1.1.1 What Is Heaven Like? (2020-03-02 09:00)

Revelation 21:3-4, “And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.”

People foolishly believe a lot of things they see and hear on television (e.g., Oprah Winfrey), or read in a book by a New Age author (e.g., James Praagh), forming unbiblical conclusions that are untrue. May I say, not everything said by Jerry Springer is true! There is much fake news nowadays! I heard President Donald Trump say this week in a press conference that ’The Wall Street Journal’ publishes a lot of “FAKE NEWS

That’s no better than [1]Bob Jones University and their [2] “

FAKE BIBLES!

[3]” Despite all the fake news and theological frauds today, t hankfully we have the unchanging Words of God in the KING JAMES BIBLE, teaching us about Heaven (and you can trust the inspired Words of God).

[4]What the Bible says is so! To keep the list brief, I have saved Scripture

quotations

until afterwards, which can can read for yourself.

Here are 40 heart-warming truths about Heaven:

1. All the inhabitants of Heaven are part of a big family (Ephesians 3:15)
2. Heaven is a city measuring 1,500 miles wide, long and high (a cube). That would cover most of the United States and part of Canada and Mexico to fit. All of the saved from all humanity will be there.
3. The city is encompassed by a 216-foot-high wall, made of jasper.
4. 12 entrance gates, 3 on each of the four sides, each made of a single pearl.
5. Heaven has 12 foundations, each of a different precious gem stone.
6. The city is made of pure gold, crystal clear in it's 100 % purest form, resembling glass.
7. There's a beautiful river flowing from the throne of God.
8. At the heart of the city is the glittering throne of God.
9. There's a beautiful rainbow around God's throne with every color. Revelation 4:3, "And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald."
10. Before the throne of God are four Cherubim beasts who praise God continually.
11. Heaven is a holy city, the house of God the Father. We are going to live in God's home. Amen, amen, amen!
12. Only saved people or angels may enter into Heaven.
13. We'll all be in the city of God and be very pleased to be there.
14. Saints in Heaven know what's going on here on earth, but do not see our sins.
15. Our loved ones in Heaven are awake (Hebrews 12:1 - "witnesses" see and hear something). They're not called "role models," but "witnesses," because they are watching us run the race from Heaven).
16. The inhabitants of Heaven see, hear and interact. They have a life, eternal life. They are alive and alert.
17. There are horses in Heaven (Revelation 19:14)
18. Saints in Heaven remember us (Samuel remembered Saul when he returned to pronounce judgment upon him, and Samuel knew what was going on here on earth. They were familiar with one another, nothing was erased; also, see Luke 15:7 - there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels; Luke 16:19-31 - Lazarus and Abraham recognized each other).
19. We will recognize our loved ones in Heaven (Peter, James and John recognized Moses and Elijah on the Mount of Transfiguration; Saul and Samuel recognized each other; Mary recognized Jesus after He arose from the dead; the disciples recognized Jesus after His death).

20. Our bodily imperfections will be made perfect in Heaven. There are no cripples in Heaven. There are no obese people. There's no wheelchairs. There's no deaf, dumb or blind in Heaven. Philippians 3:21 promises we shall receive a body fashioned like unto the Lords. Jesus ate and drank in His resurrected body. He ascended in the air, defying gravity. The Lord walked through walls, walked on water, spoke and is alive physically somewhere in the universe today (He bodily ascended from the earth in Acts 1:9-11).

21. God is going to be with us. (the worst part about Hell is being separated from God. People in Hell realize what they have missed, and gnash in bitter regret and tears).

22. God Himself will wipe away all tears. No more death. No more pain. No more crying and tears. No more sorrow.

23. There's no night there, no darkness. The Lord's holiness lights the city. There's no need for candles, the sun or flashlights.

24. There will be no more hunger pains. Americans by far don't know what it feels like to have no food, but many people in afflicted parts of Africa do. The saints will thirst and hunger no more. The food and drinks present are strictly for pleasure, without calories.

25. There will be no need for a heating system. The Lord's presence will warm us in Heaven.

26. There are many mansions in Heaven, not cookie-cutter type homes. We will receive individualized mansions and nice homes, depending on our earthly service for Christ, with everything we need and want. Romans 8:32, "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?" We will have everything we need and desire in Heaven! There are no mortgages in Heaven. No home is ever foreclosed upon.

27. Soulwinners will shine as the brightness of the stars in Heaven forever (Daniel 12:3).

28. We will work in Heaven, serving God day and night. Work is enjoyable in Heaven, in pleasant conditions, without pressure or troublesome co-workers. Only perfect Christians live in Heaven in glorified bodies. In Heaven, the saints are as children; that is, loving, trusting, humble, pure, innocent and pleasant to be around. Jude 1:24, "Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy." Because of the precious blood of Jesus, the saints have been justified, JUST-IF-I'D never sinned at all. What an awesome God!!!

29. Heaven's gates are never closed. There are no creeps, thieves or shady characters in Heaven. The gates are open all the time. The saints leave their doors unlocked, because there are no locks on their doors, because there is no need for them. Can you imagine how beautiful it will be to live in such a place, that you don't even need locks on your car or home? God is beautiful!

30. There is no crime in Heaven; there is no need for police or detectives.

31. Our loved ones are alive and conscious in Heaven. They will remember and recognize us, and we them.

32. Saints will be as the angels is Heaven, not given in marriage (Matthew 22:30)

33. There won't be any fine print or shady advertising in Heaven. Everything is free!

34. There is no fear in Heaven, because there will be nothing to fear. 1st John 4:18, "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love."
35. There is no night in Heaven, it is always daytime.
36. We won't need to sleep in Heaven. it would be weird to need to sleep with no night.
37. There is rejoicing in Heaven when people get saved.
38. The awesomeness of Heaven is indescribable with human tongue.
39. Heaven is a real, literal, physical, place.
40. Heaven is a wonderful PLACE!!!

John 14:1-3, "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. "

Here are but a few precious Scripture passages about Heaven . . .

Revelation 21:10-27, "And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal; And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof. And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel. And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald; The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

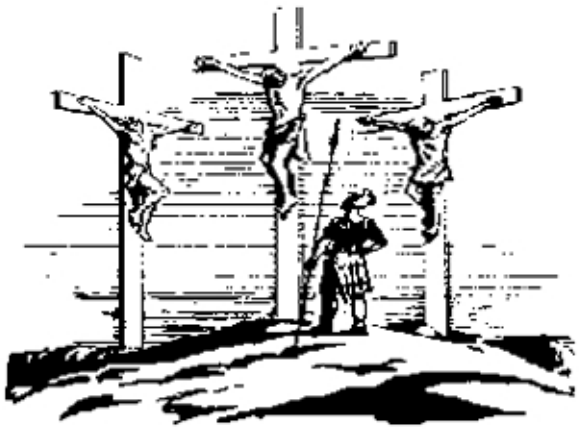
And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass. And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it. And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it. And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life."

Revelation 7:15-17, "Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes."

Revelation 22:1-6, "And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him: And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads. And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever."



The most beautiful thing about all of these Scriptures is that, like all Scripture, they are PROMISES from God. The entire Holy Bible is a book of [6]PROMISES from God. Also, please read: '[7]Abiding In The Promises Of God.'

"Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering;
(for he is faithful that promised)" —Hebrews 10:23

1st Corinthians 15:1, 3-4 “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures.”

You just read “THE GOSPEL” (i.e., GOOD NEWS) my dear friend, by which we are saved, if a sinner simply "believes" with childlike faith (trust). There is no need to guess how to be saved. The Word of God in the King James Bible is very plain. The “GOSPEL” is comprised of three things:

1. Christ DIED on the cross for our sins according to the Scriptures (as our sacrifice, the Lamb of God)
2. Christ was BURIED (officiating His death)
3. Christ RESURRECTED from the dead after three days (as our High Priest)

What a precious Savior, Jesus Christ!

Please read Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." The Gospel is the power of God UNTO SALVATION, to every one that BELIEVETH! Amen!

The only requirement to be saved is to realize that you are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God. 1st John 1:10, "If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

" Jesus Christ paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt of sin we could not pay. Romans 5:7-8, "For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

What does it mean to "BELIEVE"? I'm glad you asked my fine non-feathered friend. Please notice that the Bible calls believing "TRUST" in Ephesians 1:12, "That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise." It doesn't get any simpler than that folks, If you hear the Gospel preached, or read it for yourself in the Bible, and you place your trust in that Good News, you are immediately, irrevocably, permanently and forever saved! You have God's written PROMISE of it!

Christians sometimes call it, The Gospel of "free grace," because we are saved solely by God's grace, but actually it wasn't " free. " Salvation cost God His only begotten Son, and it cost Jesus His very life. God's gift of eternal life has been paid for in full "with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot" (1st Peter 1:19). Anyone who adds human effort to the Gospel eliminates grace. This truth is made abundantly clear in Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work."

Dear reader, if you are not saved, but would like to be, simply come to the blessed Savior as a guilty sinner; believing that He DIED, was BURIED, and RAISED UP three days later for your justification. Salvation is received, not achieved. God doesn't save anyone who is trying to be saved, He only saves those who are trusting to be saved. Eternal life is a free gift. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

" What a beautiful Bible passage!

Salvation is FREE for you and me, because Christ paid for it. There's a wonderful acronym for G.R.A.C.E. (God Riches At Christ's Expense). My friend, God is offering you unconditional forgiveness of all your sins, simply for receiving J esus' sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. JESUS PAID IT ALL!

The Savior demands nothing in return. Romans 12:1 says it is "reasonable" that a believer should live for Christ (as a living sacrifice), but it is not required, otherwise salvation could not be a

" You can be saved right now, with no strings attached. You don't have to become religious. You don't have to be water baptized. You don't have to give up your sins. You don't have to forsake the world. That is why eternal life is called a "gift."

All you need to do is completely rest in the Lamb of God, relying upon His name, because of what He did on the cross to pay for your sins! John 6:47,

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. "

1.1.3 Does Living In Sin Mean That I'm Not Saved? (2020-03-12 22:12)

Being a good Christian has nothing to do with being saved. Forgiveness of sins and eternal life are FREE, a gift from God, paid for by Jesus' precious blood. As Christians we SHOULD live for Christ; not MUST (that would be works); not WILL (that's Calvinism). There is no perfect Christian.

Perhaps you say to me that you're living in gross immorality. Perhaps you tell me that you're committing drunkenness, public nudity (by uploading naked selfies to the internet) and are guilty of sodomy, fearful that you're not really saved. I had a professed Christian man confess those very sins to me, confiding in my pastoral advice.

My Biblical response was simply that these are horrible sins, and I am not diminishing or condoning any of them, God forbid; but that has nothing to do with faith in Jesus as one's personal Savior. If you are feeling unsaved because of the sins in your life,

I recommended that you read chapter 9 from the helpful book titled: " [1]FULL ASSURANCE " by Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951).

The truth is that EVERY believer struggles with some area(s) of sinful weakness. That is part of being human. The apostle Paul struggled with sin (Romans 7:14-25). Although it is possible to live above reproach, no one can live above sin.

1st Timothy 5:24, "Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after." That is why w e all need to attend a Bible-believing local church, because we need preaching and fellowship with other Christians. Dear reader, if you are in the same situation as this man, living in open sin, it does not mean you aren't saved. It DOES mean that your priorities are wrong! You have placed your love for the lusts of the flesh as a higher priority in life than your love for God.

Bible preaching helps us think right!

It is also important that every Christian believer break off relationships with old friends, and start to associate with Christlike believers. You will become in five years who and what you CHOOSE to be around. I don't want drunks for friends! I don't want thieves for friends! I don't want blasphemers, adulterers, liars, slanderers and homosexuals for close friends. I want soulwinning Christians as friends, who desire to live in holiness because they love Jesus! And if I cannot find God-fearing Christians to be friends with, then I would rather be alone with God as my sole friend (James 4:4).

Ultimately, we all do what we choose to do. A professed Christian who is living in open sin DOESN'T love Jesus as they ought. I say that kindly. Jesus said if we love Him and are His friend, we will keep His commandments (John 14:15; 15:14). I have often had people ask me as a pastor, why they cannot overcome sin in their life. There is no magic advice for someone who chooses to live in wickedness. People live like the Devil because THEY CHOOSE TO, plain and simple. They may not want to, but they still choose to. What saith the Scripture? 1st Corinthians 10:13, " There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it." So any truly born-again Christian who claims that they cannot help them self

to sin is a liar. The Holy Bible teaches God ALWAYS gives us an escape path!

The Bible plainly teaches in 2nd Timothy 2:19, “ Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.” God never commands us to do something that we are incapable of doing. If we want to live for Christ, we can! The problem is not that some men are oversexed, weak or hot-tempered; but that they are under-charactered, undisciplined and lack the spiritual fruit of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25). Any child of God can LIVE RIGHT if we choose to!

Romans 10:13, “For whosoever shall CALL upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

I used to wonder if I had enough faith to be saved. What if I didn’t have enough faith at the time I thought I was saved? What if I didn’t get saved? How could I know if I had enough faith? How do you measure faith? I remember attending a revival meeting as a teenager and I learned a wonderful truth which I have never forgotten. I will share it with you now.

Let’s look at Romans 10:13, “For whosoever shall CALL upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” What a precious promise from God! If we will only call upon the Lord Jesus for salvation, that is all the faith we need to be saved.

How much faith do you need to be saved? ... JUST ENOUGH!

If you have “just enough” faith to put your trust in Jesus Christ, to go to Him for the forgiveness of your sins, that’s all the faith required. As a matter of fact, the more doubt you have, the greater your faith if you simply act on the belief. If you have so much doubt, that you CANNOT believe on Christ, then you have a serious problem. However, If you have “JUST ENOUGH” faith to take God at His Word, to obey the Bible by trusting Jesus alone as your personal Savior, then you are doing exactly what God expects of you to be saved. Remember, salvation is of the Lord, not man. We are saved by [1]God’s imputed righteousness, and not by any righteousness of our own accord.

To “call upon” the Lord simply means that you appeal unto Jesus Christ to be saved, receiving His death, burial and resurrection as full-payment for your sins. If you believe (rely upon) that Jesus is the Christ, Who paid for YOUR SINS on the cross and is risen from the dead, you are saved. Christ died, that’s history; Christ died for me, that’s salvation! John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.”

Jesus never one time spoke of degrees of believing. Jesus simply told us to “believe on Him” John 6:40, “And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and BELIEVETH ON HIM, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.” If you “believe” upon Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, that is all that matters. Do you believe Jesus can save you? Do you believe that you are a guilty sinner in God’s sight? Do you believe you deserve to go to Hell to be punished for your own sins? Do you believe Jesus died on the cross and shed His blood for you? Do you believe He was buried and rose up again three days later?

If you believe these Bible truths and have “JUST ENOUGH” faith to CALL UPON THE NAME OF THE LORD—You will be saved!

This is what Romans 10:13 says.

You need to realize your need as a guilty sinner. The provision of that need is Christ’s payment on the cross. God has made TWO great divisions to His Word —Old and New Testaments (or, LAW and GRACE). God’s law show men their sinnership. Romans 3:19, “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

” That is the purpose for which the law was given to Israel, that all men would become aware of their need for God’s saving grace through faith alone in Jesus Christ. Galatians 3:24-26, “Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

You don’t need to spend countless hours worrying over whether or not you have enough faith. If you have “JUST ENOUGH” faith to “CALL UPON THE NAME OF THE LORD,” that’s all the faith you need to be saved. Either you “believe” (rely) on the Lord Jesus Christ or you don’t. Simply take God at His Word, by receiving the account as given in the Holy Bible concerning Jesus Christ. Believe in the risen Christ, Who died on the cross to pay for YOUR SINS, and you are saved.

1.1.5 You Can Count On Jesus (2020-03-12 23:39)

“For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him SHALL NOT BE ASHAMED” (Romans 10:11). I have heard some preachers on the radio say, “a person who is ashamed of Jesus is not saved.” This is heresy my friend—Don’t you believe that garbage for one moment. Romans 10:11 is a quote from the Old Testament... “...he that believeth SHALL NOT MAKE HASTE” (Isaiah 28:16). Psalms 34:22, “The LORD redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.”

In other words, whosoever believes on the Lord Jesus Christ as Savior will not be disappointed. Jesus will NOT let us down. We will not have to run in shame or hide on the Day of judgment. Jesus will make good on His promise to us. Jesus said what He meant and meant what He said, “For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved” (Romans 10:13). What a blessed promise from God!!!

So many people have foolishly misunderstood Romans 10:11. Just because a person is ashamed of Jesus does not mean they are not a Believer. Was not Peter ashamed when he denied Christ three times and cursed the name of Jesus? Were not all the disciples scared when they forsook Christ while he was being scourged and crucified? Was not Joseph of Arimathaea a secret Believer? “And after this Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews” (John 19:38). He feared for his life. Yes, they were all afraid and ashamed. They didn’t dare tell anyone who they were for fear of being crucified themselves.

People who fear embarrassment, harassment or rejection by their co-workers, family and friends usually are reluctant to bring up the name of Jesus. It is the same type of fear as the disciples dealt with. However, does this mean they were not saved? Of course not—they were still saved! Peter didn't lose his salvation when he cursed and denied Christ, he simply lost his inner peace. Later Peter bitterly wept and asked God to forgive him. Of course, he was instantly forgiven. God knows that we are only human, "For HE KNOWETH OUR FRAME; HE REMEMBERETH THAT WE ARE DUST" (Psalm 103:14). What a wonderful truth!!! God never forgets that I am made of the dust of the earth, He is patient and longsuffering. He knows me better than I could possibly ever know myself. How foolish it would be for me or anyone else not to trust God wholeheartedly. If God is longsuffering with the unsaved, how much more is He patient with His own?—very much so.

Do you see my friend? We are not able to live perfect as long as we dwell in this earthly tent (body). We will always be at war with the sinful flesh. Every Believer has three primary enemies: Satan, the world and the flesh. We can only defeat these enemies in the power of God's Holy Spirit. We must pray and ask God to keep us from temptation. But when we do fall, we must understand that we are only human beings incapable of being perfect. The key is to identify our weaknesses and focus our Bible study and prayer in those areas. On the contrary, this certainly does not give us God's permission to sin. We are to strive to be perfect while at the same time realizing that we will never be perfect in this life.

Someone put it this way, "Do your best and put the rest into God's hands." Surely, it is a sin for us to disobey the leading of the Holy Spirit; however, we are sinners and will falter at times. This is the great dilemma in the Believer's life, "For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do" (Romans 7:19). These were the words of the mighty Apostle Paul, the great defender of the faith. He doesn't sound too much in control does he? He says he's prone to do the opposite of what he wants to do. Sound familiar? If you're a Believer it should.

Listen to Paul again in Romans 7:24, "O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?" Paul doesn't sound too confident does he? Compare this to the health, wealth and prosperity preachers that have infected our TV and radio channels everywhere. Paul asks the question, "who shall deliver me?" The Apostle Paul answers his own question in Romans 7:25, "I thank God THROUGH JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD. So then with the mind I myself serve the Law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin." This is a life-long battle and only Jesus can deliver us from our self. Jesus said, "...the flesh is weak" (Matthew 26:41). We must not forget this.

In conclusion, it is silly for anyone to say that a person is not truly saved simply because they may sin or deny the Lord at a particular moment or time in their life. John the Baptist became so discouraged while in prison that he sent his disciples to ask Jesus if He were really the Christ. Matthew 11:2,3, “Now when John had heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, And said unto him, Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?”

We all go through the valleys of life. This does not make it right but it surely does not mean where not saved either. Salvation is of God, not man. We don’t obtain salvation by works and we don’t keep it by works. I made a decision to trust Christ as Savior when I was just in grade School. I asked Jesus to forgive my sins and He did. I have been saved ever since. Though I am far from perfect, I know that Jesus will NOT let me down because I am trusting upon Him.

1.1.6 Confessing Christ Is Not Required To Be Saved (2020-03-12 23:44)

Salvation is of the heart. Romans 10:9, “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.” The apostle Peter exclaimed in Matthew 16:16, “And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.” Peter confessed with his mouth because he already believed in His heart. This is what Romans 10:9-10 means.

Repeatedly in the New Testament we are taught that the way to be saved is to BELIEVE. 1st Corinthians 1:21, “For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.” John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.”

Confessing Christ vocally is not a requirement to be saved. What if you were mute and couldn’t speak? Many of the chief rulers believed on Christ according to John 12:42-43, but they “

for fear of the Christ-hating Pharisees. The Bible says the chief rulers were saved, but they had their priorities wrong and loved the praise of men more than the praise of God. This describes most believers these days. Few believers are bold enough to publicly proclaim their faith in the dear Savior. I make it a habit everywhere I go to announce that I am a Christian. I am not ashamed of my precious Lord, God and Savior! [1]Evangelist Billy Graham foolishly teaches that confessing Christ is required to be saved, which is utter false doctrine.

Oh, that men would leave the Gospel alone! God calls the Gospel "the simplicity that is in Christ" (2nd Corinthians 11:3) for a good reason, because it is very simple to be saved—Simply admit that you are a guilty sinner in God's eyes, and BELIEVE on the Son of God; Who DIED on the cross for your sins, was BURIED, and three days later miraculously bodily RESURRECTED from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). If the Gospel is your only hope for eternal life Oh sinner, you have been born-again and are on your way to Heaven!

I was reading the Holy Bible today and a truth jumped out at me from Acts 10:30-45 concerning the simplicity of the plan of salvation. I'll share what I learned with you in a moment, but first let me share with you the story of Cornelius. We read in Acts 10:1-2 that Cornelius was a military leader, a centurion over an Italian squad of 100 soldiers. Cornelius was a good man, but lost. Acts 10:2, "A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway." This is amazing! Here's an important man in the community, well respected, who fears God, prays, and gives much money to the poor and needy. Yet, Cornelius was not a born-again Christian, on his way to Hell.

My friend, no amount of religious devotion, involvement in your church, sincerity, or personal human effort, can get you to Heaven. There are millions of people burning in Hell this very moment—who spent their lives doing good, helping others, praying, fearing God—yet they failed to do the will of God concerning salvation. What is the will of God? I'm glad you asked. John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day."

This leads me to the heart of this article that I'm writing. In a vision God appeared to Cornelius and told him to go see the Apostle Peter, so that Peter could witness the Gospel to him. Here is the Biblical account of the matter:

Acts 10:30-45, "And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God. Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee. Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God. Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:) That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judaea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree: Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly; Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost."

What I want you to notice, and this is my sermon, is the simple plan of salvation that the Apostle Peter gave to Cornelius. Remember, God sent Cornelius to go find Peter, so that he could learn how to be saved and go to Heaven.

Carefully notice that:

Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to follow Jesus.

Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to surrender all to God.

Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to get water baptized.

Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to make Jesus his Lord.

Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to join a church.

Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to get religion.

Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to publicly confess Christ as his Savior.

Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to invite Jesus into his heart.

Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to start a relationship with Jesus.

Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to change his life.

Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to turn away from his sins.

Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to forsake the world.

In fact, Peter DIDN'T TELL CORNELIUS TO DO ANYTHING!!! Peter simply told the story of Jesus of Nazareth, Who went about doing good and healing the sick, but the unbelieving Jews had Him crucified on a cross for our sins. Jesus bled and DIED on the cross. He was BURIED. And then Christ miraculously RESURRECTED bodily from the dead three days later. This is "the Gospel" [i.e., Good News] according to the Holy Scriptures:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures." [emphasis added]

In Acts 10:30-45 Peter said that anyone who believes on the name of Jesus, Who died on the cross for our sins and raised up the third day, shall receive a pardon for their sins. That was the simple Gospel message, which Cornelius simply and quietly BELIEVED and was immediately saved. Amen! Whew, that's good stuff! Peter never told Cornelius to do anything to be saved, he simply preached the Gospel of Christ's death on the cross for our sins, His burial, and bodily resurrection the third day. The very moment that Cornelius believed, he was forever born-again and saved. The hardest part about salvation for people to understand is that you get it by DOING NOTHING!!! You simply REST COMPLETELY in the finished work of Jesus Christ, and then God does the saving... ALL OF IT!!!

Every false religion in the world teaches a whole bunch of things that a person must DO to get to Heaven. But as we just saw for ourselves in the wonderful Scriptures in Acts 10:30-45, Peter simply preached the truth of the Gospel, and Cornelius BELIEVED and was instantly and forever born-again and saved. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved. Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross. "[1]HE THAT BELIEVETH IS NOT CONDEMNED" (a precious salvation sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles).

The Bible interprets itself. Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) used to say that the best way to interpret the Bible is not to interpret the Bible. Where the Bible is silent, we should be silent. Don't put a question mark where God put a period. You'll find all sorts of additions and perversions to the simple plan of salvation in today's religious groups. Even most evangelical churches these days have been contaminated, because the Devil has crept into them unawares with a false GRACE PLUS WORKS plan of salvation. I love you in the Lord friend, whoever you may be, and I don't want you to miss Heaven and spend eternity burning in the Lake of Fire.

I love this passage of Scripture in Acts 10:30-45, because it plainly teaches that salvation is obtained simply by BELIEVING THE GOSPEL OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. The Apostle Peter simply told the Good News (Gospel) of Christ crucified on the cross for our sins, buried and risen three days later. When Cornelius believed, he was immediately saved. This is the childlike faith which brings eternal life. The way to be saved is not to DO, but to BELIEVE! That is, make it your own. If you've made what Christ did on the cross, and His resurrection, your personal hope for Heaven, you are saved!

The Bible refers to the Gospel as "THE SIMPLICITY THAT IS IN CHRIST." 2nd Corinthians 11:3, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ." We find further evidence of "THE SIMPLICITY THAT IS IN CHRIST" in Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit [capital "S," for Holy Spirit] by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?" When a person is saved, God's Holy Spirit comes to indwell their earthly body permanently (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24). Hence, the apostle Paul wrote a letter to the church at Galatia, saying that he only wanted to know ONE THING: How did you become indwelt with the Holy Spirit? That is to say, How did you get saved, by works or faith? The correct answer is "BY THE HEARING OF FAITH"! That is, if you BELIEVE the Gospel when you hear it preached you are saved, end of story! This is exactly what happened to Cornelius and many who were with him—they heard the Gospel being preached, and they gladly received it, believing on the Lord Jesus Christ.

Please don't allow anyone to mislead you into following a false plan of salvation, because you will go to the Lake of Fire (Hell) forever. Nearly every religion today, including many Baptist churches sad to say, are teaching the Satanic lie that you cannot be saved unless you forsake sinful behavior and surrender your life to live for Jesus. This heresy is commonly called "Lordship Salvation." That is a false plan of salvation. That is human effort. That is not what the Bible teaches. As you read for yourself, Peter never asked Cornelius to do anything. That's right, nothing! God doesn't save those who are TRYING to be saved; but rather, those who are TRUSTING to be saved. Salvation is receiving, not achieving. Salvation is a TAKE proposition, not a GIVE proposition!

This is such a beautiful passage of Scripture in Acts 10:30-45. The Apostle Peter never told Cornelius to do one thing to be saved. Peter never told Cornelius to “turn away from sins” (a popular heresy taught in today’s apostate churches). In fact, Peter never mentioned the word “repent” to Cornelius. You won’t find even one mention of the words “repent” or “repentance” in Acts chapter 10. Could the Bible be any clearer that the man who believes has repented? I think not. Peter just shared the Good News of Christ crucified and risen the third day; Cornelius believed and was saved. It’s that simple to be saved. For many of you, this truth has no doubt opened your eyes to the level of doctrinal corruption in today’s churches. Anytime you hear someone telling you all the different things you must do to be saved, you know they are deceived by Satan! Just believe and the work is done!

1.1.8 Jesus Is Our Sabbath Today (2020-03-13 00:45)

In the Old Testament, God had instituted temporary ceremonial laws, which taught the Hebrews spiritual truths. God’s command for men to work 6-days a week represents man attempting to merit eternal life through human effort. On the Sabbath Day, which was a ceremonial law, no work was done, which taught that salvation is completely through God’s righteousness. Salvation is pictured by men ceasing from their own works, and instead resting in God’s righteousness on the Sabbath. The Sabbath was nailed to the cross (Colossians 2:14-16).

Today, Jesus is the fulfillment of the Sabbath Day, because Jesus is our Sabbath in Whom we rest for salvation. Amen! This is what Hebrews 4:10-11 is talking about.

We are saved by completely resting in Jesus Christ. Hebrews 4:10-11, “For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.” The Bible is speaking about Jesus, Who is our Sabbath today.

The only “work” that we can do to be saved is to run to Jesus as our Savior. We do this by believing that Jesus is Who He claimed to be... THE CHRIST! John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” Believe the Good News of Christ crucified and risen! John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.”

There is absolutely nothing that we can do to save ourselves, or even help save ourselves. We are all dirty, filthy, guilty sinners, in need of the blessed Savior. Jesus paid our debt of sin. Christ paid a debt that He did not owe, because we owed a debt that we could not pay. Praise God, JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! If you'll simply receive the GOOD NEWS of Christ crucified, buried and risen as full-payment for your sins, you are saved. Jesus became the fulfillment of what the Sabbath Day symbolized. Romans 10:3-4,

"For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

In the Old Testament there were about 720 laws! Jesus Christ is the END of the law, to everyone that believes!

Unless a person keeps the whole Law, all 720, the Bible says they are "

Paul makes this clear in writing to the Galatians. "For as many as are of the works of the law are under the CURSE: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them." (Galatians 3:10). Therefore, all men are CURSED before they are saved! The moment that a person trusts Jesus as their personal Savior, they're no longer under the curse of the LAW, they are then and forever under God's saving GRACE through faith in Christ Jesus!!!

1.1.9 The Great Neglected Bible Doctrine of Imputation (2020-03-13 01:19)

In my humble opinion, the most important theological doctrine, that a person who struggles with assurance of salvation can learn, is "IMPUTATION." The doctrine of imputation has been deliberately neglected in this corrupt generation, because this precious doctrine blatantly exposes the heresies of Lordship Salvation and wrong repentance (i.e., turning from sinful behavior to be saved). This is another reason why I am eternally at odds with the modern Bible perversions, because they remove the doctrine of IMPUTATION.

The above picture is truly worth 1,000 words. It shows how God can view a person as being sinful and yet justified at the same time. I love the following precious passage of Scripture from Romans 5:20, "Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound." The unsaved person is still under the curse of God's LAW, but the born-again believer is now under God's redeeming GRACE! The very thought of that truth cheers my heart and puts a big smile on my face! When a believer sins (and we all still do every day), God's GRACE abounds that much more! There is NO condemnation for the Christian believer! John 3:18a, "He that believeth on him is not condemned..."

In Evangelist Ray Comfort's popular work, "The Evidence Bible," which is based upon the corrupt Amplified Bible, Ray completely ignores Romans 4:5-6 concerning imputation; nor does he mention the word "imputation" in the concordance in back of his reference Bible. Kindly, Ray Comfort has been deceived by Satan concerning the Scriptures, repentance and the Gospel. He leaves off imputation.

The apostates behind the modern Bible revisions sincerely think they are helping people, by translating the phrase "unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works" in Romans 4:6b instead to "God accepts them as good without looking at what they have done." There is a VERY BIG difference between imputing righteous to a guilty sinner verses accepting them as good!!! The latter leaves off the "WHY" of redemption. The reason WHY God can credit a man with righteousness without works is because Christ became our sacrifice on the cross!!! Literally, God places our sins upon Christ, and then places Christ's righteousness upon us. This all happens by faith. 2nd Corinthians 5:21, "For he [God the Father] hath made him [God the Son] to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." What a beautiful Savior!

I have actually heard Baptist ministers preach against Lordship Salvation (i.e., Calvinism), and yet turn right around and teach that a person MUST turn away from their sinful behavior to be saved. It's hard to believe that any pastor could be so confused doctrinally, as to preach against Lordship Salvation while simultaneously still preaching [2]wrong repentance. Ladies and gentleman, it is happening all around the world. It is just as wrong to require a person to cease from sinful activities to be saved, as it is to require them to have to follow Jesus as His disciple to be saved; and furthermore, it is very wrong to even require a person to have to " to turn from sin" to be saved (which is what cartoon evangelist Jack Chick errantly teaches in all his Chick Tracts). You don't have to clean up your life of sin to be saved, nor even BE WILLING to let God help you clean up your life. Eternal life is a free gift, which you simply receive with childlike faith in Jesus Christ as your Savior.

Pastor William Pettingill (1866-1950) offers these helpful words:

> “What place has repentance in salvation? Should we tell people to repent of their sins to be saved? The Gospel of John is the Holy Spirit’s Gospel Tract, written that men might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing they might have life through His name (20:31). And it does not mention the word ’repentance.’ But that is only because repentance is a necessary part of saving faith. Strictly speaking, the repentance means a ’change of mind.’ It is by no means the same thing as sorrow (II Corinthians 7:10). Since it is not possible to an unbeliever to become a believer without changing his mind, it is therefore unnecessary to say anything about it. The only thing for a man to do in order to be saved is to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ: and to believe on Him is the same thing as receiving Him (John 1:11-13).” —Pettingill, William; “Bible Questions Answered,” (p. 215-216).

Amen Brother, that is some good stuff!!!

Here is a very helpful MP3 sermon by one of my favorite preachers, Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982). The sermon is titled, “DR. LAW AND DR. GRACE.”

The Two Greatest Doctors Who’ve Ever Lived: [4]Dr. Law And Dr. Grace | [5]Part Two .

Here are some wonderful quotes exposing the error of Lordship Salvation and Wrong Repentance...

“Eternal life is free. Discipleship is immeasurably hard. The former is attained by faith alone, the latter by a faith that works... the former brings with it the righteousness of God so that a man is ’justified freely by his grace’ (Romans 3:24). The latter develops a personal righteousness, based on good deeds, so that a man was also ’justified by works’ (James 2:24). The former constituted the believer God’s workmanship, the latter fulfilled the wonderful purpose for which he had been created. The former cost man nothing, the latter could cost him everything, including life itself.” —Hodges, Zane C.; “The Hungry Inherit,” Moody Press, Inc., 1972 (p. 114-115).

“There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can’t be lost because it depends upon God’s faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness.” —Dehaan, M. R. Hebrews; “Zondervan Publishing House,” 1959 (p. 117).

“There are those who, in their zeal to get people to turn from their sinful ways and receive the Lord, almost put repentance on a par with believing... Repentance, as it relates to Christ, means to change our minds about Him, who He is and what He’s done to provide forgiveness and deliverance from our sins. When we place faith in Jesus as having taken our place personally on the cross and borne the penalty due our sins, then we’re automatically repenting, because we couldn’t accept Him in this way without having had to change our minds in some way concerning Him." —Lindsey, Hal; "The Liberation of Planet Earth," Zondervan Publishing House, 1974 (p. 136, 137).

"Discipleship is frequently equated with salvation and often erroneously made a condition for becoming a Christian." —Pentecost, J. Dwight; "Design for Discipleship," Zondervan Publishing House, 1971 (p. 11).

"Certainly discipleship is a most important aspect of our relation to Christ, but it belongs to the sphere of Christian life rather than entrance upon that life... One does not become a disciple in order to become a Christian, but because he has become a Christian by faith in the Savior, it is fitting that he embark upon a life of discipleship." —Harrison, Everett F.; "Must Christ Be Lord to Be Savior? No," Eternity, September 1959 (p. 14).

"It is an inexcusable error to confront sinners with problems that concern the Christian life and call upon them to make promises regarding them. An unsaved person is never called upon to surrender himself to God. The saving act is in no instance represented as our 'giving ourselves to God'; it is, on the contrary, taking His Son as our Savior." —Ryrie, Charles; "Balancing the Christian Life," Moody Press, Inc., 1969 (p. 170).

Here is a wonderful quote by Evangelist Hal Lindsey refuting the heresy of Wrong Repentance...

"Repentance, as it relates to Christ, means to change our minds about Him, who He is and what He's done to provide forgiveness, and deliverance from our sins. When we > place faith in Jesus as having taken our place personally on the cross and borne the penalty due our sins, then we're automatically repenting, because we couldn't accept Him in this way without having had to change our minds in some way concerning Him." —Hal Lindsey; "The Liberation of Planet Earth" (p. 133).

> Penance is payment for sin. Penitence is sorrow for sin. Works and something of self is turning from sin. But repentance (metanoia) means a change of mind. Man's great need is to understand God's way of salvation and accept His sacrifice. Repentance in salvation means a change of mind from any idea of religion that man might have and accepting God's way of salvation. "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life (John 3:16)." —Dr. Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008).

Those are beautiful quotes, clearly explaining the truth about repentance and salvation. I fear more than HALF of all Baptists are going straight to Hell when they enter into eternity, because they've placed their faith in wrong repentance (turning from sins) and Lordship Salvation (discipleship). The LAW gives the KNOWLEDGE OF SIN, and that is its only role in God's plan of salvation.

We are saved by God's imputed righteousness. [6]It's Not Your Righteousness, It's God's! The hardest part about getting people saved is first getting them lost. Many people have the wrong idea that you get to Heaven by being good, but no one is good (Romans 3:10-23). The only reason I am going to Heaven is because I am relying completely upon God's righteousness through faith alone in Jesus Christ. Philippians 3:9,

"And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

" I love that Bible verse! The Bible teaches that a man's faith is COUNTED for righteousness. Romans 4:5,

"But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

Dear friend, God is offering you forgiveness of sins and eternal life for free. You don't need to ask Jesus to save you, because He is already asking you. John 3:16, "

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

" But don't you have to do "works" to get to Heaven? A group of people asked Jesus that very same question in John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

Simply BELIEVE and the work is done!

1.1.10 Jesus Doesn't Forgive Sins (2020-03-13 02:02)

You don't have to "ask" Jesus to save you. You read correct! Jesus doesn't forgive sins, He has already paid for everyone's sins with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). All we need to do to be saved, is to receive Christ's sacrifice on THE CROSS as payment for our sins, simply by BELIEVING! 1st Corinthians 1:21, "For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe."

One of the reasons why so many people have difficulty settling the assurance of their salvation, is simply because they have been wrongly taught how to be saved. I was saved at age 13, but I lived with much fear and uncertainty for the next seven years, because I was wrongly taught to "

as part of getting saved. I knew I was a sinner. I understood that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, Who died on the cross to pay for my sins. I believed that He raised up from the dead, and the best I knew how, I called out silently from within my soul from a church pew for Jesus to save me. I was too shy to go forward during the invitation, so I never talked to anybody about it.

Consequently, I worried from the moment I was saved if I was really saved. What if? What if I go to Hell? What if I miss out on Heaven? What if I missed something? What if I didn't pray right? Those were my worrisome thoughts.

I began a quest on my own, reading every religious tract, picking up everything I could find about salvation. I sat on the edge of my seat in church, whenever anything was preached about faith and getting saved. I did learn many things, but not enough to settle my fears. Sadly, few preachers understand the Gospel well enough to preach it accurately. That is why I have dedicated the remainder of my life to presenting the Gospel accurately, that lost sinners may be gloriously saved.

Unfortunately, religious tracts are filled with junk theology, which continued to mislead me. Had someone told me what I am telling you, that all God expects is for us to simply BELIEVE, I wouldn't have doubted for so long. What saith the Scripture?

John 6:47, " Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

If you are familiar with religious tracts, as I am, then you know that very few tracts properly present THE GOSPEL, by which we are saved (Romans 1:16). That is why I refer to them as religious tracts instead of Gospel tracts! Most tracts subtract the cross, or Christ's bodily resurrection; or they add committing your life to Christ, turning away from sins, confessing Jesus before men, praying a sinner's prayer, or making Jesus the

Lord

" of your life to be saved. None of those things comprise The Gospel. You can do all those things and yet never have been saved at all! You get saved by BELIEVING the 'GOOD NEWS' (which is the meaning of 'GOSPEL') of Christ's death on the cross, burial, and bodily resurrection three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

One of the greatest days of my life was when I learned the wonderful simple truth, that I was saved at age 13 by simply believing on Jesus' name; and that there never was a need for me to pray at all. It was my heart's faith, relying upon the blessed Savior, that saved me. It is not by anything good that I have ever done, nor that I could ever do, that saved me; but rather, it's by the imputed righteousness of God, counted to me by faith in Jesus Christ! I AM ETERNALLY SAVED! Praise God! I have God's written promise on it in His Word!

Abraham believed the Lord, and it was counted to him for righteousness (Genesis 15:6; Romans 4:1-6).

And so I say to you dear reader, there is no need to "pray" or "

ask

" Jesus to save you, He has already paid your debt of sin in full with His precious blood. All you need to do is receive God's free GIFT of forgiveness of sins and eternal life, by simple childlike faith in Jesus' name. ...

> Romans 4:5-6, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.
> Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

Isn't that beautiful? GOD IMPUTETH RIGHTEOUSNESS WITHOUT WORKS!!! That means God the Father credits all of His only begotten Son's righteousness to us, simply because we are relying upon Him. Anyone who relies upon Jesus Christ—trusting that He died on the cross, was buried and raised up the third day for us—has their sins remitted and receives eternal life. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins."

1.1.11 There is Forgiveness Through Calvary's Cross (2020-03-13 03:13)

Luke 23:33, "And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

As a Baptist preacher of the Gospel, I call sin by name. Evangelist Billy Sunday did too, who said:

> "I believe that a long step toward public morality will have been taken when sins are called by their right names." —Evangelist Billy Sunday

God pity the preacher that the world don't hate! A good detective doesn't believe in coincidences. A good lawyer is a contender. A good judge is tough on crime. And a good preacher doesn't compromise; he is hated by those who hate THE TRUTH, and loved by those who love righteousness! I fully agree with Billy Sunday on the Word of God, who said:

> "I have more respect for the devil than for some preachers I have met; the devil believes the Bible is the Word of God!" —Evangelist Billy Sunday

The United States has clearly been under demonic attack throughout the 20th century—leading society's moral standards lower each succeeding generation, corrupting the most basic unit of society—the family. Hollywood has waxed worse and worse over time. The Holy Bible has been removed and banned from all public schools since 1963, which was the fatal decision that drove the nails into our nation's coffin. The horrifying consequences have been devastating!

> "Lord save us from off-handed, flabby-cheeked, brittle-boned, weak-kneed, thin-skinned, pliable, plastic, spineless, effeminate, ossified, three-karat Christianity." — Evangelist Billy Sunday

I rip faces, mash on toes, and preach hard against sin, because that is my job as a Bible preacher. Admittedly, I am as much a sinner as anyone else, and as far as I am concerned, the worse of sinners. God has blessed me with so much knowledge of the truth of the Bible, imperfect but Christian parents, a good Baptist church when I was a youth, and the privilege to attend the best Bible college in history (at the time) under the influence of Pastor Jack Hyles; I feel that God expects so much more from me than what I have given Him. I wish I knew how to do more, give more, be more, accomplish more, but I simply do not! I pray often in the misery of my health and personal afflictions, as the Bible teaches. James 5:13a, "Is any among you afflicted? let him pray..." Oh to God, that He would use me more each day for His glory, purpose and the cause of Jesus Christ. To God be the glory, great things He hath done, and is doing, through my humble labors. I am nothing, but Jesus is everything! "HEAR YE HIM" (Matthew 17:5b).

The Gift Of Forgiveness Through Christ's Blood is Offered Freely to Whosoever Wants it

Having said that about sin, and the awfulness of sin, and my uncompromisingly stand against all sin, may I say to you dear reader that there is an equal amount of forgiveness available through Calvary's cross for all your sins! Isaiah 1:18, "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool." There is forgiveness available even for the vilest and worst of criminal offenders. There is forgiveness available for murderers, rapists, pedophiles and even greedy televangelists! God offers forgiveness even to the worst of sinners through faith in His only begotten Son!

Carefully read the following passage of Scripture and notice the precious message being conveyed. Some men would give their life as a sacrifice for a godly man. Some men might even give their life as a sacrifice for a good man. But who would sacrifice their life for a convicted criminal? The clear implication is NO ONE! But the Bible says that Jesus Christ did exactly that—He Who knew no sin gave His life as a ransom for ungodly sinners (you and me)...

> Romans 5:6-8, "For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

Since Christ DIED FOR ALL, then it is only reasonable to conclude that THERE IS HOPE FOR ALL. There is no such thing as a "reprobate" sinner who is beyond the hope of the saving Gospel of free grace! Some men are reprobates, to be sure, but it is only by their own choice that they are a reprobate, and not by God's hand. For we read in 2nd Peter 3:9, "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." God the Father desires for EVERYONE to change their mind (repent) and believe the 'GOOD NEWS' (GOSPEL) of Jesus crucified to DEATH on the cross, BURIED and bodily RESURRECTED the third day, to receive the gift of forgiveness of sins which includes eternal life. You don't have to "ask" Jesus to save you, because He is asking you to accept Him by faith.

So we see that God Himself desires for ALL HUMANITY to repent—even the cross-dressing freaks, sodomite perverts, rugged men wearing girly nails and pink panties at age 60—God still wants these ungodly men (for whom Christ died) to come to repentance (change their mind) and be saved through faith in Jesus Christ alone. Forgiveness is freely available and freely offered, without discrimination, to all walks of humanity. God does not discriminate (Romans 2:11). God loves you so much dear reader, that He sent His only begotten (biological) Son to die on a cross to pay for YOUR SINS, and MY SINS, and EVERYONE'S SINS! Do you realize what God has done for you dear friend? Do you understand what Jesus suffered through for you, to pay your debt of sin on the cross, so that you could be freed and go to Heaven forever.

Jesus Paid Your Sin Debt, But You MUST Receive it By Faith To Have It

But you don't get that gift by default friend! Just because Christ died for all man doesn't mean that all men are saved. If you do nothing, you will burn in Hell forever when you die. You must RECEIVE Jesus Christ by placing your trust solely in His work on the cross, believing that He was buried, and miraculously raised up physically three days later, victorious over the grave. When Christ raised up, the faith of every believer who trusted in Him was 100 % justified. Jesus raised up for our justification! The Lord died as our sacrificial Lamb of God on the cross (John 1:29), but He raised up and ascended into Heaven as every believer's intercessory heavenly High Priest (Romans 8:34; Hebrews 4:14-16). Praise the Lord!!!

All you have to do to be completely and permanently forgiven of your sins, no matter how awful they may be seen in your own sight, and that of society, is to BELIEVE THE GOSPEL!

Acts 26:18, "To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me."

Colossians 1:14, "In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins."

Ephesians 1:7, "In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace."

Listen to what Pastor Dwight Moody said:

"The voice of sin is loud, but the voice of forgiveness is louder." —Pastor Dwight L. Moody

Amen! Christians everywhere need to go into the prisons and let lonely criminals know that forgiveness is available to them, through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Romans 8:34, "Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us." I love that Bible verse! Who is he that condemneth? The clearly implied answer is: NO ONE! Once your sins have been forgiven in Christ, you are under God's GRACE, no longer under the condemnation of the Mosaic LAW. Romans 6:14-15, "For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid." I love that—FOR YE ARE NOT UNDER THE LAW, BUT UNDER GRACE!!! When you place your faith in the 'GOOD NEWS' of what Jesus did to pay for your sins on the cross, you are no longer under the curse of God's LAW.

Here are some more helpful comments from mighty soulwinning preachers of times past:

> "Those who say they will forgive but can't forget, simply bury the hatchet but leave the handle out for immediate use." —Pastor Dwight L. Moody

> "Sinners cannot find God for the same reason that criminals cannot find a policeman: They aren't looking!" —Evangelist Billy Sunday

> "The reason you don't like the Bible, you old sinner, is because it knows all about you." —Evangelist Billy Sunday

There is no sin so horrible—no crime so heinous, no sin so disgusting, no sin so offensive, no sin so publicly hated by the manure-spreading newsmedia, no sin so shocking, no sin so wrought with buckets of tears, no evil the human mind can imagine, no crime so bad that new laws were passed because of it, no mass-murderers in history, no kidnapper, no human trafficker, no perverse arsonist, no lying lawyer, no crooked judge, no divorcing spouse, no rotten cop, no embezzler, no serial killer, and no abortionist—there are none of these rotten people, who cannot be forgiven by God almighty—if they will SIMPLY ACKNOWLEDGE (IN THEIR SOUL) THEIR GUILTY SINFUL CONDITION IN THE SIGHT OF A HOLY GOD, AND BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST BY FAITH. SIMPLE BELIEVE THAT JESUS DIED ON THE CROSS IN YOUR PLACE. JESUS PAID THE PRICE FOR YOUR SINS WITH HIS PRECIOUS BLOOD!

But you MUST receive God's gift of forgiveness or you will die in your sins! Salvation is not automatic. Everyone is NOT a child of God. The heathen world oftentimes assumes that everyone goes to Heaven, but that is not Biblical. 2nd Timothy 2:13, "If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself." Clearly, not everyone believes on the name of Jesus Christ, which means they are not saved. The Lord abideth faithful, always willing to forgive and save anyone who receives it, but dear reader, you MUST receive it! I recently heard media mogul Oprah Winfrey pressure Bishop T.D. Jakes to agree with her that there is salvation apart from the name of Jesus for sincere people, but that is NOT Biblical. Oprah is hellbound in her sins without Jesus Christ, as is everyone who does not WHOLLY BELIEVE ON JESUS' NAME!

BELIEVE THE GOSPEL AND YOU ARE SAVED!

Psalm 119:105, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." America's churches influence the world, so if Satan can corrupt our churches here at home, then he can corrupt the world. The United States sends out more missionaries than any other nation. Sadly, there is MUCH heresy and false teaching circulating on the radio, television and in our churches nowadays concerning what a person must do to be saved.

What exactly is the Gospel? The word "Gospel" means "Good News" or "Glad Tidings." There is no need to guess what the "Gospel" is because the Bible plainly tells us. The "Gospel" is the Good News of Christ's DEATH on the cross for our sins, His BURIAL and bodily RESURRECTION three days later:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

We are saved by BELIEVING "the Gospel," which is the power of God unto salvation. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." It is that simple to be saved. If you admit that you are a guilty sinner in God's sight, and you receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, and bodily resurrected three days later, and that is your only hope for eternal life, then YOU ARE IMMEDIATELY, SECURELY AND FOREVER SAVED!!!

This is the proper Gospel mindset. Anything else is not Bible salvation! There is Forgiveness Through Calvary's Cross. Hallelujah!!!

Micah 7:18, "Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy."

1.1.12 The Gospel Mindset (2020-03-13 03:20)

Galatians 1:6-7, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

The Devil is a beautiful liar, subtle and shrewd in his methods of deception. The Devil knows that the best way to confuse someone, and thus obscure the truth, is to put forth multiple similar but conflicting stories. This explains why we see hundreds of English Bible versions today. This explains why we see dozens of variations of God's plan of salvation in the churches. This explains why every major news story involving a suspect false flag terror attack revolves around multiple different stories.

Religion wants to fit us with glasses, but the Lord wants to open our eyes! Thank God for the truth of His precious Word, which is a lamp unto our feet. Psalm 119:105, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." America's churches influence the world, so if Satan can corrupt our churches here at home, then he can corrupt the world. The United States sends out more missionaries than any other nation. Sadly, there is MUCH heresy and false teaching circulating on the radio, television and in our churches nowadays concerning what a person must do to be saved.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures.”

We are saved by BELIEVING “the Gospel,” which is the power of God unto salvation. Romans 1:16, “For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.” John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? This is the proper Gospel mindset. Anything else is not Bible salvation!

Kindly, the following preachers have ANOTHER GOSPEL: John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, Paul Washer, Jon Piper, William Lane Craig, Charles Lawson, Beth Moore, Jimmy Swaggart, John Hagee, Joel Osteen, Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, Jack Chick, David Cloud, Pat Robertson, Don Blackwell, Dan Corner, Brian Derringer, Charles Stanley. And then there is a corrupt group of preachers who believe that people in the Old Testament were required to do works to be saved; such as, William P. Grady and Peter S. Ruckman. All these men preach ANOTHER GOSPEL that is not the Gospel.

One of my favorite men of God, Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008), preached a monumental sermon titled, “[1]How Permanent Is Your Salvation?” The basic gist of the sermon is to ask every person who claims to be saved, the following question: Is there anything you could ever do to lose your salvation? If their answer is “yes,” then the person is not saved, because they have the wrong mindset and do not understand the Gospel. A person who is truly saved, fully understands that salvation has absolutely NOTHING to do with them self, and that Jesus paid the full price for our sins with His precious blood. 1st Peter 1:18-19, “Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot.” This is the Gospel mindset.

If a person believes that even the slightest amount of human effort is necessary to merit eternal life, then they are not born-again! Jesus paid it all! I once witnessed to a professed Christian man, a school teacher at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I kindly asked him if admitting one’s guilt as a sinner and believing the Gospel is enough to be saved. He said, “Ah, I think there needs to be a little bit more.” His reply clearly evidenced to me that he is in fact, not saved. Upon further interview I discovered that he foolishly thinks a person needs to turn away from deliberate sinful behavior to be saved. Where did he get that false idea? I have no doubt that he heard it from any one of the corrupt preachers that I just named. People have a woeful weakness of going by what they hear. Romans 3:4, “God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.” I am in agreement with the inspired Word of God on the Gospel.

Kindly, if you think that water baptism is necessary to get to Heaven, you are not going! If you think that a Catholic priest or Lutheran minister can forgive your sins, you are going to Hell when you die. If you think that living a good life impresses God, and that is your hope for eternal life, then you will perish in your sins when you die and spend the rest of eternity tormented in the Lake of Fire. The Roman Catholic Church is a prisonhouse of religion! Hell is filled with sincere Catholics, who bought into the Satanic lie that they could get to Heaven through sacraments. Salvation is not found in any religion, but in a Person—The Lord Jesus Christ!

There is only one proper way of thinking, that produces the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God, and that is faith alone in the [2]GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ. Salvation has always been through faith in the Messiah. Acts 10:43, “To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.” John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.” The Gospel is so simple. In fact, it is even called “the simplicity that is in Christ” in 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4. Having to forsake one’s sinful ways to be saved is anything but "simple." If a person must forsake lifelong sinful bad habits to be saved, or even try to cease from sinning, then we're all going to Hell.

Do you have a proper Gospel mindset? If a born-again believer went out and murdered 1,000 people, God forbid, they would still have eternal life. The reason why is because you don't get saved by doing good works, nor can you be lost by doing bad works! How can you lose that which was not yours to give in the first place? "Salvation is of the LORD" (Jonah 2:9b). A Christian falls IN GRACE, never FROM GRACE. Only the Christ-rejecter falls FROM GRACE! When we have sinned as Christians, "grace did much more abound" (Romans 5:20b). Put another way, the only difference between the holiest saint and the vilest sinner upon the face of the earth, is the precious saving-blood of the Lord Jesus Christ! It is the Gospel (the blessed Good News) of Christ's death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection three days later, that is my only hope for the forgiveness of my sins, eternal life and a family in Heaven.

1.1.13 The Simple Gospel According To The Bible (2020-03-13 03:38)

Religion wants to fit us with glasses, but the Lord wants to open our eyes! Thank God for the truth of His precious Word, which is a lamp unto our feet (Psalm 119:105). America's churches influence the world, so if Satan can corrupt our churches here at home, then he can corrupt the world, because the United States sends out more missionaries than any other nation. Sadly, there is MUCH heresy and false teachings circulating on the radio, television and in our churches nowadays concerning what a person must do to be saved. What exactly is the Gospel?

There is no need to guess what the "Gospel" is because the Bible plainly tells us . . .

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

There you have it, the GOSPEL is three things:

(1) Jesus DIED on the cross for our sins.

(2) Jesus was BURIED.

(3) Jesus bodily RESURRECTED from the dead three days later.

The only requirement is to acknowledge that you are a guilty sinner in God's sight. You need to know what you're being saved from! All men are horrible sinners, deserving of the wages of sin, which is death (Romans 6:23). We all must die the first physical death; but no one needs to die the second death in the Lake of Fire (Revelation 20:1-15). God in His love has made a way of escape from the wrath to come. Romans 5:8-9, "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. " God wrath is stored up and reserved for all Christ-rejecters, who die in their sins without a Savior! Please don't go that route dear friend! God wants to save you (2nd Peter 3:9).

Many Ministers Get the Gospel Wrong

I once heard a visiting missionary (Phil Hunt from Africa) say at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, that there are two things that a person must absolutely believe to be saved: 1) That Jesus is the supreme Lord of the universe; 2) That Jesus raised up from the dead. That was it. That's his shallow plan of salvation. No wonder he has no converts! He didn't mention the cross. He didn't mention the fact that all men are guilty sinners under the condemnation of God's law, deserving of Hell. And he added the unscriptural requirement to surrender to Christ's supreme Lordship to be saved. That is NOT the Gospel! So few people have a clear understanding of how salvation works. Let me make it very simple. YOU ARE A SINNER! Unless you accept Christ's payment for your sins, you will spend eternity burning in the fires of Hell. Please read: [1]3,000 Souls Saved In One Day! (Acts 2:41 says 3,000 people simply believed and were saved!).

Unless you trust JESUS CHRIST ALONE for your salvation, you CANNOT be saved. I don't think Chip Ingram is saved. I also don't think Billy Graham was saved. The biggest lies are always sandwiched between two truths to conceal them. I don't think David Cloud is saved. These well-meaning men all require HUMAN EFFORT, that is, forsaking sinful behavior, to be saved, which is a false Gospel. If we have to repent of all our sins to be saved, then we're all going straight to Hell. Repentance unto salvation is "a change of mind," not a change of behavior. I recently heard Evangelist Tom Ferrell preach that a person is not saved unless they've been changed, and if they've changed they have declared "Jesus as Lord." That's the Devil's lie of Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation)!

A changed life is the FRUIT of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25), not a requirement to get saved. But you ask, couldn't a person still be saved even though they are confused about salvation? No, because they have a wrong mindset and are not completely trusting the redemptive work of Christ. If you don't believe what I say, consider how closely Seventh-day Adventism comes to the Gospel, yet they are light-years away. If you believe wrong then you trust wrong, and unless you are totally resting in the precious blood of Jesus that washes our sins away (1st Peter 1:18-19), then you haven't been born-again by the Holy Spirit of God.

Please remember that a man named Cornelius in Acts chapter 10 was a devout religious man. Cornelius feared God, prayed, tithed and fasted, yet he was a lost man on his way to Hell. God sent the apostle Peter to witness to Cornelius and thankfully he got saved later in the chapter. God is good!

There is a cross-less Gospel which has crept into today's churches which merely says to "trust Jesus" or "invite Jesus into your heart" or "commit your life to Christ" to be saved. You can do all of these things and go straight to Hell when you die. Judas was one of Christ's very apostles, who followed the Lord everywhere He went, but still died in his sins and went to Hell forever! Matthew 27:3 says Judas even repented (i.e., he turned from his sins). That is not how you get saved! My friend, the Gospel truth is that Christ:

“Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures” (1st Corinthians 14:3b-4).

Surrendering to Christ’s Lordship is NOT a requirement to be saved. Forsaking the world and having intent to reform is NOT a requirement to be saved. Inviting Jesus into your life is NOT a requirement for eternal life. All God requires is that you admit you are a guilty sinner in God’s sight and BELIEVE the Gospel. Believing is the way to be saved, which simply means to trust, to rely upon. Forsaking sinful behavior is NOT part of the Gospel.

A Christian SHOULD serve Christ; not MUST (that is works); not WILL (that would be Calvinism). Romans 12:1 calls serving Christ a believer’s “reasonable service,” but it’s not mandatory to be saved. Eternal life is a gift from God, to those who BELIEVE.

Whatever changes that God expects in a new believer is the Holy Spirit’s department and you can be assured He will attend to that. It is a horrible mistake and evil, to change the Gospel in an attempt to force men to reform their sinful ways. The Gospel is a free gift, and a gift need only be received. If there are any additional obligations or requirements, then it is not truly a gift. Romans 6:23, “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.”

Unbelief is the only sin which can keep you out of Heaven.

Just take God at His word and claim His salvation by faith. Believe, and you will be saved. No church, no lodge, no good works can save you. Remember, God does the saving. All of it!

Trusting Jesus is meaningless without the cross. You must believe that Jesus died, was buried and rose again. 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 teaches that the Gospel is the death, burial and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ.

God’s simple plan of salvation is: You are a sinner. Therefore, unless you believe on Jesus Who died in your place, you will spend eternity in Hell. If you believe on Him as your crucified, buried, and risen Savior, you receive forgiveness for all of your sins and His gift of eternal salvation by faith.

You say, “Surely, it cannot be that simple!” Yes, that simple. It is scriptural; it is God’s plan. My friend, believe on Jesus and receive Him as Savior today.

If you’ve never been saved, then now is the time to believe upon the name of Jesus, the Christ, that your sins will be blotted out forever and you can know that your name is written in Heaven.

Christ died for your sins. You are a sinner by nature and by choice. Jesus took your sins and charged them to His own record. He went to the cross and paid the penalty for your sins. He says if you’re willing to receive Him in faith; He will transfer His payment to your debt, and His righteousness to your sins. He will impute to you His goodness, and impute to His own record your sin; if you in faith will trust Him as your Savior.

1.1.14 The False Gospel Of Actor Chuck Norris (2020-03-13 18:50)

I am not much of a Chuck Norris’ movie fan, simply because I am not into Martial Arts; but I am a fan of Chuck Norris! I agree with his admirable: “[1]Top Ten Rules For Success.” Chuck is a good man from all I have ever seen of him, and an honest guy. I admire him and am not writing this article in any way to shed a negative light on his character or person. I am simply sharing my theological views of the inspired Word of God regarding God’s plan of salvation for humanity.

Without further ado, here is a quote from Chuck Norris’ Christian Resource Page online, in which he offers this suggested sinner’s prayer to be saved:

"Jesus, I know that I have sinned against you. I know the truth is that I have sinned by my own choice, and I am the one responsible for it. I know that I have earned punishment from You, and that the fair punishment would be death. Jesus, I believe that You died in my place. Forgive me for my sin. I cannot cover or take my sin away, I am relying totally and only on You. You are the only one who can save me. I reject my sin, I turn away from it, I repent. Come into my life, take away my sin, and show me how to live my life in a way that is right and pleasing to You." [emphasis added] —[2]Chuck Norris - FREE GIFT

Now, the preceding emboldened statements may seem subtle and even insignificant to you, but they are very important to consider, because they are false! The "Gospel" as defined in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 is that Jesus DIED on the cross for our sins, He was BURIED, and then after three days He miraculously bodily RESURRECTED from the dead. The only Biblical requirement to believe the Gospel, is to realize that you are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God, otherwise why would you need a Savior?

So that's it in a nutshell. That is " the simplicity that is in Christ

" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). To be saved, you simply come as you are, as a guilty SINNER, receiving a risen Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins. Even a small child can do that!

But according to Chuck Norris, from his suggested prayer to be saved that I just quoted to you, he says MORE is required. Chuck says: "I reject my sin

and

turn away from it, I repent.

" By adding these unbiblical requirements to be saved, Mr. Norris has perverted the Gospel, placing the burden to change upon the sinner, instead of the transforming power of God in the life of every believer.

When I was saved at age 13, I knew I was a sinner, but no one required me to stop anything to receive the gift of God, which is eternal life. I simply believed on the name of Jesus Christ from my church pew, believing the 'GOOD NEWS' (i.e., Gospel), and was eternally born-again. Immediately, God's indwelling Holy Spirit began to work, convicting me about the sins in my life. This is how salvation works dear friend—you simply trust Jesus Christ as your personal Savior,and He washes the stain of your sins away with His precious blood, and then the Holy Spirit begins to work on you!

But this is very different than what Chuck is teaching, which is the heresy of Lordship Salvation (or, Calvinism). It is very wrong to tell a lost sinner that they must reject and turn away from sin to receive the free gift of God. Ironically, Chuck Norris' titled his article: "

FREE GIFT.

Okay, well, if eternal life is a free gift (and is truly is), then why does a person have to reject and turn away from their sins to obtain it? That doesn't make sense!

In fact, to tell someone to turn away from their sins is equivalent to requiring them to KEEP THE LAW OF GOD to be saved. Romans 3:19-20,

"Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." This passage of Scripture is very helpful, because it teaches us that the PURPOSE for God's law is to show men their sinnership,

"FOR BY THE LAW IS

That knowledge of sin then points humanity to Jesus Christ, so they can be saved by grace through FAITH ALONE. Please don't miss that! Galatians 3:24-26, " Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." There is no mention in ANY of these Bible passages about rejecting or turning away from one's sins to be saved. Unfortunately, Chuck Norris has been deceived by corrupted Bible teachers, who are Satan's ministers of unrighteousness (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15).

The truth is that we are saved BY FAITH ALONE, without works. Just like the popular hymn says, you come to Christ, “

JUST AS I AM!

You don’t need to be willing to REFORM to be saved. The new birth is not reformation; It is not rehabilitation; nor is it education; It is REGENERATION by the seed of the Word of God. 1st Peter 1:23, “Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

” So please don’t believe anybody (like Chuck Norris) who tells you that if you want to be saved, you must first reject and turn away from your sins, because that is a counterfeit plan of salvation which cannot produce the new birth.

Jesus Christ paid your sin debt on Calvary’s cross, so that you wouldn’t have to by burning in Hell forever! Forsaking one’s sins is a matter of discipleship, not sonship. You get saved by faith alone, and then God begins to deal with you about the changes He wants. God is not an absent parent. Hebrews 12:6-7 teaches that God scourges and disciplines His children when we disobey. Satan has used sincerely ignorant, but well-meaning preachers and layman who follow them, to pervert the Gospel. Since they don’t fully understand grace, they corrupt the plan of salvation to compensate for their lack of understanding. Since they cannot grasp a professed believer who refuses to change their sinful ways, they add a requirement to “ turn from sin

to be saved. The problem is that it is not Biblical.

A professed Christian who is living in open sin is being slothful to serve Christ, and God will assuredly deal with them. But that has nothing to do with the free gift of forgiveness of sins offered through the precious blood of Jesus. The truth is that every believer still has sin in their life. 1st Timothy 5:24, “ Some men’s sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.” So the ridiculous idea that to be saved, a person must make an effort to turn away from their sins, is of the Devil. That is religion, not Christianity. You are a SINNER and Jesus is the blessed SAVIOR! It’s that simple.

At salvation there is JUSTIFICATION by faith alone. In Heaven, there will be GLORIFICATION with Christ. Everything in between is SANCTIFICATION, as we are being conformed gradually into the image of Christ. Again, I did not write this article to be mean or make Chuck Norris look bad, but simple to warn everyone about a false plan of salvation, which Satan has crept into the churches. No where in the Bible can you show me a place where it requires someone to reject and turn away from sins to be saved. Eternal life is a gift, which cannot be merited or earned in the least way.

1.1.15 Salvation Army Heresy (2020-03-13 19:48)

There is no question that General William Booth (a Methodist) did much good for society by founding the "Salvation Army." Both of my grandparents on my mother's side were officers in the Salvation Army. However, I have a serious problem doctrinally with the official position of the Salvation Army on salvation. They teach:

> "We believe that continuance in a state of salvation depends upon continued obedient faith in Christ."
> [1]1878 Foundation Deed Of The Salvation Army

The Salvation Army follows the heresy of their founders, William and Catherine Booth, who considered salvation a "state" that could be lost if one fails to continue in obedient faith. May I say, salvation is NOT a "state," it is a new birth. It is a second birth, a spiritual birth. The teaching that salvation is a "state" that is conditional upon "continued obedient faith" is demonic works-salvation. Our salvation depends solely upon Jesus Christ—because of His death on the cross, burial, and bodily resurrection from the dead 72 hours later as our High Priest.

Jesus ascended into Heaven and sprinkled His precious blood upon the heavenly Mercy Seat (just as the Old Testament high priest sprinkled the lamb's blood on the mercy seat within the holy of holies each year). Beware of the bloodless theology which has crept into many churches. 1st Peter 1:18-19b, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot." We are saved by the blood!

> "The only thing that pleases God is the blood!"
> a great quote from the awesome MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles titled, " [2]OUR PROPITIATION "

Salvation is not kept by persevering in "continued obedient faith in Christ," which is reprobate Calvinist philosophy. "[3]Calvinism And Grace Are Not Compatible" (a helpful video sermon by Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold of the Calvary Community Church). Also, to learn more on the subject, please watch: "[4]The Five Dangers Of Calvinism" (Dr. Yankee Arnold). Calvinism and grace are not compatible!

Jesus does not forgive sin. That is correct! Jesus has already paid for everyone's sins with His own precious blood. Forgiveness of sins is a gift that we receive by faith. "BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, AND THOU SHALT BE SAVED" (Acts 16:31b). Christ died on the cross in our place, paying a debt that He did not owe, because we owed a debt we could not pay. JESUS PAID IT ALL! Hence, eternal life and forgiveness of sins are a free gift from God, already paid in full by Jesus Christ, Who is "the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world" (John 1:29b). Christ is our sin payment! If you judge yourself as a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God, and you receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He raised up from the dead 72 hours later, you are immediately, irrevocably and permanently saved!!!

The Holy Bible teaches that we are saved by believing "the Gospel." What is the Gospel?

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

There you have it! "The Gospel" (i.e., Good News) is that Jesus Christ DIED on the cross for our sins. He was BURIED. And Jesus bodily RESURRECTED three days later for our justification. The Bible warns us about religious phonies who "having a form of godliness," but "denying the power thereof"... "FROM SUCH TURN AWAY!" (2nd Timothy 3:5). I've heard radio ministers teaching listeners to "invite Jesus into your life" and to "follow Jesus" and to "turn away from your sins," but none of these are the Gospel. You cannot receive the new birth in Christ Jesus by "surrendering your life to serve Christ."

You cannot receive the new birth by "being willing to turn away from committing sins." You cannot receive the new birth by "asking Jesus to come into your heart." You may do all these things and yet never have been saved at all. Jesus exclaimed, "YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN" (John 3:3-7). The Bible teaches that it is "the Gospel" which is the power of God unto salvation. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek."

We are saved by BELIEVING THE GOSPEL. 1st Corinthians 1:21, "For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE!!! There is no mention of turning away from sins, which is a common misunderstanding of what it means to repent. Biblical "repentance" is the Greek noun metanoia (or the verb metanoeo) which simply means "a change of mind," or respectively "to think differently." Since the word itself doesn't tell us what to change our mind about, we must look to the Scriptures for supplemental (additional) information. We read in Acts 20:21b about "repentance toward God." Thus, repentance is changing our mind toward God, which always results in believing the Gospel. Mark 1:15b, "Repent ye, and believe the Gospel." Biblical repentance is simply the admission that I am a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God.

Here is one of the best quotes that I've found on repentance, by Dr. Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951):

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." (Except Ye Repent, p. 16)

When a man admits that he is a sinner in God's eyes, and receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for his sins, believing that Christ bodily raised up from the dead the third day, he is immediately and forever saved. That man is not required to continue in "obedient faith" to remain in "a state of salvation." One of the best MP3 sermons that I've heard on the subject is titled, "[5]How Permanent Is Your Salvation?," by Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008). If you think you can lose salvation, you don't have it!

The believer's salvation is secure in Christ's finished work of redemption. The blood has been applied to the heavenly Mercy Seat. The price for the Church has been paid with Jesus' blood (Acts 20:28). The place is the Mercy Seat, in the heavenly Holy Place, in the presence of God the Father (Hebrews 9:12, 24; 12:24). JESUS PAID IT ALL!

I KNOW I am saved because eternal life is rooted in the PROMISES of God (Titus 1:2); and not upon how good I'm doing in life as a believer. My salvation is secure in Jesus Christ and has nothing to do with my efforts. Eternal life is a gift (Ephesians 2:8-9). A gift has no strings attached. Our part is simply to trust upon the name of Jesus. God does the saving (John 1:12-13).

The implication of the Salvation Army's heresy is that salvation can be lost by not continuing in faith. I believe this teaching was put forth by General William Booth out of ignorance of the Bible more than anything else. Salvation is a free gift from God, which cannot be lost. Those who claim to no longer be Christians were never saved in the first place. 1st John 2:19, “They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.” If saved, always saved.

The Salvation Army is vague on exactly what they believe. Dr. John MacArthur errantly teaches...

> “Don’t believe anyone who says it’s easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God’s Son His life, and it’ll cost you the same thing.”
> —[6]Dr. John MacArthur, Grace To You, an updated quote from his book ’Hard To Believe’, page 93.

Dr. MacArthur is espousing a false Gospel of works salvation. Lordship Salvation is a lie of the Devil, NOT based upon the Word of God. Likewise, the Salvation Army is also preaching a false Gospel, by teaching that salvation can be lost due to lack of obedient faith. I don’t care if a Christian deliberately commits adultery and murder, they are 100 % safe and secure in their salvation. The reason why is because eternal life is a free gift that Jesus Christ paid for with His own precious blood. The sinless Lamb of God died on the cross as my sacrifice, and He raised up the third day as my High Priest (Romans 8:34; Hebrews 4:15-16). John MacArthur is a religious fraud, a servant of Satan, who teaches that children cannot be saved, and Jesus’ blood is not on the heavenly Mercy Seat.

A person who claims to have lost faith never had faith to begin with. They may have ascribed to the philosophy of Christianity for awhile. They may have joined a religious organization for awhile. But they only had churchianity without Christianity. The Bible clearly teaches that salvation is a FREE GIFT of God (Romans 5:15,6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). A gift cannot have any strings attached if it is a genuine gift. To teach that a believer has to continue in “obedient faith in Christ” is incorrect doctrine. Salvation occurs in a split second, the very moment you believe upon Jesus Christ as your Saviour. Once you’re saved, you can NEVER lose your salvation. If someone professes that they are no longer a Christian, then it is only because they weren’t a Christian to begin with. The spiritual birth is as irreversible as the physical birth.

Ironically, pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) was a captain in the Salvation Army and he strongly taught the Eternal Security of the Believer. I am a big fan of Pastor Ironside and he was doctrinally correct in my opinion. It is sad that the Salvation Army's doctrinal statement doesn't reflect this important doctrine of the Christian faith. A correctly understood Gospel—Christ's death on the cross for our sins, His burial and bodily resurrection—mandates eternal security.

Here are the words of Dr. Harry Ironside, who has it exactly right:

> WHEN THE LEGALIST comes insisting that salvation is by obedience to God's holy law (which in itself is just and good), he is preaching another gospel, for the Word of God declares, "By the deeds of the law shall no flesh be justified in His sight." —Pastor Harry Ironside, from the Gospel tract, Another Gospel?

In total contrast, the Salvation Army teaches a form of religious legalism, and I quote...

> "We believe that continuance in a state of salvation depends upon continued obedient faith in Christ."
>

Continuance? Continued obedient faith? The TRUTH from God's Word is that you DON'T have to continue doing anything to remain saved. Once you've been born again, you've been born again!!! Once you get saved, your relationship is forever settled in Heaven. You are God's child and He is your Heavenly Father. Though our fellowship with God may be broken due to sin, our position in Christ never changes. Salvation is not of mankind, but is of God. Salvation is receiving, not giving. Our only part in salvation is only to believe upon the Lord Jesus Christ (John 6:40; Acts 16:31). God does all the rest. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again!

> "'You can't tell me you can trust Christ as Savior, and then go out here and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven!' Yes, I can tell you that! That's what the Bible says. If you don't come to the conclusion, that—Yes, you can trust Christ as your Savior and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven when you die—you don't get grace, because that is the exact truth! That is the truth! I do not have to change my life! I don't have to stop one sin! You say, 'I've never heard a preacher say that.' You just heard one! And you listen to me—I want to live as holy and as godly as I possibly can. I am now 70 years old. I've been saved for 52 years. ... the only reason I'm going to Heaven is because, 52 years ago in a little living room, I accepted Christ as my Savior." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, a great quote from the awesome sermon, "[8]Calvinism And Grace Are NOT Compatible."

Please don't be deceived by the Devil's lie my friend, you don't have to give up anything to be saved. There's a lot of heretics running around ADDING turning away from sins to simple faith in Christ. We call 'em the "Lordship Salvation" crowd. Now please don't misunderstand me, being saved doesn't give us God's permission to sin, but God's simple plan of salvation does NOT require us to do anything more than believe the Gospel to be saved. Salvation is simple (2nd Corinthians 11:3). The whole idea of a "gift" is that it is completely free. Romans 5:18, "Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life." Salvation is a FREE GIFT!

Anyone who comes as a guilty sinner, condemned under God's Holy Law, and trusts upon the Lord Jesus Christ to forgive their sins will be saved. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Whether they "continue in obedient faith" or not is irrelevant to their salvation. The Bible is filled with examples of carnal believers who continued in sinful living, such as the sexually immoral man in 1st Corinthians 5:1-5... Paul told the church at Corinth to address the issue... "To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus" (verse 5). Salvation is without works. Eternal life is a gift (Romans 6:23), freely given (Romans 5:15), and freely received (Revelation 22:17).

I don't care if my preaching harelips every dog in the county, it is THE TRUTH. I hope that I make someone angry at the Salvation Army, because it matters what we believe. William Booth was just a flawed man, like me, capable of doctrinal error. We all make mistakes, quite often. Mr. Booth was wrong in his doctrine, sincerely adding works to faith alone in Christ, which is unbiblical. If you receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that God raised Him up from the dead, you are immediately and forever saved. Nothing can ever jeopardize a believer's position in Christ as God's child. Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

[9]I NEVER KNEW YOU (an awesome book by Michael P. Bowen; Excerpts)

A little bit of doctrinal error may seem harmless, but it only takes the tiniest misinformation to pervert God's plan of salvation into a lie of the Devil. The religious group in Matthew 7:21-23 spent their lives serving Jesus Christ, yet the Lord said the horrifying words to them... I NEVER KNEW YOU: DEPART FROM ME, YE THAT WORK INIQUITY!!! Big deal, the Salvation Army serves God in the name of Jesus—so did Judas Iscariot! John 3:3, "YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN"!!!

1.1.16 Eternal Security Not Separate Doctrine From Salvation (2020-03-13 21:56)

I was reading a helpful book today by Pastor A. Ray Stanford (1916-2012) titled: "[1]HAND BOOK OF PERSONAL EVANGELISM," in which he says in chapter 2:

> Eternal security is not a separate doctrine from salvation.

If you are not saved forever, you are not saved.

Those who think they are saved now but could lose their salvation later, have one of two problems: (1) either they are trusting to some degree in their works to save them, or (2) they do not understand that by trusting Christ as their Saviour, their destiny is in God's hands. Perhaps they have had little or no Bible teaching and do not realize that God has determined that all who believe will go to heaven when they die.

The first group, those who think leading a poor Christian life will result in a loss of their salvation, actually need to have the plan of salvation made clear to them. Somewhere they have not fully understood that Christ's death paid for ALL their sin, that their works have NOTHING to do with their salvation, and that only their FAITH IN CHRIST will save them. You would answer their questions just as you would almost any lost person's; it is a clear - cut problem of "grace and works." You just stay with the gospel until they see the light.

An illustration that has clarified the issue for many with this problem deals with the definition of the word "Saviour." What is a Saviour? Suppose you are drowning. There you are out in the middle of the ocean. Suppose someone were to throw you a book, Three Easy Lessons on How to Swim. Would he be a Saviour? No! Perhaps he could be called an "educator."

Now suppose a man got out of his boat, jumped in along side you, and demonstrated various swimming strokes showing you just how you ought to do it. Would he be a Saviour? Of course not. He would merely be an "example."

All right, what if he took you into his boat, dried you off, fed you, took you ten miles from shore - and then threw you out again into the ocean? Would he be a Saviour? By all means, no! He would be as a "deceiver," a "probation officer," one who starts a heroic act and then quits right in the middle. He certainly would not be a Saviour!

A Saviour is one who takes you safely all the way to shore! When God says He gives you eternal life and that He will never cast you out or lose you, He means it because He is the true Saviour! If you do not trust Christ to take you all the way to heaven, then you have not trusted Him as your Saviour. Let's examine Christ's own promise in John 6:37, "All that the Father giveth Me shall come to Me; and him that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out." He says those who come to Him will not be cast out for any reason.

To bring home this truth, use an illustration from family life. What kind of a parent would you be if, when your child was disobedient, you kicked him out and said, "Go to hell, I'm through with you!" Rather, the proper parent says, "Come on in!" and the parent has ways and means to deal with the disobedient child.

God never casts out His children! God has other ways and means to deal with them, which we will discuss in Chapter Three. [2]READ MORE

I love that truth! Dr. Stanford is 100 % correct. Many believers have been misled to think that assurance of salvation is a separate doctrine from salvation itself, but it isn't! If you have believed on the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 16:30-31), you already posses eternal life, which is the same as eternal security, and is 100 % assurance.

1.1.17 Indifference Plagues Churches Today (2020-03-14 07:46)

In 1938, Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) founded Our Daily Bread (ODB). Dr. DeHaan was a godly man, a physician turned preacher. Pastor DeHaan makes this VERY IMPORTANT observation...

> "Be on guard against any tampering with the Word, whether disguised as a search for truth, or a scholarly attempt at apparently hidden meanings; and beware of the confusion created by the senseless rash of new versions, translations, editions, and improvements upon the tried and tested Bible of our fathers and grandfathers." [emphasis added] —SOURCE: Pastor M.R. DeHaan, his book: "THE TABERNACLE," page 101

Kindly, Pastor DeHaan was a brilliant man and an informed Christian, who had enough spiritual discernment before his death in 1965, to see that Satan is behind the constant effort to rewrite the Word of God. Today in 2020, we literally have HUNDREDS of existing English Bible revisions to choose from. Folks, that is apostasy! And anyone who sanctions this confusing mess is pulling on the same rope as the Devil. I say that lovingly, but truthfully. Pastor DeHaan's descendants, who continue to operate the 'Our Daily Bread' organization today, have dropped the ball for God in my humble opinion. I think it is awful that they use the modern Bible revisions in their publication. It confuses people! 1st Corinthians, "For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints."

One of my regular web visitors contacted Our Daily Bread to protest their use and promotion of the corrupt Alexandrian Bible revisions. Here was the lame response from ODB: "In using some other translations we hope to get to the heart of the original language of Scripture." In reality, the modern Bible versions were translated from an [1]entirely different Hebrew and Greek source than the King James Bible. God only authored ONE BOOK, so there cannot be two original autographs! IT IS IMPOSSIBLE!!!

Furthermore, most of the modern Bible revisions are paraphrases, which are not based upon ANY ancient manuscript; they are merely the opinions of mortal sinful men, not inspired by God, and in many cases are Satanic in their perversion of God's pure Words! The horrible removal of God's promise in Psalms 12:6-7 to keep and preserve His pure Words is a perfect example of what I say. The modern Bible revisions assault key passages concerning Christ's deity and the Trinity, which were clearly done strategically, calculated and deliberately to blaspheme the Lord.

I wish the folks at Our Daily Bread today had the spiritual discernment of Dr. M.R. DeHaan, again who warned:

> "Be on guard against any tampering with the Word, whether disguised as a search for truth, or a scholarly attempt at apparently hidden meanings; and beware of the confusion created by the senseless rash of new versions, translations, editions, and improvements upon the tried and tested Bible of our fathers and grandfathers." — SOURCE: Pastor M.R. DeHaan, his book: "THE TABERNACLE," page 101

Pastor DeHaan was a wise Christian man, who recognized what the Devil was doing by continually publishing more "new" and "improved" Bible revisions, causing endless confusion in today's churches. Be on guard my friend!!! 1st Peter 5:8-9, "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world." Amen and amen!

Satan Has Raised Up a Second Authority to Challenge God's Authority

If you have been tricked by the Devil, to accept a counterfeit Bible version, then effectively you are keeping the commandments of men (Mark 7:6-13). Eve was deceived by the crafty serpent (Satan). Whereas God had commanded Adam and Eve not to eat of the forbidden fruit, the serpent came along and questioned what God had said, thus introducing a SECOND AUTHORITY! Consequently, Eve was compelled to decide which of the TWO AUTHORITIES were correct!

In other words, the serpent told Eve one thing, but God told her another; and now the ol' gal is stuck in the middle, having to decide who she should follow. The serpent had Eve over a barrel, once she listened to his lies. The Devil has the churches today over the same barrel—making churchgoers weak, vulnerable to deception and confused—concerning WHICH BIBLE did God author? Certainty God could not have authored ALL of them, because they drastically disagree (even in the less than 2 % of texts in which they differ). Not surprisingly, those 2 % of changes almost all contain perversions to the Godhead, Christ's deity, His preeminence, and other key doctrines.

If Eve had simply stuck with the inspired Word of God, and not allowed the serpent to give her a revised version of what God said, she never would have sinned and been ejected from the Paradise of God. Think about that. Eve was the first recorded human being in history, to listen and take heed to some very bad advice! To be honest, I don't trust these modern Bible revisions for as far as I can see! Something smells rotten in Denmark! These new Bible versions horribly change what it means to "repent" and be saved. Instead of simply telling the reader to: "repent ye*, and believe the Gospel" in Mark 1:15b; the [2]Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) says to " change your hearts and lives,

but that is NOT what it means TO REPENT! Repentance unto life is a change of mind, not a change of life. The latter is the heresy of Lordship Salvation, which has invaded churches today with a false Gospel.

Today, the Devil is shaking the faith of young people in the inspired Word of God, by introducing a SECOND AUTHORITY (i.e., the Alexandrian, Egypt, manuscripts upon which the modern revisions are based). We don't need another Bible, my King James Bible is just fine. It was good for my mother, it's good enough for me.

It was good for my grandmother, it's good enough for me.

It was good for Dwight L. Moody, it's good enough for

Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) had this to say:

> "But you see, the attitude of this generation is: If you got a lot of education, Boy we've got it made! I mean that's it; I mean, you're just super-duper! ... Any kind of education that doesn't strengthen your faith in Jesus is an abomination!!! And the average college graduate comes out with less faith and less fire, than he had when he went in. I'm talking about in the Christian schools, in the seminaries, and in the Bible schools across this country; now that ought not be!" —Brother Lester Roloff, a needful quote from the MP3 sermon titled, "'[3]THE LIVING BIBLE' EXPOSED!"

Our churches are filled with people today who park their rear-end in 18 inches of pew three times a week, put a few dollars into an offering plate, and sing "Holy, Holy, Holy" each week, but they are worshipping God "IN VAIN" (as our text passage says) by using, promoting and selling the Devil's Alexandrian Bible versions. By "Alexandrian" I am referring to the corrupt Greek manuscripts (Sinaiticus and Vaticanus) which originated out of Alexandria, Egypt. These corrupt manuscripts were popularized in 1881 by two unsaved Anglican ministers, both members of the occult, named Brooke Westcott (1825-1901) and Fenton Hort (1828-1892).

I challenge you dear reader to examine the abundance of doctrinal evidence, comparing the modern Bible revisions against the time-tested benchmark of the King James Bible! For example: Look how [4]1st Timothy 3:16 has been corrupted in the new Bible. Also, [5]please see 1st John 5:7. Look how they've all [6]corrupted Matthew 8:2. The newer Bibles [7]all remove Acts 8:37, which now teaches water baptism for salvation. I could literally spend several hours showing you what is wrong with today's Bible revisions, because I CARE.

The biggest problem I have run into as a faithful truth-telling Christian, are all the indifferent pastors, complacent Christians, and deadbeat Bible professors, who JUST DON'T CARE! They don't care one iota about the purity of the Holy Bible, nor do they care about the accuracy of the Gospel of free grace! The new Bibles pervert theology, by changing what it means to repent. I feel so sorry for church members today, because their trust is being woefully betrayed by ungodly pastors all across America, who[8] reject the cold hard facts. Consequently, these bad pastors continue to bid Godspeed to false prophets, false Bibles, false repentance and a false gospel.

1.1.18 I Never Knew You! (2020-03-14 07:46)

Those who trust in Lordship Salvation will one day hear the horrifying words from Christ: "I Never Knew You!"

To their horror, the pastors who teach Lordship Salvation will be turned away from the pearly gates, hearing the horrifying words from Christ: I NEVER KNEW YOU!!! What saith the Scripture?

> Matthew 7:21-23, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth*the will of my Father* which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

The Bible plainly tells us what is in John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day."

THE WILL OF MY FATHER

Please see the awesome book:

" [1]I NEVER KNEW YOU! "

by Michael P. Bowen ([2].pdf book). The true way of salvation is through faith alone in the "GOOD NEWS" of the Lord Jesus Christ, Who was crucified on a cross for our sins. Christ DIED, was BURIED and then miraculously physically R

ESURRECTED three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). This is "THE GOSPEL" (or Good News), by **"

By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

" (1st Corinthians 15:2-4). Simply BELIEVE and you are saved Oh guilty sinner!

Oh my dear friend, " SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES

" (John 5:39) for yourself. The apostle Paul poured his heart out, pleading with the reader in 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 not to succumb to ANOTHER GOSPEL, ANOTHER JESUS or ANOTHER SPIRIT. An excellent work on the topic is "[3]Another Gospel" by Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951), one of my favorite preachers. Lordship Salvation is ANOTHER GOSPEL. Moody Church in Chicago has been corrupted with Calvinism. Pacific Garden Mission's [4]Unshackled has been corrupted. Paul Washer, Rick Warren, Beth Moore, Charles Stanley, Ray Comfort, Pat Robertson, Benny Hinn, Joel Osteen, John Hagee, Max Lucado, John Piper, Chip Ingram, Billy and Franklin Graham (all the greats) have all been corrupted with Lordship Salvation. All the greats have it wrong!

Jesus will one day say to them in eternity—I NEVER KNEW YOU!

Luke 13:23-24,

"Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them,

Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

1.1.19 How Can I Be Sure I Have Repented Enough? (2020-03-14 07:47)

One of my favorite preachers is Dr. Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951), who had a clear understanding of the Gospel. The following quote is from chapter 9 of his book called, " [1]FULL ASSURANCE ":

IT IS NOW MY PURPOSE to consider some of the difficulties and perplexities which keep souls from entering into peace and enjoying the full assurance of salvation.

These questions and objections are some that have come to me again and again from earnest seekers after light, and are therefore, I have good reason to believe, fairly representative of the troublesome thoughts that hinder many from seeing the simplicity of GOD's way of life, as set forth in His holy Word. Perhaps if my reader has not a settled rest of heart and conscience, he may find his own peculiar trouble dealt with here.

1. "How may I be sure that I have repented enough?"

Very often the real difficulty arises from a misapprehension of the meaning of repentance.

There is no salvation without repentance, but it is important to see exactly what is meant by this term.

- It should not be confused with penitence, which is sorrow for sin;
- It should not be confused with penance, which is an effort to make some satisfaction for sin;
- It should not be confused with reformation, which is turning from sin.

Repentance is a change of attitude toward sin, toward self, and toward GOD. The word (in the Greek Testament) literally means "a change of mind." This is not a mere intellectual change of viewpoint, however, but a complete reversal of attitude.

Now test yourself in this way.

- You once lived in sin and loved it. Do you now desire deliverance from it?
- You were once self-confident and trusting in your own fancied goodness. Do you now judge yourself as a sinner before GOD?
- You once sought to hide from GOD and rebelled against His authority. Do you now look up to Him, desiring to know Him, and to yield yourself to Him?

If you can honestly say yes to these questions, you have repented. Your attitude is altogether different to what it once was.

You confess you are a sinner, unable to cleanse your own soul, and you are willing to be saved in GOD’s way. This is repentance. And remember, it is not the amount of repentance that counts: it is the fact that you turn from self to GOD that puts you in the place where His grace avails through JESUS CHRIST.

Strictly speaking, not one of us has ever repented enough. None of us has realized the enormity of our guilt as GOD sees it. But when we judge ourselves and trust the Saviour whom He has provided, we are saved through His merits.

As recipients of His lovingkindness, repentance will be deepened and will continue day by day, as we learn more and more of His infinite worth and our own unworthiness.

"It is not thy tears of repentance, nor prayers,
But the blood that atones for the soul;
On Him then who shed it thou mayest at once Thy weight of iniquities roll."

[2]READ MORE

Please don't misunderstand what Dr. Ironside is saying. The only requirement to be saved is to agree with God that you are a guilty sinner. If we confess (agree with God) our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins (1st John 1:9). Dr. Ironside says a man who has repented desires to be delivered from his sins, but that doesn't mean you're ready to forsake them yet. It just means that you have judged yourself as being a needy sinner.

A Christian SHOULD live for Christ; not MUST (that is works); not WILL (that would be Calvinism). Our only part in salvation is to simply trust the dear Savior, the rest is God's department, and you can rest assure that He will tend to that. The truth is that no believer has ever repented of ALL OUR SINS! Even the best Christians still sin every day, whether in deed or thought. 1st Samuel 12:23, "

Moreover as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you: but I will teach you the good and the right way:

” So we are sinning every time we slack off in praying for others in our life.

The Calvinist mindset says if you are still living in willful sin, you have never repented and are not saved, despite your faith in Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. That is a counterfeit Gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. [3]Pastor Charles Lawson teaches this Calvinist heresy. Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, John Piper and John MacArthur also teach this Calvinist heresy. The inspired King James Bible teaches something very different! In the Bible, you realize your need as a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19), which brings you to Christ to be saved by God’s grace, through faith alone (Galatians 3:24-26).

Salvation Versus Discipleship

And then as a child of God, you grow in the milk of the Word (1st Peter 2:2), being transformed by the renewing of your mind day by day. Romans 12:1-2, “I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

” Carefully notice that the apostle Paul addresses them as “brethren.

” These are saved people. Paul pleads with them to present their bodies a “LIVING SACRIFICE” to serve Christ, pointing out that it is their “REASONABLE SERVICE.” It is not their mandatory service; but rather, their reasonable service to serve Jesus Christ.

Ladies and gentleman, this passage of Scripture is so important. It is vital that you understand that salvation and discipleship are two entirely different things. Here are some helpful theological quotes explaining the distinct difference:

> "Eternal life is free. Discipleship is immeasurably hard. The former is attained by faith alone, the latter by a faith that works... the former brings with it the righteousness of God so that a man is 'justified freely by his grace' (Romans 3:24). The latter develops a personal righteousness, based on good deeds, so that a man was also 'justified by works' (James 2:24). The former constituted the believer God's workmanship, the latter fulfilled the wonderful purpose for which he had been created. The former cost man nothing, the latter could cost him everything, including life itself." —
> Hodges, Zane C., The Hungry Inherit; Moody Press, Inc., 1972 (p. 114-115)

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —
> DeHaan, M.R., Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

That is how salvation and the Christian life work. You don't have to turn from your sins as part of getting saved; but rather, you simply come JUST AS YOU ARE, as an ungodly sinner with no obligation to change anything, and you receive God's free gift of eternal life. Then as you feed on the Word of God, your life will be transformed as your mind is renewed.

Albeit, some believers don't grow as quickly as others do. This is where people get confused, wondering how someone can claim to be saved, while still living the same as they did before they were saved. Folks, the Bible doesn't teach that salvation changes anyone! When you get saved, the Holy Spirit comes to live (indwell) within your body and soul, and He will convict you about the sins in your life; but you can ignore the Spirit's leading, choosing rather to walk in the flesh, as did the man in 1st Corinthians 3:15b who was "saved; yet so as by fire." God commands us as believers to walk in the Spirit. Galatians 5:25, "If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

" I love that passage of Scripture. When you get saved, you are now alive in the Holy Spirit; but you have a CHOICE of whether to walk in the Spirit, or walk in the flesh.

So to conclude, repentance unto life (salvation) does not mean penance (sorrow for sins), penitence (reconciliation for sins), nor reformation (turning from sins). I'll close with this helpful quote from Pastor Harry Ironside, which well explains repentance:

> "Repentance is the very opposite of meritorious experience. It is the confession that one is utterly without merit, and if he is ever saved at all it can only be through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ, 'who gave himself a ransom for all.' Here is firm footing for the soul who realizes that all self-effort is but sinking sand. Christ alone is the Rock of our salvation." —Dr. Harry A. Ironside; [4]Except Ye Repent, pg. 36

1.1.20 The Invasion Of The Lordship Salvation Heresy (2020-03-14 07:47)

Acts 15:1 , "And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved."

Like an infectious disease, the heresy of Lordship Salvation is everywhere today. "Lordship Salvation" is the false teaching that acknowledging one's guilt of sin in the eyes of a holy God, and believing the Gospel are insufficient to save a person. In addition, proponents of Lordship Salvation teach that in order to be saved, a person must surrender their life in obedience to Christ's lordship, forsake the world, cease from sinful bad habits, confess Christ openly before men, and make a commitment to follow Jesus (or a variation thereof). Lordship Salvation is 100 % based in human effort, which is a works-based false plan of salvation.

The tragic thing is that many pastors (including Independent Baptists) don't care enough about the truth to fight against the heresy of Lordship Salvation. Case in point is Moody Church in Chicago, along with Moody Bible Institute and all their apostate ministries. Moody fully supports heretic Dr. John MacArthur of Grace To You, who denies that Jesus' blood is on the Mercy Seat in Heaven, says children cannot be saved, and teaches Lordship Salvation. Mr. MacArthur is an unsaved modernist, a devout Calvinist who teaches that saints must persevere in holy living to be saved. Moody Publishers print all of John MacArthur books, who is an honored guest at their annual Founder's Week. It is wickedness!!!

No man ought to be honored who says that eternal life is a gift, but you must count the cost and give everything to receive it. Evangelist Billy Graham also teaches this. No man ought to be honored who says that Jesus' blood is precious, but it soaked into the ground at Calvary and is not in Heaven on the Mercy Seat in the Holy Place. No man ought to be honored who teaches that salvation is an adult decision and children cannot be saved. Kindly, Pastor John MacArthur teaches all of these heresies and more. It does matter what we believe, and it's high time for professed Christians to start examining what doctrines we tolerate in our churches. If I had my way, I'd fire 95 % of the pastors in America!!! In addition, Dr. MacArthur supports the plethora of satanic modern counterfeit Bible versions. Thank God for the King James Bible, the only Bible which we can truly call "holy."

I was listening to a local religious radio station today and heard Pacific Garden Mission's (PGM) popular "Unshackled" series. The narrator foolishly said that it wasn't enough to believe on Jesus Christ and write your name in the back of your Bible, and that's it. He errantly said that you must continue in obedient faith throughout the rest of your life. This is not the new birth by faith in Christ; but rather, manmade religion, and it's deadly. I heard something very similar a few weeks ago on Unshackled. Sadly, and tragically, Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) has been duped into following the Devil's plan of salvation, which substitutes reformation for regeneration. According to PGM's false Gospel, you cannot simply be regenerated (born-again) and expect to go to Heaven, unless there is also lifelong reformation included. This is "ANOTHER GOSPEL" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

Biblically, you acknowledge your sinnership and believe the Gospel to be regenerated (born-again); and then, if a new believer is properly mentored (as taught in The Great Commission), they will hopefully decide (as a believer) to follow Jesus as His disciple. Eternal life is a free gift, with no strings nor obligations attached. A man may freely receive the gift of eternal life without having any intentions to live a holy life, forsake the world, cease from sinful ways or confess Christ publicly. These are all WORKS! Salvation does not require works, none. It is a gift. Salvation is receiving, not achieving. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved.

Apart from some superficial distinctives, the lines of doctrine between evangelical churches and the religious cults are being blurred. Case in point, Seventh-day Adventist prophetess, Ellen G. White, teaches the same philosophy on repentance as those who teach the heresy of Lordship Salvation. I've done some of your homework for you. [1]Examine here the unbiblical garbage that Dr. John MacArthur teaches, which is virtually identical with what unsaved Seventh-day Adventists teach.

Also, here's a [2]comparison between Mormons and MacArthur, which are almost identical. [3]Evangelist Ray Comfort and Jehovah's Witnesses agree on repentance and works. UN-BELIEVABLE!!! Tens-of-thousands of deceived pastors and Christian leaders are following John MacArthur like the Pied Piper to their own spiritual destruction. Wake Up! Wake up Christians! Take a stand! If your pastor promotes and admires John MacArthur, get out of that hellhole falsely called a "church" while you still can, before you become a spiritual victim of MacArthur's deceptions.

Please understand that I have nothing personal against Mr. MacArthur. In fact, I have learned many great theological things from Dr. MacArthur. His work on exposing the Charismatic Movement is exceptional. MacArthur's work exposing the evils of alcohol are exceptional. His work exposing Speaking-In-Tongues is excellent. Granted, Pastor MacArthur does make some brilliant theological statements. The problem is that if a man is wrong on repentance, salvation and the blood of Jesus, then he's wrong on everything. It's like the buttons on a dress-shirt, if you get the first button wrong then all the buttons will be wrong.

1.1.21 Dr. John R. Rice Refutes Lordship Salvation (2020-03-14 07:47)

I was recently reading one of [1]Dr. John R. Rice's books titled: Dr. Rice... Here Are More Questions, in which he beautifully refutes the heresy of Lordship Salvation. The following is a question submitted to Dr. John R. Rice by a lady in a church concerning professed young Christians who live in sin and misbehave at church:

> "We have young folks in our church who are supposed to be saved and who giggle and whisper all during church services and who say they 'just hate' church and 'can't stand' to listen to our pastor preach. They attend movies and worldly amusements. I feel that as pastors and Sunday school teachers we do not warn those enough who think they are saved but are not born again. Shouldn't we plead with them to go to the alter again?"

The following is Dr. Rice's response to the preceding question:

> "Being saved, born again, is one thing; learning to live a consecrated Christian life is an entirely different thing. There is not any way you can judge whether people are born again except as you take their testimony that they have put their trust in Jesus Christ and depended on Him for salvation. Some of these young people indeed may not have been taught to trust in Christ. If they were looking for "an experience," a certain kind of feeling or emotion, then they may have been misled. But if they honestly turned their hearts to Christ and depended on Him for salvation, they were saved.
> Now a Christian should live a consecrated Christian life but that does not automatically follow. People who are saved will find, like Paul, "When I would do good, evil is present with me . . . . So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin" (Romans 7:21,25).

> Every saved person still has the old carnal nature and often-times has the same kind of temptation he had before. Some people who have truly been born again have a desperate fight to quit tobacco, and some have never seemed to get the victory over that or other bad habits. Some Christians have never learned to trust the Lord enough to bring tithes and offerings, and some have never learned to win souls. When a baby is born, he is not born grown. Being born is one thing; growing is another thing entirely.

> So the thing to do is to take for granted that people are saved when they trust Christ for salvation. Then one should set out to teach them to read the Bible daily, to learn to pray about their daily needs, to confess their sins and failures and grow in grace day by day. It is as foolish to expect young Christians to be good Christians by themselves as it is to expect a child, born in the family, to automatically be a great credit to the family without any rearing—whether they are spiritual babes or physical babes. I assure you that unless people are taught to be consecrated Christians, taught to read the Bible and pray, they are not likely to be good Christians, even if they are truly born again.
> Dr. Rice... Here Are More Questions, by John R. Rice, pg. 76,77, Sword of the Lord Publishers; ISBN: 0-87398-157-X

Dr. Rice is 100 % correct, "Being saved, born again, is one thing; learning to live a consecrated Christian life is an entirely different thing." A changed life comes from growing in grace as a result of genuine repentance; and not as a part of saving-faith itself. Salvation is receiving; NOT giving.

There are many ministers today, such as [2]Dr. John MacArthur, who falsely teach that one's salvation is CONDITIONAL upon the life we live. MacArthur foolishly states:

> "Submission to the will of God, to Christ's lordship, and to the guiding of the Spirit is an essential, not an optional, part of saving faith" (EPHESIANS, p. 249).

> "Salvation isn't the result of an intellectual exercise. It comes from a life lived in obedience and service to Christ as revealed in the Scripture; it's the fruit of actions, not intentions. There's no room for passive spectators: words without actions are empty and futile...The life we live, not the words we speak, determines our eternal destiny" (Hard to Believe, p. 93).

The inspired Word of God calls John MacArthur a liar in Romans 4:5... "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." Could the Bible be any plainer? The Scriptures speak plainly that we are saved by Jesus' righteousness (Romans 10:3-4; 2nd Corinthians 5:21); and not any self-righteousness of our own (Isaiah 64:6; Ephesians 2:8,9; Titus 3:5). We are sinners; Jesus is the Savior.

John R. Rice is correct, "So the thing to do is to take for granted that people are saved when they trust Christ for salvation." Proponents of the Lordship Salvation heresy expect new believers to live a consecrated Christian life from the get-go of salvation. This is not reasonable nor Biblical. New believers need to be taught and discipled.

Dr. Rice states in his excellent book: Dr. Rice... Here is My Question:

> "When you get saved, you get saved not because you deserve it, but because you simply let God save you and because you confess your own poor sinful state and your inability to save yourself."
> —Dr. Rice... Here is My Question, by Dr. John R. Rice, pg. 304; 1962, Sword of the Lord Publishers; ISBN: 0-87398-158-8

Amen, I couldn't agree more. This is what the Bible teaches. Dr. Rice also states in his Gospel tract, What Must I Do To Be Saved?:

> "The change in your heart, sinner, is God's part and you may be sure He will attend to that. Your part is to simply believe in Him. Whatever else is necessary in your eternal salvation, the Lord attends to when you trust in Him, or believe in Him."
> What Must I DO To Be Saved?, by Dr. John R. Rice

Amen! Dr. Rice is correct. Who are we to judge whether or not a person is sincere. There's a self-righteous group today in our churches, who demand a changed-life as a prerequisite or proof for salvation. This is unbiblical, a heresy, and a perversion of the simple Gospel of Christ Jesus. The thing to do is to take for granted that people are saved when they simply trust Jesus Christ for salvation.

Dear reader, beware of the Devil's counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation. In the true Gospel, faith is the only righteous thing that we can do to be saved. David made this clear in Psalms 32:1-2, which the Apostle Paul quotes in Romans 4:6-7, "Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered." God's gift of eternal life has always been by God's grace through faith alone, without works! Did you read that friend?... WITHOUT WORKS! I love it!!!

Lordship Salvation adds WORKS to grace! Proponents of Lordship Salvation errantly teach that faith is not enough to be saved. In addition, they pervert the biblical meaning of repentance from "a change of mind" (Greek: metanoia) to turning away from your sinful behavior instead. This is a VERY different meaning than to change your mind "toward God" (Acts 20:21), "from dead works" (Hebrews 6:1) and to acknowledge "the truth" (2nd Timothy 2:24).

Repentance is simply admitting that you are a guilty sinner in God's sight. You must know what you are being saved from and why you need to be saved in the first place. We are all guilty sinners (Romans 3:10-23), for which the wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23). This includes the second death in Hell forever (Revelation 20:11-14; 21:8). You must change your mind about WHO YOU ARE and WHO JESUS IS. You are a dirty SINNER (me too), and Jesus is the blessed SAVIOR.

If you'll trust in Christ as your only hope for forgiveness of sins and eternal life, then you are permanently saved dear reader. Simply receive Jesus' sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, but then physically resurrected from the dead three days later. This is "the Gospel" (Good News) by which all who BELIEVE IT are saved instantly, irrevocably and eternally (1st Corinthians 15:1-4; Romans 1:16). We are saved by HIS (JESUS') RIGHTEOUSNESS alone (Matthew 6:33; Romans 10:3-4; Philippians 3:9).

1.1.22 The Rich Young Ruler And Jesus (2020-03-14 09:00)

Luke 18:18-24, "And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God. Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother. And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up. Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich. And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God."

This is a widely quoted and often misinterpreted passage of Scripture concerning the rich young ruler. Misguided evangelists' Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron, as well as Calvinist pastor, John MacArthur, horribly misinterpret this passage of Scripture, thinking just as foolishly as the self-righteous rich young ruler. I will share some of their quotes with you in this important article.

This young man was a dignitary, ruling over the people, and he was very wealthy. He came to Jesus and asked how to inherit eternal life. Jesus perceived that the young man was self-righteousness, trusting in his own good works. So Jesus used the Old Testament law the way it was intended to be used, as a measuring stick to show all men their SINNERSHIP and point us to the SAVIOR to be saved . . .

> Galatians 3:24-26, "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

> Romans 3:19-20, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

Notice carefully what Romans 3:20, "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." Did you hear that Mr. MacArthur and Mr. Comfort? . . .

BY THE DEEDS OF THE LAW THERE SHALL BE NO FLESH BE JUSTIFIED IN HIS SIGHT!!!

You just read what the Bible teaches in Romans 3:20. The rich young ruler was caught up into false religion, thinking that he could merit Heaven by keeping the Ten Commandments. Jesus pointed out to him that he had missed the command against being covetous.

The apostle Paul rebuked the self-righteous Jews for the same attitude in Rome. They were trying to earn their way to Heaven by obeying the commandments of God's, being circumcised and observing the ceremonial laws given to the Jews under the Mosaic covenant. Paul earnestly reminds them that it is the DOERS of the Law, and not merely the HEARERS that will be justified...

> Romans 2:13 and 17, "For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified. . . . Behold, thou art called a Jew, and restest in the law, and makest thy boast of God."

Paul wasn't giving them a plan of salvation, just like Jesus wasn't giving the rich young ruler a plan of salvation; but rather, Jesus and Paul were using the law as it was intended by God to be used, and that is to show us that no matter how hard we try to keep the law, WE CANNOT! There will always be SIN IN OUR LIFE! Everyone, whether in deed or in thought, has broken all of the Nine Commandments [I say "nine" because the command to keep the Sabbath Day was only ceremonial law and not moral law like the other nine commandments. All of the commandments applied 24/7 (and every day of the year) except the Sabbath Day, which only applied on Saturday (the 7th day of the week)]. The Sabbath Day was a ceremonial law which pictures Jesus, our Sabbath today in Whom we REST for salvation (Hebrews 4:1-11), ceasing from our own self-righteous labours (pictured by the 6-day work week in the Old Testament)]. JESUS IS OUR SABBATH!!! Amen and amen!

Here again is our text passage of Scripture . . .

> Luke 18:22-24, "Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich. And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!"

It is ONLY when a person comes to the realization that they CANNOT save them self by their own works, that God can save them. Adam and Eve had sinned. Adam gathered some fig leaves and sewed them together to make clothing for him and Eve. But God rejected Adam's fig-leaf religion and killed an innocent animal, shedding it blood, to provide skins of clothing for Adam and Eve. This represents the righteousness of God provided in Christ Jesus (Philippians 3:9; Romans 4:5-6; 2nd Corinthians 5:21; Matthew 6:33), Who is the sinless Lamb of God, in Whom we have eternal life. Whew, this is great stuff!!!

Ray Comfort and George Whitefield (1714-1770) Get This Passage Horribly Wrong

Evangelist Ray Comfort quotes heretic George Whitefield on his blog, who heretically said concerning the rich young ruler in Luke 18:18-24...

> "Poor youth! He had a good mind to be a Christian, and to inherit eternal life, but thought it too dear, if it could be purchased at no less an expense than of his estate! And thus many, both young and old, now-a-days, come running to worship our blessed Lord in public, and kneel before him in private, and inquire at his gospel, > what they must do to inherit eternal life: but when they find they must renounce the self-enjoyment of riches, and forsake all in affection to follow him, they cry, 'The Lord pardon us in this thing! We pray thee, have us excused' …He will not!"

> [1]George Whitefield - Rich Young Ruler

What lies! George Whitefield taught that eternal life would cost the rich young man his estate! No, that is totally unbiblical. Jesus wasn't giving this young man a plan of salvation, He was using the Law the way it was intended to be used—as a MEASURING STICK—by which when men compare themselves, they fall short of God's perfect standard, and see their SINNERSHIP and need for the blessed SAVIOR!

Pastor John MacArthur Gets This Passage Horribly Wrong

Here are Dr. MacArthur's very own corrupt words of damnation . . .

> "The Gospel says, 'give your life to Christ and He rules' and if you're not willing to do that it's because you want to keep the rule of your own life. The rich young man wanted his own life for himself. He wanted to control his own life. He had his choice: sins, he had his choice, religion, and he wanted to hang onto control. It's that simple. Coming to Christ means you give up the control of your life, and you yield it to Christ. That's what kept him from salvation, he was unwilling to do that." — [2]Kirk Cameron And John MacArthur On Salvation (4:51 in the video)

I realize that no one is correct on everything, and we're all entitled to our own opinions, respectfully. However, when a false prophet perverts the Scripture to teach ANOTHER GOSPEL [2nd Corinthians 11:3-4], then it is every believer's duty to "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints" (Jude 1:3b). Pastor MacArthur is a false prophet! The reason why the rich young ruler didn't get saved, wasn't because he refused to "give up control" of his life (as MacArthur says); but rather, it was because he was trying to save himself, by keeping the works of the Old Testament Mosaic law.

What saith the Scripture? A religious cult had crept into the church at Galatia, teaching that to be saved a man needs to be circumcised. The apostle Paul writes to the Galatians and asks them how they got saved—by the WORKS OF LAW, or the HEARING OF FAITH. Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?" Paul asked: How did you become indwelt with the Holy Spirit (i.e., how did you get saved)? So here we see TWO distinct plans of salvation: WORKS OF THE LAW, or HEARING OF FAITH. No one has ever been able to perfectly keep the Law, but there are always some who try.

Let's read our text passage again. Look at what the rich young ruler says below; see how he boasts of his self-righteousness, bragging: "ALL THESE THINGS HAVE I KEPT FROM MY YOUTH"! The redeemed Christian doesn't talk that way. I am saved only because of Christ's sacrifice to pay for my sins on the cross...

> Luke 18:18-24, "And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God. Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother. And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up. Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich. And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God."

MacArthur's words are damnable heresy!!! MacArthur says:

> "Coming to Christ means you give up the control of your life, and you yield it to Christ. That's what kept him from salvation, he was unwilling to do that." [emphasis added]

The reason why the rich young man didn't get saved was NOT because he refused to yield to Christ, nor because he was unwilling to give up control of his life. MacArthur is teaching lies.

The reason why the rich young man didn't get saved is because he was self-righteousness. Very few wealthy people are willing to admit that they cannot save themselves. Heaven can't be bought. Coming to Christ is a childlike step of faith by which one acknowledges, "I am a guilty, dirty, rotten, hell-deserving sinner, incapable of saving myself." Every admitted sinner who believes on Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, will be saved (Romans 10:13). The rich young ruler was self-righteous in his wealth, and thought he could save himself by fulfilling the Law of God.

That's the only reason the young rich man didn't get saved. It wasn't because he refused to deny himself or forsake his covetousness; but rather, because he was self-righteous and thought he could merit Heaven by his own works. Romans 4:5-6 clearly states: "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works." Amen!

Notice what the self-righteous young man asked Jesus in Matthew 19:16, "...Good Master, what good thing SHALL I DO, that I may have eternal life?" The young man didn't ask how he could possess eternal life. No, rather, he asked what THING I NEED TO DO. The young man was self-righteousness. Jesus used the Law to show the young man his wickedness. There was nothing he could do in his own self-righteousness to have eternal life. He needed Jesus as his Savior. Romans 3:19 and Galatians 3:24 plainly teach that the Law's purpose is only to show us our guilt of sin and need for a Savior.

MacArthur requires people to fulfil the Law as a prerequisite to faith in Christ, which is the heresy of works salvation. That is exactly what Kirk Cameron, Ray Comfort and John MacArthur are teaching.

They all errantly teach that the rich young man should have forsaken his covetousness to be saved.

In sharp contrast, Romans 4:5-6 proclaims, “But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works.” Oh, that men who just read the Bible and take it at face value. Romans 4:5-6 are so plain and clear in their teaching. A man’s faith is COUNTED for righteousness. Why? It’s because Christ’s righteousness is imputed (attributed) to us by faith. This is a vast different Gospel than the perverted Gospel of Ray Comfort and John MacArthur, by which a person must forsake their sinful lifestyle to be saved.

Jesus plainly taught in Luke 18:17 that a person must receive the kingdom of God as a little child in order to be saved. This is because a man must acknowledge that he is hopelessly lost in his own sins and cannot redeem himself. Thus, he needs Jesus Christ, Who is the only begotten Son of God.

The Biblical account of the young rich ruler has nothing to do with giving up one’s love for money to be saved; but rather, realizing that salvation is solely of the Lord, and not by works of self-righteousness. The Apostle Paul addressed this matter at length in Romans 2:13-3:20.

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) Gets This Passage Horribly Wrong

In his MP3 sermon called: “[3]How To Add Life To Your Years,” Pastor Jack Hyles makes some strange statements. Dr. Hyles says Jesus told the rich young man how to have “quality” of eternal life, by giving away his earthly possessions. What heresy! I am sad that Brother Hyles missed this one, but he is just a man, fully capable of teaching false doctrine. Jesus wasn’t teaching the rich young ruler how to have a better “QUALITY” eternal life; but rather, He was showing him the GOOD WORKS are incapable of saving anyone!!! Brother Hyles does not teach a false gospel; but he does unfortunately misapply this passage of Scripture, misinterpret it, and mislead the audience as to its true meaning.

In the sermon, Pastor Hyles says the reason why Jesus told the rich young ruler to sell his possessions and give it away to the poor, was so that he could have a better “quality” of eternal life. That is of the Devil! I love Dr. Hyles, but he sure got that interpretation wrong!

I don’t like this particular sermon at all, contrasting quantity with quality concerning eternal life. I find no distinction in the Scriptures made between the “quantity” versus the “quality” of eternal life. Pastor Hyles, respectfully, was promoting a strange doctrine. I love Brother Hyles, but I don’t cut him any slack when I think he is wrong on truth! The rich young ruler clearly was not saved, because he was trying to earn his way to Heaven, by keeping the law. Jesus wasn’t speaking to a Christian, but to an unsaved heathen! So why would He tell him how to enhance the quality of something (eternal life) that he didn’t posses?

Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) gets it 100 % correct in his commentary for The Rich Young Ruler. Jesus wasn’t giving this young man a plan of salvation, He was using the law the way it was intended to be used, as a measuring stick, by which when men compare themselves, they fall short (thus realizing their sinnership and need for the Savior). Galatians 3:24-26, “Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.” Jesus perceived that this rich young ruler was self-righteous. The young man called Jesus, "Good master." The Lord asked him: “Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.” The Lord is indeed sinless and perfect, but the young man didn’t know that yet. To him Jesus was only a good man.

The rich young ruler bragged that he had perfectly kept the Law from childhood. The young man boasted: “All these have I kept from my youth up.” That young man was self-righteous in his own eyes! So Jesus points out to him, that in fact he hadn’t perfectly kept the Law since his youth, he was covetous. The Lord wasn’t telling him how to be saved. You see, you cannot get a person saved until you first get them lost. Jesus was trying to get the rich young ruler LOST, in an effort to hopefully get him SAVED! It is also possible that the rich young ruler was none other than, the apostle Paul, to whom the Lord miraculously appeared in Acts 9:1-5. We do not know for certain.

Pastor John Piper Gets This Passage Horribly Wrong

Dr. Piper says the reason why it was hard for the Rich Young Man to be saved, is because getting saved requires MORE THAN FAITH!!! What saith the Scripture? Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." A lot of people cherry-pick the Scriptures, only seeing what they want to see. By doing so, you can fabricate just about any doctrine you want! Pastor Piper perverts the true meaning of Christ's teaching on The Rich Young Ruler!

Pastor Piper errantly states to his students:

> "Faith in Jesus is more than accepting him as Savior."
> —Pastor John Piper; graduation speech titled: '[4]Remember The Rich Young Man,' June 2009

What saith the Scripture? 1st Timothy 4:10-11, "For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. These things command and teach." Does the Bible tell us to teach that Jesus is "MORE THAN A SAVIOR" (as Mr. Piper errantly says)? No, the Bible instructs Christian believers to "command and teach" that JESUS "IS THE SAVIOR OF ALL MEN, SPECIALLY OF THOSE THAT BELIEVE"!!! I didn't say that, God did! John Piper is a theological liar, adding to the Gospel of free grace, misleading people to think that they cannot be saved BY FAITH ALONE!!!

I often tell people that the hardest part about getting somebody saved is to first get them lost. Salvation requires submitting to the grace of God. We read in Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." That's really what repentance and faith are, that is, submitting to God's righteousness through faith in Jesus Christ because you have judged yourself as being a guilty sinner.

Billy Graham (1918-2018) Gets This Passage Horribly Wrong

In Flushing Meadows Park, in Queens, New York City, June 25, 2005, Evangelist Billy Graham preached on the Scripture text: Mark 10:17-22. That is the story of the Rich Young Ruler! Look at the horrible misinterpretation given by Mr. Graham...

The Rich Young Ruler, Revisited

...But he did the wrong thing. He walked away from eternal life because he loved his own comfortable life more than he loved the Savior*. He didn't hate his own life. He didn't hate his own father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters who would have been scandalized if he had obeyed the Master, sold his possessions and left everything to follow Jesus.

That is what all of His disciples had done, as Peter said right after the rich young ruler had walked away sad, "See, we have left everything and followed you." And the Master commended him:

"Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands, for my sake and for the gospel, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the age to come eternal life."

What did the rich young ruler ask for? Eternal life. And what did the Master tell him to do? Forsake everything and follow Him. What had all of His disciples done? They forsook everything and followed Him. What did He say they would receive? A hundredfold of what they gave up — and eternal life. And what did they and the 3000 receive who were saved on the day of Pentecost? A hundredfold of what they gave up — and eternal life. It says:

"All who believed were together and had all things in common ... they were of one heart and soul ... There was not a needy person among them, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold and laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need."

That is the gospel, folks. And that is the way the church was when it was called "The Way," and that is the only way the church can be and still be the way. As the Master said:

"Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. But the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few."

How many of you hate your life in this world?

—[5]The Rich Young Ruler, Revisited

Please don't misinterpret this tricky passage. At a glance, since the disciples gave up everything to follow Christ, one might wrongly conclude (as does Billy Graham) that forsaking all is necessary to receive eternal life. But remember, eternal life is a "FREE GIFT," and a gift cannot be earned. The conversation began on the topic of salvation, and then quickly followed to discipleship. Following Christ, forsaking home and family, is a matter of discipleship and not salvation. I KNOW THAT because of all the clear passages of Scripture in the Bible which teach us that salvation is a free gift, "not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:" (Ephesians 2:8b).

Moreover, when asked by His disciples how any man could be saved in Mark 10:26, Jesus responded by saying: "WITH MEN IT IS IMPOSSIBLE"! Please don't miss that statement! That means even if the rich young ruler gave up all his wealth, he still couldn't have been saved. Do you know why? It is simply because NO HUMAN BEING has ever lived a perfect, sinless, life! Therefore, we MUST have a perfect Savior! ...

> Mark 10:23-27, "And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God! And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved? And Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible."

John 1:12-13, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." The reason why rich people rarely get saved, is simply because they are proud and refuse to admit that they need a lowly carpenter from Nazareth as a Savior. The Bible teaches God has chosen the poor. James 2:5, "Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?" Poor people have nothing to lose, so to them Heaven sounds like a pretty good deal! I think so too!!!

Billy Graham preaches ANOTHER GOSPEL! It wasn't because the rich young ruler was unwilling to give up his comfortable life that he didn't get saved, but because he was trying to earn Heaven by KEEPING THE LAW! Jesus showed him that he hadn't perfectly kept the law, and was still hellbound in his sins, in need of salvation. I used to wonder why the Lord didn't just tell that young man to trust Him. But then I plainly witnessed the Gospel to a Roman Catholic neighbour a few dozen times over 5 years, but he still wouldn't let go of the Catholic mindset that doing good works is necessary to have eternal life. Then I realized why Jesus took the route that he did with that rich young ruler, because you cannot get a person saved, until you first GET THEM LOST!

Beware Of False Prophets Who Teach Righteousness By The Law

Here are Pastor John F. MacArthur's very own corrupt words . . .

> "The Gospel says, 'give your life to Christ and He rules' and if you're not willing to do that it's because you want to keep the rule of your own life. The rich young man wanted his own life for himself. He wanted to control his own life. He had his choice: sins, he had his choice, religion, and he wanted to hang onto control. It's that simple. Coming to Christ means you give up the control of your life, and you yield it to Christ. That's what kept him from salvation, he was unwilling to do that." [emphasis added]
> — [6]Kirk Cameron And John MacArthur On Salvation (4:51 in the video)

LIES!!! Mr. MacArthur isn't even in the ballpark! I realize that no one is correct on everything, and we're all entitled to our own opinions, respectfully. However, when a false prophet perverts the Scripture to teach ANOTHER GOSPEL [2nd Corinthians 11:4], then it is every believer's duty to "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints" (Jude 1:3).

MacArthur's words are damnable heresy!!! MacArthur says:

> "Coming to Christ means you give up the control of your life, and you yield it to Christ. That's what kept him from salvation, he was unwilling to do that."
> — [7]Kirk Cameron And John MacArthur On Salvation (4:51 in the video)

The reason why the rich young man didn't get saved was NOT because he refused to yield to Christ, nor because he was unwilling to give up control of his life; it was because he couldn't get saved by keeping the Law, and Jesus was trying to open his eyes to see that fact. Dr. MacArthur is a very bad and incompetent Bible teacher, in my humble opinion!

Jesus Was Using the Law As a Measuring Stick, Not As a Plan of Salvation

The simple PURPOSE of God's Old Testament LAW is to show humanity that WE HAVE FAILED and WE NEED THE SAVIOR! Galatians 3:24-26, "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." The inspired Word of God can be simplified with two words: LAW and GRACE. If you understand that truth, then you'll never go astray in doctrine or the plan of salvation. The LAW shows us the problem, that all men are sinners; GRACE shows us the answer, which is salvation by grace through alone in Jesus Christ.

The reason why the rich young man didn't get saved is because he was self-righteousness. He was trying to merit eternal life. Very few wealthy people are willing to admit that they cannot save themselves. Salvation requires enough humility to admit that we need Jesus as our Savior. Heaven can't be bought! Coming to Jesus Christ is a childlike step of faith by which one acknowledges: "I am a guilty, dirty, rotten, hell-deserving sinner, incapable of saving myself." Every admitted sinner who believes on Jesus—the Christ, the only begotten Son of God—is saved (Romans 10:9-13). The rich young ruler was self-righteous, secure in his wealth, thinking he could save himself by fulfilling the Law of God.

God gave Israel the LAW, knowing that when they failed to obey it, "every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God" (Romans 3:19b). Unfortunately, many of the Jews turned the law itself into a new false religion, that required keeping the law to get to Heaven. We see this in Acts 15:1, "And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved." They were teaching a false Gospel, which the apostle Paul called: "ANOTHER GOSPEL" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). They were still stuck on the LAW, failing to move on to GRACE! The purpose of God's law is to bring men to grace to be saved, but foolish men instead try to keep the law to be saved, but they CANNOT. This is exactly what the apostle Paul explains:

> Galatians 5:1-3, "Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law."

Jesus Christ died on the cross to set all humanity free, "TO THEM THAT BELIEVE" (1st Corinthians 1:21b). But for those who add works (keeping the law) to grace, Christ's sacrifice becomes ineffective to save them, because of their woeful lack of faith! Partial faith in Christ plus human effort (e.g., turning away from sins) cannot produce the new birth! Paul says in Galatians 5:3 that a man trusting in circumcision to save him, is obligated to KEEP THE WHOLE LAW. I mean, if a man wants to go that route, trying to keep the law to merit eternal life, then he MUST KEEP ALL OF THE LAW!!! Since NO ONE has ever been able to keep God's law ("For all have sinned," Romans 3:23a), NO ONE has ever been saved by keeping the law. Romans 3:20, "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

That's the only reason the young rich man didn't get saved. It wasn't because he refused to deny himself or forsake his covetousness; but rather, because he was self-righteous and thought he could merit Heaven by his own works. Romans 4:5-6 clearly states: "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works." Amen!

Notice what the self-righteous young man asked Jesus in Matthew 19:16, "...Good Master, what good thing SHALL I DO , that I may have eternal life?" The young man didn't ask how he could possess eternal life. No, rather, he asked what THING I NEED TO DO. The young man was self-righteousness. Jesus used the Law to show the young man his wickedness. There was nothing he could do in his own self-righteousness to have eternal life. He needed Jesus as his Savior. Romans 3:19 and Galatians 3:24 plainly teach that the Law's purpose is only to show us our guilt of sin and need for a Savior.

MacArthur requires people to fulfil the Law as a prerequisite to faith in Christ, which is the heresy of works salvation. That is exactly what Kirk Cameron, Ray Comfort and John MacArthur are teaching.

They all errantly teach that the rich young man should have forsaken his covetousness to be saved.

In sharp contrast, Romans 4:5-6, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works." Romans 3:20 plainly tells us that NO ONE is saved by keeping the law of God (and this includes the rich young ruler).

So why in the world does Ray Comfort, John MacArthur and other heretics on repentance teach that Jesus was presenting a plan of salvation to this rich young ruler? Jesus was trying to show this young man that he was an imperfect sinner, who hadn't kept the law as perfectly as he thought. This is necessary to being saved. Galatians 3:24-25 plainly teach us that the law is our SCHOOL MASTER, showing us how sinful we are, and then points us to THE SAVIOR for salvation!!! Ray Comfort and John MacArthur are still stuck on the schoolmaster and haven't made it to the Savior yet themselves.

Oh, that men would read the Bible and simply take it at face value. Romans 4:5-6 is so plain and clear in its teaching. A man's faith is COUNTED (imputed) for righteousness. Why? It's because [8]God's righteousness is imputed (attributed) to us by faith. This is a vastly different Gospel than the perverted gospel ("another gospel," 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4) of Ray Comfort and John MacArthur.

Jesus plainly taught in Luke 18:17 that a person must receive the kingdom of God as a little child in order to be saved. This is because a man must acknowledge that he is hopelessly lost in his own sins and cannot redeem himself. Thus, he needs Jesus Christ, Who is the Son of God.

The Biblical account of the young rich ruler has nothing to do with giving up one's love for money to be saved; but rather, realizing that salvation is solely of the Lord, and not by works of self-righteousness. The Apostle Paul addressed this matter at length in Romans 2:13-3:20. "For all have sinned" (Romans 3:23a). The rich young ruler foolishly thought he could earn his way to Heaven, which is why Jesus challenged him that he must forsake covetousness too!

Sadly, Ray Comfort, Billy Graham, John MacArthur and other false prophets, teach that Jesus was giving him a plan of salvation! They literally teach that the young man didn't get saved, because he refused to give up his earthly wealth. These FALSE TEACHERS all use the story of The Rich Young Ruler in a lame attempt to support their heresy of Lordship Salvation. The unsaved rich young man was trying to KEEP THE LAW to merit eternal life, which was a false plan of salvation, because NO ONE has ever perfectly obeyed all of the LAW. It is impossible, because all men are inherently sinful (by birth and by choice). MacArthur, Comfort, Graham—these ungodly men all try to use this true story of The Rich Young Ruler—to justify the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation (which is nothing less than trying to keep the law to be saved).

Folks, I hope you are getting this, I really do. I know that there are literally THOUSANDS of internet preachers today, many corrupt, some good, and a whole lot of confused people! I encourage you to consider two words: LAW and GRACE! LAW shows humanity our problem, sin; GRACE shows us the answer, salvation by grace through faith in Jesus Christ! If you understand that GRACE is the exact opposite of LAW, then it becomes clear that you cannot combine the two, for to do so is ANOTHER GOSPEL!!! [9]LAW is LAW, and GRACE is GRACE!

1.1.23 I Am Set For The Defence Of The Gospel (2020-03-14 10:00)

Philippians 1:17, "But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel."

I was listening to the King James Bible today on my computer and this phrase caught my attention. Paul said: "I AM SET FOR THE DEFENCE OF THE GOSPEL." What a great statement! What a precious truth! Today, just as in Paul's time, "the simplicity that is in Christ" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4) is under attack. Paul was resolved, proclaiming that he was "SET," which comes from a Greek word meaning "to lay outstretched on the ground" (literally or figuratively). Laying prostrate on the ground can be an act of humility, surrender or worship. In this case, Paul is totally surrendered to his divine task of DEFENDING THE GOSPEL!!!

The "Gospel" (i.e., the Good News of Christ crucified, buried and risen) has always been under attack by the Devil and his minions. The Gospel has many enemies; namely, Calvinism, Satanism, Roman Catholicism, Lutheranism, Seventh-day Adventism, Scientology, Christian Science, Freemasonry, Jehovah's Witnesses, Lordship Salvation, materialism (living for things), relativism (nothing is absolute), Evolution, Atheism, ecumenism (unequal yoking of believers with unbelievers), Judaism and Islam, to name just a few. The woeful trend of our generation is to follow religion and stray away from "THE POWER OF GOD UNTO SALVATION," which is "THE GOSPEL" (i.e., only to every one that believeth):

Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek."

The truth is that many people ARE ASHAMED OF THE GOSPEL, so instead they use unscriptural jargon; such as, "Ask Jesus into your heart," or "Invite Jesus into your life" or, "Turn away from your sins," or "Make Jesus the Lord of your life"! These are all unbiblical teachings, which are not the Gospel, nor do they produce the new birth by faith alone in Jesus Christ. Please listen to the MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles titled, "[1]FUNDAMENTALIST HERESY" (false Gospels exposed). The Bible foretold that in the Last Days, perilous times would come when people would desire religion without being born-again. Many people nowadays have churchianity, but they don't have Christianity. The missing element is the saving power of THE GOSPEL:

2nd Timothy 3:1-5, "This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away."

You can invite Jesus into your heart and life, and live for Christ with all your heart, and still go straight to Hell when you die. YE MUST BE BORN-AGAIN!!! Notice in 2nd Timothy 3:3 the phrase, "despisers of those who are good." The heathen world despises Christians, because they see Christ in us.

The Gospel is under attack by the Devil. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. I humbly thank God for convicting my heart about the purity of the Gospel. The Lord has set me for the defence of the Gospel. Philippians 1:17, "But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel."

The apostle Paul exclaimed that he was NOT ASHAMED OF THE GOSPEL. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." Many religious people (particular on radio) are ashamed of the Gospel. They don't want to offend Roman Catholics, Mormons, Seventh-day Adventists, Jehovah's Witnesses, Episcopalians, Lutherans, Church of Christ, United Methodists and other unsaved religious groups, so they retreat to a shallow "FORM OF GODLINESS, BUT DENYING THE POWER THEREOF" (2nd Timothy 3:5). The airwaves are filled with junk theology, leading people to "Invite Jesus into their life," which is a false Gospel.

Every Christian believer ought to defend "the Gospel":

> Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

The Bible refers to "the Gospel" as "THE SIMPLICITY THAT IS IN CHRIST":

> 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him."

It is simple to be saved. You don't have to commit to changing your ways to be saved. Talented cartoon Evangelist Jack Chick teaches in all his Chick Tracts that you must "Be willing to turn from sin (repent)" to be saved. That is not the Gospel. "Repentance" is not a willingness to turn away from sin; but rather, the admission of one's SINNERSHIP in God's holy eyes. Romans 3:19, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God." The purpose of God's law is to show men their sinfulness, that all the world may BECOME GUILTY BEFORE GOD. When you "repent" (Greek: metanoia, i.e., to change your mind) to agree with God, you acknowledge your sinful condition and believe the Gospel to be saved. Evil men refuse to repent; therefore, they won't come to Jesus to be saved. John 5:40, "And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life." When a man repents, he comes to Christ.

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

Satan is smarter and more clever than any human being, or group of human beings. Our text verse above is as simple as can be, direct from the holy Scriptures. Argue as some may, no one can debate the meaning of "the Gospel" in view of 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Jesus Christ DIED on the cross for our sins, was BURIED, and bodily RESURRECTED three days later. This is "the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth" (Romans 1:16b). There is no other way to be saved, than through the power of the Gospel.

I am committed to spend the rest of my earthly life defending "THE GOSPEL," to thwart Satan's attempt to hide the cross from the unsaved. I am set for the defence of the Gospel.

> "Everything that's hard and complicated about salvation is God's side of it!"
> —Pastor Jack Hyles, a precious quote from the MP3 sermon, "[2]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"

I love Alex Jones, who often professes to be a “Christian,” but kindly, since 2002 when I began listening to him on Infowars.com, I have NEVER heard Alex preach THE GOSPEL. Not one time! I’ve heard tons of religious jibber-jabber over the years on The Alex Jones Show, but no Gospel. Folks, life is short, Hell is hot, and eternity is a long time! The New World Order is not the worst threat to humanity today, it is the Gospel being hidden from the unsaved. When a true believer remains silent about the truth of the Gospel, they are helping Satan’s cause. Either Alex Jones loves money and despises God (Luke 16:13), or he is not saved at all, or both.

I’m tired of people professing to know and love Jesus Christ, who haven’t the foggiest idea what “the Gospel” means. I’ve listened to the alleged Christian testimonies of Alice Cooper, Bruce Jenner, Dave Mustaine and Brian Welch, and I’m not convinced any of them believe the Gospel. At some point in their lives they decided to follow Jesus Christ, get religion, and commit their life to serve Christ, but they have never been born-again!!! Alice Cooper speaks highly of his father’s faith, who was a hellbound Mormon minister. These are not Biblical Christians! Giving your life to Jesus is not the Gospel.

Hollywood Actor Chuck Norris’ False Gospel

I was looking today at Hollywood actor Chuck Norris’ website, at a resource page titled “[4]FREE GIFT.” Chuck Norris is a professed Christian. Although I admire Chuck’s good reputation and work to help youth, he is theological wrong in some of the things he teaches. First, repentance concerning salvation is always defined as “a change of mind,” and never to “turn from sins.” Mr. Norris has been deceived no doubt by some of today’s apostate religious leaders. On Chuck Norris’ website (see quote below) they teach the heresy, “If you are willing to repent of your sin, He is waiting to forgive you.” That is not THE GOSPEL. Where in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 are we told that we must be willing to forsake sinful bad habits and cease from intentional sinful behavior? My friend, at best, the only thing you could do is replace your sins with self-righteousness (which is a sin too)!!! Kindly, Mr. Norris has it wrong!

Here is a more lengthy quote:

> “Jesus died for you. You can be saved by asking Him for forgiveness from your sins. If you are willing to repent of your sin, He is waiting to forgive you. It doesn’t matter what you have done in the past, if you cry out to Jesus for forgiveness, He will not reject you. The word ’repent’ literally means ’to turn away from.’ You need to look at your life, admit that you are a sinner, genuinely desire to turn your back on that sin, and ask Him to forgive you. If you do this, He promises to forgive you.”
> Chuck Norris, personal website, Christian resource Page: ’ [5]Free Gift ’.

Mr. Norris fails to understand that we don’t need to ask Jesus to forgive our sins. You see, Christ has already paid for our sins on the cross with His precious blood. Therefore, forgiveness is a “gift” that we simply receive to have eternal life. God does not require anyone to “turn away from” sinful behavior to receive what He has already paid for in full on the cross.

And the word “repent” does not literally mean “[6]to turn away from.” That is the Roman Catholic definition of repentance, not the [7]Biblical Greek meaning. In Acts 20:21, the Holy Bible speaks of “repentance toward God.” Who says repentance means “to turn away from”? Why not toward God? Friend, repentance is toward God from unbelief. It may be a man’s sinful ways that hinder him from coming to Christ to be saved (John 3:20). That man doesn’t need to repent from his sins to be saved; but rather, he needs to repent TOWARD GOD, believing the Good News (the Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen! When a man “repents,” he thinks differently TOWARD GOD, believing the Gospel by faith to be saved. The entire notion of a man turning away from sins to be saved is self-righteousness—a works-based plan of salvation, which does not produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God.

> Galatians 3:2, “This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?”

Notice carefully in the preceding Scripture that no mention is made of “turning from sins” nor of “being willing to turn from sins” to be saved. No, rather, we are saved by simply receiving the Gospel by faith when we hear it preached. It is that simple to be saved. On the Day of Pentecost, the apostle Peter preached the Gospel and 3,000 souls were saved in one day.

Repentance is not “from sins”; but rather, from the “unbelief” that has been hindering you from being saved. Mark 6:6 and 12, “And he marvelled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages, teaching. ... And they went out, and preached that men should repent.” You don’t need to pray to be saved. The Scriptures tell us that whosoever BELIEVES is saved. 1st Corinthians 1:21, “For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.”

Here is the best quote that I’ve found on repentance, by Dr. Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951):

> “Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, ’Repent ye, and believe the gospel.’ Yet we find true believers exhorted to ’repent, and do the first works.’ So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance.” ([8]Except Ye Repent, p. 16)

Beware of all the dangerous false teachings nowadays which tell you to: “Invite Jesus into your life,” and “Ask Jesus into your heart,” and “Confess Christ before men,” and “Turn from sins,” and “Follow Christ,” and “Pray a prayer,” and “Have a relationship with Jesus,” and “Say ’Jesus is Lord”’ to be saved. None of these constitute “the Gospel.” Here’s a great writing by Dr. Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951) titled, [9]WHAT IS THE GOSPEL?

The Gospel. The Gospel. The Gospel. Let that be our proclamation!!! We must refute the popular false teachings nowadays to “Invite Jesus into your life,” and to “Commit your life to Christ,” and to “Ask Jesus into your heart,” and to “Pray a prayer,” and to “Say ’Jesus is Lord’,” and to “Follow Christ” to be saved. None of these constitute THE GOSPEL. You may do all these things and yet split Hell wide open when you enter into eternity!!! Satan is smarter than any man. The Devil knows that the best way to take people to Hell is to substitute religion in their life for THE GOSPEL (Matthew 7:21-23). Here is an excellent writing by Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951) titled, “WHAT IS THE GOSPEL?”

[10]How Permanent Is Your Salvation? (Pastor Hank Lindstrom, 1940-2008)

1.1.24 Alcohol Has Never Done Any Good (2020-03-14 11:00)

Proverbs 20:1, “

Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

Alcohol has never built a home, mended a broken marriage, or restored a relationship. In every way, alcohol is a public menace! Alcoholism statistics show that binge drinking has become a serious problem in the United States:

> “When one looks at the numbers of people who chose to have a binge drinking experience, the numbers are even more alarming. Over 29 % of women and 43 % of men chose to binge drink when they drank in the past year.”
> — [1]Family Alcoholism Statistics

According to the National Highway Traffic And Safety Administration (NHTSA), 30 people die every day in the United States:

> “Every day, almost 30 people in the United States die in drunk-driving crashes — that’s one person every 50 minutes. These deaths have fallen by a third in the last three decades; however, drunk-driving crashes claim more than 10,000 lives per year. In 2010, the most recent year for which cost data is available, these deaths and damages contributed to a cost of $44 billion that year.”
> —[2]Drunk Driving

Oh foolish Americans! Drinking alcohol is a fool’s game of Russian Roulette! I thank God that I have never drank a drop of alcohol in my life! I don’t know what it feels like to get drunk, nor to recover from a hangover. I have no curiosity or desire to find out either! I like to call alcoholic beverages “BOOZE,” which is what Evangelist Billy Sunday rightly called it, giving alcohol its much deserved negative connotations. Albeit,

I do not condemn other sinners, for I am the biggest sinner I know; gratefully redeemed by the precious blood of Jesus Christ. I did not write this article to hurt anybody’s feelings, nor to judge anyone; but rather, to try to preach some sense into this generation.

I live on Guam, where our street poles are 3 foot thick concrete! When I used to live in Chicago, where I was born in 1967 and lived until 2004, I saw several dozen street poles knocked down from drunk drivers crashing into them. Drunks were a BIG PROBLEM! However, the street poles in Chicago are about 8 inches thick, held in place by inch thick bolts on the ground. It doesn't take much for a heavy car to knock one of those street poles down. But on Guam, you die, because the concrete poles don't budge a centimeter! Consequently, in the 15 years I have lived on Guam, I have literally seen about 100 flower displays set by those concrete poles, in remembrance of loved ones who died there. Granted, not all of them were the result of booze, but MOST were!

I was sad last year to see the local K-mart on Guam change owners, because the new owners have [3]turned K-mart into a giant liquor store. When I was a child in the 1970's, I remember that ALL stores (whether bars or grocery stores) only sold booze in brown paper bags, to set a good example for the children. Even drunks held their Vodka bottles in brown paper bags. Sadly, all innocence is gone today, and businesses openly promote, display and sell booze. Guam has a big problem with drunk drivers and alcoholism, as does every major city in the United States. I am not condemning anybody, I am simply encouraging others to avoid alcohol. There are so many great beverages to consume, without guzzling beer. If the truth be known, a lot of people intentionally want to get buzzed and drunk!

Did you know that alcohol by nature is a narcotic, a Schedule II drug. To my understanding, " means that a drug has a medical purpose, but

Schedule I

Schedule

means that a drug has no medical purpose. What hypocrisy! Millions of Americans are rotting in prisons for abusing prescription drugs, while the rest of society abuses the drug alcohol. Personally, I do not think the government has any business outlawing drugs of any sort! That is not their function. The purpose of government is to protect citizen's person, property and liberty. It's not the government's job to feed the poor, educate children or make sure women get the same jobs as men. I humbly believe that America is headed for a police state, as a result of sin undermining our society as a whole!

The problem is not that booze should be outlawed, but that it has become a Madison Avenue product, sold and promoted extensively by corporate America. The Holy Bible teaches that the LOVE OF MONEY is the root of all evil (1st Timothy 6:10). The wealthy families which produce millions of gallons a year of booze, are not held accountable. The most ridiculous cliche ever invented was:

Drink Responsibly!

” Can you image if your doctor prescribed a powerful drug to you, and told you to take it “ without setting any limits? How would you know how much to take? How many pills is “responsible”? When people drink alcohol, they just have a good time and guzzle the drug booze!

responsibly

Did you know that getting drunk is a sin? 1st Corinthians 6:9-10 lists “

as one of the sins that keep sinners out of the Kingdom of God. 1st Corinthians 6:9-10, “Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. ” I love verse 11,

“ And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.” The moment we get saved, all of our sins (past, present and future) are washed away by Jesus’ blood. Our POSITION in Jesus Christ is settled, as a child of God, based solely upon God’s faithfulness ; however, our CONDITION in Christ depends upon our faithfulness to God. Many Christians misunderstand this Bible passage, fearing that they can lose salvation, but that is not what the Bible is teaching. The only sin that can keep a sinner out of Heaven is unbelief, which is the only unpardonable sin.

Alcohol has never built a happy and healthy family, but it has destroyed tens of millions! Alcohol has never repaired a struggling marriage, but it has caused millions of divorces and widows. Booze ruins marriages and relationships. I am 53 years old as of March 5th, 2020. I have lived long enough to watch American society wax worse and worse. Alcohol is truly PUBLIC ENEMY NUMBER ONE!!! In the late 1980’s, I watched a mechanic co-worker run a knife right through his hand, while cutting a piece of radiator hose, because he had been drinking booze. That same man crashed his pickup truck while drunk, injuring his friend in the passenger's seat, which resulted in a $19,000 lawsuit. The judge had his paychecks garnished until the damages were paid. While growing up, I saw multiple neighbor's wives with black and blue faces, beaten badly by their drunkard husbands. Oh how sin thrills and then it kills! Oh how sin fascinates and then it assassinates! The Devil is a beautiful liar!!!

Truly, alcohol is a LIQUID DEVIL!!! The best advice on alcohol you'll ever hear is this—YOU CAN'T TAKE TWO DRINKS, IF YOU DON'T TAKE THE FIRST!!! Amen!

1.1.25 Psalms 12:6-7 Corrupted In Modern Bible Versions (2020-03-15 06:14)

Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever."

Please hear me out dear reader. I so much wish, hope and pray that professed Christians all across America would wake up to righteousness, and reject the modern Bible versions! I am making a sincere appeal to all the apostates who don't care about THE TRUTH—who accept the Devil's corrupt Alexandrian based Bible revisions. This applies also to the Moody Bible Institute camp, East Texas Baptist College, Bob Jones University, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Cemetery, the Southern Baptist Convention, and other shameful religious institutions today. Oh, how apostasy has infiltrated Bible colleges and churches today. Dear Christian reader, what I am about to show you is not my opinion, it is a shocking FACT! Truth is like the sun, clouds can only hide it for so long until it shines forth!

Psalms 12:6-7, in no uncertain terms, proclaims THE TRUTH that God Himself PROMISED to preserve His "PURE WORDS" FOREVER!!! Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever."

The content and meaning is abundantly clear—God's Words are PURE WORDS, and God has promised to keep and preserve those "WORDS" forever!!! "THEM" refers to God's "PURE WORDS"!

Yet (and this is so ungodly and wicked), look at what the Devil's Bible revisions do to remove this promise from God to keep and preserve His "PURE WORDS." Here once more is the accurate inspired King James Bible...

King James Bible (KJB)

Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever."

Verse 6 defines verse 7. Verse 6 tells us exactly what is being kept and preserved by the pronoun "THEM"—God's pure Words!!

The Hebrew word for "KEEP" in Psalm 12:7 is shamar, which means: "hedge about (as with thorns), that is, guard; generally to protect, attend to." Notice my friend that GOD HIMSELF protects, guards and attends to His very pure Words, putting a divine hedge around them! Kindly, I think it is a crying SHAME that so many fundamental Baptist churches and associated Bible colleges today, wholeheartedly support and bid Godspeed to Satan's corruptible seed.

YOU BE THE JUDGE dear reader!

Are you okay with the following perversion of the Scripture? ...

Easy-To-Read version (ERV) -

Psalms 12:6-7, "The Lord's words are true and pure, like silver purified by fire, like silver melted seven times to make it perfectly pure. Lord, take care of the helpless. Protect them forever from the wicked people in this world."

English Standard Version (ESV) -

Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the Lord are pure words, like silver refined in a furnace on the ground purified seven times. You, O Lord, will keep them; you will guard us from this generation forever."

The Living Bible (TLB) -

Psalms 12:6-7, "The Lord's promise is sure. He speaks no careless word; all he says is purest truth, like silver seven times refined. O Lord, we know that you will forever preserve your own from the reach of evil men,"

The Amplified Bible (AMP) -

Psalms 12:6-7, "The words and promises of the Lord are pure words, Like silver refined in an earthen furnace, purified seven times. You, O Lord, will preserve and keep them; You will protect him from this [evil] generation forever."

The Common English Bible (CEB) -

Psalms 12:6-7, "The LORD's promises are pure, like silver that's been refined in an oven, purified seven times over! You, LORD, will keep us, protecting us from this generation forever."

The Complete Jewish Bible (CJB) -

Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of ADONAI are pure words, silver in a melting-pot set in the earth, refined and purified seven times over. You, ADONAI, protect us; guard us forever from this generation."

The Message Bible (MSG) -

Psalm 12:6-7, “God’s words are pure words, Pure silver words refined seven times In the fires of his word-kiln, Pure on earth as well as in heaven. God, keep us safe from their lies, From the wicked who stalk us with lies.”

New Revised Standard version (NRSV) -

Psalms 12:6-7, “The promises of the Lord are promises that are pure, silver refined in a furnace on the ground, purified seven times. You, O Lord, will protect us; you will guard us from this generation forever.”

Lexham English Bible (LEX) -

Psalms 12:6-7, “The words of Yahweh are pure words like silver refined in the crucible on the ground, refined seven times. You, O Yahweh, will protect them. You will preserve him from this generation always.”

Common English Bible (CEB) -

Christian Standard Bible (CSB) -

Psalms 12:6-7, “The words of the Lord are pure words, like silver refined in an earthen furnace, purified seven times. You, Lord, will guard us; you will protect us from this generation forever.”

Good News Translation (GNT) -

Psalm 12:6-7, "The wicked are everywhere, and everyone praises what is evil. Keep us always safe, O Lord, and preserve us from such people."

THEY'VE PERVERTED THE LIVING WORDS OF ALMIGHTY GOD!! THEY'VE CHANGED PSALM 12:7! Instead of saying that God keeps and preserves His "PURE WORDS," the Devil's crowd changed it to say that God keeps and preserves "US" (THE SAINTS). BLASPHEMY!!!

Do you see how the Devil's crowd have changed the inspired Words of God? Instead of saying that God keeps and preserves HIS PURE WORDS, they've changed it to God keeps and protects US (the saints). Why did they do that? The answer is obvious, because according to the American Bible Society, there are about [1]900 English Bible revisions today (in part or whole).

...ON AND ON THEY GO, THE NEW VERSIONS JUST KEEP COMING, CORRUPTING THE CHURCHES!!!

I just quoted to you TWELVE CORRUPTED BIBLE REVISIONS (all based upon the Alexandria, Egypt manuscripts). Churches and Bible colleges that desire to make money, sinfully dip their sails so that they tolerate, accept and go along with apostasy; and they refuse to criticize heresy and Satan creeping into their midst. These counterfeit Bible revisions today are straight from the pits of Hell, but the average religious leader today is indifferent, complacent and a part of the problem.

I once heard Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) wisely say that the plan of salvation is like getting dressed, if you get the first button wrong, then all the others buttons will be wrong too! That is exactly right!

Nothing else matters if a minister who teaches the Bible is unsaved, deceived, and on his way to the Lake of Fire in self-righteousness. Case in point, I have learned many interesting spiritual truths from Roman Catholics, Seventh-day Adventists, Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormons and Calvinists (aka, Lordship Salvation), but they are all on their way to a burning Hell in their works-based plans of salvation. Biblically, salvation is not reformation, nor education, nor rehabilitation; it is REGENERATION! Ye must be born again! (John 3:1-7).

I have been wonderfully saved now for 40 years, since the age of 13. [1]Statistics show that 85 % of Christians were saved between the ages of 4 to 14. 1 % from ages 1 to 4. Only 10 % of Christians were saved between the ages of 15 to 30. That is astounding! Once you reach age 30, you only have a 4 % chance of coming to Jesus Christ to be saved! And may I warn, please [2]don't believe everybody who claims to be born-again, because even hellbound Roman Catholics claim to be born-again (they are not, because they add seven sacraments to God's free gift of grace). Satan is the author of confusion, not God (1st Corinthians 14:33).

The heresies of Lordship Salvation, Wrong Repentance and Calvinism have invaded our Baptist churches today. Each of these heresies are a little different. Lordship Salvation teaches you must surrender to Christ's Lordship as a requirement to be saved. Calvinism says you WILL turn away from sins if you are saved. Wrong Repentance says you must turn away from your sins (or be willing to turn away from your sins) to be saved. I make these important distinctions simply because I have heard preachers refute one heresy, while being guilty of teaching another them self.

Case in point is Canadian Evangelist David W. Cloud. Mr. Cloud exposes the heresy of Lordship Salvation, yet he himself preaches ANOTHER GOSPEL. In a 1996 article titled: [3]Repentance And Lordship Salvation , Cloud states:

> Having said all of this and having renounced Lordship Salvation as previously defined, I am also convinced that some men use the "Lordship Salvation" thing as a smoke-screen to hide their "quick prayerism" error. Salvation does not produce perfection, but it does require repentance, and repentance is a change of mind toward God and sin and Jesus Christ and the Bible that will result in a change of action. Salvation does not require obedience, but salvation will result in obedience; and if it does not, at least to some degree or other, it is not biblical salvation. Faith in Christ cannot be divorced from repentance toward God. "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ" (Acts 20:21).

> The greatest concern I have, when surveying the independent Baptist scene as a whole, is that repentance is NOT emphasized in the preaching of the Gospel. It is mentioned sometimes, but it is not emphasized as it is in the preaching of the Apostles. Instead, a prayer is emphasized. The number of prayers are counted as salvations. "Eighty men got saved in the prison during the meetings this week." What does a statement like that mean? It usually means that 80 men raised their hands and prayed a prayer. Is that, in itself, salvation? Is that repentance? No, a repentant man who calls upon the name of the Lord will be saved, but many call upon the Lord in prayer who are not saved. [4]READ MORE David Cloud is confusing at best! He says salvation does not require obedience, but salvation will result in obedience. That is Calvinism! The saved man in 1st Corinthians 3:15 was "saved; yet as by fire," which plainly means he didn't live a life of obedience to Christ on earth! That man receives no rewards at the Judgment Seat of Christ. Mr. Cloud is preaching a counterfeit Gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. He continually berates soulwinning preachers like Jack Hyles, Curtis Hutson and Bob Gray Sr., accusing them of "

quick prayerism.

" Cloud says more than simple childlike faith is required to be saved, he says there must be repentance (which he errantly understands to mean having intent to surrender to obey Christ). I called David Cloud "confusing" for a very good reason—because he talks out of both sides of his mouth—he just got done saying that "salvation doesn't require obedience," but then he says: "but salvation will result in obedience." David Cloud further states:

> "Repentance is a radical change in attitude toward divine authority, and if a person does not have such a change in attitude he has not repented and he is NOT saved and he does not have "eternal security."

The problem with what David Cloud is teaching is that he is placing the burden of change upon the sinner, instead of upon the transforming power of having one's mind renewed by the Word of God (Romans 12:1-2). Like all repentance heretics, Mr. Cloud attributes an Christian's unchanged life to a failure to REPENT at the time of salvation! Easy-believism is not the problem, churches failing to follow up and mentor their converts is the problem! Getting saved doesn't change a person one bit. The only difference is that now they have the indwelling Holy Spirit. The Bible calls them " newborn babes

" in 1st Peter 2:2b, who need to nurture and grow on the milk of the Word .

David Cloud says

“salvation will result in obedience,” but that is not always true. The Bible is filled with disobedient saints (Jacob, Samson, Lot, Saul, Samson, David, Demas, Peter, Ananias and Sapphira).

You know, I’ve never heard David Cloud mention winning anyone to the Lord. Like Ray Comfort, he does a lot of talking, but seemingly has nothing eternal to show for it! With his perverted view of the Gospel, it doesn’t surprise me. David Cloud has been is a missionary to Nepal for over 30 years. He’s a Vietnam veteran, and an alumni of Tennessee Temple University. I truly admire his fighting spirit, but it is unfortunate that he requires more than faith to be saved. Don’t get me wrong, repentance is necessary for salvation, but it simply means to judge one’s self as being a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God (Romans 3:19-20). Repentance is not a radical change of attitude toward divine authority that results in a changed life, which is what Mr. Cloud teaches. This is pre-qualification for salvation by intent to do works! It is a form of human reformation, and not the regenerating power of the Holy Spirit by faith alone.

Granted, I do recognize that there is a phony type of “

quick prayerism

” fake salvation going around in the churches, which leaves off the Gospel; but that is not what Jack Hyles, Bob Gray Sr. and Curtis Hutson preach! Pastor Hyles preached a helpful sermon, which puts David Cloud to shame, called: [5]Fundamentalist Heresy . David Cloud requires TWO separate steps to be saved. He makes repentance a separate step from believing, which is totally unbiblical. The truth is that we repent TO believe, we don’t repent AND believe. As Dr. John R. Rice wisely taught—the man who believes has repented, and the man who repents and believed. That is why the Gospel of John mentions the word “believe” 85 times without mentioning the word “repent” even one time. That speaks volumes!

Mr. Cloud tries to downplay this truth, by pointing out that you won’t find any mention of the virgin birth in the Gospel of John, but it is still a true doctrine. Cloud states:

> By the way, as for the Gospel of John not using the word “repentance,” it does not mention the virgin birth, either, or many other things that are found in other portions of Scripture. We are given four Gospels so that we will have a complete picture of > Christ's person, work, and message; and the fact remains that repentance is mentioned 27 times in the Gospels alone and 59 times in the New Testament. That is a heavy emphasis. [6]READ MORE

Kindly said, David Cloud has a flawed concept of Bible theology. S ince the Gospel of John was written specifically with the intent to get people saved, God certainly WOULD have mentioned Christ's virgin birth, deity and repentance, if these things were essential to saving-faith, but they are not. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the So n of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

" Mr. Cloud points out that repentance is mentioned 27 times in the four Gospels, but he fails to see that the word is NOT mentioned even once in John's Gospel. That is simply because repentance is NOT a separate EVENT from believing, it is one and the same EVENT (although repentance itself is not the same thing theologically as believing).

Here is a helpful quote defining repentance from Pastor Harry Ironside:

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ([7]Except Ye Repent, p. 16) [emphasis added]

As I quoted to your earlier, Mr. Cloud says repentance is a radical change of attitude toward sin and God's authority that results in a change of life. The truth is that you don't have to have a radical change of attitude toward sin that will result in a changed life ; and then second, believe. The truth is that repentance is an attitude change of mind toward sin which compels you to believe the Gospel , and then the indwelling Holy Spirit goes to work to change you. That is how God's plan of salvation works! The former is conditional upon man's faithfulness to God; but the latter is solely conditional upon God's faithfulness to man.

By the grace of God I have been blessed to have some excellent Bible teachers over the years, who've taught me "the simplicity that is in Christ," as was taught to them by faithful men of God. It is my hope and prayer friend, whoever you may be, that by God's grace I may also influence you. My mentors are doctrinally sound preaching preachers! A preacher MUST be correct on the plan of salvation and the Word of God to be one of my mentors. I won't follow a man who teaches people how to burn in Hell. That's where Lordship Salvation leads, straight to Hell!!! I won't follow a man who promotes the counterfeit Bible versions, defending them in ignorance, when he ought to be exposing them for perverting what it means to "repent."

For example: Mark 1:15 in the [1]Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) redefines repentance for salvation to mean that you must change your heart and life to be saved. That is not what the Word of God teaches. The Greek word for "repent" in Mark 1:15 in the King James Bible is metanoeo, which means, "to think differently." It is a change of mind. It DOESN'T mean to "change your hearts and lives," which is what the corrupt ERV says!!! . . .

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel ." [emphasis added]

> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — Mark 1:15, "He said, "The right time is now here. God's kingdom is very near. Change your hearts and lives , and believe the Good News!" [emphasis added]

The ERV is wrong, wrong, wrong! You don't have to change your own life as a requirement to be saved. Rather, it is the indwelling Holy Spirit that comes into a person at the time of salvation that changes one's heart and life, over time as they grow in grace by nurturing on the milk of the Word (1st Peter 2:2). A changed life is a matter of [2]Discipleship, not Salvation. Anyone who tells you that you must change your ways, habits or sinful deathstyle to be saved is a BIG LIAR! Eternal life is a gift (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). A gift can simply be received, not achieved. Ephesians 2:10 says that God saves us UNTO GOOD WORKS, not BY GOOD WORKS. No believer has God's permission to sin (Romans 3:31). Hebrews 12:6-8 teaches that God chastises and scourges disobedient children. So, obviously, God has disobedient children. We all disobey at times, and then are chastened and scourged, and we learn from it.

If you hear anyone adding to the Gospel, run away! 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 simply teaches that the Gospel is Christ's death on the cross for our sins, His burial, and His bodily resurrection three days later. If you admit that you are a guilty sinner in God's holy eyes (Romans 3:19; Romans 3:23; Galatians 3:24-26), and you believe the Gospel, you are immediately and forever securely saved by the promise of God. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith." Salvation is wholly of God, and not in the least degree by man or human effort. Our part is simply to BELIEVE. John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

I love you in the Lord, whoever you may be, and I plead with you to receive Christ now if you've never done so. Contrary to the heresy taught on Unshackled, you can believe on the name of Jesus Christ, be instantly born-again, write your name in the back of your King James Bible, and rest safe and secure for the rest of your earthly life that you are God's child, REGARDLESS OF HOW YOU CHOOSE TO LIVE YOUR LIFE!!! Anyone who teaches differently, requiring that you reform your behavior as part of being saved, is a total satanic heretic teaching a false plan of salvation (which is ANOTHER GOSPEL).

Salvation is a miraculous NEW BIRTH wrought solely by God through faith (John 1:12-13), not reformation or changing of one's heart and life. Lordship Salvation is of the Devil, and those who trust in it WILL BURN IN HELL FOREVER AND EVER. Please don't go to Hell. The gate which leadeth unto life is very narrow (Matthew 7:13-14), because it is so simple that most people pass right by it, and instead adopt some manmade plan of salvation based upon human effort (works). It is simple to be saved, so simple in fact that most people miss it completely. I am being your friend, telling you the 100 % truth of God's inspired Words. Thank you for reading this. END

1.1.28 An Important Lesson From A Leper (2020-03-15 14:00)

Matthew 8:1-3, "When he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed."

Something about the leper in the preceding passage of Scripture impressed upon my heart. This afflicted man had the horrible disease of leprosy, yet he came and humbly WORSHIPED the precious Savior! What a lesson for you and me!!! In his sickened state, this horribly diseased man came and fell to the ground, worshipping the only begotten Son of God.

Few people understand how horrible leprosy is.

Dr. Richard H. Pousma, a missionary in Asia and a hospital superintendent in New Mexico, explains:

> Leprosy was greatly feared by the Israelites, not only because of the physical damage done by the disease, but also because of the strict isolation laws applying to leprosy, making patients feel like feared outcasts of society. . . . Leprosy [in the Bible] appears in two principle forms. The first, and by far the more dangerous, is called lepromatous; and the other, more benign type is designated tuberculoid. Both start with discoloration of a patch of skin. . . . In the lepromatous type of leprosy, the patch may spread widely in all directions. Portions of the eyebrows may disappear. Spongy, tumor-like swellings grow on the face and body. The disease becomes systemic and involves the internal organs as well as the skin. Marked deformity of the hands and feet occur when the tissues between the bones deteriorate and disappear. . . . Untreated cases may be sick with lepromatous leprosy from ten to twenty years, death occurring from the disease itself. . . . The tuberculoid type is less severe. . . . [It] tends to be limited and even untreated cases heal completely in from one to three years.(The Zondervan Pictorial Encyclopedia of the Bible, "Leprosy.")

Leprosy represents sin in the Word of God. Leprosy affects both body and soul, infecting the whole person, as does sin! I found this helpful quote online about leprosy:

> Leprosy vividly illustrates sin and it fruits. The disease's effects on the body demonstrate the effects of sin on the mind. Leprosy represents God's view of sin, as detestable, deforming, and unclean. Both leprosy and sin begin small then grow relentlessly until they infect the whole person. They also both cause heartrending social problems, as the quarantine laws suggest. Families are often split. Lepers suffer both the disease and ostracism from society. In the end, they both destroy their victims' lives. [1]SOURCE

The afflicted man in Matthew 8:2 came and WORSHIPED the blessed Savior, hoping by faith in Jesus to be healed, and he was. It impressed upon my heart that this diseased man worshipped Christ before he knew if Jesus would heal him. So often people nowadays refuse to worship Jesus Christ unless their life is first blessed. I have met bitter people, who are angry at God for their miseries. They blame God for their hardships, the death of a loved one, the world's problems, and everything else bad in their existence.

I admire the leper in Matthew 8:2, who worshipped the blessed Savior, while still at the bottom of life in his broken and diseased condition. Anybody can praise God when things are going well, but it requires great faith to praise and worship the Lord when everything is going wrong!

Jesus Saves Lepers

Leprosy is a painful and difficult disease to cope with, which causes society to shun and reject a person. Yet, Jesus received him! John 6:37, "

All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

" I love this precious Bible verse

Jesus never turns anyone away who comes to Him! Perhaps you say: "Preacher, you don't understand, I have done horrible things in my past; I am a criminal; I have much sin in my life!" Dear friend, t he only type of person that God saves is THE UNGODLY! Romans 4:5, “But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

Jesus promises

him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

” But you ask: “Don’t I have to turn from my sins to be saved?” When you come as a guilty sinner to the blessed Savior, you HAVE turned your back against sin, even though you may not have the desire to forsake those sins yet! The Lord does not require you to forsake sins to be saved, but simply to acknowledge that you are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God. You need to realize your need for salvation. The purpose of God’s LAW is to give humanity the KNOWLEDGE OF SIN (Romans 3:19), not mandate that you KEEP THE LAW to be saved (Romans 3:20). Simply come as you are as a guilty sinner, “JUST AS I AM,” to the dear Savior—believing that He died on the cross for your sins, was buried, and raised up three days later—and you will immediately and eternally have eternal life! Whatever changes God wants to see happen in your life as a believer is a separate matter of discipleship.

1.1.29 Not By Might, Nor By Power, But By God’s Holy Spirit (2020-03-15 16:37)

Zechariah 4:1-6, “And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep, And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof: And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof. So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord? Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord. Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.”

One of the greatest truths I have ever learned is from Zechariah 4:6—THE TRUTH that the Christian ministry is not about me, nor what I can accomplish in my own human strength; nor is it about my cunning articulation of words, nor any wisdom of my own accord—It is all about the power of the Holy Spirit. John 15:5, “I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing." We can accomplish NOTHING for the Kingdom of God in our own human strength. This important truth from Zechariah 4:6 has permeated my website ministry since I began by God's grace in 2002, and by His grace I will continue for many years to come. I fully realize that I cannot help my web visitors without God's Holy Spirit working in people's souls. That is my main prayer consistently—that as my words speak to your ears dear reader, that God's blessed Holy Spirit will speak to your heart. WITHOUT JESUS I CAN DO NOTHING!!!

We grow in grace, not in strength.

Jesus Christ adds His strength to our weakness!

God's goal is not to strengthen us, but to strengthen our union with Christ. I like something that Pastor Reuben Torrey (1856-1928) said:

> "We are too busy to pray, and so we are too busy to have power. We have a great deal of activity, but we accomplish little; many services but few conversions; much machinery but few results." —Pastor R.A. Torrey (1856-1928)

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) preached a Spirit-filled sermon titled: [1]THE SPIRIT'S ABIDING, in which he says: All is in vain unless the Holy Spirit comes down! Yes, that is so true! Jesus said without Him, we can do NOTHING!!! Psalms 127:1, " Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain." I don't want to labor in vain. So if you want to make sure that the Lord is building your ministry, then do these things:

1. Only use the inspired King James Bible - Satan's fingerprints are all over the modern [2]Alexandrian Bible revisions, which are as crooked as a dog's hind leg. God will not bless a ministry that is built upon CORRUPTIBLE SEED!
2. Preach the Gospel accurately - I am appalled at how many Independent Fundamental Baptist Churches today [3]get the Gospel wrong! How can the Lord build a ministry if you're complicating God's plan of salvation for man? Here is a helpful sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles called: "[4]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay."
3. Realize that it is God's ministry, not yours! - I realized a long time ago that I am an ambassador for the Lord here on earth. An "ambassador" represents someone else. Literally, you are the only "Jesus" that someone knows. 2nd Corinthians 5:20, "Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God." My ministry websites all belong to God, because I have been bought with a price (Jesus' precious blood) and I belong to Him!

4. Bath your ministry in prayer - I cannot explain why God wants us to labor in fervent prayer. Could we not make better use of that time by going soulwinning? Absolutely not! Prayer is not preparation for the greater work, PRAYER IS THE GREATER WORK! God will not use a proud man or woman. Humility is paramount! In prayer, we are depending upon God's power. A lot of believers struggle with sin and the world. James 4:6b, "God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

5. Ask God for wisdom continually - I feel so helpless, incompetent and worthless on my own. Oh how I desperately need God in every area of my life, in each breath I inhale, and each step I take, in all that I do!

6. Be aggressive about winning souls - A ministry that doesn't diligently try to win lost souls to Jesus Christ is NOT A MINISTRY! How can it be? The ministry is synonymous with carrying out THE GREAT COMMISSION (Matthew 28:19-20). Any work that facilitates and helps the soulwinning cause of Jesus Christ can legitimately be called "a ministry."

7. Genuinely love and care about people - At some point in America our churches became businesses, and the individual person didn't matter anymore. Oh sure, nearly every offending ministry will superficially claim to care about people, but their WALK talks much louder than their TALK talks. One of the worst churches I ever attended is the [5]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who woeful lack God's love for people, which I can testify to firsthand—that I was [6]abused at their church and horribly shunned away as a result. I love them unconditionally with God's love, but they don't love me at all, and that shows their dire spiritual condition. God is not building Harvest, ungodly men are.

Whatever has ever been accomplished so far for the Kingdom of God, or ever will be accomplished through my humble labors online, will ONLY be by the power of God's Holy Spirit. The seven principles that I just gave you are the foundation of all my work! To God alone be the glory, great things He is doing!!!

1.1.30 Pacific Garden Mission's "UNSHACKLED" False Gospel (2020-03-15 17:00)

I was disgusted today while listening to Pacific Garden Mission's (PGM) radio program called, [1]UNSHACKLED (episode #3607 - Jeffrey Austin). At the end of the program, the narrator tells the listener how to be saved, and this is what he shamefully says:

> “So now this day He [Jesus] commands you to repent and put your trust in Him. Turn from your sins, and He will not cast you out; but will accept you, because you have been justified, once and for all, because you’ve turned your life over to Him, and He has made you righteous!” [emphasis added]

So according to PGM’s thinking, if you aren’t willing to turn from your sins, Jesus won’t accept you! According to PGM, you are justified because you’ve turned your life over to Him! Folks, none of that is “[2]THE GOSPEL,” not even close! The narrator doesn’t even mention Jesus’ death on the cross, burial or bodily resurrection three days later. According to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, this is “ the Gospel,

” by which we are saved, to them that believe. Every believer is JUSTIFIED with God because of the precious blood of Jesus, and not because we’ve turned our life over to Him. Romans 5:9, “

Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

Pacific Garden Mission are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. My father was a Skid Row minister in Chicago for over 30 years. I tagged along with my father to PGM a hundred times during my childhood, where he preached and dealt with men in the prayer room after the invitation. That was back when [3]Harry Saulnier (1902-1990) was still directing the mission, for 46 years. Today, I don’t even recognize what the mission has deteriorated into, preaching Lordship Salvation and wrong repentance. You don’t get saved by turning from sins (that’s not what [4]repentance means), nor do you get saved by turning your life over to Christ (that’s the heresy of Lordship Salvation). It appears that PGM just wants to make money to keep its doors open, and doesn’t care about the accuracy of the Gospel.

Despite the ridiculous claims set forth by ’UNSHACKLED’ that lost sinners can immediately repent from their sins and change overnight, reality is very different...

> "Good character is not formed in a week or a month. It is created little by little, day by day. Protracted and patient effort is needed to develop good character." —Heraclitus of Ephesus (535-475 BC)

The Bible agrees with Heraclitus. Romans 12:1-2, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." Growth in grace as a new believer requires time and patience. 1st Peter 2:2,

As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) likes to promote dramatic UNSHACKLED stories of alleged converts, who suddenly turned from a life of debauchery to serving Christ overnight. In reality, salvation doesn't change a person one bit! The only difference is that a saved person now has the indwelling Holy Spirit (Romans 8:9). PGM's 'GO TO' Bible verse is found in 2nd Corinthians 5:17-18, " Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." Deceitfully, PGM leaves off Verse 18,

" And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;" Don't miss that —all of the new things in the Christian's life are OF GOD! It is God's department, not the believer's.

I am sick and tired of the junk theology which has crept into MANY churches today, which teaches that if a person believes on Jesus Christ as one's personal Savior; they are still not saved unless they've turned away from their sins, which foolish preachers errantly think refers to

" That thinking is all wrong, and totally unscriptural. Believing on the Lord Jesus Christ as one's personal Savior IS ENOUGH TO BE SAVED! Nothing else is required of a sinner, not now, and not in the future! God does the rest. God offers eternal life as a free gift to all mankind. Our part in salvation is to come as a guilty sinner and simply 'BELIEVE' on the 'GOOD NEWS' of Christ crucified, buried and risen, and God does all the rest!!!

You don't have to turn away from your sins to be accept by the dear Savior, you simply come as you are—UNGODLY, and God saves you that way! Romans 4:5, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. " There is no stipulation taught anywhere in the Holy King James Bible, where a lost sinner is required to turn away from sinful behavior to be saved. To do so is to pervert the Gospel of free grace!

The episodes that I have listened to on UNSHACKLED are corrupt theologically. The quote that I just shared with you is not the Gospel, it is junk theology!

1.1.31 The Great Meaning Of "Metanoia" (2020-03-15 20:00)

Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent [metanoeo] ye, and believe the gospel [Good news]."

I was searching the internet one day, researching the topic of repentance and found the following precious article by Eli Brayley—a writer, pastor, and evangelist from New Brunswick, Canada. There is not a more important subject in the churches than what it means to "repent." Most churchgoers don't know that the English word for "repentance" means something completely different than the Greek word metanoia.

Whereas the Greek word metanoia means "to change one's mind" (in a broad sense), the English word for repent specifically means to sorrow, grieve and turn away from sins. These are two drastically different meanings, which as you can see, convey two completely different plans of salvation. Thus, you can see the woeful danger of using an English dictionary to define what it means to "repent." Metanoeo (to think differently) is simply the verb form of the noun metanoia (a change of mind). Hence, Mark 1:15 literally reads, “Think differently and BELIEVE the Good News.” The object of changing one’s mind is unto the Gospel itself. The [1]Bible does not teach turning away from sinful behavior to be saved; but rather, turning to God by faith alone in the Gospel to be saved.

Obviously, in order to turn to God, you must of necessity turn from something. However, God does not require us to turn from anything to be saved. To do so is a flawed view of repentance. The idea that a person must forsake sinful activities to be saved is a false Gospel. We are not saved by repenting, we are saved by placing our trust in Jesus Christ! Whatever changes God wants to see happen in our life as His child is a separate matter of discipleship. Salvation is a matter solely of sonship.

Since the word “metanoia” simply means “to change one’s mind,” it requires supplemental information, because we don’t know what to change our mind about. Whereas the English word “repent” definitely means to turn away from sins, the Greek word metanoia doesn’t give us any specifics. The Word of God gives us the needed supplemental information in our text verse from Mark 1:15b, “repent ye, and BELIEVE THE GOSPEL.” Hence, repentance is unto the Gospel itself. The Gospel is what the change of mind is about. The great meaning of the word metanoia is that is applies to anything and everything that hinders a person from believing the Gospel. Whatever it is that has been hindering a sinner from believing the Gospel, the Scriptures command us to think differently toward God (Acts 20:21) and BELIEVE THE GOSPEL. The Gospel is what the change of mind is about.

The following article by Pastor Eli Brayley is very good. There are many preachers, including Pastor Eli Brayley and Pastor Hank Lindstrom, who believe that the word “repent” is an unfortunate translation, since it does not convey the accurate Greek meaning of the word. However, the heretical concept of “turning away from sins” to be saved does not originate in the holy Bible; but rather, in the modern English dictionary and Roman Catholicism. I myself believe that the King James Bible is accurate, inspired, infallible, inerrant and perfect. The word repent is not the problem; but rather, consulting the modern dictionary to find the meaning of the word. This is why God commanded us to “study” the Scriptures (2nd Timothy 2:15). God promised to preserve His very pure words (Psalms 12:6-7), and I believe He did in the English, King James Bible. I find no fault in the King James Bible!

Having said that, I appreciate the following explanation by Pastor Brayley, which I think provides a wonderful insight into what it truly means Biblically to “repent” ...

Dear J—,

Your question about repentance is timely, as Brad, myself and several other brothers here in Logan have been discussing it at length. We recently discovered an outstanding little book on the subject written in the late 19th century, which you must get your hands on. It’s called "[2]The Great Meaning of Metanoia" by an Episcopalian minister named Treadwell Walden. He wrote it about a month after the Revised Version of the Bible was published, which was anticipated to be a corrective translation of the traditional English version (KJV). Unfortunately, the Revised Version left untouched the word "repentance", and Walden wrote to express his disappointment. Scholars who worked on the Revised Version and other New Testament professors wrote to Walden expressing their support of his position, admitting that the word "repentance" is a bad translation of "metanoia", for it doesn’t carry the word’s meaning at all. Walden’s original essay is brilliant and full of apostolic character which is often so lacking in traditional Christianity. The book is out of print, but the University of California Library prints it on demand for somewhere between $15- $20 dollars (here). I think it is worth every penny.

Simply put, metanoia is a word filled with remarkable meaning by the preaching of Christ and the apostles. It is not a word that comes replete with it’s own meaning. The English word "repentance", on the other hand, comes filled with it’s own meaning - it needs no supplementation by context. Repentance means to feel remorse or regret for your sins; it’s Latin root literally means "pain; suffering in view of being liable to punishment". Metanoia has no such meaning associated with it. The word is Greek, and it is made up of two words: meta & nous. Meta means "after" or "change", and nous is the Greek word for "mind". The word means "after-mind" and signifies a change of mind: thinking one way, but then afterwards thinking another. It is the opposite of pronoia (pro-nous) which means before-mind: the mind or thinking you have before. Interestingly, there is another Greek word we frequently use in English that is related to metanoia: it is paranoia (para-nous). Literally, the word means to be beside-mind, or we would say "out of your mind", or "beside yourself". Paranoia is not being in a right mind, but having a mind that is off center - that is, not where it should be (http://www.etymonline.com/index.php?ter m=paranoia). If you compare metanoia and paranoia together, you get the idea of what the New Testament call for metanoia is: it is a command to change your mind and get it where it should be.

Of course, metanoia, when used as a command ("change your mind") needs supplementation by context; it needs to be filled with more information because we need to know what we are supposed to change our mind about. It can be something small (metanoia about how to spell "judgment"), to something enormously large (metanoia about your religious worldview). The sky is the limit with metanoia, and that is precisely the point of the remarkable function of the word in the New Testament. It is not restricted, like "repentance," to a narrow meaning of pain and sorrow for sin, which we then have to force unnaturally to fit with the gospel. It is a change of mind unto the gospel itself. The gospel is what the change of mind is about. The preaching of Jesus and the apostles speaks to the nous and men change or don't change their mind as they hear it. When a man changes his mind at the preaching of the gospel, he has experienced metanoia.

Thus, the proclamation of metanoia at the beginning of the New Testament is the doorway into the entire rest of the doctrine of the New Testament: Change your mind! About what? Listen! A radical mindshift in the religious world is about to happen... no, it is happening now... What we thought about God and the law and righteousness and forgiveness is all about to change. Hear! Metanoia and believe the gospel!

New Testament metanoia is a divine call to a radical mind-shift in the way men think about religion. Therefore "repentance" is an entirely unsatisfactory translation of the amazing word "metanoia" which gives a completely different feeling to the preaching of Jesus and His apostles. Was the major proclamation of Jesus and the apostles "Repent! Feel sorry for your sins"? Or was it "Metanoia! Think a new way"! Do you see what a difference these two words make? Which one is in keeping with the gospel of grace as we know it from the New Testament? Not the first, but the second. The gospel calls us to a new way of thinking about religion.

Whereas men think that they are good, and that obedience to the law is the way of salvation, and that the law only requires partial obedience, and that most people won’t perish, Jesus calls us to believe that there is none good, and that no one will be saved by obedience to the law, because the law requires perfect obedience, and that broad is the road that leads to destruction. The apostles call us to believe that the cross of Christ is the power and the wisdom of God, the only way whereby we are saved, and live, through faith, while the world thinks that the cross is foolishness. Which word best summarizes this kind of preaching: "repent", or "metanoia"? Certainly not the first, but the second.

How did we lose this apostolic feature from our understanding and preaching of the gospel? Our loss of the meaning of metanoia came from early Latin Christianity, which failed to comprehend what was happening in the New Testament. It failed to understand the meaning of the gospel of grace, and envisioned Christianity to be primarily concerned with amending men’s behavior - in which Jesus, the God-man, came to teach men the highest principles of piety and morality. In keeping with this sentiment, the Latin Vulgate made the colossal error of translating "metanoia" as "poenitentiam agite" (do penance).

But how could they do this, since the two concepts are so radically different? It is because the early Latin scholars, who indeed recognized that the Greek word "metanoia" meant to "change the mind", did not understand what the New Testament gospel of grace was all about, and consequently, since the word is hollow and requires filling, they filled the word metanoia with something other than what Christ and the apostles filled it with. They interpreted the mind-change as changing your mind about how you are behaving - to regret your sinful lifestyle and to amend your life, rather than as changing your mind about the way of righteousness - that righteousness does not come through the law but through faith in Christ.

Having interpreted the call to change your mind this way, the Latin scholars thought it would be more helpful to skip the more hollow word "metanoia" with the fuller paraphrase "poenitentiam agite", which they believed best communicated the purpose of the mind change. Thus they paraphrased the word metanoia as they thought best; they did not translate the word. And it stuck. The Latin Vulgate possessed sole and unquestioned authority for over one thousand years, and therefore this erroneous paraphrase, "peoenitentiam agite" (do penance), became deeply rooted in the Church’s vocabulary and teaching.

By the time of the Reformation, the doctrine and practice of penitence ("repentance") was so assuredly believed to be Biblical that even the Reformers could not see clearly enough to root it out of their own systems. Though they rightly saw afresh that the gospel of Jesus Christ was all about righteousness through faith apart from works, they continued to confuse "metanoia" with penitence, and the rest of Protestant history has been an awkward and uncomfortable effort to somehow fit the necessity of repentance alongside the proclamation of sola fide. The proposed solution to the problem was to move repentance from one side of salvation to the other; so that, instead of having to repent in order to be saved (as the Roman Catholics saw it), the Reformers argued that repentance was a fruit and effect of being saved. In this way, salvation produced the amended life, but was not dependent upon it, so preserving the gospel of grace.

However, while it indeed is true that salvation produces the transformed life and not the other way around, the Scriptures remained clear that Jesus and the apostles preached that in order for men to be saved, they must "metanoia" (ex. Luke 13:3, Acts 3:19, etc.) - and the real problem was not in the order of salvation and repentance, but in the word "repentance" itself. The Roman Catholics understood the order correctly, but had the wrong definition of metanoia, while the Reformers understood the order incorrectly, and likewise had the wrong definition of metanoia! This incorrect order and definition has caused the strange unapostolic juggling of sola fide and repentance within Protestantism, a juggling we have has seen for the last 500 years, and which is still just as prevalent today. All that is needed for the juggling to stop is to simply see the true meaning of metanoia.

I believe that one of the greatest perpetuating sources of this error within Protestantism is the Westminster Confession of Faith - the impressive and definitive English statement of Reformed theology - which is defended and taught zealously in the majority of Reformed churches. I truly appreciate much in the Westminster Confession, but I believe it is in grave error when it defines "repentance" as follows:

I. Repentance unto life is an evangelical grace, the doctrine whereof is to be preached by every minister of the gospel, as well as that of faith in Christ.

II. By it a sinner, out of the sight and sense, not only of the danger, but also of the filthiness and odiousness of his sins, as contrary to the holy nature and righteous law of God, and upon the apprehension of his mercy in Christ to such as are penitent, so grieves for, and hates his sins, as to turn from them all unto God, purposing and endeavoring to walk with him in all the ways of his commandments.

III. Although repentance be not to be rested in as any satisfaction for sin, or any cause of the pardon thereof, which is the act of God's free grace in Christ; yet is it of such necessity to all sinners, that none may expect pardon without it.

IV. As there is no sin so small but it deserves damnation; so there is no sin so great that it can bring damnation upon those who truly repent.

V. Men ought not to content themselves with a general repentance, but it is every man's duty to endeavor to repent of his particular sins, particularly.

VI. As every man is bound to make private confession of his sins to God, praying for the pardon thereof, upon which, and the forsaking of them, he shall find mercy: so he that scandalizeth his brother, or the Church of Christ, ought to be willing, by a private or public confession and sorrow for his sin, to declare his repentance to those that are offended; who are thereupon to be reconciled to him, and in love to receive him. (WCF, XV, Repentance Unto Life)

Notice the juggling that takes place in this explanation of "repentance".

Repentance is not to be rested in as the cause of our salvation, but yet you dare not rest unless you have repentance! Repentance is necessary for the sinner, as well as faith in Christ! This is simply unbiblical and unevangelical. It does not carry with it the free and gracious character of the New Testament gospel, but rather attaches to the free offer of the gospel an awkward and burdensome system of penance - that residual vestige of old Latin theology. The Reformers, while seeing correctly that righteousness comes by faith alone in Christ alone, failed to see the beautiful meaning of metanoia. Metanoia is but the change of mind to this gospel, and it is the call for men who are ignorant of the righteousness of God by faith to see this new and living way of righteousness in Christ and the futility of their own attempt to be righteous by the law. But the Reformers, unable to see past the deeply entrenched Latin concept of poenitentiam agite to the original apostolic meaning and preaching of metanoia, were left with nothing else to do but juggle awkwardly in order to be faithful to Scripture and to preserve the gospel they had come to see and love.

It would be helpful to ask any Reformed Christian if they have "repented" according to the definition of the Westminster Confession of Faith. Have they "turned from all their sins unto God, endeavoring to walk with Him in all the ways of His commandments?" Have they "repented of their particular sins, particularly?" And if not, does this mean that they are not saved? Of course, they will admit that no one has, but experience has typically shown that rather than admit the Confession is wrong, the standards get lowered so that people can feel like they have repented. If we don’t lower the standards and are honest about our sins, we will admit that none of us truly feel sorry for all our sins, and none of us have turned from all our sins particularly, nor do we obey all the commandments. If we did, we wouldn’t be sinners! But the gospel is the good news for sinners, that as sinners, we are "justified freely by His grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus" (Rom. 3:24) through nothing but faith alone.

"To the one who does not work, but believes upon Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted unto righteousness." (Rom. 4:5) Reformed churches believe this! Why not then drop the erroneous and awkward doctrine of "Repentance unto Life" for the Scriptural and apostolic doctrine of metanoia unto life?

"Whosoever will, let him take freely of the waters of life." (Rev. 22:17) "'Sirs, what must I do to be saved?' And they said to him, 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you shall be saved." (Acts 16:30-31) "The Lord is... not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to metanoia." (2 Pet. 3:9) God calls sinners to eat freely of the bread of life, the broken body and shed blood of His Son. This is a meal He has set for the ungodly, not for the righteous nor for some phony level of righteousness. He wants sinners to eat of it, and He does not set up signs that say: "Only for those who are penitent". God sees our dire need and says, "Eat, sinner, and live! Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ! Look and your soul shall be filled! Do not think that you must worthy to receive My salvation. Behold and believe My righteous generous grace for you displayed in the cross of Christ. Metanoia!"

I hope this is helpful to you, J—. I love you, dear brother, and pray for you to have wisdom and clarity in this matter. Looking forward to hearing from you again,

Much affection,

Eli

SOURCE: [3]Timothy Ministry - The Great meaning Of Metanoia

Thank you Pastor Brayley! This article is valuable ammunition in the ongoing fight against the heresy of [4]Lordship Salvation which Satan has crept into many churches today. The modern counterfeit Bible revisions (translated from Westcott and Hort) all wrongly interpret "repentance" as "[5]a change of life" or "[6]a change of actions," instead of what metanoia really means, which is, "a change of mind." As Pastor Brayley wisely teaches, the correct meaning of metanoia clears up centuries of needless bickering and fighting within the churches over what it means to "repent." Metanoia, what a beautiful word!

1.1.32 The Misrepresentation Of Evangelist Alexander Marshall (2020-03-16 00:27)

Proverbs 22:28 and 23:10, "Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set. ... Remove not the old landmark; and enter not into the fields of the fatherless."

I have quite a large collection of old and new books, Gospel tracts and materials. I've been giving some of them away to a local Baptist church, simply because I have accumulated too many books and commentaries on the Bible. I have numerous books from the 1800's. I grab a book or an item here and there and look for something to inspire a new article.

Today, I picked up a little Gospel tract titled, "God's Way Of Salvation," authored in the 1920's by [1]Evangelist Alexander Marshall (1846-1928). The original Gospel tract that I have set before me is nearly a century old. It is a little 31-page booklet, which could easily fit into a man's shirt pocket, and it's as thin as a dime. This excellent Gospel tract was originally published by Moody Press in Chicago, back when Moody Bible Institute and Moody Church could be trusted doctrinally. Today, Moody honors, promotes and publishes the books of heretics like Dr. John MacArthur, who denies that Jesus' blood is sprinkled upon the heavenly Mercy Seat. MacArthur is also a devout 5-point Calvinist, who teaches that it is not easy to be saved, which is a satanic lie!

As I read Alexander Marshall's excellent tract, "God's Way Of Salvation," I was so impressed that out of curiosity I went online to search for it. I was particularly impressed Marshall taught the Biblical truth that "repentance" is A CHANGE OF MIND. The tract today is published by [2]Bible Truth Publishers, who sell the tract. To my dismay, someone very deceitfully and deliberately changed Marshall's tract to leave out the truth about repentance. The Bible Truth Publishers' website has converted Brother Marshall's printed Gospel tract into audio format (35 separate tracts). Between tract 24 ("Can A Man Be Saved At Once?") and track 25 ("I Cannot Love God"), they intentionally removed the section titled, "I Have Not Repented Enough." You can listen on their website to tracts 24 and 25, which are word-for-word what I have in front of me from the original tract.

However, I am now going to type out the missing portion from Alexander Marshall's Gospel tract, which someone dishonestly removed. Little things are important, and this little omission speaks volumes against the corrupter. I am going to quote the missing portion of the tract exactly as it is printed—italics, quotation marks and all...

"I HAVE NOT REPENTED ENOUGH"

What do you mean? "I am not sorry enough for my sins."

And if you were very sorry, would God be more willing to save you than He is now? "I think so."

Then you are completely mistaken.

"But does it not say, unless we repent we shall perish?"

Yes; but what do you think is the Scriptural significance of "repentance"? If you say "sorrow for sin" you are wrong. It does not mean sorrow for sin: it means a CHANGE OF MIND (Matt. 21:29). This change will doubtless produce sorrow; but sorrow and repentance are two very different things (Heb. 12:17. margin, and II Cor. 7:9). When God calls on you to "repent, and believe the Gospel," He wishes you to lay aside your wrong thoughts, and believe the glad tidings that He proclaims to you. Formerly you may have imagined that you were required to feel very sorry before being saved. Change your mind. You may have supposed you must first "feel" some great change in order to know you were saved. Change your mind. First believe in God's great love to you, as revealed in His gospel, and you will KNOW that you have eternal life (John 5:24).

Yes, that is excellent. Mr. Marshall is 100 % correct! Yet, some unlearned and/or heretical person changed his tract, completely removing the preceding section on repentance from the work. Marshall plainly says that sinners are saved by BELIEVING THE GOSPEL, that is, he says, "to lay aside your wrong thoughts [Repentance], and believe the glad tidings [Gospel] that He proclaims to you."

Our text Bible verses from Proverbs 22:28 and 23:10 teach us not to remove the ancient landmarks. In ancient times, surveyed land was marked off with large stones or some type of difficult to move land-marker. Sometimes, when the man of the house died, widows and orphans were victimized by dishonest neighbours, who would remove the landmarks from their original position. By doing so, they stole their neighbour's land.

Whoever butchered Alexander Marshall's Gospel tract (no doubt to promote the heresy of [3]Lordship Salvation), dishonestly removed the ancient landmark. They have done a horrible injustice to Mr. Marshall, misrepresenting his original work. The entire section that I just quoted to you word-for-word has been maliciously removed from Evangelist Marshall's tract. Again, the tract is titled, "God's Way Of Salvation." Why would anyone remove this section on repentance as A CHANGE OF MIND from Brother Marshall's Gospel tract? The answer is obvious, that is, because the heresy of Lordship Salvation has crept unawares into most churches today. Lordship Salvation is synonymous with the false teachings of John Calvin (aka, "Calvinism").

The Bible warns us that Satan creeps into the churches UNAWARES (undetected) through ungodly false prophets. Jude 1:4, "For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ." You don't have to reject the name and person of Jesus Christ to deny Him. In Matthew 7:21-23 we find a group of religious people, who performed "many wonderful works" in Jesus' name, yet the Lord said the horrifying words, "I NEVER KNEW YOU!" Listen friend, if you're wrong on repentance, then you're wrong on salvation; and if you're wrong on salvation, then you're not saved.

Clearly, whoever changed Alexander Marshall's Gospel tract has a serious problem with "repentance" simply meaning A CHANGE OF MIND, but this is the Biblical meaning! Again, Evangelist Marshall is correct that "TO REPENT" means "to lay aside your wrong thoughts, and believe the glad tidings that He proclaims to you." Most preachers today disagree with this truth, instead requiring people to turn away from sinful behavior to be saved, and to forsake the world, and to surrender "ALL" to Christ as Lord to be saved. None of these constitute the Gospel. [4]What Is The Gospel? (Pastor Harry Ironside, 1876-1951).

Alexander Marshall was born in 1846 and died in 1928. He authored, God's Way Of Salvation, when he was in his 70's. That aged man of God knew that salvation rests completely in "THE SIMPLICITY THAT IS IN CHRIST." Would to God that religious leaders today would believe the Word of God and stop listening to corrupt radio preachers concerning what it means "to repent."

There is not one verse in the Holy Bible which teaches to “turn from sin to be saved.” Marshall is correct that repentance is not sorrow, and that the “feeling” of sorrow is not required for salvation. The apostle Judas had sorrow for betraying Christ (Matthew 27:3), even returning the 30 pieces of silver, but he still went to Hell in unbelief. I have no doubt that Alexander Marshall is grieved in Heaven, because some dishonest religious person (not a born-again Christian) changed his Gospel tract, removing the ancient landmark concerning the [5]true meaning of Biblical repentance.

1st Samuel 18:5-9, “And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul’s servants.

And it came to pass as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tabrets, with joy, and with instruments of musick.

And the women answered one another as they played, and said, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands.

And Saul was very wroth, and the saying displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can he have more but the kingdom?

And Saul eyed David from that day and forward.

As we just read, Saul had his eye on David because of envy. Saul was the first king of Israel. David was a mighty warrior, which he had learned protecting his sheep as a boy. David once fought off a bear, and at another time a hungry lion, who tried to eat some lambs from his flock. God gave David the victory in battle against the Philistines. When the Jewish women praised David above Saul, the king became enraged with envy. But David was a lowly shepherd at heart, who had his eyes on God.

Psalms 141:8, “ But mine eyes are unto thee, O GOD the Lord: in thee is my trust; leave not my soul destitute.

There is a very important Biblical truth to be learned here. Who are you looking at dear reader? How’s your eyesight? If you’ve got your eyes focused on man, look out! People will hurt you, disappoint you, and let you down. That includes family and spouses. If you’re looking at the Lord, He will never let you down. Hebrews 13:5, “Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

” God has given us His solemn promise as believers that He will NEVER leave nor forsake us.

The Bible gives us several dozen examples of how people got into trouble when they “saw” something. ...

EVE - Eve sinned because she SAW that the forbidden fruit looked pleasing to the eyes. She was looking where she shouldn’t have been looking. Genesis 3:6, “ And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat. ”

LOT - Lot was materialistic, when he BEHELD the well watered plains of Sodom, and ended up moving there. Lot’s life, and that of his entire family, was wrecked and ruin because he LOOKED at the wrong things. When he should have been looking to the Lord, Lot was looking at Sodom. Genesis 13:10, “ And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered every where, before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto Zoar. ” Please read Genesis 13:12, “Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Sodom.” Lot pitched the opening of his tent toward Sodom, because his heart was already there! Just one chapter later, to the verse, Lot lived in Sodom! Genesis 14:12, “ And they took Lot, Abram's brother's son, who dwelt in Sodom, and his goods, and departed." Lot looked with covetousness at the well watered plains of Sodom. Next Lot chose to live there, pitching his tent toward the wicked city of Sodom. And finally, Lot moved into Sodom!

LOT'S WIFE - The Bible says that Lot's wife turned into a literal pillar of salt, because she LOOKED back on Sodom's destruction, after the Angel of the Lord had forbidden them to do so. Genesis 19:26, " But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt. "

I could give you many more examples from the Bible; such as, when that king David "saw" Bath-Sheba bathing naked from his palace rooftop. David was supposed to be fighting on the battlefield, but he chose to stay home in Jerusalem, not where he was supposed to be. When we are not where we are supposed to be, we often see things that we ought not see! Consequently, David did some things that he shouldn't have done, and his sins quickly turned into evil (hurting other people). David's sin of committing adultery with Bath-Sheba compelled him to do evil by murdering her husband, Uriah. Evil always comes from sin!

I have watched about one hundred episodes of the "

" TV series. There are 406 episodes total. I paid attention to what small things (common sins) led to uncommon horrendous crimes. In nearly every case where people did unthinkably evil things to hurt other people (murder, rape, dismembering their bodies, stealing, torture), there was a slow process of wicked thinking. There was a long-time pattern of alcohol and drug abuse, going to strip clubs, disrespect for the law, no fear of God and worldliness! Nobody just goes out and commits adultery, bank robbery or murder! Long before that time there was a weakening of that person's moral character—the result of WRONG THINKING! Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life. "

How do you see things? In Matthew chapter 9 we find Jesus talking with Matthew, a tax-collector. Matthew 9:9-11, " And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners? " Notice that both Jesus and the Pharisees "saw" Matthew, but they saw different things—The Pharisees saw a BAD SINNER, but Jesus saw a SICK MAN who need a PHYSICIAN! Matthew 9:12, " But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick." What do you see when you look at sinful people? Do you see bad people? Or do you see sinners for whom Jesus Christ died, who through the power of the Gospel can be saved, and transformed by the Word of God into servants of the most high God?

We find another example in the Bible in Matthew 14:28-31, "

And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

" When Peter

"saw" the wind blowing he was afraid, and began to sink into the Sea of Galilee. Peter's big mistake was not looking at the boisterous wind, but taking his eyes of Jesus in the first place.

Where are you looking dear reader? Are you looking at man? Are you eyeing someone with envy, resentment or hatred? I maintain a spirit of love toward everyone, because I keep my eyes stayed on God. Isaiah 26:3, " Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee." Saul eyed David, but David looked to the Lord. Saul's life ended up ruined and destroyed, committing suicide; but David's life ended up very successful, blessed in the Lord, despite David's sins, failures and mistakes made along life's journey. The lesson I hope for you to learn dear reader, is to keep your eyes on God.

Psalms 141:8, " But mine eyes are unto thee, O GOD the Lord: in thee is my trust; leave not my soul destitute.

In these perilous times, more and more I am running to the Word of God like a starving man! The power of God resides in the written promises of God in the Scripture! What a precious Savior!!!

1.1.34 Lordship Salvation Refuted (2020-03-16 13:30)

LORDSHIP SALVATION is a false doctrine that says a sinner MUST surrender one's life to Christ and forsake a sinful lifestyle to be saved. In sharp contrast, the Holy Bible, God's inspired Word, teaches that a sinner's faith in Christ alone is sufficient for salvation. We are not saved by trying, but by trusting. Eternal life is a free gift, freely received by faith alone in Christ. I am a strong OPPONENT of Lordship Salvation. In fact, I hate the Satanic lie of Lordship Salvation, but I love everybody. Lordship Salvation is a religious decoy, not the Gospel of free grace, which hinders people from entering into the Kingdom of God. By the way, when I speak of Lordship Salvationists and Calvinists, they are one and the same effectively.

Religious people make eternal life a real task, something for which we must work and toil. The truth is that Eternal Life is NOT a process! It is NOT a matter of "doing," it IS a matter of understanding Who Jesus Christ is, What He has done and Why He has done it for you. Who is Jesus?—The Christ! What Has He done?—Christ died for our sins! Why has He done it for us?—because we would go to Hell as guilty sinners if it weren't for His payment on the cross! Once you grasp these truths, then you will hopefully see the wisdom of deciding to trust Jesus Christ for what He promised—Eternal Life with Him in Heaven.

A popular website which endorses Lordship Salvation states the following heresy...

> If Jesus Christ is not the Lord and Master of your life, He is NOT your Saviour. ALL opponents of this doctrine DENY the Lord Jesus Christ and turn the grace of God into lasciviousness by saying saved people may live just like the world. Many of today's "soulwinner's" believe, and preach, that submitting to Jesus as Lord is optional. They say Jesus will be your Saviour while Satan is your Lord. That is not what the Bible says. Only the devil would want you to believe that. The blood of Jesus is so POWERFUL that it will give you a new mind. Read Romans with clear eyeballs and see for yourself.

SOURCE: [1]Lordship Salvation

I would like to make several comments, examining the above individual statements one by one, in the light of God's Word. The inspired Word of God is our spiritual Weapon, our Sword, by which we can easily defeat the two-headed monster of Lordship Salvation:

ACCUSATION #1: " If Jesus Christ is not the Lord and Master of your life, He is NOT your Saviour."

MY RESPONSE: You can't support that statement with the Scripture! Lordship Salvationists interpret the word Lord to mean i.e., to surrender to Christ's will. However, the Biblical word for Lord is quite different, which is always the Greek word KURIOS, meaning

Master,

Supreme in Authority.

Hence, to believe on Christ is to trust THE LORD. Every lost sinner who comes to Jesus Christ for salvation is coming the LORD, i.e., to God Almighty, for salvation. You don't make Jesus Lord, He is Lord! For Lordship Salvationists to make a distinction, and create an entirely new doctrine, which requires a person to make Christ the Master of his life to be saved—is damnable heresy!

Please consider that the Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract. John 20:31,

“But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

” We find the word

mentioned 85 times in the Gospel of John, but no mention is made of making Jesus one’s to be saved. Thus, we plainly see that salvation comes solely by faith in Christ. What saith the Scripture? Acts 10:43,

“

“To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. ”

Matthew 21:32, “ For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.” Please notice that the Bible doesn’t call them former publicans and harlots. Jesus said the religious crowd was going to Hell, but the tax-cheats and harlots were going to Heaven. That is because you don’t get saved by turning from your sins, you get saved only by BELIEVING the Gospel.

ACCUSATION #2: ALL opponents of this doctrine DENY the Lord Jesus Christ and turn the grace of God into lasciviousness by saying saved people may live just like the world.

MY RESPONSE: That is a horrible lie! Did Abraham deny the Lord, when he simply believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness in Genesis 15:6? Not at all? Romans 4:5 plainly states that we are saved WITHOUT WORKS. Abraham was justified solely by faith concerning his salvation. When James speaks of Abraham’s faith being [2]justified by works, he was speaking about the incident in Genesis 22 when Abraham offered up Isaac. This was 7 chapters LATER, after Abraham was saved in Genesis 15:6. James speaks of the FRUIT of Abraham’s faith in James 2:21; BUT Paul speaks of the ROOT of Abraham’s faith in Romans 4:3-5. Lordship Salvationists confuse the ROOT of Christian faith with the FRUIT (i.e., evidence) of that faith. To accuse all

” of Lordship Salvation of condoning worldliness and sinful living is unfair. Nothing could be further from the truth. We free grace Gospel proponents do not believe that at all. The Bible does not give anyone God’s permission to live in intentional sin (Romans 3:31; 6:15).

The Bible teaches that if a person is genuinely saved that there should be some evidence (i.e., the “ spoken of in James 2:18). However, this has nothing to do with salvation itself. Also, you CANNOT mandate such changes for salvation, otherwise you’ve corrupted the Gospel. Please do not misunderstand—you cannot tell how much fuel is in a car’s gas tank by the sound of the horn; and you cannot determine if a person is saved by viewing their lifestyle. James speaks of works seen in the eyes of men, not God. True, a saved person should bring forth works of righteousness in their life, which are evidence of the indwelling Holy Spirit; HOWEVER, just because such works are not readily visible for others to see doesn’t mean they are not saved. A Christian SHOULD live for Christ; not MUST (that is works); not WILL (that would be Calvinism).

Following Jesus Christ is a matter of DISCIPLESHIP and not SALVATION. Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15; 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-10). Our churches are filled with morally upright people who are still hellbound in their sins and unbelief. Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. Living a consecrated life is not a part of saving-faith. [3]Please read the beautiful words of Dr. John R. Rice exposing the heresy of Lordship Salvation.

The argument is concerning salvation itself. Lordship Salvationists (i.e., Calvinists) are woefully ignorant of the Bible. At some point in the past they got upset seeing professed “ living in willful sin, so they countered the issue by fabricating the heresy of Lordship Salvation; thus, forcing people to forsake their sinful habits in order to be saved. The problem is that God never said that! Lordship Salvation is a counterfeit Gospel. You cannot force a sinner to forsake his sins, by adding a changed life as a requiring for salvation. This is NOT to say that a man can believe on Christ without realizing he is a GUILTY SINNER (Romans 3:19); however, there is a vast difference between realizing one’s guilt as a sinner, versus actually forsaking sinful behavior itself. Please read what Dr. Harry Ironside had to say about BIBLICAL REPENTANCE. Dr. Ironside is 100 % correct in his definition of repentance...

Christians

> “Repentance is the recognition of my sinnership—the owning before God that I am as vile as He has declared me to be in His holy Word.”
> Except Ye Repent, by Dr. Harry Ironside, chapter 3

Carefully notice that Biblical repentance is NOT forsaking the act of sin, which is impossible for anyone, nor is it a desire to forsake sinful bad habits. For anyone to say that a person MUST be willing to forsake sinful behavior to be saved is a lie; eternal life is a gift, which you simply freely take.

So to clarify. I am an opponent (enemy) of the Lordship Salvation heresy. I do NOT think a believer may live like the world without consequences; not at all. However, just because believers struggle with sin doesn’t mean they’re not saved. The apostle Paul struggled with sin (Romans 7:14-25). As believers we are commanded to walk in the Spirit, but carefully notice the Words of Galatians 5:25, “ If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

” It is abundantly clear from this Scripture passage that it is possible to LIVE in Christ’s Spirit (i.e., to be saved), and yet fail to WALK in Christ’s Spirit (i.e., live for the Lord).

Do some genuine believers live like the world? Yes, of course, but Hebrews 12:8 tells us the big difference between a worldly heathen and a worldly believer, **“

But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

” No believer can live in sin and go without God’s chastisement. God is not an absent parent! The Bible plainly warns in Hebrews 12:8 that God will CHASTISE and SCOURGE His disobedient children. The Holy Spirit will convict a backslider, and that is an important word— **“

backslider

” (Proverb 14:14). Lordship Salvationists DON’T allow for a Christian to backslide. As far as they’re concerned, a backslidden believer is no believer at all, and that’s not Biblical. The Word of God gives us numerous references to patriarchal saints who backslid into horrible sin (such as king David who commit adultery and then murder, in an attempt to cover his sins).

ACCUSATION #3: Many of today’s “ soulwinners” believe, and preach, that submitting to Jesus as Lord is optional. They say Jesus will be your Saviour while Satan is your Lord.

That is not what the Bible says. Only the devil would want you to believe that LIE!

MY RESPONSE: Again, this flawed mentality leaves absolutely no allowance for a believer to be immature or backslide. The author of the preceding quote keeps alleging that Satan is the Lord of anyone who doesn’t commit their life to Christ at the time of salvation, which is extreme and ridiculous to say. 1st Peter 2:2 speaks of growing in the milk of the Word. A new believer must be taught and mentored if they are to live for the Lord.

Like it or not, there is an ongoing raging battle in EVERY believer between the sinful flesh and the Spirit of God (Romans 7:14-25; James 4:1). Even the Apostle Paul said in Romans 7:19, “

For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

” Now why would the Apostle Paul DO EVIL if Jesus were his Lord? Hmmm? This Scripture alone proves the ignorance and hypocrisy of the proponents of the Lordship Salvation heresy.

You don’t make Jesus LORD, He is Lord! The very moment that you receive Jesus as your personal Savior, He automatically became your Lord (Master). Calvinists are guilty of front-loading the Gospel, requiring of a new convert what is only possible for a mature Christian. Would you expect a baby to run a marathon? Of course not, yet that is exactly what Lordship Salvation proponents demand of a person to be saved. By front-loading the Gospel, they are preaching “

(2nd Corinthians 11:3-4; Galatians 1:6-9) which cannot produce the new birth. Lordship Salvation is religion, not the new birth!

John 1:12-13, “But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

” Nothing is sad of making Jesus

You cannot show me anywhere in the Bible where it says to receive Jesus as one’s Lord to be saved. What the Bible does teach is that we must receive Jesus as our personal Savior.

1st Timothy 4:10, “ For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.”

We read in 2nd Timothy 4:10 that Demas forsook Paul, having loved this present world. Yet, we learn in Philemon 1:24 that just a few years earlier Demas had been a fellow-labourer with the Apostle Paul in his ministry. What happened? Clearly, Demas was saved but backslidden into the world. We are at war today in the churches over the Gospel. I challenge you dear reader to avoid the dangerous habit of getting your theology from preachers. Instead, you need to get your theology from the inspired Word of God.

To the natural man, Lordship Salvation sounds good, and makes perfect sense. I mean, it is sensible that a person who claims to be saved should live a righteous life. It is logical to conclude that someone living in willful sin has never been saved at all. The big problem is that the Bible contradicts this religious type of mindset. Cain sincerely tried to please God by his own efforts, offering the best crops his fields could produce, which God rejected (Genesis 4:3-5). The most dangerous form of deception is the HALF-TRUTH, because the half that is true can be defended with incontestable logic. Calvinists claim that salvation is the free gift of God, that it cannot be earned or merited; yet they say if your life hasn't changed you are not saved. That is not the Gospel.

Calvinists love to run to 1st John 3:8-9, "

He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

*Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and *he cannot sin, because he is born of God." Taken by itself, a person could easily conclude that someone cannot be saved and continue living a willful lifestyle of homosexuality, stealing or adultery; but the emphasis of John's Epistle is not on good works, it is on the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit. 1st John 3:24, "And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

I was saved at age 13, when a Baptist preacher said from his pulpit, that anyone who doesn't have the Holy Spirit convicting them about sin is not saved. I knew right away that I wasn't saved. For the first time in my life I felt the conviction of God's Holy Spirit in my sinful soul. From my pew, the best I knew how, I cried out to a risen Savior to save me (and He thankfully did, as Jesus promised in John 6:37b, "him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

I didn't even think to receive Jesus as my Lord. The preacher didn't mention anything about it, and I'm so glad that he didn't, because it would have confused me.

The idea of turning away from my sins never came into my mind. But in the weeks to follow, I had a new hunger to read my King James Bible, and I heard the still small voice of God in my soul, telling me not to sin anymore. You see, I didn't ask or make Jesus my Lord, He automatically became my Lord when I received Him as my Savior. I still did bad things sometimes, and if it weren't for my strict Christian father, I am confident that I would have ended up dead or in prison as a typical teenager in Chicago. Living a holy life has far more to do with circumstances than it does with being saved. If you are not where you are supposed to be, and you are not doing what you should be doing, you will sin, and that can quickly lead to evil (hurting other people). We see this with King David. If David had been where he was supposed to be, instead of staying home (2nd Samuel 11:1), he never would have commit adultery and murder! Think about that!

ACCUSATION #4: The blood of Jesus is so POWERFUL that it will give you a new mind. Read Romans with clear eyeballs and see for yourself.

MY RESPONSE: The Apostle Paul states in Romans 7:24-25, "

O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death? I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

" Proponents of Lordship Salvation are woefully blinded to the fact that every believer still has to contend with the carnal flesh. Oftentimes, as seen repeatedly from Genesis to Revelation, God's children falter. Does not Proverb 24:16 declare, **"

For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief

" ? Christians do falter in their faith at times. At best the Christian life is a roller-coaster.

It was John the Baptist, whom Jesus called the greatest born amongst women (Matthew 11:11), who told his disciples to go ask Jesus the question: " Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?

" (Matthew 11:3). John became so discouraged in prison that he questioned if Jesus were truly the Messiah. What do you think the Lordship Salvation hypocrites would have said about John the Baptist? Lordship Salvationists are the hypocritical religious Pharisees of our time. They point fingers at anyone living in willful sin, accusing them of being unsaved. That is not the Gospel.

The apostle Paul rebuked the church at Galatia for beginning in the FAITH, but then trying to perfect their faith with WORKS. Galatians 3:3, "Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

” Calvinists foolishly claim that salvation is by FAITH alone, but then say a person is not saved who isn’t DOING THE WORKS OF THE LAW! Effectively, that is exactly what John Calvin (1509-1564) and his millions of unsaved religious followers teach today.

Galatians 1:8-9, “ But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. ”

I learned much of the following information from Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008). The message of faith alone, and the message of commitment of life, can’t both be The Gospel; therefore, one of them is a false gospel and come under the curse of perverting the Gospel (i.e., preaching another gospel). The 16th U.S. President, Abraham Lincoln, said it well:

> “In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!” —President Abraham Lincoln

Likewise, God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time—either a person must surrender to Christ’s Lordship and commit to turning away from sins to be saved, or they do not to receive the free gift of eternal life, but it cannot be both! Here are some helpful preacher’s quotes differentiating between SALVATION and DISCIPLESHIP...

> "It is an inexcusable error to confront sinners with problems that concern the Christian life and call upon them to make promises regarding them. An unsaved person is never called upon to surrender himself to God. The saving act is in no instance represented as our ’giving ourselves to God’; it is, on the contrary, taking His Son as our Savior." —

Ryrie, Charles; Balancing the Christian Life; Moody Press, Inc., 1969 (p. 170).

"The second approach finds faith in the gospel alone an ’easy Believism’ and seeks to add something to faith in order to accomplish salvation. To repent is to ’change one’s mind,’ and to believe is to remove one’s trust from that in which it has rested and place it in Christ." —Howard, William; Is Faith Enough to Save?; Bibliotheca Sacra, January-March, 1942 (p.99).

"This kind of faith is not ’easy believism’. It is not easy to say, ’I can’t save myself, I must recognize that there is something wrong with me, and I must seek help from someone else.’" —Hook, H. Phillip; A Biblical Definition of Saving Faith; Bibliotheca Sacra, April-June, 1964 (p. 133, 138).

"Eternal life is free. Discipleship is immeasurably hard. The former is attained by faith alone, the latter by a faith that works... the former brings with it the righteousness of God so that a man is ’justified freely by his grace’ (Romans 3:24). The latter develops a personal righteousness, based on good deeds, so that a man was also ’justified by works’ (James 2:24). The former constituted the believer God’s workmanship, the latter fulfilled the wonderful purpose for which he had been created. The former cost man nothing, the latter could cost him everything, including life itself." —Hodges, Zane C; The Hungry Inherit; Moody Press, Inc., 1972 (p. 114, 115).

"There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —DeHaan, M. R.; Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

"For the unregenerate man, repentance is the change of mind whereby he turns from unbelief to faith in the person and work of Jesus Christ." —Post, Roger; The Meanings of the Words Translated 'Repent' and 'Repentance' in the New Testament; Master's Thesis, Wheaton College, June 1972 (p. 80).

"There are those who, in their zeal to get people to turn from their sinful ways and receive the Lord, almost put repentance on a par with believing... Repentance, as it relates to Christ, means to change our minds about Him, who He is and what He's done to provide forgiveness and deliverance from our sins. When we place faith in Jesus as having taken our place personally on the cross and borne the penalty due our sins, then we're automatically repenting, because we couldn't accept Him in this way without having had to change our minds in some way concerning Him." —Lindsey, Hal; The Liberation of Planet Earth; Zondervan Publishing House, 1974 (p. 136, 137).

"Discipleship is frequently equated with salvation and often erroneously made a condition for becoming a Christian." —Pentecost, J. Dwight; Design for Discipleship; Zondervan Publishing House, 1971 (p. 11).

"Certainly discipleship is a most important aspect of our relation to Christ, but it belongs to the sphere of Christian life rather than entrance upon that life... One does not become a disciple in order to become a Christian, but because he has become a Christian by faith in the Savior, it is fitting that he embark upon a life of discipleship." —Harrison, Everett F; Must Christ Be Lord To Be Savior? No; Eternity, September 1959 (p. 14).

"There is no more piously subtle abrogation of the Gospel than to tell a Sinner that he must not only believe in the Savior, but dedicate himself to do God's will, crown the Savior Lord of his life, etc., etc. Obviously, dedication and service are highly desirable, but they are the privilege and the duty of the saved, never a condition of salvation for the unsaved (cf. Romans 12:1, 2)." —Unger, Merrill F.; God Is Waiting To Meet You; Moody Press, 1975 (p. 117, 118).

"People are sometimes led to believe that there is saving value in some public confession of Christ, or profession of a decision. "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." This is salvation. "With the mouth confession is made unto salvation." This is the voice of the newborn child speaking to and of its father. The only condition on which one may be saved is to believe." — Chafer, Lewis Sperry; Salvation; Dunham Publishing Company, 1917 (p. 46).

Lordship salvation is where someone teaches that there must be a commitment to Christ as Lord of one's life in order to be saved. Recently there has been a modification of this position to say that willingness to be controlled by the Lord, at the time of salvation, is all that is required in addition to faith in order to be saved. The message of faith only and the message of faith plus commitment of life can't both be The Gospel; therefore, one of them is a FALSE GOSPEL and comes under the curse of perverting the Gospel or preaching another gospel.

Galatians 1:8-9,

" But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you, than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, if any man preach any other gospel unto you than that you have received, let him be accursed. "

If only committed people are saved people, then where is there room for carnal Christians? What kind of dedication must be preached to people, if in order to be saved, they have already dedicated their lives to the Lord? Where do you stop if you start adding something else to this which is the Gospel revealed in the Bible? Look at what God says about adding to the Revelation of Jesus Christ (Gospel),

“ For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book ” (Revelation 22:18). The Bible plainly declares that we are saved by faith, and not by works. Where does it say this? Ephesians 2:8-9, “

For by grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God. Not of works, lest any man should boast.

” What are you trusting in to get you to Heaven?

Will you trust Jesus as your Savior right now, the one who shed His precious blood on the cross of Calvary to pay for all your sins?

The moment you put your trust in Jesus Christ, God (who can read your mind) knows, saves and gives YOU the Gift of God, which is Eternal Life.

You are saved in a moment of time, because you are trusting in the true Savior now, not working your way to Heaven day-by-day which is not even possible.

You do not need anyone to pray over you, or pray for you, because this is between you and God in Heaven. If you believe you are saved! Because of your new trust in the shed blood of Jesus Christ, you are now a child of God. Before you trusted in Jesus, God was your Creator but now and forevermore He will be your heavenly Father.

Once saved you can never be lost, for any reason. This is because you were born spiritually the moment you put your trust in Jesus Christ. Just like your physical birth which brought you into this human world, your spiritual birth gave you a new spiritual life (the Holy Spirit) that is permanent. You were born-again, made righteous and holy in Gods eyes. In fact you have the righteousness of God Himself, your are sinless and perfect in God’s eyes now and that’s why you can enter into a perfect Heaven.

God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved.

You MUST put ALL your trust in Jesus to be saved. Simply trust in the blood that He shed on the cross, trust that He is God in the flesh, trust that He made the complete payment for your sins, not just part; He paid for ALL of your sins (past, present, and future)! Trust that He rose again from the dead after 3 days and 3 nights, and in return for this trust, He gives YOU Eternal Life. All false Christians put part of their trust in Jesus and part of their trust in the Church, and part of their trust in themselves. If you put 99.99 % trust in Jesus and 00.01 % in something else, you will go to Hell. It must be 100 % trust in Jesus and what He did, and 0 % in you or your church! This information in critical, because grace always cancels works! You are going to Hell if it's by your works, or you are going to Heaven by Gods grace alone. It's as simple as that!

The question comes down to who are you trusting. Are you trusting yourself to get to Heaven, by being a good person and giving lots of money to your church; or are you trusting Jesus, the lamb of God, that was slain for the sins of the world to get you to Heaven? You receive the Gift of God (Eternal Life) as soon as you stop trusting in yourself, your church, your synagogue, your mosque, your money, or any other works and put your trust in Him and Him ALONE—Jesus Christ, Yeshua, The King of Kings, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace, the Alpha and Omega, the Mighty God.

I get tired of hearing soulwinners tell people that we are not saved by " praying a prayer,

but then they try to lead you in a sinner's prayer. Why? Dear reader, there is absolutely no need for you to pray anything to get saved. You can simply BELIEVE on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved. Acts 16:30-31,

"And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." The phrase

"thy house" is simply an extension of the invitation to be saved to the whole family. WHOSO-EVER WILL may believe and be saved! Throughout the Gospel of John, 85 times we are taught simply to "BELIEVE," without any mention of praying a sinner's prayer to receive Eternal Life.

Once you have trusted Jesus as your personal Savior, receiving His free gift of eternal life, this gift can NEVER be lost! You can NEVER go to Hell for ANY reason. Your past, present and future sins were paid in full the moment you put your trust in Him. You are blameless and Holy in God's eyes now and FOREVER. If you have eternal life today, what kind of life will you have in five years? You will still have ETERNAL LIFE! What kind of life will you have in ten years?

You will still have ETERNAL LIFE!

What kind of life will you have in 50 years?

You will still have ETERNAL LIFE!

God does not give probationary life or temporary life, His gift is ETERNAL LIFE! Thanks be to GOD!

Why be good, now that I am assured of going to Heaven by faith alone? Simply because God's law of sowing and reaping still applies to you and me. You will reap what you sow. You will likely reap more than you sow, and you will reap later than you sow. If you drink alcohol like a fish, you will reap a diseased liver. If you smoke like a chimney everyday, you will reap lung cancer. If you rob, murder, and steal you will reap a life in prison. You will reap what you sow. The Bible guarantees it!

Now that you are saved, when you do good things you WILL be rewarded here on earth and in Heaven. And when you do bad things, you WILL lose rewards that God had hoped to give you in Heaven, but you will NEVER lose your guarantee of going to Heaven. That can never be lost for any reason! You have God's Word that your salvation can never be lost for any reason. You did not earn salvation, and you do not work to keep salvation! Eternal life, salvation, being born again, becoming a child of God, was, is, and always will be the GIFT OF GOD. Remember—If your not saved forever, you are not saved!

Why is this true you might ask? Because if a person is not sure that they are saved RIGHT NOW (TODAY), it means that they are still trying to be the savior! They can't be sure they are going to Heaven because they don't know what sins they may commit next week, next month or next year. We who have trusted in Jesus alone, can have comfort, knowing that all of our sins have been paid in full through the Cross of Calvary (past, present, and future sins). Jesus has already died for my sins, so I don't need to pay for any sins I have already committed, am committing now, or will commit in the future—because Jesus already paid the price in full with His blood. So-called " who say that you can lose your salvation, because of suicide or murder or falling away from the church, don't have a clue what the Holy Bible says and clearly have not trusted Jesus ALONE!

Biblical Salvation is forsaking any other means of salvation, but Christ, and casting ourselves fully upon Him for eternal life.

The Gift of God, Eternal Life can never be lost once possessed for any reason. John 6:39, "

And this is the Father's will which hath sent Me, that of all which He hath given Me I should LOSE NOTHING, but should raise it up again at the last day.

" You have God's promise that once you put your trust in Jesus you can never be lost for ANY reason whatsoever.

Romans 11:29, " For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance." Again, the Bible is telling you that the Gift of God (that you have just received) is without repentance. That is, God can never take His gift back for any reason, no matter how bad of a person you may become, or how low in sin you may go. God would have to cease to exist for that to happen, because He cannot lie. Titus 1:2,

"In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;"

1.1.36 The Heresy Of Having To "Pray" To Be Saved (2020-03-17 03:00)

2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him."

THE SIMPLICITY THAT IS IN CHRIST, OR THE DANGER OF ADDING "PRAYING" TO THE GOSPEL

In hindsight, the main reason why I struggled with the assurance of my salvation as a teenager was because I had never heard a clear, simple, presentation of the Gospel. Ironically, I was faithfully attending an Independent Fundamental Baptist Church, and also enrolled into the church's Christian school (and I dearly loved them all then, and still do today). Albeit, from the very beginning, my only conception of the plan of salvation was in the format of: 1-2-3, pray (or 1-2-3, follow me)...

(1) All men are sinners (Romans 3:23).

(2) There is a penalty for sin (Romans 6:23).

(3) Jesus Christ DIED on the cross for our sins, was BURIED and RESURRECTED (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

(4) Simply PRAY and ask Jesus to save you.

It was that FOURTH, added and unnecessary step, to God's simple plan of salvation that caused me 7-years of intense emotional pain, worry, tears, concern and frustration. In my mind, I kept wondering if I had "PRAYED" correctly. I must have PRAYED the sinner's PRAYER fifty times during the next 7-years, each time attempting to ensure that I was really saved. I PRAYED out of fear and worry. I had been repeatedly taught that the way to be saved is to "PRAY" in response to believing the three aforementioned Biblical facts. I was taught that you have to "ASK" God to save you. Nothing could be further from the truth. You do not have to "ASK" God to save you, because He has already promised in 1st Corinthians 1:21, "TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE."

Respectfully, I even went to my beloved pastor at age 17 and told him that I was struggling with the assurance of my salvation. So he concluded that if I wasn't sure, it must mean that I wasn't saved, so he led me in a sinner's "PRAYER"! Oh boy, that was the whole problem, that is, praying to be saved!!! Consequently, I still worried that I might miss out on Heaven and go to Hell. I'm not criticizing my pastor individually, for this is the popular method of soul-winning in thousands of churches all across America. I am not saying that all those people didn't get saved who said a sinner's prayer, but I am saying that like me, many of them have been misled and confused concerning exactly what the Gospel is and what God expects of them to be saved. This is what happens when well-meaning men ADD to the Gospel.

Remember, when you BELIEVE the Gospel, you are saved right there! You don't have to "pray" a prayer to be saved. To "pray" is not required by God. It is a false doctrine to teach that praying is mandatory to be saved. All God expects is that we acknowledge our sinnership and then BELIEVE THE GOSPEL to be saved. Neither does a person have to "ask" Jesus to save them. Nor does a person have to "say 'Jesus is Lord"' or "turn from their sins" to be saved. Beware of extra requirements which well-meaning preachers often ADD to the Gospel. For example: Beware of those who say you must "invite Jesus into your life" to be saved, or "tell Jesus you want Him to come into your heart and transform your life." You'll hear these heresies on Pacific Garden Mission's popular [1]UNSHACKLED radio program. These things may sound good, but they do not constitute the Gospel. These are a false Gospel. Also, it is heresy to tell someone to "turn away from sin" to be saved, which phrase isn't even found in the Bible.

Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) taught a Free Grace view of the Gospel, which is THE TRUTH! Amen! Consider further the following excellent quote by Dr. Ironside...

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past ...
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all."
> SOURCE: Dr. Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: [2]What Is The Gospel?

As the years passed since I first believed the Gospel at age 13, I began to wonder if I had left something out when I "PRAYED" to be saved. I was so worried. It was my unbiblical focus on PRAYING to be saved that confused and misled me concerning the Gospel. I was saved, I just didn't understand it enough to nail it down. The additional requirement of "praying" confused me. This is why I no longer lead people to pray a prayer to be saved. I just give them the Gospel and then ask if they BELIEVE. The Word of God tells us repeatedly to "BELIEVE." Read John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever "believeth in him" should not perish, but have everlasting life." If someone had simply explained to me at age 13 that you don't have to PRAY to be saved, because the Lord just said TO "BELIEVE" THE GOSPEL, then I would have correctly seen the truth of "the simplicity that is in Christ."

87-times we find the word "believe" in the Gospel of John, but the word "repent" is never mentioned. This teaches us that the man who believes has also repented. It also teaches us that repentance is TO believe, and not a separate act of forsaking sinful behavior as perquisite to placing one's faith in the Gospel. Repentance is a simple change of mind, where a man realizes his guilt as a sinner after viewing God's holy law (Romans 3:19), so that he'll BELIEVE the Gospel. Salvation is the simplest thing in the world. Simply BELIEVE the Gospel and you are saved!!!

Do you see the potential problem of leading people to "PRAY" a sinner's PRAYER? Not one verse in the Bible teaches us to "PRAY" to be saved. The word "call" in Romans 10:13 means "to invoke," not to "pray." I even heard a popular religious singer summarize her alleged "Christian" testimony on a radio interview by saying, "I prayed the Jesus prayer when I was a little girl!" Folks, that is not the Gospel. "Praying" is not the way to be saved. Jesus plainly said in Matthew 6:7 that even unsaved heathens "pray." I had been indoctrinated to follow a 1-2-3 type of method where you prayer a little prayer to complete the process to be saved. For years that is how I preached the Gospel to others, that is, you have to believe these three things "AND THEN PRAY."

It's Ok to pray to God if you'd like to when you believe, but it is not necessary, and it is a false doctrine if someone's requires it to be saved. Please notice in Acts 2:41 that the Apostle Peter did not lead the 3,000 souls to "pray" to be saved. Instead, the Bible says that Peter simply preached the Gospel, and those that heard the Gospel gladly received (believed) it!!! Acts 2:41, "Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls." So you see, they were saved simply by BELIEVING the Gospel!!!

Although it is certainly permissible for a sinner's prayer to accompany one's belief in the Lord, it has caused much confusion since it has first been used, and it is not necessary to be saved. Please do not misunderstand what I am saying. Millions of people have been led to the Lord by use of a sinner's prayer, which demonstrates their faith in Jesus Christ. But the truth is that they were already saved before they ever opened their mouth to pray. Romans 10:10, "For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." Salvation is of the heart!!!

We believe in our heart to be saved!!! The bottom line is that asking a person to pray a sinner's prayer to be saved, has in many cases harmed the new convert, by obscuring "the simplicity that is in Christ" (2nd Corinthians 11:3b). I am saved because I believed the Gospel when I was 13-years-old. You can take that to God's heavenly bank. You can write the date, time, place and your name in the back of your Bible, and reflect back in the future, for the rest of your life, at your spiritual birth that day into God's family as His child. Amen!

Likewise, many preachers ask people to leave their pew, walk down an isle, and come to the alter to be saved. In reality, those preachers have ADDED an unnecessary step to God's plan of salvation. Why cannot a person hear the Gospel in their pew, gladly receive it, and be saved? They absolutely can (Acts 2:41)!!! Only God knows how many millions of people have perished in their sins and gone to Hell, all because they weren't willing to walk an isle in a church!!! Perhaps they were embarrassed to become a spectacle. Or maybe they didn't feel well that day. A preacher should ALWAYS give people a chance to get saved right there in the privacy of their pew. My friend, the simplicity that is in Christ is to BELIEVE THE GOSPEL. When 3,000 souls were saved on the Day of Pentecost, they simply heard Peter preach the Gospel and gladly received (believed) it. Acts 2:41, "Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls."

Don't believe anyone who says it is hard to be saved. The Bible calls it "simple." All you have to do to be saved is completely rest in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ, simply by BELIEVING THE GOSPEL. The Holy Bible defines the "Gospel" as:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

There you have it, Jesus DIED on the cross for our sins, He was BURIED, and He bodily RESURRECTED three days later. Carefully notice that the Bible does not mention the word "repent" here. In fact, the Apostle Paul doesn't mention any form of the word "REPENT" in his first Epistle to the church at Corinth. There is no mention of "praying" here to be saved. Clearly, the man who believes has also repented. Clearly, prayer is not required to be saved. Thus, it is clear that we repent TO believe, we don't repent AND believe. If repentance from sins were a separate act required for salvation, then certainly the Bible would have included it in this passage which defines THE GOSPEL. It should be plain for you to see from this Scripture passage alone just how much satanic heresy has crept into the churches today!!!

1st Chronicles 16:11, "Seek the LORD and his strength, seek his face continually."

"Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do!"

1.1.37 The Theories Of Evolution Are Completely Laughable (2020-03-17 05:00)

"Science without religion is lame, religion without science is blind." —Albert Einstein (1879-1955)

There is nothing more absurd and laughable than the bogus theories of evolution. Have you ever really considered some of their insane claims? For example: the brilliant minds at [1]NASA have changed their official position on how the earth and moon formed. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) is the United States government agency responsible for the civilian space program as well as aeronautics and aerospace research. NASA's latest attempt to outsmart God, is their claim that rogue asteroids struck and smashed each other into smithereens billions of years ago. As those particles of dust and debris swirled in their orbital paths around their star, over a period of 100 million years they became dusty formations that eventually developed into rocky planets, and in the case of earth, life also evolved and formed.

Now, kindly, I have tremendous admiration for the technicians, astronomers, computer geeks, builders, maintenance specialists, mathematicians and certainly hundreds of advanced fields of science and engineering that I couldn't even begin to fathom or pronounce. I love science and have always been fascinated with spacecrafts, physics, astronomy, et cetera. Having said those complimentary words toward NASA, I am perplexed at their utter ignorance of how the earth and the moon formed. Biblically, our Creator in Heaven made the earth, the moon and all the stars. Psalm 8:3, "When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained."

God created all things in the universe. Since most people reject Jesus Christ as their Savior, and others completely reject God, even denying His very existence; men have to sinfully substitute something else for the truth of God's Word. Since they reject the Holy Bible as God's inspired Words, they refuse to believe that God spoke the sun, moon, earth and stars into existence by the Words of His very mouth. 2nd Peter 3:5, "For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water."

Jesus spoke the universe into existence. That makes much more sense to me, than to hear NASA saying that some rocks (asteroids) in space collided at speeds in excess of 50,000 miles per hour and were blown into smithereens. And then somehow, under astronomically improbable odds and even greater absolutely impossible occurrences, that dust and debris spinning through space around a star develops gravity and forms over 100 million years into a fairly rounded planet. We haven't even considered yet the formation of life, which is just not plausible according to every theory which has been suggested by man.

Honestly, NASA's suggested theories of how the earth and moon formed are as lame as they are laughable. This is what happens when you reject the sensible answers provided from the inspired Word of God, substituting them with the lies, deceptions and false answers fabricated by heathens. This matter is no small one. All of television's History Channel, [2]H2, Discovery Channel, and numerous presentation documentaries on The Cosmos, [3]How The Earth Was Made, The Universe and others, are all based upon the ungodly theories of evolution (or better called: DEVILution) and the false premise that the earth originated with a 'Big Bang' 13 billion years ago. It takes far more faith to believe the claims of evolutionists, than it does to trust the record of creation as recorded in the inspired King James Bible.

Think about what NASA is claiming—as asteroids crashed into each other and the chaotic mess (from the 'Big Bang') expanded throughout the universe, pockets of swirling dust and debris formed into rocky planets. All of the earth's oceans of water, they say, came from icy asteroids hitting the earth over billions of years. The world's most smartest astronomers, physicists, geneticists and geoscientists would have us to believe that somehow a chaotic 'Big Bang' explosion started the universe, and then from a totally CHAOTIC mess, formed over 13 billion years into a universe of logical intelligent design, exact symmetry, admirable atomic structure, mind blowing DNA, inexplicable stable order and amazing wisdom. Our own Milky Way galaxy is astounding! Our own solar system is incredible! The only sensible answer is God.

What keeps our 8 planets (it used to be 9, but astronomers have determined that Pluto no longer qualifies as a planet) from crashing into each other, or being pulled into the sun? What keeps the planets from continuing in a straight motion (centrifugal force) and pulling away from our solar system, just wandering out into space? A big explosion has NEVER resulted in logical order, symmetry, wisdom and intelligent design (which is exactly what our entire universe has!). Truly, God's greatness is beyond our understanding! What an awesome God! It humbles my soul to think that God would even take notice of human beings, but He sure does, because God made us. Did you ever stop to think that the very God Who created the stars and has given a name to every one of them, desires to fellowship with you. Psalms 147:4,

He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names.

If you are a born-again Christian, you have every blood-bought right through Jesus Christ to confidently approach the throne of grace in Heaven (Hebrews 4:14-16). Jesus is every believer's High Priest! God will listen to what you have to say. God will enjoy hearing from you. God doesn't like gossip and criticism against others. Humbly tell the Lord your frustrations and pray for others (Philippians 4:6). Never go to God in prayer with a critical spirit. Humble yourself and ask God to help you overcome the temptation to gripe, complain or put others down. Don't accuse others like Satan continually does. Revelation 12:10, "...for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night." God loves our praise and worship! God loves when we love others, even our enemies (Matthew 5:44). It's not always easy. Pray for God to help you love those who have deeply hurt you. God will help you. Walk with God!!!

Legitimate Science Disproves the Lies of Evolution

There's an old police detective saying: If a man is lying and you keep asking him questions, he'll eventually change his story; but if a man is telling the truth, he cannot change his story no matter how many questions you ask him. Mark Twain (1835-1910) wisely said: "If you tell the truth you don't have to remember anything!" You see, if you tell a lie, you have to remember what lie you told and to whom. This truism can also be expressed as: "It takes more effort to lie than it does to tell the truth." Likewise, Satan is a liar, which is why he keeps changing the theory of evolution, but the Word of God NEVER changes! The King James Bible tells the truth, which is why it hasn't changed since 1611 when it was faithfully translated from the original Hebrew, Chaldean and Greek manuscripts of the Textus Receptus (or "received text," also called, the "majority text"). In sharp contrast, the modern Bible revisions keep changing! Thank God for the unchanging Word of God in the preserved, inerrant and inspired King James Bible!!!

I'm not trying to be unkind, but NASA scientists have flip-flopped their theory of how the earth was formed at least twice in the last decade. As the thinking world continues to challenge the bogus lies of evolution and oppositions to legitimate science, they have to keep changing their story to hide the deception. Mark Twain was right! I believe most evolutionists are sincere in their quest to find answers, but the Bible teaches that they will never find them. 2nd Timothy 3:7, "Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth." A man will never become wise until he first becomes as a fool in his own eyes, and begins to fear the Lord and "SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES" for answers as Jesus commanded in John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me."

Proverbs 1:7, " The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction."

The fact that 95 % of the earth's core is composed of molten liquid rock (lava) proves National Geographic magazine and all the so-called scientists who believe the moon/crash theory,

WRONG! If an asteroid impacted the earth, nothing would break off because of the liquid molten core. How did the earth end up at just the precise distance from the sun to sustain life on earth? How does the earth maintain a heated mantle (7,000 to 12,000 degrees Fahrenheit) by [4]gravitational accretion (20 %) and the [5]decay of radioactive isotopes (80 %)? Do you really believe it just happened? God created the earth this way. Hell is inside the earth. Isaiah 14:15, "Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit."

When the nonsense of evolution started in the mid 1800's, it was introduced as theoretic system. Very deceitfully, evolution over time began to be taught unethically as if it were a fact. Why would some diabolical and evil group of monsters deliberate deceive children? The answer is because children eventually grow up and become parents. Satan goes after the youth at a very early age, knowing that if he can get you while you're young, he owns you buddy! Did you know statistically that [6]85 % of Christians get saved between the ages of 4 and 14? Children are extremely impressionable! If you are aware of this truth, then you can be on guard against the Devil, who desires to hinder children from getting saved. That is the sinister agenda behind the LIES of evolution, to hinder children from glorifying God.

Why would a group of intellectual people get together and fabricate a bunch of unscientific lies based on false science, and then teach such nonsense is if it were the absolute truth to children in public schools? The obvious reason is to indoctrinate children with a substitute that replaces God's Word in their daily lives. The Devil (Lucifer) and his worshipers (Freemasons) are behind the subversion of the school system. If you study the occult, false religion, political corruption and everything that is subversive in America, you'll often find connections to Freemasonry.

Isn't it so much better to just believe the Holy Bible, that says God created all things? . . .

Psalms 136:5, "To him that by wisdom made the heavens: for his mercy endureth for ever."

Isaiah 44:2, “Thus saith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, Jesurun, whom I have chosen.”

Jeremiah 10:12, “He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.”

Acts 17:24, “God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands.”

Evolution is a fabricated system of elaborate lies invented by wicked, Christ-rejecting, unbelieving, liberals. The purpose of evolution is to intentionally provide an atheist substitute in young people’s curriculum instead of faith in God their Creator. Why would anyone want to do such an evil thing? It is so that the traditional family can be destroyed. If the Globalists (aka, Illuminati, or Luciferians) can destroy the family unit and faith in God, then the only alternative is that big government becomes God. It’s all about the government taking control over our lives!

exposes evolution

Rafael Cruz, the father of Ted Cruz and the Texas Senator’s number one surrogate, is a favorite among Tea Party and Religious Right activists with his birther, Christian Nationalist and End Times-focused speeches.

Back in June, he spoke to a Texas men's prayer breakfast where he denounced the theory of evolution as a lie that, along with gay rights, will bring about communism. "There is nothing scientific about evolution," Cruz said. "Evolution is one of the strongest tools of Marxism because if they can convince you that you came from a monkey, it's much easier to convince you that God does not exist."

You know communism or socialism, whatever you want to call it, what is happening in this country is not different than what happened in Cuba; the procedure might be different, they may be a little slower, but it's the same thing. It is about government control of your lives. You got to realize how Marxist, how socialism works. We need to understand the issues. When you hear all these things about homosexual marriage, this has nothing to do with homosexual rights. Did you know that? The whole objective is the destruction of the traditional family, it has nothing to do with homosexuals, they could care less about homosexuals, they want to destroy the family.

You need to understand, it's just like evolution. You know most Americans have their head in the sand about evolution. I've met so many Christians that tell me 'evolution is a scientific fact.' Baloney! I am a scientist, there is nothing scientific about evolution. But you know something, Karl Marx said it, 'I can use the teachings of Darwin to promote communism.' Why? Because communism, or call it socialism if you think communism is too hard a word, necessitates for government to be your god and for government to be your god they need to destroy the concept of God. That's why communism and evolution go hand and hand. Evolution is one of the strongest tools of Marxism because if they can convince you that you came from a monkey, it's much easier to convince you that God does not exist.

SOURCE: [7]Rafael Cruz: Evolution Is A Communist Lie

The ungodly philosophies of Evolution are blasphemy against God almighty. The universe certainly may be 13 billion years old as science evidences, but it did not begin with a 'Big Bang' without God. We do know from Genesis chapter one ("and God said"), and 2nd Peter 3:5, "For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water," that the universe was spoken into existence from literally nothing by the omnipotent Word of God. And then, lovingly, "God formed man of the dust of the ground" with His own dear hands (Genesis 2:7). What an awesome God!!!

Have you believed the lies of the Devil concerning Evolution? Television documentaries are saturated with the blatant intellectual fraud of evolution. You can't trust anything on The Discovery Channel, nor any other popular agenda-promoting TV programs. Evolution is junk science! There is no evidence to validate, support, test nor prove the absurd claims of evolutionists. In fact, unbelievers in the technical field have stooped so low in a desperate attempt to replace God, that they claim the [8]earth and moon were formed by a cataclysmic collision between two rogue asteroids billions of years ago, and somehow all that 'cosmic chaos' and 'accidental aftermath' came together to produce the incredibly beautiful, plentiful and intelligently designed world that we live in and enjoy today.

Hey, the next time you visit a local supermarket, consider all the different shapes, sizes, colors and tastes of the fruits and vegetables. Then consider all the different meats that we love so much to eat. Only a complete ingrate and fool would deny that an omnipotent God created all this. I mean, even if we didn't have the inspired Word of God in the Scripture to tell us that it was God Who made all this, a wise and honest person couldn't settle for some myth that a random chaotic accident billions of years ago made all this. How frustrating would that be? I thank God that He gave us an explanation of the origin of the universe. The inspired Word of God plainly tells us that Jesus Christ made all things. John 1:1-3, "

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God.

All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made*.

1.1.38 Beware Of UNSHACKLED's Junk Theology! (2020-03-17 11:00)

I was listening to 'UNSHACKLED' today. I've heard a couple dozen episodes over the past couple days. I wanted to vomit as I heard PGM spewing their lies of LORDSHIP SALVATION,

Case in point is ’UNSHACKLED’ p rogram #3590 (aired in 2019). A man named Matthew gets a flat tire and stops in a little church, meeting a church member named Ted, who listens to Matthew’s troubled life’s story and offers this horrible advice:

> “
> I believe God loves you, and wants you to invite Him into your life. I believe that is the change you may be looking for!

This type of junk theology saturates the UNSHACKLED series! Folks, you don’t get saved by “ inviting Jesus into your life

”! Judas invited Jesus into his life, becoming one of Christ’s very apostles, but Judas had a devil in him (John 6:70), and went to Hell.

In little later in the UNSHACKLED program (after being coached by his religious sister to “RE-PENT and RECEIVE THE INVITATION”), Matthew prays and tells Jesus that he wants Him to be his Savior, but there is no mention of Christ’s death, burial or resurrection (The Gospel). Matthew says:

> “I got up from my knees and I was free. I was new. That day God delivered me from my addictions! Within minutes of my spiritual salvation, he took away my impulse to use [drugs].”

Folks, that is junk theology! Here is the truth...

> "Good character is not formed in a week or a month. It is created little by little, day by day. Protracted and patient effort is needed to develop good character." —Heraclitus of Ephesus (535-475 BC)

What saith the Scripture? ...

> Romans 12:1-2, " I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

I am unalterably opposed to Pacific Garden Mission's junk theology, which says that a sinner must "REPENT and BELIEVE" (two steps) to be saved. The problem is that PGM wrongly understands repentance to mean full surrender to Christ, and to turn away from one's sins. This is the heresy of Lordship Salvation. I am against the heretical idea that if a person comes to Christ, they will instantaneously be changed. The only difference when you get saved is the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit of God (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24).

As I just showed you from Romans 12:1-2, the Bible says we are TRANSFORMED (changed), by the RENEWING OF OUR MIND. This is very different than the false message being propagated by UNSHACKLED that your life will immediately change at the time of salvation. It is junk theology, meaning it is not Biblical; it is JUNK!!!

Growing in grace takes time. Granted, you cannot sit under the Word of God and not be changed! R omans 10:17, "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." However, it takes time for a new believer to change, as they are renewed in their mind

by the Word of God (Romans 12:1-2). That is why I am very much against the junk theology being promoted by Pacific Garden Mission's 'UNSHACKLED' radio program, which relentlessly promotes the idea that the moment a person comes to Jesus Christ, they will instantly become a 'new creature' in behavior, and all desire to commit sin will be gone forever!

PGM errantly understands this to be repentance.

When they tell people to "REPENT and BELIEVE" in all their

UNSHACKLED episodes, what they really mean is to turn away from your sins

AND then also place your faith in Christ . It is a TWO STEP false plan of salvation! What they are really saying is that a person must commit to KEEPING THE LAW before Christ will accept their faith in Him for salvation. This is "ANOTHER GOSPEL," which is accursed by God (Galatians 1:6-7).

[1]Case in point!

The Corrupt 'UNSHACKLED' Religious Experience of Debbie Brooks

Many of UNSHACKLED's heart-touching stories are a nice fairytale, but they are not Scriptural! Here is PGM's 'GO TO' Bible passage—

2nd Corinthians 5:17-18, " Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;" There is a fine line between faith and foolishness! God knows that I am not trying to be negative, nor criticize Pacific Garden Mission without a cause; but rather, they are pressuring sinners to make a commitment to turn away from sin to be saved, which is not true.

For example: In UNSHACKLED [2]program #3589 (aired in 2020), a woman named Debbie Brooks meets with a religious friend named Sharon:

> SHARON: Trusting Jesus is the only thing that can make a difference in my messed-up life.

> DEBBIE: I keep hearing that in church, but I don't get it—how something that EASY can be a life-changer.

> SHARON: Oh Debbie, it's not easy—believing in Jesus means repenting and asking forgiveness for all the old ways, and then GIVING THEM UP FOR GOOD. When you find the COURAGE TO DO THAT, He'll help you CHANGE YOUR LIFE.

> DEBBIE: Huh, well, I'll have to think about it.

Dear reader, what you just read taught by Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago is of the Devil, straight out of the pits of Hell. I hope you see how evil this is. According to this UNSHACKLED program, it is NOT EASY to be saved; because you are required to GIVE UP YOUR OLD SINFUL WAYS PERMANENTLY! That is "

accursed by God!

Galatians 1:6-9, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

Pacific Garden Mission are PREACHING ANOTHER GOSPEL!!!

The Gospel is not open to embellishment. There is a certain degree of allowable semantics in presenting God’s plan of salvation, but the Gospel itself is set in concrete! Here it is:

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

There you have it—Jesus DIED, was BURIED, and miraculously RESURRECTED three days later.

There is no mention of turning away from sins, forsaking the old ways for good, speaking in tongues

, getting water baptized, joining a church, praying, confessing Jesus publicly, nor of anything else to be saved!

The apostle Paul said this is, ’THE GOSPEL,’ which Jesus personally gave to Him.

> Galatians 1:11-12, “But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.
>
> For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ. ”

The Corrupt ’UNSHACKLED’ Religious Experience of Angel Feliciano

I listened to [3]p

[4]rogram #3588 (aired in 2019) about a Hispanic man named Angel Feliciano.

Unfortunately, PGM uses a lot of junk theology, and I am simply trying to help believers solidify their faith, by exposing the unbiblical teachings of UNSHACKLED radio.

For example: Toward the end of this episode, the UNSHACKLED narrator says:

> “Jesus will gladly receive you, and he wants you to receive Him. He wants a relationship with you. Angels’ life changed forever when he asked Jesus Christ into his heart. The same can happen for you if you so desire. Just talk to the Lord. Tell Him you’re sorry for the sins in your life. Receive Him as your Savior and trust in Him. It’s that simple!” [emphasis added]

There are a few problems with the preceding corrupt plan of salvation:

> First, having “

A RELATIONSHIP

” is not part of the Gospel. Judas had a relationship with Jesus, but still went to hell in his unbelief.

Second, you don’t have to “

Jesus

to save you, because He has already paid for all your sins on the cross with His precious blood; Jesus is OFFERING you eternal life.

Third, you don’t have to “ TALK TO THE LORD

to be saved. All the Bible teaches is that you “BELIEVE” on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved (Acts 16:30-31).

Fourth, don’t get saved by

ASKING JESUS INTO YOUR HEART.

A heart is a muscle twice the size of your fist, that pumps blood 100,000 times per day!

Fifth, you don’t have to receive Jesus as your Savior AND trust Him. To receive Christ is to trust Him, and to trust Jesus is to receive Him!

Sixth, you don’t have to "[5]BE SORRY" for your sins to be saved.

You don’t have to "BE SORRY" for your sins to be saved.

We are ALL guilty at some point in our Christian life of embellishing the Gospel with junk theology. I used to tell people to ’invite Jesus into their heart’ many years ago, but when I learned that it was unbiblical, I immediately stopped doing it! I question everything now!!!

Much unnecessary worry, fear and uncertainty are caused by the lie of Lordship Salvation. No one ought to wonder if their life has changed enough to prove they’re saved. Dear friend, if you need to look at your life to prove you’re saved, IT PROVES THAT YOU’RE NOT!!! Eternal life is a completely free gift, which imposes no obligations or demands on the recipient. You simply come as a guilty sinner and receive God’s free gift of eternal life, by believing the record given in the Holy Bible of Jesus Christ, Who died in your place on the cross. Simply receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. I love this powerful quote by Dr. Yankee Arnold:

Yankee

1.1.39 Jesus Is Almighty God! (2020-03-17 16:00)

If you recognize Jesus as God Almighty, then you have SEEN the true Son. I don't want you to believe on a fake Jesus, for there are many. This is why I tell you that Jesus is God Almighty. The Bible plainly teaches that Jesus is the manifestation of the Godhead (i.e., Trinity) to humanity. 1st Timothy 3:16 says, "...God was manifest in the flesh..."

I once yelled out the window of our church bus, "Jesus is God!" to a Jehovah's Witness walking down the street. One of the bus kids at the back of the bus shouted up front... "Brother Dave, he told you to go to Hell!" That's odd, I thought Jehovah's Witness didn't believe in Hell! Does it OFFEND you my friend to hear that Jesus is God?

Jesus is the sweetest name I know,
And He's just the same as His lovely Name,
And that's the reason why I love Him so;
Oh, Jesus is the sweetest name I know.
There is no name in earth or Heav'n above,
That we should give such honor and such love
As the blessèd Name, let us all acclaim,
That wondrous, glorious Name of Jesus.

JESUS IS GOD, ALMIGHTY GOD!!! The deity of Jesus Christ is the most denied doctrine in this world by unbelievers. They vehemently hate the very idea that Jesus was born upon the earth as the Word of God incarnate (in the flesh). Literally, the Godhead became incarnate and dwelt among us.

John 1:1-2 and 14, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God.

...And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth."

The word "Godhead" is found in Acts 17:29, Romans 1:20 and Colossians 2:9 in the King James Bible. All of the modern corrupt Bible revisions completely remove this vital word: "Godhead." Satan wants to deceive you concerning the Godhead. The word "Trinity" may not be in the Bible, but the word "Godhead" most certainly is. Why would anyone remove this word from the Bible? It's because the Devil wants to deceive you, to blind you from seeing Jesus as He really is.

Colossians 2:9 says, "...For in him [Jesus] dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily."

Only God Is Entitled To Receive WORSHIP, and Jesus Received Worship

Only Jesus accepted the worship of others (Matthew 8:2). Only God Almighty is entitled to receive worship. The Bible teaches that God will NOT share His glory with another (Isaiah 42:8). If Jesus weren't Almighty God, then He couldn't have received the worship of so many people (Matthew 9:18; 14:33; 15:25; 18:26; 20:20; 28:9). Jesus gladly received worship from people, as God Almighty is entitled to.

Jesus is Almighty God!

All modern corrupt Bible versions remove every mention of the word “worship” concerning the Lord Jesus Christ, changing the word “worship” to a mere ’bowed’ or ’knelt.’ It is deception of the worst kind. Satan tried to take away the Holy Bible from men, but failed. Despite wicked kings gathering all the Bibles they could find and then burning them, the inspired eternal Words of God live on! So then Satan tried to cause men to doubt the Holy Bible (as he did to Eve in the Garden of Eden), and this time he succeeded. Satan has been changing the Holy Bible since 1881 (the year Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort published their diabolic work: The New Testament In The Original Greek), deceive the world again and again. Sadly, most people have been woefully deceived by the Devil. The [1]New International Version is dangerous, as are all the other modern perversions of the Scriptures. Only the King James Bible is 100 % trustworthy in English. All of the [2]modern PERversions attack Jesus’ deity!

Jehovah’s Witnesses errantly claim that Jesus is “a god,” but not God Almighty. Well, you show a Jehovah’s Witness Revelation 1:8 where Jesus Himself proclaims to be: “

THE ALMIGHTY

”— “I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, *the Almighty.” Amen!

Kindly, [3]Martin Luther King Jr. denied Christ’s deity in his writings. Yet people foolishly called him “reverend.” I fear Martin Luther King Jr. is burning in the fires of Hell forever for rejecting Christ. John 8:24, “I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I AM he, ye shall die in your sins." Bible corrupters and unsaved heretics' Westcott and Hort denied the deity of Christ. These two reprobates are the fathers of nearly every modern-day PERversion of the Word of God—the most popular being the New International Version (NIV). [4]Thomas Jefferson, [5]Benjamin Franklin and most of our founding fathers denied the deity of Jesus Christ; but they were good men, as far as good men go.

Jesus received WORSHIP that only God is entitled to, because He is God.

Matthew 8:2, "And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean."

If Jesus were less than almighty God, it would be the sin of idolatry to worship Jesus as people did, and I do! The Holy Bible warns that God will NOT share His glory nor praise with another. Isaiah 42:8 says, "I am the LORD: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images."

Jesus readily accepted praise because He is Almighty God. Please note that the evil men behind modern revisions of the Bible have replaced every mention of the proper word 'WORSHIP' with the ambiguous words 'BOWED' or 'KNELT.' But you can kneel before a king without worshipping him. You can bow before one's fiancee in a marriage proposal, but that doesn't mean you are worshipping her. Do you see how the Devil has deceived people with counterfeit Bibles? Instead, the Devil has given them a corrupt revision that diminishes and weakens the glory due to the precious Lord Jesus Christ, Who came to earth 2,000 years ago as GOD IN THE FLESH? 1st Timothy 3:16 says, "...God was manifest in the flesh..."

Anyone who denies the deity of Jesus Christ is NOT saved, and does not know the true God of the Bible. There is no other God besides the God of true Israel (which doesn't exist today). I'm not talking about the Zionist/Marxist criminals who've hijacked the nation of Israel and the United States. I'm talking about the God of true Israel. Only born-again Jews and Gentiles are God's chosen people (Galatians 3:26-29).

To clarify, I was saved at age 13. I did not learn that Jesus was God until 5 years later at Bible College. But when I learned all about Jesus' deity, I was like a child in a candy store, and I gobbled it all up in joy. The indwelling Holy Spirit confirmed with my spirit, that I was being taught the truth about who Jesus really is. So you don't have to be a theologian to get saved, but if you are saved, you will embrace these truths over time. Can a man be saved who denies the Virgin Birth of Christ?; a man who is saved WILL believe the Virgin Birth of Christ!

Jesus Forgave Men's Sin As Only God Can Do

Jesus forgave sin as only God can do. Wicked Catholic priests and evil Lutheran ministers sinfully claim the power to forgive people's sins. You'll burn in Hell if you trust men to forgive your sins. You'd better seek forgiveness from the God-man—JESUS CHRIST—

Who bore the penalty for our sins on the cruel cross of Calvary, and has the nail-scared hands and feet. Only through Jesus' precious name can anyone's sins be forgiven, for it was Christ Who died for OUR SINS. Even the wicked Pharisees who sought to kill Jesus weren't so wicked as to think that they could forgive men's sins. Mark 2:7, "Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies?

who can forgive sins but God only?"

As the Bible says, only God can forgive sins, and Jesus is God!!! In Matthew 9:2-3 we read that Jesus mercifully forgave a man's sins and healed him of a horrible disability:

> Matthew 9:2-3, "And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee. And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth."

Notice that the unbelieving Scribes accused the Lord of blasphemy for claiming the power to forgive men's sins. Ah, but Jesus was God in the flesh and did indeed have all the power of Heaven to forgive sin as only God can. Jesus did NOT give up His deity when He came to the earth; but rather, He humbled Himself as a suffering and obedient servant (Hebrews 5:8; Philippians 2:8).

Only Jesus forgave sin in the Bible (Matthew 9:2). Only God Almighty can forgive sin.

And to clarify, Jesus doesn't need to forgive anyone's sins today, because He has already paid for them with His precious blood. Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15; 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9), which Christ has already paid for! So all you need to do to be saved is simply RECEIVE the gift of forgiveness of sins, by faith alone in Jesus Christ. Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." In hundreds of Bible references we are simply taught to BELIEVE to be saved. John 6:47, " Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

So you don’t have to “ask” Jesus to forgive your sins, He is already offering eternal life to you for free, by simply believing the record as God His given us in His Word! Christ died on the cross to pay your debt of sin, He was buried, and three days later He miraculously resurrected from the dead. This is the record which you must believe (rely upon, trust) to have eternal life (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). God’s record of your sins will be wiped away the very moment you believe, separated from you as far as the east is from the west the Bible says! Psalms 103:12, “ As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.” Do you know how far the east is from the west? Why my friend, they NEVER MEET! You can travel east for the rest of your life, and you will never find west! Likewise, you could go west for a million light-years, but there would never come a time when you would find east. That is how far God has separated every Christian believer from our sins. In other words, they are GONE! What an awesome God and Savior!!!

Jesus Is The I AM (God almighty)

Jesus is the I AM of Exodus 3:14.

Exodus 3:14, “And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.”

The Jews picked up stones to kill Jesus when He made the following claim in John 8:58, “Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.” As you just read, Jesus directly claimed to be the I AM, God almighty!!! Amen and amen!!!

Jesus is God Almighty, which He claimed to be in Revelation 1:8, “I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.”

Jesus claimed to be God in John 10:33 says, "The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, Makest Thyself God." Could the Scripture be any clearer? I think not.

"Makest Thyself God..."

1st Timothy 3:16 says, "...God was manifest in the flesh..."

Colossians 2:9 says, "...For in him [Jesus] dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily."

Jesus is THE WORD Who became FLESH and dwelt among humanity. John 1:1, 14 says, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God ...

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth."

Revelation 19:13 calls Jesus' name: **"

THE WORD OF GOD

!!! The fundamental Bible truths of the deity of Christ, and of the Godhead (Trinity), are essential to Christianity. This is why Satan is working relentlessly to destroy these doctrines. Movies; such as, The Da Vinci Code attack Jesus' deity. This particular film presents the blasphemous idea that Jesus was merely a man, who had an affair with Mary Magdalene and produced a secret royal bloodline. Other films; such as, Jesus Christ Superstar and The Last Temptation Of Christ, blaspheme his holy character and deity. It is a horrible sin to mock sacred things!

Beware Of The Corrupt Modern Bible Revisions

If you do some research on the modern Bible revisions, you will quickly find that these horrible translators have conveniently changed all of the key passages concerning Jesus' deity and the Godhead. For example:

Take a look at 1st Timothy 3:16b in the inspired King James Bible, versus the English Standard Version (ESV) that Bob Jones University sanctions, uses and sells; and kindly take a look at the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) that Harvest Baptist Church on Guam sanctions, uses and sells; and take a look at several other modern PERversions...

KJB - "God was manifest in the flesh"

ESV - "He was manifested in the flesh"

ERV - "Christ was shown to us in human form"

NRSV - "He was revealed in flesh"

NIV - "He appeared in the flesh"

RSV - "He was manifested in the flesh"

TLB - "Christ, who came to earth as a man"

NCV - "He was shown to us in a human body"

NLT - "Christ was revealed in a human body"

TLV - "He was revealed in the flesh"

HCSB - "He was manifested in the flesh"

CEB - "he was revealed as a human"

MSG - "He appeared in a human body"

VOICE - "He was revealed in the flesh"

Where is God?

Where is God?

I said where is God? They removed Him! Why do all these modern Bible revisions remove (corrupt) this important key reference to Jesus being God? The answer is obvious if you understand that salvation centers around Jesus being the only begotten (biological) Son of God (John 20:31). Jesus was 100 % a mortal man, but He was more, He was also 100 % divine God in the flesh! That cannot be said of ANY other human being in history. Unsaved liberals, atheists and communists hate Jesus (John 7:7; 15:19), so they do everything in their power to malign, discredit and if they could, destroy Him! The world crucified Jesus the first time, but they won't get a second chance! Do you love dear friend? I do! I sure hope Jesus is precious to you too, our great God and Savior!!!

1.1.40 Evolution Is An Elaborate Non-Scientific Hoax (2020-03-18 03:00)

Psalms 145:17, “The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works.”

One of the biggest lies ever fabricated is the falsehood of Evolution. The verifiable truth is that there is absolutely no evidence whatsoever that evolution is true. It’s all bogus! Evolution doesn’t teach children HOW TO think, but WHAT TO think! There’s a big difference! The very word “science” means “the study of” something. There is no “science” backing evolution! It is a myth.

Evolution is a religion, because you have to BELIEVE its non-scientific claims. Christians BELIEVE that God created the universe and everything in it. Evolutionists BELIEVE that all life as we know it evolved from a Big Bang billions of years ago. Evolutionists and theoretical physicists (e.g., Stephen Hawking) claim that evolution is true because the universe is still expanding. The truth is that there is nothing in the Word of God teaching that the universe doesn’t expand.

One thing I have learned as a truth-seeker is that it is very important not to grasp for straws to win an argument, lest we discredit ourselves. When someone grasps at straws to support their hypothesis, it shows their desperation and actually becomes their weakest point. Evolution is a hypothesis, not even a theory, because there is no credible evidence to support its bizarre claims...

> In scientific reasoning, a hypothesis is constructed before any applicable research has been done. A theory, on the other hand, is supported by evidence: it’s a principle formed as an attempt to explain things that have already been substantiated by data.[1]1

Evolutionists scoff at Christians for teaching that all animals came off of Noah’s ark, while utterly failing to realize how absurd their own claim is that [2]all of life came from two rocks colliding in space! Think about that! There’s allegedly a quote from a Russian atheist astronomer, which states:

> "Folks, either there is a God or there isn't. Both possibilities are frightening. You see, if there is God, we better find out who He is, find out what He wants, and do what He says. If there is no God, we are in trouble, cause we are hurdling through space at 66,000 miles per hour and nobody's in charge."

That is very true! Whether there is a God or not, both possibilities are frightening! Of course, there is a God, and He is a very good God! Evolution is brainwashing at the American taxpayer's expense. Bill Nye is an ungodly man, hellbound in his wickedness of unbelief. We all make our choices in this brief earthly life. According to Romans 1:20, there is no such thing as an atheist, only wicked people who choose not to acknowledge God. Romans 1:20, "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse." There is no legitimate science behind the bogus claims of evolutionists. 1st Timothy 6:20, "O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called."

The sad fact that evolutionists teach what they cannot prove, as if it were a known fact, clearly shows their desperation to condemn the Holy Bible! That speaks volumes! Why would anyone—a decent person with a thinking mind, who is reasonable and educated—want to put forth wild and unproven speculation to impressionable children's minds? To teach speculation as if it were fact shows the evil bias behind the the evolution agenda, which is to eradicate children's minds of God completely. The Word of God plainly teaches in Genesis 1:1, "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth." It doesn't get any plainer and simpler than that friend! In the beginning... GOD! Where did life as we know it originate? The only plausible answer is GOD! [3]Check this out, how insane and evil the NASA's scientists are! It is evil to teach children something that has no scientific basis, because YOU ARE LYING TO THEM! Children deserves to know the truth, not be indoctrinated! Children ought to be taught HOW TO THINK, not WHAT TO THINK!

I can understand as a reasonable person, why someone who does not believe the Holy Bible wouldn't want their child being taught such things. I really can grasp that argument. I don't agree with it as a Christian, but I can reasonably understand it. Parents have every right to raise and teach their own children as they so choose. I don't have a problem with that. I believe in freedom and liberty. However, when the government forces the unproven hypotheses of evolution upon children, especially Christian children, I have a big problem with that! That is thug communism! The age old lie is that the Bible teaching of Creation is a religion, but evolution is science. What a joke! Evolution is as much of a religion as anything else!

There are many definitions of what "religion" is, but at its core, religion is based upon beliefs. It takes more faith to believe in evolution than the Word of God! That is a fact that you CAN PROVE! There is abundant evidence that the Bible is true, but no evidence at all to support evolution. History, archaeology and science all agree with the Holy Bible. The very manner in which the Holy Bible came into existence, written over 1,500 years by forty different men, proves the divine nature of the Word of God. It is absolutely impossible for any book to come into existence in such a manner. There are literally thousands of ancient Bible manuscripts, which have been unearthed by archaeologists, that prove what I am saying!

A common tactic used by evolutionists is to find anything they can, to set forth as alleged "proof" of evolution, but science has proven all those bogus hypothesis's false in every case over time. Unfortunately, impressionable children too often believe the lies they are taught, and that blood is upon all the Freemasons, government officials, teachers, parents and authorities who made it happen. Woe unto everyone involved with the propagation of the lies of evolution! Revelation 21:27, "And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life." Revelation 22:15, "For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie." Not only are those who invented the LIE of evolution guilty, but so also those who LOVE THE LIE! Many professed atheists and wicked sinners LOVE THE LIE of evolution, because it satisfies their need to rid their mind and life of God!

Woe unto all liars! You couldn't pay me a billion dollars to teach the blatant lies of evolution to anyone! God knows that I mean that! Evolution is such an obvious hoax! These fake NASA scientists tell us that the earth and moon came from two rocks crashing into each other! That is a complete and wicked denial of the Holy Bible! It's also ludicrous! Only an idiot, or a very wicked person, could embrace such a bizarre and non-plausible hypothesis! It makes perfect sense that a divine God created the universe, especially in lieu of the Holy Bible which God has authored and given to us, to teach us these precious truths. Theoretical physicist, Stephen Hawking (1942-2018), is now burning in Hell forever, sadly, because he died in his sins without the dear Savior (John 8:24; Revelation 20:15; John 3:36). Evolution is a lie created by the Devil, to blind men's minds from seeing the glorious light of the Gospel, lest they be saved (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4).

Anyone who teaches evolution ought to be ashamed! It's not science, not in the least. The bogus claims of evolutionists are not testable, repeatable nor verifiable in a scientific laboratory nor in nature. It's bad science at best! True science studies what already exists, like the wonderful creation around us. Two rocks colliding couldn't have produced such grand beauty. A "BIG BANG" billions of years ago couldn't have evolved into the awesome universe as we know it today!

The righteous moral nature of the Holy Scriptures (Romans 7:12), and the unrighteous immoral nature of the world in which we live (1st John 5:19), is further conclusive evidence that Creation is true in the Holy Bible. Psalms 145:17, "The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works." Romans 7:12, "Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good." People who love to live in their sins, often hate God and His Holy Word (Romans 1:28)! Any honest person who has read the King James Bible, knows that it is God's inspired Word; and any thinking person with an honest heart knows that the claims of evolution are a lie! If humans came from monkeys, why are there still monkeys? Were some of the monkeys retarded? The Bible teaches that the flesh of man is man, and the flesh of animals is another. Humans are not animals, as wicked evolutionists allege. I thank and praise God that I know THE TRUTH about Creation, and am not brainwashed or deceived by Satan to believe the obvious lies of evolution!

1.1.41 Beware Of Counterfeit Bible Revisions! (2020-03-18 10:00)

All of the modern Bible revisions are corrupt. Satan is a beautiful liar! Any learned Bible student fully understands the importance of integrity in translating words. All of the Bibles on the market today say different things, often drastically different. For example: Philippians 2:6

in the King James Bible teaches that Jesus is God, but the same verse in the New International Version (NIV) says that Jesus is not God. They both cannot be correct!

The 16th U.S. President, Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865) wisely said:

> "In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!" —President Abraham Lincoln

Likewise, since all of today's Bible revisions say something different, they CANNOT all be God's inspired Word. The ungodly translators fully know this to be true, which is why in EVERY CASE the new translations remove God's promise in Psalms 12:6-7 to keep and preserve His PURE WORDS "from this generation for ever"! Take a look for yourself at this comparison of Psalms 12:6-7. The King James Bible says God preserves His PURE WORDS, but all of the modern revisions change it to God protecting THE SAINTS (US)...

King James Bible (KJB) - Psalms 12:6-7,

The words of the LORD are pure words*: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.

Easy-To-Read version (ERV) -

Psalms 12:6-7, "The Lord's words are true and pure, like silver purified by fire, like silver melted seven times to make it perfectly pure. Lord, take care of the helpless. Protect them forever from the wicked people in this world."

English Standard Version (ESV) -

Psalms 12:6-7, “The words of the Lord are pure words, like silver refined in a furnace on the ground purified seven times. You, O Lord, will keep them; you will guard us from this generation forever.”

The Living Bible (TLB) -

Psalms 12:6-7, “The Lord’s promise is sure. He speaks no careless word; all he says is purest truth, like silver seven times refined. O Lord, we know that you will forever preserve your own from the reach of evil men,”

The Amplified Bible (AMP) -

Psalms 12:6-7, “The words and promises of the Lord are pure words, Like silver refined in an earthen furnace, purified seven times. You, O Lord, will preserve and keep them; You will protect him from this [evil] generation forever.”

The Common English Bible (CEB) -

Psalms 12:6-7, “The LORD’s promises are pure, like silver that’s been refined in an oven, purified seven times over! You, LORD, will keep us, protecting us from this generation forever.”

The Complete Jewish Bible (CJB) -

Psalms 12:6-7, “The words of ADONAI are pure words, silver in a melting-pot set in the earth, refined and purified seven times over. You, ADONAI, protect us; guard us forever from this generation.”

The Message Bible (MSG) -

Psalm 12:6-7, “God’s words are pure words, Pure silver words refined seven times In the fires of his word-kiln, Pure on earth as well as in heaven. God, keep us safe from their lies, From the wicked who stalk us with lies.”

New Revised Standard version (NRSV) -

Psalms 12:6-7, “The promises of the Lord are promises that are pure, silver refined in a furnace on the ground, purified seven times. You, O Lord, will protect us; you will guard us from this generation forever.”

Lexham English Bible (LEX) -

Psalms 12:6-7, “The words of Yahweh are pure words like silver refined in the crucible on the ground, refined seven times. You, O Yahweh, will protect them. You will preserve him from this generation always.”

Common English Bible (CEB) - Psalms 12:6-7, “The Lord’s promises are pure, like silver that’s been refined in an oven, purified seven times over! You, Lord, will keep us, protecting us from this generation forever.”

Christian Standard Bible (CSB) -

Psalms 12:6-7, “The words of the Lord are pure words, like silver refined in an earthen furnace, purified seven times. You, Lord, will guard us; you will protect us from this generation forever.”

Good News Translation (GNT) -

Psalm 12:6-7, “The wicked are everywhere, and everyone praises what is evil. Keep us always safe, O Lord, and preserve us from such people.”

...AND ON THEY GO, THE NEW VERSIONS JUST KEEP COMING TO CORRUPT THE CHURCHES!!! Satan is a beautiful liar!

THEY’VE PERVERTED THE LIVING WORDS OF ALMIGHTY GOD!! THEY’VE CHANGED PSALM 12:7! Instead of saying that God keeps and preserves His “PURE WORDS,” the Devil’s crowd changed it to say that God keeps and preserves “US” (THE SAINTS). BLASPHEMY!!!

I just quoted to you TWELVE CORRUPTED BIBLE REVISIONS (all based upon the Alexandria, Egypt manuscripts).

It is sad but true that ecumenism and money are synonymous. Churches and Bible colleges that desire to make money, sinfully dip their sails so that they tolerate, accept and go along with apostasy; and they refuse to criticize heresy and Satan creeping into their midst. These damned Bible revisions today are straight from the pits of Hell, but the average religious leader today is indifferent, complacent and a part of the problem. SHAME ON ANYONE WHO ACCEPTS THE CORRUPTED GARBAGE THAT I JUST SHARED WITH YOU!!!

The King James is not a version, it is the Bible!

Perhaps the most damaging and damning of omissions in new corrupted Bible versions is the complete obliteration of the word “godhead” from Acts 17:29, Romans 1:20 and Colossians 2:9.

Another damaging and needless change is the diluting of 1st Timothy 3:16 from “God was manifest in the flesh” in the King James Bible, to “He appeared in the flesh” in the New International Version (NIV). Who is “He”? Please notice that there is a drastic difference in meaning between “appeared” and “manifest.” To appear simply means “to be seen” but to manifest oneself means “to make known.” The King James Bible teaches in 1st Timothy 3:16 that God the Father was made known to the world in the fleshly human incarnation of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Literally, the Godhead became a living man and dwelt among us (Colossians 2:9; John 1:1-3,14 - Note: All Scripture quotes are only from the trustworthy King James Bible). The NIV is satanic, saying that Jesus (He) appeared in a body. That's what it reads. Now does that truly convey the proper meaning of the Word of God? No, it does not. The King James Bible says that GOD WAS MANIFEST (revealed) IN THE FLESH!!! By changing this verse, modern Bible butchers attack the deity of Christ.

Modern Bible versions change every mention of people WORSHIPPING Jesus to a mere BOWED or KNELT. But you can kneel before a king without worshipping him. The Bible says repeatedly that many people "worshipped" Jesus (e.g., the leper in Matthew 8:2).

Romans 10:9 in the NIV is the basis of the Lordship Salvation false plan of salvation in most Baptist churches today. This heresy says a sinner cannot get saved by simply believing the Gospel—the 'GOOD NEWS' that Jesus Christ died in our place on the cross, was buried and resurrected three days later. That is the simple 'Gospel' according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Lordship Salvation adds the unbiblical requirement to surrender one's life to Christ, and to forsake sinful bad habits. No one has ever been saved by forsaking their sins or surrendering to Christ as Lord. Adding anything to faith alone in Christ's death, burial and resurrection is dead works, which cannot produce the new birth. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people to live the Christian life without ever being born-again!

The NIV butchers Psalms 9:17. Instead of saying that "the wicked shall be turned into hell" as the faithful King James Bible (KJB), the NIV says they go to the realm of the dead, which makes no sense, because that's also where the righteous go.

Many people have traded in their faithful King James Bible sword for a modern plastic knife. Ephesians 6:17 teaches that the Bible is part of the believer's armory, our weapon. The inspired Word of God is the sword of the Spirit. If I were the Devil, I would try to deceive Christians by convincing them that something is wrong with their King James Bible, and then offer them a new version that is allegedly better and easier to read, while changing important doctrinal passages concerning Christ's deity, salvation and the character of Christ. The serpent came to Eve in the Garden of Eden and shook her confidence in the Word of God.

Then the serpent offered her very bad and ungodly advice. Eve was deceived. Be very careful what advice you take from others, because it could ruin your life!

I've never met anyone who defended their New International Version (NIV) like faithful Christians defend their beloved King James Bible. The NIV is like a harlot, versus a beloved wife in the King James Bible. I've never met anyone who could quote verses verbatim from any modern Bible. The so-called "new and improved" Bibles read like a comic book or daily newspaper. The King James Bible was written in the beauty of the Elizabethan English language. We don't rewrite Shakespeare to make it easier to understand; but rather, we study it in the beauty of the language in which it was written. There is no need to rewrite the Bible!

Only the King James Bible is not copyrighted. Anyone can publish King James Bibles, but you'll be sued in court for reprinting any modern Bible version. The sin of the love of money is behind the modern Bible-corrupting movement. Truly, we are living in the ' perilous times' prophesied in 2nd Timothy 3:1-7. Satan has successfully put a corrupted Bible version in the hands of most churchgoers in America. Consequently, our churches have been corrupted with heresies, a false plan of salvation, doctrinal indifference, and a lackadaisical attitude toward God's Holy Bible.

Dr. Marten Woudstra was an open homosexual, who was appointed chairman of the Committee On Biblical Translation who translated the Old Testament of the NIV. No wonder the word "sodomite" was completely removed. I wouldn't even hesitate to burn a pile of New International Versions (NIV), because they are not genuine Bibles. Any Bible version that removes the word "begotten" from John 3:16 is going into my garbage pail! John 1:12 calls all believers "the sons of God." Every believer is an adopted son of God, crying "Abba" Galatians 4:6, "And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father." So if Jesus is God's only Son, then the Bible makes no sense. The King James Bible correctly teaches that Jesus is God's only begotten (biological) Son.

God only wrote one Book. According to the American Bible Society, there have been over [1]900 different English Bible versions published since the 1611 authorized King James. Satan is the author of confusion, not God (1st Corinthians 14:33). Although there have been numerous editions (to correct typos, et cetera) in the 1611 translation, there has never been another translation of the King James Bible. The modern perverted New King James Bible published by Nelson Publishers is based upon the corrupted Alexandrian, Egypt, Greek manuscripts. Our beloved King James Bible is based upon the Textus Receptus (or Received Text) from Antioch, Syria, where the saints were first called Christians in Acts 11:26, "And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch."

In sharp contrast to Antioch, Syria (located north of Israel), Egypt throughout the Bible represents the heathen world, secular philosophy and Luciferian, phallic-worshipping, religious cults (like Freemasonry).

Here is a helpful chart showing the origin of all modern corrupt Bibles verses the origin of the trustworthy King James Bible.

I went to a Bestseller book store not too long ago, and they didn't have even one King James Bible for sale. Few people care about what God has to say anymore. It's amazing and disturbing that millions of people will try everything but Jesus Christ. Thank God for His precious inspired Word, which He promised in Psalms 12:6-7 to keep and preserve unto all generations forever. We have that preserved, perfect, infallible, inerrant, inspired Word of God in the trustworthy King James Bible!!!!!!!

John 16:33, " These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world. "

These precious words were spoken by our dear Savior! The Lord told us that in this lifetime we WILL HAVE TRIBULATION! There is no escape from it! Everyone has some kind of burden, problem, heartache and struggle in life. Even Jesus Himself had struggles and hardships. In numerous passages of Scriptures we find Christ fleeing for His very life from an angry mob! The Old Testament prophet Isaiah prophesied that Christ would suffer rejection of men, and be a man of sorrows. Isaiah 53:3, "He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not."

The reason why Jesus told us to "BE OF GOOD CHEER," is simply because He is waiting for us on the other end! [1]Oh, it is wonderful to be a Christian!!! Because Jesus has already risen triumphant from the dead, and has ascended into Heaven as our High Priest (Romans 8:34; Hebrews 4:14-16), alive for evermore, we HAVE A HOPE!!!

That is exactly what our dear Lord exclaimed in

John 16:33

. We have the hopeful expectation BY FAITH that things will ultimately improve, when we arrive in Heaven, and our days of misery and suffering on earth will forever end. We know this to be true because CHRIST IS RISEN!

Everyone around the world is worried today, in March of 2020, about the much feared Coronavirus. The newsmedia has hyped the pandemic so much that people are even calling for the military now! I went shopping yesterday for a few items. I have never seen people behave like this, full of panic and fear. I watched people selfishly empty the shelves of basic supplies, cut in front of others at the checkouts lines, wearing face masks and wiping their shopping cart with disinfectant wipes. People are really freaking out over this virus! I am as calm as can be, not worried in the least, because my blessed Savior told me to "BE OF GOOD CHEER" in John 16:33.

Why be of good cheer? Simply because Jesus has OVERCOME THE WORLD. You too my friend can overcome the world. How? What saith the Scripture?

1st John 5:4-5, " For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?" Amen! You can overcome the world (i.e., be born-again and go to Heaven someday) by simply placing your trust (your faith) in the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Just take God at His Word, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins!

Did you know that suffering is as much a part of the Christian's life as salvation? P hilippians 1:29, "For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;" When we suffer, we suffer with our dear Savior, heirs together of ALL THINGS! Romans 8:17, "And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together." At salvation there is JUSTIFICATION for every believer; in Heaven there will be GLORIFICATION for every believer; but until then there is SANCTIFICATION, as we are conformed day by day into the image of Christ. God is going to make us happy in Heaven, because He loves His children. Romans 8:32, "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?"

BY FAITH, a Christian can be cheerful in suffering, in rejection by peers, in sorrow from loneliness, from bodily afflictions due to poor health, and from all that life can throw at us!!

[2]THANK YOU LORD FOR YOUR BLESSINGS ON ME!!!

1.1.43 Joy In Misery For The Christian (2020-03-19 04:00)

James 1:2-4, "My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing."

FAITH WORKETH PATIENCE!!! I love our text passage of Scripture. I have been a born-again Christian now for 40 years! I turned 53 this month on March 5, 2020. Wow! Where did my life go? When you're a teenager, those teen years span one-third of your life, so they stand out and have great meaning; but when you get to be my age, 5 years only spans one-tenth of your life, and the years start passing like clouds on a windy day! In my soul, I still feel like I'm 15 years old. I heard Pastor Jack Hyles say in a sermon that us older folks still see ourselves as teenagers, but teenagers view us as dinosaurs. That is so true! I don't feel old, and I still plan to roll my window down and blast my music when I'm 80 years old, God willing, if I live that long (and my hearing aids works...lol). Philippians 1:21, "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."

The Bible is such an amazing Book because our God is such an amazing God! James 1:2-4, "My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing." This passage of Scripture is literally telling us to BE CHEERFUL in our troubles, burdens and heartaches, knowing that God is still on His throne! That is the point I want you to learn from this article. The TRIAL (or testing) of our FAITH WORKETH PATIENCE! The greater your problems in life, the greater your faith should be! The dying world has no faith in God. Jesus said in Mark 11:22b, "HAVE FAITH IN GOD"! You will never know down here that Christ is all you need until Christ is all you have left.

Pastor Jack Hyles put it this way, in the following classic audio sermons:

- "[1]Enjoy Your Troubles While You Can" (MP3, Dr. Jack Hyles; Rough times in the will of God are best times!)
- "[2]Learn To Enjoy Where You Are, While You're On Your Way To Where You Are Going" (Brother Hyles)

My apartment floods every time it rains. I vacuumed up 10 gallons of water a couple weeks ago during a rainy weekend. When [3]typhoon Mangkhut came through last year, with a foam mop I sopped-up 45 gallons of water (that's before I figured out I could just vacuum up the water with my Wet Vac). I was working on my ministry website one night, and heard a rat clawing his way through my back door. I went to Home Depot and bought a piece of wood and a can of foam; I filled the hole and sealed the door shut. I have a 5-gallon bucket in my downstairs restroom to catch water, that floods from the roof when it rains heavy. Due to a leaking foundation, when it rains persistently, glue seeps up through the edges of each of the floor tiles; so I bought three rolls of clear masking tape to seal the glue from getting all over the place. My ceiling light fell and crashed to the floor a couple weeks ago, scaring me half to death. Yet, I PRAISE THE LORD FOR A ROOF OVER MY HEAD! [4]Check this out! I am so very berry cherry merry blessed of God, I begin to cry when I think about it! God is so good ladies and gentlemen!! GOD IS AWESOME!!!

> Psalms 107:1-2, "O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;"

> Psalms 106:1-3, "Praise ye the LORD. O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? who can shew forth all his praise? Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that doeth righteousness at all times."

GOD IS FAITHFUL!!!

> [5]Power Through Prayer (a life-changing .PDF book by Pastor E.M. Bounds, 1835-1913)

I am very expressive with my feelings, which is how God made me. That is why I love music. My constant toothache-like neck pain (stenosis and radiculitis) gets me down, but I am so thankful and blessed not to have the health [6]afflictions that so many people have. We are all so undeserving of God's love, goodness and mercy. I have been praying much lately. James 5:13a, "Is any among you afflicted? let him pray..."

Kindly, my regular web visitors know that I have [7]poured out my heart recently with [8]my feelings in love for the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and [9]a young woman that I love. My heart hurts thinking about fellow professed Christians that don't want me. I say that kindly and respectfully. I love them unconditionally and have no ill-will toward any of them, God knows my heart. I pray for them each day in love, truly. Christmas is a lonely time, and I live alone, which makes it tougher; so I've been playing my [10]Hawaiian Steel Guitar (my music website) this week. I like playing along with this nice song I found, "[11]My Yellow Ginger Lei."

I would never ever intentionally want to hurt anybody's feelings, God knows my spirit. I only withdraw at times, like a turtle, to protect my own heart. Proverb 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." By the way, that is what a wife does—she protects her man's heart! A man is the strength of a marriage; and his wife is the heart. That is why God created Eve from the rib of Adam, because the function of the ribs is to protect the heart! A wife ought to be the nearest and dearest thing to her husband's heart, for she is as his heart. Humbly, I don't claim to be a good Christian. In fact, I feel like the worst (and so should you if you are close to our holy God)! I am praying for God's help and will concerning moving. One day at a time! GOD IS FAITHFUL AND I TRUST HIM WITH ALL MY LIFE!!!

Onward my fine non-feathered friend! FAITH WORKETH PATIENCE!!! Luke 8:15, "But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience." I became curious about the meaning of the word "PATIENCE" in the preceding Scripture passages, which according to James Strong is the Greek word hupomonē, meaning: "From G5278; cheerful (or hopeful) endurance, constancy: - enduring, patience, patient continuance (waiting)." That is very interesting. The same exact Greek word for "PATIENCE" is used for both passages of Scripture in Luke 8:15 and James 1:2-4. The word means more than to wait, but to do it with cheerful and hopeful expectation, knowing that that "all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose" (Romans 8:28b).

THE TRIAL OF OUR FAITH as believers tests (worketh) our faith. Faith is like film, it develops in the dark! While driving, I once noticed a sign in front of a church, which read: "A FAITH MUST BE TESTED!" That truth has stuck with me over the years. I greatly pondered the statement's meaning. The irritating thought occurred to me, that unsaved people suffer the same afflictions, problems and burdens as do Christian; so how can a person's faith be tested, if they HAVE NO FAITH? Then it dawned on me that believers choose to HAVE FAITH IN GOD despite their afflictions, problems and burdens. So having all these bad things (and good things too by the way) TEST a believer's faith! The greatest faith a man can have is to continue praying and living for the Lord, when it seems like God has abandoned him in his hour of need.

> "The thing that will reveal your faith is praying when no answer comes. That's the supreme test."
> —Brother Lester Roloff, from the helpful sermon titled, [12]Something Everybody Can Do.

Patience is hopeful endurance! Patience is not just waiting for something or someone, it is HOW WE BEHAVE WHILE WAITING! The reason why we can have such hopeful patience is because GOD IS FAITHFUL! 1st Corinthians 1:9, "God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord." Amen! Every day of this miserable earthly existence of bodily pain, heartache of soul, frustration of life, loneliness, and enduring hardships, is ONE DAY LESS until we are in Heaven with the dear Savior!

What saith the Scripture? Romans 15:4, "For whatsoever things were written afore-time were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus: That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ." God is very patient!

> "Good character is not formed in a week or a month. It is created little by little, day by day. Protracted and patient effort is needed to develop good character." —Heraclitus of Ephesus (535-475 BC)

Growing in grace takes time. You can't sit under the Word of God and not be changed! Romans 10:17, "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." However, it takes time for a new believer to change, as they are renewed in their mind by the Word of God (Romans 12:1-2). That is why I am very much against the junk theology being promoted by Pacific Garden Mission's 'UNSHACKLED' radio program, which relentlessly promote the idea that the moment a person comes to Jesus Christ, they instantly become a new creature overnight in behavior, and all desire to commit sins are gone forever! PGM errantly understands this to be repentance. When they tell people to "REPENT and BELIEVE" in all their UNSHACKLED episodes, what they really mean is to turn away from your sins AND then also to place your faith in Christ. It is a TWO STEP false plan of salvation! What they are really saying is that a person must commit to KEEPING THE LAW before Christ will accept their faith in Him for salvation. This is "ANOTHER GOSPEL," which is accursed by God (Galatians 1:6-7). [13]Case in point!

That is a nice fairytale, but it is not reality!

2nd Corinthians 5:17-18, " Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;"

Luke 8:15 teaches that we should wait with hopeful endurance, while we continue to preach the Gospel to the lost. If you are a soulwinner, then you know the frustration of witnessing to family, coworkers, friends and strangers who don't seem to be interested. Jude 1:22, "And of some have compassion, making a difference." There have been many times when I witnessed to someone, where it seemed like they were listening, but then they refused to get saved. And there were other times when I thought my words were falling on deaf ears, but they were taking in every word, and did get saved. The point being is that you never know what a person is thinking. Don't be afraid to witness to people. There are Christians in all walks of life. Just witness the Gospel to everyone! Mark 16:15, "And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature."

I have known Christian men who targeted their soulwinning efforts primarily toward Jews, celebrities and wealthy people, but the Bible commands us to preach the Gospel "TO EVERY CREATURE." That doesn't mean to preach to your dog or cat, but to every human being, even the lowest and most despicable among us. Romans 2:11, "For there is no respect of persons with God."

"Our patience will achieve more than our force." —Edmund Burke (1729-1797)

Likewise in James 1:2-4 we learn that with the same type of enduring patience, as Christian believers we ought to maintain a cheerful joy through life's suffering, hardships, health afflictions, loss and heartaches. The Bible tells us why we should be cheerful. James 1:2-4, "My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing." According to James Strong, the word "joy" here is the Greek word χαρά, meaning: "From G5463; cheerfulness, that is, calm delight: - gladness." The words that follow the "-" (hyphen symbol) are other words in the New Testament which are translated from the same Greek word. So in another Bible passage this Greek word is rendered as GLADNESS. This knowledge helps to understand the proper meaning of a particular word. Words are very important, and their proper meaning.

"We could never learn to be brave and patient, if there were only joy in the world." —Helen Keller (1880-1968)

We Are Already On the Winning Side in Christ Jesus

I love you dear friend, and there's absolutely nothing you can do about it! Ha, ha! I love you, yes I do, you lucky dog you! Okay, I'm getting crazy! Too late, I know! I passed sane a long time ago...lol. You have to be a little crazy in this world, to keep from losing your mind!

We are already on the WINNING SIDE in Christ Jesus!!! ...

Romans 8:31-37, "What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth. Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us."

I challenge and encourage you dear reader to get into the inspired Word of God. I am right now listening to [14]Alexander Scourby read II Samuel . I listened to [15]I Samuel yesterday, and part of the New Testament from [16]1st Corinthians . I have been thinking about a precious truth I heard yesterday, echoing in my mind from 1st Corinthians 1:9b, "God is faithful..." The world just doesn't know what they are missing in Jesus Christ! (1st Corinthians 2:9-10). I am miserable in numerous ways in my earthly life, but I enjoy God's presence continually, and have peace like a river, and rejoice with joy unspeakable knowing that my name is written in Heaven in the Lamb's Book of Life! [17]YET BELIEVING, YE REJOICE WITH JOY UNSPEAKABLE!!! Thank you for reading my heartfelt words.

"Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do!"

—Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from the MP3 sermon titled: "[18]God's Reversal Of Psalm 51"

1st Corinthians 16:24, "My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen."

1.1.44 The Bible Teaches Easy-Believism (2020-03-19 18:28)

Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?"

It's simple to be saved! Don't ever let anyone tell you that it is not easy to be saved. I am going to shock you in a moment, by telling you something that I heard today on Pacific garden Mission's 'UNSHACKLED' radio. You won't believe it my friend! There is much criticism in religious circles today against soulwinners who preach "the simplicity that is in Christ" (which is *The Gospe*l - 2nd Corinthians 11:3). They use clever derogatory terms; such as: "1-2-3 Gospel," "Easy Believism," "Greasy Grace," "Cheap Grace," "Quick Prayerism" and "Quick Fix Evangelism."

Like it or not, the Word of God teaches that it is easy, free and simple to be saved.

Men complicate the plan of salvation!

Jesus likens getting saved to simply drinking a cup of water. John 4:13-14, " Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again: But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. " If you can drink a cup of water, you can be saved.

That is very simple and easy to do.

The Lord also likens salvation to going through a door. Romans 10:9, " I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture." If you can walk through a door, you can be saved. It is very simple and easy to do.

Unfortunately, there are many FALSE PROPHETS today, like Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) in Chicago, who complicate 'The Gospel' in their UNSHACKLED radio series. Let's see how these false prophets make salvation very had.

Hear for yourself and weep for their victims!

I was saddened today as I listened to Pacific Garden Mission's popular radio program called: ' UNSHACKLED' ([1]program #3589 - aired in 2020 - the Story of Debbie Brooks) . In the episode, Debbie meets with a religious friend named Sharon, and they share this brief dialogue:

> SHARON: Trusting Jesus is the only thing that can make a difference in my messed-up life.

> DEBBIE: I keep hearing that in church, but I don't get it—how something that EASY can be a life-changer.

> SHARON: Oh Debbie, it's not easy—believing in Jesus means repenting and asking forgiveness for all the old ways, and then GIVING THEM UP FOR GOOD*. When you find the COURAGE TO DO THAT, He'll help you CHANGE YOUR LIFE. [emphasis added]

> DEBBIE: Huh, well, I'll have to think about it.

OH MY GOD!!! I cannot believe what I just heard, and that PGM sanctions this garbage theology! Sharon is telling Debbie that it is NOT EASY TO BE SAVED, because to be saved she says you MUST repent to give up all the old ways, GIVING THEM UP FOR GOOD! How is any of this a free gift from God? Dear reader, PGM are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. Everything that they put out to radio bears their ministry's name, which makes them 100 % responsible for every bit of content!!! Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

What you just read (what Pacific Garden Ministry is shamefully teaching) is actually REFORMATION (turning away from one's sins), NOT REGENERATION by the Holy Spirit of God!!!

Pacific Garden Mission is of the Devil, teaching LIES straight out of the pits of Hell beneath. What ignorant and unlearned men and women at UNSHACKLED! PGM errantly teaches—

"b elieving in Jesus means repenting and asking forgiveness for all the old ways, and then GIVING THEM UP FOR GOOD*. "*

That is NOT what it means to "BELIEVE," nor is that what "REPENTANCE" means Biblically!

> Believing simply means to completely REST in the only begotten Son of God (Hebrews 4:10-11), trusting Jesus Christ Who bore the total weight of our sins upon Calvary's cross. To believe simply means you are getting out of the way, and relying upon the risen Savior Jesus do the saving, all of it!

> Repentance is simply the admission that I am as much a GUILTY SINNER as God hath declared me to be in His Holy Word (Romans 3:19-23). Repentance is a change of mind from WRONG THINKING to believing The Gospel. It is very easy, free and simple to be saved!!! PGM woefully gets it WRONG, defining repentance as "
> turning away from sins
>
>
>
> GIVING THEM UP FOR GOOD!

” That is an impossibility! No one can give up all their sins for good (meaning that you have permanently decided to stop living a lifestyle of sin).

Sharon further says:

When you find the COURAGE TO DO THAT, He’ll help you CHANGE YOUR LIFE.

” She is saying that to be saved, you must give up your sinful ways for good (which PGM falsely thinks means repentance), and when God sees that you have done that, only then will He help you.

You know, that reminds me of all the lose weight gimmicks (lose weight pills) that they sell at Vitamin World, GNC and other so-called ’Health Stores.’ I know because I have tried them all...lol. Every single one of those products have a disclaimer on the side label which tells you this product is only intended for people who regularly exercise and are already on a diet. Well good night, if I’m already on a steady diet and exercising, then why would I need their stupid pills? They are very deceitful and they know it! The producers and sellers of those gimmicks fully understand that over 95 % of the customers who buy their pills DON’T exercise or diet. That way they can blame you if their product doesn’t work (and trust me they don’t). The only sure way to lose weight (I lost 70 pounds in 2017) is two things: WALKING a couple hours every day and serious dietary FASTING (500 calories a day maximum). Basically you’re walking off the 500 calories you eat, so it’s like you’re eating nothing. You can lose 15 pounds per month doing this. If you can make it past 24 hours of not eating, it gets much easier; but you always need something in your stomach. Salads are great!

How does what I just said relate with the junk theology of UNSHACKLED? I have no idea...lol. Seriously, it does, because Sharon told Debbie that God would help her stop sinning, if she repents (turns away from all her old sinful ways) FOR GOOD! Why do you have to forsake the old sinful ways for good (permanently), before God will help you? I mean, if you have to make an effort or commitment to change your own life to be saved, then why do you need God’s help? I hear this false plan of salvation often nowadays, which says a person must be willing to REFORM (turn away from sins) to receive God’s free gift. Well then it CANNOT be a gift, because something is required of you in exchange! If I buy you a birthday gift, all you need to do is accept it! That is how salvation works too! Jesus paid for your gift with His precious blood. It’s not “ cheap grace,

it cost God His only begotten Son, and it cost Jesus His very life. Grace is not cheap my friend, it is priceless! God is offering the gift of eternal life to you, simply for the taking; just believe.

So in that sense, it is not “cheap grace,” it is absolute free to you and me, but it came at a great expense to our blessed Savior. That is why we can think of grace with the acronym G.R.A.C.E. (God’s Riches At Christ’s Expense). I like that!

Tragically, UNSHACKLED are promoting the [2]same junk theology that Evangelist Ray Comfort teaches.

Kindly, Ray says that “repentance” means “LIVING A LIFESTYLE THAT PROVES THE REALITY OF YOUR REPENTANCE!” And then he adds, “IT’S A CONTINUAL THING!” Read for yourself what Mr. Comfort horribly teaches this woman, in this transcript from the ’Living Waters’ video...

> “So if the plane goes down, you’d end up in Hell! There are two things you have to do to be saved. Do you remember what they are? I told you what they are—You’ve got to repent and trust the Savior! ... God’s offering you everlasting life upon your repentance and faith in Christ. Who in his right mind wouldn’t say, ’Whoa! That’s a good offer!’ (The curious woman asks what it means to “repent”?)... Have you ever said you’re sorry to someone you did something wrong to? That’s all repentance is—You’ve sinned against God; it’s a matter of saying, ’God, I’m sorry,’ and then LIVING A LIFESTYLE that proves the reality of your repentance. That’s what repentance is, it’s a continual thing! God, ’I’m sorry, but I’m not going going to lie or steal or blaspheme Your name ever again. It has that attitude! And the second thing—trust in Jesus!” [emphasis added] —Evangelist Ray Comfort, “ [3]I’ve never killed anyone ” ([4]MP3 clip from video).

Kindly, Ray Comfort is a FALSE PROPHET! That is not how you get saved!!! That is the SAME garbage theology that ’UNSHACKLED’ is teaching to people. Remember, Sharon tells Debbie that getting saved “IS NOT EASY,” because she says you have to repent , ask forgiveness, and then give them up for good. I would agree 100 % with Sharon that getting saved is if these radical changes were actually required of a sinner to receive the free gift of eternal life, but they are not! Sharon is a LIAR! Pacific Garden Mission are LIARS! UNSHACKLED are LIARS! The accuracy of God’s plan of salvation matters! It really does!!! Sharon is no doubt sincere, but she is deceived by Satan, leading Debbie into religion without the new birth. The Bible says that salvation IS EASY!!! The dying thief on the cross simply believed on Christ, asking the Lord to remember Him, and he was immediately saved by faith alone. In Acts chapter 10, Cornelius simply heard the apostle Peter preach the ’GOOD NEWS,’ and he believed and was immediately saved. Acts 2:41 says that 3,000 people simply “GLADLY RECEIVED” Peter’s preaching of the Gospel, and they were immediately saved. Oh, how EASY it is to be saved!!!

Dear friend, Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again! UNSHACKLED today is a cesspool of every form of heresy, deception and religious nonsense concerning salvation!!! You cannot be born-again by FORSAKING YOUR OLD SINFUL WAYS, AND GIVING THEM UP FOR GOOD!!! That is “

!!! In the true Gospel of free grace (as taught in the inspired King James Bible), you simply acknowledge that you are a guilty sinner in God’s sight (Romans 3:19-20), believing the ’GOOD NEWS’ of Christ Who died on the cross, was buried and physically resurrected three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4), and that’s it! Nothing more is required. Nothing else is permitted.

Please Don’t Become ’Shackled’ by ’UNSHACKLED’s False Gospel

I’d like to more closely examine SHARON’s comments to Debbie that salvation IS NOT EASY, for your edification dear reader:

> SHARON: Oh Debbie, it’s not easy—believing in Jesus means repenting and asking forgiveness for all the old ways, and then GIVING THEM UP FOR GOOD*. When you find the COURAGE TO DO THAT, He’ll help you CHANGE YOUR LIFE. [emphasis added]

Sharon is wrong Biblically on a few counts:

1. Believing in Jesus doesn't mean 'REPENTING .' Repentance unto life means a change mind in Greek (noun: metanoia), but believing means to trust the Savior. They are not the same thing. PGM errantly defines repentance as turning from sins and surrendering to obey Christ . PGM is doctrinally wrong to change what it means to BELIEVE, to fit their agenda of Lordship Salvation.

2. Believing in Jesus doesn't mean ASKING for forgiveness. Jesus doesn't need to forgive sin, because He has already paid for everyone's sins with His precious blood. The truth is that Christ is OFFERING you salvation in exchange for your childlike trust in Him. Simply receive Jesus' sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins and you're saved! Jesus is already asking you to BELIEVE in Him, so you don't have to ask Him!

3. Believing in Jesus doesn't mean asking for forgiveness for ALL THE OLD WAYS. You don't have to remember or itemize all the sins of your past to be saved. Jesus doesn't require making a laundry list of all your sins, He simply demands that you come as a guilty needy sinner. You must see your need for the blessed Savior! You get saved by BELIEVING, not by confessing, nor by asking, not by praying, not by turning away from sinful old habits; but by BELIEVING ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST! Pacific Garden Mission are a confused and divided house at best!!!

4. Believing in Jesus doesn't mean GIVING UP THE OLD WAYS FOR GOOD. Clearly, Sharon is not a born-again believer, because she has ADDED keeping the law to the Gospel. Romans 3:20, "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." You don't have to continue living a certain type of LIFESTYLE to be saved, nor to prove that you're saved. This type of junk theology has crept into thousands of churches today! Ray Comfort is one of the main instigators, influencing millions of people worldwide for the Devil, helping to blind men from "THE SIMPLICITY THAT IS IN CHRIST." ...

> 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or *another gospe*l, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him."

I sincerely hope you, dear reader, see how evil UNSHACKLED's teachings are. According to this UNSHACKLED program, it is NOT EASY to be saved; because you are required to GIVE UP YOUR OLD SINFUL WAYS PERMANENTLY! There is nothing "EASY" about giving up the old ways, old friends, and lifelong sinful bad habits! That is " another gospel

” accursed by God! No where in the apostle Paul’s description of ’THE GOSPEL’ in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, are we told to forsake the world, cease from a lifestyle of sin, and leave the old ways of sin! These are manmade additions, which corrupt and negate the grace of God, that bringeth salvation. God’s curse is upon any FALSE GOSPEL:

> Galatians 1:6-9, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:
>
> Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.
>
> But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.
>
> As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

Pacific Garden Mission are PREACHING ANOTHER GOSPEL!!! In their effort to REFORM men’s lives (which makes for great future ’UNSHACKLED’ programs), they have perverted the Words of the Living God! They have perverted God’s plan of salvation for man. There is absolutely NOTHING in the Gospel of John about forsaking your old sinful ways, and giving them up FOR GOOD, to be saved! That is reformation (turning from sin), which is NOT regeneration by the seed of the Word of God and Holy Spirit. 1st Peter 1:23, “

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. ” I don’t know where Pacific Garden Mission gets their junk theology, but they sure DIDN’T get it from the inspired King James Bible!!!

The Imputed Righteousness Of God

The word “[5]imputation” isn’t mentioned much anymore in religious circles, and to no surprise because the Godless H.I.V. Bible (aka, the New International Version) has completely removed the word. This is one of the main reasons why the heresy of Lordship Salvation has flourished in our churches today, because of corrupt bibles which obscure that Biblical doctrine of the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ. We read in Romans 4:22 of the trustworthy King James Bible concerning Abraham's faith, "And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness." Please read Dr. Jack Hyles' awesome writing titled, [6]IMPUTATION AT SALVATION.

Abraham's faith was counted for righteousness (Romans 4:5), i.e., in response to Abraham's faith, Christ's righteousness was placed upon Abraham's eternal record in Heaven. This is what 2nd Corinthians 5:21 declares: "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." You see, it is Christ's righteousness by which we are saved; and not our own. Proponents of Lordship Salvation fail to understand this vital Biblical doctrine.

Romans 4:6, "Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom GOD IMPUTETH RIGHTEOUSNESS WITHOUT WORKS."

YOU ARE A GUILTY SINNER! And so am I. Unless you accept Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, you will spend eternity burning in the Lake of Fire. Christ is our sin payment!

Anyone who says that it's not easy to be saved is teaching "ANOTHER GOSPEL" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). The Good News (Gospel) of Christ's death upon the cross for our sins, His burial, and His bodily resurrection from the dead three days later, is all that you to believe to be saved. If you admit that you are a sinner in God's sight, and you receive the Gospel as full-payment for your sins, you are saved immediately and securely forever. Subtracting or adding anything more is a false plan of salvation.

There is much confusion, heresy and controversy in our churches today over the meaning of "repentance" concerning salvation. You cannot show me one Scripture from the Bible that says to "turn from sin" or "repent from sin" to be saved. Romans 3:19 teaches that the PURPOSE of the law of Moses is to be used as a measuring stick, by which when compared all men realize they are guilty sinners, totally incapable of saving themselves. Repentance is a "CHANGE OF MIND" (Greek: metanoia)—a change of mind about what YOU WANT to do to get to Heaven, to what GOD SAYS you must do to get to Heaven.

To inherit eternal life, you CEASE from your own self-righteous works and COMPLETELY REST in Christ. Hebrews 4:10, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his." This Scripture speaks of resting in Jesus Christ, Who is our Sabbath today. On the Sabbath Day, God's people rested, ceasing from their long 6-day work-week (which represented man trying to earn His way to Heaven, by keeping the Mosaic law). To be saved we repent from DEAD WORKS (Hebrews 6:1), and instead COMPLETELY REST IN GOD'S IMPUTED RIGHTEOUSNESS by faith in Christ. Isn't God awesome!

The unsaved religious people in Matthew 7:21-23 were trying to establish their own righteousness by their "MANY WONDERFUL WORKS." They even did their works in Jesus' name. Yet the Lord said to them at The Great White Throne Of Judgment... I NEVER KNEW YOU! Will you one day in eternity hear those same horrifying words?

In his excellent book, I NEVER KNEW YOU, Michael Patrick Bowen states . . .

> "You can live for Christ, you can love Christ, you can serve Him with all your might, time, talent and wealth. You can pray to Him, read your Bible, get water-baptized, join a church, witness to people, and do every wonderful work contained within the realm of Christianity, but if you fail to trust Jesus Christ alone for your salvation, He will "dump" you."

Beware of the false teaching in most churches today, that you must count the cost, desire to stop sinning, commit your life to Christ, and surrender fully to Christ's Lordship. I call this a “fork-tongued” gospel, because the presenter of such a confusing gospel is telling you that salvation is a free gift that you must earn, which is impossible!

My friend, it is simple, free and EASY to be saved. God only requires childlike faith to be saved. Anyone who comes along making salvation HARD is teaching a false gospel of a works-based salvation. Sadly, there are false prophets amidst our brethren in the churches, who have crept in unawares, bringing in damnable heresies. Christ bore the total weight of our sins on the cross. Beware of any preacher who places the burden of sin upon the sinner. Jesus doesn’t forgive sin. That’s right! Jesus has already paid for everyone’s sins. This is why forgiveness of sins and eternal life are free gifts, which need only be received by faith to obtain. Yes, getting saved is the EASIEST thing in the world. God made salvation simple, free and easy, so that even a small child, or a mentally challenged person, can still BELIEVE be saved. John 3:16, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

1.1.45 Love is the Greatest (2020-03-19 20:30)

Life is not made by the dreams that we dream, but by the choices that we make. Life is simply a series of personal choices. Our choices define who we are. Never reject those who love, care and try to reach out to you, because one day you’ll realize you lost the moon while counting the stars!

To fall in love is by chance,

To love is a choice;

To fall out of love is a choice too,

You are free to choose, but you are not free from the consequences of your choices.

Sometimes we create our own heartbreaks through expectations. God knows that I have often done that! Never chase love, affection or attention. If it isn't given freely by another person, it isn't worth having. Pastor Jack Hyles taught me that you don't seek happiness in life; you simply do your duty, and along the way happiness will come find you. Proverb 3:13, "Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding." Proverb 28:14, "Happy is the man that feareth [God] alway: but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief."

Never apologize for having high standards. People who really want to be in your life will rise up to them. Stand up for what is right even if you're standing alone!

Never blame anyone in your life.
Good people give you happiness.
Bad people give you experience.
The worst people give you a lesson.
And the best people give you memories.

Everybody you have ever met in your life was brought to you for a reason.

I have come to understand that we do not love people because they are beautiful, but people become beautiful because we love them. Jesus said in Luke 12:34, "For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." The more that I pray for my neighbours, the more I love them, because I am investing my time and heart into them. In effect, they are my treasure. My web visitors, in whom I have poured my heart, soul and time for the past 17 years, are MY TREASURE!!! Jesus said WHERE YOUR TREASURE IS, THERE WILL YOUR HEART BE ALSO!!!

We do not love people because they are perfect, but love propels us to see them as perfect. I love the Gospel hymn: "[1]HE LOOKED BEYOND MY FAULT, AND SAW MY NEED." Love changes the way we view everything in this life. It compels us to think different, talk different, act different and live different. There is no pain that love cannot heal, no obstacle that it cannot overcome, no weakness that it cannot strengthen, no darkness that it cannot lighten up, no shortcoming that it cannot overlook, no wrong that it cannot right, and no broken heart that it cannot mend. GOD IS LOVE!!! The more Christ-like we become, the more loving we are. The world does not really understand the real meaning of love because they do not know the One Who is Love.

May we all love God and others, every single day of our lives, and not just once in a year at Christmas time. “[2]Christmas 365 Days A Year” (Pastor Jack Hyles). Micah 7:18, “Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.” Jesus is precious!!!

1.1.46 Are There Many That Be Saved? (2020-03-20 02:40)

Luke 13:22-24, “And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem. Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.”

Jesus went through the cities and villages, teaching the people, making His way toward Jerusalem. Then someone asked Him a really good question: “Are there few that be saved?” That is interesting! I would have asked the question a different way: “Are there many that be saved?” Whoever that person was, they already had a predisposition to think that people are saved. It seems logical to me that not many people took heed to the things Jesus taught. Why else would some ask if there are “FEW” that be saved. This also tells me that Jesus was preaching the Gospel, trying to get people saved, which is likely why someone asked this question at all. Jesus was going soulwinning!

Let’s continue reading:

> When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are: Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets. But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out."

These are startling words from out LORD. In eternity MANY people will try to enter into Heaven. They will attempt to justify entrance through the Pearly Gates because they followed Jesus as their "Lord." Literally, they will say: "

LORD, LORD!

" Matthew 7:23-23, "Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." This is a very enlightening passage of Scripture, which teaches us that being religious WON'T get anybody into the Kingdom of God. Jesus plainly said in John 3:1-7 that,

"YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN"! There are no exceptions.

If you think the Coronavirus is causing fear and panic in people today, just wait until everybody dies and enters into eternity! Hebrews 10:31, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God."

Everybody and their dog is going to try to enter into the heavenly city, but

SHALL NOT BE ABLE

" (Luke 13:24b). Many will mention that they sat eating and drinking with the Lord, but Jesus will tell them He never knew them!

Others will say that they preached (prophesied) in Jesus' name, did MANY WONDERFUL WORKS in Jesus' name, and even cast out devils in Jesus' name. Notice in Matthew 7:22-23 that they keep mentioning the fact that they did everything IN JESUS' NAME. Yet, it wasn't acceptable to the LORD! You don't get to Heaven by doing good deeds in Jesus' name. You cannot please God in the flesh! There are literally millions of so-called "

ministries

around the world today, that do what they do

“IN JESUS NAME.” Search the internet and you’ll find everything from [1]boating ministries to [2]fishing ministries. I’m not kidding! There’s even a [3]bicycle ministry! I could mention thousands more so-called ministries.

” But dear friend, it is not a “

unless the [4]Gospel of free grace is being preached, and people are being led to the blessed Savior! I triple-dog dare you to go visit all those so-called

ministries

” and look for a Gospel presentation on their websites. You very likely won’t find anything telling you how to be saved, because they aren’t even saved!

Why aren’t all these dedicated people who think they serve God going to Heaven? Why are there “FEW” that be saved? Jesus tells us the answer in Matthew 7:21,

“Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

” John 6:40, “ And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.” There’s our answer is to see the Son as He is (the Christ), and BELIEVE on Him to save us! Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt of sin we could not pay. That is God’s G.R.A.C.E. (God’s Riches At Christ’s Expense).

—the Father’s “WILL”

We are all guilty sinners in the sight of a holy God (Romans 3:10-23). According to the Word of God, we all justly deserve to burn in the literal fires of Hell to pay for our own sins (Romans 6:23; Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8). If you dear sinner will receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He resurrected after being buried and dead for three days (1st Corinthians 15:1-4), YOU ARE SAVED! John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

" John 11:25-26,

"Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

" We receive the new birth in Jesus Christ, by simply BELIEVING on Him as our SAVIOR!

Are there

"FEW" that be saved?, asked one to Jesus. The Lord's answer was an affirmative, "YES!" There are indeed "FEW" that be saved, far and few between around the planet. When all is said and done " they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God " (Luke 13:29). All around the world today there are born-again Christians scattered about—a little here, and a little there.

Notice Verse 30, "

And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

" Everyone thinks that the Catholic Pope is going to Heaven, but he has an everlasting reservation in the Lake of Fire! Jesus said that many publicans (tax cheats) and harlots are going to Heaven, but the religious Pharisees aren't (Matthew 21:31). That is simply because being religious, good, dedicated, devout, moral or following Jesus as one's LORD, does not produce the second birth! You MUST realize that you are a guilty sinner under the condemnation of God's law (Romans 3:19-20). Otherwise why would you need a Savior? You must realize your need for redemption. If you will come to Jesus Christ as a needy sinner, He will not turn you away. You have His solemn promise in John 6:37, "All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." We don't believe because God chose us; God chose us because we believe! That is we believers are called " in the Bible.

Today, there are counterfeit churches everywhere, filled with unsaved people. These false churches include: Mormons, Seventh-Day Adventists, Lutherans, Roman Catholics, Jehovah's Witnesses, Church of Christ, Unitarian Universalist, Episcopalian, Church of England, to name but a few. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. That is exactly what happened to the people in Matthew 7:22-23. You don't get to Heaven by serving Christ, nor by following Jesus as your "

LORD,

" nor by surrendering to Him, nor by inviting Jesus into your life, nor by turning away from your sins; you get saved by completely RESTING in Christ's finished work of redemption. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

1.1.47 Salvation Is Simple (2020-03-20 03:30)

How easy is it to get saved? As easy as walking through a door—"I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture" (John 10:9). How easy is it to get saved? As easy as drinking a cup of water—"If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water" (John 4:10). Oh listen my friend, salvation is a free gift from God, paid for by Jesus' literal, physical, precious blood which He shed for our sins (1st Peter 1:18,19; Hebrews 9:12).

Please don't listen to some false prophet who tells you that you cannot be saved simply by trusting upon the Lord Jesus Christ to forgive your sins. Kindly said, Dr. John MacArthur is a false prophet! Ray Comfort is a false prophet! Paul Washer is a false prophet! Jack Chick, Don Piper, and Kirk Cameron are all false prophets! Why? All these men teach that believing on the Lord Jesus Christ for forgiveness of sins is not enough to be saved. Jack Chick requires lost sinners to "be willing to turn from sin" to be saved. This is a false gospel. Jesus never asked us to be willing to give up anything to be saved—It is the gift of God. Salvation is receiving, not giving. You don't make Jesus Lord, He is Lord!

Salvation is easy! It is so easy to be saved that even a small child can be saved simply by BELIEVING on the name of Jesus. [1]Did you know that 85 % of all Christians get saved between the ages of 4 and 14? A child needs to be taught that when they steal cookies, throw tantrums, lie and refuse to listen to Mom and Dad, they are sinning against God. Jesus loves them, which is why he went to the cross to pay for everyone's sins. If a child is old enough to understand these basic truths, they are enlightened enough to be saved.

Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." What is so difficult about that? Why do men like Ray Comfort and Paul Washer complicate the Gospel into a lie, saying that a changed life is required for genuine salvation? Although I believe these men are sincere, they are dead wrong. "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death" (Proverb 14:12).

Do believers have a license to sin? Yes, technically! Certainly, no one has God's permission or blessing to sin (2nd Corinthians 5:10); but if a believer wants to go kill somebody, it won't affect their salvation one bit. To teach otherwise is self-righteousness. Romans 4:5-6 proclaims that salvation is without works. A man's faith is counted for righteousness. I'm not saying it's okay for believers to live in sin, not at all (Romans 3:31). God chastises (disciplines) and scourges (whips) His children when they sin (Hebrews 12:6-8). I'm simply saying that eternal life is a free gift from God (Romans 5:15; 6:23) which has absolutely NOTHING to do with the life we live (Ephesians 2:8,9).

Like it or not, God promises eternal life to anyone who simply receives Christ's death on the cross, burial and resurrection (i.e., 'The Gospel') as full payment for their sins, regardless of their lifestyle. It's easy to be saved. Repentance concerning salvation is a change of mind—a change of mind about what you want to do to get to Heaven, to what God says you have to do to get to Heaven. Repentance is from WRONG THINKING to get saved, not from WRONG LIVING to reform your behavior! Our life doesn't transform as we REPENT; but rather, as our mind is RENEWED by studying the Word of God (Romans 12:1-2). We don't grow in repentance, we grow in the milk of the Word (1st Peter 2:2).

There is much debate over the meaning of repentance, but if you study the purpose of the Mosaic law in the Scriptures, it is simply to show us that we are hopeless sinners incapable of saving ourselves (Romans 3:19). Thus, the law "BRINGS US" (Galatians 3:24-26) to Christ to be saved by God's righteousness through faith, because we have no righteousness of our own to offer God (Isaiah 64:6; Romans 10:3-4; Philippians 3:9). There is absolutely nothing in the Bible that requires a person to turn away from sinning or surrender their life to Christ in order to be saved.

Christ died on the cross for our sins, was buried, and raised up from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). If that's your hope for Heaven, you are saved. Christ died, that's history; Christ died for me, that's salvation! Do you believe that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God? Simply come as a helpless guilty sinner (as you are) and place your trust in the 'GOOD NEWS,' completely RESTING in the Lord Jesus Christ and you will be saved immediately, irreversibly and eternally. It is easy to be saved! Don't ever allow anyone to deceive you, trying to convince you that salvation is difficult and hard. The only hard part is not tampering with the simplicity of salvation by faith alone in Christ. Men tend to complicate things, but God made it very easy, free and simple to be saved.

Acts 13:39, "And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses." I love that Bible verse! Acts 13:39 means that we don't have to make an effort to stop sinning to be saved, nor does God require any person to labor in works to prove that they are saved. To say otherwise is adding works to grace, and then grace is no more grace (Romans 11:6). It is a wicked sin, heresy, and a false plan of salvation to teach people, to make a full surrender to Christ, count the cost, forsake the world, stop sinning, intend to reform, start a relationship with Jesus, or commit to serving Christ as 'Lord' AS A REQUIREMENT to be saved. None of that is The Gospel!

There are NO CONDITIONS of salvation except to realize that you are a hopeless, guilty, needy sinner in God's sight, incapable of saving yourself; therefore, you completely REST (Hebrews 4:10-11) in Christ for redemption. Jesus died on the cross for our sins, was buried, and bodily resurrected from the dead after three days. That is The Gospel according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." Romans 4:5, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

Romans 10:13, "For whosoever shall CALL upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

I used to wonder if I had enough faith to be saved. What if I didn't have enough faith at the time I remember being saved? What if I didn't get saved? How could I know if I had enough faith? How do you measure faith? I remember attending a revival meeting at our Baptist church in Chicago as a teenager, and I learned a wonderful truth which I have never forgotten. I will share it with you now.

Let's look at Romans 10:13, "For whosoever shall CALL upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." What a precious promise from God! If we will only call upon the Lord Jesus for salvation, that is all the faith we need to be saved.

How much faith do you need to be saved? ... JUST ENOUGH!

If you have "just enough" faith to put your trust in Jesus Christ, that's all the faith that is required. As a matter of fact, the more doubt you have, the greater your faith if you simply act on the belief. If you have so much doubt that you WILL NOT believe on Christ, then you have a serious problem. However, if you have "JUST ENOUGH" faith to take God at His Word and obey the Bible, by believing THE GOSPEL, then you are doing exactly what God expects of you.

To "call upon" the name of the Lord simply means that you go to Jesus Christ to be saved,. Simply receive His death, burial and resurrection as full-payment for your sins. This is the 'GOOD NEWS' by which we are saved, " to save them that believe " (1st Corinthians 1:21b). Christ died, that's history; Christ died for me, that's salvation! John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name."

Jesus never one time spoke of degrees of believing. Jesus simply told us to believe on Him. John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and BELIEVETH ON HIM, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." If you "believe" upon Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, that is all that matters. Do you believe Jesus can save you? Do you recognize yourself as a needy sinner? Do you believe you deserve to go to Hell because of your sins? Do you believe Jesus died on the cross and shed His blood to pay for your sins? Do you believe He was buried and raised up from the dead three days later? If that 'GOOD NEWS' is your only hope for eternal life, then you have it my friend! You are born-again into the Kingdom of God!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved.

Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross.

If you have "JUST ENOUGH" faith, to place your reliance in Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, you are saved! This is what Romans 10:13 teaches. You don't need to spend countless hours worrying over whether or not you have enough faith. If you have "JUST ENOUGH" faith to "CALL UPON THE NAME OF THE LORD," that's all the faith you need to be saved. Either you "believe" or you don't. I believe!

1.1.49 The Beautiful Gospel Of Free Grace (2020-03-20 08:30)

1st Corinthians 15:1, 3-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel... how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

Someone has accused fundamental Baptists like myself of preaching a Gospel of "cheap grace." Why my friend, it is not only "cheap," God's grace is completely "free"! Salvation is entirely the free gift of God, because Jesus Christ paid for it with His own precious blood. 1st Peter 1:18-19, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot." The price for our redemption was Jesus' precious blood. In that sense, grace is priceless!

What exactly is the Gospel? The word "Gospel" means "Good News" or "Glad Tidings." There is no need to guess what the "Gospel" is because the Bible plainly tells us. The "Gospel" is the GOOD NEWS of Christ's DEATH on the cross for our sins, His BURIAL and bodily RESURRECTION three days later. The BAD NEWS is that we were all born into the world as sinners, and unless a person believes (relies upon) the GOOD NEWS they will die in their sins, perishing into Hell forever and ever without hope. That is what the Bible teaches. John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." God's holy wrath abides upon all Christ-rejecters! Romans 5:8-9, "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him."

To simplify, "THE GOSPEL" is:

1. Christ DIED on the cross for our sins.
2. He was BURIED.
3. Jesus physically RESURRECTED from the dead after three days.

If you simply believe (solely trust) the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, the risen Christ, Who became the sacrifice for YOUR SINS on the cross, paying your sin debt so that you could obtain the free gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life, then you are saved...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

We are saved by BELIEVING (placing our confidence) in "the Gospel," which is the power of God unto salvation. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." It is that simple to be saved. If you admit that you are a needy sinner in God's sight, and you receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried and bodily resurrected three days later—YOU ARE IMMEDIATELY, SECURELY AND FOREVER SAVED!!! Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through [1]receiving Him by faith.

> —Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from the MP3 sermon titled: "[2]God's Reversal Of Psalm 51"

Salvation is Completely Free to Anyone Who Wants It

If you stop reading right here, there is nothing else that you need to know to be saved, but if you'd like to know more, please hear me out. Here is a great quote from Dr. Harry Ironside (1876-1951)...

> "THE Gospel needs only to be preached in the power of the Holy Spirit to hold its own against every imitation and substitute that the mind of the natural man energized by Satan can devise." —Pastor Harry Ironside, from his sermon, "[3]ANOTHER GOSPEL."

Religion wants to fit us with glasses, but the Lord wants to open our eyes! Thank God for the truth of His precious Word, which is a lamp unto our feet. Psalm 119:105, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." America's churches influence the world, so if Satan can corrupt our churches here at home, then he can corrupt the world. The United States sends out more missionaries than any other nation. Sadly, there is MUCH heresy and false teaching circulating on the radio, internet, television and in our churches nowadays concerning what a person must do to be saved. One of my favorite MP3 sermons on salvation is by Pastor Jack Hyles, called: "[4]Fundamentalist Heresy!"

One of the most ungodly false prophets of our time is [5]Pastor John MacArthur of Grace To You ministry in California, who complicates The Gospel, foolishly stating in his book, “HARD TO BELIEVE”:

> “Don’t believe anyone who says it’s easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God’s Son His life, and it’ll cost you the same thing.” [emphasis added]
> — [6]Dr. John MacArthur , Grace To You, an updated quote from his book ’Hard To Believe’, page 93.

PASTOR MACARTHUR LIES!!! Getting saved won’t cost you ANYTHING! Salvation did cost God His only begotten Son, and it did cost Jesus His life, which is exactly why it WON’T COST YOU! I can’t even believe that Mr. MacArthur is teaching this trash! What saith the Scripture? Acts 8:20a, “But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased...” John MacArthur is of the Devil! Shame on any preacher who says that salvation will COST YOU! Read the plain statements of the Word of God for yourself...

> Romans 3:23-26, “For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.”

We are saved BY FAITH alone. It’ll cost you NOTHING! Repeatedly in the Bible we read the words “FREE” and “GIFT.” Romans 3:24 says we are FREELY JUSTIFIED BY HIS GRACE!!! What part of that doesn’t John MacArthur understand? A gift cannot cost the recipient anything, in order to remain “a gift.” Eternal life won’t cost you anything!!! MacArthur spits on God’s grace by teaching that IT’LL COST YOU! No, it cost Jesus His life, body and blood! The Devil sure is subtle. Kindly, get it through your head dear reader—JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

I attended the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for one year in 2014, where they shamefully honored, promoted and exalted John MacArthur. When I tried to warn their Senior Pastor about [7]MacArthur's false teachings, he drove me out of the church instead. As I just quoted to you from Mr. MacArthur himself, he does not believe it is easy to be saved; but rather, he says IT WILL COST YOU EVERYTHING!!! Who are you going to believe—John MacArthur who says it is not easy to be saved, or "the simplicity that is in Christ" (2nd Corinthians 11:3b)? Kindly, Mr. MacArthur is a theological liar! My friend, it is so easy, free and simple to be saved, that all God requires of you to be saved, is to [8]BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen!

Sincerely, I love the people at Harvest Baptist Church, God knows, but they are blinded fools following fools!!! They use, sell and promote the Devil's counterfeit Bible versions (as does Bob Jones University, [9]cult headquarters), they love John MacArthur's Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation). Humbly, I came along (since 2014) as the best friend their church has ever had, trying to HELP THEM SEE, but they berated me and drove me out of their church instead. Respectfully, SHAME ON HARVEST'S LEADERS!!! The Lord rebuke thee! Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged." Psalm 118:6, "The LORD is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?" Proverb 12:17, "He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit."

> "You don't have to worry about a church, as long as God's Spirit is there!" —[10]Pastor Danny Castle (an awesome quote from the intro to the sermon: "[11]Starting Over | [12]MP3"

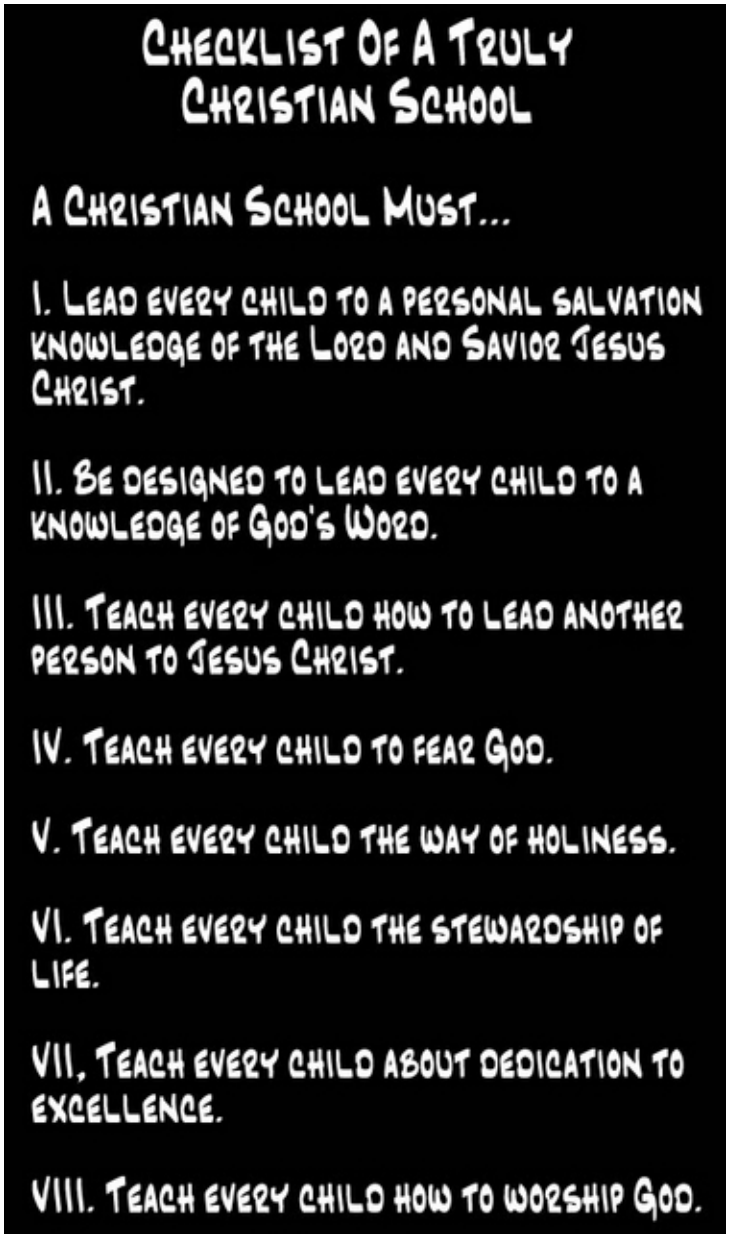
1.1.50 Checklist Of A Truly Christian School (2020-03-20 13:16)

I gleaned the following helpful advice from Attorney David Gibbs Jr. in the September 2019 newsletter publication of 'THE LEGAL ALERT.' Brother Gibbs says:

Weighed In The Balance



Is your school truly Christian? You grade your students in the classroom, so take a few minutes to grade yourself. How well are you building the following characteristics into your school? Do you need improvement? be honest with yourself because one day you will be faced with the task of giving an honest account to God for how well you fulfilled what you are called to do. What do you need to work on in your educational ministry. Do it!

I have traveled thousands of miles since the day I first tried to answer the question, "What is it that really makes our schools Christian?" I have been in many courtrooms, visited many Christian schools, and spoken to thousands of Christian educators since that day,

I am more convinced today than ever that these are the characteristics that make a school truly Christian, it is critical that we examine pour Christian schools to make certain that these are the foundations upon which they are built. Anything less than this would be a failure yo ourselves, our students, the parents, and most importantly to our God Who has called us to the sacred mission

Do not forget your purpose. Do not forget why it is that you are Christian. Do not forget that you are to walk in wisdom towards them that are without. Do not forget that you are to redeem the time because of what shall be asked of you when you stand before the Lord Jesus Christ in that day when you shall give an answer. I pray that your school will be evaluated and found truly Christian.

You only educate a child once. As the years pass, the opportunity to educate any given child vanishes. Scripture teaches that all your works will be weighed in the balance of God’s Holy Word. I pray that we will fulfill God’s command to properly train this generation.

That’s some practical advice for Christians. This article is an excerpt from Dr. David Gibbs Jr.’s book titled: “

Navigating The Christian Life,

” available from The Christian Law Association.

1.1.51 He That Believeth Shall Not Be Ashamed (2020-03-20 19:30)

Romans 10:11, “For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.”

What Does Romans 10:11 Mean?

I have heard some radio preachers butcher this Scripture, teaching heresy. I’ve heard numerous preachers teach that a person is not saved if they are “ of Jesus. That is simply not true my friend. Peter was ashamed of Jesus, even denying that he knew Him (John 18:25-27). That is not what Romans 10:11 means at all.

The Greek word for

here is “kataischuno” and means “put to shame, disgrace.” God is saying that whosoever trusts upon the Lord will not be put to shame, i.e., he will not be disgraced.

Romans 10:11 is a quote from the Old Testament. Isaiah 28:16, “Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth SHALL NOT MAKE HASTE.” If we simply cross-reference the Scripture, then we easily find the correct interpretation of Romans 10:11. The Bible is not so lengthy that it cannot be read through in a few months by the average person. Certainly if we read the Holy Bible on a regular basis, we are going to read Bible passages that remind us of other passages, and that is how we learn the Bible.

The New Testament quotes the Old Testament HUNDREDS of times. Scholars set that number of quotes at roughly 300. In such passages, we already know that we need to refer to the Old Testament, if we want to correctly interpret that New Testament passage. The Old Testament is the New Testament CONCEALED; and the New Testament is the Old Testament REVEALED. Such is the case in Romans 10:11a, "For the scripture saith..." Romans 10:11 plainly tells us that the apostle Paul is quoting the Old Testament. Unfortunately, lazy preachers fail to look at what the Old Testament says and end up teaching false doctrine.

Isaiah 28:16 plainly reveals what Romans 10:11 means—God is PROMISING that whosoever trusts upon the Lord for salvation will NOT be disgraced, will not be disappointed, will not be let down. JESUS NEVER FAILS!!!

1.1.52 Churches That Don't Want The Truth (2020-03-21 00:43)

Jeremiah 5:31, "The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?"

One of the hardest things to stomach these days is churches that don't want the truth. IT'S HAPPENING EVERYWHERE!!! In March of 2015, a shocking [1]20,562 Presbyterian ministers in 10,083 churches approved of same-sex marriage. Those churches have abandoned the truth that homosexuality is a grievous sin in God's sight. Prior to 1962, homosexuality was a punishable crime in all 50 states. What changed? I'll tell you, the U.S. Supreme Court removed and banned God's Holy Word and prayer [2]from America's classrooms in 1962-1963.

I had once attended a pseudo (false) Independent Baptist church (i.e., Harvest Baptist Church on Guam) whose radio show promoted the saying, "GOD WANTS US TO SPEAK UP, BUT SATAN WANTS US TO SHUT UP!" Ironically, they (the pastors) called me into the church office and told me to SHUT UP about the purity of the King James Bible! They told me to SHUT UP about all the new corrupt Bible versions. They told me to SHUT UP about Dr. John MacArthur's heresy on the blood, who denies that Jesus' blood is in Heaven on the Mercy Seat. They told me to SHUT UP about Martin Luther, who taught sacramental salvation still 12 years after he allegedly got saved in 1517. They told me to SHUT UP about the Satanic lie of Lordship Salvation. They told me to SHUT UP and not to expose Rick Warren, Billy Graham, Paul Washer, Ray Comfort, Charles Stanley, Beth Moore, Pat Robertson, Joel Osteen, John Hagee, James Dobson and Jimmy Swagger's false teachings on salvation.

Harvest Baptist Church told me to SHUT UP, accusing me of causing confusion and divisiveness in the church... FOR TELLING THE TRUTH!!! They wanted me to sit there in the pew each Sunday, sing and tithe, go through all the motions like a good puppet; while wearing a gag over my mouth, not being allowed to share fundamental Christian books with those sitting next to me, not permitted to share fundamental sermons with others. They called Dr. Jack Hyles "a cult" and said they forbade me from sharing Brother Hyles' sermons, especially anything proclaiming the exclusivity of the King James Bible. This is an Independent Baptist Church! What a crying shame. I literally left the so-called "church" in tears, realizing that I could not support such wickedness and apostasy.

But I desperately needed a church family, and I missed my friends I had made at Harvest Baptist Church for the year I attended in 2013-2015. So, in loneliness, I humbly requested in 2017 if I could please return, go figure, just to attend church services. I had learned some good things while I attended Harvest. When I wrote to them in 2017, I shared many quotes with the pastor, that I had learned from him while attending there in 2014. I was like a sponge in church, absorbing all the good I could. I got the idea for my "[3]The World At Our Doorstep" missionary page at Harvest, during their 2014 mission's conference. So in early 2017, I humbly offered to meet with the pastors in their church office to make things right, if they thought that would be helpful. They couldn't have cared less, heartless.

> "We're in a battle for the Word of God, that's the big battle!"
> —[4]BATTLE OF THE AGES (an MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles, "The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!")

Again, I humbled myself, trying to make things right with them on three occasions, but to no avail, because they are holding A GRUDGE. They are devil pastors, using devil Bible perversions, who don't care about the purity of God's Word!!! I promised them that if they'd simply let me come back to sit in church, I wouldn't be a root of bitterness. God knows my heart, that I simply wanted to attend church, and hopefully meet a Christian wife. Can you blame a guy for not wanting to be alone after 14 years anymore? They mocked me and lied about the matter, hurting me. I explained my situation honestly to the pastor, as a friend. Instead, he treated me as an enemy, FOR TELLING THE TRUTH. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

I just wanted to go to church and be loved and love others, but they told me to go jump off a bridge, literally saying, “GO ELSEWHERE!” Well I have no where else to go! It’s not that easy and they know it, but they’re heathen jerks. So I gave the matter a lot of thought, and the truth hit me that these sorry devil pastors are indifferent toward the truth, they couldn’t care less about the purity of God’s Word, they couldn’t care less about the clarity and integrity of the Gospel, and I’m casting my pearl before swine by trying to reason with such ungodly men!!! SO BE IT!!! I will expose false prophets anywhere I find them!!!!!!! Some of the most ungodly people in the world are religious men, who unfortunately stand behind a pulpit every Sunday, misleading God’s flock concerning the truth of the Gospel and the Word of God. Instead, they promote counterfeit Bible versions and require you to “turn away from sinful ways” to be saved.

I wish they could all know the horrible, chronic, burning, agonizing, pain that I feel constantly in my neck, and how it afflicts me. I live on pain medications, thank God! It’s not easy to just, “GO ELSEWHERE!” I’ve got a large independent Baptist church 5 minutes down the street from me, Harvest Baptist Church, that has banned me from even attending church services, simply because I took a biblical stand for THE TRUTH! I wasn’t rude or mean about it, I was as kind and proper as could be. I did nothing in secret. I openly shared books with the pastor, and sermons, as a friend does. I love the folks at Harvest, God knows my heart, but I love THE TRUTH most of all (and that’s what God commands every believer to do). As visiting Evangelist Tom Ferrell said at Harvest Baptist Church (of all places), “A friend helps a friend to see!” We’ll, when I did that they counted me their enemy, as they did the apostle Paul at the corrupt church in Galatia. Kindly, God will judge between me and them. Romans 3:4, “God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.” I love that Scripture! It simply means that if you always speak THE TRUTH, then you will be justified in your sayings when God judges you. Dr. Jack Hyles excellently put it this way...

> [5]BATTLE OF THE AGES (MP3 by Dr. Hyles, “The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!”)

> [6]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES (MP3, Dr. Hyles; The Alexandrian Bible crowd are God’s enemies!)

Well, Bob Jones University and their alumni are ARE GOD'S ENEMY, and God's enemies are my enemies too! Psalms 139:21-22, "Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee? I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies." David didn't hate the people, he hated what they were. I don't hate anybody, but I hate what God hates, and that is EVIL (Psalms 97:10). Nothing is destroying churches today like the corrupt modern Bible perversions! God commands me to hate evil. Bob Jones University and their shameful alumni are God's enemies, because they all promote corruptible seed (i.e., the modern Alexandrian [7]Bible revisions, which the [8]Jehovah's Witnesses also use), and who deny the verbal inspiration of the Holy Bible. When we speak about inspiration, [9]we are very much talking about the PURITY of God's Word.

Some of the lying staff—immodest, ungrateful, snobby, unfriendly—at Harvest Baptist Church are no better than the shallow bosses they work for! What a horrible group! Since I expose Mormons, Roman Catholics, Seventh-Day Adventists and other heretical groups, reprobate Baptists who promote a corrupt gospel, promote false prophets, and promote counterfeit Bible versions don't get a special free pass, I expose THEM TOO!!! I'm just calling it as I see it. God knows that I am not bitter at Harvest, I am disgusted! God Himself vomits out "LUKEWARM" churches (Revelation 3:15-16). So I'm in good company with God. I'm gladly [10]outside the gate with Jesus!!! Today's shallow, indifferent, lukewarm, uncaring, compromised, spineless, bad pastors utterly disgust the Lord!

> "We need to understand that Elders are to be respected by default, but when they start teaching lies and wickedness and perversion and filth, at that point they've just lost respect right there. They've lost their right to be respected!" —Pastor Steven Anderson, a quote from the needful sermon, "[11]The Baby Boomer Generation | [12]MP3"

And if you walk with God it will disgust you too! Literally, the true Church is being driven underground in the America, because if you attend the average so-called "church" nowadays, you're not going to hear the Gospel, you're going to here the satanic lies of Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation and "turning from sins" heresies) or some other false plan of salvation!!! Most churches are using corruptible seed instead of the trustworthy, incorruptible, inspired and preserved King James Bible! If your church teaches Calvinism (i.e., what John MacArthur, Ray Comfort sand Paul Washer preach), then you are in a religious cult!!! Respectfully, Harvest is a cult!

They literally laughed in my face when I tried to hand them another copy of Dr. Al Lacy's awesome book, "[13]NIV: THE ANTICHRIST'S BIBLE." Isn't that something, professed men of God, pastors of a church, mocking and scorning THE TRUTH! It didn't come as a surprise that one of those shameful pastors boasted to me that he had recently attended a [14]homosexual AWAB meeting. My, oh my! [15]AWAB is of the Devil, straight out of the pits of Hell beneath. Our nation is going to Hell because our churches are going to Hell. This is God's website and I'll promote whatever I believe He wants me to preach, and this is what the Lord has laid upon my heart!!!

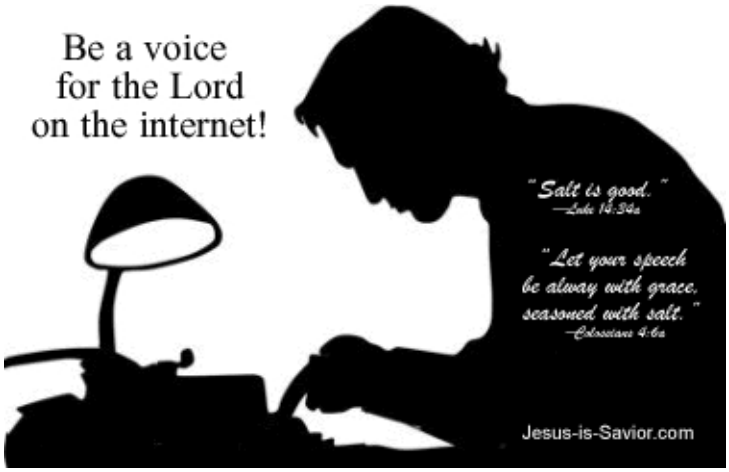
Literally, the heresy of [16]Lordship Salvation is a false plan of salvation, which does not produce the new birth in Christ Jesus. The Apostle [17]Peter preached the Gospel to Cornelius, and Cornelius believed and was saved. Peter did NOT tell Cornelius to do even one thing to be saved. NOTHING!!! Peter simply told the story of Jesus crucified on the cross and risen three days later. Cornelius believed the Gospel and was immediately saved. The lie of Lordship Salvation requires a high price to be saved. That's the [18]Satanic plan of salvation of Billy Graham, who says salvation will cost you a high price.

You cannot reason with the average pastor or Christian leader today concerning THE TRUTH. [19]Heresies are creeping into our fundamental churches by the hour. The churches are boggled down with the [20]heresy of Zionism (Pastor J. Vernon McGee refutes Zionism), worshipping the present-day [21]apostate nation of secular Israel (MP3 by Dr. Texe Marrs exposing Zionism). Most believers, including Christian leaders, are woefully ignorant of the Holy Scriptures. From the government scandal of 501c3 state-licensed organizations, to the [22]heresy of a Young Earth, the churches are being deceived.

Perhaps the most difficult truth to convince pastors of is that a diabolical New World Order exists. Most pastors actually think Islam was behind the 911 attacks, buying into the bogus official story hook, line and sinker. WAKE UP!!! The Illuminati (the Luciferian worshipping elite) masterminded, executed and orchestrated the [23]911 attacks (MP3 by 32-year New York City firefighter and police detective veteran, Rudy Dent) as a pretext to invade the Middle East and build a police state in the United States!

I hear pastors spewing hatred for Arabs and Muslims, while praising apostate Israel. The Jewish Talmud teaches that Jesus' mother was savagely raped by a Roman solider, denying the virgin birth. The Talmud says Jesus was boiled in human excrement and urine. Why don't pastors expose the Jewish religion of Judaism? Shameful Evangelist John Hagee is so corrupt and bought off by Zionists that he says Jews don't need to be born-again, because they are special and have their own covenant with God. However, Jesus warned Nicodemus (a religious leader) that unless a man (including every Jew) is born again, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God (John 3:3). Dr. Hagee says that Jesus never claimed to be the Messiah. Jesus did in fact claim to be the Messiah to the Samaritan woman at the well. John 4:25-26, "The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things. Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he." John Hagee is a Zionist false prophet!

I am wearied with today's false churches. As long as the money is coming in, nearly all churches don't care about THE TRUTH. It is almost unheard of these days to hear a sermon on Hell, fire and damnation in a big mega-church. You'll never hear Joel Osteen preach on the Lake of Fire. That's how those groups got to be so big, by tickling people's ears and scratching their backs with weak-kneed sermonettes. Literally, America is dying because of the woeful lack of Bible-preaching.



There's nothing worse than a group of affluent people who horde a church like greedy dogs, like they own it instead of God. I wouldn't stay in a church for 5-minutes that is controlled by a board of directors and/or a pulpit committee, where the pastor is hen-pecked and not free to preach as he ought. Our churches are filled with self-righteous religious hypocrites, who are as phony as a 3-dollar-bill, haughty and arrogant, never having known the depths of sin nor the depths of God's love, grace and mercy. Thus, they are religious SNOBS! Truthfully, they are steeped in deep sin themselves (pride, arrogance, self-righteousness, hate, envy, gossip and judging), but they don't see it, unable to see the forest for the trees. Some of the rottenest people you'll meet are devout churchgoers. One day they're treating you like a brother, and when you fail to dot your i's and cross your t's (going along with their program), they treat you like they never knew you. That's the way many religions operate, and it is foreign to Biblical Christianity. The Bible does not teach anyone to join a religious denomination. A 501c3 business is not a church. [24]What Is A Church?

I love a church that loves THE TRUTH! I love a church that has a bus ministry! I love a church that preaches, uses and promotes only the King James Bible. I love a church that fights against sin in their community. I love a church that stands against the Devil's corrupt Bible versions. I love a church that teaches women ought not wear pants. What a joke to hear a pastor teaching about a new form of modesty, while most of the women on church staff are wearing pants, and they think that is modesty because the pastor approves of it. What a sad joke! People are leaving the churches to find God and real Christianity. Most pastors are merely collecting a pay check. God give us some men of God, who are willing to work a secular job while pastoring, so he can preach THE TRUTH without worrying about getting paid. That's why Jesus said NO MAN can serve God and mammon (wealth). You must choose between money and God, it cannot be both. If money is a priority, truth will be compromised!

There's a lot of false Christianity in the world. If there's one place in all the world where THE TRUTH ought to be welcomed, it is in a New Testament Church. Tragically, most churches don't want to hear the truth, and so they reject it. GOD WANTS US TO SPEAK UP, BUT SATAN WANTS US TO SHUT UP! We'll, I'm speaking up for Jesus!!!!!!! You just keep using your counterfeit Bibles. You just keep promoting the satanic perversion of the plan of salvation, called, LORDSHIP SALVATION! You just keep promoting wolves in sheep's clothing like Rick Warren, Paul Washer, John MacArthur and Martin Luther. You just keep going along to get along with homosexuals, false prophets, reprobates and ecumenical devils. AS FOR ME AND MY HOUSE, WE WILL SERVE THE LORD! (Joshua 24:15).

1.1.53 Don’t Take Any Wooden Nickles (2020-03-21 14:56)

You’ve probably heard the popular phrase—“

Don’t take any wooden nickels!

” Well, there are no wooden nickels (at least not today in U.S. currency circulation). The saying simply means don’t get ripped off, because there are a lot of swindlers in the world. That is the reason why the U.S. Food And Drug Administration was created (thankfully) in 1906, because swindlers were actually selling motor oil advertised as ’cooking oil’! People were getting sick and some dying, so something had to be done to protect the public.

Likewise, we really need a ’U.S. Department Of The Gospel,’ because people are already spiritually dead and many are dying the ’second death’ (Revelation 20:6), being given a religious placebo called ’Lordship Salvation,’ which cannot save them! I am being facetious of course, but serious at the same time! The junk theology circulating in the churches today is far more deadly than the media-hyped Coronavirus scare! The Coronavirus at worse will put you 6 feet under, but the following heresies will send you to down to Hell forever, if you trust in them to get you to Heaven...

1. Doing your best
2. Trying to be a good and moral person
3. Keeping the Ten Commandments

4. Obeying God’s laws
5. Making Jesus the Lord of your life
6. Committing your life to Jesus
7. Following Jesus
8. Enduring until the end (perseverance)
9. Confirmation
10. Penances
11. Last rites
12. Member of a lodge
13. Repent of your sins
14. Turn from your sins
15. Church membership or Christian parents
16. Tithing
17. Good works and deeds
18. Water Baptism
19. Keeping the sacraments
20. Going to mass
21. Worship the Bible
22. Believe in or submit to the god of your choice
23. Love God and your fellow man
24. Believe that Jesus was a good man, teacher or prophet
25. Trust in Jesus and serve Him
26. Surrender your life to Christ
27. Give up your sins for good
28. Live a lifestyle of repentance
29. Be ’willing’ to turn from sin
30. Do sacraments
31. Ask Jesus into your heart
32. Invite Jesus into your life
33. Just trust Jesus
34. Confess Christ publicly

35. Keep the Sabbath
36. Forsake the world
37. Turn over a new leaf
38. Live the Christian life
39. Speak in Tongues
40. Reformation or rehabilitation

NONE of the aforementioned things can save a person! In fact, if you ADD any of these to God's plan of salvation, you will assuredly spend eternity in the Lake of Fire, because you are not wholly trusting the blessed Savior!

Here is the ONLY way to be saved

—Realize you are a guilty, needy sinner, and believe on the Lord Jesus Christ as your personal Savior (John 3:16). Simply believe the 'GOOD NEWS' ('GOSPEL') that Christ died on the cross to pay for your sins, He was buried, and three days later He miraculously resurrected bodily from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4; Romans 1:16). It is not enough to "

just trust Jesus,

" because the cross must be included, upon which Christ died to pay for your sins and mine. You must believe that Jesus died and was buried for three days, and then He miraculously raised up alive from the dead by the power of God. This is THE GOSPEL, by which we are saved, " to them that believe

" (1st Corinthians 1:21b).

Regarding religion today, there are truckloads of 'WOODEN NICKLES' abounding in the churches worldwide! Please don't be deceived dear friend, your soul's eternal fate is at stake. Eternal life is NOT a process, it is an instantaneous NEW BIRTH. It is NOT a matter of "doing," it is a matter of "resting" in what Christ has already done to pay for your sins on the cross (Hebrews 4:10-11).

It IS an understanding of Who Jesus Christ is (the Christ), What He has done (He paid for your sins through the cross) and Why He has done it for you (because God loves you and doesn't want you to burn in Hell forever). Then you will hopefully see the wisdom of deciding to believe The Gospel for what God promised—Eternal Life in Heaven. Titus 1:2,

In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

” Please don’t take any wooden nickles!

1.1.54 Americans Are Hypocrites On Human Rights Abuses (2020-03-21 17:22)

Kindly, Americans are hypocrites! We impose sanctions on Africans in Zimbabwe for their human rights abuses, while American murder their children by abortion. Our wicked U.S. government permits sodomites to legally adopt children to raise, who are denied either a mother or a father, deprived of a normal childhood and life. THAT IS THE ULTIMATE CHILD ABUSE! If that offends you, it is only because you are an unrighteous person, a child of the Devil.

Somebody sent me this article today about Zimbabwe...

> Zimbabwe Official Says Coronavirus Punishes U.S. For Sanctions

The United States is just as ungodly, and guilty of violating of human rights as are the Zimbabwean government. [2]Wikipedia:

> “According to human rights organisations such as Amnesty International and Human Rights Watch the government of Zimbabwe violates the rights to shelter, food, freedom of movement and residence, freedom of assembly and the protection of the law. There are assaults on the media, the political > opposition, civil society activists, and human rights defenders. ...The law enforcement agencies are a major source of human rights abuses in Zimbabwe. According to Human Rights Watch there have been a growing number of cases in which police have assaulted and tortured opposition supporters and civil society activists."

I keep reading insane article online bragging that abortion numbers have decreased in recent years, as if it is acceptable to murder 1,000,000 babies every year in the United States instead of 4,000,000! One dead baby is TOO MANY! And now the ungodly State of Illinois (aka, 'The Cut-Throat State,' as my grandfather called it), now [3]legalizes murdering children by abortion right up to the time they are born .
A developing fetus in its mothers womb is A CHILD! If that body growing in the womb weren't a living being with a heartbeat, then he or she wouldn't have to be aborted. Abortion stops a beating heart! Remember, abortion doesn't make a woman unpregnant, it just makes her the mother of a DEAD BABY!

If you are a woman who has already undergone an abortion, I am so sorry for your loss. I am not judging nor condemning you, God forbid. I am a big sinner too! All you can do is confess the sin you have committed to God, and receive His love and forgiveness by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, and move on with your new life in Christ. My intent in writing this article isn't to hurt anybody's feelings, but to emphasis our woeful hypocrisy as Americans! We take it upon ourselves to police the world, to decide how people should live, and then we impose sanctions on them (denying them foods and much needed supplies). In 1962, homosexuality was a punishable crime in all 50 states, and the United States never would have tried to FORCE other nations to legalize same-sex marriage rights, but since 2015 the [4]U.S. government has become the poster boy for same-sex rights.

My friend, our holy God hasn't changed (Malachi 3:6). Hebrews 13:8, "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever." God's inspired Holy Word hasn't changed in thousands of years. Matthew 24:35, "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away." Truth is still TRUTH! Sin is still SIN! Right is still RIGHT! It is humanity that is constantly changing, fleeing from one whim and trend to the next, going UP and DOWN like a seesaw children's play ride.

If you want to talk about human rights abuses, consider the poor children placed into custodial care of homosexuals. Every child has a right to a Mommy and a Daddy, not two Mommies. America is sick folks! If you think God is okay with Adam and Steve, instead of Adam and Eve, I feel sorry for you!

Job 20:5, "That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment? " Americans have become sinfully proud and stiff-necked. Once the liberal media brainwashes us to believe that something is right, no matter how wrong and immoral it may be, we'll fight to the death to defend it!

I see this happening with the ungodly LGBTQ agenda. Many Americans have jumped on the bandwagon and are now supportive of 'Gay Rights.' What about 'God's Rights'?

Psalms 36:1, "The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes." Also, Romans 3:18, "There is no fear of God before their eyes." When I see someone who is supportive of homosexual rights, I know that person has NO FEAR OF GOD! When I see a person who supports abortion, I know there is NO FEAR OF GOD in their eyes! I FEAR GOD, and if you are wise, so will you. Proverbs 1:7,

"The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction."

Are you a fool friend? I sure hope you're not!

We Americans are so hypocritical in this matter of 'Human Rights Abuses.' The infamous criminal, President George W. Bush (2000-2008), and his complicit administration, intentionally murdered [5]1,455,590 innocent people in Iraq—all based upon a BIG LIE. No alleged 'Weapons of Mass Destruction' were ever found. What gives us the right as Americans to kill whoever we want? What gives us the right as U.S. citizens to bully other countries, force ourselves like a rapist upon anyone with whom we disagree? Remember, OUR nation's leaders in Washington D.C. do what they do in OUR name, with OUR money, so it is OUR business, and the blood that they shed is upon OUR hands!!!

We are the most wicked nation on the planet. Hollywood pumps out more smut, violence, filth and ungodly sewage than anywhere else in this evil world (1st John 5:19). Las Vegas (“SIN CITY”) is a mere microcosm of America today! Most Americans look down with disdain upon Saudi Arabia and other Arab countries, where the law forces women to wear burkas (head coverings) and cover-up their bodies. But in America, our women walk around wherever there is water with a piece of string stuck between their butt-cheeks, and Tea Patches for a bra, and nothing else! It is WICKEDNESS!!!

I am warning you immodest women, you will give account to God one day in eternity (Hebrews 9:27), for every time you expose your thighs and buttocks in public for men to lust upon (1st Peter 2:11). By dressing immodestly, you are causing men to sin, by tempting them to lust! Our American culture has become so depraved and far away from God, that what I am now preaching is laughed at by most people, just like they laughed at Noah for 120 years until THE FLOOD CAME. Judgment Day fell upon them all!!! By attracting men with the wrong kind of attention, you are causing men to sin, you are ruining marriages and families, hurting others; and you WILL be held liable by God for your woeful selfish evil. Laugh it up now, because your days are numbered! She that hath ears to hear, let her hear. Ecclesiastes 8:13b, “it shall not be well with the wicked...”

Americans are horribly guilty of Human Rights Abuses! We’ve murdered upwards of 60,000,000 lives since Roe Vs. Wade in 1973. Just because abortion numbers are down in recent years, doesn’t lessen the murders that are still taking place. Leave it to sick-minded Americans to pat themselves on the back for being less evil this year than last year! Should we honor a criminal for robbing less banks this year than last year? Of course not! Should we honor Ted Bundy, for killing less woman this year than last year? No way! So why should we celebrate murdering less humans this year than last year. It's all a mindset folks, and the ungodly media are masters of deception! Don't you dare feel good about your country, when even one child is being murdered by abortion! Let's ask that dead aborted child in Heaven, who I believe is now grown as the angels, what he thinks about America!!!

We need to clean up our own backyard in the United States, before we try to clean up everybody else's backyard! Just because we have decided that homosexuality is okay, even though we said 50 years ago that it wasn't, doesn't mean that the rest of the world has to follow our unstable, roller-coaster, ever-changing views on morality! What next in America: Child Brides? Polygamy? Prostitution?

Bestiality? Oh wait, that's [6]already legal.

Psalms 146:8-10, "

The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind: the LORD raiseth them that are bowed down: the LORD loveth the righteous:

The LORD preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

The LORD shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the LORD.

1.1.55 Thou Shalt Love Thy Neighbor As Thyself (2020-03-22 01:09)

Romans 13:9, "For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself."

I loathe over today's unethical American culture. "Ethics" is simply doing the right thing. We live in very unethical times in the United States, and the world as well. Everywhere we go nowadays we are confronted with greed, shady advertising tactics, intentional withholding of vital information, taking advantage of customers, abuse of government authority, mistreatment from airport security, bad pastors and a plethora of crooked and unethical practices.

I do not enjoy being continually manipulated by unethical companies on the internet. It seems like all of the websites nowadays utilize annoying pop-up windows, intended to buttonhole web visitors with high-pressure sales tactics. Internet users are continually bombarded with frustrating unwanted advertisements. I installed a free program called [1]Ad Blocker Ultimate, which is helpful, but even the Ad Blocker Ultimate program regularly hounds me to donate money to them. As much as I have successfully blocked out hundreds of unethical ads, it only remove some of them at best. The internet has become burdensome to use because of inconsiderate unethical greedy advertisers.

I've never seen such horrible and unethical behavior, as I do in Americans today! Acts 4:20, " For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.

" We live in a VERY unethical society today in the United States. This is a result of our deteriorating moral condition, as Americans forsake the holy God of the King James Bible. Psalms 33:12, " Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD: and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance." Although that Bible passage speaks of Israel, God always honors repentance —whether it be a nation, a city, a church, a family or an individual. The Lord is not a respecter of persons!

Ungodly Crooked Car Rentals

I recently visited Pensacola, Florida and needed to rent a car. I randomly chose Alamo car rental. I went to the counter at Alamo and asked to rent their cheapest car. The woman quoted me $103 per day. I told her that I could take my laptop computer, right there, and reserve a car from them for much cheaper, if she was going to make me go through the trouble. I was so tired from a hectic week. I think she saw my "Jesus" hat. She then asked if $22 a day was better. I smiled and said, "Done!" But then when she added the required taxes, fees and insurance, that rent car went up to $60 per day! Still, it was better than $103 a day. So they charged me $238 for four days.

But then four days later, I needed the car for an additional day and called the phone number provided on the rental contract. A different woman, a cold Alamo operator, answered and said I'd have to pay $190 for just one more day, claiming that I had entered into a "weekly rate." I was upset and told the woman that I think their company is ungodly for taking advantage of people. She couldn't have cared less. So I drove the rent car back to the airport and returned it. I went elsewhere to rent a car for one day for $77. Car rentals rip people off big time!

Now let me ask you a question—Is that loving thy neighbor as thyself? No way!

Car rental companies are crooks! I read the contract and it said that if I were to return the car early, they would charge me for the entire four days. That is really rotten! When I was in Hilo, Hawaii, I forgot that I had been taken advantage of by Alamo there too! I try to live above the clouds like Dr. Jack Hyles did, so I don't sit around thinking about bad things that have happened to me in my life. So I often tend to forget bad situations, bad experiences, mean people and businesses that cheat me. I have learned to “LET GO, LET GOD” in my life.

Jesus Gives Me Peace In Tribulation

Despite my constant chronic neck pain, I have peace like a river in my soul. IT IS WELL WITH MY SOUL! We used to sing that regularly at Hyles-Anderson College when I gratefully attended (1985-1993). Dr. Wendell Evens loved that song and led us students to sing it often in daily chapel services. I love that memory! ...IT IS WELL WITH MY SOUL!

If you are a born-again child of God, and doing your best in God’s strength to get by day-by-day by prayer and faith, then you ought to have the peace of God which passeth all understanding in your soul (Philippians 4:6-8).

My life is utterly miserable in so many ways, but I have the blessed peace of God in my soul. My chronic neck pain dominates my life, hindering me from having a social life and being happy. I am far from happy, but I rejoice in God’s salvation and find some happiness by helping others in the Lord. My strength comes from allowing God to help others through me who are hurting. I am feeding God’s sheep through my website ministry. Contending for the Christian faith makes me happy! Someone’s got to stand up for THE TRUTH!

A Culture of Greed and Dishonesty

Moving from one place to another, especially if a very long distance (like from Guam to the United States) is very frustrating, because people have their hand out every step of the way, wanting a piece of you! Nobody does anything for free anymore. The world never meets you halfway on anything! Even when I visited Hawaii, I had to pay $1 to visit the beach. Locals can go for free with an ID. When you eat in a restaurant, they always expect a tip, insulting you after they force you to pay them 10 % to 15 % gratuity. They might as well put a gun to your head, open your wallet, and remove some of your money. I hate forced gratitude! That kind of thievery doesn't exist in Japan! Americans are covetous and greedy!!! I try to eat at local restaurants where they don't charge forced gratuity.

Unethical Websites

I see many websites where I begin to read a news story, but then an annoying message demands that I pay them money to become a subscriber to read the rest of the story. That is very rude, unkind and unethical. That is no way to do things, teasing people and taking advantage of them. It is this type of unethical abuse of society that is commonly considered acceptable nowadays, but it is not Christian and not loving one's neighbour as thyself. It is plain old sinful greed! I hate the love of money! Greed has ruined our nation.

Restrooms Aren't Even Free Anymore

New York city charges people $2 to use a portable restroom downtown. Businesses won't allow people to use their restroom (which I completely understand and agree with). The city has the responsibility to provide public restrooms, since they want to have a big city. How can you expect people to come to your city and not have any restrooms? Not everybody has $2 on hand all the time. The problem, among many, is that people destroy property, make a mess, stop-up the toilets and vandalize everything, and somebody has to pay financially for that!

People are so destructive when they don't know the Lord. I am a caring, loving and responsible person, because I fear God and love other people. People need the Lord!

The Bible teaches that if you give it will be given back to you. Luke 6:38, "Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again." But you must understand that this doesn't apply to having a inner city ministry, like in Los Angeles or Chicago, because you could give away everything you have and NO ONE will give you anything back, because over 95 % are drug addicts, mentally ill, veterans, felons and homeless by choice! The Bible is talking about giving to good people during times of need, and in time they will return the favor.

Increasing Government TSA Abuse

Everything is getting so manipulative, crooked, greedy and rotten nowadays. A bossy woman at TSA in Pensacola wanted me to open my sandwich, which I had planned to eat on the airplane. I was getting frustrated by her Nazi Germany thug attitude and behavior. She had just thrown away $50 of my shaving cream, shampoo, and other personal items. I understood that, for security reasons. I don't fly often, so I forgot that they don't allow stuff like that.

But then she wanted me to open my sandwich. I replied, "It's a Gyro!" She wanted me to open the foil. In frustration I just said, "Throw it away!" I couldn't believe what she said next... "I need to know what I am throwing away, so you have to open it!" I told her that it felt like Nazi Germany, not America. She was a jerk, rude, unkind, weighed about 275 pounds, and a very unpleasant person to deal with. People are so unkind these days! I hate TSA and their thugs! Please God, damn this wicked thug government and insane country of ours!

And my friend, if you think things are bad now, just wait until this Coronavirus scare plays out. I am 100 % convinced that this is another 9/11 False Flag Terror Attack. People die from viruses all the time, which are all being attributed to the Coronavirus, intentionally being hyped by the media to scare everyone (and it is working). Sound like another 9/11? It sure does to me! The horrible 9/11 attacks in New York launched the New World Order, and now this Coronavirus scare is the next phase of the transformation of our planet into a Godless Global Totalitarian Communist Police State! We know Biblically that all this is preparing the way for the coming Man of Sin, the Antichrist!!!

Have you noticed in recent years that Fox news, CNN and the mainstream media are continually infatuated with the most trifle, ridiculous and meaningless of news stories? That is all staged my friend, to keep your impressionable mind preoccupied with foolishness. Americans are so shallow today that it doesn't take much at all to totally distract them and render them effectively brain-dead. Americans are in a comatose state of bewilderment, blind to the truth, totally absorbed with the false reality created in their gullible minds by the [2]Luciferian elite (the people controlling everything up top from behind the scenes).

Love of Money and Ungodly Advertising in American Culture

Suggestive indecent filthy ads are commonplace in American society. Dirty sensual advertising appears everywhere today. I don't have a dirty mind, I have a man's mind. [3]Look at this popular image on the Cola-Cola can. I didn't have to look at the can for one second to see the image of a male phallus! You're a total fool if you think that is a mere coincidence. [4]Here's another obvious popular filthy image, advertising cigarettes, which pictures the act of carnal nature. Look at Joe Camel's nose!

Please understand that I love my country. I am a proud American! I thank God that I don't live in a horrible prison like North Korea, where everyone is required by law to worship their dictator leaders. I thank God that I don't live in an oppressive society like Russia, where the Gospel is not allowed to be openly preached. Albeit, our whole American society is a rotting cesspool of iniquity, and we are headed toward a police state! Thank God that you don't live in Nigeria, Ghana, Angola, Zambia, Chad, Somalia, Zimbabwe or the Congo in Africa! Foreigners are being attacked and hacked to death with machetes! There's hardly any police because the crime is so bad. I have a web visitor who lives in Ethiopia, who tells me these things. Ethiopia is still a good place to live compared to the aforementioned places. Government theft, scheming and stealing is rampant in those countries, robbing people's accounts. There's no good life! Their countries are messed up!

When I visited Pensacola for the first time in November of 2018, I wasn't impressed with what I saw. I saw literally a few dozen big billboards all around the city by cutthroat ambulance-chasing lawyers, advertising suing your neighbour! The billboard are everywhere! You see them on the highway. You see them on all the main roads. What a tragic testimony for any city! What a terrible impression on a tourist who is new to town—to see the greed and unethical practices of a bunch of money-hungry attorneys, taunting people in the community to sue each others! I really detest lawyers! Jesus was disgusted by them too (Luke 11:46).

I am so sick of the greed for money nowadays. Money has always been the "ROOT OF ALL EVIL" (1st Timothy 6:10), but it is much worse nowadays, because modern technology has made it much easier to hurt your neighbour in numerous ways. God commands us to treat each other the way we want to be treated. Matthew 7:12, "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets." Jesus foretold in the Scriptures that in the end times, people will lack love, because of the prevalence of iniquity. Matthew 24:12, "And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold."

In other words, people will stop caring and loving one another because of all the people hurting each other!!! When you see billboards encouraging you to sue your neighbour, that effectively kills the spirit of a community. It creates further distrust of one another and undermines the integrity of a town. Shame on Pensacola!

I was disgusted as I drove by Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and saw one block after another of all the real estate they own. I was reminded of [5]a truthful and needful sermon by Pastor Steven Anderson, in which he says that America's Bible colleges are growing bigger and bigger, as the churches are shrinking smaller and smaller. PCC owns an empire of buildings and wealth! Good night in the morning! It was disgusting, because God's method is New Testament churches, not private Bible colleges, which are privately owned. I cannot endorse PCC because they are shallow concerning the Word of God. Despite their shallow claim to be King James Bible only, they call believers “radical” who expose the modern Bible versions. PCC denies that we have an inspired Holy Bible today!

I wouldn’t give you a dime for any so-called Bible college, like PCC, who denies the inspiration of the King James Bible! [6]One of the greatest threats and hindrances to Christianity today is Bible colleges!!! PCC and their shallow interns are doing more damage than good! PCC is as quiet as a mouse in the raging battle of the ages over the Word of God. [7]It’s Time To Come Out Of The Closet (Dr. Jack Hyles; The Bible’s under attack—where’s the 7,000? Where is Bob Jones University? Where is Pensacola Christian College? Where is Hyles-Anderson College?). They all want money, and that is their primary focus, which is why they refuse to offend anyone with the truth, refusing to uphold the inspiration of the King James Bible! Jesus warned that no man can serve God and mammon! I tell you with all confidence that THE KING JAMES BIBLE IS 100 % INSPIRED BY GOD!!!!!!!

If you read the standard realtor contract today, to buy or sell a home, you’ll see that thug lawyers have written everything so that no matter what happens, the realtor wins and YOU LOSE if anything goes wrong! It is crooked and unethical. I have been insulted and defrauded on numerous occasions, when a business person threw some contractual fine print in my face. Fine print is very shady, unethical and dishonest!

For example: When I went to Kauai, Hawaii from Guam in 2011 for a medical visit. I reserved a hotel room with a rent car. I arrived at the airport and paid a taxi-driver $50 to transport me to the hotel. When I got to the hotel and asked for my rent car, they said I was supposed to get it back at the airport.

I kindly explained to the hotel clerk that no one told me that. She said it was in the fine print. I told her that I had 17 pages of medical documentation for my upcoming appointment, and had a hundred things on my mind, and she was going to throw it in my face that I missed some fine print on page 3 of 7 pages of a contract that was e-mailed to me? The average contract today has literally SEVERAL THOUSAND words in it! Furthermore, if you are not an attorney you cannot understand all the legal jargon in contracts, which are written by crafty and shady thug lawyers to screw people! She didn’t care and I was out of $50. I also had to go all the way back to the airport to get my rent car! That was the Sheridan hotel in Kauai, where I would never stay again.

When I got to the hotel room, workers had jack-hammers going all day around the corner, doing remodeling! What a rotten hotel. That was the Sheridan Hotel in Kauai. No one told me that. I receive a phone message to come down to the front desk. Due to my neck injury, I limped down to the front desk, which was over one city block away. When I got there the woman who called me said she was my concierge, and to let her know if I needed anything. I said, "You wasted my time to come all the way down here to tell me that? Why didn't you tell me on the phone?" I hate traveling. I am at the point where I just love staying home. My dad used to says, "You can't get into trouble in your own back yard!" I think of my father's wisdom often, and he is absolutely right! I hate going out that door!

The world is a jungle Pastor Jack Hyles used to day. "It's a jungle out there!," he would often tell us. I love and miss Dr. Hyles. What a great guy!

Thou Shalt Love Thy Neighbor As Thyself

I could write series of volumes on all of the unethical things that I see everywhere that I go today. America has a fear problem; Christians have a faith problem! People have become so greedy, selfish, reckless, irresponsible and rotten! One of the things that I work hard at, as a God-fearing Christian, is being ethical. I know that big word means little to most people, including today's shallow and unethical Baptist church pastors, but it ought to mean something big! Pastor Jack Hyles used to say: "The most important job is the one that doesn't get done!" I couldn't agree more! I am doing the dirty work of an evangelist, preaching THE TRUTH like Billy Sunday once did in America. I'm doing the dirty work that Bob Jones University, Pensacola Christian College and Hyles-Anderson College don't want to do! They don't want to get their hands dirty and preach the truth of the inspiration of the King James Bible! They are all singing " solo,

that I cannot hear them!!!

I wouldn't give you a dime for Pensacola Christian College and their intern program! They're sending out a bunch of shallow graduates, who don't believe that the King James Bible is inspired today!!! No thanks! Local churches all over Pensacola harbor hundreds of PCC student interns, depriving them of an inspired Holy Bible. I'm going to preach the truth until the Lord takes me home! I am tired of Bible colleges corrupting our young people, lying to them, teaching them that only "the originals" were inspired. Well we don't have those originals anymore, so if they are correct, that means we don't have God's inspired Words today. I say that WE DO have God's inspired Words, in the precious King James Bible!!! John Wesley was right: "What one generation tolerates, the next will embrace!"

Dear reader, do you love your neighbor as thyself? The love of money (covetousness, greed, financial gouging, shady business practices) are NOT loving thy neighbour at all. Taking advantage of people is NOT loving thy neighbor as thyself! God commands this! Loving others as thyself is not an option for religious people, it is God's holy Commandment for all humanity! Hopefully you love God too! I do, which is why I love people, and I try to treat them the way I would like to be treated. This is 'THE GOLDEN RULE' (Matthew 7:12). I am just a redeemed sinner, and I fail often to be what God wants me to be, but I get back up and keep trying by God's grace. Proverbs 24:16, " For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief."

1.1.56 Unshakable Faith Comes From Having Your Faith Shaken (2020-03-22 01:12)

"Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him." —Job 13:15

In Job chapter one we read about the many calamities that came upon Job. Certainly, Job would not have considered what remained of his life as a "life." There are some things in this world that are worse than death. Job was as a walking dead man—brokenhearted, lonely, and afflicted day-and-night.

God allowed Satan to afflict Job, and he did. Job lost his health and was afflicted in much pain. Job lost all his wealth to thieves. Job lost all his children to death by a tornado. Job lost his agriculture to fire. Job lost his servants to murderous raiders. Job's own beloved wife discouraged him and suggested that he go kill himself. Job's so-called friends ridiculed and wrongfully judged him.

Please listen dear reader to this precious sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles called:

[1]The Faith That Cannot Be Shaken Comes From Being Shaken.

In Job chapter one Job couldn't say: "I know that my redeemer liveth," for his faith had not yet been shaken. Job couldn't say, before his children were suddenly taken in a deadly tornado: "Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him!" Job's faith had never been shaken like this before. Job had never suffered like this before. As one messenger told Job bad news, another came right behind him with more bad news! Oh, I've been there my friend! I know that horrible feeling of surmounting burdens, problems and afflictions.

I have often heard the secular saying: "That which does not kill you makes you stronger!" The Word of God teaches the opposite:

2nd Corinthians 12:8-10, "For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

The world says weakness makes us stronger; but the Bible says Christ's strength is made perfect IN WEAKNESS! The apostle Paul didn't say that his weakness made him stronger; but rather, Christ's strength was made perfect in Paul's weakness! We are strong WHEN WE ARE WEAK! Isn't that beautiful? Are you weak right now dear friend? If so, then you are right where God wants you to be. Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899) wisely said:

"God had no children too weak, but a great many too strong to make use of." Unshakable faith comes from having our faith SHAKEN!

> "God stands in no need of our strength or wisdom, but of our ignorance, of our weakness; let us but give these to Him, and He can make use of us in winning souls."
> —Pastor D.L. Moody

I have been to the bottom of life. I know the emotional drama and trauma of a troubled marriage, and the betrayal of being divorced by a spouse. Consequently, I lost my home, my pets, most of my possessions, half my mind, and my confidence as a man. I went into a lasting depression, which I still struggle with today. I tend to be down on myself. Since 2004 I have suffered from chronic neck pain 24/7. I underwent two major necks surgeries in 2009 and 2010, with no wife by my side, enduring inexplicable loneliness and pain. The second surgery made me much worse, leaving both of my arms feeling like they're inflated with air, and burning throughout my nervous system all the time. I know the pain of losing everything!

Most of all, I know the pain of being rejected, shunned and unloved by fellow professed Christians—forsaken by the ungodly Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and others —but God's grace that has seen me this far, will lead me home!

Good is always good!

I recently heard an encouraging sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) titled, "[2]God Is Looking For A Bunch Of Weak Christians," based upon this passage of Scripture:

2nd Corinthians 12:9, "And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong."

We are strong when we are weak, because Christ's strength is perfected in our weakness!

I also heard another MP3 sermon by Dr. Hyles titled, "[3]When I Am Weak, Then Am I Strong," Contrary to what most people think, God does not want to make us s*trong*. Rather, God the Father wants to strengthen our union with His only begotten Son, Jesus. We grow in grace, not in strength. Jesus doesn't want to make us stronger; but rather, the Lord wants to add HIS STRENGTH to our own weakness, so that God the Father gets all the glory.

We read in Job 1:5 that Job "rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually." Job was a good father and worried about his children (as is in the nature of any good father). Job prayed to God on behalf of his children, just in case one of them perhaps had sinned against the Lord. Job loved his children dearly and didn't want anything bad to happen to them, which is exactly why Job 1:5 tells us that Job prayed and made offerings to the Lord on their behalf.

It is heartbreaking that Job's worst fears came upon him. Job's children, whom he loved dearly, were all suddenly taken away from him, torn from his life. Poor Job! At this tragic time in Job's life he couldn't proclaim as he did later in Job 19:25, "FOR I KNOW THAT MY REDEEMER LIVETH, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth." By chapter 19 we see that Job's faith has been SHAKEN, and now he has UNSHAKABLE faith!!!

In Job chapter one when Job's wealth was all suddenly stripped away from him, and his health took a sudden turn for the worse, Job couldn't proclaim as he could later in Job 13:15,

“THOUGH HE SLAY ME, YET WILL I TRUST IN HIM: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.”

Job couldn’t have UNSHAKABLE faith until he first had his faith SHAKEN, terribly shaken!!!

The Bible teaches in James 1:2-4 that unshakable faith comes from having our faith shaken, “My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.” Faith is like film, it develops in the dark. Faith is like a muscle, it gets stronger when worked.

Before Abraham was saved in Genesis 15:6, his name was simply, “

In Genesis 12:1-3 God told Abraham to “get thee out of thy country.” This was approximately in the year 1900 BC. That’s quite a big thing to ask a man to do. Abraham was wealthy, popular, religious and had a big extended family in Ur, the place where he was originally from (Iraq today). God told Abram to leave his homeland and go into a distant unknown land. Abraham had no idea where he was going. It was by complete faith that Abram obeyed the voice of the Lord. From Abraham’s life we learn that understanding often doesn’t come until after obedience. Oftentimes we cannot comprehend why things are happening the way they are, but we can have blessed peace in trusting God Who knows all things. I don’t know what the future holds, but I know Who holds the future!

Oh listen my friend, whatever your burdens may be at this moment, God loves and cares about you, and you can rest assure in the PROMISES of God. The shaking of your faith will result in an UNSHAKABLE FAITH! God will give you an UNSHAKABLE FAITH that all the hordes of Hell cannot rattle, when it’s work is through. Jesus said in Mark 11:22b, “ [4]HAVE FAITH IN GOD **”!

The Bible says our burdens, problems and heartaches, which SHAKE OUR FAITH, are more valuable in God’s sight than GOLD! I just checked the price of gold, which is presently at $1,484.46 per ounce. That’s $23,751.36 a pound!!! The Bible says your frustrations and miseries are worth more than that!!!

> 1st Peter 1:7-9, "That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ : Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. "

I love that passage. We believe in Jesus, Whom we have NEVER SEEN. Yet, we LOVE HIM, and BELIEVE IN HIM! In so doing, we have an UNSPEAKABLE JOY!!! Oh, I do have that unspeakable joy my friend. Do you have that joy? You can for free, just by taking God at His Word, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross a full-payment for your sins.

I feel so sorry for all the unsaved people in the world, who feel nothing but contempt, doubt and resentment toward the Holy Bible and Christianity. You have NO IDEA what you are missing! I am so thankful that I am a born-again Christian!!! If you have never been saved, you are really losing out dear reader. There is absolutely nothing in this world that can compare to the solid confidence that you name is written in Heaven, and you are a child of the King, bound for heaven, a possessor of eternal life. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

1.1.57 How Beautiful Are The Feet (2020-03-22 03:45)

Romans 10:15, “And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!”

The Bible says that “THE FEET” of those who preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ are “beautiful.” This speaks of the soulwinner. Proverb 11:30, “The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.”

It is interesting that God calls the “feet” beautiful. God could have called the

beautiful, or the

mouth,

but he said, “the feet.” Why the feet? It’s because it is with one’s feet that we carry

of Jesus Christ to lost sinners.

The most eloquent speaker in all the world is useless if he has idle feet. The most charming person, who may possess a great wealth of Bible knowledge, is useless if he or she is unwilling to take the message of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen to lost sinners

(1st Corinthians 15:1-4)

. The praise of God goes to the soulwinner (Daniel 12:3).

Jesus confronted the Samaritan woman in John 4:7-26 with the Gospel. God told Philip to confront the Ethiopian Eunuch with the Gospel in Acts 8:29. In Mark 16:15, Jesus said, “GO ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.” Sadly, very few believers today are soulwinners. The reason why is because very few Christian leaders teach about eternal punishment anymore, which is virtually a denial of the Christian faith altogether. It is the Christian believer’s duty to share the Gospel with the lost. 1st Corinthians 9:16,

“For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!”

[1]SHAME ON US! (MP3 by Pastor Jack Hyles)

The Biblical Mandate to Go Soulwinning

There is no call to be a soulwinner. Every believer is commanded to preach the Gospel. Proverb 11:30 says they who win souls are “wise.” Therefore, the believer who fails to share the Gospel with others is foolish. Life is short, Hell is hot, and eternity is a long time!!!

Hell is real my friend. I know this is true because I know that the Holy Bible is true. God has given us numerous “proofs” of the divine origin of the Bible. One such proof is the manner in which the Holy Bible came into man’s possession. God used approximately 40 different men, over a historical period of 1700 years. These men had significantly different backgrounds, spoke different languages, came from different nations, possessed various levels of education, and most of them never met each other. This is how the 66 inspired books of the Bible came into man’s possession. These 66 books perfectly harmonize into one book, containing 31 % prophecy, completely understandable. The miracle by which God has given His divine Word to humanity is not only astronomically improbable, but absolutely IMPOSSIBLE! This is PROOF of the Bible’s divine origin.

People need to be born-again to escape the wrath of God (John 3:36; Romans 5:9; 2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9). Philippians 2:16 warns that any labor done for Christ not involving the preaching of the Gospel is void. Philippians 2:16, “Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.” You have done nothing for God if you leave off the Gospel. Without the preaching of the Gospel, there is no rejoicing in Heaven in the presence of the angels (Luke 15:10), because no one is getting saved. The Gospel of Jesus Christ is the Word of Life (Ephesians 1:13). A so-called “ is no ministry at all if the Gospel is not preached to the lost.

Most religious and charitable organizations in the world today couldn’t care less about preaching The Gospel of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen. Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, the Christ (John 20:31). By faith we become the children of God (Galatians 3:26). It is Jesus’ precious literal blood that washes our sins away (1st John 1:7; Hebrews 9:12; Revelation 1:5).

Jesus doesn’t forgive sins! That is correct! Jesus has already paid for our sins with His blood. Thus, forgiveness of sins is a gift that need only be freely accepted. When you believe the Gospel, Oh sinner, you have received God’s gift of forgiveness and eternal life (Ephesians 2:8-9).

God deliver us from apostate religious groups, who never go soulwinning, who are doing more harm to the cause of Christ than good. The main cause of Christ is getting people saved, not leading people to live the Christian life. America needs SOULWINNERS!!! In Mark 1:17 Jesus said He would make His disciples to become “fishers of men.” Amen!

2nd Corinthians 5:10 teaches that every believer will give account to God at the Judgment Seat of Christ, for the good AND the bad done in our earthly body. The next verse says, “Knowing therefore the TERROR OF THE LORD, we persuade men...” This Scripture is seldom preached about. God is going to judge each believer concerning the effort we spend, or fail to spend, trying to get lost sinners saved with the Gospel. 1st Corinthians 3:7-9 plainly teaches that God will give EVERY believer his OWN reward, according to his OWN labour—“So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. For we are labourers together with God: ye are God’s husbandry, ye are God’s building. ”

The very notion that Jesus only intended for His apostles to preach the Gospel, or pastors today, is unbiblical. The Bible never says that only ministers are to preach the Gospel. The Gospel is truth and Ephesians 4:25 says, “speak every man truth with his neighbour.”

People need to hear about the Lord and how to be saved. Proverb 14:25, "A true witness delivereth souls: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies."

Laying Up Treasures in Heaven

Hell is a literal place that burns with fire. Revelation 21:8 speaks about the "second death" and the "lake which burns with fire and brimstone." Why would God only want Christian leaders to preach the Gospel, when even a child can share the Good News of Christ crucified, buried and risen with the lost?

It makes me want to go vomit when I see MILLIONS of fans praising singers' Amy Grant, Michael W. Smith, Sandi Patty and countless other Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) singers, none of which preach the Gospel to their fans. Where's Waldo? I mean where's the Gospel? These people all have beautiful voices to sing, but they have ugly feet that do not carry the Gospel to the lost! Does your church have UGLY FEET?

Oh Christian, it is [2]my heart's desire for you to become a Soul-winner, that others may be saved, and that you may "lay up for yourselves treasures in Heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal" (Matthew 6:20). What a wonderful investment opportunity! We hear so much advertising on TV about premiere investment opportunities in real estate, gold and so forth; but the only eternal investment you can make is by laying up treasures in Heaven by serving God.

[3]LET'S GO SOULWINNING! (by Pastor Jack Hyles)

The greatest treasures of all in Heaven, will be the souls of those who were saved through our soulwinning efforts. Certainly, we cannot save anybody, for salvation is of the Lord; but God uses the yielded Christian as a vehicle, by which the Gospel is preached unto the lost (1st Corinthians 3:6-8). This is why God calls the Soul Winner's feet, "beautiful." And that is why the Bible calls us "AMBASSADORS," who represent Christ to lost sinners in His absence. We have been given the divine commission to reconcile men to God with the Gospel of peace. 2nd Corinthians 5:20, "

Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

" The Gospel brings peace between man and God. Romans 5:1, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:

Every Christian is commanded by God to preach the Gospel. How exactly do you preach the Gospel anyway?—b y simply telling someone how you got saved. It's that simple. We are SINNERS and Jesus is the SAVIOR. Salvation happens when a person acknowledges their guilt of sin, and comes to God on that basis; believing on Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, to forgive their sins (Acts 10:43).

Salvation is as simple as walking through a door. Jesus said in John 10:9, "I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture."

Also, consider Luke 8:11-15, the Parable of the Seeds...

> "And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience" (Luke 8:14-15).

Jesus said that he who has "an honest and good heart" obeys the Scripture and will " bring forth fruit with patience.

” This again speaks of the Soulwinner. A believer who loves Jesus Christ, and understands that eternal punishment awaits all Christ-rejecting sinners, will have a burden for lost souls. There is not enough teaching of eternal punishment in today’s church pulpits. Consequently, few believers have a burden for lost souls anymore; therefore, very few believers go soulwinning.

Many Bible students misinterpret the Parable Of The Sower And The Seeds as pertaining to salvation, but that is not the case at all. This parable is all about in the Lord to bear fruit.

Luke 8:11 identifies “ the seed

” as **“

the Word of God.

” Some people hear the Gospel, but never get saved (Luke 8:12). Many believers have shallow roots, quitting when persecution comes, dropping out of church (Luke 8:13). Other believers are choked by the cares, riches and pleasures of this world, bringing forth NO FRUIT to perfection (Luke 8:14).

The Bible plainly teaches that the seed which fell upon good ground became soulwinners. God’s desire is for EVERY believer to mature to become a soulwinner, a witness for Jesus Christ to this lost and dying world of sinners! Will you heed the Master’s call dear reader?

You don’t need to attend religious seminary (most of which are cemeteries) in order to be a Soulwinner. You just need to know how you got saved yourself. Most people errantly think they have to DO something to merit Heaven, but the Bible says Jesus has already DONE IT ALL!!! We are saved by faith in Jesus’ work of redemption. Salvation is ceasing from our own self-righteous works, and completely resting in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ. Hebrews 4:10-11, “For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.”

Most professed Christians today have ugly feet, because they have no burden for lost souls, and fail to take the Gospel to those who desperately need it. I challenge you, whoever you may be, to have beautiful feet. Philippians 2:15-16, "That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world; HOLDING FORTH THE WORD OF LIFE; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain."

> "The religions of the world say, 'do and live.' The religion of the Bible says, 'live and do'." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr.

1.1.58 So You're Not An Ordained Preacher (2020-03-22 06:26)

Jeremiah 1:5, "Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations."

Many men have the errant mindset that they can't become a Gospel preacher unless they're "

by some holier-than-thou ministerial committee or governing ecclesiastical body. Brother, you can't show me that in the Bible! Take a close look at our text Bible passage. The Bible says in Jeremiah 1:5 that God **"

ORDAINED

" Jeremiah while in his mother's womb, not from some apostate Evangelical Church Alliance or Deadbeat Ministers Club. Boy I love that truth —God ordains men to preach, not other men!!!

Furthermore, there is no call to preaching the Gospel, it is a COMMAND for every believer (Matthew 28:19-20; Proverb 11:30; 2nd Corinthians 5:10-11; Philippians 2:16; Romans 10:15; Luke 8:15; Daniel 12:3). Every Christian believer is commanded by God to go soul-winning. Every believer is an AMBASSADOR FOR CHRIST! 2nd Corinthians 5:20, "

Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

" We represent the King of kings, and the Lord of lords! You are the only Jesus that someone knows! They need your help to get saved. They need for you to share the Gospel of free grace with them. Will you obey the Master? Will you heed His call? Will you preach the Gospel?

1st Corinthians 9:16, " For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!"

There is a call to leadership within the New Testament Church as a pastor, and so forth; but not a call to go soul-winning. God ordained Jeremiah to be a prophet unto the nations, before Jeremiah was even born. Jesus told all of His disciples to go forth into the the world with the Gospel, to get people saved, water baptize them (as a public profession of their faith), and then teach them to go do likewise. This is known as 'THE GREAT COMMISSION' (Matthew 28:19-20).

Sadly, for most churches today it is 'THE GREAT OMISSION'! I am proud to call myself an Independent Fundamental Baptist. That is my roots! That doesn't make me a born-again Christian, it just defines the distinctives of my faith. But sadly, most Baptist churches today have no public soulwinning program. The church is often a mere place of religious entertainment.

The hardest part of 'THE GREAT COMMISSION' is "

GO YE

"! That is why in Romans 10:15 the Bible calls the believers feet , and not their mouth or lips "beautiful," because the most eloquent speech in the world is totally worthless if a believer's feet are too lazy to take THE GOSPEL to those who need it. Romans 10:15, "

And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

" It is called 'THE GOSPEL OF PEACE' because 'THE GOSPEL' brings between men and God.

PEACE

Romans 5:1, " Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. " What a beautiful God and Savior!!!

Evangelist Billy Sunday (1862-1935) was a professional baseball player turned preacher, and PREACH HE DID!!! [1]Here's Billy's batting record. And Brother Sunday scored much higher in soul-winning, leading MILLIONS of needy sinners to the redeeming truth of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Hallelujah!!! Bless God, anyone can serve God!

I was ordained as a minister in 1993 by a local group of Pastors in Chicago. During the ordination, one of the pastors asked me what it would mean to me, if they decided not to ordain me at that time. My response was immediate, I replied: "God called me to preach, and I'm going to preach whether you guys ordain me or not!" That pastor wisely replied: "That was the answer I was looking for!" He wanted to make sure that I knew God ordained me, not men! Official ordination is necessary, if a man is going to function in a legal capacity as a minister, which is why I was ordained; but I only answer to God. It will be a cold day in Hell before any Pulpit Committee or anyone messes with my preaching!!!

I once knew a man who drove a garbage truck, who had hand-written out Scripture verses on 3" x 5" cards. He put together a Gospel presentation to give people on his pickup route. He gave me one of them, and I was joyful to meet a fellow soulwinner. That man loved the Lord Jesus Christ enough to tell others about Him. If a baseball player, and a man driving a garbage truck, and a lowly sinner like me, can do something for God, then so can you my dear friend. [2]Look what this faithful Christian man (Raymond Rogers) is doing to share the Gospel message with others. Hell is real and forever! Do you think a God of love, Who allows suffering in this world, won't allow suffering in Hell? Don't fool yourself! God's holiness demands justice. Sin must be paid for! Thankfully, Jesus paid your sin debt (and mine), if you'll receive God's gift of eternal life by faith in Jesus Christ, as I did as a 13 year old lad!

If you have a burning desire in your heart to preach THE TRUTH, then that is God's calling, leading you to volunteer to serve God. The fields are still white unto harvest today. John 4:35 and Matthew 9:37, "Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest ... Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few." Jesus said that the harvest is PLENTEOUS, but the labourers are FEW. That is still very true today in 2020. The average Christian layman couldn't care less about winning souls, because today's apostate pastors are incompetent!!!

If not us, who? If not now, when? If not here, where? To the same degree that we witness to others shows the degree of our faith in the Holy Bible. More and more, as I grow nearer to the end of this life (I'm 53 now), I am compelled to share the Gospel with more people. Proverb 4:18, "But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day." What an awesome Scripture!!!

Here is an excellent quote from the mighty man of God, Dr. Lee Roberson (1909-2007), concerning eternal punishment:

> "Somebody says, 'The thought of Hell is so horrible.' Well, my friend, so is cancer, so is tuberculosis, so is the grave. Someone said, 'I believe sin ought to be punished, but not for eternity.' That's your view, not God's.

> Again another says, 'I don't believe in the wrath of God.' Then you don't believe your Bible. The Bible says the wrath of God abideth on the one who doesn't believe in Jesus Christ. He is lost forever.

> Now, these things come to us out of the Word of God. The teaching of eternal punishment should give us a hatred for sin. We ought to hate sin. The reason we have changed so much in this day in all of our churches is that we are not hearing much on this subject. Therefore, we endorse sin. We engage in sin. We camouflage the sin in our lives and allow things to go by, instead of hating sin as God wants us to hate sin . . .

The teaching of eternal punishment should give us a passion for the souls of men."

The Biblical doctrine and reality of God's wrath has been abandoned in America's pulpits. Psalm 7:11, "God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day."

Thank God for those few preachers today who do still faithfully preach the word. Thank God for those faithful preachers over the past century—Evangelist Billy Sunday (1862-1935), Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899), Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951), Dr. R.G. Lee (1886-1978), Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980), Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001) and other mighty men of God over the past century who have carried the mantle of God's Word.

1.1.59 Where Is Your Heart? (2020-03-22 16:21)

Matthew 6:21, "For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."

This is an amazing Scripture. The Word of God plainly teaches that a person's heart will be where their treasure is also at. Most people have their heart in the wrong place. Many people's heart is in their materialistic possessions or some vain earthly pursuit. You cannot take any gold or money with you when you die (1st Timothy 6:7). Many people's treasure is in sports. Americans worship the human body, which will all return to the ground within 100-years.

Philippians 2:21, “For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ’s.” Few people truly love God. Very few believers live for Jesus Christ, having their treasure in Heaven...

Matthew 6:19-24, “Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness! No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.”

The Bible teaches that God wants us to lay up treasures in Heaven by living for God (Romans 12:1-2; 2nd Corinthians 6:14-17), winning lost souls to Jesus Christ (Proverb 11:30; Daniel 12:3; 2nd Corinthians 3:7-8; 5:10-11; Philippians 2:16), reaching out to befriend the least of these (Matthew 25:40,45), contending for the Biblical Christian faith (Jude 1:3) and losing our life for Jesus’ sake and the gospel’s (Matthew 19:29; Mark 10:29-30).

Please read: ’ [1]Rewards In Heaven ’

Where is your heart friend? Are you living selfishly for yourself? How does God and His Word fit into your daily life? Do you have sorrow and a burden over hellbound sinners? (Psalm 126:5-6; Proverb 11:30; Luke 8:11-15; John 3:36; 2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9; Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8).

Revelation 14:11, “And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.”

This will be the eternal fate of all Christ-rejecters. Hundreds-of-millions of people in the world today are already worshipping the Beast. There is no denying the Satanic hand sign, which shows one’s allegiance to Satan and his New World Order, i.e., the Beast system of the coming Antichrist.

If you are a soulwinner, then your treasures are in Heaven (not only the rewards which God will give you for serving Him faithfully, but also the born-again souls which will one day be with you in eternity). Daniel 12:3 proclaims that soulwinners will shine as the brightness of the stars forever. I believe the reason why is because the people whom we lead to Jesus Christ here on earth will be with us in Heaven.

The Bible plainly states the importance of the soulwinning believer. Romans 10:14-15, "How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!" Amen!

Sadly, most churchgoers have ugly feet because they never go soulwinning. God wants each believer to have beautiful feet as Romans 10:15 teaches. Many religious people aren't even saved, having churchianity instead of Christianity. Today's churches are filled with make-believers instead of born-again believers. What irony! The Gospel is so delicate and simple, and yet so easily corrupted (and Satan has corrupted it in most religious circles!). The great need of the hour is preaching PREACHERS! The great need of this last hour is SOULWINNERS!

The world has been saturated with all manner of junk religious literature, lame so-called Christian radio broadcasts and the heresy of Lordship Salvation. Jesus came to SAVE SINNERS! Let's get back to THE BIBLE! Jesus commanded His disciples to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES in John 5:39. This is what we are to do. Phooey on all the so-called "Christian" magazines, radio broadcasts, books, pamphlets, seminaries (cemeteries), schools and so forth. Nearly everything labeled as "Christian" these days is virtually void of TRUTH.

Someone recently asked me to sum up the Bible in as few words as possible. I replied with one word: TRUTH. Nearly everything that is presented as being "Christian" these days is woefully lacking of the TRUTH. In John 17:17 Jesus said, “Sanctify them through Thy truth: Thy word is truth.” God’s Word is the TRUTH. Nearly all of religion is demonic lies, deceptions and corruptions of the Scriptures. I don’t want people to listen to me. I say the same thing to everyone that God told Peter, James and John in Matthew 17:5b, “HEAR YE HIM”! Jesus is precious! Hear ye Him!

Where is your heart? Jesus said in Matthew 6:24 that no person can serve God and wealth. History has shown that wealth and Christianity are diametrically opposed to each other. Jesus taught that very few wealthy people ever go to Heaven (Matthew 19:24). Americans are spoiled rotten. We have been blessed so much and yet we spit in God’s face by murdering over 50,000,000 children through abortion since 1973, going to war to steal the natural resources of other nations (like Iraq), killing the innocent (the Iraq War death toll is [2]1,455,590 people), promoting homosexuality in public schools, committing adultery, divorcing, cursing in God’s name, drunkenness, feminism, homosexuality, Communism and every sin imaginable. And then they officially nickname Las Vegas to “SIN CITY.” God bless America? Are you kidding me? Only in your dreams!

It is tragic that most people have their heart set upon earthly wealth—a retirement, a saving’s account, the Stock Market, owning a house and property, a lawsuit settlement, trying to win the State lottery, et cetera. Greed has absolutely no place in the Christian life! Something is very wrong with a professed believer who continuously talks about money and worldly possessions. They will be poor in Heaven and ashamed, knowing that they never led anyone to the Lord Jesus while they had the opportunity. They will regret their wasted life, and lost opportunities to witness to the lost souls whom they passed on a daily basis.

Soulwinning is so easy—you simply tell people how you got saved. You come as a needy SINNER and you trust upon the SAVIOR to be forgiven, believing that He died in your place on the cross of Calvary. Jesus was buried and three days later he resurrected from the dead. That is the ’GOOD NEWS’ (or, ’GOSPEL’) by which we are saved, “TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE” (1st Corinthians 1:21b). Jesus paid a debt that He did not owe, because we owed a debt of sin that we could not pay. There is NO religion involved in salvation. There are NO ceremonies, rituals nor self-righteous requirements. No, salvation is of the Lord alone. Salvation is receiving, not giving. We simply receive the gift of God through faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of God. This is the entire reason for which the Gospel of John was written, to convince us that Jesus is the Son of God, the Christ, so that we might believe to be saved. John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.”

1.1.60 Satan's Goal Is To Destroy Marriage And The Family (2020-03-22 21:47)

Genesis 1:27, " So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them."

The family has always been under assault. God created humans as male and female in Genesis. There's nothing in the middle. Today's gender-bending culture in America is of the Devil.

God made it very clear that He only created male and female. Satan's ultimate goal is to destroy everything that God has made, to completely do away with marriage and the traditional family. The homosexual agenda is all about obliterating the family, not rights.

Marriage is when a male and female come together and have children, creating a union for life. God hates divorce (Jeremiah 3:20; Malachi 2:16). In 1953 an ungodly man named Hugh Hefner (1926-2017) began publishing his dirty 'Playboy' magazine. Marilyn Monroe (1926-1962) was featured in the first edition. By the 1960's, " shacking up

became the new norm in the United States. Consequently, a wicked law was passed in 1973, permitting the murder of a human being in the womb. Now, 47 years later, there have been nearly 60,000,000 abortions in the United States! How can anyone sing the song: God Bless America? Why should God bless our wicked nation? Indeed, God is a very good God, and HE DOES bless our nation. Luke 6:35, "But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

The fight for homosexual (Gay) rights has absolutely nothing to do with freedom, liberty or equal rights; but rather, it's all about government control over everyone's lives. It was social wacko and the first head of the World Health Organization (WHO), [1]George Brock Chisholm, who said:

> “To achieve world government, it is necessary to remove from the minds of men their individualism, loyalty to family tradition, national patriotism, and religious dogmas.”
> —George Brock Chisholm, in a Speech given at the, ’Conference on Education,’ Asilomar, California, September 11, 1954

As you just read, the goal of the world leaders to remove loyalty for the traditional family. This is why they are promoting the homosexual agenda and same-sex marriage. Texas Senator Ted Cruz’s father, Rafael Cruz, made some excellent comments in defense of the traditional family and Christianity, exposing the Marxist left and their similarity to Communist Cuba:

Rafael Cruz: Evolution Is A Communist Lie, Gay Rights Endanger Children

[2]RIGHT WING WATCH

By Brian Tashman | 11/4/2013

Rafael Cruz, the father of Ted Cruz and the Texas Senator’s number one surrogate, is a favorite among Tea Party and Religious Right activists with his birther, Christian Nationalist and End Times-focused speeches.

Back in June, he spoke to a Texas men's prayer breakfast where he denounced the theory of evolution as a lie that, along with gay rights, will bring about communism. "There is nothing scientific about evolution," Cruz said. "Evolution is one of the strongest tools of Marxism because if they can convince you that you came from a monkey, it's much easier to convince you that God does not exist."

You know communism or socialism, whatever you want to call it, what is happening in this country is not different than what happened in Cuba; the procedure might be different, they may be a little slower, but it's the same thing. It is about government control of your lives. You got to realize how Marxist, how socialism works. We need to understand the issues. When you hear all these things about homosexual marriage, this has nothing to do with homosexual rights. Did you know that? The whole objective is the destruction of the traditional family, it has nothing to do with homosexuals, they could care less about homosexuals, they want to destroy the family.

You need to understand, it's just like evolution. You know most Americans have their head in the sand about evolution. I've met so many Christians that tell me 'evolution is a scientific fact.' Baloney! I am a scientist, there is nothing scientific about evolution. But you know something, Karl Marx said it, 'I can use the teachings of Darwin to promote communism.' Why? Because communism, or call it socialism if you think communism is too hard a word, necessitates for government to be your god and for government to be your god they need to destroy the concept of God. That's why communism and evolution go hand and hand. Evolution is one of the strongest tools of Marxism because if they can convince you that you came from a monkey, it's much easier to convince you that God does not exist.

He also discussed the Supreme Court marriage cases, which at the time of this speech had not been decided, and the Boy Scouts of America's decision to include openly gay members under the age of eighteen.

> Cruz lamented that the Boy Scouts ended the organization's ban on gay youth, which his PowerPoint presentation said would lead to "Increased risk that our children would be exposed to sexual predators," and lamented that some churches may continue their ties with the Boy Scouts.

It was Karl Marx (1818-1883) himself, who authored the [4]Communist Manifesto, that called for a central banking system, a heavy progressive tax and public schools as part of the Communist subversion of the United States. If Marx were alive today, he'd be delighted to see the extent to which the U.S. has become a Communist nation. The diligent student of history knows that Karl Marx's Communist Manifesto was a virtual reprint of Illuminati founder, Adam Weishaupt's blueprint for world domination. The prized American piece of literature titled, "[5]THE CITIZEN'S RULEBOOK," contrasts Marx's 10 planks of the Communist Manifesto to the Lord's Ten Commandments. The [6]10 Commandments Verses Communism.

Satan is a master deceiver. Mankind has three enemies: the flesh, the world and the Devil. I've been shocked as I study history. It is so horrifying. I watched a History channel video today about the Mexican drug cartels, and the most brutal gang in the world, known as the Mexican Mafia since the 1950's. They pride themselves in murdering anybody that crosses them or stands in their way. The country of Mexico is controlled by thug druglords. It's not uncommon to see concerned citizens hanging dead from the town's city gates, even pregnant women, murdered by the drug gangs to frighten anyone who dares to fight against them. Beheadings, poverty, drugs, rapes and torture are a way of life in Mexico. Now all that crime is coming to the United States!

Where there is a depraved mind, then everything that is wicked begins to happen! Romans 1:32, "

Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them. " The sitting members of the U.S. Supreme Court fully know what the Bible says about homosexuality, but they affirm it anyway. That is the REPROBATE MIND!

To give due credit, I typed this article while listening to Pastor John MacArthur preach a great sermon titled: " [7]WE WILL NOT BOW " I am unalterably opposed to Mr. MacArthur's heresy on Lordship Salvation, but I still enjoy listening to his preaching, when he gets it right, as he does in this awesome sermon!

You CANNOT get to Heaven by RELIGION. Matthew 15:8-9, "This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

You CANNOT get to Heaven by EDUCATION. 2nd Timothy 3:7, “Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.”

You CANNOT get to Heaven by REHABILITATION. Acts 10:1-2, “There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band, A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway.” Cornelius was a good man, but not saved until Acts 10:44-45.

You CANNOT get to Heaven by LEGISLATION. Romans 3:20, “Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.”

You CANNOT get to Heaven by REFORMATION. Matthew 27:3, “Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders.”

You CAN get to Heaven by REGENERATION! John 3:3, “Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

1.1.62 We Grow In Grace, Not In Strength (2020-03-23 05:00)

2nd Corinthians 12:9, “And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong."

I recently heard an encouraging sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) titled, "[1]God Is Looking For A Bunch Of Weak Christians," based upon our text passage of Scripture above. I also heard another MP3 sermon by Dr. Hyles titled, "[2]When I Am Weak, Then Am I Strong," I wrote this article from some of the things I learned in these two helpful messages. Contrary to what most people think, God does not want to make us strong. Rather, God the Father wants to strengthen our union with His only begotten Son, Jesus. We grow in grace, not in strength. Jesus doesn't want to make us stronger; but rather, the Lord wants to add HIS STRENGTH to our own weakness, so that God the Father gets all the glory.

Jesus said that His strength is "made perfect" [Greek: teleioō meaning "completed, that is, (literally) accomplish"] in weakness. Hence, when you are your weakest and keep going, you are your strongest. Strength is your degree of resistance against resistance. KEEP ON GOING! Weakness makes us stronger, because it requires more strength to keep going; and in the case of a believer, our FAITH is that which overcometh the world. 1st John 5:4, "For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith." Why do some believers commit suicide during hardships, while others hang in their and make it? I believe the answer is one word—FAITH!

The Holy Bible is full of God's PROMISES, and when you cling to those precious promises during the storm, your faith will see you through. As we just read in 1st John 5:4, it is the believer's FAITH that overcomes the world. Do you have faith in God's promises dear friend? I sure do! It is my faith that keeps me going from day to day in my miseries. John 16:33, "These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." That means we ought to BE OF GOOD CHEER, knowing that Jesus Christ has raised up from the dead, and WE HAVE A HOPE IN HIM!!! 1st Corinthians 15:14, " And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

The Holy Bible is said to contain [3]7,487 promises from God to man. The power of God resides in the PROMISES OF GOD! Ladies and gentlemen, we have the inspired written Word of God (i.e, the King James Bible), full of thousands of promises from God to man, that we can build a firm foundation upon!!! That is why the New Testament Church is called: “THE PILLAR AND GROUND OF THE TRUTH,” because the local church preaches THE TRUTH of God’s Word. Now if your so-called

is preaching Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation), then they are not preaching THE TRUTH, so they are NOT a real church!!!

The Lord is our strength. Psalms 18:1, “I will love thee, O LORD, my strength.” Notice that the Lord doesn’t give us strength; but rather, JESUS IS OUR STRENGTH! Psalms 18:2, “The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.” God does not want to make us strong. He wants to add His strength to our weakness. God wants to build us until we become weak, and then He can add His strength to our weakness and use us for His glory.

We grow in grace, not in strength!

Philippians 4:13, “ I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.” Our strength as believers comes from Christ. Nehemiah said: “ THE JOY OF THE LORD IS YOUR STRENGTH

(Nehemiah 8:10b).

We can keep going through any burden, tragedy or heartache because there is a God, and Christ has risen triumphantly from the dead, justifying our faith in Him as our Savior. You can handle anything, no matter what comes your way, because the strength of God is compatible with your weakness. 1st Corinthians 10:13, “There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.” Trials look worse on the way before they arrive, because the grace of God doesn’t get there until the trial does. That is why we cannot live for tomorrow today. Don’t worry about the future! God doesn’t give you grace for tomorrow, he gives you enough grace for just today. God gives us the grace when the burden arrives. You can and will be able to handle the coming nightmare, if you’ll let Jesus be your strength.

Psalms 28:7, "The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him."

Psalms 118:14, "The LORD is my strength and song, and is become my salvation."

Isaiah 12:2, "Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the LORD JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation."

God doesn't want to strengthen us,

He wants to strengthen our walk with Christ!

Come ye sinners poor and needy,

Jesus' blood can make you free;

Come weak Christian and cast yourself upon Him,

And God's mighty power can flow through you,

And God's mighty power can use you!

God is looking for unlearned people, so His wisdom can make you wise. God is looking for people with health problems, so He can use your suffering to help others who are suffering.

When God wanted to change America, he went to a baseball player in left field, who was a drunk that stumbled into Pacific Garden Mission. His name was Billy Sunday.

When God wanted to change the nation of Israel, He went to a little shepherd boy named David—a lad from the smallest family of Jesse, of the smallest tribe of Benjamin, of the smallest nation of Israel.

When God wanted to reach the Gentiles for Christ, he went to a small man named Saul (later renamed “ ), whose reputation was that of hunting down and killing Christians.

Paul

When God wanted to deliver His people from bondage out of Egypt, He came to a murderer named Moses—a nobody shepherd out on the backside of the desert Wilderness. Moses was slow of speech. Moses had a hot-temper. Moses struck the rock twice in his anger, forfeiting his blessing to entered into the Promised Land. Moses smashed the Ten Commandments to the ground in his anger. Moses murdered a man in his anger. Yet, God used Moses to set the Hebrew people free.

God uses the weak, the sinners, the despised, the foolish things of this world. God is looking for weak saints, who are strong in faith. May we all be weak enough for God to make use of for the cause of Jesus Christ.

1.1.63 Debt Leveraging For An Eternal Lifestyle (2020-03-23 05:55)

Matthew 13:44, “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.”

“He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep to gain what he cannot lose.” — Missionary Jim Elliot (1927-1956)

Our text verse from Matthew 13:44 is an incredible Scripture. Jesus plainly teaches that He is likening this story to Heaven. Jesus tells the story about a man who finds a treasure in a field. The man realizes that he has found something so great, that he joyously goes and sells all his earthly possessions in order to purchase this land, so he can obtain the hidden treasure. This story is comparable to Heaven Jesus said, the motherload of all treasures.

This wise man went and sold all his earthly possessions in order to leverage his debt (spending power), so that he could buy this field and all that is hidden in it. My friend, Heaven is a real place. Jesus in this small passage of Scripture is teaching that we ought to do the same as this worldly wise man, by using all of our earthly money, resources and things for Jesus' sake and the Gospel's. Life is so short that it will literally all be over just in a matter of heartbeats. Your life and mine are counting down quickly.

It means to use all that God has given to you for His glory, pleasure and purpose. There are thousands of ways to honor God with our substance. It pleases God when we by faith obey Him, taking heed according to His Word, that is, the holy Bible. Psalms 119:9, "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word." The day you got saved, everything you own became the Lord's. 1st Corinthians 6:20, " For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." That purchase price was the precious blood of Jesus (1st Peter 1:18-19). Every saint has been redeemed by Jesus' blood, and we belong to Christ!

Whatever golden opportunities that we may presently have to glorify God by reaching the lost for Christ with the Gospel—praying and fasting, supporting missionary work, giving financially to the work of God, contending for the Christian faith, taking a stand for God, helping the poor and needy, visiting captives in prison, lifting up the fallen, restoring the weak and living for OTHERS—are quickly fading away. Time is of the essence! This life will be over before we know it! What impact are you making for the Kingdom of God?

So oftentimes people go into massive financial debt to get married, buy a home, buy a business, buy a boat, buy a car (or all of the above). They use what is called "debt-leveraging," which means in simple terms, "borrowing to invest more." You are leveraging your assets to enable you to make a greater investment in something else. In the case of our text Scripture, this man sold everything he owned, leveraging all his worldly wealth in order that he could buy this property with the hidden treasure that he had found.

Jesus likens this debt-leveraging principle to the Kingdom of Heaven...

> Matthew 13:45-46, "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls: Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it."

This merchant (buyer and seller) of pearls went and sold all his pearls so that he could purchase the mother-of-all-pearls which he had just found. The Lord is likening (comparing) this merchant's decision to go-for-broke to investing in Heaven. Most people (saved and unsaved alike) spend their entire lives leveraging their earthly assets to buy temporal things here on earth. Remember, you can't take any of it with you! You were born into the world with nothing, and you'll die and leave this world with nothing. Proverbs 27:20, "Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied."

With these important truths in mind, it ought to become very clear to the reader that this earthly life isn't worth investing in. Life is like a car, that is, it's a depreciating asset from the moment that you drive it off the parking lot where you bought it. Albeit, Heaven is an eternal investment, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and neither do thieves break through and steal. This is what the Lord taught and promised in Matthew 6:19-20. We have but one life to live. Will you live it for Jesus?

Don't lay up treasures and go into financial debt here on earth, so that you can enjoy a better temporary lifestyle here on earth; but rather, lay up for your self eternal treasures in Heaven that will never erode away, nor can they be taken away from you for any reason. We leverage our debt for an eternal lifestyle through laboring in preaching, contending for the faith, praying, fasting, sharing the Gospel (soul-winning) and ALL that we do in Jesus' precious name for His' sake and the Gospel's. The Lord Himself promised that He'll even reward giving a cup of water to a disciple of His. I love that! Mark 9:41, " For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward."

In other words, NOTHING done for Christ will go overlooked and unrewarded. Due to the indifference and lack of detailed concern by most people in this world, it would be easy to assume that God doesn't care about details either, but HE SURE DOES! The most important job is the one that doesn't get done! Do you think the same God Who knows the very number of hairs upon your head (Matthew 10:30), missed the horrible things that people have done to you? Do you think God doesn't see your good deeds and sacrifice for Him? He does! Do you think that same benevolent, omniscient and omnipotent God, Who gave His only begotten Son for me on the cross, doesn't see my sacrifice at 3 a.m. in the morning, as I labor on my computer for Him? You better believe that the Lord sees it all! Hebrews 4:13, "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do."

When I return someone else's shopping cart in the parking lot to the store, I do it for Jesus, to glory God. Matthew 5:16,

"Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. " When we do GOOD WORKS as believers, not TO BE saved but because WE ARE saved, it glorifies God. Ephesians 2:10,

"For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

" As Christians we SHOULD serve Christ; not MUST (that is works); not WILL (that would be Calvinism).

Jim Elliot (1927-1956), the martyred American missionary to Ecuador in 1956 said: "He is no fool who gives up what he cannot keep, to gain that which he cannot lose." Elliot was one of five missionaries who went in an attempt to evangelize the Huaorani people of Ecuador, but were instead brutally murdered by ten Huaorani soldiers and their dead bodies dumped into the local river. They died for their Christian faith. In America, we think persecution is someone laughing at a religious bumper sticker on our car. Around the world today in 2020, [1]Christians are still being persecuted, prosecuted and [2]martyred for their faith.

The way that we view this temporal earthly life now, will determine our eternal lifestyle in Heaven as saints. Matthew 6:19-21, "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." Jesus told us to lay up for yourselves treasures in Heaven. Our lifestyle in eternity as believers will be determined by our lifestyle here on earth. Otherwise, what would be the use of laying up heavenly treasures? Daniel 12:3, "And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever." If some believers will shine in eternity, then others won't. If some have laid up treasures, then the plain implication is that others haven't. Will you be one of the have's or have not's in eternity?

Heaven is the mother load of all treasures and we as believers ought to be leveraging our debt by using everything that we own, our talents, our resources and influence to further the Kingdom of God. 'Tis only one life will soon be past, only what's done for Christ will last. If we're all going to have the same exact rewards in Heaven, then what's the use of Scriptures like 1st Corinthians 3:8, "Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour." Clearly, God rewards the water boy on the spiritual playing field as much as the key players. There are no 'BIG SHOTS' in Heaven's eyes, only 'LITTLE SHOTS' serving the Lord faithfully. God rewards the praying man as much as the preaching man, for time spent laboring for Christ. God rewards labor, not talent; although we may use our talents in our labor.

Every believer can and should serve God. Even the person locked behind bars or crippled in a wheelchair can fervently labour in prayer as taught in Colossians 4:12, "Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God." Prayer is work!

I'm tired of hearing so-called on the internet talk about the importance of laying up earthly treasures for retirement, without ever addressing the reality that death could come at any moment. Proverbs 27:1,

"Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth."

People ought to be concerned about the fate of their soul, and not obsessed with buying gold or silver for the future. I haven't the slightest interest in laying up any earthly treasures! There's nothing in this world that you can take with you into eternity, NOTHING, except the souls who were saved, and the lives that were impacted by your labors, prayers, witnessing and influence for Jesus Christ. ...

“Only one life, ’twill soon be past,
Only what’s done for Christ will last.
And when I am dying, how happy I’ll be,
If the lamp of my life has been burned out for Thee.”
—Charles T. Studd (1860-1931)

The average person in America is boggled down with covetousness and materialism. The heathen world lives for personal success, prosperity and trying to get ahead of their neighbour. I hear advertisement on the radio, luring people to invest every penny possible for retirement, not even considering that our very breath is in God’s hands. Daniel 5:23, “...the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified.” At some point in life, every reasonable person eventually realizes the foolishness and vanity of living for this world’s good, pleasures and wealth (because it is all vanity).

In reality, there are hundreds of bad things that can happen (and usually do) which devour your wealth, health and retirement. When the dwindling steel industry collapsed (due to the evils of deindustrialization in America), even the institutions which were created to protect the retirements of the workers went belly-up, and they lost everything! The steel workers lost their medical insurance and the money which they had laboured day and night to earn for 40-50 years. To my understanding, no one went to prison, but many crooks should have. God will make them pay dearly! The point here is simple, Jesus told us in Matthew 6:19-20 not to laying up treasures in this world, where thieves break through and steal (the biggest thieves wear white collars and sit behind desks).

Jesus said in Matthew 6:19-20 that we ought to lay up treasures in Heaven. Christians can earn heavenly rewards by helping local Bible-believing churches, contending for the faith, giving alms to the poor, supporting missionaries, doing good works in Jesus’ name, helping the afflicted, encouraging your pastor, visiting the imprisoned, and soul-winning by proclaiming the Gospel. Anything good that you do as a born-again Christian for Jesus Christ, and to further the fulfillment of ’The Great Commission,’ will be rewarded. God’s heart’s desire is to see souls saved, that His house may be filled. Any work for God that leaves off proclaiming the Gospel is a waste of time, all done in vain.

1.1.64 We Must All Give Account To God On Judgment Day (2020-03-23 17:30)

The Bible makes clear that not all believers will enjoy Heaven the same. I have a helpful 128 page book in front of me by Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) titled: "WHEN A CHRISTIAN SINS." Dr. Rice states:

> "Some people suppose that every sinner who goes to heaven will have the same joy and happiness. But that is not true. In Revelation 20, we find that sinners who go to hell are judged, every man according to his works, according to the things written down in God's books. The torment of unsaved people in hell will differ, each one according to his opportunity and according to his sin.

> Likewise, the Bible makes it abundantly clear that not all Christians will enjoy the same position and have the same honor and responsibility and blessing in heaven. It is true that each one who trusts in Christ has the same salvation and goes to the same heaven. But beyond salvation there will be rewards for Christians according to their service, and Christians must give an account for their sins. Let no Christian think that he is getting by with his worldliness, his sin, his disobedience, his carelessness about soul-winning.

THE CHRISTIAN MUST MEET HIS DEEDS, GOOD AND BAD, AT CHRIST'S JUDGMENT SEAT

Read with me the shocking passage of Scripture in 2 Corinthians 5:9-10:

> Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

Here we know why Paul worked so hard, why he endured such persecution, gave up home, family, good name, ease, honors, in order to win souls. He was laboring to be acceptable to Jesus Christ!

...Do not explain away the plain statements of the Scriptures. The Christian is still to come face to face with his past. I know that the Christian has his sins forgiven as far as the destiny of his soul is concerned. It is true that all his sins are laid on Jesus and paid for on the cross. But God is still against sin. And up in heaven no Christian will think it did not matter that he sinned. Every Christian will find how terrible are the results of his sins. He will face what he has done, whether it be good or bad.

...Do not confuse salvation and rewards. Salvation is free. Those who trust in Jesus Christ and are born again already have salvation. But those whose works please Christ will receive a reward for them when they face the dear Saviour in heaven.

But many, many Christians will see how useless their lives were. Not a soul did they win to meet them in heaven! Not a thing did they do to bring glory to Christ through the endless ages! Such people will suffer loss at the judgment seat of Christ in heaven."

Amen! I've heard many Christians and preachers teach that believers won't have to give account in Heaven for their sins, but that is only partly true. The Christian who does bad things will answer to God for it. Romans 14:12, "So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God." Although it is possible to live above reproach, no one can live above sin! We all still sin every day, one way or another, even the best saints of God. Sinless perfection is a false teaching (popular with Holiness Methodists). The Bible says in 1st John 1:10, " If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us." I am a wretched sinner, and so are you dear friend!

Not all believers face their sins in this life.

1st Timothy 5:24, "Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after."

Everyone has a Skeleton Closet of sins! I know believers who've hurt other people, and seem to have gotten away with it. God will hold them ALL accountable at the Judgment Seat of Christ! 2nd Corinthians 5:10, "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad." Carefully notice that the Holy Bible does not say we will give account for our "SINS"; but rather, for the "GOOD OR BAD" done in the body.

The big difference between the saved and the unsaved is that God CHASTISES His children so we can learn and grow; but GOD PUNISHES the unsaved in Hell as criminals, who have no hope whatsoever. I plead with you to come to Christ for salvation friend, if you have never done so, because you literally HAVE EVERYTHING TO LOSE!!!

Jesus took the burden of our sins upon Himself on Calvary's cross, so that we would never have to be punished in Hell for them. Yet, the Bible teaches that believers still have to give an account for the "GOOD OR BAD" done in the body. No one ever escapes having to give account to God in eternity!

In fact, Jesus warns that men will be held accountable even for their idle (wasted) words. Matthew 12:36, "But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. " I don't know about you, but that convicts me! My friend, you and I are going to give account for the words that we speak (and don't speak). I tell you, if God were to justly give us WHAT WE DESERVE, the ground would open beneath us immediately, and swallow every one us into the fires and torments of Hell forever!!! Thank God for the blood of Jesus! Romans 5:9, " Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

Every human being will answer to God in eternity for the sins in our life (Hebrews 9:27; Ecclesiastes 12:14). The $64,000 question is: Will we give account to God the Father as an unsaved Christ-rejecter; or will we give account to Jesus Christ, as our personal Savior? We will all give account for our works, whether good and evil. The difference is that there is NO CONDEMNATION for the believer in Christ Jesus! Who is he that condemneth? The implied answer is absolutely NO ONE! Only Jesus has the nail-scared hands, feet and side! Christ is our blessed Redeemer.

We hear so often that "WORKS" are not necessary to go to Heaven, that I think we often forget about the fact that OUR WORKS WILL FOLLOW US INTO ETERNITY! Revelation 14:13, " And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them." We are still going to be judged according to our works as believers, but it will be AS BELIEVERS! There is no danger of condemnation or going to Hell for the Christian. I like to explain it as Civil Court versus Criminal Court. The unsaved will appear at The Great White Throne Of Judgment, which will be their appearance in court as criminals in the sight of God. What saith the Scripture?

Revelation 20:11-15,

“And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

So we see that “THE DEAD”

(i..e, the unrepentant person who didn’t get saved), will be judged and sentenced in the Lake of Fire,

ACCORDING TO THEIR WORKS.

That is very frightening dear reader. Hebrews 10:31,

“It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. ” This ungodly world is filled with fools, who have no fear whatsoever of God. I greatly fear Him! I thank God for sending His only begotten Son to pay for my sins on the cross, or else I’d be terrified. But even as a redeemed child of God, I fear God. I mean I am literally afraid of God, afraid of disobeying Him and hurting another person, for which I would be held accountable. That scares me immensely. I am not afraid in the least of going to Hell, I simply fear standing before the holy God of the universe, my Creator, and having to give account for doing something stupid (more stupid than things I have already done).

When I was a young boy, I was a jumper and climber. I climbed the walls...lol. I was a normal kid, having fun and somewhat rambunctious (especially when my father went to work)! Mom was easy on me. My father was a carpenter and loved to build things. He built a homemade book case the length of the living room wall. It was fresh wood and hadn’t been painted yet. My father had a hot-temper at times, but he was touchy, and you never knew what would set him off. So one day I was jumping around and playing with a can of stain (paint). The lid came off and paint went all over the bookcase, wall and floor. I was so scared that I was crying: "Dad's going to kill me!" My mother my smart. She knew better than wait until my father came home and saw the bookcase all splattered with paint. So when he called from work, she told him what had happened, and told him I was crying. She told him that I was afraid, thinking that he was going to kill me (by beating me to death with a belt). But when my father heard my sobbing, and perceived that I was sorry for what I did, he asked for me to come to the phone. He told me he wouldn't punish me, and comforted my worried soul. My friend, that is exactly what God does to us. 1st Corinthians 11:31, " For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

Our heavenly Father doesn't want to discipline us anymore than He has to! But God WILL scourge and chastise His children (Hebrews 12:6-8) until we make things right. If we make reconciliation and if need be, restitution, with those we have hurt, then God won't have to do it. 1st Thessalonians 4:6, "That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified." I have been financially cheated out of tens of thousands of dollars in my life, and I forgive those people, but God will deal with them, because NOT ONE of them has ever made things right with me.

I am 10,000 times thankful though, that they defrauded me, and not me them! I can live with that. I am divorced, but I didn't file, she did. I can live with that. I did not ostracize, reject and shun Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, they did all that to me. I can live with that, because the blood is on their hands, not mine. They are one's teaching the Satanic lie of Lordship Salvation, and promoting the Devil's corruptible seed of the Alexandrian Bible revisions. I have told THE TRUTH from the very start, and I humbly stand boldly with righteous confidence before the Lord. Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

" The truth matters! It is not okay to sanction dozens of Bible revisions that originate from two different ancient sources. That is insane!

What saith the Scripture? 1st John 2:1-2,

"My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. ” This is one of the most encouraging and powerful truths in the Bible dear reader. The word “advocate” is the Greek word Paraclete and refers to one who runs to our side to help. The Greek word Paraclete appear 5 times in the New testament (4 times in the Gospel of John as “

Comforter

and 1 time in the Epistle of 1st John

Advocate

). Paraclete means Comforter

, Advocate

, Helper!

> Greek, “ {paraclete },” the same term as is applied to the Holy Ghost, as the “other Comforter”; showing the unity of the Second and Third Persons of the Trinity. Christ is the Intercessor for us above; and, in His absence, here below the Holy Ghost is the other Intercessor in us. Christ‘s advocacy is inseparable from the Holy Spirit‘s comfort and working in us, as the spirit of intercessory prayer. —[1]Commentary Critical And Explanatory On The Whole Bible

Jesus Christ bore the weight of our sins upon the cross of Calvary. He suffered the penalty of our sins, so we wouldn’t have to in Hell forever. Yet, the Bible teaches that we still have to “give account” as believers for the decisions we make throughout our life. What saith the Scripture? Romans 14:10-12, “But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.” Please pay careful attention to what the Scripture warns—if we judge our Christian brother or sister, condemning them for their sins, shunning and shaming them, making them feel guilty for forsaken past sins—we are sinfully elevating our self in the place of God. In particular, the Bible warns not to “SET AT NOUGHT THY BROTHER.”

Pastor Jack Hyles said: “The Christian army is the only army in the world that kills its wounded!” That is sadly very true! A person can fall into sin and leave a church, and then try to come back later on, but the people in the church won’t receive them back. That is why a young wayward youth named, Todd Moffat, commit suicide at the First Baptist Church of Hammond many decades ago. Pastor Jack Hyles tells this heartbreaking story in his beautiful and needful sermon called: “If Thou Should Mark Iniquities, Who Could Stand?”

“Don’t let the Pharisees scare you off! ...Brother, as long as you live and breathe, God has something that you can be and do! The Devil is the one who’ll make you feel unworthy, and he’ll use his little demons to help you! ...If God should mark iniquities, none of us would be worthy! But if God doesn’t mark iniquities, all of us are qualified. God doesn’t have anything to use but sinner!” —Dr. Jack Hyles, “If Thou Should Mark Iniquities, Who Could Stand?” (MP3)

Only Effective Soul-Winners Will Shine in Heaven

What will it matter if you witness to thousands of people during your life, but nobody ever came to Jesus Christ, because you didn’t make the Gospel plain enough for people to understand? It’s the CLARITY of the Gospel that makes it easy for people to believe and get saved!!! Daniel 12:3, “And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.” Notice that to “shine” in eternity you must turn many people to Christ’s righteousness. This speaks of God’s imputed righteousness, which is the only way to be saved (Philippians 3:9). Granted, 1st Corinthians 3:6-9 teaches us that God giveth the increase. Whether a man sows or reaps, their rewards will be the same, but if the shallow plan of salvation that you are teaching isn’t clear, then people WON’T be saved.

Obviously, not all believers will SHINE in eternity. Soul-winners here on earth, who lead many souls to Jesus Christ, will be greatly loved and admired by those people in Heaven. Wouldn’t you greatly love, appreciate and adore the person who led you to eternal life, by faith in Christ Jesus? Why sure you would! I believe this is why effective soul-winners will shine in Heaven.

> “God doesn’t need a brilliant mind, He needs a voice!” —Dr. Jack Hyles, ’[2]I Am A Voice!’ (MP3)

Notice that I said “effective.” I heard an independent Baptist missionary last year boast that throughout his lifetime, he has led 200,000 souls to Christ. If that be true, praise God!!! However, I have learned that many soul-winners are just wasting their time—dishing out a 1-2-3, follow-me, pray-along-with-me-to-be-saved, type deal. But they’ve never truly won anyone to Jesus Christ!!! May I say, kindly, you DON’T get saved by praying a prayer. You’d be SHOCKED if you knew how many churchgoers who profess to be saved, don’t have a clue what “the Gospel” means. If you were to ask them “why” they think they’d going to Heaven, they’ll say something like, “I’m trusting Jesus” or “I asked Jesus into my heart” or “I prayed a prayer.” NONE of these constitute the Gospel!!!

1.1.65 You Can’t Take It With You, But You Can Send It Ahead (2020-03-24 00:00)

1st Timothy 6:7-8, “

For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

And having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

If we truly comprehended by faith the realities of the Kingdom Of God, then we would joyously use the time, money, talent and things that we have in this temporary world for God's glory. Clearly, wise stewardship of all that God has given to us is expected. Literally, we are stewards who have been entrusted with God's money. If you are saved, then everything that you own is the Lord's. So if someone steals your things, they have stolen from the Lord, because you and everything that you own are His. Literally, God asks us to give back some of what HE GAVE TO US, and then He rewards us for it. What a great deal! What a fantastic deal!

When we give anything to God, we are simply letting go of what is already His. Pastor Jack Hyles said the true measure of our success as Christians, won't be how many people who up at our funeral to say goodbye, but how many people will be waiting in Heaven to greet us!

'[1]You Can't Take It With You!' (a life-changing MP3 sermon by Pastor Jeff Owens)

We cannot take anything with us when we die, but we CAN send it ahead. That is, it's not what we leave behind that matters; but rather, what will be waiting for us when we get to Heaven. Although Dr. John MacArthur is a liberal who [2]denies that Jesus' blood is sprinkled on the heavenly Mercy Seat, and he [3]teaches a Calvinistic works-based false plan of salvation, still he makes the following awesome quote concerning the mammon of unrighteousness (Luke 16:8-9), with which I agree 100 % . . .

> "Believers are to use their master's money (we are stewards) in a way that will accrue fruits for eternity, by investing in the kingdom gospel that brings sinners to salvation, so that when they arrive in Heaven (an everlasting home) those sinners will be there to welcome them." —Pastor John MacArthur

The people whom we lead to the Lord here on earth today, will be there to welcome and receive us into everlasting habitations tomorrow when we die, to enjoy our peaceful and happy home in Heaven forever with Jesus. What a time that will be!!! The story of the wise, but shady, servant who made friends of the mammon of unrighteousness for his own personal gain, is an example which the Lord uses to encourage us to do the same, but by [4]DEBT-LEVERAGING EVERYTHING WE OWN FOR AN ETERNAL LIFESTYLE. Amen!

[5]WHAT ARE YOU DOING FOR GOD TODAY? WE'LL WHAT ARE YOU WAITING FOR? GET BUSY FOR GOD!!! You can't take money to Heaven with you, but [6]you can take people's souls. You know, you've never seen a U-haul trailer hooked-up to the back of a hearse. You can't take it with you!

Proverbs 11:30, "

The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.

1.1.66 God Promised To Save Them That Believe The Gospel (2020-03-24 08:00)

I fear for those who die in their sins (John 8:24), who die without God's imputed righteousness, which comes only through faith in Jesus Christ (Romans 10:3-4; 2nd Corinthians 5:21; Philippians 3:9; Romans 4:5-6). I hear fools teaching the heresy of Lordship Salvation, which says that a person cannot merely trust Christ as one's Savior and write their name in the back of their Bible, assuming that they are eternally secure without first proving their sincerity through living a life of holiness and surrender to Christ's lordship. That is a false plan of salvation, which sadly Pacific Garden Mission's Unshackled radio program series has been propagating.

My friend, salvation is a supernatural miracle of God in response to a person's faith in the Gospel (Romans 1:16; John 1:12-13). Yes, you can simply acknowledge your guilt of sin in the eyes of a holy God (Romans 3:19), and BELIEVE the Gospel to be saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4), without any obligation to change your behavior, surrender to Christ, confess Christ publicly, forsake the world, commit to follow Jesus, or cease from sinful bad habits. These are all human effort (works), which are not allowed nor tolerated by God in His simple plan of salvation. Jesus paid it all with His precious blood. Man has no part in God's salvation, except to completely rest in Christ Jesus (Hebrews 4:10-11). Yes, you can write in your Bible's insert your name, date, time and place that you were born-again, spiritually reborn into God's Kingdom. Salvation is a new birth, which happens in an instant in time, just as one's first physical birth into this world.

Heretical evangelist, Paul Washer, condemns the practice of writing one's name, date, time and place in one's Bible. Mr. Washer says that a life of works must legitimize one's faith to be valid. This is part of the demonic doctrines of Calvinism. False prophets speak with a forked-tongue. They say that salvation is the gift of God, and cannot be earned by works; yet at the same time they say that if a person does not desire to depart from sinful ways and follow Christ, they are not saved. Romans 11:6 says that salvation is either by works or grace, but it cannot be both. It is heresy to mandate a changed life to be saved. Proponents of Lordship Salvation have it all backwards. God saves those who simply BELIEVE the Gospel, who trust upon the name of the Lord Jesus Christ; believing that He died on the cross for their sins, was buried, and resurrected the third day. That's the Gospel!

As far as a changed life goes, that's an entirely different matter of Discipleship. New believers need to be properly mentored, which is part of 'The Great Commission' (Matthew 28:19-20). If preachers would preach against sin as they ought, Christians would live holier lives. Instead, the Devil has duped many preachers into perverting the Gospel, forcing people to forsake sinful behavior as part of being saved. This is a false plan of salvation, which converts men to religion, but does not produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God. Many moral churchgoers are going to be cast into the Lake of Fire. Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth."

I KNOW, beyond any shadow of a doubt, that I am saved and on my way to Heaven. My salvation is eternally secure, because of the PROMISE of God TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE. Salvation is not a matter of my goodness, nor my faithfulness to God; but rather, it is based upon God's goodness, and God's faithfulness to keep His PROMISES!

1.1.67 Great Peace Comes From Resting In God's Promises (2020-03-24 14:00)

You can find solace in the PROMISES of God. 2nd Peter 1:2-4, "Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust." Man's word means NOTHING. This world is full of wicked sinners. We are all sinners. Many sinners enjoying condemning other sinners, but God will judge us all as SINNERS, and God's harshest judgment is reserved for those sinners who condemns other sinners (Matthew 7:1-5). Judge (condemn) not, that ye be not judged (condemn)!

Here is a wonderful passage of Scripture, which PROMISES that our eternal weight of glory will far exceed our present light afflictions:

> 2nd Corinthians 4:16-18, "For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal."

Life is a gift from God, which most people squander. ...

The clock of life is wound but once, and no man has the power, to tell just when the hands will stop, at late or early hour;
To lose one's wealth is sad indeed, to lose one's health is more, to lose your soul is such a loss, that no one can restore.

Another of my favorite PROMISES from God is found in Philippians 4:6-7, "Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." The Bible teaches us to pray about everything, and worry about nothing, claiming God's PROMISE that once we've prayed, that He will attend to our request(s) and we may rest in peace from that point on. That's exactly what Philippians 4:6-7 teach us. Once we've prayed, making our request(s) known unto God, we are commanded to rest in THE PEACE THAT PASSETH ALL UNDERSTANDING, knowing that God is the keeper of our soul in Christ Jesus our Savior. If we choose to worry, that is our decision. ...

Oh, what peace we often forfeit, oh what needless pain we bear;
all because we do not carry, everything to God in prayer.

Trusting, claiming and abiding (living) in the PROMISES OF GOD is solely a matter of faith for the believer. Do you believe that the Bible is God's holy and inspired Words? Do you believe that God authored the Bible? Do you believe that there is a real, all powerful (omnipotent), all-knowing (omniscient), all-present (omnipresent), and all-loving (omnibenevolent) God in Heaven? God created and loves you. He cares about you. If you don't believe that God authored the Holy Bible, then you're not going to place any credibility in its veracity and reliability.

I believe 100 % that the King James Bible is God's preserved and inspired words for this generation. I find no error, nor fault, in the inspired King James Bible. I don't think it needs any improvement, nor do I think its 54 translators could have done a better job. Albeit, I do not believe in double inspiration (i.e., I do not believe that God gave any new revelation to the King James Bible translators). I do believe that God oversaw the work, and that the Holy Spirit made sure when completed, the King James Bible was exactly what God intended for it to be. Were the King James translators inspired? No, but they were working with select texts (aka, Textus Receptus) which were already inspired. I do not believe that there will ever be another translation of the Holy Bible into the English language, simply because today's inferior language could not facilitate a proper translation.

As a born-again Christian, I find great peace in the comforting Word of God, particularly in the PROMISES OF GOD! What a wonderful fact that the Bible contains [1]7,487 PROMISES from God to man! Our text verses from 1st Peter 1:2-4 teaches that the power of God resides in the PROMISES of God, because the Lord always keeps His promises, and you can take that to the bank! Only a fool bases his life and eternal destiny upon speculation, human reasoning, fables, manmade tradition and religion. What you had better do is "SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES" as Jesus commanded in John 5:39b, discovering and claiming the PROMISES OF GOD in the King James Bible. Only then will you KNOW you're not living your life in vain, having a foundation that is sure in Jesus Christ, and a hope of eternal life and heavenly rewards that man cannot take away. Time cannot destroy a Christian's faith, as the world fades away in their unbelief. ...

> 1st John 2:15-17, "
> Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.
>
> For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.
>
> And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever*.

This temporal earthly life will come to an end, guaranteed. Everything that you see around you will eventually return to the dust from which it came. Ah, but the PROMISES of God transcend this earthly life, lasting forever. When you're dead and gone, the PROMISES of God will still stand sure and true; and if you die in the Lord (Revelation 14:13), you will spend eternity enjoying all the blessings of God (Romans 8:32). Romans 15:4, "

For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

" I challenge you to learn the many PROMISES of God in the Bible.

Here are a few of my favorite PROMISES:

1. ETERNAL LIFE (John 6:47)
2. A NEW PERFECT BODY (Philippians 3:21)
3. MY OWN PRIVATE HOME IN HEAVEN (John 14:1-3)
4. GOD WILL GIVE ME ALL THINGS (Romans 8:32)
5. NO MAN WILL EVER TAKE MY JOY AWAY AGAIN (John 16:22)
6. THOSE WHO HAVE HURT ME WILL ANSWER TO GOD (Ecclesiastes 12:14)
7. GOD WILL REWARD ALL MY LABORS FOR CHRIST (1st Corinthians 3:8)
8. ALL TEARS SHALL BE WIPED AWAY (Revelation 21:4)
9. FORMER THINGS SHALL PASS AWAY (Revelation 21:4)
10. WE WILL LIVE WITH GOD FOREVER (Revelation 21:3)
11. ALL THINGS WILL WORK TOGETHER FOR GOOD (Romans 8:28)
12. SOULWINNERS WILL SHINE IN HEAVEN (Daniel 12:3)

There are 7,475 more promises in the Holy Bible from God to man. Can you find them my friend? These promises from the Lord are what give me comfort and joy from day to day.

1.1.68 Who Is He That Condemneth? (2020-03-24 19:18)

Romans 8:34, “Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.”

I love this precious passage of Scripture! The Bible asks a rhetorical question. A rhetorical question has an obvious answer, but the questioner asks a rhetorical question to lay emphasis to the point. The implied answer is that NO ONE CAN CONDEMN US!!! Do you know why they cannot condemn us? The Holy Bible tells us the answer in our text verse from Romans 8:34—IT IS BECAUSE CHRIST DIED FOR OUR SINS ON THE CROSS, AND IS RISEN, AS OUR INTERCESSORY HIGH PRIEST! Jesus died on the cross as our SACRIFICIAL LAMB and He raised up as our heavenly HIGH PRIEST! Pastor Jack Hyles explains this important Biblical truth in his sermon titled: " [1]IF CHRIST BE NOT RISEN .

> "The Devil will make you guilty about your past... You're not worthy to serve God, but neither is anybody else worthy to serve God, and so God's gotta have unworthy people serving Him... That's one reason why we should do everything we can to salvage people." —a beautiful quote from an MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles titled: "[2]If Thou Should Mark Iniquities, Who Could Stand?"

[3]THE GOSPEL

Jesus DIED on the cross for our sins, He was BURIED and three days later He bodily RESURRECTED from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

BELIEVE IT OH SINNER, and you are instantly, irrevocably and eternally saved!!! The second spiritual birth is as irreversible as the first physical birth! If saved, always saved! Once a sinner is born-again, there is no risk of ever being lost again. If saved, always saved!

Now, if that person some future day claims to no longer believe on Christ, it just proves that they never really believed at all. When a person is saved, God SEALS THEM with the indwelling Holy Spirit (Ephesians 1:13). ...

> Ephesians 1:12-14, "
>
> That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.
>
> In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise,
>
> Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

Christianity began as a NEW BIRTH by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ; when it went to Greece it became a PHILOSOPHY; when it went to Rome it became an ORGANIZATION; when it spread throughout Europe it became a CULTURE; and when Christianity came to America it became a BUSINESS!!! Jesus said in John 3:7, "YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN" !

According to Romans 8:34b, Christ is seated at the right-hand of God the Father, " WHO ALSO MAKETH INTERCESSION FOR US

" ! That is so beautiful and encouraging! Jesus is every believer's intercessory High Priest in Heaven (Hebrews 4:14-16).

My friend, even if the whole world condemns you; even if every court in the world condemns you; even if you are found guilty and sentenced to multiple life-terms in prison or receive the death penalty—THERE IS NO CONDEMNATION TO THEM WHICH ARE IN CHRIST JESUS!!! Romans 8:1a, "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus..."

Once you receive God's free gift of forgiveness of sins, through faith alone in the 'GOOD NEWS' (GOSPEL) of Jesus Christ, your sins are forever gone! Psalms 103:12, "As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us." I love that truth! You can get on a jet plane and travel east forever, and there will never come a time when you are going west. The same is true if you travel eastward. But you can only go so far north until you'll be headed south again. And contrawise, you can only go so far south until you'll be headed north again. EAST AND WEST NEVER MEET! And likewise, if you've placed your reliance in Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, your sins have been blotted out and forever separated from you. Isaiah 1:18, "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool."

> "You know the greatest difficulty and hindrance today, is not that people are not good enough. The great hindrance is they're not bad enough, to be saved!" —Pastor J. Vernon McGee, "[4]Why The Gospel Is Not Preached Today"

All Believers Still Sin

Psalms 106:6, "We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly." King David had sinned horribly, conspiring to commit murder after impregnating a soldier's wife in an adulterous fling. Many of God's blessings departed from David. Sorrow became the norm in David's life. What evils David had done in secret, became openly known throughout the whole kingdom of Israel. David's neighbours avoided him in awkward fear. Some cast stones and dust upon him. David's enemies had a hey day! Yet, David realized that God's opinion was the only opinion that mattered at all! Psalms 51:4, "Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest." This is exactly what Romans 8:34 teaches us, that is, no one can condemn us except God, and there is NO CONDEMNATION to those who have been washed in the sin-cleansing blood of Jesus Christ (Romans 8:1; 1st John 1:7; Revelation 1:5; 1st Peter 1:18-19). Thank God for the blood of Jesus!!!

> "The Devil will make you guilty about your past... You're not worthy to serve God, but neither is anybody else worthy to serve God, and so God's gotta have unworthy people serving Him... That's one reason why we should do everything we can to salvage people." —a beautiful quote from the MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles titled, "[5]If Thou Should Mark Iniquities, Who Could Stand?"

It is important for every Christian believer to understand and always remember that, if we do choose to sin, God's grace will abound that much more, so that we can NEVER lose our eternal life or position in Christ as His redeemed child of God. Romans 5:20, "Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound." Isn't that precious? It sure is friend! Remember, we are not saved by our own righteousness, but by the imputed righteousness of God through faith alone in the Lord Jesus Christ. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith."

> "Church is a place where people should be able to hurt out loud. And I should be there to put my arms around those who are willing to hurt out loud." —Evangelist Les Ollila, from the MP3 sermon, "[6]The Judgment Seat Of Christ"

God’s Harshest Judgment is Reserved for Those Who Deal Harshly With Sinners

The Bible’s definition of a “hypocrite” is someone who considers another person a bigger sinner than them self. ...

> Matthew 7:1-5, “Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother’s eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother’s eye.”

As we just read in the Holy Bible, God doesn’t want us to berate, belittle, malign, attack, judge (condemn), degrade, criticize and continually throw someone else’s past in their face, lest God deal the same hurtful and rotten way with us. There should be a desire in every Christian (God’s unconditional love) that wants to forgive the mistakes and sins of others. Proverb:19:11, “The discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.”

> Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr.“When a person is condemned and goes to Hell, you don’t go to Hell because of what you did. You don’t go because you lied, you cussed, you drank, you smoked, you drugged; you don’t go because you’re a homosexual lesbian, adulterer; you don’t go to Hell because of what you did, you go to Hell because of what you didn’t do! You go to Hell because you did not believe on the name of the only begotten Son of God! You go to Hell and you are rejected, and have God’s judgment on you, because you refused to realize and embrace Jesus for Who He is!” —Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr., [7]a truthful quote from the MP3 sermon, “[8]Have You Been Born Again?” | [9]MP3 | [10]More MP3 Sermons By Pastor Jenkins Sr.

I am not saying that crimes ought to be ignored as if they hadn't happened. We ought not look the other way when a crime has been committed. However, if that person has been brought to justice and has since repented, who are we to condemn them for the rest of their life? To do so brings the judgment of God. In America, once you mess-up your life, people will try to keep you down permanently. Once you have a felony criminal record, you might as well go live in the storm drains under your city, because nobody will hire you (with very few exceptions). The world will drive you to your knees and keep you there if you let it. The world never meets anyone halfway on anything! The world is cold, unforgiving and cruel!

The born-again Christian enjoys the gift of forgiveness that is obtained through the blood of Christ's cross, which supersedes all else. Proverbs 24:16, "For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief." God wants the Christian to RISE UP, knowing that you have been forgiven in Christ Jesus. I believe this is exactly what is meant in Hebrews 10:22, "Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water."

If you have been redeemed by the blood of Christ, NO ONE can condemn you, so stop condemning yourself! Rest peaceful dear reader in the abundant forgiveness which salvation brings to every believer. Hebrews 7:25, "Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

" If you acknowledge being a guilty sinner in need of divine redemption, then simply BELIEVE the 'GOOD NEWS' of Jesus Christ who died on the cross for your sins, was buried, and bodily resurrected from the dead three days later, and you will be instantly and eternally saved! You will be SAVED TO THE UTTERMOST!!!

1.1.69 If We Sin We Have An Advocate With The Father (2020-03-25 00:00)

1st John 2:1-2,

"My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. "

This is one of the most encouraging and powerful truths in the Holy Bible dear reader. The word “advocate” is the Greek word Paraclete and refers to one who runs to our side to help. The Greek word Paraclete appear 5 times in the New testament (4 times in the Gospel of John as “

and 1 time in the Epistle of 1st John

Advocate

). Paraclete means Comforter

, Advocate

, Helper! I found this helpful information...

> Greek, “ {paraclete },” the same term as is applied to the Holy Ghost, as the “other Comforter”; showing the unity of the Second and Third Persons of the Trinity. Christ is the Intercessor for us above; and, in His absence, here below the Holy Ghost is the other Intercessor in us. Christ‘s advocacy is inseparable from the Holy Spirit‘s comfort and working in us, as the spirit of intercessory prayer. —[1]Commentary Critical And Explanatory On The Whole Bible

I love that truth! Jesus intercedes on our behalf in Heaven before the Father. I speak to redeemed saints (i.e., those who believe on the Lord Jesus Christ). 1st John 2:1-2 is such a beautiful truth—whenever we sin (regardless of how awful it may be), the Bible says Jesus is our ADVOCATE (our helper, our comforter), Who INTERCEDES for us before the Father. The Holy Spirit teaches, guides and comforts us here on earth, in Christ’s absence (John 16:7). These are beautiful privileges of being a child of God. So Jesus takes care of things up in Heaven, and the Holy Spirit takes care of things down here in earth.

[2]MEET THE HOLY SPIRIT (a helpful book by Pastor Jack Hyles)

What saith the Scripture?

1st Timothy 2:5-6, "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time." There is ONLY one MEDIATOR between God and men, the man Christ Jesus! Since God is absolutely holy, and man is absolutely sinful, there can be no harmony without an intercessor to bridge the gap. That is why God sent His blessed only begotten Son into the world, to become our sacrificial LAMB upon the cross, and then Christ raised up three days later as our intercessory High Priest (our Mediator).

If Christ had only died as a mere mortal man, but never resurrected physically from the dead, then we would have a LAMB but no HIGH PRIEST to intercede on our behalf before God the Father in Heaven. 1st Corinthians 15:14, "And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain."

Boy this is great stuff!!!

Please notice that the Bible says if we sin, we have AN ADVOCATE with the Father —Jesus Christ THE RIGHTEOUS!!! That refers to the imputed righteousness of God, through faith in Christ Jesus! Literally, when a Christian sins, God sees Christ's righteousness instead of our sins. That is why the apostle Paul could say in Romans 4:6-8, "Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin."

Please don't miss this tremendous truth! God WILL NOT impute sin to any saint! David knew that truth better than anybody, because he was guilty of committing adultery, impregnating another man's wife, and then murdering her husband in an attempt to hide the evil David had done! What a horrible person! Yet, God would NOT impute those sins to David , because his trust was in the blessed Savior! Acts 10:43,

"To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." It was after hearing this very truth that Cornelius received Jesus as his personal Savior.

Acts 10:44, "While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word." There's that

BY THE HEARING OF FAITH

from Galatians 3:2,

"This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?" Paul only wanted to know one thing of the Galatians—how did they get saved (i.e., indwelt with the Holy Spirit)—by works or the hearing of faith? Dear friend, it is that easy and simple to be saved. All you need to do is BELIEVE what you hear, when the Gospel is presented to you.

> "The Devil will make you guilty about your past... You're not worthy to serve God, but neither is anybody else worthy to serve God, and so God's gotta have unworthy people serving Him... That's one reason why we should do everything we can to salvage people." —a beautiful quote from an MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles titled: " [3]If Thou Should Mark Iniquities, Who Could Stand? "

Jesus Christ Saves To The Uttermost

What further saith the Scripture? Hebrews 7:22-25, "By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament. And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death: But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them."

I love that precious word "UTTERMOST" in Hebrews 7:25!

There were umpteen Tabernacle high priests throughout the Old Testament, who entered into the holy place each year with the blood of a slain lamb, to atone (cover) for the sins of the people for another year. This was a temporary C eremonial Law instituted by God under the Old Covenant, awaiting the coming of "the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world" (John 1:29b).

There where many faithful Old Testament high priests, but they were not able to continue their work atoning for the sins of the people, because THEY ALL EVENTUALLY DIED! The Bible tells us in Hebrews 7:22-25 that Jesus is the Author of a

BETTER

” covenant, that is, the New Testament, because Jesus NEVER DIES! Christ is our High Priest in Heaven Who “EVER LIVETH TO MAKE INTERCESSION” for the saints! Oh listen friend, JESUS SAVES to the UTTERMOST—freely, immediately, permanently, irrevocably, unhesitatingly, completely, once and for all time, thoroughly and eternally!!! There ain’t no goin’ back dog!!!

What a precious word: “UTTERMOST”! Unlike the many high priests under the Old Covenant given by Moses, who all died off and couldn’t save anybody; Jesus Christ “IS ABLE ALSO TO SAVE THEM TO THE UTTERMOST THAT COME UNTO GOD BY HIM, SEEING HE EVER LIVETH TO MAKE INTERCESSION FOR THEM.” I love it! I love it! I love it! What a beautiful passage of Holy Scripture!!! Anybody who comes to God the Father through faith in God the Son, is saved! John 14:6, “Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. ”

I found this helpful Bible commentary on the word

Albert Barnes’ Notes On The Whole Bible

To the uttermost - This does not mean simply “forever” - but that he has power to save them so that their salvation shall be “complete” - εἰς τὸ παντελὲς eis to panteles. He does not abandon the work midway; he does not begin a work which he is unable to finish. He can aid us as long as we need anything done for our salvation; he can save all who will entrust their salvation to his hands. [4]SOURCE

Philippians 1:6, “

Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

” I agree with Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) in the [5]Perseverance Of The Holy Spirit (or, the Preservation Of The Saints). As did Dr. Ironside, I also totally REJECT the false doctrine of Calvinism called: the Perseverance Of The Saints! In other words, if you are saved, you have the indwelling Holy Spirit by which God by which ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise,

Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory

” (Ephesians 1:13b-14). You can never lose the Holy Spirit! He has promised in Hebrews 13:5

to leave nor forsake you as a child of God!

I hope you will remember this Bible truth

—the important word: ADVOCATE! Jesus is our Advocate, the righteous one who intercedes for us in the presence of the Father, so that we are never at risk of losing our salvation. To lose one’s salvation, Jesus would have to resign as our heavenly High Priest! Oh, but we have a great High Priest, who is faithful! Hebrews 4:14, “ Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.” Literally, the Bible is encouraging us to have confidence and boldness in the Lord, knowing that Jesus is in Heaven interceding on our behalf 24 hours a day, 365 days a year! Jesus is our Advocate when we sin! Literally, the Bible is telling us that the Savior has our back! ...

> Romans 5:20-21 “Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:
> That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.
>
> **”

Thus, the Christian believer falls “

IN GRACE

when we sin, never

FROM GRACE.

Only an unsaved person who rejects the Gospel has fallen

FROM GRACE!

” Jesus is our faithful Advocate, and He will always be there to intercede for us when we sin. Jesus intercedes for us in Heaven; and the Holy Spirit intercedes down here on earth in Christ’s stead, in His absence. John 16:7, “ Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.”

1.1.70 Our Help Is In The Name Of The Lord (2020-03-25 01:30)

Psalms 124:6-8, “

Blessed be the LORD, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.

Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped.

Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth*.

I sure love that passage of Scripture! Notice that the Bible plainly says God “ made the heaven and the earth.

” There is no controversy if you believe the Holy Bible! I am so sick of the heathen world promoting the LIES of evolution (or better called: DEVILution). My friend, it takes far more faith to accept the insane claims of evolutionists, than it does to accept the inspired Word of God. The God who made heaven and earth is OUR HELPER!

The greatest Bible truth you'll ever learn, next to trusting Jesus Christ to save you, is that we continue living the Christian life the same way we were saved—by faith in the Lord. The churches today are plagued with heresy! Sadly, that includes many Independent Fundamental Baptist Churches (of which affiliation I am myself as a born-again Christian). All across the world, especially in America, Satan has crept a BIG LIE into the churches, which says that if you are really saved, you WILL turn from sin, surrender your life to Christ, and follow Him as Lord! That is unbiblical. What saith the Scripture? We are saved solely 'BY THE HEARING OF FAITH'! That is, you simply BELIEVE the 'GOOD NEWS' of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen when you hear or read it. ...

> Galatians 3:2-3, “ This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or *by the hearing of faith?
>
> Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

Many preachers will concede that a sinner is saved by grace alone through faith in Christ, but then they'll rear-load the Gospel, saying that you MUST live a certain way or else you didn't get saved. That is the false doctrine of Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation)!

I actually heard of a foolish Baptist preacher who berated a member of his church, for testifying on a Sunday morning that she had led three people to the Lord at work the previous week. The deceived minister said:

“Well, we don’t know if they really got saved or not, we’ll have to watch their lives over time, to verify if they are really saved!” Folks, that is “

and it is 10,000 times more contagious and deadly than the media-hyped Coronavirus scare today. The Coronavirus may kill your body, but a false gospel will damn your body and soul to the Lake of Fire forever (Matthew 10:28; Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8). On the Day of Pentecost, the Bible says in Acts 2:41 that 3,000 people gladly received

the Gospel and were saved. They didn’t receive Probationary Life or Temporal Life, they received Eternal Life!

We live the Christian life the very same way that we were saved—BY FAITH!

We don’t reform (a false understanding of repentance for salvation) by turning away from our sins. We don’t produce the changed life, the Holy Spirit does, as we are transformed by the renewing of our mind through studying the inspired Word of God (1st Peter 2:2).

Jesus lives the Christian life THROUGH us, as we yield to the Spirit’s leading by the Word of God...

Galatians 2:20,

I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

Colossians 3:3-4, “ If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. ”

Psalms 27:1, “

The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

1st Corinthians 1:26-31, “For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are:

That no flesh should glory in his presence.

But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption*:

That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.”

If there is anything good in me, it is the precious Lord Jesus Christ. When I sin, that is my own fault for choosing to walk in the flesh (Galatians 5:19-21). At any given time I can choose to walk in the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25), but I won’t always make that right choice, because I am a sinner by nature and by choice. Galatians 5:25, “ If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.”

Dear friend, God doesn’t need your strengths, talents, wisdom, abilities or money (although He can use them all for His purpose and glory), He wants your heart! ...

Proverbs 23:17, “ Let not thine heart envy sinners: but be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long.

Proverbs 23:26, “ My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

Proverbs 3:5-7, “

Trust in the LORD with all thine heart*; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil. ”

If God has your HEART, then everything else will follow! The Christian life is not lived in our own human strength, anymore than salvation is obtained by human effort. We get saved by faith alone, and then we live from day to day BY FAITH. 2nd Corinthians 5:7, “ (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)

1.1.71 Christ Died For All Humanity (2020-03-25 02:00)

1st John 2:1-2, “My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.”

Truly, I honestly don’t know how anyone could ever agree with John Calvin (1509-1564). One of Mr. Calvin’s most popular teachings is called “Limited Atonement,” which is the false doctrine that since God chooses who will or will not be saved, Christ therefore only died for the elect

(the chosen). As you just plainly read for yourself, Jesus Christ is not only the PROPITIATION (to appease the wrath of God) of the saints, "BUT ALSO FOR THE SINS OF THE WHOLE WORLD." I tell you with all Biblical certainty and confidence that: CHRIST DIED FOR ALL MEN!!!

FOR WHOM DID CHRIST DIE? HE DIED...

- For all (1st Timothy 2:6; Isaiah 53:6).
- For every man (Hebrews 2:9).
- For the world (John 3:16).
- For the sins of the whole world (1st John 2:2).
- For the ungodly (Romans 5:6).
- For false teachers (2nd Peter 2:1).
- For many (Matthew 20:28).
- For Israel (John 11:50-51).
- For the Church (Ephesians 5:25).
- For "me" (Galatians 2:20).

The inspired Word of God teaches that Christ is the Savior of all humanity. 1st Timothy 4:10, "For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe." Jesus is the Savior of ALL MEN, especially of those that believe. How much clearer could the Bible be on this matter that CHRIST DIED FOR ALL HUMANITY? How else could Jesus be "THE SAVIOUR OF ALL MEN"?

> "If there's anybody in the Bible that God had disdain for,

1.1.72 Social Engineering Has Alienated Women From Men (2020-03-25 03:30)

1st Timothy 5:14-15, “

I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

For some are already turned aside after Satan*.

The following helpful information is from [1]Professor Henry Makow:

> For a woman, love is an instinctive act of self-sacrifice. She gives herself to her husband and children and is fulfilled by seeing them thrive and receiving their love, respect, and gratitude. A woman makes this supreme sacrifice to only one man who will cherish her and provide for his family. Men instinctively want to fulfill this responsibility. This is the essence of the heterosexual contract (i.e. marriage): female power in exchange for male power expressed as love. Sex is the symbol of this exclusive bond. Marriage and family may not be for everyone but it is the natural path for most.

> Feminism has trained women to reject this model as "an old fashioned, oppressive stereotype" even though it reflects their natural instincts.

> Recently, a British writer reported overhearing two young women:

> "All men are useless these days," one said. "Yeah," said the other. "The trouble is that they haven't risen to the challenge of feminism. They don't understand that we need them to be more masculine, and instead they have just copped out."

> That's their logic? If women are less feminine, men will be more masculine? Men aren't designed to fight with women. They need to be affirmed by a woman's acquiescence and faith. When women constantly challenge them, men will "cop-out" of marriage and family.

> Now that love and marriage have been "discredited," women have nothing left to exchange for love but sex. Thus, many are unnaturally obsessed with appearance and pathetically give their bodies to all and sundry. — [2]How The Rockefellers Alienated Women From Men

It is a shame what American society has become in 2020. In the old days, women looked for a good man to marry, but not today! Today women are pursuing glamour, sex appeal, college degrees, careers, the single life, a home, children; but they least of all want A MAN! Pastor Jack Hyles in this sermon clip verifies this claim. [3]WHATEVER HAPPENED TO WANTING EACH OTHER? Women today aren't happy because they are not fulfilling the purpose for which God made them—for a man! Genesis Genesis 2:18, " And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him." I have been single for 14 years, after my wife divorced me in 2006. I have looked high and low for a wife over the past several years, but women today don't want A MAN, they want everything else!

The media has turned women against men.

Feminism has brainwashed women to despise the very purpose for which God created them...

If you are a Christian lady, God's purpose for your life is to get married, bear children, guide the house, and stay out of trouble! 1st Timothy 5:14-15, "

I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

1.1.73 Heaven Is A Literal Place Located In The North (2020-03-25 03:59)

Psalms 75:6-7, “

For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south.

But God is the judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another.

Carefully notice in our text passage that the Bible does not mention “NORTH.” I believe that is because Heaven is in the north. Promotion does not come from the east, nor the west, nor the south, but from God alone up in the north.

In his helpful booklet titled: “

HEAVEN,

Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) says:

> Where Is Heaven?
> When I was a little boy, I used to say “up to Heaven.” When I got older, someone reminded me that if I died in China and went up I would be going an opposite direction from a man who died in America and went up. Since the world is round and China is on the other side of the world that seems reasonable. But I have discovered from the Bible that Heaven is in a fixed location in the sides of the North beyond the highest star.

Here is an interesting passage: “Promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south. But God is the judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another” (Ps. 75:6-7).

Isn’t it strange that the word “north” is left out? Why? Because promotion does come from the North. It comes from God. “He putteth down one, and setteth up another.”

In Isaiah 14:12-17 we have the story of Lucifer, who became Satan. He said, “I will exalt my throne above God’s throne.” He said, “I will ascend above the heights of the clouds.” He said, “I will go into the sides of the north.”

Heaven, then, is a fixed location in the sides of the North. According to Isaiah 14, it is beyond the highest star.

Here is Isaiah 14 Satan said, “I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God.” If he is talking about literal stars, he is talking about going out beyond what we call the second heaven.

There are three heavens. Paul said in II Corinthians 12:2,4, “I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven . . . How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.”

If there is a third heaven, there is a second and first heaven. The first heaven is the atmospheric heavens where the birds fly. Says II Peter 3:10, ”The heavens shall pass away with a great noise.” he is speaking of the atmospheric heavens. Psalms 19:1 says, “The heavens declare the glory of God.” This is talking about the second heaven—the starry or planetary heavens. And the third Heaven—the paradise of God, where Christians go and where Jesus is, is somewhere out beyond the last star, beyond the second or starry heaven.

I am told that the farthest star man has been able to locate through his most powerful telescope is 500 million light years away. [note: since Dr. Hutson wrote this booklet in 1981, the Hubble Space Telescope has discovered an even farther star from earth, which is [1]an astounding 9 billion light-years away!] Light travels a little more than 186,000 miles per second. That means if you could go 186,000 miles per second, it would take 500 million years to reach the last star that man has been able to locate, and Heaven is somewhere out beyond the highest star, in the sides of the North, according to Isaiah 14.

Heaven is real. It is in a fixed location in the sides of the North, beyond the highest star.”

That is such a precious truth!

Colossians 1:4-5, “

Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints,

For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven*, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;

Job 22:12, " Is not God in the height of heaven? and behold the height of the stars, how high they are!"

Man still has not discovered the farthest star (i.e., the height of the stars) from the earth. They simply don't know! But so far, astronomers have determined that the farthest star is NINE BILLION light-years away! I am excited about NASA's new [2]James Webb Telescope, which is scheduled to launch in 2021. This new amazing feat of technology will travel one million miles from the earth, operate at temperatures of Absolute Zero (-459.6 degrees Fahrenheit) and send photos back to the earth. God willing, I CAN'T WAIT! (UPDATE from May of 2023: [3]Here are the first images from the James Webb Telescope.)

My friend, do you have any idea how far away 9,000,000,000 light-years is in miles? The answer is astounding!

If you can grasp these incredible facts, I will do my best to explain the math to you.

Let's crunch some numbers! Light travels at 186,282 miles per second. That's very fast! If you could travel at the speed of light for 9,000,000,000 years, non-stop, you would travel 5

.2871302368e+22 miles!!! The

"e" means "[4]Exponent" which tells you how many times ten is to be multiplied by itself. In math this is called 'Exponential Notation.' For example: 5.2e+3 means 10 x 10 x 10, which would be 1,000; and then times 5.2, which equals 5,200. So for our giant number of 5.2871302368e+22 we're going to multiply 10 x 10 x 10 for 22 times, and then that result times

5.2871302368, which gives us.... drum roll...

50,287,130,236,800,000,000,000 miles!!!

That is the distance of the farthest known star from the earth. Can you say:

"That's it, I'm taking a break and going to Taco Bell?"...lol. Seriously, I'm making a Taco Bell run! Oh yeah! Our great God and Savior is truly more than amazing!!!

1.1.74 Don't Watch Too Much News On TV (2020-03-25 13:30)

Philippians 4:8-9, "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you."

I think as Christians we certainly should be aware of what is going on in our local society, nation and world news. However, due to the negative nature of the news media, especially the ungodly American newsmedia, it is not advisable to watch too much news. Truthfully, the news is downright depressing, and they just repeat the SAME NEWS over and over and over. If you watch a dozen different news sources, you'll hear all the [1]SAME TALKING POINTS (key phrases intended to shape public opinion), revealing that all of the news sources get their information from the SAME ORIGIN. In other words, it doesn't matter what news media outlet you watch, because THEY ARE TOLD WHAT TO REPORT! I f you watch closely, they all read off a teleprompter in the background.

Gladly, I don't have TV on Guam, not because I'm a great Christian, but because it is too expensive (about $1,500 a year). So I watch YouTube for the news, or I'll listen to a few minutes each day of audio news from [2]Salem Radio News (SRN). But I generally only watch the news once or twice a week, and only for about 30 minutes. As soon as they start repeating the same news, I'm out of here!

Kindly, if you sit parked in front of your TV all day long, watching Fox News, ABC or CNN, you're going to be depressed! Worse, you're going to be indoctrinated with their lying propaganda. Fox News, CNN and other major media outlets simply cannot be trusted for honest news. In recent decades, about 50 media sources were all bought-up and consolidated into just [3]6 media outlets! This gives the [4]Luciferian powers behind the scenes the ability to shape your reality, to think the way they program you to think. It is called "

Social Engineering

" Few Christians understand that Americans have been indoctrinated their whole life to think a certain way. Feminism is not a trend, it is a Satanic philosophical mindset that is the enemy of God, rooted in rebellion, which has [5]ALIENATED WOMEN FROM MEN. Please don't believe everything you hear on the TV! I have learned to be objective and question everything.

I agree with Pastor Jeff Owens, who says:

> Don’t watch too much news. Watch enough, that you know what’s going on; but not so much, that it depresses and panics you!

Here is our text passage again...

> Philippians 4:8-9, “Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things **.
> Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.”

Why do you think the Devil has flooded television with Reality Crime Shows? Satan wants people to be thinking about violence! Everything today is centered around violence, immorality, perversion, rebellion, idolatry, covetousness, blasphemy against God, and all manner of sin. God doesn’t want us to saturate our minds with that GARBAGE!

Look at the list of things that God wants us to THINK ABOUT:

- true
- honest
- just
- pure
- lovely

- good report
- virtue
- praise

That excludes over 97 % of television programming and Hollywood movies today. We need a revival in our churches of RIGHT THINKING! That is what preaching does—it helps us THINK RIGHT!!! Everything in life is a MINDSET!

Thanking God for graciously giving us wisdom, understanding and discernment. Thanks for sharing, great read. God bless you.

1.1.75 Both Sides Of The Bible Inspiration Debate Can't Be Right (2020-03-25 21:13)

Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever."

Both Sides of The Bible Inspiration Debate May Be, But One Must Be, Wrong!

I am now watching a very interesting 12 hour documentary by historian film producer, Ken Burns, on '[1]The American Civil War.' It is heartbreaking history! I just heard a quote in the film by President Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865) that caught my attention...

> “In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!” —President Abraham Lincoln

Why did Mr. Lincoln say that? It is because both the Northern Union and the Southern Confederacy claimed to be doing “God’s will” in fighting The Civil War (1860-1965). Both President Jefferson Davis in the south, and President Abraham Lincoln in the north, said they were doing “God’s will.” As Mr. Lincoln wisely points out, that is IMPOSSIBLE! When two opposing parties, who are warring against each other, claiming to be doing God’s will, obviously someone is WRONG! That is why Abraham Lincoln made that powerful statement!

Likewise, there are literally HUNDREDS of English Bible revisions today, but ONLY one Bible stands alone, the inspired King James Bible!!! If you are using any of the modern Bible versions, they all share the same corruptions, omissions and prejudice against the deity of Jesus Christ, Godhead and simplicity of the Gospel! Obviously, they cannot all be God’s Word! Someone is wrong! Just as President Lincoln wisely observed, so also I clearly see that it is impossible for both sides of the Bible issue debate to be correct! Both sides may be, but one must be, wrong! No one who supports the [2]modern Bible perversions based upon the Greek translation of Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort is a Christian fundamentalist!

An Example Of Gross Theological Perversion From Mark 1:15

Take for example Mark 1:15. Here is a comparison between a few different Bible revisions. Notice carefully that whereas the King James Bible simply says to “repent ye” and believe the Gospel, the modern PERversions falsely require the reader to “turn from your sins” to be saved...

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Mark 1:15, “And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.” [emphasis added]

NEW LIFE VERSION (NLV) - Mark 1:15, “He said, “The time has come. The holy nation of God is near. Be sorry for your sins, turn from them, and believe the Good News.” [emphasis added]

EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — Mark 1:15, “He said, “The right time is now here. God’s kingdom is very near. Change your hearts and lives, and believe the Good News!” [emphasis added]

LIVING BIBLE (TLB) - Mark 1:15, “At last the time has come!” he announced. “God’s Kingdom is near! Turn from your sins and act on this glorious news!” [emphasis added]

Dear reader, the word “repent” in Mark 1:15 is a verb which simply means, “

TO THINK DIFFERENTLY.

It does NOT mean

to turn from sins,

nor does it mean

to be sorry.

” One of the best explanations of repentance I’ve ever heard is from Alexander Marshall (1846-1928). He wrote a Gospel tract in the 1920’s called: ’[3]GOD’S WAY OF SALVATION,’ in which Brother Marshall addresses the question:

“I HAVE NOT REPENTED ENOUGH”

What do you mean? “I am not sorry enough for my sins.”

And if you were very sorry, would God be more willing to save you than He is now? “I think so.”

Then you are completely mistaken.

Yes; but what do you think is the Scriptural significance of “repentance”? If you say “sorrow for sin” you are wrong. It does not mean sorrow for sin: it means a CHANGE OF MIND (Matt. 21:29). This change will doubtless produce sorrow; but sorrow and repentance are two very different things (Heb. 12:17. margin, and II Cor. 7:9). When God calls on you to “repent, and believe the Gospel,” He wishes you to lay aside your > wrong thoughts, and believe the glad tidings that He proclaims to you. Formerly you may have imagined that you were required to feel very sorry before being saved. Change your mind. You may have supposed you must first “feel” some great change in order to know you were saved. Change your mind. First believe in God’s great love to you, as revealed in His gospel, and you will KNOW that you have eternal life (John 5:24).

Yes, that is excellent. Mr. Marshall is 100 % correct!

Yet, [4]some unlearned and/or heretical person changed his tract, completely removing the preceding section on repentance from the work. Marshall plainly says that sinners are saved by BELIEVING THE GOSPEL, that is, he says, “to lay aside your wrong thoughts [Repentance], and believe the glad tidings [Gospel] that He proclaims to you.”

One of my favorite preachers is [5]Dr. Al Lacy (1933-2016), who says:

“Those are Devil’s Bibles!”

[6]Pastor Al Lacy

As I just showed you, Pastor Alexander gets repentance 100 % right. Here is a helpful article called: ’[7]The Great Meaning Of M

[8]etanoia

’ (the Greek noun for the word in the Bible). With this important truth in mind, it should be obvious to you how corrupt, wicked and dangerous the modern Bible revisions are, and the woeful threat they pose to churches and people everywhere).

1.1.76 The Ugly Truth About Today's Bible Versions (2020-03-26 00:01)

John 8:45 "And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not." —Jesus Christ

Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?" —Apostle Paul

Here's a dirty little detail that you probably didn't know about (and the Bible publishers won't dare tell you), and that is, in order to be copyrighted, the law requires for a new work to be substantially and creatively different (more than just editorial changes or minor changes) from existing Bible versions. In other words, being honest, scholarly and correct is secondary to making substantial changes in order to obtain a copyright, whether those translation changes are reasonable and necessary or not. Even in New Testament times, many people were tampering with the Bible. 2nd Corinthians 2:17, "For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ."

You need a copyright so that you can exclusively profit financially from your new Bible version, otherwise the public could use it freely and you wouldn't have any enforceable legal rights.

Follow the money trail and you'll find the ugly truth! All these Bible-butchering groups are not sincere. The very fact that they are legally required to make major changes to copyright their new PERversion evidences that. These are snowflake Bible versions, that is, no two are the same!

The following quote is taken from the [1]United States Copyright Office . . .

> How much do I have to change in my own work to make a new claim of copyright?
>
> You may make a new claim in your work if the changes are substantial and creative, something more than just editorial changes or minor changes. This would qualify as a new derivative work. For instance, simply making spelling corrections throughout a work does not warrant a new registration, but adding an additional chapter would. See Circular 14, Copyright Registration in Derivative Works and Compilations, for further information.
> SOURCE: [2]Registering A Work

In other words, if you wanted to publish your own new Bible version, in order to receive legal copyright status, you would have to "SUBSTANTIALLY" change your work from the original. And they must be "CREATIVE" unique changes. I'll show you some of their Satanic creativity in a moment. May I say, God's Word is not open game for anyone who wants to get creative and change it. Even worse, they're doing it for money.

How can any group which attempts to translate the Holy Bible, be honest and scholarly when they are forced to substantially change the work to creatively differ from existing Bible versions??? And then those rotten Bible-butchers claim that it's a "LITERAL TRANSLATION." What a pathetic joke! What injustice to the Holy Scriptures!!!

Since there are already literally hundreds of copyrighted English Bible versions (all of the Devil), any new Bible versions are going to have to be butchered substantially and uniquely to qualify. My friend, you should be outraged and alarmed as I am, if you love the Lord Jesus Christ. Literally, anybody who wants to publish a new Bible version, by law, is forced (if they want to publish their own exclusive version) to significantly CHANGE THE WORD OF GOD!!!!!!

Of the hundreds of English Bible's available today, most of the publishers claim theirs is a "LITERAL TRANSLATION." Since the versions all differ considerably, and theologically conflict oftentimes, how can they all be a "LITERAL TRANSLATION"? Obviously they cannot! It's a bunch of shady marketing tactics. The truth (as I have just shown you) is that in order to receive a legal copyright, Bible translators and publishers are legally REQUIRED to butcher God's Word, making significant and substantial changes (as compared to existing Bible versions) to receive a copyright. That's the ugly truth!!!

What an evil and wicked thing to do, intentionally corrupting the Word of God to make a buck, which the Holy Bible calls "filthy lucre" (1st Peter 5:2). I hope you see how evil and criminal in God's eyes all of this Bible-tampering really is. Nothing is more important to God than His holy Word. Psalms 138:2, "I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name." Yet, men and women are so reckless and hardened in their hearts, that they flippantly corrupt the Word of God to sell their own exclusive copyrighted version. So this is why when you consult the 13 different Bible versions on your bookshelf, you get a wide array of ideas, contradictions and much CONFUSION. 1st Corinthians 14:33 tells us that God is "not the author of confusion." The Devil is!!!

Legal Copyright Requirement Plus Greed Equals Bible Version Nightmare!

This is why I get so frustrated and upset with America's large religious institutions and Bible colleges. Frankly, I expect the big unsaved religious institutions to pull on the same rope as the Devil, like the National Council Of Churches, et cetera. However, when it comes to Bible colleges like Bob Jones University (BJU), who were the cream-of-the-crop 50 years ago, I get upset, because they are saved and should know better. I use the term "saved" loosely here, because the Satanic lie of [3]Lordship Salvation has crept into (I'd say at least half) of our Baptist churches, which is a false plan of salvation. No one is saved who trusts in Lordship Salvation to get to Heaven, because it is partial faith in Christ plus human effort (Acts 15:1). Beware of wolves in sheep's clothing (Matthew 7:15).

Bob Jones University (BJU) and Moody Bible Institute (MBI) combined, wield much influence upon evangelical churches in the United States, which extends to the world. I'm not picking on BJU. Quite the contrary, they ought to know better. I wouldn't waste my time writing this article if I didn't believe in my heart that there is hope for Christians. We all need Bible-preachers to show us where we're going astray, especially doctrinally. I hope many Christians reading this article will purpose in their heart to start exposing these new fraudulent Bible versions, because they are counterfeits, propagating false doctrines. Because of U.S. copyright laws, no one in our country can produce an accurate modern translation! What a sick joke that literally dozens of English Bible versions all claim to be another, "LITERAL TRANSLATION"!

I just prayed for God's Holy Spirit to use my humble labors to reach others with the truth. I cannot change anybody's life. Only God can do that! I desperately plead for God's Holy Spirit to work as I work, otherwise all is in vain and I'm wasting my time (Zechariah 4:6). John 15:5, "I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing." I don't want to work in my human strength without God's Spirit working in and through me, through prayer. I say this because all of the new Bible versions were put together on the basis of meeting a legal obligation to obtain copyright, and not on the basis of the guiding of the Holy Spirit of God. With this in mind, it speaks volumes of shame toward Moody Ministries and Bob Jones University for supporting the new Bible versions.

The legendary Pacific Garden Mission's "[5]UNSHACKLED" broadcast from Chicago, sadly contains multiple plans of salvation (depending on the particular episode). I was shocked recently while listening on the radio to an Unshackled episode in which a man said you cannot simply believe the Gospel and write your name and date in the back of your Bible. He said you must continue to choose to follow Jesus every day of your life to be saved. That's the demonic heresy of Lordship Salvation, not the free gift of God (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). Many Christian leaders are confusing salvation with discipleship, which has been caused by the new counterfeit Bible versions that PERvert [6]Romans 10:9-10 and [7]Mark 1:15 and Hebrews 6:1, to name a few Scriptures. The new PERverted Bibles are corrupting the churches!!!

For BJU to remain silent, and they're just one of hundreds of shameful Bible colleges (like Moody Bible Institute) who are silent, is cowardly and apostasy. If God's children don't expose Satan's tampering with the Holy Bible, then who will? That's right, no one! Don't you care? Greedy people are intentionally changing God's Word, whether they think it is honest, scholarly and necessary or not. Evil men and women are corrupting the Words of God, just so they can meet the government's legal requirement to substantially change their work's content to obtain a legal copyright. And they must be creative... SOMETHING NEW!!! This can't be happening. OH MY GOD IN HEAVEN, THIS CAN'T BE HAPPENING!!!!!!! Why aren't you mad-as-all-get-out!

1.1.77 And The Books Were Opened (2020-03-26 02:00)

Revelation 20:10-15, "And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

This passage of Scripture speaks of the time of judgment following the 1,000 Millennial reign of Jesus Christ over the earth. There will be A GREAT WHITE THRONE, upon which a holy God will judge "THE DEAD" (mentioned 4 times in the preceding passage) throughout human civilization, who DIED IN THEIR SINS without having receiving God's free gift of eternal life through faith in Jesus Christ. NO ONE will escape this judgment except the saints of God. If you are a Christ-rejecter, you should be afraid—VERY AFRAID! The Bible tells us that earth and heaven will flee away. There will just be the blackness of the universe and God sitting in judgment upon His GREAT WHITE THRONE! I am so glad that I will not be judged (because I am redeemed) at this criminal court trial. The Bible says, " peaking of the future in past tense, as if it has already happened. That is amazing! Bible prophecy is history written in advance!

THE BOOKS WERE OPENED,

Friend, every sin that you have ever committed is recorded in Heaven. One of the most wicked places on planet earth is Las Vegas. This place is so evil that its Chamber Of Commerce decided to nickname their town:

SIN CITY!

” Their popular motto is: “

What HAPPENS in Vegas STAYS in Vegas!

” Don’t count in it dear reader! The Bible says what HAPPENS in Vegas is RECORDED in Heaven. That is why

THE BOOKS WILL BE OPENED!!

Whether looking for licentious filth, fornication, adultery, a homosexual fling, nudity, drugs, partying, orgies, gambling, lewd entertainment, drunkenness —you’ll find it all in Las Vegas! They don’t call it “SIN CITY” for nothing!

But, Oh, how the Devil is a beautiful liar! The Devil always shows you the bright neon lights of the Vegas Strip, he doesn’t show you the Nevada state prison system, the local hospitals and morgue. Satan doesn’t show you the hurting families, financially devastated by a man with a gambling sin problem. The Devil doesn’t show you the broken hearts, ruined lives, graves, divorces and shame that sin brings! Las Vegas has one of the highest divorce rates in the nation! Sin thrills and then it kills! Sin fascinates and then it assassinates! Perhaps you say, “I went to Las Vegas and sinned, but nothing bad happened to me!” What saith the Scripture? Ecclesiastes 8:12-13, “ Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him: But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

I am an old-fashioned kind of guy. I love actual books! I don't like how everything today is moving toward the internet, and computers are taking over. Technology is a double-edged sword. The Gospel has never been preached like it is today because of the amazing internet. Yet, sin has never been so prevalent as it is today, because wicked people abuse the internet. I am saddened and frustrated by the greed, smut, slander, click bait and unethical buttonholing that is prevalent on the internet today.

When I was a boy in the 1970's, Playboy magazines were a really big thing for sinful men, which Hugh Hefner (1926-2017) began publishing in 1953, starting with Marilyn Monroe (1926-1962). I mean, if you wanted to see a naked woman, you didn't have many options in the 1970's, except retail store catalogs and Playboy. I read a few years ago that Playboy doesn't publish naked photos of women anymore, because the internet is saturated with smut! Isn't that tragic! Any child who has unrestricted access to the internet, can see the most ungodly of lewd and indecent images. Could the government put a stop to this? Of course they could, but Satan is the god of this world (2nd Corinthians 4:4). It is much simpler to just blame parents (and they are to blame), but the people who put the filth on the internet, and the government that allows it, are much more to blame!

Ecclesiastes 8:13b, "

it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

" Everything is recorded in God's books!

Dear friend, what does God have recorded in Heaven about you? Did you know that the average person [1]speaks about 30,000 words per day. If those words were put into print, they would amount to a fair-sized book per day. These books would, in a lifetime, fill a good-sized college library! What's in your library? Matthew 12:36,

"But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

" God is going to hold every human being accountable for every idle word spoken! How much more will God hold us all accountable for sinful words spoken? Words are VERY important and powerful if articulated carefully from a wise heart. Proverbs 25:11, "

A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

God is keeping record up in Heaven of your life my friend. '[2]THIS WAS YOUR LIFE!' Saved and unsaved alike will give account to God (Romans 14:10-12). For the Christian believer, Christ has removed the STING of death (1st Corinthians 15:55-56), through the blood that He shed for our sins on the cross. The believer will be held accountable for the

GOOD OR BAD

” done in the body (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11), but there will be no condemnation for our sins, because we are forgiven in Christ

(John 3:18). The unbelieving will be condemned (i.e., damned to Hell forever), because they believed not on the Son of God (John 3:36).

Please notice that a separate book is mentioned in our text passage from Revelation 20:10-15, called the: “

LAMB’S BOOK OF LIFE.

” Everybody’s name is recorded in this book, even before you were born! Moses was a humble man, was a servant’s heart. Moses loved his people so much, that he offered to have his name blotted out of God’s book, so that the Jews could be forgiven of their sins (i.e., dancing naked while worshipping an idol of a Golden Calf). Exodus 32:32, “ Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin–; and if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written. And the LORD said unto Moses, Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book. ” I love God’s justice! The Lord told Moses that He judges THE INDIVIDUAL for their own sins. I believe that book spoken of by Moses is the LAMB’S BOOK OF LIFE! When a person knowingly rejects Jesus as their personal Savior, that sinner’s name is immediately BLOTTED OUT! All babies have their name written in the LAMB’S BOOK OF LIFE, which is why they all go to Heaven!

Also we read in Revelation 3:5, “

He that overcometh*, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

” How do we overcome? 1st John 5:4-5, “ For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? ” The white raiment represents the imputed righteousness of God, obtained through faith alone in Jesus Christ. Philippians 3:9, “And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:”

The important thing to remember dear reader, is that God is monitoring and recording EVERYTHING that we think (Proverbs 24:12), say (Matthew 12:36) and do (Ecclesiastes 12:14); and He is going to judge every human being accordingly. How we are judged will greatly depend on whether or not one is a redeemed child of God. 1st Peter 4:17, " For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?"

1.1.78 Shall We Continue In Sin That Grace May Abound? (2020-03-26 02:48)

Romans 5:19-21 and 6:1-4, " For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous. Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord. What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life."

It is important to keep in mind that there were no chapter divisions in the original Word of God. The New Testament was written in all capital letters, in the Koine Greek language. Religious men later added the chapter divisions, to help organize the Scripture. In most cases this is fine and dandy, but if we're not careful we may miss out on the proper and full interpretation of a passage. Such is the case with our text passage of Scripture. To understand chapter 6, we need to go back and also include chapter 5 of Romans. In fact, if you read the above passage of Scripture, you"d never know that there was a chapter break in there somewhere. So keep this truth in mind, and it will greatly enhance your understanding of the Scripture, and make your Bible studies even more interesting!

The moment that a person gets saved, they become DEAD TO SIN! What does that mean? Well, before someone is saved, God's LAW condemns them, because we are all guilty of breaking God's law (Romans 3:19). Remember, God wrote His Ten Commandments in stone, because we can break them, but we cannot bend or change them! When a person receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, receiving the free gift of God, then we are forever UNDER GRACE, and no longer under the LAW. In that sense, we are dead to sin, because sin no longer has the power to condemn us!

That is why the dear apostle Paul could proclaim in 1st Corinthians 15:55-56, " O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

The sting* of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. " In other words, dying in one's sins brings the sting of eternal damnation in Hell! But because Jesus paid our sin debt, and the child of God has been redeemed by Jesus' precious blood of the cross, the stinger is gone!!! Death to the saint has NO STING! We have no fear of dying, because we are under God's saving grace! Boy this is good stuff!!!

Christ Is The End Of The Law For The Believer

That is what it means in Romans 3:4, "For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

" There were approximately 720 laws in the Old Testament (i.e., moral, ceremonial, civil) which a Jew was required to keep to get to Heaven. Since no one has ever perfectly kept the law of God, we all need a perfect Savior instead. That perfect Savior is Jesus Christ! 1st Timothy 4:10,

"For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe."

Romans 10:4 says that CHRIST IS THE END OF THE LAW (for righteousness for every one that believes). This simply means that faith in Jesus Christ is COUNTED in place of a lifetime of perfectly keeping the law. Once a person receives Jesus as their personal Savior, that is the end of the law, as far as trying to keep it to be saved. Faith in Christ fulfills the law 100 %! If a man failed to perfectly keep the law, God allowed him to simply place His trust in the Messiah instead, and that person's faith was accepted in place of keeping the law. Romans 4:5, "

But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

” This very same plan of salvation exists today, and this is how we get saved. This has always been, is now, and always will be God’s only plan of salvation for humanity. Acts 10:43, “To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

God’s Amazing Grace Abounds Over All Sin

Having explained these fundamental truths, now we can make heads and tails out of these beautiful statements in the Scripture:

Romans 5:20b, “ But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: ”

Romans 6:1b, “ Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? ”

I love those Bible verses! When a Christian believer sins, we always fall IN GRACE, never FROM GRACE! Only the Christ-rejecter can fall FROM GRACE. Galatians 5:4, “

Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.

” Who is fallen from grace? It is the person who foolishly attempts to be justified BY THE KEEPING OF THE LAW (Romans 3:20). The reason why is obvious, because NO ONE has ever successfully kept the law perfectly. We are all woeful sinners, both by nature and by choice! At salvation our POSITION in Christ is forever settled, solely dependent upon God’s faithfulness, as His redeemed child; but our CONDITION in Christ depends solely upon our faithfulness, as we obey God's Commandments day-by-day.

The main reason I wrote this article is to emphasis the wonderful truth that WHEN WE DO SIN, God's amazing GRACE DOTH MUCH MORE ABOUND. Romans 6:1, " What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?" I love that! I love that! I love that! Paul is saying that the believers CANNOT LOSE SALVATION! When we sin (and we all do every day, whether in dead or thought, sins of commission or commission), God's GRACE ABOUNDS! It is absolutely impossible that any born-again child of God, could ever sin greater than God's grace abounds! This is a remarkable Bible passage teaching the Eternal Security of the believer.

Paul makes an appeal, that just because we are now UNDER GRACE, doesn't make it okay to live a life of sin. But if we do, GRACE WILL ABOUND! Paul says that just as Christ died and was resurrected, even so should we raise up in newness of life. We are already dead to sin, meaning that sin no longer has any power of us under the law, because we are now under grace instead, and have been freed in Christ Jesus. If we choose to continue living in willful sin, the law has no power over us anymore. In this sense we are dead to sin! Death no longer has any sting! Yet, we are warned that we will still be held accountable by God at the Judgment Seat Of Christ, giving account for the good or bad done in the body (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11).

Jeremiah 6:16, "

Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

Satan has always hated the Word of God. From the very beginning in the Garden of Eden Satan tried to cast doubt upon the inspired Word of God. The serpent said to Eve in Genesis 3:1a, “YEA, HATH GOD SAID?” The plethora of modern Bible versions has generated massive confusion in the churches...

> “Be on guard against any tampering with the Word, whether disguised as a search for truth, or a scholarly attempt at apparently hidden meanings; and beware of the confusion created by the senseless rash of new versions, translations, editions, and improvements upon the tried and tested Bible of our fathers and grandfathers.” —Dr. M.R. DeHaan, from the excellent book, THE TABERNACLE, Pg. 101.

Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) saw that evil people were already messing with the Holy Bible back then. In fact, it all started in 1881 when Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort produced their Alexandrian Greek text, upon which all the modern corrupt Bible PERversions are based, including the ungodly Easy-To-Read Version (ERV). The average independent Baptist pastor today is a neo-evangelical disgrace, using multiple Bible versions and searching through a dozen different versions to prepare his sermons. Obviously they are no longer fundamental.

Such a disgraceful man ought not be entrusted to stand behind any church pulpit!!! I’m talking about Bob Jones University and Moody Bible Institute alumni! Don’t ever enroll in any Bible college that uses or sanctions the Alexandrian Bible versions. God is not the author of confusion (1st Corinthians 14:33). I am amazed and grieved as I visit Laodicean Baptist churches and behold shameful church websites, many of which teach the errors of Wrong Repentance and Lordship Salvation. These heresies are rooted in the modern counterfeit Bible perversions!!! Is it nothing to you all ye that pass by?

There are many good neo-evangelic pastors, and good men in their churches. They are not bad people. Unfortunately, they are not godly men either. A godly man is a man who walks with God and cares about what God cares about—THE TRUTH. John 17:17, “Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.” Neo-evangelicals don’t care about the truth, which is why they are neo-evangelical. Pastor Jack Hyles teaches concerning the neo-evangelical:

> We call him the neo-evangelical. He is the one who believes right but talks wrong. He is probably saved, believes the verbal inspiration and other fundamentals of the faith, but he is not willing to bear the reproach of Christ and the stigma of separation, so he joins hands with the neo-orthodox who has already joined hands with the liberal. He then offers his hand to the fundamentalist. Satan knows that if the fundamentalist can join hands with the neo-evangelical who has joined hands with the neo-orthodox who had joined hands with the liberal, then he will have the fundamentalist and the liberal in the same camp. How shrewd he is!

> ...These false teachers are usually likable people, and once we learn to like them, their doctrine will not be quite so bad.

> ...It is not believing right within the movement that makes one a fundamentalist; it is the withdrawal FROM the movement and returning to the original dogma, practices and convictions of the apostate group that gives one the title of fundamentalist. The basic difference is the degree of importance that one places on the doctrine of separation.
> —Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from my article titled, “[1]New Evangelicalism.”

That last paragraph is so important. We are not a “fundamentalist” because of what we believe; but rather, because we withdraw from neo-evangelicals who have embraced corrupt Bible revisions (which all teach wrong repentance, the heresy of Lordship Salvation, et cetera). I am a fundamentalist! I stand uncompromisingly against the Alexandrian Bible changing crowd!

I thank God for fundamentalist Bible preachers like [2]Pastor Bob Gray Sr. in Texas...

> “The best thing in the world to do is stay behind truth. I don’t care how much it hurts. I don’t care how much pain it is. Or how much the kids don’t like it, or anybody don’t like it—YOU STAY BEHIND TRUTH!!! Why? Cause it’s right! And it’ll protect you! And if the leader goes down, the followers are gonna follow...” —Dr. Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the sermon, [3]Truth Vs. Change.

Many neo-evangelical pastors are friendly, likable, charming and good working with people, but they are not men of God because they are using Luciferian Bible revisions. Bob Jones University doesn’t realize how much damage they are doing to the cause of Jesus Christ by tolerating, promoting and using the corrupt Alexandrian Bible manuscripts! Spiritually, the Alexandrian manuscripts came from Satan, the father of all lies (John 8:44). When I heard a reprobate pastor (a graduate of Bob Jones College) call Dr. Hyles “a cult,” I decided I had better take a closer look at Bob Jones College. To no surprise I found out that Bob Jones University tolerates and sanctions the Alexandrian manuscripts. This is not fundamentalism!

The King James Bible Is The Inspired Word of God!!!

The false idea that Bob Jones University is a citadel of Christian fundamentalism is LONG GONE and a misnomer today!!! BJU’s leaders claim that they never changed their position since they opened their doors in 1928. In 1928 BJU only used the King James Bible, but over the years as HUNDREDS of new English Bible revisions have been published, they’ve remained silent, going along to get along with apostasy! So in fact they have changed! Change is a state! Dr. Bob Gray Sr. gets it 100 % correct...

> “Somebody said about a preacher, ’He changed his position.’ Listen carefully, nobody ever changes his position. CHANGE IS A POSITION!!! ... When you change, you never have a set position anymore. Truth is set. Truth is stable. Change is not. When you leave the truth, you don’t stop anywhere, you keep on changing! And that’s why it’s called ’backsliding’!” —Dr. Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the sermon, ’[5]Truth Vs. Change.’

I couldn’t have said it any better! Bob Jones University, and consequently Harvest Baptist Church on Guam who follow them, are in a STATE OF CHANGE! BJU falsely claims that they haven’t changed, but their female students didn’t wear halter tops, short shorts and the immodest clothing that they do today. THEY HAVE CHANGED! Call me old-fashioned, call me a hypocrite, call me out-of-touch with this generation—you’d be correct on all three claims! I choose to be old-fashioned (especially old-fashioned French Vanilla ice cream, my favorite... yummy). We’re all hypocrites to some degree! I am admittedly out-of-touch with things today, barely able to keep up with my own daily life due to my chronic neck pain.

The Shameful Legacy of Dr. Stewart Custer At BJU

I agree with the following preaching by Brother Hyles, regarding the apostasy at Bob Jones University, and the shameful legacy of [6]Dr. Stewart Custer (1931-2017), who for 47 years indoctrinated BJU students that we don’t have a perfect Holy Bible today...

> “Oh what does it mean! Brother Hyles, so what—a preacher boy goes down to Bob Jones University, and he sits in Dr. Custer’s class, and Dr. Custer says we have no perfect Bible—what difference does it make? It makes all the difference in the world! And what you’d better do is take this Book, rather than some institution to which you subscribe your loyalty—what you better do is you better stop and realize that if you don’t have a perfect English Bible, we cannot live, because man cannot live alone, but by every Word which proceedeth out of the mouth of the Father. Every Word up there has to get to us!” —Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from my video titled: ’ [7]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES.’

As an illustration, I am reminded of singer Kenny Roger's popular 1979 song titled, "Coward Of The County." In the song, the cowboy's father always taught him, "Son, you don't have to fight to be a man!" But when three thugs raped his fiancee, the young cowboy took his gun and killed the three evildoers, leaving them in a pool of blood, saying: "Papa, sometimes you have to fight when you're a man!" That is true! Well, the Word of God has been brutally ravished by wicked Bible professors for the past century, and Bob Jones University's professors are guilty.

A shameful intern pastor on Guam from Pensacola Christian College (PCC) called me "OB-SESSED" over the Bible debate. I make no apologies for that label, and I wear it with honor! If being CONSUMED WITH ZEAL because my enemies (including the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam) have forgotten the inspiration of God's Word, then so be it! ...

> Psalms 119:139-142, "
>
> My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words*.
>
> Thy word is very pure* : therefore thy servant loveth it.
>
> I am small and despised: yet do not I forget thy precepts.
> Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the truth. "

God didn't author [8]900 Bibles (the number of English revisions according to the American Bible Society), nor for that matter did He author even TWO; God just wrote ONE BOOK!!!

Most of America's Independent Fundamental Baptist Churches are shameful passive spectators, idly sitting by doing absolutely nothing, enjoying the show! Independent Baptists all across America are the cowards of the county! Somebody needs to stand up for the inspiration of God's Word! Somebody needs to care! Somebody needs to make an issue! Right doctrine matters! Having the right Bible matters!!!

Well I'm not going to sit idly by while the Devil's crowd rape the Holy Bible, I'm going to fight as a man ought!!!

Sad but true, over 95 % of Independent Fundamental Baptist Churches today couldn't care less about Bible inspiration. They are merely playing church, rearranging deck chairs up top as the Titanic of fundamentalism is sinking! The very core bedrock foundation of the modern Bible-corrupting movement is the denial of the verbal inspiration of the King James Bible! To deny its inspiration opens a Pandora's Box, introducing the possibility of having TWO authorities (i..e, more than one Holy Bible). This causes conflict, requiring a third authority (i.e., manmade scholarship) to determine which of the first TWO authorities is correct! That is exactly what the serpent did in Genesis 3:1b when he said to Eve, **"

HATH GOD SAID? " The serpent's corruptible word (seed) was now in direct contradiction to God's incorruptible Word (Seed)! There cannot be TWO Bibles, because God's Word is the Final Authority!

1.1.80 She Hath Done What She Could (2020-03-26 06:53)

Mark 14:8, " She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying."

What a tremendous statement the Lord made concerning this dear woman—SHE HATH DONE WHAT SHE COULD! I love that! This woman came with a very expensive offering of [1]spikenard. Today this oil is not as expensive, but it was in ancient times, being important from India and the Himalayas. An "Alabaster Box" is a gift box! This dear women brought a care package to our blessed Savior! She took the very precious spikenard oil and poured on Jesus' head as a gesture of love and appreciation. What a great thing she did!

Mark 14:3, "And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head

But as is almost always the case, there were some wicked people watching, who criticized the woman, berating her for wasting money, instead of giving it to the poor.

Mark 14:4-5, "

And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence [$45 to $60], and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her

Our wonderful Lord doesn't sit idle while His friends are being attacked and complained about. The Lord is a friend at midnight! Jesus spoke up and defended this dear woman, telling her self-righteous critics [internet trolls today] to SHUT UP!

Mark 14:6-9, "

And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always. Verily I say unto you

, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

I love the Lord's way of thinking—money doesn't take priority over people! Truly, the greatest things in life aren't things. The Lord didn't defend her because He though Himself worthy of her worship; but rather, the Lord knew that this woman needed to honor the Lord. I decided to allow comments in my new ministry blog. I did it for my blog visitors, so they can interact and discuss the topics being presented. I was thinking of OTHERS!

I love what the Lord said—SHE HATH DONE WHAT SHE COULD! There are so many beautiful truths contained in this precious statement:

1. God understands that Christians are just human and limited in what we can do.
2. The Lord doesn't expect more from us than what we can do.
3. God rewards us according to what we do with what He gives us.
4. We should all do what we can to honor and serve the Lord Jesus Christ.
5. God will plead our cause if we do what we can for Him.
6. Someone will always criticize us when we honor Jesus and serve God.
7. The Lord is fully aware of our efforts and sacrifice for Him.

The Lord lovingly said: SHE HATH DONE WHAT SHE COULD!

1.1.81 And The World Passeth Away (2020-03-26 08:00)

1st John 2:15-17, “Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

And the world passeth away*, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.“”

Dear reader, everything that you see around you will be gone someday. This earthly life is so short in comparison to eternity. In fact, there is no comparison, because eternity is limitless. As humans we think in terms of time, because God created time for man, so that we could know what the Lord plans to do next on His prophetic calendar. The Bible foretells in Revelation 10:6b that there will come a time, when “ there should be time no longer.

” Think about what that means!

God lives in eternity. The Lord never feels pressured to get things done. Time is not running out for God. The Lord is never in a hurry. But for humanity, time is running out.

Our days here on earth are limited.

Psalms 89:47, “ Remember how short my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men in vain? ” This life will be over before you know it. It seems like just yesterday that I was an energetic teenager—gliding over fences in a single bound, wearing a full head of hair, and without a care in the world. What happened…lol? I’ll tell you—LIFE HAPPENED! Life is what happens to you while you’re making big plans! Ain’t it the truth? To be truthful, I am not happy with the way my life has gone, not at all; but I rejoice in the Lord that (only as God can do), He has taken the lemons in my life and made lemonade! God is using my suffering, afflictions, loss and calamity to save many people alive through my humble ministry efforts online. I am as determined as ever to continue serving the Lord, because JESUS IS THE ONLY SAVIOR A MAN COULD EVER NEED OR WANT!!! Jesus is precious to me! 1st Peter 2:7a, “Unto you therefore which believe he is precious…” Is He precious to you Oh sinner?

As Americans we’re all familiar with Hollywood (or should I say, “

HollyWEIRD

”). We’re all familiar with the many hundreds (even thousands) of celebrity names that we’ve grown up seeing and hearing. I often wonder, “Where are they now?” I like to read the biographies of famous singers, actors and those whom American society esteem highly in the world. The things I have learned are truly heart-breaking, because 99 % of them are all going straight to burn in Hell forever! For example: I like playing the banjo and comedian Steve Martin is a tremendous banjo artist. Unfortunately, [1]Mr. Martin professes to be agnostic (i.e., he doesn’t really know what he believes). Dear friend, no one who is agnostic is saved! John 14:6, “ Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.” People who have been born-again, by receiving Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, KNOW what they believe!

2nd Timothy 1:12b, “ I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. ”

No one is saved who doesn’t completely rely upon Jesus’s death, burial and resurrection to get them to Heaven!

The daily news in recent years has been so horrific. I honestly don’t keep up with the news every day. About once or maybe twice a week I’ll watch some news. The Bible teaches us in Philippians 4:8 not to think about bad things, but good things, so that we can have a peaceful mind. Philippians 4:9,

Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.” If you want genuine lasting peace—then you need to receive Jesus Christ as your Savior to find peace of soul (Romans 5:1), and then live for Him to find peace in your life (Philippians 4:8-9).

The Devil wants to instill fear, worry and stress into your mind, to hinder you from serving God effectively, and one of the ways he does it with NEGATIVE NEWS!

The world has no peace. Isaiah

There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked. ” I see people worrying about the Coronavirus, wearing face masks, so afraid of death. I honestly welcome death, because for the Christian believer there is really no death. Jesus took the stinger out of death! I have no fear of dying, because I have God’s solemn PROMISE of Eternal Life. John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.” I received Jesus as my personal Savior at age 13, and I am saved! I know it! I have no doubts! God gave me His promise in the inspired Word of God!!!

This world won't last! I assure you of that friend. Everything that you purchase and own requires maintenance—because things deteriorate, wear out, dry rot, break and go back to the dust from which it all came! Sometimes thieves break thru and steal, and may murder you in the process. I remember hearing in the news about a Chicago man years ago, when I lived in Logan Square on the Northside, who was stabbed to death on Armitage Avenue for just $7 in his pocket. That man is dead. His life is over. Why am I still alive, but he is dead? Ecclesiastes 9:11 (that Scripture reference is easy to remember) says that, "time and chance happeneth to them all." There is such a thing as "

LUCK

"! Granted, nothing can happen in the life of a Christian outside of God's permissive will, but I have lived long enough to know that God lets bad things happen to godly people!

Perhaps you have had something horrible and tragic happen to you dear reader in your past. Please give it to Jesus. Just lay your burden at His feet and leave it there (1st Peter 5:7), and pick up your own cross to bear for Christ (Matthew 16:24). How do you do that? Well Jesus was crucified by the world to pay for everyone's sins. If you follow Jesus as His disciple (I speak to born-again believers), the unsaved world is going to crucify you too! 2nd Timothy 3:12, "Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

All you have to do is identify with the crucified, buried and risen Savior, and the world WILL hate you (15:19), because it hates Jesus (John 7:7).

That is exactly why famous celebrities are afraid to name the name of Jesus, even though some of them are born-again Christians. We see this also in the Bible. John 12:42-43, "Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

" Confessing Jesus Christ would have been career suicide! It's the same today. The Bible says they loved the praise of men, more than the praise of God. I proclaim the name of Jesus in public without hesitation, because I love the praise of God.

Don't be ashamed of the name of Jesus, for He is our precious Savior!

My best friend while growing up, commit suicide at age 22 with his Dad's shotgun.

My younger 46 year old sister died of a drug-overdose in 2016. She was found on a Chicago park bench. Both of my parents are now in Heaven. My Mom died in 2001, my Dad in 2010. Thankfully they were all Christians.

I'm next, it's just a matter of TIME.

Life is so short friend! The Bible says in our text passage that THE WORLD PASSETH AWAY! That should compel us to search our heart, to prepare for eternity. The average person lives a reckless life, not giving much thought to the afterlife. Please don't gamble with your soul. Oh, listen to me, you have everything to gain and nothing to lose by receiving the Blessed Savior.

Famous writer and sodomite, Gore Vidal (1925-2012) blasphemed God, saying:

"Christianity is such a silly religion." A silly religion? Gore lived with his homosexual partner Howard Austen for 53 years, before perishing in his unregenerate state in 2012. That is so sad! I am reminded of John 3:20, "

For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

" Even though a person doesn't have to forsake a sinful lifestyle to be saved, we must acknowledge our guilt in God's sight as needy sinners. This is repentance. Repentance facilitates believing the Gospel, by which we are saved (Romans 1:16; Mark 1:15; Acts 20:21). Love for sin hinders many people from coming to the light of the Gospel to be saved. Repentance is when a person thinks differently, which compels them to receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins. Salvation is only found in Jesus Christ! Gore Vidal called Christianity "

a religion,

" but it's not; Christianity is a new birth by faith alone in the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

This world WILL pass away, it is just a matter of time. Do you know that there were over a billion beautiful young women, and handsome young men, alive 150 years ago; yet every one of them are dead today! Not one of them is still alive today! In fact, no is alive today who was born before the year 1900. The last survivor from the 1800's was [2]Emma Morano (1899-2017) who just recently died. She never married. I don't know if she was saved. This life is only temporary. Are you ready to die? Are you ready to meet your Maker? My friend, God is promising you eternal life for free, and all you need to do is " BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST

(Acts 16:31a).

1.1.82 Sweet Peace Can Only Come From Painful Sorrow (2020-03-26 17:00)

Psalms 30:5,

“

For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

I love that passage of Scripture

—weeping endureth for the night, but joy cometh in the morning. It is true that we cannot be upstream until we’ve first been downstream. A hiker cannot climb a mountain until he has first been down in the valley. We cannot truly appreciate the beauty of a red rose without the presence of sharp thorns on the stem. It is the contrast in colors that makes for a striking painting, drawing, movie scene or sunset.

Likewise, we need bad times in life to appreciate the good times. We need to know the awfulness of sin, and the curse that it brings; to truly grasp and appreciate the depth of God’s love and mercy! One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) is called: ’[1]THE NECESSITY OF BACKSLIDING.’ We need north to have south, and vise versa. The more that we suffer poor health as Christians in this temporary human body, the more sweeter God’s promise becomes of giving us a new glorified body fashioned like unto the Lord’s body in Heaven. Philippians 3:21, “

Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

” I have suffered from radiculopathy and stenosis in my neck since 2004, which causes me chronic pain all the time. God’s promise of a new body is so precious and sweet to me, which I think about continually. What a good God!!!

One of my favorite Bible verses is found in John 16:22, “

And ye now therefore have sorrow*: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you. ” I have endured much sorrow in my lifetime. My wife of 18 years abandoned me in 2006, divorcing me. As a result, I lost my home, pets, retirement, most of my possessions, $64,000 in legal expenses, confidence, and half my mind. I have completely forgiven her, because vengeance belongs to God alone (Romans 12:19-21). I have lived a very lonely life since, never remarrying or having a girlfriend. I underwent two major neck surgeries, having no one by my side, recovering from surgery all alone. Only my Christian faith has sustained me, but it hasn't been easy.

Humbly, God has used my traumatic suffering, incalculable loss and inexplicable pain to bless my website ministry—giving me a profound depth of understanding, genuine love for others, and spiritual insight into the Scriptures. Psalms 119:70, "It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes."

Pastor Jack Hyles preaches a wonderful sermon on this passage of Scripture, titled: ' [2]WHY MAMA WAS SO SMART .' God uses our suffering and pain to develop our faith!

> 1st Peter 1:7-9, "That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:
> Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls."

I endure with constant physical pain (which feels like a horrible toothache in the bony area of the back of my neck), since 2004, which God uses to keep me humble. Philippians 2:3, "Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves."

I love everybody, and as far as I'm concerned

, I'm the biggest sinner I know. I judge no one. We are all needy sinners!

Some web visitors have told me, that they are surprised how nice and friendly I am, thinking I would be a harsh person because of the perception my website preaching gave them. Dr. Hyles said he experienced the same thing with people, who were reluctant to counsel with him, thinking that he was the same way everywhere he went, as he was behind the church pulpit (aggressive). When you met Brother Hyles in person—he had a genuine concern for people, a warm southern charm, a great sense of humor, and was the greatest guy in the world (when he wasn't mad...lol). I love and miss Brother Hyles and I still pray for his family.

I am both a fighting fundamentalist Baptist, and one of the friendliest people you'll ever meet. The farther the grandfather's clock pendulum swings one way, the farther it swings the other way! God made me a passionate man. That is why I will never own a gun, I don't trust myself with one. That is why I don't drink booze, I already know I would abuse it and get drunk. I am intense in my feelings, which shows in my website ministry. When I fall in love with a woman, I am already making marriage plans! I keep picking women that don't reciprocate my feelings. Perhaps one day I will find her, God willing. Whatever good has ever been accomplished through my earthly ministry labors, I give God all the credit, glory and praise, and take none for myself. I am just a redeemed sinner doing the best I can for the Lord with what He has entrusted to me!

I love you with God's unconditional love dear reader, and helping you is my heart's great desire. 2nd Corinthians 3:2, "Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:" 1st Thessalonians 2:20, "For ye are our glory and joy." And again we read in Galatians 4:19, "My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you," I want you to

[3]get saved

(if you're not), and know 100 % that your name is written in Heaven as God's redeemed child. I want you to have the ' [4]unspeakable joy ' that I do in Christ Jesus. I have been saved now for 40 years. There was a woeful time in my life many years ago, when I contemplated suicide and wanted to die, when life became worse than death; but God saw me through BY FAITH.

The apostle Paul experienced the same dilemma in Asia...

> 2nd Corinthians 1:8-11, "For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life: But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead: Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us; Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf. "

Faith is like film, it develops in the dark. Great peace can only come from great sorrow!

1.1.83 Put On The Lord Jesus Christ (2020-03-26 22:00)

> Romans 13:10-14, " Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.
>
> The night is far spent, the day is at hand*: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.
>
> Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.
> But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ*, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof."

By God's grace, I turned 53 years old on March 5th this year. Where did the time go? It is hard to believe, God willing, that I'll be 70 years old in just 17 years! Good night in the morning folks! Needless to say, my mind is set upon the things of God more than ever before! If you are wise my fine non-feathered friend, regardless of your age, you will also " Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth

” (Colossians 3:2).

[1]Here’s the tragic story of an 18-year-old girl in Colorado, named Whitney Hendrickson, who was pinned between her van and a gas-pump, sadly burning to death in 2009. Death doesn’t discriminate—you or I could be dead by sunset. The $64,000 question is: Are you prepared to meet your Maker?

My days are numbered, my years are mostly spent, and my time is short!

As born-again believers who live in the Holy Spirit , we should also walk in the Holy Spirit . What saith the Scripture? ...

> Galatians 5:22-26, “ But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. And they that are Christ’s have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.”

The apostle Paul said to—“PUT ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST”! Walking in the Spirit is synonymous with putting on the Lord Jesus Christ. Romans 8:9, “But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

” This verse speaks of the indwelling Holy Spirit, which is God the Father and God the Son living inside us as believers. John 14:23, “Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.”

The Bible says in

Ephesians 5:14-16, “

Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,

Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

” This is a quote from an Old Testament passage in Isaiah 60:1, “

Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee*. For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.” The apostle Paul is writing the epistle to the Ephesians from prison. Four of Paul’s letters were written from prison; namely, Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians and Philemon.

Paul is saying in Ephesians 5:14-16, that believers should LIVE FOR CHRIST! We were saved BY FAITH, and now we live the Christian life daily BY FAITH.

Ephesians 5:8-10, “

For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light:

(For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)

Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

” That is so beautiful! God desires for every one of His redeemed children to PUT ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST!

Galatians 2:20,

“I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless *I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.”

1.1.84 Why I Disagree With The ’Reprobate Doctrine’ (2020-03-26 23:00)

John 12:35-42, “Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him*:

That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again,

He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them*.

These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him*; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:"

This is a much debated passage of Scripture. I was listening to Pastor Steven Anderson today, preach a sermon titled: '[1]Except The Father Draw Him.' I love Pastor Anderson as my Brother in the Lord, and fully support his ministry! I often thank God for creating him. What a blessing he is to tens of thousands of people, including myself.

Albeit, I disagree with his interpretation of John 12:39-40. Pastor Anderson teaches that if a person doesn't get saved when they have the chance, Jesus may hide from them and harden their heart, so that they cannot be saved. Kindly, I totally disagree with that idea.

Is Pastor Steven Anderson A Calvinist?

No, he is not, by his own admission. In the preceding sermon Pastor Anderson says he's been 'accused of being a Calvinist

lately, which he strongly denies being. I don't think he is a Calvinist, to be clear.

So why do some people consider Brother Anderson a Calvinist? Well, a popular Bible commentator was Pastor John Gill (1697-1771), a staunch Calvinist, who basically taught the same thing that Pastor Anderson is teaching...

John Gill's Exposition of the Whole Bible

> Therefore they could not believe... God had determined to leave them to the blindness and hardness of their hearts, and to deny them his grace, which only could cure them of it, and enable them to believe: he had foretold this in prophecy, and they were manifestly the persons spoken of; and therefore considering the decrees of God, the predictions of the prophet, and the hardness of their hearts, they were left unto, it was morally impossible they should believe
> — [2]Pastor John Gill [emphasis added]

Now, I have a serious problem when anyone accuses God of withholding GRACE from someone who needs and desires it. I don't think the Bible is saying that if you refuse to believe, God hardens your heart so you cannot believe.

What the Bible DOES TEACH is that when as a person rejects THE TRUTH, gradually their heart becomes hardened over time, until the point is reached where the truth no longer affects them.

Theologian Charles Ellicott Gets John 12:39 Correct

I think Charles John Ellicott (1819–1905) gets it right concerning John 12:39! He was a distinguished English Christian theologian, academic and churchman. Ellicott states:

(39) Therefore they could not believe, because. —The words refer to those which have gone before, not to those which follow, and then by an addition give the reason more fully. "It was on account of the divine will expressed in Isaiah’s prophecy." "It was therefore, namely, because Isaiah said again."

The words, "they could not believe," must be taken in their plain meaning as expressing impossibility. The Apostle is looking back upon the national rejection of Christ, and seeks a reason for it. He remembers how our Lord Himself had explained His method of teaching by parables, and has based it upon this prophecy of Isaiah (Matthew 13:14). The principle was that which has been repeated in His last public words (John 12:35-36); that power used is increased, and power neglected destroys itself. Here, then, in these prophetic words was the reason they could not believe. Willful rejection had been followed by rejection which was no longer within the power of the will. With this statement of St. John’s should be compared our Lord’s words on the same subject in John 5:40; John 6:37, Notes, and St. Paul’s arguments in Romans 9-11. —[3]SOURCE [emphasis added]

Pastor Ellicott makes some great points. He refers the reader to these two important Scriptures. The Lord didn’t say men “

come to Him; He said they

come to Him to be saved! Kindly, that refutes Pastor Anderson’s claim that some hardened sinners CANNOT be saved, because God has blinded them! ...

John 5:40, “And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.”

Also, the Lord promises NEVER to cast anyone out who comes unto Him...

John 6:37, “All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.”

This again contradicts the “

[4]Reprobate Doctrine

as taught by Pastor Anderson

. Please understand that I am not mentioning Pastor Anderson because I enjoy refuting him, God knows my heart; but rather, because this matter involves salvation, which is a VERY important subject, and something needs to be said.

Pastor Ellicott rightly says:

Willful rejection had been followed by rejection which was no longer within the power of the will

Isaiah 6:9-10, “

And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.

Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

God had instructed the prophet Isaiah to preach the truth to a rebellious, proud and stiff-necked people. As the prophet (and all future prophets, including Christ our Savior) preached THE TRUTH of the Gospel (Acts 10:43), some people’s hearts became hardened as they persisted to reject the truth of the Gospel. So when the Bible says in John 12:39-40 that, “

THEY COULD NOT BELIEVE,

” because HE [GOD] HATH BLINDED THEIR EYES, AND HARDENED THEIR HEART, it simply means that the preaching of the truth over time has hardened their hearts; only in this sense did God “

their hearts...

John 12:37-40, “ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him: That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed? Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again,He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.”

I hope you see how simple this truth is. God did harden their hearts, by sending the prophets to relentlessly PREACH THE GOSPEL TO THEM.

Matthew 23:37, “ O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!” God hardened their hearts through PREACHING, and not by a divine act of retribution against them for refusing to believe!!! I hope you see that dear friend. God would NEVER intentionally harden someone’s heart to hinder them from getting saved!!!

We read in 2nd Peter 3:9, "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." I love that Bible verse! God doesn't want ANYONE to perish in their sins, spending eternity in the fires of a literal Hell.

Pastor Harry Ironside's Commentary On John 12:39-40

I fully agree with Dr. Harry Ironside (1876-1951), one of the most beloved and doctrinally sound theologians. Dr. Ironside is one of my favorite preachers. In his commentary on, "THE GOSPEL OF JOHN," beginning on page 521 he states:

> "What a solemn responsibility that puts upon every one of us who hear the Word of God as recorded here in His blessed Book. If men reject this testimony, signs and wonders and miracles will not convince them. They become hardened in their sins. These people refused to hear the word Jesus brought, and so the saying of Isaiah was fulfilled when he cried out (chapter fifty-three), 'Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?' He was implying that the great majority would reject the testimony of Jesus when he came, and they did. Only a little group received Him. And today that question still comes to us, 'Who hath believed, and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed?' Have you believe dear friend? Have you opened your heart to the Word of God? Has His mighty saving power been revealed to you? Do you know Him as the One who has delivered you from going down to the pit, and has given you a place in Christ, free from all condemnation? If you spurn the Word, God has no other message for you.
> Thus we read that they could not believe, because '

John 12:39-40, “

He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

’ Was it that God was not willing they should be converted? Not at all. He yearned for their conversion. He entreated them to return to Himself, but they refused the message and hardened their own hearts against Him, and God said, ’Very well., you can remain hardened in your sins,’ and the day came when the Word made no more impression on them.

” —Dr. Harry A. Ironside, ’GOSPEL OF JOHN’, pp. 521-522; 1942

Isn’t that beautiful? I fully agree with Brother Ironside’s interpretation of John 12:39-40. He continues his commentary on this subject, using a precious illustration of a hard-hearted father whose little girl God used to reach Him for Christ...

“That explains the strong delusion of the last days, and why men and women are given up to hardness of heart. They turn away from God, and at last the time comes when God says, ’Very well, Ephraim is joined to his idols; let him alone.’ God grant that this may not be true of any to whom these pages come. If you are still in your sins, and you hear the voice of Jesus calling today, will you not bow before Him in repentance and faith, and tell Him that at last you yield your heart to Him and come to Him in all your sin and need, that you will trust Him as your Redeemer?

Isaiah gave this special word of warning, we are told, when he ’saw His glory.’ ’These things said Esaias, when he saw His glory, and spake of Him.’ When was that? Well, you remember the innocent recorded in the sixth chapter of Isaiah, when he said, ’

In the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.’ Do you realize who it was whom the seraphim adored? The Holy Spirit says, ’Isaiah saw His glory and spake of Him.’ Our Lord Jesus Christ was with the Father there in brightest glory. He who was yet to come in to this earth to save sinners, was the object of angelic adoration, and Isaiah looked on through the ages and saw Him coming down to die on Calvary’s cross, and he cried, ’He was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His stripes we are healed.'

Isaiah saw Him in faith, and that blessed One stood in the midst of Israel, and His own people did not recognize Him. He came to His own, and His own received Him not. What about you? Have you received Him? Has the message gone in one ear and out the other? Or has it bowed your heart in repentance before Him? The trouble is, you know, many do believe, but they do not have the courage to come right out and confess their faith.

—Dr. Harry A. Ironside, 'GOSPEL OF JOHN', pp. 524-525; 1942

To understand John 12:35-42 properly, we need to realize that the apostle John is referring to TWO different passages from the Old Testament book of Isaiah:

Isaiah 53:1, "

Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?

Isaiah 6:8-10, "

Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.

And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.

Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

I agree with the following Bible commentary by Daniel Whedon (1808-1885), a Methodist preacher, who made this helpful observation about Isaiah 6:10...

Whedon's Commentary on the Bible

10. Make the heart… fat — The prophet Isaiah (Isaiah 6:10) was verbally directed to produce effects which he only predicted. Here Isaiah is directed to cause results which will doubtless take place, but are not necessary effects of his action. His prophecy is not responsible for results produced by the hardness of the people to whom it is delivered. Lest depends upon heavy. The heaviness or torpidity is vigilant "lest" conversion should follow the prophet's gospel. —[5]Pastor Daniel Whedon

In other words, God told the prophet Isaiah to preach to the unbelievers, making their heart fat with the truth. As their hearts became calloused "FAT," they could not believe (meaning they had lost their will to even consider the truth), because of their own wicked unbelief, not because God hardened their hearts by a divine act of contempt. God hardened their hearts through His prophets preaching to them THE TRUTH!!! Here are some related Scripture passages:

Proverbs 16:4, "

The LORD hath made all things for himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.

Psalms 119:70, "

Their heart is as fat as grease*; but I delight in thy law.

Proverbs 29:1,
“

He, that being often reproved hardeneth his neck*, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

God doesn’t want men’s hearts to become hardened from hearing preaching, but the same sun that melts the wax hardens the clay! If a person hears the truth and doesn’t act upon it, their heart grows cold and calloused. This is what happened to the disobedient Jews wandering in the Wilderness for 40 years. Hebrews 4:1-2, “Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.” They had heard Moses preach ’The Gospel’ for 40 long years, and their hearts became hardened toward it, so that they couldn’t get saved anymore, by their own evil of unbelief. Humbly said, that is what John 12:39-40 means my friend.

Bible Preaching Hardens Unbelieving Men’s Hearts

In my humble opinion, our longsuffering God extends to sinful men every chance to repent. To those who are proud, stiff-necked, dull of hearing, having fattened hearts as grease, God still wants the truth proclaimed relentlessly to them, to treasure up against themselves the wrath of God for Judgment Day...

Romans 2:5-11, “ But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; Who will render to every man according to his deeds: To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life: But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath, Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile; But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile: For there is no respect of persons with God. "

The Word of God commands us as believers to do good to our enemy—to feed, give drink, and love those who hate and spitefully uses us, that we may HEAP COALS OF FIRE UPON THEIR HEAD for Judgment Day...

Romans 12:19-21, "

Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good."

That is God's plan for dealing with our enemies! Literally, God is telling us to love them, and in so doing we are making their coming judgment worse, because GOD WILL DEAL WITH THEM according to their works (whether good or evil)! Likewise, God does the same with His enemies. Luke 6:35, "But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil. " With these truths in mind, I think it becomes obvious why God instructed the prophets to keep preaching truth, making the people's hearts fat with it, lest they repent and be saved. ...

Matthew 21:32, " For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him."

The Bible teaches that the pure in heart get saved. Matthew 5:8, "Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God."

Luke 10:21-22, “

In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

God doesn’t intentionally blind men’s minds from seeing the truth; but rather, proud men cannot see the truth, even when spoken in parables, because of a wicked heart of unbelief. When the Lord spoke of eating his flesh, those who were pure of heart understood that He simply meant to believe on Him; but the trolls of His day, the haters and critics, couldn’t wait to spread what Christ had said, calling Him “crazy.”

John 6:54, “ Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.” We learn an important truth in Luke 16:31,

“And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets [i.e., The Bible], neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

” It wouldn’t have mattered if Jesus spoke in parables or spoken plainly there still wouldn’t have believed, because of a wicked heart of their own persistent unbelief!

Those who are pure in heart will see and embrace the truth of the Gospel and be saved. But the wicked and proud person, will criticize, blaspheme God, berate Christianity, despise believers and refuse to honor the blessed Savior! John 5:22-23, “For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son: That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.” All men SHOULD honor the Son, but they don’t!

Why Jesus Chose To Speak In Parables

The Lord chose to speak with parables. A parable is simple a story with a spiritual application (i.e., a heavenly meaning). In Matthew 13:10 Jesus' disciples plainly asked Him, "Why do You speak to them in parables?" Here was His answer:

> Matthew 13:11,14-15, "He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. ...And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive: For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them."

It was because of the Jew's willful unbelief that the Lord chose to speak in parables. The Lord performed many miracles in an effort to convince them that He is the Christ. Yet, they refused to believe. Jesus healed the sick, restored sight to the blind, made the deaf to hear, even raised up the dead; yet they would not believe on Him. The people had every opportunity to repent to believe and be saved, but they refused. Jesus said that many of the publicans and harlots believed on Him, but not the religious scribes and Pharisees.

Unwillingness on the part of the people to receive Jesus' truth of the Gospel was the reason that He taught in parables. The unbelieving people did not understand Christ's parables. This was not because God was hiding the truth from them, it was because they didn't want to hear THE TRUTH. To those who believed on Christ, they were able to grasp His parables.

Proverbs 27:1, "

Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

While witnessing the Gospel, I have heard some people delay getting saved until a later time. Oftentimes when you ask somebody if they would like to be saved, they don't want to be rude or mean, so they'll just say: "I'll have to think about it some more, maybe at some other time!" I am always respectful and honor their decision, but I do encourage them to please get saved while they still can. Our text Bible passage from Proverbs 27:1 admonishes us that there may not be a tomorrow for us on earth, so we ought not take anything for granted. Life is full of surprises, both pleasant and unpleasant!

Dear reader, if you are not a born-again Christian, you have NO FUTURE except burning in the fires of Hell! I hear fools talking about the inspired Word of God with utter contempt, doubt and speculation. You really have no idea what you're missing! Oh, it is wonderful to be a Christian! It is wonderful to be God's child!

Have you ever seen someone die? I have. I'll never forget one summer evening in Chicago at Olive Park, downtown by Lake Michigan. I was fishing and saw a rescue helicopter flying above. I saw a team of citizen volunteers swimming through the lake, looking for something. I asked what was going on and someone said a man had drowned. They were looking for his body. After about 30 minutes a police Scuba team arrived and entered into the water, near the overhang platform above the water, where the man had jumped in. Minutes later they pulled his lifeless body from Lake Michigan. He was a middle-aged man, I'd say about 35. He was barefoot and his feet were puffed up in size. His body was swollen with water. Evidently the man had been drinking booze, jumped into the lake, couldn't think enough to swim, so he drowned! Paramedics tried to revive him, but couldn't. As all this was going on, I heard people laughing and having a good time, to my dismay!

I wonder if that man was saved. I guarantee he didn't know when he woke up that morning, that it would be the last day of his earthly life!

I remember reading [1]a horrifying news story from Colorado in 2009, about an 18-year-old woman named Whitney Hendrickson, who stopped to fuel her minivan. She was just minding her own business when another vehicle crashed into hers, pinning her between the gas pump and her minivan. The gas ignited! As the flames moved toward her, trapped beneath the weight of her vehicle, she screaming: "HELP ME! HELP ME! I'M GOING TO DIE!" She did die, and I think about her horrifying fate with a saddened heart. It was just a freak accident, that could happen to anybody. That is how my neck got all messed up, from a freak accident, that left me with radiculopathy and stenosis. When I consider poor Whitney, I have nothing to complain about! She was young and beautiful, with her whole life ahead of her, but death came suddenly without warning! That is what Jesus meant when He warned in Luke 13:5, "I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

" Are you ready to meet your Creator friend?

I have often heard people say,

"Today is the first day of the rest of your life!" Yes, and today could also be the last day of your life!!! Today could be the first day of the last day of your earthly life!!! James 4:14, "Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. " Just like a vapor from a steam kettle that appears briefly and then vanishes, so also is our time here on earth. If you're going to get married young lady, you had better do it soon, because you'll be an old maid before you know it. If you married couples desire to have children, please don't delay, because time won't wait for you. If you plan to lay up treasures in Heaven Oh believer, now is the time to get started, because life goes very quickly!

And if you have never been born-again dear reader, Oh please don't out it off another moment, now is the time of salvation! It is easy, free and simple to be saved. Simply come as a needy sinner to the blessed Savior, and completely rest in Him, receiving His sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He raised up the third day from the dead. This is 'The Gospel' by which we are saved, to them that believe (1st Corinthians 15:1-4; Romans 1:16; Philippians 3:9; 1st Thessalonians 4:14; 1st Corinthians 1:21).

Eternal Security is not a separate doctrine from Eternal Life. They are one and the same truth. The only kind of life that God offers is Eternal Life, not Temporary Life, not Probationary Life. For the Christian believer who now has Eternal Life, he also has Eternal Security! Assurance of salvation is based upon the promise of God (and not upon human effort or performance). I KNOW I am saved because God PROMISED to save anyone who believes (relies) upon the name of the Lord Jesus Christ (John 20:31; Acts 10:43; 1st John 5:13). Titus 1:2, "In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

1.1.86 Seventh-Day Adventism Is A Non-Christian Cult (2020-03-27 01:30)

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

Sadly, a lot of religious people nowadays merely have CHURCHIANITY instead of CHRISTIANITY! Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again! That is what Seventh-Day Adventists (SDA) are doing. For an unlearned believer on the Scriptures, they are a difficult cult to refute, because they claim salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone. SDA's even had the famous apologetic author, Dr. Walter Martin (1928-1989) deceived, who in his classic helpful book titled: '[1]THE KINGDOM OF THE CULTS' (entire .PDF book), refers to SDA's as a "CHRISTIAN CULT." Folks, there ain't no such thing as a

Christian cult

I tell you confidently with all Biblical authority that Seventh-Day Adventism is a Satanic religious cult. They have approximately 21,000,000 members worldwide.

The SDA Heresy Of Investigative Judgment

Here is what SDA’s teach, right from their own official website...

> In 1844, at the end of the prophetic period of 2300 days, He [Jesus] entered the second and last phase of His atoning ministry, which was typified by the work of the high priest in the most holy place of the earthly sanctuary. It is a work of investigative judgment which is part of the ultimate disposition of all sin, typified by the cleansing of the ancient Hebrew sanctuary on the Day of Atonement.

> ...The investigative judgment reveals to heavenly intelligences who among the dead are asleep in Christ and therefore, in Him, are deemed worthy to have part in the first resurrection. It also makes manifest who among the living are abiding in Christ, keeping the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus, and in Him, therefore, are ready for translation into His everlasting kingdom. This judgment vindicates the justice of God in saving those who believe in Jesus. It declares that those who have remained loyal to God shall receive the kingdom. The completion of this ministry of Christ will mark the close of human probation before the Second Advent. (Lev. 16; Num. 14:34; Ezek. 4:6; Dan. 7:9-27; 8:13, 14; 9:24-27; Heb. 1:3; 2:16, 17; 4:14-16; 8:1-5; 9:11-28; 10:19-22; Rev. 8:3-5; 11:19; 14:6, 7; 20:12; 14:12; 22:11, 12.)

[2]Christ’s Ministry In The Heavenly Sanctuary [emphasis added]

What you just read the Bible calls,

“STRANGE DOCTRINES” (Hebrews 13:9b). SDA’s require WORKS for salvation, as you just read. They say you must KEEP GOD’S COMMANDMENTS (water baptism, observing the Sabbath Day, doing good works, tithing, et cetera). If you go into the world and quit church, living in gross immorality, then according to SDA teaching you are NOT READY FOR THE TRANSLATION INTO GOD’S KINGDOM, which means you will not be resurrected because you have been proven unworthy (so you are annihilated).

Another strange doctrine taught by SDA prophetess, Ellen G. White (1827-1915), is that a believer’s sins won’t be blotted out until after the INVESTIGATIVE JUDGMENT...

> “But, according to the unerring word of God, every man will be judged and rewarded according as his works have been, and we are admonished to so speak and to so do as ’they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.’ When sin has been repented of, confessed, and forsaken, then pardon is written against the sinner’s name; but his sins are not blotted out until after the investigative judgment.” —Ellen White, ’The Signs of the Times,’ May 16, 1895

Dear reader, there is NO SUCH THING as the doctrine of Investigative Judgment, it is a fabricated false doctrine exclusive to Seventh-Day Adventism. If you are a member of the SDA church (cult), you MUST choose between the truth of God’s Word, or the manmade religion of Seventh-Day Adventism. I marvel that 21,000,000 people could be so blind and foolish as to follow such an obvious false religion.

Whereas the Bible plainly teaches that there is a literal place called “

Hell,

where Christ-rejecters suffer torment and pain in fire, [3]SDA leaders deny Hell altogether.

The Bible teaches that salvation is a NEW BIRTH, which happens instantly and is irreversible. The very moment that a needy sinner trusts upon the Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Savior, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, they are saved. 'THE GOSPEL' (i.e., 'GOOD NEWS') is the death , burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). The very moment that a guilty sinner BELIEVES the Gospel, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, they are saved instantly, completely and eternally. God can read your mind, and He knows when you place your reliance in His only begotten Son. John 6:47,

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

" SDA is a false religion, adding human effort to the Gospel, a form of Calvinist Lordship Salvation.

Baptismal Regeneration Heresy

Here's the SDA website, at [4]www.adventist.org, which teaches [5]Baptismal Regeneration. The following LIE of Satan is taken from their website:

> "To help us understand how God can transform us into His children, Jesus modeled the process of baptism for us. Baptism symbolized dying to self and coming alive in Jesus. Seventh-day Adventists practice full immersion baptism because by being fully buried beneath the water we symbolize that God's grace fully fills us with His new life for the future. Through baptism we are truly born again in Jesus." [emphasis added]
>
> —[6]SOURCE (2nd paragraph from bottom)

What a lie of Satan! No where in the Word of God are we ever told that baptism saves.

Lutherans and other Bible-corrupters like to manipulate 1st Peter 3:21, "The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ." Usually, the heretics will just take a few words out of this Scripture, failing to quote the entire verse. If a person were only to consider the phrase, "...baptism doth also now save us," then they might get the WRONG impression that baptism is essential to going to Heaven.

However, if we read the rest of the verse, then the truth is clearly seen... "not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God."

Being water baptized cannot forgive our sins. In fact, getting baptized will just get you wet! 1st Peter 3:21 states that baptism is the "like figure." Romans 6:5-6 plainly teaches that baptism is only the "likeness" of the Gospel, not the Gospel itself. Ironically, SDA's state this on the the above webpage, which is extremely CONTRADICTORY. How can baptism be "symbolic" if it also has the POWER to save. Read their heretical statement again:

> "Through baptism we are truly born again in Jesus."
>
> —[7]Adventist.org

What a lie of Satan!

You can argue with me all you want, the SDA quote above, requiring baptism for salvation, speaks for itself.

Romans 1:16 declares that the Gospel is the "power" of God unto salvation, not baptism. Water baptism is not mentioned. SDA is a counterfeit religion of the Devil. I say that in love to warn others. In Bible Christianity, you simple get water baptized AFTER you are born-again, as a public profession of your faith in the Gospel. Going down under the water by immersion symbolizes Christ's death, and likewise His resurrection when coming up out of the water. It is that simple. Water baptism is the first step of obedience for a baby believer, but it NOT mandatory for salvation.

Salvation Is A New Birth, Not An Ongoing Process

SDA's teach something very different than the Word of God, making salvation an ongoing PROCESS instead of an instant NEW BIRTH. In sharp contrast to the [8]free grace Gospel , the SDA teaching of salvation is very different, where being born-again is the beginning of a PROCESS. According to the official doctrinal statement of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

SDA's teach that to have assurance of one's salvation, he or she must continue abiding in Christ. This is a form of Calvinism. No where in the Scriptures are we required to " continue abiding

in Christ in order to have the assurance of God's salvation. David repeatedly calls eternal life "THY" salvation, because God does the saving, not man. Our part is only to believe upon (trust upon) Jesus as the Christ who died for our sins, was buried and raised up three days later. That is 'The Gospel' (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). At this point what I have explained may seem trifle, but please continue reading and you will see how messed up SDA's are as a cult.

I do not intend to

" different religions with my Bible preaching. God knows that my heart's sincere intent is to contend for the Christian faith, by comparing the teachings of religion to what the inspired Holy Bible teaches. If they do not match up in agreement, then THE BIBLE IS ALWAYS RIGHT! There is no controversy if you believe the Holy Bible!!!

It is rather difficult for most newer Christians, to discern the doctrines of devils taught by the Seventh Day Adventist cult. It is impossible for unbelievers to detect them, which is why many unbelievers join SDA, as did the famous radio broadcaster Paul Harvey (1918-2009). This is sad and tragic, for Paul Harvey did not go to Heaven if he was a sincere follower of SDA (as it appears he was). One of the simplest ways to expose SDA is to focus on their teaching and understanding of salvation itself, especially their exclusive stranger doctrine called INVESTIGATIVE JUDGMENT!

Christians Are Not On Salvation Probation

Notice again the damnable heresy of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists...

> "The completion of this ministry of Christ will mark the close of human probation before the Second Advent. (Heb. 8:1-5; 4:14-16; 9:11-28; 10:19-22; 1:3; 2:16, 17; Dan. 7:9-27; 8:13, 14; 9:24-27; Num. 14:34; Eze. 4:6; Lev. 16; Rev. 14:6, 7; 20:12; 14:12; 22:12.)" [emphasis added]— [9]SOURCE

“The close of human probation?” This is solid evidence against the demonic cult of Seventh-day Adventism, who teach that salvation is never complete nor secured in this lifetime. There is no true assurance of salvation in SDA, because they view salvation as a process that can be lost if a person does not continue to abide in Christ. I agree with Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951), who said he believed in the [10]Perseverance Of The Holy Spirit in a believer, not the Perseverance Of The Saints. The former depends solely upon God’s faithfulness to keep His promise “ TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE ” (1st Corinthians 1:21b); but the latter depends upon man’s faithfulness to obey God, which is a works-based counterfeit plan of salvation.

SDA’s teach that all believers are on “probation” after being born-again, and the life they live will determine whether or not Christ finds them “ worthy

of salvation. SDA is a totally 100 % works-based false religion that wraps itself deceitfully in a fraudulent shell of claiming salvation by grace through faith.

The truth is that once a person becomes a born-again child of God, the Holy Spirit comes in to indwell that believer, never to depart, and the Holy Spirit seals that believer for ever (2nd Corinthians 1:22; Ephesians 1:13; Ephesians 4:30). The Holy Spirit is our seal, God’s downpayment on that which He has redeemed with the precious blood of Jesus Christ. Amen! My sins were washed away by the blood of Jesus the day I was saved at age 13. I was saved on the spot—irrevocably, permanently and eternally and irreversibly! Hallelujah!

Eternal life is not a reward for good behavior as SDA’s teach. NO ONE is worthy of salvation. Salvation is receiving, not giving. Remember that eternal life is a free gift. All you do to have a gift is receive it. If you believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God Who died, was buried and rose again for your sins, and you make that you’re hope for Heaven, then you’re saved. Christ died, that’s history; Christ died for me, that’s salvation!

Here you can plainly see that Adventists do indeed teach a works-based false plan of salvation. In order to be deemed “worthy” to partake in the first resurrection (Revelation 20:6), a believer is required to abide in Christ, keep God’s Commandments and maintain faith in Jesus. That’s not the Biblical free grace Gospel. Keeping God’s Commandments is not part of the Gospel. The faith that bringeth salvation does not have to be maintained to keep salvation. Eternal life is a GIFT according to the Holy Bible, that you simply receive by childlike faith.

The purpose of God’s LAW is to show us our SINNERSHIP, that all the world may become guilty before God (Romans 3:19). In other words, you need to recognize yourself as A NEEDY SINNER, so you will see your need for redemption in Jesus Christ! The Law shows us the awfulness of our sins, our misery and inability to please God in our own self-righteousness, and points us to the wonderful Savior who gave His life to die on Calvary’s cross to pay for our sins (Galatians 3:24-25). No one is worthy of salvation!!! We all deserve to got straight to Hell to burn forever! By the way, SDA’s totally deny the existence of a literal place called Hell, because they reason that a God of love would never do that to anyone! SDA’s are taking an awful BIG RISK by betting there is no real place of Hell.

Revelation 5:4 and 9, “And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon. ... And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation.”

Amen! no man is worthy, but the Lamb of God is worthy. Jesus Christ is worthy!!!

Those people who are genuinely saved (born again) will die IN THE LORD. Revelation 14:13, “And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.” Notice that a believer’s works “FOLLOW,” they do not precede. We are not saved by self-righteous works.

Our works follow us to the Judgment Seat of Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11). The Lord saves us by grace through faith. Salvation is instant, and we are born anew of the Spirit of Christ (Romans 8:9). We become a member of God’s family—the kingdom of God—the moment we are saved. We are spiritually the children of Abraham, with God being our same heavenly Father (Galatians 3:26-29).

Jesus Will Profess To Them: ’I Never Knew You!’

SDA’s will be judged at The Great White Throne Of Judgment (Revelation 20:11-15, where Jesus will “profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity” (Matthew 7:23).

Matthew 7:21-23, “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.”

And here is the will of the Father according to the Lord Jesus Himself...

John 6:40, “And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.”

The will of the Father is to believe on Christ, the Lamb of God. Notice that the Bible does not say to keep all God’s Commandments and to abide in Christ throughout your life to be saved as SDA’s foolishly teach. Adventists are unsaved heretics, on their way to the Lake of Fire. There’s only one way, and that way is Jesus Christ.

Catholics say they love Jesus, while bowing to Mary and echoing vain repetitions to “Mary, Mary, Mary.” They are in utter demonic denial of their sad and lost sinful state. Likewise, Seventh-day Adventists claim to trust upon the Lord Jesus, while also adding water baptism, keeping the Sabbath Day, tithing and all the Commandments of God to their so-called “faith.” Faith in what? Seventh-day Adventism? That’s exactly where SDA’s have placed their faith... in a manmade religion that is going to take them all to the fires of Hell.

I say this kindly, but with a fervent desire that some Adventists will read this article and repent toward God, believing the Gospel to be saved.

Seventh-Day Adventism is a Satanic Deception

Seventh-day Adventism is easy to pick apart if you focus on their bizarre and exclusive false doctrine of “Investigative Judgment.” Back in the 19th century, a wayward minister named William Miller crunched some numbers and prophesied that the Lord would return in 1844. Over 10,000 Millerites (as they were called) quit their jobs and sold all their worldly possessions, including their homes. When Jesus didn’t return, there was panic. Something had to be done quick. So someone came up with the notion that Miller had misinterpreted the prophecy, and that in actuality Christ had entered into the Holy of Holies in Heaven to begin His work of “Investigative Judgment.”

It is tragic that men and women, in their woeful stubbornness and pride, are willing to corrupt the Scriptures in order to justify their foolishness and sin. SDA wouldn’t exist today if it were not for the foolishness of William Miller, who errantly predicted the Lord’s return in 1844. SDA was born out of a failed prophecy!!! This fact alone proves incontrovertibly that SDA is a scam, a hoax, and a false religion rooted in man’s sinful pride and wickedness.

I plead with you to forsake the Seventh-Day Adventist false religion if you are a victim. Acts 16:31 is the only invitation which God ever gave for men to be saved— "Believe upon the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."

1.1.87 Avoid The Counsel Of The Ungodly (2020-03-27 05:00)

on which the author states:

> This past year I started getting visual about the future that I wanted. Before then, I had no idea what I wanted or what I pictured my future to look like. Though getting more visual about what I wanted, I really got connected with my future and feel like I know the steps I need to take in order to have the future that I desire. I've allowed myself to really think about what I want while also having fun doing it. It felt less overwhelming and more fun to visually map my life out.

> For all of us daydreamers, visually planning out your life can make daydreaming feel a little more practical. We can be daydreamers with real plans for our future if we do it right. —[1]'LIFE GOALS' magazine

That type of foolish thinking is so typical of this younger, selfish, ungodly generation today! What saith the Scripture? ...

> Ecclesiastes 12:13-14, "
>
> Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.
>
> For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.
> **"

Our 'WHOLE DUTY' in life is to 'FEAR GOD AND KEEP HIS COMMANDMENTS'! Do you fear God dear friend? I do! We all have to give account to God someday in eternity (Hebrews 14:10-12). I don't know about you, but I want to be prepared for that day! You and I simply don't know what tomorrow may bring here on earth, but WE DO KNOW that we must stand before God one day in the future. Hebrews 9:27, "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: ” My future life’s goal on earth is to FEAR GOD AND OBEY HIS COMMANDMENTS!!!

Philippians 1:21, “ For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.”

It is a sin to make future plans without including, obeying and glorifying God...

> Luke 12:16-21, “ And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully: And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits? And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry. But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided? So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.”

I noticed that the author of ’LIFE GOALS’ doesn’t include God in her future plans. Kindly, she is a fool and no one ought take advice from her. Psalms 1:1-2, “Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. ” The unsaved world has a lot of ungodly counsel to offer you, but a wise person avoids it! So what do we do? The answer is to DELIGHT IN THE LAW OF THE LORD DAY AND NIGHT! That is what the Psalmist David said!

Seeking Professional Secular Help

It is not a sin for a Christian to go to a psychiatrist. I heard Pastor Jack Hyles (who pastored faithfully for 55 years) say in a sermon that some people need a psychiatrist. These specialists are licensed to prescribe drugs, which some patients desperately need to cope with manic depression and other ailments. There are many causes of mental illness, including: physical health problems, abuse, drugs, phobias and compulsive disorders, which need legitimate medical intervention.

So I am not against psychiatrists, but I sincerely believe that in at least 95 % of the cases where believers seek psychiatric help, it is totally unnecessary. [2]Pastor Max Younce preaches a very practical 2-part sermon series called: [3]HUMAN WISDOM VERSUS DIVINE WISDOM | [4]PART TWO, which addresses why so many people seek psychiatric counselling. What they really have is a REBELLION problem with the Word of God! I hope you will take the time to listen to this tremendous sermon, which I am confident you'll be so glad you did!

However, you need to understand that psychologists are not trained to counsel people from the inspired Word of God, and neither are they licensed to prescribe drugs. I do not recommend psychologists, because they do not have a Biblical mindset. And for that matter neither do psychiatrists, so you have to be careful with them too. It is up to the individual person (or their family if they are unable) to determine if someone needs psychiatric care. Some Christians foolishly apply Mark 5:1-17 (the Maniac of Gadarene) to every situation, and assume that every insane person is demon-possessed, but that is simply not true! There are legitimate cases of mental illness, which science is still discovering. You need to be very careful before shoving the Holy Bible in someone's face who has mental issues! It all depends on what is causing their mental illness.

The secular medical profession does not officially recognize Biblical terms; such as: sin, love, righteousness, redemption, Hell, Heaven, Holy Spirit, Jesus, repentance, salvation, discipleship, conviction, God or Judgment. They approach the broken body and soul from a humanistic perspective, not a Biblical spiritual perspective. For example: a lazy woman (a wife and a mother) who seeks help from the medical profession will very likely be diagnosed with 'Clinical Depression,' and then be prescribed drugs to cope. What she really needs is Bible preaching! She needs to be told that she is a sinner, and that laziness is a horrible sin, and she needs to get right with God! You will NEVER hear anyone in the secular medical profession tell you that YOU NEED TO GET RIGHT WITH GOD!!!

Another example is a man (a father and husband) who has a hot-temper. If he seeks professional help from the secular world, he will almost assuredly be sent to an Anger Management Program, but what he really needs is to GET RIGHT WITH GOD! One of the greatest sermons I have heard on this subject is by Pastor Jack Hyles, a masterpiece sermon in my humble opinion, called: '[5]YOU CAN CHOOSE YOUR OWN TEMPERAMENT!' People will say things like: "I wish I was as sweet as she is!" or "I wish I was as hard-working as he is!" or "I wish I had your patience!," but the truth is we CAN be all those things IF WE CHOOSE TO! Someone says: "Boy, I wish I was as generous as he is!" Well, you can be! The truth is that those people (which you admire so much) are just as lazy, mean, uncaring and selfish as you are, but they CHOOSE to work hard, get up early, apply themselves, care, love and be generous! YOU CAN CHOOSE YOUR OWN TEMPERAMENT!!!

Bible Preaching Is The Best Godly Counsel

Please avoid the counsel of the ungodly! I love Bible-preaching, because it is GODLY COUNSEL! I need all the spiritual counsel I can obtain, to lay up wisdom for future decisions that I might need to make, or for someone else who might need my advice in a matter. Proverbs 10:14, " Wise men lay up knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction." What a great Bible verse! Since web visitors ask me a lot of questions, I listen to a lot of Bible preaching, so I can steer them in the right direction.

I heard Dr. Hyles say that he and his secretary once went through 128 of his pastoral counseling sessions in his office, to see how many of them could have been avoided if people simply listened to his preaching and read his books. Of the 128 counseling sessions, 122 could have been avoided!!! Wow! Good night in the morning! Great fluffy biscuits! That is amazing!!! The point being—listening to Bible preaching WILL change your life!!!

That is why I collect [6]Pastor Jeff Owens' sermons like baseball cards, because they are a goldmine of wisdom! I love that dear man of God, and he is one of my mentors! When people ask me a question, I search through my Jeff Owens' collection for a helpful sermon, and I send it to them! That is wisdom. I am not always wise, but I know where to get wisdom. That is why I have a collection online of several thousand sermons by Bible-believing preachers! Thank God for PREACHERS!!! I have [7]over 2,800 sermons just by Pastor Jack Hyles (my hero of the Christian faith). Proverbs 13:20, "He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed." Jeremiah 5:5, " I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds."

In sharp contrast, most people saturate their impressionable minds with secular newspapers, books, magazines, websites, movies, plays, blogs. And then professed Christian people effectively do the same thing—inoculating their minds with so-called "

Christian

" devotionals, books, websites, magazines, blogs, films and religious conventions. All of this effectively KEEPS YOU FROM THE INSPIRED WORD OF GOD!

We are living in the ’PERILOUS TIMES’ as foretold in the Holy Scriptures, a time of reprobate minds. What saith the Scripture? ...

2nd Timothy 3:1-5, “

This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come.

For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away*.

Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away. ” That is a shocking revelation. The Bible foretold that a horrible time would come, when the most wicked people would embrace religion, professing a superficial FORM of godliness; but denying the power of God unto salvation, which is the Gospel (Romans 1:16). The Bible warns us to TURN AWAY FROM SUCH REPROBATES, that is, counterfeit Christians!!!

Satan is a beautiful liar! There are many deceptions in the world today. The average person is not a born-again Christian. They cannot discern the difference between a true Christian versus a fake Christian. Examples of fake Christians include: Mormon, Roman Catholic, Jehovah’s Witness, Church of Christ, Lutherans, Seventh-Day Adventist, Unitarian Universalist, Scientology, Christian Science and the Church of England, to name but a few of the major religious groups. All of these religious faiths corrupt the [8]Gospel of free grace, adding works to grace, which is ANOTHER GOSPEL (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). To seek counsel from these pseudo-Christian religious groups is to seek the counsel of the ungodly!

For example: Roman Catholics teach that a person MUST keep the Seven Sacraments to merit Heaven, which is NOT the Bible’s way to be saved. JW’s deny that Jesus is God almighty, so they have “

(2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Providing a detailed analysis of these cults is beyond the scope of this article. For our purposes here, I just want to warn you that you shouldn’t seek counsel from these religious groups, because they are not born-again believers.

Godly counsel

is advice that is 100 % Scripture-based! I’d estimate that 99 % of all advice given today anywhere is unbiblical!

Godly counsel obviously should include God!!!

One of the more obvious examples of ungodly advice is the recommendation to seek divorce. God hates divorce (i.e., putting away

” - Jeremiah 3:20 Malachi 2:16). No one should ever file for divorce! I like that in the Philippine islands there are no divorce courts. Literally, you cannot file for divorce! Would to God that it were so in America! We are a spoiled-rotten culture of selfishness, greed and immorality. The Bible foretold in

2nd Timothy 3:1-5, “

This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come.

For men shall be lovers of their own selves..

” Seeking a divorce is the most selfish thing that a person could ever do.

Proverbs 31:12, “

She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. ” Ladies, to file for divorce is to hire a legally-trained professional assassin to financially murder your husband! Avoid lawyers who will always offer the ungodly advice to: “

STRIKE FIRST!

” A lawyer is an ambassador for Satan, and he or she couldn’t care less about your sacred marriage!

My Godly Advice For You

I could mention hundreds of examples of ungodly advice, I am just touching the tip of the iceberg. Here is some of the best godly advice I could ever give you:

1. Do not enroll your impressionable child into the public fool system. The Devil has a bid for your child! Public schools don't care. They promote perverse sex-ed, homosexuality, fornication, new age doctrine, Harry Potter and evolution; but much worse is that children are deprived the love of caring Christian teachers, the the knowledge of God. My number one best godly advice I could give anyone is to get your children into a [9]Bible-believing Christian school preferably at a local Baptist church. Home-schooling is also an option, but a mother must be responsible and diligent to make it all succeed.
2. Get your family faithfully involved in a local Bible-believing church. This is so important. I love Pastor Steven Anderson, his family and growing church ministry. I've listened to him share his testimony many times, in which he tells how his wise parents sacrificially drove 45 minutes to attend an Independent Fundamental Baptist Church as a family. That is what made Brother Anderson the bold man of God that he is—being involved in a local fundamental Bible-believing church, where he found the blessed Savior and learned all about the Word of God! The distance is worth the difference!
3. A Christian wife ought never work a secular job. I have heard countless tragic stories of Christian men's wives running off in adultery with some bum at work. In one case the jealous husband murdered his wife and then commit suicide, but nothing happened to the adulterer at work! I wouldn't want to be in that wicked man's shoes on Judgment Day. Proverbs 6:29, "So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent." The Word of God plainly teaches that women are the "WEAKER VESSEL" (1st Peter 3:7). Ungodly men are seducers. To some extent all men are dirty-minded pigs! A man's mind normally thinks very differently than a woman's mind does; most women either fail to understand that, don't care, or take sport in hurting other people. A husband needs to protect his wife from other men, by keeping her home where she happily belongs, guiding the house (1st Timothy 5:14-15). I am not saying it is sinful for women to work outside the home, but it is unwise. That is how I feel in the matter!
4. Avoid drinking booze! I thank God I have never drank a drop of booze. I hate booze! Alcohol has never built a home, mended a marriage or strengthened a relationship! I remember standing over the graves of a pregnant mother who was struck and murdered by a drunk driver. I'll never forget seeing that little white coffin being lowered into a small hole dug 6 feet deep into the earth! As usual, the drunk driver sustained few injuries and received slap on the wrist for Involuntary Manslaughter (that means even though he killed somebody, since that wasn't his intention, he wasn't be charged with First Degree Murder). That has always bothered me, because everybody who drinks alcohol fully understands the risks involved. Drinking booze is a game of Russian Roulette! Evangelist John R. Rice properly called alcohol: LIQUID DEVIL!

5. Christian ladies, reject feminist indoctrination - The [10]Rockefeller's since the 1960's have re-engineered American women to think differently—to despise marriage and motherhood, resent child-rearing, loathe being a stay-at-home wife, feel inferior for being a homemaker. Instead, [11]women have been re-engineered to pursue a money-making career, seeks "relationships" instead of a lifetime marriage commitment, glorifying partying with friends as a single woman, and to be so-called "liberated" from an oppressive unfair male-dominated society! I am a movie fan. I like the 1997 movie, 'Dante's Peak,' about a volcano that erupts. In the [12]transcript, mayor Rachel Wando (played by actor Linda Hamilton) says to Harry Dalton (played by actor Pierce Brosnan) that children are NO FUN!—"What do you do for fun? Fun? Hmph. What is that? Fun? Oh, I know. Fun is what you have when you don't have two children, a business, a town to run." That is a fool talking! Psalms 127:3, "Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward." Stupid is, stupid does ladies! Don't let the Devil make a Jezebel out of you! Don't let the Devil talk you into murdering your precious baby! Don't let the Devil's child convince you to destroy your own marriage and home. Tell the Devil and his minions to go to Hell!!!

6. Avoid birth control contraceptives and have children. I am 100 % against the whole idea of delaying having children until things are more settled. Don't be a fool! You don't know what the future holds dear friend! Egg Freezing has become a popular reality in these strange modern times! Recent figures released by the [13]Human Fertilisation And Embryology Authority (HFEA) confirmed Egg Freezing to be the fastest form of fertility treatment in Europe. But only 1-in-5 women who had their eggs frozen returned to use them, and of the women that returned only 21 % successfully gave birth to a child. That means only 4 % of the women who have their eggs frozen ever have a baby! Oh, how foolish are women today!!! God loves BIG FAMILIES, and so do I! I admire that [14]Pastor Steven Anderson and his wife have 11 children. I think that is beautiful! I advise every young married couple to HAVE CHILDREN, and have them NOW! Don't delay! Children are a gift, blessing and heritage from THE LORD!!! The plain truth is that you will NEVER have the money, time, resources, home or more settled life to accommodate having children—SO JUST HAVE THEM!!!

7. Saturate your life with the inspired Word of God. Hearing the Holy Bible increases our FAITH! Romans 10:17, "So then *faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." When I say, "Word of God," I am always referring to the inspired 'KING JAMES BIBLE'! Romans 12:1-2, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." Our life is TRANSFORMED as believers, day by day, as we hear the Holy Scriptures, having our mind RENEWED by the Word! James 1:21, "Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls." The inspired Word of God rejoices my heart each day, shining bright in my soul, giving me 'UNSPEAKABLE JOY' in the Lord (1st Peter 1:7-9).

I love you with God's unconditional love dear reader, and helping you is my heart's great desire. 2nd Corinthians 3:2, "Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:" 1st Thessalonians 2:20, "For ye are our glory and joy." And again we read in Galatians 4:19, "My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you," I want you to [15]get saved (if you're not), and know 100 % that your name is written in Heaven as God's redeemed child. I want you to have the '[16]unspeakable joy' that I do in Christ Jesus.

1.1.88 Are You Ready to Meet God? (2020-03-27 05:56)

There was a very sad accident which happened in Colorado Springs in 2009. An 18-year old woman, Whitney Hendrickson, was slowly burned to death in a fiery accident, which involved an out-of-control vehicle. The poor girl was pinned between the gas pump and the burning minivan. As she saw the flames moving toward her, she cried out for help, saying “Help me! Help me! I’m going to die.” Sadly, there was no one to save her. Life is so short. She had no idea when she woke up that morning that it would be her last day on earth. My deepest sympathies goes out to that young woman’s family.

Spencer Eden/KDVR-TV | March 17, 2009

March 17: A Colorado Springs convenience store gasoline pump caught fire and exploded, killing a woman.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. — A convenience store gasoline pump caught fire and exploded Tuesday, killing a woman and injuring at least one other person, police said.

Witnesses told The Gazette newspaper the pump caught fire after hit was hit by a pickup that had in turn been struck by an SUV. Police said the incident was under investigation.

The woman was pumping gas when the fire erupted, and she was trapped between the pump and a minivan, witnesses said.

"She was standing there screaming ’Help me! Help me! I’m going to die,"’ Greg Alderman told The Gazette.

Police Lt. Dave Whitlock identified the woman who was killed as 18-year-old Whitney Hendrickson of Colorado Springs.

The SUV driver, 29-year-old Kelli Renae McKay of Colorado Springs, was treated at Memorial Hospital for bruises. She was cited for suspicion of careless driving involving a death, a misdemeanor, Whitlock said.

A passenger in the minivan was unharmed as was the driver of the pickup.

Alderman, who works across the street from the 7-Eleven store where the explosion occurred, said he tried to get to the woman but the heat was too intense.

Michael Horvat, who also works across the street, said he ran to the store with a fire extinguisher but an off-duty firefighter yelled at him to back off. Just then the pump exploded.

"She was frozen in there, between the gas pumps and her car," Horvat said. "She was holding her face. Flames were all around her. She never got out."

I wrote this article because this accident is a clear reminder to all of us that life is predictably UNPREDICTABLE. We have a tendency to take so many things for granted in this life, including life itself.

Consider this poor woman who lost her life. Any hope of having a future husband or children or grandchildren, any hope of ever hearing those first words “Mama” or “I wuv you mommy,” any hope of watching her children graduate from school, or of receiving a big hug from one of her own children, is now gone forever. How sad. How tragic!

This is why I get so peeved at our government leaders for [2]needlessly sending our children to die on foreign soil for agendas that have absolutely nothing to do with America’s freedom. Alan Greenspan, who headed the Federal Reserve Board for 19 years, stated that the Iraqi War is mostly about [3]stealing their oil. That’s not a good enough reason to forfeit our children’s lives. Many parents will never be grandparents, because their child died in Iraqi for the New World Order. And if that’s not bad enough, [4]President Bush Jokes about War In Iraq! It is all so evil. Just remember, Obama, Bush and the Clintons will all spend this coming Christmas with their children. If your pastor supports the [5]War in Iraq, pray for him that God will open his eyes.

May we keep in mind the untimely death of this unfortunate young woman, and numerous others we read about every day in the news, so that we may [6]redeem the time, preparing to meet our God and Creator. Life is what happens to us while we’re making big plans. Life has its [7]disappointments, heartaches and times of sorrow for everyone—some more than others—but God is still on His throne in Heaven and now is the time to [8]Get Right With God (MP3 sermon by Pastor Lee Roberson, 1909-2007). Do you know Jesus as your Savior?

The Reality of Sin, Judgment and Hell

After I read this tragic story, I couldn't help but think of the Scriptures and the BILLIONS of unbelievers that are headed for the Lake of Fire in their sins. Revelation 21:8, "But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death." And again in 2nd Thessalonians 1:8 we are warned, "In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ." I don't know if this young woman was saved or unsaved, and I make no statement concerning that. I certainly hope with all my heart that she's enjoying Heaven now with the saints.

What caught my attention mostly was the fact that this young women saw death approaching. She saw the fires moving closer and closer. Fear overwhelmed her, as it would anyone. How tragic that multitudes of people in the world today refuse to see the fires closing in around them! They are blind to the reality of sin, judgment and Hell fire! Oh, that men would hear and believe the Word of God, repenting toward God for salvation.

Jesus taught in Matthew 24:37-38 that the people before the flood were eating, drinking, marrying, and giving in marriage (partying). Jesus said that it would be the same way in the Last Days. We are living in those times. People today are [9]not listening to God. This is why we have a city nicknamed "Sin City"; and abortion is legal, and Salem, Massachusetts prides themselves as the "City of Witches"; and pornography is legal; and homosexuals are getting married and adopting children; and America's legal system is extremely corrupt and oppressive; and idolatry is commonplace in America's churches. Woe unto America.

Jesus said that when the flood finally came, [10]THEY KNEW NOT what had happened until it was too late. Not one person heeded Noah's preaching of the righteousness that is in Jesus Christ. Only Noah and his immediate family got on the ark. Noah preached for 120 long years, but not one person obeyed the Gospel, not one person got saved, not one person escaped God's wrath when judgment came. And after perishing in the flood, they went to Hell to burn (Psalm 9:17).

Tragically, preachers no longer cry aloud against sin, no longer warn men of the coming judgment of an angry God, and no longer stress the awfulness of eternal punishment for all Christ-rejecters in the fires of Hell. Every mainstream so-called "Christian author," such as Joyce Meyer, Joel Osteen, Rick Warren, Max Lucado, et cetera, spend 99 % of the time AVOIDING the unpleasant and offensive topics of sin, judgment, God's wrath, hellfire and eternal punishment. Yet, the great need of our day is to hear these topics preached loud and long so that men may fear God and come to repentance.

All of the popular televangelists today are a bunch of [11]greedy fakes! Beware of the minister who focuses on health, wealth and prosperity. Beware of any professed "Christian" who wants to sell you something; but never warns of the coming judgment in hellfire, never exposes the awfulness of sin, never talks about winning souls to Jesus Christ and never talks about God's wrath upon the wicked. America's great need of the hour is preaching preachers!

The tragic accident in Colorado Springs could have happened to anyone. It was horrific to say the least. Burned alive! Proverb 27:1, "Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth." The importance question is, are you ready to meet God? Hebrews 10:31, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God."

Luke 13:5, "I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." —Jesus Christ

1.1.89 Saved According To God's Purpose (2020-03-27 11:00)

2nd Timothy 1:8-11, " Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God; Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel: Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles."

What a beautiful passage of Scripture. I read this passage today and was compelled to write this article. Notice in verse 9 that we are not saved "

ACCORDING TO OUR WORKS, but according to HIS OWN PURPOSE AND GRACE.

" We tend to think of everything from our own selfish perspective, but the Bible says God saves us TO HIS OWN PURPOSE. What is God's PURPOSE" for saving us?

> Romans 8:28-30, "
>
> And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.
>
> For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.
>
> Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.
> **"

Before the world was ever created, God in His foreknowledge knew who would one day trust in His only begotten Son, and those he called, and justified and will someday glorify in Heaven.

- At salvation there is JUSTIFICATION (by grace through faith alone).
- In eternity there will be GLORIFICATION (presented to God blameless).
- Everything in between is SANCTIFICATION (i.e., conformed into Christ's image).

God never predestinates anyone to SALVATION; but rather, the Bible says He predestinates the saints to CONFORMITY into the image of His dear Son. Romans 8:29, " For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren." This transformation process in theology is called "sanctification." The word itself means "to be set apart." Before we were ever conceived in our mother's womb, God was already making big plans for our future. God's purpose for every believer is to be conformed into Jesus' righteous image.

What saith the Scripture? Ephesians 2:10, "For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them." That is amazing dear Christian reader. Do you realize that before you were ever born, God had already foreordained that you should walk in the Spirit and do good works? That is God's desire, will and purpose for each and every believer. God the Father wants us all to emulate His precious Son in the world. We are Christ's ambassadors in His stead to this world. 2nd Corinthians 5:20, " Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God."

God didn't merely save us to give us fire insurance! It is true that salvation is a free gift, without obligation; but God lovingly requests for us to return that benevolent act, by presenting our bodies as "a living sacrifice," which is our REASONABLE service (Romans 12:1-2). It is not the believer's "mandatory" service; but rather, our "reasonable" service! 1st Corinthians 6:20,

“ For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s.” That

“ PRICE” is the precious blood of Jesus!!!

Dear Christian reader, God has BIG PLANS for you! Jesus is preparing a home for you in Heaven (John 14:1-3). The Lord has a new body for you at the Rapture—a body fashioned like unto His own glorified body (Philippians 3:21). God the Father, who sacrificed His only begotten Son to die for our sins, also promises to “FREELY GIVE US ALL THINGS” (Romans 8:32). In the meantime, our heavenly Father requests that we walk in the Holy Spirit—being FILLED with fruit of the Spirit, doing good works, serving Christ, departing from evil, and preaching the Gospel to win the lost. What a wonderful God and Savior!!!

Every believer has an “

INHERITANCE

reserved for us in Heaven, just waiting for us...

> 1st Peter 1:3-4, “
>
> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,
>
> To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you*, **
> **”

Being a born-again Christian just keeps getting better and better!!!

1.1.90 Why Stand Ye Here All The Day Idle? (2020-03-27 15:00)

Matthew 20:6, "And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?"

I like something that Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) said: "The Great Commission is not to preach the Gospel to congregations, but to individuals." That is so true! There are two basic types of churches: Evangelistic and Soulwinning. An evangelistic church teaches members to invite people to church, and then the pastor preaches the Gospel to the congregation; but in a soulwinning church, members are taught and organized to go out into the public to preach the Gospel. God's method is SOULWINNING!

> Matthew 28:19-20, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen."

> Luke 14:23, " And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. "

Some soulwinning critic says: "

God is not interested in numbers!

Well, my friend, God sure ain't interest in empty pews either! The Lord said he desired that

MY HOUSE MAY BE FULL

! This parable is symbolic of God the Father, who wants HIS HOUSE FULL. Numbers represent souls, and God wants souls saved. How do I KNOW this is true? Look at Acts 2:41,

“Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.” If God is not interested in numbers, then why did the apostles count how many people were saved at Pentecost, and why does the Bible give us THE NUMBER OF SOULS SAVED? The Bible says 3,000 people were saved!!! Amen!

Throughout the Word of God saints are encouraged to GET BUSY SERVING GOD!!!

Psalms 90:12, “So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.”

Daniel 12:3, “ And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. ”

Ephesians 5:16, “

Redeeming the time*, because the days are evil.

Colossians 4:5, “

Walk in wisdom* toward them that are without, redeeming the time.”

John 9:4, “

I must work the works of him that sent me*, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

1st Corinthians 9:16, “For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!”

Luke 10:2, “

Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

Luke 8:15, “But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

John 15:5, “I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.”

Proverbs 11:30, “The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.”

Could be the Scripture be any plainer, that every Christian believer is supposed to be an active SOUL-WINNER? I think not. Why stand ye here all the day idle dear reader? What are you doing for the Lord Jesus Christ today? In what capacity are you involved with a local church ministry? What are you doing to help get souls saved? Every saint can and should do something!!!

Only you can evaluate what resources, talents, money, time or abilities God has entrusted to you, that can be volunteered for the Master's use. If you are not sure, ask your pastor what you can do to serve God in the local church. If you are not a member of a growing local church, you should be! The local New Testament, Bible-believing, church is our spiritual family in the Lord. One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Bob Gray Sr. is called: '[1]WHY YOU SHOULD BE A PART OF A GROWING CHURCH.'

Nobody wants to be a part of something that is dying, like the lifeless Harvest Baptist Church (HBC) on Guam. The church is deader than a doorknob! Even their sign "

Ichabod

" (i.e., The Glory Of The Lord Has Departed) is falling down over the entrance door, because it is so worn and old! Worst of all, they have become indifferent and couldn't care less about truth or people. Well I care about truth and people! Still, I love them and pray for them, hoping one day they will get right with God and make peace with me, as I have tried to do with them since 2017 (they forced me out in 2014). Woe unto the idle shepherds!

HBC has so much potential to become a great soulwinning church, but they merely want to keep it as a money-generating religious business. The power of the Holy Spirit is not present! The alters are empty during the invitation. The church uses dozens of corrupt Bible revisions, which confuses people. The false gospel of Lordship Salvation is taught and sanctioned, damning men's souls to Hell. The church members have an "

Us Four And No More

cultist

mindset. It truly saddens my heart!

Lamentations 1:12a, “ Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by?... ”

The big problem all across America is that soulwinning is not important to churches anymore. Pastors are lazy! Many ecumenical pastors hate the very word,

“[2]SOULWINNING,” because Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) made it a household word, and ecumenical pastors are envious of Dr. Hyles’ massive ministry success from his 55 years of Spirit-filled ministry. Soulwinning is every believer’s duty!!! Matthew 20:6b, “Why stand ye here all the day idle?”

1.1.91 The King James Bible Is Inspired (2020-03-28 01:07)

2nd Timothy 3:16-17, “

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.

> “The Bible is not the inspired, inerrant and 100 % historically true words of God. ...If we would destroy the Christian religion, we must first of all destroy man’s belief in the Bible.” —Voltaire (French philosopher and former unbeliever 1694-1778 - He now knows better [in Hell])

As one liberal theologian pointed out in his review of Harold Lindsell's, The Battle For The Bible: the only real difference between the conservative and liberal positions on the Bible is that the conservatives say the Bible USED TO BE inspired and inerrant, whereas the liberal says it NEVER WAS inspired or inerrant. BOTH positions agree that the Bible IS NOT NOW inspired or inerrant.

As brother Daryl Coats so aptly says in his article, The Two Lies:

> "If the Bible was inspired only in the original manuscripts, no one in the entire history of the world has ever had an inspired Bible. The original autographs of Job and the books of Moses had disappeared more than a thousand years before the first book of the New Testament was written, so no one has ever owned a complete Bible made up of the 'divine originals.' Nor, has anyone ever owned a complete New Testament made up of 'inspired originals,' because the originals were distributed among more than a dozen individuals and local churches."

Thank God for the inspired King James Bible today!

1.1.92 Hell Is A Literal Place Of Eternal Punishment In Fire (2020-03-28 03:31)

Revelation 20:14-15, " And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire."

Revelation 21:8, " But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death."

I was saddened today to learn that Renee Roland, who hosts a popular YouTube channel promoting the free grace Gospel, [1]doesn't know if Hell exists or not. She questions the Bible, admittedly saying she 'DOESN'T KNOW,' and considers the possibility of annihilation instead of eternal punishment in a burning place of fire and brimstone for the damned. In her video she rationalizes that is goes against God's good nature to send someone to Hell forever.

Now, I like Renee's fighting spirit and she has even promoted some of my Gospel articles (for which I am grateful). However, I am here to tell you dear friend that HELL IS VERY REAL! Hell is a literal place. It is a physical place inside the earth that burns with " fire and brimstone,

just like the Scripture teaches in our two text passages. The Bible actually has more to say about Hell than it does Heaven! I did not write this article to be mean or criticize Renee, God knows my heart; but rather, to simply set the record straight. HELL IS A REAL PLACE!!! Who goes to Hell? Only Christ-rejecters who choose to go there!

Here is a Scripture passage that disproves the heresy of ANNIHILATION. Matthew 10:28, " And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell." The Bible tells us not to fear men, who can just kill our body; but to FEAR GOD, who can destroy both body and soul IN HELL!!! If annihilation were a true teaching (which says unsaved people will merely die and cease to be conscious permanently), then this Bible verse would make no sense at all. If all God is going to do is annihilate men, so that they are no longer conscious in their grave, then what more fear is there of God than men? If men kill you, you are dead in the earth. If God annihilates you, you are dead in the earth? Why then should we fear God more than men? Clearly, as the Bible says, God has the power to DESTROY BOTH SOUL AND BODY IN HELL. So Hell then must be a different punishment than merely ceasing to exist!

It behooves me how anyone, especially a professed born-again Christian, could even entertain the foolish idea of annihilation for the unsaved.

Seventh-Day Adventists Deny The Existence Of Hell

Here is a quote from their own SDA website:

> "We reject the doctrine of eternal torment for the following reasons:
>
> (1) Because everlasting life is a gift of God (Rom 6:23). The wicked do not possess this – they 'shall not see life' (John 3:36); 'no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him' (I John. 3:15).
> (2) Because eternal torment would perpetuate and immortalize sin, suffering, and woe, and contradict, we believe, divine revelation, which envisions the time when these things shall be no more (Rev. 21:4).

(3) Because it seems to us to provide a plague spot in the universe of God throughout eternity, and would seem to indicate that it is impossible for God Himself ever to abolish it.

(4) Because in our thinking, it would detract from the attribute of love as seen in the character of God, and postulates the concept of a wrath which is never appeased.

(5) Because the Scriptures teach that the atoning work of Christ is to 'put away sin' (Heb. 9:26) – first from the individual, and ultimately from the universe. The full fruition of Christ's sacrificial, atoning work will be seen not only in a redeemed people but in a restored heaven and earth (Eph. 1:14)"

SOURCE: 'Questions On Doctrine,' p. 543, released by the General Conference of Seventh Day Adventists in 1957 [emphasis added]

SDA's and Jehovah's Witnesses BOTH share similar beliefs, denying the Biblical teaching of eternal punishment for lost sinners. SDA's deny the torments of fire and brimstone in a literal place called "

Hell.

" It is foolish for SDA's to rationalize that letting somebody go to Hell forever contradicts God's character of love. They are forgetting about God's character trait of holiness (1st Peter 1:15-16). A holy God demands justice! All sin must be paid for (Romans 6:23). There are absolutely NO EXCEPTIONS!

It was God’s love that sent His only begotten Son into the world to pay for our sins (John 3:16). The entire Old Testament reveals the holy nature of God, who will not tolerate sin. The New Testament reveals the loving grace of God, that offers redemption to all mankind. For someone to focus only on God’s love, denying that the Lord could let ever allow a sinner to be punished in hellfire for all eternity, is to completely ignore the LAW of God in the Old Testament. We’ve got a bunch of New Testament churchgoers today, woefully ignorant of Bible theology.

God made two great divisions of His Word: LAW and GRACE! That is, Old Testament and New Testament! Law demands justice! Every violation of the law MUST be punished. Jesus took our place on the cross. In theology this is called a “

Vicarious Death

a substitutionary death); Christ died in our stead on the cross! Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt of sin we could not pay! JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

Also, please understand that God never sends anybody to Hell who doesn’t CHOOSE to go there, by knowingly rejecting the dear Savior! No small child ever goes to Hell. No retarded person ever goes to Hell. No human being has ever gone to Hell, unto whom the grace of God did not appear to be saved (Titus 2:11). If someone is incapable of understanding the Gospel of free grace, God would never be so unjust as to let the angels cast them into Hell. Only conscious Christ-rejecters go to Hell!

Psalms 9:17 Teaches The Wicked Shall Be Turned Into “ Hell”

In all the corrupt modern Bible revisions, they’ve changed "Hell" to "Sheol" in the Old Testament, which is a gross error. For example: Psalms 9:17, “The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.” The word "Sheol" means "realm of the dead." That is the Hebrew word from which "Hell" is translated in the King James Bible. However, the King James translators were wise and scholarly men, fully realizing that "Sheol" didn’t make sense to the reader, because even the righteous go to Sheol! So if the righteous and the unrighteous go to the SAME place, then Psalms 9:17 makes no sense at all. The 1611 translators knew this, which is why they chose to use the English word "Hell," which denotes eternal damnation for the wicked! Anyone who has ever dealt with Mormons or JW’s fully knows that they love to point out that "Sheol" only refers to the grave, and not a place of fire and damnation. Then why do the wicked and nations that forget God go there?

I actually learned this truth about Psalms 9:17 as a teenager, from Dr. Walter Martin (1928-1989). My Christian parents had his book on their shelf called: "[2]KINGDOM OF THE CULTS" (free .PDF version online). I love Dr. Martin’s book, but I disagree with his false claim that SDA is a “ Christian cult.

There ain’t no such animal!

What saith the Scripture? Mark 9:47-48, “And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire:

Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

” Here we learn from the Bible that lost souls are “ into Hell, where the

The True Story Of The Rich Man And Lazarus

This is a 100 % true story...

Luke 16:19-24, “

There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores,

And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man’s table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham’s bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.

False prophets (e.g., Mormons, JW’s and SDA’s) deny that this is a true story. I was sitting at the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and a guy named “ got up behind the pulpit to teach a Wednesday evening Bible study, denying that Luke 16:19-32 is a true story. He is very wrong! How do we know this is a true story and not a parable?

We know for a few reasons:

1. Jesus doesn’t say it is a parable (as he normally does when telling a parable).
2. Jesus doesn’t explain its meaning afterwards (as He does when telling a parable).
3. Jesus uses proper names (Abraham and Lazarus), which He never does in parables.

4. If Hell is not a literal place of fire and torment, then Jesus is a deceiver.

These are strong reasons to accept this account as valid and absolutely true. Unless the Bible says otherwise, we should always accept it at face value.

Death and Hell Are Not The Same

Revelation 1:18, " I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death." Revelation 20:14, " And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death." Here we see that death, Hell (Hades) and the Lake of Fire (Gehenna) are not the same things. This passage in Revelation 20:11-15 speaks of The Great White Throne of Judgment, when " the dead " (both small and great) shall stand before God and be judged according to their works. Literally, the unsaved dead from all of history (the famous, national leaders, slaves, homeless, poor and common humanity) will all be delivered up from Hell, the bottom of the sea, and the earth, to be judged by God the Father! This will be the final judgment of all humanity. The wicked will be into the everlasting Lake of Fire!!!

If you are uncertain about the subject of Hell dear friend, I highly recommend reading Pastor Max D. Younce's helpful book (available free online in .PDF format) called:

1.1.93 What Is Heaven Like? (2020-03-28 18:05)

Revelation 21:3-4, “And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.”

People foolishly believe a lot of things they see and hear on television (e.g., Oprah Winfrey), or read in a book by a New Age author (e.g., James Praagh), forming unbiblical conclusions that are untrue. May I say, not everything said by Jerry Springer is true! There is much fake news nowadays! I heard President Donald Trump say this week in a press conference that ’The Wall Street Journal’ publishes a lot of “FAKE NEWS

That’s no better than [1]Bob Jones University and their [2] “

FAKE BIBLES!

[3]” Despite all the fake news and theological frauds today, t hankfully we have the unchanging Words of God in the KING JAMES BIBLE, teaching us about Heaven (and you can trust the inspired Words of God).

[4]What the Bible says is so! To keep the list brief, I have saved Scripture

quotations

until afterwards, which can can read for yourself.

Here are 50 wonderful truths about Heaven:

1. All the inhabitants of Heaven are part of a big family (Ephesians 3:15)
2. Heaven is a city measuring 1,500 miles wide, long and high (a cube). That would cover most of the United States and part of Canada and Mexico to fit. All of the saved from all humanity will be there.
3. The city is encompassed by a 216-foot-high wall, made of jasper.
4. 12 entrance gates, 3 on each of the four sides, each made of a single pearl.
5. Heaven has 12 foundations, each of a different precious gem stone.
6. The city is made of pure gold, crystal clear in it's 100 % purest form, resembling glass.
7. There's a beautiful river flowing from the throne of God.
8. At the heart of the city is the glittering throne of God.
9. There's a beautiful rainbow around God's throne with every color. Revelation 4:3, "And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald."
10. Before the throne of God are four Cherubim beasts who praise God continually.
11. Heaven is a holy city, the house of God the Father. We are going to live in God's home. Amen, amen, amen!
12. Only saved people or angels may enter into Heaven.
13. We'll all be in the city of God and be very pleased to be there.
14. Saints in Heaven know what's going on here on earth, but do not see our sins.
15. Our loved ones in Heaven are awake (Hebrews 12:1 - "witnesses" see and hear something). They're not called "role models," but "witnesses," because they are watching us run the race from Heaven).
16. The inhabitants of Heaven see, hear and interact. They have a life, eternal life. They are alive and alert.
17. There are horses in Heaven (Revelation 19:14).
18. Saints in Heaven remember us (Samuel remembered Saul when he returned to pronounce judgment upon him, and Samuel knew what was going on here on earth. They were familiar with one another, nothing was erased; also, see Luke 15:7 - there is rejoicing in the presence of the angels; Luke 16:19-31 - Lazarus and Abraham recognized each other).
19. We will recognize our loved ones in Heaven (Peter, James and John recognized Moses and Elijah on the Mount of Transfiguration; Saul and Samuel recognized each other; Mary recognized Jesus after He arose from the dead; the disciples recognized Jesus after His death).

20. Our bodily imperfections will be made perfect in Heaven. There are no cripples in Heaven. There are no obese people. There's no wheelchairs. There's no deaf, dumb or blind in Heaven. Philippians 3:21 promises we shall receive a body fashioned like unto the Lords. Jesus ate and drank in His resurrected body. He ascended in the air, defying gravity. The Lord walked through walls, walked on water, spoke and is alive physically somewhere in the universe today (He bodily ascended from the earth in Acts 1:9-11).

21. God is going to be with us. (the worst part about Hell is being separated from God. People in Hell realize what they have missed, and gnash in bitter regret and tears).

22. God Himself will wipe away all tears. No more death. No more pain. No more crying and tears. No more sorrow.

23. There's no night there, no darkness. The Lord's holiness lights the city. There's no need for candles, the sun or flashlights.

24. There will be no more hunger pains. Americans by far don't know what it feels like to have no food, but many people in afflicted parts of Africa do. The saints will thirst and hunger no more. The food and drinks present are strictly for pleasure, without calories.

25. There will be no need for a heating system. The Lord's presence will warm us in Heaven.

26. There are many mansions in Heaven, not cookie-cutter type homes. We will receive individualized mansions and nice homes, depending on our earthly service for Christ, with everything we need and want. Romans 8:32, "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?" We will have everything we need and desire in Heaven! There are no mortgages in Heaven. No home is ever foreclosed upon.

27. Soulwinners will shine as the brightness of the stars in Heaven forever (Daniel 12:3).

28. We will work in Heaven, serving God day and night. Work is enjoyable in Heaven, in pleasant conditions, without pressure or troublesome co-workers. Only perfect Christians live in Heaven in glorified bodies. In Heaven, the saints are as children; that is, loving, trusting, humble, pure, innocent and pleasant to be around. Jude 1:24, "Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy." Because of the precious blood of Jesus, the saints have been justified, JUST-IF-I'D never sinned at all. What an awesome God!!!

29. Heaven's gates are never closed. There are no creeps, thieves or shady characters in Heaven. The gates are open all the time. The saints leave their doors unlocked, because there are no locks on their doors, because there is no need for them. Can you imagine how beautiful it will be to live in such a place, that you don't even need locks on your car or home? God is beautiful!

30. There is no crime in Heaven; there is no need for police or detectives.

31. Our saved loved ones are alive and conscious in Heaven. They watch our lives on earth, remember and recognize us (Luke 15:7-10; Revelation 6:9-10; Hebrews 12:1).

32. Saints will be as the angels is Heaven, not given in marriage (Matthew 22:30)

33. There won't be any fine print or shady advertising in Heaven. Everything is free!

34. There is no fear in Heaven, because there will be nothing to fear. 1st John 4:18, "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love."

35. There is no night in Heaven, it is always daytime.

36. We will eat and drink in Heaven with Jesus and the angels (Matthew 26:29). The angels devoured "a feast" which Lot had prepared for them. Genesis 19:3b, "he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread, and they did eat." I believe eating, drinking and sleeping will be optional, not a necessity. We don't know about sleeping. Since our resurrected bodies will be immortal, they couldn't require anything to sustain them if truly immortal.

37. Presently, saints have a body in Heaven (II Corinthians 5:1).

38. Heaven is a place of perfect rest (Revelation 14:13).

39. The archangel Lucifer used to live in Heaven before he sinned (Isaiah 14:12).

40. God has prepared imaginable things for those who love Him (I Corinthians 2:9).

41. Heaven is a place located beyond the farthest star to the north (Psalms 75:6).

42. Laboring saints for Christ have treasures laid up in Heaven (Matthew 6:19-20)

43. Heaven is a joyful place (Psalms 16:11).

44. Heaven is a place of openness and understanding (1st Corinthians 13:12).

45. There is rejoicing in Heaven when people get saved (Luke 15:10).

46. There is a Holy Place and Tabernacle in Heaven (Hebrews 9:23).

47. Heaven is a real, literal, physical place; a city (Hebrews 12:22).

48. Heaven is a wonderful place.

49. God's inspired Word is settled forever in Heaven (Psalms 119:89).

50. God is in Heaven on His throne (Ecclesiastes 5:2; Colossians 3:1)

John 14:1-3, “Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. ”

Here are but a few precious Scripture passages about Heaven . . .

Revelation 21:10-27, "And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal; And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof. And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel. And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald; The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass. And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it. And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it. And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life."

Revelation 7:15-17, "Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes."

Revelation 22:1-6, "And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him: And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads. And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever."

The most beautiful thing about all of these Scriptures is that, like all Scripture, they are PROMISES from God. The entire Holy Bible is a book of [16]PROMISES from God. Also, please read: ' [17]Abiding In The Promises Of God .'

1.1.94 Satan Is The Author Of Confusion (2020-03-28 23:00)

1st Corinthians 14:33, " For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints."

Here, believe it or not, are the abbreviations for just SOME of the English Bible versions for sale on the market today. For example: the NIV is the New International Version, seen in the following list...

SUM OUT TIM ABP INT HEB PAR WRD PEO KJS CHI FUL SPL BAR CAL CLA DAR GIL GSB GUZ JFB KAD KJT MHC MHW SCO TSK WES NIV NLT ESV NAS GWT KJV ASV DRB ERV WEB WLC WLV WLO WLT BHS BHO BHT ALE PAL SEP SPU SPT VUL AKJ BBE DBY KJP OJB WBS NIV NLT ESV NAS GWT KJV ASV DRB ERV WEB WLC WLV WLO WLT BHS BHO BHT ALE PAL SEP SPU SPT VUL AKJ BBE DBY KJP OJB WBS YLT

The reason why there are so many Bibles is obvious:

First, because The Devil wants to confuse everybody.

Second, because The Devil wants to lead people into religion without truth. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. [1]Professor Gail Riplinger is right—Theological liberals are secularizing the Bible! Here is one of my favorite books by Dr. Riplinger titled: '[2]IN AWE OF THY WORD' (free online .PDF version of the book).

Third , because of The sinful love of money which drives the evil market of Bible-corrupters. 1st Timothy 6:10 teaches that the LOVE OF MONEY IS THE ROOT OF ALL EVIL. Many people will do anything for money. This is why the Bible plainly reaches that NO MAN can serve God and mammon (wealth). Ye cannot serve God and mammon. You'll cling to one and hate the other, and there are no exceptions. Matthew 6:24, "No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other." Matthew 6:4 doesn't mean that it's a sin to become wealthy. It does mean that money should never become a priority in our lives.

Obeying God ought to be our ONLY priority, as we are commanded in the Bible. Ecclesiastes 12:13, "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man." Notice that the Word of God doesn't say it is the partial duty of man ; but rather, 'THE WHOLE DUTY OF MAN.' We were created by God and put here upon the earth to fear God and keep His commandments. This is our entire purpose for living!!! Revelation 4:11 teaches that all things were created for God's pleasure. Hebrews 11:6 says that without faith it is IMPOSSIBLE (not hard, but impossible) to please God.

The King James Bible is the only reliable and trustworthy Bible in the English-speaking world today. English is fast becoming the international language. Not surprisingly, this is one of the stated goals of The Georgia Guidestones, that is, a universal language. The reason why is to further world government, to prepare the stage for the coming Man of Sin, the Antichrist. God knew what He was doing when He gave us the King James Bible in 1611. This is the End Times Bible, and the last translation that the world will ever receive from God. All modern Bible versions are corrupted.

According to the American Bible Society (ABS), there are approximately 900 different English Bible versions. . . .

> I am afraid no one can give you an exact number for the English translations and paraphrases of the Bible printed since Tyndale's New Testament of 1526. In part this is due to the difficulty of determining what should be defined as a new translation as opposed to a correction or a revision of an existing translation. There is the additional question of how we should count translations that include not a complete Bible or Testament, but just a group of books or even a single book. And then, of course, there is the difficulty of sheer numbers. With all these caveats in mind, the number of printed English translations and paraphrases of the Bible, whether complete or not, is about 900. [emphasis added]
> —[3]Number Of English Translations Of The Bible; BIBLE Q & A; December 2, 2009.

Our nation's 16th U.S. President, Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865), made this wise observation:

> "In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but
> one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!" —President Abraham Lincoln Likewise, Bible translators and publishers all claim that their particular "new" and "better" Bible revision is the most accurate, but the various Bible versions all conflict, saying something a little (and oftentimes a lot) different! The King James Bible says in John 20:17 that Jesus told Mary Magdalene not to touch Him, but all the Alexandrian perversions say she was already holding onto Him, and He told her not to. There's a world of difference between not touching somebody, versus not holding onto them! The reason why Mary was not allowed to touch the Savior, as plainly stated—"

I am not yet ascended to my Father, ” because the blood had to be sprinkled upon the heavenly Mercy Seat in the presence of the Father (Hebrews 8:12, 22-24; 12:24). Satan is weakening, obscuring and hindering THE TRUTH with the modern corrupt Bible revisions!

> Acts 19:32, “Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.”

Kindly, I know Independent Baptist churches (e.g., Harvest Baptist Church on Guam) where multiple plans of salvation exist. 1st Corinthians 14:11, “For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.” Here’s [4]THE UGLY TRUTH ABOUT THE DIFFERENT BIBLE VERSIONS TODAY, WHICH ARE ANYTHING BUT HONEST SCHOLARSHIP. Please don’t become the Devil’s fool. Get you a King James Bible and love it, defend it, cherish it, read it, mediate on it, memorize it, proclaim it, study it, obey it and abide (live) therein!!!!!!!

1.1.95 Does A Christian Have To Believe In Hell? (2020-03-29 03:00)

Revelation 20:14-15, “ And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.”

I was asked a question recently by a web visitor

Is it possible for a born-again Christian to deny the existence of Hell ? Let me answer it this way—I have never met a truly born-again Christian who didn't believe in a literal Hell. I didn't say someone is not saved who denies Hell, I've just never met someone like that. For any religious person to deny the reality of a literal place called " the Bible calls, "ANOTHER SPIRIT" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Something is VERY WRONG with the theological mindset of a person who denies that Hell is a literal place of fire and brimstone, where the unsaved of all time will be punished for eternity without hope.

Hell

Then there are professed Christians like [1]Renee Roland on YouTube, who sincerely admits that she is a sheep,

doesn't know

if Hell exists and she is

still studying

the matter. Renee is not denying Hell, she simply hasn't come along that far yet in her Bible knowledge, and is ignorant of the Word of God, unqualified to teach it. So I don't have any opinion of her, she has openly admitted what she is doing. I do feel however, that until she becomes more learned in the Scriptures, she ought to refrain from making any more YouTube videos, because she is confusing people, in my humble opinion. HELL HAS FIRE!!! I like Renee's fighting spirit, and I am am glad she has read some of my writings online, but I cannot recommend her videos at this time until she settles this matter of eternal punishment.

I highly recommend

Dr. Max D. Younce's very helpful book: " [2]A BIBLICAL EXAMINATION OF HELL " (available free online in .PDF format).

Fewer people nowadays accept the idea of a literal Hell.

National Geographic magazine published an article titled: ’ [3]The Campaign To Eliminate Hell .’ I tell you with all Biblical certainty,

THERE IS A LITERAL PLACE OF FIRE AND BRIMSTONE CALLED “

> Revelation 21:7-8, “ He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.
> But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. ”

I just don’t understand how anyone, especially a professed child of God, could read this plain Scripture, and still doubt if Hell is a literal place of fire and brimstone!!! That is why

I seriously DOUBT any professed Christian’s salvation who boldly denies the reality of Hell, after having been taught the truth from God’s Word. S omething is VERY WRONG with the theological mindset of a professed Christian who denies the reality of a literal place of fire and brimstone called, “HELL”

! What saith the Scripture? ...

> 2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9, “
>
> In flaming fire taking vengeance* on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:
>
> Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;

[4]Pew Research statistics reveal that a shocking one-third (31 %) of all adult professed Christians deny the existence of a burning eternal Hell. Of course, I seriously doubt if many of them are truly born-again Christians. Roman Catholics, Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Seventh-Day Adventist and Church of Christ are NOT Biblical Christians! SDA's and JW's deny the existence of a literal place of Hell, instead teaching the heresy of ANNIHILATION ( i.e., you simply die and don't get resurrected in the future). Their rational is that sending someone to suffer in an eternal prison of fire and brimstone goes against the loving nature of God. Oh, how wrong they are! If God allows suffering, war, trauma, loneliness

, pain, torment and death in this temporal life because of sin, what makes anyone think that He won't in the next eternal realm? Don't be a fool!

Hell Is A Literal Place Of Fire And Brimstone

I am leery of the salvation claim of someone who denies the reality of Hell, because if there is no eternal punishment for sin, then why do we need a Savior? Seventh-Day Adventists, rationalize that it is beyond God's good nature to burn people in a Lake of Fire forever. That is how man FEELS, not what the VOICE of God's Word says. The Rapture, Age of the Earth, Zionism, Storehouse Tithing, Bride of Christ, Replacement Theology—these are all MINOR doctrinal disputes in the church. However, the reality of a burning Hell is a FUNDAMENTAL DOCTRINE. Romans 5:9, "Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him." Annihilation is not wrath! We all deserve to go straight to Hell and burn forever.

Do you know how cults are started? Cults are started when unsaved people study the Bible, without the presence of the Author (i.e., the indwelling Holy Spirit). When a believer studies the Bible, the Holy Spirit teaches us. John 16:13, "Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

" So when I hear someone who professes to be a Christian, but questions if Hell if real, I know they desperately need to be taught Bible doctrine. The Holy Spirit will bear witness with their spirit when taught, that there is a real place of Hell, which burns with fire and brimstone. What saith the Scripture? ...

Matthew 18:8,

Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire. ”

The Bible refers to “EVERLASTING FIRE.” It would be very wrong to say this is only “ symbolic.

” If we start down that path, taking it upon ourselves as the reader to decide what is (or is not)

symbolic,

” then we can literally wrest (twist) the Scripture to mean anything we want it to mean. That is exactly what unsaved people do (2nd Peter 3:16-17). If the Bible says “fire,

it means

“fire.

If the Bible says

“mansions,” it means “mansions.”

In his massively popular, ’The MacArthur Study Bible,’ when Dr. John MacArthur says that “

BY HIS OWN BLOOD

in Hebrews 9:12 really refers to Jesus’

“DEATH,” he is lying and wresting the Bible. “Blood” means “blood”! Jesus entered into the heavenly Holy Place by His own “BLOOD” to make redemption for us! Beware of anyone who spiritualizes the Bible to mean something other than what it plainly reads! When the Bible uses symbology, as in Revelation chapter one, it tells us and explains that “ stars

” mean “angels.” Never read into the Scripture something that is not there, unless you let people know that you are merely speculating.

Hell is a literal place where all Christ-rejecters will spend eternity without hope, rest or relief. This simply cannot refer to soul sleep or annihilation, because the Bible says THEY HAVE NO REST. They are being TORMENTED! ...

Revelation 14:11, “

And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and*they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image*, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

The Bible plainly teaches that God created Hell for THE DEVIL AND HIS ANGELS, not for mankind. This again strongly REFUTES the heresy of Annihilation. If unsaved men simply die, and cease to exist as punishment, then how could this verse make any sense? ...

Matthew 25:41,

“

Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:

Did God prepare being unconscious in the grave (annihilation) for the Devil and fallen angels? No, He prepared a literal place of EVERLASTING FIRE for the Devil and demons, which is where all Christ-rejecting humans will spend eternity as well! Anyone who questions whether Hell is real, and has fire and brimstone, is woefully ignorant of the Word of God. We have an abundance of Scripture passages confirming the reality, horror and awfulness of Hell.

What kind of God burns wicked people in Hell? A good God! What kind of judge puts criminals behind bars? A good judge! Our great and merciful God never sent anyone to Hell who didn’t choose to go there! If you go to Hell someday, you will have no one to blame except yourself. God is a good God, and He freely offers to you an escape from God’s wrath, through the blood of His cross. Colossians 1:20, “And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.”

Ephesians 2:13, “ But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. ”

I cannot even image in my mind, not for a moment, questioning whether I deserve to be punished in a burning Hell forever and ever. I most certainly do, and so do you! How do I know that? Simply because God is absolutely holy, and I am a sinner. No human being can even begin to grasp the righteousness of God. We are all sinners, by both nature and by choice, but God is incapable of sinning! Therefore, committing even one sin is enough to keep us out of the Kingdom of God, and to damn us to the Lake of Fire for all eternity. If you understand this basic Biblical principle, then it becomes clear why we deserve to Go to Hell. Don't make the grave mistake of comparing yourself to other sinful humans; but rather, compare yourself to the righteous God of the inspired Holy Bible.

1.1.96 Seek God's Face Continually (2020-03-29 09:00)

1st Chronicles 16:11, "

Seek the LORD and his strength, seek his face continually.

The Bible speaks of seeking GOD'S FACE. When God is pleased with a man, He turns His face toward him. Genesis 33:10, " And Jacob said, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: for therefore I have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God, and thou wast pleased with me. " Jacob had seen the face of God, because the Lord WAS PLEASED with Jacob. Is the Lord pleased with you friend?

Is God pleased with me?

What saith the Scripture? ...

Psalms 13:1, " How long wilt thou forget me, O LORD? for ever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me? "

Psalms 22:24, " For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; neither hath he hid his face from him; but when he cried unto him, he heard. "

Psalms 51:9, " Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities. "

Psalms 69:17, " And hide not thy face from thy servant; for I am in trouble: hear me speedily. "

Psalms 88:14, " LORD, why castest thou off my soul? why hidest thou thy face from me? "

When we live in willful sin as His children, our heavenly Father turns His face away from us, expressing His disapproval. Isaiah 59:2, " But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear." Living in sin hinders answers to prayer!

1st Peter 3:12, " For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil." Over and over throughout the inspired pages of God's Words, we find mention of

GOD'S FACE.

" Is God's face toward you dear reader?

Deuteronomy 4:29, "But if from thence thou shalt seek the LORD thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thy heart and with all thy soul."

The Lord PROMISES us in His Word that if we seek Him, **"

WE WILL FIND HIM

" ! I love that reassurance from the Lord. God desires to be close to us as His children, as would any loving parent with their child. If we make an effort to SEEK THE LORD, He will run to meet us (as did the father running out to meet the Prodigal Son whom had returned).

Here is one of my favorite musicians, Calvin Yawn on YouTube, playing on the piano...

IN THE GARDEN

James 4:6-11, “

But
he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.” We have God’s solemn PROMISE that if we draw nigh unto Him, then HE WILL draw nigh unto us too! Do you understand dear friend that God wants to be CLOSE to you?

1st Chronicles 16:11, “

Seek the LORD and his strength, seek his face continually.

” Notice that we are to seek “HIS STRENGTH” as well. I need God’s strength each day. This world is a jungle, cruel, woefully lacking in love and moral integrity; but our righteous God will never let us down! God’s PROMISES in the Holy Scripture are 100 % sure, reliable and guaranteed! Humanity will fail you. Family will disappoint you. Friends will let your down. Loved ones will betray you. Neighbors will despise you. What saith the Scripture? Hebrews 13:5, "Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee." The LORD never forsakes His own, no, not ever, no way, ain't gonna happen!!! Seek His face dear reader!

Numbers 6:24-26, "
The LORD bless thee*, and keep thee:
The LORD make his face shine upon thee*, and be gracious unto thee:
The LORD lift up his countenance upon thee*, and give thee peace.

When the Lord is pleased with us, He turns His face toward us, and we have His blessing. As a proud father turns His face in joy toward his earthly children, so also does our Heavenly Father lift His countenance in joy, toward them that obey Him

1.1.97 "You Could Be The Next John R. Rice!" (2020-03-29 20:30)

John 21:20, "Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee? Peter seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do? "

I had the privilege of attending Hyles-Anderson College, which at the time was the greatest Bible college in the world (1985-1993), when Pastor Jack Hyles was still in charge, and they still believed that the King James Bible is 100 % verbally inspired (word for word)! Sadly, since 2008 [1]First Baptist Church Of Hammond (FBCH) has openly denied the verbal inspiration of the King James Bible, to their utter shame! God hasn't changed! The Holy Bible hasn't changed!

One day as I sat in class at HAC (with about two dozen other students), I remember something that the teacher (Brother Mitchell) said to me in front of the class—"You could be the next John R. Rice!" That made me feel good, that somebody believed God could use a nobody like me. However, after class ended, another male student approached me with contempt in the hallway, sarcastically saying: "The next John R. Rice, right!" That hurt my feelings, but the Lord saw that negative and discouraging remark! You know, I would never even consider myself even worthy to shine Dr. Rice's shoes, because he was such a great man of God.

However, due to the power of the internet, God is reaching more people through my humble online labors than Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) could have ever imagined!

Since 2002, my [2]Jesus-is-Savior.com ministry website alone has received 110,407,505 visitors!!! I haven't keep track of my other six ministry websites. I have seven total, to God be the glory! Just like Dr. Rice, God has given me the gift of writing. It is my passion! On many nights I wish I didn't have to sleep, so I could just keep writing 24 hours a day for the Lord! I just wish I had a loyal wife by my side, to help me, while I help the ministry. Maybe someday, God willing!

In my heart I feel like the next John R. Rice. God has given me the [3]same burden and determination that Brother Rice had, to win as many souls to Jesus Christ as I can. Albeit, I am not trying to be the next John R. Rice, I am trying to be David J. Stewart (who God made me). But moreover, I am daily being conformed into the image of Jesus Christ, my great God and Savior (Romans 8:29).

I never stop to see how I'm doing in my ministry, I just stay busy each day laboring for Christ, always moving forward, never looking backward. I don't care what my enemies say, nor do I even know, because I don't go searching for what critics (trolls) say, I have much better things to do with my time. And when a few web visitors tell me such garbage, I always send them this truthful quote by famous author Mark Twain:

"It takes your enemy and your friend, working together, to hurt you to the heart: the one to slander you and the other to get the news to you." —Mark Twain

Whatever accomplishments God has made through me in the past are done. Whatever mistakes I've made along the way are history as far as God is concerned.

What's past is past; I am only concerned about right now, and moving forward for the Lord. Philippians 3:13-14, "Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. " Philippians 1:21, " For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."

I don't know if I'll ever be the next John R. Rice, but I am humbled that somebody thought that of me. It's is not about me, it's ALL ABOUT JESUS! I sure want to be all that God wants me to be.

I like Hyles-Anderson Colleges's present motto:

MAKE AN IMPACT!

" It was said of Christ's disciples in Acts 17:6b, " These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also; " I'd say they were MAKING AN IMPACT! By God's grace, my website ministry has and is making an impact for the cause of Christ! I take no credit or praise for myself, I give it ALL to Jesus. John 15:5, "I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

Humbly, if it weren't for Hyles-Anderson College, my website wouldn't exist today! So if there is any credit to be given—it is to my parents who sacrificed to put me into a Christian Jr. high and high school at our Baptist church, and Pastor Jack Hyles who turned the world upside down with his incredible ministry, and all the fine folks who were at FBCH and HAC when I attended between 1985 and 1993, when I graduated on the 'Dean's List.' I still can't believe I made it to the Dean's List (it only took me 8 years), because my first semester I failed half of my classes, literally! I was a loser, now I'm just a misfit...lol.

I love this Scripture passage:

Philippians 2:13, “

For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

So God not only gives us the desire (to will) to do something for Him, but then He gives us the ability to do it. I love that! Friend, if you are saved, God is assuredly working in your life. I don’t know who, what, where, when or how, but He is I assure you, or else this verse is false. [4]HE’S STILL WORKING ON ME!

1.1.98 God Comforts Us To Comfort Others (2020-03-30 01:30)

2nd Corinthians 7:6, “ Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us... ”

What a precious Bible verse—GOD COMFORTS THOSE WHO ARE CAST DOWN!!! Psalms 34:18, “The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.” I love that PROMISE from God. When we are dejected and cast down in our spirit, God consoles our hurting soul. I have been there more times than I can remember, and for several years now I have been in the dog house of life!

The Precious Indwelling COMFORTER

Thankfully, one of the tasks of the blessed indwelling Holy Spirit is to COMFORT us as believers. John 14:16-18, “

And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. **”

One of the benefits of being saved is the precious COMFORTER!!! He comforts us with the written Word of God, bringing truth to our remembrance. John 14:26, “ But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. ”

God Comforts Us To Comfort Others

2nd Corinthians 1:3-4, “ Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble*, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. ”

Please read this tremendous passage of Scripture a few times.

Wow, did you ever notice that Bible passage before? The Bible literally teaches that God “ COMFORTETH US IN ALL OUR TRIBULATION, ” so that we may be able to comfort others “WHICH ARE IN ANY TROUBLE ” ! I love that!!! No matter what hardship, burden, battle, loss, misery, worry, hurt feelings or tragedy that someone else is facing—GOD COMFORTS US SO THAT WE CAN COMFORT THEM!!! What an awesome God and Savior!!!!!!!

If you survive in constant chronic bodily pain as I do, comfort others who suffer in constant bodily pain. If you are the victim of an unwanted divorce as I am, comfort others who are divorced. If you have lost your home as I did, comfort others who have lost their home. If you are lonely and can’t find companionship as I cannot, comfort others who are lonely without a mate. If you are hurting in your soul with inexplicable emotional pain as I do daily, feeling all alone in your afflictions as I do, comfort others who are hurting in their solitude. I have had all of these painful things happen in my life, and my broken life is still a mess, but God is faithful and I am serving Him faithfully. God is always good!

Bringing Others Comfort Further Comforts Us

> 2nd Corinthians 7:13, “Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed

The apostle Paul told the believers at Corinth, that comforting them brought the apostle and his peers comfort.

Paul was effectively saying to them: “We’re in this thing together!”

There is a great Bible truth to be learned here—we find comfort in our afflictions by comforting OTHERS! Pastor Jack Hyles preached two wonderful sermons called: ’ [1]WASTED SUFFERING

’ (1997) and ’[2]WASTED PAIN’ (1995). Don’t let your suffering go to waste dear reader, use it to honor the Lord Jesus Christ. God can take the broken pieces of your life, and use them for His purpose and glory. One of my absolute favorite sermons by my favorite preacher, Pastor Jack Hyles is called: “

[3]SOME ON BROKEN PIECES

” (MP3). If your life can no longer sail as a ship for God to do His will, then help rescue other people on the broken pieces of your shipwrecked life, by God’s grace!

1.1.99 The Wrath Of Man Worketh Not God's Righteousness (2020-03-30 23:00)

James 1:17-20, " Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath: For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God."

The Bible says MAN'S WRATH is not the FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT...

> James 1:20, "
> For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.
> **"

Always remember that "

ANGER

is just one letter away from

DANGER

! That added

"D" stands for "DEVIL." Ephesians 2:2, "Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others."

The moment we were saved, God's Holy Spirit came to live inside us. God SEALED US with His Spirit. I love that! That sure makes me feel good as a believer, knowing that God wants me, claims me and gave me His Holy Spirit to confirm it and always be with me! I am sooo thankful for the indwelling Holy Spirit!!!!!!! The Lord's Holy Spirit gets GRIEVED when we sin...

Ephesians 4:30-32, " And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

Humans are BY NATURE the CHILDREN OF WRATH! If you don't believe it, just consider all the wars throughout history! Did you know that only [1]8 % of human history has been without a time of war? Some of God's saints has hot tempers. One-third of the Bible was penned by murderers (Moses, David and Paul). The world has nearly always been at war...

The New York Times

Has the world ever been at peace?

Of the past 3,400 years, humans have been entirely at peace for 268 of them, or just 8 percent of recorded history.

How many people have died in war?

At least 108 million people were killed in wars in the twentieth century. Estimates for the total number killed in wars throughout all of human history range from 150 million to 1 billion. War has several other effects on population, including decreasing the birthrate by taking men away from their wives. The reduced birthrate during World War II is estimated to have caused a population deficit of more than 20 million people.

Everyone gets angry. A real man gets upset, but he realizes that there is a place and time to get upset. The Bible teaches us when we get angry NOT TO SIN...

Ephesians 4:25-28, “

Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath*:

Neither give place to the devil.

Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.

Like anything in life, there is a right way and a wrong way to handle a matter. There is always a higher path, and a lower path. For me personally, I am slow oftentimes to intake what is happening around me. My brain doesn't process as fast as others, so as a general rule I stay quite, not saying or doing anything. I will speak up if I feel it necessary, but sometimes I have to think about what just happened, to make sure I am not overreacting. I am a passionate person, which is why I love music so much. I am passionate in my faith, writings and love towards others. Therefore, I am also passionate when I get upset, so I have to be very careful, lest I make a bigger issue of something than I should. Staying quite has worked well for me over the years. I can usually come back and voice my opinion latter.

In fact, that is exactly what the Scripture teaches us to do:

> James 1:19-20, "
>
> Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:
>
> For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.
> **"

What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 18:13, " He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

Proverbs 17:28, "Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding. " It is wise to keep quiet until we know what is going on. I learned two great truths many years ago, which I will share with you now, and if you are wise you will memorize these dear friend:

1. If you don't know what you're talking about, keep your mouth shut!
2. If you do open your mouth, you'd better be able to backup what you're saying!

I have allowed these two guiding principles to control my ministry over the years since 2002.

Be Careful What You Hate

Anger and hatred are inseparable! We get angry over that which we hate. Therefore, it is important that we monitor our HATE LIFE. Yes, every Christian should have a hate life. Hatred is good, if you hate the right things. Proper anger is a tool, which the Lord used to drive the covetous men out of God's Temple (John 2:15). I hate the Coronavirus, because it is killing people, and I love people! I hate sin, because it kills people! The Coronavirus has a mortality rate of about 2 to 3 %, but sin has a 100 % mortality rate. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. "

I hate Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation), because it damns men's souls to Hell forever! I hate the modern corrupt [3]Alexandrian Bible revisions , because they mislead and damn men's souls to Hell. I hate the Devil's ecumenical movement—it makes light of sound Bible doctrine and weakens the churches. We must never accept the sin with the sinner, nor should we ever reject the sinner with the sin. We ought to love everybody with God's unconditional love, through the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

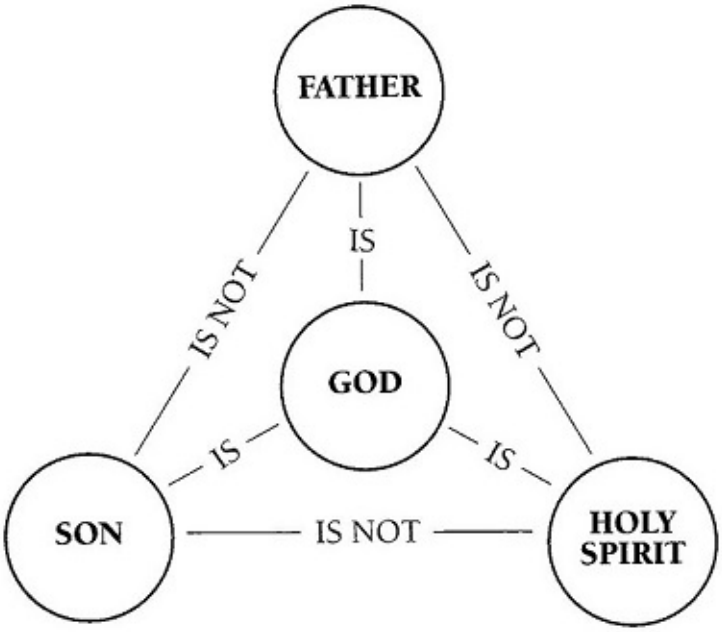
1.1.100 The Blessed Indwelling Holy Spirit (2020-03-31 05:00)



John 14:15-19, " If ye love me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you*.

I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you. Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also."

I love this passage of Scripture and think of it often! The unsaved man (i.e., the unregenerate person) cannot see the Holy Spirit. That is what the Holy Bible plainly says! The unsaved world refers to people who have never been born-again. That is, they have never come to God as a needy sinner, placing their trust in God's only begotten Son, who died on the cross for their sins. The world hates Jesus, because He (through the Word of God) testifies against their evil works (John 7:7).

Who is the Holy Spirit anyway? I'm glad you asked! The Holy Spirit is an individual person, just like God the Father and God the Son are both individual persons. The Bible teaches that there is only one true and living God (Deuteronomy 6:4), but God exists in three unique persons of; namely, God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19-20). Here is a helpful chart that a web visitor shared with me, that I agree with theologically...

Jesus said, “he that hath seen me hath seen the Father” (John 14:9). Jesus said, “I and my Father are one” (John 10:30). Yet, Jesus is not the Father, saying, “my Father is greater than I” (John 14:28). There is a popular heresy today in some churches today called “Modalism,” which teaches that Jesus and God are the same person. Modalism says that God goes into different MODES, fulfilling different roles of Father and Son, but it is the same person.

Modalism teaches that when a believer gets to Heaven, we’ll only see God the Father. What saith the Scripture? Colossians 3:1, “

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. ” Clearly, Jesus sits on the RIGHT-HAND of the Father. Could the Scripture be any plainer? I think not.

The doctrine of the triune nature of God in theology is called the “

Trinity,

but I prefer the word

Godhead,

” because it is found in the Bible in Romans 1:20, Acts 17:29 and Colossians 2:9. Unfortunately, most of the modern Bible revisions corrupt these passage by removing the Godhead, instead referring to the “ divine nature

(which is meaningless). That is exactly what the English Standard Version (ESV) which Bob Jones University promotes and sells says—

divine nature

” in Romans 1:20.

’[2]MEET THE HOLY SPIRIT ’ (a helpful book by Pastor Jack Hyles)

I love the Holy Spirit. When I got saved at age 13, for the first time in my life I felt the VOICE of God in my soul, telling me not to sin. Before I was saved there was only darkness. I used to sass my mother before I was saved. When I got saved, I heard that still small inaudible voice in my soul saying: “David, I don’t want you talking to your mother like that anymore.” For the first time in my life I had a hunger for the things of God, and I thirsted for the milk of the Word each night before I went to bed. In the months that followed getting saved, I remember my mother saying to me one evening: “YOU’VE CHANGED!” Well of course I did, I had the Holy Spirit living inside me now, and He was working on me. You see, that’s how salvation works—you don’t give up your sins to be saved, nor to evidence that you are saved, but the Holy Spirit begins to work in your life when you get saved. I still had sins in my life, but I felt bad about them, and God’s Holy Spirit convicted me for those sins. As Christians, we SHOULD live for Christ; not MUST (that is works); not WILL (that is Lordship Salvation). God saves you, and then the Holy Spirit changes you!!!

The blessed Holy Spirit does all of the following in the life of every believer:

- Comforts us (John 14:18)

- Teaches and reminds us (John 14:26)
- Guides us into truth (John 16:13)
- Seals us (Ephesians 1:13)
- Gives us eternal life (Romans 8:10-11)
- Reproves ours sin (John 16:8)
- Intercedes for us when we pray (Romans 8:26)
- Empowers us (Acts 1:8)
- Helps us (John 14:26)
- Gives us spiritual gifts (1st Corinthians 12:7-11)
- Sanctifies us (Galatians 5:16-26)
- Fellowships with us (Philippians 2:1)

Now if you are not a born-again child of God, you don't see or know the Holy Spirit (John 14:16). I thank God for the awesome Holy Spirit!

1.1.101 Difficult Times Don't Mean God Is Not Blessing You (2020-03-31 11:30)

Deuteronomy 8:2-4, "

And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no. And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live. Thy raiment waxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell, these forty years."

The Hebrews had been enslaved in Egypt for 430 years. Exodus 12:40, "Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was four hundred and thirty years." But wait, the Bible says 400 years in Acts 7:6, "

And God spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years. " Did God make a mistake? Is the Bible untrue? Is this a blatant contradiction? Oh my, lions and tigers and bears, Oh my!!! Ah ha, don't drool you atheist scoundrel, I have an answer to put down your infidel skepticism! Carefully notice that Exodus 12:40 says the children of Israel "DWELT" in Egypt for 430 years; but in Acts 7:6 the Bible says suffered "

EVIL

" for 400 years! The Jews enjoyed 30 years of prosperity while Joseph was still alive, but when he died and went to Heaven, the Egyptians afflicted the Hebrews with evil for the next 400 years!

Four hundred years came and went. In the Old Testament, we find the phrase: "IT CAME TO PASS" mentioned times! We find the phrase: "IT SHALL COME TO PASS" mentioned 116 times in the Old Testament.

My Christian friend—whatever problems, burdens, health woes, losses, worries and struggles you have in your life today

—IT SHALL COME TO PASS!!! God can use all things to bring glory to Himself!!! The Lord could not heal a blind man in John 9:5, unless God had made a blind man! Did you know that God makes deaf, dumb and blind people? It is true! Exodus 4:11,

"And the LORD said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD?" Humanity tends to look down on disabled people as if there is something WRONG with them, but God makes some people disabled, so that God can be GLORIFIED!!!

From The Frypan Into The Fire

The children of Israel were so happy! It had been 400 long years of cruel bondage in slavery to the Egyptians. Finally, God had raised up a deliverer, Moses! They got to the Red Sea and were overcome with FEAR. Oh no, the Coronavirus is going to overtake us! What shall we do? [1]OUR GREAT OMNIPOTENT GOD DELIVERED THEM!!! Here they went, across the Red Sea on dry ground, being rescued by a divine supernatural miracle of God. Can you imagine? The Hebrews were so happy, rejoicing over the new found liberty and freedom. But things didn't go as they planned. Life is what happens to you when you're making big plans!!!

So we learn that just because things aren't going the way we want, doesn't mean God is not blessing us. Whether or not things are going well in your life is absolutely no indication if God is pleased with you or not. Even our beloved Savior suffered while here on earth. Isaiah 53:3-4, "He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted."

I sometimes wonder if the Lord Himself was the man who was beaten and left for dead, and a Good Samaritan came along and helped Him. A lot of people hated the Lord. The Bible says Jesus was tempted in all ways (Hebrews 4:15), so He must know what it feels like to be robbed, mugged and left for dead. I am not saying this is what happened, but I simply consider the possibility

. Perhaps Jesus was the Good Samaritan Himself. We simply don't know.

But I do know that—A FAITH MUST BE TESTED! God tests all His children, to see if we will keep His commandments in hard times of adversity. There are not some believers who get a free pass, and others have to struggle or suffer. God is not an absent parent (Hebrews 12:6-8). Granted, some believers are called into a ministry of suffering, as I believe I have been, suffering more than our share of hardships, burdens and afflictions in life; but that simply means God has chosen me to use in more mighty way, which requires that He humble and break me more. God is always good!!!

God Wants You To Have Problems

Our text passage of Scripture says in

Deuteronomy

8:2-4 that God caused them hardships! The Lord sent them from bondage in Egypt to bondage is the desert! There were scorpions and snakes, a lack of food and water, intense heat from the burning sun, and no more leaks (onions), cucumbers, melons, fish and goodies that they had previously enjoyed in Egypt. Numbers 11:5-6, " We remember the fish, which we did eat in Egypt freely; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlick: But now our soul is dried away: there is nothing at all, beside this manna, before our eyes." You could say they had leaped from the frying pan into the fire!

GOD DID THAT TO THEM! That's the lesson I want you to learn my friend...

> And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no. And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live. Thy raiment waxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell, these forty years."

God provided for them for the next 40 YEARS, but He never gave them a satisfied life, to teach them that man shall not live BY PHYSICAL FOOD ALONE, but by EVERY WORD THAT PROCEEDETH OUT OF THE MOUTH OF GOD! Boy I love that truth! God let's problems, difficulties and adversities happen in our life; to HUMBLE US; to teach us that we need more than eating at Taco Bell to survive, we also need the inspired Word of God!!! By the way, I always get 5 Taco's Supreme and one ground beef Taco Salad (and I eat it all)! That's like 15,000 calories...lol!

There is a God! Listen friend, God didn’t put us here to stuff our face and enjoy life (although He wants us to enjoy life), God put us here to OBEY HIM! Ecclesiastes 12:13, “ Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

We Must Have An “EVERY WORD” Bible Today To Live

And may I say, God plainly emphasized that He tests us so that we will learn to live by

“

EVERY WORD

” that comes from His mouth. Notice that it doesn’t say by every

THOUGHT,

nor does it say by every

“

of the Bible; but rather, it says by

“

! Oh dear friend,

THAT’S INSPIRATION!!!

When some horrible Bible professor or preacher says that the King James Bible is NOT inspired, he is denying that we have an

” Bible today!!! Denying the verbal inspiration of the Word of God is wickedness!

Ironically, Bob Jones University (BJU) today strongly denies the inspiration of the King James Bible. Instead, they claim that only the original Hebrew, Chaldean and Greek autographs of the Bible were inspired, which no longer exist. Yet, their very own founder, Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968), who started BJU in 1927, proclaimed the inspiration of the King James Bible...

Apostasy has overtaken BJU and they are doing major damage to the cause of Jesus Christ today, by shaking the faith of young people in the verbally inspired Word of God! I love the folks at Bob Jones University in the Lord, but God will deal with them for dishonoring the Savior with [2]corrupt Bible revisions that attack His deity. If we are TO LIVE for God today, then we absolutely need an EVERY WORD Bible!!! I believe we have that inspired Holy Book in the King James Bible!!!

> “Remember, you don’t know the Bible, until the Bible controls your life. You can memorize every verse in the Bible and not know the Bible, until the Bible controls you, and permeates your thinking. 1.1.102 Jesus Died On The Cross For 'EVERY MAN' (2020-03-31 21:38)

Hebrews 2:9, "But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man."

The Calvinist doctrine of 'Limited Atonement' is a LIE of the Devil. This Satanic heresy has crept into many churches. The Word of God plainly teaches that Jesus died on the cross to pay for the sins of "EVERY MAN." Men must not follow their own human rational and FEELING; but rather, follow the VOICE of the inspired Scripture! Hebrews 2:9b, "that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man."

It is difficult for me to accept the fact that London's mightiest Baptist preacher, Charles Haddon Spurgeon (1834-1892), taught the heresy of Limited Atonement (also called:

"Definite Atonement" or "Particular Atonement."

Pastor

Spurgeon unequivocally rejected the theological truth that Christ DIED FOR THE UNSAVED DAMNED IN HELL...

> "We do not believe that Christ made any effectual atonement for those who are forever damned; we dare not think that the blood of Christ was ever shed with the intention of saving those whom God foreknew never could be saved, and some of whom were even in Hell when Christ, according to some men's account, died to save them."
> —Pastor Charles Spurgeon, 'Particular Redemption'; 'Sermons' - Volume 4, sermon #181 (1858) [emphasis added]

What saith the Scripture? 2nd Peter 2:1, "But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

" This is a truly amazing passage of Scripture! The Bible says that Jesus BOUGHT THEM! Bought who? Christ bought false prophets WHO DENY HIM!!! That is what the inspired Word of God says —EVEN DENYING THE LORD THAT BOUGHT THEM!!!

Shame on Mr. Spurgeon for denying a fundamental teaching in God's Word, that Jesus Christ died on the cross 'FOR EVERY MAN.'

That is why people will be weeping and wailing and gnashing their teeth in Hell—not just from the pain of their torment—but because they could have enjoyed all the splendors of Heaven FOR FREE, just for the taking, but they rejected it by rejecting the dear Savior! Luke 13:28, " There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out."

> "If we could ever hate the sin in ourselves as much as we hate the sin in others, we might have some idea what His Book is all about." —Pastor Jack Hyles (a quote from page 322 of the awesome biography of Dr. Hyles titled, "The Fundamental Man")

1.1.103 Most "Free" Things Are Not Really Free (2020-03-31 23:00)

Romans 6:23, " For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

I've lived long enough to know that most of the time when people offer you something "FOR FREE," it comes at a cost at some point. A perfect example of this is all the very familiar so-called "free" software programs offered online, that come with a bunch of annoying pop-up advertisements, spyware, browser add-ons and additional software that we didn't ask for, all trying to sell you something. None of these programs are truly

FREE!

> “Salvation can only be evidenced by works, if works are required to be saved.” — Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, “ [1]Why Lordship Salvation Is Wrong! ”

I have often seen banks and other businesses offer new customers a “FREE GIFT” if they sign-up, open an account or buy something. How is that free? If you have to commit to buying something, or commit to a one-year contract, then it is really a reward, not a gift!

Our text Bible verse says in Romans 6:23b, “ the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.” Oh, how important is this beautiful word—GIFT!!!

When I hear a Calvinist teaching that a saved person WILL persevere in good works, and WILL turn away from their sins, OR ELSE (they say) THIS PERSON IS NOT SAVED; then I know they do not fully understand the depth of God’s grace and the free gift of God! Salvation is free without obligation. In fact, a person can get saved, and yet still choose to continue living in willful sin, and not be at risk of losing eternal life. That is how a gift works! The recipient is not obligated to live a certain way because they received it.

The Bible Even Calls Eternal Life A “Free Gift”

Please notice in the following Scripture passage, that the word “

is mentioned 6 times...

Romans 5:15-18, "

But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many. And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)

Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life."

What a beautiful doctrinally rich passage of Scripture!

Notice that the Bible specifically m entions the "GIFT BY GRACE" and the "GIFT OF RIGHTEOUSNESS." What awesome phrases! God's gift is provided by His GRACE. I like an acronym which is often used for G.R.A.C.E. (God's Riches At Christ's Expense). JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! Christ paid our debt of sins. The price was His precious blood. ...

1st Peter 1:18-21, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God."

I love that phrase—"

WHO BY HIM DO BELIEVE IN GOD

!!! John 14:6,

“Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.” The Holy Bible is very clear in this matter, that if you want to come to God the Father, you MUST absolutely come by way of faith in God the Son!!!

God offers to each and every human being the FREE GIFT of eternal life, through faith in the ’GOOD NEWS’ of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Unlike most things today, which are falsely advertised as “ free,

but come with a catch; God said what He meant, and meant what He said. John 14:2b,

“if it were not so, I would have told you.”

Our God is faithful!

Pastor Harry Ironside Was Not A Calvinist

Read what Dr. Harry Ironside (1876-1951) said in his Gospel tract: “

ANOTHER GOSPEL?

...

> “When anyone comes promising salvation to those ‘who make full surrender’ of all that they have to God, and who ’pay the price of full salvation’ he is preaching another gospel, for the price was paid on Calvary’s cross and the work that saves is finished. It was Christ Jesus who made the full surrender when He yielded His life on Calvary that saves us, not our surrender in any way to Him.” —Pastor
>
> Harry A. Ironside, from the Gospel tract,

“ [2]Another Gospel .

Amen and amen! I thank God for Pastor Ironside. In recent decades, Moody Bible Institute in Chicago has lied about Dr. Ironside, claiming that he transitioned in his latter ministry toward a moderate Calvinist position, [3]which is totally untrue. I tell you, [4]Pastor Harry Ironside was NOT a Calvinist! Just because he used some familiar Calvinist terms to explain his theology doesn’t make him a Calvinist. Brother Ironside plainly stated that he believed in the Perseverance of The Holy Spirit in a believer, which is 100 % Biblical. In other words: Once saved, always saved. Once the Holy Spirit indwells a saint, they cannot lose the new birth! Dr. Ironside DIDN’T believe in the false doctrine of the Perseverance Of The Saints.

[5]Calvinism in all its tenets (a religious doctrine taught without proof) is of the Devil. John Calvin (1509-1564) was a horrible man, who murdered 58 people for disagreeing with his junk theology. Despite the heretical teaching of Mr. Calvin that salvation WILL produce a changed life (aka, the Perseverance Of The Saints), John Calvin never changed himself! What irony! Calvinism has been repackaged today, commonly known as “

Lordship Salvation.

” As we have just seen in the Scripture for our self, salvation is the FREE GIFT of God. It is God’s GIFT OF RIGHTEOUSNESS!!! Philippians 3:9, “And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

I have already received that wonderful GIFT of righteousness through faith in Jesus Christ. How about you dear friend?

Simply come to God as a needy sinner, acknowledging that you have broken His Commandments

. Simply by faith receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He is bodily risen from the dead, and you are saved! You have God’s PROMISE of it! Romans 10:13,

“For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” The word “CALL” here doesn’t mean to pray, it means to RELY upon the Lord to be saved. It means to put your TRUST in Him. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

1.2.1 We Believe In The Inspiration Of The Bible (2020-04-01 00:58)

2nd Timothy 3:16-17,

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.

I am alarmed today how many professed Independent Fundamental Baptists deny the VERBAL INSPIRATION of the King James Bible! It is sad and tragic. I rejoice every time I read or hear a man of God proclaim the INSPIRATION of the King James Bible. Here are some such notable men, to name but a few:

> “We believe in the inspiration of the Bible.” —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., “Comments On Here And hereafter,” page 103; Bob Jones University Press Inc., 1942

“Whether in sunshine or rain, it will help us to have these inspired words before us: HAVE FAITH IN GOD.” —Pastor Lee Roberson, a quote from the sermon: “ [1]Have Faith In God.”

“The only inspired Words of God are in the King James Bible!” —Dr. Jack Hyles, an awesome quote from the sermon, “[2]THE REAL BATTLE!”

“Every word in this Bible is inspired by God almighty!” —Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the sermon, “[3]A Friend At Midnight”

“What He at first inspired, the Lord God has now preserved. Therefore, when I hold the King James Bible in my hand, I hold the inspired text. It was inspired and now that inspired Word has been protected, preserved and provided for us!” —Dr. Shelton Smith,

“ [4]What Is That Book You Hold In Your Hand? ”

“God’s ’Words’ are inspired, not just the ’Word’ (Ezekiel 2:7 and 3:4 ’words’; Isaiah 51:6 ’words’).” —Pastor Al Lacy, quote from the ’[5]King James Bible Seminar’ at Hyles-Anderson College, summer 1993

God promised in Psalms 12:6-7 to “PRESERVE” His **“

PURE WORDS

” from that generation forever. Psalms 12:6-7, “

The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.” Unfortunately, [6]all of the modern Bible revisions corrupt this passage , completely removing God’s promise, changing it to God protects His saints instead of His Words. Dear friend, inspiration without preservation is meaningless; but equally so, inspiration without preservation is also meaningless!

Beware Of Subtle Deceptions Today Denying Bible Inspiration

I am sick and tired of cowardly pastors who won’t stand for the inspiration of the King James Bible. Respectfully, case in point is Pastor Todd Lasseter of the Trinity Baptist Church in Arlington, Texas. In their church’s [7]Statement of Faith, they state:

1. The Scriptures

> That the Holy Bible was divinely inspired by God and given to man as the only complete and final revelation of the will of God to man. By the "Holy Bible," we mean that collection of sixty-six books (Genesis to Revelation) of the Old and New Testaments, which we believe is the very Word of God. Because inspiration without preservation would be meaningless*, and the original manuscripts of the Bible are no longer in existence, God has supernaturally and providentially preserved His Word, without error, for us today in the AV 1611 (King James Version) of the Bible. We believe that this preserved Bible is the final authority for us in all matters of faith, doctrine, and practice. Finally, we believe that Christians should not only believe the Book, but also do what it commands and teaches. —[8]Trinity Baptist Church [emphasis added]

To say “WAS”

IS

”! Pastor Lasseter has echoed Pastor Jack Schaap’s position on the Bible. They just won’t say it! They just won’t confess that ’THE KING JAMES BIBLE IS INSPIRED’!!! First Baptist Church Of Hammond has the SAME problem, and consequently Hyles-Anderson College (which they own and control). I am so sick of this rhetoric that comes 99 %, but falls short, of declaring that we have an inspired Bible today!!!

> “I’m tired of colleges and universities advertising that they use the King James Bible. Tell the whole story! Tell everyone that you do not believe that it is inspired word for word.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “The Need for an Every-Word Bible,” page 54

Kindly, Dr. Schaap wrote this compelling article in the 2009 edition of ’[9]THE VOICE,’ which contains some really great information, but to anyone who understands the entirety of the issue, Brother Schaap was trying to do damage control, claiming that dozens of Bible colleges and religious groups were in doctrinal AGREEMENT with his errant position on the Bible. Up until Pastor Schaap stunned the fundamental work at Pastor’s School in 2008, in which he publicly denied the inspiration of the King James Bible, most Christians had never questioned the inspiration of the King James Bible. We’ve been forced to choose sides in the debate, which is actually a good thing I think, [10]solidifying our belief in an inspired Bible!

> “The biggest split that has ever come will come in the next ten years, if not sooner, over the King James Bible - and it couldn’t come soon enough for me. I’m tired of colleges and universities advertising that they ’use’ the King James Bible - tell the whole story! Tell everyone that you do not believe that it is inspired word for word.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, from the Wednesday night Bible study titled, “Revelation to Illumination” (1998)

Kindly said, Jack Schaap is very deceitful when he claims to believe that the Bible is inspired, because he in fact DOESN’T believe that the King James Bible is in itself inspired. Don’t take my word for it, read what [11]Dr. Russell Anderson (dear co-founder of Hyles-Anderson College said [12]in 2009 and again [13]in 2015 in an open letter to both Pastor Jack Schaap and Pastor John Wilkerson, pleading with them to return Hyles-Anderson College (HAC) to their former position that the King James Bible is the verbally-inspired Word of God.

As much as many biased fundamentalist Christians today will attempt to downplay and whitewash the issue, to protect their own, the fact of the matter is that YOU WILL NEVER HEAR ANYONE AT FBCH OR HAC SAY FROM A PULPIT THAT THE KING JAMES BIBLE IS INSPIRED BY GOD. They'll say the Bible is the inspired Word of God, to hide their true agenda, but when all is said and done, they DON'T believe that the King James Bible is inspired by God. What they DO believe is that ONLY THE ORIGINAL AUTOGRAPHS were inspired as God, as He breathed out those Words to holy men of old.

What's the big deal you say? Let's hear Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) answer that question, refuting Dr. Stewart Custer and Bob Jones University...

The Shameful Legacy of Dr. Stewart Custer At BJU

I agree with the following preaching by Brother Hyles, regarding the apostasy at Bob Jones University, and the shameful legacy of [14]Dr. Stewart Custer (1931-2017), who for 47 years indoctrinated BJU students that we don't have a perfect Holy Bible today...

> "Oh what does it mean! Brother Hyles, so what—a preacher boy goes down to Bob Jones University, and he sits in Dr. Custer's class, and Dr. Custer says we have no perfect Bible—what difference does it make? It makes all the difference in the world! And what you'd better do is take this Book, rather than some institution to which you subscribe your loyalty—what you better do is you better stop and realize that if you don't have a perfect English Bible, we cannot live, because man cannot live alone, > but by every Word which proceedeth out of the mouth of the Father. Every Word up there has to get to us!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from my 4:19 hour YouTube video titled: '[15]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES.'

A shameful intern pastor on Guam from Pensacola Christian College (PCC) called me "OBSESSED" over the Bible debate. I make no apologies for that label, and I wear it with honor! If being CONSUMED WITH ZEAL because my enemies (including the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam) have forgotten the inspiration of God's Word, then so be it! ...

> Psalms 119:139-142, "My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words. Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it. I am small and despised: yet do not I forget thy precepts. Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the truth."

God didn't author 900 Bibles (the number of English revisions according to the American Bible Society), nor for that matter did He author even TWO; God just wrote ONE BOOK!!!

> "Students of Hyles-Anderson College, do not give your loyalty to Hyles-Anderson College. You give your loyalty to what we stand for today, and if tomorrow we don't stand for it, you withdraw your loyalty—loyalty to principle, loyalty to right, loyalty to character, loyalty to integrity, loyalty to conviction, loyalty to truth; not loyalty to institutions." —Dr. Jack Hyles, from the sermon titled, "[16]Filled With All The Fullness Of God."

These cowardly professors and administrators in Bible colleges today, and cowardly fundamental Baptist church pastors, don't want to stick their necks out; so they say they believe that the Bible is inspired, preserved and perfect; but THEY WILL NOT actually say that: "

THE KING JAMES BIBLE ITSELF IS VERBALLY INSPIRED!!!

> "I would not give, knowingly, one thin dime to a college that does not believe in the verbal inspiration of this Book I hold tonight." —Pastor Jack Hyles, from the timeless sermon, "[17]YOU MUST GO THROUGH ARABIA"; preached October 11, 1981.

The Words Of God Are Inspired ("IN-SPIRIT")

> John 6:63, "It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life."

I am sick and tired of hearing today's apostate Bible colleges (which are training thousands of apostate church pastors) advertise a "preserved" King James Bible that is not "inspired"! It is woeful apostasy! In the preceding Bible verse, Jesus said that the Words He spoke are "SPIRIT" and "THEY ARE LIFE." That is the difference between the words of a mortal man, versus the inspired Words of almighty God! It is a very big deal! It is a big deal to inspiration-deniers too, which is why they are so adamant to defend their wrong position. To save face and be loyal to their peers in the business of religion, today's ungodly Bible colleges and apostate churches are claiming that God only inspired the "original manuscripts" and then He "supernaturally preserved" those words. That is exactly what Bob Jones University believes and teaches their students...

> "We believe in the verbal, plenary inspiration of the Bible in the original manuscripts, and we believe that God has supernaturally preserved every one of His inspired words for us today. However, from the founder to the present administration, we have never taken the position that there can be only one good translation in the English language." [emphasis added]

SOURCED: http://www.bju.edu/about/what-we-believe/translation.php

That is an impossible statement! Bob Jones University (BJU) sells multiple different Bible versions in their campus bookstore. BJU has a big problem doctrinally, because there are literally HUNDREDS of English Bible versions, and they differ in content DRASTICALLY!!! How can BJU claim to believe that God has "SUPERNATURALLY PRESERVED EVERY ONE OF HIS INSPIRED WORDS IN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE," while at the same time tolerating conflicting English Bible versions that completely contradict each other in words and meaning??? It is utter apostasy! If, as Bob Jones College asserts, God has "supernaturally preserved" His inspired words in multiple modern Bible revisions, then WHICH ONES? Bob Jones makes a bold statement, but then doesn't back it up. You cannot just claim to believe there are more Bibles than the King James Bible, but refuse to specify which ones.

God's Truth Is The Mighty Motivation Behind Soulwinning

Dear friend, I'm about to make a profound statement—TRUTH IS THE MIGHTY MOTIVATION BEHIND SOULWINNING!!! We obey The Great Commission to win souls, by preaching the Gospel of free grace, because we hold that to be THE TRUTH. For example: Calvinists do not go soul-winning, because they hold to the Devil's lie that God chooses who will or won't be saved, so it doesn't matter if we go soul-winning or not!

Another example is [18]Evangelist Ray Comfort has ever led anybody to the Lord. He is a gifted public orator, and definitely reminds me of an old-time street preacher, but he preaches a counterfeit gospel of turning away from your sinful behavior, or else he says you don't qualify for salvation. [19]Watch or [20]Listen for yourself! Mr. Comfort says you must live a lifestyle of repentance, turning away from sinful behavior for the rest of your life. This is a works-based false gospel which cannot produce the new birth by faith alone in Jesus Christ!!!

> Psalms 119:139-142, "My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words. Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it. I am small and despised: yet do not I forget thy precepts. Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the truth ."

So we see that when TRUTH gets corrupted, people cannot be saved! When the Word of God gets translated wrong, [21]falsifying what it means to repent, people cannot be saved anymore. Satan's primary goal has ALWAYS been to corrupt TRUTH. In Genesis 3:1 the serpent corrupted God's truth into a lie, convincing Eve to believe God had forbade her to eat from any of the trees, except one; but God had said the exact opposite in Genesis 2:16-17, that she COULD eat from all the trees, except one! If you are gullible my friend, the Devil will have you all turned around backwards, not knowing which way is up. That is why we are taught to get grounded and settled in the inspired Word of God (Colossians 1:23). That is why I promote [22]several thousand Bible based sermons on my ministry websites, to facilitate that truth! I love you dear reader, God knows my heart, and I want to see CHRIST FORMED IN YOU! Ga:4:19,

My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you,

1.2.2 April 1st Is National Atheist's Day! (2020-04-01 02:00)

Psalms 14:1, "

The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good.

I have a classic book in front of me published in the year 1868, titled "GOD IN HISTORY and GOD IN SCIENCE," authored by London [1]Pastor John Cumming (1807-1881). May I say kindly, there's no such thing as an atheist! Some of the world's wealthiest celebrities have the stench of Hell on them, which is where they are all going, blaspheming the very God Who is kind to them. Luke 6:35b, "...for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil."

Legendary singer Billy Joel is a professed atheist...

> "I gradually decided that just because I didn't have or couldn't find the ultimate answer didn't mean I was going to buy the religious fairytale. As an atheist you have to rationalize things." —Billy Joel

On page 139 of his book, “GOD IN HISTORY and GOD IN SCIENCE,” Pastor John Cumming makes a brilliant observation concerning professed atheists...

> Atheism is folly as much as wickedness. But suffer me, before I show this, to say, that it is absolutely impossible that any man can be an atheist, in the strict sense of that word. All that any can say is this: “No spot that I have searched does reveal a God; every organization I have examined does not show traces of wisdom, goodness, and design:” but that individual cannot say; “There is no God;” because he cannot say, “I have soared to the farthest star, I have descended to the deepest mines, I have swept all space, and searched all time, and in the realms of infinite space I have not detected any traces of a God.” In other words, to be able to say, “There is no God,” you must yourself assume to be God, which is a reductio ad absurdum, an utter and a complete absurdity.

SOURCE: “GOD IN HISTORY and GOD IN SCIENCE,” p. 139; by Rev. John Cumming, D.D.; New York: Published by Carlton & Lanahan; 200 Mulberry-Street; 1868.

What a brilliant observation. How can any man claim to be an atheist unless he has traveled to the farthest place in the universe? The nearest star to the earth (after our own sun) is Alpha Centauri, which is 4.37 light-years away (28,200,000,000,000 miles away!). This is just one star, being the closest to earth besides our own sun, which is 93,000,000,000 miles away. My friend, the Hubble Space Telescope has discovered that there are at least 200,000,000,000 galaxies in the universe. And each of those galaxies contains BILLIONS of stars! It is anticipated that when the James Webb Telescope is launched in 2018 from NASA, that it will discover over ONE TRILLION GALAXIES!!!

The Word of God teaches that God made the stars. I love how Genesis 1:16 is written... “HE MADE THE STARS ALSO.” It’s like the Bible is saying, “Oh, by the way, God also made all the stars!” Genesis 1:16, “And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.” God is amazing, Who knows the exact number of stars that He created, and he calls them each by their own name. Amen! Psalms 147:4, "He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names." I have just briefly discussed the stars.

The world that exists under a microscope is even more amazing, complex and a mystery to mankind. How can anyone reasonably claim to be an atheist when man hasn't even discovered what's in 90 % of the earth's oceans? Pastor John Cumming is so right—For anyone to say, "There is no God!," you must yourself assume to be God! No human being has traveled to the ends of the universe. In fact, no human being has ever even left the Milky Way Solar System. Psalms 145:3, "Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable."

John Cumming was a Scottish minister who was well-known for his anti-Catholic writings and preaching. Amen for that! One of the biggest evidences of apostasy in the United States today is that hardly any professed Christians, evangelicals and clergy criticize the damned Roman Catholic religion. Catholicism teaches sacramental salvation, which is a manmade teaching that goes totally contrary to the inspired Words of God in the Bible. Roman and Russian Orthodox Catholicism are of the Devil. The pope is not the vicar of Heaven, but of Hell. Mary was born by normal conception, did not remain a virgin, and died a sinner's death like all human beings. Only Jesus Christ was born of a virgin and lived a sinless life. Thank God that Pastor John Cumming exposed the Catholic church for what it is, of the Devil.

So on this one joyous occasion each year, on April Fool's Day, let each atheist relish in your willful ignorance. 2nd Peter 3:5a, "For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old..." Singer Billy Joel says: "As an atheist you have to rationalize things." What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 16:25, " There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

1.2.3 Don’t Throw Your Virtue To The Dogs Young Lady (2020-04-01 15:00)

Matthew 7:6,

“

Give not that which is holy unto the dogs*, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

We live in a sexually perverse generation today, especially in the United States! The believer’s body is sacred, the temple of the Holy Spirit (1st Corinthians 3:16-17). Marriage is sacred (Hebrews 13:4). Life is sacred (Leviticus 17:11). The things of God are sacred (1st Corinthians 2:11). 1st Corinthians 11:12, “

For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God.

” A wise and godly young person waits until MARRIAGE before having carnal knowledge!

Also, if it’s not for sale ladies, don’t advertise it. American women are notorious for dressing seductively, lewdly and immodestly in public. A godly man cannot go to any beach in America, lest he see a bunch of naked women (literally, wearing nothing but a tiny string between their buttocks and buttercups for a bra). By every definition in the Word of God, they are completely naked! Consequently, we live in a fornicating society of sinners, who seek abortions as a remedy to their whoring around! Due to the evil influence of Hollywood, America is a very adulterous and immoral culture, provoking the wrath of God (Colossians 3:5-6).

I have known of countless young women throughout my life, who foolishly gave their virtue (virginity) to some dog, just to end up burned, and ultimately have a nervous breakdown because they got spurned by their casual lover. All men are DOGS ladies!

Matthew 7:6,

“

Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

” Your virtue is holy and sacred in the sight of God your Creator! Please don’t cast your body to some dog in heat!

The good news is that YOU DON’T HAVE TO GET BURNED! Simply GET MARRIED FIRST!!! I can guarantee you young lady, that if you open your legs before getting married, THERE IS A 95 %

CHANCE THAT HE WON'T MARRY YOU—he'll dump you down the road for someone else! That is what happens when you don't do things GOD'S WAY!

I knew one young Christian woman who fell in love with a married professional hockey player. She was a virgin and slept with him. That dog had a great time no doubt, giving her ticks and fleas! She was his play thing. Poor little fool! She really believed that this man would leave his wife for her instead, but HE DIDN'T. It was a fling for him, but this young lady fell in love with him. So he dumped her, changing his phone number, avoiding her, and I watched her have a nervous breakdown for a couple years. Her life fell apart and worsened! She went into a deep depression and gained weight. She eventually commit suicide. All so that piece of trash could have a little fun on the side, violating his sacred marriage vow before God! Young lady—marriage is not just the old-fashioned way, it is the right way!!! God instituted marriage for a reason—because it protects the family!

I know of several Christian marriages that fell apart, because the wife was working a secular job, and ran off with some handsome man at work who was being nicer to her than her husband at home (so she thought at the time). As it turned out, those suitors who seduced those women were as much smelly dogs as their imperfect dogs (husband) at home! Ladies, if you are married, the only difference between your dog and the dog next door is they have different flea collars! Men are men, don't delude yourself!

In other words, be content with what you have, because the grass only seems greener at a distance. That's why the Devil took Jesus way up into an exceedingly high mountain. If he could have, Satan would have taken Jesus on a jet ride 50,000 feet above the earth, to show Him out the window how beautiful the world is! Matthew 4:8, " Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; " The Devil didn't want Jesus to see up close—all the hungry children in the streets, all the poverty and homeless beggars along the way, the deaf and blind who were afflicted, the broken marriages and destroyed homes because of booze! The Devil didn't want Jesus to get a close-up look of the suffering and hurting people. Satan always shows people the bright neon lights of Las Vegas ('SIN CITY'), but upon closer inspection you'll be horrified what you find! The Devil only shows you what he wants you to see. You don't want the Devil as your tour guide!

I say in all kindness young lady, that if you let that boy have his way with you before getting LEGALLY MARRIED, you are STUPID and GET WHAT YOU ASKED FOR! I wont say anybody deserves to be used and abandoned, but you certainly asked for it!!! All I am saying in this article is to GET MARRIED FIRST and you cannot get burned. Once legally married, your spouse MUST stand before a judge in a court of law to divorce you, which is a lot harder than just walking out the door!

GET MARRIED!

GET MARRIED!

GET MARRIED!

So I say to you as a born-again believer, and as a fundamentalist Baptist preacher, and as your good friend—

GET MARRIED FIRST! I said get legally married first! I am leery of these shady unofficial marriages today that avoid getting legally married. Folks, you might as well not get married at all then, because in a marriage that is not legal, when the going gets tough your partner can just ride off into the sunset and leave you with nothing!!! Please young lady, don't be a fire-hydrant for some dog!

Remember, the Devil is a beautiful liar! Beware of those starry full moon nights, when the music is playing, and some handsome boy is making his advances toward you. RUN FOR YOUR LIFE YOUNG LADY! There's a loose tiger in the building! Do you want to be in a hospital delivery room, giving birth to some dog's bastard child, because you don't have a lawful husband? If not, then don't let yourself become a victim! Keep your clothes on in the first place. Boys are slick, let me tell you! They'll throw every line in the book your way. You tell him to marry you first, and ONLY THEN, does he get anything. And ladies, don't you even let a boy kiss you until you get married, because kissing leads to petting, which leads to carnal knowledge! So don't even let him kiss you. Just call me old-fashioned, because I GLADLY AM! 1st Corinthians 7:1, "Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman."

If he thinks you're weird, dump that bum and find a real man to marry!!!

Here are some WISE PRINCIPLES for everyone to follow:

1. Never be alone with the opposite sex, for any reason, unless married.

2. Never touch someone of the opposite sex to whom you are not married (except to shake their hand, but I even try to avoid that.)

3. Ladies, never hang on a man to whom you are not married like he is your brother, unless he is actually your biological brother. I saw a staff member at the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam doing that, hanging all over a married man like she was his best buddy. I still wonder if they slept together? 1st Thessalonians 5:22, "Abstain from all appearance of evil." Who cares, right? If they don't care about the accuracy of the Gospel, nor the purity of God's Word, why care about anything?

4. Never be alone together in a car with the opposite sex to whom you are not married (Harvest again needs to work on this)

5. Married ladies, do not accept gifts, poems or anything from any man who is not your husband. (When I had [1]a helpful book to give to the senior pastor's wife at Harvest Baptist Church, I gave the book to her husband to give to her, because he is her authority. When my mother played Gospel hymns on the piano at the Rescue Mission in Chicago, a stranger form the audience gave my Mom a musicbox that he had made for her. My Dad went and gave it back to the man, saying: "She's my wife, not yours, get your own wife!" I love that!).

6. Married couples ought not spend too much time alone with other couples. (Everything starts with relationships. You and your spouse ought to be best buddies in all the world. If not, something is very wrong! Adultery starts with close friendships.)

7. Let everyone know that you are jealous over your mate and love them very much. (Eliminate any and all doubt if anyone is even thinking of taking you away from your spouse, that you love them and are happily married. If you're not, then do nothing and you may lose them someday.)

In this wicked generation today, the Devil's crowd have indoctrinated young people through Hollywood and social media, to think that sex outside of marriage is normal, acceptable and that everybody's doing it. Those are all lies of Satan! Everybody's not selling out to immorality! There are still a lot of chaste, virtuous and honorable young people, and I hope to help some of you STAY THAT WAY until you get married, which is GOD'S WILL FOR YOUR LIFE!!!

If You’ve Already Messed Up

__“

Go And Sin No More”

John 8:10-11,

“When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

Please understand that the intent of my article is to encourage young people, especially Christian young ladies, to protect your honor and chastity. If you’ve messed up, ask God to forgive you as His child. Here are some of my favorite sermons for you, by Pastor Jack Hyles, called: “[2]So You Got Yourself In A Mess” and “[3]It Doesn’t Matter How You Got There.” In another sermon, which I cannot remember right now, Dr. Hyles tells the story about a teen girl who went on an Ocean Cruise with her parents. On the cruise she met an intriguing boy whom she had carnal knowledge with under a moonlit starry sky. She came back from her trip pregnant, having no clue who the boy was. She never saw him again, but she was pregnant with that stranger’s child, which she gave up for adoption! Oh how the Devil is a beautiful liar! Oh how sin thrills and then it kills! Sin fascinates and then it assassinates!

Young lady save yourself for your husband someday! Do you want to give leftovers to the man you choose to marry? Why give your most prized possession, your virtue and virginity, to some dog in heat that doesn’t have the manhood to make a legally-binding lifetime commitment to marry you? If you have carnal knowledge with a male before getting married, you are a fool! I know what I am talking about young lady! Boys will lie and promise to marry you, BUT THEY WON’T!

Why should they, you already gave them the only thing they wanted, your body! That is NOT love!

I get e-mails from many frustrated women, who are living outside of wedlock, and they have a bunch of problems. They complain that the father of their child refuses to marry them. Kindly, I told you so! I always tell them the same thing—NO MORE PHYSICAL INTIMACY UNTIL MARRIED!!! That is 100 % Biblical. Hebrews 13:4, “Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.” A girlfriend DOESN’T have to obey her boyfriend! You are NOT married! One woman wrote several e-mails to me, wanting my Christian advice. I kindly explained to her that she had all the problems of a normal marriage, but no marriage, because she sinned by having physical intimacy before getting legally married. I try not to give advice to web visitors, I give them Biblical principles to help them make their own decisions.

Two wrongs don’t make a right! It is never right to do wrong, in order to get a chance to do right! Wrong is always wrong!!! If you’ve already sinfully “shacked up” (i.e., the sin of fornication) instead of getting married, then you need to stop wallowing in sin like a pig in the mud. You need to discontinue all physical intimacy until legally married. I don’t care if you’ve already gone into sin—it was wrong, and is wrong, and you need to stop committing sin against God. I strongly recommend getting involved with a local, Bible-believing, soulwinning, fundamental Baptist church!

One young woman wrote to me in frustration, because her boyfriend (with whom she has a child) is trying to control her life, and she didn’t know what to do. I told her that until that bum marries her, he has no Biblical right to even comment about ANYTHING in her life. Young males (I hesitate to call them “

men

) nowadays want the privileges of marriage without the responsibilities of marriage, which causes a boatload of problems and brings the judgment of God. Don’t be stupid young ladies, that is my message for you today, please. I want God’s best for you. Save yourself for the man you legally marry!!!

1.2.4 The Dirtiest Four Letter Word Is “SELF” (2020-04-01 17:00)

Isaiah 14:12-14, “How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High.”

Anytime you do your will instead of God’s will, you’re doing the same thing the Devil did—your exalting yourself over God. SELF is the Satan that Satan directs you too! Satan doesn’t want on the throne, he wants SELF on the throne!

The Devil’s not trying to get you to do what he wants you to do, he wants you do do anything that will hinder you from doing what God wants you to do. The Devil has NO PURPOSE for your life, but God DOES have a divine PURPOSE for your life!!! The reason why the Devil wants you to drink liquor is to keep you from doing what God wants you to do. You’re a total failure in life, if you’re not doing what God wants you to do. Listen, everybody who doesn’t do what God has called you do to—you are putting yourself above the Most High. You are your own God!!!

The worst idolater in the world is the Christian believer who does their own thing instead of following God’s will for their life. Satan does not want on the throne of your life, he wants YOU on the throne. The Devil knows it’s going to be a lot easier to get you do do YOUR THING, than HIS THING. And by the way, you have no right to be a preacher because you want to be a preacher! You only have a right to do what GOD WANTS YOU TO DO! It’s not your business, it’s God’s business!!! I love what Brother Lester Roloff used to say—MY PREACHING IS NONE OF MY BUSINESS!!!

1st Corinthians 6:20, “

For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s.

” You have NO RIGHT as God’s child to go where you want, do what you want, and be what you want. The Bible teaches WE ARE BOUGHT WITH A PRICE! That is the precious blood of Jesus Christ!!! The very moment you get saved, your spirit, soul and body now belongs to Jesus!

price

Colossians 3:1-3, “ If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.”

The same is true with salvation for the lost person. Satan wants to get you to do your own thing, instead of resting in Christ’s redemptive work to pay for your sins! That’s what Bible repentance is—it is a change of mind from WRONG THINKING to trusting God’s plan of salvation! To get saved, you need to cease from what you want to do to get to Heaven, and start doing what God says you must do to get to Heaven, which is to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST! Acts 16:30b-31, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

” God’s invitation to receive the free gift of salvation is extended to the whole family!!!

You don’t get saved by cleaning up your life; you get saved by letting God regenerate you by faith alone in the ’GOOD NEWS’ of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Simply trust Christ as your ONLY HOPE for Heaven!!! Simply come to God as a needy sinner and admit that you cannot do it, you need the blessed Savior to save you!

> “If I live for self, I can only live for one; if I live for others, I can live for 3,000,000,000.”

1.2.5 The Book Of God And The God Of The Book (2020-04-01 19:52)

John 14:18, “

I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.

I was thinking today of how wonderful God’s plan for every Christian believer is. God has not only authored a HOLY BOOK to instruct us throughout life, but He has chosen to send His HOLY SPIRIT to live inside us too! So we GET THE BOOK OF GOD, and we also get THE GOD OF THE BOOK! That is so wonderful!!!

I suffer in chronic neck pain every day of my miserably lonely life. My wife divorced me in 2006 and I have lived alone since. I’ve tried to find a wife, but I’ve never met anybody. In my loneliness I have felt like taking my own life on numerous occasions, just to make the pain of soul from loneliness, and the pain of body from my neck injury go away; but I know God’s Holy Spirit indwells me, and He is my friend that sticketh closer than a brother. My faith in God sustains me! Jesus said in Mark 11:22b, “ Have faith in God.

” My ministry has kept me going over the years, giving my a purpose for existing, so I can win more souls to Christ, and help feed God’s sheep as His servant. There but for the grace of God, there go I!

Most people don’t know what it is like to be humbled and broken in life, to lose everything, but I do. I know what it feels like to have everything go wrong in life, and nothing ever returns to normal, with no light at the end of the tunnel. I know the hurt, emotional trauma, and inexplicable pain of soul—from betrayal, divorce, family turmoil, losing my home, poor health, constant chronic neck pain, being alone as a man without a wife. I ordered a book by Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) from Amazon.com titled, “

BROKEN THINGS

: WHY WE SUFFER.

” I want to share with you a wonderful quote by Dr. DeHaan from page 59:

> “The greatest sermons I have ever heard were not preached from pulpits but from sickbeds. The greatest, deepest truths of God’s Word have often been revealed, not by those who preached as a result of their seminary preparation and education, but by those humble souls who have gone through the seminary of affliction and have learned experientially the deep things of the ways of God

> The most cheerful people I have met, with few exceptions, have been those who had the least sunshine and the most pain and suffering in their lives. The most grateful people I have met were not those who traveled a pathway of roses all their lives through, but those who were confined, because of circumstances, to their homes—often to their beds. They had learned to depend upon God as only such Christians know how to do." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan,
>
>
>
> : WHY WE SUFFER,
> " page 59; Barbour Publishing, Inc., 1948

I sure am glad I read that! My neck pain has taken away my social life, leaving me alone, and without a wife. Pastor DeHaan goes on to explain the flip-side of the equation, concerning complainers...

> "The 'gripers' on the other hand, are usually those who enjoy excellent health. The complainers are those who have the least to complain about. But those dear saints of God who have refreshed my heart again and again and again as they preached from sickbed-pulpits have been the men and women who have been the most cheerful and the most graceful for the blessings of almighty God.

> The Bible tells us distinctly that there is a special reward and a special crown which the Lord has prepared and laid up for those who suffer patiently. This principle is suggested by the incident recorded in I Samuel 30.

David, along with 400 strong, healthy men, had gone out to seek the enemy. Two hundreds, however, had remained behind because they were weary and faint, probably because of some physical infirmity. These David had left behind to guard the camp and the equipment of those who went into the heat of the battle. After the victory had been won, the four hundred who had been active participants in the battle refused to share with those who had remained behind and said, 'We'll give them just a little bit, but we're going to take the spoils.

At this point, David stated the eternal principle in the words of 1 Samuel 30:24, 'As his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be that tarrieth by the stuff: they shall part alike.'

Those of you who remain by the stuff are not overlooked or forgotten by God: there is a very definite and special reward laid up for God's patient sufferers.

If you, child of God, are upon a bed of illness, if you are being troubled by pain or discouragement, remember that God will always use our suffering for His purposes. Our suffering silences Satan, our suffering enables us to glorify God, our suffering makes us more like Christ, our suffering makes us appreciative, and, ultimately, our suffering teaches us to depend on God.

" —Pastor M.R. DeHaan,

BROKEN THINGS

: WHY WE SUFFER,

" page 60; Barbour Publishing, Inc., 1948

That is so encouraging and wonderful. That is what I have been doing all these many painful, miserable and lonely years in solitude—STAYING BY THE STUFF! I am not a great man, but I have been in the presence of great men; and moreover, I have a GREAT AND GLORIOUS SAVIOR! I am not an eloquent orator, but God has given me a desire and passion to write my heart out for Jesus Christ! I am a misfit around people, feeling out of place; but God is using me to reach tens of thousands of people in cyberspace with THE TRUTH! My WEAKNESS is the Lord's STRENGTH. 2nd Corinthians 12:9, " And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me." May I be WEAK ENOUGH for God to make use of!!!

1.2.6 How To Get Close To God (2020-04-02 03:00)

John 5:39-40, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

I receive not honour from men."

Dear friend, you will be as close to God as you are to His Holy Word! There are no exceptions. The only resource that we have to learn about God and our great Savior is the inspired King James Bible! What saith our Scripture passage—SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!!! Through the Scriptures we think (i.e., have confidence) we have eternal life. The Scripture testifies of Jesus Christ! We know we're saved as believers, because of the PROMISES contained in the written inspired Word of God. 1st Corinthians 2:16, " For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ." To have we need a Biblical mindset!

THE MIND OF CHRIST,

If you want to get close to God friend, then you must delight in the WORD OF GOD day and night, as did the psalmist David, the man after God's own heart...

> Psalms 1:1-6, "
>
> Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.
>
> But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night*.
>
> And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.
>
> The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.
>
> Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
>
> For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.
> **"

David loved the Word of God, an he didn't even have the complete Bible. All David had was the Pentateuch (the first five books of the Old Testament written by Moses). Today, with the complete Old Testament and added New Testament, we are able to obtain a much richer and fuller understanding of the things of God, sound doctrine and Bible prophecy. Psalms 119:104, "

Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.

But to get close to God we must not only abide in the Scripture, but take heed to it in obedience, walking with God in our heart...

> "Remember, you don't know the Bible, until the Bible controls your life. You can memorize every verse in the Bible and not know the Bible, until the Bible controls you, and permeates your thinking. You can know a lot of things about God, but until you walk with God and live with God, and abide in the Lord, then you don't know THE LORD intimately like you should." —Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold, "[1]They Loved The Praise Of Men More Than The Praise Of God

The dearest thing to the heart of God is soulwinning, leading others to Christ by preaching ’[2]THE GOSPEL.’ No Christian is truly close to God who neglects winning souls. Luke 8:15, “But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

” Notice that a requirement to winning souls is to

KEEP GOD’S WORD.

” Psalms 126:6, “ He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.” Every Christian should have a LEAKY SEED BASKET, sharing the ’[3]GOOD NEWS’ of Jesus Christ wherever we go!

We Learn About Jesus Working With Him For Souls

You’ll never learn more about a person than when you work with them. Jesus invites us into His yoke, to labor for the souls of men with Him. Matthew 11:29-30, “

Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

” The Bible calls us

“ labourers together with God ” (1st Corinthians 3:9b). Proverbs 11:30, “The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise. ” If you desire to get close to God, just start sharing the Gospel of His only begotten Son with the lost, and you’ll learn the Scripture; it will open up to you!

The psalmist encourages us that if we OBEY GOD as believers, we will have a good understanding of the Scriptures. Psalms 111:10, “The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever." David said that he understood more than those who went before him, because he KEPT GOD'S PRECEPTS. Psalms 119:100, "I understand more than the ancients, because I keep thy precepts." If you want to GET CLOSE TO GOD dear friend, then obey God. There is no wisdom apart from the inspired Word of God. Psalms 119:104, "Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way."

The World Is God's Enemy

The way to get close to God is to take a keen interest in the things that God loves; namely, truth, love, righteousness, praise, helping others and soulwinning.

James 4:8-9, " Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness." The entire chapter of James chapter 4 is all about how to get close to God. The world is the enemy of God, so the first thing you must do if you want to be close to God is separate from the world (James 4:1-4). The Lord PROMISES to draw near to us, if we'll draw near to Him.

The Bible teaches us to humble ourselves in the sight of God, and He will lift us up (vs. 6-7). We are told to draw near to God with a heavy heart, weeping and mourning over sin and lost souls (vs. 8-10). God's great heart is grieved over sin and lost souls. When we enter into the yoke with Christ, sharing His burden for the souls of lost men, then we will better understand the broken heart of God.

We are taught not to judge or speak evil of one another, because God is the only Judge (vs. 11-12). We are taught never to make future plans without including God. We should always say, "Lord willing" when speaking of the future (vs. 13-17).

Carefully notice the next verse after John 5:39—after Jesus commands us to “SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES”—He says: “YE WILL NOT COME TO ME, THAT YE MIGHT HAVE ETERNAL LIFE.

!!! In other words, we honor the Son by searching the Scriptures, so that we can learn about Him, and believe on His name (John 6:40). If you want to get close to God, then you MUST honor the Son of God!

John 5:22-23, “ For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son: That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.” Oh dear reader, HONOR THE ONLY BEGOTTEN SON OF GOD, and the Father will draw near to you!!! “... I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy” (Revelation 19:10b).

“Living by faith is believing that God knows what is best for me.” —Dr. Jack Hyles

1.2.7 New Bible Versions Teach False Meaning of Repentance (2020-04-02 04:23)

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Mark 1:15, “And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.”

The Biblical plan of salvation is simply that we are all guilty needy sinners, but Christ paid our debt of sin, and if we BELIEVE the Good News that Jesus died on the cross for our sins, was buried and bodily resurrected the third day, we are saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). In sharp contrast, the Devil has infiltrated evangelical churches with counterfeit Bible versions, which change the Scripture to teach that is a change of lifestyle instead of a change of mind .

Here is a classic example of what I am telling you.

The Greek word for “repent” in Mark 1:15 in the King James Bible is metanoeo, which means, “to think differently.” It is a change of mind. It DOESN’T mean to “change your hearts and lives,” which is what the corrupt ERV says!!! . . .

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Mark 1:15, “And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye , and believe the gospel.” [emphasis added]

> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — Mark 1:15, “He said, “The right time is now here. God’s kingdom is very near. Change your hearts and lives , and believe the Good News!” [emphasis added]

That is wrong, wrong, wrong! You don’t have to change your own life as a requirement to be saved. Rather, it is the indwelling Holy Spirit that comes into a person at the time of salvation that changes one’s heart and life, over time as they grow in grace by nurturing on the milk of the Word (1st Peter 2:2). Anyone who tells you that you must change your ways, habits or sinful lifestyle to be saved is a BIG LIAR! Eternal life is a gift (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). A gift can simply be received, not achieved.

True Biblical repentance is acknowledging one’s SINNERSHIP! Here is the best quote that I’ve found on repentance, by Dr. Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951):

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ('[1]Except Ye Repent,' p. 16)

In sharp contrast to this truth, today's satanic Bible versions all change and pervert what it means to "repent." The new Bible versions all errantly teach that repentance means "turning away from sins" to be saved. As we read in Mark 1:15 in the satanic Easy-To-Read Version (ERV), you have to change your own life and heart to be saved. This is not the Gospel. The modern Bible versions are filthy trash. The world is getting worse and worse, and the multitude of new Bible versions are part of Satan's deception of the churches. Revelation 12:9b, "Satan, which deceiveth the whole world..."

What is alarming is that [2]the King James Bible is slowly being phased out, which is literally the last bastion of theological truth in the churches today! When the King James Bible is gone, all that will be left are the Devil's modern Bibles, which all require turning away from a life of sin to be saved, which is a work-based counterfeit gospel.

1.2.8 Does Acts 2:38 Teach Baptism For Salvation? (2020-04-02 16:00)

Acts 2:38, "Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost."

This is one of the most misunderstood passages of Scripture in the Word of God. Taken by itself, this Bible verse does sound like water baptism is necessary to get to Heaven. This heresy in theology is called: "Baptismal Regeneration." To be "born-again" in theology is called "regeneration" (or re-gened with God's Holy Spirit). So "Baptismal Regeneration" refers to the false doctrine that you need to be water baptized to be born-again!

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. I learned that truth from Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995). For example: Over in John 3:16 we read,

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

" There is no mention of water baptism; but rather, simply TO BELIEVE. In fact, the Gospel of John mentions the word

BELIEVE

" 85 times, with nothing else required with it!

So we see that the Holy Bible is very clear in hundreds of passages that salvation is obtained simply by BELIEVING on the Lord.

Another very clear Bible verse is Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. " This is a direct, clear and bold proclamation in the Scriptures!!! No mention is made of water baptism! This is a perfect example of using a clear passage of Scripture (e.g., Acts 10:43), to interpret an obscure passage (e.g., Acts 2:38).

Acts 2:38 is an obscure single passage of Scripture, but the entire Gospel of John is very clear that salvation is solely through faith in the blessed Savior. John 20:31,

"But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. " There is absolutely no way to correctly interpret Acts 2:38 without cross-referencing this verse with other passages of divine Scripture. In nearly every case where a false prophet misinterprets the Holy Bible, they lift a particular text out of context to create a new pretext.

Water baptism must ALWAYS follow salvation, not precede or accompany it, because it is a picture of salvation. Baptism is one's public profession of faith. In water baptism, a believer is symbolically crucified, buried and resurrected in the LIKENESS of Christ. A wedding ring only has meaning because a person is legally married. A police officer's badge is only valid because he is already a bonafide peace officer. Likewise, water baptism is only meaningful if the partaker is saved.

Also, please be aware that there are [1]numerous different meanings of baptism in the Bible, depending on the particular passage of Scripture. Pastor Max D. Younce has authored a very helpful book titled: '[2]A BIBLICAL EXAMINATION OF BAPTISM' (.PDF available for free download).

Baptizing Infants Is A Sin

The practice of baptizing infants is not only done in vain, but it is also very sinful. It is sinful because it is unbiblical, and is heretically taught by Catholics to bring salvation to infants. It is difficult to grasp that many Roman Catholics foolishly believe babies don't go to Heaven if they haven't been baptized. Read this nonsense from The Catholic Herald:

> "While we may still struggle with this issue and find tension due to the lack of definitive teaching, we place our trust in the Lord. While the Lord has revealed to the Church that Baptism is the means of salvation, He is not restricted in offering other graced means unknown to the Church to these helpless children, and for such means the Church has great hope. However, such a hope in the infinite mercy of God must not make us complacent and thereby negligent in having children baptized or in evangelizing others. Rather, we must conscientiously fulfill our duty and enable all people to come to the Lord through Baptism."
>
> —The Catholic Herald, ' [3]Do Aborted Children Go To Heaven? ' [emphasis added]

What a pack of theological LIES! The Lord has not revealed “ that Baptism is the means of salvation.

” You cannot show me any such teaching in the inspired Word of God. FAITH is the only means of salvation, not baptism! Galatians 3:26,

“For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. ” No one has ever, nor will ever, come to the Lord through baptism!!! Ephesians 2:8-9,

“ For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.”

Carefully notice the following disturbing statement from The Catholic Herald:

> “While we may still struggle with this issue and find tension due to the lack of definitive teaching, we place our trust in the Lord.”
>
> —The Catholic Herald, ’ [4]Do Aborted Children Go To Heaven? ’ [emphasis added]

They are referring to the centuries’ old doctrinal struggle within the Roman Catholic Church, over the question: ’WHERE DO BABIES GO WHEN THEY DIE, if not baptized into the Catholic Church?’ Folks, that is horrible! Who could even doubt for a moment that all babies go to Heaven? Biblically, NO ONE ever goes to Hell except those WHO CHOOSE to go there, by knowingly rejecting Jesus Christ as one’s personal Savior! God would be unjust to send someone to Hell who is incapable of understanding the reality of sin, and the provision God has made in the Gospel of free grace.

Salvation Is Being Baptized By The Holy Spirit

The word “BAPTIZE” in various forms is mentioned 11 times in the Gospel of John. It is very important to take notice that John’s baptism with water DID NOT SAVE anybody. John 1:33, “

And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

” The word

“baptize” in the Bible means: “TO IMMERSE,” which is why preacher’s dunk people all the way under the water when getting baptized. Baptism MUST BE by complete immersion under the water to be Biblical. Baptism by sprinkling with holy water is very unscriptural.

And may I say, water baptism does NOT bestow any special grace (as foolishly taught in The Westminster Confession). Presbyterians and other religious faiths adhere to this creed, which teaches sacraments (which are unbiblical). Sacraments are not taught in the Bible! Water Baptism and the Lord’s Supper are simply commandments from the Lord, which local New Testament churches are supposed to observe to please the Lord. The Catholic church requires keeping SEVEN SACRAMENTS to get to Heaven, which is a counterfeit plan of salvation. Protestants observe TWO SACRAMENTS—some not for salvation (e.g., Presbyterians), but some do require them for salvation (e.g., Lutherans). Again, this is a counterfeit plan of salvation. For this reason, I reject both Catholicism and Protestantism. I am simply a Bible-believing, born again Christian!!!

When a person gets saved, they are IMMERSED IN JESUS CHRIST! This is one possible meaning of Acts 2:38, “Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.” This passage doesn’t specifically mention being baptized with water. It could be referring to being immersed by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior! Another possible interpretation (which Dr. John R. Rice teaches) is that we are water baptized BECAUSE our sins have been remitted by faith in Christ. To be honest, I simply do not know. But I DO KNOW that this verse is NOT teaching Baptismal Regeneration. I KNOW THIS simply because hundreds of other Bible passages teach we are saved by faith alone. Genesis 15:6, “ And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness.” A man’s faith is counted for righteousness, that is, in place of an entire life of perfect righteousness (which is what you would need to do to merit Heaven).

1.2.9 New Bibles Make Salvation A Process, Not A New Birth (2020-04-02 23:30)

1st Corinthians 1:18, "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God."

There's not a dime's difference between the New International Version (NIV) and all of the new modern corrupt Bible PERversions. They were all translated from the Satanic Greek fraudulent manuscripts of Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort, published in 1881. [1]Westcott and Hort butchered the Greek; Rudolph Kittel butchered the Hebrew. Let's examine the question: Do people come to Christ for salvation through the NIV? Here's a comparison between 1st Corinthians 1:18 in the King James Bible and the NIV...

> KING JAMES BIBLE — 1st Corinthians 1:18, "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God." [emphasis added]

> NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION — 1st Corinthians 1:18, "For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God." [emphasis added]

NEW INTERNATIONAL READER'S VERSION — 1st Corinthians 1:18, "The message of the cross seems foolish to those who are lost and dying. But it is God's power to us who are being saved ." [emphasis added]

EASY-TO-READ VERSION — 1st Corinthians 1:18, "The teaching about the cross seems foolish to those who are lost. But to us who are being saved it is the power of God." [emphasis added]

Do you see how the NIV perverts salvation into a process? The NIV says that believers are "being saved," but the King James Bible says we "are saved." The NIV supports the Calvinistic heresy of the Perseverance of the Saints.

"The worst pervert in America is the Gospel pervert!"

Brother Lester Roloff, from the sermon, "[2]The Gospel Perverts Or Jesus?"

Getting saved is not a process, but sanctification is a process. We receive Christ as our Savior in a moment, but becoming Christlike requires a lifetime. You'd be surprised how many pastors believe this, yet use and promote the new Bible versions that deny this truth. As I have shown you, the new Bible versions pervert 1st Corinthians 1:18, turning salvation into a gradual process instead of an immediate new birth. The second spiritual birth is as instantaneous, permanent and irreversible as is the first physical birth.

If saved, always saved! The Bible DOES teach the eternal security of the Christian believer! Assurance of salvation and eternal security are not different doctrines from eternal life, they are all one and the same. That is, the man who has received God's gift of Eternal Life, is eternally secure and assured of Heaven. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." A believer's a ssurance of salvation is not a separate teaching from eternal life, they are the same thing! The only type of life which God gives is Eternal Life! God does not give Temporal Life, or Probationary Life.

The Bible teaches on the Day of Pentecost in Acts 2:41 that 3,000 souls were saved in just ONE DAY! There was no probationary period to examine them, to see if their life changed. Acts 2:41, "Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls." Those 3,000 people were saved because they simply " the truth of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen and amen!!! That is how you get saved —BY THE HEARING OF FAITH! Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? " When you hear the blessed Gospel of free grace preached, and you BELIEVE WHAT YOU HEAR, you are immediate and forever born-again! You are not a redeemed child of God!!!

Salvation is not a process or a state, that you can drift in and out of, it is a new birth (which is instant, permanent and undoable). John 1:12-13, " But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." Once you are saved, there is ABSOLUTELY NO WAY to ever forfeit or jeopardize the GIFT of eternal life which God has given you! You can (and should) write down the name, date, place and time that you received Jesus Christ as your personal Savior!!!

Dear reader, if you are saved, you CAN look back to one specific place and memory, where you received Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. You may not remember the exact date (like I don't, because I didn't think to jot it down back then), but I remember the place in an Independent Fundamental Baptist Church, on Chicago's northside, around 1980. I was 13 years old. I remember crying out from inside my soul for the first time in my life, that I personally went to the risen Savior to save me, and He gloriously did! Thank you Jesus!!!

> "Now you listen to me folks! We're living in a world of compromising Christianity. I call it—'The yuppie generation building yuppie churches!' 1.2.10 Pastor DeHaan Correctly Teaches Jesus Had God's Blood (2020-04-02 23:50)

The following excellent explanation is taken from chapter four of "[1]The Chemistry Of The Blood" (.pdf book) by Dr. M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965). Dr. DeHaan is doctrinally sound, a great Bible teacher, who correctly understands that God's blood flowed in Jesus' earthly veins. How could Christ, the only begotten Son of God, be born of a miraculous virgin birth, and then not have God's blood flowing in His body and veins? That would be impossible! Jesus had God's blood in His veins, because Jesus is almighty God (John 1:1-3,14; John 10:33; John 8:58; 1st Timothy 3:16; Colossians 2:9; Revelation 1:8). Jesus forgave men's sins as only God can do (Mark 2:7; Luke 5:21).

Jesus accepted worship from men, which only God is entitled to do (Matthew 8:2; Isaiah 42:8 - Note: all Scripture references are only from trustworthy, King James Bible). Jesus worked miracles among humanity, that no other human being ever did, proving that He was God in the flesh (John 15:24). God's blood was shed on the cross for our sins, and that precious blood was collected and taken by the Lord Himself into Heaven to sprinkle upon the Mercy Seat in the Holy Place (Hebrews 9:12; 12:24) in the presence of God the Father (Hebrews 9:24). Thus, redemption was complete once and for all (Hebrews 9:26; Hebrews 10:10).

Again, the following excellent explanation is taken from chapter four of " [2]The Chemistry Of The Blood " (.pdf book) by Dr. M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965). ...

Jesus was a perfect human being after the flesh. He was of the seed of David according to the flesh, but blood is that part of a man which is the divine addition. In the creation of man, Adam's body was made from the dust of the earth, but God breathed into his nostrils the breath of life. Since life is in the blood, this act resulted in the formation of blood in Adam's body, but the first Adam's blood was corrupted and sin transmitted through it to all mankind. In the last Adam and the second man, new and divine and sinless blood was produced in a body that was the seed of Adam and by this resulted in the production of —

DIVINE BLOOD

Conception by the Holy Ghost then was the only way the Virgin Birth could be accomplished. Mary contributed the body of Jesus and He became the "seed of David according to the flesh." The Holy Spirit contributed the Blood of Jesus. It was sinless blood. It was Divine blood. It is Precious Blood for there has never been any other like it. It is —

INNOCENT BLOOD

"I have betrayed the innocent blood" Judas confessed in Matthew 27:4. Our Lord was innocent. He became like unto us in all things — SIN only excepted. Like unto us with ONE EXCEPTION and that exception was that instead of a human father He was conceived by a DIVINE FATHER. As a result biologically, He had DIVINE BLOOD, SINLESS BLOOD. Because this blood is sinless it is —

INCORRUPTIBLE BLOOD

Sin made human blood corruptible. Soon after death, decay sets in, and it begins in the blood. That is why meat must be drained well of its blood. That is why embalmers place the embalming fluid in the blood. David said that Jesus' body should "see no corruption." Though He was dead three days and three nights, His body did not corrupt. Because He was sinless they could not put Him to death but instead He "laid down His life voluntarily that He might take it up again." He arose by His own power because death had no claim in HIM except the claim of others' sin, and when that was paid [emphasis added] —Pastor

M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965),

" [3]The Chemistry Of The Blood "

Clearly, someone is very wrong! Dr. MacArthur and Dr. DeHaan cannot both be right. I am siding 100 % with Pastor M.R. DeHaan, because that is what the King James Bible teaches. John MacArthur is corrupted, errant in his thinking, and trampling underfoot the precious blood of Jesus, even effectively denying Christ's deity by saying the the virgin birth didn't put God's blood into Jesus' veins. Remember, the virgin birth means that the Lord Jesus Christ had NO EARTHLY FATHER. So that makes God in Heaven His only biological Father. How then can anyone dare claim that Jesus doesn't have His own biological Father's blood flowing through His veins? Think about it, because it really makes common sense.

Jesus did in fact have God's blood flowing through His body's veins. Acts 20:28, "Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. " As you just read for yourself, it was God's blood that purchased the Church. It was God's blood that was shed on the cross for our sins, and it was God's blood that was sprinkled on the heavenly Mercy Seat. We are saved by the blood!

1.2.11 Most Baptists Don't Love Jesus (2020-04-03 03:00)

Psalms 119:139-142, "

My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words*.

Thy word is very pure* : therefore thy servant loveth it.

I am small and despised: yet do not I forget thy precepts.

Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the truth.

According to the American Bible Society (ABS), there are approximately 900 different English Bible versions. ...

> I am afraid no one can give you an exact number for the English translations and paraphrases of the Bible printed since Tyndale's New Testament of 1526. In part this is due to the difficulty of determining what should be defined as a new translation as opposed to a correction or a revision of an existing translation. There is the additional question of how we should count translations that include not a complete Bible or Testament, but just a group of books or even a single book. And then, of course, there is the difficulty of sheer numbers. With all these caveats in mind, the number of printed English translations and paraphrases of the Bible, whether complete or not, is about 900. [emphasis added]
> — [1]Number Of English Translations Of The Bible ; BIBLE Q & A; December 2, 2009

Dear reader, we have a BIG PROBLEM in America today! Whereas Psalms 119:140 declares that God's Word is "VERY PURE," we have upwards of 900 English Bible versions!!! How can they all be pure? Obviously they cannot, since they all disagree to some extent, sometimes drastically, and in hundreds of places!

" 'I Can!' makes the man." —Coystal Hyles to her son Jack Hyles

Satan's First Appearance Was Under The Tree Of Knowledge

The Devil made his first debut appearance in the Bible under The Tree Of Knowledge. Satan appeared in the form of a serpent in Genesis 3:1, introducing a SECOND AUTHORITY to Eve. The FIRST AUTHORITY was God's plainly spoken Word to Adam and Eve in Genesis 2:16-17; but now the serpent comes and says to Eve in the next chapter, "HATH GOD SAID?" (Genesis 3:1b). Where God had placed a period, the serpent had placed a question mark, which confused Eve. She now had to choose between TWO AUTHORITIES. Which one was correct?

Likewise, that is why in the year 1881, Satan introduced (through [2]reprobate Anglican ministers' Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort) an alleged " more reliable and older

ancient manuscript

of the Greek Bible. It is upon this heretical manuscript that nearly every modern PERversions of the Bible has been translated). Any thinking Christian can discern this woeful evil, but most professed Christians today simply don't care. They are sinfully INDIFFERENT! Sadly, most Baptists DON'T LOVE JESUS! For if they truly did love the Lord, they would love the purity of God's Word, and HATE CORRUPTIBLE SEED!

Please don't take my word for it, take a look at this injustice below for yourself. The first Bible translation is CORRECT, from the King James Bible; but then compare and see what some of the other English revisions (PERversions) say...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel." [emphasis added]

> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — Mark 1:15, "He said, "The right time is now here. God's kingdom is very near. Change your hearts and lives, and believe the Good News!" [emphasis added]

NEW LIFE VERSION (NLV) - Mark 1:15, “He said, “The time has come. The holy nation of God is near. Be sorry for your sins, turn from them, and believe the Good News.” [emphasis added]

LIVING BIBLE (TLB) - Mark 1:15, “At last the time has come!” he announced. “God’s Kingdom is near! Turn from your sins and act on this glorious news!” [emphasis added]

Folks, being sorry for one’s sins, and turning away from sinful behavior, is NOT a part of the Gospel of free grace!

I know Independent Baptist churches where multiple plans of salvation are permitted and taught. The reason why is because these churches uses multiple Bible versions, which teach different plans of salvation. st Corinthians 14:11, “For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.” Here’s [3]THE UGLY TRUTH ABOUT THE DIFFERENT BIBLE VERSIONS TODAY, WHICH ARE ANYTHING BUT HONEST SCHOLARSHIP. Please don’t become the Devil’s fool. Get you a King James Bible and love it, defend it, cherish it, read it, mediate on it, memorize it, proclaim it, study it, obey it and abide (live) therein!!!!!!!

No Baptist who is a Christian, loves the Lord Jesus Christ, who bids Godspeed to the [4]Alexandrian Bible revisions. No Baptist who is a professed Christian, loves the Lord Jesus Christ, who sanctions Pastor John MacArthur and his demonic teachings of Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation). Do you love Jesus? Don’t tell me you love Jesus if you tolerate false doctrines and counterfeit Bibles, because you are a liar!!! Psalms 119:104, “ Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.” The man of God who genuinely knows God, and abides in the inspired Holy Scriptures, will HATE EVERY FALSE WAY!!! The modern corrupt Bible revisions are a false way! [5]John MacArthur’s false plan of salvation is a false way! [6]Dr. MacArthur’s denial of Jesus’ blood on the heavenly Mercy Seat if a false way! Mr. MacArthur’s teaching that [7]children cannot be saved is a false way!

Most of our Independent Fundamental Baptist churches are filled today with phonies, who are merely playing church three times a week, going along to get along with every corrupt wind of doctrine. I am also talking about Moody Bible Institute in Chicago and their heresy of Calvinism. I am also talking about Bob Jones University in South Carolina and the multiple corrupt Bible revisions which they promote; such as, the English Standard Version (ESV). The [8]ESV is theologically corrupt! It is tragic that thousands of IFB churches and Bible colleges today have succumbed to “ ANOTHER

GOSPEL

” (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Calvinism and

“

turning away from sins

to be saved is not the Gospel of free grace. You come to God as a needy sinner to be saved, which is very different than being required to be willing to turn from your sins to be saved! The former is divine repentance, the latter is human reformation!

It is high time for Independent Fundamental Baptists to pick a side in the ongoing [9]BATTLE OF THE AGES (a classic MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles from 1994) over the Word of God! We are at war over the accuracy of the Gospel, and the inspiration of God’s Holy Word. Joshua 24:15, “ And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

1.2.12 Most Women Don't Want A Man To Rule Over Them (2020-04-03 04:07)

Genesis 3:16, "

Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee.

Few Americans realize that they are the victims of a half-century of [1]social engineering by the Rockefellers and Luciferian elite. Feminist indoctrination didn't just happen, it was introduced to American society. It blows my mind every time I look at [2]these sordid images of singer Taylor Swift, making vulgar crotch gestures in this very popular YouTube video called: "WILDEST DREAMS (690,967,390 hits so far). Who paid and talked Miss Swift into lowering herself to the level of a beast, to commit these lewd and indecent acts? Folks, this is the work of Satanists!!! Why do you think Netflix is infatuated with blood, gore, sex, violence, perversion and all manner of evil in recent years? They are preparing the world for what's ahead—the New World Order, the coming of the Man of Sin (the Antichrist)!

Having said that, many women today don't want a Biblical marriage, because they have been indoctrinated with the sinful ideologies of feminism. 1st Timothy 5:14-15, "

I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

For some are already turned aside after Satan. " God's will for 99 % of women is to GET MARRIED, BEAR CHILDREN, GUIDE THE HOUSE, and STAY OUT OF TROUBLE! God never intended for young women to pursue nursing careers over marriage and motherhood. I'm not against being a nurse, as long as it doesn't keep you from your primary life's objective—which is to GET MARRIED, BEAR CHILDREN, GUIDE THE HOUSE, and STAY OUT OF TROUBLE! Careers get in the way of marriage and motherhood. Most Christians who are honest, know working women who are so busy and caught up in their work, that they have totally lost sight of ever becoming a mother, even if they manage to fit marriage into THEIR PLANS!!!

In many cases women don't even want to get married. This is truly sad. I've been looking for a wife for several years, but women nowadays seem to have their OWN AGENDAS. They simply aren't looking for a husband! This is an untoward generation, half-butt backwards on everything!!! Brother Roloff was right, the world has become a giant prison institution and the inmates are running it!

The inspired Word of God teaches that A HUSBAND IS TO RULE OVER HIS WIFE...

> Ephesians 5:20-28, "
>
> Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.
>
> Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord*.
>
> For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.
>
> Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.
>
> Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;
>
> That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word,
>
> That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.
> So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself."

Those are important beautiful Scriptures. Marriage is two people making a life for each other! Women today don't want to wait on a man hand and foot. I actually heard a rebellious woman say that: "I AIN'T WAITING ON SOME MAN HAND AND FOOT!" That is a fool talking ladies. Sadly, she died years later from a drug overdose. Every woman should desire to wait on her husband hand and foot, for that is why God created her! Genesis 2:18, "And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him.

" I realize that I am speaking to a rare few, who care about obeying God. I might as well be preaching to the crowd in Noah's day, who refused to repent for 120 years (Matthew 24:37-39). I don't think things are that bad yet, but we're headed there quickly! She that hath ears to hear, let her hear!

I love the phrase:

RAISED TO PRAISE!

” Ladies, learn to use the tool of praise to build up your children and husband, to shape them into being what God wants them to be. Proverbs 27:21, “ As the fining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; so is a man to his praise.” Men love praise! By the way, be very careful ladies about praising a man to whom you are not married, because he may fall in love with you! If a woman smiles and waves at a man, he thinks she is in love with him...lol. I’m guilty of that myself, wanting to be loved. So I have to be careful not to read into something more than is there. One of my faults is that I think too much, so I need to watch that area and be careful.

I wrote this article to encourage you ladies to adopt the Biblical attitude of submission, only to your husband. God doesn’t want you to submit to your pastor. Don’t you do it!

Hebrews 13:17, “ Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.” Only a husband has RULE OVER his wife (Ephesians 5:22). The government has RULE OVER its citizens (Romans 13:1-10). The church has NO RULE over anybody!!! If your husband and your pastor conflict, you obey only your husband.

Once my daughter was sitting in church between me and her husband, and we both spoke at the same time to her, so she looked perplexed whom to answer. I taught her to ALWAYS listen to her husband, and NEVER me, because her husband is her only authority! That makes things easy! That is 100 % Biblical. The day that a daughter gets married, her father is no longer the authority in her life, her husband is!

A woman who refuses to allow her husband to RULE OVER her will never find happiness or fulfillment in life, because God made her to be a HELP MEET to her husband. These career women today are TURNED ASIDE AFTER SATAN (1st Timothy 5:14-15).

Feminists like to portray the image of an abusive husband, and a slave for a wife. Nothing could be further from the truth in a truly Bible-based Christian marriage! A man ought to love and cherish his wife, respecting her and valuing her opinion. To “RULE OVER” simply means that the man is the head of his home, and he leads by loving example, and not by force or abuse. Ladies, anything with two heads is a monster! A godly woman wants her husband to be in charge; and a godly husband wants his wife to feel free, safe and happy. God pity the wicked husband who isn’t fit to lead! I’ve never drank a drop of alcohol and never will. I hate booze! Alcohol destroys millions of homes. My advice to all married couples is to GET INTO A BIBLE-BELIEVING LOCAL CHURCH! Your marriage likely won’t make it if you don’t! You need preaching and fellowship in a local Bible-believing church, and so do I!!! I know what I’m talking about.

There are no perfect marriages. All it takes to fall in love is A PULSE, but to stay married requires A PLAN. Healthy marriages are intentional, built and worked at; they don’t just happen! Couples need to course-correct when things aren’t right in a marriage. I hear a lot of people complaining about the horrible way everything is today, but we must never use that as an excuse not to obey the Word of God. Marriage is God’s way! Bearing children within the holy bounds of a legal marriage is God’s way! The Lord wants young women to get married, and only then have children, and be keepers at home, staying busy to keep out of trouble (1st Timothy 5:14-15).

1.2.13 Remember That God Is Always In Power (2020-04-03 04:25)

Ecclesiastes 5:8, “

If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.

In lieu of the fact that many people are infected and dying from the Coronavirus, I think Christians should honor the government’s orders to stay home and exercise social distancing. [1]I fully agree with Pastor Steven Anderson in this matter. I also think it is clear this is all staged and intended to shape our future as Americans. This is why former Republican Congressman, and Medical Doctor, Ron Paul, has called it: [2]THE CORONAVIRUS HOAX! The media has over-hyped this virus outbreak from the very beginning, which in my humble opinion plainly shows it was all staged. You cannot blame people for drawing this conclusion after beholding the 911 attacks in New York, and no legitimate investigation has ever been done, nor anyone brought to justice!

I definitely expect to see a cashless society as a result of this virus pandemic. At this point there is only talk, nothing solid that I can determine, but I expect to see implanted microchips containing medical data. I think the fallout of this virus will last for at least the next 20 years, if the world lasts that long before the Lord returns. We ought not get upset or discouraged as Christians, because the Bible predicted these things would happen. Christians cannot stop the New World Order, not should we try!

What we need to do is work diligently to fulfill ’The Great Commission’ to preach the Gospel to get people saved, water baptize them, indoctrinate them, and teach them to become soulwinners (Luke 8:15). This is ’The Great Commission’ (Matthew 28:19-20).

We are commanded to refute all “works of darkness,” which includes the NWO (Ephesians 5:11). Ephesians 6:12-18 says we wrestle against “the rulers of the darkness of this world.” The government is greater than we are in power. Satan is the god of this world (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4), and he holds the power over this world. That is why we are commanded in 1st Timothy 2:1-2 to “pray” for our leaders in power, that we may live in peace, because God controls them. Proverbs 21:1, “The king’s heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will. ”

I think it is important that Christians don’t get bent out of shape over this; but rather, have faith. I didn’t say “ stay positive.

I am not positive about any of this, I’m actually very NEGATIVE about where this is all headed; but I **“

HAVE FAITH IN GOD

” (Mark 11:22b). John 16:33, “

These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

” The Bible comforts us in 1st Thessalonians 4:17-18, knowing that we HAVE A HOPE as believers. ...

> 1st Thessalonians 4:13-14, “But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.”

The unsaved world FEARS death, because they have no hope. To them

means suffering the sting of sin, which is to be punished in Hell forever. But the redeemed Christian can proclaim with the dear apostle Paul

—1st Corinthians 15:55, “

O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

As born-again believers we don’t need to stay positive during these trying times of the Coronavirus scare, which is secular thinking; but rather, we need to “HAVE FAITH IN GOD” (which is what Jesus Himself said in Mark 11:22b). Faith in God simply means LOOKING TO THE LORD. Psalms 121:1,

“

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

” My God is able!!! I don’t know what tomorrow holds, but [3]I KNOW WHO HOLDS TOMORROW!

1.2.14 The ’Cross-less’ Gospel (2020-04-03 04:26)

1st Corinthians 1:18, “

For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.

I get frustrated reading religious tracts which churches distribute nowadays to lost sinners. Honestly, no one will ever get saved from most of the junk theology that churches promote today. One of the biggest problems is a CROSS-LESS GOSPEL! That is, the cross upon which Jesus Christ died for our sins is not even mentioned. What happens is that Christian who have grown up in church their entire life, make a lot of assumptions, thus making a poor attempt at writing Gospel tracts. In fact, they are so poorly written that I rarely even find ’THE GOSPEL’ in today’s religious literature!

The following is a very helpful article authored by my friend, Pastor Max D. Younce:

> Dear Pastor Younce, I read some material the other day that bothered me a lot. The writer stated that if you just believe that Jesus can give you eternal life, He will give you eternal life. I didn’t see anything about Christ’s Resurrection or His Death on the cross. Can you give me your assessment of this writer’s statement.

I am aware of this new pseudo-teaching, “Faith Alone in Christ Alone” that has recently surfaced. That sounds very good; but here is their underlying message, “Just believe in Jesus and you will have eternal life.” Am I saved by simply believing this? Positively, No! No one obtains eternal life by just believing that Jesus Christ has the power and right to give eternal life. This message projects a pseudo-gospel without a cross; or, as some have termed it, the Cross-less Gospel.

The above is very deceiving, in that the reader may assume that the above statement includes believing in the Death, Burial and Resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ; because you are already a believer; but, it does not! The proponents of this false teaching say, “Just believe in Jesus, and you will have eternal life.” “Well,” you say, “What’s wrong with that?”

The proponents of the Cross-less Gospel forget that many of the texts they quote about simply believing in Christ for Salvation, are part of a larger context, which clearly sets out the Death, Burial, and Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. For example: Romans 4:4,5 is part of the context of Romans 4:24,25; John 3:16-18 is part of a larger context including John 3:14; Ephesians 2:8,9 is part of the context of Ephesians 1:7; the context of John 6:35-40 contains John 6:51, etc. These are just a few of the references given in the Newsletter, referenced in the next paragraph.

This false doctrine has been put forth by Grace in Focus, and as Bob Wilkin states in his March/April Newsletter, he is the “Founder and Head.” I have quoted just one statement from this Newsletter, entitled, "Five Current Confusions Concerning the Gospel"

By Bob Wilkin, I quote:

> "Nowhere in the entire Bible are we told that the person who believes the gospel has everlasting life, is saved, is justified, will never die spiritually, or anything of the kind."

And, of course, that is in direct opposition to God's Word in 1 Corinthians 15:1-4. One will notice, their battle-cry, "Faith Alone in Christ Alone," stands out in bold type at the bottom of the Newsletter.

Since we are dealing with the Salvation of souls, we must give the Gospel with great clarity. We must give the right information. There must be two things that must occur before anyone can receive eternal life.

1. The Giver: Jesus Christ is the only One who is qualified to give eternal life; since, as the sinless Son of God, He paid for the sins of mankind by His Death and Resurrection, as recorded in 1 Corinthians 15:1-4,

"Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; (1) By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. (2) For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; (3) And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

Thus, the Lord Jesus Christ is qualified by His Death (His payment for sin on the Cross), and Resurrection (showing God's acceptance of the payment) to give eternal life to all those who are able to receive it. To be able to receive eternal life, you must know about, so you can believe in, the Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ; or there is no justification to the lost. Notice Romans 4:24,25...

"But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead: Who was delivered (death on the cross) for our offenses, and was raised again for our justification."

Therefore, making a statement such as "Faith Alone in Christ alone." or "One receives eternal life by just believing that Christ gives eternal life," does not result in salvation. This belief is empty and void of the Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ and does not give eternal life. It is a "gospel" without a Cross. It is a good example of "believing in vain." (1 Corinthians 2b). Why? You have not heard the true Gospel and have believed a wrong message.

2. The Receiver: Anyone can receive eternal life; if, they hear the right message. An unsaved person may ask, "I understand that good works, or any works of the flesh will not give me eternal life; so, what must I believe to receive eternal life?" The answer is always found in God's Word. We must believe Christ died on the Cross as the payment for our sin, and rose again, showing God accepted His payment. This is substantiated by Romans 4:25,

> (Christ) who was delivered for our offenses (the Cross) and was raised again (Resurrection) for our justification."

This is the Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ in payment for the sins of every human being. When I believe that Christ died and was resurrected for me, personally, paying for my sins; I am given eternal life immediately upon my faith in Him. Romans 5:1 makes this perfectly clear,

> "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ."

As does John 3:16,

> "For God so loved the world, that he gave (on the Cross) his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him (His death on the cross) should not perish, but have everlasting life."

And should anyone doubt that John 3:16 is talking about Christ's Death on the Cross, I quote John 3:14,

> "And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up*:*"

The Gospel is the sacrificial Death and Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. This is what the Bible says we must know about and understand to make a decision to accept or reject Christ. May I recapitulate to 1 Corinthians 15. In Verse 1 we are told,

"Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you."

Then, we are told what the Gospel is in Verses 3b, and 4.

"How that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures: And that he was buried*, and that he* rose again the third day according to the scriptures;"

This Gospel is what the Corinthians received (i.e. believed) for eternal life. The last part of Verse 1 verifies this, "...which also ye have received and wherein ye stand."

To make a statement such as: "I have received eternal life because I believe that Jesus gives eternal life," is NOT salvation. I see nothing in the preceding statement about the Cross or Resurrection of Christ. The Word of God addresses this in 1 Corinthians 15:14, notice carefully.

"And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain."

There is no Salvation without believing in Christ's Resurrection. 1 Corinthians 15:17 makes this very clear.

"And if Christ be not raised, your faith is in vain; ye are yet in your sins*."*

One should acknowledge that there have been many in past centuries, and up to and including our present time, who have promised eternal life to their followers. A few in our time have even claimed to be Christ. Many today think of Jesus Christ merely as good man of History who died a martyr's death. During Jesus' ministry, there were others with the same name. What separated the sinless Son of God from others bearing the same name was His Death and Resurrection.

Therefore, this new teaching which has recently surfaced, stating that, "You receive eternal life by simply believing that Jesus and/or Christ has the power to give you eternal life," is empty and void of eternal life. This could apply to any person named "Jesus" or any human being claiming to be "Christ."

To have eternal life, a person must understand that Jesus Christ went to the Cross, being crucified, and was resurrected as payment for their sin. When one places their faith in Jesus Christ as the one who did this for them, personally, they are then saved; that means, saved from paying for their own sin in Hell, the Lake of Fire. (Matthew 25:41). This is the Gospel with the Cross included!

Notice how the Cross is referred to in these statements about the blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 5:9, "...being now justified by his (Christ's) blood (Cross) we shall be saved by his life (Resurrection)."

Ephesians 1:7, "In whom we have redemption through his (Christ's) blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace."

Revelation 1:5, "...Unto him (Christ) that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood." (the Cross).

Hebrews 9:22, "And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission."

Revelation 5:9, “...for thou (Christ) was slain (Cross), and hast redeemed us to God; by thy blood of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation.”

I Peter 1:18,19, tells us that we were “redeemed, with the precious blood (Cross) of Christ, as of a lamb, without blemish and without spot.”

This false teaching we have just covered may seem like “splitting hairs;” and that is exactly what Satan wants you to believe. But, in reality, it is the difference between Heaven and Hell! Satan hates the Resurrection. You must know about Christ’s Death on the Cross and His Resurrection to accept or reject His offer of eternal life. That is what the Bible teaches that the Gospel is. Without the Cross, you have no payment for sin. Without the Resurrection, you have no finished Salvation.

Personally, I am not trusting my eternal life to come from just someone named “Jesus,” or a human being called “Christ,” but, rather, to come from the Lord Jesus Christ; God manifested in the flesh, bearing the authentic credentials of His Crucifixion and His Resurrection. This is truly the Son of God, not an imposter bearing His name.

Remember, a "cross-less" gospel saves no one! We would do well to remember the words of this precious old hymn, given below.

THE OLD RUGGED CROSS
On a hill far away, stood an old rugged cross,
The emblem of suff'ring and shame;
And I love that old cross where the dearest and best
For a world of lost sinners was slain.
Oh, that old rugged cross so despised by the world
Has a wondrous attraction for me;
For the dear Lamb of God left his glory above,
To bear it to dark Calvary.
In the old rugged cross, stained with blood so divine,
A wondrous beauty I see;
For 'twas on that old cross Jesus suffered and died,
To pardon and sanctify me.
To the old rugged cross I will ever be true,
Its shame and reproach gladly bear;
Then he'll call me some day to my home far away,
Where his glory forever I'll share.
So I'll cherish the rugged cross,
Till my trophies at last I lay down'
I will cling to the old rugged cross,
And exchange it some day for a crown.

Thank God for faithful preachers like Dr. Max Younce, who are set for the defence of the Gospel, as was the apostle Paul. Philippians 1:17, "But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel."

My faith is solely in the Lord Jesus Christ, who died on the cross to pay for my sins, was buried and bodily resurrected three days later. Never leave out THE CROSS dear friend. God bless you and thanks for reading this!

1.2.15 Only God Can Love Us The Way We Want To Be Loved (2020-04-03 04:28)

Matthew 22:36-40, “

Master, which is the great commandment in the law? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

This is the first and great commandment.

And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.”

As my regular web visitors know, I have been in love with a young Christian woman in my neighborhood for the past three years. I mentioned her quite often before Christmas last year, hoping to [2] patch things up with the folks at [3]
[1]
Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, so I could hopefully get to know her better at church. Unfortunately, things fell through. [4]That is the price for telling THE TRUTH! I don’t think she likes me writing about her (she reads my writings) which is why I stopped mentioning her in my articles. Ladies know how to send signals to guys, and I’m a fast learner. I don’t want to make her feel uncomfortable in any way. I haven’t mentioned her for three months. She makes me happy, just knowing she is nearby. I get really happy when I see her! She’s my Coronavirus! She’s my sunshine! I’m dying with love...lol. That’s why they call it the “Corona” virus, because [5]the virus cells are shaped like the sun and its shining rays! [6]You Are My Sunshine.

I have to apologize to God sometimes, that I pray for her more than other things I should pray about, because she means so much to me. All I can do is pray, stay busy working on my website ministry to try not to think about her, and hope she might one day like me back. If it's not meant to be, then time will tell. I already live with a broken heart continually. Philippians 1:21, " For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."

Looking For Love In All The Wrong Places

There's a popular old country song by Johnny Lee from 1980 called: '[7]Looking For Love In All The Wrong Places.' I play [8]pedal steel guitar, so I really like country and southern Gospel music. I realized a long time ago, that no woman could ever love me the way I desire to be loved. Even the best Christian woman is still a sinner, and we all fall short of being what we should be oftentimes. We have all sinned. If I am ever fortunate enough to marry a woman who reciprocates my love for her, I will be very blessed indeed. Only a Christian woman can love me back with God's love.

That is why the Bible forbids a believer to marry an unbeliever in 1st Corinthians 6:14-17. An unsaved person does not have God's Holy Spirit, so they cannot have the fruit of the Spirit.

Love

is a "fruit" of the Holy Spirit! God's love is unconditional. The Bible mentions "fruit" (singular) in Ephesians 5:22-23, not "fruits" (plural). Therefore, you don't first get love, and then work at getting patience, and then work on getting joy; but rather, we get those qualities all at once, together, as we walk in the Spirit as God's child. I like hearing Gary Chapman sing this Gospel song: '[9]He Keeps Me Singing.'

The gifts of the Spirit aren't given TO ME, but THROUGH ME to give TO YOU! I learned that precious truth from Pastor Jack Hyles in this helpful MP3 sermon called: " [10]THOU SHALT COVET .

" We should earnestly covet the best gifts the Bible says (1st Corinthians 12:31).

I realized long ago that only a Christian woman, who loves God, can even begin to love me the same way that I love her. I have God's love in my heart! But if I never find such a wife, Jesus is the lover of my soul!!! Love is not 50/50, we are supposed to love 100 % even if we get 0 % back; but the happiest marriages are where both couples love each other. A happy marriage is two people making a life for each other!

The Great Commandment Is To Love

Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) used to say that the two greatest Commandments are really just one—TO LOVE! One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles is called: ’[11]The Greatest Sins That One Can Commit.’ I also [12]wrote an article about this topic, because it is so important. I love this quote from the sermon by Brother Hyles:

> “Your neighbour is anybody on the face of this earth, a creature of almighty God; and if you do not love your neighbour as yourself, you’ve committed a sin worse than stealing, worse than lying, worse than murder, worse than adultery, worse than covetousness—God said it, I didn’t say it, take issue with God about it! You Pharisees, take issue with God about it!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from the precious sermon titled: “[13]The Two Greatest Sins That One Can Commit”

“I cannot love you as I love myself until I love God as I ought to love Him.” —Dr. Jack Hyles

I love everyone with God's unconditional love! The apostle Paul grew in God's love to the place where he became lonely, because the people he loved couldn't reciprocate his depth of love. 2nd Corinthians 12:15, " And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved. " I know how Paul felt, and I rejoice in my soul for it, because I would much rather love than be loved, for Christ's sake!

> "If there was no greater love than the death of your Son, then there is no greater evidence of your love! Think about that statement! If you did not love everyone, how would I know that it included me? If Christ did not pay for all sin, for everyone, how do I know You paid for mine?" —Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold, "[15]How Do I Know God Really Loves Me? - Part 2" | [16]Part 1)

1.2.16 The Great Bible Doctrine Of Imputation (2020-04-04 05:40)

Romans 4:5-6, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works."

Ask most church members today what "imputation" means and they have no idea what you're talking about. That is because the word "

has been completely removed from the modern Bible versions. Look through Evangelist Ray Comfort's "THE EVIDENCE BIBLE" from cover-to-cover and you'll never find where he comments on the vital doctrine of "imputation." Look at the listing of words in the index at the back of Ray Comfort's best-selling book, "THE EVIDENCE BIBLE." There are over 1,000 words listed, but no mention of "impute" or "imputation." The is because Mr. Comfort uses the Amplified Version (AMP) that removes the word completely. Out of sight, out of mind!

Modern theology is virtually devoid of the great Bible doctrine of imputation. In the following passage of Scripture, the Satanic Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) butchers Romans 4:5-6, completely removing the word "impute" from the ERV. The KJB is correct below, but the second quote is from the ERV, which is awful, heretical and wicked . . .

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Romans 4:5-6, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works." [emphasis added]

> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — Romans 4:5-6, "But people cannot do any work that will make them right with God. So they must trust in him. Then he accepts their faith, and that makes them right with him. He is the one who makes even evil people right. David said the same thing when he was talking about the blessing people have when God accepts them as good without looking at what they have done." [emphasis added]

They've horribly corrupted this Scripture passage! Do you see what they've sinfully done? Whereas the King James Bible teaches that God imputes the righteousness of Christ to the believer, the ERV foolishly says God accepts a person as good by faith, which means something different entirely. God doesn't accept someone as "good" by faith; but rather, God attributes His righteousness to us by faith. That is what imputation means! Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith."

God told us to "study" the Bible in 2nd Timothy 2:15. What is so hard about looking up the meaning of "imputeth?" By removing this important theological word from the KJB and replacing it with some religious nonsense, the doctrine of imputation has effectively been stricken from the ERV (which is a typical corruption in all modern Bible versions). Satan is changing the Bible into a spiritual book instead of a theological book.

The basis of obtaining justification is through God's righteousness being IMPUTED to the sinner through faith in Christ, Who paid our sin debt on the cross. Jesus took our sins upon Himself on the cross, paying a debt that He did not owe. Jesus is our sin payment! When we BELIEVE the Gospel, God takes Jesus' righteousness, and places it upon us. God imputes our sins to Jesus, and then He imputes Jesus' righteousness to us. Isn't that beautiful!!! This is why we don't need any works to be saved, because Christ paid it all by His sacrifice on the cross, and the sprinkling of His shed blood upon the Mercy Seat in Heaven (Hebrews 9:12, 24; 12:24).

The corrupt ERV says in Romans 4:5, "So they must trust in him. Then he accepts their faith, and that makes them right with him." This is wrong! It is not our faith that makes us right with God. It is Christ's sacrifice on the cross and His applied blood sprinkled in Heaven that makes us right with God, in response to our faith in the Gospel. The ERV obliterates the entire doctrine of imputation. Christ died on the cross as our LAMB (John 1:29), and He raised up bodily three days later and ascended into Heaven as our HIGH PRIEST (Romans 8:34; Hebrews 4:14-16).

The Neglected Doctrine of Imputation

The words “counted” and “imputeth” are the same Greek word, so they mean the same thing in these two verses (Romans 4:5-6). The KJB says that a man’s faith is counted for righteousness. We are told that God imputeth righteousness to a man without works (labor to earn Heaven). Since we all have NO self-righteousness of our own to offer or impress God (Isaiah 64:6), the only way we can be saved is by obtaining Christ’s righteousness. This is possible only through faith in the Gospel.

The Bible-butchers should have left the word IMPUTETH alone. It is a beautiful word. How lazy can people get? Entire books have been written about this one important theological term. In Romans 4:6, the ERV has rendered the word “IMPUTETH” as “God accepts them as good without looking at what they have done,” which utterly fails to inform the reader why God accepts them as good. It is only because of Christ’s suffering on the cross that we are able by faith to be declared righteous. It is not that God accepts us as good; but rather, He accepts us on the basis of Christ’s righteousness which has been credited (imputed) to us by faith.

1.2.17 Why God’s Curse Is On Bob Jones Univesity (2020-04-04 17:24)

Deuteronomy 4:2, “Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.” ... Psalms 119:139-141, “My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words. Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it. I am small and despised: yet do not I forget thy precepts.”

I love David’s spirit in Psalms 119:139-140. David was consumed with zeal, upset that his enemies had FORGOTTEN GOD’S WORD. David got excited over the purity of God’s Word!!! David fully understood that c hanging what God said is a woeful evil!

The psalmist called God’s Words, “

VERY PURE,

in Psalms 119:140. According to the American Bible Society, there are approximately [1]900 English Bibles today!

Sadly, Bob Jones University sanctions this mess!

The Devil is at work in Bob Jones University (BJU). I say that kindly, but on the authority of the Holy Scriptures! Here is the official Statement Of Faith on BJU from their website:

> “Bob Jones University holds to the verbal, plenary inspiration of the Bible in the original manuscripts and that God has supernaturally preserved His inspired words in the totality of extant manuscript evidence.
>
> The position of the University on biblical translations has not changed since the founding of the school in 1927. Although Bob Jones University does not hold to a King James Only position, and from the founder to the present administration, we have never taken the position that there can be only one good translation in the English language, we continue to use the King James Version (KJV) as the campus standard in the undergraduate classroom and chapel pulpit.” [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [2]BJU Statement Of Faith

There are some major problems and hypocrisies with the preceding BJU position:

1. There are no original manuscripts today, so if only the originals were inspired, then we don't have a perfect inspired Bible today ([3]which is what BJU teaches).
2. BJU says God has supernaturally preserved His inspired words in the TOTALITY OF THE EXTANT (existent) manuscripts. That means they sanction the heretical Greek of Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort (which is what the [4]Jehovah's Witnesses use).
3. Why would God supernaturally preserve His Words in [5]TWO different manuscripts, from two different ancient sources (Antioch, Syria and Alexandria, Egypt), which drastically disagree on some key passages?
4. The Alexandrian text attacks the deity of Jesus Christ in many key passages. Although only 2 % of manuscript text disagree, they affect key passages concerning the godhead and deity of Jesus.
5. What would be God's reason for preserving His inspired PURE WORDS in two differing texts which disagree? Since God is not the author of confusion, why would He supernaturally preserve His inspired PURE WORDS in [6]900 English Bible versions?
6. The man with two watches never knows what time it is. How can BJU claim that we have God's supernaturally preserved Words today, since we have more than one authority to choose from? God only authored ONE HOLY BIBLE!
7. BJU deceitfully claims that they haven't changed since 1927, but they have changed, by going along with the [7]ever-changing Bible-corrupting movement in America.
8. BJU again lies, claiming that there cannot be only one good translation in the English language, but there in fact can ONLY BE ONLY ONE correct Bible in any language! A translation is either right or wrong! Furthermore, BJU ignores the fact that they are sanctioning more than one ancient manuscript, which is impossible, because God only wrote ONE BOOK! BJU is straddling the fence!
9. By promoting [8]TWO AUTHORITIES, the apostate leaders and Bible professors at BJU prove they are indifferent and don't care about truth! Right doctrine matters! These new Bible versions in many cases [9]pervert the meaning of repentance.
10. ALL of the [10]modern Bible revisions corrupt Psalms 12:6-7, changing it from God preserves His PURE WORDS, to God protects His SAINTS instead. Why would they do this? The answer is obvious—because wicked men are tampering with God's promise to preserve His VERY PURE WORDS forever (Psalms 119:139-140).

It is a very serious offense to tamper with the inspired Word of God. What saith the Scripture? ...

Psalms 138:2, " I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name. "

Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever."

2nd John 1:11, " For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds. "

2nd Corinthians 2:17, " For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ."

Sadly, BJU laughs at the matter, shaking their fists at God in defiance. They couldn't care less, which tells me they don't fear God. Revelation 22:19, " And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book." To corrupt the Word of God is effectively the same as rejecting Jesus as one's Savior. That is why God warns in Revelation 22:19, that He will remove anyone's name from the Book of Life who tampers with His Word. Changing what God said is a woeful evil! BJU has blood on their hands, for promoting corruptible seed.

There Was Only The King James Bible Before 1881

The most important thing you need to realize dear reader, is that the whole reason Satan introduced a SECOND AUTHORITY in 1881 (the year Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort introduced their work: "The New Testament In The Original Greek") was to challenge GOD'S AUTHORITY! The serpent did this to Eve in Genesis 3:1, when he changed God's Word to say the exact opposite of what He had commanded Adam and Eve. Whereas God has told Eve she could eat freely of ALL THE TREES (except one) in Genesis 2:16-17; the serpent misquoted God as saying that Eve couldn't eat of ANY OF THE TREES. By subtly changing what God had said, the serpent deceived Eve, as he is deceiving millions of churchgoers today with counterfeit Bible versions.

What Bob Jones University and their alumni are really doing is STRADDLING THE FENCE. They don't want to get their hands dirty. They don't want to be laughed at, rejected, called unscholarly, made fun of, and ridiculed as a cult for taking a stand for the King James Bible. So as cowards they claim to use the King James Bible, while at the same time sanctioning and selling the corrupt Alexandrian revisions. God said He vomits out LUKEWARM believers in Revelation 3:15-16. Why, Oh why, doesn't Bob Jones College and their graduates care about the purity of God's Word? By bidding Godspeed to the Devil's corrupt Bible versions, BJU are partaker of Satan's evil deeds.

Satan Set A Precedent To CHANGE God's Word

You need to realize friend, that the horrible precedent of CHANGING THE BIBLE was established in the year 1881. Faithful Christians have a faithful unchanging Bible (Matthew 24:35), authored by a faithful unchanging God (Malachi 3:6; Hebrews 13:8)! The modern Bible revisions keep changing!!! I just read in the news about a new Bible coming out this year called, the '[11]Literal Standard Version' (LSV). As if that's not bad enough, [12]Christianity Today (CT) magazine is calling for another Bible revision!!! Where does this insanity stop? Bob Jones University sanctions all this mess, because they just don't care, A.W.O.L. from what Pastor Jack Hyles rightly called: '[13]The Battle Of The Ages.' They are serving mammon instead of God (Luke 16:13). I say that, to their shame, with all humility as a servant of God.

The truth is that Bob Jones University doesn't want to fight the good fight of faith. They don't want to suffer persecution for the cause of Jesus Christ. They don't want to be put outside the gate with Jesus. They simply don't care about the purity of God's inspired Words. No one who sanctions all of the EXTANT (existent) manuscripts of the Bible cares about the purity of the Word of God, because they all say something different. [14]If you don't believe me, take a look at 1st Timothy 3:16.

I Am Banned From Attending Harvest Baptist Church On Guam

I tremendously love the folks at Harvest Baptist Church (HBC) on Guam, whose pastors drove me out of their church in 2014 for [15]telling the truth. Their pastors have also banned me from returning. In 2017 I humbly requested permission 3 times to return, but they cruelly told me to "Go elsewhere!" What was my great offense? I simply raised a King James Bible only flag! The straw that broke the camel's back was when I handed a hardcopy of Pastor Al Lacy's excellent truthful book called, "

[16]NIV: The Antichrist's Bible!

I love the pastors at Harvest (God knows my heart), and have a strong burden from God to help them see the truth, as a good friend does, but they are ungodly hard-hearted men (just like BJU).

Ironically, Evangelist Tom Ferrell said those very words from behind the pulpit at HBC

—“A FRIEND HELPS A FRIEND TO SEE!” They talk the talk, but they don’t walk the walk at Harvest. When I kindly showed them THE TRUTH, that the Devil has corrupted the modern Bible versions, and that [17]Pastor John MacArthur is preaching a false gospel of Calvinism, I was counted as their enemy at Harvest. Woe be unto Harvest Baptist Church when they stand before the Lord at the Judgment Seat of Christ, for both rejecting the truth and rejecting their brother who told the truth!!! I feel sorry for the people, who are as sheep, being misled to believe lies.

Dear reader, I am not bitter at these people, I am frustrated that they don’t care. I am hurt that they despise and shun me away for being their friend, for sincerely trying to help them, for loving them unconditionally with God’s love. Tragically, they are sinfully indifferent. I am frustrated that right doctrine doesn’t matter to the Bob Jones crowd. The modern Bible revisions, in hundreds of places, alter theological doctrine in the churches. For example: 1st Corinthians 1:18 in the King James Bible says that believers “

but many of the modern revisions change it to

“

[18]ARE BEING SAVED,

which conveys an entirely different meaning to the reader. Words form sentences, which convey meaning, that shape doctrine. Another example is the removal of the great theological word [19]imputation.

” It truly DOES MATTER which Bible we use! Harvest Baptist Church on Guam sadly doesn’t care—they don’t care about the purity of God’s Word, they don’t care about the accuracy of the Gospel, and they don’t care about a hurting sinner like me!!!

Don’t Touch The Word Of God

Harvest Baptist Church helps orphans at their church. I tell you truthfully, God would rather see a billion babies die from starvation, than to see one Bible verse corrupted! I know that is true! God killed a man just for touching the Ark Of God, who was simply trying to steady the Ark as it wobbled, to prevent it from toppling over. The lesson is very clear in this true Bible story—DON’T TOUCH THE WORD OF GOD!!!

> 2nd Samuel 6:6-7, “
>
> And when they came to Nachon’s threshingfloor, Uzzah put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen shook it.
>
> And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and God smote him there for his error; and there he died by the ark of God.
> **”

Yet, BJU and their graduates laugh at this matter. I’ve had Harvest laugh in my face! This whole ordeal over the Bible is a humorous joke to them, but I promise you that their arrogance will come to an end, when they stand before God someday. What seems so funny to them now, will bring them woeful tears of sorrow and regret in eternity, when they learn that I was right about the corrupt modern Bible revisions (which they promote), and they were wrong! They are helping Satan, and one day they will realize this fact TO THEIR HORROR! God does not reward a believer who labors unlawfully! God does not reward men and women who pull on the same rope as the Devil!!!

> “What He at first inspired, the Lord God has now preserved. Therefore, when I hold the King James Bible in my hand, I hold the inspired text. It was inspired and now that inspired Word has been protected, preserved and provided for us!" —Dr. Shelton Smith

1.2.18 God Pity Preachers Who Make Light Of Truth (2020-04-05 00:28)

Psalms 119:139-141, " My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words. Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it. I am small and despised: yet do not I forget thy precepts."

God pity preachers who make light of corrupt

Bible versions and the Lordship Salvation Heresy! These evils need to be refuted and exposed!!! If God's men in the pulpit don't do it, then prey tell me who will? If not us, who? If not here, where? If not now, when?

I have been openly criticized by some foolish pastors, who have accused me of being "OBSESSED WITH THE BIBLE ISSUE DEBATE." You better believe I'm OBSESSED about the Word of God!!!

My friend, something is VERY WRONG with any preacher who is not obsessed about Satan's crowd tampering with the incorruptible Word of God. 1st Peter 1:23, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever." I can understand a church laymen not getting upset, because he is unlearned in many cases and doesn't grasp the seriousness of the matter.

Satan First Appeared Under The Tree Of Knowledge

Beware of false knowledge, it is more dangerous than ignorance. Proverbs 26:12, " Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him." The Modern Bible revisions are false knowledge!!! Little by little, the Devil has incrementally been changing the Word of God from one generation to the next, removing the ancient landmark of the inspired Word of God. Case in point is the brand new '[1]Literal Standard Version' (LSV) that just came out in 2020, and as if that weren't bad enough, 'Christianity Today' (CT) magazine [2]says we need another Bible translation! Really? Aren't [3]900 English Bible translations enough? I guess not!

Dear friend, I was sinfully driven out of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014 (and have been banned from returning since) by their pastors, [4]for telling THE TRUTH that the New International Version (NIV) is the Antichrist's version! I forgive them but God will deal with them, for betraying the inspired Word of God and shunning away a Christian brother who did the honorable things by trying to help them see. I love them, but they don't love God or truth at Harvest, to their shame. I say that with sadness and prayers for their deliverance! I have perfect peace in this matter, knowing that God is on my side. Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. "

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was a true man of God, who discerned what the Devil is doing by incrementally tampering with God's Word, gradually changing the truth into a lie...

> "Now you say, 'Brother Hyles, you make an issue.' You dead sure better know I'll make an issue!" —'[5]BATTLE OF THE AGES' (MP3, Dr. Jack Hyles, "The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!")

Please consider ladies and gentleman, that the first appearance of Satan in the Holy Bible was in the form of a serpent, sly and cunning, who cast doubt upon God's words. The serpent first appeared under the TREE OF KNOWLEDGE! Genesis 3:1, "Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?" Please notice carefully that Satan placed a question mark where God had placed a period! Genesis 2:16-17, "And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die." The downfall of Eve began when Satan influenced her to question the authority of God's Word.

The serpent was able to confuse Eve, simply by raising up a SECOND AUTHORITY! That is why the Devil has published more Bibles—to raise up a SECOND AUTHORITY—to challenge the FIRST AUTHORITY (i.e., the inspired Word of God). Anytime that TWO AUTHORITIES exist, a THIRD AUTHORITY is required to determine which of the first two is correct. Hence, enter into the boxing ring modern manmade scholarship! We've got a bunch of stupid pastors today, who are as wicked (filled with pride) as the Devil, who couldn't care less about the purity of God's Word!

Whereas the faithful King James Bible still says: "THUS SAITH THE LORD!"; the modern perverse [6]Alexandrian-based Bible versions say: "HATH GOD SAID?" It is wickedness!!! Does your church pastor support the Devil's Bible revisions? Thank God for faithful men of God like Pastor Al Lacy (1933-2016), who rightly said:

"Those are Devil's Bibles!" —[7]Pastor Al Lacy

You Better Believe I’m Obsessed Over The Holy Bible!

You better believe that I am “obsessed” with the Bible issue debate. It’s too bad that Bob Jones University is sitting idle, neutral in the work of God, letting people like me do all the work! SHAME ON BOB JONES UNIVERSITY AND THEIR LUKEWARM GRADUATES!!! I promise you that they will hang their heads in utter shame at the Judgment Seat of Christ. I guarantee you that the only reward most BJU graduates (those who are idle in the battle for the inspiration of God’s Word), will ever receive, is their earthly paycheck! The ministry is merely a means (a job) to support themselves. This is why Jesus sternly warned His disciples in Luke 16:13, “No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.” To the same degree that a preacher depends upon his salary instead of God, he will compromise his stand for THE TRUTH.

> “One reason sin flourishes is that it is treated like a cream puff instead of a rattlesnake.” —Billy Sunday

I cannot warn everyone enough about the dangers of the modern Bible perversions. The big Satanic lie is that people need a Bible that is easier to understand. This is how the Devil has tricked them into accepting the corrupt

1881 Greek text of Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort? By the way, THIS IS THE SAME GREEK TEXT THAT THE JEHOVAH’S WITNESSES CULT USE IN THEIR DEMONIC ’NEW WORLD TRANSLATION’! Of course JW’s love the Greek text produced by Westcott and Hort, because it attacks Jesus’ deity, and JW’s don’t believe that Jesus Christ is almighty God!!! That speaks volumes as to the Luciferian agenda behind the Bible revision craze. Wake up Christian people! Is your pastor complicit? If he uses, sells or supports the modern Bible versions, yes, he is definitely complicit. 2nd John 1:11, “

For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.

> “They tell me that I rub the fur the wrong way. I don’t; let the cat turn around.” —Billy Sunday

Any pastor who sanctions, uses or promotes the Devil’s corruptible seed is God’s enemy! Jeremiah 12:10, “Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.” Why is it that Pastor Al Lacy and Dr. Jack Hyles were able to see THE TRUTH behind the Devil’s modern Bible revisions, but most pastors and churches today don’t? I believe it is because most people don’t ever learn to think for themselves! “

Love is thinking,

” Dr. Hyles says. I like that! It means that if you love someone, you’re going to think about them, and think about ways you can express that love for them. Most clergy merely collect a paycheck, thinking about money instead of the things of God. The Bible warns us about religious phonies in the churches, about people “Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof”; admonishing all believers, “from such turn away” (2nd Timothy 3:5).

Warning: Bridge Out Ahead!

I cannot think of anyone more phony than the modern Bible crowd! They sit in church surrounded by literally DOZENS of different conflicting Bible revisions, going along with that folly because their incompetent pastors do! It is apostasy!!! Brooke Westcott openly denied the infallibility of the Scriptures (sounds like Biblica, the producers of the New International Version, aka, NIV)...

> May 5th, 1860 - Westcott to Hort: “at present I find the presumption in favour of the absolute truth - I reject the word infallibility - of Holy Scripture overwhelming.” (Life, Volume I, page 207).
> — [8]Westcott and Hort: From Their Own Mouths

That speaks volumes as to the “HATH GOD SAID?” satanic spirit behind the Bible revision craze. Just as the serpent beguiled Eve by leading her to question God’s final authority, so also do modern ungodly scholars (many of whom have only honorary degrees that are worthless) sinfully question the infallibility of the Scriptures. God said what He meant, and meant what He said!

The following is a classic example of how ALL the modern Bible versions GO AGAINST the inspired King James Bible. Take a look at how the new perversions all change God’s promise in Psalms 12:6-7 to preserve His very pure words unto every generation. Here’s a comparison of Psalms 12:6-7—God’s promise to preserve His pure Words unto every generation—Look how all of these new satanic Bible versions totally butcher, change and remove God’s PROMISE to preserve His Words. Instead of preserving God’s very pure words, all the new versions change it to say that God preserves the saints instead...

King James Bible (KJB)

Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever."

The Common English Bible (CEB)

Psalms 12:6-7, "The LORD’s promises are pure, like silver that’s been refined in an oven, purified seven times over! You, LORD, will keep us, protecting us from this generation forever."

The Complete Jewish Bible (CJB)

Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of ADONAI are pure words, silver in a melting-pot set in the earth, refined and purified seven times over. You, ADONAI, protect us; guard us forever from this generation."

The Message Bible (MSG)

Psalm 12:6-7, "God's words are pure words, Pure silver words refined seven times In the fires of his word-kiln, Pure on earth as well as in heaven. God, keep us safe from their lies, From the wicked who stalk us with lies."

Good News Translation (GNT)

Psalm 12:6-7, "The wicked are everywhere, and everyone praises what is evil. Keep us always safe, O Lord, and preserve us from such people."

...AND ON THEY GO, THE NEW VERSIONS JUST KEEP COMING TO CORRUPT THE CHURCHES!!!

READ MORE: [9]The Ugly Truth About Today's Bible Versions

My, Oh my, what a wicked thing! What a bunch of lying deceivers!!! They've changed the inspired Words of God to justify butchering and selling the Bible. If God only wrote one book, then there would be no justification to publish hundreds of new versions. As the old adage goes... Follow the money! What does your Bible read in Psalms 12:6-7??? Does it maintain God's PROMISE to preserve His pure words unto every generation, or does it say that he will protect the believer from the wicked? Clearly, God doesn't always protect believers from the wicked, which is why they were fed to the lions in Rome!!! Still today, Christians are being murdered in the Middle East, North Korea, and other dictatorships and Communist nations without God.

1st John 4:1,

Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

The Greatest Danger Of The New Bible Versions

I am gladly “obsessed” with the Bible issue debate, and brother I plan to stay obsessed too!

> “Now you say, ’Brother Hyles, you make an issue.’ You dead sure better know I’ll make an issue!”
>
> —’[10]BATTLE OF THE AGES’ (MP3, Dr. Jack Hyles, “The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!”)

I have also been accused by shallow pastors and religious people, of “going way overboard” on my websites about Lordship Salvation. I tell you, I haven’t even got started yet by God’s grace! The heresy of Lordship Salvation is straight from the depths of Satan. What is “Lordship Salvation.” It is the false teaching that admitting you are a sinner, and by faith receiving Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, and trusting upon the risen Savior from the dead, is NOT ENOUGH to save you.

According to Lordship Salvation advocates, a person MUST also receive Christ as the “Lord” of their life, making a full surrender to Jesus’ Lordship to follow and serve Him, and to turn away from a lifestyle of sinful behavior as “proof” of this commitment. The latter is very close to what the cults all teach. [11]Search my ministry websites and you will find numerous articles on this subject. Seventh-day Adventists, Mormons, Jehovah’s Witnesses and even Roman Catholics ALL teach that repentance means turning away from your sinful bad habits to be saved. NONE of these things comprise “[12]The Gospel” as taught in the Scriptures in 1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

> “The backslider likes the preaching that wouldn’t hit the side of a house, while the real disciple is delighted when the truth brings him to his knees.” —Billy Sunday

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

> John 15:22, “If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin.”

God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved.

> “A man doesn’t get better to get saved; he gets saved to get better.”
>
> —Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), a quote from the excellent sermon, “[13]Salvation Crystal Clear.”

Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross.

[14]The Incompatibility Of False Teaching On Repentance With The Gospel Of Grace

In Brother Tom Stegall's book, "Must Faith Endure," he correctly states:

> However, many today misunderstand this marvelous truth and say in effect, "Yes, Christ can save you, but your faith must keep holding on to Christ in order for you to reach heaven." According to this approach, Christ really doesn't save a person; they save themselves. With this approach, a person is not really saved by faith in Christ, but ultimately by faith in their faith, as they think it is their "faithfulness" to Christ which will ultimately bring them eternal life. The great Bible teacher of the past, Harry Ironside, addressed this very problem as he answered the objection: "But must I not hold on to the end if I would be saved at last?"

So I will gladly concede that I am "obsessed" over wicked people tampering with the Holy Bible; and I have "gone way overboard" (on purpose) to expose the satanic lies of Lordship Salvation. These two evils—corrupt Bible versions and the false gospel of Lordship Salvation—are damning hundreds of millions of souls to the Lake of Fire!!!

1.2.19 Jesus' Blood Is Sprinkled On The Mercy Seat In Heaven (2020-04-05 02:02)

Hebrews 9:12, "Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us."

There is no greater truth in the inspired Word of God, than that the literal precious blood of Jesus is sprinkled on the Mercy Seat in Heaven! Hebrews 12:24, "

And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. " Abel killed a lamb and offered up a blood sacrifice to God, demonstrating his faith in the coming LAMB OF GOD! The Scripture we just read says that the sprinkling of Jesus' blood "

SPEAKETH BETTER THINGS THAN THAT OF ABEL.

" The reason why is because Jesus' blood once and for all took away our sins!!!

Hebrews 9:24-26, "For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us: Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others; For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself."

Could the Bible be any plainer that Jesus appeared directly in the PRESENCE OF GOD THE FATHER, on our behalf, to put away our sins? I think not! If the blood hadn't been sprinkled upon the heavenly Mercy Seat, then there could be NO REDEMPTION!!!

John 20:17 Corrupts The Blood In The Modern Bible Revisions

That is why I make such a big fuss over the modern Bible revisions which ALL CORRUPT John 20:17, "Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God." Had Mary Magdalene touched our dear Savior, she would have corrupted Christ's blood sacrifice! Jesus exclaimed: "TOUCH ME NOT; FOR I AM NOT YET ASCENDED TO MY FATHER"! As we just read in Hebrews 9:12 and 24-26, Jesus entered into the HOLY PLACE in Heaven, and sprinkled His literal liquid blood upon the MERCY SEAT in the presence of God the Father.

“Those are Devil’s Bibles!”

—[1]Pastor Al Lacy

This is a fundamental Bible doctrine. Before Jesus sprinkled His blood (Hebrews 12:24) on the heavenly Mercy Seat, He could not be touched, lest the blood sacrifice be tainted and ruined. This is why the Lord warned Mary Magdalene NOT TO TOUCH HIM after He resurrected the third day...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — John 20:17, “Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.” [emphasis added]

Now read what the wicked Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) says:

> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — John 20:17, “Jesus said to her, “You don’t need to hold on to me! I have not yet gone back up to the Father. But go to my followers and tell them this: ‘I am going back to my Father and your Father. I am going back to my God and your God.”’ [emphasis added]

Now read what the wicked New International Version (NIV) says:

NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION (NIV) — John 20:17, “Jesus said, Do not hold on to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father. Go instead to my brothers and tell them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.”’

If there is any doubt of what I say, check out “[2]THE GOSPEL OF JOHN” movie, in which Mary Magdalene grabs onto Jesus’ hand, and then He rebukes her, telling her “DO NOT HOLD ON TO ME.” That is not what the King James Bible says! The Bible says: “TOUCH ME NOT”! That is blasphemy! Mary absolutely could not have touched Jesus until he went to the Father first, to sprinkle His literal physical blood upon the sacred Mercy Seat, to appease the wrath of God against sinners (Hebrews 9:22-24). The Bible is very clear throughout the book of Hebrews, that Christ’s blood needed to be applied to the heavenly Mercy Seat, located in the Holy Place within the innermost courtyard of the tabernacle in Heaven. Jesus Christ is our heavenly “

High Priest

(Hebrews 4:14-16), our heavenly Intercessor (Romans 8:34).

Here we have seen just one of literally THOUSANDS of subtle changes to the inspired Words of God in the modern Bible versions. Don’t let Satan fool you! Revelation 12:9, “And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.” The Devil is deceiving everyone with counterfeit Bible versions—which distort the image of Christ, corrupt the meaning of repentance and salvation, and lead people away from the doctrine of Christ by secularizing the Bible! Satan is behind it all!

Eeny, meeny, miny, moe!

Beware Of Devil-Dog Preacher, John MacArthur!

One of the most dangerous ministers, theologically, is Pastor John F. MacArthur. I fully agree with Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), who said this about Mr. MacArthur:

> "You say, 'What's wrong with John MacArthur? [4]John MacArthur said, that the blood of Jesus maybe in the ground at the foot of Calvary.' I've got news JOHNNY—the blood of Jesus Christ is on the Mercy Seat in Heaven, where Jesus sprinkled it as my High Priest; and if it's not there I have no hope for Heaven and neither do you!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[5]She Sojourned Seven Years"

I thank God for faithful preachers like Dr. Hyles, who aren't afraid to call names of false prophets, and take a stand for THE TRUTH of God's Word. Praise God for the unchanging eternal Words of God in the inspired King James Bible!!! Hebrews 13:8, "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever." Luke 21:33, " Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away." That is what saith the Scripture!!!

Everybody likes John MacArthur, which is why he is so deadly to the religious world! I admit that I like Mr. MacArthur's style, wit, toughness and faithfulness to his own work; yet, he is guilty of preaching the heresy of Calvinism (a false Gospel), denying the efficacy of Jesus' blood sacrifice, and promoting the corruptible seed of the modern Bible revisions! The Bible forbids us to bid Godspeed to false teachers, lest we be guilty of partaking of their evil deeds.

> "The wrong crowd's composed of nice guys!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[6]She Sojourned Seven Years"

2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

> "Now you listen to me folks! We're living in a world of compromising Christianity. I call it—'The yuppie generation building yuppie churches!' Brother, we need the old-time Gospel, the old-time religion, the faith of our fathers, and the standards that America used to have!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, " [8]She Sojourned Seven Years "

1.2.20 You Don't Know What To Pray For And Neither Do I (2020-04-05 03:00)

Romans 8:26-28, " Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to His purpose. "

Prayer is asking!

The Word of God boldly teaches that we do NOT know what to ask God for. That is an amazing truth to me! WE KNOW NOT WHAT WE SHOULD PRAY FOR AS WE OUGHT!!! You would think that as believers, we would know what to ask God for, since we have the Scriptures to guide us. 1st Corinthians 2:16, "For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

” Why is it that even though ’WE HAVE THE MIND OF CHRIST,’ we still ’ KNOW NOT WHAT WE SHOULD PRAY FOR AS WE OUGHT’?

I believe the answer is simply because we do not know our future. We can know what God’s written will is in any particular known situation, in the recorded pages of God’s inspired Word; but we cannot know God’s will regarding our unknown future; therefore, we have to trust God. We do not know the future, but we can know HE WHO HOLDS THE FUTURE!!! [1]Pastor Max Younce has authored a wonderful book on this very topic: ’[2]I KNOW WHO HOLDS TOMORROW’ (free .PDF online version).

This is why we are taught in Proverbs 3:5-7, “Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.” We are not supposed to lean upon our own understanding, simply because we cannot understand everything, nor does God expect us to. This is why we are PROMISED the peace of God ’WHICH PASSETH ALL UNDERSTANDING’ through prayer...

> Philippians 4:6-7, “Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.
>
> And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.”

What a comforting Bible passage! There is a peace of God within understanding (which I much rather prefer); but then there is a peace of God which is beyond ALL HUMAN UNDERSTANDING. I admit that I don’t like living BY FAITH when everything is going wrong in my life; anymore than the children of Israel liked being hot, hungry and horrified by what they experienced in the unforgiving desert Wilderness!!! Albeit, I rejoice in knowing that God is pleased by my faith, because I love the Lord and want Him to be pleased with me (as much as I mess up).

Living by faith means trusting God when bad things happen, when life goes wrong, when we just want to throw in the towel and quit! When there’s no more income coming in, and you don’t know how you’re going to pay your bills or survive, that is when you’re faith is really put to the test! God has promised to take care of us. We may not have what we want in life, but God will provide for our basic needs.

1st Timothy 6:6-8, “ But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment let us be therewith content.”

The Holy Spirit Is Literally Our Prayer Partner

In Pastor Jack Hyles’ excellent book titled: ’[3]MEET THE HOLY SPIRIT,’ [4]chapter 6, he teaches:

> Two of the most important things that the young Christian has to learn are (1) how to get things from God, and (2) how to share with others and give to others what God gives.
>
> It should be remembered that in the Bible, prayer is asking. Prayer is not praise; it is asking. Prayer is not thanksgiving; it is asking. Prayer is not adoration; it is asking. This discussion will deal with the Holy Spirit, our prayer partner, Who joins with us in our prayer life.

1. The Holy Spirit intercedes with us. Romans 8:26, “Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit Itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered." The word "intercession" in verse 26 is not the same word that is translated " intercession

in verse 27. In verse 26 the word means that the Holy Spirit goes WITH us to the Father to help us plead for our needs and, yes, for our wants. There are several aspects:

1. I don't know what I need.
2. The Holy Spirit DOES know what I need.
3. I go to Him, that is, the Holy Spirit, to find my needs.
4. He tells me what my needs are.
5. I make a list of the things He reminds me.
6. I then go to the Father.
7. He goes with me.

2. The Holy Spirit intercedes for us concerning things for which we do not ask.

SOURCE: Dr. Jack Hyles, 'Meet The Holy Spirit,' [5]Chapter 6.

The most important thing is that we **"

PRAY WITHOUT CEASING

" (1st Thessalonians 5:17). Those are perhaps the THREE most powerful, yet overlooked words in the Word of God. Prayer is asking. Prayer is depending upon God. Prayer evidences to God that we cannot make it on our own. James 4:6,

"But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

" God always hears the righteous when we pray. 1st Peter 3:12,

For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil. " If you are saved and right with God, you have God's PROMISE that He is listening to your prayers! By right with God,

I mean that you have confessed your sins to God as a believer, and are making an effort with His help to live for God (1st John 1:9). You’ll never be perfect, but God sees your heart, if you’re trying to love others and do right.

Prayer works, one way or the other, prayer works.

You’re never wasting your time when you pray!

You may feel like you’re wasting your time, like I often do, but I am not supposed to live BY SIGHT, which is what we are doing when we look for results. 1st Corinthians 5:7, “(For we walk by faith, not by sight:) ” I just go ahead and PRAY ANYWAY, and trust God. Listen to me dear reader —prayer is far more a matter of living by faith, than it is merely getting things from God! I have lived long enough as a Christian to learn that God’s normal M.O. (Method of Operation), is to make us feel like He’s ignoring us (Luke 18:1-8), but He then works behind the scenes in a way that we cannot perceive (Hebrews 11:27).

1.2.21 Roman Catholicism Versus The Holy Bible (2020-04-05 08:00)

Exodus 20:4-5, “ Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God... ”

I’m amazed how many Catholics send me letters, telling me that I don’t understand the Catholic religion. On the contrary, they don’t understand the inspired Word of God, and evidently don’t want to. Satan has so effectively blinded Catholics, that they even bow down to statues while denying they are committing idolatry. Look at the picture below...

This victim of Catholicism is bowing to a statue of Our Lady of Fatima—[2]a hoax started in the early 20th century. I say this on the authority of the Holy Scriptures! To bow to any graven thing is the SIN OF IDOLATRY! How did this idolatrous TRADITION of worshipping statues of Our Lady Of Fatima begin? Allegedly, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared in six apparitions (ghostly appearances) to a group of three teenagers in Fatima, Portugal between May 13 and October 13, 1917. According to [3]Fatima.org ...

> "At Fatima Our Lady said that God wished to establish in the world devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Our Lady said that many souls would be saved from Hell and the annihilation of nations averted if, in time, devotion to Her Immaculate Heart were established..."

The Holy Bible never mentions the “Immaculate Heart of Mary.”

In fact, the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception of the Virgin Mary DIDN’T exist until 1834 when it was first proclaimed by Pope Pius IX. In contrast, the Bible states that all mankind, with the sole exception of Christ, are sinners. Mary herself had need of a Savior (Romans 3:23; 5:12; Psalm 51:5; Luke 1:30,46,47). We are all needy sinners! Mary exclaimed in Luke 1:47, “

And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

” It is sinful to place confidence in man (the Pope), over God. Psalm 118:8, “

It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man.

” Who is the Pope to create new doctrines, which are nothing more than the traditions of men? Jesus strongly condemned such traditions...

> “Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men ...Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition ...Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye” (Mark 7-9, 13).

Did you read that? Read it again, please! Jesus said that ’THE TRADITIONS OF MEN’ MAKE THE WORD OF GOD OF NONE EFFECT. In other words, you can’t place your trust in men and God at the same time—it’s one or the other. Are you going to trust what the Catholic Church (men) have to say, or are you going to trust the eternally inspired Word of God? The King James Bible gives us some stern advice in Romans 3:4, “God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar...” Carefully notice the words, **“

every man a liar. ”

That includes the Pope! That includes myself as well, if I teach anything contrary to the Holy Scriptures!!!

So kindly said, why do Catholics keep sending me letters, claiming that I don't understand their MANMADE religion? It is Catholics who refuse to see the light of God's Word—that their entire religion is composed of the traditions of men.

Catholics Have Removed God's Second Of The Ten Commandments

You couldn't make this stuff up! To facilitate their sin of idol worship, Roman Catholics just decided to pervert the Scriptures themselves, changing the truth into a lie (Romans 1:25). Here are the Ten Commandment as presented at [4]BeginningCatholic.com. Carefully notice that they have REMOVED the 2nd commandment forbidding idol worship, but they have deceitfully split the 10th Commandment not to COVET into TWO Commandments! ...

Here are the Catholic Ten Commandments:

1. I am the LORD your God. You shall worship the Lord your God and Him only shall you serve.
2. You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.
3. Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day.
4. Honor your father and your mother.
5. You shall not kill.
6. You shall not commit adultery.
7. You shall not steal.
8. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
9. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife.
10. You shall not covet your neighbor's goods.

SOURCE: [5]BeginningCatholic.com

Now here are the TEN COMMANDMENTS from the inspired King James Bible, as seen in this Old Testament passage from Exodus 20:1-17...

1 And God spake all these words, saying,

2 I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

3 Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

4 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

5 Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;

6 And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

7 Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

8 Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

9 Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work:

10 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

11 For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

12 Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

13 Thou shalt not kill.

14 Thou shalt not commit adultery.

15 Thou shalt not steal.

16 Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

17 Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

Do you see how deceptive Catholics are being? I love everyone dear reader, including deceived Catholics. It is in our depraved human nature to defend ourselves when wrong, even when ABSOLUTELY WRONG! I please with you to RUN AWAY from the Catholic church!

1.2.22 Recovering Lives Out Of The Snare Of The Devil (2020-04-05 15:00)

2nd Timothy 2:23-26 "

But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes. And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient,

In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will."

The world needs Jesus Christ! I intentionally avoid listening to too much news, because it is horrifying nowadays. I am shocked by some of the disturbing reports I hear and see in the daily news. People are losing their minds these days, murdering their own loved ones, sometimes over a video game or arguing over sports. I don't like listening to the news, filling my mind with all that negative junk.

I agree with Pastor Jeff Owens' wisdom, who says:

“

Don’t watch too much news. Watch enough, that you know what’s going on; but not so much, that it depresses and panics you!

Pastor Jeff Owens,

“ [1]A Biblical Response To The Coronavirus ”

Our text verse is interesting, it doesn’t tell us to recover people from the snare of the Devil; but rather, it says “THAT THEY MAY RECOVER THEMSELVES”!!! 2nd Timothy 2:25b-26 “ peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.” Please notice the word REPENTANCE! Spirit-filled, doctrinally-sound, Bible-preaching, produces REPENTANCE!!! The truth is that we cannot rescue someone who doesn’t want to be rescued! We should still try, amen!

You Can Hear The Gospel Your Whole Life, But Still Go To Hell

There are tens of millions of unsaved people in the world today, who could recite God’s plan of salvation back to you accurately, but they don’t believe nor want it! The Jews who wandered in the Wilderness for 40 long miserable years, heard Moses preach the Gospel regularly to them, “but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it” (Hebrews 4:2). Literally, they could have told you how to get saved, even though they were going to Hell forever in their own unbelief. Go figure!

That is why we hear some false ministers, like [2]Charismatic televangelist Benny Hinn (talk about being “snared” by the Devil), preach a variation of the Gospel, yet he doesn’t believe a word of it himself. I’ve actually heard Benny get it right at times, and horrible wrong at other times, like most false prophets. The most effective deception is the HALF-TRUTH, because the part of the lie that is true can be defended with incontestable logic. If you listen to Benny preach, he says different things to different audiences, to get their money. When he preaches to Catholics, [3]Benny praises our Lady Of Fatima. 2nd Peter 2:1a and 3, "

But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you... And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not."

The people who come to hear Benny don't want salvation, they want an experience, entertainment, a thrill, physical healing or to see a miracle. Jesus had large crowds follow Him seeking the same.

John 6:2, " And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased." Of course, Benny has been proven to be a healing fake by an [4]NBC Dateline investigation. Benny Hinn never heals anybody! Benny is a con man! My point is that, like the Jews in the Wilderness for 40 years, you can hear the Gospel all your life, even be able to repeat it to someone else, and yet not believe a word of it personally and go to Hell forever! The Devil is a beautiful liar!!!

> "The world's greatest need is preaching preachers. The Gospel is our emancipation proclamation: let's take it to the slaves of sin." —Evangelist Lester Roloff (1914-1982)

God's Grace Can Save The Worst Sinner

I am totally against this new heretical so-called '[5]REPROBATE DOCTRINE' being taught in some churches today, which says God gives up on some hardened sinners, refusing to let them get saved even if they want to. That is not what the Word of God teaches! The Bible says in 2nd Peter 3:9b that the Lord is "not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

" The same sun that melts the wax, hardens the clay! And the same Gospel truth that produces repentance in one man, hardens the heart of another!

It is not our place as redeemed sinners to decide who is beyond the reach of God's merciful grace. We are commanded to, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature" (Mark 16:15). Notice that the Bible says: "EVERY CREATURE"! That certainly includes the homosexual community, because they are people for whom Jesus Christ died on the cross. "EVERY CREATURE" includes you and me friend. "EVERY CREATURE" includes this man below, for whom Christ died on the cross, to pay for his sins. God loves people! ...

Acts 26:18, “ To open their eyes, and*to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God*, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. ”

Most people in this world are presently BLINDED by the Devil, kept from seeing The Gospel, lest they be gloriously saved (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4). Satan blinds people with the LIES of Roman Catholicism, offering them religion without the new spiritual birth in Christ Jesus. Satan blinds children with the LIES of evolution, indoctrinating them that there is no Creator, and they somehow mysteriously evolved from a ’BIG BANG’ 13 billion years ago. Satan blinds people from the Gospel with the LIES of counterfeit Bible versions, which change the plan of salvation from one of free grace to one of turning away from a life of sin to be saved.

> “There is power in this Gospel message. Most people just don’t know how to present it... The clarity of the Gospel is what makes it easy for them to believe.” —Pastor Ralph “Yankee” Arnold, a quote from the excellent MP3 sermon titled, “[7]WHY GRACE CAN SAVE THE WORST MAN!”

Oh dear friend, God desires to save you, and has a definite purpose and plan for your life, if you want it! You can have it all for FREE, right NOW, simply by coming to God as a needy sinner, and by faith (rely, trust) receive Jesus’ sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, and miraculously resurrected bodily from the dead three days later. This is ’[8]THE GOSPEL’ (meaning, ’GOOD NEWS’) by which you are saved IF YOU BELIEVE (1st Corinthians 15:1-4; Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 1:21; John 6:47; 11:25).

1.2.23 A Grave Danger In The Modern Bible Revisions (2020-04-05 20:37)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, “

For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

It is a very serious matter to tamper with the inspired words of God. In this article I am gong to compare several modern Bible passages, to show you how deadly they are for baby believers today. For someone who grew up with the King James Bible, they often don’t see the threat of the newer modern revisions, because they are already doctrinally sound. But for someone who has never seen a King James Bible, and all they have are the newer PERversions, they will NEVER be doctrinally sound in the faith. How can they be, since they don’t have an accurate Bible?

Let’s examine and compare Mark 1:15 from several Bible revisions, starting with the accurate King James Bible. Carefully notice how the ungodly translators have CHANGED repentance from “ a change of mind

(the Greek meaning), to “changing your hearts and lives”

KING JAMES VERSIONS (KJV) - Mark 1:15, “And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.”

COMMON ENGLISH BIBLE (CEB) - Mark 1:15, “saying, ’Now is the time! Here comes God’s kingdom! Change your hearts and lives, and trust this good news!”’

EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) - Mark 1:15, “He said, ’The right time is now here. God’s kingdom is very near. Change your hearts and lives, and believe the Good News!”’

EXPANDED BIBLE (EXB) - Mark 1:15, “He said, ’The ·right time has come [L time is fulfilled]. ·The kingdom of God [God’s sovereign rule] is ·near [at hand]. ·Change your hearts and lives [Turn from your sins; Repent] and believe the ·Good News [Gospel]!”’

NEW CENTURY VERSION (NCV) - Mark 1:15, “He said, ’The right time has come. The kingdom of God is near. Change your hearts and lives and believe the Good News!”’

GOD’S WORD TRANSLATION (GW) - Mark 1:15, “He said, ’The time has come, and God’s kingdom is near. Change the way you think and act, and believe the Good News.”’

> THE LIVING BIBLE (TLB) - Mark 1:15, "'At last the time has come!' he announced. 'God's Kingdom is near! Turn from your sins and act on this glorious news!"'

The Amplified Bible (which Evangelist Ray Comfort used to write his popular Bible commentary titled, 'THE EVIDENCE BIBLE') gets really creative...

> AMPLIFIED BIBLE (AMP) - Mark 1:15, "and saying, "The [appointed period of] time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent [change your inner self—your old way of thinking, regret past sins, live your life in a way that proves repentance; seek God's purpose for your life] and believe [with a deep, abiding trust] in the good news [regarding salvation]."'

Dear reader, most of that has nothing to do with Biblical repentance! The Amplified Bible defines 'repentance' as FIVE THINGS:

1. Change your inner self (incorrect)
2. Change your old way of thinking (correct)
3. Regret your past sins (incorrect)
4. Live your life in a way that proves repentance (incorrect)
5. Seek God's purpose for your life (incorrect)

Ladies and gentleman, what you have just read from Mark 1:15 in The Amplified Bible is straight from the Devil himself!!! The Amplified Bible is set on fire of Hell.

- Changing your inner self is not repentance, it is REFORMATION.
- Changing your way of thinking is REPENTANCE.

- Regretting past sins is not repentance, it is PENITENCE.
- Living your life in a way that proves repentance is not repentance
  , it is PENANCE.
- Seeking God's purpose for your life is not repentance, it is DISCIPLESHIP.

Anyone who follows the teaching of Mark 1:15 in The Amplified Bible cannot be saved! Adding reformation, penitence, penance and to the free grace of God cannot produce REGENERATION (i.e., the new birth in Christ Jesus)! Do you see how dangerous these new Bible revisions are? I sure hope so, because [1]Bob Jones University and countless other Bible colleges today DON'T!

The Bible word "repent" is the Greek noun metanoia, which simply means "A CHANGE OF MIND." The Bible doesn't even tell us what to change our mind about. God intentionally chose this open-ended term, which is all-inclusive. In other words, you have to change your mind about whatever has been hindering you from believing the Gospel to be saved! Repentance is changing your mind from WRONG THINKING to trusting Christ alone, receiving Jesus' sacrifice on the cross as full-payment for your sins, believing that He raised up from the dead.

[2]First Baptist Church of Hammond has shamefully denied the inspiration of the King James Bible since 2008, and [3]they've become eerily silent about the evils of the Modern Bible versions. They are A.W.O.L. (Absent Without Leave) from what Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) rightly called in 1994: "

[4]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES.

" At FBCH today, it's not even worth a fist fight on the playground! Consequently, the modern Bible revisions are more popular than ever before. Sadly, instead of studying the Bible as God commanded, people are consulting a dozen different Bible versions to find the meaning of truth.

We’re Commanded To Study The Bible, Not The Versions

I knew a deacon at the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who literally had a dozen different Bible revisions on his bookshelf at home, and that is how he foolishly seeks the truth. Shamefully, that is what his pastor has taught him by example! I heard the senior pastor of Harvest, admit publicly one Sunday morning from his pulpit, that he searches through different versions of the Bible to prepare his sermons. That pastor should be fired! They should all be fired! The pastors of Harvest Baptist Church are incompetent to lead God’s flock! They are pulling on the same rope as the Devil, promoting Satan’s corruptible seed! I humbly speak THE TRUTH as a man of God!

2nd Timothy 2:15, “

Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

” Most pastors today cannot even rightly choose which Bible God authored, let alone rightly divide the Word of Truth!

It is ridiculous to believe ([5]as Bob Jones University does) that God has preserved His inspired Words in the sum total of all the extant Scripture manuscripts available today. In sharp contrast to that foolish thinking, I believe God has honored His PROMISE in Psalms 12:6-7 to preserve His PURE WORDS forever! That means we must have an exact Bible in English! I humbly believe that perfect, holy, infallible, inerrant, preserved, verbally-inspired Word of God to be the KING JAMES BIBLE!!! They cannot all be God’s preserved Words, since they all disagree and say something different! God only authored ONE BIBLE, not two, not hundreds! Should it be surprising that ALL of the modern Bible revisions corrupt [6]Psalms 12:6-7, completely removing God’s PROMISE to preserve His PURE WORDS?

Why, Oh why, won't First Baptist Church of Hammond, Bob Jones University, Pensacola Christian College, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Crown Bible College, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, Moody Bible Institute, and thousands of the other apostate churches and religious institutions today, join in to fight in '[7]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES'? If you don't have an inspired King James Bible, you don't have a Holy Bible!!! If we don't take a stand in this generation, to

"e arnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints " (Jude 1:3), the next generation is doomed! John Wesley was right—

"What one generation tolerates, the next generation will embrace!"

Dear reader, go back and please examine how the different Bible versions teach a FALSE RE-PENTANCE, which is that cannot save anybody. Are you okay with this? Bob Jones University's (BJU) leaders couldn't care less. Kindly, go search Google for the phrase

another Gospel

[8]Bob Jones University doesn't listen,

" and you'll see that they have a history of not listening to good sense from anybody. This is a part of the sinful human nature—not to listen or care. As Christian believers, we are supposed to listen and care!!! God Himself cares (1st Peter 5:7). Words are important to God (Matthew 12:36). Right doctrine matters! Therefore, it matters which Bible we choose to use. So why don't we care as God's professed children? Is anybody listening? Does anybody care? Am I the only one who is alarmed over all this?

Pastor Jack Hyles says:

"My heart aches for what has happened to churches across this nation. Many churches that call themselves Independent Baptists are not really > Independent Baptists. When Dr. Ironside was the pastor of the Moody Church in Chicago, he decided to form a group of men to run the business of the church. He basically turned the leadership of the church over to that group of men and decided that he would just do the preaching. It worked beautifully because these men loved him, and wanted to please him, but when he died, he had created the machinery for the destruction of their soul-winning program. What happened? A good pastor and some good men set up some bad machinery that worked as long as they were alive, but self-destructed when they died." [emphasis added]—Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from Chapter 5, "[9]THE AUTONOMY OF THE CHURCH," of his excellent book, "[10]THE CHURCH"

Pastor Jack Hyles says: "

Love is thinking!

" I am thinking! Didn't you smell something burning? That's an old joke; my head's made out of wood...lol. I LOVE YOU whoever you may be, and I don't want you to be deceived by the Devil and go to Hell. Sadly, BJU doesn't love their students, they only want their money! Moody Bible Institute cannot even get the Gospel right, [11]teaching Lordship Salvation. If they really loved the young people at these religious institutions, then they would teach them THE TRUTH.

If you think God preserved His pure words in hundreds of Bible revisions, you're either a fool of fools or an ungodly indifferent person. Dr. Hyles warned 30 years ago that [12]heresy is creeping into our fundamental churches by the hour. How right he was! Today's Independent Baptist Churches across the country are filled with Calvinist' Lordship Salvation heresy, counterfeit Bible versions, false repentance, and all manner of deceptions. Worse is that no one seems to care! Well I care bless God, because I LOVE YOU IN CHRIST!!!

1.2.24 The Kind Of Men We Need Today (2020-04-05 20:48)

Exodus 18:21, "Moreover thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens."

Moses was the greatest leader that the Hebrews had ever known. But as the Children of Israel increased in drastic number in the Wilderness, it became a heavy burden for Moses, simply because he was only one man, and couldn't baby-sit the people by himself.

So Moses' father in law, Jethro, gave his son in law some godly advice in Exodus 18:21, "Moreover thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens." I love that! Look at the type of men who are fit (able) to lead—men who fear God, men of truth, and men who hate covetousness (the desire to acquire personal wealth).

Let me list those qualifications given by Jethro again:

- MEN WHO FEAR GOD
- MEN OF TRUTH
- MEN WHO HATE COVETOUSNESS

I dare say any of our nation's leaders today are qualified to lead by those standards. How many of our nation's leaders today fear God? How many are men of truth? How many hate covetousness? The U.S. Supreme Court does not fear God at all, evidenced by their legalization of abortion, homosexuality and allowance for cruel and unusual punishment.

Thousands of church pastors today don't fear God, for if they did they wouldn't be so INDIFFERENT! They are not men of truth— evidenced by their cowardice to preach the truth, cowardice to preach against sin, cowardice to call false prophets by name, and sinful arrogance that perpetuates their incompetence in the pulpit! I'm talking about Bob Jones University and their shameful graduates—who sanction dozens of different conflicting Bible revisions, refuse to listen to sound reason, and seem to love money more than truth!

Kindly, if Moses were alive today, and were to choose men to lead with him, he wouldn't choose anyone from Bob Jones University (BJU), Pensacola Christian College (PCC) or Moody Bible Institute (MBI). The truth is disregarded in all of these horrible apostate institutions today. PCC resents anyone who takes a stand against the modern Bible revisions. They want no part of the battle, which means they do not fear God, nor do they care about THE TRUTH, because they are making tons of money! The love of money has ruined our churches!!!

[1]Today's shameful Bible colleges have deteriorated into a money-making racket, not a Christ-honoring ministry. The name of the game is money, money, money! Join any so-called "ministry" today, and 99 % of the time you are asked for money. That is because ministries are all set-up for profit today, so that THEY NEED your money to continue. But ask yourself friend, what does it cost to PREACH THE TRUTH? That's right, nothing! I've never made a single penny for serving God throughout my entire lifetime! We need a revival in America of THE LOVE OF THE TRUTH, and less emphasis on the love of money!

1.2.25 Inspiration Is Eternal, Not Merely Temporal (2020-04-06 13:30)

2nd Timothy 3:16-17, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works."

The following helpful information is by Dr. James Sightler (1937-2019), son of the late great preacher, Harold Sightler (1914-1995). I was rejoiced to learn that Brother Sightler went HOME to Heaven to be with Jesus in June of 2019. Amen!!! [1]Heaven is Jesus!!! (MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles). I anticipated Dr. Sightler's death, so I extracted his ministry website to save on my USB hardrive. I use [2]HTTrack, a free open-source freeware program which works great. One part of my ministry is to preserve some of the ministries of brethren who've faithfully gone on before. Dr. Sightler's faithfulness to preach the inspiration of the King James Bible, right up unto the very end of his earthly life, incredibly BOOSTS MY CHRISTIAN FAITH!!! Dr. Sightler STAYED BY THE STUFF!!! I have his articles, and by God's grace I plan to continue promoting them, because they are THE TRUTH!!!

INSPIRATION—TEMPORAL OR ETERNAL

NOTE: I intentionally made the font very large below, for emphasis, because I really want you to read what Dr. James Sightler says about INSPIRATION:

I believe that inspiration is not a process but an entity, an eternal entity, a fact or deed. If the KJV translators had believed it was a process they would have translated II Timothy 3:16 - “pasa graphe theopneustos” as “All scripture is God breathed.” In that sentence God breathed is an adjective, or present participle used as adjective, which describes the noun scripture. A verbal adjective would imply a becoming, but the Word did not become. He is. But the translators, and their English predecessors, were led to avoid that rendering, and I believe they knew in their hearts that inspiration was an eternal entity, a noun. Even though the phrase “by inspiration of God” describes scripture it is at least equally valid to look at it as a noun which is the object of the sentence. Here Paul could not have been speaking to Timothy of any original manuscripts. Those of the Old Testament were gone. And since II Timothy was probably Paul’s last epistle much of the New Testament already had been written. Graphe in this verse means scripture of both testaments. The Holy Ghost said that Timothy had known the scriptures, and so he had them before him from childhood.

The word theopneustos was given by the Holy Ghost to Paul. It is unique. It appears only once in the New Testament and is only infrequently seen in earlier pagan Greek writing. Some defenders of the KJV believe that theopneustos is a “verbal adjective,” essentially a past participle. That belief is more compatible with the concept of inspiration as a process which occurred in time, that is, a becoming. They say that “pasa graphe theopneustos” means all scripture is God breathed. If theopneustos is a verbal adjective the translation should be “God breathed” and not “given by inspiration of God.”

The International Standard Bible Encyclopedia gives theopneustos as a noun. It says that Scripture is “the product of the creative breath of God. In a word, what is declared by this fundamental passage is simply that the Scriptures are a Divine product”…When Paul declares, then, that "every scripture" or "all scripture" is the product of the Divine breath, he asserts with as much energy as he could employ that Scripture is the product of a specifically Divine operation.” It is a product, an eternal entity, and not a process or becoming.

Adding the suffix –tion to a verb in English makes a noun. “All scripture is the breath of God” treats theopneustos as a noun and would be a better rendering than “All scripture is God breathed,” which would treat theopneustos as an adjective. Neither is as sublime or correct as “All scripture is given by inspiration of God,” which we have in the KJV.

Theopneustos is masculine and graphe is feminine. By the rules of Greek grammar they should agree in gender. In order for them to agree we would have to change the os ending to an eta, and we would then have breath of a goddess, rather than breath of God. But in Greek there is no feminine adjective which ends with omicron sigma. Theopneustos is masculine.

Theopneustos occurs only once in the NT and therefore is an extremely important word that must be properly rendered. Of course it does not need to occur more than once. But it is a noun, naming an eternally completed entity. When the KJV translators put “given by inspiration” they were rendering theopneustos as a noun. According to rules of Greek usage, juxtaposing these two nominatives, graphe and theopneustos, implies the equivalence of them. Also implied is the verb to be, “is,” between them. The absence of the verb to be is called an ellipsis that actually gives emphasis that it should be rendered in translation. There is a second implied "is" in verse 16 followed by an adjective. This context is consistent with inspiration as a noun, because inspiration is qualified by being described with the adjective, profitable. In addition the “given by” reminds us that the scriptures are themselves an eternal gift from God, not to be whimsically meddled with. The scriptures were inspired from eternity, inspired while they were being put into the “original autographs,” are still inspired today, and must always be so, forever settled.

Inspiration is seen again, and only once, in the Old Testament in Job 32:8: "But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding." There it is also a noun, in Hebrew neshamah, and the passage is parallel to II Timothy 3:16. It is also once more the breath of God which was given to Adam and which gives us understanding. It is the Bible, the breath of God, which gives man all the understanding which he can possibly have. Psalm 33:6 states that the heavens were made by the word of the LORD and “by the breath of his mouth,” so that here the word of God and his breath are seen to be the same. The International Standard Bible Encyclopedia comments here that the Hebrew word neshamah is particularly used where those operations of God “are energetic,” and “that “God’s breath is the irresistible outflow of His power.” Job 33:4 again refers to "the breath of the Almighty" which gave Elihu life and to the Holy Ghost, who gave Paul The Theopneustos.

Mr. John Krinke, Bible College teacher of Greek and author and publisher of What Happened to Bible Faith? (Greenwood, IN, 2003) also contends that theopneustos is a noun, an entity. He asks a very important question: “What are the languages that may be referred to as being inspired?” He answers from Acts 2:5-7:

> 5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

> 6 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

> 7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilaeans?

He further cites Acts 2:8-12:

> 8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born? 9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judaea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia,
>
> 10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes,
>
> 11 Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

And then he adds that, since every nation under heaven is stated in Acts 2:5, the 16 named regions of verses 8-12 were only representative of the whole congregation assembled. There were more languages and dialects represented than the 16 named regions. When the Gospel of Christ was preached and written by the apostles, those who heard or read had nothing less than God's inspiration, no matter what language they heard or read. He rightly believes that, if inspiration is confined to autographs or faithful apographs of the original languages, we cannot claim God's promises unless we know those original languages in which God delivered His inspiration, the Bible, to mankind. We must forever be at sea.

...Scripture is eternal and is given to all, out of every nation. And in the same way the plan of redemption is eternal and given to all, out of every nation. The Bible says Jesus is the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world, from eternity. The Word that became flesh was eternal. It follows that the word of God which we have before us is also eternal. When God breathed the breath of life into Adam he became a living soul; we see the same statement made in Job by Elihu. The breath of God came upon something already completed. Likewise when God breathed His word from eternity inspiration was completed. In I Corinthians 2:7 Paul says that the wisdom he preached and wrote "God ordained before the world unto our glory."

...The KJV translators did not claim inspiration for their work because they did not need to. In their day it was generally understood that the Bible was inspired, and to them it was also clear that the Bible was now English and had been since at least the day of Wycliffe; that the Greek and Hebrew already had served their purpose and had long been properly put into English, perhaps as early as Tyndale. The true church, even in the middle ages, has always had inspired scripture before it. [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [3]Inspiration: Temporary Or Eternal

Boy that's good stuff! The Bible has always been INSPIRED BY GOD ALMIGHTY!!! If the words that we have today in the King James Bible are the Lord's Words, then they absolutely MUST be verbally inspired! That's what inspired means—they are God's Words, breathed out for humanity's benefit. They are not mortal words, they are immortal words! They are eternal words!!! Please don't believe any ignoramus who tries to tell you that we don't have an inspired Holy Bible today, because WE MOST CERTAINLY DO!!!

The word "inspired" signifies "IN-SPIRIT," that is, God's Holy Spirit breathes through His words to man!!! Jesus proclaimed in John 6:63, "It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life." Those living "words" cannot possibly lose their "Spirit" and "life" simply because they are translated into a different language. "Inspired" is to in-breathe, and to breath is both the means and evidence of life, for as soon as a person ceases to breathe he is 100 % dead. Therefore, the Holy Bible is empowered by the very life of God's Holy Spirit, and is a Living Book. Hebrews 4:12, "For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart."

2. [5]Cunningly Devised Fables (Dr. Al Lacy, from an Old LP Record)

The old English word "quick" means "alive." When a mortal man authors a book, it is just a normal book, only as reliable as are men in character, truth and accuracy. Men are imperfect, as are their writings. Men's books are like themselves—dying creatures; but God's Book is like Himself—it "liveth and abideth for ever" (1 Peter 1:23).

[6]King James Bible - The Only Accurate Translation! (Dr. Yankee Arnold)

When a man writes a book, it cannot speak for God, it can only speak for a man. But the King James Bible speaks for God, "For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost" (2nd Peter 1:21). The King James Bible is inspired!!!

1.2.26 Does Romans 10:9-10 Teach Confession For Salvation? (2020-04-06 20:00)

Romans 10:9-10, "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation."

I have heard countless preachers errantly interpret this passage to mean you must confess Christ publicly to be saved. That is NOT what this Scripture passage means at all! A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. This is an obscure passage in Romans 10:9-10, because taken by itself, this passage raises the question of whether confessing Christ publicly is necessary to be saved.

From considering other Bible passages, WE KNOW that confession is NOT required for salvation. Confession is made from a heart that already believes! The Pharisees had threatened the Jews, forbidding them to confess Jesus as the Christ, or else they would be excommunicated from the synagogue. John 12:42, "Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God." Therefore, the apostle Paul is simply teaching in Romans 10:9-10 that we are saved by having a BELIEVING heart in 'The Gospel', and that faith compels us to confess Christ with our mouth. The mouth cannot speak except from experience. Acts 4:20, "For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard."

Therefore, by comparing Scripture with Scripture, we can only conclude that Romans 10:9-10 is teaching that a saved person confesses because WE ARE saved, not TO BE saved. We know that confession is NOT mandatory for regeneration, otherwise the chief rulers in John 12:42-43 could not have been saved, who refused to confess the name of Jesus. We are instructed 85 times in the Gospel of John to simply " to be saved, without any mention of someone being required to audibly confess to be saved. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

We are made a child of God by yielding to the truth of the Gospel. Salvation is of the LORD! Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." God alone can SAVE you in response to your yielding, and God alone can SANCTIFY you in response to your yielding. We live the Christian life the SAME way we get saved—BY YIELDING TO GOD, WHICH IS FAITH!

1.2.27 Who's The Biggest Sinner? (2020-04-07 00:40)

> "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all." —James 2:10

Who's the biggest sinner? I am! You are! We all are! WE HAVE SINNED! Put down your stones you self-righteous hypocrites! It is human nature to look upon the sins and faults of others, while often overlooking our own sins. This is hypocrisy. One of the worst deceptions is overlooking our own faults. The Word of God proclaims in James 2:10 that committing even ONE SIN makes a person GUILTY in God's eyes of breaking every command in the Bible. James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all." This is a startling doctrine that is hardly touched upon in churches today.

If you are a Christian the whole world is waiting for you to fall. Sermon uploads that would change lives are fortunate to receive even a hundred hits, but you upload some juicy gossip about a preacher sinning and millions of people want to know it. This evidences the hypocrisy and desperate wickedness of the human heart, just as Jeremiah 17:9, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?" If you are truly right with God, then you see yourself as the biggest sinner, because you know yourself better than anyone. Do you know what a hypocrite is Biblically? It is a person who thinks that someone else is a bigger sinner than them self.

Here is a precious MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles titled, "[1]Chief Of Sinners." No real Christian claims to be less a sinner than others! There is no teaching in the Bible that says Christians are less sinful than unsaved people. The only difference is that we as believers have the Holy Spirit indwelling our bodies. As separated Christians, we must never accept the sin with the sinner, nor should we ever reject the sinner with the sin. We ought to love everybody with God's unconditional love through the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Did you know that the divorce rate amongst professed Christians is equal to that of the heathen unsaved world? This is because Christians think the same way as the heathen world. Romans 12:2 exhorts Christians not to be conformed, that is, fashioned, according to this present world. Divorce is always worldly, never Christian. In filing for divorce, a person is saying: "My spouse is a bigger sinner than I am; therefore, I have a right to abandon, quit and break my marriage vows." No you don't! Divorce is a horrible sin rooted in one's own hypocritical self-righteousness. The Bible teaches that we are all as guilty as the vilest sinner in God's eyes. This doctrine is virtually unheard of nowadays, because few preachers stress the Law of God anymore, which condemns all of us as guilty sinners before God...

> Romans 3:19, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God."

In the eyes of men, murdering someone is obviously worse than stealing their lunch; but as far as God is concerned we are all equally lacking any righteousness of our own. We are each as dirty and rotten as the other guy. Oftentimes what people perceive as acceptable, such as homosexuality, is an abomination unto God. If we SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES as Jesus commanded in John 5:39, then we can only come to the conclusion that we are as sinful as the worst sinner in God's eyes and it matters not who is more guilty. We are all guilty (Romans 3:10-23). The fact of the matter is that we are all sinners deserving of punishment in Hell (Romans 6:23; Revelation 20:11-15). Although we may never commit murder or rob a bank, that does not make us any less guilty of being a horrible sinner in the eyes of God.

> "If we could ever hate the sin in ourselves as much as we hate the sin in others, we might have some idea what His Book is all about."
> —Pastor Jack Hyles (a quote from page 322 of the awesome biography of Dr. Hyles titled, "The Fundamental Man")

May I say, no matter how righteous I may try to live, the ONLY reason why I will ever be righteous is because of the [2]imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ. Jesus paid my sin debt, and He alone is my righteousness. I have no righteousness to offer God, and neither do you.

People tend to selfishly judge themselves based upon what sins they personally DON'T commit. Did you understand that? People who don't commit adultery are quick to condemn others who commit adultery, because that's not their sin. But perhaps they are a thief for a living, and so they are silent when it comes to the sin of theft. This is how shallow, wicked and hypocritical most people are. The Bible perfectly illustrates this in Jesus' account of the Pharisee and the publican who went up to the temple to pray...

> "Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess. And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted" (Luke 18:10-14).

The Pharisee in Luke 18:10-14 made the grave mistake of comparing himself with other people, instead of measuring himself up against the holy Law of God. If we foolishly look at other people who commit the sins that we don't, or sins that we perceive as being worse than our sins, then we naturally become self-righteousness and think we are "better" than others.

I tell you, you are as filthy and rotten as Adolf Hitler in God's eyes, and so am I...

Isaiah 64:6, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away."

Reproach For Sins Comes Now Or Later

The Bible teaches that some people's sins are open (known) beforehand here on earth. But the Bible teaches that everyone else's sins will follow them and be revealed in eternity, causing shame and reproach. 1st Timothy 5:24, "Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after." When the truth is known, ALL PEOPLE will be exposed as wicked and shameful sinners. When asked to give the name of the worst and most horrible sinners we know, most people tend to think of people besides them self. This is the hypocritical nature of humanity. This is why all gossip is sinful and wrong, that is, because we are just as sinful as the person that we criticize. Hey, let's talk about our selves instead. All of a sudden no one has anything to say?

Perhaps we have never commit a particular sin per se, but we ought not to judge others simply because they sin differently than we do. Mankind is inherently sinful and has NO self-righteousness to offer God. Even committing one sin is enough to be damned to the Lake of Fire forever (Revelation 20:11-15). That's the reason why God sent His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ, to die on the cross of Calvary, shedding His precious blood to pay for our sins.

God's Law indicts all humanity as guilty sinners (Romans 3:19). 1st Timothy 5:24 says that some men's sins are open to criticism and judgment beforehand, but everyone else's sins will be made known eventually on judgment day. NO ONE is going to retain their dignity and honor on judgment day as a self-righteous person who didn't do anything shameful, disgraceful or surprising. The Bible declares that ALL men have come short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23). The Bible teaches that the Pharisees who condemned others were the guiltiest of all sinners (Matthew 7:1-5). The reason why hypocrites throw rocks at others is because they are proud, arrogant and saturated with sins them self.

Those hypocrites who condemn others for their sins will one day be silenced completely in eternity when THEIR SINS are revealed. Christians who realize their own sinfulness DON'T condemn other people when they sin. Slanderers and critics of sinners are self-righteous, FAILING to see their own depth of sin and evil. Most people have absolutely no idea how sinful they really are in comparison to the holy Bible. You and I are dirty, rotten, guilty, sinners in God's eyes.

Therefore, we had all better think twice before we decide to throw rocks at other people who sin, denouncing them as evil, and taking delight in their calamity. Our day of reckoning is also coming! So before you look down in disdain upon someone else who has sinned horribly, you had better consider your own horrible sins in God's eyes, because the Lord will judge us according to how we judge others...

> Matthew 7:1-3, "Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?"

Even the best Christians still have a mote (tiny piece) in their eye, meaning that we are all sinners; but those evil critics who spread gossip, tell tales, condemn others, reveal secrets and hypocritically destroy their neighbor with their mouth have a beam (large piece) in their eye. God's harshest judgment is reserved for those arrogant sinners who condemn other sinners, overlooking their own wickedness in hypocrisy while trying to destroy the good name of others. If the truth be known, we all have a skeleton closet of sins. The Bible says that a person is calling God a liar if they deny their sinfulness (1st John 1:8,10).

We are living in an evil generation that tolerates all manner of sin and wickedness from Hollywood, rock music stars, and their favorite immoral professional athletes; yet, the world is waiting for every Christian to fall flat. Jesus taught in John 15:19 not to marvel if the world hates us as Christians, because the world hated Him first. 2nd Timothy 3:12 foretold that those faithful Christians who live godly in Christ Jesus SHALL SUFFER PERSECUTION. The world hates the Holy Bible and Christians who uphold the truths of the Bible. Jesus is the living Word of God. John 7:7, "The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil. "

We Have Sinned

Would to God that Christians in churches today would stop saying, "he has sinned," and "she has sinned," and that we'd all start saying, "we have sinned." It is sinful pride that causes a wife to publicly criticize or divorce her husband. It is sinful pride that causes the manure-spreading newsmedia to mercilessly destroy people's lives. It is sinful pride that causes children to broadcast their parent's dirty laundry to others. It is sinful pride that causes self-righteous hypocrites to meddle in other people's marriages. I came to the realization one day as a believer that I am as rotten and sinful as the worst sinner. I am just as sinful as any adulterer, mass-murderer, homosexual, thief, liar or Satan worshiper. AND SO ARE YOU! Our sins are just as woeful and wrong. We have no room to condemn.

The Apostle Paul realized this great truth…

> 1st Timothy 1:15, "This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief."

The Apostle Paul was a faithful missionary who loved the Lord Jesus Christ and helped people everywhere he went. Paul suffered horribly from shipwreck, hunger, turmoil and malicious beatings from his enemies; yet he kept going for God. Paul was a mighty preacher and a strong Christian. Although Paul was arguably the greatest missionary who ever lived, he still addressed himself as the “chief” of sinners. I don’t know too many believers today who are anywhere near as dedicated and committed to Jesus Christ as was Paul. If a good Christian like Paul esteemed himself as the “chief” of sinners, then we ought to feel the same way.

1.2.28 But By The Grace Of God I Am What I Am (2020-04-07 03:00)

1st Corinthians 15:10, “ But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.”

I thank God for using my humble labors online, since 2002, to reach others for Jesus Christ. At the Salvation Army, m y Christian parents dedicated me to the Lord at age 1, to be used of God.

I was saved at age 13 in an old-fashioned Independent Fundamental Baptist Church.

My parents wisely enrolled me into the church’s Christian school, for which I am forever grateful.

I wouldn’t trade that for anything in the world! At age 15, I was called to preach, as I sat in a church pew and felt the conviction of God upon my soul to surrender my life to serve Jesus Christ as a preacher. I THANK GOD for making use of a humble unworthy sinner like me!

I have made some unwise decisions during my lifetime. I didn’t always do the right thing. I made some big mistakes. I missed out on some great opportunities. I have many regrets!

Albeit, looking back now in hindsight, I see God's omnipotent hand at work in my life. I see how the Lord took my failures and used them for His glory! As only God can do, He took the LEMONS in my life and made LEMONADE! I now see what I couldn't see back then. God only knows the things that would have happened, if the things that happened, hadn't happened! GOD IS ALWAYS GOOD!!!

Psalms 119:67 and 71, " Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word. ...It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes." King David penned those words, with which I can fully relate. A wise person learns from the sins and mistakes in their life. Sometimes we have to fall in order to learn how to get back up! God is a God of second chances! I love Jonah 3:1a, "

And the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time... " God gave Jonah a SECOND CHANCE to obey Him! God could have went and found another man, but God chose Jonah to go preach to Nineveh. Romans 11:29, "For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.

> "Failing is not a disgrace unless you make it the last chapter of your book."
> —Pastor Jack Hyles

I have suffered in constant neck pain since 2004. It gets me down daily, being in chronic physical pain all the time, and neck tension; but God uses these afflictions to keep me humble, so He can mightily use my online ministry for His glory. 2nd Corinthians 12:9, " And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me." Jesus Christ said that HIS STRENGTH is made perfect (or complete) in human weakness. God has had many children too strong to make use of, but He never had one that was TOO WEAK!!!

I am just a redeemed sinner saved by God's grace. [1]I am a misfit.

I often humbly wonder to myself, "Why would God love somebody like me?" I am just a clump of clay from the earth. I am just a sinner. There is nothing good about me except Jesus, Whose Holy Spirit lives in me (Romans 8:9). My chronic neck pain makes me irritable oftentimes. I feel like nobody wants to be around me. I fail so often at being what I think God desires for me to be. I am a nobody. I have been a social misfit my entire life. In any group I always end up being all alone, the loner.

Sadly, the biggest local independent Baptist church on Guam (just 5 minutes from me) has rejected me since 2014, like Rudolph the red-nosed reindeer, refusing to let me play in any of their reindeer games. I speak that to their shame at Harvest. I love them in the Lord but they don't love me. That is what happens when a faithful believer grows in God's grace, to where other less spiritual believers can no longer reciprocate our love. It gets lonely!

[2]THANK GOD THAT HE USES MISFITS LIKE ME!!!

Like Rudolph the reindeer with his bright glowing nose, whose peers mocked and made fun of him for being different, I know the pain of soul caused by being "despised and rejected" by the local Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (i.e., the Bob Jones University crowd) for my bright King James Bible only position, and I'm not allowed to play in any of their reindeer games (church activities and weekly services). Jesus knows the pain and loneliness that I am going through, for He endured the same rejection from his peers. Isaiah 53:3, "He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not." Jesus' own biological half-brothers didn't believe that He was the Savior. John 7:5, "For neither did his brethren believe in him." Of course, Jesus had no earthly father, for God Himself in Heaven is Jesus' biological Father! Joseph at a later time, after Christ was miraculously virgin born, became Jesus' Dad who raised Him.

I sure feel like Rudolph the red-nosed reindeer ([4]you can freely watch the full classic 1966 film here), which was one of my favorite movies as a boy. I cannot hide my inspired King James Bible only nose, and don't want to! Nearly everyone today merely goes along to get along with the apostate evangelical crowd. I am decidedly different, I buck the trend. I am the monkey wrench in the gears of ecumenism. I am the loner. I am a modern-day John the Baptist (my middle name "John" is named after John the Baptist). Matthew 11:11 says that John was the greatest born among women. Perhaps I am the lowest born among women. Who knows...lol! To God be the glory!!!

God Uses Misfits Like Me

No doubt my many critics and enemies would agree! I don't want to conform to the accepted "norms" of new-evangelicalism. I don't want to be like everybody else, who are indifferent, ungrateful, snobby, cliquish, cultish and cold-hearted. I am an open-hearted loving person. I don't hold grudges. I am generous and like to give to help others who are in need. What would Jesus do? I don't want to go along with a dozen different Bible versions being promoted in the churches. God only authored ONE INSPIRED SACRED BOOK!

> "Feed your faith and your doubts will starve to death; but if you don't, you're gonna feed your doubts, and your faith will starve to death!" —Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold, "1st John Made Simple"

God knows that I love more today than I ever have. Suffering in life either makes us more sweeter, or more bitter. I choose by faith to become more sweeter in Christ! I just want to be a blessing to others for Jesus Christ...

> "Do all the good you can. By all the means you can. In all the ways you can. In all the places you can.
> At all the times you can. To all the people you can. As long as ever you can." —John Wesley

Some of the worst believers are those who have never gone into what is often regarded as "deep sin." They have never been diagnosed with an incurable disease or ailment, as I have (Cervical Degenerative Disk Disease in my neck). I have stenosis and radiculopathy in my neck. Although I live in constant pain of body and soul, I have peace and joy in the Lord. God uses my afflictions to keep me humble. [5]I think about this poor girl, Katie Stubblefield, who tried to commit suicide at age 18, shooting herself in the face. She survived, but she will suffer horribly the rest of her life. She is an encouragement to me to keep going in life. If she can make it, so can you and I. We all have so much to be thankful to God for!!!

There is a sweet humble spirit that often exists in a person who has hit rock bottom in life. Luke 7:47, "Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little." There is a direct correlation between one's level of love for God and man, and one's perception of how big of a sinner we are! Since I feel like the BIGGEST SINNER, I don't condemn anybody for their sins. There but for the grace of God, go you and I!

2nd Corinthians 12:9, "And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me." My life is such a mess. My marriage is gone. My home is gone. My health is afflicted. [6]My life is upside down like the 2006 'Poseidon' movie starring one of my favorite Hollywood actors, Richard Dreyfus. But the Lord says to me—"MY STRENGTH IS MADE PERFECT IN WEAKNESS"! My weakness is Christ's strength in my life!

Therefore, I rejoice for my burdens, health afflictions, loneliness, heartache, and messed-up life's situation, so that God's power can rest upon me as He promised. My life is as a vapour that will be here today and gone tomorrow. Psalms 144:3-4, "LORD, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him! or the son of man, that thou makest account of him! Man is like to vanity: his days are as a shadow that passeth away."

Most people don't know what it is like to be humbled and broken in life, to lose everything, but I do.

I know what it feels like to have everything go wrong in life, and nothing ever returns to normal, with no light at the end of the tunnel. I know the hurt, emotional trauma and inexplicable pain of soul—from betrayal, divorce, family turmoil, losing my home, poor health, constant chronic neck pain, being alone as a man without a wife. Yet, I say without hesitation—GOOD IS ALWAYS GOOD!!! Job 13:15, "T hough he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.. "

I ordered a book by Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) from Amazon.com titled, “

BROKEN THINGS

: WHY WE SUFFER.

” I want to share with you a wonderful quote by Dr. DeHaan from page 59:

> “The greatest sermons I have ever heard were not preached from pulpits but from sickbeds. The greatest, deepest truths of God’s Word have often been revealed, not by those who preached as a result of their seminary preparation and education, but by those humble souls who have gone through the seminary of affliction and have learned experientially the deep things of the ways of God

> The most cheerful people I have met, with few exceptions, have been those who had the least sunshine and the most pain and suffering in their lives. The most grateful people I have met were not those who traveled a pathway of roses all their lives through, but those who were confined, because of circumstances, to their homes—often to their beds. They had learned to depend upon God as only such Christians know how to do.” —Pastor M.R. DeHaan,
> “
>
>
> : WHY WE SUFFER,
> ” page 59; Barbour Publishing, Inc., 1948

Pastor DeHaan goes on to explain the flip-side of the equation, concerning complainers...

> “The ’gripers’ on the other hand, are usually those who enjoy excellent health. The complainers are those who have the least to complain about. But those dear saints of God who have refreshed my heart again and again and again as they preached from sickbed-pulpits have been the men and women who have been the most cheerful and the most graceful for the blessings of almighty God.

The Bible tells us distinctly that there is a special reward and a special crown which the Lord has prepared and laid up for those who suffer patiently. This principle is suggested by the incident recorded in I Samuel 30.

David, along with 400 strong, healthy men, had gone out to seek the enemy. Two hundreds, however, had remained behind because they were weary and faint, probably because of some physical infirmity. These David had left behind to guard the camp and the equipment of those who went into the heat of the battle. After the victory had been won, the four hundred who had been active participants in the battle refused to share with those who had remained behind and said, 'We'll give them just a little bit, but we're going to take the spoils.

At this point, David stated the eternal principle in the words of 1 Samuel 30:24, 'As his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be that tarrieth by the stuff: they shall part alike.'

Those of you who remain by the stuff are not overlooked or forgotten by God: there is a very definite and special reward laid up for God's patient sufferers.

If you, child of God, are upon a bed of illness, if you are being troubled by pain or discouragement, remember that God will always use our suffering for His purposes. Our suffering silences Satan, our suffering enables us to glorify God, our suffering makes us more like Christ, our suffering makes us appreciative, and, ultimately, our suffering teaches us to depend on God.

I’ve been at the bottom of life, when there is absolutely NO WHERE TO LOOK EXCEPT UP TO GOD! Brother Lester Roloff was absolutely right, who wisely said:

“A test of a Christian’s character is what he does after he comes to the blockade in the road and what his attitude is after everything has left him except Jesus. You will never know down here that Christ is all you need until Christ is all you have left. You will never be able to tell the world for sure that He will do in a crisis unless you learn how to live in a crisis.” —Evangelist Lester Roloff (1914-1982), a quote from the sermon, “ [7]How To Go On When You Can’t”

> "When you get dissed by men—the whole reason God allowed you to be dissed—is because He didn't want you to fit in! He don't want you to fit in with the world. He don't want you to fit in with the rest of the group! He don't want you to be just like them! 'Cause there is something special about you! There's an assignment for you. There's a call for you. There's an anointing for your life. [8]God does not want you to fit in! " — [9]Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr. ; a quote from the sermon titled: [10]Being Dissed | [11]MP3

1.2.29 I'm Proud Of My Heavenly Father (2020-04-07 17:15)

Proverbs 17:6, " Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers."

I am just a humble sinner, unworthy of God's great love. I often think of a Bible verse, where Jacob said to the Lord in Genesis 32:10, "

I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands. " I feel the same as Jacob. I am so grateful for my website ministry, and for all THE TRUTH that God has shown me over the years. God is making use of a nobody like me to help other people for Christ.

[1]Why God Hides His Face From The Righteous (MP3 by Pastor Jack Hyles)

Most people don’t know what it is like to be humbled and broken in life, to lose everything, but I do. I know what it feels like to have everything go wrong in life, and nothing ever returns to normal, with no light at the end of the tunnel. I know the hurt, emotional trauma, and inexplicable pain of soul—from betrayal, divorce, family turmoil, losing my home, poor health, constant chronic neck pain, being alone as a man without a wife. I ordered a book by Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) from Amazon.com titled, “

BROKEN THINGS

: WHY WE SUFFER.

” I want to share with you a wonderful quote by Dr. DeHaan from page 59:

> “The greatest sermons I have ever heard were not preached from pulpits but from sickbeds. The greatest, deepest truths of God’s Word have often been revealed, not by those who preached as a result of their seminary preparation and education, but by those humble souls who have gone through the seminary of affliction and have learned experientially the deep things of the ways of God.

> The most cheerful people I have met, with few exceptions, have been those who had the least sunshine and the most pain and suffering in their lives. The most grateful people I have met were not those who traveled a pathway of roses all their lives through, but those who were confined, because of circumstances, to their homes—often to their beds. They had learned to depend upon God as only such Christians know how to do.” —Pastor M.R. DeHaan,

I have learned the tremendous Bible truth—that God allows me to suffer so I can comfort others who are suffering.

Every Saint Has An Inheritance Waiting For Us In Heaven

Dear reader, if you are saved, as I am, God is our adoption Father.

Romans 8:14-17, “

For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but*ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father*.

The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.”

Jesus in the only biological (BEGOTTEN) Son of God, but every believer is an ADOPTED Son of God. As such, we have an INHERITANCE with Jesus Christ. Colossians 3:24, “ Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ. ” I love that encouraging word and promise from God. Here are some Bible verses on the believer’s inheritance:

Ephesians 1:13-14, “In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise,

Which is the earnest of our inheritance* until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

Ephesians 1:18, “

The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

Colossians 1:12, “

Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:

Hebrews 9:15, “

And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

1st Peter 1:4, “

To an inheritance* incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

Thank God for my heavenly Father! The Bible says THE GLORY OF CHILDREN ARE THEIR FATHERS!!! May I say, I am so proud of my Father in Heaven! While I was working on my ministry today, as I so often do, I paused and thanked God for using me for His purpose and glory, to be a blessing to others for Christ. I told God that I am proud of Him. That may sound strange, but it’s really not if you think about it. If you are saved, God is your spiritual Father, and you are His redeemed child. If you are saved, you are my brother or sister in the Lord, and I love you dearly! John 15:12, “ This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. ”

[3]The Patient Waiting Of Christ (awesome MP3 by Pastor Jack Hyles)

I am proud to have God for my heavenly Father. He always does the right thing! I get frustrated often with God, praying for a prudent wife that never arrives (Proverbs 19:14). I get discouraged when I listen to the Bible, and I hear about men with a dozen wives, and I don’t have one! That discourages me a lot. But I trust the Lord in His wisdom. My circumstances are what they are.

I can either become bitter and quit serving God, or stay by the stuff and pray in my affliction for better days. I choose the latter by God's grace!

Jesus Is The Faithful Witness

I am proud of God that He is faithful —always faithful to honor His promises (Titus 1:2), faithful to forgive (1st John 1:9), faithful to provide (Luke 12:6-7), and faithful to His saints (1st Peter 4:19). In Revelation 1:5 Jesus Christ is called: 'THE FAITHFUL WITNESS'!!! The Lord Himself is the ultimate witness of God manifest in the flesh (1st Timothy 3:16).

Jesus sees people's pain

We see people's hardness, but Jesus see their heart;

We see their problems, but Jesus see their potential;

We see the anger on their face, but Jesus sees the anguish inside;

We see people's wickedness, but Jesus sees their hopelessness;

We see their selfishness, but Jesus see their loneliness;

We see their worldliness, but Jesus see their emptiness;

We see their sneers, but Jesus see their soul;

We see their arrogance, but Jesus see their tiredness.

The Lord's Words will be justified in eternity. Matthew 24:35, " Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away." Everything that the Lord has spoken in His inspired Word WILL COME TO PASS!!!

1.2.30 Are You Looking For Antichrist Or The Glorious Savior? (2020-04-08 00:00)

Titus 2:13, “Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;”

There is a popular heresy today known as a “PreWrath Rapture.” Effectively, this doctrine DENIES THE RAPTURE altogether! Respectfully, Pastor Steven Anderson of the Faithful Word Baptist Church in Tempe, Arizona, [1]sarcastically refutes the idea of “a secret Rapture.” Sadly, Pastor Anderson DENIES THE RAPTURE DOCTRINE entirely, he states:

> “The Bible’s real clear on what the coming of the Lord Jesus is—It is the Rapture! It is the trumpet sounding; It is us being caught up together with Him in the clouds. There are people out there who will tell you, that the Rapture and the Second Coming are two different things. We’ll, either those people can’t count; or they’re basically just repeating what man has taught them instead of reading the Bible and seeing what God has taught them.” —Pastor Steven Anderson; a quote from the YouTube video: “[2]The Rapture = The Second Coming” (an excerpt from 1 Corinthians 1)

I humbly disagree! I love Brother Anderson and support his ministry, family and him personally. I love the guy, but I think he is very wrong on this vital doctrine! I love a guy who has fire in his soul while preaching! Brother Hyles used to say: I’d rather see a guy with wild fire than no fire! Amen!

Our text Bible verse from Titus 2:13 commands every saint to LOOK FOR OUR SAVIOR’S APPEARING! Well if the Antichrist must appear first, then why would we look for our Savior? There’s nothing to look for! Why would I hope, wait and look for Jesus, when I know He cannot come?

Kindly, Pastor Anderson errantly believes that Christ’s Second Coming IS THE RAPTURE, so he says:

> The Rapture simply cannot happen at any moment!”
>
> —Pastor Steven L. Anderson; After the Tribulation: The PreTribulation Rapture Fraud Exposed ([3]01:27:04 video)

If that be true, then what would be the purpose of LOOKING FOR THE GREAT GOD AND OUR SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST? If Jesus cannot return until the Man of Sin (The Antichrist) first comes, then perhaps we should be looking for the Man of Sin instead! Does that make any sense? For Titus 2:13 to make sense, Christ must return FIRST, which is the PreTribulation Rapture.

1.2.31 Never Stop Soulwinning While Fighting (2020-04-08 03:00)

Nehemiah 6:1-4, “Now it came to pass, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;) That Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me mischief. And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you? Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner. ”

I love the prophet Nehemiah! He was at work rebuilding the wall, which had been destroyed when Babylon invaded Jerusalem, overthrowing the city in 586 BC. [1]Nehemiah is rebuilding the broken down city for the Lord. Ezra was tasked with rebuilding the temple, which took 46 years to finish. Nehemiah is up laboring on the wall, and three enemies come along, intentionally trying to hinder the work by getting him sidetracked. But Nehemiah is wise and said to them

, " I am doing a great work*, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?" (Nehemiah 6:3). My dear friend, there is no greater work in the world than preaching the Gospel to get people saved! We call this

!!! I love that beautiful word! The Bible uses that precious term in Proverbs 11:30,

"The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise." Are you a wise Christian? Are you a soulwinner? [2]I am, and I hope you'll join me.

> Oh let my love with fervor burn, And from the world now let me turn;
> Living for Thee, and Thee alone, Bringing Thee pleasure on Thy throne;
> Only one life, "twill soon be past, Only what's done for Christ will last.
>
> Only one life, yes only one, Now let me say, "Thy will be done";
> And when at last I'll hear the call, I know I'll say "'twas worth it all";
> Only one life, 'twill soon be past, Only what's done for Christ will last."
> — [3]Missionary C.T. Studd

Soulwinning Is Every Believer's Responsibility

It is our job as Christians to clearly present the Gospel. I love something that one of my favorite preachers, Pastor Ralph “

Yankee

Arnold said:

> “There is power in this Gospel message. Most people just don’t know how to present it... The clarity of the Gospel is what makes it easy for them to believe.” —Pastor Yankee Arnold, “[4]WHY GRACE CAN SAVE THE WORST MAN!”

To present the Gospel clearly, you have to have a clear understanding of how you were saved. [5]Here is Dr. Yankee Arnold presenting The Gospel. Please get saved dear friend, if you have never done so. God freely offers the gift of Eternal Life to whomsoever wants it! Romans 6:23, “ For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.” What an awesome God and Savior!!!

Satan Always Tries To Hinder The Work Of Soulwinning

Anytime you set out to do a work for God, Satan will send enemies in an attempt to hinder the work! And let me say right here that if you are not trying to get people saved, YOU DON’T HAVE A LEGITIMATE MINISTRY! For many churchgoers ’The Great Commission’ merely amounts to ’The Great Omission’! We read ’The Great Commission’ in Matthew 28:19-20—which is to go into all the world preaching The Gospel to get people saved, baptizing converts with water as a public profession of their faith, indoctrinate them with Bible doctrine, and then train them to become soulwinners them self. That is God’s plan to perpetuate The Gospel.

The Bible teaches that Satan blinds lost people, to hinder them from seeing the Gospel and getting saved (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4).

We see in the Old Testament book of Nehemiah, that Satan sent enemies to hinder the work of God. Three messengers came and did their darnedest to convince Nehemiah to 'COME DOWN' from his work, to have a meeting with them. Four times they tried to get the prophet sidetracked, but Nehemiah stood his ground, refusing to do what they wanted.

Nehemiah 6:4, " I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you? Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner. " I love Nehemiah's determination!

As Christians, we must not let life's cares, riches and pleasures distract us from soulwinning! What saith the Scripture? Luke 8:14,

"And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. "

I have heard many preachers wrongly interpret this passage (i.e., the parable of 'The Sower And The Seeds'), claiming that this is about salvation. It is actually about bearing fruit, soulwinning. That is what the Lord repeatedly says in this passage. Luke 8:15 is God's goal for every believer

But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

No Christian is a true success in God's eyes who has not matured to become a soulwinner! Granted, only God can save someone, but our duty is to share the Gospel with them.

1st Corinthians 3:6-7, " I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase."

The Devil And The World Hate The Work Of God

The Jews were God's chosen people in the Old Testament. It was the Lord's initial plan that Israel should shine as a light to the Gentiles, ambassadors of the Gospel of free grace through faith in the Messiah (Exodus 19:5-6). As such, the Jews were hated by the wicked world. Nehemiah 4:1, " But it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews." Anytime a man of God does a work for God, enemies will rise up against him! Critics will slander him. Ungodly pastors will berate and shun him! But God is pleased with his faithful servant!

I love this next Bible verse, which says that the men building the wall with Nehemiah held a trowel in one hand, while wielding a sword in the other! Nehemiah 4:17, " They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon." They didn't stop building to go fight. That is so important to see! As Christians, we must not allow this Coronavirus pandemic to cause us to stop doing the work of God. The primary work of God is SOULWINNING! Yes, we still have to fight battles as believers, but we must never let those battles sidetrack us from serving God. We mustn't allow the cares, riches and pleasures of this life to cause us not to bear fruit for Christ. 1st Corinthians 9:16, " For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!"

Oh That Christian Brethren Loved The Truth And One Another

I hear many preachers quote from the next passage, but no one ever connects loving one another with the world hating us as Christians. The Lord is telling us that the unsaved world is going to hate us, just like they hated and crucified Him; but we are not of the world, just as He is not of the world, and we ought to LOVE ONE ANOTHER...

> John 15:17-21, “ These things I command you, that ye love one another. If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. But all these things will they do unto you for my name’s sake, because they know not him that sent me.”

It breaks my heart to preach against Independent Fundamental Baptist churches (God knows my heart), which ought to be citadels of truth in these perilous times. Instead, I am compelled as a humble faithful man of God—to preach uncompromisingly against Moody Church in Chicago, against Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, against the First Baptist Church of Hammond, against Bob Jones University and other apostate arrogant institutions today—because they don’t care about the purity or inspiration of God’s Word! They don’t care about the truth! No man loves his neighbour as himself, who does not LOVE THE TRUTH!!!

Kindly, what the [6]First Baptist Church Of Hammond, Indiana, has done to Dr. Russell Anderson is arrogance, not love. Dr. Anderson still believes that the King James Bible is inspired, but FBCH just won’t say it. I have read ridiculous Statements of Faith from churches all across the country, but THEY JUST WON’T SAY IT! They refuse to say that THE KING JAMES BIBLE IS INSPIRED!!! Even the famous atheist, Voltaire, knew the significance of denying the inspiration of the Holy Bible...

> “The Bible is not the inspired, inerrant and 100 % historically true words of God. ... If we would destroy the Christian religion, we must first of all destroy man’s belief in the Bible.” —Voltaire (French philosopher and former unbeliever 1694-1778 - He now knows better [in Hell])

By denying the inspiration of the King James Bible, pastors are betraying God’s Word and helping to destroy Christianity!!!

Sadly, I have to fight against my own backsliden Christian brethren, who are opening the door for the Devil to come right into the churches!!! I will humbly rip face against ANYONE who denies that we have an inspired King James Bible today!!! I will humbly rip face against ANYONE who sanctions the Devil's corrupt Alexandrian Bible revisions (which the [7]Jehovah's Witnesses love and use). I ask you with the weeping prophet Jeremiah, **"

Is it nothing to you, all yet that pass by?

(Lamentations

1:12a).

1.2.32 We Have Sinned (2020-04-08 13:30)

Psalm 106:6, "We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly."

Pastor Jack Hyles beautifully said: "First Baptist Church of Hammond will become a great church when we stop saying, 'He has sinned' and 'She has sinned' and we start saying 'We have sinned'." WE HAVE SINNED DEAR FRIEND!!!

Always remember—there but for the grace of God, go I! I love what Brother Hyles taught

—WE HAVE SINNED!!!

One of the most helpful sermons I've ever heard was from Pastor Jack Hyles, titled: "[1]The Good Man Versus The Spiritual Man." It is a beautiful truth! If we could learn to view ourselves as sinful as the next guy, we'd have a whole different attitude toward those who sin! I hope you'll take time to listen to this sermon, for it truly is precious!!! I thank God for Dr. Hyles. He grew up in The Great Depression, knowing what it means to survive in total poverty with no food at all. If it weren't for the local church bringing baskets of food to their door, and the wild mustard greens Coystal Hyles (his mother) picked along the train tracks in East Texas, they would have starved to death!

Here are some of my favorite helpful MP3 sermons by Pastor Hyles, which will change your life if you'll take them to heart (This is GOOD STUFF!)...

- [2] If Thou Should Mark Iniquities
  , Who Could Stand?
- [3]I Find No Fault In This Man
- [4]The Happiest Man
- [5]Don't Forget The Hindmost
- [6] God's Army Only Uses Wounded Soldiers
- [7]Some On Broken Pieces
- [8]It Doesn't Matter How You Got There
- [9]The Hurting Sinner Hurts Just As Much As The Hurting Saint

I am confident dear reader, that if you'll listen to these sermons with a humble heart, that they will change your life for Christ, as they have mine.

Only The Christian Army Kills Its Wounded

We live in a throw-away society in America. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) used to say that the Christian army is the only army in the world that kills its wounded. Dr. Hyles uses the following illustration to drive home this point...

> "The same attention is given to the guilty, that's given to the innocent. I wish Christians were that way. A gun battle takes place—a criminal and a police officer—that criminal is shot in the gun battle, and so is the police officer. They both are critically wounded. The paramedics come. They give the same attention to that criminal, that they give to that police officer. Why? It's not their job to help the innocent wounded, it's their job to help the wounded. Sometimes they'll put a man in the hospital room, have an armed guard at his door, and have doctors on the inside trying to save his life. Do you know why, because the medical profession is not the judicial profession. You'll never hear a better statement than that! I wish Christians were like that... THE MEDICAL PROFESSION IS NOT THE JUDICIAL PROFESSION! The medical profession is given to the healing of bodies, —all bodies—self-inflicted wounds, as well as others-inflicted wounds! I wish Christians were like that." —Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from the awesome sermon titled, "[10]The Hurting Sinner Hurts Just As Much As The Hurting Saint."

WE ARE ALL SINNERS!!!

> "If you want a church like this, we invite you to join our church, but I want to warn you—We can't stand close inspection, just like you can't—but if you as a sinner will come and join the rest of us sinners, we'll all try to be better people together!"

1.2.33 Why You Shouldn't Use More Than One Bible (2020-04-08 19:30)

Acts 19:32, "Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together."

There are several important reasons why you shouldn't use MULTIPLE Bible revisions:

1. God only authored one inspired Holy Book.
2. There can only be ONE inspired Word of God in any language.
3. Sanctioning and using multiple Bible versions confuses people.
4. The different Bible versions drastically disagree with each other.
5. Lucifer-worshipping occultists are behind all of the modern Bible versions.
6. Jehovah's Witnesses use the corrupt Alexandrian text of Westcott and Hort.
7. There are no legitimate reasons to use more than one Bible.
8. Nazi-affiliated [1]Rudolph Kittel's butchered the Hebrew Old Testament.
9. The modern Bible versions often teach a false meaning of repentance and salvation.
10. A church that uses multiple Bible versions reveals that the pastor doesn't care about the purity of God's Word.
11. The King James Bible is [2]being phased out as part of the New World Order.
12. It will be impossible to memorize Scriptures from multiple different versions.
13. The modern Bible versions secularize the Bible.
14. Many of the modern translations are mere paraphrases, admittedly man's opinion.
15. All of the modern Bible revisions brutally attack the Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ.

16. None of the translators of the modern versions believe the Bible is inspired today.
17. The man with two watches never knows the correct time; likewise using multiples versions deprives a man of the confidence, that they have God's inspired Words.
18. The new modern revisions KEEP CHANGING; but the King James Bible doesn't.
19. The modern versions are produced from a religious culture of uncertainty and doubt, concerning the purity and inspiration of the Word of God.
20. Before 1881 there was only the King James Bible in American churches.

I could give you many more reasons, but these are the main reasons. I hear apostate pastors saying that they need the newer versions because they are easier to understand. Well, then you should just use one of the so-called " easier

newer Bibles, and stop confusing people by using the King James Bible along with some newer corruption of God's Word. Why confuse people?

May I also remind you that the apostle Peter admittedly couldn't understand some of the apostle Paul's writings. The Scriptures were DIFFICULT for him to understand, but Peter didn't attempt to re-translate the Bible to make it easier for unlearned people to grasp. The notion that we continually need a "new" and " [3]easier-to-read " Bible to keep up with the English language, has been used by Satan to infiltrate the churches with [4]counterfeit Bible versions .

Please don't misunderstand, all of the new versions are corrupt and I don't think anybody should use them. I wouldn't attend any church that uses one of the new Bible versions. Nor will I ever attend one again that uses two Bibles, because they all teach Lordship Salvation. That's because the new Bible versions are all corrupt. [5]Take a look at some of the corruptions in the New International Version (NIV). Check out the [6]nightmare theology of the Tree Of Life Version (TLV). And here's the satanic [7]Easy-To-Read Version (ERV).

The King James Bible is not as hard to read as the Bible-butchers would lead us to falsely believe. [8]Is The King James Bible Harder To Read? If you take an honest look at the differences in theology between the new modernized Bible versions and the accurate King James Bible, the new versions are impossible to understand in comparison, making no sense in countless passages. If the truth has been corrupted, then the new translations are impossible to comprehend. All of the modern Bible versions were [9]translated from the 1881 Greek work of occultists Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort. Our churches have [10]spiritual food-poisoning from the Devil.

Also, [11]beware of the Hebrew and Greek study aids, many of which were authored by associates of the [12]unsaved reprobates behind the modern corrupt Bible versions.

When you use a Bible (and there are some 100 of them now) which is not the King James Bible, for instance the NIV (New International Version), MEV (Modern English Version), NKJV (New King James Version), ESV (English Standard Version) et cetera, you are using a bible which does at least one of the following:

1. Uses different Greek/Hebrew texts with parts omitted.
2. Has parts of the Bible removed (e.g., most modern versions have sections of Mark removed, along with Luke (2:33), John 3:16 (begotten removed)
3. Matthew 18:11, 'For the Son of man has come to save that which was lost.' NIV: removed completely.
4. Changes the words to be more politically correct or gender neutral, for instance the MEV (which is meant to be an up-to-date and literal translation of the King James Bible) changes the word 'strangers' to 'refugees' (1 Peter 1). Strangers is the correct word in the Greek (Greek word parepidēmos), it isn't refugees, this is changing the word of God, and changing it to make a politically motivated statement rather than reaching out to ALL people as Peter intended - strangers, as one does not just have to be a refugee to reside in another place.
5. The NIV (and most modern versions) remove Acts 8:37.
6. NIV, MEV, NKJV et cetera change II Timothy 2:9 from, 'the word of God is not bound' to 'not chained'; again the correct words are not bound. Ironically, every other version IS BOUND because it is tied with copyright laws for profit.
7. Proverbs 11:30, '... he that winneth souls is wise' is changed to 'the one who is wise saves lives' in NIV. Complete mistranslation from Greek laqach which means 'to take, acquire, get i.e. win' and nephesh which literally means 'souls.' God is calling a soulwinner wise. But the NIV refers to something vague as saving lives. If you see someone stepping out in front of a bus, of course you will stop them if you can, but this isn't what the verse is referring to; it's referring to winning souls to Christ so that they may go to Heaven. It's not a co-incidence that modern evangelicals have almost no idea what door-to-door soulwinning or handing out Gospel tracts is. Sadly, this is another factor added into the decline of church membership. Even more shocking is the English Standard version (ESV) which changes it to, '... a violent man takes lives.' Sadly, Bob Jones University today shamefully promotes, sells and allows the ESV on its campus. The inspired King James Bible has few friends nowadays!

8. Revelation 11:17, KJV reads, '..and art to come;', NIV attacks the second coming of Jesus by completely removing this.

9. ADDS to Jesus' finished redemptive work (e.g. - NIV - 1st Corinthians 1:18 states a person is 'BEING saved' (i.e. works based salvation) where the true translation in the KJV is 'ARE saved.' [13]Check for yourself.

This is not an exhaustive list, but examples. Have you been deceived? Only the inspired King James Bible can be trusted.

1.2.34 Be Of Good Cheer! (2020-04-08 22:00)

John 16:33, "These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world."

We serve a risen Savior! Easter Sunday is just ahead. For the first time in American history, Christians won't be allowed by government law to assemble together as a church on Easter Sunday! Think about that dear friend. Oh what a privilege it is to gather together as Christians. Many people are scared today of the much dreaded Coronavirus, which the media has [1]hyped to hysteria levels. The nations of the world are afraid, but our God is not afraid!

Isaiah 40:15, "

Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

Nothing ever startles, panics or occurs to God! The Lord created all life!

Acts 17:25, " Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;" Jesus Christ created all things. John 1:3,

" All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made." God is still on His throne in Heaven, and the earth is His footstool.

Acts 7:49, " Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?"

Our omnipotent (all-powerful) Savior never changes! Hebrews 13:8, "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever." The world continually changes, people change, society's moral values change, trends come and go; but our God NEVER EVER CHANGES!!! Malachi 3:6, "For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed. " The inspired King James Bible hasn't changed!!! The modern Bible revisions keep changing, confusing naive pastors and churchgoers, but the eternal inspired Word of God is UNCHANGING!!! Did you know that the [2]New International Version (NIV) changed it's content by 38.8 % between the 1984 NIV and the 2011 NIV? It is true! No wonder the churches are changing so quickly nowadays, sliding down the abyss into Hell!

“Do not ask for fears to be removed; ask for courage equal to the fears.” —Pastor Jack Hyles

We Serve A Risen Savior!

I am NOT worried about the Coronavirus! Isaiah 54:17, “

No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD.

I am not afraid of dying, not in the least. I would prefer not to die in some unpleasant way; but death itself does not intimidate me, because Jesus removed the sting of death on Calvary’s cross (1st Corinthians 15:55-56). In this miserable world, t he only reason I even care to live another day is [3]BECAUSE HE LIVES!!! ...

God sent His son, they called Him Jesus;

He came to love, heal and forgive;

He lived and died to buy my pardon, a n empty grave is there to prove my Savior lives!

Because He lives, I can face tomorrow, b ecause He lives, all fear is gone; b ecause I know He holds the future, a nd life is worth the living, j ust because He lives! —Bill and Gloria Gaither, song: “

[4]Because He Lives

(1971)

I love you in the Lord dear reader, whoever you may be. If you are not a child of God, then [5]please get saved RIGHT NOW before it is too late! If you are God's redeemed child, then, BE OF GOOD CHEER because our blessed Savior lives and all fear is gone!

1.2.35 As It Was In The Days Of Noah (2020-04-09 04:00)

Luke 17:26-27, "And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all."

The Bible prophecies that in the End Times of mankind, the world will return to the horrible conditions before the flood of moral rot, unbelief and decay, as it was in the days of Noah. The Bible teaches that the world has always been a wicked place. 1st John 5:19, "And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness." Since the Industrial Revolution of the 19th century, humanity has made incredible advancements in technology. The 20th century was an amazing time of innovation and inventions. Have you ever stopped to ponder that for 6,000 years of human civilization, mankind didn't have 99 % of the amazing conveniences that we have today?

For example: There was no such thing as canned foods 110 years ago. In fact, although inventors were unsuccessfully trying to invent the canning process, it wasn't until the year [1]1912 that the first commercial canning process happened. Literally, in 1910 you couldn't go down to the local store and buy a can of Chef Boyardee Ravioli (which I love to eat by the way). The Chef Boyardee company began in 1928! We are so blessed by God in America!

Today, in the 21st century, we are witnessing mind-boggling developments in computer science, genetics and every science known to man. Like everything else in life, these amazing technologies are a DOUBLE-EDGED SWORD. People today are no more sinful than they were 5,000 years ago, but technology has allowed humanity to travel farther down the road we were already on!

The Bible says that before the flood, every THOUGHT of man's heart was continually evil. So God destroyed the world, saving only EIGHT people alive...

> Genesis 6:5-7, "And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart. And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them."

The Bible likens the End Times to the apostate time of Noah...

> Luke 17:26-27, "And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all."

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) rightly said this about America in 1942:

> "The whole rotten modern world is wrecked because of disobedience. The sinful, hellish philosophy that has destroyed America is built upon the philosophy of disobedience. Prisons are filled with juvenile delinquents. Children have been killing their school teachers in some sections of America—cutting their throats, shooting them. Little girls and boys are out murdering people. If you stay here you are going to obey." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

It's hard to believe that Dr. Jones said that in 1942. Things in the United States are 1,000 times worse today in 2020!!!

The Prince of Preachers, [2]Dr. Tom Malone rightly said in 1971:

> "This whole society is rotten and Godless. The wrath of God is upon America. Mark my word: if God's Word be true, this nation is headed for the dust." —Pastor Tom Malone, "[3]Can America Survive?"

Brother Malone was absolutely correct!

In 1974,

Pentecostal preacher, Pastor David Wilkerson, presented a grim future image

America in a sermon called:

“ [4]A FLOOD OF FILTH! ” (MP3). Brother Lester Roloff saw the trends of his generation, preaching a needful sermon titled:

“

[5]STEPS IN THE DEGENERATION OF OUR NATION!

” (MP3).

America has been headed in a wrong direction for a very long time.

Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr. made these statements concerning our nation’s misdirection:

> “It is horrifying that we have run rapidly away from God’s will, God’s Word, God’s way; as a matter of fact, our nation has embraced the religion of secular humanism—the religion of secular humanism says: Whatever a person feels is right in their own eyes, is right. And while I certainly would never try to stop anybody from doing what they want to do, my challenge is—why do you have to force your immoral practices on the rest of us to have to acknowledge them.” —Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr., a quote from the excellent sermon titled, “[6]You Must Be Born Again | [7]MP3”

> “The direction that our country seems to be going is the opposite of God’s direction!”
> —Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr., “ [8]You Must Be Born Again | [9]MP3 ”

A hurting person needs love, and there is no substitute. WE ARE ALL SINNERS!!!

“We believe this King James Bible is the ONLY Bible!” —Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the great sermon, “ [10]I Find No Fault In This Man! ”

Sodom And Gomorrha Destroyed As An Example

We also read in Luke 17:28 that the world will return “AS IT WAS IN THE DAYS OF LOT”...

> Luke 17:28-30, “Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.”

Sodom (and the four other cities destroyed by God in Genesis) didn’t know what hit them! Jude 1:7,

Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

” By the way, the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrha by fire and brimstone, is evidence that Hell has fire! If you ever hear a Bible teacher question whether Hell has fire, they don’t know the Word of God. They are unskilled in handling the Word of Truth! I wouldn’t listen to ANYTHING anybody has to say, who doesn’t firmly know that Hell is a literal place, that burns with real fire, and lasts forever!!!

The Bible says God intentionally destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah with fire and brimstone—as an EXAMPLE to the ungodly who die in their sins without Jesus Christ as Savior—that they will burn in Hell, suffering God's eternal vengeance!!! God gave the world a living illustration of what He is going to do to all Christ-rejecters of all time!!!

We Are Now In The End Times Of Bible Prophecy

2nd Timothy 3:1-2, "This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy..." I just read today that the [11]vast majority of U.S. pastors see signs of the End Times in current events. The 911 attack on the World Trade Center in New York, was a critical junction in the [12]Globalist's plot for a New World Order, which [13]they have openly called for since the [14]inception of our country in 1776. I believe that the sinister New World Order (NWO) is the continuation of what Satan tried to accomplish at the tower and city of Babel in Genesis 11:1-11. The NWO is the Beast system of the coming Man of Sin, the Antichrist (i.e., in place of Christ).

We have a wonderful God, who offers mercy and forgiveness to all humanity, as a free gift, through childlike faith in His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ. 1st Samuel 12:20, " And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not: ye have done all this wickedness: yet turn not aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart;" Our God is a merciful God, to those who want His forgiveness.

Micah 7:18, " Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy." It is so wonderful to be a Christian in these End Times, knowing that my name is written in Heaven. I rejoice in having full confidence that I am not going to Hell, but instead I have an eternal home in Heaven, with Jesus my blessed God and Savior!

1.2.36 A Good Pastor Versus A Godly Pastor (2020-04-09 10:00)

2nd Timothy 4:1-5, " I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry."

I love this bold passage of Scripture! The man of God is expected to PREACH THE WORD!!! Well you can't preach the Word if you don't even have the Word! The average knucklehead pastor today is so incompetent, lacking in spiritual discernment and theological training, that he cannot even determine which Bible God authored! I say that with respect for the pulpit, but also with disdain for the arrogant men who profane the pulpit.

Here is clear evidence of the apostasy I am talking about...

> Except in certain very conservative Christian circles, the KJV is no longer the exclusive Bible of the English-speaking church. Despite sales numbers, it is probably no longer even the primary Bible of the English-speaking church. That means that in most congregations, there are perhaps as many as half a dozen different English translations being read by the people in the pews. In the PCA [Presbyterian Churches Of America], my own denomination, here is the likely scenario: some few of the oldest members are still using the KJV. The adults are probably using either the ESV or the NIV. Some are using the NIV 2011. Some of the younger members may be using the New Living Translation (NLT) or the Contemporary English Version (CEV). Perhaps some of the children are using the New Century Version (NCV) which is aimed at younger readers. Given this variety, what is a pastor to do?
> It doesn't really matter which version the pastor uses, though some congregants will follow his lead on Bible choice. But the pastor should find out which translations are being used in his congregation; and he should familiarize himself with them. —The Aquila Report, '[1]The Pastor And Bible Translations' [emphasis added]

Folks, that is a damning report on the apostate condition of our churches today! I have been predicting for many years now that the King James Bible WILL BE phased out over time, and be replaced with the [2]theologically deficient and [3]downright corrupt modern PERversions. In so doing, Satan is transforming the churches into spiritual religious centers without theology! This has been the [4]openly stated goals of Theosophists (i.e., Luciferians) throughout the 20th century, one of the most notable key figures being [5]Alice Bailey (1880-1949). Their sinister plot is to infiltrate the churches, and then transform them from places of Biblical theology to vague new age spirituality. They are accomplishing this dirty deed by publishing one corrupt Bible translation after the next, each taking the theological bar a little lower. An example of this is the new '[6]Christian Standard Bible' (CSB) published by the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) in 2017, which removes the word " in 1,222 places to accommodate the gender-neutral agenda of this perverse generation!

Contrary to the claim you just read in the preceding quote—that “ it very much absolutely DOES MATTER WHICH BIBLE VERSION YOU USE!!! The reason why is because [7]Satan has horribly corrupted the never-ending rash of new modern Bibles, just as THE SERPENT did God’s Word in Genesis 3:1. God told Adam and Eve in Genesis 2:16-17 that they COULD EAT the fruit of all the trees, except

IT DOESN’T MATTER WHICH VERSION THE PASTOR USES

”—

one; but the serpent told Eve God said she COULDN’T EAT the fruit of any tree! The Devil lied to deceive Eve, just as he is deceiving the churches today into adopting ’ANOTHER GOSPEL’ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4) taught in the new Bibles! Please use ONLY the trustworthy King James Bible dear reader!!!

Many church members want a good pastor, but not a godly pastor. They want a pastor to perform their weddings and funerals. They want a pastor to go through the motions and do all the work of a good pastor. They want a pastor to teach them the Bible, encourage them and give comfort. And a pastor should do all these things, for which he is paid; b ut most churches don’t want a godly pastor who preaches controversial truth (such as criticizing modern Bible versions). They want a pastor who doesn’t make waves for the church, doesn’t rock the boat, and doesn’t bring persecution upon the church. They want the good life, quietly existing in the community without offending anybody! They want a theological wimp in the pulpit, a pastor who is henpecked by rich people in the congregation!

Most churches don’t want a pastor who calls false prophets by name, because that might offend somebody. They don’t want a pastor who has researched the 911 attacks and has discovered that it was unmistakably an Inside Job! They don’t want a conspiratorial pastor who has done his homework and knows that Zionism is of the Devil, and that present-day Israel is a Marxist-Communist secular corrupt state. They don’t want a pastor who knows that Zionism-Freemasonry controls the U.S. government, courts, mainstream religions, medical industry, mainstream newsmedia, Hollywood, the music industry, et cetera.

A godly pastor preaches the truth, because he wants God’s flock to be aware of what’s going on. [8]I heard Pastor Hyles say in a sermon today that he has never asked God to help him preach “a good sermon”; but rather, to preach “THE TRUTH”! That is a godly pastor! The pastor is the Savior’s under-shepherd. Jesus Himself is The Great Shepherd! The church congregation is NOT the pastor’s people, it is the Lord’s flock. Jesus told the apostle Peter in John 21:16 to “ FEED MY SHEEP ” ! We are God’s sheep. A pastor who controls his people is leading a religious cult, not a New Testament local church! A godly pastor leads the Lord’s sheep with the inspired Word of God.

Somebody Needs To Care

I can just see the face of some of you reading what I am saying with disagreement. You think that a pastor should stick to the basics, avoiding any controversial issues. It is that wrong attitude which is exactly why America is going to Hell in a wheelbarrow. It is that sorry attitude why Americans wrongly hate Muslims and blame Islam for the 911 attacks. Islam had nothing to do with the 911 attacks. It was the Illuminati (aka, the synagogue of Satan). If you laugh and think that sounds crazy, it is only because you are woefully ignorant of the truth, which is exactly why I preach that pastors should teach their congregations. Look on the back of any U.S. one dollar bill and you’ll see an Illuminati pyramid, with a detached capstone and All Seeing Eye.

The occultists themselves scorn the idiocy of the average American citizen, who refuse to believe that a Luciferian conspiracy exists, while plain evidence mocks them in plain view on every U.S. one dollar bill. The average American person is so gullible, indifferent and naive. Even U.S. President John F. Kennedy tried to warn the American people, ten days before he was brutally murdered by the Illuminati run Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), but hardly anyone was paying attention. Still, today, hardly anyone cares or takes notice.

> Psalms 12:1, “Help, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.”

Every preacher in the United States ought to expose the New World Order, the criminal CIA organization (who started the Department Of Homeland Security after the 9/11 attacks to establish a Police States in the U.S.), the rulers of the darkness of this world, Communism, government tax fraud, and evil in all its many forms. I'm not saying that a pastor should replace preaching the Word of God with a bunch of conspiracy stuff. I'm simply saying that pastors have a duty before God to preach THE TRUTH, to warn their flock, to help educate and inform people of matters that affect our children, our families, our churches, and the liberties and freedoms which God has entrusted to us in America! And please remember, the biggest conspiracy is the false claim that there are no conspiracies. Every pastor should teach his people enough so that they won't go along with the Devil's New World Order. The average pastor won't even acknowledge that the New World Order exists, and so he goes along with it as a fool, the blind leading the blind.

A Godly Pastor Cares About Truth

I see churches embracing Luciferian Bible versions, praising the Satanic present-day state of Israel, voting for sex-perverted Mormon leaders for U.S. President, tolerating multiple plans of salvation, making heroes of heretics like John MacArthur who says that Jesus' blood is not on the Mercy Seat in Heaven, making heroes of heretics like Martin Luther who taught in 1529 A.D. (12-years after he allegedly got saved) that you must be water baptized to go to Heaven, and so on and so on. Our churches are in spiritual shambles!!!

A godly pastor CARES! A godly pastor cares about THE TRUTH! A godly pastor walks with God (Jesus), which gives him the boldness to preach THE TRUTH!!! Acts 4:13, "Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus." America's desperate need is preaching PREACHERS!

1.2.37 Antioch Versus Alexandria (2020-04-09 17:00)

Acts 11:26, " And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch."

The following very helpful information is from Pastor James L. Melton's excellent book titled: 'Fighting Back! A Handy Reference For King James Bible Believers!,' chapter 6, "ANTIOCH VERSUS ALEXANDRIA"...

Antioch Versus Alexandria

As Bible-believing Christians, we believe that the words of the King James Authorized Version are the pure and preserved words of God for the English speaking people. This booklet has been written to help fellow Bible-believers defend themselves against the fiery darts of the wicked Laodiceans and Alexandrians who do not believe that any human being should have a printed final authority to guide him through this wicked world of darkness and deceit.

I realize it is unusual to see such a brief booklet addressing so many subjects, but it is my personal belief that this is what many people need in these last days.

The Bible Believer's Helpful Little Handbook has been well accepted by Christians because of it's variety, it's brevity, and it's scriptural content. I've tried to stick to that same basic principle in this booklet. Since this is mainly a reference guide, it isn't necessary for you to read the entire booklet in order to appreciate many of the truths it contains. Each small section contains valuable truths that the active Bible-believer will find helpful time after time. However, if you'll take the time to read the entire booklet, you will learn many things that will increase your faith in God's preserved word. You will also become more equipped to do battle with the Alexandrian apostates who work endlessly in their efforts to replace your two-edged sword with a toothpick. These people take great delight in ridiculing and intimidating people like you and I, and far too often they win because we do not know the answers. With a good knowledge of the information in the forthcoming pages, you CAN know the answers and you can win a few battles of your own.

I urge you to become familiar with this little booklet. Mark or highlight the special places that will be most useful to you. Keep a copy close by and when the moment is right, USE IT!

The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever. (Psalms 12:6-7)

Reasons for Accepting the KJV as God's Preserved Word

1. God promised to preserve His words (Psalms 12:6-7; Matthew 24:35). There has to be a preserved copy of God's pure words somewhere. If it isn't the KJV, then what is it?

2. It has no copyright. The text of the KJV may be reproduced by anyone for there is no copyright forbidding it's duplication. This is not true with the modern perversions.

3. The KJV produces good fruit (Matthew 7:17-20). No modern translation can compare to the KJV when it comes to producing good fruit. For nearly four hundred years, God has used the preaching and teaching of the KJV to bring hundreds of millions to Christ. Laodicean Christians might favor the new versions, but the Holy Spirit doesn't.

4. The KJV was translated during the Philadelphia church period (Revelation 3:7-13). The modern versions begin to appear rather late on the scene as the lukewarm Laodicean period gets underway (Revelation 3:14-22), but the KJV was produced way back in 1611, just in time for the many great revivals (1700-1900). The Philadelphia church was the only church that did not receive a rebuke from the Lord Jesus Christ, and it was the only church that "kept" God's word (Revelation 3:8).

5. The KJV translators were honest in their work. When the translators had to add certain words, largely due to idiom changes, they placed the added words in italics so we'd know the difference. This is not the case with many new translations.

6. All new translations compare themselves to the KJV. Isn't it strange that the new versions never compare themselves to one another? For some strange reason they all line up against one Book—the A.V. 1611. I wonder why? Try Matthew 12:26.

7. The KJV translators believed they were handling the very words of God (1 Thessalonians 2:13). Just read the King James Dedicatory and compare it to the prefaces in the modern versions. Immediately, you will see a world of difference in the approach and attitude of the translators. Which group would YOU pick for translating a book?

8. The KJV is supported by far more evidence. Of over 5,300 pieces of manuscript evidence, ninety-five percent supports the King James Bible! The changes in the new versions are based on the remaining five percent of manuscripts, most of which are from Alexandria, Egypt. (There are only two lines of Bibles: the Devil's line from Alexandria, and the Lord's line from Antioch. We'll deal with this later.)

9. No one has ever proven that the KJV is not God's word. The 1611 should be considered innocent until proven guilty with a significant amount of genuine manuscript evidence.

10. The KJV exalts the Lord Jesus Christ. The true scriptures should testify of Jesus Christ (John 5:39). There is no book on this planet which exalts Christ higher than the King James Bible. In numerous places the new perversions attack the Deity of Christ, the Blood Atonement, the Resurrection, salvation by grace through faith, and the Second Coming. The true scriptures will TESTIFY of Jesus Christ, not ATTACK Him!

Questions for the KJV Critics

1. Since you're smart enough to find "mistakes" in the KJV, why don't you correct them all and give us a perfect Bible?

2. Do you have a perfect Bible?

3. Since you do believe "the Bible" is our final authority in all matters of faith and practice, could you please show us where Jesus, Peter, James, Paul, or John ever practiced your terminology ("the Greek text says...the Hebrew text says... the originals say... a better rendering would be... older manuscripts read... " etc.)?

4. Since you do not profess to have a perfect Bible, why do you refer to it as "God's word"?

5. Remembering that the Holy Spirit is the greatest Teacher (John 16:12-15; 1 John 2:27), who taught you that the King James Bible was not infallible, the Holy Spirit or man?

6. Since you do believe in the degeneration of man and in the degeneration of the world system in general, why is it that you believe education has somehow "evolved" and that men are more qualified to translate God’s word today than in 1611?

7. There is one true God, yet many false gods. There is one true Church, consisting of true born-again believers in Christ, yet there are many false churches. So why do you think it’s so wrong to teach that there is one true Bible, yet many false "bibles"?

8. Isn’t it true that you believe God inspired His holy words in the "originals," but has since lost them, since no one has a perfect Bible today?

9. Isn’t it true that when you use the term "the Greek text" you are being deceitful and lying, since there are MANY Greek TEXTS (plural), rather than just one?

10. Before the first new perversion was published in 1881 (the RV), the King James Bible was published, preached, and taught throughout the world. God blessed these efforts and hundreds of millions were saved. Today, with the many new translations on the market, very few are being saved. The great revivals are over. Who has gained the most from the new versions, God or Satan?

SOURCE: Pastor James L. Melton's excellent book titled: 'Fighting Back! A Handy Reference For King James Bible Believers!,' chapter 6, "ANTIOCH VERSES ALEXANDRIA."

Something is very wrong with a pastor, church, Bible college or churchgoer who adheres to multiple Bible versions! The King James Bible is not a version, it is God's preserved and inspired Word!!! Only the King James Bible crowd claims exclusivity! That alone speaks volumes! Everyone else has to search through a dozen Bible revisions to see which one satisfies their fancy. If you don't see a serious problem with that, you're not right with God!!! Bless God, the King James Bible is the one!!! If you disagree, then which one is the one? But don't you dare tell me that God preserved His inspired words amidst a plethora of hundreds of English Bible versions that are all based upon two drastically different Greek sources. God only wrote one Book!

1.2.38 Why All The Occult Symbols And Satanic Signs Today? (2020-04-10 03:41)

2nd Thessalonians 2:7-10, "

For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:

Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved."

In her book titled, "[1]The Externalization Of The Hierarchy" (heathen website), occultist Alice Bailey (1880-1949), said that now is the time to manifest the ancient mystery religions and start preparing the world to receive the coming man of sin, the Antichrist. Please read my article on the subject, [2]Exposing The Satanic 'Externalisation Of The Hierarchy' Of Alice Bailey. In her book, Bailey mentions the word "Christ" 666 times (do a search of her book and [3]see for yourself; she mentions Christ 666 TIMES! She also mentions Christ once in the introduction of her book, and then 666 times in the chapters to follow), because Bailey's is the Antichrist! She doesn't mention the precious name of "Jesus Christ" even once in her Satanic book!!!

Christ

Satan has been plotting since the beginning of civilization (evidenced by the city and tower of Babel in Genesis 11:1-11), to achieve world government and lead humanity into a global rebellion against God. This is why [4]homosexuality, the lies of Evolution, and all manner of wickedness are being unleashed upon American society and the world today—to demoralize our youth in an effort to alienate them from Christianity. [5]By destroying the traditional family it weakens our society. Those in the World Revolutionary Movement (see Commander William Guy Carr's incredibly insightful free online .pdf book, "

[6]Satan: Prince Of This World

), told us long ago that [7]they intended to destroy faith in God , individualism, national patriotism, family tradition and religious dogmas. The reason is obvious, that is, for the world to follow the Antichrist everyone needs to be on the same page, so-to-speak.

Everything is quickly moving toward world government, and its leader will be the soon coming Antichrist. The Illuminati wouldn't be externalizing their hierarchical power structure of Luciferianism if they didn't believe the Antichrist is coming very soon. Of course, we know as Bible-believing Christians that the Rapture must happen first, before the Antichrist can be revealed. The Antichrist cannot be revealed until the Church is gone, because the Church is Satan's #1 enemy and we would expose him right away! Once the Church is "CAUGHT UP" (1st Thessalonians 4:17), the masses of this wicked world will be damned. 2nd Thessalonians 2:12, "That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness." Please get saved my friend if you've never been born-again, before it is too late. [8]Today, right now, is the time to be saved!!!

> [9]Do You Know The Way To Heaven? (a simple presentation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, by Pastor Max D. Younce)

The Illuminati (and those in positions of power and influence who serve them) couldn't care less about citizen's rights or liberty and freedom; but rather, they want complete control over everyone's lives, so they can force everyone to receive a mark in their right-hand or forehead to buy or sell. I think that is what this [10]Coronavirus pandemic hysteria is all about. The virus is real, but the newsmedia has hyped it from day one, like a horse race taking off out of the gate... [11]AND THEY'RE OFF!!! The Holy Bible warns us that the Devil only comes to kill, steal and destroy, and we ought not trust him nor those who serve him (John 10:10).

What does all the occult symbols mean? It means the Antichrist is coming! Moreover, it means that Jesus Christ is coming very soon! I believe in a [12]Pretribulation Rapture of the Body of Christ (i.e., all saints). That means Jesus must return before the Antichrist appears! If there is no Rapture, as some errant preachers claim, then we ought to be looking for the Man of Sin instead (because he would have to appear first). No, Jesus is coming first! In fact, the Lord could return this very moment, without warning, a complete surprise!!!

> Mark 13:32-35, "
>
> But of that day and that hour knoweth no man*, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.
>
> Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.
>
> For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.
>
> Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when* the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:
> **"

Folks, unless you are blind, you've been seeing the New World Order develop in the United States since childhood. We have increasingly been bombarded by occult symbols in recent decades. Why? This is all preparing and leading the masses of this world to receive the Man of Sin when he comes—That Antichrist (i.e., in place of Christ). The Holy Bible prophecies of world government in [13]Revelation 17:10-12. We are not surprised as Christians! The Lord told us to " because He has already overcome this world (John 16:33). Praise the Lord! We serve a risen Savior! Jesus is waiting in Heaven for us! I have a home in Heaven, beyond the blue skies! Jesus is coming again! I said JESUS IS COMING AGAIN!! Amen! Even so, come, Lord Jesus!!!

1.2.39 I Am Crucified With Christ, Yet I Live; Yet Not I (2020-04-10 04:00)

Galatians 2:20, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me."

We are saved by TRUSTING Jesus, by receiving His sacrifice on the cross as payment for our sins, believing that He was buried and then bodily resurrected from the dead three days later. This is "[1]THE GOSPEL." That's all that God requires to be saved. Then, the first thing God wants us to do as a new believer is to be CRUCIFIED with Christ, by presenting our body as a living sacrifice to live for the Lord (Romans 12:1). The latter is DISCIPLESHIP, the former is SALVATION. Dr. Jack Hyles teaches this wonderful truth in his timeless MP3 sermon titled, "[2]Steps To Sanctification; Or, The Root Of All Heresy!" I hope you'll listen to it, as I know it will bless your soul. This is a truth that needs to be laid up in your heart, as it has been in mind for many years now. Praise God for THE TRUTH!!!

I love the following passage of Holy Scripture...

Colossians 3:1-3, "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God."

Let's break down Colossians 3:1-3 to see what we can learn here shall we...

1. JESUS CHRIST IS RISEN; THEREFORE,
2. WE ARE TO SEEK HEAVENLY THINGS, WHERE CHRIST SITS ON THE FATHER'S RIGHT HAND.
3. WE ARE TO SET OUR AFFECTION (THINK ABOUT) HEAVENLY THINGS, NOT EARTHLY THINGS.
4. WE ARE DEAD IN CHRIST, AND JESUS IS OUR NEW LIFE.

Very few Christians live this Scripture. This is the key to the believer's happiness. No Christian who walks in the flesh can ever truly be happy. What type of heavenly things should we think about?

1. SOUL-WINNING (Luke 15:10; 1st Peter 1:12)
2. SECOND COMING OF JESUS CHRIST (Philippians 3:20; Titus 2:13)
3. LAY ASIDE DISTRACTIONS AND SIN, AND RUN THE RACE THAT IS SET BEFORE US (Hebrews 12:1)
4. LAY UP TREASURES IN HEAVEN BY LABOURING FOR CHRIST (Matthew 6:19-20; 1st Corinthians 3:7-15)
5. CARING FOR AND PREACHING THE GOSPEL TO THE POOR (Matthew 5:3)
6. THE KING JAMES BIBLE (Psalm 119:89)
7. LOVING AND FORGIVING EVERYONE WITH GOD'S UNCONDITIONAL LOVE (Matthew 6:14-15)

I've just listed but a few, but the entire Holy Bible ought to be our thoughts. I don't know about you, but I want to saturate my thinking and life with the things of God. The only way for a Christian to be happy in Jesus is to TRUST AND OBEY.

A Christian loves righteousness. Even though we are sinners who struggle with the desires of the flesh, we desire in our spirit to do right (Romans 7:14-25). I love God's promise of a new Heaven and earth, where righteousness will abound...

2nd Peter 3:13, "Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness."

Wicked men refuse to listen to the preacher of righteousness, but they cannot escape their Creator in Heaven...

Hebrews 12:25-26, "See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven: Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven."

We all make our choices in life. Some men fear and obey God, who will enter into everlasting peace and blessing. But most men do not fear nor obey God, and will be cast into the Lake of Fire for their unbelief. We do not go to Heaven because of what we do, but because of where we are looking... [3]LOOK TO JESUS! Isaiah 45:22, "Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else." Men have always been saved by trusting upon the Lord. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." As you just read, this was the witness of ALL THE PROPHETS!!! People in the Old Testament were saved the SAME WAY we are today, which is by faith. We read in Genesis 15:6, "And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness" (See also Romans 4:3-6).

1.2.40 What Exactly Is A Church? (2020-04-10 04:00)

Ephesians 1:20-22, “Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all.”

What a beautiful Scripture passage! It is very important dear reader that you understand what “ a church

” is (and is not). Most people haven’t got a clue what a real New Testament church is supposed to be. The following helpful information is from [1]chapter 2 of Pastor Jack Hyles’ awesome book titled, what else, [3]”:

“

> One of the saddest things about our generation is that Baptists are quitting being Baptists. They are becoming too inter-denominational. I believe we should treasure our Baptist heritage. Few preachers today mention anything about the church. It is almost unheard of. They may preach on being faithful to church and attending church, but not the doctrines of the church. I am going to cover some things that I believe should be taught in every Baptist church in America.

I am a Baptist. I have no animosity towards anybody else. There are saved people in many different groups. I have dear friends who are fine Christian people, yet are not members of Baptist churches. But, I do thank God that I am a Baptist, and I love my Baptist heritage.

The word church comes from two words. One word is ek which means out, and the other word is kaleo which means to call. The word is ekklesia and it means a called-out group. That is the word for church in the New Testament. It is a called-out group. When I refer to the church, I am referring to a called-out group. In the Bible it is often called an assembly, but it is not just an assembly. It is a called out assembly. Let me explain further.

1. In order to be a church, the people called-out must have been a part of another group.
2. They must have been called out of that group.
3. They must have formed another group.

The church is a called-out assembly because they were called out from the world to assemble. So, they must have been in the world, they must have been called out from the world, and they must have formed a new group in order for them to be a called-out assembly.

Jesus wills that every person whose name is written in Heaven be part of a local church. Romans 8:28 is not for those who do not belong to a true church. You cannot be right with God and not belong to a true church. A family, who I loved very much wrote me a letter one day, that said, "Brother Hyles, we have had a wonderful time lately. For months now, we have not gone to church anywhere. We have just stayed at home and learned to know God better." No, they did not. Nobody learns to know God better outside the institution Jesus started than they can inside of it. You cannot be right with God and wrong with the ekklesia. You cannot be right with God and not belong to the ekklesia.

Our Baptist brethren in history died for this truth, yet many Baptists today do not even believe it. Never again talk about the invisible church, or the universal church. The word Catholic means universal church. Let the Catholics have that doctrine. There is no such thing according to the Bible. Jesus started one church. That church is the church in which you can hear a message. It is a church where Jesus preached and where Jesus sang. It is a church where people meet. It is a church that has membership and has people baptized. It is a church that has pastors and deacons. It is a local assembly of believers.

People write me letters saying, "Brother Hyles, we're moving to a certain town in a certain state, but we can't find a church there. What should we do?" I write back two words. "Don't move!" If you cannot find a church, God does not want you there. God wants every Christian in an ekklesia.

What this nation needs is more soul-winning New Testament churches in every neighborhood. We need men of God to start ekklesias all across this nation. That is why the Devil has attacked First Baptist Church so viciously. The Devil does not want ekklesias. May God in Heaven bring us back to the old-fashioned doctrine of the true church and not the dreamed up invisible church. —Pastor Jack Hyles,

[4]THE CHURCH

[5]We serve a risen Savior! Easter Sunday is just ahead. For the first time in American history, Christians won’t be allowed by government law to assemble together as a church! Think about that dear friend. Oh what a privilege it is to gather together as Christians.

Matthew 18:20, “ For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.” Jesus is coming soon! Are you ready dear friend?

[6]

Titus 2:13-15, “Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.”

1.2.41 Are You Spiritually Prepared To Die? (2020-04-10 09:00)

1st Thessalonians 4:13-14, " But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. "

The world is panicking over the Coronavirus. I've never seen such paranoia and fear in people as I have lately. People are scared! There is a pandemic of FEAR, that in some ways is worse than the actually VIRUS! I see lines of cars, backed up for city blocks, waiting to get into the local medical clinic for testing. All of the businesses I have been to have some makeshift kind of barricade around the cashier's counter. I've never seen anything like this my whole life. Yet, I have perfect peace and am not worried in the least. God is still on His throne! Jesus commanded every believer to "

BE OF GOOD CHEER

" in John 16:33

Do you know why I am not concerned about all this? It is because I KNOW that my name is written in Heaven. I KNOW that I am a redeemed child of the King! I KNOW 100 % that I am a born-again Christian. I never doubt for even a second if I am saved. I did worry as a teenager, but that was dinosaur ages ago! The Lord has taught me a lot since then, and I no longer fear what I didn't fully understand back then. No believer can ever know sweet joy and peace in the Lord, until you settle this thing about your salvation! Every believer can and should KNOW 100 %, without any doubt whatsoever, that you are eternally saved. If you don't, it is because you lack knowledge of the Scripture. [1]I wrote this book for you! (.PDF).

Dear friend, are you prepared to die? I am not belittling anyone who is concerned about catching or spreading the Coronavirus. I am not diminishing the importance of all this. That is not the purpose of my article. The worst thing that the Coronavirus can do is kill your body, but God can destroy both your body and soul in Hell the Bible says. Matthew 10:28, " And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell." The average person has no concern for the afterlife. They commonly adopt foolish ideologies from the heathen world. A common thing I hear unsaved people say is that "Hell is on earth!" Well, it certainly can be a form of "

in one sense of the word, but there is nothing in this world that can truly compare to Hell other than being burned alive!

If you have not readied your soul for death, the Holy Bible says:

YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN!

" (John 3:1-7). Religion cannot save you! The water baptistery cannot save you! The Seven Sacraments of Roman Catholicism cannot save you! Good works cannot save you! Only the blood of Jesus Christ can save you! Don't delay, because you could be dead by sundown! Proverbs 27:1, "Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

You’ve Already Been Infected With Sin

Billions of people today are taking extreme precautions to prevent being infected with the Coronavirus, but my friend, you’ve already been infected with sin!!! Every human being is infected with sin from birth. We are all sinners, both by nature and by choice.

> Romans 5:12, “Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:”

Jesus’ payment on the cross is the vaccination against the second death. The Lord has taken the horrible sting out of death. 1st Corinthians 15:55-56, “

O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

” Just like a bumble bee that stings and then cannot sting anybody after that, so also has Christ forever removed the painful sting of death for every believer.

> “What He at first inspired, the Lord God has now preserved. Therefore, when I hold the King James Bible in my hand, I hold the inspired text. It was inspired and now that inspired Word has been protected, preserved and provided for us!” —Dr. Shelton Smith, Editor - Sword Of The Lord

1.2.42 Suffering Silences Satan (2020-04-10 12:30)

Job 1:11 and 22, “ But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face. ... In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly. ”

The story of Job is amazing. I have always felt sorry for Mrs. Job, who gets cast into a bad light for suggesting that Job curse God and die (Job 2:9), but consider that she just lost 10 children! Job didn't go through the jaws of death to bear those 10 children, she did. And I have never felt sorry for Job, because his wife remained with him. I have suffered much in my life, being all alone with no wife by my side, so I don't feel sympathy for Job. But what does impress me is this beautiful truth by Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965):

Suffering Silences Satan

"God uses the experience of His children to silence the enemy of the Word of God and the Lord Jesus Christ. Probably the best example of this is the story of the patriarch Job. Remember that Job was a wealthy man, but he was also a spiritual and godly man. When the Lord called Satan's attention to the fact that Job was a godly man who feared the Lord perfectly with all his heart, the devil accused Job of doing it only for the gain and profit which came to him materially as a result of his fearing the Lord.

You will recall that God gave Satan the privilege, the right, to lay his hand upon Job and to take away his possessions and his family. The result was that Satan was silenced; for Job, instead of murmuring and complaining and turning in bitterness against almighty God, praised the Lord and was able to say, 'The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the lord.'

Is it not wonderful to think that God is willing to use us to silence the adversary, the devil, by the testing and the trials and the tribulations which come upon us? Many times I have stood at the bedsides of God’s patient sufferers and have seen the enemy silence—he that would say we only serve God in sunshine. Many time I have stood at the bedsides of those racked with pain for years and seen smiles of gratitude and praise to God —smiles unlike any other from those who have been trained in the school of affliction.

If you are one of God’s ’Satan-silencers,’ praise Him for it.

” —Pastor M.R.

DeHaan,

Broken Things: Why We Suffer,

1948

If we praise God through our suffering, as Job did, God is honored and Satan is silenced. By God’s grace I have faithfully continued to serve Him, despite all the hardships in my life. My neck pain and tension began in 2004. My wife divorced me in 2006. Consequently, I lost my home, self-confidence, possessions and retirement. Everything in my life inexplicably worsened, so bad that I bought two barbecues to commit suicide in 2009.

No one cared for my soul, but my faith in God sustained me.

I underwent two major neck surgeries, without anyone by my side, in 2009 and 2010. The second surgery made me 100 % worse, leaving me with constant burning throughout my nervous system. Both of my arms feel inflated. My toothache-like neck pain never goes away. I survive on prescription pain medications. I have lived alone all these years, wanting to die more times than I can remember, wanting companionship, but enable to find a wife.

Yet, through it all God continues to use my suffering to silence the Devil:

2nd Corinthians 12:8-10, “

For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

As only our omnipotent God can do, He has taken the LEMONS in my life to make LEMONADE. God is so good!

The very thing I'm wrestling against may be the thing that God wants to use to bless me!

Jacob wrestled with the Lord. Genesis 32:26, "And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me." If you are suffering in enduring loneliness, inexplicable pain and traumatic heartache—I know exactly what you feel, and I've been and am there friend. Learn and claim the [1]PROMISES of God in the inspired King James Bible. That is my great joy, comfort and hope! Our God is faithful to keep His promises! What a precious Savior!!!

1.2.43 Be Careful How You Talk About God (2020-04-10 18:00)

Ecclesiastes 5:2, “ Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few. ”

I am appalled the way some people talk bad about God, and blaspheme His holy name. ...

> “We must question the story logic of having an all-knowing all-powerful God, who creates faulty humans, and then blames them for his own mistakes.” —Star Trek movie creator, Gene Roddenberry (1921-1991)

Dear reader, do you believe that God makes “ mistakes

”? I assure you that He does not. Kindly, Gene Roddenberry was a fool to berate His Maker! Isaiah 45:9, “Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?”

I admit that there are many things about God and life that I do not understand. In fact, the older I get the less I think I know about anything! Everyone at some point in life will either blindly trust God, or else place Him on trial (as did Mr. Roddenberry).

> “If there is a God he has a lot to answer for.” —[1]Robert De Niro, Biography, IMDb

Whoa! Does God have a lot to answer for? No friend, it is the other way around! God doesn’t shirk off the cry of the poor, we do! God doesn’t despise and hate his neighbour, we do! I have spoken with countless fellow Americans, who shamefully think the United States was justified to invade Iraq and steal their oil. That oil is worth TRILLIONS of dollars, but the [2]Iraqi people today are living in poverty! Americans have much blood on their hands! OUR government does what they do in OUR name, and with OUR money, so it is OUR business; and yet anyone who dares to question the government is attacked, maligned and demonized by the controlled lying mainstream newsmedia. They shape our reality! America has been hi-jacked by criminals!

The food you eat was given to you by God. The roof over your head came from God. Your health is from God. Your ability to enjoy life is a gift from God. The privilege to have children is a gift from God. Everything good comes from God! James 1:17, “

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

God sends the rain and makes the crops to grow. The Lord blesses even evil people in His goodness. Luke 6:35b, for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

[3]Read how singer Shakira horribly blasphemes God and accuses Him of being a bad God!

Hollywood sex-pervert producer, Woody Allen, foolishly charges God:

> “If God exists, I hope he has a good excuse!”
>
> — [4]Hollywood producer Woody Allen

No, it is Woody who better have a good excuse, because he's going to desperately need one on Judgment Day! Hebrews 10:31, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God."

I have heard atheists berate God, accusing Him of the most horrible things. I heard comedian George Carlin (1937-2008) mocking, who [5]sarcastically said:

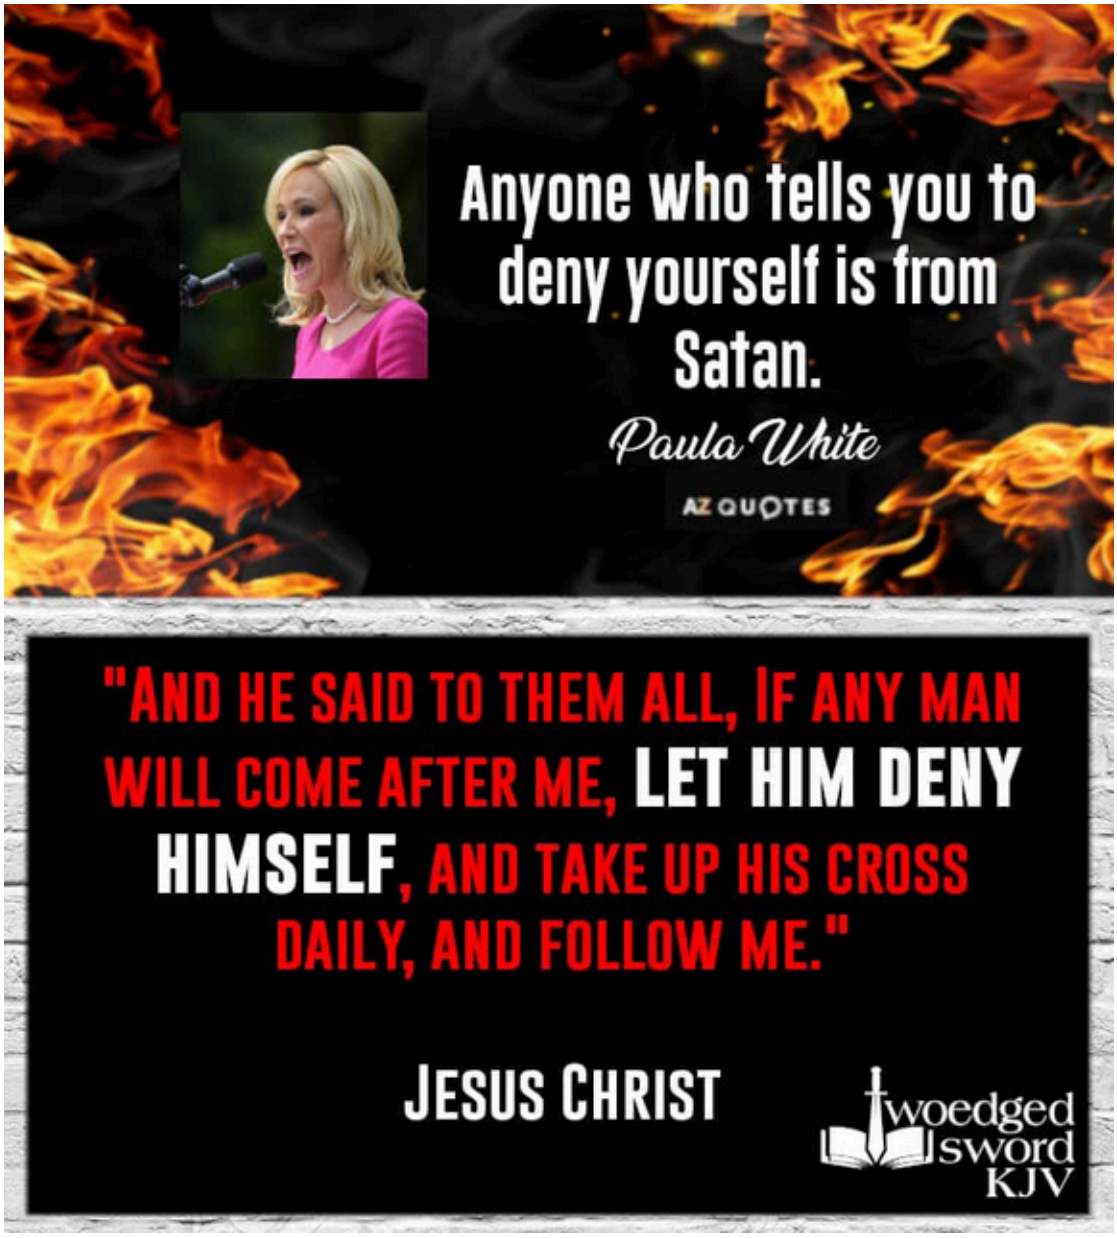
God will send you to burn forever... buy He loves you!

" George Carlin is no longer an atheist—he converted to believing in God the moment he awoke in the fires of Hell. Sadly, it is too late for Mr. Carlin, but it is not too late for you dear reader. [6]The choice is yours!

Why is it that one man curses God's existence, while another man blesses the name of the Lord? Job 1:22, "In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly." Job lost nearly everything he owned. His wife was still with him. I'd rather lose everything I own than a wife, so I have never felt too sorry for Job. He still had companionship, even though his wife was discouraged, and wasn't a comfort to Job's soul when he needed her the most. Albeit, she was still there! There is nothing more cruel than to abandon someone. A godly woman NEVER files for divorce. Proverbs 31:12, " She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life." In the Philippines there are no divorce courts, you are married for life!



How do you talk about God ear reader? Do you give the Lord the praise that He so much deserves?

Psalms 107:1-2, " O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;" When I go to the grocery store, and I see all the different kinds of vegetables, meats and delicacies, I marvel how anyone could curse the name of the Lord and deny His existence. I love God because I know He loves me, and that is why I love everyone. 1st John 3:16, "Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. " There are a lot of miserable people in the world, who don't know God, or know Him but don't walk with Him. What we choose to dwell upon determines how we think and feel. What saith the Scripture? Philippians 2:5, "

Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

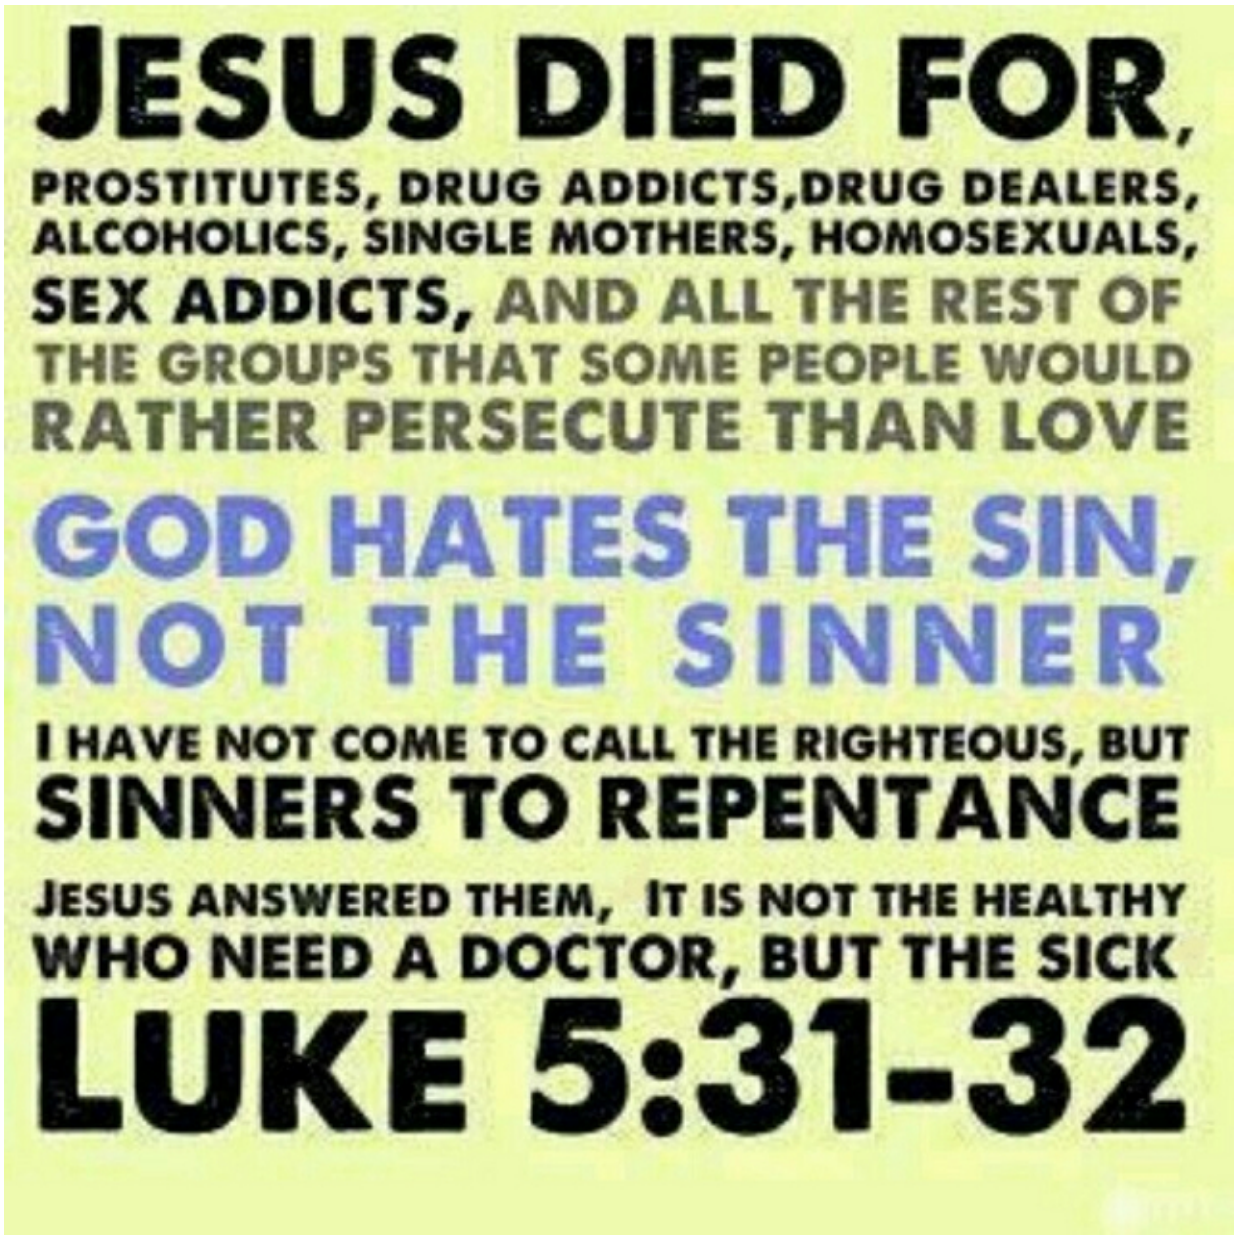
1.2.44 Not Religion, But Regeneration (2020-04-10 23:00)

John 3:16, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

You CANNOT get to Heaven by RELIGION. Matthew 15:8-9, “This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.”

You CANNOT get to Heaven by EDUCATION. 2nd Timothy 3:7, “Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.”



You CANNOT get to Heaven by REHABILITATION. Romans 4:5-6, “But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works.”

You CANNOT get to Heaven by LEGISLATION. Romans 3:20, “Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.”

You CANNOT get to Heaven by REFORMATION. Matthew 27:3, “Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders.”

You CAN get to Heaven by REGENERATION! John 3:3, “Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

1.2.45 Why Believing On Jesus' Name Is Not Enough (2020-04-10 23:30)

Luke 18:31-34, "Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished. For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on: And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again. And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken."

According to Jesus in the preceding Scripture passage, the Old Testament prophets preached 'The Gospel.' [1]I wrote this article about it. There has always been only one plan of salvation, never two! People in the Old Testament were saved by faith in the Messiah, with the understanding that He would pay for their sins with His blood. That's what the high priestly work in the Tabernacle was all about. The Israelites fully understood that "without shedding of blood is no remission" (Hebrews 9:22b).

Dr. Bob Wilkin of the Grace Evangelical Society (GES), errantly teaches that a person cannot by saved by believing 'The Gospel.' According to Bob Wilkin, I quote:

> "Nowhere in the entire Bible are we told that the person who believes the gospel has everlasting life, is saved, is justified, will never die spiritually, or anything of the kind."

According to Pastor Wilkin, we should just believe on Jesus' name to be saved.

If you are a born-again Christian, you absolutely won't believe what I am about to show you, check this out—[2]a QUARTER of all professed "Christians" don't even believe that Jesus resurrected bodily from the dead.

They claim to have faith in a Savior that is still dead!!! What saith the Scripture?

1st Corinthians 15:14-15,

" And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain. Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not." So here we see an example of why merely believing on Jesus is insufficient to be saved. "

So here we plainly see that it is not enough to merely believe on the name of Jesus, you MUST also believe that Christ DIED for your sins on the cross, and that He was BURIED, and then physically RESURRECTED three days later. This is what is taught by God's Word in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4.

To be saved we must know WHO, WHAT and WHY concerning Christ:

- WHO is He? - Jesus is the CHRIST, the only begotten Son of God (John 20:31)
- WHAT did He do? - Jesus died on the cross to pay for our sins, was buried, and He resurrected the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4)

- WHY did He do it? - Because we are guilty needy sinners, and we need a Savior to get us to Heaven (Romans 5:15-19)

LAW and GRACE

We must see our need as sinners—deserving of hellfire for breaking God's commandments. That is what the LAW does, it shows humanity our sinnership and guilty condition in the sight of a holy God (Romans 3:19-20; 7:13); and then we must see the solution provided by God's GRACE, which is salvation through faith alone in the 'Gospel' ('Good News') of the Lord Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9).

So believing on the name of Jesus must be with the understanding of why we are believing on Him—because we are a guilty sinner, and Jesus has already paid our debt of sins, by His sacrifice on the cross. Jesus was buried, officiating that He was in fact physically dead. If Christ didn't raise up from the dead, then He cannot save anybody today. Therefore, we must believe that Jesus has been bodily resurrected from the dead. This is the 'Good News' (or, 'Gospel').

Moses preached 'The Gospel' to the children of Israel in the Wilderness...

> Hebrews 4:2: "For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it."

Unfortunately, the Jews in the Wilderness heard the Gospel for 40 long miserable years, but they didn't have any faith in what they heard; just like Judas didn't, being one of Christ's very apostles. The Gospel only has the power to save THEM THAT BELIEVE (1st Corinthians 1:18, 21; Romans 1:16). The important thing for us to focus on is that the apostle Paul made very clear in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, that we are saved IF WE KEEP IN REMEMBRANCE the Gospel which he taught...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

If would seem clear to me from the preceding passage, that merely believing on the name of Jesus is in VAIN, if a person fails to grasp that Christ DIED for their sins on the cross, was BURIED and RESURRECTED the third day. So should a person believe 'The Gospel' or on Jesus' name to be saved? Dear friend, to believe 'The Gospel' is to believe on Jesus' name; and to believe on Jesus' name is to believe the Gospel, if you understand why you are trusting Christ as your personal Savior.

> "God's 'Words' are inspired, not just the 'Word' (Ezekiel 2:7 and 3:4 'words'; Isaiah 51:6 'words')." —Pastor Al Lacy, [3]King James Bible Seminar, 1993 at Hyles-Anderson College

1.2.46 Handling Depression As A Child Of God (2020-04-11 03:00)

James 4:8-10, " Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up."

There's a fine line between faith and foolishness! So often the so-called "

tell us that there is something wrong with us if we feel down and depressed, but the Bible teaches us to afflict ourselves, be mournful, and have a heavy heart. Professor Know-It-All and Dr. Fat Bottom, tell us that having thoughts of being down on our self is a sign of mental illness. What saith the Scripture? Let's hear from some of God's mighty men of God...

> Romans 7:24, " O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?
> **"

> Isaiah 6:5, " Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

1st Timothy 1:15, “ This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. ”

It is normal for a humble Christian to think little of our self. I am a hell-deserving sinner! There is nothing good about me except the precious Lord Jesus Christ.

The World Has It All Backwards

Furthermore, the world is always promoting the idea of being number one, and only thinking about one’s self. For example: In 1986, Janet Jackson sang a very horrible song titled: ’[1]WHAT HAVE YOU DONE FOR ME LATELY?’ That is the sinful attitude of the selfish world. 2nd Timothy 3:2a,

“For men shall be lovers of their own selves... ” What saith the Scripture?

Philippians 2:3, “ Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

I just found a website for the purpose of this article called, ’POSITIVE PSYCHOLOGY,’ teaching people: ’[2]How To Increase One’s Self Worth.’ Personally, I wouldn’t recommend wasting your time reading the article. The inspired Word of God (as I just quoted to you from Philippians 2:3) teaches something very different, to ESTEEM OTHERS BETTER THAN OURSELVES!!! Do you know why God commands us to do that my friend?; and this is such a beautiful truth

—BECAUSE AS BELIEVERS OUR IDENTITY IS HIDDEN IN JESUS CHRIST!!!

Colossians 3:1-3, " If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God."

The moment you were saved (born-again), you became HIDDEN WITH CHRIST IN GOD. Just as Christ died on the cross for your sins, the day you were saved you became DEAD TO SIN. 1st Peter 2:24, "Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed."

The day we were saved, the curse of the law was forever removed, so that you and I could never again be condemned for our sins! When God sees us, He sees the imputed righteousness of Jesus instead of our sins, which are forever cleansed away!

Our Identity As Believers Is Entirely In Jesus Christ

This is such an important truth to learn my fine non-feathered friend. That is why the Lord could say in Matthew 25:40b,

Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

" Our life is hidden with Christ in God. We were ADOPTED by God as His child the moment we were saved (Romans 8:15). Jesus is God's only BEGOTTEN Son, but we are ADOPTED sons of God (John 1:12). Thus, and please don't miss this, our SELF WORTH is entirely based upon Jesus Christ; and not us, because WE ARE IN CHRIST!!! In other words, we're in this together! Whatever happens to us as believers, happens to Jesus as far as the Lord is concerned, because we belong to God. 1st Corinthians 6:20,

"For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. "

Having said that, I believe most depression is unnecessary. If we would learn to REST IN CHRIST as believers, the same way that we did to get saved, it would help us to let things go. I admit that I am not happy in life. I have suffered constant agonizing neck pain since 2004. My wife abandoned me in 2006 and I have lived a sad life of loneliness since. I lost my home. I lost most of my possessions. I lost my retirement. I lost most of my confidence as a man. I have much misery in my life, being in chronic neck pain all the time, surviving on a high dosage of opiod pain medications. But despite my hardships, loneliness, loss and sorrow; I have the joy of the Lord and peace like a river in my soul. I have unspeakable rejoicing in my blessed Savior (1st Peter 1:7-9), as I abide in the inspired Scriptures day and night (Psalms 1:1-3). Jesus is precious to me!!!

I find great joy, peace and wisdom in Christ Himself. 1st Corinthians 1:30, "But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:" Truly, Jesus is all we really need to be content in life!!!

Growing Your Ability To Handle Grace

One of my favorite preachers, [3]Pastor Jeff Owens, delivered a helpful sermon called: ' [4]Growing Your Ability To Handle Grace .' I took some of the following wisdom from his sermon.

It is easy to become self-centered and self-absorbed when we get depressed. We want to run, hibernate and hide. It's normal to be there for a little while, but it's important that we don't stay there. Don't let prayer become your own personal pity party. Be right with people. A lot of people are depressed because they are wrong with people. I love what [5]Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr. says: "

HUMAN BEINGS JUST WANT TO BE LOVED... JUST LOVE THE HELL OUT OF THEM!

Most people must work their way out of depression. Stay busy! Work your way through it! Never despair, but if you do despair, keep on in despair. If everything falls apart, we have Jesus! The worst thing that will ever happen to us as Christians is down here on earth! Amen! Think about that! The unsaved world has nothing to look forward to. No wonder the world is so depressed! They have no Holy Spirit to turn to! That's why they run to the liquor, drugs and sexual immorality. I thank God that I am a born-again Christian!!! You can't stop a burden from landing on your head, but you don't have to let it build a nest there!!! Amen.

> “Did you know that God uses hurtin’ people? That’s part of the reason why we have to hurt in this world, so we can help other people who hurt.” —Pastor Danny Castle, “[6]KEEP ON PRAYING”

1st Peter 5:10, “But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.”

The following are some helpful truths from this Bible study by Dr. Owens:

- “You are what you think. Control your thinking!”
- “You’ll do better in life if you keep your sin confessed.”
- “Most people must work their way out of depression! Stay busy!”
- “Remember, God’s good all the time!”
- “Want to have joy; want to be happy! Give it to God!”

When you feel yourself slipping into a depression, do these 7 things (from Brother Owen’s outline):

1. Trust in the Lord’s goodness.
2. Expect trouble. Don’t be totally shocked when hardship comes your way.
3. Control your thoughts.
4. Want to be happy.
5. Give it to God, it’s His specialty.
6. Get close to God.
7. Stay busy doing good for God and doing good for others.

1.2.47 Four Snakes To Watch Out For (2020-04-11 09:00)

Acts 28:3, "And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand."

750

There are FOUR deadly (vipers) snakes that you should watch out for:

1. DEADLY SNAKE OF PANDEMIC - The Coronavirus is upon us! The panic, fear and hysteria being created by the newsmedia is as bad, if not worse, than the pandemic itself. Please watch the Christ-honoring sermon titled: '[1]A CONTAGION OF FEAR' by Pastor Chuck Baldwin. As Christians we ought not be afraid of anything; but rather, stay calm and trust upon the Lord. Yes, take safe precautions to protect yourself and others against the spreading virus, but don't let it cause you to start worrying, panicking and succumb to fear as many people are doing, some even committing suicide!

2. DEADLY SNAKE OF PERSECUTION - God will test us to see what we're made of!

   1st Peter 4:12, "Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you: But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy." God may send persecution our way to prepare us, purify us, position us, perfect us, or make use of us for His divine purpose.

3. DEADLY SNAKE OF PESSIMISM - Pessimism is a tendency to see the worst aspect of a thing. It is seeing a situation as having no hope. Pessimism fails to see God. Pessimism fails to see: GOD, GOOD and GRACE!

   Psalms 106:5, "That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance."

4. DEADLY SNAKE OF PRIDE - Pride will cause you to lose your focus on reality. Lucifer fell from glory in Heaven because of pride. Pride prevents you from seeing your condition without Christ. PRIDE SAYS FAITH IN NOT ENOUGH TO BE SAVED!!! Calvinism is rooted in sinful human pride, which says that more than faith is required to be saved!

Everybody goes through a fiery furnace at some time in life. There are THREE sources of the storms in our life:

1. Job - Satan sent his storm

2. Jonah - God sent a storm because of Jonah (Self)

3. Disciples - The Savior sent their storm

We (SELF) cause most of the storms that we go through! Proverbs 17:3, " The fining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the LORD trieth the hearts." ...

> 1st Peter 1:7-9, " " That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls."

It is while IN THE FIERY FURNACE of our life that we have GOD'S:

1. Presence
2. Power
3. Protection

God uses fire to conform us more into Christ's IMAGE!

AMERICA NEEDS FIRE BEHIND THE PULPIT!!!

1. Fire Refines
2. Fire Revives
3. Fire Rejects
4. Fire Reveals
5. Fire Rearranges

Fire can be a good thing!

1.2.48 Jesus Is The Cure For Public Nudity (2020-04-11 16:00)

Mark 5:1-5, "

And they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.

And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid."

The demon-possessed maniac of Gadarene ran around naked. There is a direct correction between how right with God a person is and modesty. A woman who goes to the beach in a bikini doesn't walk closely with God. There is a mindset that goes with walking with the Lord. I love something that Pastor Jack Hyles said in a sermon titled, "[1]Unjust In The Least." He said: "If you want to never do anything that is terribly wicked, then you never do anything that is slightly wicked." A woman who will walk around in public in her underwear (which is all a bathing suit is), has a sinful heart.

By wearing hardly any clothes in public, a woman tells everybody:

1. She doesn't fear God (Psalms 36:1)
2. She has low moral standards (I Timothy 2:9)
3. She doesn't care or understand how immodesty adversely affects men (I Peter 2:11)
4. She is more concerned with external beauty than inner beauty (I Peter 3:1-4)
5. She wants (or doesn't care) if men lust and commit adultery with her (Matthew 5:28)
6. She is cheap (Proverbs 31:10)
7. She is wearing the attire of a harlot (Proverbs 7:10)

I do not condemn anybody. I am simply teaching the Bible. I have tremendous respect for ladies who wear dresses, culottes

, skorts, skirts and modest clothing. If a Christian woman truly loves Jesus, and humbly abides at His feet, she will dress like a lady. Let her that hath ears to hear, hear. I speak with a loving heart ladies.

The demon-possessed maniac of Gadarene had been running around naked; but when the people later saw that same man, humbly sitting at Jesus' feet, he was in his sound mind wearing clothes! Jesus makes the difference!!!

1.2.49 "Easter" Is Translated Correctly In The King James Bible (2020-04-11 16:15)

"Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church. And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.) And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people." (Acts 12:1-4)

The word "Easter" has been incorrectly translated "Passover" in all modern Bible versions. Only the trustworthy authorized King James Bible renders the proper word, "EASTER." How do I know this? The Bible evidences it. Notice again in the passage of Acts 12:1-4 that King Herod killed James. When he saw that it pleased the Jews, Herod also had Peter arrested.

Notice that Herod took Peter DURING the DAYS OF UNLEAVENED BREAD and was going to bring him forth to the people AFTER Easter.

The Old Testament teaches that the DAY OF PASSOVER started the FEAST OF UNLEAVENED BREAD. Notice in the following Scripture that the Day Of Passover occurred on the 14th day of the first month, but the Feast Of Unleavened Bread began on the 15th day of the month...

> "In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the LORD's passover. And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the LORD: seven days ye must eat unleavened bread." (Leviticus 23:5,6)

So we learn from this Old Testament Scripture that the day of Passover fell on the 14th day of the first month, and then the "FEAST of UNLEAVENED BREAD" began upon the 15th day of the first month.

The days of unleavened bread came AFTER Passover! Acts 12:3 tells us that Peter was apprehended DURING the "days of unleavened bread." This means that the day of Passover had ALREADY occurred. "Easter" could not have been Passover, because Passover occurs BEFORE the days of unleavened bread. Passover had come and gone. Herod decided to bring Peter forth AFTER Easter.

This is the proper time sequence:

1. PASSOVER
2. DAYS OF UNLEAVENED BREAD
3. EASTER

So there you have it... the Day Of Passover always kicks off the seven Days Of Unleavened Bread, happening the day before the feast begins. So if Herod arrested James during the Feast Of Unleavened Bread, the Passover was already over. Easter is correct. Of course, Easter is a pagan holiday and the Bible doesn't deny that. The Bible is simply teaching that James was taken by Herod during the days of unleavened bread, and Herod was planning to kill Peter after Easter.

KJV is always the best...

1.2.50 Dr. John R. Rice Wasn't An Authority On Repentance (2020-04-11 21:00)

Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged."

I am a big fan of Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980). Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) loved, admired and befriended Dr. Rice, who was 31 years older than him. Brother Hyles and Dr. Rice preached 2200 times together over a 20 year period in churches across America. I thank God for these dear men of God.

Having said that, as a fundamentalist Baptist preacher I must preach what I believe to be THE TRUTH, based upon the time tested unchanging inspired Word of God! I believe that Book is the inspired King James Bible! Albeit, I humbly think Dr. Rice sometimes got it way wrong! In particular, he [1]got it way wrong concerning the Alexandrian Bible revisions. John R. Rice actually endorsed Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort. Unbelievable! In fairness to Dr. Rice, he never saw the internet, so he was limited in information. Did you know that the whole of man's knowledge DOUBLES every eight years? That means mankind is increasing in knowledge exponentially! What saith the Scripture? Daniel 12:4, "But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased." I have learned much from Brother Rice during my lifetime, from his invaluable books and sermons; but Dr. Rice was only a mortal, flawed, sinful man (as he openly admitted himself). I see a lot of Christians today bolstering Dr. Rice as an authority, which is really bad!

Preachers' John MacArthur and Ray Comfort oftentimes quote preachers of the past, in a desperate attempt to bolster up their heresies of Calvinism. I oftentimes quote preachers myself, to help my readers understand the truths I am teaching. I don't think that is wrong to do! However, there is a big difference between quoting a preacher to help the reader understand better, versus quoting other men in an attempt to legitimize your teaching. I often quote Pastor Jack Hyles and Pastor Harry Ironside, but I do not look to those men of God as authorities. The inspired Word of God is our final and only authority in all matters of faith. That is why it is so crucial that we use the right Bible, and not search for God's Word in dozens of Bible versions, which is ridiculous!

In his popular booklet titled: "What Must I Do To Be Saved?," Dr. Rices says:

> What About Repentance?
> To repent literally means to have a change of mind or spirit toward God and toward sin. It means to turn from your sins, earnestly, with all your heart, and trust in Jesus Christ to save you. You can see, then, how the man who believes in Christ repents and the man who repents believes in Christ. The jailer repented when he turned from sin to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ. emphasis added]

From reading the entire work, I don't think Dr. Rice was wrong about repentance, although I think he used unscriptural words in saying that repentance means "to turn from your sins." That is NOT what Bible repentance means! I think Dr. Rice simply meant that we must recognize our sinnership and need for redemption. But regardless of what he meant, HE WAS WRONG TO USE THOSE TERMS!!! That is why I wrote this article, because some false teachers are citing Dr. Rice as a secondary authority.

Case in point is Missionary David W. Cloud, who misrepresents Dr. Rice in an attempt to show that Dr. Rice's successor (at the Sword Of The Lord), [2]Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), corrupted the Gospel. [3]Dr. Hutson was 100 % correct on the plan of salvation!!! Kindly, [4]David Cloud is a heretic! Mr. Cloud gets repentance wrong, and he foolishly and sinfully attempts to misrepresent Dr. Rice. If you [5]read the entirety of his Gospel booklet , Brother Rice makes very clear that repentance does not mean 'penance' (feelings sorry for sins). It is clear that Dr. Rice DIDN'T teach that a person must forsake sinful ways to be saved. That would be REFORMATION.

- Repentance is not penitence (feeling sorry for sins).
- Repentance is not penance (trying to remedy your sins).
- Repentance is not reformation (turning from your sins).
- Repentance is a change of mind (from wrong thinking to believing the Gospel).

Dr. Rice understood that we are saved by believing, not by repenting; but repentance facilitates believing. Brother Rice teaches that repentance and faith are not two steps to salvation; but rather, two parts of one step. Repentance is the admission that you are a guilty sinner in the sight of God, judging yourself as a needy sinner, and turning to Jesus Christ by faith to be saved. The man who repents has believed, and the man who believes has repented!

Salvation requires turning to the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved from the penalty of your sins! You simply need to see yourself as a needy sinner, guilty in the sight of a holy God. Romans 3:19, “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.” To be saved, you have to see your need. You must know what you’re being saved from. You need to understand WHO Jesus is, WHAT He did for you, and WHY He did it.

Someone recently asked me if we should believe on the name of Jesus, or believe the Gospel, to be saved. Dear friend, to believe on the name of Jesus is to believe the Gospel, if you understand who He is, what He did for you, and why you believe on Him. Likewise, to believe the Gospel is to believe on the name of Jesus. They are inseparable!

The answers are simply:

- WHO - Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God (John 20:31).
- WHAT - Jesus died on the cross to pay our debt of sin. He was buried, and three days later He physically resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

- WHY - We are guilty sinners. To save us from burning in Hell forever, Jesus paid the price for our sins with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19).

So please don't read too much into what Dr. Rice teaches about repentance. Repentance does not mean turning from sinful behavior, which would be works; it means to turn toward God. I don't like the wording that Dr. Rice used, which is why I titled this article: "Dr. John R. Rice Wasn't An Authority." Just because he poorly chose his words doesn't make it so. You cannot show me anywhere in the inspired Word of God (if you have a King James Bible), where we are taught to "turn from sin" to be saved. That phrase doesn't appear in the Bible! The [6]corrupt modern Bible versions do pervert the truth, adding this false teaching. No where are we told to "repent from sin." Acts 20:21b teaches the reader, "repentance toward God." Please don't misunderstand, repentance is necessary for salvation, but it simply means to change one's mind from WRONG THINKING to believe the "Good News" (Gospel) of Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Repentance Is Seeing Yourself As A Needy Sinner In God's Sight

Also, please understand that repentance is more than merely admitting one's guilt of sin, it is seeing yourself as a needy sinner for breaking a holy God's Commandments. Pastor Jack Hyles eloquently states the truth about repentance:

> "Repentance is not some little silly, 'I'm sorry.' Repentance is not simply a fear of God. Repentance is not a monk fasting and afflicting his body in a monastery. Repentance is not remorse because of sin's consequences. Repentance is not penance performed before the pope as you kiss his toe… Repentance is not being sorry for what I've done wrong. It is not confessing one's sins to a priest. It is not just conviction of sin. It is not the signing of a pledge of abstinence. Repentance is that thing when you come before God and see yourself as you are, and see Him as he is, and say with Isaiah 'Woe is me, for I am unclean!"' —Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), a quote from the timeless MP3 sermon, '[7]THE GOODNESS OF GOD LEADETH TO REPENTANCE!'

That is a tremendous quote! Amen! So when we read about repentance from "DEAD WORKS" in Hebrews 6:1, it absolutely does NOT mean that ceasing from sinful bad habits is required for salvation (because that would be self-righteous works); but rather, it means we have changed our mind concerning DEAD WORKS (GOOD and BAD works alike) that were hindering us from coming to Christ to be saved. We don't get saved by changing our life, which is what the new corrupt Bible versions require. This is discipleship and reformation, not sonship and salvation.

We get saved by BELIEVING the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full-payment for our sins and believing that He resurrected from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). The only role that dealing with sin has in salvation is to renounce it, so that it is no longer a hindrance to keep you from coming to Christ to be saved (John 3:20).

No man of God is always correct in his teachings! I have had to course correct a few times myself over the years. My constant chronic neck pain keeps my humble. When you are hurting all the time, you either become bitter or more sweet. I am a blessed man. I pray everyday to find a Christian wife someday, but if not, I am going to serve get diligently until my last dying breath. God deserves our very best! [8]I really love this article by Pastor Bob Gray Sr., in which he teaches the truth that our life is hid with Christ in God. When the world looks at us, they cannot see the wonderful life that we have as believers. I have a fiesta buffet every day in my soul as a Christian! I am so joyful in the Lord, and He is my peace. 1st Corinthians 1:30-31, "But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord." I love that! Jesus is our wisdom, righteousness, sanctification and redemption! Do you know Him friend? Oh, it is wonderful to be a Christian!!!

1.2.51 A Faith Must Be Tested (2020-04-12 01:30)

“Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory” (1st Peter 1:6-8).

The Bible teaches that a believer’s faith must be tested.

God only had one Son without sin, but He never had a son without temptation and suffering. Every believer’s faith will be tested.

Here is an excellent quote from the mighty preacher and man of God, Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982):

> The thing that will reveal your faith is praying when no answer comes. That’s the supreme test. I’ve gone over a number of chapters in the book of Job again. In one of them, Job said, "Oh that I knew where I might find Him." He was looking for God. Can you imagine? He was the best man God had and he couldn’t find Him. He said "Lord, I want you to show me why you’re doing this to me. We’ve always been on good terms and you’ve been my best friend. I’m not against you and am not going to turn against you, but I need an explanation and I want you to give it." But the Lord didn’t pay him any attention. I imagine the Lord just kind of smiled and said, "Later on. After a while."

> So finally Job said "I went forward and He wasn’t there. Backward. I couldn’t perceive Him. On the left hand where He doth work. I couldn’t behold Him. On the right hand where He hid himself and I couldn’t see him." That’s all the directions isn’t it? Forward, backward, left, right. He said "I couldn’t get one glimpse of Him." Then he said, "But He knoweth the way that I take and when He hath tried me, He will bring me forth as gold. My feet have held His steps. His way have I kept and not declined. Neither have I gone back from the commandment of His lips. I’ve esteemed His words more than my necessary food." That’s the secret of it right there. It was the most severe test he ever had. It wasn’t when all of his ten children died. It wasn’t when he lost all of his camels, oxen and sheep and goats and chickens. It wasn’t when he lost all of his servants. The greatest loss was not when Mrs. Job came and said, "Just curse God and die." That wasn’t his most severe test. That was just part of it.

> Then three fair-weather friends came and looked at him and they didn’t speak for seven days. Not one word. Finally they opened their mouths and skinned him and scalded him and scathed him and ate him up alive. But that wasn’t his greatest test. Do you know what the greatest test was? You’ve never been there until you’ve reached this place, and that is when you look up to God and there’s not any God. You just pray like you used to pray and there’s no answer. There’s no response. There’s no God. There’s no feeling and your faith is severely tested. But let me tell you something. You’re going to have to learn to believe God when you cannot perceive God. You’re going to have to learn to "faith" Him when you can’t feel Him. Unless you do, you’re going to be in bad shape before this thing’s over with. There’ll come a time when God reserves the right to cut you completely loose from Him and then see what your faith will lead you to do. "In all this, Job sinned not nor charged God foolishly."

> Something Everybody Can Do

Pastor Jack Hyles once said in a sermon—“Unshakable faith comes from having your faith shaken.” I never forgot that awesome truth. So often we view our burdens, trials and tribulations as evidence that God doesn’t care about us, doesn’t answer our prayers and doesn’t like us. Nothing could be further from the truth of God’s Word.

The Bible tells us in 1st Peter 1:7 that the TRIAL OF OUR FAITH is much more valuable than gold (which presently costs [1]about $1,640 an ounce). Our earthly troubles and burdens are priceless to God because they serve the divine purpose of refining us, conforming us into the image of Christ. In other words, our trials and tribulations make us better Christians if we don’t quit. This Biblical doctrine is virtually unheard of in today’s apostate churches, where everyone seems to be following a health, wealth and prosperity false gospel.

Job said, “Oh that I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat!" (Job 23:3).” I can surely relate to Job. There have been times in my life when everything was going wrong, and I was greatly discouraged, and wondered why God wasn't answering my prayers. Job experienced the same drought in his prayer life. It is easy to become discouraged and stop praying, saying "What's the use of praying"; but Brother Roloff hit the nail right on the head:

> "The thing that will reveal your faith is praying when no answer comes. That's the supreme test." —Brother Roloff

Let the atheists and unbelievers mock and scoff at our faith in God, even when He doesn't answer; but we know that the inspired Word of God is true, and that God works in mysterious ways that we often cannot understand. It is a matter of faith. Either you believe that the Bible is God's Word or you don't. If you do, as I do, then learn to trust the heart of God when you can't see the hand of God at work. It is interesting to note that God is never mentioned in the Old Testament book of Esther, yet we wonderfully see God's presence and power in the unfolding events throughout the story. Perhaps you cannot see God's hand at work in your life right now friend, but you can rest assure that God is working behind the scenes.

1.2.52 They Just Won't Say It (2020-04-12 03:00)

John 6:63, "

It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

My hero of the Christian faith is Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). I love Brother Hyles for many reasons, but mostly because he preached the truth. In his early ministry, Dr. Hyles admits that college professors had him turned around backwards, confused on Bible inspiration; but he came to his senses years later, as you can read for yourself:

Dr. Hyles On The Importance Of Bible Infallibility

John 12:47-48, "And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day."

John 14:23, "Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him."

Folks, I'm going to go to seed [to become worn] before I die on defending this Book—I'm going to go to seed on it! I'm a little tired—by the way, every preacher in America, before he met a theologian, believed exactly what I'm preaching tonight! Theologians messed us all up—they messed me up for a while, I'll be honest with you—messed us all up! When I went off to college, I thought I had the words of God in this Book right here. When I was in college for awhile I found out I didn't. Not only that, I found out nobody did! Not only that, I found out you couldn't have them! Not only that, I found out there was no such thing as any book in all the world that had the words of God in 'em!

But my Bible said that we're supposed to keep His "WORDS"; not His truths, not just His doctrine, but His "WORDS"! ...

Mark 8:38,"Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

Folks, here's what's happening in America. The old-time preachers that built this country believed that this Book right here had the words of God in it! Your grandpa and grandma, that built this country, shed their tears on this Book, thinking they had the very words of God in their hands. And fundamentalists ALL believed what I'm preaching tonight, until we got our own Bible colleges, and seminaries, and sent our professors off to train at the feet of Karl Barth, and Reinhold Neuber, Emil Brunner, and others, who said that the Bible does not have the "words" of God, it is the Word of God, and that all the Bible is not inspired word-for-word. So we did not want to be considered "unintellectual" by the intellectual community; we're not willing to be called "nuts" and "fools"—just chalk me up as a nut! Chalk me up as a fool! Yea! Chalk me up as an uneducated illiterate if you want to, but I guarantee Ya—I'd rather study my A-B-C's in Heaven, then Greek and Hebrew in Hell!

Whosoever shall be ashamed of "ME AND MY WORDS"; it didn't say His "WORD," it says His "WORDS"!

Pastor Jack Hyles, a beautiful quote from the sermon, " [1]There Are Too Many Smiths In The Land ."

Brother Hyles realized (as I fully do), that the Devil has crept into our fundamental Baptist Bible colleges and churches today, pushing the lie that we don't have an inspired Holy Bible...

> "The biggest split that has ever come will come in the next ten years, if not sooner, over the King James Bible - and it couldn't come soon enough for me. I'm tired of colleges and universities advertising that they 'use' the King James Bible - tell the whole story! Tell everyone that you do not believe that it is inspired word for word." [emphasis added] —Pastor Jack Hyles, from the Wednesday night Bible study titled, "Revelation to Illumination" (1998)

I could take you to Hyles-Anderson College's lame website. I could take you to Bob Jones University's lame website. I could take you to Crown Bible College's lame website. I could take you to Pensacola Christian College's lame website. I could take you to Moody Bible Institute's lame website. I could take you to Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary's lame website. I could take you to over 97 % of Bible college websites across America. I could take you to the Trinity Baptist Church in Arlington, Texas (which I randomly came across this week, not picking on them for any particular reason). I could take you to thousands of fundamental Baptist church websites. I could take you dear reader to all of these horrible institutions and churches and show you their lame Statement Of Faith, where they speak all manner of good about the King James Bible, but THEY JUST WON'T SAY IT IS INSPIRED!

Don't take my word for it, let's go check. Case in point is: The Crown College in Powell, Tennessee (where Dr. Clarence Sexton is in charge)...

The Scriptures

> We believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Bible, "as it is in truth, the Word of God…" (I Thessalonians 2:13). We believe in verbal, plenary inspiration in the original writings, and God's preservation of His pure words to every generation (II Timothy 3:16, Psalms 12:6-8). We believe that the Scriptures are inerrant, infallible, and God-breathed.The Masoretic Text of the Old Testament and the Received Text of the New Testament (Textus Receptus) are those texts of the original languages we use; the Authorized King James Version of the Bible is the English version we use in the English-speaking world. The Bible is our sole and final authority for faith and practice. [emphasis added]— [2]SOURCE

They just won’t say it! THEY JUST WON’T SAY THAT THE KING JAMES BIBLE IS INSPIRED!!! Pastor Clarence Sexton heads up their college ministry. He sadly doesn’t believe that the King James Bible is inspired! I wouldn’t send my dog to The Crown College (and I don’t even have a dog). I won’t waste time taking you to HAC, BJU, MBI, H.I.V. and other horrible colleges today that also DENY THE INSPIRATION OF THE KING JAMES BIBLE!!! What is wrong with everyone nowadays? I’ll tell you, we’ve let a bunch of intellectuals convince us that we no longer have the inspired Words of God today! The Crown College even shamefully admits that they only believe in “ inspiration in the original writings.

Folks, this is insane! The Crown College says that only the original autographs of the Scripture were inspired (which don’t exist today). Yet, they claim that God has preserved those pure words

to every generation. They hypocritically claim,

“

We believe that the Scriptures are inerrant, infallible, and God-breathed.

” Yet, they don’t believe the King James Bible is inspired today! THEY JUST WON’T SAY IT!!!

Here is an excellent defence of King James Bible inspiration by Dr. James Sightler (1937-2019)...

INSPIRATION—TEMPORAL OR ETERNAL

I believe that inspiration is not a process but an entity, an eternal entity, a fact or deed. If the KJV translators had believed it was a process they would have translated II Timothy 3:16 - "pasa graphe theopneustos" as "All scripture is God breathed." In that sentence God breathed is an adjective, or present participle used as adjective, which describes the noun scripture. A verbal adjective would imply a becoming, but the Word did not become. He is. But the translators, and their English predecessors, were led to avoid that rendering, and I believe they knew in their hearts that inspiration was an eternal entity, a noun. Even though the phrase "by inspiration of God" describes scripture it is at least equally valid to look at it as a noun which is the object of the sentence. Here Paul could not have been speaking to Timothy of any original manuscripts. Those of the Old Testament were gone. And since II Timothy was probably Paul's last epistle much of the New Testament already had been written. Graphe in this verse means scripture of both testaments. The Holy Ghost said that Timothy had known the scriptures, and so he had them before him from childhood.

The word theopneustos was given by the Holy Ghost to Paul. It is unique. It appears only once in the New Testament and is only infrequently seen in earlier pagan Greek writing. Some defenders of the KJV believe that theopneustos is a "verbal adjective," essentially a past participle. That belief is more compatible with the concept of inspiration as a process which occurred in time, that is, a becoming. They say that "pasa graphe theopneustos" means all scripture is God breathed. If theopneustos is a verbal adjective the translation should be "God breathed" and not "given by inspiration of God."

[emphasis added]

SOURCE: [3]Inspiration: Temporary Or Eternal

Apostasy has overrun our Bible colleges and churches! The denial of the inspiration of the King James Bible opens a Pandora's Box of problems. According to the American Bible Society, there are approximately [4]900 English Bible versions (in part or whole). Of all those Bible versions, The Crown College would have us to believe that God has only chosen one of them as His perfectly preserved Word, but IT IS NOT INSPIRED? Bob Jones University insanely believes they are all God's Word, but NONE OF THEM ARE INSPIRED. The state of our fundamental Bible colleges today is alarming!!! They are arrogant and you cannot reason with them. They're all holding hands, standing together, united in rebellion against the inspiration of the King James Bible!!!

The King James Bible Is God's Inspired Word

I do believe that ONE BOOK STANDS ALONE—the inspired KING JAMES BIBLE! As I mentioned, it's not just The Crown College, it's all of the Bible colleges today, with few exceptions. It's nearly all of the churches today, with few exceptions. Bless God, I believe that we have an inspired King James Bible today. Inspired means those words are empowered by the Holy Spirit of God. Hebrews 4:12, "For the word of God is quick [alive], and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. "

John 6:63, "

It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

" If the King James Bible is not inspired, then it is not God's Word. When a mortal man writes a book, it is inspired by a man; but God's Word is inspired by God, meaning that His Spirit emanates through His Words. As Dr. James Sightler well explained in the earlier quote I shared with you, inspiration refers to an eternal entity and not a process.

Why won't they say it? Why won't they say that the King James Bible is inspired? It is because a wicked group of former Christian fundamentalists went astray, denying the inspiration of the King James Bible, and now due to peer pressure, men are too cowardly to go against the herd mentality. Who were these wicked men? One was Dr. Stewart Custer (1931-2017), who indoctrinated Bob Jones University students for 47 years that they didn't have an inspired Bible today. Shame on Dr. Custer! Another is Dr. Jack Schaap, former pastor of the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana. Another inspiration-denier is Evangelist Sam Gipp. Ecclesiastes 9:18, " Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good."

No preacher denies the inspiration of the King James Bible, unless he has been messed-up in some deadbeat religious seminary, or he has been hobnobbing with liberals!!!

What good is inspiration without preservation, and what good is preservation without inspiration? You need BOTH!!! God's Words have never lost their inspiration, except in the modern corrupt Bible revisions!!! The King James Bible is inspired.

They just won't say it! Well I will

—THE KING JAMES BIBLE IS 100 % THE VERBALLY INSPIRED WORD OF ALMIGHTY GOD!!!!!!!

1.2.53 A Praying Pulpit Begets A Praying Pew (2020-04-12 08:00)

1st Peter 5:1-3, "

The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock."

Everything rises and falls on leadership! It is tragic that all across the world, especially in America, pastors are incompetent. Instead of faithfully feeding God's flock, they fleece the flock! Notice in our text passage that verse 2 calls a church congregation, "

THE FLOCK OF GOD.

" They are not your people dear pastor, because God is their heavenly Father. The flock belongs to the Lord Jesus Christ, who is the Head of the Church. Ephesians 5:23, "

For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.

Having said that, I read something edifying today by the faithful man of God, Pastor Edward M. Bounds (1835-1913)...

A Praying Pulpit Begets a Praying Pew

by Pastor E.M. Bounds

I judge that my prayer is more than the devil himself; if it were otherwise, Luther would have fared differently long before this. Yet men will not see and acknowledge the great wonders or miracles God works in my behalf. If I should neglect prayer but a single day, I should lose a great deal of the fire of faith. – Martin Luther

ONLY glimpses of the great importance of prayer could the apostles get before Pentecost. But the Spirit coming and filling on Pentecost elevated prayer to its vital and all-commanding position in the gospel of Christ. The call now of prayer to every saint is the Spirit's loudest and most exigent call. Sainthood's piety is made, refined, perfected, by prayer. The gospel moves with slow and timid pace when the saints are not at their prayers early and late and long.

Where are the Christly leaders who can teach the modern saints how to pray and put them at it? Do we know we are raising up a prayerless set of saints? Where are the apostolic leaders who can put God's people to praying? Let them come to the front and do the work, and it will be the greatest work which can be done. An increase of educational facilities and a great increase of money force will be the direst curse to religion if they are not sanctified by more and better praying than we are doing. More praying will not come as a matter of course. The campaign for the twentieth or thirtieth century fund will not help our praying but hinder if we are not careful. Nothing but a specific effort from a praying leadership will avail. The chief ones must lead in the apostolic effort to radicate the vital importance and fact of prayer in the heart and life of the Church. None but praying leaders can have praying followers. Praying apostles will beget praying saints. A praying pulpit will beget praying pews. We do greatly need some body who can set the saints to this business of praying. We are not a generation of praying saints. Non-praying saints are a beggarly gang of saints who have neither the ardor nor the beauty nor the power of saints. Who will restore this breach? The greatest will he be of reformers and apostles, who can set the Church to praying.

We put it as our most sober judgment that the great need of the Church in this and all ages is men of such commanding faith, of such unsullied holiness, of such marked spiritual vigor and consuming zeal, that their prayers, faith, lives, and ministry will be of such a radical and aggressive form as to work spiritual revolutions which will form eras in individual and Church life.

We do not mean men who get up sensational stirs by novel devices, nor those who attract by a pleasing entertainment; but men who can stir things, and work revolutions by the preaching of God's Word and by the power of the Holy Ghost, revolutions which change the whole current of things.

Natural ability and educational advantages do not figure as factors in this matter; but capacity for faith, the ability to pray, the power of thorough consecration, the ability of self-littleness, an absolute losing of one's self in God's glory, and an ever-present and insatiable yearning and seeking after all the fullness of God – men who can set the Church ablaze for God; not in a noisy, showy way, but with an intense and quiet heat that melts and moves everything for God.

God can work wonders if he can get a suitable man. Men can work wonders if they can get God to lead them. The full endowment of the spirit that turned the world upside down would be eminently useful in these latter days. Men who can stir things mightily for God, whose spiritual revolutions change the whole aspect of things, are the universal need of the Church.

The Church has never been without these men; they adorn its history; they are the standing miracles of the divinity of the Church; their example and history are an unfailing inspiration and blessing. An increase in their number and power should be our prayer.

That which has been done in spiritual matters can be done again, and be better done. This was Christ's view. He said "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father." The past has not exhausted the possibilities nor the demands for doing great things for God. The Church that is dependent on its past history for its miracles of power and grace is a fallen Church.

God wants elect men – men out of whom self and the world have gone by a severe crucifixion, by a bankruptcy which has so totally ruined self and the world that there is neither hope nor desire of recovery; men who by this insolvency and crucifixion have turned toward God perfect hearts.

Let us pray ardently that God's promise to prayer may be more than realized.

Chapter 20

Rarely does the man in the pew rise above the spirituality of the man in the pulpit. That is the big problem with churches today! People love and follow their pastors, no matter how wrong they may be. We need a revival in America of preachers getting right with God. Spirituality in a church begins in the pulpit.

1.2.54 A Christian Falls IN GRACE Never FROM GRACE (2020-04-12 15:00)

Romans 5:20, "Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound."

A Christian believer always falls IN GRACE, never FROM GRACE! I love that Bible truth! The unsaved person is under the curse of God's LAW, condemned already. ...

> Galatians 3:13-14, " Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith."

That is such a precious Bible passage! Every sinner is under THE CURSE of the law. The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law (1st Corinthians 15:55-56). For the unsaved (or unregenerate) person, death brings eternal damnation in Hell, and that is THE STING which death brings; but for the redeemed sinner, Christ has removed the sting from death. Jesus Christ became a curse for every sinner on Calvary's cross! That is how much the Lord loves you dear friend.

Once a sinner gets saved, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, they are removed from under the curse of the law. That believer is now and forever UNDER GOD'S GRACE!!!

The

dear saint of God is under God's free GRACE.

All of the false prophets today

—Paul Washer, Ray Comfort and John MacArthur (to name but a few)—who require turning away from sinful behavior to receive the free gift of God—are not teaching GRACE! Anything other than grace alone is NOT true saving grace! Romans 11:6a, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace..." The moment that anyone adds the slightest addition to the Gospel of grace, it ceases to be grace. If you think that the life you are living on earth can affect your eternal life, then you don't get grace!!! Jonah pondered this great theological truth in the belly of the whale. Jonah 2:9b, "SALVATION IS OF THE LORD." No believer can ever fall from grace, it is impossible!!! When we sin (and we ALL DO), we fall IN GRACE! Once a person has eternal life, which is the gift of God, they can NEVER lose it!!!

Believers Are Under GRACE, Not Under the LAW

The following Bible verse speaks concerning the unsaved person, who is still under THE LAW, which condemns them for their sins. The LAW of God (about 720 Old Testament commandments) makes all men guilty. Before we were saved, we were all under the LAW...

> Romans 3:19, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to > them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the > world may become guilty before God."
>

In sharp contrast, the following Bible verse speaks concerning the Christian, who is no longer under the LAW, but is now and forever under God's GRACE, which is only through faith in Christ Jesus...

> Romans 6:14-15, "For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid."

No Christian has a license to sin, just because the LAW no longer has the power to condemn us.

Romans 3:31, " Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

" Albeit, in a sense we do have a license to sin, in that, no amount of sinning can ever jeopardize our position in Christ as His redeemed child. The daily choices we make as believers determine our CONDITION in Christ; but our POSITION was forever settled the moment we were born-again, and nothing can ever change that! Once saved, always saved!

"Talking to men for God is a great thing, but talking to God for men is greater still."
—Edward M. Bounds (1835-1913)

1.2.55 Jesus Christ Is Bodily Risen! (2020-04-12 20:08)

John 20:1, " The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre."

JESUS IS RISEN! You know, as crazy as it sounds, I read the other day that [1]25 % of professed Christians in England don't believe Jesus bodily resurrected from the dead! How can that be?

What saith the Scripture? ...

1st Corinthians 15:12-14, “Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen: And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.”

Obviously they are “Christian” in name only, and not true born-again believers. Truth is stranger than fiction!

As if things could get any weirder, the Jehovah’s Witness’ religious cult also denies Jesus’ bodily resurrection. Their official JW.org website says:

After Jesus’ Resurrection, Was His Body Flesh or Spirit?

The Bible’s answer

The Bible says that Jesus “was put to death in the flesh but made alive [resurrected] in the spirit.”—1 Peter 3:18; Acts 13:34; 1 Corinthians 15:45; 2 Corinthians 5:16.

Jesus’ own words showed that he would not be resurrected with his flesh-and-blood body. He said that he would give his “flesh in behalf of the life of the world,” as a ransom for mankind. (John 6:51; Matthew 20:28) If he had taken back his flesh when he was resurrected, he would have canceled that ransom sacrifice. This could not have happened, though, for the Bible says that he sacrificed his flesh and blood “once for all time.”—Hebrews 9:11, 12.

SOURCE:

Jehovah’s Witnesses - Bible Teachings, ’ [2]After Jesus’ Resurrection, Was His Body Flesh or Spirit? ’

If you read the entire article, it gets even weirder, claiming that Jesus only raised up as a spirit, but a spirit can take on physical form, which is how His disciples allegedly were able to see and touch Him. ...

> If Jesus was raised up with a spirit body, how could his disciples see him?

> Spirit creatures can take on human form. For example, angels who did this in the past even ate and drank with humans. (Genesis 18:1-8; 19:1-3) However, they still were spirit creatures and could leave the physical realm.—Judges 13:15-21.

> SOURCE:

> Jehovah's Witnesses - Bible Teachings, ' [3]After Jesus' Resurrection, Was His Body Flesh or Spirit? '

Dear friend, how gullible are you? Hopefully not as gullible as the 8,683,117 unsaved folks who follow this dangerous JW religious cult. The angels who came to rescue Lot and his family in Genesis, were in bodily form. There is nothing in the Bible which teaches that angels are spirits that have a body one minute, and not a body the next. By all Scriptural evidence, angels always have a body. Even God Himself sits upon a physical throne. The Son is a separate person, having His own physical body, and sits upon a separate throne in Heaven (Colossians 3:1).

There is a fairly popular heresy in some churches today called Modalism, which says God enters into different modes. [4]Modalism denies the Trinity (i.e., Godhead, the triune nature of God).

[5]Evidences of Christ's physical resurrection from the dead:

1. Jesus Was Seen By Over 500 Witnesses At Once In His Resurrected Body (1st Corinthians 15:6)
2. Jesus Physically Appeared And Met With His Disciples In His Resurrected Body (John 20:19-26)
3. Jesus Physically Ate Food And Drank With His Disciples In His Resurrected Body (Luke 24:42-43)
4. Jesus Told Mary Not To Physically Touch His Body After His Resurrection (John 20:17)
5. Jesus Told His Disciple Thomas To Physically Touch His Scars And Thrust His Side (John 20:27-28)
6. Jesus Walked With And Expounded The Two Disciples On The Road To Emmaus (Luke 24:13-27)
7. Jesus Physically Ascended Into The Clouds In His Resurrected Body (Acts 1:9; Luke 24:51)
8. Jesus Appeared Physically To The Apostle John In The Book Of Revelation (Revelation 1:13-18)
9. Jesus Is Physically Seated On The Right-Hand Of The Father In Heaven (Colossians 3:1)
10. We Will Physically Meet The Lord In The Air At The Rapture (1st Thessalonians 4:17)
11. Every Eye Will Physically See Jesus Bodily At His Second Coming (Revelation 1:7)
12. I am sure there are more, but these are the evidences off the top of my head that I could think of, thus proving that Jesus Christ raised up from the dead as He foretold. Many religious groups deny Christ's physical resurrection.

The inspired Holy Bible teaches that Jesus Christ has physically risen! That is what we celebrate each Easter Sunday in America. I understand that Easter itself is a pagan holiday, but as Christians we couldn't care less about Ishtar, the Assyrian and Babylonian fertility goddess of sex. We don't worship decorated Christmas trees as Christmas, as they did in Jeremiah 10:2; we simply enjoy a nice looking tree in our home. I personally celebrate holidays and have no Scriptural problem with doing so, if you do, then don't. To each his own. Romans 14:22, " Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth." In the case of JW's. they don;t believe in celebrating holidays; but there's no reason for them to celebrate Easter, because they don't think Jesus physically resurrected from the dead.

Lest there be any doubt that Christ raised up in His physical body, may I quote to you a familiar passage from 1st Corinthians 15:

1st Corinthians 15:3-8,

“

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve:

After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

After that, he was seen of James; then of all the apostles.

And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.

If I added correctly, that’s 515 saints who SAW Jesus in His resurrected body. Contrary to the ridiculous claim of JW’s that a spirit can appear in a fleshly body—it ain’t never happened! There is not one place in the Holy Bible where a spirit took on bodily form! God’s angels have their own body. Demons are disembodied fallen angels, who require either a human or an animal host to posses. What the JW’s are teaching is bizarre, unscriptural and wrong! We cannot find even one example in the inspired Word of God, where an angel left their physical body!

By the way, Jesus left this earth in a physical body (Acts 1:9-11), nor has He ever separated from that resurrected body, and He is now seated on the right-hand of the Father in Heaven in that same physical body. Colossians 3:1, “ If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.” What saith the Scripture? Philippians 3:21, “Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.” Could the Scripture speak any plainer? I think not. Jesus has a “ glorious body,

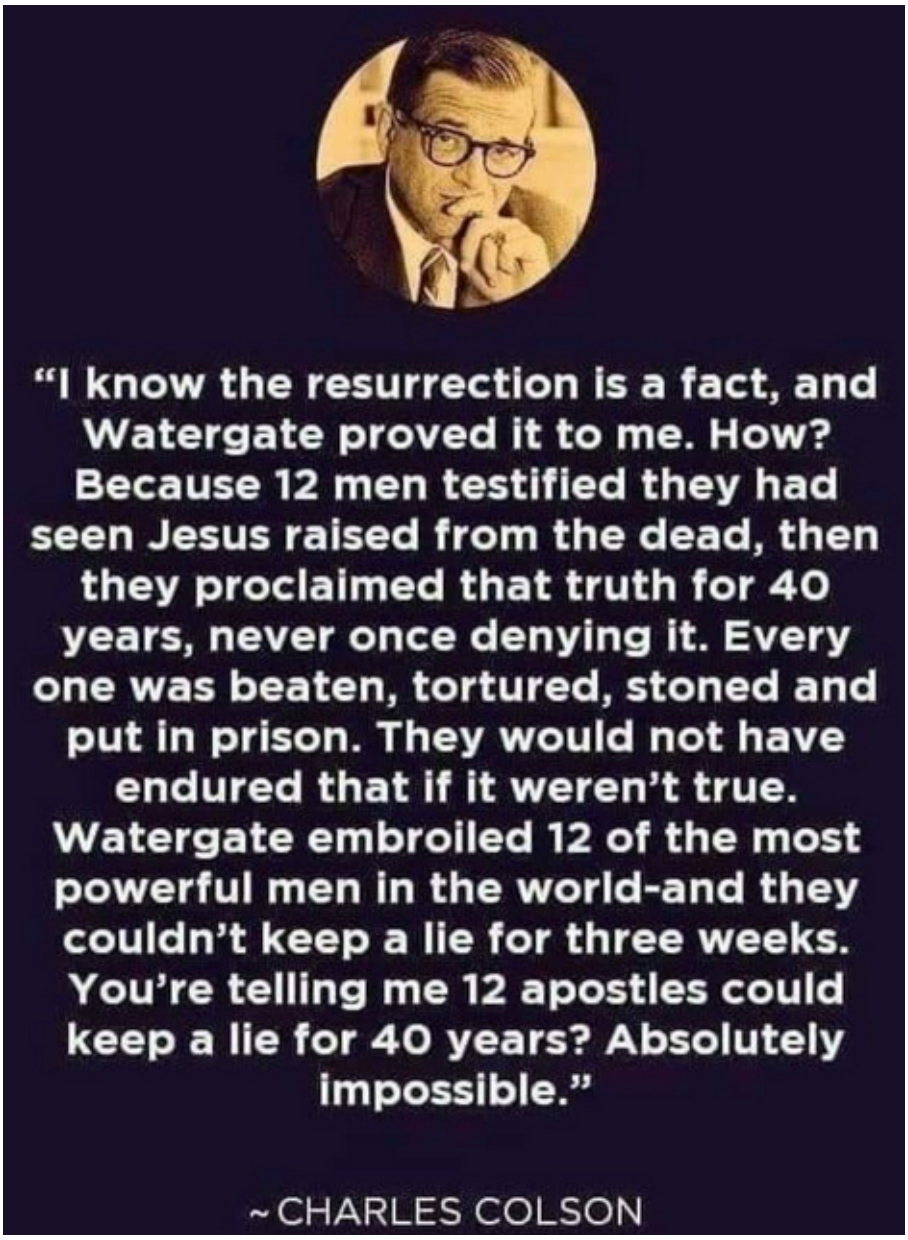
and we will one day (at the Rapture) also receive a glorious body



“

fashioned like unto HIS GLORIOUS BODY

! What a glorious hope!

1.2.56 Once Saved, Always Saved (2020-04-12 20:30)

John 10:28-29, “ And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father’s hand.”

A Person CANNOT Lose Salvation.

> Galatians 5:1-4, “Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.
>
> Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; YE ARE FALLEN FROM GRACE.”

Many sincere folks have misinterpreted this Scripture to conclude that a Believer can lose their salvation—this is a false teaching! “Falling from grace” does NOT mean falling away from God’s salvation and God’s promises. God made us a promise in the Bible, “For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved” (Romans 10:13). My part is to “call”,

God's part is to "save." I cannot save myself, nor can you. Only God can save a person because only God can forgive sin. No priest or Pope can forgive (or absolve) anyone's sins. Penance is simply NOT a Bible doctrine. I must go to Jesus and Him alone! Thanks be to God, I did this as a young man and have been saved since that day. Though I am still a sinner and often fall short of God's standards, I am still a Child of God—safe and secure in the everlasting arms of the Father.

Eternal Security is the Biblical doctrine that a believer CANNOT lose salvation in Christ Jesus.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Christ died for our sins on the cross, He was buried and raised up bodily from the dead three days later. This is the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." Believe and the work is done, you are saved securely and eternally.

Eternal security is not a separate doctrine than salvation.

> "The moment you are saved, you become a member of the body of Christ. If you could ever become unsaved, part of Christ's own body would go to hell."
>
>
> Dr. Ray Stanford (1916-2012),
> " [1]Handbook Of Personal Evangelism ," chapter two, " [2]Eternal Security ")

I CANNOT lose my salvation, no way. No amount of evil or wrong doing can undo what God has done. I didn't deserve to be saved in the first place so my actions have no bearing on my salvation. This does not give us a license to sin, it just means that salvation starts and ends with God. The only thing God requires of us is to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of our sins. Thank God! Jesus washed my sins away and wrote my name in Heaven! He saved a vile, dirty, rotten sinner from hell-fire! God placed Jesus' righteousness on my account and placed my grievous sins on Jesus account! The Father declared me J-U-ST-I-F-I-E-D, just-if-I'd never sinned! Now that's a wonderful God!

1.2.57 What You Need To Know About The Coronavirus (2020-04-12 23:55)

Jeremiah 11:9,

“

And the LORD said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

A report compiled from World Atlas calculated that there were 4,416 cities in the world with a population of over 150,000. The total number of cities might be somewhere around 50,000. There are only 192 countries in the world, and a medium sized country has 300-400 cities. Now ask yourself something—of the estimated 50,000 cities worldwide, how does a mysterious Coronavirus begin in an obscure town named Wuhan in China, and then in three months New York city ends up being the epicenter of the virus? That seems very fishy to me! From Wuhan to New York (the same city that gave us 911)?

The American people are still waiting for honest answers from the government, regarding what really happened on 911 in New York? [1]Vietnam Veteran Rudy Dent is a 31-year retired NYC firefighter and fire investigator, who [2]openly called 911 an INSIDE JOB! Dr. Craig Roberts wrote a compelling article last year titled: ’[3]The Truth Has Finally Come Out About 911!’ With all these facts in mind, seeing that 911 was an obvious False Flag Terror Attack, anyone familiar with 911 knew from the very start that this whole Coronavirus scare is another False Flag Operation (just like the 2007 London Train Bombings). I cannot say conclusively with evidence that the Coronavirus is manmade, but I am 100 % convinced of it!

One thing is very clear and obvious—our world has gone from a Pandemic to a Police State overnight, which to me is 100 % proof of this being another INSIDE JOB!!!

Like the beginning of a horse race out of the gates, the American newsmedia hyped the Coronavirus... AND THEY’RE OFF!!! The following videos from Pastor Chuck Baldwin concerning the Coronavirus are disturbing, which I believe to be 100 % truthful...

I praise God for the faithful Christians in this present dark hour, who are standing for the truth, not blindly going along with the agendas and lies being spoonfed to the American public by the controlled media. One of my favorite preachers is Pastor Chuck Baldwin, who courageously says:

A Contagion Of Fear

This message was preached by Pastor Chuck Baldwin on Sunday, March 15, 2020, during the service at Liberty Fellowship.

In this message Pastor Baldwin reviews the history of the Coronavirus. He reviews the fact that globally the mortality rate of the virus is less than 1 %. He reviews the fact that over 80 % of people contracting the virus have "mild" symptoms. He reviews the fact that we are MANY times more likely to die from a car accident, cardiac disease, an accidental fall or even choking to death on food than we are from the Coronavirus.

The main point of this message is to remind Christians that people who are filled with the Holy Spirit cannot be filled with the spirit of fear. Pastor Baldwin reminds Christian brethren that we are not in this world to live for ourselves, but for Christ– and that our life's goal should be to glorify Christ in our bodies, whether it be by life or by death.

Pastor Baldwin also shows how this manufactured virus scare is greatly augmenting the Welfare State, the Police State, socialist politicians and Big Pharma. Sadly, many so-called patriot bloggers and broadcasters are also fomenting fear–and cashing in on the profits of fear-mongering.

The Bible commands us to FEAR NOT, STAND UP and TRUST GOD.

1.2.58 Does The Holy Bible Teach The Rapture of The Church? (2020-04-13 01:41)

1st Corinthians 15:51-53,

“

Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.” ... 1st Thessalonians 4:16-18, “

For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

Contrasting The Two Stages Of Jesus Christ's Return

THE RAPTURE	THE SECOND COMING
At the Rapture, Jesus comes FOR His Church. (John 14:1-3, 1 Thessalonians 4:14-17)	At the Glorious Appearing (Second Coming), Jesus comes WITH His Church. (Zechariah 14:5, Colossians 3:4, Jude 14, Revelation 19:14)
At the Rapture, Christians are caught up to meet Jesus in the air (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18)	At the Glorious Appearing, Jesus' feet touch the earth (Zechariah 14:4, Revelation 19:11-21)
At the Rapture, Christians are taken up but unbelievers are left behind. (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18)	At the Glorious Appearing, the unsaved wicked (tares) are taken up, but the righteous (wheat, i.e., the tribulation saints) are left behind. (Matthew 13:28-30)
At the Rapture, Jesus will gather His Bride, the Church, unto Himself in preparation of the Marriage of the Lamb. (Revelation 19:6-9)	At the Glorious Appearing, Jesus will execute judgment on the earth and establish His Kingdom. (Zechariah 14:3-4, Jude 14-15, Revelation 19:11-21)
The Marriage of the Lamb takes place in Heaven AFTER the Rapture of the Church. (Revelation 19:6-9	War on earth comes AFTER the Marriage of the Lamb at the Glorious Appearing when the King of Kings and Lord of Lords lays the smackdown on evil! (Revelation 19:11-21)
The Rapture will happen in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye (Blink. It's over!). (1 Corinthians 15:52)	The Glorious Appearing will be a slow coming. Everyone will see Jesus coming with great power and great glory! (Zechariah 12:10, Matthew 24:30, Revelation 1:7)
At the Rapture, only those who are looking for Him (Christians) will see Him. (1 John 3:2, 1 Corinthians 15:52)	At the Glorious Appearing, every eye will see Him and those who have rejected Him will wail. (Revelation 1:7)
At the Rapture, Jesus will descend from Heaven with a shout (calling for the saints at the resurrection). (1 Thessalonians 4:16)	At the Glorious Appearing, no shout is mentioned, although the Lord does slay the wicked with the sword of His mouth. (Revelation 19:11-21)
The "First Resurrection of Revelation 20:6 includes 5 separate resurrections. At the Rapture, the third of these resurrections occurs. (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, 1 Corinthians 15:51-54. The First Resurrection is only for born-again believers, that is, Christians)	At the Glorious Appearing of Jesus Christ, the final of these 5 (of the First Resurrection) will happen. (Daniel 12:2 contrasts the saved with the unsaved, speaking of both the First and the Second Resurrection. The Second Resurrection is only for the unsaved damned)
At the Rapture, a resurrection will take place. (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, 1 Corinthians 15:51-54)	At the Glorious Appearing, there is no resurrection spoken of. (Zechariah 12:10, Zechariah14:4-5, Revelation 1:7, 19:11-21)
The Rapture can happen at any time....maybe even now which is why we are to be WATCHING for the return of Jesus Christ! (Revelation 3:3, 1 Thessalonians 5:4-6)	The Glorious Appearing will occur at the end of the seven-year tribulation period. (Daniel 9:24-27, Matthew 24:29-30, 2 Thessalonians 2:3-8)
At the Rapture, no angels are sent to gather the Church.	At the Glorious Appearing, angels will be sent to gather people together for judgment. (Matthew 13:39, 41 & 49, Matthew 24:31, Matthew 25:31, 2 Thessalonians 1:7-10)
At the Rapture, those who died in Christ will return with Jesus to recover their resurrected bodies. (1 Thessalonians 4:14-16)	At the Glorious Appearing, Christians will return with Jesus already in their resurrected bodies, riding on white horses wearing white linen. (Revelation 19:11-21)
At the Rapture, Jesus doesn't return riding a white horse.	At the Glorious Appearing, Jesus will return riding a white horse. (Revelation 19:11)
The Rapture will bring with it a message of hope and comfort. (1 Thessalonians 4:18, Titus 2:13, 1 John 3:3)	The Glorious Appearing will bring with it a message of judgment. (Joel 3:12-16, Malachi 4:5, Revelation 19:11-21)
World is deceived. (2 Thessalonians 2:3-12)	Satan is bound. (Revelation 20:1-2)
Focus: Lord and Church. (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18)	Focus: Israel and Kingdom. (Matthew 24:14)
No signs precede Rapture. (1 Thessalonians 5:1-3)	Signs precede Second Coming. (Luke 21:11,15)
Tribulation begins.	Millennial kingdom begins.
Manifestation of Antichrist. (2 Thessalonians 2:3-4)	Manifestation of Jesus Christ. (Malachi 4:2)
Jesus claims His bride.	Jesus comes with His bride. (Revelation 19:6-14)
Marriage Supper Of The Lamb follows the Rapture. (Revelation 19:9)	The Great Supper of the wicked follows the Tribulation. (Revelation 19:17)
The world will not see Jesus at the Rapture; but rather, believers ascend go to meet Him in the air. (1 Thessalonians 4:17)	Jesus will descend bodily and visibly for all to see, just as He ascended bodily and visibly. (Acts 1:9-11)
The Judgment Seat Of Christ follows the Rapture. (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11)	The Judgment of the Nations follows the Tribulation (Matthew 24:32-46)
Believers receive a new, immortal, glorified body fashioned like unto the Lord's. (Philippians 3:21; 1 Corinthians 15:51-54)	Saints saved during the Tribulation enter into the Millennial kingdom with their earthly bodies. (Isaiah 65:20)
The Antichrist is revealed after the Rapture. (2 Thessalonians 2:8)	The Antichrist is defeated and cast into the Lake of Fire at the Second Coming. (Revelation 19:20)
Israel is persecuted during the Tribulation. Two-in-three Jews in Israel are killed. (Zechariah 13:8-9)	Israel is regathered. (Jeremiah 23:5-8)
The timing of the Rapture is unknown. It is a secret. No man, nor the angels, not even the Son, know when this time shall be (Mark 13:32). Only a pretribulation Rapture position supports this vital Biblical truth.	The timing of Christ's Second Coming is known, which is at the culmination of the 7-year Tribulation (or, Daniel's 70th week). The Rapture starts the calendar clock for Daniel's 70th week.
World government (New World Order) follows the Rapture. (Revelation 13:15)	Christ's reign and government follows the Second Coming. (Daniel 2:34-35)
The Lord gathers the saints (2nd Thessalonians 2:1)	The angels gather the saints (the elect, Matthew 24:31)
Both the living and the dead saints are gathered (1st Thessalonians 4:16-17)	Only the living saints are gathered (Matthew 24:31)
The trumpet shall sound multiple times, and at THE LAST TRUMP (trumpet blow), we (believers) shall all be changed, glorious resurrected with an incorruptible body (1st Corinthians 15:52; 1st Thessalonians 4:16)	The Lord's voice is as a trumpet (Revelation 1:10-11). There is no trumpet mentioned at Christ's Second Coming.
World famine, pestilence, war and sorrow follow the Rapture. (Matthew 24:6-10; Luke 17:31)	World peace follows Christ's Second Coming when He reigns from Jerusalem (Isaiah 11:6)

One of my favorite preachers is Pastor Steven Anderson of the [4]Faithful Word Baptist Church in Tempe, Arizona. Brother Anderson is an aggressive soulwinner, bold in his preaching, and a fervent man of God in my humble opinion. Unfortunately, Pastor Anderson completely DENIES THE RAPTURE of the Body of Christ, which I believe is utter heresy, and he is responsible more than anyone for turning Baptists away from the great doctrine of the Rapture.

As I have just shown you, there are at least 33 differences in the Scripture between the Rapture and the Second Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. I'm sure there are plenty more, but I found these. I encourage YOU DEAR READER, to examine the evidence and decide for yourself. That is all I ask. Don't believe me. Don't believe Pastor Anderson. Do your own Bible study!

Our two text passages of Scripture are strong evidence of a Pretribulation Rapture. At this prophetic event, the saints will be "

CAUGHT UP

into the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air. The Bible says we as believers WILL BE CHANGED IN THE TWINKLING OF AN EYE (i.e., 100 to 400 milliseconds). In less than one second, our mortal bodies will be forever CHANGED by God into immortal bodies. Philippians 3:21,

"For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself. " What a glorious day that will be, when my Jesus I shall see!!!

The believer's soul is redeemed at the moment of salvation; but our body won't be redeemed until the Rapture, when our blessed Savior Jesus Christ appears...

> Romans 8:22-23, "For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.
>
> And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.
> **"

The Rapture is a Biblical teaching! Carefully study the 33 distinctions that I gave you earlier, contrasting the Rapture with Christ's Second Coming, and I am confident that you will come to the same conclusion as I did. Here are some helpful words from the famous baseball player turned evangelist, Billy Sunday (1862-1935), concerning the Pretribulation Rapture...

> "The Lord does not come to the world at the time of the Rapture, but only reveals himself to the members of His Body. At the time of his resurrection He was only seen by those who believed on Him. Pilate and the High Priest, and those who crucified Him, did not know that He was risen. So it will be at the time of the Rapture. The world will not know that He has been here, and will have no knowledge of Him until He comes with the members of His Body, at the close of the Tribulation." —Evangelist Billy Sunday, "[5]The Second Coming Of Christ"

1.2.59 Boldness Comes From Walking With God (2020-04-13 03:00)

Acts 4:13, "Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus."

America's great need in this perilous hour is bold men of God who PREACH THE TRUTH!!! Where does boldness come from? Why, it comes from walking with the Lord in prayer and abiding in the Scriptures. Boldness comes from spending time with Jesus!!! The reason why pastors don't preach with boldness today is because they don't truly walk with God.

As a man abides in the Scriptures (John 5:39; Psalms 1), and understands the truths being taught to Him by the Holy Spirit (John 16:13), the truth WILL BURN IN HIS HEART (as it did the prophet Jeremiah, as it does mine daily). Jeremiah 20:9, "Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay." Like a pregnant woman who's ready to give birth, a preacher should be so full of truth that he is ready to give birth to a sermon at all times! I LOVE BIBLE PREACHING!!! I NEED BIBLE-PREACHING!!! WE ALL DO!!! Sadly, very few of my web visitors listen to the several thousand MP3 sermons that I've published online. I encourage you to listen to preaching!!!

Amidst horrible persecution against the New Testament Church, the Lord's disciples prayed for BOLDNESS to speak the Word of God...

Acts 4:24-29, "

And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

For of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together,

For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word,

The average pastor nowadays is a mere businessman, an administrator, running a 501c3 state-licensed business instead of a Bible-believing, soul-winning, Christ-honoring, sin-fighting, people-loving, truth-telling, New Testament Church. Oh, how we need preaching PREACHERS!!! We need men of truth, who desire not money, and are consumed with THE TRUTH! Jeremiah 3:15, "

And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.

" Boldness to love, forgive and preach comes only from walking with our wonderful God!

"Satan trembles when he sees the weakest saint upon his knees." —William Cowper

1.2.60 What HAPPENS In Vegas Is RECORDED In Heaven! (2020-04-13 08:00)

“Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity!” —Habakkuk 2:12

As a child of God, I passionately hate Las Vegas! Psalms 97:10, “Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.”

The local Chamber Of Commerce in Las Vegas chose to officially nickname their city to “SIN CITY,” for which they will answer to God in eternity. What a wicked thing to mock sin.

Proverbs 14:9, “

Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour. ” Sin destroys lives, ruins marriages, breaks apart families, and leaves a trail of damage in its path. Sin thrills and then it kills! Sin fascinates and then it assassinates! I do not envy the wicked. Psalms 37:1, “ Fret not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity. ”

Here’s what USA TODAY had to report about the filthy, spiritually rat-infested, worm-hole of Las Vegas . . .

> Sin City uncovered: Vegas strips down to embrace its naughty side
>
> By Kitty Bean Yancey, USA TODAY

LAS VEGAS — Tourist couples entwine on front-row sofas at the climax of Cirque du Soleil’s adults-only Zumanity show, watching two dozen cast members simulate an orgy on a revolving stage called "the Lazy Susan of Sex."

Among them is a middle-aged female audience member who has been pulled onstage into a horizontal clinch with a bare-chested hunk.

"This is Sin City…anything is OK," Zumanity drag diva Joey Arias, who plays the "Mistress of Seduction," says later. Audience high jinks he has witnessed include overly amorous duos and a woman who gleefully whipped off her top and slapped her chest against the hunk’s during her spin onstage.

"What happens here, stays here," the famed Vegas tourist slogan says. And as Las Vegas ratchets up the raunch factor to an unprecedented level — $8 billion was dropped last year on adult entertainment such as strip clubs, the Sin City Chamber of Commerce estimates — does it ever!

Anyone who interacts with visitors in this adult fantasyland can offer eyewitness reports of tawdry behavior. Vegas racked up its best year ever in 2006 with 38.9 million visitors and 93.2 % hotel occupancy, the Las Vegas Convention and Visitors Authority says.

More than ever, visitors engage in activities they'd never consider at home, from getting lap dances at strip joints, to picking up a stranger or calling up an escort, to visiting swingers' clubs.

"People come here to do the nasty. The sexy, the naughty — this is the most potent incarnation of Vegas so far," says former professional gambler Anthony Curtis, publisher of LasVegasAdvisor.com, citing an explosion of escort services, topless shows, massage parlors and "gentlemen's clubs" in a place that made its name on gambling and then tried a brief, not-so-successful stint as a family destination that ended about 2001...

Despite the fact that prostitution is illegal here, the phone book's Yellow Pages boasts 126 pages of "entertainers" who'll visit hotel rooms. Entries include "Secret Room Service Satisfaction Guaranteed," "Campus Sorority Sisters Cutting Class To Be With You" and "Fetish World: What's Your Pleasure?" There's something for every predilection, from "Wild Teen Tami" to "Affordable Older Women" to "Girly Man Gary."

Touts on the Strip hand out cards with racy photos and phone numbers of escorts. Hookers hang out at casinos and proposition solo males.

"Our vice squad is busy," says officer Martin Wright, a spokesman for the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department.

Strip clubs, where the $20 lap dance is lapped up by conventioneers and bachelor partiers, are requisite stops for men on their own, says Michael Tomes, vice president of VegasVIP.com. "Gambling is secondary now," he says:

Las Vegas is all about adults having fun," Maloof says. Visitors "have their Vegas mind-set once they step off the plane."

Law enforcement personnel understand that mind-set, says officer Wright...

"The notion is that it's all men coming here and hiding stuff from their wives," says Howard Lefkowitz, president of the Vegas.com website. "Women come here and do stuff, too, because they think, 'They're not going to find out about it in my hometown.' "

'Cause, you know. What happens in Vegas ...

That is so tragic. Can you imagine?—"Tourist couples entwine on front-row sofas at the climax of Cirque du Soleil's adults-only Zumanity show, watching two dozen cast members simulate an orgy on a revolving stage called 'the Lazy Susan of Sex."' 38.9 million visitors came to Las Vegas in 2006 alone to see this filth! Although prostitution is illegal, the Yellow Pages boasts 126 pages of "entertainers" (i.e., prostitutes) who'll visit hotel rooms. The police are trained to look the other way. God bless America?

Proverbs 14:34, "Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people."

Do you think that the folks in Las Vegas, Sin City, would listen to Billy Sunday or a preacher like me if we were to cry aloud against their sins? You know as well as I do that they'd run any Gospel preacher out of town if he started preaching against sin. Jesus said that the Last Days would return to the apostasy of Noah's day, when no one cared about the truth...

Matthew 24:37-39, “But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.”

Las Vegas advertises to the world that “W hat HAPPENS in Vegas STAYS In Vegas!,

but the inspired Word of God warns that God is RECORDING everything...

Revelation 20:12, “ And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.”

What is being written in Heaven about you dear friend? Nothing can escape the eyes and judgment of God. Hebrews 4:13, “

Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do. ” So please don’t believe the Devil’s LIE—which says in Las Vegas you can do whatever you want, committing all manner of sin—and it will STAY there. Oh no my friend, your sins WON’T STAY in Vegas, they are being recorded up in Heaven for all to see. The Lord sees the evil and the good. Proverbs 15:3, “ The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.” I love that...

Our life is being jotted down, every nook and cranny of our thoughts, words and deeds. Matthew 12:36,

But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

” Our omniscient (all-knowing) God is paying attention. In fact, He even know the number of hairs on your head. Matthew 10:30,

“But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.”

I am so glad God had Matthew put that in the Bible! Nothing ever escapes the knowledge and attention of our great God! The Lord reads our thoughts (Psalms 139:1-6), He hears our words (Matthew 12:36), and He cares about us the Bible says (1st Peter 5:7).

1st Corinthians 4:5, “ Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God. ”

1.2.61 Nobody Is Laughing In Hell! (2020-04-13 13:30)

Luke 16:22-24, " And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame."

One of the most famous Late Night TV hosts is Conan O'Brien. On his popular NBC's 'Late Night With Conan O'Brien' (1993-2009), in 2008 he sang a horrible song mocking the reality of Hell.

Conan Mocks God!

Romans 1:18, "For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness." [1]Here is the song if you want to hear it, but I warn you the lyrics may be offensive to some listeners. This was aired on national television. ...

"I'm a Gonna Go To Hell When I Die" —Conan O'Brien

Conan O'Brien makes a mockery of Hell. In the despicable song titled: "Go To Hell When I Die" by a group of perverts who call themselves The Booty Boys, Conan is the featured singer. Conan has really hit rock bottom with this sleaze. Here are the sinful lyrics:

Editor's note: The lyrics cited in this story may be offensive.

I’m Gonna Go To Hell When I Die
I’m Gonna Go To Hell When I Die
I’m Gonna Go To Hell When I Die
I’m Gonna Go To Hell When I Die

I can’t be saved, it’s too late for me
I’m going to H-E Double L when I D-I-E
You could say I’m messed up, but I’m keepin’ it real I’ll sleep with your mom for a home cooked meal
Give a guy with no legs a new pair of shoes
And give Ben Affleck a bottle of booze
I Call up Nick Lechey, tell him he’s gay
Then ask Jessica to spell Chevrolet

Chorus
I sent Al Roker a box of crullers
With a dozen jelly donuts and a staple remover
I sent Abe Vigoda a cookie basket
With some flowers and a catalogue to pick out a casket
Jacked Michael J. Fox for his time machine
Then I grabbed a couple hookers and Charlie Sheen
And got ’em all to take a trip back in time with me
So we could pee on R. Kelly when he turned 14

Chorus
I pick Kirstie Alley up out of the gutter
Throw her in a ring with Sally Struthers
Cover them with syrup and melted butter
And see how long it takes before they eat each other
I challenge Stephen Hawkings to some one on one Slam dunk on that bitch like Alan Iverson Tried to race Andy Dick but he lost control Ran his mother-fking car into Billy Joel

Chorus
Push an old lady down a flight of stairs
And pull out the rest of Ron Howard’s hair
And lock a PETA member in a room full of bears
And hook Gary Coleman up with a job at the fair
Keep an unofficial count of Star Jones’ chins
Cast Hillary Swank and Matt Damon as twins
Start a petition that Conan will hate
Get the Tonight Show cancelled in 2008

[3]SONG: GO TO HELL WHEN I DIE

Do you think God is humored by such wickedness? Do you think God laughs in good humor while unsaved sinners sing about going to Hell. God's wrath rests upon all Christ-rejecting sinners. Psalm 7:11 states that God is angry with the wicked EVERY DAY. We read in Proverb 14:9, "Fools make a mock at sin..."

To no surprise, Conan O'Brien legally officiated over Late Night TV's first same-sex marriage in New York on November 4, 2011.

All they do on Late Night TV is joke about sin—homosexuality, adultery, drunkenness and going to Hell. In another episode, Conan portrays Jesus as being a homosexual voyeur (a viewer who enjoys seeing the sex acts or sex organs of others). This is how they portray the sinless Lamb of God on TV. This is the horrible way they mock and desecrate the Son of God.

Most of their guests do the same. Everything is about sex, perversion, illegal-drugs, mocking God, et cetera. Why should God bless America?

Conan sings that he's going to Hell when he dies. Sadly, he will one day be condemned out of the words of his own mouth. Matthew 12:36, "But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment." How much more shall men give account for blasphemy?Kindly, Conan's Roman Catholic religion won't help him escape the fires of Hell on Judgment Day. ONLY through faith in the cross of Jesus Christ WITHOUT WORKS can anyone be saved, NOT through religion or merit.

I don't condemn anyone, for the Bible condemns all of us as guilty, rotten, hell-deserving, sinners (Romans 3:10-23). For someone to openly sing with cheer that they're going to burn in Hell is truly heart-breaking. Hell is forever!

Conan, just as Mandy Moore, and other God-haters, has sold his soul to Satan. Why would anyone joke of such a horrible place as Hell, where lost sinners burn in fire forever? Evidently Conan doesn't take Hell very seriously. I pray for his salvation, but as Jesus said in Luke 18:24, “How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!” What further saith the Scripture? ...

> "In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power." —2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9

Is it a joke to you also dear reader? God is not willing for any to perish (2nd Peter 3:9). Please come to Christ while you still can.

Revelation 20:15, “ And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.” God created Hell for the Devil and his angels, not for humanity.

Matthew 25:41, “ Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels: ”

Matthew 25:46, “ And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.” I assure you dear friend, on the authority of the inspired Word of God, that nobody is laughing in Hell.

God knows that I didn’t write this article to be mean or to criticize anyone, but simply because I care about you, and I want you to go to Heaven someday. There are only two places to go when someone dies —Heaven or Hell. There is nothing in between. Annihilation (ceasing to exist) is a false teaching. Life is short, Hell is hot, and eternity is a long time!!! It is a matter of whether or not you believe the Holy Bible. [4]Please don’t go to Hell!

1.2.62 Man's True Problem Is Disobedience (2020-04-13 18:00)

Jeremiah 7:28, " But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, nor receiveth correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth."

Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) rightly said:

> “The whole rotten modern world is wrecked because of disobedience. The sinful, hellish philosophy that has destroyed America is built upon the philosophy of disobedience. Prisons are filled with juvenile delinquents. Children have been killing their school teachers in some sections of America—cutting their throats, shooting them. Little girls and boys are out murdering people. If you stay here you are going to obey.” —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., “Comments On Here And Hereafter,” Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

Man’s problem has always been DISOBEDIENCE—disobedience to authority. In America, there has been a secret program of social engineering for the past 75 years, indoctrinating families to think wrong.

> “This whole society is rotten and Godless. The wrath of God is upon America. Mark my word: if God’s Word be true, this nation is headed for the dust.” —Pastor Tom Malone, ’[1]Can America Survive?’ (1971)

Here is one of the most helpful Bible studies I’ve ever heard, by Pastor Max D. Younce, titled: “

Human Wisdom Versus Divine Wisdom

(also, please see [2]PART TWO)

In the preceding video sermon, Dr. Younce wisely points out that most people who go to a psychiatrist, really have a rebellion problem. And you'll never hear a psychiatrist tell you that your problem is the sin of rebellion, or you need to get your heart right with God!

Only the Word of God itself, or a man of God who preaches the Word of God, will tell you that TRUTH!!! The solution to rebellion is obedience to God!

Acts 5:32, "And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

” You get saved by obeying the Gospel! You *obey t*he Gospel simply by believing it, submitting yourself as a needy sinner to God’s righteousness, which is through faith alone in Jesus Christ. Philippians 3:9,

“And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: ”

Humanity by nature are prone to disobedience and wrath. What saith the Scripture?

> Ephesians 2:1-5, “And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;
>
> Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:
>
> Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.
>
> But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,
>
> Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)”

Thank God for the blood of Jesus that washes all our sins away (1st John 1:7). That word “quickened” means “made alive.” We have new spiritual LIFE in Christ Jesus!!! Paul reiterates the fact that believers are SAVED BY GRACE! We are made a child of God by yielding to the truth of the Gospel. Salvation is of the LORD! Romans 10:3-4, “For they being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.” God alone can SAVE you in response to your yielding, and God alone can SANCTIFY you in response to your yielding. We live the Christian life the SAME way we get saved—BY YIELDING TO GOD, WHICH IS FAITH!

1.2.63 The Flat Earth Heresy Exposed (2020-04-13 21:30)

Isaiah 40:22, "It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in."

I cannot believe I am even writing this article, but as hard as it is to imagine, there are still people today who literally believe that the earth is flat. Folks, the earth is NOT flat! It is a circle, not a perfect circle, but it looks like a circle from outer space. The earth is actually a bit oblong, a sphere...

> Since the Earth is flattened at the poles and bulges at the equator, [1]geodesy represents the shape of the Earth with an oblate spheroid. The oblate spheroid, or oblate ellipsoid, is an ellipsoid of revolution obtained by rotating an ellipse about its shorter axis. —[2]Figure of The Earth

[3]American Scientific also provides information about the earth's shape.

[4]Here is a satellite photo of the earth from NASA. Truly, a picture is worth 1,000 words.

THE EARTH IS A SPHERE, just like the moon!!!

Beware Of Pastor David Hoffman's Heresy Of A Flat Earth

I've heard some well-meaning but ignorant preachers twist Revelation 1:7 where it says "every eye shall see him," which, they say, means the earth must be flat for the whole world to see Christ when He returns. Folks, let's read the whole verse from Revelation 1:7, "Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen." How can all the people involved in "piercing" Jesus, that is, crucifying Him, see Him from Hell? Those were all unsaved people who pierced Jesus to the cross. Clearly, it is possible in ways that only God can understand. It is gross theological incompetence to attempt to use Revelation 1:7 to teach that the earth is flat, or dome shaped.

Kindly, for this very reason I had to stop supporting and promoting "The Common Man's Bible," which can literally now be called "The Idiot's Bible," because Brother Hoffman teaches in it that the earth is flat, which is insanity. [5]David Hoffman Teaches A Flat Earth In His [6]Common Man's Reference Bible.

Pastor David Hoffman likes to quote from the Proverbs in an attempt to bolster up his strawman argument that the earth is really flat. Mr. Hoffman even goes as far as to call people who believe the truth about the earth being a circle, "globetards." No, Brother Hoffman is the retard! BIG TIME!

Folks, something is wrong with a preacher who insists that the earth is flat.

Perhaps you say, "Does it really hurt if a sincere preacher thinks the earth is flat?" Are you kidding me? The answer is a resounding, yes, yes, yes, it is very detrimental and harmful to the cause of Christ. There are a lot of unsaved people, who upon learning that a man ignorantly teaches the earth is flat, will immediately leave (and I don't blame them) from the presence of that fool. Anyone who thinks that the earth is flat in these modern times ought not be allowed to stand behind any church pulpit!!!

Even the Holy Bible tells us to go from the presence of a fool. Proverbs 14:7, "Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge."

I cannot think of anything more foolish, and lacking of KNOWLEDGE, than a man who denies that the earth is a sphere.

There are hundreds of photos on the internet showing that the earth is a sphere.

> “Beware of false knowledge; it is more dangerous than ignorance.”
> —George Bernard Shaw (1856-1950)

Dr. Texe Marrs and Jerry Barrett Promote Satanic Flat Earth Heresy

[7]

Pastor Texe Marrs (1944-2019) was a brilliant man in my opinion, but it is obvious to me that the folks at [8]Power of Prophecy are money-hungry as well. There is no way that anyone as intelligent as Texe could embrace the insanity of a FLAT EARTH! I can only logically conclude that the folks at ’Power of Prophecy’ only want the money. I say that kindly, but truthfully. Science proves that the earth is a sphere!

It is also possible that even though Texe may not believe in a FLAT EARTH, he gives others with whom he disagrees a chance to promote what they believe to be true, and then allows YOU, THE AUDIENCE, to form your own conclusions. Albeit, that is as wicked as Hell, intentionally promoting obvious heresy to sell a book to make a buck! I have never heard Texe or Jerry say that they disagree with a FLAT EARTH claim.

Regardless, I must expose Texe Marrs and Jerry Barrett as heretics in this matter, for promoting a FLAT EARTH heresy! Kindly, you are a darn fool dear reader if you believe that our earth is flat instead of a sphere. What saith the Scripture? Isaiah 40:22, "It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in." Even the Holy Bible proclaims that the earth is a CIRCLE!!!

In a recent episode of Power of Prophecy from November of 2019, Jerry Barrett interviewed author Edward Hendrie. Here is the introductory information provided at Power of Prophecy about this particular episode...

Sphere of Influence—Does God's Word Confirm the Earth is Flat?

November 1, 2019

Jerry Barrett is pleased to welcome Edward Hendrie, author of the new book The Sphere of Influence, to the program. What began as an innocuous email discussion with his father has led Mr. Hendrie into authoring two extensive tomes exposing the heretical views of heliocentrism versus the bible-based model of geocentrism. Through mathematical calculations and geometric equations, the author disproves the curvature of the earth. Thanks to the sharing capability of the Internet and the ability of the populace to purchase never before available instruments, more information is becoming available to confirm this premise. Moreover, Mr. Hendrie uses scripture to prove the validity of his claim that the earth is flat.

[9]LISTEN TO ’POWER OF PROPHECY’ EPISODE #4419: SPHERE OF INFLUENCE (MP3)

If you want to hear the craziest thing you’ve ever heard, listen to Jerry Barrett at 30 minutes into the MP3 presentation, where he connects the Gospel to a FLAT EARTH! You couldn’t make this stuff up! (actually they did...lol). What blatant heresy!!!

According to Ed Hendrie, if you reject a FLAT EARTH you are rejecting the Gospel! Edward Hendrie is a FALSE PROPHET, a nut in my humble opinion, who calls the teaching of a spherical earth: “THE GREATEST LIE IN HISTORY!” In the preceding Power of Prophecy episode (#4419), Hendrie says that a round earth teaching is used by Satan to blind people from the existence of God. Oh boy! The depth of their woeful ignorance is disturbing. Really, it is creepy that anyone could be so naive as to actually believe that the earth is FLAT in these modern times! There are people who still believe that men never walked on the moon. THEY DID! It is shocking that Hendrie claims preachers who deny his FLAT EARTH heresy are corrupting the Gospel, claiming that they don’t accept the whole of God’s Word. Honestly, it is frightening that anybody could actually buy into these Satanic lies! Dear reader, the earth is a sphere!

False Knowledge is a Dangerous Thing!

I couldn’t believe that someone actually made the following idiotic video, in which a man contends that the earth’s sun couldn’t possibly be 93,000,000 miles away. Uh, yeah, it is! Honestly folks, I feel sorry for some people, seeing how dumb they are (this guy reminds me of Dr. John MacArthur and his retarded denial of Jesus’ blood on the Mercy Seat in Heaven in plain defiance of Hebrews 9:12)...

[10]FLAT EARTH - THE SUN IS 93,000,000 MILES AWAY?!? NO WAY

The fact that the sun rises in the east and sets in the west each day, evidences that the earth is a sphere that is spinning. Science proves that the sun is 93,000,000 miles away from the earth. It takes sunlight 8 minutes to reach the earth. If the sun exploded, we wouldn't know it for 8 minutes. The earth rotates around the sun once every 365.25 days. Having said that, now consider the preceding video, by an ignorant man who argues that the sun couldn't possible be 93,000,000 miles away, because our sun looks like a spotlight in the sky. His reasoning is that if the sun were really 93,000,000 miles away, its rays would not be so intense in the earth's sky, like a bright spotlight. The idiot in the preceding video fails to understand that it's the earth's atmosphere that refracts the sun's light, which gives the sky it's blue color, and wonderful seven rainbow colors. That is why when we gaze up at stars at night, we only sees bright dots in the heavens. Those stars are too far away. God knew what He has doing when He made the universe. What a brilliant Creator!!!

May I say, I don't call people an "idiot" for being ignorant, bless their heart; but rather, I call a person an idiot when they speak boldly with confidence in their ignorance. If you don't know what you're talking about, keep your mouth shut; and if you do open your mouth, you had better be able to backup what you're talking about.

Let me say again, unequivocally, that the earth is a [11]spherical in shape . Don't let anybody tell you different!

1.2.64 Grace To Help In Time Of Need (2020-04-14 04:12)

Hebrews 4:15-16, "For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need."

I first discovered this helpful passage of Scripture my first year in Bible college. I remember after chapel one day, reading the Bible in my dorm (I lived on-campus the first year). I was getting ready to go to work. I was a bit discouraged and sought comfort from the Word of God. I read this precious truth from Hebrews 4:15-16, which I have never forgot unto this day.

The Bible says Jesus was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. That not only includes temptation to do wrong, but hardships and trials as well. Jesus knows what it means to be human! The Lord is not so heavenly high, that he cannot understand our earthly lows. The Lord understands our pains, sorrows, burdens, heartaches, losses and loneliness; the Word of God encourages us to COME BOLDLY UNTO THE THRONE OF GRACE. Why? So that we can OBTAIN MERCY, AND FIND GRACE TO HELP IN TIME OF NEED.

I cannot think of a more encouraging passage of Scripture! When we are feeling down (which for me is just about every day), the Bible invites us as believers to bring our burdens to the Lord and leave them there! Most people mentally separate verses 6 and 7 from verse 8, but they are all connected. Verses 6 and 7 deal with prayer, but verse 8 deals with right thinking. Every time I hear someone quote either of these passages, they are never quoted together, but I believe one's prayer life is directly linked to our thought life...

Philippians 4:6-8,

"Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."

I guarantee you that people who listen to all the negativity on the daily news, and spend their time gossiping about others, don't pray as they should. We ought not allow a bunch of negative reports and bad news enter into our mind every day. Proverbs 4:23, "

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life. " We are commanded not to worry; but rather, to cast all our cares upon the Lord in prayer. As believers we walk by faith and not by sight (2nd Corinthians 5:7), which means we should pray even when we don't see any visible results. To be honest, I don't see God answering most of my prayers, but I just keep on praying anyhow! I pray for my web visitors daily. I pray for God to give me wisdom. I pray for loved ones. I pray for God to give me a wife.

Helping Others In Time Of Need

In his excellent book titled: "[1]Exploring Prayer With Jack Hyles," chapter 34, Dr. Hyles has this to say about Hebrews 4:15-16:

Recently at the First Baptist Church of Hammond funeral services were conducted for an elderly lady who had lived one of the most unselfish lives that we had ever witnessed. Something very sweet and blessed happened at her funeral. A young man stood up and said, "She paid my way through college. Nobody knew about it, but very quietly with little fanfare she helped me through college."

A young lady stood up and said that the deceased woman had been like a mother to her. She had no living mother, and the lady to whom we were paying respects had taken her and treated her as her own daughter. Then all over the building people stood up testifying to the fact that this dear lady who had just recently entered into the presence of her Lord had helped them.

How did she get this way? The answer is in Hebrews 4:16, "Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need." Notice the words, "find grace to help in time of need." We normally associate these words with finding grace to help us in the time of our needs, but there is more here than that. This also means that when we come boldly to the throne of grace we may find grace to help others in their time of need. It is in the prayer closet where one meets unselfishness. It is in the prayer room where one dies to self. It is at the throne of grace where one learns to live for others. Notice that this passage does not say, "Find grace to be helped in time of need," but it says, "find grace to help in the time of need." This grace is found at the throne of grace where grace is dispensed to the children of God. It takes grace to help others. It takes grace to forget self. It takes grace to forget your own needs and remember those of another. Ah, there is a graduate course on prayer in this wonderful passage.

Most of the Christian life is selfish. Most of us got saved in order that we might go to Heaven and escape the fires of Hell, or perhaps we got saved to find peace, contentment, joy and fulfillment. Many of us serve the Lord in order to avoid chastening. We tithe in order that the windows of Heaven may be opened and that God will pour "out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it." (Malachi 3:10) We separate ourselves from the world in order to avoid the chastening rod of God. We pray in order to get things for ourselves. We read the Bible and meditate in order that we may be successful and prosperous. Psalm 1:1-3, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in His law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper."

These things are not wrong. It is not wrong to get saved in order to escape Hell and go to Heaven. It is not wrong to meet the conditions to tithe in order to open the windows of Heaven in order that we might receive a bountiful blessing, but there is a life into which we can enter that gives us more lofty motives. It is possible for a person to get saved because he wants his life to bring glory to God. It is possible for a person to serve God because he loves Him. It is possible for a person to tithe because he wants to be a co-laborer with God. It is possible for a person to pray and ask God for the needs of others. This advanced post-graduate life is conceived at home at the throne of grace. It is there that we lose ourselves in the service of others. It is there that we find grace to help others in their time of need. To be sure, there is nothing wrong with coming to the throne of grace in order that we find grace to be helped in the time of need, but there is a way that the Christian can come to the throne of grace in order that he might find grace to help others in their time of need, and to think, this unselfish life for others is available, yea, bountifully so, at the throne of grace! What a way to live!

—Pastor Jack Hyles, chapter 34, “[2]Exploring Prayer With Jack Hyles”

God’s grace is available to help every believer, and also to help us help others. We are nothing without the Lord. John 15:5,

“I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.” The Holy Bible encourages believers to COME BOLDLY TO GOD’S THRONE OF GRACE! It is only the precious blood of Jesus that entitles us to that privilege and right. Hebrews 4:14, “Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.” I encourage you dear reader to take advantage of your privilege in Christ, to come boldly before God’s throne in prayer.

> "Oh, when will we learn the simple yet all important lesson that the one great thing needed in the life of a preacher to help him in his personal life, to keep his soul alive to God, and to give efficacy to the Word preached by him is real, constant prayer." —Pastor E.M. 1.2.65 NIV: The Bible Version That Keeps Changing! (2020-04-14 11:00)

Matthew 24:35, "

Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

The New International Version (NIV) is a sneaky snake. It's not just another translation of the Bible. Zondervan publisher's parent company is Harper Collins, owned by Ruppert Murdock. Harper Collins also publishes "The Satanic Bible" and "The Joy Of Gay Sex." Murdock owns all the rights to the NIV series of the Bible, placing the work of translation into the hands of unsaved heathens and not the New Testament Church. Unholy hands have greedily butchered the Word of God for profit.

The NIV admittedly in its introduction says they gathered several dozen religious denominations together, to ask them what changes they'd like to see to the NIV. This was done under the noble pretense of preventing sectarian bias (religious prejudice). In reality, this was done to broaden their marketing base. The companies are doing it for money, but Satan is doing it to prepare the world's masses to receive the soon coming Antichrist.

Please understand that the goal of the Committee On Biblical Translation (CBT) who translated the NIV was(is) not doctrinal integrity and loyalty to God; but rather, to render the Bible more appealing by aligning it with the feminist and sexually immoral agendas of our quickly deteriorating U.S. culture. This is why the Today's New International Version (TNIV) was gender-inclusive and removed the words "he" and "him" in literally thousands of places. The version was shunned by many churches, so Zondervan quickly cancelled it, although millions of copies are still being sold and won't fade off the market for several more years.

What few Christians understand, and it is more of a threat than Ebola, is that the NIV is a work in progress. It is like John Carpenter's terrifying monstrous creature in the 1984 movie "THE THING." In the movie, Kurt Russell is alarmed when told by a coworker that The Thing which they just burned to death with a flamethrower IS NOT DEAD YET! Likewise, the NIV is not dead yet! It's still alive at a cellular level, like The Thing. The NIV was first published in 1978. It was revised in 1984. The NIV has copyright dates for 1973, 1978, 1984 and 2011.

Look at this big mess. Folks, God only wrote ONE BOOK. The following statistics reveal the confusion and utter perversion which Satan is deliberately causing in our churches today (and that includes Independent Fundamental Baptist Churches). Notice that the updated NIV 2011 is 38.8 % different than the original NIV 1984...

> The NIV 2011 should be considered the offspring of the TNIV (Today's NIV), and the grandson of the NIV 1984. The genetic stock shared by all three translations is 18859 verses, which is 60.7 % verse similarity. Some genetic traits skip a generation, and this is the case 0.6 % of the time, where the NIV 1984 and the NIV 2011 share 171 verses of commonality against the TNIV. But as one would imagine, the child is more similar to the parent, and the TNIV and the NIV 2011 share 31.3 % genetic makeup, or 9736 verses. But genetics alone cannot prevent mutations and variation, so the NIV 2011 is unique 7.5 % of the time, or 2320 verses of originality. Broken down, this means that the NIV 2011 is 38.8 % different than the NIV 1984 and 8 % different than the TNIV. (See Robert Slowley. John Dyer has slightly different figures).

Bless God, the good ole King James Bible hasn't changed one bit! Amen! The Devil isn't going to stop changing the Bible. Each succeeding new version, particularly the NIV series is going to wax worse and worse as the Bible teaches. 2nd Timothy 3:12, "Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived."

The churches are being deceived. They might as well begin a "Bible-of-the-month-club." Heresy is creeping into our Independent Fundamental Baptist churches by the hour. 2nd Timothy 4:3, "For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears." Tragically, it's today's shameful pastors who won't tolerate sound doctrine (the truth) anymore.

1.2.66 How We Got God's Words (2020-04-14 18:00)

Matthew 4:3-4, "And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread. But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

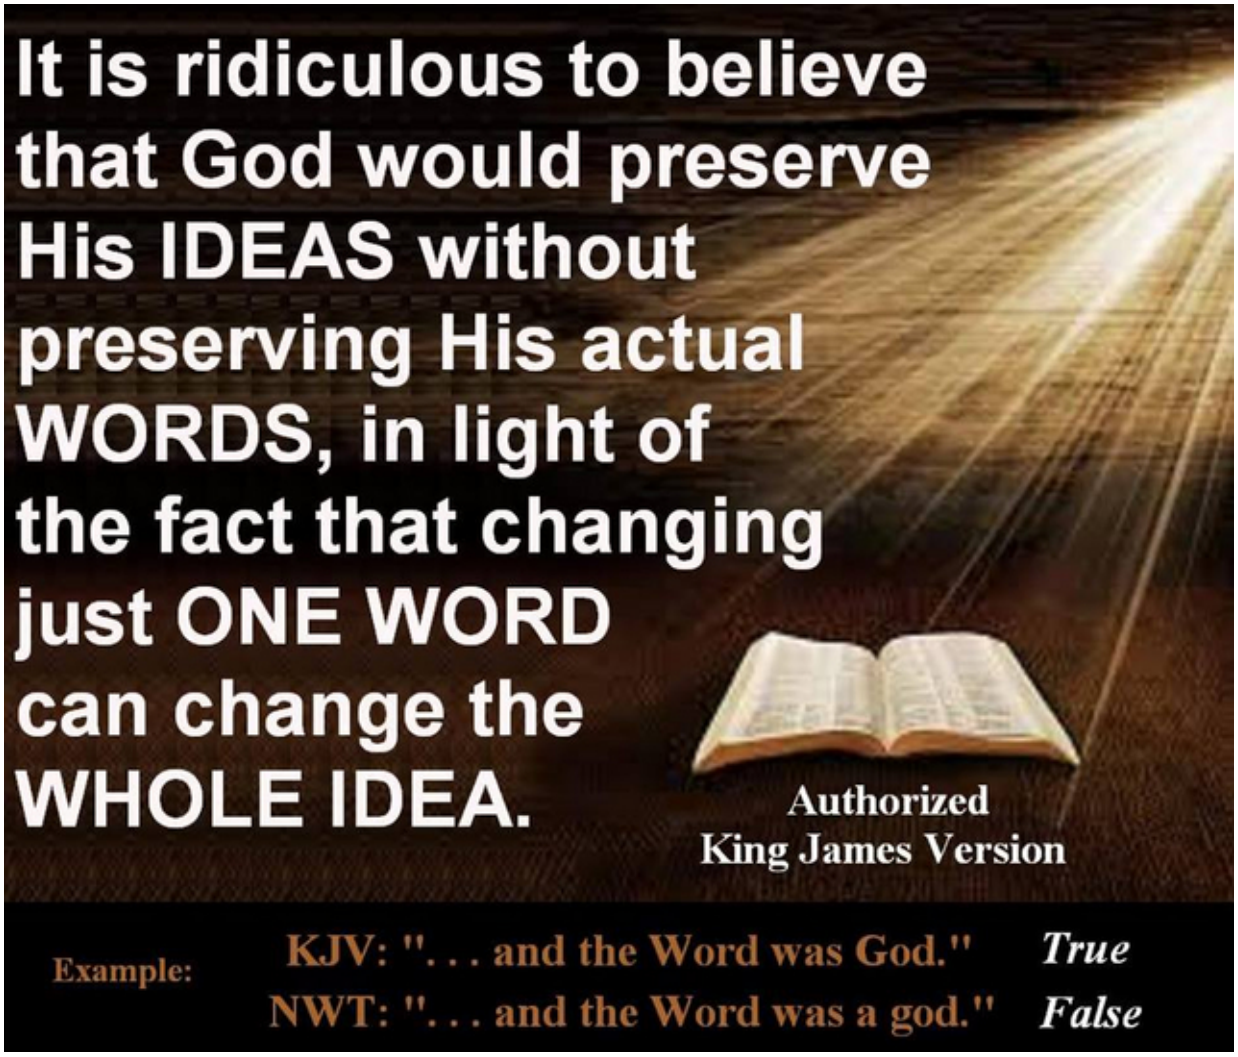
I gleaned the following thoughts from a timeless and life-changing audio sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) titled, " [1]HOW WE GOT GOD'S WORD? "

(MP3). Dr. Hyles provides the following helpful sermon outside:

1. The Words of God have always been in Heaven.
2. Man must have them to live.
3. God must find a way to get every Word up there down here to man.
4. God chose men and made them holy. He did not choose men who were holy; but rather, He chose men to make them holy. By that I mean He set them apart to be His pen.
5. God could not trust giving to sinful man the Words to give to us, so God gave those Words through these men, holy (chosen and sanctified) men. And through those men He gave His Words to us.

God Himself gave His Words, not to holy men of old; but rather, through holy men of old. God literally put His Words into their mouth. Those chosen men of old, which God set apart for His use, were simply PENS.

King David said:



Psalms 45:1, “My heart is inditing a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made touching the king: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.”

They weren’t holy in the sense of righteous living; but rather, they were “set apart” and chosen for God’s purpose and work. Those inspired Words have been divinely preserved unto this day in the inspired King James Bible. The Bible is not men giving us the Words of God; but rather, it is God Himself giving us His Words using the mouths of the men who were chosen by God to do so.

Moses did not give us the Pentateuch (i.e., the first 5 books of the Old Testament). Moses was the mere pen. God is the Penman. It was God speaking through Moses. God cannot use the impure minds of a murderer like Moses, nor an adulterer like David to get His pure Words to us:

Psalms 12:6, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever."

"Pure" means that you cannot improve on them. God's Words are perfect and cannot be made better. God cannot use the impure minds of men to give us God's pure Words. So God chose men and made them holy (not in the sense of being righteous, but in the sense of being chosen). And God said, I'm going to use your mouth and your tongue. The men who wrote the Bible were mere PENS, but God is the divine PENMAN. | [2]READ MORE

"There is also the danger in our special prayer groups for us to pray for others to improve, which is simply a way for us to criticize someone to a friend and place it in the disguise of spirituality and prayer. If one is going to pray for the improvement of another and mention his faults, it is best for him to go into the closet and pray alone." —Dr. Jack Hyles, chapter 46, a quote from the book, "[4]EXPLORING PRAYER WITH JACK HYLES"

1.2.67 Continue In Prayer And Watch In The Same (2020-04-15 01:00)

Colossians 4:2, “

Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;

I read this interesting passage of Scripture today. We are commanded as believers to ’CONTINUE IN PRAYER,’ but then we are further taught to ’WATCH IN THE SAME.’ That is very interesting. What does it mean?

Presbyterian [1]Pastor Albert Barnes (1798-1870), teaches concerning this passage:

> Barnes’ Notes on the Bible
>
> Continue in prayer - That is, do not neglect it; observe it at all stated times; maintain the spirit of prayer, and embrace all proper occasions to engage in it; compare the Luke 18:1 note; Ephesians 6:18 note; 1 Thessalonians 4:17 note.
>
> And watch in the same with thanksgiving - Watch for favorable opportunities; watch that your mind may be in a right frame when you pray: and watch, that when your mind is in a right frame you may not neglect to pray; see the Ephesians 6:18 note; Philemon 4:6.

Here are a couple related Scripture...

1st Peter 4:7, "But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer."

Matthew 26:40-41, " And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

To "WATCH UNTO PRAYER" means to be spiritually on Guard. Proverbs 4:23, " Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

Like most other things in life, CONSISTENCY is the key! If you want to lose weight, consistency is the key, watching one's diet and maintaining a routine of exercise. Likewise, effective prayer requires being consistent, nothing wavering, watching one's spiritual calories. That is what Colossians 4:2 means, we need to continue in prayer and be consistently to do it earnestly.

The important thing is to always pray.

Most people merely use God, coming to Him only when they want something from Him. Our God is such a loving and kind God that He still helps people, if it be according to His will. We see a beautiful example of this in the book of Acts...

Acts 12:5, "

Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

Acts 12:13-16, "And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda.

And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

And they said unto her, Thou art mad*. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel.

But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

This is a very encouraging passage of Scripture to me! I don't know about you but I often doubt if God will answer my prayers; but HE WILL IF IT IS HIS WILL! Just pray and let God be God!!! Herod had just killed James by having him beheaded. When Herod saw that the Jews loved it, he planned to kill Peter next; but the church prayed WITHOUT CEASING and God delivered the apostle. When Peter came to the door of the place, where the believers were gathered together praying, Rhoda answered the door. She was so excited that she didn't think to open the door, and ran in excitement to tell everyone that it was Peter. When they heard Peter was at the door, they called Rhoda "

CRAZY!

" They told her she had taken leave, that she had lost her mind! The Bible says they were ASTONISHED!!! Dear friend, even when you doubt God, He will answer your request if it is His will, because prayer in itself is faith!!!

> “The thing that will reveal your faith is praying when no answer comes. That’s the supreme test.” —Brother Lester Roloff, from the sermon titled, Something Everybody Can Do.

The Christian is not supposed to have a prayer life, but a life of prayer!

> “Prayer doesn’t change things. That is wrong! Prayer touches God and then God changes things. The right type of prayer touches God.” —A quote from the awesome sermon, “PREACHING THE POWER OF PRAYER,” by Pastor Danny Castle

1.2.68 America Was Founded As A Constitutional Republic (2020-04-15 01:00)

1st Timothy 2:1-4, “I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.”

I bought a fascinating book this week from Amazon.com called: “What Happened To America” by Jon L. Spokes (writing using the alias of Jon Christian Ryter). The book is all about the Globalist takeover of America, which began even before our nation was founded. I went to do my laundry at 4:30 a.m. and read this book for the first time. I am intrigued so far! I want to share with you a quote from page 2:

> “Most Americans, if asked what form of government is found in the United States, would respond that it is a Democracy. While that is not the form of government that was created by our Founding Fathers, they would nevertheless be partially correct in their answer. Our Founding Fathers created a Constitutional Republic. In a Constitutional Republic, government is granted limited power over its citizens. On April 8, 1913 the Republic of the United States of America became a Democracy when the power of the United States passed into the hands of the federal government.

Today, absolute power is vested in a handful of strongly tenured politicians backed by powerful and very wealthy financial interests determined to pursue their own agendas. The electorate is not powerless to stop them."

The 17th Amendment Needs To Be Repealed

What did Jon Christian Ryter mean by April 8, 1913? That was when the [1]17th Amendment was passed. Prior to that time, Senators were chosen by State legislators (i.e., a Republic), but still today Senators are voted for directly by the people (i.e., a Democracy). Effectively, this has shifted power away from the states and into the hands of the federal government. Here is an excellent article from The Federalist authored by Conner Mighell, explaining why the 17th Amendment needs to be repealed...

Repeal Would Empower The States

> Regardless of how it came to be, the Seventeenth Amendment savages the balance of power inherent in the constitutional structure. The Constitution created a system of checks and balances not only at the federal level, but between federal, state, and local governments. This system is fundamentally based on balancing self-interest.

> States are interested in exclusively maintaining as much power over health, safety, and welfare policy as possible. They naturally desire to prevent federal intrusion into these areas, and would work to shield their citizens from federal overreach. However, the Seventeenth Amendment deprives them of the ability to do so.

> If the Seventeenth Amendment were repealed, every state would have an equal number of seats at the table of federal lawmaking. Size and wealth would not matter. The current arrangement favors whatever state can hire the most effective lobbyists.
>
> —Conner Mighell, The Federalist,
>
> “
>
> [2]It’s Time To Repeal The 17th Amendment And End Direct Election Of Senators
> ” (2017)

Democracy is mob rule! In a truly free society the individual matters, but in a Democracy the majority are in control. By consolidating and manipulating the newsmedia, the Globalists are able to secretly control America from behind the scenes, controlling the masses. The media shape our reality! I learned a long time ago to become an objective thinker, to question everything.

In a truly free society, it is safe to be unpopular!

The power needs to reside with the individual states, and not with the federal government. The U.S. Constitution was made for a moral and religious people—a system of checks and balances of power to preserve liberty and freedom. U.S.

President

John Adams said that:

> “We have not government armed with power capable of contending with human passions unbridled by morality and religion. Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.” —U.S. President John Adams

Unfortunately, the federal government has been illegally usurping power for the past century and is unstoppable today. [3]Congressman Ron Paul has repeatedly warned the American people , that we are becoming a Police State in America! I CAN happen here, and it is!!!

Freedom Is Not Liberty

Jon Christian Ryter continues, explaining the vast difference between FREEDOM versus LIBERTY...

> “Freedom. Liberty. Are they one and the same thing? Of course not. Freedom is merely an exemption from arbitrary control. Freedom, as most blacks in America know and all too clearly understand, is simply the act of unshackling the human mind and spirit, and the setting free of the human body from those external controls that would otherwise restrict the free movement of their human body.

> Even with the newly found freedom ostensibly brought about by the ramification of the 13th Amendment of the Constitution of the United States in 1865, the freed slaves of the South did not posses liberty. Granted, they were free to go wherever they pleased—> provided, of course, that access or opportunity was not restricted by the free exercising of personal liberty by others within the same society. Freedom without liberty is a shallow gift.

Freedom is simply one of benefits of liberty. Liberty is, on the other hand, an inherent right. Rather, it is an inherent right with certain responsibilities that must be necessarily be attached to it. Because without those responsibilities, liberty becomes license, and license leads to dictatorship.

—Jon Christian Ryter,

“What Happened To America,” page 2; Hallberg Publishing Corporation ( 2000)

Few Americans understand that despite being considered a “FREE” country, we are quickly losing our liberties. Democracy is the worst form of government, except for all others! I believe this is what the Holy Bible means in Daniel 8:25, “And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand.” [4]Democracy always leads to Socialism, a sure road to Communism! The answer has always been faith in the inspired Word of God.

Spiritual Wickedness In High Places

I firmly believe that this Coronavirus is a manmade False Flag Terrorist Attack on the world. I fully agree with Jon Ryter, who writes:

“Franklin D. Roosevelt, who was himself part of at least two conspiracies that have been uncovered in recent years, has been quoted in the press as saying, ’In politics, nothing happens by accident. If it happens, it was planned to happen.’

It is difficult for the casual observer to comprehend that catastrophic events might actually be planned, and that actions which will adversely affect thousands, if not millions, of people could be deliberately staged and allowed to happen; or that such power actually exists within our society today. Poll 100 people today, and 99 of them will confidently tell you such power does not exist. They are wrong. It does.

There is no doubt whatsoever, nearly 20 years after the brutal 911 attack on the World Trade Center in New York City, that [5]it was an INSIDE JOB! (MP3 audio). It was ’[6]The Deception That Changed The World’ (.PDF book). Please read, ’[7]911: Finally The Truth Comes Out!’ (Dr. Paul Craig Roberts). The culprits have never been brought to justice! I believe those same Luciferian powers behind 911, are behind this Coronavirus pandemic! Just as Jon Christian Ryter says, 99 out of 100 people refuse to believe that such powers exist. They do!

[8]

> "War is just a racket. A racket is best described, I believe, as something that is not what it seems to the majority of people. Only a small inside group knows what it is about. It is conducted for the benefit of the very few at the expense of the masses." –Major General Smedley Butler

1.2.69 A Christian Cannot Be Possessed By A Demon (2020-04-15 03:30)

1st John 4:4-8, "Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world. They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them. We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love."

God is greater in us, than Satan is in the world. Therefore, we never need to fear the Devil or his demons! God is the ONLY one we should fear the Bible says (Matthew 10:28). Fearing demons is superstition!

Remember dear saint of God, Jesus lives inside you as His child, and no demon can ever possess you! A Christian CANNOT be possessed by a devil, because our entire body is the TEMPLE of God's Holy Spirit. 1st Corinthians 3:16-17, " Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are." Contrary to popular thinking, God does not dwell in a religious building called "

a church,

He lives inside the physical body of every born-again believer! WE ARE THE CHURCH!!! I love that truth!!!

So we see that the Holy Spirit lives inside every believer, and a demon cannot cohabit the same body and soul as the Holy Spirit.

The indwelling Holy Ghost is God the Father and God the Son, living inside our body in the form of God the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19-20). In Romans 8:9 the Holy Spirit is referred to as the “Spirit of Christ.” Literally, Jesus lives inside every believer’s body and soul. The day we got saved, our spirit became united with God’s Spirit. That is why the Bible says we are “HID WITH CHRIST IN GOD” (Colossians 3:1-3). I am so happy for that!

Every Believer Is Sealed With The Holy Spirit

The Bible also teaches that every born-again child of God is SEALED with the Holy Spirit Ephesians 1:13-14,

“In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.” It doesn’t get any plainer than that! Every Christian is SEALED with God’s Holy Spirit. The Bible doesn’t say we’re sealed “BY,” but “WITH” the Holy Spirit, because He actually lives inside us. I am so thankful for the gift of the Holy Spirit!!! That is another reason why I am against these corrupt modern Bible revisions, some of which are gender neutral, no longer revering to the Holy Spirit with the masculine pronoun “He.” The Holy Spirit is masculine Bubba! God is the FATHER. Jesus is the SON. The Godhead (Trinity) is all masculine, not feminine in the least!!!

Every Believer Has At Least Two Guardian Angels

Not only that, but the Bible says God has guardian angels who watch over us. Psalms 34:7, "The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them." So we have both the indwelling Holy Spirit, and guardian angels, protecting us against demonic attacks. The Bible teaches that every Christian has at least TWO guardian angels. Matthew 18:10, "Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven." Carefully notice that the Bible refers to "THEIR ANGELS" (plural), so there are at least TWO angels watching over us, just waiting for the Father's next command.

Here is a very precious truth to tuck away in your pocket my friend. Daniel prayed, and immediately a spiritual battle began, which the Bible says took 21 days to resolve...

> Daniel 10:12-13, "
>
> Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.
>
> But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.
> **"

As we always learn in lessons on prayer in the Bible, the most important thing is to JUST PRAY, and let God take it from there! Our responsibility is simply to pray to our heavenly Father. What should we pray about? Philippians 4:6 says to pray about anything that is on our mind! The thing that stands out the most in the preceding account of Daniel, is that Daniel's prayer was heard FROM THE FIRST DAY! That encourages me to pray. As we read earlier, we have at least two guardian angels who continually behold the face of the Father, awaiting His next royal command concerning His saints.

Beware Of Superstition And Demonic Thinking

Demons cannot physically choke a person, as someone said happened to them. Demons are spiritually fallen, disembodied spirits, and have no physical way to do anything, so they need to possess an entity (an animal or a human). A demon can influence a Christian do commit sin, hurt others (evil), or commit suicide. Sinful television is a demonic influence! Alcohol and drugs can open doors to the spirit world. Demons can inspired people through movies, music, dancing, literature, false religion, counterfeit Bible versions, false prophets, acting. TV can stir unholy lusts and passions to commit horrible sins. Fake Bible versions can be used by demons to lead people to think they are saved, when they are not. The eye is the gateway to a man's soul. Demons can inspire Christians to sin or do evil things; but a demon cannot have physical intimacy with a human, as some false prophets teach.

When most people think of demon possession, they think of a madman running around naked, foaming at the mouth, throwing himself into a fire, like the maniac of Gadarene in Mark chapter 5. Demons put those thoughts into his head! However, some demon-possessed men smile for the crowds, like Chancellor Adolf Hitler. Herod was demon-possessed, no doubt, when he ordered the slaughter of thousands of precious babies in Judea, in an attempt to kill the Savior. We read in John 6:70 that Judas was possessed by " a devil.

" Judas was one of Christ's very apostles! So we learn that anyone, even in the highest positions of power, can be possessed by a devil.

Who could argue that Margaret Sanger (the evil founder of Planned Parenthood) had a devil in her! Today, nearly a century later, Planned Herodhood is still taking precious children's lives, murdering the masses through the evils of abortion.

> Ephesians 2:2, " Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:
> **"

So, in a very real sense, EVERY UNSAVED PERSON has a devil in them, because Satan is their spiritual father (John 8:44). Dear friend, you are either a child of God or a child of the Devil. If you are not saved, that doesn't mean you are a bad person, or an evildoer, it just means that you are prone to think like Satan (evolution, humanism, communism, socialism, atheism Gnosticism, immorality, anti-christian views). It is really just a matter of how much control Satan has over a person's mind, and how much power they have to use it! When you take an evil man with demons and make him a dictator, you end up with North Korea today!

If we're not careful, even a Christian can start thinking like the Devil. Matthew 4:10, " Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve." Jesus said that to the apostle Peter! A Christian absolutely cannot be demon-possessed, it just won't happen; however, you can backslide into sin, and get so far away from God, that you start thinking just like the Devil. Jesus called Peter,

Satan

"! These shallow believers today who sanction 39 different Bible versions were inspired by demons! You show me a pastor who denies the inspiration of God's Word, and I'll show you a man who is inspired by demons. Dr. Jack Hyles said that:

> "And brother, any time anybody ever casts any reflection upon the accuracy and the inspiration—verbal inspiration—of this Bible, I'll guarantee you he was inspired by the demons. I'll guarantee you! I don't care if he's got a 'reverend' in front of his name. I don't care if he has a clerical collar on. I don't care what school he's been to. He's of the Devil if he says that the Bible is not verbally inspired by God!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, a great quote from the awesome MP3 sermon titled, "[1]Satan's masterpiece."

I don't claim to be an expert on demon possession, and I don't think anyone can honestly claim they are, except for what the plain Word of God teaches us. I dare say less than 1 % of professed Christians in America would ever think of former U.S. President George W. Bush as having a devil, but [2]he murdered 1,455,590 innocent people in Iraq. I say he had a devil in him!!! They never did find any Weapons of Mass Destruction in Iraq (the whole excuse to go to war in the first place). Our nation stole trillions of dollars worth of Iraqi oil. We broke every one of God's Ten Commandments when we invaded Iraq. It was all so horribly evil. Americans sinned against our neighbours! We didn't do God's will, we did Satan's will! If that's not demon-possession, I don't know what is!!!

1.2.70 The Eight Kings Of Revelation (2020-04-15 09:00)

Revelation 17:10-11, "And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition."

The Bible speaks of eight kings. At the time Revelation 17:10-11 was written, 5 kings had come and gone, 1 was in power, and 2 were yet to come in the future. This is a fascinating teaching in the Word of God, and an important key to understanding Biblical prophecy. The following Old Testament passage of Scripture explains Nebuchadnezzar's image (which he saw in a dream from God) to the right...

Daniel 2:31-35, "Thou, O king, sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible. This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces. Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth."

The kings are world powers throughout history. At present, there have been 6 world powers. These are (in chronological order): Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece and Rome. The 7th king will be world government (aka, the New World Order). The man of sin, the Antichrist, is the 8th and final king and will arise FROM the 7th kingdom. The "stone" cut out of the mountain without hands will be the Second Coming of the precious Lord Jesus Christ in power, preeminence and prophetic fulfillment. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

We see these different world powers mentioned throughout the Scriptures...

1. In the Old Testament, Moses lived during the reign of Egypt as a world power.
2. We read about Isaiah during the time of Assyria as a world power.
3. Babylon ruled the world during the times of Daniel, Jeremiah and Ezekiel.
4. Daniel, Ezra and Nehemiah lived during the times of Medo-Persian power.
5. The reign of Greece occurred during the silent years between the Old and New Testaments, when the Septuagint was written (a Greek translation of the Hebrew Scriptures).
6. And finally, we see Rome as a world power during the time of our Lord Jesus Christ throughout the New Testament. It is very interesting to see these 6 world powers mentioned throughout the Scriptures, beginning with Egypt and ending with Rome.

Those are the 5, Rome is the 1 that was fallen. The New World Order will be the 7th, and the 8th will be the Antichrist. By studying these different corresponding secular world powers, and comparing them with the inspired Word of God, it opens a whole new understanding of the Holy Scriptures! No other book in existence has this unique feature, aligning itself with world history! Think about it! The Bible spans thousands of years of human history. The Bible is composed of 31 % prophecy! Who can argue the divine nature and inspiration of the Word of God!!!

Rome fell in 486 A.D. and there has been no world power since. The United States, China and Russia are super powers today; but there have been no WORLD powers controlling the entire world since the Roman empire. No one country dominates the world today! This is represented by the mixed toes of clay and iron in Nebuchadnezzar's image, that is, freedom co-existing worldwide with Communist tyranny. North Korea is a total monstrous dictatorship in 2013, but thankfully, most other nations are still considered free. I read a couple weeks ago that [1]11,500 Christians have been murdered in Nigeria since 2015. These are the "perilous times" as foretold in 2nd Timothy 3:1-7.

Seventh King Won't Be Revived Roman Empire

Please note that the 7th empire will NOT be the revived Roman empire. The Bible never says that the Roman empire will be restored. Many theologians reasonably thought in centuries past that the oppressive reign of the Roman Catholic religion identified Catholicism as the coming Beast system of the Antichrist. I would have errantly thought the same thing in view of the murderous atrocities committed by the Roman Church for over a millennium of history. However, we are privileged today to have a much clearer understanding of [2]secret societies, Luciferians, and the Illuminati's history and the New World Order in general.

Thousands of secular and religious books have been authored on the subject. Consider this very interesting book authored in 1919 by Samuel Z. Batten, titled '[3]THE NEW WORLD ORDER' (.pdf file). Thus, we understand today in 2020 that "The Great Whore" of Revelation is very likely the Illuminati (the "synagogue of Satan," Revelation 2:9b) who have fornicated with the kings of the earth. Revelation 18:3, "For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies." Revelation 19:2, "For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand." The [4]Catholic Pope in my opinion will be the False Prophet. [5]The Antichrist will be of Jewish origin.

[6]Who Are The Illuminati? What Is The Illuminati? (the mystery of iniquity doth work)

The 7th king will be the New World Order. The 8th king will be the Antichrist (Revelation 17:11). We see this monstrosity forming before our very eyes today. There has been much talk in the mainstream newsmedia about the New World Order. Paul Warburg made this telling prediction back in 1950 before the U.S. Senate:

> "We shall have World Government, whether or not we like it. The only question is whether World Government will be achieved by conquest or consent."

James Paul Warburg, while speaking before the United States Senate; February 17, 1950

Here are the words of Illuminist, David Rockefeller, from 1991 at a Bilderberg meeting:

"We are grateful to the Washington Post, The New York Times, Time Magazine and other great publications whose directors have attended our meetings and respected their promises of discretion for almost forty years."

"It would have been impossible for us to develop our plan for the world if we had been subjected to the lights of publicity during those years. But, the world is now more sophisticated and prepared to march towards a world government. The supra-national sovereignty of an intellectual elite and world bankers is surely preferable to the national auto-determination practiced in past centuries."

David Rockefeller, Bilderberger Meeting, Baden, Germany, June 1991

The New World Order (NWO) is upon us. The NWO is the 7th king. This will be a [7]Global Godless Totalitarian Communist Police State Government—a world conglomerate of power headed by the United Nations and The Council On Foreign Relations.

[8]The Luciferian Conspiracy — World Domination!

[9]ID 2020 Launch Program To Provide Digital ID With Vaccines

The 8th King Will Be A Man Of Sin — The ANTICHRIST!

The 8th king will be a man, the Antichrist, who will be of the 7th world power according to Revelation 17:11, i.e., he will be a part of the New World Order, rising to power from it. Check out the occult imagery in Jimmy Buffet and Toby Keith's latest horrible song, "[10]TOO DRUNK TO KARAOKE." The image of SANTA (SATAN) looking down upon The Great Pyramid teaches us what the [11]All Seeing Eye truly represents. The Antichrist is called the "

Man Of Sin

in 2nd Thessalonians 2:3.

Oh, friend, we are living in the Last Days. I am not setting any dates for the Lord's return, but the New World Order is the Beast System of the Antichrist, and it's forming right before our very eyes. Truly, the Lord's return is imminent!

Are you ready to enter into eternity? Do you have Christ's righteousness, which is solely by faith in Jesus? Salvation happens when a person acknowledges their guilt of sin (Romans 3:19), and comes to God on the basis that they are a hell-deserving sinner; believing on Jesus, the Christ, the Son of God, for forgiveness of sins (Acts 10:43). In response to our faith, God the Father imputes (attributes) the righteousness of His dear Son to our record in Heaven (Romans 4:6). When God views us from that moment forward, He sees the righteousness of Christ instead of our sins. Thus, we are made clean by the precious blood of Jesus Christ, which takes our sins away forever (Revelation 1:5). Praise God!

Jesus said that men would not know the exact day nor hour when He would return (mark 13:33-35), but Jesus didn't say that we wouldn't know the season. The handwriting is all over the wall. We are living in the times of the feet of iron mixed with clay in Nebuchadnezzar's image. Granted, throughout history people have errantly thought that the end was near; such as, in 1844 when Seventh Day Adventism was born out of a failed prophecy for Christ to return. The difference is that I am not setting any dates. I do not know when Christ will return. Yet, only a fool would deny that the world is headed for World Government. This is the 7th kingdom in Revelation 17:10-11. The 8th will be the Antichrist, whom the Bible says will arise from the 7th kingdom. [12]Signs of Satan are everywhere and [13]666 is everywhere. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

The 8 kings of Revelation are a clear indicator of where we are at in Bible prophecy's timeline. So far, 6 kings have fallen, and the 7th is now coming to power, which will give ascendancy to the Antichrist himself. I believe the Holy Bible teaches that the Rapture (i.e., being "caught up" —1st Thessalonians 4:17) will precede the Tribulation Period, which means that the Church must be removed from the world before the Antichrist appears. So I say to you all... the trumpet is out of the case!

> "Thank God, we are not told in Scripture to look for the Antichrist! We are told to look for the Christ of God, Jesus, who shall rise with healing in His wings. The unsaved world looks for the Antichrist, but we don't. We are looking for Jesus. I'm like the fellow who said, "I'm not looking for the undertaker; I'm looking for the Uppertaker." How wonderful it would be to cheat the undertaker! Christian undertakers will go to Heaven, but there won't be any need for their skilled services there because there will be no more death." —Pastor Raymond Barber, "[14]Where Will You Be After The Rapture?"

1.2.71 Men Are Saved By Believing The Truth Of The Gospel (2020-04-15 17:56)

Romans 1:16, " For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. "

I am often asked by web visitors in my ministry, what is the best way to witness to certain groups of people. For example: It might be close family members, or a Roman Catholic, a Mormon or witnessing to an atheist. How do you witness to these different groups? I always give the simple answer–just preach the Gospel! Our text passage from Romans 1:16 gives us the answer. What is the power of God UNTO SALVATION? Why, it is THE GOSPEL!!! Who gets this awesome saving power? It is TO THEM THAT BELIEVE! Dear friend, there is no power in this universe as great as THE GOSPEL! Do you understand that eternal life awaits you, free for the taking, and all you need to do is accept the truth of the Gospel.

I read this beautiful quote from Dr. Bob Jones Sr. this morning, about the Gospel:

> "Men are not saved by analyzing the truth of the Gospel. They are saved by accepting the truth of the Gospel. It is true, whether men believe it or not. It is as true as the multiplication table. Men use the multiplication table to do what the multiplication table is supposed to do. The Gospel will do what it is supposed to do. 'It is the power of God unto salvation unto every one that believeth."' —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," chapter: Preaching, Evangelism, page 123; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942 is the Good News that Jesus Christ died on the cross for our sins, He was buried, and three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead for our justification (that is, that our faith in Him would be justified by a risen Savior). Anyone who receives the Gospel as their own is saved. Please make it your own dear friend! Claim it as your only way to Heaven! I love this helpful quote from Dr. Harry Ironside (1876-1951):

The "

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past."
>
> —Pastor Harry Ironside,

We obey the Gospel by believing it! That's all that God asks of us. It is so simple, free and easy to be saved. Who would be so foolish, as to turn down such a great offer? Yet, most people in their sinful pride do turn it down, to their own damnation. Like Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said–the Gospel is still true, whether men believe it or not! I hope you believe dear friend, because I DO!

1.2.72 We Need A Bible Revival Today! (2020-04-15 22:17)

Acts 5:29-33, " Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him. When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them."

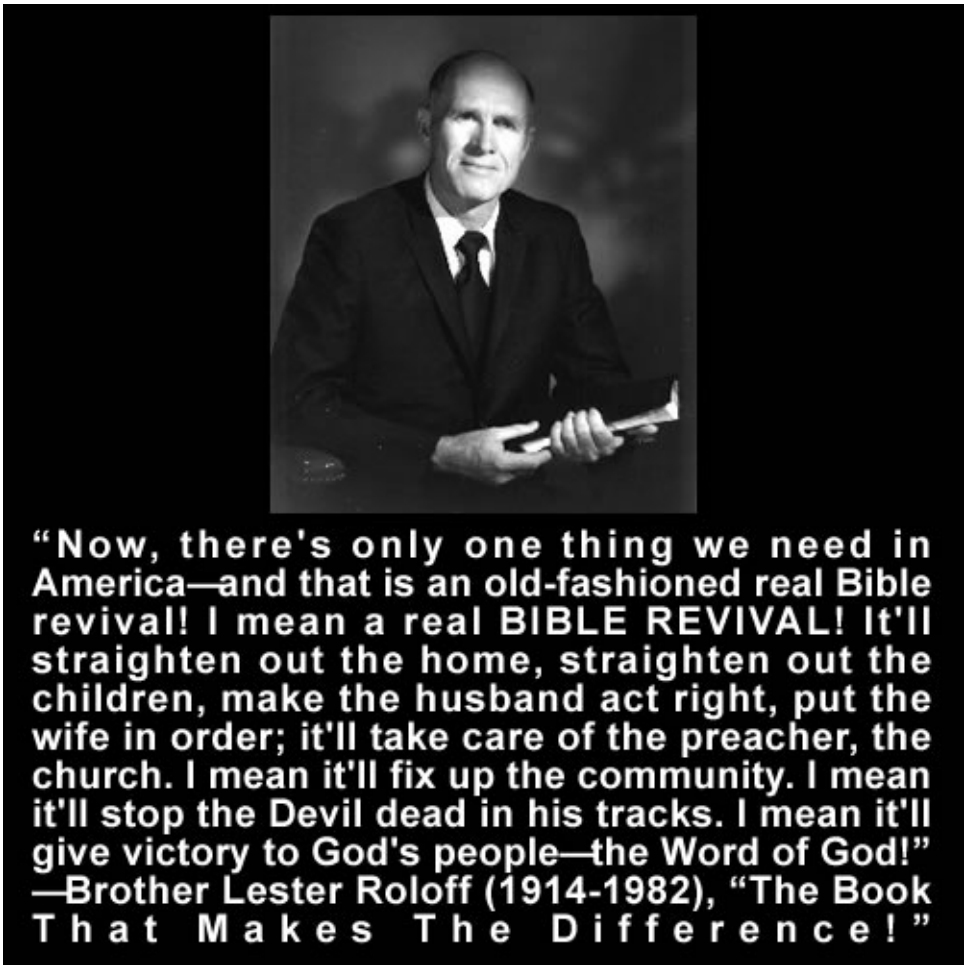
Everywhere that the early Christians preached in the book of Acts, either REVIVAL or RIOT broke out! Oh how we need revival in our churches today! I am listening to a great sermon right now by Brother Lester Roloff called: "[1]The Book That Makes The Difference," in which he says:

> "Now, there's only one thing we need in America—and that is an old-fashioned real Bible revival! I mean a real BIBLE REVIVAL! It'll straighten out the home, straighten out the children, make the husband act right, put the wife in order; it'll take care of the preacher, the church; I mean it'll fix up the community, I mean it'll stop the Devil dead in his tracks; I mean it'll give victory to God's people—the Word of God!"
> —Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982), "[2]The Book That Makes The Difference!"

I hope you will take the time to listen to that life-changing sermon. Brother Roloff talks about the time in America, when he was growing up in the 1920's and 1930's, when there were no juvenile shelters or jail houses for teenagers. There was a time when the parents had charge! There were no jails for youth. They didn't need them! Back then children obeyed their parents! Today there are juvenile prisons in every state, and many youth cannot be controlled by anyone, hardened criminals under the age of 18. They have to be incarcerated in a jail to protect the public from them. Those judges who removed the Bible from America's schools ought to be hung! The public school system never should have been started, which Satanists started to deprive Children of the Word of God. Look at the results!



The Bible says in Daniel 8:25 that the Antichrist " by peace shall destroy many.

" We're seeing this evil already in America. We've let a bunch of kook liberals and atheists take the Holy Bible away from children, in the name of freedom, and the consequence has been to enslave ourselves to a generation of criminals who have no moral compass! The great need of this hour is preaching PREACHERS!!! The average church today is lifeless, because they've lost their authority. That authority is the inspired King James Bible!!! Most churches and Bible colleges today cannot even spiritually discern which Bible God authored, let alone discern the things of God. Since the 1970's, these have been the generations of seeking to rewrite the Holy Bible! The Holy Spirit doesn't need our help! The answer is to get back to using ONLY the King James Bible, and reject all of the Devil's modern revisions!

It is shameful that thousands of churches today, including the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, have embraced the Devil's dozens of Bible PERversions! Oh, how we need to [3]have a real BIBLE REVIVAL in our churches today!!! The Bible colleges (like the apostates at Bob Jones University) are controlling the churches, running them into the ground spiritually with the lifeless graduates they produce, who are pastoring today's dead churches. We need a whole new generation of Bible preachers who haven't come from the apostate Bible colleges!!! We need a real BIBLE REVIVAL and it won't happen in the money-oriented Bible colleges! The churches are America's only hope, if a generation of men will start seeking God instead of a worthless college diploma. The verbally-inspired King James Bible is all we need to have a real BIBLE REVIVAL!!!

1.2.73 Beware Of The Fundamental Modernist (2020-04-16 03:00)

> Revelation 3:2, "Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God."

Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) called him the "Fundamental Modernist" (a phrase used in the MP3 sermon: '[1]The Wisdom Of The Word'). Today we would call him the "Neo-fundamentalist" (i.e., New-fundamentalist). I'm referring to the apostate Bob Jones University crowd! At one time in America, Bob Jones University (BJU) were considered the citadel of Christian fundamentalism in America. Sadly today, nearly a century later, BJU is having too much FUN and not enough DA MENTAL!!! BJU today is no longer a true fundamentalist institution. They have deteriorated! On their college website's Statement of Faith, BJU boasts that they haven't changed since their doors opened in 1927. That is exactly their problem!

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) teaches concerning the neo-evangelical:

> It is not believing right within the movement that makes one a fundamentalist; it is the withdrawal FROM the movement and returning to the original dogma, practices and convictions of the apostate group that gives one the title of fundamentalist. The basic difference is the degree of importance that one places on the doctrine of separation. [emphasis added]
>
> —Dr. Jack Hyles, "New Evangelicalism"

A "fundamentalist" is a faithful Bible-believing Christian who SEPARATES from doctrinal error, worldliness, inspiration-deniers, counterfeit Bible revisions and ecclesiastical compromise; and then returns to the original position! That is where BJU has horribly failed. Instead of separating from error, they have embraced it, promoting the Devil's Alexandrian Bible PERversions! What is a Neo Fundamentalist (or a Fundamental Modernist)? It is a former Fundamentalist who has sinfully moved toward a New Evangelical position! Why do I call it sinful? Revelation 3:15-16, "I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth." God hates lukewarm Christianity! God hates when Christians straddle the fence on the issues, drive in the middle of the road, going along to get along with error.

Bob Jones University Are No Longer Fundamentalists

Since 1927, literally HUNDREDS more English Bible revisions have been published. BJU has sat back idle, A.W.O.L. from what Pastor Hyles rightly called in 1994: '[2]The Battle Of The Ages!' Why don't they care at Bob Jones? Why won't they speak up and expose the Devil's Bible versions? In 2017 the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) published another counterfeit Bible revisions, this time called the Christian Standard Bible (CSB), which is gender neutral to appease this wicked generation of feminists and homosexuals. BJU is eerily silent, letting their brethren (like me) go to war by myself.

I haven't made a penny since I began my online ministry in 2002, Dr. Steve Petite who today leads BJU gets paid an extravagant 6-digit salary! Spiritual crime pays well! The truth doesn't matter to Neo-fundamentalists! As far as I'm concerned, Mr. Pettit has always been a Neo-evangelical, which is why BJU hired him. BJU used to be a fundamentalist institution when Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) was still alive. Dr. Jones believed that the King James Bible is verbally inspired, not just the non-existent originals (which is what BJU foolishly teaches today)...

> "We believe in the inspiration of the Bible." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," chapter: The Bible, page 103; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

Just like First Baptist Church Of Hammond (and consequently Hyles-Anderson College) have LEFT the former correct position of Pastor Jack Hyles—that the King James Bible is inspired; so also has Bob Jones University LEFT the former position of Dr. Bob Jones Sr.—that the King James Bible is inspired.

What's the difference between a Fundamentalist, Neo-evangelical and a Neo-fundamentalist? I made this helpful chart...

My chart is my opinion, so forgive me if I am wrong on something. I think it is pretty accurate. Sadly, the old fundamentalist movement is dying! I'm talking about the Bob Jones crowd! I have seen the apostasy first hand at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I heard Dr. Petite preach at Harvest in 2014, who is buddies with the former shameful pastor of Harvest–both largely neo-evangelicals!!! They love Dr. John MacArthur! They sanction dozens of different Bible revisions! This is NOT fundamentalism!!! Since they were never fundamentalists to begin with, they cannot be neo-fundamentalists!

We are not a "fundamentalist" because of what we believe; but rather, because we withdraw from neo-evangelicals who have embraced corrupt Bible revisions. I am a fundamentalist! I stand uncompromisingly against the Alexandrian Bible-changing crowd! Neo-evangelicals don't care about the truth, and neo-fundamentalists have become indifferent, like Hyles-Anderson College. Dr. Jack Hyles rightly said:

> "I'm tired of colleges and universities advertising that they use the King James Bible. Tell the whole story! Tell everyone that you do not believe that it is inspired word for word." —Dr. Jack Hyles, "The Need For An Every Word Bible," page 54.

> "I would not give, knowingly, one thin dime to a college that does not believe in the verbal inspiration of this Book I hold tonight." —Pastor Jack Hyles, from the timeless sermon, "YOU MUST GO THROUGH ARABIA"; preached October 11, 1981.

I'm tired of hearing Bible colleges say that the KJB is the "best" of the translations. My friend, [5]it is not the best, it is GOD'S WORD!!! The word "best" implies that it could be better. If it could be better, then it is not very pure. The psalmist loved God's Word because it is "VERY PURE." Psalms 119:140, "Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it." I hate the modern Bible versions, because they all say something a little different. Here's the ugly truth! The inspired King James Bible hasn't changed since 1611. There have been numerous editions, updates to fix typos and such, but no new translations. You can trust your KJB!!!

Bob Jones University doesn't realize how much damage they are doing to the cause of Jesus Christ by tolerating, promoting and using the corrupt Alexandrian Bible manuscripts! Spiritually, the Alexandrian manuscripts came from Satan, the father of all lies (John 8:44). When I heard a reprobate pastor (a graduate of Bob Jones College) call Dr. Hyles "a cult," I decided I had better take a closer look at Bob Jones College. To no surprise I found out that Bob Jones University tolerates and sanctions the Alexandrian manuscripts. This is not fundamentalism.

> "The only inspired Words of God are in the King James Bible!" —Dr. Jack Hyles ([6]an awesome quote —Dr. Jack Hyles ('[7]THE REAL BATTLE!')

Evangelist Lester Roloff Exposed The Devil's Bibles

Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) was an amazing man of God, as sincere a Christian as you'd find anywhere. It is a crying shame that Bob Jones University, who used to invite and honor Brother Roloff in chapel services, don't heed his wisdom on the dangers of the [8]corrupt modern Bible revisions. It just goes to prove that BJU's leaders only care about making money, and are indifferent concerning THE TRUTH. They won't get away with it indefinitely, because they must all give account at the Judgment Seat of Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11; Hebrews 4:13;

Matthew 12:39;

1st Thessalonians 4:6; Romans 14:10-12). By sanctioning the corrupt Alexandrian Bible revisions, BJU has blood on their hands, for promoting Devil's Bibles! 2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

Brother Roloff was a true Bible-believing Christian fundamentalist. Like Jack Hyles, Bob Jones, J. Frank Norris, Harry Ironside, Al Lacy and other faithful men, Brother Roloff was a truth-seeker and always moved to the right (truth) when necessary, but never to the left (error). Pastor Jack Hyles admitted in later years that he was deceived as a young preacher by Bible professors, who had influenced him to question God's Word. Therefore, as a true fundamentalist, Dr. Hyles moved more to the right years later, taking a King James Bible only position. I am fully convinced that if Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) had lived unto this day, he would have done exactly as his successor Shelton Smith has done at the Sword of The Lord, taking a King James Bible only position. For that I humbly commend Dr. Shelton! [9]Here are hundreds of MP3 sermons that he preached. And here is a classic called: ' [10]THE LIVING BIBLE EXPOSED! '

Brother Lester Roloff made these tremendous statements:

> "The Word of God is our only hope—that's our only hope! This has been the generation of translations and abominations, and perversions, of the Word of God! It's been a long time; now when the Revised Standard Version came out, I stood against it before I knew what it was, because the wrong crowd heard of that, and the wrong crowd received it, and I knew it got too much publicity to be right! And I knew if the newspapers publicized something, it had to be wrong! And so I knew that the American people and a lot of American preachers—they welcomed it into their house before they knew it was a rattlesnake!" —Brother Lester Roloff, a needful quote from the MP3 sermon titled, "'[11]THE LIVING BIBLE' EXPOSED!"

> "They call it 'The Living Bible.' It's not the living Bible! Jesus said, 'I came that ye might have life.' There's no life in that thing! Anything Jesus is not in, is dead!!!" —Brother Lester Roloff, an excellent quote from the MP3 sermon titled, "'[12]THE LIVING BIBLE' EXPOSED!"

“Can’t you see what the Devil is seeking to do to our people today? Modernists and infidels have taken over the chore of rewriting the Bible, and say—he goes ahead to say that—’We have written a book that everybody can understand.’ Dear friend, that’s the most stupid statement a man could ever make! Nobody has ever understood all of God or all of God’s Word!” —Brother Lester Roloff, a wonderful quote from the MP3 sermon titled, “’THE LIVING BIBLE’ EXPOSED!”

“The worst rattlesnake on this earth, is the man that twists or seeks to modernize, or take from or add to, the Word of God!” —Brother Lester Roloff, a needful quote from the awesome MP3 sermon titled, “’[13]THE LIVING BIBLE’ EXPOSED!”

“Now the serpent (there’s your rattlesnake right there!)… question the Word of God… This has been the same generation questioning the Word of God. I’m sick of hearing about all the mistakes in the King James version! “It’s not dependable” [critics say]. It is! The night I got saved it was dependable! The night God called me to preach it was dependable! For 43 years, I’ve been preaching it and declaring it, and it’s been dependable to rescue the perishing and care for the dying, and sober the drunkard, and to deliver the dope head! I’ve never found anything any better! And so you’re not going to get me to raise a bunch of questions about the Word of God! When I say the ’Word of God,’ I consider the King James Version the Word of God!!!” —Brother Lester Roloff, a needful quote from the awesome MP3 sermon titled, “’ [14]THE LIVING BIBLE’ EXPOSED! ”

“If it’s settled in Heaven, why are we trying to change it down here?” —Brother Lester Roloff, a quote from the awesome MP3 sermon titled, "[16]The Wisdom Of The Word" (Psalms 119:89).

1.2.74 Always Move To The RIGHT, Never To The LEFT (2020-04-16 12:00)

Psalms 16:8, “ I have set the LORD always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.” Ecclesiastes 10:2, “ A wise man’s heart is at his right hand; but a fool’s heart at his left.”

The psalmist said with determination—I SHALL NOT BE MOVED!!! That should be the Christ-like attitude of every Christian believer concerning truth and doing right. At Hyles-Anderson College, Dr. Jack Hyles made us literally remove two words from our dictionary: QUIT and COMPROMISE! Those are two words that hinder Christians from reaching the Promised Land!

Brother Hyles’ dear mother, [1]Mattie Coystal Hyles (1887-1984), taught him as a boy—“’

I CAN!’ makes the man.

Yet, the psalmist, David, didn’t mean to be unwilling to change if we realize that we’ve been wrong. Pastor Jack Hyles preached an awesome sermon titled, what else: ’[2]I SHALL NOT BE MOVED.’

Pastor Jack Hyles Rightly Changed His Position On The Bible

One of the things that I so much love about Brother Hyles, was his willingness to CHANGE if he realized he was wrong. Dr. Hyles did in fact change his views on the Word of God, which he explains in the following quote from the sermon called:

“ [3]There Are Too Many Smiths In The Land .” Pastor Hyles says, quote:

John 12:47-48, "And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day."

John 14:23, "Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him."

Folks, I'm going to go to seed [to become worn] before I die on defending this Book—I'm going to go to seed on it! I'm a little tired—by the way, every preacher in America, before he met a theologian, believed exactly what I'm preaching tonight! Theologians messed us all up—they messed me up for a while, I'll be honest with you—messed us all up! When I went off to college, I thought I had the words of God in this Book right here. When I was in college for awhile I found out I didn't. Not only that, I found out nobody did! Not only that, I found out you couldn't have them! Not only that, I found out there was no such thing as any book in all the world that had the words of God in 'em!

But my Bible said that we're supposed to keep His "WORDS"; not His truths, not just His doctrine, but His "WORDS"! ...

Mark 8:38,“Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.”

Folks, here’s what’s happening in America. The old-time preachers that built this country believed that this Book right here had the words of God in it! Your grandpa and grandma, that built this country, shed their tears on this Book, thinking they had the very words of God in their hands. And fundamentalists ALL believed what I’m preaching tonight, until we got our own Bible colleges, and seminaries, and sent our professors off to train at the feet of Karl Barth, and Reinhold Neuber, Emil Brunner, and others, who said that the Bible does not have the “words” of God, it is the Word of God, and that all the Bible is not inspired word-for-word. So we did not want to be considered “unintellectual” by the intellectual community; we’re not willing to be called “nuts” and “fools”—just chalk me up as a nut! Chalk me up as a fool! Yea! Chalk me up as an uneducated illiterate if you want to, but I guarantee Ya—I’d rather study my A-B-C’s in Heaven, then Greek and Hebrew in Hell!

Whosoever shall be ashamed of “ME AND MY WORDS”; it didn’t say His “WORD,” it says His “WORDS”!

Pastor Jack Hyles, a beautiful quote from the sermon, “

[4]There Are Too Many Smiths In The Land

.”

Amen! Dr. Hyles admits that he had been messed up by college professors. But in time, as a truth-seeker always does, he learned THE TRUTH and acted upon it!

Hyles-Anderson College Wrongly Changed Their Position On The Bible

I thank God, I thank God, I thank God—that I had the blessed privilege of attending Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993), back when Dr. Hyles was still at the helm and they believed the King James Bible is the verbally-inspired Word of God! Sadly, since 2008, First Baptist Church Of Hammond (and consequently HAC which they own and control) [5]have sinfully DENIED the inspiration of the King James Bible .

> Psalms 119:137-142, "Righteous art thou, O LORD, and upright are thy judgments. Thy testimonies that thou hast commanded are righteous and very faithful. My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words. Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it. I am small and despised: yet do not I forget thy precepts. Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the truth."

The greatest evil in the churches today is indifference, complacency and a woeful lack of urgency upon important matters; such as, the inspiration and purity of the Holy Bible and the accuracy of the Gospel. Dr. Hyles was awake to righteousness, a wise man, and saw (as I do too) how Satan is infiltrating the churches with corruptible seed...

> "I'm tired of colleges and universities advertising that they use the King James Bible. Tell the whole story! Tell everyone that you do not believe that it is inspired word for word." —Dr. Jack Hyles, "The Need For An Every Word Bible," page 54.

Dr. Hyles made the alarming statement, that I just gave you, because of institutions like Bob Jones University, Pensacola Christian College, The Crown College (Dr. Clarence Sexton), Hyles-Anderson College and hundreds more—who deceitfully claim to use the King James Bible—but do not believe it is verbally inspired!!! They only believe that the original autographs were inspired, which no longer exist on earth! How can a so-called “

Bible college,

of all places, deny the inspiration of the King James Bible? I feel like I’m in an episode of The Twilight Zone, X-Files, or The Outer Limits!

Dr. Hyles further states:

> “I would not give, knowingly, one thin dime to a college that does not believe in the verbal inspiration of this Book I hold tonight.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, from the timeless sermon, “[6]YOU MUST GO THROUGH ARABIA”; preached October 11, 1981.

Amen and amen!

The Betrayal Of The Inspired King James Bible

If you’re a Christian and you’re not upset over the modern Bible PERversions, you’re not right with God...

> “The biggest split that has ever come will come in the next ten years, if not sooner, over the King James Bible - and it couldn’t come soon enough for me. I’m tired > of colleges and universities advertising that they 'use' the King James Bible - tell the whole story! Tell everyone that you do not believe that it is inspired word for word." —Pastor Jack Hyles, from the Wednesday night Bible study titled, "Revelation to Illumination" (1998).

I wouldn't recommend for anyone to enroll at Hyles-Anderson College today, not until they go back to their first love, not until they go back to proclaiming the inspiration of the King James Bible. FBCH has [7]betrayed Brother Hyles and Dr. Anderson...

> "Don't come to me with your stinkin' 'only the original is inspired'! You're not intellectual... you're retarded!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, '[8]Keep your Stinkin' Feet Out of My Drinking Water' (1998 Wednesday night Bible study).

I certainly wouldn't recommend Bob Jones University to anyone, not even your dog! I highly recommend reading this compelling series of articles exposing BJU, authored by Dr. Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016) titled: ' [9]THE ALEXANDRIAN CULT SERIES! ' Dr. Ruckman explains how God's Word is our ONE AUTHORITY. So Satan introduced a SECOND AUTHORITY (a new Greek Bible in 1881 by Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort). The Devil is a beautiful liar! Now, having TWO AUTHORITIES competing with each other, a THIRD AUTHORITY was required (which is manmade scholarship , making men the final authority instead of God). I hope you will take the time to read Dr. Ruckman's book. Also please see, ' [10]BJU: CULT HEADQUARTERS! '

Over 97 % of churches today are mere religious businesses, 501c3 state-licensed organizations, entertainment fun centers, social clubs, spiritual museums; but they are not Bible-believing, soul-winning, people-loving, sin-fighting, Christ-honoring, truth-telling, New Testament local churches! The churches have lost their authority! Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) preached a needful sermon called: '[11]RUNNING SHORT ON AUTHORITY.' There is nothing as wicked as bidding Godspeed to more than one Bible! Of the hundreds of English Bible versions available today, they all original from only TWO ANCIENT SOURCES ([12]this eye-opening Bible origin chart speaks 1,000 words).

I am willing to move to the RIGHT (truth), but by God's grace I will never move to the LEFT (error). Bob Jones University on their website brags that they've not changed since 1927 when their doors opened, but what they are really saying is that they have refused to move to the RIGHT (toward truth). As more and more Devil's Bible are being published, it has become clearer than ever before that the Alexandrian Bible revisions are ALL CORRUPT! Even the so-called '[13]New King James Version' (NKJV), which is allegedly translated from the same Textus Receptus as the King James Bible, [14]contains many of the Alexandrian errors in it! You can trust your inspired King James Bible, and NONE OTHERS!!!

1.2.75 God's Last Name Is Not "Damn" (2020-04-16 18:30)

Deuteronomy 5:11, " Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain." Ecclesiastes 5:2, " Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few."

Be careful dear friend how you talk to your Creator! One of the most horrible sins in to use God's name in an irreverent way. One of the "PROOFS" of God's existence is man's inherent tendency to carelessly utter the name of God at the greatest moments of pain, pleasure, happiness and anger (e.g., "

Oh God!

or

“My God!”). You are dishonest if you deny this truth. Even professed atheists, who deny God’s very existence, feel the compulsion to utter His name in their utmost times of pain, pleasure, joy and anger. There must be a reason for this natural phenomena! Pastor Jack Hyles preached a helpful sermon titled: “

[1]Your Need Is His Proof.

The Holy Scriptures teach that it is a sin—breaking the THIRD COMMANDMENTS of the Lord’s holy TEN COMMANDMENTS—to utter God’s name in a meaningless and empty way. People often refer to preachers as “REVEREND,” but only God is truly reverend. The word “reverence” is mentioned only once in the Holy Bible, and is used to describe the Lord Himself. Psalms 89:7, “ God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.” The heathen world does not reverence nor fear God. Instead, they blaspheme and curse God’s name, desecrating the precious name of His only begotten Son, Jesus! John 5:23, “ That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.” The way we honor God the Father, is by honoring God the Son!

God’s last name is not “

DAMN!

” Hollywood is guilty, guilty, guilty!!! Dear reader, if the truth were known, you’d be shocked! The average Hollywood movie takes God’s name in vain a dozen times! If we were to add up all the instances where God’s name, and the name of His dear Son, are blasphemed and cursed in Hollywood, I guarantee you that it would amount to MILLIONS OF TIMES!!! Taking the Lord’s name is the insignia of Hollywood, as well as breaking all of God’s Commandments! Violence, adultery, murder, bearing false witness, covetousness, stealing and idolatry permeate Hollywood movies today. There is a spirit of Satanism at work in the entertainment industry today—promoting gore, blood, immorality, and all manner of wickedness! The reason why [2]Luciferians are promoting all this is to destroy society. It is all intended to demoralize the individual, destroy the traditional family, and to desensitize the sinner, so that sin is no longer exceedingly sinful (Romans 7:13).

It is a very horrible sin to take the Lord's name in vain. The word "

means to treat something common, as you would a spare tire. Hebrews 10:29,

"Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? " Anyone who disregards SACRED THINGS, treating them as being frivolous, trifle or common is to sin against God.

Get Into The Habit Of Praising And Thanking The Lord Verbally

Cursing in the Lord's name is a sinful HABIT, like most anything else. That is why Hollywood scripts deliberately pay actors to repeatedly curse in the Savior's name, thousands upon thousands of times over the course of a year in film making—they want YOU, the viewer, to adopt that horrible sinful HABIT. Albeit, just as a bad habit of cursing can be developed, so also can a good habit of praising the Lord from a thankful heart be developed. It really comes down to our thought life. We are what we think, which is greatly influenced by what we choose to see and hear on a daily basis.

Do you know it is impossible to curse God at the same time you are thanking and praising Him? Psalms 135:3, "Praise the LORD; for the LORD is good: sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant." I love this Bible passage from Psalms 107:1-2, " O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;" God is so good; let the redeemed of the Lord SAY SO!

The following helpful principles are from a Wednesday evening church Bible study, by one of my favorite preachers, Pastor Jeff Owens. The sermon is titled: '[3]Growing In Your Ability To Handle Depression,' but the principles are the same for developing good character; it all starts with having a Christlike attitude in our thinking:

- “You are what you think. Control your thinking!”
- “You’ll do better in life if you keep your sin confessed.”
- “Most people must work their way out of depression! Stay busy!”
- “Remember, God’s good all the time!”
- “Want to have joy; want to be happy! Give it to God!”

I guarantee you that if you sit in front of the TV and watch movie after movie of ungodly people taking the Lord’s name in vain, you will develop the same sinful bad habits. We are all creatures of habit. Do you think Satan doesn’t know this? Each time a person watches people commit adultery on TV, or sees someone murder another human being, or someone takes the Lord’s holy name in vain—on an undetectable subconscious level the viewer’s brain has been slightly desensitized to the awfulness and shock of sin. That’s the whole purpose for so much wickedness promoted through television and the Big Screen nowadays—to corrupt YOU!

“Television—the monster of Hell!”

—Brother Lester Roloff, “ [4]The Wisdom Of The Word ”

Marriage and the bed are sacred (Hebrews 13:4). The human body and modesty are sacred (1st Corinthians 3:16-17). The Holy Bible is sacred (John 17:17). The precious blood of Jesus is sacred (1st Peter 1:18-19). Life in a mother’s womb is sacred (Jeremiah 1:5). Abortion is first-degree murder! God’s name is sacred!!! We ought to always show reverence for God, the name of God, His dear Son, and the sacred things of God. We are living in a wicked generation that does not look up! Please listen to the awesome sermon by Pastor Danny Castle called: ’ [5]The Generation That Doesn’t Look Up! ’

God will not bless a people who sinfully curse in His name, and who lack fear and reverence for the Lord. Man's whole duty is to obey God. Obeying God is what life is all about! Ecclesiastes 12:13-14, "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil."

1.2.76 The Satanic Modern Bible Versions (2020-04-16 23:00)

Deuteronomy 8:2-3, " And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no. And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live."

One of the most evil of the modern Alexandrian Bible PERversions is the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV). Carefully notice that they completely removed the phrase "EVERY WORD" from the passage...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB)—Matthew 4:3-4, "But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

> EASY TO READ VERSION (ERV)—Matthew 4:4, "Jesus answered him, "The Scriptures say, It is not just bread that keeps people alive. Their lives depend on what God says.'

Folks, do we or do we not need, "EVERY WORD," of God to live by??? We do!!! The Easy To Read version is impossible to comprehend. I know shameful Bob Jones University graduates who use and sell this horrible PERversion of the Bible. They are pulling on the same rope as the Devil, hurting the people who use it. James 3:1, "My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation." Pastors are going to be held more accountable by God, and therefore receive the greater condemnation, because people trust them and they have greater influence over others.

Do you think God will merely let it go on Judgment Day, no big deal, that church pastors today don't care about the purity of His Word? Do you think our great God, Who magnifies His Word above His own name (Psalms 138:2), is okay with having multiple conflicting versions of the Bible? You're a fool if you believe that. God hates every false way and so should we! God wrote ONE BOOK, not 200 versions!!! What is wrong with religious leaders in our churches today? Why don't they care? The Bible tells us in 1st Timothy 6:10... FOR THE LOVE OF MONEY IS THE ROOT OF ALL EVIL.

Satan has always hated the Word of God. From the very beginning in the Garden of Eden Satan tried to cast doubt upon the inspired Word of God. The serpent said to Eve in Genesis 3:1a, "YEA, HATH GOD SAID?" The plethora of modern Bible versions has generated massive confusion in the churches...

> "Be on guard against any tampering with the Word, whether disguised as a search for truth, or a scholarly attempt at apparently hidden meanings; and beware of the confusion created by the senseless rash of new versions, translations, editions, and improvements upon the tried and tested Bible of our fathers and grandfathers." —[1]Dr. M.R. DeHaan, from the excellent book, THE TABERNACLE, Pg. 101.

Pastor DeHaan went to Heaven in 1965. That means he made the preceding quote before 1965. Evil people were already messing with the Holy Bible back then. In fact, it all started in 1881 when Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort produced their Alexandrian Greek text, upon which all the modern corrupt Bible PERversions are based, including the ungodly Easy-To-Read Version (ERV). The average independent Baptist pastor today is a neo-evangelical disgrace, using multiple Bible versions and searching through a dozen different versions to prepare his sermons. Such a disgraceful man ought not be entrusted to stand behind any church pulpit!!! I'm talking about Bob Jones University and Moody Bible Institute alumni! Don't ever enroll in any Bible college that uses and sanctions the Alexandrian Bible versions.

1.2.77 Mules Cannot Reproduce (2020-04-17 08:30)

Genesis 1:24-25, “And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

Science is fascinating because God is more than amazing. Did you know that horses and donkeys can reproduce, but the hinnies and mules that they produce cannot? ...

> Why can’t mules breed? I understand that a horse and a donkey make a mule but why can’t 2 mules have a baby mule?

> A male horse and a female donkey have a hinny. A female horse and a male donkey have a mule.
>
> But hinnies and mules can’t have babies of their own. They are sterile because they can’t make sperm or eggs.
>
> They have trouble making sperm or eggs because their chromosomes don’t match up well. And, to a lesser extent, because of their chromosome number.

> SOURCE: [1]https://genetics.thetech.org/ask/ask225

Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) says:

Horses and donkeys may cross. They are much of the same kind. Horses and donkeys cross and produce mules, but the mules are almost always sterile. In such a case where there is a cross between animals that are very close together, they are usually sterile and cannot reproduce, and if they do, they breed back to the one or the other. And so if you had mules and if they could reproduce they would have to breed the mule back and develop horses or donkeys, because you cannot have a separate self-sustaining group of mules. They do not reproduce.

All right, God has a rule that there can be no crossing of the family [or kind] lines. “Kind” is the word used in the King James Version of the Bible, They are to reproduce “after their kind,” “after his kind.” That is true about insects; that is true about animal and plants. Here is the divine law. —Dr. John R. Rice, “

Evolution Or The Bible,

Evolution is a BIG LIE, just like the BIG BANG is a Devil’s lie. Figures don’t like, but liars sure can figure!

Nearly any textbook on science over ten years old is out of date. Evolutionists have been beaten back from one phase of the theory after another until no evolutionist now claims to be a Darwinian evolutionist. Mendel’s law and an accumulation of facts, the exploding of absurd claims are continually forcing retreat by the evolutionary philosophers.

The Christian can safely trust the Bible whenever it speaks on history, science and practical daily matters as well as spiritual truth.

> ...Everyone who sets out to delight in the Word of God, to read it, to love it, to meditate in it, to learn from it will find it proves itself to be the very Word of God and thus can boldly oppose any infidel theories that mock at the Bible and a living Creator to whom men must give an account.

This proves that the inspired Word of God is true and accurate, as always! Every type of species reproduce after their own kind. Evolution is a malicious lie of the Devil. Few people realize that there is a [2]Communist agenda behind the fabricated lies of evolution. Evolution is all about government taking control over people’s lives, so that the god of this world (Satan) can enslave them! Satan wants to blind men from the goodness of God, to keep them from obtaining Eternal Life! We have a wonderful, righteous and loving Creator!!!

1.2.78 Bible Inspiration Is A Big Deal! (2020-04-17 18:45)

Psalms 138:2,

“ I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.”

I wouldn't give you a dime today for East Texas Baptist College (where Dr. Hyles long ago attended), Bob Jones University, Hyles-Anderson College, Pensacola Christian College, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Liberty University, The Crown College, Ambassador Bible College, Moody Bible Institute, Dallas Theological Seminary and hundreds of other apostate religious institutions today that deny the inspiration of the King James Bible. IT IS A BIG DEAL! IT IS A BIG DEAL! IT IS A BIG DEAL! IT IS A BIG DEAL! IT IS A BIG DEAL!

I know some Christians are mad at me for calling names and criticizing churches, but somebody needs to do the dirty work of an evangelist. A pastor comforts the afflicted, but an evangelist afflicts the comforted. I am just a humble sinner saved by God's grace. I am no better than anybody else. God knows that I am not trying to make enemies, but the truth always makes enemies, because the Devil is always trying to deceive everyone. Someone needs to draw attention to the issue of Bible inspiration. There is not a more important matter in the world today! Our text Bible verse from Psalms 138:2 says God magnifies His Word above His name. The reason why is obvious —because just as a man's name is only as good as his word, so also is God's character only as valid as His Word!

I met a despicable Pensacola Christian College (PCC) graduate (one of their interns), who accused me of being "obsessed" with the Bible debate. The truth is that he couldn't care less about the debate over Bible inspiration. He wants me to mention it once and then forget about it, like he shamefully does, along with PCC (which I DO NOT recommend to anyone or their dog). If you see a home on fire in the wee hours of the morning and yell "fire," but the people are still asleep in the house, you're going to continue yelling "fire" until they are safe outside the home. Likewise, a Bible-preacher is supposed to keep yelling "fire" until the people are safe! Since Bob Jones University doesn't care about Bible inspiration, nor hundreds of others apostate institutions, by God's grace I plan to KEEP PREACHING!!!

A preacher is supposed to yell "fire" concerning the truth! A Bible-preacher is supposed to be offensive! Everywhere that the early Christians preached in the Bible book of Acts, either revival or riot broke out! It seems that most people just want to attend some religious organization nowadays, which is nothing more than a glorified social club instead of a New Testament church. They don't want THE TRUTH, lest someone get offended by it and withdraw financial support. Pastor Jack Hyles was correct that businessmen and high-society type women are destroying the churches. I'm not for sale! I preach the truth!

Many Christians couldn't care less about the inspiration of the King James Bible, but it is A BIG DEAL! It was a big deal to Pastor Jack Hyles. It is a big deal to Dr. Russell Anderson. It is a big deal to Dr. Bob Gray Sr. It is a big deal to Pastor David Baker. It was a big deal to Dr. Peter Ruckman. It was a big deal to Dr. James Sightler. It is a big deal to me, humbly. It should be a big deal to you too dear reader. It is a big deal to the Lord, who Himself said in Matthew 5:18, "For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled." Thank God for the inspired King James Bible!

> "Everything born is born dying... Death is inevitable... The length of your life depends on how much you fight the inevitable death... The day will come when Hyles-Anderson College will be liberal. The day will come when this Bible is not believed in Hyles-Anderson College, if the Lord tarries... The day will come when this church will turn." —Pastor Jack Hyles, from the timeless sermon, "[1]The Church First"

I don't like making enemies, but I do love the truth. 2nd Thessalonians 2:9-10, "Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved." I love that important phrase—"THE LOVE OF THE TRUTH!" The "Knowledge Of The Truth" Is 'The Gospel.' Those who are OF THE TRUTH will get saved. Becoming a born-again Christian is a matter of receiving THE TRUTH of the Gospel.

God knows that I love everybody. The apostle Paul was a truth-teller too, which made him unpopular. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?" 2nd Corinthians 12:15, "And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved."

Dear reader, there is an agenda behind denying Bible inspiration, which is—to correct the Holy Bible. Please read: '[2]CORRECTING THE KING JAMES BIBLE???' The true agenda behind evolution is communism! The true agenda behind the LGBTQ movement is the government taking control over citizen's lives! Don't be a fool. Satan knows that if he can get people to question the Word of God, and confuse them, then the Word becomes ineffective. The preacher or teacher who corrects the authorized King James Bible, causes the sincere Christian to wonder if he or she is reading the truth or not. This kills their zeal for the Word of God! Consequently, superficial spirituality is becoming more popular, but interest in the inspired Holy Bible much less so. Inspiration is a big deal! An inspired Bible means it is word for word exactly what God intended for us to read and live by.

1.2.79 Correcting The King James Bible? (2020-04-17 23:30)

Matthew 5:18, “

For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

I have a helpful booklet from the Sword Of The Lord in front of me called: “

CORRECTING The King James Bible???

” by Pastor W. Bruce Musselman Jr.. The following information is taken from his booklet, pages 1-6. ...

> A young Christian believer while talking to a Baptist preacher expressed his doubts as to whether a certain verse should be in the Bible. This question in the young believer’s mind is not an isolated occurrence since the authorized King James Bible is being attacked daily by Roman Catholics, Jehovah Witnesses, Mormons, Modernists, Evangelicals and Fundamentalists.

> In fact, it is almost a daily occurrence in most Evangelical and Fundamental schools in America.

The average Christian is given a King James Bible and told it is the Word of God. From then on he hears a steady stream of criticism of it through the radio, Christian books, magazines, in church and in Christian schools.

Anyone professing to have an ounce of education and who claims to be Godly and dedicated now assumes the right to correct the Bible any time it doesn't measure up to his beliefs and standards.

The King James Bible is corrected by saying 'the Original says' when no one has the Original. It is also corrected by saying 'the Greek says' when there are a dozen conflicting Greek texts on the market. Others say 'this is an unfortunate translation' or 'a better reading' is' when they don't know enough about Greek or manuscript evidence to know what they are talking about.

Before a Christian starts to think or talk like a Jehovah Witness on visitation he ought to consider the following facts.

I. CORRECTING THE AUTHORIZED BIBLE TEACHES INFIDELITY

The preacher or teacher who professes to believe the Bible and then corrects it has just taught his students that the Bible has errors in it and cannot be trusted. If it cannot be trusted in one or two places, where can it be trusted? Where does the Christian go to find truth since no one has the originals and there are a dozen Greek texts on the market? A preacher or teacher should build faith in God's Word, not destroy it.

II. CORRECTING THE AUTHORIZED KING JAMES BIBLE CAUSES CONFUSION IN THE MINDS OF BELIEVERS

The preacher or teacher who corrects the authorized Bible causes the sincere Christian to wonder when he reads the Bible if he is reading the truth or not.

The Christian may wonder what the truth really is and where he can find it. This will dampen his zeal of Bible study.

III. CORRECTING THE AUTHORIZED KING JAMES BIBLE REINSTATES THE ROMAN CATHOLIC BIBLE

Correctors of the King James Bible usually do this on the basis of the Greek texts of Westcott and Hort, Aland and Metzger or Nestles, which are taken from manuscripts officially approved by the Roman Catholic Church.

These Roman Catholic Greek texts come from revisions of the Koine (common Greek texts) into the classical Greek texts by the apostate Alexandrian school in the 3rd and 4th century. The apostate revisors of the Bible who mixed it with heathen philosophy were Hyschius Origen, Pamphilius and Eusebius.

When Pope Damasus, the first Pope to take the heathen title Supreme Pontiff, was installed in 380 he commissioned Jerome to revise the Old Latin with these corrupt Alexandrian Egyptian texts.

The revision by Jerome is called the Latin Vulgate and has been the official Roman Catholic Bible ever since Catholic translations are taken from this corrupt Bible in 1475 a corrupt classical Greek Alexandrian manuscript was found in the Popes' library. It was called CODEX (book) B VATICANUS.

In 1587 the Pope put out the Sixtine Edition which used the VATICANUS as its source in order to defeat the Bibles the Protestants and Baptists used which came from the Koine (common) Greek used by the Apostles. In the 19th century a Catholic movement in the Anglican Church resulted in an English Greek put out by two English Anglican Catholics who believed in Mary Worship, named Westcott and Hort. Their text was based primarily on the corrupt VATICANUS manuscript which has readings found in no other manuscript in the world.

The VATICANUS leaves out most of Genesis and all of the New Testament after Hebrews 9:14. It also has hundreds of changes affecting vital doctrines of the Christian Faith.

These doctrinal changes can be seen in modern versions such as the ASV, NASV, New World, R.S.V. and N.I.V. Some of the changes made in modern versions are found in Colossians 1:14 omitting the blood of Christ, Luke 2:33 attacking the Virgin birth, I Timothy 3:16 attacking the deity of Christ, John 1:18 attacking the belief in one God and I Peter 2:2 attacking salvation by Grace.

IV. ATTACKING THE AUTHORIZED KING JAMES BIBLE REPUDIATES THE PROTESTANT REFORMATION

Many of the Protestant leaders were great scholars and consciously rejected the corrupt Alexandrian texts for the Koine (common) Greek text. All the preachers of the Protestants and Baptists such as Luther, Zwingle, Calvin, Bunyon, Wesley, Spurgeon, Norris, Riley, Sunday, Vick, Bob Jones, Sr., used the Bible originating from the received Greek text which the KJV is based upon.

V. THE CORRECTORS OF THE AUTHORIZED KING JAMES BIBLE CAUSE DIVISION AMONG BELIEVERS

If a preacher preached the Deity of Christ one Sunday and denied it the next it would cause division among the people. Bible believing Christians will not tolerate people who correct the Bible or promote Catholic versions, which attack basic doctrines of the Scripture. People who put scholarship above the Bible will not tolerate Bible believers. The use of two different Bibles will divide Fundamentalists like nothing else will.

VI. CORRECTORS OF THE KING JAMES BIBLE TAKE THE SAME POSITION AS THE ROMAN CATHOLIC PRIEST

The Catholic Priest sets himself up as an authority over the Bible and encourages the people to listen to him rather than the Book. The teacher or preacher who corrects the Bible sets himself up as the authority for people to listen to rather than the Bible just like a priest. No wonder Bible reading is done by so few.

VII. CORRECTORS OF THE AUTHORIZED BIBLE DEMONSTRATE THEY ARE APOSTATE

Apostasy is professing to believe something which they no longer believe. The Apostate pro- fesses to believe The Bible is (present tense) the Word of God without error, while in reality he believes the Bible was the Word of God in the Originals.

Today all the Apostate has is the words of the translators with errors in them. The Apostate, while professing he has the word of God, does not believe he has the genuine Words of God and severely criticizes anybody who does.

VIII. CORRECTORS OF THE AUTHORIZED KING JAMES BIBLE REJECT THE WISDOM OF GOD

The Protestant reformation, all the great revivals and all the men God has chosen to use greatly since 1516 preached the Bible which comes from the Textus Receptus. There are not enough conversions to keep the modern versions on the market after the advertising stops. The correctors of the God authorized Bible, in effect, say the Holy Spirit does not know what He is doing when He chooses to bless this book.

IX. CORRECTORS OF THE KING JAMES BIBLE REJECT THE VERBAL INSPIRATION OF SCRIPTURE

If the authorized Bible is scripture it is inspired of God. "All scripture is given by inspiration of God." (II Timothy 3:16) The doctrine that only the originals are inspired is heresy taught no where in the New Testament or in creeds of confessions of any denomination before the 20th century. Timothy had the scripture and he certainly didn't have the originals (II Timothy 3:15). "All scripture is given by inspiration of God." (II Timothy 3:16)

Verbal inspiration is one of the key doctrines of the Bible and is mentioned hundreds of times in the scripture. Jesus and the Apostles always appealed to scriptures they had in their hands, not to something they did not have. Christ never corrected the Bible.

X. CORRECTORS OF THE AUTHORIZED BIBLE ARE NEO-ORTHODOX IN PRACTICE

Neo-orthodox teachers like Barth and Brunner teach that the Word of God means the message of God rather than the Words of God.

Many teachers who correct the authorized Bible believe that we do not have the literal Words of God in the English, but simply a message from God and that they have a right to correct the Words God has given us.

In John 14:23 Jesus said, "If a man love me, he will keep my WORDS; and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him and make our abode with him." How can a Christian keep God’s Words if he doesn’t have them?

XI. CORRECTORS OF THE KING JAMES BIBLE GENERALLY RECOMMEND DOCTRINALLY CORRUPT VERSIONS SUCH AS THE ASV 1901, NIV AND NASV TAKEN FROM PHOTOGRAPHS THE POPE GAVE THE WORLD IN 1889 OF HIS VATICAN BIBLE

The A.S.V. Of 1901 has a footnote in John, chapter 9, put there by its translators that the worship given to Jesus by the blind man is the worship given to the creature and not to the Creator.

The N.A.S.V. Is practically identical in teaching to the New Word Bible of the Jehovah Witnesses, and teaches that Jesus was a begotten God, John 1:18. This was the official teaching of the Arian heresy.

The A.S.V., R.S.V., N.A.S.V., N.I.V., based on texts recommended by Westcott and Hort generally leave out the name of Jesus over fifty times. It would take a book to list all of the doctrinal and blasphemous attacks on the person and work of Christ in these counterfeits.

XII. CORRECTORS OF THE AUTHORIZED BIBLE HAVE NO FINAL AUTHORITY

They appeal to the original no one has or can have. They believe, like Einstein's theory of relativity, that everything is relative and that there is no absolute truth on this earth which a man can get his hands on.

XIII. CORRECTORS OF THE AUTHORIZED BIBLE ARE MODERNISTIC IN THEIR APPROACH TO BIBLICAL AUTHORITY

The modernist believes that he himself is the final authority in faith and morals rather than God. To correct the Bible or recommend conflicting bibles puts the professor, school teacher, writer, preacher, or individual as the final authority on what the text says.

Satan introduced a conflicting authority to Eve so she would exalt herself as the final authority. God is the only final authority and when man usurps his place he is following a blasphemous and satanic system. The Bible is to sit in judgment on man and not man on the Bible. God never intended for each man to produce his own bible. That is why He gave us a Bible.

XIV. CORRECTORS OF THE AUTHORIZED BIBLE PUT CHRISTIAN SCHOLARSHIP ABOVE THE GOD AUTHORIZED BIBLE

Many colleges and Bible schools loudly profess to stand for the absolute authority of the scriptures. They say the Bible is the infallible inerrant Word of God. If they were asked to produce any Bible in the World which is the final authority they could not do it to save their life. While professing to believe the Bible many schools including Evangelical and Fundamental, have accepted Christian education as the final authority and believe it has the right to sit in judgment on any Bible; Hebrew, Greek or English.

XV. CORRECTORS OF THE AUTHORIZED BIBLE DENY IN REALITY THAT GOD HAS PRESERVED HIS WORDS FOR ALL TIME

The following verses teach that God would preserve His Words:

"Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever." (I Peter 1:23)

"But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you."(I Peter 1:25)

"The words of the Lord are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O Lord, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever." (Psalm 12:6-7)

"Thy word is true from the beginning: and every one of thy righteous judgments endureth for ever." (Psalm 119:160)

"Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away." (Matthew 24:35)

"For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled." (Matthew 5:16)

"As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the Lord: My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the Lord, from henceforth and for ever." (Isaiah 59:21)

XVI. CORRECTORS OF THE AUTHORIZED KING JAMES BIBLE DENY GOD HAS GIVEN HIS PEOPLE HIS WORDS IN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE EXACTLY AS HE WANTED THEM GIVEN

The Lord Jesus Christ teaches otherwise: "Verity, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life." (John 5:24)

"So then faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the word of God." (Romans 10:17)

"I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they kept thy word. Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou has given me are of thee. For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me." (John 17:6-8) —Pastor W. Bruce Musselman Jr., “CORRECTING The King James Bible???,” pp. 1-6

1.2.80 How Permanent Is Your Salvation? (2020-04-18 04:00)

John 3:16-17, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."

The website at [1]GetGod’sGift.org features the writings of Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008), the former pastor of the Calvary Community Church in Tampa, Florida. Dr. Lindstrom had taught at Moody Bible Institute as a Bible professor for 12 years, back when they were still doctrinally sound. One of my favorite MP3 sermons by Dr. Lindstrom is called: "[2]How Permanent Is Your Salvation" (VIDEO)...

[3]HOW PERMANENT IS YOUR SALVATION (MP3)

In Michael P. Bowen’s excellent book clarifying the Gospel, titled, "[4]I Never Knew You: The Coming Horror Of The Great White Throne Judgment And How You Can Avoid It!," he mentions in his book that Dr. Lindstrom’s sermon "How Permanent Is Your Salvation?" led him to the Lord

On page 16 of, "[5]I Never Knew You," Michael Bowen states:

> “One night, in late 2005, I found some articles written by Dr. Hank Lindstrom that freed me from so much of the bondage of counterfeit salvation. I then listened to Dr. Lindstrom’s sermon “How Permanent Is Your Salvation?” After hearing him preach Christ’s plan of salvation and after seeing in the bible for myself what Christ had said about it, I trusted Jesus alone, as my only hope of heaven.”

Amen! What a great testimony! Ever since I read this, and listened to the sermon for myself, I have done my best to promote the sermon and Brother Bowen's book.

Arnold Has It Correct

The present pastor of Calvary Community Church is Dr. Ralph "Yankee" Arnold, and I love his preaching. Like his predecessor Dr. Lindstrom, Pastor Arnold relentlessly goes after the satanic Lordship Salvation crowd, and upholds the simplicity and clarity of the Gospel.

[6]Here is a link to his daily chapel sermons at Florida Bible College, which I highly recommend.

[7]MP3 Sermons By Pastor Yankee Arnold

This is one of my favorite YouTube sermons by Dr. Arnold called: " [8]Lordship Salvation: Caught Between Grace And Works! "

In churches all across America, you'll find corrupt religious tracts in their literature display. You'll find unbiblical garbage about "turning from sinful ways" to be saved, and "committing your life to Christ" and "following Jesus," none of which compromise 'The Gospel.' Such corrupt religious junk hinders the lost from seeing the truth of the saving-Gospel of free grace:

"There is power in this Gospel message. Most people just don't know how to present it... The clarity of the Gospel is what makes it easy for them to believe."

—Pastor Yankee Arnold, a quote from the excellent MP3 sermon titled, "[9]WHY GRACE CAN SAVE THE WORST MAN!"

The Problem Of Indifferent Pastors

Sadly, I have confronted numerous Baptist pastors in a gentlemanly manner, letting them know that there are [10]corrupt religious tracts in their church, but they were indifferent and didn't care. Such wicked men ought not be allowed behind any pulpit. One of the worst sins I see in this untoward generation today is ministers who approach the pastorate as a mere profession. Just so long as they get their next paycheck, they are content, while the Gospel is being obscured, the meaning of repentance is perverted, and the Word of God is corrupted! Consequently, countless churchgoers nowadays have churchianity without Christianity. Millions of people have been conned into living the Christian life without being born again, because of these ungodly pastors who don't care about THE TRUTH!

Either Salvation Is Permanent, Or Else You're Not Saved

If your salvation is not permanent, then it is not God's salvation! The free gift of eternal life that God offers—through faith in the 'Good News' (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day—cannot be forfeited or lost once you have it. Literally, we are saved by God's righteousness, not our own inadequate self-righteousness. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith." The very idea that turning away from sinful ways is necessary to receive the free gift of God, goes totally contrary to the Holy Scriptures! If you believe that murdering someone would result in the loss of your salvation, then you are not saved! Salvation is of the Lord. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

The proper mindset of a saved person is that Jesus became the sacrifice for our sins on the cross, and He alone bore the weight, shame and punishment for our sins. Therefore, I have absolutely no part in saving myself. My sole part is simply to believe. The life that I choose to live as a believer, good or bad, is an entirely separate matter of discipleship and rewards, which has nothing to do with receiving the free gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life. When anyone adds human reformation (aka, turning from sins) to the grace of God, grace is canceled out.

2nd Corinthians 1:20-22, "For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us. Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God; Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts." Every Christian believer is sealed with the blessed Holy Spirit, who has been given as God's proof of His downpayment on us. THAT IS ETERNAL SECURITY! 1st John 3:24, "And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us."

Eternal life is the free gift of God. To be born-again, you must wholly submit yourself to God's righteousness, which is by faith in Christ Jesus. Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." The way to be saved is to simply get out of the way, and let God do the saving, all of it!

1.2.81 Don’t Sacrifice Permanent On The Altar Of Immediate! (2020-04-18 09:00)

Proverbs 20:17, “Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel.”

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) was a wise man and fundamentalist Christian. It is tragic that Bob Jones University has since gone apostate—[1]denying the inspiration of the King James Bible, promoting [2]corrupt Bible revisions, [3]allowing their female students to dress immodestly like the world, refusing to listen to student’s reports of rape, and a wicked attitude of indifference toward the truth and of [4]contempt toward truth-tellers! The hallmark character trait of a Christian who is right with God is CARING, which speaks volumes concerning the woeful spiritual condition of BJU today in 2020! I speak to their shame!!!

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. taught this great truth:

> “Do not sacrifice the permanent on the altar of the immediate. Many young people think in terms of today and not in terms of tomorrow. You had better be a little hungry today and have food in the future. You had better wear poor clothes now and have a warm coat when you get old. You will need a warm coat in your old age more than you do when you are young. So many young people in this world are sacrificing all the future on the altar of the immediate. They are fools to do it. That is the explanation of many things that are happening today. What do you think is going to happen to the girls who are hanging around these cocktail lounges and bars with a cocktail glass in one hand and a cigarette in the other? What do you think is going to happen to these young people who are playing the game loose in this country—the young folks who are living sensual, superficial, unclean lives? They are locking skeletons in the closets of their lives, and the bones of those skeletons will rattle in their ears in coming years. You just can’t get away with sin. Let me tell you something—you may get by the teacher today; but you can’t get by life twenty-five years from now. Don’t sacrifice the permanent on the altar of the immediate!

I could tell you story after story of foolish youth, who threw away their future for a few moments of fun. There is nothing more shameful than for high schools students to become parents out of wedlock! In over 99 % of those cases there will never be a legal marriage! Hebrews 13:4, " Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge." Beware of Walt Disney, one of the biggest promoters of premarital sex! Search YouTube for with the girls. Fornication brings the judgment of an angry God (Colossians 3:5-6). Sin thrills and then it kills! Sin fascinates and then it assassinates! American society today is saturated with sexual immorality, because of worldly and cowardly preachers who no longer preach against sin!!!

I could mention umpteen evils concerning sacrificing the permanent on the altar of the immediate! I heard about a woman in Texas last year, [6]who stole $1.3 million from her employer. While awaiting trial she commit suicide. She wanted to get rich the wrong way! She sacrificed the permanent on the altar of the immediate. I just read today that [7]many con artists are preying on people during this Coronavirus! The world has always been a wicked place (1st John 5:19), but what makes times so "

(2nd Timothy 3:1-7) today is the woeful lack of fear of God in people! We are living in ' [8]THE GENERATION THAT DOESN'T LOOK UP! ' | [9]MP3 (a needful sermon by Pastor Danny Castle).

I am a sinner like anybody else, so I don't point fingers. There but for the grace of God go I! I am just saying as a Bible-believing redeemed sinner, and a caring fundamentalist Baptist preacher, that SIN ISN'T WORTH IT!!! Crime may pay in the short-term, but it will always cost you in the long-term. Ecclesiastes 8:12-13, " Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him: But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God." Please don't sacrifice the permanent on the altar of the immediate!

1.2.82 God Only Authored ONE BOOK, Not Two, Not 339! (2020-04-18 15:00)

2nd Corinthians 2:17,

For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

Here, believe it or not, are the abbreviations for just SOME of the English Bible versions for sale on the market today. For example: the NIV is the New International Version, seen in the following list...

SUM OUT TIM ABP INT HEB PAR WRD PEO KJS CHI FUL SPL BAR CAL CLA DAR GIL GSB GUZ JFB KAD KJT MHC MHW SCO TSK WES NIV NLT ESV NAS GWT KJV ASV DRB ERV WEB WLC WLV WLO WLT BHS BHO BHT ALE PAL SEP SPU SPT VUL AKJ BBE DBY KJP OJB WBS NIV NLT ESV NAS GWT KJV ASV DRB ERV WEB WLC WLV WLO WLT BHS BHO BHT ALE PAL SEP SPU SPT VUL AKJ BBE DBY KJP OJB WBS YLT

The reason why there are so many Bibles is obvious:

First, because the Devil wants to confuse everybody (just like the Devil is doing with all the gender confusion today).

Second, because of the sinful love of money which drives the evil market of Bible-corrupters. 1st Timothy 6:10 teaches "FOR THE LOVE OF MONEY IS THE ROOT OF ALL EVIL." Many people will do anything for money. This is why the Bible plainly teaches that NO MAN can serve God and mammon (money). Ye cannot serve God and mammon. You'll cling to one and hate the other, and there are no exceptions. Matthew 6:24, "No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other."

I am one of the most hated preachers in the world. I am probably the most slandered and attacked Baptist preacher on the internet, which is to be expected in this untoward ungodly generation. Billy Sunday was hated by the ungodly liquor traffic too! I rejoice that I might receive a martyr's crown! Luke 6:22-23, "Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake. Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets."

Every time someone criticizes and slanders me, my heavenly rewards are stacking up higher! Yeah buddy! I welcome all the hatred and persecution the Devil can hurl at me. Okay, not really. But the thought of rewards gives me something to ease the pain...lol. Seriously, with a truth-telling ministry like mine, you'd have to expect to be hated by a large portion of the planet. It comes with the territory (John 15:19). I just hand it all to Jesus, whether praise or persecution! To God alone be the glory, great things He hath done, and is doing!!!

So I'll continue to be the bad guy with the big mouth for the Lord. Somebody's got to care! Brother Hyles makes that very statement in his needful MP3 sermon called: '[1]I'm Sick And Tired Of Being Sick And Tired.' The hallmark character trait of a Christian who is right with God is CARING. The TRUTH matters to a caring believer! Sadly, most pastors today don't care about the truth (and that includes independent Baptists), which is why they allow dozens of Bible versions, allow multiple plans of salvation. Nothing trumps the truth except love, but love is not truly love without truth! God knows that I love everyone and refuse to harbor ill-feelings toward anyone. I am simply trying to help others. Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life."

God knows that I have a tender heart of love and forgiveness. I let things go quickly. Kindly, I pray and wish [2]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam wasn't so puffed-up, dense and proud, holding a grudge; and then there's the doctrinal mess at Harvest. I am nothing more than a lowly, lonely, heart-broken, tender-hearted, man, who needs to love and be loved, but today's churches are carnal. My many writings about Harvest Baptist Church are nothing more than the heart of a broken man crying out to be embraced and loved by my Christian brethren. So why don't they? One word—TRUTH!!! I told the truth, but they rejected it, so they have sinfully rejected and shunned me for it since 2014!!! I am looking for a wife, and by God's grace I'll find her, hopefully before I'm 80 years old...lol. Proverbs 19:14, "House and riches are the inheritance of fathers and a prudent wife is from the LORD."

We Need An Every Word Bible

It was the Lord Jesus Christ Himself who quoted Moses from the Old Testament (Deuteronomy 8:3-4), reiterating the truth that man shall not live by 'BREAD ALONE,' but by 'EVERY WORD' that proceedeth out of the 'MOUTH OF GOD'...

> Matthew 4:1-4, "
>
> Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil.
>
> And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.
>
> And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.
>
> But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.
> **"

Ladies and gentleman, if we are to live by EVERY WORD of God, then we must have an EVERY WORD Bible. That means we must have a verbally-inspired Bible. "

Verbally-inspired

means that EVERY WORD is inspired by God!!!

Plenary

" means that the Bible is inspired in its entirety. So theologically, Independent Fundamental Baptists (such as myself) believe believe in the plenary and verbal inspiration of the authorized King James Bible!!! There is no other accurate Bible in the English-speaking language today!!!

God only authored ONE BOOK; not two, not 339, not [3]900!

As brother Daryl Coats so aptly says in his article 'The Two Lies:' "

If the Bible was inspired only in the original manuscripts, no one in the entire history of the world has ever had an inspired Bible. The original autographs of Job and the books of Moses had disappeared more than a thousand years before the first book of the New Testament was written, so no one has ever owned a complete Bible made up of the 'divine originals.' Nor, has anyone ever owned a complete New Testament made up of 'inspired originals,' because the originals were distributed among more than a dozen individuals and local churches.

1.2.83 The Sin Of Women Preachers (2020-04-19 04:00)

1st Timothy 2:11-12, "

Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. But I suffer [allow] not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

Feminism is of the Devil. One subject you'll never hear a woman preacher preach about is feminism. As with the homosexual movement, the feminist movement has changed the inspired Word of God into a lie, " Who changed the truth of God into a lie...

" (Romans 1:25b). Feminists have even fabricated their own [1]Feminist Theology. This is rebellion against God.

Here are some words of warning, likening harmful lodges to WOMEN PREACHERS, from the soulwinning evangelist and founder of the Sword of the Lord in 1934, Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980):

"The lodges, I know, teach men to subdue their passions, to exercise brotherly love, to help each other in trouble. The lodges have helped some men to live better moral lives, and I have known rare cases in which the lodge ties were used to win souls. Many, many earnest, upright men strive to help themselves and to help others to a higher, nobler life by the lodges. Yet many Scriptures expressly forbid Christians to yoke up with unbelievers in the lodges.

And the lodges, I have no doubt, as a general thing, deny the deity of Christ, deny the need for a new birth, and deceive millions of people who think they are saved without being born again. The lodges do good, but they do infinitely more harm.

So it is with women preachers. They do good, but how much harm they do! First, the rise of women preachers has meant the rise of multiplies sects of people with false doctrines of every kind. The Fox sisters and Spiritism, Mrs. White and Seventh Day Adventism, Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy and Christian Science, Mrs. Filmore and Unity, Mrs. Aimee Semple McPherson and the so-called 'Foursquare Gospel,' Pentecostalism and its vast majority of women preachers with the blight of sinless perfection doctrine, radical emotionalism, 'speaking in tongues' and trances, its overemphasis on healing that leads thousands to despair after false pretenses of healing—these things surely should warn us that there is infinite harm in women preaching."

SOURCE: Dr. John R. Rice, "Bobbed Hair, Bossy Wives and Women Preachers," pg. 58; Sword of the Lord Publishers, P.O. Box 1099, Murfreesboro, TN, 37133; copyright 1941; ISBN: 0-87398-065-4

Amen! Women preachers do some good, but the harm they do far outweighs the good. The Bible plainly teaches for women to keep silent in the Church. 1st Timothy 2:12, "But I suffer [allow] not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence." The best way to win souls is to obey God, and to do things God's way.

Women are Scripturally forbidden to be pastors, preachers or leaders over men in any capacity. The average American woman today is feminist in her philosophy. This is tragic and a curse upon America. This is why the sin of abortion is commonplace. This is why the sin of divorce is so prevalent. One sin begets another! Women preachers and feminism are synonymous.

Women Have Equal Worth, Not Equal Authority

Women have equal human rights, are of equal worth, and are not inferior to men in any way, but women do not have a Biblical right to usurp authority over men. Feminism DEMANDS equality in the area of authority, and cries “inequality” if they don’t get it. This is what Lucifer said in Isaiah 14:14,

“ I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High. ”

Lucifer just wanted EQUALITY, wanting to be the most high.

like

Feminists claim they are simply asking for equality, to be like

” men in authority. I know this is a delicate and controversial subject, but there is no controversy if you believe the Holy Bible. Biblically, women are prohibited to become pastors of churches!

The Bible does not tell the world how to live. The heathen world does not regard nor fear God (1st John 5:19), which is why the world is in such a mess. Mankind has never been able to govern himself, always engaging in war, killing each other! It is only in the absence of godly men, that women can rise to power over them. Isaiah 3:12, “

As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.

” Where did American go wrong? We went wrong in [2]1963 when we allow six reprobate judges to remove and ban the Holy Bible from children’s daily lives in public schools across our nation.

The inspired Holy Bible is the answer! I believe the only laws which will exist during the Millennial reign of Jesus Christ will be the inspired Word of God. Just in the United States alone, we have over one million laws, codes and regulations governing our lives; and yet look at all the crime, corruption and evil that still happen every day! We must get back to the Word of God!!!

The Sin Of Feminism Is Destroying America

Today, America is plagued with women in authoritative positions of power, and in my humble opinion America is suffering because of it. Homosexuality is commonplace, abortion has become completely shameless, the dirty smut image industry is considered normal, divorce is highly encouraged nowadays, et cetera. Sin in everywhere! Feminism is a Trojan Horse sin, that brings with it a slew of wickedness! Feminism and the Word of God are DIAMETRICALLY opposed to each other! There's probably not a more offensive topic for American women today, than the Bible's commandment for them to be silent in the churches, and to learn the Scriptures from their husbands at home, and not to usurp authority over men in any capacity.

Meet Carter Heyward—an Episcopalian priest, a militant feminist, and a lesbian who performs same-sex marriages, and is also a promoter of child sacrifice through abortion...

> "If women were in charge, abortion would be a sacrament, an occasion of deep and serious and sacred meaning."
>
> [3]Carter Heyward, Massacre of Innocence, from a newsletter published by the National Abortion Federation.

Do you see what happens when women enter the pulpit? It was Solomon's wives who turned his heart away from the Lord, and introduced child-sacrifice to the pagan god Moloch again in Israel (1st Kings 11:4-8). I realize that there are many good and responsible women who pastor churches, as far as being responsible goes; but it is still unbiblical and wrong! Women preachers are ALL false prophets! Pastor Max D. Younce addresses this important subject in a sermon clip titled: "[4]Women Preachers." Here are some full sermons by Dr. Younce:

- [5]Women Preachers - Part One
- [6]Women Preachers - Part Two

Women preachers are ALL false prophets! A woman preacher cannot obey 1st Peter 3:5, i.e., to have a meek and QUIET spirit, when she is preaching with authority from a pulpit. Melissa Scott is a false prophet and is a good example of why women shouldn't be preachers. Boy, she can dazzle the crowds with her profound knowledge (so it seems), but the audience has no idea what she's talking about because she's rambling on incoherently. To watch her preach such utter nonsense with a man's authority is repulsive.

Don't forget that Eve was the one who was deceived; not Adam. We read in 1st Timothy 2:11-14, "Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. For Adam was first formed, then Eve. And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression."

The Bible gives 2 reasons why women are not to preach, teach or lead men. The fact that God created Adam first is significant. The woman was created FOR the man. Like it or not, no woman will be happy until she is serving a man, i.e., her husband. Thus, men cannot lead if women are getting in the way. The modern idea of a husband and wife both working jobs, and hiring a stranger to raise their kids is insanity. 1st Timothy 5:14 stresses the importance of women being at home. A woman's place is in the home.

The Bible makes an issue of the fact that Eve, the first woman, was deceived by Satan. This is significant. Say what you will, women are more vulnerable to Satanic deceptions than are men. Do you know why there are over one billion hellbound Roman Catholics in this world? It's because of mamas! Do you know why Muslim kids strap dynamite on themselves to go blow up dozens of people? It's because of mamas!

> "The spiritual life of a nation, city, town, school, church, or home never rises any higher than the spiritual life of women."
>
> Dr. R.G. Lee ('[7]Payday Someday')

It's time for women to get back to raising children for the Lord, being homemakers, and to leave the preaching to God's men. Women possess the greatest power in this world, the power of influence; but when women usurp authority over men to do so, their influence becomes one of evil feminism and rebellion.

[8]

1st Timothy 5:14-15,

“

I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

For some are already turned aside after Satan.

Wonderful preaching indeed!!! For the world to become a better place with good people... it's a "must" that mothers should be the ones to take care of their children and not strangers and I liked the picture above of the woman doing all the chores in the house. Thank you for this wonderful preaching Bro. David, I thought I was wrong the whole time I stayed and reared my children at home coz all my classmates in High School and College, friends, relatives and every woman I know had a career outside home. But I chose to stayed home to be with my precious children. And I thank God for that. Thanks!!!��

1.2.84 Alcohol Is Liquid Devil! (2020-04-19 10:00)

Proverb 20:1, "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise."

Americans drink beer as a recreational activity, which is no different than abusing prescription drugs. The people who laugh and scoff at my preaching against beer have never stood over the graves of a mother and child killed by a drunk-driver. I have! I'll never forget that little white casket being lowered alongside the mother's casket, because some drunk driver killed them. The drunk driver lived. We live in a morally toxic society in America.

Young girls today, they want to have fun. Young girls today just wanna party. Today young girls wanna go to a nightclub and have open sex on the floor of the nightclub, and then put it on YouTube, and if they should get pregnant they want to throw the baby into a dumpster. That's the new America! No morals. No self-respect. No nation. No borders. No language. No culture. No responsibility. Now that's America today!

(“Liquor drinking is a spiritual disease,” Brother Lester Roloff, 1914-1982)

Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr. offers these words of godly wisdom:

> “Here’s what’s amazing to me—is we haven’t learned the tragedy of what is happened to our nation when we legalize alcohol. That millions of people have been killed or affected by drunk drivers. Amen! People have gotten addicted on alcohol, they have addictions to alcohol; it has ruined families, marriages and lives. So rather than us getting rid of it, now we are now expanding it, now we are going to legalize another addictive substance. Now people are going to get high and go out and drive! Some more lives are going to be killed! Some more families are going to be destroyed! It’s going to lead people down the path, because marijuana is the introduction drug. We haven’t learned our lesson!” —Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr., a quote from the sermon titled: “[6]Seven Acts Of Repentance - Part One”

508 ANSWERS TO BIBLE QUESTIONS

(copyright 1952)...

"Are Christians Permitted to Use Strong Drink?

> Personally, I believe that because of the evil effects of drink, and the definite warnings in the Bible against strong drink, a Christian should refrain from using it, even though he may be able to use it moderately. The path of safety always lies on the conservative side."

The mighty preacher and man of God, Harold Sightler, lost his 9-year-old little girl when a drunk driver in Greensboro, NC drove off the road and ran over his daughter, killing her. The booze industry tycoons don't pay the price, innocent people do. God will hold evildoers accountable on judgment day for making and selling booze!

There is no substitute for preaching the Word of God. Our nation is in trouble today because we;'re running short on Gospel preaching! The only '12 Step Program' that we all need my friend are 12 steps to the church altar!

Remember, you can’t take two drinks of booze, if you don’t take the first!!! That’s great advice young person! If you don’t take the first drink you cannot end up like this...

ABOVE: This man never planned to end up like this, which proves what the Bible warns in Proverbs 20:1, “Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.”

Many are not aware that their true enemy is in a bottle... be it beer, whisky, gin, brandy, vodka, tequila etc. these all contain alcohol. And alcohol destroys people directly and and indirectly. I never drink alcohol in my life and do not intend to drink even a drop of it but if someone in your family, say your spouse is alcoholic/drunkard, it will surely bring hell into your life. It's true, alcohol is liquid devil!!!

1.2.85 Jesus Is Not The Father (2020-04-19 17:29)

Matthew 3:16-17, " And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him: And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

Our text passage of Scripture clearly shows the distinction between God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. Jesus was getting water baptized by John the Baptist. He sees the Holy Spirit descending upon Him like a dove. He hears the voice of the faithful Father from Heaven, saying: "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." Here we see all three members of the Godhead, separate one from the other. Yet, we know from Scriptures such as Deuteronomy 6:4b that " The LORD our God is one LORD.

There is a demonic heresy that is becoming increasingly popular on the internet called "Modalism," which denies the Trinity. This cult teaches that God takes on different 'MODES' (i.e, wearing different hats so-to-speak). Modalists claim that God only exists physically in one body in Heaven. Modalists believe that when a Christian dies, you will only see God the Father in bodily form on His throne in Heaven. They don't believe that Jesus has His own body. I can easily refute this heresy with the Bible. What saith the Scripture?

Colossians 3:1, "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

Ephesians 1:20, "Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

Hebrews 1:3, "Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;"

Hebrews 1:13, " But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?"

Clearly we learn that Jesus is sitting in Heaven on the Magestic Father's RIGHT HAND, upon His own separate throne. It is hard to accept that some religious people actually think Jesus is not His own person, having His own physical body. We read in 1st Corinthians 15:6 that when Jesus PHYSICALLY resurrected from the dead, He was seen PHYSICALLY by at least 513 people. Paul, the Twelve Apostles, and then 500 Brethren all at once! In Acts 1:9-11 we read of Christ's PHYSICAL ASCENSION into Heaven, and we are told by the angels that Jesus will RETURN IN LIKE PHYSICAL FASHION as He departed.

We see the future fulfillment of this promise in Revelation 1:7, "Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. " Carefully notice that

EVERY EYE SHALL SEE HIM.

” This is the Second Coming of Jesus Christ, not the Pretribulation Rapture (which will happen seven years earlier). Clearly, we see that Jesus is NOT the Father!!! Here is a very helpful image to express correct Bible doctrine concerning the Trinity...

[1]

I found the following helpful quote today by Dr. John R. Rice, from page 59 of his 1973 excellent book (arranged by Miss Viola Walden) called, “Dr. Rice, Here Are More Questions...”:

Does God Actually Exist in Three Persons?

Yes, He does. This historic Christian position, held by nearly all Christians through the ages, is based on the Bible; and only those who have been in touch with some false cult, I think, would doubt or deny it.

It is easy to see from the Bible that there are three persons in the GODHEAD. in John 14:16, Jesus said, “And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever.” Jesus, one Person, prays to the Father, another Person, and the Father sends the Comforter, another Person. Yet all three are of one mind and of one principle and are not to be separated as if one were without the other or against the others.

Again, in Acts 10:38, Peter says, “How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him.” God the Father anointed Jesus with the Holy Ghost. Here the Bible speaks distinctly of three personalities.

When Jesus was baptized, God spoke aloud from Heaven and said, “Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased” (Luke 3:22). So God the Father and Jesus were separate, distinct personalities, in this case, surely. And there are many, many Scriptures to show that God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost are One and yet separate and distinct Persons, but John 14:16 is sufficient for this proof.

SOURCE: Dr. John R. Rice; “Dr. Rice, Here Are More Questions...,” chapter 11, “Bible Doctrine,” p. 59; Sword of the Lord Publishers,©1973.

Jesus has His own body, which is up in Heaven today, seated on the right-hand of the Father. Colossians 3:1, "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God." And yet Jesus lives inside of the body of every believer in the form of the indwelling Holy Spirit, which evidences that the Godhead is One. John 14:23, "Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him." Notice that Jesus refers to Himself and the Father with the plural pronouns

e

So here we see that God the Father, and God the Son, live inside every believer as God the Holy Spirit. The fact that Jesus uses a first person plural subjective case pronoun, "we," evidences that the Godhead is comprised of three distinct Persons. Jesus didn't say "I"; but rather, He said "we" (which means more than one). If God were only one Person, then the Lord wouldn't have used the first person plural pronoun "we." John 14:23b, "we will come unto him, and make our abode with him."

And please notice also, in John 14:23b above, the first person plural possessive case pronoun "our" (which again means more than just one). There is only one God (Deuteronomy 6:4); but that one God exists and manifests Himself to mankind in the three individual Persons of God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. This is the Godhead, or Trinity. As Dr. Wendell Evans taught us at Hyles-Anderson College in chapel, "The Trinity may not make good math, but it makes good Bible!"

1.2.86 When Satan Is At His Worst—Alcohol (2020-04-19 19:00)

Proverbs 23:29-35, "Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?

They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine.

Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright.

At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.

Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things.

Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast. They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again."

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) wisely says:

> "Satan does not have to bother himself by going to the tavern, he owns the place. He has his emissaries to run the place. Satan appeared in the Garden of Eden when all was peace. That tavern down there is of the Devil and don't you forget it. And so is every other tavern! But Satan does not need to spend his time there. He owns the place lock, stock, and barrel. They're sold out to him.
>
> But Satan comes to a church like this this morning and he does his work here. T'was in the Garden of Eden where God walked with man and man walked with God, where Satan appeared and raised his ugly head for the first time on earth. He came to the best situation.
> Now in the Book of Job he came to the best Christian on earth and accused the best Christian on earth. You see, Satan does not come this morning and work on the fellow who has a hangover who's in bed this morning vomiting because of his dissipation last night. Satan does not come to him this morning. Satan comes to the Jobs—he comes to the best Christians on earth—he wants your testimony, he wants your life, he wants your time, he wants your talent, he wants to steal you for himself."

tor Jack Hyles, from the needful sermon: '[1]WHEN SATAN IS AT HIS WORST.'

Please don't let alcohol ruin your life! I have heard story after story in the news of famous people, who after years of getting away from drinking, were eventually arrested for a DUI, and it cost them their reputation and career. Your sin of alcoholism will catch up with you! Drinking alcohol is as a fool's game of Russian Roulette! I thank God that I have never drank a drop of alcohol and I hate the stuff! I don't trust myself to drink booze, because I already know I would abuse it and get drunk! Go away Liquid Devil!

1.2.87 The Hypocrisy Of Alcohol And Drug Laws (2020-04-20 04:00)

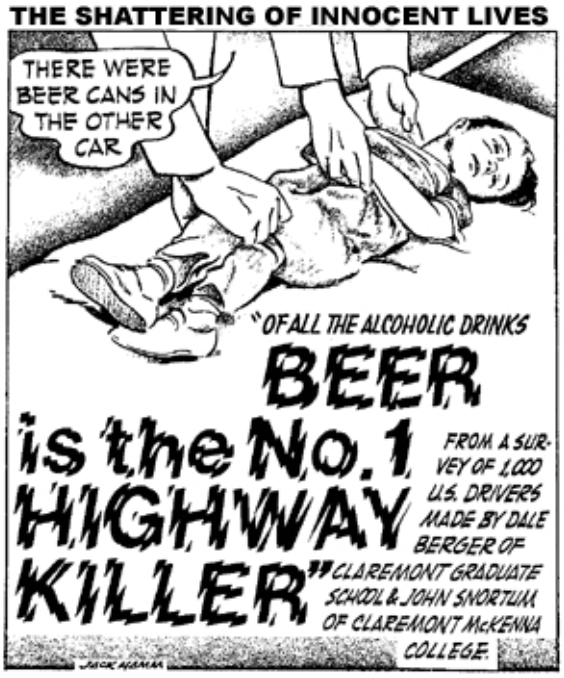
1st John 3:8, "...For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil."

Marijuana is illegal in most of the world, while alcohol is legal, despite the fact that alcohol is a far more dangerous drug than marijuana in every way. People consider marijuana to be a dangerous drug, while they think of alcohol as being a fun beverage.

They consider those who sell marijuana to be drug dealers, the scourge of society who should be hunted down and imprisoned, while those who sell alcohol (wine makers, grocery stores) are viewed as respectable citizens.

Logically speaking, it should be the other way around. Alcohol tends to make many people aggressive, leading to a variety of violent crimes, while marijuana does not. Alcohol is a central nervous system depressant, and leads to a serious loss of coordination and motor skills.

At larger doses, alcohol renders one completely unconscious. Drunk drivers cause enormous numbers of automobile accidents and deaths. Marijuana is not a central nervous system depressant, and while one probably shouldn't drive while intoxicated on anything, it simply does not cause anywhere near the loss of motor control that alcohol does, and is only a fraction as dangerous as alcohol in terms of driving. And, a large enough dose of alcohol can and will kill you, while the same is not true of marijuana. I am not condoning either, I am just pointing out the utter hypocrisy of our nation's laws.



Unfortunately, people are looking at this based on their feelings. Marijuana feels like a drug to them. It's illegal, isn't it? Alcohol feels like a fun beverage. It's legal, and socially acceptable, so it feels okay, so it must be okay, right? So the same cop who arrests someone for possessing Marijuana, can LEGALLY go home and get plastered on Jim Beam or Jack Daniel's alcohol. All of this is illogical and stupid, and typically human. It is tragic! The American people have proven themselves to be irresponsible when it comes to booze. Our sinful "get down and party" culture promotes boozing, irresponsibility and drunkenness. The beer cartel have much blood on their hands.

Years ago they used the slogan, "Drink And Drive Responsibly," which eventually got them into trouble, because it is IMPOSSIBLE to drink any amount of alcohol and drive responsibly; so they changed it now to just "Drink Responsibly" or

"Have Fun Responsibly." That is like saying,

"Play Russian Roulette responsibly!" Alcohol is in fact a narcotic drug! What doctor and complicit pharmacy would permit patients to get buzzed or high on ANY prescription drug; and yet that is exactly what people do with alcohol every day!!! Habakkuk 2:5, "Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man..."

1.2.88 Faith In God Makes It Easier To Forgive Others (2020-04-20 04:00)

Romans 12:17-21, “

Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord*.

Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

Life is too short to live with a burden of hatred. I have heard countless stories of people so filled with hatred, because they couldn’t forgive, that they became monsters! Case in point was [1]a 79 year old man in Belgian named Louis Dethy, a retired career engineer. Louis hated his family for abandoning him, so much so that he rigged 19 deadly booby-traps to murder them! Ironically, Mr. Dethy was killed by one of his own booby-traps. My heart was grieved as I heard that story in the news. The Sydney Morning Herald reported...

> “Relatives said he [Louis Dethy] never forgave his wife for divorcing him, or his 14 children and 37 grandchildren for having little to do with him. His bitterness grew into a desire for revenge when even his mother became estranged from him.”
> —[2]Family Murder Plan Backfires

My former wife also abandoned and divorced me in 2006, and most of my adult children want nothing to do with me, and I have grandchildren I'll never meet; but I love them and could never hate them. I love my family because I love God! I can't even imagine hating them, let alone setting traps to murder them. JESUS MAKES THE DIFFERENCE!!! Pastor Jack Hyles' own daughter has slandered her father all over the internet, unjustly calling him a cult leader, thief and an adulterer.

What saith the Scripture? Matthew 10:36, "

And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

" Dr. Hyles wisely said:

> "I believe any man in this world, can love any other man in this world, if he thinks right! The reason you hate is because you think hate. The reason you love is because you think love." —Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the excellent MP3 sermon, "[3]What The Law Could Not Do" (July 5, 1987 - First Baptist Church of Hammond, PM service).

God's children are taught to forgive, just as we have been forgiven by our heavenly Father for Christ's sake, on the basis of the precious blood that He shed for our sins...

> Ephesians 4:30-32, " And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:
> And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

It has not been too difficult for me to forgive those who have hurt me in life, because of my Christian faith. Since I believe the Holy Bible is the inspired Word of God, I just let everything go into God's hands, laying every burden at Jesus' precious feet. For those who have done evil against me during my lifetime, God WILL deal with them. I have God's PROMISE on it, which makes it easy for me to forgive. Essentially, forgiveness is letting an offence go into God's hands for judgment, trusting that He will avenge that wrong in eternity as He hath so promised. You have God's Word on it my friend...

Romans 12:17-21, “

Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

Louis Dethy let evil overcome him, but by God’s grace I am overcoming evil with good. That is what God commands me to do as His child. I am excited about serving God. I love when I go to church. I enjoy being around other Christians. I am zealous about the inspiration of the King James Bible and the clarity of the Gospel. I look for opportunities to help people. I receive joy as I “c ontend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints” (Jude 1:3b). I am excited about the things of God!!! I don’t have time to sulk and wallow in self pity, there’s a world dying and going to Hell, that needs to hear the Gospel.

The Lord Himself taught that if we forgive others, we will be forgiven; but if we refuse to forgive others, then neither will God forgive us. ...

Matthew 6:14-15, “ For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.”

This passage is not talking about salvation. The only basis upon which a lost sinner can be justified with God is the blood of Jesus Christ (Romans 5:1, 9; 1st John 1:7; Revelation 1:5). Only a born-again saint can call God our “heavenly Father.” I heard Evangelist Ravi Zacharias addressing unsaved Mormon in Salt Lake City in 2014 as “our heavenly Father.” No, that is blatant heresy and very wrong! Ravi ought not have misled those unsaved Mormons to feel saved, because they are as lost as a moose in a caboose! How can you expect to win lost sinners to the Lord, unless you first convince them that they are lost?

Matthew 6:14-15 is speaking to Christians. If we do not forgive one another, then we will be judged by the Lord at the Judgment Seat Of Christ. 1st Corinthians 11:31, " For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged." My faith makes it easier for me to forgive others, because I know everyone must give account to God. No one ever gets away with anything.

Romans 14:10-12, " But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God. So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God."

It is not my place to judge others who sin. Vengeance belongs to God alone. That is why Joseph could so easily forgive his half-brothers who caused him to be sold into slavery.

Genesis 50:19-20, "

And Joseph said unto them, Fear not: for am I in the place of God?

But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive.

" The Scripture warns that men will be held accountable even for their words.

Matthew 12:36, " But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment." So trust God, letting go of any unresolved hatred or bitterness in your soul, and I guarantee you'll feel like a whole new person! Trust God to make everything right in eternity, as He has so promised (Romans 8:28; Revelation 21:4).

1.2.89 America Needs Voices! (2020-04-20 11:00)

Psalms 94:16, “ Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?”

Home of the cowards, land of the slaves?

The following prayer was given in Kansas at the opening session of their Senate. It seems prayer still upsets some people. When Pastor Joe Wright was asked to open the new session of the Kansas Senate, everyone was expecting the usual generalities, but this is what they heard...

“Heavenly Father, we come before you today to ask your forgiveness and to seek your direction and guidance. We know Your Word says, ’Woe to those who call evil good,’ but that is exactly what we have done...

We have lost our spiritual equilibrium and reversed our values.

We confess that we have ridiculed the absolute truth of Your Word and call it Pluralism.

We have exploited the poor and called it the lottery.

We have rewarded laziness and called it welfare.

We have killed our unborn and called it choice.

We have shot abortionists and called it justifiable.

We have neglected to discipline our children and called it building self esteem.

We have abused power and called it politics.

We have coveted our neighbor’s possessions and called it ambition.

We have polluted the air with profanity and pornography and called it freedom of expression.

We have ridiculed the time-honored values of our forefathers and called it enlightenment.

Search us, Oh, God, and know our hearts today; cleanse us from every sin and set us free. Amen!”

The response was immediate. A number of legislators walked out during the prayer in protest. In six short weeks, Central Christian Church, where Rev. Wright is the pastor, logged more than 5,000 phone calls with only 47 of those calls responding negatively. The church is now receiving international requests for copies of this prayer from India, Africa, and Korea. Commentator Paul Harvey aired this prayer on “The Rest of the Story” on the radio and received a larger response to this program than any other he has ever aired.

The prayer of Pastor Joe Wright is the horrifying truth about America. The United States has deteriorated into a large Sodom and Gomorrha! America has earned the horrible accusation from the rest of the world of being ’[1]THE GREAT SATAN!’ Why should God Bless America?

“We need porcupine preachers, so that the people will get the point.”

I listened to a wonderful and needful MP3 sermon earlier today by Brother Lester Roloff called: “ [1]The Book That Makes The Difference .

In the sermon Brother Roloff champions the cause of the inspired King James Bible, of which I made an MP3 excerpt titled:

“ [2]The King James Version Is All We Need .

” In the excerpt I thought Brother Roloff said, “You’re just about branded a ’Nick Ramos’ if you stay with the King James Version!” I’ve been wondering all afternoon while working who Nick Ramos is? I went to listen to the excerpt again this evening, because I love that Brother Roloff is championing the King James Bible, and I wanted to hear him say it again. And then it finally dawned on me that he isn’t saying “Nick Ramos,” he’s saying “

I’m such an idiot! Hey folks, you don’t pay much, you don’t get much...lol.

Bless God, I’d rather study my ABC’s in Heaven, then learn Hebrew and Greek in Hell! The Bible says that God has chosen the ignorant things of this world (praise God there’s hope for me!). Acts 4:13, “Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.” You mean the apostle John who wrote the precious Gospel of John, that John? Yes, that’s the ignorant one! You mean the disciple whom Jesus loved, who leaned on Jesus’ breast, that John? Yes, that is the unlearned and ignorant one! I thank God for the weaknesses in my body, soul and life; for those are the very things which enable God to use me in ways that He couldn’t if I were strong! Just count me a fool for Christ friend!

> “Now, there’s only one thing we need in America—and that is an old-fashioned real Bible revival! I mean a real BIBLE REVIVAL! It’ll straighten out the home, straighten out the children, make the husband act right, put the wife in order; it’ll take care of the preacher, the church; I mean it’ll fix up the community, I mean it’ll stop the Devil dead in his tracks; I mean it’ll give victory to God’s people—the Word of God!” —Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982), “[3]The Book That Makes The Difference!”

1.2.91 Godhead Is Comprised Of 3 Distinct, Individual, Persons (2020-04-21 03:00)

John 1:1-2, “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God.”

How can the Word (Jesus - John 1:14) be WITH God and also BE God? The answer is THE GODHEAD!!! Jesus is a member of the Godhead, yet individually exists as God the Son. 1st John 5:7, "For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one." Amen!

[1]The Pentecostal Oneness False Doctrine Debunked (by Pastor Steven L. Anderson)

Notice the clear distinction between God the Father and God the Son. John 5:22, "For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son." The oneness Pentecostal (also called Modalism) errantly claims that God puts on different hats and is really the SAME person, but that is NOT Biblical. The Bible teaches that there is "ONE GOD" (Deuteronomy 6:4), Who exists as a Godhead, comprised of three individual, distinct, persons (Romans 1:20; Acts 17:29 and Colossians 2:9 - King James Bible only).

Again, carefully notice the clear distinction between God the Father and God the Son. John 5:30-32, "I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me. If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true. There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true." These are two distinct individuals.

In the following passage of Scripture, we see all three distinct, individual, members of the Godhead. John 14:12-16, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. If ye love me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever." Repeatedly in the Holy Bible we see the individual members of the Godhead presented. These are three individual members of the Godhead, which is God.

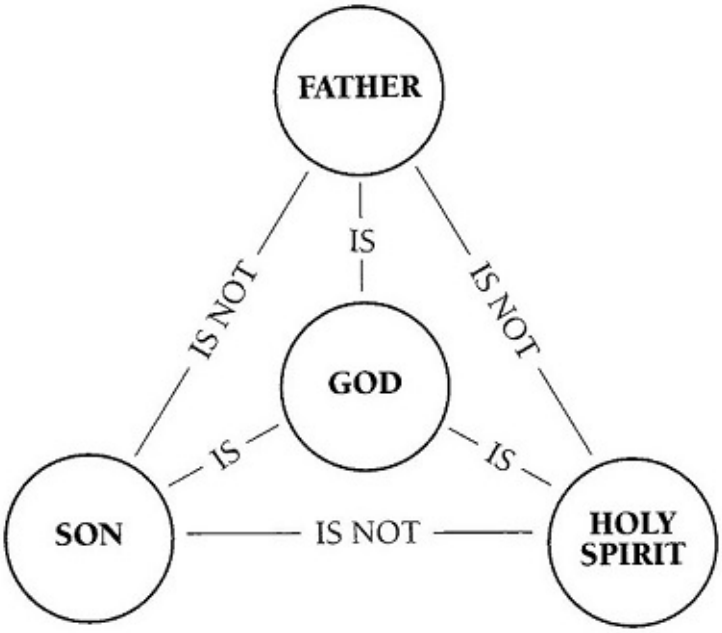
Jehovah's Witness' religious cult deny the Godhead (aka, Trinity). JW's deny the person of the Holy Spirit. They deny the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. JW's deny the deity of Jesus, teaching the heresy that Jesus and Lucifer are brothers. JW's teach that Michael the archangel became incarnate as Jesus, and only in that sense as an angel was God's Son. Jehovah's Witnesses blatantly deny the doctrine of the Godhead. This means JW's are not saved. No one who denies the Godhead is saved. A person may be saved and not have yet learned the truth of the Godhead, but once they are taught the Scriptures, they will receive it if they are truly saved. Likewise, no one who denies Jesus' virgin birth, bodily resurrection or deity is saved. JW's also deny Jesus' bodily resurrection.



John 16:12-16, "I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you. A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father." In these Bible verses we clearly see that the Father is not the Son, that they are TWO separate persons; and we also see that the Holy Spirit is another person, "

ANOTHER COMFORTER.

John 16:32, "Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me." As you can plainly see from the Word of God, there is a mountain of evidence that God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit are three individual personalities, and not merely different hats that God wears. Modalism is of the Devil. The Pentecostal oneness teaching is a false doctrine. The one God of the Bible exists as three individual persons, all unique and separate in function and personality. The Bible even calls the doctrine of the Godhead a mystery.

[2]

Colossians 2:2, "That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ." Thankfully, we don't have to understand the doctrine of the Godhead to be saved, but we WILL believe it if we are saved (Luke 7:35).

1.2.92 The Trinity Is 100% Correct Bible Doctrine (2020-04-21 03:00)

1st John 5:7, "For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one."

The Bible, God's Holy Word, Proclaims the GODHEAD. Notice in our text passage that "

THERE ARE THREE,

and yet these

THREE ARE ONE

! It may not make good math, but it makes good Bible. Amen! There is only ONE true and living God.

Deuteronomy 6:4, "

Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD: " Yet we read elsewhere in many passages that God exists in three persons, each unique and separate from the other. Matthew 28:19, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost."

This is the fundamental Bible doctrine of the Trinity (or Godhead).

Critics of the Bible like to point out that the word "Trinity" is not in the Bible. Albeit, the word "Godhead" is in the Bible, i.e., if you have a trustworthy King James Bible. The word Godhead is found in 3 places (Acts 17:29; Romans 1:20 and Colossians 2:9).

Deceitfully, the New International Version [NIV] and all modern corrupt versions of the Bible totally remove the word GODHEAD. This is blatant corruption of the Scriptures.

Deuteronomy 6:4 proclaims that there is one God. Yet the Bible reveals God in three persons of God the Father, God the Son and God the Spirit.

The teaching of the Godhead is a fundamental doctrine of the Christian faith:

> Acts 17:29, "Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device."

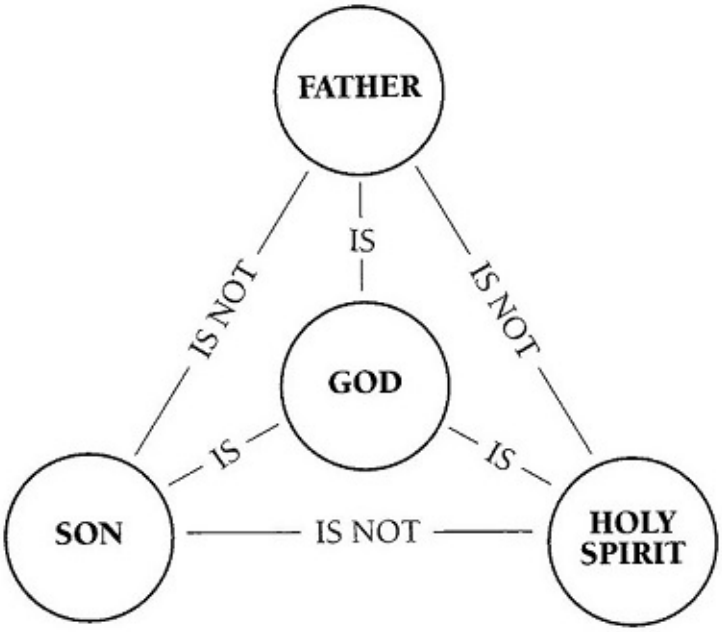
Romans 1:20, “For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse.”

Colossians 2:9, “For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.”

Beware of any false prophet, false Bible, or false religion, that denies the Bible doctrine of the Trinity (Godhead). That means the doctrine of [1]Modalism (i.e., God appears in different modes, but only exists in one body) is heresy! Jesus resurrected in a physical body (John 20:16). He appeared to His disciples, 500 brethren at once, and Paul (1st Corinthians 15:6). That is at least 513 people who saw Jesus in His glorified resurrected body. Jesus then ascended into Heaven in a physical body (Acts 1:9-11). Jesus appeared to the disciple John on the island of Patmos in Revelation, and John saw Jesus in His physically body (Revelation 1:8-18).

Jesus is now seated physically on the right-hand of the heavenly Father, and they both sit bodily upon separate physical thrones (Colossians 3:1). We are told in Acts 1:11 that Jesus will return in a physical body, just as He left (He does this in Revelation 1:7). The Bible could not be any plainer that Jesus exists in a separate body from God the Father, and He at no time has departed from that resurrected body. Acts 2:33, “Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.”

What saith the Scripture? John 17:24, "Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world." In this tremendous passage of Scripture we learn that God the Father loved God the Son before the foundation of the world. Clearly, they were not the same person. There is not a more Satanic movement today than the Oneness cult, called Modalism—who deny that Jesus has a separate body apart from God the Father. According to false prophets like Pastor Tyler Baker and Missionary Garrett Kirchway, only God the Father has a body in Heaven. They errantly say Jesus does not have a body.



The inspired Word of God (King James Bible) plainly teaches that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God (John 3:16), who raised up in a glorified physical body (John 20:15-17), appeared to several hundred people in His resurrected body (1st Corinthians 15:6), ascended into Heaven in a physical body (Acts 1:9-11), and will one day return in that same physical body (Acts 1:11; Revelation 1:7).

[2]Jesus' Bodily Resurrection Teaches Immortality For The Whole Man In Both Body And Soul!

[3]Does God Actually Exist In Three Persons?

John 17:24 is Biblical proof of the Trinity. In order for Jesus to be the OBJECT of God the Father's great love, then He had to be completely separate from the Father in His person. Likewise, God the Father loves the Holy Spirit, and the Holy Spirit loves the Son, and the Son loves God the Father, and the Holy Spirit loves the Father, and the Son loves the Holy Spirit. In order for love to exist at all, there MUST be an object of that love!!! This is proof of the Godhead, i.e., Trinity.

[4]

Colossians 2:2-3, " That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ; In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge."

1.2.93 Should We Feel "Godly" All The Time? (2020-04-22 06:30)

Luke 5:8, " When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord."

Someone recently asked me “ how to feel godly all the time.

I pondered that question. Did God’s men feel godly? T he apostle Paul said in Romans 7:24, “ O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death? ”

Paul didn’t feel godly. The truth is that the closer we get to God, we won’t feel godly, we will feel like the worst sinner in the building! That is because God is holy, and we are sinners, both by nature and by choice. Even as a redeemed child of God, knowing that God sees each believer in Christ’s imputed righteousness, we still sin in the flesh; and as we draw near to our holy God, we will feel awful about ourselves. This is not having an inferiority complex; but rather, knowing that we are inferior as sinners. The prophet Isaiah said, in Isaiah 6:5, "Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts." God’s men always felt inferior! Isaiah didn’t feel godly.

Humbly said, as Christians our goal should be to please the Lord at all times, by keeping God’s Commandments (Ecclesiastes 12:13). We will fail daily. Proverbs 24:16, "For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief." The closer that a believer draws to God, the worse of a Christian they will feel like, but they are really a good Christian. James 4:8-9 teach us to let our laughter be turned into mourning, and our joy to heaviness, as we share God’s burden over unrepentant sin in our cultures and lost souls. As we see in our text Bible verse, the apostle Peter didn’t feel godly, He humbly asked the Lord to “D epart from me,

” because of his contrite spirit as a sinner.

So I wouldn’t aim for feeling “ godly,

but rather, to please the Lord. God created ALL THINGS for His pleasure.

Revelation 4:11, “Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.”

Paul felt like a wretched man, but he was arguably the greatest soulwinner in history. So we should expect to feel like bigger sinners as we draw nearer to our holy God, “F or our God is a consuming fire

” (Hebrews 12:29).

1.2.94 Must I Pray To Be Saved? (2020-04-22 15:00)

John 3:14-16, “ And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

As I have often said to my web visitors, you don't need to pray to be saved. I love old books! I strongly recommend to everyone who likes to read, to seek out the older books by past men of God. Today's books are so lame, authored by lame preachers, lacking in theological substance. I simply don't like modern religious books! They are garbage compared to the golden gems written by men of God of the past. I have a classic book by Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) in front of me called: "

Comments On Here And Hereafter.

" Dr. Jones is one of few preachers I know who gets it right, teaching that prayer is not a part of the Gospel:

> "'Pray to be saved. Ask the Lord to save you.' This is what I heard a minister say to a convicted sinner who came forward for prayer at the close of an evangelistic service. Nowhere in the Bible are men told to pray to be saved. There are examples where men did pray and were saved. Men are told to repent, to believe, to obey the Gospel, but the Bible never says to pray for salvation. It does say that whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved, but nowhere does the Bible command men to pray to be saved. I think I know why, God, who made the human heart, knew that it was not necessary to tell convicted sinners to pray. If a sinner can see Jesus Christ on the cross, it is as natural for him to pray as it is for birds to sing or flowers to bloom. 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."' —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," chapter: Prayer And Praise, page 163; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

Amen and amen! There is nothing taught in the Bible about praying a sinner's prayer to be saved. That is why I stopped using it years ago. When I witness to people now, I simply present to them '[1]The Gospel'–the Good News of Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Anyone who comes to God as a needy sinner, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that He is bodily risen from the dead, is saved. It's that simple!

> "Very few Christians pray in public. Most of them pray to the public. It is one thing to talk to God and it is another thing to talk to a crowd on the pretense that we are talking to God." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," chapter: Prayer And Praise, page 164; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

1.2.95 The Blood Does NOT Merely Represent Jesus' Death (2020-04-22 22:30)

Hebrews 9:12, "Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but BY HIS OWN BLOOD he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us."

There is a damnable heresy circulating in many of our churches today, popularized by religious liberal, [1]Pastor John MacArthur. Moody Publishers sadly prints all of MacArthur's liberal books these days. Moody Ministries has really gone downhill spiritually. Dr. MacArthur teaches that Jesus' liquid blood has no value or significance in and of itself. He claims that Jesus' blood is important only in the sense that it represents the DEATH of Christ. Nothing could be further from the truth!

In MacArthur's Bible commentary, he teaches that Hebrews 9:12 doesn't mean what it says. Hebrews 9:12, "Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but BY HIS OWN BLOOD he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us." John MacArthur teaches that the phrase "BY HIS OWN BLOOD" only refers to Jesus' death, and not Christ's literal blood. It is a sinful thing to diminish the literal teachings of the Bible as only being figurative unless the Bible indicates otherwise. For example: In Revelation 1:20 we are told that the mystery of the seven stars are the seven angels, and the seven candlesticks are the seven churches. No where in the Bible are we ever told that the death of Jesus is represented by the blood. Thus, if the Bible teaches in Hebrews 9:12 that Jesus entered into the heavenly holy place BY HIS OWN BLOOD, then we must accept this truth literally. MacArthur is perverting the Scriptures.

When God told Moses to warn the Israelites concerning the coming 10th plague, i.e., the death of the firstborn, the people were instructed to kill a lamb, and then APPLY the lamb's blood to the side and upper doorposts of the home. John MacArthur likely learned his heresies from [2]Pastor Robert B. Thieme Jr. and John MacArthur Exodus 12:23, "And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt." Did you read that ... WHEN I SEE THE BLOOD!!!

...WHEN I SEE THE BLOOD!!!

Kindly said, Pastor R.B. Thieme Jr. and Dr. John MacArthur Jr. are theological fools to diminish the importance of the literal, physical, blood of Jesus Christ. MacArthur has tried to defend himself by saying that he loves the blood of Jesus and upholds it's importance, but he plainly maintains that the blood is only important and precious in that it REPRESENTS THE DEATH of Christ. MacArthur clearly denies the efficacy (power) of Christ's literal, physical, blood.

Carefully notice that the Lord wasn't looking for the dead lamb. Rather, the blood had to be [3]APPLIED. Also, please read, [4]The Importance of the Blood. John MacArthur is an unsaved liberal. Hebrews 10:29, "Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?"

The blood is very important. The Bible is very plain that Jesus entered into the heavenly holy place after He arose from the dead. Jesus ascended into Heaven with His blood. The blood had to be applied. Hebrews 9:12, "Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us." Shame on these fake Bible scholars who trample upon the blood. MacArthur is wrong, wrong, wrong to say that Jesus' blood is precious to him when in reality he only sees Christ's blood as symbolic of His death. What a sham! I'm sad and surprised that Moody Church in Chicago actually promotes this wicked man. Mr. MacArthur is wrong about the blood, and he's [5]wrong about the way of salvation. Dr. MacArthur is a tremendous orator and a likable person, but so are all the false prophets! Luke 6:26, " Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets."

[6]

The blood was to be sprinkled, remember, on the mercy seat right after the death of the substitutionary animal of sacrifice, Now Christ is, of course, our substitute. He was slain for us upon the Cross, and entered into death for us, and when He arose, He immediately went to heaven, entered into the holy of holies in heaven, sprinkled His precious blood upon the mercy seat before the throne of God, and forever settled the sin question, and delivered us from the curse of the law. This is clearly taught in the New testament. Hebrews 9:12 is very definite on this:

> "But by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us."

The Bible also makes plain when He accomplished this. On the morning of the resurrection He meets Mary at the tomb. As soon as Mary recognized Him, she prostrated herself upon Him, and would have kissed His feet, but with shocking suddenness, Jesus emphatically says to her: "Touch me not"; and then He proceeds immediately to give the reason why Mary is not permitted to touch Him at all.

> "For I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God." (John 20:17)

Literally the Lord Jesus Christ said, "Touch me not; for I now am about to ascend unto my Father." We can understand this action when we remember the high priest after he had offered the sacrifice, was to enter the holy of holies, before he did anything else, with the precious blood. No one was allowed to approach him. Everyone was shut out until this was completely done. And here in the record of the meeting with Mary we have the fulfillment of this type. Here Mary meets her great High Priest, just arisen from the tomb, but before He had entered the holy of holies with the reconciling blood. And so He says to her, "TOUCH ME NOT."

1.2.96 Jesus Is The Word Of God (2020-04-23 08:00)

John 1:1-3 and 14, " In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. ...And*the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us*, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. "

Jesus is the Word of God. Revelation 19:13,

" And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. " Jesus is the inspired Word of God made incarnate (flesh). Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) used to say that Jesus and the Bible are twins

—Jesus is the Living Word, the Bible is the Written Word. We just read in John 1:1-13 and verse 14 that THE WORD became flesh (incarnate) and we beheld His glory AS OF THE ONLY BEGOTTEN SON OF THE FATHER!!! The Bible could not be any plainer that Jesus is the incarnate Word of God.

The Bible teaches that all of the Godhead embodied the Lord Jesus Christ. Colossians 2:9, "

For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

" We read in John 1:1 that THE WORD WAS GOD! That means the Word is God! I don't claim to understand it all, because I don't, and neither do you. Jesus is the Word of God, that is His name! Psalms 138:2, "

I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name." Philippians 2:9-11, " Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." Those Bible passages are very interesting. One thing is very clear, God highly esteems the Word of God, even exalting it above His name. That means the Word of God ought not be tampered with!

The Wickedness Of Promoting Corrupt Seed

Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) had these wise words to say:

> “The Word of God is our only hope—that’s our only hope! This has been the generation of translations and abominations, and perversions, of the Word of God! It’s been a long time; now when the Revised Standard Version came out, I stood against it before I knew what it was, because the wrong crowd heard of that, and the wrong crowd received it, and I knew it got too much publicity to be right! And I knew if the newspapers publicized something, it had to be wrong! And so I knew that the American people and a lot of American preachers—they welcomed it into their house before they knew it was a rattlesnake!” —Brother Lester Roloff, a needful quote from the MP3 sermon titled, “’[1]THE LIVING BIBLE’ EXPOSED!”

Also, please listen to Brother Roloff in this sermon excerpt I titled: ’[2]The King James Version Is All We Need!’ If you’d like to hear the complete sermon, it is called: ’[3]The Book That Makes The Difference!’

Brother Roloff used to get invited regularly to Bob Jones University (BJU) in the 1970’s. In fact, BJU gave Brother Roloff an honorary doctorate’s degree for his incredible outreach ministry to tens of thousands of troubled youth across America. The ministry’s phone rang off the hook, but there simply wasn’t enough resources to help everyone at the Roloff Homes. That is a sign of the wicked times that we are living in today. I’d call it “surviving” more than “living“ today. These are perilous times.

The Apostasy At Bob Jones University

It is sad and unfortunate that BJU today is apostate, promoting multiple corrupt Bible versions, confusing and corrupting everyone. BJU is more interested in music, ping pong, having fun, and earning a piece of paper that will land them a job as a graduate, but truth means nothing to the Bob Jones crowd today. All of BJU's female alumni that I have met wear sexy pants! Is this what fundamentalism has deteriorated to in America? No, because it is NOT fundamentalism, it is worldliness and of the Devil. The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is a disgrace. I have a right to my opinion, and I can't stand their cultish attitude at Harvest, playing favorites and kicking out anybody who doesn't fit in with their stuck-up crowd of snobs. Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is the definition of shame!

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. would be ashamed and shut down BJU if he were alive today. I am confident of that fact, just like I KNOW [4]Pastor Jack Hyles would definitely close the doors of Hyles-Anderson College (since they have denied the inspiration of the King James Bible since 2008). I am not trying to be mean or unkind to anyone, I am simply telling THE TRUTH. It really does matter what we believe as Christians. If God wanted us to search through 15 different Bible revisions for truth, then He would have told us so! In sharp contrast to having multiple Bible versions, the Lord Himself taught in Matthew 4:4b that **"

Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

" If we are to live by 'EVERY WORD' of God, then we need an EVERY WORD BIBLE. Clearly, hundreds of English Bible versions CANNOT all be God's Word, nor even TWO for that matter, because God only authored ONE BOOK!

> "The church is a means to an end

1.2.97 The Distinction Of The Holy Spirit, Father And Son (2020-04-23 16:00)

Acts 2:33, "Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear."

Evangelist Rueben R. Torrey (1856-1928) was a fiery preacher, YMCA chaplain, superintendent of Moody Bible Institute and Dwight L. Moody's successor as pastor of the great Chicago Avenue Church (Moody Church today). I have a helpful old book in front of me authored by Pastor R. A. Torrey called, "What The Bible Teaches." Please note that I don't agree with all of Dr. Torrey's teachings, as [1]he taught something completely different than his successor, Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1875-1951) on repentance. Always remember that all men are flawed and capable of error. I believe that NO MAN is 100 % doctrinally correct on everything! The inspired Word of God is our ONLY authority in all doctrinal matters. But for the record, [2]I fully agree with Dr. Ironside.

Albeit, Dr. Torrey teaches excellently on the doctrine of the Trinity.

I love a statement made in the introduction to the book, on page 4. ...

> "Strictly speaking, the Bible is not a book at all. It is—as old Sir Thomas Browne described it three hundred years ago—the Divine Library."

SOURCE: The Publishers; "What The Bible Teaches," Introduction, p. 4; ©1898.

There has been a revival in some churches today of the age old satanic heresy of modalism, which is the lie that Jesus and the Holy Spirit are not distinct persons of the Godhead. I would like to quote the following excellent helpful words of defense of the Christian faith by Dr. R. A. Torrey, from chapter III (pages 234-236) of his excellent book titled, “What The Bible Teaches,” written in 1898. ...

The Distinction Of The Holy Spirit From The Father And From His Son, Jesus Christ

(I) Luke 3:21, 22— “Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened, And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.”

FIRST PREPOSITION: A clear distinction is drawn between Jesus Christ, who was on earth, the Father who spoke to him from heaven, and the Holy Spirit who descended in a bodily form as a dove, upon him.

* * * * * * *

(2) Matthew 28:19— “Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.”

SECOND PREPOSITION: A clear distinction is drawn between “the name of the Father” and “of the Son” and “of the Holy Ghost.”

* * * * * * *

(3) John 14:16— “And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever.”

THIRD PREPOSITION: A clear distinction is drawn between the Son who prays and the Father to whom He prays and the “Another Comforter” who is given in answer to the prayer.

* * * * * * *

(4) John 16:7— “Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.”

FOURTH PREPOSITION: A clear distinction is drawn between Jesus who goes away and the Holy Spirit, who comes to take His place.

* * * * * * *

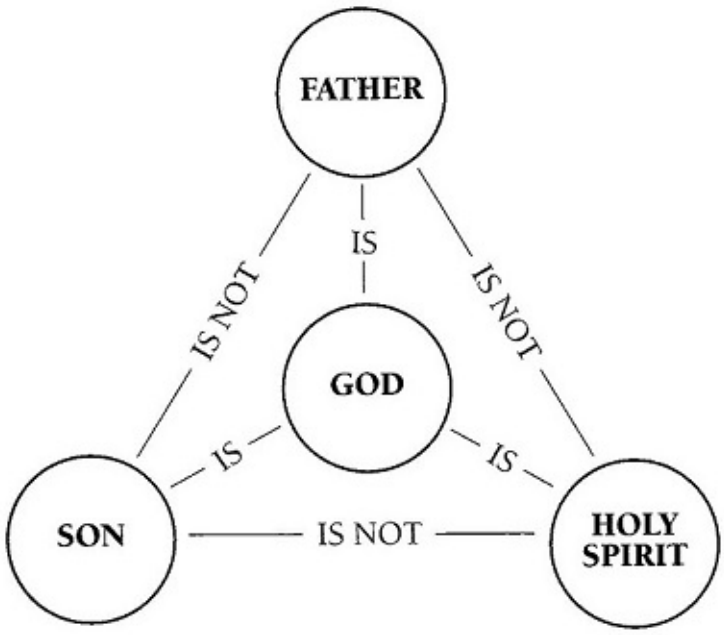
(5) Acts 2:33—“Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.”

FIFTH PREPOSITION: A clear distinction is drawn between the Son exalted to the right hand of the Father, and the Father Himself, and the Holy Ghost, whom the Son receives from the Father and sheds upon the church.

* * * * * * *

(4) John 16:7— “Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.”

> GENERAL PREPOSITION: Again and again the Bible draws the clearest possible distinction between the Holy Spirit and the Father and the Son. They are separate personalities, having mutual relations to one another, acting upon one another, speaking of or to one another, applying the pronouns of the second and third persons to one another.



> It has been said that the doctrine of the Trinity is not taught in the Bible, and it is true that it is not directly taught; but the doctrine of the Trinity is the putting together of truths that are taught. It is clearly taught in the Bible that there is but one God. It is also clearly taught that there are three Divine Persons—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

Boy that's good stuff! Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) rightly taught that the best way to interpret the Scriptures is with the Scriptures! The Holy Bible is the best commentary on itself. Amen! The Godhead (or "Trinity") is a foundational truth of the historical orthodox Christian faith. No one who denies the doctrine of the Godhead is saved. Granted, a new believer likely has never heard the truth of the Godhead, as I didn't when I got saved at age 13; but when I first heard the teaching of the Trinity, the indwelling Holy Spirit bore witness with my spirit that it was the truth.

Jesus plainly said that the indwelling Holy Spirit is our teacher. John 14:26, "But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you." Every Christian believer is indwelt with God's Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24; Romans 8:9). That is, the Holy Spirit lives inside our human body (1st Corinthians 3:16-17). The Holy Spirit seals, teaches, comforts, guides, rebukes and convicts every born-again believer.

The Triune nature of our great God is a fundamental teaching of the Word of God.

Colossians 2:2-3, “That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ; In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.”

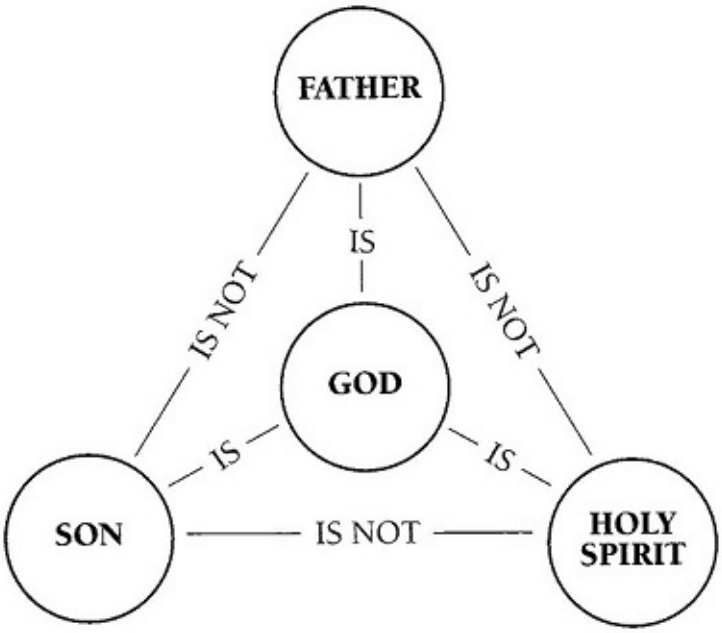
1.2.98 Godhead Is Always Masculine Gender, Never Feminine (2020-04-23 23:00)

1st John 2:22-23, " Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also."

Also, please understand that the Biblical Godhead is 100 % [1]totally masculine . There is NO feminine aspect of the Godhead as feminist theology, new agers, witches, occultists and spiritists teach. Satan has been relentlessly attacking the Bible in these Last Days, [2]producing the NIV 2011 which removes the pronoun "he" concerning the Holy Spirit in John 14:26. Satan's new [3]transgendered Bible caters to homosexuals and feminists.

Also, we see the individuality of the Holy Spirit in Luke 12:10, "And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven." Acts 5:32, "And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him." Notice the word "Whom," not "it." The Holy Spirit is a Person. In John 16:13 we read, "Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come." Six times in John 16:13, the Holy Spirit is referred to as the masculine pronoun "He."



Colossians 2:2 refers to the Godhead as "the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ." Isn't that a beautiful Scripture? I really want you to learn this Bible Verse, because it is the heart of the matter. The Godhead is a mystery. It's okay not to understand everything. Most people can't explain how a brown cow can eat green grass and produce white milk, but that yellow butter on your biscuits sure tastes good!

Thankfully we don't have to understand God to be saved, we just need to believe (trust) upon His only begotten Son Who died, was buried and rose again three days later for our sins (1st Corinthians 15:1-4; John 20:31; Acts 10:43).

The Godhead is a mystery. We read of "the mystery of God" in Colossians 2:2b . You either believe the Bible is the Word of God, or you don't.

The Godhead is 100 % masculine in nature!!! Run dear reader from anyone who teaches that God has a feminine side. There is no goddess in the Trinity. The Holy Spirit is NOT the feminine side of God!!! Beware of Feminist Theology (I'm not kidding) that says God has a feminine side. The Father, Son and Holy Spirit are all MASCULINE!

1.2.99 The NIV Brutally Attacks Jesus' Deity (2020-04-24 15:30)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, " For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ."

One of the most deadly revisions of the Holy Bible ever published in the sinister '[1]NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION' (NIV). I recently received a letter from a man, who quoted me Philippians 2:6 from the New International Version (NIV) of the Bible, claiming that Jesus was not the manifestation of the Godhead. Here's Philippians 2:6 from the King James Bible...

> "Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God ." [emphasis added]

Now here's the damnable NIV...

> "Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped ." [something added]

Do you see why so many people are being deceived by Satan nowadays? Jesus Christ is the manifestation of the Godhead. 1st Timothy 3:16, "And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory." Colossians 2:9 so beautifully states, "For in Him [Jesus] dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily." If you want to come to the God of the Bible, then you MUST come only through Jesus Christ, Who is the beloved Son of God.

The GODHEAD is revealed (or manifest) in the person, life and earthly ministry of the precious Lord Jesus Christ. 1st John 2:22-23, "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also." If I had my way, I would burn every New International Version of the Bible in existence! I would burn every copy of 'Today's New International Version' (TNIV) as well. I would burn every copy of the corrupted 'New King James Bible' (NKJB).

I Wish I Could Destroy The Devil's Modern Bible Revisions

In fact, I would burn every perverted Bible out there, including the 'Living Bible' (TLB) and 'Good News For Modern Man' (GNB). I would burn the 'Revised Standard Version' (RSV). God only authored one Holy Book folks! Matthew 4:4b commands us to live by "every word* that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. " That means we must have an "every word" Bible. We have it in the 1611 inspired '[2]King James Bible' which has been tested and proven trustworthy over the centuries. The King James Bible was the Book that brought nationwide throughout the 20th century, and it can still bring revival today if we'd preach it again!

What it so tragic is that while I'm trying to warn people about the Devil's Bibles (as did faithful men of God like Evangelist Al Lacy, Dr. Peter Ruckman and Pastor Jack Hyles); apostates like Bob Jones University (BJU) and Moody Bible Institute (MBI) are spreading corruptible seed, contaminating thousands of Baptist churches with their poison seeds. You cannot reason with these wicked religious people! There is nothing more dangerous than FALSE KNOWLEDGE! The NIV is false knowledge, filled with lies, omissions and errors.

Ungodly Bob Jones' Crowd Promote The Devil's Bible Revisions

Perhaps you naively think that BJU doesn't promote some of the worst translation revisions, but THEY DO! I heard an associate pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, tell me that he does support the Alexandrian Bible versions, but not all of them. That was his lame and incompetent excuse for using and promoting the Devil's Bibles! BJU officially endorses the 'English Standard Version' (ESV) of the Bible. I already compared the KJB to the NIV earlier, but now lets see what Philippians 2:6 says in the ESV...

>
> who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped ,

As you clearly see for yourself, there's not a dime's difference between the Devil's NIV and the Devil's ESV, that Bob Jones and their alumni sinfully sanction. You can go to Bob Jones University's website and look what they're selling in their book store, to see what PERversions they are supporting and spreading. BJU has blood on their hands! Moody Bible Institute is even worse, teaching a false gospel of Calvinism, in addition to promoting Devil's Bibles! BJU supports the heresy of Lordship Salvation, by [3]promoting Bible revisions that errantly redefine what it means to repent. Shame on Bob Jones University and their alumni who support Devil's Bibles!!! Someone needs to care! I CARE!! Our GOD CARES!!!

For anyone who has spiritual discernment, and actually gives a flip, it is obvious that Satan entered into the Bible publishing business in the year 1881. That was the year that Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort (two unsaved Anglican ministers affiliated with the Catholic church), presented a new so-called "

and

more accurate

" Greek manuscript to the world. It is upon these Satanic texts that all of today's corrupt translations are based. Today's arrogant, sinfully proud, naive and blinded pastors, clergy, evangelists, Bible professors and church layman, just WON'T LISTEN TO THE TRUTH!!! It's like the movie "THEY LIVE" by John Carpenter, where a man's friend has to literally get into a fistfight and beat him down to make him wear the eye-glasses that will open his eyes to see THE TRUTH!

Harvest Baptist Church On Guam Banned Me From Church

Where dwelleth the love of God? I am their Christian brother, yet they won't allow me to return to attend church services. What does that say about the leaders at Harvest Baptist Church (HBC)? It says they are fakes and shallow in their testimony. It says they don't walk closely with the Lord. I sincerely wanted to be friends with them, but something is wrong with the pastors and staff at Harvest. I don't know what their problem is, but they are hurting the island, spreading hatred and a bad attitude because of all this mess. All they had to do, and still can, is let me come back to church; but they are wicked people with stiff-necked hearts against THE TRUTH. God will be their Judge, not me. I am God's faithful servant, because I am telling THE TRUTH.

Sadly, Harvest uses, sells and promotes Devil's Bibles. I warned them as a friend, but they counted me their enemy, and compelled me to leave. When I became lonely and begged to return, I was laughed at and told by the senior pastor to "Go elsewhere, we'll I have no place as close as Harvest, so it is hard for me to get to church." SHAME on Harvest's cowardly pastors, and don't care about the King James Bible, and merely go through the routines to collect a paycheck. Unlike Harvest, I don't get paid, not a penny, and I never have for serving God, Those bad pastors should all be fired at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in my humble opinion. And I certainly wouldn't recommend their Harvest Baptist Academy school or college to anyone in Maite.

The Bob Jones Crowd Couldn't Care Less About Truth

I say all this with God's unconditional love for everyone dear reader. I don't want to hurt anybody's feelings. I just want to be a blessing, God knows my heart. If you warn pastors, over 98 % of them couldn't care less. They are merely going along with apostate mainstream evangelicalism in America. These are the ones accepting the evil LGBTQ agenda into the churches. [4]These are Devil churches! And if you warn church staff members, they refuse to go against their foolish knucklehead pastors. And the congregation are all victims of an unqualified man of God, who has no business being behind any pulpit, at any place, at any time!!! I am speaking about the [5]shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who forced me out of their church family, for telling the truth as a friend does. They have shunned me away since 2014. After 6 years I am still waiting for them to make things right with me, as I have tried multiple times to do with them. Now it is their turn, but they haven't done anything to invite me back or contact me. What else can I do? The blood is on their hands alone.

Indifference Is A Horrible Sin For Professed Christians

The modern corrupt Bibles that Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and Bob Jones University in South Carolina use, sell, promote and bid Godspeed to, are of the Devil. Look up Philippians 2:6 in any of these modern Bibles, and you will be disgusted. But most disgusting is that they just don't care. Everything is about having fun, playing ping pong, games and trips, while the truth has fallen in the street, and they don't care in the least. TRUTH IS IMPORTANT!!! You have no Biblical right to pick the Bible which best fits you! That is so evil and wrong. God gave us the King James Bible, and that is the only Bible we need!

I keep remembering that if Harvest's stubborn and wicked pastors on Guam don't care about the purity of God's Word, and they don't care about the accuracy of the Gospel, then why would they care about me? I mean, if God cannot speak to their hardened hearts, then how can I? I am telling THE TRUTH!!! In fact, I spent a couple months doing nothing but listening to sermons and gathering resources, in preparation for making this 4:19 hour video titled: '[6]THE BATTLE OF THE AGE' (I hope you will take the time to hear these men of God, and weigh the evidence, if you dare). I promise you in eternity that the BJU gang will be sorry when God gets thru with them. I am preached the truth, but have been ridiculed, laughed at, shunned and belittled by Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, because they are your typical sinfully proud heathen pastors, who know not the loving and forgiving God that I serve.

Sadly, Harvest's pastors don't walk with Jesus, for if they did they would grow a pair and stop being cowards in the debate over God's Word. I am fighting on the Front Lines for Christ, but the Bob Jones crowd are A.W.O.L. from the Battle of the Ages. While they're playing ping pong, I'm getting people saved and preaching the truth. What do they care, they don't! I just earnestly pray to God daily, that one day the tables will be turned around on Harvest, and those uncaring snobs will be on the losing side, for once, reaping tears, loss and sorrow, for what they have shamefully allowed to go untended for several years already. I am not going away.

Even if I move across the world in a couple years (which I'm planning now), I will never stop preaching against Harvest's apostasy, for what they did to hurt me. The crazy thing about all this is that it could end tomorrow, if they would just welcome me back to their church family. The fact that they won't speaks volumes to the spiritually sick, lethargic, incompetent, and cowardly attitude of their church leaders. I wonder if there is a single genuine man's man kind of guy over there at Harvest, or are they all wusses? Harvest seems like wimp city to me! I am a man, and anytime a man from Harvest wants to talk like men, you know where I live.

[7]Evangelist Lester Roloff said it best:

> "Now, there's only one thing we need in America—and that is an old-fashioned real Bible revival! I mean a real BIBLE REVIVAL! It'll straighten out the home, straighten out the children, make the husband act right, put the wife in order; it'll take care of the preacher, the church; I mean it'll fix up the community, I mean it'll stop the Devil dead in his tracks; I mean it'll give victory to God's people—the Word of God!"

1.2.100 We Must All Give Account At The Judgment Seat Of Christ (2020-04-24 22:00)

2nd Corinthians 5:10, " For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad."

Dear reader, you must give account to God one day for your life. If you are not saved, please [1]Get God's Gift while you still can. Albeit, I speak in this article to Christians. God cares about little things. Sadly, the churches today have abandoned the battle of the inspiration of God's Word. I'll get to that more in a moment, but first here is a helpful quote from Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968), about being responsible as a believer, knowing that we must give account someday at the Judgment Seat Of Christ:

> "Some time ago, Dr. Harry A. Ironside, pastor of the great Moody Church in Chicago, preached a remarkable sermon at Bob Jones College about a Christian's obligations and responsibilities. He told a very impressive story which all who heard him can never forget. 'When I was a boy,' Dr. Ironside said, 'I worked for a Christian cobbler. The old man always did good work. There were one or two requirements which seemed to me were a little difficult and I did not think it was quite necessary to do certain things that I had to do as an employee. So I complained to the old man about the work that to me seemed unnecessary in making the shoes. The old saint said, 'Some day at the judgment-seat of Christ I expect to see all those shoes that I have made and I want to be sure that they are done exactly right.' It occurred to me that life would be very different if every person did every task in life with a consciousness that some day he would meet his work again. That attitude of heart would solve most of the problems of human efficiency." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," pp. 143-144; Bob Jones University Press Inc., 1942

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. was a wise man, whose wisdom died with him concerning BJU today. It is tragic that Bob Jones University (BJU) today has abandoned the fighting fundamentalist spirit of their founder. Dr. Jones didn't like the term "fundamentalist," but he recognized the necessity of identifying ourselves as literal Bible-believing Christians. It is difficult to accept the sad reality that the inspiration and purity of the Holy Bible means less to the Bob Jones' crowd than making shoes! Brother Ironside (1876-1951) learned as a lad from an old godly saint about the importance of little things. It is important that we pay attention to little details, because little things affect big things!

> "Now you say, 'Brother Hyles, you make an issue.' You dead sure better know I'll make an issue!" —' [2]BATTLE OF THE AGES ' (MP3, Dr. Jack Hyles, "The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!")

Believers Will Give Account For Sanctioning Corrupt Bibles

The Devil has been incrementally changing the Holy Bible from one generation to the next, so that churches today can hardly recognize the Word of God anymore. Sadly, most fundamental Baptists today deny the inspiration of the King James Bible, errantly claiming that only the original autographs were inspired by God. If that be true, then we don't have God's very pure Words today. Psalms 119:139-142, "My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words. Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it. I am small and despised: yet do not I forget thy precepts. Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the truth."

Carefully notice that the reason why the psalmist (David) loved God's Word is because it is VERY PURE! David would have despised all these hundreds of English Bible versions today! David would have despised have just TWO! God only authored ONE HOLY BOOK!!!

Satan is a beautiful liar!

> "Some of the worst things imaginable have been done with the best intentions." — Professor Alan Grant (actor Sam Neill), Jurassic Park III (2001)

I couldn't agree more with that statement, and history proves it to be very true! The modern Bible-corrupting movement is a perfect example. I don't believe most of these people decide to corrupt the Word of God. I think they are sincere and have good intentions, each time they publish another Bible revision. But the Devil is very cunning, smarter than you and me, and he knows exactly how to infiltrate, corrupt and destroy churches. The entire Bible publishing industry has been hi-jacked by Satan. Pastor Martin DeHaan went to Heaven in 1965, who saw what the Devil was doing long ago...

> “Be on guard against any tampering with the Word, whether disguised as a search for truth, or a scholarly attempt at apparently hidden meanings; and beware of the confusion created by the senseless rash of new versions, translations, editions, and improvements upon the tried and tested Bible of our fathers and grandfathers.” — Pastor M.R. DeHaan, ’
>
> The Tabernacle,’ Pg. 101

We must all give account one day at the Judgment Seat Of Christ. Do you think God won’t make an issue about His Word, which Bob Jones University and hundreds of other apostate institutions today might light of? ...

> “Bob Jones... they make light on the verbal inspiration!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, ’[3]THE REAL BATTLE’ (MP3 sermon)

Right doctrine matters! Using the right Bible matters. It is not your choice! You have no right to your own Bible version, and neither do I. My preaching is none of my business, I am expected to preach the truth! I cannot say what I want, if it strays away from God’s truth! I cannot pick and choose which Bible version best fits me. That is what everyone is doing nowadays, redefining God, rewriting the Bible, living by their own rules instead of acknowledging God in all their ways. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 3:5-7,

“Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.”

I don’t know about you, but I’m going to pay attention to the details, because I care! I realize that someday in eternity I have to give account to God for my life. The Bible teaches in Revelation 14:13 that a Christian’s works

DO FOLLOW THEM.

Revelation 14:13, “ And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them. ” We will face our works in Heaven! My work is promoting the King James Bible as the only inspired Word of God; the work of the Bob Jones’ crowd is promoting 39 different Bible versions, none of which they say are inspired!!!

1.2.101 My Thoughts On The Coronavirus Pandemic (2020-04-25 03:30)

Ephesians 6:12, “ For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.”

I am not glad that people are dying, God forbid. I did the math yesterday. There are over 7 billion people on the planet, but I just used the figure of 7,000,000,000. The average human lifespan is 70 years. If you divide 7 billion by 70 you get 100 million. Then divide that number by 365 days in a year. That means every day in this world, on average, approximately 273,972 people die!!! Think about that. If you’ve been following the news closely, then you know that [1]many of the alleged Coronavirus death claims are FALSE! That means the Coronavirus at least to some extent is being falsely hyped.

> “The corona scare has absolutely nothing to do with health and safety and everything to do with money, politics and power. And almost everybody wants in on the action. And almost no one gives a tinker’s dam about Liberty.” —Pastor Chuck Baldwin - ’[2]The Biggest Global History Hoax’ | [3]MP3

I fully agree with Pastor Baldwin. We are being enslaved to a New World Order police state. After the 911 attacks we saw a police state rise up from the aftermath of 911. The Department Of Homeland Security was created in 2002. The unconstitutional Patriot Acts were passed because of 911. Two major wars ensued in Iraq and Afghanistan, who were both blamed by the presidential Bush administration for the attacks. TSA thugs became the norm in all U.S. airports since 911.

It was obvious to any objective thinking patriot American, that 911 was just the beginning of the new police state, and we all wondered what next? Well, this Coronavirus pandemic in 2020 is an Orwellian nightmare come true, which is a dream come true for the Communist and Satanic powers behind the subversion of our country and culture. I am firmly convinced that the Coronavirus media scare is all a big hoax, intended to further the government’s control over our lives, by the same culprits who caused 911.

[4]Dr. Annie Bukacek has verified this deception in her own home state of Montana. Folks, their locking down the country over this, taking away our liberty, and many of the deaths have nothing to do with the virus! With 273,972 people on average dying each and every day, there’s plenty of deaths to deceptively blame on the Coronavirus!!! This is one reason why many people, including myself, think this whole pandemic is a big hoax! The virus is real. Some of the deaths are real. But the media hype is intentional. The lockdown is intentional. I guarantee you that FORCED VACCINATIONS will be coming at some point. [5]I fully expect billionaire [6]Bill Gates to develop a [7]digital vaccine, likely to be placed on the right hand or the forehead (Revelation 13:15-17).

This Crisis Might Cause Americans To Be More Thankful

Psalms 119:67 and 71, “ Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word.

...It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes. ” I see some GOOD things resulting from this Coronavirus. The American people have been spitting in God’s face for the past 75 years since World War II ended. As difficult as it may be to accept, Satanists are in control of America! That is why movies and [8]music videos are filled with perversion, adultery, violence and all manner of creepiness, gore, blood and evil. Their goal is to destroy the traditional family unit. The LGBTQ agenda has nothing to do with gay rights. The government couldn’t care less about homosexuals. [9]This is all about the government taking control over your life. Remember, Satan is the god of this evil world (2nd Corinthians 4:4).

Satan’s goal is to achieve a Godless Global Totalitarian Communist Police State! They are using this Coronavirus pandemic to accomplish it. It is the typical CRISIS, REACTION, SOLUTION method of deceiving the masses. They create the CRISIS, the masses of people REACT, and then we beg for their SOLUTION (which I guarantee you will be forced vaccinations and a police state). Expect this pandemic to become much worse folks! Americans are starting to fight back, which suggests to me that the Globalists may up their game! I can imagine the U.S. military marching in U.S. cities, shooting on sight if this continues. If the Coronavirus situation does improve, things will never be the same again. Restaurants are moving tables farther apart, using disposable paper menus, and asking customers to order food on their mobile devices. Paranoia will stay for a long time.

We need a BIBLE REVIVAL in the United States! We need to get our families back into the Holy Bible. I’m talking about the inspired King James Bible!!!

> “Now, there’s only one thing we need in America—and that is an old-fashioned real Bible revival! I mean a real BIBLE REVIVAL! It’ll straighten out the home, straighten out the children, make the husband act right, put the wife in order; it’ll take care of the preacher, the church; I mean it’ll fix up the community, I mean it’ll stop the Devil dead in his tracks; I mean it’ll give victory to God’s people—the Word of God!”
> —Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982), “ [10]The Book That Makes The Difference!”

All across America, as of April 17, 2020 people are getting angry about the lockdown, pressuring their leaders to [11]end this tyrannical shutdown of our lives . People are getting scared. Death is on everyone's minds right now. This is the perfect time to preach the Gospel like never before, when people's hearts and minds are receptive. Every Christian in this hour of crisis should be sharing the Gospel of free grace with others. This is a grand opportunity to go soulwinning in whatever capacity you still can.

The worse that this pandemic becomes, the more it is going to humble many Americans. It is about time! I am sick of this proud, arrogant, stiff-necked, untoward generation of ingrates who mock and disobey God's Word. We have been a spoiled rotten nation for the longest. Forgive me dear reader for saying what I'm about to say, if it offends you, but it would be good for our nation spiritually if this pandemic got much worse! Americans are so unappreciative nowadays. We take everything for granted, having a sinful entitlement attitude. My friend, no one owes you anything! God owes you nothing!

Americans Have Been Tempting God's Judgment For The Longest

Yet, look at all the blessings bestowed upon our blessed nation by a loving and good God! So what do we do in return? We fornicate outside of the God-given institution of a legal marriage. Then we murder our children when an unwanted pregnancy happens. If the child doesn't get murdered, he grows up in a broken home with no father, or a dozen boyfriend figures over the years. That child is then lied to day after day in a government public school, told the lie that there is no God, and the lie that he or she evolved from stardust and a primitive ape-like creature billions of years ago, and then lie that premarital intimacy is acceptable, and also the lie that homosexuality is normal and okay to do. And then when that misguided child grows up to be a monster, criminal or liability of society, we spends billions of dollars in laboratories, universities and government agencies trying to figure out what went wrong! We are truly insane folks! The answer is the Word of God! We've got to get back to [12]THE BOOK THAT MAKES THE DIFFERENCE!!!

I don’t want to see people die, but for the longest we’ve been pushing God’s patience in this nation. We’ve been legally murdering millions of human beings by the awful procedure of abortion, since 1973. Well it is not legal with God! Exodus 20:13, “

Thou shalt not kill. ” No one has a right to take the life of another human being! A child is a person, just like you and me, and they have every right to enjoy life. You were the irresponsible one who got pregnant. I am so sick of hearing the rape excuse. The truth is that 99.9 % of all pregnancies have nothing to do with rape, but I digress from the topic at hand. We deserve God’s judgment upon America! And may I say, if the Luciferian elite were willing to allow Americans to murder 60,000,000 humans in the womb, do you really think they have any reluctance to murder 100,000,000 in this Coronavirus pandemic? They will if they want to, if God permits them that power! Remember, nothing happens without God’s consent.

I Don’t Believe Coronavirus Is An Act Of God

Having said that, I DON’T believe that the Coronavirus is an act of God, as was the Influenza Pandemic of 1918. I believe this is intentional modern bio-warfare. [13]We now KNOW that 911 was an INSIDE JOB, and that the Globalists masterminded the whole thing. Did you see their [14]’All Seeing Eye’ at the Ground Zero Memorial, boasting that they did it? The perpetrators behind 911 have never been brought to justice, and they never will, not with the U.S. Justice Department protecting them, refusing to even investigate the matter! The U.S Justice Department even went as far as to give former President George W. Bush and Vice President Dick Cheney immunity from all future prosecution for invading Iraq on the basis of a LIE! They [15]murdered 1,455,590 innocent citizens of Iraq!!!

I don’t claim to have any special insight into the future (except the written Word of God), but I have been a good student of the developing New World Order since I started my online ministry in 2002. The information I have learned is mind-boggling! After 911, I knew something bigger was coming, and I believe THIS IS IT!!! Perhaps this crisis will be the very thing that brings BIBLE REVIVAL to our churches. I've always said that only one of two things will compel American to repent toward God—a Bible Revival or God's Judgment. God judges a nation by giving them over to a captor! The churches are being deceived by Satan (Revelation 12:9). The fact that they accept dozens of different Bible revisions proves this to be true! The fact that they support manmade Zionism today is proof of that.

I don't think God sent this Coronavirus, but I do think He has allowed the masses to be deceived by the Devil, because we have rejected THE LOVE OF THE TRUTH. 2nd Thessalonians 1:9-10, "Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. " That 'TRUTH' is the Gospel of free grace, through faith alone in the death, burial and bodily resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ (1st Corinthians 15:1-4; Romans 1:16).

> "War is just a racket. A racket is best described, I believe, as something that is not what it seems to the majority of people. Only a small inside group knows what it is about. It is conducted for the benefit of the very few at the expense of the masses."

1.2.102 Christians Ought Not Advocate Homosexual Rights (2020-04-25 13:30)

Romans 1:25-27, " Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen. For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet."

I was shocked last year to hear the new chairman of the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC), Pastor J.D. Greear, encourage Christians to "[1]stand up and be among the fiercest advocates for the preservation of the dignity and the rights of LGBTQ people." That is as wicked as hell! Kindly, J.D. Greear is pulling on the same rope as the Devil. This is the shameful president of the SBC, representing over 15,000,000 American churchgoers. Do you think God is supportive of the rights of homosexuals? You are very naive of the truth if you do!

What saith the Scripture? Jude 1:7, "

Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. " Sexual sins brought God judgment upon Sodom and Gomorrah!

Granted God destroyed Sodom and four other cities in the plains of Sodom for numerous sins. Ezekiel 16:49, "Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy." The works of the flesh are a package deal (Galatians 5:19-21). Please understand that I did not write this blog post to bash homosexuals, God forbid. I don't believe in doing that to anyone! Jesus Christ died on the cross to pay for the sins of all humanity (1st John 2:2). Salvation is freely offered by God to everyone (John 3:16). If you desire to be saved, it is a completely free gift from God (Romans 5:15; 6:23), paid for by Jesus' precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). God loves homosexuals just as much as He loves good Christians, but He favors the righteous!

I simply wrote this article to express my Christian view that homosexuality is a sin. That is what the Holy Bible teaches (if you have a trustworthy King James Bible that hasn't been corrupted by the Devil - Romans 1:25). I wrote this article to encourage other believers not to go along with the Devil's LGBTQ agenda. In Canada, laws have already been passed, which make it a crime for Christian leaders to encourage parents to fight against the LGBTQ agenda preying upon children. We are at war with darkness! Please watch:

[2]SPEECHLESS: SILENCING THE CHRISTIANS

I love everybody, and I would never incite hatred toward any group of people, for ANY reason. However, as Christians we must never accept the ideologies of the homosexual movement. Proverbs 29:27, "An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked." I am being careful how I write, because Facebook and social media have been removing pages and banning members for speaking out against homosexuality. I am not trying to be mean or abusive in any way, God knows my heart; but if you think it is "abusive" to proclaim THE TRUTH that homosexuality is a sin according to the Holy Bible (Leviticus 20:13), it is only because you are not right with God.

As Proverbs 29:27 says (which I just quoted), the wicked and the just (righteous) will NEVER be able to co-exist in harmony. It is very wrong for the government to force the homosexual agenda on all children in the public schools, forcing Christian families to be subjected to unbiblical, offensive, unnatural and wicked philosophies. We are at war in America over morality. No one has a “right” to force IMMORALITY on children, but that is exactly that the government and courts are doing. God is angry (Psalms 7:11).

I live on Guam where homosexuality is flourishing

, and it is a shame for any people.

Proverbs 14:34, “ Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.” The world is the enemy of God (James 4:4).

1.2.103 You Don’t Have To “Ask” Jesus To Save you (2020-04-25 23:00)

1st Corinthians 1:21, “ For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.”

Did you know that you don’t have to “ask” Jesus to save you to go to Heaven? “’What?,’ you say. Yes, you heard right, you don’t have to “ask” for the Lord to save you to get to Heaven. The reason why is because God already told us what to do to be saved, and that is to simply BELIEVE on the Lord Jesus Christ. If you believe that Jesus died on the cross for your sins, and that He was buried, and you believe Christ bodily resurrected from the dead, you are saved. Jesus said in John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” Acts 16:30-31, “And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.” Jesus is the Son of God, the Christ, Who paid the price for our sins on the cross. Jesus was buried and then raised-up from the dead three days later.

Prayer Is Not necessary To Be Saved

Certainly, you may pray a sinner's prayer to accompany your faith, but it is your heart's trust in the Lord that saves you. It is one's faith that causes God to work the supernatural miracle of regeneration, and not our prayer or human will in any way. John 1:12-13, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." Salvation is completely of God. Our part is simply to believe the Gospel. Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel." Salvation is a supernatural miracle of God in response to a person's faith in the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Call'

In Romans 10:13 Does Not Mean To Pray

The word "call" in Romans 10:13 does NOT mean "to pray" as most people think. Rather, it is the Greek word epikaleomai and means "to entitle," that is, "give the right to" (by implication, to invoke"). My friend, God wants to save you more than you could ever comprehend. 2nd Peter 3:9 says God is not willing for any to perish, but for all men to come to repentance. Your salvation has already been paid for by Jesus' precious blood. 1st Peter 1:18-19, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot." Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15, 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9).

All you have to do is give God the right to save you. That's what the word "call" means in Romans 10:13. God's holiness cannot permit any sinner to enter into Heaven. So God in His wondrous love made provision for our redemption through the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross. There are no exceptions to the rule. God is bound by His Word. God cannot save you unless you let Him. As strange as that may seem, it is 100 % Biblical. God has given to you a freewill to choose for yourself.

Although God can do anything (omnipotent), there are certain things that God simply WILL NOT do, because they would violate His holy character. So many people are foolish idiots, who believe that a loving God will let them slide and enter into Heaven without being born-again. Jesus exclaimed in John 3:5 that unless a person becomes born-again (regenerated) by the Holy Spirit of God, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God. Jesus warned that "the Scripture cannot be broken"

(John 10:35b). Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort; whereas, Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His dear only begotten Son on the cross.

Heresy Has Crept Into Most Of The Churches

I have sadly watched over the decades, heresy has crept into our fundamental Baptist churches by the hour. There are all sorts of unbiblical, dangerous and infectious false doctrines, which have crept into most churches today. Salvation is easy, and anyone who comes along saying it is hard is a liar. [1]Billy Graham makes salvation hard, requiring lost sinners to COUNT THE COST and PAY THE PRICE to be saved. My friend, Jesus paid the price and there is no " cost

for us to count. Would you tell your child that a birthday gift will them? Kindly said, Billy Graham was a fool in his theology! Salvation is absolutely, freely and completely by faith alone in the death, burial and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Here is our text Bible passage again from 1st Corinthians 1:21, " For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." Notice that there is no requirement to pray; but rather, simply to just believe .

In the magnificent Gospel of John, we find the word "BELIEVE" mentioned 85 times, without any requirement to pray, or give up sinful behavior, or be water baptized, join a religion, or anything else. The Bible tells us to simply believe to be born-again! It is that simple dear friend. Do you believe? I sure do! My complete hope for eternal life is solely in Jesus Christ, because of what He did on the cross to pay for my sins. I believe He died for my sins, and was buried, and then miraculously resurrected three days later, and is alive in Heaven today, able "TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE

(1st Corinthians 1:21b).

You don't need to ASK Jesus to save you, because He is already freely offering it to you. All you have to do is receive His free gift by faith. The Lord can read your mind. The moment God sees that you have placed your reliance (trust) in His only begotten Son—understanding that He paid for your sins on the cross, was buried, and raised up three days later—God gives you eternal life! Even a small child can be saved. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. "

1.2.104 There Is No Salvation Apart From Jesus' Precious Name (2020-04-26 03:00)

Acts 4:10-12, " Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved."

When Hollywood actors and famous people are asked if they believe in God, they often shirk off the question, attempting to take a middle of the road approach to avoid incriminating one's self as being a Christian. Most of them claim to be agnostic (unsure whether God exists or not). It is common to hear celebrities digress by talking about the god in all of us (new age ideologies). Buddhism is also popular in Hollywood, which is a false religion that cannot produce the new birth Biblically required to get to Heaven.

God cannot save you unless you receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full-payment for your sins. If you reject Christ, then God cannot save you because there is NO OTHER WAY to be saved. That is what the Bible means by ye are fallen from grace.

Galatians 5:4, "

Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.

" That doesn't mean you can lose God's salvation. For a child of God to lose salvation, God would have to stop being God. Once saved, always saved! I like to say instead:

If saved, always saved!

" Unfortunately, most people who profess to be Christians are not! I just read last week in the news that [1]25 % of professed Christians in England don't even believe Jesus resurrected from the dead! They cannot be saved and deny Christ's bodily resurrection!!! Only a truly born-again person is a Christian according to the Word of God (John 3:1-7).

To " fall from grace

" means that a person has rejected God's provision in Christ Jesus to be saved, and there remains no other sacrifice for sins. It's Jesus or Hell friend.

Acts 4:10-12 plainly teaches that salvation is found ONLY in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. If you try to enter into Heaven some other way, the Bible calls you " a thief and a robber

" in John 10:1b. Jesus is the only door into Heaven (John 10:9). Believe the Gospel to be saved!

Jesus Christ died on the cross to pay for the sins of all humanity (1st John 2:2). Salvation is freely offered by God to everyone (John 3:16). God is no respecter of persons, He desires " that all should come to repentance " (2nd Peter 3:9b). That includes homosexuals and the vilest of sinners, criminals and inhumane monsters. The Gospel can transform the worst of men into the godliest of saints, through the renewing of one's mind with [2]THE BOOK THAT MAKES THE DIFFERENCE!!!

If you desire to be saved, it is a completely free gift from God (Romans 5:15; 6:23), paid for by Jesus' precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19).

You don't have to ask Jesus to save you, because He is already offering it to you! You simply need to receive His free gift by faith in Him alone. Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Just believe Oh sinner and you are saved!

[3]

John 3:16-17, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."

1.2.105 Keep Thy Heart With All Diligence (2020-04-26 16:27)

Proverbs 14:14, " The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself."

Anyone is capable of committing any sin under the right circumstances. That is why we are told in

Proverbs 4:23, " Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." Our text Bible verse says the BACKSLIDER is filled with "HIS OWN WAYS." In contrast, Job said in Job 13:15, "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him." God created the human race, so we should listen to what God has to say in the Holy Bible. Proverbs 20:24, "Man's goings are of the LORD; how can a man then understand his own way?" Job 34:21, "For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings." Those are precious Scriptures. We are taught that a man CANNOT understand his own way. Please don't miss that truth

—WE NEED THE BIBLE!!! What saith the Scripture? This Scripture passage will help us to understand more...

James 1:22-24, "

But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was*.

But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

As we clearly see, the Word of God reveals our true human nature, showing us the truth about ourselves as needy sinners. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. offers this wisdom:

"The psalmist said, 'A man's heart deviseth his way; but the Lord directeth his steps.' This is a most significant statement in this day when ambitious dictators are endeavoring to build empires. Through the centuries man has tried to run his own affairs. What a mess he has made! Alexander the Great could conquer a world, but could not conquer himself. Napoleon left a path of blood as his army marched to victory and then to defeat. God is running this universe. Man cannot run it. Of course, there is the directive as well as the permissive will of God. God is not always directing the affairs of men, but God permits men who are in rebellion against Him to have their own way for a season." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," page 32-33; Bob Jones University Press, ©1942

The Bible says when we GO OUR OWN WAY, leaving the Bible, we FORGET our true selves. This emphasizes the importance of abiding continually in the Word of God. This is why the psalmist David said:

Psalms 1:1-3, " Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. "

Dear reader, you and I won't make it spiritually if we fail to live in the Holy Bible! We need to hear from God's Word every day!!! I only use the inspired King James Bible. All of the modern Bible revisions have been tampered with by the Devil. You simply cannot trust the Bible publishing industry anymore. Greed has corrupted them! The love of money is truly the root of all evil (1st Timothy 6:10). Our text verse says the backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways, but God wants us to acknowledge Him in all our ways.

Proverbs 3:5-7, " Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil. "

"Never let your guard down!" —Pastor Hyles, "[1]When You Have To Stand Alone"

The heathen world does not fear or regard God. They don't care about what the Bible teaches. God's holy Commandments means nothing to them! The world makes their own decisions, based upon their own human rational, without trusting the wisdom of God's Word in the Bible. That is why the world is in such a mess today, and always has been! As believers, we are taught to abide in the Word of God day and night, to " Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:" (Philippians 2:5). Even a Christian can start thinking like the Devil. That is why Jesus said to the apostle Peter in Matthew 16:23,

Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

We must always be on guard against wrong thinking creeping into our mind. Living in the Scriptures will help us to stay on the right path.

2nd Timothy 3:16-17, "

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.

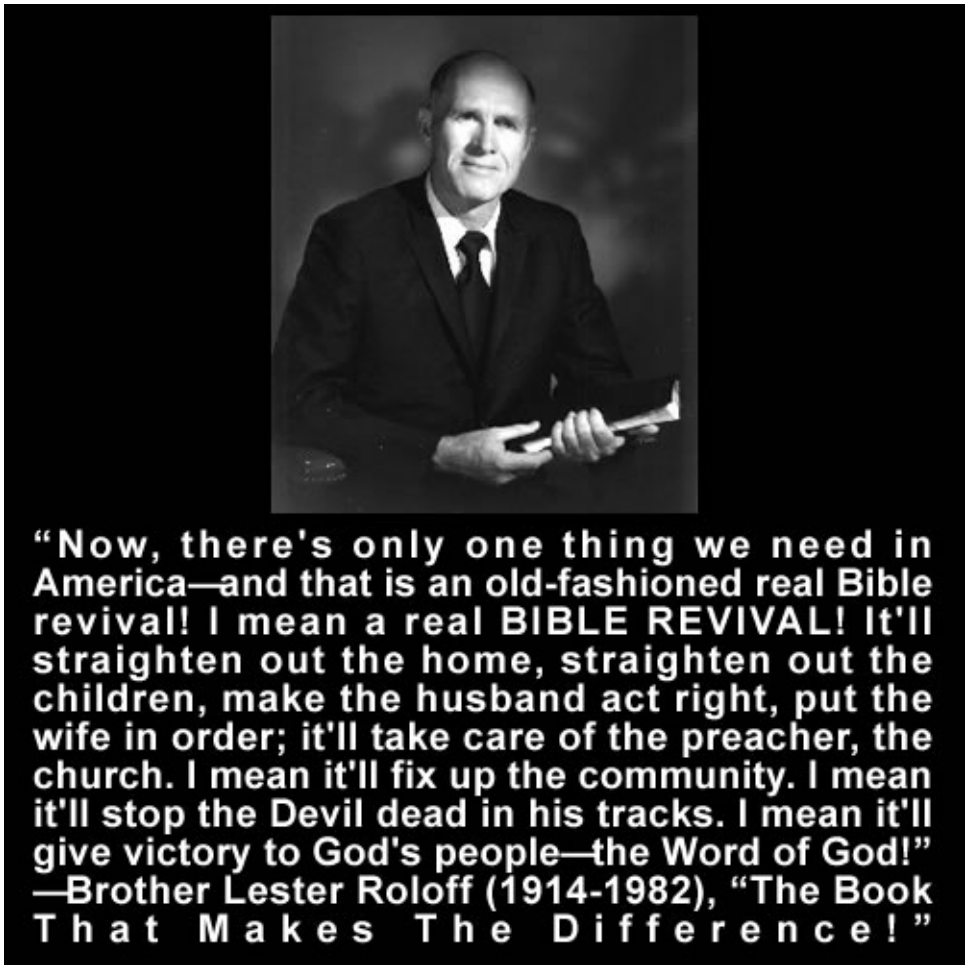
- DOCTRINE shows us the right path.



- REPROOF shows us when we're getting off the right path.

- CORRECTION shows us how to get back on the right path

- INSTRUCTION shows us how to stay on the right path.

As churchgoers everywhere are leaving the King James Bible, embracing the Devil's counterfeit Bible revisions, they are becoming DECEIVED! Revelation 12:9 says that the Devil is deceiving the whole world, which includes apostate churches. Jesus is called " the Word of God

" in Revelation 19:13b. So when churches leave the King James Bible, they are turning away from God's Word, becoming apostate. The backslider does his own thing, follows his own rules, does whatever he wants when he feels like it, without regard for the inspired Word of God. May it not be so said among us as God's children dear reader.

"If you will give God your heart He will 'comb the kinks out of your head."' —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," page 47; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

1.2.106 Catholic Priest And Lutheran Minister Cannot Forgive Sin (2020-04-27 18:00)

Luke 5:18-20, "And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him. And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus. And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee. And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?"

Jesus forgave sin, as only God can do. This is Scriptural evidence of Jesus' deity—that He is almighty God. The unsaved scribes and Pharisees doubted Jesus. They did not believe that the Lord could forgive sin, but they were very wrong. One thing that the scribes and Pharisees DID get right is that only God can forgive sin! There are hundreds of thousands of Catholic priests and Lutheran ministers, who arrogantly and sinfully claim to have the God-given supernatural ability to forgive people's sins. They are false prophets!

The Lutheran Minister Cannot Forgive Sins

Here is what the website says at the Evangelical Lutheran Synod in Minnesota:

> Pastor Said What?!!!: How Can a Pastor Declare Forgiveness of Sins, When Only God Forgives?

The man put away his book and started chatting with the passenger next to him. After a while he asked, “So what is it that you do?” The passenger, who happened to be a Lutheran pastor, replied, “I forgive sins!”

How do you like his answer? There are many who would take issue with it. “Only God can forgive sins,” they might say. “No one—not even a pastor—has the power to forgive sins.” But that isn’t exactly true. Pastors do have the power to forgive sins. [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [1]Evangelical Lutheran Synod

No they don’t! How arrogant! How blasphemous! How damnable! It is wrong for any human being to claim the power to forgive sins. God does not give men the power to forgive sins. Even the wicked scribes and Pharisees knew this to be true! Not one verse in the entire inspired Word of God records anyone ever having the power to forgive sin, except Jesus Christ. Luke 5:24, “

But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

” Only God can forgive sins, and Jesus is God!!!

The Catholic Priest Cannot Forgive Sins

Roman and Orthodox (Russian)
Catholicism are of the Devil.

How Can A Priest Forgive Sin?

I agree that Jesus can forgive our sins because he is our great high priest. But the Catholic faith says that Jesus' priesthood was also given to men so that they could continue his earthly work of forgiving sins*.

SOURCE: [2]Catholic Answers

The Catholic priest and Lutheran minister falsely claim the power to forgive sins, but they absolutely don't have that ability. They also claim to have the God-given supernatural power to deny forgiveness of sins to the impenitent, but again they do not. We are commanded to forgive everyone! This is clear from the words of Jesus in Matthew 6:15, "But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses." Ephesians 4:32 reads, "...forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you." I don't have to like someone, but I do have to love them. I don't have to associate with someone who hurts me, nor do I have to tell them I have forgiven them, but in my heart I must forgive them. Forgiveness is not for them, it is for me. Forgiveness is letting an offense go into God's hands for judgment (Romans 12:19-21).

Only God Can Forgive Sins

Forgiveness of sins can only come through faith in Jesus Christ. Romans 5:1-2, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:

By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God."

In other words, even if a minister or priest wants to forgive someone, they CANNOT if that person has no faith in Christ as Savior. Likewise, no Lutheran minister or Catholic priest can deny forgiveness to someone who is trusting upon the blood of Jesus to forgive them. I'm simply saying that forgiveness is out of the minister's or priest's hands.

Jesus Christ died on the cross to pay for everyone's sins. Therefore, forgiveness of sins is a free gift, that we simply receive by faith. If you are not a Christian and want to have your sins forgiven, simply come to God as a needy sinner and receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. If you are a Christian, all of your sins are already forgiven, so it is just a matter of CONFESSING your sins to God, to restore fellowship with the Lord. 1st John 1:7, " But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin."

Romans 1:16 tells us that the Gospel is the POWER unto salvation. 1st John 1:9,

"If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. " Carefully notice that GOD is the one who forgives sins, and not the Lutheran minister or Catholic priest.

Listen friend, you can confess sins to your Lutheran minister or Catholic priest 'til the cows come home if you want, but that won't get your sins forgiven. Only God can forgive sin!

[3]

Matthew 23:8-9, " But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren. And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven."

A Common Misinterpretation Of John 20:23

John 20:21-23, " Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost: Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained."

John 20:23 is used by the Lutheran minister and the Catholic priest to claim they have power to forgive your sins. I want you to notice carefully here that the EXACT same Greek word “aphiemi,” which is used in John 20:23, is also used in Matthew 6:12, “And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.”

The word literally means,

“

to send forth

(i.e., to

let go

). When we forgive our debtors, we let it go.

Again, in Matthew 6:14 and 15 we read, **“

For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

” These are from the EXACT same Greek word

found in John 20:23. Hence, ministers and priests have no more ability to pardon other people’s sins than laymen do. Clearly, we have been lied to by Lutheran ministers and Catholic Priests!

No minister or priest can make you right with God. If you commit a sin against me, I am commanded by God to forgive (aphiemi) you; but that doesn’t mean you’re now saved and on your way to Heaven, nor does it mean you are right with God.

I cannot save you or make you right with God, you MUST go through Jesus Christ. Jesus is the ONLY Mediator between God and men —“ For there is one God, and ONE MEDIATOR between God and men, the man Christ Jesus ”

(1st Timothy 2:5).

Clearly, the forgiveness offered from one human to another CANNOT substitute one’s need for forgiveness from God. The Word of God is clear that ONLY God can forgive sin, “...who can forgive sins but God only?” (Mark 2:7). So what was Jesus saying to the apostles in John 20:23? Since Jesus spoke about people NOT being forgiven, there is only one thing He could have been talking about—The Gospel. Only faith in the Gospel can remit one’s sins (Romans 5:1).

1.2.107 The Righteous Are As Bold As A Lion (2020-04-28 00:30)

Proverbs 28:1, “ The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.”

I love that Bible verse! The wicked person flees when no man pursueth. That means evildoers have to look over their shoulder all the time, paranoid that they’ll either get caught. The person who does right can walk in complete boldness, fearing nothing. I would infinitely rather die as a righteous man for doing right, than to suffer as an evildoer! What saith the Scripture? 1st Peter 4:15-16, “ But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men’s matters. Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf.” I would ten billion times rather die for my Christian faith, than suffer for hurting another human being.

I hate evildoers! I don't hate people, I hate the sin. We must never accept the sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin.

Psalms 97:10-12,

"Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

Rejoice in the LORD, ye righteous; and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

Crime does pay short-term, otherwise people wouldn't commit it; but it never pays in the long-term! Ecclesiastes 8:12, " Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him: But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God. " Our walk with God should be strong enough as believers, that we do right when no one else is looking, because WE FEAR GOD. I love something that Dr. Jack Hyles said:

> "If you want to never do anything that is terribly wicked, then you never do anything that is slightly wicked." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[1]Unjust In The Least."

By God's grace, I want to think right, live right and do right. If we DO GOOD it will BE GOOD! Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) said that truth! Sometimes doing the right thing is frustrating, and may not be convenient, but it pleases our righteous God.

Psalms 97:12,

Rejoice in the LORD, ye righteous; and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness. " What a beautiful Bible verse! We are supposed to be thankful at the remembrance of God's holiness! I am so thankful that we have a just, faithful and good God! Aren't you? What if the Devil were more powerful than God? I am so thankful that when all is said in done in this life and world, that our holy and righteous God will make everything right.

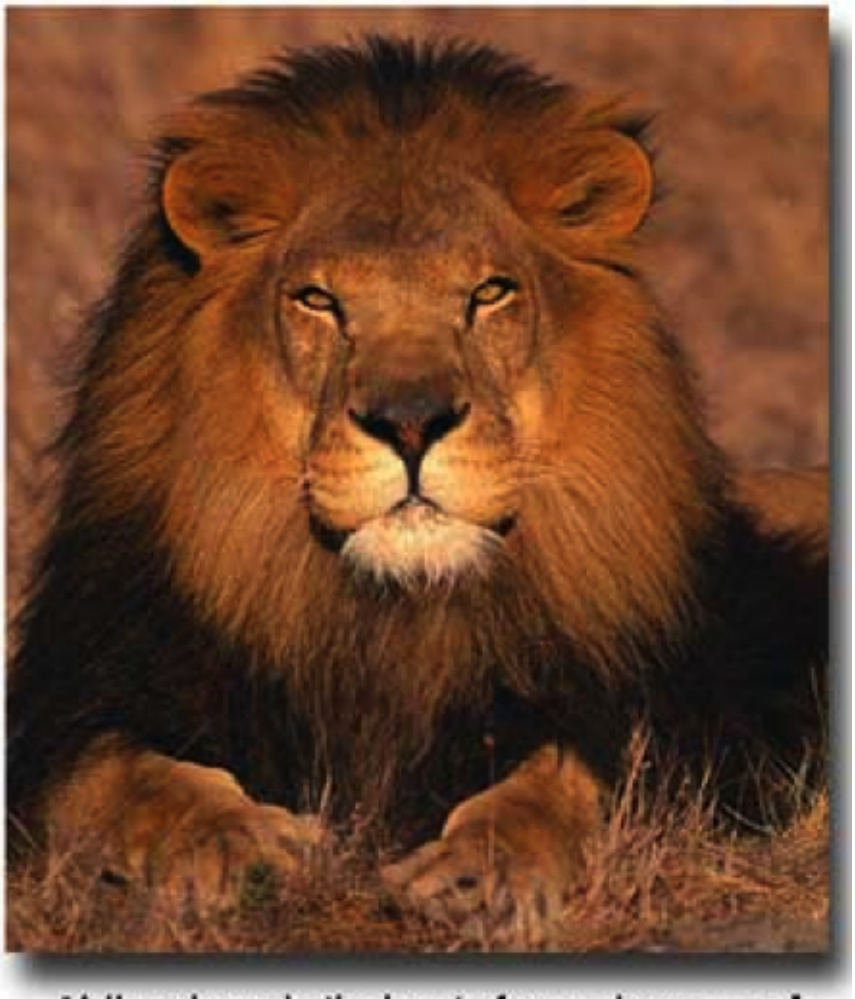
I love something that the brilliant author Mark Twain (1835-1910) said:

"If you tell the truth, you don't have to remember anything." —Mark Twain

What a simple but profound statement! If we always tell the truth, we never have to cover our lies. I want to always live in such an honest and upright way, that if asked questions I never have to lie. I learned something that I thought was fascinating from a police detective. He said the way to find out if someone is lying is to simply keep asking questions. If someone is lying, then at some point their story will change, because they have to lie to cover-up for the lies. But if a person is telling the truth, you can ask them questions for three months and their story will never change. The way to avoid ending up in a difficult situation like that is to always DO RIGHT! Do right dear reader, though the stars fall, DO RIGHT!!!

The Righteous Lord Loveth Righteousness

The primary evidence of being saved is the indwelling Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24), who creates a desire in us for righteousness. 1st John 3:7-8, " Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil." That doesn't mean someone is not saved who lives in unrepentant sin. There is much confusion and debate over this subject in churches today. Christians don't always do the right thing. In fact, sometimes believers commit horrible crimes, just like unbelievers do at times; but there should be a desire inside the breast of every born-again child of God, that hates evil. I hate the wrong things I have done in my life. I am not proud of them. I wish I could go back and undo them, and always do the right thing! That is the Holy Spirit in me!!!



Psalms 11:7, " For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright." I want God to be proud of me! I want my heavenly Father's face to shine toward me, bragging on me like He did Job. I want to work as hard as I can, in the Lord's strength, to influence as many people with the Gospel of free grace as I can, so there will be a bunch of saved souls waiting to greet me in Heaven someday (Daniel 12:3). God loves when His children do right! No one ever gets away with anything. I heard recently that the conviction rate for murderers is about 50 %. Most people who commit horrible crimes are never brought to justice. The culprits behind the 911 attack on the World Trade Center in New York City have never been brought to justice. The corrupt U.S. Justice Department has turned a blind eye to the crimes, but Ecclesiastes 5:8 and 12:14 says they won't get away with it. I thank God for those passages of Holy Scripture!!!

The Upright Christian Can Stand As Bold As A Lion

The righteous are as bold as a lion. What a beautiful truth! When I attended Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993), I gladly served the Lord voluntarily in the 'B bus ministry' for seven years in Chicago. I drove a church bus for four of those years, which is how I sustained my permanent neck injury when rear-ended by another bus n 1992. We had a slum apartment building on our 76-3 bus route. This particular building was known for drugs and roughnecks. One afternoon there was a police raid and dozens of cops swarmed in on the building. One of our faithful teenage girls stood firm in front of the building, while everyone else who lived there was fleeing. The police asked her the question, "Why aren't you running?" She confidently replied, "I'm not doing anything wrong, so why would I run?" That is a perfect example of our text Bible verse from

Proverbs 28:1, " The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion."

I don’t know about you, but I am determined to always do the right thing. I know I won’t always do the right thing, because I am a sinner by nature, but at any given moment I CAN choose to do what is right (1st Corinthians 10:13). It feels good to live right. When I surf the internet, I always assume that thousands of people are monitoring my activity, because some of them are. Everything we do online is recorded, shared, stored, monitored, analyzed and archived. There is no such thing as internet privacy! I never say anything in private that I wouldn’t want everyone to know, because people talk. It is in our nature. James 3:8, “

But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

” Every Christian believer ought to purpose in our heart to think right, live right and do right! That way we can confidently walk upright everywhere we go, at all times without guilt or worry, being AS BOLD AS A LION in the fear of God!

1.2.108 How To Have A Happy Godly Home (2020-04-28 04:30)

Acts 13:49-52, "

And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region. But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium. And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost."

I wish I could live my life over. I have made so many foolish decisions in my life as a Christian. I am now 53 years old. One thing I have learned in my life is the importance of centering one's family around [1]a local Bible-believing, soulwinning, sin-hating, Christ-honoring, New Testament church. Dear reader, I want what is best for you and your family in the Lord! I know what I am talking about! I receive many e-mails from hurting people with broken marriages, ruined homes and all sorts of personal struggles with sin. The common denominator in all of them is that none of them faithfully attend a local Bible-believing church. They have been going it alone over the years, and their ship has wrecked on the rocks of life. Oh friend, you need church, and so do I!

It is God's will for every believer to assemble together with other local believers. That is what a church is. I strongly recommend that you read Pastor Jack Hyles' excellent book titled, what else, "[2]THE CHURCH." Are there any perfect churches? Of course not, but I'll guarantee you that the church is better on its worst day, than the world is on its best day! Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001) had this to say during a sermon invitation:

> “If you want a church like this, we invite you to join our church, but I want to warn you—We can’t stand close inspection, just like you can’t—but if you as a sinner will come and join the rest of us sinners, we’ll all try to be better people together!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from the great sermon, “ [3]I Find No Fault In This Man! ”

It is unfortunate that the churches are turning apostate, turning away from the inspired King James Bible, embracing the Devil’s counterfeit Bible revisions that [4]attack Jesus’ deity. Jesus’ name is called “the Word of God” (Revelation 19:13). To have another Bible is to have “ another Jesus ” (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Please stick with the King James Bible! Brother Lester Roloff warns everyone to avoid the modern Bible versions in this sermon excerpt I called:

“

[5]The King James Bible is all we need!

” If you’d like to hear the complete sermon, it is titled: [6]The Book That Makes The Difference!

> “I promised God years ago I would be honest with Him.” —[7]I Shall Know Him

Dr. Hyles mentions in the sermon that he heard Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) say something that helped him. Brother Rice said he decided to keep no secrets from God, to tell God exactly how he felt. I love that! That is exactly what I do. I often tell God that I don’t think my life is fair, but I know He is fair, and I am not complaining, and I trust His wisdom even though I am frustrated. I will not get bitter at God! I promise you dear friend that if you could see the whole picture, you’d understand why God does things the ways that He does. I don’t understand why things are the way they are, but I trust my sweet Lord Jesus!

“

We’ve gonna have to get back to THE BOOK!

’ [8]The Wisdom Of The Word ’

I encourage you reader to join a local church if you’re not already. Get your children in a Sunday School class. Every married couple needs a pastor. You need a church to grow with, and suffer together, and go soulwinning together. I’m not talking about getting close on a personal level to people in a church, that is not a good idea. Tall fences make good neighbours! I am talking about Bible-preaching! You need spiritual direction in your life. Staying home and listening to sermons cannot substitute for fellowship with a the local Body of Christ in a local church.

Now I’m not talking about the Devil’s Catholic or Lutheran church. I’m not talking about the Devil’s Church of Christ, Jehovah’s Witnesses or Seventh-Day Adventist cults! I’m talking about a good old-fashioned Bible-believing, Bible-preaching, soulwinning church. I’d recommend an Independent Fundamental Baptist church with a bus ministry! We all need to go to church! I realize that many churches are teaching heresy today, and I don’t think you should attend a corrupt church that perverts the Gospel of free grace. A church that teaches Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation) is a cult, not a church!

A happy marriage equals happy children, which equals a happy home! That is my message to you! You won’t have a happy marriage outside of God’s will for your life. Every family needs to get involved in a local soulwinning church that preaches the Word of Truth! Families that attend church together stay together! When fathers don’t go to church, only 5 % of the time do their adult children go to church. That is so sad and tragic! America was great when she was good, and she was good when she had GREAT CHURCHES! Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) said that in his classic sermon called: ’[9]THE TITANIC.’

1.2.109 Look At People As Broken Instead Of Bad (2020-04-29 00:00)

Matthew 9:9-12, “

And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners?

But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.”

One of the most hated professions in Rome was that of a tax collector. The people hated them! Just like today, nobody likes to have their hard-earned money taken away. Tax collectors were notoriously crooked, and took advantage of the people. ...

> “Tax collectors, also known as publicans, are mentioned many times in the Bible (mainly in the New Testament). They were reviled by the Jews of Jesus’ day because of their perceived greed and collaboration with the Roman occupiers. Tax collectors amassed personal wealth by demanding tax payments in excess of what Rome levied and keeping the difference. They worked for tax farmers. In the Gospel of Luke, Jesus sympathizes with the tax collector Zacchaeus, causing outrage from the crowds that Jesus would rather be the guest of a sinner than of a more respectable or ’righteous’ person. Matthew the Apostle in the New Testament was a tax collector.” —[1]Tax Collectors, Wikipedia

So when Jesus sat down to eat with Matthew—a scumbag tax collector—we can now understand why the Pharisees said to Jesus' disciples— **"

Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners?

" (Matthew 9:11b). In fact, when the people saw it—that Jesus was seated in Matthew's house—they started piling in! One sinner after other came to sit with Jesus! T his naturally raised eyebrows and curiosity, and a question

—why would Jesus sit with these known horrible people, whom were all sinners? Why would Jesus befriend such contemptible people? I believe it is simply because our Lord chose to look at people as being BROKEN rather than BAD! Jesus was trying to help them, because He loved them. In the Lord's eyes, Matthew was a broken man, not a bad man! Jesus saw the harlots as BROKEN women, not BAD women. Jesus sat down with these broken men and women, preaching the Gospel to them, in an effort to save them!!!

The Pharisees Refused To Repent

The religious, self-righteous, hypocritical, Pharisees asked Jesus why He ate with sinners

Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners?

" (Matthew 9:11b).

Here was Jesus' amazing answer in Matthew 9:12b-13, " They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

" These are beautiful truths. Here is a related quote from the Old Testament prophet Hosea.

Hosea 6:6, " For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings." Here we see the great heart of God.

The religious Pharisees were going around pointing fingers at everyone, judging anyone whom they perceived as being a bigger sinner than themselves. That is why God said in Romans

2:1, “Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

” Since we are ALL GUILTY SINNERS, no one has a Biblical right to condemn another human being for their sins! God is the only Judge!!!

I choose to look at people as BROKEN rather than BAD. I am a big sinner just like anybody else. I don’t judge anyone. When an expensive finely-crafted Swiss watch stops working, do you throw it away? Of course not, you pay to have it repaired by a skilled watchmaker. Personally I hate expensive watches, but it’s just an illustration. A human being is of much more value than a watch. Tragically, most people today don’t agree with what I just said. The U.S. Supreme Court doesn’t place any value on a child in the womb, permitting its termination. They must answer to God for those immoral laws that allow for murder.

The Pharisees didn’t think they were spiritually sick. Therefore, they wouldn’t repent! Only sick people need to go to a doctor. The self-righteous Pharisees had a self-inflated view of themselves; therefore, they failed to see their desperate need for the redeeming Savior. They didn’t think they were guilty sinners! They actually thought by doing their best to keep the LAW (even though they broke it all the time), that they could merit Eternal Life through the Law (Romans chapter 2; 10:3-4; Galatians 3:1-3). No one can be justified by keeping the LAW (Romans 3:20).

Repentance Means To Come To Jesus As A Sick Sinner

I don’t know if you saw it, but here we see the simple meaning of repentance. To “repent” effectively means to see yourself as a sick needy sinner. Jesus rebuked the Pharisees for not repenting, that they should BELIEVE and be saved. The publicans and harlots saw that they were sick, and needed The Great Physician. Do you see yourself as a sick sinner friend? We all need The Great Physician.

This is a clear picture of a lack of repentance. M atthew 21:32, " For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not:but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him. " I very much love that Bible passage. We are told that when John the Baptist preached the way of righteousness, pointing the people toward Christ, the tax collectors and harlots BELIEVED; but when the Pharisees saw it, they still refused to repent to believe.

> Said the robin to the sparrow, "I really do not know, why these human beings rush around and worry so";
>
> Said the sparrow to the robin, "I think it must be, that they have no heavenly Father, such as cares for you and me!"

1.2.110 Modern Corrupt Bibles Are Transforming The Churches (2020-04-29 11:30)

Genesis 3:1, " Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?"

I am used to criticism from the unsaved world for my preaching (Jesus said that would happen - John 7:7 and 15:19), but what hurts my heart is when fellow professed Christians (Baptists) shun me away and treat me like a bad person for telling the truth. That is terrible! We're all supposed to be honest and tell the truth to each other, especially when it comes to the inspired Word of God and doctrine.

The Devil is so subtle, that he has even tricked churches into accepting dozens of different Bible versions, to confused everyone, and diminish the effectiveness of the Holy Bible. Proof of that ineffectiveness is the lack of Bible revivals in churches today, the high divorce rate, the LGBTQ agenda being accepted by liberal churches, the lack of Bible memorization today, the lack of theology being taught in churches, the lack of authority in preaching, et cetera. I've never heard Joel Osteen teach theology, it's always how to improve yourself or relationships, but nothing about the doctrine of Christ. It's these new Devil's Bibles, which are transforming the churches.

The following shocking quote from Alice Bailey (1880-1949) ought to alarm every born-again Christian in the world. I'll explain the Satanic meaning and dark agenda set forth by Mrs. Bailey after you read this disturbing quote:

> The Christian church in its many branches can serve as a St. John the Baptist, as a voice crying in the wilderness, and as a nucleus through which world illumination may be accomplished. I indicate the hope. I do not assert a fact. Its work is intended to be the holding of a broad platform. The church must show a wide tolerance, and teach no revolutionary doctrines or cling to any reactionary ideas. The church as a teaching factor should take the great basic doctrines and (shattering the old forms in which they are expressed and held) show their true and inner spiritual significance. The prime work of the church is to teach, and teach ceaselessly, preserving the outer appearance in order to reach the many who are accustomed to church usages. Teachers must be trained; Bible knowledge must be spread; the sacraments must be mystically interpreted, and the power of the church to heal must be demonstrated.

> ...There is no question therefore that the work to be done in familiarising the general public with the nature of the Mysteries is of paramount importance at this time. These Mysteries will be restored to outer expression through the medium of the Church and the Masonic Fraternity, if those groups leave off being organisations with material purpose, and become organisms with living objectives. [emphasis added]

SOURCE: Alice Bailey, [1]'The Externalisation Of The Hierarchy,' pp. 510, 514

That is mind-blowing stuff! Miss Bailey wrote this book in the early 20th century. Dear friend, do you know what Miss Bailey meant by "revolutionary doctrine?" She is talking about Christian fundamentalism. The best example I can give you today of a "revolutionary doctrine" is Pastor Steven Anderson—whom God is using to build churches across America through his upright testimony, hard work and Bible preaching! Alice Bailey is saying that Luciferians need to infiltrate and destroy fundamental churches! She said this will be accomplished by leading the churches to show wide tolerance (e.g. the sinful LGBTQ agenda, and sinful women preachers). She says these corrupted churches will pervert the great doctrines of Christianity to teach new age doctrine instead (a classic example is Pastor Rick Warren's "The Purpose Driven Life" garbage. By the way, Rick Warren is a member of Globalist-run 'Council On Foreign Relations.' What a phony minister!)

Miss Bailey goes on to say that the churches will be corrupted by maintaining an outer superficial shell of a traditional church, while eviscerating the church of any organized theology, transforming the churches into pawns of the New World Order. I cannot think of a more effective way to accomplish this, than through the modern corrupt Bible versions. I cannot urge churches enough to stay away from following ecumenical preachers on the internet, and get back to the Holy Bible! Humans are impressionable creatures and we are lazy by nature. Those two traits together are deadly. Americans are too lazy to go research the truth for themselves by reading books and watching documentaries, so instead they just sit in front of the TV and believe what Fox News and CNN tell them to believe. The media shape our reality! Likewise, churchgoers don't study the Bible for themselves, they just soak up whatever they are presented, becoming inoculated from the truth!

> "Be on guard against any tampering with the Word, whether disguised as a search for truth, or a scholarly attempt at apparently hidden meanings; and beware of the confusion created by the senseless rash of new versions, translations, editions, and improvements upon the tried and tested Bible of our fathers and grandfathers." — Pastor M.R. DeHaan, "The Tabernacle," page 101

Look at the churches today that are using dozens of Bible versions, and how messed up they are spiritually. Then look at the soulwinning churches across the world, who use ONLY the inspired King James Bible. Two have two different Bibles is just as insane as having two Jesuses. In the King James Bible Jesus did not think it robbery to be equal with God in Philippians 2:6. But in all the corrupt modern Bible revisions, that same passage says Jesus did not think equality with God was something to be grasped! The modern revisions says the exact opposite of what the King James Bible teaches! Any Christian who is okay with that discrepancy is not right with God! Any church that goes along with that confusion, using and promoting multiple Bible versions, is pulling on the same rope as the Devil. There is only one Savior, and one Holy Spirit, and we only have and need one Holy Bible!

Everyone has a right to their own opinion, but no one has a right to their own facts.

Do you know who made that statement? It was Andrew Cuomo the governor from New York City. The governor is right! You don't have a right to your own facts!

And may I say, you have a right to your own opinion, but you don't have a right to your own truth. Truth is truth! Facts are facts! But truth and facts can be manipulated and changed into a lie! These new Bible revisions are a lie of Satan! The new Bible versions are being used to infiltrate the churches with the New World Order.

1.2.111 I Want To Think Right, Live Right And Do Right (2020-04-30 00:00)

Proverbs 4:23, “ Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.”

This is my favorite Bible verse, and one that I try to live by. Everything that we do is a result of our thoughts; therefore, it is imperative that we maintain a healthy thought life. This is why we are directed in Philippians 4:6-8 to always do TWO things:

1. Pray about everything (Philippians 4:6-7)
2. Think on good things (Philippians 4:8)

There is no need to worry, just pray. When we pray, we are putting a matter into God’s hands to deal with, trusting Him that God cares and hears the prayer of the righteous. Sometimes I pray what I call “blanket prayers” or “umbrella prayers,” where I pretty much just tell God I don’t know what to pray, so I am praying about everything at once. I don’t think that is the best way to pray. I think we should get into specifics with God, and mention the names of people we are praying for, and tell God exactly what we are requesting. Albeit, a blanket prayer is still valid! All-inclusive prayers are still evidence of faith in God. So it would be better for a believer to pray all-inclusive blanket (or umbrella) prayers, than to not pray at all. Sometimes I am just simply tired, so I’ll say: “Lord, I pray about everything!” You say, “You do that?” Yes, all the time! Sometimes I’ll simply cry out in my weary soul, “Lord, I need your help, I cannot make it without You!” I know God is listening to my prayers! 1st Peter 3:12,

“

For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.

Every Believer Should Be Committed To Living Christlike

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) said: “Do right, though the stars fall—DO RIGHT!” The unsaved world thinks very different than the Christian does. The world views everything from a final mindset, believing that this life is all there is; but as Christians we have the blessed hope of eternal life (Titus 1:2). Our God is faithful! The older I get, the closer to Heaven I am. I am resolved to think right, do right and live right to stay close to the Lord. It feels good being right with God. I hate the feeling that there is something between me and God that is not right. You cannot live in willful sin as a believer and have a perfect walk with God. It is important that we be honest with God at all times, and stay confessed up in our sins (1st John 1:9). God doesn’t expect us to be perfect, but He does expect us to try with His help (Matthew 5:48; Galatians 2:20). The first step in living right is to want to live right!

Granted, we all have things which we accept in our life, that others may not approve of (Romans 14:22). For example: Some Christians refuse to have any fun on Halloween. Personally, I like carved pumpkins, hay rides, haunted houses and think it is a lot of fun. To each his own. I do not celebrate the meaning of Halloween, and I would never let my child dress up like witch or a demon, but I do not judge those who do. I am a fundamentalist Christian, not a nut. You become a “nut” when you go ballistic over someone else passing out pumpkins at church to kids on Sunday. I had a Christian boss once who blew up in anger when he found out I wasn’t a registered voter. That is nutty! Galatians 5:15,

But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

I was reading a book today of Bob Jones College chapel talks by Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1998-1968). I really love this man of God! It is so tragic that BJU today has forsaken the convictions of its founder (1927), embracing hundreds of tainted Bible revisions, going along with apostasy in the churches instead of taking a stand for what is right, as Dr. Bob Jones Sr. always taught. Brother Jones makes good sense and had a godly way of thinking, that is so lacking across America today. I read these great words today from him:

> “Listen to me young people, you never get out of a hole by lying. A lie will dig the hole deeper. Truth will not always get you out of a hole, but lying will never do it.

> When you get in a hole, put up a ladder of truth and try to climb out. Don't lie; don't be a humbug; don't be a fourflusher! Listen, it is not only wrong to lie, but also it doesn't pay to lie. There is something about telling the truth that disarms even your enemies. You can't lie yourself to success. You can travel the road of truth. So travel it!" —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," page 51; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

Amen! That is godly advice. I love what author Mark Twain (1835-1910) said: "

If you tell the truth, you don't have to remember anything.

" I couldn't have said it any better. The TRUTH can be dealt with, but a LIE cannot. The Devil is a beautiful liar!

Don't Let The Devil Sift You As Wheat!

I don't know about you, but I don't want the Devil to beat me with a stick. Many people give the Devil a stick to beat them with! Jesus warned the apostle Peter that Satan desired to beat him as wheat. You had better believe friend that the Devil wants to do that to every saint of God. Luke 22:31, " And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:

" They say a picture is worth a thousand words. ...

Some people hand the Devil a big stick to beat them with! As long as we choose to live right, we are within God's protective circle. The Bible says that God had placed a protective HEDGE around him, so that Satan could not afflict him in any way...

> Job 1:8-11, " And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?
>
> Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?
>
> Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side*? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.
>
> But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face. "

When a believer chooses to go into sin, we invite the Devil into our life. Oftentimes, it is the Christian himself that causes suffering, loss and affliction in his own life. God is not to blame.

Blessed be the name of the Lord!!! The man after God's own heart, David, learned the hard way the consequences of going astray from God's commandments. Psalms 119:67 and 71, "Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word. ...It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes. " A godly Christian allows God to take the failures in their life, and turn them into stepping stones. God can take the lemons in our broken life and make lemonade.

One of my favorite MP3 sermons is by Pastor Jack Hyles called: ' [1]SOME ON BROKEN PIECES ' (a sermon about being salvaged for God's use and service). Job 5:17, "Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty:" DO GOOD and it will BE GOOD!

James 1:13-16, "Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man: But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Do not err, my beloved brethren."

1.2.112 Pastor Chip Ingram's False Gospel (2020-04-30 03:00)

Galatians 1:6-7, " I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

Heresy has crept into most churches today. This tragically includes our Independent Fundamental Baptist Churches. One of the deadliest false teachings today is the idea that a person cannot be saved unless they turn away from their sinful ways. The Bible teaches that all men are guilty sinners (Romans 3:10-23). There is a penalty for sin, which is death (Romans 6:23). This includes the second death (Revelation 21:8). God sent His only begotten Son to die on the cross to pay our debt of sin (John 3:16), so that all sinners could freely have eternal life if we want it. Romans 10:13, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

In the following sermon titled, "[1]Jesus Explains His Message - Part 2," Chip Ingram falsely teaches that a person must forsake their sins to be saved. Like all false teachers, Mr. Ingram is deceptive. He claims that salvation is by grace through faith alone, but then he conditions salvation upon changing your life. That is works! [2]Chip Ingram and Jehovah's Witnesses agree! In the preceding audio sermon, Pastor Ingram predicates salvation upon receiving Christ not only as one's Savior, but also your Lord. Chip says you must surrender your life to Christ as your [what he calls "

(Chief Executive Officer)]. In Chip's false plan of salvation, he says you must t urn from your sins and ask Jesus to come into your life. You must be willing to follow Him as your Lord and Master. Chip leads people to pray a prayer to be saved. Chip Ingram makes this heretical statement in his sermon:

> Four, eternal life begins the moment you receive Christ as your Savior and Lord. See, today is the day of salvation. Moments from now, moments from now. It's not something that is going to happen after you die. You can have the encounter that Jesus wanted for Nicodemus. You can be washed in the water, admit, Oh, God, I am not perfect and I am actually messed up in some areas and I need You. And I receive the life of Christ and His death on the cross as sole payment for my sin. And I am asking You to come into my life and be my Savior and the Lord and the CEO, He'll do it. —Pastor Chip Ingram, '[3]Jesus Explains His Message, Part 2' [emphasis added]

False prophets like Chip Ingram mishandle the Gospel. Like all false prophets, they get it half right, mixing truth with lies. Chip Ingram is right that the Gospel means Christ died, was buried and resurrected the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Unfortunately, he requires MORE for salvation, which makes him a false prophet. Not one verse in the Bible teaches that a person must turn away from sins to be saved. No where are we commanded to pray a prayer to be saved. No where are we directed to ask Christ to come into our life to be saved. No where are we required to surrender to Christ as Lord and CEO to be saved. To a naive religious person these additional requirements may seem harmless, but to a learned Bible student, you know that adding even the slightest human effort to God's free grace cancels it. Salvation is not partial faith in Christ plus something else!

Chip Ingram perverts the Gospel of free grace

Pastor Ingram Gets Repentance And John Chapter 3 Wrong

I am surprised how many Bible teachers get John chapter 3 wrong concerning the meaning of "water."

Jesus plainly tells us that the water refers to the flesh.

John 3:6,

“

That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

” Verse 6 explains Verse 5,

“ Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. ” Church of Christ falsely claim that the water refers to baptism. Likewise, Chip Ingram falsely claims that the water refers to repentance. As I just showed you, Jesus said the water refers to being born of the flesh. To be saved, you simply need to be born of the Holy Spirit!

Here are some heretical teachings by Mr. Ingram:

> “And the water meant what? Repent. People were going to him [John the Baptist] to say, “My life is messed up. I’m not the kind of dad, I’m not the kind of mom, I do have greed, I covet in my heart, I do sleep around, I do cheat. The stuff that comes out of my mouth, I have unresolved anger issues,” all the stuff that we have!
>
> Multitudes were coming out and John said, “You have to repent,” and the word is: metanoeō. “Have a change of mind.” And they were coming to be baptized to say, “I want that old life and that old junk – I want it washed away and I want to walk with God now.” And that was preparation. So, you prepared and realized, Now what you need is the Spirit of God with the power to do that.”
>
> —Pastor Chip Ingram, ’ [4]Jesus Explains His Message, Part 2 ’ [emphasis added]

This is all very subtle. Chip has a totally wrong mindset concerning salvation. He is claiming that the people John baptized were all hungry to get rid of the sins in their life, and they desired for Jesus to save them so they could stop living that way. Folks, that is a counterfeit plan of salvation. In reality, John was preaching repentance to the people, so they would recognize their sins and see their desperate need FOR THEIR SAVIOR—not to clean up their lives, but so that they could be delivered from the curse of sin and Hell. John was simply preaching the law to prepare the people, pointing them to Christ who would save them (Galatians 3:24-26). The difference is this folks—In Chip’s theology, the emphasis is upon a changed life; but in Bible theology, the emphasis is upon salvation itself.

Chip Ingram is a subtle teacher of the lie of Lordship Salvation (i.e., Calvinism repackaged). To the naive person it sounds good, but Chip is wrong in his understanding of the Gospel. Eternal life is a gift from God, which is not conditional upon a willingness to change your life, nor a willingness to let God change your life. John the Baptist did baptize the people for repentance, but it was only to PREPARE them to receive the coming Savior...

> Matthew 3:4-6, "
>
> And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey. Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the region round about Jordan,
> And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins."

Carefully notice that the people only CONFESSED THEIR SINS, they didn't forsake them. No one is capable of forsaking their sins! If you listen to Mr. Ingram's sermon (or read it), he says that getting saved WILL change a person's life. That is the lie of Calvinism! Just because you receive the 'Good News' (Gospel) of Christ crucified, buried and risen, doesn't automatically mean that your life will change in the least externally. Chip says when you get saved, all of a sudden you'll be sweet, kind and nice to everyone. Folks, that is not true!

Chip Ingram Is teaching Junk Theology

Here is the junk theology I am warning you about from Chip Ingram:

> "And the eternal God of the universe says, "If you will open the door of your heart and turn from your sin and invite Christ and believe on Him, the Spirit of the living God will come permanently to live in you, seal you with His Spirit, give you spiritual gifts, direct your life, make you a part of a family, and transform you little, by little, by little, by little – that two, three, and four years from now, people will be astounded." Why are you so kind? Why are you so others centered now? What happened to that addiction you had? You used to be a workaholic, crazy person. What happened to you? Because Christ's will live His life out through you."

—Pastor Chip Ingram, ' [5]Jesus Explains His Message, Part 2 ' [emphasis added]

That is junk theology! Chip is a theological liar when he says God demands that you " turn from your sin

"! You cannot show me that from the inspired King James Bible!!! Furthermore, you don't have to " invite Christ

because He is already inviting you! Jesus has already paid for everyone's sins on the cross with His precious blood, freely offering eternal life to anyone who that BELIEVES. 1st Corinthians 1:21,

For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching *to save them that believe." John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." It is that simple friend, just believe and you are saved! Contrary to the lies being sold to you by Chip Ingram; God is NOT demanding that you turn from your sins, nor that you invite Christ, nor that you ask Him into your life, nor that you make Him your Lord and C.E.O., nor that you pray a prayer, nor anything else! God simple commands us to "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved

" (Acts 16:31b).

Everybody responds differently when they get saved. Some people change immediately, but others never change.

Chip Ingram and Ray Comfort would accuse them of never being saved, claiming they failed to repent. That is not what "repentance" means. Chip is correct that repentance (the Greek noun metanoia) means a change of mind,

" but then he adds meaning to the word by implying that it will result in a change of mind which leads to a changed life (which is a false meaning). Repentance is a change of mind unto the Gospel itself, and doesn't have anything to do with a believer's behavior after they get saved. We are taught in Romans 12:2b that we are " transformed by the renewing of your mind. " As a new believer desires the sincere milk of the Word, they will grow (1st Peter 2:2). To require a person to commit to change their life at the time of salvation is to pervert the Gospel.

I have nothing person against Pastor Ingram in California. He seems like a nice person. I simply have a duty as a Christian to “e arnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints” (Jude 1:3b). The quickest way for Satan to hinder a person from getting saved is to obscure and confuse the clarity of the Gospel message.

The LORD did not check who inside the house was worthy.
HE checked for the BLOOD on the doorposts.
None of us is worthy.
Only the blood of Jesus can cover us.

1.2.113 What Is Bible Repentance For Salvation? (2020-04-30 14:27)

Let's keep the meaning of repentance to what the Bible says, "a change of mind." It's not a change of mind that leads to a change of mind!!! There are no expectations, obligations nor requirements necessary to seal one's salvation once a person receives the Gospel by faith. Discipleship has nothing to do with salvation. Salvation doesn't always lead to discipleship!!! So, Biblically, a person repents from unbelief to believe the Gospel to be saved, which brings the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, who convicts believer of sins in their life. How a believer responds to that conviction is a matter of discipleship, not salvation.

Pastor Bob Gray Sr. is 100 % Correct On Repentance

I love Dr. Bob Gray Sr.! You gotta love a guy who's responsible for hundreds of thousands of souls coming to Christ. As longtime pastor of the Longview Temple Baptist Church in Longview, Texas, millions of people's lives were changed through their bus ministry.

Dr. Bob Gray Sr. has repentance correct. Repentance is simply deciding to believe the Gospel rather than continue in unbelief. This is clear from the following quote by Dr. Gray taken from the article below: "You undo to be saved what you did to be lost. You are lost because you do not come to Christ and you are saved because you do come to Christ for payment of the penalty of sin. What you are repenting of is not coming to Christ and not believing on the Son of God." Thus, the person who believes has also repented. Thank God for Pastor Gray and the tremendous impact the Lord has made through his soulwinning ministry over the decades...

REPENTANCE FROM UNBELIEF TO BELIEF IN JESUS CHRIST SAVES

REPENTANCE FROM UNBELIEF LEADS THE SAVED TO REPENTANCE OF SINS

Acts 2:38, “The Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.”

The word “repent" can be defined as changing ones mind, reasoning, or opinion. In essence the word “repentance” means, “to change ones mind.” II Timothy 2:25, “In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;”

All we have to do is find out what makes a person lost spiritually. Then if we can change what makes that person lost then he or she can be saved from an eternal hell. Thus, one must repent from whatever it is that makes that one lost without salvation. John 3:18, “But he that believeth not is condemned already.” Why is a person condemned? Simple, because “he believeth not.”

If he is lost because he believes not then what must he do in order to be saved from going to hell? He must repent! Repent from what? Repent from believing not! If it is believing not that makes you lost then it is changing to believing that makes you saved.

John 3:18, look at the last part of that verse, "because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten son of God." What is it that makes a person lost and on their way to hell? Not believing in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

Which means if you do not believe on Jesus to pay for your sins and to take you to Heaven you are lost! John 3:18, "He that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed." Thus, a man is lost because he does not believe on the Son of God for payment of his sins.

Man then must repent of that which makes him lost in order to be saved from a devil's hell. John 3:36, "He that believeth not the son shall not see life." What is it you do not do to see life? Believe not the Son of God. The verse goes on to say, "But the wrath of God abideth on you." What do you have to do in order to have the wrath of God abiding on you? Believe not the Son of God.

Believing not is what makes one lost and on their way to hell. You must repent or change your mind about something you are doing to trust in to keep out of hell to what God says is THE way to heaven, which is to believe on the Son of God for payment of your sin penalty of hell.

You believe in your mind and your will. So, you must change your mind. You must change from "I will not receive Christ" to "I will receive Christ." Consequently you must undo to be saved what you do that makes you lost. What do you have to do to go to hell? Believe not on the Son of God! What do you have to do to go to heaven? Believe on the Son of God for payment of the price of your sin!

John 5:40, "And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life." What kept these people from having life? Not coming to Jesus! If you do not come to Jesus for payment of your sins you will die and go to hell! What you have to do in order to go to heaven is to change your mind and come to Jesus for payment of sin.

You undo to be saved what you did to be lost. You are lost because you do not come to Christ and you are saved because you do come to Christ for payment of the penalty of sin. What you are repenting of is not coming to Christ and not believing on the Son of God.

IN THE BIBLE YOU CAN REPENT FROM SOMETHING OTHER THAN SIN

Repent means to change one's mind. If a person decides to go to town and then decided not to go to town he has repented. If a person decides to be married and then decides not to be married he has repented.

Matthew 27:3, "Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders." Was Judas saved? No! Judas was not repenting of his sin! Judas realized he had made a bad deal. He changed his mind about what he should have done, but he never repented of being a sinner. You can repent of something other than sin.

By the way, Judas went to hell and yet repented. Everybody who lives in sin sooner or later repents of it. There is a difference between that and repenting of not believing on the Son of God. You can repent of a sin or sins without repenting of the sin of unbelief. It is the sin of unbelief that sends one to hell. Thus, it is the repenting of the sin of not believing that sends one to hell. Judas repented but was not saved.

Genesis 6:5-6, "And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. And it repented the Lord that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart." Does that mean that God sinned? No! You can repent of something other than sin.

God who cannot sin, lie, or do wrong repented in Genesis 6:6. God repents, but does not commit sin. Repentance does not always have to do with sin, but it does always have to do with the changing of one's mind.

I Samuel 15:35, "And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: nevertheless Samuel mourned for Saul: and the Lord repented that he had made Saul king over Israel." God chose Saul to be the king of Israel, but he changed His mind! God repented that he had made Saul king. You can repent of something other than sin.

Exodus 32:14, "And the Lord repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people." God and Moses are having a disagreement and the Lord repented. Hold it, God is not speaking of sin here. He is talking about punishment here! God repented! Did God get saved here? No! God simply changed his mind here!

The same is true in Jonah 3:9-10 and Amos 7:3, 6! Repentance does not always have to do with sin. It is not always sin you are repenting of and it is not always salvation as the issue in repentance! The wife says, "I think we'll have roast beef Sunday. No, no I think we'll have fried chicken." Hold it, she repented, but it was not sin she repented of.

REPENTANCE FROM SINS IS ALWAYS DIRECTED TOWARDS GOD'S PEOPLE - EXCEPT FOR THE SIN OF NOT BELIEVING WHICH IS DIRECTED TOWARDS THE UNSAVED

You do not clean up and then get saved! You get saved and then clean up! Not believing is what condemns a person to hell. Believing is what uncondemns a person! Revelation 2:5, 16, 21, 22; 3:19 repentance from sins is directed toward God's children in Ephesus, Pergamos, Thyatira, etc.

Not one person in the Bible was saved by repenting of his or her sins! Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." They did not say repent! They did say, "Believe." This is the only verse in the Bible that goes directly to the issue of being saved and it does not say, "Repent."

Jesus does not forgive sin! Jesus paid for the price of sin with his death, burial, and resurrection. Jesus does not forgive sin for he paid for sin himself. He forgives sinners by paying for their sins.

[1]Except Ye Repent (an awesome book by Pastor Harry Ironside, 1876-1951)

Satan is the author of confusion (Acts 19:32). I think Dr. Bob Gray Sr. hit the nail on the head in the preceding article, and I agree with 100 % of his article. Thank you Brother Gray!

> "Repentance is not some little silly, 'I'm sorry.' Repentance is not simply a fear of God. Repentance is not a monk fasting and afflicting his body in a monastery. Repentance is not remorse because of sin's consequences. Repentance is not penance performed before the pope as you kiss his toe... Repentance is not being sorry for what I've done wrong. It is not confessing one's sins to a priest. It is not just conviction of sin. It is not the signing of a pledge of abstinence. Repentance is that thing when you come before God and see yourself as you are, and see Him as he is, and say with Isaiah 'Woe is me, for I am unclean!"' —Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), a quote from the timeless MP3 sermon, "[2]THE GOODNESS OF GOD LEADETH TO REPENTANCE!"

1.3.1 Fake Charismatic Healing (2020-05-01 04:32)

2nd Peter 2:1-3, " But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. A nd many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

And THROUGH COVETOUSNESS shall they with feigned words MAKE MERCHANDISE OF YOU: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not."

One of the biggest deceptions in modern times is fake healing. Literally, fake healing has become a billion-dollar-a-year industry. [1]Benny Hinn alone rakes in close to $200,000,000 each year. Pat Robertson's THE 700 CLUB, Paul and Jan Crouch on TBN, James Robison's LIFE FOR TODAY, Mike Murdock, Peter Popoff, Don Stewart, Morris Cerullo, Kenneth Copeland, and a host of other [2]TV preachers are all wolves in sheep's clothing! They all deceive the sick and misfortunate

for FILTHY LUCRE! Combined, these con artists take in BILLIONS of dollars each and every year from victims all around the world. The inspired Holy Bible says in our text Bible verse that their damnation SLUMBERETH NOT, meaning they are already damned by God, only God's mercy prevents the earth from opening beneath, swallowing them into the fires of Hell forever!

So many people who have permanent disabilities, terminal illness and incurable diseases are drawn into [3]Charismatic fake healing—many donating everything they have, thinking that God will heal them because a false preacher lied to take their money. Monsters are real!

Here is an excellent quote exposing FAKE HEALING from Dr. Max D. Younce's helpful book, I'M SO GLAD YOU ASKED!...

Is There Physical healing in the Atonement?

Isaiah 53:4

Question*: In Isaiah 53:4 it says,

"surely he (Christ) hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted."

I was told that the word "griefs" in Hebrews means sickness and "sorrows" means disease. Also, I was told that the healing is in the atonement; so, after I am a Christian, I won't have any more sickness. Is this right?

Answer*: So-called “faith healers” thrive on this verse, deceiving many people. It is true “griefs” means sickness, and “sorrows” means diseases. This prophecy only concerns the Lord Jesus Christ and the physical healings He would do prior to the cross, as evidence He was the Jewish Messiah. All the healings Christ performed fulfilled this prophecy as evidenced by Matthew 8:16,17,

> “They brought unto him (Christ) many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word and healed ALL that were sick: (16) That it might be FULFILLED which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bear our sicknesses.”

Now, in Isaiah 53:5 we have the healing that is in the atonement: His death on the cross and His Resurrection. This is spiritual healing, or salvation; not physical healing.

> “But he (Christ) was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.”

Peter makes this perfectly clear in 1 Peter 2:24,

> "Who his own self BARE OUR OWN SINS in his (Christ's) own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed."

The healing in the atonement is salvation; not physical healing.

I have personally challenged many so-called "faith-healers" to go to the hospitals with me and heal all those little children that are sick. None have accepted, so far. Remember, they go to the doctor also when they get sick or need an operation!

What comforting truths! Matthew 8:16 plainly tells us that Isaiah 53:4 does not teach physical healing for everyone. The Bible plainly reveals that Isaiah 53:4 was only referring to the healing ministry of our Lord Jesus Christ... "That it might be FULFILLED which was spoken by Esaias the prophet."

The Bible plainly exposes these impostors in “ Through covetousness” means that TV preachers appeal to the audience’s desire to obtain health, wealth, and prosperity; to exploit the listeners, teaching that “the way to get is to give.” Most people who donate money to these buzzards are expecting health, wealthy, and prosperity (or one of these things) in return for a donation. People are errantly taught that giving is faith and more faith (giving) brings greater rewards. In reality, TV preachers are filthy rich, while the people who support them are sick, broke and suffer misfortune

1.3.2 The Blood Is Applied To The Mercy Seat In Heaven (2020-05-01 11:00)

“Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot.” —1st Peter 1:18-19

We don’t hear enough these days about the precious blood of Jesus. What saith the Scripture? 1st John 1:7 , “...and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.” What a wonderful Savior! Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt of sin we could not pay. Our sins had to be paid for. The price was the blood of Jesus. The place was the Mercy Seat in Heaven.

We read in Hebrews 9:12 concerning Jesus, “Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.” Jesus’ blood didn’t atone for our sins; but rather, took them away forever!

In the Old Testament, the people’s sins were only temporarily ATONED (i.e., covered) for with animal blood. Leviticus 17:11, “For the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul.” This Scripture speaks of the blood of animals, which were sacrificed to temporarily cover the sins of the people in the Old Testament, until the Messiah could come and offer HIMSELF as the perfect sacrifice for sins.

Jesus’ Precious Blood Sacrifice Is All Sufficient

I really love the book of Hebrews, which is all about Jesus' blood. Hebrews 9:24-26, "For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us: Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others; For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now ONCE in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself." Jesus' blood applied to the Mercy Seat in Heaven is all-sufficient.

One of the biggest false prophets today is [1]Pastor John MacArthur, who adamantly denies that Jesus' blood is literally in Heaven. Mr. MacArthur teaches that Jesus' blood fell to the ground and soaked into the dirt at Calvary's hill. As I just quoted to you from Hebrews 9:24, Jesus entered "

INTO HEAVEN ITSELF, NOW TO APPEAR IN THE PRESENCE OF GOD FOR US

"!!! Hebrews 9:12 concerning Jesus, "Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us." In his Bible commentary, Dr. MacArthur errantly claims that actually refers to Christ's

BY HIS OWN BLOOD

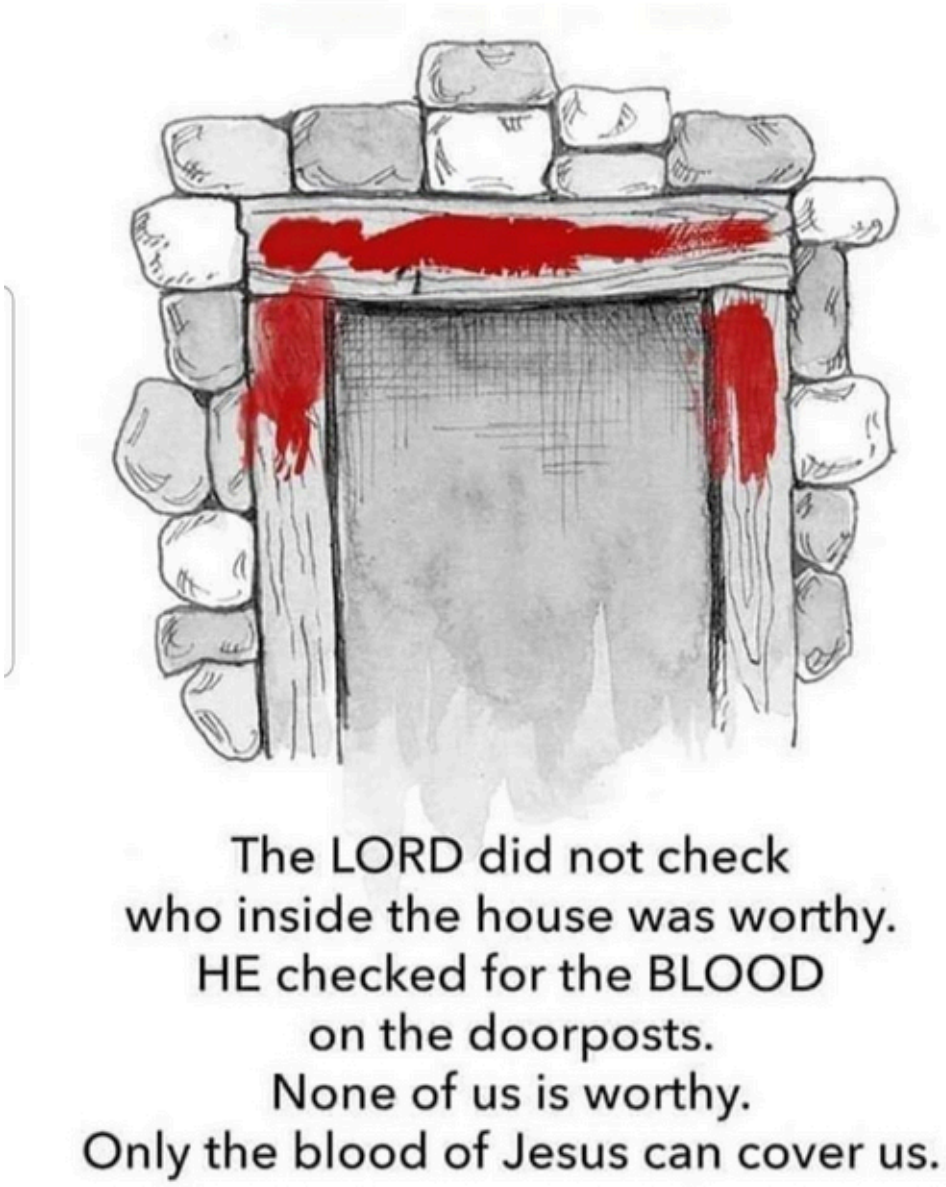
on the cross, and not to His liquid BLOOD! As if that's not bad enough, [2]MacArthur says that Jesus did NOT have God's blood flowing in His veins. In so doing Mr. MacArthur is effectively denying the virgin birth and deity of Jesus!

The Death Angel Looked For The Blood Applied

If the Hebrews had killed the lamb and let its blood pour out into the ground (as Pastor MacArthur sinfully teaches), then the firstborn would have died. THE BLOOD HAD TO BE APPLIED to the doorposts and lintel (the plate above the door that kept bricks from falling on your head). Exodus 12:13, "

And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.



" It wasn't enough to kill the lamb. It wasn't enough to cut the throat and bleed the animal out. The blood had to be collected and applied to the doorposts of the home, otherwise the first born of all humans and animals died. Likewise, Jesus' literal liquid blood had to be applied to the Mercy Seat in Heaven.

We are plainly taught in Hebrews 9:19-23 that the earthly tabernacle, holy place, high priest and animals sacrifices were all PATTERNS of the eternal ones in HEAVEN:

> Hebrews 9:19-23, "For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,
> Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.
>
> Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.
>
> And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.
>
> It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these*."

So if the Old Testament high priest was required (on penalty of death) to sprinkle the lamb's blood upon the mercy seat, then what in the world makes anyone think that Jesus' blood didn't likewise need to be applied to the heavenly Mercy Seat? Read the book of Hebrews for yourself. You can [3]listen to Alexander Scourby read the book of Hebrews right now.

1.3.3 Sin Always Injures Someone (2020-05-02 00:00)

James 1:12-15, " Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man: But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death." ... Romans 6:23, " For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

The Bible teaches that sin causes death. We all have to die a physical death someday because we are sinners. Thankfully, Jesus Christ paid for our sins on the cross with His precious blood. God offers us eternal life through faith in His only begotten Son. Anyone who comes as a needy sinner to God, receiving Christ sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, has eternal life. We don't have to die the second death (Revelation 21:8). Sin brings death. The Bible tells us the origin of sin in the human race, Adam. Romans 5:12, "Wherefore, as by one man [Adam] sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:

Many people sin, and continue sinning, because they don't see any immediately consequences from their sin, but those consequences will come! The Bible teaches that every man WILL reap what he sows!

You can take an elevator to the top of the Empire State Building and decide to jump off! You won't feel any consequences at first, you'll just be falling for what may seem like an eternity, but YOU WILL hit the pavement below, it's just a matter of time! Likewise, you may sin a hundred times seemingly without consequence, but YOU WILL hit the ground eventually. Ecclesiastes 8:12-13, "Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him: But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God."

Aleister Crowley (1875-1947) was arguably the most infamous Satanist of the 20th century, who is known for this statement more than any other—"Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law." That was also the motto of the creepy '[1]Church Of Satan,' founded in 1966 by Satanist Anton LaVey (1930-1997). The ungodly philosophy of the Church of Satan is that it is okay to live any way you want (especially in sexual sin), just so long as no one gets injured. But their definition of "injured doesn’t include the tens of millions of abortions in the U.S., since they reject the truth that a child in the womb is in fact a living human being! Broken marriages and ruined homes don’t count in the Satanist’s perspective of being “injured” by their reckless behavior. Satanism is a destructive deathstyle! Ironically, Anton LaVey (as do most Satanists) denied the existence of a literal being called Satan. Anton’s friends and acquaintances exposed him as a liar, [2]revealing that he did in fact believe in Satan.

Sin always hurts some dear reader. Sin always undermines a nation! Proverbs 14:34, “Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.” Isaiah 1:4, “

Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

” America has for the longest time been dubbed as

THE GREAT SATAN!

” by Muslims. I realize that Muslims are devoid of the truth and faith in the living God. Allah is a mythical god, no more real than the mythological gods of the Romans and the Greeks in ancient times. Albeit, the average Muslim puts Americans to shame in their higher level of morality. Muslims don’t abort their children. They make their women cover-up. Americans consider Muslim women oppressed because they are forced to wear burkas, while American women walk around 99 % naked at every place you find water in public. IT IS WICKEDNESS!!! (1st Timothy 2:9. Matthew 5:28; 1st Peter 2:11).

Jesus said whosoever committeth sin is the SERVANT of John 8:34-36, “ Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin. And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. ” Sin always thrills and then it kills! Sin always fascinates and then it assassinates! Don’t believe the lie from Satanists that it is acceptable to live is sin, just so long as no one gets hurt. Someone always gets hurt! You may not see it, but sin always undermines society. As we draw near to the end times, and sin becomes more prevalent in the world, people are becoming very phony, superficial and lacking in love. Matthew 24:12,

“And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. ”

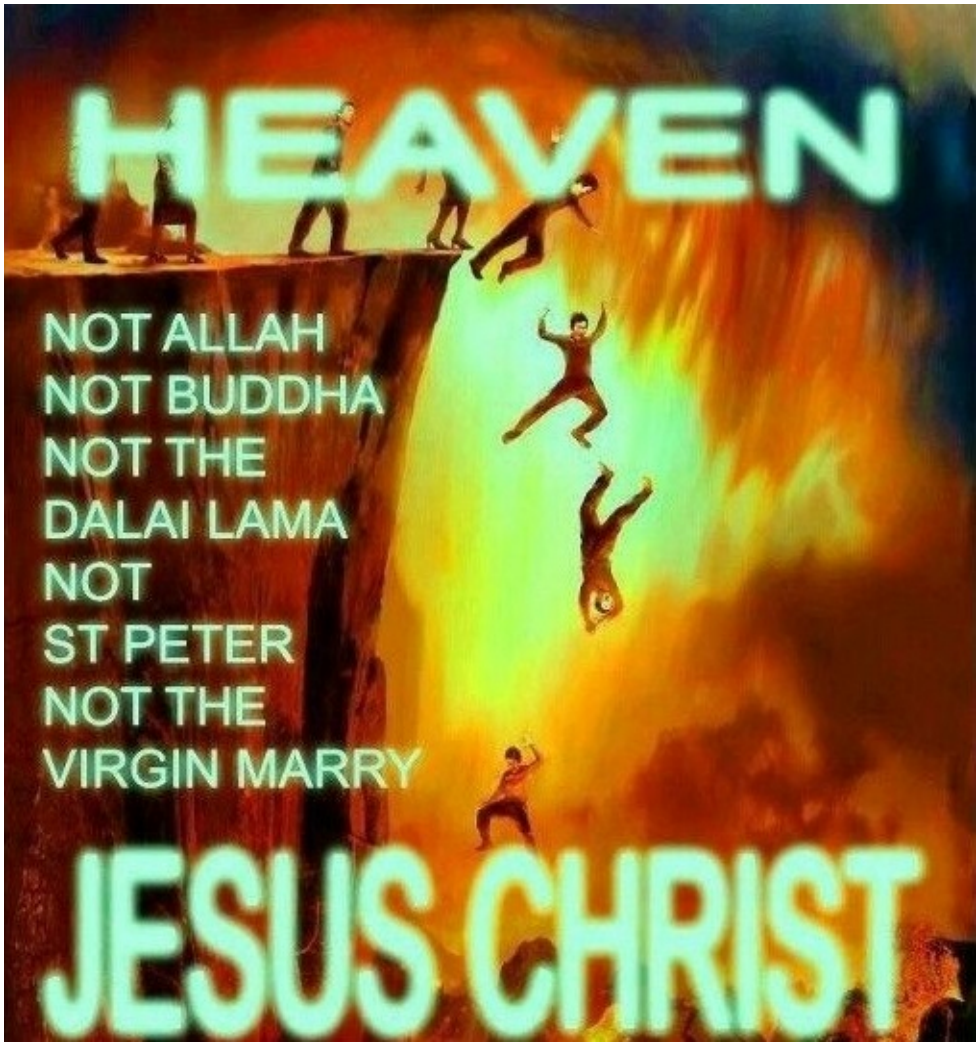
1.3.4 My Own Salvation Testimony (2020-05-02 11:18)

Romans 10:13, " For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

The best illustration that I can give you of repentance is from my own personal salvation testimony. As a lad, I was a bit troublesome. I remember before I got saved, sassing my mother and having no awareness of God in my life. I attended several different Sunday Schools at various churches as a youth with my mother. I was enrolled in multiple religious schools as a child. Yet, I was not saved. I had heard lots of stories from the Bible, but I had never comprehended the Gospel (and I don't ever remember hearing it taught). If my Christian parents shared the Gospel with me, I don't remember it. That all changed when I was 13-years-old. For the first time in my life I was enrolled in an Independent Fundamental Baptist Church and school on Chicago's Northside (our church later moved to the Southside). I thank God for my home church and friends of youth. I miss them all dearly.

One particular Sunday morning, I heard the church pastor preach something like, "If you don't have the Holy Spirit indwelling you, convicting you about sin, you are not saved!" I knew I wasn't saved, because I didn't have the Holy Spirit or His conviction. So at invitation time, from my pew, I received the Gospel and was saved. I don't remember the date or even year. But I do remember the moment. I began reading my King James Bible, having a new desire to learn God's Word. I didn't decide to change my ways or change my direction; but I did hear that still small convicting voice (not audible) of the Holy Spirit in my soul, saying, "I don't want you to talk that way (sassing) your mother anymore." I remember my mother saying to me, "You've changed" (in a positive way). You see, I didn't commit to changing my ways when I got saved; but rather, it was the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit that began working on my life. That's how salvation works! All these corrupt preachers today don't understand what it means to "repent," nor do they understand the doctrine of the Holy Spirit. Despite the Bible's plain definition of repentance as "a change of mind," many preachers today cannot grasp how this relates to a Christlike testimony that every believer ought to exemplify. They are confused between [1]salvation verses discipleship.



Here is one of the best quotes that I've found on repentance, by Dr. Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951):

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ('[2]Except Ye Repent,' p. 16)

We learn from Matthew 7:21-23 and Luke 13:23-34 that many religious people (who do "MANY WONDERFUL WORKS") are not saved and consequently, they are going straight to Hell when they die! There are far more religious people who DO GOOD, THAN BAD, who are unsaved and going to Hell. The point being, neither good works nor bad works are conclusive evidence that a person is either saved or unsaved. The evidence of the new birth is the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit (and that is something that only God can see). If it weren't for 2nd Peter 2:6-7, we'd never know that Lot was saved, whose own family laughed in his face when he tried to warn them of the coming destruction of Sodom (Genesis 19:14). Proverbs 25:19, "Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint."

The truth is that getting saved does not change a person's personal character one iota. Not one bit! The only difference is that the Holy Spirit has come to live inside the body of every believer (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; 1st John 3:34; Romans 8:9). You don't have to "decide to change" nor have a "change of direction" to be saved. Respectfully, I hear errant preachers attempting to use the Epistle of 1st John to teach that a person is not saved if they're still living a deathstyle of sin. 1st John 3:8, "He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil." This means that a person committing wickedness is of the Devil, but the Bible doesn't say they are not saved. Even the apostle Peter was called "Satan" by the Lord, for thinking contrary to the Scriptures (Matthew 16:23).

Dr. Jack Hyles personally witnessed to Elvis Presley in Texas, and was fully convinced of his salvation; yet Elvis was clearly of the Devil, living a shameful life of adultery, covetousness, worldly music, selfishness and sinful pride. You see, Elvis' salvation was based upon God's faithfulness, and not Elvis' faithfulness. Eternal life is a gift (Romans 6:23). The Epistle of 1st John was written to help professed believers "KNOW that ye have eternal life" (1st John 5:13), but the emphasis is upon the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24), and not upon living an upright life. If a person is living in habitual sin, then they need to, "Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you" (2nd Corinthians 13:5). Again, the focus is upon whether or not you have the Holy Spirit of Jesus Christ in you (Romans 8:9). Receiving the gift of eternal life does not require a change of direction, nor a decision to change; but rather, an admitted sinner need only receive the Gospel to be saved (Galatians 3:2).

1.3.5 Many Baptist Pastors Spiritually Are Like Pedophiles (2020-05-02 17:52)

James 2:1-4, “My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons. For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment; And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool: Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?”

Harvest Baptist Church on Guam are respecters of persons. Their church is composed of some arrogant wealthy snobs, who pick and choose like a social club who they welcome or reject. I have been rejected! [1]I told the truth in 2014 that the Alexandrian Bible revisions are corrupt, and was driven out because of it. Their ungodly selfish pastors gave up on me. The face of a coward is the back of someone's head as they run from a battle. The senior pastor and at least two associate pastors have quit, running like the cowards they are from the battle of the ages. The new pastors in 2020 are clowns, no better than the other shameful pastors.

I have been fasting last week and this week until next Friday, not for spiritual reasons, but just to maintain my weight. I will lose a few pounds. Then (Lord willing) I will eat at my daughter's house. My son-in-law made the best beef short-ribs the other day! It feels good to lose weight. It keeps my sugar and blood pressure numbers good. I do it by walking three times a day (if I can), and only eating 500 calories. So basically I'm walking off everything I eat, so it is like I'm eating nothing; but by eating just a little, it makes the fast bearable. [2]That's how I lost 70 pounds in 2017. It only took me 4 months; to God be the glory!

Anyway, as I was walking at sunrise today, it dawned on me that Harvest Baptist Church on Guam are like spiritual pedophiles! I glanced at their Facebook page before I left, which is why I thought about them. Their smiling pastors look to me like pedophiles! Former President George W. Bush Jr. brutally murdered 1,455,590 innocent Iraqi people, smiling the whole time. So you see, a smile means nothing. No one smiles as much as the Devil. Why pedophiles? You see, pedophiles prey about the weak and vulnerable. That is what many Baptist pastors do today, they prey upon weak and vulnerable people who don't know any better about spiritual things. Like so many spiritually incompetent pastors today (in my humble opinion), the Bozo clowns at Harvest spiritually prey upon naive people who don't know any better. They molest their victims with [3]dozens of perverted Bible versions, stroking them with [4]a perverted gospel of Lordship Salvation. I can hear their deep sadistic breathing now—perverts in the pulpit, preying upon the weak and vulnerable!

Listen to what Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) said:

> "The worst pervert in America is the Gospel pervert!"

—Brother Lester Roloff, from the sermon, “[5]The Gospel Perverts Or Jesus?”

If you don’t like what I am saying, then don’t read my ministry website. I couldn’t care less, really! I am thankful for all my web visitors, and I appreciate you all; but for those who would criticize, you can go to Hell with Harvest Baptist Cult on Guam!!! Why a cult? Oh boy, where do I get started?

Here is why Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is a damned Satanic cult:

1. They deny the inspiration of the King James Bible (the whole Bob Jones University crowd does)
2. They sanction, use, sell and promote the Devil’s corrupt Alexandrian Bible revisions
3. They teach the damnable lie of Lordship Salvation (i.e., Calvinism repackaged)
4. They pick and choose who is welcome or not (that’s what all cults do)
5. They are very seclusive (like the Jehovah’s Witness cult, a closed group)
6. Instead of preaching the Bible against sin, they require members to recite a vow to live right (definitely cultish)
7. As a group unit they befriend or reject people (that’s exactly what all my Harvest neighbours horribly did to me)

What a hellhole of apostasy! Bob Jones University is a cesspool of iniquity. All of the female BJU crowd on Guam wear tight pants and spandex. Bob Jones University is in denial, lying to prospective students that they haven’t changed since they opened their doors in 1927. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) said himself that he would shut down the college before he let it change, but they HAVE CHANGED. I promise you in 1927 that NOT ONE female student or staff member wore pants!

I turned the corner one day in my vehicle, and literally saw my neighbour’s wife running from her car to the house, because she had skin tight pants on and didn’t want me to see her. I don’t judge. I’ll stop listening to secular music when Harvest’s whores at heart stop wearing pants in public. Yeah, I didn’t think so! I guess we’re all hypocrites!

I used to listen to KHMG 88.1 Harvest Family Radio all the time, even after they forced me out of their damned fake church cult in 2014; but when I needed their love and help and pleaded to return in 2017, with the PROMISE that I wouldn't cause any trouble, they banned me and told me to go elsewhere. Fuddrucker Harvest Baptist Church CULT!!! So I stopped listening to their crappy radio station and haven't heard listened to it since. I listen to secular music now, because I don't give a damn anymore about Harvest, I just want to expose them for the rotten heathen people they continue to choose to be. They are spiritual pedophiles in the pulpit, spiritual abusers! If Harvest doesn't like my writings now, they'll hate me in 10 years, because I plan to keep writing and writing and writing, until they close their accursed doors (Galatians 1:6-9). Lordship Salvation is NOT the Gospel of free grace!

[7]Bob Jones University is a spiritual backed-up toilet filled with dung! BJU 100 % supports, sells and sanctions this Alexandrian version crap (no pun intended)!!! I know Harvest's shameful leaders couldn't care less about my online writings, but I KNOW there are other victims of their spiritual abuse at Harvest, who love my writings exposing them for what they are! So I write for them, to comfort and encourage other people who have been mistreated by spiritual pedophiles in the the pulpit!!! Their former pastor ought to be ashamed of himself, and the present pastor!

GET RIGHT WITH GOD!!! In fact GET SAVED!!!

Stop abusing people!!!

We've got a bunch of spiritual pedophiles in the pulpit, preying upon the ignorant and weak. I think I'll start a while new section of my website called: PEDOPHILES IN THE PULPIT!!! The crazy thing is that all I ever wanted was to return to Harvest, just to sit and listen to sermons and be part of a church family. [8]I have been pleading like a dog since 2017, but they have cruelly ignored me, casting aside their brother in Christ. Romans 14:10, "But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ." Why have the pastors and church members at Harvest set me at nought? Why don't they care if I go to church? Why don't they care about me as a person? Why are they shunning me away?

[9]I Was Abused At Harvest Baptist Church On Guam!

The answer is because their seven pastors at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam are spiritual pedophiles! They are spiritually abusing God's flock, and I am a caring spiritual adult who exposed their perversion. They don't want me in their cult, lest I expose the spiritual filthiness and corruption. Please don't misunderstand, I am not saying they are pedophiles, God forbid; I am saying they are like pedophiles—spiritual pedophiles who prey upon the unsuspecting and vulnerable—like Benny Hinn, Joyce Meyer, Ravi Zacharias, John MacArthur and Pat Robertson. When I did the right thing and told them truth at HBC—the truth that God's flock is being spiritually abused—they blamed me instead and shunned me away, so they can continue their spiritual abuse. The abuse is still going on today in 2020, and that is why they will not allow me to return to their church services! They are is a spiritual pedophile cult of predators! Can you hear their heavy breathing behind you. WATCH OUT!!!

Last year a few of my Harvest neighbours stood mocking me for a couple weeks. They waited for me at sunset to go walking, and waited outside to wave at me. Even the woman I have been in love with for three years waved at me. At first I was really happy, thinking maybe they would finally welcome me back into their fold as their Christian brother. I really wanted to go back to church; but they never talked to me nor invited me, nothing. So I got frustrated and did what I have done since 2014—PREACHED AGAINST THEM!!! What the hell is wrong with Harvest? Why are they like a cult? I can only conclude that they are a cursed cult! They have counted me as their enemy for telling the truth (Galatians 4:16), even though [10]I have repeatedly tried to be their friend and make peace, so now they have created their own enemy! Fine, then I will be the enemy of enemies! If that is how Harvest Baptist Church wants to play this game, so be it—BECAUSE I AM PREACHING THE TRUTH!!! I make no apologies for being right. I am thankful that this Coronavirus has shut their church doors, and I hope they never reopen. If I had my way, I'd tear the damn building down and turn it into a parking lot!

What is sad—and this is the horrible truth—is that the pastors at Harvest simply don't give a damn. As long as their paychecks clear, who gives a flip, right? When they have got their fill of abusing the ministry for money, they'll just resign and move elsewhere. When the staff member's employment contracts expire after a few years, they'll just move back to the United States, and who cares about what Harvest Baptist Church stands for, right? Who gives a damn? I DO DAMN IT! Dr. Steve Petite (the now disgraceful president of BJU) will milk the cow until he retires, parasiting a 6-digit salary from students, but couldn't care less about the spiritual direction of BJU. If he did he would never let the college sell and endorse dozens of Bible revisions! Truth doesn't matter to them. Right doctrine is not important to them. They are indifferent, complacent and lukewarm. They won't stand for anything! Harvest Baptist Church on the island of Guam in Micronesia are sitting on the premises instead of standing on the promises!!! What a disgusting hellhole of apostasy!

I want this article to go viral, so I am uploading it to my blog and Facebook, because everyone needs to be warned about pedophiles in the pulpit! I am preaching with the Spirit of Christ, and with a Christlike spirit. If you are a born-again Christian, and don't think Bible-preachers should criticize and expose perverts in the pulpit, then you are not right with God!!! God authored one Book, not 339! Bob Jones University are wicked devils, who will argue that there cannot possibly be only one good English Bible, which is a smokescreen for the truth—the truth that BJU supports the blatantly [11]corrupt Alexandrian Bible revisions, translated from an entirely different ancient text than the inspired King James Bible. Don't believe Bob Jones' dirty lies! Don't become a victim at Harvest Baptist Church Cult on Guam!

God knows that I love the people and pastors of Harvest, but I am sick and tired of the dead pulpits across America. I am sick of the spiritual abuse of people, as I am a victim of THEIR HATRED and LACK OF LOVE at Harvest! God has led me here, at this place and time in my life, "for such a time as this" (Esther 4:14b); "If I perish, I perish!" (Esther 4:16b).

> "'Ichabod' will be written about the church that soft-pedals on unpleasant truth or that stands not unwaveringly for 'the faith once delivered."' —Pastor R. G. Lee (1886-1978), from the powerful sermon, '[12]PAYDAY SOMEDAY!'

1.3.6 Is Every Christian Supposed To Win Souls? (2020-05-03 04:30)

I believe so, yes. Part of The Great Commission is to "teach others" the things which Christ taught us. The idea is to perpetuate the Gospel...

> Matthew 28:18-20, "And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen."

So we see as believers we're supposed to:

1. Go into all the world
2. Preach the Gospel
3. Water baptize converts
4. Teach them all things concerning Christ; and then they hopefully repeat the cycle, which is the whole idea

CCM singer Amy Grant is infamous for this horrible remark:

> "I'm a singer, not a preacher, I'm not looking to convert anybody" says Christian rock diva Amy Grant. (Los Angeles Times, 5/4/84, pg. 2-c) Grant goes on to demonstrate her spirituality by saying, "I'm not going to say too often that I like a cold beer while watching a football game. That might bother some of my fans." (Greensville News, 5/4/94)

I won't judge her for the beer comment (although I think as a role model to youth she shouldn't have said that), but she is wrong to say that she's not trying to convert anybody. It just shows how carnally-minded and spiritually barren the Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) industry is. K-Love is the most popular CCM radio station nationwide, who rake in over one billion dollars each year, but they are fruitless. They propagate a ridiculously shallow religious message of making a commitment to Christ, which is not the Gospel. Daniel 12:3, "And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever." Proverbs 11:30, "The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise."

The parable of 'The Sower And The Seeds' in Luke 8:11-15 it is about soulwinning, not salvation. Luke 8:15, "But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience." Kindly, Evangelist Ray Comfort gets this passage way wrong in his 'The Evidence Bible,' teaching that the second group in Luke 8:13 got saved, but then lost it. They did get saved, but they didn't lose salvation; the Bible says they had shallow roots and fell away, not maturing to BRING FORTH FRUIT. God's goal for every believer is to mature so that they will also bear fruit. This passage is all about maturing to bear fruit, evidenced by verse 15, which says an obedient believer brings forth fruit, which takes time.

The Bible says we bear fruit "with patience." I have received many e-mails from people over the past 18 years, who said they found my website, and thought it was either a joke or I was nuts, but then a few years later (as the truth worked on them) they came to Christ for salvation, and now they love me. I love testimonies like that! Many people won't get saved the first time they are witnessed to. That is why the Apostle Paul said in 1st Corinthians 3:6-9 that some Christians SOW a seed, and then another Christian WATERS that seed, and eventually, still another Christian REAPS the soul saved; but only God giveth the increase (i.e., only God can save a person). So our responsibility is to witness the Gospel to everyone (to "EVERY CREATURE," Mark 16:15). That includes the vilest of sinners and criminals, who are "creatures" too. Thus, I believe Biblically that soulwinning is every believer's duty to Christ.

We read in Luke 2:36-38 about an 84 year old woman named Anna, who watched for people travelling to Jerusalem to find out about this man named "Jesus" whom they had heard about. She prayed and fasted, and shared the Good News of Christ crucified, buried and risen with visitors seeking answers, leading them to the Lord. Bless God, if an 84 year old woman can serve the risen Savior, then we all can. I love this truth in the Bible.

"'Pray to be saved. Ask the Lord to save you.' This is what I heard a minister say to a convicted sinner who came forward for prayer at the close of an evangelistic service. Nowhere in the Bible are men told to pray to be saved. There are examples where men did pray and were saved. Men are told to repent, to believe, to obey the Gospel, but the Bible never says to pray for salvation. It does say that whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved, but nowhere does the Bible command men to pray to be saved. I think I know why, God, who made the human heart, knew that it was not necessary to tell convicted sinners to pray. If a sinner can see Jesus Christ on the cross, it is as natural for him to pray as it is for birds to sing or flowers to bloom. 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."' —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," chapter: Prayer And Praise, page 163; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

1.3.7 Attitude Determines Everything (2020-05-03 13:30)

Philippians 4:13, " I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."

Brother Hyles' dear mother, Mattie Coystal Hyles (1887-1984), taught him as a boy—"'I CAN!' makes the man." I like that.

Dear friend, how's your attitude? Our attitude determines our:

1. altitude (how high we can go in life)
2. amplitude (how well you can learn)
3. achievement (how much we can accomplish in life)

I learned that truth recently about having a right attitude in church. I have been attending a small new local Baptist church on Guam. I've been praying for a new Independent Fundamental Baptist Church to start on Guam, and God gave me one! So I am going when I can. It is farther for me to drive, and that makes it more difficult, but I've been going once a week. I can't wait until this Coronavirus is over, so I can go back to church. We all need a church family. I've been trying to attend

[1]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam

for a few years now, because I want to find a wife there (and there's a young Christian woman that I would like to marry), but they have forbade me from returning in writing,

[2]due to my correct King James Bible only position on the Bible; and also because I recognize Dr. John MacArthur (whom they promote) as a wolf in sheep's clothing

[3]who preaches another gospel . I love them, but they don't love me, and it breaks my heart. All I ever wanted was a church family!

A Sinful Wrong Attitude Toward The Holy Bible

One of my favorite preachers is Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965), who said:

> "Be on guard against any tampering with the Word, whether disguised as a search for truth, or a scholarly attempt at apparently hidden meanings; and beware of the confusion created by the senseless rash of new versions, translations, editions, and improvements upon the tried and tested Bible of our fathers and grandfathers." — Pastor M.R. DeHaan, "The Tabernacle," Pg. 101

One's attitude toward the inspired Word of God affects everything! Kindly, that is why the [4]First Baptist Church of Hammond and [5]Hyles-Anderson College are eerily silent today concerning the Devil's Alexandrian Bible PERversions.

Since they no longer believe that the King James Bible is inspired (shamefully since 2008), they no longer see a problem with having HUNDREDS of English Bible revisions!!! I'm so sick of hearing that they "prefer" and "use only" the King James Bible, when they are A.W.O.L. from " [6]THE BATTLES OF THE AGES! " (a 4 hour video presentation I made). It's getting lonely out here in the foxholes! I'm fighting this war by myself! Where's the backup? Where's the reinforcements? We're losing battles, because like in Vietnam, not everybody is doing their part in the war! Soldiers on the Frontlines cannot win a war without support from the rear!

> "The true Church preaches REGENERATION; not reformation, not education, not legislation, but regeneration."

1.3.8 What Is Calvinism Exactly? (2020-05-04 01:24)

2nd Peter 2:1, "But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction."

John Calvin (1509-1564) was a French theologian, pastor and reformer in Geneva, Switzerland, during the Protestant Reformation. He was a key figure in the development of the system of Christian theology later called "Calvinism." He was also a monster! [1]History documents that John Calvin exiled 76 people and murdered 58 others (including women and children) for merely disagreeing with his religious views (particularly his heresy on [2]Infant Baptism). What a madman!

Tragically, I'd estimate that about 75 % of Baptist churches today have succumbed to the Satanic junk theology of John Calvin (many unwittingly, aka, the "[3]be willing to turn from your sins" heresy to be saved). About [4]30 % of Southern Baptist Churches identify themselves as Calvinists, but 60 % of the SBC are concerned about the impact of Calvinism on it's organization. I am an Independent Fundamental Baptist myself (not a Calvinist at all), and I hold to a free grace view of the Gospel (which the Bible itself calls: "the simplicity that is in Christ," 2nd Corinthians 11:3b).

Calvinism is often described by using the helpful acronym, T U L I P:

T - Total Depravity (This heresy claims humans are so depraved as to not be able to even make a choice, total inability to believe. This ends up in teaching that man must be born again BEFORE he believes. [5]I agree with Pastor Harry Ironside that men are totally depraved, and that the Holy Spirit must draw men to Christ, but the Bible is very clear that the Holy Spirit draws "ALL MEN" (John 12:32), not just some whom God chooses. The grace of God that brings salvation appears to "ALL MEN" (Titus 2:13). So, clearly Harry Ironside did not ascribe to the typical Calvinist's misunderstanding of the total depravity of the sinner. Dr. Ironside was no Calvinist!

U - Unconditional Election (Calvinists errantly teach that God has chosen who will be saved and who will go to Hell, because these latter have not been gifted to believe. This is supposedly to the glory of God. Faith gifted to the elect by the Holy Spirit is said to bring true conversions, while personal faith is considered a "work" that produces false conversions. Calvinism says we believe because we were chosen; the truth is that God chose us because we believe.)

L - Limited Atonement (Many Calvinists errantly teach that Jesus Christ died only for those He chose to be saved, and that the Gospel is not for all. Pastor Charles Spurgeon succumbed to this horrible false doctrine, as does Dr. John MacArthur and Moody Bible Institute. In sharp contrast to the heresy of Limited Atonement, the Holy Bible says in 1st John 2:2 that Christ "is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.")

I - Irresistible Grace (Calvinists errantly believe God only calls some to be saved, and they cannot resist. They will be saved automatically, regardless of whether they want to be or not, while those whom He deems 'reprobates' have no chance of salvation. Is grace truly grace if it cannot be rejected? Throughout the New Testament we find the word "WHOSOEVER," which is an open free invitation from God for all sinners to come to Christ by faith alone in the Gospel for eternal life.)

P - Perseverance of the Saints (This heresy says those whom God chose will not be lost, and they will continue in faith, love, holiness and righteousness. However since these people do not know who the "elect" are, there is the torment of uncertainty, which results in a works/Lordship salvation in an attempt to prove to themselves they are indeed elect. In sharp contrast, Biblical Christianity teaches the Preservation of the Saints, not the persevering (hanging on for dear life to convince yourself you are really saved). [6]Harry Ironside believed in the perseverance of the Holy Spirit, with which I fully agree. As Dr. Ironside rightly says, if someone who once claimed to be a born-again Christian, now denies Christ as Savior, it just means they were never saved at all. Dr. Ironside did not ascribe to the Calvinist heresy that a person who still lives in willful sin, never repented, so their faith in Jesus is counterfeit. As 1st Corinthians 3:15 proves, not all saints 'persevere' in holiness, because this horrible man received no heavenly rewards, "saved; yet so as by fire.")

That is Calvinism in a nutshell (and they are nutty in their theology). God has given to every human being a FREEWILL, so that we may CHOOSE to either receive or reject the only begotten Son of God, the Christ. That is why God gave us the Gospel of John, “that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name” (John 20:31b).

> “D.L. Moody used to put it very simply the elect are the ’whosoever wills’ the non-elect ’whosoever wont’s’. This is exactly what scripture teaches, the invitation is to all, those who accept it are the elect. Remember, we are never told that Christ died for the elect.” —Pastor Harry Ironside, a quote from his awesome book: “[7]Full Assurance,” chapter 9

1.3.9 Nearly All Old Earth Advocates Are Not Evolutionists (2020-05-04 01:39)

Genesis 2:2-3, “ And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.”

If you research the writings of Young Earth advocates, you’ll notice that they continually grasp for straws, desperately trying to make a case where there is no case. Most Young Earthers attempt to turn Old Earthers into evolutionists, and that is 80 % to 90 % of their argument. Take for example the book titled, “5 REASONS TO BELIEVE IN RECENT CREATION,” by Henry Morris III. Here are his five reasons to believe in a Young Earth:

1. The Bible does not allow an evolutionary interpretation.

2. Science does not observe evolution happening today.
3. There is no evidence evolution took place in the past.
4. God's character absolutely forbids evolutionary methods.
5. God's purpose for creation excludes evolution.

SOURCE: "5 REASONS TO BELIEVE IN RECENT CREATION," by Henry Morris III; Table Of Contents; copyright 2008, Institute For Creation Research.

Notice carefully that in all 5 reasons submitted by Dr. Morris, he attempts to disprove an Old Earth by turning proponents of an Old Earth into evolutionists. Most proponents of an Old Earth DON'T believe in the evolutionary process (that is, the teaching that the universe formed from a Big Bang 13 billion years ago, and then evolved, and continues to evolve). I am a firm believer in an Old Earth, yet I do NOT believe in evolution in any way, fashion or form. Neither do I believe in Theistic Evolution (that is, the teaching that God created the universe, and then it evolved). I believe the inspired holy Bible, which teaches that God created everything from nothing by the Word of His mouth. 2nd Peter 3:5, "For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water."

When you take away the teachings of evolution, Young Earth proponents lose nearly all of their ammunition. Dr. Morris' entire book is based upon the presumption that Young Earthers are evolutionists. It is unscholarly and dishonest to label one's opponents as being something that they are not. I am NOT an evolutionist!

The truth is that God created the earth long, long, ago. It was a pre-Adamic world. Humanity had not yet been created. When Lucifer and one-third of the angels were cast down, God in his anger laid the earth waste. I believe the following passage of Scripture from the Old Testament is compelling evidence which cannot be ignored:

> Jeremiah 4:23-26, “I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form, and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly. I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled. I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger.”

The following passage of Scripture concerning Lucifer evidences an Old Earth...

> Isaiah 14:12, “How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High.”

Here are some interesting questions concerning Lucifer:

1. Where was Lucifer when he said, “I will ASCEND into heaven?” Clearly he was not in heaven at the time.
2. Where was Lucifer when he said, “I will ascend ABOVE THE HEIGHTS OF THE CLOUDS”? How do you ascend above the clouds unless you are below the clouds

The only logical answer is that Lucifer was on earth, under the clouds, which is where his throne was located before man was created. There are [1]many problems with a Young Earth view . I respect the right of others to have their own opinions. It is okay to agree to disagree. Most believers in churches today are proponents of a Young Earth view.

I realize that it is much easier to just decide to believe in Creationism and totally reject any ruin-reconstruction or gap principle teachings; however, there are just too many Biblical and scientific inconsistencies with a Young Earth to disregard it. And by the way, I do believe in Creationism (that is, I do believe that God literally created the world as we know it today in 6-days). These weren’t thousand-day periods, they were 24 hour days! But I also believe that there was a Pre-Adamic world, between Genesis 1:1 and 1:2c, which is commonly called “THE GAP THEORY.” I like “GAP PRINCIPLE” better, because this is what the Bible teaches.

I’ll tell you, this is a raging debate. Young Earthers commonly attack the salvation of proponents of an Old Earth, accusing them of corrupting the Gospel. May I say, 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 defines the Gospel as the DEATH, BURIAL and RESURRECTION of Jesus Christ from the dead after three days. This is the Gospel and it does not include creation as Henry Morris III claims on pages 44-45 of his book titled, “5 REASONS TO BELIEVE IN RECENT CREATION.”

Did you know that the Young Earth heresy started with the Seventh-Day Adventists and Ellen G. White? The Young Earth view didn’t exist until Seventh-Day Adventism. The false religion of Seventh-Day Adventism literally worship the Sabbath Day (which is why they meet on Saturdays instead of Sundays), which consequently compels SDA’s to worship creation too, since God rested on the 7th day from His work. The Bible totally disagrees with a Young Earth view. Please see ’[2]WITHOUT FORM AND VOID’ by Dr. Arthur C. Custance.

So remember these four truths:

1. Legitimate science disproves the theories of Evolution.
2. Legitimate science proves an old earth that’s at least tens-of-millions of years old, which did not evolve.
3. The Biblical truth of Creation does not contradict either true science or an Old Earth theological position.
4. The human race is only 6,000 years old, evidenced by history and the holy Bible.

Legitimate science and the holy Bible NEVER contradict or disagree. People who follow a Young Earth position are rejecting proven science! And people who follow Evolution are rejecting the inspired Words of God in the Bible! An Old Earth position accepts the claims of legitimate science, and as well rejects the bogus claims of Evolutionists, while upholding the inspired holy Scriptures! [3]READ MORE

1.3.10 Him That Is Unjust, Let Him Be Unjust Still (2020-05-04 06:30)

Revelation 22:11-16, "He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still. And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star."

One of the most frustrating things to me is to share the Gospel with lost people who refuse to heed the truth. It doesn't frustrate me that I cannot win them over; but rather, that they so foolishly hold onto a blatant lie of the Devil. Moses was also a frustrated man of God. Hebrews 4:2, "

For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

” There is considerable debate over HOW MANY Israelites exited (aka, the book of

) from Egypt. [1]This theologian says it was 60,355 Jews , and I think that seems accurate. The entire population of Egypt was 4,000,000 at the time, so it seems unlikely that the Hebrews comprised half of Egypt’s population (2,000,000 is a commonly accepted number, but I think that is way too high). Howbeit, Moses spent 40 long years preaching the Gospel to the Jews in the Wilderness, but it DID NOT PROFIT most of them, missing the element of faith.

Noah preached the Gospel for 120 long years, but NO ONE listened. Only eight people, all family members, boarded the ark, and then God Himself shut the door of the ark. The apostle Paul realized that time is too precious a commodity to waste on skeptics.

Titus 3:9-11, “

But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject;

Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself. ” That is a remarkable passage of Scripture.

Kindly, that is why I don’t waste my time debating with web visitors.

I am new to Facebook. I was invited to join a “ on Facebook of King James Version believers. I went to read what the group’s purpose was, one of which is to debate. I declined the invitation

GROUP

to join the group, because my ministry is to reach hungry people with the truth of God’s Word, not to debate with religious people. I am not against having a group, but it is not what I want to do with my time. I want to work to help that 1 lost sheep out of 100 who has wandered astray. I am a spiritual paramedic!

John 9:4, “ I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.”

Again we read a remarkable statement from the apostle Paul in

1st Corinthians 16:22, “

If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maranatha.

” Anathema means

”;

Maranatha means

The Lord is coming!

” Literally, Paul is saying if a person doesn’t want to get saved, let them go to Hell! Getting saved in the Bible is always associated with loving the Lord Jesus Christ. They go hand in hand. A man who lives in sin has prioritized his LOVE FOR SIN above his LOVE FOR THE LORD! 1st Peter 2:7, “ Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,” A believer may choose to live in sin, and not love the Lord as he ought, but Jesus is precious to every born-again believer!

Thus, I believe our text passage of Scripture from Revelation 22:11 is simply teaching us, that people choose who they want to be, and oftentimes our preaching of the truth won’t affect them. Moses preached the Gospel for 40 years, but without faith in them that heard it, it did them no good! We are living today in a stiff-necked generation in America! I have lived long enough to see [2]a spirit of hostility develop in our nation against Bible Christianity. God is exhorting the saints to be firm in our stand for the truth, uncompromising without apology; and not to get bent out of shape over the wicked who willfully choose to continue in their unbelief and evil ways.

Joshua 24:15,

“And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD. ”

Christianity in America has been turned upside down on its head. We are seeing the churches fill up with rebellious women preachers, ungodly homosexuals, fake Bible revisions, marriage-wrecking feminism, and all manner of sinful worldliness and demonic heresy! These are not legitimate New Testament churches. Only God decides what is “a church,” not a man or group of men (Revelation 2:5). Everyone is being forced to CHOOSE SIDES in the spiritual war today! I believe that is what the Bible means in Revelation 22:11, “He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.” We are in the battle of the ages in churches today over the very inspiration of the Word of God. Who side are you on?

1.3.11 Bible Teaches An Old Earth, But A Young Human Race (2020-05-04 12:30)

Psalms 102:25, "Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands."

The only reason why so many dead theologians, so-called experts and sincere people hold to a Young Earth view is because they've either never studied on their own, or have never had the blessing of a doctrinally-sound Bible teacher. I thank God for [1]Pastor Max D. Younce, who is a thinking student of the Bible. Dr. Younce has written an excellent exegesis on this controversial subject of a Young Earth verses an Old Earth...

[2]The Truth About Evolution; Or, Don't Let Satan Make A Monkey Out Of You (.PDF file)

Whereas most of us repeat doctrines that we've heard over the years, Pastor Younce questions them. Faithful Christians do tend to question anything taught by the religious cults, such as the falsehood of [3]Seventh-day Adventism that requires works for salvation. However, oftentimes we DON'T question teachings that we receive from fellow believers in the Lord. 1st John 4:1 tells us to try (test) the spirits of everything (music, books, doctrines, Bible versions, people, et cetera). There are many deceptions in the world. The Word of God is our absolute standard against which all else is to be tested. This is why the Lord taught us to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES (John 5:39).

Even without having the advantage of the Hebrew language available, anyone can see that the word “created” is not mentioned again after Genesis 1:1 until the 5th day of creation in Genesis 1:21 when He “created” the whales. Everything on the second, third and fourth day of creation were “made” the Bible says, which means that they previously existed and God simply remodeled them according to His fashion.

Here’s an eye-opening quote from Dr. Younce’s book, which further explains this doctrine on page 111...

CHAPTER TWELVE

THE REMODELING

We have previously discussed the difference between "created" (Hebrew "bara") and "made" (Hebrew "asah"). To briefly refresh your memory; "created" means that God created something that at no time in the past had ever existed. "Made," on the other hand means "to form, assemble, and arrange from its previous state of usefulness to that form of beautification, so as to be used by God for His purpose."

It is interesting to notice that from Genesis 1:1 where God created the heavens and the earth; the word "created" (Hebrew "bara") does not appear again until the Fifth Day in Verse 20. Everything from Verse 2 to Verse 19 has to do with remodeling the earth in four days. These elements had previously been associated with the Original Creation, where Lucifer and the angels resided. Lucifer’s sin brought about God’s judgment on the earth, rendering it "without form and void." The angels are now disembodied spirit beings, leaving the earth uninhabitable and in a chaotic ruin.

Now let us see what elements, which were previously created and were with the Original Creation, that God is now going to reactivate and position in His remodeling process.

1. Water. - Nowhere does it say from Verses 2 to 19 that water was created to be used as part of the renovation of the earth. Why would that be? Very simply, because water had already been created and in existence at the Original Creation. Notice in Genesis 1:2, it was water that God used to cover the earth as part of His judgment on the Original Creation (Genesis 1:2).

SOURCE: '[4]The Truth About Evolution; Or, Don't Let Satan Make A Monkey Out Of You,' by Dr. Max D. Younce

There are dozens of reasons to believe in an Old Earth view. Likewise, there are dozens more reasons why a Young Earth view doesn't make sense at all. Proponents of a Young Earth view grasp for straws in a desperate attempt to validate their teachings. Eric Hovind's website at CreationToday.org claims the earth is young because the human race is only 6,000 years old. The age of the human race has absolutely NOTHING to do with the age of the earth! They're comparing apples with oranges.

The human race is indeed only 6,000 years old and the advancement of civilizations (languages, inventions, medical, industry, et cetera) clearly evidence this fact. However, the earth is very old. I have no problem with scientists estimating that the universe is 12 billion years old. It may be for all we know. What I do know is that the Hebrew language shows in Genesis 1:2 that the earth which God created became without form, and void and dark; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. The Bible says God's Word NEVER returns void. Isaiah 55:11, "So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." Everything that God has ever created is good. Only sin destroys good. God never created a devil. God never created a fallen man. God never created an earth that is void.

You know, there are so many practical truths in the Bible that evidence an Old Earth. The book of Job chronologically took place at the same time as the book of Genesis. There are many evidences for this. For example: The law of God is not mentioned in Job, because it had not yet been given. Job mentions being hunted like a fierce lion. Job 10:16, "For it increaseth. Thou huntest me as a fierce lion: and again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me." If there were carnivorous dinosaurs alive at the time of Genesis, no doubt Job would have thought of a more ferocious predator than a mere lion. Many dinosaurs were meat-eating hunters!

The Bible, science, archaeology, history, paleontology and common sense evidence an Old Earth. I am a Creationist. I believe in a literal 6-day creation in Genesis. But the Hebrew language indicates that God remodeled the earth during those 6-days. To believe and teach that the universe did not exist prior to 4,004 BC (the date of the beginning of the human race) is ridiculous. A study of the civilizations of humanity overwhelmingly evidences that mankind began 6,000 years ago; but science also plainly evidences that the earth is much older.

Whether you believe in a Young Earth or an Old Earth has absolutely nothing to do with your salvation, but I believe many sincere unsaved people have been driven away from the Gospel when they hear a Christian teaching that dinosaurs roamed the earth 4,500 years ago. The reason why most believers are caught-up into the Young Earth heresy is because they have been taught to associate an Old Earth view with the bogus teachings of Evolution. But the truth is that the doctrine of an Old Earth does not in any way support the lies of Evolution. Evolution is totally against science and legitimate science is totally against Evolution! There is no scientific evidence to support the ridiculous theories of Evolution. In sharp contrast, all fields of science DOES support the truth of an Old Earth.

So remember these four truths:

1. Legitimate science disproves the theories of Evolution.
2. Legitimate science proves an old earth that's at least tens-of-millions of years old, which did not evolve.
3. The Biblical truth of Creation does not contradict either true science or an Old Earth theological position.

4. The human race is only 6,000 years old, evidenced by history and the holy Bible.

Legitimate science and the holy Bible NEVER contradict or disagree. People who follow a Young Earth position are rejecting proven science! And people who follow Evolution are rejecting the inspired Words of God in the Bible! An Old Earth position accepts the claims of legitimate science, and as well rejects the bogus claims of Evolutionists, while upholding the inspired holy Scriptures!

> The truth of our faith becomes a matter of ridicule among the infidels if any Christian, not gifted with the necessary scientific learning, presents as dogma what scientific scrutiny shows to be false.

1.3.12 The Salvation Of A Nation (2020-05-04 15:30)

II Chronicles 7:14, "If My people, which are called by My name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from Heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." Leviticus 2:13, "And every oblation of thy meat-offering shall thou season with salt; neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat-offering: with all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt." Numbers 18:19, "All the heave-offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the Lord, have I given thee, and thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: it is a covenant of salt for ever before the Lord unto thee and to thy seed with thee." II Chronicles 13:5, "Ought ye not to know that the Lord God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt?"

Pastor Jack Hyles preached this needful sermon, and I wanted to share it with everyone:

Just exactly how are nations saved? This does not deal with all the people of a nation coming to Christ but rather how a nation can be saved from destruction and from God's total disfavor so that our sins can be forgiven and our land can be healed.

To understand this properly we turn to the phrase, "the covenant of salt." II Chronicles 13:5, "Ought ye not to know that the Lord God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt?" A covenant of salt was a covenant made between individuals pledging an unbreakable friendship. They vowed that strong friendship to each other, and as a symbol of that covenant, they ate bread and salt together. The bread symbolized the nourishment of the friendship and the salt with its savoring capacity emphasized the durability of the friendship. Salt had an important part to play in religious ceremony and sacrifices in the Word of God. For example, salt had to be in every sacrifice. Leviticus 2:13, "And every oblation of thy meat-offering shall thou season with salt; neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat-offering: with all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt." The Christian is called the salt of the earth. Matthew 5:13, "Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? It is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men." Christ is called the Bread of Life. John 6:35, "And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to Me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on Me shall never thirst."

The conclusion is, Christ will enter into a covenant with His people—a covenant that will not be broken. However, God will not enter into a covenant with a nation unless there is enough salt for the preservation of that nation. Since Christians are called the salt of the earth, there are two requirements for this covenant before God will enter into such an agreement: First, there must be enough salt in that nation. Second, that salt must have not lost its savour. God is looking for enough salt that is savoured in a nation so He can spare that nation from destruction. Note what this salt is. Salt represents the righteousness of Christ.

Savoured salt represents personal righteousness. These two forms of righteousness are mentioned in Romans 10:1-3, “Brethren, my heart’s desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. For they being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.”

Abraham came to God and begged for the salvation of Sodom. His nephew, Lot, was there, and Abraham did not want Lot and his family destroyed. He asked God that if he could find 50 righteous people, would God spare the city? God agreed to do so. Abraham could not find 50, so he pleaded for the salvation of Sodom if he could find 40. Again he failed. Then he asked if the quota could be lowered to 30. It was. He failed again and requested the quota be lowered to 20. Again he failed to find 20 righteous people. Finally God agreed that He would save Sodom for 10 righteous people!

Now it must be understood that these ten righteous people must have both imputed righteousness and personal righteousness. They must be salt and they must be savoured salt. This was the only hope for the city. Genesis 19:1, “And there came two angels to Sodom at even; and Lot sat in the gate of Sodom: and Lot seeing them rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground.” Notice that Lot was at the gate of the city. Some have suggested that he was an alderman. Others have with justification, supposed that he was the mayor, for at the gate of the city sat the judges, magistrates and city leaders. The business of the city was done at the gate, much as it is done at city hall today. At least we know one thing—Lot was a city official. Neither cities nor nations are saved because the right officials are elected! The soul winner does more for the salvation of his nation than does the precinct captain. The answer for America is not excessive political involvement on the part of God’s people, but it is the excessive soul winning on the part of God’s people and the excessive preaching of righteousness, separation and standards in our pulpits and in our homes!

I believe that God has a quota set for America—a quota of righteous people who are possessed with the imputed righteousness of Christ in response to their faith and with the personal righteousness of a holy life! I do not know what that quota is. In Sodom it was ten, but I believe with all my heart that God has placed a number of people as a quota for the salvation of this land, and that God will enter into a covenant of salt with us if we can find sufficient salt that has not lost its savour! The answer for America is not in a generation of preachers who leave their pulpits and leave their soul winning to enter politics. Of course, we should vote. Of course, we should pray for our elected officials. Of course, as citizens we should have some participation influencing others to vote properly, but this should be minute in comparison with the gathering of salt. This nation and every other nation will be spared only by direct intervention from God Almighty! I am talking about the walls of Jericho crumbling. I am talking about the drying of the Red Sea. I am talking about the sun standing still for Joshua. The only hope for America is for soul winners to get busy winning souls and for leaders to get busy preaching personal holiness so that God will enter with us into a covenant of salt and will spare our land! Now notice Genesis 19:26, "But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt." Why was Lot's wife turned to a pillar of salt? There was not enough salt in the city to cause a covenant of salt. When a city is taken in battle, its destruction was finalized when the conqueror would sow it with savourless salt. What a symbol this is! Savourless salt will not spare a nation; it causes its destruction!

What then brings the salvation of a nation? II Chronicles 7:14, "If My people, which are called by My name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from Heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." A nation is not saved because the homosexuals straighten up or because the drunkards sober up. A nation is saved when there are enough Christians to form enough salt with savour so God will make with that nation a covenant of salt! Those Christians must needs be separated and holy in their living. For many years this has been my goal in my ministry. I have gone day and night for years. The thrust of my ministry has been twofold—soul winning and separation, for I believe with all my heart that if we can get enough people saved and possess the imputed righteousness of Christ and then get those people holy so they will possess personal righteousness, God will look down from Heaven and forgive our sins and heal our land. Notice again the words in II Chronicles 7:14, as follows:

1. "If My people, which are called by My name." There you have the salt.

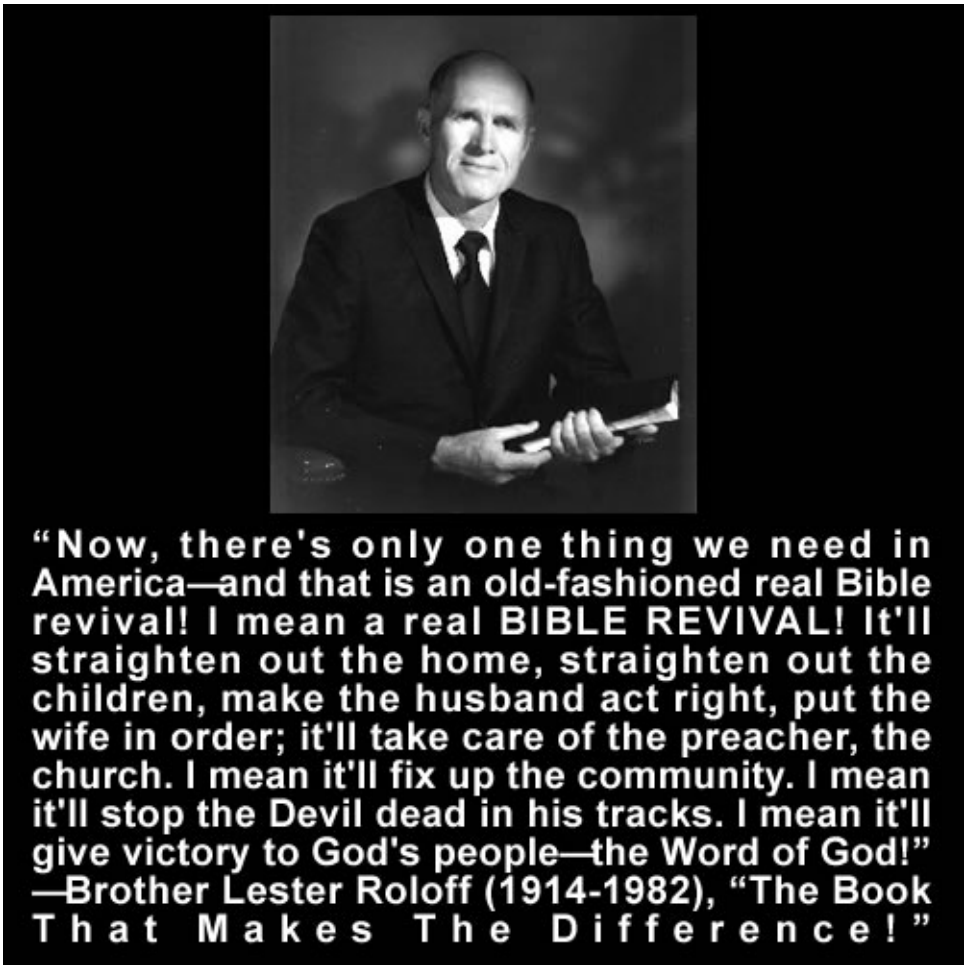
2. “Shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways.” There you have the salt with savour.



3. “Then will I hear from Heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.” Here you have the salvation of the nation. The answer, therefore, is in building soul-winning churches over the length and breadth of this nation and in preaching of separation and personal holiness in those churches. The answer is not in the White House; it is in the church house. It is not house-to-house registering of voters; it is house-to-house preaching Christ. I have four children and nine grandchildren. I have lived a lot of years. At this writing I am 58 years of age. I have preached over 41,500 sermons. I have flown nearly five million miles on airplanes. I have watched this nation deteriorate. Every patriotic American longs to see our nation spared. Some fell that its sparing is in political reform. Some feel that the nation can be spared if conservatives stay in the White House and Senate. I believe that America can be spared only by Divine intervention! It will take a miracle akin to that of the crossing of the Red Sea or of the crumbling of the walls of Jericho. I believe that God must intervene. He will not intervene until we have won enough people to Christ and made enough of them holy so that God, Who is the Bread of Life, can meet with His holy people, who are the salt of the earth, and that salt and bread can be mingled into a covenant of salt so that God says to a nation, “I will enter into an agreement with you for an unbreakable friendship for your generation.”

I long to see my children and grandchildren live their lives in the kind of America that I have known. I long to see the judging hand of God stayed. I have given most of my life to this end. When I lay my Bible down, walk out of the pulpit for the last time after having preached my last sermon, I want to look at those who follow me and say, “I did my best to get enough salt and to get enough salt savored so that you will have the nation I have known.” I may be wrong. I don’t think I am.

May God give us preachers and churches aflame with the message of salvation and stricken with compassion to preach holiness so that we may have enough people with imputed righteousness and enough of those with personal righteousness so that God will look from Heaven and say, “America has met My quota. There is enough salt and enough savored salt for Me to enter with them into a covenant of salt so that their generation may be spared.” To this end I work! For this I pray! In this I hope! God, save America!

1.3.13 The Cult Of Calvinism: A False Religion (2020-05-04 18:48)

Galatians 1:6-9, " I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

The cult of Calvinism has crept into the churches everywhere! Calvinism is named after a heretical lost man and religious heretic named John Calvin (1509-1564). [1]According to the Huffington Post, 30 % of all Southern Baptist churches are Calvinist! Moody Bible Institute calls themselves

generally Calvinistic

" on their website. Moody college lies about Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951), trying to portray him as turning Calvinist, but nothing could be further from the truth. Dr. Ironside taught a free grace Gospel and in no way supported Calvinism.

One of the most ungodly cults is the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Instead of the Gospel of free grace, they promote Lordship Salvation (which is nothing more than Calvinism repackaged). I heard their senior pastor with my own two ears, God as my witness, tell the whole church that it is not enough to merely admit you are a sinner. He said you MUST also turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved. That is of the Devil. That pastor needs to get saved!!! You don't get saved by what YOU DO, but by what JESUS DID!!!

Calvinism is often summarized in FIVE tenets. One heresy begets another heresy, as you will see with the progression of Calvinism's tenets:

1. Total Depravity
2. Unconditional Election
3. Limited Atonement
4. Irresistible Grace
5. Perseverance Of The Saints

The progression of Calvinism goes as follows:

Total Depravity - all men are depraved and cannot come to God unless they are drawn. I agree that all men are depraved, but unlike Calvinists who say God only draws certain men, the Bible plainly teaches that Jesus draws "ALL MEN" to Himself (John 12:32). Calvinism takes it to a heretical level, teaching that NO ONE is drawn unless chosen, which leads to the next heresy...

Unconditional Election - The Bible teaches that God in His foreknowledge knew who would get saved, so He chose them as the elect. This is Conditional Election, which is Biblical. Calvinism teaches the Devil's lie that God chose who will believe, and that is why they get saved. This is Unconditional Election, because you had no choice in the matter. Repeatedly in the Bible we find the word regarding salvation, clearly showing that all men have a choice (e.g., Romans 10:13; John 3:16). Since Calvinists believe only certain people are chosen for salvation, this begets the next heresy...

Limited Atonement - Calvinists teach Christ only died for the elect. They believe Jesus did not die on the cross for all those who were not chosen for salvation. We know this is a false teaching because 1st John 2:2 plainly says Jesus is not the propitiation for us only, but also for the

WHOLE WORLD.

” Note that all Scripture references in my blog are only to the inspired King James Bible. Since Calvinists foolishly think God chooses who will be saved, and that Christ only died for them, this begets the next heresy...

Irresistible Grace - God forces Himself on certain people that He chooses to be saved. It is difficult for me to comprehend how anybody could believe such utter nonsense! Calvinists like to use Romans 9:15 where God told Moses he will have mercy on whom He will have mercy (a quote from Exodus 33:19), to say that God chooses who will be saved. Folks, check for yourself and you will see in the Bible that this passage has absolutely NOTHING to do with salvation. There are actually some things that God cannot do! God cannot lie (Titus 1:2). God has promised “ to save them that believe

” (1st Corinthians 1:21b). All mankind has a choice to either accept or reject Jesus as their Savior! All these Calvinist false teachings beget the last falsehood...

Perseverance Of The Saints -

Since Calvinists believe that God randomly chooses and forces Himself upon certain people, they claim that these people WILL persevere in holy living until the very end. Like Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951), I believe in the Perseverance Of The Holy Spirit, that is, the Eternal Security of the believer (Ephesians 1:13). I do NOT believe that the saints must persevere in anything, which would be WORKS! As Christians we SHOULD live for Christ (Romans 12:1); not MUST (that is works, Titus 3:5); not WILL (that would be Calvinism, Romans 5:20). Once you are born-again, you have been JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS... Acts 13:39, “ And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.” That means ONCE SAVED ALWAYS SAVED!!!

Calvinists believe that those who are not chosen by God have no hope of ever being saved. I have met Moody Bible Institute graduates who do not believe in soulwinning. My father (1933-2010) was one of them. My Dad once said to me that people are either going to get saved or not, so you don’t need to witness to them. Respectfully, I love my Dad, but he was very wrong in his theology. Moody Bible Institute poisoned his mind. America’s so-called are the primary source of heresy in this untoward generation! Every preacher I know that denies the inspiration of the King James Bible has attended a Bible college or seminary! To Hell with today’s corrupt religious institutions!!!

“

Bible colleges

Calvinism is a false religion, not just a false doctrine which has crept into the Christian church! Calvinist churches (like the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam) are religious cults, not legitimate New Testament churches! That is why they axed me like a turkey on Thanksgiving Day in 2014, and have shunned me away since, even though I pleaded to return to church services because there was no where else to go. In hindsight, I think God was protecting me from being corrupted by their Satanic compromising—counterfeit Bible revisions, woeful lack of love for others, self-righteous hypocrisy, very bad attitudes, haughty arrogance, and false religion at Harvest—the Devil’s church!!!

> “’You can’t tell me you can trust Christ as Savior, and then go out here and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven!’ Yes, I can tell you that! That’s what the Bible says. If you don’t come to the conclusion, that—Yes, you can trust Christ as your Savior and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven when you die—you don’t get grace, because that is the exact truth! That is the truth! I do not have to change my life! I don’t have to stop one sin! You say, ’I’ve never heard a preacher say that.’ You just heard one! And you listen to me—I want to live as holy and as godly as I possibly can. I am now 70 years old. I’ve been saved for 52 years. ... the only reason I’m going to Heaven is because, 52 years ago in a little living room, I accepted Christ as my Savior.” —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, a great quote from the awesome sermon, “[2]Calvinism And Grace Are NOT Compatible | [3]MP3”

1.3.14 Seventh-Day-Adventism Perverts The Blood of Jesus (2020-05-05 03:35)

Hebrews 9:24:-26, “

For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:

Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

Seventh-Day Adventists (SDA) call this heresy " [1]Investigative Judgment ," in which they claim Jesus investigates our individual lives to decide whether we are “worthy” to enter Heaven or not. The Bible already tells us that everyone is unworthy of salvation (Romans 3:10-23). SDA’s teach a form of Lordship Salvation, in which the life you choose to live must validate your profession of Christian faith. Thus, SDA’s require works to prove that one is really saved, which is a false gospel. Roman Catholics frontload the Gospel, requiring works to be saved. Seventh-Day Adventists rearload the Gospel, requiring works to prove you are saved. SDA prophetess

Ellen G. White (1827-1915)

confirms this in [2]her heretical book titled, “ [3] Steps To Christ,

” [4] which I expose . Miss White was an unsaved false prophetess, the most significant figure in the SDA false religion.

According to SDA dogma, Jesus entered into the heavenly Holy Place in the year 1844. There is absolutely no Biblical teaching of this. The Holy Bible does not set any particular dates concerning prophecy. SDA’s do some weird number crunching to twist the Word of God in order to come up with the year 1844. Jehovah’s Witnesses are guilty of doing the same nonsense. There are some striking similarities between these two cults. One big similarity is their denial of a literal burning Hell for all Christ-rejecters who die in their sins. SDA have many strange beliefs. The Bible teaches that Christ will reign for 1,000 years from Jerusalem, and that during this time (called the Millennium) Satan will be bound in chains in the bottomless pit (Revelation 20:2). However, SDA’s believe that [5]Satan will roam the earth instead during this time, and that all humanity will be asleep in the grave, so Satan will have no one to tempt. Only in that sense do they believe the Devil will be bound. SDA’s are really way out there in their religious dogma!

Seventh Day-Adventists say Jesus has been judging the saints in the heavenly Holy Place since 1844. Is any sinful human being “worthy” of heaven? Does not Romans 3:23 declare that we ALL HAVE SINNED? Yes, it most certain does! There is NO ONE “ to enter Heaven, which is exactly WHY Jesus needed to shed His blood on the cross for our sins, because we could not save ourselves.

We all deserve Hellfire, nothing better. But thanks be to God for sending His only begotten Son into the world to pay for our sins. John 3:16, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

The false teaching that Christ entered into the heavenly Holy Place in 1844 is exclusive to Seventh Day-Adventism. It is a foolish doctrine, totally unbiblical, which perverts the High Priestly work of Christ. We learn in the book of Hebrews that Jesus ONCE entered into the Holy Place. Christ did this after He resurrected from the dead, which is why He commanded Mary Magdalene not to touch Him in John 20:17. Yet just a few versus later in John 20:27 we find Jesus inviting doubting Thomas to touch His hand, feet and side. During this time between verses 17 and 27, Jesus went to Heaven and appeared before the Father on our behalf, sprinkling His liquid blood upon the heavenly Mercy Seat (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24). We are saved solely BY THE BLOOD of the Lamb of God (Romans 5:9; 1st John 1:7; Revelation 1:5, 7:14), and not by Christ analyzing who is worthy or not based upon our earthly performance. I plead with you dear friend to run from Seventh Day-Adventism. The Devil is a beautiful liar!

1.3.15 The Death Of The Passover Lamb Was Not Enough (2020-05-05 11:00)

Exodus 12:12-13, “For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD.

And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and WHEN I SEE THE BLOOD, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt. ”

When the Lord was going to pass over Egypt and destroy the firstborn, He said to Moses and Aaron in Exodus 12:13 to apply the blood of the lamb to the doorposts of the home.

The death of the lamb wasn’t enough—the blood had to be applied Mr. MacArthur! God wasn’t looking for a dead lamb in the backyard, God was looking for the BLOOD APPLIED on the doorposts and lintel (doorplate) above the door. The blood had to be [1]applied. John MacArthur’s entire ministry is flawed, and he is a false prophet, because he is WRONG on the most important Christian doctrine of all—Jesus’ precious literal liquid blood! No genuinely saved person would ever deny the redemptive power of Jesus’ physical blood!

> “Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but BY HIS OWN BLOOD he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.” —Hebrews 9:12

If the Old Testament high priest killed the lamb and went home, the sins of the people were not atoned for. The lamb’s blood had to be carried by a bowl into the holy of holies and applied to the mercy seat (which rested upon the Ark Of The Covenant).

Here are the eloquent words of Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001) concerning the importance of the blood being applied...

> In the Old Testament, the High Priest killed two goats on the Day of Atonement. The blood of one goat was taken by the High Priest into the Holy Place to the Ark of the Covenant. On the top of the Ark of the Covenant was the Mercy Seat. Over that Mercy Seat were two cherubims beaten out of pure gold. Between the wings of those cherubims was the Glory of God. The blood from the goat that was sacrificed was applied to the proper place which was the Mercy Seat. If the blood did not get to the Mercy Seat, then it was the proper price, but not paid to the proper place. It would have been no more valid than that check written but not paid to the creditor.

If the blood of Jesus was left on the ground at the cross, that means it did not get to the Holy Place and is not valid. "What can wash away my sin? Nothing but the blood of Jesus." It is not just the blood shed, but also the blood applied.

God told Moses to instruct the people to apply the blood of the lamb at the Passover. When He passed over and saw the blood of that lamb, He would withhold His judgment. God did not judge them based on His omniscience. He made a point of letting them know that He would not judge them only when He saw the blood. It was not enough that the blood was shed. The blood had to be properly applied.

SOURCE: '[2]THE PRICE OF THE CHURCH,' by Pastor Jack Hyles

From the blood of the animal which God killed to provide clothing for Adam and Eve in Genesis 3:21, to the saints whose robes are washed in the blood of the Lamb in Revelation 7:14, the theme of the Holy Bible is the blood of Jesus Christ!!!

1.3.16 Wacky Young Earthers: 'Dinosaurs On Ark Grew Slower' (2020-05-06 00:30)

1st Timothy 4:7, " But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness." ... 2nd Timothy 4:4, " And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables."

The book's authors desperately grasp for straws to boost up their straw-man heresy...

> "God could well have chosen specimens He knew would undergo their growth spurt as soon as they left the Ark. This would solve the common skeptical objections of fitting and feeding huge dinosaurs on the Ark. That is, the dinosaurs weren't actually that huge while they were on board. The growth spurt just after leaving the Ark would also mean that they could quickly outgrow potential predators."

> SOURCE: "THE CREATION ANSWERS BOOK," copyright 2006 by Creative Ministries International; pages 247-248.

What you've just read is typical of the unscholarly rubbish, bizarre assumptions and junk science of Young Earth advocates! Since there is no logical way that hundreds of dinosaur species could fit onto the Ark, Young Earth advocates are forced to shrink the size of the dinosaurs, minimize the number of dinosaurs, and even slow down their growth rate! How ludicrous! This is the "science falsely so-called" that the Bible warns us about in 1st Timothy 6:20b. Clearly, dinosaurs DIDN'T co-exist with mankind. 1st Timothy 6:20, "O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called."
