johnny Pope and other corrupt Baptists add those extra-biblical requirements to be saved. Pastor Pope even says that the purpose of turning from one's sins is to "square things" with God. Oh, what a fallacy! Only a fool thinks that he could ever "square things" with God apart from the precious shed blood of Jesus Christ. ...

> 1st Peter 1:18-19,
> **"
> Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

In fact, biblically, you DON’T have to “square things” with God by turning from your sins to be saved. Kindly said, Pastor Johnny Pope is preaching the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, not the free grace Gospel taught in the inspired King James Bible. Jesus died on the cross to square things away for us with God the Father. ...

Revelation 1:5-6, “

And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

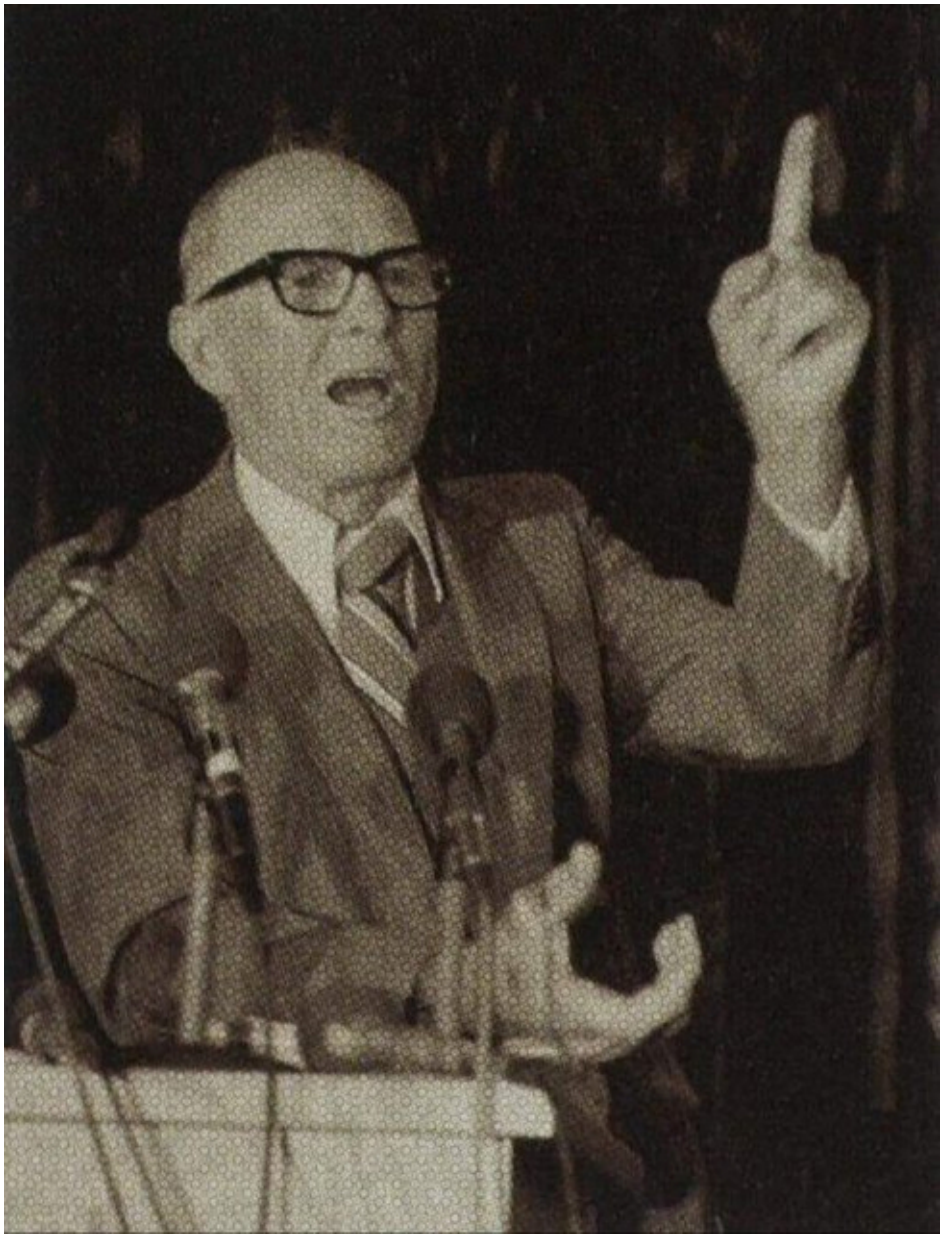
Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to “repent” means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?



The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

REPENT
means "to change one's mind"
We know "repent" does not mean "turn from your sins" to be saved because in the KJV Bible God repents more than any other person! And we KNOW God has NO SIN to repent from. Therefore, repent CANNOT mean "turn from sin."
IMPORTANT DISTINCTION TO UNDERSTAND: if you are saved, then positionally,
in God's sight,
you are IN the Spirit, and no longer considered in the flesh. Romans 8:8-10 KJV.
And, beside that the whole reason Jesus DIED for our sins was because NO ONE 'could' turn from their sins in order to be saved.
God's Simple Plan
Of Salvation:
Without feeling, doing, saying or praying, simply BELIEVING on Jesus Christ by TRUSTING that HE DIED FOR ALL OUR SINS, was buried and resurrected the third day for our justification. That's the real Gospel that saves your soul from hell the instant you BELIEVE it (Romans 1:16, 4:5, 10:4 & 11:6; 1 Corinthians 15:1-4; Ephesians 1:13, 2:8-9; John 3:14-18; Acts 4:12, 16:30-31).

Dear friend, THANK YOU for reading my ministry blog. I am just a humble VOICE crying out in cyberspace for Jesus Christ, desiring by the power of the Holy Spirit to be a blessing to others.

“If we don’t take our conflict seriously, the Devil will conquer us easily.” —Evangelist Lester Roloff (1914-1982)

The Devil is working relentlessly to kill, steal and destroy people’s lives (John 10:9). Jesus said He came to give men life, and life more abundantly (John 10:10). One of the great joys of the Christian life is contending for the faith. It saddens me that Johnny Pope is not one of the new breed of preachers that we need. Tragically, he is one of the corrupt preachers of our perverse generation who is pulling on the same rope as the Devil, by preaching the fraud of Lordship Salvation. Jesus died on the cross to square things with God for us, because it is impossible for you or me to square things with God on our own. Why? It is because you cannot turn from your sins, no one can! The whole idea is absurd.

4.11.4 Misunderstood Repentance: An Enemy Of Soul Winning (2023-11-04 16:12)

by [2]Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001)

(Chapter 4 from Dr. Hyles book, Enemies of Soul-Winning)

Over and over again the question is asked me, "Is repentance necessary for salvation?" Of course, this is of utmost importance. Anything that deals with the way a person can escape the fires of eternal Hell and go to Heaven to live forever is of vital importance. In this chapter, we will address this most important question.

1. First, we need to find what makes one lost.

Please notice John 3:18, "He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." It is very plain in this verse what makes a person lost. Notice the words, "he that believeth not is condemned already." A person who does not believe is condemned, so not believing is what makes a person lost.

Bear in mind, the word "believing" is the Greek word which means "to rely upon." When one believes on Christ, he simply relies on Him to save him and take him to Heaven when he dies. It is very plain here that what condemns a person is believing not. Then notice it says, "because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." Once again, we are told what makes a person lost - because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. It is as simple as that.

Now look at John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." Again, we are trying to decide and determine what makes one lost. It is very plain here. Notice the word believeth, "and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him." What keeps a person from seeing life? Believing not! What makes the wrath of God abide on a person? Believing not! So, from what must a person repent in order to be saved? He must repent of that which makes him lost. Since "believing not" makes him lost, "believing" makes him saved. In repentance there is a turning from the thing that keeps him from being saved to the thing that saves him. So, yes, there is a repentance from unbelief in order to believe. It is simply a change of direction. It means a turning around. You are going away from believing, and you decide to turn around and believe. You change your direction; you change your mind. With your will you believe and rely upon Christ to save you. In order to believe, you have to repent of unbelief. That which makes a man lost must be corrected.

Now turn to John 5:40, "And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life." Oh, how simple this is, and yet how plain! Why does a person not have life, according to this verse? Because he will not come to Christ. So, if a person is going away from Christ, he must turn around and come to Christ, which is a change of direction or a change of mind. This is repentance - repenting of the thing that keeps one from being saved, repenting from "going away" to "coming to."

Notice Isaiah 53:6, "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." Especially notice the words, "we have turned every one to his own way." That’s what not being saved is - turning to our own way. Now if we turn to God’s way, which is putting our faith and trust in Jesus, we turn around from going our own way to going His way, from unbelief to belief. This is Bible repentance. Bear in mind, it is the faith that saves. The turning around is necessary in order to put our faith in Christ. One must repent from that thing that keeps him from being saved in order to be saved.

If a person were saved by good works, then he would have to repent of bad works, or of not doing good works, in order to be saved. If a person were saved by quitting his sinning, then he would have to repent of his sinning in order to be saved. A person is saved by believing, so he repents of his unbelief or turns from his unbelief in order to be saved.

Let us look at the verses that teach us we are saved by belief.

John 3:15, "That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life."

John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

John 3.18, "He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

Acts 16:31, "And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

There are those who say we have to repent of our sins in order to be saved. No, we have to repent only of the thing that makes us unsaved, and that is unbelief. If a person needs to turn from his sins in order to be saved, what sins does he turn from? Does he turn from pride? Does he turn from selfishness? Does he turn from covetousness? The truth is, nobody can turn from all of his sins until he is raptured and he receives a body like the body of the Saviour. I John 3:2, "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is." According to Psalm 19:12, we do not even know all of our sins. David said, "Cleanse thou me from secret faults." What he is talking about here is being cleansed from faults he doesn't even know he has. A person, when he is first saved, does not know all the things that he is doing that are wrong, and if a person has to repent of all of his sins, where is growth in grace? Where is being a babe in Christ? Where does the carnal Christian fit in here?

Now don't misunderstand me. I am certainly for separation and for living a godly life, but the cleansing of our lives is not done by us any more than salvation is done by us. Salvation is simply repenting of unbelief, and believing, and letting Christ save us. We yield to Him to save us; He does! Immediately the Holy Spirit comes in to live. The Holy Spirit begins His work of cleansing in our lives. He is the one Who cleanses, just as he is the one Who saves. He is the one Who points our sins out to us after we are saved just as He is the one Who saves us when we are saved.

This chapter is being dictated in San Antonio, Texas. I am sitting in a Holiday Inn. Tomorrow morning early I will catch a plane for Chicago. Let's suppose I get on that plane, and I am trusting the pilot to take me to Chicago. I do not know how to operate the plane, nor do I know the route to Chicago by air. There is nothing I can do to get myself to Chicago by that plane. I trust the pilot to get me there. So, we get up in the air thousands of feet high, and let's suppose I get a knife and cut up the seat in front of me. Now, where am I going? I'm still going to Chicago. Why? I repented of "not trusting the plane to take me" to "trusting the plane to take me."

The stewardess comes and says, "Mr. Hyles, what are you doing back here?" I say, "I'm just cutting up a little bit!"

Then suppose I reach up and cut off a lock of her hair. Now where am I going? I'm going to Chicago. You see, how I behave on the flight does not determine my destination.

So, the stewardess goes to the pilot and says, "Mr. Hyles, back in seat 14A is causing some disturbance. Look at my hair. Go back and look at the seat." The pilot leaves the plane in the hands of the co-pilot and comes back to seat 14A and says, "Mr. Hyles, what are you doing back here?" He looks at the seat I've cut up, he sees the lock of hair that I've cut off the stewardess, and I reach out and cut off his tie. Now where am I going? I'm going to Chicago. That was all determined when I got on the airplane. Now the truth is, I will not enjoy Chicago as much as I would have enjoyed it, nor will I go to the part of Chicago I'd planned to, but I'm still going to Chicago.

When we put our faith and trust in Christ, and repent of unbelief, and believe, God's Holy Spirit comes in to live and begins to straighten us out. He points out our sins, and as we yield to Him, He cleanses us from our sins. If we misbehave on the journey, we are still going to Heaven, because we go to Heaven by trusting Christ to take us there. The Holy Spirit Who came in to live begins to point out things that we should and should not do. If we do not obey Him, if we misbehave on the journey, we will still go to Heaven; we simply will not enjoy it as much as we would have had we behaved, just as I would not enjoy Chicago as much as I would have had I behaved.

I know a young man who recently got married. He got an apartment several months before he got married and lived there alone until the wedding took place. What a mess that apartment was! His pants were hung on the bedpost, his shoes were left on the floor beside the bed, and the bed was never made. Then one day he got married. Now how did he get married? He got married by turning from being single to being married. He repented of not being married and got married. When he took his new bride to the apartment, she was aghast, but immediately she began to straighten things up. She put his shoes in the closet, took his shirt off the chair, removed his clothes off the bedpost, and made a lovely little apartment out of the mess that he had made. Now he was not married because he cleaned up his apartment; he was married because he repented of that thing that kept him from being married. He repeated the vows and accepted her as his wife. It was then that she came in; it was then that his apartment began to get clean!

Practically every false doctrine comes from getting things out of order. God's divine order is salvation, then change; not change and then salvation! If one has to be changed to be saved, that's salvation by works. It is also salvation by the flesh. The truth is, one is cleansed from the sins of the flesh just as he is saved; by yielding to the Holy Spirit and letting Him do His work.

2. You can repent of something other than sin.

Matthew 7:3, "Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders." Notice that Judas repented. Now what does it mean? It means he repented about keeping the money. He had sold our Saviour for thirty pieces of silver; he changed his mind and took the silver back. A change of mind and change of direction took place, but it had nothing to do with salvation. He had made a bad deal; he regretted he had made that bad deal, and he tried to correct it.

Everybody who lives in sin eventually repents, but they do not repent of unbelief. They change their mind about sin. No one lives in sin without realizing later that it did not bring the joy, happiness, peace and contentment that it claimed to bring. I talk to people every week who are tired of their sins, unhappy in their sinful life or living a miserable, wretched life because of the results of sin. What have they done? They have changed their mind about sin, and in some cases, they even quit their sin - at least that sin which was most predominant in their lives. You can repent of sin without repenting of unbelief. Such was the case with Judas. No doubt he repented that he had done wrong. He certainly repented of the bad deal he had made. He turned around, changed his mind and brought the money back, but he did not repent of that thing from which he must repent in order to be saved, and that is unbelief.

3. God repents.

Notice Genesis 6:6, "And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart." Bear in mind, the word "repent" means "change of mind." God made man and wished He hadn't. He was grieved because of what man had done, and He repented that He had made man. This does not mean that God repented from sin, because God could not sin; He simply changed His mind, which He does often. Basically, that is what answered prayer is much of the time.

Now notice I Samuel 15:35, "And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul: and the Lord repented that he had made Saul king over Israel." God had made Saul king over Israel. The truth is that God did not want to do so, but Israel clamored for a king. Saul was chosen to be that king, but it then did not turn out as it should have. So, in this verse it simply says that God repented that He had made Saul king. He changed His mind.

What I'm saying is, there is repentance other than repentance from sin. A lady can change her mind about the kind of perfume she wears. A man can change his mind about the kind of food he eats or the kind of clothes he wears. He can change his direction concerning his manners. You can repent from discourtesy to courtesy. You can repent from stubbornness to leniency. You can repent from impatience to patience, but those things don't save. Repenting from the thing that makes you lost is the thing that makes you saved, and that is, repenting of your unbelief.

Now notice Exodus 32:9-14, "And the LORD said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people: Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation. And Moses besought the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand? Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and thy shall inherit it for ever. And the LORD repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people."

Let me paraphrase the story. God said to Moses, "I'm sick and tired of the people and their rebellion. Get out of the way so I can consume them." Moses came to God and said, "Lord, don't do that. You're the One Who brought the people out of the land of Egypt, and if You consume them, the heathen people are going to criticize You. Not only that! You promised Abraham, Isaac and Jacob that you would multiply their seed and that You would give them the land of Canaan for an everlasting possession." Moses pleaded his case before God, reminding God what God had promised. Then verse 14 simply says, "The LORD repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people." The word "evil" here means something that would cause them pain; it's not talking about sin. God decided not to hurt them after all. He decided not to consume them after all. He changed His mind, but He did not change His mind concerning a sin, because God cannot sin.

Now turn to Jonah 3:9, 10, "Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not? And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not."

God was going to punish Nineveh. Jonah had preached in Nineveh and had warned the people that destruction was coming. The people believed God, turned from their unbelief to belief, and God changed His mind about punishing the people. In verse 10 the Bible says, "And God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not."

Again, God simply changed His mind and changed His direction. He was going to punish; they believed; He decided not to punish. He changed from the direction of punishing to the direction of not punishing. This is repentance, but not repentance from sin, because God cannot sin.

Look at Amos 7:3, "The Lord repented for this: It shall not be, saith the Lord."

Amos 7:6, "The Lord repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord God."

So, repentance does not always deal with salvation and sin; it is simply a change of direction or a change of mind.

4. Now we consider repentance and salvation.

Look at Acts 3:19, "Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord."

Peter is preaching here. He tells the people to repent and be converted. Now we have to go back to what saves. John 3:14-16, 18, 36, "And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. He that believeth on him is not condemned; but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." Acts 16:31, "And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

So these people had to repent from not believing and believe in order that they might be converted. They had to change directions, change their minds.

Let me say again that I do not believe for a second that Christian people should live like the Devil. No preacher preaches separation more than I do. I simply believe that that separation is a work of the Holy Spirit just like regeneration is a work of the Holy Spirit, and it starts after one has repented from that which makes him lost, and that is unbelief. When this is done, he believes, he is saved. Then the Holy Spirit comes in and begins to tell the Christian what sins from which he should repent. The man changed his mind about unbelief. The Holy Spirit directed him there. Now the Holy Spirit comes in to live and begins to change his mind about other things.

Now look at Acts 2:38, "Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost."

Peter is saying, "Change your mind and be baptized." Now, about what did they change their minds? This is answered in verse 41. Look at what they did in response. They gladly received His Word, and then they were baptized. So what was this repentance? It was repentance from not receiving His Word to receiving His Word. That's all Peter was saying. He was saying, "Change your mind about receiving the Word," which states that you must believe and repent from unbelief in order to be saved.

Now turn to Acts 17:30, "And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent." Notice God commandeth all men every where to repent. Repent from what? Repent from the thing that keeps them lost, and that's unbelief. What corrects this? Look at Acts 17:34, "Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Dammaris, and others with them." Notice it said, "certain men believed." So, when he said, "repent," he was saying "repent from unbelief and believe," because just as in Acts 2:38 and 41 a command was given to repent, and the believing was the obedience to that command. They changed their mind about belief. They decided to believe instead of not believe.

Now look at Mark l:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel."

Jesus Himself is saying repent, and notice immediately He says, "repent, and believe." What He was saying is, "Quit unbelieving, and believe. Quit not believing, and believe." Again, I'm not saying a Christian should live like the Devil, but I am saying that changing your life does not save you. That's salvation by works. Faith is what saves you. You turn from unbelief to belief; from no faith to faith, and then repentance from sins begins, because He Who convicted you from the sin of unbelief to believing now lives in you. How easy it is now for Him to convict you day by day of other things from which you can repent and about which you can change your mind.

5. Repentance from sin is directed to God's people.

Revelation 2:5, "Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

Here is a case of a church that was a good church. It was a church that worked. It worked hard. It hated sin. It was doctrinally sound. Revelation 2:2, "I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars." It was a patient church. It was a church that believed in the name of Jesus and did not faint in their standing for that. Revelation 2:3, "And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted." However, it was a church that had left its first love. It does not say that that church lost its first love, but they left their first love. When you lose something, you don't know where it is. When you leave something, you know where to find it. It does not say that this church did not love any more. The truth is they did love. Love is what made them faithful, what made them work, what made them have patience, what made them hate sin, what made them stand for the name of Jesus, what made them hate false doctrine. This was a church of people who loved God, but they had left their first love - that first sweet love - maybe more shallow than the love they had then.

It does not say that they loved Him less. The truth is they probably loved Him more, but God is saying, "I want both. I want the deep, mature love that you have now and the sweet expressive love that you used to have.

The only sin this church had committed was the sin of leaving their first love -that "Amen!" love, that "Hallelujah!" love, that "Glory to God!" love, that sweet, expressive love. Nevertheless, they sinned, and God told them to repent. Repent from what? Repent from drinking? No. Repent from adultery? No. This is not the subject here. It's repenting from not loving Christ with the first love.

This same type repentance was commanded to the church in Pergamos. Revelation 2:16, "Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth." The same thing was said to the church at Thyatira in Revelation 2:21, 22, "And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not. Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds." The church in Sardis was told likewise to repent in Revelation 3:3, "Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee." The church at Laodicea received the same command in Revelation 3:19, "As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent."

So you can see that God tells individuals to repent; He also tells groups to repent. He tells nations to repent. Time and time again He called Israel to repentance.

Now let us review, as follows:

1. God says to the unsaved, "Repent of your unbelief."

It's very interesting that in I John the word "repentance" is never mentioned, and yet the purpose of I John was to give people the assurance of salvation. I John 5:13, "These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God." Of course, repentance is certainly implied throughout the entire book, because the book tells us that what saves is believing on Christ (or relying on Him) to save, which, of course, implies that that person must repent of what makes him lost, which is unbelief.

2. God says to the saved people, "Repent of sin." This is done by the Holy Spirit as He comes in to live to remind us to take the clothes off the bedpost, the shirt off the chair, put the shoes into the closet, etc.

3. If a person must repent of his sins to be saved, of what sins must he repent? Can he repent of all of them? Isn't that sinless perfection or holiness? Isn't that salvation by works? Of what sin must one repent? He must repent of the sin that makes him lost, and that's the sin of unbelief.

4. If turning from sins would get you saved, then turning back to sins would get you lost. In Acts 16:30 the very simple question is asked, "What must I do to be saved?" This is the one time in the Bible where this question is asked. Now the answer to this question must be what saves a person. Acts 16:31, "And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." There's the answer-belief. There is nothing about repentance here, except, yes, there is something about repentance, because you can't believe without repenting from unbelief.

5. If a person has to clean up his own life before he gets saved, we are back to Arminianism or salvation by works.

6. We cannot do what the Holy Spirit can do. The Holy Spirit first convicts us of our sin of unbelief to bring us to Christ. Once He brings us to Christ, He comes in us to live. Romans 8:9, "But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his." I Corinthians 6:19, 20, "What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."

Then when the Holy Spirit is in us, He begins to convict us of things in our lives that should be changed. Then the Christian life becomes a constant repenting until we wake in the likeness of Christ.

John 11:25-26, “

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

There is a horrible false doctrine being preached in New IFB (Independent Fundamental Baptist) churches today, which errantly says that a lost sinner cannot be saved without calling, asking or praying to be saved. The Bible does not agree with that teaching! The following needful YouTube video by my ministry friend Onorato Diamante exposes the FALSE DOCTRINE of many pastors in the New IFB movement that you cannot be saved unless you pray, call and ask God to save you.

...

New IFB Cult Redefines Faith

Wow, Pastor Jonathan Shelley is getting weird. He is espousing strange doctrine, as are other New IFB pastors. This is tragic. In a foolish attempt to prove that you have to "ask" to be saved, I heard Pastor Steven Anderson cite □□□□ □:□□, "□□□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□, □□ □□□□ □□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□, □□□ □□□ □□ □□ □□□□ □□□□□ □□ □□□□, □□□□ □□ □□ □□□□□; □□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□ □□ □□□, □□□ □□ □□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□ □□□□□."

Ironically, if you read the rest of John chapter 4, not once did anyone ever ask Jesus to save them, the Bible says they simply "believed." □□□□ □:□□, "□□□ □□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□□

[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

In Galatians 3:2 the Apostle Paul asked the Galatian churches if they were indwelt with the Spirit (saved) by keeping the works of the law, or BY THE HEARING OF FAITH. That is how you get saved—you simply BELIEVE in the "Good News" when you hear it preached. Calling, praying or asking to be saved is NOT necessary.

Albeit, I humbly don't think "asking" Jesus to save you hinders a lost sinner from being saved. I asked Jesus to save me when I was 13 years old, but I did it in ignorance. It is a natural response to call upon the name of the Lord from a believing heart. There is NOTHING wrong with asking, calling or praying in response to one's heart's faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. But there is something VERY WRONG with saying that a sinner cannot be saved unless they call, ask or pray, when the Bible simply tells us to BELIEVE ON JESUS. To require someone to call, ask or pray is false and unbiblical.

God saved me, because my pray was rooted in faith. I now know that I could have just as easily believed on His name to be saved. It bothers me when preachers wrest the Scriptures. The Bible teaches in Romans 10:14 that we call because we believe. However, it is heresy to say that someone cannot be saved without praying a prayer to ask Jesus to save you. I am astonished that New IFB pastors totally ignore Jesus' words in □□□□ □:□□-□□, "□□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□, □□□□ □□□□□ □□ □□, □□□□ □□ □□□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□ □□ □□□? □□□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□, □□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□, □□□□ □□ □□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□□ □□□□." I didn't see any mention of asking, calling or praying, did you?

In the preceding video Pastor Jonathan Shelley is horribly accusing Dr. Curtis Hutson, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, Dr. Max Younce, Dr. Jack Hyles, Pastor Harry Ironside, [2]Onorato Diamante, myself and other free grace preachers "wicked" and saying that we preach "another gospel." That is WRONG!!!

4.11.6 Dr. Mark G. Cambron Explains Bible Repentance (2023-11-06 15:11)

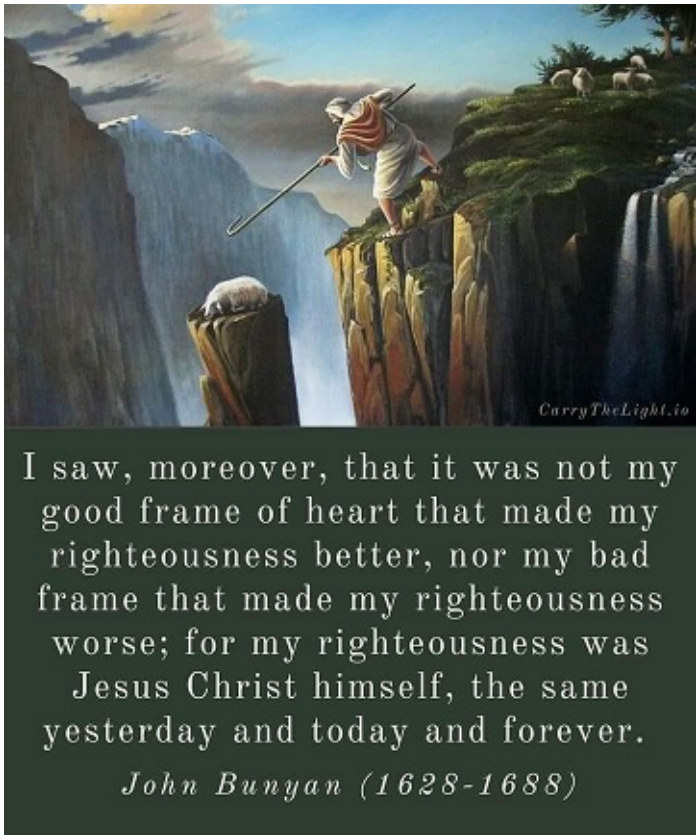
Here is an excellent and needful writing by Dr. Mark G. Cambron (1911-2000) on the subject of REPENTANCE. Please read the following quote carefully, because Dr. Cambron is one of few learned theologian who gets it correct, that is, he understands the simplicity of the Gospel and that repentance does not mean "turn from your sin" (contrary to what the proponents of Satan's lie of Lordship Salvation foolishly teach).

> □□□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□□.
> The Greek word for repent is metanoeo, which, translated into English is: to change ones mind. It does not mean to turn from sin. That would add works to salvation.
>
> Repentance for salvation means a change of mind from men's ideas of salvation and religion, to an acceptance of Gods only way of salvation.
>
> This results in a completely new creation, not a reformation of the old. The old nature remains as evil as ever after salvation and has not been reformed . . . The old nature can now be controlled by the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit.
>
> God guarantees salvation. This is His gift to us.
> God guarantees reward and fruit to the obedient son.
> God guarantees chastening and loss of rewards to the disobedient son.

God does not cast out disobedient children, but in some cases, does take them home. He does not permit His children to live as they please without His discipline and guidance.

Many teach repentance for salvation incorrectly, by including some form of human effort or righteousness, such as willingness to turn from sin, or turning from sin. This is heresy and has confused many people. It adds works to salvation and causes many to not understand Gods great gift. It is probation, not salvation. It is completely unscriptural. It is Galatianism and a counterfeit of the gospel.

It is a tragedy that many Christians live shallow Christian lives. The Cambron Institute is dedicated to the task of training Christian men and women in the importance of total dedication and making Jesus the Lord of their lives not to be saved but because they are saved.



Shallow Christianity cannot be cured by adding works to salvation.

Salvation is not the result of what we do, but is by receiving what God has done for us. Acts 13:38, 39; Acts 20:20: Gal. 1:8,9; Gal. 2:4; Gal. 2:21; Gal. 3:1.3; Gal. 5:1-4; Eph. 2:8-10; II Cor. 5:21;John 3:16-18; Phil. 3:9; Titus 3:5-8:11 Cor. 11:13-1 5.

Boy, that was great! Thank God for the few doctrinally sound preachers that He has blessed us with. Sadly, over 95 % of pastors, missionaries, evangelists, religious professors and church lay-men today are Bible ignoramuses, parroting heresy that they've heard taught by other heretics. Be a Berean! Search the Scriptures daily and learn to be objective by thinking for yourself. ...

4.11.7 Beware Of The So-Called "Unblack Metal" Music Genre (2023-11-07 22:19)

Ecclesiastes 7:5, “It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.”

The following ungodly music video by [1]the band Renascent is sickening!

Renascent - Son of God (Christian Melodic Death Metal)

This is how low professed Christians have sunken today, attempting to justify this Satanic filth as being acceptable to the Lord. One of my Christian Facebook friends called me "ignorant" and "Satanic" today for saying that the following trash is Satanic. Well, it is 100 % Satanic!!! The ungodly screaming vocals are saturated with a spirit of anger, hostility and hatred. If I mentioned the guy's name on Facebook who critiqued me today, nearly everyone would immediately recognize his name. He has a popular YouTube ministry. It is shameful what God's children are promoting as being "

these days.

The alleged " justification

by many professed Christians for this devilish music is the lyrics...

> On the cross a human shape lost its form, blood and mockers' laughter
> Pain and blood-thirsty viewers, bruises and evil words
> An innocent man dying slowly and painfully as people watch and despise > Betrayed by a friend, He is left to die
> The Son of God
> Who has come to take the sins of the world
> He was crucified
> For all our sins and iniquities, like a lamb led to be slaughtered
> He was in the world, and the world was made by Him
> And the world knew Him not

Persecuted and defamed like a malefactor
Cursed for the goodness of His acts
Finally sentenced to the uttermost death
No one knew what this man was intended to do
The Son of God
Who has come to take the sins of the world
He was crucified
For all our sins and iniquities, like a lamb led to be slaughtered
Left to die
That we may gain eternal life
Abandoned
A man of sorrows and suffering, rejected by all
He was in the world, and the world was made by Him
And the world knew Him not

[3]

May I say, just because a song's lyrics are acceptable doesn't make the music acceptable. The screaming vocals of Barry Hilliden, as heard in the preceding shameful song titled: "Son Of God, " do not promote a sweet Christian spirit; but rather, a spirit of anger, hatred and hostility. That is the first thing that any normal person would think upon such fierce noise (it certainly cannot be called music

).

Music is a spiritual medium through which the Holy Spirit (or demons in this case of [4]the band Renascent) can influence the hearer.

Such evil music as does not glorify God, although the warped minds who listen to this kind of noise will no doubt claim that it does. The young guy on facebook who defends this trash, who today horribly called me "ignorant" and "Satanic," has a bad reputation on social media of being a punk, because of the rude and harsh way that he talks down to people. Now I see why he has such a poor attitude—this death metal music (which they call "

[5]unblack metal

because it is allegedly Christian in nature)

—has warped his mind. Nobody can listen to this Satanic noise for hours upon hours and not be adversely affected phycologically from it.

Is it okay to have a brothel

(in places where it is legal like Nevada),

if the female prostitutes share the Gospel with their patrons? No, the Bible condemns all sexual sins (Colossians 3:5-6).

Is it okay to give away free marijuana (in states where it is legal like Illinois), to get people to attend church? No, the Bible is the temple of the Holy Spirit and we ought to care for our bodies, not pollute them with smoke in our lungs (1st Corinthians 3:16-17). If God wanted you to suck smoke into your lungs, He would have put a chimney on top of your head, but He didn't. Dear friend, it is never okay to do wrong in order to get a chance to do right!

I don't care what any worldly fool says, there is no such thing as "Christian rock music." It's all of the Devil. There is the Devil's music, and then there is Christian music, but there is nothing in between. Heavy metal death music draws depressed youth to it. ...

Depending on whom you ask, you'll get differing opinions on the health risks associated with listening to hours a day of death metal rock. To say the least, people who listen to this brain tommyrot for hours a day have spiritual issues in the first place. No normal person enjoys hearing this Satanic garbage! There is something dark at work in someone's soul who enjoys filling their mind with this kind of savage noise.

Granted, back in the 1950's preachers condemned the pretty Doo Wop music of the umpteen, but at least it was real music. Today's music ain't music anymore—Black Metal, Acid Metal, Doom Metal, Thrash Metal, Folk Metal, Grindcore, Gothic Metal, Symphonic Metal, Nu-Metal, Rap Metal, Groove Metal, Sludge Metal, Stoner Metal. Kawaii Metal, Christian Metal, Pirate Metal, Medieval Metal, Progressive Metal and Industrial Metal—these are all worldly and evil, not of the Father (1st John 2:15-17).

If you as a believer choose to listen to these types of worldly music, then at least be honest enough to admit what it is—of the Devil.

But please don't defend such sinful stuff as being pleasing to our holy God, because it is not I assure you! Let's call a black cat a black cat. An orange is an orange, not a lemon. Lordship Salvation is not a free grace Gospel. The inspired King James Bible is not the same as all the corrupt Bible revisions today. And Unblack Metal is not pleasing or acceptable music to God.

A worldly person will defend Unblack Metal to the hills. However, a Christian who loves God and desires to be holy as God is holy, will tell you right away that Unblack Metal is of the Devil. Unblack Metal incorporates Black Metal's fast tempos, shrieked vocals, spirit of anger and highly distorted blasting electric guitars

Here is another example of the tommyrot, balderdash and poppycock produced by Renascent. The song is called “ [7]In Hell .

” It saddens me to see a young man like my Facebook friend (unless he unfriends himself), a professed Christian, listening to this type of wicked noise and scolding me for simply calling it what it really is, “Satanic.” I am old enough to be his father, but he has utter disrespect for older and wiser saints.

I am frustrated by what I see today in Christendom. Apostasy has crept into the churches. I have another social media friend, who is also a professed Christian. She teaches her tens of thousands of YouTube followers that Hell doesn’t exist, and that Christ-rejecters who die in their sins won’t burn in the fires in Hell. She says they’ll just be dead forever. As far as I can tell, she is 100 % correct on a free grace Gospel. Albeit, something is wrong, very wrong, with a professed saint of God who denies that there is a burning Hell.

I just wanted to write this blog to warn everyone about Satan’s so-called: “

Unblack Metal.

” I can assure you on the authority of God’s inspired Word that there is no such thing as “Unblack Metal.” All heavy metal rock music is of the Devil. I am not saying that you’re not saved if you like and choose to listen to the Devil’s music. The sins that you choose to harbor in your life and soul; have absolutely NOTHING to do with God’s free gift of eternal life, which is by faith alone in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9).

Please understand that I am not condemning my friend for liking and defending Renascent, because I am far from perfect. But I am exposing this demonic band called, “ Renascent.

They are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. Shame on any Christian who tries to justify this trash as being acceptable to God!!! How much lower will people go in the name of God? [illegible] [illegible]:[illegible], "[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [

4.11.8 Our Future Plans Are All Fantasies (2023-11-09 11:28)

John 16:33, “These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

I learned a life-changing truth from Pastor Jack Hyles a few years ago. I learned that when we make future plans, they are all fantasies. That is, our future plans possess only positive ideas. By nature we don't include negatives when we plan for the future. The helpful sermon is titled: '[1]YESTERDAY'S FANTASY VERSUS TODAY'S REALITY.'

When we make plans for the future, we always think positive. Nobody plans for negatives, simply because we cannot see the future. Our plans includes our hopes and desires for good things, fun things and rewarding things. Nobody looks forward to the future with plans to suffer a crippling accident, the death of a loved one, a divorce or contracting a painful disease. Yet, these are the things which happen in reality. I hope you'll take the time to listen to the sermon by Dr. Hyles, because it will change the way you look at your life.

If you will learn to view the future with expectations that reality includes negatives, you won't be so let down and depressed when things don't go as planned. This has helped me. Our future plans should always be prefaced with the biblical attitude "God willing" or "Lord willing," because we are not guaranteed tomorrow dear friend. Proverbs 27:1, "Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth." James 4:14, " Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away." Life is so short!

Some of the bitterest Christians at one time were the most sincere people. It is because they are sincere that they became bitter when things didn't go as planned. The farther that the grandfather clock pendulum swings one way, the farther it will swing the other way. And the more sincere you are about a matter that it will turn out a certain way, the more bitter and disgruntled you will become if things go haywire. This is why I have learned not to build up expectations for the future. I figure that whatever happens will happen when I get there.

Have you ever gone someplace, like to an amusement park or a state fair, and you had a fun time; and so you plan for the next year ahead of time, planning it all out—what you're going to eat, the rides you will ride on, the fun things that you plan do to—but then when the time finally arrives, you were let down and disappointed because things didn't go exactly as you had planned and hoped? I am guilty of doing that, I admit.

So long ago I learned never to do that again. I just take each year, each event, each adventure as something entirely new, going with the flow and not allowing myself to build up any anticipations, hopes or expectations. Proverbs 13:12, "Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life." The funnest times in my life were all spontaneous activities, totally unplanned.

And so that is how I live my life, moment by moment. The past is gone forever, so why worry and sulk over spilt milk? The future is not guaranteed by God, so why plan for what may never come? But today is ours, cash in hand, to spend it as we choose. I choose with Joshua to serve the Lord (Joshua 24:15). I choose to think, do and live righteously to please God.

The truth can be dealt with, but a lie cannot. Future plans are all fantasies, because they don't include any negatives; but real life always includes negatives. We would all be wiser to keep that in mind, so we won't be too down and saddened when things don't always go as we had hoped. Jesus is precious!!!

4.11.9 Using A Corrupt Bible Will Corrupt Your Doctrine (2023-11-09 23:52)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, "For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ."

Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar."

I am astonished at the willful ignorance of so many foolish pastors today, who are not only tolerant of the Devil's modern Bible perversions, but they also use them in their churches. See for yourself how Satan has crept his corrupt Bible revisions into the churches...

ESV	And Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone.'"
MSG	Jesus answered by quoting Deuteronomy: "It takes more than bread to really live."
NLT	But Jesus told him, "No! The Scriptures say, 'People do not live by bread alone.'"
VOICE	It is written in the Hebrew Scriptures, "People need more than bread to live.'"
RSV	And Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone.'"
NASB	And Jesus answered him, "It is written: 'MAN SHALL NOT LIVE ON BREAD ALONE.'"

And here are some serious corruptions in the John Nelson Darby Bible (JND). ...

> JND - Romans 1:20, "for from the world's creation the invisible things of him are perceived, being apprehended by the mind through the things that are made, both his eternal power and divinity,—so as to render them inexcusable."
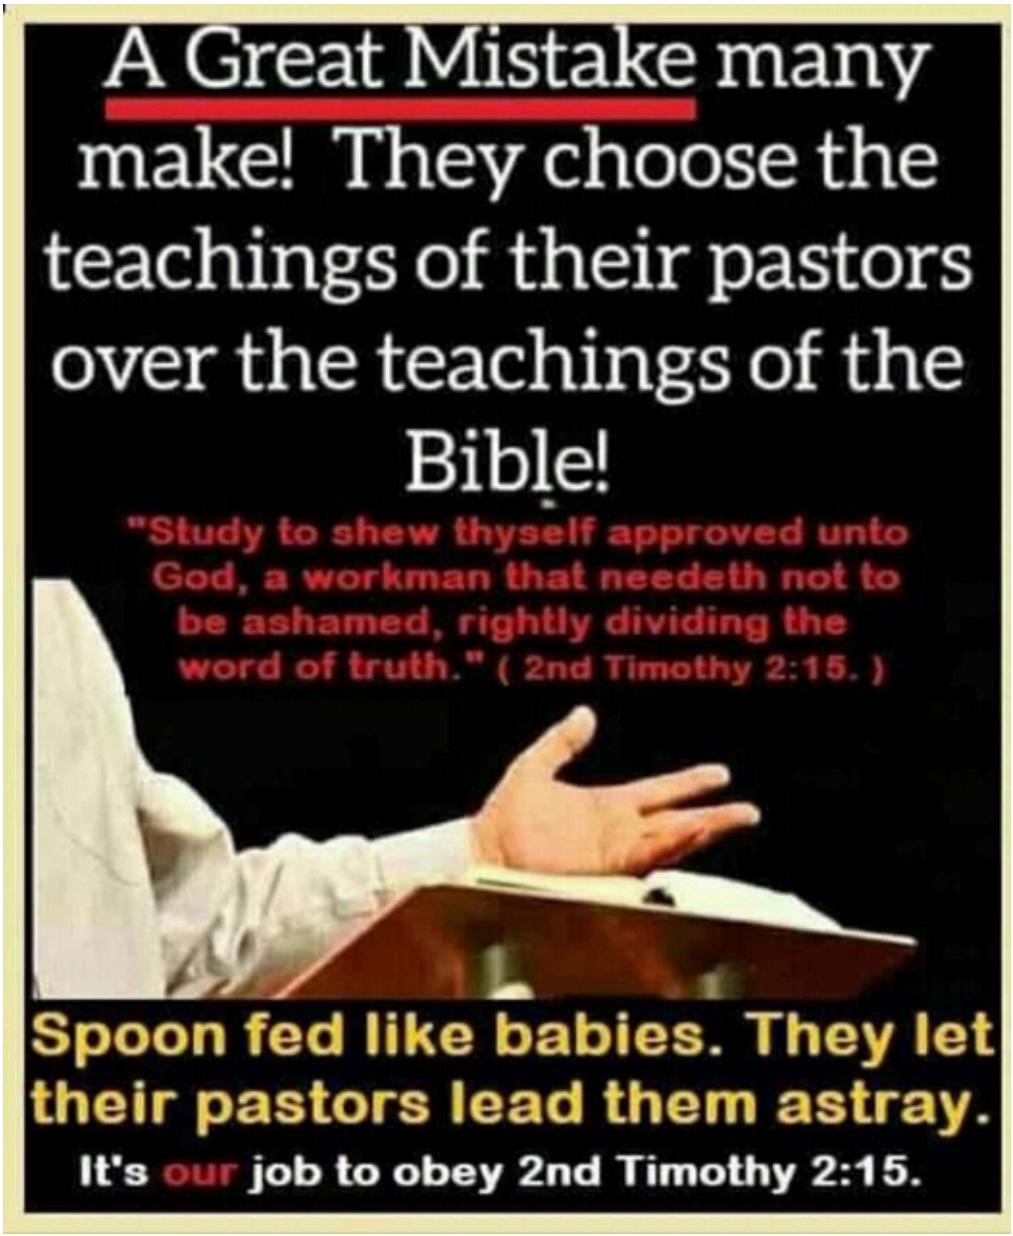
> KJV - Romans 1:20, "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:"

The word "divinity" is very different in conveyed meaning than the word "Godhead." They have effectively removed the Trinity from this passage, which is wicked. They are attacking the truth of the triune nature and existence of God.

> JND - Romans 10:9, "that if thou shalt confess with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt believe in thine heart that God has raised him from among the dead, thou shalt be saved."

KJV - Romans 10:9, “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.”

To confess “the Lord Jesus” is something quite different than to confess “Jesus as Lord.” You do not have to confess Jesus as the Lord of your life to get to Heaven. This is the damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation, which heresy is unfortunately taught in nearly every neo-evangelical church cults today. Where do you think such pastors get that damnable doctrine from? They get it from counterfeit Bible versions like the John Nelson Darby Bible (JND).



JND - 1st John 5:7, “For they that bear witness are three:”

KJV - 1st John 5:7, “For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.”

Here you can clearly see where they again removed the Trinity, that is, the Godhead. The Devil’s modern Bible revisions all make a brutal assault on the Godhead, Jesus’ deity and the blood of Christ.

Dear reader, I could show you umpteen more alterations made by wicked men to the inspired Holy Bible, changed merely so that they could obtain a legal copyright from the U.S. government’s copyright office. They need a copyright to sell their new work.

Tragically, pastors all across America and the world today are preaching another Gospel from another Bible. The biggest mistake you’ll ever make friend is to blindly trust whatever your pastor spoon feeds you from the pulpit each Sunday. ...

You better make sure to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES as the Bereans wisely did in Acts 17:10-11, " And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so." Amen!

I encourage you reader to learn to think objectively, questioning everything. And please do teach your children to question everything as well. This is 100 % biblical. 1st John 4:1, " Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. " To " try

means to

every spirit. It might be a book, a movie, music or anything produced by a human. We are spirits with a body as human beings. So everything that we produce is of a spiritual nature.

As an example: I visited the webpage yesterday of one of my Facebook friends. I noticed that he is promoting a song called:

“ [3]Son of God ”

by the unblack metal rock band Renascent. I listened to the song and was horrified by the spirit of anger and hatred permeated by the song (which I do not consider any form of legitimate music). That song is Satanic in nature! No child of God ought to attempt to justify such evil so-called music.

God is not pleased, glorified or honored by such horrible noise. Much wickedness is done in God’s name (Jeremiah 7:9-10).

I was mistaught as a youth at church to never question authority. I was taught that it is wrong to challenge leadership. Boy, was I deceived in my youth! Please don’t misunderstand, I do believe that we need proper authority, and no leaders are always right or perfect. Albeit, there is a line that when religious leaders cross it, someone needs to stand up to them (whether it be physical abuse, emotional abuse or theological abuse). It is tragic that over 95 % of pastors today are sinfully proud, arrogant, stubborn and refuse to accept correction. I have been kicked out of multiple churches for kindly befriending the pastors with THE TRUTH. They counted me as their enemy, as they did the Apostle Paul. Galatians 4:16,

“Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?”

I know that I write a lot about the same topics, beating the same drum repeatedly, but I do it for a very good cause. Hardly any preachers today care enough to expose the Devil’s Bible revisions, so someone needs to pick up the slack, which is what I am doing. Hardly any Baptist preachers today care enough to expose the accursed Roman Catholic prisonhouse of religion, so I am picking up the slack. Somebody needs to do the dirty work!

Dr. Jack Hyles used to wisely say that the most important job is the one that doesn’t get done! Pastor Hyles was absolutely correct!!! You’ll have to search long, wide and far to find a Baptist preacher today who exposes the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, who refutes wrong repentance (aka, the heresy that you must “ turn from your sin

” to be saved), who exposes the Devil’s plethora of corrupt Bible revisions today, who earnestly contends for the faith once delivered unto the saints, and who genuinely loves people with God’s unconditional love. The saddest thing I see today are church pastors who woefully lack compassion for difficult people. I wish that pastors would learn to do as Jesus did, to look beyond broken people’s faults and see their need to be unconditionally loved and guided into the truth.

Thank you for reading my blog. To God alone be ALL the praise, credit and glory.

ESV Doctrinal Error on Baptism Exposed

Is There a Bible Verse That Specifically Excludes Infant Baptism?

****

There is...IF you believe ...

King James Bible Acts 8:37

And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

There Is not ... IF you believe ...

English Standard Version Acts 8:37

[redacted]

❶ The staff of the ESV was taught that God never wanted Acts 8:37 in his Bible in the first place. Which is odd because...

❷ This is the ONLY time in the entire Bible where a personal confession of faith is a prerequisite for Baptism.

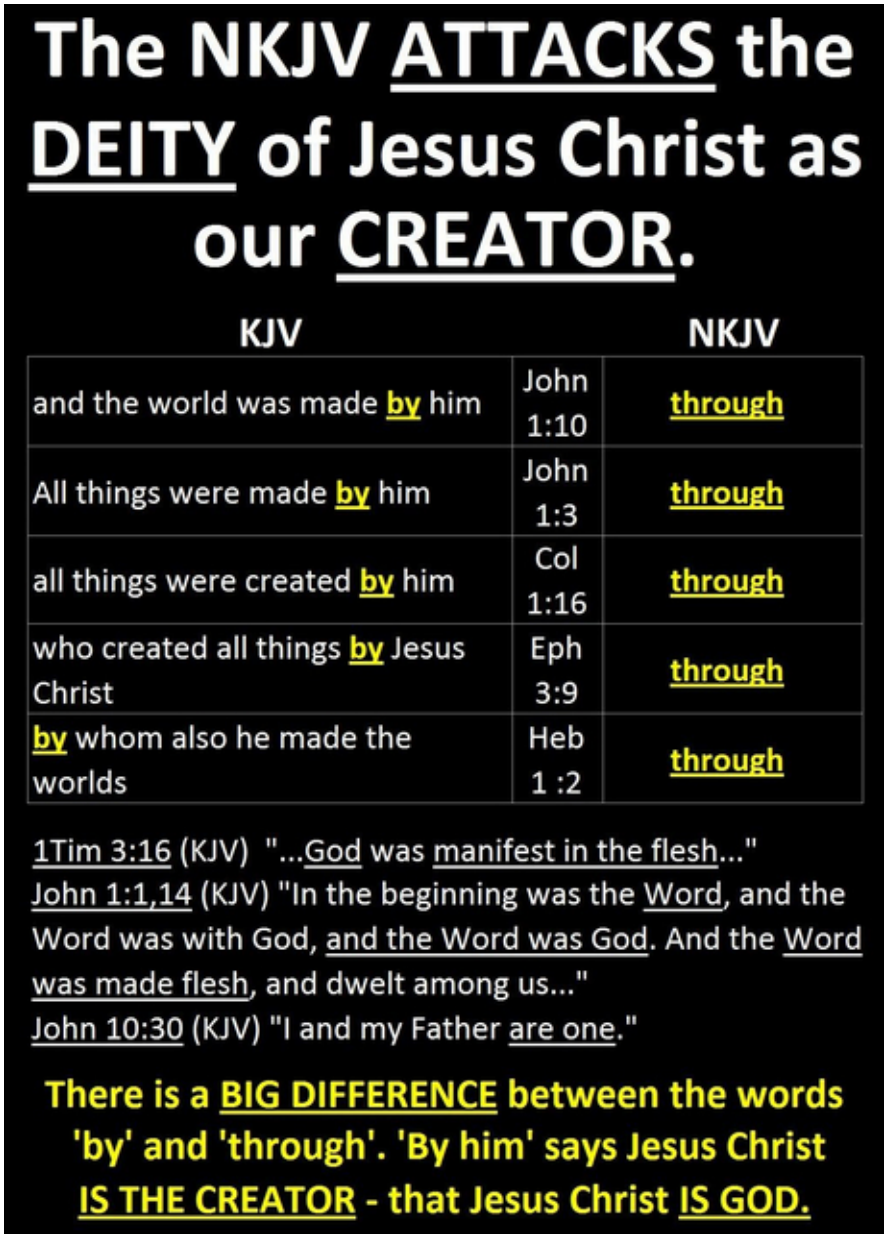
❹ This is a big doctrinal problem and an error of omission in the ESV.



So can you baptize babies? That all depends on WHICH Bible is true.

They say Bible translations don't affect ANY cardinal doctrines of the faith...

Whose faith are they talking about?

It doesn't matter what Bible I use, they are all the same.
Hosea 11:12
NIV
[redacted] BIBLE
"And Judah is unruly against God," King James
HOLY BIBLE
"but Judah yet ruleth with God,"

Do you think it's important for a congergation to sing the same lyrics to a song...
Avoid confusion! Use the King James Bible!
"For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints."

4.11.10 Ungodly Bible Colleges Are Destroying Churches (2023-11-10 21:40)

Jeremiah 23:1-2, " Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD. Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD."

Please [1]run from Pensacola Christian College (PCC)! I attended Campus Church at PCC for several months in 2021, when I moved to Pensacola from the island of Guam. When I disclosed that I am divorced, the PCC cult immediately ostracized me. Whereas some men had befriended me at first at church, when I mentioned that I was divorced and hoping to find a wife, nobody wanted to sit next to me anymore, like I had COVID-19. You should have saw the looks on their faces when I said I hoped to remarry, which is taboo at PCC.

Sadly, Pastor Jeff Redlin patronized me, making me feel like garbage as a human being. I was 54 years old at the time. I kindly mentioned to Pastor Redlin that I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church, after being divorced and alone for the past 15 years since 2006. I was deeply hurt when he actually scolded me for coming to Campus Church to find a wife. But I had never said that was the reason I came to Campus Church, he ass-u-me-d that.

Redlin has been the senior pastor at PCC since 2018. Not once did he ever offer to pray with me. Not once did he ever express even the slightest sympathy or empathy for my loneliness, health issues, and that I was surviving out of a suitcase in a cheap motel at the time. Pastor Redlin gets paid a 6-digit disgusting salary annually, spoiled rotten. There is no compassion or love at PCC. The cult system always comes first, but individual people do not matter. You will learn this if you go there.

I am not trying to be unkind, I am being very honest—Pastor Jeff Redlin woefully lacks God's unconditional love for people, for broken sinners. Timothy Zacharias (assistant pastor) is no better, cold-hearted and as phony as can be. All they care about is doing their job and getting paid. Their actions speaks much loudly their their words do, hypocrites.

I am a thankful graduate of Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993). Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) wasn't perfect (and he was the first to admit it), but he genuinely loved everybody. I love and miss Brother Hyles. I learned compassion for sinners from Dr. Hyles, something that PCC hasn't learned since 1975 when they started. Pastor Hyles is right—PCC are academics, not church builders, so they lack compassion for people. People just want to be loved. I left Campus Church in late 2021, broken-hearted and frustrated at the woeful lack of love or compassion for people at PCC. A dead spirit permeates the place, religion without a genuine walk with God.

During the time I attended PCC's Campus Church, the place felt spiritually dry, missing the presence of the Holy Spirit. The music is pretty, but it is shallow. Even worse, PCC teaches a wrong understanding of Bible repentance. Whereas Bible repentance is simply a change of mind, PCC's official doctrinal position is that to get to Heaven you must "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins." That is works, not grace. You'll find the preceding quote in the booklet of "John & Romans" distributed by Campus Church at PCC. They just delivered a copy to my home's mailbox in Pensacola where I live.

I was so lonely in 2022 that I contacted Campus Church and PCC, in two separate letters that I mailed to them, sincerely apologizing for criticizing them on social media, and pleading to come back to church. But they cold-heartedly refused. Pastor Redlin emailed me to say that I am permanently banned from returning to Campus Church. He didn't lift a finger to try to reconcile with me. They are immature at PCC. These people are religious thugs! I love everybody, God knows my heart.

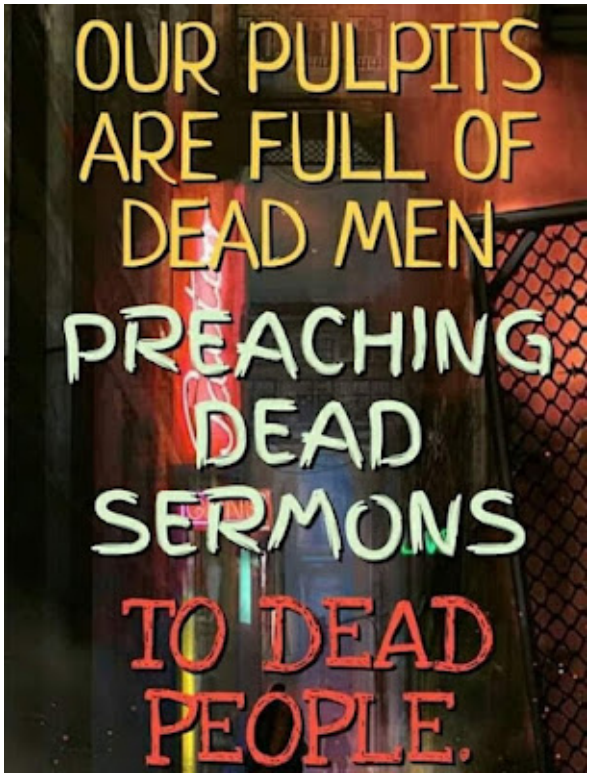
In hindsight, I never should have requested to go back to a cult, and I believe God was protecting me. Loneliness is a difficult thing to cope with.

Kindly said, PCC is a cult of snobby married people who look down on divorced Christians. They will reject, ostracize and look down their long Pharisaical noses on anyone who is divorced and ever hopes to remarry. In their mind, you are supposed to suffer the rest of your life and pretend that you don't have a libido. They are out of touch with reality at PCC. The Bible says in 1 Corinthians 7:1 that every man should have a wife, and every woman a husband.



I have been a born-again believer since age 13 in 1980. I know love when I see it, and indifference when I see it. PCC is woefully lacking in love for people. They are indifferent, refusing to contend for the faith, or reach out to hurting people who have been driven away by their unfriendliness. I don't recommend that anyone go to the PCC camp for any reason, unless you want to be influenced by their shallow, lame and abusive authoritarian religious cult. The system at PCC always comes first, but individuals do not matter. That is the bottom line.

A lady asked me if she should work at PCC. You definitely don't want to work at this intolerant place. Every vehicle that enters PCC's campus to attend Campus Church is scrutinized by security, which is creepy if you ask me. Search online for Samantha Field, a PCC alumnus. Prepare to be shocked. They treated alumni Peter Gage an Allen Armentrout like trash, as they do anybody who offends them. You're not allowed to be an individual person at PCC, you must conform to the cult.

PCC sued Peter for $100,000. PCC has no loyalty to anyone except their own, and they will hurt and expel anyone who dares to challenge their cult authority. It is sad and shameful the way PCC goes through all the motions, but without Christ's unconditional love for people—the very same people that they falsely claim to care about. PCC is training future religious leaders and pastors, which is tragic. The apple rarely falls farther than the tree. People just want to be loved.

Galatians 1:6-9, “

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

It saddens my heart that I keep learning about corrupt pastors, who preach a counterfeit plan of salvation, corrupting the masses with their toxic misunderstanding of the inspired Scriptures. Tragically, Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899) needs to be exposed in this blog. You will be shocked when you read what he taught to the masses. But before I begin, I admire Pastor Moody’s passion for people. Moody was famous for using horse-drawn coaches and wagons to bring poor children throughout Chicago to church in the late 19th century. I love this quote...

I am 100 % certain that Mr. Moody was totally sincere in his peaching, just naïve and ignorant, unlearned in the Scriptures as are so many men in the clergy. Say what you will, if you take an inspired KING JAMES BIBLE and compare what you are about to read from Mr. Moody, you will soon realize that what he taught doesn’t match up or agree with the Holy Bible. Let’s begin. Pastor Moody states:

> There is a good deal of trouble among people about what repentance really is. If you ask people what it is, they will tell you "It is feeling sorry." If you ask a man if he repents, he will tell you, "Oh, yes; I generally feel sorry for my sins." That is not repentance. It is something more than feeling sorry. Repentance is turning right about and forsaking sin. I wanted to speak on Sunday about that verse in Isaiah, which says, "Let the guilty forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts." That is what it is. If a man don’t turn from his sin he won’t be accepted of God, and if righteousness don’t produce a turning about - a turning from bad to good - it isn’t true righteousness. ...
> I heard of a man who said he had been converted, A friend asked him if he had repented. "No," said he, "I never trouble my head about it." My friends, when a man becomes converted the work has to be a little deeper than that. He has to become repentant, and try to atone for what he has done. If he is at war with anyone he has to go and be reconciled to his enemy. If he doesn’t his conversion is the work of Satan. When a man turns to God he is made a new creature - a new man. His impulses all the time are guided by love. He loves his enemies and tries to repair all wrong he has done. This is a true sign of conversion. If this sign is not apparent his conversion has never got from his head to his heart. We must be born of the spirit, hearts must be regenerated - born again. When a man repents, and turns to the God of Heaven, then the work is deep and thorough. I hope that everyone here tonight will see the necessity of true repentance when they come to God for a blessing, and may the Spirit move You to ask it tonight. [emphasis added]

> SOURCE: ’[1]Repentance,’ by Pastor Dwight L. Moody

Mr. Moody is partly correct. He is correct that feeling sorry for sin is not repentance. But he goes horribly astray when he mandates a changed life as evidence one is truly saved. My ministry friend, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, gets repentance 100 % correct. I love all of the following free grace Gospel quotes, which I have gleaned over the years while listening to Dr. Yankee Arnold’s Scriptural wisdom. I THANK GOD for doctrinally sound preachers, which are so rare to find in every generation. . . .

> “If you have to look at your life to prove that you are saved, it proves that you’re not!”
> —Pastor Ralph ’Yankee’ Arnold, “ [2]Why Lordship Salvation Is Wrong ”

> “Trusting Christ by faith alone cannot cannot be revealed by works at all; salvation can only be revealed by works, if works are required to be saved!” —Pastor Ralph ’Yankee’ Arnold, “[3]Why Lordship Salvation Is Wrong”

"'You can't tell me you can trust Christ as Savior, and then go out here and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven!' Yes, I can tell you that! That's what the Bible says. If you don't come to the conclusion, that—Yes, you can trust Christ as your Savior and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven when you die—you don't get grace, because that is the exact truth! That is the truth! I do not have to change my life! I don't have to stop one sin! You say, 'I've never heard a preacher say that.' You just heard one! And you listen to me—I want to live as holy and as godly as I possibly can. I am now 70 years old. I've been saved for 52 years. … the only reason I'm going to Heaven is because, 52 years ago in a little living room, I accepted Christ as my Savior." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, "[4]Calvinism And Grace Are NOT Compatible"

"The Gospel, if you understand it, can cause you to love one another." –Pastor Ralph 'Yankee' Arnold, "[5]To Believe, Receive, Accept, or Trust???"

"Being saved is not something that you perform, it is something that He performs." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, "[6]Raised For Our Justification"

"If all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags, then why would you use those rags to prove that you're saved?" —Pastor Ralph 'Yankee' Arnold, "[7]How Do I Know God Really Loves Me? - Part 2"

"It's not the size of my faith that gets me to Heaven, it's the object of my faith!" —Pastor Ralph 'Yankee' Arnold, "[8]Where Is Faith?"

"My destination is not based upon how I live my life, it's on whom that I trust to save me." —Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold

"There is power in this Gospel message. Most people just don't know how to present it… The clarity of the Gospel is what makes it easy for them to believe." —Pastor Yankee Arnold, " [9]Why Grace Can Save The Worst Man "

Sadly, Dwight L. Moody went from being a shoe salesman to a pastor of tens of thousands of people, but Moody had zero theological training, evidenced by his perverse teachings on repentance. Like all false teachers do, Moody honed in one one obscure passage in Isaiah from the Old Testament, while completely ignoring the rest of the Bible. Dear reader, not one verse in the entire inspired KING JAMES BIBLE (which is the only reliable Bible in the English language) says to repent "of your sins" or to "turn from your sins" to get to Heaven.

Granted, I think what Mr. Moody was trying to teach is that when you get saved, there should be some evidence of it. The inherent big problem with such thinking is that unsaved people can imitate those same behavior changes. Can an unsaved person clean up their act? Yes. Can a hellbound sinner do **"

many good works

" (Matthew 7:22-23)? Yes, yes, yes! So how can a positively changed life be used as evidence of the new birth? That's right, it cannot.

Not one verse in the Bible tells us to become fruit inspectors, to determine who is or isn't saved. But the Epistle of 1st John was written for the specific purpose of self-examination, to help professed Christians determine if they are really saved (1st John 5:13). The acid test is very simple—do you have the indwelling Holy Spirit? That is the evidence of being saved, and the ONLY evidence, so saith the Scripture. 1st John 3:24, "

And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

" If you have God's Holy Spirit living inside you, then you know it friend. The world cannot see Him, but if you are saved you know Him; and more importantly, Jesus knows you as one of His sheep.

John 10:14, " I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine."

I am so disgusted by the doctrinal poison that Mr. Moody is teaching, which millions of people still foolishly hinge upon today as if God wrote it Himself (Latin: Sola Scriptura, or Scripture alone). Dear friend, Dwight Moody was just a shoe salesman turned minister. He was only a flawed human being, who ought not be considered a theological source by any means. Even worse is Pastor Charles Spurgeon (1834-1982), who is idolized by every Lordship-Salvation-preaching-heretic in modern times.

Ironically, Moody's successor down the road, Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951), who was saved eventually as a result of Moody's preaching, was 100 % correct on repentance. ...

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past ...
>
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all."
>
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: [10]What Is The Gospel?

Amen! Boy, that is so refreshing to read. It is beautifully spoken! Bravo Dr. Ironside!!! Repentance is not a separate event from faith, although they are not the same thing. Here is the best quote that I've found on repentance, by Dr. Harry A. Ironside:

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ([11]Except Ye Repent, p. 16)

Repentance is simply a matter of acknowledging THE TRUTH of your sinnership. 2nd Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will." Repentance is entirely a matter of the heart, where a person acknowledges THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God; thus believing the Gospel you are saved by faith alone. This is quite different than requiring a man to forsake his sinful bad habits to be saved (which is the tomfoolery Mr. Moody is sadly preaching).

[12]What Is Bible Repentance?

Dr. Mark G. Cambron Has it 100 % Correct On Repentance

Dr. Mark G. Cambron, B.A., M.A., Th.B., Th.M., Th.D., D.D., L.L.D., Litt.D., was one of the foremost theologians of our times. Most theologians are ignoramuses, but not this man. Dr. Cambron was a genuine Bible scholar, a man we can trust when he teaches the inspired Word of God. Here is an excellent and needful writing by [13]Dr. Mark G. Cambron (1911-2000) on the subject of REPENTANCE. Please read the following quote carefully, because Dr. Cambron is one of few theologian who gets it correct, that is, he understands the simplicity of the Gospel and that repentance does not mean turning from sin...

Repentance is necessary for salvation.

The Greek word for repent is metanoeo, which, translated into English is: to change ones mind. It does not mean to turn from sin. That would add works to salvation.

Repentance for salvation means a change of mind from men's ideas of salvation and religion, to an acceptance of Gods only way of salvation.

This results in a completely new creation, not a reformation of the old. The old nature remains as evil as ever after salvation and has not been reformed . . . The old nature can now be controlled by the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit.

God guarantees salvation. This is His gift to us.
God guarantees reward and fruit to the obedient son.
God guarantees chastening and loss of rewards to the disobedient son.

God does not cast out disobedient children, but in some cases, does take them home. He does not permit His children to live as they please without His discipline and guidance.

Many teach repentance for salvation incorrectly, by including some form of human effort or righteousness, such as willingness to turn from sin, or turning from sin. This is heresy and has confused many people. It adds works to salvation and causes many to not understand Gods great gift. It is probation, not salvation. It is completely unscriptural. It is Galatianism and a counterfeit of the gospel.

It is a tragedy that many Christians live shallow Christian lives. The Cambron Institute is dedicated to the task of training Christian men and women in the importance of total dedication and making Jesus the Lord of their lives not to be saved but because they are saved.

Shallow Christianity cannot be cured by adding works to salvation.

Salvation is not the result of what we do, but is by receiving what God has done for us. Acts 13:38, 39; Acts 20:20: Gal. 1:8,9; Gal. 2:4; Gal. 2:21; Gal. 3:1.3; Gal. 5:1-4; Eph. 2:8-10; II Cor. 5:21;John 3:16-18; Phil. 3:9; Titus 3:5-8:11 Cor. 11:13-1 5.

Yes, that's it! Bravo Dr. Cambron!!! Please understand that I don't find any joy in exposing Dwight Moody as a heretic on repentance, but the truth is what it is. Did Mr. Moody go to Heaven? I cannot answer that question. Only God knows who is saved or lost. But I can tell you assuredly on the authority of God's Word, that the garbage Mr. Moody taught about repentance does NOT agree with what the Bible teaches. Men at best are flawed.

We see this in Acts 15:1-5. The men in verse one were not saved, because they plainly added works to grace. However, the Bible says that the doctrinally flawed Pharisees in verse five were saved. In my humbly opinion, the heresy they were teaching was that saved Gentiles were required to keep the Mosaic law to please God. The Apostle Luke in Acts 15:24 refutes them, clarifying that this is NOT what the disciples taught the people. So, in fact, someone can be messed up doctrinally in some areas and still be born-again.

The dividing line between saved or lost is when someone trusts anything more than Christ alone to be saved (Hebrews 4:10-11). In my humble opinion, Dwight Moody trusted in Christ alone, he just errantly taught that works are proof of the new birth. We know from the Bible that this is simply not true, because the unsaved false prophets in Matthew 7:22-23 did "many wonderful works" in Jesus' name, and they " prophesied "

(preached) in Jesus' name, even calling Him "Lord, Lord." Yet, Jesus denied knowing them as His sheep. Tragically, they went to burn in the fires and torments of Hell forever!!!

Religion will take you to Hell dear friend! You need to be born-again (John 3:3), which happens only by your faith in Jesus' death on the cross for your sins, burial and bodily resurrection three days later. This is the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). BELIEVE IT and you will be saved immediately, irrevocably and permanently (Romans 1:16). Remember, you are not saved by your own self-righteousness; but by the imputed righteousness of God, which is through faith in Jesus Christ. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:" Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

4.11.12 The Anvil—1611—God’s Word The Anvil (2023-11-11 15:18)

James H. Sightler, M.D. (1937-2019)
Sightler Publications, July 2004

Last eve I passed beside a blacksmith’s door,
And heard the anvil ring the vesper chime;
Then, looking in, I saw upon the floor
Old hammers, worn with beating years of time.

"How many anvils have you had," said I,
"To wear and batter all these hammers so?"
"Just one," said he, and then, with twinkling eye,
"The anvil wears the hammers out you know."

And so, thought I, the anvil of God’s Word,
For ages skeptic blows have beat upon;
Yet, though the noise of falling blows was heard,
The anvil is unharmed-the hammers gone.

The King James Bible Is Inspired

May we call the KJB inspired, or merely the best translation of the inspired originals and copies of them? Is it truly Scripture as we read in II Timothy 3:16 or not? I believe the KJB did not lose inspiration in translation. Few pastors are unwise enough to stand in the pulpit and say that Bible in the hands of the congregation is a good translation but somehow not equal to the manuscripts. But there are fundamental "academic" defenders of the Textus Receptus who boldly say that very thing.

Elizabethan English of the KJB is more precise than any legal document, more beautiful than any other literature, and more easily memorized than any other translation. H. L. Mencken, the agnostic Baltimore Sun reporter who covered the Scopes trial, said of the KJB: "many learned but misguided men have sought to produce translations that should be…in the plain speech of everyday. But the Authorized Version has never yielded to any of them for it is palpably and overwhelmingly better than they are, just as it is better than the Greek New Testament, or the Vulgate, or the Septuagint. Its English is extraordinarily simple, pure, eloquent, lovely. It is a mine of lordly and incomparable poetry, at once the most stirring and the most touching ever heard of." If unbelievers can say that of the KJB, why is it politically incorrect among us to say the same thing?

The question is whether inspiration belongs only to Hebrew and Greek manuscripts. If so the mass of believers cannot hide God's inspired words in their hearts. Is this position any better than concept inspiration or inspiration of the autographs only? It is not. The KJB translators, taught in prayer as Moses was taught eloquence by God in Exodus 4:12, rendered our Bible into an elevated, Biblical form of English, cast in a mold slowly shaped by the Biblical Greek and Hebrew as they had been carried over into other languages for centuries before English came about from them and took its best form in the 16th century.

Koine Greek of the New Testament was vernacular and also Biblical because of strong Hebrew influence. It was not the language of the streets. It was a world language in its day but is now a dead language. The best Greek scholars do not think in it nor preach or pray from the heart in it. English, now spoken by more people than any other tongue, has replaced it as a world language, and the honour given to God by the KJB is the primary reason. Bible translations in use through history in the true churches outside Catholicism have all been inspired. That our English Bible has surpassed them in beauty and soul stirring pathos is in the hands of the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, who gave Hebrew to Adam and guided the development of earlier tongues out of the integrity of His heart and with the skilfulness of His hands and by that same power shaped English itself to receive Hebrew and Greek expressions with divine ease and grace. God is in control of this world and did not stand aside and let languages evolve naturalistically without direction.

Some Things We Know

ONE The Bible is eternal, has always existed and always will. Ezekiel 2:9-10, Psalms 119:89, 152, Isaiah 40:8, Matthew 24:35

TWO Inspiration of the Bible is by direct dictation from God. Numbers 12:8, Isaiah 51:16, Ezekiel 2:1-2 and 3:1-3, John 17:8

THREE Inspiration and writing, or scripture, are specifically connected in II Timothy 3:16 and I Peter 1:17-21.

FOUR The Bible, always vernacular, is alive; it is the lively oracles which Stephen preached as given to the Jews. It lives in the hearts of believers, hidden there by the Holy Ghost who has provided spiritual understanding and tbe means by which we can call it to memory. John 6:63 says that the words of Jesus, the living bread, are spirit and life.

FIVE God sent Jesus to spend his youth in Galilee of the nations where he was protected from Herod. God ordained that Jesus' ministry would flourish there. This follows Messianic prophecy of Isaiah 9:1-8, fulfilled in Matthew 4:12-16. All the disciples except Judas were Galileans. Believers were scattered there after Stephen's stoning; churches were established there at an early time. The Lord's ministry in that land of many languages foreshadows the very early translation of the Bible.

SIX The priesthood of the believer, taught in I Peter 2:5, 9 and Revelation 1:6, requires vernacular translation as we see in I Corinthians 14:13-16, I will pray with the understanding,

I will sing with the understanding also.

SEVEN Translation has always been the means of preservation of the scriptures. The Bible has been translated, published in written form, and preached since Acts 2:4-18 (16 languages here), I Corinthians 14:5-22, Colossians 1:5-6 and 22, Romans 10:17, and Romans 16:26. Portions of Daniel are Aramaic. A number of verses in the KJB, I John 5:7, Acts 8:37, Acts 9:5-6, Acts 20:28, and Matthew 27:35 depend primarily on Old Latin manuscripts, although they are in a small minority of Greek manuscripts.

EIGHT Man did not evolve; language did not evolve. God gave Hebrew to Adam. There is a single New Testament reference which I believe confirms the belief that Hebrew was the original language and is the language of God. In Acts 26:14 Paul told Agrippa "And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? In the providence of God Hebrew expressions somehow flow naturally into English. Hebrew idioms became English idioms because the KJB translators so faithfully respected and followed Hebrew word order. "It came to pass," "a man after his own heart," "as a lamb to the slaughter," "the salt of the earth," "thorn in the flesh," and "gave up the ghost" are some of many examples that have enriched our language.

NINE England provided a place of refuge for thousands of Spanish Jews and Christians who had to flee from the Inquisition. The English remembered God's promise to Abraham, "I will bless them that bless thee," and gained a world empire as Spain lost one. The vernacular nature of the Bible, the priesthood of the believer, preservation by translation and useage, respectful and exact faithfulness of the KJB translators to Hebrew and Greek, and humble faith on our part, all point toward inspiration of the KJB itself.

The Bible Must Be Vernacular

Our Bible, the King James Version, is scripture and is also vernacular as it should be if we are to search the scriptures as the noble Bereans did. John 5:39 "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me." Acts 17:11-12 "These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so. Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few."

God, in control of everything in this old world, oversaw the development of the English language and made it possible for it to receive easily in translation the Hebrew influenced Koine Greek of the New Testament. Man did not evolve and language has not either. In the providence of God English is more efficient and compact and expressive than any other language. In its day the Koine Greek was a world language, but now that world language is English and Koine Greek is spoken nowhere. Still there are vernacular translations in other languages, French, German, Italian, and Spanish which conform very closely to the King James Version.

We can therefore be concerned with the smallest elements of language as it is conveyed by the Bible, with the alphabet itself and simple phonemes. These are used in the Bible as in no other book. The very smallest of these elements, letters, vowels, consonants, and syllables, were given to us by God. The nature of the letters and syllables and their arrangement into sequences are crucial to making the meaning of words and passages intelligible to us, so that they stand alone without need of lexicon or commentary.

There is an important word which applies to these small elements of language and to their combination into understandable syllables and words. That word is prosody. The dictionary definition is "the art of versification and the study of metrical (rhythmic) structure, rhyme, and stanza forms." The word is from the Middle English, prosodie, and, before that, from an ancient Greek word, prosodi, which means song sung to music and has the connotation of accent. Remember that the entire Old Testament, given in Hebrew in metrical form, was meant to be sung, and that the notation of the singing is specified in the accents embedded in the Hebrew text. The versification of the Old Testament is also embedded in the text. God intended His words to be given to us in a poetic and musical form. Why?

Ordinary prose writing, the dull voice of man’s wisdom, cannot match the richness of speech that we find in preaching or the beauty of poetry and cannot duplicate their effect on our hearts. A speaker can communicate meaning and message by stress, pitch, meter, and pauses, melodic speech if you will. Therefore, in order to achieve, in writing, the richness and full meaning of speech, prosody and meter, which are poetic, must be made intrinsic to the writing. That kind of writing, because it is memorable and naturally suited to our minds, has the power to stabilize and preserve language. The greatest richness, beauty, poetry, and power in all literature is given to us in the inspired King James Bible and only in that singular revelation.

An infant hears its mother speak while it is still in the womb. Its rearing begins before it is placed in its mother’s arms. By at least one month of age the child can recognize the voice of its own mother as different from that of other women. The effortless and natural building of language by infants is made possible by a vocal scaffold. That scaffold is the universal sing-song "baby talk" or "motherese" by which mothers, the world over, with biblical natural affection, speak to their infants. Motherese is characterized by a high pitched voice, trochaic rhythm with accent on the first of two syllables, and an increase in duration of the first syllable. Mothers "speak comfortably unto" their children, in a "soft answer," and in so doing give them peace and rest. They give them "vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope." Fathers also do this in a different and more authoritative, but still important, way. Both father and mother are required for successful teaching and rearing of infants.

Prosody in the speech of the mother and father gives cues to the infant which it can recognize and retain, certainly before the age of 9 months. Prosodic cues enable the infant to organize and encode what is heard, and they serve as a basis for later acquisition of syntax, that is, the arrangement of words into phrases and sentences. Upon these prosodic "pegs" are later "hung" the syntax that the infant naturally acquires and the meanings of words and their proper placement in sequence in a phrase or sentence.

God made us, alone among all His creatures, with minds and vocal anatomy meant for language. It develops naturally and without formal teaching. At a very early time, before the age of two years, a child can combine words into meaningful phrases and sentences which are not simply copied but are used properly to express things the child has not heard before.

But even though we grow to maturity and may think ourselves free from needing the simple comforts of prosody and poetry, we still must have them, as much as children and as long as life lasts. We who think ourselves wise must become as little children and be spoken comfortably unto; we also need vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope; we need the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort to heal the brokenhearted.

In a new book, '[1]In Awe of Thy Word,' Dr. Gail Riplinger ingeniously, with both text and graphics, illustrates many examples of the precise and metrical combination of syllables and words in the King James Bible into poetic orders which naturally capture and hold our attention and are sublime in character. She has shown with many previously unreported quotes exactly what Wycliffe, Tyndale, and Coverdale believed about the vernacular nature and inspiration of the Bible. There is a complete recounting of the true thought of Erasmus, his feelings about vernacular Bibles, and his attitude toward the Roman Church. The breadth of information supplied is truly remarkable, and we are greatly indebted to her for her work.

4.11.13 My Pastor Said To "Repent Of Your Sins" To Be Saved, Is He A False Prophet? (2023-11-12 19:26)

Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar*.

Hebrews 6:1-2, "Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment."

I get asked this question quite often by concerned churchgoers. They contact me to let me know they heard their pastor say to, "repent of your sins" to be saved. They ask me if they should leave and find a better church.

The answer is simple dear friend, it all depends on what your pastor means by his usage of the phrase

"repent of your sins."

First, let me say that you cannot show me anywhere in an inspired King James Bible where it says to “repent of your sins” to be saved.

Men added those words. They are not biblical. You need to repent of your UNBELIEF to be saved, not your sins. Pastor Jack Hyles explains this truth well in his helpful article titled, ’[1]Misunderstood Repentance: An Enemy Of Soul Winning.’

As I showed you in one of our text Scripture passages, the Bible does tell us in Hebrews 6:1 to

from dead works.

” In 2nd Timothy 2:25 the Bible says to repent to acknowledge “ the truth. ” The Bible says in Acts 20:21 to repent “ toward God.

” But you cannot show me anywhere in the Holy Bible where it says to repent

“of your sins.” Therefore, I humbly believe that no preacher should ever use such unbiblical terms. Matthew 12:36 warns that we must all give account in eternity to God for our every word spoken.

Having said that, not every pastor who uses the phrase “repent of your sin” or “turn from your sin” to be saved is an unsaved infidel or false prophet. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) makes this important doctrinal distinction in the following sermon excerpt...

Curtis Hutson On The Repent Of Sins HERESY

Here is some transcript from the preceding excerpt...

> “So, I’m going to say repentance occasionally, but when I say it, I can’t say it until you know what it means. Because if I say it and you think it means reformation, than I’m misleading you. I’ve got to teach you what it means. Follow me? So, when John said ’believe,’ repentance was included in the believing. If by repentance you mean ’turning from sin,’ I don’t preach it. If by repentance you mean ’reformation,’ I don’t preach it.
>
> If by repentance you mean ’a change of mind or reconsideration,’ I preach it!
> SOURCE: Dr. Curtis Hutson,

Amen, that is 100 % correct! Bravo Dr. Hutson!

So, although I don’t like when preachers use the unbiblical words “repent of your sins,” that doesn’t mean he is unsaved, or preaching another Gospel, just so long as he makes it clear to the audience that he means you must come before a holy God as a guilty sinner to be saved. Anything more is a works-based-salvation!!! When I was 13 years old, I knew that I was a guilty sinner, and I trusted Jesus as my personal Savior, and He saved me that day in 1980.

So, to answer the question of whether or not your pastor is a false prophet, you need to ask him exactly what he means by “repent of your sins.” If he says that you must forsake your sinful bad habits, he is a hellbound infidel and false teacher. If he says with [3]the rotten cult at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) that you must, “follow and obey God’s will instead of your self-serving sins” to be saved, then you need to RUN for your life from that hellhole. But i f he says that you must realize how sinful you are in the sight of a holy God, and that you deserve to be punished in the fires of Hell for your sins, and that by faith you must receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins to get to Heaven, then he is okay and you are in a good church.

Dr. John R. Rice (1895-980) unfortunately used the unbiblical phrase “ turn from your sins,

but he plainly explained what he meant by it...

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God “now commandeth all men every where to repent” (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.

SOURCE: Evangelist John R. Rice, “Acts: Filled With The Spirit,” pp. 251-252; Sword Of The Lord, Murfreesboro, Tennessee; ©1963

The only change of mind toward sin you must have to be saved is to admit you are guilty. You need to know why you need to be saved, which is because you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:10-23). You need to know what you’re being saved from, which is to spend eternity burning in Hell as punishment for all your sins (Revelation 21:8). No one has ever been saved by repenting, you get saved by believing; but no one has ever believed to be saved who didn’t repent.

Pastor Jack Hyles Correctly Explains Bible Repentance

First, we need to find what makes one lost.

Please notice John 3:18, "He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." It is very plain in this verse what makes a person lost. Notice the words, "he that believeth not is condemned already." A person who does not believe is condemned, so not believing is what makes a person lost.

Bear in mind, the word "believing" is the Greek word which means "to rely upon." When one believes on Christ, he simply relies on Him to save him and take him to Heaven when he dies. It is very plain here that what condemns a person is believing not. Then notice it says, "because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." Once again, we are told what makes a person lost - because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. It is as simple as that.

Now look at John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." Again, we are trying to decide and determine what makes one lost. It is very plain here. Notice the word believeth, "and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him." What keeps a person from seeing life? Believing not! What makes the wrath of God abide on a person? Believing not! So, from what must a person repent in order to be saved? He must repent of that which makes him lost. Since "believing not" makes him lost, "believing" makes him saved. In repentance there is a turning from the thing that keeps him from being saved to the thing that saves him. So, yes, there is a repentance from unbelief in order to believe. It is simply a change of direction. It means a turning around. You are going away from believing, and you decide to turn around and believe. You change your direction; you change your mind. With your will you believe and rely upon Christ to save you. In order to believe, you have to repent of unbelief. That which makes a man lost must be corrected.

Now turn to John 5:40, "And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life." Oh, how simple this is, and yet how plain! Why does a person not have life, according to this verse? Because he will not come to Christ. So, if a person is going away from Christ, he must turn around and come to Christ, which is a change of direction or a change of mind. This is repentance - repenting of the thing that keeps one from being saved, repenting from "going away" to "coming to."

Notice Isaiah 53:6, "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." Especially notice the words, "we have turned every one to his own way." That’s what not being saved is - turning to our own way. Now if we turn to God’s way, which is putting our faith and trust in Jesus, we turn around from going our own way to going His way, from unbelief to belief. This is Bible repentance. Bear in mind, it is the faith that saves. The turning around is necessary in order to put our faith in Christ. One must repent from that thing that keeps him from being saved in order to be saved.

If a person were saved by good works, then he would have to repent of bad works, or of not doing good works, in order to be saved. If a person were saved by quitting his sinning, then he would have to repent of his sinning in order to be saved. A person is saved by believing, so he repents of his unbelief or turns from his unbelief in order to be saved.

Let us look at the verses that teach us we are saved by belief.

John 3:15, "That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life."

John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

John 3.18, "He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

Acts 16:31, "And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

There are those who say we have to repent of our sins in order to be saved. No, we have to repent only of the thing that makes us unsaved, and that is unbelief. If a person needs to turn from his sins in order to be saved, what sins does he turn from? Does he turn from pride? Does he turn from selfishness? Does he turn from covetousness? The truth is, nobody can turn from all of his sins until he is raptured and he receives a body like the body of the Saviour. 1 John 3:2, "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is." According to Psalm 19:12, we do not even know all of our sins. David said, "Cleanse thou me from secret faults." What he is talking about here is being cleansed from faults he doesn't even know he has. A person, when he is first saved, does not know all the things that he is doing that are wrong, and if a person has to repent of all of his sins, where is growth in grace? Where is being a babe in Christ? Where does the carnal Christian fit in here?

Now don't misunderstand me. I am certainly for separation and for living a godly life, but the cleansing of our lives is not done by us any more than salvation is done by us. Salvation is simply repenting of unbelief, and believing, and letting Christ save us. We yield to Him to save us; He does! Immediately the Holy Spirit comes in to live. The Holy Spirit begins His work of cleansing in our lives. He is the one Who cleanses, just as he is the one Who saves. He is the one Who points our sins out to us after we are saved just as He is the one Who saves us when we are saved.

What Repentance Is Not

Repentance is NOT a change of lifestyle. I think [4]Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) of the Moody Memorial Church said it very well...

> "Repentance is the very opposite of meritorious experience. It is the confession that one is utterly without merit, and if he is ever saved at all it can only be through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ, 'who gave himself a ransom for all.' Here is firm footing for the soul who realizes that all self-effort is but sinking sand. Christ alone is the Rock of our salvation."
>
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside; '[5]Except Ye Repent,' p. 36

Clearly, Ironside taught a Free Grace view of the Gospel. Consider further the following awesome quote by Dr. Ironside...

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past ...
>
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all."
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: [6]What Is The Gospel?

Sadly, Moody Ministries in Chicago today (71 years after Dr. Ironside's pastorate ended in 1948) has become doctrinally corrupted by false prophets such as John MacArthur (they publish all of MacArthur's heretical books, and have shamefully honored him at their Founder's Week for many years). MacArthur plainly teaches a false plan of salvation in his book titled: '[7]HARD TO BELIEVE'...

> Don't believe anyone who says it's easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God's Son His life, and it'll cost you the same thing. Salvation isn't gained by reciting mere words. Saving faith transforms the heart, and that in turn transforms behavior. Faith's fruit is seen in actions, not intentions. There's no room for passive spectators: words without actions are empty and futile. Remember that what John saw in his vision of judgment was a Book of Life, not a book of Words or Book of Intellectual Musings. The life we live, not the words we speak, reveals whether our faith is authentic. [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [8]Dr. John MacArthur, Grace To You, an updated quote from his book 'Hard To Believe', p. 93

First, it is not “ hard

” to believe. The reason why most people aren’t saved is NOT because it is hard; but rather, because they love their sins and won’t come to Jesus to be saved (John 3:20-21; 5:40). That is what repentance is all about—changing your mind from rebellion and unbelief (acknowledging the truth that you are a guilty, rotten, sinner), so that you will believe the Gospel and be saved. Repentance is NOT a separate act from faith, they are one and the same act. The man who believes has repented, and the man who repents has believed.

Second, the upright life that we try to live as believers is the FRUIT of the indwelling Holy Spirit, and not a part of the ROOT of saving faith. We live right because WE ARE saved, not TO BE saved. The Holy Bible teaches that Jesus Christ lives the Christian life through us. Galatians 2:20, “I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.” The life we live cannot get us to Heaven, because God does NOT accept works of self-righteousness. Isaiah 64:6, “But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.” Your best is filth to God (Matthew 7:21-23). God’s will is for you as a rotten sinner to BELIEVE ON JESUS to be saved (John 6:40).

We are saved by HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS (that is, Christ’s robe of righteousness), and not our own (Matthew 6:33; Romans 10:3-4; Philippians 3:9). I try to live upright because I love my Lord and don’t want to grieve Him (John 14:15). I fail horribly sometimes, and it makes me upset at myself, and I get up and ask God to help me to do much better in the future (2nd Corinthians 10:5-6). That’s how the Christian life is lived, “For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God” (Romans 3:23). Even the best Christians are still rotten sinners who battle daily with the flesh (Romans 7:14-25).

[9] Misunderstood Repentance: An Enemy Of Soulwinning

(a doctrinally-sound book by Dr. Jack Hyles)

The Greek verb “repent” (metanoeo, such as in Mark 1:15, “Repent ye, and believe the gospel”), simply means “to think differently.” [10]Evangelist David Cloud errantly defines the meaning as “a change of mind that results in a change of life.” This is also the Satanic definition ascribed to the word “repent” by PCC. That’s not what the Bible teaches! Biblically, a changed life is the fruit of the indwelling Holy Spirit, which is not required for salvation.

Getting saved does NOT change anyone’s behavior. The only thing you get at the time of salvation is God’s gift of the indwelling Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24). And then the Holy Spirit will begin to change you, but only IF you submit to the Spirit’s leading in obedience to the Word of God (1st Peter 2:2). If we refuse to obey, then God will scourge and chastise us as His child (Hebrews 12:6-8).

[11] Your Salvation Did Not Change You A Bit

(Pastor Jack Hyles, 1926-2001)

I think Michael P. Bowen, in his excellent defense of the Christian faith titled, I NEVER KNEW YOU, says it best. ...

> I am at eternal odds with the false, counterfeit messages of salvation-by-works that are taught from virtually every pulpit today, on every television channel, and on every Christian radio station; however, I am not at eternal odds with the individuals who preach these counterfeit messages. My heart literally goes out to all of them because they simply do not understand Christ's plan of salvation. They have been lied to by a crafty enemy named Satan, whose sole aim is to take as many people with him to the lake of fire as he can possibly manage to steal away from God using a counterfeit plan of salvation that appears so real, so genuine, and so holy that few ever realize they have been deceived by it. Oh reader, so many of today's professing Christians who think they are going to heaven when they die are not going to make it to heaven as they had assumed because they've been lied to by today's error-filled gospel messages.

A tree without fruit is still a tree with roots. This is evidenced by the [14]parable of the sower and the seed in Luke 8:12-15. Of the four groups, only the first are unsaved, because the Devil removed the seed from their heart before it could sprout into new life. The second and third group represent believers who never mature to bear fruit (leading others to Christ). They never mature into fruit-bearing Christians because of shallow roots, or because they are choked by the cares, riches and pleasures of this life. Ah, but the fourth group mature, having an honest heart, keeping the Lord's Word, bearing much fruit unto Christ (John 15:1-7). Just because the second and third groups don't bear fruit doesn't mean that they are not saved, as Ray Comfort and David Cloud errantly teach.

[15]Wrong Repentance (article)
[16]Wrong Repentance No Salvation

(by Dr. Hank Lindstrom)

Repentance "Of Sins" For Salvation is Not Biblical

There are only a few references in the Bible where the word "repentance" is used with sin. The Bible usually speaks of "the remission of sins," but never commands anyone to repent from sins to be saved. Search the Bible and you will find that "repentance" is almost always mentioned with salvation, but it never tells us that forsaking sinful bad habits is the way to be saved. Ceasing from sin is self-righteousness. The truth is that God's indwelling Holy Spirit begins to change us when we get saved, that is, if we yield to Him. This means a lifetime of being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. Getting saved happens in a moment of time by trusting Jesus Christ, but becoming Christlike takes a lifetime. That's how it's supposed to work. The world is filled of immature, carnal and backslidden saints. They are so worldly that you'd never know they are saved, just as with Lot in the city of Sodom. Nobody knew he was saved.

False prophets mandate change as a requirement to either be saved, or as evidence to prove that you are saved. That is the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, not the free grace of God. Proponents of Lordship Salvation "frontload the Gospel," that is, they require a commitment to perform the traits of a mature Christian upfront, as a condition to be saved.

They're trying to do God's job instead of letting the Holy Spirit do His silent work. God changes lives, not we ourselves. Man trying to change himself is reformation, not regeneration.

Our part in the new birth is simply to "believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16:30-31). To demand that a person change (i.e., forsake the world and sinful living) to be saved is a false Gospel of self-righteousness. Nor is it proper to demand that a person prove they are saved by living a sanctified life. If someone testifies from their mouth that they have faith in Jesus Christ as their personal Savior, we should accept them as saved. Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15; 6:23), paid for by Jesus' precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). Please listen to the awesome MP3 sermon by Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, "[17]Caught Between Grace And Works."

When I was in kindergarten, my Christian school teacher led the class to pray a 1-2-3, follow me type of salvation prayer. I was then told that I was saved and water baptized weeks later. But I was still as lost as a moose in a caboose! Some preachers would say that I didn't repent of my sins, and that is why I didn't get saved, but they would be wrong! The reason why I didn't get saved is simply because God wasn't dealing with my heart, the teacher was. It just wasn't my time to get saved yet. There was no Holy Spirit conviction about my sins.

But then at age 13, while attending a new Baptist church, for the first time in my life I felt convicted about my sins. It was a Sunday morning in the summer. I think it was about 1980, but I don't remember the year that I was saved. I didn't think to write it down, I wish I had. Saints would are soulwinners, should always encourage new converts to write down the date, time and place where and when there received Christ as Savior. I remember that my pastor that Sunday said that if you can sin, but have no Holy Spirit conviction whatsoever, you are not saved. I knew that I was not saved. I felt convicted for the first time in my life, and I got saved right there in my church pew. I cried out from my soul for Jesus to save me, and He did just as He promised in John 3:16, Romans 1:16, 10:13 and 1st Corinthians 1:21.

Listen to what Pastor Harry Ironside correctly states about repentance in [18]chapter 16 of his book, [19]EXCEPT YE REPENT . . .

> "In all that I have written I have failed completely to express what was surging up in my soul if I have given anyone the impression that I think of repentance as something meritorious which must be produced in man by self-effort ere he is fit to come to God for salvation."
> SOURCE: Dr. Harry Ironside, a quote from chapter 16, '[20]THE PREACHING THAT PRODUCES REPENTANCE,' from his timeless classic book, '[21]EXCEPT YE REPENT'

I agree 100 %! The entire concept of Lordship Salvation is based in human effort. Most of our evangelical churches today have bought into the Devil's lie that it's not enough to believe the Gospel of Jesus Christ to be saved. The "Gospel" is that Jesus Christ DIED on the cross for our sins, He was BURIED, and He bodily RESURRECTED from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). If you receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, then you are saved.

But don't I have to repent? Yes, of course! Biblical repentance is "a change of mind" that causes a person to believe the Gospel. Repentance is NOT a desire to stop sinning.

Repentance is realizing that you are a guilty SINNER, so you believe the Gospel and are saved. Repentance is changing your mind about whatever was previously hindering you from completely resting in Christ for salvation. Pastor Reuben A. Torrey (1856-1928) makes the following half-truth statement:

> "In our day there is a danger of underestimating the importance of sorrow for sin. Sorrow for sin is not repentance, but it is an element in repentance. What the repentance or change of mind is about must always be determined by the context. Repentance of sin is such a sorrow for sin or abhorrence of sin, such a change of mind about it, as leads the sinner to turn away from it with all his heart."

Now I agree with Dr. Torrey that sorrow for sin is not repentance, but he totally contradicts himself when he says that "repentance of sin is such a sorrow for sin." He just got done saying that "sorrow for sin is not repentance"! The Bible teaches that "sorrow worketh repentance." 2nd Corinthians 7:10a, "For godly sorrow worketh repentance."

We find an example of sorrow working repentance in the life of King David, after he commit adultery with Bath-Sheba and then murdered her husband Uriah to hide her unintended pregnancy. Psalms 119:67 and 71, "Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word. ... It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes." It wasn't until David's sins caught up with him that he was sorrowful and repented. Regardless of the level of emotions (which may or may not present before, during or after salvation) repentance will never mean anything more than simply, "a change of mind." And the way of salvation will always be easy and simple, just receive Jesus' sacrifice on the cross as full-payment for your sins.

[22] Why New Bible Versions Are So Dangerous!

(wrong repentance, no imputation, no Lucifer)

I also agree with Pastor Torrey from the preceding quote, who says, "What the repentance or change of mind is about must always be determined by the context." For example: For a devoutly religious man, whose religion has hindered him from seeing the truth of the Gospel—he must repent (change his mind) from trusting in DEAD WORKS (Hebrews 6:1) to BELIEVING THE GOSPEL (Mark 1:15). For a man living in gross immorality, he must repent (change his mind) from the denial of his sins (1st John 1:8-10), to the acknowledgment of the truth, BELIEVING THE GOSPEL. 2nd Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth."

Repentance is not a separate event from faith, although they are not the same thing. Here is the best quote that I've found on repentance, by Dr. Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951):

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when > the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ([23]Except Ye Repent, p. 16)

The only thing that we need to repent from to be saved is UNBELIEF. Do we have to realize our sinful condition to be saved? Of course, yes! But there is not one verse in the entire Bible which requires a person to forsake sin to be saved. Nor does the Bible give anyone God's permission to commit sin just because they are saved (Romans 3:31). Every time Jesus forgave someone and healed them, it was only AFTERWARDS that He said... "Go and sin no more." John 5:14, "Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee." Repentance simply means "a change of mind." Believers change our minds every day about all kinds of things, including the sins in our life. Repenting of sins throughout one's Christian life is solely a matter of DISCIPLESHIP, not SALVATION. It is a matter of growing in the Lord's grace (1st Peter 2:2), as we yield to the Holy Spirit's leading in obedience to the Holy Scriptures (2nd Corinthians 10:5).

Thus, we don't give up our sins to become a Christian (Romans 3:20); rather, we forsake our sins because we are a Christian (Romans 12:1-2). There are no prerequisites or conditions for salvation (Galatians 3:2). God will save any guilty sinner who trusts upon the Gospel of Jesus Christ for salvation (Romans 10:13). John 6:37, "All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out."

Repentance unto salvation is a ONE-TIME repentance, but the repentance from sins has no limit. Christians are people, and people are sinners. Just as a man cannot be UNBORN physically, neither can he be UNBORN spiritually. If saved, always saved! For anyone to teach otherwise is to add works-to-faith alone and corrupt "the simplicity that is in Christ" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

[24] Oh Foolish Churches, Who Hath Bewitched You?

(new Bibles, new repentance, new Gospel)

Once a person is saved, they begin to grow in grace by nurturing on the milk of God's Word (1st Peter 2:2). As a believer grows in the Lord, he or she realizes that there are changes in life that need to be made. God's Holy Spirit works in that person's heart. Thus, we begin to see the "FRUIT" of genuine repentance. A changed life is the FRUIT of the indwelling Holy Spirit, and NOT a prerequisite to salvation or a part of saving-faith. Proponents of Lordship Salvation place the cart before the horse and have it all backwards. They frontload the Gospel, requiring all the mature aspects of a believer's life upfront. This is not the Gospel, it is bad religion.

In Mark 1:4, John the Baptist speaks of "...repentance for the remission of sins"; NOT "repentance of sins." Acts 20:21 reads, "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." Notice that Biblical repentance is "TOWARD GOD." In Acts 11:21 we read, "And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord." So you see, in the Bible "repentance" was always "TOWARD GOD," never from sin. A man may have to repent from the denial of his sins, so that he will BELIEVE THE GOSPEL, but there is no Biblical requirement to “turn from sins” to be saved.

Consider the following quote by the mighty man of God, Dr. Harry Ironside (1876-1951)...

> "Repentance is the recognition of my sinnership — the owning before God that I am as vile as He has declared me to be in His holy Word."

This is vastly different than actually ceasing from one’s sin to be saved, which is a false gospel. Pastor Ironside is correct—repentance is simply realizing that one is a guilty, dirty, rotten, hopeless sinner in God’s eyes. This is why we need a Savior. Thankfully, Jesus paid the price with His own literal precious blood (1st Peter 1:18,19; Hebrews 9:12).

Repentance is the admission that I am as guilty a sinner as a holy God hath declared me to be in His Holy Word (Romans 3:19). This is Biblical repentance... turning to the Lord. To turn towards Jesus Christ in faith for salvation is to turn one’s back against sin, even though the person may not be willing to forsake sin at the time of salvation. It is ludicrous for anyone to teach that a lost sinner must give up their sins to be saved. As we saw with Lot and Samson in the Old Testament, and Demas and Peter in the New Testament, not all believers always live for God. Jesus even called the apostle Peter, “Satan” (Matthew 16:23).

Christian author Michael Patrick Bowen states in his excellent book titled, “[26]I NEVER KNEW YOU,” on page 114...

> “Repent, as Christ meant it to be in terms of salvation, means to change your mind from trusting in what you can do for God to trusting only in what He can do for you.”
>
> SOURCE: Michael Patrick Bowen, a quote from the awesome book, “[27]I NEVER NEW YOU” (Page 114)

The beloved Pastor Bob Gray Sr. of the Longview Baptist Temple church in Texas correctly preaches...

> “Repentance means to change your mind—change your mind—change your mind about how you want to get to Heaven to what God says you’ve got to do to get to Heaven. If you’ve got to repent of all your sins, you’re still headed for Hell tonight.”
>
> SOURCE: Pastor Bob Gray Sr., ’[28]Why You Should Be A Part Of A Growing Church’

Dr. Mark G. Cambron Has Repentance 100 % Correct

Here is an excellent and needful writing by [29]Dr. Mark G. Cambron (1911-2000) on the subject of REPENTANCE. Please read the following quote carefully, because Dr. Cambron is one of few theologian who gets it, that is, he understands the simplicity of the Gospel and that repentance does not mean turning from sin as proponents of Lordship Salvation foolishly teach...

Repentance is necessary for salvation.

The Greek word for repent is metanoeo, which, translated into English is: to change ones mind. It does not mean to turn from sin. That would add works to salvation.

Repentance for salvation means a change of mind from men's ideas of salvation and religion, to an acceptance of Gods only way of salvation.

This results in a completely new creation, not a reformation of the old. The old nature remains as evil as ever after salvation and has not been reformed . . . The old nature can now be controlled by the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit.

God guarantees salvation. This is His gift to us.
God guarantees reward and fruit to the obedient son.
God guarantees chastening and loss of rewards to the disobedient son.

God does not cast out disobedient children, but in some cases, does take them home. He does not permit His children to live as they please without His discipline and guidance.

Many teach repentance for salvation incorrectly, by including some form of human effort or righteousness, such as willingness to turn from sin, or turning from sin. This is heresy and has confused many people. It adds works to salvation and causes many to not understand Gods great gift. It is probation, not salvation. It is completely unscriptural. It is Galatianism and a counterfeit of the gospel.

It is a tragedy that many Christians live shallow Christian lives. The Cambron Institute is dedicated to the task of training Christian men and women in the importance of total dedication and making Jesus the Lord of their lives not to be saved but because they are saved.

Shallow Christianity cannot be cured by adding works to salvation.

Salvation is not the result of what we do, but is by receiving what God has done for us. Acts 13:38, 39; Acts 20:20: Gal. 1:8,9; Gal. 2:4; Gal. 2:21; Gal. 3:1.3; Gal. 5:1-4; Eph. 2:8-10; II Cor. 5:21;John 3:16-18; Phil. 3:9; Titus 3:5-8:11 Cor. 11:13-1 5.

Boy that's good stuff! I love preachers, God knows my heart. And every preacher is different. There are no perfect pastors or clergy. The best saints are still rotten sinners! The Bible teaches that the tongue is full of the poison of snakes, set on fire of Hell (James 3:5-8). We could park here for awhile, couldn't we? I don't care how long you may have been a born-again believer, you are still a wicked sinner, and so am I. It is only by God's merciful grace, through faith in His only begotten Son, that any of us have escaped the judgment of God to come.

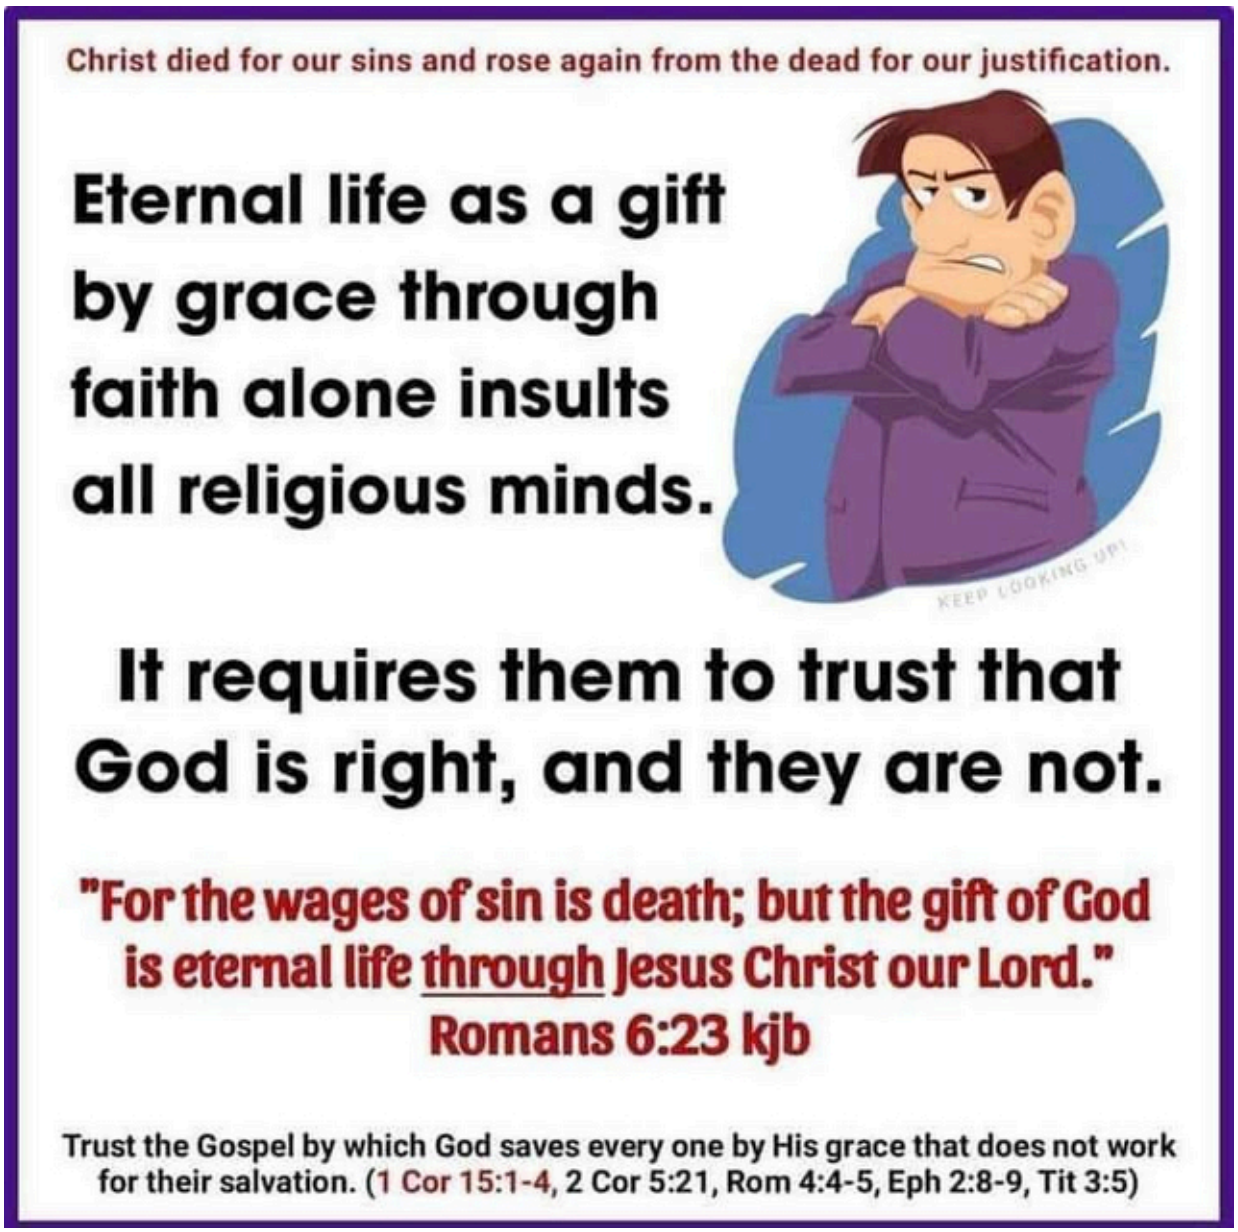
God is a merciful God, He doesn't judge sin yet in this world, but the time will come when all wickedness will be dealt with by a holy God. 1st Peter 4:17, "For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?" Carefully notice that judgment is not coming for those who haven't repented of their sins, but to those who have not obeyed the Gospel. You obey it by making it your only hope for Heaven. Simply believe that Jesus has already done it all for you.

Don't Blindly Trust Your Pastor, Search The Scriptures

Thank you for bearing long with me. This has been a fairly lengthy blog. My heart yearns for all of my blog readers to have the 100 % blessed peace of KNOWING that you are saved. I never have a doubt about God's promise of eternal life to them that believe. I have peace like a river in my soul that my name is written in Heaven. I want you to have that assurance too, without which you will never feel as close to God as you'd like dear friend.



I have perfect peace, because I fully understand God's simple plan of salvation. But I didn't always have that peace. I have been saved now for 43 years! Amen. For the first several years I worried continually, scared that I missed something, and didn't understand how God's plan of salvation worked. I thank God, I thank God, I thank God, that I didn't have some unlearned pastor confusing me, by telling me to turn from my sinning to be saved.

Unfortunately, other pastors confused me by telling me to pray to be saved. For years I kept wondering if I'd left something out of my prayer to be saved. I knew that saying a prayer didn't save me, faith did. But I thought praying was the vehicle by which we put our trust in Jesus, and that confused me a lot. It wasn't until 25 years later that I learned from Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023), in his helpful book titled, "[31]Salvation And The Public Invitation," that I could have just believed without praying at all, and God would have saved me just the same. Dr. Younce's book solidified my salvation beliefs once and for all, praise God.

I had already settled my fears and concerns about salvation many years before, but God used Pastor Younce's writings to give me the final piece in the puzzle, so that I could have perfect peace. I am eternally thankful for Dr. Max Younce. Also, I learned through Pastor Younce's ministry about Pastors' Ray Stanford (1916-2012), Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008), Michael Bowen and Ralph Yankee Arnold. I love these free grace preachers!!!

These unlearned preachers today like at Pensacola Christian College (PCC/0 and Bob Jones University (BJU), who go around telling lost sinners to "repent of your sins" to be saved are confusing people. I have shared with you some helpful quotes on repentance from Harry Ironside, Bob Gray Sr., Michael Bowen, Mark G. Cambron and others. I hope that you will ponder their quotes, because they are correct doctrinally on repentance. Most pastor today are corrupt on repentance!

One of the biggest inherent problems with telling people to "repent of your sins" is that they simply don't know what you mean. Think about it. What does it mean to "repent of your sins"? Dr. Curtis Hutson mentioned this same problem earlier, in the quote I shared with you. I do the same thing as Dr. Hutson does, I never use the word "repent" without explaining to someone what it means. Because if you don't explain it to them, they are almost assuredly going to assume that you are telling them to stop living in sin to be saved, which is demonic false teaching. Foolish is the pastor who tell people to "repent of your sins" without clarifying what he means, because forsaking a sinful lifestyle is works (Jonah 3:10).

4.11.14 Pastor Jack Hyles Correctly Explains Bible Repentance (2023-11-12 22:09)

Pastor Jack Hyles
(1926-2001)

First, we need to find what makes one lost.

Please notice John 3:18, "He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." It is very plain in this verse what makes a person lost. Notice the words, "he that believeth not is condemned already." A person who does not believe is condemned, so not believing is what makes a person lost.

Bear in mind, the word "believing" is the Greek word which means "to rely upon." When one believes on Christ, he simply relies on Him to save him and take him to Heaven when he dies. It is very plain here that what condemns a person is believing not. Then notice it says, "because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." Once again, we are told what makes a person lost - because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. It is as simple as that.

Now look at John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." Again, we are trying to decide and determine what makes one lost. It is very plain here. Notice the word believeth, "and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him." What keeps a person from seeing life? Believing not! What makes the wrath of God abide on a person? Believing not! So, from what must a person repent in order to be saved? He must repent of that which makes him lost. Since "believing not" makes him lost, "believing" makes him saved. In repentance there is a turning from the thing that keeps him from being saved to the thing that saves him. So, yes, there is a repentance from unbelief in order to believe. It is simply a change of direction. It means a turning around. You are going away from believing, and you decide to turn around and believe. You change your direction; you change your mind. With your will you believe and rely upon Christ to save you. In order to believe, you have to repent of unbelief. That which makes a man lost must be corrected.

Now turn to John 5:40, "And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life." Oh, how simple this is, and yet how plain! Why does a person not have life, according to this verse? Because he will not come to Christ. So, if a person is going away from Christ, he must turn around and come to Christ, which is a change of direction or a change of mind. This is repentance - repenting of the thing that keeps one from being saved, repenting from "going away" to "coming to."

Notice Isaiah 53:6, "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." Especially notice the words, "we have turned every one to his own way." That's what not being saved is - turning to our own way. Now if we turn to God's way, which is putting our faith and trust in Jesus, we turn around from going our own way to going His way, from unbelief to belief. This is Bible repentance. Bear in mind, it is the faith that saves. The turning around is necessary in order to put our faith in Christ. One must repent from that thing that keeps him from being saved in order to be saved.

If a person were saved by good works, then he would have to repent of bad works, or of not doing good works, in order to be saved. If a person were saved by quitting his sinning, then he would have to repent of his sinning in order to be saved. A person is saved by believing, so he repents of his unbelief or turns from his unbelief in order to be saved.

Let us look at the verses that teach us we are saved by belief.

John 3:15, "That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life."

John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

John 3.18, "He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

Acts 16:31, "And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

There are those who say we have to repent of our sins in order to be saved. No, we have to repent only of the thing that makes us unsaved, and that is unbelief. If a person needs to turn from his sins in order to be saved, what sins does he turn from? Does he turn from pride? Does he turn from selfishness? Does he turn from covetousness? The truth is, nobody can turn from all of his sins until he is raptured and he receives a body like the body of the Saviour. 1 John 3:2, "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is." According to Psalm 19:12, we do not even know all of our sins. David said, "Cleanse thou me from secret faults." What he is talking about here is being cleansed from faults he doesn't even know he has. A person, when he is first saved, does not know all the things that he is doing that are wrong, and if a person has to repent of all of his sins, where is growth in grace? Where is being a babe in Christ? Where does the carnal Christian fit in here?

Now don't misunderstand me. I am certainly for separation and for living a godly life, but the cleansing of our lives is not done by us any more than salvation is done by us. Salvation is simply repenting of unbelief, and believing, and letting Christ save us. We yield to Him to save us; He does! Immediately the Holy Spirit comes in to live. The Holy Spirit begins His work of cleansing in our lives. He is the one Who cleanses, just as he is the one Who saves. He is the one Who points our sins out to us after we are saved just as He is the one Who saves us when we are saved.

Now let us review, as follows:

1. God says to the unsaved, "Repent of your unbelief."

It's very interesting that in I John the word "repentance" is never mentioned, and yet the purpose of I John was to give people the assurance of salvation. I John 5:13, "These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God." Of course, repentance is certainly implied throughout the entire book, because the book tells us that what saves is believing on Christ (or relying on Him) to save, which, of course, implies that that person must repent of what makes him lost, which is unbelief.

2. God says to the saved people, "Repent of sin." This is done by the Holy Spirit as He comes in to live to remind us to take the clothes off the bedpost, the shirt off the chair, put the shoes into the closet, etc.

3. If a person must repent of his sins to be saved, of what sins must he repent? Can he repent of all of them? Isn't that sinless perfection or holiness? Isn't that salvation by works? Of what sin must one repent? He must repent of the sin that makes him lost, and that's the sin of unbelief.

4. If turning from sins would get you saved, then turning back to sins would get you lost. In Acts 16:30 the very simple question is asked, "What must I do to be saved?" This is the one time in the Bible where this question is asked. Now the answer to this question must be what saves a person. Acts 16:31, "And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." There's the answer-belief. There is nothing about repentance here, except, yes, there is something about repentance, because you can't believe without repenting from unbelief.

5. If a person has to clean up his own life before he gets saved, we are back to Arminianism or salvation by works.

6. We cannot do what the Holy Spirit can do. The Holy Spirit first convicts us of our sin of unbelief to bring us to Christ. Once He brings us to Christ, He comes in us to live. Romans 8:9, "But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his." I Corinthians 6:19, 20, "What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."

Then when the Holy Spirit is in us, He begins to convict us of things in our lives that should be changed. Then the Christian life becomes a constant repenting until we wake in the likeness of Christ.

4.11.15 An Excellent Spirit Of Giving The Truth For Free (2023-11-13 10:50)

Proverbs 23:23, "Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding."

Some guy contacted me years ago, a police officer, who wanted my help to make a Christian website. I gladly consented, but only if he didn't plan on using the website to make money. I never heard from him again. It is sad that nearly every professed Christian today wants to exploit Christianity to make money! The greatest things in life are not things.

It sickens me to see Christians begging for donations on their ministry YouTube channels, begging for donations on their ministry websites, Bible colleges exploiting Christianity to make money, and pastors incessantly hounding church members for more money all the time. Sadly, 99 % of so-called "ministries" would disappear overnight if they couldn't make money anymore. What saith the Scripture? ...

□□□□□ □□□□□□□□□□□□□, □□□□□□□□□□, □□□□□, □□□□, □□□□□□□□, □□□□□□□□. □□□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□□ □□ □□□□□, □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□□□□□ □□□□, □□□□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□□□, □□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□ □ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□.

I see Baptist pastors refusing to teach the Bible to people unless they give them $12,000 a year to enroll in some online Bible college. Personally, it makes me sad and it disgusts me. Why don't these pastors offer a FREE online Bible course for everybody, to further the Kingdom of God. Why does everything always boil down to making money?

□□□□□□□□ □□:□□, "□□□ □□□ □□□□□, □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□; □□□□ □□□□□□, □□□ □□□□□□□□□□□□, □□□ □□□□□□□□□□□□□." I have often paid for sermons, and then give them away freely. I have often paid for truth, and then freely shared it with others. I will pay a high price for the truth, but I will always freely give it away (unless it is copyrighted...lol). The truth should never be copyrighted. That is why the inspired KING JAMES BIBLE is not copyrighted. You cannot copyright God's Word!!!

I understand that the Bible says in □□□ □□□□□□□□□□□ □:□□, "□□□□ □□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□□ □□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□ □□□□□□ □□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□□." Albeit, I humbly don't think God meant that everybody and their dog with a Christian website, Facebook page or YouTube channel should beg for financial donations. I think it shows where people's hearts are at.
With my own money, I spend $1,000 each year for my VPS hosting plan and domain renewal for my 8 ministry websites.

Yet, since I began in 2002 I have never (and will never) ask anybody for a penny. I don't need or want anyone's money. God takes care of me. I definitely am not wealthy, but I live a simple life on a meager budget. But even if I did need the money, I still wouldn't ask or accept any money because I want the world to know where my heart is at—I do what I do from a heart of a love for God, people and truth. My only wish is that I had 48 hours in each day to work harder and do more for my blessed Savior, Lord and God, Jesus Christ.

I kindly contacted Dr. Oliver B. Greene's (1915-1976) son many years ago, to ask permission to type out and share Dr. Greene's book on "Bible Prophecy" on my ministry website. He meanly replied by threatening me that I had better not do it. I was sad and disappointed by his love of money, rather than sharing my earnest desire to share the truth with a lost and dying world. It is pathetic! The money-hungry attitude of today's preachers is so tragic.

That is one reason why I love and admire Pastors like Jack Hyles and Max Younce, who gladly shared (and encouraged others to share) all their books, sermons and materials with the world. The godly attitude of those great men burns within my heart.

The Bible says that the prophet Daniel had an excellent sprit in him. □□□□□□ □:□, "□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□, □□□□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□ □□□ □□ □□□; □□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□ □□□□□." When a preacher desires to freely share his hard labors with the world for Christ, that is an excellent spirit. By God's grace, I will continue for the remainder of my earthly life to freely labor, preach and share THE TRUTH with the world for my blessed Savior Jesus Christ. My eternal rewards are waiting for me in Heaven (Matthew 6:19-20; 1st Corinthians 3:7-9; Revelation 22:12). Thank you dear friend for reading my blog. To God alone be ALL the praise, credit and glory. Jesus is precious!

4.11.16 H. L. Mencken on the KJV (2023-11-13 20:43)

H. L. Mencken (1880-1956), of all people, the agnostic Baltimore Sun reporter and literary critic who covered the Scopes trial gave eloquent testimony to the superiority of the KJV. Mencken's quote I give in full from the preface to Gustavus Paine's The Learned Men (the KJV translators):

> It is the most beautiful of all the translations of the Bible; indeed, it is probably the most beautiful piece of writing in all the literature of the world. Many attempts have been made to purge it of its errors and obscurities. An English Revised Version was published in 1885 and an American Revised Version in 1901, and since then many learned but misguided men have sought to produce translations that should be mathematically accurate, and in the plain speech of everyday. But the Authorized Version has never yielded to any of them, for it is palpably and overwhelmingly better than they are, just as it is better than the Greek New Testament, or the Vulgate, or the Septuagint. Its English is extraordinarily simple, pure, eloquent, lovely. It is a mine of lordly and incomparable poetry, at once the most stirring and the most touching ever heard of."

Of course the KJB has no errors or true obscurities, but overall such a statement from H. L. Mencken is astounding. For us today the KJV is better than the Greek New Testament and is the most beautiful writing in all literature. The greatest Greek scholars among us do not think in Koine Greek, and the priesthood of the believer requires that those in the pews have faithful vernacular translations.

Since Gustavus Paine did not give the location of this quote of Mencken's I called Mr. Fitzpatrick, curator of the Mencken Collection at the Enoch Pratt Free Library in Baltimore, and asked him whether he had seen the Paine quote. He had not, but he said it certainly sounded like Mencken. He sent me some other newspaper and magazine articles written by Mencken. They are just as strong as the Paine quote. If any man thinks KJV only people are rough on liberal theologians and text critics that man should look at the last sentence of an article entitled "The Book." There Mencken said, obviously in jest, but a jest that was made as a commentary on modern translations, that the 300th anniversary of the KJV in 1911 should be celebrated by the "wholesale hanging of so-called biblical scholars."

In an article from the American Mercury of December, 1931 Mencken defends J. Gresham Machen against the modernists at Princeton who had just tried and fired him and even seems to take Machen's side. Machen graduated as valedictorian from Johns Hopkins University. Mencken and Machen were both in Baltimore at the same time, but Mencken never met Machen. Nevertheless, he wrote several stories about Machen's trial by the Presbyterian General Assembly which showed quite a bit of respect for him and took his side. Machen was the first man tried by a liberal university for being orthodox. But though he was a believer he favored the critical text. Soon after he was fired from Princeton he founded Westminster Theological Seminary, and in turn it became the birthplace of the NIV..

Mencken did meet many times with Howard A. Kelly, M.D., the great and famous fundamentalist physician who founded and headed the Department of Ob-Gyn at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore from its beginning in 1889 until 1933. Kelly was one of the great "four doctors" who were present from the beginning of the Hospital. Their famous group portrait hangs today in the rotunda of the Hopkins Hospital. They were Sir William Osler, medicine, William Halstead, surgery, William Welch, pathology, and Howard Kelly, obstetrics and gynecology. Kelly was the only fundamentalist of the four. But Mencken, as one would expect, showed considerably less respect for Kelly than for Machen, because Kelly was a soul winner who believed in the any moment second coming and a literal 6 day creation.

Kelly was also a prohibitionist and very dry while Machen, according to Mencken's newspaper articles was "a wet" and "may have voted for Al Smith in the 1928 election." Mencken called Kelly's views simian. So the differences, in Mencken's mind, between Machen and Kelly were creationism, prohibition, and eschatology. But it is striking that Menken preferred the English Bible, the KJV, to Machen's critical Greek text. Mencken was courageous enough to defend Machen against the liberal Princeton academics and also courageous enough to admit the superiority of the KJV. At least in these instances Mencken was right.

4.11.17 The "Day" Wasn't Created Until Genesis 1:5 (2023-11-14 10:39)

Genesis 1:5, "And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day."

I just bought [1]The Strand Study Bible and I can't put it down, because it is so fascinating. This helpful book is 2,368 pages thick, like a phonebook! If you desire to learn the Word of God, this is the book to get. It is not cheap, but nothing worthwhile in this life is cheap. Pastor Brad Strand was one of my favorite Bible teachers at Hyles-Anderson College. I enrolled in 1985, worked diligently to earn my degree in Pastoral Theology, and gratefully graduated in 1993 on the Dean's List. I thank God for giving me the privilege and opportunity to be a part of the great soulwinning ministry of Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). I love Dr. Hyles and miss him!

Anyway, I was reading Brother Strand's Study Bible today in Genesis chapter one, and he explains the 5 different views of creation. I agree with view number 3, an "

Old Earth View.

" Pastor Strand explains in one of his notes that God didn't make the "day" until Genesis 1:5. So, before verse 5, time did not exist. Since we weren't there at creation, we don't know how long it was before the first " was made. Nuclear scientists tell us from radioactive decay testing of uranium rocks that the earth is 4,500,000,000 years old. I don’t doubt them. Albeit, the Bible does not date the earth, since time didn’t exist before Genesis 1:5. Fascinating, huh?

I am of the firm belief that God created the earth billions of years ago. What saith the Scripture? Psalms 102:25, “

Of old* hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands. ” David specifically mentions that the “foundation of the earth” is old. That is very interesting. The fact that the psalmist makes a distinction regarding the age of the foundation of the earth speaks volumes, I humbly think. King David penned those inspired Words approximately 1,000 BC. I believe David was alluding to the age of the earth itself, and not the 6 days of creation in Genesis.

Having said that, I do believe God [2]REMODLED the world as we know it today in 6 literal days. Genesis 1:1, “In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.” In Genesis 1:1 the Hebrew word for “created” is bara, which is an absolute word meaning to create something from nothing. This word is not used again in Genesis until God created man. All of the verses in between in Genesis chapter one use different Hebrew words. This is because there were different processes at work than we read in verse one. For example: We read in Genesis 1:7, “And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.” The Hebrews word for “made” is asah, meaning “to do or make.” The words “created” and “made” have two very different meanings. A carpenter may make a table with some pieces of wood, but he cannot create the wood.

[3]Dr. Arthur C. Custance (1910-1985) explains this truth in detail in his excellent book titled: ’ [4]Without Form And Void ’ (free to read online). Also, The Strand Study Bible teaches these same truths. Pastor Strand teaches an Old Earth View, for which I commend him.

[6]Without Form And Void
(Dr. Arthur C. Custance)

I had never thought about it before until Brother Strand mentioned it in his study Bible, but time didn't exist until Genesis 1:5. That is very interesting. And we know that time will not exist after Revelation 10:6-7, "And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer: But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets." So, in the Holy Bible, time exists from Genesis 1:5 to Revelation 10:6. Wow!

In his excellent 'Thru The Bible' commentary for Genesis 1-15, Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988) states:

> There are several things here that I would like to call to your attention. In Exodus 20:11, it reads:
>
>
> For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is..." There is nothing in that verse about creating. It says
>
> "made"; God is taking that which was already formed and in these six days He is not "creating" but He is recreating. He is working with matter which already exists, out of the matter which He had called into existence probably billions of years before.
> SOURCE: 'Thru The Bible,' [7]Genesis, Dr. J. Vernon McGee

Yes, that is sound doctrine. Dear reader, if you do your homework, you have to conclude that dinosaurs couldn't have lived 5,000 years ago. Legitimate science has determined that dinosaurs lived 65,000,000 to 220,000,000 years ago. I agree with that! Not one verse in the Bible even hints that dinosaurs lived with mankind. The very idea is preposterous!

Evangelist Michael Pearl errantly teaches that God created the universe with the appearance of age. That is also ridiculous.

Others believe in Theistic Evolution, where God created the universe and then it evolved. I do not agree with that at all.

Evolution is a blatant lie of the Devil. Nothing has evolved.

Still others teach that the 6 days of creation represent 1,000 year periods of time (or 6,000 years). This is nonsense, not supported by the Holy Bible.

Do you know why God made time? I humbly believe it was so that God could share with His friends (saints) what He plans to do next on His prophetic calendar. That is one thing that I really love about The Strand Study Bible, Brother Strand provides detailed chronologies of the inspired Word of God. He only uses the King James Bible. I cannot recommend The Strand Study Bible enough. I have a web visitor friend who bought a used copy as [8]Abesbooks for $95. I paid $138 for a new one from [9]Amazon. If you would like a copy, I suggest that you get one while you can, because I don't think they are being published anymore. The '[10]StrandStudyBible.com' website is disabled! I don't know what that means, but it can't be good.

In fact, I love The Strand Study Bible so much that I ordered two of them, for $138 each. It's that helpful. I just wanted an extra copy, because this helpful resource to learn God's Word is worth more than gold to me. Brother Strand spent 33 years and 30,000 hours putting this book together. Praise God! My Spidey-sense tells me that there likely wasn't enough interest in the book, especially for that high of a price, so it has been discontinued. You and I both know that 99 % of professed Christians today have no desire to set out on a serious journey to study of the Holy Bible. They just want to watch Tv. That is what is wrong with Christianity today! Most people just sit in some church and blindly believe whatever their sorry pastor tells them. I challenge you to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES as did the wise Bereans. Don't be like the knuckleheads at Thessalonica, who didn't study (Acts 17:10-11).

Sadly, most Baptist pastors today are unlearned in the Word of God. They are ignoramuses! I can tell you this—if your pastor tells you that you must turn away from your sinful behavior to get to Heaven, he is a liar! God saves sinners! You just come to God as you are, sinful bad habits and all, and you by faith cast yourself at the dear Savior's feet, receiving His sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that after being buried, He bodily resurrected three days later for your justification. If you make this your only hope for Heaven dear friend, you are saved. Just believe that Jesus did it all for you! Thank you for reading.

4.11.18 Four Great 3:16's in the New Testament (2023-11-15 20:27)

Dr. James Sightler and Wife

(1937-2019)

There are four great Chapter 3, verse 16's in the New Testament. The KJV is the only Bible that has all four translated correctly.

> John 3:16 (KJV) For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. (NKJV puts believes)

John 3:16 (NIV) "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

John 3:16 (NRSV) "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

In the Appartamento Borgia of the Vatican, in the room of the Sibyls, Hermes Trismegistus is shown with the Zodiac, and in the room of the Saints Hermes is painted with an enthroned Isis, on Isis' right, with Moses seated at her left hand.[1] During Alexander's reign, about 1485, there was installed, in the entrance to the famous Cathedral of Siena, a mosaic pavement showing Hermes and the Sibyls with a suppliant Moses bowing before Hermes. Moses holds a book, which is also held by Hermes, on which is written TAKE UP THY LETTERS AND LAWS O EGYPTIANS. The left hand of Hermes rests on a tablet, supported by sphinxes (the sphinx is the key to the Zodiac), on which is written a passage from the Corpus Hermeticum as quoted from the Greek by the church father Lactantius, which that church father, who tended to gnosticism, emphasized for its mention of the Son of God:

"The Lord and Creator of all things, whom we have the right to call God, since he made the second God visible and sensible...Since, therefore, he made him first, and alone, and one only, he appeared to him beautiful, and most full of good things; and he hallowed him and altogether loved him as his own Son."[2]

The Arian tone of this passage is obvious, and the one and only of the NIV in John 3:16 and 1:18 is chillingly close to the term "one only" used in the cathedral mosaic. Dr. Gail Riplinger points out that the editors of the NIV appeal to ancient Greek and gnostic literature, to Parmenides in particular, to justify the substitution of one and only for only begotten, and also shows that the term "one only" was a title given to Satan in the Babylonian mystery religion.[3] Monogenes in Greek must be translated as only begotten, because the Lord Jesus Christ was begotten of the Holy Ghost in time. Changing it to one and only obscures a great doctrinal truth.

I Timothy 3:16 KJV And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. (NKJV puts manifested, seen by angels, preached among, and in glory)

I Timothy 3:16 NIV Beyond all question, the mystery of godliness is great: He appeared in a body, was vindicated by the Spirit, was seen by angels, was preached among the nations, was believed on in the world, was taken up in glory.

I Timothy 3:16 NRSV Without any doubt, the mystery of our religion is great: He was revealed in flesh, vindicated in spirit, seen by angels, proclaimed among Gentiles, believed in throughout the world, taken up in glory.

II Timothy 3:16 KJV All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: (NKJV is the same)

Latin Vulgate of Jerome from 382 A.D. Omnis scriptura divinitus inspirata et utilis. Jerome here omits the verb to be, which is implied in the structure of the Greek and must be supplied by the translator.

Rheims-Douay of 1609 (Catholic) All scripture inspired of God is profitable

English Revised Version text and NASV footnote - Every scripture inspired by God is also profitable.

These last three versions insert the verb to be in the wrong place. This allows the claim that only some, but not all, scripture is inspired, a claim which was made by Coleridge and his Broad church disciples in the Anglican Church, Maurice, Westcott, and Hort.

> I John 3:16 KJV Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.
>
> I John 3:16 NKJV By this we know love, because He laid down His life for us.
>
> I John 3:16 NIV This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers.
> I John 3:16 NRSV We know love by this, that he laid down his life for us–and we ought to lay down our lives for one another.

The NKJV, NASV, NIV, and NRSV all omit the words “of God” and in so doing obscure the Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ, who was God. They display an anti-Trinitarian or Unitarian, if you will, bias. The KJV is the only Bible available that is correct in all four of these great verses.

4.11.19 What Does It Mean To Be Born Again? (2023-11-16 12:16)

John 3:1-3, “

There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

I went with my family to see the movie, '[1]The Passion Of The Christ,' in 2004. I cried. Mel Gibson is a devout Roman Catholic, who directed the film. A year before its release, in 2003 Mel Gibson invited 800 evangelical pastors to meet together to watch the movie. ...

> The Passion of the Christ received enthusiastic support from the American evangelical community. Before the film's release, Gibson actively reached out to evangelical leaders seeking their support and feedback. With their help, Gibson organized and attended a series of pre-release screenings for evangelical audiences and discussed the making of the film and his personal faith. In June 2003 he screened the film for 800 pastors attending a leadership conference at New Life Church, pastored by Ted Haggard, then president of the National Association of Evangelicals. Gibson gave similar showings at Joel Osteen's Lakewood Church, Greg Laurie's Harvest Christian Fellowship, and to 3,600 pastors at a conference at Rick Warren's Saddleback Church in Lake Forest. [2]SOURCE

All of the apostate religious leaders who attended Mel Gibson's pre-release screening are preaching another Gospel of Lordship Salvation, not the free grace Gospel taught in the inspired King James Bible (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). For example: Here is the [3]counterfeit plan of salvation of Pastor Joel Osteen.

I was curious today what I would find if I typed in the question in a search engine (I used Duck Duck Go): "What does it mean to be born again?" The first return was from Billy Graham's ministry website (at BillyGraham.org). The following is a quote from their website, and this is damnable heresy! ...

> Q. What does it mean to be "born again"?
>
> A: Jesus said, "I tell you the truth, unless a man is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God" (John 3:3). Our first birth gave us physical life; the new birth gives us spiritual life and membership in God's family (John 1:13). To be born again is to have the Holy Spirit transform our hearts from indifference and hostility toward God to a love of God and a desire for righteousness and holiness. The only way one can come to God and experience what it means to be "born again" is through repentance of sin and faith in Jesus Christ; read John 14:6. The Bible clearly teaches in Ephesians 2:8-10, Titus 3:5, and Romans 10:13 that salvation is a gift; it cannot be earned in any way.
>
> To receive Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord means more than accepting Him as a fact of history, a teacher, or an example. It means more than giving mental assent to the fact that Jesus died on the cross for the sins of the world. It means that one turns from sin and with his or her whole heart trusts in Christ as personal Savior and Lord. God makes that one a new person; see 2 Corinthians 5:17. The Bible says, "To all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God" (John 1:12).
> SOURCE: '[4]What Does It Mean To Be Born Again?,' Billy Graham

What you have just read is unbiblical tommyrot! I will expose many false teachings in the following rebuttal:

1. To be "born again" does not mean "to have the Holy Spirit transform our hearts from indifference and hostility toward God to a love of God and a desire for righteousness and holiness." The dumb dumb staff at the Billy Graham Evangelical Association (BGEA) are unlearned and ignorant, wresting the Scripture to their own destruction. To be "born" again means just that, you are being born by the Holy Spirit of God, by faith alone in Jesus Christ as your personal Savior (Philippians 3:9). The moment you trust Jesus as your Savior—receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He died, was buried and three days later Jesus physically resurrected from the dead—you are saved. When you were born the first time in the flesh (of water - John 3:5), you were given biological life. But when you get born for the second time, of the Holy Spirit, you are given eternal life.

   Dear reader, being born again has absolutely NOTHING to do with transforming your heart from indifference and hostility against God to one of love for God and a desire for righteousness and holiness. That is another gospel! What the BGEA are describing is poppycock, balderdash and foolishness. God does not require you to posses the characteristics of a mature Christian as a prerequisite to be saved. That is the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation! To be saved you simply need to repent of your unbelief to trust Christ. The BGEA are wrongly attributing being "born again" to the reformation of the sinner, instead of attributing it as a divine miracle of God in response to a sinner's faith in Jesus (John 1:12-13). The BGEA have it wrong!

2. Repentance "of sin" is not taught in the Bible. You cannot show me even one Scripture passage which teaches to repent "of your sins" or to "turn from your sins" to be saved. Ungodly religious men added these unbiblical Words to God's plan of salvation (Proverbs 30:5-6). The Bible does teach "repentance toward God" (Acts 20:21). The Bible does teach "repentance to the acknowledging of the truth" (2nd Timothy 2:25). The Bible teaches "repentance from dead works" (Hebrews 6:1). But you cannot show me where the Bible says to repent "of your sins."

   To "repent" means to change your mind to acknowledge THE TRUTH that you are a dirty, guilty, sinner in the sight of a holy God. To "repent" means to change your mind toward God, from a heart of rebellious unbelief to believing the Gospel. Repentance and faith are inseparable and happen at the same time. The man who believes has repented, and the man who repent has believed. Repentance is automatic, included in believing. Repentance is NOT a separate act from believing the Gospel to be saved. This is why we find the word "believe" in the Gospel of John mentioned 85 times, but the word "repent" does not appear even one time. Repentance is not from your sinning, it is from your unbelief.

3. You don't have to receive Jesus as your "Lord" to be saved. The Bible does not teach us to receive Jesus as "Lord" of our life to be saved. You simply receive Jesus as your personal Savior to be saved. Pastor Jack Hyles in [5]this sermon excerpt throws a fit over the heresy that you must take Jesus as your "Lord" to get to Heaven.

   By "Lord" neo-evangelicals mean that you must submit your life to obey Christ, to follow Him no matter what the cost, turn from your sinful bad habits, forsake the world, and to [6]persevere in holiness until the end of life to know for sure you are saved. This nonsense is rooted in Calvinism (the heretical teachings of infidel John Calvin, 1509-1564). Romans 10:9 has been corrupted in all of the modern Bible revisions. Instead of believing on the "Lord Jesus Christ," all of the Devil's Bibles change it to declare "Jesus as Lord" to be saved. That is false doctrine that cannot produce the new birth!

4. The BGEA contradict their statement that salvation cannot be earned, when they insist that you must turn from your sins to get to Heaven. Again, you cannot show me any such teaching in the Word of God. Jesus came into the world to die on a cross to pay your debt of sin (and mine). He does not ask that you forsake your sinful bad habits to receive His free gift of eternal life, because that would constitute works. In Jonah 3:10 the Bible says God saw their "works," that the Ninevites turned from their evil way. Romans 3:20 warns that no flesh shall be justified by works. Tragically, the staff at BGEA have the Gospel wrong!

5. The BGEA are quoting from a corrupt version (the NIV) of the inspired Holy Bible. The inspired King James Bible says in John 1:12, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:" The translators of the NIV chose to render the Greek word exousia as "right" instead of "power." Although the English word "right" in the New Testament elsewhere is derived from the same Greek word, the basic meaning of the Greek word is "privilege." I hate the Devil's modern Bibles which are always tampering with God's inspired Word.

To be born again, Dr. Jack Hyles used to rightly say, means to have He (Jesus) who is the beginning born in you. What saith the Scripture? 1st John 5:20, "And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life." Jesus IS the true God and eternal life. If you have Jesus as your Savior living inside you (i.e., the blessed indwelling Holy Spirit - Romans 8:9), then you possess God's gift of eternal life, because Jesus is eternal life.

The new birth is just as irreversible as the physical birth. Once saved, always saved! Once born, whether physically or spiritually, always born! To be "

born again

" doesn't have anything to do with the change in your heart dear friend, it involves God being born in you. It means that you have now become a part of God's heavenly family, and are now a member of the seed of Abraham (Galatians 3:29). When you get saved, your spirit which was dead in trespasses and sins is quickened (made alive) by God's indwelling Holy Spirit (Ephesians 2:1).

Literally, God's Holy Spirit merges with your human soul, so that you are now a part of God and He a part of you. The same is true of your parents and you. You have their DNA. They are a part of who you are, in your very DNA, but you are not your parents. Likewise, you are not God as His child, but God's DNA (Holy Spirit) is in you. You are more than just a member of God's Kingdom, you are actually indwelt by the God of the universe, who has promised never to leave nor forsake you (Hebrews 13:5).

Ephesians 1:13-14 teaches that at the moment a lost sinner is born again, God seals and indwells that individual forever with His wonderful gift of the Holy Spirit (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; 1st John 3:24). John 14:23, " Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him." This Scripture is saying that if you will get saved, God and His only begotten Son will make their home in you, in the form of the indwelling Holy Spirit. No one is saved who does not have the Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24).

Ray Comfort's Error Of What It Means To Be 'Born Again'

> 1st Timothy 6-7, "From which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling; Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm."

There is a disturbing trend among evangelicals to explain being "born again" as an "EXPERIENCE," instead of as a supernatural miracle of God in response to a man's faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I have a copy of Ray Comfort's "THE EVIDENCE BIBLE" in front of me. I bought it a few years ago. On page 1529, under the commentary section, "How Can You Know That You Are Saved?," The Evidence Bible states:

> Christians believed in God's existence before their conversion, however, when they obeyed the Word of God, turned from their sins, and embraced Jesus Christ, they stopped merely believing. The moment they reached out and touched the heater bar of God's mercy, they moved out of belief into the realm of experience. This experience is so radical, Jesus referred to it as being born again. [emphasis added]

May I say, being born again is NOT an "experience." Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron wrongly understand being "born-again" as an EXPERIENCE that involves forsaking one's sinful lifestyle and "EMBRACING" Jesus Christ. Ray Comfort gets this idea from an errant understanding of James 2:19, "Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble." Many foolish Bible teachers misinterpret James 2:19 to mean that simple BELIEF on Christ is insufficient to be saved. This is not what the Bible is saying here. It simply means that no one is going to Heaven just because they believe there is a God.

This is why Jesus told His disciples in Luke 13:23-24, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." You can believe in God all you want—you can serve Him, go to church, tithe, sacrifice and do good all your life, and then go straight to the Lake of Fire forever to burn!!! Jesus said, "Ye must be born again" (John 3:7).

What did Jesus mean by "born again?" The question is answered in John 3:6, "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit." When you were born the first time into the world, that was of the flesh; but the new birth (or second birth) is when the Holy Spirit of God comes inside your body to indwell you (upon your faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ). Being "born again?" means that you have been born into God's family! Whereas all men are born spiritually DEAD from birth (Romans 5:15), in order to enter into the Kingdom of God a person must be born for the second time, spiritually (John 3:6-7). The first birth is PHYSICAL, earthly; The second birth is SPIRITUAL, by the Holy Spirit of God (John 1:12-14).

Biblically, mere childlike BELIEVING is all that God requires to be saved. This is what Jesus said in John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

In Mr. Comfort's thinking, being born again means moving from the realm of merely believing in God, to the realm of leaving one's sinful ways and clinging to Christ. Mr. Comfort recognizes this as an EXPERIENCE, which to him means being born-again.

The Word of God teaches something entirely different. A person is "born again" by the Holy Spirit of God, which is initiated by mere childlike belief in Christ's death on the cross for our sins, His burial and resurrection three days later. The Bible defines this as the "Gospel" in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Whereas The Evidence Bible teaches that a transforming "radical experience" is what it means to be born-again; the Holy Bible teaches that it is the transforming power of God's Holy Spirit that produces the new birth . . .

> John 1:12-13, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God."

It is a false plan of salvation to explain the new birth as a mere transforming experience. Any radical transformation is wrought solely by the Holy Spirit of God. It is heresy to require an experience, a radical change, or some transformation from a person in order to be saved. This is because eternal life is a free gift (Ephesians 2:8-9). Salvation is a TAKE proposition, not a GIVE proposition. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved. It is the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit that changes a person, and not our own human effort.

Ray Comfort understands salvation backwards. He requires a person to commit to leave their sinful lifestyle, and embrace Christ, which is the radical experience he requires from people to be saved. Biblically, you don't have to embrace Christ to be saved, you simply need to believe on Him. That's what the Bible teaches. John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Although a person may or may not express emotions at the time of salvation, emotions are not required for salvation. Neither tears, nor any outward manifestation of inner changes, nor a desire to serve God, nor forsake sins, nor any radical experience is necessary to receive the free gift of eternal life. IT IS A GIFT, and a "gift" is free in every sense. For a wonderful presentation of the simple plan of salvation by Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008), please see [7]Get God's Gift.

Furthermore, forsaking one's sinful lifestyle is NOT what it means Biblically to "repent." Repentance is "changing one's mind," that is, realizing and acknowledging one's guilt of sin for breaking a holy God's commandments (Romans 3:19). The only thing you need to repent of to be saved is whatever has been hindering you from coming to Christ to be saved (Hebrews 6:1). The man who BELIEVES the Gospel has repented, otherwise he never would have come to Jesus Christ to be saved (John 3:20). Our part in salvation is simply to BELIEVE on Jesus Christ, and whatever else is a part of our salvation is solely God's department, and you can be assured He will attend to that.

A Brief Study On The Trinity (Godhead)

God created man in His own image. God is triune in nature; namely, God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit (notice that they are all masculine; there is no female aspect of God. Only false religions teach femininity in the Godhead, e.g., Wiccans, Ying-Yang, Kabbalah). An egg has 3 parts: the shell, yoke and egg white. Yet they comprise just one egg. The yoke is part of the egg, but is not the egg white or the shell (and so on). Likewise, Jesus is a part of the Godhead, but is not the Father in person. Yet, Jesus is the Father in the sense that He is "the Almighty" God (Revelation 1:8b).

Jehovah's Witnesses (JW) falsely claim that Jesus is "a god," but not almighty God. JW founder, Charles Taze Russell (1852-1916), was sued in Canada for perverting the Word of God in John 1:1. Charles added the article "a" before God, to attack Jesus' deity. That was blatant irresponsible Bible translation. It was fraud. If you [8]look inside Russell's New World Translation (NWT) today, you will find the fraudulent article

"a" inserted before the word God, thus corrupting God's inspired Word. Woe be unto Charles Russell (Proverbs 30:5-6; Revelation 22:19). Mr. Russell by adding something that doesn't belong, removed Jesus' deity from the Holy Bible.

Isaiah 9:6b calls Jesus "The everlasting Father." Jesus told the Jews that when they saw Him, they also saw the Father. John 14:9,

Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

" 1st Timothy 3:16b says, "God was manifest in the flesh..." Every [9]modern Devil's Bible revision corrupts this passage of Scripture, removing the word "God" to discredit Jesus as almighty God. That is, they attack Jesus' deity. Jesus is the Father in the sense that they are both God, but Jesus and the Father are two distinctly different persons in the Trinity (Godhead). They posses different unique physical bodies, sitting upon separate thrones in Heaven (Colossians 3:1).

Dear reader, have you been born again? Has there ever been a time and place in your life when you realized that you are a rotten, dirty, guilty, sinner in God's holy sight? Did you realize that Jesus paid the debt of sin you owed on Calvary's cross with His precious blood? Did you know that He was buried after He died on the cross? But then Jesus physically raised up from the dead victorious three days later. Do you know this? But most importantly friend, did you personally put your trust (faith, confidence) in these biblical facts to be saved? You must make it personal, by BELIEVING ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST to get to Heaven.

And may I say, there is much needless confusion being spread today by unlearned, but well-meaning, preachers. They say foolish things like, it is not enough to believe in your mind, you must also believe in your heart. That is utterly confusing! How can you believe in your mind, but not in your heart, when your heart in in your brain? What they intended to say is that it is not enough to merely be familiar with the facts of Jesus' death, burial and resurrection. You absolutely must decide that you BELIEVE these facts to be true FOR YOU. Someone said it this way—Christ died, that's history; Christ died for me, that's salvation!

4.11.20 Not All Dogs Go To Heaven (2023-11-18 09:27)

John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

In 1989, Walt Disney produced an animated movie titled, "All Dogs Go To Heaven." This no doubt misled many children to think that everyone goes to Heaven, which is simply not true.

There is a false idea of universal reconciliation, or universal forgiveness, the very idea that everyone will be saved. Is that true, that no one is going to Hell? As we just read from Jesus Himself, except a man is born again he cannot see the Kingdom of God. You must be born from above to go to Heaven. So, no, all dogs do not go to Heaven. Not everyone goes to a better place when they die. In fact, the Bible warns that most people go to Hell.

> Matthew 7:13-15, "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it."

We also read in Luke 13:23-24, " Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able. " Most people errantly think they are going to Heaven when they die, but Jesus said most people cannot enter into Heaven. The reason why is because they haven't been born again. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. That is what happened to these people...

> Matthew 7:21-23, " Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.
>
> Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

Dear reader, everyone doesn't go to a better place when this earthly life is over...

> Revelation 20:12-15, "And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire."

If you believe the Holy Bible, that it is the inspired Word of God, then you must agree that some people go to Hell to be punished for their sins forever. Psalms 9:17, "The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God." I once had Mormon boss who wrote this Scripture passage down on a piece of paper. He also wrote down the word "Sheol." He kindly said that if I look up the Hebrew word I will find that it means Sheol, not a place of suffering. Well, Sheol simply means the realm of the dead.

But that doesn’t limit the word to just the grave. Sheol was a mystery, since no one knows what is beyond death.

refers to the afterlife, good and bad alike. It is clear from Psalms 9:17 that the wicked do NOT go to the same place in the afterlife as the righteous, otherwise this Scripture would make no sense. I mean, if the righteous and the wicked go to the same place, then this warning is pointless. If we all die and are dead, and that’s it, then so what if the wicked and the nations that forget God go to the same place as the righteous. What penalty or warning would there be for the wicked? Psalms 9:17 would make no sense at all, if Sheol merely means to be physically dead. Clearly, the Bible is warning us that the wicked do not go to the same place as the righteous (that is, the saved).

It is tragic that 95 % of people form their conclusions based upon what they have heard from some corrupt preacher, or an idea contrived from their own flawed human reasoning, instead of studying the Holy Bible. Matthew 10:28, “ And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.” Clearly, God destroys some people’s soul and body in Hell. As we just read in Revelation 20:15, whosoever’s name is not written in the Lamb’s Book of Life will be cast by the angels into the everlasting Lake of Fire.

Dear friend, I have plainly shown you from the Holy Bible that no everyone goes to Heaven. The Bible has more to say about Hell than it does Heaven.

Jude 1:7, “ Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.” God rained down fire and brimstone to utterly destroy Sodom and Gomorrah, as an example of what He is going to do to the wicked.

And please don’t overlook the words, “suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.” In Hell God takes out His vengeance upon the wicked. There is no mercy or grace in Hell. Don’t forget that friend. If you are reading this blog, God’s grace is still available to you, just for the free taking.

> 2nd Thessalonians 1:8-10, “In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power; When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.”

So, here we learn upon whom God will pour out His eternal vengeance in flaming fire—upon all those who refuse to BELIEVE the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. Dear reader, God is not playing games with you. This thing about receiving Jesus Christ as your personal Savior is no trifle or optional matter, it is literally a matter of eternal life or death for you! John 1:12-13, “But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.” God your Maker is freely offering you a gift of eternal life, if you will simply BELIEVE (trust, put confidence) in Jesus, receiving

His sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He raised up from the dead on the third day. This is “the gospel” according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4,by which all who BELIEVE IT are saved immediately, irrevocably and permanently (Romans 1:34).

The hottest temperature ever recorded in California was recorded in Death Valley on July 10, 1913. I don’t believe all this nonsense today in the media about Global Warming or Climate Change. It’s just another clever way for the Luciferian ruling elite to control and oppress the masses. The world fluctuations in annual temperature is normal for God’s creation (e.g., El Nino and El Nina). Records were made to be broken! It is nothing new that weather records are continually being broken. And may I say, even with the extraordinarily hot summer in 2023 across the United States, the old highest temperature record in California was not broken!

From my research, it appears that most people don’t think everyone goes to Heaven. We see the evil committed by monsters in this world, which by very nature implies that crime must be dealt with and punished. The Bible teaches that nobody ever gets away with doing evil. Man’s every work will be brought into judgment, whether it be good or evil. Ecclesiastes 12:13-14, “Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.”

4.11.21 Deliver Us From Evil (2023-11-19 14:02)

Proverbs 1:10-16, " My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not. If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause: Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse: My son, walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path: For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood."

There are many people whom we should avoid. This includes evil pastors, evangelists, missionaries and Bible professors.

Most people do not know what it means to be "

evil.

" We know from the Bible that there are two kinds of sin:

> Sins of commission (1st John 3:4, "Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.")
> Sins of omission (James 4:17, "Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.")

Now "

evil

" is something different. Evil is intentional or planned sin. A person may commit adultery in a moment of weakness, being a spontaneous sin of passion. But a person who devises a plan with someone to commit adultery, that is evil, because it was planned deliberately. An abortion is evil because it is scheduled to be performed.

This is why Jesus said in The Lord's Prayer in Luke 11:4, "

And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

" Jesus did not say

"deliver us from sin"; but rather, from "

evil.

" No one can be delivered from sin, because as long as we are in the flesh we will sin; but nobody has to commit evil.

Also, we should really call Jesus' teaching on how to pray, "

The Disciple's Prayer,

because in the example prayer He teaches to ask our heavenly Father to forgive our sins, but Jesus never sinned even once, He was sinless (Hebrews 4:15).

Let me expand a bit on our topic. There are umpteen forms of evil. The pastor who has been warned about his use of the [1]modern corrupt Devil's Bible revisions, who continues to use them, is an evildoer. 2nd John 1:9-11,

"Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son. If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." If a man preaches false doctrine, and you bid him Godspeed, then you are partaker of his evil deeds. Preaching false doctrine is evil.

I do not agree with the [2]false teachings of the Roman Catholic Church, who teach that there are venial sins (non-deadly) and then there are mortal sins (deadly). Biblically, there is no such thing as Venial versus Mortal Sins. All sin is deadly. Romans 6:23, "

For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Good works are not the payment for sin, the payment for sin is death.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Just One Sin Is Enough To Send Someone To Hell Forever

The inspired Word of God teaches that all it takes is one sin to keep a man out of Heaven. James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all." God is absolutely holy and perfect, but mankind is absolutely sinful and imperfect. Many false teachers say that you must "turn from your sin" to get to Heaven, but the Bible says even one sin is enough to keep you lost forever. This is what the inspired Scripture means in 1st Corinthians 6:9-10, "Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God." Even one sin is all it takes to damn someone to burn in Hell forever.

So, that raises the $64,000 question: Who can be saved? The answer is no one!

> Mark 10:23-27, "And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved? And Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible."

With men it is IMPOSSIBLE to get to Heaven!!! Oh, how I wish I could speak sense into the average unlearned pastor's head today, who errantly thinks that to be saved a person must repent "of your sins" or "turn from your sins" (corrupt phrases that are nowhere found in the inspired King James Bible). Such woefully ignorant pastors are caught between grace and works. This just shows how easily deceived the human heart can be. Jeremiah 17:9, " The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?"

Be Careful Who You Choose To Hang Around With

If you are in a vehicle with somebody and they commit a crime, you will be considered by the police and courts as an accomplice. I am very careful who I get into a car with. In today's world you cannot be too careful. An elderly man advised me long ago to, "Be nice to everybody but trust no one." I agree with his advice. Never trust someone with a large sum of money, unless you'd be willing to lose it.

You should never trust yourself alone in a room or car with a member of the opposite sex. That is how adultery starts. I watched a documentary about a man and woman who conspired to murder her husband. They had begun an adulterous affair. In court the man who committed the actual murder testified that it all began when he was alone with his best friend's wife in a car. They started talking about things that no unmarried folks should be taking about, which led to the wickedness of adultery. 1st Corinthians 15:33, "Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners." As God's children we need to guard what words come out of our mouth.

The Bible teaches to abstain from every appearance of evil. 1st Thessalonians 5:22, "Abstain from all appearance of evil." The word

comes from the Greek word apechomai, which means: " to hold oneself off, that is, refrain.

" When we see or hear something evil, we need to exit and leave. Sadly, this includes churches! If you hear a pastor errantly teach that you must stop living a lifestyle of sinning to get to Heaven ([3]Ray Comfort preaches this lie), that is evil and you need to leave and not go back. That is a cult, not a church! The Devil is a beautiful liar! Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again.

My favorite Bible verse is Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

I am careful to watch my attitude. A friend at church recently reminded me of something horrible that someone else did to me long ago. I kindly told her that I don't think about that incident anymore, because I don't want to develop a bad or hateful attitude toward that Christian. The matter is long gone and I forgave the person. I believe this is a good example of how we should guard our heart with all diligence. If you choose to dwell upon the negative things in your life, you will become bitter, frustrated and angry about it.

Sad to say, oftentimes one of the worst people you can hang around is yourself! If you are a naysayer who always sees the glass as half-empty instead of half-full, you are going to make yourself miserable. Attitudes are contagious, is your worth catching? I try each day to focus on God's goodness, mercy and righteousness. If all we do is watch the negative daily news, and hear about the murders, corruption and evil in this world, then we will be depressed and discouraged.

I receive many emails from discouraged believers. I always give them the same exhortation, that they need to stop focusing on the negative things in their life, and start praising God for the good things. Whether or not we praise or curse God all depends upon what we CHOOSE to look at. I choose to look at Jesus, who is the Author and Finisher of our faith. Hebrews 12:2, " Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Jesus said in John 16:33, "These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." Volumes of books could be written about this beautiful Scripture! Jesus said that we will have tribulation in the world. Life's miseries are inescapable! However, the dear Lord told us to BE OF GOOD CHEER despite our pain, loss, suffering and miseries, knowing that He has risen from the dead. Since Christ is risen we have a hope!!!

Proverbs 1:10, " My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not." We live in a horrible world today, where all manner of wickedness of justified in the name of political correctness. I decided a very long time ago, that in my life I was going to stay away from shady people. If you are wise you will do the same.

I won't make friends with a drunk, people who smoke marijuana, tax cheats, fornicators, et cetera.

1st Corinthians 5:11, " But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat." We should always be kind, sweet and friendly toward others, but the Bible forbids forming close associations with professed Christians who live in open sin.

I refuse to make friends with money-hungry people. Sadly, many professed Christians today are infatuated with making money, but have no interest is sharing the Gospel with lost sinners.

What saith the Scripture? Luke 8:14,

"And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. " Many Bible students misunderstand the parable of The Sower And The Seeds which Jesus' told, thinking it is about getting saved; but the parable is about soulwinning (Luke 8:15).

Soulwinning Is Everyone's Responsibility

To let the world go to Hell unwarned is evil. We have a responsibility from God to preach the Gospel. That includes men, women and children. By "

I don't mean from a church pulpit; but rather, to simply share the 'GOOD NEWS' of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day. This is **"

the gospel

" by which all who BELIEVE IT are saved (Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Not too long ago I heard a Baptist pastor say something shameful from his church pulpit. He told his congregation that soulwinning is not the church's duty, it is only the individual Christian's responsibility. That pastor is inspired by demons! You listen friend, sharing the Gospel is absolutely the church's responsibility. The pastor in question is lazy. He lays the responsibility of soulwinning upon others instead of leading the way as a pastor. That is why his church hasn't grown in years! Since he doesn't lead the church to go soulwinning, no one does it. I am reminded of something true that I read years ago...

> Here's the story, titled: "Whose Job Is It, Anyway?"
>
> This is a story about four people named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody and Nobody. There was an important job to be done and Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it. Somebody got angry about that, because it was Everybody's job. Everybody thought Anybody could do it, but Nobody realized that Everybody wouldn't do it. It ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody could have.

If the pastor of a church doesn't lead the way in soulwinning, it won't get done.

Evil Thoughts Come From The Human Heart

I could mention hundreds of evil things, and give you reasons why you should RUN from them (gambling, booze, illegal drugs, Roman Catholicism, Mormons, the Pope, LGBTQ+, false bibles, false religion, Freemasonry, the Federal Reserve, transgenderism, Jehovah's Witnesses, President Joe Biden, abortion, et cetera). It doesn't take a rocket scientist to see what is evil. If you desire to have a good and happy life, the Bible says in 1st Peter 3:10-11, " For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile: Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it." Wow, what a fantastic Bible verse!!!

Let's break this Bible verse down, shall we; to love life and see good days:

1. Refrain tongue from evil
2. Lips speak no guile
3. Eschew evil
4. Do good
5. Seek peace and ensue it

If you do good it will be good. The word " guile

means shady and deceptive

. Our mouth ought never try to deceive or trick someone to take advantage of them (1st Thessalonians 4:6).

To "eschew" evil means "a void and stay away from deliberately; stay clear of.

" You're a fool if you buy illegal drugs. I read online that half of the 6,000,000 Americans incarcerated every year for committing a crime are arrested for illegal drug possession. They didn't do good. They didn't eschew evil. Of the 5 life's principles to love life and see good days, the first two virtues deal with being careful with our tongue. The second two virtues deal without our behavior. The fifth virtue is to seek peace. All of these virtues begin with having a heart right with God. ...

> Mark 7:20-23, "And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man. For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness: All these evil things come from within, and defile the man."

Those 5 righteous things are my hope, prayer and goal every day! By God's grace, all we can do is try to live right. I know that as a human being I won't always do the right thing, but it is my heart's desire to do good always. We will come a lot closer to doing right if we cultivate a godly attitude of right thinking. That is why I listen to Bible preaching nearly every day. [4]Preaching helps us think right! (if it is solid Bible preaching). Ephesians 4:23-24, " And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness."

The brain is incredible. God is more than amazing! Scientists are still discovering the astounding power of the human mind. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) rightly said:

"Behind every tragedy in human character is a slow process of wicked thinking." Someone doesn't just wake up one day and commit a horrible sin or crime. It began long before in their sinful heart. That is why my favorite Bible verse is Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

We cannot help but have sinful thoughts enter into our mind. That is part of being a sinful human being. God understands that. But what we do with those thoughts is our choice alone, which over time shapes our character. Each time that we choose to dwell upon an evil thought (e.g., lust, hatred, stealing), we undermine our character a little more. Left unchecked long enough and the human can become a monster!

4.11.22 Beware Of Damnable False Teacher Bishop T.D. Jakes (2023-11-19 19:58)

Galatians 1:6-8, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.”

Our text Scripture passage pronounces God’s CURSE upon anyone, whether it be man or demon, who preaches another Gospel. First, let’s learn what

“the gospel” is from the inspired Word of God, shall we? ...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;
>
> By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.
>
> For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:”

Now take a look at the tommyrot, balderdash, poppycock, dangerous, garbage that Bishop T.J. Jakes is preaching. I hope you are sitting down for this. ...

Receiving the gift of salvation is so simple. All you have to do is invite Jesus Christ into your life to *be your Lord and Savior. Ephesians 2:8-9 says, "For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith; and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God; not by works, so that no one can boast." Now that you know it is a free gift, the only other thing you need to know is how to receive this gift. Once again, it is not hard. Romans 10:9-10 says, "That if you confess with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved." In other words, all you have to do is pray from your heart this simple prayer.

> Lord Jesus, I ask you to come into my life, to be my Lord and Savior. I believe You died for my sins and rose victorious over death. I ask You to forgive me of all my sins. I turn from my sin today, only to follow Jesus Christ all the days of my life. Lord, I give you all of my pain, all of my hurts, all of my fears, and all of my infirmities. Today, I receive total and complete healing in my life. Because of the shed Blood of Jesus Christ, from this day forward, I am a new creation in Christ Jesus. Thank you Lord!

Whoa Nellie! Slow down there a minute horse! Let's break down T.D. Jakes' counterfeit plan of salvation. Pastor Jakes teaches to be saved, you must:

1. Invite Christ into your life. I didn't see this requirement in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, which defines "the gospel," did you? No, you didn't either. In fact, you cannot show me any such requirement to be saved anywhere in the Holy Bible. Did not Judas invite Christ into his life? Yes, Judas was one of Jesus' very apostles, but went to Hell in his sin of unbelief forever. So sad.

2. Make Jesus the your Lord of your life. Again, you cannot show me this requirement to get to Heaven in the Bible. It is not found in Paul's definition of "the gospel" in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. The Gospel is that Jesus died on a cross to pay for your sins and mine. And that He was buried. And finally, that Jesus bodily resurrected from the dead three days later. If you as an admitted guilty sinner accept these three facts as your own, personally putting your confidence in Christ alone and His redemptive work, then you are saved friend.

3. Turn from your sins. Not one verse in the inspired King James Bible teaches to repent "of your sins" or to "turn from your sin" to be saved. You'd have to use the Devil's modern corrupt Bibles to find such damnable lies. You'd be surprised if you knew how many pastors and pastor's wives despise me today, because I rebuke bad pastors who falsely preach that you cannot be saved and continue living in sin. They think I am arrogant, but they are the ones who are arrogant and sinfully proud, following the lies of men instead of the inspired Word of almighty God. In the Bible God repented more than anyone (e.g., Exodus 32:14), but we know that God cannot sin (James 1:13). So, this proves that "repentance" does NOT mean to turn from your sins. T.D. Jakes and all pastors who tell people to turn from their sins to be saved are misleading people.

   If you unwisely use that phrase "turn from sin" when sharing the Gospel with someone, then you had better explain what you mean. If you mean that you must acknowledge being a dirty, guilty, rotten, sinner to be saved then I agree. But if you mean that a person must forsake a lifestyle of sin, then I totally disagree because that is works. You need to know what you are being saved from, which is from the penalty of sin (Romans 6:23; Revelation 21:8).

We all deserve to go straight to Hell and burn forever, but God has made a way of escape through the precious blood of Jesus (Romans 5:9).

4. Follow Jesus Christ all the days of your life. This is blasphemy against the Word of God! Judas became a follower of Christ, but John 6:70 says he had a devil in him. Jesus said that it would have been better for Judas if he had never been born, because he went to burn in Hell forever. That is tragic. Judas could have been saved, but he did not trust Jesus as his Savior. Judas sincerely did not think Jesus is the Christ. How about you dear reader? John 20:31 tells us that the purpose for which God authored the Gospel of John is to convince us that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, so that by believing we will be saved. The Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract. Yet, none of the extra four things that T.D. Jakes requires to be saved are taught in the book of John.

5. Pastor Jakes is quoting a corrupt version of Romans 10:9. The inspired King James Bible teaches to confess "the Lord Jesus Christ," not "Jesus is Lord." There is a big difference between the two statements. The former teaches that we confess our heart's faith with our mouth, but the latter requires you to make Jesus the Lord of your life to be saved, which is another gospel. All of the modern Bible revisions are corrupt!

Dear reader, you must decide who to believe. Will you believe T.D. Jakes whose plan of salvation does not match the one taught in the Holy Bible? Or will you believe the inspired Words of God in the Scriptures, which tell us that the only way to be saved is by FAITH ALONE without works. Following Christ all the days of your life is works. Turning from your sin is works. If you want Scriptural proof, take a look at Jonah 3:10, "And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not." Do you see dear friend? Turning from your evil way is WORKS!!! You just read it for yourself. What saith the Scripture about works? Romans 3:20, "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

We've got a bunch of unlearned, ignorant, ignoramuses for pastors today. I am not happy about that. Just today I heard a preacher tell a church congregation that to get to Heaven you must commit and give your life to Christ. Where does the Bible teach that trash? I triple-dog dare you to show me!!! You cannot show me one Bible verse that mandates for a lost sinner to give their life to Jesus to get to Heaven, or to commit their life to Him. What does that even mean? It is sloppy and damnable preaching, that's what it is!

But when you tell a lost sinner that Jesus is the Messiah (the anointed one, Christ), who died on a cross to pay for their sins, and that He was buried, but then after three days He miraculously physically resurrected from the dead, that makes perfect sense. And then you invite the audience to decide right there and then, to by faith receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for their sins, believing that He was buried and raised up the third day. That is how you get saved. That is the only way you can be saved, by faith in the Gospel. Romans 1:16-17, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith."

If you are a pastor, or your pastor foolishly embellishes God's simple plan of salvation, please don't get upset with me for caring enough to tell you the plain truth. I am not the problem, you or your pastor is! Take a look at the [2]demonic garbage being taught at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) today. Folks, this is NOT the Gospel which the Apostle Paul taught in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. PCC have been corrupted by the [3]hellbound Calvinist cult at Bob Jones University (BJU). Birds of a feather stick together. PCC has wickedly bid Godspeed to the BJU cult for so long, that now PCC have joined ranks with them, adopting their counterfeit plan of salvation. Somebody needs to contend for the faith, and by God's grace I am humbly doing it (Jude 1:3; Titus 1:13-14; Ephesians 5:11; Galatians 6:7; Matthew 12:36; Proverbs 30:5-6; Deuteronomy 4:2).

If you have never read Michael P. Bowen's helpful book, '[4]I NEVER KNEW YOU,' I cannot recommend it enough. The book simplifies the Gospel, and exposes 10 deadly false prophets of our generation who pervert the Gospel to their own destruction, and those who follow their lies (2nd Peter 3:16-17). Thank you for reading my ministry blog. Jesus is precious!!!

4.11.23 The Promises God Made To Abraham Were Made To Jesus Christ, and Not To The Jews (2023-11-20 13:07)

Galatians 3:26-29, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

I humbly agree with Pastor Steven Anderson that Christians are "the chosen" (the elect), and not Jews. Galatians 3:29 teaches that only Jews and Gentiles who are born-again by faith alone in Jesus Christ are of the seed of Abraham.

BEYOND JORDAN
(an inspiring documentary by Pastor Steven Anderson)

Romans 2:28-29 teaches that one is NOT a Jew who is one outwardly, but inwardly. Clearly, biological Jews are NOT automatically biblical part of Abraham's seed. Romans 2:28-29, " For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly*; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

Galatians 3:16 teaches that the promises made to Abraham were made to his "seed" (singular), and not to "seeds" (plural). Galatians 3:16, "

Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

" Many Bible students are poor students of God's Word, they only see what they want to see, assuming that God's promises made to Abraham apply to all Jews.

However, according to the Scriptures that I just showed you, those promises were made to Christ alone, and not the Jews. Thankfully, by faith in Jesus we become "heirs" with Christ of these promises according to Galatians 3:29. The word " heirs

is the Greek word klēronomos , which means sharer by lot, that is, an inheritor.

" Dear reader, by receiving Jesus as your personal Savior, you inherit everything that is His, and that is promised to Him by the Father. Ephesians 3:6-7, " That the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:

Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power.

How ironic in lieu of this Scripture passage, that 90 % of professed Christians today have been indoctrinated by their incompetent pastor to idolize present-day ungodly Israel. The promises which God made to Abraham were all directed at Jesus Christ, and to those who BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST who become "heirs" of the promises made to Christ. The Bible is so simple if we will just allow the Scripture to speak for itself.

4.11.24 God Doesn't Automatically Take Sides With A Church (2023-11-21 18:57)

Galatians 4:16-17, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them."

I heard a local Baptist pastor say not too long ago that you had better beware of going against a church. He said that God is on the church's side. That was an arrogant statement that he made, and simply not true, because the inspired Holy Bible teaches that God is NOT a respecter of persons. Acts 10:34-35, " Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. " To say that God always sides with a church is a foolish thing for a preacher to say, because it is simply not the truth.

What that pastor was really shamefully saying is that God sides with the group over the individual believer. The truth is that God is NOT a respecter of persons. When Elijah stood up against the 450 ungodly false prophets of Baal, the Lord was on the side of just ONE MAN, Elijah. So you see, it is not a matter of how many Christians (or church members) are united in opposition to just one man (or vise versa), because God will side with whomever is in the right.

Pensacola Christian College Preaches A False Gospel

For example: Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and their Campus Church have well over 10,000 church members and students. Yet, I have rightly taken a biblical stand against all of them since 2021. I am just one man exposing over 10,000 churchgoers as [1]followers of a counterfeit plan of salvation!

What saith the Scripture? Psalms 118:6, " The LORD is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me? " Psalms 56:9, " When I cry unto thee, then shall mine enemies turn back: this I know; for God is for me." How can we know that God is on our side? The simple answer is to make sure that you are telling THE TRUTH. Make sure that you are morally RIGHT.

PCC are sadly committing idolatry, by perverting the Word of the Living God (Jeremiah 23:36), to satisfy the ecclesiastical pressure exerted on them by ministry peers. Since PCC is in bed committing spiritual whoredom with the [2]Alexandrian cult at Bob Jones University (BJU), they must dip their sails in sinful compromise to adjust their doctrine to match that of the Calvinists at BJU. In case you didn't know, [3]BJU for decades now has preached hardcore Lordship Salvation which is a false gospel). PCC wickedly hobnobs with the BJU cult.

The ungodly Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is a cesspool of iniquity, a house of BJU alumnus. I attended Harvest back in 2014, but because their incompetent pastors are preaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, and I befriended them with the truth that [4]Lordship Salvation is a perversion of God's grace, I was ruthlessly kicked out and banned from returning to attend church. Harvest's rotten pastors threw me under the bus and left me for dead! I lost my church family and happiness. Harvest's shameful pastors (Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Joe Hensen, Jared Baldwin, et cetera) have much blood on their hands, including mine. Tragically, they think it is a laughing matter and a joke, but Judgment Day is coming for them all (Galatians 6:7; Titus 1:13-14; Matthew 12:36).

So also do incompetent pastors' Jeff Redlin, Timothy Zacharias and other apostates at PCC's Campus Church have much blood on their hands. The PCC camp are extremely arrogant, resentful of anyone who dares to question their doctrine or rebuke them. Their problem is that they have grown so large as a group, it has emboldened them to do and teach whatever they want. Who is going to correct PCC's misled leaders and pastors? Thankfully, I have the inspired Word of God on my side, which means God is on my side. I am preaching a free grace Gospel. [5]What Is [6] The Gospel?

(an excellent Gospel tract written by Pastor Harry Ironside).

Dear reader, if you attend a Baptist church and hear the pastor preaching heresy, saying un-biblical things, like you must "[7]follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins" to be saved, then you have every God-given right to gently confront your pastor about it. I did that at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, but their wicked stubborn pastors falsely accused me in the church office of causing "divisiveness" and "confusion."

How ironic for a church that has dozens of different Bible versions circulating in its pews on any given Sunday (as admitted by Pastor Joe Hensen to me in the church office). So, who is really causing confusion? I am telling people that God only authored one Book, and we have it in the inspired King James Bible. But Harvest's wicked pastors are telling people that it doesn't matter which Bible version you use, we should just read dozens of them in search of the truth. What incompetence!!!

We Must Rebuke Pastors Who Are Wrong On The Gospel

Dear reader, one man plus God equals a majority. I won't hesitate for a moment to expose a corrupt church on social media, because people need to be warned. I believe in word of mouth, whether it be a bad business or a bad church. Bad churches need to be rebuked! This is 100 % biblical. ...

> Titus 1:10-14, " For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;
>
> Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.
>
> **"

The Greek word for "

sharply

is apotomos , which means

to cut abruptly, peremptorily (i.e., i n an imperative and commanding manner

"). The Bible exhorts Christian men learned in the Scriptures to rebuke pastors in a commanding manner who are preaching error. The Satanic idea that pastors are above reproach is not found in the Holy Bible.

But what about 1st Timothy 5:1-2, "Rebuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren; The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity." Is this a contradiction in the Scriptures? How can we "rebuke them sharply" who corrupt the Gospel, while not rebuking an elder at the same time? In my humble opinion we should start by kindly entreating a cult pastor about his error on the Gospel.

If he doesn't listen, then the good fight of faith that follows against him is his own fault for not heeding the truth. It would be wrong to quietly leave a cult, while the pastor is preaching another gospel, sending lost sinner's to Hell forever by giving them a false hope. That pastor must be exposed. "Whose mouths must be stopped" (Titus 1:11a). If a church pastor is corrupt on the Gospel, but thinks he is correct, then he is a cult leader and needs to be exposed as the Bible teaches: "Whose mouths must be stopped" (Titus 1:11a). I cannot stop their potty mouths at PCC, but I can warn everybody about their damnable counterfeit plan of salvation. "Whose mouths must be stopped" (Titus 1:11a).

"Whose mouths must be stopped..." (Titus 1:11a)

If you think I am making too big a fuss over Bible inspiration and the accuracy of the Gospel, and perhaps you don't think I have a Christlike spirit, then you are a fool. I say that kindly but truthfully. The purity of the Holy Bible is important! The inspiration of God's Word is important. The accuracy of God's simple plan of salvation is important. Like the Apostle Paul, I am humbly by God's grace set for the defense of the Gospel (Philippians 1:17).

I Am Not Arrogant To Expose Error, I'm Obeying God

I heard an ignorant Baptist pastor recently tell his congregation that someone is arrogant if they think they're right over someone else. That was a foolish thing for him to say, because how can we contend for the faith unless we think we are right on a particular doctrine, and someone else is wrong? It doesn't matter what I think, or what you think, or what others think; all that matters is what God says in the Holy Bible. My preaching is none of my business!!! God alone tells me what to preach. I am as narrow-minded as the Word of God.

According to the unlearned pastor I just mentioned, he says I am arrogant because I think PCC's incompetent pastors are wrong on repentance. According to the false gospel preached at PCC, a person must "[8]follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins" to be saved. Where does the Bible say that? They are wrong on repentance at PCC!

[9]According to PCC, to be saved a lost sinner must have the heart's attitude, "I repent of my sins. I realize that sin is something that God hates and I no longer want to hold onto sinful bad habits in my life." Where does the Bible say that? Again, they are very wrong on repentance at PCC; and therefore, they are wrong on the Gospel. PCC's pastors need to get saved. They cannot be saved until they repent of their wrong repentance. Having a desire to forsake your sinful ways is works, not God's free mercy and grace which is obtained by faith alone.

Folks, PCC's and their Campus Church are promoting another gospel. PCC has a different plan of salvation than what Jesus taught. John 6:47, " Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. ” The Bible says you just need to realize you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20), so you will come to Jesus Christ by faith to be born-again (Galatians 3:24-26). John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” The Bible teaches that we are saved simply by BELIEVING on Jesus Christ. There is absolutely nothing in the Bible which requires you to be willing to follow and obey God’s will instead of your own self-serving sins to get to Heaven, which would be the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation. One of my favorite free grace Gospel preachers said this:

> “Lordship Salvation is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the performance of good works, the promise of good works, or the evidence of good works, must accompany faith in Christ to establish or provide evidence that such faith has resulted in eternal life.” —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, [10]“Jesus Versus John MacArthur”

PCC are pulling on the same rope as the Devil, in bed with the [11]Lordship Salvation cult at Bob Jones University. What has happened is that foolish churchgoers have listened to their incompetent pastors, instead of searching the Scriptures for themselves. They have been deceived by the clergy. ...

> I am at eternal odds with the false, counterfeit messages of salvation-by-works that are taught from virtually every pulpit today, on every television channel, and on every Christian radio station; however, I am not at eternal odds with the individuals who preach these counterfeit messages. My heart literally goes out to all of them because they simply do not understand Christ’s plan of salvation. They have been lied to by a crafty enemy named Satan, whose sole aim is to take as many people with him to the lake of fire as he can possibly manage to steal away from God using a counterfeit plan of salvation that appears so real, so genuine, and so holy that few ever realize they have been deceived by it. Oh reader, so many of today’s professing Christians who think they are going to heaven when they die are not going to make it to heaven as they had assumed because they’ve been lied to by today’s error-filled gospel messages.

Christian author Michael P. Bowen further states in his excellent book titled, “[14]I NEVER KNEW YOU”...

> “Repent, as Christ meant it to be in terms of salvation, means to change your mind from trusting in what you can do for God to trusting only in what He can do for you.”

The beloved Pastor Bob Gray Sr. of the Longview Baptist Temple church in Texas correctly preaches . . .

> “Repentance means to change your mind—change your mind—change your mind about how you want to get to Heaven to what God says you’ve got to do to get to Heaven. If you’ve got to repent of all your sins, you’re still headed for Hell tonight.”
>
> SOURCE: Pastor Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the awesome MP3 sermon, ’[16]Why You Should Be A Part Of A Growing Church’

Pastor Tom Cucuzza makes this tremendous helpful statement:

> “The Devil is doing his greatest work behind pulpits. [I] hate to say it, but that’s the truth; because people have the presupposition that when you come to church and somebody gets up to speak, that person is speaking truth. That’s the way we’ve been raised.” —Pastor Thomas M. Cucuzza, “[17]Important Truths Satan Does Not Want You to Know”

Repentance is a “Change of Mind,” Nothing Else

I’ve heard many preachers wrestle the true Biblical meaning of “repent.” Mark 1:15, “And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.” The word “repent” in Mark 1:15 is the Greek word metanoeo, which simply means “to think differently” or “a change of mind.” Many preachers pervert the meaning of repentance by beginning with “a change of mind,” but then they embellish (add to) the basic meaning, and therefore completely change it’s meaning. For example: I’ve heard numerous preachers say that “repentance is a change of mind resulting in a change of life.” No, that is not what it means to repent. That is self reformation! Preachers are guilty of mixing works with grace. They are guilty of not putting a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without, versus sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within.

Somehow, someway, false teachers always add works to grace. They do it very subtly, just as Satan subtly deceived Eve in the Garden of Eden. 2nd Corinthians 11:3, “But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.” It is amazing how accurately the Word of God identifies the problems in churches today. The Devil has subtly crept his own perverted Bible revisions into most churches, corrupting people’s minds from the simplicity that is in Christ (which is the Gospel).

The new Bible paraphrases wrongly redefine “repentance” to mean “a change of life.” This changes the plan of salvation to include works. The Satanic ’[18]Easy-To-Read Version’ (ERV) horribly says in Mark 1:15b, “Change your hearts and lives, and believe the Good News.” Do you see how the Devil is corrupting the Gospel?

The popular Bible paraphrase, ’The Voice’ (VOICE) horribly says in Mark 1:15b, “Seek forgiveness, change your actions, and believe this good news.” Nowhere in the Scripture are we told to change our actions to be saved. Clearly, Satan is very subtly changing the Gospel, perverting God’s plan of salvation for mankind. Have you believed a lie? The King James Bible simply reads in Mark 1:15b, “repent ye, and believe the Gospel.” The verb “r

here simply means TO THINK DIFFERENTLY. It means nothing else.

There is only one "Gospel," which 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 defines as: Christ's DEATH on the cross for our sins, His BURIAL, and bodily RESURRECTION three days later. "Repentance" is simply a person thinking differently TOWARD GOD, acknowledging that they have sinned against a holy God. Repentance is not revaluating your life's priorities, purposing in your heart to turn away from sin, and surrendering your will to live for God. That is consecration, which can only be expected of a mature believer. Repentance is from unbelief, not from your sins. A person who repents thinks differently. The only change of mind toward sin required to be saved is to admit that you are a guilty sinner.

Here is the best quote that I've found on repentance, by Dr. Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951):

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ('[19]Except Ye Repent,' p. 16)

The only thing that we need to repent from to be saved is UNBELIEF.

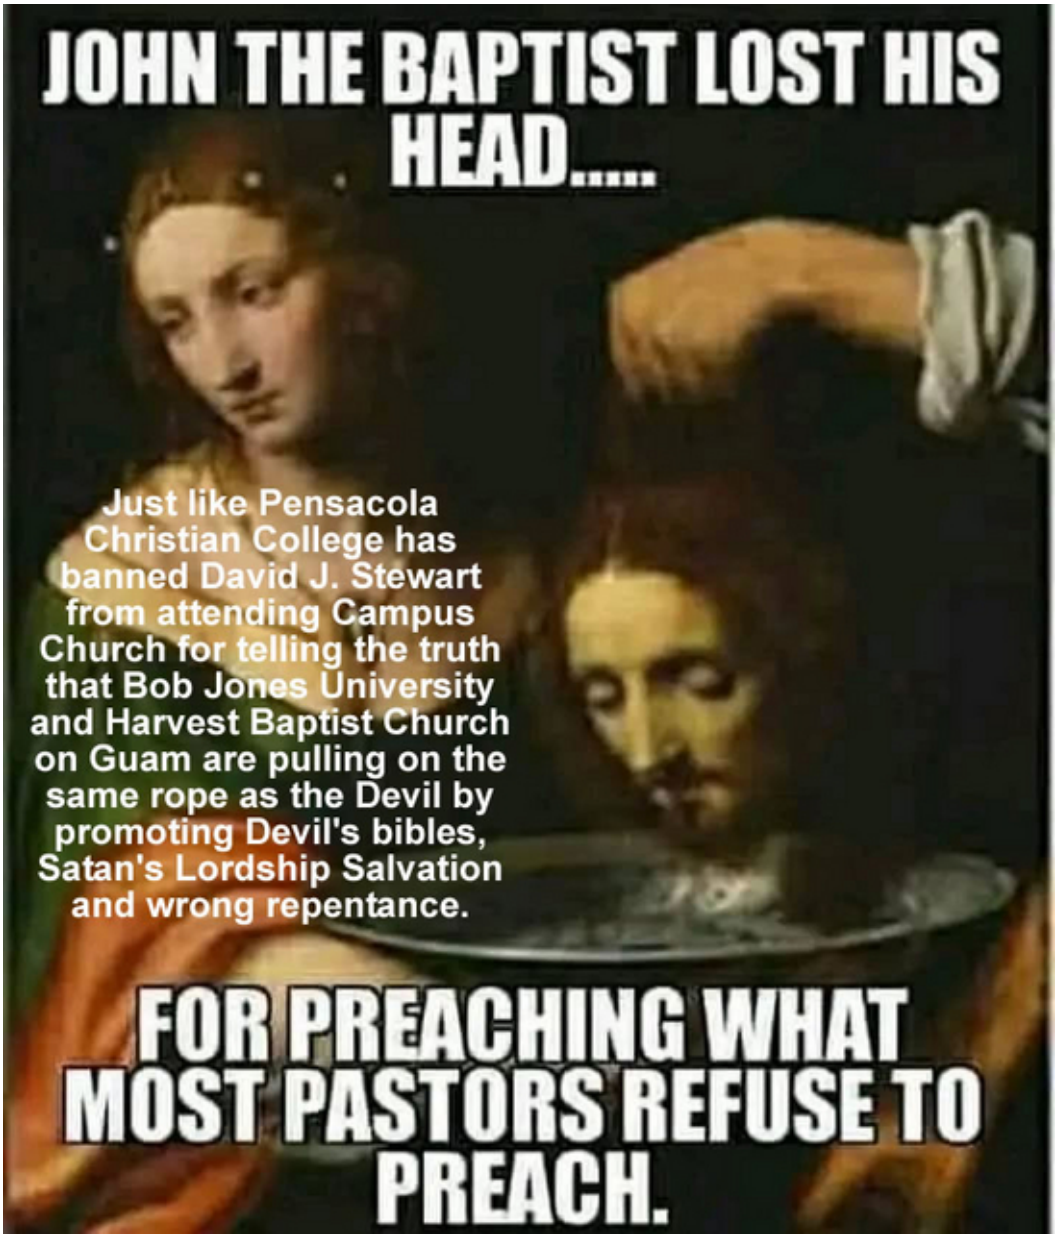
John 3:20, "For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved." From reading this Scripture in John 3:20, it would seem to indicate that the antithesis (exact opposite) is turning away from sin to be saved, but this is not what it means. This Scripture simply teaches us why people won't come to the light to be saved. They don't want anything to do with the Holy Spirit, Who convicts men of sin, righteousness and judgment. John 16:8, "And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment."

The word "repent" (Greek verb: metanoeo, "to think differently") in the New Testament seems to be cryptic, that is, unclear as to its application. However, if we interpret the word repent as it relates to the preaching of the Gospel, then it becomes clear that no additional meaning is needed. Men like to complicate things. No one has ever been saved apart from the Gospel (Romans 10:14). Repentance is simply a person agreeing with God (thinking differently). God says in the Bible that all men are sinners (Romans 3:10-23).

God says that we all deserve to die for our sins—both a physical death, and also to spend eternity burning in the Lake of Fire (Romans 6:23; Revelation 21:8; 20:13-15). Ah, but God sent His only begotten Son into the world, to die on the cross for our sins (Romans 5:8; John 3:16). Jesus was buried. He miraculously resurrected physically three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Thus, all sinners who believe the Gospel are saved (John 6:28-29, 1st Corinthians 1:21; Romans 10:13). These are the things that you must think different about. Mark 1:15b says to, "repent (change your mind) and believe the Gospel." Repentance is the acknowledgment of my SINNERSHIP and need for the Gospel. It's all really quite simple.

Wow To Those Who Go Against The Truth Of God's Word

Dear reader, God doesn't automatically take sides with a local church. I don't care if a church runs 25 people in attendance each Sunday, or 40,000 people, God is no respecter of persons.



Whoever is telling THE TRUTH is in the right. God is always on the side of right! I have been unjustly criticized by many pastors (including the horrible pastors at PCC) for preaching against the incompetent Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Harvest uses the Devil's bibles. Harvest preaches the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. Harvest teaches a misunderstanding of what it means to repent, errantly teaching that to be saved you must forsake a lifestyle of sin. Harvest is bad news!!! I make no apologies, nor do I have any regrets, for exposing their ungodly pastors who are damning souls to Hell. Woe unto the dumb dumb pastor who corrupts the simplicity that is in Christ, which is THE GOSPEL. ...

> Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar."

Nor do I apologize for exposing the ungodly incompetent pastors at Campus Church and PCC's complicit leaders, for preaching a counterfeit gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. I do not regret taking a biblical stand against the religious cult at PCC, who shun and ostracize broken sinners and divorced people. [20]PCC throws people away like garbage, myself included in their trash. Their leaders and pastors all take home disgusting 6-digit salaries annually. PCC is a money-grabbing cult! They don't contend for the Christian faith. PCC's graduates are the worst pastors in America—spiritually dead and lifeless. You never hear about PCC graduates being on fire for God. They are all Caspar Milquetoast type wimps.

The errant pastor who warned against going against a church speaks as a fool. No church has the Lord's guarantee of divine protection, that is tampering with the Gospel by adding "turning from sinful ways" to God's grace. God authored the Gospel of John to show humanity how to be saved. Nowhere in John will you find anything about turning from your sinful ways to get to Heaven. Wicked men added those extra words. Jonah 3:10 says that God saw their WORKS, that the Ninevites turned from their evil way. This verse also says that God repented. Is God a sinner who needs to repent? This proves that repentance doesn't mean to turn from your sins. God repented in the Bible more than anyone. That is, God changed His mind.

If a church is wrong, then they are wrong, and one godly man who preaches against them is pleasing to the Lord. God doesn't automatically side with a Baptist church group over an individual believer. Shame on any arrogant church and pastor who think they are above reproach!!! If you are wrong on God's simple plan of salvation, I WILL EXPOSE YOU, and almighty God will be 100 % on my side for doing it, applauding me all the time.

4.11.25 What Made John The Baptist The Greatest Born Among Men? (2023-11-22 12:10)

Matthew 11:7-11, "And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet.

For this is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he."

Jesus said that of men born among women, there was none greater than John the Baptist. What a remarkable statement and honor from Christ Himself. But why did Jesus say this?

I heard a nice sermon this past week by a traveling evangelist preacher. He's a good man, but I humbly disagree with the main point of his sermon. Let me share with you his three sermon points first, and then I'll tell you what I think. This preacher said that John the Baptist was the greatest among men for three reasons:

1. John was a man of prayer - We read in Luke 11:1, "And it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples*."* We read in John 10:41 that John did no miracles, "And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle*: but all things that John spake of this man were true."* Whatever John the Baptist taught his disciples about prayer, Jesus' own disciples wanted Jesus to teach them how to pray like that. My humble opinion is that although John did no miracles, John's disciples saw God answer his prayers. They wanted that same power with God. These men (multiple fishermen, a tax collector, a doctor, et cetera) wanted to pray like John the Baptist. Jesus disciples didn't ask Him to teach them how to do miracles, how to raise the dead, or how to preach, they asked Him how to pray. John the Baptist was a man of prayer, which made him great.
2. John was a man of conviction - *Luke 3:19, "But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, Added* yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison." John the Baptist was a stern preacher who didn't bite his tongue. John spoke his mind, telling the truth. John the Baptist sternly rebuked Herod for living in adultery with his brother's wife, and "and for all the evils which Herod had done." John the Baptist was a man of moral convictions, so much so that he was willing to die for them, and he did die, martyred by Herod! John the Baptist was a man of conviction, which made him great.

3. John was a humble man - Matthew 3:11-12, "I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear*: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire: Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."* John was a humble man, who said he wasn't worthy to unloose the latchet from Jesus' shoes on His feet (cf. Luke 3:16). John the Baptist was a humble man, which made him great.

These are all great truths and teach us that John the Baptist was indeed a great man and a good Christian. However, there have been millions of Christian men throughout human history who also possessed these three godly qualities. They prayed, they had convictions and they were humble men. So none of these things could have been the reason why Jesus called John the Baptist—not just a great man, but

THE GREATEST man who ever lived. Why did Jesus bestow such an incredible honor and title upon John?

The answer is found in

Matthew 11:10-11, "

For this is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he." The reason why John the Baptist is the greatest man ever born among women is simply because he prepared the way for the greatest of all —Jesus Christ, the only begotten (biological) Son of almighty God.

John the Baptist came before Jesus, paving the way for the Jews to receive their Messiah. John preached hard against sin, showing the people their need for the dear Savior. John baptized them with water, so that they could identify with a rejected Christ. Jesus got water baptized to identify with a rejected nation, Israel. John told the people that there was one coming after Him, Jesus, whose shoe latchet he was not worthy to unloose, who would baptize the people with fire and the indwelling Holy Spirit. John couldn't save the people, all He could do is prepare the way and point them to Christ to be saved.

It is important to understand that John the Baptist was not the greatest born among women by any accord of his own. It was God who ordained John as a prophet before he was even conceived. John the Baptist prepared the way for Jesus first coming, which is why Jesus said there is none greater born among women than John. Amen and amen!

4.11.26 Does 1st John Teach Willful Sinners Are Not Saved? (2023-11-22 16:04)

1st John 3:7-9, "Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God."

This is perhaps the most misunderstood passage in the Holy Bible, next to James chapter 2. The proponents of the Devil's falsehood of Lordship Salvation, and those false prophets who insist that you must turn from your sinful ways to get to Heaven, love to cite this Scripture passage in an attempt to support their false teaching. Kindly said, they are WRONG!

The part that doesn't sin is the spirit that is born of God. The flesh will not inherit the kingdom of God (1st Corinthians 6:9-11). The spirit cannot sin at all because it is born of God. Many Bible students today are using a terrible awful version of the Bible, that distorts the truth.

Look in the King James Bible. It says in 1st John 3:9, " Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. "

Doth not commit does not mean habitual or a practice. It means NOT AT ALL. That is the spirit part. When a person believes on Christ, they are born-again by the Holy Spirit of God.

That is the spirit. You must believe Christ died for YOUR sins to be born again. Change your mind and stop believing on living a righteous lifestyle.

That is, they have been born from above. To be

“

born again

means to have Jesus, who is the beginning (Revelation 1:7), born in us.

It is impossible for the Holy Spirit to sin. When we get saved, the Holy Spirit and our spirit become one. We have a new nature in Christ. We are not our biological parents, but we have their DNA inside us. Likewise, we are not God, but we have God inside us as His child (1st Corinthians 3:15-16; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24).

The Devil’s modern Bible are corrupted, saying that people who are really saved do not make a practice of sinning. That is 100 % untrue! Everybody practices sin as a habit. You are delusional if you think you have overcome sinning. We will struggle with sin as long as we are still living in this fleshly body. The Apostle Paul struggled daily with sin (Romans 7:14-25). It is possible to live above reproach, but no one can live above sinning. Psalms 130:3, “

If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?

The Devil’s Modern Bible Revisions Corrupt 1st John 3:6-9

Please do not fall for the Devil’s lie in his corrupt Bible versions, which teach that you are not saved if you have a habit of sinning. God’s man Samson chased unholy skirts all his life (Judges 16:1), but he is in Heaven today. Lot lived a sinful lifestyle. If it were not for 2nd Peter 2:7-8, we’d never know from the Old Testament that Abraham’s nephew Lot is in Heaven today. Lot was a “just man” the Bible says, even though he committed much sin. The Bible is full of saints who lived lives of sin (Joseph’s brothers, Esau, Solomon, Demas, et cetera).

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - 1st John 3:6-10, “Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him. Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.”

Now read what the Devil’s popular PERversion, the ESV says:

> ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION ESV) - 1st John 3:6-10, “No one who abides in him keeps on sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous. Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God’s seed abides in him; and he cannot keep on sinning, because he has been born of God. By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother.”

Dear reader, there is a drastic difference between what these two passages teach. The ESV says you cannot keep on sinning if you are saved. But that is NOT what the King James Bible teaches. The King James Bible correctly reads, “ he cannot sin

”; but the ESV errantly reads,

he cannot keep on sinning.

” Not being able to sin, and to not keep on sinning, are two very different ideas. The former means that there is no way you can sin, but the latter implies that you must choose to stop living in sin.

To understand this passage of Scripture (and we covered some of this earlier), you need to understand that when someone gets born-again, the Holy Spirit of God comes inside to live. In theology we call this to be “ indwelt

” with the Holy Spirit. The unsaved (or unregenerate) person only has their spirit which is dead in trespasses and sin (Ephesians 2:1). So, unlike the unsaved person who only has their conscience and good character to keep them from sinning; the Christian believer also has the indwelling Holy Spirit to teach, guide, convict, comfort and chastise the child of God.

So, there is a continual conflict in the believer between the lusts of the flesh, and the indwelling Spirit of God. The Apostle Paul explains this dilemma in Romans 7:14-25. When we choose to Walk in the Flesh, we sin. When we choose to Walk in the Spirit, we do what is right. At any given time a believer can choose to Walk in the Spirit, but we won’t always make that right choice because we are still sinners by nature and by choice.

This ongoing struggle is what 1st John 3:6-10 is teaching about. The redeemed spirit cannot sin, but the flesh still can. When we sin, we do so in the flesh. The spirit that has been redeemed by God, and is now joined with the Holy Spirit, cannot sin. This is something very different than the corrupt modern Bible revisions, which have changed God’s Word to falsely teach that you are not saved if you are living a lifestyle of sinning. That is not what the King James Bible says, not even close.

I trust friend that you the difference.

We will never stop sinning as a habit. The very idea that someone can turn from their sins is an absurd fallacy. You haven’t turned from your sins and neither have I. You may have decided to reform to clean up your life of sin (as did Judas in Matthew 27:3), but at best that is all you can do; some sinning still remains. So, whether you give up 10 %, 50 % or 99 % of your sinning, even if 1 % still remains, you haven’t really turned from your sins; you’ve just improved yourself in YOUR own strength and merit. That is NOT God’s saving grace, it is works!

Being Spiritually Dead By Birth Versus The Second Death In Hell

Please know that to be spiritually dead is not the same thing as the second death. Romans 5:12 tells us that when Adam sinned in the Garden of Eden, he opened the floodgate of sin upon the human race, and so by sin came death upon the world. So, everyone is born spiritually dead. This is why everyone needs to be “ born again

by the Holy Spirit of God. The adage is true: If your born once, you die twice; it you’re born twice, you die once.

The “second death” is when a person is cast body and soul into Hell (Revelation 21:8). Since our earthly body decomposes when we die the physical death, obviously god will need to supply some form of body to those who go to Hell. This body will need to be able to withstand the intolerable high temperatures of the fire and brimstone in the Lake of Fire. I don’t know about you friend, but I got saved because I was afraid to go to Hell. That is a perfectly good reason to get saved.

I heard [1]Paris Reidhead (1919-1992), a Chinese missionary, foolishly teach that you didn’t get saved if the only reason you trusted Christ was to escape the fires of Hell. Dear reader, it doesn’t matter why you get saved, just so long as you get saved before it is too late! The only requirement to trust Christ is to acknowledge that you are a guilty sinner. You need to know why Christ had to die on a cross to pay for your sins. I mean, if you’re not a guilty sinner on your way to be justly punished in Hell for eternity, then why would you need a Savior? Right?

If you admit to being a guilty sinner in God’s holy sight, then all you need to do to be saved is to by faith take God at His Word in the Scriptures. Simply receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as full-payment for your sins, believing that after being buried, He bodily resurrected three days later from the dead for your justification. This is “ the gospel

” by which all who BELIEVE IT are saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4; Romans 1:16).

The evidence that someone is saved is the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit. 1st John 3:24,

“And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.” If you have to look at your life to prove that you are saved, it just proves you are not. Salvation is of the Lord. Our only part in salvation is to get out of the way, ceasing from our own works, and resting completely in the finished redemptive work of Christ.

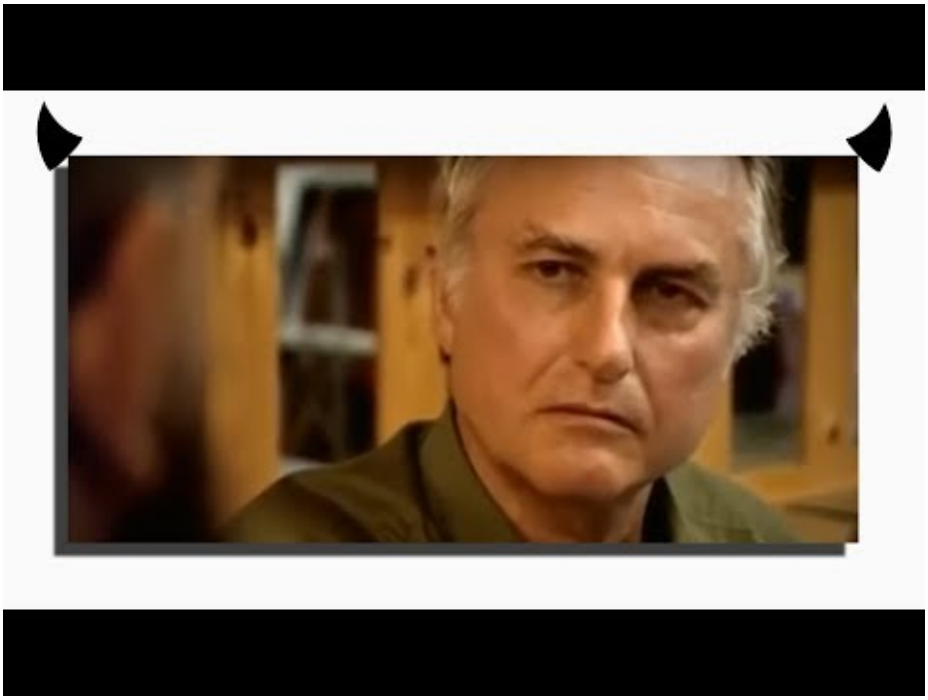
4.11.27 The Bible Calls Atheist Richard Dawkins A "Fool" (2023-11-23 13:00)

Psalms 14:1, "The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good."



Evolutionary biologist Richard Dawkins (born 1941) is an avowed atheist. I watched a documentary today that he produced titled, "The God Delusion," which I will show you in a moment, but first here is a tremendous statement by Pastor John Cumming

...

Atheism is folly as much as wickedness. But suffer me, before I show this, to say, that it is absolutely impossible that any man can be an atheist, in the strict sense of that word. All that any can say is this: "No spot that I have searched does reveal a God; every organization I have examined does not show traces of wisdom, goodness, and design:" but that individual cannot say; "There is no God;" because he cannot say, "I have soared to the farthest star, I have descended to the deepest mines, I have swept all space, and searched all time, and in the realms of infinite space I have not detected any traces of a God." In other words, to be able to say, "There is no God," you must yourself assume to be God, which is a reductio ad absurdum, an utter and a complete absurdity.

SOURCE: "GOD IN HISTORY and GOD IN SCIENCE," p. 139; by Rev. John Cumming, D.D.; New York: Published by Carlton & Lanahan; 200 Mulberry-Street; 1868

Richard Dawkins - The God Delusion - Full Documentary

There are umpteen problems with the documentary. To begin, Dawkins is woefully ignorant of the things of God, because he doesn't have the indwelling Holy Spirit (Romans 8:9).

> 1st Corinthians 2:14-16, "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man. For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ."

The “

natural man

is the unregenerate

, or unsaved, man. When we trust Jesus as our personal Savior, we are born-again, and have been regenerated [or, having He (Jesus) who is the beginning (Revelation 1:8) born in us].

Throughout Richard Dawkins’ lame documentary he blasphemes God and Christianity. One unfair thing that he does is to try to discredit true Christianity, by showing the hypocrisies and wickedness of the Roman Catholic cult. Dawkins addresses the Catholic false doctrine of The Assumption of Mary (official Catholic dogma since 1950). I agree with Dawkins that there is nothing in the Holy Bible to support such a bizarre claim. In fact, I agree with all of Dawkins’ rejection of organized religion. Throughout the documentary he shows the idiocy, weirdness and insanity of religious cults. I despise those idiots too! Please don’t group Charismatic nutcases, religious hypocrites and corrupt ministers with genuine Bible Christendom, because they are not the same thing.

Dawkins also uses cheap goofy sounding religious music in his video. He has the song ’Onward Christian Soldier’ playing in the background, which sounds like it was recorded on a $35 cheap Casio keyboard in Cha Cha mode. It sounds like circus music. I was just waiting for a clown to appear on the screen next...lol. Clearly, Dawkins is trying to make Christianity look as stupid as he can in the documentary. It just makes Dawkins appear manipulative!!!

Dawkins calls teaching children Christian doctrine, “Programmed Learning.” But the truth is that forcing the lies of evolutionary theories on children is equally, “Programmed Learning.

” Adults always decide what the children under their influence will be taught. That is just the reality of life. Our government has no business educating our children. That was never the intended purpose of government by our founding fathers. The government’s sole purpose is to protect our person, property and freedom. It’s not the government’s jobs to tamper with the economy. The Federal Reserve banking system since 1913 is ungodly criminal fraud!!! Hell is waiting for those evildoers, many of whom are already burning in the fires of Hell.

Richard Dawkins says religion is based on faith, not facts and science. But the same exact thing can be said of the blatant bogus theories of evolution; they are faith based, not rooted in facts or science! There isn’t one iota of credible evidence to support the lies of evolution. By the time he died in 1882, Charles Darwin was angered that fools had taken his nonsensical theories bloviated during his youth, and turned them into a major belief system. I think as Darwin grew older he wised up, acknowledging the truth that God is our Creator.

You can freely listen to ’[2]The God Delusion’ audio book (it is 11:59 hour long). In his silly book, Dawkins continually falls back on human rationalization. But dear reader, common sense tells us that coincidence, time and luck couldn’t have created the amazing universe that we live in.

[3]Walt Disney’s H2 channel falsely claims that the universe originated from " accidental aftermath" and a "cosmic glitch." If you believe that you are a naïve fool. The only logical answer is God. The inspired Holy Bible says in Genesis 1:1, “In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.” End of story!

The whole problem with Dawkins’ entire argument is that everything he claims is based on his faith that God doesn’t exist. He is just as guilty of going by faith as Christians are. Sadly, Dawkins is now 82 years old, nearing the end of his earthly life. Unless he repents of his unbelief, Richard will split Hell wide open (John 3:36; 1st John 2:22; Revelation 20:15, 21:8).

An Honest Thankful Person Knows That God Exists

It blows my mind how anyone could actually believe that God does not exist. I mean, it takes the sun 365.25 days to rotate around the earth. That is why we have "Leap Year" every 4 years (an extra day in February), to compensate for the extra 1/4 day each year. It takes the earth 24 hours to rotate on its axis. If you learn all that amazing astronomy facts, there is absolutely no way that evolution coincidentally made all this happen. Psalms 19:1-3 tells us that nature itself testifies God exists. Also, we read the same thing in Romans 1:20, so that men like Richard Dawkins and Stephen Hawking "are without excuse."

Our universe has logic, order and stability to it, which only an intelligent Creator could do. Even science tells us that something cannot come from nothing. Anybody who claims that it can, but says there is no God, is a dishonest person. Psalms 8:3-4, "

When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?" We have a very good God.

Our galaxy alone is 70,000 lightyears across. That means if a man could travel at the speed of light (which is an astounding 186,282 miles per second), and live 1,000 lifetimes, each one of them to the ripe old age of 70 years old, that is how long it would require a man to make just one journey across the entire distance of the Milky Way galaxy. Wow! Psalms 145:3, "Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.

The Holy Bible Was Given To Humanity By Divine Revelation

God could have simple handed His completed Word to the Apostle John in 96 AD, but instead God chose to reveal His inspired Word to approximately 40 men, over a period of about 1,500 years. These men spoke different languages, came from different backgrounds and countries. They were of various social status, education, intelligence and wealth. One was a tax-collector, others were doctors, farmers, statesmen, educators, Pharisees, fishermen, pastors and some plain old nobodies.

Yet, the 66 books that those holy men of old penned (by the inspiration of God's Holy Spirit) all perfectly harmonize and contain much prophecy. The King James Bible contains 31 % prophecy. The Muslim Koran contains none! It has been rightly said that if men could write the Bible they wouldn't, and if thy would they couldn't. I agree. The Holy Bible is like no other book ever written. It is simply [4]absurd to claim there is no God.

“God Himself became a Man, to give mankind a concrete, definite, tangible idea of what kind of Person to think of when we think of God. God is like Jesus. Jesus was God incarnate in human form. His appearance on earth is the Central Event of all history. The Old Testament sets the stage for it. The New Testament describes it. As a man, He lived the most strangely Beautiful Life ever known. He was the Kindest, Tenderest, Gentlest, most Patient, most Sympathetic man that ever lived. He Loved people. He hated to see people in trouble. He loved to Forgive. He loved to Help. He wrought marvelous miracles to feed hungry people. For relieving the suffering He forgot to take food for Himself. Multitudes, weary, pain-ridden, and heart-sick, came to Him, and found healing and relief. It is said of Him, and of no other, that if all the deeds of Kindness that He did were written, the world would not contain the books. That is the kind of man Jesus was. That is the kind of Person God is. Then: He Died, on the Cross, to take away the Sin of the world, to become the Redeemer and Saviour of man. Then: He Rose from the Dead: is Alive Now: not merely an historical character, but a Living Person: the Most Important Fact of History, and Most Vital Force in the world today." —Dr. Henry H. "The Bible will always be full of things you cannot understand, as long as you will not live according to those you can understand." —Billy Sunday Psalm 14:1 says that only a fool declares in his heart that there is no God. I think that all men, regardless of how atheist they may claim to be, know in their heart of hearts that God exists. Romans 1:28a, "

And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind..." God gives them enough rope to hang themselves.

Please don't misunderstand. We read in 2nd Peter 3:9 that God is NOT willing that any should perish, but that ALL should come to repentance (i.e., change their mind to admit they are a sinner, and by faith receive Jesus Christ to be saved). But if a lost sinner rejects Jesus as their personal Savior, then the wrath of God the Father rests upon their head (John 3:36). God honors their foolish decision to stay lost, and lets them run the course in wickedness and unbelief,

Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them " (Romans 1:32). Judgment Day is coming for all mankind. The $64,000 question is—Will you stand at The Judgment Seat Of Christ as a believer (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11); or will you stand at The Great White Throne Of Judgment as an unbeliever (Revelation 20:11-15).

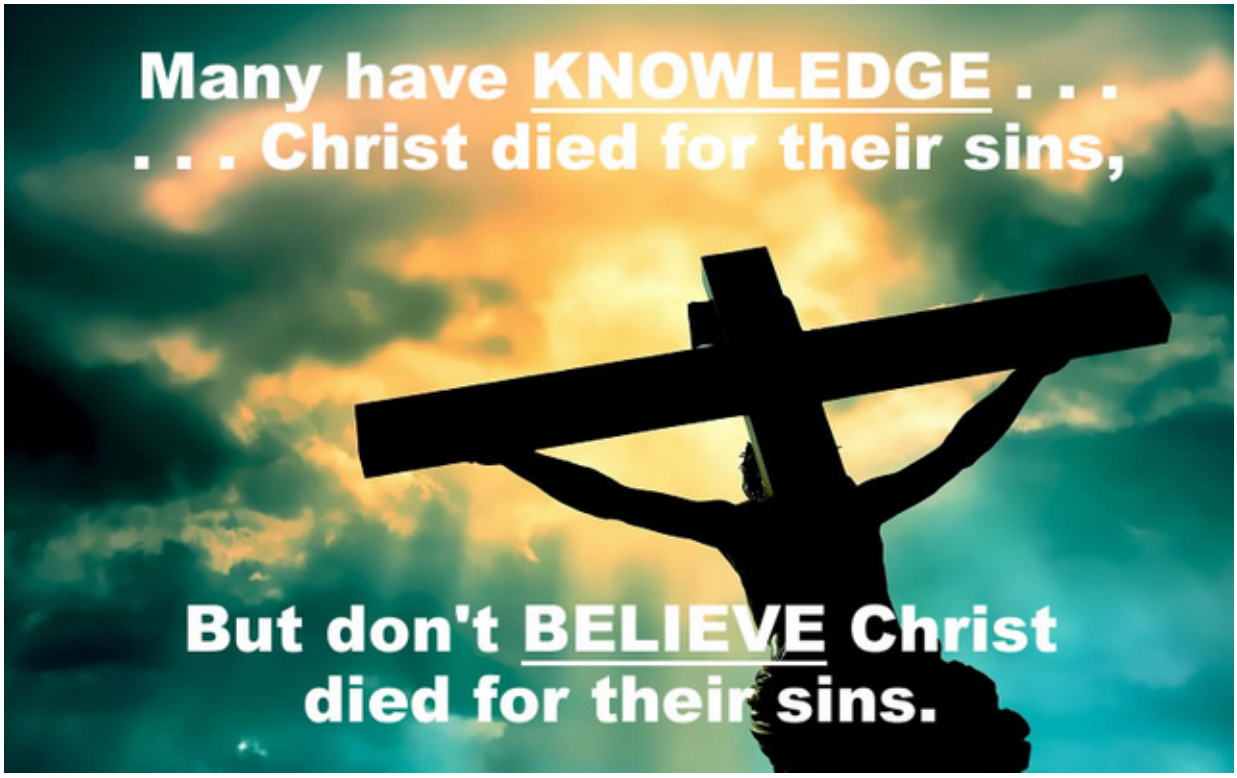
Nobody Can Honesty Say That God Does Not Exist

I have a classic book in front of me published in the year 1868, titled "GOD IN HISTORY and GOD IN SCIENCE," authored by London [5]Pastor John Cumming (1807-1881). May I say kindly, there's no such thing as an atheist! Some of the world's wealthiest celebrities have the stench of Hell on them, which is where they are all going, blaspheming the very God Who is kind to them. Luke 6:35b, "...for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil."

Legendary singer Billy Joel is a professed atheist...

"I gradually decided that just because I didn't have or couldn't find the ultimate answer didn't mean I was going to buy the religious fairytale. As an atheist you have to rationalize things." —Billy Joel

On page 139 of his book, "GOD IN HISTORY and GOD IN SCIENCE," Pastor John Cumming makes a brilliant observation concerning professed atheists...



> Atheism is folly as much as wickedness. But suffer me, before I show this, to say, that it is absolutely impossible that any man can be an atheist, in the strict sense of that word. All that any can say is this: "No spot that I have searched does reveal a God; every organization I have examined does not show traces of wisdom, goodness, and design:" but that individual cannot say; "There is no God;" because he cannot say, "I have soared to the farthest star, I have descended to the deepest mines, I have swept all space, and searched all time, and in the realms of infinite space I have not detected any traces of a God." In other words, to be able to say, "There is no God," you must yourself assume to be God, which is a reductio ad absurdum, an utter and a complete absurdity.
> SOURCE: "GOD IN HISTORY and GOD IN SCIENCE," p. 139; by Rev. John Cumming, D.D.; New York: Published by Carlton & Lanahan; 200 Mulberry-Street; 1868

What a brilliant observation. How can any man claim to be an atheist unless he has traveled to the farthest place in the universe? The nearest star to the earth (after our own sun) is Alpha Centauri, which is 4.37 light-years away (28,200,000,000,000 miles away!). This is just one star, being the closest to earth besides our own sun, which is 93,000,000,000 miles away. My friend, the Hubble Space Telescope has discovered that there are at least 200,000,000,000 galaxies in the universe. And each of those galaxies contains BILLIONS of stars! It is anticipated that when the James Webb Telescope is launched in 2018 from NASA, that it will discover over ONE TRILLION GALAXIES!!!

The Word of God teaches that God made the stars. I love how Genesis 1:16 is written... "HE MADE THE STARS ALSO." It's like the Bible is saying, "Oh, by the way, God also made all the stars!" Genesis 1:16, "And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also." God is amazing, Who knows the exact number of stars that He created, and he calls them each by their own name. Amen! Psalms 147:4, "He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names."

I have just briefly discussed the stars. The world that exists under a microscope is even more amazing, complex and a mystery to mankind. How can anyone reasonably claim to be an atheist when man hasn't even discovered what's in 90 % of the earth's oceans? Pastor John Cumming is so right... For anyone to say, "There is no God!," you must yourself assume to be God! No human being has traveled to the ends of the universe. In fact, no human being has ever even left the Milky Way Solar System. Psalms 145:3, "Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable."

John Cumming was a Scottish minister who was well-known for his anti-Catholic writings and preaching. Amen for that! One of the biggest evidences of apostasy in the United States today is that hardly any professed Christians, evangelicals and clergy criticize the damned Roman Catholic religion. Catholicism teaches sacramental salvation, which is a manmade teaching that goes totally contrary to the inspired Words of God in the Bible. Roman and Russian Orthodox Catholicism are of the Devil. The pope is not the vicar of Heaven, but of Hell. Mary was born by normal conception, did not remain a virgin, and died a sinner's death like all human beings. Only Jesus Christ was born of a virgin and lived a sinless life. Thank God that Pastor John Cumming exposed the Catholic church for what it is, of the Devil.

4.11.28 Don’t Ever Steal Anything (2023-11-24 01:11)

Exodus 20:15, “Thou shalt not steal.”

Psalm 37:21, “ The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth.”

Ephesians 4:28, “ Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.”

I love these Bible passages! The psalmist said that a wicked person borrows money but they never pay it back! There’s a lot of that going on in the world today. If you borrow money from someone, shame on you if you don't pay it back. The Bible warns in 1st Thessalonians 4:6 that God will avenge a Christian who has been defrauded by another—whether it be money they didn't pay back, a promise they didn't keep, gossip that caused you grief, or if they slept with your spouse (which is the sin of adultery)—all sin must and will be punished by God.

Nobody will get away with anything (Romans 12:19-21).

Even sins committed in secret will be dealt with by God.

A few months ago in the news, I heard a crying woman in Ukraine, telling about a wicked Russian soldier who raped her in a car. She said that God will punish him for what he did, and she is absolutely correct. Woe unto that evil man!!! ...

> Ecclesiastes 12:13-14, "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.
>
> For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil."

That's an easy passage to remember from the Old Testament book of Ecclesiastes—chapter 12, verses 13 and 14 (12, 13, 14).

I have been seeing ungodly YouTube advertisements encouraging viewers to steal things. I saw one video on YouTube that advertised how to steal electricity from your local electric company. I found this video just now about how to steal gas from a gas station...

How to Legally Steal Gasoline from Gas Stations in 2023!

Dear reader, you are a darn fool if you listen to such wicked advice. What saith the Scripture?

> Proverbs 1:10-16, "My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.
>
> If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:

> Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the pit:
>
> We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:
>
> Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse:
>
> My son, walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path: For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood*.”

I hate the preceding video! Shame on anyone who tries to show you how to “legally” steal from others. It was career criminal Neil McCauley who organized a series of heists in Chicago in the 1960s, that inspired the popular 1995 crime drama film “

Heat

by Michael Mann, starring Robert DeNiro and Al Pacino. Neil McCauley is infamous for making this statement during one of his bank heists:

> “We want to hurt no one. We’re here for the bank’s money, not your money. Your money is insured by the federal government, you’re not gonna lose a dime. Think of your families, don’t risk your life. Don’t try and be a hero.”

The truth is that Neil was stealing from the people, because ultimately everything affects society, whether it be good or evil. Neil was attempting to minimize his sins, by rationalizing that it is not as bad to steal from government FDIC insured banks. Don’t ever think that when you do something evil that it doesn’t undermine society, because it does in one way or another. The abortion industry has perhaps done more to cause the love of many people to grow cold (Matthew 24:12). We’ve lost our respect for the sacredness of life in America! If a baby is found in a dumpster, one or two people might call to inquire about the child; but if a puppy is pulled from a dumpster, thousands of calls will overload the phone system! We’ve lost our sanity in the United States!

I actually heard a social worker insanely say that abortion is a good thing, because it ultimately results in a lower crime rate by aborting what would have been otherwise, fatherless children. Isn’t that terrible? Yes, it most certainly is awful. I learned a long time ago that anything can be justified. I mean, anything! If you try hard enough, like Eve in the Garden of Eden who found 3 good reasons to disobey God (Genesis 3:6), you can find a reason to commit the most heinous acts of evil. That is how Adolf Hitler in his own mind insanely justified geocoding the Jews during World War II.

We’re A Nation In Insanity Because Of Sin

We’ve lost our respect for the sacredness of the marriage bed (Hebrews 13:4), the human body (1st Corinthians 3:15-16) and family values (Proverbs chapter 31). Youth today have no fear of parents, police or God.

The daily news has been flooded with young punks in recent years, who in large groups called "[1]Flash Mobs" have robbed and vandalized thousands of stores across the country. In California, [2]local businesses have suffered tens of millions of dollars in losses from smash and grab rioting (done mostly by teens). Store owners and employees are helpless to stop the crimes because the law prohibits them from shooting the thieves. Did you know that under God’s law in the Old Testament, you had permission legally to kill a thief with impunity? Exodus 22:2,

“ If a thief be found breaking up, and be smitten that he die, there shall no blood be shed for him.” That is what we need in the United States. If the thieves knew that store owners have a legal right to kill them, the theft would stop immediately!

If you have ever bought a movie on DVD or Blu-ray, then you have seen the threatening F.B.I. warning at the beginning, that if you copy the film you may face up to 5 years in prison and have to pay a $250,000 fine for piracy. But what penalty is there in the United States for murdering a baby in its mothers womb? That’s right, there is no penalty at all. We are a sick nation when losing money means more to us than human life does!!! What a sad and ungodly testimony upon the United States of America!

There are many horrible evil people in this world, ambulance-chasing lawyer types who eagerly take advantage of others for their own financial gain. One of several things that sickens me about living in the city of Pensacola are all the cut-throat billboards posted by lawyers, encouraging drivers to sue each other. No wonder people hate lawyers so much! Lawyers hurt people for money.

Kindly said, there’s not a more crooked bunch of liars, thugs and thieves than lawyers! I get tired of hearing retired lawyers say that they are “ recovering lawyers.

” What they are shamefully admitting is that they spent their career hurting people for money. I think they would be better to just keep their mouths shut, and not admit that they are retired criminals in God’s sight.

I could write volumes of books about the existing evils in our country today. Corruption is rampant in federal, state and local governments across the country. The Luciferian powers which pull our leader’s puppet stings from behind the scenes (who control Washington DC) are living on borrowed time from God. PAYDAY SOMEDAY!!! Ecclesiastes 5:8, “ If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they. ” Dear saint of God, the Lord is still on His throne!

Satan Has Limited Power, Don’t Fear Him, Fear God

Satan only has so long of a leash, put on him by God. Perhaps you have never read in Job chapter one that the Devil couldn’t touch Job. Job 1:9-10, “Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought? Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.” If you are a born-again believer, then the Devil cannot do anything to you without God’s express permission. Psalm 34:7, “ The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.”

I once heard a Baptist preacher long ago, tell his church congregation not to talk aloud about upcoming ministry plans, because Satan might hear those plans and try to stop you. I totally reject that type of fearmongering. You need not be careful what you say, thinking that the Devil may thwart your plans, because God is in control. Biblically, we ought not fear Satan or the demons. Hollywood in their movies portray demons and Satan as being horrifying, all-powerful and frightening. But in reality it is the demons who live in constant fear. James 2:19, “Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.” It is important to mention here that belief in God is not the way to be saved. John 6:40 tells us that “ the will

of the Father to get to Heaven is to BELIEVE ON JESUS!!! The fallen angels know that there is a God, but they are not saved. They do not trust in Christ.

I do not fear Satan or his imp demons. I only fear God as the Bible teaches. There is absolutely no reason to be afraid of the Devil. 1st John 4:4-6, “

Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world. They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them. We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error. ” The indwelling Holy Spirit (God in us as His saints) is greater than the Devil, so that we need not fear anyone or anything but God alone (2nd Corinthians 5:11; Ephesians 5:21).

Hebrews 13:6, “ So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.”

A False Gospel Robs Jesus Of His Sacrifice On The Cross

We’re talking about not stealing in this blog. Perhaps the greatest theft of all today are the wicked neo-evangelical preachers who rob Christ of His power to save. John 10:1, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.” I love the following picture that my youngest daughter drew when she was 14 years old. It shows that she had a good understanding of biblical salvation, knowing that faith in Jesus is the ONLY way into Heaven.

[4]Click For Full Sized Image

That is a helpful picture. The adage is true that " a picture is worth a thousand words.

" As we just read in John 10:1, a thief tries to climb up

"some other way" to enter into Heaven. The great irony is that the door to Heaven has been open for all of human civilization, through faith alone in Christ (Acts 10:43). John 10:6-9, "This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture."

I was shocked recently, when Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College literally mailed a toxic counterfeit plan of salvation right to my mailbox at my home. It was a booklet of John & Romans, with [5]a damnable false plan of salvation in the back. On page 60 of their poisonous booklet PCC says that to get to Heaven you must, "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins." Oh my! That is the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation!!!

On page 62 PCC says that to get to Heaven you must say:

> "I repent of my sins. I realize that sin is something that God hates and I no longer want to hold onto sinful bad habits in my life."

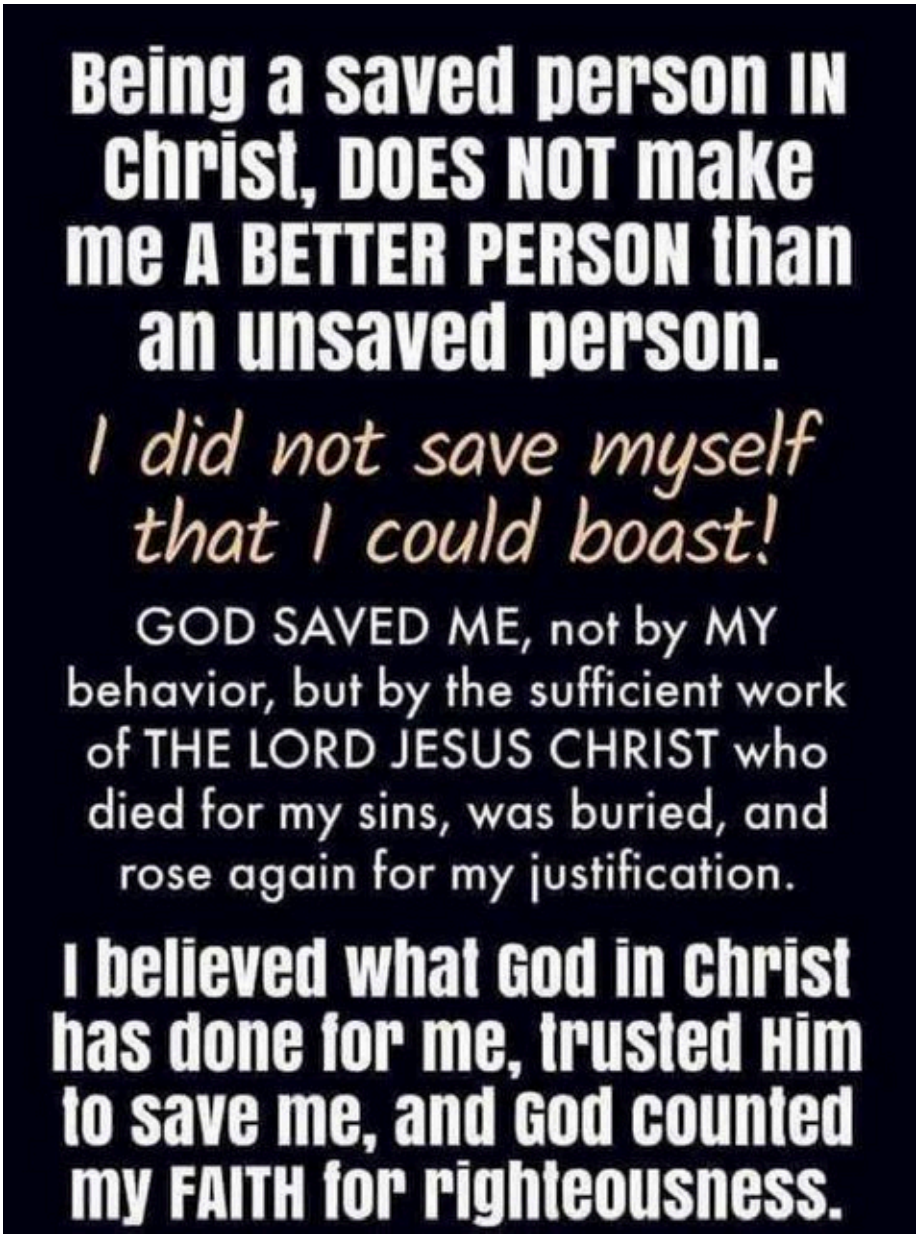
SOURCE: “John & Romans,” Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, p. 62

Nowhere in the Holy Bible does it teach to give up our self-serving sins and obey God to be saved. Where does the inspired Word of God tells us that to be saved we cannot hold onto our sinful bad habits? Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. PCC have wickedly polluted the Gospel, embellishing God’s simple plan of salvation to include giving up your sinful bad habits, which is another gospel.

As we have seen in this blog, there are many forms of stealing. Some people steal gas and electricity. Others steal from businesses in Flash Mob Robberies. And some lying false prophets (the list of whom is getting longer each day) steal from credit to save that is due only to Jesus Christ. Shame on PCC for placing the burden to change upon the lost sinner’s shoulders, when Christ alone bore the total weight of our sins on the cross of Calvary.

Without Christ you have a hopeless end; With Christ you have an endless hope.

There is nothing standing in the records of eternity against any soul that trusts in the Lord Jesus Christ.



Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to “repent” means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

4.11.29 Pastor Stephen Davey's False Gospel (2023-11-24 11:06)

Jeremiah 5:31, "The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?"

A popular Bible teacher on the internet and religious radio today is [1]Pastor Stephen Davey. I had heard some good things about him, so I went to check for myself, and I didn't like what I found. Davey is teaching a false Gospel. Pastor Davey is a graduate of Tennessee Temple University, whose founder [2]Dr. Lee Roberson, did not teach anything like what Mr. Davey is teaching. Brother Roberson taught the simplicity that is in Christ, not some type of discipleship program that today's Lordship Salvation crowd has sinfully added to the Gospel of grace.

You judge for yourself whether Mr. Davey is a false prophet or not concerning the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. Honestly, I'm starting to wonder if anyone even reads the King James Bible anymore. Stephen Davey is the senior pastor at the [3]Colonial Baptist Church of Cary, North Carolina. I clicked on "GOSPEL." What senior Pastor Davey is teaching here on his church's website is DEFINITELY NOT THE GOSPEL...

> If you do believe that you are a sinner and in danger of God's judgment, there are three things you should do:
>
> The first thing to do is to cry out to God for mercy and forgiveness. Admit to God that you are a sinner in need of his forgiveness. Acknowledge that you deserve his punishment but that you want his mercy instead. Tell him that you believe that Jesus died for your sins, and on the basis of what Jesus did for you, you are placing your faith in God for your salvation. You also need to ask God help to change you. You can't go on living in rebellion. The salvation God offers includes Jesus being the king of your life instead of you, but you need his help to overcome your sin.
>
> The second thing to do is to start living like you are a child of God. There are many areas of your life that need to change. As you read the Bible and come to understand what God wants from you, begin living it out. This will take you the rest of your life. You'll never completely stop sinning until you are with God in heaven. But, God's promise to forgive your sin stands, and he will continue to help you obey him.
>
> The third thing to do will also last your whole life - continue to trust and rely on God. You will fail at times, but God will always forgive. You will need his help and encouragement, and he will give it to you. Study God's Word, seek to know all you can about him, trust him every day, rely on his forgiveness, and grow as a child of God.

Respectfully, let's closely examine the false "Gospel" which the Colonial Baptist Church teaches, of which Dr. Stephen Davey is the senior pastor (NOTE: Everything in red below is unbiblical):

> Cry out to God for mercy and forgiveness.
>
> 1. Admit to God you are a sinner in need of His forgiveness.

2. Acknowledge that you deserve His punishment, but you want His mercy instead.
3. Tell Him you believe Jesus died for your sins, and on that basis you are placing your faith in God for salvation.
4. Ask God to help change you, because you cannot go on living in rebellion.
5. The salvation God offers includes Jesus being King of your life, instead of you.

Start living like you are a child of God.

1. There are many areas of your life that need to change.
2. As you read the Bible and understand, live it out. This will take you the rest of your life.

Continue to trust and rely upon God.

1. Study God's Word. Seek to know all you can about Him.
2. Trust Him every day. Rely on His forgiveness, and grow as a child of God.

Ladies and gentleman, this is what comes up when you click "GOSPEL." The webpage says these steps are what to do if you "believe you are a sinner in danger of God's judgment," but they COMBINE discipleship with salvation, all on their "GOSPEL" page. This is deceitful. This is clearly ANOTHER GOSPEL (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Their whole webpage allegedly teaching the "GOSPEL," leads up to the preceding nonsense under the subtitle, "The Response Within Your Heart." If you do what they say, and trust that to get you into Heaven, you will burn in the Lake of Fire forever. You had better trust what Christ did to pay for your sins on the cross, His burial, and His bodily resurrection three days later, AND NOTHING ELSE!!!

The way you live after you get saved does not affect your salvation, it affects your rewards in eternity (Daniel 12:3). ETERNAL LIFE IS A GIFT. If a professed Christian is living in deliberate unrepentant sin, it could signify that they are not saved (evidencing that they don't have the Holy Spirit in them); but for that matter, they might be living the Christian life faithfully, doing everything that a good Christian churchgoer does, AND YET STILL NEVER HAVE BEEN BORN-AGAIN!!! So you see, examining someone's life outwardly doesn't tell you anything. That's why the Bible says in 2nd Corinthians 13:5 to "EXAMINE YOURSELVES, whether ye be in the faith" (emphasis added)!!! Judas was one of Christ's very apostles, yet was unsaved. Jesus knew that Judas was a thief, and had a devil in him, but none of the other apostles knew it. Think about that.

Don't get mad at me, examine the Holy Scriptures for yourself, and then [5]compare what the Bible teaches to what the Colonial Baptist Church teaches. I am contending for the Christian faith, nothing more (Jude 1:3).

In Sharp Contrast To Stephen Davey, Here's The "THE GOSPEL" According To The Bible

Religion wants to fit us with glasses, but the Lord wants to open our eyes! Thank God for the truth of His precious Word, which is a lamp unto our feet. Psalm 119:105, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." America's churches influence the world, so if Satan can corrupt our churches here at home, then he can corrupt the world. The United States sends out more missionaries than any other nation. Sadly, there is MUCH heresy and false teaching circulating on the radio, television and in our churches nowadays concerning what a person must do to be saved.

What exactly is the Gospel? The word "Gospel" means "Good News" or "Glad Tidings." There is no need to guess what the "Gospel" is because the Bible plainly tells us. The "Gospel" is the Good News of Christ's DEATH on the cross for our sins, His BURIAL and bodily RESURRECTION three days later:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

We are saved by BELIEVING "the Gospel," which is the power of God unto salvation. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." It is that simple to be saved. If you admit that you are a needy sinner in God's sight, and you receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried and bodily resurrected three days later, YOU ARE IMMEDIATELY, SECURELY AND FOREVER SAVED!!!

As a side note: One of the greatest 28-minute sermons I've ever heard was by Pastor Davey, titled: '[6]Joni Eareckson Tada's Story That Pain Has A Purpose.' She dived and broke her neck at age 17, which made her a lifelong quadriplegic. If you are suffering through a difficult time in your life, I encourage you to listen to this life changing sermon. That being said, I cannot support Pastor Davey's ministry in lieu of the fact that he is wrong on God's simple plan of salvation. No one could ever become born again while visiting his website, since he corrupts the Gospel and muddies it with Satan's lie of Lordship Salvation.

I Am Being Everyone's Friend To Tell You The Truth

I am not trying to be unkind. I have nothing personal against Pastor Davey, nor the Colonial Baptist Church. God knows my heart. But when information is uploaded to the internet, it becomes fair game for scrutinization by anyone, especially those faithful believers who are [7]set for the defence of the Gospel. It does matter what we believe. Your doctrine determines your eternal destiny! It really does!!! Jesus said "YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN" or else you cannot enter into the Kingdom of God. John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

Stephen Davey would make Pastor John MacArthur, Evangelist Paul Washer, Evangelist Ray Comfort, and other Lordship Salvation heretics very proud. We must not [8]combine discipleship with salvation in an attempt to force people to live right. Eternal life is a free gift from God (Romans 5:15; 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-10), completely independent of the manner in which a believer chooses to live. That's why God gives rewards to the faithful, to His disciples who follow Him, but other believers will suffer loss at the Judgment Seat of Christ (1st Corinthians 3:9-15; 2nd Corinthians 5:9-11). That's why the apostle Paul begged the believers in Romans 12:1 to "present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your REASONABLE SERVICE" (emphasis added). Following Jesus as a believer is reasonable, considering that He died to save us from eternal damnation, BUT IT IS NOT MANDATORY TO BE SAVED. It was their choice Paul said, not a requirement to receive the gift of eternal life.

Remember, it's not...
FAITH IN CHRIST, PLUS;

it's...
FAITH IN CHRIST, PERIOD.

Please listen to the awesome MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles on the subject, titled, "[9]Steps In Sanctification; Or, The Root Of All Heresy!" This sermon clears up the matter well. Thank you for reading this.

"The mark of the child of God is that he loves everybody!" (a quote from Pastor Jack Hyles' classic MP3 sermon, "[10]FORGIVENESS")

[11] Ye Must Be Born Again!

[12] You Need HIS Righteousness!

4.11.30 Evangelist Ray Comfort Requires "Living a Lifestyle" To Be Saved (2023-11-24 11:42)

Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith."

Tragically, we've got a bunch of false prophets across America, who preach what the Holy Bible calls, "ANOTHER GOSPEL." Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed." There is only [1]one clear and concise Gospel.

One of the most deadly false prophets today is Evangelist Ray Comfort, who actually uses the phrase "LIVING A LIFESTYLE" while witnessing to a woman.

In the following YouTube video clip, look at the BIG LIE Evangelist Ray Comfort tells this poor deceived woman passenger on an airplane.

Kindly, Ray says that "repentance" means "LIVING A LIFESTYLE THAT PROVES THE REALITY OF YOUR REPENTANCE!" And then he adds, "IT'S A CONTINUAL THING!" Read for yourself what Mr. Comfort horribly teaches this woman, in this transcript from the Living Waters video...

> "So if the plane goes down, you'd end up in Hell! There are two things you have to do to be saved. Do you remember what they are? I told you what they are—You've got to repent and trust the Savior! ... God's offering you everlasting life upon your repentance and faith in Christ. Who in his right mind wouldn't say, 'Whoa! That's a good offer!' (The curious woman asks what it means to "repent"?)... Have you ever said you're sorry to someone you did something wrong to? That's all repentance is—You've sinned against God; it's a matter of saying, 'God, I'm sorry,' and then LIVING A LIFESTYLE that proves the reality of your repentance. That's what repentance is, it's a continual thing! God, 'I'm sorry, but I'm not going going to lie or steal or blaspheme Your name ever again. It has that attitude! And the second thing—trust in Jesus!" [emphasis added]

Dear reader, I triple-dog dare you to show me even one verse from the Holy Bible that teaches that “LIVING A LIFESTYLE” is required as part of being saved. You cannot! Now my friend, “a double-dog dare” is serious business, but a triple-dog dare is something you don’t want to mess around with! I triple-dog dare you to show me even one Bible verse that agrees with these false statements by Ray Comfort.

The Gospel of John is God’s Gospel track. John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” PLEASE DON’T MISS THAT! God authored the Gospel of John specifically so “that believing ye might have life through his name.” That means we don’t need any other Scripture than what is found in the Gospel of John to be saved. Where in the Gospel of John are we taught that, “LIVING A LIFESTYLE,” is necessary to receive eternal life? You cannot! Mr. Comfort is a bold-faced theological liar! Ray is ADDING to the Gospel, perverting it! This means Mr. Comfort is accursed by God. Galatians 1:9, “As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.” I didn’t say that, almighty God did!

Furthermore, where in the Gospel of John are we taught that to be saved, we must have a drastic change of attitude that is resolved to reform? Ray errantly says to be saved we must have the new attitude, “GOD, I’M SORRY, BUT I’M NOT GOING TO LIE OR STEAL OR BLASPHEME YOUR NAME EVER AGAIN!” And then he horribly says, “IT’S A CONTINUAL THING!” None of this is Biblical! There is absolutely nothing in the Gospel of John about having a sincere desire to reform our ways, clean up our life of sin, turn over a new leaf, do better, forsake the world, turn away from sins, nor any other garbage that false prophets are teaching nowadays in churches, poisoning people with their lies!

True Bible Repentance is a Change of Mind Unto the Gospel Itself

So what is the truth? Is repentance necessary for salvation? Actually, yes, it is! But Bible repentance is simply “[10]a change of mind” unto the Gospel itself, and not a desire to reform one’s sinful ways. There is not one verse in the entire King James Bible (the only accurate English translation) which teaches to “repent of sin” or “repent from sin” to be saved; but rather, we read in Acts 20:21b about “repentance toward God.” Repentance is the admission that I am a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God.

Romans 3;19, “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.” God’s LAW shows man his sinnership, and then brings us to Christ to be saved by GRACE (Galatians 3:24-26). That is what the Word of God is: LAW and GRACE (i.e., Old and New Testaments).

In the Gospel of John, the words “believe” and “believed” are mentioned 85 times, but the word “repent” is not mentioned, not even once! That is because repentance is an automatic thing, without which no man would ever believe on the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved. So we don’t even need to mention the word “repent” when we witness to people, and

I recommend that you don't, lest you confuse them. God agrees with me (because I agree with Him). That is why God didn't mentioned "repentance" in the Gospel of John, which is His Gospel tract! The person who believes has repented, and the person who repents has believed!

In sharp contrast to the free grace Gospel, what Ray Comfort is requiring is manmade reformation! That is "works" for salvation, which is a false Gospel of damnation. Ray requires people to denounce their sinful ways and commit themselves to walking a higher plane in life, renewing their ways, pursuing a better life! None of that is the free gift of God, which is forgiveness of sins and eternal life. Jesus doesn't forgive sin. That is correct! Jesus has already paid for everyone's sins with His precious blood. That is why forgiveness of sins is a free gift, since Christ has already paid for it. So to be saved, you simply need to freely receive God's gift. What Ray Comfort is teaching is a strange doctrine of works, human effort, which simply cannot produce the new birth. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. That is exactly what Ray Comfort is doing!

Ray says to get saved you have to do "TWO THINGS"! In God's authentic plan of salvation, there is only ONE THING that you need to do, which is to BELIEVE THE GOSPEL! That is all we are told to do in the precious Gospel of John, nothing more. The Gospel is the GOOD NEWS of Jesus, the only begotten Son of God, the promised Messiah, Who gave His life on the cross to pay for our sins. Christ DIED for our sins, He was BURIED, and then He RESURRECTED on the third day from the dead for our justification. Those three elements comprise the Gospel. ...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures.."

I am so glad and grateful that God made the GOSPEL very plain to see! Foolish men, like Ray Comfort and John MacArthur, have been blinded by Satan to add manmade religion to the Gospel and pervert the grace of God. If you doubt what I am telling you, I challenge you to research the [11]Mormon definition of repentance. See the [12]Seventh-day Adventist definition of repentance. See the [13]Jehovah's Witnesses definition of repentance. They all agree with John MacArthur, Paul Washer and Ray Comfort's perverted doctrine on what it means to repent! I am not making this stuff up! Look at the evidence I have provided for you. I have already done the research! Ray Comfort agrees with the cults! The Word of God disagrees with all of them! The Scriptures teach us that repentance is simply unto the Gospel itself. Thus, we repent TO believe. This is very different than Ray Comfort's false Gospel which teaches that we repent AND believe.

Another false prophet is [14]Evangelist Tom Ferrell, which says we repent AND believe to be saved. Dr. Ferrell is wrong! The King James Bible teaches that we repent TO believe!!! That is, they are one in the same act. They are two separate things theologically, but they happen simultaneously. Ray Comfort makes them two separate acts. So a popular heresy, which respectfully, [15]Pastor Charles Lawson and other false prophets preach, is that many people who believe the Gospel are not really saved, because they are still living in sin; and therefore, have never truly repented. This false Gospel conditions salvation upon a changed life, works, human effort, manmade reformation!!! This is not the Gospel and does not produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit!!! [16]Pastor Max D. Younce wisely says, “Anything mixed with grace crosses grace out!” Yes, that is absolutely right!

In Ray Comfort’s counterfeit Gospel, there is an entirely different mindset given to the person being witnessed to, where they are pressured to stop willfully sinning in order to be saved, as you will see in this next subsection, in which I analyze a video of one of Ray Comfort’s loyal followers witnessing to someone.

Ray Comfort’s Damning Influence On Other Preachers

The following false plan of salvation is being taught on the internet by a former Navy SEAL named, Chad Williams. On Chad’s YouTube channel, the only other related channel that he promotes is Ray Comfort’s Living Waters...

> “I can give you the tools, but you need to apply them. So the tools is this—this is what you need to do! Remember, you need to ’repent.’ So what that is, is to, TURN FROM YOUR SIN! All the things that you do in your life, that you know you shouldn’t do, the things you have done that you know you shouldn’t have, the places your feet have taken you that you know they ought not to go, the things your hands touched that aren’t yours to touch—You take those things, that your conscience tells you was wrong, it’s a God-given conscience, and you disassociate with it—You say you want nothing else to do with it anymore—It’s those things that put Jesus on the cross, it’s those things that Jesus died for! So you recognize that, and you say, ’You know what, I don’t want to associate with that anymore!’ That’s what repentance is, it’s all at once. And then you put your faith and trust in Jesus Christ! Okay? So that’s the key: repent and believe!” [emphasis added]

What you just read is a false Gospel, straight from the pits of Hell! Kindly, Chad Williams is not a born-again Christian! Chad’s works-based religious mindset, like Ray Comfort’s, is not the free-grace Gospel mindset! Here’s a little information about Chad, from his own YouTube channel, who is highly esteemed in the mainstream media...

> “Chad Williams is a former US Navy SEAL who served his country proudly in combat on the battlefield. He is a best selling author and frequent guest on major news networks such as Fox News Channel and CNN. Having presented to Fortune 500 companies, educators, military and law enforcement, Chad draws upon his experience and training as a Navy SEAL to teach others the way SEALs acquire and execute goals, overcome adversity, lead, innovate and maintain killer instincts and safety in the worst of conditions”

The intent of my article is not to cast a negative reflection on Ray or Chad as far as character, but to expose their false teachings on salvation. I actually admire Ray Comfort's zeal for evangelism. ([25]Check out Ray Comfort's dog, these two do look alike...lol!) My exposure of Ray Comfort as a false prophet is not a personal attack against him. I love everybody, including Ray. I am being true to the Scriptures. Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged."

As far as performance, Ray is a great street preacher! Unfortunately, he never gets anybody saved! Of all the videos I have seen of Mr. Comfort shoving the Ten Commandments down people's throats, no one has ever come to Jesus Christ, because he adds a commitment to turn away from their sinful ways as a requirement to be saved, which is impossible to do! We all sin, and we all have sins that we struggle with; so to witness to an unsaved person and place such a heavy burden upon them, to turn away from their lifelong sinful bad habits, strongly pushes them away from the truth of the free and easy Gospel of grace!!!

> "Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from the MP3 sermon titled: "[26]God's Reversal Of Psalm 51"

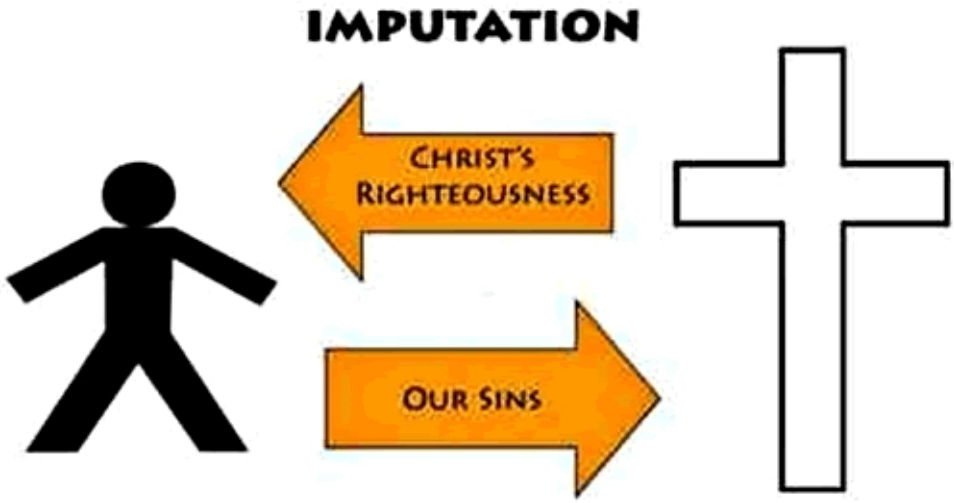
God's Imputed Righteousness

My favorite theological doctrine in the Holy Bible is [27]IMPUTATION. Once you understand the concept of imputation, you will see salvation clearly. I love this picture below, which is truly worth 1,000 words.

Romans 4:5-6, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works."

In the preceding Bible verses, the word “counted” in verse 5 comes from the same exact Greek word as “imputed” in verse 6, so they are interchangeable. God counted our sins to Jesus on the cross, and by our faith he counts Jesus’ righteousness to us! I love that truth! So when I sin, being a child of God for 39 years since I was 12 years old, my heavenly Father only sees the righteousness of His dear only begotten Son! 2nd Corinthians 5:21, "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him."

I love this Bible verse...



“Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith."

If we try to please God by doing good works, such as turning away from our sins to be saved, then that is the righteousness of the law. That is, we are trying to keep God's law to merit Heaven. That is self-righteousness, which God rejects. This is what false prophets like Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, John MacArthur, John Piper, Joel Osteen, Rick Warren, Jack Chick and others are teaching.

Kindly, Ray Comfort is pulling on the same rope as the Devil. Ray is a false prophet! That is why I expose him relentlessly on the internet, warning everyone so that they won't follow him into the Lake of Fire. Ray plainly says that to be saved, we must "live a lifestyle" to prove our repentance, otherwise he says we cannot go to Heaven. Not surprisingly, in Ray's popular commentary called, " [30]The Evidence Bible ," he completely ignores the Bible doctrine of imputation.

The reason why is because he bases his commentary on the perverse "Amplified Version" (AMP) of the Bible, which entirely removes the word "impute." That is another reason, among thousands, why I only use and promote the trustworthy King James Bible. As I just showed you in Romans 4:5-6, the word "impute" is found in the Holy Bible. Ray uses an unholy counterfeit Bible version, which leaves off imputation. Clearly, Ray Comfort doesn't understand the beautiful concept of IMPUTATION!

The truth is that when a person gets saved, all of their sins (past, present and future) are washed away by the blood of Jesus, so even if you murder someone or commit suicide, God sees Christ's righteousness when He looks at that person. This is the doctrine of imputation. In Ray Comfort's counterfeit plan of salvation, a professed believer who continues in sin IS NOT SAVED, because he says they have not repented. This is 100 % Lordship Salvation, aka, Calvinism. [31]John Calvin (1509-1564) was a monster. He murdered dozens of families, literally, for simply refusing to accept the heresy of infant baptism! Mr. Calvin taught a false Gospel, he was a [32]known occult member, who is this moment burning in Hell. Why do foolish ministers today, follow the satanic philosophies of a dead man, in more ways than one, who perished 454 years ago?

I wrote a helpful book all about, "[33]SALVATION," 18 years ago, which you can read on-line. The lifestyle choices that we make after we get saved, once we are in Christ, have absolutely NOTHING to do with the eternal gift of God! A believer needs to GROW after they get saved. 1st Peter 2:1-3, "Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings, As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious." The first thing that every new convert ought to be given is their very own King James Bible.

Truthfully, Mr. Comfort is guilty of gross theological incompetence! Ray is not merely claiming that if you are saved there will be some outward manifestations (i.e., LIVING A LIFESTYLE) as proofs. I do not agree with that assertion either, which is what Pastor Phil Kidd teaches. It is heresy! Phil Kidd is teaching heresy! Outward changes cannot be used to determine salvation, because even unsaved people can manifest outward changes. For example: The unsaved false prophets, the workers of iniquity, in Matthew 7:21-23 did "many wonderful works." So I disagree with Dr. Kidd, respectfully. However, Phil Kidd is not teaching a false Gospel, because he doesn't tamper with the Gospel at the time of salvation. I still promote Pastor Kidd, even though I don't agree with him, because he is correct on the Gospel.

In sharp contrast, Ray Comfort plainly requires that the woman on the airplane commit to making an effort, to forsake the sins in her life. Effectively, Ray is saying that God won't save a person unless they are willing to try to stop sinning!

> EVANGELIST RAY COMFORT IS PREACHING A FALSE GOSPEL—A SATANIC LIE THAT GOD WILL ONLY SAVE A PERSON IF THEY ARE WILLING TO STOP SINNING, AND CONTINUE LIVING THAT TYPE OF A LIFESTYLE, PERPETUALLY TURNING AWAY FROM SINNING PERMANENTLY! THAT IS NOT BIBLE REPENTANCE—THAT IS A BURDENSOME YOKE OF MANMADE REFORMATION! THAT IS NOT THE GOSPEL OF FREE GRACE, NOT EVEN CLOSE!!!

Jack Chick teaches the same garbage as Ray Comfort, as does Pastor Keith Gomez, Evangelist William P. Grady, Dr. John MacArthur, John Piper, William Lane Craig, Billy Graham, Rick Warren, Joel Osteen, Charles Stanley, John Hagee, Beth Moore, Jimmy Swaggart, Chip Ingram and countless other heretics on the Gospel. It is not what we can do for God that saves us; but rather, what Christ did to pay for our sins on the cross! By faith God places my sins on Jesus, and then places Jesus' goodness on me. That is imputation. So if a Christian commits suicide, they are spotless in God's eyes.

One of my favorite MP3 sermons by Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001) is called, "[34]How To Be Right With God." In the sermon Brother Hyles explains the big difference between being right with God POSITIONALLY, which is salvation; verses being right with God CONDITIONALLY, which is our personal daily walk, or discipleship. This is why we read in Romans 5:20, "Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound." That is, if we sin as a Christian, God's grace will MUCH MORE ABOUND, so that we can NEVER lose God's righteousness (i.e., we cannot lose salvation).

We are saved by God's righteousness, not our own. Our righteousness is filth to God (Isaiah 64:6). I am going to Heaven ONLY because of what Christ did to pay for my sins!

Evangelist Ray Comfort is Stuck On God's Law

> Romans 3:19-20, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

The truth is so simple. Why do men complicate things? I'll tell you why, pride! It is in our sinful human nature to want to take matters into our own hands. Adam attempted to deal with his sins, and Eve's sins, by sewing together some fig leaves as coverings. Albeit, God rejected Adam's fig-leaf religion, just as He rejects Ray Comfort's manmade reformation. Ray Comfort is guilty of trying to force sinners to reform their ways, as a prerequisite to saving-faith. That is evil! The purpose of God's LAW is to show humanity our sinnership. Romans 7:13b, "that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful." God never intended that men try to keep the law as a part of submitting to God's righteousness to be saved. The entire reason why man must wholly submit to God's righteousness, resting in Christ's sacrifice on the cross alone as payment for our sins, is because man's best efforts are offensive to a holy God. Isaiah 64:6, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away."

Only God knows how many people will miss Heaven, because Satan blinded them from the truth of the saving-power of the Gospel. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." Ray Comfort is sincere in his evangelism efforts, of that I have no doubt; but he is woefully ignorant of the Gospel, convincing people to live the Christian life in Jesus' name, instead of wholly submitting themselves to the righteous of God, which is by faith alone in Christ Jesus.

Living A Perpetual Lifestyle Of Repentance Is Not How To Be Saved

Ray Comfort's partial faith plus works Gospel is a counterfeit! It cannot produce the new birth! Jesus exclaimed in John 3:3b, "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." And again in John 1:12-13 we read, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." Please notice, very plainly stated, that the promise of salvation is "TO THEM THAT BELIEVE ON HIS NAME"!

So where in the world does Ray Comfort get the erroneous idea that a person must LIVE A LIFESTYLE THAT PROVES THE REALITY OF THEIR REPENTANCE to be saved? What in the world does that have to do with BELIEVING on the Lord, as taught in the Gospel of John? If you are following anything I have taught you from the Scriptures, you should be outraged and alarmed at the garbage Ray Comfort is propagating to millions of people! Ray says that to be born-again, you have to be sorry for your sins, and resolve in your heart not to commit them anymore, and then start "LIVING A LIFESTYLE THAT PROVES THE REALITY OF THEIR

REPENTANCE."

Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." There are [35]approximately 720 laws in the Old Testament! The Bible says that "CHRIST IS THE END OF THE LAW"? What does that mean? It simply means my dear reader, that the intent of all of God's law is to bring you to Christ to be redeemed! God never intended for anyone to obey the law to merit eternal life. The truth is that NO ONE can perfectly keep the laws of God. We are all horrible sinners. Before Moses had even come down off of Mount Sinai, with the tablets written by God on stone, the Hebrews had already broken all of the Ten Commandments. To have eternal life, a person cannot sin even once! You have to be 100 % spotless in every way. Truthfully, no one except the virgin-born Son of God has ever meet that sinless qualification (Hebrews 4:15). That is why Jesus qualified as the spotless Lamb of God, to take away the sins of the world (John 1:29).

Jesus Christ is "the end" of the law. I love to let the Scriptures interpret themselves where possible. We have such a passage in Galatians 3:24-26, "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." Here we see a wonderful explanation of what "CHRIST IS THE END OF THE LAW" means. The LAW is the journey, God's saving GRACE through faith in Christ is the destination! Ray Comfort is still stuck on the LAW'S journey, which means he hasn't arrived at GRACE yet! We are saved only by God's GRACE, which the LAW leads us to. That is a summary of the Holy Bible: [36]LAW and GRACE! Until Ray Comfort comes to the place in his mind and heart, where he abandons the LAW and clings solely to God's GRACE, he cannot be saved!!!

4.11.31 'The Strand Study Bible' Gets Repentance Correct (2023-11-24 15:41)

Matthew 3:1-2, " In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea, And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

One of my favorite Bible teachers at Hyles-Anderson College (HAC) was Brad Strand. I got saved at age 13, but didn't learn that Jesus is God until age 18, when Brother Strand taught me with the Bible at HAC. By God's grace, Brad Strand is a brilliant gifted teacher, and has been a faithful pastor in Cash, Texas for many years now.

Having said that, I love The Strand Study Bible. I highly recommend buying one if you want to learn the Bible. [1]I purchased mine from Amazon, and love it so much that I bought two of them while they are still available. Anyway, I was reading Matthew 3:2 this week and was delighted to find that Pastor Strand gets repentance correct. I'm telling you, tragically, that over 90 % of preachers today are WRONG on repentance. I'm talking about [2]Adrian Rogers, [3]Ken Ham, [4]Stephen Davey and [5]Ray Comfort, to name but a few infidel heretics! I admit that I was a bit worried when I ordered The Strand Study Bible, concerned that he might have been deceived also by the Devil. Sadly, I'd say about 90 % of Baptist pastors today are WRONG on what it means to repent to be saved, Having said that, and without further ado, I am now going to share with you Pastor Strand's teaching on repentance, which is 100 % correct. This is his commentary for Matthew 3:1-2, "In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea, And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." ...

> This word (Repent) is the Greek word metanoeo. Metanoeo is taken from two Greek words: (meta - meaning, "after") and (noeo - meaning, "mind"). The word literally means, "after thought" (II Cor. 7:8-10). True repentance means, "to change your mind about what you believe and agree with what God says, and then confess it" (I Jn. 1:9a). God tells us that there are two areas in which we must repent, if we are to be saved. We must change our minds as to:

1. Who we are (Lk. 5:31-32 & 13:1-5 and Mt. 27:3) —

   God tells us that we are sinfully sick and in need of the Savior and that we cannot save ourselves (Rom. 3:10, 23).

2. Who CHRIST is (Mt. 4:13-14 & 11:20-24, Mk. 1:15, Acts 3:12-19 and Acts 2:38a) —Christ is God (Jn. 8:24, 58-59, not a god. Christ is the only Savior (Acts 4:10-12).

Bravo Pastor Strand! I would like to clarify that to "confess it" does not mean with your mouth; but rather, to simply admit to God you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20). I am against the strange New IFB (New Independent Fundamental Baptist) [6]doctrine today which mandates praying to be saved. The Bible plainly teaches that trusting Jesus Christ as your Savior—believing that He is the only begotten Son of God who died on a cross to pay for your sins and raised from the dead—is enough to be saved (without calling, asking or praying for it). John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

I humbly applaud Pastor Strand for getting repentance correct, because most pastors today have dropped the ball for God, preaching another gospel. For example, look at these lies:

Ray Comfort:

"If belief is all that is necessary for salvation, then the logical conclusion is that one need never repent.

SOURCE: [7]https://www.evidencebible.com/witnessingtool/isrepentancenecessaryforsalvation.shtml

Huh? Clearly, Ray Comfort thinks you must forsake sinful bad habits to be saved. Ray foolishly teaches that more than faith is required to get to Heaven. He thinks you must perpetually do your best to turn away from sinning to know you are going to Heaven. I have read his deadly, 'The Evidence Bible,' and [8]know well what he teaches. Notice that Ray teaches the same false doctrine as the cult of JW's...

Jehovah's Witnesses:

Salvation is a free gift from God. It cannot be earned. Yet it does require effort on our part.

SOURCE: [9]What Must We Do to Be Saved? - Jehovah's Witnesses Official Website

Say what? That is DAMNABLE HERESY!!! How can salvation be a free gift from God if effort is required on our part? That is a major contradiction. If I give you a "free" birthday gift, but then tell you that you must wash my car to get it, is it really a free gift? No, it would be an exchange, a trade, or a reward, but it couldn't be a gift (because a gift must be completely free). Jehovah's Witnesses are theological liars!!! So also is Ray Comfort, Ken Ham, Pensacola Christian College, Bob Jones University, Marty Herron, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, John MacArthur and Paul Washer—all theological liars!!!

The Damnable Counterfeit Plan Of Salvation Of Pastor Adrian Rogers

It made my day yesterday when I learned that Pastor Brad Strand is correct on repentance. A genuine born-again believer understands the truth of God's Word (1st Corinthians 2:14-16). But an unsaved religious person cannot understand God's Word. Ray Comfort is NOT saved. Stephen Davey is not saved. I was shocked what [10]Adrian Rogers, former chairman of the Southern Baptist Convention taught about repentance....

At his website, 'Life Worth Finding,' Adrian Rogers presents this counterfeit plan of salvation:

How are we saved?

By believing in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Acts 16:30-31

The word "believe" in this verse of Scripture literally means "trust."

Jesus cannot be our Savior if we are not willing to make Him Lord.

Surrendering to Jesus' Lordship means that He takes control of our lives.

Once we are saved, God begins to work in us, making us into the persons He wants us to be.

Philippians 1:6

Once we are saved, we are justified immediately in the spirit, sanctified progressively in the soul, and glorified ultimately in the body.

To be saved, we must invite Jesus into our lives; we must ask Him to come into our lives and take control of our lives.

Revelation 3:20 – God desires that we all invite Him in.

HOW DO WE KNOW THAT WE ARE SAVED?

John 5:24

When we trust Jesus, as the Bible states, then we are saved.
We do not trust our feelings to know whether or not we're saved; we trust what God's Word tells us.
We place our faith in God's facts.

CONCLUSION

Do you know Jesus personally? If not, you can pray to Him today by asking Him to come into your life.

Call upon Jesus today. Repent (turn) from your sins, and turn to Jesus. Ask Him to forgive you of your sins, and acknowledge Him as Lord of your life.

Romans 10:9-10

Romans 10:13 [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [11]https://www.lwf.org/sermon-outlines/simplicity-of-salvation-1 [page has since been removed]

Pastor Rogers also made these heretical damnable quotes (this page still works)...

"If Jesus is not the Lord of your life, then He is not your Savior. Salvation is not a cafeteria line where we say, 'Well, I believe I'll have a little Savior today, but no Lordship. Thank you.' No! Jesus is Lord." [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [12]https://www.oneplace.com/ministries/love-worth-finding/read/articles/si mplicity-of-salvation-8518.html

I’m sure that some readers are doubting that Rogers went to Hell. I mean, how could a Baptist preacher, who was chairman of the SBC for decades, end up in the fires of Hell? Right? I’m sure some of my blog readers rationalize that every preacher thinks a little but differently, and that God understands allows people to slide (so to speak). But if this were true, then the religious people in Matthew 7:21-23 should have made it into Heaven, but they didn’t. You need to understand friend that it doesn’t matter how sincere or close to being right you may be, the ONLY thing that matters is whether or not you are one of Jesus’ sheep. Does Jesus recognize you as one of His redeemed sheep? That is, have you been born-again?

> Matthew 7:21-23, “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.”

Jesus called them workers of iniquity!!! They had devoutly followed Jesus as the “

Lord

” of their lives. They served Him with commitment. They preached (prophesied) in Jesus’ name, and were His biggest fans. Yet, they had failed to do the will of the Father, which according to [13]John 6:40 is to wholly trust in Jesus’ name. If you missed it the first time, here is more damnable false teaching from Adrian Rogers...

2) THE CONFESSION OF HIS LORDSHIP SECURES SALVATION

a) We cannot receive what Jesus gives and refuse who Jesus is.

i) Luke 2:10-11

ii) The great need in the world today is salvation, so God sent a Savior.

(1) God sent this message to humble shepherds.

(a) Luke 10:21

(2) If we want to understand who Jesus Christ is, then we must lay our intellectual pride in the dust and ask Him to reveal this truth to us.

iii) The only way to be saved is to confess His Lordship.

(1) Romans 10:9-10 (a) The confession is “Jesus is Lord.”

(2) If Jesus Christ is not our Lord, then we are not saved.

(a) The Bible never says to accept Jesus as Savior.

(i) We cannot receive Christ as Savior and reject Him as Lord and be saved.

iv) We cannot receive God's gift of salvation if we do not receive Jesus as Lord.

v) Romans 14:9

vi) In order to be saved, we must bow the knee to Jesus, not just "tip the hat" to Him [emphasis added to expose heresies]

SOURCE: Life Worth Fining, '[14]His Unquestioning Lordship'

Ladies and gentlemen, what you just read is totally of the Devil. Pastor Adrian Rodgers did not go to Heaven when he died. If he did, the Bible is false. If that seems shocking to you, please read Matthew 7:21-23. You don't get to Heaven by calling Jesus, "LORD, LORD" (verse 21). Surrendering to Christ's Lordship is not the way of salvation. The Bible couldn't be any clearer! You must do the will of the Father. That is exactly what Jesus said in Matthew 7:21, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." The will of the Father is found in John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." In the Gospel of John we find the word "believe" mentioned 85 times, without any mention of praying, repenting, calling or surrendering to Christ as "Lord" to be saved. Sadly, Adrian Rodgers was a wolf in sheep's clothing, now being tormented in Hell forever (Matthew 7:15).

Also, Pastor Rogers is quoting from one of the Devil's corrupt modern perversions of the Holy Bible. In fact, Romans 10:9 doesn't teach to confess "

Jesus is Lord

to be saved, the inspired King James Bible says to confess

the Lord Jesus.

" Wrong doctrine comes from wrong bibles!

Also, Pastor Rogers flat out lied when he said that "

The Bible never says to accept Jesus as Savior.

" 1st John 4:14, "And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world." The Scripture doesn't say that the Father sent Jesus to be the Lord of the world, but " the Saviour of the world.

" John 1:12-13,

"But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God."

Please read 1st Timothy 4:10-11, " For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. These things command and teach." I love that! Jesus is the Savior of all men, especially of those that BELIEVE! What does that mean? It simply means that Jesus paid for everyone's sins with His precious blood on the cross (1st Peter 1:18-19). You don't have to ask

God to save you, because He is already freely offering you the gift of eternal life. All you need to do is take it by childlike faith. Simply receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, but then physically resurrected from the dead on the third day, and you are saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Brother Strand is 100 % right, repentance means to change your mind about two things:

1. Who we are (Lk. 5:31-32 & 13:1-5 and Mt. 27:3) —

   God tells us that we are sinfully sick and in need of the Savior and that we cannot save ourselves (Rom. 3:10, 23).

2. Who CHRIST is (Mt. 4:13-14 & 11:20-24, Mk. 1:15, Acts 3:12-19 and Acts 2:38a) —Christ is God (Jn. 8:24, 58-59, not a god. Christ is the only Savior (Acts 4:10-12).

We are the guilty SINNERS, and Jesus is the blessed SAVIOR!

It is abundantly plain to see from the Scripture that people received Jesus as their personal Savior. John 4:40-42, "So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

And many more believed because of his own word;

And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

" They didn't acknowledge Jesus as the Lord of the world; but rather, as the SAVIOUR OF THE WORLD!!! Dear reader, Adrian Rogers is a Gospel pervert!

> "The worst pervert in America is the Gospel pervert!" —Brother Lester Roloff, from the sermon, "[15]The Gospel Perverts Or Jesus?"

I fully agree with what Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) said...

> "But we've so muddied the Gospel, that when men want to make a decision to trust Christ, we've made it so complicated that they can't make a simple decision to 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.' We'll say, 'If you don't do this' or 'You don't do that' or 'You haven't done that,' you're not saved'; but the truth of the matter is that when asked in the Bible, 'Sirs, what must I do to be saved?,' one clear simple answer was given to him — 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved."' Pastor Curtis Hutson, "[16]Things That Are Different Are Not The Same" (preached at Southwide Baptist Fellowship on October 3, 1994)

Also, Dr. Hutson said this truth...

> "Faith and repentance are the same; they are not two separate decisions. One cannot trust Christ as Savior without repenting or changing his mind. The very fact that he trusts Christ for salvation shows that he has changed his mind regarding sin, salvation, and God." —Pastor Curtis Hutson

According to Adrian Rogers' false gospel, you must forsake your sins, invite Jesus into your life, surrender control of your life over to Him, and acknowledge Him as Lord so that He has full control over your life from now on. Folks, none of that is THE GOSPEL! How is any of that the simple childlike faith of John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life"? I triple dog dare you to show me anywhere in the Bible where it says to surrender control of your life over to Jesus as Lord to be saved.

Faith Is The Only Righteous Thing That I Can Do To Be Saved

So when bad preachers tell you that you must repent "OF YOUR SINS" to be saved, they are lying to you and using the law differently than it was intended by God, to give the KNOWLEDGE OF SIN. They are requiring you to OBEY THE LAW to be saved, or to BE WILLING TO KEEP THE LAW to be saved. They say you must be willing to forsake a lifestyle of sinning. But that is not the Gospel of free grace as taught in the inspired King James Bible. Dear friend, Jesus paid your debt of sin, because you couldn't do it, and neither could I. Eternal life is a free gift from God. You don't have to give up anything, nor be willing to give up anything. Consider again this beautiful quote from Pastor Harry Ironside...

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past ...
>
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all."
>
> SOURCE: Pastor Harry A. Ironside, the tract: '[17]What Is The Gospel?'

Repentance is simply a matter of acknowledging THE TRUTH of your sinnership. 2nd Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will." Repentance is entirely a matter of the heart, where a person acknowledges THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God; thus believing the Gospel you are saved by faith alone.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

Dear friend, you don't make Jesus Savior or Lord, HE IS SAVIOR AND LORD! But you must receive Him as your Savior to be saved, and then afterwards as your Lord if you want to please the Lord as His child. These are two separate decisions, which is why the Apostle Paul said in Romans 12:1, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." SERVICE and SALVATION are two different things. Romans 1:6-7 tell us that Paul wrote the book of Romans to the "saints" of Rome. Paul is urging them to present their bodies as a living sacrifice to serve God, which he calls their "reasonable service." Notice that Paul doesn't call it "mandatory service," nor their "required service," but their "reasonable service." If Lordship were necessary to be saved, then Paul would not have made this appeal to them, but he did.

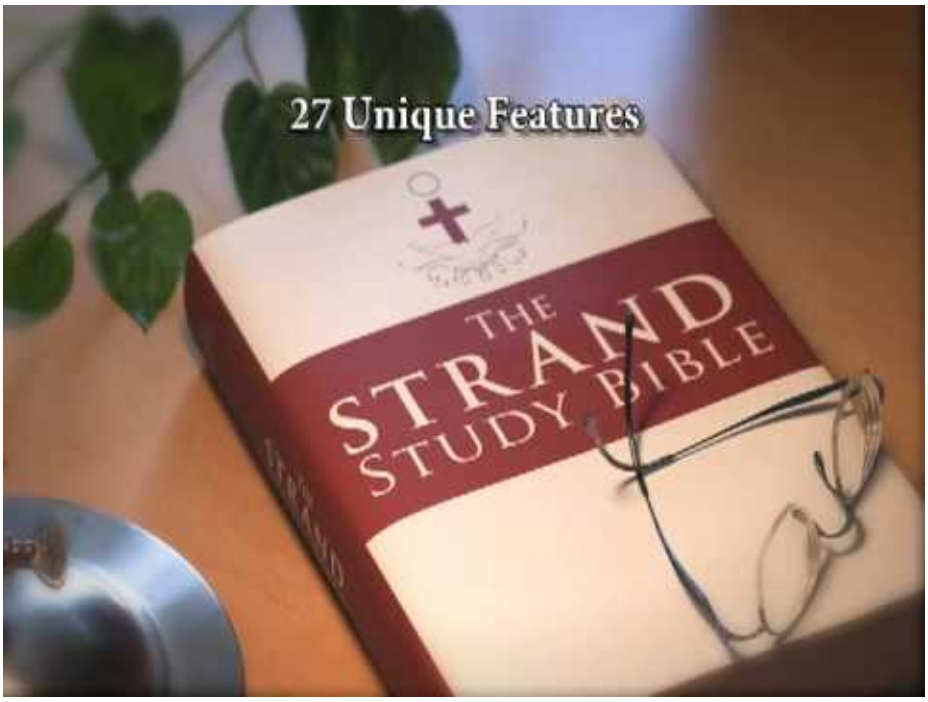
I realize that this blog is about Pastor Brad Strand's helpful 'The Strand Study Bible,' but in order to show you why I so much appreciate that he is doctrinally sound on repentance, I needed to show you what damnable heretics are preaching today.

I hope dear reader that you recognize the seriousness of this matter. Sadly, many churchgoers today are complacent, comfortable and indifferent toward these shocking embellishments of the Gospel, which have perverted God's grace. When a bad preacher adds surrendering one's life to Christ—requiring lost sinners to receive Christ as "

Lord

" to take control over one's life, and to turn away from your sinful ways—he has perverted (altered and changed) the Gospel of free grace.

Eternal life then is no longer a free gift, but an exchange of sorts.



This dangerous heresy has absolutely destroyed soulwinning churches today. [18]Bob Jones University has been infected . Pastor John MacArthur is [19]a primary carrier of this spiritual disease , and it is highly contagious. Have you been infected dear friend? If you have, then repent of your Lordship heresy and instead believe the 'GOOD NEWS' of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen to be saved. That is the only way!

I know that this has been a rather lengthy blog, and I have so much more that I could say, but you get the point I humbly think. I rejoice and praise God for doctrinally sound Bible teachers like Pastor Brad Strand. Repentance to be saved has NOTHING to do with you giving up your sins, nor even being willing to give up your sins; but rather, changing your mind from whatever it is that has been hindering you from doing the one thing that can save a sinner —BELIEVING THE GOSPEL (GOOD NEWS) that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God—who died in our place on the cross, was buried and bodily resurrected from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4; Romans 1:16).

4.11.33 New IFB Church Bullies (2023-11-27 17:04)

Philippians 1:15-18, " Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will: The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel. What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice."

Many in the New IFB (independent fundamental Baptist) movement preach Christ of contention. I am continually attacked by followers of the New IFB. They attack me because I disagree with Pastor Steven Anderson's views. I do not know of even one New IFB follower who doesn't idolize Pastor Anderson, unquestioningly adopting all of his doctrinal teachings.

Moreover, many followers of the New IFB don't hesitate to express their contempt and disdain for the Old IFB and anyone who dares to disagree with Pastor Anderson on anything. I am sick and tired of these New IFB bullies and I am going to expose them! They have picked up on Steven Anderson's aggressiveness and they don't have enough sense to know the difference between convictions and belligerency.

Please don't misunderstand. I applaud Brother Anderson's aggressive preaching, but that doesn't justify some of his wacky followers being aggressive toward those who disagree with his views. Even Pastor Anderson doesn't attack those who disagree with him. There are some "nuts" in the New IFB movement, as well as in the Old IFB. At least that's what the squirrel in my back yard keeps telling me—the world is full of nuts!

Kindly said, I am tired of some adherents of the New IFB cult biting people's heads off who disagree with them. I had to unfriend one man on Facebook, because he went off on a rant telling me how ignorant I am because I disagree with Pastor Steven Anderson's false teaching that Jesus burned in Hell for three days. I humbly think that is a false teaching. Kindly said, only a Bible ignoramus teaches that Jesus burned in Hell after dying on the cross, when Jesus plainly told the repentant thief next to Him that they would be in "Paradise" together that very same day (Luke 23:43. This matter ought not even be debated, because the Bible is 100 % plain.

I had to unfriend another guy today on Facebook, a New IFB follower, who wanted to argue and debate the Rapture with me, insisting that Pastor Anderson is correct and I am wrong. I kindly told him that I refuse to debate with the New IFB camp, to which he replied harshly by accusing me of not being a truth-seeker. No the truth is that after having debated with these belligerent religious people umpteen times, and having watched pastor Anderson's "After The Tribulation" movie several times, and having watching his 22-part Revelation series several times—I am more convinced than ever that a Pretribulation Rapture is correct.

Kindly said, I am done arguing with indoctrinated fools! The New IFB cannot be reasoned with, they have decided that Steven Anderson is right, period. That is to some degree, a cult! I don't think Pastor Anderson is leading a cult, to be clear, but I think many of his followers have a cultish mindset toward him as their leader. I have better things to do with my time than debate with idiots who don't search the Scripture. The guy that I unfriended today couldn't explain anything to me about why he believes in a Prewrath Rapture, he just kept referring me to Pastor Anderson's sermons. This is the main thing wrong with pseudo-Christianity in America today, stupid people sit in their church pews and unquestioningly believe whatever their pastor teaches them, without going to the inspired Holy Bible to verify it (Acts 17:10-11).

Likewise, I hear everybody in the New IFB saying that the timing of the Rapture is a "minor issue." Okay, I agree, but go tell that to many in the New IFB today who are consumed with condemning anyone who dares to disagree with Pastor Anderson! Of the hundreds of doctrines the New IFB preaches, only the timing of the Rapture compelled Pastor Anderson to mail out hard copies of his "After The Tribulation" DVD to 6,500 Independent Baptist Churches across America! Obviously, the timing of the Rapture is anything but a "minor doctrine" to the New IFB—they are consumed with it! I won't tolerate New IFB thugs coming into my ministry and trying to shove Pastor Anderson's heresies down my throat!

Pastor Anderson errantly teaches in this chart from chapter 2 (of Pastor Anderson's YouTube movie titled: "THE BOOK OF REVELATION") that the Rapture will happen 75 DAYS after the Abomination of Desolation (see [1]Comments 35 and 36 in this chart at the bottom right).

See for yourself in Part 10 of his series, at 31:00 minutes into the video, where he unbiblical states:

Revelation

> “[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]? [illegible],[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]’[illegible] [illegible] [illegible].” —[illegible] [illegible] [illegible], ’[2]Revelation - Part 10’ (Time: 31:00 minutes into video)

That is DATE SETTING! Pastor Anderson vehemently denies setting a date for the Rapture, on the basis that he claims no one know when Daniel’s 70th week of prophecy begins.
But then he says this blatant heresy...

> “[illegible], [illegible]’[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]—[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]’[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]’[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].” —[illegible] [illegible] [illegible], ’[3]Revelation - Part 10’ (Time: 35:25 minutes into video)

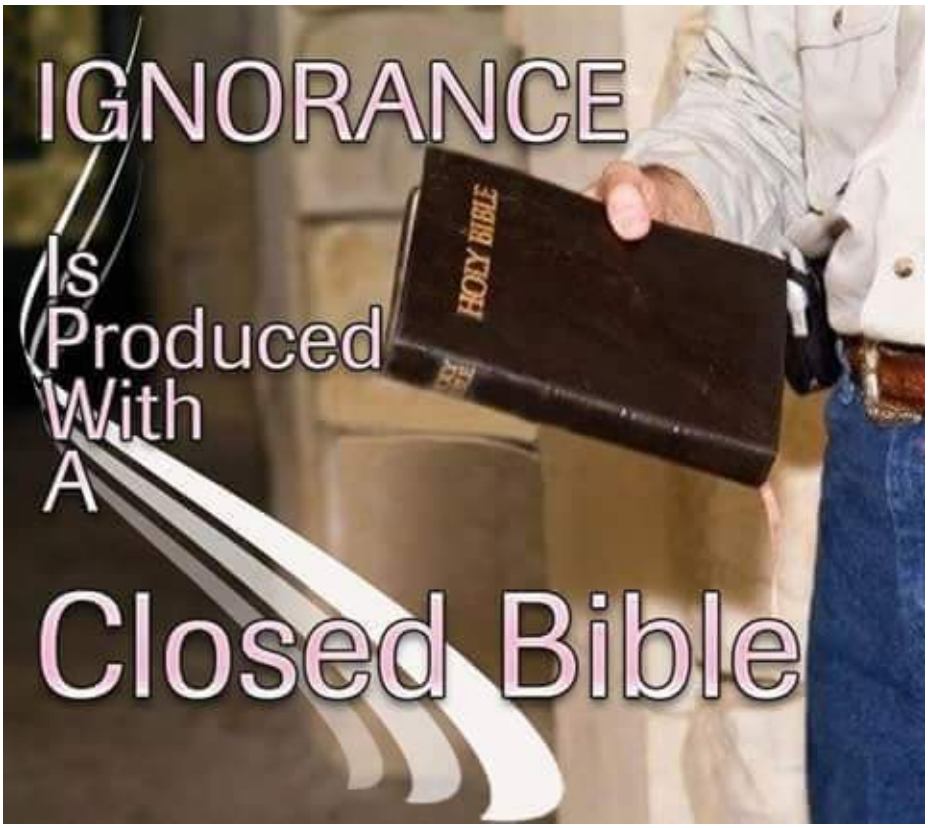
That is 100 % heresy on the Scripture! When Jesus said that no one knows the timing of His return, He meant NO ONE! Pastor Anderson foolishly teaches that those alive at the time of the Abomination of Desolation (the prophetic event when the Man of Sin claims to be God, the Messiah) world will know WHEN the Rapture is coming, in 75 DAYS! That is DATE SETTING; no matter how he may attempt to dismiss it, and it is a violation of the Scripture. The sad truth is that the New IFB are effectively parrots of Steven Anderson’s beliefs, and he is preaching some [4]STRANGE DOCTRINES!

I say that all kindly and respectfully, because I love Pastor Anderson and support his soulwinning ministry work. I am his friend and will stand with him in his battles, because as soldiers in God’s army we are fighting on the same team for Jesus Christ. But to be clear, I am first and foremost loyal to God, truth and principles; not to men or institutions. If some New IFB thugs want to shove their beliefs down other people’s throats, expect a fight!

Kindly, I didn’t start my Facebook page as a place for debate. It is my Facebook page and I am going to promote what I believe to be the truth, to help people. I have unfriended numerous New IFB followers, bullies, who choose to call me "ignorant" for disagreeing with Pastor Anderson’s heresies—that Jesus burned in Hell for three days, that you must pray to be saved, the lie that homosexuals are beyond the hope of the saving Gospel, the heresy that the earth is only 6,000 years old, and the nonsense of a prewrath Rapture. If you disagree with me, that is fine, but I won’t debate with you. I have better things to do than to debate with indoctrinated religious people. My ministry is to help people who are willing to learn the inspired Holy Bible, not entertain followers of Steven Anderson who want to convert me to their heresies.

One wacky guy in Canada went ballistic toward me on social media, emailing me dozens of times with hateful accusations, all because I do not agree with the New IFB heresy that you cannot be saved unless you call, ask or pray. I will go to seed in this matter of [5]having to pray a Sinner’s Prayer to get to Heaven. Jesus plainly said in John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.” Faith in the Gospel is enough to be saved. No, you don’t have to “ask” God to save you, which is essentially what praying or calling amounts to. Since God is already graciously offering you His free gift of eternal life, which Jesus paid for in full by His shed blood, why would you be required to ask for it?

Kindly, I won’t allow New IFB followers to indoctrinate my friends with things that I disagree with, which I believe are harmful and unbiblical. I started my website ministry back in 2002 to teach people—to win the lost, to feed Jesus’ sheep; but not to allow critics to debate, argue and confuse people with their slanted unbiblical views. I will earnestly contend for the faith.



I don’t have a problem with my ministry friends disagreeing with me, but I don’t allow people to share the other side, so to speak. Not on my watch! If that means I will only have two ministry friends left, then so be it, praise God. It is not personal, I do this with everyone. I consider all of my social media venues as my pulpit. Everybody has a right to run their own social media pages the way they want, and this is how I humbly choose to run mine, kindly said. I don't go into other people's social media pages and post why I disagree with them, because in a sense I am in their house. I respect the views of others, even though I may expose them on my own social media pages. But I would never go rain on their parade in their house.

I respect the New IFB's right to disagree with me; but like I said, some of them are immature and feel compelled to bully others who disagree. If you doubt what I say, look what the New IFB [6]have done to my ministry friend, Onorato Diamante on YouTube! They've ganged up on him over the Sinner's Prayer issue. The vast majority of New IFB followers will attack anybody whom Pastor Anderson criticizes. They are all his followers. That is a personality cult!

Few New IFB pastors will publicly disagree with Pastor Anderson on anything. They all clone him (which is good and bad). I didn't pick this fight, it came to my doorstep. One New IFB clown after another keeps berating me, calling me ignorant and foolish for not following what Steven Anderson teaches. They all want to argue by posting Pastor Anderson's sermons for me to watch. Doesn't anybody think for themselves anymore?

4.11.35 Most “Gospel Tracts” Don’t Even Contain The Gospel (2023-11-28 15:37)

Galatians 1:6-8, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.”

Something that has really bothered me for decades now, are the thousands of poorly written religious tracts that believers rely upon to share the Gospel with people. Sadly, 99 % of those tracts DO NOT contain the actual Gospel.

I was reading The Strand Study Bible which I bought recently. I love it! However, I am disappointed with some of the things that Pastor Strand says and promotes. For example: On page 1967 (the year I was born...lol), Strand shares some contents of a religious tract published by the EvanTell tract company titled, "What Are You Depending On?" Here it is, which you can read...

[1] What Are You Depending On?

As you can see for yourself, there is NO GOSPEL. Trusting in Jesus alone is not enough to be saved, unless you understand the facts that Christ died on a cross for YOUR sins, was buried and three days later He miraculously resurrected from the dead. This is "the gospel" as defined by 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. You must first have the FACTS, before you can put your FAITH in those facts to be saved. [2]Dr. Hyles explains this important Bible truth.

Pastor Max Younce [3] wrote a helpful article to refute Dr. Bob Wilkin’s heresy that you can be saved by trusting Jesus without the Gospel.

On their [4]"About" page at EvanTell ministries, they state:

> "EvanTell empowers Christians worldwide to share their faith through training, outreaches, tools, and RESOURCES THAT PRESENT THE GOSPEL IN A CLEAR, BIBLICALLY ACCURATE, and encouraging way."

Really?

How accurate is the tract in question? It does not contain Jesus’ death, burial or resurrection!!! So, in fact, it is not clear or biblically accurate. Our churches are in trouble folks! We’ve got a bunch of unlearned and ignorant pastors, missionaries, evangelists and Bible professors today, who are arrogant dummies!

> “There is power in this [5]Gospel message. Most people just don’t know how to present it... The clarity of the Gospel is what makes it easy for them to believe.” —Pastor Yankee Arnold, “[6]WHY GRACE CAN SAVE THE WORST MAN!”

Jesus' Work Of Redemption Was Not Finished On The Cross

On page 1967 Pastor Strand says: "On the cross He said, 'It is finished' (John 19:30). He did not make a downpayment for your sins; He made full payment." This is not true! Sadly, 90 % of preachers misinterpret the Bible when Jesus said, 'It is finished.' To accurately interpret the Scripture, we should always make a habit of including the verses before and after any particular text, lest we lift that □□□□ out of □□□□□□□ and create a new □□□□□□□.

> John 19:28-30, "
> After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished*, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst. Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost."

The Bible says when Jesus saw that all the Messianic prophesies concerning Him had been fulfilled, He said "I thirst" which was the last prophesy to be fulfilled (this one from Psalms 69:21). Upon making that last statement, only then did Jesus say, "It is finished." So you see, redemption couldn't have been finished, for Jesus hadn't even died yet, let alone being buried and resurrected three days later. This is "the gospel" after all according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4.

Jesus Made Full Payment At The Mercy Seat In Heaven, Not On The Cross

Also, full payment wasn't made upon the cross for our sins, it was made at the Mercy Seat in Heaven, when Jesus sprinkled His literal liquid blood upon the Mercy Seat in the Holy Place in the presence of God the Father (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24). Christ did this once to pay for the sins of all mankind (Hebrews 9:28). Christ made full-payment at the Mercy Seat in Heaven. That was the place (Hebrews 9:12). The price was Jesus' precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19).

I love and appreciate Brother Strand and his work. I must admit that I am surprised he missed this truth in his study Bible. Redemption was not finished on the cross, which is what infidel Dr. John MacArthur teaches—that we are saved by the pouring out of Jesus' blood on the cross, by His death, and not by Jesus sprinkling His actual liquid blood upon the heavenly Mercy Seat. Pastor MacArthur is very WRONG!!! Just as the Old Testament high priest was required by God to sprinkle the blood of the slain lamb upon the mercy seat (Exodus 29:16), so also did Jesus need to sprinkled His shed blood upon the heavenly Mercy Seat.

The Passover in Egypt was when the death angel passed upon the land of Egypt, killing all the firstborn (which was God's tenth and final plague upon the land through the rod of Moses). There was only one way of deliverance for the Hebrews, which was to take the blood of a slain lamb and paint it upon the door posts and lintel (the board above the door that kept bricks from falling on your head). Exodus 12:13, " And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt." The death angel was not looking for the dead lamb in the backyard. The death angel was looking for the blood applied! If Jesus' blood had soaked into the ground at Calvary as John MacArthur foolishly claims, then no one could ever be saved. Jesus' blood had to be applied to the Mercy Seat in Heaven, in the Holy of Holies in the Holy Place in the Tabernacle.

We know everything that happened during the Old Testament tabernacle, holy of holies and work of the high priest was a SHADOW of good things to come in Heaven. That is, they were a prototype of the real ones in Heaven (Hebrews 10:1). Jesus is our eternal High Priest (Hebrews 4:14-16; Romans 8:34). Jesus died as our sacrificial lamb, but He raised up as our heavenly High Priest. [7]If Christ Be Not Risen, Then We Have A Sacrifice But No High Priest Or Salvation (by Pastor Jack Hyles).

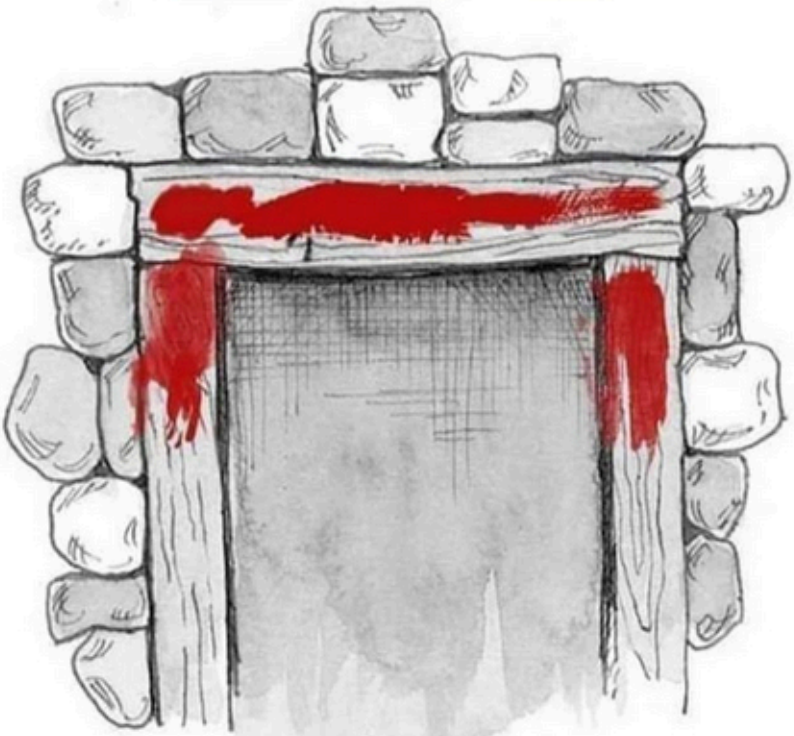
Dear reader, I challenge you to start paying closer attention to the religious tracts that you find, receive, distribute and read, to make sure that they are doctrinally sound. Tragically, nearly all Gospel tracts are completely missing of the Gospel. I read many tracts that don't mention Jesus resurrection from the dead. Other tracts don't mention that you must admit being a guilty sinner before you can be saved and go to Heaven. You need to know what you are being saved from, the wages of sin, which is death. That includes the second death in hell, fire and brimstone for all eternity, without hope or rest, tormented day and night (Revelation 21:8).



Romans 1:16 is very clear that the gospel, nothing else, is the POWER of God unto salvation, to them who BELIEVE IT. Romans 1:16,

"For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." The unfortunate popular embellishment of the Gospel nowadays to " turn from your sinful ways

is not only NOT a part of the Gospel, it is a perversion of God's grace. Nowhere in the inspired Holy Scriptures are we taught to give up our desire to sin, forsake the world, leave the old sinful life, or to commit to reform our behavior to be saved.

The LORD did not check

HE checked for the BLOOD on the doorposts.
None of us is worthy.
Only the blood of Jesus can cover us.

You won’t find the Gospel or any plan of salvation presented on any of the preceding so-called “ artists websites. That is the first major thing wrong with CCM today, it is devoid of the Gospel. Sadly, all of the preceding performers are a bunch of apostate, [9]sodomite-looking clowns , dishonoring to Jesus Christ whom they claim to worship. Dear reader, it is no coincidence that nearly all of the males in today’s CCM scene are effeminate looking. These CCM performers are mere corporate pimps for the music industry to make billions of dollars in filthy lucre. They are as worldly as can be.

Christian

[10]K-love began in 1982 and is heard today by 20,000,000 listeners on 520 FM radio stations across America. They only play CCM. K-love take in billions of dollars. To my amazement, [11]they actually get the Gospel correct! Now, I do have a problem with K-love calling Mary "the blessed virgin," because any Catholic would immediately identify with that term. You won’t find those words in the Holy Bible. Yes, Mary was a virgin when she gave birth to Jesus, but we ought not use the phrase "the blessed virgin" because it is Catholic in origin and will confuse some people. Mary was a dirty sinner, just like you and me. We are all sinners! Mary was not born without original sin (aka., Immaculate Conception). Mary had the same inherited sinful nature from Adam that we all do (Romans 5:12). Mary sinned and needed to trust Jesus just like anyone else who wants to go to Heaven. Mary did not remain a perpetual virgin, she had at least 6 more children (Matthew 13:55-57), Mary was not assumed into Heaven (aka., the Assumption of Mary). These are demonic false doctrines taught by the cult of Roman Catholicism.

Klove are extremely ecumenical and wishy-washy, far more interested in making money than winning souls to Christ. I had to dig deep into their website to find what they believe about the Gospel, which is tragic. That should be the very first thing that appears at the top of their main webpage, not buried layers deep in the background. It just shows where their hearts are at—in making money.

Not one of the seven CCM artists, that Billboard lists as the top Christian singers of 2023, bother to share the Gospel on their personal websites. It is abundantly clear where their allegiance rests—in making money, not winning souls to Jesus Christ. The lost world is going to Hell, while the CCM industry is preoccupied singing and making billions of dollars. I would rather listen to secular music than to listen to phony professed "Christians" who let the world go to Hell unwarned. CCM is phony! The singers are frauds! Many of them are hellbound unsaved Catholics. Some of them exploit religion to make money, having no genuine faith in Jesus Christ at all. Some of them are homosexuals and proud of it. God vomits out CCM!

Above Photo: CCM Magazine cover from July 2007 featuring the worldly Christian Rock group, 'Barlow Girl.' They should be renamed the 'Bratty girls.' God deliver our nation from the feminist rebellion sweeping our churches and infecting our homes. No wonder the divorce rate is so high! The members of the group 'Barlow Girl' appear worldly, arrogant and sassy (which the Bible condemns as sin in 1st Timothy 2:9).

CCM is straight from Hell—a complacent form of apostate Christianity that takes no stand against crimes in government, doesn't expose public wickedness, doesn't call sin by name, doesn't call false religions by name, doesn't preach the gospel, doesn't step on anyone's toes... I'M VOMITING!!! CCM appeals to the flesh and is often derived from worldly secular songs. Many CCM artists mention The Beatles and other ungodly music groups as being their musical influences. If you like The Beatles, fine, I do to, but I won't sing worldly music and claim that it is pleasing to the Lord. The music of the world is the music of the world.

Psalms 96:1, “O sing unto the LORD a new song: sing unto the LORD, all the earth.”

Ecclesiastes 7:5, “It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.”

[13]DANGER Will Robinson... DANGER!!! Apostate so-called “ministries” (what a joke) such as CCM magazine (which stands for Christ, Community, Church—differs from the most common meaning of the CCM acronym: Contemporary Christian Music). NOTE: When I refer to “CCM,” I always mean Contemporary Christian Music. From henceforth I’ll refer to “CCM magazine” as “CCM magazine.”

The Truth Is Not Very Popular Nowadays

The Lord has successfully exposed the evils of CCM music [14]through my ministry and others, but most people simply don’t care about the things of Jesus Christ as Philippian 2:21 states. Woe unto this wicked and adulterous generation!

CCM is of the Devil. What a bunch of [15]religious fakes and phonies ! All they sing about is “worship, worship, worship” while the world goes to Hell without hearing the biblical Gospel of salvation by faith alone in Christ WITHOUT WORKS (Romans 4:5-7, 10:3-4).

I actually heard an audio advertisement on CCM magazine’s website, to buy TobyMac’s “MAKE A DIFFERENCE TOUR” album to make a difference. What a sad testimony! Really? I have to buy their album to make a difference? The only difference is in their bank account. God hates the apostate CCM industry and so do I. Christianity does not elevate love over convictions. Christianity does not permit wicked compromise in the name of going along to get along under the pretense of love, love, love. Psalm 97:10 commands for God-fearing Christians to HATE EVIL. Instead of hating evil, Christian phony Kirk Cameron appeared on Pat Robertson’s [16]demonic 700 CLUB . Sadly, Pat Robertson split Hell wide open when he recently died in 2023 in his sins and falsehood of Lordship Salvation.

In CCM magazine they feature such musical apostates as TobyMac, Third Day and Michael W. Smith (who is a hellbound Roman Catholic). I clicked on: “A Righteous Revolution” featuring mega-apostate CCM singer, Natalie Grant. The site features music by apostate Rita Springer, singing the repeated lyrics: “All I need to do is worship.” You had better get born-again Rita!!! She repeats the same words over and over and over, like a broken record, which is a characteristic of modern pseudo (false) worship music used in many bad churches. It is referred to as "7/11 music" (7 words repeated 11 times).

“But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.” —Matthew 6:7

It’s no coincidence that the [17]VAIN REPETITIONS that Jesus warned about in Matthew 6:7 have subtly crept into our churches in the form of worship music. Whether it be prayer chants or repetitious singing, vain repetitions are vain repetitions. God rejects meaningless chants, repetitious words and the bogus worship & praise meetings.

It makes sense to the carnal nature to go along to get along, thinking that cooperation is the way to lead people to Jesus Christ. However, that is NOT God's way. The Bible teaches that the truth offends people, as it should. This is why Jesus said that He came to turn family members against each other (Matthew 10:35). That is, because it's better to be divided over truth than to be sinfully united by error. Matthew 10:34, "Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword." I have led people to Christ, whose families shunned them afterwards. This is especially true in Catholic families.

They killed Jesus for telling the truth. In John 18:37 Jesus told Pilate that He came into the world to bare witness to the truth. Jesus told the Samaritan woman in John 4:24 that God can only be worshipped in spirit and truth. The truth is important! Today's CCM scene is devoid of soulwinning and biblical separation from the heathen world. I thank God for the old hymns of the Christian faith. I'm not interested in today's shallow neo-evangelical Contemporary Christian Music (CCM). Any music that doesn't inspire our heart to share the Gospel with the lost is worthless.

Today's CCM catapults the listener's emotions into the stratosphere, but then like a firework's rocket that soars high and never explodes, there is a feeling afterwards of total emptiness and even sometimes depression.

CCM Is A Trojan Horse

On The Scribe's Portion website, they share this helpful information about the dangers of CCM…

> CCM Has Bad Theology
>
> This is what I have the most problem with; Christian songs that have bad theology, who paint an easy and wide path to Christ. And then there are the more problematic songs who mention New Age philosophy. These you have to be very careful with. Sometimes these songs have it very well hidden, it takes great discernment and knowledge of Scripture to detect. Music is an effective way to infiltrate the church with a false Gospel and doctrines of demons*.
>
> One huge problem I have is the fact that most CCM songs today don't even mention God by name. "He" and "you" can be anyone. They could be singing to Satan for all we know. Many songs go through a long chorus and verses and bridge without a single mention of God. Makes you wonder to whom they are singing.
>
> Also, be careful that you don't end up singing along with songs with ecumenical theology. Ecumenism has infiltrated every facet of Christianity I'm afraid, and music didn't escape. There are many Christian artists (search Phil Wickham, Matt Maher, One Thing conference, Jesus Adrian Romero, Alex Campos, Marcos Witt, to name a few) who have now sided with the Catholic Church and produce music to “bridge the gap” between Protestants and Catholics. [emphasis added]

Please don’t miss what Isaac just said:

“

Music is an effective way to infiltrate the church with a false Gospel and doctrines of demons **.

CCM is Pro-Catholic And Evil To The Core

The entire CCM industry is pro-Catholic. Many of the artists are devout Catholics. Yet, apostate churches invite these evildoers into their presence to encourage spiritual whoredom with the sinful world. They are religious drug dealers. The world is the whore and today’s abundance of CCM masqueraders bring the Godless world into the churches, turning them into a den of thieves. God calls them adulterers and adulteresses. James 4:4, “Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.” If you assist the sinful world then you are God’s enemy. CCM singers are God’s enemy. The entire CCM industry is worldly. They dress worldly, sing worldly, act worldly and are greedy for money like the world. All their music is for sale (just look at their websites).

CCM singer [19]Michael W. Smith is as pro-Catholic as you can get. Smith has numerous songs listed in the [20]TOP CATHOLIC SONGS website; including his hits, "I Give You My Heart," "Healing Rain" and "Let It Rain." This is solid evidence of the apostasy and ecumenicalism of today’s so-called Christian singers. They’re all a bunch of phonies!

Rock ’n’ Roll music is [21]a powerful influence upon the flesh, which is demonic in nature. Before there was ever so-called “Christian Rock,” there was Godless Rock. Those religious phonies today who attempt to justify devilish Rock music with Christian words are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. There is NO such thing as Christian Rock. There ain’t no such animal. All Rock music is of the Devil. All Hip Hop is of the Devil. All Funk, Rap and House music is of the Devil. Those who disagree are worldly, rub shoulders with the heathen world, never go soul-winning and make lots of money selling their noise (and that’s what a lot of it is... annoying noise!). TobyMac comes to mind, [22]who praises the Pope by the way.

“It was quite an honor. The Pope doesn’t come around that often. And for him to call a Hip Hop Funk band. I thought that was pretty cool... It was cool to see these priests rockin’ out.” —Toby McKeehan (TobyMac)

Anything that portrays the Catholic Church, priests and the Pope as of God is Satanic to the core! Those who despise me, attack me and try to destroy my ministry, are those who reject the Bible and fight against the Lord Jesus. Life is short and God will be vindicated on Judgment Day. Woe unto every Catholic! I know people who attend the Catholic Church, even though I have warned them repeatedly that the Devil controls the organization, but they still go there. I have even heard people tell me that they know the Catholic Church is evil, but they still go there. They are in trouble with God. In their heart, they don't believe anything I have told them from the Bible, because they love their tradition more than God's Word (Mark 7:9-13). They want religion, but they don't want God and truth (John 4:24; 2nd Timothy 3:5-7).

Concluding Remarks

I am not against contemporary music, as some misunderstand. I am against the organized CCM industry and all the artists who hide the Gospel. The main reason is because nearly all of them are unsaved themselves. Truly, the love of money is the root of all evil (1st Timothy 6:10). The CCM industry rakes in billions upon billions of dollars a year from America's apostate churches. The music is worldly. Granted, some of the music is uplifting and excellent as far as music itself is concerned. Of course, the Rap and Heavy Metal is terrible and hardly resemblant of any meaningful music.

I am against sensual Rock music, heavy metal, and [23]musical rhythms that promote rebellion and sexual immorality.

CCM embraces a broad spectrum of different types of music. Certainly, there is some acceptable music; however, the CCM artists who do sing the acceptable music are as fruitless as the others concerning soulwinning. The so-called CCM band '[24]Jars of Clay' actually open concerts for Ozzy Osbourne (the self proclaimed 'Prince of Darkness'). Sensual music is sinful which is commonplace in CCM

(Jude 1:19)

. The singers [25]look like punks on their album covers, [26]others appear as homosexuals , and some are. Is this pleasing to the Lord? No, of course not.

As churches become more worldly, so also is the world becoming more churchy. Heathen singer, [27]Katy Perry, had the name above every other name, "Jesus," tattooed on her wrist and back in the year 2000. Katy entered the music industry singing Gospel music, but today she is infamous for singing the lesbian-loving songs, '[28]I Kissed a Girl' and 'Ur So Gay.' Madonna and Katy Perry are personal friends. Perry also sings the blasphemous song, '[29]ROCK GOD.' Katy Perry is a whore who sings the song '[30]TEENAGE DREAM' from the album of the same title, which invites a male to stick his hands down into her skin-tight pants. Is this wholesome music for children and teenagers to listen to? This is America today. Woe unto our nation!

This is what kids are listening to in the privacy of their room, with a headset on their ears for hours each day. These are America's children's idols, whom they want to emulate. Katy Perry is immoral. She uploaded YouTube music videos of herself jumping around in her panties, acting goofy, which is as wicked as the Devil. Katy Perry (real name: Katheryn Hudson, born 1984) is a she-devil and no friend of God. The Word of God warns that all humanity has an appointment with death... "BUT AFTER THIS THE JUDGMENT" (Hebrews 9:27, King James Bible).

CCM as a whole is apostate. It's all about making money. The biblical Gospel is not preached. Instead, a wishy-washy message of ecumenical compromise and religious devotion are taught. Much of what is taught today is a Social Gospel of unity, brotherly love and tolerance toward all groups, even embracing homosexuals and abortionists. There is no call for repentance or preaching against sin. CCM tolerates all forms of wickedness under the guise of Christian unity. It is in actuality, sinful compromise. God commands believers to separate (2nd Corinthians 6:14-17), and to expose all forms of wickedness (Ephesians 5:11). Instead, CCM embraces such wickedness and dares not step on anyone's toes for God.

In sharp contrast, the Bible is the most offensive Book in the world. If God doesn't apologize for His Word, then why should we? They are traitors against God, who are greedy for money, and so they corrupt the Bible to make it less offensive to today's thin-skinned Americans. Most Americans are big cry-babies, none worse than America's religious leaders. They are anything but Christian. Shame on any pastor who invites a CCM band into the church. You are encouraging their evil works. God said He would vomit up lukewarm believers (Revelation 3:15-16). 100 % of them fail to win souls because they refuse to preach the biblical Gospel. The only message they promote is so vague that it is also embraced by Catholics, with few exceptions.

This is not to say that all contemporary sounding music is wrong, not at all, but the INDUSTRY is evil. Anything that involves the sale of albums, concerts and all the money-grabbing avenues of the greedy CCM industry is CORRUPT!!! Not one mainstream artist preachers the Gospel, and many of them (such as Katy Perry) move forward from singing Gospel music, to whoredom in the secular music world—stripping naked, embracing homosexuality, using foul language and blaspheming God. They have sold their soul to the Devil for fame and fortune (1st Kings 21:20). I say that all kindly. I love people, all people. My purpose in writing blogs like this is not to anger anyone, be mean or tear people down, God forbid; but rather, I write to expose the shallow, phony and unchristian CCM industry as a whole.

Since making money is their goal, CCM artists do not want to drive away Catholics. So everything they produce is intentionally obscure, general and applicable to Catholics and all faiths. Instead of warning Roman Catholics of the judgment to come in Hell, CCM artists would rather let everyone go to Hell forever in exchange for money. As much as they may try to deny this claim, the facts are self evident. I challenge you to find any mainstream CCM artist's website that offends Catholics. I challenge you to find any mainstream CCM artist's website that preaches salvation without works of self-righteousness. I challenge you to find any mainstream CCM artist's website that teaches their fans how to be saved. Good luck!

In view of the reality of Hell, where Christ-rejecting sinners will be tormented for all eternity, you'd think every CCM singer in the world would be warning people. But they don't care about anyone except themselves, making money and becoming famous. Oh sure, they'll give money to charity, because that makes them look good in the public's eye. Woe unto the apostate CCM crowd and their carnal followers.

The Gospel needs to be preached. Jesus never commissioned anyone to start a singing ministry. No one! The Bible speaks of singing melody in one's heart, not selling records and pimping across a stage in tight leather, with screeching guitars and flashing Satanic hand signs, receiving idolatrous praise from the audience. The fans never yell, "Yea Jesus!" No, instead they worship their favorite singer. Jesus hates all rock music, because it is all rooted in idolatrous praise of the performers and always has been.

4.12 December

4.12.1 Gene Simmons' Jewish Faith Won't Get Him Into Heaven (2023-12-01 20:05)

Jeremiah 17:9-11, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool ."

One of the most infamous Rock music bands is KISS, formed in 1973 in New York city. Unbelievably, the band is still performing live concerts in December of 2023, but have announced that this is their final tour. The average Baptist church doesn't last 50 years! That is so sad. Gene Simmons (age 74) and Paul Stanley (age 71) are the only two original remaining band members. As a hobby, I like to follow the lives and religious beliefs of famous people. Gene Simmons has lived a very wicked life of chasing women and blasphemy against God (Hebrews 13:4). Gene's real Jewish name is Chaim Witz (born August 25, 1949). He changed his own name early in his music career because he didn't feel comfortable with his unamerican sounded Jewish name.

Gene Simmons of KISS

I did some research online to glean some quotes from Simmons about his religious beliefs:

> "I think Christians are wrong. They're wrong because you're not judged by your actions, you're judged by your beliefs, which is to say that if you're Hitler and right before you die, you say, 'Jesus, I'm sorry,' you get a better chance of going to heaven than the millions of people you killed." —Gene Simmons of the band KISS; Esquire, "[2]Gene Simmons: What I've Learned"

Kindly said, Gene Simmons is ignorant of the Scripture. Telling Jesus that you are sorry is NOT the way to get to Heaven. Judas was sorry for betraying Jesus (Matthew 27:3). Judas even returned the 30 pieces of silver. But Judas still went to Hell to burn forever. The reason why is because He never put his trust in Jesus Christ as His personal Savior. Being sorry doesn't produce the new birth, placing your faith in the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day does (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

As far as we know, Adolf Hitler never received Jesus Christ and went to Hell when he purportedly commit suicide in 1945. But if Hitler had come to God by faith as a guilty sinner, trusting Christ alone and what He did through Calvary's cross to pay his massive debt of sin, God would have saved Adolf Hitler. Gene Simmons says he has a problem with that, because the evildoer gets away with his crimes. But dear reader, everyone is a dirty guilty sinner!

In fact, in God's holy sight you are just as guilty as Adolf Hitler. James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law." Gene Simmons has publicly boasted of [3]having sexual relations with several thousands of women throughout his [4]50 years of being a Rock star idol. In God's sight that is just as heinous and wicked as Adolf Hitler murdering millions of people. You just read the Holy Bible for yourself! The same God who forbids committing murder, also forbids committing fornication and adultery (Hebrews 13:4; 1st Corinthians 6:9-10; Colossians 3:5-6; Matthew 5:28). I am not condemning Gene Simmons, for I am just as much a guilty sinner as he is, and so are you dear friend.

Gene Simmons is making the same fatal error as the Pharisees who went up to the temple to pray. He looked down his long Pharisaical nose upon the publican sinner next to him, and esteemed himself as being self-righteous in comparison. ...

> Luke 18:9-14, "
>
> And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:
>
> Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.
>
> The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.
>
> I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.
>
> And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.
>
> I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

Gene Simmons esteems himself as a good man in comparison to Adolf Hitler, but in God's sight he is just as wicked and guilty. Don't judge someone because they sin differently than you do! Like it or not, when a sinner comes to God by faith in His only begotten Son, Jesus, all of that person's sins are forever washed away (1st Corinthians 6:11; Revelation 1:5). The eternal slate is wiped clean. This is God's imputed righteousness (Romans 4:4-7; Romans 10:3-4; Philippians 3:9).

Being Jewish Cannot Produce The New Birth Required To Get To Heaven

John 3:3, “

Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

” Being born-again is NOT optional if you want to spend eternity with Jesus and have eternal life. It is mandatory!

Read what Gene Simmons said:

> “I’m Jewish, and Jews believe that in order to get to heaven, one must do the right thing. It’s not what you believe, it’s what you do. In other words, love thy neighbour as thyself.” —Gene Simmons of the band KISS; LouderSound, “[5]The Gospel According To Gene Simmons”

What saith the Scripture? ...

> Mark 7:7-13, “ Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do. And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition. For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death: But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free. And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother; Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye. ”
>
> Romans 3:19-20, “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.”
>
> Galatians 5:4, ”Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.”

The inspired Word of God says that you can only be saved be trusting upon what Jesus Christ has already DONE to pay for your sins through Calvary’s cross. You cannot be saved by DOING anything! When some people asked Jesus what “works” to do to get saved, He told them to BELIEVE ON HIM! John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” ’Tis DONE not DO, the great transaction is DONE! [6]It is DO TRUSTERS who get to Heaven, and not DO GOODERS!!!

I don’t care if you are 100 % biologically Jewish (which no one is), that won’t get you to Heaven friend. YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN!!!

Gene Simmons Is Effectively An Atheist Jew

Read what Simmons said after being asked the following question...

“What’s your belief system in what happens when you die?

> I’m okay if there’s a heaven and a God. I’m okay with it. I’m also okay if there’s nothing. What do you lean towards? I lean towards nothing. My question is: if we get an afterlife, do mosquitoes? Maybe my mother’s sort of wise statement about every day above ground is a good day, and that’s it.” —Gene Simmons of the band KISS; LouderSound, “[7]Gene Simmons Interview”

Simmons said he leans toward NOTHING! He thinks when we die, that’s it, there’s NOTHING! That is atheism! I’d expect to hear such blasphemy coming from the mouth of a wicked man who has spent his life as a whoremonger, railer and blasphemer of God (2nd Timothy 3:1-7). In concert, Simmons (painted up as the self-proclaimed “demon”) spits broken packets of fake blood from his mouth all over the stage, sticking out and wagging his infamous extra long tongue at God as he gazes upward toward Heaven. Woe be unto that ungodly man for rejecting Jesus Christ as his Savior (John 3:36; Psalms 7:11; Isaiah 13:11).

The inspired Holy Bible teaches that both Christians and unbelievers will be judged according to our works. The difference is whether you will be judged by your works as a redeemed child of God (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11), or as a condemned child of the Devil (Revelation 20:11-15). As believers we will be rewarded according to our works (1st Corinthians 3:8-15; Revelation 14:13); but unbelievers will be punished according to their works (2nd Corinthians 11:15; Revelation 20:12-13).

I heard Paul Stanley of KISS say that they’ve been preaching Rock n’ Roll for 50 years! He said it himself. What an indictment against himself! Paul Stanley said it exactly right. I heard lead guitarist Dave Mustaine of the band MEGADETH call his latest album “an offering.” Yes, it is an offering to Satan, and the audience are the sacrifice to be laid upon the Satanic altar. Rock stars so often PREACH a wicked message of immoral sex, rebellion, substance abuse, lust, committing crime, false religion and worldliness!

My heart goes out to anyone who has been so deceived by the Devil, that they think being Jewish and doing good works will get them to Heaven. Moreover, Simmons has publicly said that he leans toward thinking there’s nothing after we die. For his own sake, I sure hope he is right. Good luck Gene! But I am not going to take such an eternal risk. I put my trust in the precious name of Jesus when I was 13 years old in 1980. I knew I was a guilty sinner, and by faith I received Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for my sins, believing that He was buried, but then ressurected from the dead three days later for my justification. That is the Gospel according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). BELIEVE IT, Oh sinner, and you will be saved too (Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 1:21).

Please understand that I never write blogs to be mean, unkind or tear down people, God forbid. I love everyone, God knows my heart. As a Bible-believing Christian and a fundamentalist Baptist preacher, my heart’s intent is only to help people by preaching THE TRUTH. I don’t want you to end up suffering in the abyss of Hell forever, as will Gene Simmons (Chaim Witz) if he doesn’t repent of his unbelief and instead believe the Gospel.

May I say, I like Gene Simmons as a person. I look beyond his sins and I see a human being. Gene’s mother was a good woman from all that I have read and heard about her. She was 14 years old in a German camp during the holocaust, where her family were murdered. When Gene and his mother immigrated to America from Israel, neither could speak a word of English.

Gene had to learn to speak English. His father abandoned them when Gene was only age 6. Life is not fair. Gene's mother had to work to pay all the bills.

A year later Gene worked two paper delivery routes to help pay the bills. Out of necessity he developed a strong work ethic at a very young age, which has been his driving force throughout his musical and business career. Gene Simmons is as much a business man as he is a rock star. I heard Gene say once that being a rock star is 10 % performance and 90 % public image. So true! When Gene became a millionaire, he bought his father a house and sent him money every month to take care of him, which is a good son; yet, he never had a relationship with his father after being abandoned by him as a boy. I admire Gene for taking care of his father, honoring him as the Bible commands. I think Gene is a good guy, despite his sinful life and having served the Devil for 50 years in the rock music industry. Sadly, his time is running out before he faces His Creator (Hebrews 9:27). My hope is that God will convict Gene's heart that he [8]might be saved while he still can.

Mark 1:14-15, "Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel." That is, think differently from trusting in your own DEAD WORKS (Hebrews 6:1) and instead BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31). There is no other way to get to Heaven, than through faith alone in the precious name of Jesus (Acts 4:10-12). Thank you for reading.

4.12.2 How Much More Scriptural Evidence Do You Need To Conclude A Pretribulation Rapture? (2023-12-02 06:58)

Mark 13:34-37, "For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch. Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning: Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping. And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch."

The blessed Savior told us all to WATCH! We are commanded to watch for His return. This 100 % disproves the false theory of a prewrath Rapture (i.e., the false teaching that the Rapture will happen after the prophetic event of the Abomination of Desolation, but before God pours out His wrath upon the earth in the Great Tribulation). I humbly believe the Bible teaches that the Rapture will happen before the Tribulation period begins. If not, we would know the time of Christ's return, which Mark 13:32-37 says no man knows. The biblical fact that we are exhorted to look for the appearing of Jesus Christ proves a pretribulation Rapture.

The Rapture must occur before the Antichrist is revealed, otherwise why would the Bible tell us in Titus 2:13 to look for the appearing of Jesus Christ? Again, the biblical fact that we are exhorted to look for the appearing of that blessed hope, the appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ, proves a pretribulation Rapture. We are not supposed to be looking for the appearing of the Antichrist (but Pastor Steven Anderson and the New IFB foolishly preach that we are).

Respectfully, Pastor Steven Anderson errantly[1] teaches in this chart from chapter 2 (of Pastor Anderson's YouTube movie titled: 'THE BOOK OF REVELATION') that the Rapture will happen 75 DAYS after the Abomination of Desolation (see [2]Comments 35 and 36 in this chart at the bottom right).

See for yourself in Part 10 of his Revelation series, at 31:00 minutes into the video, where he unbiblical states:

> "[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]? [illegible],[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]'[illegible] [illegible] [illegible]." — [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], '[3]Revelation - Part 10' (Time: 31:00 minutes into video)

That is DATE SETTING! Pastor Anderson vehemently denies setting a date for the Rapture, on the basis that he claims no one know when Daniel's 70th week of prophecy begins.
But then he says this blatant heresy...

> "[illegible], [illegible]'[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]—[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [

□□□□, □□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□ □□□ □□□ □□□ □□□□□□□ □□□□□ □□□□□□;
Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee."

Kindly said, if the New IFB are correct about their prewrath rapture theory, then we should be looking for the Man of Sin, not for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and Saviour Jesus Christ. You can follow the New IFB if you want, but I am going side with the inspired Word of God. I'm looking for the appearing of Jesus Christ, not Antichrist!

4.12.3 Keep Thy Heart With All Diligence (2023-12-03 14:03)

Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life."

This has been my favorite Bible verse for many years now. Volumes of books could be written about this single Scripture passage, of what it means and the implications. The Holy Bible has much to say about the wicked human heart. ...

> Jeremiah 17:9-11, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool.

Never trust the man who trusts himself! Jesus said concerning the heart...

Matthew 15:16-20, “And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding? Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught? But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies: These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.”

Matthew 12:34, “

O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.”

As you can see dear friend, the heart is a very important matter. Proverbs 4:23, “Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.” When the Bible speaks of the human “heart,” God is not referring to the beating muscle protected under your ribcage; but rather, to the subconscious part of our mind in our physical brain.

Man Was Created In God’s Threefold Image

We are created in the threefold image of God our Creator. The Godhead is comprised of God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19; Colossians 2:2; 1st John 5:7 - note: all Scripture citations are only from the inspired King James Bible).

Likewise, man is threefold, being comprised of spirit, soul and body. 1st Thessalonians 5:23, “And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.” Notice that the Bible mentions the spirit first, and then the soul and body. A human being is not a body with a spirit; but rather, a spirit living inside a body. The lead singer “Sting” of the band, “The Police,” has it right in their popular 1981 blockbuster song titled, “[1]Spirits In The Material World.” The main lyrics read, “We are spirits in the material world.”

Sting has it right, we are all human spirits. What saith the Scripture? 2nd Corinthians 5:1, “

For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

” I love this Bible passage. The “earthly house of this tabernacle” refers to our physical human body. The Bible teaches that when our human body is no longer functional and able to provide housing for our soul and spirit, we have an eternal house in Heaven, not made with hands.

I admit that I cannot fully explain what this verse means. We will not receive our immortal body until the Rapture (1st Corinthians 15:51-58). So what happens now when we die? Will we as saints have some type of a temporary surrogate body in Heaven? I simply do not know. As we just read in 2nd Corinthians 5:1, when we die and go to Heaven, we have an “ eternal

” house not made with hands. A house that we live in on earth is made of wood, concreate, glass, et cetera. But this verse is about our fleshly human body, our temporary earthly “ tabernacle

2nd Corinthians 5:8, “We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.” This verse disproves the heresy of Soul Sleep (the false teaching of such cults as Jehovah’s Witnesses and Seventh-Day Adventists, that says when we die our body sleeps in the grave until a future resurrection). As we just read from the Bible, to be absent from the human body is “to be present with the Lord.

I do not know if the saints in Heaven have physical bodies. But consider that Abraham did have a physical body in Luke 16:19-31. Jesus ascended into Heaven with His physical immortal glorified body (Acts 1:11).

Jesus resurrected as the firstfruits of them that slept. That is, of them that died (1st Corinthians 15:20). By “firstfruits” the Bible simply means that Jesus was the first person to resurrect in His glorified, immortal, perfect, eternal body. Many saints were resurrected before Jesus (e.g., Lazarus, saints raised up when Jesus died on the cross, et cetera), but they weren’t raised up in their immortal body; but rather, their earthly mortal flesh. That is why they all eventually died again. Jesus raised up Lazarus from the dead, but Lazarus died eventually. Jesus was the first, and so far the only one, who has been raised up in His immortal body (Philippians 3:21).

Mankind is also created in God’s threefold image in that we have a mind to think, a heart to feel and a will to decide. Ecclesiastes 12:7,

“ Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.”

Keep Thy Heart With All Diligence

I listen to Bible preaching in fair weather. I do that intentionally because I know when the storms of life come I won’t feel like listening to sermons. When the carpet of life is pulled out from under our feet, and grief fills our soul, our minds become broken for a time. Any wise person knows that you should prepare before the hurricane comes, not wait until the last minutes when the storm winds are blowing, the rain is gushing down, and it is dangerous to go outside because of flying debris. The time to prepare is long before the storm arrives.

Likewise, most Christian believers wait until the storms of life come, and then they are ill prepared to cope with the storm. I study the Bible and listen to Bible preaching during fair weather, laying up spiritual supplies for when the storm comes. I believe that is part of what the Bible means in Proverbs 4:23, “Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." We maintain our automobiles. We maintain our physical health. We maintain our fireplaces, barbecues, air-conditioning units, septic tanks and finances; but yet we fail to maintain our heart.

A Christian friend recently came up to me at church. She reminded me of something that someone did last year to hurt me. I kindly told her that I didn't want to think about that, because if I choose to focus on it I will become bitter, and I don't want to be a bitter Christian. I forgave the person who hurt me. It is over. God will deal with that person if it needs to be dealt with (Romans 12:19). But I am not going to hold grudges, thinking about the things people have done to hurt me in the past, sulking in bitterness all the time. That is a miserable way to live! I choose to live above the clouds, where the Son is always shining. So many people live below the clouds where it rains, and is gloomy and stormy.

What we choose to think about throughout the day determines our mood, attitude and soul's condition. That is why the Apostle Paul exhorts every believer to do this...

> Philippians 4:8-9, "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you."

This is not brainwashing, it is keeping thy heart with all diligence. What we think about shapes our attitude, habits and overall mindset. If you are a miserable person, it is only because you have developed a habit of focusing on the wrong things, which has consequently led to thinking negative, bad and depressing thoughts all the time. If this is you, then you probably feel like you are beyond hope, worthless and a loser.

So, what do you do? The way out of depression is a slow process, but you start by picking something in your life to praise God for. It could be anything! Just find something good in your life, for which you are thankful to God, and praise Him for it. Then pick something else that you are thankful for. In time, if you keep doing this throughout each day, you will cultivate a good habit of praising God for the good instead of complaining all the time about the bad.

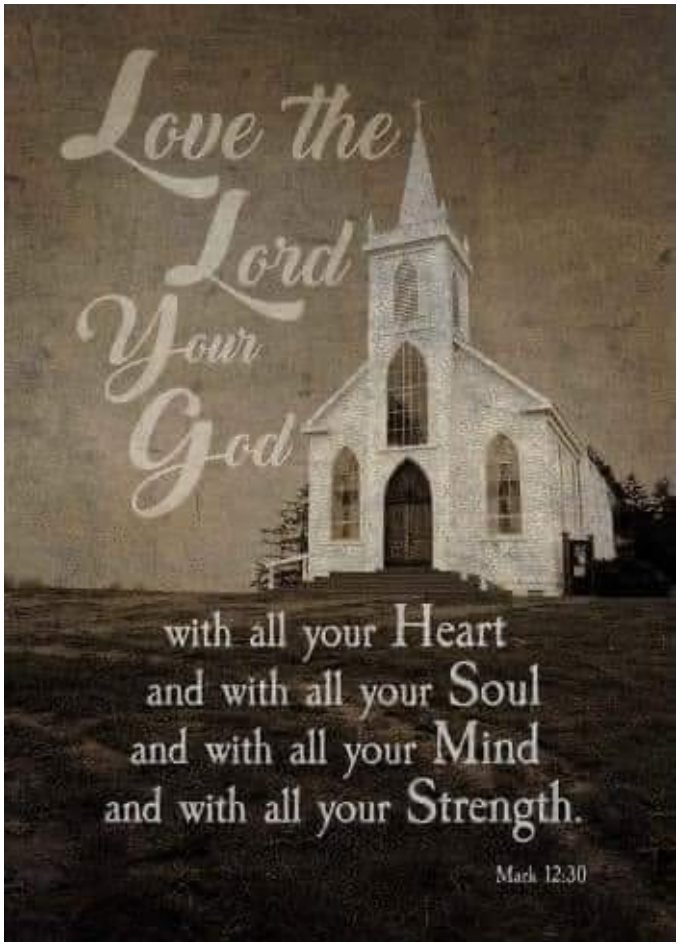
Numbers 11:1, " And when the people complained, it displeased the LORD: and the LORD heard it; and his anger was kindled; and the fire of the LORD burnt among them, and consumed them that were in the uttermost parts of the camp." God doesn't like complainers! The Hebrews whom God through Moses led out of Egypt, wandering in the Wilderness for 40 years. They complained continually and it displeased and angered the Lord. After complaining for the tenth time, the Lord decided that no one 21 years of age or older would enter into the

Promised

Land. Their complaining doomed them!



I have known umpteen Christians who became their own worst enemy. Instead of praising God for the blessings in their life, they chose to focus upon the problems in their life. They chose to focus on their bills piling up, health issues and marital problems. By doing so they created an inescapable pit of misery for themselves. That is not a life of faith in God. It is in our carnal sinful nature to be miserable, to think negative and complain. But that is not the way God desires for us to live each day.

I decided a long time ago that I am going to thank and praise God continually for the blessings in my life. I'm not going to complain about the constant neck pain, emotional suffering and major losses in my life. There's not a bite of food that goes into my mouth that I don't thank God for. I also thank God for my remaining health, being able to enjoy the food that I eat. Nothing irritates me more than to see a spoiled rich person stuff delicious food into their mouth, while denying that God exists. What wickedness!!! You don't deserve God's goodness, and neither do I. Psalms 145:9, " The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works."

Have you been diligently keeping your heart dear reader? Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." Do you spend time in God's Word? Do you listen to Bible preaching? Do you walk with God? One of the great joys in my life is continually knowing that my name is written in Heaven. Luke 10:20 , " Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven. " No matter how bad and difficult life gets, you can always rejoice that when all is said and done, you are going to Heaven as a child of God. That is why it is absolutely imperative that you KNOW beyond any shadow of a doubt that you are saved.

I know 100 % that I am saved and going to Heaven. If you don't have that sweet assurance dear friend, then you will never be able to fall back on that peace and joy when the storms of life come. If you have any doubts and concerns dear reader, I ask you to read Michael P. Bowen's wonderful book in defense of a free grace Gospel, ' [2]I NEVER KNEW YOU .' This book will settle your doubts, I am confident. It is 100 % biblical in its message.

4.12.4 Will Saints Have A Physical Body In Heaven? (2023-12-04 16:13)

2nd Corinthians 5:1-4, " For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven: If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked."

Someone recently asked me if the saints have a physical body in Heaven. That is a very good question. We read in Luke 16:19-31 that Abraham had a physical body in the afterlife in Paradise. Interestingly, so also did the former rich man (now utterly poor) in Hell, in the place of Torment. He begged Abraham for a single drop of water to cool his tongue, tormented in the unbearable intense flames. This is a literal true story in Luke 16:19-31, not a parable! Jesus used proper names of actual people (Abraham and Lazarus), which He never did when telling parables. If this were a parable, then Jesus would be guilty of misleading people about what happens in the afterlife.

Let's examine the Scriptures to see what we can find. We see in Genesis that two angels met with Brother Lot and enjoyed eating a feast together:

> Genesis 19:1-3, "And there came two angels to Sodom at even; and Lot sat in the gate of Sodom: and Lot seeing them rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground; And he said, Behold now, my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said, Nay; but we will abide in the street all night. And he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house; and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread, and they did eat."

I love that! Lot saw the angels. Lot invited them into his house. Lot baked some delicious bread they ate a feast together. I look forward one day in Heaven to eating a feast with the angels. I love angels! Angels have physical bodies, capable of enjoying a fine meal. So if the angels have bodies, I humbly think the saints in Heaven will likely also have bodies (but I cannot say for certain). What if we won't have bodies in Heaven? That would be odd, since God the Father and Jesus have bodies, and the angels have bodies.

1st Corinthians 15:6, "After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

The Apostle Paul penned the Epistle of 1st Corinthians at about 53-54 AD (roughly 20 years after Jesus resurrected from the dead). Paul says that some of the 500 saints who saw Jesus had died, but "the greater part" were still alive and kicking. What a tremendous priviledge and blessing to have actually seen Jesus in His glorified, immortal, resurrected body.

Also, we see in 1st Corinthians 15:6 that Jesus raised up in a physical body and was seen by over 500 saints at one time; and we learn in Acts 1:11 that Jesus ascended into the sky in a physical body (seen by His disciples as He departed). So, Jesus has a physical body in Heaven today. He sits on a physical throne on the right-hand of God the Father, who also has a physical body (Colossians 3:1). The angels in Acts 1:11 told the disciples that Jesus will return in the same physical and visible manner that He left (Revelation 1:7).

Also, please read Revelation 22:8-9, "And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things. Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God." John thought he was talking with an angel, but the angel corrected him, letting John know that he was "of thy brethren the prophets." I humbly think this was one of the saints, not an angel.

It is also clear from this passage that angels and humans look the same. The Bible says that some saints have met angels "unawares." Hebrews 13:2, "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares." That is what just happened with the Apostle John's interaction with a fellow saint, John mistaking him for an angel. Obviously, this fellow saint had a physical body. If you met an angel, you wouldn't know it just by looking. Angels look the same as humans.

In Matthew 17:3, Moses and Elijah appeared to Peter, James and John. Moses and Elijah had physical bodies. Matthew 17:1-3, " And after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart, And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light. And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him."

So, we have learned that Jesus has a physical body in Heaven. The Father has a physical body in Heaven. The angels have physical bodies in Heaven. The fellow brother that John met in Revelation 22:8-9 had a physical body. Moses and Elijah appeared to Jesus, Peter, James and John on a high mountain in physical bodies. Considering all that evidence, I think there is a good chance that we will all have a physical body in Heaven.

I cannot explain how this relates to our future resurrected immortal body received at the time of the Rapture, which will be fashioned like unto the Lord's resurrected body (1st Corinthians 15:51-58; Philippians 3:21). We know biblically that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. 2nd Corinthians 5:8, "We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord." That is a beautiful truth!

2nd Corinthians 5:1 teaches that when our earthly tabernacle (body) is dissolved (dead), we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens. 2nd Corinthians 5:1, "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens." I am not sure if this verse is referring to a heavenly body, or an actual house house. Jesus promised in John 14:1-3 to go prepare "a place" for us in Heaven, where there are many mansions. We won't all have mansions. Only those saints who are soulwinners will shine as the brightness of the stars forever (Daniel 12:3). I think this means that all the people we led to Jesus Christ will love and adore us for eternity, without which they would have been burning in the fires of Hell without hope or rest, tormented day and night forever!

I hope that helps a bit to answer our $64,000 question. I am not saying dogmatically that we will receive some form of body in Heaven before the Rapture, but I think there's a good chance we will based upon the Scriptural evidence which I have shared with you in this blog. Thank you for reading.

4.12.5 You Got It Wrong (2023-12-04 16:31)

Acts 28:4, "And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live."

After Paul's shipwreck, where he and his fellow prisoners were saved on the island of Melita, he stood by the fire warming himself from the frigid waters. As he stood by the fire, a venomous beast came out of the fire and bit him. The barbarian people made a classic bad judgment that many make: they judged him based on the snake biting him instead of knowing the whole story.

Many times we make judgments about people and situations they are in without knowing the whole story, only to find out that our judgment was wrong. Sadly, more believers act like barbarians in the judgment of people than they do in acting like God. I find four ways people commonly make bad judgments that can destroy friendships and cause people to make bad decisions.

First, making decisions or opinions about people based on perception will always cause you to be wrong. Perception is only one small microcosm of a situation. Many have judged a situation or a person and not known the whole story only to realize they got it wrong. What is even worse is when people dig in on their decision after knowing they are wrong because they don't want to admit that they are wrong. The worst thing you can do is to let your pride get in the way of saying you are wrong after you make a bad decision based on perception. You must always determine that you will not let perception be the basis of your decisions or judgments of others if you don't want to be wrong and have to clean up the mess your perception made.

Second, making decisions or opinions about people based on feelings is more often wrong than right. Just because you feel someone is wrong does not make them wrong. Just because you feel something is right does not make something right. We are not to make decisions based on what we feel is right but on what God's Word and His principles say are right and wrong. Feelings are based on our emotions and perception and not on facts. NEVER let feelings be the basis by which you make decisions and opinions about others.

Third, making decisions or opinions about people based on hearsay almost always leads to bad decisions. Hearsay is not fact. Just because someone says they heard something is true does not make it true. Many people have been slandered because of people making decisions about them based on hearsay. Would you want people to make a decision about you based on hearsay? Many good people have had to deal with the evil of hearsay, which is nothing more than gossip. To destroy another person based on hearsay makes you no better than Satan's mouthpiece that mentioned the hearsay. Never venture into hearsay. Shut it down immediately, and people will learn not to go to you with their gossip.

Fourth, making decisions or opinions about people based on one side of the story always leads to wrong decisions. Whether it be a decision or a judgment about a person, never make a decision until you hear both sides of the story. Be a person who never makes a judgment until you hear both sides of every situation.

4.12.6 Shame On The Sword Of The Lord For Promoting Pensacola Christian College's Damnable Heresy (2023-12-06 20:45)

2nd John 1:10-11, " If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

I have supported the Sword Of The Lord for the past 21 years of my website ministry since 2002, because they have always preached a simple free grace Gospel and promoted only the inspired King James Bible. Unfortunately, the Sword Of The Lord is not being diligent to do their homework, to find out the false doctrine being taught by some of the institutions which they promote; namely, Pensacola Christian College (PCC). [1] PCC is teaching damnable heresy!!!

Here are some screenshots from the October 2023 edition of the Sword Of The Lord, showing that they wickedly bid Godspeed to the PCC cult...

Sword Of The Lord Shamefully [4]Promotes PCC

The Bible presents a very simple, easy and free plan of salvation, which is to simply come to God as a guilty sinner and believe the GOOD NEWS that Jesus Christ died on a cross to pay for your sins, was buried and three days later He physically resurrected from the dead. This is the gospel according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Jesus Himself taught that the only work of God that a sinner can do to be saved is to BELIEVE ON HIM. ...

> John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

In the last chapter of his helpful book titled, Salvation Crystal Clear, former Sword Of The Lord editor, Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) [5]exposes the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. The new editor, Shelton Smith, has a decision to make. I hope he will stop promoting PCC with their damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation. If not, then Dr. Smith will have the blood of many people on his hands for helping to corrupt the Gospel. PCC pays the Sword Of The Lord to promote their college in the monthly Sword paper. Will Dr. Smith succumb to the love of money (1st Timothy 6:10), or will he do the right thing and stop promoting PCC in their paper? Time will tell.

I live in the city of Pensacola. In my mailbox in November of 2023, I found a stamped envelope from Campus Church with my address and the words: "To Our Neighbor" on it. I opened the envelope and inside I found a booklet of John & Romans. The booklet has 64 pages in it. The Campus Church logo is printed on the front cover. I was shocked on page 60 when I read PCC's counterfeit plan of salvation. What I am about to show you is straight from Satan dear reader:

> "REPENTANCE — Now is the time to turn from your sin and embrace God. The act of turning away from sin is called 'repentance.' This word implies an inward > decision to follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins. It means changing your mind about sin and seeing it as something that grieves God. The Bible says that God patiently waits for all people to make this decision." [emphasis added]

Do you still think I bumped my head? I've been [7]exposing the cult at Bob Jones University (BJU) since 2014, and now I have been exposing the cult at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) since 2021. By God's grace, I will continue to expose these wicked organizations until they repent of their wrong repentance and get saved. [8]Dr. Curtis Hutson has it right!

I thank God for the New IFB (New Independent Fundamental Baptist) movement in the United States. People can criticize Pastor Steven Anderson all they want, at least I know I can trust him to get the inspiration of the King James Bible right, and a free grace Gospel right. Pastor Anderson admirably [9]exposes the Devil's rotten Bible versions, whereas PCC wickedly bids Godspeed to the toxic Bob Jones cult and their multiple corrupt Bible revisions. Pastor Anderson rightly preaches the truth about '[10]Repentance & Salvation.'

I feel sick! The cult at PCC are aggressively spreading their damnable heresy throughout Pensacola, mailing spiritual poison to people's mailboxes. With neighbour's like Campus Church at PCC, who needs an enemy like the Devil? PCC has much blood on their hands! Dear friend, nowhere in the inspired King James Bible does it teach that you must repent "of your sin" or "turn from your sin" to get to Heaven. Yet, PCC and their Campus Church arrogantly have changed God's simple plan of salvation, perverting Bible repentance to mean, "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins." Oh my! That is the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation!!!

Shame on Campus Church and PCC! My accurate Bible preaching against PCC's apostasy will be vindicated. Campus Church just mailed ammunition to my home mailbox today, revealing their underbelly so that by God's grace I can further expose their dangerous religious cult at PCC. [11]I wrote this article to help teach people what true Bible repentance is. Dear reader, you cannot be born-again if you place your trust in a counterfeit Gospel. What PCC and their Campus Church are preaching is another gospel, not the free grace of God, which is without works. As I read further in PCC's rotten plan of salvation, just like the pseudo-Christian cults (Mormons, Roman Catholics, Seventh-Day Adventists, et cetera), they speak out of both sides of their mouth—claiming that salvation is free and by grace, yet at the same time requiring you to "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins."

To make matters even worse, on page 62 of the "John & Romans" booklet, Campus Church tells the reader that to be saved, you must make a mental check requiring the reader to agree to:

> "I repent of my sins. I realize that sin is something that God hates and I no longer want to hold onto sinful bad habits**."
>
> SOURCE: "[12]John & Romans," Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, p. 62

Oh My! Folks, this is NOT a part of the Gospel which the Apostle Paul preached in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4...

> 1st Corinthians15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

There you have it! The "Gospel" is the "GOOD NEWS" that Jesus Christ DIED on a cross for our sins, He was BURIED and after three days He physically RESURRECTED from the dead. In Paul's Gospel (which Paul said he received directly from Jesus in Galatians 1:12), did you see anything that reads: "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins"? No, that is not what Paul taught. So why is PCC and their Campus Church promoting this filth?

The only requirement to believe the Gospel is to know why you need to be saved? You need to know what you're being saved from. You are a guilty sinner, and so am I. No one has ever lived who didn't sin (Romans 3:10-23), except Jesus (Hebrews 4:15). He is the perfect sinless Lamb of God (John 1:29). The Bibles teaches and warns that the wages we earn from our sinning is death (Romans 5:12, 6:23). This includes a second death in Hell, fire and brimstone forever (Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8). If you admit by faith to God that you are a guilty sinner deserving of Hell, then that is all you need to know to believe the GOOD NEWS that Jesus Christ died on a cross to pay for your sins, was buried and three days later He bodily raised up from the dead for your justification. BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS, oh sinner, and you are saved!

The booklet of "John & Romans" says inside the front cover that it was published by "Concerned Independent Baptist Churches" and is distributed by the First Baptist Church in Milford, Ohio. The church has an email inside the back cover. Beware of PCC and their corrupt Campus Church!!! Please [13]contact the Sword Of The Lord and let them know your opinion in this matter. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! ...

> Jude 1:1-3, " Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called: Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied. Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.
> **"

Thank you for reading dear friend. By God's grace I will continue to contend for the Christian faith. It is sad that so many once fundamentalist preachers are sinfully dipping their sails, turning, selling out, no longer contending for the faith. It is my sincere hope and desire that the Sword Of The Lord overlooked this matter and weren't aware of it. Time will tell. And yes, I have personally contacted the Sword Of The Lord about this important matter, as I hope you will. So far they have not responded. That speaks volumes as to the direction that the Sword Of The Lord is headed spiritually. When the love of money becomes a higher priority to preachers, than contending for the accuracy of the Gospel, we are in big trouble folks!!!

SHAME on the Sword Of The Lord (founded in 1934 by Dr. John R. Rice) for promoting Pensacola Christian College's damnable heresy! Here again is a damnable quote from the booklet of "John & Romans" that POCC's Campus Church mailed to thousands of Pensacola residents last month...

> "REPENTANCE — Now is the time to turn from your sin and embrace God. The act of turning away from sin is called 'repentance.' This word implies an inward decision to follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins. It means changing your mind about sin and seeing it as something that grieves God. The Bible says that God patiently waits for all people to make this decision." [emphasis added] SOURCE: "John & Romans," Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, p. 60

THAT IS NOT THE GOSPEL!!! Please read, "[14]What Is The Gospel?," by Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951), who gets the Gospel 100 % correct. I earlier quoted to you 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, which defines "the gospel." Also, I recommend reading Michael P. Bowen's very helpful book, "[15]I NEVER KNEW YOU."

Yes, you do need to repent to be saved, but repentance is simply [16]a change of mind. The Bible says that you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:10-23). The Bible says there is a penalty for sin, which is death (Romans 6:23; Hebrews 9:27), including the second death in Hell (Revelation 20:11-15, 21:8).

The Bible says that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten (biological) Son of God (John 20:31).

The Bible says Jesus died on a cross to pay for everyone's sins, He was buried and then physically resurrected from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). If you agree with these biblical facts and trust them to get to Heaven, you are saved. John 6:47, "

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible does it tell us to turn from THE ACT of sin to get to Heaven, or that we must FOLLOW and OBEY God's will instead of our self-serving sins to be saved (which is the Devil's lie of Lordship[Salvation). PCC is a dangerous theological cult!

This is a serious matter theologically. "RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!," a truthful phrase that my ministry friend Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023) used quite a bit in his preaching. Today's preachers have a ho-hum attitude, indifferent, about doctrinal corruption, dismissing it as mere semantics, but it is far from mere semantics when institutions like PCC are requiring people to turn from "the act" of sin to be saved, which is 100 % works.

If someone like PCC would have lied to me when I was 13 years old, and told me that to get to Heaven I have to turn from "THE ACT" of sinning, I never would have come to Jesus Christ to be saved, because I would have felt that I couldn't make such a commitment to do the impossible. PCC has blood on their hands, and now so does the Sword Of The Lord for bidding them Godspeed.

2nd John 1:11, " For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

Kindly said, if you don't see how PCC's unbiblical requirements pervert the free grace Gospel taught in the inspired Holy Bible, then you need to get saved friend before it is too late! In fact, biblically, you don't have to perform "THE ACT" (works) of turning from your sinful behavior to be saved!!! You don't have to commit to FOLLOW and OBEY God's will instead of living in SIN to get to Heaven (that's the false doctrine of Lordship Salvation). Christ died on the cross to pay for your sins, He doesn't demand that you try to forsake them in exchange to seal the deal. Turning from sin is a work of the indwelling Holy Spirit AFTER you get saved (Galatians 5:22-25). It is a matter of SERVICE (Romans 12:1) and not SALVATION (Galatians 3:26). PCC is Satanic today, pulling on the same rope as the Devil. If your church supports PCC, then SHAME on you too!!! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

The Devil changes the truth of the Gospel a little at a time, until it is no longer able to save anyone. Proverbs 22:28, "Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set." I won't shut up for God! If that means making more enemies and going to war with more churches, so be it! God is on my side. You cannot show me one verse in the inspired King James Bible, to support that tommyrot, balderdash, poppycock, crap that PCC is wickedly teaching today. SHAME on the Sword Of The Lord.

I have already contacted the Sword about this. I guess I'll be exposing them from now on too!!! So be it. I won't be quiet, because people are going to Hell, missing out on [17]the new birth because they have been lied to by PCC, given a false hope; and tragically stupid local pastors support this. Ezekiel 2:5, "And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them."

RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

I HATE The Repent Of Your Sins HERESY!

4.12.7 Sword Of The Lord Has Sadly Changed For The Worse (2023-12-07 18:53)

Revelation 3:1-2, " And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead. Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God."

It is tragic that the once fundamentalist Sword Of The Lord in Murfreesboro, Tennessee has deteriorated over time, so that they are more interested these days in making money than contending for the faith once delivered unto the saints. I recently contacted the Sword Of The Lord a couple years ago to complain that they are promoting Pensacola Christian College (PCC), and that PCC are [1]preaching another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. As expected, the Sword of the Lord completely ignored me. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) started the Sword Of The Lord in 1934 as a newspaper for Christians to expose modernism, worldliness, apostasy and false teachers; as well as to educate believers in the Word of God and advertise helpful resources. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) succeeded Dr. Rice in 1980 and faithfully took up the mantle until he graduated to Heaven in 1995. After that, Dr. Shelton Smith took the mantle but has dropped the ball for God, running the Sword Of The Lord into the ground spiritually. If you think that I bumped my head, please hear me out.

Modernism came about from an ungodly society in America who wanted to separate faith from the absolutes of truth. Modernism includes the apostate neo-evangelical movement—bogus theories of evolution, Marxist socialism, Zionism, communism, secular psychology, existentialism (i.e., the " mentality), spirituality without theology, Satan's plethora of new corrupt Bible revisions, women pastors, et cetera. We are in trouble folks! Our churches are a mess today spiritually. In my humble opinion, the Sword Of The Lord's bi-monthly newspaper is worthless trash these days, avoiding controversial issues lest they offend the masses. Instead of contending for the Christian fundamentalist faith that offends most people, they are trying to recruit new subscribers. It couldn't be more obvious.

do your own thing

The Devil's lies of [2]wrong repentance and [3]Lordship Salvation (both excellent articles by Pastor Jack Hyles) have crept into at least 90 % of churches today. Saddest of all is that the majority of professed Christians (including independent fundamental Baptists) couldn't care less about contending for the faith anymore. Dr. John R. Rice had a fire in his soul to fight the good fight of faith, and he did. But the Sword Of The Lord today no longer fights against the deadly heresies which are destroying churches today. There is no greater threat to churches today than the Devil's fallacy that you must turn from your sins

to get to Heaven.

> True repentance has nothing to do with "turning from sin" and everything to do with "acknowledging one's sinfulness" (Jonah 3:5). Like the thief on the cross who simply acknowledged his sinfulness (Lk 23:39-43), the only part a person has in salvation is the beggar's part. —
>
> Pastor Brad Strand, "The Strand Study Bible," p. 1939

Shame on the Sword Of The Lord for promoting Pensacola Christian College (PCC), by accepting their filthy lucre (money) to advertise in their publication. I have always liked the Sword Of The Lord, but that is changing. I cannot in good conscience say nothing when PCC is corrupting the Gospel, following the damnable heresy of cults like Bob Jones University (BJU).

2nd John 1:10-11, "If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." By advertising for PCC's cult, Dr. Shelton Smith has blood on his hands. [4]PCC is teaching damnable heresy!!!

The Satanic False Gospel At Pensacola Christian College

Do you still think I bumped my head? I've been [10]exposing the cult at Bob Jones University (BJU) since 2014, and now I have been exposing the cult at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) since 2021. By God's grace, I will continue to expose these wicked organizations until they repent of their wrong repentance and get saved. [11]Dr. Curtis Hutson has it right! I realize that there are some nuts out there who nitpick over everything, but I am not one of them. You cannot show me one verse in the Holy Bible that says you must turn from your sins to be saved. In sharp contrast, Christ died on the cross to pay for your sins. We've gotten away from the truth that eternal life is a totally " free gift " (Romans 5:18).

I feel sick! The cult at PCC are aggressively spreading their damnable heresy throughout Pensacola, mailing spiritual poison to people's mailboxes. With neighbour's like Campus Church at PCC, who needs an enemy like the Devil? PCC has much blood on their hands! Dear friend, nowhere in the inspired King James Bible does it teach that you must repent "of your sin" or "turn from your sin" to get to Heaven. Yet, PCC and their Campus Church arrogantly have changed God's simple plan of salvation, perverting Bible repentance to mean, "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins." That is the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation!!!

Why doesn't Dr. Shelton Smith care? Why does the Sword Of The Lord advertise and promote PCC? Do you understand that the deadly [12]Mormon, [13]Roman Catholic, [14]Jehovah's witness and [15]Seventh-Day Adventist cults all teach the SAME wrong meaning of repentance as PCC does? PCC is cursed! [16]Pacific Garden Mission and their '[17]UNSHACKLED' are cursed! [18]Pastor John MacArthur is cursed, to whom Moody Bible Institute, BJU and the Bob Jones' crowd all bid Godspeed, making them partaker of his [19]Calvinist counterfeit plan of salvation.

[20]Four Different Plans Of Salvation At Pensacola Christian College

This is the evil false teachings that the Sword Of The Lord promotes in 2026. SHAME on Dr. Sheldon Smith for bidding Godspeed to evildoers! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

Dr. Jeff Redlin is the incompetent senior pastor at PCC's Campus Church. [21]LOOK at the counterfeit plan of salvation that Jeff Redlin preaches. Sadly, they don't care about right doctrine at PCC, for if they did they wouldn't recklessly preach [22]multiple plans of salvation. Biblically there is only ONE GOSPEL (Galatians 1:6-7; 15:1-6). There are no versions, embellishments or alterations of God's simple plan of salvation.

God's Curse Is Upon Pensacola Christian College

Shame on Campus Church and PCC! My accurate Bible preaching against PCC's apostasy will be vindicated. Campus Church just mailed ammunition to my home mailbox today, revealing their underbelly so that by God's grace I can further expose their dangerous religious cult at PCC. [23]I wrote this article to help teach people what true Bible repentance is . Dear reader, you cannot be born-again if you place your trust in a counterfeit Gospel. What PCC and their Campus Church are preaching is another gospel, not the free grace of God, which is without works. As I read further in PCC's rotten plan of salvation, just like the pseudo-Christian cults (Mormons, Roman Catholics, Seventh-Day Adventists, et cetera), they speak out of both sides of their mouth—claiming that salvation is free and by grace, yet at the same time requiring you to "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins."

To make matters even worse, on page 62 of the "John & Romans" booklet, Campus Church tells the reader that to be saved, you must make a mental check requiring the reader to agree to:

> "I repent of my sins. I realize that sin is something that God hates and I no longer want to hold onto sinful bad habits."
>

Oh My! Folks, this is NOT a part of the Gospel which the Apostle Paul preached in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4...

> 1st Corinthians15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. There you have it! The “Gospel” is the “GOOD NEWS” that Jesus Christ DIED on a cross for our sins, He was BURIED and after three days He physically RESURRECTED from the dead. In Paul’s Gospel (which Paul said he received directly from Jesus in Galatians 1:12), did you see anything that reads: “follow and obey God’s will instead of your self-serving sins”? No, that is not what Paul taught. So why is PCC and their Campus Church promoting this filth?

Christ Died On The Cross To Pay For Our Sins

The only requirement to believe the Gospel is to know why you need to be saved? You need to know what you’re being saved from. You are a guilty sinner, and so am I. No one has ever lived who didn’t sin (Romans 3:10-23), except Jesus (Hebrews 4:15). He is the perfect sinless Lamb of God (John 1:29). The Bible teaches and warns that the wages we earn from our sinning is death (Romans 5:12, 6:23). This includes a second death in Hell, fire and brimstone forever (Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8). If you admit by faith to God that you are a guilty sinner deserving of Hell, then that is all you need to know to believe the GOOD NEWS that Jesus Christ died on a cross to pay for your sins, was buried and three days later He bodily raised up from the dead for your justification. BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS, oh sinner, and you are saved!

The booklet of “John & Romans” says inside the front cover that it was published by “Concerned Independent Baptist Churches” and is distributed by the First Baptist Church in Milford, Ohio. The church has an email inside the back cover. Beware of PCC and their corrupt Campus Church!!! Please [25]contact the Sword Of The Lord and let them know your opinion in this matter. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! ...

> Jude 1:1-3, “Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called: Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied. Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.”

Thank you for reading dear friend. By God’s grace I will continue to contend for the Christian faith. It is sad that so many once fundamentalist preachers are sinfully dipping their sails, turning, selling out, no longer contending for the faith. It is my sincere hope and desire that the Sword Of The Lord overlooked this matter and weren’t aware of it. Time will tell. And yes, I have personally contacted the Sword Of The Lord about this important matter, as I hope you will. So far they have not responded. That speaks volumes as to the direction that the Sword Of The Lord is headed spiritually. When the love of money becomes a higher priority to preachers, than contending for the accuracy of the Gospel, we are in big trouble folks!!!

SHAME on the Sword Of The Lord (founded in 1934 by Dr. John R. Rice) for promoting Pensacola Christian College’s damnable heresy! Here again is a damnable quote from the booklet of "John & Romans" that POCC’s Campus Church mailed to thousands of Pensacola residents last month...

> “REPENTANCE — Now is the time to turn from your sin and embrace God. The act of turning away from sin is called ’repentance.’ This word implies an inward decision to follow and obey God’s will instead of your self-serving sins. It means changing your mind about sin and seeing it as something that grieves God. The Bible says that God patiently waits for all people to make this decision.” [emphasis added]
>

THAT IS NOT THE GOSPEL!!! Please read, “ [26]What Is The Gospel? ,” by Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951), who gets the Gospel 100 % correct. I earlier quoted to you 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, which defines “the gospel.” Also, I recommend reading Michael P. Bowen’s very helpful book, “ [27]I NEVER KNEW YOU .”

Yes, you do need to repent to be saved, but repentance is simply [28]a change of mind . The Bible says that you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:10-23). The Bible says there is a penalty for sin, which is death (Romans 6:23; Hebrews 9:27), including the second death in Hell (Revelation 20:11-15, 21:8). The Bible says that Jesus is the virgin-born only begotten (biological) Son of God, Christ (Matthew 1:23; John 20:31). The Bible says Jesus died on a cross to pay for everyone’s sins, He was buried and then physically resurrected from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). If you agree with these biblical facts and trust them to get to Heaven, you are saved. John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.”

The Inspired King James Bible Doesn’t Teach

“

Turn From Your Sins

To Get To Heaven

Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible does it tell us to turn from THE ACT of sin to get to Heaven, or that we must FOLLOW and OBEY God’s will instead of our self-serving sins to be saved (which is the Devil’s lie of Lordship[Salvation). PCC is a dangerous theological cult! This is a serious matter theologically. "RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!," a truthful phrase that my ministry friend Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023) used quite a bit in his preaching. Today’s preachers have a ho-hum attitude, indifferent, about doctrinal corruption, dismissing it as mere semantics, but it is far from mere semantics when institutions like PCC are requiring people to turn from "the act" of sin to be saved, which is 100 % works.

If someone would have lied to me when I was 13 years old, and told me that to get to Heaven I had to turn from “THE ACT” of sinning, I never would have come to Jesus Christ to be saved, because I would have felt that I couldn’t make such a commitment to do the impossible. PCC has blood on their hands, and now so does the Sword Of The Lord for bidding them Godspeed. 2nd John 1:11, “For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.”

Kindly said, if you don’t see how PCC’s unbiblical plan of salvation perverts the free grace Gospel taught in the inspired Holy Bible, then you need to get saved friend before it is too late! Biblically you don’t have to perform "THE ACT" (works) of turning from your sinful behavior to be saved!!! You don’t have to commit to FOLLOW and OBEY God’s will instead of your SELF-SERVING SINS to get to Heaven (that’s the false doctrine of Lordship Salvation).

Jesus Christ died on the cross to pay for your sins, He doesn’t demand that you try to forsake them in exchange to seal the deal. Turning from sin is a work of the indwelling Holy Spirit AFTER you get saved (Galatians 5:22-25). It is a matter of SERVICE (Romans 12:1) and not SALVATION (Galatians 3:26). PCC is Satanic today, pulling on the same rope as the Devil. If your church supports PCC, then SHAME on you too!!! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

The Devil changes the truth of the Gospel a little at a time, until it is no longer able to save anyone. Proverbs 22:28, “Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set.” I won’t shut up for God! If that means making more enemies and going to war with more churches, so be it! God is on my side. You cannot show me one verse in the inspired King James Bible, to support that tommyrot, balderdash, poppycock, crap that PCC is wickedly teaching today. SHAME on the Sword Of The Lord.

I have already contacted the Sword about this, but they didn’t bother to respond. I guess I’ll be exposing them from now on too!!! So be it. I won’t be quiet, because people are going to Hell, missing out on [29]the new birth because they have been lied to by PCC, given a false hope; and tragically stupid local pastors and the Sword Of The Lord support this. Ezekiel 2:5, “And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.”

RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

4.12.8 Traitor President Joe Biden Is Merely The Fall Guy (2023-12-08 21:24)

Ecclesiastes 5:8, " If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they."

I don't believe for one second that President Joe Biden has the kind of power necessary to utterly destroy our society by bringing in 8,062,646 illegal aliens since 2020 to plunder the economy, [1]bankrupt the hospitals, overburden cities across the country, drain welfare and wreak such irreparable havoc to our communities.

"Crooked Joe" Biden will merely be the fall guy who takes the full blame with him when he leaves office in 2024. That was the whole plan before it all began. The evil Luciferians who put Biden in the White House want us to foolishly think that 8,062,464 illegal alien criminals flooding into the United States since 2020 was all the consequence of one incompetent man. You are very naïve friend if you agree with that lie.

It is blatantly clear to me that the Luciferian powers behind the scenes are doing this to further [2]destroy the Old World Order, all necessary to bring in a demonic New World Order. ...

> "The real rulers in Washington are invisible, and exercise power from behind the scenes." —Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter, 1952

> "Today the path of total dictatorship in the United States can be laid by strictly legal means, unseen and unheard by the Congress, the President, or the people. Outwardly we have a Constitutional government. We have operating within our government and political system, another body representing another form of government - a bureaucratic elite." —Senator William Jenner, 1954

Look how evil and rotten our government has become, allowing criminals to steal people's houses...

Squatters take over home, call police on neighbors for harassment

This is what our crooked politicians, judges and leaders have done to us! I don't know about you, but that makes me mad as hell.

Shame on our nation's leaders!!! This is treason. I am stunned how evil our leaders have become, and how innocent people are being hurt and taken advantage of by criminals who illegally enter into our country and then steal our homes, all sanctioned by our maggot-infested rotten government. Where is justice? All of those squatters should be immediately arrested and deported.

Liberals love to spend other people's money, give away other people's houses and force others to shoulder the social burdens. Ungodly liberals continue to blatantly lie to the public. Fools like Bernie Sanders and Hillary Clinton [3]boast that illegal aliens boost the U.S. economy by $11 billion each year. What they failed to tell you is that not one penny of that alleged $11 billion in annual economic contributions recompense the [4]hospitals for the billions which they have lost treating illegal immigrants. Democrat liberals are liars! The Republicans are no better. I've lived long enough to learn that Democrats and Republicans are just two separate legs both walking toward a New World Order.

I don't claim to have any uncanny ability to predict the future or have some special insight. But I do have a thinking brain that God gave me, and I have paid attention to what is going on in the world since 2002 when I began my website ministry. I woke up in 2002 to the reality of the demonic New World Order at age 35. I've learned a lot since then. It is my humble opinion that the reason why the Luciferian powers working behind the scenes to destroy America, have allowed tens of millions of illegals to enter into the country to bolster up the failing economy.

Congresswoman Cynthia McKinney nailed it, I humbly think. She said that the [5]U.S. government has been hi-jacked by criminals. I fully agree! Cynthia said that these criminals working behind the scenes are hallowing out the economy. She is right. If you do some research about the sinister [6]Federal Reserve System (which began in 1913), you will learn that it is a massive Ponzi Scheme based on total criminal fraud (all legal in the corrupt U.S.). As our economy is further hollowed out, the evildoers doing all this don't want the American people to wake up, because there would be deadly riots overnight across the country against the government.

Sadly, ninety-nine percent of Americans haven't a clue what the criminals behind the Federal Reserve banking system have done to us! So to hide what they have done, they have to keep coming up with ways to prevent the economy from imploding, which is absolutely will eventually. It has to, because the whole money system is based of fraud! That is why our traitors for leaders have allowed U.S. corporations to move their manufacturing operations to foreign soil, to exploit cheap (effectively slave) labor. These corporations simply cannot pay $30 an hour to American workers and continue being profitable.

That is why 60,000,000 illegal aliens have been allowed to flood into the United States over the past 40 years, which effectively provide cheap (slave) labor for corporations and businesses. Since the economy is being hollowed out (bankrupt), as Congresswoman McKinney rightly said, the Luciferian powers behind the scenes have to bring in workers who are willing to work for slave wages under the table. Open borders, deindustrialization and importing 90 % of everything we purchase at the store from communist China, have patched over the problem temporarily. But this is only a quick fix! In time, our economy will implode. The people will riot! A domestic police state will rise up like you've never seen before. Have you noticed that [7]the middle class is disappearing? It is [8]inevitable!

We are living in an insane society today, when illegal alien criminals have more rights than U.S. citizens do. Shame on our government authorities. This is sanctioned evil. By law the government should be required to reimburse those injured homeowners, recompensed for every penny lost on missing rent, incurred utility bills, vandalism, stolen appliances and any other costs. This is so evil what is happening, while the local authorities sit back and do nothing. Where is justice?

4.12.9 I Still Sin A Lot And Am Worried I Might Not Be Saved (2023-12-11 23:34)

For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?"

Many people have been lied to by preachers, misled to think that they are not saved unless their life has changed for the better, but that is not true. One of my favorite quotes is from Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965)...

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, "Hebrews"; Zondervan Publishing House; 1959 (p. 117)

If I were to ask you the question dear reader—Do you know for sure that if you died today, would you go to Heaven?—what would your answer be? If I were asked that same question, my answer would be—I know I am saved because my only hope for forgiveness of sins and eternal life is what Jesus Christ has already done through Calvary's cross to pay for my sins. I realized a a 13 year old boy that I was a guilty sinner in God's sight, and by faith I received what Christ did to pay for my sins on the cross. I am only trusting upon Jesus' death on the cross, His burial and physical resurrection from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). That is all that I am trusting in to get me to Heaven. If you're answer is different, then you need to get saved friend.

Your behavior, sins and feelings have nothing to do with being saved. You are either solely trusting what Christ did to pay your debt of sin through Calvary's cross, or you're not.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work. The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

> "Sound doctrine is like a sound ship. There are no holes in it." —Pastor David Baker

I say "through" because Jesus after He raised up from the dead, still needed to take His literal liquid blood to Heaven to sprinkle upon the Mercy Seat in the presence of God the Father on our behalf (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 10:1-4, 12:14). Redemption wasn't "finished" on the cross, for Christ hadn't even died, been buried or resurrected yet. When Christ said "it is finished" (John 19:29-30), He was referring to all the Messianic prophecies concerning Himself up until that point, right after He uttered the words "I thirst" (thus fulfilling Psalms 69:21).

Your behavior, sins and feelings have absolutely nothing to do with being saved. You are either solely trusting what Christ did to pay your debt of sin through Calvary's cross, or you're not. Many people are trusting Christ PLUS something else, and they are not saved. You must put your trust (reliance) upon Jesus only, believing that He is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God (John 20:31). I again recommend that you read Michael P. Bowen's helpful book, " [1]I Never Knew You ."

Many people are trusting Christ PLUS something else, and they are not saved. You must put your trust (reliance) upon Jesus, believing that He is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God. I again recommend that you read Michael P. Bowen's helpful book, " [2]I Never Knew You ."

I encourage you to [3]listen several times to the Gospel of John , which is God's Gospel tract.

The sins of bitterness, gossip, lust, hate, drunkenness, worry, gluttony, hatred, covetousness and other vices are something that every believers struggle with. Even the best Christians still sin every day and struggle with the sinful flesh. We all have a Skeleton Closet of sins that we don't want other people to know about. That doesn't mean you're not saved. Faith is the only righteous thing that anyone can do to be saved.

You cannot turn away from your sinning and neither can I or anyone else. You might be able to reform and clean up your life, so that you feel more self-righteous and others may think you are a good person, but you still sin and are a sinner. We are saved by trusting in Christ's righteousness, not ours. That is critically important for you to understand. Every Christian should memorize this Bible verse from Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:" You need HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS!!! That is, we are saved by God's imputed righteousness (Romans 4:4-7). By the way, all Bible citations are ONLY from the inspired King James Bible, because all of the modern revisions are corrupted by Satan.

You need to understand that eternal life is a "FREE GIFT" (Romans 5:18) from God. A gift cannot be merited, earned or deserved in any way. Salvation is not a reward, it is a gift for the guilty. You may say that you still sin horribly and worry you're not really saved, but that is exactly who Christ died for, "THE UNGODLY" (Romans 5:6-9). Please don't make the common foolish mistake of looking at your behavior, instead of trusting completely in what Jesus has already done through the cross to pay your massive debt of sin.

The way that you choose to live as a saint is a separate matter of service (Romans 12:1), not salvation (Galatians 3:26). How you choose to live as a born-again believer will determine your rewards and happiness in Heaven, but it has nothing to do with getting saved, which Christ alone did for you, paying for your ticket to Heaven with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19).

I also encourage you to look up these Scripture passages that I have shared with you and memorize many of them. You'll never be able to settle the assurance of God's salvation if you are not familiar with the Word of God. I know I am saved because I can stand upon the promises of God in the Holy Bible. But I have memorized hundreds of Scripture passages in my 43 years as a born again believer since age 13, which help me immensely.

If you still have doubts, pray and ask God to give you the peace you seek, by helping you to understand His great plan of salvation. As long as you associate the new birth with your change of behavior, you will remain confused and worried. One thing has absolutely nothing to do with the other. If I offer you a gift, but then require you to live a better life to keep it or to prove that it actually is yours, it wouldn't and couldn't truly be a "gift." Romans 6:23 and Ephesians 2:8-9 teach us that eternal life is the "gift" of God. You simply TAKE a gift.

4.12.10 God's Grace Will Pardon The Worst Sinner (2023-12-12 13:59)

Isaiah 1:18, "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool."

I love the inspired King James Bible. It is God's Word, every word! I thank God that He gave us an instruction Book. Someone has said that "B.I.B.L.E." is an acronym for "Basic Instructions Before Leaving Earth." I like that. So many Christian believers get worked up and hot under the collar over minor issues; such as, the age of the earth, the timing of the Rapture, Zionism, Paradise, Storehouse Tithing, Dispensationalism, et cetera. Although I take strong positions in each of these matters, I refuse to get into heated debates and make disparaging comments toward those who disagree with me.

One of the most basic of Bible truths is that even the vilest sinner can be forgiven through faith in Jesus Christ. Acts 10:43, "

To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

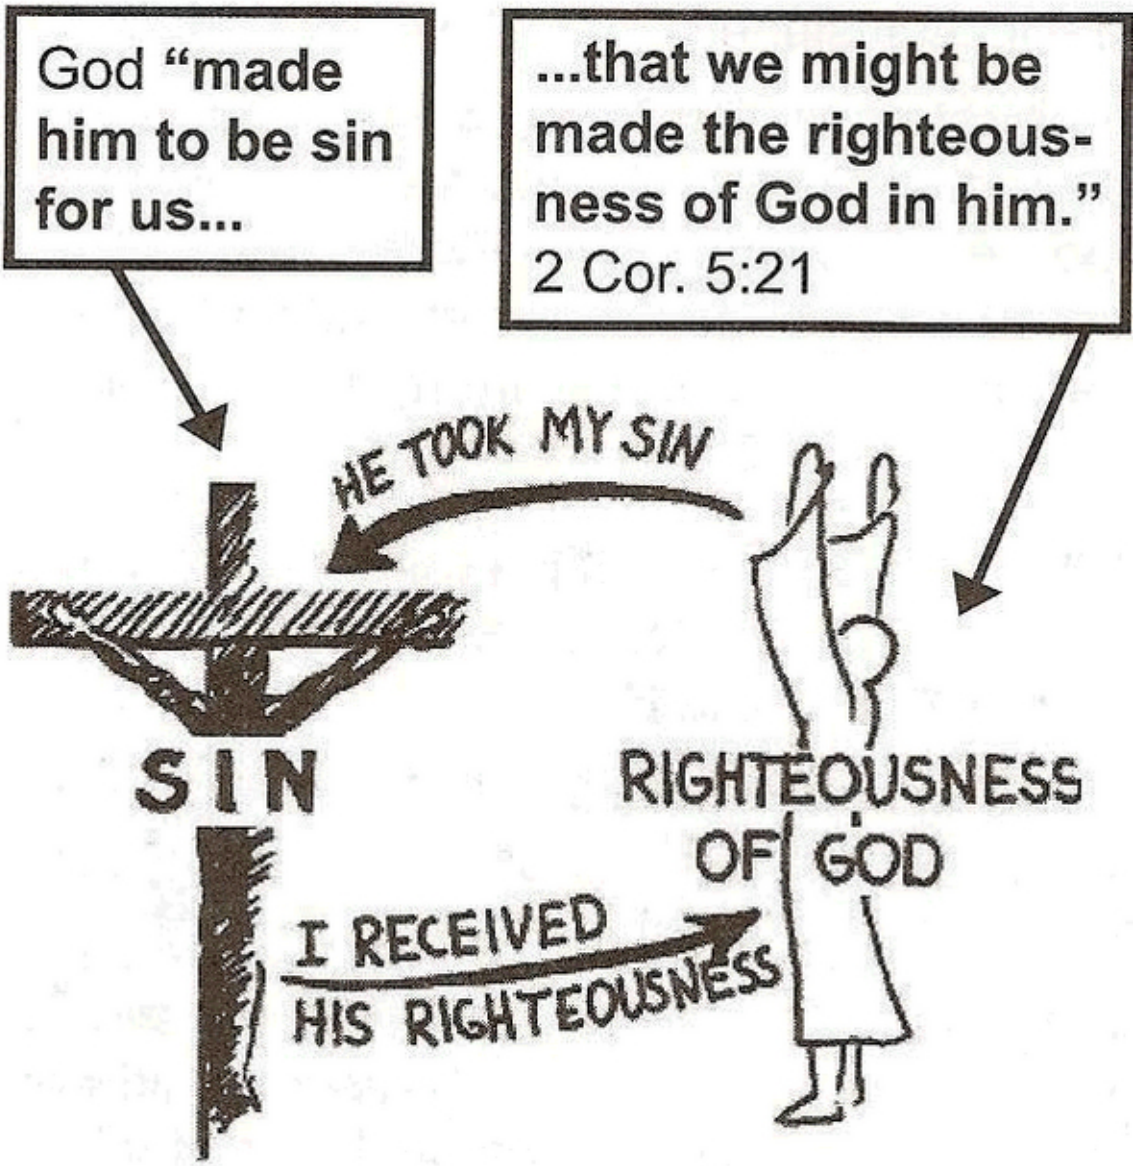
" Dr. Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2012) and his twisted followers, hold to the unbiblical belief that people in the Old Testament didn't get saved like we do today; but rather, they had to keep the Law of Moses (works) from day to day, and if they didn't then they went to Hell. We know that this is a false teaching, because Acts 10:43 says

"all" the prophets preached forgiveness of sins through faith in Christ.

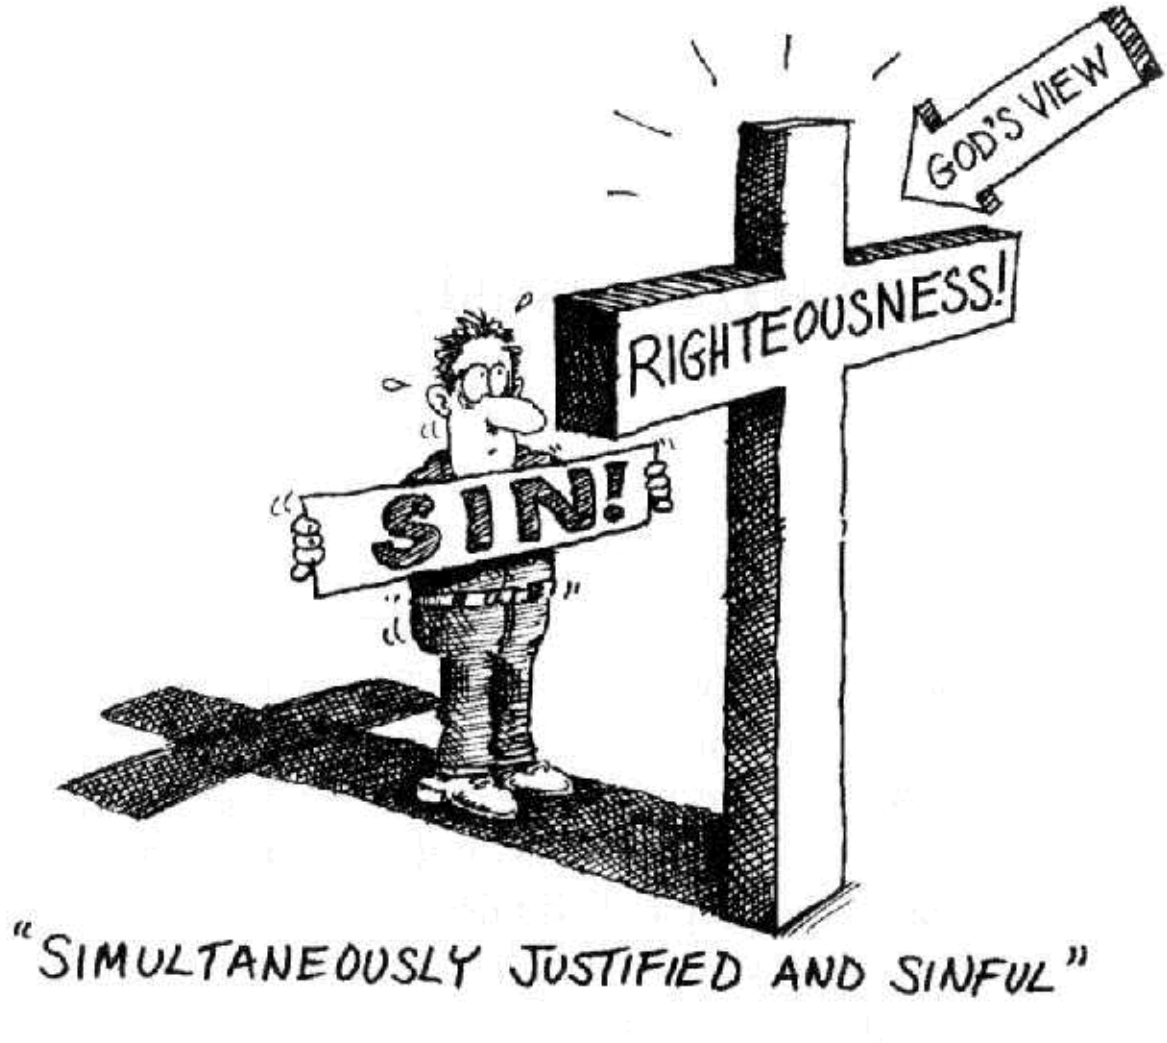
Some people would sacrifice their life for a righteous man. Perhaps even some people might even sacrifice their life for a good man. But who would sacrifice their life for a convicted criminal? No one! Ah, but Jesus DID sacrifice His life on Calvary's cross to pay everyone's debt of sin. ...

> Romans 5:6-9, "For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him."

Jesus died for the worst scoundrel, the vilest sinner and most dangerous murderer. God offers salvation freely to whosoever wants it.



And to clarify, your behavior, sins and feelings have nothing to do with being saved. You are either solely trusting what Christ did to pay your debt of sin through Calvary's cross, or you're not.



Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Eternal life is the gift of God, if you want it. Just take it by faith in His only begotten Son, Jesus, the Christ (John 20:31). Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work alone. The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

"Sound doctrine is like a sound ship. There are no holes in it." —Pastor David Baker

In 1994 Church of Christ pastor, [1]Curt Booth, shared his religious faith with Jeffrey Dahmer and allegedly Dahmer agreed and got saved. I totally disagree. I don't doubt Dahmer's salvation because of the wicked things that he did before getting caught; but rather, because the [2]Church of Christ is a works-based-salvation cult. Pastor Booth water baptized Dahmer, and then told him that he was a Christian. Sadly, this is NOT the Gospel of free grace. Partial faith in Christ PLUS something else (baptism, turning from sins, sacraments, serving God, making Jesus your Lord) cannot produce the new birth. Remember, the accursed false prophets in Matthew 7:22-23 called Jesus "Lord, Lord," but Christ denied knowing them as His sheep. The Devil's counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation is a sure highway to Hell.

I love our text verse from Isaiah 1:18, "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool." There is no stain upon anyone's life, which has been so darkened by sin, but that Jesus' precious blood cannot cleanse our sins away, making us white as snow in God's sight. This is the great [3]imputed righteousness of God!

God "made him to be sin for us...
...that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." 2 Cor. 5:21
HE TOOK MY SIN

RIGHTEOUSNESS OF GOD
I RECEIVED HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS

4.12.11 Pensacola Christian College Teaches Same Wrong Repentance As Church Of Christ Cult (2023-12-13 13:01)

Mark 7:7-9, "Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do. And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition."

Acts 15:1, "And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved."

In his YouTube presentation titled, "[1]WHAT MUST I DO TO BE SAVED?," Church of Christ Pastor Don Blackwell errantly teaches that repentance unto salvation includes three things:

1. a change of mind
2. godly sorrow
3. a change of life (fruit of repentance)

SOURCE: '[2]What Must I Do To Be Saved?,' by Pastor Don Blackwell

Kindly, Mr. Blackwell makes the same theological error that so many other Bible students make, which is to expand on the simple biblical meaning of "repent" (Greek noun: metanoia) concerning salvation, which means "a change of mind. Pastor Blackwell is guilty of embellishing the true meaning of repentance in the Bible. The Greek verb form of "repent" is metanoeo, which means "to think differently."

The Bible does not require sorrow over sins to be saved. Sorrow is not repentance, it is penitence. I love this helpful quote from Pastor Brad Strand...

> True repentance has nothing to do with "turning from sin" and everything to do with "acknowledging one's sinfulness" (Jonah 3:5). Like the thief on the cross who simply acknowledged his sinfulness (Lk 23:39-43), the only part a person has in salvation is the beggar's part.
>
> SOURCE: Pastor Brad Strand, "The Strand Study Bible," p 1939

Yes, bravo Brother Strand!

In the aforementioned video, Pastor Blackwell defines repentance as: "a change of mind produced by godly sorrow resulting in a change of life." Sadly, that is the same [3]damnable heresy taught at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) today. According to Campus Church at PCC (see screenshot below), "Repentance is a change of mind resulting in a change of behavior." That is not the biblical meaning of repentance to get to Heaven. Sorrow is an emotion (feelings) that develop over time AFTER a sinner is saved. As a new believer grows in the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ (2nd Peter 3:18), God gives the feelings. This has nothing to do with being saved itself, which is a free gift (Romans 5:18).

Repentance doesn't require "a change of life" as Don Blackwell and Pensacola Christian College (PCC) errantly teach. ...

Screenshot From Campus Church at PCC on July 21, 2021

Again, Church of Christ pastor, Don Blackwell, defines repentance exactly the same as PCC, saying: "a change of mind produced by godly sorrow resulting in a change of life." As I have just shown you dear friend, that is the same [5]damnable heresy taught at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) today. May I say truthfully, genuine repentance results in believing the Gospel, it doesn't result in a change of behavior. Behavior modification is NOT part of the new birth, not can it be at any time in order for eternal life to remain a free gift from God. Romans 5:18. "Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life." I love that, the Bible even calls eternal life "the free gift"!!!

Pastor Jack Hyles, in his classic sermon titled, "[6]A Burden Versus A Call," rightly explains in the following excerpt that the proper order of getting saved is: [7]FACTS, then FAITH, then FEELINGS. First you have to know the facts. Then you have to put your faith (reliance) in those facts. And then after you are saved God gives you the feelings.

The Bible plainly teaches in Romans 3:19, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God." All that God requires of someone to be saved concerning [8]repentance is that you become guilty before God. You've got to know what you're being saved from. You are a guilty sinner and there is a penalty for those sins (Romans 6:23), which is death. This includes the second death where you will burn in Hell forever (Revelation 20:11-15, 21:8). When you repent, you change your mind from what you want to do to get to Heaven, to what God says you must do to get to Heaven. Hebrews 6:1 calls this "repentance from [9]DEAD WORKS."

A changed life is the fruit of the indwelling Holy Spirit, if we walk in the Spirit.

Galatians 5:16, " This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. " If a lost sinner comes to Christ and gets saved, but then doesn't choose to Walk in the Spirit, they will languish in carnality and sin, but that has nothing to do with their eternal security. One saved, always saved!!! To have eternal life is to have eternal security. They are the same doctrine!

I am very [10]disappointed and disgusted with the Sword Of The Lord in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, because they are wickedly bidding Godspeed to PCC in their publication each month. When Dr. John R. Rice started the Sword, it was with the intent to fight the good fight of faith. Dr. Rice wasn't correct in all his doctrinal positions. For example: He taught that Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort (who are considered the fathers of every modern Bible revision) were saved and sincere men. We know for a fact today that they were unsaved reprobates. [11]Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023) exposes Westcott and Hort for the infidels they really were (this shocking information should send chills down your spine). This Bible study lecture is part 4B of a 16-part series titled, "[12]King James Bible—Still The Best."

I fully agree with this helpful definition of Lordship Salvation by Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold...

> "Lordship Salvation is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the performance of good works, the promise of good works, or the evidence of good works, must accompany faith in Christ to establish or provide evidence that such faith has resulted in eternal life." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, [13]"Jesus Versus John MacArthur"

If a changed life is necessary for the new birth, then eternal life absolutely cannot be called a "free gift" (Romans 5:18). Tragically, what Don Blackwell and PCC are errantly teaching is exactly what Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Roman Catholics and Seventh-Day Adventists falsely teach about repentance, all requiring that YOU turn from your sinful behavior to get to Heaven. The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

My friend, salvation is a new birth—a supernatural miracle of God in response to a man's faith in the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ (John 1:12-13). Salvation is instant, just as the physical birth is instant. You get saved immediately by faith in Christ (which is justification - Galatians 3:26), but becoming Christlike takes a lifetime (which is sanctification and service - Romans 12:1). One thing has nothing to do with the other. God wants every human being to make two decisions:

1. SALVATION - The first decision is whether you will receive the only begotten Son (John 3:16), Jesus, the Christ (John 20:31), as your personal Savior (John 1:12-13).
2. SERVICE - And then for those who do receive Him as Savior, God wants you to decide to become Jesus' disciple, to follow Him as Lord no matter what the cost, to pick up your cross and serve Him all your life (Romans 12:1-3). This second decision is NOT necessary, required or allowed to be saved. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

My favorite preacher quote is from Pilgrim's Progress book author, John Bunyan...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Bravo John Bunyan! In other words, we absolutely must maintain theological separation between SERVICE and SALVATION, because they are two different matters. I love the following helpful quote from Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965)...

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, "Hebrews"; Zondervan Publishing House; 1959 (p. 117)

Oh how I wish and pray that today's incompetent pastors would begin to study, so that they could rightly divide the Word of Truth (2nd Timothy 2:15).

Tragically, most preachers succumb to ecclesiastical peer pressure. That is, most preachers are reluctant to stray away from what most other preachers are preaching, lest they be rejected, ridiculed and shunned as being ignorant. Sadly, the common consensus today is that repentance means to turn away from your sinful past ways, to commit to stop living a lifestyle of sinning anymore, and to submit to follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins (that last statement is an exact quote from PCC's Campus Church). That may sound good to the carnally-minded man, but it is totally unbiblical.

I live in the city of Pensacola. In my mailbox today I found an envelope from Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) with my address and the words "To Our Neighbor" on it. I opened the envelope and inside I found a booklet of John & Romans. The booklet has 64 pages in it. The Campus Church logo is printed on the front cover.

I was shocked on page 60 when I read PCC's counterfeit plan of salvation. What I am about to show you is straight from Satan dear reader:

> "REPENTANCE — Now is the time to turn from your sin and embrace God. The act of turning away from sin is called 'repentance.' This word implies an inward decision to follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins. It means changing your mind about sin and seeing it as something that grieves God. The Bible says that God patiently waits for all people to make this decision."
>
> SOURCE: "[14]John & Romans," Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, p. 60

Do you still think I bumped my head? What you just read is a counterfeit plan of salvation. Nowhere in the inspired Holy Bible are we taught to "turn from your sin" to be saved. Wicked false prophets ADDED those words. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 3:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." Pastors' Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias at PCC's Campus Church are LIARS! Church of Christ Pastor Don Blackwell is a LIAR! [15]Evangelist Ray Comfort is a LIAR!

I've been exposing the [16]cult at Bob Jones University (BJU) since 2014, and now I have been exposing the cult at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) since 2021. By God's grace, I will continue to expose these wicked organizations. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

Many preachers are teaching a false plan of salvation today, turning salvation into a reward, an exchange or a process. Dr. Steve Pettit at BJU has [17]sinfully turned going to Heaven into a process. This is commonly known as the heresy of "[18]The Perseverance of the Saints," popularized by Dr. John MacArthur and originally taught by heretic [19]John Calvin (1509-1564). Salvation is received, not achieved. Eternal life is a free gift, paid for by Jesus' precious literal blood, which has been sprinkled on the Mercy Seat in Heaven (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 10:1, 12:24).

I am saddened that the pseudo-Christian cults have infiltrated the Bibles colleges who train tomorrow's church pastors. PCC sends out thousands of incompetent graduates to corrupt and destroy churches with a counterfeit gospel. Turning from your sinful bad habits is not a part of the simplicity that is in Christ.

True repentance has nothing to do with "turning from sin" and everything to do with "acknowledging one's sinfulness" (Jonah 3:5). PCC gets repentance wrong, agreeing with the hellbound Church of Christ cult. Woe unto the PCC cult.

God knows that I love everybody at PCC and Campus Church, but they don't love God or truth. They are worshipping God in vain in their manmade doctrine and false hope of eternal life. Mark 7:7 and 9, "Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. ...Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition." PCC are merely playing church, leading people into Hell with a false gospel.

4.12.12 We Live In A Wicked World Of Evil And Deceit (2023-12-13 17:47)

Jeremiah 17:9-10, " The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings."

I am sure that everyone reading this blog could exchange numerous stories with me about horrible things people have done to hurt and take advantage of yourself or others. I could tell you hundreds of stories of the horrible wicked things that I've seen in my lifetime. I've been personally hurt by more people than I can remember. Our text passage from the Old Testament warns that the human heart is desperately wicked and deceitful above all else, not to be trusted. Thank God for the blessed Lamb of God who has made a way of escape, so that us sinners don't have to spend eternity burning in Hell where we all deserve to go. Romans 5:9, "

Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. "

Someone has wisely said that the opposite of love is not hate, it is indifference. I agree. The opposite of truth is not lies, it is indifference. We sadly live in a time of massive indifference, when many people just don't care one way or the other anymore and are coldhearted...

> 2nd Timothy 3:1-5, "This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away."

Wow, what an indictment of humanity in the Last Days! The biblical phrase "last days" refers to the entire New Testament period. We know this from reading Hebrews 1:1-2a, "God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son..." So "last days" applies to mankind as the earth's population increases and we draw nearer the return of Jesus Christ. In lieu of the fact that 4,000 years of human civilization had already expired prior to the writing of the book of Hebrews, it is logical to see how it can be said that New Testament saints were living in the "last days." W e can truly know that 2,000 years after the writing of the New Testament, and after 6,000 years of human civilization have already expired, that we are living in the "last days" in 2023.

I am often reminded of 2nd Timothy 3:1-5. We are now living in "perilous times." I've never seen such wicked times as today in America. The United States is unrecognizable compared to when I was growing up as a child in the 1970's. So many people today are liars, fierce, unholy, false accusers, without natural affection, traitors, highminded and "lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God." We live in a very selfish generation. Granted, there are still a lot of good people in the United States; people who are generous and want to help those who have needs and are hurting. But unfortunately those good people are in the minority of the overall population. When I say "good" I mean good as far as sinners go. We are all guilty sinners (Romans 3:10-23).

There have been hundreds of [1]shocking recorded incidents of

"[2]Flash Mob Robberies." There is a simple solution that is guaranteed to stop the stealing. What saith the Scripture? Exodus 22:2, "

If a thief be found breaking up, and be smitten that he die, there shall no blood be shed for him.

” Under Mosaic law you could kill a thief with impunity. We need to give business owners and employees the legal right to kill thieves. That would permanently stop the Flash Mob Robberies overnight!

Dishonest Advertising

Is Everywhere Today

I could write for days about all the evil things in American society today. If you go to any search engine and type in the word “professional banjo,” several dozen webpages will appear. You will find cheap imported garbage from China priced below $500 on most of the webpages, and then at the bottom of each webpage you’ll read a disclaimer notifying you that they get paid to promote certain products (i.e., worthless garbage).

Here’s a classic example of how rotten and dishonest people have become. I searched online at Duck-Duck-Go for “professional banjos.”

One of the webpages that appeared on the first page is “[3]9 Best Professional Banjo Reviews 2022.

” One of the top banjos they recommend buying is the [4]PYLE-PRO 5-string banjo for $147.89 from China. I can tell you as a musician since age 15 that this item is NOT a professional banjo!!! I professional banjo would be one of [5]Arthur Hatfield’s banjos from Kentucky. Of the thousands of banjos that Arthur has built and sold, you won’t find a single negative comment about Arthur or his banjos.

Now, take a look at the disclaimer at the bottom of the Cmuse.org website:

> “CMUSE is a participant of the Amazon Services LLC Associates Program, an affiliate advertising program – it is designed to provide an aid for the websites in earning an advertisement fee – by means of advertising and linking to Amazon.com products.
>
> SOURCE:
> [6]https://www.cmuse.org/best-professional-banjo/

Isn’t that sickening? They’re admitting (because legally they have to) that the only reason they are promoting certain products is because a company is paying them to do so. They are shamefully manipulating the internet and exploiting you as a human being just to make money. That is why when I search for a product online, or for reviews, I always look for a disclaimer at the bottom; and if I do find a disclaimer, I exit that website as fast as I possibly can, because I now realize that they are lying dishonest people. They don’t really think that these are the “Best Professional Banjos,” they just want the money and are lying to you!!! If you don’t see anything wrong with such unethical behavior, then you need to get right with God. Truly the LOVE OF MONEY is the root of all evil in the world (1st Timothy 6:10).

The Ungodly Corrupt Bible Publishing Industry

You need a copyright so that you can exclusively profit financially from your new Bible version, otherwise the public could use it freely and you wouldn’t have any enforceable legal rights. Follow the money trail and you’ll find the ugly truth! All these Bible-butchering groups today are not sincere. The very fact that they are legally required to make major changes to copyright their new PERversion evidences that. These are snowflake Bible versions, that is, no two are the same! The following quote is taken from the [7]United States Copyright Office . . .

How much do I have to change in my own work to make a new claim of copyright?

> You may make a new claim in your work if the changes are substantial and creative, something more than just editorial changes or minor changes. This would qualify as a new derivative work. For instance, simply making spelling corrections throughout a work does not warrant a new registration, but adding an additional chapter would. See Circular 14, Copyright Registration in Derivative Works and Compilations, for further information. [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [8]Registering A Work

In other words, if you want to obtain a legal copyright status for your new Bible version, you would have to "SUBSTANTIALLY" change your work, from other existing original works (i.e., previous Bible versions). And they must be "CREATIVE" unique changes, not just minor alterations. I'll show you some of their Satanic creativity in a moment. May I say, God's Word is not as wild game in a forest for anyone who wants to go hunting and kill it. No one has a right to get creative to change God's inspired Word (Proverbs 30:5-6). Even worse, they're doing it for money!

How can any group which attempts to translate the Holy Bible, be honest and scholarly when they are forced to "substantially" change the work to creatively differ from existing Bible versions? And then those rotten LYING Bible-butchers claim that it's a "LITERAL TRANSLATION." What a pathetic joke! What injustice to the inspired Holy Scriptures!!!

Since there are already literally hundreds of copyrighted English Bible versions (all of the Devil), any new Bible versions are going to have to be butchered substantially and uniquely to qualify. My friend, you should be outraged and alarmed as I am, if you love the Lord Jesus Christ. Literally anybody who wants to publish a new Bible version is legally forced (if they want to publish their own exclusive version that is copyright protected) to significantly CHANGE THE WORD OF GOD!!!!!! That is wicked and wrong.

Of the hundreds of English Bible's available today, most of the publishers claim theirs is a "LITERAL TRANSLATION." Since the versions all differ considerably, and theologically conflict oftentimes, how can they all be a "LITERAL TRANSLATION"? Obviously they cannot! It's a bunch of shady marketing tactics. The truth (as I have just shown you) is that in order to receive a legal copyright, Bible translators and publishers are legally REQUIRED to butcher God's Word, making significant and substantial changes to receive a copyright. That's the ugly truth!!!

What an evil and wicked thing to do, intentionally corrupting the Word of God to make a buck, which the Holy Bible calls "filthy lucre" (1st Peter 5:2). I hope you see how evil and criminal in God's eyes all of this Bible-tampering really is. Nothing is more important to God than His holy Word. Psalms 138:2, "I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name." Yet, men and women are so reckless and hardened in their hearts, that they flippantly corrupt the Word of God to sell their own exclusive copyrighted version.

When you consult the 13 different Bible versions on your bookshelf, you get a wide array of conflicting ideas, contradictions and CONFUSION. 1st Corinthians 14:33 tells us that God is "not the author of confusion." The Devil is the author of confusion!!!

Beware Of The Ungodly Religious Racket

2nd Timothy 3:5, "Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away." There are billions of religious people throughout the world who have never been born-again. There are over one billion Roman Catholics who have a form of religion, denying of the saving Gospel of free grace. Romans 1:16,

"For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." The Gospel is THE POWER of God to every one who believes it!

The world is full of religious people who play church but deny the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Sadly, this includes hundreds of millions of professed Christians! This includes the dangerous [9]cult at Pensacola Christian College with their counterfeit plan of salvation. PCC requires lost sinners to follow and obey God instead of their self-serving sins to get to Heaven. PCC requires unsaved people to turn from their sinful bad habits to get to Heaven, which is a false gospel. PCC are religious frauds! Tragically, the [10]Sword of the Lord wickedly bids PCC Godspeed. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

Our Wicked Treasonous Federal Government

I have been absolutely disgusted to watch 8,500,000 illegal aliens flood into the United States since President Joe Biden took office in 2020. It is obvious to me that Joe Biden didn't do this, he is merely the fall guy who will take the blame as he leaves office, doing the dirty work of the Luciferian group operating behind the scenes to destroy the Old World Order to make way for their New World Order. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) preaches a great sermon titled, " [11]Why The Antichrist Must Come Soon .

> "The real rulers in Washington are invisible, and exercise power from behind the scenes." —Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter, 1952
>
> "Today the path of total dictatorship in the United States can be laid by strictly legal means, unseen and unheard by the Congress, the President, or the people. Outwardly we have a Constitutional government. We have operating within our government and political system, another body representing another form of government - a bureaucratic elite."
>
> —Senator William Jenner, 1954
>
> "Fascism should more appropriately be called Corporatism because it is a merger of state and corporate power." —Benito Mussolini

I will never get adjusted or feel at home in this ungodly rotten sin-cursed world.

The Ungodly Wicked and Unreasonable Chase Bank

I bought a banjo in May of 2022. The merchant lied to me. He said I'd receive the banjo in 4 to 6 weeks or sooner. Well, it took 5 months! I had asked Chase bank (I have a VISA card with them) in August how long I have to file a dispute, but they said due to high call volume I'd have to wait for a response. They never responded. Chase has employees who are as lazy as all get out! From within my online account, I again sent them a secure message, asking the same question. They totally ignored me, again. I hate Chase bank and don't recommend them!

When the banjo arrived it was horrible. The intonation was so bad that it was unplayable. The strings (4 and 5) had a bad buzz. So I sent the banjo back to the store. The owner talked me into upgrading to a more expensive banjo, and I agreed. I had asked him twice how long it would take, but he wouldn't tell me.

That banjo took another 6 months because he had to order it from Deering. When the banjo arrived at the store in March of 2023, the owner said he couldn't send it to me because it was defective, having a bad buzz on string 5. He told me he would sent it out to a professional Luthier, but said the guy was very busy.

In September of 2023 I still didn't have the banjo and had had enough. I kindly asked for my $4,899 back. The owner insisted that I wait 90 days for a refund. I am hoping the man will honor his promise, but I have to wait to see. In September of 2023 I received a crazy letter in the mail from Chase bank, saying that they had sided with the merchant, and the charge was legitimate. I told Chase that I had never filed a dispute and didn't know what they were talking about. I didn't even have a banjo, so how could they say it was a legitimate charge? Chase's employees are so stupid, rotten and incompetent that they dropped the ball, causing all of this. I am still bewildered how insane this whole mess is!

Evidently, someone at Chase decided to file a dispute without saying a word to me. Nobody ever asked me for supporting documentation, which I could have provided to them, showing that the store owner lied to me concerning when I would receive the banjo. I had simply asked Chase on August 11, 2022 how long I had to file a dispute, but they never answered my question, saying that they were backed up due to high call volume. Nobody cared at Chase! I didn't hear a word from Chase for one year, until they sent me a retarded letter in September of 2023 to say that they sided with the store owner (for a dispute that I never even filed, nor did I ask Chase to file a dispute). This is insanity!

I may be out $4,899 because of Chase bank. This is the wicked world that we live in today. 2nd Thessalonians 3:2, " And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith."

I've Been Cheated And Defrauded By Many Thieves

Years ago I purchased a used Sho-Bud S-10 (single neck 10 string) pedal steel guitar for $1,500. I sent the guitar to Indiana and paid the man $1,300 (using my PayPal as he requested) for him to rebuild the pedal steel guitar. A year passed and I never heard from him. I had since learned that he had cheated over a dozen musicians, keeping their money and guitar. Sure enough, he stole my $2,800. I told the man that he could keep the money, because I had read that he had cancer and I felt sorry for him.

As a Christian, I always try to show compassion on people. I just asked the man to please ship my guitar back to me, even if it was in pieces, I didn't care. He kept lying to me, promising that I'd get it in "2 weeks." But he never kept his promises. Then he changed his phone number and didn't give me the new one, but I got it from a fellow member of the Steel Guitar Forum when this evil man preyed upon his victims. Long story short, he cheated me out of $2,800 and there was nothing I could so, except expose him in the Steel Guitar Forum.

Just to show you how rotten people can be, when I told the fellow members of the Steel Guitar Forum what this wicked man in Indiana had done to defraud me, a horrible member of the forum posted photos of how nice a job this crooked man had done rebuilding his guitar years earlier, rubbing it in my face that his guitar came out real nice. That is the Devil, wickedly mocking someone in their pain and calamity? I was sickened a couple years ago

Thieves, Thugs, Liars And Incompetent Cops

When I was married (1987-2006), my former wife told me how she had been hit by a car when she was younger before we got married in 1987. She was coming home from work. It was raining. An elderly man didn't see her crossing the street and he accidentally struck her and her frail body was hurled 25 feet onto the asphalt. She said a car of punks then drove by with the windows down laughing at her as they drove away. Those are the Devil's children.

That reminds me of this recent horror story in 2023, about [12]two evil punks who intentionally drove over a retired police officer and murdered him. As you can see in the preceding video for yourself, the two monsters laughed in the victim's families faces in the courtroom. My father was so right, who once said to me after watching the local Chicago news: "

People can become real monsters without Jesus Christ.

" Dad was right! That is why my favorite Bible verse is Proverbs 4:23,

"Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." Pastor Jack Hyles used to say that anybody is capable of committing any sin under the right circumstances. Dr. Hyles was absolutely right! The preacher was right!!!

In 2018, two teenage boys (age 14 and 19) in Cocoa, Florida, heard a 31 year old man crying out for help as he was struggling in the water to stay alive. The ungodly boys laughed and refused to call for help, taunting the man saying, "You're going to die!" The man did die. The spoiled boys recorded the man drowning and uploaded it to YouTube. The boys weren't charged because there is no law against laughing and doing nothing to help a dying person. And to clarify, the 19 year old is not a boy, he was a young man (male better said) and should have been charged. No real man would have committed such wickedness. Cowards!

I have been financially cheated time and time again. I have shared one story with you, but there are many more. In 2004 someone(s) stole my car when I lived in Chicago's gang-infested Logan Square neighborhood. Someone(s) broke into my garage and stole my air-compressor. Back in February this year, thieves stole my brand new $75 propane tank from my yard. They vandalized my home, removing and breaking the cover for my internet connections. I now have a padlock on the cover. I have locks on all my gates. I now have a 6 foot 3/8" hardened steel chain around my barbecue, propane tank and a solid big pole in my yard. I have a table in my yard that I chained to the chainlink fence. It is a shame that we have to live like this in the world, but Jesus warned us in Matthew 6:19-20 that thieves would break thru and steal from us. That motivates me to work even harder on my website ministry, laying up treasures in Heaven as Jesus exhorted believers to do (also, 1st Corinthians 3:8-9).

So far this year in 2023, I have been robbed three times in Pensacola. The thief (thieves) even stole my King James Bible that I bought at Pensacola Christian College's bookstore in 2021.

What hurts so much is that the thieves stole all my Bible notes that I had taken in church. The thieves stole my 2 portable radios (which cost me $150), an $80 MP3 player and about $40 in audio cables. They stole about $500 worth of stuff from my car. They were amateurs, likely teenagers, because they didn't steal my OxyContin pills. I had cleaned the car the day before and forgot to lock my doors, so the alarm was disabled. The thieves came during the night. All Honda FIT models since 2016 now have a cool feature called Walk Away Locks (when you walk 5' feet away from your car, it automatically locks the doors). Unfortunately my Honda FIT is a 2013 model and doesn't have that nice security feature. I HATE THIEVES!!!

When I called the police the next day, the jerk cop who came to my house to file a police report, horribly scolded me when he saw that I put my prescription drugs in an unmarked container. That scared me half to death, thinking I was in trouble. It's bad enough that I was the victim of a robbery, but now the attending police officer was more concerned about my prescription medications. After he left, I went online because what he had told me made no sense, since they are my medications. Sure enough, that cop was wrong and since the 1980's Florida law permits putting one's own prescription drugs into any unmarked container. I called the sheriff's department and asked the police officer to confirm the law, which he couldn't do. He gave me his promise that he would go check and then call me back, which he never did. That man is a liar!!! A man is only as good as his word, which is utterly shameful for a police officer. I know why he didn't call me back, because he was too proud to admit that he was wrong about the law. Sad, really sad.

The officer dusted for finger prints in my car while he was at my house. he told me that the assigned detective would call me with the results. No one called. After a couple weeks I called the sheriff's department. The female cop on the phone was surprised that no one had called me. She said she took notes and would have the detective call me. No one ever called me. This is sadly the rotten world that we live in today, when hardly anybody cares anymore. Jesus foretold in Matthew 24:12, "And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold." After over 50 years of legalized abortion, murdering human beings in the womb, our whole ungodly culture has become uncaring, desensitized to sin and coldhearted. With all the homosexual sin, gender-bending insanity and perversion in our society today, fewer people care today than ever before. Sadly, [13]many of the police don't care anymore. Respect for the police is [14]at an all-time low today.

I can't wait to go home to be with my blessed Savior, Lord and God. His precious name is Jesus. I recently told a family member that back in July of this year, when I needed to make a trip to the local Emergency Room due to stabbing pain under my left shoulder blade and in my right side (flank), I was happy thinking that I might be told I had 3-months to live. I'm serious. The doctor ordered a CT scan to see if my right kidney was failing. I was hurting in so much pain all week that I thought I might be dying and I was happy. Going to Heaven and leaving that giant insane asylum called earth sounds great to me! Philippians 1:21, " For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain." You can't scare me with Heaven. I am ready to meet my Maker.

I know and rejoice that my name is written in Heaven in the Lamb's Book of Life (Luke 10:20).

Do you have that wonderful peace dear reader? Do you KNOW 100 % that you are a born-again child of God. If you don't know, you CAN know. Getting saved has absolutely nothing to do with the way you live, going to church, giving up your sinful bad habits, et cetera. Here is the Gospel: God says that we are sinners and that no amount of good works or behavioral changes on our part could ever make us holy enough to enter Heaven. God sent His only begotten Son to pay for all of our sins. Jesus paid for our crimes by dying on the cross for us all. His dead body was buried in a grave. On the third day, Jesus arose from the dead. The instant you believe this, He knows it and He saves you. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on Me hath everlasting life" (John 6:47). The free gift is based solely upon your trust in what Jesus did for you and has nothing at all to do with what you do for Him. "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast" (Ephesians 2:8-9).

Jesus said in John 16:33 that we would have tribulation in this wicked world. It is inevitable. I have shared some painful past memories with you, things that I wish hadn't happened. Yet, I rejoice that I haven't suffered some of the horrible things that other people have endured, [15]like poor Katie Stubblefield. Nothing in my life can compare to her suffering and loss. I heard yesterday that [16]18,484 Palestinians have bene murdered by Israel in just 2 months. That is so evil, needless and wrong! Shame on Israel. Back in February of 2023 there were 50,000 people killed by strong earthquakes in Turkey and Syria. Death is a part of life. Yet, Jesus also told us in John 16:33 to 'BE OF GOOD CHEER' because He has overcome the world and is risen from the dead. In other words, BE OF GOOD CHEER in knowing that we have a blessed hope in Jesus Christ!!! That is my happy thought each day, and motivation to keep going and to work harder on my website ministry, because JESUS IS RISEN!!!

I am so sick of the pride, laziness, incompetence, liars, fools, irresponsible people, corrupt pastors who are brutish (lacking good sense), and wickedness everywhere we go today. It has become almost impossible to find honest business nowadays. The credit card companies are thugs, as greedy and corrupt as can be. Wall Street is a massive blatant racket! The crooked criminal banks cost American taxpayers trillions of dollars in the 2008 housing scandal. Nobody went to prison, but thousands of thieves should have. I hate this wicked world (1st John 5:19). The little guy who breaks the law goes to prison, while the famous and rich get away with their crimes.

I know of a Baptist pastor who was sentenced to 12 years in prison for having consensual sex with a 17 year old young woman (and he went to prison for over 11 years); but if your name is Frankie Valli, Steven Tyler (2 girls), Roman Polanski, Frank Sinatra or Elvis Presley, they are above the law. Go search for those names online and you see that all of them have been accused of underaged sex. Polansky admits to drugging and having sex with a 13 year old girl, but Hollywood producers are above the law. Steven Tyler also admits what he did, claiming that he had a right because he was a 16 year old girl's legal guardian (which is an insane defense). Rich and famous people are rarely prosecuted for their crimes and hardly ever go to prison.

When 77 year old singer [17]Willie Nelson was arrested in 2010 for marijuana possession, the female judge in Texas let him go with a small $100 fine. You and I would have gone to prison. Personally, I don't think marijuana should have ever been outlawed. The government has no business telling us what we can consume. Our government has no business trying to be doctors and needs to get out of the medical business. The government has no business being in the education business. Our federal government has grown way too big and out of control. Now they're destroying our nation's sovereignty by flooding tens of millions of illegals into the country. A nation without borders ceases to be a country. Read the following quote and you'll understand why our wicked government has done this woeful evil to us...

> "To achieve world government, it is necessary to remove from the minds of men their individualism, loyalty to family tradition, national patriotism, and religious dogmas." —George Brock Chisholm, in a Speech given at the, Conference on Education, Asilomar, California, September 11, 1954

I get frustrated often by all the wickedness, unfairness and indifference—wicked pastors who preach a false gospel and refuse to heed the truth, corrupt Bible colleges who use and promote the Devil's perverse Bible revisions, our lying and treasonous government who open the borders for millions of illegals to flood into our country, mean people who are jerks, insane nuts who try to convince children they are the wrong gender, the forming police state and abusive bully cops, punks who run over people and laugh while driving away, flash mob robberies across the country, panhandlers everywhere we go, banks who hurt people, et cetera, et cetera, et cetera—American society is headed for the dust!

> "There is a deep and mysterious depravity today which defies description. In the history of nations which now lie in the dust of the forgotten past, the same type of depravity that destroyed them is rampant now in America. The same type of mysterious, deep depravity that has brought other nations to the dust, is now in this country. ...This whole society is rotten and godless. The wrath of God is upon America. Mark my word: if God's Word be true, this nation is headed for the dust."

4.12.13 Can America Survive? (2023-12-13 23:02)

“Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.” —Proverb 14:34

[1]

By Dr. Tom Malone Sr. (1915-2007)

(Faithful Pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church in Pontiac, Michigan)

The Pitiful Threatened Demise of a Powerful Democracy (Preached in 1971)

“Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.” —Proverb 14:34

Thinking about Proverbs 14:34, “Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.” should cause one to do some real heart searching. “Reproach” here means shame and misery. In other words, God is saying, “Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin brings shame and misery to any nation.” Since the Bible is true, our country is headed for shame and misery. If the Lord tarries a few more years, it could be in the lifetime of most of us sitting here.

I have a question: Can America survive her awful diseases? Can America live as America lives today and last until the turn of the century?

I have often tried to imagine what it would be like. Suppose the Lord tarries another few years: What will America be like? If one can discern the symptoms and trends of today, God pity the people if 2000 ever comes on God’s calendar. Can America survive? “Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.” - Proverb 14:34. I would like for you to notice four facts dealt with in my introduction.

1. GOD REQUIRES RIGHTEOUSNESS IN A NATION

Here is something few people think of. Righteousness is required of God in nations. You say, “I thought it was of individuals”. It is true God deals with individuals. If you are saved, you are not going to be saved as a company, or as a family, or as a nation but as an individual. You alone must deal with Christ in the matter of His righteousness, which you need in order to go to Heaven. But the Bible plainly teaches that God requires righteousness of nations. When God gave the Ten Commandments in Exodus, six of them dealt with man’s relationship to God. But when God gave the Ten Commandments, He did not give them to individuals but to the nation Israel. God’s Decalogue, God’s great system of laws, His Word by which man is to live, was not given to individuals. I know that God passed it on through Moses, but God gave it to a nation. To that nation, He said, “Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.”. So keep in mind that God does not just require righteousness of individuals; God requires righteousness in nations. We do not have that righteousness in America today.

2. THERE ARE SUCH THINGS AS NATIONAL SINS

We speak much about the sins of individuals, but the Bible speaks much also about the sins of nations. There is such a thing as a national sin.

For instance, just imagine the various besetting sins of certain sections of the world, and go around this encircled globe - you find great besetting sins in different parts of the world. In fact, the most prominent sin of the English-speaking world is probably that of drunkenness. England, with her pubs; America, with her bars. The English-speaking people are the drunken nations of the world. God pronounces woe upon those who look upon the wine when it is red. The English-speaking world has the sin of drunkenness and, of course, as a result of that, a multiplicity of sins follow.

In the Eastern world, there is the awful sin of idolatry. In the Western nations of the world, men have made with their hands gods of wood and stone and silver, to replace the one true God.

A great part of the world is characterized by another great besetting sin, that of infidelity, which is in the communistic world today. The nations in communism say that the Bible is not true, that Jesus is not divine, that there is no efficacy in the cross, that there is nothing to Christianity. So, the Bible plainly teaches that there is such a thing as national sin.

3. THERE IS SUCH A THING AS NATIONAL DECAY

We do not interpret the Bible in the light of history; we interpret history in the light of the Bible. If one studies the Word of God and meditates in it, he sees history written before it ever happens. And the Bible plainly teaches the reality of national decay.

There was a time when Babylon ruled the world. From the city of Babylon, there was a world power. There was powerful Nebuchadnezzar. There was wicked but powerful Belshazzar. It is said that no foe could ever storm and take this city. Babylon, it was said, would stand forever. But one day God pronounced judgment on her.

Those walls were so thick that they were called the impregnable walls. So thick were they that three chariots of horses could race around them side by side at one time. Outside the walls were great watchtowers, one every 250 feet. Around that vast city were the Hanging Gardens and the banquet rooms of infamy. Babylon said, “We will never perish. We will rule the world. We will live forever. We don’t need God.”. But one day God from Heaven spoke. “And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees’ excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah” (Isaiah 13:19). God said, “You are a mighty nation, but I will bring you into the dust as I brought Sodom and Gomorrah into the dust.”

Walk among those ruins of Babylon today: every mute stone cries out “Amen” to the Word of God. It says, “...neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there”. No man shall dwell in that city. There are only remains today. The judgment of God has come upon the nation of Babylon and it exists no more, as the Bible predicted.

I wish I had time to deal with many other such nations. As you travel throughout many parts of the world, you see what are called the Roman columns. These columns were erected all over the known world, because Rome ruled the world. They called Rome the Imperial City, built on seven hills and surrounding the Tiber River. Rome had a vast empire. A great stone in one of the buildings of Rome - it is there today - is called, "the marking stone" or "the milestone", and every road had distances on it, meaning it is so many miles to the heart of the Imperial City.

Today these columns are broken and the buildings have come to ruin. Fifty-five million people live in Italy today as a common power and as a small nation that has no great significance in the world. Listen! God brings nations to ruin and decay. If this Bible be true, it says that "righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people."

God has brought that proud nation into the dust. Let us think of our forefathers. I do not mean on this continent, but rather our forefathers who came mostly from Great Britain. Great Britain was a world power, the greatest colonial power the world had ever known. Out from England went missionaries to all the world. God blessed England. She brought civilization to many countries.

But England today is a common power. Her great colonial system is nothing now but a dream. It has all been washed away under the judgment of God. Oh, yes, "Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.". We have reached an hour that no Christian one hundred years ago would have believed. We have reached an hour when we are sending missionaries to Great Britain.

The land of the Wesleys, Whitefield and Spurgeon is a land of infidelity. They say that only two percent of the people there ever darken the doors of the house of God.

Much that is destroying America came from England. In your time and mine, from England have come the hippies, the long hair, the loose morals in high politics. God has brought that nation to its knees. "Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people." God has done it in the past. If this is a divine principle of the Word of God, can America survive? What will America be like if Jesus tarries until the year 2000? I am talking to you today about the absolute destruction of a democracy and I will be able, with the Word of God, to prove that today.

4. THERE IS SUCH A THING AS NATIONAL JUDGMENT

Individuals are going to meet God in judgment. Revelation 20:12 and 15 describes that judgment that is spoken of throughout the Bible.

"And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works...And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire." But the Bible teaches that God will bring nations to judgment. In Matthew 25:32 we read: "And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats..." Now keep these four things in mind:

1. God requires righteousness.
2. There is such a thing as national sin.
3. There is the reality of national decay and ruin.
4. There is such a thing as national judgment that God will bring upon nations themselves.

The psalmist one time asked: “If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?” (Psalm 11:3). We are seeing right before our very eyes the foundations, the things that make nations great, being destroyed. I will deal with several of them. I think of them as monstrous termites that are eating the very heart out of America and bringing more rapidly than any of us can possibly imagine, the sudden demise and destruction of the greatest democracy the world has ever known. There are several of these awful and powerful and destructive sins.

I. LIBERALISM IN PROFESSED CHRISTIANITY

The first one that I would like to deal with needs not one part of a sermon but many sermons to fully deal with it - liberalism in professed Christianity. Departure from the revealed truth of the Word of God always has and always will bring about the destruction and ruin of any nation. Liberalism in professed Christianity.

Something has happened in Christianity that the Lord Jesus said would happen. The Lord told seven parables about the kingdom of Heaven. The church is not the kingdom of Heaven. There is a distinct difference. We will not be technical about that. But the Lord established some principles so we could know what it is always going to be like in professed Christianity.

Unsaved Leaders

For one thing, Jesus told this parable saying, “But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.” (Matthew 13:25). America is a religious nation, but America is a lost nation. Most of the profession is tares. Little of it is wheat. That is the condition we find even in the professed churches today. Blind Leaders of the Blind

We find in America today blind leaders of the blind, that is, men who profess to be called of God, men who profess to be prophets, teachers, leaders in the truth. But Jesus spoke of them in Matthew 15:14: “Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.” We have these two things: many millions of unsaved amidst professed Christianity, and many leaders who are blind. My guess would be that there are more unsaved religious leaders than there are saved. If you doubt that, go to some of the pastors of your city and ask them point blank, ”Have you been born again? Are you sure today that you are on your way to Heaven?” I am talking about liberalism in Christianity. A Compromise of Truth

A poll was taken. According to a magazine called Christianity Today for October 13, 1967, we read:

> “Western Reserve sociologist, Jeffrey Hadden, contacted 10,000 Protestant clergymen in the United States, asking them what they believed. Of the tabulated results of this poll of 10,000, there were 7,441 replies. This Protestant minister’s survey is the most alarming I have read in many years.
>
> Read on:
> “These ministers were asked the question: “Do you believe in Jesus’ physical resurrection from the grave in the same sense that you believe that Abraham Lincoln was assassinated? In other words, do you believe that Jesus’ resurrection is a historical fact?” “Fifty-one percent of the Methodist ministers in the United States said they could not accept Jesus’ resurrection from the grave as historical fact. Thirty percent of the Episcopal priests of America could not accept it, nor could 35 percent of the United Presbyterian preachers, 33 percent of the American Baptist preachers and 13 percent of the American Lutheran preachers...” I would remind you that the Bible says that if Jesus be not risen from the grave, then we are of all men most miserable. So we have a compromise of truth.

Perhaps many of you saw this article in The Detroit News, dated Monday, August 9, 1971. The headline read,

> “A LEGEND SAYS - JESUS DIED IN JAPAN AT 112.” The only redeeming thing about it, though still inexcusable, was the word “legend”. That is all it is - and it is not even a good legend. Nevertheless, hundred of thousands of people saw blazoned across a leading newspaper of America a great question about the historical fact of Jesus Christ, a legend which says that Jesus died in Japan at 112. This legend says He made two visits to Japan, learned much of His so-called trickery there, and it intimates that that is what His miracles were. When He found out He was to die, He had a brother who said, “I will die in Your place.”. Supposedly, after two days in the grave, He and another stole the body.

Thus, here was an attack on the redeeming death of Jesus and His bodily resurrection from the grave. Here it was blazoned across the front of a leading newspaper of our country. The church sits idly by and takes the things of God very lightly, while America is literally having its heart eaten out. Oh, may God bring us once again a mighty sweeping revival which is the only hope of our country!

There is a principle by which you can know whether people are saved and by which you can know whether a denomination or church or religious organization is real or not. In the second epistle of John we read, “Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he had both the Father and the Son.” Now this doctrine is that Jesus was God’s Son. This doctrine is that Jesus was totally divine, as much as the Father and the Holy Spirit were. Read on: “If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds” (2nd John 9-11). Not many people in America today will take that stand.

The Capitulation of Christian Schools and Colleges

We have seen in our lifetime the capitulation of Christian schools and colleges. I know of a preacher, now in Heaven, whole son came home from a religious school and said, "Now Dad, if Jesus was the Son of God, why so-and-so?". The preacher took his son, got into his automobile and drove out a ways. It was in the days of the old-fashioned running boards. They got down on their knees out in the woods and placed the old Bible on the running board of the car and made out of it a mourner's bench. It is said that that preacher lifted his hands toward God and, with tears streaming down his face, cried, "O God, I would rather be dead than to have an 'if' in the belief of my boy! O God, take all the doubts out of the mind of my son as to who Jesus is." And God did it that day.

We need to make every chair, every couch, every seat, every square foot of our environment an old-fashioned mourner's bench and come back to God before it is too late. I am talking to you today about liberalism in professed Christianity, which is definitely a ruination of any country. How can you have righteousness without the truth? How can you have righteousness without a firm belief in the inspiration of the Bible?

"Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people."

II. THE COLDNESS AND WORLDLINESS EVEN IN THE TRUE CHURCH

We have been talking about liberalism in Christianity. I want now to talk about a fundamental, local, New Testament church like this one and others, scattered across America. There is coldness and worldliness even in these churches.

Jesus predicted that it would happen, in Matthew 24:12: "And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold." This is the day of "situation ethics". This is the day when people say, "everyone's doing it; so why not me?". The Bible says, "And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.". Now folks, we have reached that coldness in the true, fundamental churches of America. I know organizations of fundamental, Bible-believing churches that are sound in the faith but dead. Coldness leads to liberalism. You can't stay cold and stay true. If you are cold, you will soon depart from the truth. "And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold." Saved people are cold to each other. I see in the true church of Jesus Christ men struggling for their own personal benefit. There is a coldness toward each other, a no-care attitude about other Christians, and a disregard for the true body of Christ. God knows there is a coldness toward lost souls. How few Christians really care that multitudes are without God.

There is a coldness and an indifference to old-fashioned Bible preaching. God said, speaking to Isaiah, "Lift up thy voice, cry aloud, spare not, make my people know they have sinned." You think of God's admonition in 2nd Corinthians 6:14, "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers..." You think of Christians being joined in lodges and associations with unbelievers. You think of Christians in business with unbelievers. You may not be able to find a grocery store run by Christians. The mechanic who works on your car may not be a Christian. The man who cuts your hair may not be a Christian. I am not talking about a Utopia but about a communion. God said there is never to be a communion between a saved and an unsaved person. "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers..." Here is what God says we are to do about it: "Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate..." (vs. 17). You say, "What is the answer to it?" That is the answer. I am preaching to people who belong to modernistic churches. I have people tell me, "I don't hear the truth where I go." But you keep going! You send in your money. You help support it. You pay a man of the cloth to speak who denies the Bible. So you are as guilty as he is. "Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate..." is the answer.

Folks, worldliness and coldness have come even into the true churches. You see it in the imitation of the world. First, I mention immodest dress. God knows the women of America are helping to send this country to Hell. Women, God bless you! We love you and we want to respect you, but for God's sake, dress like a Christian. Paul wrote in 1st Timothy 2:9 and 10: "In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works." Why wouldn't a Christian woman want to dress modestly? Some of you don't like it, and you will whisper back and forth at the dinner table. But some of you want to be like the world. The people around you are going to Hell because you are no different from the world There are coldness and worldliness even in the church.

Let me tell you something else and I say it in love. You may say, "You don't love men with long hair.". Oh yes I do! But the Bible says in 1st Corinthians 11:14, "Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?" And the word "nature" there is "instinct". What the verse is saying is, "Does not even instinct itself teach us it is a shame for a man to have long hair?". That chapter is dealing with the fact that a lady ought to have long hair and that her covering before God is her hair. The same chapter says that instinct teaches us that it is a shame for a man to have hair like a woman. This long hair on men and short skirts on women are not pleasing to God.

We need to clean up. Don't give me this old line, "Jesus had long hair". All you have seen are pictures not more than two or three hundred years old, some artist's conception of what Jesus looked like. Don't give me that line. We don't know whether Jesus had long hair, or sideburns, or what! but the Bible says it is a shame for a man to have long hair. While talking to someone the other day about the discipline and dress code in our school, this one said, "You mean people will put up with that?". I said, "Put up with what?" "Put up with what you put them through." I said, "We are not going to put them through anything but a happiness mill. They are happy that way.". The most miserable people in the world are these folks who go around crabbing about the establishment because they want to be different. If you want to be different, get saved, get an old-fashioned revival in your heart, get a Bible under your arm and some tracts in your pocket and start soul winning and going to church. Folks will say, "Well boy, that fellow sure is different, isn't he? In fact, I believe he is a little nutty!" Then you will really be enjoying it, right up to the hilt!

Another thing is the fear of emotionalism. I am still talking about coldness and worldliness even in true churches. Some folks are so scared that someone is going to get stirred up, while I am so scared that they are not. I pray all the time, "O God, stir people up." Listen, if a man says "Amen," then he ought to live an "Amen". But there is coldness and deadness in the church. Some folks are scared they are going to weep. You know, preachers see some things that you folks never see. I have seen someone about to get blessed; then all of a sudden he realizes what is happening and he doesn't want it to happen. I have seen them nearly choke to death to get those tears out of the way. "Oh, no! This happen to me? Get blessed and shed some tears? Oh, no!" The Bible says, "They that sow in tears shall reap in joy." It says, "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him" (Psalm 126:5, 6). Someone has said, “If the church were on fire, the world would come to see it burn.” O God, help us to get it on fire! Help us to see the fire of God come upon the church of the Lord Jesus. God, stir our hearts. As I look at my daughter and my sweet grandchildren, I can hardly keep from weeping. After I am gone, they are still going to be here. What will it be like?

If any thinking person will study the trends that are in America today and think a few years beyond this present moment, he is bound to admit that we are headed for chaos and trouble. God’s Word is true: “Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.” There is absolutely no national righteousness in America today - from the White House to the poorhouse. We as a nation are void of national righteousness. This country does not deserve to be called a Christian nation in any sense of the word. It does not have any of the characteristics of a Christian nation. “Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.”

III. INFIDELITY OR ATHEISM IN HIGH PLACES

A few decades ago a few people called themselves atheists, saying, “There is no such person as God.” They were a distinct class of people. They would stand on the street corners. They were the soapbox speakers. They would gather crowds in the parks and talk about atheism. These were led by such men as Bob Ingersoll and others. You don’t find that so much today. A more sophisticated type of atheism is abroad in the world. It finds its hotbed and its seeds of propagation in the schools and colleges of America. The psalmist has said, “The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God” (Psalm 14:1). I used to hear a great man of God say, “Only a fool would be capable of making such a statement.”

Now there are many fools (using God’s definition and terminology). Instead of a few people on soapboxes and street corners, literally thousands of educated, intellectual people in the colleges of America would tell you flat out, “There is no God.” Atheism runs rampant is America. “The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God.” Now I am not an authority on Hebrew nor Greek, but in the verse where it says, “The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God.” two words are in italics - “There is.” The literal rendering is, “The fool hath said in his heart, No God.” Notice what he said: “No God for me.” The fool said in his heart, “I don’t need any God. I don’t want any God. I don’t believe there is any God.” Notice where he says it: In his depraved heart. He does not come to an intellectual conclusion that there is no God. No one ever has. No one ever could. It is not an intellectual conclusion. It is a condition of a wicked, sinful, dirty heart that says, “I do not want any God. As far as my mind is concerned, there is no God.” Why does he say it? Because he knows if there is a God, he is headed for Hell and for trouble.

Today we have a sophisticated type of atheism across this land. Some sixty years ago atheism began to reach its prominence in a most subtle way in America. It started out with a great battle over whether evolution is a fact or a theory. Evolution has been taught in the schools of this country for the last sixty years - from the wee grades of elementary school right on through college.

You cannot be an evolutionist and a believer of the Word of God at the same time. Evolution is not just a theory; it is a wicked attack against the Bible. More than that, it is a wicked, personal attack against the very person of God Himself.

For example, the Bible says, “Let us make man in our own image.”. The Bible says that God made him out of the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and he became a living soul. Now evolution says that man came from a lower form of animal. God says, "I made him, and I made him like I am, a trinity - soul, body, spirit." The spirit never dies, the soul is God-consciousness, and the body is physical. God made him that way. When a person teaches evolution and claims that evolution is a fact, he is making a personal attack on God Himself and against the Bible. That in the past brought ruination to nations.

IV. THE PERIL OF HUMAN DEPRAVITY

You rarely hear from the pulpit some of the things that I am going to mention next - the peril in this country of human depravity. The bible speaks of the depraved nature of all of us. Each is a child of Adam. Five verses of Scripture show that all human nature is depraved.

Romans 3:10 says, "As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one." Then verse 19 says, "...that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God." God said, "Do like the leper did. Put your hand over your mouth and offer no excuse. Just admit that you are a sinner. Admit that you are lost.". That is what this verse means. Verse 22 says, "...for there is no difference..."— not a bit of difference in the world. I am talking about human depravity. When you see the drunk man stagger down yonder into the gutter, you say, "How pitiful." But the fashionable lady with her silks and satins and perfume and her riches and luxury who has never been born again is as lost as the drunkard in the gutter or the harlot in the red-light district. "There is no difference," God said. We are all depraved.

Then in verse 23 God culminates this teaching by saying: "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God..." So the Bible teaches that all humanity is depraved.

There is a deep and mysterious depravity today which defies description. In the history of nations which now lie in the dust of the forgotten past, the same type of depravity that destroyed them is rampant now in America. The same type of mysterious, deep depravity that has brought other nations to the dust, is now in this country.

Abnormal Sexuality

First, there is an abnormal sexuality in America. Call it what you will. You would not believe how many homosexuals there are in America. Some are in high places. Some are in politics. Some are millionaires. The whole human structure of society is shot through with an abnormal, godless, wicked sexuality that God abominates. Recently I was in California to bring a commencement address for a theological institution at the close of the school year. A preacher, rather laughingly, yet seriously, said to me, "Now this is a nice little hotel, and it is conveniently located. But you are in San Francisco, and surrounded by people who are abnormal.". I have never seen such a seething mass of depravity in my life!

The next morning when I was getting ready to come back to catch a plane to Detroit, there was a fine-looking man in the lobby of the hotel. A taxi had come up. Across the street was a bus station and one of the busses went to the airport, but a taxi had been called.

I said to this man, "Sir, are you going to the airport? I would like to share the taxi with you." He immediately turned and walked away without answering. As he went out the door to get in his taxi, I went out the door to go across the street to catch a bus to the airport. He watched me all the way across the street.

Some Christian friends of mine were out at the airport and I was telling them of this experience. I said, “That was an unfriendly sort of fellow. He wouldn’t even answer me.” My friend said, ”Dr. Malone, it was the neighborhood you were in. He didn’t know you. This whole section of the city is known for men who approach men.” That is true all over this country. This whole society is rotten and godless. The wrath of God is upon America. Mark my word: if God’s Word be true, this nation is headed for the dust. Listen to Romans, chapter 1. Three times in that chapter it says, “God gave them up.” Think of it! God said, “There is no hope for them, I am through with them. I can’t reach them.” Three times we read that “God gave them up.” Listen to it: “For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was meet.” - Vss. 26, 27.

This verse mentions the abnormal sexuality of women with women and men with men. Go ask any law officer, go ask someone who works in a jail or prison what goes on there.

Some years ago I kept reading of prisoners committing suicide. There is no telling how many in our Wayne County jail in twelve months’ time are found hanging by a belt or rope or with their throats slashed or wrists cut. Why? Even though they are criminals in the jails and prisons of America they cannot stand to live in the awful depravity. Murders are committed in the prisons.

When I preached a week at the prison in Jackson, Michigan, I talked to people by the scores. Some 135 men in five nights publicly confessed Christ as their personal Saviour. Some told me, “Dr. Malone, there are people murdered in this prison because they will not submit to godless sexual acts with other men.” That is the kind of society we have. You are saying, “Preacher, that is the abnormal thing. That is the rare occasion.” No, that is the kind of society we have in America. It is widespread. It is everywhere. It is going on in high society, with well-to-do people, people with college degrees.

Even some churches sanction this. Some are known as churches for the homosexuals of that area - on the West Coast and elsewhere. How do you think God feels about that? We don’t have just an ordinary depravity; we have a deep and mysterious depravity that is bound to bring us to ruination, just as sure as God is on His throne. Amorality

A few years ago people began to talk about the “new morality”. There is nothing new about it. The “new morality” is the old immorality! In fact, I think a better description of it is amorality - that is, no morals at all. One morning this week I pointed out to Mrs. Malone that there had just been a beauty contest for the nudist people, and a married woman from the state of Michigan had won second place. You say, “Well, preacher, that is a bunch of queer people. I have never known one of them and I have never seen one of them.” But this is not rare. It is going on all the time.

This past week my phone rang and a lady I didn’t know said, “Preacher, I want to ask you a question. My husband tells me that he does not object to nudity and he tells me that I am old-fashioned. He even tries to quote the Bible to me. He says Adam and Eve were unclothed. I want to talk to someone who believes the Bible. Do you think he is right?” I said,

“There is not only something wrong with nudity; there is something wrong with your husband! He has a depraved mind. Anyone who can endorse that sort of thing is as godless as the people who participate in it.” Here is an item from the Pontiac Press, August 9, 1971. Mr. Harold Fitzgerald has several editorials. Here is one. Now this is plain. I quote Mr. Fitzgerald:

> “It seems to me pornography and dirty pictures are setting an all-time record. The writer just received a pamphlet urging the purchase of an illustrated book and the blatant excerpts were shown. Use your own imagination and the very lowest things you can think of between men and women were there in startling and disgusting frankness. You can’t conjure anything lower or more despicable than these pictures. Once the individuals marketing these would have been slapped in prison. Now it isn’t true.”

This newspaper man says we’ve gone the limit. From time immemorial, certain characters have peddled pictures of girls scantily dressed. But that day is gone. Now they wear nothing at all. And they engage in the lowest connections that man and woman can have. Then there are other things here that I would not read to a mixed audience. It is in our paper and it is all true. It all needs to be pointed out. Just as sure as you sit in this room, there is a deep and mysterious rottenness, the like of which has never been in this country.

Drugs

Think of the drug traffic in America. Who would have thought fifteen years ago that we would have come to the place in the use of drugs - from elementary school children on up - that we have come to.

I have a number of things to say about this. I wish I had time to deal with all of them. Here is an editorial I clipped out this week: “Unless concerned citizens act soon, this nation is going to reach the end of the road!” It goes on to say, “America has an immense social problem of immeasurable magnitude, although relatively unknown a few years back, which is rapidly pushing her to the brink of disaster.” Listen to this:

> “Laconia is a typically staid New England community of about 15,000 inhabitants in the southeastern central section of New Hampshire, a few miles north of the state capital, Concord. Probably it would not normally be thought of as a den of iniquity! Yet in a front-page article in the New Hampshire Sunday News just prior to graduation, Earl O. Anderson, a highly respected newspaper veteran, reported the results of a poll which showed that of the city’s 204 high school seniors, almost half were on illicit drugs! Although 4 percent more girls used marijuana than boys, 19 percent of the latter were already on the so-called hard drugs, compared with 10 percent of the girls (REMEMBER - THESE ARE 1971 FIGURES! THE INCREASE IN THE YEARS SINCE IS STAGGERING).

There are many comments about it that follow. It goes on to say, “Can you imagine what this nation will be like in just a few years if nearly half of today’s high school seniors (tomorrow’s leaders) are on illicit drugs? And if the situation is such in a conservative country town like Laconia, what must it be like in cities such as Detroit, Los Angeles, New York, Denver, St. Louis, San Francisco, Atlanta, Miami and Houston - to mention a few?" Every day's newspaper is filled with it. Here is an article taken from the Detroit Free Press, August 11, 1971.

"Rich Beauty Dies an Addict." This is one of the saddest stories I have ever read. A young woman, multi-millionaire, mother of a beautiful little boy, died as a result of drugs in her life. The papers are filled with it.

I say the truth - God knows it's true: I have mothers and dads call me from other churches and say, "Dr. Malone, I am embarrassed to talk to my pastor. I have a young person on drugs in my family. In God's name what can I do?". A young man came to me, glassy-eyed and said, "Could I talk to you, Mr. Malone?" I went up into my office with him and he told me his name. His people are one of the finest families in Pontiac.

He said, "Preacher, don't betray my confidence.". (I never would.) "I am twenty-years of age and on drugs." There he was, his arms and hands bony. He turned them over and said, "Look here.". There were marks all over both arms. Then he looked at me with those eyes that seemed to look far away and said, "Preacher what does God think about a young man like me? Preacher is there any hope for a young man like me?". I could not help but weep. Someone's son!

I said, "Yes, there is hope for you.". And we got down on our knees and I put my hand on him and I prayed, "O God, deliver this young man.". I begged him to let me come to his home and help him further. But I have never laid eyes on him since. Oh, let me tell you, just as sure as there is a God on His throne, this country is headed for trouble.

Do you know that twenty-thousand American soldier boys every year are being mustered out of the service because they are drug addicts! Then you say to me, "What is going to happen to this country?". The judgment of God is going to come upon it. I don't care how many airplanes we have, nor how many missiles we can put in the air - "Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people."

Live-in Marriages Our country is filled today with what is called common law or live-in marriages, when a boy and girl start living together without a marriage ceremony. I know some people who have raised a family and have grandchildren who have never been married. Such people have called me who have heard me on the radio and said, "Preacher, can you marry us? We want to get our lives straightened out. We have never been married.". When people have no respect for the institution of marriage, it is only a matter of time until that nation disintegrates.

V. WHAT IS THE ANSWER?

You say to me, "Preacher, is there an answer?" Yes, thank God, there is.

A Biblical Home Life

First of all, we need a Biblical home life. God knows that perhaps all of us parents have failed in some measure.

There are four things about the American home today that are ruining it.

1. The lack of male leadership. God ordained that the man be the head of the home. A man who is a man ought to be the head of his home.

2. Women working outside the home. Now some of you, God bless you, are as good women as ever walked in a pair of shoes. But the Bible says, “Let the women be keepers at home.”
3. Discipline. Our children today run wild. They have no rules, no discipline.
4. We need in the homes of America some influence. We need influence toward Christ! We need godliness on the part of mother and father. We need family altars.

I read a little poem the other day.

“PLEASE, DADDY LET’S GO”

A little girl with shining eyes,
Her little face aglow,
Said: Daddy, it is almost time
For Sunday school. Let’s go!

They teach us there of Jesus’ love, Of how he died for all Those who on Him call.” “

Oh, no!” said Daddy, “not today. I’ve worked hard all week; I’m going to the creek, For there I can relax and rest,
And fishing’s fine they say.

So run along; don’t bother me. We’ll go to church someday.” Months and years have passed away
But Daddy hears that plea no more - “Let’s go to Sunday school.” Those childish days are o’re.

And now that Daddy’s growing old, When life is almost through,
He finds some time to go to church -
But what does Daughter do?

She says: O Daddy, not today -
I stayed up almost all night;
I’ve just got to get some sleep. Besides, I look a fright.”

Then Daddy lifts a trembling hand
To brush away the tears,
As again he hears the pleading voice
Distinctly through the years.

He sees a small girl’s shining face Upturned, with eyes aglow,
As she says, “It’s time for Sunday school - Please, Daddy, won’t you go?”

A lot of members of this church seldom darken its doors. So don’t be surprised when your children become drug addicts and criminals. That is what it leads to. So, first, the answer to the problem is a Biblical home.

A Revival in Our Churches

Secondly, the answer is an old-fashioned revival from Heaven. II Chronicles 7:14 says: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then I will hear from Heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

God knows we need a revival. I am not talking about a meeting with some high-powered personality who operates in the energy of the flesh. I am talking about a revival that comes from God, causing people to quake in His presence and search their hearts and confess their sins and set out to evangelize the world. We need THAT kind of revival.

A Personal Devotion

We need a personal devotion on the part of all who honor His name, that makes us good Christians.

I was so thrilled to go into a hospital room this week to see one of the members of our church. He and another man were in that room. I spoke to the man I did not know and asked him if he were a Christian. He said, "Yes, I am." I said, "Have you gotten acquainted with Mr. So-and-so?". And I called this man's name who is a faithful member of our church. He said, "I sure have. He is God's man. He is really some Christian. Preacher, you ought to be proud of him."

I said, "I can't tell you how proud I am of that kind of testimony." We need Christians with a personal devotion for Jesus Christ. We need to win the man, woman, boy or girl who is in this awful, deep, mysterious depravity.

I would like, in closing, to tell you a true story about a sixteen-year-old boy. Everybody called him "Jimmy the Rat". When he was only a sixteen-year-old farm boy in Indiana, someone introduced him to opium. Before he was out of his teens, he had sunk to the depths of addiction's depravity, earning the title "the Rat" because of the long cupboard shelf he used for a bedchamber. Eventually he ended up in a Clark Street dope den in Chicago. To a passerby, the establishment was merely a Chinese laundry operated by a John Lee. But down in the cellar, housed in wooden bunk beds which lined both sides of the room in double tiers, the addicts were confined.

Jimmy the Rat, along with other human derelicts, lived only for the oblivion produced by the shots of morphine, heroin, opium and cocaine. He was a white-faced, shrunken skeleton wrapped in skin, unloved and unwanted by society.

One Sunday afternoon he heard from the Pacific Garden Mission singing outside:

> Though I forgot Him and wander away,
> Still He doth love me wherever I stray;
> Back to His dear loving arms would I flee,
> When I remember that Jesus loves me.

I am so glad that Jesus loves me,
Jesus loves me, Jesus loves me,
I am so glad that Jesus loves me,
Jesus loves me, Jesus loves me

Quietly, trying to slip out without being detected, Jimmy unlocked the door and made his way to the open air. Standing on the Mission's Gospel Wagon was a burly giant who was testifying: "This here Pacific Garden Mission crowd prayed me back to a decent life and..." At that moment a hand reached out from inside the establishment and dragged the hungry-hearted Jimmy back in.

Fearing Jimmy might get religion and inform on their illicit traffic in dope, a huge man started beating on him to a pulp before he croaked and the police started investigating.

Thinking the task had been accomplished, they carried him from the opium den and dumped him behind a stack of lumber on a side street. Somehow Jimmy got to his feet and staggered to the mission. Arriving just as the congregation was concluding a song, he started up the aisle crying, "I want somebody to pray for me!"

Christ saved him! Later he returned to Indiana, married and became a successful farmer and father, while he continued giving a glorious testimony regarding the saving grace of God in Christ. He eventually dropped his nickname because of his children. They grew to maturity praising God in prayer, "Thank You for the Pacific Garden Mission where Daddy learned to know Jesus."

My robes were once all stained with sin,
I knew not how to make them clean
Until a voice said, sweet and low,
"Go wash, I will make them white as snow."
That promise, "whosoever will", Included me, includes me still.
I came, and ever since I know
His blood has made me white as snow.
I have washed my robes in Jesus' blood and He has made them white as snow.

Jimmy, the Rat, became Jimmy, the saint of God. That is what can happen to any lost sinner who believes in Him as Saviour!

"Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people." — Proverb 14:34

4.12.14 It's The Pastor's Job To Preach, Not To Build The Church (2023-12-14 14:19)

2nd Timothy 4:1-5, "

I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.

For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry. "

It is the pastor's job to build the church. I have been listening to Pastor Steven Anderson's Wednesday evening Bible study series on the Old Testament book of Zechariah. Today I listened to [1]Zechariah 6 and [2]gleaned this excerpt using audacity (a freeware program). Brother Anderson is exactly right in this matter. Please listen to the brief sermon clip.

When I attended the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam in 2018, I was excited whenever I had the opportunity to share the truth with other believers. Jesus said in Matthew 12:34b, “ for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

” I love the inspired Holy Bible. I am far from perfect, but I love God’s Word.

Psalms 119:139-140, “ My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words. Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.” David said he loved God’s Word because it is very pure.

” That is why I know that all of the Devil’s hundreds of English modern Bible revisions are all corrupt, because they are NOT very pure.

See for yourself how corrupt the modern PERversions are...

The Holy Bible Corrupted To Obtain A Legal Copyright

When I attended the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam in 2018, their pastor was an intern pastor from Pensacola Christian College. His name is Sean Quinlan. I attended the church for several months. After church I would often fellowship with other Christian brethren. They would share things they had learned from the Bible with me, and I would share truths I had learn with them. Little did I know that Pastor Quinlan was eavesdropping on my private conversations. I humbly think he was jealous of me, that I could teach the Word of God with authority, but he couldn't because he doesn't study. When I asked him about Jesus' blood, he didn't even know if Jesus' blood was sprinkled on the heavenly Mercy Seat. That is a bad pastor!

A Shameful Pastor Doesn't Contend For The Faith

One Wednesday night after church I was in front of the church talking with a man named Bill. I warned him about the corrupt Bibles being used, sold and promoted by Bob Jones University (BJU). When Pastor Quinlan heard me mention BJU, he became angry. He butted into my conversation with Bill and accused me of trying to usurp authority over his church members. I apologized for offending him, explaining that I was just talking with a friend.

Pastor Quinlan said that he'd been eavesdropping on my conversations for several months, and then he horribly accused me of being

"obsessed over the Bible issue

" I was disgusted by what he was saying, since he had admitted to me weeks earlier in a private conversation that he couldn't even show me one thing wrong with the new Bible versions. What an incompetent pastor! Since he rebuked me in front of his church members, I rebuked him back with the truth.

I truthfully told him in front of everyone that Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (a cesspool of BJU graduates) are preaching the Devil's lies of Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation) and promoting the Devil's Bible versions. He snapped back and defended Harvest and BJU, saying that it is none of our business what they do at those places. This disgusted me utterly. I firmly told him that he ought not be bidding Godspeed to a cult of Calvinists and Bible corrupters! Ladies and gentlemen, it is our business as saints what local churches and the Bible colleges that train their pastors are preaching and teaching.

The Pastor's Job Is To Preach The Truth, Not Build A Church

Pastor Quinlan then said that he was trying to "build a church

" and wrongly accused me of bringing controversies into his church (by me warning people about the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions). I then realized that I was speaking with a FOOL and I obeyed the Scripture in Proverbs 14:7, Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge." I shouted as I walked to my car and peacefully drove away for the last time. I never attended that shameful church with a carnally-minded shameful pastor again, but I will continue to warn people about Sean Quinlan.

SHAME ON YOU!

Pastor Quinlan is in trouble with the Lord for wickedly bidding Godspeed to false prophets. 2nd John 1:11,

"For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." Like the dangerous cult at [5]PCC who preach another gospel, Pastor Quinlan is indifferent toward doctrinal error and couldn't care less about exposing false prophets. One good thing is that Quinlan resigned as intern pastor of Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam in 2018, and he skedaddled back to work at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), which is false prophet headquarters. I now live in the city of Pensacola (since 2021) and can smell the stench of their corrupt college all over the city! [6]PCC is a religious cult who preach a counterfeit gospel.

Kindly said, Pastor Quinlan's horrible error is that he has the wrong attitude he's trying to " build a church,

when he should have been preaching THE TRUTH (as I have been faithfully doing since 2002 when I began my website ministry). I have never tried to build a ministry,

” I have always preached THE TRUTH, come what may. I have never tried to keep web visitors or tickle anyone’s ears to get them to stay. I have never asked for or accepted a single penny of money for my labors for Christ, nor will I ever. My work is a labor of love for God, people and truth.

Persecuted For Preaching The Truth

When [7]I labored voluntarily in Chicago from 1993 to 2001 as the assistant pastor of Grace Mission Church (helping my father), I wasn’t trying to help “build the mission” (which was legally a church). I preached THE TRUTH, which eventually got me kicked off the mission board and I lost my ministry in 2001. My neo-evangelical father (a Moody Bible Institute graduate) called the shots, since he was the rescue mission director. I loved my father and just wanted to help him anyway that I could.

I always respected my Dad and never tried to go against his ministry decisions. It was essentially his ministry that he started, I voluntarily serving the Lord by helping my Dad for 8 years. He had a Lutheran pastor and a Freemason on his board of directors. I was invited to join the Freemasons along with my father. I declined the invite, knowing that Freemasonry is a Satanic cult, but sadly my father accepted the invitation. Freemasons are like cockroaches, infesting men with their Luciferian organization everywhere they go.

Lucifer (Satan) is the god of Freemasonry. I hate the Masonic demon cult!!!

Ignorant people think Freemasonry is just a mere good old boys club , but that is a lie of the Devil. You cannot be a member of Freemasonry and be right with God. I love my father, but we parted ways in 2001 (which was his decision alone). I received a horrible letter in the mail signed by my father, the Freemason and Lutheran pastor, kicking me off the mission board. The last thing that the Lutheran minister ever said to me was:

“You and that King James Bible heresy!”

It was a badge of honor being rejected by a bunch of wicked religious men because I am King James Bible only. I never looked back! In 2002 I began my website ministry and have put my hand to the plow ever since, moving forward laboring night and day for the Lord Jesus Christ.

Luke 9:62, “ And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.” To God be the glory.

My heart’s desire since the day I gave my life to serve God in church at age 15, has been to PREACH THE WORD. 2nd Timothy 4:2, “Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.” I don’t preach my opinion, I preach God’s Word. My preaching is none of my business! My heart’s desire has always been to PREACH THE TRUTH, not build anything. Jesus Christ builds the ministry. Psalms 127:1, “Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.”

My Duty As A Minister Is To Preach The Truth, Not Build A Ministry

My job as a preacher is to PREACH THE WORD, the Lord builds my ministry. I couldn't care less about my websites, I care about preaching THE TRUTH, come what may. I work as hard as I can to maintain my ministry websites, but they mean nothing without the truth that helps people. My websites are merely tools, a means to an end of helping people for Christ. I don't pray for my websites, I pray for my web visitors! When I drop dead someday (in God's time), my ministry websites will all expire within one year, when the hosting plan expires. I can renew my domain names for up to 10 years in the future, but I cannot renew my hosting plan for more than one year at a time. That is why I started my blogs in 2020, so that my writings will still perpetuate online after I have graduated to Heaven. It could be today, we never know. Retired football player [8]Brad Henke suddenly died in his sleep in 2022 at age 56, my age.

The dear people whom God has led to Christ through my ministry blogs and websites will be blessed forever! The hundreds (perhaps even thousands) of people who've come to know Jesus Christ as their personal Savior (through my humble ministry labors), will be there to greet me in Heaven, when we all get there (Daniel 12:3). That will be my greatest reward in Heaven. My websites and blogs are not my ministry, YOU are dear friend. 2nd Corinthians 3:2-3, "Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men: Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart."

The pastor's job is to preach the truth of God's Word, not build a church. Christ will build the church if the pastor is faithfully preaching the truth as he ought. God knows that I do not hate Pastor Sean Quinlan and the PCC family, but they have the unbiblical attitude that their graduates are supposed to build ministries and churches. That is WRONG! The preacher's job is to preach the Holy Bible, proclaiming the truth regardless of the results. Christ alone builds the church, not the congregation or pastor.

Pastor Sean Quinlan's Utter Shame

Pastor Quinlan was greatly offended that I was showing people what is wrong with the Devil's Bible versions, and that I was warning others about corrupt institutions like Bob Jones University who sell them. Quinlan wrongly rebuked me, accusing me of tossing a monkey-wrench into his efforts to "build a ministry." When a pastor, church congregation, missionary or Bible college prioritizes building their ministry over preaching THE TRUTH, then money almost always becomes an issue and they sinfully compromise.

Tragically, Sean Quinlan hurt the people at the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam, by elevating himself as a " builder of a ministry

" rather than a

preacher of the truth.

Jesus preached the truth and people turned away and left Him. Jesus didn't care about offending people by telling them the truth. The Bible says many of Jesus' followers went back and abandoned Him. Then Jesus looked at His twelve disciples and also asked them if they were going to leave too. John 6:66-67, "From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?" Our dear Savior wasn't interested in building an organization, building a club, building his reputation or building a church at the expense of THE TRUTH. Jesus told the Samaritan woman at Jacob's Well that God cannot be worshipped in error, heresy and falsehoods; but only " in spirit and in truth

" (John 4:24b).

It is tragic that PCC is foolishly training their students that building a ministry is more important than preaching the truth. If Sean Quinlan had been right with God, he would have thanked and commended me for contending for the Christian faith. Instead Pastor Quinlan counted me as his enemy and saw my truth-telling as a threat to the ministry that he was trying to build. His exact words to me were, "I'm trying to build something here, so I don't want any controversies in my church." I told him that I thought he meant stuff like the 9/11 World Trade Center attacks. He replied, "That's a conspiracy, not a controversy." Oh boy, you've got to be kidding!

I learned the hard way that Pastor Quinlan considers warning fellow church members about the Devil's Bible versions as a risky " controversy

" that could split the church. He even told me that he was worried about me causing a church split. Isn't that shameful? I was dumbfounded and still am 5 years later. I mean, if there is one place in the world where you should be able to safely TELL THE TRUTH, you'd think it would be in an independent Baptist church. Sadly, it is not so today; most pastors will show you the door if you TELL THE TRUTH (Galatians 4:16).

I have since moved from Guam to Pensacola, and attended Campus Church at PCC for a few months in 2021, and have sadly learned that [9]PCC doesn't even have repentance or the Gospel correct . I never thought when I moved to Pensacola in 2021, that I would need to add PCC and their Campus Church to my list of apostate institutions that I must preach against and expose for corrupting the Gospel (Titus 1:13-14). RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

Kindly said, PCC and Sean Quinlan are serving their belly, not the Lord Jesus Christ. Romans 16:17-18, "Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple." PCC and their alumni are false teachers who use their good words (being friendly and nice) and fair speeches (cunning and carefully scripted words) to deceive the hearts of the simple (everyday common people who are unlearned in the Scriptures). The Bible says they serve their own belly, imitators who masquerade as serving Jesus Christ.

It is tragic that over 95 % of pastors today are merely attempting to build a church ministry, when they should be focused upon preaching THE TRUTH. Jesus Christ alone builds the church! No preacher will ever be worth a dime until he is willing to preach the truth regardless of the consequences. That is what is wrong with Christianity today—we've got a bunch of incompetent clergy who are only concerned about making more money, growing a ministry and impressing cult headquarters at some accursed Bible college—but they don't prioritize preaching the truth that may offend people, decrease their popularity and shrink the size of their ministry and income. May God give us such faithful men of God again!!!

God knows that I love Pastor Quinlan and his family and don't hate a living soul. I didn't publish this blog to attack anyone; but rather, to emphasize the truth that we need Bible preachers today who will PREACH THE WORD (i.e., THE TRUTH - John 17:17), rather than merely focus on building a church at the expense of the truth. If telling THE TRUTH that Bob Jones University is selling corruptible seed (the Devil's Bible PERversions) and that is a "controversy" that might cause a church split, then so be it!!! Christian fundamentalism was doing a whole lot better back in the old days when we regularly had church splits!

God pity the gutless shameful pastor who is more concerned about having a church split, than he is about warning people about the Devil's corrupt Bible versions and the wicked Bible colleges that promote them.

4.12.15 The Damnable Church Of Christ Cult (2023-12-15 01:21)

Mark 7:7-9, "Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do. And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition."

The False Plan of Salvation of Don Blackwell

Acts 15:1, "And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved."

In his YouTube presentation titled, "[1]WHAT MUST I DO TO BE SAVED?," Pastor Don Blackwell teaches that there are SIX steps to be saved (Oh boy!); namely:

1. hear (the gospel)
2. believe
3. repent
4. confess
5. water baptism
6. live faithfully

SOURCE: [2]What Must I Do To Be Saved?, by Church of Christ minister, Don Blackwell

In sharp contrast to Don Blackwell's 6 steps to salvation, the Bible simply proclaims...

> Acts 16:30-33, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway."

The Bible tells us in Acts 16:33-34 that the saved Roman jailer took Paul and Silas to his own home, and there he washed their wounds where they had been whipped and beaten. The Bible says that the jailer and his family were all saved and baptized. Please note that Paul's answer to: "What Must I Do To Be Saved?," did NOT include water baptism. In the Bible, contrary to what Don Blackwell claims, people were always water baptized AFTER they received Jesus as their personal Savior. We also see this important truth confirmed in Acts 8:36-38, when Phillip told the Ethiopian eunuch that he could only get baptized in water if he first believed (trusted) that Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son of God (note: all of the Devil's modern Bible revisions wickedly remove verse 37, corrupting God's Word).

Mr. Blackwell errantly answers the exact same question of "What Must I Do To Be Saved?" as the Bible asks, but why not just accept the biblical answer? There are NOT six steps to salvation; but rather, just one, and that is to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 16:31b).

In his excellent book, "I NEVER KNEW YOU," Michael P. Bowen states . . .

> You can live for Christ, you can love Christ, you can serve Him with all your might, time, talent and wealth. You can pray to Him, read your Bible, get water-baptized, join a church, witness to people, and do every wonderful work contained within the realm of Christianity, but if you fail to trust Jesus Christ alone for your salvation, He will “dump” you.

Blackwell Corrupts the Meaning of “Repentance”

Don Blackwell errantly teaches that repentance unto salvation includes three things:

1. a change of mind
2. godly sorrow
3. a change of life (fruit of repentance)

SOURCE: ’[4]What Must I Do To Be Saved?,’ by Pastor Don Blackwell

Kindly, Mr. Blackwell makes the same theological error that so many other Bible students make, which is to expand on the simple biblical meaning of “repent” (Greek noun: metanoia) concerning salvation, which means “a change of mind. The Greek verb form, metanoeo, means “to think differently.” The Bible does not require sorrow over sins to be saved. Sorrow is not repentance, it is penitence.

> True repentance has nothing to do with “turning from sin” and everything to do with “acknowledging one’s sinfulness” (Jonah 3:5). Like the thief on the cross who simply acknowledged his sinfulness (Lk 23:39-43), the only part a person has in salvation is the beggar’s part.
> SOURCE: Pastor Brad Strand, “The Strand Study Bible,” p 1939

In the video Blackwell defines repentance as: “a change of mind produced by godly sorrow resulting in a change of life.” Sadly, that is the same [5]damnable heresy taught at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) today. That is not the biblical meaning of repentance concerning salvation. Sorrow is an emotion (feelings) that develops over time AFTER a sinner is saved. As a new believer grows in the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ (2nd Peter 3:18), God gives the feelings. This has nothing to do with being saved itself, which is a free gift (Romans 5:18).

The Bible plainly teaches in Romans 3:19, “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.” All that God requires of a person to be saved concerning [6]repentance is that they become guilty before God. When you repent, you change your mind from what you want to do to get to Heaven, to what God says you must do to get to Heaven. Hebrews 6:1 calls this “repentance from [7]DEAD WORKS.”

Furthermore, repentance unto salvation doesn’t require “a change of life” as Don Blackwell and PCC errantly teach. If a changed life is necessary for the new birth, then eternal life absolutely cannot be called a “ free gift ” (Romans 5:18). Tragically, what Don Blackwell and PCC are errantly teaching is exactly what [8]heretic Chip Ingram teaches . My friend, salvation is a new birth—a supernatural miracle of God in response to a man's faith in the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ (John 1:12-13). Salvation is instant, just as the physical birth is instant. You get saved immediately by faith in Christ (which is justification - Galatians 3:26), but becoming Christlike takes a lifetime (which is sanctification and service - Romans 12:1).

Many preachers are teaching a false plan of salvation today, turning salvation into a process. This is commonly known as the heresy of "[9]The Perseverance of the Saints," popularized by Dr. John MacArthur and originally taught by heretic [10]John Calvin (1509-1564). Salvation is received, not achieved. Eternal life is a free gift, paid for by Jesus' precious literal blood, which has been sprinkled on the mercy seat in Heaven (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 10:1, 12:24).

[11]Evangelist Paul Washer is another theological heretic and infidel, criticizing the practice of writing down the date and time that a person is saved. Mr. Washer has adopted the same unbiblical idea that a person's behavior must confirm their faith in Christ to be legitimate. Such nonsense turns salvation into a reward instead of a gift, although they are in denial and still call it a "gift." A gift is a TAKE proposition, not a GIVE proposition. You simply take it and it's yours! If I were to give you a birthday gift, but then require you to live a certain way to prove that it is yours, it wouldn't be a gift in any sense of the word. You don't hear these neo-evangelical frauds today using the word gift very often.

Please understand that repentance is not a separate step to getting saved. Some preachers, like Ray Comfort and Paul Washer, errantly teach that you should never merely tell someone to believe the Gospel to be saved, but also, they say you must tell them to repent of their sins (i.e., turn away from their sinful bad habits). This is unbiblical, because such teaching makes repentance an act unto itself, which they errantly define as turning from one's sinful lifestyle. PCC even calls turning from your sins "

The act

...

> "REPENTANCE — Now is the time to turn from your sin and embrace God. The act* of turning away from sin is called 'repentance.' This word implies an inward decision to follow* and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins. It means changing your mind about sin and seeing it as something that grieves God. The Bible says that God patiently waits for all people to make this decision." [emphasis added]

Unreal! Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is teaching damnable Church of Christ false doctrine!!! That is not the Gospel of free grace. Although repentance and faith are not the same thing, they are not separate acts. No one who has ever believed on the Lord to be saved did so without also repented, but repentance is simply a change of mind. You must change your mind to realize that you are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God (your Creator). And you must change your mind to admit that Jesus is the Savior, the only begotten (biological) Son of God. Jesus died on the cross for your sins, He was buried, and three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead. 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). BELIEVE this 'GOOD NEWS' (Gospel) dear reader and you are saved instantly, irrevocably and forever!

When Mark 1:15 says, “Repent ye, and believe the gospel,” it could just as easily be said, “Change your mind and believe that Christ died on the cross for your sins, was buried and rose after three days to be saved” (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). That’s all that repentance means, to change one’s mind. Stop trusting in your dead works, religion and self-righteousness, and believe the Gospel to have your sins forgiven. No one ever got saved who didn’t realize that he or she is a sinner. That’s what repentance is—seeing yourself as a guilty sinner in the eyes of a holy God. Repentance is seeing our need for the wonderful Savior (Galatians 3:24-26). That’s what the change of mind is about. You must see yourself as a needy sinner and Jesus as your only Savior.

You Don’t Need to Audibly Confess Anything to Be Saved

It is ridiculous that some preachers insist you must “ confess Christ

publicly to be saved, merely because the word “confess” is mentioned in Romans 10:9-10, “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.” This passage of Scripture simply means that you confess with your mouth because YOU ARE SAVED. There are hundreds of other Scripture passages throughout the inspired Word of God which speak of salvation without any mention of confessing Christ with the mouth.

You should never base a doctrine on a single Scripture. You need to make sure that the rest of the Bible agrees with your suggested interpretation. If it doesn’t, you’ve got the wrong interpretation!

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. We have the entire Gospel of John, which God authored to show us how to obtain eternal life, and no mention is made of confessing Christ to be saved.

I can give you Scriptural proof that you do not need to confess Jesus Christ to others to be saved. John 12:42-43, “Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.” There you have it, many of the religious chief priests did believe on Christ (i.e., they got saved), but they DIDN’T CONFESS JESUS CHRIST! Salvation is of the heart, not the mouth.

The sincere religious false prophets in Matthew 7:21-23 confessed “Lord, Lord,” with their mouth (there’s Lordship Salvation in the Bible), but they were as lost as the Devil. In response to a question from His disciples if many people were saved, Jesus replied in Luke 13:23-24 that “many” people will “seek to enter” into Heaven, but FEW WILL BE ABLE!!! Luke 13:23-24, “Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.” These are shocking Bible verses. Jesus taught that most people (including religious people) are going to the Lake of Fire. This truth is also taught in Matthew 7:13-14.

I do not mean to be unkind, truly, but Pastor Don Blackwell and every follower of the apostate Church of Christ are going to one day hear the horrifying words from Christ: "DEPART FROM ME, YE THAT WORK INIQUITY, FOR I NEVER KNEW YOU!!!" Can you imagine, spending your whole life serving Jesus Christ, just to find out that you did it all wrong and were tricked by Satan? That's what Matthew 7:21-23 teaches and warns. Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world! Those sincere folks preached about Jesus everywhere they went, just like the members of the Church of Christ do (and thousands of other false religions).

They boasted of having done "MANY WONDERFUL WORKS" in the Lord's name. That was the entire problem, they were trusting in their own self-righteous works instead of resting completely in the righteousness of God by faith alone in Christ. Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth."

I love the following precious Scripture, which plainly teaches that we are saved solely by GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS, which is through faith in Jesus Christ. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith." Don Blackwell specifies six requirements to be saved. In sharp contrast, the Bible simple says in John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." God only has ONE requirement, that you BELIEVE upon the name of His only begotten Son, Jesus.

But what about repentance, don't you also have to repent to be saved? Yes, of course, but repentance is simply a change of mind that compels you to believe on the Son of God. Repentance is not a separate act to be saved. The man who believes has repented, and the man who repents has believed. This is why we find the word "believe" mentioned 85 times in the Gospel of John, but the word "repent" is not mentioned even once. Repentance is simply acknowledging that you are a guilty sinner in the eyes of a holy God (Romans 3:19), and you concede that you cannot save yourself by your own human effort (Romans 3:20; Ephesians 2:8-9; Titus 3:5), and so you believe on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 13:30-31), who died for your sins on the cross, was buried and rose up three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Repentance and faith are inseparable. They happen simultaneously (at the same time).

You Don't Need to Be Water Baptized to Go to Heaven

The Church of Christ gets this doctrine wrong too. The false teaching that a person must be baptized with water to get to Heaven is called "Baptismal Regeneration." Being born-again is often referred to theologically as being "regenerated." Or as I like to say it, being born-again means to have He [Jesus Christ] who is the beginning born in you (Revelation 1:8).

The following strange doctrines by Mr. Blackwell are 100 % heresy...

> "I can't be saved first and baptized later, as is commonly taught by many. ... I can't have my sin remitted until I'm baptized. Therefore I can't be saved until I'm baptized. A man can't be saved until he has applied to himself the cleansing blood of Jesus." [emphasis added]

SOURCE: '[12]What Must I Do To Be Saved?,' by Church of Christ minister Don Blackwell

Kindly said, Pastor Blackwell is teaching heresy. You don't apply Jesus' blood to yourself. Jesus' blood is sprinkled on the Mercy Seat in Heaven in the presence of God the Father. Christ's blood has washed away our sins (only to them who believe on Christ) by appeasing the wrath of God. Romans 5:9, "Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him." There is not one verse in the entire Bible that associates water baptism with the blood of Christ. Don Blackwell is a total false prophet!!!

Blackwell heretically states that water baptism is how we come in contact with Jesus' blood. That's 100 % unbiblical...

> "We are washed by the blood of Jesus! Someone says, then where does baptism come into play? You see, baptism is where I contact the blood of Jesus. Jesus shed His blood in His death, and it is in death that I contact that blood." [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: [13]What Must I Do To Be Saved?, by Church of Christ minister Don Blackwell

Nowhere does the Holy Bible teach that garbage! You don't ever come into contact with Jesus' blood. The Lord's blood is applied to the mercy seat in Heaven!!! Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Blackwell further bizarrely states...

> "As a matter of fact, when a person suggests that someone can be saved without baptism, in reality he's suggesting that a man can be saved without the blood of Christ, because baptism is where I contact the blood of Jesus. And friend, every person that I read about being saved in the Bible and becoming a Christian was baptized in order to do so. And in many passages it is specifically stated."
>
> SOURCE: [14]What Must I Do To Be Saved?, by Church of Christ minister Don Blackwell

Genesis 15:6 says that Abraham believed the Lord and it was counted to him for righteousness. There's no mention of water baptism! The thief on the cross was never water baptized! The Epistle of 1st John was written so that believers could " KNOW YE ARE SAVED

" (1st John 5:13), yet no form of baptism is mentioned. It is wickedness to associate water baptism with Christ's blood for salvation. Paul even said in 1st Corinthians 1:17 that Christ DIDN'T send him to baptize; but rather, to preach THE GOSPEL.

Blackwell uses Acts 2:38,41, and Acts 8:38-38 concerning the conversion of the Ethiopian Eunuch. Also Acts 8:5 and 12 concerning the people of Samaria who got saved. He mentions Acts 10:47 concerning Cornelius. Acts 16:15 concerning Lydia. Acts 16 and the Philippian jailer. Acts 22:16 concerning the conversion of Saul. For an in-depth excellent exegesis on the subject, please read Dr. Max D. Younce's awesome book titled, "[15]A BIBLICAL EXAMINATION OF BAPTISM."

Don Blackwell grasps for straws, trying to make a connection in Romans 6:3-4 with Christ's blood sacrifice. Notice that the Bible simply says water baptism is "LIKE UNTO CHRIST," that is, it is symbolic of the Gospel, an outward profession of what has happened inwardly in our heart...

> Romans 6:3-4, "Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life."

Water baptism is NOT required for salvation.

The Bible cautions anyone who desires to teach the Word not to do so if they are un-skilled...

> 1st Timothy 1:4-7, "Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do. Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned: From which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling; Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm."

Mr. Blackwell also misinterprets Galatians 3:27 in an attempt to bolster his straw man heresy of baptismal regeneration. Galatians 3:27 speaks of the baptism into Christ, not the baptism by water...

> Galatians 3:26-29, For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

There are many different "baptisms" in the Bible. Luke 3:16, "John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire." In Acts 2:38, the apostle Luke speaks of the baptism of the Holy Spirit, just as he recorded John the Baptist foretelling in Luke 3:16. Please read, "[16]Handbook of Personal Evangelism" by Dr. Ray Stanford (1916-2012). Please also read, [17]Dr. Ray Stanford Refutes Baptismal Regeneration.

[18]Blackwell teaches that water "baptism is the doorway" to being placed into Christ. He basis this strange doctrine solely upon Galatians 3:27. Blackwell makes the popular error that so many people make, by taking a single Scripture out of context to support his false doctrine.

Blackwell's teachings are strange doctrine and heresy.

You Don't Have to Live Faithfully to Get to Heaven

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Eternal life is the gift of God. It has nothing to do with the way we choose to live. Please don't misunderstand, I'm not saying that any believer has God's permission to sin. Romans 3:31 addresses this very issue, telling us that just because we are no longer under the law of God, doesn't excuse us from keeping God's law. Hebrews 12:6-8 teaches that God chastises (not punishes) His children, and scourges them.

Yet, Christians DO have a license to sin, like it or not. That is to say, regardless of how a Christian chooses to behave, their eternal life is safe and secure in the PROMISES of God (Titus 1:2). Eternal life has nothing to do with how we choose to live. We are not saved because we are good, but because God is good. We are not saved by doing good works, nor are we unsaved by doing bad works. Salvation has [19]nothing to do with works. When asked what works were required to be saved, Jesus responded, John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, T*his is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent*."

It is a false plan of salvation to add human effort to partial faith in Christ. You must wholly lean on Jesus' name. Mr. Blackwell has utterly corrupted the simplicity that is in Christ by adding confession, water baptism, repentance from sinful activities and faithful living to get to Heaven, which are all human effort. The simplicity that is in Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4) is that you believe the Gospel with mere childlike trust in the Lord's promise to save them that believe. 1st Corinthians 1:21, "For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek."

If you come to Christ as a little child, receiving His sacrifice upon the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried but then raised up from the dead three days later, you are saved eternally. If you choose to live in sin as a believer (and we all still commit sin), then God will chastise and scourge you (Hebrews 12:6-8). We will one day all stand account before God at the Judgment Seat of Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11). No one has God's permission to sin (Romans 3:31), nor will God bless a disobedient child; however, this all has nothing to do with the free GIFT of eternal life through faith in Christ Jesus. Titus 3:5, "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost."

The "washing of regeneration" in Titus 3:5 has the same meaning as "but ye are washed" (by Christ's blood) in 1st Corinthians 6:11. This has absolutely nothing to do with water baptism. Please remember that no one in the Old Testament was ever water baptized. They did have some ritualistic cleansing according to Jewish rites, but this was not baptism. Water baptism is a command for the New Testament Church, just as is the Lord's Supper.

It saddens me that most people have made the grave error of adding (or combining) human effort with the Gospel, perverting it. God rejected Adam's fig-leaf religion. God rejected Cain's offering of grain from the farm field. In Numbers 15:32-35, [20]God required the death of a Hebrew man who broke the ceremonial law not to collect sticks on the Sabbath Day. The Sabbath is a type of completely resting in Christ alone for salvation (Hebrews 4:10-11). Man working six days a week represents human self-righteousness. By picking up sticks, it represented adding human effort to the Gospel. The execution of that sincere man who collect sticks, shows how much God hates it when anybody adds anything to Christ's finished work, and how much God will not tolerate doing so. All of these sincere preachers today who carelessly handle the Gospel and corrupt it, have blood upon their hands and will reap what they have sown (Galatians 6:7; Proverbs 14:12; Galatians 1:6-9).

Pastor Blackwell doesn't mention the gift of God in his 29 minute presentation. The Devil is a beautiful liar. Satan knows that the best place to hide a lie is between two truths. Nearly every false prophet today is in denial, professing to believe that we are saved by God's grace, while at the same time teaching that man has a part in his own salvation. Our only part is the beggar's part!

Do you really think that God would deny someone entrance into Heaven, because they didn't get dunked into a tank of water? YES!!!

Furthermore, if our behavior has an effect on going to Heaven, then we're all going to Hell forever, because James 2:10 says breaking even one commandment makes us guilty of breaking all of them! That is because nothing unrighteous can enter into the Kingdom of God, and just one sin disqualifies you and me. You must be 100 % sinless and perfect to enter into Heaven!!! Obviously no one has ever achieved that perfection (Romans 3:23). That is why we all need a Savior, someone who has perfectly kept God's law and is sinless, Jesus. Christ is the end of the law for all who believe (Romans 10:3-4). That is, if you put your trust in Christ, then God accepts that as being equivalent to you living a totally sinless life (no matter how wicked you have been in your earthly life). That is what Paul means in Romans 4:5, "

But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

" This is the imputed righteousness of God.

Do you know why so many people will miss Heaven? It is because the Devil cons them into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. Blackwell never mentions the need to be born-again by the Spirit of God (John 3:5-7). That is because he is preaching a Satanic works based plan of salvation which cannot produce the new birth.

My friend, salvation is a miraculous new birth—a second, irreversible, instant, permanent, spiritual, birth into God's family. Salvation is not reformation, nor education, nor legislation, nor rehabilitation; but rather, regeneration! [21]YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN!!! It may sound sacrilegious to say that a Christian doesn't have to live a faithful life to get to Heaven, but you must understand theologically that eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15, 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-10). We all know that NOTHING is free, not even eternal life. Jesus paid for your ticket friend, with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). Will you freely accept it by faith? You cannot earn nor merit a gift, if it's truly a gift.

Churches Of Christ Are A Satanic Cult

Although the Church of Christ denomination has branched off into various inter denominational groups over the 19th, 20th and 21st centuries, two of the most influential pioneers of their early movement are Barton Warren Stone (1772-1844), Thomas Campbell and his son, Alexander Campbell (1788-1866) of the [22]American Restoration Movement. These men were theologically corrupted ministers. [23]Barton Stone has a giant Masonic occult obelisk (see photo of obelisk on Wikipedia) parked on top of his grave in Cane Ridge, Kentucky. Barton Stone was an unsaved reprobate who denied the Godhead, deity of Jesus Christ and also denied that Christ died in man's place on the cross.

Evangelist Charles G. Finney rightfully forsook the Masonic lodge and wrote a [24]book and numerous [25]articles exposing Freemasonry's satanic nature. Dr. Finney addresses the problem of churches remaining silent about the evils of Freemasonry, and also addresses the sad fact that many churches have been infiltrated by the demonic religious cult...

> Those individuals and churches, who have had the best means of information, owe it to other branches of the church, and to the whole world, to take action and to pronounce upon the unchristian character of Freemasonry, as the most influential means within their reach of arousing the whole church and the world to an examination of the character and claims of Freemasonry. If churches who are known to have examined the subject withhold their testimony; if they continue to receive persistent and intelligent Freemasons; if they leave the public to infer that they see nothing in Freemasonry inconsistent with a creditable profession of the Christian religion, it will be justly inferred by other branches of the church, and by the world, that there is nothing in it so bad, so dangerous and unchristian as to call for their examination, action, or testimony. Before the publishing of Morgan's book, the Baptist denomination, especially, in that part of the country, had been greatly carried away by Freemasonry. A large proportion of its eldership and membership were Freemasons. A considerable number of ministers and members of other branches of the Christian Church had also fallen into the snare.

Countless multitudes of people are being deceived by the Devil, being sucked into Satanic cults which teach a corrupted plan of salvation that leads only to Hell. Sadly, [27]Charles G. Finney was also a damnable heretic on salvation. He was right about the evils of Freemasonry, but is wrong on the Gospel himself. Did not the Bible tell us that deceivers would be deceived? 2nd Timothy 3:13, " But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

The following websites are by the Church of Christ, teaching the same false plan of salvation as Church of Christ minister Don Blackwell: "[28]Searching For Truth"" and "[29]World Video Bible School." These are non-Christian websites, but you'd never know it unless you're knowledgeable of the Holy Scripture. Like the Seventh Day Adventist religious cult, Church of Christ discreetly hide their true identity to deceive naïve and gullible people. Many sincere people who were seeking for the truth are now burning in the fires of Hell because Satan's unrighteous ministers tricked them. I implore you dear friend to do what Jesus commanded us all to do in John 5:39—SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!!!

My friend, read what the Holy Bible warns us concerning false prophets who APPEAR as being righteous...

> 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15, "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works."

This raises the $64,000 question—how do we know which preachers are real or fake? The answer is to always "SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES" as Jesus commanded in John 5:39. Do your own homework. Remember that every false prophet will misquote Scripture to you in an attempt to deceive you. Satan himself misquoted (i.e., took it out of context) the Bible to Jesus three times in Matthew 4:1-10 in an attempt to trick the Lord. How did the Lord defeat the Devil? Jesus knew and quoted the Scriptures!!! Don't ever believe anything that anyone tells you, including what I say, without confirming it with your King James Bible (Acts 17:10-11).

I am only a man, I could be wrong. Albeit, if you are a born-again Christian you have the Holy Spirit of God living (indwelling) inside you, who promises to teach (John 14:26), comfort (John 14:16) and guide (John 16:13) us with the Holy Scripture. NEVER rely upon your own human understanding, which is exactly what the Scripture teaches in Proverbs 3:5-6, "Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

I did not write this article to be unkind; but rather, to "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints" (Jude 1:3b). I'm sure Don Blackwell is a good guy and very sincere, but the Bible warns us in Proverbs 14:12 and 16:25, "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." And so I say very kindly, beware of the [30]Church of Christ, [31]Churches of Christ, [32]Church of God, [33]International Churches of Christ and every other similar sounding name, because they all teach a false plan of works salvation, baptismal regeneration, sacramental salvation, reformation and Lordship Salvation heresies! Salvation is NOT found in any religion; but rather, in a person—the Lord Jesus Christ!!!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

4.12.16 Thy Father Which Seeth In Secret (2023-12-16 11:07)

Matthew 6:4, "That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly."

I was listening to Alexander Scourby (1913-1985) read the inspired King James Bible. Today I listened to the [1]Gospel of Matthew. When I heard our text passage from Matthew 6:4, the phrase "thy Father which seeth in secret" caught my attention. It encouraged my heart to be reminded in the Holy Bible that God is always watching me. God sees my labors done in secret, which nobody but Him sees. God sees my hurting soul, hurting body and loneliness.

It is in our sinful human nature to think negative, to become downhearted and discouraged. We have to work at developing a good habit of always trying to look on the positive side of life. I love the next Bible verse. Proverbs 15:3, "The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good." We are often reminded by preachers that God sees all of our sins and nothing is hidden from God; but the Bible also says that God sees THE GOOD.

God sees the little things that we do to be helpful to other people. God sees the small seemingly insignificant acts of kindness we do. God sees my ministry hard work (night and day) done for Jesus Christ, which I love doing. God sees when we abstain from sinning. He sees the efforts that we make to try not to sin, because we love Jesus (John 14:15). God sees and hears our prayers, no matter how small or seemingly trivial we may think they are (1st Peter 5:7-9). Job said that God counted his every step, and he understood that there's no way the Lord overlooked his sins. Job 14:16, " For now thou numberest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin? " But thankfully, God also sees the good that we do. Amen.

If you are a born-again believer, then God is your heavenly Father. If you are not saved, then the Devil is your father (John 8:44; Ephesians 2:1-2). Hebrews 4:13, " Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." Hebrews 10:31,

It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

" I don't know about you friend, but I don't want to be on the wrong side of right. I want to be on the winning side with Jesus Christ!

Romans 8:37, “ Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.”

God knows how many hairs exist upon your head. Nothing ever occurs to God. The Lord doesn’t ever remember something. He is omniscient (all-knowing). God doesn’t need a secretary to organize His business. We read in Revelation 20:12-15 concerning the Great White Throne Judgment, that “ the books

shall be opened...

> Revelation 20:12-15, “And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.”

There will be two books: the book with all of your works contained therein (both good and evil), and then the Book of Life. If your name is not found in the Lamb’s Book of Life (i.e., those who are saved - Luke 10:20), then your degree of punishment in the eternal Lake of Fire will be determined by the works written in the other book.

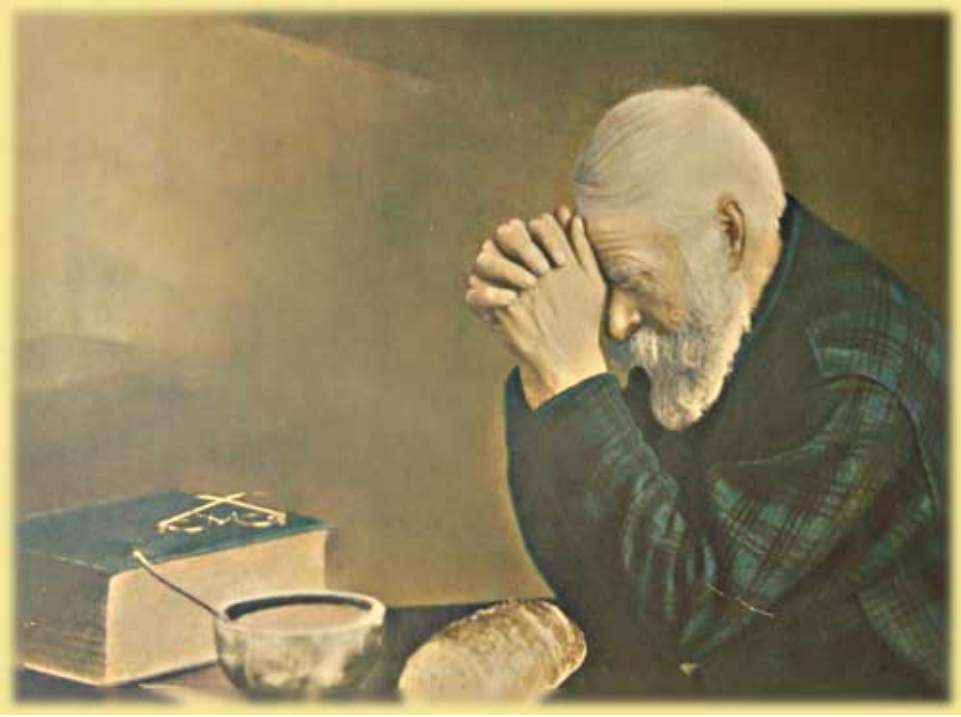
There is debate among theologians who will stand in judgment at this time. Most Baptists think that the Great White Throne of Judgment will only be for the unsaved. However, there will be many people saved during the Millennium (in which time Christ will reign for 1,000 years), so there will be needed a judgment for these saints. Some theologians think these saints will also be judged at this time. I truly humbly do not know, but from reading Revelation 20:11-15 I don’t see any mention of the saved appearing at this judgment. The Bible only mentions the lost. The important thing is to ensure that YOUR NAME is written in the Lamb’s Book of Life, which is there is you have been born-again by faith alone in the GOOD NEWS of Christ crucified, buried and risen (1st Corinthians 15:1-4; 1st Thessalonians 4:14).

So, be encouraged dear saint of God, because nothing in your life goes unnoticed by the Lord. He sees your grieving heart. God sees your pain of soul and broken heart. He knows your motives and whether you are sincere or not. Nothing is hidden from the sight of God almighty. There is not a single evil conspiracy which won’t be exposed in eternity and judged by God (Ecclesiastes 5:8). Nobody will get away with anything wrong which they have done.

There are millions of criminals who have done unthinkable evil things to hurt people, who have never been caught. There are murderers, rapists, thieves and kidnappers who have never been caught. It took California’s finest 40 years to catch the Golden State Killer, who murdered 13 and raped at least 52 known victims. Thankfully he got caught before he died and is serving multiple life sentence’s. But he was 75 years old when he was convicted. So there is no way that justice can be served in this world. Only God can truly punish that evildoer!



A young 17 year old man in Michigan, only 13 years old when he murdered 4 fellow classmates, was just sentenced by a court to life in prison without any hope of parole. That isn’t fair in lieu of the fact that the Golden State Killer murdered 13 people and didn’t get caught for 40 years.

He enjoyed life and raised a family, living a good life all those 40 years of freedom, while this 17 year old boy's life is over. That is not fair, but is the nature of human justice. So, God needs to balance the scales of justice. I admit that I don't know how God can do that, but our great God is a good God and He knows exactly what to do. I love God and am so thankful that He is a good God. Can you imagine if the great God of the universe were evil?

As I mentioned, there are millions of guilty criminals who will [2]never get caught. According to the [3]latest FBI data, there is a 40 % chance that you'd get away with murder. There's a 50 % chance you'd get away with assault. There's even a higher percent chance that you'd get away with other crimes. Yet, we know from the inspired Word of God that NO ONE will escape the judgment of almighty God. Ecclesiastes 12:14, "For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil." Evildoers may manage to escape getting caught in this temporary world, but no one can escape God.

The culprits behind the World Trade Center attacks on September 11, 2001 got away with their crimes here on earth. U.S. President George W. Bush and his wicked administration got away with their crimes, but they cannot escape God's judgment. Ecclesiastes 5:8, "If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they." PAYDAY SOMEDAY!!!

4.12.17 God Doesn't Judge Works Based On Our Motives (2023-12-16 16:19)

1st Corinthians 3:11-15, "

For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ

Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

I love my new '[1]The Strand Study Bible.' I read it everyday as I read the inspired Holy Bible. If you'd like to buy one but cannot afford the high price, you can pick up a used one at [2]Abe's Books online. I highly recommend The Strand Study Bible compiled by Pastor Brad Strand. He spent 30,000 hours over 33 years making this study Bible. I have learned a lot of new things from Brother Strand.

Having said that, I humbly disagree with some of his teachings. As with all preachers, no two agree on everything. In fact, I cannot name even one preacher with whom I agree with on everything he teaches. And I'm sure those men would all say the same thing. I read 1st Corinthians 3:13 today,

1st Corinthians 3:13, "

Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

On page 1878 of his study Bible, Pastor Strand says:

> Christians will enjoy Heaven based on "
>
> motive
>
>
> (what sort it is), not merit (what size it is). Why we do what we do is more important than what we did. If what we do isn't done with the proper motive, it doesn't count with God (Mt. 20:1, II Cor. 5:14 and Rev. 2:4).
>
> SOURCE: Pastor Brad Strand, The Strand Study Bible, p. 1878

Kindly said, I do not find Scriptural support for what Pastor Strand is teaching. Here are the three Scripture passages that he cites as supporting texts for his doctrine:

> Matthew 20:1, "

For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2nd Corinthians 5:14, “

For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

Revelation 2:4, “

Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

Respectfully, these cross-references are worthless! I absolutely don’t see how any of these passages can be used as evidence that our works won’t count with God at the Judgment Seat of Christ unless we had the proper motive.

Jesus said that if we just do something to help a follower of Christ, but not Christ Himself, that person will still receive a reward on Judgment Day.

Matthew 10:42, “

And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

” So even if your motive is not to serve Christ, but just help a Christian, God will still reward you.

I once heard Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) in a sermon say there is nothing in the Bible which teaches you must have the right motives to be rewarded by God. I fully agree with Dr. Hyles. I cannot find anything in the inspired King James Bible which says you won’t be rewarded by God in eternity unless you have noble motives.

Jesus Himself Gave Us Selfish Motives

Jesus Himself encouraged us to selfishly “ lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven

by serving God:

> Matthew 6:19-21, “Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.”

1st Corinthians 3:8-9, “

Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. For we are labourers together with God: ye are God’s husbandry, ye are God’s building. ”

Serving God just to lay up treasures for yourselves in Heaven is a selfish motive.

I have worked very hard day and night on my website ministry since I began in 2002. My work is a passion for me, what some might even call an “obsession.” When I attended the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam in 2018 for a year, their Pensacola Christian College (PCC) intern pastor, Sean Quinlan, shamefully rebuked me one evening after church, when he overhead me warning a fellow Christian brother about the Devil’s modern Bible revisions, and warning him about [3]Bob Jones University who use, sell and promote the Devil’s counterfeit Bibles versions. Pastor Quinlan became visibly angry and called me “obsessed over the Bible issue.” I instantly knew that he was not right with God, for defending the Devil’s crowd who promote corruptible seed. I consider it an honor to be persecuted by a wicked pastor who thinks I am “obsessed over the Bible issue.” Buster, you had better know that I am OBSESSED over the Bible issue, and I plan to stay obsessed!!! PCC are pulling on the same rope as the Devil today, [4]preaching a false gospel, and refusing to contend for the faith by warning people about the Devil’s fake Bible revisions. I won’t SHUT UP for God!!!

As I said, I have worked very hard on my website ministry since 2002. I haven’t kept track of the hours, but I must have at least 50,000 hours invested into my ministry over the past 21 years. The longest I have ever worked straight through is 37 hours. I shouldn’t work that hard, but I get so caught up in my work sometimes that I’m like a child in a candy store. It is my privilege to let God work through me to feed Jesus’ sheep, and win the lost to Christ (Galatians 2:20). I admit that I want rewards in Heaven. That is part of my motivation. Albeit, my greatest rewards will be the people saved through my labors for Christ, who will greet me someday in Heaven (Daniel 12:3).

When you think about it, most of the Christian life is selfishly lived. We pray to get things from God. We serve God to earn rewards. We fast to get something from God. We go to church to be edified. We live right so we can feel peace in our soul and avoid guilt. When I give a homeless person some money, I do it because I want God to be pleased with me. I have selfish motives. And there is nothing wrong with those things, God wants us to live that way. Even when we serve God from a sincere heart of love for Him, we selfishly want His blessings on our life. Human beings are selfish by nature from birth, and we cannot change that.

I love Pastor Strand and am so [5]thankful for his correct position on repentance. Sadly, that is becoming rare these days. I would guesstimate that 85 % of Baptist pastors today have succumbed to Satan’s lie that you must turn from your sinful ways to get to Heaven, which is works (Jonah 3:10). Christ alone bore the weight and penalty for our sins on Calvary’s cross. Beware of any crooked preacher who tries to put the burden of sin burden upon your shoulders, by focusing on YOU changing your life, improving your behavior or following Christ as “ to be saved.

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

Please understand that I don't find any thrill in disagreeing with any preacher. God knows that my only intent is to help people learn the truth, that is, as I believe God has laid truths upon my heart. As Brother Strand rightly teaches, don't ever take the word of any man; do what Jesus commanded us to do in John 5:39, SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!!! (cf. Acts 17:10-11).

So, if you are a Christian man, and you volunteer to drive a church bus to bring people to church, but your only motive is that you like a woman at church, I believe God will still reward you. You are transporting people to church to learn about Jesus to be saved, to hear the truth and grow in grace, to fellowship with the saints, to receive comfort in burdens and losses, et cetera. Why wouldn't God reward you for helping the cause of Jesus Christ? Our God is more ethical than you or I could ever understand. Again, humbly, I don't find any Scriptural teaching that says motives matter in our service to God, as far as rewards go.

The Church Of Ephesus Had Wrong Priorities, Not Wrong Motives

Revelation 2:4-5, "

Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love. Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent. " If motives matter, then show me, because I can't find it in the Holy Bible. In Revelation 2:1-7 we read about the church of Ephesus. The Lord commended this church for exposing false prophets and for hating wickedness. However, Christ rebuked them for not doing the "first works." The Bible doesn't tell us what those first works are, but in my humble opinion it is soulwinning. I believe this because of Matthew 28:19-29 (aka, 'The Great Commission') and also Luke 8:11-15 (the parable of The Sower And The Seed, which teaches that God's main purpose for every believer is to mature to bear fruit, that is, win souls). If you are a believer and you don't regularly share the Gospel with lost sinners, you are an immature Christian (Luke 8:15).

So, concerning the church of Ephesus, humbly, I do not believe that they had the wrong motives; but rather, they had the wrong priorities. They had left off the first works. I cannot think of any work more important than preaching the Gospel. Mark 16:15, " And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." Contending for the faith and hating sin are very important matters, but not as important as soulwinning. Without sharing the Gospel nothing else matters.

4.12.18 Pastor Brad Strand Gets Repentance 100% Correct (2023-12-16 21:18)

2nd Corinthians 7:8-10, " For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season. Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing."

One of my favorite Bible teachers is Pastor Brad Strand. I recently purchased his '[1]The Strand Study Bible.' I love it so much that I bought two of them! Here is Brother Strand's commentary for our text passage from 2nd Corinthians 7:8...

> Repentance may include "remorse" (made you sorry), but remorse is not repentance. If so, then Judas repented because he was remorseful over what he had done to Christ (Mt 27:3). You can weep over sin and even express great remorse, but until you "change your mind" as to who you are and who Christ is and agree with God (Mt 3:2), you have not repented biblically.
>
> Repentance may include "
>
> sorrow
>
>
> (you were made sorry), but sorrow for sin is not repentance. Hell is full or sorrow, but only for the consequences of sin. The rich man who died and went to Hell uttered not a word of sorrow for his sin, only sorrow for his pain (Lk 16:19-31). You can weep over sin and even express great regret, but until you
>
> "change your mind" as to who you are and who Christ is and agree with God, you have not repented biblically.
>
> Repentance may include "conviction" (after a godly manner), but conviction is not repentance. If so, then Felix repented when he trembled before Paul (Acts 24:24-25). You may be convicted that you are a sinner and even admit that you are lost, but repentance is a two-sided coin. You not only have to "

>

I am so thankful for Pastor Strand, that he is one of few preachers today who gets repentance correct. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), in a sermon titled "[2]A Vote For Preaching," spoke in [3]this excerpt about the false gospel of Lordship Salvation which is unfortunately being preached from nearly every pulpit today. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

Brother Strand writes this about the next verse from 2nd Corinthians 7:10...

> This word (repentance) comes from a combination of two Greek words: (meta - meaning, "after") and (noeo - meaning, "mind"). The word literally means, "to change ones mind; to perceive afterwards; to change what you believe and agree with God" (Mt 3:2).

Metanoeo is used 58 times in the New Testament. It is used three different ways:

1. It is used 37 times concerning the lost.
2. It is used 17 times concerning the saved.
3. It is used 4 times concerning the lost during the Tribulation Period.

NOTE: True repentance has nothing to do with "turning from sin" and everything to do with "acknowledging one's sinfulness" (Jonah 3:5). Like the thief on the cross who simply acknowledged his sinfulness (Lk 23:39-43), the only part a person has in salvation is the beggar's part. If repentance means to "turn from sin and change one's life," then did God sin when He repented (Jonah 3:10)? I think not. Telling a sinner that he must "turn from sin" before receiving salvation gives a false view of salvation, and is but another form of "works." Ephesians 2:8-9 is clear:

> For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.

Repentance for salvation does not require a person to "clean himself up first" (i.e., "turn from his sin").

THE ADAGE IS TRUE: You come to God as a sinner; you don't come to God as a "sinless" sinner.

SOURCE: Pastor Brad Strand, "The Strand Study Bible," p 1938-1939

I cannot thank Pastor Strand enough for siding with and proclaiming THE TRUTH of God's inspired Word, and not just going along to get along with the common consensus nowadays (for the sake of acceptance by ministry peers), that turning from sin is required to be saved. Humbly said, I am so proud of Pastor Strand in the Lord. Those who seek the truth will find it. All of the preachers today who are going around perverting the Gospel of free grace, by embellishing it with unbiblical additions (e.g., "turn from your sins" to be saved), are pulling on the same rope as the Devil.

Beware Of Pensacola Christian College's False Gospel

Case in point, please take a look at the [4]ungodly damnable heresy being taught at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) today.

I live in the city of Pensacola. In my mailbox (in November of 2023) I found a stamped envelope from Campus Church with my address and the words, "To Our Neighbor" on it. I opened the envelope and inside I found a booklet of John & Romans. The booklet has 64 pages in it. The Campus Church logo is printed [5]on the front cover.

I was shocked [6]on page 60 when I read PCC's counterfeit plan of salvation. What I am about to show you is straight from Satan dear reader:

> "REPENTANCE — Now is the time to turn from your sin and embrace God. The act of turning away from sin is called 'repentance.' This word implies an inward decision to follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins.

It means changing your mind about sin and seeing it as something that grieves God. The Bible says that God patiently waits for all people to make this decision." [emphasis added]

SOURCE: "John & Romans," Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, p. 60

Do you still think I bumped my head? Carefully notice that PCC's Campus Church requires sinners to turn away from "The act" of sinning to be saved. THAT IS WORKS!!! If you don't see that, then you need to be saved dear reader. The only "act" that I am trusting in to get to Heaven is the death, burial and bodily resurrection of Jesus Christ. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

I've been [7]exposing the cult at Bob Jones University (BJU) since 2014, and now I have been exposing the cult at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) since 2021. By God's grace, I will continue to expose these wicked organizations. I know that some people will think I have an unchristlike spirit, but dear friend, my spirit is exactly like Christ's concerning false teaching that damns lost sinners to an eternal Hell.

Jesus called the religious Pharisees

"evil" and

vipers

" (snakes) in Matthew 12:34. The dear Savior didn't hold back from voicing His opinion. Jesus came right out and accused the Pharisees of being blind leaders who lead the blind (the lost) in Matthew 15:14. He called them hypocrites.

Matthew 23:13-14,

" But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation." Matthew 23:17, Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?"

Pensacola Christian College (PCC) today looks wonderful from the outside, but inside they are a rotting corpse. They sing lots of pretty religious music in their chapel services, but they have not been born-again by faith alone in Christ alone. ...

Matthew 23:27-28,

“

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men’s bones, and of all uncleanness. Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

On page 62 of the “John & Romans” booklet distributed by PCC, Campus Church requires this of lost sinners to be saved...

> “I repent of my sins. I realize that sin is something that God hates and I no longer want to hold onto sinful bad habits*.” [emphasis added]
>

Oh My! Folks, this is NOT part of the free grace Gospel which the Apostle Paul preached in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4...

> 1st Corinthians15:1-4, “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.”

There you have it! The “Gospel” is the “GOOD NEWS” that Jesus Christ DIED on a cross for our sins, He was BURIED and after three days He physically RESURRECTED from the dead. In Paul’s Gospel (which Paul said he received directly from Jesus in Galatians 1:12), did you see anything that reads: “follow and obey God’s will instead of your self-serving sins”? No, that is not what Jesus and Paul taught. So why is PCC and their Campus Church promoting this unbiblical filth and tommyrot?

The only requirement to believe the Gospel is to know why you need to be saved? You need to know what you’re being saved from. You are a guilty sinner, and so am I. Pastor Strand nailed it...

> True repentance has nothing to do with “turning from sin” and everything to do with “acknowledging one’s sinfulness” (Jonah 3:5). Like the thief on the cross who simply acknowledged his sinfulness (Lk 23:39-43), the only part a person has in salvation is the beggar’s part.

Pastor Harry Ironside Gets Repentance 100 % Correct

Another one of my favorite doctrinally sound preachers is Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951). To help you dear reader understand this important topic of Bible repentance, I wanted to share some doctrinally sound teachings from other men of God who rightly divide (2nd Timothy 2:15) the Word of Truth. Pastor Ironside said:

> "Repentance is the recognition of my sinnership—the owning before God that I am as vile as He has declared me to be in His holy Word."

Amen and amen! What Brother Ironside just said is vastly different than turning from one's sinful bad habits to be saved, which is a false gospel rooted in works. Pastor Ironside is correct—repentance is simply acknowledging that one is a guilty sinner in God's eyes. This is why we need a Savior. Thankfully, Jesus paid the price with His own precious blood (1st Peter 1:18,19; Hebrews 9:12). Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt we could not pay. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

No one has ever lived who didn't sin (Romans 3:10-23), except Jesus (Hebrews 4:15; 1st John 3:5). He is the perfect sinless Lamb of God (John 1:29). The Bibles teaches and warns that the wages we earn from our sinning is death (Romans 5:12, 6:23). This includes a second death in Hell, fire and brimstone forever (Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8). If you agree with God that you are a guilty sinner, deserving of Hell, then that is all you need to know to believe the GOOD NEWS that Jesus Christ died on a cross to pay for our sins, was buried and three days later He bodily raised up from the dead for our justification. BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS, oh sinner, and you are saved!

Simply by faith receive Christ's sacrificial death on the cross as full payment for your sins, and believe that He was buried, but then physically resurrected after three days from the dead. This is "

(the Good News) by which all who BELIEVE IT are immediately, irrevocably and permanently saved. Romans 1:16, "

For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

Pastor Mark Cambron Gets Repentance 100 % Correct

Dr. Mark G. Cambron (1911-2000) was a doctrinally sound preacher. He had more education than any preacher I have ever known, with degrees in B.A., M.A., Th.B., Th.M., Th.D., D.D., L.L.D. and Litt.D. Wow! Dr. Cambron was one of the foremost theologians of his time. Born in Fayetteville, Tennessee on July 31, 1911, he was born-again in 1919. It was during a Billy Sunday campaign in Chattanooga that he trusted in the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal Savior. Amen!

Here is an excellent and needful writing by [9]Dr. Mark G. Cambron (1911-2000) on the subject of REPENTANCE. Please read the following quote carefully, because Dr. Cambron is one of few theologian who gets it, that is, he understands the simplicity of the Gospel and that repentance does not mean turning from sin as proponents of Lordship Salvation foolishly teach...

Repentance is necessary for salvation.

The Greek word for repent is metanoeo, which, translated into English is: to change ones mind. It does not mean to turn from sin. That would add works to salvation.

Repentance for salvation means a change of mind from men's ideas of salvation and religion, to an acceptance of God's only way of salvation.

This results in a completely new creation, not a reformation of the old. The old nature remains as evil as ever after salvation and has not been reformed . . . The old nature can now be controlled by the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit.

God guarantees salvation. This is His gift to us.
God guarantees reward and fruit to the obedient son.
God guarantees chastening and loss of rewards to the disobedient son.

God does not cast out disobedient children, but in some cases, does take them home. He does not permit His children to live as they please without His discipline and guidance.

Many teach repentance for salvation incorrectly, by including some form of human effort or righteousness, such as willingness to turn from sin, or turning from sin. This is heresy and has confused many people. It adds works to salvation and causes many to not understand Gods great gift. It is probation, not salvation. It is completely unscriptural. It is Galatianism and a counterfeit of the gospel.

It is a tragedy that many Christians live shallow Christian lives. The Cambron Institute is dedicated to the task of training Christian men and women in the importance of total dedication and making Jesus the Lord of their lives not to be saved but because they are saved.

Shallow Christianity cannot be cured by adding works to salvation.

Salvation is not the result of what we do, but is by receiving what God has done for us. Acts 13:38, 39; Acts 20:20: Gal. 1:8,9; Gal. 2:4; Gal. 2:21; Gal. 3:1.3; Gal. 5:1-4; Eph. 2:8-10; II Cor. 5:21;John 3:16-18; Phil. 3:9; Titus 3:5-8:11 Cor. 11:13-1 5.

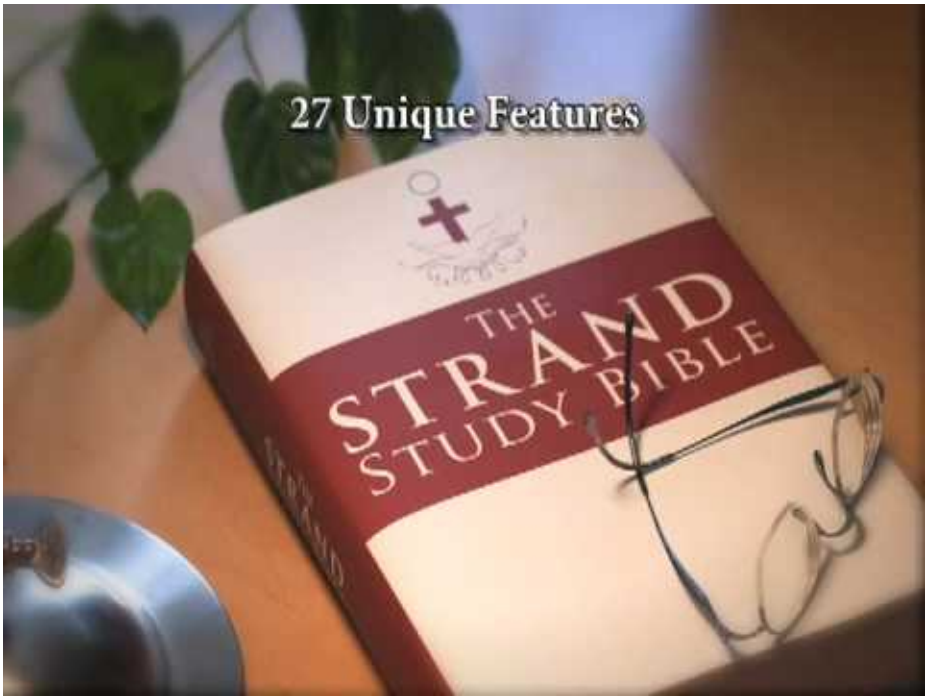
Amen and amen. That is great stuff! It is refreshing to see a man with eight earned theological degrees who is correct on Bible repentance.

Repentance Is A Change Of Mind, Nothing More

I was so happy today when I learned that Pastor Strand is correct on repentance. It is becoming rare these days to find a Baptist preacher who is correct on repentance and the Gospel. Pastor Strand added these words to explain Bible repentance...



> True repentance concerning salvation occurs whenever a person "changes his mind" (i.e., repents) concerning who he is. He is a sinner in need of salvation. According to Matthew 27:3, Judas did not repent (i.e., have regret) as to who he was (i.e., he was a sinner in need of salvation); he only regretted (i.e., repented) what he had done to an innocent man. Unfortunately, that is never enough to save a person from sin and sin's penalty (Hell). Until a person sees himself as being "sinfully" sick (Lk 5:31-32), he will never see his need for a "spiritual doctor" (i.e., the Savior). Our problem is not in what we do before God, but in what we are before God. The mistake Judas made was in "turning from his sin" (i.e., what he had done to an innocent man) instead of "changing his mind" about his sinfulness (i.e., the fact that he was a sinner in need of a Savior). Like the thief on the cross who never had the opportunity to "turn from his sin," we, like him, can only "acknowledge our sinfulness" in order to be saved (Lk 23:40-41). True repentance for salvation occurs when we "change our mind" concerning two areas:
>
> 1. Who we are (Lk 23:39-40) — We are sinners in need of salvation (Rom 5:6-8)
> 2. Who Christ is (Lk 23:42) — Christ is God (Jn 5:17-18 & 8:24, 58-59 & 10:30-33) and our only Savior from sin (I Tim 3:16 & 4:10).
> SOURCE: Pastor Brad Strand, "The Strand Study Bible," p 1938-1939

Boy, that is great stuff! That is life-changing truth! I am not kidding friend. When you learn the truth about repentance and the Gospel—knowing how simple God's plan of salvation really is and that it can all be yours completely for free; and you have received that free gift of eternal life by faith alone in Jesus Christ—it will produce unspeakable joy in your soul.

> 1st Peter 1:7-9, "That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls."

No believer will ever find the sweet peace and joy of being God's redeemed child, until you know beyond any shadow of a doubt that your name is written in Heaven, in the Lamb's Book of Life (Luke 10:20). As an acknowledged guilty sinner, by faith I received Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for my sins at age 13. I called out in my soul to the risen Savior, casting my trust upon Him alone as my Savior. I thank God for the gift of His only begotten (biological) Son, Jesus, who with His precious blood paid my debt of sin (1st Peter 1:18-19).

God bless Brother Strand for rightly dividing the Word of Truth.

4.12.19 Beware Of Billy Graham's Counterfeit New Birth (2023-12-19 17:48)

1st Corinthians 15:1-6, " Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

I ran acros s a website today called peacewithgod.net, which says it is a ministry of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association (BGEA). On their website the following demonic heresy is what they teach you must do to be born again

“

> So how can we be born again?
>
> First, we must admit our sin—that we can’t live up to God’s perfect standard on our own. Then we must ask forgiveness for that sin and repent, which means to make every effort in turning away from that sin*. Finally, we ask Jesus to be part of our lives*.
>
> That’s when God’s Spirit penetrates our hearts to guide us and help us be more like Him. That’s when we’re born again. [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [1]What Does It Mean To Be Born Again?

Where does the inspired Holy Bible tells us to “make every effort in turning away from sin” to be born again? That is, to get to Heaven? It doesn’t. Also, where does the Word of God tell us to ask Jesus to be part of our life to be saved? Billy Graham and his followers are hellbound infidels, imposters who masquerade as children of God. What you just read is a false plan of salvation which cannot produce the new birth in Christ.

Our text passage of Scripture plainly defines “

as three things:

1. Jesus DIED on a cross to pay our debt of sin.
2. Jesus was BURIED.
3. Jesus bodily RESURRECTED three days later from the dead.

The only prerequisite necessary to believe the Gospel is to admit you are a guilty sinner, because you need to know what your being saved from. You are a sinner and so am I (Romans 3:10-23). There is a penalty (wages) for our sins, which is death (Romans 6:23). This includes a second death in the Lake of Fire forever (Revelation 20:11-15, 21:8). The Bad News is that we are all guilty sinners deserving of being punished in the fires and torments of Hell forever. The Good News is that God sent His only begotten Son, Jesus, into the world to die on a cross for our sins, to make a way of escape through His shed blood (Romans 5:9).

Biblically, you don't have to turn from your sins to go to Heaven; but rather, Christ died on the cross to pay your debt of sin and mine. Jesus fully bore the weight and curse of our sins, so that we don't have to. The Devil's fallacy of Lordship Salvation (which Billy Graham and his followers errantly preach) places the weight and burden of sin upon the sinner instead, which is an impossible burden to bear. Who can turn away from their sinning? That's right, no one. Psalms 130:3, " If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?

Like Billy Graham, Pensacola Christian College (PCC) Perverts The Gospel

I am astonished and deeply frustrated that so many Baptist preachers today ignorantly bid Godspeed to Billy and Franklin Graham. Particularly, the Pensacola Christian College (PCC) cult is guilty. There's an old adage that says: If you don't stand for something, you'll fall for anything. There is much truth to that. He that is not zealous against error, is not likely to be zealous for the truth. PCC are not zealous to expose error. They refuse to contend for the faith or step on anybody's toes (e.g., PCC won't expose the Bob Jones University (BJU) cult for preaching another gospel of Lordship Salvation, or for their use of the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions, et cetera).

Consequently, the churches that associate with PCC rarely rise about cult headquarters, so they don't contend for the faith either. I am not aware of even one PCC alumni or associated church who zealously exposes error and rebukes false teachers today (Titus 1:13-14). They just go along to get along and play church, collecting a minister's salary, and criticizing preachers like me who do contend for the faith and expose false prophets. I know God is on my side because I am preaching THE TRUTH. Like BJU, [2]PCC is wrong on the Gospel.

Billy Graham's Ministry Wrongly Understand The New Birth

Here is what they claim it means to be "

born again

...

> That's when God's Spirit penetrates our hearts to guide us and help us be more like Him. That's when we're born again.
> SOURCE: [3]What Does It Mean To Be Born Again?

That is NOT what it means to be born again. The Bible says when Adam sinned he opened the floodgate of sin into the world, and by sin came death upon all men (Romans 5:12). Consequently, every human being born since Adam has been born with a sin nature. We are all sinners by nature and by choice. The greatest sin, next to rejecting Christ as one's Savior, is to condemn another sinner (Matthew 7:1-5). There but for the grace of God go I.

Ephesians 2:1 teaches that we were all born " dead in trespasses and sins. ” We were all born spiritually dead. This is different than the second death , when a lost sinner goes to Hell. The first birth is the physical birth, by flesh and water (John 3:5). A baby spends 9 months in its mother's water bag during development, and then the water bag breaks when ready to be born into the world. Jesus also spoke in John 3:6 of being born of the spirit, that is, born anew by the Holy Spirit of God. This is a supernatural miracle in response to a sinner's faith in Jesus Christ. In theology this is called regeneration.

When a man is born again, his spirit which was dead is now made alive by the Holy Spirit of God (i.e., quickened). Ephesians 2:4-7, "But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus." To be born again means that you have been sealed and indwelt by God's Holy Spirit (Ephesians 1:13-14).

Being "born again" has nothing to do with our behavior changing. Billy Graham's ministry is very wrong when they teach that the birth is " when God's Spirit penetrates our hearts to guide us and help us be more like Him.

" Our heart changing more like God's heart is NOT being born again. Your spirit was dead from birth. That is why we all need to be reborn by the Spirit of God, so that we will be spiritually alive in God. The natural (or unsaved) person is spiritually lifeless and cannot understand or discern the things of God (1st Corinthians 2:14-16).

The unsaved heathen world cannot perceive the Holy Spirit because they do not know Him. That is, because they reject Jesus Christ as their Savior they have not been born-again; therefore, they do not have the indwelling Holy Spirit, nor can they see Him.

John 14:17, " Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. "

Pastor Jack Hyles correctly taught that to be "born again" means to have He (Jesus) who is the beginning, born in you. Romans 8:9, "But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his." I love this Scripture, which calls the Holy Spirit, the "Spirit of Christ" in you. God the Father and God the Son, live inside every saint in the form of God the Spirit. John 14:23, "Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him."

Sadly, evangelist Ray Comfort, who is an unsaved false prophet, also [4]has a wrong understanding of what it means to be born again. Since these religious infidels are not genuine born-again Christians, and do not have the indwelling Holy Spirit, they cannot understand the new birth. They all associate the new birth with a radical change of attitude and behavior, instead of the presence of God's blessed Holy Spirit.

Billy And Franklin Graham Are Unsaved False Prophets

I mean no unkindness, God knows my heart. I am strictly going by what the Holy Bible teaches. There is nothing in the inspired King James Bible which teaches to "make every effort in turning away from sin" and to "ask Jesus to be part of our lives" to be saved? Billy Graham and company ADDED those extra requirements to God's simple plan of salvation. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." I didn't add to God's Words, the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association wickedly did.

I didn't add to God's Words, Pensacola Christian College and their ungodly Campus Church wickedly did.

According to Billy Graham and his ministry today, to be saved you must:

1. Ask forgiveness for sins
2. Make every effort in turning away from sin
3. Ask Jesus to be part of our lives

I triple-dog dare you dear reader to show me any of that tommyrot, balderdash, tomfoolery or poppycock in the Holy Bible. You cannot! The Bible says that the Ninevites turning from their evil ways at the preaching of Jonah. God called it " works.

Jonah 3:10,

"And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

" Also, carefully notice in Jonah 3:10 that God Himself repented.

That is, God changed His mind not to destroy the Ninevites. We know that God is incapable of committing evil (James 1:13). So, if repentance concerning salvation means to turn from your sins,

" then how did God repent, since He cannot sin? Obviously, all those "repent of your sin" preachers are misguided

, deceived and wrong.

True repentance has nothing to do with "turning from sin" and everything to do with "acknowledging one's sinfulness" (Romans 3:19-20). Like the thief on the cross who simply acknowledged his sinfulness (Luke 23:39-43), the only part a person has in salvation is the beggar's part. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

May I remind your dear reader that Judas Iscariot was a part of Jesus' life, but that didn't save him from the pits of Hell beneath. Judas was one of Christ's very chosen apostles, yet went to Hell. Judas repented (Matthew 27:3). That is, he turned from his sins. This is reformation, not true repentance toward God (Acts 20:21). In fact, Matthew 27:3 even says that Judas returned to 30 pieces of silver, which he had been paid to betray Christ to death. This is penance, not true repentance toward God. Judas felt remorse for betraying an innocent man (Matthew 27:4). This is penitence, not true repentance toward God. Judas never changed his mind about himself, to admit that he is a guilty sinner. Nor did Judas change his mind about Jesus, to admit that He is the Christ, the Savior. Judas went to Hell in his sins without Christ.

We also see in Matthew 7:21-23 that a group of followers of Jesus went to Hell. They boasted of having done "many wonderful works," but they had never put their faith in Christ alone (John 6:40). The Billy Graham Evangelistic Association has done "many wonderful works" for several decades now (since 1950 when they began), but they have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God (Romans 10:3-4). You don't "make every effort in turning away from sin" and to "ask Jesus to be part of our lives" to get to Heaven.

Christian author Michael P. Bowen offers these helpful words to expose Billy Graham's counterfeit plan of salvation...

> Billy says that we must repent of our sins and attempts to provide examples from the bible that suggest we are supposed to repent of our sins in order to be born again; however, his examples are weak and hold no truth at all because the bible "never" tells us to quit sinning in order to be saved; in fact, the phrase "repent of sin" does not even occur in the bible. Billy often refers to the Greek word for repent which is metanoia, which he erroneously defines as turning away from our sins, to feel sorry for our sins, that we should change our minds about sin and walk away from it altogether as a "requirement" for our being born again. Very often, as a way of telling us that we have to quit willfully and deliberately sinning in order to be born again, he will refer to where Jesus said in Luke 13:3 that we must repent or perish, yet in the original Greek manuscript, the word for repent means to change your mind and has nothing at all to do with turning from sins. —Michael P. Bowen, "[5]I Never Knew You," p. 137

To be saved you receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He died, was buried and then physically raised up from the dead three days later. This is "the gospel" according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Why does the BGEA preach a different plan of salvation than the simple one taught in the inspired Word of God?

4.12.20 Be Careful What Advice You Take From Others (2023-12-20 17:16)

Esther 5:9-14, “Then went Haman forth that day joyful and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king’s gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai.

Nevertheless Haman refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife.

And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and to morrow am I invited unto her also with the king.

Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and tomorrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made*.

What wicked people! Mordecai, Esther's cousin, had done absolutely nothing wrong. He merely refused to bow in obeisance as Haman passed by, for which Haman hated Mordecai. So as Haman was complaining about the matter at home, his ungodly wife Zeresh and family friends which they had invited, suggested that Haman erect a 75 foot tall gallows upon which to hang Haman. He liked the idea and built the gallows. Look what they said...

> Esther 5:14, "
>
> Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and tomorrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.

Wow, that is disgusting! Haman's wicked wife and horrible family friends told him to convince the king to hang Mordecai (an innocent man), and then go have a good time at the party that Esther invited him to. Haman loved the idea and ordered the gallows to be built right away. Proverbs 26:27, " Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.

In this Bible story we can learn some valuable truths:

1. What goes around comes around. Haman conspired to murder an innocent man, but it backfired on him. This is poetic justice at its finest! The Bible warns in Galatians 6:7 that what men reap they will sow. With whatever measure we judge men, we shall be judged by that same measure (Matthew 7:1-2).

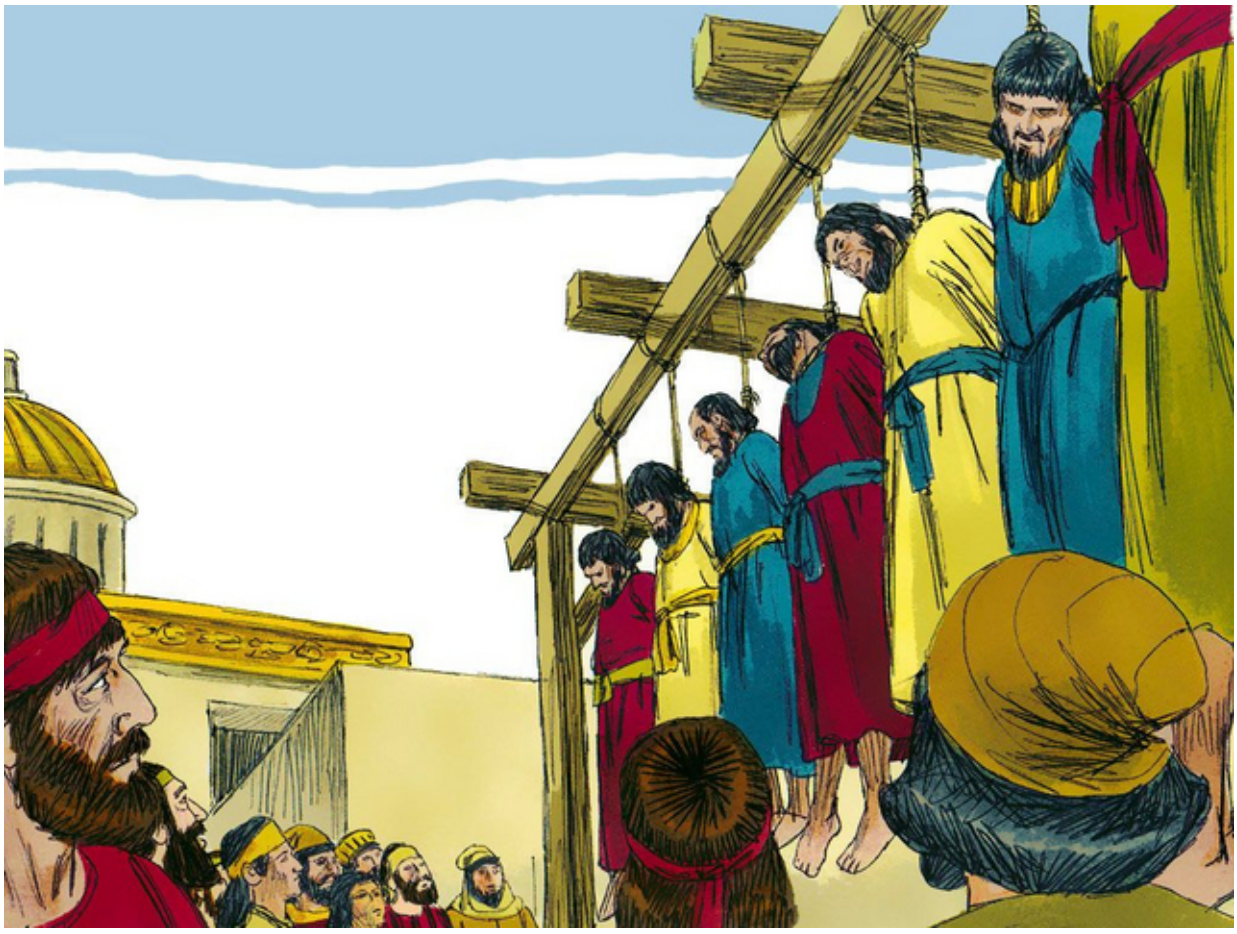
2. Be very careful what advice you take from family and friends, because it could cost you everything! Haman's foolish wife Zeresh didn't hesitate to give hateful ungodly advice to her husband, to have an innocent Jewish man killed. Little did she know that not only would her husband be hung by the king on that 75 foot high gallows, but also HER 10 SONS (Esther 9:25). Mrs. Haman spent the rest of her life in regret, wishing she had never opened her mouth to give such ungodly advice to her husband. One wrong bit of advice could cost you everything!!!

3. Idiots are quick to give bad advice when it won't adversely affect them. Those wicked friends of Zeresh and Haman had nothing to lose by giving such wicked advice to them. Ultimately, Zeresh's and Haman's 10 sons were all killed, and then Haman himself. It burns me up when fools advise friends and family to file for divorce. Woe unto the person who encourages, nurtures or helps someone get a divorce. God hates divorce (Jeremiah 3:20). Marriage is sacred ground in God's sight. Divorce and remarriage is adultery (Matthew 19:9; Hebrews 13:4). Human sinful nature is to selfishly take sides with friends when marital troubles arise, and not care about the unknown spouse; that is sinful and meddlers will be judged by God (Matthew 19:6). It is very easy to help destroy someone else's marriage, when it won't affect you adversely in the least.

4. Be very careful who you choose to keep as friends. I would rather have no friends than bad friends. Loneliness will be the worst of your problems if you make losers for friends. People can and will become your worst enemy if you foolishly choose to closely associate with worldly sinners. In [1]2nd Samuel 13:3 the Bible tells us that David's son, Amnon "had a friend." That ungodly friend ruined Ammon's life, which ultimately led to Amnon's murder by Absalom. Bad friends will ruin you!

5. Be very careful who you get into a vehicle with. I am reminded of a tragic incident in 2021 that happened in Georgia. A 25 year old black man named [2]Ahmaud Arbery had been shot to death, when he was confronted by a father and son, along with a neighbour. I feel so bad for the neighbor, William Bryan, because his only fault was getting into the truth with his neighbours. Mr. Bryan was just in the wrong place at the right time, walking in front of his house. The father and son had invited for him to join them, so Bryan hopped into the truck; but by being with his two neighbors he became an accomplice. Be very careful who you get into a vehicle with, because if they commit a crime you will be prosecuted as an accomplice just for being present! Although William Bryan made no racist comments or killed anybody, he was sentenced to 40 years in prison just for being present. That is injustice in my humble opinion. Public pressure from Al Sharpton, Jesse Jackson, the black community and liberal newsmedia ensured that the 3 defendants didn't receive a fair trial (and [3]they simply didn't, "Principles Of Justice" sermon by Pastor Steven Anderson).

6. Married women belong at home, not in the workplace. This point has nothing to do with this blog, per se. However, it is related to the topic at hand of being careful about making bad friends. I heard the true story of a married woman who met a man at work. They began an adulterous affair. The woman's jealous husband murdered his wife and was then sentenced to life in prison. The wicked adulterous man at work walked away scot-free! If I had the legal power to do so, that adulterous co-worker would be serving life behind bars with the husband! Thankfully, God will make that ungodly co-worker wish he had never been born in eternity. No one can escape the judgment of God (Hebrews 4:13, 13:4; Romans 1:32; Ecclesiastes 12:14). Call me old-fashioned (and I am), but I firmly believe that all married women belong at home working as homemakers.



Haman had wickedly plotted against the Jews to murder them all. So the king, in a righteous act of justice, returned that same evil upon Haman's own head. ...

> Esther 9:23-26a "And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them; Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast > Pur, that is, the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them; But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows Wherefore they called these days Purim after the name of Pur. …”

Haman was a very wicked person. His wife was a very wicked person. Their friends were very wicked people. They had all conspired to murder an innocent man, Mordecai. The main truth that I want you to take away from this tragic story in the Bible, is that Haman’s wife Zeresh came up with the idea to build a gallows 75 feet high to hang Mortdecai on. Their friends loved the idea and told Haman that he should do it. But Zeresh would live to rue the day she made that suggestion to her husband, when Haman and her 10 sons were all hung on that very same gallows. So be very careful of the advice that you give to others, and the advice that you take from them. Thank you for reading my blog and God bless. Jesus is precious!!!

4.12.21 Beware Of Drinking Alcohol: Liquid Devil (2023-12-21 22:31)

Proverbs 20:1, " Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise."

I found a very [1]interesting article today at alcohol.org, showing the average lifetime of money spent for alcohol in different cities across the United States. ...

[2]

[3]Click For A Larger Chart

As the chart shows, the average amount of money spent in New York, New York is $121,383.24 over a lifetime. The least amount spent is $57,838.55 over a lifetime in Birmingham, Alabama.

I have them all beat, I haven't spent a single penny in the 56 years that I've been alive to buy alcohol to drink. I thank God that I've never tried beer! I've never been drunk. I've never drank a sip of Vodka. I grew up around Skid Row, since my father was a Gospel preacher to Skid Row in downtown Chicago. I grew up tagging along with my father, who preached regularly at Pacific Garden Mission.

I humbly do not think it is a sin to drink alcohol. I sometimes drink a cup of Nyquil to help me sleep on rough days, which contains 10 % alcohol. This is medicine (1st Timothy 5:23). In New Testament times they didn't have a CVS or Walgreens on the corner as we are blessed to have all across the United States. Pastor Jerry Falwell (1933-2007) called Nyquil "Baptist wine." I like that. Dr. Falwell said that because many Christians drink Nyquil to get the same sedating effects of alcoholic beverages. Since I don't drink booze, Nyquil really helps me sleep on nights when I need it, for which I am thankful.

Having said that, we do know biblically that drunkenness is a sin. In fact, the Bible warns that drunkards will not be permitted to enter into God's Kingdom (1st Corinthians 6:19-10). Ah, but please notice verse 11, "but ye are washed..." The day you got saved, if you are a born-again child of God, all of your sins (past, present and future) were all forgiven and washed away by the precious blood of Jesus (1st Peter 1:18-19).

I humbly think it is a wise decision for every Christian to abstain from drinking alcoholic beverages. You cannot take two drinks if you don't take the first. That is good wisdom! You cannot become a drunkard or inebriated if you don't take the first sip of booze. I thank God. I thank God! I thank God that I have never started drinking beer. Most people can handle it, but you don't know how your body and mind will handle booze until time passes. It only takes one time to mess up! I could tell you dozens of true stories about famous people who had drank beer for 20 years, but then one unfortunate night they killed someone while under the influence (DUI) of drinking alcohol and then driving a vehicle.

One middle-aged man that comes to mind was a famous news journalist who worked for WGN television in Chicago. This incident happened in 2004. He was arrested for drunk driving when he went through a stop sign and crashed his car. A few years later he was arrested again for another DUI. He had drank booze for decades without an incident. The lesson to be learned is that a wise person avoids drinking booze. I thank God I have never drank any beer or whiskey.

4.12.22 The Hearing Of Faith (2023-12-23 16:15)

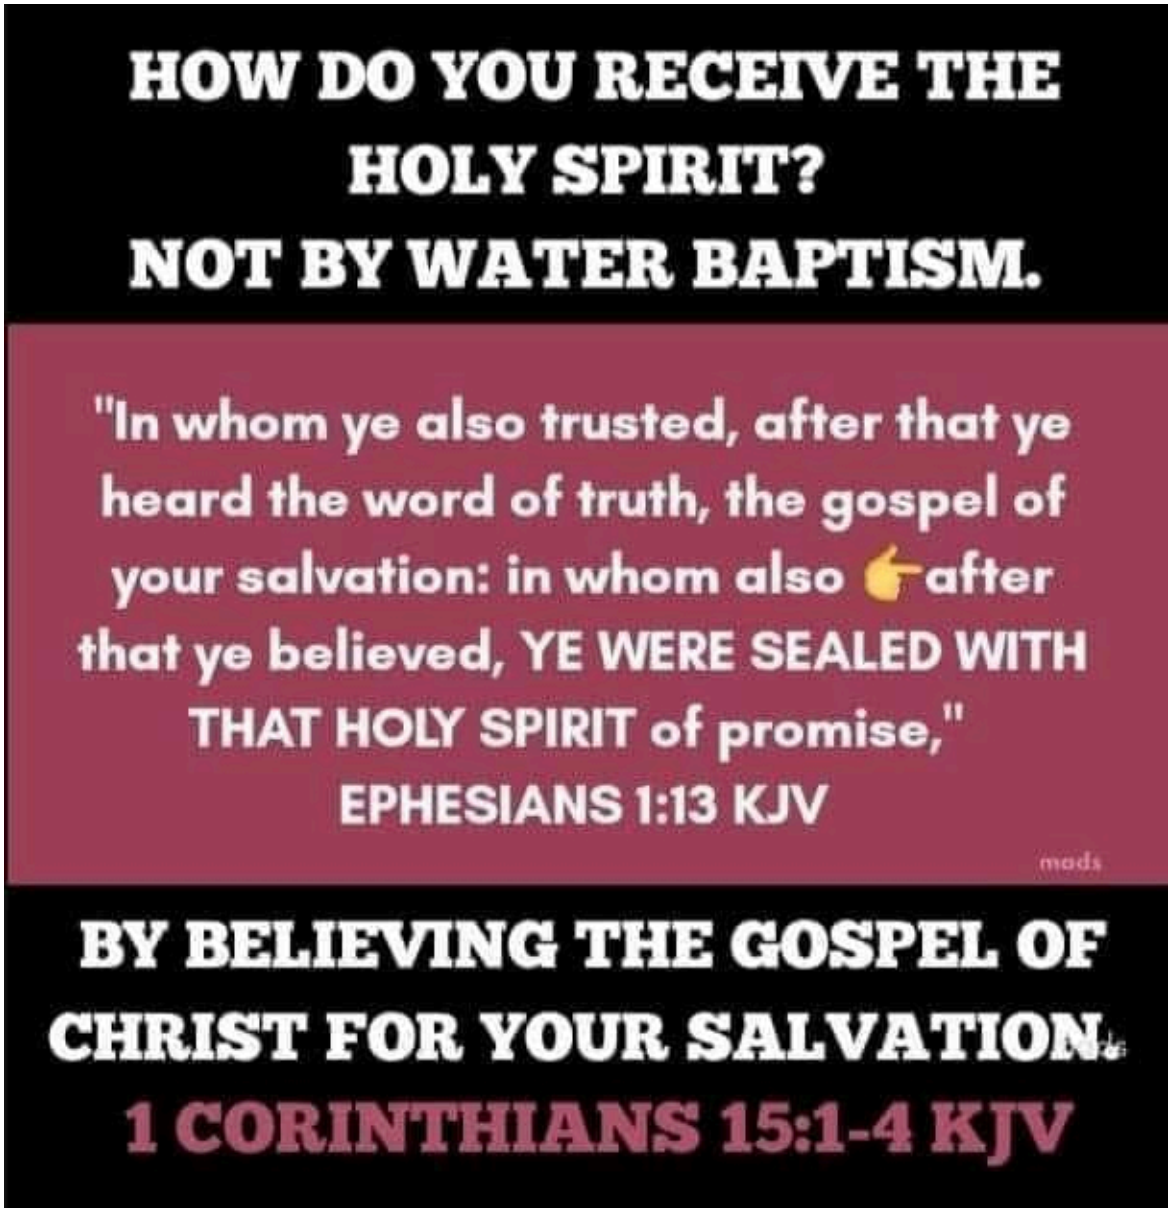
Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?"

I love this Bible passage from Galatians 3:2. The Apostle Paul asked the churches of Galatia one thing—how did you become indwelt with the Holy Spirit? That is, how did you get saved? Was it by keeping the works of Moses law? Or was it by simply by believing the Gospel when you heard it preached? I love that beautiful phrase, "by the hearing of faith." That is how 3,000 people were saved on the Day of Pentecost—they simply heard the Apostle Peter preach the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus Christ and "gladly received" the message and were saved (Acts 2:41).

We read in Hebrews 4:2 that Moses preached the Gospel to the Hebrews in the Wilderness for 40 years, "but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it."

They heard the Good News but had no faith in what Moses heard preached.

I love these Scripture passages, because they show the simplicity that is in Christ. You simply believe the Gospel when you hear it, and that's it. No one was required to forsake a lifestyle of sinning. No one was required to "be willing" to clean up their life and forsake past sinful behavior. No one was required to get water baptized, make public confession, become a Christ follower, live a lifestyle of perpetually turning from sinning, invite Jesus into your life, surrender to Jesus as "Lord" of your life, nor anything else.



You simply HEAR the Gospel (whether read or spoken) and BELIEVE IT, and you are on your way to Heaven. Men complicate God's simple plan of salvation.

If you read Acts chapter 10 about the Italian centurion Cornelius, you will learn that he was a good man (as far as sinners go). Cornelius feared God, prayed, fasted and gave alms to the poor, but he was still lost in his sins. So God arranged for Cornelius and the Apostle Peter to meet up, and they did later in the chapter. Peter simply preached the truth of the Gospel. Peter never told Cornelius and his friends to do anything to be saved. Peter simply preached the Gospel message and they believed what they heard and were saved (Acts 10:43-44). That is how anybody gets saved, by believing the Gospel when we hear it.

All of these bad preachers today (infidels) who are telling people to "turn from your sins" to be saved are preaching another gospel. I am astonished how most preachers today are preaching an embellishment of the Gospel, lying to their audience, saying things that cannot be supported with the inspired Scripture. This is the dire consequence of repeating things which they have heard peers in the ministry errantly teach and preach. Jesus told us to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!!! (John 5:39).

4.12.23 Modern Bible Revisions Errantly Say God Preserves The Helpless, Not The Very Pure Words Of God (2023-12-25 15:14)

Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.”

They following is a comparison between the King James Bible (KJB) and the Satanic Easy-To-Read Version (ERV). All modern versions change this promise from God to nonsense. Notice carefully that the KJB promises that God would preserve His Words unto every generation, whereas the ERV changes it completely, saying that God protects the helpless . . .

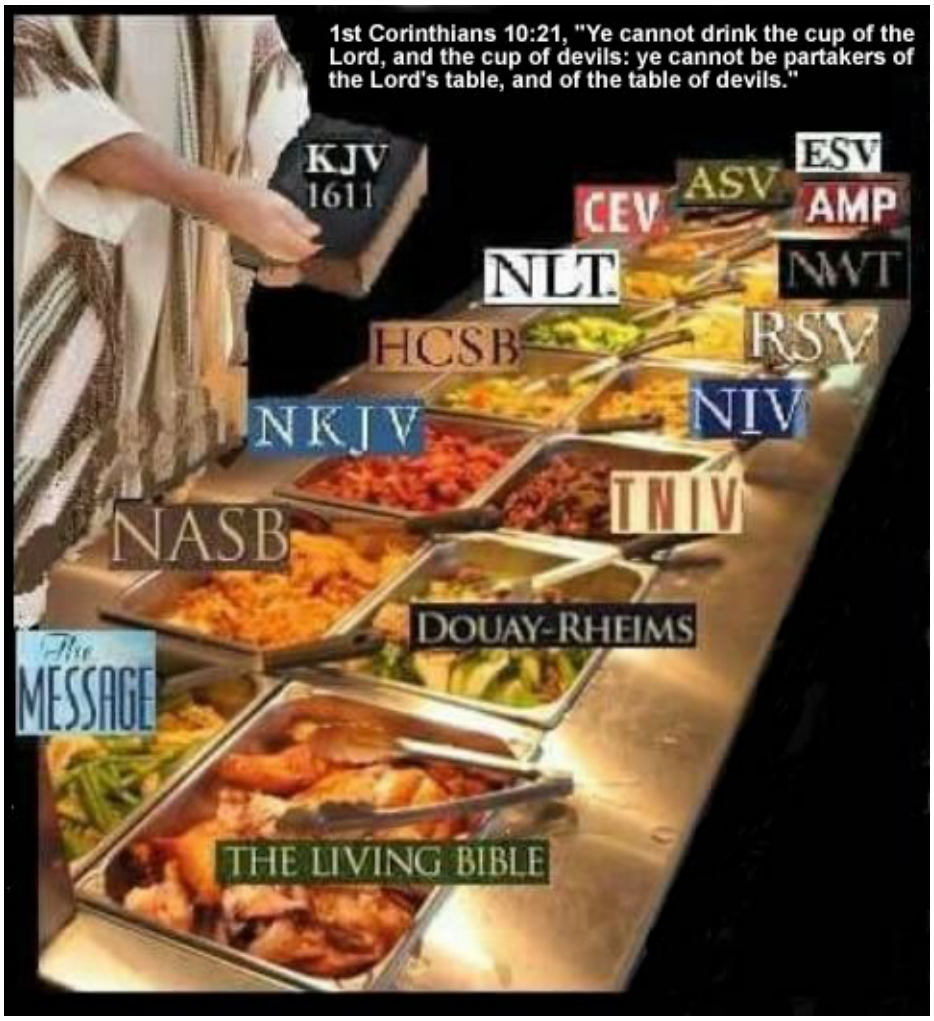
> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Psalms 12:6-7, “The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve themfrom this generation for ever*.” [emphasis added]
>
> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — Psalms 12:6-7, “The Lord’s words are true and pure, like silver purified by fire, like silver melted seven times to make it perfectly pure. Lord, take care of the helpless. Protect them forever from the wicked people in this world*.” [emphasis added]

WICKED! THAT IS EVIL WICKEDNESS!!! This single passage alone that I just shared with you ought to be enough reason to convince you that the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) is a Satanic imposter. It should be tossed into your garbage pail.

It should be obvious to you, the reader, why the Bible-corrupting gang changed this passage of Scripture. If God has kept His promise to preserve His pure Words, then we must have a pure word-for-word Holy Bible. Since there are literally hundreds of different English Bible translations, which all say something different, they had to change this Scripture to hide the wickedness of what they are doing (i.e., corrupting the Holy Bible for money).

If you have a King James Bible, then you possess God’s preserved, pure, holy words in your hands. But if you have dozens of different Bibles in your church and Bible college, then you cannot believe in a pure Holy Bible, and that’s why the Devil’s crowd changed Psalms 12:6-7 to say that God protects the helpless, instead of telling THE TRUTH from the King James Bible that God has kept His promise to PRESERVE HIS PURE WORDS. Notice that God’s Words are not just pure, but “VERY PURE.” Psalms 119:140, “Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.”

Furthermore, check out what the popular ESV reads:



> ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - Psalms 12:6-7, “The words of the Lord are pure words, like silver refined in a furnace on the ground, purified seven times. You, O Lord, will keep them; you will guard us from this generation forever*.” [emphasis added]

The demonic ESV is the official corrupt Bible revision used, sold and promoted at Bob Jones University (BJU) for many years now. Pensacola Christian College wickedly bids Godspeed to BJU and their corrupt graduates. Tragically, so also does the corrupt Sword of the Lord wickedly bid Godspeed to these ungodly institutions. Sadly, hardly anybody cares anymore about sound doctrine. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

PCC and BJU are so caught up in making more money that their priorities are all wrong. [1]PCC cannot even get the Gospel right. Like PCC today, [2]BJU is a cesspool of Lordship Salvation. As I have shown you, the ERV and ESV are toxic. They have perverted God's inspired Words to say that God protects the saints instead of His very pure Word. I triple-dog dare you to check Psalms 12:6-7 in any modern Bible perversion and you will see that they are corrupt. Please use only the inspired KING JAMES BIBLE.

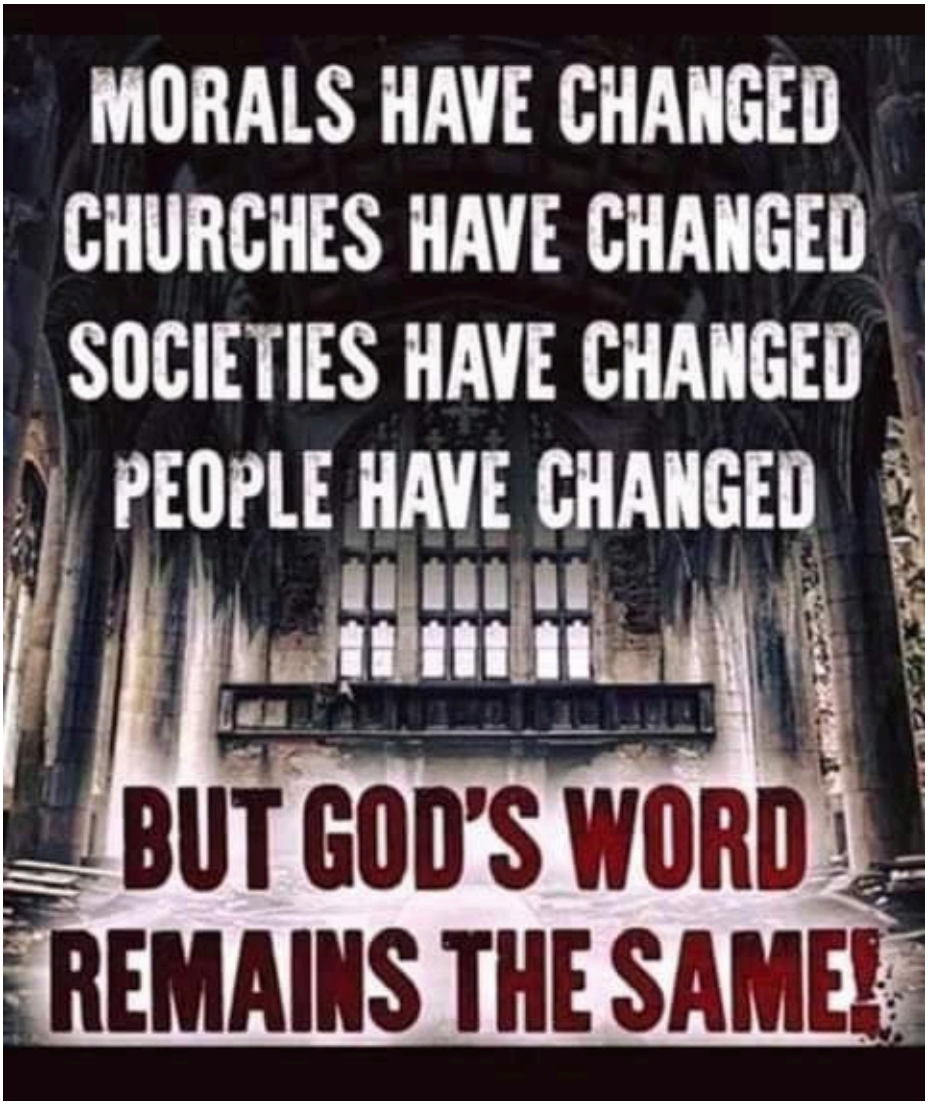
4.12.24 I Hate The New Thinner Pop-Tarts (2023-12-26 10:03)

Hebrews 13:8-9, " Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein."

I hadn't eaten a Pop-Tart in over 10 years. But this past week I was craving a Pop-Tart, which I was fond of when I was younger. So, I went to Walmart and I bought a couple boxes of Pop-Tarts. I wanted to wait until Christmas Day to eat one. I opened the box yesterday with eagerness, anticipating my long lost tasty treat, but I was horribly disappointed when I took the first bite. Oh no, they shrunk the Pop-Tarts!!!



The new Pop-Tarts are only half as thick as they used to be. It totally changes the eating experience and flavor of the pastry. Since there is less filling now and more crust, it tastes empty; like eating an unsalted Saltine cracker with sugar on it. I absolutely hate the new Pop-Tarts and doubt if I'll ever buy them again. The eating experience is not what I happily remembered over 10 years ago. The struggling economy and skyrocketing food prices have taken their toll on Pop-Tarts.

[1]Pop-Tarts were first produce in 1964, and still today, by the Kellanova company. I am sad that they have made their product inferior to compete with the slowly failing economy. I guarantee you that things will get MUCH worse in our economy. Homes are already priced way out of reach for most Americans. Prices will continue to rise. [2]Homelessness is just getting started. Within 25 years or sooner, if the Lord tarries His return, I humbly foresee 3 to 5 million Americans homeless on the streets and living in their vehicles. Right now there are about one million homeless Americans. Crime will increase at shocking levels. Increasingly, we will see lawlessness across the country without any resistance or intervention from law enforcement (just as we saw in the Black Lives Matter 2020 riots nationwide).

The Federal Reserve Act (passed into law in December of 1913 while most of Congress was away from the holidays) is the most heinous evil scam ever perpetrated upon the American people, which robs men of their hard-earned wealth, filling the pockets of the rich. [3]The Federal Reserve is a Ponzi Scheme!!! It is inevitable that the U.S. economy must ultimately collapse, because the Federal Reserve is based on fraud, not actual wealth. The wicked families behind the Federal Reserve central banking system are thieves who ruthlessly steal men's labors under the guise of law and justice, earning nothing legitimate for themselves except the wrath and judgment of almighty God (Ecclesiastes 5:8; Hebrews 4:13). Exodus 20:15, " Thou shalt not steal. "

Pop-Tarts aren't the only thing which have changed for the worse in our country. The gender-bending insanity that is being forced upon our nation's children today will continue, but increasingly with the law on the side of the liberals, nuts, perverts and wicked perpetrators of this sick-minded, carefully plotted, Luciferian agenda to recruit and corrupt children. [4]Satanism is right in front of everyone's face but they don't even see it. That is how Satan operates, in plain sight undetected!

I thank God that He never changes (Malachi 3:6). I am thankful that the Holy Bible never changes (Psalms 119:89). I am grateful that Jesus never changes (Hebrews 13:8). But I am sad that Pop-Tarts have changed. I can't believe how thin they are now. The new ratio of filling to crust is all wrong, making them taste like sweet cardboard.

4.12.25 I Regret Stopping By McDonald's Today (2023-12-28 13:24)

□□□ □□□□□□□□□□□ □□:□, "□□□ □□□□□□ □□ □ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□□□□, □□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□□□□."

I went for my follow-up doctor's appointment today for my diabetes. My numbers improved significantly over the past 3 months. In September my triglycerides were 2,062, but today were at 242. My A1C in September was 10.7 %, but today was 7.6 %. I'm taking prescription Mounjaro, which is an awesome drug in my humble opinion. I've lost 12 pounds in 2 months so far. The FDA just approved the exact same drug under a different brand name for weight loss, called ZepBound. Mounjaro is strictly for diabetics. My cholesterol in September was 342, but today was 120. My blood pressure went from 160/96 in September to 109/64 today. So far so good, praise the Lord. I thanked my doctor for her help.

But I feel like I sinned on the way home because I stopped at McDonalds. I hadn't been to McDonalds since once last month when I saw they had McRib's for sale. I am trying to avoid junk food, but I wanted to treat myself a little. The fish fillet wasn't hot. The fries were lukewarm. The Diet Coke with extra ice was great! I was shocked what they charged me! The fish fillet cost $5.49 by itself, plus $.050 for extra cheese, $.0.55 for extra tartar sauce. The Big Mac Meal cost $9.49 which came with regular size fries and a medium soda. Plus $1.20 Florida tax. All toll, I paid $17.23 for an inferior meal. I seriously doubt if I will go to McDonald's once in the next year (unless the McRib's come back...lol). I remember when you could buy 2 Big Mac's for $2.

This past week I ate a bunch of Chinese food loaded with lots of fresh vegetables. I blew it today by succumbing to my cravings for McDonalds (that cursed place...lol). Fast food isn't worth it anymore, being way overpriced for garbage food in the first place. After my weakness today I am resolved to stay away from fast food this coming year in 2024 as much as possible. Eating at home is so much cheaper. I do plan, God willing, to eat plenty of fresh vegetables from the local Chinese restaurants. It's 100 % better for one's health than Burger King, KFC or McDonalds.

I didn't even eat the Big Mac and half the fries, because I wasn't hungry after eating the Fish Fillet sandwich. The Mounjaro curbs my appetite. I feel full much quicker than I did before taking the medication. The Bible teaches us to revenge all disobedience. □□□ □□□□□□□□□□□ □□:□, "□□□ □□□□□□ □□ □ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□□□□, □□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□□□." I apply that verse to my eating habits as well. I regret stopping at McDonald's today, but it was good that I finally realized how ridiculous prices have become. At least 50 % of the time when I have gone to McDonald's, their food is cold, dry and dissatisfying; it's garbage food.

[1]McDonald's is pricing themselves out of business.

4.12.26 Jesus Was Not Always Human (2023-12-29 10:58)

Hebrews 10:4-6, “For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me:

In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.”

I love Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), but even he gets it wrong sometimes (and I do too; no preacher is always right in his doctrine). As I often do, I listen to random sermons by Brother Hyles. I have [1]amassed a collection of 3,256 sermons and Bible studies so far by Dr. Hyles, which is worth more than gold to me.

Jesus Was Not Always Human

Today I heard a strange sermon titled, "[2]Human Nature Is Not really Human Nature."

The gist of the sermon is that animals have a body and soul, but no spirit. Dr. Hyles teaches that born-again humans have a spirit, soul and body, but unsaved people are as animals, not humans, since their spirit is dead. I humbly disagree. Dr. Hyles says at about 31 minutes into the sermon:

> "You either walk in the Spirit or you’re not human."

That is strange doctrine.

At about 21 minutes into the sermon Dr. Hyles says:

> "Man in his unregenerate state is not human."

I humbly disagree. When Adam sinned, he opened the floodgate of sin and death upon the world (Romans 5:12). Consequently, we were all born dead in trespasses and sins (Ephesians 2:1). Being spiritually dead is not the second death (Revelation 21:8). The "second death" is when a person dies in their sins without Christ and goes to Hell forever. But we were already spiritually dead when we were physically born.

That is why we all must be born-again to become alive (quickened) spiritually by the Holy Spirit of God. Whether a human being is spiritually dead or alive, we still have a spirit. Your spirit may be dead as an unbeliever, but you still have a spirit. Ecclesiastes 12:7 says that when a human dies our spirit return to God that gave it. [illegible] "[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]: [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]."

Dr. Hyles also teaches that:

> "Jesus was always human."

Respectfully, Dr. Hyles says that Jesus has always been the God-man in eternity. He says that Jesus became flesh when he was born of the flesh, but says He was already human. I cannot find any Scriptural support for what Dr. Hyles is teaching in this sermon, so I cannot ascribe to this strange doctrine. The reason why saints in the Old Testament went to Paradise and not directly to Heaven, was because Christ had not yet died on the cross for their sins. Although some Bible students reject the idea of a place of Paradise, I humbly believe it is the [3]only biblical conclusion if you rightly divide the Word of Truth. Please read, "[4]Where Are The Dead?"

I have no doubt that his intentions are pure, trying to get us to realize that when we walk in the flesh we are behavior like animals; albeit, RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

I find no pride in contradicting a great man of God. Dr. Hyles is and always will be my hero of the Christian faith. My ministry website wouldn't exist without Pastor Hyles' godly influence in my life, but Dr. Hyles taught us preacher boys to be loyal to truth and principles and not to men and institutions; that is what I am doing! I was saved at age 13 under the preaching of a Hyles-Anderson College graduate pastoring in Chicago. I owe Pastor Hyles a debt of gratitude which cannot be expressed in words.

Before Jesus came to earth, He was with God, and He is God (John 1:1-3, 14).

Jesus Did Not Pay For Our Sins By Being Trapped In A Body

Having said that, I read a strange doctrine recently in The Strand Study Bible, with which I humbly disagree. Brother Strand teaches that Jesus only existed in Spirit form before He became incarnate (i.e., He became flesh). Pastor Strand teaches the opposite of what Dr. Hyles teaches. Pastor Hyles says Jesus was always human; Brother Strand says Jesus existed only as a Spirit prior to His fleshly birth.

Pastor Strand errantly teaches that Jesus couldn't possibly pay for our deserved eternal punishment of Hell in just 6 hours on the cross, so His eternal punishment was to be confined in a human body forever. That is his exact word used, "confined." I humbly disagree. Brother Strand teaches that Jesus forfeited His eternal Spirit form and is now confined in a human body, which is His eternal punishment by which He paid for our sins. Kindly, using Pastor Strand's rationale, how could one man die for billions of humans? Jesus' punishment was not being confined in a physical body forever. It makes no sense to me and is strange doctrine nowhere taught in the Bible. [5]I wrote a blog about it. Jesus paid for our sins with His precious blood (Romans 5:9; 1st John 1:7; 1st Peter 1:18-19; Revelation 1:5).

I love these dear men of God. My purpose in this post is not to tear down or diminish the greatness of these men; but rather, to preach the Scriptural truth which I believe to be true, for the sake of maintaining correct doctrine. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS.

The Bible speaks in Revelation 13:8b of "the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world." Some theologians think this verse refers to the innocent animal which God killed to provide skins of clothing for Adam and Eve, when God rejected Adam's fig-leaf religion (clothing). Other Bible students think this verse refers to the innocent animal which Abel killed and offered as a blood sacrifice to God, which demonstrated his faith in the coming Messiah. I humbly think this verse refers to Jesus, who in God's mind had already been crucified before the world was even created. Does this mean that Jesus always existed in human form, crucified before the world began? I simply do not know.

We also see in Daniel that when King Nebuchadnezzar peered into the fiery furnace, he saw four men (but only 3 had been cast in). The heathen king said that the fourth man looked like the Son of God (Daniel 3:25). Clearly, Jesus appeared in a preincarnate form in the Old Testament in a physical body. I believe it was Jesus who appeared unto Abraham, while on their way to visit Sodom to see the conditions of that woeful city.

I also believe Jesus is none other than Melchisedec in Hebrews chapter 5, since He has neither mother or father. But I won't dare say that Jesus appeared in His earthly human body throughout the Old Testament in the same body conceived by Mary. That would be strange doctrine in my humble opinion. I agree with Dr. John R. Rice that where the Bible is silent we should also be silent.

I humbly think it is okay to speculate, just so long as we tell our audience that we are doing so. The Apostle Paul at times mentioned that he was merely giving his personal opinion, and that God had not told him to say those things; and yet we see that God chose to include Paul's personal comments as inspired Scripture.

Where The Bible Is Silent We Should Be Silent

I do not claim to have all the answers. But I certainly don't believe Jesus is being punished for our sins by being "stuck" in a human body forever. Nor do I believe that we are animals when we refuse to walk in the Spirit. The vilest human being still has a spirit, dead as it may be. When the Apostle James says faith without works is "dead" in James 2:17, it is still faith. Dead faith is still existing faith. Many believers are woefully lacking works to shew their faith in the sight of men, but their faith is nevertheless 100 % real and still saving faith.

I thought I'd share these intriguing Bible truths with everyone. I'm not saying that I am right on everything, but I do not feel comfortable with the sermon I heard today by Brother Hyles, because he couldn't back up his teachings with Scripture, and neither could Pastor Strand in his commentary. I absolutely love his commentary, but I don't cut anybody any slack if I sincerely think they are in doctrinal error. The doctrine of Christ is important.

I used to tell people to "invite Jesus into your heart" to be saved, but I learned about 15 years ago from Pastor Max D. Younce that it is unbiblical, so I never used that phrase again. A "heart" is a muscle about twice the size of one's fist. A child cannot understand how to invite Jesus into a muscle. We get saved by BELIEVING Jesus did it all for us through Calvary's cross, not by inviting Him into our heart or life. Judas was a part of Jesus' life but went to Hell.

I hate that religious tract titled, "Missing Heaven By 18 Inches." The tract says inside that 18 inches is the distance between your mind and your heart. The tract is stupid and makes no doctrinal sense at all. The biblical "heart" is our subconscious brain, where our feelings and will reside. Effectively, the heart is a part of our human brain. So it makes zero sense to try to explain to someone that they may not be saved if they merely believe the Gospel in their mind, but not their heart. We should never tell someone that theological junk. You may know the facts of the Gospel in your mind, but not believe (trust) those facts; but it is impossible to BELIEVE those facts in your mind but not your heart.

I humbly disagree with Dr. Jack Hyles that Jesus was always human, and that Jesus could somehow be " human

prior to His incarnation without a fleshly body. Until Jesus was conceived in Mary's womb by a miracle of the Holy Spirit, Jesus was not a human. I don't think Dr. Hyles should make bold claims when the Bible does not.

Respectfully said, nor should Pastor Brad Strand teach that Jesus' paid for our sins by being confined in a physical body for all eternity, giving up His previous Spirit form. These are strange doctrines. I've never heard anybody teach these things, except these two men. As I mentioned, I love Dr. Hyles and Pastor Strand, but I humbly disagree with their teachings regarding the person of Christ. The Bible is very clear in many passages (e.g., 1st Peter 1:18-19) that Jesus paid for our sins with His precious blood, which He sprinkled on the Mercy Seat in Heaven (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 10:1; 12:24).

Jesus did appear in some sort of a physical visible body in the Old Testament. Pastor Hyles preached a helpful sermon titled, " [6]Jesus In The Old Testament ." Since I got saved 43 years ago at age 13 in 1980, I have always believed that Jesus didn't become "human" until He was virgin-born into the world—the only begotten (biological) Son of God (John 3:16).

The strange notion that Jesus was always human, but lacked flesh, cannot be supported with the Scriptures. I think it is important to set the matter straight, because I have had professed Christians want to argue with me on this matter, in defense of Brother Hyles' heresy. Nobody loves Dr. Hyles as much as I do, but I love God, truth and principles first and foremost. Our text passage from Hebrews 10:5 says, **"

but a body hast thou prepared me."

When we die someday and our soul and spirit depart and separate from our body of flesh, will we still be human? I think not. We will exist in spirit form. The Bible teaches that when our earthly tabernacle (body) can no longer provide housing our "soul and spirit" (Hebrews 4:12), we have a house in Heaven made without hands. 2nd Corinthians 5:1, "

For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

" I honestly do not know exactly what that means. Does it mean that God has a new temporary body for us in Heaven, while we wait until we receive our immortal body at the Rapture, which will be fashioned like unto the Lord's resurrected body? (1st Corinthians 15:51-58; Philippians 3:21). Or does it simply mean that we have a home in Heaven? I do not know. Someone has said that "B.I.B.L.E." can be expressed as an acronym: "Basic Instruction Before Leaving Earth." I like that!

I don't like when religious leaders speak with authority about matters they cannot support with the Scriptures. I am as narrow-minded as the Bible. Ecclesiastes 7:29, "Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions." It was never God's intention for mankind to fall into sin and rebellion, although in His foreknowledge He knew that it would happen. There are far more unanswerable questions than there are answers. God told us what we need to know to prepare for eternity. I think the saying is true: If God were small enough to be understand, He wouldn't be big enough to be worshipped.

We know that Jesus created all things (John 1:1-3 - King James Bible). The modern Devil's Bible revisions corrupt this passage in John 1:3, changing the preposition "by" to "through," which attacks Jesus' deity as the Creator. God the Father didn't create everything through Jesus; All things were created by Jesus as part of the Godhead. Genesis 1:26, " And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. ” There is the Godhead (aka, Trinity). The Godhead created mankind.

Jesus was never created. He is and always has been God. John 1:1-3, “

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.” John 1:14 teaches that the Word became flesh, and we beheld His glory as the only begotten Son of God. Revelation 19:13 says that Jesus’ name is "THE WORD OF GOD." Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) called them "twins." Jesus is the Living Word and the Bible is the Written Word. Jesus told us in John 5:39, "

Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

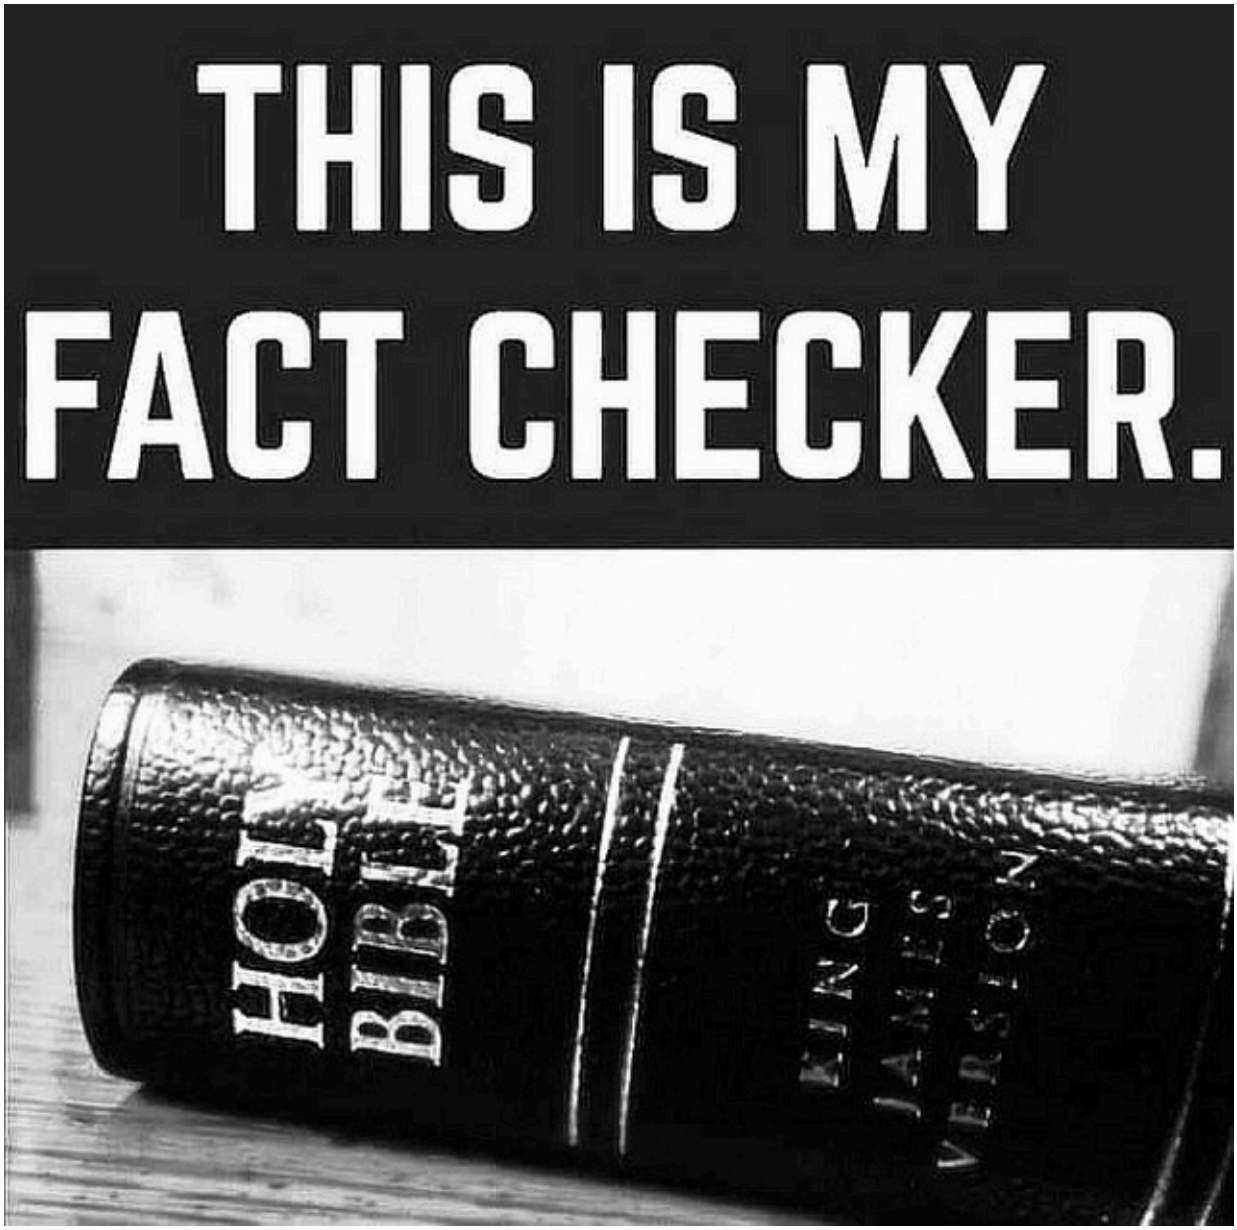
" The inspired Scriptures are inseparably connected with Jesus Christ, for they are one and the same.

Jesus Appeared In The Old Testament As The Angel Of The Lord

Many Bible scholars believe Jesus appeared on earth in the Old Testament, not as a man, but as the Angel of the Lord. The Old Testament contains more than 50 references to the "Angel of the Lord." The Angel of the Lord rescued Sarah’s handmaid Hagar and her son Ishmael. The Angel of the Lord appeared unto Abraham on the way to Sodom to respond to the victim’s cries from the city. The Angel of the Lord appeared in a burning bush to Moses. He fed the prophet Elijah. He came to call Gideon. Appearances of the Angel of the Lord stopped after Jesus’ birth. He could not be on earth as a human being and as an angel simultaneously. These pre-incarnate manifestations were called in theology, theophanies or christophanies, the appearance of God to human beings.

I cannot explain all this, and neither can you nor anybody else. We can only claim to know what the Bible states as a fact, the rest is mere speculation. Thankfully, the Holy Bible is very clear on the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4), so there is no speculation regarding how to get to Heaven. I do not believe Jesus was always human, even though He did appear as the Angel of the Lord throughout the Old Testament. I think it is safe to conclude that Jesus first became human when He was conceived by the Holy Spirit in the womb of a virgin, Mary (Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 1:23). Thank you for reading my blog.

We Simply Do Not Know



There are more questions than answers about God and the Bible. God doesn’t tell us many things, but we know enough to live this life for Christ and get to Heaven by faith alone in Him. Where the Bible is silent it is best to remain silent. It is okay to speculate, just so long as we call it that.

I have always thought a "human" begins at conception in the womb. We know that Christ appeared in the Old Testament in many places as the Angel of the Lord, but not as a human. Angels appeared in the Bible as humans. In fact, the Bible says that some saints have met angels but didn’t even recognize them as angels. Hebrews 13:2, "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares." Angels look just like humans. Lot prepared a feast for the two angels who came to him (Genesis 19:3). So we know that angels can eat food and drink with enjoyment. That is interesting. Yet, angels are not humans.

The idea that Jesus was always human doesn't set right with me, since He hadn't been conceived yet in Mary's womb by the Holy Spirit. Jesus is God. He was never created. John 1:3 says Jesus created all things. Genesis 1:26 says that the Godhead ("us") created man in "our image" (i.e., in God's image). Here we see the Trinity. The King James Bible mentions that "godhead" in Romans 1:20, Acts 17:29 and Colossians 2:9. All of the Devil's modern Bible revisions remove these words, changing it to "divine nature" (which sounds like new age).

The details of Christ's person are unsearchable by humanity. All we know is what the Bible tells us. Revelation 19:13 says Jesus' name is "THE WORD OF GOD." John 1:1-3 and 14 teach that the Word became flesh. I am not sure what that means. How does "the Word" become flesh? To me "the Word" refers to the printed Bible. But the Bible also says that Jesus is "the Word." That is difficult to grasp. Perhaps it means that since the Word was authored by God, it is effectively Him. The adage is true that: A man is only as good as his Word. A man's word is his bond.

Psalms 138:2, "I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name." I understand why God elevates His Word above His name, because as with men, God's name is only as reliable and trustworthy as His Word. If the Bible is not 100 % true, then God is a liar and we cannot trust Him. So, as best that I can tell, when the Bible says that "the Word became flesh" (John 1:14), it means God is inseparably connected with His written Word, that is, God's integrity is dependent upon the trustworthiness of the Holy Bible. The Word became flesh and His name is Jesus.

4.12.27 We Often Use The Wrong Weapons As Saints (2023-12-29 17:16)

Ephesians 6:11-20, " Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints; And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel, For which I am an ambassador in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak."

In this Scripture passage we learn of the believer's seven pieces of armour and weaponry:

1. Loins gird about with the truth
2. Breastplate of righteousness
3. Feet shod with preparation of the Gospel
4. Shield of faith
5. Helmet of salvation
6. Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God
7. Prayer

These are our spiritual weapons of warfare.

So often as saints, we choose to use the world's inferior weapons of criticism, anger, revenge, holding a grudge, giving the silent treatment, needless lawsuits, hatred and unkindness, dishonoring the Lord Jesus Christ. May we all Walk in the Spirit to fulfill the law, by loving our neighbor as our self.

I encourage you dear reader to get busy sharing the Gospel with lost sinners. Pray for the people in your life, getting your mind off of yourself. Philippians 2:4, "Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others." Speak the truth and contend for the faith (Jude 1:3). Have faith in God (Mark 11:22b).

4.12.28 'THRU THE BIBLE' Radio By Pastor J. Vernon McGee (2023-12-30 12:29)

I found these FREE downloads of all 66 books of the Bible exegeted by Dr. J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988). Pastor McGee was a faithful Presbyterian free grace Gospel preacher, as was Evangelist Billy Sunday (1862-1935). I thank God for Brother McGee, that he preserved these invaluable recordings of his 'THRU THE BIBLE' 5-year radio series for future generations...

[2]'THRU THE BIBLE' MP3 Downloads

I downloaded all the MP3's all to a folder that I created on my computer. Then I transferred them to my portable MP3 player which I use in my car. I connect the MP3 player with a 1/4 stereo audio cable to my auxiliary port on my radio, so I can hear the Bible studies through my car's stereo system. Have you ever stopped to think about how much time we spend listening to music, when we could be spiritually edified by listening to something better?

Here is one of my favorite sermon excerpts by Pastor McGee, in which he exposes the Devil's deadly counterfeit gospel of 'LORDSHIP SALVATION.' ...

5.1 January

5.1.1 Seek God's Righteousness And Lay Up Treasures In Heaven (2024-01-01 12:13)

Matthew 6:19-34, "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven*, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also*.

The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?

And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

(For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you*.

Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

This is a beautiful passage of Scripture. My pastor preached on this topic yesterday and I learned some helpful new things. I’m sure many Bible students have tried to understand Matthew 6:22-23, “

The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

” If you attempt to understand this Scripture without looking at the surrounding context, you won’t be able to do so. The topic at hand is putting the things of God first in your life. Jesus is teaching that if your focus is right then everything else will fall into place.

Our text begins in Matthew 6:19-20, “ Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also*. ” My first pastor who led me to Jesus Christ in 1980, taught me that where we invest our time, money and prayers will be where our heart is. Most people think where your heart is, that is where your treasure will follow; but that is not what the Bible says. The Bible says where your treasure is, that is where your heart will follow.

Someone once told me that they don’t care, but want to, and they asked me how to start caring. I showed them Matthew 6:19-21, explaining that if they will start investing their time, prayer, resources and money in a ministry or person, they will begin to care over time. The $64,000 friend is: Where is your focus? May I kindly say, you cannot serve God in resources and money. Certainly those things can be tools, but all of the resources and money in the world mean absolutely nothing if you are not preaching the Gospel to win the lost.

The Salvation Army comes to mind. Pastor Jack Hyles is right, who said that the Salvation Army today has become more

alvation.

” Where is the Gospel? Sadly, their [1]corrupt Statement of Faith is Calvinist, not a free grace Gospel. I do not support or recommend the Salvation Army.

Matthew 6:22-23 is saying that if our spiritual priorities are wrong, then our life will also be wrong. No child of God can live choked by the cares, riches and pleasures of this temporary world and be happy and pleasing to God. Luke 8:14,

“And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.” This parable of The Sower And The Seed (Luke 8:11-15) is not about getting saved, it is about Christian maturity to become a soulwinner. I humbly think most believers fall into group three, that is, those who are choked by the cares, riches and pleasures of this temporary world.

The inspired Holy Bible exhorts us in Colossians 3:1-2, “If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

Right Doctrine Matters

Jesus emphatically warns in Matthew 6:24 that no man can serve both God and mammon. That is, you cannot pursue making money and faithfully serve God. That is why the shameful institution of Pensacola Christian College (PCC) today refuses to contend for the Christian faith. They are A.W.O.L. from ’[2]The Battle Of The Ages.’ They take in millions upon millions of dollars annually, yet call people like me “ radical

for preaching the truth and contending for the faith. PCC intern pastor, Sean Quinlan, in 2018 at the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam, horribly called me “obsessed over the Bible issue.” Sadly, Quinlan admitted to me that he couldn’t show me even one thing wrong with the Devil’s modern Bible revisions. Yet that wicked pastor falsely accuses and scolds me for caring enough to warn people about Satan’s corrupt Bible perversions. Shame on Sean Quinlan and [3]the PCC cult.

When I moved from Guam to Pensacola in 2021, and started attending Campus Church at PCC, Pastor Jeff Redlin shamefully criticized my website ministry, horribly accusing me of “finding weaknesses in preachers.” What a wicked thing to say, when in truth I am faithfully exposing wickedness in [4]Lordship Salvation preachers. Bob Jones University today preaches hardcore Lordship Salvation and Wrong Repentance. PCC wickedly bids BJU Godspeed. PCC’s priorities is making money, not warning people about false doctrine, false prophets, false Bibles and damnable heresy which has crept into the Bible colleges and churches. PCC are pulling on the same rope as the Devil, and God’s wrath is upon them.

Worry Cannot Fix Tomorrow’s Evil

Jesus further states in Matthew 6:25, “Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?" God is very honest. A fool like Pastor Joel Osteen says, "Things will be better tomorrow!" But what saith the Scripture? Matthew 6:34, "Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." God is enough to tell us that evil will be there tomorrow. By "evil" Jesus isn't necessarily speaking about deliberate sin; but rather, bad things in general. Getting hit by a car would be an "evil" thing happening to you, in a biblical sense. Bad things are going to happen.

I bought an [5]AquaSonic Black Series high-powered electric toothbrush from Amazon for $29.95. It vibrates 40,000 times per minute. I was so eager while waiting for it, excited as I opened the box when I received it, and like a little kid as I loaded some toothpaste on it and inserted the brush into my mouth. That darn thing cracked my front tooth using it for the first time!!! OUCH!!! My first impulse was to search online to see if anyone else has experienced the same problem. Sure enough I found them! Even worse, I found an [6]FDA warning against electric toothbrushes, warning that they'll crack your teeth. Why didn't Amazon warn me? I am returning the product and I gave it a bad review on Amazon (if they'll post it). I have to make an appointment with my dentist tomorrow, since today is New Year's Day. My tooth cracked on Saturday. It's not either of my two front teeth, but the first tooth to the right on top. The best electric toothbrush is a cheap Oral B brush from Walmart for $15, which is what I used for over a year with no issues. I thought buying a more expensive one would be better, but I was way wrong. So you see, evil things happen without warning every new day.

Jesus tells us in The Beatitudes (or as I say, "T he attitudes that should be

") in Matthew chapter 6 not to worry about tomorrow. The Lord says quite a bit about this matter. Jesus said that King Solomon in all his glory was not dressed as wonderful as the flower in the field, yet God does it all without any help from mankind. The birds are always fed. Someone has said that if you collected all the birdseed in the world, it would only feed the world's birds for about 1/4th of a day. Yet, God provides for all the birds and they eat plenty. Nature was doing fine long before we were born, and nature will be going strong long after we are dead. The animals, insects and birds reproduce after their kind (DNA) each generation, just as humans do. God made everything to reproduce after its own kind (Genesis 1:24-25).

Jesus commands us as saints not to worry about the future. What human being by worrying can add one inch to your height? You cannot. Worrying never solved or fixed anything. Losing sleep, fretting and getting upset doesn't fix anything. As I type, a business man owes me $4,899 for a banjo that he never delivered to me. After 16 months of waiting I finally asked for all my money back. He gave me his solemn promise in writing that after 90 days he will refund all my money, no matter what.

Well, the 90 days ended on December 10, 2023. I still don't have my money back, and all he has done is make excuses. He said his daughter had an emergency in early December. He said because of COVID-19 he is short staffed at his music store. He said he is busy upgrading his showroom at his store. Now he says he was unable to credit the money back to my VISA card because he billed my card so long ago. When people don't want to give your money back, they just keep making excuses, like he is doing. But I am not worrying about it. He's either going to refund my money or he's not. Some people are just rotten, shady and don't honor their promises. He claims to be a Christian. All I can do is pray and put it into God's hands. Worry, fret and getting frustrated won't fix anything, so I just focus on Jesus and helping others through my ministry websites, blogs and social media. Thankfully, Jesus will never cause us to be ashamed for trusting in Him, because God keeps His Word to save them that believe (Romans 10:11; 1st Corinthians 1:21b).

O Ye Of Little Faith?

Read what Jesus said in Matthew 6:30, "

Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? " My pastor pointed out something yesterday in his sermon that I had never noticed before, that Jesus ended His statement about "O ye of little faith?" with a question mark, not an exclamation mark. Jesus was asking His disciples, after all you have seen and heard of me, you still don't trust me? What an indictment! Dear reader, after all that you've seen in this world which evidences a divine Creator, and after all that you've read in the inspired Word of God, and after all the goodness which God has blessed you and your family and country, do you still lack faith in God? Mark 11:22b, "Have faith in God."

Dear friend, you can either worry, fret and lose sleep about tomorrow, or you can trust Christ. I choose to trust Christ. If that businessman I mentioned a moment ago never refunds my money, I can still look in the mirror each day and live with that, because he is the crook, not me. About 10 years ago another man in Indianapolis, Indiana stole $2,800 from me. I had shipped him my $1,500 used S-10 (single neck with 10 strings) Sho-Bud pedal steel guitar, which he charged me $1,300 on my PayPal for parts and labor to upgrade the undercarriage. Well, that thief (John Coop Sr.) kept my money and my guitar, and died a few years later. I am a compassionate man, so I told him that IF (my promise was conditional) he would return my guitar, he could keep the $1,300. I had learned that he had cancer, so I felt sorry for him. But he was healthy enough to lie, connive and cheat dozens of other people out of their money and guitars too. What a wicked person!

And then the next year another thief, James Moorehead in Oklahoma, stole $600 from me. He promised to send me a bunch of Sho-Bud parts that I ordered, so I could work on my own steel guitar, but he kept my money and never sent me the parts. What a rotten wicked person!

Thieves stole my car in Chicago in 2004, which cost me $5,000. I have been robbed again and again by thieves. And there are many incidents I won't even mention. But dear reader, I can live with all of these evil things which have befallen me and my family, because I was the victim. I can live with people hurting, divorcing, betraying, hating, banning, ostracizing, mocking and mistreating me, because I am the victim. I couldn't live with myself if I knew there was a man wanting to attend church, but as a pastor I refused to allow him to come to church. Over my dead body would that ever happen! Yet, I am banned by the wicked pastors of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), because they hate me and my preaching against the wicked Bob Jones cult. Pastor Jeff Redlin at PCC is a wicked person! Their complicit leaders at PCC are cowards, fools and go along and couldn't care less about hurting people. Their outrageous $150,000 annual salaries (and more) is all that they are about. The cult system always comes first at PCC, but individuals don't matter.

Focus On The Things Of God And He Will Take Care Of You

We serve a wonderful Savior! I challenge you (and myself as well) to brag on God's goodness this coming year. I receive countless letters from frustrated saints who are down, depressed and even talking about ending their life. Their problem (and I am guilty too at times) is that we lose our proper spiritual focus, taking our eyes off off the Great Shepherd (Hebrews 12:3); instead we focus on the negative daily news, wars, family issues, health woes, people who have mistreated and hurt us, abusive pastors and shallow Christians who just don't care anymore about people or right doctrine (crapholes like Pensacola Christian College), et cetera.

God's blessed Holy Spirit has to continually remind me that PCC are wicked people, who have neither regard for God nor man. They think they do, blinded by their own self-glorification, self-praise, worldly success and elaborate cult system, but they know nothing about the great forgiving heart of our awesome God, for if they did they'd beg me to come back to church instead of telling this beggar to go away (they've literally banned me in writing from attending Campus Church). That is the Devil's hatred, not God's unconditional love for people. I've done nothing to hurt them at PCC, Pastor Jeff Redlin despised me with jealousy from the day I stepped onto their college campus. God will deal with that wicked heathen. Sadly, PCC leaders are complicit and just don't care, only thinking about themselves like Hezekiah did.

The heathen world lives for things and resources. PCC exploits Christianity to make money and enrich their pockets, having no regard as did the Good Samaritan. I was left for dead in 2021 by PCC, told I couldn't return, because they hate me so much. I know how [7]Samantha Field feels, [8]betrayed by her own college from which she graduated at PCC. As God's saints we should focus on the things of God. Matthew 6:33, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. " I have never heard even one preacher get this passage correct. They all say to put the things of God first in your life, and everything will be added unto you. Dear reader, that is works!!! This beautiful passage is talking about none other than the imputed righteousness of God, which is by faith alone in Jesus Christ. Romans 10:3-4,

"For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." To get to Heaven, you need HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS. That is, you need God's righteousness which is imputed to every lost sinner when they place their childlike trust in Jesus Christ. ...

> Philippians 3:9-11, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:
> That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead."

Matthew 6:33 is teaching that is you will get saved by putting your trust in Christ alone, then all of God's blessings will be yours. Romans 8:32, "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

" And also, read what Jesus said in

Matthew 6:7-8, "

But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

" God will take care of you!

5.1.2 Isn't Jesus' Name Supposed To Be Yahushua? (2024-01-02 11:27)

Philippians 2:9-11, "

Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:

That at the name of Jesus* every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

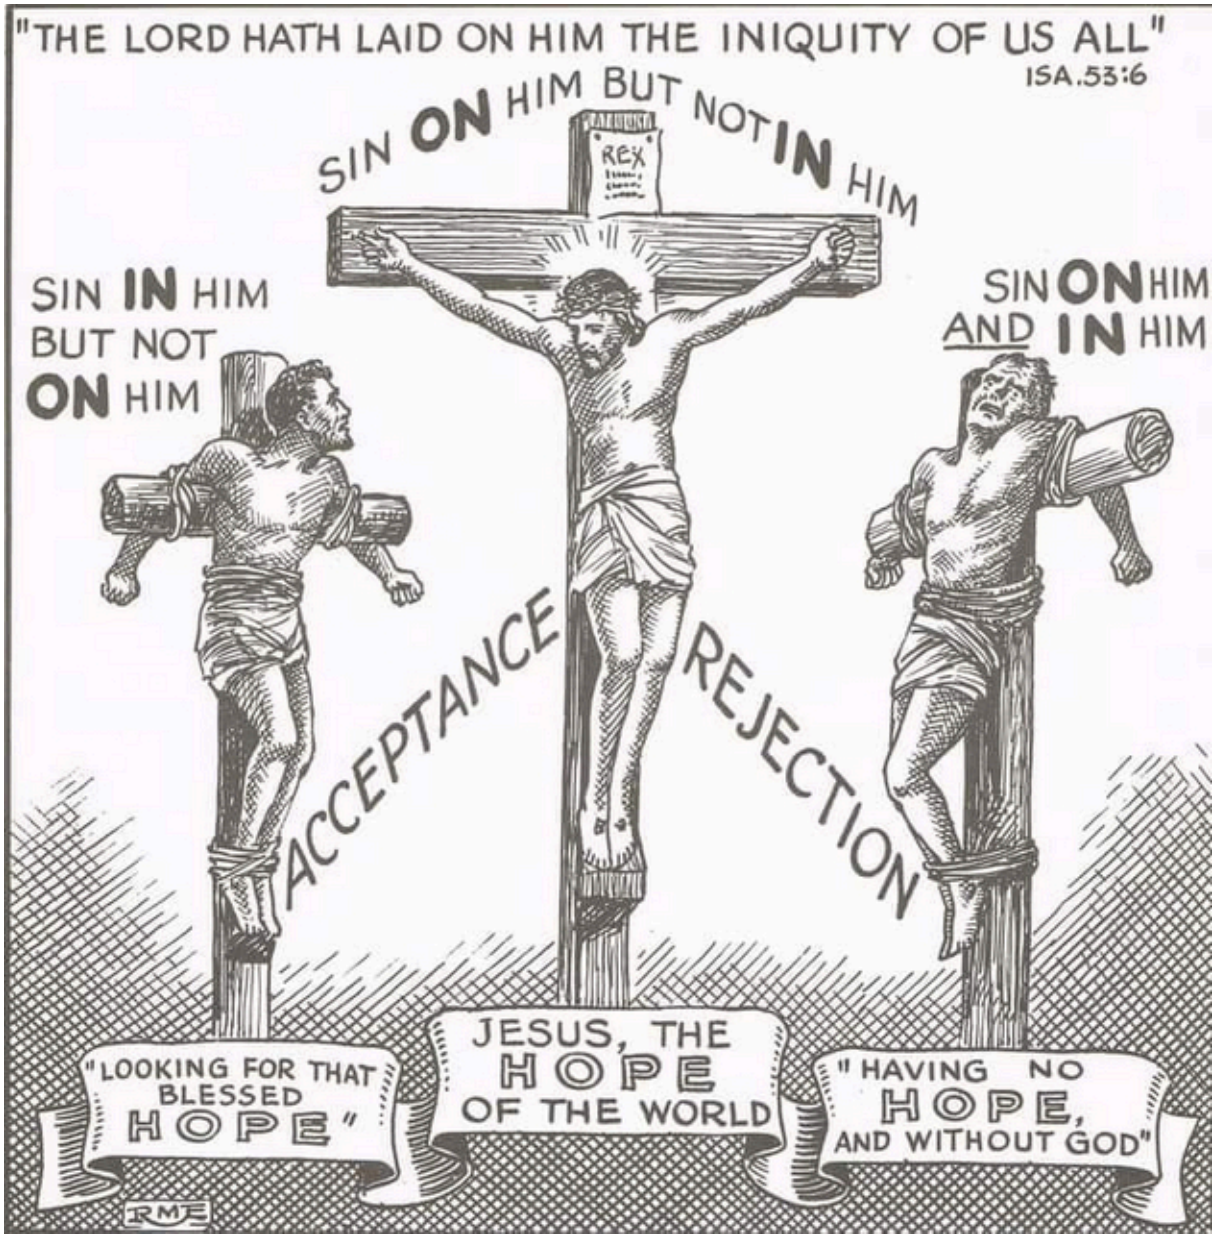
Someone recently contacted me at my ministry, and said he was confused about who to pray to. The man said he had found some information on the internet, which said that Jesus' real name is Yahushua. He was confused. I kindly replied:

Kindly, if you continue to follow the idiots on social media, you will continue to be confused. We are supposed to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES (John 5:39) as Jesus commanded. The Bereans SEARCHED THE SCRIPTURES daily, to verify what the Apostle Paul taught them, to see if those things were so (Acts 17:10-11). What does the Bible say about the name of Jesus? ...

> Philippians 2:9-11, "Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father."

His name is supposed to be Jesus, not Yeshuidiot or anything else.



Let's just settle this matter once and for all, shall we, with the inspired Word of God. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Matthew 1:19-21, "Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily. But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost. And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins."

There you have it, the precious name of the only begotten Son of God is "

Jesus." So if you ever hear anyone claim that Jesus' name was supposed to be something else, you know they are lying to you! We should pray to the Father in Jesus' name.

John 16:23, " And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you." As born-again saints, our great God, Savior, Lord and Friend's precious name is Jesus.

5.1.3 I Am Growing Weary Of The New IFB (2024-01-03 11:07)

Jude 1:3, "Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints."

I am growing weary of the New IFB myself. Their unbiblical requirement to ask, call and pray to be saved is totally wrong. I have written numerous blogs exposing the New IFB camp...

- [1]https://stewart1611.blogspot.com/2022/12/you-dont-have-to-pray-to-be-s aved.html

- [2]https://giftofeternallife.blogspot.com/2023/08/new-ifb-pastors-have-si nners-prayer.html
- [3]https://giftofeternallife.blogspot.com/2022/12/new-ifb-pastors-are-wro ng-about-praying.html

- [5]https://giftofeternallife.blogspot.com/2022/12/pastor-steven-anderson- is-wrong-that.html

I humbly [6]disagree with Pastor Steven Anderson on at least 11 issues. A friend just started a new YouTube channel, voicing his anger against the New IFB movement...

[7]New IFB Exposed

I wasn't aware that Pastor Anderson sanctions illegal aliens (and even hires them). Wow! That is really bad. A nation without borders ceases to be a country. Our leaders are traitors and have commit high treason against the people of the United States.

Regarding the wide open southern border and flood of over 8,400,000 illegals into the country, I was suspended for 24 hours from Twitter for saying that a certain wicked U.S. President should be tried in a court of law and then punished. I guess calling for justice is now considered hate speech in America. Albeit, our incompetent leaders (and hidden Masonic accomplices) have already condemned themselves and thankfully God will punish them (Ecclesiastes 5:8). No one can escape God's justice, no one (Hebrews 4:13; Proverbs 24:12).

We Should Reject The Sin, But Never The Sinner

The biggest problem I have with Pastor Anderson is his hatred of homosexuals. They are broken sinners [8]who can still be saved (formerly homosexual, but now Christians). No one is beyond the hope of the Gospel. If there is a point of no return that a rebellious sinner can cross (i.e., a reprobate), we cannot know when that line is crossed, only God does. And it is the individual sinner, not God, who prevents them self from being saved. John 5:40, "And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life." Jesus said "ye will not come," He didn't say "ye cannot come." Since I don't know what is in any man's heart (and neither do you - 1st Samuel 16:7), I am going to preach the Gospel to "every creature" as the Bible commands (Mark 16:15), not just to straight sinners like the New IFB does.

I love Pastor Anderson and I support soulwinning saints everywhere, regardless of their religious denomination or particular affiliation. In my mind, I don't see New IFB versus Old IFB, I only see New Testament churches. But I have some issues with the New IFB (which began in 2006 with Pastor Steven Anderson's Faithful Word Baptist Church in Arizona). You do not have to ask, call or pray to be saved. To teach otherwise is to risk confusing people about how to get to Heaven.

I got saved at age 13 in 1980. Unfortunately, I literally wept in tears for the next several years, scared that I might not be saved, because every Baptist preacher and religious tract that I had been influenced by told me that I needed to pray a prayer to get to Heaven. That confused me utterly, and it hid the simplicity that is in Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4) from me, which simplicity is that you can be saved by just BELIEVING the "Good News" (Gospel) that Jesus died on a cross to pay for my sins, He was buried, and three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead for my justification (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

I knew I was a guilty sinner when I got saved. I simply received Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for my sins, believing that I was trusting in a risen Savior that moment, and He did gloriously save me. But as time passed, looking back, I had been horribly mistaught by Baptist pastors that praying is the way you put your faith in Christ. So I began to doubt and question what I had prayed. Did I miss something? Did I leave something out? What if I didn't get something right? What if, I thought. Since I couldn't remember every vivid detail, especially as time distanced me from the time I was born again, I worried even more.

So I began to pray and pray and pray the Sinner's Prayer, at least 50 times over several years (perhaps even 100 times). I simply cannot remember how many times I asked God to save me, all because no one had ever properly taught me that you get saved by simply BELIEVING without the need to ask, call or pray. This is why I am 100 % against the heresy being preached today by the New IFB, and it all originates with Pastor Steven Anderson, the leader of the New IFB. People just want to be loved.

The Blessing Of Big Families And The Curse Of Big Cities

Having said all that, I sincerely love Brother Anderson and [9]I support his soulwinning ministry. I regularly pray for his wife and 25 kids...lol. I can't keep up with their number of children. I think they now have 11 children. Praise God! I love and believe in big families. Please don't ever let anybody, nor any doctor or nurse, pressure you to stop having more than 2 or 3 children. You tell them to mind their own business!!!

I went through that myself as a young father. I remember our shop union steward at work asking me how many children I had. When I told him "four," he criticized me and said that is too many. No, he is a wicked person with worldly values. My wife's obstetrician even repeatedly tried to convince us not to have any more children. So, be forewarned young people, the ungodly world will try to hinder you from having a big family. You kindly tell them to mind their own damn business!

Also, please don't buy into the Devil's lie of overpopulation on the earth. There is ample space and arable land to grow crops. As of 2023, the entire state of [10]Wyoming only has 584,057 residents. I hate seeing humans herded into large cities like cattle. Big cities have always been bad for humanity. You won't see people lying abandoned on the street in a small town of 3,500 people. Urbanization has destroyed the world. Dr. Hyles said that in the book titled, "Attorney David C. Gibbs Jr. Interviews Dr. Jack Hyles." My humble advice to all parents is to leave the big city and move your family to a smaller town in a rural area. That is why more Americans in 2020 moved to Tennessee than any other state. They want a better life for their family.

Be Loyal To Truth And Principles, Not To Men Or Institutions

I was trained by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) as a preacher. Dr. Hyles taught us not to be loyal to men or institutions; but rather, to truth and principles. Brother Hyles and the administrators of their Christian schools met together and decided what rules to create, based on Scriptural principles. They then decided what the punishments would be for students who violated those agreed upon rules. Students and parents were required to learn the rules and sign an agreement for their children to enroll into the Christian school. This way the school operated on set rules and not personal opinion, bias, nepotism or favoritism.

Pastor Hyles told us about situations which had risen, where the parents of children who broke the school's rules were also church members, so they expected preferential treatment. But Brother Hyles allowed the set rules and policies to make the decisions, not anything else. Some of those church members, who were also parents of children enrolled into the church's schools, quit the church and removed their kids from the school in anger. That is their prerogative, but I respect, admire and support Dr. Hyles' wisdom in allowing the rules to dictate the outcome, and not personal bias and favoritism. That is the only way to be fair.

We should be loyal to truth and principles, never to men or institutions. That is what is wrong with places like Pensacola Christian College and Bob Jones University. Those carnal institutions are loyal to men and to each other, instead of to truth alone. In those organizations the cult system always comes first, but individual people do not matter. Their behavior proves what I say. PCC has a bad reputation for expelling students, mistreating divorced church members and shunning people like me whom they despise.

When I say that I am becoming "weary" of the New IFB, I simply mean that I am disappointed that they continue to veer away from the fundamentals of the faith. Teaching that homosexuals are beyond the hope of the Gospel is a strange doctrine. I do believe that there is such a thing as a "reprobate" sinner. That is, there is a point of no return, which once crossed, a sinner will never come to Christ to be saved. But it is my belief that we cannot know when someone crosses that line. To say that a homosexual has crossed that point is wrong.

Romans 1:28 says that God gave them over to a "reprobate mind." I humbly think this means that God knows when a person is beyond being reached with the Gospel. But for the New IFB to claim to know who, when or where a sinner has come to that point is very wrong. We are not God. To claim that homosexuals cannot be saved is to place one's self in the place of God, condemning an entire class of sinners to Hell. As if adulterers and fornicators are still capable of being saved, but sodomites are not. I have taken a lot of heat and even lost ministry supporters for my association with the New IFB, but I am loyal to truth and principles and not to men, websites or institutions.

There Are Only Local New Testament Churches, Not New or Old Baptists

I have been an Independent Fundamental Baptist (IFB) since I became saved at age 13 in 1980. That doesn't make me a child of God. Only by being BORN AGAIN can any lost sinner become a child of God. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

I love the New IFB for their aggressive soulwinning zeal. But now the New IFB are preaching that you cannot be saved without praying, which is strange doctrine. What next? I decided long ago that I wasn't going to get caught up into this "new" versus "old" IFB Baptist conflict.

The New IFB is essential the beliefs and methods of Pastor Steven Anderson, who started his Faithful Word Baptist Church in 2006 in Tempe, Arizona. I thank God for him, but lately they've been preaching some strange doctrine, by errantly requiring a Sinner's Prayer to get to Heaven. The Bible says that you can be saved simply by BELIEVING ON JESUS. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

5.1.4 The Repent Of Your Sins Heresy Exposed (2024-01-04 09:58)

Acts 16:29-31, “Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas,

And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

Someone sent me this excellent 3:50 hour video documentary today, which exposes the Devil’s lie that you cannot go to Heaven unless you turn away from your sinful behavior (which is works and not God’s grace).

REPENT OF YOUR SINS 2, The Hypocrites
(Documentary, false prophet exposure)

I encourage you to watch the documentary dear reader. Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold said it best, I humbly think:

> “There is power in this [1]Gospel message. Most people just don’t know how to present it... The clarity of the Gospel is what makes it easy for them to believe.” —Pastor Yankee Arnold, a quote from the excellent MP3 sermon titled, “[2]WHY GRACE CAN SAVE THE WORST MAN!”

Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) said it very well:

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can’t be lost because it depends upon God’s faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, “Hebrews”; Zondervan Publishing House; 1959 (p. 117)

Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. I have received countless emails from web visitors who thank me, letting me know that they had previously been confused about how to be saved, but then God led them to my website ministry and they were saved when they saw [3]a clear presentation of the Gospel.

5.1.5 One Of The Greatest Sins You Can Commit (2024-01-10 13:08)

Matthew 7:1-5, “

Judge not, that ye be not judged.

For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother’s eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

Thou hypocrite*, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother’s eye.

I am just a hell-deserving sinner and so are you friend. The old adage is very true: There but for the grace of God go I. Pastor Jack Hyles used to wisely say that anyone is capable of committing any sin under the right circumstances. That is so true!

We all have a Skelton Closet of sins, faults and sinful bad habits that we don’t want to talk about (not if you’re a normal person). But it is all too easy to talk about the sins, faults and sinful bad habits of others. Jesus rebuked the one who condemns other sinners, while overlooking our own sins. I know the pain of being condemned by other sinners, and I’m sure you do too. Dr. Hyles also said that no one can withstand the attack of a critic. He is absolutely correct, because we are all guilty of sinning and doing wrong at times. If you watch someone long enough you will find a bunch of things wrong with them. That is why no one can withstand the attack of a critic, because we all have shortcomings and faults. You won’t have to watch me for a long time to find that I have many faults, and so do you if you’re an honest person.

The thing that discourages me the most as a Christian and a Baptist preacher is seeing church pastors who ban imperfect people from coming to church. As of August 2, 2022 I have been wickedly and permanently banned by the pastors at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) from attending their church. It didn’t matter that I apologized repeatedly in the summer of 2022 for offending them (because I criticized them on social media), they still refuse to allow me to come back to church. They are condemning me, which makes them the greater sinner in God’s eyes. I admit that I have a mote in my eye. I am just a redeemed sinner, saved by God’s undeserving grace, through faith in His only begotten Son, Jesus. God will deal with those hypocrites (which is what Jesus calls them) at PCC and their hateful Campus Church.

If I weren’t a genuine born-again believer who knows better, the hypocrites at PCC would compel me to become an atheist. The world is literally spiritually dying because of spiritually dark places like the religious cult at PCC, who throw people under the bus and woefully lack God’s compassion for hurting sinners. All I humbly wanted was to return to attending church services, but PCC’s leaders refused. No true Christian church would do such a wicked thing!

Dear reader, I hope there is no one in your life whom you have shunned, thrown under the bus and made to feel like human garbage because of their faults, sins or imperfections. If it weren't for God's merciful grace that sent Jesus to die on the cross of Calvary for our sins, we'd all spend eternity burning in the fires of Hell. If you truly comprehend what God has done for you, then you would never dare to refuse to give someone forgiveness and a second chance. The ungodly pastors at PCC get paid 6-digit salaries annually, living large at the expense of their gullible supporters ([1]whom God considers victims).

One of the greatest sins anyone could ever commit, next to rejecting Jesus as one's personal Savior (which is the Unpardonable Sin), is to condemn another human being for their sins. Don't judge others because they sin differently than you do! I condemn no man! I am the biggest sinner that I know, because I know myself better than anyone else. And if you are an honest person, then you feel the same about yourself. Isaiah saw himself as unclean in the eyes of a holy God. Isaiah 6:5, " Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts." The humble Apostle Paul felt that he was the chief of all sinners.

1st Timothy 1:15, "

This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

" The Apostle Peter didn't even feel worthy to be in Jesus' holy presence.

Luke 5:8, " When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord. " These were the Bible's greatest and mightiest servants of God, who all professed to being undeserving and unworthy sinners in the presence of God.

Tragically, today's wicked neo-evangelical pastors and churches have the Devil's attitude, looking down on other sinners, banning them from attending their so-called " churches.

" I was also banned from attending the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Pastors' Marty Herron and his successor Gary Walton are devils, infidels who preach a counterfeit plan of salvation (aka, Lordship Salvation). These wicked perverts of the Gospel preach a false meaning of repentance, and they promote Satan's corruptible seed (i.e., the modern perverse Bible revisions which attack the deity of Jesus, remove the Godhead and corrupt the Scripture). These fools ought not be allowed behind any pulpit to speak, let alone pastors a church. Marty Herron drove Harvest Baptist Church into the ground spiritually, the deadly damage which still lingers to this day, inflicting spiritual damnation upon thousands.

I was faithful to tell THE TRUTH when I attending Harvest Baptist Church in 2013-2015, which got me excommunicated and banned from returning. And then when I moved from Guam to Pensacola in 2021, the foul infidels at Harvest called PCC to warn them about me, and I was blackballed from day one, mistreated by Pastor Jeff Redlin (senior pastor, clown, at Campus Church). Only God can avenge me, and I do pray daily to be avenged of their evil against me, all banning me from attending their churches. I hope and pray that God will reject them!!! I hope that God will return their hatred upon their own heads, punishing those evildoers.

I befriended those churches (cults) with THE TRUTH, but they rejecting the truth and me as well. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? " The cults at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and PCC in Florida are only concerned about making money. They would deny such an accusation, but their actions prove what I say. If they truly loved God and people, then they would have embraced me as their friend for telling them THE TRUTH, but they threw me under the bus along with Jesus (Matthew 25:40, 45).

God wants us to SPEAK UP, but Satan wants us to SHUT UP! Well, I'm speaking up for God. A friend helps a friend to see. Evangelist Tom Ferrell said that on Harvest's own KHMG 88.1 FM radio station broadcast from Guam throughout Micronesia. Yet, when I took that statement to heart from their own radio station and as a true friend befriended them with THE TRUTH, they threw me under the bus. Dear reader, please read these helpful chapters from Dr. Jack Hyles' classic book, 'Enemies Of Soul Winning,' in which he exposes Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Bob Jones University and Pensacola Christian College:

- [2]False Bibles: An Enemy Of Soulwinning ([3]BJU and Harvest Baptist Church of Guam are [4]GUILTY!)
- [5]Misunderstood Repentance: An Enemy Of Soulwinning (Harvest Baptist Church Guam [6]GUILTY!)
- [7]Lordship Salvation: An Enemy Of Soulwinning ([8]BJU and Harvest Baptist Church Guam [9]GUILTY!)

In case you missed it earlier, [10]PCC is preaching damnable heresy, saying that you must turn away from your sinful bad habits to get to Heaven. That is works (Jonah 3:10). Sadly, the [11]Sword of the Lord has change for the worst, promoting PCC's damnable cult for money. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! The fastest way to get kicked out and banned from attending a church is to simply TELL THE TRUTH. For being honest they counted me as their enemy. I have never made a single penny in 22 years of hard work on my website ministry. By God's grace, I have worked day and night since April of 2002 on my website ministry. The Lord has greatly blessed my labors, despite [12]having 95 % of my web traffic censored by Google since 2016. God alone decides how popular my website ministry is. I am thankful to Google for these blogs, which helps make up for being censored elsewhere. All I can do is what I can do, praying for God's Holy Spirit to work beyond my frail human abilities, weakness and desire.

I am not condemning anyone, I am the condemned. I haven't banned Harvest Baptist Church or PCC, they banned me! "[13]They drew first blood," as Rambo said in the 1982 movie "

First Blood.

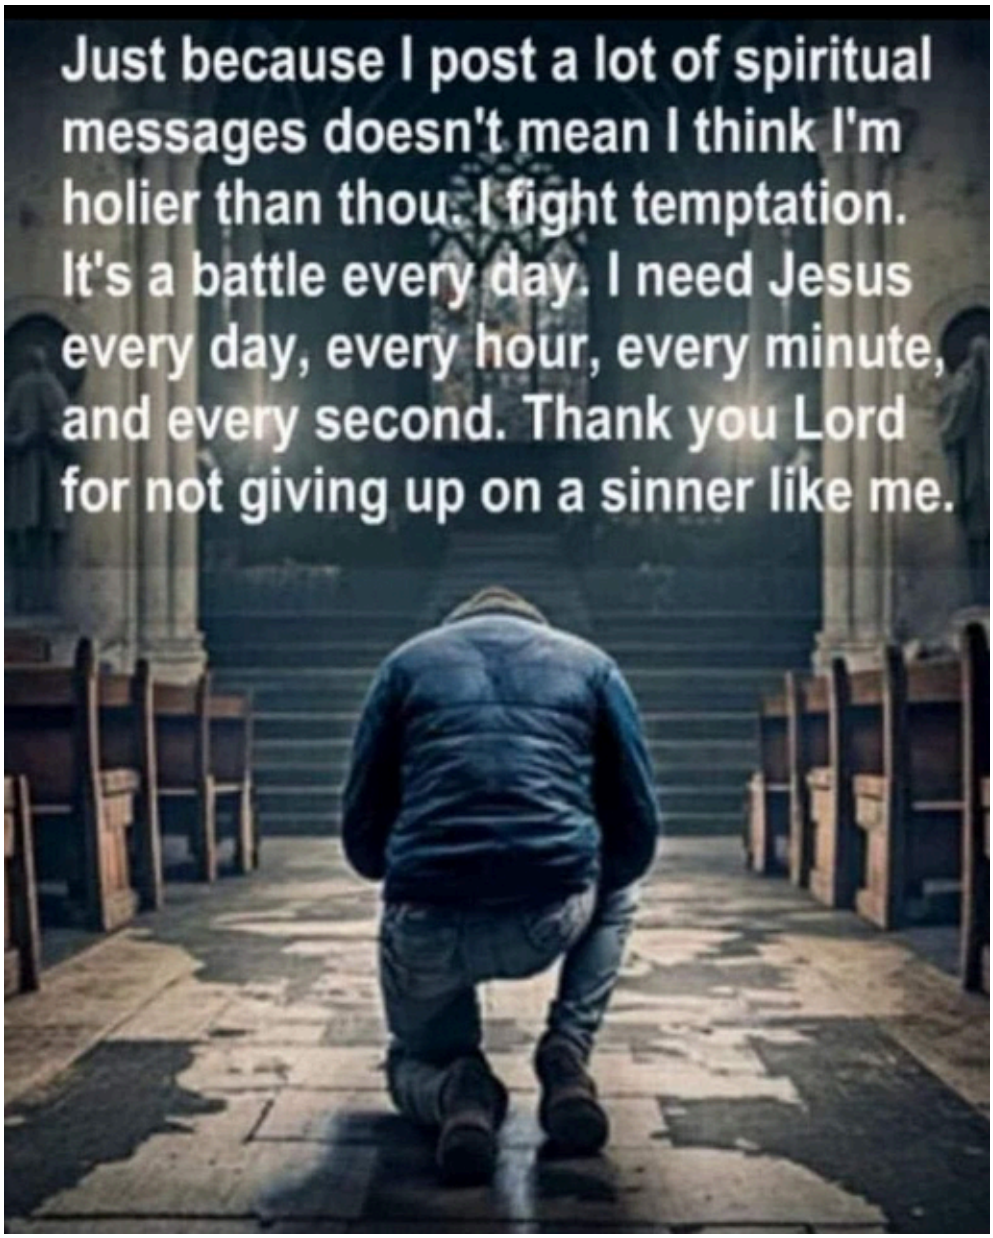
I just wanted something spiritual to eat, but they refused. There wouldn't be any trouble if it wasn't for those King Shite Pastors at Harvest and PCC!!!



I simply befriended them with THE TRUTH, for which I was mistreated and forced out, shunned, ostracised

, demonized and left without a church to attend. PCC have much blood on their hands, as does the [14]rotten cult at Bob Jones University and Harvest. God promises to avenge me (Romans 12:19-21). Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

I am just a lowly sinner saved by God's grace. In one million years as a pastor I would never refuse to allow someone to attend my church, because people cannot be helped if they aren't permitted to come to church. What ever happened to brotherly love, forgiveness and compassion for one another? They don't exist at BJU or PCC today. No wonder America is headed for the dust so fast. Today's religious leaders have turned God's house into a den of thieves, only concerned about making more money (filthy lucre). Woe unto PCC and BJU. People just want to be loved, but money means more to these cults than pleasing God.

5.1.6 Jesus' Sacrifice Gives Saints Access To God's Throne To Obtain Mercy To Find Grace To Help In Time Of Need (2024-01-12 14:46)

Hebrews 4:14-16, "Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need."

Even Christ Himself "was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin" (Hebrews 4:15). Therefore, verse 16 encourages us to "come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need." Since Jesus understands what it feels like to be tempted (not just temptation to sin, but also life's heartaches, suffering, losses, betrayals and pain), He wants to help us.

I love that Scripture passage! This promise applies to every born-again child of God. Jesus' paid for our sins with His precious blood. If the Old Testament high priest entered into the holy place without the blood of a slain lamb, God killed him instantly. There can be no remission of sins without blood (Hebrews 9:22). It wasn't enough to just kill the lamb. The blood had to be applied to the mercy seat. Likewise, it wasn't enough for Jesus to merely die on the cross. His literal liquid blood had to be sprinkled upon the heavenly Mercy Seat (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 10:1, 12:24).

1st Peter 5:7-9, "Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world." As Christian brethren we all deal with the same burdens, sins and frustrations in life. Jesus understands our problems, sadness, grief and temptations, because He suffered and experienced all of them Himself.

Moses warned Pharaoh and the people about the Lord's coming tenth plague upon Egypt. The firstborn of every human and animal would die. The Hebrews were carefully instructed by Moses how to protect the firstborn from being killed. The people were instructed to kill a male lamb, one without spot or disease (blemish). They were to take that blood and apply it to the doorposts of the home. Exodus 12:13, "And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt."

The Lord said "WHEN I SEE THE BLOOD"! The death angel was looking for THE BLOOD, not the dead lamb in the backyard. Likewise, John MacArthur is a liar, who says that Jesus' blood soaked into the ground at Calvary's cross, and that Jesus' blood is not in Heaven at all. We know from the Word of God that Jesus' blood had to be applied to the heavenly Mercy Seat. That blood is still sprinkled on the Mercy Seat in heaven today. Jesus is the Lamb of God who taketh away the sin of the world (John 1:29). All we need to do to be saved is to trust Him, believing that He did it all for us through His sacrifice on the cross.

If you are a child of God. I mean, if you have been born-again. You get born-again by acknowledging to God you are a guilty sinner, and by faith alone you receive (trust upon) the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) that Christ died for your sins on the cross, was buried, and three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead. (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). If you are saved, then you have every RIGHT to boldly come before the throne of God to obtain mercy to FIND GRACE TO HELP IN TIME OF NEED. I love that promise! I don't know about you friend, but I need God's help all the time!!! I dare not attempt to go it alone in life, not for 5 seconds. I need God.

5.1.7 You Can Attend Every Church Service And Still Forsake It (2024-01-17 15:50)

Hebrews 10:24-25, "And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching."

There is considerable misunderstanding about the meaning of this Scripture passage. Unfortunately I got hit by a church bus in 1992, which consequently caused a medical condition known medically as: Cervical Degenerative Disk Disease. Basically that means my neck is deteriorating over time as I grow older. It feels like the entire right side of my body feeling half asleep all the time.

In 2004 I was diagnosed with herniated disks in my neck (i.e., stenosis, displaced disks and radiculitis). I fell down a 15-foot high mailslide at work in 2005, which worsened my medical condition. I underwent two neck surgeries in 2099 and 2010. The first helped fix one problem, but I still suffered from agonizing neck pain. The second surgery made me 100 % worse, leaving both arms feeling filled 24 hours a day with air.

I was depressed after the second surgery for a year, with both arms feelings inflated with air, and the agonizing neck pain still present with no relief. The discomfort eventually became the new "

norm

" and I became used to it. I have suffered with these permanent afflictions ever since. Today in 2024 nothing has changed. My pain is intolerable at times and always irritating.

The prescription 40 mg Oxycontin and two Percocet 10/325 pills daily do help alleviate some of my pain, but it's simply not enough medication. I had taken between 80 to 140 mg daily of Oxycontin for 11 years, but since I moved to Pensacola, Florida in 2021, no doctor will prescribe more than 40 mg a day, which is not enough. The problem is that government bureaucrats juts don't know what they are doing.

In 2023 there were 100,000 deaths due to pain drugs in the United States. However, most of those needless deaths were caused by illegal recreational abuse of the drugs; namely, the dangerous drug Fentanyl. It is wrong, injurious and sinful for the government to punish legitimate pain sufferers because of criminals who abuse the drugs.

I said these things as an introduction for my blog. When I lived on the island of Guam for 17 years, for one year I attended the Harvest Baptist Church in 2014. Once each month the church sponsored Watchcare Meetings at staff member's houses. I loved being around the folks at church so much that I attended two different meetings, which were held at different times on Sunday.

I hadn't been at church the previous Sunday because my neck was hurting badly. I made mention of my neck pain and explained to one of the church members why I hadn't been at church the previous Sunday. I was cut to the heart when he quoted a portion of our text verse from Hebrews 10:25b, "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together." My feelings were deeply hurt. I told him that it's not that easy, when you're suffering in horrible agonizing pain and can't think straight. He said that no matter what we should always be in church. I then realized that I was speaking with a fool. He was a younger guy, so I dismissed his calloused cruelty as the foolishness's and ignorance of youth. People can be so heartless and cruel with their words. I'm sure you've experienced the same cruelty from Pharisaical religious people.

I cannot express in words how much my chronic relentless neck pain since 2004 has caused me misery, sadness and a lack of ambition to go anywhere or do anything. To make matters worse, I have experienced inexplicable emotional pain since 2006 when my former wife abandoned and divorced me. I have never remarried, simply because I have never met anybody. The loneliness has been extremely difficult for me to cope with. It is only by God's grace that I have made it this far. I have attended various Baptist churches to fill the gap over the years, but I have had the misfortunate of being forced out, ostracised and banned by multiple neo-evangelical churches that masquerade as fundamentalist Baptist churches.

Sad to say, but truthfully, 99 % of churches today are spiritually dead!

Let me ask you dear reader: What do you think the Bible means in Hebrews 10:25b, "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together" ? Is God saying that we ought not stay home from church when we are sick, suffering in agonizing pain, or we are incapacitated in some way? No, that is not what the Bible is saying at all. It means that we ought not devalue the importance of the church. God wants every believer to attend a local church. That is, we need to assemble with other believers. We need each other's comfort, encouragement and help. The purpose of the local church is to build families.

The Purpose Of A Church Is Not To Worship God

One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles is titled, "[1]The Gift Of Prophecy." I humbly think the title is misleading; not in a bad way, but it just doesn't convey what the sermon is about. I would have titled it, "The Purpose Of The Church." The basic gist of the sermon is that 1st Corinthians 12-14 teach that the greatest gift of the Spirit is prophecy, which means to "speak forth," and the greatest things to speak forth are building homes, lifting up the fallen and encouraging the brethren. I love that! The purpose of church is not to worship God, which is what 99 % of churches claim is their purpose. We are supposed to worship God continually.

God is exhorting us in Hebrews 10:25 to place importance upon attending church. You might only show up half of the time, like I do because of my adverse health issues. There are many Sundays were I have force myself to go to church. Several months ago I didn't feel like going to church. My body didn't feel up to it, but I made myself go. I bathed, shaved, got dressed and drove toward the church (which is about 10 minutes from me). As I arrived about a block away from the church, I decided to turn around and go back home. I felt so relieved that I made that decision, because in my horrible pain I just didn't feel like being around people.

It's Okay To Miss Church When You Need To

It's not just a matter of deciding whether I want to go to church or stay home. I have to take other things into consideration. My neck pain is relentless, being right next to my head, never easing off to give me a break. I can't tell my pain to take a rest; and not only pain, but I also feel horrible constant tension in my neck 24/7. My neck feels like I have a balloon filled with air inside. A neurologist on Guam performed an EMG test years ago on my neck, shoulders and arms, which showed that I have no involuntary muscle contractions. The doctor said that pinched nerves in my neck are causing my relentless tension.

As you can imagine, having constant toothache-like pain and tension in the bony area of the back of my neck is a burden; it irritates me, I have little patience to wait for a long time, or sit in traffic waiting. If traffic backs up on my way somewhere, I always turn around and go home (unless it is a doctor's appointment). Living with constant relentless chronic pain is more like surviving than living. Having said that, people don't cut me any slack, they expect me to be nice, polite, considerate and agreeable at all times (and they have that right). This is one reason why I sometimes stay home from church, because if I feel irritated before I have even left home, I don't want to risk getting upset or mistreat a church member. I know myself.

Since I am the one who suffers with my health afflictions, I need to be responsible. I need to know when it is advisable for me to just stay home, rather than force myself to go to church and risk hurting someone's feelings, offend someone or being unkind. Plus I need to avoid driving when I don't feel at my best. Our church doesn't have any van or bus service.

Religious Pharisees Will Condemn You For Missing Church

Dear reader, don't ever allow anyone to put a guilt-trip on you, trying to make you feel bad for missing church. I heard a Baptist preacher scold his members who are in pain but don't smile. Are you kidding me? Evidently that pastor has never truly suffered in agonizing relentless pain. God knows that I try to smile at everyone. I am a loving and friendly person. The last thing I would ever want to do is hurt someone's feelings. There have been times when I go to church that someone asks me why I didn't greet them when I passed by.

Then I immediately greet them, apologize and explain that I am in horrible pain. I have learned that when you are in constant pain, you live in a world all by yourself; a world that only someone else suffering in constant chronic pain could understand. There are Sundays when I would rather stay home than have to apologize to people for being distant and less then friendly. I know God understands.

I know that some people will disagree with me. I love going to a growing, soulwinning, King James Bible only, sin-fighting, people-loving, free grace Gospel, local church. Unfortunately, they are hard to find nowadays. Most churches uses the Devil's Bible revisions. The demonic "turn from your sins" to get to Heaven heresy has crept into most churches today. Very few (less than 1 % of) churches have a scheduled time for church members to meet to go soulwinning. Today's churches are pathetic! The pathetic Bible colleges that train pastors are mostly to blame.

I know that some people will condemn me for what I am teaching, but it is biblical. Not one verse in the inspired Word of God forbids missing church at times. One elderly woman at church last year scolded me for missing church on particular Sunday. She asked where I was the week before. I kindly explained that I was at home in pain. She stroked her finger downward on her other forefinger, signifying: "Shame on you." I replied, "What shame is there in being in pain?," and then I stayed home the following 3 Sundays. I didn't stay home to send her a message (although I think it did), I stayed home because she was getting on my nerves and I'm already in horrible pain, so I didn't want to tell her off. It is unfortunate that foolish people with their big mouths actually cause people to miss church and stay home, when they should just shut up, or encourage you when you do come to church. People... arrggh!

Remember, five minutes of praise will do more for a person than a lifetime of criticism.

God Knows Your Heart

My agonizing pain is already getting on my nerves (literally), so when people do it too, I need to back off and take a break from church. The church services are recorded each week, so I can see them during the week if I want. God knows that I listen regularly to preaching at home. I work on my website and blog ministry day and night. I know that nothing can substitute for going to church and fellowshipping with our Christian brothers and sisters in the Lord, but everybody is uniquely different and we need to respect that fact.

When I attend church, sometimes people stand up and walk out during the middle of the preaching. They walk out the door leading to the parking lot, and they don't come back. They are regularly church members. I never judge any of them, because it is not my business in the first place, and I don't know the reason why they left. I think in general that it is rude to walk out in the middle of a service. That is why I always sit in back of the church auditorium, just in case I need to leave during the preaching. There is nothing wrong with that.

You Can Attend Church Every Sunday And Still Forsake It

Some of the biggest ungodly religious hypocrites attend church every Sunday. Matthew 15:7-9, " Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." Just because you are faithful to show up at church every time the doors open doesn't mean you are right with God. Churches today are filled with hellbound tares!

Corrupt institutions like [2]Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and Bob Jones University (BJU) preach a false plan of salvation of partial faith in Christ PLUS turning away from your sinful bad habits to get to Heaven, which is another gospel. God's curse is upon them according to Galatians 1:6-7. They forsake the church even when they are there! In fact, these corrupt institutions are cults, not churches! A sore evil in Christendom today is that 99 % of professed Christians are okay with embellishing the Gospel, having different variations of how to be saved. It is apostasy!!! Tragically, 99 % of churchgoers today don't care about right doctrine.

I may not be at church every week because of my health problems, but my heart is with the Lord all the time. I have not forsaken the assembling of ourselves together just because I stay home here and there. God understands my situation. I don't like when religious hypocrites put others down who miss church. What we all need to do is encourage others when they do come to church, not criticize them when they don't come.

Matthew 15:6-8 says there are people who draw nigh unto God with their lips (singing and testifying praises to God), but their heart is far from Him. That sadly describes 99 % of churchgoers today! Churches are filled with people who haven't a clue what they believe, they just follow whatever their pastor tells them. That is why there are 16,663,663 hellbound Mormons in the world! That is why there are [3]22,234,406 hellbound Seventh-Day Adventists! That is why there are 8,625,042 hellbound Jehovah's Witnesses! That's nearly 50 million hellbound sinners who have been deceived by Satan (Matthew 7:13-15).

You can attend church every Sunday and yet still forsake it. We have become a nation of churches gone wild!

Some of the worst Christians never miss church! Some of the most horrible, unforgiving, terrible, hateful, grudge holding, jerks I have known in my lifetime were religious people. As I type, I am not allowed to attend Pensacola Christian College's Campus Church. Their ungodly pastors have formally banned in writing as of August 2022 from returning to Campus Church, because I criticized them on social media. It didn't matter that I sincerely apologized and was willing to remove all my criticisms, they refused to forgive and permit me to come back to church. That is hatred, not God's love. Everyone has a God-given right to attend a church. Shame on PCC!

At Campus Church thousands of cult members sing their sycophantism songs, idolizing their wicked leaders, showing creepy allegiance to the cult system. In hindsight I am thankful that PCC leaders refused to let me come back to church, because I have learned in recent months that [4]PCC are preaching a counterfeit gospel. Beware of PCC and Campus Church!!! They have forsaken the true church of the New Testament, instead preaching a false plan of salvation. God's curse is upon the PCC camp (Galatians 1:6-9).

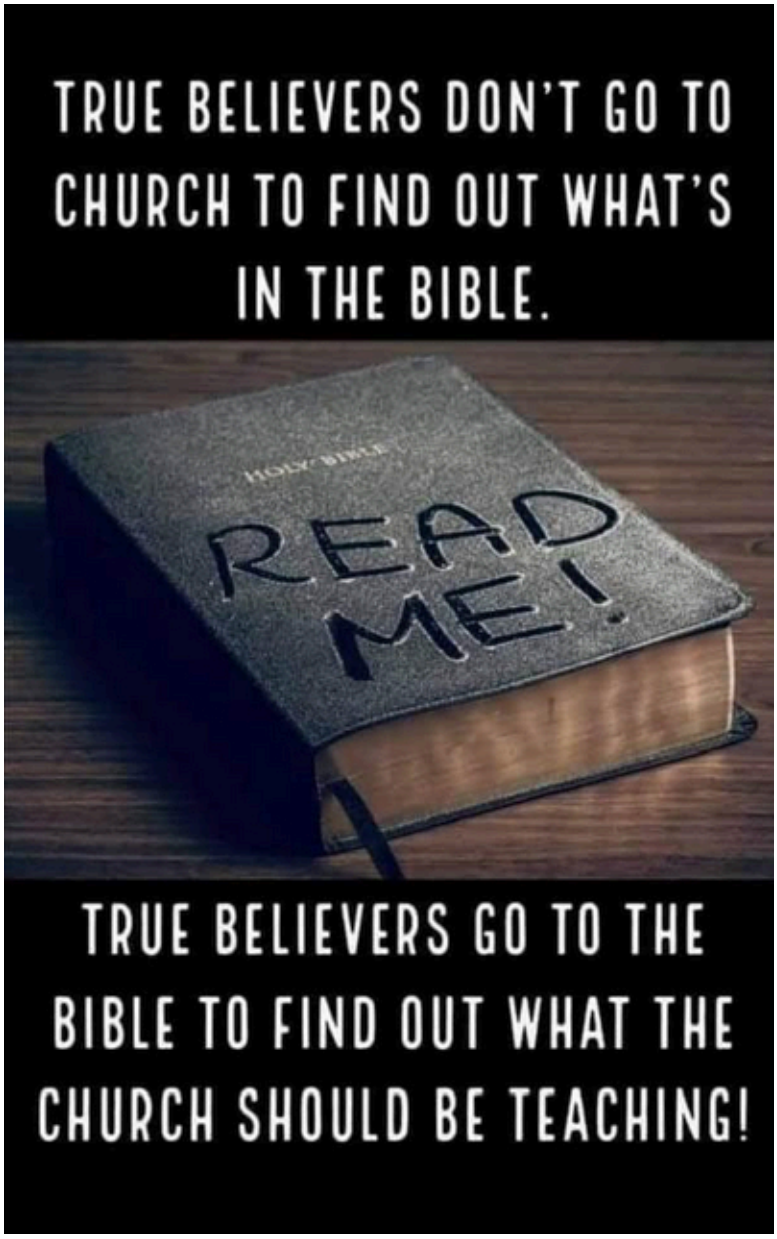
A Wife Who Files For Divorce, Refuses To Reconcile, Is Not Right With God

You are not right with God just because you go to church, sing in a choir, read your Bible, pray and go through all the superficial motions. That is all window dressing. How you treat people speaks volumes about your walk with God. Do you pay your bills on time? Are you regularly late for appointments? What do your neighbours have to say about you? How about your former employer? How about your former husband or wife? But most importantly, what does God know about you right now? Have you grown in your faith and maturity in Christ?

I know a professed Christian woman who religiously dots her i's and cross her t's. She is blinded by her religious piety. She is blinded to how carnally-minded she really is. The Devil is a beautiful liar. She cruelly broke her marriage vows and divorced her husband many years ago. From the day she abandoned her former husband and divorced him, she has no respect for him. She patronizes him in conversations, tells him off, and has a sinful bad attitude. Her former husband is the man whom she disrespects the most in her life, even though he has forgiven her and done everything in his power to help her financially.

Sadly, in her mind she errantly thinks she is a good Christian because she has all the window dressing. She dresses modestly. She attends church and tithes with what little money she has. But this makes her devoutly religious, not a good Christian. Her husband is lonely and struggling without a wife because she wickedly quit and abandoned him to go her own way. Divorce is always a sin! Her husband wants her back, as horrible as she is, but she doesn't want to submit to him as his wife. She likes her new found independence as a rebel, being her own man, so to speak. That woman is a spiritual failure in God's sight. She destroyed her own marriage and still refuses to do the right thing. She is attempting to compensate for her sin failures by being devoutly religious, thinking that will patch things over, but it cannot.



That would be like a man committing murder and evading the police for decades. He got away with murder for now, until he falls into the hands of God in eternity (Hebrews 10:31). That man may join a church, drive a church bus, tithe most of his money to God, love everyone around him and do many good works to be seen of men, so that everyone praises his name as a good man; but this does not excuse his sin of murder years earlier, for which he has never been brought to justice. Likewise, the man or woman who files for divorce won't be brought to justice in this wicked world, but I assure you that in eternity God will hold them accountable. Woe unto anyone who files for divorce, helps nurture a divorce, or partakes in a divorce. God hates the sin of divorce, and so do I (Jeremiah 3:20).

The Golden Rule

In Matthew 7:12 Jesus gives us The Golden Rule, "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets." True Christianity 101 is treating other people the way you'd like to be treated. The ungodly hypocritical pastor who refuses to allow a hurting man to attend church is violating The Golden Rule. Would you want a pastor to ban you from attending church, when you have apologized and have sincerely tried to make reconciliation? No, you would want to be forgiven and given a path of restoration. God's severest judgment is reserved for the wicked pastor who refuses to allow someone to return to church. God forgave us for Christ's sake, and you're not going to forgive your brother? Woe unto such a wicked pastor!

I am not perfect, but by God's grace I have treated others the way I want to be treated. I have been financially cheated by several crooks in my life, but I was honest with them. They have my blood on their hands, I don't have their blood on mine. I can live with that, knowing that I did the right thing, but they didn't. I have been robbed by a pastor. Woe unto him on judgment day. Some thief (thieves) stole my Bible and radios from my car last year. God will punish them for their crimes. I am glad that I did not steal from them, they stole from me. They stole the things for which I worked to pay for. Whenever you sin, you are hanging yourself with the rope of freedom of choice which God has entrusted to you. Please don't make the mistake of thinking that there are small sins for which God doesn't punish people. I assure you that you will face your sins someday, even as a Christians (1st Thessalonians 4:6). There is no condemnation for the believer, but there will be shame, loss of rewards and tears in Heaven.

Attending church doesn't make you a good Christian, or even a Christian for that matter, it just means that you go to church.

5.1.8 To Please God, We Must Take Sides (2024-01-21 16:37)

Matthew 6:24, "No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon."

I don't care who you are, everyone must choose sides in life if you are to please God. Most professed Christians in the world are fence-straddlers, that is, they are trying to live for God and mammon at the same time. The Bible warns that it cannot be done. The word "mammon" simply means wealth (money). Every Christian must take sides!

Taking sides often means offending someone. It's inevitable! Anytime you take sides—Biblically, morally, philosophically, doctrinally, religiously or in a debated matter, someone is going to dislike you. Thus, taking sides means losing some fans. Taking sides means losing some money. Taking sides means losing some business. Taking sides means losing some followers. Taking sides means losing some members. Taking sides means losing some popularity. Taking sides means offending those who hold the opposing view.

Taking sides means choosing sides! God tells us in Revelation 3:15-16, "I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth." God dislikes fence-straddlers. A lot of people have splinters of wood in their posterior from straddling-the-fence for so many years. It's time to get off the fence!

Today's Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) singers are fence-straddlers. These are people who prefer to drive in the center-lane of the road rather than staying in their proper lane; thus, forcing people into wrong spiritual directions. CCM fills the sinful desire for worldly music in the hearts of backslidden believers and unsaved religious people. The lyrics are secondary to the sensual beat of the music. CCM is worldly music repackaged, to infiltrate the churches.

CCM's lyrics are worldly, lacking any Biblical doctrine. Their music is sensual, worldly and devilish. None of the singers expose the demonic Roman Catholic religion; but rather, cater to them (and many of the singers are Catholic). Today's churches are filled with spiritual pride and self-righteousness, which is just as wicked and disgusting as gambling, dancing and drunkenness. As Christians we ought to take a stand against worldly music creeping into the Church. You cannot please God by remaining silent while Rock music enters the church. The Devil's music has no place in our churches. Music follows doctrine. When a church changes its doctrinal position, then changes are inevitable.

> "If we're the far right, they're the far wrong! Amen! They call us pro-life, they're pro-death! ... If they're politically correct, we're Biblically correct! ... You can't be both!" —Pastor Danny Castle, from the life-changing sermon, [2]NOT FOR SALE!

Ecumenical ministers are fence-straddlers, avoiding sectarian bias to increase sales of books and church attendance. Joel Osteen avoids anything unpleasant, controversial or dogmatic in his sermonettes. Osteen is teaching psychology and religious humanism instead of the truths of God's Word. Max Lucado removed the name "Church of Christ" from his denomination, hiding his true affiliation to increase the marketability of his scores of religious books. Billy Graham has been personal friends with all the Popes of Rome over the past half-century, an adulterous spiritual love-affair with unbelievers. Apostasy is everywhere.

Preachers ought to preach on hellfire, brimstone and judgment as much as love, unity and faith. Some people ask, "Well what's wrong with preaching on unity? Aren't believers supposed to unite and live in harmony?" Yes, but the problem is that God doesn't mean for believers to unite with unbelievers in harmony, because there can be no fellowship between light and darkness, nor between God and Satan (2nd Corinthians 6:14-17).

Christians ought to unite in brotherly and sisterly love; but never are we to unite in co-operation with unsaved heathens who pervert the Gospel and teach another Jesus, another Gospel or another spirit (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

America Has Sided With The Devil

The Bible warns us about entering into the path of the wicked...

> Proverbs 4:14 and 18, "Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men. ...But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day."

GO NOT IN THE WAY OF EVIL MEN!!! Homosexuality is way of evil people, the path of the wicked! Abortion is the way of evil people, the path of the wicked! Pornography is the way of the evil, the path of evil people! Divorce is the way of evil people, the path of the wicked! Booze is the way of evil people, the path of the wicked! Oh America, read these Scriptures and weep, for we are worse sinners than the Israelites in the Old Testament ever were...

> Deuteronomy 32:5, "They have corrupted themselves, their spot is not the spot of his children: they are a perverse and crooked generation."
>
> Deuteronomy 32:15-18, "But Jeshurun waxed fat, and kicked: thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness; then he forsook God which made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation. They provoked him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger. They sacrificed unto devils, not to God; to gods whom they knew not, to new gods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not. Of the Rock that begat thee thou art unmindful, and hast forgotten God that formed thee."
>
> Deuteronomy 32:22, "For a fire is kindled in mine anger, and shall burn unto the lowest hell, and shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains."
>
> Deuteronomy 32:29, "O that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end!"

Deuteronomy 32:35, "To me belongeth vengeance, and recompence; their foot shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand, and the things that shall come upon them make haste."

America today is much worse than the Old Testament Jews or the inhabitants of Sodom ever were. The reason why is because we have been given so much more TRUTH and chances to repent and obey God. We have been given a clear understanding of the Gospel, since we live post New Testament. We have been given the completed Bible. Old Testament saints only had the writings given to Moses (the first five books of the Bible).

Yet we have enslaved ourselves because of sin in America. I was reading some of today's headlines from July 31, 2012. Just today I read that a 31-year old man died while having a sexual threesome with his friend and another woman to whom he was not married (the man is married with 2-children). The man died from heart failure while having sex. His family sued the man's cardiologist for failing to tell him that he couldn't have sex because of his defective heart. The judge awarded the family $3,000,000 instead of the $5,000,000 they sought. The judge said that the sex-threesome was 40 % the man's fault. Isn't that insane?!

In another news story, a 30-year old Hispanic man drove over his 20-year old Hispanic wife and 2-year old son in anger, killing the son instantly. When the police arrived, the father's SUV was still parked on top of the child. The father stabbed the mother in the throat numerous times with a knife, but she lived. So sad! This is America today. This is all in today's news. My friend, by not taking sides with the Bible, you are automatically open prey for the Devil.

I read about another man today from Georgia, only 51-years old, who commit suicide. He was a decorated Navy military veteran, separated from his wife. He had sex with his daughter's college friend in Indiana, claiming it was consensual, but the woman said she was raped and the man has been charged, facing 20-years in prison. He taped a plastic bag over his head and used helium gas to asphyxiate himself to death. So sad. Sin always takes you further than you planned to go, costs you more than you wanted to pay, and keeps you longer than you intended to stay. The Devil is a liar, showing people the neon lights of Broadway and Las Vegas; but Satan never shows anyone the morgues, hospitals and prisons.

What bothered me the most was that in the story of the man running over his wife and child, the website posted the story in a blog, asking people to comment. It became a racial thing—dozens of members spewing racial hatred against each other, calling each other disparaging names, and hating one another. The issue was that Mexican men are far more likely to cause violence than Caucasian men. Sadly, it is true, because Mexican men love their booze. The evil beer cartel pushes off their liquid devil to anyone who will buy it, destroying numerous cultures. It's not uncommon to find 10 empty cases of Corona beer in the alley where Mexicans live after a weekend party.

The beer companies target Hispanics and minority cultures with their subtle advertising. Child molesting is epidemic in the Mexican culture. Spousal abuse is commonplace. Oh, the evils of alcohol in society! The Eskimo community in Anchorage, Alaska has been utterly destroyed because of booze! Island cultures around the world hide the truth about the evils of booze in their culture. Hawaii has a serious problem with alcoholics. The Hawaiian culture is a booze culture!

In another horrible news story, a 70-year-old New York woman was robbed of her purse by a 21-year old and a 20-year-old thug while putting groceries in her car. The two punks were caught by police. What do you expect when you take the Bible out of children's lives? I recently heard Chicago's new crime syndicate mayor, Rahm Emanuel say that gang members should have personal values and take their fights to the alley, so little children won't be shot. An alarming number of children have been shot to death in Chicago this year, an unnecessary tragedy which has plagued Chicago for decades due to government sponsored drug-trafficking.

> "The penalty good men pay for indifference to public affairs is to be ruled by evil men." —Plato

Rahm Emanuel came straight from the criminal Obama administration in Washington DC. The globalists (offshore banking cartel) have taken over America. It wasn't hard for them to do, since they control all the money through the Federal Reserve Banks and have purchased all mainstream newsmedia outlets. They also own Hollywood and have taken control over the highest positions of the FBI, CIA, FEMA, Homeland Security, TSA, BATF, NSA, the Justice Department and the Pentagon. Their cronies are in charge of all these agencies. Congress has all the power, but the 535 members have been bought and paid for, many blackmailed and others are just frightened to end up like James Traficant Jr.

Only 40 members of Congress voted against the treasonous NDAA law signed by President Obama on December 31, 2011, giving Homeland Security and the government the power to make any American disappear forever without a trace (with no right to attorney nor trial). While the family of a man who died from an immoral sex-threesome will collect over a million dollars from a court-awarded judgment, your government can make you vanish without a trace and there's absolutely nothing anyone can do about it. The Bill of Rights no longer exists in our corrupt court system. It's all about money and greedy, corrupt, evil judges and lawyers.

In another story a man robbed a McDonalds of hundreds of dollars and fled on foot, running across a 6-lane-highway. Someone thought that was strange and reported him to police who caught him. This is just the very tip of the iceberg of just one day's news in America. I rarely read the news because it is all so depressing, but the media makes the titles catchy, so I read them when I run across them here and there.

To the same degree that Americans embrace wickedness, to that same degree a totalitarian Police State is rising up around us. God sets up and takes down rulers. Daniel 2:21, "And he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding." God has given to us the leaders that we deserve: criminals, cons and crooks! This is what a culture of rock 'n' roll, pornography, fornication, drunkenness, abortion, divorce and lesbianism deserve!

Who Is On The Lord's Side?

You must take sides my friend. When Moses died and was buried by the Lord, Joshua took Moses place to lead the people in the ways of the Lord. No prophet was ever as great as Moses according to the Holy Bible...

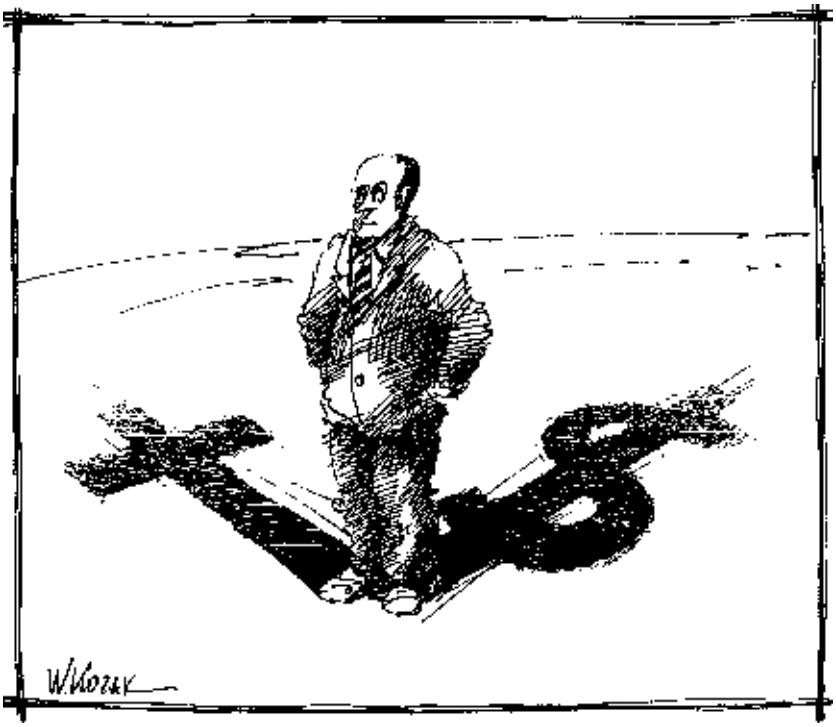
Deuteronomy 34:10-12, “And there arose not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face, In all the signs and the wonders, which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land, And in all that mighty hand, and in all the great terror which Moses shewed in the sight of all Israel.”

Joshua learned as Moses did that the Jews were a stiffnecked people, complainers and lacking faith oftentimes. Joshua gives the people an ultimatum in Joshua 24:15...

Joshua 24:15, “And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.”

America will descend into the lowest parts of Hell as Deuteronomy 32:22 warns for any wicked nation. Isaiah 5:14 says that Hell hath enlarged her mouth, opening wide without measure for the wicked.

Isaiah 5:14, “Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.”



The world today is saturated with ungodly counsel, the way of the wicked and gossiping slanderers...

Psalms 1:1, “Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.”

The desire for riches is a dangerous desire, because in this sinful world the fastest path to wealth nearly always involves some type of immorality. Gambling casinos are 100 % profitable. Some of the people who gamble win, others lose, but the house always wins! Night clubs are a fast path to wealth, because booze is sold by the truckload. Some Las Vegas nightclubs have over a dozen mini-bars inside, where people can get drunk.

Sexual immorality, nudity, drugs and booze are commonplace in all nightclubs. That’s why Sin City went from less than a population of 1,000 people in 1900 to one of America’s biggest cities today. People love evil! John 3:20 says those who love evil run from the Light of Jesus Christ and His Word.

Everyone wants to straddle-the-fence (you’ll get splinters in your rump) to avoid offending anyone. Christian singings want as many fans as possible, so they try to avoid tell you what they believe. It’s all about the love of money (1st Timothy 6:7-10).

Mature Christians DO RIGHT just because it's right. It's not always easy, nor fun to do the right thing. In fact, a lot of times it's difficult and costs you something. The Christian life is likened to shoveling sand, that is, it's not complicated, it's just hard work. If you take a stand for God you'll likely lose popularity. You'll likely lose money. You'll likely lose favor. Once upon a time in America it was right to be a heterosexual, but now it's wrong to oppose homosexual lifestyle. As man's standards change, Christians are in the battle for our lives in America. Thankfully, God is still on His throne and that means we ought to pray like never before for God's will to be done in our lives.

> Deuteronomy 6:18-19, "And thou shalt do that which is right and good in the sight of the LORD: that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest go in and possess the good land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, To cast out all thine enemies from before thee, as the LORD hath spoken."

DO RIGHT! Though the stars fall, DO RIGHT!!!

We Must Take Sides Doctrinally To Please God

One of the quickest ways to know that a church or a person is apostate is if they don't place emphasis on the importance of Biblical doctrine. My friend, doctrine is one of the most important things to a Christian! 2nd Timothy 4:3, "For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears." Most people will not tolerate hard preaching from the Bible. Roman Catholics are so used to hearing dead religious mumbo-jumbo that they can't handle when they hear a hell, fire and damnation preacher. The truth offends people. The Bible is truth (John 17:17). In 2012, most people will not tolerate a Bible-preacher who hoops and hollers from the pulpit. Everyone likes Joel Osteen because he doesn't preach the doctrine of Christ.

There's no way that any believer can please God by disregarding Bible doctrine. Most professed Christians today are very familiar with all the Contemporary Christians Music (CCM), but they are woefully ignorant of the doctrine of Christ. They can instantly mention a dozen Christian rock bands, but they couldn't find a Scripture teaching Christ's virgin birth if their life depended on it. Most professed Christians (and I say professed because I have my doubts about their salvation) couldn't show you Scriptures on how to be saved, the deity of Jesus, the Godhead, et cetera; but they can quote the songs of Amy Grant and Michael W. Smith word-for-word. It's apostasy!

The Bible exhorts every believer to study the Scriptures in order to explain our beliefs. There's nothing worse than a person who doesn't know why they believe what they believe, because people will disrespect you for not thinking and you'll lose the opportunity to win them to Christ. 1st Peter 3:15, "But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear." I'm not saying that you have to become a theologian, but you should at least know why you believe what you believe to answer others when they inquire.

For example: A man once asked me, "What is the basis of your beliefs and what what makes you think that your beliefs are correct over anyone else's." Those are fair questions. I explained to him that everything I believe is based upon my faith that the Bible is the inspired Word of God. I then explained why I believe the Bible is God's Word. I explained the miraculous manner in which the Bible came to humanity.

Approximately forty different men, who spanned a 1,700 year period of history, who spoke different languages, and lived in different countries, some old and some young—all were used by God's Holy Spirit to pen the Bible, yet incredibly all the books of the Bible harmonize and compliment each other, piecing together an amazing prophetic puzzle that would not be even astronomically probably or possible without divine intervention. There's absolutely no way that men wrote the Bible Oftentimes the Old Testament prophets didn't even know what they were penning for God.

Furthermore, over 5,000 manuscripts of the Bible (some partial, others complete) have been unearthed throughout the Middle East by archeologists. If men wrote the Bible, why would thousands of manuscripts exist—some in Hebrew and Chaldean (Daniel) and others in Greek? How would this even be possible? Any honest student of history and archaeology must acknowledge the supernatural manner in which the Bible has been given to humanity.

There are hundreds of proofs of the Bible's divine origin. God did this for a reason, that is, so that the honest person could clearly see that God authored the Bible. Secular history supports the Bible. Science supports the Bible. The Bible said in Isaiah 40:22 that the earth is a "circle." Back in the 17th century when men were arguing and killing each other in debates over whether the earth was flat or round, the Bible already contained the answer. We are so blessed today to have the written Words of God, in view of the fact that no one had a printed Bible for over 5,000 years of history. Can you imagine that? The Egyptian wrote on stone (known as hieroglyphics). You'd think that paper would have been invented long ago, but the first Paper was invented by the Chinese by 105 AD during the Han Dynasty and spread slowly to the west via Samarkand and Baghdad.[4][1]

We are living in wicked times when people love entertainment more than truth. People love pleasures more than pleasing God. People love themselves instead of the Lord Jesus Christ. America has gone to hell in a hand-basket. Kids today are under demonic attack. Satan removed the Bible and prayer from America's classrooms in 1963. Those wicked members of the U.S. Supreme Court are Satan's servants. The same reprobates legalized child murder in 1973. Same-sex marriage is next. The Devil has taken control of America because people have forsaken the Bible.

Most people don't even have salvation, let alone having the correct doctrines Biblically. Until a person believes the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ to get saved, they will never understand spiritual matters (1st Corinthians 2:14-17). The Holy Spirit of God indwells (lives within) every believer (Romans 8:9; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17). Thus, as Christians we have the Holy Spirit to "guide you into all truth" as John 16:13 promises. John 14:23,"Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him." There's a lot of unsaved religious people in our churches who are doctrinally corrupt, teaching things which they ought not. It is our duty as born-again believers to warn others who are weaker in the faith.

The internet and most Christian bookstores are a religious minefield of false doctrines and damnable heresies. We are embattled in a spiritual war today. Pastors, preachers and evangelists are the spiritual lieutenants and captains on the battlefield. Not every believer is called to be an enlisted soldier as was Paul and Timothy. 2nd Timothy 2:3, "Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ." However, every Christian believer is a part of the war. During World Wars I and II Americans who weren't enlisted as soldiers supported the war back home by working in munitions factories, and by preparing food, clothing and airplane parts.

Literally, Americans supported the war effort in thousands of ways without actually being in the military. Likewise, every Christian's enemy is not the flesh; but rather, against principalities, against powers, against spiritual wickedness in high places, and against the rulers of the darkness of this world (Ephesians 6:12-17). Every born-again Christian is at spiritual war with the flesh, the Devil and the world. If you've not been called to be a soldier for Christ, then please know that you are still involved in a spiritual war. If you're not a soldier, then uplift holy hands and support God's man with prayer and resources. Get involved in a local New Testament Church that preaches only from the King James Bible.

Sadly and tragically, most believers who are called by God AWOL (absent without leave) from their duty to stand for the Lord.

Taking Sides For Eternity

I watched a 2-hour PBS documentary yesterday about the building of the Panama Canal (a canal connecting the western and eastern oceans, allowing ships to pass through Central America, rather than traveling all the way south around the southern tip of South America). The French attempted to build it first, but after 20,000 men died gave up. Then the United States took the task, under orders from President Theodore Roosevelt, and the canal was finished in 1914. Another 5,000 men died while the U.S. built the canal. Can you imagine... 25,000 men gave their lives to build the Panama Canal (most men died from flash flooding and yellow fever, carried by mosquitoes). What a loss of life! All I could think of is where are those men today, Heaven or Hell?

Did you ever stop to ponder the largeness of our world? Today there are nearly 7,000,000,000 people alive on earth!!! Every single one of them has to take sides either with Jesus Christ or against Him. [5]Less than 0.5 % of the 120,000,000 people in Japan profess to be Christian. A whopping 60 % say they don't believe in God. Titus 2:11 teaches us that the grace of God which bringeth salvation hath appeared unto all men and women. Romans 1:20 says that no man has an excuse not to acknowledge God in their life.

Oh, how men need the Lord Jesus Christ!!! Salvation is not an option; it's every person's only way to escape the fires of eternal damnation in Hell. The Japanese are such sweet and ethical people; yet they know not the God of the Bible. Acts 4:10-2 teaches that salvation is found ONLY in the name of Jesus Christ. No other name is given to men by which they can be saved. Jesus warned that no one can enter into the kingdom of God unless they are born-again, for the second time (spiritually into God's family). There's a lot of false and lame ideas floating around in music, books and churches today about what it means to be born-again. Most of them are wrong and haven't the foggiest idea what the Bible means, because they have religion without salvation.

Being "born-again" means having He Who is the beginning (Revelation 1:8) born in you. Amen! Being born again means believing the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, and then His Spirit comes to live within your body; thus, you now have the new man (new creature, 2nd Corinthians 5:17) living in you. The unsaved man has only the flesh; but the Christian has the old man (flesh) and the new man (Spirit of Christ, Romans 8:9).

Where will you spend eternity friend... Heaven or Hell? There is no purgatory, no soul sleep, no annihilation, nor floating in lack of consciousness through space for eternity as some people falsely think. There are thousands of crazy ideas concerning the afterlife, but we have the written PROMISES of God to help us make the proper decision. The correct choice is Jesus Christ Who died, was buried and raised up three days later for our justification. The afterlife need not be frightening nor uncertain if you claim the promises of God's Word. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins."

5.1.9 Burn In Hell Israel, You Murdering Psychopaths! (2024-01-21 21:22)

If you are a Christian and you support what is going on in Israel today, who are murdering tens of thousands of innocent poor Palestinian people in Gaza, then you are a rotten person, not right with God, a woefully deceived ignorant fool, and I wouldn't want to be friends with you. I hate what Israel is doing to these poor people. Tragically, 70 % of the now 25,000 murdered genocide victims have been defenseless women and children. Someone needs to stop Israel's murdering with impunity. Israel's leaders are monsters!

Gaza Death Toll Surpasses 25,000 With No End In Sight

I don't want anyone to burn in Hell, but I do believe in justice. What Israel is doing is vengeance, not righteousness. Israel's leaders need to be held responsible for the genocide in Gaza. I foresee the death toll rising much higher. I heard in the news today that Israel is going to give the Palestinian people a two month break from war, in return for Hamas returning 100 Jewish people whom they kidnapped. That is good, for now.

What really bothers me is that multitudes of churchgoers, particularly independent Baptists, blindly support Israel no matter how wrong they are. The common rationale is that God promised Abraham in Genesis 12:3 to bless all Jews. But that is not accurate or true. God made that promise to Abraham alone, because he obeyed God. We read in Exodus 19:5-6 that God's promise of blessing for the Jews was (and still is) conditional. God never promised to bless unbelieving Christ-rejecting Jews!

God knows that I love the Jewish people, but I equally love the Arab people in Gaza. I hate evil. What Israel is doing is evil. Sadly, Hamas doesn't care if Israel murders all 2,400,000 people in Gaza! Israel is murdering a bunch of poor defenseless people (mostly women and children) to punish and put pressure on a rogue group of terrorists who are willing to sacrifice every man, woman and child in Palestine for their cause.

If the ungodly leaders of Israel would simply acknowledge the Arabs as human beings, instead of calling them "human animals" (which is exactly what Israeli president Benjamin Netanyahu called them back in October 2023), then Hamas wouldn't be so angry. All they want is their own nation. The Palestinian people want their own national state, recognised by the world.

But Israel hates the Arabs and wants them all dead. That is why I side with Palestine and am against Israel. As far as I am concerned, Israel can burn in Hell because of their cruel abuse, rejection, hatred and intolerance of the Palestinian people. People just want to exist and be free to live. Israel has their foot on Palestine's neck, and refuses to let them live free.

5.1.10 Beware Of Chick Tracts! (2024-01-24 14:29)

5.1.11 God Only Promises To Save Them That Believe (2024-01-25 19:41)

1st Corinthians 1:18-21, “For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.”

I cannot warn everyone enough about what is going on in nearly all churches today. The Gospel is being changed and corrupted to mean something different than what God intended.

God’s Simple Plan Of Salvation

The inspired Holy Bible teaches that all humanity have sinned. No one is without sin except the perfect sinless Lamb of God, Jesus (Hebrews 4:15). I am a guilty sinner and so are you (Romans 3:10-23).

There is a penalty for sin, which is death (Romans 6:23). The Bible warns about a second death in Hell, where all who humans die in their sins without Jesus as their personal Savior will suffer day and night forever (Revelation 14:11; 20:11-15; 21:8).

That is the bad news.

The Good News (aka, Gospel) is that God loves mankind and sent His only begotten (biological) Son into the world to die on a cross to pay our debt of sin (John 3:16-18). Jesus paid a debt He did not owe because we owed a debt we could not pay. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! Specifically, the Gospel (Good News) is the message that Jesus DIED on a cross, was BURIED, and then three days later He RESURRECTED from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

God’s simple plan of salvation is that He saves anyone who comes to God by faith as an admitted guilty sinner, receiving Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, but then raised up physically three days later from the dead. It is that simple to get to Heaven when you die at the end of this life. Nothing more is required or permitted by God, lest the Gospel be corrupted. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Man's Perversion Of God's Plan Of Salvation

Having shown you the true Gospel from the inspired King James Bible, now let me show you what is not the Gospel. There is a Satanic army today of false prophets (and you'll be shocked when I mention who they are) who have perverted the Gospel of free grace.

Good works are not the payment for sin, the payment for sin is death. Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty! Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work. If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

Pacific Garden Mission Preaches Another Gospel

Let's start with Pacific Garden Mission's radio program since 1950, '[1]UNSHACKLED.'

> "I want to start a new life with you. I repent of the sins I've committed again you. I'm really sorry for the way I've lived. Would you save me Lord and give me a new life. Would you take the rest of my life and use me for your plans? Use my gifts and talents for your work. Fill me with your Spirit Lord, come into my heart and life, Jesus." SOURCE: [2]Program #3746 - Aired in 2022, David Tripiciano (time - 18:36)

Now what saith the Scripture? ...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

UNSHACKLED doesn't even mention Jesus' death on the cross, burial or bodily resurrection. Like all accursed neo-evangelicals today, PGM is obsessed with YOU repenting of YOUR sins. May I say, the true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) have been corrupted by Satan. They are pulling on the same rope as the Devil at UNSHACKLED!!! SHAME on the mission director for allowing this Satanic garbage to be preached on UNSHACKLED instead of the Gospel, damning men's souls to Hell!!!

Dear reader, our text verse from 1st Corinthians 1:21b says that God promises "to save them that believe." God doesn't promise to save them that turn from their sinning. God doesn't promise to save them that get water baptized. God doesn't promise to save them that that surrender their life to follow Christ. God doesn't promise to save them that make Jesus the "Lord" of their life. God doesn't promise to save them that invite Jesus into their life. God doesn't promise to save them that live a lifestyle of repentance. God doesn't promise to save them that faithfully run the race until the end. God promises TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE!

Pensacola Christian College Preaches Another Gospel

The Apostle Paul warned in Galatians 1:6-9 that God's curse is upon anyone who preaches another gospel. There is only one Gospel, not two or three. According to Campus Church at PCC, faith is not enough to be saved, they also require you to experience some false form of repentance that involves, quote, "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins." Oh my! That is the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation!!! I was shocked when I read PCC's counterfeit plan of salvation. What I am about to show you is straight from Satan dear reader:

> "REPENTANCE — Now is the time to turn from your sin and embrace God. The act of turning away from sin is called 'repentance.' This word implies an inward decision to follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins*. It means changing your mind about sin and seeing it as something that grieves God. The Bible says that God patiently waits for all people to make this decision." [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: "John & Romans," [3]Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, p. 60

Do you still think I bumped my head? I've been [4]exposing the cult at Bob Jones University (BJU) since 2014, and now I have been exposing the cult at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) since 2021. By God's grace, I will continue to expose these wicked organizations. To make matters even worse, on page 62 of the "John & Romans" booklet, Campus Church tells the reader that to be saved, you must make a mental check requiring the reader to agree to:

> "I repent of my sins*. I realize that sin is something that God hates and I no longer want to hold onto sinful bad habits in my life*." [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: "John & Romans," [5]Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, p. 62

That is another gospel, not the free grace Gospel taught in the inspired Word of God. PCC are a deadly Lordship Salvation cult! I know that I am a born again child of God. I believe in a free grace Gospel, plus nothing. I gratefully owe that to God for leading me across the paths of some doctrinally sound preachers; namely:

- [6]Jack Hyles
- [7]Curtis Hutson
- [8]Max Younce
- [9]Ray Stanford
- [10]Hank Lindstrom
- [11]Ralph Yankee Arnold
- [12]Harry Ironside

- [13]Thomas Cucuzza

All of those soulwinning men of God are 100 % correct on a free grace Gospel.

In sharp contrast, I beseech you to RUN away from false prophets who corrupt the simplicity that is in Christ; namely: Jeff Redlin, Timothy Zacharias, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, John MacArthur, Gary Walton, Sam Horn, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Chuck Phelps, Pacific Garden Mission's Unshackled radio program, William Grady, Beth Moore, Joyce Meyer, Jimmy Swaggart, Sam Gipp, Keith Gomez, William Lane Craig, Chip Ingram, Jack Chick, Adrian Rogers, John Hagee, Charles Stanley, Joel Osteen, Pat Robertson, Rick Warren, et cetera. These are all wicked false prophets who pervert the Gospel. These evildoers all have blood on their hands and are hellbound infidels. I say this on the authority of God's Word.

Sadly, Bible college leaders and church pastors today have turned neo-evangelical. These places are run by yuppie type religious brats who are incompetent, arrogant, woefully and willfully ignorant, and not qualified to run a food court at Costco. No wonder our country is deteriorating spiritually and going to Hell in a wheelbarrow! People are exiting the churches to find God. With very few exceptions, I guarantee you that 99 % of today's Bible colleges all boil down to making money. They couldn't care less about individual people. They love money! They couldn't care less about contending for the Christian faith. They love money!

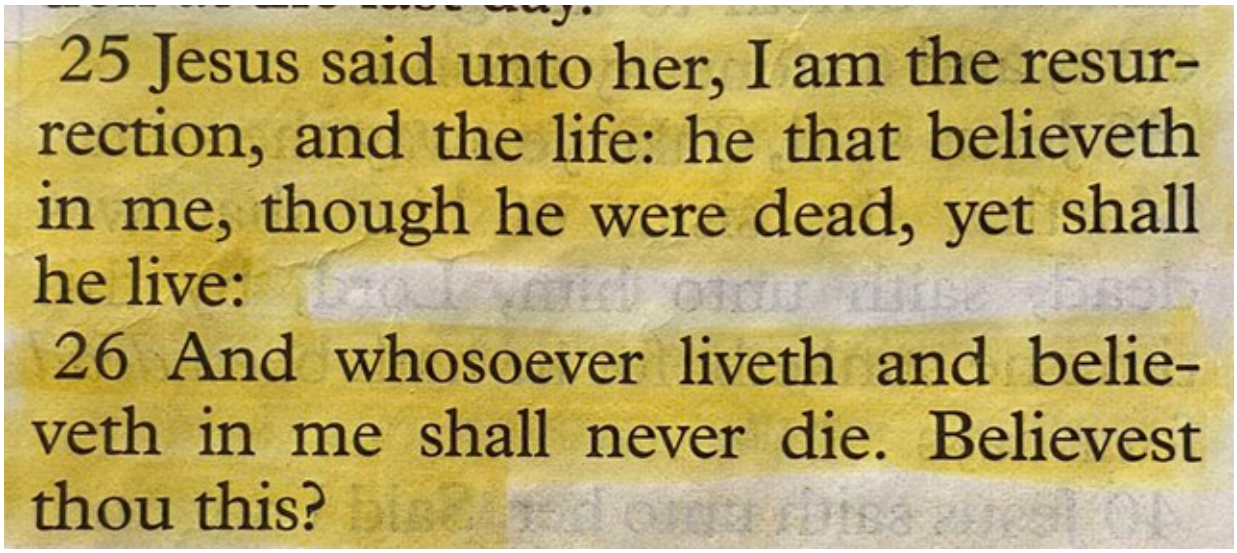
In Acts 16:30-31 we read, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." Paul and Silas told the Philippian jailer to BELIEVE on the Lord Jesus Christ. They didn't tell him to turn from his sinful bad habits. They didn't tell him to obey God instead of his self-serving sins. PCC are spreading deadly lies, and God will punish them for it (Proverbs 30:5-6). Shame on PCC for perverting the Gospel. [14]Shame on the Sword Of The Lord for promoting PCC for filthy lucre! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

We are in deep doo doo in America! Our Bible colleges are toxic today. Tragically 90 % of the churches hire graduates from the corrupt Bible colleges. The most dangerous place for a young person to be in America today is enrolled into some ungodly corrupt religious seminary. I'm talking about cesspools of iniquity like Bob Jones University.

I'm talking about cesspools of iniquity like Pensacola Christian College.

I'm talking about cesspools of iniquity like Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary.

I'm talking about cesspools of iniquity like Maranatha Baptist University.



I'm talking about cesspools of iniquity like Moody Bible Institute.

I could easily write for hours about all of the corrupt churches and Bible colleges today, who are preaching something entirely different than what the Bible teaches. I kindly encourage you to read the Gospel of John, which according to John 20:31 is God's Gospel tract. You won't find anything taught in John that requires someone to invite, call, pray, run, confess, repent, improve, forsake, live or get water baptized yo get to Heaven. However, you will find the word "believe" mentioned 85 times! That says it all.

God only promises in the inspired Holy Bible TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE, plus nothing. If you are dumb enough to follow some misguided preacher who has his own custom plan of salvation, good luck with that! My faith is only in Jesus Christ and what HE DID through Calvary' cross to pay for my sins. Jesus died for my sins on the cross. He was buried. Three days later He physically “was raised again for our justification” (Romans 4:25b). That is my only hope for eternal life. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

5.1.12 Ladies, Put Your Husband Before The Children (2024-01-28 16:59)

1st Peter 3:1-6, “

Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives;

While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord*: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

The average American woman today is an example of shame. Tragically, American women have become angry, rebellious and empowered by the courts to crucify men. If you are a feminist, then no doubt I have already offended you. Our text passage says that Sara revered her husband, even calling him “

(master). How many women do you know today who have this degree of submission for the husband? Most of us cannot think of even one.

I certainly have never been blessed enough to have such a wife. Kindly said, my rebellious former wife divorced me in 2006 and she still disrespects me as a man. I speak that to her shame. I godly wife reverences her husband, submitting to him as unto the Lord. Pastor Jack Hyles was right, divorce is a sin which perpetuates for a lifetime. The Bible doesn’t teach wives to only submit to a perfect husband. That is the big thing for rebellious wives, to find whatever excuse they can to justify their lack of submission. The United States is so far from God these days that the requirement “to obey” has been removed from nearly all marriage vows.

The key to a happy marriage is for both husband and wife to focus on walking with God. I wouldn’t want my wife to put me first in her life; but rather, to put God first. If she does that then she will submit to me. And if I put God first, I will love her as the Bible teaches.

I have read umpteen dating profiles where women say that any future man in her life will never be more than second place in her life, her children always come first. Although that may sound reasonable because we all love children, it is totally unbiblical. Your children will one day grow up and move out, getting married and going their own way. What kind of marriage will remain after your children are gone? The reason why divorce has become a major epidemic problem in America is because women have their priorities wrong. Biblically a wife should always put her husband first, not the children.

What do I mean? I mean that the man should eat before the children. The wife should satisfy and meet her husbands sexual needs before spending time playing games with, caring for or cooking for the children. Kindly said, if you disagree with me you are not right with God. I heard Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001) mention in a sermon that his mother partly blamed herself for her failed marriage. They were poor living in east Texas during The Great Depression. They only lived a two room house; not a two bedroom home with a kitchen, dining room, living room, den and bathrooms, but just two rooms! They had the stove in one room, and the bathtub in the other. They had to go outside and walk a distance to use the restroom in an outhouse.

The outhouse had no heat during the winter, nor air-conditioning in the summer. Brother Hyles said he didn't use a flushable toilet for the first time until he was 15 years old. Brother Hyles' mother felt to blame for her failed marriage because she refused to meet her husband's needs when he wanted her. She put the children first and refused to send the children outside to play while they did what husbands and wives do. I admire her honesty, but she is right to feel partly to blame for her failed marriage.

A wife should never turn her husband's advances down for romance. To do so goes against the Bible. Today's American woman is scary! I've read their dating profiles, showing their ridiculous shopping list of demands for a husband. They want a man who is tall, financially secure, with a strong jawline, fit and attractive, making a 6-digit salary, et cetera. One Christian woman said she only wanted a man who likes classical music like her. I want, I want! I want. Gimme, gimme, gimme! I've never read even one female's dating profile where she has a list of all the nice things that she wants to do for her future man when she finds him. What women want is a man to use as a tool to give her children, a home, money, a cottage on the lake, vacations and the good life; but they don't just want, a man.

Ladies, if you are married you should always put your husband before the children. I am not saying to neglect the children. Use common sense. The children are not going to starve by having to wait to eat after Dad has eaten. Men are treated like garbage in American culture!

The Problem With Ridiculously Woke "Every White Man Is Stupid" TV Commercials

The “ Dumb Dad ” and the Domestic Commercial

Wow unto the ungodly society that degrades and insults men and fathers with such disparaging commercials that encourage them to be lazy, reckless and irresponsible. It is sinful to put men down like feminists are doing. Can you imagine the fallout from the National Organization of Women (NOW), the feminists and the ungodly media if men made a commercial portraying women as being ignorant, stupid and incompetent? All hell on earth would follow! Why is it that women can degrade men, but men cannot treat women the same way? I’ll tell you why, because God has ordained that wives should obey their own husband. It is because God commands children in the Holy Bible to obey their parents. Wicked society tries to undermine God’s plan for the home.

Like it or not, God commands wives to obey their own husbands. Children are to obey Mom and Dad. If Mom disagrees, then the child is to obey Dad. Men are to rule their own homes! If a man is a godly person, then his wife and children will gladly submit to his leadership. Feminism poisons women’s minds to view marriage as something bad, to think that a stay-at-home wife and mother is somehow a slave to a man. Nothing could be further from the truth. What we have in the United States today is a disaster zone or broken marriages, ruined homes and chaos because of social engineering which has poisoned women’s minds. Feminism is not compatible with the inspired Word of God.

Sara called Abraham (her husband) “

Lord.

” You should have the same Christian spirit ladies toward your man. If you don’t, shame on you for going against the Holy Bible. Your prayers will be hindered and God will not be pleased with you ladies, until you submit to your man. The biggest threat to a good Christian wife is bad friends, who will poison her mind with feminist ideologies.

And let me warn you ladies, 95 % of Baptist women today (including pastors wives) are feminists in their wicked thinking. Many don’t even realize it. They’ve been raised up in our toxic American culture, and don't even realize that they've been indoctrinated with Satanic ideas. From U.S. movies, books, seminars and music to liberal church teachings, feminism has crept into nearly every Christian home and marriage. Ladies, you need to be smarter than the average bear in these perilous times!

In your home, Dad should come first, not the children. Little girls should be taught to fetch Dad's slippers. Sons should be taught to offer to help Dad when he works around the house. Wives should cater to her man as if Jesus were a guest in your home. Instead, these spoiled brats today refuse to lift a finger to help Dad mow the lawn. Kids get away with that type of bad behavior if the parents are irresponsible. Children should be made to do what is right, and that includes doing work around the house. Children should learn by working.

That is one reason why so many kids are spoiled brats who grew up in the big cities in apartment buildings, because there isn't enough hard work for them to do, as exists on a farm. Children need to work to instill character into them. When I was growing up my Dad made me paint the house foundation each year. I overturned the dirt in the yard each spring to plant a garden. I regularly did the dishes after dinner. I cut the grass in the summer. I raked the leaves in the fall. I shoveled the snow in the winter. I was required to assist my Dad whenever he worked around the house, while my friends went off to play and bum around in the park. In hindsight, I am glad that my Dad taught me to work hard before playing. Work before play!

Our characterless nation is in shambles today. This Generation Z are spoiled, lazy, entitled, disrespectful, arrogant, brats. Things will only get much worse! Television and Hollywood movies today ridiculously portray women as leading armies of men, a single female defeating a dozen masculine men in battle, and other utter insanity. This is ungodly intentional social engineering designed to undermine family values and society as a whole. We have been seeing a lot of smash & grab crimes committed nationwide over the past decade.

This level of open crime is unprecedented in our country's history. Each year there are now over 600 random mass shootings. Society's lame solution is to create more laws, hire more police, impose stiffer prison sentences and rise up a police state. Unfortunately this won't work! Morality simply cannot be legislated. All that will result is an authoritarian police state like exists in China today. We already have nearly 2,000,000 laws, ordinances, codes and regulations in the United States. They aren't working!!!

The only answer is Jesus Christ! The answer is to put the inspired King James Bible back into the public school system. Better yet, we should get rid of government (public) schools. Don't put your child on the public fool bus!!! Bible-believing churches with caring, people-loving, Christ-honoring, sin-fighting, free-grace-Gospel preaching, pastors is the answer! Sadly, today's churches are pathetic, which is why 90 % of the churches are 90 % empty each Sunday. Our nation is in big trouble! Truth means nothing anymore to the clergy; they just want the money.

> "Old-fashioned, Spirit-filled, Christ-honoring, sin-hating, soul-winning, Bible preaching! It is the hope of the church! It is the hope of the nation! It is the hope of the world!" —[2]Pastor Jack Hyles)

5.1.13 Most Christians Women Are Feminists But Don't Realize It (2024-01-29 18:39)

1st Peter 3:1-6, " Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives; While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear. Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands: Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement."

Kindly, let me start by boldly saying that I hate feminism with a passion, but I do not hate feminist women. I love people. God knows that I do not hate any living soul. Satan is the great deceiver (Revelation 12:9), the accuser of the brethren (Revelation 12:10). So please understand that I love everybody. I tell people when I preach the Bible that if the shoe fits, wear it.

What is feminism? Although there are various definitions of feminism, I define it a flagrant disregard for the teaching in God's Word that men have a God-given right and duty to lead the marriage, home, church and society.

The secular world defines feminism as: "

Belief in or advocacy of women's social, political, and economic rights, especially with regard to equality of the sexes;

The movement organized around this belief.

" That may sound noble and dandy to many people, but in reality it all boils down to rebellion against God. What saith the Scripture?

> Genesis 3:16, "Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee."

> Ephesians 5:22, " Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord."

Feminism is in direct opposition to the inspired Word of God. Ungodly liberal bias, feminist theology and the insanity of the Woke movement today have twisted, misinterpreted and corrupted the Holy Bible to fit their wicked agendas (Romans 1:25). Thankfully the truth is what it is and cannot be changed, although the wicked do try.

Feminism is destroying America! Isaiah 3:11-12, "Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him. As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths." God made men and women different. I am old fashioned. That is, I believe that God made men to do jobs that require grit, masculinity and toughness. I don't think women should be police officers, judges, political leaders or fire station chiefs. Those are authority and leadership roles reserved for men! If you want to know why America is in such a horrible mess today, look no further than our feminist culture!

Just Call Me Old Fashioned

It is disgusting to see a female police chief leading a bunch of men under her authority. Case in point is [1]CJ Davis, a female police chief under fire in Memphis, Tennessee as the crime rate has skyrocketed to record levels on her watch. Here's a sad true story about [2]a female cop who savagely beat up the wrong suspect! She was rightfully fired and sued! I humbly believe that women are best at cooking, clothing and service type jobs. That is not an attack against women. God created women by nature to follow, not lead. When women lead a society wickedness always ensues! It is not a coincidence that abortion, homosexuality, fornication, adultery, bearing false witness, smut magazines and websites, greed, divorce and all manner of evil has exploded in America alongside the rise of feminism in our degenerate immoral culture.

I can almost see the many angry faces on any feminist reading my blog. Get mad at God, He intended for men to lead the marriage, home, church and society, not women. Sorry ladies, you are the weaker vessel according to the Bible. 1st Peter 3:7, " Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered." Please do not misunderstand my blog. Women are equally important to God. Without women society wouldn' t exist! God has entrusted women with the greatest career of all as a mother!!!

Psalms 127:3, " Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward." Children are a gift from God almighty!!! By the way, life begins at conception, not at birth. I am so sick and tired of fools trying to justify the murder of a human baby by abortion. Also, it is a proven myth that sometimes a child needs to be aborted to save the mother's life. We have Caesarian Sections today, which [3]eliminate the argument in favor of abortion. Abortion is evil, plain and simple. Exodus 20:13, "Thou shalt not kill." Abortion is not self-defense, it is calculated murder. Abortion is not healthcare, it is cruelty to a human being.

Let me clarify something before I move on. I firmly believe that if a woman does a man's job, then she should receive a man's equal pay. I am all for equality when all is equal. But I have seen female construction workers holding a flag to direct traffic, while big burly men work the jackhammers. Those women ought not receive the same pay! Working a jackhammer is very hard work. I know this is a touchy topic and many people won't agree with me. One hundred years ago we were so much better off as a society. It wasn't perfect and never has been, but God's way (where men are in authority) is always the best way. Look at the horrible mess that we have in America today, when kids are deliberately being confused about their gender!!!

Anne Graham Loitz (Billy Graham's daughter) was interviewed on CBS's "The Early Show" on the Thursday morning after the September 11, 2002 terrorist attacks. She was asked by Jane Clayson: "How could God let something like this happen?" Here is her excellent answer:

I believe that God is deeply saddened by this, just as we are, but for years we've been telling God to get out of our schools, to get out of our government, and to get out of our lives. And being the gentleman that He is, I believe that He has calmly backed out. How can we expect God to give us His blessing and His protection if we demand that He leave us alone?

Let's see, I think it started when Madeline Murray O'Hare (she was murdered, her body was found recently) complained she didn't want any prayer in our schools, and we said, OK.

Then, someone said you better not read the Bible in school... the Bible that says thou shalt not kill, thou shalt not steal, and love your neighbor as yourself. And we said, OK.

Then, Dr. Benjamin Spock said we shouldn't spank our children when they misbehave because their little personalities would be warped and we might damage their self-esteem. (Dr. Spock's own grandson commit suicide. Dr. Spock's perverse teachings killed [4]upwards of 50,000 babies). And we said, an expert should know what he's talking about, so we said OK.

Then, someone said teachers and principals better not discipline our children when they misbehave. And the school administrators said no faculty member in this school better touch a student when they misbehave because we don't want any bad publicity, and we surely don't want to be sued (There's a big difference between disciplining and touching, beating, smacking, humiliating, kicking, etc.) And we said, OK.

Then someone said, let's let our daughters have abortions if they want, and they won't even have to tell their parents. And we said, Okay.

Then some wise school-board member said, since boys will be boys and they're going to do it anyway, let's give our sons all the condoms they want, so they can have all the fun they desire, and we won't have to tell their parents they got them at school. And we said, OK.

Then some of our top elected officials said it doesn't matter what we do in private as long as we do our jobs. And agreeing with them, we said it doesn't matter to me what anyone, including the President, does in private as long as I have a job and the economy is good.

And then the entertainment industry said, let's make TV shows and movies that promote profanity, violence, and illicit sex. And let's record music that encourages rape, drugs, murder, suicide, and satanic themes. And we said it's just entertainment, it has no adverse effect, and nobody takes it seriously anyway, so go right ahead.

Now we're asking ourselves why our children have no conscience, why they don't know right from wrong, and why it doesn't bother them to kill strangers, their classmates, and themselves. Probably, if we think about it long and hard enough, we can figure it out. I think it has a great deal to do with "WE REAP WHAT WE SOW."

Funny how simple it is for people to trash God and then wonder why the world is going to Hell. Funny how we believe what the newspapers say, but question what the Bible says.

We truly don't deserve God's blessings in the United States. I no longer can sing the song, "God Bless America." I don't want God to bless a wicked nation that legalizes homosexual marriages, and legally allows such messed up people morally to adopt children (which is child abuse). I don't want God to bless a wicked nation where women take 99 % of their clothes off wherever there is a pool or water to swim. I don't want God to bless a wicked nation that legalizes murdering children in the womb by abortion. I don't want God to bless a wicked nation that denies proper pain medications to suffering patients (people like me) with horrible chronic pain. My doctor in Florida is afraid of the government. She refuses to prescribe more than 40 mg of Oxycontin per day for my neck pain, which is ridiculous. I took 80 to 140 mg a day of prescription Oxycontin for 11 years when I lived on the island of Guam. The United States is a far cry from the alleged " country that the media shoves down our throats! We are becoming an authoritarian abusive police state!!! I'm at the point where I don't even want to go outside my door anymore unless I have to.

Proverbs 28:28, " When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase."

[5]Feminism is ruining dating. Hey, but don't take my word for it. Here is [6]CNN news reporting why 50 % of single men are no longer dating. The risk of ending up falsely accused by a woman, being treated like garbage by her in a relationship, becoming the victim of divorce and then being crucified by the feminist biased court system is scaring men away from the dating scene. Men would rather stay home and play video games! I can't blame them. In the preceding video it reports that young men self delete at four times the rate of young women.

We're in trouble! It's not just the United States. [7]France and Sweden are extremely feminist countries. Check out [8]how insane Sweden has gone! When you are talking about equality that results in men not being able to lead their marriage and home, and men lead the church, and men lead society, it is feminist rebellion against God. I don't expect an ungodly person to understand. A godly women knows God's plan for her life, and she seeks a man as a husband to whom she can serve, submit and be his lifetime helpmeet. The idea that a wife ought to have her own career, and that she is not required in any way to serve her husband, is Satanic (1st Timothy 5:14-15).

Dear reader, if you are a married female who thinks that you have as much right to lead the home as your husband, you are thinking like a wicked feminist. If you divorced your husband, you are in the same boat as the feminists! God hates divorce (Jeremiah 3:20). If you think a church secretary has a right to open the pastor's mail, or open the mail when her pastor told her not to, you are definitely a feminist. I knew a preacher who decided to resign as the pastor of a Baptist church, because the church secretary refused to stop opening the mail after he told her to leave the mail alone. That evil woman will answer to God.

Women who disrespect men in general are feminists. Feminism is rebellion against God. God has ordained for men to lead and women to follow. If you have a problem with that, you are a feminist whether you admit to it or not. I have had Christian women get mad at me for calling them a feminist, but their sassy mouth and bad attitude proved my accusation. Our text passage commands Christian women to maintain a consistent meek and quiet spirit, to be shamefaced and sweet.

Proverbs chapter seven describes the harlot and how subtle she is, like a predator. Proverbs 7:10-12, “

And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart.

(She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house:

Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.)

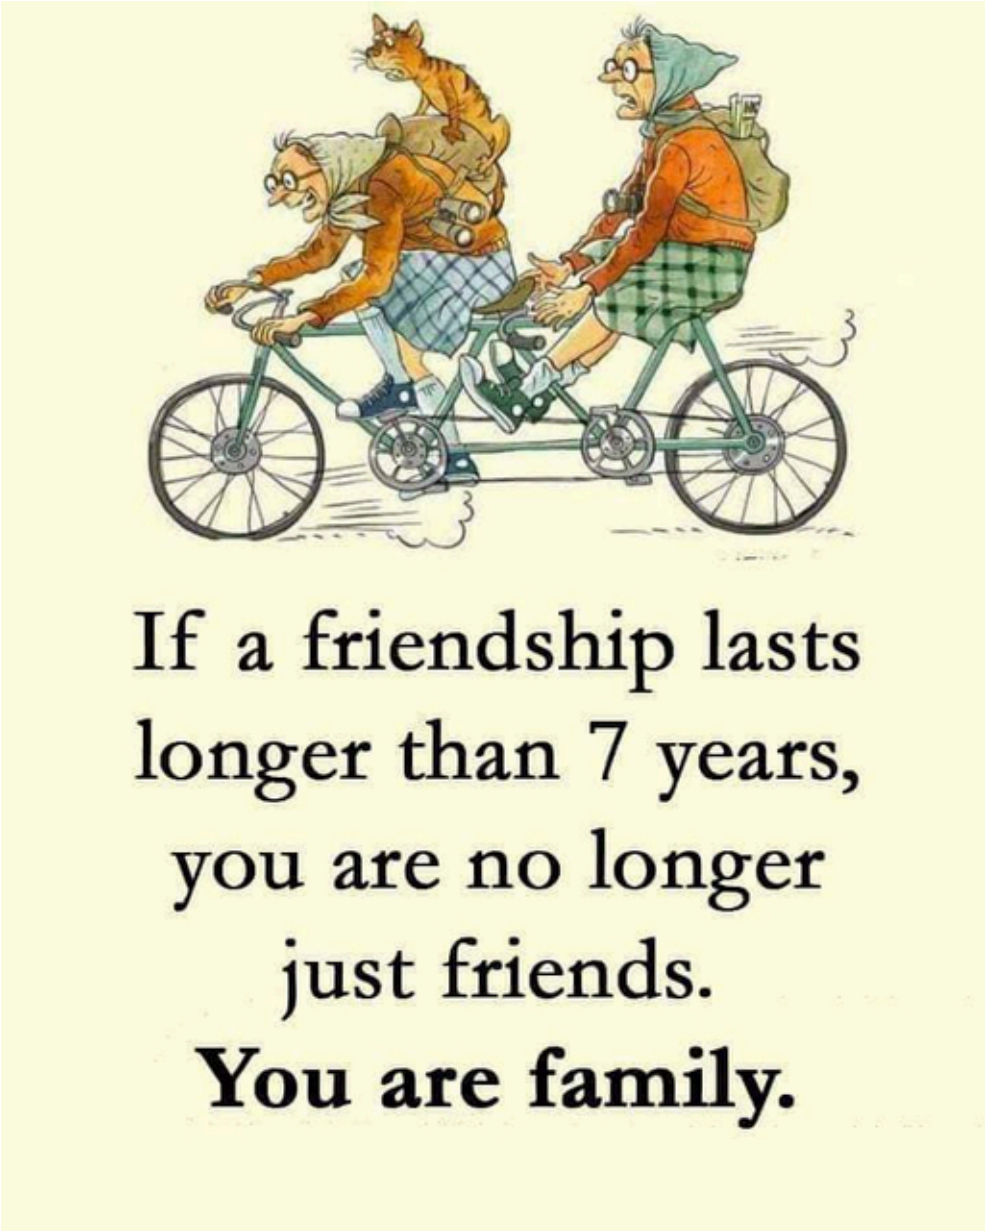
” The Bible calls her loud and stubborn. That is how feminists behave! They always have to run their mouths, putting men down. They are bar hoppers, not homebodies. These type of women often never marry (because feminism has brainwashed them to seek liberation from men). If they do manage to find a man to tie-the-knot, she usually destroys the marriage by filing for divorce (women file for divorce at twice the rate of men). [9]Single women in their forties are the most miserable group according to Psychology Today. Feminism lied to them!!!

I assure you that I haven’t bumped my head. Hey, I just found [10]an article in Business Insider about a woman who went viral saying she considers it a Red Flag if men don’t like the movie Barbie . Unreal! She won’t date any man who dislikes Barbie? That is crazy. You’d think she’d be concerned about his moral character, family values, personal hygiene habits and if he possesses any chivalry. How about his work ethic? No, she wants a guy who likes the movie, Barbie!

I saw [11]this article last year about an Asian woman who was attacked by a man in front of a fancy hotel in New York City. The hotel’s windows and doors were all glass, so people could see inside and outside. The hotel’s security guard saw the whole thing, but stayed inside the hotel and didn’t help the woman. After the assailant left, the woman was very angry and filed a complaint against the hotel. This issue went viral and stirred quite a response. Women demand the same rights as men. They demand to have men’s positions, jobs, pay, et cetera. They demand equality! But then those same women hypocritically whine and complain when men don’t come running to their rescue when someone is kicking their butt in public. You cannot have it both ways ladies!

If feminists want to be left alone and be like men, then you cannot expect men to run help you when you want them to. Feminist women today get offended when a man holds a door open for them. They give you dirty looks. In the old days men walked on the street side of a sidewalk, in case a car splashed muddy water. That way the man got splashed instead of the woman. I did a big study on ethics and chivalry as a young man, because I wanted to be a gentleman. When a woman enters into an elevator, a man should remove his hate in respect. When a women comes to a dinner table, a man should stand up to show respect for the lady. You don’t see such chivalry anymore, nor is it even taught, and that’s sad and tragic I think.

Please understand that I am not bashing women, God forbid. I love you dear reader, even if you are a feminist. My goal is not to offend anybody, but to uphold the beauty of courtship and the sacred institution of marriage. We don’t see a period of courtship before marriage anymore, which was commonplace in the old days of America. The waiting during courtship made getting married all that much better, which is what the song: "Wouldn’t It Be Nice" by The Beach Boys is about.



Today everybody is horribly shacking up committing the shameful sin of fornication (they call it one’s "Body Count," how many people you’ve slept with), women are getting pregnant out of wedlock and then having an abortion. Isn’t that awful? Yes, it sure is! Feminists will tell you this rotten behavior is acceptable. They'll try to convince you how responsible, proper and good you are while committing such reckless behavior, but God calls you a dirty guilty sinner (Romans 3:10-23). Please RUN away from Satan's destructive feminist ideologies, fool's advice and feminist theology! Psalms 1:1, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful."

Dear reader, if I have rang your bell in this blog sermon, God loves you! There is forgiveness for the worst sinner through faith in Jesus Christ. 1st John 1:9-10, "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us." Notice that before you even ask for forgiveness, while you are still confessing, God has already forgiven you. That shows us how much God desires to forgive everyone of our sins. We have a wonderful God who loves to forgive sin. Micah 7:18, "Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy."

God bless you dear friend and thank you for reading my humble thoughts. There is nothing good about feminism. I am all for equal rights when it comes to pay and how we treat each other. But I am 100 % against any form of equality that deprives men of their God-given right and proper place in the marriage, home, church and community to lead. Men should lead, women and children should follow men! And when women are foolishly elevated over men to lead our society, we are headed for serious trouble.

Isaiah 3:11-12, "Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him. As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths."

5.1.14 Think For Yourself, Your Friends May Be Wrong (2024-01-31 22:05)

Proverbs 1:10, " My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not. "

I was watching the [1]"Scary Interesting" YouTube channel yesterday. A teenager girl in England had just turned 18 and it was her birthday. So her idiot girlfriends took her to a fancy nightclub bar and wanted her first alcoholic drink to be something special. So they ordered some concoction that uses liquid nitrogen, which produces a fog effect in the glass.

The incompetent waiter who made the drink poured liquid nitrogen into her glass and she drank it. Evidently he didn't know what he was doing and didn't warn her to wait until the fog stopped. The nitrogen didn't have enough time to finish evaporating and she drank the liquid. [2]Nitrogen has a boiling point of -195.8 Fahrenheit. Liquid nitrogen is so cold that if you dipped your hand into a container of it, your hand would instantly freeze and crack off at your wrist. During World War II [3]Japanese mad scientists tortured tens of thousands of Chinese captives. Those [4]cruel experiments were carried out in [5]the "Unit 731" torture labs. Those scientists froze people's body parts and then hammered their arms and legs into pieces, seeing what the results would be.

I thank God that I didn't have to live through a World War. I remember Pastor Jack Hyles saying that Americans lived in fear back then in the 1940's, wondering if planes would fly over and bomb their homes. Then Americans worried during The Cold War about the real threat of nuclear war. Public schools regularly practiced emergency drills in case the United States was attacked. We used to go down into the basement of the school during drills, preparing for the worst if that day ever came. We are very blessed to live in a free country. Many youth today are spoiled entitled brats. They don't realize, care or appreciate the blood that millions of soldiers sacrificed on foreign battlefields to protect our freedoms. FREEDOM IS NOT FREE!!! We must fight to keep it.

In [6]this horrifying documentary you will see what can happen when people lose their freedom. Japan invaded China and murdered 20,000,000 people during World War II. Tens of thousands of Chinese were taken prisoner and cruelly experimented on in their secret Unit 731 torture labs. People had their body parts dipped into liquid nitrogen (which has a boiling point of -195.8 Fahrenheit). Monstrous scientists then took hammers and broke off those body parts, which cracked like glass. Humans without Jesus Christ can become monsters!!!

Anyway, getting back to the girl who drank the liquid nitrogen, [7]it was so cold that it [8]burned a hole in her stomach and her friends rushed her to the hospital. But in the emergency room the surgeons were horrified to see that her entire stomach was destroyed and they had to removed it completely. She will never be able to feel hungry again. She cannot eat a cheeseburger, pizza or any solid food ever again, because she has no stomach acids to dissolve food. She can only drink liquified pulp to sustain her life (basically baby food), and she has to force herself to eat several times per day. She has a tube from her mouth to her backside, all because some irresponsible waiter didn't know what he was doing. People can be very dangerous!

How much more should we all be leery of incompetent pastors who mislead lost sinners about how to go to Heaven. Dear reader, a counterfeit plan of salvation cannot produce the new birth that is required to enter into God's Kingdom. Jesus warned in John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. " I don't want this to happen to you friend. Please read [9]a simple Gospel presentation by military chaplain David Rutkin.

But in case you don't feel like reading it, I'll lay out God's plan of salvation super simple for you. You are a guilty sinner in God's sight, and so am. Everyone is a guilty sinner (Romans 3:10-23).

There is a penalty for our sinning, which is to burn in the fires of Hell forever (Revelation 20:11-15; Romans 6:23). The Good News (which is what the word “Gospel” means) is comprised of three things:

1. Jesus DIED on a cross to pay for our sins.

2. Jesus was BURIED.

3. Three days later Jesus bodily RESURRECTED from the dead.

You can confirm this Bible truth by reading [10]1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Romans 1:16 promises that anyone who BELIEVES the Gospel is saved. Simply come to God by faith as a guilty sinner, and receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried but then raised up from the dead the third day. That’s it my friend! Just BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for you. Nothing more is required.

Anyone who tells you that more than faith is required to get to Heaven is offering you liquid nitrogen to drink! I am [11]warning you about Bob Jones University! Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do to get to Heaven. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! My trust is in Christ alone.

Any incompetent preacher who says that you must turn from your sinful bad habits to be saved is handing you a glass of spiritual liquid nitrogen to damn you to Hell forever.

I am

[12]warning you about Pensacola Christian College!

We’ve got a bunch of incompetent pastors today who are Bible ignoramuses, who have bought into the manmade lie that repentance means to forsake a lifestyle of sinning. No one has ever forsaken a lifestyle of sinning! Even the best Christians still sin all the time. Whether in thought or deed, we sin every day of our lives. Even when we fail to pray as we ought we are sinning (1st Samuel 12:23). The Bible says if we say we have not sinned, we are calling God a liar (1st John 1:10). No one has ever repented of their sins!!! You had better repent of your unbelief and trust in Jesus Christ before it is too late to be saved. Thank you for reading my blog. God bless.

The tragic true story that I have shared with you about the young girl who lost her stomach and almost died, reminds me of all the rotten corrupt preachers today (e.g., like Chuck Phelps, Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, Marty Herron and Jeff Redlin), who people trust to feed them, not realizing that they are consuming deadly poison. They are drinking liquid Devil. Sadly, the victims of their false gospel will never see the emergency room, they'll end up in the spiritual morgue of eternal damnation in Hell. Beware of lying preachers!

5.2 February

5.2.1 By God's Grace, I Am Doing The Best That I Can (2024-02-02 09:15)

I am trying to do my best, God knows my heart. A woman on Facebook, one of my former "friends" got mad at me this week and not only unfriended me, she has blocked me out entirely. She is an older woman from the Philippines. She told me a couple years ago that she is a female preacher. Oh boy!

She once scolded me for admitting in a post that I missed church because I felt horrible in neck pain, with burning nerves, so I turned away from the church a block away and drove back home. I unfriended her for condemning me, because I don't need that kind of criticism. I'm hurting enough already.

So she sent me another friend request and I gladly accepted her back. I always accept people back, because I am a forgiving person, just as God has forgiven me for Christ's sake (Ephesians 4:31-32). Anyway, she wanted to chat with me the other night. The Philippines are 12 hours ahead of Pensacola. So when I am online looking for her at 8 pm my time in Florida, it is 10 am by her. But each night she would come online at 11 pm my time, which is 1 pm her time the next day. I told her that I need to go to sleep.

She got angry because I didn't prioritize HER, as if the world centers around HER. So now she has blocked me out, so I cannot even apologize or try to work out the time differences so we can chat. Moreover, I do not like chatting. I just don't. I suffer in horrible burning nerves, constant horrible neck pain, radiating pain down both arm and legs (80 % my right side), and the drug side-effects do affect me.

At present I am taking 7 different prescription drugs. For my pain I am taking OxyContin, Percocet and Gabapentin. For my diabetes I am taking Mounjaro and Metformin. For my high cholesterol I am taking Icosapent Ethyl. For high triglycerides (mine were 2,064) I am taking Atorvastatin. And to sleep at night I take over the counter Benadryl. Thankfully, the drugs have been helping me.

At my last doctor's appointment in late December 2023, my triglycerides were down to 242 from 2,062 in June 2023. My bad cholesterol went from 377 to 120 mg/dl. My A1c went from 10.7 down to 7.6. My weight went from 202 in September down to 190.8 in December. I weighed this morning at 178.8 pounds.

So far so good. My diabetes should all be gone in late March at my next doctor's appointment. The more weight I lose, the lower my A1C goes. The challenge will be to maintain a proper weight after I stop taking the Mounjaro which is easier said than done (at least it always has been for me). I'm taking 7.5 mg of Mounjaro, which is a weekly injection. I really like the drug. The same exact drug is marketed for weight loss under the brand name ZepBound.

And may I say, please don't write to me with a bunch of suggested alternative remedies. I am so sick and tired of well-meaning people scolding me for taking prescription drugs, while the things they suggest are useless at best. It seems that everybody and their dog has some magic cure that I need to try (e.g., cannabis oil, rubbing ginger on my neck, consuming collagen powder, wearing a magnet around my neck, fasting, avoiding red meat, acupuncture, all types of spices and natural supplements, being filled with the Holy Spirit, et cetera). It never ends. So please, enough!

I've said all that to say this. I simply cannot always keep up with everything that I wish I could do, or even what I am supposed to do. I started to paint my garage last year. It's still not done. I might feel like finishing it this year, or not...lol. Being in chronic pain all the time stifles one's ambition to do anything, or go anywhere. I have to make myself go to church. And then people get offended if I walk by and don't greet them. My mind is just not there sometimes.

Kindly said, the Filipina woman who unfriended and blocked me out on Facebook, woefully lacks understanding. I have learned the hard way that I can tell someone a hundred times how my pain adversely affects me, but my words fall on empty ears 99 % of the time, because they cannot even begin to understand what I am suffering through. Humans by nature are selfish, so we always think everything is about us, but it's really not about us. She likely thinks I just didn't want to chat with her, but that is not the case at all. I am just hurting in physical pain, burning nerves, tension in my neck, and taking a bunch of medications. I am doing fine in the Lord, I'm just always a bit tired and need to take it easy.

Like I said, when I looked for her to chat at 8 pm, she wasn't there. But she wants to chat with me at 11 pm at night, when I usually go to sleep between 9 pm and 11 pm. I had just checked in at Facebook to see what was going on, but she wanted to chat. I didn't feel like staying up until after midnight, so I kindly told her that I needed to go to sleep. Now she's angry at me and hates my guts. Women! I'm being a bit facetious. I am praying for her. I will gladly accept her friend request if she sends me another one, but if not, that is fine with me too.

I am only writing this post for the rest of you, my remaining social media friends. I am bodily hurting all the time, so please don't be offended if I don't reply to your message, or I don't feel like chatting, because I just don't. I always respond to emails, usually the same day, but please be patient if I don't. By God's grace I have kept up with everything fairly well, but lately I just don't feel like doing anything.

I only go to church every other week, with exceptions, because it is torture for me to sit through a church service while in pain. All week I have felt sharp razorblade pain shooting down my right leg, and into my right arm. The radiating pain as I type is terrible in my right leg. It all comes from my neck injury and damaged spinal cord from getting rear-ended by a church bus in 1992, and then I had a long fall at work in 2005. It's called radicular pain.

Thankfully to God, I feel good overall from losing a lot of weight, but the neck related pain is the same. I got my weight down to 146.0 pounds in 2017. My neck pain was the same. My nerves feel like they are burning throughout my entire upper body. Sometimes it's not so bad, but [1]at other times it feels overwhelming.

Since 2004, I've met with 8 neurosurgeons, an orthosurgeon, a neurologist and multiple doctors. There's nothing more anyone can do, except Jesus (Philippians 3:21). I was desperate to get medical relief for the first 7 years, but then after my second failed neck surgery, and being told by doctors to leave well enough alone lest I end up worse off, I had to accept the sad fact in 2011 that I have a permanent injury. And it's not like I can just request more surgery. The insurance company won't pay for anything unless a licensed surgeon deems it medically necessary. I've already had two major neck surgeries.

I contacted the Laser Spine Institute of Florida on my own in 2011, and mailed them my MRI's. Because their laparoscopic techniques are not approved by the medical industry, the insurance won't pay for it. They quoted me $19,000 for the surgical room, and another $6,000 for the surgery. And there's no guarantee that their minimally invasive neck surgery procedure will help me (plus there are significant risks involved if things go wrong).

I am explaining all this for the rest of you, just in case anybody else wants to freak out in anger and unfriend me (I originally wrote this for Facebook), because I don't feel like chatting, meeting with you in public, or I fail to reply to a message that I sincerely missed. I am a scatter brain sometimes! So please pardon me if I seem less than friendly at times. I assure you that it is only because I am suffering in horrible agonizing neck pain and bodily discomfort.

And as you can imagine, I do get depressed often from it all. Not having a wife is both a blessing and a curse, depending on how I choose to look at it. Every normal man wants a woman! I sure do. My former wife cruelly abandoned and divorced me in 2006. I would like to get remarried, but I cannot handle fighting and the trauma and drama that some marriages have (some more than others). By God's grace, I live a quiet and peaceful life, just the way I need it to be. I pray for God's will to be done. I try to maintain the proper heart's attitude of Job, who exclaimed in □□□ □□:□□, "□□□□□□ □□ □□□□ □□, □□□ □□□□ □ □□□□□ □□ □□□: □□□ □ □□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□□□ □□□."

It Is My Privilege To Labor For Jesus Christ

My life doesn't center around Facebook. I have 8 ministry websites and 8 blogs. Last week I received a DMCA complaint from the bookstore at Bible Baptist Church in Pensacola, where Dr. Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016) was their longtime pastor. The bookstore was upset that I am freely giving away Dr. Ruckman's books online, so I had to remove all of them. It is sad how greedy professed Christians have become. The Lord sees all the work behind the scenes that I need to do each day to maintain my website ministry. As the internet technology changes, so do the requirements for my webpages. At the time I began my ministry in 2022, hardly anyone was using mobile devices, but today about 60 % of my web visitors are using mobile devices. I have over 13,000 web pages on my 8 websites, which all need to be updated with code to make them Mobile Friendly (i.e., able to be read nicely on mobile gadgets).

For example: [2]Here is a webpage that I haven't updated yet.

And [3]here is one that I have.

You can see the drastic difference, if you are using a mobile device like a mobile phone or i-pad.

So far I have completed about 2,000 webpages. I have much work still to do! Praise God anyhow!

God knows that I usually work over 60 hours every week on my website ministry, and have done so for as long as I can remember. There are countless weeks where I've worked much more. On countless occasions over the past 22 years, I got so caught up in my ministry work that I worked straight through the night, working 37 hours straight. I am not boasting, I give God alone ALL the praise and credit, for without Jesus (who is the Vine) we can do nothing (John 15:5). □□□□□□□□□□□ □:□□, "□□□ □□ □□ □□□ □□□□□ □□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□□ □□□ □□ □□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□."

I consider my longtime web visitors part of my family. Many people have come and gone over the past 22 years, since the Lord put the desire into my heart to start a website ministry. I've been threatened with lawsuits umpteen times, vehemently hated, had umpteen DMCA complaints filed against me, maliciously slandered with lies, had large portions of my website deleted on the server without knowing who did it (my 911 Folder kept getting deleted in the years after 911, but Netfirms web hosting denied any involvement), I've had my entire website terminated and had to go find a different webhosting company (it took me 130 hours just to reupload my [4]Jesus-is-Savior website), I've had rogue malicious [5]Denial Of Service Attacks from China against my website (which caused KnownHost to shutdown my website for a time), I've received thousands of hateful emails, et cetera. I've been through a lot of battles over the years. By God's grace, I've invested over $15,000 into my ministry and over 50,000 hours of time. At present I am paying a little over $1,000 per year for my websites. I pay KnownHost $980 a year for VPS (Virtual Private Server) hosting. I get four processors, which ensures fast webpage load times for my web visitors. I get 150 GB of server space to use. I'm using most of it.

In the old days before 2013, when I only had Shared Web Hosting, there were constant website outages. Pictures weren't loading. Things were horrible. But instead of sharing a server computer with thousands of others users, now I pay for my own private server computer, which guarantees me the resources that my web visitors need. I do this for Jesus Christ my Savior and God, because I love Him dearly for giving His life for me on the cross (Romans 5:6-9).

The Day I Almost Died

Anyway, I sincerely thank God for giving me the opportunity to live long enough to have an international ministry, to reach others for Christ. In the late 1990's I almost died, when I car fell on top of me while working under it. I couldn't breathe, but had enough room to scream for help. In another 60 seconds I would have blacked out and died. Thanks be to God, there was a black man walking down the street who heard my cries. There was no one else around.

I sometimes cringe when I stop to think that if he had been a racist man, he could have left my white butt under that car to die, and walked away laughing (there are horrible people like that in the world). I love that black man, but don't even know his name. He didn't even know how to jack up the car, so with gasps of air I told him what to do. When the weight of that Ford Toranado front wheel drive car lifted off of me, I had a second lease on life. I had been replacing a defective starter. I used jack stands, but foolishly didn't set the car's weight down upon the stands. So when my creeper snagged on a pebble, and I pulled on the car to overcome to pebble, I actually toppled the car and the jack stands, and the weight of the car came down on top of me.

I went to the hospital for x-rays. Thankfully nothing was broken, but the next day my entire upper body was black, blue and yellow. I had almost died, crushed by a heavy car. I couldn't even life myself up to get out of bed. The pain was so bad that it brought tears to my eyes. I had to roll onto my side, and then try to sit upright. I really should have died that day, as have thousands of men while working under cars, but it wasn't my time to die yet. I believe God had a hand in that, but I don't know. I am careful not to make assumptions. Ecclesiastes 9:11 does teach that Time and Chance happens to all. Regardless, I thank God for allowing me to live, if nothing else so I could start my website ministry since 2002.

I pray for that man from time to time, wondering if I will see him in Heaven. If I do, anything I own is his. He can have whatever his heart desires of my rewards in Heaven. By God's grace I will turn 57 years old on March 5, 2024. I cannot believe how quickly the years have passed since I was a kid in the 1970's. By the way, I still love the old arcade games that I grew up with:

[6]Play Classic SPACE INVADERS | [7]GALAGA | [8]DONKEY KONG | [9]PACMAN | [10]ASTEROIDS | [11]CENTIPEDE. If you're my age or older, then you likely remember this commercial on television back then: [12]Good stuff Maynard!

I don't know how much time I have remaining on earth. I admit that I am not happy in my life. I can't find a wife (but I have tried). I can't afford to live on the island of Oahu in Hawaii (I love playing the Hawaiian steel guitar there). I'd gladly settle for a home near the Rocky Mountains in Colorado, but I cannot afford that either. Pensacola is okay, not much to see or do, but the cost of living is cheaper than the national average. Home is where I hang my hat. God is always very good, and I know in the future that He will give me the desires of my heart (Romans 8:32).

God Knows I Just Want To Help People For Christ

Having admitted that I am not happy, I do have peace like a river flowing in my soul. I 100 % know that I am saved—that my name is written in Heaven in the precious Lamb's Book of Life (Luke 10:20). I have food on my table, shoes on my feet, a roof up above me, and a good place to sleep. I live in a semi-free country in the United States. I can't get the pain medication dosage that I need, because doctors are afraid of the government stripping away their license. That is not freedom! Google has censored 95 % of my web traffic. That is not freedom! I have four adult children from the Lord, and I can still bathe myself and go for a walk or drive if I desire. Many people are crippled in a wheelchair, or stuck in a hospital bed. So I count my blessings from God. We just don't know what a day may bring forth (Proverbs 27:1).

Thank you for reading my blog. God knows my heart that I just want to be a blessing for Jesus Christ to others. I am not an eloquent writer. I make lots of typos (sorry about that). I don't claim to be a good Christian, but God knows that I am 100 % sincere and I do care. I care about right doctrine. I care about the accuracy of the Gospel (sadly most pastors don't). I care about the purity of God's inspired Word (which is the King James Bible). I care about people, especially hurting people. I am a hurting person myself (both physically and emotionally), so I can understand what hurting people feel and are coping with. God uses hurting people to help hurting people.

Tragically, you won't get any help at [13]cults like Pensacola Christian College, they will cold-heartedly [14]throw you under the bus and leave you for dead, like they did to me in 2021 and 2022, and still today. Also, Bob Jones University doesn't care about individual people. The cult system always comes first in these pseudo-fundamentalist institutions, but individual people don't matter. I speak that to their utter shame and wickedness! God's judgment is upon these ungodly predatory religious organizations which parasite off of churches and naïve parents.

I know that a write a lot about the false repentance issue, and the plethora of corrupt Bibles in Bible colleges and churches today, but it is necessary to warn everyone. Sadly, 98 % of preachers don't care about anything except making a living (i.e., money). I have never taken a single penny for serving God, and I never plan to. I woke up at about 4 am and couldn't fall back to sleep. So I watched a 3:40 hour historical documentary called: '[15]The Revolutionary.'

George Washington lost his last living child (his adult son) in the war. His parents had kept him home to protect him, but he wanted to help the cause, like his father. So his parents relented to let him join the fight and it cost him his life. So sad.

George Washington went partially blind during his service to his country and couldn't read anymore without glasses. He was away from his wife for several years during the war effort. George Washington paid a steep price for his noble labors to form a new country, freed from the tyranny of England. When the war was over, most men in his shoes would have wanted to lead the new empire; but not George, he just wanted to go back home to be with his wife and live a quiet life in Virginia. George and his wife attended various churches of different denominations once a month (I go twice a month usually). And George never accepted a single penny for all his labors and service to his country. We need a lot more men of integrity like that in the world today!

I guarantee you that 99 % of preachers and pastors would quit overnight if they stopped getting paid. But I didn't start my website ministry to make money, so I have no reason to quit! I do what I do out of an " excellent spirit had (Daniel 6:3). I don't want anybody's money, but thank you anyhow. My rewards are laid up in Heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and thieves cannot break through and steal (Matthew 6:19-20). I've been robbed three times over the past year. It has cost me $600.

I consider myself fortunate, thieves stole my neighbour's $7,500 Ditch-witch (equipment used to install underground fiber optics cable). I really hate thieves, stealing that for which they did not labor to earn, shedding other men's blood. When you steal another man's labors, you are taking away his time which he spent to earn those things, and in a very real sense you are taking away his life and shedding his innocent blood. Most thieves feel entitled to steal from those who are financially better off than they are, which is how wicked sinners think. But a righteous man thinks quite different, as we read in Psalms 37:21, "

The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth.

Thank you for reading and God bless.

5.2.2 You Will Leave This World How You Entered, With Nothing (2024-02-02 16:08)

1st Timothy 6:7-12, "For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses."

I was [1]listening to Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988) today in my car as I drove to go walking at Community Maritime Park in Pensacola. I wore my 20 pound weight vest, which I hadn't worn since 2021 on Guam. I've been losing a lot of weight lately (24 pounds in just 3 months). Today I weighed 178.2 pounds on my digital scale. Amen! In September of 2023 I weighed 202 pounds. I've been taking prescription Mounjaro since late October, which is an amazing drug. I really like it. It's a one week injection from a pen. I get 4 pens at a time. I started with 2.5 mg pens the first month; then 5.0 mg pens the second month, and now 7.5 mg pens. 15 mg is the highest dosage, but I don't think my doctor will be raising my dosage any higher than 7.5 mg, because the drug is working well to control my glucose level.

Anyway, I was [2]listening to Pastor McGee teach from [3]Ecclesiastes chapter 5 and 6. He said that the rich man can only eat 3 meals a day, the same as the poor man. The rich man can pay for all the doctors he wants, but he won't live any longer than the poor man. The rich man cannot enjoy seeing a sunset any more beautiful than the poor man can. The rich man eats food that grows from the same field as the poor man does. The rich man can own 15 houses in different countries, but he can only sleep in one bed at a time. He can only live in one home at a time, while the rest sit idle uninhabited by him.

Dear reader, this life is very short in lieu of eternity. When a man or woman is at their prime at age 35 and they feel on top of the world, just 40 years later they are 75 years old and well beyond the age that one is considered a senior citizen. My point is that if you are a young person, you'll grow old before you know it; then like me you'll look back over your life and wonder where the years went so quickly. Lord willing, I'll turn 57 on March 5th, 2024. I feel like a teenager in my soul. My body feels about 80 sometimes due to my chronic neck pain. God is so good and I love Him as my dear Savior, Friend and Lord!

I follow a handful of preachers on X (formerly known as Twitter). I also follow Paul Stanley of the rock band KISS. I don't support their wicked lifestyles, nor do I approve of their demonic rock music. I follow him out of curiosity, to see what he promotes and how he thinks. Paul is now in his 70's, as is also his band peer Gene Simmons (real name: Chaim Witz). Today on X Paul shared a post of himself holding a $1,000 bottle of expensive wine that he was drinking. He said that he worked hard and deserved it. Sadly, Paul is Jewish in his religious beliefs and a Christ rejecter. Unless he repents of his unbelief and trusts Jesus alone as his Savior, he will go to Hell when he dies.

Paul is living large, having a net worth of $200,000,000. His food doesn't taste any better than mine. His bed is no softer than mine. He can only sleep in one bed at a time. He cannot eat any more food than I do. He may be able to travel the world, buy more expensive possessions, enjoy massive fame, et cetera. But he is living on borrowed time, just like everyone else on the planet. I thank God for the precious blood of Jesus that washed away all my since when I was 13 years old in 1980. I simply knew that I was a sinner, and I trusted Jesus as my personal Savior; believing that He died on a cross to pay for my sins, and that He was buried, but then resurrected from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

You will leave this world exactly how you entered into it, with nothing. I like the following Bible verse from 1st Timothy 6:12, "Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses." That is very interesting. We know that we were born into this world with nothing, and we know that we will die taking nothing out of this life with us.

The Apostle Paul exhorts Timothy to fight the good fight of faith, and to lay hold on eternal life. That means to make the best use of our remaining time here on earth as saints. We already have eternal life through faith in Christ. Paul is saying to lay hold on our eternal life, so that we can be used of God for the cause of Christ. Every believer should be a soulwinner. We all have a duty to share the Gospel with lose sinners. Tragically, less than 1 % of Christians today care about sharing the Gospel. This is primarily the fault of pastors for not teaching and inspiring their church congregation to share the Gospel. Everything rises and falls on leadership.

Dear reader, are you born again? If not, you need to take care of that immediately, because today could be the last day of your life. And if you are saved, you should be serving God. When is the last time you shared the Gospel with a lost sinner? I witnessed to my doctor and her physician's assistant.

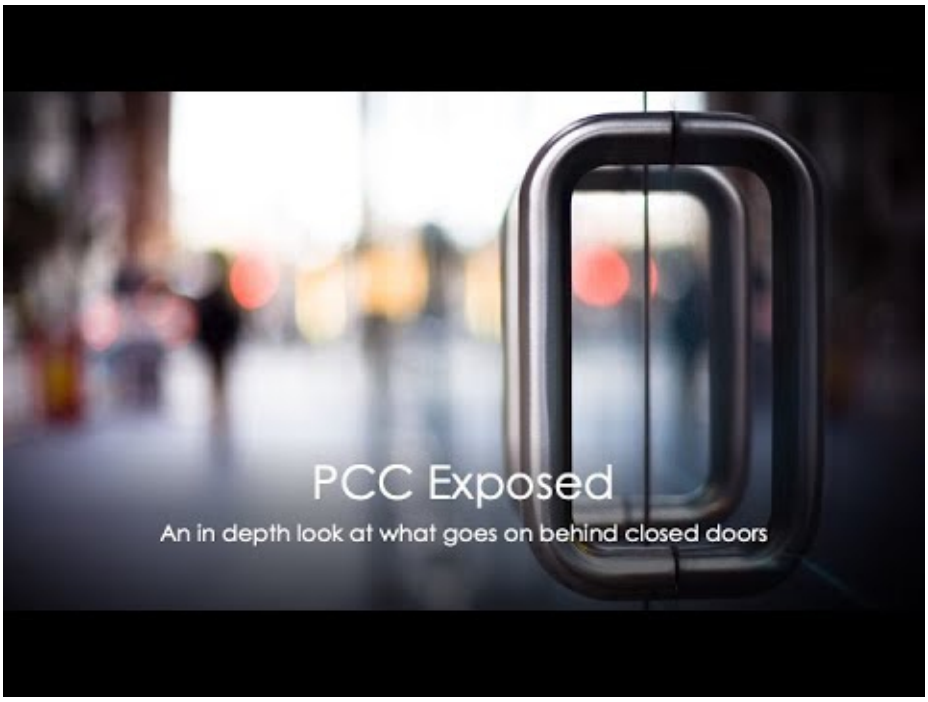
5.2.3 The Dark Truth About Pensacola Christian College (2024-02-02 16:45)



Romans 16:17-18,

“

Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

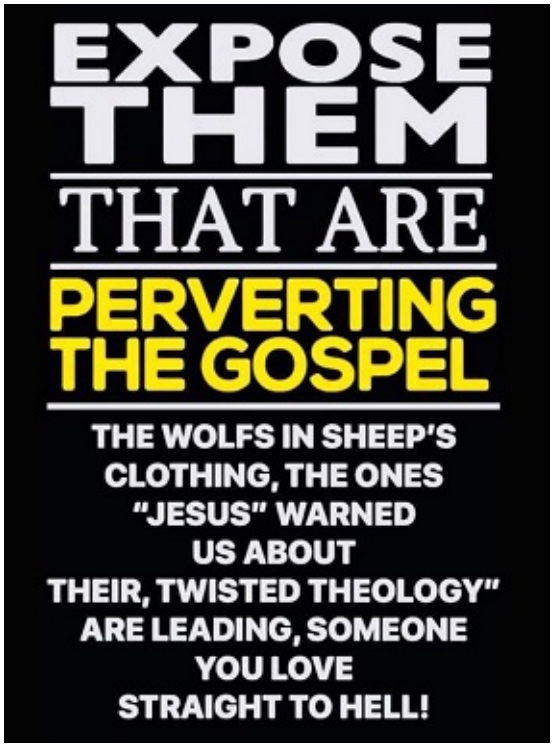
The Dark Truth Behind PCC - Part 3

The Dark Truth Behind PCC - Part 4



According to Benjamin, ninety-nine percent of PCC's teachers are incompetent. I couldn't agree more! I do know that PCC are academic types, not church builders, and they woefully lack compassion for people. PCC is a theologically dangerous cult because [1]they preach a counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation. I hope you will watch all of Benjamin's shocking videos, how PCC forced him to pay $3,000 for classes that he never took. I detest the ungodly hypocrites at PCC!!! If I weren't mature as a Christian who has been born again for 44 years, I'd never step foot into any church again because of the horrible way that I was mistreated, crapped on and abused by Pastor Jeff Redlin at Campus Church (who is on an ego power trip).

Have you ever heard about Mahatma Gandhi? Please read what he said:

> "□'□ □□ □ □□□□□□□□□□ □□ □□ □□□□ □□□ □□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□□□□." —□□□□□□□ □□□□□□

Now [2]take a look at why he said this statement! Just like PCC terribly mistreated me as a human being, so did professed Christians mistreat Mahatma Gandhi. Unfortunately, Mahatma was not a Christian, and he no doubt died in his sins and went to to Hell because of rotten self righteous hypocrites like the PCC cult. PCC is pulling on the same rope as the Devil.

5.2.4 Country Singer Toby Keith Has Died (2024-02-07 19:20)

John 3:1-3, "

There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

6786

Sadly, [1]Toby Keith died on Monday, February 5th, 2024 of stomach cancer at age 62. ...

> Toby Keith Covel (July 8, 1961 – February 5, 2024), known professionally as Toby Keith, was an American country music singer, songwriter, record producer, and actor. In the 1990s, he released his first four studio albums—Toby Keith (1993), Boomtown (1994), Blue Moon (1996) and Dream Walkin' (1997)—and Greatest Hits Volume One under Mercury Records. These albums all earned gold or higher certification and had several top ten singles, including his chart-topping debut "Should've Been a Cowboy." [2]Wikipedia

If you search the internet for Toby Keith's religious and faith, you'll find a lot about his faith during his battle with stomach cancer since 2021. Faith in what? Faith in who? Some websites assume Toby had faith in Jesus, but I triple dog dare you to find where Toby says so. I couldn't find Toby's Christian testimony anywhere online. Mr. Keith did mock Jesus, [3]saying that if he were Jesus he'd run around with the wrong crowd and never be bored. That is blasphemy!

Millions of Americans love Toby Keith so much that they can only see him as in Heaven having a good time. But unless Toby Keith was a born again child of God, he went to Hell forever. I don't know where Toby went. Some people are labeling him as a Christian, but every hellbound Mormon, Jehovah's Witness, Roman Catholic and Seventh-Day Adventist falsely claim to be Christians. No one who claims to be a "Christian" is truly going to Heaven unless they've been born again, which is by faith alone without works in Jesus Christ.

It bothers me immensely when someone dies, and everybody talks about that persons "faith" while dying. Where was Toby's faith when he was living large on top of the world? Sadly, Keith [4]spent his life glorifying the sins of fornication, drunkenness, [5]irresponsible reckless behavior, and other sins in his music. If he was saved, Toby won't have any rewards in Heaven. Toby left behind an amassed fortune of $400,000,000, but couldn't take a single penny with him into eternity. I sure hope Toby had Jesus Christ as his personal Savior.

I don't condemn people. I am the biggest sinner that I know (and so are you if you're honest with yourself, because you know yourself better than anyone). My only concern is whether he died in Christ (Revelation 14:13), or in his sins (John 8:24). It saddens me when someone dies and it is obscure whether they went to Heaven or Hell. Only Toby and God know where he is now. I didn't write this blog to criticize a dead man; but rather, to warn others that you cannot enter into the Kingdom of God unless you get born again.

When he was younger, Toby didn't embrace his faith, he glorified sin and shame. Then when he was diagnosed with stomach cancer, all of a sudden he needs God. We're all guilty to some degree of doing that. We've all treated God like garbage at times. I am guilty too. I've never heard Toby mention the name of Jesus even once throughout his life, except to blaspheme and mock Jesus in his stupid songs. What saith the Scripture?

> Ecclesiastes 11:9, "Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment."

> Ecclesiastes 12:1, "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;"

I am sad for Toby Keith's family. I watched an interview he made weeks before Toby died, in which he looked terrible. He lost a bunch of weight and looked sickly. The cancer, surgery, chemotherapy and prescription drugs really did a number on his health. No one can escape death. When it's our time to go, all the surgeons and medical experts in the world that one can afford cannot extend our life (Hebrews 9:27).

If Toby Keith's faith was merely in God, then he is burning in Hell right now. The Bible warns that even the demons believe in God, but they tremble knowing the judgment that is to come (James 2:19). I hope Toby was saved, but I have my doubts. You can hear him talk about his faith in this interview. When the woman asks him about his faith, Toby says he believes God is his Creator. He says that he has faith in God. Sadly, not once does he mention the precious name of Jesus Christ. You know, the guy who died on a cross to pay for our sins!!! John 3:3, " Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

Toby Keith Opens Up About His Battle With Cancer And Career

I'm sorry if it offends anyone, but after watching this video of a dying man, who doesn't seem to know Jesus Christ as His personal Savior, I humbly don't think Toby Keith went to Heaven. The world is full of religious people, but they have never been born again. My father was right, who said religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again.

Big deal if Toby believed God created him. Big deal if he leaned more about his faith in God as a dying man. The $64,000 question is: Did Toby Keith ever get born again?

5.2.5 The Fallacies Of A Young Earth (2024-02-08 13:53)

Psalms 102:25, “

Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth*: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

The psalmist plainly acknowledges that the earth itself is old. David penned these inspired Words from God at approximately 1500 BC. It blows my mind that anyone could actually believe that dinosaurs roamed the earth 5,000 years ago, or that the earth is flat. Science tells us that dinosaurs lived between 60 to 220 million years ago, and that the earth is 4.6 billion years old and the universe is 13 billion years old. I humbly think this is the truth. The Bible teaches an old earth if you rightly divide the Word of Truth.

Here’s the notes from Pastor Younce’s YouTube video, "Part 4 - The Fallacy Of A Young Earth."

Part 4 - The Fallacy Of A Young Earth

Some Notes: Genesis One, "Created" and "Made." These two words, translated from two different Hebrew words, are very important in understanding God’s Original Creation and His Remodeling of the Earth after its judgment. Let’s examine each word and its significance in respect to the earth. A. "Created." The Hebrew word for "created" is ’bara." This word first appears in Genesis, Chapter One. It always means the instant, miraculous creation of something which had no previous existence in any form whatsoever. The three places "bara" (created) appears in Genesis One are as follows:

(1). Genesis 1:1 — "In the beginning God CREATED (bara) the heaven and the earth." They have never existed before this.

(2). Genesis 1:21 — "And God CREATED (bara) great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good." (They never existed before this.)

(3). Genesis 1:27 — "And God CREATED (bara) man in his own image, in the image of God created he him: male and female created he them." (Man never existed before this.) B. "Made."

The Hebrew word for made is "asah." This word means "to release from restraint, to make, to allow, or to assemble.

The late Dr. Harry Rimmer, D.D., SC.D., had this to say concerning the Hebrew for "made." "This is the word that would be used to describe the production of a piece of furniture by a carpenter, or the assembling of a motor by a skilled mechanic. In the case of the carpenter it would not be proper to say he had "created" a table: he merely manufactured the article out of materials which were already in existence. It would be equally wrong to say that the mechanic had created a motor which he had (only) assembled."

Note: When we see in English the words "made" and "created," they have basically the same meaning to the average person, which has caused much confusion; but, not so in the Hebrew. In the Hebrew, they have distinctively different meanings, the knowledge of which is imperative to understanding Genesis, Chapter One. This, the young earth advocates refuse to accept!

Therefore, the first four days of Genesis are not an Original Creation, but a remodeling process of already existing materials that had been held in restraint or bondage. That is why the Holy Spirit used the precise Hebrew words brought into our English language as "made" and "let," i.e. or "allow."

5.2.6 The Satanic Anglican Church Of England (2024-02-09 15:04)

Leviticus 20:13, “If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.”

Before I say anymore, let me say that I love people. I love everyone regardless of their gender, ethnicity, age, social status, et cetera. No one can be right with God and hate anyone. Having said that, the inspired Holy Bible is very clear that homosexuality is a sin in God’s sight.

The Church of England and The Anglican Church are virtual synonyms in the UK. However, outside of the UK, depending the the church splits are called Anglican, Anglican Church in North America, and the Episcopal Church.

I am tired of liberals and sodomites pointing out that the Old Testament imposed capital punishment on eating lobster. God established three different types of laws in the Old Testament: moral, civil and ceremonial laws. Moral laws apply 24/7 (all the time). Civil laws govern how we get along with our neighbours (our responsibilities and liabilities). Ceremonial laws were given by God only for the Jews living in Palestine under Mosaic law. Since the Sabbath Day was a ceremonial law, it no longer applies today (Colossians 2:14-16).

Tragically, many churches are turning apostate, such as the Church of England. ...

Church of England paves way for ceremonies to welcome trans people

"This new guidance provides an opportunity, rooted in scripture, to enable trans people ... to mark their transition in the presence of their church family," said Julian Henderson, who worked on the guidelines

By Lin Taylor | December 2018

LONDON, December 11 (Openly) - Transgender members of the 85-million-strong Anglican faith community will now have the support of the Church of England, after it released guidelines on Tuesday for ceremonies to welcome them.

The Church of England, where the Anglican tradition originated, has in recent years moved towards greater acceptance of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT+) people, including addressing homophobic bullying in schools.

The public ceremonies aim to affirm the new identity of trans worshippers, [1]according to guidelines published on the Church's website on Tuesday.

Julian Henderson, head of the committee that produced the guidelines, said the decision was "rooted in scripture".

"We are absolutely clear that everyone is made in the image of God and that all should find a welcome in their parish church," said Henderson in a statement.

"This new guidance provides an opportunity, rooted in scripture, to enable trans people ... to mark their transition in the presence of their church family," he added.

READ MORE: [2]Church of England paves way for ceremonies to welcome trans people

That is very sinful and wrong by the Church of England! Homosexuality is a horrible sin which the inspired Holy Bible condemns. Also, please read Romans chapter one, which clearly condemns the homosexual deathstyle. I do not hate or bash homosexuals or transgendered people, I love them with God's unconditional love. We should never accept the sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin. Many religious people refuse to make a distinction between sin versus the sinner, so they just hate everyone who is living an openly sinful life. That is wrong! Most churches and Bible colleges today only focus on moral authority, while woefully lacking love and compassion for hurting sinners. That is why the churches are dying today! Albeit, we as saints should never accept unrepentant sinners in good standing into the churches. This is 100 % biblical (1st Corinthians 5:1-5).

God created Adam and Eve, not Adam and Steve. I heard singer Elton John call for all governments around the world to ban organized religion, which he sees as a major threat to the homosexual community everywhere. Well, Elton may have an incredible amount of influence because of his musical talent here on earth, but he is a big zero in the eyes of Heaven. Elton is an ungodly avowed atheist! Good luck in eternity Elton! What saith the Scripture? John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

On [3]their own website the Church of England presents a false plan of salvation. Here is their ridiculous fake plan of salvation...

> 'The most important decision any person can ever make is to become a disciple of Jesus Christ. It's the best thing anyone can do.' [4]SOURCE

What saith the Scripture?

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

The Bible way to Heaven is through faith alone in the Gospel (Good News) that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God; who died on a cross to pay for our sins, was buried, and three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead.

In sharp contrast, nowhere does the inspired Word of God teach us to become a "

of Jesus to get to Heaven. Judas followed Jesus, being one of His very apostles; yet, Judas died in his sins and went to burn in Hell forever. Jesus said in John 6:70 that Judas had a devil in him. Judas never trusted in Christ! Judas merely became a Christ follower, like so many hellbound religious people today (Matthew 7:21-23).

The wicked Anglican Church of England preaches a counterfeit plan of salvation. No one has ever been saved by following Jesus. Thousands of people in the Bible followed Jesus for a handout of food, but not because they believed on Him. John 6:26,

"Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

" Multiples of religious people only attend church for selfish reasons (Matthew 15:7-8). Most pastors only join the clergy to make money. That is why we see women, homosexuals and atheists making a living as pastors in these perilous times. There is no fear of God in this perverse generation.

Dear reader, please FLEE from the apostate Church of England and their damnable heresies. It shouldn't come as a surprise to a saint of God, that in a counterfeit church their leadership would embrace the sodomite community in their unrepentant state of rebellion against God. I believe everyone should be allowed to attend church. How else can we help sinners (lost or saved) if we refuse to embrace them with Christ's love?

Having said that, kindly, pastors are biblically obligated preach hard against all sin, including the abominable sin of homosexuality (Isaiah 58:1). 1st Timothy 5:20, "Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

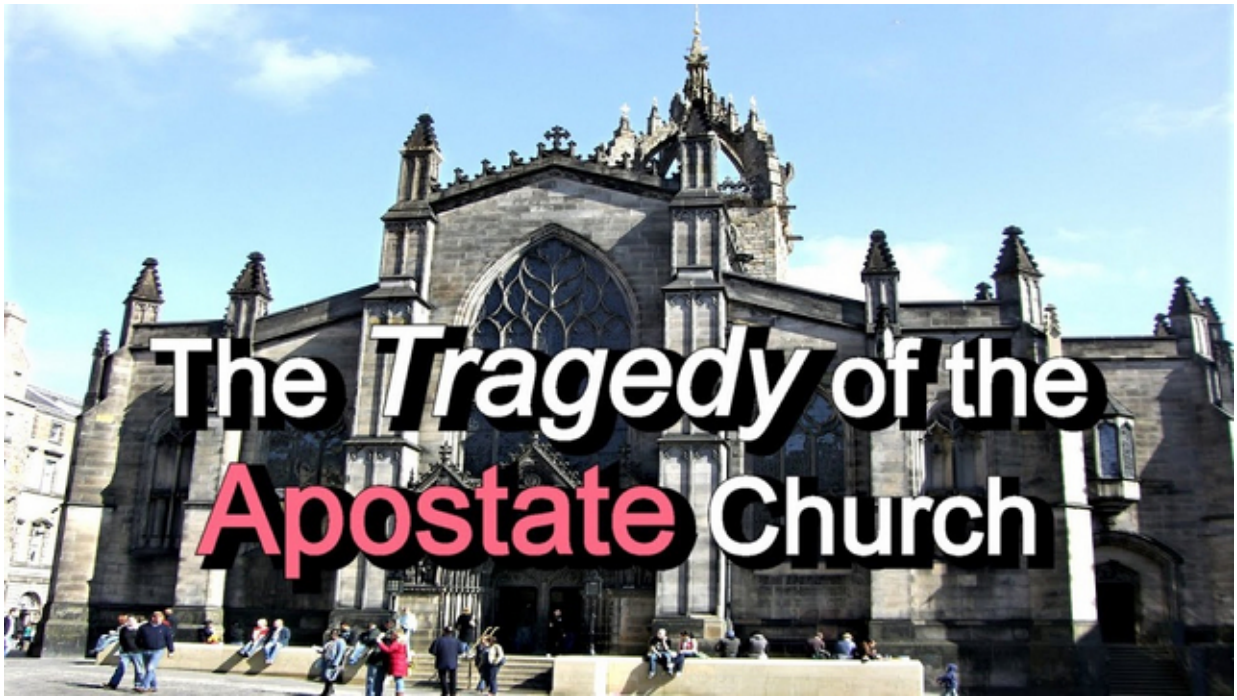
God's wrath is upon any pastor and church who openly welcome sodomites into their congregation, but never a word is preaching from the pulpit about the evils of homosexuality, adultery and the lusts of the flesh.



It is shameful that the Church of England is openly embracing the homosexual community in their unrepentant state. Open sin ought never be tolerated in any church. God doesn't make mistakes. Genesis 1:27 says that God created humanity male and female, nothing in between. God doesn't make mistakes. The entire transgender movement is of the Devil. Genesis 1:27, "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them."

John 7:7, "The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil." When did Jesus testify against the sins of the world? Remember, Jesus' name is THE WORD OF GOD (Revelation 19:13). Jesus is the Word made incarnate, that is, in the flesh (John 1:1-3, 14). Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) used to rightly say that Jesus and the Bible are wins.

" Jesus is the Living Word; the Bible is the Written Word. That is why we read in John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me."

5.2.7 Why Satan's Lordship Salvation Is Spreading Like Wildfire (2024-02-09 16:44)

Jude 1:1-4, "Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called: Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied. Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ."

I made a truthful meme this week and uploaded it to social media (please share it on social media)...

[2]Damnable Heresy Taught At Pensacola Christian College

A ministry friend shared the above meme and sent me this encouraging message on Facebook:

> That stuff you posted about that college was excellent, I reposted it and I already got people upset with me. The truth is the truth, if they don't like it they can delete me as friend. I'm not posting stuff to try to get people upset. It's easier to not say nothing and keep harmony but I got to post the truth; that's why this Lordship Salvation is taking over, because people don't say anything because they just want to get along with everybody. Like you said, God wants us to speak out against false teaching. —a ministry friend of mine on Facebook

Bravo! Sadly, 99 % of churchgoers today blindly support [3]Bob Jones University and [4]Pensacola Christian College. Both institutions are corrupt, now preaching another gospel of Lordship Salvation. If anyone (like me) dares to call them out, we are shunned, criticized, demonized and ostracized. You are correct, it is because we as believers don't contend for the faith. That is, we refuse to take a stand against heresy and sin, for whatever reason, the problem grows worse.

That is why we are exhorted in Hebrews 3:13, "But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin." The longer people tolerate false doctrine and sin, the more accustomed we become to it, and then before you know it we are in over our heads. That is PCC today. They are over their heads in Lordship Salvation, and too blind and arrogant to see it. Jesus called the corrupt church at Laodicea 5 things: naked, blind, miserable, wretched and poor (Revelation 3:17).

Sadly, that is Pensacola Christian College today!

The tragic reason why the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation is spreading today like wildfire is simply because God's redeemed children are indifferent and complacent. Jude 1:3, "Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints." Christian men are commanded and expected to earnestly contend for the faith.

Sadly, 99 % of believers today couldn't care less about right doctrine, the accuracy of the Gospel, or the purity of God's inspired Word. They're more interested in church barbeques, getting along with everyone, playing church and living the Christian life; but they don't want to suffer reproach for the cause of Christ, they don't want to be put outside the gate with Jesus (2nd Timothy 3:12). Human nature is strange and annoying at best!

Lordship Salvation: The Danger Of Following The Crowd

Science has proven that humans tend to follow the crowd. This is extremely dangerous when you consider that one false prophet can damn millions of people to the Lake of Fire forever. ...

> The bandwagon effect is a [5]cognitive bias that causes people to think or act a certain way if they believe that others are doing the same. For example, the bandwagon effect can cause someone to adopt a certain political ideology, because they see that other people in their social circle have adopted the same ideology. —[6]The Bandwidth Effect: Why People Tend To Follow The Crowd

The proudful corrupt leadership at Bob Jones University and Pensacola Christian College combined have influence over tens of thousands of religious people. That is frightening when we stop to consider that both institutions are wrong on God's simple plan of salvation. [7]Lordship Salvation is of the Devil, not the free grace Gospel. [8]PCC and BJU are teaching that same damnable heresy as the Jehovah's Witness cult. I'm not an expert in psychology, but I have eyes and a brain and I've read article by people who are experts in psychology. It is part of our human nature to follow the crowd (aka, having a herd mentality). That is why over 95 % of churchgoers today have succumbed to the Devil's fallacy of Lordship Salvation.

The reason why Lordship Salvation and other heresies are spreading like wildfire in the Bible colleges and churches today is simply because God's children don't care. Nobody wants to make waves. Most pastors are afraid to go it alone and offend their ministry peers. I am shocked when I hear a foolish preacher accepting Lordship Salvation as being within the realm of orthodox theology. Listen folks, you either must turn away from your sinful bad habits to get to Heaven, or you do not, but it absolutely cannot be both! The truth is that Jesus Christ paid our debt of sin through Calvary's cross, by the precious blood that He shed (1st Peter 1:18-19).

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty! Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work. If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from? The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

5.2.8 Three Big Lies Pro-Death Women Tell (2024-02-13 02:01)

Exodus 21:22-25, " If men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart from her, and yet no mischief follow: he shall be surely punished, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him; and he shall pay as the judges determine. And if any mischief follow, then thou shalt give life for life, Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe." "

Our text Scripture passages teaches civil law. If two men are fighting and accidentally cause a pregnant woman's baby to be hurt or even killed, those two men shall be required eye for an eye, tooth for tooth, life for life. The Holy Bible is very clear in this passage about the value, sanctity and sacredness of all human life!

For the past half century in America abortionist have labeled themselves as being "prochoice," while unfairly calling Christians and conservatives "anti-abortion" (which carries negative connotations). Why don't abortionists tell the truth and call themselves "anti-life." Mothers who decide not to murder their baby make a "choice" too. Whether a pregnant women decides to have an abortion or have the baby, either way both females have made a choice. Every pregnant woman is prochoice! Unfortunately, the baby doesn't have a choice in the matter!

I would like to dispel three big lies that abortionists tell.

The Lie That Women Have

" A Right To My Own Body " To Have An Abortion

I heard Emma Watson (who starred in the movie series Harry Potter) speak as a fool at a gathering of the United Nations, in defense of abortion...

> "I think it is right that I should be able to make decisions about my own body." — [1]Emma Watson, speech to United Nations

No Emma, that child in a mother's womb is in fact NOT her body. A baby's body is another unique human being, which should be protected by any society. Instead, the United States and other wicked nations permit ungodly women to murder their own baby. Abortion is murder!

Emma Watson is a fool. She is guilty of narcissism, of putting her own selfish interests and needs above the baby's needs, rights and wellbeing. Ladies, it's not your body, it's baby's body! Remember, abortion doesn't make a pregnant woman UNPREGNANT, it just makes her the mother of a DEAD BABY!!!

The Lie That Abortion Is Healthcare

All across America in recent years we've been being bombarded with ridiculous signs by angry abortionists which read: "Abortion is Healthcare!" No, in fact, abortion has absolutely nothing to do with healthcare. From listening to doctors and nurses who work in the delivery room, due to today's advanced medical care that is available, there is never any legitimate reason to abort a child to save the mother. Caesarian Sections are commonly done when complications arise. There is [2]much anger in the abortion camp over this issue.

Abortion Is Not Healthcare

Abortion is anything but healthcare. Sadly, the abortion camp will lie to say anything to get their wicked way. A child in the womb has rights too! Since under Mosaic law God required an eye for an eye, and capital punishment if the baby died, we know biblically that abortion is murder. God values all life! Let's be honest, 99 % of all abortions are totally avoidable!!!

We are living in the ungodly "perilous times" foretold in 2nd Timothy 3:1-7 from the inspired Holy Bible. This wicked perverse generation today doesn't want to accept responsibility for their poor behavior, mistakes and bad decisions. Today's spoiled brats have an entitlement attitude. They errantly think that the world owes them something, but it doesn't. If you have carnal knowledge and conceive a baby, you ought to be held 100 % responsible (both the man and the woman) by the government to care of that child until they grow into an adult, and then can care for them self. Young people today want to make bad decisions without suffering any consequences. There are always consequences, both in this life and the next to come. Others may pay the price in this life for your reckless behavior, but you will answer to God in eternity.

The Blatant Lie That A Growing Fetus Is Not A Human Being

Our U.S. Supreme Court has much blood on their hands for Roe Vs. Wade in 1973. The wicked law was overturned in 2022. For 49 years a sickening total of over 63,000,000 human lives were murdered in the womb. The most dangerous place in the world to be statistically is in a mother's womb! The following visualization in this article is shocking! ...

[4]America's War Dead Versus Abortion Dead

The Bible teaches that before the prophet Jeremiah was even conceived in the womb, God knew him. Before he was conceived, God already had a plan for Jeremiah's life. Jeremiah 1:5, "Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations." Clearly a fetus is a human being, and killing that life is premediated first-degree murder!

Umpteen babies have been surgically taken (for one reason or another) several months early from the mother's womb. Many of those infants need to be placed into an incubator until they develop further. The point being that those infants taken 4 or 5 months early from the womb are still valid human lives! You may blame the U.S. Supreme Court for your sinful choice to have an abortion, but that doesn't excuse you for your part in the crime. Exodus 20:13, "Thou shalt not kill."

I have exposed three big lies that pro-death women tell. They are not prochoice, they are pro-death! It is tragic that we are living in a spoiled generation that doesn't look up. That is, they don't fear God. The old adage is very true: Anything can be justified.

In the famous encounter between Eve and the serpent in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 3:1-7), she was deceived. The serpent (Satan - Revelation 20:2) tricked Eve with his clever twisted words. Whereas God had told Adam and Eve that they COULD eat the fruit from all the trees except one, the tree of Knowledge (Genesis 2:16-17); the serpent misquoted God's Word to tell Eve that she COULDN'T eat from any of the trees (Genesis 3:1). Satan is a beautiful liar! By twisting the Word of God, the Devil was actually able to convince Eve that disobeying God was too good a deal to pass up! She rationalized, coming up with three good reasons why eating the forbidden fruit was a wise decision (Genesis 3:6). Sound familiar? Every woman who decides to have an abortion was convinced by some lying devil.

Dear reader, 18 years after your abortion, the horrifying reality will set in that your murdered baby is missing from the earth. The precious grandchildren that you should and could have had to love and spoil won't exist. When your doctor says in 10 to 15 years from now that your womb is incapable of having any more babies, and you've already killed the ones that God blessed you with in your youth, it will be a horrifying wake up call. Please understand that I am not trying to hurt anyone's feelings, I am trying to prevent a young woman from killing your baby! There is no controversy if you believe the Holy Bible. Thank you for reading dear friend.

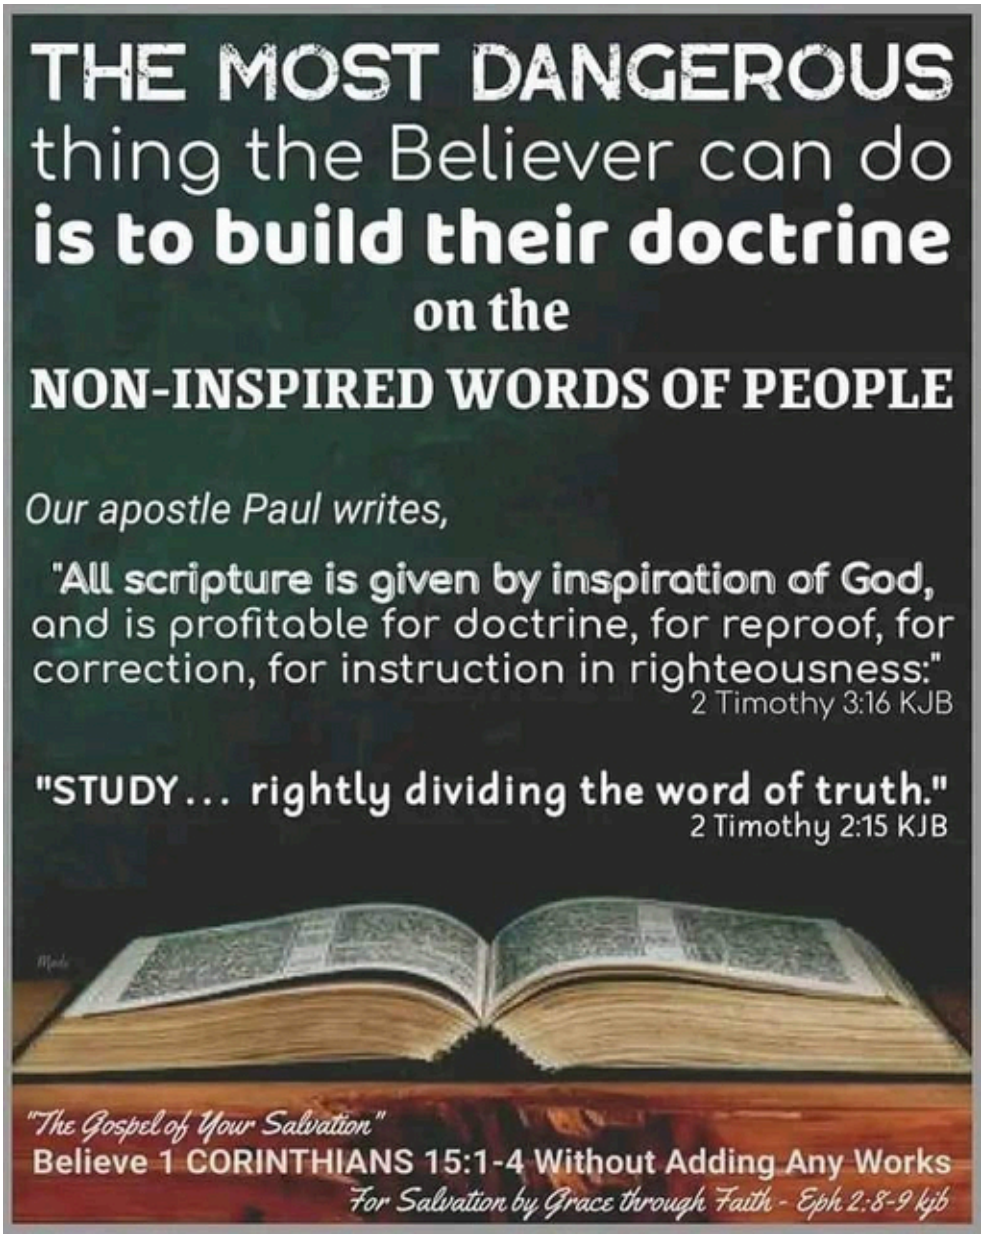
5.2.9 How To Detect Satan's Indistinguishable Ministers (2024-02-14 01:09)

2nd Corinthians 11:13-15, " For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works."



Satan's unrighteous ministers are such skilled actors (imitators) that it is impossible to detect them by appearance alone. The only way to know them (according to Jesus) is by their "fruit." Matthew 7:19-20, "Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them." It is unfortunate that many neo-evangelical preachers have misinterpreted this passage to define "fruit" as meaning works instead of doctrine. Some of the biggest offenders are false prophets' Ray Comfort, Joyce Meyer, John MacArthur, John Piper and Paul Washer. These infidels falsely teach that the required "fruit" to prove you are saved is a changed life (WORKS).

Now, we know that this is a wrong interpretation of the Bible because of Matthew 7:21-23, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." Here we plainly see that these unsaved false prophets DID MANY WONDERFUL WORKS in Jesus' name, yet Christ denied knowing them as His sheep. So, just because someone performs many good works and lives a changed life, this cannot be used as " to prove that they are saved.

> “If you have to look at your life to prove that you are saved, it proves that you’re not!” —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, “[2]Why Lordship Salvation is WRONG!

The only

“fruit” by which we can discern one of Satan’s unrighteous ministers is to examine their teachings (i.e., their doctrine). The following biblical doctrines (truths) are fundamentals, which any preacher who denies is a servant of the Devil:

1. There is one God (Deuteronomy 6:4).
2. God is only masculine in gender (God the Father, God the Son. In John 16:13 the Holy Spirit is referred to with the masculine pronoun he). There is no feminine aspect of God.

3. God exists in the three persons of: God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19-29; Colossians 2:2). This is the Godhead (Acts 17:29; Romans 1:20; Colossians 2:9 - King James Bible). In theology the Godhead is called the "Trinity."
4. Jesus was born of a virgin (Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 1:23).
5. Jesus lived a sinless life (Hebrews 4:15).
6. Jesus is God almighty (John 1:1-3 and 14, 10:33; Revelation 1:8).
7. Jesus is the only begotten (biological) Son of God (John 3:16).
8. Jesus died on a cross to pay for our sins (1st Corinthians 1:18).
9. Jesus was buried and then physically resurrected from the dead three days later (John 19-20; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4; 1st Thessalonians 4:14).
10. Jesus has His own physical body in Heaven, and God the Father also has a separate physical body. They both sit on physical thrones (Colossians 3:1).
11. The Holy Spirit has His own person, separate from Jesus and the Father (John 16:13).
12. The Holy Bible is God's inspired Word (2nd Timothy 3:16).
13. Eternal life is the free gift of God (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9).
14. Every human must be born again to enter into God's Kingdom (John 3:3).
15. Hell is a literal physical place where all sinners who die in their sins without having trusted Jesus as their personal Savior (John 8:24), will burn in torment without hope or rest day and night forever (Revelation 14:11, 20:11-15, 21:8).
16. Heaven is a literal physical place where every born again child of God will go when we die (John 14:1-3).
17. Jesus paid for our sins with His literal liquid blood (1st Peter 1:18-19; Revelation 1:5).
18. Jesus sprinkled His literal liquid blood upon the Mercy Seat in the Holy Place in Heaven in the presence of God the Father (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 10:1; 12:24).
19. Jesus is our heavenly High Priest (Romans 8:34; Hebrews 4:14-16).
20. Jesus is coming again in a physical body (Acts 1:11; Revelation 1:7).
21. Bible repentance means "a change of mind," not turning from your sins to be saved. Any preacher who teaches that you must "repent of your sins" or "turn from your sins" to get to Heaven is a servant of Satan! This [3]sadly includes Pensacola Christian College.
22. [4]Lordship Salvation is a perversion of the Gospel. Any preacher who preaches or approves of Lordship Salvation is a servant of Satan!
23. All women preachers (1st Timothy 2:11-12).

That is the "fruit" by which you can identify a false prophet!!! Any preacher who teaches partial faith in Christ plus something more to be saved is preaching another gospel. That preacher's fruit is bad fruit!

There are some additional doctrines that I humbly don't think would indicate that a preacher is of the Devil, but I wouldn't follow him. Beware of preachers who deny these truths:

1. The Church (all saints dead and living) will be “caught up” at the Rapture. At this time our body will be redeemed (Romans 8:22-23; 1st Corinthians 15:51-58; 1st Thessalonians 4:13-18). There is considerable debate of the timing of the Rapture. I humbly believe in a Pretribulation Rapture, but there are many godly pastors who don’t. I wouldn’t label them as being servants of Satan, as I would one who denies Jesus’ deity. The New IFB (independent fundamental Baptist) movement teach a PreWrath Rapture. I don’t agree with them, but I love their aggressive soulwinning churches. Some preachers teach that Jesus’ Second Coming is the Rapture. I disagree, but I wouldn’t label them as infidels.

2. Believing is enough to be saved, you don’t need to call, pray or ask to be saved. The New IFB movement teaches that you cannot be saved without praying. This is very wrong! Albeit, I do not think teaching this is works, not at all. However, it does confuse people and runs the risk of making it more difficult for a believer to settle their assurance. I was confused for several years after I got saved at age 13 in 1980. I had been misled by every pastor to believe that the way to put your faith in Christ is by using a Sinner’s Prayer. That confused me a lot. The New IFB have this doctrine wrong, kindly said.

3. All modern English Bible revisions are corrupted by the Devil. I won’t say that a preacher who uses the modern Bible revisions is of the Devil, but he’s definitely pulling on the same rope as the Devil, and you ought not follow him. In his historical ignorance, Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) quoted from some of the Devil’s Bible revisions. In his defense, Dr. Rice graduated to Heaven in 1980 and didn’t have access to the internet, which is a massive powerhouse of knowledge. We know today that all of the [5]Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort based Bible revisions are corrupt.

4. Women ought not wear pants. Call me old-fashioned but I humbly believe that females should wear modest clothing. Conceal ladies, don’t reveal. I don’t like attending churches wear all the women are wearing slacks and pants. Even children know that a bathroom sign shows a person wearing a dress to designate the lady’s restroom. So why do women wear pants like men? I am not condemning anyone, I just love high standards in a church.

5. Present-day Israel is NOT the fulfillment of Bible prophecy. I [6]fully agree with Pastor J. Vernon McGee on this matter. I don’t like dispensational teaching, which often idolizes manmade Israel instead of focusing on preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom of God. I believe biblically that God’s chosen people include believing Jews and Gentiles (Galatians 3:26-29). There was never a time when Christ-rejecting Jews were blessed by God as being His chosen people. We clearly see this truth emphasized in Exodus 19:5-6 and Deuteronomy chapter 28.

I could mention numerous other minor doctrines of the Christian faith, but I have covered the most popular ones. The fundamental truths that I listed earlier are so important. If you use the list that I gave you, then you will see that all of the following religious denominations and false prophets fail the test...

1. Mormons (deny Jesus’ deity and require water baptism to get to Heaven)

2. Roman Catholics (add sacraments to faith alone in the Gospel)

3. Jehovah’s Witnesses (deny Jesus’ deity and require water baptism for salvation)

4. Seventh-Day Adventists (add Sabbath Keeping to faith alone, and teach the Devil’s fallacy of Lordship Salvation)

5. Lutherans (require water baptism and holy communion to be saved)
6. Joyce Meyer (teaches Lordship Salvation and wrong repentance)
7. Joel Osteen (teaches Lordship Salvation and wrong repentance)
8. Billy Graham (teaches Lordship Salvation and wrong repentance)
9. [7]Bob Jones University (teaches Lordship Salvation and wrong repentance)
10. [8]Pensacola Christian College (teaches Lordship Salvation and wrong repentance)

There is absolutely no way to identify a false prophet without examining their teachings. A bad preacher may be greedy, but that doesn't mean he is preaching another gospel. Anything that an unsaved person can do, cannot be used as "

proof

that one is saved. A hellbound child of the Devil can still love others, sincerely follow Christ, live a changed life, turn from sinful ways, preach in Jesus' name, be ordained as a minister, pastor a church, graduate from a Bible seminary, be a deacon in a church for 40 years and live the Christian life. Yet, someone may do all of these things and never have been saved at all.

In his helpful book titled,

[9]I NEVER KNEW YOU

" ([10]Hardcopies are available), Michael P. Bowen writes the following excellent words to refute Beth Moore's counterfeit plan of salvation...

> You can trust Christ with all of your might and do your best to turn from you sins and still end up in the lake of fire. That is shocking! You can do your best to trust that Jesus died for you, that He rose from the dead, and try your best to live a good, holy life and "still" end up dying in your sins because you have not placed your trust "alone" (apart from turning from your sins) in what He did for you. The sad thing about adding "self efforts" such as turning from your sins to Christ's plan of "trust only" is that, while it sounds right, it sounds good, and it feels right, it is not the gospel message that Christ has so plainly given to us in His bible. Jesus said in John 3:16 that "whosoever believeth in Him" would be saved. He did not say "whosoever believeth" and turn from your sins. He did not say believe and be willing to turn from your sins. He did not say believe and follow Him in obedience "in order to" have everlasting life, nor did He ever imply such things when He spoke of salvation."
> —Michael P. Bowen, "[11]I NEVER KNEW YOU," pp. 81-82

2nd Corinthians 11:13-15, " For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works." The word "transformed" in the Greek language is the word metaschematizo, which means "to transfigure or disguise." They are imitators, Hollywood actors. With this truth in mind, it shouldn't come as a surprise that Billy Graham was awarded a Star on the Hollywood

Walk of Fame in Los Angeles. So also was singer Amy Grant. These are Christian imposters, false converts. [12]Billy Graham's Lordship Salvation could not save him from Hell.

The inspired Holy Bible warns that there are many false prophets who are gone out into the world. 1st John 4:1,

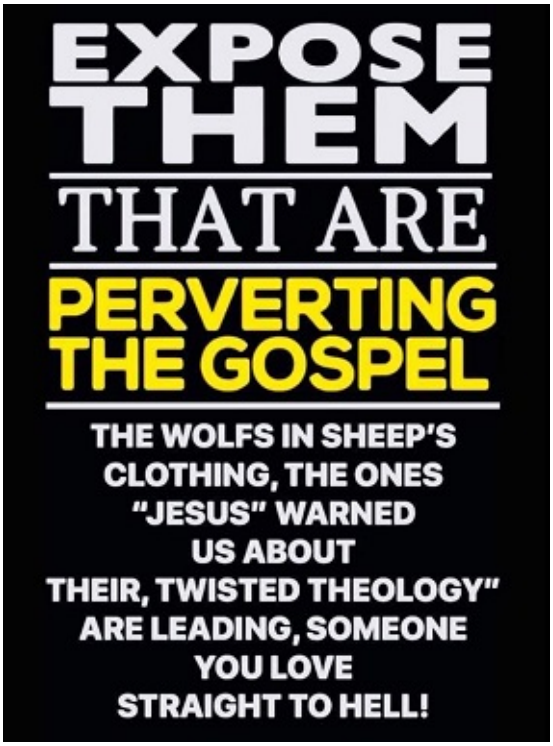
Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

" Jesus said we shall know them by their "



fruit,

that is, by their false teachings. If what they preach is in contradiction to **"

the simplicity that is in Christ

" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4), then you know that their fruit is corrupt and they are a minister of unrighteousness of Satan.

5.2.10 Changing God's Simple Plan Of Salvation Alters A Bunch of Things (2024-02-16 14:52)

1st Thessalonians 4:13-14, " But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him."

I have often said that it took me eight years to finish my time attending Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993). I graduated with honors on the Dean's List in 1993, quite an accomplishment considering that I was in the Dean's office my first year for having too many demerits for less than ideal behavior. I am still a work in progress, [1]God is still working on me.

Anyway, what I've never shared with anyone before is that I took 1 1/2 years off from college. After my first year of living on campus at Hyles-Anderson College (HAC), I attended Lincoln Technical Institute in Norridge, Illinois, to learn automotive and truck repair. I had been working evenings part-time at United Parcel Service in Chicago while attending college classes at HAC during my first year. I wasn't making enough money to pay my bills, so in 1986 I decided to learn a trade. My father suggested auto mechanics, so that was it. I graduated from Lincoln Tech (I earned 9 A's grades, and 3 B grades) in 1987.

Then I got married a few months later. I found a job as a truck mechanic. This was all in 1987. I wanted to spent time with my wife, and get used to my new job and save some money, so I could return to HAC in 1988, which I did in January. I toughed it out and finally graduated from HAC in 1993. I had stayed involved with the Bus Ministry, working on our 76-3 bus route in Chicago each weekend with my ministry friends still in school at HAC. I still went soulwinning and visited every Saturday, and rode the bus to Hammond every Sunday to church.

What Changes When You Jack Up A Car's Rear End

Enough of my story, now here's the blog. While attending Lincoln Tech I was fascinated by the workings of the automobile. In my Automatic Transmissions class, I learned about the Planetary Gear Set, which blew my mind that some genius had figured out how to make such a thing. Amazing! The automatic transmission is still a fascinating invention to me. Wow!

Then I learned in my Chassis & Suspension class about what happens when you jack up the back of a car (i.e., physically raise up its height from the ground). I grew up in the 1970's and early 1980's as a teenager. I turned age 18 in 1985. I was a popular trend back then for white boys to jack up the back of their car, to make it look like a Hot Rod. The black guys came along in the 1990's with their Low Riders, physically lowering the back of their cars, scraping on the ground whenever they hit a pothole...lol.

Anyway, I was absolutely intrigued when I learned in school that jacking up the rear of an automobile changes all of the following things (I'm going from memory here):

1. The engine tilts forward, causing the crankshaft bearings to receive less lubrication. The oil in the engine oil pan also shifts toward the front of the pan, which can potentially when hitting bumps cause the oil pickup to suck air instead of oil.

2. The front headlight's angle is lowered. The headlights must be adjusted to point higher to compensate, otherwise they'll be aiming too much toward the ground.

3. The working angle of the drivetrain's U-joints (for rear wheel drive cars, which is all we had in the 1970's) changes. U-joints wear out more quickly when their working angle is increased.

4. Braking ecoefficiency changes. Normally, 70 % of braking is performed by the front caliper breaks, due to weight shifting when coming to a stop. But if you jack up the back of a car, even more stress is placed upon the front brakes. Front brake pads will wear out faster.

5. The center of gravity changes (now higher), making the vehicle more top-heavy when traveling on highway turns.

Those are just a few of the physics (dynamics) that change when you jack up the rear of a car. There are dozens more. I guarantee you that not one of those teenage guys, who go messing around with their car's factory specifications, realize what they are doing by raising up the rear of their car...lol. The same holds true for those teenage guys who lower the rear of their car. Those fellas have no idea how dangerous it can be to modify your car outside of the manufacturer's factory settings.

What Changes When You Jack Up God's Simple Plan Of Salvation

I was thinking today about how great of an illustration this is about tampering with God's simple plan of salvation. When these well-meaning but woefully ignorant preachers go messing with God's simple plan of salvation, they alter many things to corrupt the Gospel.

When you add the unbiblical requirement to "turn from your sins" or "live a changed life" in order to get to Heaven, you have changed the following:

1. Salvation is no longer by God's free grace, it is by works (Romans 11:6).

2. Salvation is now by partial faith in Christ plus works (Acts 15:1; Galatians 3:1-3).

3. By adding works to faith, you are saying that God owes you eternal life (Romans 4:4).

4. By having to live a changed life to prove you're saved, you will continually worry in uncertainty if you're really saved, because we all sin continually (Romans 7:14-25).

5. You cannot "know" that your name is written in Heaven; not until you've faithfully run the Christian course until the end of life (Luke 10:20; 1st John 5:13).

6. The lines have been blurred between justification and sanctification, that is, between salvation and service (Galatians 3:26; Romans 12:1).

7. Salvation is no longer a free gift, it has become an exchange, a trade of sorts (Romans 5:18; Ephesians 2:8-9).

8. Adding *turning from your sinful way*s to faith alone in Jesus Christ to be saved is Lordship Salvation. Lordship Salvation confuses people and leads them into Hell (Acts 19:32). Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

9. No one has ever turned from their sinning. If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

As Michael P. Bowen rightly says in his helpful book titled, "[2]I NEVER KNEW YOU," Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without being born again. I love that statement, because it is so very true. The Devil is a beautiful liar!

Dear reader, just as raising up the rear of a car changes many things in the vehicle's working dynamics and operation, so also does changing God's simple plan of salvation alter a bunch of things. I love you unconditionally with God's love dear friend, which is why I am telling you the truth.

Truthfully, Christ died on the cross to pay for your sins and mine. Christ died for "the ungodly" (Romans 5:6-9). Why in the world would God demand that you first be willing to give up your lifestyle of sinning to receive His "free gift" of eternal life? You'll find those exact words "free gift" in Romans 5:18. We've got a bunch of well-meaning, but very dangerous, preachers today who are as incompetent as children who've found their father's loaded gun in the closet, and they have no idea what they are doing!

The Plain And Simple Gospel

God made His plan of salvation very simple, easy and free. Ungodly men have turned God's simple plan of salvation into a complicated plan of slavation! You are a guilty sinner, and so am I! We deserve to be punished in the fires of Hell forever to pay for our own sins. But thanks be to God, He sent His only begotten Son Jesus into the world, to die on a cross for pay our debt of sin. Christ died on the cross. He was buried. Three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead. This is "the gospel" (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Whosoever believes this Gospel (which means Good News) is saved (Romans 1:16).

Let me explain it another way. Anyone who comes to God as an admitted guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20), and receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried but raised up physically three days later, instantly and forever has eternal life. 1st Thessalonians 4:14, " For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him."

Oh, why do men complicate the simplicity that is in Christ? 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him." In this Scripture passage Paul warns us about three enemies:

1. Another Jesus
2. Another Gospel
3. Another Spirit

Another Jesus

An example of "another Jesus" is the cults of Mormonism and the Jehovah's Witness. Both groups deny that Jesus is almighty God (i.e., they deny His deity). JW's deny the Godhead (aka, the "Trinity" in theology). They have another Jesus, not the accurate portrayal of Jesus presented in the inspired Word of God. John 6:40, " And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. " You must see Jesus as He truly is, as God who came in the flesh; the Word of God incarnate (John 1:1-3, 14). It is not enough to believe on a Jesus who is not the biological (only begotten) Son of God (making Him God). JW's are not born again believers. They must first repent (change their mind) from trusting in another Jesus, and instead trust on the true Jesus who is "the almighty

" (Revelation 1:8b).

This is one reason why I warn everybody not to use the Devil's modern corrupt Bible revisions, because nearly all of them remove the word "godhead" from Acts 17:29, Romans 1:20 and Colossians 2:9. Instead you'll find something like "divine nature," which sounds like new age heresy to me. What's wrong with the word

"godhead"? The Devil's crowd removed this word to attack the triune nature of God (Matthew 29:19-20; Colossians 2:2). Only the inspired King James Bible is trustworthy!!!

Another Gospel

An example of

another Gospel

is the Devil's lie that you must

turn from your sins

" (or be willing to turn from sin) to get to heaven. No such nonsense is taught in the inspired King James Bible. Wicked men added this additional requirement to be saved (Proverbs 30:5-6). God's only prerequisite to be saved is that you realize you're a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20), because you've got to know what you're being saved from—the wages of sin which is physical death, and the second death in Hell forever (Romans 6:23; Revelation 20:11-15, 21:8).

Also, you do NOT have to be water baptized, speak in tongue, observe sacraments, join a church, partake of communion, live a holy life, forsake a lifestyle of sinning or anything else to be saved. You get saved by trusting Jesus! Simply believe that He did it all for you!!!

Another Spirit

An example of “another spirit” is the Roman Catholic church (the biggest cult in the world). Any spirit that is not the Holy Spirit is a familiar spirit (i.e., a demon). I learned that from my dear friend Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023), who graduated to Heaven recently on August 11, 2023. I strongly encourage you to [4]visit Dr. Younce’s church website, where you can still freely read and download all of his excellent Bible study books. Also, please visit the [5]ministry website of my friend Robert Serreyn, a longtime member of Pastor Younce’s church congregation in Walnut Grove, Minnesota. We’re all doing our small part to reach this sin cursed world for our precious Lord and God, Jesus Christ (John 20:28).

The Roman Catholic church worships Mary! They’ll openly deny worshipping Mary, while bowing down to pray to her and count Rosary beads. In a standard Rosary a Catholic will say [6]“hail Mary” 53 times! Woe unto the Catholic prisonhouse of religion! [7]Listen for yourself to a group of brainwashed Catholic children reciting the Satanic Rosary!!! Dear reader, that is false religion!!! Just like KFC does chicken right, from the cradle to the casket Roman Catholicism does religion right! They are totally devoid of biblical truth and salvation, but if you want the formalities of false religion with all its garb and grandeur, Catholics are your poison!

Also, if that weren’t bad enough that Catholics worship Mary and their patron saints, they teach that [8]Mary is a co-redemptrix with Jesus. Literally, Catholic errantly believe that Mary has a part on one’s salvation. This is another spirit, not the Holy Spirit. The indwelling Holy Spirit in every believer NEVER leads us contrary to the Scriptures. And for that matter, neither does the Holy Spirit convict lost sinners contrary to the inspired Scripture! God's Holy Spirit always works in conjunction with the written Word of God in the lives of men.

As if things couldn't get any worse for Catholics on judgment day in eternity, they have literally [9]completely REMOVED the Second Commandment of God, which prohibits bowing down to any graven image (statues). To compensate for the missing Second Commandment, Catholics split the Tenth Commandment into two. You couldn't make this stuff up! For someone to continue to be a Catholic, with all the truth available on the internet which exposes Roman Catholicism as a demonic cult, I am shocked that anyone would still go to their cursed churches (Galatians 1:6-9). It is so sad and tragic! Catholics have another spirit. In fact, they have another Jesus, another gospel and another spirit. What a hellhole of fake religion!!!

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty! Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work. The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. We must stay true to the simplicity of the Gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief!!! We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3).

I love you dear friend with Christ's unconditional love, no matter who you may be. Thank you for privileging me with your time. God bless.

5.2.11 The Church That Doesn't Go Soul Winning (2024-02-17 11:59)

Acts 20:18-21, "And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons, Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews: And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house, Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ."

The following screenshot from YouTube of an empty church is typical of churches today, which is a shameful sign of the perilous times we are living in today.

[1]

Empty Churches Have Become The Norm In America

Acts 20:20 has often been called, " a believer's 20/20 vision.

" That is, going soulwinning house to house, door to door, in the local community. There is no more effective way to build a church! Albeit, going out door to door soulwinning requires hard work, and that means sacrifice. It is tragic that 99 % of churches don't go soulwinning at all, which is why those churches are empty every Sunday, struggling to keep the doors open financially.

And of the 1 % of churches that do go door to door in the community, they call it "

and merely pass out invitation flyers to come to church. There is no sharing of the Gospel. Still, that is better than nothing. Sadly, the churches that I have attended that do go on visitation in the community (to invite people to church), only do it once every 3 or 4 months. Do you understand dear reader that this amounts to a total of 3 to 4 hours a year of visitation? No wonder we see churches dying today.

Here are some sad and tragic signs of the times:

- *[*2]U.S. Church Attendance Still Lower Than Pre-Pandemic
- *[*3]In U.S., Decline of Christianity Continues at Rapid Pace
- *[*4]Losing Their Religion: Why U.S. Churches Are on the Decline
- *[*5]U.S. Church Membership Down Sharply in Past Two Decades

Here is 'THE GREAT COMMISSION' in the inspired Holy Bible...

> Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen."

Sadly, THE GREAT COMISSION in 99 % of churches today has effectively become THE GREAT OMISSION. ...

5.2.12 Helping Others (2024-02-18 14:48)

[1]

(Chapter 42 from Dr. Hyle's excellent book, Blue Denim and Lace)

6816

The only things that you can keep for yourself are those which you give to others.

There is no life so "empty" as the "self-centered" life: there is no life so "centered" as the "self-emptied" life. Miserable is that man who thinks of himself. Happy is that man who thinks of others. Someone has well said, "Happiness is stumbled upon in the pathway of duty."

How may I help others?

1. I must ask myself, "What can I do to help in every need I see?" I must not think, "What can another do to help?" but rather, "What can I do to help?" I must associate myself with the needs of others. Pity is not enough. Sympathy is not enough. Even compassion is not enough. I must always ask, "What can I do to help?"

2. Another's need must be by challenge. Two men had passed by the wounded one before the good Samaritan stopped to help. He did not ask, "Should I help?" but rather said, "I must help!" To see another in need was his challenge. This is true not only for the needs of a fellow that is half dead beside the road, but it is true even for the small needs of a friend. I must identify myself with him so that not only will his needs be a challenge to me, but an opportunity. His needs must be as my needs.

Perhaps being a pastor for so many years makes one feel more identified with others than he would normally feel. I find myself feeling as a part of every family of my church so that when a particular family has a decision to make, I feel that it is "our" decision. When a family has a problem, I feel that it is "our" problem. One will never know the true secret of helping others until he is challenged by their needs.

3. I must listen for the wants of others. If that want will not do harm to my friend, I must attempt to satisfy it. Recently I was preaching in a distant state and noticed a beautiful "tie tac" worn by a fellow pastor. I commented to him about the beauty of the "tie tac." The next evening he handed me a little envelope. As I drove off from the service I opened the envelop and found the "tie tac" that I had admired before. (The next night I bragged on his suit, but to no avail.)

4. I must determine the answer to another's needs even if I am not asked. Of course, I will not offer the answer unless I am asked to do so. I must not appear to be a know-it- all, yet I must always attempt to find the answers to the needs of others.

A few years ago I was leaving for a trip to the Middle East when a friend of mine said with a smile on his face, "Jack, I would suggest that you not go to Milan, Italy."

I inquired as to the reason for this suggestion, and then he said, "That is the location of the ‘Leaning Tower’ and knowing you as I do, you would try to straighten it up while there."

This is my point: I must remind myself, however, to be very careful not to volunteer my solutions, but at the same time, I must always have tried to think of a solution in order to be able to help when asked.

5. I must not consider what others have done for me. I am debtor to all men. Whether or not someone would do it for me has nothing to do with my decision to help him. The Apostle Paul said that he was debtor to all men, to the Jew, to the Greek, to the Barbarian, yea, to every man. I, too, am such a man. I am a debtor to those who love me just because they love me. I am a debtor to those who hate me because they need me. Our Lord reminds us that it is no longer an eye for an eye or a tooth for a tooth, but we are to bless those who curse us, pray for those who despitefully use us, and love those who hate us. This is the law of Grace and the law of Love. I must not help others because they help me; I must help others because they need help. My motivation should not be caused by external stimuli but internal love and compassion. The unkind may need more than the kind, the ugly more than the pretty, the bad more than the good, the weak more than the strong, so I must remember never to let what others do for me motivate my deeds for them.

6. I must be careful that what I do is best for others and not what others think I should do for them. My satisfaction should not come from satisfying others but from helping others. My goal should not be to be loved and admired by others but to help others. Hence, I must not always do for another what he thinks should be done for him. This means that oftentimes those whom I love most will understand me the least. It means sometimes the ones for whom I do the most will think I do them harm. It may not be until we are in Heaven that my brother will understand that I have helped him, but help him I must, and help him I will! My goal is not to please him but to help him. To be sure, to please him is a welcome bonus; to help him is the great reward.

7. I must wait for vindication when misunderstood. The One Who helped others the most was crucified, misunderstood, hated, and rejected of men. Could it be that the more I become like Him the more I, too, will be misunderstood, rejected, and hated of men? When, and if, I am so honored to be counted worthy to suffer with Him, may it be because I, with Him, have tried to help others. And may I leave to Him the vindication and the retaliation.

I know a preacher who was hated by another. He sought no retaliation, but instead did anonymous favors for his enemy. In due time he was completely vindicated, and his enemy fell into sin and reproach. "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay, saith the Lord." (Romans 12:19)

I must help those who need help the most. The one who does me evil is in the most need of my help.

8. I must not be happy about my vindication. It has been a wonderful thing through the years to watch the hand of God upon my ministry. Miraculous things have happened as God has vindicated His Word and soul winning through the years. Unfortunate things have happened to people who have lifted up their hands against God's anointed. Though I rejoice in God's protecting hand, I must not rejoice when misfortune falls to others as God vindicates me. I must remember to let God care for the vengeance, and I must comfort my enemies even while they suffer such vengeance. I must be happy about God's protection of me, but I must not be happy when another suffers.

9. I must claim wisdom to help others. I do not always know the needs of another. Since his wants may not be his needs, and since I, too, am limited by human frailties, I must seek divine help and wisdom to determine his needs. I have this promise from the Holy Spirit: "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, That giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him." (James 1:5) I must claim this promise. Without it, I could misinterpret the needs of others and do them harm instead of good.

How then may I get wisdom? I may get it by reading diligently the book of Proverbs, which is the book of wisdom. I may get it by fellowship with those who are wise. In fact, there is a bit of wisdom that I can get from every man. Every man knows something that I do not know; I must probe until I find it; hence, all men are my teachers.

OTHERS

"Lord, help me live from day to day In such a self-forgetful way,
That even when I kneel to pray My prayer shall be for others.
"Others, Lord, yes, others, Let this my motto be,
Help me to live for others, That I may live like Thee.
"Help me in all the work I do To ever be sincere and true,
And know that all I'd do for You Must needs be done for others.
"Let 'Self' be crucified and slain And buried deep;
and all in vain May efforts be to rise again Unless to live for others.

5.2.13 The Grass Is Always Greener Over The Septic Tank (2024-02-19 10:28)

Romans 16:17-18, “

Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple*.

I cannot warn everyone enough to flee from Pensacola Christian College (PCC) located in Pensacola, Florida. PCC is a spiritual septic tank, overgrown with green grass to deceive naïve newcomers. In December of 2023, PCC alumni Jon Ehnis posted this truthful negative review of PCC on Google (with which I wholeheartedly concur)...

> I know posting a Google review is a long shot to reach someone but in the interest of helping someone avoid the great mistake I made, please consider all other options > before considering this one. It truly makes me sad that this place has the word "Christian" in it's name, as most (I will admit I can think of two people that teach there I truly admire) of the staff and faculty are the furthest thing from Christ as you can get. Having now attended two other universities for graduate studies and a state university for specialized training, I can say from experience that the education does very little to prepare you for your life. Leadership is not concerned for your spiritual growth but rather they are focused on control both sociologically and emotionally. I truly do want to help someone avoid making a great mistake but I know many will not consider the negative words in the comments here both from me and others. But please consider this if you do attend, for the majority of the chapels/church services etc. when you walk away can you honestly say that you have learned something about God and can now explain something from his word or did you hear an emotionally charged speech geared to causing people to "feel" the need to do something regardless of what a full passage of Scripture teaches?

Wow! Jon Ehnis took the words right out of my mouth: "

It truly makes me sad that this place has the word 'Christian' in it's name, as most of the staff and faculty are the furthest thing from Christ as you can get.

" People just want to be loved, but you won't find compassion at PCC or Campus Church. What you will find are tons of strict rules without love! Tyranny is rarely seen except by those who are oppressed by it.

The grass is always greener over the septic tank!

Pastor Jack Hyles made these great statements about places like PCC:

> "I am all for standards, but I am not for standards without love." —Pastor Jack Hyles
>
> "The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they've been trained by people that have never built churches, and they have no compassion." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard"

Amen and amen! Dr. Hyles practically gives the address of Pensacola Christian College at 250 Brent Lane in Pensacola, Florida. PCC are so ruthless that they even sued their own graduate, Peter Cage (which you can read online). 1st Corinthians 6:7 forbids a Christian from suing another Christian in court. But as is typical of PCC's ungodly owners and leaders, they couldn't care less about obeying the Bible.

Preachers often receive dirty looks from the audience because of telling the truth. But God told the prophet in Ezekiel 2:6, "

And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

" I won't stop preaching the truth about PCC! I love everybody and am going to be nice toward everyone, regardless of how they mistreat me. PCC is the problem, and their brainwashed followers. The grass is always greener over the septic tank.

In case anyone thinks I am barking up an empty tree, or that I merely have a personal grudge against Jeff Redlin at Campus Church, may I again remind you of what PCC alumni Jon Ehnis posted on Google, who took the words right out of my mouth:

>
> It truly makes me sad that this place has the word ’Christian’ in it’s name, as most of the staff and faculty are the furthest thing from Christ as you can get.
>
>
> —PCC Alumni Jon Ehnis

Never more truer words were spoken! At PCC they have erected a superficial shell masquerading as Bible Christianity, but it’s all phony and corrupt.

For starters, they preach a counterfeit plan of salvation at PCC and their pathetic Campus Church. [1]The Lordship Salvation Cult At Pensacola Christian College . They preach [2]damnable heresy at PCC! It saddens me how shallow professed Christians are today. When you add religion to a person who is a narcissistic jerk, and then give them a ridiculously large salary and power of influence, you have now created a religious monster (aka, Pastor Jeff Redlin).

The grass is always greener over the septic tank.

When I attended Campus Church at PCC in 2021, I was horribly insulted and mistreated by their incompetent senior pastor, Jeff Redlin, who gets paid a sickening 6-digit salary (more than five times what the average American working man earns in a year). The days of sincere servants of God are long gone; now all we have are a bunch of money grubbing religious pimps who masquerade as church pastors. Truly the love of money is the root of all evil (1st Timothy 6:10-11). The grass is always greener over the septic tank. That is, the grass always grows greener over the manure reservoir!

> Malachi 2:3, “And now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.
>
> If ye will not hear*, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart. Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and one shall take you away with it.”

Shamefully, PCC’s pastors are not listening to God in His inspired Word. Instead, they are doing their own thing, preaching [3]another gospel that requires you to turn from your sinful bad habits to get to Heaven, instead of by faith alone as the Holy Bible teaches (Acts 16:30-31). As you just read, the Bible says God smears dung on their face.

The grass is always greener over the septic tank.

Whether you care or not, it shows PCC doesn’t care. When I sincerely apologized twice for offending PCC and their pastors, and I humbly begged to come back to Campus Church in 2022, their God damned hateful pastor Jeff Redlin said that my “remarks were consequential” and I was banned from attending Campus Church. We’ve been sworn enemies ever since. PCC did that! SHAME! SHAME on the cult at PCC!!! PCC takes in tens of millions of dollars, which has hardened their hearts toward God, truth and people. PCC has deteriorated into a cold-hearted religious cult, where you must dot your i’s and cross your t’s militantly, or else face the wrath of the gods who run the cult.

It is tragic that PCC has a massive influence on churches all across America, and they know it, which power has gone to their heads. Thankfully there is a God in Heaven, who men do not control. God is not a respecter of persons. God hears the cry of PCC's many victims, including myself. When I begged for their forgiveness and compassion, they threw me under the bus and put the transmission into gear and drove over me while laughing. That is PCC!

The grass is always greener over the septic tank.

God heard the cry of Abel's blood from the ground (Genesis 4:10). God heard the cry coming from the city of Sodom (Genesis 18:21; 19:13). God cares about hurting people. God knows the truth that I came to Campus Church with the sincerest of intentions, but was abused by their wicked pastor. When I hand wrote a letter and mailed it PCC to let them know how shameful their pastor was behaving, they couldn't have cared less, which showed me that PCC is very sick spiritually. God already knows how corrupt PCC is. They don't even have the Gospel right, which means they are not saved. PCC's pastors are hellbound infidels.

Shame on the [4]Sword of the Lord for selling PCC's advertisements for money. The Sword has gone down the toilet since Dr. Curtis Hutson graduated to Heaven in 1995. Dr. Shelton Smith (Sword editor since 1995) ought to be ashamed of himself for supporting PCC's apostasy! I sent a message to the Sword of the Lord to warn them about PCC, but as I expected the Sword failed to reply to me. They love money more than truth at the Sword.

What has happened is that well-meaning but ignorant wicked men have corrupted the Gospel to fit their flawed thinking. Since they know that requiring someone to stop living in sin would be WORKS, they subtly changed it instead to " be willing

" to turn from your sins to get to Heaven. In their feeble minds, they cannot understand how a man can come to Christ and continue committing murder, stealing, adultery and other horrible sins. But dear friend, that is exactly what we all do! King David was a murderer and adulterer in the Old Testament. Ananias and Sapphira were dirty thieves, whom God killed for their crimes.

We're all guilty sinners. No one has ever turned from their sins. NO ONE! You may clean up your life, like prettying up a pig, but a pig is still a pig. You may become a born-again child of God, but you are still a dirty sinner, and so am I. Getting saved does NOT eliminate the old nature (the sinful flesh). Getting saved adds the new nature (the blessed Holy Spirit). If we desire to live righteously, then we can only Walk in the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25), allowing Jesus to live the Christian life through us (Galatians 2:20). But do you see dear friend that it is God's righteousness and power that lives through you, and not YOU yourself turning from your sinful behavior to be saved?

These ungodly Bible corrupting pastors (like the PCC cult) who pervert God's simple plan of salvation, demanding that you be willing to turn from your sinful bad habits to be saved, are trying to force YOU to reform as a prerequisite to saving faith, which cannot produce the new birth. Only resting completely in what Christ has done for you through Calvary's cross, can produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God. I am not going to do like PCC and pervert God's simple plan of salvation in an attempt to force you to forsake your sinful ways.

The following helpful words were penned by Michael P. Bowen from his excellent book, "[5]I NEVER KNEW YOU." In this chapter, Brother Bowen is refuting Beth Moore's Satanic falsehood which cannot save anyone, since it requires more than faith to get to Heaven...

> You can trust Christ with all of your might and do your best to turn from you sins and still end up in the lake of fire. That is shocking! You can do your best to trust that Jesus died for you, that He rose from the dead, and try your best to live a good, > holy life and “still” end up dying in your sins because you have not placed your trust “alone” (apart from turning from your sins) in what He did for you. The sad thing about adding “self efforts” such as turning from your sins to Christ’s plan of “trust only” is that, while it sounds right, it sounds good, and it feels right, it is not the gospel message that Christ has so plainly given to us in His bible. Jesus said in John 3:16 that “whosoever believeth in Him” would be saved. He did not say “whosoever believeth” and turn from your sins. He did not say believe and be willing to turn from your sins. He did not say believe and follow Him in obedience “in order to” have everlasting life, nor did He ever imply such things when He spoke of salvation.” — Michael P. Bowen, “[6]I NEVER KNEW YOU,” pp. 81-82 ([7]ORDER HARD COPIES to share with friends and loved ones)

That is great truth!

The grass is always greener over the septic tank. PCC has thousands of churchgoers fooled today, who aren’t paying close enough attention to what is going on at PCC, not paying attention to their doctrine. Jon has it exactly right...

>
> It truly makes me sad that this place has the word ’Christian’ in it’s name, as most of the staff and faculty are the furthest thing from Christ as you can get.
>
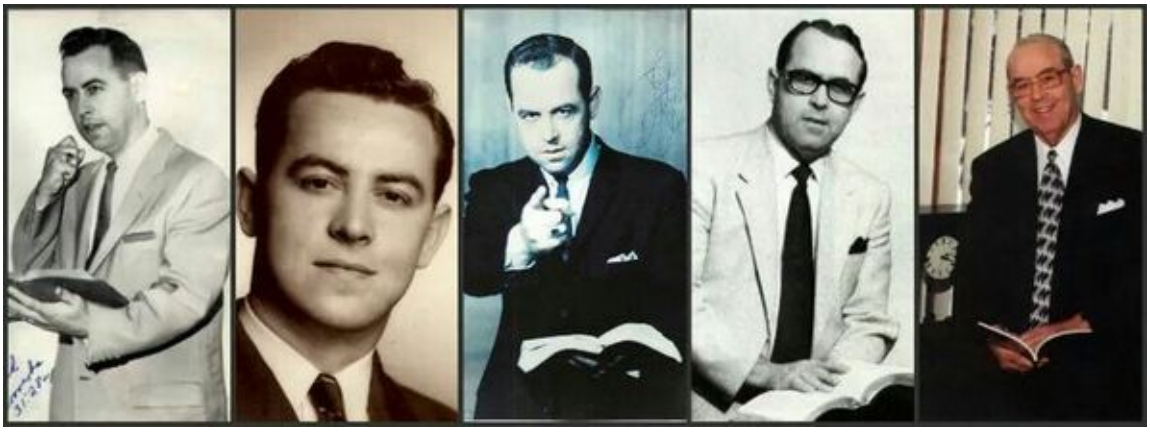
> —PCC Alumni Jon Ehnis



If your church supports PCC, shame on you! Today’s Baptist churches are infested with carnal believers, and worse, unsaved infidels. Sadly, 99 % of people just don’t care about right doctrine. They care about being happy. They care about money. They care about having fun at church activities. Tragically, the accuracy of the Gospel isn’t important to them, so they go along with anything that their pastor tells them, unquestioningly. No wonder Jesus said in Luke 13:24b, “many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.”

5.2.14 For Sale (2024-02-19 15:43)

(Chapter 9 from Dr. Hyle's excellent book, Blue Denim and Lace)

One's degree of character may be determined by what he would do wrong, for so many are so prone to "sell out" so soon. Politicians, preachers, and others find the temptation to sell out to be a great one. Some sell for much and some sell for little.

The tendency to be for sale starts in childhood. If the child is not taught that wrong is punished, and if he gets no spankings, wrong is not made distasteful to him. He oftentimes gets his desires by doing wrong. If he cries long enough, he gets the candy, and oftentimes he is even rewarded when throwing a tantrum. He does not have to mind his parents. To say "no" to Mama is considered cute. Then he will say "no" to the teacher, "no" to the Sunday School worker, "no" to the law, and "no" to God. He then dies and goes to Hell because the parents thought it was cute for him to say "no."

This tendency to sell out continues in youth. It is found in the youth who does right only if it turns out right. Right needs to be vindicated in such a life. Every action is determined by its reward or results. According to this opinion, nothing is right or wrong in itself, only in how it turns out. Hence, anything can become right if it turns out right. Popularity, gaining a new boy friend, good grades, etc. become the main end rather than principles and character. How sad! Such people stand only until the price is big enough. They are not taught to live by principles. Their convictions last only until the selling price reaches their desires.

This tendency increases in adulthood. From such young people we have our police scandals, our crooked politicians, our compromising preachers, our loafers, lawbreakers, and homebreakers.

Early in childhood our youth should be taught the need for conviction and that right is its own reward and needs no vindication. They should be taught never to sell out for convenience or fair price, but rather to place a sign over their souls, "Not for Sale."

5.2.15 Beware Of The Satanic New 'Legacy Standard Bible' (2024-02-19 22:49)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, "For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ."

The Devil's hands have been busy! As if having hundreds of English Bible revisions wasn't enough to confuse the world, Satan has just introduced still another PERversions of God's inspired Word. It is called the [1]Legacy Standard Bible (LSB).

The [2]LSB is an update to the NASB from 1977.

The LSB is produced out of Dr. John MacArthur's The Master's University cesspool of iniquity preacher's cemetery in Santa Clarita, California.

Apostle of darkness, [3]Ken Ham, has also gone in financially with the LSB Devil's crowd, producing a special corrupt addition of LSB Genesis (can you hear the sound of money?).

On Ken Ham's YouTube channel that devil-preacher is promoting the Satanic LSB version of the Holy Bible. The religious cult at Answers-In-Genesis offers a special toxic version of the Legacy Standard Bible (LSB) Bible. This heretical video is of the Devil...

The MOST Accurate Bible Translation Was Just Released

In the comments for the preceding video, Ken Ham states: "The most accurate Bible translation was just released. In this video, Ken Ham interviews Dr. Abner Chou (president of The Masters University) on the brand-new LSB Bible translation, which John MacArthur called 'the best English translation [he has] ever read."' That's like the hungry wolf saying that he thinks the new doorless henhouse is the best design he's ever seen!!!

Here are just a small handful of corruptions in the so-called "new" Legacy Standard Bible (LSB). Please note that these are the SAME exact corruptions in all of the modern Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort corrupt revisions. Pastor Jack Hyles was so right, who said: "If you've seen one Westcott and Hort Bible you've seen 'em all."

They removed the word "hell" and replaced it with Sheol. Everybody knows the meaning of Hell, but less than 1 % of readers will know what "Sheol" means...

> Psalms 9:17, "The wicked will return to Sheol, Even all the nations who forget God."

They changed God's promise to "preserve" His very pure Words to "guard." The replaced them (God's Word) with "him," a person. They have removed God's promise to preserve His pure Words...

> Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of Yahweh are pure words; As silver tried in a furnace on the ground, refined seven times. You, O Yahweh, will keep them; You will guard him from this generation forever."

“Sodomite” is completely removed from the LSB.

“Lucifer” is completely removed from Isaiah 14:12, the only mention in the King James Bible.

“Fornication” is removed from LSB.

They removed, “but by every word of God” in the next verse...

> Luke 4:4, “And Jesus answered him, “It is written, ‘Man shall not live on bread alone.”’”

They change “by” to “through,” which attacks Jesus’ deity as Creator...

> John 1:3, “All things came into being through Him, and apart from Him nothing came into being that has come into being.”

The King James Bible says Jesus told Mary Magdalene “Touch me not.” They changed it to, “Stop clinging to me.” Jesus hadn’t ascended with His blood to the Father yet. She would have corrupted Him had she touched Him. This is a horrible corruption of God’s Word...

> John 20:17, “Jesus said to her, “Stop clinging to Me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to My brothers and say to them, ‘I ascend to My Father and your Father, and My God and your God.”’”

They removed the “godhead” and replaced it with “divine nature,” which is another attack of the Godhead (Trinity)...

> Romans 1:20, “For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes, both His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, being understood through what has been made, so that they are without excuse.”

They removed “are saved” and changed it to “being saved”...

> 1st Corinthians 1:18, “For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved, it is the power of God.”

They removed the word “corrupt,” changing it to “peddling”...

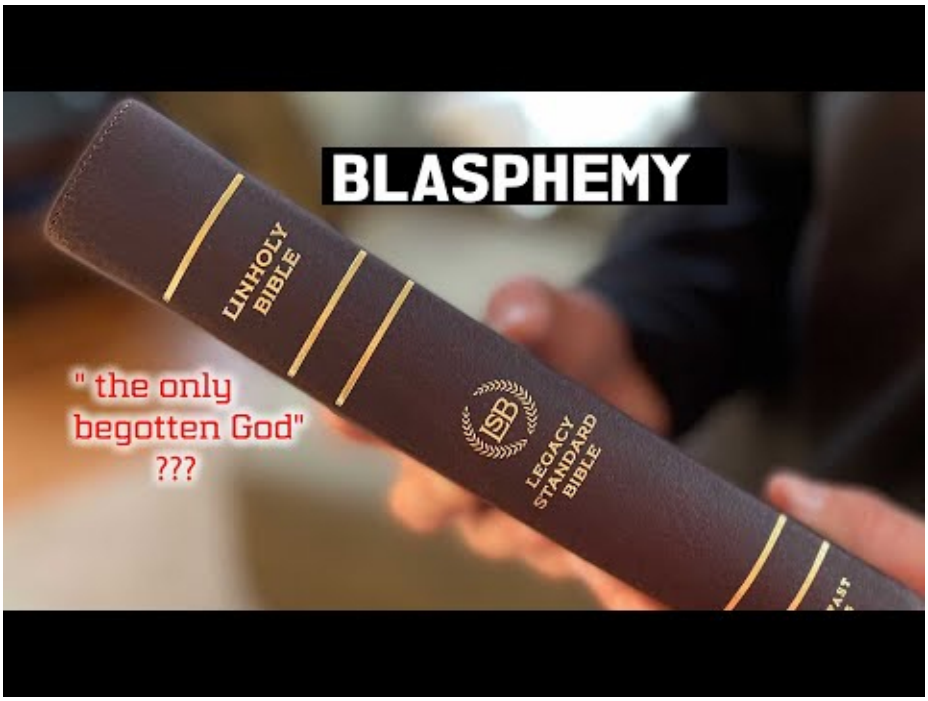
> 2nd Corinthians 2:17, “For we are not like many, peddling the word of God, but as from sincerity, but as from God, in the sight of God, we speak in Christ.”

They removed “through the blood”...

> Colossians 1:14, “in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.”

They changed “God” to “He” ...

> 1st Timothy 3:16, “And by common confession, great is the mystery of godliness: He who was manifested in the flesh, Was vindicated in the Spirit, Seen by angels, Proclaimed among the nations, Believed on in the world, Taken up in glory.”



The removed the last part of the verse, “the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one” ...

> 1st John 5:7, “For there are three that bear witness:”

What ungodly blasphemy against God’s inspired Word!!!

> “It is the best English translation I have ever read.” —Dr. John MacArthur endorsing the LSB perversion

Dear reader, this is dishonest scholarship!!! This is nothing new, it is the same old demonic corruptions from Westcott and Hort’s 1881 corrupt Greek text. I could have listed thousands more corruptions from the Satanic LSB. It shouldn’t come as a surprise that charlatans Ken Ham and John MacArthur are promoting this filth, because they are both going to cash in BIG on the sale of this work of darkness. The Bible warns that the love of money is the root of all evil (1st Timothy 6:10-11).

5.2.16 Is Your Soul In Prison? (2024-02-20 14:33)

Psalm 142:5-7, “I cried unto thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living. Attend unto my cry; for I am brought very low:

deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I. Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name: the righteous shall compass me about; for thou shalt deal bountifully with me."

Psalm 142 was written while David was in a cave hiding. We do not know exactly which cave, but probably either Engedi (1st Samuel 24:1-3) or Adullam (1st Samuel 22:2). Regardless, king David was having a rough time. This chapter of the Bible jumped out at me and encouraged my heart. It was like reading my biography.

> Psalms 142:1-2, "I cried unto the LORD with my voice; with my voice unto the LORD did I make my supplication. I poured out my complaint before him; I shewed before him my trouble."

This is what we should all do when troubles come, pour out our complaint to God. The Hebrew word for "complaint" simply means, "to pray or communicate with God." David was making a request to God. Back in Moses' day, God was upset with the Israelites for complaining about the quality of the food they were given. As a matter of fact they complained about nearly everything. This was sinful and God punished them for it (tragically thousands died).

King David however was complaining to God for a very different reason, because someone was trying to kill him. David wouldn't fight back against God's anointed leader, king Saul. It's not wrong to complain to God about legitimate problems in our life, but God does not like when we don't appreciate His blessings in our life. David was not complaining in the sense of being unappreciative; but rather, David was asking God to deliver him from his "persecutors" (verse 6). There is a big difference! What type of complainer are you friend?

I complain to God all the time, but not in a selfish way. I complain about the iniquity in America, the injustice of the Enron corporation (who swindled millions of dollars from its own employee's retirement fund), the apostate ecumenical movement, abortion industry, gambling casinos, beer factories, spiritual wickedness in high places, and just about everything else that is wicked. I often find myself (like David - Psalms 58:6) praying imprecatory prayers, asking God like the prophet Jonah to bring swift justice and fiery judgment upon our wicked land!

There's is much we can all do to influence America for God. I worry about people (especially Christians believers) who have no passion for truth and justice. I don't know about you friend, but I want to make a difference for God. We need to get MAD (*M*ake *A D*ifference)! I'm really upset that so much corruption exists and nothing is being done about it (like $59 billion disappearing from HUD and [1]then Bill Clinton pardons the man who was convicted for the crime). That's tax-payer dollars being stolen! The money was never recovered!

I also sometimes complain to the Lord that heathens like rock star Ozzy Osborne are paid $20,000,000 contracts for being wicked, while God's righteous children struggle in factories to make ends meet. The Holy Spirit always reminds me that everything which Jesus owns is mine also, and that I have eternal life—which is worth more than all the riches in the universe. Heaven belongs to those who die in the Lord (Revelation 14:13), having their sins washed away by the precious blood of Jesus.

Ozzy Osbourne has nothing because he doesn't have Jesus Christ, sad but true. And now Ozzy is nearing the end of his life in 2024, suffering from Parkinson's disease. I am sad for Ozzy and his family. They need the Lord. By God's grace, I am very rich indeed, for I have Jesus as my personal Savior! We have so many blessings from God to be thankful for, even the air that we all breathe and take for granted. God is pleased when sin makes His children upset and when we stand up to speak the truth against the evildoers (Psalm 94:16). The old adage is true: Evil triumphs when good men do nothing.

Psalm 142 is special to me because I have been there in my troubled life...

> Psalms 142:3, "When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path. In the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me."

David said his enemies had privily (secretly) laid a trap for him. I've had people do this to me before. It's a very panful experience when someone cheats and hurts you, and when somebody spreads lies about you (or even worse, the truth). People just love to gossip and tear down other people. It's in our sinful nature as humans to hurt one another (Romans 3:10-23). Because I am a Christian I've learned that some people will just sit in wait (as a predator), waiting for us to stumble. Pastor Texe Marrs (1944-2019) was right, who said: When you're a Christian the whole world is waiting for you to fall.

> Psalms 142:3, "When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path. In the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me."

Notice that David said he was "overwhelmed" inside. Have you ever felt overwhelmed by emotions? I sure have. David says in Psalm 142:7 that his "soul was in prison." Ever felt like your soul was in prison? Have you ever felt like you'd never get out of debt? Have you ever felt like life would never get any better? Have you ever felt like people were a lost cause? I have felt all of these things at times in my life. People can really get you down sometimes (John 16:22).

The Lord Is Our Refuge In Time Of Trouble

There were times in my life when I felt like all the walls were closing-in around me, like everything in the world was wrong. I know what it's like to want to die, but you know you have to keep on living because that is God's plan. And let me say, I was right with God during those overwhelming times. I was drawn by my afflictions more into the precious truths of God's Word. I know that God has a divine purpose for my sufferings, to prepare me for the burdens ahead (Deuteronomy 8:3). You really don't understand the truth until you live the truth, when you're at the bottom of life looking up. The Bible comes alive when you feel like your dead.

Read how David felt...

> Psalms 55:6, "And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I fly away, and be at rest."

David wished he could have grown wings and just flown away. Have you ever been there? There have been umpteen times in my life when I have felt that way. Sometimes I just wanted to quit my job and go anywhere but there! I'm sure that you've also felt that way, especially if you live and work in a big concrete jungle city like Chicago, Los Angeles or New York.

If you've ever received bad news at your front door, you know the fear that lingers every time you hear a knock at your door from that day hence. The same is true with the phone and the mailbox. I dread checking my mail, answering the door, or the phone. I've received enough bad news to last a lifetime. What can we do? I now check my mail only once every couple weeks. I forget about the mail. I don't let my mailbox of phone control me, I check it when I feel like it.

I have an answering machine, I keep my ringer down. My time is MY TIME. I have learned little ways to control the life which God has given me. If you don't take control you will have no life. I worked midnights years ago and slept afternoons. I turned the phone off every afternoon. It worked great. Sometimes you have to take drastic measures because people (especially your own family) will abuse you (even though they likely don't intend to). I've learned to say "no" to people from church as well. Just say "no."

You likely can't work in a church ministry all day on Saturday, you've got things that need to be done at the house. You need to spend time with your wife and kids. A real man spends time with his family. The Godfather (played by actor Marlon Brando) said that and he was right! People won't take no for an answer sometimes. If you have small children, you owe it to your wife to watch the kids so she can get a much-needed break on Saturdays. Family must come before ministry. If you can make time to serve in a church ministry, that's great, but not at the expense of your family.

Seek God's Mercy To Find Grace To Help In Time Of Need

I could see why many people would like to grow wings and fly away as David wanted to.

Years ago, I was a bit discouraged and someone bought me an encouraging card. The card said:

> "Any idiot can handle a crisis, it's this day-to-day living that wears me down."

I never forgot that card, and the above statement is a classic. It's not the big things in life that wear us down, it's the mundane and routine things that wear us down. David was tired from always looking over his shoulder for enemies. David wanted to fly away from his problems but he knew it was impossible. David was discouraged because he felt like no one was his friend. He was convinced that no one cared about his soul. David couldn't find someone to give him refuge so he ended up in a cave. Everyone was afraid to help David (just as most people today are afraid to help those in trouble). No one wanted David around anymore because they knew Saul was after him. People had also heard about his adultery with Bathsheba and how he murdered her husband Uriah. David was a marked man! The stigma sticks!

> Psalms 142:4, "I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul."

David turned to the Lord God, which is always the best thing to do when we are in trouble...

Psalms 142:5, "I cried unto thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living."

David had many enemies, especially Saul. What was David to do? He had a problem that wasn't going to go away anytime soon. Do you have any problems like that dear reader? I can only do so much as one human being. We are living in a wicked world. I know how David felt...

Psalms 142:6, "Attend unto my cry; for I am brought very low: deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I."

David was in an overwhelming situation. He felt very low, betrayed, humiliated and broken. David, who had killed a fierce lion with his bare hands! David, who had slain the Philistine giant Goliath with a mere sling shot! David, who had slain his ten thousands! Now David finds himself hiding in a cave with nowhere to turn, but to the Lord for help. Sometimes, we will have nowhere to turn, but to the Lord Jesus Christ for help. David's soul was in a prison. He wanted out, but saw no way of escape. There was no light in sight at the end of the tunnel.

Psalms 142:7, "Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name: the righteous shall compass me about; for thou shalt deal bountifully with me."

Is your soul in a prison? Is your heart living in a dark cave of life? Do you have burdens that your family and friends just can't help you with? Have you come to the end of yourself? I have been there too my friend, so be of good cheer. 1st Peter 5:9, "Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world." As David experienced, I can only turn to my God in desperation and plead for deliverance from mine enemies and miseries. David said in Psalm 142:6 that he had been "brought very low." David cried unto the Lord...

Hebrews 4:15-16, "For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need."

We have a wonderful promise from God in Hebrews 4:14-15. Because we are cleansed by the blood of Jesus, we have a God-purchased RIGHT to the throne of grace. Jesus paid for this right. We surely don't deserve it, but God loves us and has made this provision for us with His own blood which He shed for our sins (1st Peter 1:18-19). Jesus is our High Priest who intercedes for us in Heaven (Hebrews 4:14; Romans 8:34). God wants us to BOLDLY approach His throne of grace to obtain mercy, to HELP in time of NEED. God has promised to help us, but we must plead for His mercy. God owes us nothing, we must petition God (make supplication) concerning our burdens. If we are not arrogant and self-willed, He will help us. God is real my friend, He sits upon His throne in heaven. Through our spirit, we can stand before that throne if we will only pray.

Prayer is a serious matter, be careful what you ask God. If your soul is in prison, take your burdens to the Lord and leave them there. Cast your cares upon God (1st Peter 5:7-8). If the burdens don’t go away, hang in there because unshakable faith comes from having your faith shaken! And what pleases God? FAITH! (Hebrews 11:6). So it is very true then, that more problems in one’s life is better for us, because more affliction will cause us to have a stronger faith. We cannot grow in grace without suffering and pain.

Unshakable Faith Comes From Having Your Faith Shaken

God is not pleased to watch us suffer, but He is pleased if we don’t quit. If you ask God for more faith, then you WILL be sent a multitude of problems to build your faith. This is why I say be careful what you pray. I love this next verse. Listen to what Job said:

> Job 13:15, “
>
> Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.

Do you have Job’s kind of blind faith? Job said, "I don’t care if God kills me, I’m not going to give up!" Job had a great faith! So there is a silver lining to every burden, though it may not seem joyous at the moment. Perhaps you ask, "Do you really believe all that?" Yes I do, but I don’t like it one bit. I’d rather not have the burdens, but they’re here. So I might as well do what James said and count it all joy (a silver lining). I hate problems! Unfortunately, they keep coming one after the other. Unshakable faith comes from having your faith shaken!

I’ll say this though, if I hadn’t carried the burdens which afflicted me years ago, I wouldn’t have had the strength to bare the burdens I have now. That makes me worry what burdens may come in the future, but I have to leave that in God’s hands and trust Him. God has promised to encamp round about me to watch over me (Psalms 34:7). By God’s grace, I wouldn’t have learned all the Bible truths I have learned, if I hadn’t had all those past burdens. I am grateful to God for my life, good and bad alike. It is my life. What saith the Scripture? ...

> James 1:2-4, “
>
> My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.
> **”

Has James lost his mind? No, not at all. The trials in our life will make us stronger if we hang in there for God. Have you ever heard the old adage: That which does not kill you only makes you stronger? This is true. Many people turn to drugs, alcohol and immorality when the rough times come. What we need to do is seek closeness with the Lord. We need to live in the inspired Word of God. The Bible truly does have all the answers if you look for them (John 5:39). We need to pray about everything (Philippines 4:6). Do you know what encourages me more than anything else when I’m discouraged? It is preaching the Gospel. There is no joy as sweet as leading a lost sinner to Jesus Christ.

5.2.17 Love (2024-02-20 16:40)

(Chapter 34 from Dr. Hyle's excellent book, Blue Denim and Lace)

I rushed out of my Wednesday evening service and out to the airport in time to catch a 10:00 plane for Atlanta, Georgia, and on to Greenville, South Carolina, where I was to speak for a few days at the Bob Jones University. I got to the airport just in time to get the last seat on the plane. I sat down beside a little lady whose hair was in rollers. She was obviously not dressed for traveling. I could tell, however, that she was of some means, for she had a beautiful diamond ring as well as a diamond pin. Courteously I spoke to her and sat down. The next thing I knew we were landing in Cincinnati, Ohio, for a brief layover. I was awakened by the touch of the wheels on the runway. As I roused, the little lady beside me shocked me by saying, "How could you do what you did?"

Not realizing what I had done, I inquired as to what she meant.

She said, "We have been through a terrible storm. We have been afraid and nervous, and all the time you just snored away. How could you do that during a storm?"

I replied that I did not know the circumstances but perhaps there were at least two reasons why I could sleep through a storm on an airplane: The first reason was that I fly tens of thousands of miles a year on commercial airliners. The second reason I told her was, "My Father owns the airplane."

She looked at me with a puzzled look on her face and said, "Do I understand you correctly? Your father owns this plane?'

"Yes," I said, "He owns the entire Delta Airlines system." This really aroused her curiosity until I continued. "He not only owns the Delta Airlines, but He also owns the American Airlines."

'Do I understand you correctly?" she asked. "You are the heir to the Delta and the American Airlines."

"That is right," I replied. "That is not all. He owns the Eastern Airlines, the Braniff Airlines, Ozark, United, Continental, and others."

By this time she was completely beside herself in ecstasy. "What an honor," she said, "to ride with such a person whose father is so wealthy." Then she asked the name of my father.

I replied that He was the Heavenly Father. When I said these words, she broke out weeping so that folks all around us could hear her. Her body shook as tears poured from her eyes.

"You must be a minister," she said.

"Yes, I am," I replied, "but I am also a Christian."

Then she told me an unusual story. She had worked her husband's way through college, sacrificing her own college education so that he might attain one. He had become very successful and was the manager of a large firm. With the passing of years, he had become ashamed of his wife because she was less educated than he, and now he was suing her for a divorce. When she heard of this, she attempted suicide. (This was just a few minutes before she got on the plane.) Some friends had brought her to the airport, and put her on the airplane to send her to Atlanta, Georgia, where her sister lived.

She looked at me and continued talking, "Oh sir, how unusual that a minister would sit beside me. Just a few minutes ago I tried to kill myself." Then shoe looked at me with a look of horror, fright, and anguish and asked, "Sir, . . .does your . . .God . . .love . . .me?"

I will never forget how she looked as she asked me if my God loved her. I was happy to tell her that not only did my God love her, but that I loved her too because Jesus loved her. At twenty-eight thousand feet in the air I told her the wonderful story of Christ and that God did love her. As I went to my hotel room in Atlanta, where I was to sleep for two or three hours before catching a plane to South Carolina, I knelt and prayed, "Dear God, let me love more. The only way people can see Thy love is to see it in me."

In order that our love might be more like His, let us examine a few ways to increase our love.

1. Remember it is better to love than to be loved. One can only guarantee fulfillment by loving, not by being loved. If one's happiness is built upon loving, then it can be controlled, but if his happiness is built upon being loved, it is built upon something over which he has no control. One who loves you can withdraw that love, and there is nothing that you can do about it. The happiest people and the people whose happiness is most secure are those who find their joy in loving rather than being loved.

2. Love is often unrecognized and unreturned. As one grows in love he finds himself the possessor of something that the flesh cannot recognize. The carnal mind is at enmity with God, and the flesh cannot determine spiritual traits. Hence, it is entirely possible that the people who love the least will receive credit for loving the most and that the world's greatest lovers will have their love unrecognized by the world. There are many preachers who are described as prophets of love because they never preach against sin, never rebuke their people, etc. On the other hand there are many preachers who are described as prophets of doom and hate who are really full of love for their people. Remember, love is of God, and this old carnal world knows nothing about God and His love. Because of this, the more true love that one has, the less recognition he will get for it. He may find himself being considered unloving by those who have little love but receive praise for being great lovers. Hence, when a person finds his joy and satisfaction in loving, he may have to become accustomed to having that love unrecognized by those about him.

3. Love gives the object its needs, not its wants. The love that the world knows is that which fulfills only the wants of its object. The love which God gives is that which oftentimes forfeits its own recognition in an effort to help. Many people who know true love find that oftentimes words of caution and even abruptness must be used to those you love in an effort to help them. The parent who loves his children enough to discipline them may be called an unloving parent. The pastor who loves his people enough to warn them may be called an unloving pastor. Though his love may go unrecognized on earth, it is certainly accepted and recognized as true love by Him Who is Love.

4. Love is often heartbroken. Remember that the higher one goes the lonelier he gets, and the more one loves the more he will feel unloved. He then compares his love for others with that which others have for him, finding that their love for him falls short of his love for them. The consequence is often heartbreak. The compensation for this is great, however, for the more we learn to love on earth, the higher will be our level of spiritual maturity and love in Heaven, and the more love we can offer to the Lord Jesus Christ.

5. We are not to love because of the object. "I love her because she is so sweet." "I just love him; he is so nice." These are immature statements that can lead to disappointments.

In the first place, if one's love is determined by the object, it can be also lost when the object changes. If you love her because she is sweet, you will quit loving her when she is sour. If you love him because he is nice, you will quit loving him when he is not nice. However, if you love him because God is love and has given you of His love, his changing will not change your love. Hence, our love should not be because of condition of the loved but because of the condition of the lover.

Another reason why this is important is that if we love because of the object, we will not love those who need loving the most. Jesus loved the unlovable, the unloving, and the unloved. To be like Him, we must do likewise.

6. Do not let the object stop your love. If one does not love because of the object, then also he should not stop loving if the object becomes unlovable. I have often said this to the people whom I pastor: "I cannot make you love me, but you cannot keep me from loving you." If one loves because the object is lovable, his love cannot increase unless the object becomes more lovable. In other words, he has no power to increase his love. If, however, one loves because of the love that Christ has placed in his heart, then he can increase his own love by increasing the size of his heart."

7. Keep all love within its proper bounds. If disciplined properly, every relationship can be developed to its fullest. There is love for mother, love for father, love for brother, love for sister, love for husband, love for wife, love for sweetheart, love for friend, etc. Each love should be kept within its own boundaries allowing each relationship to develop to its highest and fullest. It is wise for a person to list his relationships in life. Life is a series of human relationships, and one's happiness is largely determined by the development of each relationship. A list can be made such as the following:

I am a husband to Beverly Hyles.

I am a father to Becky Hyles, David Hyles, Linda Hyles, and Cindy Hyles.

I am a son to Mrs. C. M. Hyles.

I am a brother to Mrs. Earlyne Stephens

I am a pastor to the members of my church.

Now I must develop each of these relationships to its fullest thereby guaranteeing the happiness of each object as well as my own happiness. One does not have to choose between being a good husband and a good father, between a good father and a good friend, or a good son and a good boss. The late Dr. Bob Jones, Sr. used to say, "Duties never conflict." I can be a good whatever I am. God will give me no relationships that I cannot develop to the fullest.

8. The lover must make all reconciliations. When there is a strained relationship, it is up to the lover to lead in efforts of reconciliation. Remember the weak is usually too weak to make amends. It is up to the stronger to do so.

9. By all means, do not work on being loved. Seeking to be loved makes love impossible, for such actions are selfish, and love cannot be selfish. Selfishness cannot love. Most of the so-called love in our generation is selfish and possessive. It is nothing more than a desire to be with someone who satisfies one of the senses.

Several years ago I notices in the Fort Worth, Texas, newspaper a picture of a lady bending over the dead form of her husband whom she had just killed. As she picked his head up and put it in her lap she said, "Oh, how I loved you." (I told my wife that I didn't want her to love me that much.)

The average so-called love of today is nothing more than a desire to be around someone who is pretty or someone whose personality makes us feel good. It is basically wanting to be with someone who likes us. It is selfish and possessive if this is all that is involved. Hence, one should work on his loving and not on being loved. God will take care of giving to us those who loves us if we will take care of developing through Him and in Him the right kind of love flowing out of our own hearts.

10. Express your love. It is a wonderful thing to be able to express your love. This would simply mean being affectionate. Do you love him? Tell him. Do you love her? Tell her. Has she been a blessing to you? Let her know it. There is far too little tenderness and affection exchanged between friends in our generation. Words of love and affection are always in order if they are set within the proper bounds. Notes and letters to friends we love certainly should be written often. This is a very vital part of friendship and love.

Married people reveal their relationship by the wearing of the wedding band. Athletes wear letter sweaters. Soldiers wear uniforms. Our Lord wanted to give His people something as an insignia of their standing, something by which they could be identified. He did not choose rings for our fingers or a certain piece of clothing to cover our bodies. He simply choose love, for He said, "By this shall all men know that ye are My disciples, if ye have love one to another." (John 13:35)

5.2.18 Women Belong At Home Preparing Dinner (2024-02-20 23:30)

Isaiah 3:12, “As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.”

Call me old-fashioned, but I believe a woman belongs in the home, and so does God. 1st Timothy 5:14-15, “I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. For some are already turned aside after Satan.” We are living in wicked times when nobody wants to do things God’s way anymore. Feminism is destroying America!

Pastor Jack Hyles was right, who said:

> “When the Devil decides to destroy a society, he starts off with the woman.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[1]How To Destroy The Human Race"

There is nothing demeaning about a woman staying at home to work as a mother and a wife. What is demeaning is when young women enter the workforce and forfeit marriage and motherhood. But don't take my word for it as a fundamentalist Bible preacher. According to the experts at Psychology Today, the [2]most miserable group of people in the United States are single women in their forties. I have heard delusional feminists saying that age 40 is the new 20. You're a fool if you buy into that lie. By age 40 a woman is at the end of her child bearing years, and it becomes increasingly more difficult to get pregnant.

I think it is insane that young women are having their eggs frozen so they can pursue careers instead. The inspired Holy Bible teaches that young women are to get married, not mess around with sex before marriage. We're got a bunch of fornicators all across America today, who are getting pregnant out of wedlock, and then they want to have an abortion, which is wickedness and detrimental to one's spiritual and mental well being. Fornication is a horrible sin! Yet, our ungodly American society and perverse companies like Walt Disney, promote premarital sex as if it should be the "norm." God calls it sin, which brings the judgment of God...

> Colossians 3:3-7, "
>
> For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.
>
> When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.
>
> Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:
>
> For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience*:
>
> In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

It is NOT okay to sleep around before you find the right one in marriage. It is sad and tragic that courtship before marriage is a thing in the distant past in America. The beauty of a healthy courtship is what makes for a healthy and stable lifelong marriage later on. But fornicating with a bunch of people prior to marriage (if that person ever even bothers to get married) is a recipe for heartache, shame and a lifetime of regret. We are living in perilous times the Bible says in 2nd Timothy 3:1-7. American youth are becoming so horrible! We've been seeing smash & grab robberies all across the country over the past 15 years, all committed by gangs of irresponsible immoral youth. Where are their parents? It is obvious that they had lousy parents who raised them. Likely most of them didn't have a father figure in the home.

God's plan is for young people to save themselves until marriage. If you have already thrown away your virtue, then know that God loves you dear friend. We all make mistakes, bad decisions and commit sin. Everyone is a dirty sinner in God's holy sight. That is why God sent His only begotten Son into the world to die on a cross, to pay for our sins. God did this because He love everyone unconditionally. Christ died for everyone (1st John 2:2).

But to reiterate what the Holy Bible teaches, a woman's place is in the home. Call me what you will, but I believe the inspired Word of God. Isaiah 3:12, "As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths." With all the capable and strong men to lead American society, it is wrong and ridiculous to see woman in high positions of power ruling over women. It wasn't that way 100 years ago, in the good old days! Look at the gigantic mess that our country is in today. Feminism is of the Devil. If you don't agree with that, you will one day when you enter into eternity and stand before almighty God.

It is tragic to see women so accustomed to working, that they cannot even begin to picture themselves becoming a stay at home wife and mother. The greatest role God ever created was that of a mother. Yet, in these perverted times in American culture, stay at home traditional mothers (often disparagingly called "Trad Moms") are mocked, ridiculed and put down as slaves to dominant men to whom they're married. Sadly, nothing could be farther from the truth! The happiest women in America are traditional mothers who stay home to care for the home and prepare dinner, with traditional husbands who go to work and pay all the bills, and traditional children who have the same gender as they were born with. NBC can stick their "a new kind of family" homosexual promoting television shows where the sun don't shine!

Please understand that I do not write blogs to upset anyone. I am simply a born-again Christian who believes that the right way is still the old-fashioned way, when men ruled over women as the Bible teaches (Genesis 3:16), and women were submissive, humble, sweet, obedient, feminine, shamefaced, quiet, modest, virtuous, meek and loving (1st Peter 3:1-4). Today's angry, rebellious, boisterous, whorish, immodest, feminist, loud mouth, ungodly court empowered, arrogant, American female is toxic! No wonder [3]marriage is now at an all-time low in the United States!!! New marriages are at [4]record low rates in America.

Men are going their own way (MGTOW). I honestly cannot blame them! Getting married in the U.S. today is a risky thing to do.

Albeit, shacking up is ungodly and 100 % a violation of Scripture. Marriage is necessary to protect both spouses. A legally binding marriage prevents one's spouse from committing adultery and potentially infecting you with STD's (sexually transmitted diseases). A legal marriage prevents one's spouse from abandoning you without any consequence. The very idea that a man and woman can get married, and then one or both just call it quits and walk away from the marriage is wrong, evil and Satanic! Marriage is for life!!! If you have a problem with that then get right with God!!! People look for and make all kinds of excuses to justify divorcing their spouse, but Jesus said from the beginning it was not so (Matthew 19:8).

In Joshua 24:15 in the Old Testament, Joshua exclaimed, "And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

5.2.19 Benny Hinn Is A Devil (2024-02-21 15:04)

Romans 16:17-18, "Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple."

Beware of Evangelist Benny Hinn's ecumenical false gospel! People should Mark and Avoid Benny Hinn as our text Scripture passage exhorts believers to do.

Listen to what Hinn said concerning Pope John Paul II after his death:

> "Pope John Paul II pointed millions to Jesus Christ when he was Pope. And I believe we're in for the greatest move of the Spirit of God on this planet." —Benny Hinn: The Impact of the Pope's Death, By Chris Mitchell, Middle East Bureau Chief, CBN)

What? The Pope pointing people to Jesus? No, he didn't! Hinn is a false prophet!

Pope John Paul II pointed billions of people to MARY!!! Pope John Paul II pointed people to himself, to the Catholic priests, to the Seven Sacraments, to religion, to Mary; BUT, not to Jesus Christ. You cannot point people to Jesus Christ while simultaneously teaching the traditions of men. Mark 7:9, "And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition." John 4:24 plainly teaches that God must be worshipped in TRUTH, not the traditions of men. What a deception!!! Benny Hinn is pulling on the same rope as the Devil. Hinn is guilty of helping promote the prisonhouse of Roman Catholicism, the biggest religious CULT in the world today!

This is why Christ said in Mark 7:7, " Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. "

> 2nd Peter 2:1-3, "But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not."

Please read God's warning against scumbag covetous preachers...

> 2nd Peter 2:3, "And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not."

Benny Hinn has a disgusting net worth of $60,000,000. Serving Satan pays well! Hinn is not a servant of God, he is a lying piece of human trash. Hinn is a Charismatic clown and con man! Please do not be deceived by this greedy Satanic wolf in sheep's clothing! ...

5.2.20 Spirit Filled Listening (2024-02-21 21:46)

Matthew 13:14-15, " And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive: For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them."

Galatians 3:2, " This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?"

Hebrews 5:11, " Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing."

All my life I have heard preachers in their sermons talk about Spirit-filled preaching, but I have never heard anyone mention Spirit-filled hearing. The emphasis has always been upon the preacher being filled with the Holy Spirit, and not upon the listeners in the audience being filled with the Holy Spirit. That is very interesting.

I attended a local revival meeting this week in Pensacola. The visiting evangelist is a good guy. I enjoyed meeting him. He went out of his way before each revival service to personally shake everybody's hand in the auditorium, which I admire. He came up and warmly greeted me before each service and shook my hand. I thought it was important that he did that, connecting with the audience. Bravo for him! I love friendly preachers.

Having said that, this Christian Brother's preaching was mediocre at best, dry. He definitely wouldn't have won a preaching contest! A young fella (I think he was an older teenager) had asked me after the service if I liked the preaching. I don't think it is ever ethical to criticize a preacher, so I said that I enjoyed the preaching. Even though I thought the preaching was mediocre at best, I wasn't lying, which is the point of this blog, as I will explain in a moment. I told the young man that I wish the 3-day revival would last for 7-days instead, and I really meant that. I love and need revivals! We all need Bible preaching!!!

The truth is that you can hear even the worst sermon ever, and yet you will still feel convicted by the indwelling Holy Spirit and go home edified if you are filled with the Holy Spirit. I never hear a sermon that God doesn't use to speak to my heart. The reason why is because I am a Spirit-filled listener. I am not talking about being saved (i.e., indwelt by the Holy Spirit). I am talking about choosing to Walk in the Spirit. Once you get saved, you are indwelt and sealed with the gift of God's Holy Spirit instantly and forever (Romans 8:9; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Ephesians 1:13-14; 1st John 3:23). Galatians 5:25, " If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit." That is, if you are saved, walk in the Holy Spirit who lives in you. We walk in the Spirit by yielding to the Spirit's leading as we abide in God's written Word. The Holy Spirit NEVER leads any believer contrary to the Scriptures!

I heard a young Texas woman many years ago who had made the national news. She had auditioned nine times to become a Dallas Cowboys cheerleader for the football team, but she failed every audition. Thousands of women were applying. In an interview with a news reporter, the frustrated young woman said:

“I know it is God’s will for me to be a Dallas Cowboy’s cheerleader, so I am praying for it to happen.” I knew immediately that she is a liar, and that it is not God’s will for her to become a Dallas Cowboy cheerleader! How do I know that? I know because the Bible teaches in 1st Timothy 2:9-10, “In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.” Take a look at a simple web search on Duck Duck Go for [1]how the whorish Dallas Cowboy cheerleaders dress!!! They are wicked women without biblical high moral standards. I can tell you without hesitation that it is NEVER God’s will for any Christian woman to strip down nearly naked, and then sinfully gyrate like a slut in public in front of millions of lustful people to gaze upon. SHAME on that young woman for laying such wickedness at the Lord’s door.

How do you become a Spirit-filled listener? It is very simple. Just ask God to speak to your heart as you listen to the sermon. If you seek God’s presence you will find it. God promises in James 4:8, “Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. ” You can take this promise to the bank dear friend. God’s inspired Word is trustworthy!

Also, the Bible doesn’t promise that God will only draw nigh to some believers, but to all who draw near unto Him. Of course, if you have never been born again by faith alone in Jesus Christ, then you are an outsider and not one of Christ’s sheep. You have no right to anything from God, except to know that God’s wrath is upon you (John 3:36; Psalms 7:11). But if you are a born again saint, then Hebrews 4:14-16 encourages you to “boldly” approach God’s throne to obtain mercy to find grace to help in time of need. No child of God, even despite the sins which you allow in your life, should ever feel reluctant to come before your heavenly Father’s throne. No child of God is “worthy” to come before God’s throne of their own accord or merit, but only by the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ (Revelation 5:9).

If you listen to a sermon with a tender, submissive and broken heart toward God, desiring to learn the truth, the Holy Spirit will speak to your soul. Likewise, if the sermon contains false doctrine and unbiblical ideas, the Holy Spirit will also convict you that something is wrong. I don’t care if a preacher is Spirit-filled or not, if you are Spirit-filled you will receive a blessing. So when the young man asked me if I liked the preaching, I truly did, even though I knew that I had heard much better preaching elsewhere.

The Bible warns that it is unwise to compare ourselves among ourselves. The reason why is obvious, because God has given to each of us different resources, personalities, talents, opportunities, parents, blessings, friends, abilities and gifts. 2nd Corinthians 10:12, “For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

So with this in mind I do not compare preachers, because God has dealt differently with every man. Who am I to sit in judgment upon any preacher? I am just a humble wretched sinner saved by God’s wondrous grace.

Now, having said that, I do judge and preach against false prophets, which Christian men are exhorted to do (Titus 1:9-14; Jude 1:3). I pay attention when I listen to a sermon. I am blessed to have been saved already for 43 years. So I have learned a thing or two along the way in life. I know good preaching when I hear it. But f I don’t particularly care for a sermon, I do not haughtily look down with a critical spirit upon dry, cold or less fervent preachers. I LOVE BIBLE PREACHERS!!! I LOVE BIBLE PREACHING!!!

Having said that, I will speak up and express my humble disagreement with a preacher if I disagree with something that he said. Albeit, as a general rule I always show respect for the pulpit. If I visit another church it is not my place to critique the pastor or guest preachers. So I try to be ethical and keep my mouth shut. I think we should be quick to speak praise, but very slow and reluctant to be negative. Attitudes are contagious, whether good or bad. I desire and strive to generate a positive attitude of reinforcement at church, especially in the eyes of the young people, toward the church pulpit. I am a Baptist preacher, but that doesn't give me the right to try to change a church from the bottom up by criticizing the church's leadership.

I wrote this blog to teach everyone the importance of being a Spirit-filled listener. Even if the sermon is dry, lacking in substance, and the preacher is boring and devoid of zeal, you can still be blessed by God and take home a blessing if you apply what truths you hear to your life.

I greatly enjoy just being in the presence of other Christian brethren and sisters in Christ. They are my spiritual family in the Lord, and I love them all. My goal is not to be loved in return, because I do not set myself up to be discouraged and disappointed if they don't. My goal is to love everyone unconditionally with God's love, and it doesn't matter how they respond. 2nd Corinthians 12:15, "And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved."

I also want to mention something fascinating that I've never heard any preacher teach. I don't claim to be smarter or have any special insight into the Scriptures. We all have the same free grace salvation, the same Holy Spirit, the same inspired King James Bible, et cetera. One day I realized in Acts chapter two, on the Day of Pentecost, that no one present spoke in tongues. The Bible says that the Apostle Peter preached in his own native tongue (Greek), but the thousands of Jews present from at least 16 different countries mentioned, all HEARD every man in their own language. Acts 2:6, " Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language." There was no miracle of Speaking in Tongues on the Day of Pentecost, but there was a miracle of Hearing in Tongues. Amen!

Dear reader, may we all be Spirit-filled listeners when we hear Bible preaching. Pray and ask God's Holy Spirit to prepare and tender your heart, to be sensitive to the leading of the blessed Holy Spirit in accordance with the precious eternal Word of God.

5.2.21 Pastor Jack Hibbs' Counterfeit Plan Of Salvation (2024-02-24 12:08)

Galatians 1:6-8, " I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed."

I listened to a horrible sermon today by Pastor Jack Hibbs titled, "[1]Are You Going To Heaven?"

Jack Hibbs starts off getting it wrong by falsely teaching you must be called by God to be saved. This is the heresy of Calvinism, specifically the Devil's lie of "Limited Atonement." What saith the Scripture? John 12:32, "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me."

Jesus calls ALL MEN to be saved! Christ died for all men and desires for ALL MEN to come to Him in faith to be saved.

And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

Kindly said, Jack Hibbs is a theological liar. Jesus died for the whole world, not just for those who would believe in Him. God draws ALL MEN to salvation (Titus 2:11).

Secondly, Jack Hibbs gets it wrong in his false teaching when he foolishly says that being "born again" means having a radical change in your behavior. No, that is not what it means. All humans are born spiritually dead. When Adam chose to sin, he opened the floodgate of sin and death upon the world (Romans 5:12). Since Adam all humanity have been born spiritually dead, alienated from God who is a Spirit (John 4:24). Being born again means that you've been born anew by the Holy Spirit of God, but this has NOTHING to do with your behavior. The Bible is full of saints who lived sinful lives all their days on earth (Lot, Esau, Samson, Solomon, Demas, et cetera).

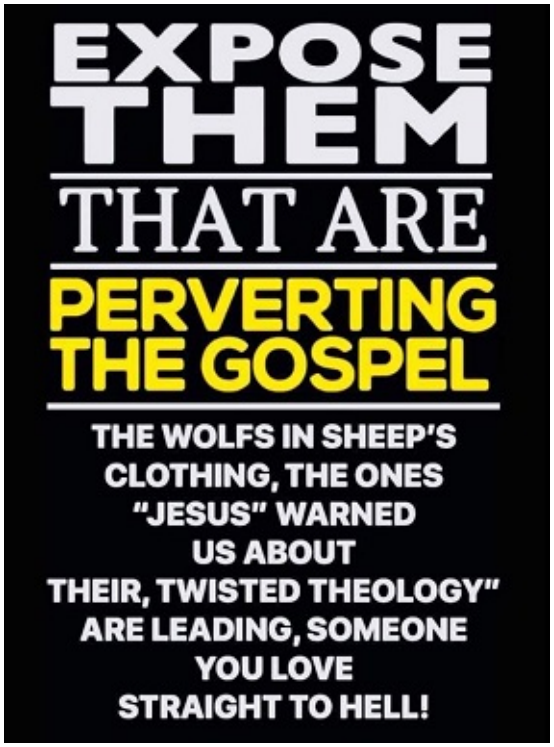
Jack Hibbs also gets repentance wrong! Hibbs uses the unbiblical phrase, "Repent of your sins," which is false doctrine. The Bible mentions repentance "toward God" in Acts 20:21. The Bible mentions repentance from "dead works" in Hebrews 6:1. The Bible mentions repentance to "acknowledge the truth" in 2nd Timothy 2:25. But nowhere can you show me in an inspired King James Bible where it says to repent "of your sins" to get to Heaven. Wicked men added those extra words to God's Word (Proverbs 30:5-6).

At 32:25 in his audio sermon, Pastor Hibbs says that no one has ever been saved by merely believing on the Lord Jesus Christ. He insists that you must also repent. That is true. Yes, you must repent to be saved. But the fact that when asked, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?," Paul and Silas told the Philippian jailer, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved," proves that the man who BELIEVES has repented. That is, repenting is included in believing. If it weren't, then Paul and Silas would have told the jailer to "Repent and believe on the Lord Jesus Christ," but they didn't!

Bible repentance is simply "a change of mind." If you change your mind to BELIEVE the Gospel, you are saved. You must change your mind to admit two facts:

1. WHO YOU ARE (you are a sinner)
2. WHO JESUS IS (He is the Savior)

If you agree with those facts and place your childlike truth (reliance, faith) in Jesus death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection three days later, you are saved forever.



At 39:30 in his terrible sermon, Jack Hibbs says you are not saved unless people see a change in your life. That is unbiblical nonsense! The new birth only gives you one thing, the gift of the indwelling Holy Spirit. But this is just the beginning. A new believer is as helpless as a new born physical baby who cannot even crawl yet. Just as a baby must be nourished and grow, so also must a new convert feed on the Word of God to grow (1st Peter 2:2).

Beware of Pastor Jack Hibbs' counterfeit gospel. Biblically, according to Romans 6:1 you CAN live like the Devil and still have 100 % assurance that you are saved. Romans 6:1, "What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

" A believer ought not continue living in sin, but that is exactly what we all do! No one is righteousness, no not one (Romans 3:10). When we sin as believers, God's saving grace much more abounds, so that we never need to worry again about missing Heaven and going to Hell. If you think that a Christian cannot have eternal security while choosing to live in sin (which is the trash that Ray Comfort teaches), then you need to get saved dear friend. I will end with a great quote from my ministry friend, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold...

> "'You can't tell me you can trust Christ as Savior, and then go out here and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven!' Yes, I can tell you that! That's what the Bible says. If you don't come to the conclusion, that—Yes, you can trust Christ as your Savior and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven when you die—you don't get grace, because that is the exact truth! That is the truth! I do not have to change my life! I don't have to stop one sin! You say, 'I've never heard a preacher say that.' You just heard one! And you listen to me—I want to live as holy and as godly as I possibly can. I am now 70 years old. I've been saved for 52 years. … the only reason I'm going to Heaven is because, 52 years ago in a little living room, I accepted Christ as my Savior." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, "[2]Calvinism And Grace Are NOT Compatible"

5.2.22 All Things Were Created To Please And Glorify God (2024-02-25 18:33)

Isaiah 43:7, "Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him."

1st Corinthians 6:20, " For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."

Revelation 4:11, "Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: *for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created."

A foundational Bible principle is that all things were created for God's pleasure. Every human being was created to glorify God. That is our purpose on earth. Ecclesiastes 12:13, " Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man." Our purpose for existence is to glorify God. We glorify God when we obey Him and keep His commandments.

When we sin we're not giving glory to God, we bring shame to Him. Especially as Christians, we are bought with a price the Bible teaches. That price is the precious blood of Jesus (1st Peter 1:18-19).

1st Corinthians 6:20, " For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." If you are a born again believer, your body and spirit belong to God, by both creation and redemption.

This is why the Apostle Paul said in Romans 12:1,

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." God does not require anything from us in return for saving us. Eternal life is a free gift, paid for by the precious body and blood which Jesus sacrificed for our sins.

Even though we are not debtor to repay Christ's payment for our sins, it is only reasonable that we lay down our life as a living sacrifice. It is not required, but it is appropriate and ethical. The Lord is so good that even after all He has done to rescue us from eternal damnation in Hell, He is going to reward us for all of our labors for Him (1st Corinthians 3:8).

God is so good. Isaiah 43:7, "Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him." God is worthy of our sincerest praise and gratitude.

Most religious people are phonies. They attend church and superficially praise God, sing religious songs and go through all the motions of playing church. Matthew 15:7-8, "Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me." Pensacola Christian College is a prime offender. They are like the sinking Titanic ship. The grew and passengers are arranging deck chairs up on top, while the frigid icy Atlantic ocean is fast flooding into the leaking compartments and the ship is going down.

The churches today are apostate and pathetic. They have replaced preaching with entertainment. They have substituted the old hymns of the faith with lifeless Contemporary Christian Music (CCM). The new music s awful, lacking pretty melody, beautiful harmony and the profound meaning of lyrics that the old time hymns of the faith had. Today's music is garbage! There is no Holy Spirit conviction anymore in churches. No wonder church attendance is now at an all-time low in the United States,

So, please remember that you and I were made to please and glorify God with our life. Thank you for reading my blog.

5.3.1 The Greatest Investment In The World Is Laying Up Treasures In Heaven (2024-03-01 01:12)

Matthew 6:19-21, "

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."

I made an investment beginning in 2002 when I started my website ministry. I could have spent that time instead getting better at my musical instrument skills. I could have made a lot more music recordings. I could have spent that time playing video games, watching television or pursuing a hobby. There are thousands of things I could have done with my time, but I chose rather to invest 50,000 hours working day and night on my various ministry websites. I have no regrets! 1st Corinthians 3:6-9, "I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building." The Bible promises that God will reward every believer according to his OWN labors.

Also, please don't make the mistake of thinking that God only rewards the clergy, or men who feel they were called into full-time ministry. Jesus plainly said that God will even reward giving a cup of water to a thirsty child of God. Mark 9:41, "

For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

" Whether you mow the church grass, clean the church toilets, work on your pastor's broken fence in his yard to help, or give some homemade cookies to an elderly lady in the church, God will reward you if it is done for Jesus.

The ONLY reason why I made my eight ministry websites and eight blogs is for Jesus, my blessed Lord, Savior and God. Everything that we do for Jesus' and the Gospel's sake will be rewarded by God in eternity. What saith the Scripture? Revelation 14:13, "And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

" I love that passage of Scripture. When we breathe our last dying breath, and our guardian angels appear for the first time to take us home to Heaven, our time spent laboring for Christ on earth will be over. The $64,000 question arises doesn't it? What have we done for Jesus?

Let Me Introduce You Dear Reader To Pastor Charles T. Studd

Charles Thomas Studd, better known as C.T. Studd (1860-1931), was a British missionary. He was born on December 2, 1860, in Spratton, United Kingdom, into a family of wealth and privilege. In 1883 he graduated from Trinity College, Cambridge, and in 1885 entered the missions field with Hudson Taylor in China. C.T. Studd spent his life in dedicated service to the Lord, serving in China, India, and Africa.

Only One Life, Twill Soon Be Past

by C.T. Studd

Two little lines I heard one day,
Traveling along life’s busy way;
Bringing conviction to my heart,
And from my mind would not depart;
Only one life, ’twill soon be past,
Only what’s done for Christ will last.

Only one life, yes only one,
Soon will its fleeting hours be done;
Then, in ‘that day’ my Lord to meet,
And stand before His Judgement seat;
Only one life, ’twill soon be past,
Only what’s done for Christ will last.

Only one life, the still small voice,
Gently pleads for a better choice
Bidding me selfish aims to leave,

And to God’s holy will to cleave;
Only one life, ’twill soon be past,
Only what’s done for Christ will last.

Only one life, a few brief years,
Each with its burdens, hopes, and fears;
Each with its clays I must fulfill.
living for self or in His will;
Only one life, ’twill soon be past,
Only what’s done for Christ will last.

When this bright world would tempt me sore,
When Satan would a victory score;
When self would seek to have its way,
Then help me Lord with joy to say;
Only one life, ’twill soon be past,
Only what’s done for Christ will last.

Give me Father, a purpose deep,
In joy or sorrow Thy word to keep;
Faithful and true what e’er the strife,
Pleasing Thee in my daily life;
Only one life, ’twill soon be past,
Only what’s done for Christ will last.

Oh let my love with fervor burn,
And from the world now let me turn;
Living for Thee, and Thee alone,
Bringing Thee pleasure on Thy throne;
Only one life, ’twill soon be past,
Only what’s done for Christ will last.

Only one life, yes only one,
Now let me say, “Thy will be done”;
And when at last I’ll hear the call,
I know I’ll say “twas worth it all”;
Only one life, ’twill soon be past,
Only what’s done for Christ will last.

_ _ extra stanza _ _

Only one life, ’twill soon be past,
Only what’s done for Christ will last.
And when I am dying, how happy I’ll be,
If the lamp of my life has been burned out for Thee.

That last stanza made C.T. Studd famous! These are some of the most quoted words in Christendom today...

Only one life, ’twill soon be past,

Only what’s done for Christ will last.

And when I am dying, how happy I’ll be,

If the lamp of my life has been burned out for Thee.

When the hearse carries our dead body off to some lonely gravesite to be buried, all that will matter then is whether you DIED IN YOUR SINS (John 8:24), or if your DIED IN THE LORD (Revelation 14:13). If you die in your sins without Christ, Hell will be your eternal damnation; if you die in the Lord, Heaven will be your eternal bliss and happiness.

Preach The Gospel To Lay Up Treasures In Heaven

Dear friend, I know 100 % according to the inspired Holy Bible that I will die in the Lord, because I have been born-again by faith alone in Jesus Christ, having received His sacrifice on the cross as full payment for my sins, and believing that after being buried for three days He physically resurrected from the dead. These FACTS comprise the Gospel by which all who BELIEVE IT are saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4; Romans 1:16). That is my ONLY hope for forgiveness of sins and eternal life.

If you don’t already KNOW, as I do, that your name is written in Heaven (in the Lamb’s Book of Life), then you can know right now. Simply BELIEVE (trust, place your confidence in) this GOOD NEWS! Simply BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for you through Calvary’s cross!

“It just can’t be that easy!,” perhaps you say. Yes dear reader, the new birth is that easy. Everything that is difficult or hard about getting saved is God’s part. Our part is only to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31).

For those who are born-again, the only thing that will matter when your heart beats its last beat, will be what did you do for Jesus during your time on earth as a believer? Please read the parable of The Sower And The Seed in Luke 8:11-15. Will you be among the seeds who never grew deep roots—so when persecution arose you quit, never maturing in the Lord to win souls to Him? More than likely you will fall among the thorns—choked by the cares, riches and pleasures of this temporary life, never maturing to become a soulwinner. Sadly, very few believers are among those faithful children of God in Luke 8:15, "But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience." God's earnest desire for every believer is that we all become faithful soulwinners, sharing the Gospel with the lost (Matthew 28:19-20).

The Bible has much to say about saints earning rewards in Heaven. One of my favorite Scripture passages is found in Hebrews 6:10, " For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister. " If you labor for Christ as I humbly do, then you also know that at times we feel weary and wonder if our labors are in vain for nothing. Google has censored 95 % of my web traffic over the past several years, which I admit has discouraged me a lot. I sometimes feel like I'm just wasting my time. Yet, I know in my heart of hearts that my labors are never in vain in the Lord, because God said that they're not. 1st Corinthians 15:58, " Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord."

Pray, Fast, Give To The Lord's Work and The Poor, To Lay Up Rewards

We can also earn rewards by labouring in prayer. I receive many emails from frustrated Christians who tell me that God never answers their prayers. To be honest friend, I feel the same way! It is true. But may I remind you that as saints we are commanded to WALK BY FAITH, and not BY SIGHT. 2nd Corinthians 5:7,

"(For we walk by faith, not by sight:) " If we refuse to pray because it doesn't seem like God is answering, then are we not foolishly living by sight? When I behold God's amazing handiwork in creation, I am convinced that God exists (Psalms 19:1-3). When I read the King James Bible, I am convinced that they are God's inspired Words (2nd Timothy 3:16). Since I received Jesus as my personal Savior at age 13 in 1980, I have felt the blessed presence of the Holy Spirit indwelling me. So just because my prayer life feels like that of an atheist, doesn't compel me to become one! I share the same sentiments with suffering Job in the Old Testament, who exclaimed in Job 13:15,

" Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him."

We can earn rewards by praying and fasting. Remember, God doesn't reward us for answered prayer, but for our labors. Prayer is labor! Colossians 4:12, "

Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.

" Pastor Jack Hyles had a widow at the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, who did nothing but pray for Dr. Hyles whenever he traveled to go preaching around the world each week. She was given a copy of Dr. Hyles' preaching schedule, so she could pray for him diligently as he preached the truth.

There are thousands of little things that we can all do to serve God. I used to buy eggs at the grocery store when I lived in Chicago. The eggs came from a farm in southern Illinois. All of their egg cartons had Bible verses from the King James Bible imprinted on them. I met another man one day who worked collecting garbage. He had written out the Gospel with some Bible verses, which he personally handed to people as he worked his pickup route each day.

I heard Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) this week preach a helpful sermon titled, "[1]Lucky Canaan." The sermon is about being a humble servant for God. The way up is still down! I encourage you to listen to the sermon. Jesus said he that is GREATEST among you shall be your SERVANT. Very few pastors today have a servant's heart. Instead they have an employee's heart, while working only to collect their disgusting 6-digit salary. I'm talking about the [2]shameful façade at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) which masquerades as a so-called " institution. Please don't be deceived, [3]PCC is far from a Christian place!

Christian

Dear reader, we are all living on borrowed time from God. One of my hobbies is studying the biographies of famous people (both saved and unsaved). People are interesting, aren't they. I enjoy learning about the lives of others, especially famous people. In fact, did you know that the Old Testament is a collection of biographies. Romans 15:4, "For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope." Evangelist Lester Roloff (1914-1982) rightly said that the Old Testament will put iron in your blood. I like that!

This is just a brief blog that I wrote today, to encourage you to get busy serving God to lay up treasures in Heaven. I've heard preachers falsely teach that if your motives are wrong that God won't rewards your labors. I don't see that taught anywhere in the Scriptures! Show me where the Bible says you won't be rewarded if your motives are wrong! Now, you must be saved to receive rewards, otherwise you'll end up in the same sinking boat as the people in Matthew 7:21-23. They boasted in their own defense of having done "many wonderful works." They boasted that they'd "prophesied" (preached) in Jesus' name. They cried out "Lord, Lord" to Jesus, explaining that they had become Christ followers on earth. Matthew 7:23, "And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." In their own minds they had done everything right. They dotted their i's and crossed their t's. Unfortunately for them, they wrongly assumed. Proverbs 16:25, "There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death."

God will reward me (and every other preacher who faithfully upholds THE TRUTH) in Heaven for my labors (Titus 1:9-14). Dr. Jack Hyles used to rightly say: □□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□ □□ □□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□. I love that truth! I have lost and suffered greatly in my personal life, because of unjust persecution from wicked pastors who mistreated, shunned, ostracized and ultimately banned me from returning to church. God will avenge me in time (Matthew 18:6; Luke 17:2; Romans 12:19-21; Galatians 6:7; 1st Thessalonians 4:6). God is good. I learned decades ago to never blame God for the horrible things that professed Christians have done to hurt me in my life. Christians are people at best, and people are sinners at best.

If you are a born-again believer, I encourage you to get busy serving God. When we get to Heaven, all that will matter is what we did for Christ. The measurement of my success when I get to Heaven won't be how many people showed up at my funeral on earth; but rather, how many people are waiting to greet me when I get to Heaven. Thank you for reading my blog.

5.3.2 Unsaved People Are Doing What They're Supposed To Do (2024-03-04 11:45)

Ephesians 4:17-24, "This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. But ye have not so learned Christ; If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness."

At church yesterday my Baptist pastor said something that I often forget. He said that when we see and hear shocking things in the news, we shouldn't be shocked. Unsaved people are just doing what they are supposed to do. He is right! Oh, how this dark sinful world needs Jesus!

I went to a local grocery store yesterday after church. A black man was sitting on one of the pylons in the parking lot. He asked me for a couple dollars. I was feeling happy after church, so I kindly told him to wait a moment. I went back to my car and grabbed a Gospel of John. I had been saving my spare one and five dollars bills over the months. I grabbed the small wad of money (about $40) and handed it to him. I said, "Here you go my friend, and I pat him on the shoulder." I had expected the man to be very thankful, but he didn't even thank me. Instead he asked me to additionally go buy him some soda and chips.

I didn't say it, but I thought in my heart: "What an ingrate!"

I pointed out that I had just handed him about $40, but my words went unnoticed. He again asked me to go buy him some munchies. I kindly refused (because he now had enough money to buy whatever he wanted in the store) and then I walked away. I don't know if he is mentally ill, but he was mumbling even as I walked into the store. I admit that I went to the front isle of the store, to check my vehicle to see if he was throwing a brick through my windshield...lol. I remembered what my pastor had said about the world, that they are just being sinners. That is what they are. We ought not be shocked that lost sinners behave as sinners. They only have a sin nature.

Then I bought some groceries and left to go home. As I was driving down the street in my neighborhood, I saw a young black woman walking on the right sidewalk. She was looking at my vehicle.

I had my windows down a few inches.

As I very often do, I lifted a couple fingers off my steering wheel just to say,

"Hello." People living in the country in rural areas greet each other that way all the time. She started cursing me at the top of her lungs, yelling obscenities as I drove by. I don't know this woman. I had never scene her before. I thought in my heart, "Wow, what a bit*h!" Clearly she was not in her right mind. Then I remembered what my pastor had said yesterday in his sermon, that the world are doing exactly what they are supposed to do. They don't know the precious Savior.

I went home and prayed for those black folks. I'll tell you, there's a lot of racism in the south, from both whites and blacks. I had never felt racial tension before until I moved to Pensacola. When I first moved to Pensacola in 2021 and needed to rent a motel room, the black woman in front of me was required by management to undergo a criminal background check (which they said she failed). Nobody ever asked me for one, they just gave me a room. Many blacks (especially among the black youth) are angry at white people. This world can be such an ugly place because of sin.

I thought today about the ten lepers whom Jesus miraculously healed, but only one bothered to return to thank Him. Luke 17:17-18, "And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine? There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger." I can hear some religious churchgoing Pharisee now, "Oh Jesus, you're so negative, let's stay positive!" Even our dear Savior and Lord felt hurt by the horrible way that people treat each other. I believe that one leper who returned got saved, because we read about his faith in Luke 17:19, "And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole." I don't think Jesus is speaking here about the healing of the man's leprosy; but rather, the redeeming of his soul.

The Sinful Lost World Needs Jesus Christ

I am saddened day by day as I hear the death toll ever rising in Palestine. The Jews hate the Palestinian people so much, that they open fired on hungry people just trying to get some food to survive. Where is justice? Many years ago I bought some intriguing books from Christian author Salem Kirban (1925-2010). I saw a photo and caption in one of his books that has stuck with me over the years. It was a photo from the early 1970's during the protests across the country during the time of the Vietnam War. The photos showed a police officer beating a long-haired young man with a Billy Club. The caption asked the question: Do you see a young punk getting what he deserves, or do you see a police officer abusing his power of authority? If you are a Christian, you should see two people who desperately need Jesus Christ.

With that truth in mind, my humble perspective on the Middle East is that both the Jews and the Arabs desperately need Jesus Christ. It is utter wickedness for churches all across the United States to blindly side with Israel, when in truth there are no more Christians in Israel today than there are in Palestine!!! Both places are 99 % heathen! I hate and reject the falsehood of [1]Zionism, which idolizes manmade Israel while hating Arabs people. I want no part of that demonic unbiblical insanity!

I try not to listen to too much news because it is depressing and so negative. The old adage is true: If it bleeds, it leads. I sometimes I like to watch crime shows like Forensic Files and Cold Case Files, to learn as a Baptist preacher what little sins and unwise decisions in people's lives often led them into life destroying behavior and demonic chaos. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) was right: Behind every tragedy in human character is a slow process of wicked thinking. However, I cannot watch too much of such creepy crime shows because it disturbs my soul. I admit that I have often felt shocked by the evils that humans are capable of, and their utter lack of respect or compassion for life. I was disturbed to learn that there are now over 2,000 crime shows made for television.

The world are doing what they are supposed to be doing. Why should we be shocked that sinners sin? I mean, is it shocking that a pig would run for the mudhole and bathe in the mud? You can remove a pig from a farm and fancy him up. You can give the pig a bath to make him clean. You can put some cologne and nice clothes tailored just for a pig, to make him look gentlemanly for the lady pigs. You can try to refine Mr. Pig all you want. However, the moment that you release him back onto the farm to run free, he's going to head for the nearest mudhole and do what pigs do best, get dirty! The same is true of sinful human beings.

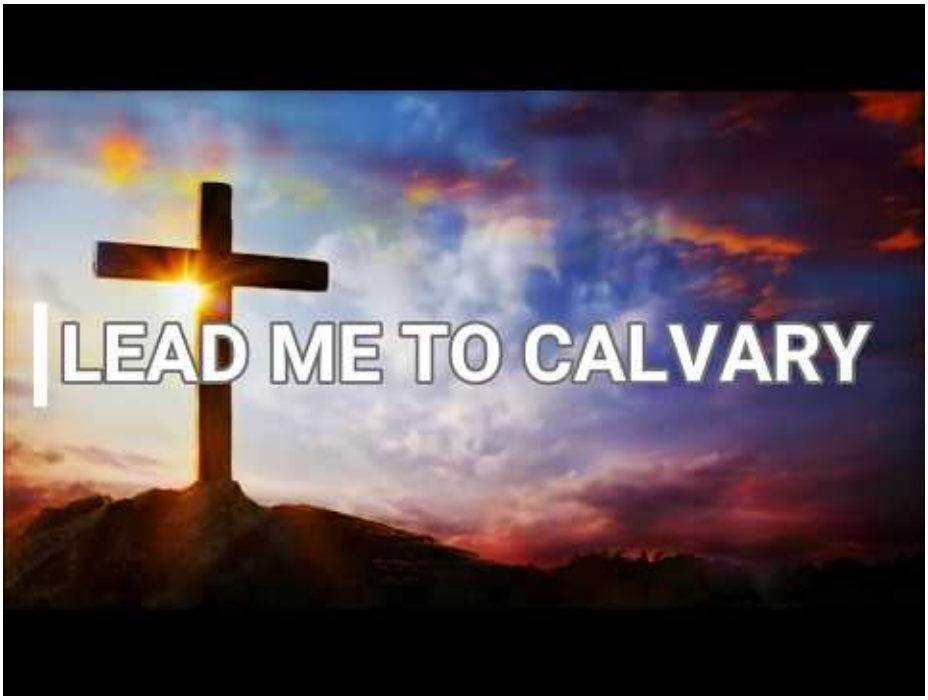
Christians Must Be Transformed In Our Thinking

This is why the Holy Bible teaches that as believers our mind must be TRASNFORMED. Romans 12:1-2, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." That is why I listen to lots of Bible preaching, to have my mind transformed. When a lost sinner gets saved by trusting in Jesus Christ, the ONLY thing that they get is God's gift of the indwelling Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24; Ephesians 1:13-14; Romans 8:9). Getting saved (born again) doesn't change a person's character one bit! You just now have the Holy Spirit living inside you, and He will begin to attempt to change you.

The unsaved person doesn't have, know or even see the Holy Spirit. John 14:17, "

Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. " I got saved at the young age if 13, thankfully. So I didn't have many years of darkness in my life before I was saved. I am so grateful to God for that! Looking back in hindsight, before I was saved at age 13, there is no memory of God. There is only darkness in my mind. It feels quite frightening to be honest, to have no recollection of God's presence at all in my life as a child. Albeit, since the glorious day that God saved me in 1980 (it could have been 1979), I do not remember), by faith alone in His only begotten Son, I have felt the sweet abiding presence of God's wonderful blessed Holy Spirit in me.

We ought not feel shocked when we read horrifying news. People are just being people! Even the best Christ is still a dirty rotten sinner. You may be a saved and Heavenbound sinner, but you are still a sinner by nature and by choice (and so am I). All we can do as God's children is to walk closely with Jesus, and pray for God to help us live righteously by faith in Christ Jesus (Galatians 2:20). The Christian life is lived by faith, not by sight (2nd Corinthians 5:7).



By the way, please notice in Romans 12:1 that presenting our body as a living sacrifice to God is our "reasonable service." That is, God purchased us from eternal damnation with His blood (Acts 20:28; 1st Peter 1:18-19; 1st Corinthians 6:20). Jesus laid down His life on Calvary's cross as a sacrificial Lamb, to die for our sin debt. The least reasonable thing we can do for Him (although it is not required to get to Heaven) is to offer up our body as a living sacrifice to live for Christ. Jesus gladly died for us, so we should gladly live for Him.

I like something that my ministry friend Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold said in a sermon:

> "Christ paid for my sins. If He paid for my sins, why would I have to go to Hell to pay for my sins? All He wanted me to do was believe that He did it all for me. That is the greatest news in all the world! And no man, no preacher, has the authority to change the Gospel message. Just because you don't see how it works, or understand how it works—you don't have to know, it ain't none of our business; but God says there is a Heaven and a Hell, and if you want to go to Heaven this is what you do, and your opinion don't count." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, "[2]Legalistic Judaism is Today's Calvinism"

Oh, how the world needs Jesus! When this short earthly life is over, nothing else will matter except Jesus. Did you trust Him to save you? For those who are saved, did you live for Him? How many lost sinners did you share the Gospel with? Did the dying world see Christ's unconditional love in you? What did YOU do for Jesus with your earthly life?

Thank you for reading.

5.3.3 Beware Of The Scam Of Lordship Salvation (2024-03-05 13:12)

Acts 15:1, "And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved."

I learned years ago that there are actually pastors who expose the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, while preaching their own Satanic falsehood of wrong repentance. But to be truthful there's not a dime's difference between the two counterfeit plans of salvation because they both add WORKS to God's saving grace to get to Heaven, which is another Gospel.

My ministry friend Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold defines "

Lordship Salvation

for us:

> "Lordship Salvation is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the performance of good works, the promise of good works, or the evidence of good works, must accompany faith in Christ to establish or provide evidence that such faith has resulted in eternal life." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, [1]"Jesus Versus John MacArthur"

Here is my humble definition of Wrong Repentance:

> "Wrong repentance is the unbiblical teaching that to get to Heaven a lost person must be willing to forsake their sinful bad habits. This heresy says that admitting one is a guilty sinner is not enough to be saved, you must also have a profound hatred, sorrow and regret over sin that causes your behavior to change."

Biblically, the Devil's lies of Lordship Salvation and Wrong Repentance are demonic scams! Although slightly different in meaning, both falsehoods are based on the premise that faith is not enough to save a sinner, more is required. Although some foolish preachers will attempt to refute Lordship Salvation, while at the same time endorsing Wrong Repentance, an honest person can easily see that Wrong Repentance is a form of Lordship Salvation.

In the following helpful excerpt from his book titled, "I Never Knew You," Michael P. Bowen kindly refutes Pastor Beth Moore's false plan of salvation:

> While I appreciate what Beth Moore has done for so many people, and I am behind her all the way in continuing to help as many people as she possibly can through both bible and popular psychological concepts that provide real encouragement and healing in these desperate, uncertain times, Moore's plan of salvation will not save anyone because the addition of "turning from sins" to singular, simple faith in Christ is not the plan of salvation according to the bible. Look at this: "And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses" (Acts 13:39). Here, God is speaking through Paul. Paul did not write the book of Acts, rather, God wrote Acts "through" Paul. God is literally telling us that we are made righteous through faith alone in what Christ did for us by His death and subsequent resurrection from the dead, and that deeds of the law, such as "turning from sins" will not justify us. Neither will any combination of partial faith in Christ coupled with partial faith in turning from your sins save you. By implication, "believing on Christ" always refers to the fact of what He did for us at Calvary. The gospel message is the same throughout all of scripture. Those in the Old Testament looked "forward" to what Christ would do for them, and everyone from the time of Christ's resurrection to this very day look "backward" to what Christ accomplished for us by His finished work at Calvary. The gospel message of Jesus Christ, i.e., the "plan of salvation according to Jesus Christ," is always the same and it never changes. This message is: 1) we cannot save ourselves, 2) Jesus died for our sins, 3) His dead body was buried, and 4) Jesus arose from the dead three days later. "He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God" (1 John 5:10-13). —Michael P. Bowen, "I NEVER KNEW YOU," pp. 83-84

Bravo! I love and appreciate Michael Bowen's gift of writing. He is direct and gets the simple point across that we are made righteous in God's sight solely by Christ's sacrifice on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection from the dead, and not by our own self-reformation. Turning from one's sins is manmade reformation, in which you are required to change your own behavior as a prerequisite to saving faith. This is not the Gospel of free grace that is presented in the inspired King James Bible.

Tragically, over 95 % of churches today are corrupt.

5.3.4 Why I Cancelled My Order With Alex Jones' Infowars (2024-03-11 20:18)

Proverbs 28:22, "He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

I recently went to place an order at INFOWARS.COM for some of Alex Jones' products. I knew that he was overcharging me for his standard quality products. But what pissed me off was when I went to check out and they charged me $20 for handing and shipping. Uh, no thanks! I cancelled the entire order and haven't ordered anything from Alex since. I don't mind paying extra money for a product, knowing if it goes for something I believe in. But when you double screw me financially because you're greedy, I draw the line! It's too much greed!!!

Having Said That, I Love And Support Alex Jones

I started following Alex Jones' INFOWARS website in 2002, the same year that I started my [1]Jesus-is-Savior.com website ministry. There's absolutely no reason why Alex cannot offer FREE handling and shipping to his millions of customers. Alex takes in tens of millions of dollars. He recently was sued in the state of Connecticut and ordered by a court to pay $965,000,000 in damages to the families of the allegedly Sandy Hook victims in 2012. Personally, [2]I still don't think anyone died at Sandy Hook.

The FBI's website showed ZERO murders in 2012 for Newtown, Connecticut. We'll have to wait until we all enter into eternity to learn the truth about what really happened at Sandy Hook. Alex Jones has a right to his opinion. What the state of Connecticut has done to Alex is tyranny, injustice and criminal in God's sight. When you cannot speak your opinion for fear of prosecution, we are no longer a free society. Senator Adlai Stevenson rightly said that a truly FREE society is only one in which it is safe to be unpopular.

There's a lot of shady details surrounding the events before, during and after the alleged atrocity. I don't but the official narrative. The governor of Connecticut threatened to arrest and imprison anyone who dared to question the official Sandy Hook narrative. That is fascist tyranny! I am sick and tired of our corrupt complicity leaders telling us to shut up or go to prison. Where is justice? Where is freedom of speech? Scumbags' Bill O'Reilly and Sean Hannity at Fox News did the same evil thing in 2001 and beyond, demonizing anyone who dared to question the official 911 narrative, [3]which has been 100 % proven to be fraudulent.

Why I Cancelled My Membership With Amazon's 'Prime'

I sincerely think Alex would sell a lot more stuff if he would offer FREE handling and shipping. I know that I would order stuff from him. But I refuse to be taken advantage of! I order from Amazon.com all the time, because they give me FREE handling and shipping. I had signed up to become a Prime member years ago, because Amazon showed a bunch of movies that you can watch, and there was one titled that I really wanted to see. To become a Prime member back then I think cost about $125 for the year, but I cannot remember the exact amount.

So after I signed up I went to watch the movie titled that I wanted, but Amazon wanted another $3.99 for me to watch that particular title, which pissed me off so bad that I immediately cancelled my Prime subscription!!! They made me wait 30 days before I could cancel. They tried at least seven or eight times to get me to reconsider, but my mind was already made up. I hate greedy people!!! Isaiah 56:11, "

Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter.

Amazon lied to me! It is fraudulent advertising. They lured me in by offering over 100,000 movie titles if I become a Prime member, but what they didn't bother to tell me is that for certain select titles you have to pay extra. That is deceitful, like the shenanigans the serpent played with Eve in the Garden o f Eden. Amazon in their greed want to nickel and dime people to death, which I refuse to let anyone do to me.

I don't like unethical greedy people or companies. Until Alex Jones stops being greedy I won't order anything from Infowars. Until Amazon changes their greedy policies and stops trying to nickel and dime customers to death, I won't sign up for Prime. I hate shady advertising!!! I don't care what it is, once I realize that I have been lied to, I am done and will leave if I can.

Having said that, tens of millions of churchgoers today have been lied to, deceived by their ungodly neo-evangelical pastors. Lordship Salvation is a perversion of the Gospel. You've likely heard a preacher say that you must, "Repent of your sins" or "Turn from your sins" to get to Heaven. Well, they lied to you! Nowhere can you show me in a King James Bible where it says to do these things! In Acts 16:30-31 the Philippian jailer in Rome asked: "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" The answer Paul and Silas gave was simply: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved." Amen and amen! Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do to be saved.

5.3.5 Isn't The King James Bible Too Hard To Read? (2024-03-13 11:59)

Matthew 5:18, "For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled."

Certain portions of the Holy Bible have always been hard to understand. One of Jesus' very own apostles, Peter, had difficulty understanding Paul's writings:

> 2nd Peter 3:15-16, "And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you; As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction."

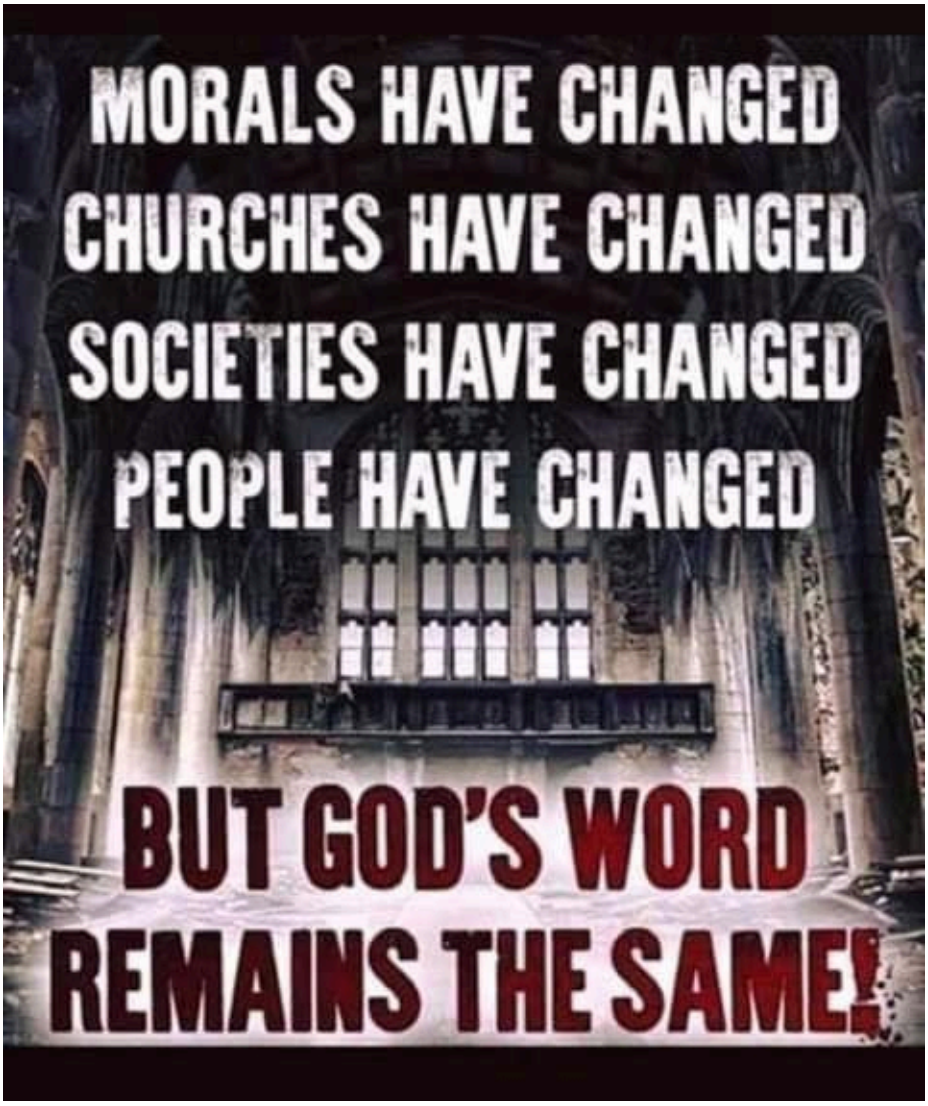
The Apostle Peter admitted that he had difficulty understanding the writings of Paul. Nothing has changed 2,000 years later, except that with the invention of the internet we now have an incredible [1]access to information and study tools that Christians even a hundred years ago could only have dreamed of having. We are so blessed!

Having said that, I humbly think that the common man can understand God's inspired Word, if he or she studies, just as Peter had to do. The false idea that we need a new Bible that reads like a newspaper or comic book that any lazy person can understand is not biblical. We are exhorted in the Bible in 2nd Timothy 2:15 to "study" to rightly divide the Word of Truth.

God authored the Bible in such a way that even unlearned men can read it and have their lives changed if they are humble and pure of heart, while highly educated scholars and learned men can read the Bible and remain unchanged because of their self-righteousness and pride that blinds them. Having a proper attitude toward God's Word is far more important than trying to water it down so that even Christ-rejecters can understand it. The Bible teaches in 1st Corinthians 2:14-16 that the natural (unsaved) man cannot understand the Scriptures. So, it is a folly to attempt to reduce the Bible to the level of hellbound infidels.

Here is a link to a missionary in China, who uses the English King James Bible as his basis to [2]translate God's Word into dozens of other languages for the common people. I find no fault in the inspired King James Bible!!!

The Devil's modern Bible revisions may be easier to read, but since they are doctrinally corrupt the truth has been obliterated. The new bibles horribly change what it means to repent. They change God's simple plan of salvation, adding Lordship Salvation to faith, perverting the Gospel. The new Devil's bibles ruthlessly attack Jesus' deity, remove the Godhead (Triunity), and pervert the Scriptures.



I thank God for the more difficult to understand King James Bible. I got saved at age 13. I had a hard time understanding some passages of Scripture, but I understand 95 % of what I was reading. The [3]Gospel of John (God's Gospel tract) is very easy to read and comprehend. The King James Bible reads at a 5th grade level. The Devil's New International Version (NIV) reads at a 7th grade level. We don't need a new Bible version. The King James is not a " version,

it is God's inspired Word, the Holy Bible!

5.3.6 Should Christians Watch 'THE CHOSEN' Television Series? (2024-03-13 12:23)

I found this excellent needful article this week, with which I fully agree. I don't like The Chosen series. To me it it way too yuppyish!

Also, unsaved Mormons love the series! That alone should show true Christians what is wrong with the film series. When a hellbound cult love a Bible movie series, something is very wrong! The true Gospel must exclude all forms of works and self righteousness. Mormons are not born-again believers because they adhere to a works-based corrupt plan of salvation.

Also, Mormons have another Jesus (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4) who is not God. According to the inspired King James Bible, Jesus is almighty God (Revelation 1:8; John 1:1-3, 14; John 10:33; 1st Timothy 3:16). Without further ado, here is the article:

> Season 4 of the wildly popular series The Chosen hits theaters tonight. The show has been viewed over four million times and has gained an almost cult-like following since its premier in 2017. Its popularity alone should be a red flag. The Bible is pretty clear that Jesus Christ and true Christianity will be largely hated and rejected by the world. So when something about Jesus is accepted and applauded, it's good for us to pause and ask why. Does this show glorify God? Does it accurately portray Jesus Christ and His Word? Is it something we should watch?
>
> I'd have to conclude that the answer to those questions is a resounding no. Here's 8 reasons why:
>
> 1. Dallas Jenkins - I've talked about this before, so I'm only going to touch on it. Jenkins is the producer and creative mind behind the show. He has made it clear that he believes Mormons, Catholics, and Christians "love the same Jesus" and have only a few minor theological differences. He put together a group of spiritual advisors to make sure "he gets Christ right" and that panel consists of an Evangelical, a Catholic priest, and a Jewish Rabbi. Is it possible for any those men to work together and get Christ right? So how can we trust this show to accurately portray Jesus Christ? But God told Dallas Jenkins that this show was going to be a "definitive portrayal of my people" and that "He wouldn't let him screw it up." Spoiler alert: that wasn't God speaking to him.
>
> 2. Jonathan Roumie - Roumie is a devout Roman Catholic who plays the part of Jesus. He has a massive fan base and his influence is heavily promoted by The Chosen on social media. From his partnership with the Catholic, new age meditation app called Hallow (where you can pray the rosary with him or follow along with his guided meditations) to his deep love for the Pope to his weird practices (like laying on the grave of Lonnie Frisbee and praying to him for a sign before playing him in the Jesus Revolution movie), he's really bad news and leading many people astray.
>
> 3. Adding to the Bible - The writers will tell you that they're simply using their imagination to fill in the gaps of the Biblical narrative. But is that okay? Proverbs 30:6 and Revelation 22:18-19 warn us not to add or take away from the Word of God. "Oh, but this show isn't pretending to be Scripture or trying to replace the Bible!" And yet they are adding to the very words of Christ. Sit back and think about that for a minute. Sinful, probably even unsaved, men are adding to the very words of Christ. It's a big deal, whether you think so or not. They're adding man's ideas to what God alone has communicated and therefore are distorting His Word. God told us exactly what He wanted us to know, no more and no less.
>
> 4. Straying from the Bible - Dallas Jenkins claims to be portraying the "authentic Jesus" and insists that he stays true to what IS in Scripture while simply "filling in the gaps" with what isn't. You would expect, then, that the show would portray any event or conversation specifically recorded in the Bible exactly the way the Bible describes it. But it doesn't.
>
> Here's just a few of the many, many examples throughout the first 3 seasons:
>
> The show portrays the conversation between Jesus and Nicodemus that we find in John 3:1-21. But the conversation is nothing like the passage. They added some things, omitted some things, (verses 19-21, conveniently) and ultimately distorted the entire dialogue. On top of that, Jesus asks him, “What does your heart tell you?” and when Nicodemus kneels before him, Jesus stops him. (Two things we know the true Jesus never would have said or done.)

For the scenes from the Sermon on the Mount, they obviously couldn’t include the entire discourse. But their jesus didn’t even preach the sermon in the same order as it appears in Scripture. He jumped all around. I’ll give you one guess as to what portions they chose and what portions they left out. (Hint: loving your neighbor, don’t judge lest you be judged, and the golden rule made the cut while the parts about sin, judgement, and the narrow way did not.)

In Matthew 11, John the Baptist sent his disciples to ask Jesus “Are you the one who is to come, or should we expect someone else?” and Jesus’ response is recorded. The Chosen, once again, changes what is clearly written in Scripture. “Even he [John the Baptist] has questions!” is added twice, among other things. Verses 21-30 are left out entirely.

John the Baptist is portrayed as disrespectful and headstrong. He responds to Jesus in frustration, “You appear not to be ready to get into specifics about a lot of things!” Then he marches to tell Herod off against Jesus’ advice with a spiteful “My followers will love it!” But John said he was unworthy even to untie the strap of Jesus’ sandal (John 1:27) and that “He [Jesus] must increase, but I must decrease.” (John 3:30) John the Baptist would never have disrespected Jesus Christ nor made a contest of his followers vs the followers of Jesus. It’s all so absurd.

The writers changed the order and manner in which the disciples were called. Mary Magdalene is called as the first disciple. Jesus sets up an interview with Judas Iscariot. Again, it’s something so clearly recorded in Scripture, so why deviate from it?

In the show, Jesus was arrested and let go prior to his arrest at the Mount of Olives. But we know this couldn’t be true. Jesus escaped arrest every time because “His hour had not yet come” and was only arrested once, right before his crucifixion.

I could give you many more examples of this. Even if you rationalize filling in the gaps of the Biblical narrative to create a story, there is no literally no excuse for taking creative license and changing what is made abundantly clear in Scripture.

5. Undermining the divinity of Christ - For the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus asks for “help” from Matthew on what he should say. Jesus nervously rehearses well-known passages. One article says that the show reveals to us that “Jesus’ moments of powerful teaching were not, as we assume, simply an overflow of his own divine genius, but were rather the fruit of the collaboration of his entire team of disciples.” That’s heresy right there. In one scene, Mary tells Jesus that she’s proud of him, and he says “maybe wait to say that until after I’m done, in case I mess up in front of such a big crowd.” Jesus confessed to being nervous about performing miracles. This is a really big deal, you guys. They are very purposefully undermining the divinity of Jesus Christ as God. He never would have messed up. He never would have needed help coming up with what to say. He never would have needed to rehearse anything.

6. Undermining the inspiration of Scripture - Throughout the series, disciples like John and Matthew interview people and run around jotting everything down in their notepads. These notes will later become their supposed Biblical books. And so the Bible is portrayed as a common book comprised of hearsay. But we know that “Holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the holy ghost”. We know that they were eyewitness accounts according to John 1:1-3 and 2 Peter 1:16. The show even attributes John 21:25 to Mary Magdalene and not John himself. She says the line to him and he says “that’s good, I’m going to use that.” It’s a subtle deconstruction of inspiration that turns the Bible into hearsay and fable rather than inspired truth.

7. Downplaying repentance - You would think that the call to repentance would take center stage since Jesus Himself said He came to call sinners to repentance. In the first three seasons, you might hear the word repentance three or four times and even then without conviction or elaboration. When their Jesus quotes Luke 4:32, he says “I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners...”, conveniently leaving out “to repentance.” The disciples sinful lifestyles - addictions, drinking, fighting, gambling, bad attitudes - are overdone. It’s not that the disciples would never have sinned, but I think they would have repented and been seeking to please God. The magnitude of sin and the need to repent and turn from that sin is diminished and largely ignored.

8. The ecumenical agenda - At the end of the day, this show is just being used to set the stage for the antichrist. The world will think that the antichrist IS Jesus Christ. All religions will unite around him. Catholics, Mormons, “Christians”, and everyone in between. This jesus will look a whole lot like this jesus of The Chosen. Accepting and loving. He won’t call people to repentance but to unity. And he sure won’t care about “minor theological differences” or the infallibility of Scripture. Everything this show is doing is very purposeful. Tearing down walls between religions? Check. Undermining the divinity of Jesus Christ so He’s more human than God (just like the Mormon jesus)? Check. Making Scripture appear fallible and uninspired? Check. If you can subtly convince people of those three things, you’ve destroyed Christianity. And that’s what this show is doing.

Do some people watch the show and then read their Bible and come to Salvation? Maybe! But that doesn’t make the show itself a good thing. God can use anything. Can mature Christians watch it, eating the meat and spitting out the bones? No. Unless you have every word of the Gospels memorized, you will never be able to determine where Scripture ends and their imagination begins.

I’m not condemning those of you have watched it or are watching it. They are very subtle and include just enough Biblical truth to make it hard to see what they’re actually doing. But I am calling you away from it. I promise that you will walk away with a completely contorted view of the Gospels and of Jesus Christ. It will affect the way you read and understand the Bible, and not for the better.

This show does not glorify God, does not honor or stay true to His Word, and is preparing the world for the uniting of all religions under the antichrist. They are portraying a false christ and we should have absolutely nothing to do with it.

5.3.7 The Foolish Woman Plucks Down Her House (2024-03-14 15:42)

Proverbs 14:1, "Every wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands."

I read this Old Testament passage of Scripture today and pondered over its meaning. I think I know what it means, by God's grace. To build anything requires time, a process. A house takes months, if not years, to complete building. Building a jumbo jet takes time (unless you work for Boeing where they skip steps and don't finish their planes and doors fall off in the air).

It took me 8 years to finish taking my courses at Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993). I remember in my second year thinking that I only have a few more years to go! Amen that I finally finished my journey. I graduated with honors in 1993. I was on the Dean's List. Praise God! By the way, attending Hyles-Anderson College was the greatest privilege and opportunity of my life, being a part of Pastor Jack Hyles' (1926-2001) ministry. I love and miss Brother Hyles so much!!!

Nothing gets built in a moment of time, including a marriage, family and home.

A wise woman knows that every step she takes, every meal she cooks, every word she speaks, every book she reads to her child, everything that she does, in some small or big way contributes to either the building or the destruction of her marriage, family and home.

6874

I humbly think this is what Solomon means in Proverbs 14:1, "Every wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands." You pluck something down one item at a time, one piece at a time, one pluck at a time. She doesn't take a match and burn her home to the ground in a second. That would be an insane woman! No, the Bible says that the foolish woman plucks down her house one piece at a time. The Hebrew word for the phrase

plucketh it down

is haras, which means,

"to pull down or in pieces, break, destroy."

The Hebrew word for "foolish" in this Bible verse is ivveleth, which means, " silliness.

" The Hebrew word for house is bayith which is a broad word implying her family. That is, a silly woman piece by piece destroys her own family! With her angry words and abusive behavior she discourages and traumatizes her children. With her rebellion, sassy mouth and nagging at her husband day by day, she wears him down and discourages him. She is a horrible wife and mother! She is lazy and a lousy cook. She lies and deceives her husband continually. She irresponsibly loses the mail, and then hides letters from collection agencies from him when they arrive.

She gossips on the phone with other rebellious women, tearing her husband down behind his back. She is a rotten apple! She is rottenness in his bones! Proverbs 14:1, "Every wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands."

The Bible teaches that women are either building up, or tearing down, her family by her every word and choice that she makes.

How's your attitude ladies?

5.3.8 A Review Of Dr. William P. Grady's Book: "What Must I Do To Be Saved?" (2024-03-14 22:01)

Galatians 1:6-8, " I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed."

I have in front of me a 63-page book by Dr. William P. Grady that I just ordered. The 2024 book is titled, "What Must I Do To Be Saved?" Pastor Grady also includes the Gospel of John and Epistle of Romans after his 63-page presentation on how to be saved. Before I say any more, my heart goes out to the Grady Family for the sudden loss of their beloved son, [1]Daniel, who at age 46 was killed in a car crash in Arkansas in 2022. The Bible warns that we never know what a day may bring (Proverbs 27:1). The important thing is to make sure you are prepared to meet thy God. That is, ye must be born again (John 3:3-7).

Dr. Grady was one of my Bible professors at Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993). I took the class “

Biographies of Great Men

by Dr. Grady. Little did I know at the time that I would someday be exposing him as a false teacher! I am going to share with you some disturbing quotes from his book, which I think you will see when compared with the inspired Scriptures are in disagreement with the Bible.

We All Have A Death Sentence Because Of Sin

In chapter one, which is titled

“A Rope of Sand,” he begins by writing:

> THE INITIAL PURPOSE of this book is to deprogram the reader from man-made “religion” in order to ground him, or her, on the truth of God’s Word, as revealed in the Holy Bible. The most important lesson to unlearn is the false notion that Heaven is a reward that is earned on earth by doing more good deeds than bad ones (i.e., a works-based salvation).
>
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, “What Must I Do To Be Saved?,” p. 1

Now, I fully agree with the latter part of the preceding quote. Eternal life is a gift, not a reward. Having said that, having already read the entire book, I am alarmed that Dr. Grady claims that his PURPOSE in this book is to “deprogram the reader from man-made religion.” I am alarmed because in fact he is PROGRAMMING the reader with false teachings, as I will show you from his numerous heretical quotes.

Most of Dr. Grady’s book is good stuff. In chapter 4 he emphasizes the truth that all lost sinners are on “ death row.

That is biblical. The Old Testament law was given to humanity is a measuring stick (Romans 3:19-20), by which when we compare ourselves we fall short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23). The law condemns all mankind to death because of our sins, and then brings us to Christ in the New Testament to be saved by God’s grace (Galatians 3:24-26). So, I agree with Dr. Grady that salvation is a gift, not a reward.

We Need More Preaching Today On The Reality Of Hell

I also agree with him in chapter 6, “The Other Place,” that the reality of Hell has been watered down in the churches today. On page 32 Dr. Grady rightly states:

> One of the main reasons why modern Americans are so flippant about eternity is that they rarely hear preaching on Hell anymore—the ultimate incentive for salvation

(i.e., “Turn or burn!”). While twenty-first century sinners may now find refuge in any number of Hell-denying “ churches,

such was not the case in our country’s formative years.

SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, “What Must I Do To Be Saved?,” p. 32

I couldn’t agree more!

Here is an excellent quote from the soulwinning man of God, Pastor Lee Roberson (1909-2007) wrote these wise words concerning eternal punishment:

Somebody says, ’The thought of Hell is so horrible.’ Well, my friend, so is cancer, so is tuberculosis, so is the grave. Someone said, ’I believe sin ought to be punished, but not for eternity.’ That’s your view, not God’s.

Again another says, ’I don’t believe in the wrath of God.’ Then you don’t believe your Bible. The Bible says the wrath of God abideth on the one who doesn’t believe in Jesus Christ. He is lost forever.

Now, these things come to us out of the Word of God. The teaching of eternal punishment should give us a hatred for sin. We ought to hate sin. The reason we have changed so much in this day in all of our churches is that we are not hearing much on this subject. Therefore, we endorse sin. We engage in sin. We camouflage the sin in our lives and allow things to go by, instead of hating sin as God wants us to hate sin . . .

The teaching of eternal punishment should give us a passion for the souls of men.

SOURCE: Dr. Lee Roberson, “Disturbing Questions... Solid Answers,” chapter 16, pp. 196-198; Sword of the Lord publishers, 1978

On pages 32 and 33, Dr. Grady shares numerous intriguing quotes from dozens of hellbound atheists regarding their views of Hell. For example, Dr. Grady writes these words concerning Hollywood actor, Arnold

Schwarzenegger

More recently, during the writing of this manuscript (2023), former California governor Arnold Schwarzenegger was asked about life after death in an interview with Danny DeVito for Interview magazine. The 75-year-old “Terminator” appropriately replied, “It reminds me of Howard Stern’s question to me. ’Tell me, Governor, what happens to us when we die?’ I said, Nothing. You’re six feet under [i.e., terminated]. Anyone that tells you something else is a (blank)ing liar.”’ (Included among these “liars” would be Arnie’s creator, the Lord Jesus Christ.)

SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, “What Must I Do To Be Saved?,” p. 33

The inspired Holy Bible tells us in 1st Corinthians 1:18, “For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.” I thank God that I got saved at age 12, before I grew older and foolish. For many years I struggled with whether I got saved at age 12 or 13. I sincerely didn’t think to jot down the date when I got saved at the time, which I now regret nearly a half century later. But after much soul-searching I am convinced that I was 12 years old. That was 1979. I’ve read that statistically, at age 70 the chances of a person ever getting saved is only 4 %. A whopping 80 % of all believers were saved before the age of 18. Amen.

Dr. Grady Gets Repentance For Salvation Wrong

Having said all that as way of introduction, now let’s move on to the bad parts of Dr. Grady’s book, in which he gets repentance for salvation wrong. In chapter 7, “What Must I Do To Be Saved?,” Dr. Grady teaches there are 3 things necessary to be saved (he uses the story of the Philippian jailer being saved in Acts 16 to prove his points):

1. Conviction (“ came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, ” Acts 16:29b)
2. Repentance (“What must I do to be saved?,” Acts 16:30b)
3. Belief (“Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ,” Acts 16:31)

Like many false teachers do, Dr. Grady is focusing on one passage of Scripture while ignoring the entire Gospel of John. Telling a lost person that they must experience conviction, and then experience repentance, before belief is confusing at best. When asked “What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?,” Jesus simply answered in John 6:29b, “This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

” Jesus didn’t tell those men to first feel conviction, then go repent. No, He simply told them to “ believe on Him.

Dr. Grady writes on page 44:

> The consummate evidence that a “convicted” sinner is finally ready to “repent” will be an unprecedented disposition to “do” whatever it takes to appease God’s wrath (i.e., because of his or her sin). This great truth is expressed in the very question that the jailer asked—“What must I do to be saved?” The implication here is that he was absolutely willing to “do” whatever Paul told him. As a person’s soul consists of a mind, emotion, and will, the process of repentance will involve all three components. Beginning with a change of mind, a change of emotions will follow, ending with the inevitable change of one’s will. In the final analysis, repentance is reduced to nothing more than a tired old sinner raising the white flag of surrender—no longer wanting his or her will—but now desiring nothing but God’s will!

> The irony in the jailer's question, "What must I do to be saved?" is that there was absolutely nothing that he had to "do" (in a technical sense) but simply believe the Gospel. Paul described this surrender of the will as "the obedience of faith" (Romans 16:26) while conversely labeling the damned as those "that obey not the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ" (II Thessalonians 1:8).
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, "What Must I Do To Be Saved?," p. 44-45

I have some serious problems with Dr. Grady's teachings on repentance, because an unsaved person upon reading all this WILL be utterly confused. Remember, he states that his book's initial PURPOSE is to "deprogram the reader from man-made religion." I don't see how Dr. Grady is helping to deprogram deceived religious people, when he fills their mind with extra junk that is not necessary to be saved. I mean, he mentions the need to repent so that you desire nothing but God's will! That can be very confusing to a lost sinner. It sounds like Dr. Grady is saying that you must be willing to submit and follow God's will in order to be saved. That is the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, not the Gospel of free grace.

In God's simple plan of salvation, you simply need to admit that you're a sinner. You need to know what you're being saved from. You are a sinner (and so am I, and everybody else too). There is a penalty on sin, which is death. This includes being cast into the Lake of Fire forever, which the Bible calls the "second death" in Revelation 21:8. The ONLY requirement to placing your faith in the Gospel to be saved is to realize that you are a hell-deserving guilty sinner. You do not need to be willing to turn from your sins, submit to obey God's will for your life, follow Jesus as Lord, be willing to forsake sinful ways, nor anything else.

And let me remind you dear reader that Dr. Grady's targeted audience for his book is the unsaved religious person:

> "After all, this is the first book I have ever attempted to write for a target audience of God-fearing, though unsaved, folks."
>
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, "What Must I Do To Be Saved?," p. 43

After reading Grady's toxic trash, there is absolutely no way that an unsaved person would even remotely benefit from reading his book. They will walk away utterly confused.

Again, Dr. Grady writes on page 44:

> The consummate evidence that a "convicted" sinner is finally ready to "repent" will be an unprecedented disposition to "do" whatever it takes to appease God's wrath (i.e., because of his or her sin).
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, "What Must I Do To Be Saved?," p. 44

This is another gospel. When you start placing restrictions, prerequisites and pressure on lost sinners to commit to make some type of change to their behavior to be saved, you have perverted God's simple plan of salvation. I don't find any Scripture in the Bible which mandates having a certain frame of mind that is willing to submit to obey God's will instead of your own self-serving sins to be saved. Dr. Grady is complicating God's simple plan of salvation.

Dr. Grady further writes on page 47:

> “The best proof that that (typo is his) a person was sincere when they initially trusted Christ, would be their subsequent efforts to please the Lord.”
>
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, “What Must I Do To Be Saved?,” p. 47

Kindly said, that is unbiblical garbage! So, according to Pastor Grady, if you don’t desire to please the Lord then you’re not really saved. That is junk theology! Did Samson desire to please God while he chased unholy skirts his entire life? Did Demas desire to please God when he forsook Paul on a missionary journey, having loved this present world? Did Lot desire to please God when he brought alcohol out of Sodom, which caused him to impregnate his two daughters while drunk? The Bible is full of sinful saints, who lived sordid lifestyles of wickedness. According to the accursed Lordship Salvation cult none of them were saved.

My ministry friend Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold gets it 100 % correct, who said:

> “Lordship Salvation is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the performance of good works, the promise of good works, or the evidence of good works, must accompany faith in Christ to establish or provide evidence that such faith has resulted in eternal life.” —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, [2]“Jesus Versus John MacArthur”

That is totally contrary to what William Grady is teaching in his misleading book. Our efforts to please the Lord is NOT evidence of the new birth. What saith the Scripture? 1st John 3:24, “And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.” The only true evidence that someone has been born-again is the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit, and that is only something that the individual can know. To properly understand the Epistle of 1st John, you need to approach the book from the viewpoint that God authored it to the individual believer. God authored the Epistle of 1st John to help YOU (as an individual) determine if you have the Holy Spirit living inside you (1st John 5:13). The evidence that we have been born anew is the free gift of God’s Holy Spirit, which every saint has (Romans 8:9).

I fully agree with Dr. Yankee Arnold, who also said:

> “If you have to look at your life to prove that you are saved, it proves that you’re not!” —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, “[3]Why Lordship Salvation is WRONG!

To be saved we simply trust Jesus Christ, receiving by faith His sacrifice on the cross, believing that He was buried, and then resurrected three days later.

1st Thessalonians 4:14, “ For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. ” It is unfortunate that Dr. Grady makes a ridiculously long deal out of conviction and repentance, which causes the reader to become boggled down with theology instead of seeing the simplicity that is in Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

Dr. William P. Grady Is A Dangerous False Prophet!

Pastor Grady makes a bunch of controversial statements which complicate the Gospel. For example: On page 47 he writes:

> The main difference between a true
> “
> possessor
> and a mere
> “
> professor
> is that the former will display his (or her) gratitude by desiring to live for God after salvation! Thus, a common Bible Belt expression says, “Watch out for those ’converts’ who ask Jesus to save them on Saturday and the FBI can’t find them on Monday.” The New Testament pattern is found in Acts 2:41-42, “Then they that gladly received his word were baptized... And they continued stedfastly in the apostles’ doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.”
>
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, “What Must I Do To Be Saved?,” p. 47

That is damnable heresy and the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation!!! Nowhere in the inspired Scriptures are we taught that we must live a changed life to prove we are really saved. Pastor Grady is foolishly mixing service with salvation. He is combining sanctification with justification. He is confusing discipleship with sonship. That is why my favorite preacher’s quote is from Pilgrim’s Progress author, John Bunyan (1628-1688), who wisely said:

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —Evangelist John Bunyan

Bravo John Bunyan!!! When bad preachers like Dr. William Grady confuse and combine a believer’s sacrifice of service (Romans 12:1) with the gift of salvation (Ephesians 2:8-9), they corrupt God’s Word and cast stumbling blocks before the people. Dr. Grady’s new book, “What Must I Do To Be Saved?,” is a stumbling block to salvation!!!

Furthermore, it is gross theological incompetence for Dr. Grady to suggest that the word “continued” in Acts 2:42 implies that every born again believer will follow the same pattern. Acts 2:42, “And they continued stedfastly in the apostles’ doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.” We read in 2nd Timothy 4:10a,

“

For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world...

” Demas didn’t adhere to Acts 2:42. In John 12:42-43 we read, “Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.” Those saved chief rulers didn't adhere to Acts 2:42. What Pastor Grady is preaching is a counterfeit plan of salvation, not the easy-believism set forth in God's Word.

Let me quote Pastor Grady again, to reiterate the heresy that he is shamefully preaching...

> The main difference between a true
> possessor
> and a mere
> professor
> is that the former will display his (or her) gratitude by desiring to live for God after salvation!
>
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, "What Must I Do To Be Saved?," p. 47

So according to Bill Grady, you are not saved unless your behavior changes. He errantly teaches that you must desire to live for God to prove you're saved. It gets much worse in his horrible book. Look what he writes on page 46:

> When a sinner raises that white flag of surrender, he or she is essentially coming clean with theirself—acknowledging that they no longer want to do their thing, but rather God's thing.
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, "What Must I Do To Be Saved?," p. 46

Dr. Grady cleverly manipulates the Bible to appease both sides of the debate. That is, the debate between free grace believers, versus the infidel Lordship Salvation crowd. He errantly teaches that a lost sinner must go through a radical change of mind toward one's sins, a change that results in a strong earnest desire so submit and obey God's will, no matter what it is. And then Grady contradicts his works-based plan of salvation by saying that faith is all you need to be saved. Well, which is it Mr. Grady? He talks out of both sides of his mouth!

Read his words again...

> When a sinner raises that white flag of surrender, he or she is essentially coming clean with theirself—acknowledging that they no longer want to do their thing, but rather God's thing.
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, "What Must I Do To Be Saved?," p. 46

Dr. Grady is clearly implying that a "willingness" to total surrender to follow Christ is necessary to be saved, even though he says such surrender is not actually required to be saved. In other words, he is teaching that you MUST be "willing" to do works to get to Heaven, even though you don't have to do any works to get to Heaven. That is confusing, unbiblical and deadly false teaching. Grady is preaching doctrines of devils.

At the end of chapter 7 Dr. Grady offers this suggested Sinner's Prayer. He acknowledges that saying a prayer cannot save someone; but rather, it is the faith behind the prayer that saves:

> “Dear Lord, I know that I am a sinner, and if I died right now, I would go straight to Hell. But I believe that you died for me and that you were buried and rose again from the grave. Right now, as best I know how, I want you to become my personal Saviour and take me to Heaven when I die. Amen.”
>
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, “What Must I Do To Be Saved?,” p. 50

That is 100 % correct! Unfortunately, after reading the preceding portion of chapter 7, the reader by now is utterly confused, wondering what obligation they have to “prove” that their salvation is real by serving God to show their “ gratitude

as Grady pressures them to do. ...

> The main difference between a true
> “
> possessor
> and a mere
> “
> professor
> is that the former will display his (or her) gratitude by desiring to live for God after salvation!
>
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, “What Must I Do To Be Saved?,” p. 47

This is not a gift! Let me ask you a question friend—

If I give you a gift, are you required to show gratitude for that gift in order to possess or keep it? No, absolutely not, it is yours whether you show me gratitude or not. Likewise, when you trust Jesus as your personal Savior, God gives you His free gift of eternal life. Whether you appreciate it or not is irrelevant!

Dr. Grady’ s Bizarre Illustration of Repentance

On page 45 Dr. Grady says:

> “The greatest illustration I ever heard about repentance was the fictional antebellum story of a slave named Willy and his master, Mr. Jim.”
>
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, “What Must I Do To Be Saved?,” p. 45

I won’t type out the entire story because it is quite long, but the gist of the story is that Willy got saved and his life changed. Mr. Jim saw Willy’s joy and happiness and wanted what he had. So, Mr. Jim asked Willy how to have what he had, and Willy told him to out on his best white suit, shoes, shirt and pants and then dive into the pig’s mud pit. His slave master was highly offended and refused. But over time, as he saw Willy’s joy and peace, Mr. Jim got all dressed up in his finest white clothes and climbed up on the pigpen fence, ready to leap into the mud.

I’ll let Dr. Grady finish his story on page 46...

> “The two men immediately proceeded to the smelly pigsty, whereupon Mr. Jim gingerly mounted the wobbly fence. He then assumed the position that a swimmer does when he is about to dive into the pool. Finally, at the very last moment, with perspiration pouring off his face, he sheepishly asked, ’Willy, are you sure I have to do this to get saved?’ With his master’ ridiculous profile testifying to his having raised the white flag of surrender, Willy smiled and said, ’Naw sir, Mr. Jim; you don’t gots to dive into dat slop—you just gots to be willin’!
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, “What Must I Do To Be Saved?,” p. 46

Dear reader, what you have just read is a counterfeit plan of salvation. What in the world does being willing to jump into a pigsty full of mud in your nicest clothes have to do with getting to Heaven? It doesn’t, but this is the warped theologically perverse mindset of the neo-evangelical. William P. Grady is anything but a Bible fundamentalist! Remember, Dr. Grady said this is: “The greatest illustration I ever heard about repentance.

It is obvious that he is foolishly teaching you must be willing to turn away from your sinful bad habits to be saved.

That’s like a father telling his teenage son that he can borrow the family car, but only on the condition that he is to bring it back with a full tank of gas. If the son returned the car with an empty fuel tank the father would be upset with his son, and rightfully so. And how do you think the father would have responded if his son used the lame excuse,

“Well Dad, you only said that I have to be ’willing’ to gas the tank, you didn’t say that I have to.”

The implication was very clear in the father’s instructions that he expected his son to return the family car with a full tank of gas.

Likewise, to tell a lost sinner that God won’t save them unless they are first “willing” to turn from their sinful behavior clearly implies that God expects them to do their best to stop sinning, and that is a 100 % works-based plan of salvation, which is biblically forbidden.

Romans 3:19-20, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight*: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

Right Doctrine Matters

I am sick and tired of corrupt preachers like William P. Grady perverting the Gospel message by embellishing it. The Gospel of John according to John 20:31 is His Gospel tract,

"But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." Not once in the entire Gospel of John is the word "repent" mentioned, but we do find the word "believe" mentioned 85 times. Repentance is automatic. The man who believes has repented. That is, he has changed his mind from unbelief to belief. This is why the Apostle John never mentions "repentance" in his writings of John and 1st John. The man who believes has repented. That is, he has changed his mind from unbelief as a guilty sinner to believing the 'GOOD NEWS' (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen to be saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

Here is what the Bible teaches about repentance, as explained by [4]Dr. Mark G Cambron (1911-2000)...

Repentance is necessary for salvation.

The Greek word for repent is metanoeo, which, translated into English is: to change ones mind. It does not mean to turn from sin. That would add works to salvation.

Repentance for salvation means a change of mind from men's ideas of salvation and religion, to an acceptance of Gods only way of salvation.

This results in a completely new creation, not a reformation of the old. The old nature remains as evil as ever after salvation and has not been reformed . . . The old nature can now be controlled by the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit.

God guarantees salvation. This is His gift to us.
God guarantees reward and fruit to the obedient son.
God guarantees chastening and loss of rewards to the disobedient son.

God does not cast out disobedient children, but in some cases, does take them home. He does not permit His children to live as they please without His discipline and guidance.

Many teach repentance for salvation incorrectly, by including some form of human effort or righteousness, such as willingness to turn from sin, or turning from sin. This is heresy and has confused many people. It adds works to salvation and causes many to not understand Gods great gift. It is probation, not salvation. It is completely unscriptural. It is Galatianism and a counterfeit of the gospel.

Bravo! [6]Dr. Cambron has several (at least eight that I counted) earned degrees from various theological seminaries. It is refreshing to see a man with so much education actually be correct about God's simple plan of salvation. Most highly educated men are fools! I am thankful to God for Brother Cambron and [7]his helpful books and [8]sermons that he freely left behind for others to be edified from.

In sharp contrast, read what Dr. Grady writes on page 43:

> The role of Biblical repentance in your potential conversion is that you too must undergo a serious "change of mind." This bottom-line "change" involves your attitude—specifically, regarding the fact that your sin has alienated you from God!
>
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, "What Must I Do To Be Saved?," p. 43

A "serious" change of mind? If I were an unsaved person and I read that I must have a change of mind to be saved, I would feel intimidated. I just don't like the wording and pressure that Dr. Grady places on the sinner to change.

"serious

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from? Read what Dr. Grady says on page 44 about turning from your sins to get to Heaven:

> Now when this proper attitude adjustment occurs, sinners will sense a natural change of mind about their individual sin. Before conviction, a lost person basically worships himself, as his or her own "god." ...
> However, once they "see the light," a change of action will inevitably occur. Paul commended his converts for this shift: "For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God...." (I Thessalonians 1:9) Anyone who says that repentance does > not involve turning away from some sin has never read this passage, for how can one turn to God without turning from idolatry? And just for the record, regarding secular, material-minded Americans, Colossians 3:5 specifically defines "covetousness" as "idolatry."

>
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, "What Must I Do To Be Saved?," p. 44

Throughout his book Dr. Grady pushes the false idea that you're not really saved unless your life shows it. He writes on page 47:

> Thus, a common Bible Belt expression says, "Watch out for those 'converts' who ask Jesus to save them on Saturday and the FBI can't find them on Monday." The New Testament pattern is found in Acts 2:41-42, "Then they that gladly received his word were baptized... And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers."
>
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, "What Must I Do To Be Saved?," p. 47

It is wrong for Dr. Grady to use this single passage of Scripture to establish a precedent for all converts, requiring everyone to continue stedfastly in church attendance, Bible study and fellowship to prove they are really saved. As far as we know, when the Ethiopian eunuch got saved in Acts chapter 8:36-38, he didn't have a church to attend, or meet the so-called "pattern" Dr. Grady speaks of in Acts 2:41-42.

By the way, you've probably already noticed that I haven't once referred to William P. Grady as "Brother Grady." That is intentional, as I do not consider him a born-again Christian due to his perverted understanding of what it means to "repent" to be saved. The false idea that repentance is a change mind so serious that it results in a change of behavior is manmade reformation, not the fruit of the indwelling Holy Spirit in the life of a believer. Every Christian must CHOOSE to walk in the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25). It is not automatic! Most believers do not choose to walk in the Spirit, they live carnal lives. Dr. Grady would wrongly accuse them of having never been saved at all, but the Apostle Paul called them "babes" and "carnal" (1st Corinthians 3:1).

The problem is not that there is something wrong with the Gospel; but rather, pastors today have stopped preaching against sin.

Mr. Grady is also very wrong to teach (as that nutcase Peter S. Ruckman foolishly taught) [9]that no one was ever saved in the Old Testament. Dr. Peter Ruckman (1921-2016) was a religious punk! He was arrogant, cocky, abusive toward people with whom he disagreed, a cult leader, and guilty of preaching a handful of bizarre heresies (like claiming that abortion was okay). Today, the corrupt Bible Baptist Church in Pensacola continues propagating Ruckman's damnable heresies. People in the Old Testament were saved by grace through faith, just as we are today (Acts 10:43; Romans 4:4). Beware of the Ruckmanite cult, of which Bill Grady is a devout follower!

It is tragic that 95 % of Baptist churches today are religious cults! They have succumbed to the Devil's lie that faith is insufficient to save someone. In addition, one way or another they will ADD turning from your sinful bad habits, living a changed life, being willing to turn from your sins, being willing to forsake your selfish desires and obey God's will instead, et cetera, to get to Heaven. The truth is that none of these things have anything to do with being saved, nor proving that you're saved.

Foolish religious men like William Grady want to associate a changed life with the new birth, instead of associating the new birth with Christ's sacrifice on the cross. I am saved because of what Christ did through Calvary's cross to pay for my debt of sin. I am not going to Heaven because of how I choose to live, nor does my lifestyle evidence whether I am saved or lost. Remember, the hellbound false prophets in Matthew 7:21-23 did "many wonderful works" in Jesus' name. They "prophesied" (preached) in Jesus' name. They lived good lives! Bill Grady would have ass-u-med that they are saved, but he would have been wrong.

I hate Lordship Salvation! Throughout Dr. Grady's book he teaches that you must receive Jesus as your, "Lord and Saviour." Yet, interestingly in his suggested sinner's prayer he only mentions Jesus as one's Saviour. Grady's inconsistent teachings are telling. It is obvious to me that his book was carefully and cleverly written to appease both sides of the debate over the true meaning of repentance. I'm not buying it (actually I just did buy it for $9.90...lol). At best the book is confusing!

Read again what Pastor Grady writes:

> When a sinner raises that white flag of surrender, he or she is essentially coming clean with theirself—acknowledging that they no longer want to do their thing, but rather God's thing.
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, "What Must I Do To Be Saved?," p. 46

That is dangerous talk when speaking about the Gospel. What in the world does not wanting to DO YOUR OWN THING anymore, have to do with receiving God's free gift of eternal life? Do you see what he is doing? Dr. Grady is subtly adding works to grace, requiring that a lost sinner be willing to "surrender all" (aka, Lordship Salvation) to be saved. That is another gospel which cannot produce the new birth. Bible repentance DOESN'T mean to raise a white flag of surrender.

Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) said it well:

> "When anyone comes promising salvation to those 'who make full surrender' of all that they have to God, and who 'pay the price of full salvation' he is preaching another gospel, for the price was paid on Calvary's cross and the work that saves is finished. It was Christ Jesus who made the full surrender when He yielded His life on Calvary that saves us, not our surrender in any way to Him."
>
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the Gospel tract, '[10]Another Gospel'

Dr. William Grady is preaching another gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

Dr. Grady Is A Wolf In Sheep's Clothing

Dr. Grady is wrong to explain Bible repentance as an " attitude adjustment

toward one's sins. This implies that reformation is required to be saved, which it is not. He errantly states:

> However, once they “see the light,” a change of action will inevitably occur.
>
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, “What Must I Do To Be Saved?,” p. 44

” which God requires to be saved is to BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for you through Calvary’s cross (John 6:28-29). Dr. Grady implies that turning from some sins is required to be saved. He deceitfully links the sin of covetousness to idolatry to subtly add works to faith. There is only one sin that you need to turn from to get to Heaven, and that sin is UNBELIEF. Dr. Grady writes:

> Now when this proper attitude adjustment occurs, sinners will sense a natural change of mind about their individual sin. Before conviction, a lost person basically worships himself, as his or her own “god.” ...
>
> However, once they “see the light,” a change of action will inevitably occur. Paul commended his converts for this shift: “For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God....” (I Thessalonians 1:9) Anyone who says that repentance does not involve turning away from some sin has never read this passage, for how can one turn to God without turning from idolatry? >
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, “What Must I Do To Be Saved?,” p. 44

Grady is sneaky. To turn from one’s idols is repentance from “

DEAD WORKS

” (Hebrews 6:1), not repentance from behavioral sins (covetousness is a behavioral sin). It is obvious from reading his book that Pastor Grady is biased in favor of those corrupt preachers today (e.g., Sam C. Gipp, Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016), Robert R. Breaker, David A. Hoffman) who wickedly teach that to be saved you must turn away from your sinful ways. Evidence of this is that Dr. Grady linked idolatry with the sin of being covetous. I mean, why even bring up something like that? Clearly, Mr. Grady has an agenda! If turning away from the sin of covetousness is required to be saved, then we’re all going straight to Hell.

My humble opinion of Dr. Grady’s book is that he is trying to defend bad preachers today, who foolishly teach that to be saved you must be willing to forsake your sinful bad habits. He says that you must experience a “ serious

” change of mind toward your sins. The truth is that the only change of mind needed to be saved is to admit you are a guilty SINNER, and to admit that Jesus is the only SAVIOR. If you place your trust (reliance) in the finished work of Christ through Calvary's cross (i.e., the Gospel), you are permanently saved.

Dr. Grady makes way too big a deal of one's sins. All the Bible requires to be saved is to come to God as a needy sinner. You don't need to experience some radical change of attitude toward your sins, that compels you to forsake your selfish will and instead submit to obey God's will. That is Lordship Salvation, not the free grace Gospel. Pastor Grady's entire mindset toward God's simple plan of salvation is flawed, because he attributes the change to the sinner (Matthew 27:3), instead of solely to the indwelling Holy Spirit (Galatians 2:20).

In the true Gospel, CHRIST'S indwelling Holy Spirit lives the Christian life through the believer by faith; whereas in the fallacy of Lordship Salvation, YOU are required to reform and produce changes in behavior to prove that you are saved. The former is all of God; the latter is all of man. I hope you see the difference. Dr. Grady makes the dire mistake of placing the burden upon sinner's shoulders to reform, to show their gratitude to prove that their salvation is genuine. That is human reformation, not the fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25).

The bottom line is that nowhere does Dr. Grady in his book draw a clear line of separation between justification and sanctification. He does unfortunately continually mix and confuse the two things, corrupting God's Word and casting stumbling blocks before the reader. Sadly, Pastor Grady's new book will not be the helpful soulwinning tool that he intended for it to be, it will further hinder men from seeing the light of the truth of a free grace Gospel to be saved. 2nd Corinthians 4:4, "

In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. "

Dr. Grady's book is not the worst heresy that I've seen, which makes it all the more dangerous to the unlearned reader. Remember, the most effective deception is the half-truth, because the part that is true can be defended with incontestable logic. Dr. Grady's suggested Sinner's Prayer to be saved is correct. I'll give him credit where it is due. He gets that right! Unfortunately, for an unsaved person who reads his entire book, he (or she) will be confused about the role of conviction and repentance in the new birth.

As stated on the back cover, the faulty premise of Dr. Grady's book is that you didn't really get saved unless you fell under Holy Spirit conviction before you were saved that resulted in a changed life, that you have a daily conflict between the old and new natures, and have felt the chastening hand of God when necessary. The entire flawed basis of his book is NOT to show the unsaved person how to be saved (as he erroneously claims in the title); but rather, to embellish God's simple plan of salvation to mandate living a changed life to know you're saved. Dr. Grady attempts to retain a free grace Gospel, while simultaneously changing the terms of God's plan of salvation to include living a changed life, and in so doing he unintentionally (I think) corrupts the Gospel.

Dr. Grady's book title is very misleading. The title suggests that the book was written to lead unsaved sinners to Christ. Yet, he writes on the back cover:

> This book was written for people who love God and want to know for sure that they will go to Heaven when they die. While such a "target audience" would primarily consist of God-fearing religious folks, their Scriptural knowledge about salvation would be seriously lacking.
>
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, "What Must I Do To Be Saved?," back cover

Huh? I thought the book was written to show people how to be saved! This is confusing. The back cover says Dr. Grady wrote the book for "God-fearing religious people." In accordance with the words I just quoted to you from the back cover, I think a more appropriate title for his book would have been, "How To Know That You Are Saved." Albeit, he chose to title his book, "What Must I Do To Be Saved?" Why would

"God-fearing religious people" want to know

"How to be saved?"

Dr. Grady further states on the back cover of his book:

> Dr. R.G. Lee, the most famous Sothern Baptist pastor of the twentieth century, thought that as much as 80 % of the SBC membership was lost; the Convention's greatest evangelist, Dr. J. Harold Smith, put the figure at 90 %.
> SOURCE: Dr. William P. Grady, "What Must I Do To Be Saved?," back cover

I agree that few SBC members are saved. But the reason why I think most SBC members are not saved is not because their lives haven't changed; but rather, it's because of the [11]counterfeit plan of salvation taught by the Southern Baptist Convention which requires turning from your sinful ways to be saved (which is WORKS). Jesus Himself warned that only a "few" people shall be able to enter into Heaven. Luke 13:23-24, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." The reason why is not because of shallow conversions that don't result in living a changed life (as Dr. Grady alleges); but rather, it is because the simplicity of Christ (which is a free grace Gospel) has been corrupted (complicated) to include works.

It is unfortunate that Dr. Grady spends the majority of space in his book emphasizing our required behavioral changes to know that we are going to Heaven, instead of emphasizing the dear Savior who paid for everyone's sins. Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from? Granted, I believe that over 95 % of churchgoers today are as lost as a moose in a caboose in Taboose! The reason why they're not saved isn't because they were misled by "

quick-prayism

or "e asy-believism

; but rather, it is because they’ve been misled to put their trust in a faulty partial faith in Christ PLUS something more (works) to get to Heaven.

On page 45, Dr. Grady shares what he considers to be the best illustration of Bible repentance he’s ever heard. The fictitious story happens in the time period before the American Civil War. It is about a slave named Willy and his master, Mr. Jim. In the process of time Willy gets born-again and exhibits a radical transformation in his life. After observing Willy for some time, Mr. Jim wants the happiness that Willy has. So Mr. Jim asks him how to be saved. Willy takes Mr. Jim to the muddy hogpen and then tells him to wear his nicest white suit and jump into the mud with the pigs. Mr. Jim refuses and leaves. After a couple weeks he sees how happy Willy is and returns, this time wearing a white suit, with white shoes and a white hat. Mr. Jim stands up on the fence, ready to jump into the pigsty. He pauses and asks Willy, “Do I really have to jump into the pigsty to be saved?” Willy then says, “No, you’ve just got to be willing to.

” Dr. Grady says the same thing holds true for getting saved.

Now, I paraphrased the story a bit to save time. I just wanted to get Dr. Grady’s point across to you. For Dr. Grady to use this fictitious story in an attempt to explain Bible repentance to get to Heaven, speaks volumes about how offbeat he is concerning how to be saved. Pastor Grady says you don’t have to actually give up your sins to get to Heaven, but you must be willing to surrender

all

to do whatever God wants you to do (including forsaking your sinful bad habits). He errantly thinks this is repentance.

” He alleges that the surrendered attitude of the Philippian jailer in Acts 16:30, who asked:

“ What must

to be saved?,” proves that repentance means full surrender to do God’s will instead of your will. Albeit, Dr. Grady is wresting the Scripture to his own destruction, reading into the Bible what it doesn’t say (2nd Peter 3:16-17).

Dr. Grady is heretically teaching that you’ve got to be willing to turn from your sins, to do whatever God demands of you to do, to be saved. That is NOT what the inspired Holy Bible teaches!!! The ONLY thing you’ve got to be willing to do to be saved is to: BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31). Dr. Grady is a false prophet!!! He errantly ADDS to God’s simple plan of salvation, requiring you to surrender all, to be willing to obey God’s will instead of your will. This is not the Gospel, not even close!!!

The Day I Was Born Again

By God’s grace, I got saved at age 13 in 1980 (I might have been age 12 in 1979; I don’t remember the exact year I was saved, but I remember the place and the circumstances in church). When I got saved, no one required me to be willing to do anything! No one told me that I needed to be "willing" to turn away from my sinful ways. If someone had told me those things, I wouldn't have been saved, because I never would have been willing to make such a commitment that I knew I couldn't keep. I am so glad I didn't hear a counterfeit plan of salvation, because I wouldn't have been saved. I know that!

My pastor simply mentioned in his sermon that if you can sin without any conviction whatsoever from the Holy Spirit, you're not saved. I knew I wasn't saved. For the first time in my life I felt convicted about my sins. From my pew, during the invitation time, I bowed my head and asked Jesus to save me. I believed that I was appealing to the risen Savior, the Christ. I put my trust in Him, believing that He died on a cross to pay for my sins, and that He was buried, but then resurrected from the dead three days later. I had attended Sunday School for entire childhood and knew all the facts of the Gospel, but I had never taken any of it seriously until that day. I got saved that summer day!

In hindsight, my mind is blank prior to being saved. There is only spiritual darkness in my mind, no awareness of God's presence in my life. But from the day I got saved until today, I have felt the blessed presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit. The first thing I remember when I got saved was that I felt convicted by God about sassing my mother. I stopped doing it. I started reading my King James Bible. It was a red-colored Open Note Study Bible. I was hungry for the first time in my life for God's Word (1st Peter 2:2). I remember one evening my mother said to me, "You've changed." I sure had, I had gotten saved!

But no one mandated that I live a changed life. No one required me to turn from my sins to be saved. No one pressured me to live a changed life to prove that I was saved. You see, preachers and laymen alike today, need to leave God's simple plan of salvation alone and stop tampering with it! The Holy Spirit doesn't need our help! We've got a bunch of ungodly corrupt neo-evangelicals today going around like chickens with their heads cut off, perverting the simplicity of the Gospel in a wicked attempt to force people to live holy lives. But the problem is not with the Gospel, it is with preachers! The problem is with today's Caspar Milquetoast wimpy pastors who refuse to preach against sin. The problem is with lazy local churches who have failed to obey The Great Commission, part of which is to mentor new converts by indoctrinating them with the teachings of Christ (Matthew 28:19-20).

Beware of William P. Grady's Perverse Theology

It is regretful that Dr. Grady didn't use his book to uphold the simplicity that is in Christ, which is the free grace Gospel. Instead, he mixes a free grace Gospel with tons of required self-righteousness (aka, the falsehood of Lordship Salvation) to confuse the reader further.

You can always tell a false prophet because they will make a big deal out of repentance, whereas the Bible does not. In all of the New Testament passages concerning salvation, not one of them makes a big fuss or elaborates about what it means to repent. Only those bad preachers who seek to add works to faith need to bloviate about repentance. Dr. Grady goes to great lengths in his book to explain what he thinks repentance means. He tells stories. He uses illustrations. He gives personal experiences. Yet, the inspired King James Bible simply reads in John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

Remember, the word "repent" is not even mentioned in the Gospel of John. Yet, the Apostle John said in John 20:31 that He penned "these words" to convince the reader to BELIEVE that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, the Christ, so that they will be saved. If repenting of your sins, or being willing to surrender your will to obey God's will, was absolutely necessary to get to Heaven, then John would have mentioned it, but he simply didn't. That settles the matter as far as I am concerned.

Only a religious fool adds words to the inspired Holy Bible. Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." The bottom line is that the junk Bill Grady is preaching is NOT in agreement with what the inspired Word of God teaches.

5.3.9 Incontrovertible Proof Against Evolution (2024-03-16 17:36)

Are you ready for the incontrovertible proof that Evolution is a big hoax? The fact of the matter is that evolutionists don't have one single shred of evidence to support their bizarre claims. This fact alone is incontrovertible PROOF that evolution is the biggest educational big fraud ever fabricated and perpetrated upon the world.

Even Charles Darwin (1809-1882) himself, unquestionably the father of Evolution, admitted that they had NO CONCLUSIVE PROOF of the origin of the Species:

> “Not one change of species into another is on record... we cannot prove that a single species has been changed.” [emphasis added[
>
> SOURCE: "My Life and Letters," Volume three, p. 25

Now 150 years later the situation is still the same! Scientists still haven’t found any proof. The Neanderthal Man (i.e., a cave man) is still undiscovered, merely a myth. Think about it, despite 150 years of frantic searching, the infamous "missing link" is still missing!

There is NO EVIDENCE of evolution, let alone proof of evolutionary theory. Scientists cannot bring forth any evidence to support their bogus theories. It is unethical, wrong and ungodly to teach evolution as a fact, when there is not even the least bit of credible evidence to support it.

The ugly truth about evolution is that hellbound atheists and Christ-rejecters needed an alternative view of biblical creation to substitute for God’s Word. So wicked men concocted the bogus theories of evolution, just like they cleverly fabricated Santa Claus and the Easter Bunny to replace Jesus on the holidays.

Oh, how foolish are darkened hearts of men. Does not Romans 1:21-22 perfectly describe evolutionists? ..."Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools." They became fools! There is no more brilliant a group of idiots in the world today than the evolutionists.

> "For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old..." —2nd Peter 3:5

The Bizarre LIES of Evolutionists Today

According to Charles Darwin’s own words there is nothing "fair" about what is going on today in the public school system:

> "For I am well aware that scarcely a single point is discussed in this volume on which facts cannot be adduced, often apparently leading to conclusions directly opposite to those at which I have arrived. A fair result can be obtained only by fully stating and balancing the facts and arguments on both sides of each question ; and this is here impossible." —Charles Darwin, Introduction to Origin of Species (1859), p. 2. Also quoted in ’John Lofton’s Journal,’ The Washington Times, February 8th, 1984

Children are only being presented one side of the argument, as if it were a fact. But the problem of dishonest scientists (what the Bible calls "science falsely so called" in 1st Timothy 6:20) goes far beyond just the school children. I was recently watching an episode of Walt Disney's History Channel, titled 'THE UNIVERSE,' in which they claim that the entire universe began with a "BIG BANG" 13.7 billion years ago. They arrogantly claim that the whole universe today originated from a particle smaller than a single atom. I couldn't help but laugh. How could anyone be so naïve as to believe such nonsense? They teach this garbage with such certainty, as if it's absolute truth. They are arrogant fools. Hey, where did that particle smaller than an atom come from, which contained the universe? Science has no answer. That is because God worked a miracle to create the universe, which defied all science.

In his 1925 autobiography "Mein Kampf," Hitler – who actually did lie his country into war, and a whole lot more – explained with remarkable insight the fantastic power of lying:

> …In the big lie there is always a certain force of credibility; because the broad masses of a nation are always more easily corrupted in the deeper strata of their emotional nature than consciously or voluntarily; and thus in the primitive simplicity of their minds they more readily fall victims to the big lie than the small lie, since they themselves often tell small lies in little matters but would be ashamed to resort to large-scale falsehoods. It would never come into their heads to fabricate colossal untruths, and they would not believe that others could have the impudence to distort the truth so infamously. Even though the facts which prove this to be so may be brought clearly to their minds, they will still doubt and waver and will continue to think that there may be some other explanation. For the grossly impudent lie always leaves traces behind it, even after it has been nailed down, a fact which is known to all expert liars in this world and to all who conspire together in the art of lying. These people know only too well how to use falsehood for the basest purposes. ...

Evolution is the biggest lie ever fabricated. So big a lie in fact, that most people today believe it simply because they've heard it taught their whole life. Any objective thinker would have to quickly conclude, that it is utter lunacy for scientists to claim that the entire universe exploded from a single particle smaller than an atom. However, it makes perfect sense to believe the Holy Bible, which teaches that Jesus Christ spoke the universe into existence by the power of His Word (John 1:1-3, 14). I can believe the Biblical truth that God created the universe from nothing, but I cannot accept the ignoramus notion that the whole universe exploded from a single particle smaller than an atom without God.

If the universe did come from a single particle, then where did that particle come from? Hmmm? Evolutionists have NO ANSWER to this question. The best answer they can come up with are more theories to support their theories. Can something come from nothing? Not according to laws of thermodynamics, which state that energy cannot be created nor destroyed. There is a constant amount of energy in the universe. Every solid object around us is composed of energy.

Energy driven [1]Subatomic particles make up the atoms that compose the universe. God is amazing! No wonder that David said in Psalm 145:3... "Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is UNSEARCHABLE." Scientists today are stumped concerning the greatness and complexities of this massive universe. It is so wonderful that we can just take God at His Word and know that He is the Divine Creator. I feel sorry for evolutionists, who frantically spend their entire lives searching for something that doesn't exist; namely, evolution. I am so glad that I'm a born-again Christian.

Evolutionists are liars! The very fact that evolutionists teach Darwinism as if it were a fact reveals their blatant bias against the Word of God. Any honest scientist would have to conclude that evolution is nothing more than a delusional fantasy. The strongest proof against evolution rests in the fact that there is NO conclusive evidence to support it.

Also, there is NO recorded history of civilization prior to about 4,000 B.C. Another compelling argument is that the men who authored the modern theories of evolution were atheists; thus, they automatically reject the Holy Bible as being God's inspired Word.

Furthermore, if you are an adherent of Evolution, then you are in good company with Karl Marx and Adolf Hitler, who both embraced the godless and dehumanizing teachings of evolution.

> If you repeat nonsense often enough for long enough, it becomes proven fact—It's a proven fact!

When I go to the local grocery store and I see all the wonderful fruits and vegetables, and all the different colors, textures, designs, flavors and amazing creative handiwork, I am convinced that there is an omnipotent God. I am compelled to believe that He is a very good God. Nature itself evidences that God exists (Psalms 19:1-3; Romans 1:20). I don't know about you friend, but I thank and praise God every day for His blessings in my life. THANK YOU JESUS!!!

The FACT that evolutionists have ZERO evidence to support their ignorant claims is incontrovertible proof that it is a hoax! Why would anyone adhere to a belief system that has no evidence to support its claims? I mean, the Holy Bible CAN be verified in umpteen ways. Historical data confirms the accuracy of the Holy Bible. Scientific data confirms the accuracy of the Bible. Genealogical data confirms the accuracy of the Bible. The miraculous way in which the Holy Bible came into man's possession (i.e., approximately 40 writers, most of whom never met each other, spanning a time period of over 1,500 years) is irrefutable proof of its divine origin. The Bible can be traced, confirmed and documented; whereas evolution cannot.

To claim to believe evolution you have to blindly adopt a hoax.

5.3.10 Deceivers (2024-03-17 09:50)

"For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist." —2nd John 1:7

Do you have any idea just how many deceivers there are in the world? Far more than you or I could ever imagine. Few people would recognize [1]Oprah Winfrey as a deceiver; but she certainly is. Oprah Winfrey is an unsaved modernist, who openly teaches people that Jesus Christ isn't the ONLY way to Heaven. In sharp contrast, John 14:6 declares that Jesus IS the ONLY way to Heaven, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." The world is infested today with unbelieving deceivers, such as the heretics behind [2]The Da Vinci Code, [3]The Gospel of Judas, and [4]The Jesus Papers. Don't be conned.

Ironically, the chief priests and the Pharisees of Jesus' day actually called Jesus a "deceiver."

> "Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again." —Matthew 27:62-63

Can you imagine? The Jewish religious leaders calling Jesus Christ, the Creator, a "deceiver." They were an evil bunch for sure. It's hard to imagine that the Jewish people actually looked up to these fakes and frauds for spiritual guidance—but they did! What the people received, instead of the truth, were the traditions of men—religion without truth (Mark 7:6-13). Things haven't changed at all in the past 2,000 years. People today still blindly follow countless hordes of religious leaders who know not God—such leaders as: the Pope, Benny Hinn, Herbert Armstrong, Ellen G. White, Charles T. Russell, Joseph Smith, Mary Baker Eddy, Confucius, Gandhi, Maitreya, Sun Myung Moon, Apollo C. Quiboloy, Ron Hubbard, Zoroaster, and [5]countless more.

Here is a short list of [6]FALSE religions according to the Bible:

1. Atheism
2. Black Muslim
3. Buddhism
4. Christian Science
5. [7]Church of Christ
6. Episcopalian Church
7. [8]Freemasonry
8. [9]Hinduism
9. [10]Humanism
10. [11]Illuminati (Skull and Bones, Bohemian Grove, et cetera)
11. [12]Islamic Muslim
12. [13]Jehovah Witnesses
13. Judaism
14. [14]Lutherans
15. [15]Moonies (Unification Church)
16. [16]Mormonism
17. [17]New Age

18. [18]Roman Catholicism
19. [19]Scientology
20. [20]Seventh-Day Adventist[21]s
21. Witchcraft/Satanism

And there are thousands more!

Are you foolish like the chief priests and Pharisees, who accused Jesus of being a deceiver? Whom do you say Jesus is: [22]liar, lunatic, or Lord? There are many deceivers in the world; but, Jesus isn't one of them. Jesus Christ came to this world to save sinners; not condemn them (John 3:16-18). Yet many of those very sinners condemned Jesus. Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, the Creator, and a Wonderful Savior. Won't you receive Christ's gift of eternal life now, by believing upon Jesus alone to forgive your sins. Christ shed His precious blood to pay for our sins, and only through faith in that blood can anyone go to Heaven. It is the blood of Jesus that takes our sins away; not religion or good works.

Anyone who denies the fundamental doctrines of the Word of God, and teaches heresy, is a deceiver. All Muslims are deceivers. 1st John 2:22 plainly calls them "liars" and "antichrists" ...

> "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son."

Muslims outright deny the Sonship of Jesus Christ; therefore, Islam is of the Devil. Islam is a damnable organization, who denies Jesus Christ. Don't believe the lie, not for one second– that Muslims and Christians worship the SAME God. No, we don't! The Koran clearly states in, [23]The Women 4.171, that God has NO Son. In sharp contrast, John 3:16 in the Word of God declares that God DOES have a Son, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." The Koran even goes as far as to claim that Jesus never died, nor was He crucified ([24]The Women, 4.157). Clearly, Islam and Christianity are DIAMETRICALLY opposed.

The sneaky Devil comes to us through MANY false prophets today, even President George W. Bush, who falsely claims that Christians and Muslims worship the SAME God. Allah is a pagan god, who has no son. Jesus Christ is Almighty God (John 10:33; Revelation 1:8), the second Person of the Godhead (John 1:1-3,10; Matthew 28:19-20), the Christ (Luke 2:11), and He is the Son of God (John 3:16)! 1st John 4:14 declares, "And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world." A shocking 1,600,000,000 Muslims worldwide deny Jesus as the Savior, and are sadly headed straight for Hell.

New Age philosophy teaches that there are many ways to "the light." This light is none other than Lucifer (Satan) himself (2nd Corinthians 11:13-14), but New Agers don't realize it. Many religions today, by means of ecumenicalism, are being drawn into a developing one-world order religion (the beast system). These deceived churches believe that there are many paths to god (the light), and all that matters is one's sincerity of heart. To the contrary, we read in Proverb 16:25, " There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death. "

Clearly, there is a right way, and a wrong way. In the case of salvation, there is ONLY one right way, and that is through Jesus Christ alone.

The Word of God specifically defines who God is—Jesus Christ! That is, the Godhead became incarnate and manifest Himself to mankind in the fleshly body of our Lord Jesus Christ (Colossians 2:9). There is NO feminine side of God. The Bible puts forth God the FATHER, and God the SON, but no mention is made of a "mother." Mary is NOT the mother of God, but of the “ man
