The Bible warns us about "OPPOSITIONS TO SCIENCE"! The Greek word for "oppositions" in 1st Timothy 6:20 is antithesis and means "conflict" (i.e., a conflicting theory). The word "science" is the Greek word gnosis and means "knowing" (i.e., knowledge). Thus, the Bible is warning us to avoid conflicting theories with factual science. For something to be true science (meaning: the study of), it must first be observable, testable and documentable. Evolution is none of these! Certainly, the bogus theory of evolution conflicts with all established laws and principles of legitimate science. Evolution is FALSE science!

Furthermore, the claim that dinosaurs lived amongst man and boarded the ark of Noah's time is also a gross opposition of legitimate science! Beware of anyone who teaches that dinosaurs boarded Noah's ark! Nor did dinosaurs live at the same time as men. Science proves that the earth is very old, just as the Bible teaches in Psalms 102:25, "Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands."

The Bible plainly teaches an Old Earth view...

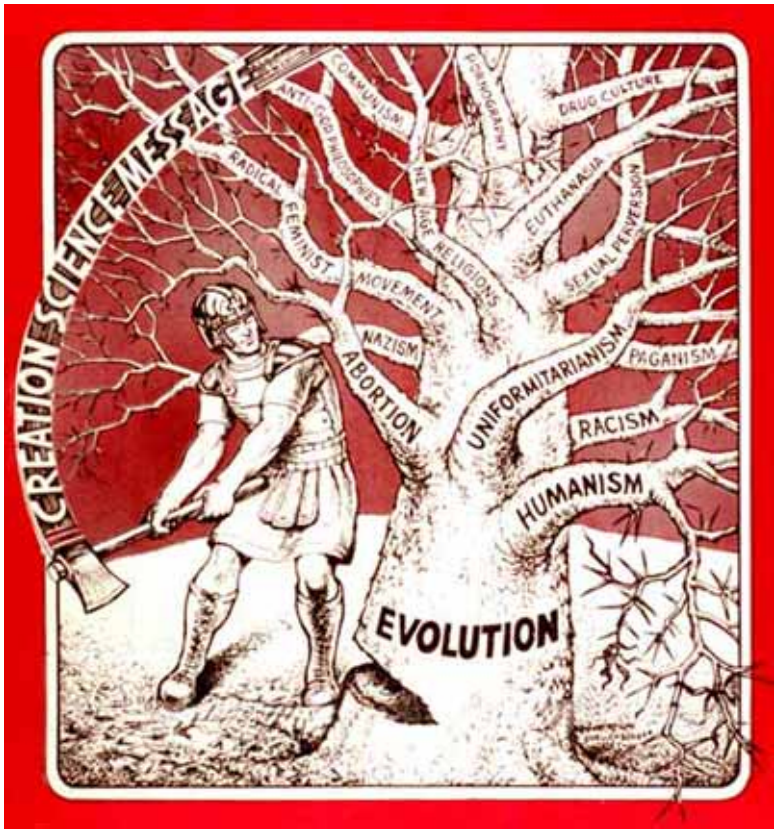
[2]Only One Continent Until After The Flood | [3]MP3 (by Pastor Max D. Younce)



[4]The Fallacy Of Young Earth Creationism—Part 5 - [5]4 - [6]3 - [7]2 - [8]1 (videos by Dr. Younce)

Ecclesiastes 11:5 and 12:4, "As thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child: even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.... For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil."

Basically, proponents of an Old Earth view believe that the earth was created by God—did not evolve—has existed for millions (if not billions) of years—and that the human race is young, having only been in existence for 6,000 years (since 4,000 BC). Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) and Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951) believed this and so do I. This is often called the 'Gap Principle' (that is, a time gap between Genesis 1:1 and 1:2). I don't call it a theory because it is not a "theory."

The Hebrew word for "created" in Genesis 1:1 is bara, which means "(absolutely) to create." The Hebrew word for "made" in Scriptures such as Genesis 1:6 is asah and means "to do or make, in the broadest sense and widest application." The fact that the word created in Genesis 1:1 is ABSOLUTE concerning creation, but all other words thereafter are not absolute, tells us that there was a big difference in what God was doing here. God created the universe out of nothing in Genesis 1:1, but then He remodeled creation beginning in Genesis 1:2c when His Spirit moved upon the waters.

Sir William Ramsay (1852-1916), a far greater all around scholar than any Modernist living or dead, has defined a Modernist as: "One who knows all that I do not know, who fixes the limits of the possible, and knows exactly what is impossible. The world is not dark to him: he is born and cradled, and grown to manhood in the intensity of a great light. He knows all things, and he is content and happy in his utter ignorance."

1st John 2:1-2, " My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. "

Could the Bible be any plainer than the preceding Bible passage, which teaches that Jesus Christ died for all mankind? I think not. If, as John MacArthur and other Calvinists teach, God chooses who will and won't be saved, then why does the Word of God repeatedly proclaim that Christ died for the WORLD? For example,

John 3:16 proclaims:

> "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

The Bible teaches that "

may be saved, simply by trusting upon the Lord Jesus Christ to receive God's gift of forgiveness of sins.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Salvation is having our sins forever washed away by the precious blood of Jesus Christ (1st John 1:7).

1st John 4:14 states:

> "And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world."

Here again we plainly read that Christ DIED FOR THE WORLD, not just for the saints. Jesus could not be the Savior of "THE WORLD" if He only chose some to believe.

1st Timothy 4:10 plainly states:

> "For therefore we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe."

The Bible is very clear! Jesus is the Savior of all men. Jesus paid for the sins of all humanity. If you die in your sins and burn in Hellfire, it will be your own fault. Eternal life is a “ free gift ” (Romans 5:15b). Unbelief is the only sin which can prevent a person from going to Heaven. Everyone who believes upon the Lord is going to Heaven. Acts 10:43,

To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

There’s that word "whosoever" again. In the Greek that means anybody!

John 12:47 states:

> “And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.”

In John Calvin’s heretical teachings, one of the five major tenets of Calvinism is called [1]Limited Atonement (which says Christ only died for the elect). I will close with a helpful statement from Pastor Ralph “

Yankee

Arnold, and then an article by Pastor Bob Gray Sr. ...

Calvinism lie = They believe, because they were chosen.

The truth = We were chosen, because we believe!

1.3.18 Is Your Pastor A Fool? (2020-05-06 23:02)

Proverbs 23:9, " Speak not in the ears of a fool: for he will despise the wisdom of thy words. "

I am careful to use words in their proper context. I started to titled this article: "Is Your Pastor An Idiot?" But then I went to check the dictionary meaning of an "idiot," and found that it means, " a person of subnormal intelligence

." Pastors in nearly every case are not lacking in intelligence, so I do not think they are idiots. So then I considered the title: "Is Your Pastor Stupid?" But I went to check the dictionary's meaning of "stupid," which refers to "a person who is not very bright.

" Well, nearly all pastors are bright people, and gifted in some way. So I certainly do not think today's pastors are idiots or stupid. So I pondered the matter and sought for the proper word to describe today's indifferent pastors concerning the truth.

Our text verse gives us the answer

Proverbs 23:9, " Speak not in the ears of a fool: for he will despise the wisdom of thy words. " I have spent my life as a fundamentalist Baptist preacher trying to convince a bunch of fools in the pulpit that the modern Bible revisions have been corrupted by the Devil. This is not my opinion, it is a fact. Everyone has a right to their own opinion, but no one has a right to their own facts. I went to check the dictionary's meaning of a fool, which is

"a person who lacks good judgment.

" In Proverbs 23:9, the Bible defines

“a fool” as someone who refuses to heed wise words.

The Hebrew word for “

in Proverbs 23:9 is booz which means to disrespect.

When you respect something, you hold it in high r egard highly, thinking much of it. So the Bible is saying that when you speak words of wisdom to a fool, they won’t place high regard on what you are saying. Ladies and gentleman, Bob Jones University is a ship of fools today! Despite being warned by God-fearing believers for a half-century, they have no regard for THE TRUTH that Satan has corrupted the modern Bible revisions.

All Modern Bible Revisions Are Corrupt

[1]All modern Bible versions are corrupt. Satan is a beautiful liar! Anyone skilled in grammar understands the importance of words. All of the Bibles on the market today say different things. For example: Philippians 2:6 in the King James Bible teaches that Jesus is God, but the same verse in the [2]New International Version (NIV) says that Jesus is not God. They both cannot be correct. The NIV is wrong! They should call it the “

[3]Here is a helpful chart showing the origin of all modern corrupt Bibles versus the origin of the trustworthy inspired King James Bible. The King James is not a version,

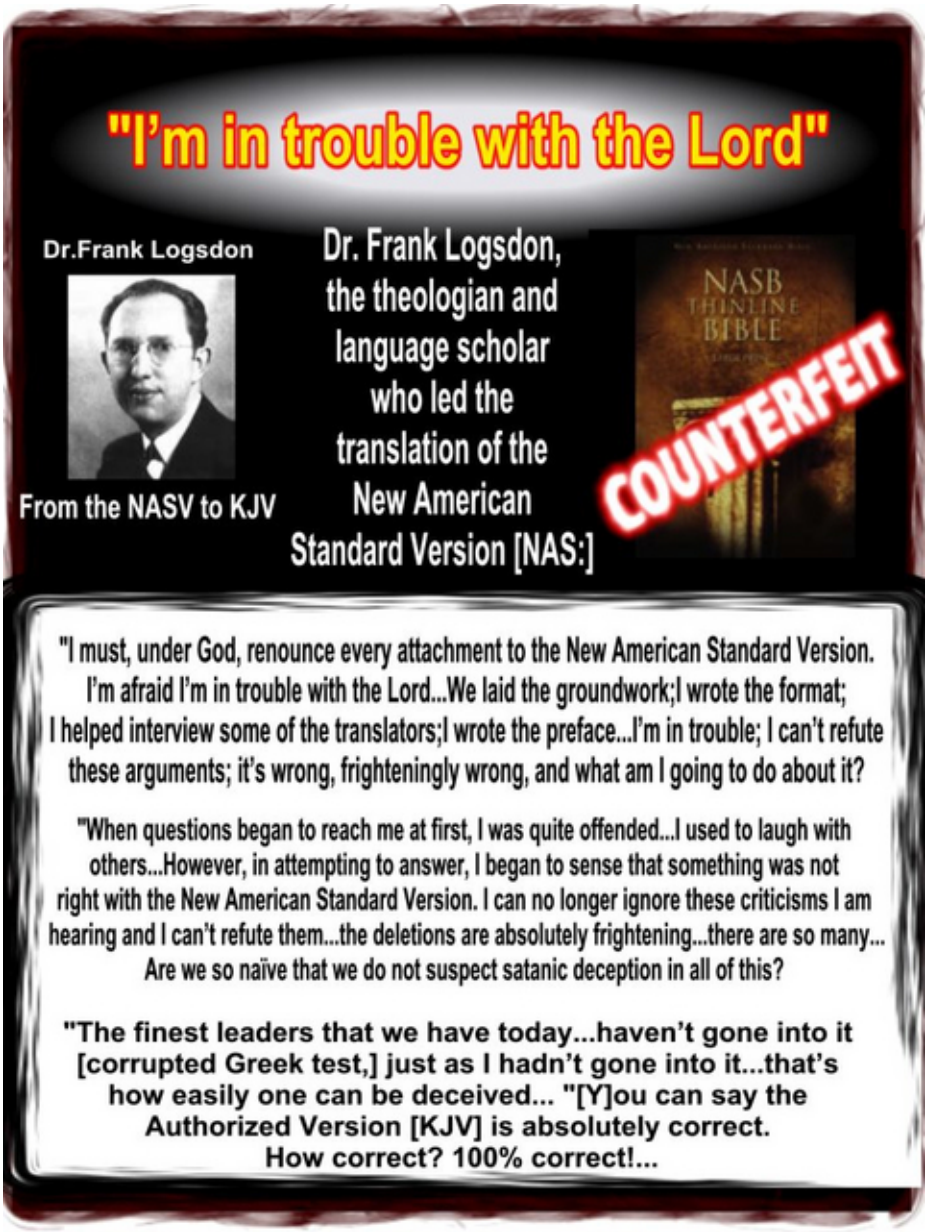
it is the Holy Bible!

Perhaps the most damaging and damning of omissions in new corrupted Bible versions is the complete obliteration of the word “godhead” from Acts 17:29, Romans 1:20 and Colossians 2:9. If you warn the average Baptist pastor nowadays, they couldn’t care less. They Bible calls such men FOOLS!!!

Another damaging and needless change is the diluting of 1st Timothy 3:16 from “God was manifest in the flesh” in the King James Bible, to “He appeared in the flesh” in the New International Version (NIV). Who is “He”? Please notice that there is a drastic difference in meaning between “appeared” and “manifest.” To appear simply means “to be seen” but to manifest oneself means “to make known.” The King James Bible teaches in 1st Timothy 3:16 that God the Father was made known to the world in the fleshly human incarnation of the Lord Jesus Christ. Literally, the Godhead became a living man and dwelt among us (Colossians 2:9; John 1:1-3,14 - Note: All Scripture quotes are only from the trustworthy King James Bible).

The NIV is Satanic, saying that Jesus (He) appeared in a body. That’s what it reads. Now does that truly convey the proper meaning of the Word of God? No, it does not. The King James Bible says that GOD WAS MANIFEST (revealed) IN THE FLESH!!! By changing this verse, modern Bible butchers attack the deity of Christ. Such minor changes may seem harmless to a Christian who was raised up spiritually on the King James Bible, because you can fall back on the King James; but a churchgoer today who has never seen a King James Bible is in BIG TROUBLE theologically! [4]Look at what the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) does to pervert the meaning of repentance. Instead of teaching that repentance is a change of mind (Greek, noun: metanoia), the modern revisions change it to require a change of lifestyle to be saved. That is a counterfeit gospel (Galatians 1:6-9; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4).



Modern Bible versions change every mention of people “WORSHIPPING” Jesus, reducing it to a mere “KNELT” or “BOWED.” You can kneel before a king without worshipping him. A man can kneel to propose to his fiancee without worshipping her. The Bible says repeatedly that many people “worshipped” Jesus (e.g., the leper in Matthew 8:2). Why would translators diminish people worshipping our blessed God and Savior? The NIV butchers Psalms 9:17. Instead of saying that “the wicked shall be turned into hell” as the faithful King James Bible (KJB), the NIV says they go to the realm of the dead, which makes no sense, because that’s also where the righteous go.

Romans 10:9 in the NIV is the basis of the Lordship Salvation false plan of salvation in most Baptist churches today. This heresy says that an admitted sinner in God’s eyes cannot get saved by simply believing on the risen Christ Who died in their place on the cross, was buried and resurrected three days later. That is the simple Gospel according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Lordship Salvation adds the unbiblical requirement to forsake sinful bad habits, commit one’s entire life to serve Christ, and turn away from a lifestyle of sin. No one has ever been saved by forsaking their sins. Adding anything to faith alone in Christ is dead religion, which cannot produce the new birth by the Spirit of God. Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people to live the Christian life without ever being born-again!

The Holy Bible Is Our Spiritual Weapon

Many people have traded in their faithful King James Bible sword for a modern plastic knife. Ephesians 6:17 teaches that the Bible is part of the believer’s armour, our weapon. The Word of God is the sword of the Spirit. If I were the Devil, I would try to deceive Christians by convincing them that something is wrong with their King James Bible, and then offer them a new version that is allegedly better and easier to read, while changing important doctrinal passages concerning Christ’s deity, salvation and the character of Christ. The serpent came to Eve in Eden and shook her confidence in the Word of God. Then the serpent offered her new advice to follow. Eve was deceived.

I’ve never met anyone who defended their New International Version (NIV) like faithful Christians defend their beloved KJB. The NIV is like a cheap whore, verses a beloved wife that a jealous husband would defend to the death. I’ve never met anyone who could quote verse-after-verse from any modern Bible. The so-called “new and improved” Bibles read like a comic book or daily newspaper. The King James Bible was written in the beauty of the Elizabethan English language. We don’t rewrite Shakespeare to make it easier to understand; but rather, we study it in the beauty of the language in which it was written.

1.3.19 Sin Existed Before Genesis 1:2 (2020-05-06 23:30)

Adam's sin did not cause Lucifer and one-third of the angels to fall. Sin existed prior to Adam, for it was Satan who sinned in trying to get Eve to sin. Adam's sin brought sin and death into the world that we know today. If Satan was created in Genesis, then God made the Devil. This is not what the Bible teaches.

We read that Lucifer became Satan by his own free-will, when he sought in Isaiah 14:14 to be EQUAL with God. This is the sin of feminists today who desire to be EQUAL with man's authority in the marriage, home, church and society. In every society where women rise to EQUALITY with men, there is lesbianism and abortion, corrupt women judges and preachers, and every evil work.

The fact that Satan (Revelation 20:2) was the serpent in the Garden Of Eden proves that he already existed before Genesis 1:2 when God began to REMODEL the earth. Those who advocate a Young Earth and claim that sin didn't exist prior to Adam don't know what they're talking about. Lucifer sinned. The Angels who followed him rebelled and sinned in so doing. What Satan did to Eve was a sin, for he deceived her to harm her. Eve then led Adam into sin. Then the entire human race was plunged into sin and death.

It is easy to get caught-up into a heresy if we're not diligent to try (test) the spirits as 1st John 4:1 commands. Dr. Walt Brown of CreationScience.com teaches on his website that dinosaurs boarded the Ark and went for a ride with Noah for one year. Dinosaurs on the Ark? I don't think so! I'd say that about 90 % of all the professed Christian websites are teaching a Young Earth view (and they're all wrong!). Most of those Young Earth ministries try to support their claim by evidencing that mankind has only been here for 6,000 years.

They're piggybacking their lie of a Young Earth on the truth of a Young Human Civilization! There is no debate whatsoever that humanity DIDN'T exist prior to 4,004 BC! The human race is 6,000 years old. This truth is easily evidenced by the advancement of humanity's writings, inventions, knowledge and population —all attesting to the fact that mankind began around 4,000 BC.

I actually heard a preacher proclaiming to his congregation that the solar system centers around the earth. He said only heretics teach that the sun is the center of our solar system. Albeit, astronomy evidences that the planets rotate around the sun, which is the largest mass in our planetary system. He took Joshua 10:13 out of context, which says “the sun stood still, and the moon stayed.” So this guy concluded that the sun must rotate around the earth.

The scientific truth is that all of the heavenly bodies are moving and rotating around each other. Thank God for hillbilly preachers; I love them every one if they still believe that the King James Bible is inspired and preach the truth from it. Amen! However, many people with college degrees won’t listen to an ignorant man who blatantly goes against legitimate science. Dinosaurs could not plausible have existed along with mankind 4,500 years ago.

1.3.20 Incompatibility of Lordship Salvation With The Gospel (2020-05-07 01:00)

The following excellent information by Dr. Hank Lindstrom is from the helpful Christian website, Get God’s Gift...

THE INCOMPATIBILITY OF THE LORDSHIP GOSPEL WITH THE GOSPEL OF GRACE

"But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed." Galatians 1:8,9

The importance of this question can't be overestimated in relation to both salvation and sanctification. The message of faith only and the message of commitment of life can't both be the gospel; therefore, one of them is a false gospel and come under the curse of perverting the gospel or preaching another gospel.

"It is an inexcusable error to confront sinners with problems that concern the Christian life and call upon them to make promises regarding them. An unsaved person is never called upon to surrender himself to God. The saving act is in no instance represented as our 'giving ourselves to God'; it is, on the contrary, taking His Son as our Savior." Ryrie, Charles. Balancing the Christian Life. Moody Press, Inc., 1969 (p. 170).

"The second approach finds faith in the gospel alone an 'easy Believism' and seeks to add something to faith in order to accomplish salvation. To repent is to 'change one's mind,' and to believe is to remove one's trust from that in which it has rested and place it in Christ." Howard, William. "Is Faith Enough to Save?" Bibliotheca Sacra. January-March, 1942 (p.99).

"This kind of faith is not 'easy believism'. It is not easy to say, 'I can't save myself, I must recognize that there is something wrong with me, and I must seek help from someone else.'" Hook, H. Phillip. "A Biblical Definition of Saving Faith." Bibliotheca Sacra. April-June, 1964 (p.

"Eternal life is free. Discipleship is immeasurably hard. The former is attained by faith alone, the latter by a faith that works... the former brings with it the righteousness of God so that a man is 'justified freely by his grace' (Romans 3:24). The latter develops a personal righteousness, based on good deeds, so that a man was also 'justified by works' (James 2:24). The former constituted the believer God's workmanship, the latter fulfilled the wonderful purpose for which he had been created. The former cost man nothing, the latter could cost him everything, including life itself." Hodges, Zane C. The Hungry Inherit. Moody Press, Inc., 1972 (p. 114, 115).

"There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." DeHaan, M. R. Hebrews. Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

"For the unregenerate man, repentance is the change of mind whereby he turns from unbelief to faith in the person and work of Jesus Christ." Post, Roger. "The Meanings of the Words Translated 'Repent' and 'Repentance' in the New Testament." Master's Thesis, Wheaton College, June 1972 (p. 80).

"There are those who, in their zeal to get people to turn from their sinful ways and receive the Lord, almost put repentance on a par with believing... Repentance, as it relates to Christ, means to change our minds about Him, who He is and what He's done to provide forgiveness and deliverance from our sins. When we place faith in Jesus as having taken our place personally on the cross and borne the penalty due our sins, then we're automatically repenting, because we couldn't accept Him in this way without having had to change our minds in some way concerning Him." Lindsey, Hal. The Liberation of Planet Earth. Zondervan Publishing House, 1974 (p. 136, 137).

"Discipleship is frequently equated with salvation and often erroneously made a condition for becoming a Christian". Pentecost, J. Dwight. Design for Discipleship. Zondervan Publishing House, 1971 (p. 11).

"Certainly discipleship is a most important aspect of our relation to Christ, but it belongs to the sphere of Christian life rather than entrance upon that life... One does not become a disciple in order to become a Christian, but because he has become a Christian by faith in the Savior, it is fitting that he embark upon a life of discipleship". Harrison, Everett F. "Must Christ be Lord to Be Savior?-No." Eternity, September 1959 (p. 14).

"There is no more piously subtle abrogation of the Gospel than to tell a Sinner that he must not only believe in the Savior, but dedicate himself to do God's will, crown the Savior Lord of his life, etc., etc. Obviously, dedication and service are highly desirable, but they are the privilege and the duty of the saved, never a condition of salvation for the unsaved (cf. Romans 12:1, 2)." Unger, Merrill F. God is Waiting to Meet You. Moody Press, 1975 (p. 117, 118).

"People are sometimes led to believe that there is saving value in some public confession of Christ, or profession of a decision. "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." This is salvation. "With the mouth confession is made unto salvation." This is the voice of the newborn child speaking to and of its father. The only condition on which one may be saved is to believe." Chafer, Lewis Sperry. Salvation. Dunham Publishing Company, 1917 (p. 46).

SUMMARY

Lordship salvation is where someone teaches that there must be a commitment to Christ as Lord of one's life in order to be saved. Recently there has been a modification of this position to say that willingness to be controlled by the Lord at the time of salvation is all that is required in addition to faith in order to be saved. The message of faith only and the message of faith plus commitment of life can't both be the gospel; therefore, one of them is a FALSE GOSPEL and comes under the curse of perverting the gospel or preaching another gospel. Galatians 1:8, 9 says, "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you, than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, if any man preach any other gospel unto you than that you have received, let him be accursed." If only committed people are saved people, then where is there room for carnal Christians? What kind of dedication must be preached to people, if in order to be saved, they have already dedicated their lives to the Lord? Where do you stop if you start adding something else to this which is the gospel revealed in the Bible? Look at what God says about adding to the revelation of Jesus Christ (gospel), "For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book (Revelation 22:18)." The Bible plainly declares that we are saved by faith, and not by works. Where does it say this? Ephesians 2:8, 9 "For by grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God. Not of works, lest any man should boast." What are you trusting in to get you to heaven?

* Written by Dr. Hank Lindstrom

The moment you put your trust in Jesus Christ, God who can read your mind knows, saves YOU and gives you the Gift of God, eternal Life.

You do not need anyone to pray over you, or pray for you, because this is between you and God in heaven. Because of your new trust in the shed blood of Jesus Christ you are now a child of God. Before you trusted in Jesus, God was your creator but now and forevermore he will be your father.

You are saved in a moment of time, because you are trusting in the true Savior now, not working your way to heaven day by day which is not even possible.

Once saved you can never be lost, for any reason. This is because you were born spiritually the moment you put your trust in Him. Just like your physical birth which brought you into this human world, your spiritual birth gave you a new spiritual life that is permanent. You were born-again, made righteous and holy in Gods eyes. In fact you have the righteousness of God himself, your are sinless and perfect in God's eyes now and that's why you can enter into a perfect heaven.

My favorite saying is:

God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved.

You MUST put ALL your trust in Jesus to be saved, trust in the blood that He shed on the cross, trust that He is God in the flesh, trust that He made the complete payment for your sins, not just part; He paid for ALL of your sins (past, present, and future)! Trust that He rose again from the dead after 3 days and 3 nights, and in return for this trust, He gives YOU Eternal Life. All false Christians put part of their trust in Jesus and part of their trust the Church and part of their trust in themselves. If you put 99.99 % trust in Jesus and 00.01 % in something else, you will go to hell. It must be 100 % trust in Jesus and what He did and 0 % in you or your church! This information in critical... (grace always cancels works!) You are going to hell if it's by your works or you are going to heaven by Gods grace. It's as simple as that.

So I guess the question comes down to who are you trusting. Are you trusting yourself to get to heaven by being a good person and giving lots of money to your church or are you trusting Jesus, the lamb of God, that was slain for the sins of the world to get you to heaven? You receive the Gift of God (Eternal Life) as soon as you stop trusting in yourself, your church, your synagogue, your mosque, your money, or any other works and put your trust in Him and Him ALONE, Jesus Christ, Yeshua, The King of Kings, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace, the Alpha and Omega, the Mighty God.

False religions are everywhere and they will find you, the one true God and His plan of salvation must be found.

If all this makes sense to you and you would like to trust Jesus as your personal Savior right now then tell the Mighty God in Heaven of your decision to trust Jesus Christ as your only hope of heaven. Tell Him that you are no longer putting your trust in your actions, or your church, or your church membership, or in your money, or in your Rabbi, or in your synagogue or your Mosque but that you are putting all of your trust in Him and the shed blood of the cross to pay your sin debt. Thank Him for doing it for you! Thank Him for giving you the Gift of Eternal Life that He paid for with His life. There is no greater deed than that of laying down your life for another.

Will you trust Jesus as your Savior right now, the one who shed His precious blood on the cross of Calvary to pay for all your sins?

Sinners Prayer

Lord, I admit that I'm a sinner & I don't understand a whole lot about the bible, but I do believe that Jesus Christ died & paid for my sins in full, by His death & shed blood on the cross. I trust right now the He died for me, was buried & rose again from the dead and will live forever more. I trust Jesus Christ right now to save me, to be my savior, to forgive my sins & to give me the GIFT OF GOD Eternal Life. Amen

By reading this sinners prayer aloud, you are putting your trust in God and His plan of salvation. You are not saved by saying this prayer, you are saved the moment your mind made the switch from trusting in yourself to putting your COMPLETE TRUST IN JESUS CHRIST. That moment may have been five paragraphs up on this page or that moment may have been on another one of our pages. You will not feel any different, but you will be changed and changed for the better forever. Once you have trusted Jesus as your savior and received his gift of eternal life, this gift can NEVER be lost. You can NEVER go to hell for ANY reason. Your past, present and future sins were paid in full the moment you put your trust in Him. You are blameless and Holy in God's eyes now and FOREVER. If you have eternal life today what kind of life will you have in five years? ETERNAL! What kind of life will you have in ten years? ETERNAL!! What kind of life will you have in 50 years? ETERNAL!!! God does not give probationary life or temporary life, His gift is ETERNAL LIFE! Thanks be to GOD!

Why be good, now that I am assured of going to heaven? Because God's law of sowing and reaping still applies to you and me. You will reap what you sow. You will reap more than you sow and you will reap later than you sow. If you drink alcohol like a fish, you will reap a diseased liver. If you smoke like a chimney everyday, you will reap lung cancer. If you rob, murder, and steal you will reap a life in prison. You will reap what you sow. I guarantee it! Now that you are saved, when you do good things you WILL be rewarded here on earth and in Heaven. And when you do bad things you WILL lose rewards that God had planned on giving you here on earth and in Heaven. But you will NEVER lose your guarantee of going to heaven. That can never be lost for any reason!! You have God's word that your salvation can never be lost for any reason. You did not earn salvation and you do not work to keep salvation! Eternal Life, salvation, being born again, becoming a child of God, was, is, and always will be the GIFT OF GOD.

Remember: If your not saved forever... you are not saved!

Why is this true you might ask? Because if a person is not sure that they are saved TODAY / RIGHT NOW it means that they are still trying to be the savior! They can't be sure they are going to heaven because they don't know what sin's they may commit next week, next month or next year. We who have trusted in Jesus alone, can have comfort knowing that all our sins have been paid in full on the Cross of Calvary (past, present, and future sins). Jesus has already died for my sins so I don't need to pay for any sin I have or will commit in the future because Jesus already paid the price in full with His blood. So called Christians who say that you can lose your salvation because of suicide or murder or falling away from the church don't have a clue what the Bible says and clearly have not trusted Jesus ALONE!

Biblical Salvation is forsaking any other means of salvation but Christ and casting ourselves fully upon Him for eternal life.

The Gift of God, Eternal Life can never be lost once possessed for any reason. John 6:39 " And this is the Father's will which hath sent Me, that of all which He hath given Me I should LOSE NOTHING, but should raise it up again at the last day." You have God's promise that once you put your trust in Jesus you can never be lost for ANY reason whatsoever.

"For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance" Romans 11:29 Again, God is telling you that this Gift of God that you have just received is without repentance. He can never take His gift back for any reason, no matter how bad you get, or how bad your sins are it is not possible. God would have to cease to exist for that to happen because He cannot lie.

1.3.21 Conceal Don't Reveal Ladies (2020-05-07 03:30)

1st Peter 2:11, "Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;"

These are perilous times in America! The ungodly media has succeeded in indoctrinating women to think it is perfectly fine and acceptable to walk around nearly nude, anywhere there is water. Literally, all many women wear is a piece of string. I am shocked when I see how little clothing many women wear at the beach, by swimming pools, and anywhere there is water in public. It is sinful. Moreover, it is evil, because these women intentionally wear little clothing. Evil is premeditated sin. A lot of women today mock and laugh at Bible preaching against immodest dress. It shouldn't come as a surprise that those same women think they have a right to murder a human being in the womb. Mothers, your body STOPS wear your baby's body begins! An abortion doesn't make a woman unpregnant, it just makes her the mother of a DEAD BABY!

Our text Bible verse from 1st Peter 2:11 warns against FLESHLY LUSTS, which war against the soul. I call America a "mousetrap society," because everywhere we turn sin is flaunted and promoted, but then when people take the bait, they go to prison for years to come or life. It is disturbing how Hollywood promotes perverse behavior in movies, that a person would end up in prison if they did the same thing in reality. Albeit, that is a different sermon. God commands Christian ladies to cover-up. 1st Timothy 2:9, "In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;" Many people disobey the Holy Bible and attempt to justify it. We see women pastors today, which is a total violation of the Scriptures (1st Timothy 2:12). We see the Roman Catholic church forbidding priests to marry, which again is a total violation of the Scriptures (1st Timothy 4:1-3). God commands women to cloth themselves in modest behavior, showing that they have moral behavior.

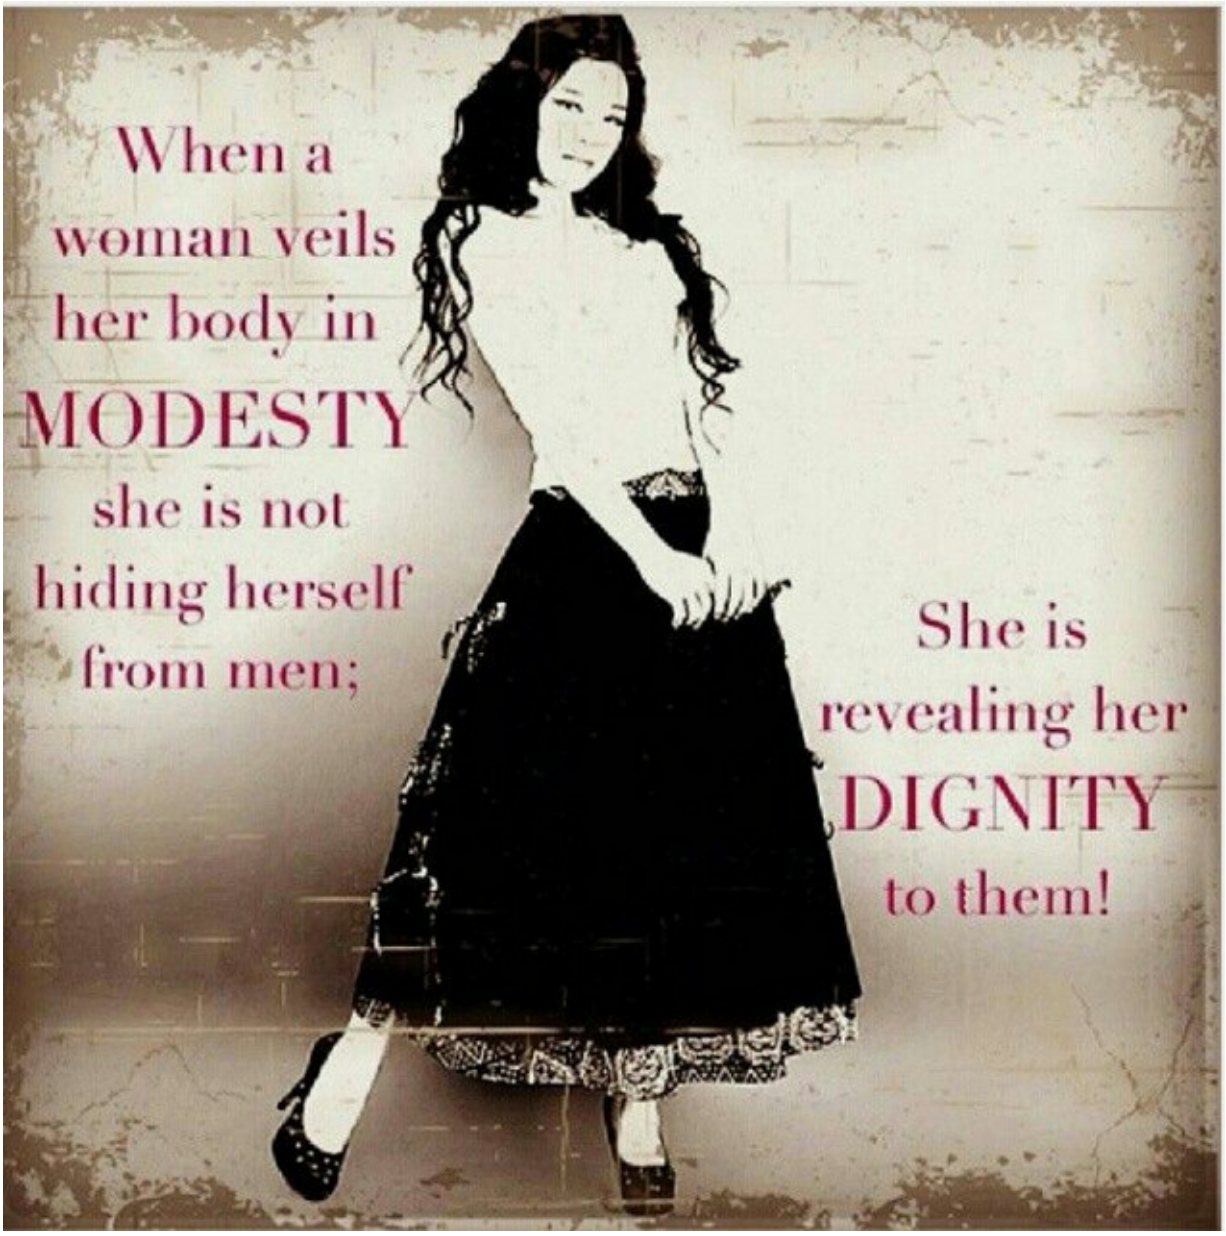
Most women have no idea how a man's mind works. When a women wears pants, she is drawing the attention of men to her physical beauty, which is sinful, because it causes men to lust. Men are going to try to lust anyway, but when a woman dresses immodestly, she enables him to do so. You say, "Boy you have a dirty mind!" No, I have a man's mind. We've got a bunch of dumb mamas today, who fail to teach their daughters how to dress, sit and behave. The perverse people who produced the disturbing show "Dance Moms" ought to be in prison. American society today openly accepts public nudity, the consequences of which can be heard in the daily news nationwide. We've become a nation of whores, fornicators, whoremongers, adulterers, perverts and homosexuals! It all begins with the manner one dresses, which greatly affects ones mindset toward morality! A woman who wears a long dress is much less likely to behave in an immoral manner than a woman in a bikini.



I am grieved when I see women, young and old alike today, covered in ugly tattoo ink. Boy, the Devil saw you coming! 1st Corinthians 3:16-17 teaches that the Christian's BODY is the temple of the indwelling Holy Spirit. God doesn't want us marking up our body with permanent ink. I don't care if someone has good intentions to get a tattoo, it is wrong to mark up the temple of the Holy Spirit. There is nothing as beautiful, to me, than a Christian woman who smiles, wearing no makeup at all, and she has a kind, sweet and shamefaced humble spirit. These boisterous women today, combat veterans, impudent in their faces, have been taken captive by the Devil, lacking femininity on every level. Satan's agenda today is to blur the lines between the sexes. [1]Check out this shocking Satanism video.

There is nothing as ugly in this world as a feminist! There is nothing as offense to a real man, than a loud-mouth woman who seeks to take charge. A godly woman understands than the Lord intended for men to lead, and she submits to masculine leadership in her home, church and community. In every case I an aware of where women have disobeyed the Holy Bible, usurping authority over the church pulpit, they have taught heresy!

We need a revival of godly women in America. You don't have to [2]wear dresses all the time ladies. I love to see ladies in culottes. Skorts are proper as well. [3]Every woman can wear modest swimwear. The Bible mentions the attire of a harlot. Proverbs 7: 10, "And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart.

" Clearly, the way a woman dresses sends a message to men. Every decent man respects a woman in a dress. I sure do! The human body is sacred. We've lost our respect in America for sacred things. The marriage act is sacred. The life of a child in the womb is sacred. The abortion industry has undermined our soul as a nation! [4]We need a Bible revival in America!!!

1.3.22 The True Agenda Behind The Coronavirus (2020-05-07 12:30)

Ephesians 6:12, “For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.”

My humble opinion is that this is all a manmade hoax intended to usher in World Government. I know that sounds too cruel to be true, but consider that the perpetrators behind 911 have never been brought to justice (and never will until God judges them in eternity - Ecclesiastes 5:8). The way that the American news media pounced on this, beginning with the first Coronavirus death on January 9, 2020 is very suspicious. Since the years following 911, seeing how the crisis was used to set up a domestic police states, I have suspected that more was to come. Here it is in 2020! I believe this whole pandemic is a fraud. The virus is real, but it is being extremely overblown, creating hysteria worldwide. Police have been seen beating citizens in India. Americans in San Diego are being fined $1,000 (also facing 5 years imprisonment) for just going outside of their home for non-essential needs. Do you really think this just happened? Wake up!

[1]Bill and Melinda Gates have been involved with population control for a long time, which doesn’t set right with many people when they talk about forced vaccinations. In case you didn’t know, world health agencies have been [2]caught red-handed lacing vaccinations with sterilization chemicals, without the recipient’s knowledge. ...

> The Committee had vials of the tetanus vaccine analyzed for hCG. It informed HLI about the tetanus toxoid vaccine. HLI then told its World Council members and HLI affiliates in more than 60 countries. Similar tetanus vaccines laced with hCG have been uncovered in the Philippines and in Nicaragua. In addition to the World Health Organization (WHO), other organizations involved in the development of an anti-fertility vaccine using hCG include the UN Population Fund, the UN Development Programme, the World Bank, the Population Council, the Rockefeller Foundation, the US National Institute of Child Health and Human Development, the All India Institute of Medical Sciences, and Uppsala, Helsinki, and Ohio State universities. The priest objects that, if indeed the purpose of the mass vaccinations is to prevent pregnancies, women are uninformed, unsuspecting, and unconsenting victims.

Can you imagine? Can you imagine thousands of young women submitting to a vaccination, being lied to that the shot will protect their health, which renders them barren for life? That is what is going on folks. When the biggest population control figure in the world, Bill Gates (a modern-day Margaret Sanger), tells the world that [4]he is developing a vaccine for the Coronavirus, you should be alarmed!!! [5]Bill Gates is now working with seven companies to find a vaccination for the pandemic. I GUARANTEE you that Mr. Gates and his crew will develop a vaccination for the Coronavirus, and God only knows what else the injection or [6]digital vaccine will do to you! This is serious stuff! You should be concerned. We don't want FORCED vaccinations!!!

Snopes allegedly exposes false rumors, but they lost all credibility with me when they [7]downplayed the 911 attacks on the World Trade Center as a false conspiracy. You CANNOT trust Snopes! [8]Snopes also denies that sterilization chemicals have been used. How do they know? I believe the priest in Kenya! It is also happening in the Philippines and Mexico. We are in an information war people! The world is in lockdown, not because of the Coronavirus pandemic, but because World Government is here! I guarantee you that this lockdown is here to stay. When they do eventually lift the lockdown, it will only be partial, and the police state we are now experiencing will NOT go away!!! After 911, TSA turned all U.S. airports into Nazi-Germany-like guard stations, but now that creepy thug Nazi feeling will spread everywhere! You are the criminal citizen! Where's your mask?

Will this become the Mark of the Beast of Bible prophecy? ...

>
> And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.
>
> And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:
>
> And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

I honestly do not know if this will lead into the mark, but it sure seems like we're heading that way. Could the pretribulation Rapture be near? I sure think so! I do not believe Christians will go into the Tribulation period. If we do, then we should be looking for the Antichrist, not the glorious appearing of our great God and Savior (Titus 2:13). The heathen controlled mainstream newsmedia are liars. They've been attacking Alex Jones of [9]Infowars.com as a conspiracy theorist for many years, but Alex is right about nearly everything he says concerning the New World Order. I am thankful for his truth-telling work! It is sad that most pastors and churches are asleep today, more interested in paying the bills than they are about preserving our liberty and freedom.

Senator Ted Cruz's father, Rafael Cruz, admirably spoke about [10]what is really going on today . The [11]Masonic U.S. government is taking control over our lives. They've removed and banned the Holy Bible from America's schools since 1963, instead indoctrinating children with the BIG LIE that they evolved from stardust and slime; the consequences have been devastating, as heard in the horrifying daily news! Yesterday's deceived children grew up without a moral compass, and are now today's ungodly adults! Only the Holy Bible teaches—THOU SHALT LOVE THY NEIGHBOR

AS THYSELF! Evolution teaches a dog eat dog mentality, the survival of the fittest!!! The world is becoming a giant prison institution and the inmates are running it! Humbly, I predicted two things in 2016 when President Donald Trump took office —war and a police state! We'll the police state is here!

1.3.23 Gospel Of John Contains All You Need To Be Saved (2020-05-07 23:20)

John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name."

If you were to ignore all of the other 65 books of the inspired Word of God, you could get saved just from the Gospel of John. That is what our text verse from John 20:31 teaches. The apostle John said (wiring under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit) that "

THESE ARE WRITTEN

" that ye might believe that Jesus is THE CHRIST, the SON OF GOD! Everything that we need to know to get saved is contained within the beloved Gospel of John.

I have web visitors ask me a lot of hypothetical questions. For example: Do you have to believe in eternal punishment to be saved?

There is no mention of "

Hell

" in the Gospel of John. Jesus warned the unsaved Pharisees in John 8:24, "I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins." So we see that punishment for sins is implied.

The fact of the matter is that Hell is not mentioned in John, but condemnation is in John 3:18, "He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

The apostle said in John 20:31, "

THESE ARE WRITTEN,

to convince us that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, so that by believing we will be immediately and forever saved. This is a very simple message. We see mention of all men being sinners in

John 1:29, " The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." The Gospel of John is very simple and limited in the information we need to know to be saved. If you come to God as a needy sinner, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He is risen from the dead, you are saved. It is that simple!

> "More people will die and burn in Hell, because they're trusting too much!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, a precious quote from the MP3 sermon, "[1]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"

No where in the Gospel of John are we taught to pray a prayer to be saved, yet all across the world churches and religious tracts require lost sinners to pray a prayer to be saved. There is nothing in the Gospel of John about having to walk down a church isle at invitation time, to respond to a call to come down to the altar. Most pastors will give an invitation at the end of a sermon, asking people to come down to the front of the church so someone can show them how to be saved. That is very wrong to do, unless you also tell people how to be saved right in their pew. A person can BELIEVE the 'Good News' (Gospel) just as easily from their pew, as they can at the altar.

There is no mention of water baptism, speaking in tongues, nor church membership in the Gospel of John. None of these things are necessary to go to Heaven. Many pseudo-Christian cults teach that water baptism is required for salvation. Martin Luther and John Calvin were false prophets, who required water baptism to be saved. They falsely claim that a person is saved through the act of baptism, claiming that one's faith is demonstrated by getting baptized. The Bible doesn't teach that garbage. Baptism is not a sacrament. There is no such thing as " sacraments

" in the Scriptures! Sacraments are rooted in demonic Roman Catholicism. Catholics observe Seven Sacraments to get to Heaven, which is a counterfeit plan of salvation. Luther and his protege Calvin, taught Two Sacraments. Salvation is NOT found in any religion, but in a person—the Lord Jesus Christ!!!

And also, the word "repent" is not mentioned in the Gospel of John. Yes, a person does need to repent to be saved, but it is automatic, which is why John didn't mention it. Some preachers try to mandate repentance as turning from sins, which is a wrong meaning. Bible repentance is the Greek noun metanoia, which mean "a change of mind." The verb form is metanoeo, meaning, " to think differently.

” Repentance is simply a change of mind from WRONG THINKING to believe the Gospel.

Calvinism perverts the Gospel, redefining repentance using the English meaning, which is “ to turn away from sin.

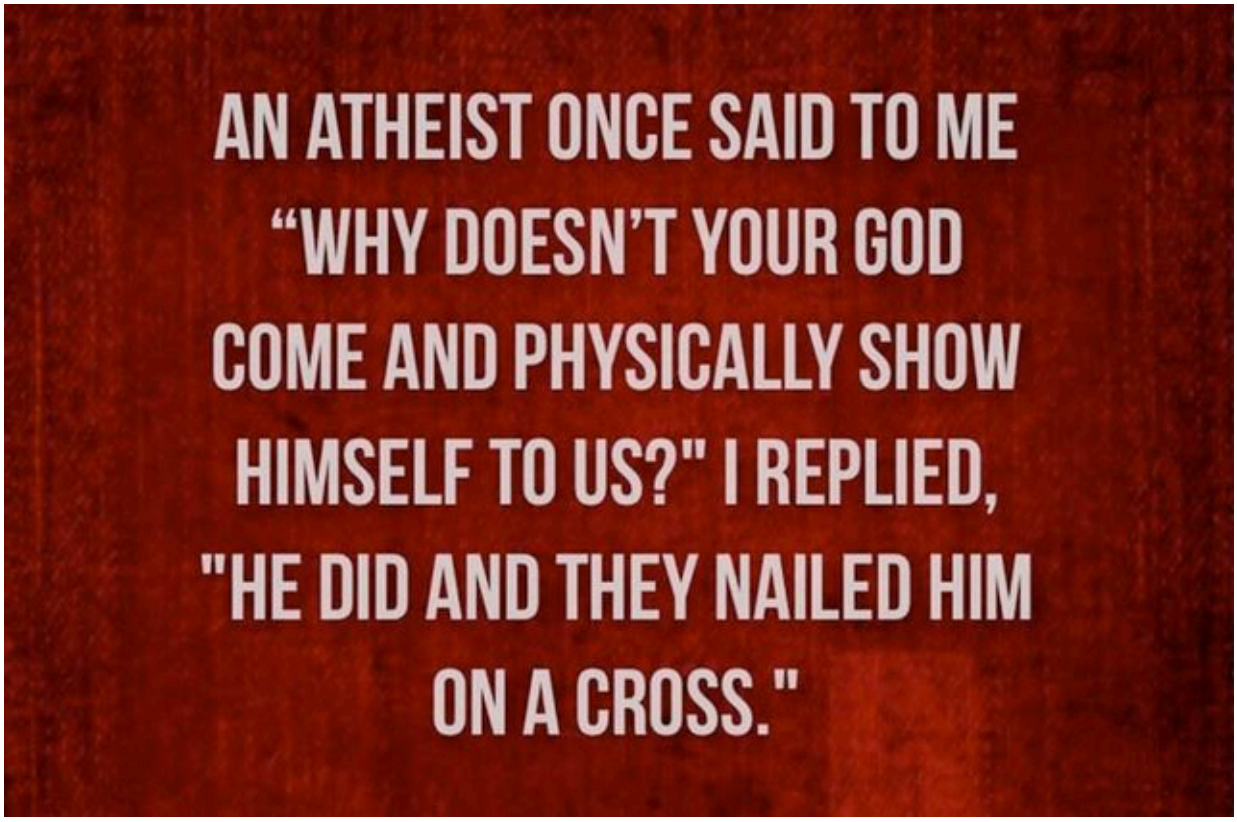
” That is reformation, not repentance. Salvation is not reformation, education, nor rehabilitation; it is regeneration. Penitence is sorrow over one’s sins. Penance is making a mend for one’s sins. Reformation is turning away from one’s sins. Bible repentance is seeing one’s self as a needy sinner in the sight of a holy God. Acts 20:21b, “

repentance toward God.

” Notice the Bible does not say repentance from sin.

One Baptist pastor said to me that in order to turn TO God, you must also turn FROM something. He was attempting to justify his heretical teaching that people must turn from their sins to be saved. He is only half correct! Although it is true that we must turn FROM something in order to turn TO something, it is passive not active. The man who by faith turns TO Christ for salvation has turned his back against sin, even though he may not be ready to forsake those particular bad habits in his or her life. In order for eternal life to truly be a free gift, it CANNOT have any strings attached. There can be no obligations. Salvation is a TAKE proposition, not a GIVE proposition. Salvation is RECEIVED, not ACHIEVED.



The first book of the Bible that any person should read is the Gospel of John. The reason why is because the Gospel of John is God’s Gospel tract! That is exactly what we are told in John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” Everything that you need to know to be saved is written within the pages of the Gospel John wrote. This evidences the simplicity that is in Christ, and silences the naysayers who pervert the Gospel by adding all sorts of unbiblical extras (e.g., following Jesus, making a commitment, public confession, turning from sins, surrendering all to Christ, receiving Jesus as “ et cetera). Although all proper in their place, none of those things comprise the Gospel. You may do all of those things, and yet still never have been born-again at all.

1.3.24 My Opinion Of President Donald Trump In 2020 (2020-05-08 03:00)

1st Timothy 2:1-2, " I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty."

I like President Trump. I am impressed time and time again as I listen to him speak, and I see that he's a man of action, getting the job done. I love how President Trump handles the media, putting them in their place. He’s really good with people. Mr. Trump is a strong leader and a man’s man kind of guy. I like his toughness and yet he is gentle. I am amazed at his incredible patience, and that he never blows up at the press. Many leaders would be calling for security to remove the loudmouths, but Mr. Trump calmly lets them criticize him. I admire the President’s calm demeanor. I really like President Trump as a leader and his determination to get things done. I think he is an incredibly wise man, as far as secular business and handling people. After four years of watching his presidency, I have many good things to say about President Donald Trump.

I love how he says so many practical and common sense things. President Trump is truly refreshing to see in action. I watched a YouTube documentary about the new border wall. As of April 25, 2020 they’ve completed 161 miles. [1]The wall is very impressive. You can actually see through the wall, because the vertical beams are several inches apart. You can see videos on YouTube about the wall; it is quite amazing. My concern is down the road that this very wall, which is intended to protect the American people, may be used to enslave Americans when we try to escape a police state. As former Congressman Ron Paul has repeatedly warned, ’[2]It Can Happen Here!’ I believe it is happening right now, with this Coronavirus LOCK-DOWN!

The Dark Side Of The Matter

As much as I just bragged on President Trump, there is a dark side to him as well. When I saw Mr. Trump in photos buddying with the Clintons before he took office, I suspected him as being part of the criminal elite establishment. There is no doubt in my mind that Mr. Trump is a high level Freemason. Why won’t the U.S. Justice Department investigate and prosecute the culprits behind 911? Why did the Justice Department turn a blind eye to Mena, the Oklahoma City Bombing, and the HSBC drug-cartel banking scandal? Who’s in charge anyway? The answer is to look at the [3]giant creepy 6,666 inches tall occult obelisk overshadowing our nation’s capital. That obelisk is commonly known as: ’The Washington Monument.’ The obelisk (an erect make phallus) symbolizing occult power, is also 666 inches wide. Talk about Satanic! It is interesting that Nebuchadnezzar’s occult golden image in Daniel chapter 2 was of the same dimensions (a 10 to 1 ratio). An occult secret society of high-level Freemasons and Satanists rule over America!

Thus, I simply don't trust President Trump. I predicted in 2016 that Mr. Trump would give us two things—one was an enhanced police state, which we are seeing right now under the Coronavirus lockdown; the second thing is a war, which I am confident we will see in the next four years with Mr. Trump as our nation's leader. The [4]U.S. has already dropped 7,423 bombs on Afghanistan during Mr. Trump's presidency. The President today said he is going to rebuild our military like never before, start spending ill-spent foreign money on the U.S.A. to rebuild dilapidated bridges and roads, and to crack down in inner-city violence in America's big cities. That all sounds GREAT! I hope it all comes true. Time will tell.

I heard President Trump today in a White House briefing, mention that he's starting a new drug task force to fight the cartels. I sure hope that is real. When Vice President George W. Bush appointed himself in charge of the southern Florida Anti-Drug Task Force, it was merely a cover to traffic more drugs into the country. [5]President Bill Clinton and the [6]Bush family were steeped in illegal drug trafficking . The U.S. government lost credibility with many Americans a long time ago, including myself. Ungodly Freemasons rule over America!

What concerns me is when I step back in my mind and look at the BIG PICTURE! We know that the world is headed for World Government. The Holy Bible foretold that the Mark of the Beast would come, when tyranny would rule the world (Revelation 13:15-17). Bible prophecy is history written in advance. Whether you vote Democrat or Republican, it doesn't matter, because they are merely two separate legs both walking in the SAME DIRECTION of a New World Order! As Christians we cannot stop the NWO, but we can fight against Communism. Our whole duty is to fear God and keep His commandments (Ecclesiastes 12:13-14). Once Mr. Trump leaves office in 2024 (which is my humble prediction), and the next Democrat President (likely a lesbian woman) takes us lower morally than ever before, all the work which President Trump has done will simply facilitate the next evildoer to run our country into the ground morally.

Keep in mind that [7]President Trump has called for the decriminalization of homosexuality worldwide. He recently had [8]a new law made that prohibits free speech on college campuses nationwide, not allowing any criticism of Israel. So you cannot expose Zionism (manmade Israel) and their NWO on college campuses in America! That is a gross violation of American's Bill of Rights! I do not think Mr. Trump is a born-again Christian. The closest he has ever come (from what I have seen) to being a believer, is to claim that Norman Vincent Peale was his pastor years ago. That is not a testimony! I believe Mr. Trump is smack dab in the middle of the power elite as man as any man has ever been! I believe Mr. Trump is totally controlled by the power elite—the Luciferian powers behind the subversion of the United States. The Bible teaches that our fight is not against flesh and blood, but against “spiritual wickedness in high places” and “the rulers of the darkness of this world” (Ephesians 6:12-13).

Christians Must Have Faith In God, Not Government

In a needful sermon titled: ’[9]The Sins Of Christian America,’ Pastor Chuck Baldwin in Montana exposes President Donald Trump as the enemy of Christianity—calling him a mass-murderer for [10]dropping a record number of bombs on foreign soil, and a leftist liberal at heart. Sadly, Christian leaders nowadays will blindly follow anybody who claims to be pro-life. Pastor today don’t think objectively, unwittingly supporting the Devil’s New World Order.

It bothers me that Mr. Trump was pro-choice all his life and then changed his mind when he ran for political office. In fact, President Trump has been dubbed ’The most pro-life president ever!’ I’ll believe it ten years from now, when I see where where our nation is headed. Since Roe vs. Wade in 1973, every Republican U.S. President has publicly said they are pro-life, while the government has continued to fund Planned Parenthood (the largest provider of abortion services in America). Thankfully, President Trump has made efforts to defund Planned Parenthood, which is exciting. He has also appointed pro-life judges to the courts, which is great. I really love what I am seeing, but is it all rhetoric?

Are we being deceived again? President George W. Bush and his administration lied us into war with Iraq, murdering 1,455,590 of our innocent neighbours. America broke every one of God’s Ten Commandments when we invaded Iraq (coveting, stealing, bearing false witness, murdering, et cetera). Every time abortion gets voted on by the U.S. Supreme Court, they vote 5 to 4 in favor of keeping abortion legal. It is so obvious that the court system is rigged. I simply do not trust anything the U.S. government says or does anymore, because of all the lies and deceit. I don’t believe Donald Trump is a savior, I think he is just another [11]pawn in the game.

[12]The Sins Of Christian America (Pastor Chuck Baldwin)

I see through all of President Trump’s efforts as just another means to an end—a New World Order. Look on the back of any U.S. one-dollar bill. Those occult symbols were designed in 1775 when our nation was birthed, showing exactly who founded and controls America

—ungodly FREEMASONS!!!

President Trump is a strong Zionist supporter. Zionism is manmade Israel. Present-day Israel (since 1948) is NOT the fulfillment of Bible prophecy. Israel today is just like any other heathen nation.

I love Jewish people and Arabs equally. The issue is not about anti-Semitism, God forbid; but rather, anti-corruption. I do not spend much time exposing Zionism, but I do warn Christians not to support manmade Israel. Just like Abraham and Sarah, who lacked the faith to wait for God to give them a child, taking matters into their own hands; likewise have Zionists tried to force God's hand to bless the manmade secular state of Israel, but He won't. True Israel will be restored when Jesus Christ returns (Hosea 3:4-5). God has big plans for future Israel. If you are interested in learning more Biblically about Israel's future, I highly recommend Dr. Mark G. Cambron's (1911-2000) sermon titled: '[13]ISRAEL'S FUTURE.'

Exodus 20:13, “ Thou shalt not kill.”

The inspired Holy Bible is the greatest possession ever given to mankind by God. The Word of God is very clear, in no uncertain terms, that no human being has a right to recklessly take the life of another human being. The Bible commands THOU SHALT NOT KILL! Save your excuses and arguments for judgment day when you stand before God, I am simply proclaiming what the Holy Bible teaches—

THOU SHALT NOT KILL!!!

WHO HAS ABORTIONS?

In 2016, unmarried women accounted for 86 % of all abortions (CDC).

Among married women, 4 % of 2016 pregnancies (excluding spontaneous miscarriages) ended in abortion. Among unmarried women, 28 % ended in abortion (CDC).

Women in their 20’s accounted for the majority of abortions in 2016 and had the highest abortion rates (CDC).

Adolescents under 15 years obtained .03 % of all 2016 abortions; women aged 15–19 years accounted for less than 10 % (CDC).

Whoa! Did you notice that 86 % of all abortions in the United States are sought by UNMARRIED women? That speaks volumes as to the virtues of marriage. May I say, marriage is not just the old-fashioned way, it is the right way and God’s plan for humanity. Here is a helpful quote from Pastor Jack Hyles:

"If you want to never do anything that is terribly wicked, then you never do anything that is slightly wicked." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "Unjust In The Least."

Kindly said, if couples wouldn't commit the lesser sin of fornication, they wouldn't commit the greater sin of murder! All sin is bad, but there are lesser and greater sins (John 19:11). Sin begets sin. Evil begets evil. I watched several dozen episodes (of about 400 total) of the popular TV show, "

Forensic Files.

" I studied each case, to see how small things led to big things. Sure enough, in nearly every case people allowed lesser evil things to exist in their life (booze, lying, greed, strip clubs, hatred, et cetera) which allowed to fester escalated into theft, rape, torture, murder and hurting others in horrifying ways). I had to stop watching the series, because it was too creepy.

Abortion is first-degree premeditated MURDER! Abortion Biblically is worthy of capital punishment. One of my favorite books is titled: '[2]The Case For Capital Punishment' by Pastor Max D. Younce. Listen, just because everybody is doing something doesn't make it right; and just because no one is doing something doesn't make it wrong! Right is right and wrong is wrong. We often here that there is a large gray area between right and wrong, but that is only true if you disregard the plain teachings of the inspired Holy Bible. There is no controversy if you believe the Bible! Oftentimes the right decision is the hard decision!

I cannot even imagine killing a child in the womb. If the child is not a human being, then why does the life have to be terminated?

The fact is that abortion stops a beating heart!

Doing right isn't always convenient, easy or popular, but it pleases God. God always does right. Genesis 18:25b, Shall not the Judge of all the earth *do right?" God wants us also to do what is right, at all times.

Psalms 106:3, " Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that doeth righteousness at all times."

Please understand that I would never condemn any woman who has already had an abortion. My heart goes out to you. My only heart's intent is to hopefully convince pregnant mothers not to have an abortion. Remember, having an abortion doesn't make a woman unpregnant, it just makes her the mother of a dead baby! Jesus Himself said in John 3:17 that the Father did not send Him to condemn sinners. John 3:17, "For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."

The law of God in the Old Testament condemns all humanity.

Exodus 20:13, " Thou shalt not kill."

Proverbs 14:34,

Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people."

1.3.26 The Frustration Of Praying With No Answers (2020-05-09 00:10)

Philippians 4:6, "Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God."

One of the most frustrating things in my life is that God doesn't answer my prayers. Is He ignoring me (Luke 18:8)? Am I asking amiss to consume it upon my own lusts (James 4:3)? Is there unrighteousness in my life that is hindering my prayers?

1st Peter 3:12, " For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil. " God always hears the prayers of His children, but that doesn't mean He will grant our request. There are many variables. It must be the Lord's will. 1st John 5:14, " And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:" I continually pray for God to work in the mind and heart of my web visitors. Does He? It seems so, but I don't know if God is answering that prayer.

Spousal abuse can hindered prayers, but I am not married. 1st Peter 3:7, " Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered." Prayer is asking! Thanksgiving, praise and adoration are important, but those things are not prayer. If you are not requesting something from God, you are not praying. PRAYER IS ASKING!!!

" is simply a petition, or an ongoing prayer request. I don't ask God for much, because He is so kind and good that He has already blessed me. I do pray for a wife, and that is my one and only request for myself. It seems like God will never answer my prayer. I get so down and frustrated about this. 1st Corinthians 7:2 teaches that everyone needs to be married. 1st Corinthians 7:2, " Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband." I'm trying.

We're coming now to the requirements of a successful prayer life. What must I do to get my prayers answered? What is the thing that will make you keep on praying? It's hearing from Heaven! I'm going to reverse that. The thing that will reveal your faith is praying when no answer comes. That's the supreme test. I've gone over a number of chapters in the book of Job again. In one of them, Job said, "Oh that I knew where I might find Him." He was looking for God. Can you imagine? He was the best man God had and he couldn't find Him. He said "Lord, I want you to show me why you're doing this to me. We've always been on good terms and you've been my best friend. I'm not against you and am not going to turn against you, but I need an explanation and I want you to give it." But the Lord didn't pay him any attention. I imagine the Lord just kind of smiled and said, "Later on. After a while."

So finally Job said "I went forward and He wasn't there. Backward. I couldn't perceive Him. On the left hand where He doth work. I couldn't behold Him. On the right hand where He hid himself and I couldn't see him." That's all the directions isn't it? Forward, backward, left, right. He said "I couldn't get one glimpse of Him." Then he said, "But He knoweth the way that I take and when He hath tried me, He will bring me forth as gold. My feet have held His steps. His way have I kept and not declined. Neither have I gone back from the commandment of His lips. I've esteemed His words more than my necessary food." That's the secret of it right there. It was the most severe test he ever had. It wasn't when all of his ten children died. It wasn't when he lost all of his camels, oxen and sheep and goats and chickens. It wasn't when he lost all of his servants.

The greatest loss was not when Mrs. Job came and said, "Just curse God and die." That wasn't his most severe test. That was just part of it. Then three fair-weather friends came and looked at him and they didn't speak for seven days. Not one word. Finally they opened their mouths and skinned him and scalded him and scathed him and ate him up alive. But that wasn't his greatest test. Do you know what the greatest test was? You've never been there until you've reached this place, and that is when you look up to God and there's not any God. You just pray like you used to pray and there's no answer. There's no response. There's no God. There's no feeling and your faith is severely tested. But let me tell you something. You're going to have to learn to believe God when you cannot perceive God. You're going to have to learn to "faith" Him when you can't feel Him. Unless you do, you're going to be in bad shape before this thing's over with. There'll come a time when God reserves the right to cut you completely loose from Him and then see what your faith will lead you to do. "In all this, Job sinned not nor charged God foolishly."

What are the requirements for real successful praying. Number one. This is the unknown quantity. Mark X here, because it marks the spot. PURITY. That's right. Psalm 66:18 says "If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me." If I regard... If I say to Brother Mike, "If you see George, give him my regards." That means to pass my love on to him. If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me. That cuts off God's willingness from me. God said, "Of course I can hear you, but I will not, because you're giving your regards to the devil." That's what He's talking about. Psalm 66:18.

Number two. FRUIT. Matthew 21:21-22. The disciples were talking to Jesus about the fig tree. They said, "That fig tree is gone. All You did was put your Word to it. You said 'Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever,' and it withered away.'" When God puts His Word on you and you refuse to bear fruit, He has the right to say, "Just let him wither." Then you've got to wither. It's the only thing you can do. "They marveled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away! Jesus answered and said unto them, "Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, you shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done." Now, that marvelous golden text, "All things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive."

In Matthew 18:18-20 we read the greatest contract in the Bible. This concerns FAITH. "Verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." Again, I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my father which is in heaven. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." Does that still mean what it meant when He said it? Do you mean to tell me that we can bind the devil and bind the adversary? Do you mean God will give Christians binding power today? If He meant it then, He means it now. There must be FAITH—real faith.

Now turn to Mark 11:22-23. Oh, how precious are these promises. That's all we have to go on. "Have faith in God... Whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass: he shall have whatsoever he saith." Now, verse 24, the other golden text: "Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray..." When you get on your knees and get in the spirit of prayer, the Bible says He will give you your desires. He says IF you will delight yourself in the Lord, and you ought to be a delightful prayer warrior. "When you pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them."

That leads us to one more thing. FORGIVING GRACE. In verse 25 He said, "When you stand up to pray, you'd better be sure you've forgiven those who have wronged you." That's no problem for the Christian, but it's impossible for the unsaved. I talked to a man yesterday. who said "I have bitterness." I said "It will ruin you." There's no substitute for the tenderness of Jesus. No matter how much you hate the devil, you'll love people. No matter how much people might hurt you and try to destroy you, you'll love them while they're doing it. If you grow in grace, you'll thank God for the day the enemies arose so you could learn how to treat your enemies. But He said "If you do not forgive, neither will your father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses." How serious it is. My whole prayer life depends on my forgiveness of others.

An unforgiving spirit will completely ruin your prayer life. You can spend all night here at this altar, and you can holler, "Oh, God. Lord, I've got to have an answer." You'll never get it. He said, "When you come to the altar with your gift and then you had a very sober, serious, sacred thought, 'Somebody's got something against me,' you leave your gift right there and you go and first be reconciled to your brother." You'd better hear me tonight, there’s no such thing as two brothers not being reconciled. If you are brothers in Christ and sisters in Christ, there’s a way for both of you to get together because you have the same Christ in both of you. What am I talking about tonight? It’s simply if we’re brothers. Do you know what He said? He said, "You leave it right there." To me, that’s faith, because when you go to your brother... "But Lord, I don’t have anything against him. He’s got something against me. Let him come to me. He’s the one that did it. I didn’t."

The Lord said "Well he doesn’t have enough grace. I think you have a little praying grace and you ought to have a little more. You go to him. Will you do that?" He goes out there and after a while both of them come back with a gift. He said, "I’ll give mine," and the other one said, "I’m going to give mine too. Let’s pray for each other." That’s what He’s talking about. Do you have unforgiveness tonight toward anybody? Don’t go to bed tonight until you say, "Lord, what a delight to let You give me grace to forgive. I want power in prayer." We’re spiritually insane to let something stand between us and getting our prayers answered.

Why don’t you grow up? Why don’t you let Jesus give you the answer and say, "Lord, thank you for forgiving grace." I’ve never forgiven anybody with my forgiveness. It’s always been His. I’ve never had grace, made up any grace, manufactured any grace, whipped up any grace, picked up any grace. God gives me grace.

Oh, this sweet neglected privilege of prayer. Folks why would it be necessary for Brother Roloff or Brother anybody else to have to speak long and many sermons on prayer? Have you read your Bible? Have you ever noticed one good and great man who didn’t pray? Have you ever heard of a great preacher who wasn’t great in his place of prayer? Oh, may the Lord search us out and help us. Time is so short. Eternity is so long. We must not let our prayer path be clouded with the clouds of unforgiveness, doubt or impurity or uncleanness, an unclean attitude or spirit. Oh, may God bless you as you say, "Lord, oh, get me back to my prayer place and get me back to the prayer spirit." "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me." Psalm 51:10.

Jeremiah 33:3 reminds us of God’s promise to answer when we pray. "Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not."

1.3.27 Gideon Failed To Recognize The Big Picture (2020-05-09 05:10)

Judges 6,13, " And Gideon said unto him, Oh my Lord, if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites. "

Sin often leads to poverty and hard time, not only because of personal sin, but also national sin. In Judges 6 Gideon was frustrated...

> Judges 6,13a,
>
> " And Gideon said unto him, Oh my Lord, if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us?. "

Notice in verse 13 that Gideon was frustrated.

God, why can't I find a job?

God, why are we suffering?

" "Where are the miracles that our father told us about?" Gideon failed to recognize that Israel had sinned, which suggests to me that Gideon wasn't right with God. If he were, he would have recognized Israel's sins. ...

> Judges 6:1,
> **"
> And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian seven years. "

Judges 6:6,

And Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites; and the children of Israel cried unto the LORD. ”

It was Israel’s sin which brought God’s judgment upon them. God always judges a nation by giving her over to an external enemy. All across America today we’ve got Christians (even Christian leaders) who still expect God to bless our wicked nation. Abortion is still a big evil, murdering hundreds of thousands of human lives each year. Public indecency, nudity, violence, lying, taking God’s name in vain, crooked business practices, adultery, homosexuality, greed, lewdness in music videos, covetousness, drunkenness—to name but a few evils—plague America today.

Gideon didn’t connect the dots to see why God’s people were suffering famine, being overcome by the Midiantes, because of the sins of the people. God won’t continue to bless a wicked nation! Gideon asked God where the blessings were that his ancestors spoke of. Gideon said, “

I’ve heard all these things about God working miracles, answering prayer, and doing mighty things; but all I see is poverty and hard times instead! What’s going on Lord?

” Judges 6:1 answers Gideon’s question—ISRAEL DID EVIL IN THE SIGHT OF THE LORD. In our own sinful eyes, Americans don’t think we’ve done anything evil to murder 60,000,000 human beings in the womb. Our nation has much blood on its hands. Genesis 4:10, “And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother’s blood crieth unto me from the ground.

” Do you think God has missed the cries of 60,000,000 children whose blood has been crying out from the ground since 1973?

In OUR OWN EYES, we don’t think we’ve done evil to get drunk, teach children that they evolved from stardust and gorillas, pass out condoms to the kids to encourage immoral sex outside of a legal marriage, talking filthy in the workplace, women dressing immodestly, and committing all manner of filth and sin; but in the SIGHT OF GOD, we have done woeful evil, so that God can no longer bless us. What saith the Scripture?

Judges 21:25, “ In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.” Don’t miss that —they wanted to DO RIGHT—but they wanted to choose for themselves what was good or evil. Friend, everyone has a right to their own opinion, but no one has a right to their own facts! No one has a right to decide good from evil, except God almighty!

The Woeful Lack Of Godly Character In This Generation

Good character is godly character! We are living in a generation that lacks godly character. Character is the habit of doing right, which is cultivated by the continual doing of right. I highly recommend that you listen to a great sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles called:

“ [1]WHAT HAS DESTROYED AMERICA? ” You won’t hear a more urgent sermon in this needful hour in America. The horrible attitude that children ought not be spanked and forced to do right has cursed our land. Today’s adults are fools. I saw a group of wicked women all holding pro-choice abortion signs, pulling on the same rope as the Devil. Listen mothers, your body STOPS where your baby’s body STARTS. In a godly society, even a decent society, a human being is protected by law in the womb. In most cases of a pregnant woman being murdered, the perpetrator is charged with TWO murders, not one. What hypocrisy it is to allow doctors to legally murder humans in the womb. They won’t escape God’s judgment (Ecclesiastes 12:14; Hebrews 4:13). Abortion is first-degree murder!!!

In the preceding sermon, Brother Hyles teaches the importance of forcing young people to DO RIGHT, so that they will develop a habit (character) of doing what is right at all times. We’re seeing a lot of religious people today (including pastors), who attend church, talk right, look right and go through all the motions; but they are what I call "one level character" Christians. They are one step away from committing adultery and all manner of evil. They are part of this characterless generation of spoiled American brats. A mature believer is what I consider a "seven level character" Christian. Put another way, Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said that behind every tragedy in human character is a slow process of wicked thinking.

Every time we allow something sinful into our life, it weakens our character and builds another layer of callousness upon our heart. I believe that is what the Bible means in Matthew 13:15,

“ For this people’s heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. ”

Some preachers falsely teach that this verse means a person can reach a point where they can no longer be saved. It doesn’t mean that at all. It means that each time a person hears the truth preached, and they reject it, another layer of callousness builds up over their heart, weakening their character. No human being becomes a hardened criminal all of a sudden; but rather, it started with stealing cookies from the cookie jar in kindergarten; then it was stealing a kid’s bike down the street; then it was stealing a car as a teenager; and now they are in prison for murder. I love what Dr. Hyles said: “If you want to never do anything that is terribly wicked, then you never do anything that is slightly wicked.” What a great truth!

We Need A Real Bible Revival Today

Obeying God strips away the pride and callousness from a man’s heart. Each time we obey God, choosing to do right, we become a little more like the Savior, and our overall character is strengthened. David said through God’s precepts we get understanding, therefore a believer right with the Lord hates every false way (Psalms 119:104). When we walk with Jesus in the Scriptures (John 5:39), there should be a hatred for sin and evil that intensifies in us because we love the Lord (Psalms 97:10), and He hates evil

(Hebrews 1:9)

. Sin hurts people and ruins lives. I hate booze. I hate abortion and the promiscuity that leads to it. A shocking [2]86 % of abortions are sought by unmarried women! Marriage is the best prevention against the evils of abortion. Folks, there is nothing wrong in America today that couldn’t be remedied by raising up the next generation on the inspired Word of God. ...

> “Now, there’s only one thing we need in America—and that is an old-fashioned real Bible revival! I mean a real BIBLE REVIVAL! It’ll straighten out the home, straighten out the children, make the husband act right, put the wife in order; it’ll take care of the preacher, the church; I mean it’ll fix up the community, I mean it’ll stop the Devil dead in his tracks; I mean it’ll give victory to God’s people—the Word of God!” —Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982), “[3]The Book That Makes The Difference!”

Gideon was young and naive. He was your typical youth, having an entitlement attitude. He had heard of the miracles and blessings from God among his ancestors, and he expected the same miracles and blessings for his generation; but Gideon failed to understand that God will not bless a sinful people. Isaiah 1:4, "Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward." That indictment sure applies to the United States today! There is absolutely no proof of evolution, yet ungodly teachers force that garbage into the impressionable minds of children every day in public schools across our nation. Is it any wonder why the daily news is filled with horrifying reports of adults and youth committing unthinkable evils? I think not.

2nd Peter 2:1,

"But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies..."

Our fundamental Bible churches today are filled with naive believers who view Martin Luther (1483-1546) as a great hero of the faith. Tragically, Martin Luther was a heretic! I realize this comes as a shock to many Christians, but the proof is undeniable. The Biblical teaching of being saved by faith alone is often attributed to Martin Luther, but nothing could be further from the truth. Indeed, Luther and the other reformers did challenge the Roman Catholic church, for selling indulgences and offering a "works-based" type of salvation (among other co plaints). However, just because Martin Luther protested the Catholic church doesn't mean he was saved. Luther is famous for nailing his 95 thesis to the door of the church in Wittenberg, Germany in 1517.

In his Large Catechism, Luther writes:

> [I] affirm that Baptism is no human trifle, but that it was established by God Himself. Moreover, He earnestly and solemnly commanded that we must be baptized or we shall not be saved. No one is to think that it is an optional matter like putting on a red coat. It is of greatest importance that we hold Baptism in high esteem as something splendid and glorious. The reason why we are striving and battling so strenuously for this view of Baptism is that the world nowadays is full of sects that loudly proclaim that Baptism is merely an external form and that external forms are useless.... Although Baptism is indeed performed by human hands, yet it is truly God's own action (1978, pp. 98-99). [emphasis added] — Luther, Martin (1978), Luther's Large Catechism, (Saint Louis, MO: Concordia).

Where does the Holy Bible "solemnly command that we must be baptized or we shall not be saved"? From Luther's own comments it is clear that he required water baptism for salvation. Hero of the faith? This is called the heresy of 'Baptismal Regeneration.' Many Protestant denominations today have been infected with Luther's damnable heresy. Sadly, most fundamental Bible-believing churches today have also been deceived, led to think of Martin Luther as a hero. Unless you think you must be water baptized to go to Heaven, you are bidding Godspeed to evil by promoting Martin Luther as a hero of the faith. If you want to promote Mr. Luther as a famous person, or a significant figure of the Reformation, fine; but it is wickedness and confusing to young people to recognize Luther as a Christian. You need to tell the truth that Martin Luther was an unsaved religious man, just like the Pope.

Luther was subtle, just as Satan is subtle—teaching that salvation is by partial faith in Christ plus ceremonial works. [1]Martin Luther also required keeping the sacrament of holy communion, but the Bible does not agree with Mr. Luther. There is no such thing Biblically as a "sacrament."

Obviously, Luther didn't consider water baptism a self-righteous work, but it certainly is. Anything more required than simple childlike faith in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ is a false plan of salvation. The Word of God states in John 3:18, "He that believeth on him is not condemned..." I don't see any mention of "baptism" there. In 1st John 5:13 the apostle John stated the purpose of his Epistle: "These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life." Carefully notice that John never mentions baptism in 1st, 2nd, or 3rd John.

[2] Martin Luther: Master Of Deceit
(an awesome .PDF book by [3]Pastor Max D. Younce)

Salvation Is By Grace Alone Without Works

Romans 11:6 plainly tells us that if salvation is by works then it is no longer by grace—"And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work." If you add anything to simple childlike faith in Jesus Christ, then you have corrupted the Gospel. Martin Luther perverted the Gospel of free grace. Every hellbound Catholic today who speaks of faith, also believes that salvation comes by keeping the Seven Sacraments of the counterfeit church in Rome. As we just read in Romans 11:6, it cannot be BOTH! Catholicism and the Lutheran plan of salvation are a road straight to Hell, fire and damnation. The true Gospel is through grace alone, by faith alone, in Christ's death, burial and resurrection alone. This is 'THE GOSPEL' by which we are saved, if we believe (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

It is false teaching for anyone to claim that water baptism is necessary for salvation. If this were the case, then John WOULD have mentioned it. Romans 4:5 plainly states, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." There's NO mention of water baptism. In Acts 15:1 a group of false teachers came down to Judaea. They added circumcision to the Gospel, perverting grace,

And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

" Wicked men are always adding more to salvation than what God requires. Martin Luther was a devil-dog preacher, adding water baptism and communion to grace alone, which is "another Gospel."

Galatians 1:6-9, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.”

The Holy Bible defines ’The Gospel’ (meaning: ’Good News’ or ’Glad Tidings’) for us in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, namely, Christ DIED on the cross for our sins, He was BURIED, and then He RESURRECTED physically three days later. If you’ll simply come to God dear friend as a needy sinner, receiving the ’GOOD NEWS’ that I just shared with you, then you will immediately have eternal life. God promises it! John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

” Titus 1:2,

“In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began; ”

Friend, who are you going to believe, Martin Luther or God’s Word? Ironically, I was reading the website of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod (ELS) today in Minnesota. I read their page titled, ’[4]What Is A Lutheran?’ on which they make the statement: “Lutherans are Christians who believe that all Christian teachings should come from God’s Word, the Bible.”

Do they really believe that? No, they do not! If you look on the drop down menu under what they believe, you’ll see Luther’s Small Catechism, which states concerning baptism:

> “Baptism effects forgiveness of sins, delivers from death and the devil, and gives eternal salvation to all who believe this, just as the words and promises of God declare.” —[5]Martin Luther, small catechism, baptism [emphasis added]

What Satanic lies and deception! In the same small catechism, Luther errantly states: “Baptism is not just water.” Folks, yes it is just water! When you go down under water by immersion in baptism, you are just getting wet. There is no special grace bestowed upon you! Proof of what I say is found in Mark 16:16, “

He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.

” If baptism saves a person (as Mr. Luther foolishly claims), then how could a person be damned who got baptized? The Bible is very clear that only the person who

“BELIEVETH NOT” is damned!!! Sadly, unless he repented on his deathbed, Martin Luther is burning in the fires of Hell this moment and for all eternity, please do not join him by following his unbiblical teachings. Romans 3:4, “God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.”

2nd Corinthians 11:13-15, “For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.”

1.3.29 The Heresy Of Lordship Salvation Defined (2020-05-09 20:21)

Ephesians 2:8-9, “

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.

I obtained much of this vital information from an excellent helpful Christian website called: “[1]Expreacherman.” Lordship “salvation” is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the PERFORMANCE of good works, the PROMISE of good works, or the EVIDENCE of good works MUST accompany faith in Christ in order to establish, or provide evidence, that such faith has resulted in eternal life.

God’s Word clearly states that salvation is by Grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone.

Lordship Salvation can be overt (i.e., the false claim one must forsake all of his sins and follow Christ in obedience and discipleship in order to be saved) or VERY SUBTLE (i.e., the lie that one’s behavior will change once someone is saved, or that one must desire to get better in order to be saved, or the lie that one must want to have a relationship with Jesus in order to be saved, or that one must go beyond mere intellectual assent and actively respond (i.e., do something; such as Rahab opening the door to spies, or Abraham offering Isaac on the altar) in response to God’s message in order to be saved). These are all false teachings!

No where in the Bible does it say that any of these man-made conditions are necessary for one to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. And yet, such things are taught by many churches, ministries, and pastors throughout professing Christendom. Sadly, this includes many Baptist churches, and even so-called Independent Fundamental Baptist Churches today. I am an Independent Fundamental Baptist myself, gladly so, but I hate and expose the lies of Calvinism (all 5 heretical points), Lordship Salvation, turning from sins to be saved, and anything that denies the Eternal Security of the Christian believer. The Bible teaches ONE SAVED ALWAYS SAVED!!! It is what Jesus Christ did through the cross that saves us, by the sprinkling of His shed blood upon the heavenly Mercy Seat, and not by what we can do for Him in the flesh!

Christians must expose the teachers of Lordship Salvation, because they:

1. Keep people lost (Luke 8-12; 2 Corinthians 4:3-4)
2. Are accursed by God for perverting the Gospel (Galatians 1:6-9)
3. Frustrate God's free grace (Galatians 2:21-22)
4. Bewitch believers, rendering them ineffective in their Christian lives (Galatians 3:1-3; 5:4)
5. Are to be marked and avoided for teaching things contrary to sound doctrine (Romans 16:17-18)
6. Cause people to focus on themselves, rather than on Christ, for the assurance of salvation. (The doctrine of Eternal Life is the same as Eternal Security, they are not separate teachings.)
7. Cause a lot of believers to have fear and insecurity about salvation (Acts 15:1-2, 22-24)

We cannot know whether or not someone influenced by Lordship Salvation is saved. In some cases, they may have never even heard the Gospel presented clearly, and may have never believed in Jesus as their Savior. In other cases, they may have believed in Jesus as their Savior, but have received bad teaching that causes them ongoing confusion. We cannot tell which is which. But, in any case, they need our prayers and they need [2]a clear presentation of the Gospel.

One wonders why so many thousands of seeking souls flock to the false message of Lordship Salvation. Could it be the cultic draw by charismatic personalities who manipulate the Scripture, relish the attention, enjoy the fame and the dollars cleverly conned from their followers? Sure, I think so! There's a bunch of religious con men out there! Lordship Salvation is really Satan's sure plan of damnation, not the saving Gospel.

The person who is fed the Lordship Salvation false teaching is being steered away from the truth. It is tragic that this is happening in hundreds of thousands of churches today around the world. After all, people naturally want to trust authority figures (and they sure do). When a pastor or religious leader teaches people Lordship Salvation, it is a form of spiritual murder, because you are damning their souls to the Lake of Fire forever with false assurance (Revelation 20:11-15). I cannot warn you enough. Moody Bible Institute in Chicago is of the Devil, who openly admit to being "[3]generally Calvinistic." Calvinism demands more than simple childlike faith for salvation, and is; therefore, a perverted gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works.

Moody Radio is aired on at least 73 radio networks around the United States, who promote [4]Dr. John MacArthur, a deadly false prophet. So you see, the Devil has crept a false gospel of Lordship Salvation into hundreds of thousands of churches!!!

Although this list is by no means complete, following are some of the heretical terms that are associated with Lordship Salvation as being requirements for receiving God's free gift of Eternal Life:

1. "Repent of your sins"
2. "Turn from your sins"
3. "Be willing to turn from your sins"
4. "Put Christ on the throne of your life"
5. "Surrender all to Christ"
6. "Give your life to Jesus"
7. "Make a commitment to Christ"
8. "[5]Live a lifestyle of repentance"
9. "Publicly confess Christ"
10. "Commit to follow Christ"
11. "[6]Count the cost"
12. "Forsake the old ways of living"
13. "Put Christ on the throne of your life"

In sharp contrast to these EXTRA requirements which God does not require to be saved, the inspired Holy Bible teaches [7]EASY-BELIEVISM!!! Getting saved is so easy that even a small child can be saved (2nd Timothy 3:15; Matthew 19:14).

Some proponents of Lordship salvation will allow that salvation is by Grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone; but then will insist that a saved person will show signs of being saved, such as sinning less and doing good works. If these “signs” are not present, they will insist, or at least heavily suspect, that a person has never believed in Christ as Savior.

This unbiblical and dangerous thought process can never lead to assurance of salvation, because it is always dependent on how one thinks he is DOING at any given point in time.

Other folks think that God knows whether or not they are TRYING. Folks, DOING and TRYING are works!!! God doesn’t save anyone who is trying to be saved, He only saves those who are trusting to be saved. Salvation is received , not achieved . Trying will not help you attain eternal life. Eternal life is a free gift, received when someone trusts in Christ alone for it. Salvation is a take proposition from God, not a give proposition! You simply take His free gift by faith in the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen for your sins!

When a person gets saved, they don’t change one bit. The only difference is now they have the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit. All things become new, as a baby believer’s spiritual eyes are now opened for the first time, and they must begin to grow. There may be instant coffee, but there are no instant mature Christians!!! PGM’s UNSHACKLED radio programs give the impression that a person must commit them self to substantial lifestyle changes in order to be saved. That’s what they repeatedly teach! The Holy Bible says that salvation is a gift! Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

> “When anyone comes promising salvation to those ‘who make full surrender’ of all that they have to God, and who ’pay the price of full salvation’ he is preaching another gospel, for the price was paid on Calvary’s cross and the work that saves is finished. It was Christ Jesus who made the full surrender when He yielded His life on Calvary that saves us, not our surrender in any way to Him.”
> —Pastor Harry A. Ironside, from the Gospel tract, ’[8]Another Gospel’

Pacific Garden Mission (PGM), whether they intend it or not, teach Calvinism in some of their episodes. In one UNSHACKLED episode I heard a man teaching that you cannot just write your name in the back of your Bible; but rather, you need to surrender your life to Jesus every day for the rest of your life. That is a satanic plan of damnation!!! Eternal life is a free gift, that you receive ONE TIME by faith alone, and then it is yours forever. Calvinism requires a believer to persevere in holy living, otherwise they say you're not saved. This is a false works-based plan of salvation.

The idea that repentance is from sins for salvation is not found anywhere in the Bible, and constitutes a works-based plan of salvation. In UNSHACKLED episode #3399, the story of "Dorie: The Girl Nobody Wanted," the PGM narrator guides the listener to pray "Please come into my heart and transform me to be more like you." Although innocent sounding, this is not the Gospel. You don't have to "ask" Jesus into your heart to be saved. You don't have to ask Jesus to "transform" you to be saved. Being "transformed" according to Romans 12:2 comes only by having our mind "RENEWED," which comes by nurturing on the milk of God's Word (1st Peter 2:2).

Kindly, Pacific Garden Mission hypes the spectacular ideology that a man is supposed to get saved and become an instant transformed creature! That is not Biblical. Growth in grace requires a lifetime. A new believer requires YEARS to mature. A new believer can choose to behave as a mature Christian does, but there are no shortcuts, the same as is true in the physical body. A child may choose to act like an adult in some ways, but they won't actually be an adult until they become an adult. The same is true spiritually in the Lord.

In a rescue mission, souls are pulled from the flames of Hell by the preaching of the Gospel, saved as by fire. It is totally unbiblical to propagate the idea of instantly transformed alcoholics, perverts and bums off the street into transformed Christians! I realize that some people do get saved and instantly demonstrate some type of outward change, but that is not the norm. Alcoholics are chemically addicted to the drug alcohol and in most cases will required medical intervention to recover. You cannot just tell them to believe the Gospel and be transformed from alcoholism to recovery. I'm just going by what is propagated in the [9]UNSHACKLED programs. UNSHACKLED's episodes are saturated with the heresy of Lordship Salvation!!! You'll extensively hear the 13 heretical terms I mentioned earlier.

The simple Gospel is this—You are a guilty SINNER (Romans 3:19). That is the bad news. As such, you NEED a Savior, which is Jesus Christ (John 3:16). Christ died on the cross to pay your sin debt (and mine). He was buried and miraculously resurrected physically three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). That is the 'GOOD NEWS' (aka, 'The Gospel'). If you will come to God as a needy sinner, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, trusting in the risen SAVIOR, you will be immediately, irrevocably and forever saved! It's that simple!!! [10]Please trust Christ right now as your personal Savior.

Acts 13:39, " And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses."

You won't find a better Scripture to support the Eternal Security of the Christian believer, than our text Bible verse from Acts 13:39. The believer is JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS!!! Amen and amen! One saved always saved is 100 % Biblical. I like to also express the great doctrine of Eternal Security as: "IF SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED!" I say that simply because most professed “Christians” today are not saved at all. We see this truth evidenced in Bible passages such as Matthew 7:21-23 and Luke 13:23-24.

We are living in the “perilous times” foretold in 2nd Timothy 3:1-7. Particularly, we are living in times of woeful doctrinal apostasy, false prophets and heresies creeping into our fundamental Bible-believing churches. Matthew 24:11, “And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.” I just watched an [1]excellent video today by Joshua Chavez, who exposes Justin Peters and Doreen Virtue. Heresy is creeping into the churches by the hour!!! It is sad that most churches are succumbing to many demonic deceptions. Some popular heresies in churches today include: Lordship Salvation (which is Calvinism), the “ turn from your from sins

heresy to be saved (which is works), Zionism (the fraud of manmade Israel), the Young Earth Creation hoax, hundreds of counterfeit English Bible versions, denying the inspiration of the King James Bible, et cetera.

The subject of Eternal Security is a controversial subject, but it is 100 % Biblical. My friend, if you don’t believe in “ONCE SAVED ALWAYS SAVED,” you are not saved. It’s that simple. The reason why is because if you’re trusting Jesus, then you can’t lose it. It you think God’s salvation can be lost, then you are relying upon human effort to keep you saved. This is why I expose the [2]Salvation Army as heretics.

Please notice three things from our text Verse in 1st John 5:11...

1. Eternal life is a gift from God.
2. It is “eternal life,” that is, it never ends.
3. Eternal life is obtained only in Jesus Christ!

Amen! The inspired, precious, inerrant, preserved, holy, King James Bible, teaches that once a person is saved, they can NEVER lose it!!!

Many Baptists are not saved. It is sad but true. I can tell you unequivocally that if you believe you can ever forfeit your salvation, you don’t have it friend. Dr. Hank Lindstrom preaches a wonderful MP3 sermon on the subject titled, “[3]How Permanent Is Your Salvation?”

Once you are saved you have passed from death unto life. John 5:24, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.” What a beautiful Scripture teaching eternal security of the believer. There are two types of people in this world: 1) those who believe; 2) those who don’t believe. The Bible promises that those who believe have everlasting life. God authored the Gospel of John to convince us that Jesus is the Son of God, the Christ, and that by BELIEVING on His name we will have eternal life. John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.”

Eternal Life Cannot Be Given Back to God

I witnessed to a man who is a [4]Seventh-day Adventist. He doesn’t believe in eternal security, because [5]Ellen G. White (the founder of SDA) didn’t either. He believes that eternal life is a gift that can be given back to God (by lack of faith, apostasy or going back into a life of sin). Such speculation is totally unscriptural. There’s not one example in the Holy Bible of anyone ever losing their salvation. In fact, we learn in 1st Corinthians 5:1-5 about a believer in the church at Corinth who was living in sexual immorality. The apostle Paul rebukes the congregation for doing nothing about open sin in the church, and he admonishes them to lovingly confront the man in a Biblical fashion. Paul says if the man doesn’t repent, 1st Corinthians 5:5, “To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.” Carefully notice that the man’s “spirit” (who we really are) will “be saved” in the [6]Day of the Lord (i.e., when Christ’s returns).

The flesh will be destroyed. Romans 6:23 teaches that the wages of sin is death, and we are all big sinners. Therefore, we all must die eventually. But our spirit will return to God when our flesh dies (Ecclesiastes 12:7). The spirit either goes to Hell forever (aka, the Second Death - Revelation 21:8); or our spirit will go to Heaven to be with the Lord (2nd Corinthians 5:8,

“We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord”). Jesus is precious!!!

Just as the physical birth is irreversible, so also is the spiritual birth irreversible. Many theologians misunderstand this truth.

SDA’s deceitfully claim to believe the simple Gospel, but they ALSO believe that the life you live must coincide with your profession of faith to be valid. If any [7]SDA tries to deny this, study their false doctrine of [8]Investigative Judgment for solid evidence of what I say. Miss White taught that in the year 1844, Jesus entered into the heavenly Holy Place to begin His work of investigating the saints, to decide who is worthy to have eternal life or not, based upon the life they have lived. [9]Seventh-day Adventism is a satanic religious cult based upon faith plus works (human performance). [10]SDA’s are wrong on repentance. There is no new birth in SDA! They do not believe in eternal security in SDA. Ellen G. White was a false prophetess.

Eternal life is a gift, but it is more than a gift, it is a new birth. And a new birth is irreversible. If human works are required to be saved, then salvation becomes a reward, not a free gift. We read in 1st Peter 1:18-19 that we we’re redeemed by the precious blood of the Lamb, Jesus Christ. Jesus paid our sin debt with His literal blood. Adding even the slightest bit of human effort corrupts the Gospel and negates Christ’s sacrifice ion the cross. This is why [11]God killed a man for picking up sticks on the Sabbath Day in the Old Testament, which symbolized adding works to Christ’s finished work of redemption. Man has no part in saving himself. Our only part is to “BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, AND THOU SHALT BE SAVED” (Acts 16:31). Once saved, always saved; Or if you prefer: If Saved, always saved!

If you have any other mindset than that your salvation is 100 % secure in Christ’s sacrifice on the cross for your sins, His burial, and bodily resurrection from the dead three days later, you need to get saved. If you think there’s anything that you could ever do to lose your salvation, you need to get saved! Jesus doesn’t forgive sins, He has already paid for them with His precious blood! Forgiveness of sins and eternal life are free gifts, which we need only to receive by faith to have them. John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” We are saved by BELIEVING [12]the Gospel.

The Holy Spirit is the Earnest of Our Inheritance, Which is Eternal Life

Every believer is “sealed” with the Holy Spirit unto the day of redemption:

> 2nd Corinthians 5:5, “Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.”

And again we read:

> Ephesians 1:11-14, “In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will: That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.”

This “earnest” is evidence that God will do all that He has PROMISED to do. When we get saved, we do not receive all of our inheritance. Our corrupted flesh, with all it’s bodily afflictions, does not change. But one day, when we receive all the benefits of salvation, we will get rid of this ole flesh, and receive a brand new glorified body fashioned like unto the Lord’s awesome body. Our new body will have [13]SUPERNATURAL POWERS, just like the Lord’s resurrected body did:

> Philippians 3:20-21, "For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself."

What a glorious day that will be!!!

Please notice that the Bible doesn't place any conditions on the believer's eternal security. If you are a born-again Christian, you are SEALED by the Holy Spirit, unto the DAY OF REDEMPTION. The Bible doesn't say that we are sealed until we sin. The Bible doesn't say that we are sealed until we mess up. The Bible doesn't say that we are sealed until we lose out faith. No, the Bible says, we are sealed UNTO THE DAY OF REDEMPTION!!! God sealed us with the Holy Spirit "OF PROMISE" to guarantee our inheritance. 1st Thessalonians 5:24, "Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it." What a great God!!

Those who BELIEVE will never die! Once saved always saved!!! Thank you Lord Jesus!!!

1.3.31 The Sin Of Gambling (2020-05-09 23:00)

Proverbs 13:11, " Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth by labour shall increase."

Anybody who gambles is not good at math. Games of skill are fine (like athletics), but games of chance are sinful. Such behavior is very addictive. The house always wins! Gambling casinos NEVER take a loss. Their machines are set up with algorithms that take a percentage for the house, skimming off the top before you even get started. It is a dirty racket which should be illegal. Wherever you find gambling you'll find all manner of wickedness.

Gambling casino owners are always attempting to open up more casinos. Like the serpent in the Garden of Eden who came to Eve, so also do gambling casino establishment owners lie. They make promises of creating jobs for the local economy. They boast of the benefits to the local community. Just like the lying and deceitful serpent (Satan according to Revelation 20:2), casino owners paint a rosy picture of a really bad thing that can hurt the community, and destroy people's lives. Gambling by chance is sinful. Proverbs 1:19, "Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird. So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof. "

Proverbs 15:27, " He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house; but he that hateth gifts shall live."

Everything evil in this world is something good which has been perverted. Sex is a good thing, but when it is practiced outside the bounds of a legal marriage it destroys lives. Immorality fuels the abortion industry. Only 4 % of abortions are sought by married women. Sadly, 80 % of all abortions are from single mothers. This proves why young people ought to get married first before having carnal knowledge (sex). We live in a very irresponsible culture in America. There is nothing as irresponsible as having sex outside of marriage. The heathen world continually downplays the sinfulness of immorality of all forms. 1st John 5:19, " And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness." The world has always been a wicked place! Modern technology has simply enabled mankind to travel further down the road he was already on!

1. Gambling is driven by greed, which God hates (1st Corinthians 6:9-10; Ephesians 5:5)
2. Gamblers hope to gain money through the losses of others, but the Bible condemns coveting other people's possessions (Exodus 20:17; Romans 7:7)
3. Gambling can lead to addiction (1st Timothy 6:9-10)

4. Gamblers often rely on superstition, gimmicks and luck. However, God views such practices as a form of idolatry, which is incompatible with His worship (Isaiah 65:11)

5. Rather than promote a desire to get something for nothing, the Bible encourages hard work (Ecclesiastes 2:24; Ephesians 4:28; 2nd Thessalonians 3:10-12)

I have always hated the state lotteries. It is dirty gambling. I am proud to say that I have never bought a lottery ticket in my life, and never plan to. The states all lie, promising to use the money for the schools when trying to convince the public to vote for a lottery; but when they get it, then the money is stolen and used for other things. Earnest Hemingway was right, “All things truly wicked start from an innocence.” Adults can be seen literally crying up and down Law Vegas strip, after losing everything in some dirty gambling casino. Anytime someone wins at gambling, it means that someone else lost. That is not the Christian way! Gambling is a shady way to make money quickly, of which God does not approve. Gambling by very nature undermines a person’s character. It is a form of lowering one’s self morally.

Satan is a beautiful liar! The Devil only shows people the neon lights and attractive glamour of SIN CITY, but he doesn’t show you the hospitals, rehab centers, collection agencies, bankruptcies, prisons and morgues. The Devil doesn’t show you the children now homeless, because their father gambled away their home and savings. I’ve read that at the back of every gambling casino in Las Vegas you’ll find a little horrible room, where financial translations take place. That is what it’s all about, filthy lucre! Be wise and don’t gamble. A dollar saved is as good as a dollar earned.

1.3.32 You Must Be Perfect, Not Good, To Get To Heaven (2020-05-10 05:30)

Revelation 21:27, "And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life."

A common misunderstanding is that a person must be “good” to get into Heaven, but the Holy Bible plainly teaches that a person must b absolutely “perfect” to enter into Heaven. You must be absolutely PERFECT, in every way, or else you cannot be permitted into the heavenly city of Jerusalem:

> 1st Corinthians 6:9-11, “Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.”

No sinner can inherit the Kingdom of God. All of your goodness is insufficient! Isaiah 64:6, “But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.” Did you read that my friend? The Holy Bible declares that “ALL OF OUR RIGHTEOUSNESSES ARE AS FILTHY RAGS”!!! Filthy rags are worthless! When you attend church or do good deeds, because you believe they are necessary to be saved (or remain saved), it is “filth” to God. Man’s best is FILTH to God!!!

> 1st Corinthians 6:9 and 11, “Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? ... And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.”

Many people quote 1st Corinthians 6:9-10 to scare sinners, but few people ever quote verse 11 . . .

“And Such Were Some Of You:

...But Ye Are Washed” —1st Corinthians 6:11

The Bible is acknowledging that God saves even the worst and vilest of sinners. Isaiah 1:18, "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool." One-third of the Bible was penned by pardoned MURDERERS (Moses, David and Paul). Just as the Lord forgave the murderers, harlots (prostitutes) and publicans (shady tax-collectors) who believed on His name, so also will Christ forgive you regardless of what evil things you have done throughout your life. God desires that all men may to come to repentance to be saved (2nd Peter 3:9).

Many Christians in today's soul-winning and evangelical churches have come out of a horrible life of sin—"BUT YE ARE WASHED" the Bibles says—washed by the sin-cleansing blood of Jesus Christ!!! 1st John 1:7, "...and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin." It is Christ's precious blood that washes ALL our sins away, and not human effort that saves us. For anyone to say that a person must try to stop sinning in order to be saved is teaching a false plan of salvation. I desire to live right because I AM SAVED, and not TO GET SAVED. 1st Corinthians 6:11, "And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God."

Amen! Our sins have been washed away by the literal blood of Jesus! We have been SANCTIFIED, set apart for God's purpose and glory. I now belong to Jesus and Jesus belongs to me! Praise God! I have been JUSTIFIED... "JUST-IF-I'D" never sinned. We are saved by God's grace, through faith in the Gospel. We are saved by completely RESTING in the precious name of Jesus Christ, because He died on the cross for our sins, was buried, and is bodily risen. Jesus bodily ascended into Heaven and "BY HIS OWN BLOOD" (Hebrews 9:12) Jesus entered the Holy Place. Jesus paid the price for our sins by sprinkling His liquid blood (Hebrews 12:24) on the Mercy Seat (Hebrews 9:12,22-24). Thank you Lord!

Christ Died For Me — The JUST For The UNJUST!!!

Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt of sin we could not pay. 2nd Corinthians 5:21, "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." No one is worthy of God's salvation.

1.3.33 Speaking In Tongues Is Of The Devil (2020-05-10 13:30)

1st Corinthians 14:23,

If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

’[1]Speaking in Tongues’ as done in Pentecostal, Charismatic, Assemblies of God, Churches of Christ, and many non-denominational churches today is a false teaching—a demonic practice used in many cults. Of all the churches that the apostle Paul wrote Epistles to, he only addressed the issue of speaking-in-tongues to the carnal church at Corinth (1st Corinthians 3:1).

Here is an excellent passage exposing the heresy of tongues from Pastor Hugh F. Pyle’s helpful book titled:

“The TRUTH about TONGUES and the CHARISMATIC Movement”

...

> “Keep in mind, then, that the word tongues in the Greek means traditional languages. It is used in the New Testament fifty times and is never used to teach some heavenly speech of ecstasy. The Bible says nothing about going into a frenzy, a trance or an ecstasy to receive a ’gift of tongues.’

Out of sixty-six books in the Bible, only three mention tongues except one reference related to the Jews in the book of Isaiah. And where it is most mentioned, in 1 Corinthians, God through Paul is correcting and regulating.

There are 1,189 chapters and 31,162 verses in the Bible, and only comparatively few verses deal with the subject in only seven chapters. All of this would surely indicate that it is hardly 'the main focal point of the teaching of Christ,' as some Charismatics teach. In fact, Jesus Christ never commanded His followers to speak with other tongues!

Jesus plainly taught that the Holy Spirit was to come to give us power and that power was to make us effectual witnesses. Soul winning, then, is the great burden of God. 'Ye shall be witnesses unto me after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you' (Acts 1:8). ...

Jameson, Fausett and Brown commentary says, 'Tongues must mean languages, not ecstatic, unintelligible rhapsodies.'

Never once were the disciples told to 'lose themselves' to allow the takeover of their reason by some spirit, nor were they ever told to allow their speech organs to wobble and their minds to 'become unfruitful,' as some tongues people today say we should.

The Bible does not say that 'speaking in tongues' is the initial evidence of the gift of the Holy Spirit to the believer.

In the book of Acts the gift of languages was used three times only. Great numbers of new converts were made in chapters 2,5,8 and 9. The Bible does not even imply that they ever spoke in tongues."

Amen! If the church that you attend speaks in jibber-jabber tongues, then you are in a false cult my friend, and it would be advisable to leave immediately. Biblical churches center around the plain and simple preaching of God's Word and Soul Winning. I made the following comparison chart between Acts chapter 2 and 1st Corinthians chapter 14, contrasting the differences between legitimate tongues (which only happened in Bible times), versus the demonic nonsense that goes on in many fake churches today...

[5]Why We Don’t Speak In Tongues | [6]MP3

Please avoid any [7]Charismatic church that practices Speaking in Tongues. Churches today try to imitate tongues as a form of cheap entertainment, not to get people saved. Beware of these greedy conmen who exploit the sacred things of God for money!

1.3.34 Today's Lazy Ecumenical Deceived Church Member (2020-05-10 22:03)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, " For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ."

Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) had it exactly right:

> "The Word of God is our only hope—that's our only hope! This has been the generation of translations and abominations, and perversions, of the Word of God! It's been a long time; now when the Revised Standard Version came out, I stood against it before I knew what it was, because the wrong crowd heard of that, and the wrong crowd received it, and I knew it got too much publicity to be right! And I knew if the newspapers publicized something, it had to be wrong! And so I knew that the American people and a lot of American preachers—they welcomed it into their house before they knew it was a rattlesnake!" [emphasis added] —Brother Lester Roloff, a needful quote from the MP3 sermon titled, "'THE LIVING BIBLE' EXPOSED!"

Today's professed Christians are as lazy as a hound dog on a hot summer day. They just won't investigate anything for themselves.

Acts 17:10-11, "And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so. " That is where the term "Bereans" comes from, which is sometimes used to name a church or ministry. The people of Berea didn't just believe what the apostle Paul said, they went to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES, to see if what Paul taught was the truth. Tragically, the Devil has crept counterfeit Bible revisions into the churches, so that people are confused on where to find THE TRUTH. Is the truth in this Bible? Or is it in that Bible? Which Bible revision? [1]Bob Jones University shameful says they are ALL God's Word. Well, then we have a very big problem, because today's plethora of Bible revisions all say something different. [2]God's curse is upon BJU and their alumni.

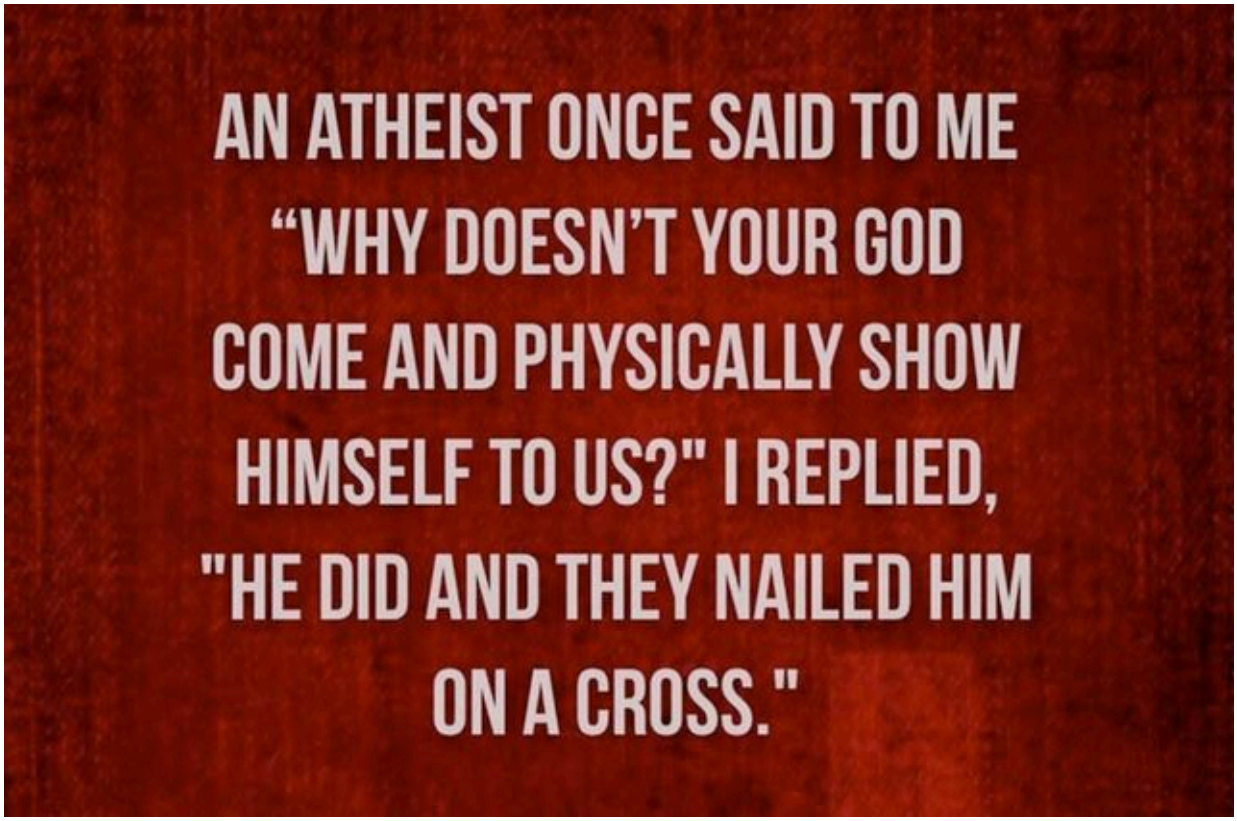
The 16th U.S. President, Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865) wisely said:

> "In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!" —President Abraham Lincoln

Likewise, since all of today's Bible revisions say something different, they CANNOT all be God's inspired Word. The ungodly translators fully know this to be true, which is why in EVERY CASE the new translations remove God's promise in Psalms 12:6-7 to keep and preserve His PURE WORDS "from this generation for ever"!

Brother Roloff also rightly said:

> "The Word of God is our only hope—that's our only hope! This has been the generation of translations and abominations, and perversions, of the Word of God! It's been a long time; now when the Revised Standard Version came out, I stood against it before I knew what it was, because the wrong crowd heard of that, and the wrong crowd received it, and I knew it got too much publicity to be right! And I knew if the newspapers publicized something, it had to be wrong! And so I knew that the American people and a lot of American preachers—they welcomed it into their house before they knew it was a rattlesnake!" —Brother Lester Roloff, a needful quote from the MP3 sermon titled, "'[3]THE LIVING BIBLE' EXPOSED!"



Dr. Al Lacy (1933-2016) had is exactly right...

"Those are Devil's Bibles!" —[4]Pastor Al Lacy

Churchgoers today are exactly like the less noble people in Thessalonica, not searching the Scriptures for themselves, so they are being woefully deceived by the Devil (Revelation 12:9)!!! Satan has attacked the very core root of Christianity—denying the inspiration of the King James Bible, and introducing literally HUNDREDS of alternative perverted English Bible revisions to confuse, mislead and corrupt nearly everyone. Ecumenical pastors are mostly to blame. This includes the ungodly pastors of the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who despite being repeatedly warned by myself and others, just don't care about THE TRUTH. They use and promote corruptible seed! They endorse, promote and bid Godspeed to devils in the pulpit—like [5]Dr. John MacArthur, who preaches ANOTHER GOSPEL (Galatians 1:6-9). I want the whole world to know THE TRUTH. We must expose the evildoers!!!

What saith the Scripture? John 5:39-40, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. " Hundreds of millions of church-goers today are following false prophets, headed for Hell, because they refuse to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES. Jesus said they will not come to Him to be saved. Instead they are following the damnable heretical teachings of John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, Don Piper, Marty Herron, Chip Ingram, Joel Osteen, Rick Warren and thousands of other FALSE PROPHETS who pervert the Gospel of free grace!!! I plead with you dear reader to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!!!

1.3.35 Why Harvest Baptist Church Won't Let Me Come Back (2020-05-10 23:00)

2nd Timothy 4:3, " For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;"

I gladly attended the harvest Baptist Church on Guam for one year in 2014. At first I was spiritually weak, having been through a divorce I didn't want in 2006, and much sorrow and pain in my personal life that ensued. After several months at the church God burdened my heart—over the use of dozens of corrupt Bible versions in the church, and the promoting of [1]heretic Dr. John MacArthur, and the teaching of the heresy of Lordship Salvation by the church pastors and staff. [2]Here is the story if you would like to read it. The pastors of Harvest Baptist Church are bastards in the pulpit, illegitimate. They have no business being in any pulpit. I have as much respect for a pedophile, as I do for Baptist pastors who prey upon innocent church members with counterfeit Bible versions!

I was accused by the pastors of Harvest of causing “

in the church. The truth is that I was trying to save the church from those very evils. They already use dozens of English Bible revisions, making them a house divided. How much more confused can a church be?

Acts 19:32, “ Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.” If you doubt what I say, and what you just read from Acts 19:32, look at what ALL the modern Bible revisions do to corrupt [3]Psalms 12:6-7. Harvest’s pastors got upset with me for proclaiming that there is only ONE HOLY BIBLE, not a dozen, not 900! They got upset because I said John MacArthur is a devilish false prophet who preaches another Gospel! I simply proclaimed THE TRUTH that there is only one Gospel, as defined in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). [4]Look at what John MacArthur requires!!!

I mean, is Jesus

the only Son,

only begotten Son

of God? All of the modern Bible perversions remove the word begotten.

” Should we confess our “ sins

or our

to each other in James 5:16? All of the modern perversions tell us to confess our sins to each other. Did Jesus forbid Mary Magdalene from touching Him, or was she already holding on to Him? All of the modern perversions say she was holding Him. My point is that they cannot all be correct! They cannot all be God’s inspired Word! Who is causing confusion me, by promoting only the inspired King James Bible; or the church pastors at Harvest and BJU who promote multiple Bible versions? They are a house divided!

The reason why I was falsely accused of causing “

in the church, is simply because I was trying to nail down something for them. I was saying there is ONLY ONE BIBLE

—the King James Bible. I was saying there is ONLY ONE GOSPEL, the Gospel of free grace without works. The senior pastor of Harvest said from the pulpit that it is not enough to admit you are a sinner; but also, he said you must forsake a lifestyle of sin. I heard him say it with my own two ears, sitting in the pew on a Sunday morning. You see, he is caught between grace and works, a consequence of listening to John MacArthur.

Bob Jones University says they are all God’s Word (which you can read for yourself in their stupid [5]Statement of Faith). BJU says God’s words have been preserved in “ the totality of extant manuscripts.

” They are including the devilish manuscripts of Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort, inspired by the Devil, which all [6]attack the deity of Jesus Christ. Here is our text verse again from 2nd Timothy 4:3, “ For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;” Dear reader, I ask you, how can you have SOUND DOCTRINE by consulting 39 different Bible versions? You cannot! That is why Harvest Baptist Church is teaching Lordship Salvation, and why they love and promote John MacArthur, and Moody Radio.

Moody Bible Institute admits on their website that they are “generally Calvinistic” in their beliefs. [7]Moody falsely accuses Pastor Harry Ironside of turning Calvinist, but they are LIARS!!! Calvinism is synonymous with Lordship Salvation. These cultists claim that it is not enough to merely receive Jesus as your Savior, but also as your “ making full surrender to Him to be saved. This is exactly what Dr. John MacArthur teaches, and it is

Lord,

ANOTHER GOSPEL

” (Galatians 1:6-9). For this offense I was brought into judgment in the church office at Harvest, forced to leave in 2014, and have been ostracized by my neighbours since. [8]I am a victim of abuse by Harvest Baptist Church in Micronesia.

1.3.36 God's Unbreakable Promise Of Eternal Life (2020-05-11 04:00)

Titus 3:5, "In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;"

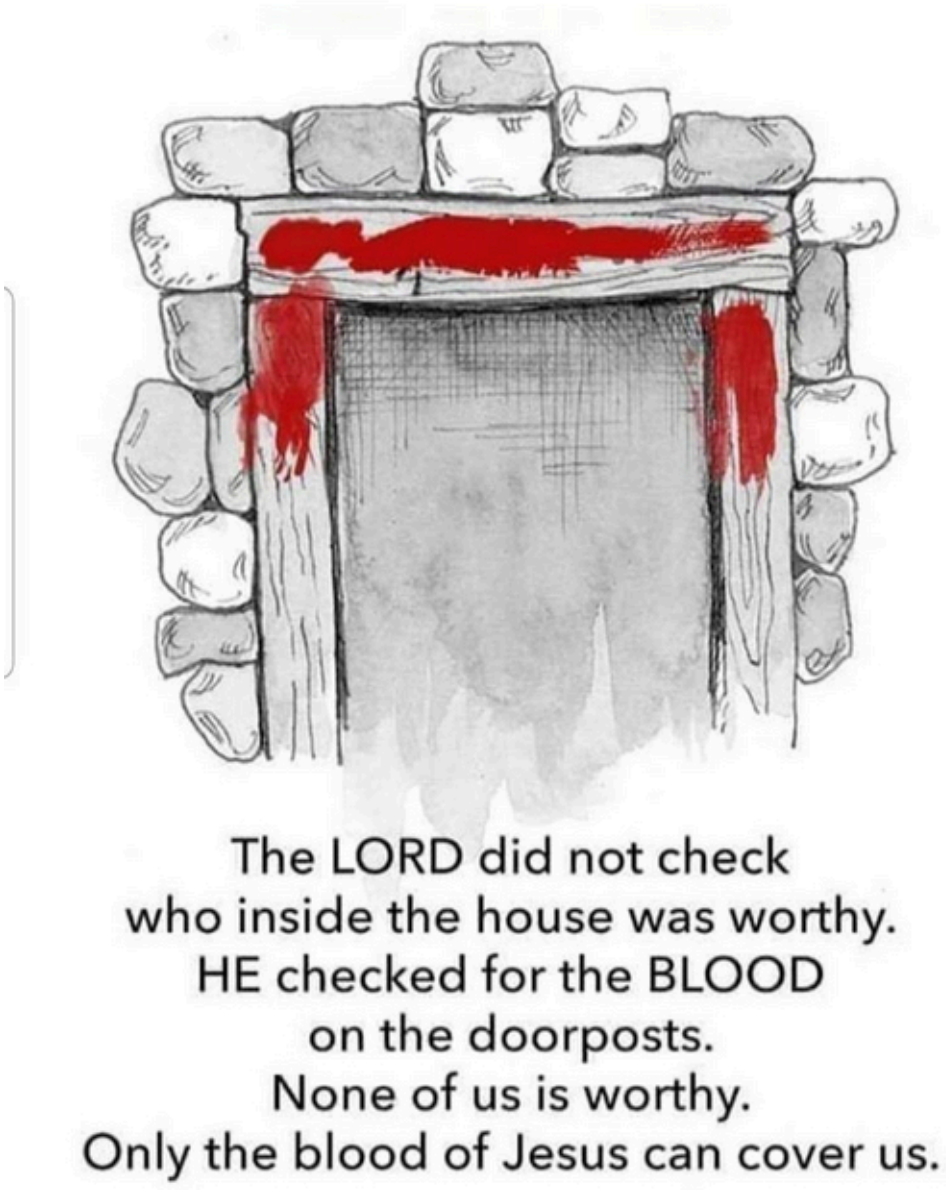
Someone recently asked me why they haven't been able to find any teachings of eternal security in the early centuries. I am leery of anything of historical record, because there are so any lies, misinformation and intentional deception that abound in the historical records. Many false teachers of Lordship Salvation today (e.g., Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, John Piper, Paul Washer and Chip Ingram) like to quote preachers of the past from the 19th and 19th centuries, using them as secondary authorities to bolster up their strawman argument of Calvinism.



One of the biggest deniers of the great Bible doctrine of Eternal Security today is [1]Evangelist Ray Comfort.

Ray sinfully says believers are [2]not "safe" in Jesus.

Mr. Comfort states:

> “No one has Biblical grounds to continue in sin, assuming that they are safe just because Jesus died on the cross. See 1 John 3:4-6.” —’THE EVIDENCE BIBLE,’ by Ray Comfort, pg. 1513; 2003, Bridge-Logos Publishers, Orlando, Florida

Kindly, Ray Comfort is a theological fool and a liar. The sole basis of the believer’s salvation is the finished redemptive work of Christ. In the Old Testament, during the first Passover, the death angel in Egypt was only looking for the lamb’s blood applied to the doorposts of the home, not checking to see who was worthy inside the building. ...

Exodus 12:13, "And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt."

What a beautiful Bible verse!

God raised up a deliverer named Moses to bring forth the Israelites out of bondage in Egypt. That is why the second book of the Old Testament is called: "

EXODUS.

The Jews exited Egypt. Amen!

The most special holiday in Israel was called the "PASSOVER," because the Lord PASSED OVER the home, not killing the firstborn during the 10th plague upon Egypt.

All of these false teachers today, who deny eternal security, fail to understand the Word of God, bringing damnation upon themselves (2nd Peter 3:16-17).

Understanding LAW and GRACE

Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982, one of my favorite preachers) used to say that "the Old Testament will put spiritual iron into our blood." Nearly all false teachers today only preach from the New Testament, failing to understanding the Holy Bible, adhering to a lopsided junk theology. God divided His inspired Word into two divisions: [4]LAW and GRACE . The law shows humanity our sinnership—that we are all guilty sinners in God’s sight (Romans 3:19-20). The law then brings us to Christ to be saved by God’s GRACE. So the two divisions are really: LAW and CHRIST. If a Bible student understands this simple great truth, everything else will fall into place. False teachers today (e.g., John MacArthur, Ray Comfort and John Piper) are stuck on the law, caught between works and grace. Here are some heretical quotes proving my point.

> “The evidence … the raw-bone, biblical evidence that there was one time in your life that you repented unto salvation, is that you continue repenting until today and continue growing in repentance.” Paul Washer

> “Christianity is not a once-and-for-all flu shot.” Paul Washer

> “A person who can show no mark in the sanctifying work of God in their life has no assurance that they have been justified.” Paul Washer

That is junk theology folks! When Paul says Christianity is “ not a once-and-for-all flu shot,

he literally means that you cannot know beyond any shadow of a doubt that you are saved. Don’t believe me? Read what Paul says for yourself and you judge:

> “We talk about the Germans of the 20th centuries that brought on their higher criticism. It is not near as dangerous as conservative Baptists with their gospel reductionism. How dare we, all these stupid evangelists walking around telling men after they’ve made some little prayer that they need to write their name in the back of their Bible, and put the date and if the Devil ever comes to them, they need to show him that. That is Roman superstition, it is not the gospel of Jesus Christ. You see we’ve turned the gospel into a flu-shot.” [emphasis added]—[5]Paul Washer

Paul Washer preaches a counterfeit gospel of fear and uncertainty, conditioning salvation upon human reformation (a changed life). This is the fallacy of [6]Calvinism! A changed life is NOT the proof that one is born-again; but rather, the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24; Romans 8:9). Here is one of the best Bible passages proving the eternal security of the believer —Acts 13:39, “ And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. ” If you are a Christian believer, you have already been justified from ALL THINGS!!!

Dear friend, you CAN be saved in an instant, by simply coming to God as a needy sinner, believing the ’GOOD NEWS’ (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). You CAN and SHOULD write down your name and the date you got saved. I was born-again (I think I was 13 years of age). No one told me to write down the date, so I didn’t. I remember where I sat in a pew, in a fundamental Baptist church on a Sunday morning, where I was gloriously saved. Any preacher who says you cannot KNOW you are saved is a fraud and a liar. The Bible says in Acts 2:41 that 3,000 souls were saved in one day. God does not promise "probationary life," nor "temporal life," but only "eternal life." John 10:28, " And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

Every Believer Is SEALED With The Holy Spirit Of Promise

What saith the Scripture? In Ephesians 1:12-14 we read, " That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory. "

This Bible verse is conclusive evidence that once a person is saved, they are forever saved. The moment we are saved, God SEALS US with His Holy Spirit, the Spirit which God promised to send when He ascended into Heaven, to every believer (John 14:16; 15:26). When Jesus died and raised up, and then ascended into Heaven, He sent the Holy Spirit (i.e., the Comforter).

That is why the blessed Holy Ghost is called " the Spirit of Promise. "

The Holy Spirit is the earnest of our inheritance, that is, the downpayment (proof) from God that we are His. 1st John 3:24, " And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him [Jesus], and he [the believer] in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. " Notice that we only in Christ if we keep His commandments; but He dwells in us regardless, because we are saved. The whole concept of losing God's promise of salvation is rooted in a works-based corrupt plan of salvation. Many Bible students get confused while reading the Epistle of 1st John. A common mistake is to assume that being of the Devil

means someone is not saved. 1st John 3:8b,

“He that committeth sin is of the devil.

” Yet, please consider that Jesus called the apostle Peter

in Matthew 16:23b,

“Get thee behind me, Satan.

” So even a saint can act like a devil!

The Believer Falls IN GRACE Never FROM GRACE

Galatians 3:24-26, “Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.”

Notice that once the law has brought us to Christ to be SAVED BY FAITH ALONE, we are no longer under the curse of the law, we are now under GRACE forever. So, literally, every time a believer sins, we always fall IN GRACE and never FROM GRACE. That is why we read in Romans 5:20, “ Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: ”

The more sin that a saint commits, the more God’s grace WILL ABOUND, so that we can never be lost again.

Granted that doesn’t give a believer the okay from God to live in gross immorality. Romans 3:31, “ Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law. ”

The apostle Paul says just because we are no longer under the law, God still expects us (as believers) to fulfill the law. If we don't, then grace will much more abound. God is not an absent Father.

Proverbs 3:12, "For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth."

The Lord scourges and chastises His children when we disobey (Hebrews 12:6-8), but there is no risk nor possibility of ever jeopardizing our POSITION in Christ as God's adopted child. The way we choose to live affects our CONDITION in Christ, but never our POSITION in Christ. Obeying the Lord as a Christian is solely a matter of DISCIPLESHIP, and never SONSHIP.

[7]DISCIPLESHIP versus SALVATION

1.3.37 The Horrible Pain Of Not Knowing You Are Saved (2020-05-11 14:30)

1st John 5:10-12, “ He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

Something changed in me when I got saved at age 13. That “ was the indwelling Holy Spirit. Before I was saved, I have no memories of anything about God in my life, I just draw a blank in my mind. The things of God meant nothing to me before age 13. I was led in kindergarten (in a Christian school) by my teacher to pray to be saved, and then my parents had me water baptized because the teacher told them I had been saved; but I wasn’t saved. You don’t get saved by praying a prayer, and that is all I did. I did not understand at that age (some kids do) what sin was, or the Gospel. I failed first grade and they put me back into kindergarten. That is a true story!

It wasn’t until age 13, sitting in church one Sunday morning, that my life was forever changed. I don’t remember the title of the pastor’s sermon. I don’t even remember what he preached about. I just remember that he said if you don’t have the Holy Spirit convicting you about the sins in your life, you are not saved. For the first time in my life I fell under the conviction of the Holy Spirit, and I very much wanted to be saved. I was shy and embarrassed to go down to the front of the church when the invitation was given. So the best I knew how, I cried out to God in my soul and asked Jesus to save me, and He did.

I didn’t think about giving up my sins at all; that kind of thinking didn’t even enter into the equation, but I knew that I was a sinner. Since I didn’t go down to the altar, I didn’t learn what I just did. That is why people really go down to the altar—to find out what just happened in the pew. The very second that a person places their trust (reliance) upon Jesus—trusting that He died on the cross for our sins, was buried and physically resurrected in His body three days later—they are immediately and forever saved

. When we accept hose things as true, and make the decision to rely upon that ’GOOD NEWS’ to get us to Heaven, God reads our mind and works the miracle of salvation. Only God can save a person. Salvation is a supernatural miracle of God in response to a person’s faith.

I Couldn’t Find The Peace That I Was Saved

I worried every day for the next seven years as a teenager. I cried. I feared. I asked questions to people without admitting that I wasn’t saved, afraid of what people might think. I read every religious tract I could get my hands on. I loved Chick Tracts with all the cartoon drawings by Jack Chick. I didn’t know they were corrupt back then. Every religious tract I viewed said at the end to pray a prayer, and I kept praying sinner’s prayers, like they said; but I still didn’t FEEL saved, struggling with my assurance. I didn’t FEEL saved, and nothing could settle my soul. I would go through each religious tract over and over:

1. Admit your are a sinner.
2. Realize that there is a penalty for sin,
3. Believe that Jesus Christ died on the cross to pay for your sins.
4. Pray and ask Him to save you.

All of the tracts essentially said the same thing, give or take a little. Many of the tracts left out Jesus’ bodily resurrection. Other tracts added giving your life to Christ, turning from sin, committing your life to God, making Jesus “ and a bunch of other junk theology that confused me. I knew all the Bible verses for the popular plan of salvation and I could recite them word for word (Romans 3:10, 3:23; 5:12; 10:9-10, 10:13). Yet I couldn't find peace about being saved. I just didn't know for certain. What if I left something out? What if I missed something? How could I know for sure? I was unlearned of the Scriptures, and people fear the unknown, like walking through the dark.

Lord,

I heard some radio preachers foolishly say that if you don't KNOW you are saved, it must mean that you are not. Oh boy, not again! Not another prayer to be saved! Respectfully, m y own church pastor said that very thing to me when I was 17 years old. I had finally mustered up the courage to go talk with him about my fears of not being saved. He assumed I must not be saved, since I couldn't find peace in the matter. So he led me in a sinner's prayer. Afterwards he rejoiced, and contacted my parents to let them know, and I was water baptized for the second time. I still remember the fear that gripped my soul as I was being water baptized, still not knowing whether I was really saved or not. Now I was really reluctant to tell anybody how I felt, because now the whole church thought I was saved.

You Don't Have To Pray To Be Saved

The worse thing a pastor can do to a person who is struggling with the assurance of their salvation, is to lead them in a sinner's prayer to be saved. Doing that obscures the truth of the Gospel, confuses the person more, and doesn't help them in the least to solve the problem! You don't have to pray to be saved. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) emphasizes this great Bible truth...

> "'Pray to be saved. Ask the Lord to save you.' This is what I heard a minister say to a convicted sinner who came forward for prayer at the close of an evangelistic service. Nowhere in the Bible are men told to pray to be saved. There are examples where men did pray and were saved. Men are told to repent, to believe, to obey the Gospel, but the Bible never says to pray for salvation. It does say that whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved, but nowhere does the Bible command men to pray to be saved. I think I know why, God, who made the human heart, knew that it was not necessary to tell convicted sinners to pray. If a sinner can see Jesus Christ on the cross, it is as natural for him to pray as it is for birds to sing or flowers to bloom. 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."' —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," chapter: Prayer And Praise, page 163; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

Amen and amen! There is nothing taught in the Bible about praying a sinner's prayer to be saved. That is why I stopped using it years ago. When I witness to people now, I simply present to them 'The Gospel'–the Good News of Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Anyone who comes to God as a needy sinner, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that He is bodily risen from the dead, is saved. It's that simple!

What such a person needs is to be taught THE TRUTH that salvation does not require a prayer to be saved. Jesus has already paid for everyone's sins with His precious blood. That is why eternal life is a free gift. Anybody can have that free gift. All they need to do is take it, by faith alone in the 'GOOD NEWS' of Christ crucified, buried and risen. When I learned years later that I didn't need to pray at all, it solidified my knowledge that I was saved. I haven't had a single doubt (God knows I speak the truth) in about 30 years. But I really owe it to Pastor Max D. Younce for 100 % solidifying my faith, in his helpful book titled: " [1]SALVATION AND THE PUBLIC INVITATION .

In his book, Dr. Younce admonishes all pastors to give people an opportunity to accept Christ as their Savior from the pew, without requiring them to walk down a church isle to find out how to get saved. Respectfully, if the pastor under whom I was saved had given me the opportunity to be saved in the pew, and simply would have explained to me how to be saved without leaving the pew, it may have saved me seven miserable years of worry and fear. Requiring people to walk an isle ADDS an additional step to the plan of salvation, which God does NOT require. Likewise, praying a sinner's prayer is an ADDITIONAL step which God does NOT require to be saved.

You Don’t Have To Ask, God Is Already Offering You Eternal Life

Since Christ has already paid for our sins in full with His blood on the cross, God is OFFERING salvation to us freely. If we ask God to save us, He will say: “Why are you asking me to save you? I already promised that I will save anybody who BELIEVES on the name of my dear only begotten Son.”

God is offering to us eternal life. It would be silly to ask God to give us something, that He is already freely offering to us. 1st Corinthians 1:21, “ For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. ”

The only requirement to be saved is to realize that we are a needy sinner. We are sinners (Romans 3:23). There is a penalty for sinning, which the Bible says is death (Romans 6:23; Romans 5:12). That includes the “second death” (Revelation 21:8b). That is what we deserve, which means we NEED a Savior. That is what I mean by “needy sinner,” we all NEED a Savior. That is the purpose of God’s law in the Old Testament, to show us our sinnership, and bring us to Jesus Christ to be saved by grace through faith (Galatians 3:24-26). I strongly suggest that you memorize some of these Bible passages that I have mentioned. It will help you to get the inspired Words of God into your heart. We need to hide God’s Word in our heart.

God has PROMISED you eternal life in His Word. Titus 1:2, “In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;” Jesus said in John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.”

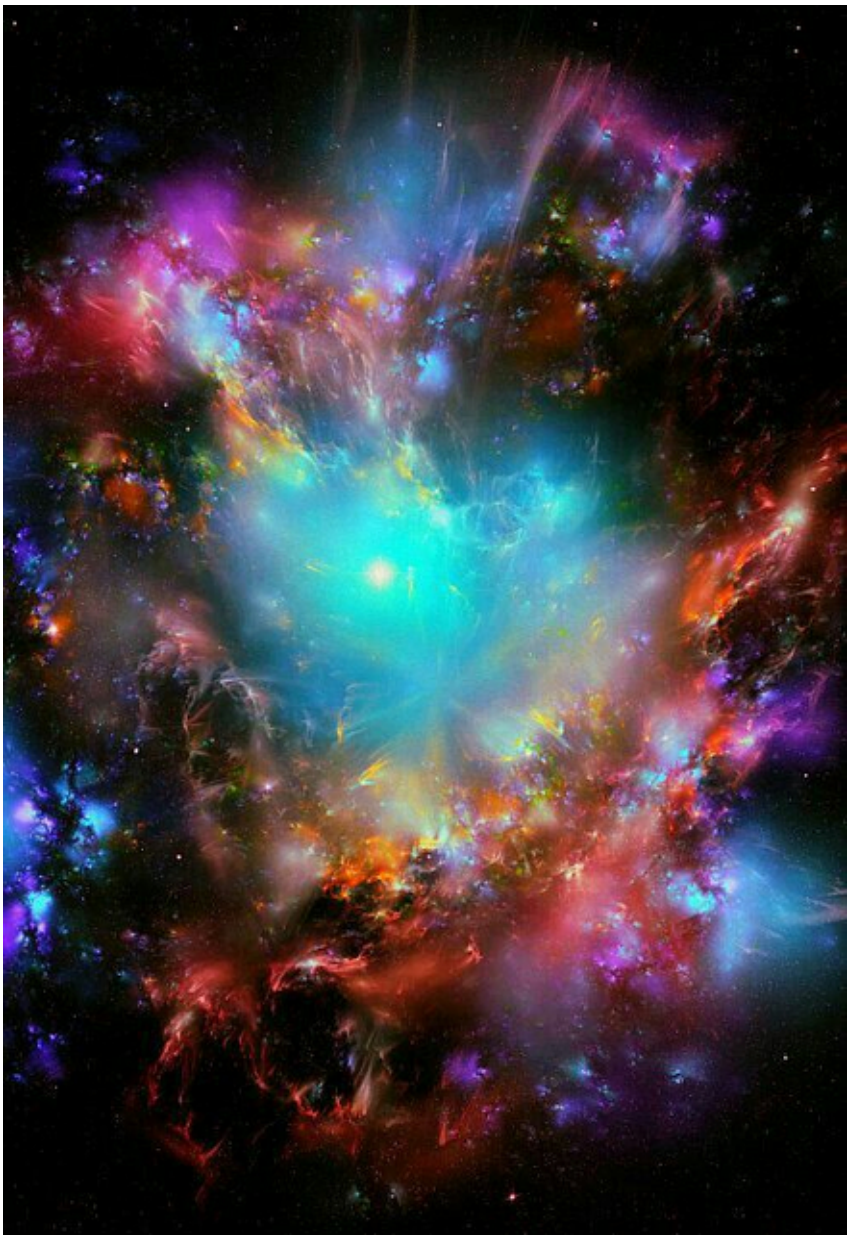
1.3.38 It Makes No Sense, But I’ll Trust God Anyhow (2020-05-11 22:30)

Proverbs 3:5-7, “ Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil."

Why did Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) die in a old broken down plane that broke apart in the air, when rich people wastefully spend money? I read about a wealthy man in Hollywood who was spending $100,000 each for bottles of wine at a party. Of all the filthy rich people in America, you'd think some of them would help genuine men of God. Many of them could have bought Brother Roloff a new plane to fly in, and it would have been like spending pennies on the dollar for them. The surest way to stay broke is to preach the truth like Brother Roloff did! If you lie and deceive people like Pat Robertson, you'll take in $670,000,000 a year like The 700 Club does. They are devils!

Why does God open the womb of a woman who is a drug-addict, giving birth to a crack baby addicted to drugs because of the child's irresponsible mama; but a godly woman who loves the Lord has a barren womb? I just don't understand it. Why does God open the womb of tens of millions of women who want abortions, but godly women who pray thousands of hours for a child are still barren? It's not fair.



Why cannot I find a Christian wife to be loyal and serve God by my side as a faithful preacher of the Word of God, but wicked adulterous men with lustful hearts get all the women they want who live in sin? It's not fair.

Why did Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) die and go to Heaven at age 74, the greatest soulwinner I ever knew; but a degenerate sex pervert like Hugh Hefner (1926-2017) lived to be 91 years old? God makes no sense to me! I cannot figure it out.

Why is abortion is so bad if every baby goes to Heaven, but most adults will spend eternity burning in the Lake of Fire according to Matthew 7:13-14 and Luke 13:23-24? I cannot explain that contradiction, but God said not to kill in Exodus 20:13. God is always right!!! Life doesn't make any sense to me.

Why do we have to make all of the critical life-changing decisions when we are young and the most ignorant; but when we are old and broken with no decisions left to make, then we have the wisdom to make the right decisions? That seems backwards to me. Why does God do that to us? I don't get it. It doesn't seem fair to me, but I trust God. Job 13:15, "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him. "

After pondering last night on that beautiful thought you shared yesterday... this is what came to my mind. If God made it backwards (as you said), we won’t err anymore and that is bad for us humans coz our tendency is to become proud and God hates that and so because He is truly "all-knowing," He wants us to learn the hard way so we will appreciate and depend on Him more. You made a beautiful "food for thought" my dear friend. Thank you and I love you in the Lord Jesus!😊

1.3.39 Jesus Said ’Ye Will Not’ Come, Not ’Ye Cannot’ Come (2020-05-12 03:30)

John 5:40-41, “ And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. I receive not honour from men.”

Jesus didn’t say “

YE CANNOT COME,

He said,

YE WILL NOT COME.

Men do not honor the Lord, but they should. I honor the Lord, because He is my Savior and Lord.

I trusted Him as my Savior to be saved at age 13, and He automatically became my Lord (Master) when I did. 1st Peter 2:7, “Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

” JESUS IS PRECIOUS!!!

Many churchgoers are deceived today, thinking that they can get to Heaven through their man-made religion. Isaiah 59:1-2, “Behold, *the LORD’s hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear: But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.” One of the worst iniquities is false religion! The Roman Catholic church will not come to Jesus to be saved. Instead Jesus said, **“

Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition ” (Mark 7:9b). They will not come to Jesus to be saved. Instead, Catholics trust in their manmade Seven Sacraments. Salvation is not found in any religion, it is found in a person—the Lord Jesus Christ!

No one ever goes to Hell except those who choose to go there. 2nd Timothy 2:13, “

If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.

” That is an amazing Scripture! God is faithful dear reader. One of Christ’s disciples asked Him a startling question in Luke 13:23-23, and the Lord’s answer was disturbing —“Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

MANY people will seek to enter into Heaven in eternity, but only a FEW shall be able.

I am so thankful that I will be among the few that shall be able. How do I know that? I know because I have God's Word on it. 1st Corinthians 1:21,

For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching *to save them that believe." I believe! My sole hope for Heaven is Jesus Christ and HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS!!! Philippians 3:9,

"And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:" Jesus died on the cross for my sins. He was buried. After three days Jesus physically resurrected from the dead, for the justification of my faith (a dead Savior cannot save anybody). Thank God for the blood of Jesus that washes our sins away!!!

Lordship Salvation (Calvinism) Will Take You To Hell

Our churches are absolutely filled with junk theology nowadays, especially Lordship Salvation (i.e. Calvinism repackaged). Jesus even warned about the Lordship Salvation crowd...

> Matthew 7:21-23, " Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?
> And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

God's will is that you humble yourself as a needy sinner, so that you will come to the Savior and cast your miserable self at His feet for salvation, trusting Him alone because He died on the cross to pay for your sins, believing that He raised up from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). That has NOTHING to do with making Jesus your

Lord,

nor calling Him

“

Lord,

nor following Him as your Lord, nor involving anything in any way whatsoever as your LORD!!! You trust Him only as [1]YOUR SAVIOR to get saved!!! The Lordship Salvation crowd WON’T come to Jesus to be saved. They are blinded by manmade religion. Matthew 7:21-23 makes it very clear that serving Jesus is NOT the way of salvation. Jesus warned in John 3:3-7 that, **“

Ye must be born again

1.3.40 Five Minutes Praise Better Than Lifetime Of Criticism (2020-05-12 15:00)

Proverbs 27:21, “ As the fining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; so is a man to his praise. ”

Five minutes of praise will do more for a person than a lifetime of criticism.

The Bible says that “ a man to his praise

” is as the fining pot for silver. What does that mean? Historically (and even still today in refineries) metal containing minerals (ore) from the earth are heated up to several thousands of degrees in a refining pot, which is a process used to separate the desired valuable metals from the mineral. This is how gold and silver are mined. As the minerals and metals heat up, the heavier elements sink to the bottom and the less dense elements float to the top. This is how oil and gasoline are also produced in giant refineries. Thank God for gravity!

Likewise, the Bible teaches that praise is a tool, by which we can shape and refine those around us.

The famous preacher Gipsy Smith (1860-1947) tells a wonderful story of when he was a young lad, and had just been saved. As a gypsy boy, he was used to being despised and shunned away by society, but an elderly Christian man befriended him with a few kind words of PRAISE which transformed his life:

> “The dear old man passed on, and I watched him turning the corner out of sight forever. I never saw him again. But when I reach the Gloryland, I will find out that dear old man, and while angels shout and applaud, and the multitudes who have been brought to Christ through the gypsy boy sing for joy, I will thank that grand old saint for his shake of the hand and for his ’God bless you!’ For he made me feel that somebody outside the tent really cared for a gypsy boy’s soul. His kindness did me more good than a thousand sermons would have done just then. It was an inspiration that has never left me, and has done more for me than I can describe. Many a young convert has been lost to the Church of God, who would have been preserved and kept for it, and made useful in it, all for the want of some such kindness as that which fell to my lot that day.” —[1]SOURCE by godly Christian parents will make a great wife. Such ladies are so rare indeed, almost an extinct species! The reason why there are so many divorces today is because of the horrible upbringing of youth. The average child views 18,000 murders on television by the time they reach adulthood. Young girls are bombarded by the media, at the earliest ages, with the wrong message that being “sexy” is the most important thing in life for a female. There’s nothing on television which encourages youth to have proper courtship, avoid premarital sex, be virtuous and keep God’s commandments. Ecclesiastes 12:13, “Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.”

Isaiah 1:4, " Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward."

We are fast losing our freedom and liberty as American citizens. Never before has there been such a threat to America's very existence. Our manufacturing jobs have been leaving the country at a startling rate since the 1970's. Health insurance premiums are sky-rocketing. Employers are offering less and less benefits. Social Security has been run into the ground by irresponsible bureaucrats. Our nation is in MASSIVE debt for tens of trillions of dollars because of irresponsible government. The dark storm clouds are gathering. The dots are in place and the connecting lines are being drawn. America is in big trouble!

I bought a fascinating book this week from Amazon.com called: "What Happened To America" by Jon L. Spokes (writing using the alias of Jon Christian Ryter). The book is all about the Globalist takeover of America, which began even before our nation was founded. I went to do my laundry at 4:30 a.m. and read this book for the first time. I am intrigued so far! I want to share with you a quote from page 2:

> "The final phase of the plan of the New World Order is now in effect. No longer is it a question of whether or not a world government can be achieved. It can be, and it will be. Now, the only question that remains unanswered is 'when'
> . Over the past two decades, the globalists have become bold. Nor longer is the global agenda of the New World Order a secret spoken wistfully in liberal circles. The publicists of Utopia herald the arrival of the New World Order as the triumphant victory of mankind.

The spinmeisters have done their jobs well.

Big Brother is coming and America awaits his arrival with the gleeful anticipation of children impatiently waiting for Santa Claus. Only, in this case, Santa Claus is not a cherry old man in a red suit carrying a bag of shiny new toys. And, the 'toys' Big Brother is bringing will be used to control not only the political systems of all the nations of the world, but the economic and societal infrastructures of those nations as well. Under the socialist world system of this Utopian Santa Claus, religion, or rather those forms of religion practiced by the Christians and the Jews—will be banned or greatly restricted since any religion that recognizes the 'God of exclusivity' rather than the 'gods of inclusivity' are antithetical to the all-encompassing universal inclusiveness of the New World Order which will recognize the universal, collective rights of society while greatly restricting, or eliminating, the personal rights of the individual.

While the foundations of the New World Order was cast in secret, its construction has not only been largely accomplished in the open for the whole world to see, but the elitists have boldly told us what they were doing as they calmly paved the way to Utopia. Apparently, we weren't listening—or, we didn't care enough for liberty to protect our right to enjoy it.

" —Jon Christian Ryter, "What Happened To America," pp. 496-497; Hallberg Publishing Corporation (© 2000)

The present Coronavirus pandemic of 2020 is just another 911 attack on a global scale, in my humble opinion. Things will NEVER return to normal. That is the whole purpose and idea behind this global hoax. The virus is real, but the media has intentionally overblown the whole thing. The city of San Diego is issuing $1,000 fines to people who go outside for non-essential reasons. The city of San Francisco has blocked off 12 square miles of streets. There are already meat shortages in the stores. Police are physically beating people in India. Churches everywhere are shutdown. Pastors and church members who violate the 'Stay At Home' order are being cited and arrested. None of this is necessary with proper precautions! As of April 2020, a shocking 26,000,000 Americans are now unemployed, worse than The Great Depression of the 1930's! Hard times are ahead for the United States!!! Here is '[1]My Humble Opinion Of The Coronavirus!'

Complacency And Indifference Will Destroy Us

The average American is COMPLACENT and either doesn't care or doesn't comprehend what is happening to our nation. Many Christians don't investigate anything. Since they refuse to read books or watch video documentaries, so they remain woefully ignorant of the New World Order. Not only is time short prophetically, but time is short for our liberty. From the sarcastic standpoint of those who rule us WITHOUT OUR CONSENT, in violation of the U.S. Constitution, America is becoming too populated for there to be supposedly guaranteed rights. Remember, the Bill of Rights is heavily packed with the word "

It is a shield against a tyrannical central government. At the hands, however, of a corrupt and venal federal judiciary and a treasonous central government, and a bought off and blackmailed Congress, the Bill of Rights is a worthless, useless piece of paper. The cowardly mass media are mere scriveners, writing down what they are dictated.

> "Under the disguise of leading a religious 'crusade' against the Muslim world, every utterance dripping with the word 'terrorist,' are the ruling elites in the process of overthrowing the American Republic?"
> —Sherman Skolnick

Throughout the Bible, there are many precedents of God's people denying what was happening around them (Jeremiah 5:26-31; 6:10-14; 25:28-33; 27:14; Isaiah 8:15; 30:8-13; 42:24-25). God says that their destruction will come suddenly, as a swelling wall that suddenly collapses. So much evil has come out in the news about the FBI lying. We hear about corruption at every level of government. The biggest criminals of all over the past 40 years have been in the White House. The American people have the blood of 1,455,590 murdered Iraqi people on our hands, when the Bush administration bear false witness against Iraq, accusing them of having Weapons Of Mass Destruction (which were never found), invading and conquering their sovereign nation. Americans stole trillions of dollars worth of Iraq's oil. Today, the Iraqi people are hungry, hurting and angry. We did evil against our neighbours! Thankfully, God will punish the evildoers (Ecclesiastes 5:8).

Pastor Indicts Americans For Our Wickedness

This prayer was given in Kansas at the opening session of their Senate. It seems prayer still upsets some people. When Pastor Joe Wright was asked to open the new session of the Kansas Senate, everyone was expecting the usual generalities, but this is what they heard:

> "Heavenly Father, we come before you today to ask your forgiveness and to seek your direction and guidance. We know Your Word says, 'Woe to those who call evil good,' but that is exactly what we have done...
> We have lost our spiritual equilibrium and reversed our values.
>
> We confess that we have ridiculed the absolute truth of Your Word and call it Pluralism.
>
> We have exploited the poor and called it the lottery.
>
> We have rewarded laziness and called it welfare.

We have killed our unborn and called it choice.

We have shot abortionists and called it justifiable.

We have neglected to discipline our children and called it building self esteem.

We have abused power and called it politics.

We have coveted our neighbor’s possessions and called it ambition.

We have polluted the air with profanity and pornography and called it freedom of expression.

We have ridiculed the time-honored values of our forefathers and called it enlightenment.

Search us, Oh, God, and know our hearts today; cleanse us from every sin and set us free.

Amen!"

The response was immediate. A number of legislators walked out during the prayer in protest. In 6 short weeks, Central Christian Church, where Rev. Wright is pastor, logged more than 5,000 phone calls with only 47 of those calls responding negatively. The church is now receiving international requests for copies of this prayer from India, Africa, and Korea. Commentator Paul Harvey aired this prayer on “ on the radio and received a larger response to this program than any other he has ever aired.

The prayer of Pastor Joe Wright is the horrifying truth about America. The United States has deteriorated into a large Sodom and Gomorrah!

Who would have thought forty years ago that we’d see thousands of cameras being installed in cities across America to spy on it’s citizens. Who would have thought that such monstrosities as Patriot Acts I and II would ever become law (thus suspended our Bill of Rights). Who would have thought that the government could force parents to drug their own children with dangerous substances.

Should this be a surprise in a nation of total moral debauchery?

Who would have thought that a day would come when two men could legally become married (as of June 2015) in America and adopt children. Who would have thought that little children would be aborted (murdered) by the millions in a nation (since 1973) which God has blessed so mightily? Our founding fathers would have cardiac arrests if they could see the mess we’ve gotten ourselves into as a nation.

Freedom Is Not Free

We have become complacent and weakened as a nation.

Who would have thought that our own government would steal our land and give it away. Presently, 68 % of our national parks and preserves are under United Nations' administration.

The average American citizen is woefully ignorant of such evils, which are being committed against the American family. America will NOT remain free if it's people continue to allow the government to steal their land, squander their money, borrow them into more debt, lockdown their churches, force them to stay home, and rob them of their liberty in the name of "terrorism" or a "virus."

> It is obviously good and proper to respect the U.S. flag, perpetuated with the blood of American heroes. On the other hand, it can be a fatal mistake, a nuking of the Bill of Rights, not to recognize scoundrels who wrap themselves in the same flag to cover up their crimes against the American common people.

Our rights do not come from the U.S. government. Our rights do not come from the Constitution or our Bill of Rights. Our rights and freedoms come from God in heaven. The Constitution and the Bill of Rights merely "outline" our rights. God created mankind free with a freewill to decide for himself. If men and women decide to take their freedom for granted, then they are assured to eventually lose it. We need to repent as a nation and come back to God.

1.3.42 Do You Have To Believe Jesus Virgin Birth To Be Saved? (2020-05-13 14:19)

Isaiah 7:14, " Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, an bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel."

Yes! No one is truly born-again who denies the virgin birth of Jesus Christ! A disturbing article by journalist Giles Fraser appeared on December 24, 2015 in 'The Guardian' newspaper in Europe called:

'[1]The story of the virgin birth runs against the grain of Christianity,' in which he heretically states:

> Far too much rests on notions of Mary's purity. That focus affects our attitudes towards sex and femininity

> ...The idea that Jesus was born of "pure virgin" could well have been a reaction to these insults. That Mary's womb was "spotless" was perhaps a cover story designed by Jesus's supporters to explain a more God-like nature for his arrival. But here's the problem. For what separates Christianity from other religious traditions is that – the birth narratives aside – Christianity deliberately refuses the familiar distinction between the pure and the impure. Jesus was born in a cowshed; from lepers to prostitutes, he deliberately courted the ritually unclean; and he spent most of his ministry tearing down barriers between pure and impure – not least, those of the Temple – that separated the "ungodly" from God himself.

> ...That the cult of Mary's virginity came to play such a large role in the development of Christianity is a testament to the powerful hold that purity has on the religious imagination. From this perspective, her womb became the new Temple, a pure place for God to reside. But this damaged the basics of Christian philosophy by persuading too many that sex is dirty and that women ought to model the impossible combination of virgin and mother. Outside the first two chapters of Matthew and Luke, the virgin birth plays no further part in the New Testament. St Paul makes no mention of it. And most scholars agree that virgin is probably a mistranslation of the Hebrew word for young woman. [emphasis added]

SOURCE:

’ [2]The story of the virgin birth runs against the grain of Christianity ,’

Whoa! That is the thinking of an unsaved man, who does not love the Lord Jesus Christ. How can the Bible doctrine of the virgin birth of Christ be a damaging thing? Kindly, Mr. Fraser is filtering the Bible through a lens of political correctness if this gender-bending wicked generation of feminists, homosexuals and liberals!

And may I say, only those liberal Bible scholars who are unsaved, and are inspired by Satan, claim that the word “virgin” should really be “young woman”! What kind of lame Bible prophesy would foretell the pregnancy of a young woman? That doesn’t even make any sense! There have been BILLIONS of young pregnant woman throughout human civilization. 700 before Christ was born in Bethlehem, the prophet Isaiah prophesied that a “virgin” would conceive, as a sign that God’s Word was true! Only a fool, and a wicked deceiver, would dare interpret Isaiah 7:14 as “young woman” instead of “virgin.” It is a brutal attack on the deity of Jesus Christ!!! The [3]perverted Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) of the Holy Bible does exactly that, corrupting the Scriptures to appease unbelievers! Jesus was born miraculously of a virgin!!! God almighty is Jesus’ biological Father, not a human man.

We Are Saved By Believing The Simple Gospel

In Galatians 3:1-2, “ O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, *Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? ”

I love that small phrase...

BY THE HEARING OF FAITH.

It is that simple to be saved.

When we hear the ’Good News’ (Gospel) preached and we place our faith in the message, we are forever saved! Paul asked the Galatians, “How did you get indwelt with the Holy Spirit?” That is, how did you get saved? Was it by doing the works of the law? Or did you simply put your faith in the Gospel that you heard preached? Paul didn’t ask them a bunch of theological questions.

Paul only wanted to know how they got saved. Was it BY THE HEARING OF FAITH? I think that makes it very simple.

John 6:47, “ Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.”

The inspired Word of God defines ’THE GOSPEL’ for us:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “ Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:”

Those three things comprise the Gospel: Jesus DEATH on the cross, BURIAL, and physical RESURRECTION after three days. That is the ’GLAD TIDINGS,’ or ’GOOD NEWS.’ The only requirement to believing the Gospel is to see your NEED as a sinner, otherwise you won’t want the Gospel. Someone once asked Dr. Bob Jones Sr. if a person can be a Christian and deny Jesus’ virgin birth. Dr. Jones wisely replied that a Christian WILL believe in Jesus’ virgin birth. The indwelling Holy Spirit will guide us into all the truths that God wants us to learn. John 16:13, “Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.” I did not know Jesus is God when I got saved at age 13, but when I learned about the deity of Christ five years later in Bible college, I knew it was the truth and rejoiced in my heart. To be saved, you simply need to believe ’[4]THE GOSPEL.’

To be saved, we must not believe in "another Jesus" which the apostle Paul warned about (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). I had to ponder this question for awhile, if a person has to believe in the virgin birth to be saved. Yes, and the reason why is obvious—because Jesus is the only begotten Son of God! Since Jesus is God's biological child, then He cannot have an earthly father, which means He absolutely had to be born of a virgin. The virgin birth is the very foundation of Christianity, proving that Jesus came to earth as almighty God in the flesh. I do not believe that a soulwinner must mention the virgin birth to lead someone to the Lord, because it is a given conclusion when you tell someone that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God. Being the only begotten Son of God would not be possible without the virgin birth of the Savior. Anyone who denies Jesus' virgin birth is not saved!!!

> "There is power in this Gospel message. Most people just don't know how to present it... The clarity of the Gospel is what makes it easy for them to believe." —Pastor Yankee Arnold, a quote from the excellent MP3 sermon titled: "[5]WHY GRACE CAN SAVE THE WORST MAN!"

Proverbs 22:6, " Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

I heard Pastor Jack Hyles one time in a sermon give a beautiful illustration. He was driving down the street one day and saw a home that had burned to the ground. A little while later he drove by a brand new home. At first he pitied the house that had burned down. After pondering the matter for a time, he realized that he had looked at it the wrong way. In fact, he realized that he should have been admiring the home that burned down, because it had served its purpose. A family once lived there. Memories were made. The foundation was still there to rebuild upon! The new home had never heard the hollering of children playing. The new home had never encompassed the smell of home cooked meals, as a mother diligently prepares meals for her family. The new home had never been lived in, and had not not fulfilled its purpose for existing.

Likewise, children need a solid foundation Mom and Dad. The absolute BEST thing you could ever do to ensure the spiritual success of your child's future is to center their life around a local Bible-believing, soulwinning, church! And my second BEST bit of advice to you is to absolutely enroll your child into a Christian school associated with a local, Bible-believing, New Testament church! You won't regret it down the road!!! Children grow up so fast! From the time they are born, they'll be running around and talking in just a couple years. By age five they'll be philosophizing, saying amazing things, and able to solve problems. I am amazed at how brilliant my grandson was at age 4. He is now 6 and his intelligence is astounding for a child. His parents are homeschooling him, which is wise. They are all involved in a local Baptist church, that I have been attending with them. Praise God for Bible-believing , soulwinning, people-loving, Christ-honoring, sin-fighting, New Testament churches! Your children will be adults before you know it!

The biggest, stupidest and most foolish decision you will ever make is to enroll your child into a Satanic public school. Those are the Devil's schools. Public schools are indoctrination centers for the LGBTQ agenda, new age doctrine, evolution, atheism and all manner of filth. Even worse is the influence of other worldly children, which will destroy your child, I guarantee it! Worst of all is the absence of the knowledge of God. Children need a moral compass. It is cruelty to deprive a child of a godly education! Look at how messed-up American society is today! Crime is at epidemic levels. Adultery is everywhere today, which has become an accepted part of our ungodly culture. Years ago I saw an interview on 'Good Morning America' with Valerie Bertinelli, who is married to guitarist Eddie Van Halen, bragging that they both commit adultery in their disgrace for a marriage (now divorced to no surprise). Sin is no longer shameful in our nation! Proverbs 14:9, " Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour."

GET YOUR CHILD INTO CHURCH AND A CHRISTIAN SCHOOL! If you love your children at all, you'll take my wise advice. If you don't heed my godly advice, one day your child will break your heart. They will go down a worldly path with worldly friends. They will start fornicating, which is the way of the world today. There will likely be a pregnancy out of wedlock and perhaps an abortion. Drug abuse and alcoholism are the way of the sinful world, killing many young adults. It is shameful to see teenage girls covered in dark green ink, tattooed like markings on a herd of cattle! Women today have impudent faces, disrespectful, bad attitudes, rebellious, irreverent of the sacredness of the human body, the sacred marriage act, and the sacred things of God. Their sordid heroes are homosexuals, atheists, blasphemers and the most wicked people in society!

Should we be surprised that pedophiles and perverts (both men and women alike) plague our culture? I think not. Netflix streams violence, torture, bloody gore and hardcore smut and indecency to over 182 million subscribers worldwide. Of those 69 million are Americans! We deserve God's judgment on America! [1]According to the Center For Disease Control (CDC), suicides among youth (ages 10-14) between 2007 to 2017 TRIPLED in the United States! The Devil has a bid for your child. Satan desires for every young woman to start fornicating (sinning) in the teen years, get pregnant out of wedlock with a bastard child, have an abortion because you're not ready yet to be a parent, pursue a career instead, and end up being one of the [2]most miserable lonely people on the planet by age 42.

Young people don't stand a chance spiritually in this backwards, confused, gender-bending, God-hating, amoral generation of rebels. Kids need the Lord! Young people need to be in a Bible-believing church! Children and teens desperately need Christian education! I hope some wise parents will take my advice, and invest in your children while you still have control over them. The day will come, mark my words, when they will correct you Mom and Dad, and go down a wicked path of spiritual and likely mental and physical self-destruction! By raising them in a fundamental Bible-believing church, you will be giving them a foundation, which even if they do go into sin at some point as an adult, they'll always know what they need to do to get back on track spiritually. 1.3.44 Do We Have An Every Word Bible In 2020? (2020-05-14 14:30)

Matthew 4:4, "But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

One of my favorite preachers, mentors and genuine men of God, [1]Pastor Bob Gray Sr., wrote this article in 2017, but I thought it was so important that I simply applied it to 2020 and hope you will take these words to heart:

> False bibles come from false premises. We have found ourselves downplaying verbal inspiration at the expense of so-called higher education and Christian publications. The attempt by Bob Jones University and other Bible colleges to establish the premise of thought inspiration is, and should be, astounding to fundamentalists everywhere.

> There is a difference between verbal inspiration, plenary inspiration, thought inspiration, and truth inspiration. Thought inspiration is ludicrous. Truth inspiration is just as ridiculous. Plenary inspiration demands a canon of Scriptures while verbal inspiration demands a word for word Scripture. Accordingly, somebody somewhere ought to stand up for the Words of God via verbal and plenary inspiration. God Himself has promised to deliver preserved inspiration of Holy Scriptures to every nation.

> America is in a precarious position. On one hand, we find the Charismatics pushing substitutes for the words of God. On the other hand, we find the neo-fundamentalists, like Bob Jones University, pushing thought inspiration and truth inspiration. Both positions are dangerous, and the squeeze is on! Those caught in the middle are the ones attempting to win souls, baptize converts, and send off their young people to be trained to do the same, only in a greater way.

> Yet, our young people are pressured by so-called Christian television personalities and so-called fundamentalist personalities to be conformed to their beliefs about the Words of God. Consequently, they find themselves questioning the very Words of God. As a result, their faithful man of God back home, who gave them the Gospel, is suddenly ignorant and unlearned when it comes to the Words of God. How tragic it is and how dangerous it is to fool with the lives of these young people that desire to serve God. Satan has always tried to put a question mark on the Words of God, and now Christians are helping him to do so.

Please note Deuteronomy 17:19, "And it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life: that he may learn to fear the Lord his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them." God's people were not sent into captivity because they were not religious. They were sent into captivity because they were atheists in their relationship to the words of God. A substitution for the words of God began to occur among God's people.

Jeremiah 23:1 says, "Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the Lord." Notice that the "woe" was upon these pastors. Jeremiah 23:13-14 says; "And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err. I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah." God said some terrible things about the people in these verses.

According to verse fifteen, they are "profane" people. In verses twenty-one through forty, God lists many things about these prophets and the people who followed them. Note verses twenty-one and twenty-two, "I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings." Because the people had a bad relationship with the Words of God, and then that bad relationship resulted in a life of wickedness, God had to send the people into seventy years of captivity.

The nominal Bible student might think that God's people were sent into captivity because they were whoremongers, liars, thieves, and wicked people. No! This was a nation at its religious zenith. The truth is they were sent into captivity because of the preachers mentioned in Jeremiah chapter twenty-three.

Let's look at and list what God said about the results of these preachers ignoring the words of God and failing to preach the words of God to God's people, which ultimately caused the captivity of Israel. These preachers caused the temple to be destroyed. They caused the walls around the city to be leveled. They caused famine to come. Mothers ended up killing and eating their own children. It caused seventy years, or two generations of Israelites, to grow up five hundred miles from home under Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and the kings and kingdom that followed him.

Hold it, this captivity was not because God's people were not religious. They were at a religious peak at this time. God describes these pastors as having a woe upon them, as having folly in them, as having a horrible thing in them, as walking in lies, being like Sodom and Gomorrah. He describes them as being profane, as not being sent by God, as having deceit in their hearts, as having God against them, as causing the people to err by their lies, as being light or shallow, as promised to be punished by God, as wholly forgotten, as forsaken, and as bringing shame and reproach upon God's people. What a bunch of rascals these men must have been.

What did they do that was so horrible? They substituted visions for the Words of God. Jeremiah 23:16 says, "Thus saith the Lord of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the Lord." The Bible says in such cases to "hearken not." Do not listen to them. Why? Because the words they speak are bad seed. The words God speaks are good seed. Such is the case with the Charismatic movement of today. The biggest enemy to the cause of Christ in the world is the modern Charismatic movement.

God says to "hearken not." They caused God's people to walk in lies. There is deceit in their hearts if they speak visions. They cause the people of God to sin. God says,

“I have not sent them.” God says, “I have not spoken unto them.” Thus, God says to His people, “do not follow them.” Men like T.D. Jakes, Rod Parsley, Benny Hinn, Oral Roberts, Richard Roberts, Jack Taylor, Pat Robertson, John Hagee, James Robinson, and TV networks like TBN, and PTL ought to be shunned by God’s people. Why? Because they speak “visions” in place of the words of God.

They substituted prophecy for the words of God. Jeremiah 23:21 says, “I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesy.” The minute any one of them opens his mouth and says, “I have a word of knowledge from God,” run away from him as fast as you can. By the way, you have no business reading their books. You should get the Bible down and read those words that came from God Himself?

Run when you hear them say, “Thus saith the Lord….” The Bible is the only word of prophecy any child of God needs. Jeremiah 23:22 continues, “But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they would have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.”

God is saying that He wants His people to hear His words, not T.D. Jakes’ words. The size of a crowd does not excite me nearly as much as the size of the truth excites me. God does not want a vision, a word of knowledge, or prophecy, to be given to His people. He wants His words to be given to His people. What America needs is some faithful Men of God who will mount the pulpit and preach the old King James Bible without reservation.

In verse twenty-two, God uses the word “then” after speaking of the words of God in reference to revival. We will not have real revival until we start speaking the words of God instead of visions, prophecies, or words of knowledge. Just look at the charismatic movement with its Hollywood influence and worldliness in its dress and its music. Whatever happened to the old holiness crowd with their modesty and old-fashioned preaching against sin? What a shame! These preachers substituted visions, and prophecies.

They substituted dreams for the words of God. Who are the people that are guilty of destroying a nation? Who are the people that caused a nation to err and to sin? Who are these who are called “liars” by God Himself? Who caused a nation to go into captivity? Who are the people that caused the temple to be destroyed and the walls to be leveled?

Who caused a famine to come to God’s people? Who caused the judgment of God to come like a prairie fire across the land of God in the form of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, bringing famine, disease, and pestilence? Who are these people? They are a bunch of preachers, a bunch of pastors who substituted visions, prophecies, and then dreams, for the Words of God. They preached visions, prophecies, and dreams.

Jeremiah 23:28 lets us know that we cannot stop the preachers from preaching dreams, but we can still raise up many preachers who will preach the words of God instead. God says His words will be wheat and their words will be chaff. “Chaff” does not nourish people. The wheat nourishes the people. Wheat is real, while the chaff is counterfeit. Isaiah 8:20 says, “To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.”

The average charismatic TV program is filled with ninety-nine percent feelings and one percent Scripture, with ninety percent of those Scriptures coming from something other than the King James Bible. Visions, prophecies, and dreams are being substituted on the airwaves in America for the very words of God. God is saying ‘My words are better than your dreams’.

The problem is that a whole nation has heeded these visions, prophecies, and dreams. Do not be surprised if our whole nation has just about accepted the Charismatics' visions, prophecies, and dreams. Jeremiah 23:30 says, "Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, saith the Lord, that steal my words every one from his neighbour." God says, "I am against these preachers."

These pastors have substituted "tongues" for the very words of God. Jeremiah 23:31 says, "Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the Lord, that use their tongues, and say, He saith." A whole nation bought it and a nation was destroyed because of it. A temple was destroyed because of it, and homes were destroyed because of it. If America does not wake up, her tombstone will read, "She died because her pastors substituted visions, prophecies, dreams, man's words, and tongues for the Words of God."

Visions, prophecies, dreams, man's words, and tongues are all false Bibles, and pastors caused all of this misery. Visions are bad seed. Prophecies are bad seed. Dreams are bad seed, Man's words and tongues are bad seed. All these have become substitutes for the very words of God. These are just as bad as the NIV, ASV, RSV, New King James Version, Good Speed Translation, and all other perversions of the Bible.

If there is an "every word" Bible (Matthew 4:4) out there that God's people are to live by, it cannot be ALL of them. It must be one of them for the English speaking peoples. God promised to preserve those Scriptures forever Himself. Psalm 12:6-7 How can God's people live by and "every word" Bible if all of us have to go to the Middle East to find a few scrapes of the so-called originals. I think for some "much learning hath made thee mad!"

The dope crowd will not destroy America. The homosexual crowd will not destroy America. The baby killers will not destroy America. The communists will not destroy America. The Hollywood crowd will not destroy America. If America is destroyed, it will be destroyed because of the pastors who substituted visions, prophecies, dreams, man's words, and tongues for the very words of God. Our God is not a God of "confusion." Yet, Satan is accomplishing "confusion" through 1,000 perversions of the Scriptures on the market.

God leads me by controlling my mind. In order to control my mind, my mind must be controlled by the Words of God. Thought inspiration or truth inspiration will lead God's people down an ecumenical path that no one will want at the end. The thoughts of God are put into words called Scriptures. Thus, anyone who teaches thought inspiration or truth inspiration essentially is teaching man's thoughts above the very Words of God. Let God tell us in His own words His own thoughts, not your thoughts about His words. The Holy Spirit of God is well able to teach God's people the Words of God.

These pastors have substituted burdens for the words of God. A nation destroyed, a temple destroyed, walls destroyed, and homes destroyed; this all happened because pastors substituted things for the very words of God. Good seed is the preserved Words of God, and bad seed is the perverted words of God. The seed is the Word of God, and the new birth comes because of the seed of the words of God planted in the soul by faith.

Someone says, "God has laid a burden on my heart." No, He did not! Jeremiah 23:35 says, "Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the Lord answered? And, What hath the Lord spoken?" Burdens are fed and led by emotions, and emotions are the great betrayer of man. That is where the "I feel led" comes from among God's people.

Jeremiah 23:36-39 says, “And the burden of the Lord shall ye mention no more: for every man’s word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the Lord of hosts our God. Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the Lord answered thee? And, What hath the Lord spoken? But since ye, the burden of the Lord; therefore thus saith the Lord; Because ye say this word, the burden of the Lord, and I have sent unto you, saying Ye shall not say, The burden of the Lord; Therefore, behold, I, even I, will utterly forget you, and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence….”

Oh my, it sure seems that the burdens we are so overcome with that lead us sometimes are nothing more than substitutes for the very Words of God. A preacher who unwittingly says, “God has laid the burden of this message on my heart” is making a false statement, according to the Bible. God may lead His mind to choose the message, but it is a dangerous thing to live in a world of burdens as the factor and reason for doing things. God does not tell the pastor what to say. He gives him some people with needs, a Bible filled with answers, and an opportunity to preach those answers. Burdens come and go, but the words of God never change.

Let’s avoid thought inspiration and truth inspiration, and stick with verbal inspiration found in plenary inspiration. Let’s quit substituting visions, prophecies, dreams, man’s words, tongues, and burdens for the Words of God. Maybe America can be spared if God’s people will quit buying the counterfeit words of God.

1.3.45 Must We Persevere To Obtain Salvation? (2020-05-14 22:27)

Romans 4:5-6, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,"

The Bible is very clear in our text passage that God counts a person's faith for righteousness. Literally, your faith is of equal value in God's sight as an entire lifetime of living a perfect, sinless, holy life in every way. Why is that? It is because of the precious blood of Jesus Christ that purchased our redemption. By faith God [1]IMPUTES His righteousness to us. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: "

I was very disturbed recently when I learned that Dr. Steve Pettit (the new president of Bob Jones University since 2014) is a hard core Calvinist, who teaches BJU's 2,700 students that they must "PERSEVERE" to get to Heaven. Instead of a gift, Mr. Pettit refers to salvation as an "AWARD." Here, see for yourself in this horrifying quote he makes:

> "'The race' is a description of the whole of the Christian life of faith." —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[2]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 4:26; 'The Daily Platform' #21)

That is some dangerous talk when you include the next quote from Dr. Pettit, in which he teaches over 2,700 BJU students that the "AWARD" for running 'The Race' is "Heaven itself"!!!

> "We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what's the prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don't believe its referring to crowns in Heaven. I think it is referring to Heaven itself." [emphasis added]

—Dr. Steve Pettit (“ [3]What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’? ” - 22:57; ’The Daily Platform’ #21)

Literally, Steve Pettit is teaching that you must faithfully stay in and run ’THE RACE’ to earn the “

AWARD,

which he says is

HEAVEN ITSELF

”!!! Folks, that is another gospel. That is not the Gospel given to the apostle Paul by the Lord Jesus Christ. Just to show you how messed-up Dr. Pettit is theologically, let’s compare what he just taught to what unsaved Roman Catholics teach:

“Jesus says it similarly. Are we saved by faith in Jesus? Certainly! John 11:25,

’I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live.’

Are we saved by faith alone? No way! As we saw before, in Matthew 19:16-19, ’Jesus himself said to a rich young man who had asked him what he needed to do to have eternal life: … If you would enter life, keep the command-ments… You shall not kill, You shall not commit adultery, you shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness, Honor your father and mother, and, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’

Or, how about Matthew 12:36-37? Here, Jesus says:

'I tell you, on the day of judgment men will render account for every careless word they utter; for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.'

That sounds like there is more to this justification thing than faith alone.

SOURCE: Catholic Answers - "[4]Are Good Works Necessary For Salvation?"

Tragically and sadly, Steve Pettit is in agreement with unsaved Roman Catholics. This is the president of Bob Jones University, teaching 2,700 students another gospel! Do you realize that when Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) was still alive, that BJU was the citadel of fundamentalism in America? What has happened? How did the once great Bob Jones College founded in 1927, deteriorate into a cesspool of iniquity that it is today? I'll tell you what happened—a few devils crept in unawares, bringing in their modern [5]Alexandrian Bible revisions with them, denying the [6]inspiration of the King James Bible, and now they have [7]infiltrated BJU with the [8]Satanic deception of Lordship Salvation (which all the Devil's Bibles teach).

1st Corinthians 5:6, " Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?" A little rot will rot the whole caboodle! BJU is as the sinking Titanic, which sank to the bottom of the icy Atlantic ocean in the wee hours on April 15, 1912. Sadly, 1,517 people were killed! America's Bible colleges today are nothing more than a bunch of sinking Titanic ships—all sinking in the icy apostasy of hundreds of perverted English Bible revisions, and a Satanic counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation (i.e., Calvinism). Jeremiah 5:31, " The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof? "

Tragically, the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is a repository of Bob Jones' alumni, and they absolutely love heresy! Steve Pettit preaches falsely, and [9]Harvest loves to have it so! They promote BJU's 'The Daily Platform' on the church's public radio station on Guam (KHMG 88.1 FM). They broadcast this junk theology—propagating a false gospel of you must "persevere" to earn the award of Heaven! [10]Bob Jones University and their graduates are a dangerous religious cult, who preach another gospel (Galatians 1:6-9).

God's curse is upon anyone, whether it be man or angel, who preaches another Gospel. Evangelist Steve Pettit is a devil in the pulpit, who says you "[11]MUST PERSEVERE" (his exact words) to get the "award" of Heaven! May I say, Heaven is not an "award," it is a "FREE GIFT" (Romans 5:15, 16 and 18). You DON'T have to persevere in holy living, Christian service, turning from sins, living for others, ministry, following Christ as Lord, nor any other way for salvation!!! Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Beware of Bob Jones University!!!

1.3.46 Walk Not In The Counsel Of The Ungodly (2020-05-15 10:30)

Psalms 1:1-2, " Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night."

We are surrounded by ungodly advice in society. Fools abound in our crooked and perverse American culture! You have to be very careful what advice you take from people, the philosophies that you adopt from friends and family, and what you hear on television.

As an example, many people these days sinfully encourage divorce, but the Bible strictly forbids divorce for any reason. The only time divorce happens is when someone's heart is hardened (Matthew 19:8). God hates divorce (Jeremiah 3:20; Malachi 2:16). If someone files for divorce, God will not direct your paths, you are on your own! You have the freedom to take an elevator to the top of the Empire State Building and jump off, but the consequences are on you! Pastor Jack Hyles is right—

"Divorce is a sin that perpetuates for a lifetime!" It sure does!

You've likely heard MacDonald's famous slogan: "You deserve a break today!" No, actually we all deserve to go straight to Hell and be punished in fire forever for our sins. You've probably heard Burger King's slogan: "Have it your way!" No, the Bible teaches that we should have it God's way. These are humanistic statements made by people who do not honor nor fear God. Ecclesiastes 12:13, "

Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. " I love how the Bible simplifies life down to simply fearing God and obeying the Holy Bible. Many people do not take the Bible seriously, and they are the ones we read about in the news every day—ruined lives, broken families and a path of destruction.

I admonish every Christian believer to live in the King James Bible!!! If you naively believe that rich men wrote the Bible to control the masses, I feel sorry for you! If men could write the Bible they wouldn't, and if they would they couldn't! ...

> “I believe the Bible is the best gift God has ever given to man. All the good from the Savior of the world is communicated through this book...All things desirable to men are contained in the Bible.” —Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865), 16th President of the United States

> “It is impossible to mentally or socially enslave a Bible-reading people.” —Horace Greeley (1811-1872), Publisher and Journalist

What saith the Scripture?

John 15:3, “Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.” Psalms 119:9, “ Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word.” Psalms 119:104, “ Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.” I love those Scripture passages! The inspired Word of God makes the difference! Be very careful what advice you take from people who don’t love the Lord Jesus Christ, who don’t esteem the Holy Scripture as the most important thing we live by! That is why I don’t think any Christian ought ever seek professional help from a psychologist. They are trained in heathenistic, evolutionistic, humanistic state universities which reject the inspired Word of God! Secular psychologists don’t approach human problems from the standpoint of sin as the root cause; but rather, they blame your genetics, parents, friends, relatives and circumstances.

One of the worst publications ever created is “ magazine. The first issue was published in 1979. They have millions of selfish subscribers. What saith the Scripture? Philippians 2:3-5, “Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God: ” The Bible teaches that we should esteem other people as being BETTER than us. The Bible didn’t say to view others as EQUALS, but as being BETTER. Do you know why? It is simply because if you have the mindset that everyone is better than you, then you will humbly treat everyone with love and respect. You don't slander and gossip about people unless you think YOU ARE BETTER than them! That is sinful pride by the way! We have a big "i" problem in America! The middle letter of the words "sin" and "pride" is the letter "i"!

Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. " I plead with you dear reader to use only the trustworthy King James Bible, and always think objectively. Question everything! That is why I always use the phrase from Romans 3:4b, "

What saith the Scripture? " We are living in perilous times—a time when we have sodomite leaders, judges and other wicked people in positions of power and influence—who have broken decision makers because of their woeful lack of fear of God and missing moral integrity. How can we expect such individuals to do the right thing? [1]Case in point is a new law that prohibits denying gender reassignment surgery to convicted criminals behind bars. I feel like I'm in an episode of 'The Twilight Zone'! Taxpayers have to pay for that nonsense! 1.3.47 NLV Bible Changes 'High Priest' To 'Religious Leader' (2020-05-16 00:30)

Hebrews 4:14, " Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession."

The Old Testament tabernacle, high priest and sacrificial lambs were all a shadow of better things to come, that is, the LAMB OF GOD, which taketh away the sins of the world

(John 1:29)

. Studying the Old Testament work of the high priest greatly helped me to understand salvation. Jesus is our heavenly High Priest!

There were three different types of laws in the Old Testament: CEREMONIAL, CIVIL and MORAL. Civil laws governed the people, just like our civil laws today. Moral laws are the Ten Commandments. Ceremonial laws were intended to teach spiritual truths. The work of the high priest and the tabernacle with all ceremonial laws, intended as a pattern of the heavenly things. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Hebrews 9:23-26, " It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:
> Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;
> For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. "

I love that Bible passage!!! The purpose for all the tabernacle and work of the high priest in the Old Testament was to provide a visual aid for all mankind to understand the Gospel. That was the purpose of all of the ceremonial laws. Carefully notice in the preceding Scripture passage, that the Old Testament high priest was required EVERY YEAR to enter into the holy place with the blood of a lamb; but Jesus Christ has entered only ONCE into the Holy Place in Heaven!!! The Bible is so simple if you keep it simple!

Jesus died as our sacrificial LAMB, but He raised up as our heavenly HIGH PRIEST. If Christ had not risen from the dead, then we would have a sacrificial lamb, but no high priest in Heaven to sprinkle His blood upon the heavenly Mercy Seat (Hebrews 9:12, 24). There is nothing in the inspired Holy Bible more important than the high priestly work of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Retarded ’New Life Version’ Reduces ’High Priest’ To ’Religious Leader’

Having laid the foundation of the importance of Jesus our High Priest, now let me show you how wicked the ’New Life Version’ (NLV) of the Bible is! ...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Hebrews 4:14, “ Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.”

> NEW LIFE VERSION (NLV) - Hebrews 4:14, “We have a great Religious Leader Who has made the way for man to go to God.”

I think I need to go vomit! Great religious leader? Are you kidding me? Seriously?

I was shocked when I saw what Gleason and Kathryn Ledyard did to corrupt Hebrews 4:14. They were missionaries to the Eskimos in the arctic circle and penned their own simplified Bible translation—the of the Bible in 1969. Folks, the Holy Spirit doesn’t need our help to explain what He meant in the Bible. More destructive than the vilest criminals in the world, are those sincere religious people who tamper with the Word of God. When Uzzah sincerely reached out to steady to wobbling Ark Of The Covenant, God instantly killed him (1st Chronicles 13:1-14). The message is plain and clear to see—don’t touch the Word of God!!!

Jesus is not our RELIGIOUS LEADER! What a bad joke! Sadly, that is all Jesus means to tens of millions of ecumenical churchgoers today. He is their glorified religious leader up in Heaven! The inspired Word of God says that Jesus is our HIGH PRIEST! Romans 8:34, "

Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. " Jesus Christ is our heavenly INTERCESSOR, our GREAT HIGH PRIEST! Religious leader?—I'll give you religious leader! What heresy! What gross theological incompetence!! Dear reader, please use only the trustworthy inspired KING JAMES BIBLE!!!

> "The Word of God is our only hope—that's our only hope! This has been the generation of translations and abominations, and perversions, of the Word of God! It's been a long time; now when the Revised Standard Version came out, I stood against it before I knew what it was, because the wrong crowd heard of that, and the wrong crowd received it, and I knew it got too much publicity to be right! And I knew if the newspapers publicized something, it had to be wrong! And so I knew that the American people and a lot of American preachers—they welcomed it into their house before they knew it was a rattlesnake!" —Brother Lester Roloff, a needful quote from the MP3 sermon titled, "'[1]THE LIVING BIBLE' EXPOSED!"

1st Timothy 5:14-15, " I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. For some are already turned aside after Satan."

For generations now since the 1960's, Americans have been subjected to cruel social engineering that has destroyed our homes. Americans have been indoctrinated by the media and Hollywood to think of men as being stupid, klutzes, irresponsible and the object of female ridicule. Consequently, many men have adapted to this ugly stereotype.

Look at the gigantic mess in America today! Are women really liberated? Are they better off? Tens of millions of women are divorced. Binge drinking among women in the United States is epidemic! Nearly 60,000,000 American mothers have MURDERED their babies! How is this being liberated and better off? All across America today women are strung out on drugs, both legal and illegal. Some are institutionalized, many cannot care for themselves, and millions of career women are so masculine now that they will never get married or bear children. They are turned aside after Satan (1st Timothy 5:14-15).

The [1]ungodly United Nations is an anti-God, anti-Christian, anti-family, and anti-liberty organization! The insane and unbiblical desire for women to be completely liberated of male dominance has destroyed society. God's plan is for men to work and provide, and for women to look well to her home and family. God never intended for women to enter into the workplace, neither secular nor religious. Women belong at home! When women leave the home, they commit adultery, end up independent and divorced, lose their femininity; and liberals call this "

LIBERATED.

Are you kidding me? Get real folks!

God's place for Christian women is in the home. It is tragic in these perilous times that even Christian parents are sending their daughters to become nurses, in fear that their daughter won't be able to find a man to care for her. This is the sad reality of our times. And I don't blame those parents. What else can they do? Our whole culture is half-butt backwards in America, and it unfortunately affects Christians as well. We cannot escape it! Albeit, every Christian woman should have as her goal (not later down the road, but now) to get married and bear children as soon as possible. I said GET MARRIED!!! There are Christian women all across America nearing 40 years of age, who are not married and have no children; but it is their own fault for being picky and overly-religious. They'll never find a perfect man! I have read long shopping lists of some religious women in dating profiles, who will NEVER find such a man!!!

From what I am seeing, American women today are NOT liberated; they've enslaved themselves to a life of bitter loneliness, sexual immorality, ugly tattoos covering their body, substance abuse, bar hopping, social and psychological issues, and have brought the judgment of God upon themselves (Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; Colossians 4:5-6; 1st Timothy 5:14-15; Matthew 5:28; Romans 14:10-12; Hebrews 13:4). Was it really that bad staying at home as a mother and a wife, being a homemaker in the privacy and safety of your own home? Truly the Devil is a beautiful liar. John 10:10, “The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly

Problem is most women find that lifestyle unappealing and boring. Some have excellent talents and excel in careers. However i myself prefer to be in the home. It’s actually my dream. I pray for marriage but haven’t recieved this blessing as of yet! I wonder why..Great article.

1.3.49 Well Done Thou Good And Faithful Servant (2020-05-17 00:00)

Matthew 25:21, “ His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.”

Very few Christians are going to hear these precious Words from the Lord Jesus Christ on judgment day. Have we really done a good job? Has Bob Jones University done a good job by promoting hundreds of Bible versions? In their official [1]Statement of Faith on BJU’s website, they claim that only the original autographs of the Bible were inspired, and that God has preserved those inspired words in all “

EXTANT MANUSCRIPT EVIDENCE.

” That means BJU sanctions BOTH the Textus Receptus (from which our beloved King James Bible was translated) and the Catholic Alexandrian Vaticanus Sinaiticus. Folks, God only authored ONE BOOK, not two! So how can we have two ancient sources? All of the corrupt modern Bible revisions are either translated from, or influenced by, the Alexandrian Greek.

The leaders, students and alumni of Bob Jones University (BJU) WON’T hear the Lord’s Words—

WELL DONE THOU GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT!!! Instead they will suffer the Lord’s wrath, facing the

(2nd Corinthians 5:10-11). BJU has dropped the ball for God. They have not done a good job! They are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. It is ironic that BJU’s leaders gave Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) an honorary doctorate’s degree in the 1970’s, but they don’t respect or take heed to Brother Roloff’s warning about the modern Bible revisions. The new president of BJU since 2014, Dr. Steve Petite, is no better than the other shallow leaders, further running Bob Jones University into the ground. It is shameful what BJU has become!!! God is not proud of them.

[2]The King James Bible Is All We Need (MP3 by Brother Lester Roloff)

[3]The Living Bible Exposed (excellent MP3 sermon by Brother Roloff)

In 2014, the shameful pastors of [4]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam compelled me to leave over our differences on the Holy Bible. Essentially, I believe the King James Bible is verbally inspired, but they don't. They use, sanction and sell dozens of Bible versions, as does BJU. The former senior pastor of Harvest was henpecked, just doing his job, with no desire for truth nor contending for the faith. They make up their own rules, instead of desiring truth in the inward parts. Just like the Seventh-Day Adventists and Roman Catholics, the Bob Jones crowd follow their own rules, caring not for THE TRUTH. I speak this to their utter shame! Psalms 51:6, " Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom." When any pastor refuses to heed THE TRUTH, it shows that he does not truly walk closely with God. What kind of man of God endorses sixteen Bible revisions, or two for that matter? A really bad one, that who!

I have been a good friend to Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, consistent to give them THE TRUTH, as a friend does; but unfortunately they have counted me as their enemy since 2014. What saith the Scripture? Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

" Due to my own adversity in my life, I humbly pleaded in 2017 to return to HBC, promising that I would be quiet and not cause any trouble; but they cold-heartedly turned me away, telling me in exact words to

"Go elsewhere." God's hand of judgment is upon Harvest Baptist Church, because they have rejected THE TRUTH. It gets much worse, the church promotes [5]devil-dog preacher John MacArthur, who teaches that children cannot be saved. The idle pastors at Harvest are INDIFFERENT, going along to get along with the apostasy which has crept into today's fake churches. They only care about collecting their paychecks. I love the folks at Harvest, the pastors and staff included, but they don't love the Lord. If they did, they would love THE TRUTH. Zechariah 8:19b, "therefore love the truth and peace."

I will keep preaching THE TRUTH until the Lord either takes me home, I am incapacitated, or He returns at the Rapture. Like the apostle Paul, I have been demonized and shunned away from the house of God for telling THE TRUTH. I intentionally capitalize those words, because they are very important. In fact, the phrase “the truth” appears 62 times in the New Testament and 20 times in the Old Testament. In John 18:27 Jesus told Pilate that He came into the world to bear witness unto THE TRUTH. In John 14:6 Jesus told Thomas that He is THE TRUTH. In John 8:32 Jesus said that THE TRUTH shall make us free! Truth matters! Right doctrine matters! Sadly, the truth doesn’t matter at Bob Jones University nor Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Ping Pong games, movies, fun and musical performances are what matter most to them! The Lord will not tell them in Heaven that they’ve done a good job. Quite the contrary, He will chastise them for the mess they’ve made of everything, and for shunning away their Christian brother (me) for trying to help them. T hey were too sinful, stubborn and proud to heed the truth.

No saint should expect to be commended by the Lord on judgment day for promoting 39 different Bible revisions, or two for that matter. No saint should expect to be rewarded for promoting corruptible seed. We are in ’[6]The Battle Of The Ages’ today over the inspiration of the Bible. IT IS A VERY BIG DEAL!!!

1.3.50 Once Saved Always Saved Is Biblical (2020-05-17 11:00)

Ephesians 1:12-14, " That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory."

Dear reader, the day you were saved God "SEALED" you with His divine Holy Spirit, as a down-payment and proof that you belong to Him. 1st John 3:24, "

And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. " I was surfing the internet today and found a new website that greatly impressed me, by Todd Tomasella. Todd is a brilliant young man who has the gift of writing. [1]His website is excellent , first class all the way. I found Todd's website while searching for information on corrupt Bible versions. I give Todd two thumbs up for his work [2]exposing the modern revisions. But then I was saddened to learn that Todd denies the great Bible doctrine of Eternal Security. Todd states:

> All who teach OSAS/eternal security are false teachers who are bearing false witness against the LORD and will have "damnation" if they don't repent (2 Peter 2:1-3).

Are there Sins that will Damn the Soul? Soul damning sins are limited to what GOD specifically cites as such and not to what ridiculous religious devils manufacture ..... such as the length of a woman's hair, speeding in your vehicle, etc. The LORD gives us 17 soul damning sins in Galatians 5:19-21, revealing that the person living in those sins is doing so due to not being in an abiding relationship with Christ, which means they are separated from God who is Holy – even though they may have been saved in the past (Luke 8:13; 2 Peter 2:20-21; Hebrews 10:26-39, etc.).

SOURCE: [3]Can A Homosexual Go To Heaven? - Ask Charles Stanley

As I quote to you earlier from 1st John 3:24, the way we know we're saved is by the indwelling Holy Spirit whom God has sealed every believer with. The evidence of our salvation is NOT how well we manage to avoid committing sins in our life, as Todd teaches. We are taught in Romans 5:20 that for the believer who wilfully sins, "GRACE DID MUCH MORE ABOUND." Romans 5:20, "Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: " That is God's way of saying—ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED!!!

I was so impressed with Todd's website and work (and I still am), but it grieves my heart that he is wrong on the Gospel, which means that he needs to get saved. Todd denies a pretribulation Rapture, but that doesn't affect one's salvation. Unfortunately, denying eternal security is a big problem, which is to deny eternal life itself. There is an entirely different mindset which goes along with denying eternal security—a theologically perverse mindset that conditions salvation upon the sinner's behavior instead of solely upon the Savior's blood. Repeatedly we are told in the Scriptures that salvation is to him that "WORKETH NOT" (Romans 4:5-6), and "

NOT BY WORKS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS

(Titus 3:5), and

NOT OF YOURSELVES

(Ephesians 2:8-9). Kindly said, Todd Tomasella is a false prophet!

Todd believes that some people were saved in the past, but due to committing one or more of the “

17 soul damning sins

” (as he calls them)

Galatians 5:19-21, they are no longer saved. Friend, that is the Devil talking! If you didn’t get saved by doing good works, then how can you be unsaved by doing bad works? That’s right, you can’t! Let’s say for the sake of argument that you could lose God’s salvation by sinning—how could you ever really know if and when you are saved? Since everyone sins, you would be in a constant state of fear, uncertainty and worry, never fully knowing if you are saved or going to Hell. Friend, that is not how God wants you to live day by day. Instead, we have GOD’S PROMISE of eternal life through faith in His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ (Titus 1:2; Hebrews 4:1-2).

I feel sorry for Todd, that he thinks salvation can be gained and then lost, gained and then lost, gained and then lost. That is the ungodly Pentecostal mindset. Ironically, Todd has authored a book called: “[4]The Psychology Of Eternal Security,” in which he attempts to discredit and dismantle THE TRUTH that every believer is safe and eternally secure in the Father’s hands.

There is in fact a “ psychology,

that is, a mindset, that goes along with whatever you choose to believe concerning the great Bible doctrine of Eternal Security.

For the person who doesn’t believe in eternal security, this person is careful to maintain an upright life apart from sin, thinking that their salvation depends on it. That is not the Gospel dear friend. God’s plan of salvation is not partial faith in Christ plus human effort. God’s plan of salvation is that we are all guilty dirty sinners, in need of the blessed Savior! Salvation is promised to whomsoever places their trust in Christ’s death, burial and bodily resurrection (1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

For the person who does believe in eternal security, we know that God doesn't want us to continue living in sin (Romans 3:31). As Christians we SHOULD serve Christ; not MUST (that is works); not WILL (that is Calvinism). God is not an absent Father—He will discipline His children (Hebrews 12:6-8). But for someone to corrupt the Gospel of free grace, in a foolish attempt to compel sinners to depart from sin, is of the Devil. Todd is pulling on the same rope as the Devil. What saith the Scripture? ...

> 2nd Peter 3:16-17, "As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness."

Kindly, Todd Tomasella is ignorant of the Holy Scriptures, wrestling the Word of God to his own destruction (and those that follow his damnable false teachings). Once a person receives Jesus Christ as their personal Savior and is born anew by the Holy Spirit of God, it would be necessary for God to become a liar for that believer to ever be lost again. Titus 1:2, " In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;"

> "Eternal security is not a separate doctrine from salvation."

1.3.51 We Are Living In A World Of Liars (2020-05-18 03:30)

> Proverbs 19:22, " The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar."

I have some old .SWF (Flash movies) files that I wanted to convert into an animated .GIF file instead, so I went to search Google for a free program (since I only have two .SWF files to convert). I found a website that advertises a program called: SWF To GIF Animator for free. Here is what their false advertising website says:

> SWF to GIF Animator by swftogif is a free software that allows conversion from flash SWF files to GIF images. With the help of the SWF to GIF Animator, you can now replace of all flash files on your website with GIF images. [emphasis added]

> SOURCE: [1]https://www.iskysoft.com/mobile-tips/top-swf-to-gif-converter.ht ml

So I downloaded the software to my computer, since they advertise that it is "

FREE software.

" I opened the new program and loaded the .SWF files to convert. It took time to convert and then demanded $19.95 to save the converted file. THEY LIED!!! That is as wicked as murdering someone! There is no such thing as a little sin with God. All sin is as dark and horrible as the worst sin imaginable in the sight of our holy God. There definitely are degrees of sin, but ALL SIN is bad! That is why we read in James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all." God's law is like a car side window, specially designed to shatter into thousands of pieces when broken, to prevent injury. God wrote His Ten Commandments on STONE, because you can break them but you cannot bend them! You cannot change them!!!

The person(s) responsible for that website are ungodly liars! They intentionally lured me to choose and download their software, let me use it long enough to see the .SWF converting, but then at the last minute demand money for the program to be useful at all. They are evil people! That is so unethical, selfish and wrong. If I knew who was responsible for doing that, I'd NEVER recommend them for a position anywhere, not for any reason. I wouldn't want them to marry my son or daughter. I wouldn't trust them in any way! It shows that they are the type of person who will stoop low to make money. Folks, I absolutely cannot express in words how detrimental such evil behavior is to one's character! When a person intentionally deceives other people to make money, it reveals seven levels of demonic thinking in them.

> Proverbs 26:23-25, "Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross.
> He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him;
> When he speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart."

The iSkysoft company are liars! The swftogif company are liars! When something is advertised to be FREE, that means at no point can it ever cost you anything. IT CANNOT COST YOU ANYTHING TO BE FREE!

The Worst Pervert Is The Gospel Pervert

Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) made that true statement in his sermon titled: '[2]The Gospel Perverts or Jesus?' I couldn't help but make a spiritual connection with much of the religious garbage I hear taught these days. For example, the

Jehovah's Witnesses say:

> “Salvation is a free gift from God. It cannot be earned. Yet it does require effort on our part.
>
> ” __’
>
> [3]What Must We Do to Be Saved?’ - Jehovah’s Witness’ official Website

What a contradiction! Just like the liars at iSkysoft, the Jehovah Witnesses falsely advertise something as being “ free,

but then dishonestly say IT WILL COST YOU SOMETHING to get it. Ladies and gentlemen, that is fraud! Nothing is truly free unless there is no cost nor obligation involved to obtain it. We live in a world of liars today, ESPECIALLY in the United States! America has become a greedy place of thieves, cheats and liars. I could write a lengthy book of just the shady things I am aware of in our nation, including among wicked pastors and churches today! Sadly, shady fine print, dishonest business practices and trickery has become the accepted “

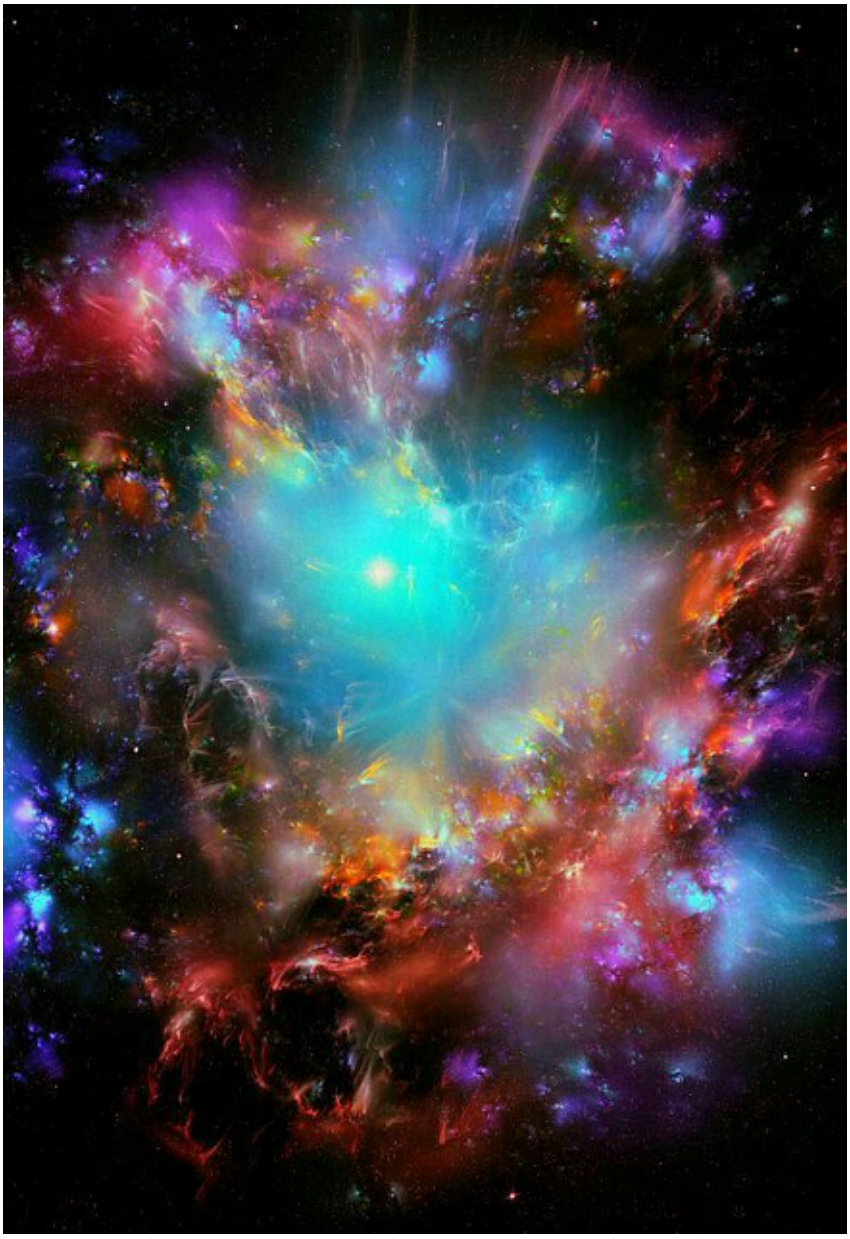
in American society today, and God hates it!

Most people understand and recognize that the JW’s are a messed up religious cult, but how about Evangelist Ray Comfort, who made this heretical statement:

> “The forgiveness that is in Jesus Christ is conditional upon ‘repentance towards God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ’ (Acts 20:21). It is a gift that God offers to everyone, but individuals must receive it by repenting and trusting in Christ, or they will remain dead in their sins. *No one has Biblical grounds to continue in sin, assuming that they are safe just because Jesus died on the cross. See 1 John 3:4-6.” [Emphasis added]

SOURCE: THE EVIDENCE BIBLE, by Ray Comfort, pg. 1513; 2003, Bridge-Logos Publishers, Orlando, Florida

That conjunction “BUT” is a dangerous word to use after saying that Eternal Life is a free gift...BUT! Friend, there are no but’s when it comes to being saved! You simply come to God as a needy sinner and receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins. That’s it! Jesus Christ died, was buried and physically resurrected after three days for the justification of all who simply believe (1st Corinthians 15:1-4; Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 1:21; John 6:47).



Ray Comfort also made this heretical statement:

"You *must turn away from sin and turn to God. Desire to have NOTHING to do with sin, and surrender your life to the One who can save you... If you will confess and forsake your sins..." [emphasis added]

SOURCE: http://www.livingwaters.com/good/022.shtml

Mr. Comfort is a false teacher according to the Holy Bible. No where in the Word of God are we told to forsake our sins to be saved. No where are we commanded to surrender our life to Christ to be saved. No where in the Bible are we taught to turn away from our sins to be saved. Those things all sound very religious. They sound good in fact. It appeals to the sinful human nature, that to be saved a person should have to clean up their act, get with it, and surrender to live a new life for God to be saved. But what does the Bible teach? Romans 4:5-6, “But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,”

Who can argue with Ray Comfort that salvation is a free gift from God (and he will use that truth to defend his false plan of salvation); yet when you listen to him preach, he[4] blatantly perverts the Gospel. Listen in this [5]YouTube video of Ray corrupting what it means to repent, telling this deceived woman that to be saved she must LIVE A LIFESTYLE of repentance that proves the reality of her repentance. That is not the free gift of God, which is through faith alone in the Good News of Christ crucified, buried and risen (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Philippians 3:9, " And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: " I am so glad that God made it easy, free and simple to be saved. Anyone who teaches that salvation will COST YOU ([6]as does Dr. John MacArthur), they are perverting the Gospel of FREE GRACE and lying to you (Galatians 1:6-9).

Ephesians 2:8-9, “ For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast. ”

1.3.52 The King James Bible Is Inspired (2020-05-18 11:00)

2nd Timothy 3:16, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness."

There are some wayward pastors and Christian leaders today who teach that the King James Bible is a divine preservation of the inspired originals, but not itself inspired. Nothing could be further from the truth. God's Word is inspired into whatever language it is translated.

I am sad for any congregation whose pastor misleads them concerning the Word of God. To claim that only the originals are inspired is heresy. To claim that the King James Bible is divinely preserved without being inspired is ridiculous and an utter heresy. How can God's Word be divinely preserved into any language without also being divinely inspired? It is impossible! Anyone who denies the inspiration of the King James Bible is a false prophet.

It is not only the originals which are inspired, but also the different languages into which God's Word is translated. Contrary to popular theological teaching, the originals are NOT even found in Hebrew, Greek and Chaldean. According to Psalm 119:89, the originals existed in Heaven before the first Word in Genesis was ever given to mankind. Psalm 119:89, "For ever, O LORD, Thy word is settled in heaven." The originals are in Heaven.

> "Bob Jones... they make light on the verbal inspiration!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the sermon titled: '[1]THE REAL BATTLE'

Please don’t be deceived, many false prophets are deceitful with their words. If your pastor says he believes that the Bible is inspired, ask him if he believes that the King James Bible is inspired? If your pastor says he believes that the King James Bible is a divinely preserved translation of the inspired Word of God, ask him again if he believes if the King James Bible is inspired? That is the big question—does your so-called Christian leader believe that the King James Bible is God’s inspired Words? I say to you truthfully, the King James Bible is INSPIRED word-for-word.

[2]Do We Have An Every Word Bible In 2020?

Psalm 138:2 says that God has magnified His Word above His holy name. It is a critically important matter to God. Once a pastor attacks the inspiration of the King James Bible, then it’s only downhill spiritually from there. God hath chosen the poor, despised and lowly things of this world to confound the wise. It is rich and arrogant men who attack the Bible; It is broken, suffering and lowly men who defend it. If you don’t have a King James Bible, then you have a deception.

Please don’t be deceived, the King James Bible is God’s preserved AND INSPIRED Words. If your pastor doesn’t believe that the King James Bible is inerrant, preserved, infallible and inspired, then please find a Christ-honoring church.

The pastor of a very large church recently distributed a booklet to thousands of people, calling those who believe in the inspiration of the King James Bible “rats in the woodpile,” “hillbillies,” “ignorant clergy” and “barbarians.” The pastor said those who say the King James is inspired have “shot themselves in the foot,” and are “espousing Catholic or Charismatic theology.” I guess I’m a big rat then, because I DO believe that the King James Bible is 100 % inspired, inerrant, infallible and preserved by God. I must be an ignorant barbaric hillbilly.

The truth is that such pastors have made Satan very glad, shaking people’s faith in the Word of Life. My question is—with all the hordes of Hell attacking the Church today, why would any pastor attack the Word of God? It’s apostasy! I mean, it’s like a general on the battlefield criticizing the weaponry instead of attacking the enemy. We’re at spiritual war! Stop tampering with the weapon! There's nothing wrong with our Sword. Hebrews 4:12, "For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart."

Bless God, I would rather study my ABC's in Heaven, than to study Hebrew and Greek in Hell! The denial of Bible inspiration today is at the core of the Bible corrupting movement! If God kept His solemn promise in [3]Psalms 12:6-7 to preserve His "[4]PURE WORDS" forever, then someone in this world today we must have those PURE WORDS. Proverbs 30:5, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. " The New International Version (NIV) differs from the [5]inspired King James Bible by over 64,000 words!!! [6]They both cannot be God's PURE WORDS!!! God only authored ONE HOLY BOOK, not two, not hundreds! We have TWO ancient authorities since the year 1881, no thanks to Anglican reprobate ministers' [7]Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort. Pastor Max D. Younce [8]exposes Westcott and Hort in this brilliant [9]Bible study on the King James Bible.

Please don't be deceived, the King James Bible is God's preserved AND INSPIRED Words. It's not just a divinely preserved translation of the inspired Word of God—the King James Bible is INSPIRED! Job 32:8, "But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding."

"The King James Bible is the One they pick-on in religion classes. That's another proof it's the right One by the way. You can tell a lot about something by its enemies and critics."

1.3.53 Nothing Once Good Deteriorated Overnight (2020-05-19 00:30)

Revelation 3:2, " Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God."

Bob Jones University was founded in 1927 by Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968). Sadly, and tragically, the college has deteriorated into a ecumenical nightmare by 2020. In their BJU Statement of Faith, the college boasts that they haven't changed since they began in 1927, but any honest observer familiar with BJU's history knows they HAVE CHANGED! They've changed for the worse!

In 1927 you couldn't have found a BJU female student wearing pants, but today they all wear pants. Their girl's athletic teams wear shorts, giving the males a leg show. Bob Jones Sr. NEVER would have allowed such immodesty to happen at his college. Dr. Jones would be disgusted if he could see what the college he founded, to train young people to be Christians leaders, has degraded into—a money-making business that patterns itself after the sinful world, and the apostate religious community. BJU didn't deteriorate overnight, their downfall have been slow and incremental. I wouldn't recommend for any young person to attend BJU today, unless you want to attend a secular university with a religious feeling.

In 1927 Bob Jones College only used to inspired King James Bible. Sadly, after Bob Jones Sr. went to Heaven, they started promoting the Devil's Bible revisions.

I am alarmed today how many professed Independent Fundamental Baptists deny the VERBAL INSPIRATION of the King James Bible! Although BJU does not claim to be Baptist, they are one of the most apostate sources of corruption in Baptist churches today. [1]Bob Jones University is the fountainhead of the heretical Greek of Westcott and Hort. It is sad and tragic. I rejoice every time I read or hear a man of God proclaim the INSPIRATION of the King James Bible. Here are some such notable men, to name but a few:

“We believe in the inspiration of the Bible.” —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., “Comments On Here And hereafter,” page 103; Bob Jones University Press Inc., 1942

“Whether in sunshine or rain, it will help us to have these inspired words before us: HAVE FAITH IN GOD.” —Pastor Lee Roberson, a quote from the sermon: “[2]Have Faith In God.”

“The only inspired Words of God are in the King James Bible!” —Dr. Jack Hyles, an awesome quote from the sermon, “[3]THE REAL BATTLE!”

“Every word in this Bible is inspired by God almighty!” —Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the sermon, “[4]A Friend At Midnight”

“What He at first inspired, the Lord God has now preserved. Therefore, when I hold the King James Bible in my hand, I hold the inspired text. It was inspired and now that inspired Word has been protected, preserved and provided for us!” —Dr. Shelton Smith, “What Is That Book You Hold In Your Hand?”

> "God's 'Words' are inspired, not just the 'Word' (Ezekiel 2:7 and 3:4 'words'; Isaiah 51:6 'words')." —Pastor Al Lacy, quote from the 'King James Bible Seminar' at Hyles-Anderson College, summer 1993

God promised in Psalms 12:6-7 to "PRESERVE" His "PURE WORDS" from that generation forever. Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever." Unfortunately, all of the modern Bible revisions corrupt this passage, completely removing God's promise, changing it to God protects His saints instead of His Words. Dear friend, inspiration without preservation is meaningless; but equally so, inspiration without preservation is also meaningless!

The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam might as well hang out a big sign that says: "Bob Jones University on Guam, helping people develop a heart for ecumenical apostasy!" The church officially uses multiple different Bibles, including the heretical Westcott And Hort Greek Alexandrian texts. The church allows multiple plans of salvation, ranging from the free grace Gospel taught by Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), to the damnable counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation taught by Pastor John MacArthur. Officially, the church teaches Lordship Salvation, as I heard with my own two ears from the senior pastor in 2014. According to Harvest's pastor, "Admitting you are a sinner is not good enough, you MUST also turn away from a lifestyle of sin!"

That senior pastor is on his way to Hell in his false gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. This is the garbage that Bob Jones University is promoting nowadays. The senior pastor of Harvest is best friends with Dr. Steve Petite, present leader of BJU (both raking in 6-digit salaries from these apostate institutions). The fact that BJU would hire an ecumenical minister like Dr. Steve Petite shows the degeneracy of Bob Jones College today! I wouldn't send my dog to Bob Jones!!! From immodestly dressed female staff and students, to the stench of their pompous arrogance, to [5]student's ignored reports of rape allegations on campus, to teaching and sanctioning Lordship Salvation, to their promotion of Satanic Bible revisions—Bob Jones University has gone apostate! What a hellhole Bob Jones University and their alumni have become!!!

Colossians 4:16, " And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea. "

There has been theological speculation for centuries whether our text Bible passage is referring to a missing Epistle written by the apostle Paul to the church at Laodicea. May I say, o nly those writings which God decided to include in the canon of Scripture are considered inspired by God. When a man writes or speaks, those words are inspired by MAN, not God. That is why I make such a big fuss today over the inspiration of the King James Bible, Unfortunately, over 95 % of religious leaders today do NOT believe that the KJB is verbally inspired by God. They believe that only the original autographs were inspired. That is a big problem, because the originals no longer exist.

So if it is true that only the original autographs were inspired by GOD, then we do not have God's Words today.

Sadly, most Bible colleges (including Bob Jones University) teach that the King James Bible is not perfect, that it has errors and mistakes in it. I've heard umpteen preachers say these horrible things, including Dr. Hank Lindstrom and Dr. John R. Rice. They take it upon themselves to correct the Bible. I don't agree with those men when they correct the Bible. The Bible needs to correct us!

Job said that he wished his words could be forever recorded in a book. Job 19:23, " Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book!" That is very interesting. Job was merely speaking as a man, wishing out loud that his words (crying out from a suffering and broken heart to God) could be forever printed in a book for everyone to read. God did exactly that, and we today have the precious book of Job in the Old Testament. Likewise, when the apostle Paul spoke, sometimes he said that God didn't tell him to say what he was writing (1st Corinthians 7:6); but rather, Paul said he was giving his own advice. Yet God decided to include those mortal words in the canon of Scripture as inspired by God. Not everything in the Bible is true! That's right. We read in Genesis where the serpent told Eve if she and Adam ate the forbidden fruit, they would become "as gods." That is a lie! Yet, that statement by the serpent is inspired by God, because it has been included in the Scriptures.

So if Paul did write a letter to the Laodicean church (and he obviously did from reading Colossians 4:16), it would not be considered inspired, otherwise God would have included it in the Holy Bible. We know Job and Paul were mere mortal men. We know that those men spoke millions of words in their lifetime. The [1]average person speaks 30,000 words each day.

So what decided which of the millions of words spoken by those men were inspired BY GOD, and not merely inspired by the men themselves? That is something that only God knows.

Modern pseudo-scholars claim that since the various men who wrote the Bible wrote using their own styles and personalities, this proves God only inspired THE THOUGHTS and not the literal WORDS of the Bible. [2]Biblica (the translators of the New International Version) say these horrible things on their website, which you can read if you'd like. They only believe in THOUGHT INSPIRATION, not VERBAL INSPIRATION. They use this faulty reasoning to justify publishing hundreds of English Bibles, since God only gave His THOUGHTS to men, and then men try to do their best to convey those THOUGHTS into various English Bible revisions. What quackery! In sharp contrast, I believe that the King James Bible is VERBALLY (word for word) inspired by God, and that every single word matters! Jesus exclaimed in Matthew 4:4 (a quote from Deuteronomy 8:3) that man shall live by 'EVERY WORD' that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

Tragically, the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) removed the phrase "EVERY WORD." By the way, this is one of the garbage Bible revisions that Harvest Baptist Church on Guam shamefully uses:

King James Bible - Matthew 4:4, "But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) - Matthew 4:4, 'Jesus answered him, "The Scriptures say, 'It is not just bread that keeps people alive. Their lives depend on what God says."''

What God says

is very different from **"

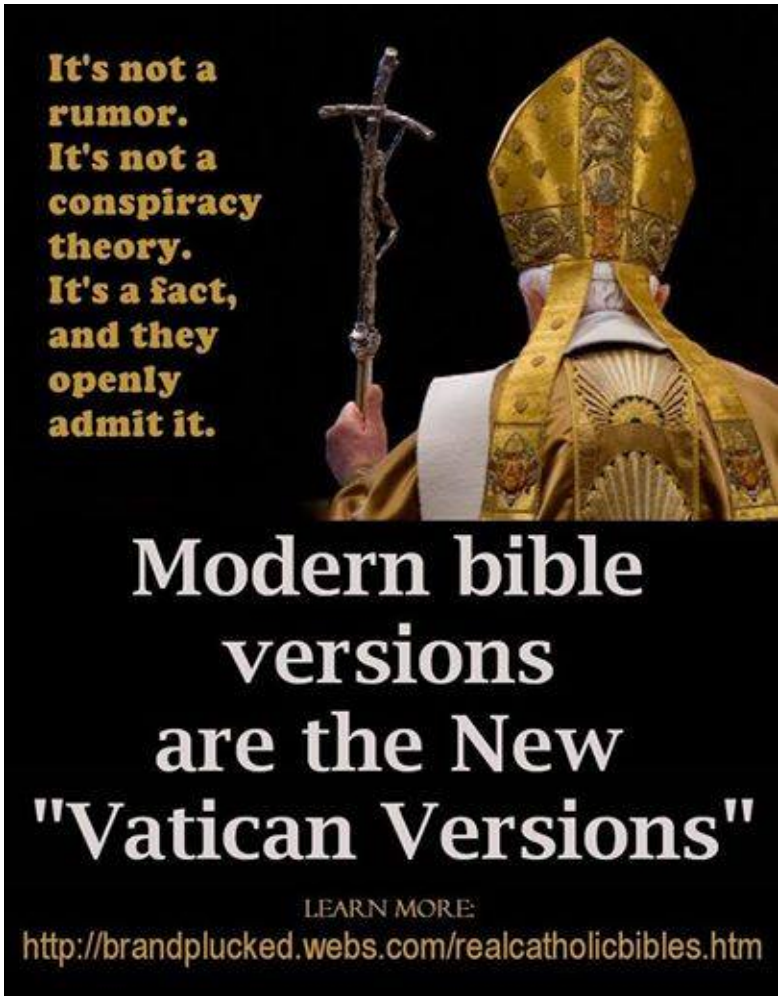
every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

" The Devil has deceived so many arrogant pastors today, using 501c3 state licensing and the love of money to cripple them spiritually. When you warn those pastors, they couldn't care less. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 23:9,

"Speak not in the ears of a fool: for he will despise the wisdom of thy words.

" The pastors of the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam are fools. I say that kindly, but on the authority of the Holy Scriptures. When I warned them in 2014 (as a friend does) about the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions, which they are using and selling, they turned a deaf ear to me. [3]I was labeled as a troubled-maker and counted their enemy, just like the apostle Paul (Galatians 4:16). They've made a martyr out of me, by their own foolishness and sinful pride. I have repeatedly warned HBC since 2014, and still today in 2020, but they are arrogant against the truth.

America's pulpits are weak today! That is because the new Bible revisions are weak! No man who walks with God and truly loves the Lord Jesus Christ, could tolerate the modern Bible which assault His deity and remove the Godhead. The new Bibles have Satan's fingerprints all over them; and sadly the fingerprints of the modern spiritually dead preachers that plague our world today! I heard a tremendous sermon the other day by Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) called: " [4]The Book That Makes The Difference. "



So even if Paul did write umpteen other letters to the churches, they were only inspired by Paul. If there is a letter to the church at Laodicea, it was just a letter inspired by the man Paul, just as all my website articles are inspired by me, a mere man. I speak with the influence of the Holy Spirit in me as a child of God, but my words aren't always perfect or trustworthy, because I am still a sinner. I have bad days like everyone else, and sometimes my personal bias may cause me to write with anger or prejudice. I try not to do those things, very much so, but as a sinner in the flesh, my words are merely that of a redeemed sinner.

One of the common problems I run into with web visitors who have questions, is that they heard some preacher (a mere man) say something untrue. I always tell them the same thing—that ONLY the Holy Bible is inspired by God. That is why we are told in Romans 3:4, " God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged." If I ever say or teach anything that disagrees with the inspired Holy Bible, I am wrong! That is why I dare not correct the Bible, I let it correct me! Many people trust preachers, which gets them into trouble, even leading them into Hell. I only trust the preacher who always preaches the Bible, and I go double-check everything he says with the inspired Word of God (1st John 4:1).

I have also heard about the " [5]Book of Enoch " missing from the Bible. You can read it online. In the book of Enoch it mentions 450 foot giants walking the earth! Oh boy!

If there were some books missing from the Bible today, then God would be a liar, because He promised to preserve His 'PURE WORDS' unto every generation (Psalms 12:6-7). Not surprisingly, [6]every modern Bible revision CORRUPTS Psalm 12:7 to say that God protects the saints instead of preserves His pure words. Why would they change that verse? Obviously so they can publish hundreds of English Bible revisions to make money.

1.3.55 Learning The Old Testament (2020-05-20 00:58)

Romans 15:14, “For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.”

I am glad you have an interest in learning the Bible. It is truly a fascinating Book in so many ways. [1]I wrote this crash course on the Old Testament, which should be a bit helpful.

The way to learn the Bible is just like you’d solve a puzzle. My Mom loved solving puzzles when I was a boy, and we’d work together on them. You look for the outside pieces first, flat on one side, which are the most recognizable. Then you work toward the less obvious pieces and compare one piece with another. The Bible is the same. First learn what each book is about. For example: Genesis is a book of beginnings. Exodus is from the word "exit," about the Israelites exiting from Egypt. Leviticus is about the priestly tribe of "Levi." And so forth. Then you compare Scripture with Scripture to learn the Bible. For example: Jesus said in Matthew 7:21 that no every one who says “ shall enter into the Kingdom of God, but he that doeth the "will of the Father." I was reading John 6:40 one day and Jesus said that the "will of the Father" is to believe on the Son, so now I always explain Matthew 7:21-23 with John 6:40.

I like the saying—The Old Testament CONCEALS the New Testament; the New Testament REVEALS the Old Testament. God has already made two great divisions in His Word of LAW and GRACE, or LAW (the Old Testament) and CHRIST (the New Testament). The LAW shows us that we are guilty sinners (Romans 3:19); and brings us to CHRIST to be saved by grace in the New Testament (Galatians 3:24-26). So when we view the Bible, in the most basic sense we should see LAW and CHRIST (or GRACE). The Old Testament shows us our NEED, our sinnership; but the New Testament shows us the REMEDY, which is salvation by grace through faith alone in Jesus Christ.

Understanding The Old Testament Refutes Lordship Salvation

Having said that, there is a lot of junk theology being taught in the churches today by preachers who don't understand the truths I just shared with you. Particularly the heresy of "Lordship Salvation"

(which is Calvinism repackaged). This heresy says a person cannot be saved by faith alone but rather, they say a person must also be willing to turn away from their sins (which they erroneously mistake to mean ). Lordship Salvation says you must repent AND believe (two steps to salvation). They say if a person doesn't reform (by forsaking their sinful ways), then even though they have faith in Jesus Christ, they are still not saved. That thinking is of the Devil.

In sharp contrast, the true plan of salvation is "

The Gospel,

which says we are saved by faith alone. We repent TO believe (one step to be saved). We don't repent AND believe; we repent TO believe. Repentance is simply a change of mind from WRONG THINKING to believing the 'GOOD NEWS' ('Gospel) that Christ DIED on the cross for our sins, He was BURIED and He RESURRECTED after three days for our justification (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). In the true Gospel, we are saved solely by what Jesus did to pay for our sins, and it has absolutely nothing to do with turning away from sins (which is reformation). In Lordship Salvation, the object of repentance is to forsake sinful behavior; but in true salvation, the object of repentance is to simply to believe the Gospel. Turning from sins is a matter of Christian discipleship, as we grow in the grace of God, having our mind renewed day by day by the Word of God (Romans 12:1-2).

What Lordship Salvation proponents are actually doing, is requiring people to keep the LAW, as a prerequisite to saving faith. That is a false gospel which cannot produce the new birth in Christ Jesus. That is exactly what happened to the church at Galatia in the Bible. They had adopted a false doctrine of partial faith in Christ plus works. Galatians 3:1-2, "O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?" Paul wanted to know how they were indwelt by the Holy Spirit (i.e., how did they get saved), by keeping the works of the LAW, or by simple FAITH in the Gospel they had heard preached? I love that passage of Scripture, because it shows the simplicity that is in Christ, which is The Gospel.

1.3.56 Salvation Through "Holy Communion" Is False Doctrine (2020-05-20 10:30)

The following quote is from Luther's Small Catechism, as promoted by the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod. The quote is found under the section, "THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION"; and then under the subheading, "THE BLESSINGS OF HOLY COMMUNION":

Keep in mind what you learned in your Catechism instructions.

“What blessings do we receive through this eating and drinking?

That is shown us by these words: ‘Given’ and ‘poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins.’ Through these words we receive forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation in this sacrament. For where there is forgiveness of sins, there is also life and salvation.” [Luther’s Catechism. Holy Communion. Second.]

“How can eating and drinking do such things?

It is certainly not the eating and drinking that does such things, but the words ‘Given’ and ‘poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins.’ These words are the main thing in this sacrament, along with the eating and drinking. And whoever believes these words has what they plainly say, the forgiveness of sins.” [Luther’s Catechism.

Holy Communion,

Third] [emphasis added]

SOURCE: https://wels.net/faq/the-blessings-of-the-lords-supper

What blasphemy!!! There is not one single verse in the entire Word of God which teaches that salvation comes through oly communion.

You cannot be saved by repeating some stupid words. In fact, the phrase

is NOT found in the Bible at all. The Bible speaks of

in 1st Corinthians 10:16, “ The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? ”

The Greek word for

which means,

partnership. i.e. (lit.) participation.

Thus, a person “participates” in the sin-cleansing blood of Jesus Christ through faith in Christ alone, and not by works or the Lord’s Supper.

Paul was simply teaching the believers at Corinth that they were saved by the blood of Jesus, and were being hypocritical to partake of the Lord’s supper while also eating meats offered to idols (partaking of idolatry). Paul told them that it was impossible to eat at God's table and the Devil's, **"

Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils" (1st Corinthians 10:21).

1st Corinthians 10:16 must NOT be interpreted by itself. Basing a doctrine upon this Scripture alone could easily result in a damnable heresy, which is exactly what Mr. Luther has done. 1st Corinthians 11:25 clearly states,

After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in REMEMBRANCE of me.

Paul was quoting Jesus who said in Luke 22:19, "...This is my body which is given for you: this do in REMEMBRANCE of me.

The Word of God teaches that the Lord's Supper is simply a means to what Christ did for us at Calvary, no more or less. To claim, as Lutheran's do, that there is some special saving power to the Lord's Supper is a Satanic lie.

The Bible never leads us to place our faith in the Lord's Supper. If it were so, then Jesus and the apostles would have continually told people to partake of the Lord's supper to be saved. In fact, only a handful of references are made in the entire Bible to the Lord's Supper (i.e., communion). Martin's Luther's phrase,

Given and poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins, doesn't even appear in the Word of God. These are the words of a religion, and not from the Bible.

[1]

Matthew 7:15, “ Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. ”

1.3.57 The Devil Wants To Devour You (2020-05-20 23:00)

1st Peter 5:6-9, “ Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world. ”

Lions, tigers and bears, Oh my!

It is very easy to separate the preceding verses from each other, failing to make the important connection between submitting to God and resisting the Devil. It is not enough to merely resist the Devil, we must first submit to God in humility.

Pride is the root cause of every sin, elevating ourselves over the commandments of God. If we feared God at all times, we would never do wrong! When we sin it is because we are succumbing to the flesh. Since we are sinners by nature we won't always choose to do right. No one, I don't care how close to God you may draw, can live above sin. We may live above reproach , but no one can live above sin . Only Christ Himself was without sin (Hebrews 4:15).

As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

You don't want to meet a ranging bear! That is a bear on the hunt for prey, and humans are mighty tasty to a hungry bear! Many of the modern Bible revisions change the word

roaring,

” which changes the meaning. A “ranging” bear is a hungry bear, greedily on the prowl for any fleshly prey it can find, including tasty humans!

It is interesting that the Holy Bible compares wicked people to naughty bears!

I don't have TV, not because I'm a good Christian, but because I don't want to spend over $1,500 a year for something I don't need! I watch my news on YouTube, which is free. YouTube suggests other videos and I watched the following video today about bears eating people! Oh boy! I really hate bears! I think there is way too much downplaying in the media about the danger of bears. They are wild animals and they have a taste for humans. I don't like bears, even if there are some cuddly and friendly ones. I hate them all...lol. I think bear spray is so stupid! So far everyone that I have seen spray a bear got eaten anyway. The following video may be disturbing to EVERYONE!!!

When Bears Go Bad!

We need a BIBLE REVIVAL in our homes today! We need a BIBLE REVIVAL in our churches today! That is the answer for the mess that our country has made for itself. ...

> "Now, there's only one thing we need in America—and that is an old-fashioned real Bible revival! I mean a real BIBLE REVIVAL! It'll straighten out the home, straighten out the children, make the husband act right, put the wife in order; it'll take care of the preacher, the church; I mean it'll fix up the community, I mean it'll stop the Devil dead in his tracks; I mean it'll give victory to God's people—the Word of God!" —Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982), "[1]The Book That Makes The Difference!"

The time of God's judgment is coming for all mankind! 1st Peter 4:17,

" For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God? "

1.3.58 The Great Need Of The Hour Is Preaching Preachers (2020-05-21 10:00)

1st Corinthians 1:18, " For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God."

Bless God, if you preach, the people will come to hear you. [1]Some of the best MP3 preaching you'll ever hear is by Evangelist Phil Kidd. Brother Kidd says it like it is. The great need of the hour is PREACHING PREACHERS!!! Only preachers can train preachers. Teachers will not produce preachers. Missionaries cannot produce preachers. If you want to become a cultured snob that only speaks on non-offensive subjects, using dead expository sermonettes, then you'll love BJU. But if you want to make a difference, then you need to attend a Bible college with a Rebel-rouser for a pastor, who is not afraid to throw microphones in the pulpit, toss a few chairs and slam the pulpit while ex-pressing his anger over sin and the Devil.

You want a college where the poor, smelly and town sinners are welcomed to sit on the front row pew of their affiliated church (I would never attend any Bible college that operates independent of a local New Testament church, like Pensacola Christian College, or PCC). I would never attend a Bible college that operates independent of the local New Testament church. I do like PCC's modest dress standards and King James Bible only position (last I checked, if they haven't changed). Only a Spirit-filled man of God, who has the AUTHORITATIVE Words of God burning in his heart, can train preachers. You'll learn 10,000 times more about preaching by listening to loving, firm, uncompromising, hard-preaching, from [2]a Spirit-filled man of God like Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), than you will by spending 40-years in some deadbeat Bible college.

[3]Here's more precious MP3 sermons by Dr. Jack Hyles. I wouldn't give you a dime for any pastor who doesn't love Brother Hyles because of what he stood for. What kind of loser pastor doesn't like hard-preaching? What kind of sissy-britches pastor doesn't like preaching against corrupt Bible versions? A coward, that's what kind. We've got a bunch of milquetoast cowards in our church pulpits today who won't stand for anything. Man, grow some hair on your back! You hen-pecked, pantywaist, pastors who don't have enough gonads to take a stand in your home, God pity you! I thank God that He speaks with AUTHORITY in the AUTHORITATIVE King James Bible, and the man who abides in the Holy King James Bible is going to preach uncompromisingly with AUTHORITY!!! So many pastors are either hen-pecked sissies or abusive jerks. The man of God is neither! The man of [4]God possess strength and beauty!

If I made somebody mad in this article—GOOD! I wish a lot of you would get as mad as I am at the Devil. Get M.A.D. ...Make A Difference! I wish a lot of you would get as mad as I am at Booze companies! I wish a lot of you would get as mad as I am at the abortion industry! I wish a lot of you would get as mad as I am at the homosexual agenda. I wish a lot of you would get as mad as I am at the Bible corrupting gang at Biblica, Zondervan and Nelson Publishers. I wish a lot of you would get as mad as I am at Christian women wearing pants and slacks in our churches and Christian schools. The problem is most Christians have never been crucified with Christ. For an awesome sermon on the topic, please listen to the MP3 titled, "[5]STEPS IN SANCTIFICATION (OR, THE ROOT OF ALL HERESY!" Amen! And humbly, I am the biggest sinner I know, so I need a lot of improvement too!!! I don't have a single fault, I have a bunch of FAULTS!!!

We don't need more Christian pilots, we need leather-lunged preachers! Let the heathens fly the planes. We don't need any more Christian nurses, we need godly mothers! Let the heathens be the nurses. We don't need more fruitcakes! I met a young man who had just graduated high school from Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I kindly asked him what his big plans were now that he's graduated from a Baptist Christian high school. I was numb when he said he's heading to New York to be a bally-dancer! A BALLY DANCER!!! Oh boy! No wonder America's going to Hell. If our Christian schools are producing bally-dancers, prey tell me where will the preachers come from??? Who will preach the inspired Words of God without a preacher? (Romans 10:15-17). Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

Woe unto today's Bible learning institutions (preacher's cemeteries) and churches, for Satan has deceived most of you!!! I say that with God's unconditional love and sweet kindness, because I CARE. It's too bad (and wicked as the Devil) that Bob Jones University and their graduates DON'T CARE about the truth!!!

"I've stood for more sneers and scoffs and insults and had my life threatened from one end of the land to the other by this God-forsaken gang of thugs and cutthroats because I have come out uncompromisingly against them." —Billy Sunday

1.3.59 Does Obedience To God Bring Financial Blessing? (2020-05-22 00:30)

1st Timothy 6:4-8, " He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself. But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment let us be therewith content."

Somebody recently asked me a question—Does obeying God bring spiritual health and financial blessing? To answer that question, in my humble thinking, we need to separate the two things of spiritual health from financial blessing, because they have nothing to do with each other. I am totally against the demonic health, wealth and prosperity false gospel being preached by Pat Roberson, T.D. Jakes, Creflo Dollar, Joel Osteen, Oral Roberts, Joyce Meyer, Benny Hinn and countless others nowadays. Lazarus was a beggar, but he is the good guy in the story (Luke 16:19-31). David said he never saw the righteous begging for bread (Psalms 37:25), but he never saw Lazarus! Jesus was poor. His parents couldn't afford a lamb, so they bought some turtle doves instead (Luke 2:24). When a famine came to the land of Israel, Elijah begged a widow for food (1st Kings 17:7-16. The Bible says **"

a poor man is better than a liar

" (Proverbs 19:22), which suggests that sometimes doing the right thing either makes or keeps one poor.

Obeying God does not bring financial success. Often it brings the opposite. 2nd Timothy 3:12 says we will SUFFER persecution for living godly in Christ Jesus. When a believer chooses not to live in willful sin with the heathen world, and we raise a banner for Jesus, the world will hate and reject us (John 15:19; 7:7). The early believers were stoned, run out of town, murdered, sawn in pieces, hid in caves, et cetera (Hebrews 11:37). I read a couple weeks ago that [1]11,500 Christians have been murdered since 2015 just in Nigeria. Of course, some of those include unsaved Catholics who profess to be Christian, but the people killing them don't discern the difference between true and false Christians—they just kill anybody who dares to name the name of Jesus!

Greedy Televangelists Belong In Prison

In my humble opinion, Pat Robertson belongs in prison! The 700 Club take in $670,000,000 a year on average, by deceiving people with the LIE that God will bless them in exchange for a donation. Millions of Americans give their money to Pat Robertson in their woeful ignorance, being coddled by the TV and seeing poor people living in a new trailer home that The 700 Club bought for them. In one episode, a woman in a third world country was given a water filtration system by The 700 Club so she could drink clean water. Aren't they such nice people? Oh how generous they are! People are extremely gullible, easily taken advantage of. More than anything else, The 700 Club is cleverly scripted and choreographed just right to pull the heart strings, and it works. Sadly, such deception is legal. The 700 Club claims to have clairvoyant powers to heal people through the TV. Folks, that is NOT the power of the Holy Spirit, it is a familiar spirit (a demon).

The greatest things in life are not things! Jesus said that eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, the wonderful things which God has prepared for them that love Him; "But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit" (1st Corinthians 2:10b). These wonderful things are THE TRUTHS which the indwelling Holy Spirit gives to us. I am continually overjoyed with the truth, that I am a born-again child of God, that I am on the winning side in Christ Jesus, that God has promised me " all things and that God has made me "joint-heirs with Christ" the only begotten Son of God (Romans 8:17).

Literally, God has adopted us as if we are the Son of God Himself, bestowing all the SAME blessings and rights to us as Christ has, all because we received Christ as our personal Savior.

What an awesome deal! Best of all, anybody can have it ALL FOR FREE, just by believing the Gospel!!!

The Greatest Things In Life Are Not Things

There are many Biblical principles on money, and it is an important and intriguing subject; but the two most important truths, I think, anybody can learn is that everything we own already belongs to God as Christians (1st Corinthians 6:20); and also that the love of money is the root of all evil (1st Timothy 6:10). Too many Christians are covetous, having no interest in soulwinning. I think it is important that every Christian learn that a person can be in utter poverty and still be 100 % right with God. Financial blessing is not an indicator of God's blessings. Most saints are found among the poor and lowly people of this world, not among the rich and famous. You see, rich people already think they have a little heaven on earth, so they have no interest in the things of God.

I get sad when I think about Brother Lester Roloff's dilapidated plane crashing in 1982. Thousands of billionaires could have bought Brother Roloff a new safe plane, but rich people don't care about funding God's servants. I just checked Mark Zuckerberg's net worth, which is presently at $70,000,000,000. Mark professed for many years to be an atheist, but now claims to believe in God, boasting of how wonderful Buddhism is! Kindly said, if Mark died right now he would split Hell wide open. The Bible warns in James 2:19, "Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble." You don't get your sins forgiven by believing in God.

Unfortunately, Mark still rejects Jesus Christ as his Savior. Of America's 2,000,000 Jews, one-third are professed Buddhists! Buddhism is a false religion, having no tenets except to be nice to everyone. No one who followed Buddhism ever got to Heaven!!! You are a guilty sinner dear reader (Romans 3:10-23), and sinners are not allowed into Heaven (1st Corinthians 6:9-10). Therefore you need a Savior! His precious name is Jesus (1st Peter 2:7; Acts 4:10-12). The Savior died on the cross for your sins and mine. He was buried. After three days Jesus physically resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). Anyone who comes to God as a needy sinner, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for their sins, is immediately and permanently and forever saved. Thank you Lord!

Look at John the Baptist. The guy had nothing, literally. He ate bugs, wore the hairy skin of camels and drank water (Matthew 3:4). John lived off the land and didn't need a penny to survive. John was a strange fellow with whom the average person could not even relate. When a group of men went out to visit John, they weren't impressed (Matthew 11:7-8). God hath chosen the poor things of this world rich in faith (James 2:5), and warns that most rich men won't enter into Heaven (Matthew 19:24). It is interesting that the one thing people seem to desire the most in churches today is money, and that is the last thing God wants us to have, lest it destroy us (1st Timothy 6:10-11).

Time And Chance Happens To Everyone

God loves you so much dear reader. You may be unemployed. A tornado may have just destroyed your home. Your child may have died. Your car may have blown a connecting rod in the engine. Maybe your house burned down and you didn't have fire insurance. It could be that your spouse divorced you (as mine sadly did in 2006). You may have lost your home (as I did because of the divorce). None of these things has anything to do with whether or not you are right with God, or whether the Lord loves you or not. LIFE HAPPENS!!! Life often is anything but fair! Why does a crack addict mother have the privilege to bear children that she doesn't want, but the godly Christian woman's womb is barren? I don't understand why God allows that. In fact, it makes me angry at God sometimes, but I choose to TRUST HIM no matter what (Job 13:15). Here is a beautiful MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles titled: '[2]You Can't Reason With God.'

What saith the Scripture?

Ecclesiastes 9:11, "I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all. " That one Bible verse explains so much! It doesn't matter how wise, wealthy, talented, skilled or strong you are—time and chance happens to everybody!!! Yes, there is such a thing as luck! That is why your child may have been killed by a speeding car right after you got laid off from your job, despite the fact that you serve the Lord faithfully; but the ungodly atheist abortion doctor down the street, enjoyed Christmas with his healthy children and received a big bonus at work! That is how life works!!! Life is not fair, but God is! I won't put God on trial because I do not understand Him. Obedience to God doesn't guarantee happiness here on earth, but the Lord promises " all things work together for good to them that love God" (Romans 8:28b).

> "There is nothing in this world that is eternal except this Book that I hold in my hand."

1.3.60 Secular Professor Sees Danger Of Changing Bibles (2020-05-22 11:00)

Hebrews 11:1, "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen."

I was doing some research today and ran across an interesting article at Psychology Today . We hear so much downplaying from religious leaders these days concerning all the different revisions of the Bible. The only crowd which genuinely seems to care and love the Bible enough, to make a big fuss over it, is the beloved King James Bible bunch. The only inspired Words of God today in the English language are in the King James Bible! Proverbs 30:5, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him."

Secular intellectual historian, English teacher, and expert in 19th century psychology—Professor Christopher Lane—in his article titled: "[1]FAITH ACCORDING TO THE BIBLE(S)," proclaims what many Christians still refuse to admit, that is, "that even minor changes in translation have dramatic implications for the way people view and understand their faith." Professor Lane says:

> "Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." So runs the celebrated line in Hebrews 11:1, the rationale that underpins so much of the Judeo-Christian tradition. According to that rationale, as the writer of the Epistle puts it, faith is a summation of hope and evidence apparently lies in "things not seen"—in the invisible and ineffable.
> Considering the importance of the line in Hebrews as an anchor to Judeo-Christian belief and faith, it's worth noting—as [2]websites detailing various editions of the Bible underscore—that even minor changes in translation have dramatic implications for the way people view and understand their faith."
> SOURCE: '[3]Faith According to the Bible(s)' | Psychology Today (May 11, 2012)

Again, the controversial "line in Hebrews" that Dr. Lane refers to is Hebrews 11:1, "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." Professor Lane points out that Bible translators have been changing the Bible from one generation to the next, drastically stating different meanings of what faith is...

> “The line I quoted was from the King James version of the Bible, dating from the 17th century and treated as current at least until the end of the 19th. But when the English Revised Version appeared between 1881 and 1885 (with the New Testament appearing before the Old), after an army of scholars labored to render the Hebrew, Greek and Latin Vulgate more reliable than before, the celebrated line in Hebrews appeared quite differently.”

Professor Lane brings attention to a critically important and epidemic problem in churches today, that is, we have so many Bible versions that for anyone to claim that their Bible is perfect and inspired holds no credibility anymore. People are confused. Every time that someone publishes a “new” Bible version and professes it to be God’s Word—it is like the boy who cried “wolf” so much that no one in the village believed him anymore. There have been over 400 different versions of the English Bible published since the Authorized Version of 1611 (later called the King James Version) was published.

[4]Should They Be Changing The Holy Bible?

Sadly, most people have lost faith in the Bible because of all the contradictions between the umpteen versions. Professor Lane further states in his secular opinion that the Bible is “far from reliable,” because its meaning has been “altered by successive generations of translators, each hoping to put their indelible stamp on it, to cast its ever-changing message as fixed and eternal.” That is exactly why the Devil published a second authority (i.e., the Vaticanus Sinaiticus Greek text published by Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort in 1881), which challenged the veracity of the time-tested King James Bible (which was translated from an entirely different text, the Textus Receptus). Only a fool for a pastor refuses to discern that Satan is behind the publishing of literally HUNDREDS of English Bible revisions since 1881. Consequently, as this secular English professor truthfully points out, the modern revisions are FAR FROM RELIABLE...

> “Faith is the substance of things hoped for" became a psychological proposition, as William James made clear in The Will to Believe (1896), even as he defended that stance and worried about faith trying to express itself "in the language of the gaming-table." As James well-knew, the devout understandably want to view their faith as inevitable—as existing beyond chance, contingency and debate.

> Close examination of key passages in the Bible underscores, by contrast, that the book they worship is far from reliable, its meaning altered by successive generations of translators, each hoping to put their indelible stamp on it, to cast its ever-changing message as fixed and eternal.”

It is a sign of these apostate times in which we live, that America’s churches have embraced multiple Bible revisions, many eagerly swapping out their beloved King James Bible for another translation every few years. The consequence is a world filled with hundreds of Bible versions—all of which say different things and confuse most people, especially those seeking the truth. The reason why I am so hard in my preaching against the Bob Jones’ crowd is because at one time BJU was the citadel of Bible fundamentalism in the world. Today they are an ecumenical nightmare, and Dr. Steve Petite needs to be fired, so they can bring in [5]a genuine man of God who is not a fool.

Having Multiple Versions Discourages Memorizing The Bible

One of the most detrimental consequences of continually changing Bibles is that the motivation to memorize the Words of God is all but completely lost. Who wants to memorize a Bible that’s not going to be popular anymore in 5-10 years? I grew up with the King James Bible, it’s the ONLY Bible that I use now, and I will die using the King James Bible. I have memorized hundreds of Scriptures which are helpful and precious to me. You couldn't offer me all the wealth, pleasures nor fame in this world to part with my beloved King James Bible.

Besides, the English literary beauty is unsurpassed in which the King James Bible is written. God knew what He was doing, giving us an English Bible for these Last Days. It's not a coincidence that English is fast-becoming the international language. There will NEVER be another Bible translation for this world until the Lord Jesus Christ returns, other than the preserved and inspired King James Bible. Please read, [6]The Importance Of Thee And Thou.

It is tragic that most people don't view the Bible as being special, from God. Most people think of the Bible as a Jewish history book, but it's oh so much more. The Bible came forth from God, every Word. It is "by faith" that faithful Christians today continue to use the reliable and Christ-honoring King James Bible. Beware of the Bible-correcting crowd who think they know more than the 53 scholars who translated the King James Bible.

The only reliable English Bible today is the authorized 1611 King James Bible. God's Words have been preserved in the English speaking language of the King James translation. As the King James translators said themselves...

> "We never thought from the beginning, that we should need to make a new Translation, nor yet to make of a bad one a good one ... but to make a good one better."
> SOURCE: [7]Preface to the King James Bible

As believers are being led astray from the true Word of God—they are falling into heresy, compromise, and even apostasy. The King James Bible is powerful. Listen to the words of Hebrews 4:12 in the King James Bible... "For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart."

Don't trade in your double-edge Sword for a plastic knife! Have you been deceived?

“Be on guard against any tampering with the Word, whether disguised as a search for truth, or a scholarly attempt at apparently hidden meanings; and beware of the confusion created by the senseless rash of new versions, translations, editions, and improvements upon the tried and tested Bible of our fathers and grandfathers.” —Pastor M.R. 1.3.61 Some Wicked People Just Don’t Care (2020-05-23 00:00)

Acts 28:27, “ For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them."

I [1]wrote a helpful articles about our text passage, in which I explain that God isn't saying some people cannot be saved; but rather, some people are indifferent, and as they repeatedly hear the truth their heart becomes hardened. That is what has happened to the Bob Jones University (BJU) crowd today. After their founder's graduation to Heaven (Bob Jones, 1883-1968), BJU changed for the worse, going along with the evil Bible-corrupting movement instead of exposing it. Ephesians 5:11, "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret." In an ironic twist, a[2] secular English professor warns about the danger of the new Bible revisions, while today's a so-called " couldn't care less. Talk about indifference!!! It is wickedness!

Bible colleges

Proverbs 30:5, " Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him." Not just the message is pure,m but EVERY WORD of God is pure!!!

Faithful preachers (Peter Ruckman, Jack Hyles, Martin DeHaan, Al Lacy, James Sightler, to name but a few) have been WARNING the religious world for the past century, but few have listened to their wisdom. Kindly said, we've got a bunch of educated fools in our Bible colleges and church pulpits today, who have no regard for THE TRUTH. Proverbs 23:9, "Speak not in the ears of a fool: for he will despise the wisdom of thy words." John 15:22, " If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin. " The [3]Bob Jones crowd have no cloak for their sin, because they have been repeatedly warned. [4]I have warned them as much as anybody, and by God's grace will continue to do so as a true friend does. Fire, fire, the house is on fire! Get out while you still can! Danger, the modern Bible revisions have been corrupted by Satan! Today's Devil's Bibles are set in fire of Hell, get out while you still can! Please don't be deceived, the Devil is a beautiful liar!!!

Jesus said in John 15:22 that if He had not told them THE TRUTH, then the people under the sound of His voice would not have been guilty; but they were warned, and no longer could they claim ignorance! I guarantee you that when we all stand before God in judgment in eternity, most people (including the Bob Jones crowd) will scamper in desperation looking for excuses. They will claim they didn't know any better. Others will say that followed the professors at some Bible college and try to blame them. Some will dishonestly claim they were deceived and it isn't there fault; but it will be their fault, those who have read my articles and heard my preaching (and the preaching of other men of God). What saith the Scripture?

Proverbs 24:12, " If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?" I am not a good Christian in my estimation, and I have many faults, but I have been faithful to PREACH THE TRUTH OF THE WORD OF GOD!! These modern revisions are Devil's Bibles!!!

Satan Was The First To Question The Word Of God

There is no liar like the lying pastor or Bible professor, who teaches that the King James Bible is not inspired. I am tired of hearing doubting preachers say that the King James Bible is "

THE BEST

Bible. By

"best" they mean it is not perfect and has mistakes in it! No dear friend, the inspired King James Bible is the only Bible we have in English today. Thank God, we already have ' [5]THE BOOK THAT MAKES THE DIFFERENCE! ' The Devil is the father of all liars (John 8:44), and the evil spiritual force behind the Bible corrupting movement worldwide. Satan knows that the most effective lie is the half-truth, because in part it can be defended with incontestable logic.

Respectfully, why won't [6]First Baptist Church of Hammond listen? Why don't they care about Bible inspiration? In his awesome sermon titled: '[7]THE REAL BATTLE,' Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001) says: "Bob Jones... they make light on the verbal inspiration!" How tragic it is that just ten years after going to Heaven, that the inspiration of the King James Bible would be MADE LIGHT OF from the very pulpit in which Pastor Hyles championed that great truth!!! Today, the First Baptist Church of Hammond (and consequently Hyles-Anderson College) is a DEAD STICK! They are still going strong soulwinning, and I am humbly proud of them for upholding dress codes at the college from which I so grateful attended and graduated (1985-1993). But it saddens me to know that HAC has gone the way of BJU, making light of Bible inspiration. If inspiration is not a big deal, then why won't they say it? Why won't they just come out and say that THE KING JAMES BIBLE IS INSPIRED? It is you know!

The three biggest problems that I see in fundamentalism today are complacency, unqualified pastors and indifference! No pastor is qualified to lead who cannot figure out which Holy Bible God authored! Since they all disagree, they cannot all be God's Word. Either Jesus thought it not robbery to be " in Philippians 2:6 (as the KJB says), or else He thought equality not

EQUAL WITH GOD

A THING TO BE GRASPED

" (ESV). I care folks! I care which Bible God authored. I care about the purity of God's Words (and so does He - Psalms 138:2). I care about the clarity and accuracy of the Gospel. The churches are a muck with all sorts of Bible versions and heresies galore nowadays. Somebody needs to take a stand for the Lord.

Do you know that all the [8]new Bible revisions butcher Psalms 12:6-7, removing God's PROMISE to preserve His PURE WORDS. I am sick of hearing corrupt Baptists say that God inspired His words only in the "

and then they say God preserved those words for us today. By leaving off inspiration, they open a Pandora's Box of lending credence to the [9]Alexandrian cult of hundreds of Bible PERversions! What good would verbal inspiration be if at best all we have is a manmade Bible today? Think about that if you will!

Here is [10]a helpful article on Bible inspiration . John Wesley (1703-1791) was right: "What one generation tolerates the next will embrace."

There is nothing more important in this universe than the inspiration of the Word of God. By "inspired" I mean they are God's perfect Words, not the " translation sinful, mortal, flawed and educated men could muster together. I find NO FAULT in the inspired King James Bible!

Psalms 19:7, " The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple." The modern Bible revisions aren't even reliable, let alone perfect! The new versions have [11]wrongly redefined the meaning of repentance to require changing your life to be saved, which is a false gospel. Only wicked people don't care! I care and so should you about the inspiration of God's Word.

1.3.62 Misunderstood Repentance (2020-05-24 11:00)

Galatians 3:2, “This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?”

In Dr. Jack Hyle’s excellent book, ’Enemies of Soulwinning’ in his chapter titled, ’[1]Misunderstood Repentance,’ he correctly states:

> “So, from what must a person repent in order to be saved? He must repent of that which makes him lost. Since "believing not" makes him lost, ’believing’ makes him saved. In repentance there is a turning from the thing that keeps him from being saved to the thing that saves him. So, yes, there is a repentance from unbelief in order to believe. It is simply a change of direction. It means a turning around. You are going away from believing, and you decide to turn around and believe. You change your direction; you change your mind. With your will you believe and rely upon Christ to save you. In order to believe, you have to repent of unbelief. That which makes a man lost must be corrected.

Pastor Danny Castle correctly says:

> “You are not saved by repenting, you are saved by your faith in Jesus Christ.”

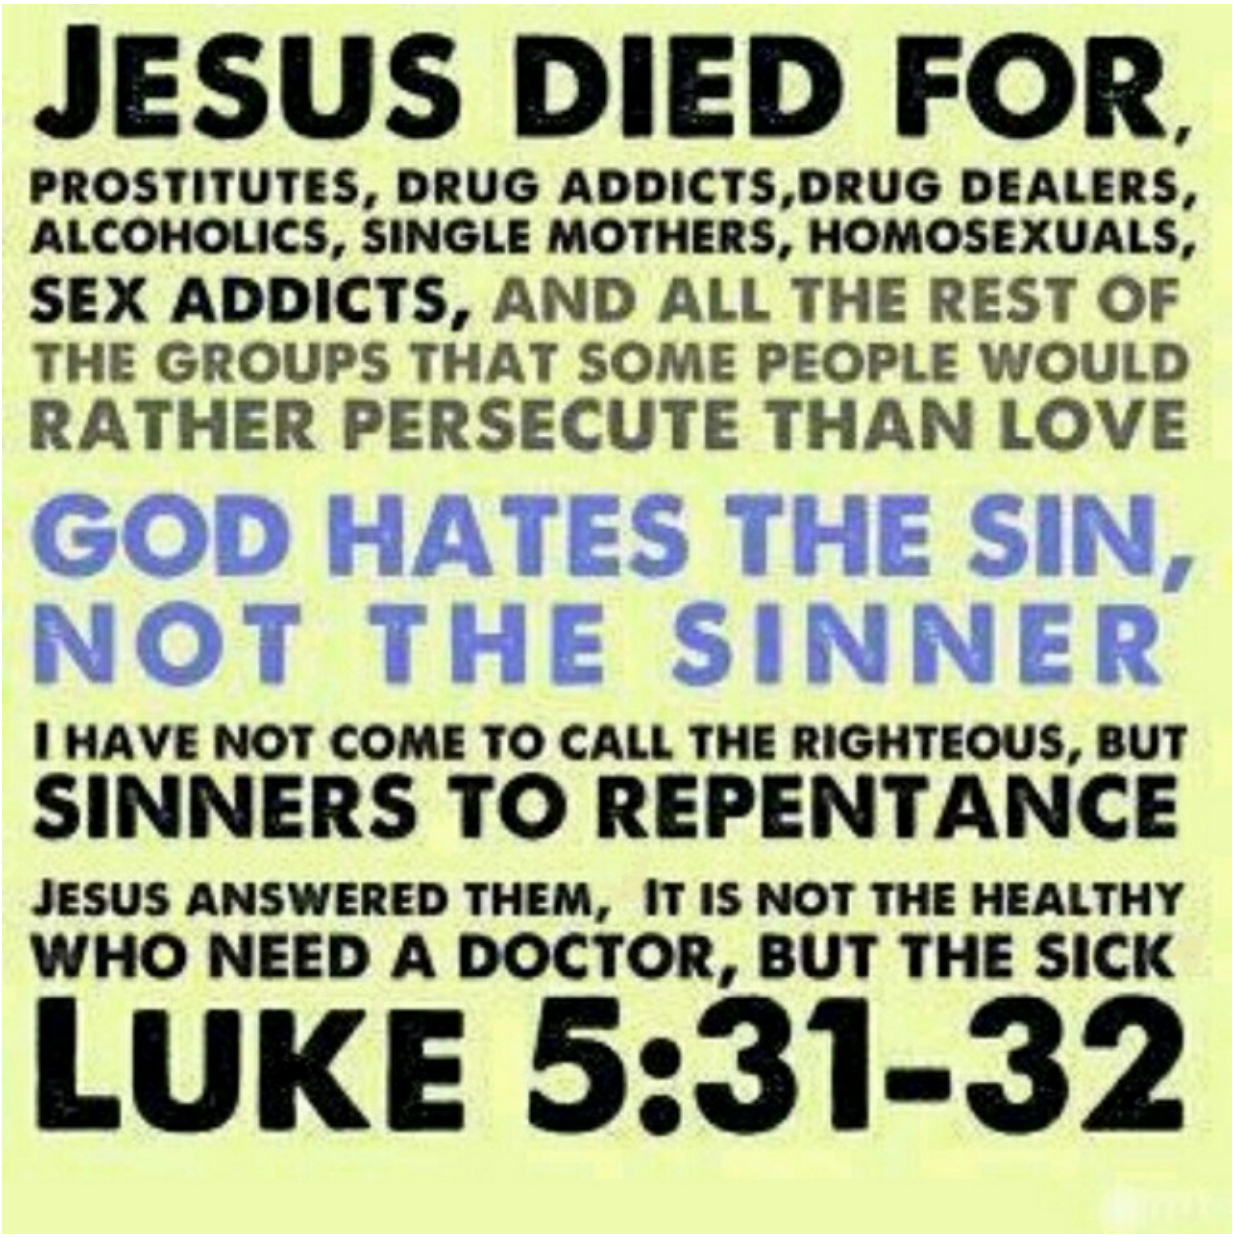
Pastor Danny Castle, a quote from the 2016 sermon titled, “[3]Acting Responsibly.”



I take seriously every word that I type onto the internet, as I realize every word must be accounted for in eternity (Matthew 12:36). I regularly think about articles which I have written, and edit or remove them if the Lord convicts me about anything. I want to be as accurate and honoring in my work for the Lord as possible. All heresy begins by sincere preachers who are misled by other preachers, or who misinterpret the Word of God. By God’s grace my intent is to help provide helpful resources for other Christians. That’s why I make a fuss over little things. If a preacher is wrong on repentance, he’ll be wrong to some degree on everything else too.

There is ONLY one meaning of “repentance” for salvation, which is “a change of mind” (Greek: metanoia). This is the noun form of the word. The verbal form is metanoeo, which means “to think differently”! Mark 1:15b, “Repent ye, and believe the Gospel.” Exegeted, Mark 1:15 literally says, “Think differently and believe that Jesus Christ died on the cross for your sins, was buried, and bodily resurrected the third day.”

In contrast, the dictionary defines the word “reform” as, “self-improvement in behavior or morals by abandoning some vice.” Repentance in the Bible doesn’t mean reform. Repentance is just as brother Hyles said—turning toward the Gospel (belief) from whatever was keeping you lost (unbelief)! We are saved by believing the Gospel (Good News) of the Lord Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen. Repentance and belief are so inseparably related that the Bible often simply tells us to “believe.” It is impossible for a person to turn to the Gospel by faith, without at the same time turning away from that which had hindered them previously from coming to Jesus Christ (John 3:20). Thank God for the beauty of His simple plan of salvation!

2nd Timothy 2:15, " Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

You have to be careful looking at the Greek study aids and concordances, as many of them have been corrupted. The Roman Catholic Church wrongly defines repentance as:

Catholic Dictionary

Term:

REPENTANCE

Definition:

Voluntary sorrow because it offends God, for having done something wrong, together with the resolve to amend one's conduct by taking the necessary means to avoid the occasions of sin. To repent is to be sorry for sin with self-condemnation. (Etym. Latin repoenitere, to be very sorry, regret intensely.)

SOURCE: [1]https://www.catholicculture.org/culture/library/dictionary/index.cfm?id=36048

Judas is a perfect example of why the Roman Catholic definition of "repentance" is unbiblical. The Bible says that Judas "repented" (Greek: metamellomaiin, meaning, "to regret") in Matthew 27:3b. Yet, Jesus said Judas had a devil (John 6:70). Judas didn't repent toward God in faith to be saved; but rather, he felt regret that he got caught for betraying the Lord. Judas merely felt remorse, which is penitence not repentance; and then he tried to return the 30 pieces of silver, which is penance, not repentance. Judas woeful lacked true repentance (to think differently) toward God which brings regeneration (the new birth). Judas brought the 30 pieces of silver back to the Pharisees, but they refused it. Judas cast down the coins on the floor and went and hanged himself (Matthew 27:5). Feeling sorry for one's sins and turning from them is not repentance, and cannot produce salvation.

I have a copy of Dr. William Vine's "Complete Expository Dictionary Of Old And New Testament Words." The book is co-authored by Dr. Merrill F. Unger and Dr. William White Jr. On page 525 under the topic "Repent, Repentance," it says:

> 1. metanoeo... "to perceive afterwards" (meta ", after," implying change, noeo, "to perceive"; nous, "the mind, the seat of moral reflection"), ... always in the NT, involving a change for the better, an amendment, and always... of "repentance" from sin.

Dr. Vine and his co-writers completely fail to expound the magnificent meaning of the verb metanoeo, which means "to think differently" (verb). The noun form of the word is metanoia and means, "a change of mind." Since we don't know what the change of mind is toward, we need supplemental information. Acts 20:21 speaks of "REPENTANCE TOWARD GOD." Thus, repentance is unto a holy God, from whatever hinders a person from coming to the light of the Gospel to be saved (2nd Corinthians 4:4).

I dislike Dr. Vine's teaching that repentance means "an amendment" (which means to improve or better in quality). This is the English meaning of the word "repent," and not the Biblical Greek meaning of the term.

Amending one's ways is not part of Biblical repentance for salvation. We are saved by believing the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, not by repenting; but no man has ever believed who didn't repent. It's like flipping a coin—You cannot turn one side without also turning the other side.

This is why the apostle John mentions the words “believe” and “believed” 85 times, but never mentions the word “repent” even once in the Gospel of John. The man who believes has also repented (i.e., changed his mind toward God from whatever it was that had hindered him from coming to Christ previously). For some men like Dr. Stephen Hawking, intellectualism and bitterness hinder them from getting saved. For others, like the Hollywood crowd, their love for sin and wealth hinder them from coming to Jesus Christ. For billions of people, false religion blinds them from the truth of the Gospel, hindering them from being saved. Simply receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He raised up from the dead three days later, and you are forever saved.

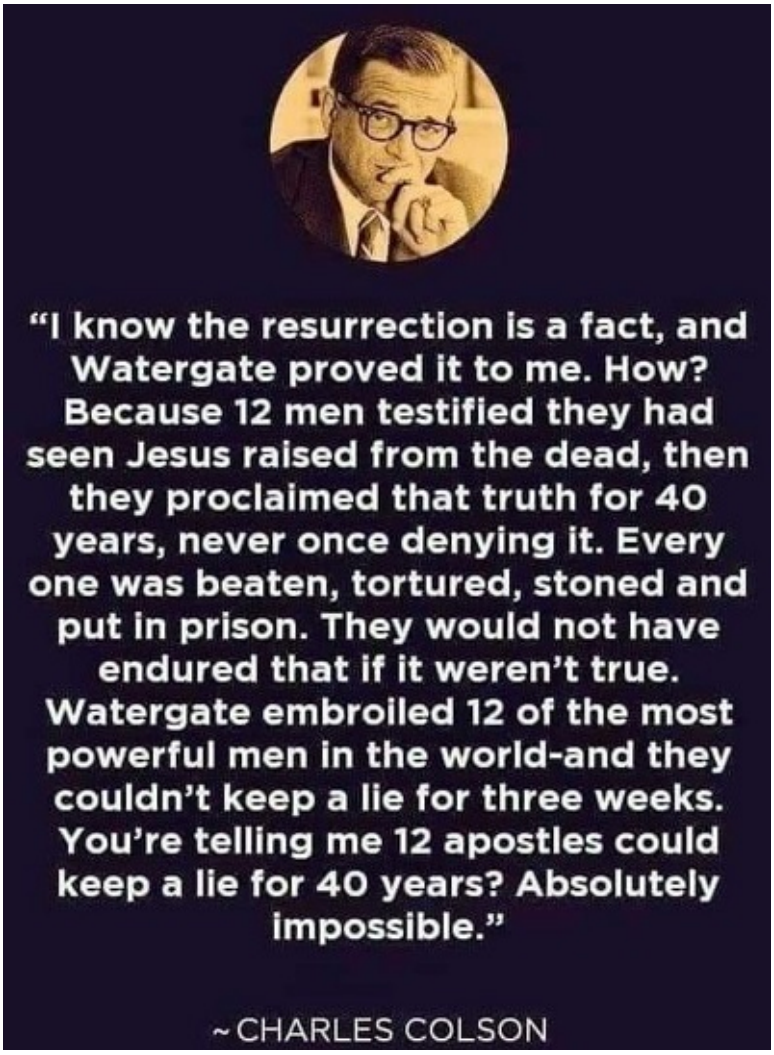
Dr. Jack Hyles 100 % correctly and Biblically states concerning repentance:

> “Repentance is not some little silly, ’I’m sorry.’ Repentance is not simply a fear of God. Repentance is not a monk fasting and afflicting his body in a monastery. Repentance is not remorse because of sin’s consequences. Repentance is not penance performed before the pope as you kiss his toe… Repentance is not being sorry for what I’ve done wrong. It is not confessing one’s sins to a priest. It is not just conviction of sin. It is not the signing of a pledge of abstinence. Repentance is that thing when you come before God and see yourself as you are, and see Him as he is, and say with Isaiah ’Woe is me, for I am unclean!”’ —Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), a quote from the timeless MP3 sermon, ’[2]THE GOODNESS OF GOD LEADETH TO REPENTANCE!’

Pastor Bob Gray Sr. at the Longview Baptist Temple church in Texas correctly preaches . . .

> “Repentance means to change your mind—change your mind—change your mind about how you want to get to Heaven to what God says you’ve got to do to get to Heaven. If you’ve got to repent of all your sins, you’re still headed for Hell tonight.” —Pastor Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the awesome MP3 sermon, ’[3]Why You Should Be A Part Of A Growing Church’

In his excellent book, I NEVER KNEW YOU, Michael Patrick Bowen states . . .



You can live for Christ, you can love Christ, you can serve Him with all your might, time, talent and wealth. You can pray to Hi m, read your Bible, get water-baptized, join a church, witness to people, and do every wonderful work contained within the realm of Christianity, but if you fail to trust Jesus Christ alone for your salvation, He will “dump” you.

1.3.64 Always Be On Guard (2020-05-25 12:44)

Proverbs 10:1, “My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.”

Sin is everywhere! I was playing my steel guitar at Waikiki Beach in Honolulu, Hawaii in 2011 years ago. An attractive middle aged white couple came up and complimented my music. They saw that my neck pain was making it difficult for me to carry my equipment to the hotel where I was staying, so they kindly offered to help. We sat in the hotel lobby for awhile. All of a sudden, right in front of her husband, she started lifting up her skirt to me, asking if we could all go up to my hotel room. I carefully didn’t respond, simply looking at her husband, and I pretended I hadn’t seen anything.

I realized later they were swingers, staying at a gay hotel a block north of the Queen Kapiolani Hotel where I was staying. Needless to say that made an impression in my mind. I befriended them with God’s love. When they left, I kindly waved goodbye, and saw the man scolding his wife. I had told them I was a Christian at the beginning of our conversation, so I am not sure what he said to her. If I hadn’t been living a life of staying right with the Lord, instinctively doing what was right, I would have gladly accepted her invite to commit adultery. Please read our text Bible verse again dear reader, Proverbs 10:1, “My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.”

Sin will ALWAYS present itself to you, I don’t care who you are. Life is all about making a series of decisions, each and every day. The decisions that we make today will affect tomorrow. Sin is fun, or else people wouldn’t do it. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 20:17, “Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel.” I am so glad that I didn’t accept her invitation to sin that day in the privacy of my hotel room; but to be honest, there is a sinful part of my soul that wishes I had.

If her husband hadn’t been present, it might have been a completely different story. I am single, living alone, so I have to be careful and be on guard. We all struggle with sin, in different areas.

It all really comes down to how much you love God. It is indeed possible to love the Lord, and yet still commit a horrible sin in your life, simply because your priorities are wrong. Can a man truly love his wife and cheat on her? Yes, it is possible, but he does not have a perfect love for her. His personal character is tainted and corrupt. This television generation is always at the brink of sinning, weak and demoralized by the filth on TV.

All normal healthy men struggle with sexual sins, which we read about in 1st Peter 2:11, "Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; " A war is comprised of individual battles. It all starts in the mind! The lusts of the flesh are incredibly powerful temptations, for both men and women (but especially men), and the way to win the war is to prepare for each battle with the inspired Word of God. Memorize helpful Scriptures! Psalms 119:9, "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word." Psalms 119:11, "Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee."

Listen to plenty of [1]fundamental Bible preaching. Surround yourself with Christian friends who desire to think, live and do right at all times! Living right is a yoke of wood, it is frustrating; but succumbing to sin eventually brings a yoke of iron. It may not happen right away, and you may think you are getting away with sin, but judgment day is inevitable (Hebrews 9:27; Hebrews 13:4). No one can escape the judgment of God (Hebrews 4:13; Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; Romans 14:10-12).

Nothing escapes the sight of God (Psalms 139:1-6). Ecclesiastes 8:12-13, " Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him: But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God." If you can sin without any conviction from the indwelling Holy Spirit, then you are not saved.

1st John 3:15, " Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him." I hate the sins that I have committed in my life. I wish I could go back and take the high road instead of the low road. I am thankful for most of the times that I chose the high path. All it takes is five minutes to destroy your entire life!!! Albeit, a person's mistakes do not define who they are.

Moreover, I thank God for the precious blood of Jesus that redeems us as sinners. 1st John 1:7b, " the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin." Always be on guard against temptation rearing its ugly head. But if you have sinned, "Go and sin no more," as Jesus told the woman caught in the act of adultery in John chapter eight. John 3:17 says Jesus did not come into the world to condemn anyone, but to save sinners! Amen! The Law of God already condemns the human race because of sin (Galatians 3:10). As with a curious child who needs to touch a hot stove, before learning not to touch things; so also do people need to be burned by sin, to learn not to play with the Devil's fire! [2]We don't hear enough Bible preaching today against sin! That is why the altars are empty in the churches at invitation time. Sin thrills and then it kills. Sin fascinates and then it assassinates.

Titus 2:3-5, " The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things; That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children, To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed."

I heard a great sermon clip today from one of my favorite preachers, Pastor Steven L. Anderson. The clip is called, what else, '[1]Whose Vineyard Are You Keeping?' What a great truth! American society has been destroyed from deliberate social engineering since the 1960's by the Rockefellers. Feminism has ruined tens of millions of homes! From fornication to abortion, feminism is the rot of any culture, which is why many countries block out perverse western culture. Truly, the USA is '[2]The Great Satan.'

When a women waits on her husband hand and foot, as a servant, she is labeled by secular heathen society as a doormat. Liberals consider her a slave, doing a demeaning job, cooped up like an animal; but when a woman is a servant for complete strangers in a restaurant, she is considered acceptable. I once heard a young woman make the shameful statement: "I'm not waiting on any man hand and foot!" This was a Christian woman who had attended a fundamental Bible college for a couple years, but her heart wasn't right with God, and she had a wrong attitude. She quit Bible college and started working in a night club tavern. Before long she started committing adultery with a professional Hockey player for the Chicago Black Hawks. After having a fling, that wicked man shunned the young woman, who had fallen in love with him, because he didn't want to divorce his wife. So that young woman had a nervous breakdown, eventually getting into illegal drugs and after floating around from one job to another, out of church and a mess, died of a drug overdose. Satan is a beautiful liar young people! The Devil will destroy your life IF YOU LET HIM!

That young lady made several mistakes. First, she never should have quit church. S he never should have left Bible college.

She never should have went to work in a night club and bar. She never should have allowed a bad attitude to creep into her mind, succumbing to peer pressure. She never should have adopted the world's ungodly attitude that she wasn't going to wait on any man hand and foot. Staying in the Word of God is the only defense you have against all these things! I am warning you young people—This sick, perverse, gender-bending, reprobate, perverse would today will have you turned around backwards if you let them. GET INTO THE KING JAMES BIBLE!!! Think like God thinks by studying His inspired Word. Philippians 2:5, " Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

Little things affect big things. That young woman's small attitude problems led to a gigantic destroyed life! If you think that it is demeaning for a woman to be a keeper at home, in subjection to her own husband, you have a hole big enough in your head to drive a semi truck through! I know what I'm talking about. Little attitude changes can adversely affect your life my friend. You need to memorize the six verses of Psalms chapter 1...

Psalms 1:1-6, "

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly*, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

This world is absolutely filled with ungodly advice. Sin in everywhere! There is no job as important, worthy, honorable and rewarding as being a wife and mother at home! Would to God that all women were married and keepers at home. I am sick of Bob Jones University producing more nurses, who are 40 year old virgins. They are religious and weird! Something is wrong with them, warped by the unbiblical mindset that they need a career instead of a husband and children. Listen young woman, God didn't create you to be a nurse, or a secretary somewhere, God made you to STAND BY YOUR MAN!

1.3.66 Crucifixes Are Wrong To Use (2020-05-26 10:30)

Hebrews 9:23-28, " It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us: Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others; For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

Jesus only needed to offer Himself as a sacrifice once. This is what is wrong with the Catholic crucifix—they keep Jesus on the cross. In the Catholic mass, participants actually believe they are digesting the literal body and blood of Jesus Christ each time. This is why Mel Gibson's film, THE PASSION OF THE CHRIST, portrays Jesus being brutally whipped, punched and beaten every step of the way (which no human being could survive). Gibson's movie caters to the Catholic mass, in which they believe Jesus is continually sacrificed again and again. Yet the Bible proclaims that Jesus died ONCE. They call this the doctrine of transubstantiation, which is unscriptural. Jesus is NO longer on the cross.

Also, every crucifix I've ever seen makes Jesus' look decrepit and sickly. Our Lord was a carpenter, and they didn't have power tools back then. Jesus was a strong man, healthy, and not some sissified looking wimp. Catholics have some strange ideas of Christ.

Jesus died on the cross, was buried to confirm His death, and then rose miraculously three days later. Christ is alive! Thank the Lord for His mercy, for paying for our many sins with His precious blood. Colossians 1:14, "In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins." Jesus is not still on the cross. Catholics have some strange beliefs, one of which is their teaching of

Transubstantiation

" (the heresy that the wafer and juice in the Eucharist literally turns into Jesus' blood and body in one's stomach). Catholics believe that Jesus is crucified again every time they partake of this sacrament. The crucifix is tied in with this demonic teaching and religious ritual. No Christian should use crucifixes, which is a form of idolatry (Exodus 20:4-5).

Exodus 20:4-5, " Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; "

1.3.67 The Insane Dinosaur Theory Of Young Earthers (2020-05-27 01:17)

Psalms 102:25, "Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands."

Someone handed me a book recently, trying to convince me of a Young Earth theory. I explained to them my Old Earth position, but told them that I would read the book with an open mind and be honest. The book is titled, "THE CREATION ANSWERS BOOK," co-authored by Don Batten, David Catchpoole, Jonathan Sarfati, Carl Wieland and various other contributing writers. I learned a long time ago that someone's most ridiculous argument is the most damning information against them, which can be used to discredit the rest of their work or beliefs:

For example: Jehovah's Witnesses successfully confuse many unsaved people on the matter of Jesus' deity, teaching people that Jesus is "a god" but not "THE GOD." However, what Jehovah's Witnesses DON'T teach people upfront is that they believe Michael the archangel became Jesus. When you present this ridiculous information to an honest person, they can much more easily recognize the Jehovah's Witnesses as a satanic religious cult. Of course, the Word of God totally disagrees. The Bible teaches that the Godhead became incarnate (flesh) in the earthly person of Jesus Christ (John 1:1-3,14; Colossians 2:9 — King James Bible). The Bible teaches that Jesus is almighty God, the revelation of the unseen Father (1st Timothy 3:16; John 10:33; Revelation 1:8 — King James Bible).

Likewise, the most ridiculous information (argument) put forth in the book "THE CREATION ANSWERS BOOK" is concerning dinosaurs and man co-existing. The four authors teach that Noah took baby dinosaurs onto the ark, which is the same garbage that Ken Ham teaches. On pages 247-248 we read:

> "Given the different dinosaur species that have been identified, and the huge size of some of them [e.g., Seismosaurus, on the basis of fossil reconstructions attained > lengths of 45 metres (150 feet)], some people might wonder how Noah could have taken all the dinosaur kinds onto the Ark. However, when one considers the following, there is no problem.

> 1. Only around 55 dinosaur 'kinds'
> In Chapter 13, we discussed how Noah did not need to take all species (a notoriously flexible concept) on board the Ark, but only pairs of each created kind. The same principle applies to dinosaurs. So Noah's Ark did not have to carry the 668 or so named species of dinosaurs, rather, just the representative 'kinds' (Genesis 6:20)—of which it has been estimated there were only 55."
> SOURCE: "THE CREATION ANSWERS BOOK," copyright 2006 by Creative Ministries International; pages 247-248

At the bottom of page 248, the book has a footnote that claims there are many duplicate names for dinosaurs, and that the actual number of species is "greatly inflated." This claim may actually have some merit, as [1]National Geographic reports. However, as the National Geographic article says, there is not enough fossil evidence to prove the claim one way or the other. [2]Wikipedia says there is a list of 1,466 dinosaur species, of which 1,080 are considered valid. This is certainly much higher than the alleged 55 species that "THE CREATION ANSWERS BOOK" claims. The question is, "Could all those dinosaurs fit on the Ark?" I think not! The very idea is absurd!

Check out [3]this page from National Geographic's (check out those TEETH). Did Noah bring these onto the Ark? I think not! ...

> "After two centuries of paleontological harvest, the evidence seems stranger than any fable, and continues to get stranger. Dozens of new species emerge each year; China and Argentina are hot spots lately for startling new finds. Contemplating the bizarre specimens recently come to light, one cannot but wonder what on earth Nature was thinking of. What advantage was conferred, say, by the ungainly eight-foot-long (2.4 meters) arms and huge triple claws of Deinocheirus? Or, speaking of arms, by Mononykus's smug dependence on a single, stoutly clawed digit at the end of each minimal forearm? Guesses can be hazarded: The latter found a single stubby claw just the thing for probing after insects; the former stripped the leaves and bark from trees in awesome bulk. A carnivorous cousin, Deinonychus, about the size of a man, leaped on its prey, wrapped its long arms and three-fingered hands around it, and kicked it to the death with sickle-shaped toenails."

Read here about various species of [5]Titanosaurs which have been found by archaeologists. Noah's Ark would have to keep increasing in size like the mysterious growing mansion in Stephen King's popular 2002 horror film, "Rose Red," because more and more species of dinosaurs are being discovered every year! The ark was fairly big, but not THAT BIG! Look at some of these [6]Prehistoric Creatures. They're called "prehistoric" for a good reason, that is, they existed before human history!!!

When I went to Los Angeles for neck surgery in 2009, I visited the famous LA BREA TAR PITS MUSEUM in downtown Los Angeles. They are literal tar pits, stinking with hot bubbling black tar. Some squirrels and birds get entrapped in the tar pits by accident and die unintentionally. I watched them doing some live excavations inside the Museum, still digging up fossils and meticulously sorting through them with special equipment and a magnifying glass to find fossils.

I sincerely, but ignorantly, went inside and asked where the dinosaurs were? The attendant laughed and said there were no dinosaurs there, only prehistoric Mammals. I was fascinated by that. It is a special museum just for prehistoric mammals, and not for dinosaurs like [7]The Field Museum in Chicago. Inside the entrance was a giant Mammoth with giant tusks, and a Sabertooth tiger, and other hairy creatures as tall as the ceiling. How did Noah fit all the thousands of prehistoric mammals and creatures besides dinosaurs onto the ark? Clearly, Noah did not! Furthermore, even if dinosaurs did survive the flood, there is no record of them going extinct. Science shows that it was the Ice Age that wiped out the dinosaurs from the earth 65,000,000 years ago. [8]Visit The "La Brea Tar Pits" Online

I love Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980), but disagree with his Young Earth view. Dr. Rice believed that dinosaurs existed in Genesis, but that Noah left the dinosaurs behind. Brother Rice taught that dinosaurs lived in remote areas away from major living centers, just as wild animals like lions and hippopotamuses live today in remote areas and the jungles of Africa, India and South America. However, there is nothing in the Bible to indicate that Noah was told by God to leave certain animals behind. Even the birds couldn't have survived without being sheltered on-board the Ark. I think it is silly to think that ferocious dinosaurs of all types wouldn't have made their way to eat humans for dinner! There is no scientific evidence to evidence that mankind ever lived together with dinosaurs. Science evidences that dinosaurs lived 65,000,000 to 220,000,000 years ago, which is Biblically supported.

I don't see Noah bringing prehistoric Pterodactyls on board (really big birds). If you consider all the thousands of species that exist in the world today, and all the thousands of extinct prehistoric creatures, there's no way possible that Noah could have brought them all on the ark for their shear size. Noah had plenty of room for all the animals, insects, reptiles, birds and living creatures which God led to the ark in pairs. The dinosaurs didn't have a ticket to ride.

Nearly All Old Earth Advocates Are Not Evolutionists

If you research the writings of Young Earth advocates, you'll notice that they continually grasp for straws, desperately trying to make a case where there is no case. Most Young Earthers attempt to turn Old Earthers into evolutionists, and that is 80 % to 90 % of their argument. Take for example the book titled, "5 REASONS TO BELIEVE IN RECENT CREATION," by Henry Morris III. Here are his five reasons to believe in a Young Earth:

1. The Bible does not allow an evolutionary interpretation.
2. Science does not observe evolution happening today.
3. There is no evidence evolution took place in the past.
4. God's character absolutely forbids evolutionary methods.

5. God's purpose for creation excludes evolution.

SOURCE: "5 REASONS TO BELIEVE IN RECENT CREATION," by Henry Morris III; Table Of Contents; copyright 2008, Institute For Creation Research

Notice carefully that in all 5 reasons submitted by Dr. Morris, he attempts to disprove an Old Earth by turning proponents of an Old Earth into evolutionists. In fact, most proponents of an Old Earth DON'T believe in the evolutionary process (that is, the teaching that the universe formed from a Big Bang 13.7 billion years ago, and then evolved and continues to evolve). I am a firm believer in an Old Earth, yet I do NOT believe in evolution in any way, fashion or form. Neither do I believe in Theistic Evolution (that is, the teaching that God created the universe and then it evolved). I believe the inspired Holy Bible, which teaches that God created everything from nothing by the Word of His mouth. 2nd Peter 3:5, "For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water."

When you take away the teachings of evolution, Young Earth proponents lose nearly all of their ammunition. Dr. Morris' entire book is based upon the presumption that Young Earthers are evolutionists. It is unscholarly and dishonest to label one's opponents as being something that they are not. I am NOT an evolutionist!

The truth is that God created the earth long, long, ago. It was a pre-Adamic world. Humanity had not yet been created. When Lucifer and one-third of the angels were cast down, God in his anger laid the earth waste. I believe the following passage of Scripture from the Old Testament is compelling evidence which cannot be ignored...

> Jeremiah 4:23-26, "I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form, and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly. I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled. I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger."

The following passage of Scripture concerning Lucifer evidences an Old Earth...

> Isaiah 14:12, "How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High."

Here are some interesting questions concerning Lucifer: Where was Lucifer when he said, "I will ASCEND into heaven?" Clearly he was not in heaven at the time.

Where was Lucifer when he said, “I will ascend ABOVE THE HEIGHTS OF THE CLOUDS”? How do you ascend above the clouds unless you are below the clouds?

The only logical answer is that Lucifer was on earth, under the clouds, which is where his throne was located before man was created. There are [9]many problems with a Young Earth view . I respect the right of others to have their own opinions. It is ok to agree to disagree. Most believers in churches today are proponents of a Young Earth view.

I realize that it is much easier to just decide to believe in Creationism and totally reject any ruin-reconstruction or gap principle teachings; however, there are just too many Biblical and scientific inconsistencies with a Young Earth to disregard it. And by the way, I do believe in Creationism (that is, I do believe that God literally created the world as we know it today in 6-days). These weren’t thousand-day periods, they were 24 hour days! But I also believe that there was a Pre-Adamic world, between Genesis 1:1 and 1:2c, which is commonly called “THE GAP THEORY.” I like “GAP PRINCIPLE” better, because this is what the Bible teaches.

I’ll tell you, this is a raging debate. Young Earthers commonly attack the salvation of proponents of an Old Earth, accusing them of corrupting the Gospel. May I say, 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 defines the Gospel as the DEATH, BURIAL and RESURRECTION of Jesus Christ from the dead after three days. This is the Gospel and it does not include creation as Henry Morris III claims on pages 44-45 of his book titled, “5 REASONS TO BELIEVE IN RECENT CREATION.”

Did you know that the Young Earth heresy started with the Seventh-Day Adventists and Ellen G. White? The Young Earth view didn’t exist until Seventh-Day Adventism. The false religion of Seventh-Day Adventism literally worship the Sabbath Day (which is why they meet on Saturdays instead of Sundays), which consequently compels SDA’s to worship creation too, since God rested on the 7th day from His work. The Bible totally disagrees with a Young Earth view. For an excellent exegesis on this subject, please watch Pastor Max Younce in a series of Bible studies titled, The Fallacies Of A Young Earth ...

[10]The Fallacies Of A Young Earth Series (by Dr. Max D. Younce)

The Spirit Of God Didn’t Move Until Genesis 1:2c

God rested on the 7th day, to look over His work and “IT WAS VERY GOOD.” This is in drastic contrast to the void earth, darkened and without form between Genesis 1:1 and 1:2.

Notice in the following Scriptures that God saw everything that He MADE was GOOD... Genesis 1:4, “And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.” Genesis 1:10, And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.”

- Genesis 1:12, “And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.”
- Genesis 1:18, “And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.
- Genesis 1:21, “And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.”
- Genesis 1:25, “And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.”
- Genesis 1:31, “And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.”

How then could the earth be without form and void in Genesis 1:1-1:2? And notice very carefully WHEN the Spirit of God began to move to create...

> Genesis 1:1-2, “In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.”

I don’t know why I hadn’t seen that phrase years earlier, but it just jumped out at me today while I was studying this passage. The Bible plainly says that “THE SPIRIT OF GOD MOVED UPON THE FACE OF THE WATERS.” The Spirit of God isn’t mentioned in Genesis 1:1 to 2:1b. We just read that God created (absolute) the universe. Clearly, something bad happened between Genesis 1:1a and 1:2c. And then In Genesis 1:2c we read that the omnipotent Spirit of God went to work, moving upon the face of the waters.

God did NOT create (Hebrew: bara) the world in a CHAOTIC condition. God did NOT create the world in the WASTE condition that Young Earth people claim. It became that way the Bible says. The earth became uninhabitable, so God had to remodel the earth to make it inhabitable for mankind.

Hell was created for the Devil and his angels, not Adam and Eve. So the Devil and his angels existed before man.

Satan Was Already In The Garden Of Eden

Consider that the serpent (Satan according to Revelation 20:2) was already present in the Garden of Eden, which plainly evidences that the angels had already fallen before man was created. So sin did exist before man, when Lucifer and one-third of the angels rebelled against God. It was the sin of the angels that stirred God's wrath to destroy the earth prior to mankind. If, as Youth Earthers claim, the universe did not exist prior to the Genesis account of creation (beginning in Genesis 1:2), then there would have been no time for the angels to fall, or for Lucifer to rebel against God.

Adam Named Every Living Creature, But Not The Extinct Dinosaurs

Another piece of evidence in support of an Old Earth is the fact that Adam DIDN'T name even one of the dinosaurs...

> Genesis 2:19, "And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof."

As you just read, the Bible says that Adam named "EVERY LIVING CREATURE." Yet, all of the [11]names given to dinosaurs have been provided by modern-day scientists . Adam couldn't name the dinosaurs because they were already extinct. The Bible plainly teaches that Adam named EVERY LIVING CREATURE. If, as Young Earthers claim, dinosaurs co-existed with man, then Adam would have given names to all of the dinosaurs, but he did not. In sharp contrast to the unscholarly grasping for straws by Young Earthers, the evidence for an Old Earth is plain to see. The truth is like the moon and the sun, that is, it can only be hid for so long. The truth always becomes self-evident over time; whereas falsehoods and heresies must continually be bolstered up and propagated.

Whacky Young Earthers Claim Dinosaurs On Ark Grew Slower

The book's authors desperately grasp for straws to boost up their straw-man heresy...

> "God could well have chosen specimens He knew would undergo their growth spurt as soon as they left the Ark. This would solve the common skeptical objections of fitting and feeding huge dinosaurs on the Ark. That is, the dinosaurs weren't actually that huge while they were on board. The growth spurt just after leaving the Ark would also mean that they could quickly outgrow potential predators."

What you've just read is typical of the unscholarly rubbish, bizarre assumptions and junk science of Young Earth advocates! Since there is no logical way that hundreds of dinosaur species could fit onto the Ark, Young Earth advocates are forced to shrink the size of the dinosaurs, minimize the number of dinosaurs, and even slow down their growth rate! How ludicrous! This is the "science falsely so-called" that the Bible warns us about in 1st Timothy 6:20. Clearly, dinosaurs DIDN'T co-exist with mankind.

> 1st Timothy 6:20, "O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called."

The Bible warns us about "OPPOSITIONS TO SCIENCE"! The Greek word for "oppositions" in 1st Timothy 6:20 is antithesis and means "conflict" (i.e., a conflicting theory). The word "science" is the Greek word gnosis and means "knowing" (i.e., knowledge). Thus, the Bible is warning us to avoid conflicting theories with factual science. For something to be true science (meaning: the study of), it must first be observable, testable and documentable. Evolution is none of these! Certainly, the bogus theory of evolution conflicts with all established laws and principles of legitimate science. Evolution is FALSE science!

Furthermore, the claim that dinosaurs lived amongst man and boarded the ark of Noah's time is also a gross opposition of legitimate science! Beware of anyone who teaches that dinosaurs boarded Noah's ark! Nor did dinosaurs live at the same time as men. Science proves that the earth is very old, just as the Bible teaches in Psalms 102:25, "Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands."

The Bible plainly teaches an Old Earth view...

[16]The Fallacy Of Young Earth Creationism — Part 5 - [17]4 - [18]3 - [19]2 - [20]1 (videos by Dr. Younce)

Ecclesiastes 11:5 and 12:4, "As thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child: even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.... For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil."

Basically, proponents of an Old Earth view believe that the earth was created by God—did not evolve—has existed for millions (if not billions) of years—and that the human race is young, having only been in existence for 6,000 years (since 4,000 BC). Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) and Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951) believed this and so do I. This is often called the 'Gap

Principle' (that is, a time gap between Genesis 1:1 and 1:2). I don't call it a theory because it is not a "theory."

The Hebrew word for "created" in Genesis 1:1 is bara, which means "(absolutely) to create." The Hebrew word for "made" in Scriptures such as Genesis 1:6 is asah and means "to do or make, in the broadest sense and widest application." The fact that the word created in Genesis 1:1 is ABSOLUTE concerning creation, but all other words thereafter are not absolute, tells us that there was a big difference in what God was doing here. God created the universe out of nothing in Genesis 1:1, but then He remodeled creation beginning in Genesis 1:2c when His Spirit moved upon the waters.

Science Evidences An Old Earth, But Disproves Evolution

Most Christians have enough common sense to know that Evolution is a lie of the Devil. There's absolutely no tangible, observable, testable, verifiable or conclusive evidence to support the bogus theories of Evolution. In sharp contrast, legitimate science evidences an old earth, at least tens-of-millions of years old. Science has repeatedly evidenced by using tests on ACTUAL dinosaur bones, that dinosaurs lived tens-of-millions of years ago.

Take a good look at that actual dinosaur skeleton below. Do you honestly believe that Noah and his family brought baby Tyrannosauruses onto the Ark? You've got to be kidding?

ScienceDaily (Jan. 27, 2011) — University of Alberta researchers determined that a fossilized dinosaur bone found in New Mexico confounds the long established paradigm that the age of dinosaurs ended between 65.5 and 66 million years ago.

The U of A team, led by Larry Heaman from the Department of Earth and Atmospheric Sciences, determined the femur bone of a hadrosaur as being only 64.8 million years old. That means this particular plant eater was alive about 700,000 years after the mass extinction event many paleontologists believe wiped all non-avian dinosaurs off the face of earth, forever.

Heaman and colleagues used a new direct-dating method called U-Pb (uranium-lead) dating. A laser beam unseats minute particles of the fossil, which then undergo isotopic analysis. This new technique not only allows the age of fossil bone to be determined but potentially can distinguish the type of food a dinosaur eats. Living bone contains very low levels of uranium but during fossilization (typically less than 1000 years after death) bone is enriched in elements like uranium. The uranium atoms in bone decay spontaneously to lead over time and once fossilization is complete the uranium-lead clock starts ticking. The isotopic composition of lead determined in the hadrosaur's femur bone is therefore a measure of its absolute age.

Currently, paleontologists date dinosaur fossils using a technique called relative chronology. Where possible, a fossil's age is estimated relative to the known depositional age of a layer of sediment in which it was found or constrained by the known depositional ages of layers above and below the fossil-bearing horizon. However, obtaining accurate depositional ages for sedimentary rocks is very difficult and as a consequence the depositional age of most fossil horizons is poorly constrained. A potential weakness for the relative chronology approach is that over millions of years geologic and environmental forces may cause erosion of a fossil-bearing horizon and therefore a fossil can drift or migrate from its original layer in the strata. The researchers say their direct-dating method precludes the reworking process.

It's widely believed that a mass extinction of the dinosaurs happened between 65.5 and 66 million years ago. It's commonly believed debris from a giant meteorite impact blocked out the Sun, causing extreme climate conditions and killing vegetation worldwide.

SOURCE: [21]Dinosaurs survived mass extinction by 700,000 years, fossil find suggests

When I lived in Chicago I saw "Sue" the T-rex on display at the Field Museum Of Natural History. The skeletal dinosaur remains were unearthed in the state of Montana. I recall looking up, because Sue is really tall. There's no way that these horrific, yet beautiful, creatures dwelt with humanity. Any thinking person has a hard time believing that dinosaurs lived amongst mankind, and that Noah left the dinosaurs behind. It is superstition. Even more bizarre is the heresy that Noah brought baby dinosaurs onto the Ark. The logical and Biblical truth is that dinosaurs never coexisted with mankind. You can even find the word "old" in Psalms 102:25, "Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands." The issue is hotly debating, some even attacking the salvation of others who disagree. I think that is wrong.

(exegetical books by Dr. Arthur C. Custance, 1910-1985)

Genesis 1:1-2 tells us that the world which God created BECAME void. This would explain the ice age. And again, the Bible even calls the earth "old" in Psalms 102:25, "Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands."

Sin Existed Before Genesis 1:2

> 2nd Peter 2:4, "For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment."

Adam's sin did not cause Lucifer and one-third of the angels to fall. Sin existed prior to Adam, for it was Satan who sinned in trying to get Eve to sin. Adam's sin brought sin and death into the world that we know today. If Satan was created in Genesis, then God made the Devil. This is not what the Bible teaches.

We read that Lucifer became Satan by his own free-will, when he sought in Isaiah 14:14 to be EQUAL with God. This is the sin of feminists today who desire to be EQUAL with man's authority in the marriage, home, church and society. In every society where women rise to EQUALITY with men, there is lesbianism and abortion, corrupt women judges and preachers, and every evil work.

The fact that Satan (Revelation 20:2) was the serpent in the Garden Of Eden proves that he already existed before Genesis 1:2 when God began to REMODEL the earth. Those who advocate a Young Earth and claim that sin didn't exist prior to Adam don't know what they're talking about. Lucifer sinned. The Angels who followed him rebelled and sinned in so doing. What Satan did to Eve was a sin, for he deceived her to harm her. Eve then led Adam into sin. Then the entire human race was plunged into sin and death.

It is easy to get caught-up into a heresy if we're not diligent to try (test) the spirits as 1st John 4:1 commands. Dr. Walt Brown of CreationScience.com teaches on his website that dinosaurs boarded the Ark and went for a ride with Noah for one year. Dinosaurs on the Ark? I don't think so! I'd say that about 90 % of all the professed Christian websites are teaching a Young Earth view (and they're all wrong!). Most of those Young Earth ministries try to support their claim by evidencing that mankind has only been here for 6,000 years.

They're piggybacking their lie of a Young Earth on the truth of a Young Human Civilization! There is no debate whatsoever that humanity DIDN'T exist prior to 4,004 BC! The human race is 6,000 years old. This truth is easily evidenced by the advancement of humanity's writings, inventions, knowledge and population —all attesting to the fact that mankind began around 4,000 BC.

I actually heard a preacher proclaiming to his congregation that the solar system centers around the earth. He said only heretics teach that the sun is the center of our solar system. Albeit, astronomy evidences that the planets rotate around the sun, which is the largest mass in our planetary system. He took Joshua 10:13 out of context, which says "the sun stood still, and the moon stayed." So this guy concluded that the sun must rotate around the earth.

The scientific truth is that all of the heavenly bodies are moving and rotating around each other. Thank God for hillbilly preachers; I love them every one if they still believe that the King James Bible is inspired and preach the truth from it. Amen! However, many people with college degrees won't listen to an ignorant man who blatantly goes against legitimate science. Dinosaurs could not plausible have existed along with mankind 4,500 years ago.

The Bible Teaches An Old Earth, But A Young Human Race

Psalms 102:25, “Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.”

The only reason why so many dead theologians, so-called experts and sincere people hold to a Young Earth view is because they’ve either never studied on their own, or have never had the blessing of a doctrinally-sound Bible teacher. I thank God for [27]Pastor Max D. Younce , who is a thinking student of the Bible. Dr. Younce has written an excellent exegesis on this controversial subject of a Young Earth verses an Old Earth...

[28]The Truth About Evolution; Or, Don’t Let Satan Make A Monkey Out Of You (.PDF file)

Whereas most of us repeat doctrines that we’ve heard over the years, Pastor Younce questions them. Faithful Christians do tend to question anything taught by the religious cults, such as the falsehood of [29]Seventh-day Adventism that requires works for salvation . However, oftentimes we DON’T question teachings that we receive from fellow believers in the Lord. 1st John 4:1 tells us to try (test) the spirits of everything (music, books, doctrines, Bible versions, people, et cetera). There are many deceptions in the world. The Word of God is our absolute standard against which all else is to be tested. This is why the Lord taught us to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES (John 5:39).

Even without having the advantage of the Hebrew language available, anyone can see that the word “created” is not mentioned again after Genesis 1:1 until the 5th day of creation in Genesis 1:21 when He “created” the whales. Everything on the second, third and fourth day of creation were “made” the Bible says, which means that they previously existed and God simply remodeled them according to His fashion.

Here’s an eye-opening quote from Dr. Younce’s book, which further explains this doctrine on page 111...

CHAPTER TWELVE

THE REMODELING

We have previously discussed the difference between "created" (Hebrew "bara") and "made" (Hebrew "asah"). To briefly refresh your memory; "created" means that God created something that at no time in the past had ever existed. "Made," on the other hand means "to form, assemble, and arrange from its previous state of usefulness to that form of beautification, so as to be used by God for His purpose."

It is interesting to notice that from Genesis 1:1 where God created the heavens and the earth; the word "created" (Hebrew "bara") does not appear again until the Fifth Day in Verse 20. Everything from Verse 2 to Verse 19 has to do with remodeling the earth in four days. These elements had previously been associated with the Original Creation, where Lucifer and the angels resided. Lucifer's sin brought about God's judgment on the earth, rendering it "without form and void." The angels are now disembodied spirit beings, leaving the earth uninhabitable and in a chaotic ruin. Now let us see what elements, which were previously created and were with the Original Creation, that God is now going to reactivate and position in His remodeling process.

1. Water. - Nowhere does it say from Verses 2 to 19 that water was created to be used as part of the renovation of the earth. Why would that be? Very simply, because water had already been created and in existence at the Original Creation. Notice in Genesis 1:2, it was water that God used to cover the earth as part of His judgment on the Original Creation (Genesis 1:2).

I had read and heard all my life from trusted Bible scholars that the Roman Empire will be revived in the End Times. You know, I still can't find anything in the Bible about a "revived Roman Empire." In Revelation 17:10-11 we are taught that the Antichrist will arise from the 7th king (kingdom). There are 7 kings and the 8th is the Antichrist. These are world powers throughout history. The first 6 kings (world powers) were: Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece and Rome. There are super powers today, but no world power. The 7th king will be World Government (the New World Order). I think the Scriptures couldn't be any plainer in view of the world today. Rome won't be revived.

There are dozens of reasons to believe in an Old Earth view. Likewise, there are dozens more reasons why a Young Earth view doesn't make sense at all. Proponents of a Young Earth view grasp for straws in a desperate attempt to validate their teachings. Eric Hovind's website at CreationToday.org claims the earth is young because the human race is only 6,000 years old. The age of the human race has absolutely NOTHING to do with the age of the earth! They're comparing apples with oranges.

The human race is indeed only 6,000 years old and the advancement of civilizations (languages, inventions, medical, industry, et cetera) clearly evidence this fact. However, the earth is very old. I have no problem with scientists estimating that the universe is 12 billion years old. It may be for all we know. What I do know is that the Hebrew language shows in Genesis 1:2 that the earth which God created became without form, and void and dark; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. The Bible says God's Word NEVER returns void. Isaiah 55:11, "So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." Everything that God has ever created is good. Only sin destroys good. God never created a devil. God never created a fallen man. God never created an earth that is void.

You know, there are so many practical truths in the Bible that evidence an Old Earth. The book of Job chronologically took place at the same time as the book of Genesis. There are many evidences for this. For example: The law of God is not mentioned in Job, because it had not yet been given. Job mentions being hunted like a fierce lion. Job 10:16, "For it increaseth. Thou huntest me as a fierce lion: and again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me." If there were carnivorous dinosaurs alive at the time of Genesis, no doubt Job would have thought of a more ferocious predator than a mere lion. Many dinosaurs were meat-eating hunters!

The Bible, science, archaeology, history, paleontology and common sense evidence an Old Earth. I am a Creationist. I believe in a literal 6-day creation in Genesis. But the Hebrew language indicates that God remodeled the earth during those 6-days. To believe and teach that the universe did not exist prior to 4,004 BC (the date of the beginning of the human race) is ridiculous. A study of the civilizations of humanity overwhelmingly evidences that mankind began 6,000 years ago; but science also plainly evidences that the earth is much older.

Whether you believe in a Young Earth or an Old Earth has absolutely nothing to do with your salvation, but I believe many sincere unsaved people have been driven away from the Gospel when they hear a Christian teaching that dinosaurs roamed the earth 4,500 years ago. The reason why most believers are caught-up into the Young Earth heresy is because they have been taught to associate an Old Earth view with the bogus teachings of Evolution. But the truth is that the doctrine of an Old Earth does not in any way support the lies of Evolution. Evolution is totally against science and legitimate science is totally against Evolution! There is no scientific evidence to support the ridiculous theories of Evolution. In sharp contrast, all fields of science DOES support the truth of an Old Earth.

So remember these four truths:Legitimate science disproves the theories of Evolution.

Legitimate science proves an old earth that's at least tens-of-millions of years old, which did not evolve.

The Biblical truth of Creation does not contradict either true science or an Old Earth theological position.

The human race is only 6,000 years old, evidenced by history and the holy Bible.

Legitimate science and the holy Bible NEVER contradict or disagree. People who follow a Young Earth position are rejecting proven science! And people who follow Evolution are rejecting the inspired Words of God in the Bible! An Old Earth position accepts the claims of legitimate science, and as well rejects the bogus claims of Evolutionists, while upholding the inspired holy Scriptures!

1.3.68 Calvinism Is A Satanic Mindset (2020-05-27 11:00)

1st Corinthians 2:14, " But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned."

Billions of unsaved people (including religious people) cannot discern truth. Even many believers are confused, having been misled by corrupt preachers. Calvinism says you absolutely must make Jesus the Savior

of your life to be saved, and that the proof you are saved is that you have turned away from your sins. Such teachers are devil-preachers in the pulpit! I'm talking about John MacArthur, Phil Johnson, Paul Washer, John Piper, R.C. Sproul, Chip Ingram, Charles Lawson and Ray Comfort. I'm talking about Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, who openly admit to being Calvinist on their college website. I'm talking about [1]30 % of all Southern Baptist churches!

[2]Why Lordship Salvation Is Wrong
(a beautiful MP3 sermon by Pastor Ralph

Yankee

Arnold)

John Calvin (1509-1564) was an unsaved heretic who is today and forever burning in the fires of Hell! That is the horrifying truth. Salvation is solely of the Lord, because of what HE DID FOR ME, and not because of WHAT I DO FOR HIM! As Christians we SHOULD live for Christ; not MUST (that is works), not WILL (that would be Calvinism). If you have children, do they HAVE to love you to be your children? No, of course not. Likewise, every child of God is 100 % safe in Christ, unable to lose salvation no matter how horribly we choose to sin. Granted, that doesn't give a believer God's permission to live in willful sin (Romans 3:31; Hebrews 12:6-8). Many preachers fail to discern the difference between [3]SALVATION versus DISCIPLESHIP. The truth is still the truth, even if no one believes it; a lie is still a lie, even if everyone believes it!

John Calvin's heretical teachings on salvation are commonly expressed and simplified with the acronym, T-U-L-I-P:

1. [4]TOTAL DEPRAVITY (man is too wicked and has no freewill to come to God, he must be enabled)
2. [5]UNCONDITIONAL ELECTION (God chooses who will be saved)
3. [6]LIMITED ATONEMENT (Christ only died for those whom God chose to be saved)
4. [7]IRRESISTIBLE GRACE (God forces salvation upon those whom He has chosen)
5. [8]PERSEVERANCE OF THE SAINTS (those who are saved will persevere in holy living, otherwise they are not saved)

We did not believe because God chose us; but rather, we were chosen by God because we believe. God has chosen to save every person who will trust Him (John 3:16). There you have it, Calvinism in a nutshell. All five of these teachings are Satanic!!!

1.3.69 John Calvin And Martin Luther Are Burning In Hell (2020-05-28 00:43)

Galatians 1:9, “ As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.”

John Calvin (1509-1564) was a religious heretic who lived 500 years ago. Calvin taught the heresy of infant baptism. He also taught the deception that religious sacraments are equal with the Word of God. Martin Luther (1483-1546) was another religious reprobate, who lived during the same time as John Calvin. Both of these reprobate men taught sacramental salvation, which includes both water baptism and communion. Of course, the word “sacrament” is not even found in the Holy Bible. Thus, Christians ought not observe sacraments at all. In fact, to observe sacraments is a sin and false religion.

In the New Testament Church, we only observe two ordinances: water baptism and the Lord’s supper. These are not sacraments and do not bestow any special grace upon the participant. They are simply symbols. Water baptism symbolizes the Gospel, showing outwardly what has happened inwardly, that is, our faith in the death, burial and bodily resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ. Likewise, the Lord’s supper symbolizes Christ’s broken body and shed blood for our sins on the cross. We do this in remembrance of the Lamb of God Who gave Himself for us.

John Calvin was a monster who [1]murdered 58 people (including women and children) who disagreed with his infant baptism heresy. Calvin never changed himself, which proves Lordship Salvation a lie (which says a changed life is proof of salvation). We are saved by the simplicity that is in Christ, which is the Gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4; Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Getting saved is simple—you are a SINNER and Jesus is the SAVIOR! If you admit you are a needy SINNER, and you believe that the SAVIOR died on the cross to pay for your sins, was buried and raised up from the dead three days later, you are saved!

[2]Martin Luther foolishly taught that water baptism and holy communion were MANDATORY for salvation, which makes him a devil preacher! I am so sick and tired of ungodly pastor today, who after being warned about Martin Luther, sinfully choose to continue promoting him. The Lutheran religion is of the Devil, who follow Martin Luther's heretical lies about salvation. Both Calvin and Luther taught sacramental salvation. I cannot warn you enough to stay away from the Lordship Salvation crowd today, who are Calvinists!!! Stay away from Moody Bible Institute, who are openly professed Calvinists. Avoid Dr. John MacArthur. Run away from Evangelist Ray Comfort! Stay away from Bob Jones University, where John MacArthur went to school!!! The Bob Jones crowd have become extremely ecumenical, hobnobbing with the ungodly religious world, embracing Satan's counterfeit Bible revisions by the dozens, and going along with a degree of worldliness and apostasy.

One of the best books I've read, which you can freely read, which exposes Martin Luther is by Dr. Max D. Younce, called, '[3]Martin Luther: Master Of Deceit.' John Calvin was an unsaved reprobate [4]who taught that a person cannot know they are saved without being water baptized. The reason I yoked these two apostates together in one blog article is because John Calvin was influenced by Martin Luther. Basically, Mr. Luther was Calvin's mentor. Both men were theologically corrupted. Luther came out of the Roman Catholic church, but the Roman catholic church never came out of him. Sacraments are rooted in devilish Catholicism!!! Whether seven sacraments or just two, they are unbiblical.

> The dope crowd will not destroy America. The homosexual crowd will not destroy America. The baby killers will not destroy America. The communists will not destroy America. The Hollywood crowd will not destroy America. If America is destroyed, it will be destroyed because of the pastors who substituted visions, prophecies, dreams, man's words, and tongues for the very words of God. Our God is not a God of "confusion." Yet, Satan is accomplishing "confusion" through 1,000 perversions of the Scriptures on the market. —Pastor Bob Gray Sr., “[5]Do We have An Every Word Bible In 2017?”

1.3.70 Salvation And The Public Invitation (2020-05-28 19:30)

John 3:16, “

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

All across the world, misguided preachers have been taught by peers to require people to walk down a church isle at invitation time to be saved. They have sinfully ADDED an additional step to God’s plan of salvation. No where in the Holy Scriptures are we taught to walk down a church isle to be saved. What if a person is too scared to walk a church isle, or physically doesn’t feel too well, or perhaps simply doesn’t want to be made a spectacle of in front of the whole church? Why cannot they be saved right there in the pew? They certainly CAN, which is why every pastor and evangelist should tell lost sinners how to be saved in their pew. If they desire to walk an isle afterwards to stand in front of the church, then that opportunity can be given; but for some who don’t want to go forward, at least they will be on their way to Heaven.

I was gloriously saved at age 13. Unfortunately, the pastor required everyone to come forward at invitation time, but I was too timid to go forward. I had been in Sunday School my whole life, but had never been saved. So I had enough knowledge from what I had learned, and from some of the things the pastor said that Sunday morning, to be saved from my pew. However, I had very limited knowledge. I cried out to Jesus as a needy sinner in my soul, and begged Jesus to save me. I believed that He had died for my sins on the cross, and that He was buried, and that He raised up. I called out to the risen Savior and He saved me!!! But because I had limited knowledge, I had many doubts, fears and questions in my mind, which would haunt me day and night for the next seven miserable years of my life. All of that could have been avoided, if the pastor that day had simply explained in detail how to be saved in my pew. The Gospel if presented correctly doesn't take more than one minute.

God intentionally made His plan of salvation for mankind very simple. In 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 we read about " THE SIMPLICITY THAT IS IN CHRIST,

" which is 'The Gospel,' defined for us in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 as Christ's death on the cross, burial and physical resurrection after three days. Repeatedly throughout the inspired King James Bible, we are simply taught to BELIEVE on the name of Jesus Christ to be saved. Acts 10:43,

"To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

" Even a small child can understand they are a needy sinner and trust in the name of Jesus to be saved. You must know are a needy sinner (Romans 3:19-20). What do you need? Why, you need a Savior (Acts 4:10-12; Galatians 3:24-26). Since you are a sinner, you cannot save yourself.

No preacher should ever require someone to walk a church isle to learn how to receive the free gift of eternal life! God will hold such irresponsible pastors responsible on judgment day, who will have the blood of hundreds (if not thousands) of people on their hands, who didn't get saved because they ADDED to the Gospel. I am all for giving an invitation, but make sure to preach the Gospel to the man in the pew as well. You may never know who accepted Christ in the pew here on earth, but you';; find out in Heaven. I know that for every person who lets me know my website ministry led them to Jesus Christ, there are at least TEN MORE who didn't let me know. I praise God for them all, and someday in Heaven I'll find out and get to meet them for the first time. The true measurement of my earthly success won't be how many people show up at my funeral, but how many people are waiting to greet me when I get to Heaven. Amen!

> "'You can't tell me you can trust Christ as Savior, and then go out here and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven!' Yes, I can tell you that! That's what the Bible says. If you don't come to the conclusion, that—Yes, you can trust Christ as your Savior and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven when you die—you don't get grace, because that is the exact truth! That is the truth! I do not have to change my life! I don't have to stop one sin! You say, 'I've never heard a preacher say that.' You just heard one! And you listen to me—I want to live as holy and as godly as I possibly can. I am now 70 years old. I've been saved for 52 years. ... the only reason I'm going to Heaven is because, 52 years ago in a little living room, I accepted Christ as my Savior." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, a great quote from the awesome sermon, "[1]Calvinism And Grace Are NOT Compatible | [2]MP3"

1.3.71 Abortion Is First Degree Murder! (2020-05-29 05:00)

What a beautiful passage of Scripture. before Jeremiah was even conceived in his mother's womb, God knew him! Think about the astounding implications of what that truth means! God lives in eternity. Before you or I were ever conceived, in God's mind He already knew all about us. God knew the sins that we would commit. God knew the loss, pain and suffering that would afflict us. God already knows the time we will die, and how, and why. Think how it would change your life, if you knew the exact day you would die! Yet, Hebrews 9:27 says we all have an appointment with death, and then the judgment! Are you ready?

There is not a more wicked evil in this universe than to take the life of a child in the womb. Abortion is nothing less than first-degree murder. The U.S. Supreme Court are devils! Who are those arrogant judges to flaunt their authority over God almighty? Hell will be filled with ungodly legislatures, lawyers and judges! The Holy Bible is adamantly clear in Exodus 20:13, "

THOU SHALT NOT KILL. " Abortion stops a beating heart. Only an insane person would dare to claim that a baby in the protection of its mother's womb is not a human being. That is what the ungodly U.S. government did to black people in the 19th century, ruling that a black person was only 4/5th of a man. By depriving a living child of life, men and women are playing God with the lives of others.

American's character has been shaped by our culture of death! Nothing is sacred to this generation. The bed and marriage act are not held sacred anymore. Life is no longer held sacred. The inspired Word of God is no longer held sacred, being tampered with and changed at every impulse and whim. What is so shocking is that the majority of our sick society, including religious leaders, have accepted abortion as a normal part of American life. It is wickedness!!! Just as Abel's blood cried out to God from the ground in Genesis 4:10, so does the blood of nearly 60,000,000 murdered (aborted) human beings cry out to God from the ground for revenge. Genesis 4:10, " And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground."

> Abortion doesn't make a woman unpregnant, it just makes her the mother of a dead baby!

1.3.72 I Never Knew You (2020-05-29 10:07)

Matthew 7:21-23, " Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

There's your Lordship Salvation crowd in our text passage. They cried out "Lord, Lord," but He did not know who they are. Lordship Salvation is a damnable false doctrine, a counterfeit gospel, which cannot produce the new birth in Christ Jesus. I find it highly ironic that the Bible would contain such a Scripture passage, when we've got a bunch of false teachers in church circles today, requiring people to make Jesus the absolute "

Lor

of their life to be saved. They say the proof you are saved is that you have turned away from your sins. Folks, that is Calvinism! That is works salvation! That is not the Gospel of free grace. The Bible plainly teaches in 1st John 3:24 that the evidence of one's salvation is the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit, which only you and God can see. 1st John 3:24,

"And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us."

Jesus warned everyone in Matthew 7:21-23 that no matter how dedicated you may be to serving Him, that won't get you to Heaven. Please listen friend, because this is a matter of life and death. The Lord did not know this group of religious people! They cried out in their self-defense saying, "We prophesied IN THY NAME, we did many wonderful works IN THY NAME, we cast of devils IN THY NAME," but Jesus said the horrifying words: **"

I NEVER KNEW YOU!

" They spent their lives LIVING FOR JESUS. They lived lifestyles of repentance to prove the reality of their repentance (as [1]Ray Comfort foolishly teaches).

Dear reader, will you also hear those horrifying words one day in eternity—I NEVER KNEW YOU: DEPART FROM ME YE WORKERS OF INIQUITY!!! They said they had done "

MANY WONDERFUL WORKS,

" but what they called

Jesus called

!!! Why did Jesus say that? Why were their good works iniquity? What saith the Scriptures. Isaiah 64:6,

"But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. " What an astounding truth

—all of our righteousnesses are as FILTHY RAGS in the sight of God almighty! Let me ask you a question—If we cannot be saved by filthy rags, then why would you use those filthy rags to prove that you're saved?

That is why Jesus said He did not know these religious people—because they went about to establish their OWN RIGHTEOUSNESS, instead of trusting in GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS through faith alone in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9; Romans 10:3-4). You need "HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS" (John 6:33b). Will Christ one day deny knowing you friend? He will if you follow the junk theology of John MacArthur, Moody Bible Institute, John Piper, Ray Comfort, R.C. Sproul, Paul Washer, Chip Ingram, William Lane Craig, Charles Lawson and other reprobate Calvinists!!! Romans 10:3-4, " For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." That is why the folks didn't make it to Heaven in Matthew 7:21-23, they were self-righteous.

1.3.73 Time Is Running Out Quick, Serve God While You Can (2020-05-30 10:32)

John 9:4, " I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work. "

Even the Lord knew that He was living on borrowed time from God the Father. We are all living on borrowed time. You may think if you are younger that you still have your whole life ahead of you, but I plead with you not to think that way, because today literally could be the LAST DAY of your life. I recently read that magician [1]Criss Angel's 5 year old son has cancer. That is very sad. Also, singer [2]Michael Buble's 5 year old son has cancer. Life is what happens to us while we're making big plans! Dear friend, you don't know what tomorrow holds, and neither do I; but we can study the Scriptures to find out [3]what God has revealed in prophecy about the future.

I am now 53 years old. I admit that I am amazed how fast my life has gone. I have lived a bitter-sweet life. I have suffered more than my share of sorrow, pain and heartache. My wife divorced me in 2006, against my will. I have not been able to find a wife since, and still live alone in 2020. I sometimes want to die because I cannot find a wife, and am so lonely. No one cares! We are living in a very selfish generation, and sadly the most selfish people I know are at [4]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who have rejected my humble request to return to their church since 2017. God will deal with them on Judgment Day, refusing to give them a second chance, just as they have refused to love, forgive and give me a second chance (Matthew 7:1-2).

These are “perilous times,” foretold in 2nd Timothy 3:1-7. Professed Christians today are cold, indifferent, phony and only care about their paychecks.

This life will be over before we know it! I still feel like I am 18 years old, and it seems like just yesterday, but I am 53. If I live a normal lifespan, I only have 17 years left! I promise you young person, that you will be 50 years old before you know what happened. Many people today are in their 40’s and still single, having missed out on marriage and parenting because of a career, living in a small town where they couldn’t find anyone (which is my situation now), or alone because of their reclusive personality, living a secluded life (which is becoming the norm because of technology). Also, women aren’t very approachable in this wicked generation because of the destructive influence of feminism (making women independent of men), and the media’s sensationalism of domestic abuse (which has made many women paranoid of being abused in a bad relationship). This is not God’s way.

I implore you friend to serve God while you still can. 1st Corinthians 15:34, “ Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.” Every Christian believer has a duty to share the truth of the Gospel with those around us. We cannot witness to every person, and we ought to be respectful and ethical in our approach, but we have a responsibility to PREACH THE GOSPEL. In the parable of the ’Sower And The Seeds’ in Luke 8:11-15 we are taught this truth. Verse 15 says, “But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience. ” Clearly, God expects for every believer to mature to become a soulwinner. Those who don’t have either backslid on God because of persecution (Luke 8:13); or have been choked by the cares, riches and pleasures of this temporary earthly life (Luke 8:14). Many preachers misinterpret Luke 8:11-15 to apply to salvation, but that is wrong. This parable is about maturing to become a soulwinner, evidenced by verse 15.

Life is short, Hell is hot, and eternity is a long time. Whose blood will you have on your hands in eternity? Have you witnessed to your loved ones? When Lot spoke of spiritual things to his son-in-laws, they laughed at him as one who mocketh the Bible says, because Lot's personal testimony was so poor as a Christian. You are the only Jesus that somebody knows! This is exactly what the Holy Bible means in Hebrews 12:14, " Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:" If we don't live godly in Christ Jesus, other people may go to Hell because of our poor testimony, not wanting anything to do with such type of phony Christianity. Someone is always watching!!!

Ephesians 5:16, " Redeeming the time, because the days are evil." Colossians 4:5, " Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time." Time is the most precious asset that we have. What are we doing with our time? Actually it is God's time, because the moment we accepted Christ as our Savior, we became God's property. We are bought with a price the Bible says (1st Corinthians 6:20), and that price in Jesus' precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). Most Christians watch far too much TV and don't spend enough time abiding in the Scriptures (John 5:39; Psalms 1:1-3). We are what we see, hear and think (Acts 4:20). That is why my favorite Bible verse is Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life."

> "Church is a place where people should be able to hurt out loud. And I should be there to put my arms around those who are willing to hurt out loud." —Evangelist Les Ollila, from the MP3 sermon, "[5]The Judgment Seat Of Christ."

1.3.74 Hell Is A Place Of Punishment In Everlasting Fire (2020-05-30 22:00)

Revelation 20:11-15, " And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire."

The Holy Bibles teaches irrefutably that there is a literal place called " which burns with fire and brimstone (Revelation 21:8), where all Christ-rejecters will spend eternity suffering in torment. Our text passage of Scripture makes this horrifying truth very clear.

Hell,

One of the biggest false prophets on YouTube is [1]a loudmouth boisterous unlearned woman named Renee Roland. She is woefully ignorant of the Word of God, denying the existence of everlasting punishment in the Lake of Fire. The Seventh-Day Adventist religious cult similarly denies the reality and existence of eternal punishment in fire and brimstone. Renee says in her video that she is not an Adventist, because she believes the wicked will suffer for a while, and then be annihilated. There is absolutely nothing in the Word of God about anyone being annihilated. You either go to Heaven or Hell. That is true of the angels as well.

So also do the Jehovah's Witness cult deny a literal burning Hell. Kindly said, Renee wrestles (twists) the Holy Scriptures to her own destruction. 2nd Peter 3:16-17, "As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness." Renee requests for people not to call her a heretic and false prophet, but she is a HERETIC and a FALSE PROPHET! In her video she claims that her denial of everlasting punishment in hellfire is based upon 50 BIBLE VERSES! She is deceived!

The Story Of The Rich Man And Lazarus Is a Factual Account

In the video link I just provided to Renee butchering the Bible, she errantly claims that the story Jesus' told in Luke 16:19-31 of the rich man, Abraham and Lazarus is a mere parable. She is wrong! This story is a literal account of something that happened. We know it is NOT a parable for the following reasons:

1. Jesus did not say that is was a parable. The Lord ALWAYS announced when He was telling a parable.
2. Jesus didn't explain afterwards what it meant, which He always did when telling a parable.
3. Jesus uses proper names (Abraham and Lazarus) which He never did when telling parables. In parables the Lord uses vague terms; such as, a certain man took a journey into a far country, giving no specifics.
4. Jesus said in John 14:2, "In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you." The Lord said what He meant, and meant what He said. If Hell is not a literal place where Christ-rejecters go to suffer in everlasting torment and fire, then He is a dirty deceiver!

The story of the rich man and Lazarus is a factual account.

Sodom And Gomorrah Destroyed As Example Of Everlasting Punishment

Jude 1:7, “Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.“”

Renee butchers this passage in her horrible video, claiming that this verse does not refer to everlasting punishment. Dear reader, look for yourself at the word “EXAMPLE.” God destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah and three other cities in the plains of Sodom, as an EXAMPLE of the eternal fire in Hell for the wicked. The “wicked” are all those of humanity who knowingly reject Jesus Christ as their Savior (John 8:24). No one ever went to Hell who didn’t choose to go there by willfully rejecting God’s free gift of eternal life through faith alone in His only begotten Son (John 3:16). All small children go to Heaven. All mentally disabled people who cannot comprehend sin and the Gospel go to Heaven. The choice is yours!

Renee foolishly rationalizes that since Sodom and Gomorrha are no longer still burning today, she says Hell is not forever. That is foolish conjecture. Revelation 14:11, “ And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.” The Bible is abundantly clear here that Hell is FOR EVER AND EVER! In Hell there is NO REST DAY NOR NIGHT. There is TORMENT. You cannot be tormented if you cease to exist by being annihilated (destroyed). The Scriptures plainly teach that Hell is FOR EVER AND EVER!!! How can anyone debate those direct statements?

The following Scripture passage would make no sense if death means ceasing to exist. Matthew 10:28, “ And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.” Psalms 9:17, “ The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.” Again, this Bible passage makes no sense if Hell is merely the grave. Clearly the wicked go to a DIFFERENT place than the righteous.

Renee Roland Is Judging God Based On Her Level Of Holiness

In the video Renee (at about 22:45 minutes) claims that teaching everlasting punishment “ hurts God’s character.

” No, Renee is corrupting the truth, perverting the Scriptures. She says that it hurts God’s character to say that He would burn someone in Hell for all eternity. No it hurts her character! Renee is foolishly judging God based upon her own finite human understanding. In Renee’s eyes she cannot comprehend a God who would take a blow-torch to someone (that’s the term she uses). Dear reader, God is more holy than either you or I could ever understand. If we judge God by our own sinful human nature, then we start saying ungodly things as Gene Roddenberry (the creator of the Star Trek television series):

> “We must question the story logic of having an all-knowing all-powerful God, who creates faulty Humans, and then blames them for his own mistakes.” —Gene Roddenberry

Woe unto Gene Roddenberry (1921-1991), who died and no doubt went to Hell in his unbelief. Romans 9:20, “ Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?” Renee is a false prophet! What concerns me most is that she has a lot of supporters on the internet who gives her thumbs up on her videos, and tell her how great a job she is doing. No, she is hurting people with her lies, perverting the Scriptures. Hell is a literal place that burns with fire and brimstone forever and ever and ever and ever and ever!

The Righteous And Wicked Go To Different Places

I had an unsaved Mormon boss many years ago, when I worked as a truck mechanic, hand me a piece of paper with some Old Testament passages on it. We hadn’t been talking about religion, so I am not sure why he handed me the verses. On the paper he also wrote the word “ which is the Hebrew word for hell throughout the Old Testament. He said, “I think of you’ll look up these Scriptures, you’ll see that Hell is just the grave.” Well, that is what the word Sheol means, but it doesn’t limit the afterlife to just the grave. This is made abundantly clear by Psalms 9:17, which tells us that the wicked go to Hell, but the righteous unto life eternal. If the righteous and the wicked both go to the SAME place, then this Bible verse is meaningless. Obviously the wicked go to a very different place of suffering, and the righteous to a place of blessing.

Beware Of False Prophets In Sheep’s Clothing

A lot of Christians are giving Renee a free pass on her heresy that everlasting punishment doesn’t exist, because she has done a good job preaching the Gospel. Something is VERY WRONG with that picture! Satan knows that the most effective deception is the HALF-TRUTH. The Gospel is the remedy for the curse of the law, but if there is not everlasting punishment, then what is the curse? I implore you not to listen to Renee, at all!

She errantly claims that the phrase “ twice dead

” in Jude 1:12b refers to

What saith the Scripture? Revelation 21:8, “

But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. ” Could the Bible be any plainer? I think not.

Interestingly, Renee left Revelation 21:8 out of her 29 minute video presentation. She claims to have spent “ studying the subject of Hell in the Bible. If that be true she is not a very good student. 2nd Timothy 2:15,

a long time

Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. ” Kindly said, Renee lacks spiritual discernment and wrongly divides the Word of God! She says her study of people being consumed in the Old Testament led her to conclude that annihilation is Biblical. She cites this passage from Psalms 37:20, “ But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be as the fat of lambs: they shall consume; into smoke shall they consume away.” Renee makes the error of taking passages out of context, failing to take into consideration the whole counsel of God.

Renee keeps apologizing throughout her video if people disagree with her, but she disagrees with God’s Word! There is no controversy if you believe the Bible! She disregards Revelation 14:11, which teaches Hell is a place of smoke and torment, as merely being metaphoric (that’s the word she uses). Who is Renee to decide what parts of the Bible are metaphoric or not? Metaphoric means to xpress one thing in terms normally denoting another.

” So according to Renee Roland “ fire

doesn’t mean literal fire.

Smoke

doesn’t mean literal smoke.

doesn’t literally mean torment. That is some dangerous speculation Renee! I am only refuting her theological heresy, not her personally. Renee is very loud and bold to express her heretical views, which is why I felt compelled to write this article to counter her boldness to preach a bunch of lies!!!

Kindly, Renee is arrogant to say that it hurts God's character to believe in everlasting punishment. She claims to believe in different degrees of punishment for mankind, but absolutely not everlasting punishment. The Bible 100 % calls Renee a heretic and liar, theologically. At the end of her video she makes an appeal for people not to call her names like heretic, but that is exactly what she is. She asks people to agree to disagree. That is fine as far as loving and being "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints" (Jude 1:3).

Since Renee is publishing YouTube videos with the intent to teach people her views, she is open game for criticism from others. It is fine to agree to disagree, but learned believers must still expose her falsehoods. Nobody gets a free pass. If I teach heresy, people come after me with the Bible, and they should! Proverbs 9:8, " Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee. "

I Am Writing In A Spirit of Christian Love

I did NOT write this article to rebuke Renee; but rather, to help everyone else not to be deceived or confused by her false teachings. The Bible teaches Hell is forever! We must never interpret the Holy Bible by our own human understanding and standards. Renee rationalizes that since the worst sentence a human court could give a criminal is the death penalty, why would God burn someone in Hell forever and ever? You see, she is judging God by humans standards, which is very wrong to do.

Dear reader, we must let the Bible correct us, and not us the Bible.

I admit that I don't think God is fair to burn someone in Hell forever. You'd think after a trillion years that someone would have served their time in Hell. But it doesn't matter how I feel or think, because the Bible is God's Word, and I am commanded to lean not unto my own understanding, but to trust the Lord (Proverbs 3:5-7). Did you ever stop to wonder why God releases the Devil after 1,000 years from his chains (Revelation 20:7), to go out and deceive the world once more? Could it be that God wants to prove to humanity that giving someone a second chance doesn't make a difference? I mean, you'd think after 1,000 years of being bound in chains in the Bottomless Pit, that the Devil would be reformed. Yet, we see in the Scriptures that Satan's vile nature is still the same. Likewise, if God were to release a lost sinner from Hell after 1,000 years, would they be any different? I don't have an answer to that question, but it may explain why Hell is forever.

Regardless, we DO KNOW that the Bible teaches everlasting fire. There are many Scriptures that teach everlasting punishment in Hell fire for the wicked. Matthew 25:41, " Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:" It is difficult for me to understand how Renee could dismiss all this solid Scriptural evidence as merely being "metaphoric." That is exactly the error of Pastor John MacArthur, who in his 'The MacArthur Study Bible' says that, "BY HIS OWN BLOOD" in Hebrews 9:12 is metaphoric and actually refers to Jesus' "DEATH" on the cross instead. If you believe Mr. MacArthur you've got a hole in your head big enough to drive a semi-truck through! Likewise, Renee is very wrong. Fire means fire. Torment means torment. Smoke means smoke. Worms means worms. Unless the Bible says otherwise, we should ALWAYS interpret the Scripture at face value.

Is Renee saved? John 20:31 says that the Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract. John 20: 31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

" The word Hell does not appear once in John. I could be wrong, but I do not find any requirement in the Bible to believe in everlasting punishment to be saved. You must know that you are a needy sinner (1st John 1:8-10). Why would you want to be saved if there is no penalty for sin? Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Renee said she believes in varying degrees of punishment in the afterlife, but not everlasting punishment. In my humble opinion she is saved, but confused on Hell. That doesn't make her unsaved, it just makes her a poor student of the Holy Bible.

1.3.75 Tough Love Jesus (2020-05-31 11:00)

John 2:13-15, “And the Jews’ passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem, And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers’ money, and overthrew the tables.”

The Jesus Most People Don’t Want To See

As the webmaster (webservant) of Jesus-is-Savior.com, I receive lots of e-mail. At present, I am receiving a couple hundred e-mails per week (praise God!). I thank God for giving me the opportunity to reach people with the truth using the internet. It is my privilege to help people. At present, this website is receiving over 20,000 visitors weekly (80,000 now in 2009). Wow! By God's grace, the truth will continue to get out. It is a warm feeling to know that while I'm sleeping at night, thousands of people are awake on the other side of the planet finding the truth on my website. Though my souls have been reaped (brought to the Lord Jesus Christ) through this website, most of what I do is to sow seeds in people's hearts. A lot of people leave this website angry, but it gets them thinking. Sometimes you have to shock someone with the truth to get them to take the blinders off. It works! Thank you Lord Jesus for using this undeserving sinner to reach people with the truth.

One of the things that I hear quite a bit in the e-mails people send to me is that I'm not loving like Jesus. There's not a day that goes by where someone doesn't e-mail me to tell me that I'm filled with hatred, but Jesus was loving and understanding towards sinners. They accuse me of failing to be like Jesus. I would like to address such allegations against myself and others like me who stand uncompromisingly against the evils and wickednesses of our time. I would like to present to you some Biblical FACTS about the Lord Jesus Christ, facts that you've probably never heard before (or have heard, but never wanted to accept). The FACT is that Jesus was NOT always the loving pacifist that so many heathens and immature believers would like to make Him out to be.

Jesus Did Get Angry, Sometimes Even Violent

The FACT is that Jesus did get angry sometimes...real angry...so angry that He actually fabricated a whip of cords, went into the temple, and started beating people. Jesus started flipping their tables over, hurling everything onto the temple floor. People were fleeing the temple for fear. They probably said, "

This guy has gone crazy, we're out of here!

Jesus let their doves go free (costing them a financial loss). He threw their money all over the floor...

John 2:15, “And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers’ money, and overthrew the tables”

Can you imagine? Is this our Precious Saviour acting like a mad man? Yes, it most certain is. Jesus was very angry to put it mildly. What do you think would happen to someone who did today exactly what Jesus did back then in the temple that day? The person would immediately be arrested and charged with created a public disturbance, assault with a deadly weapon, trespassing, vandalism of public (private) property, et cetera. The judge would force the person into mandatory psychiatric counseling. If an undercover police officer were present at the time of the violent incident, the person would probably have been killed on the spot. So don’t tell me about how loving Jesus was all the time. Yes, Jesus was more loving than any person who ever lived, but He also hated sin like no other...

Hebrews 1:9, “ Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows. ”

Jesus was a perfectly balanced individual, He loved righteousness and equally hated sin. Ninety-five percent of all Christians love righteousness far more than they hate sin. In fact, MOST professed Christians don’t hate sin at all; rather, they live in it. Jesus did not go to gay parades and pass out pizza. Jesus never would endorse Harry Potter like Christianity Today magazine does. Jesus hated sin and preached against it.

Jesus Wasn’t Hesitant to Offend People with the Truth!

I. Jesus reminds a woman about her adulterous affairs

Many people have accused me of being unloving, failing to be like Jesus. Why?Simply because of my direct approach. Was Jesus direct? In John chapter four we read about the Samaritan woman whom Jesus met at the well. In John 4:18, Jesus tells her that she is an adulterer (Matthew 5:32). Wow! Can you imagine meeting someone for the first time and they bring up your adulterous relationships?

II. Jesus hurts someone's feelings

Did you ever read that passage of Scripture where Jesus made someone sorrowful...

Matthew 19:21-22, "J esus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me. But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions."

The truth needed to be spoken! Jesus didn't kowtow and beat-around-the-bush. No, Jesus said what needed to be said.

III. Jesus calls a group of religious people " evil

It was not uncommon for Jesus to speak harsh words to those whom He felt needed to hear them...

Matthew 12:34, "O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh."

Wow! Jesus called those religious people “ evil.

Doesn’t sound like a very nice thing to do, huh? The diversity committee wouldn’t have liked Jesus’ outbursts of contempt and hate speech very much would they? Jesus would have been very unpopular in today’s apostate world. Jesus even called them

(deadly snakes).

IV. Jesus calls one of His own Disciples "Satan"

Jesus didn’t discriminate, He evidently seemed to hate everyone, even His own disciples. Listen to what Jesus said to the Apostle Peter when Peter showed concern for Christ’s well-being...

Matthew 16:23, "But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men."

Wow, Peter was only trying to be a friend. Peter couldn't have been anymore sincere. Gee Whiz, you'd think Jesus would have been a little more understanding with those closest to Him. Rather, Jesus called Peter "Satan." Wow! Talk about " hate speech.

V. Jesus accuses one of His disciples of being "a devil"

Jesus, while at the dinner table with His disciples, called one of them a "devil"...

John 7:60, "Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?"

Jesus' didn't seem to regard His own family either:

Matthew 12:47-48, "Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee. But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?"

Wow!, Jesus sure had a different side to Him that most people don't see (and don't want to see).

VI. Jesus taught that many people will one day burn in Hell

Everyone likes to think about the "God loves you" Jesus, but no one wants to think about the "You're going to burn in hell" Jesus. Well, here He is...

"Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels" -Matthew 25:41

Huh? Can it be? Is the Loving Saviour actually saying that people will one day burn in the torments of an everlasting fire? Yes, that is exactly true.

VII. Jesus said, do it my way, or burn in Hell when you die!

John 14:6, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me."

Wow!, doesn't sound very diversified does it...do it My way or burn in hell! In fact, Jesus was extremely adamant that there is ONLY ONE WAY TO HEAVEN...

Simply put, it's Jesus or hell. Oprah Winfrey is on the wrong path. Many people are on the wrong path. That means that the Roman Catholic Church is a false religion because they teach that the church, good works, the sacraments, the Rosary, and the blessed virgin Mary are all necessary to enter into Heaven. Catholicism is a bunch of lies. Jesus proclaimed that FEW people will ever make it into heaven...

Matthew 7:13-14, "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

Hell will be filled with religious people who mocked and scorned the precious name of Jesus Christ, while idolizing the mythical Blessed Virgin Mary. Mary didn't remain a virgin folks, she married and had children (Jesus had brothers). The Catholic Mary is a great illusion, a Satanic deception. You see friend, truth is INTOLERANT—it cannot be compromised. 1 + 1 = 2, nothing can change that. If some liar wants to teach people that 1 +1 = 3, it still doesn't change the truth. If some people are gullible enough to believe the lie, that is their misfortune; but the truth hasn't changed one bit—one plus one will always equal two. Everyone has a right to their own opinion, but no one has a right to their own facts!

The Truth Of The Matter

After all the things I just showed you about Jesus from the Bible, you might be wondering about Jesus' character. Well, let me settle your mind. Jesus was justified in everything He ever said or did while upon the earth. According to God's Word, Jesus never sinned one time (2nd Corinthians 5:17, Hebrews 4:15). There was a spiritual truth—heavenly reason, a greater purpose—behind every seemingly unkind thing Jesus ever did or said. Likewise, my website does offend many people, even appearing as "

or

from a quick glance. The truth is that there is so much love invested into this website that no one apart from God Himself can possibly know my heart. I love people, but I equally love God. I love the truth of God's Word.

The problem with so many people is that they love people and things, but not God. We are living in a wicked world that speaks and sings of love, while simultaneously sacrificing God and His Word on the alter of sinful compromise. The wicked world wants to achieve unity between the righteous and the wicked, but there can be NO unity. Why? Because God's holiness cannot be compromised. God never changes (Malachi 3:6). The same God that hated homosexuality back in the Old Testament hates the same abominable sin today. Christ-honoring Christians will never stop preaching against the vile sin of homosexuality (or any other sin for that matter). Why? It is simply because God never changes.

Jesus expressed His love at times in unconventional manners that mad people angry or frustrated at Him. John the Baptist was the greatest man born amongst women the Bible declares (Mathew 11:11). No doubt, Jesus loved John dearly. Yet, John didn't understand why he was rotting in a prison while God incarnate was walking the earth. I mean, John had done his very best to prepare the people for the Lord's coming, and now he's on death row locked-up behind bars. John became discouraged and even questioned Christ's legitimacy...

Luke 7:19, "And John calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?"

Wow! Did Jesus even abandon His friends in time of need? We don't understand the spiritual significance of what was done, but God knows the reasons. We must maintain a complete Biblical perspective of the Savior. It is a dangerous thing to hold to a lopsided view of the Savior. Jesus loves people, so much that He died upon the cross for all of us (John 3:16). God would rather die than see you go to Hell! Yet, Jesus shelled the corn (preached hard) and spoke the truth when it needed to be spoken. Jesus was no wimp, no spineless coward, no compromiser. Jesus was a man's man, the only begotten Son of God, God incarnate. Jesus cared for others and loved His family and friends. However, love cannot supersede truth. True love occurs within the framework of truth. If love is not based upon truth, then it is not God's love. I love you enough to tell you the truth, even though I may risk becoming unpopular or being disliked for it.

So to those of you who think that Jesus never spoke a harsh word or never criticized some-one else's religion—you are very wrong! Jesus was quite outspoken and didn't worry about offending people. Jesus was much rather willing to be divided over truth, than to be united by error. If you think that my website is lacking the Savior's love, then I suggest that you read the New Testament throughly In so doing, you will discover that the loving Savior at times flipped over tables, threw people's things on the floor, assaulted them with a whip, and then drove them out of the building. If you don't like me, you'll hate Jesus. Jesus told some people that they would one day be weeping and gnashing their teeth after being cast into outer darkness (Matthew 8:12). You wouldn't have liked Billy Sunday either. Jesus was no respecter of persons and spoke the plain truth with apology. That's what you call "tough love."

Let us follow in the Savior's footsteps by doing the same. God deliver us from this weak-kneed generation of television believers.

1.4 June

1.4.1 I Was Abused At CEDARS-SINAI Hospital in Los Angeles (2020-06-01 08:49)

Matthew 25:40, “And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.”

By David J. Stewart (originally article written in January 2010 after my surgery)

I Was Woefully Abused At CEDARS-SINAI Hospital in Los Angeles

I traveled from Guam to California in June of 2009 for Anterior Cervical Discectomy And Fusion (ACDF) neck surgery. I was repeatedly abused and mistreated at Cedars-Sinai Hospital in Los Angeles in 2009. I underwent Cervical Discectomy And Fusion surgery at C5-C6-C7. The hospital abandoned me after surgery. They stuck me in a taxi-cab, after the Guam liaison nurse (Donna Bias) informed me that doing so was against hospital policy. She picked me up and drove me to the hospital to get my surgery, but then cruelly abandoned me after surgery, which resulted in me ending up back in the hospital (because the cab driver gunned the gas pedal to zoom into traffic and my head lunged back). Because of Miss Bias I suffered horribly that night, crying in pain at the hotel in West Hollywood. I couldn't get a hold of anybody at the hospital, except answering machines. Finally reached Donna Bias and she told me to go to the Emergency Room (ER), which I did. I needed treatment for unbearable neck pain.

The horrible staff and doctors at Cedars-Sinai in Los Angeles, California, are ungodly people, who have no fear of God. I was abused, mistreated, abandoned and throw out on the street in 2009 while still bleeding, with stabbing pain in my chest, and in no condition to leave. I hadn't even been out of surgery for 48 hours! No one at Cedars-Sinai cared. I was mistreated like I was garbage. Donna Bias didn't care! Dr. Rebecca Rosemann didn't care! Dr. Mark Davidson didn't care! Dr. Neel Anand didn't care! Shannon in the Emergency Room didn't care, and she was abusive! They were ungodly heathens! I have prayed often for God to punish them and hold them fully accountable for their evil wickedness (Matthew 12:36; Ecclesiastes 12:14; Romans 14:10-12), in that they horribly mistreated me and didn't care, abandoning me after neck surgery, causing great pain, grief and suffering for me bodily, mentally and spiritually in June of 2009. What a bunch of incompetent cowards and horrible jerks! DON'T GET SURGERY AT CEDARS-SINAI!!!

It was just after sunset. When I arrived by taxi-cab at the Cedars-Sinai ER, they wouldn't treat my pain unless I signed financial forms, obligating me to pay them. If you've ever dealt with hospitals, you know how they can be thugs when it comes to billing and collection. Donna Bias had told me 30 minutes earlier to let them know at the ER to CALL HER right away (because worker's compensation was entirely responsible for the bills). The ER refused to call her. They were thugs! The medical staff were a group of Caucasian yuppie brats, behaving shamefully and without respect for others. Some punk male nurse stuck his chest in my face, contending that you wouldn't mail a letter without a stamp on it. About 5-6 medical staff were present, sitting on the butts behind the ER counter. Shannon was the head nurse in charge. It hadn't even been 48 hours since my neck surgery. I still had my IV tape on my wrist from surgery. I was still wearing my hospital identification band. I was wearing my neck brace (surgical collar). While the male punk nurse was arguing at me, his co-workers joined in, berating me and telling me why they wouldn't treat my pain unless I signed the financial forms. They kept calling it a "consent" form, but I read it, and it was also a financial form. Monsters!

I called my pre-operation doctor, Dr. Davidson, and he said the ER staff were breaking the law by not treating me. I handed the phone to nurse Shannon, but she became visibly angry and refused to talk to Dr. Mark Davidson. Then in anger she yelled at me, agitated and emotionally worked up. I finally just walked out the door. This ordeal had lasted for about 20 minutes. Cedar-Sinai's punk staff abused me verbally and refused to treat my pain after surgery (at their hospital). One of the voluntary workers (who are the ONLY people at Cedars-Sinai who actually cared) came up while I was leaving, looking like she was ready to cry, asking what was wrong, and I told her how I had been abused and denied medical treatment. The volunteers aren't medical staff and have no authority to correct any problems. Cedars-Sinai has 10,000 people on staff. Unfortunately, I met many of the negligent ones!

After my surgery, I was still bleeding (where they removed the catheter from my private area). I told doctor Davidson that I wasn't ready to leave, but he didn't care. The nurses didn't care. I still had a stabbing pain in my chest, in the sternum area. They gave me some medication for that, but I again told them I wasn't ready to be discharged. It has only been 24 hours since my discectomy an fusion surgery, but they couldn't have cared less about my request to remain in the hospital for another day or two until the chest pain, bleeding and dizziness went away. I told one of my male nurses that I felt dizzy. He asked me twice if I could walk, dismissing my complaint that I was dizzy. He couldn't have cared less.

Here's The Ugly Truth About Cedars-Sinai

Before my surgery, nurse Donna Bias had boasted of the hospital's lowest hospital stay after surgery. What that unfortunately means is that they have every incentive to throw you out of their hospital after surgery, whether you are ready to be discharged or not. I am fully convinced that if I had been a Hollywood actor (like George Clooney) or a wealthy Jewish person, they never would have put me out in the street (literally putting me into a taxicab the day after major neck surgery). Monsters! God will avenge me of their evil on Judgment Day (Ecclesiastes 12:14; Matthew 12:39; Romans 14:10-12; James 4:12). God will make them care! I filed a big complaint with the California Medical Board against Cedars-Sinai in 2010, against several of their incompetent doctors and staff, but after three months of sitting on their asses they did absolutely nothing! The Medical Board of the state of California literally sent me a letter after 90-days asking me if I still really wanted to file a complaint. I was frustrated and felt helpless. I've been violated by Cedars Sinai Medical Center and there is nothing that I can do! CALIFORNIA IS VERY CORRUPT!!! If you don't believe me, search online about police abuse in California, and state corruption, and financial scams. Cedar-Sinai is no better in my opinion!

If there's one area of your business where you ought to have a friendly, understanding, and cool temperament person, it's in your Customer Service or Quality Improvement Department. I flew 6,000 miles from Guam to Cedars-Sinai, just to be mistreated. As mentioned, I underwent neck surgery in 2009 at CEDARS-SINAI MEDICAL CENTER in Los Angeles, California. They abandoned, abused and mistreated me as a patient while I was there. I wrote a 14-page complaint letter to both their administrative department and Quality Improvement Office. They couldn't have cared less. Their complaint department attempted to send me a form apology letter. I told them that I can buy them too, by the box full. Form apology letters don't mean crap! I kindly requested a personal apology from an actual person, particularly the ER night manager, but Cedars-Sinai refused. No one cared! No one was in charge that gave a damn! The woman on the phone was mean in Customer Service was uncaring, defensive and belligerent.

I specifically requested to speak with a manager because of the severity of the issues involved—like mistakenly switching my surgical paperwork with another patient before surgery, and their security guard rifling through my personal wallet like it was his own without my permission (I felt like I was being raped), and abandoning me after surgery. After the cab driver gunned the gas pedal, I was in horrible pain. As I mentioned, I went to the ER that night on Thursday, but they refused to help me over a financial form. They didn't give a damn who Donna Bias was, even though she worked for the hospital as one of their nurses, (she convinced me to trust them by coming from Guam to Cedars in the first place to get my neck surgery). She totally abandoned me after surgery! I certainly would never recommended that anyone on Guam get surgery done at Cedars-Sinai Hospital.

On Friday, the next day, the hospital (Cedars-Sinai) had to x-ray my neck to see if my head lunging backward in the taxicab loosened any of the surgical hardware (I have a titanium plate and 6 surgical screws in my neck). I was readmitted into Cedars-Sinai on Friday. On Saturday my neck pain was excruciating and unbearable. I pleaded for more pain medication, but the doctor was GONE FOR THE WEEKEND. They refused to treat my pain. They couldn't reach the doctor. No one cared! No one gave a damn! I told the volunteer workers (all they do is sing to patients to make them feel better), but the two female singers said they had no power to do anything. What irony, the hospital provides singers while abandoning you to suffer in unbearable pain. I wouldn't send my dog to Cedars-Sinai!!! I got up to leave the hospital, but the nurse threatened me that she would call security, and I would have to sign a disclaimer that protected the hospital from any liability. Monsters! I suffered in pain for 2-days in the hospital after my surgery with no doctor to treat my pain. It was horribly unbelievable! Cedars-Sinai Hospital dropped the ball repeatedly. What a crappy hospital! Romans 12:19, "Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord."

Again, I had requested a verbal, person-to-person, apology from one of their administrators, and not just some generic template letter that said, "too bad, so sad, blah, blah, blah." Dr. Neel Anand did my surgery, and Dr. Mark Davidson did my pre-op, and Dr. Rebecca Rosemann did my post-op. None of them cared enough to look into any of these issues. They didn't care at all!

When I hadn't heard from any manager from Cedars-Sinai for a month, I called and spoke with Julie in their Quality Improvement Department (what a waste of time). She didn't listen to what I had to say, cutting the conversation short, because she said she needed to get information from the employees. She never called me back. Monsters!

It's just no way to treat a patient. I flew 6,000 miles to get surgery and they treated me badly. As a concerned consumer, I strongly believe in word-of-mouth. Nothing frustrates me more than big businesses today who treat the little guy like garbage. That's what's wrong with America today. My experience is that if a business will mistreat one person, they'll mistreat others. I want to warn people about what I went through. They tried to send me some generic template apology letter, which I refused. I told them not to send me such a letter, because it was an insult. The issues involved were too serious and they had never given me an adequate say. From day one I requested to talk with a human being, a manager, about the issues that happened; but they didn't care.

Two-months latter Julie calls me to ask if I got the letter. I told her that I had asked to speak with a manager. She became belligerent and said that she was going to close my complaint case. I said, "and you're not going to apologize?" She said, "Why should I, you refused the letter." I explained that I had repeatedly requested to discuss the issues with a manager (which she is not). She refused to apologize. After all the grief they caused me, she wouldn't even apologize (and she works in their Quality Improvement Department). That's pretty bad.

They are so arrogant at Cedars-Sinai Hospital that not one person had the decency, nor maturity, to call me and apologize like an adult. They acted like a bunch of brats. They'd rather send some generic template letter, than deal with the patient directly. That's not good business.

And moreover, they refused to allow me to speak with a manager about all the issues. I laid there in their hospital suffering in agonizing pain for 2-days without proper pain medication, because their doctor vanished for the weekend. That's patient abandonment. Is it too much to ask to speak with the manager over that department, or the hospital manager, and to expect a personal apology? I guess so.

If Julie had just been an adult, and apologized, and took some time to hear my side of the story further, I would have been satisfied. But instead, she chose to antagonize me, refusing to apologize over the phone, saying she'd closed the case, even though I was not satisfied with the hospital's inadequate response to my complaints. She couldn't have cared less.

You know, one person can really hurt your business, let along several bad employees!

I WAS HORRIBLY ABUSED BY HOSPITAL SECURITY AT CEDARS-SINAI

I was being prepped for surgery. I had called Dr. Rebecca Rosemann and asked if what to do with my wallet, whether I needed an ID, et cetera. She said to bring my wallet and ID and that the hospital would put it securely in a safe during my surgery. What she didn't tell me is that some thug security guard would violate my person and privacy, emptying my wallet piece-by-piece, writing every item of content down. I felt like I was being raped. The operating room technicians had already put about 40 wires on my body, preparing the monitoring equipment for surgery. When I was married, my wife wouldn't even go into my wallet, because she felt awkward going into my personal stuff. That is how she felt. She respected my person. That is the way we ought to treat each other.

The ungodly Caucasian security guard at Cedars-Sinai didn't ask for my permission. He just opened my wallet and started removing items, one by one. What a selfish person! As he would remove and look at the dozens of cards and items, he would sometimes look at me, like he was analyzing each item and forming an opinion. I was being prepped for surgery, so my brain wasn't as aware as I normally would have been. I had never been in a situation like that before. I am still hurt and upset about what happened. I love God's promise in Matthew 7:1-2 and verse 12, to judge men according to how they treat others. I pray for God to avenge me of that wicked insensitive security guard. No doubt he would say he was just "doing his job," like Herod's henchman who murdered thousands of innocent little children (they were just doing their job too!).

At a minimum, the guard should have asked for my permission, and explained to me what he was required to do, not just rape me! I was sitting right there, fully conscious, and he could have shown me a little respect. Instead, in typical thug guard fashion, he just did whatever he wanted with zero respect for me as a human being. That man brought shame upon his mother and father, evidencing that they raised a careless, brute, inconsiderate, brat for a boy. Some of the worse evils in this world are done by irresponsible people who claim to just be "doing their job." Just because something is your job doesn't make it right to abuse others, humiliate them, nor does it give you the right to be a heartless thug! People have feelings. Monsters are real! I have nothing good to say about Cedars-Sinai Hospital. Please don't get surgery there people of Guam! Cedars-Sinai Hospital is so popular with Hollywood celebrities that the hospital owners couldn't care less about the little guy, the common man, the average Joe, nobodies like me!

Matthew 25:40, "And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

That ungodly security guard emotionally raped me in the hospital that day. I was very distressed. My heart was crushed. While in surgery, the emotional trauma from what the guard did affected me. After the surgery, the operating room nurse said that my heart was racing at top speed, and they had to slow it down. I am fully convinced to this day that it was the emotional trauma inflicted by that insensitive, thug, bastard security guard at Cedars-Sinai Hospital that caused my heart to race 100 miles an hour during surgery. I HAD BEEN RAPED! That is exactly how I felt. I pray for God to avenge me, and I want to see that guard held accountable before God on Judgment Day. I pray dear Lord Jesus Christ, please, that it would be so! I am a forgiving person, but this is not about forgiveness, it is about that wicked man being held accountable for his cruel insensitivity toward another human being. I need that guard to know what he did that day, because he probable is a cold-hearted person who doesn't understand the pain that he caused. 2nd Thessalonians 3:2, "And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith."

LOSING TOUCH WITH PATIENTS

I underwent neck surgery, double discectomy and spinal fusion, at CEDARS-SINAI MEDICAL CENTER in 2009. I was nothing less than a complete gentleman while in their care. Unfortunately, I can't say the same for several employees at their hospital, who were abusive, arrogant, rude and insulting. They refused to help me medically when I went to their emergency room. They refused to help me medically while in the hospital, because the pain specialist assigned to me disappeared for the weekend. They treated me like garbage.

You'd think that out of all the doctors and employees involved that even one of them might be adult enough to contact me and express their sincerest apologies. Nope!

Instead they send some generic letter, which is toilet paper. I told them to keep it. I'm sure it's not just Cedars-Sinai Hospital that lacks in quality of care, but they've lost touch with their patients in my opinion. For heaven's sake, is it so difficult to pick up a phone? You'd think one of the doctors would have called me, to see how I was doing. Nope! No one ever called to see how I was doing, and the belligerent woman in their Quality Improvement Department didn't bother to ask either. That's sad.

One nurse assured me that I'd hear from the manager of the emergency room, concerning the abuse I suffered in their emergency room; but the manager never did call, and didn't care. No one ever followed up. I sat one day waiting for 8-hours for the evening manager of the emergency room to call. They just wasted my time. Of course I would be upset.

It just perplexes me why a hospital, after I sent them 14-pages of complaints, would choose to brush me off with a lousy letter, instead of calling me as I requested to discuss the issues at length. All I wanted was to have a person-to-person, adult-to-adult, talk with someone in charge at the hospital who had the power to make a difference. Instead, I got this childish woman in their Quality Improvement Department who wouldn't even apologize over the phone, and said she was going to close out my complaint, when no one had ever talked with me about the issues.

What if you took your car into a repair shop for work, and their mechanic went home for the weekend while you were sitting in the waiting room? Sound ridiculous? Well, I was laying in a hospital bed and the doctor assigned to me disappeared for the weekend. I laid there suffering in the hospital for 2-days with inadequate pain medication, because the nurse couldn't reach my doctor for the weekend. That's how they treated me. It's called patient abandonment. Of course a lousy letter is not enough. All I requested was to speak with a manager, but they refused.

They just don't care, likely because they're a big hospital and are in the ritzy Beverly Hills area. In my opinion they are arrogant. I feel that they have lost touch with their patients.

ALWAYS CHECK YOUR PAPERWORK!

In 2009, I underwent surgery at CEDARS-SINAI MEDICAL CENTER in Los Angeles, California. On the morning of the surgery, they handed me my surgical paperwork, which contained detailed personal information.

As I sat in the waiting room reading the information they gave me, I was confused at first, because all of the information was incorrect. My first thought was that someone had entered the wrong information about me into the system. As I continued to read, the information was so wrong that I started looking for a name, which I found to be for another patient. They had given me another patient's paperwork, and my paperwork to another patient.

I unknowingly read quite a few personal things about the other patient, before I realized that it wasn't my paperwork. I was suffering in a lot of pain, and was weary from having difficulty sleeping due to the pain, and am fortunate to have noticed the switched paperwork at all. The other patient didn't even look at his paperwork.

I am so glad that I noticed the mistake the hospital made, because God only knows what might have happened.

Please, always check your paperwork and everything else, because you'll end up getting your kidney taken out when you went in for foot surgery. It happens every day all across America. Switching a patient's paperwork is a very serious mistake.

The sad thing is that the hospital refused to discuss the matter with me and Julie in their Quality Improvement Department refused to even apologize when I spoke with her. They couldn't have cared less. They allegedly tried to send me some generic apology letter, which I told them I didn't want, because the issues were serious and I wanted to speak with a manager. They refused and no one ever called me. No matter how much they screw up, they just send you a template letter saying too bad, so sad, blah, blah, blah. All I wanted was to speak with someone in management, but they refused. You couldn't pay me to go back there.

FORMS, FORMS AND MORE FORMS!

My doctor had recommended me to a pain specialist. I was suffering in horrible pain (which is why I was there in the first place). The receptionist handed me 10-forms to fill out. After spending about 30-minutes filling out paperwork, one of the questions on the form asked, "What makes your pain worse?" I wrote down, "spending 45-minutes filling out endless paperwork."

Every time you go to a doctor and all the related medical institutions, you have to fill out a bunch of paperwork—whether it be for a blood test, an x-ray, an MRI, a pain specialist, the pre-operation doctor, the surgeon, the post-operation doctor, hospital admission, et cetera. Paperwork, paperwork, paperwork. Commonsense is out the window nowadays.

You'd think that someone would have simplified the process a long, long, time ago.

INSINCERE GENERIC TEMPLATE APOLOGY LETTERS

Nothing shows the insincerity of a business more, than when they use generic template apology letters.

Even worse is when a patient is abused, neglected and mistreated by a hospital, and the hospital administration doesn't have enough decency to apologize personally. It is an insult, and shows the organization's insincerity, when they mail you a "too bad, so sad, blah, blah, blah" apology letter.

They buy these generic template letters by the box-full at local stationary stores. That's not the way to do business. If you care about truly improving the quality of your business, then you won't send someone an insincere template apology letter, especially if they tell you they don't want one.

I underwent neck surgery (double discectomy and spinal fusion) in 2009 at CEDARS-SINAI HOSPITAL in the Beverly Hills area of West Los Angeles, California. It was one mistake after another by hospital staff. The primary nurse helping me must have been an air-head, because she kept giving me wrong information. I say that kindly. The emergency room staff were rude, belligerent and abusive. It wasn't even 48-hours after surgery, and I came to the emergency room due to severe pain at the advice of my doctor. Yet, they couldn't have cared less. It was a mess.

I was readmitted the next day into the hospital for pain treatment, but the pain specialist assigned to me vanished for the weekend. I was back in the hospital, laying there in horrible pain, and the nurse told me I would have to suffer because she couldn't reach a doctor because it was the weekend.

I sent a 14-page complaint letter to the hospital's Quality Improvement Department and to the hospital's Administration. I specifically requested a conversation with someone in hospital management, to discuss the many important issues involved.

After weeks of being ignored, I called Julie in their Quality Improvement Department, but she stopped the conversation, saying she needed to talk to the hospital employees to get more information. No one ever called back.

After kindly requesting to talk with a manager, they sent me a letter instead 2-months later. They don't care. All I wanted was to discuss the issues with a person, and to receive a personal apology, from a person; but they decided to send a generic template apology instead, without getting all my information, without hearing everything I had to say, without caring to give me a say. It's just rotten and no way to do business. The just didn't want to hear what I had to say. They refused to listen.

If you send people insincere "too bad, so sad, blah, blah, blah" type apology letters, while refusing to hear what they have to say, don't be surprised when they send it back and suggest that you wipe your butt with it. The fact of that matter is that NO ONE from Cedars-Sinai has apologized to me, and NO ONE has been held accountable for anything!!! The hospital has my blood on their hands, which crieth out unto God for justice!

CEDARS-SINAI NOT THE PLACE TO GO

If you live on Guam or in the Micronesian territories, and need surgery, please consider St. Lukes Hospital in the Philippines or Queen's Hospital in Honolulu, Hawaii; rather than Cedars-Sinai Medical Center in Los Angeles, California, if you want the best care. I was sold on the notion that Cedars was the best place to go. Well, I couldn't disagree more after going there.

It's burdensome to spend 14-hours on a plane traveling after surgery, and lengthy layovers at the airport, even after an initial healing period. St. Lukes in only 3-hours away.

My only intent in these posts is to express my opinion, which is my Bill of Rights as a U.S. Citizen. Cedars-Sinai Hospital is a horrible place to get surgery in my opinion. I should know, because I underwent surgery there in 2009, and I’m still suffering horribly. I regret ever going there.

They really dropped the ball, and I didn’t get the proper medical attention that I desperately needed from them. The pain specialist assigned to me vanished for the weekend after my surgery, and I suffered for 2-days with inadequate pain medications. I was treated like garbage by their emergency room staff. The attending nurse in the Emergency Room was so arrogant that she wouldn’t even speak with my doctor on the phone. That’s messed up!

They discharged me from the hospital while still bleeding, dizzy, had stabbing pain in my chest, and was in need of stronger pain medication than the pills they handed me. The nurse came into my hospital room and said, "You’re still here, I thought the other patient was already here." The doctor who performed my surgery didn’t visit me the day I was discharged.

After all the needless grief, unnecessary suffering and undue stress their employees caused, the hospital administration refused to even offer a verbal apology, and moreover the opportunity to discuss the issues with management. They just blew me off and didn’t care. I don’t think I could have been more reasonable to request speaking with a manager, instead of them sending some generic template letter (too bad, so sad, blah, blah, blah). That’s not the way to do business if you care. They don’t care, which is why they wouldn’t call me and refused to discuss the issues.

CEDARS-SINAI IS ONE OF THE WORST HOSPITALS

It is sad, but true, many U.S. hospitals are below acceptable standards. Even worse, if you are mistreated, there is little recourse of action available. Thankfully, freedom of speech allows us at least to share our bad experiences with others, so hopefully they won't undergo the same abuse. This particular blog is about CEDARS-SINAI MEDICAL CENTER in Los Angeles, California. I strongly recommend that you consider getting surgery somewhere else.

I underwent neck surgery there in 2009, i.e., double discectomy and spinal fusion. Two weeks after the surgery, I wrote a multi-page complaint letter to CEDAR-SINAI'S Quality Improvement Department. I specified that I didn't want a generic apology letter. I requested to speak with a human being, a person, and to receive an apology from a person. They refused.

Here are my numerous complaints I made to the hospital:

1. They mixed up my surgical paperwork with another patient's. Fortunately I caught the error.
2. Prior to my surgery, while I had wires all sticking out of me, a hospital security guard went through my wallet, without even telling me what he was doing. He took everything out of my wallet, item by item, and then wrote it all down. He should have at least introduced himself and asked me if it was okay for him to look in my wallet. He violated my right to privacy and disrespected me as a person. Nurse Laura Raya told me they'd simply put my wallet into the hospital safe. She didn't say they would rifle through my wallet like it was their own. That's really low-class on their part.
3. They put me out of the hospital too soon—while I was still dizzy, bleeding from where the catheter was removed, suffering in agonizing pain, felt stabbing pain in my chest, et cetera. They didn't care. It hadn't even been 48-hours since I woke out of surgery. They cut my neck from the front to do the surgery.
4. I told the male nurse that I felt dizzy. He asked, "But you can walk right?" I again told him that I was dizzy, and he again asked, "But you can walk right?"
5. The surgeon, Dr. Neel Anand, who performed my surgery assured me BEFORE the surgery that he would give me stronger pain medication AFTER the surgery, because my body was used to the meds I had been taking for a long time. Well, he didn't and I suffered horribly.
6. After being told that it was against hospital policy to put me in a taxi after my surgery, they put me in a taxi anyway. The driver gunned the gas pedal and my head lunged back. I thought the hardware had come loose in my neck.
7. I was alone when I received surgery, with no family present, nor waiting at the hotel. I told this to the staff, pre-op doctor (Dr. Mark Davidson) and surgeon, but they didn't care.

Workman’s Comp wanted me to stay in the hospital for a longer duration, but the surgeon said no.

8. After the taxi incident, I ended up back in CEDARS-SINAI’s emergency room just 3-hours after I was discharged from the hospital.

9. The pre-op doctor told me to go to the emergency room for pain relief and have them call him. I did that and they refused to treat me for 30-minutes because I refused to sign a financial obligation form. I told them that I had just undergone surgery at THEIR hospital, by THEIR doctors, and was now in THEIR emergency room. And moreover, I had been instructed by one of THEIR doctors to have THEM call him, but they could not be reasoned with. They refused to help me, even raising their voices at me and telling me to leave. I tell the truth.

10. One nurse became belligerent and said, "Would you mail a letter without a stamp?" Another nurse stuck his chest in my face and ordered me into a side room. I couldn’t believe what I was witnessing. They ganged up on me. I was wearing my neck brace, had on my original IV bandages from surgery, and wore another bandage where blood had been removed. I was barely able to stand up I was so tired and weary. The employees in their emergency room were rude, abusive, insulting and extremely unprofessional.

11. I went into the side room to use the phone, to call the pre-op doctor who had told me to go to the emergency room. While the phone was ringing, a female staff member walked in with a witness and said, "Sign this form or else you have to use the phone in the lobby." I told her that I went into the side room to avoid conflict with them, because they were being abusive, and now she was wanting to pick a fight with me. I told her that I was in pain from surgery and needed their help, and didn’t need their harassment.

12. The pre-op doctor answered his phone. I told him that I was being abused by the emergency room staff. He said they were breaking the law by not helping me. A senior nurse came in and I could see that she was angry. My doctor asked to speak to her, but she said, word for word, "I’m not talking to your doctor or any doctor." I couldn’t believe what I was hearing. She wouldn’t even talk with my doctor, who was waiting on the phone. She had a needle in her hand and said, "Do you want help or not?" After waiting 30-minutes, and seeing that she was visibly angry and emotional, I decided to suffer in pain rather than let them abuse me any further. I went back to the hotel and tripled my pain pills in desperation for relief. I was grief stricken and overwhelmed. It was hell on earth at CEDARS-SINAI HOSPITAL that night.

13. The next day I went back to CEDARS-SINAI and requested an x-ray from the taxi incident to see if my hardware had come loose, because my pain was excruciating. They handed me 15-pages of paperwork to fill out.

14. I was in so much pain that I requested to be readmitted back into the hospital the next day. My surgeon readmitted me into the hospital. This was a Friday afternoon. I was assigned to a pain specialist who disappeared for the weekend. I was suffering in pain bad on Saturday, but the nurse said she couldn’t give me any more pain medication without the doctor’s permission, and she couldn’t reach the doctor for the weekend. I was stunned. The whole reason I was readmitted into the hospital was for them to treat my pain. I said, then I’ll just go home. The nurse became snotty and said, "Then you’ll have to sign a statement that you’re going directly against your doctor’s orders." I was trapped in their hospital. The doctor was unavailable for the weekend and I just suffered in agonizing pain.

No one cared at all at CEDARS-SINAI. I even called their Volunteer Department, but they said they couldn't do anything.

15. On Sunday, after suffering all night in unnecessary pain, I finally got the approval of a different doctor to go home. They never did treat my pain as they advertise.

16. The nurse (Donna Bias) handling my Workman's Comp paperwork messed up and I received a bunch of bills that I shouldn't have received.

17. The surgeon prescribed a Bone Stimulator device for my neck, to help it fuse, and they gave me enough electrode pads for 6-weeks. I ran out. They had assured me they would send more if I needed them. I contacted them and was told they'd send the pads. I never did receive any more pads and I couldn't find the pads to buy anywhere online. I was supposed to wear the device for 9-months according to Dr. Rebecca Rosemann. I wore it for 6-weeks because they didn't send me the pads they had promised.

18. I was assured by the coordinator nurse that I would receive a phone call from the manager of the emergency room, 4-times, but no one ever called. She just ignored me. After all the abuse I endured in the emergency room, was it too much to expect a simple verbal apology.

19. And so, I hope and pray that no one reading this post will ever have to go through what I suffered through. The surgery hasn't offered ANY relief, none whatsoever. My legs still kick way out when tested for reflexes. I had a recent MRI, which shows that I still have bone spurs in the same C5-C6 area where they did surgery. Why didn't they take care of the bone spurs while they were in there at C5-C6? I just don't get it. I need another surgery to fix what they left undone. Sure I'm upset. It was scary enough getting the first surgery, and now I have to get surgery all over again because they didn't do the job right the first time. I have severe pain and ripping tension in my neck, and pain extending down into my right arm and leg. Going to CEDARS-SINAI was a big mistake.

20. They told me to wear the Bone Stimulator device they provided for 9-months. Despite my request for more pads, they never sent them. I reminded them, but they ignored me. Cedars-Sinai crapped on me! I tried to buy the pads on E-bay, but couldn't find them anywhere. And so, I only wore the unit for 6-weeks. What a sham by the hospital! Is that how you treat a patient after performing surgery on him? Of course I'm upset. My comforting thought is that the King James Bible (God's inspired Words) promises that God will avenge me as His child of Cedars-Sinai Hospital's abuse, mistreatment, incompetence, dishonesty and worst of all, apathy. They are indifferent. Donna Bias lied to me about hospital policy, and they should have provided safe transportation back to my residence after surgery. She lied to me! They stuck me in a taxicab. Romans 12:19, "Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord."

21. Donna Bias promised me that the night manager of the ER would contact me, so that we could discuss the incidents which happened when they refused to treat my neck pain after surgery. No one ever called, and when I called Cedars-Sinai, Julie was belligerent and deliberately cut the call short, promising that someone would get back to me. Julie also lied to me—no one ever called. It is dishonest that Cedars-Sinai brags about the lowest hospital stay after surgery. The truth is that to maintain their national record, you can expect to be discharged and thrown out of the hospital—whether you are ready to be discharged or not.

Worker's comp said they would have preferred that Cedars-Sinai keep me under observation after my surgery, but Cedars only cares about maintaining their shady impressive statistics. THAT IS NEFARIOUS AND EXTREMELY DISHONEST!!! I suffered needlessly so that Cedars-could maintain their bullcrap statistics. There's nothing impress about statistics attained at the expense of hurting others. Romans 12:19, "Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord."

Please say a prayer for me, whoever you may be; and please DON'T go to CEDARS-SINAI for anything, unless you want to be abandoned, abused and neglected like I was. Don't get surgery at Cedars-Sinai, unless you want to be prematurely discharged after surgery to preserve their bullcrap statistics! I can only speak for myself. My experience was a nightmare. God will avenge me of the abuse, mistreatment, abandonment, arrogance, needless pain, dishonesty, thuggery, indifference, suffering and negligence incurred before, during and after my neck surgery in 2009 at Cedars-Sinai Hospital. I pray for God to avenge me against Cedars-Sinai for their wickedness, unkindness, incompetence and abuse! I have faith in God, that He will give me justice! Even so, come, Lord Jesus!!!

Judgment Day Is Coming In Eternity For Cedars-Sinai's Ungodly Staff

It is my sincere prayer for God almighty to avenge me of the gross medical incompetence of Cedar-Sinai's cold-hearted staff, thug unprofessional bedside manners of a punk security guard on duty (who illegally went through my wallet as if it were his own, violating my rights, violating my person and nearly causing me to die during surgery from the trauma he inflicted upon me. The nurse said my heart was racing during the surgery. Sure, because I was traumatized that I had just been emotionally raped by a piece of trash security guard (who works for the hospital at Cedars), whose mother didn't raise him better to respect other human beings.

If I had my way, I cut his legs off and let him see what pain feels like, and I mean that with all my heart! I'd make sure he paid for his crimes, and could not escape the flagrancy by which he committed them. I'd make sure that he could never forget what he had done, as it would permanently hurt and scar him as he did to me. That is justice! I do not have that power to punish him, but God does (Matthew 7:1-2; 1st Thessalonians 4:6). I have forgiven that guard, but only because God has promised to avenge me of that guard's crimes against me in June of 2009, and I want him to pay and suffer like I did for decades.

Matthew 25:40, "And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Father of 2 sues Los Angeles Cedars-Sinai Hospital after wife dies during childbirth

February 18, 2020 at 2:13 AM CST - Updated February 18 at 9:57 AM

LOS ANGELES (CNN) - After his wife died giving birth to their baby boy, a father of two began research into the “maternal mortality crisis” in the United States, the only developed country with a rising death rate for pregnant or new mothers. He is now pushing for policy changes and awareness.

Kira Johnson’s husband, Charles Johnson, hasn’t stopped remembering the birth of his youngest son, 3-year-old Langston, at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center in Los Angeles. It was also the night that led to his wife’s death.

Charles Johnson says doctors told them Langston’s birth would be a routine Caesarean section, but soon, he started noticing issues.

Charles Johnson, a father of two, is suing Cedars-Sinai Medical Center in Los Angeles over the death of his wife, Kira Johnson, during the birth of their second son, not pictured. (Source: Charles Johnson/CNN)

“I can see the Foley catheter coming from Kira’s bedside begin to turn pink with blood,” Charles Johnson said. “I just held her by her hands and said, ‘Please, look, my wife isn’t doing well.’ This woman looked me directly in my eyes and said, ‘Sir, your wife just isn’t a priority right now.”’

As critical minutes turned into hours, Charles Johnson says he was continually ignored by the staff, as his wife’s health continued to suffer.

“When they took Kira back to surgery and he opened her up, there were 3 and a half liters of blood in her abdomen from where she’d been allowed to bleed internally for almost 10 hours. Her heart stopped immediately,” Charles Johnson said.

Kira Johnson was a successful entrepreneur who spoke five languages. She could fly planes and skydive and seemed invincible to her family, but she died in childbirth. (Source: Charles Johnson/CNN)

Charles Johnson is now suing the hospital for his wife’s death. With the case pending, Cedars-Sinai said in a statement it could not respond directly because of privacy laws but that “any situation where there are concerns about a patient’s medical care” is thoroughly investigated.

Kira Johnson was a successful entrepreneur who spoke five languages. She could fly planes and skydive and seemed invincible to her family, which is why her death is so much harder to understand. In the wake of it, her husband began research into maternal mortality and says the U.S. is in the midst of a “crisis.”

Approximately 700 women in the U.S. die in childbirth every year. It is the only developed country with a rising death rate for pregnant or new mothers. For black women, like Kira Johnson, the risk of death is even higher.

Globally, more mothers die in childbirth in America than in Iran, Turkey or Kazakhstan.

“We are in the midst of a maternal mortality crisis that isn’t just shameful for American standards. It’s shameful on a global scale," Charles Johnson said.

While trying to combat the maternal mortality rate in the United States, Charles Johnson is also raising his two sons and teaching them about their mother. (Source: CNN)

The charity Every Mother Counts, which was founded by supermodel Christy Turlington, says many of the deaths in the U.S. are because of an unequal healthcare system and systemic racism.

Public health experts warn this crisis is not just affecting poor or sick mothers but also healthy, college-educated black women.

“A well-educated African American woman with more than a high school education has a five-fold risk of death compared to a white woman with less than a high school education,” said Wander Barfield, director of the Division of Reproductive Health at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

Now part of an unnecessarily large number of Americans who have lost partners in childbirth, Charles Johnson is pushing for policy changes, raising awareness and trying to hold doctors and hospitals accountable.

“There is a failure and disconnect for the people who are responsible for the lives of these precious women and babies to see them and value them in the same way they would their daughters, their mothers, their sisters,” he said.

Charles Johnson is also raising his sons and teaching them about their mother.

“If I can simply do something to make sure I can send other mothers home with their precious babies, then, it’s all worth it,” he said. “What I try and do is wake up every day and make Mommy proud.”

Sadly, people in the medical profession nowadays just don’t have a strong work ethic anymore. They can’t get along with each other. They’re arrogant if you try to correct them. Youth just want to play with their electronic gadgets, talk about boyfriends and girlfriends, and ignore the hospital patients. I was kept awake in a hospital during the night, by inconsiderate brat male and female nurses, who kept bursting out laughing and couldn’t have cared less about their patients. I was getting ready for surgery the next day. I know firsthand of hundreds of hospital neglects and abuses. I am a repeat victim of their bad attitudes, arrogance and abuses. Youth in the medical profession look like freaks covered in tattoos and body piercings, and many are cross-dressing sodomites. Feminists, God-haters, divorcees who are angry at the world, cruel people! I have met too many of them!!!

Cedars-Sinai is one of the worst places I have ever been unfortunate to stay in. I regret getting surgery there. The hospital has never tried to make things right with me. They got their blood-money, and that’s all they wanted. People don’t matter at Cedars-Sinai, money does! It is my often prayer request for God to avenge me. The Bible says we as believers will one day judge the world. I would love to be their judge. Those wicked people will wish they had never been born, by the time I am done with them. I will make them suffer, as I have suffered, and others have suffered, because of their incompetence; so they can be humbled and learn to respect other people in their care. Even so come, Lord Jesus!!!

1.4.2 How Truth Turns Christians Against The Preacher (2020-06-01 19:54)

Galatians 4:11-17, "I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain. Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all. Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first. And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me. Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them."

The apostle Paul had some form of infirmity (we don't know what it was) that was obvious to those who saw him. Paul commends the believers at Galatia, reminding them that when he first preached the Gospel to them, they hadn't rejected him for his infirmity. Instead they received Paul as if he had been a angel. Paul said if it were possible, they would have plucked out their own eyes to give to him (which seems to indicate that Paul's infirmity was very poor eyesight). They told Paul how much of a blessing His preaching had been to them. To the Galatians, Paul was one of their heroes!

So now time has passed. A dangerous religious group who preaches another gospel has infiltrated the church. This cult has added works to the Gospel of free grace (Galatians 3:1-3). Paul speaks out against them and is now considered their enemy (vs. 16). They have turned against him, upset that he doesn't like or accept their new religious friends and heretical teachings. What happened? How did a doctrinally sound local church become a deadly religious cult? They weren't wise. Brother Lester Roloff said: "You don't get wisdom by going to college, you get wisdom by asking God for it." (sermon: '[1]Old Pros Of The Bible') Wisdom is our number one need. You won't find wisdom in some inspiration-denying Bible college. Jesus is our wisdom (1st Corinthians 1:30).

There is a woeful lack of wisdom in churches today, and worst of all is that arrogant pastors couldn't care less.

Folks, I know what I am talking about. I was saved at age 13. I was called to preach at age 15. I am now 53 years old. The Devil's crowd has absolutely crept into the churches today, with this Lordship Salvation garbage (which teaches that is not enough to be saved; and they say you must also

turn from your sins

and receive Jesus as your Lord too).

The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is right down the street from me, who are corrupted by Lordship Salvation.

The Deadly Curse Of Calvinism

There was an unsaved religious man named John Calvin (1509-1564), who is still idolized 500 years after he walked this earth. His teachings are known as Calvinism. Calvinism is a accursed false gospel (Galatians 1:6-9). According to Calvinism, if you are really saved you WILL follow Jesus as your

Lord,

and you WILL live a holy life. This heresy is known theologically as:

The Perseverance Of The Saints.

" So if you choose as a believer to live in open gross immorality, and not live for Christ, Calvinists will say that you are not saved because you never repented. Dear reader, that is another gospel, not the true Bible Gospel which is taught in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Case in point is [2]Pastor Charles Lawson in Knoxville, Tennessee (he falsely accuses Pastor Jack Hyles of leaving off repentance).

Many former Independent Fundamental Baptist Churches have been infiltrated, and are no longer fundamental. Instead, they are Independent Baptist Ecumenical Churches. We call them neo-fundamentalists!!! These corrupt Baptist churches have become religious cults, no better than the [3]Seventh-Day Adventist cult, who all teach Lordship Salvation. I love the folks at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, but like the foolish Galatians (Galatians 3:1-3) they have been bewitched by false prophets' John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Paul Washer and [4]Stephen Davey. Moody Bible Institute and Moody Radio openly admit and promote Calvinism! Moody Radio is preaching another gospel.

Far more infectious and deadly than the Coronavirus is Calvinism! The Coronavirus may kill your body, but Calvinism will kill your body and soul in Hell forever!!!

Matthew 10:28, " And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell." Adding anything to faith alone in Jesus Christ (which is God's righteousness) is a counterfeit plan of salvation!!! Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:" Turning away from sins is the righteousness of the law.

Calvinism heretically says if you are really trusting Christ, then you WILL keep the law. That is rear-loading the Gospel. That is why a popular Calvinist preacher named [5]Paul Washer, says you cannot write your name, date and place in the back of your Bible when you get saved. According to Paul, you won't KNOW you're really saved, until the end of your life, conditional upon the life you live, to see if you really have faith and have repented. If your works don't confirm your profession, then Calvinists say you aren't saved. Folks, that is NOT the free Gift of God, which is Eternal Life. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." If getting saved is a gift, then you can receive it in a moment's time, and claim it as your forever. It is a gift! A gift is a TAKE proposition, not a GIVE proposition! Salvation is RECEIVING, not ACHIEVING! God doesn't save anybody who is TRYING to be saved, He only saves those who are TRUSTING to be saved. *Once saved always saved i*s 100 % Biblical!!!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Truth-Telling Preachers Will Make Enemies

The apostle Paul made many enemies for telling the truth. Ironically, it wasn't the unsaved heathens who hated him, but the churches themselves! You couldn't make that stuff up! Can you imagine—churches hating the truth-telling preacher?

Galatians 4:16, "

Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

" Dear reader, humanity has always bucked THE TRUTH! Human nature has always strayed away from THE TRUTH. Look what the Old Testament prophet Elijah said to God's people in 1st Kings 18:21, "And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

" That indifferent attitude plagues today's ecumenical churches!!!

The inspired Word of God foretold of coming apostate times, when church pastors and members wouldn't heed THE TRUTH; but instead, heap to themselves false teachers.

2nd Timothy 4:3, "

For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

Since 2014 I have befriended the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam with THE TRUTH, for which they have forced me out of their congregation, shunned, ostracized and ignored me. Their senior pastor even wrongfully called me their

"enemy" in 2017, and refused to allow me to return to church services. I am in the same boat as the apostle Paul, who was despised and counted as an enemy by the ungodly church at Galatia.

Galatians 3:1, " O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?" Just like the Galatians, the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam has foolishly been "bewitched" by false prophets who espouse another gospel (Galatians 3:1-3). I couldn't find another local Baptist church, and was desperate for fellowship with other believers, so I apologized in 2017 for any feelings I may have hurt, I promised not to cause any trouble, and begged to return to Harvest's church services. I pleaded with their ungodly pastors three times. They cold-heartedly refused and told me to

Go elsewhere

(their exact words). I have continued to seek to reconcile and return for the past 5 years, but Harvest Baptist Church on Guam will not forgive, love or accept me back, because they are sinfully holding a grudge (Romans 14:10-12; James 4:12). God will judge them!

Truth turns people against the truth-telling preacher! Elijah was frustrated with the people, because they refused to take sides and stand with God's man for what was true and right. I know I am right that the modern Bible revisions are corrupted by Satan. They all attack the deity of Jesus Christ. Anything that has been translated from the Greek New Testament manuscripts of Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort is poison!!! Harvest Baptist Church won't listen, and they don't care, they love the Devil's counterfeit Bible revisions. Please watch the excellent movie titled: '[6]NEW WORLD ORDER BIBLE VERSIONS." Harvest employee mostly Bob Jones University graduates, who are all complicit to the Devil's corruptible seed. You cannot reason with them because they are fools. They love falsehoods!

I told THE TRUTH at Harvest, warning their pastors and many church members, and staff, that Dr. John MacArthur is a wolf in sheep's clothing, and that Lordship Salvation is a lie of the Devil. For this defence of the truth I was kicked out, ostracized and have been banned in writing via e-mail from returning to Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. My crime is obeying Jude 1:3b to,

" earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints." I will continue to contend for the faith, and I know God will avenge me of Harvest's cruelty and abuse. I am set for the defence of the Gospel!!! Preaching THE TRUTH is not popular and never has been. It got John the Baptist killed. Herodias requested for John's head to be chopped off, for preaching THE TRUTH against her sin of adultery. Paul on numerous occasions was attacked by angry mobs for preaching the truth. Stephen was stoned to death. James was beheaded by Herod. Preaching Bible truth always brings revival or riot!

Why Are Billions Of Churchgoers So Easily Deceived?

Why do professed Christians refuse to heed THE TRUTH? It could be because they are not true Christians, not saved at all (like Roman Catholics who trust is Sacramental Salvation). It could also be because they have been indoctrinated by their leaders. In either case, the reason why is because people do not SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES. Instead, they blindly follow their religious leaders. That is what is wrong at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. The people are naive, gullible and they trust their leaders. So if the leaders are corrupt (and they are), going along to get along with peers because of the love of money (job security), then [7]the people will follow them over the cliff of destruction!!!

Joseph (2020-06-04 02:20:18)
Thanks so much Brother David J Stewart for your teaching. I am grateful to God to finally arrived at truth.There are many false teachers who are misleading people by telling them that they have to work for their salvation in other to be saved. My prayer is that they shall know the truth,and the truth shall make them free.

1.4.3 God Hears The Cry (2020-06-02 10:30)

Genesis 4:10, " And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground." ... Genesis 18:20, " And the LORD said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous;"

If God heard Abel's blood crying out from the ground, do you think He has missed the cry of the blood of 60,0000,000 aborted children in the United States since 1973? God hears their cry! If God heard the cries from Sodom and Gomorrah, from the victims of their grievous sins, do you think God hasn't heard the cry of 2,996 murdered World Trade center victims on 911, which was a [1]proven INSIDE JOB? God hears their cries. God hears the cries of adopted children being placed into the parental custody of sodomites and lesbians. God hears the cry of violence, rape and torture all across the U.S. in these insane times. I am shocked as I listen to the daily news nowadays. I am now 53 years old. When I was a child, only the mob committed the type of crimes that Moms and Dads, brother and sisters, and everyday people are committing. This is[2] the consequence of removing and banning the inspired Holy Bible from children's daily lives at school.

[3]The Book That Makes The Difference (Brother Lester Roloff)

God hears the cry of every person who cries out to God for vengeance! Matthew 7:1:-2, " Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again." The Bible teaches that God will judge all men according to how we judge others. We must distinguish between the judgment of the saved versus the unsaved. BOTH saved and unsaved alike will be judged according to our works (2nd Corinthians 5:10, saved; Revelation 20:12-15, unsaved). The unsaved will be punished for their evil works in the Lake of Fire, as in criminal court; the saved will face shame and loss of rewards, as in civil court. No one ever gets away with hurting others! GOD HEARS THE CRY!!!

God Hears My Humble Cry Against Harvest Baptist Church On Guam

God hears my cry, pleading to be avenged of the evils done unto me by Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. In 2014 I attended their church for one year. I loved the pastors, staff and church members. I financially supported the church. I gave many books, sermons and music to those around me, to be a blessing in the Lord to others. But I made a fatal mistake when I tried to help the pastors see that they were deceived doctrinally in a few areas. They were teaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation in the church. So I gave them hard copies (that I purchased with my own money) of Michael P. Bowen's book, "

[4]I NEVER KNEW YOU

" (free .PDF version online).

I saw that the church used and sanctioned dozens of different Bible revisions. So I gave them hard copies of Pastor Al Lacy's insightful book, "NIV: The Antichrist's Bible." As a true friend in the Lord, I tried to help them see. Since they promote Martin Luther (1483-1546) as being born-again, who taught the heresy of 'Baptismal Regeneration' (i.e., he says you must be water baptized to go to heaven), I gave them the book, "MARTIN LUTHER: MASTER OF DECEIT!" Those wicked pastors rejected the truth! They counted me their enemy and axed me like a turkey on Thanksgiving Day!

God hears my cry! I have not had a church to attend since late 2014. In desperation for Christian fellowship, I begged to return to the church in 2017. I pleaded three times. I humbled myself. I promised not to be a root of bitterness, and told the pastors I would gladly meet with them and cooperate, doing whatever it took to make peace with the church. They cold-heartedly told me to "

Go elsewhere.

" God will deal with those stiff-necked ungodly ministers of unrighteousness—who pollute the pulpit a with corruptible seed (the Alexandrian Bible translations), bid Godspeed to false prophets (e.g., John MacArthur), and preach a perverted gospel of Lordship Salvation (which cannot produce the new birth). I humbly cry unto God daily, for Him to avenge me of the multiple evils done unto me by Harvest Baptist Church on Guam! Even so, come, Lord Jesus in power and righteousness!!!

God Hears The Cry!

God hears the cry of every person who is mistreated, cheated, abused, maligned, hurt or wronged in any way by somebody else. if we have hurt someone, we are obligated to make things right with them. In some cases we may have to make restitution before there can be reconciliation. And of course, in some cases only God can make things right, so we should trust Him. My definition of forgiveness

Letting an offense go into God’s hands for judgment.

” We have God’s promise in Ecclesiastes 5:8 and 12:13-14 that He will judge all men for the evil and the good. Matthew 12:36 promises that God will hold men accountable for every word spoken.

The Lord tells us not to avenge ourselves in Romans 12:19, but to love our enemies, and in so doing heap coals of fire upon their head on judgment day. God will judge all humanity. Vengeance is the Lord’s alone! God hears the cry! The Bible says God knows when a bird falls from the sky, and He knows the very number of hairs on our head (Matthew 10:29-30). God knows when we lay down, and rise up (Psalms 139:1-6). God is omniscient (all-knowing, Hebrews 4:13).

My heart breaks over what I see today in the churches. Corrupt Bibles are everywhere, replacing the time-tested and inspired King James Bible. America’s pulpits have become weak. Today entertainment has replaced the old-time religion. Humanistic psychology has replaced Spirit-filled Bible-preaching. Employees have replaced servants of God. The pastorate has become a profession instead of a calling. That is why we see atheists and females entering into the clergy. God does NOT call females or the unrighteous, He only calls saved men to preach! God called me to preach at age 15. I was saved at age 13. God hears the cry of all the confused people in today’s churches, because of theologically incompetent pastors. God hears the cry of those in Hell, who were deceived by teachers of Lordship Salvation (Matthew 7:21-23). Oh dear friend, just make sure that when God hears someone’s cried, that it is not because of something you did to hurt someone (or something you didn’t do to help someone).

I love the folks at Harvest, God knows my heart; but it is a mixed basket of emotions with me, because they have deeply hurt me, and they won't reach out to me (as I have them), and I really need them to. God hears my humble cry, my continual weeping during the night. Oh, how I wish I could be their friends and help make their church better! But they won't let me. I live with a broken heart. God hears my cry.

Proverbs 30:5, “

Every word of God is pure*: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

Here is an excellent article by Pastor George Shafer exposing the corrupt modern Bible revisions:

> A recent article in the Church Bus News contains some shocking information. A 1993 issue notes that Dr. Virginia Mollenkott, one of fourteen literary critics on the NIV translation committee, is a professed lesbian. Dr. Mollenkott was quoted in the Episcopal publication Witness (June 1991) as saying "my lesbianism has always been a part of me..." if you write the International Bible Society (144 Tices Lane, East Brunswick, NJ 08816) and ask for a list of the NIV translators you will receive a booklet which includes Dr. Mollenkott’s name.

> While this is an astounding fact there is still more. The NIV completely eliminates the term "sodomite" from the Bible. The word appears five times in the KJV (Deuteronomy 23:17, 1st Kings 14:24; 15:12; 22:46, and 2nd Kings 23:7). The NIV replaces it with the phrase "male shrine prostitute." Everyone knows what a sodomite is; what is a "male shrine prostitute?" The law homosexuals in Texas wanted repealed was the "sodomy" law, not the "male shrine prostitute" law. The people who rioted Hamilton Square Baptist Church in San Francisco were "sodomites" not "male shrine prostitutes." If you ask a homosexual whether or not he minds that King Asa took the "male shrine prostitutes" out of the land he probably won’t. Ask if he is offended by the removal of "sodomites" and you will get a very different answer.

> How can anyone say that the NIV doesn’t corrupt the Word of God when the evidence is so clear. By the way, the RSV has done the same thing. If you have one look these five verses up; you will find them almost interchangeable with the NIV. I will near again be able to read the NIV without wondering if the verse I am studying is one of these that was altered by a lesbian "critic." If there was so little scrutiny of the members of the NIV committee that Dr. Mollenkott was chosen, who knows what other interests were represented.

The Devil must be pleased that a pastor somewhere in America will preach to his congregation next Sunday using the very words that were placed in a modern translation by a lesbian. If you are using one of the new translations please have the courage to research the facts about it. Those "learned" men who endorse it don't mention that it includes the contributions of "sodomites," and you will have to wonder what else they may not have told you.

I wish more preachers were as godly as Pastor George Shafer. What saith the Scripture? Psalms 119:104, "Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way." The reason why most pastors today are succumbing to theological heresy and corruption, is because they spend their time listening to everything except the inspired King James Bible! The man who spends time walking with God in His Word will become godly, hating evil and every false way (Psalms 97:10).

1.4.5 Four Things You Get From Walking With God (2020-06-03 10:30)

James 4:8, " Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. ""

I could list dozens of things that you get from walking with God, but four stand out to me:

First, you will LOVE everyone, because God is love.

1st John 4:16, " And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him." The key characteristic of a truly born-again Christian is a spirit of love towards others. I am not saying that a person is not saved if they lack love. Christians can backslide and choose to go into sin (Proverbs 14:14). Sometimes difficult circumstances can turn a Christian into a monster, as we see in the life of Saul in the Old Testament, who became consumed with hatred and envy toward David. I am saying that when a believer walks with God, which Saul didn't obviously, they will become loving. As we yield to the Holy Spirit, His love will flow through us toward every living creature.

Second, a believer who walks with God will HATE evil.

Psalm 97:10, " Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked. " I absolutely hate the modern corrupt Bible versions, because they attack Jesus' deity, remove the Godhead (i.e., Trinity), obliterate theology, pervert the Words of God almighty, and secular the Bible. When I see all these hundreds of thousands of churches today, who maintain an attitude of indifference and complicity toward the Devil's Bible revisions, I know that those pastors and churches DON'T walk with God. A Christian who walks with God WILL HATE abortion, the lies of evolution, violence, adultery, the false gospel of Lordship Salvation, corporate theft, the LGBTQ agenda, government crimes, "

Sin City

" Las Vegas, and all manner of falsehoods and evil. That doesn't mean we won't sin, but we feel hatred toward it. Evil is simply premeditated sin!

Third, walking with God will give a Christian BOLDNESS.

Acts 4:13, " Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus." I am bold to preach THE TRUTH in cyberspace, and wherever I go, because I walk with God. I am not perfect. I certainly have my faults. I am a broken redeemed sinner, wondrously saved by God's grace through faith in the precious blood of Jesus Christ. When you spend time walking with God, abiding in the Scriptures, praying, praising and fellowship with Him, you will develop boldness to stand for truth and righteousness, because you love the Lord. God is an authoritative God, who authored an authoritative Holy Bible, and the man who walks with God will preach with authority!!!

Fourth, the believer who walks with God will CARE. I care. God cares.

1st Peter 5:7, " Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you." God cares and if we hang around Him, we will start caring too! I care about the accuracy of the Gospel. God's plan of salvation has been corrupted by Calvinists. I care about the inspiration and purity of God's Word. The false claim that we do not have an inspired Holy Bible today is behind the Bible corrupting movement. You'd think after publishing 900 English Bible revisions that they'd finally get it right! Folks, we have the inspired Words of almighty God in the King James Bible!!! I care, that's why I preach uncompromising without apology like I do.

You'll develop these four qualities when you walk with God: LOVE, HATE, BOLDNESS and you'll CARE.

1.4.6 Why Do People Try To Work Their Way To Salvation (2020-06-04 00:57)

Romans 3:20, "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

Why do people try to work their way to Heaven? I think it has to do with humans needing to see what they're believing in. I have had a few web visitors with OCD (Obsessive Compulsive Disorder). I shared every book, sermon, video and resource I could think of with them, to help them. I exchanged over 300 e-mails with one man, trying to help him. But no matter what I sent him, he still persisted to ask me if he was saved. I kindly explained to him that I am not the Savior, and he needed to settle this matter between himself and the Word of God. I cannot save anybody, not even myself. I cannot confirm that someone is saved. I cannot give someone the assurance that they are saved by my own consent. I think his problem is that he lacks faith in God, and I let him know as kindly as possible. He wants something tangible. He wants another human being to assure him that he is saved, but I cannot do that. Faith is believing in what we cannot see. Moses had faith, seeing HIM WHO IS INVISIBLE! Hebrews 11:27, "By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible."

Roman Catholics don't want to live by faith, so they follow a manmade religion instead, from the cradle to the casket. There are priests they can see and touch, and wafers placed on their tongues, and water baptism, and seven sacraments. Catholicism meets the needs of a heathen group of religious people, who desire to experience a physical religion that requires NO FAITH! If you sin, you go into a confessional booth, and the priest falsely claims to forgive your sins, and then you are told all is okay with God. No faith is needed, except faith in the Catholic priest. I tell you, Catholicism is a demonic prisonhouse of religion!!!

People (including those suffering from OCD) want something physical to cling to, rather than trust in the written Word of God. I believe that the King James Bible is the 100 % verbally inspired Word of almighty God. Therefore, when I read the promise of God “ to save them that believe ” (e.g., 1st Corinthians 1:21), that’s good enough for me! I think a lot of people lack faith that the Holy Bible is 100 % word-for-word (verbally) inspired, and so they look to men instead to give them assurance. My salvation is based solely upon the written promises contained in God’s Word in the inspired King James Bible. That’s the best assurance there is, because I have God’s promise set before me in black and white.

I think a lot of people do works, because it gives them something they can see, and feel good about, but it is not faith. That’s really what Lordship Salvation is all about—faith is not enough (according to them) to saved. They demand that a person’s life change—that you pay the price, make full surrender, follow Jesus no matter what the cost, run the race, count the cost and live a lifestyle of repentance, et cetera. All of these things are manmade efforts to provide visible evidence of salvation, but this is not faith. In James 2:17-21 James said “shew me” your faith, and “I will shew thee” my faith by works. With men we are justified by works, because they cannot see our heart; but with God, who can see our heart, we are justified only by faith. In Romans, Paul speaks of the ROOT of the believer’s faith

; but James speaks of the FRUIT of the indwelling Holy Spirit that every believer should posses (Galatians 5:22-25).

Lordship Salvation mandates a changed life for salvation in God’s sight, which is works. So that is why I think humans tend to try to earn their way to Heaven, because it does not require faith. They can see their efforts. In Matthew 7:21-23 we read about some proponents of the Lordship Salvation damnable heresy. They said: “Lord, Lord, did we not do many wonderful works in thy name? ” They did this, and they did that, all in Jesus’ name; but they didn’t believe on Christ apart from all else to be saved. Salvation requires FAITH and nothing more, or else you don’t get God’s grace. That is why I make such a big fuss all the time about those who add to the Gospel (such as the heresy of turning from sins to be saved), because they do not accept faith alone as being sufficient to save a person.

1.4.7 The Importance Of Forgivness (2020-06-04 20:51)

Proverbs 19:11, “The discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.” ... Proverbs 10:12, “Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins. ”

I was listening to Pastor John MacArthur today. [1]He is wrong on repentance and salvation, so I do NOT recommend nor support his ministry! Albeit, this is a beautiful sermon, and I do love Pastor MacArthur as a person, praying that he would get saved. The sermon is called: “[2]Forgiveness In The Age Of Rage.” Unforgiveness imprisons people to their past. As long as you refuse to forgive others, you are shacked to their offense. Only a fool would imprison himself in a past offense, by refusing to forgive so he can move on. Unforgiveness is a cancer in the heart that grows and expands, taking over more of your life until it destroys you. I define forgiveness as: “Letting an offence go into God’s hands for judgment, so you can forgive that person and move on” (Romans 12:19-21).

We see Biblical evidence of this in the life of Joseph. Genesis 50:20-21, “But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive. And Joseph said unto them, Fear not: for am I in the place of God? ” Joseph’s half brothers had betrayed him many years earlier, selling him into slavery! Most theologians think Joseph spent about 12 years in prison, where he suffered horribly. Psalms

105:17-19, “He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who was sold for a servant:

Whose feet they hurt with fetters: he was laid in iron:

Until the time that his word came: the word of the LORD tried him.

” Please don’t miss that last phrase... THE WORD OF THE LORD TRIED (TESTED) HIM!!! Our sufferings, losses, pain and burdens in life are all testing our faith in God’s Word! Joseph had the power to kill his brothers! He could have tortured them, and sold them into slavery, like they did him! But Joseph, as an example of our precious God, forgave them by letting the offence go into God’s hands. Joseph even said:

“For am I in the place of God?

Few people are knowledgeable today of “

The Killing Fields

during the early 20th century, where tens of millions of people were brutally murdered in the fields of Russia. ...

> One hundred years ago, the Russian Empire entered the bloodiest period any country on Earth had ever experienced before. Between the start of World War I and the death of Stalin 39 years later, at least 60 million men, women and children lost their lives. The monstrous arithmetic works out to 1.5 million dead per year, or more than 4,000 every day.

> A majority of the losses occurred in peacetime, as the government systematically executed, starved and worked to death tens of millions of its own citizens. Even in war, while the Nazis perpetrated mass killings on occupied territories, the way Russian and Soviet generals chose to fight almost seems as though exterminating their own forces was part of the strategy. Tallying Russian losses in World War I, a German field marshal wrote: “Five million or eight? We ourselves know not. At times fighting the Russians, we had to remove the piles of enemy bodies from our trenches to get a clear field of fire against new waves of assault.”

By some estimates, a “war of choice” with Finland from 1939 to 1940 resulted in the loss of 500,000 Red Army soldiers, while the profligate waste of lives by Soviet commanders in the Great Patriotic War has been extensively documented by horrified military historians.

No one knows how many died in any of those numerous killing fields. The names of the dead were not recorded and their bodies were dumped in mass graves, called “brotherly” in Russian. The total figure is a gross estimation and comes not from historians but from demographers, who compare the actual population size to what would have been expected under normal conditions.

While most peacetime killings were explained by the exigencies of class warfare against “capitalists and landowners,” ordinary people, workers and peasants were caught in the dragnet in huge numbers. Entire ethnic groups were declared traitors and deported with many people dying along the way. But inasmuch as killings were targeted, they fell heavily upon the smartest, best-educated, most hard-working and productive citizens. The wars, too, tended to kill off the brave and the honest. It was a deliberate extermination of the nation’s elite, not unlike what the Nazis did in occupied Poland — except it was done by Russia’s own government to their own citizens and over a lifetime of an entire generation.

Once again, it is hard not to conclude that sabotaging Russia’s future was part of the strategy. Agriculture was a case in point. First, the government eliminated the most productive and skilled peasants and then killed off the leading biologists, promoting charlatans and fools instead.

What is most striking about this period is its utter futility. In the end, Russia followed the same course as other European nations, but at a grotesquely higher cost. It became urbanized and industrialized, it lost its empire, and its former imperial subjects flooded in, forming a multiracial, multicultural society. It became integrated into the world economy, and its economic model — exporting natural resources and importing manufactured goods — has emerged strictly within the global economic framework.

Despite the mass murder of priests, Orthodox Christianity is once again on the rise, displaying the same vices as a century ago. Even the so-called national character has changed little. Russians love to quote 19th-century writer Mikhail Saltykov-Shchedrin, whose biting satire is just as relevant today. Russia is yet to come to terms and understand what the wanton killing of tens of millions of its citizens was all about.

John 10:10, "The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. "

God is a forgiving God!!! Whoever has offended you, has offended God more. if God can forgive them, then why cannot you? Do you have higher standards than God? Are you more significant than God? If the most holy being can forgive sins, then why cannot you, the most low sinner, forgive? I am taking these statements from Dr. MacArthur's sermon. it is great stuff! It is a serious thing not to forgive. The one who does not forgive will not be forgiven!

Romans 12:16-21, “

Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good*.”

We are not the Judge, God is! It is easy for us to think that God is too slow, tempted to take matters into out own hands. God has the full authority, we have none. God is impartial, we are not. God have complete knowledge of the offence, we do not. God is wise and good and acts in perfect holiness; we are blinded by the sin of anger, not in a position to be a judge of anybody. LEAVE IT TO GOD!!!

The injuries and offences against us are the trials that perfect us in the faith. Criticisms, injustices, offences, persecutions, false accusations, unfairness, mistreatments, abuse, unkindness—these are all within the purpose and providence of God. These all perfect our faith. What saith the Scripture? James said to count it all joy when we fall into trials (temptations), because they perfect our faith. James 1:2-4, “ My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. ” The theology of

is summed up in one person

—Jesus Christ!!!

We often hear people say they are being abused, and that it is not fair, and we want vengeance. If we patiently endure it, we find grace with God. Since Christ also suffered for us, who did no sin, He has given us an example to follow.

Ephesians 4:30-32, " And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. 1.4.8 It Is Sad The Holy Bible Is Not Enough For Many People (2020-06-05 07:30)

Luke 16:27-31, "

Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead."

One of the most popular false prophets today in America today is Evangelist Bill Wiese. Mr. Wiese is popular for claiming he spent '[1]23 Minutes In Hell.' Bill has authored a book about his alleged experience, which has made him a bunch of money! What saddens me is that millions of people are enamored with this man's claims, intrigued by every word that comes out of his mouth. Romans 3:4, " God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged." On his website, Mr. Wiese states:

> On November 23rd, 1998 I had an experience that truly changed my life. This was not a near death experience. This was an out-of-body experience that would be classified as a vision in the Bible. In 2 Corinthians 12:2, when Paul was called up into heaven in a vision, he said whether in the body or out of the body, he didn't know. Well, the Lord showed me that I left my body. —Bill Wiese -
> ' [2]23 Minutes In Hell ' | [3]Watch Video

What's at the scripture? Hebrews 1:1, "God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;

" The Bible tells us that God no longer speaks to people through dreams and visions today. Hebrews 1:1-2 tell us that God speaks to us today through His Son, who is the Word of God. The Holy Bible is the Written Word; Jesus is the Living Word. According to the Bible Bill Wiese is a theological liar.

Mr. Weiss claims that he went to Hell in a vision for 23 minutes. I'm not saying that Bill Wiese didn't see something, because I wasn't there; but I can't say without any doubt, with full Biblical certainty, that Bill Wiese did not actually go to Hell. No one has ever gone to Hell and come back to talk about it. When the apostle Paul was caught up into a "third heaven," he was not permitted by God to mention the things he had seen and heard (2nd Corinthians 12:1-4). Likewise, God would not allow someone to go to Hell and come back to talk about it. Effectively Bill Wiese is saying that the inspired Word of God is not enough!

A Biblical Warning About Adding To The Scriptures

By claiming to have supplemental information that the Bible does not contain, Wiese is placing himself in the position of God. Deuteronomy 4:2, " Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you. " It is very wrong and sinful for Bill Wiese to add to the Scriptures, providing additional details about Hell that the Bible does not teach. In so doing he is playing God with people's lives.

I am not saying that Mr. Wiese didn't experience something. Perhaps he did. I cannot say, and neither can you or anyone else (and he knows that). But I can say, without any doubt whatsoever, that Mr. Wiese DIDN'T actually go to Hell, nor did he receive a vision from God, nor can we place any veracity on anything that he says about what's in Hell. Bill Wiese may have had some type of experience (personally I think he is a greedy fraud and a con man), but I cannot prove that he didn't see and hear something. Wiese mentions short demons a couple feet tall. In his book he talks about seeing giant demons with big fangs, monsters, a foul stench, worms and maggots, and seeing people on fire that look like skeletons. Sadly, churches across America have invited that religious clown to speak to their congregation!

It is an insult to the inspired Word of God (which is the King James Bible), for anyone to claim that they have additional information that supplements the Word of God. God is told us everything that He wants us to know about Hell. If God wanted us to know more about Hell, then He would have told us more about Hell, but He didn't. The Holy Bible is a complete Book. Their are no parts missing. God didn't forget to put some things in His Word. All 66 books of the Bible are complete. Theologically we call this plenary inspiration, which means that we have the complete inspired Word of God. Nothing is missing in the Bible! There is nothing in the Bible that doesn't belong there.

I loved Pastor Texe Marrs (1944-2019), but I once heard him say that the Old Testament book of Esther is a fraud, because it portrays the Jews as the good guys in the story. God is the Good Guy! Dr. Marrs said the book of Esther doesn't belong in the Bible. Texe sometimes took his preaching a little too far. The book of Esther is inspired! It belongs in the Scriptures, because it is the Word of God! There is [4]no missing epistle of Laodicea! There is no missing book of Thomas! We have the complete canon of Scripture in the blessed King James Bible (which was translated from the precious Textus Receptus manuscripts).

Beware Of False Prophets Who Claim To Have Seen Visions

Dear reader, you don't need to listen to the whims of people like Ellen G. White, Bill Wiese and Charles Taze Russell, who are all false prophets who claimed to have seen visions. Maybe they were smoking something, who knows! Hebrews 1:1-2 plainly teaches us that God no longer speaks to us through dreams and visions, as He did in the Old Testament. The reason why is obvious, because we have the wonderful completed Word of God today. Since 96 AD the Holy Bible has been completed. We are so blessed to have such a beautiful, accurate, precious, awesome, sacred, beloved, preserved and inspired HOLY BIBLE! If you don't have a King James Bible in English, you don't have God's Word.

Run away from Bill Wiese. I am disturbed that millions of people refuse to accept the plainly written Word of God, but they will rally around and accept the nonsense of someone who claims to have seen something. What saith the Scripture?

John 5:43, " I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive." People haven't changed in 2,000 years! Sinful human nature hasn't changed throughout history. Jesus said that He came in His Father's name, and the people wouldn't accept Him; but if a man comes in his own name, they'll receive him. That is so true!

In our text Bible passage, the rich man in Hell begged Abraham to send Lazarus from the dead to warn his five living brothers, lest they also come to a horrible place of torment. The account in Luke 16:19-31 is a factual, literal, true, story! This was NOT a

” as some people foolishly assume. Jesus did not call it a parable, and He used proper nouns to identify people (i.e., Abraham and Lazarus). The Lord never used proper nouns when He told parables. Abraham made an astonishing statement to the rich man suffering in the torments of Hell. He said that if the rich man’s brothers refused to heed the Word of God (i.e., Moses and the prophets), then seeing Lazarus return from the dead would not convince them either. Wow! That same truth applies today in 2020. If people will not listen to the inspired Word of God, then miracles and signs will not convince them either. To them that believe, no explanation is necessary; to them that believe not, no explanation is possible.

The King James Bible is all you need dear friend! I have nothing personal against Bill Wiese, I just know that he is not helping the cause of Jesus Christ. What he is doing is horrible, leading people away from the Word of God. What Mr. Wiese is doing is the same thing that younger earth advocates do, who claim that dinosaurs roamed the earth 5,000 years ago. Intelligent thinking people avoid fools like that. People will avoid a wacky preacher like [5]David Hoffman, who preaches that the earth is flat! Bill Wiese is driving many lost souls away from the Gospel, by sensationalizing the Scriptures with bizarre claims of large demons with fangs. I cannot say with all certainty that Ellen White, Charles Russell, Joseph Smith and Bill Wiese didn’t see visions, but I CAN SAY with all biblical certainty that those alleged visions didn’t come from God!!! Hebrews 1:1-2 makes this abundantly clear.

2nd Peter 1:20, “ Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.” No one can claim to have some exclusive information from God that no one else has. We all have the SAME inspired Word of God to read, study and live by.

1.4.9 The Bible Teaches An Old Earth (Or, 'Gap Principle') (2020-06-05 10:00)

Psalms 102:25, " Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands."

I 100 % believe in the Gap Principle. I learned from Pastor Max Younce not to call it a "theory," because it is a "principle" that can be proven with the Bible, and is not a mere theory. I have lots of resources to help you study this subject, which I think you will find fascinating. Here is a very helpful book by theologian Arthur C. Custance (1910-1985), called: "[1]Without Form And Void." Dr. Custance wrote an entire book just to explain Genesis 1:1-2. It is an amazing work.

[2]Here are some helpful YouTube videos by Pastor Max D. Younce refuting a Young Earth fallacy.

Dr. Younce has written a very helpful free online book titled: "[3]The Truth About Evolution; Or, Don't let Satan Make A Monkey Our Of You."

In the book Pastor Younce does an excellent job proving that the earth is very old. Chapter 12 is very helpful, explaining "[4]The Remodeling" in Genesis chapter one. I actually turned chapter 12 into a webpage, because it is such helpful information to prove an old earth.

In the early 1970's, Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) preached a series of Wednesday night Bible studies called: "[5]DEMONOLOGY." The ungodly movie "The Exorcist" was popular at the time, and he preached this series to educate people on demons. Dr. Hutson does an excellent job teaching the "GAP PRINCIPLE." An old earth is not a "theory," it is what the Bible teaches!

I believe that the earth itself is millions, if not billions of years old. Scientists tell us that dinosaurs lived 60,000,000 to 220,000,000 years ago. I believe that is true! However, I also believe that the human race is only 6,000 years old. I do NOT believe in evolution in any form. God spoke the universe into existence by the power of His Word (2nd Peter 3:5; Genesis 1:1). The earliest historical evidence of human civilization dates back to the Egyptian empire. Wikipedia actually dates Noah's flood at around 2,500 BC. Abraham lived around 2,000 BC. Egypt and Moses lived about 1,500 BC. The northern kingdom of Israel (capital was Samaria) fell to Assyria in 722 BC. King David lived about 1,000 BC. Babylon was a world power around 500 BC. The southern kingdom of Israel fell to Babylon in 586 BC.

So mankind didn't exist before 6,000 years ago. The Bible dates creation at about 4,000 BC. But I believe the earth existed long before that. Psalms 102:25, "Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands." Notice that the Bible says "OF OLD" God laid the foundations of the earth. This very by itself strongly suggests an Old Earth. That should keep you busy studying for awhile. Here is my "[6]Evolution Hoax" webpage, which contains much information refuting a young earth, and teaching an old earth.

I heard Dr. Steve Pettit boasting in a Bob Jones University chapel sermon ('The Daily Platform,' #660 - '[7]The Biblical Position Regarding Creation') that the college has 23 teachers with PhD's in their science department, and not one of them believes in an Old Earth. That is really sad and tragic, that those professors are so ignorant of the Word of God. Steve Pettit erroneously titled his sermon: "The Biblical Position Regarding Creation," because it is really Dr. Pettit's position! I also believe in a literal 6-day creation, but I believe God [8]REMODELED the earth after a catastrophic event between Genesis 1:1 and 1:2. There is an abundance of evidence to support an Old Earth, but nothing to support a Young Earth.

To accept a Young Earth position, you have to blindly ignore a lot of facts! For example: Where did the serpent (Satan - Revelation 20:2) come from in Genesis chapter one? If (as Dr. Steve Pettit insists), a literal 6-day creation absolutely means that the earth is less than 10,000 years old (which he says in the preceding BJU sermon), then where Mr. Smarty Pants did the serpent get created? Since the serpent was already present in the Garden of Eden, and there is no mention of God creating the angels, nor their fall from glory, it is logical theologically to conclude a Gap Principle. It is easy for ignorant clergy to glibly dismiss the Gap Principle, but it is not so easy when you actually study the Word of God.

Evangelist Ken Ham is a con artist, who makes about $37,000,000 a year promoting the heresy of a young earth. Kent Hovind and Henry Morris II are more con men, teaching a young earth hoax. Look how crazy young earth advocates are, [9]claiming that Noah took baby dinosaurs with stunted growth onto the ark. That is ludicrous! Again, I do not believe in Evolution at all. Science and the Holy Bible agree! If you believe that dinosaurs roamed this earth 5,000 years ago, I feel sorry for you. I believe that the Genesis account of creation is factual. I believe that God literally created the world as we know it today in 6 literal days. But this in no way discredits the TRUTH that there was a GAP between Genesis 1:1 and 1:2. It requires FAR MORE faith to accept the strange theories of a Young Earth, than it does to except the Bible's claim in Psalms 102:25a that "OLD OLD HAST THOU LAID THE FOUNDATION OF THE EARTH."

Go look, that is exactly what the Bible teaches!!!

Ken Ham even has fire-breathing dragons on his religious clown circus in Kentucky called: "The Ark Encounter." The ark is actually a big rectangular warehouse building made out of cinder blocks, with boat design additions added to make it look like a boat. What a sad joke! It's not an ark! It has all the OSHA wiring, regulations, and requirements of a BUILDING, not an ark! Private investors funded it, with greedy intentions of making $4,000,000,000 over 10 years. They've actually made about half of that... 2 BILLION!!! I think it is sick, disgusting and a mockery of the Word of God (Matthew 24:37-39).

1.4.10 Harmful Cult Mentality In Baptist Churches Today (2020-06-06 05:00)

Revelation 3:15-16, " I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:"

The church at Laodicea was self-deceived. The Bible says they didn’t know they “ were wretched.

” God says these professed Christians were miserable, poor, blind and naked. Notice that they were INCREASED WITH GOODS. That means the money was still coming in. They were thriving in the world. They lacked nothing the Bible says. The Bible practically gives the address of Harvest Baptist Church (HBC) on Guam in Mongmong village. Harvest has a bunch of wealthy church members, who keep the place going. They are definitely increased with goods. They lack nothing materialistically, thriving in their own eyes, falling all over themselves with self praise. Yet, God says they are poor spiritually, and naked before His eyes, wretched in their horrible sinful ways.

I never thought I would be writing an article like this, about cult abuse in Baptist churches today, but I am a victim firsthand. In 2014 I attended HBC for one year. I made friends. I fell in love. I felt happy and part of something special. So as a true friend I set out to help them, because I saw dozens of Bible revisions being used in the church. I also saw Dr. John MacArthur’s study materials being passed out to church members. I heard the senior pastor and some staff members who teach in their school teach Lordship Salvation, which is an accursed “

[1]ANOTHER GOSPEL

” (Galatians 1:6-9). As Evangelist Tom Ferrell said from Harvest’s own pulpit, as a guest speaker: “

A FRIEND HELPS A FRIEND TO SEE!

Unfortunately, when I tried to help the pastors and members of Harvest

“see,” I was wrongfully demonized, ostracized and banned from returning to their church. That means Harvest is guilty of my blood. They hurt an innocent man. I simply tried to help them by telling them THE TRUTH that the Alexandrian Bible translations are corrupted by Satan. I told them THE TRUTH that Martin Luther (1483-1546) taught the damnable heresy of Baptismal Regeneration up until his death, which is easily verifiable by [2]reading Mr. Luther’s catechisms online.

Since 2014 the entire church, at the direction of their pastors and staff, have ostracized me in the community. Guam is a small island and the impact of their ungodly pastor's rejection of me is far more profound, and I feel it. I was simply going for a walk behind the Chamorro Village and a couple on staff at Harvest walked by me. I heard the man telling his wife in a firm voice, "Don't smile! Don't smile!" I smiled at them anyway, as they shunned me. I have never once, not once, failed to lovingly wave at all my neighbours and anybody I see from Harvest, but they shun me.

They are committing a crime in God's eyes against me as their brother in Christ.

Romans 14:10,

"But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. " This Bible verse indicts any Christian who shuns a fellow brother or sister. No Christian has a God-given right to set at nought somebody they don't like. Harvest Baptist Church is operating like a social club, where a snobby group of wealthy people pick and choose who they like or don't like. You're either in or out! That is not a local New Testament church, that is a cult! In a cult, men control the affairs of the church instead of God's Word.

It creeped me out last year in 2019, how my neighbors from Harvest in unison started smiling at me for two whole weeks, as I drove by to go for my sunset walk at Chamorro Village. They wouldn't wave, they just smiled. Evidently one of my website articles caught their attention, and they responded. I still don't know what they were trying to do, and it frustrated me. Why didn't they just invite me to church, or a barbecue so we could talk? I was so happy at first. I was ready to start removing my criticisms from the internet about their church. I just wanted to attend church services and learn what good I could, and turn a blind eye to the bad, and leave Harvest alone, because I've already spoken my mind against them. They know what they need to do that is right, but they won't do it.

I love them more than they can know, God knows my heart. I just prayed for them, as I often do, that something good will come out of all this fussing between me and them. I just want to be a part of their church family, but they won't have me. That is because they have become a cult, deciding who they like or don't like, and either accepting or ostracizing that person AS A GROUP. That is what cults do! After two weeks of waving, I evidently wrote something online that offended them, because like a switch being turned off, in unison they again ostracized me AS A GROUP.

That confirmed what I suspected, that they are following the directive of their pastors, doing what they are told to do. That is how cults operate, where the cult leaders control the followers. I think for myself. I don't do something just because someone wants me to do it. If someone doesn't like you, I would NEVER shun or avoid you merely because someone else doesn't like you. The people at Harvest are loyal to their pastors, following them as cult members do, not thinking for themselves. The Bible says we are supposed to love others, and be kind to everyone (Ephesians 4:30-32).

Cults Ostracize People They Don't Like

If you want to bid Godspeed to wolves in sheep's clothing, have at it! But you can count me out!!! I offered to be their friend (and still do), but they told me to "Go elsewhere." I am here to stay, preaching against them, until they change their minds. I have nothing to lose! If they want to behave like a cult, then I will expose them as being a damned cult. When they decide to behave like a local New Testament church, and love me like their brother in the Lord, and invite me back to attend church services, only then will I give them the respect they want.

I also shared information about Martin Luther with the senior pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I personally handed him a helpful book by Pastor Max Younce titled: "[3]Martin Luther: Master Of Deceit." The pastor insisted that

Martin Luther is a born-again Christian, disregarding my words of wisdom. I heard that same wayward pastor say it is not enough to admit you are a sinner, but also, he insists that:

"Y ou MUST turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved.

I heard him say it with my own two ears during a Sunday morning invitation. Folks, that is WORKS for salvation! That is human reformation, not repentance! Repentance is a change of mind from WRONG THINKING, so that you will BELIEVE the Gospel to be saved. Harvest Baptist Church is preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL of Lordship Salvation!

The pastor of Harvest has been hanging around his heathen hero, Dr. John MacArthur. He has all 666 volumes of MacArthur's Bible commentary in his church office. I love them so much, God knows my heart.

Folks, war is ugly! The Geneva Convention is one of the most worthless meetings and documents ever created. During World War II, the Japanese soldiers were horrified by the American's use of deadly flame throwers. Basically the military mixes gasoline with dish-soap and sprays it on the enemy while igniting it, letting them burn to death. It is one of the most horrifying things you've ever scene, which is why YouTube won't allow people to see such videos without confirming that one is an adult. The Geneva Convention is worthless because in a real-life situation in wartime, there are no rules, it's a bloodbath on the battlefield! [4]I am not alone in my opinion.

The Bible says we are engaged in a spiritual war as believers (Ephesians 6:12-13). Our seven elements of armory are spiritual (Ephesians 6:14-18). Sometimes things have to get ugly in the theological realm too. When you've got pastors who won't listen to wisdom, then someone needs to do the ugly work of exposing them as false prophets. That is what I am doing with Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Since they don't want to heed the truth, and they have banned me since 2014 from attending their church services; I have no choice but to preach against them, because that is the RIGHT THING TO DO!!!

Revelation 21:8, "

But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

In a chapel sermon to 2,700 students

from March 30, 2020 titled: 'TELL THE TRUTH,' Dr. Steve Pettit heretically says:

"And sadly, for some of you, it's [lying] going to find you out in eternity. If somebody perpetually lies, what does that say about him? Could it be simply exposing the reality that you've never put off the old man, and put on the new? Where do perpetual liars go? Revelation 21:9, 'all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death."' [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit (March 30, 2020; [1]'The Daily Platform,' #696 - 'Tell The Truth,' 17:48 time)

That is a lie of the Devil! The Bible doesn't say that "PERPETUAL LIARS" go to Hell, it says "ALL LIARS" go to Hell. How many lies does a person have to tell to be a liar? That's right, JUST ONE!!! Here is Scriptural proof of what I am teaching from James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all." If you commit just ONE SIN, you are a guilty sinner and cannot go to Heaven! As far as God is concerned, if you have broken one of His Commandments, you've broken ALL OF THEM! That is because God is absolutely perfect, holy and righteousness; therefore, committing even one sin makes us filthy in His sight.

In fact, God sees even our self-righteousness as "filthy rags." Isaiah 64:6, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away." If you have ever lied even one time, then you are going to Hell forever unless you get saved! You are a needy sinner, just like me, and we all need the Savior! Perpetual liars don't go to Hell, ALL LIARS go to Hell!!!

The disturbing reason why Dr. Steve Pettit made the statement he did, is because he has a corrupted understanding of God's plan of salvation. All sinners deserve to go to Hell, not just perpetual sinners! In Dr. Pettit's flawed theological thinking, if you are still a perpetual liar (i.e., a perpetual sinner), you haven't faithfully run the race as a Christian and won't be allowed into Heaven. I'm not kidding, check out what he said:

"You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[2]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 11:34)

Dear friend, that is NOT the Gospel of free grace taught in the inspired Word of God. The true gift of God is eternal life, and it is obtained simply by taking it by faith! You get saved in a moment of time, just as you would receive a birthday gift in a moment of time. Getting the gift of eternal life is not an ongoing process that you must fulfil. Steve Pettit is a false prophet!!! The Bible teaches that ALL SINNERS go to Hell, which is why WE ALL NEED A SAVIOR...

> 1st Corinthians 6:9-11, "Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God." [emphasis added]

If you don't receive Jesus' sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, you will burn in Hell forever and ever!

Kindly said, Steve Pettit is an unsaved man (in my humble opinion)! He is religious, but not saved, clearly evidenced by the abundance of ignorant and [3]theologically dangerous statements that he keeps making in his preaching. I feel sorry for all those 2,700 students at Bob Jones University, being brainwashed by Steve Pettit to think that perpetual liars

" will go to Hell. That is NOT what the Bible teaches!!! Once you accept God's free gift of eternal life, God only sees Christ's righteousness for ever and ever!!! Dr. Pettit doesn't seem to understand the truth of the [4]imputed righteousness of God!!!

Perpetual Liars Do Go To Heaven If They Are Saved

In Dr. Pettit's errant theological thinking, professed Christian students who are "perpetual liars" will go to Hell, but not occasional liars.

That is a works-based plan of salvation!!! Go read [5]Bob Jones University's Statement of Faith for yourself, where they teach you must be, "willing to repent and turn from your sins" to be saved. BJU is preaching another gospel! Galatians 1:6-7 pronounces God's curse upon anyone who corrupts the Gospel.

Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1875-1951) gets the Gospel 100 % correct:

> "When anyone comes promising salvation to those 'who make full surrender' of all that they have to God, and who 'pay the price of full salvation' he is preaching another gospel, for the price was paid on Calvary's cross and the work that saves is finished. It was Christ Jesus who made the full surrender when He yielded His life on Calvary that saves us, not our surrender in any way to Him."

> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the Gospel tract, '[6]Another Gospel'

That is beautiful! Clearly, Dr. Ironside taught a Free Grace view of the Gospel. Consider further the following awesome quote by Pastor Ironside:

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past…

> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all."

SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: '[7]What Is The Gospel?'

Whether or not we go to Heaven is strictly based upon our faith in Jesus Christ, or lack thereof. The gift of eternal life has absolutely NOTHING to do with the choices we make throughout our Christian life. No amount of choosing to sin could ever jeopardize a believer's position in Jesus Christ as God's redeemed child. It was a gift! Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Steve Pettit Teaches The Same False Gospel As Ray Comfort

Evangelist Steve Pettit is teaching the same damnable doctrine of Evangelist Ray Comfort. First let me quote to you Matthew 7:21-23, and then I'll show you Mr. Comfort's corrupt thinking:

> Matthew 7:21-23, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

On page 1197 of 'THE EVIDENCE BIBLE' by Ray Comfort, he comments and horribly corrupts Matthew 7:22-23...

> "These are perhaps the most frightening verses in the Bible. Vast multitudes of professing Christians fit into the category spoken of here. They call Jesus 'Lord,' but they practice lawlessness. They profess faith in Jesus, but have no regard for the divine law. They tell 'fibs' or 'white' lies, take things that belong to others, have a roaming eye for the opposite sex, etc. They are liars, thieves, and adulterers at heart, who will be cast from the gates of heaven into the jaws of hell." [emphasis added]

Ladies and gentleman, Ray Comfort is teaching works salvation! According to what we just read by Ray Comfort, every believer who is still living in deliberate sin won't be allowed into Heaven. That is what Steve Pettit is teaching! Pettit warns the students that "perpetual liars" won't go to Heaven! Ray Comfort says men with "a roaming eye for the opposite sex" aren't really saved, because he says they've never repented of their sins! This is the heresy of Lordship Salvation, which Bob Jones University teaches!!! Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again! Look at the junk theology that Steve Pettit teaches at BJU!

Dear reader, I hope you see the grave danger of what Dr. Pettit is teaching to the students at BJU. The very fact that he scares students who perpetually lie that they won't be going to Heaven is another gospel. What saith the Scripture? Romans 5:20, "Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:" Acts 13:39, "And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses." Contrary to the garbage theology of Steve Pettit, the inspired Word of God teaches that the born-again believer is JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS, and that when a believer sins, GRACE DOTH MUCH MORE ABOUND!!!

Dear friend, perpetual liars do go to Heaven if they are among the redeemed! The stealing Christian boss, or the pervert Christian man, or the rebellious Christian wife, or the adulterous Christian woman; are still 100 % safe and eternally secure in God's gift of eternal life, which is obtained by faith without works. Beware of the Devil's false gospel that says you are not saved if you haven't turned away from your sins. The Bible plainly teaches that eternal life is a free gift! Romans 4:4-6, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,"

> "At Cornell University, my professor of European literature, Vladimir Nabokov, changed the way I read and the way I write. Words could paint pictures, I learned from him. Choosing the right word, and the right word order, he illustrated, could make an enormous difference in conveying animage or an idea." —Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg

1.4.12 Don't Get Comfortable With Heresy In Your Church (2020-06-07 01:03)

Galatians 3:1-3, "O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?"

Things have changed drastically for the worse in our Bible colleges and churches over the past 75 years. Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) would have a heart-attack again if he could come back in 2020 and see the disgrace that Moody Church has become. Moody today shamefully fully supports and publishes Pastor John MacArthur's heretical books on Lordship Salvation. Moody Bible Institute admits on their website that they are "generally Calvinistic in doctrine."

That is of the Devil. Moody can no longer be trusted theologically. It is tragic that we've allowed these poisons into our churches and Bible colleges across America!

Likewise, Bob Jones University is a [1]spiritually decayed institution today, another poison to the churches. In fact, they no longer preach the Gospel of free grace. Today, [2]BJU teaches the Devil's lie that you must "be willing to turn from your sins" to be saved. That is effectively the same as keeping the law to be saved. Romans 3:20, "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." Whether doing good works, or being willing to ceasing from bad works, they are all DEAD WORKS! Repentance unto salvation means ceasing from ALL WORKS! Hebrews 6:1, "Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,"

When someone comes along preaching that you must be willing to turn from your sins to receive the free gift of God, they are preaching another Gospel. They are sinfully adding to the Gospel of free grace. They are demanding something of you that God does not. They are telling you to turn away from your sinful behavior, but that is a work. Some foolish Calvinist preachers (like [3]Pastor Charles Lawson in Knoxville) teach that turning away from sins is necessary for salvation (which they errantly think means repentance). Respectfully, Pastor Lawson says trying to turn from one's sins is not a work. Mr. Lawson is very errant in his thinking, any effort at all is a "work." Any honest and doctrinally sound Bible-preacher understands and preaches, that salvation is solely by God's grace through faith alone in the 'Good News' of Jesus' death, burial and bodily resurrection the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4; John 19-20).

It would be insane to say that a person must be willing to turn from their sins, but not actually make an attempt to do so. If I lend you my car on the condition that you "be willing" to return in with a full tank of gas, I obviously expect you to bring it back full. Likewise, when Evangelist Jack Chick foolishly says you must "be willing to turn from sin" (which you will find in all 'Chick Tracts' inside the back cover) to be saved, he is corrupting the Gospel, clearly implying that you must make some effort to stop sinning if you want God's gift of eternal life. This is NOT the Gospel dear friend! I echo what the apostle Paul said—to Moody Bible Institute, Bob Jones University, Chick Tracts and anyone else who teaches this junk theology of turning from sins to be saved—[4]WHO HATH BEWITCHED YOU??? Did you get saved by turning from your sins, or by the hearing of faith? (Galatians 3:2). Jesus came to save us from the penalty of our sins, not demand that we be willing to forsake them to be forgiven and receive eternal life. Yes, God wants us to turn from our sins, but only as a work of sanctification in the life of a believer, and not as a requirement to receive the free gift of eternal life from God.

The Bible Said Our Battle Is Spiritual, Not Physical

We are at spiritual war ladies and gentlemen. [5]A gift is not a gift anymore at Bob Jones University. I plead with anyone reading this to examine the Scriptures for yourself, and stop listening to false prophets like John MacArthur, Sam Horn and Steve Pettit. I wish every thinking Christian in every church in America, would drive these devils out of the pulpit! Don't you let them corrupt your church!!! Don't you do it! The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is already spiritually dead, corrupted and drowned in a cesspool of Lordship Salvation and corruptible seed (i.e., the modern Bible perversions). In my humble Christian opinion they are an ecumenical nightmare! Kindly, I should make a movie and instead of "Nightmare On Elm Street," I should call it: "Nightmare On Machuate Street"!

Any so-called "church" that has 19 different Bible revisions floating around in the pews is a nightmare! Any so-called "church" that bids Godspeed to hellbound false prophets like Evangelist Steve Pettit and Pastor John MacArthur is a nightmare! Any so-called "church" that picks and chooses who is welcome and who is not, based on personal prejudice and social status is a nightmare. I guarantee if I were a former governor of Guam, they wouldn't be treating me like garbage as they have for the past 6 years. But I am just a nobody, with little to offer, and I'm not a person of influence in the local community; but I have a big heart of love for everyone, and God knows I CARE! Truth is important to me.

The Moody and Bob Jones crowd have been deceived by Satan, because they have become accustomed to heresy in their churches and Bible colleges. Eve's first step to destruction in the Garden of Eden was listening to the serpent. That is how the Devil corrupts anything—he begins by just getting his claw in the door. If Satan can just get a hoof in the door, then it's just a matter of time until he becomes master of that soul, house, company, nation, organization or church!!! If some bozo were to come into any church in the year 1881 (the year Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort introduced their new Greek Bible to the world), and had offered the church members a choice of 339 different Bible revisions to choose from (the American Bible Society says there are about 900 English Bible revisions), those dear folks would have run him out of town!!! Satan is far more clever than that! The Devil has incrementally changed the inspired Word of God—a new revision this year, and another one next year, and three more revisions the year after that, and so forth—you get the picture! Since 1881 there have been 139 years which have passed, and literally HUNDREDS of new English Bible revisions published. IT IS ABSOLUTELY INSANE!!!

Folks, God only authored ONE HOLY BOOK!!! Do you see how clever Satan is? I marvel that most pastors and churches today merely go along with all this, as if it is normal and meant to be this way! God is not the author of confusion (1st Corinthians 14:33). Having more than one Holy Bible in any particular language is confusion! For pointing this out and making a big fuss since 2014, the Bob Jones University camp on Guam have driven me out of their Harvest Baptist Church, shunned me, ostracized me and made me to feel like a bad person. I just tried to help them as a true friend does. Evangelist Tom Ferrell was right: "A friend helps a friend to see!" (ironically he said that at Harvest). They are indifferent toward truth. I am a causality of the spiritual war—rejected, abused and ostracized by Harvest Baptist Church cult on Guam (controlled by the [6]Bob Jones' Alexandrian cult)—suffering alone for my courageous stand alone for the truth of God's inspired Word. GET THEE BEHIND ME SATAN!!!

And beware of these knucklehead preachers today, who think they are smarter than God, who attempt to straddle the fence to appease both sides of the debate. They come along preaching that salvation is only by God's grace, but then they say stupid things like, "If you're still living in sin you're not really saved." That sounds real religious, don't it? That sounds like it'll preach, and it will, to a bunch of religious apostates!!! Don't believe anyone like John MacArthur—who preaches that we are saved by God's grace, but then he contradicts himself by saying that salvation will COST YOU!

The Poor, Naked And Wretched Church That Thought They Were Prospering

At first I thought Harvest Baptist Church on Guam was the Laodicean church in Revelation 3:15-18, because Harvest is increased with goods like the Laodicean church. Harvest has plenty of money and resources, like the Laodicean church. God said they are naked, poor and wretched in His sight, making Him vomit. ...

> Revelation 3:15-18, "I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see."

In some ways, Harvest is even worse than Laodicea, because they deny the Gospel of free grace. Instead they preach the [7]damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation, bidding Godspeed to devil's like Steve Pettit and John MacArthur, who pervert the Gospel. [8]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) had the Gospel right!!! Who hath bewitched you Oh Bob Jones University, that you should believe a lie? Who hath bewitched you Oh Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, that you should believe a lie? Who hath bewitched you Oh Moody Bible Institute, that you should believe a lie? Galatians 3:1-3, "O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?" Yes, the Bob Jones' camp are trying to be made perfect by the flesh. In case you don't what I say, read [9]this shocking heretical quote from Dr. Steve Pettit, president of BJU since 2014:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the > Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ([10]"What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 11:34)

Mr. Pettit says you can't just get born-again and that's it. He says you are OBLIGATED to live a life of obedience to God. This is the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation!!!

"So when we talk about 'The Race,' what are we talking about? We're talking about beginning and salvation, and then running the race through pursuing holiness and ministry, and service to others. But then let me say, that number three: This race HAS TO be faithfully run to the finish! You HAVE TO finish. Salvation is not just a past reality—"I GOT SAVED," but is a future destiny! The race is not completed until you cross the finish line at death. What is this race—it is the race as we are running as we are headed toward Heaven." —Dr. Steve Pettit ([11]"What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 10:27)

These spiritually corrupt institutions and false prophets are all in cahoots together! Birds of a feather flock together! Shame on all of them!!! The truth matters! Right doctrine matters! Using the right Bible matters! You cannot merely pick a Bible that fits you best!!! You cannot merely go along with whatever wind of doctrine is blowing from Bob Jones University. The spiritual wind blowing downstream from BJU these days smells likes a rotting pig farm on a hot summer day! The stench of their corruptible seed and counterfeit gospel reaches up into the heavens! The Bob Jones camp are NOT prospering. They may have large numbers of supporters and lots of financial support, but it is blood money! Galatians 1:6-7, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

Don't Get Comfortable With The Devil In Your Church

My God, how could this happen? How did Bob Jones University get corrupted with a false Gospel of Lordship Salvation? How did a whopping false prophet like Evangelist Steve Pettit ever get hired to run BJU into the ground? How did a corrupt mega false prophet like John MacArthur become a celebrity in the Bob Jones camp? Who hath bewitched all of you? How did Harvest Baptist Church on Guam get so corrupted that they promote all these wolves in sheep's clothing? I am so sick and tired of professed Christians making light of [12]the accuracy of the Gospel. The average Baptist today couldn't theologically discern [13]what is right or wrong in a religious tract. People completely rely upon and trust their pastors. So if you've got some incompetent bozo for a pastor(s), who is an ignoramus in theology, you're going to go down the sewer with him!

Luke 11:52, "Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered." "Lawyers" in the Bible were experts at teaching the law. The Old Testament was the law for Israel. Unfortunately, they didn't understand the law, so they couldn't teach it properly. Likewise, 2nd Peter 3:16-17 warns everyone against corrupting the Word of God. They who do so, do it to their OWN DESTRUCTION!!! Kindly said, neither Mr. Pettit nor Mr. MacArthur understand God's law, for if they did, they wouldn't preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. The law is intended by God to be a measuring stick, by which when compared men fall short of the glory of God (Romans 3:19-23). In so doing, the law is our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ, to be saved by grace alone through faith (Galatians 3:24-26; Philippians 3:9; Romans 10:3-4). Is that so hard to understand?

Yet, when unsaved religious scholars start tampering with the Bible, all manner of theological darkness ensues! John MacArthur is a brilliant religious unsaved man! We read about him in Matthew 7:22-23, "Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." They said, "LORD, LORD" (there's your Lordship Salvation crowd). I love you dear friend. I don't want you to die in your sins and go to Hell, like these unfortunate deceived religious people in Matthew 7:22-23. [14]Evangelist Ray Comfort, in his 'The Evidence Bible,' comments for this passage that the reason they didn't go to Heaven, is because they never turned away from telling little white lies, and having a lustful roaming eye for the opposite sex. I'm not kidding! Mr. Comfort is another unsaved religious man, like Kirk Cameron, Steve Pettit, Steven Davey, Chip Ingram, Sam Horn and John MacArthur! The very fact that they associate the way a person lives, with the free gift of eternal life, tells me that they are not saved. How can they be saved if they are wrong on the Gospel? They are not saved. I say that with sadness, but with biblical certainty.

Churches today are WAY TOO COMFORTABLE with [15]perversions of grace (a helpful chart by Pastor Ron Shea). There is only one Gospel message. Romans 1:16 says the truth of the Gospel is the power of God unto salvation, to every one that believes. Religion does not save anybody! The baptistery does not save anybody! The Lutheran minister or Catholic priest cannot forgive anyone's sins. Jeremiah 17:5, "Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD." I am solely trusting the Lord Jesus Christ as my personal Savior, because of what HE DID through the cross of Calvary to pay for my sins. Jesus died on the cross for my sins, was buried, and three days later He was miraculously resurrected by the power of God from the dead for my justification. I was born-again (saved) at age 13. It is a done deal! I am not required by God to do anything else to be 100 % assured of eternal life and Heaven as my home. I am not trying to live right to be saved, stay saved, nor prove that I am saved.

[16]Dr. Steve Pettit does not believe nor preach what I just said! Why Oh why does the Bob Jones crowd still endorse him? Sadly, once a religious leader has been accepted by the group, that leader now has Carte Blanche to teach anything he wants with spiritual impunity. John MacArthur is leading the Bob Jones University camp into the fires of Hell. [17]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. warned about infidels taking over his college in 50 years (how right he was). Bob Jones Sr. said he would go get some [18]dynamite and blow the college to smithereens!!! (Download [19]MP4 video). Here's the [20]audio MP3. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. was 100 % right on the Gospel, but Steve Pettit and BJU college today are as crooked on salvation as a dog's hind leg. God help them on judgment day! Evangelist Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) made the following unapologetic, uncompromising and fundamentalist defense of salvation by faith alone...

> "He [Jude] said, well it was 'needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith, which once for all [was] delivered unto the saints.'
> Now wait a minute, you've got something worth contending for! Isn't it strange that something so valuable and so wonderful as saving faith is something we that have to be exhorted to contend for? Why, if you had a diamond worth $5,000 you wouldn't leave it just lying around anywhere. If you had $1,000,000 in gold, you'd go put it in a vault. [If] Anybody tried to get it, you'd fight to keep them from gettin' it. And we just sit down and just let people steal the faith that Christians have, and never bother about it. Some of us pay 'em to do that! Some of us pay preachers to stand in the pulpit and steal the faith of the saints of God, and send our children to Hell. The most crooked crook on God Almighty's earth is a preacher who stands in a Trinitarian pulpit, and steals the faith of people!

> You know I've said it many a time; if I was up in Heaven, fifty years from now (and the Lord tarried), and any religious liberal ever sat in a classroom in this institution, and tried to disseminate his infidelity, I'd ask God Almighty to excuse me for a little while, and I'd come back down to this school and get a stick of dynamite, and I'd blow it into smithereens! I'd rather see this school a heap of rubbish, just a little rubbish here and a little rubbish yonder, than see the time ever come we could be such softies, we'll sit down and let the Devil put his modernists and religious liberals in here to rob them of the faith. And yet that things going on in America, from one end of this country to the other!" —Dr. Bob Jones Sr.; [21]YouTube | [22]MP4 | [23]MP3

Boy that's good stuff! I wish Bob Jones University would go back to their first love, back to their Gospel roots! I promise you that Dr. Bob Jones Sr. would burn Bob Jones University to the ground today, if he could come back from Heaven and do it! Brother Jones is sick, heartbroken and angry up in Heaven, seeing 2,700 impressionable BJU students being taught another gospel of Lordship Salvation. Like Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said, we are allowing ungodly men to steal the faith of the saints, and we pay them to do it! Please read Dr. Jones explain the wonderful simplicity of the Gospel. I am disturbed that so many Baptist churches are relaxed about Calvinists in our midst, who preach another gospel of works. I am absolutely alarmed by these infidels, who add making full surrender to Christ to the simplicity that is on Christ. There is nothing simple about turning away from one's lifelong sinful bad habits! Eternal life is a gift that doesn't cost us our sins, because JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

[24]Dr. John MacArthur says salvation will COST YOU your life! Folks, eternal life doesn't COST us anything? Jesus is going around giving it away. That's exactly what the Bible teaches (John 3:16; Ephesians 2:8-9). That is exactly what Dr. Bob Jones Sr. taught. Brother Jones said Jesus was giving away the gift of eternal life at Bob Jones College, to anyone who wants the gift; yet John MacArthur and Steve Pettit say eternal life WILL COST YOU! Who are you going to believe? The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is of the Devil, they've chosen sides with Steve Pettit and John MacArthur. [25]I've chosen sides with Dr. Bob Jones Sr. and the inspired King James Bible!!! Like the apostle Peter told Simon to perish in Hell, for trying to BUY the power of God; so say I to Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and Bob Jones University, with all biblical authority, that they can perish into Hell, for trying to BUY the gift of eternal life. To God be the glory!

> "God gives you eternal life when you take Him. Eternal life is wrapped up in Christ. 'He that hath the Son hath life.' There is just one difference between a Christian and a sinner. A Christian has Christ and a sinner does not have Him. That is the only difference. All you need is Jesus. It is all in Jesus! If you will take Him, He will blot out all your sins. If you take Him, He will give you a new nature. If you take Him, He will go with you along the journey of life. He will be with you when you are tempted. He will put arms of power around you and give you the victory. 'By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," page 223; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

" My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation. For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body. Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body. Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth. Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth! And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell. For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind: But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God. Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. ” — James 3:1-10

This is a wonderful truth for every born-again Christian to learn. The following (including our text verse above) is a helpful quote from

by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001),

from chapter 29 of Dr. Hyle’s excellent book titled: “[1]JUSTICE” (you can listen to MP3’s of this Wednesday night Bible study toward the bottom of the webpage).

> I believe with all of my heart that this chapter could literally transform your life. Character is the subconscious doing of right. It is in your reflexes. It is doing right by reflex which is the safest way for a Christian to be. I am going to give you the way for your entire body to be self-disciplined. The Bible gives us a way to develop character and self-discipline quickly.

> The Bible tells us in James 3 that we can bridle the whole body. That is what character really is. When you say, "No!" to temptation and "Yes!" to doing right, you have bridled your whole body. The Bible tells us in James 3 how we can do that. Let me give you several observations from this passage.

1. You can be mature. That is what the word "perfect" means. The Bible tells us that it is possible for us to be mature.

2. You can have character to control all of your body's passions.

3. If you lose control of the tongue, you will lose control of the entire body. It's like a wall being broken down in order for a city to be conquered. Your tongue is that wall. If you can conquer your tongue, you can conquer all of the other enemies you have. The tongue is the hardest part to conquer. There is no passion that you cannot conquer if you conquer the tongue. If you can keep yourself from saying what you should not say, you can keep yourself from doing what you should not do.

4. The key to discipline is not speaking wrong. Acts 4:19,20, "But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye. For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard."

The Bible says we cannot help ourselves from speaking those things which we both see and hear. It is humanly impossible not to do so. That is the method whereby you gather the things that you are going to say. What you see and hear will always come out of the mouth.

If we are to control our bodies, we must control our tongues, but we first must get the character to control our tongues. The tongue will not be controlled if we do not control what we see and hear.

5. It is impossible not to speak wrong if you know wrong. You cannot help but speak what you know. We must, therefore, find a way to avoid knowing wrong.

6. The entire key to character is the discipline not to hear wrong. If you will follow that logic, it will change your life. If you want the discipline to control your bodily passions, you must have the discipline not to hear that which is wrong. Since you cannot restrain talking, you must restrain hearing! If you get control of your tongue, you will have the power to overcome every passion you have. Your problem is not your passions; your problem is your tongue! Our nation has no character because our nation has not learned to control our tongues. You cannot control what you say, but you can control what you hear! As a result, you will control what you say.

7. When you tell me wrong, you are tempting me to destroy my entire character. Do not make me the custodian of the poison that could destroy my entire character. The hardest thing to do in life is to keep quiet a juicy morsel of gossip, for we will speak what we hear. In so doing, we lose control of our bodily passions.

The person who calls you on the phone to tell you some gossip is trying to destroy your character, for he is making you the custodian of something bad which you cannot help but speak. You must not allow that gossip to enter into your ears. If you do, you will speak it! If you can get the character to control it, you will have the character to control your tongue and then your passions!

8. You offend me, if you tell me. When you speak bad to me, you offend me because you are trying to damage my character. The word "offend" in James 3:2 means "to cause someone to stumble and fall." That is exactly what we do when we tell someone something wrong. We are causing them to hear, which will cause them to speak, which will tear down their ability to control their passions.

Most of us are more careful about what we eat or drink than we are about what we hear. A juicy bit of evil is more dangerous than a bottle of beer. Restrain the hearing if you want to restrain the speaking!

9. You are not destroying my character, but you are handing me something that will. When you tell me some juicy gossip, you give me the poison with which I can destroy my entire character. That is why I always say that I do not want to hear it. I refuse to hear poison, just like I refuse to drink liquor. I will not drink your liquor, even if it offends you; and I will not hear your gossip, even if it offends you. I would rather offend you than to allow the poison that could destroy my character to enter my mind. You are offending me by daring to offer me that destructive poison!

The tongue defiles the whole body. If you do not want your body defiled, do not allow yourself to hear that which you cannot help but speak. Most people have no character because they are being destroyed by what they see and hear.

10. Bad talk comes out of Hell. The Bible says so. Evil talk does not hurt the person being slandered. It hurts the talker because it breaks down his character. The way not to be the talker is not to be the hearer. Whatever evil you bring to tell me came from Hell.

Do you want to be a delivery person for Hell?

11. The greatest character is not to hear or see what you should not hear or see. If you want character, control your tongue. If you want to control your tongue, control what you hear and see.

Every character weakness you have comes from an uncontrolled tongue. If you get the steering wheel messed up, you will not be able to control the car. Get the tongue fixed, and you will fix all the rest of your problems. Let it be defiled, and it will defile everything else!

The great secret to character is for you to control your tongue, but you cannot control your tongue if you do not control your ears and your eyes!

Amen and amen! That is great Bible truth! Thank you Brother Hyles! Proverbs 17:28, " Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding."

Here is a great quote from way back in 1945, when Evangelist Bob Jones Sr. was in his hey day, preaching the true Gospel of free grace. It is sad and tragic that [2]Bob Jones University today has been infiltrated by false teachers, modernists and [3]religious liberals, who have crept in [4]counterfeit Bible revisions and the damnable [5]lie of Lordship Salvation. Read what Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) intended for his college to be...

> "Bob Jones College, I told you, stands for the narrow road. We don't stand for the broad road. We don't stand for what is stood for in most educational institutions. We stand without apology for the old-time Christian philosophy of self-control and self-restraint. This institution is operating in its seventeenth year. All these years we have gathered around an idea: The Bible is the Word of God. Jesus is the Son of God. He died on the cross to save us. We are saved by faith in Him. We stand for 'honest-to-goodness' hard work. We stand for honest study. We stand for modesty and virtue for girls and for honesty and uprightness and purity for boys. We stand for the old decencies, the old traditions. The college started off like that. It stands for those things still. We don't apologize to Mr. Anybody for it. And great prosperity, in spite of bitter opposition, has come to Bob Jones College because of the things for which it stands." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," page 75-76; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

1.4.14 America's Problems Didn't Happen Overnight (2020-06-08 01:40)

The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water: therefore leave off contention, before it be meddled with."

The Bible says in our text verse that strife starts small, like a leak in a dam. It is relatively easy to repair a small leak in a dam, but if you allow it to get worse and worse until the dam gives way, then it is impossible to fix! Likewise, America is in shambles in 2020! Our nation didn't just fall apart overnight. There has been a demonic spirit of evil at work for the longest to destroy this country.

Our culture of death, murdering 60,000,000 human beings in the womb since 1973, didn't just happen! This wicked ruling by the U.S. Supreme Court was fueled by millions of unwanted pregnancies, a sickening consequence of the hippie movement of the 1960's with their "free love"

(which the Holy Bible calls is fornication). The sin of sexual immorality is the fuel that keeps the fires of ungodly abortion burning! Kooks, quacks and liberals use cases of incest and rape as their foot in the door, to justify murdering everyone!!! Check online and you will find that only 4 % of all abortions are sought by married women! A shocking 83 % of all abortions are performed on single women! Marriage is definitely the answer!

Marriage is not just the old-fashioned way, it is the right way. Sadly, the abusive U.S. court system punishes men for getting married. Consequently, many men nowadays are reluctant to get married, for fear of what evils may befall them if a wife becomes rebellious. Tragically, there are NO LAWS in the United States which require a wife to obey her husband. So if you get married as a man, and your wife rebels against you, you may end up paying her alimony for the rest of her life and yours, while you go to work to support her, and she sits home elsewhere watching TV, and perhaps even shacks up with a boyfriend. That is injustice! I don't blame men more than women, nor women more than men, we have all done wickedly!!!

I could write an entire blog just about the root cause of our problems in America, but it all boils down to problems in the home. Brother Lester Roloff is absolutely right: "[1]There's two problems in America, the preacher and the papa!" Our nation's strength is the sum total of its individual families. I saw the mayor and police chief of Ferguson, Missouri kneel in solidarity with the protesters there, in memory of George Floyd, who was cruelly murdered by a cop in Minneapolis, Minnesota a little over a week ago. Riots have broke out across the nation. One police officer in Florida had his throat slit by an angry protester. Many people, protesters and cops alike, have been killed so far across the country. Ferguson had a population of 21,203 people in the 2010 census. That's a relatively small town. That's a good man and a cool police chief to kneel with the protesters like that! If every police chief in America had the same empathetic and caring attitude as the police chief in Ferguson, Missouri, none of this would have happened! People want change! Abuse must not be tolerated from either the public or the police. Violations must be punished quickly.

America Is Entangled In A Spiderweb Of Evil

I heard one protester in Ferguson show respect for the police chief, praising his attitude, but the protester said " it ain't like that in Los Angeles! " He's right! That's because LA is a giant metropolis, where [2]people are treated [3] like cattle rather than [4]humans beings. Just look at all the homelessness there! Over [5]59,000 people are now homeless in Los Angeles! Who cares, right? The problems run very deep, getting into [6]the fraudulent banking system which has bankrupted America! Our country didn't just deteriorate overnight. The fraudulent Federal Reserve Banking system has been stealing from Americans since 1913 when it was created by thieves!!! That is [7]a major reason for homelessness today in the United States!!! The middle-class are being wiped out, forced into poverty. The average rent for an apartment in San Francisco is over $4,000 a month! In Los Angeles it's over $2,300 per month. People cannot afford that insane amount!!! A shocking 50 % of America's wealth is owned by just 1 % of corporate whoremongers and greedy families. They didn't get rich through hard honest labor, but through corrupt government laws that allow them to exploit cheap foreign labor, and lay-off Americans permanently from their careers.

In case you didn't know, there is a group of Satanists who are trying to subvert our nation, corrupt our families, infiltrate and destroy our churches, and pervert our youth. I could give you thousands of examples, but [8]here is just one by Taylor Swift. I was shocked when I saw the horrible thing she is doing in her video 'Wildest Dreams.' Her video has had 700,105,183 hits so far on YouTube. Please read the article I wrote. There is no way in a thousand years that Miss Swift would promote such lewd filth to young teens, unless she was being led by Satanists. That is why they pay her hundreds of millions of dollars! Hollywood movies are absolutely saturated with occult scenes, themes, images and wickedness! Their demonic goal is to undermine the viewer's character, to corrupt you away from God and holiness, to prepare you to receive the coming Antichrist, and ultimately take your body and soul to Hell forever (Matthew 10:28).

Our ungodly Masonic courts have removed and banned the inspired Holy Bible from children's daily lives at school since 1963. Countless teachers in public schools have been sued by liberals, atheists and ungodly nuts, for promoting Bible verses, teachings of Jesus, Christmas, or anything having to do with blessed Christianity. Instead, impressionable children are taught the blatant lies of evolution, told that there is no God, and all life evolved from a Big Bang billions of years ago, and humans were once gorillas! Should it be surprising that our children behave like animals, when we teach them that they that are on the same level as animals? I think not. Youth today have no moral compass. Apart from the Holy Bible, humanity become God, and decides for himself what is good or evil. That is why same-sex marriages are now legal in America since June of 2015. That is why abortions have been legal for the past 50 years. That is why indecency in literature, public nudity at beaches and in magazines, and all manner of evil is permitted legally in our humanistic society. We have forgotten our holy God!!! We deserve judgment!!!

Change Starts With Each Individual

I have never seen so much crime as today in the United States. Not only that, but the types of crimes are horrifying, and the flagrancy of the criminals is frightening. We are seeing the consequences of a nation who has abandoned the holy God of the King James Bible!!! Woe unto America! [9]When I visited Honolulu, Hawaii a few times in 2008, 2011 and 2013, I saw public nudity everywhere, and no one was ashamed! I was proposition for adultery at the hotel I was staying at. I saw a drug-crazed woman running in the middle of the H1 highway. A taxicab driver stole my money and drove away. I smelled feces and urine all over the Waikiki Beach area, because there are thousands of homeless people, and no public restrooms anywhere for them to use. I couldn't believe how horrible Honolulu was, but Oahu is my favorite island to visit in Hawaii. The beauty is breathtaking! [10]I love playing the Hawaiian Steel Guitar, it is a passion in my life!

How did our nation get so messed up morally, educationally, economically, socially and in so many ways? It was little by little dear friends. What is the answer? I'm glad you asked my fine non-feathered friend? The answer begins with YOU and ME! I cannot change the world, but I can change me! In a perverted way, that cop who murdered George Floyd has changed the world for the better, I think, because the rioting has finally got everyone's attention. I heard one rioter in Ferguson, Missouri, justify his destroying of other people's property by saying: "People are more important than things!" Although I strongly disagree with destroying someone else's stuff, I absolutely agree with him that PEOPLE ARE MORE IMPORTANT THAN THINGS!!! A lot of good can come from all this chaos, if leaders across the country care enough to listen and change the way police treat suspects.

I cringe every-time I [11]see what border cops did to abuse Pastor Steven Anderson. For simply asking peaceful questions about his rights, they slammed his head on the pavement, tearing his face open, which required 11 stitches. That is punk behavior, police brutality, and totally unnecessary. I love Pastor Anderson, he's one of my heroes for preaching the inspired Word of God like a true preacher should, without apology and hard against sin! Gotta love a guy like that!!! He's not perfect, for sure, but neither am I, and neither are you. If we had enough pastors like Brother Anderson, we could turn this mess around in America.

The Inspired King James Bible Is The Answer!

Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) preaches the answer in this awesome sermon titled: '[12]THE BOOK THAT MAKES THE DIFFERENCE!' The King James Bible is the answer to all of our nation's problems. The King James Bible is the answer to our church problems. The King James Bible is the answer to our family problems. The King James Bible is the answer to our personal problems. Many people are crying out that we need love, love, love. Yes, we do need LOVE! But we also need HATE! Hatred for people of other ethnicity and color is wrong hatred! Hatred for Jews is wrong hatred! Hatred for sin is right hatred. Psalms 97:10 says, "Ye that love the LORD, hate evil!"

The Bible will inspire us to hate evil and love our neighbour as our self. Galatians 5:14, "For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself." What a precious truth! Dear friend, if you don't know anything about the Holy Bible, you can sum it all up with truth, love and hate! We should love everyone. We should hate sin and evil. We need the truth! Jesus is the way, the truth and the life (John 14:6). When you think about it—everyone hates something, everyone loves something, everyone holds something to be true or false—therefore, it's all really a matter of simply getting our priorities right! The righteous man loves Jesus, loves people and loves truth; he hates evil and falsehoods that hurt people; he upholds the truth. In sharp contrast, the wicked person hates God and righteousness; he loves sin and evil; he rejects truth. The Bible makes the difference!

Whatever changes the George Floyd situation brings, it won't remedy America's problems! As long as we have homosexual mayors, judges, politicians and influential people in society, God will not bless our nation. Proverbs 14:34, "Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people." A nation of rebels against God won't bring forth fruits of righteousness! I triple-dog dare you to show me even one communist government,that loved their neighbours and treated them " as thyself " as the Holy Bible teaches (Matthew 7:14). The problems are complicated in America, but the remedy is as simple as everyone obeying the Word of God. That will never happen, because we live in a wicked world (1st John 5:19), but that is the answer. You show me a loving, merciful and compassionate person and I can almost assuredly guarantee that they have faith in God. God is love and they that know and walk in Him love every living creature. 1st John 4:16, "And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him."

In Joshua 24:15 Joshua said: "And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD." The preaching of the Gospel is the answer for America! Sin has destroyed our nation! How can we expect an insane society that murders the most vulnerable among us in the womb, to value life? What selfishness!!! We want to murder our citizens in the womb, but then demand that the police show us respect! The same government that allows murder, forbids abuse? That is confusion! If you walk into a shopping mall with no clothes on, you'll be arrested; but it you do it for some pervert with a camera, to be sold to other perverts, then the government says it is legal. This is confusion! Sin always undermines any nation! We need revival in America, and it must begin with our churches getting right with God. We must get rid of all the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions! We must get rid of the Devil's counterfeit 'Lordship Salvation'! If the churches are corrupt, then how can we help the lost and dying world?

> "Thank God, we are not told in Scripture to look for the Antichrist! We are told to look for the Christ of God, Jesus, who shall rise with healing in His wings. The unsaved world looks for the Antichrist, but we don't. We are looking for Jesus. I'm like the fellow who said, "I'm not looking for the undertaker; I'm looking for the Uppertaker." How wonderful it would be to cheat the undertaker! Christian undertakers will go to Heaven, but there won't be any need for their skilled services there because there will be no more death." —Pastor Raymond Barber, "Where Will You Be After The Rapture?"

No matter how small, a person is a person. God told the Old Testament prophet Jeremiah, that He knew Jeremiah before he was even conceived in the womb. It is a tragedy to decide a child must die, so that you may live as you wish! Abortion does not make a woman unpregnant, it just makes her the mother of a dead baby!!! Truth is still truth, even if no one believes it; a lie is still a lie, even if everyone believes it! Abortion is first-degree murder! That is the truth!!!

Listen dear mother, your body STOPS where baby's body STARTS! It's a child, not a choice! A child in the womb is still a human being in every sense of the word. The ungodly U.S. Supreme Court will split Hell wide open when they die, for all those who voted to legalize mass-murder since 1973 in America. It is a big deal to God almighty! I heard former President Bill Clinton say that even leading theologians cannot agree on the issue of abortion, so how could a mere U.S. President makes such crucial decisions? Sadly, Mr. Clinton was half-correct. He is right that leading theologians cannot agree, just like they cannot agree on the bodily resurrection of Jesus, the inspiration of the Holy Bible, and the virgin birth of Christ. These pseudo-theologians are all reprobate liberals, who masquerade as theologians, confusing the masses with their Satanic junk theology. There is no controversy if you believe the Bible. Exodus 20:13, "Thou shalt not kill.

Hey, if it's not a baby, you're not pregnant! Did you know that 93 % of women regret their abortion? You'll never heard that from the liberal controlled newsmedia. The media are a bunch of professionally-paid LIARS! They read teleprompters and reports whatever they're told to report, selling their souls for the almighty dollar. Truly, the love of money is the root of all evil (1st Timothy 6:10). LIFE begins at CONCEPTION; ABORTION begins at DECEPTION!!! All Christians who fear God and are right with God are PRO-LIFE!!! Dear reader, like it or not, some choices are WRONG! Just because you can do something legally doesn't make it RIGHT! Just because you can murder your child, doesn't mean that God approves if it. I am so sick of abortionists using the rape and incest argument to justify murdering 99.9 % of healthy children in abortions caused by fornication!!! A whopping 83 % of all abortions are sought by unmarried women. Only 4 % of abortion are sought by married women. GET MARRIED AND STOP WHORING AROUND!!!

I call for EQUAL RIGHTS FOR WOMEN IN THE WOMB! Do you know how much an abortion costs? It costs ONE HUMAN LIFE!!! Abortion is the hand that robs the cradle! It's east to be PRO-CHOICE when you're not the one being KILLED!!! Abortion hurts women, and is the ultimate child abuse! Abortion needs to be stopped!!! There will never be an abortion again, when the Lord Jesus Christ returns to establish His earthly millennial Kingdom. Life begins when abortion ends! Abortion violates women's rights, especially unborn women in the womb! Abortion is homicide!!!

It is tragic that so many women desire to bear children, but cannot; yet tens of millions of healthy women who do bear children, cold-heartedly murder their babies!!! Don't you understand that every baby is a gift from God? Psalms 127:3, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward.

Lo,

" There is no one in this world as selfish, as the pregnant mother who claims she alone has the insane RIGHT to deprive her baby of its God-given life! Abortion stops a beating heart!!!

If a child is not a human being, then why does a mad doctor have to terminate it's life? The abortion doctor is a scary person, for he disregards the life of the weakest among our race. Statistically, the most dangerous place to be nowadays is in the womb of a mother!!!

Sadly, very few churches and pastors even preach against abortion anymore. Our degraded American society has sadly accepted abortion as a normal thing. Don't you understand that we as Americans are corporately responsible for the assassination of 60,000,000 human lives? People go ballistic when a solider throws a puppy over a cliff. The public demands action if a kitten is being abused. But insanely, people say nothing and don't care when a human baby's life is being terminated in a murderous abortion clinic. Liberals allege that if abortions were not legal, pregnant women would harm themselves with botched self-abortions. That doesn't matter, because two wrongs never make a right! Are we going to pass laws next to just give thieves our wallets, to avoid being mugged instead? Where does the insanity end? Anything can be justified.

Having an abortion is just plain old selfish. We live in an ungodly society today that thinks it knows more than our holy God. People reject the wisdom of the Holy Bible; thus destroying their own happiness, family and life, and then blame God for their wickedness! If you get pregnant outside of a legally binding marriage, then you are a fool. The immoral male that impregnated you, very likely won't be step up to plate as a man, to do the right thing and marry you. So now you have a bastard child and you want to get rid of it, like an old car. Humanity has a self-destructive nature! A wise person heeds the Word of God. Psalms 119:9, " Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word." Satan is the god of this evil world (2nd Corinthians 4:4). The Devil wants every young person to become immoral, have an abortion, ruin your life, live a life of sin (John 10:9-10). The choice is yours alone to make, but God's judgment is upon all evildoers (Colossians 3:5-6). I choose to live for the Lord...

Joshua 24:15, " And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD. "

John 5:39, “Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.”

I sometimes get web visitors writing to me repeatedly, asking all sorts of hypothetical questions about salvation. What if this? What if that? One man literally asked me if it mattered which of Jesus’ hands were nailed to the cross first? Another wanted to know if a person can just believe in Christ’s death, and not the cross? One man asked if it matters if you believe the cross was made out of wood or plastic? Uh, plastic wasn’t even invented until 1907. You must include the cross to be saved. It doesn’t matter which of Jesus’ hands were nailed to the cross first. It doesn’t matter what the cross was made out of, but it was wood! There, happy? Oh boy, where do these people come from?

What these people want from me, is the assurance that they are 100 % saved, and I cannot give them that assurance. Since I am flesh and bone, they want flesh and blood to confirm that they are going to Heaven. Psalms 118:8, “It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man.” Since I am only a sinful man, they cannot find lasting assurance, so they continue asking more questions. Jeremiah 17:5, “Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD.” I exchanged over 300 e-mails with one man from India over a three year period, trying to help him. I shared several dozen books, charts and sermons with him all about salvation, but nothing helped. He just thinks he is going to Hell.

Kindly, I finally told him that I couldn’t help him, when I realized that I am enabling his problem, making it worse. He’s is looking to me for his assurance of salvation, instead of trusting God. Although I am glad to answer questions for as long as it takes, to help people for Christ, there comes a point where it is simply counterproductive to continue answering the same questions over and over. I strongly encourage people that they “

” (John 5:39), and not rely upon me for their assurance. I can guide people into the Scriptures, pointing them in the right direction; but until they familiarize themselves with the PROMISES of God in the King James Bible, they’ll merely go in circles and keep doubting. What saith the Scripture?

We must be like the Bereans, who SEARCHED THE SCRIPTURES to see if what Paul taught them was true or not. Acts 17:11, “

These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

1.4.17 Why Follow Men? (2020-06-09 09:34)

Ephesians 5:1, “Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;”

What saith the Scriptures? John 5:39, “Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.” Most of the debating, arguing and controversies plaguing the churches today could be eliminated if religious leaders would simply stop following men, and start SEARCHING THE SCRIPTURES!!! The inspired Word of God is our ONLY authority, and not men. Any man can pay some money to buy a piece of paper called a “degree,” and all of a sudden he is considered “qualified” to lead a church; but he could be a total deceiver, theologically incompetent and an ignoramus concerning the Scriptures!

> III. WHY FOLLOW MEN?
> Do you follow Arminius? or Wesley? Then you are certain to be wrong wherever those good men but frail men were wrong. Do you follow Calvin? Then whatever doctrine Calvin formulated or invented will be wrong for you as for him. ...

In truth, the false doctrines of hyper-Calvinism would not do so much harm if they were emphasized as little as Spurgeon emphasized them, and particularly, if those who advocate them worked unceasingly to win souls as Spurgeon did.

But why follow Spurgeon? He was human. he was an amazing pastor, and evangelist. Some think he was the greatest preacher since the Apostle Paul. But when he was wrong he was wrong. He plainly said he did not know enough about the return of Christ to preach on it. No man is perfect. It would be as foolish to follow Spurgeon in whatever part of the false doctrine of hyper-Calvinism he believed as to follow him in smoking cigars. He saw the error of smoking a little while before he went to Heaven, and I am sure he saw the errors of hyper-Calvinism, besides those he himself criticized, as soon as he reached Heaven. Why not just follow the Bible instead of Arminius or Calvin or Wesley or Spurgeon?

I couldn't agree with Dr. Rice more! Amen and amen. Our churches are being destroyed today because of foolishly incompetent pastors and Bible college leaders, who follow popular reprobate Bible teachers; namely, John MacArthur, Paul Washer, John Piper, R.C. Sproul, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, Chip Ingram, Steve Pettit, Rick Warren, William Lane Craig, Joel Osteen, Beth Moore, Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, Doug Batchelor, Don Blackwell, David Cloud, Dan Corner, Brian Derringer, John Hagee, Charles Stanley, Pat Robertson, Max Lucado, and other ungodly gospel-corrupters! These people all pervert the Gospel of free grace, ADDING something else to it which God does not require to be saved. God freely offers the free gift of eternal life to anyone who wants it! This gift is free because Jesus paid for it with His precious blood!!!

You won't find a more helpful Bible verse to live by than Psalms 118:8, "It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man." I have heard some preachers say that this verse is the center of the King James Bible. Jeremiah 17:5, "Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD." We ought to therefore be followers of God. Ephesians 5:1, "Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;" We follow God

by abiding in the eternal words of the inspired King James Bible!!!

Walking with Jesus gives a Christian **“

BOLDNESS

” ! Why do you think I preach boldly the way I do? That is Jesus’ Spirit in me.

Acts 4:13, “ Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.” People will know when you’ve been walking with God, because of your boldness for truth, righteousness and love for others. Walking with God compels a believer to “hate evil” (premeditated sin). Psalms 97:10, “Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

” And a sure sign that a Christian is following God is that they hate every false way. Psalms 119:104, “Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.”

You know that all these pastors are pseudo-religious leaders today. The prefix pseudo- (from Greek ψευδής, pseudes, "lying, false") is used to mark something that superficially appears to be (or behaves like) one thing, but is something else. On the surface, today’s clergy appear to care and be knowledgeable of the things of God, but upon closer inspection, you will be very disappointed. Today’s pastors are theologically incompetent—promoting multiple different Bible versions, promoting a false gospel of being willing to “turn from your sins” to be saved, and bidding Godspeed to false prophets like Ray Comfort and John MacArthur. I refuse to follow Jacob Arminius (1560-1609). I refuse to follow John Calvin (1509-1564). I refuse to follow Martin Luther (1483-1546).

Today’s cotton-candy religion tastes so great for a few seconds, but then quickly disintegrates into nothing! A genuine man of God, who follows God, WILL care about the truth! Such a man will hate the evil LGBTQ agenda, hate abortion, hate the prevailing injustices of the U.S. Justice Department, hate the Devil’s Bible revisions that confuse everyone, and hate all manner of fraud, evil and taking advantage of other people! The believer who follows God unconditionally loves every living creature!!! The main reason why churches are so messed-up nowadays is because pastors and Bible colleges are FOLLOWING MEN instead of FOLLOWING GOD! If you want to follow God, then you must follow only the inspired King James Bible. If you follow God, then you must follow only a free grace view of the Gospel. Lordship Salvation is a lie of the Devil, a false teaching that produces much worry, fear and uncertainty in the soul of those who fall victim to it!

The main reason why professed Christians in churches are so messed-up today is because they FOLLOW MEN. Instead, we ought to all SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!!!

1.4.18 Christians Have A Wonderful Expectation (2020-06-09 22:30)

Philippians 3:18-21, “ (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.”

I love the contrast between verses 18-19 and 20-21. In verses 18-19 above, we see the unsaved person for whom the apostle Paul wept. Paul says the end of the unsaved Christ-rejecter will be destruction! Their God is their belly, living only to eat, drink and enjoy life to the fullest. They have no regard for God. Their glory is their shame. They mind earthly things. This describes 97 % of American society!

But in verses 20-21 we see the born-again Christian, whose home and family are in Heaven, from whence we look for the blessed Savior Jesus Christ to return. As believers we have the wonderful hope and expectation of having our body changed, ultimately fashioned like unto the Lord’s glorious body. I have suffered from stenosis and radiculopathy in my neck since 2004. I was rear-ended by a church bus in 1992, which misaligned my neck, leading to Cervical Degenerative Disk Disease 12 years later.

My type of work as a mechanic years ago worsened my condition, and then I fell in 2004, which added to my health afflictions

I had two major neck surgeries in 2009 and 2010, which were both nightmares. I have a titanium plate and six surgical screws in my neck. I suffer with constant toothache-like pain in my neck, in the bony area in back. I very much await and look forward to God's promise in Philippians 3:21. I look forward to not being in bodily pain anymore. What a glorious day that will be! God is always good. Praise the Lord anyhow!!!

Dear reader, if you don't take the Holy Bible seriously, you should. You have so much to gain or lose! Romans 8:32, "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?" I love that! The apostle Paul reminds us as believers that if God was willing to sacrifice His own Son for us, then how much more shall God give unto us "ALL THINGS." The Lord wants us to be happy in Heaven. When I hear my family say they want something, it becomes a priority with me! Not only my family, but everybody in my life. When I hear someone say that they are saving up for something, or that they would like to have something, I do what I can to meet that need or desire. Why do I do that? It is because I love others!

I recently heard my 6-year-old grandson mention that he would like some aftershave cologne. Obviously he doesn't shave at age 6. So I asked permission from his parents and the next time I saw him, gave him my 'Brut 33' aftershave cologne. (That's not my favorite brand, it was just what the store had available.) Luigi was happy when I remembered what he had said. He didn't ask for it, he didn't expect it, he just wanted to smell nice like his dad, and I wanted to do something that would surprise him and make him happy. I live like that!

If you are a part of my life, I listen to everything you say, because I love you with God's love. When I used to attend Watchcare meetings at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, I heard a young woman say that she wanted to get a capo for her guitar. She was just thinking out loud in the distance. At the next Watchcare meeting, I surprised her with a capo that I bought for her. I love to surprise people with good things, to show God's love and make them happy. I have fun living like that! I love giving things away and sharing. If I, being a sinful human being, can do nice things for others sinners; then how much more will our perfect heavenly Father do good things for His saints that love Him? I believe God will surprise us in Heaven with good things, because He loves us. God will give us anything that is right, holy, good and known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. What saith the Scripture? ...

> 1st Corinthians 2:9-10, "But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God."

We see in verse 10 that verse 9 refers (in this context) to the wonderful truths of the Word of God. The truths and promises of God's Word are the greatest possession I own! Thank God for the inspired King James Bible!!! Albeit, I believe this Scripture also refers to God's goodness in general. Jesus encouraged the apostle Peter in John 14:1-3, with a promise applicable to all saints, that He is preparing a home for us in Heaven! Amen and amen! The Lord knows that I desire a nice pedal steel guitar in Heaven. There are several dozen different brands of steel guitars. I simply have not been able to play more than a handful of them in my lifetime. I wish I could play them all, and pick the one that I like the best! The same is true of musical amplifiers.

I have never played through most brands of amplifiers, but I sure want to. I have often asked the Lord to choose the best pedal steel guitar and amplifier, that HE KNOWS will make me the happiest, giving me that allusive sound I have been seeking my whole life!

If you are a musician you know what I am talking about! If you play the violin, then you have always wanted to play a $3,000,000 Stradivarius! Scientists have analyzed the Stradivarius, trying to figure out what makes it sound like no other violin sounds! Check on YouTube and you will be amazed. I bought a fiddle to learn to play, but gave it to my daughter, because my neck injury won't allow me to hold the violin. It hurts too bad. What a beautiful musical instrument the violin is! The violin is a very challenging instrument to learn, with a steep learning curve. I think the violin is more difficult to master than the steel guitar. It really comes down to whether or not you have the desire to stick with it. When you're as good as you want to be, you're as good as you're going to get. I absolutely love the steel guitar! Praise the Lord!!! [1]Here are a bunch of recent recordings that I made with my steel guitars in 2020. I'd love to record an album with Christians singing a bunch of Gospel songs.

If you are a born-again believer, your future is so bright that you should be wearing sun-glasses! I know there are A LOT of hurting Christians, whose marriages failed (like mine), and suffer with health afflictions (like I do), and battle depression (as I do), and you are barely hanging in there day by day, knowing that you've only made it this far BY GOD'S GRACE. God's grace will lead us all home too dear suffering friend. Our God is still on His throne! We are living today in insane, perilous and strange times, but God saw it all coming, and is calm in the storm! I heard a wonderful MP3 sermon yesterday by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) called: '[2]Don't Be Afraid Of Tomorrow, God Is Already There.'

When I attended Hyles-Anderson College and was a member of the First Baptist Church of Hammond (1985-1993), Brother Hyles used to often sing a song called: '[3]My Lord Knows The Way Through The Wilderness.' Here are [4]the lyrics. Here's the [5]MP4 if you'd like to download it. What a precious truth! My Lord know the way through the Wilderness, all I have to do is FOLLOW! Proverbs 3:5-7, "Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil." I am so glad that we don't have to understand God to please Him, we just need to TRUST HIM! I honestly cannot understand most things about God. The older I get the less I understand, but the more I trust my blessed Redeemer!!!

I will close with one of my favorite passages of Scripture. The Bible acknowledges that we cannot see Jesus, yet we believe and love Him as saints, and we have an inexplicable joy that floods our soul continually. [6]Oh it is wonderful to be a Christian!!! ...

> 1st Peter 1:7-9, "That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls."

1.4.19 Will There Be Animals In Heaven? (2020-06-10 23:30)

Romans 8:32, " He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? "

I love that Bible verse. Someone recently asked me if there will be pets in Heaven. Will there be animals? The Bible says Jesus will return riding a white horse. Horses are mentioned in the prophetic book of Revelation. Revelation 19:11 and 14, " And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. ... And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean." So there will be an army of saints, all riding upon white horses. This refers to The Battle Of Armageddon, which will occur at Jesus' Second Coming following the 7-year Tribulation period.

The Old Testament makes a clear distinction between humans and animals. Ecclesiastes 3:21, " Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?" Animals do not have eternal life. Ecclesiastes 12:7,

"Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

" This Bible verse refutes the heresy of Soul Sleep, which Jehovah's Witnesses and Seventh-Day Adventists teach. JW's and SDA's teach that a person's soul is unconscious in the grave when a person dies, until a future resurrection. The Bible disagrees!

2nd Corinthians 5:8, " We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord." To be absent from the tabernacle of the human body, is to be present with the Lord (2nd Corinthians 5:1-8).

Albeit, these Bible passages do not mean that there won't be animals in Heaven. The fact that there will be horses in Heaven, I think, verifies that we will see other types of animals in Heaven. If all animals are merely dead, and go downward into the grave, then how could there be horses in Heaven? Romans 8:32 teaches that if God was willing to sacrifice His only begotten Son for us, how much more shall He give us all things? I think God is going to give us anything we desire, that is right, good, holy and proper. If you desire to see your deceased cat “Fluffy” in Heaven, I think God will do it! Do you mean to tell me that the omnipotent (all-powerful) supreme God of the universe is too weak, and incapable, of returning life to a simple dog or cat? Philippians 3:21 teaches that Jesus has subdued all things unto Himself, including the ability to raise the dead, and restore human life, making our bodies even better than before, fashioned like unto the Lord’s glorified resurrected body.

Jesus was able to calm the raging wind and waves, which caused astonishment in His disciples, wondering what manner of man this was, that even the elements would obey Him.

Matthew 8:27, “ But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him! ” Jesus raised Lazarus and the little girl from the dead. Our Lord has supernatural powers. It doesn’t matter if your body is burned at the stake or blown up with a bomb, Jesus can reconstitute your body. Remember, the Bible says “ BY HIM

” were all things created. John 1:1-3 and 14,

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. ...And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. ” This passage is irrefutably about Jesus Christ, the incarnate (in the flesh) Word of God. The Bible says that ALL THINGS were made BY HIM.

Tragically, all of the Devil’s modern Bible revisions change and corrupt this passage, changing

THROUGH HIM,

which is a direct attack against Jesus’ deity (that He is almighty God). At one time Bob Jones University was considered the citadel of Christian fundamentalism in America, but today is [1]a shameful disgrace, a laughing stock, overrun with heretics [2]preaching Lordship Salvation, Calvinism and a works-based gospel of being willing to turn from sins to be saved. BJU sells, uses and promotes the Devil's English Standard Version (ESV) which changes

" in John 1:3. It is wickedness!!! By giving the Devil an inch at BJU (by [3]making light of the verbal inspiration of the Holy Bible), they have allowed the Devil to take a foot and become a ruler at BJU in 2020! Once the Devil gets his foot in your front door, he moves in!

Our all-powerful Savior can do all things, including give us pets in Heaven, if we so wish. I believe that! I honestly would be disappointed and surprised if there are no cats in Heaven, because I am a cat person. I love cats. Dogs are okay, but I don't like them as pets. Cats are cool!

Ben Vogt (2020-07-12 04:33:24)
I've been saved for 7 years, and I enjoy reading your writings, Mr. Stewart. When I get to Heaven, I want to become some Tarzan-like figure, and I hope there are jungles in Heaven so I can climb and swing from trees and glide over large bodies of water or dive into them from a high cliff when I want to take a dip. Or at least my heavenly mansion will have that surrounding environment like a wildlife sanctuary (I definitely want a collection of wild animals to have as pets, like gorillas, elephants, lions, tigers, etc.). If Jesus is willing, I'd also like to have my deceased French Bulldog back too. Depending on how it works, I'll even keep the horse Jesus has me ride in the Battle of Armageddon.

1.4.20 False Prophets Are Dangerous Because We Like Them (2020-06-11 05:30)

Romans 16:17-18, "

Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

I think people who read these Bible verses often think of troublemakers as being “those who cause divisions,” and they certainly could be; but sometimes causing division os good and necessary. Church splits can actually be a good thing, if a church has been formerly corrupted and going in the wrong direction spiritually. So what does the Bible mean by “mark them which cause divisions and offences”? The Bible answers that question for us—those divisions and offences which are “contrary to the doctrine which ye heave learned; and avoid them.” We’re specifically dealing with doctrine here, not petty hurt feelings or a disagreement over whether the pastor should get a raise. Anyone who brings unbiblical teachings into a church should be identified (marked), and avoided. Ephesians 5:11 and Titus 1:10-13 teaches we should expose them as well. Matthew 7:15, “ Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. ” Matthew 24:11, “ And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. ” There are MANY false prophets today! Sadly, many of those deadly false teachers have crept into the churches with their heretical Lordship Salvation, counterfeit Bible revisions, and the “ turn from your sins

junk theology to be saved, and other garbage!

One of the most dangerous types of false prophets today is the new evangelical. They are dangerous because they look, talk and behave as do true Christians, but they are not born-again believers, because they preach another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. [1]Dr. John MacArthur is the leading proponent of the damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation, which teaches that faith alone is insufficient to save a man; but in addition, a person MUST turn away from their sins, make full surrender to Christ as “Lord,” forsake the world, run and persevere to finish the race, follow Christ no matter what the cost, et cetera. This is another gospel, not the free gift of eternal life promised by God (Romans 5:15-18, 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9; Titus 1:2).

evangelicals.

Concerning the threat of neo-evangelicals, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) says:

> We call him the neo-evangelical. ...These false teachers are usually likable people, and once we learn to like them, their doctrine will not be quite so bad. ...It is not believing right within the movement that makes one a fundamentalist; it is the withdrawal FROM the movement and returning to the original dogma, practices and convictions of the apostate group that gives one the title of fundamentalist. The basic difference is the degree of importance that one places on the doctrine of separation. [emphasis added] —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[3]New Evangelicalism."

What a statement! Brother Hyles is so right! False teachers are usually very likable people, and once we learn to like them, their heresy doesn't seem so bad. That is why Bob Jones University went from preaching the Gospel while Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) was still alive, to [4]preaching another gospel of accursed Lordship Salvation in 2020!

I read this beautiful quote from Dr. Bob Jones Sr. this morning, about the Gospel:

> "Men are not saved by analyzing the truth of the Gospel. They are saved by accepting the truth of the Gospel. It is true, whether men believe it or not. It is as true as the multiplication table. Men use the multiplication table to do what the multiplication table is supposed to do. The Gospel will do what it is supposed to do. 'It is the power of God unto salvation unto every one that believeth."' —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," chapter: Preaching, Evangelism, page 123; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

The "Gospel" is the Good News that Jesus Christ died on the cross for our sins, He was buried, and three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead for our justification (that is, that our faith in Him would be justified by a risen Savior). Anyone who receives the Gospel as their own is saved. Please make it your own dear friend! Claim it as your only way to Heaven! That is what BJU used to believe. A wicked man named Dr. Steve Pettit has corrupted BJU with his poison teachings on Lordship Salvation, who is [5]very close friends with Pastor John MacArthur.

My ongoing spiritual battle with Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and the Bob Jones University camp, is rooted in 'THE BATTLE OF THE AGES' (MP3 by Pastor Jack Hyles, 1994) between FUNDAMENTALISTS and EVANGELICALS...

> “This isn’t over Jack Hyles, this is over fundamentalism! These are evangelicals fighting fundamentalists—that’s what it’s all about; and their effort is to destroy Hyles-Anderson College. Over my dead body they’ll destroy Hyles-Anderson College; and their effort is to destroy the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana; and I’ll go to the finish before I’ll let it happen! That’s what’s going on!” —Dr. Jack Hyles, a truthful quote from the needful sermon, “Weathering The Storm!”

I am outside the gate with Jesus today!!! I am suffering reproach for the cause of Jesus Christ!!! I am the Dark Knight, and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is “Two-faced Harvey Dent” from the 2008 Batman movie! Like the Dark Knight, sometimes you have to become the villain in order to be the hero and protect the people! That is me! At least I know what I believe! The Bob Jones’ camp cannot choose which Bible version to use, or which preacher is correct on the Gospel, or which way is right. The man with two watches never knows what time it is! Neither does the man with more than one Bible know what the truth is!!!

False prophets are very dangerous because people like them so much. Remember, the Devil himself the Bible says is TRANSFORMED INTO AN ANGEL OF LIGHT, to deceive his victims. 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15, “For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.”

If you saw Satan today, you’d think he was Jesus. That is how clever Satan is, able to masquerading even as Jesus Christ. The Devil knows all the right words to say, but he doesn’t believe a word of any of it. In fact, the word in the Holy Bible doesn’t mean against Christ

Antichrist

; but rather,

1444

in place of Christ.

The heathen world is looking for their Devil’s messiah, and he is coming soon! The Antichrist will claim to be God (2nd Thessalonians 2:4).

> “Everything that’s hard and complicated about salvation is God’s side of it!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from his MP3 sermon: “[6]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay.”

1.4.21 Pastor Ryan Price Is Confused In His Preaching! (2020-06-11 13:36)

Galatians 1:7-8, “Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. ”

I heard a preacher today named Pastor Ryan Price of the Fort Lauderdale Baptist Church in Florida. Pastor Price said in 2011 that John MacArthur is not a “ [1]damnable heretic .” What do you mean he’s not a “damnable heretic”? Are you kidding? [2]JOHN MACARTHUR IS A DAMNABLE HERETIC!!! In speaking about Calvinists John Piper and John MacArthur, Pastor Price said:

> “I don’t consider those men to be damnable heretics.” —Pastor Ryan Price, ’[3]What Is Wrong With John MacArthur?’ (0:50 time in video)

Yet, Pastor price horribly contradicts himself later in the same interview when he says:

> “Lordship Salvation is a damnable heresy. John MacArthur is the leading proponent for Lordship Salvation!” —Pastor Ryan Price, ’[4]What Is Wrong With John MacArthur?’ (9:02 time in video)

Which is it? How can a man preach the damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation, but not be a damnable heretic himself? You better believe that John Piper and John MacArthur are damnable heretics! You absolutely cannot believe the inspired Word of God and follow these men regarding salvation. Pastor Price shamefully sums up his interview by making this foolish statement:

> “And again, I’m bothered by his fruits, but I think he’s saved.” —Pastor Ryan Price, ’[5]What Is Wrong With John MacArthur?’ (9:40 time in video)

Saved? I seriously question if Ryan Price is saved, because he doesn’t understand how God’s grace works. Ryan might as well think the Catholic Pope is saved, who also professes faith in Jesus Christ!!! Think about that. Pastor Price speaks as a religious fool. No preacher is saved who perverts the Gospel of free grace!!!

1.4.22 The Absolute Eternal Security Of The Believer (2020-06-12 10:30)

1st Peter 1:23, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever."

The inspired Holy Bible always speaks of the new birth in past tense. Our text verse says Christians have been " born-again,

" not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by THE WORD OF GOD. The inspired Word of God is the "seed" by which we are born anew from above (cf. Luke 8:11). A human child is conceived by the "

seed

(sperm) of a man. Likewise, a child of God is conceived by the

seed

” of the inspired Word of God. Tragically, false converts are being conceived in hundreds of thousands of churches today by religion! Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world!!! No religion can get you to Heaven! You need a person, a capable Savior, and His blessed precious name is Jesus!

Eternal Life Is An Instantaneous New Birth, Not A Process

There is a dangerous theological trend today in many Bible colleges and churches today, which teaches salvation as a PROCESS instead of an instantaneous NEW BIRTH. This disturbing doctrinal trend is largely because of the corrupt Devil’s Bible revisions which change verses like 1st Corinthians 1:18 from reading “are saved” to “are being saved,” which is extremely deceitful. I implore you dear reader to use only the King James Bible.

A truly saved person is already born-again—it is a done deal—nothing else is required. Beware of false prophets like Evangelist Ray Comfort, Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014), and Evangelist Paul Washer, who errantly teach that the assurance of your salvation is conditional upon the life which you live. For example: Paul Washer says:

> “And the evidence that a person has repented unto salvation, at some past time, is that they continue repenting today. …And the evidence that a person is saved, is not that at some point in time in their life they prayed and asked Jesus Christ to come into their heart. The evidence that someone is saved, is that they continue to walking > in the narrow way.” [emphasis added] —Evangelist Paul Washer, YouTube sermon clip titled: “
>
> [1]Paul Washer - LISTEN TO THIS!!!

Paul Washer is preaching another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works! He keeps talking about “the evidence” that someone is saved, requiring a changed life to know that you are saved. Washer further teaches:

> “If you have made the good profession. If you claim to have passed through the gate. If you have received baptism and a public declaration of your faith, and you begin to walk—it doesn’t matter how long it appears you’re walking in that path
>
> —if you step off that path and there’s no disciple and you continue off that path, you can have no assurance whatsoever of your salvation!” —Evangelist Paul Washer, YouTube sermon clip titled: “
>
> [2]Paul Washer - LISTEN TO THIS!!!

Mr. Washer’s teachings instill a horrible spirit of fear, worry and uncertainty in the soul of listeners. I have received countless testimonies from people who lived in misery and fear, because they could not stop sinning. One of the big problems with what Paul Washer is teaching is that no redeemed sinner can ever truly have the assurance they are 100 % saved. How much sin is too much? At what point of walking off the path is our assurance of salvation jeopardized? At what point does a professed Christian suspect that they may never have been saved?

The apostle Paul said in 2nd Corinthians 13:5, “

Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

” Isn’t that so simple? Paul admonished the professed believers at the church of Corinth to make sure they were saved. The only

that Paul mentions is “HOW THAT

JESUS CHRIST IS IN YOU

! Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) reiterated Paul’s words, rightly teaching:

> “Men are not saved by analyzing the truth of the Gospel. They are saved by accepting the truth of the Gospel. It is true, whether men believe it or not. It is as true as the multiplication table. Men use the multiplication table to do what the multiplication table is supposed to do. The Gospel will do what it is supposed to do. ’It is the power of God unto salvation unto every one that believeth.”’ —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., “Comments On Here And Hereafter,” chapter: Preaching, Evangelism, page 123; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

Amen and amen! The only evidence that you are saved is that you have Jesus Christ in you! That is what the epistle of 1st John is all about. 1st John 3:24, “And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.” The apostle John says if you hate your Christian brother and love sin, it could be that you don’t have Jesus in you; but the test is not whether or not there are willful sins in your life, it is whether or not you have Jesus Christ in you!!! Romans 8:9 calls the indwelling Holy Spirit the “ Spirit of Christ.

Once Saved Always Saved Is 100 % Biblical

We are NOT eternally saved by the repentance of our sins. We ARE eternally saved by repenting of our unbelief and believing in Jesus, who saves us from the eternal consequences of our sins.

A believer CANNOT lose his or her salvation no matter what sins they do, or what good deeds they don’t do (even if they lose their faith for a time or commit suicide). Eternal life is eternal. God does not give temporal or probationary life. Jesus said those who believe in Him will “never perish” (John 6:47).

Saving faith does NOT include works. It is unbiblical to redefine “faith” or “belief” to include the obedience of good works, love, or discipleship. This is the deadly error of [3]Seventh-Day Adventists, [4]Mormons, [5]Roman Catholics and [6]Jehovah’s Witness (which you can verify if you search online for their beliefs on repentance; I just provided links to some helpful articles I’ve written). We are saved entirely by what Jesus did for us, and not at all by what good and spiritual things we do after we believe in Jesus.

We are NOT saved by our changed life; we are saved by Jesus’ life, His death for our sins and His resurrection. Salvation is received, not achieved.

It is God’s will that we live by His grace, by faith, by His love as born-again children of God; as his ambassadors, by his indwelling Holy Spirit in our spirit—but none of these things are requirements of eternal salvation or allowed for eternal salvation. Jesus provides salvation entirely through His finished work on the cross and His resurrection.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Believers in Jesus are not under the law of Moses (Romans 3:19-20), we are alive (quickened) in the Spirit (Galatians 5:25).

Salvation is a totally

(Romans 5:15-18). It is received by those who believe in Jesus and do not also include their own good works as part of what saves them.

We are NOT saved by our verbal confession of faith in Jesus. Many of the Jewish chief rulers in John 12:42-43 “believed” on Jesus, but “did not confess Him” publickly, because they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God. Yet, they were 100 % saved! This proves verbal confession is not required to be saved.

These Jews were afraid they would be put out of the synagogue.

In the end, there are only sheep and goats. The sheep are saved, and the goats are damned. Those who believe in Jesus are His sheep.

The most important thing is to believe on the name of Jesus. He shed His blood and died on the cross for the sins of everyone according to the Scriptures. Jesus was buried, and He physically resurrected from the dead three days later. Whosoever believes this Gospel (i.e., ’Good News’) of Jesus is immediately and eternally and irrevocably saved. You must not add anything to your faith, or you won’t get God’s grace. If you add surrendering to Christ’s Lordship, you don’ t get grace! If you add water baptism, you don’t get grace. If you add turning away from sinful bad habits, you don’t get grace. If you add running the race, persevering in holiness, or living a lifestyle of repentance, you don’t get God’s saving grace! You must simply believe the Good News!!!

> “When you get dissed by men—the whole reason God allowed you to be dissed—is because He didn’t want you to fit in! He don’t want you to fit in with the world. He don’t want you to fit in with the rest of the group! He don’t want you to be just like them! ’Cause there is something special about you! There’s an assignment for you. There’s a call for you. There’s an anointing for your life. God does not want you to fit in!” —Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr., “[7]Being Dissed”

Hebrews 12:1-2, "Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God."

The most important truth to notice in the preceding text passage of Scripture, is that we as the saints are taught to LOOK TO JESUS! No Christian will run the race if they take their eyes off the blessed Savior, who is the Author and Finisher of our faith. What God starts He will finish! God never does a half-job! God is not an absent parent. Philippians 1:6, " Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:" We hear a lot of foolish talk from wayward preachers about

"turning from sins" to be saved, but that is not how salvation works! If you require a person to " be willing to turn from sins

" to be saved, effectively you have added keeping the law of Moses, perverting the Gospel!

Turning from sins is human reformation, not Bible repentance (which is a change of mind). When you trust Christ to get saved, the Lord begins a good work in you! The blessed Holy Spirit comes inside your body to live (1st Corinthians 3:16-17). Theologically we call this being "

indwelt

" by the Holy Spirit. Running the race as a Christian has absolutely NOTHING to do with receiving the free gift of eternal life.

One of my regular web visitors at [1]Jesus-is-Savior.com sent me this inspiring devotional they wrote to encourage me [2]for standing alone:

Our journey with the Lord is like a marathon in many ways. We must maintain a disciplined training program to ensure we are prepared. The race itself can be long and hard. There will be times we run out of energy and want to quit, but crossing the finish line will be more rewarding than anything we can imagine! And along the way, we will certainly learn to appreciate the encouragement we receive from the cheering crowd.

Hebrews 12:1,

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witness, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, ”

This verse follows what we often refer to as The Great Hall of Faith. The eleventh chapter of Hebrews describes many people from the Old Testament who were commended for their faith: Able, Noah, Abraham, Joseph, Moses, Gideon, Samson, David, and many others.

At the end of this impressive list, we read that even though they were faithful, "these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise" (Hebrews 11:39). Their reward was postponed until the coming of Jesus; "God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect." (Hebrews 11:40). The testimony of the faithful is meant to give us great encouragement. It’s as if they are cheering us on with great anticipation, knowing that one day we will be “caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air; and so shall we ever be with the Lord.” (1 Thessalonians 4:17).

This cloud of witnesses now also includes the testimony of New Testament believers as well as Christians throughout the last 2,000 years. It also includes Brothers and Sisters who love us and pray for us today. As we run the race and sometimes grow weary - sometimes even stumble and fall - these witnesses continue to cheer and encourage our every step; "You can do it, I believe in you! And if you stumble, I'll help you back up!!"

We can all run faster and further than we think! Yes, the race is long and sometimes difficult, but we're definitely not alone. Let's run with renewed perseverance; and when we become discouraged, let's listen for the cheers from the great cloud of witnesses!

Amen and amen!

1.4.24 Right Doctrine Matters! (2020-06-14 17:20)

2nd Timothy 4:2-3, "Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;"

When I attended Hyles-Anderson College for eight years (1985-1993), I didn't know what Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) meant when he said the real battle was between the evangelical crowd and fundamentalists. That was only because I had been around fundamentalists my whole saved life at that point. I had never met an evangelical Christian yet (not that I was aware of). As time passed after graduating HAC in 1993, I did meet some evangelicals, but I wouldn't fully grasp what Brother Hyles meant, until I attended the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for one year in 2014, and became familiar with the Bob Jones' camp. Harvest is a cesspool of [1]shameful Bob Jones University's (BJU) alumni:

> “This isn’t over Jack Hyles, this is over fundamentalism! These are evangelicals fighting fundamentalists—that’s what it’s all about; and their effort is to destroy Hyles-Anderson College. Over my dead body they’ll destroy Hyles-Anderson College; and their effort is to destroy the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana; and I’ll go to the finish before I’ll let it happen! That’s what’s going on!” —Dr. Jack Hyles, a truthful quote from the needful sermon, “[2]Weathering The Storm!”

Tragically, Dr. Hyles own son-in-law destroyed the church and college! Just seven years after [3]Pastor Jack Hyles went to Heaven in 2001, his successor in 2008 denied the inspiration of the King James Bible (basically hanging a Bob Jones University sign on the church and college). The [4]First Baptist Church of Hammond has never recovered, and consequently neither has Hyles-Anderson College (which they own and control). They are moving forward like nothing happened, but something horrible, monumental and devastating has happened, and they are in denial about it. My God, they’ve [5]denied the inspiration of the King James Bible!!! It is a very big deal, so big that Dr. Hyles in 1994 called it: “[6]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES!” Pastor Hyles himself warned that Bob Jones University makes light of the verbal inspiration of the Bible:

That is why BJU today supports, sells and bids Godspeed to the multiple different Bible revisions, which horribly contradict each other in hundreds of places. They make light on verbal inspiration. Dr. Hyles further states about the apostasy at Bob Jones University...

> “Oh what does it mean! Brother Hyles, so what—a preacher boy goes down to Bob Jones University, and he sits in Dr. Custer’s class, and Dr. Custer says we have no perfect Bible—what difference does it make? It makes all the difference in the world! And what you’d better do is take this Book, rather than some institution to which you subscribe your loyalty—what you better do is you better stop and realize that if you don’t have a perfect English Bible, we cannot live, because man cannot live alone, but by every Word which proceedeth out of the mouth of the Father. Every Word up there has to get to us!” —Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from my 4:19 hour YouTube video titled: ’[8]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES.’

If BJU took the inspiration of the Holy Bible seriously, they could never sanction multiple Bible revisions, because God only authored one Book! BJU doesn't believe that we have a perfect Holy Bible today. Instead, they promote and sanction many Bible revisions!!! That makes no sense at all. Right doctrine matters! Therefore, having the right Bible matters! Look at what the [9]Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) does to corrupt Mark 1:15, drastically changing what it means to repent for salvation. The ERV preaches another gospel!!! Harvest Baptist Church on Guam uses the ERV! They might as well be Jehovah's Witnesses! Right doctrine is a fact. The word "heresy" literally means "[10]an opinion." Any opinion that contradicts the Word of God is heresy! There is no controversy if you believe the Bible!!!

[11]Pastor Steven Anderson Refutes Dr. James White's lame attack [12]Against The King James Bible (you should really listen to this 10 part series). Pastor Anderson is so right, saying that God's Word wasn't hidden in the earth for 1,800 years! All of these corrupt Bible versions today are translated from Brooke Westcott's and Fenton Hort's Alexandrian Greek manuscripts, which they presented to the world in 1881. They claimed the newly discovered manuscripts from Egypt were older and more reliable than our beloved King James Bible (based on the Textus Receptus). Do you really believe that God's better and more reliable texts were buried in the earth for the past 1,800 years! God promised in Psalms 12:6-7 to preserve His PURE WORDS forever! Not surprisingly, [13]all of the modern perversions corrupt this Bible passage, changing it to refer to God protecting the saints rather than preserving His pure Words! It is wickedness!!! How stupid can people be?

Outside The Gate With Jesus

During my time at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, I felt loved, and they won my heart. I enjoyed the Watchcare meetings (the fellowship, singing, ukuleles, Bible studies, and food we shared). I loved the people in the church and the atmosphere in general. But after several months of seeing umpteen Bible versions, hearing Lordship Salvation taught from the pulpit, and seeing Dr. John MacArthur's study materials passed out to church members, I became burdened to help the church see the truth. I was a fundamentalist in a neo-evangelical church, and I had no idea at the beginning.

Now I was in a dilemma, wanting to help the people that I loved, but they didn't want to be helped! By the time I realized who they were, it was too late and the damage was done. Their ungodly pastors wanted nothing to do with me. Their shameful senior pastor literally said from the pulpit (while looking at me) that:

"Once people are offended and feelings are hurt, it's over!" That is one of the most shameful, carnal and horrible things I have ever heard a pastor say. He might as well have admitted that he was a henpecked wimp! I offended some snobs in your cult? It's too late? I'm done with? What the hell kind of pastor throws people away? If he were a true man of God, he would have taught God's flock (the congregation) to love and forgive one another, as the Bible teaches (Ephesians 4:30-32). I am not the bad guy, they are!!! Hell will freeze over before I ever shut up! The Devil wants us to SHUT UP, but God wants us to SPEAK UP! Ironically, I heard that on Harvest's KHMG 88.1 FM radio station on Guam. When a Christian tells THE TRUTH, and is rebuked, shunned and ostracized for it, something needs to be said! We'll, I'm speaking up for God!

Right Doctrine Matters

I am blown away in my mind over what is going on today at Bob Jones University. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. NEVER in a million years would have honored, supported, or bid Godspeed to an infidel preacher like Pastor John MacArthur. Read what Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said for yourself:

> "Young people, you can't buy salvation. You can't pay for it after you get it. But if you don't already have it, you can have it. Somebody is giving it away around here. His name is Jesus and He wants to give you salvation.

> Before I stop I will use an illustration I have used many times here at the college. Maybe those of you who have heard it have forgotten it.
>
> Do you see this quarter? I want to give it to you. But I am a peculiar man. I just give away quarters one way. I put a quarter in a book, shut the book, and offer you the book. You don't want the book? Well, all right, you can't have my quarter, then. I have a right to put the quarter in any sort of package I wish. You, of course, have the privilege of rejecting the quarter.
> God has something He wants to give you. It is eternal life. He wrapped it in the most wonderful package you ever heard of. He put it in Jesus. People looked at Jesus. He had no form or comeliness; there wasn't anything about Him to be desired. And they didn't realize what was wrapped up in that package. They put Jesus on a cross. They nailed Him there. They killed Him. Then He rose from the dead, and He has been scarred ever since that time. If you could see Jesus today, the glorified, risen Son of God, you would find scars on His brow and scars in His hands. If you could look at His side you would find a wound there. His feet are scarred. But, say, He has wrapped in Himself a wonderful gift. God gives you eternal life when you take Him. Eternal life is wrapped up in Christ." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," pages 222-223; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

Amen and amen! That was so simply, beautifully and eloquently said. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. preached the simplicity that is in Jesus Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Now take a look at the crap [14]Dr. Steve Pettit (BJU president since 2014) is teaching. Take a look at the crap [15]Bob Jones University is teaching. [16]Bob Jones Sr. would blow the college up today, and he said so himself!!! BJU and their alumni are [17]going to Hell, for trusting in a perverted gospel of "turning from sins" and Lordship Salvation to be saved, which is another gospel (Galatians 1:6-9). Bob Jones Sr. rightly and beautifully taught that [18]eternal life is God's gift wrapped in the wonderful package of Jesus!!! That is NOT what BJU's president, faculty, students and graduates are preaching today! They are preaching another gospel!!! God's curse is upon them!

> “Young people, you can’t buy salvation. You can’t pay for it after you get it. But if you don’t already have it, you can have it. Somebody is giving it away around here. His name is Jesus and He wants to give you salvation.” —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., “Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks,” pages 222-223; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

Notice again what Dr. Bob Jones Sr. plainly teaches his students: “Young people, you can’t buy salvation.” Now look at what Pastor John MacArthur teaches (whom Dr. Steve Pettit praises, is [19]buddies with and sinfully bids Godspeed to):

> “Don’t believe anyone who says it’s easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God’s Son His life, and it’ll cost you the same thing...” [emphasis added]
>

Cost you? Do you see the problem? Dr. Bob Jones Sr. understood that [21]God’s gift of eternal life is freely received, but false prophet Dr. John MacArthur says you must pay the price for salvation! [22]MacArthur says it will COST YOU!!! What a lying false prophet!!! Why does BJU’s president and college support this wicked imposter in the pulpit? It is tragically because they agree with him. Bob Jones University preaches another gospel.

I am sad that the church family I once loved and enjoyed being with at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, has totally rejected and turned me away for the past six years since 2014, counting me as their enemy because I told them THE TRUTH. The apostle Paul had the same painful experience (Galatians 4:16). Now more than ever I finally fully understand what Pastor Jack Hyles meant, when he said that this battle is not about Jack Hyles, and it’s not about little ole me, it’s over fundamentalism! These are evangelicals fighting fundamentalists—that’s what it’s all about!

> “Lord God if this school out here [Bob Jones University] ever compromises, send an earthquake and shake these buildings into powder and dust. Don’t ever let it stand here and encumber the earth and curse it by robbing people of faith in the Word of God. Hear us in this prayer and keep us doing all the things we pray in the precious Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen. –Dr. Bob Jones Sr., 'How Shall Ye Believe?'

1.4.25 The Insanity Of Having More Than One Holy Bible (2020-06-15 12:00)

Proverbs 30:5,

"Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. "

Please consider what I am about to ask you, as an illustration of how ridiculous it is to have more than one Holy Bible. What if you bought something, let's say an answering machine, and it came with two instruction booklets in the same language. My answering machine came with a 92-page owner's manual. No kidding! It took my a month to finally figure the thing out! It also came with instructions in several; different languages. But what if there were two different, conflicting instruction manuals in English? That would be insane! If I called the company to complain, what could they even say in their defense?

As another illustration, what if there were two U.S. Constitutions, which conflicted with each other on key points? The fact that two existed would be confusing enough. Granted, there have been several dozen amendments made to the U.S. Constitution over the years, but there is only ONE U.S. Constitution today. The U.S. Constitution was written by men. It is an imperfect document authored by imperfect men, as brilliant a masterpiece and full of commonsense wisdom as it is! It would cause endless confusion if our founding fathers has written two different conflicting U.S. Constitutions to guide our government.

So why is it that we can see the foolishness of having multiple instruction manuals, or two U.S. Constitutions, but we cannot see the folly of having two different Bibles? What if you were lost and asked someone for directions, and they gave you two different conflicting explanations? You'd think they were nuts! So why do we go along with the insanity of more than one Bible versions? I could give you hundreds of illustrations, such as the ones I have already provided for you to consider.

When a nation goes to war against an enemy, the first thing they do is launch air strikes against the enemy's infrastructure. They bomb the roads, fuel depots, airstrips (so planes can't take off or land), supply warehouses and key targets. Likewise, the Devil targets the incorruptible inspired Word of God, publishing hundreds of corrupt decoys to mislead and confuse everyone. Satan targets the churches, infiltrating them with suave false prophets like Dr. John MacArthur. The Bible warns us about ungodly men who make fair speeches, deceiving the simple, who bring in damnable heresies...

Romans 16:17-18,

Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

Notice that by their "

good works

fair speeches

” they deceive the hearts of the simple. By “simple” the Bible means unlearned concerning the truth of the Scriptures. People by nature trust religious leaders. People foolishly assume that just because a man is up being a church pulpit that he must be competent, trustworthy and reliable as a source of truth. Nothing could be further from the truth! The Bible plainly warns that such false prophets deceive the simple, teaching doctrines that are contrary to what the Holy Bible teaches.

Churches today are filled with junk theology. I am amazed how naive and foolish so many churchgoers are, to embrace the same heretical doctrines as taught by Mormons, Roman Catholics, Jehovah’s Witness and Seventh-Day Adventists, all of which turning from sins to be saved, or to remain saved. [1]That is what Bob Jones University now teaches! That is not the [2]free gift of God, which is eternal life. All of this garbage theology has crept into the Bible colleges and churches from the Devil’s Bible revisions!

If you wouldn’t use two different conflicting maps, why have two different Bibles? Please watch the sermon titled: “ [3]ANTICHRIST BIBLE VERSIONS ”

| [4]MP3 by Pastor Steven L. Anderson. It matters which Bible you use. The only people today saying that it doesn’t matter are doctrinally corrupted, preaching the lie of Lordship Salvation, and the

turn from your sins

garbage that sends people to Hell. Eternal life is a free gift from God, that you simply receive by faith in Jesus Christ to have; it doesn’t cost you your sins or the world. Anyone who says that getting saved will cost you something is preaching another Gospel.

> “Be on guard against any tampering with the Word, whether disguised as a search for truth, or a scholarly attempt at apparently hidden meanings; and beware of the confusion created by the senseless rash of new versions, translations, editions, and improvements upon the tried and tested Bible of our fathers and grandfathers.” — “THE TABERNACLE,” page 101

Galatians 1:8-9, " But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

If you'll search online amongst SDA websites for "How To Be Saved," you'll get Lordship Salvation basically. Here's an SDA official website, where they invite the reader to receive the free gift of eternal life, but then add a stipulation that works are necessary to be saved. Notice carefully that the SDA author of the following article speaks of God saving a person in future terms. This is because SDA's believe Christ entered into the heavenly Holy Place in 1844 to begin his work of "Investigative Judgment" (a bizarre heresy exclusive to SDA). No other religious group teaches this bizarre doctrine, which is a big warning flag also.

Here's what SDA's teach concerning salvation...

> "Nor do we have the right to say for sure whom God will save. Given the kinds of people Jesus brushed shoulders with (thieves, the demon-possessed and prostitutes), it's a safe bet that there will be people in heaven that you and I wouldn't have selected to go there. ... God does want us to be good. Determinedly wicked people aren't trusting in Jesus, or they wouldn't do the things they do." — [1]Seventh-day Adventist Church: How To Know You're Saved

The preceding statement is a lie. To say that people who intentionally commit wickedness are not saved is unbiblical. Samson deliberately went with harlots. David deliberately commit adultery with Bath-Sheba and murdered her husband. Jonah deliberately ran from God's will. Ananias and Sapphira deliberately lied and stole from God. Demas forsook Paul in the ministry, loving this present world. Peter deliberately took his clothes off, denied knowing Christ and quit the ministry, et cetera. The Bible is filled with shameful believers who did horrible things as Christians. All Christians sin.

The problem is that when you require a change of life as validation, confirmation or legitimization of one's faith in Christ, you've changed the plan of salvation. How can eternal life truly be a "free gift" (Romans 5:15; 6:23) if your behavior must change as part of being saved? It cannot! On the same website as the previous quote, SDA's teach that salvation can be lost, and that to remain saved, a person must continually choose to "STAY CLOSE TO GOD" ...

> "People can 'fall away' from God through choice, pressure, carelessness or inattention. Though God draws us to Himself and will do everything He can to keep us close to Him, He won't force us to stay. But those who do stay close to God live happier, more confident lives than those who don't.

> [2]Seventh-day Adventist Church: How To Know You're Saved

Notice the heresy in the preceding quote. SDA's teach that those who stay closer to God can live more confident lives than those who don't. Clearly, SDA's do not view salvation as a new birth that cannot be reversed. Rather, their heresy on Investigative Judgment teaches that since 1844, Christ is in the heavenly Holy Place deciding who is "worthy" or not to enter into Heaven. So if you stay close to God throughout your life, you have much better odds of being found worthy than if you don't stay close to God. Ladies and gentleman, this is an entirely satanic false plan of salvation that cannot produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God. John 1:12-13, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God."

> Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?" —Apostle Paul

Biblically, you must be born-again to be saved. Notice that the SDA website titled, “How To Be Saved,” never mentions the Gospel. What is the Gospel? The Bible tells us:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures.”

There you have it—Christ DIED on the cross for our sins, He was BURIED and He RESURRECTED the third day. If you see yourself as a guilty sinner in God’s holy eyes (Romans 3:19), and believe the Gospel (Mark 1:15), you will be immediately and forever saved (Romans 10:13).

Clearly, the Bible teaches something very different than what SDA’s teach. You don’t get to Heaven by receiving God’s free gift and then staying close to God in holy living, increasing your odds that God will save you. That’s the same theological garbage that [3]Billy Graham, [4]John MacArthur, [5]Paul Washer and [6]other heretics are teaching, infiltrating and defiling evangelical churches. The Bible teaches that we are saved by God’s righteousness, not our own (Romans 10:3-4). Philippians 3:9, “And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith.” In theological language, and mentioned in Romans 4:5-6 of the precious King James Bible, it is called [7]IMPUTATION. We are saved by the [8]imputed righteousness of God by faith in Jesus Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:21), because we have no righteousness of our own to offer God (Isaiah 64:6).

Hence, once you are saved, you can NEVER lose your salvation. When you hear someone saying that they “used to be a Christian,” what they are really saying is that they once ascribed to the philosophy of Christianity or joined a Christian organization, but they were never truly BORN-AGAIN!!! Christianity began as a new birth by faith in Christ Jesus. When it went to Greece, Christianity became a philosophy. When it went to Rome, it became an organization. When it spread throughout Europe, it became a culture. And when it came to America, Christianity became a business!

My friend, Seventh-day Adventism may look, smell and taste like Christianity, but it is a worm-filled apple, rotten to the core. The exclusive doctrine of Investigative Judgment, which teaches that Christ entered into the heavenly Holy Place in the year 1844 is bizarre, completely foreign to Biblical Christianity. Of course, as you can imagine, SDA's reject all other religions, claiming that only they are the full remaining faithful. SDA's worship on Saturday, their self-made Sabbath. They're businesses are often open on Sundays, totally disregarding the Lord's Day on Sunday as being part of the world's antichrist system. Baptist pastors are viewed as being antichrists by SDA's. They won't tell you any of this upfront.

As I have briefly shared with you, SDA's have a completely different, far out, bizarre, strange, belief system. The Bible calls this "strange doctrines." Hebrews 13:9, "Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein." Doctrinally, we ought to stick to the fundamentals of the Christian faith. The SDA doctrine of Investigative Judgment is certainly a STRANGE DOCTRINE. There is absolutely no way to reconcile Seventh-day Adventism with Biblical Christianity. They are diametrically opposed to each other. Also, there are strong occult connections between Ellen G. White and Freemasonry, as is true of most mainstream religious cults. SDA is a part of the Devil's New World Order deception. Satan's purpose is to BLIND people, so that they will rest at ease in a false security, and go straight to Hell when they die, when they thought they were going to Heaven. This is why Jesus said in Luke 13:23-34, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able."

Please understand that Seventh-day Adventism is a business, an organized religion, not Biblical Christianity. Satan is a master con-artist, a deceiver, whom the Bible warns appears as an angel of light (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15). Literally, the Devil and his sinister ministers are actors, pretending to be of God, but they are Satanic. We are all in a spiritual war. SDA does its best to appear as a Christian organization, but it is a woeful deception of the Devil.

"I've stood for more sneers and scoffs and insults and had my life threatened from one end of the land to the other by this God-forsaken gang of thugs and cutthroats because I have come out uncompromisingly against them." —Billy Sunday

1.4.27 Does The Greek Bible Teach Eternal Security? (2020-06-18 04:00)

John 10:28-29, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand."

Kindly, I am not a Greek expert. I don't believe that God left the common man at the mercy of Greek and Hebrew scholars. It is not necessary to understand anything about Greek, to clearly see that the Holy Bible teaches salvation by grace through faith alone, and that the new birth is instantaneous. The Greek can definitely add clarity, but I have never needed the Greek to understand the English King James Bible. Some debaters will attempt to silence critics by quoting Greek, but they couldn't even order a taxi or a sandwich if they visited Greece today, because they cannot speak the language. So I wouldn't even try to debate Greek with someone. I know enough to teach some Bible, but not enough to debate with people about it. And 99 % of those who talk like they know what they're talking about, cannot even speak Greek.

I had a Smart Aleck Bob Jones University graduate throw it in my face that he teaches Greek. He couldn't order lunch if he went to Greece! He was debating with me in defense of the Devil's Alexandrian Bible revisions. I told him I don't need to be a Greek expert to know that something is very wrong with a so-called Bible "version" that removes the word "begotten" from John 3:16. The accurate King James Bible says Jesus is the "only begotten Son." The Devil's corrupt Bibles change it to, "His only Son." Well, according to John 1:12 every Christian is a son of God. Romans 8:15 says believers are sons of God. So the modern Bible revisions are LYING! Jesus is not God's only Son, He is God's only biological Son. The modern Bibles attack Jesus' deity, that He is almighty God who came in the flesh. All of the Devil's modern Bibles brutally assault the deity of Jesus, which anyone can see. I don't have to know Greek to see the Devil's hand in the the modern Bible perversions.

As far as eternal security goes, I think it is far more important to study the context of any particular Scripture passage, than to look at one word. Words are important too, don't get me wrong; but I think the New Testament is abundantly clear in dozens of passages about eternal security. Eternal security is NOT a separate doctrine from eternal life. They are one and the same thing. Jesus doesn't give temporary life, or probationary life, He only gives eternal life (John 6:47).

John 10:28, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life ." This Bible verse simply means that every believer is led by the indwelling Holy Spirit of God. Romans

8:14, "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God."

There's this strange idea going around today that says a person can believe, and then not believe anymore and are still saved. I don't believe that. I have never known one Christian who believed and then didn't believe anymore, who was ever really saved at all. I don't like the teaching that mandates that you believe, and you must continue to believe or you won't go to Heaven. That makes salvation a process. That is what [1]Dr. Steve Pettit at Bob Jones, [2]Evangelist Paul Washer, and other heretical Calvinists teach. They are looking at it all wrong.

When I got saved at age 13, it was a done deal. I got saved, period. I have had rough times since in my Christian life, but I never went so low that I denied my Savior. I am 53 now. The Holy Spirit came to live inside my body and soul, at age 13, and He has never left me. The Holy Spirit comforts me, convicts me, chastises me, rebukes me, encourages me and teaches and guides me into all truth (John 16:13). I cannot even imagine living in constant fear, worry and uncertainty, that I have to continue having faith and living above sin, or I'll go to Hell. I fully agree that either a person is forever saved, or they are not saved at all. Once saved always saved is 100 % biblical.

Humans Don’t Have To Be Told To Continue Breathing To Live

We must always keep in mind that Jesus paid our sin debt on the cross with His blood. Salvation is of the Lord. Our part is simply and only to BELIEVE. A true Christian will continue to believe, but it doesn’t have to be required of them, which is confusing and generates uncertainty and fear. That would be like continually telling a human being that they must continue to breath if they want to live. You’d think someone had lost their mind if they went around saying stuff like that!

Strangely enough, I’ve read that dolphins can actually decide to stop breathing if they get depressed. I didn’t know that! But people are not dolphins. Sometimes I wish I was a dolphin, so I could just check out and stop breathing…lol. If escaping life’s burdens were only so easy! By God’s grace I don’t think I would ever hurt myself, but if dying were as easy as to just stop trying, I think a lot more people would call it quits! Thankfully, we don’t have a choice in the matter, breathing is automatic, and so we breath. Likewise, once a person is born anew by the regenerative Holy Spirit of God, they are alive (quickened) by the Spirit (Ephesians 2:1-2). We don’t just stop living when we sin bad enough. A Christian doesn’t have to make an effort to keep breathing spiritually to live. Once we have been born-again, we are as alive spiritually as we are physically from our first earthly birth (John 3:1-7).

The Bible says in 2nd Corinthians 5:17, “Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.” Once the Holy Spirit comes to indwell (live inside) a person, all things become new. A whole new world of spiritual awakening is opened to their mind. Now they can understand spiritual things (1st Corinthians 2:14-16). The Holy Spirit will now begin to convict them about the sins in their life. They will still sin, sometimes on purpose, even choosing to hang on to pet sins perhaps, but the Holy Spirit will be grieved and not give peace to that saint. But as far as character and behavior are concerned, getting saved doesn’t change a person one bit. The change is that we have been born again (spiritually), and are as helpful, naive and in need of growth as a newborn human baby (1st Peter 2:2).

A believer who is living in unrepentant sin is miserable, and dead (carnally minded) the Bible says. 1st Timothy 5:6, "But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth." Colossians 3:1-3 says that a believer is dead to self, and alive in Christ, who is our new life.

Once a person is saved, their identity is now permanently hidden with Christ in God. God the Father sees Christ's righteousness when He looks at us, and not our sins (1st John 2:1). Our CONDITION with God is determined by the choices we make concerning sin and doing what is right, but our POSITION in Christ as God's redeemed child is forever settled.

1.4.28 Retarded ERV Prophesies: 'Young Woman Is Pregnant' (2020-06-18 11:30)

Isaiah 7:14, "Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel."

The most popular Bible version is the satanic New International Version (NIV). But even worse is the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV). At least the corrupt NIV retains the word "virgin" in Isaiah 7:14, but the ERV completely removes this important theological word . . .

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Isaiah 7:14, "Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel." [emphasis added]

> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — Isaiah 7:14, "But the Lord will still show you this sign: The young woman is pregnant and will give birth to a son. She will name him Immanuel." [emphasis added]

WICKEDNESS!!! A young woman is pregnant? That says nothing! The ERV removes Christ's virgin birth. My friend, BILLIONS of young women have been pregnant since 700 B.C. when this prophecy by Isaiah was proclaimed and written down. How ridiculous and retarded is the ERV to say that, "The young woman is pregnant." Seriously? Is that a prophecy? Is the Bible really prophesying that the sign of the Lord will be a pregnant woman? The "Easy-To-Read" Bible version (ERV) is of the Devil, making no sense at all. According to Isaiah 7:14 in the "Easy-To-Read" Bible version (ERV), the promised sign from God proving that His Word is true, will be a pregnant woman. What a sad joke! Ah, but the faithful King James Bible (KJB) says the sign from the Lord will be that, "A VIRGIN SHALL CONCEIVE." Mary was a virgin when she gave birth to Jesus.

Did you know that the ungodly Jewish so-called "holy book," THE TALMUD, teaches that a Roman soldier brutally raped Mary, and that's how Jesus was born? Clearly, The Talmud, a satanic piece of filth, vehemently denies the virgin birth of Jesus Christ. When foolish Christians [1]support modern-day apostate Israel, which was [2]formed by the Illuminati, you are supporting The Talmud upon which their Judaism (a false religion) is based. Judaism adamantly rejects Jesus as the Messiah. According to 1st John 2:22-23, that makes followers of Judaism "liars" and "antichrists." Today's Judaism is not the Judaism (the Jew's religion) of the Old Testament. Modern Judaism is a satanic religion, rooted in the [3]occult teachings of Kabbalah. This is also true of Mormonism and Freemasonry, which are all connected. No Christian ought to praise, support nor admire present-day satanic Israel—[4]a cruel Illuminati deception! Mormonism, Judaism, Freemasonry and Kabbalah are all ENEMIES of the cross of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Seven hundred years after Isaiah's prophecy (which God spoke through him), Jesus Christ was born OF A VIRGIN (Matthew 1:23). The Biblical prophecy was fulfilled when Christ was born. Mary never had carnal knowledge (sex) with any man, nor with God, as sex-perverted Mormons claim. Mormonism is a sex-pervert's paradise, made possible by the exploitation of religion, and sadly, the government allows them to continue in their despicable deathstyle. Entire towns in the remote western parts of the United States are owned by Mormons, including local authorities. Mormonism is creepy to say the least, baptizing for their dead.

By the way, even the satanic [5]Mormon sex-cult reads from the King James Bible, which puts many independent Baptist pastors to utter shame, who use the modern counterfeit Bible versions. Furthermore, it is tragic that Amish, Mormon and Seventh-day Adventist women wear dresses, while Baptist females wear pants, tight skirts and sexy attire. Do we really desire a heart for God? What is wrong with our Baptist churches today? I'll tell you, pastors aren't men of God anymore, and DON'T PREACH! I'm so disgusted with religious radio, who wouldn't know real preaching if they heard it. I'm so sick of churches who are influenced by religious radio, so they DON'T PREACH anymore. We've got a bunch of milquetoast wimps behind pulpits today. Talk about boring! Nobody lets 'er rip anymore. That's too uncouth, rugged and unrefined for today's cultured ministers. To Hell with culture!!!

Today's pastors are so far from God that it is disheartening. America is going to Hell, and our apostate churches are leading the way! Most pastors are shallow, because they graduate from shallow Bible colleges, and listen to shallow preaching, and use shallow Bible versions. I wouldn't give you a dime for the whole mess of them. Praise God for godly preachers like Brother Lester Roloff, who saw that the Devil was poisoning our Bibles decades ago. [6]Living Bible Exposed (MP3, Bro. Roloff; 'Living Bible' says in John 9:34, "[7]You illegitimate bastard")! That's not God's Word. Beware of Satan creeping into the churches with corrupt Bible versions!

Isaiah 7:14 in the King James Bible makes perfect sense; but Isaiah 7:14 in the "Easy-To-Read" Bible version (ERV) is retarded, making no sense at all. Why would God make a prophetic promise that a young woman shall be pregnant? Billions of women have been pregnant!!! The King James Bible makes perfect sense, teaching that a virgin will conceive, which is exactly what happened when Christ was born. Do you see what the Devil is doing? Satan is [8]attacking the deity of Jesus Christ, removing the virgin birth from the new counterfeit Bible versions. All of the modern Bible versions attack Christ's deity, [9]remove the Godhead and [10]diminish the preeminence that is in Jesus Christ.

Only the King James Bible truly honors the Lord Jesus Christ, retaining the word "Godhead" in Acts 17:29, Romans 1:20 and Colossians 2:9. Only the King James Bible retains the all-important word "begotten" in John 3:16. There are many variations of Westcott and Hort's perverse Greek, but in one way or another, all of the new Bibles attack and dethrone Christ. The satanic 1984 New International Version (NIV) even changed Christ from being the Chief Cornerstone to the Illuminati "[11]Capstone." Even the most unlearned of honest people can see here that the Devil is changing the Word of God into a lie, [12]in preparation for the coming man of sin, the Antichrist!

Lucifer is behind ALL of the modern Bible versions! What few believers don't understand is that there are different Hebrew and Greek manuscripts. The King James Bible (it's not a "version") was translated from the Textus Receptus (or Majority Text); whereas [13]ALL the new PERverted versions were translated from [14]Westcott and Hort's Alexandrian, Egypt Greek manuscripts (which are very corrupt). [15]Please research the occult roots of all the modern Bible versions. There's [16]only one Bible that we can trust, and that's the precious KING JAMES BIBLE!!!

Exodus 20:13, “

Thou shalt not kill.

I was listening to Infowars today, and heard an honorable black man challenge a group of black people about abortion. [1]I made this MP3 clip for you to hear. I love what this man says. If black lives really matter, and they do, then why don’t we care about black babies being murdered in the womb? Please visit [2]BlackGenocide.org, an organization created by black Christians to stop the mass-murdering of black babies in the womb. In some places in New York, the abortion rate is higher than the birth rate for African American babies! Why should God bless such a wicked nation that murders babies? Exodus 20:13, “

If you believe the Holy Bible, the following Bible verse proves that life in the womb is a human being. Jeremiah 1:5, “Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.” Only a fool would dare teach that a fetus is not considered a human being until actually born. Our U.S. Supreme Court sinfully flaunts themselves against a holy God, taking life into their own hands, placing themselves in the place of God. Before Jeremiah was even conceived in his mother’s womb, God knew him and ordained that he be a prophet among the nations. Exodus 20:13, “

Abortion is first-degree premeditated murder! Everyone who has ever undergone an abortion, performed an abortion, voted to legalize abortion, encouraged an abortion, or supported abortion in any way–will be judged by God for the crime of murder, attempted murder, accomplice to murder, conspiracy to do harm, and a bunch of other crimes. Americans have cruelly murdered more human beings by abortion, since Roe vs. Wade in 1973, than all of the war casualties combined. Please see: [3]Americans War Dead Versus Number Of Abortions! Exodus 20:13, “

Thou shalt not kill.

During an abortion, the back of the skull is cracked open with a medical instrument of torture, and then a vacuum [4]29 times more powerful than a household vacuum-cleaner is used to suck the baby’s brains out while it is still alive. I’m not exaggerating, go look for yourself online. Exodus 20:13, “

Thou shalt not kill.

1st Timothy 3:15, “ But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. ”

1.4.30 Set Your Affection On Things Above (2020-06-20 02:12)

Colossians 3:1-3, "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God."

The world is in a mess today because the world is full of unsaved people who have never been regenerated by the Holy Spirit of God. They have never been born anew into God's family. They are still hellbound in their sins without Jesus Christ. They need to GET SAVED!

Sin has turned our world into a giant insane asylum. We have seen massive violent riots nationwide in June of 2020, a consequence of the cruel torture and murder of George Floyd on May 25, 2020. ...

> "Insanity because we're in sin!"
> —Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982), a quote from the MP3 sermon: "[1]Steps In The Degeneration Of Our Nation"

But there's another big problem in our world, and that is born-again believers who have their affection (heart and mind) set on the temporal things of this earthly life. Preachers don't preach anymore! The average Baptist pastor doesn't preach on Hell once every two years.

I am [2]discouraged with professed Christians today , who are indifferent toward the Bible-revision nightmare in America. Literally, the Devil has published [3]hundreds of English Bible revisions , resulting in much confusion and divisiveness in the churches.

Sadly, this includes independent Baptist churches, which used to be citadels of Christendom, but today have in many cases become religious cults, preaching the heresy of Lordship Salvation. Even worse, the modern Bible revisions pervert the Gospel, which Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, and hundreds of other apostate religious institutions sanction. What is wrong with professed Christians today? God only authored ONE BOOK, not two, certainly not hundreds.

The problem is that professed Christians merely follow what their religious leaders (often incompetent) teach them, instead of to "SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES

” as the Lord commanded in John 5:39a. Psalms 119:104, “

Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.

I hate the Devil’s corrupt modern Bible revisions. I hate the Devil’s heresy of Lordship Salvation. I hate the Devil’s false religions. The reason why I hate these evils is because I

“SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES.

” The Bereans didn’t just believe what the apostle Paul preached to them, they went to

to verify it, and Paul commended them for it. Acts 17:11, “ These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.”

Set Your Affection On Things Above!

Kindly, I don’t write blog articles just to write blog articles, I want to share THE TRUTH with you in my blog writings, by God’s grace, prayerfully desiring for God to change your thinking and life. My heart’s desire is to win lost sinners to the Lord, and to lead saved sinners to faithfully serve Christ as a soulwinning Christian. Something is very wrong with a professed Christian—a Bible college graduate, who works on staff at a church they faithfully attend, who professes to love the Lord—but they are indifferent toward THE TRUTH. What is it about us as human beings that makes us so stubborn to recognize and admit when we are wrong? I have learned that facts don’t change people’s minds, love does! Jude 1:22, “ And of some have compassion, making a difference:”

Dear reader, is your affection set on things above? If it is, you should care about what the Holy Bible says more than what your religious leader says.

Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.

” If you are struggling with sin, welcome to the human race! The apostle Paul admitted his ongoing struggle with the flesh in Romans 7:14-25. I receive many emails from people, confiding in me that they are struggling with sin in their daily life. I always encourage them to start attending a Bible-preaching church (if not already), and to get into the Word of God (King James Bible), and listen to lots of fundamental Bible-preaching. Psalms 119:9, “Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word.” I love that Scripture!!!

My friend, if you’ll give God your heart, He’ll comb the kinks out of your head!!!

> “The Bible will always be full of things you cannot understand, as long as you will not live according to those you can understand.” —Evangelist Billy Sunday

The Bible doesn’t say to merely HEAR the Word of God, but to HEED the Word of God. You can hear the Bible all day long, but it will not benefit you until you TAKE HEED and obey what God has commanded. Hebrews 4:2b says the Hebrews in the Wilderness heard the Gospel preached unto them for 40 years, “but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.” James 1:22-23, “But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: ”

I don’t care how messed up your life may seem, God will put it back together, if you’ll simply do things HIS WAY instead of yours...

> ’[4]Either Let Me Do It God, Or Do It My Way!’ (a beautiful MP3 by Dr. Jack Hyles)

Search the Scriptures and memorize some helpful passages. Psalms 119:11, “Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.” When temptations arise, the Scripture that you memorize will help you. If you have difficulty memorizing Scripture, then listen to the Bible every day. And it is VERY IMPORTANT THAT YOU ONLY USE THE KING JAMES BIBLE! One of the reasons why the Devil keeps publishing new Bible revisions (there are literally hundreds today in the English language) is to discourage people from memorizing the Bible. If Satan can get you to doubt the inspired Word of God, he has destroyed your confidence in God. Please use ONLY the inspired and trustworthy King James Bible!!! All of the modern Bible revisions have been tampered with and corrupted.

> “The Word of God is our only hope—that’s our only hope! This has been the generation of translations and abominations, and perversions, of the Word of God! It’s been a long time; now when the Revised Standard Version came out, I stood against it before I knew what it was, because the wrong crowd heard of that, and the wrong crowd received it, and I knew it got too much publicity to be right! And I knew if the newspapers publicized something, it had to be wrong! And so I knew that the American people and a lot of American preachers—they welcomed it into their house before they knew it was a rattlesnake!” —Brother Lester Roloff, a needful quote from the MP3 sermon titled, “’[5]THE LIVING BIBLE’ EXPOSED!”

We all need Bible preaching to help us THINK RIGHT! Pray and ask God to create a proper attitude and a clean heart in you as the psalmist David did. Psalms 51:10, “Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.” We used to sing a popular song on the church bus. The lyrics went... “

Read your Bible, pray every day, and you’ll grow, grow, grow; neglect your Bible, forget to pray, and you’ll shrink, shrink, shrink!

It is really that simple. Which ever dog you feed will become the stronger dog! We are what we think! Jesus said in Matthew 12:34b, “out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.” So we have to guard our thought life continually. That is what the Bible means in Proverbs 4:23, “Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.”

> “I believe any man in this world, can love any other man in this world, if he thinks right! The reason you hate is because you think hate. The reason you love is because you think love.” —Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the excellent MP3 sermon, “[6]What The Law Could Not Do” (July 5, 1987 - First Baptist Church of Hammond, PM service).

Churchianity Versus Christianity

Jesus is already in Heaven waiting for us. In John 14:1-3 He promised to go prepare a place for us in Heaven. Jesus promised in John 16:22 that no man will ever take away our joy again. What a glorious day that will be! We all have been hurt by people. I have been deeply hurt by other professed Christians, [7]especially at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (HBC), who have rejected and ostracized me from coming back to church since 2015. Psalms 109:4, " For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer."

The fastest way to lose friends and make enemies is to simply tell THE TRUTH. The apostle Paul knew that same pain of rejection well. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? " Their minds and hearts at Harvest (i.e., the Bob Jones University camp on Guam) are set upon the temporal things of this life (i.e., making money, paying the bills, running their religious school, and promoting Christianity as a business model).

Sadly, [8]truth is not important to the folks at Harvest, otherwise they would embrace a truth-teller like my in love and compassion, as I have begged from them since 2015. I am torn between my love for God and truth, and desperate need for a local church family. No man should have to choose between the two, but the reason why is because HBC on Guam don't have their affection set on things above. I sincerely love them at Harvest with God's unconditional love, but they don't love Jesus, for if they did THE TRUTH would be of paramount importance to them. Jesus is precious!!!

1.4.31 The Rapture is Not a New Doctrine (2020-06-20 03:30)

"But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren ... we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words." —1st Thessalonians 4:13, 17-18

The Rapture is not a new teaching. I have heard numerous people, from pastors to talk show hosts, claim that the Rapture is a “ new

teaching that didn’t exist until just a couple hundred years ago. Many websites teach this heresy as well.

May I say, confidently, that the Bible teaches a Rapture of the saints. I believe that every word (not just the thoughts of God) of the King James Bible is 100 % preserved and inspired by God. Theologically we call this “ verbal inspiration.

Also, the theological term

plenary inspiration,

which simply means that the entirety of the Holy Bible (all 66 books) is inspired.

We clearly read in 1st Thessalonians 4:17 that all believers shall be “caught up” together into the clouds, to meet Jesus in the air. This is the Rapture of the Church (i.e., the Body of Christ) which may take place at any time. 1st Corinthians 15:51-52, “Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.” This is the Rapture!

The Bible does teach the doctrine of the Rapture. It is NOT a “new” teaching as some pseudo-scholars claim. Before the Holy Bible was completed in 96 A.D., the teaching of the Rapture was already taught in the Bible (1st Thessalonians 4:17 and 1st Corinthians 15:51-58). The Biblical doctrine of the Rapture has been with us for the past 2,000 years. This was “ a mystery

” which the apostle Paul revealed to Christendom.

The body of every born-again believer will suddenly change, and be “caught up” into the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Carefully notice that the Bible says we will “meet the Lord.” Amen!

What a day that will be, when my Jesus I shall see;

When I look upon His face, the One Who saved me by His grace;

When He takes me by the hand, and leads me through the Promised Land;

What a day, glorious day, that will be!

[1]Listen to the Heritage Singers Sing This Song

I humbly look forward to meeting my precious Savior face to face, the One who understands and loves us unconditionally for who He is. John 16:22, "And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you." Amen and amen.

One can only conclude a Pretribulation Rapture if you take the Bible literally at face value. "Pretribulation" means that the Rapture happens BEFORE the 7-year Tribulation period. This is Biblical.

One of the strongest proofs of a Pretribulation Rapture is the event of the ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION spoken of by Daniel the prophet in Daniel 9:27 and then again by the Jesus Himself in Matthew 25:15. This is the event when the Antichrist will claim to be god while standing in the temple in Jerusalem, and will demand that the world worship him or be killed. The former peace agreement with Israel will be broken. The Antichrist will then try to murder all the Jews (the " spoken of). From this blasphemous horrifying event, it will be exactly 3 1/2 years until the Lord's SECOND COMING (2nd Thessalonians 2:4).

Since the Bible plainly states that no man knows WHEN the Rapture will occur (Matthew 25:13), we must conclude that it will be a Pretribulation Rapture, because we DO KNOW it will be exactly 3 1/2 years between the ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION and the SECOND COMING. The Bible even gives the exact number of days (Daniel 12:11-12).

I believe that the Bible is God's inerrant, preserved and inspired Words. I believe that the Words of the King James Bible are inspired Word for Word. God's Word is inspired into whatever language it is translated into. God doesn't inspire a language, He inspires His Words. We have God's preserved and inspired Words today in the King James Bible.

The Bible teaches a Rapture of the saints, and it could occur at any moment. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

Two Pretribulational Teachings in the Medieval Church

1. Ephraem of Nisibis (306-373)

Ephraem wrote an important sermon "On the Last Times, the Antichrist and the End of the World." As a prominent theologian and prolific writer of the Eastern Byzantine church, he advocated for a Pretribulational rapture position for the church. Dr. Grant Jeffrey has noted that he had a profound love for the Scriptures. Below is a selected quote that concerns the escape of God's people from the horrible tribulation. He stated:

> "We ought to understand thoroughly therefore, my brothers, what is imminent or overhanging. Already there have been hunger and plagues, violent movements of nations and signs, which have been predicted by the Lord, they have already been fulfilled, and there is not other which remains, except the advent of the wicked one in the completion of the Roman kingdom. Why therefore are we occupied with worldly business, and why is our mind held fixed on the lusts of the world or the anxieties of the ages? Why therefore do we not reject every care of earthly actions and prepare ourselves for the meeting of the Lord Christ, so that He may draw us from the confusion, which overwhelms the world? Believe you me, dearest brothers, because the coming of the Lord is nigh, believe you me, because the end of the world is at hand, believe me, because it it the very last time. Or do you not believe unless you see it with your eyes? See to it that this sentence be not > fulfilled among you of the prophet who declares: “Woe to those who desire to see the Day of the Lord!” Because all saints and the Elect of the Lord are gathered together before the tribulation which is to about to come and are taken to the Lord, in order that they may not see at any time the confusion which overwhelms the world because of our sins. And so brothers, most dear to me, it is the eleventh hour, and the end of this world comes to the harvest, and angels, armed and prepared, hold sickles in their earth exists with blind infidelity, arriving at its downfall early. Commotions are brought forth, wars of diverse peoples and battles and invasions of the barbarians threaten, and our regions shall be desolated, and we neither become very much afraid of the report nor of the appearance, in order that we may at least do penance; because they hurl fear at us, and we do not wish to be changed although we at least stand in need of penance for our actions!”

Notice that there is a clear teaching on the rapture of the saints before the terrible tribulation period. This theologian admonishes the people not to desire to see the Day of the Lord? Why? Because in his mind to see the day of the Lord means a person is not a believer. The believers will be snatched away and taken to the Lord before this time period begins. Look closely at what he says again:

“See to it that this sentence be not fulfilled among you of the prophet who declares: "Woe to those who desire to see the Day of the Lord!" Because all saints and the Elect of the Lord are gathered together before the tribulation which is to about to come and are taken to the Lord, in order that they may not see at any time the confusion which overwhelms the world because of our sins.”

Scholars Dr. Ice and James Stitzinger provide some other insights as to what this theologian taught concerning the end times. In many respects this theologian taught many truths that are common among the Dispensational system of interpretation today. They note that Ephraem > “develops an elaborate biblical eschatology, including a distinction between the rapture and the second coming of Christ. It describes the imminent rapture, followed by a three-and-half-year-long Great Tribulation under the rule of Antichrist, followed by the coming of Christ.

> “Again, [Dolcino believed and preached and taught] that within those three years Dolcino himself and his followers will preach the coming of the Antichrist. And that the Antichrist was coming into this world within the bounds of the said three and a half years; and after he had come, then he [Dolcino] and his followers would be transferred into Paradise, in which are Enoch and Elijah. And in this way they will be preserved unharmed from the persecution of Antichrist. And that then Enoch and Elijah themselves would descend on the earth for the purpose of preaching [against] Antichrist. Then they would be killed by him or by his servants, and thus Antichrist would reign for a long time. But when the Antichrist is dead, Dolcino himself, who then would be the holy pope, and his preserved followers, will descend on the earth, and will preach the right faith of Christ to all, and will convert those who will be living then to the true faith of Jesus Christ"

Teachers and Theologians after the Protestant Reformation Who Believed in a

PreTrib Rapture

At the time of the Protestant Reformation a major shift in how one interpreted the Bible caused the church to adjust in her views on the end times. Predominately under the Roman Catholic Church the Bible was interpreted allegorically. Scripture dealing with end times, prophetic texts, for the most part suffered from the hands of those who would not take the text literally. However, as the Reformation grew and as people began to return to a literal interpretation of the Bible the more people shifted to see that Christ was going to come back to earth to rule and reign. Many of the Puritans and Pilgrims, the 2nd generation of the Reformation movement, adopted the idea that not only was Christ going to reign on the earth but he would also translate his church saints before the awful time of his outpouring of wrath. Several of these scholars in some form or another held to a Pretribulational rapture position:

1. Joseph Mede (1627): Clavis Apocalyptica

Some believe that he in this work made a distinction between the rapture of the saints in contrast to the second of Christ to earth.

2. Increase Mather (1639-1723)

Increase Mather was a pastor, scholar, and was the first President of Harvard College. Paul Boyer has noted that this Puritan scholar proved "that the saints would be caught up into the air beforehand, thereby escaping the final conflagration." This teaching from Mather was an early formulation of the rapture doctrine it seems.

3. Peter Jurieu (1687)

Peter Jurie in his book “Approaching Deliverance of the Church” (1687) taught that Christ would come in the air to rapture the saints and return to heaven before the battle of Armageddon. He spoke of a secret Rapture prior to His coming in glory and judgment at Armageddon.

4. John Gill (1748)

Dr. John Gill was one of the most brilliant scholars of his day. This Calvinist Baptist theologian wrote a full commentary set on the Bible in 1748. In this commentary he made a statement in his notes on 1 Thessalonians 4 that supported a time difference between the rapture of the saints and the coming of Christ to earth. He said:

...here Christ will stop and will be visible to all, and as easily discerned by all, good and bad, as the body of the sun at noon-day; as yet He will not descend on earth, because it is not fit to receive Him; but when that and its works are burnt up, and it is purged and purified by fire, and become a new earth, He'll descend upon it, and dwell with his saints in it: and this suggests another reason why He'll stay in the air, and His saints shall meet Him there, and whom He'll take up with Him into the third heaven, till the general conflagration and burning of the world is over, and to preserve them from it.

5. Morgan Edwards (1742-1744) the Founder of Brown University

Edwards was a prominent Baptist Leader in his day. When he came to America he was recommended to a pastoral role by the famous John Gill. He founded the first Baptist College in the colonies. This college later became known as Brown University, a well known Ivy League University of our times. Edwards taught that Christ would return for his church saints 3.5 years before he returned to establish the Kingdom of Christ on earth, the 1000 year reign of Christ. He specifically said:

"The distance between the first and second resurrection will be somewhat more than a thousand years. I say, somewhat more, because the dead saints will be raised, and the living changed at Christ's 'appearing in the air' (1 Thessalonians 4:17); and this will be about three years and a half before the millennium, as we shall see hereafter: but will he and they abide in the air all that time? No: they will ascend to paradise, or to some one of those many 'mansions in the Father's house' (John 14:2)."

Summary: Orthodox Believers of History Have Believed in a Pre-tribulational View

As stated earlier in this link, the timing of the rapture debate should not be classed as an "A" level truth. The fact of Christ's coming is a larger issue. Then next in the scale would be if Christ will rule on the earth as King over all the earth. Those two issues are higher on the scale than the exact time of his rapture of the church age saints. To divide a fellowship or to break fellowship with a body over this one doctrine shows a sign of immaturity.

However, Christians must recognize that those who paint Pretribulationists as fanatics, fringe movement Christians, or as heretics who have embraced some strange and novel idea never heard of until the 1800's have done a disfavor to the entire body of Christ. Whatever position one holds to in this area, everyone should at the least admit good, sound, and orthodox believers have taught this view before the 1800's time period. And many today continue to see this as a valid position to hold from the Scriptures when properly interpreted in a plain, consistent, and normal manner with the words given their ordinary usage in historical context.

SOURCE: [2]The History of the PreTrib Rapture

One of the biggest critics of the Pretribulation Rapture doctrine is Alex Jones from the Infowars.com website. I found this video by a Christian gentleman who does a good job [3]exposing Alex Jones' really bad theology. At the beginning of the video you'll hear Alex mocking the doctrine of the Rapture, comparing it to the popular science fiction television and Hollywood movie series, Star Trek... "Beam me up Scotty!" (a popular line in the series). May I say, whether you believe in the timing of a PreTrib, PreWrath or PostTrib Rapture—the saints will still be "CAUGHT UP" as plainly taught in the Holy Bible. 1st Thessalonians 4:17-18, "Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words."

Alex Jones is mocking the Rapture, period. It is awful and wrongful when anyone expresses disdain for the Rapture doctrine, because it is Biblical. I firmly believe in a PreTrib Rapture, but even if you think the timing will happen at a later time, you should still believe that the saints will be “caught up” out of the physical world to meet the Lord in the air. So be careful about joining the mockers of our generation who compare the coming Rapture to a Star Trek science fiction movie. It appears that Alex Jones doesn’t believe in any type of Rapture at all. If he does, then he shouldn’t mock it as being “beamed up.” Here is an article that I recently wrote titled, ’[4]Logic Proves A PreTribulation Rapture.’

1.4.32 Search The Scriptures, Not Men's Minds (2020-06-20 23:00)

John 5:39, "

Search the scriptures;* for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

I love helping people for Christ. One of the things that I do in my ministry, is to answer Bible questions from web visitors. I have a servant's heart and love helping! I have quite a few web visitors who suffer from Obsessive Compulsive Disorder (OCD) with regard to assurance of salvation, unable to settle the matter. I've noticed that they all have a bad habit of quoting preachers! One man wrote me and asked a question about the Trinity. He wanted to know if Jesus is the second person of the Trinity. I told him that I don't like that terminology, because it is not taught in the Bible. Jesus is not "second," nor the Holy Spirit the third" member of the Godhead (i.e., Trinity). They are all equal, one for all and all for one! There is one God, who exists in three separate unique, individual persons of God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit (Matthew 29:19-20; Colossians 2, 9).

When I answered his question, he started worrying about his salvation again, since he didn't know this truth when he thinks he got saved. I wrote back and encouraged him to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES, instead of basing his assurance of salvation on every word that comes out of my mouth. He likes to says, "You said this" and "You said that," micro-analyzing every word I send him, driving himself crazy with fear, uncertainty and worry. I gave him a couple dozen Scripture passages, which I suggested he memorize or at least become familiar with. Those passages are Romans 3:23; 4:5-6; 5:12; 6:23; 10:3-4, 13; Philippians 3:9; Titus 3:5; 1st Thessalonians 4:14; Acts 4:12; 10:43; 13:39; John 3:16; 5:40; 6:28-29, 40, 47; 10:1, 9; 11:25 and Ephesians 2:8-9.

Those passages all relate to salvation! if you are struggling with the assurance of your salvation, you desperately need to flood your mind with the inspired Word of God. The worst thing you can do is keep asking every preacher you can find how to get to Heaven, because they will have you all turned around. Only the King James Bible is holy, perfect, infallible, innerant, preserved and inspired by God!!! I encourage you to base your assurance of salvation solely upon the inspired Word of God. Remember, eternal security is NOT a separate doctrine from eternal life, they are one and the same teaching!!!

Paul bragged on the Bereans, because unlike the Thessalonicans, they SEARCHED THE SCRIPTURES to verify what he was teaching them. Acts 17:11, " These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so." I want that for YOU too dear reader. Don't you dare believe what I say without verifying it with the Holy Bible. That is why I always provide Scripture references, so you can go verify what I say. I always try to cite my articles, quotes and teachings, so you can go check it out for yourself. We need a revival in our churches today of SEARCHING THE SCRIPTURES!!!

In dealing with people who struggle to find the assurance that they are saved, in every case they've been searching men's minds (books, tracts, videos, sermons, devotionals, magazines, et cetera) for answers, instead of basing their faith solely upon the inspired Word of God in the King James Bible!!! I am glad that people are reading my blogs. Praise the Lord! But always make sure to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES to verify everything I say. Calvinism is not an acceptable alternative to Arminianism, it is Satanic heresy! I reject BOTH the teachings of Jacob Arminius (1560-1609) and John Calvin (1509-1564), both men had bugs in their theology!!! I am going to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!!!

Search The Scriptures To Escape The Lies Of Dr. Steve Pettit

I was sickened the other day, when I learned about [1]a disturbing chapel sermon at Bob Jones University (BJU) spoken in 2015 by Dr. Steve Pettit . In the chapel talk, Dr. Petite (the new president of BJU since 2014) indoctrinates over 2,600 students to believe that faith in Jesus Christ is NOT enough to be saved.

Dr. Steve Pettit heretically says:

> “You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There’s ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don’t finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!” [emphasis added]
> —Dr. Steve Pettit, ’The Daily Platform’ (“[2]What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - 11:34 time in audio)

When Dr. Pettit talks about “qualifying for the award,” he is speaking about going to Heaven. That makes him an accursed false prophet (Galatians 1:6-9)!!! According to Steve Pettit, you MUST persevere to run “The Race” (Hebrews 12:1), the “award” of which, he says, is “Heaven itself”! ...

> “We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what’s the prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don’t believe its referring to crowns in Heaven. I think it is referring to Heaven itself**.”
> —Dr. Steve Pettit, ’The Daily Platform’ (“[3]What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - 22
>
> :57 time in audio

That is damnable heresy!!!

Hebrews 12:1, “ Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,” Folks, this Bible passage has absolutely nothing to do with receiving the free gift of Eternal Life, through faith alone in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9). 1st Corinthians 9:24-25 makes is clear that the

for faithfully running ’The Race’ is an

incorruptible crown,

” and not Heaven itself! The only way those poor BJU students will rise above and escape the damnable heresies of Steve Pettit is if they SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!!!

1.4.33 The Devil's Bible Revisions Make Salvation Hard (2020-06-22 05:30)

Matthew 7:13-14, 'Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.'

I cannot warn everyone enough to stay away from the Devil's modern Bible revisions. Professed Christians are in denial in the churches today. They might as well embrace deadly ferocious bears just before hibernating season, when bears are most dangerous and likely to eat humans! I mean, if you use the modern Bible revisions, you might as well stick your finger into an electrical outlet while standing in a bathtub filled with water! These Bibles today are dangerous to your soul!

As an example: Let's compare a popular passage of Scripture from the book of Matthew:

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Matthew 7:13-14, 'Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.'

> ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - Matthew 7:13-14, 'Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few.'

You don't have to be an English professor to know, that the words "narrow" and "hard" have two very different meanings! We've got a bunch of ignoramus preachers and Bible professors running around in America, who couldn't discern THE TRUTH if their lives dependent upon it! They should all be fired and run out of town as fraudsters!!!

What saith the Scripture? 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him." There you have it—salvation is simple! There is nothing "HARD" about getting saved! What saith the Scripture? Matthew 11:28-30, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." Receiving God's gracious gift of eternal life is free, simple, easy and light!!!

Why did the Lord call the way which leadeth unto life "NARROW"? That is simply because it is so simple to be saved, that most people miss it! Luke 13:23-24, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." Why is that? Why will MANY seek to enter into Heaven, but only a few shall be able?

Let's see what Jesus said in Matthew 7:21-23, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, [There's your cult of Lordship Salvation right there!] shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." This is an amazing passage of Scripture! These obviously were religious people, because they "prophesied" [preached] and did "many wonderful works" IN JESUS NAME! They were committed to Christ! They were followers of Jesus! They did everything in the Lord's precious name! They even called Him "Lord" repeatedly! Yet, Jesus called them "workers of iniquity" and said these horrifying words to them: "I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." Can you imagine?

The reason why "MANY" people shall seek to enter into Heaven, is simply because most religious people falsely think they are going to Heaven! Over one billion Roman Catholics think they are going to Heaven someday, but they are woefully mistaken! Keeping the Seven Sacraments never saved anybody! Partial faith in Jesus Christ plus works is a counterfeit plan of salvation, which does not produce the required second birth. Jesus warned in John 3:7, "Ye must be born again." The Catholic Pope will split Hell wide open the second he breathes his last breath, because he is already spiritually dead! No Mormons will ever enter into Heaven, because they trust in water baptism and have another Jesus.

Likewise, no Jehovah's Witness will enter into Heaven, because they add works and also have another Jesus! Members of the demonic Church of Christ will not be allowed into Heaven, because they foolishly trust in turning from sins, water baptism and public confession to be saved. When we look at the thousands of different religions today, realizing that salvation is not found in any of them, it becomes clear why Jesus said "MANY" shall seek to enter into Heaven, but only "FEW" shall be able. Will you be among the few dear friend?

Jesus plainly tells us WHY these religious devotees in Matthew 7:21-23 went to Hell. He said in Matthew 7:21 that they failed to do "THE WILL OF MY FATHER WHICH IS IN HEAVEN"! John 6:40 tells us the Father's will concerning salvation, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." You get saved by BELIEVING on the Lord Jesus Christ as your personal Savior!!! Tens of millions of professed Christians today are going straight to Hell when they die, because they are living the Christian life, but have never been born-again!!! Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again!!!

The Simplicity That Is In Jesus Christ

The "SIMPLICITY" is 'The Gospel' itself. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." Somewhere along the way the Bob Jones' crowd lost 'The Gospel'! There is nothing "HARD" about getting saved. It is not hard to find the way to be saved, it's right in front of your face in the Word of God. Matthew 7:14 teaches that the way unto life is "NARROW," meaning that it is so simple that few men find it.

It’s a bit like using Google. When you search for a topic, only a handful of paid advertisements or select webpages appear at the top of the search engines. You often have to do your homework to find the correct information several webpages deep. There are exceptions of course, depending on what you are searching for. My point is that there are thousands of religions clamoring for your support, money and loyalty; so the chances of you finding true Christianity is greatly reduced. Religion is one of the ways that Satan (the god of this world), blinds the minds of lost people, to hinder them from seeing the glorious light of the Gospel, lest they be saved (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4). Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world. Salvation is not found in any religion; but in a person—the Lord Jesus Christ!

It’s like “Magic Eye,” which you’ve probably seen. I used to enjoy looking at them in the Chicago Sun Times. They don’t have them on Guam. I’ve tried to look at the ones on the internet, but they don’t work. They need to be printed on paper to work properly. Magic Eye is really cool. When you look at the picture long enough, staring through it, a hidden image appears and it looks three dimensional, like it is floating in the image. That is a lot like the Gospel. People go to churches their entire life, being religious from the cradle to the casket; yet they never see the truth of the Gospel. It is clear to me that Dr. Steve Pettit at Bob Jones College is religious, and has never truly seen the Gospel and been born-again, which is why he says the heretical stuff that he does! Very few religious people ever truly experience salvation by GRACE!

When you hear religious people talking about “grace,” but then they foolishly ADD that you must “be willing to repent and turn from your sins,” you know they don’t truly understand God’s grace!!! Someone said that G.R.A.C.E. could be expressed as an acronym meaning: “God’s Riches At Christ’s Expense.” I like that. So why does a person have to be willing to turn away from their sinful bad habits to receive God’s Riches At Christ’s Expense? Steve Pettit doesn’t understand grace! Bob Jones University does not understand grace! If grace only comes to those who are committed to forsaking their sinful ways, then eternal life cannot be a gift, it is an exchange of sorts, where you give to get!

You see, since they don’t understand the Word of God, false teachers corrupt God’s simple plan of salvation in an attempt to force people to live a holy life; adding a willingness to change (false repentance) as a condition to receive what Christ has already paid for with His blood—a gift which God freely offers to anyone who simply BELIEVES! A willingness to turn from sins is reformation, not repentance! Bob Jones University sinfully requires their 2,700 students to reform as a condition of receiving the gift of God! Thus, I can say with all Biblical confidence and certainty that Bob Jones University is of the Devil! GET RIGHT WITH GOD!!!

I heard Dr. Pettit the other day scare 2,700 students that the ones who are [1]"perpetual liars" will go to Hell. No, Steve Pettit is the only one going to Hell, for perverting the Gospel! The Bible warns in Revelation 21:7 that "ALL LIARS" go to Hell, not just perpetual liars. James 2:10 says if you tell even one lie (one sin), you are guilty of all and deserve to go to Hell forever! That is why we all need a Savior, so we can escape God's wrath in Hell (Romans 5:9; John 3:16). The fact that Mr. Pettit thinks professed Christians who are perpetually sinful are not saved, tells me he is not saved himself, because he doesn't understand grace! Acts 13:39 teaches that every believer is "JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS." Romans 5:20 teaches that when a believer sins, "GRACE DID MUCH MORE ABOUND." A believer falls IN GRACE, never FROM GRACE! Let's get it right folks!

Bob Jones University is still considered by many Baptist churches to be the citadel of fundamentalism in the world, but in reality they are a house of devils propagating a demonic false gospel of works! The ESV Bible revision that BJU sells, uses and promotes, says the way to salvation is "HARD," which is a lie of the Devil. Getting saved is easy, simple, free, instant and permanent, if you want it right now!!! Simply come to God as a needy sinner, by faith receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried and three days later physically resurrected from the dead for your justification, and you are saved! It's that simple, and nothing else is required of you.

Romans 5:17-18, "For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.) Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life."

A gift is not really a gift when Bob Jones University teaches about salvation. I have listened to dozens of sermons this week, preached to the students of Bob Jones University from '[1]The Daily Platform.' In my humble opinion, it is a disgrace what Evangelist Steve Pettit has done to destroy Bob Jones University spiritually. I was shocked the other day when I heard [2]Dr. Pettit teaching Lordship Salvation to 2,700 impressionable students. We've got a whole generation of heretics coming up in America, who will corrupt the churches because of the Satanic influence of BJU!

I read an article this week by 'Psychology Today' titled: "The 5 Types Of Gift Givers." Bob Jones University's false gospel would describe the third type of false gift giver—"THE WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING"...

> "The Wolf likes gift-giving to be even-steven—especially in terms of money spent—so beware of possible posturing or pouting if he or she is disappointed."

> SOURCE: [3]https://www.psychologytoday.com/us/blog/tech-support/201312/the-5-type s-gift-givers

Here is a heretical quote from Bob's Jones Statement of Faith:

> With regard to the doctrine of Soteriology:

> We believe Scripture teaches that salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone (Eph. 2:4–10; Rom. 3:21–26; Titus 3:5) and apart from any human work of righteousness (Phil. 3:9). God offers this salvation freely to all men who are willing to repent and turn from their sins (Acts 3:19, 17:30) and place their full faith and trust in the atonement Christ made by His finished work on the Cross (Luke 24:46–48, Heb. 9:11–15, 10:10–14). [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [4]BJU Statements of Faith

As you see, Bob Jones University are 'THE WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING,' who teach that God demands something in return from you for His free gift of eternal life. They say you must be willing to repent and turn from your sins!!! BJU falsely says that God requires an exchange, something in return, you must pay the price of repentance from your sins! Ladies and gentlemen, the Devil is running Bob Jones College today!

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. Would Be Ashamed Of Bob Jones College Today

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) himself taught something very different than what the college teaches today! Dr. Bob Jones Sr. taught salvation through simple faith in Jesus Christ, none of this "turn from your sins" crap that heretics' Steve Pettit, John MacArthur, Bob Jones University, Ray Comfort and Calvinists are all teaching! Dr. Jones rightly says:

> "God gives you eternal life when you take Him. Eternal life is wrapped up in Christ. 'He that hath the Son hath life.' There is just one difference between a Christian and a sinner. A Christian has Christ and a sinner does not have Him. That is the only difference. All you need is Jesus. It is all in Jesus! If you will take Him, He will blot out all your sins. If you take Him, He will give you a new nature. If you take Him, He will go with you along the journey of life. He will be with you when you are tempted. He will put arms of power around you and give you the victory. 'By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," page 223; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

I have read the entire book by Dr. Bob Jones Sr. titled: "THINGS I HAVE LEARNED," and there is nothing about "turning from sins" to be saved. The last chapter of the book is titled, "HOW ARE WE SAVED?" There is no mention of "repenting of your sins" or being "willing to turn from your sins" to receive the free gift of eternal life. The foolish Bob Jones University crowd have been [5]BEWITCHED!!! (Galatians 3:1-3). Oh foolish Bob Jonians, who hath bewitched you, that you should follow another gospel? Oh [6]foolish Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, whom I dearly love so much, who hath bewitched you that you should believe another gospel? Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

God Is A Genuine Gift Giver

Psychology Today lists, "The 5 Types Of Gift Givers." The Lord is 'The Genuine Giver.' Psychology Today says this about 'The Genuine Giver'...

> "If you are lucky enough to have one or two of these folks in your life, it's time for rejoicing. The genuine giver has actually thought about you and what would give you pleasure."

SOURCE: [7]https://www.psychologytoday.com/us/blog/tech-support/201312/the-5-type s-gift-givers

What did Jesus say? John 10:10, "The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." Bob Jones University is 'The Thief.' Jesus warned us about 'The Thief' in John 10:1, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep." God is 'The Genuine Gift Giver,' who wants to give everyone eternal life, to give us pleasure. Bob Jones University is doing the work of Satan, falsely claiming that God is 'The Wolf In Sheep's Clothing,' who demands that you be willing to pay the price of forsaking your sinful behavior, in exchange for His gift. Do you really believe that God is a 'Wolf In Sheep's Clothing?' Do you believe that the gift of eternal life requires an exchange for your sinful bad habits?

Eternal life is a free gift, with no strings attached. There are no obligations. [8]Dr. Steve Pettit sinfully teaches that you "MUST PERSEVERE" (his exact words) in holiness, ministry and service to others to get the "award" of Heaven. That's exactly what he calls Heaven, an "award." What a false prophet! Heaven is not an award, it is a free gift! When corrupted BJU chapel speakers talk about "grace," they don't get grace!!! Nobody gets grace who teaches that Heaven in an "award" for those who faithfully "run the race" and "persevere" to finish it! BJU is preaching another gospel!!!

All that is required is that you come to God by faith as a needy sinner, to accept His free gift, by receiving the resurrected Savior's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. You don't have to be willing to turn from your sins, which would be an exchange, and not really a gift! God is a genuine gift giver, and not a wolf in sheep's clothing! I am like the Old Testament prophet Elijah, considered a trouble-maker by the apostate Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (i.e., the Bob Jones University camp on the island); but I stand before God as an innocent man, for having done nothing more than preach THE TRUTH of God's Word!!! 1st Kings 18:17, "And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?"

[9]

Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast."

1.4.35 The Woeful Lack Of Love In Today's Churches (2020-06-23 00:06)

Romans 14:9-10, " For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living. But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ." ... John 13:35, "

By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

Everything rises and falls on leadership. Pastor Lee Roberson (1909-2007) said that. Sadly, nearly all pastors today are merely working an occupation. Being a pastor used to be a calling. As an occupation, all sorts of unqualified people have sought to be pastors (including women, homosexuals, atheists, people who deny Jesus' resurrection, et cetera). These are not Bible churches, they are religious organizations, cursed by God (Galatians 1:6-9). You're group is not a church unless God says you're a church!

I have seen firsthand the lack of love in churches today. I agree with one of my favorite preachers, Pastor Danny Castle, who said, "The church on its worst day is better than the world on its best day!" Amen brother! Yet, most churches are not very friendly toward visitors and people who need their help. I attended the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for an entire year in 2014. I loved my church family and desperately needed them, but their ungodly pastors drove me out over our doctrinal differences. I am King James Bible only and they promote the [1]Devil's Bible revisions. I preach the Gospel of free grace Gospel, but [2]they teach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. I wasn't doing okay being alone without a church family. I lived just blocks away from the church, and 90 % of my neighbours all attend or work on staff at Harvest. Since their pastors were at odds with me, my neighbours all blackballed me, ignoring and shunning me, which caused me to go into a lasting depression for years. I am still suffering because of Harvest's cruelty.

I am still fond of the many children's shows I watched growing up. One of my favorite's is '[3]Rudolph The Red-nosed Reindeer'. Rudolph was born was a bright glowing red nose. The other reindeer made fun of Rudolph, rejecting him, not wanting him to play in any of their reindeer games. That is what Harvest Baptist Church on Guam has done to me since 2014, shunning me away for my King James Bible only stand. They have cruelly turned me away in my loneliness, spiritual need and pain, leaving me for dead.

Kindly, I have prayed more times than I can remember for God to avenge me of Harvest in eternity. Luke 18:7, "And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?"

They simply don't care about other people. They collect a paycheck, go through the motions of playing church, but couldn't care less about me as a hurting brother in Christ. They might as well have pushed me in front of a speeding semi truck! Where dwelleth the love of God? I often feel like quitting my ministry, living worldly like everyone else, and just forget about anything that has to do with religion, because of hypocrites like Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I feel like a helpless mouse that has been eaten by a snake at Harvest. That is the way churches have become. The rot of American society has dragged the churches down, with rotten church members.

There is no genuine love of God at Harvest, only acceptance of their own, as a cult does. That is ABUSE! I literally begged for a second chance to return to church. I pleaded with their pastors in 2017 to please let me attend church services. I asked the pastor if I could meet with him in his office, to help me get my broken life back together, and I offered to humbly do whatever it took to make things right. Instead of stepping up to plate as a real man of God would have done, he cowardly backed away and told me to "Go elsewhere." Those were his exact words! Where dwelleth the love of God. I begged for his spiritual help. No one at Harvest has ever reached out to me since, despite my repeated requests to please let me return. A pastor is supposed to love people, not cater to a select few. The church is not supposed to be a social club.

When I feel like quitting my ministry and walking away from everything, I remember that I am looking at the wrong things. What we focus on determines our attitude, thoughts and emotions. So I always refocus on Jesus, and realize that I serve the Lord, and not men. Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is a failure—a fake church, a social nightmare, a disgrace to the cause of Christ—and they will give account at the Judgment Seat of Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11). I pleaded to be their friend, just to sit in church, but they refused to even allow me to sit in a pew. I have lost my patience as a Christian with pastors in America—a bunch of cowardly, spineless, covetous, jellyfish! There are no men of God anymore, just parasites mooching off Christianity to pay their bills.

All I had ever pleaded with Harvest was for a second chance to just sit in church. [4]That is all I begged them for. We've got a bunch of phonies in our churches today, who make excuses for being horrible people, don't care about hurting brothers and sisters, are indifferent toward truth, and everything is a smirk and a laugh to them. One of my favorite preachers is Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr. of the First Baptist Church of Glenarden, Maryland. I love that Pastor Jenkins teaches God's flock (his church congregation) to LOVE everyone...

[5]The Big Mistake That The Church Has Made
Is That We Haven't Taught People How To Love

l am not writing this blog to be unkind or criticize Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, but to draw attention to the woeful lack of love in today's churches. People are sick and tired of dead churches, that discard anybody they don't want as old rubbish. God's family should be open to anyone who wants to join. Not at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, you have to apply for membership in their social club. Only select people are welcomed (former governors, managers, government employees, pilots, bigshots). A hurting man like me with a medical disability is not welcome (which they have proven by ostracizing me since 2014).

I am familiar with the shameful Bob Jones University crowd. They are arrogant in their heresy of Lordship Salvation. They are arrogant in promoting the Devil's Bible revisions. I can speak personally that they treated me like garbage, forcing me out of their church, and have ostracized me since. They deceitfully claim to use the King James Bible, but that is a big lie, because they fully support the Alexandrian Bible revisions. BJU sells multiple different Bible versions in their campus bookstore. The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam fully supports, promotes and broadcasts BJU's chapel sermons over their local radio station. I have known several families to quit and leave Harvest, disgusted over the church's woeful lack of love for people, sinful theological compromise, shallow church leadership, and running the church like a private club instead of a New Testament church. Shame on them!

Truth is a far superior weapon than deceit! I told the truth at Harvest, as a true friend does. I bought fundamental books with my own money for the pastors, to freely help them. I wanted to help them to see, as a real friend does. One book was "[6]Martin Luther: Master Of Deceit" (by Pastor Max D. Younce). Another book was titled, "[7]NIV: The Antichrist's Bible" (by Pastor Al Lacy). I also gave them the book, "[8]I Never Knew You" (by Michael P. Bowen). Evangelist Tom Ferrell said: "A friend helps a friend to see!" Ironically, Dr. Ferrell made that statement while preaching as a guest speaker at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam.

Sadly, they reject the truth I gave them, and drove me out of the church. I lost my church family and have never recovered since, still living in the same neighborhood, watching all my neighbours attend Harvest, but I am being ostracized. That is why I write about Harvest as much as I do. What they are doing is evil. Thankfully, God sees my heart, and their wickedness. Bob Jones University is [9]preaching another gospel today, not the Gospel of free grace by faith alone. [10]At Harvest, telling the truth is a crime!!! That is why they reject me so strongly, and refuse to give me a second chance. They are pulling on the same rope as the Devil, blinded by Satan (2nd Corinthians 4:4). The church has a big sign at the property entrance, which reads: "Helping People Develop A Heart For God." They are misled woefully by the Devil, because you cannot develop a heart for God, until you develop a heart for THE TRUTH. Jesus told the Samaritan woman at the well in John 4:24 that God can only be worshipped in spirit and in truth. I love them all at Harvest, but they don't love God, so they don't love me, and I have no nearby church to attend. Truth matters!!!

> "This whole society is rotten and Godless. The wrath of God is upon America. Mark my word: if God's Word be true, this nation is headed for the dust." —Pastor Tom Malone (1971)

1.4.36 30,000 Words A Day! (2020-06-23 21:26)

Psalms 141:3, "Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips."

The following excellent writing is from the, “SWORD SCRAPBOOK II” (a compilation by Dr. Viola Walden (1915-2007) of bits of wisdom, Scriptures, devotion and truths from THE [1]SWORD OF THE LORD articles written by Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) over the decades. The book was published in 1969. The Sword Of The Lord was founded in 1934. WHAT A BLESSING! The following edifying truth is from page 55:

30,000 Words A Day!

A famous publisher declares, “If you are an articulate person, you utter some 30,000 words each day.”

If these words were put in print, they would amount to a fair-sized book a day, These books would, in a lifetime, fill a good-sized college library. All these books are from the same author. All reflect the life and thoughts of the author, in his own words. And not a book can be taken down from the shelves or withdrawn from circulation.

The thought is a bit frightening. It emphasizes the fearful responsibility that goes with the gift of speech, and also the glorious privilege that is inherent in “speech seasoned with grace” (Colossians 4:6). Man probably has no greater power for good or for evil than the power of speech. Job had the testimony of his friend that his “words” had kept men on their feet—had kept men from falling (Job 4:4). What a rebuke to those whose words have thrown men off their feet—causing ill will, suspicion, alienation, broken hearts!

Probably most of us talk too much. And we seldom realize this until it is too late. Perhaps this is what the psalmist felt when he exclaimed, “Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips” (Psalms 141:3). An elderly colored woman, much beloved in her community, was asked for her formula for making and keeping friends. “Well,” she replied, “I stop and taste my words before I let them pass my teeth.”

“Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh” (Matthew 12:34). Therefore we read, “Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life” (Proverbs 4:23). And, “Every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment” (Matthew 12:36).

Men in court have turned pale upon the introduction of recordings of their own speech. And souls will tremble in the judgment, upon finding that every utterance, from the first wail of infancy till the tongue was silenced by death, has been noted by the Great Recorder.

Sweeter to our Lord than the melody of music and more important than the oratory of statesmen or the proclamations of kings are the conversations of His children talking together about the things of the Heavenly Father. All is written in His “book of remembrance” (Malachi 3:16). “They spoke . . . and the Lord hearkened.” Others also “spake,” and the Lord hearkened. And into the record went every whispered conspiracy, every word of slander, every falsehood, every cutting remark, every obscene utterance, every foul blasphemy.

What a noble attribute is the gift of speech! And what finer tribute to the Giver than to present to the library of Heaven, each day, one clean volume—30,000 words—dedicated to His honor!

That is so powerful! How many of us view our speech as a frightening responsibility? God is the keeper of men's souls. Proverbs 24:12, "If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?" One of the greatest sins of mankind is that we fail to take things as seriously as God does. Effectively, to "fear God" means to take seriously what God takes seriously. Many people are careless with their words, but God records every word that we speak (Matthew 12:36). 1st Peter 2:25, "For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls." That is, God is the WATCHER and AUTHORITY over our soul. Jesus is precious!!!

It'll straighten out the home, straighten out the children, make the husband act right, put the wife in order; it'll take care of the preacher, the church; I mean it'll fix up the community, I mean it'll stop the Devil dead in his tracks; I mean it'll give victory to God's people—the Word of God!" —Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982), "[2]The Book That Makes The Difference!"

1.4.37 Dr. John MacArthur Says Jesus DIDN'T Have God's Blood (2020-06-24 02:00)

Acts 20:28 , "Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood."

Bob Jones University (BJU) is a cesspool of iniquity today, bidding Godspeed to the devil John MacArthur, who once attending Bob Jones College. Mr. MacArthur is inspired by demons when he teaches Jesus' blood was not sprinkled on the Mercy Seat in Heaven! Mr. MacArthur is inspired by demons when he teaches that Jesus did not have God's blood flowing in His veins! I'm not kidding folks, read his own words for yourself, which I quote below!!! If Jesus didn't have God's blood in His veins, then how could He be born of a virgin? It would be impossible!!! Since Jesus was God's only begotten Son, He absolutely had to have God's blood (not Adam's tainted blood) in His veins. Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) explains this wonderful truth in his book titled: '[1]The Chemistry Of The Blood' ([2].PDF version). ...

> "One statement in this passage calls for special attention. Paul says that God 'hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth.' The one thing which relates all men to each other is the blood that flows in their veins. Every other part of man's body differs but little from the body and the flesh of animals but the blood is distinct and separate from that of all other creatures. ALL MEN OF ONE BLOOD and that ONE BLOOD was the blood of Father Adam, the first man and the progenitor of the whole human race. It is not Eve's blood which flows in the veins of mankind but ADAMS. That is why it is ADAM's sin and not Eve's which all men inherit. Sin is in the blood, and transmitted in the blood of man and in the flesh." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, '[3]The Chemistry of The Blood,' chapter three Amen! Pastor DeHaan was a medical doctor before he was called to preach by God. So he knew what he was talking about, both as a doctor and a preacher!!! John MacArthur on the other hand, says Jesus' didn't have God's blood! Then Acts 20:28 in the Holy Bible is lying when it says, "Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood." How could God purchase the Church with His own blood, if Jesus didn't have God's literal blood flowing in His veins? Mr. MacArthur is a theological LIAR!!! Why does Bob Jones University and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam bid Godspeed to this horribly corrupt FALSE TEACHER?

Pastor John MacArthur heretically teaches:

> “It isn’t human flesh, human bones, and divine blood. That’s not a man. It is medically impossible to think of Christ’s blood as divine. It is theologically impossible to think of Christ’s blood as divine. It is Scripturally impossible to think of Christ’s blood as divine. He would be less than man. His blood is human blood.” —Dr. John MacArthur, ’[4]The Precious Blood - Part 1’

GET THEE BEHIND ME SATAN!!! Evidently Mr. MacArthur forgot the VIRGIN BIRTH! What normal man has ever been born of a virgin? That’s right, NONE! Jesus was 100 % a man, but he had God’s divine blood in His veins, making Him 100 % God as well; otherwise Jesus would have had a sinful nature, just like you and me (Romans 5:12). Woe unto John MacArthur! Woe unto Bob Jones University for bidding him Godspeed! Woe unto Steve Pettit, Marty Herron and anyone who bids this false prophet Godspeed. Woe unto the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for bidding this ungodly reprobate Godspeed! 2nd John 1:11, “For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.” All of the aforementioned religious people have blood on their hands, for betraying the Lord Jesus Christ!!!

1.4.38 Abortion Stops A Beating Heart And Kills A Human Being (2020-06-24 22:08)

Jeremiah 1:5, "Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations."

The United States is one of the most ungodly nations in history. Since the Roe vs. Wade court ruling, by a group of thug monsters called the U.S. Supreme Court, nearly 60,000,000 human lives have been terminated in the womb. It is irresponsible, evil and has brought our nation's attitude toward all life very low. Should it be surprising that a sexually immoral society that murders its children, that they would abandon their elderly parents in an old folks home? I think not. Should it surprising that across America, military veterans are abused in nursing homes, left untreated and no one cares about them? I think not.

Thank God for the Bible belt in the United States, and a few other places up north, where there's still some God-fearing folks who value life. I was delighted to read today about [1]a new law in Tennessee that requires physicians to allow pregnant mothers to actually hear their baby's heartbeat. The new law mandates that doctors let a mother see ultrasound images of her baby, and the doctor must provide the dimensions of the child. Doctors who fail to comply will be arrested and charged with felonies. Amen and amen! It's about time. If I had my way, all abortion doctors would receive capital punishment (the death penalty). Abortion doctors are mass-murderers according to God's law!

I love this new law in Tennessee, because it forces a doctor to show a pregnant woman that she contains a living human being in her womb. I think so often it is much easier to murder one's child when you just view it as tissue in your womb, rather than a living human being! By making it mandatory for expectant mothers to audibly hear their baby's heartbeat, and see ultrasound images of the child, and know the child's size, mothers will be forced to face the reality that they have a living human being in their womb. Statistics show that 83 % of women who seek abortions are unmarried. Only 4 % of all abortions are sought by married women. Clearly, marriage is the answer to the abortion industry in America!

Tragically, we live in a nation is immoral pleasure-seekers, who mock and scoff at the idea of marriage. I know of several young women who fornicated instead of waiting to get married, and very rarely does the father ever marry the woman he impregnated. The law needs to punish immorality, but it actually encourages it, by punishing married people when things go wrong. Divorce is an ugly $50,000,000,000 racket in America. Over 95 % of lawyers should all be hung until dead in my humble opinion! I despise lawyers!!! Jesus did too, “ And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers ” (Luke 11:46). Lawyers are predators, who prey upon suffering people at the darkest times of their life, transferring all your wealth into their bank account. They erroneously call that “justice” (

JUST-US). Hell is filled with ungodly judges and lawyers!

The Bible teaches that Satan is the god of this evil world (2nd Corinthians 4:4). Jesus said in John 10:10 that “ comes only to KILL, STEAL and DESTROY! Abortion is a global evil. In 2012, one in seven Russian woman had abortions! Russian president, Vladimir Putin, has been making efforts to turn the tide in Russia’s shrinking population due to the evils of abortion. China is infamous for abortions. As hard as it is to imagine, over the past 50 years there have been over [2]1,500,000,000 abortions worldwide! Sadly, every day [3]125,000 children are murdered by abortion in the world . There are over a billion aborted children in Heaven!!! I am for any legislation that protect life in the womb!

1.4.39 Evolution Is The Biggest Lie Ever Fabricated (2020-06-25 03:00)

Genesis 1:1, “

In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

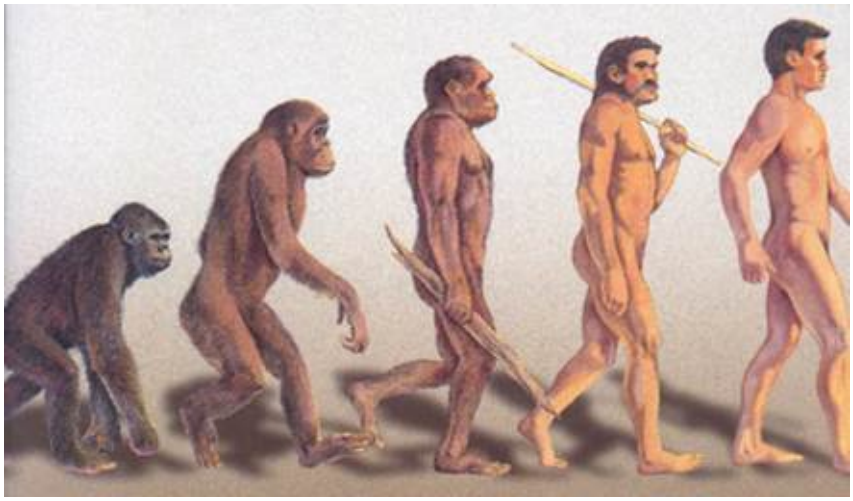
The inspired Holy Bible is adamantly clear that God created all things. Specifically, Jesus created all things, because He is God almighty. John 1:1-3, “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.” All of the Devil’s modern Bible revisions (including the demonic ’English Standard Version’ that Bob Jones University peddles) change the preposition “by” to “through,” which is an attack against Christ’s deity!

Evolution is a dirty Devil’s lie. Ungodly reprobate men fabricated evolution to lie to children, to deprive them of the blessed knowledge of God. Instead of teaching children THE TRUTH of God’s Word that humanity was created by a loving and holy God, wicked unbelieving evolutionists have taught children that mankind evolved from a Big Bang! Of course, no scientist has ever been able to explain how the ’Big Bang’ works! They never will either, because it makes no sense scientifically or logically. If you’ve ever looked into some of their insane claims, it is as laughable as it is non-plausible! For example: NASA (you know, the rocket scientists) hold the official position that the earth and moon were formed over billions of years, after two asteroids crashed into each other. That is nutty! NASA then believes that as billions of smaller meteorites hit the earth, that ice crystal formations made the earth’s oceans. Dear friend, you need serious mental help [1]if you believe what NASA claims!



Furthermore, if men evolved from apes, then why are there still apes? The Bible teaches that the flesh of man is not the same flesh as animals (1st Corinthians 15:39). Men did not evolve from apes! Men did not evolve at all. Humans did not originate with stardust. God formed man out of the dust of the earth (Genesis 2:7), and God created the earth (2nd Peter 3:5). [2]Evolution was adopted by Communists to teach children that the government is God. Communism and evolution go hand in hand. Evolution is one of the strongest tools of Communism. By teaching children that there is no God, and all life just happened, Communists can deceive children into thinking that God is their government.

It requires far more faith to believe the bizarre claims of evolutionists, than it does to simply believe the inspired Word of God. Whereas science can only offer us theories and ever-changing assumptions, the inspired Word of God provides solid concrete answers regarding creation and the origin of the universe. Evolution is often dishonestly taught as a FACT, but it is anything but factual. The Holy Bible can BE VERIFIED through archaeology, science, history, and the indwelling Holy Spirit of God whom every born-again person has living inside them (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24).

Theistic Evolution is also a lie of the Devil. God created the universe and nothing evolved. I do believe in an old earth (aka, the Gap Principle), but I also believe God remodeled the earth during the literal 6-days of creation in Genesis. Even the Bible itself says that the earth is very old. Psalms 102:25, " Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands." As an old earth advocate, I do NOT believe in any type of evolutionary process! [3]Young earth advocates often dishonestly attempt to discredit old earthers by assuming they are all evolutionists. I do not believe in evolution at all.

1.4.40 Gift Of Eternal Life Is Wrapped In Package Of Jesus (2020-06-25 12:00)

Romans 5:18, "Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life."

I was reading a wonderful book today by one of my favorite preachers, Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968). As I read his books and hear him preach, I see Dr. Bob Jones Sr. in Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). It is clear to me that Brother Jones had a tremendous influence on the life and preaching of Dr. Jack Hyles. I love both of these dear men of God!

It grieves my heart to see how our nation has changed for the worse in my lifetime. What discourages me is that today's professed Christians (particularly my own camp of independent Baptists) cannot see the forest for the trees! We are changing so quickly and most Baptists are in woeful denial. Here is a beautiful quote from Evangelist Bob Jones Sr.:

> "Young people, you can't buy salvation. You can't pay for it after you get it. But if you don't already have it, you can have it. Somebody is giving it away around here. His name is Jesus and He wants to give you salvation.
> Before I stop I will use an illustration I have used many times here at the college. Maybe those of you who have heard it have forgotten it.

> Do you see this quarter? I want to give it to you. But I am a peculiar man. I just give away quarters one way. I put a quarter in a book, shut the book, and offer you the book. You don't want the book? Well, all right, you can't have my quarter, then. I have a right to put the quarter in any sort of package I wish. You, of course, have the privilege of rejecting the quarter.

> God has something He wants to give you. It is eternal life. He wrapped it in the most wonderful package you ever heard of. He put it in Jesus. People looked at Jesus. He had no form or comeliness; there wasn't anything about Him to be desired. And they didn't realize what was wrapped up in that package. They put Jesus on a cross. They nailed Him there. They killed Him. Then He rose from the dead, and He has been scarred ever since that time. If you could see Jesus today, the glorified, risen Son of God, you would find scars on His brow and scars in His hands. If you could look at His side you would find a would there. His feet are scarred. But, say, He has wrapped in Himself a wonderful gift. God gives you eternal life when you take Him. Eternal life is wrapped up in Christ." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," pages 222-223; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

Amen and amen! That was so simply, beautifully and eloquently said. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. preached the simplicity that is in Jesus Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

Bob Jones University Preaches Another Gospel Today

Dr. Jones would be appalled, disgusted and angry if he [1]heard Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) teaching the students that to be saved, they "must persevere" in holiness, ministry and service to others, and faithfully "run the race" to obtain the "award" of Heaven itself. Dr. Pettit is preaching another gospel, not the Gospel of free grace once delivered unto the saints! Dr. Pettit made this blasphemous statement at Bob Jones University (BJU) to 2,700 impressionable students on January 26, 2015:

> “You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There’s ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don’t finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!” [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ([2]“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - 11:34)

Folks, that is the exact opposite of what the founder, Dr. Bob Jones Sr., believed and taught the students at BJU. [3]Dr. Jones would blow up the college he started with dynamite ([4]he said so himself | [5]MP4 | [6]MP3) if he could today! Kindly said, Steve Pettit is a religious liberal! They actually pay him a 6-digit salary to preach a counterfeit gospel, sending those misled students to Hell. Still not convinced? Read this heretical quote from Dr. Pettit...

> “So when we talk about ’The Race,’ what are we talking about? We’re talking about beginning and salvation, and then running the race through pursuing holiness and ministry, and service to others. But then let me say, that number three: This race HAS TO be faithfully run to the finish! You HAVE TO finish. Salvation is not just a past reality—“I GOT SAVED,” but is a future destiny! The race is not completed until you cross the finish line at death. What is this race—it is the race as we are running as we are headed toward Heaven.” —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - [7]10:27)

> “We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what’s the prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don’t believe its referring to crowns in Heaven. I think it is referring to Heaven itself.” [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - [8]22:57)

Dr. Pettit teaches strange doctrines. I shared with you earlier what Dr. Bob Jones Sr. taught. These two men are light-years apart in their plans of salvation! [9]Steve Pettit teaches BJU students that if they perpetually lie, they'll go to Hell. That is another gospel!!! If you are saved, you can lie all you want and still go to Heaven (Acts 13:39; Romans 5:20). You shouldn't lie. Lying is a sin. God hates lying. However, none of that has anything to do with the free gift of God, which is eternal life (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9).

God knows I am not trying to be mean. I don't get paid a single penny for my preaching. Since I began my online ministry in 2002, I've never accepted one cent! I've had people send me money, and I sent it back to them, every penny! I do what I do because I love God, truth and people!!! I have a full reward in Heaven, the greatest being all the souls saved and lives changed through my humble labors for Jesus Christ. To God alone be all the credit, praise and glory!!! Jesus said without Him we cannot do anything (John 15:5). Jesus even keeps you and me breathing (Acts 17:25). Jesus is precious!!!

Eternal Life Comes In The Wonderful Package Of Jesus!

I like what Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said about being "a peculiar man." I am too! Brother Jones gave away quarters (which was a lot of money in 1944). He always placed the quarter into a book, and then offered someone the book. If the person refused the book, then they didn't get the quarter. I do the same thing! I print [10]my own Gospel tracts. I often place $20 in one of the tracts, and fold it up, keeping it ready under my sun-visor in my car to give away to a needy person. When someone asks for money, I hand them the Gospel tract. If they refuse it, then they don't get the $20. They cannot see the money until they unfold the tract.

One day I saw a homeless man in a store parking lot. I offered him a Gospel tract. He was offended and cursed the name of Jesus. So I put the Gospel tract back into my pocket, and he never knew there was $20 inside. I don't give people money when they ask, I offer them a Gospel tract, which if they accept comes with a gift of $20. That is the same thing that Dr. Bob Jones Sr. liked doing! I was happy when I read that he did that too! God is offering everyone eternal life, but it comes in the wonderful package of Jesus Christ!

> "Men are not saved by analyzing the truth of the Gospel. They are saved by accepting the truth of the Gospel. It is true, whether men believe it or not. It is as true as the multiplication table. Men use the multiplication table to do what the multiplication table is supposed to do. The Gospel will do what it is supposed to do. 'It is the power of God unto salvation unto every one that believeth."' —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," chapter: Preaching, Evangelism, page 123; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

1.4.41 We Already Have Chinese Style Censorship In America (2020-06-25 23:29)

Acts 7:51-58, " Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye. Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers: Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it. When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth. But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul. "

I thought this was an appropriate Scripture text for my blog article. [1]Google (who owns YouTube) has been censoring anything they don't like. A disturbing 92.06 % of all internet searches are filtered through Google, which means Google literally is shaping public opinion by controlling the flow of information. This is an Orwellian nightmare come true! We read about the communist Chinese government censorship of the internet, but we fail to realize that America is suffering the same fate, because we don't consider Google a threat.

Facebook has banned my [2]www.Lovethetruth.com website. They even blocked me from sharing the name of my website in a comment to another Facebook member. When I asked facebook why the banned my ministry website, they refused to tell me! This is Chinese-style communist censorship folks, and it is going to get much worse in the United States! The media continues to deceive Americans that we live in a " country, but you're only truly

free

" if you agree with how ungodly liberals want you to think—accepting queers, accepting abortion, accepting LGBTQ freaks teaching your children, tolerating NAMBLA perverts, and thinking like the Devil's crowd! Sodomites and left-wing nuts can bash, demean and attack Christians all they want, and nobody says anything in the media; but just let a God-fearing pastor tell his church congregation that the government should execute homosexuals, and you'll end up [3]demonized by the wicked media like Pastor Grayson Fritts.

Folks, the government has even passed laws protecting Google from being sued for violating people's free speech rights (see video below). Who do you think is behind all this banning of websites? Freemasons control America, a Satanic cult! Pastor Steven Anderson has uploading over 6,000 sermon videos from his church, but YouTube gave him two strikes because of complaints by users of violating their terms of service. Just one more strike and YouTube will terminate his entire account and delete all 6,000 uploads (like they horribly did Alex Jones' account). YouTube needs to be stopped! Google needs to be stopped! ...

[4]Google Tries To Censor Content It Disagrees With

Just as we read in Acts 7:57, “ Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, ” because they didn’t want to hear THE TRUTH Stephen was preaching. Take a look at what comes up on a YouTube if you search for “ [5]YouTube trans .

” So it’s okay for every form of ungodly homosexual, transvestite, and LGBTQ freak to promote their sick values, ungodly filth, and perverted deathstyle; but Christians are banned from expressing their views. I am being very careful what I type, because I don’t want to get banned. I wish I could write how I really feel, but I would definitely get censored.

I thank God that we have a righteous God in Heaven, who cannot do evil, nor can He be tempted with evil. I thank God that in the long run, EVIL ALWAYS LOSES!!! These sodomites and lesbians in 2020 may be triumphing for a few decades, but Hell will be their home for eternity. Job 20:4-5, "Knowest thou not this of old, since man was placed upon earth, That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment? " I am a loving person, and I care about everyone, including homosexual people, but as a child of God I must speak out against evil (Ephesians 5:11; Titus 1:10-13; Psalms 94:16; 97:10).

Homosexuality is a choice, and choosing to sin is what evil is. Remember, we must never reject the sinner with the sin, nor accept the sin with the sinner. Homosexuals are sick people, they need help. Prior to 1973 the American Psychiatric Association (APA) considered homosexuality a pathological mental illness. What changed? [6]The only thing that changed was America's ungodly political climate. As recently as 1962 homosexuality was a punishable crime (and should be) in all 50 states. In many states today (like Alabama and Tennessee), lawmakers are making it very difficult to get an abortion. PRAISE THE LORD! A woman's body ENDS, where her baby's body BEGINS! An abortion doesn't make a woman unpregnant, it just makes her the mother of a DEAD BABY!!!

This is America, right? We're supposed to have free speech, right? We're not talking about someone yelling "FIRE" in a crowded theater. We're talking about faithful Christians taking a stand against sick-minded homosexuals trying to influence our children in the schools. Even Sesame Street now openly promotes lesbians and homosexuals. The safe thing to do in this untoward perverse generation is to jump on the LGBTQ bandwagon, expressing sympathy for their "rights." What about God's rights? What about the rights of families who do not ascribe to homosexuality?

What about the rights of Christian parents not to have their impressionable children lied to and indoctrinated with the Satanic garbage of evolution in public schools? Most Americans cannot afford to put their children into private schools, and by law you are required to enroll your children into their damned schools.

Why is it that kooks, liberals and atheists can force their lies of evolution and sexual immorality on families, but Christianity (prayer and the Bible) are legally banned from being promoted in the government's schools? These people will burn in the hottest parts of Hell. When you have to hire an expensive lawyer to enforce your "rights," you effectively have no rights! I have said since he was elected in 2016 that I do not trust President Donald Trump. He says all the right things, but his actions often deny his words. Mr. Trump's so-called "conservative" judge appointee to the U.S. Supreme Court, just ruled to legalize homosexual rights in the workplace. So now if you hire a man, and over the weekend he returns to work Monday as a woman, you cannot fire him! That is very, very wrong!!! It doesn't matter if we have a Democrat or a Republican in the White House, the New World Order is advancing!

Do you still really think the United States is a free country? If you do, stick around, because in just a few years you will wake up when it is much too late! The only difference between communist China and communist America, is that in the United States the government uses private companies to do their dirty work instead of directly by the government! Google, YouTube, Facebook and other social media platforms are no better than communist China, and our complicit government is behind them 100 %. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

1.4.42 Jesus Christ Is Almighty God (2020-06-26 22:50)

John 10:33, "The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God."

I used some helpful information from [1]an article on Christ's deity by the Middletown Bible Church in Middletown, Connecticut, adding my own comments as well to write this important theological article. Make no mistake about it, the infallible inspired Word of God clearly identifies Jesus Christ as almighty God. He is " the great God " (Titus 2:13) , "the mighty God" (Isaiah 9:6) , and "the true God" (1 John 5:20) . Full and complete deity is ascribed to Him: "the Word was God" (John 1:1) . Though a Jew "according to the flesh," He is the One "who is over all, God blessed for ever" (Romans 9:5).

I don't like when theologians call Jesus the " second person

" of the Godhead, because Jesus is not

econd,

" He is as much God as God the Father is God. Neither is the Holy Spirit the " third person

" of the Godhead. The Bible teaches in Deuteronomy 6:4, "Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD:

" There is only one God, but He exists in the three unique, individual, and equal persons of the Godhead. Colossians 2:8-9,

"Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily." The Godhead became incarnate (flesh) in the man Jesus.

When a person met Jesus, they met God the Father and God the Holy Spirit.

John 14:8-9, “Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us. Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father? ”

To know Jesus Christ is to know God. To see Jesus Christ is to see God: “ he that hath seen Me hath seen the Father" (John 14:9). Christ is the "image of the invisible God ” (Colossians 1:15), “ the brightness of His glory, and the express image of His Person ” (Hebrews 1:3). “ In Him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily ” (Colossians 2:9). All men must honor the Son just as they honor the Father (John 5:23). We honor the Father as God, and we must honor the Son in the same way. The Son of God is not honored when His deity is denied.

Witnesses to His deity are many. Peter referred to Jesus Christ as God (2nd Peter 1:1). [The Greek construction of 2nd Peter 1:1 (the [2]Granville Sharp Rule) demands that we understand the term "God" to be referring not to God the Father, but to “our Saviour Jesus Christ.” This same construction is found in Titus 2:13, where “ the great God ” is none other than Jesus Christ.] Jesus is God, not just “a god” as the Jehovah’s Witness religious cult errantly teach, but God Almighty. The Apostle Paul declared Jesus’ deity in several places (Titus 2:13; Philippians 2:6; Romans 9:5). The prophet Isaiah identified the Messiah as God (Isaiah 7:14; 9:6). Thomas worshipped the risen Lord, addressing Him by these words: “ My Lord and my God! ” (John 20:28) , and Jesus did not rebuke him for this. That is because what Thomas said was true. Jesus is Lord, Savior and God!!!

Because Jesus Christ is God, He is all that God is. He fully possesses all the attributes of deity. Jesus is holy (Luke 1:35), He is righteous (1st John 2:1), He is eternal (Micah 5:2), He is unchangeable (Hebrews 13:8), He is omnipotent (Revelation 1:8 with 22:12-13), He is omnipresent (Matthew 28:20) and He is omniscient (John 2:24-25; 6:64; 16:30). Every attribute that belongs to the Father belongs to the Son: “All things that the Father hath are mine” (John 16:15). How could anybody question or deny Jesus’ deity?

Because Jesus Christ is almighty God, He can perform miraculous works which only our omnipotent God can do. Only God is the Creator, and the Bible declares that it was by the Son that all things were created (John 1:3; Colossians 1:16). Beware of the Devil's modern Bible revisions, which change these passages to say all things were created "through Him" instead of "by Him." This is a common corruption in the modern perversions. Only God can forgive sins, and Jesus Christ did just that (Mark 2:5-7). Only God answers prayer, and the Lord Jesus said, " If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it " (John 14:14). Only God will sit on the final throne of judgment, and the Scripture identifies Jesus Christ as the final Judge of all men (John 5:22, 27; 2nd Timothy 4:1).

The cults commonly deny the full deity of Jesus Christ. Liberal theologians do the same. Unbelieving hearts refuse to face up to who Jesus really is.

The term

God

(Hebrew -

Elohim

) may be applied to the true God (Genesis 1:1) and also to false gods (Exodus 20:3). The sacred name (written with all capital letters as **"

Jehovah

LORD

" or **"

GOD

" in the Old Testament) is a name that is applicable to none but Deity. It is derived from the verb to be,

and it communicates the fact that Jehovah is the One who was, who is and who ever shall be (compare Revelation 1:8).

The Lord Himself is very jealous over this Name and all that it stands for as seen in the following two passages: 1) **“

That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the most high over all the earth

” (Psalms 83:18); 2) **“

I am the LORD: that is my name; and my glory will I not give to another

” (Isaiah 42:8). No greater proof of deity could be presented concerning Christ, than that He should rightfully be called JEHOVAH (God or Lord).

DOES THE BIBLE SOMETIMES APPLY THE TERM JEHOVAH TO JESUS CHRIST?

Please consider the following:

1. In Zechariah chapter 12, JEHOVAH is the One who is speaking (verses 1,4). In verse 10 Jehovah says, "they shall look upon Me whom they have pierced." This can refer to no one else except Christ (see John 19:37 and Revelation 1:7).
2. JEHOVAH of the Old Testament declares Himself to be the First and the Last (Isaiah 44:6). In the New Testament Jesus Christ is said to be "the first and the last" (Revelation 1:8,11,17,18; 22:12-13).
3. In Isaiah 6:5 the prophet said, "for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD (JEHOVAH) of hosts." Isaiah saw JEHOVAH! The Apostle John referred to this same event in John 12:41, and he made it very clear that the Person whom Isaiah saw was actually Jesus Christ: "These things said Isaiah, when he saw His glory and spake of Him (referring in the context to Christ)."
4. In Psalm 23:1 David declared that JEHOVAH was the Great Shepherd of the sheep. The New Testament identifies Jesus Christ as the great Shepherd of the sheep (Heb. 13:20; John 10:11,14).
5. The Old Testament repeatedly refers to JEHOVAH as Israel’s Rock (Deuteronomy 32:3,4,18; Psalm 18:2; 62:1-2; etc.). The New Testament clearly identifies this Rock as Christ (1 Corinthians 10:4).
6. In Isaiah 43:10-11 and 45:21 JEHOVAH declares Himself to be the only Saviour. There is no other Saviour apart from Him! In the New Testament Peter declares that Jesus is the only Saviour (Acts 4:12). In Isaiah 45:21-22 JEHOVAH says, "Look unto Me and be ye saved...there is none else." In John 3:14-16 we are told to look unto the crucified One to be saved.

7. In Isaiah 45:21-23 JEHOVAH says, "that unto Me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear." This passage in Isaiah is applied to Christ in Philippians 2:9-11, the One before whom all shall someday bow. Every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord (Phil. 2:11). [The word "Lord" in Philippians 2:11 is the Greek word "kurios" which is consistently used in the Septuagint (ancient Greek version of the Old Testament) in translating the Hebrew word "Jehovah."]

8. In Isaiah 24:23 and Zephaniah 3:15-17 we learn that JEHOVAH Himself will reign in Jerusalem during the coming kingdom age and will be in the midst of His people. The New Testament clearly identifies this future, millennial King as Jesus Christ (Revelation 19:11-16; 20:4,6).

9. In Isaiah 40:3 we learn that John the Baptist was to prepare the way for the coming of JEHOVAH. In Mark 1:1-3 the same passage is applied to Christ (John the Baptist prepared the way for Christ).

10. In Isaiah 8:13-14 the prophecy states that JEHOVAH will be "for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence." In 1 Peter 2:7-8 these verses in Isaiah are applied to Jesus Christ.

11. In Psalm 34:8 we are invited to "taste and see that JEHOVAH is good." This passage is clearly alluded to in 1 Peter 2:3 which refers to the goodness and graciousness of Jesus Christ ("If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious").

12. The Old Testament promises salvation and deliverance to those who call on the name of JEHOVAH (Joel 2:32 and see Acts 2:21). In the New Testament this same passage is used to present a promise of salvation for all those who call upon the name of the Lord Jesus Christ (Rom. 10:13; Acts 2:21, 36).

The above evidence shows beyond any doubt, that the term

” may rightfully be applied to Jesus Christ. [Jehovah’s Witnesses deny the deity of Christ and teach that Jesus is a mighty angelic creature who was created by Jehovah God. They strongly maintain that the divine name JEHOVAH is never used of Christ] Since this is a term that is applicable only to Deity, and since it is a term that can rightfully be applied to Jesus Christ, then we must conclude that the Lord Jesus is Jehovah God! Jesus forgave sin as only God can do (Mark 2:5-7). Repeatedly in The Four Gospels, Jesus accepted worship from people, which only God is entitled to (Matthew 8:2; 9:18; 14:33; Isaiah 42:8). Jesus even claimed to be THE ALMIGHTY! Revelation 1:8, “ I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.”

Oh dear friend, Jesus is the only begotten Son of God (Matthew 16:16; John 3:16), and yes, Jesus is God the Son (1 John 5:20; Hebrews 1:8). To Jesus Christ be all the glory, praise, credit and honor, both now and forevermore. Jesus is precious!!!

The following horrible blasphemous image quote shows what the ungodly world thinks about the dear Lord Jesus Christ. I have no doubt that Leonard Nimoy (1931-2015), known as the character "Spock" on Star Trek is sadly burning in Hell forever. Nearly all of the Star Trek cast shared Nimoy's blasphemous attitude against God. What ingrates!!! Please make sure you don't join them...

1.4.43 Black Lives Matter Is A Communist Front Group (2020-06-27 00:00)

Isaiah 3:12, " As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths."

We are seeing children (youth) rule over our society with anarchy. Was reading the inspired Holy Bible at school each day to children so bad? It was the first head of the World Health Organization (WHO) who made this disturbing statement:

> "To achieve world government, it is necessary to remove from the minds of men their individualism, loyalty to family tradition, national patriotism, and religious dogmas."
> —George Brock Chisholm, in a Speech given at the, Conference on Education, Asilomar, California, September 11, 1954

Of the six judges who removed and banned the Word of God (since 1962) from children's lives at school each day, four of those judges were Freemasons! At the innermost core of the cult, [1]Freemasons worship Lucifer, and are responsible for the subversion of our nation. Yes, ladies and gentleman, Satanists are in control. [2]Satanists are in control. If that seems nutty to you, just flip over any U.S. one dollar bill and see all the Masonic occult symbols.

According to SourceWatch, a front group is "an organization that purports to represent one agenda while in reality it serves some other party or interest whose sponsorship is hidden or rarely mentioned." In other words, a front group claims to represent a group of people while actually serving another group. Black Lives Matter is such a group. It claims to represent black people and their struggle against racial injustice, but in reality, it is a Communist front group.

How do we know?

Patrisse Cullors, co-founder of Black Lives Matter, plainly admits that she and Alicia Garza, another co-founder, are Marxists. A Marxist, for those who do not know, is a person who holds to the philosophy of Karl Marx, who penned "The Communist Manifesto" in 1848 with Friedrich Engels.

Cullors, on the YouTube video "BLM Co-Founder Patrisse Cullors 'We are Marxists, We are Ideological"', openly states, "We actually do have an ideological frame. Myself and Alicia in particular are trained organizers. We are trained Marxists. We are super-versed on, sort of, ideological theories." In other words, Alicia Garza and Patrisse Cullors know how to stir people up, they know how to organize people, to arouse their passions. That is how Communists operate: They play on the emotions of people.

Their Communist philosophy can also be found on the official website of Black Lives Matter, under the "What We Believe" section. Near the end, it states, "We disrupt the Western-prescribed nuclear family structure requirement by supporting each other as extended families and 'villages' that collectively care for one another…" Friends, that statement is rooted in Globalism, Communism, and Illuminism, which are one and the same!

The Communist Manifesto also teaches the abolition of the family. It states, "Abolition of the family! Even the most radical flare up at this infamous proposal of the Communists." Given that abolition of the family is one of the goals of Communism AND Illuminism, it is not strange that a group founded by Marxists would admit to "disrupting the family structure" on their website!

The Protocols of the Zionist Men of Wisdom also declare the abolition of the family in favor of mob mentality. Protocol 10:5 states, "…we will shatter the goy family and its educational importance. We will not allow the formation of individual minds, because the mob, under our guidance, will prevent them from distinguishing themselves or even expressing themselves. The mob has become accustomed to listen only to us who pay it for obedience and attention…" This fits with the statement that Black Lives Matter disrupts the family structure in favor of establishing a global collectivist family!

To sum up the matter, Black Lives Matter is NOT truly dedicated to fighting racial injustice. This should be evident already when you consider their deafening silence on the murder of Officer David Dorn, daily black-on-black crime, and the numerous abortions of unborn black babies committed by Planned Parenthood. The group is dedicated to using Communist tactics to stir up the masses for revolution, which will destroy society in order to build a new one: creative destruction, order out of chaos.

> "In short, the Communists everywhere support every revolutionary movement against the existing social and political order of things… They openly declare that their ends can be attained only by the forcible overthrow of all existing social conditions." -excerpt from "The Communist Manifesto", written by Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels, 1848

> "Evil and catastrophe [are] endemic factors in the process of creation. Without evil there could be no good, without destruction, creation could not take place." -Byron L. Sherwin, "Kabbalah: An Introduction To Jewish Mysticism", p. 72

Fox reporter Tucker Carlson told the truth...

We are seeing anarchy across the country. This is the consequence of a nation which has abandoned God. They who refuse to be governed by God will be ruled by tyrants.

Isaiah 3:12, "As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths." All across the country women are sinfully being promoted as cops, judges, military leaders, legislators and leaders, showing the weakness in men today to lead our society. The Holy Bible teaches that women should get married, bear children, guide the house, and stay out of trouble (1st Timothy 5:14-15).

Call me “old-fashioned” (and I am without apology), but the Bible says women belong in the home—not the battlefield, not the workplace, not the office, not in squad cars, not the church secretary, not in judge’s seats—but in the kitchen and home. The erroneous idea of “equal rights” has absolutely destroyed our society. The faulty concept of equal rights that places women in men's jobs is INSANITY! Our country has already gone to ruin, we are just sinking further into the trash bin. Pastors don't preach anymore. Fathers don't lead their homes, and the courts empower women to rebel at home, divorce, murder their children in the womb, with no accountability whatsoever. It should not come as a surprise that I said earlier, Satanists control our nation, because the inspired Holy Bible itself teaches that Satan is **"

the god of this world

I could be wrong, but I think President Donald Trump is waiting to get re-elected in November, and then he will clean house. I believe he will be re-elected, despite all the criticisms against him. Mr. Trump is a dream come true for Zionists, which compels me to think he is guaranteed re-election. I think we are going to war against Iran. Mr. Trump's so-called "conservative" judge appointee to the U.S. Supreme Court just ruled to legalize homosexual rights in the workplace. So now if an employer hires a man and he returns over the weekend as a woman, he cannot be fired. It appears to me that whether Democrat or Republican, they both take us in the same direction of a New World Order.

The U.S. government is now borrowing trillions of dollars from the Federal Reserve criminals to help Americans because of the Coronavirus, enslaving future generations to the NWO. America's days of sovereignty are numbered. I heard David Knight on the Alex Jones Show yesterday saying that we are soon headed for a cashless society and economic crash. Of that I am fully convinced. Open massive drug abuse, rampant homelessness, nationwide anarchy, deadly riots, a flood of immorality, dead churches, hundreds of Bible revisions, Lordship Salvation and an epidemic of indifference in the churches. How can we survive as a nation? ...

I thank God for the solid anchor of the unchanging inspired King James Bible! Hebrews 13:8, "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever."

1.4.44 Thankfulness Leads To Holiness (2020-06-27 00:25)

Romans 1:20-21, " For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,"

Every time we sit down and eat, we ought to thank God for our food. I never eat without thanking God for my meal. I audibly thank God if I am alone. If I am sitting alone in public, I silently in my heart thank God. If I'm with others, than I will audibly say, "Thank you God for this food!"

Doing so sanctifies our food and makes it a holy act. Never eat anything without thanking God, because many people don't have any food in this world. Hundreds of millions of people are still starving in the world today in 2020...

> "Around the world, 821 million people do not have enough of the food they need to live an active, healthy life. One in every nine people goes to bed hungry each night, including 20 million people currently at risk of famine in South Sudan, Somalia, Yemen and Nigeria." —[1]MercyCorps

Thankfulness leads to holiness. Our text passage from Romans 1:2-21 teaches that having an unthankful spirit leads to unholiness. All these young people rioting across America in May and June of 2020 is because they are a bunch of unthankful brats, destroying and burning the hard-earned businesses and property of other people, even shedding their innocent blood in some cases! There is a direct link between thanking God for the food you eat and drink, and holiness...

> Romans 14:6, " He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks. "

How's your walk with God dear friend? I can tell just by your level of thankfulness toward God in your life, what your spiritual CONDITION is. This is not one's POSITION in Christ, which is by faith alone. One's POSITION as God's redeemed child has nothing to do with obedience or gratitude as a believer. Ingratitude is more infectious than stage 4 cancer!

I had a Facebook "Friend" that I recently "U nfriended.

" I accepted him at first because he quoted a few Bible verses on his Timeline. But then he started sending me vulgar Facebook messages, incessantly using the "

F

” word (and I don’t mean fabulous). At first I was patient and told him I was praying for him. He then began to slander fundamental Baptist preachers. I still gave him some room to be human. He kept saying how much he hated life and wanted to kill himself. I told him that I loved him in Christ, and gave him a bunch of spiritual helps to guide him, to which he arrogantly replied with more Smart Alecky foul comments. I went to change his status from “Friend

“

Acquaintance,” to distance myself from his cancerous negativity, and mistakenly

Unfriended” him, but was glad I accidentally got rid of him, because he is infected with hatred, ingratitude and a bitter spirit toward God and man. I have to protect my spirit! Proverbs 4:23, “Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

I am not a perfect person, and I don’t claim to be a good Christian, but God knows that I have a very thankful heart. I am so blessed by God in so mnay ways. My wife divorced me in 2006. I lost my 3,500 square foot home as a consequence. I never saw my pets again, which I had loved for years. I never saw my home again, the judge wouldn’t allow me to return. I went from working on my website ministry one day, to never stepping into my home again the next day, literally. I lost my home to pay $64,000 in attorney’s fees, in a bitter lengthy divorce and legal nightmare that ensued.

I was severely rear-ended by a church bus in 1992, which led to Cervical Degenerative Disk Disease (stenosis and displaced disks in my neck) in 2004, with added radiculopathy (radiating pain in my arms and legs) due to a fall at work in 2005. I underwent two major neck surgeries in 2009 and 2010, without a wife or girlfriend, or even a family member by my side through it all. I bought two barbecues to commit suicide in 2009, but never followed through with it. I crawled into Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2013 for their spiritual help and desperately needed love and emotional support, but [2]then rejected me several months later because I befriended them with THE TRUTH. I told THE TRUTH that the modern Bible revisions are corrupted by Satan. I told THE TRUTH, which God will reward me for in eternity!!! God wants us to SPEAK UP, but the Devil wants us to SHUT UP!!!

I told THE TRUTH at the that [3]Lordship Salvation is a counterfeit gospel, and that Dr. John MacArthur is a false prophet! I had lost everything in my life by 2015!!! Yet, through it all (and my life is still a mess in 2020), I want to tell the world that GOD IS GOOD!!! God is so good and more than amazing! I am a redeemed, born-again, saved, blood-washed, child of God! My name is recorded in Heaven in the Lamb's Book of Life. I have eternal life dwelling in me, because I have Jesus as my personal Savior!!! I am so thankful to God for His salvation, assurance, love, food, blessings

, website ministry and the blessed indwelling Holy Spirit who comforts me continually. I LOVE JESUS!!!

I AM THANKFUL TO THE LORD FOR EVERYTHING.

1st Thessalonians 5:18, "

In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

" The Bible doesn't say to give thanks to God

FOR

everything, but

IN

" everything! I'm not thankful to God that I have constant neck pain, but I am thankful despite my neck pain. I am thankful that God uses my neck pain to humble me, and to bless my ministry. As with Paul's thorn in the flesh (which I think was poor eyesight), God uses my chronic neck pain to keep me humble, as he blesses my online ministry abundantly. I am thankful that I am not confined to a wheelchair. I am thankful that I have prescription pain medications to help alleviate my pain.

I am thankful that I have a roof over my head. I am thankful for the good food that I have, and for dark chocolate with caramel, and for cold fresh water to drink. I am thankful for my eyes, even though I need glasses to see sometimes. I am thankful for my mind, that I can think and write meaningful articles to influence others for Christ. I am thankful for thousands of things. God's blessings are innumerable!!! Yet, so many people choose to dwell upon what they don't have, and to complain, which is a horrible sin against God. God hates complaining!!! The Hebrews age 21 and older died in the Wilderness, because of the constant bellyaching to Moses and Aaron.

I dare not focus on the things I don’t have in life. I wish I had a wife. I hate living alone. I was in the local San Jose grocery store last night and overheard a young woman saying that she likes girls. I said, “ can I be your boyfriend?

I like girls too,

She said,

No, I like girls.

” This is a crazy and wicked sicko generation! Hopefully one day I’ll find a woman who likes men, and she’ll like me, and I’ll have someone to share my life with. It has been 14 long and lonely years since I was abandoned by my former wife, but God is with me and He keeps me going by faith. Jesus said in Mark 11:22, “

Have faith in God.

” We should all have ’THE GRATITUDE ATTITUDE.’ Whatever your spiritual dilemma may be, the best way to turn it around dear friend, is to start thanking God IN EVERY THING!!!

1.4.45 Pray Without Ceasing (2020-06-27 04:30)

1st Thessalonians 5:15-19, “See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men. Rejoice evermore. Pray without ceasing. In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. Quench not the Spirit."

There is not three more powerful words in all the inspired Word of God than: "

PRAY WITHOUT CEASING.

" God wants us to pray continually, as things and people come to our remembrance. Carefully notice that God sandwiches praying continually, between two verses about rejoicing and being thankful in all things. These things all go hand in hand. The Christian who doesn't rejoice, who doesn't have a thankful heart of gratitude toward God, won't pray either! So always be thankful for God's blessings in your life.

Always rejoice no matter what happens. PRAISE THE LORD ANYHOW!!! The Bible calls this a "sacrifice of praise." Hebrews 13:15, "

By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name.

" Anybody can praise God when things are going good; but it is a sacrifice to praise God when you just lost your job, your child died, you learned you have cancer, your wife divorced you, your husband ran off with another woman, you received an unexpected bill for thousands of dollars, et cetera. Brother Lester Roloff used to have a sign on his office desk that read: PRAISE GOD ANYHOW! That's exactly what it meant, offering up a sacrifice of praise

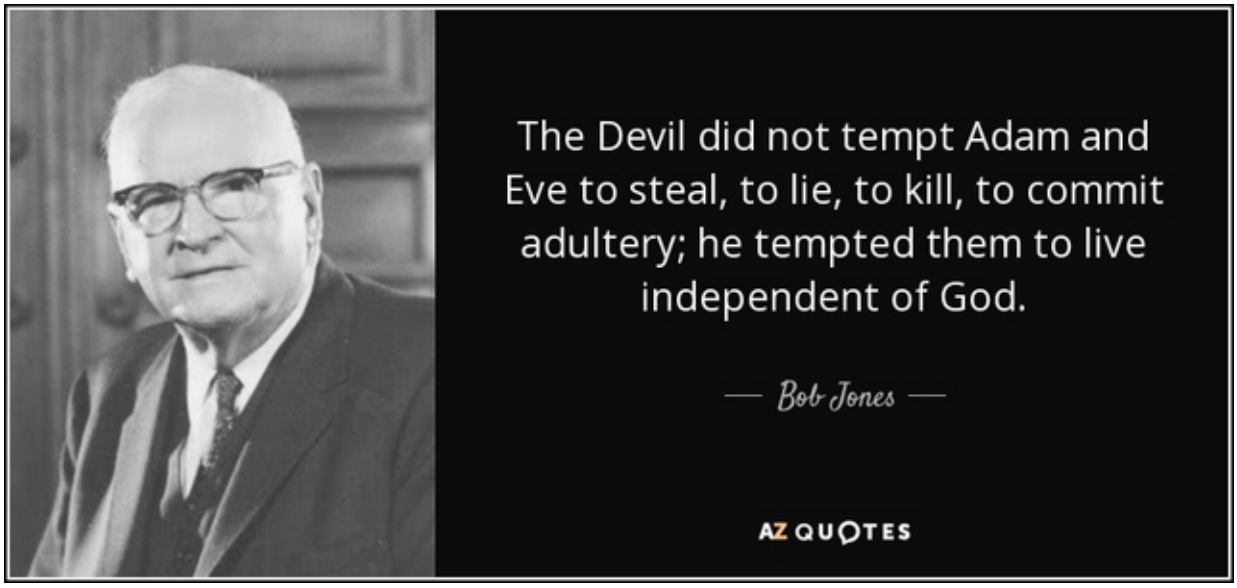
to God when things go wrong! REJOICE ALWAYS, AND AGAIN, I SAY REJOICE!!!

> "Prayer doesn't change things. That is wrong! Prayer touches God and then God changes things. The right type of prayer touches God." —A quote from the awesome sermon, "PREACHING THE POWER OF PRAYER," by Pastor Danny Castle

Some believers prefer to use prayer lists, which is fine.

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) encourages the use of prayer lists in his helpful book titled: "

[1]Exploring Prayer With Jack Hyles.



" The Bible does not mandate using prayer lists. It is optional. Dr. Hyles believed that Christians are less likely to pray as they ought, if they don't make a prayer list to follow. It is a personal preference. The important thing is to PRAY, PRAY, PRAY.

I humbly believe there are a few reasons why God told us to

"PRAY WITHOUT CEASING":

1. We're always thinking of people and situations, which necessitates praying as we think of them.
2. God wants us to live with a servant's heart, thinking of others (Philippians 2:3).
3. We should always depend upon the Lord, for without Him we can do nothing (John 15:5).
4. Not praying is pride. God wants us to humble ourselves (James 4:6).
5. God loves us and always hears a righteous man's prayers (1st Peter 3:12).

The Bible calls prayer "labor" in Colossians 4:12. God has promised to "reward" every saint's individual labors (1st Corinthians 3:8). Prayer is one of the ways that a believer can lay up treasures for yourselves in Heaven" (Matthew 6:19-20). So as we go about the routine of your day, let us remember to pray about the people and things that come to our mind. We should pray for our loved ones. Pray for our enemies. Pray for our pastors. Pray for our leaders. Pray for our ministries. Literally, the Holy Bible tells us to pray about "every thing" (Philippians 4:6). There is no power in prayer; but rather, God is all-powerful (omnipotent) and prayer is "asking" God for something. Prayer is not praise, thankfulness or worship; they are all different. Prayer must be asking God for something! Prayer is not preparation for the greater work, prayer is the greater work!

1.4.46 Did Pastor Harry Ironside Teach Lordship Salvation? (2020-06-27 11:30)

Romans 4:4-6, " Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,"

Someone recently wrote to me, suggesting that Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) taught Lordship Salvation. Dr. Ironside never turned toward a moderate Calvinist theology (as [1]Moody Bible Institute false claims). I have to concede that Pastor Ironside made some disturbing statements, as do nearly all preachers.

We must remember that Harry Ironside was only a mortal man, and his writings are not the authority. Only the inspired Word of God is our authority in all matters of life, faith and doctrine.

Here is Dr. Ironside's commentary on Luke 18:18-30 about the Rich Young Ruler, which one of my web visitors thought might indicate he taught Lordship Salvation. If you notice carefully in the following quote from Pastor Ironside, he plainly says that the young man didn't have to turn from his sins to be saved. Yet, Ironside says that Jesus was testing this young unsaved man, to see if he would let Jesus be the Lord of his life. By refusing to let Christ be his Lord, Dr. Ironside says it hindered him from getting saved...

> ...the Lord now put this young man to the test by saying, "Yet lackest thou one thing." Your life may be outwardly pure; it may be comparatively clean; in the eyes of your fellow-men you may be a very noble personage, but if you are living for self rather than for God, you are under the condemnation of the law. The Lord Jesus tested this young man in this way, "Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow Me." Did He mean that the way to obtain eternal life is by giving everything one possesses to the poor? Not at all; but He was testing this young man, who was egotistic and self-satisfied. Certainly there was nothing to be said against his moral character, but his life had been a selfish life; he had vast possessions; he had great riches, and men and women were living in poverty all about him; yet he continued to go on as he was and did not realize that God had entrusted him with this wealth that he might use it for Him. If God entrusts wealth to you, He makes you a steward, and you are to use your riches to the glory of God and to the blessing of mankind. If we fully surrender our lives and our possessions to the Lord Jesus we shall not be concerned about ourselves; we shall be concerned about the needs of others, and our one object will be to glorify the One who has redeemed us. So the test here is, will you let Christ be Lord of your life? We read that when the ruler heard these words he was very sorrowful, for he had great possessions, and he turned away. He did not meet the test which the Lord put to him. He refused the path of subjection to Christ. Many have taken the same course.
> It is not wrong to be rich, but it is a terrible thing if riches keep you out of heaven. God giveth us richly all things to enjoy, but it is a catastrophe if one becomes so occupied with earthly treasure that he misses the path of eternal life as this man did.

I don’t like the phraseology that Dr. Ironside used, but if you read all of his writings, and understand that he was 100 % free grace Gospel, then it becomes obvious that he’s simply saying Jesus wanted this young man to SUBMIT to him so he would get saved. I think Romans 10:3-4 sums up exactly what Pastor Ironside was trying to say. Romans 10:3-4, “For they being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

” This young rich man was attempting to merit his way to Heaven through keeping the law of God. Jesus used the law the way it was intended to be used, as a measuring-stick, by which when compared men fall woefully short and see their need for the Savior.

Did H.A. Ironside Teach Commitment Salvation?

by Pastor Bob Wilkin

One writer has recently suggested that H. A. Ironside’s view of repentance is the same as that of modern Commitment Salvation (i.e., Lordship Salvation) advocates (John F. MacArthur, Jr., The Gospel According to Jesus, p.160). The impression was given that Ironside taught Commitment Salvation.

This surprised me. I read Ironside’s work Except Ye Repent as part of my work on my doctoral dissertation. I concluded that he held to the change-of-mind view of repentance, not the turn-from-sins position.

Did Ironside indeed teach Commitment Salvation?

I went back and re-read Ironside.

Here is what I found.

Ironside did, on rare occasions, make statements which, if taken by themselves, could be taken to imply a mild form of Commitment Salvation. He said, for example:

> Shallow preaching that does not grapple with the terrible fact of man’s sinfulness and guilt, calling on "all men everywhere to repent," results in shallow conversions; and so we have myriads of glib-tongued professors today who give no evidence of regeneration whatever. Prating of salvation by grace, they manifest no grace in their lives. Loudly declaring they are justified by faith alone, they fail to remember that "faith without works is dead"; and that justification by works before men is not to be ignored as though it were in contradiction to justification by faith before God. (Except Ye Repent, [New York: Loizeaus Bros., 1937],p. 11)

I consulted the immediate and greater context and found that this quote does not prove that Ironside shared the Commitment Salvation view of repentance. The sentences cited are ambiguous as to exactly what Ironside meant. He could have meant that these conversions, though shallow, were real. However, even if he meant that they were false conversions as evidenced by a lack of works, that does not at all prove that he held to Commitment Salvation. We must look elsewhere to see what Ironside had to say on that subject.

In his book Full Assurance Ironside answers the question of whether we should look within ourselves for our assurance of salvation:

> Looking into your own heart for a ground of confidence is like casting the anchor in the hold of a ship. Cast it outside and let it go down into the great, tossing ocean of strife and trouble, until it grips the rock itself. Christ alone is the rock, and He is the manifestation of the infinite love of God for sinners. (Full Assurance, [Chicago: Moody Press, 1968, revised edition of the 1937 original, pp.120-21).

Are those the words of one promoting Commitment Salvation? Surely they are not.

When Ironside spoke of the need to "grapple with the terrible fact of man’s sinfulness and guilt," there is no reason to assume that he meant that unbelievers need to commit themselves to the Lordship of Christ and turn from their sins to be saved. Elsewhere he taught that one had to recognize his own sinfulness and need of grace (Except Ye Repent, pp. 11-12, 34), turn from all other confidences and place his faith solely in Jesus Christ (p. 175), and go from rejecting to accepting Jesus and His Gospel (pp.53, 174).

That is not the Commitment Salvation view of repentance.

Ironside actually taught a Free Grace view of the Gospel. He said:

> Repentance is the very opposite of meritorious experience. It is the confession that one is utterly without merit, and if he is ever saved at all it can only be through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ, "who gave himself a ransom for all." Here is firm footing for the soul who realizes that all self-effort is but sinking sand. Christ alone is the Rock of our salvation." (Except Ye Repent, p.36)

And again:

> If these pages fall into the hands of any anxious, troubled soul, desirous of finding the way of peace and earnestly seeking to be right with God, let me urge such a one to give up all struggling. Just believe God. Tell Him you are the sinner for whom the Saviour died, and trust in Christ alone for salvation. His own word is clear and simple: "Verily, verily I say unto you, he that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death into life" (John 5:24). (Except Ye Repent, p.189)

If one is not careful he can misrepresent an author by selectively quoting him. [One could even selectively quote a Commitment Salvation writer and make it appear that he held to Free Grace Salvation.] Such is the case here. It is misrepresenting him to suggest that Dr. Ironside taught Commitment/Lordship Salvation. He would be deeply grieved by such a suggestion. Let the record show that Dr. Ironside was a proponent of Free Grace Salvation and assurance based on our infallible Savior, not our fallible works.

The following beautiful quote from Dr. Ironside clearly evidences that he believed in a free grace view of the Gospel, and not the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation...

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past...

> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all." [emphasis added] —Pastor Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: '[4]What Is The Gospel?'

Read what Dr. Ironside said in his Gospel tract, ANOTHER GOSPEL? ...

> "When anyone comes promising salvation to those 'who make full surrender' of all that they have to God, and who 'pay the price of full salvation' he is preaching another gospel, for the price was paid on Calvary's cross and the work that saves is finished. It was Christ Jesus who made the full surrender when He yielded His life on Calvary that saves us, not our surrender in any way to Him."
>
> [emphasis added]
> —Pastor Harry A. Ironside, from the Gospel tract, ' [5]Another Gospel '

With all these truths in mind, it is obvious to me that regarding his commentary for Luke 18:18-30, Dr. Ironside was simply saying that money often hinders rich people from submitting to Christ's righteousness by faith. Salvation requires an act of submission to God's righteousness through faith. We read that in Romans 10:3. I think that is all Pastor Ironside meant. To claim more is to go against his many writings showing that he didn't believe in Calvinist, turning from sins, nor Lordship Salvation.

Moreover, Harry Ironside would be the first to admit that he is not the authority, the inspired Word of God is.

Psalms 118:8, "It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man." Jeremiah 17:5, "Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD."

1.4.47 Luciferians Are Behind The New World Order (2020-06-27 23:00)

Matthew 4:8-9, "Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me."

The following quote by retired Canadian Navy

Commander William Guy Carr (1895-1959) is very eye-opening. Most students who are truth seekers in these Last Days, have been misled to go down a wrong trail, as Commander Carr explains below. (Note that W.R.M. refers to the 'World Revolutionary Movement,' i.e., the Illuminati and everyone working along with their agenda to create World Government, aka, a New World Order). They are commonly called

“

Globalists

Those who direct the Luciferian conspiracy AT THE TOP have also encouraged and even financed anti-Semitism, and used it to serve their secret plans and diabolical ambitions. But they have also deceived Gentiles into serving their diabolical purposes in exactly the same way. It is utterly ludicrous to say the W.R.M. is a Jewish plot designed to give the Jews ultimate control of the world, because study of the Luciferian plot proves clearly that ALL forms of government and religion are to be destroyed in the final stage of the Luciferian conspiracy, so that when “No power or cunning can prevent us, we (the high priests of the Luciferian religion) shall crown our leader King-Despot of the entire world.”

According to the writings of those who have directed the Luciferian conspiracy, their purpose is to enslave ALL Lesser human beings absolutely, physically, mentally, and spiritually, and force them to accept the Luciferian ideology by application of Satanic despotism. This being a fact, those who claim that the W.R.M. is a Jewish, Roman Catholic, Communist, Nazi, Masonic, or any other kind of conspiracy, talk utter nonsense, because evidence in this book will PROVE HOW the conspirators intend to destroy all forms of government and religion.

As far as our investigations have gone, the evidence indicates that those who have directed the Luciferian conspiracy secretly, have always masqueraded as champions of another established religion. We have the Luciferian who headed the Jewish Sanhedrin during Christ’s mission on earth; we have Weishaupt, who taught Canon Law by which the Christian missionary efforts were governed in his day; we have Albert Pike-who was head of the Masonic religion (for Masonry is a religion), in his day, etc., etc. GOD.

Hence, the Jews are NOT the culprits behind the plot for a New World Order, they are '[3]Pawns In The Game' like everyone else playing along. If nothing else, please read the eye-opening [4]INTRODUCTION to pawns In The Game. You won't regret it! Nor is it the Freemasons who are solely responsible for the New World Order. Nor is it the Roman Catholic Jesuits who are solely behind it all. The Luciferian elite of this world remain anonymous in hiding, avoiding spotlight attention from the mainstream newsmedia which would plunder their greatest advantage over humanity, which is their anonymity. The Devil's greatest advantage over mankind has always been convincing the world that he doesn't really exist!!!

> Revelation 2:9, "I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan."

Revelation 17:18 identifies Israel as the WHORE in Revelation 17:3-5 as Israel, who shall be burned in Revelation 17:16, "And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire." This means the Gentile nations will trod down Jerusalem during the Tribulation.

The average Christian today is woefully ignorant of the truth of how this world works. Many believers foolishly think that sticking within the realm of Bible knowledge is sufficient enough; however, it is such woefully naive believers who rush hook, line and sinker into the Devil's New World Order system.

I know many Baptist pastors who wholeheartedly support apostate Israel today, completely failing to realize (which they would know if they studied history) that the Illuminati created modern Israel for the sole purpose of bringing about World War III (as foretold by Illuminist Albert Pike before his death in 1891). The plot for World Government was planned centuries ago, evidenced by Adam Weishaupt's Illuminati scheme as outlined to his group in 1775. It is not a mere coincidence that the American Revolutionary War followed.

Pastors ought to be exposing present-day Israel for the cruel hoax upon the world that it is! [5]Hosea 3:4-5 plainly evidences that God has not regathered Israel yet. Just as Abraham and Sarah sinfully took matters into their own hands, trying to force God to bless Ishmael instead of the son (Isaac) that God promised them; so also have Zionists today attempted to force Israel back into existence, but it is not God's timing. We know this because we are still living in the Times Of The Gentiles, in which Jerusalem shall be TRODDEN DOWN by the Gentiles until Christ returns after the 7-year Tribulation period. To elevate present-day unholy Jews and Marxist Israel as “The Master Race” is idolatry. So, please don’t be dumb by naively supporting the Devil’s New World Order!

By the way, now you understand why Satan has corrupted all of the modern Bible versions, so that he can destroy all existing religions. For the Antichrist to rise to ultimate power over the New World Order, all competition must be done away with. This is why all existing governments and religions must be destroyed. The average pastor today is woefully ignorant, irritatingly indifferent, and sinfully resentful of anyone who dares to enlighten him with THE TRUTH! I mainly wrote this article to focus upon the truth that the New World Order is not primarily Jewish, Catholic nor Masonic; but rather, all these complicity groups work together for the Luciferian elite who rule Satan’s kingdom of darkness. As the Bible teaches, our struggle is against THE RULERS OF THE DARKNESS OF THIS WORLD!!! Ephesians 6:12, “For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.” See: [6]Taylor Swift And Satanism!

[7]Occult Symbols Are Preparing The World For The Antichrist!

Our SEVEN spiritual weapons of war as listed in Ephesians 6:13-18 are: the Word of God, prayer, faith, salvation, righteousness, preaching the Gospel and truth!!! I am telling you THE TRUTH, and I have prayed for God to speak to your heart as you read this, and you can learn how to be saved at the bottom of this webpage, and I’m doing this because of my faith in God, et cetera. In other words, I am using the weapons as listed in Ephesians 6:13-18. Won’t you join me in fighting the good fight of faith against Satan’s forces of darkness? END

1.4.48 Death Is A Joyous Occasion For The Saint Of God (2020-06-28 02:21)

1st Thessalonians 4:13-17, "

But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

What a beautiful passage of Scripture! The inspired Word of God is teaching us as believers that death is not really death, and is an occasion to rejoice over for the Christian. When a loved one who has eternal life dies, they have simply changed their residency from earth to Heaven. 2nd Corinthians 5:8, “

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

” There is no such thing as

Soul Sleep.

The Bible says **“

to be absent from the body

to be present with the Lord.

” There will be no break in consciousness when we die, because we have the eternal life. We don’t HOPE one day to have eternal life; but rather, we have THE HOPE of eternal life!

Life is predictably unpredictable! We’ve all known someone close to us, who died at an early age. My little brother, Paul Solomon Stewart (1971-1974) died of heart failure. He was only two weeks shy of his third birthday. I was only 7 years old. I remember my father on his knees praying in a room in our home, crying and saying, “

Why God?

” Life is not fair, but God is always fair.

Luke 4:25-27, “But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow. And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.” Only one widow received food. The others all went hungry, starving to death. Only one leper was healed. The others all suffered and died of their dreadful disease of leprosy.

Why does our omnibenevolent (all loving), omniscient (all knowing), omnipotent (all powerful), omnisapient (all wise), and omnipresent (all present) God, let elderly people starve to death? Why does God allow lepers to suffer, not healing them when He could merely speak the word to heal them? The short and common theological answer is sin. Romans 5:12 teaches that when Adam sinned, he opened the floodgate of sin and DEATH upon the world. We all have to DIE a physical death at some point, because we are all SINNERS. No one can escape the physical DEATH. But thanks be to God, as the following Bible passage says, for the VICTORY THROUGH OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST!!! ...

1st Corinthians 15:55-57, "

O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

The **"

sting of death is sin

" the Bible says, because if you **"

DIE IN YOUR SINS

" without the Lord (John 8:24), you will spend eternity suffering in the fires of Hell (Romans 6:23; Revelation 20:12-15). Ah, but if you are a redeemed child of God, then you **"

DIE IN THE LORD.

Revelation 14:13, "And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

The Apostle Paul welcomed death, and so do I. Philippians 1:21,

For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

I thank God for every bite I eat. I thank God that I can care for myself. I thank God for my soulwinning website ministry. I thank God for His blessings in my life; despite all the loss, pain, afflictions, frustrations, loneliness and miseries I have endured. Albeit, I would love to leave this world and go home to be with my God and Savior. Until that time I am going to preach the Gospel, to win as many souls to Jesus Christ as possible! Here is a video of Pastor Curtis Hutson singing,

" [1]I'm On The Winning Side " at the 1994 Southwest Baptist Fellowship, while dying from prostate cancer (he died just months later). As born-again believers, we have the glorious hope of Heaven and a much better life!

The unsaved world has nothing to rejoice over when a loved one dies. My mother went to Heaven in 2001 and my father in 2010. I praise God they were saved! It is never easy to say goodbye to departed loves ones, especially if we don't get a chance to say goodbye. In 1st Thessalonians 4:14 we see the wonderful Gospel,

"F or if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. " That is so beautiful! That is the simplicity of salvation. Anyone who believes that Jesus died on the cross, was buried and raised up the third day from the dead is saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

There is absolutely no reason for any child of God to fear dying. I do not fear death, but I would prefer not to die in a traumatic manner. I was horrified when I learned [2]the tragic story of John Jones, a 26 year old married man with a daughter, who [3]got stuck hundreds of feet underground in a cave. John was upside down, trapped by his rib cage that locked against the rocks. Rescuers tried to pull him backwards, from a narrow passage of rock called "The Birth Canal" at the Nutty Putty Cave in Utah. I cried as I watched various documentaries about the tragedy. Despite their valiant efforts, over a hundred rescuers could not get to him under hundreds of feet of solid rock. What a frightening way to day, trapped in claustrophobia. While trapped, John said: "I really, really, want to get out of here!"

[4]John Jones died in the worst way imaginable, leaving behind a beautiful pregnant wife and daughter. Life is not fair! John was going to be a doctor. Sadly, John was a Mormon, which means he didn't go to Heaven according to the Bible. Kindly said, [5]Mormons have another Jesus, another gospel, and another spirit (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). That made the story sad indeed to learn about. If you have a loved one who has died, and they were saved, REJOICE with all your heart, because billions of people will spend eternity suffering in the torments of Hell. Mormonism requires turning from sins to get to Heaven, must like the proponents of Lordship Salvation errantly do, which is not the Gospel of free grace!

Psalms 116:15, " Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints." I often think of this Bible verse. It matters not if someone is old or young, rich or poor, famous or infamous, free or bond, faithful or unfaithful—the death of every saint is precious to God, because another one of His children is coming home!!! The Bible speaks of "THE FAMILY IN HEAVEN." Ephesians 3:14-15, "

For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

" For the born-again Christian, death simply means a homecoming! Jesus is precious!!!

1.4.49 Why The Rapture Is Not Christ's Second Coming (2020-06-28 11:00)

Titus 2:13, "Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;"

If you believe in a PREWRATH Rapture, you are LOOKING FOR THE ANTICHRIST!

There is a popular heresy today known as a "PreWrath Rapture." Effectively, this doctrine DENIES THE RAPTURE altogether! Respectfully, Pastor Steven Anderson of the Faithful Word Baptist Church in Tempe, Arizona, [1]sarcastically refutes the idea of "a secret Rapture." Sadly, Pastor Anderson DENIES THE RAPTURE DOCTRINE entirely, he states:

> "The Bible's real clear on what the coming of the Lord Jesus is—It is the Rapture! It is the trumpet sounding; It is us being caught up together with Him in the clouds. There are people out there who will tell you, that the Rapture and the Second Coming are two different things. We'll, either those people can't count; or they're basically just repeating what man has taught them instead of reading the Bible and seeing what God has taught them." —Pastor Steven Anderson; a quote from the YouTube video: "[2]The Rapture = The Second Coming" (an excerpt from 1 Corinthians 1)

I humbly disagree! I love Brother Anderson and support his ministry, family and him personally. I love the guy, but I think he is very wrong on this vital doctrine! I love a guy who has fire in his soul while preaching! Brother Hyles used to say: I'd rather see a guy with wild fire than no fire! Amen!

Our text Bible verse from Titus 2:13 commands every saint to LOOK FOR OUR SAVIOR'S APPEARING! Well if the antichrist must appear first, then why would we look for our Savior? There's nothing to look for! Why would I hope, wait and look for Jesus, when I know He cannot come? Kindly, p astor Anderson errantly believes that Christ's Second Coming IS THE RAPTURE, so he says:

> The Rapture simply cannot happen at any moment!"
> —Pastor Steven L. Anderson; '[3]After the Tribulation: The PreTribulation Rapture Fraud Exposed' (01:27:04 video)

If that be true, then what would be the purpose of LOOKING FOR THE GREAT GOD AND OUR SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST? If Jesus cannot return until the Man of Sin (The Antichrist) first comes, then perhaps we should be looking for the Man of Sin instead! Does that make any sense? For Titus 2:13 to make sense, Christ must return FIRST, which is the PreTribulation Rapture.

May I say, kindly, it makes absolutely no sense for the Rapture and the Second Coming to be the SAME event. Why would the saints be "CAUGHT UP" (1st Thessalonians 4:17b) into the air by the Lord, at the same time "the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, To execute judgment upon all" upon the earth (Jude 1:14-15a). Those two events conflict with one another. If these events are one and the same, then where does the Judgment Seat Of Christ fit in? When does the Marriage Supper Of The Lamb happen? If the inspired Holy Bible is taken at face value, you can only conclude a Pretribulation Rapture.

1st Corinthians 15:52, “In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.”

1.4.50 Beware Of The False Gospel Of Matthew Henry (2020-06-29 00:37)

Galatians 1:6-7, “ I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.”

I am saddened as I read online about preachers, both past and present, who are wrong on the Gospel. It is tragic that so many professed Christians today, particularly my own independent fundamental Baptist denomination, are indifferent toward heresy. I have met countless Baptist pastors who have a lackadaisical attitude toward heretics. Matthew Henry (1662-1714) is one of them! He was a non-conformist minister, who died at age 51. Matthew Henry is famous for writing the “Matthew Henry’s Commentary On The Whole Bible” (completed in 1706).

In his commentary, Matthew Henry heretically teaches that water baptism is necessary for salvation (aka, Baptismal Regeneration), and he also endorses the sinful practice of baptizing babies (aka, Infant Baptism)...

> The baptismal covenant, made and kept, will certainly save us. Washing is the visible sign; this is the thing signified.II. The apostle shows that the efficacy of baptism to salvation depends not upon the work done, but upon the resurrection of Christ, which supposes his death, and is the foundation of our faith and hope, to which we are rendered conformable by dying to sin, and rising again to holiness and newness of life. Learn, 1. the sacrament of baptism, rightly received, is a means and a pledge of salvation.Baptism now saveth us. God is pleased to convey his blessings to us in and by his ordinances, Acts. 2:38 Acts. 22:16 . 2. The external participation of baptism will save no man without an answerable good conscience and conversation. There must be the answer of a good conscience towards God.—Obj. Infants cannot make such an answer, and therefore ought not to be baptized.—Answer, the true circumcision was that of the heart and of the spirit (Rom. 2:29), which children were no more capable of then than our infants are capable of making this answer now; yet they were allowed circumcision at eight days old. The infants of the Christian church therefore may be admitted to the ordinance with as much reason as the infants of the Jewish, unless they are barred from it by some express prohibition of Christ. [emphasis added]

https://www.biblestudytools.com/commentaries/matthew-henry-complete/1-peter/3.html

Pastor Henry also gets John chapter three wrong, teaching that water baptism is alluded to by Jesus for salvation. Matthew Henry was an unsaved reprobate, a religious man that was never born-again. No one who thinks water baptism is necessary to get to Heaven is saved, because they clearly don't understand THE GOSPEL...

> The regenerating work of the Spirit is compared to water, v. 5. To be born again is to be born of water and of the Spirit, that is, of the Spirit working like water, as (Mt. 3:11) with the Holy Ghost and with fire means with the Holy Ghost as with fire. 1. That which is primarily intended here is to show that the Spirit, in sanctifying a soul, (1.) Cleanses and purifies it as water, takes away its filth, by which it was unfit for the kingdom of God. It is the washing of regeneration, Tit. 3:5 . You are washed, 1 Co. 6:11 . See Eze. 36:25 . (2.) Cools and refreshes it, as water does the hunted hart and the weary traveller. The Spirit is compared to water, ch. 7:38, ch. 7:39 ; Isa. 44:3 . In the first creation, the fruits of heaven were born of water (Gen. 1:20), in allusion to which, perhaps, they that are born from above are said to be born of water. It is probable that Christ had an eye to the ordinance of baptism, which John had used and he himself had begun to use, "You must be born again of the Spirit," which regeneration by the Spirit should be signified by washing with water, as the visible sign of that spiritual grace: not that all they, and they only, that are baptized, are saved; but without that new birth which is wrought by the Spirit, and signified by baptism, none shall be looked upon as the protected privileged subjects of the kingdom of heaven. [emphasis added]

https://www.biblestudytools.com/commentaries/matthew-henry-complete/john/3.html

That is junk theology! Water baptism is one's public profession of faith, not the signifying validation of one's saving-faith in Christ! Jesus was NOT alluding to the ordinance of baptism, which is made very clear in the next couple verses:

John 3:5-6, “

Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

That which is born of the flesh is flesh*; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

Jesus is comparing the physical birth by water, with the spiritual birth in the Holy Spirit. A child develops and is carried for 9 months in its mother’s Water Bag. Until a child is born, it lives in water. Jesus plainly refers to this physical birth in water as “THE FLESH.” That which is born of THE FLESH is FLESH! This is what the Lord meant by “

WATER

” in this Scripture passage, and not water baptism. There is not even the slightest indication that “

Christ had an eye to the

of baptism, as Matthew Henry falsely claims! The Lord is simply contrasting the first birth by the FLESH, to the second birth by the SPIRIT. I don’s see how anyone could conclude any other interpretation, unless they held ideas that were influenced by religious predispositions.

Dear reader, I challenge you to be objective when reading the opinions of any human being. Only the inspired incorruptible Word of God is without error! You can completely trust your inspired King James Bible!!! I am not saying that Matthew Henry wasn’t a brilliant man. Clearly, he was a highly educated man, and a highly respected theologian among his ecclesiastical peers of the day. Unfortunately, Henry wasn’t very learned in THE TRUTH! Bible commentaries often do a more harm than good, corrupting men’s minds from the simplicity that is in Christ!

A demon’s favorite activity is making unsaved religious people feel comfortable. Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever getting born again. Religion cannot save you. You cannot save yourself. Baptism cannot save you. Good deeds cannot save you. Church membership cannot save you. Only faith in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ, apart from all human effort, can save someone! Christ died on the cross for our sins. He was buried. Three days later He resurrected physically from the dead, and was seen by over 500 believers at one time (1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

Nowhere are we commanded in the Scripture to get water baptized to complete, validate, facilitate, nor accommodate our faith unto salvation. Adding anything to faith alone is another gospel. Our text passage from Galatians 1:7-8 warns that God's curse is upon anyone who preaches "

ANOTHER GOSPEL.

" Getting baptized feels religious! Turning from one's sinful ways feels religious! Following Jesus as your Lord feels religious! Yet, none of these things is what God requires of a person to be saved. Eternal life is the free gift of almighty God (Romans 5:15-18; 6:23), freely given in response to one's childlike faith in the blessed Savior. Believe dear friend, and you will immediately become a a child of God. Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. "

1.4.51 The Folly Of Turning From Sins To Be Saved (2020-06-29 04:50)

Mark 10:17-21, " And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life? And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God. Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother. And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth. Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me."

Our text passage is about "

The Rich Young Ruler And Jesus.

" This young man came to Jesus, literally running after Him. The young man kneeled before the Lord, recognizing Him as Good Master, but not God and Savior. That is why in this particular passage the Bible doesn't say he worshipped Jesus, as in most other passages (cf. Matthew 8:2). The young man was wealthy. Since his youth he had tried to keep the deeds of the law of God. Now he comes to Jesus, asking: "What shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?"

Many preachers interpret this passage wrongly, saying that Jesus was telling the young man to forsake his sins to be saved. Literally, that is what Billy Graham, Ray Comfort and John MacArthur all errantly teach concerning this passage. Jesus wasn't giving this young man a plan of salvation; but rather, He was using the law as it was intended to be used, as a measuring stick to compare one's self to (

. The law shows humanity that we are guilty sinners, incapable of saving ourselves, in need of the sinless Savior (Galatians 3:24-26). The young man was stuck on the law, bragging that he had kept all God's commandments since his youth. Jesus reminds him that he is still covetous

, and in fact HASN'T perfectly kept the law. In great sorrow the young man left, because he owned many riches, and Jesus told him to sell all that he possessed, and give it to the poor.

Let’s imagine for a moment shall we? What would Ray Comfort have advised that young man? How would Ray have answered the same question: “What shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?” We don’t have to guess, here are Mr. Comfort’s own words:

> “So man, think about that. this is your eternity, you don’t know when you’re going to die. You know, God offers you everlasting life as a free gift, if you’ll let go of your sins. And we love to fornicate, we love pornography, we love our lust; but like a kid holding onto a stick of dynamite, not realizing that it will be the death of us! So think about that. Think how much you value your eyes, and think about how much you value your life. Jesus said, ’What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul.” —[1]Evangelist Ray Comfort, YouTube video titled: “[2]Ray Comfort Doesn’t Share the Gospel with Him...” (video posted on May 31, 2020)

This exposes Evangelist Ray Comfort’s counterfeit gospel. According to the Bible, you must be absolutely 100 % perfect to enter into Heaven. Ray Comfort teaches that to be saved you must forsake (let go) of a lifestyle of sin. We can only logically conclude that Ray would have told the rich young ruler to forsake all his wealth. But wait a big minute! Ray Comfort’s Living Waters ministry took in [3] $3,314,483 in 2018 , with Ray Comfort as the CEO paying himself a staggering $131,106. At what point does one’s personal wealth become the sin of covetousness? Ken Ham is another religious Snake-oil salesman, [4]who took in $34,739,452 in 2018, paying himself a sickening $234,754. These are ungodly religious conmen who exploit Christianity to make a buck! They both teach the damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation, just like John MacArthur, who has a net worth of $14,000,000. These hypocrites tell everybody to “

FORSAKE YOUR SINS

to be saved, while they define the sin of covetousness

!!! The Bible warns saints in 1st Timothy 6:10 against THE LOVE OF MONEY!

There is no commandment from God in the Bible to “turn from your sins” or or “let go of your sins” regarding salvation. Folks, it is simply not possible! God’s requirement to get to Heaven is total perfection! Adding human effort perverts the Gospel into

“repent of your sins”

(Galatians 1:6-9). Even the best Christian is still a horrible sinner! You may live above reproach, but NO ONE can live above sin! No one!!!

1st Timothy 5:24, " Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after." Please don't miss that important Bible verse! Everyone is a woeful sinner, the only difference is some men's sins are OPEN BEFOREHAND, and other men's sins FOLLOW AFTER them to eternity to the Judgment Seat Of Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11; 1st Corinthians 3:11-15; 1st Thessalonians 4:6; Romans 14:10-12).

In 1st John 1:8, the Apostle John said,

"If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. " If a Christian must make an effort to forsake their sinning, then how can we ever really know that we are saved? How can we know if we've done enough to please God? At one level of sinning are we in danger of not being saved anymore, or proving that we never were saved? According to heretic Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014), you cannot KNOW you are truly saved until you finally cross the finish-line in Heaven. That is a counterfeit gospel of works! Pettit states:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL . And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[5]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 11:34)

I have received countless emails from people who were emotionally devastated, incessantly worried and confused, afraid of going to Hell because they could not forsake their sinning. They even mention that Ray Comfort, Paul Washer and John MacArthur did this to them! God's curse is upon the Steve Pettits of this world, who ROB people of their faith as Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) warned:

Now wait a minute, you've got something worth contending for! Isn't it strange that something so valuable and so wonderful as saving faith is something we that have to be exhorted to contend for? Why, if you had a diamond worth $5,000 you wouldn't leave it just lying around anywhere. If you had $1,000,000 in gold, you'd go put it in a vault. [If] Anybody tried to get it, you'd fight to keep them from gettin' it. And we just sit down and just let people steal the faith that Christians have, and never bother about it. Some of us pay 'em to do that! Some of us pay preachers to stand in the pulpit and steal the faith of the saints of God, and send our children to Hell. The most crooked crook on God Almighty's earth is a preacher who stands in a Trinitarian pulpit, and steals the faith of people!

You know I've said it many a time; if I was up in Heaven, fifty years from now (and the Lord tarried), and any religious liberal ever sat in a classroom in this institution, and tried to disseminate his infidelity, I'd ask God Almighty to excuse me for a little while, and I'd come back down to this school and get a stick of dynamite, and I'd blow it into smithereens! I'd rather see this school a heap of rubbish, just a little rubbish here and a little rubbish yonder, than see the time ever come we could be such softies, we'll sit down and let the Devil put his modernists and religious liberals in here to rob them of the faith. And yet that things going on in America, from one end of this country to the other!" —Dr. Bob Jones Sr.; [6]YouTube | [7]MP4 | [8]MP3

As you just read, Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said he would rather see Bob Jones University (BJU) destroyed, than to let modernists and religious liberals (like Steve Pettit) corrupt one student with infidelity that robs them of their faith! Professed Christians nowadays are so deceived by the Devil, that they even pay infidels to destroy the faith of young people in the Word of God and the Gospel of free grace! Bob Jones University sells, sanctions and uses multiple Bible revisions! They sanction the Devil's corrupt Alexandrian manuscripts! BJU horribly betrays the inspired Word of God. Sadly, Bob Jones University has been going downhill in spiritual deterioration for decades, hobnobbing with ungodly neo-evangelicals. T hey've been infected with ecumenism, Lordship Salvation, Calvinism, John MacArthur and corruptible seed at Bob Jones University!

It is impossible to fully turn from your sins, or to turn from sinning. The Gospel has nothing to do with "turning from your sins" to be saved. Eternal life is the free gift of God, paid for by Jesus' precious blood. The Gospel is placing your faith in Jesus Christ alone, for what He did for you on the cross—He died for your sins and mine, and did what you cannot do for yourself. Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt we could not pay. If we died for our sins, we would end up in Hell forever. Jesus was buried, and three days later He physically resurrected from the dead for our justification (i.e., for the justification of our faith in Him as our Savior).

The Rich Young Ruler's problem was that he was self-righteous. The solution wasn't (as Ray Comfort teaches) for him to "forsake his sins"; but rather, to forsake his "DEAD WORKS" (Hebrews 6:1) and rest completely in the finished work of Jesus Christ! Hebrews 4:9-11, "

There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief. " You get saved simply by ceasing from your own efforts, and trusting what Christ did to pay for your sins through the cross of Calvary. Simply rest wholly in Jesus' name!

1.4.52 A Believer Won't Always Show Fruit of Salvation (2020-06-29 11:30)

Galatians 3:2-3, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? "

The apostle Paul wrote to the church at Galatia, frustrated and astonished (Galatians 1:6-9) that they had been deceived by another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. Paul only wanted to know one thing in Galatians 3:2—How did you get saved? Paul wanted to know how they were indwelt by the Holy Spirit (which every believer has - Romans 8:9). Paul asked them—Did you get saved by doing works?, or did you get saved by believing the Gospel when you heard it preached? Works or grace? It's as simple as that. What most false teachers will tell you is that salvation is by grace, but you still have to have works to prove you're really saved! That is of the Devil folks. You are saved on the basis of God's grace alone, and nothing else is required to obtain, maintain or prove you're saved!!!

The following is a very helpful article defending salvation by grace, authored by Pastor Matt Costella. The article is titled: "[1]THE REALITY OF A BELIEVER'S WAYWARD WALK." This quote is from from 'Foundation' magazine, Issue 3, 2019:

The teaching that a true believer will always show visible fruit in his or her life or that no such thing as a carnal Christian (or lukewarm Christian) exists is completely contrary to Scripture, and yet this teaching seems to be increasingly prominent among evangelical and fundamentalist Christians. Many believers today have a desire to judge the reality of their own salvation or that of others on the basis of their outward walk and witness—or lack thereof. Yet the idea that a believer needs to examine his actions (or others') to determine whether or not one is truly saved is unscriptural. The implication of this kind of theology is that salvation is only genuine through saving faith plus certain subsequent works or behavior—visible actions that can be quantified and observed by others. Those who embrace this teaching either ignore or reject the reality of positional/progressive/perfective sanctification.

The Word of God is unequivocal with regard to justification: A sinner is justified solely through the grace (unmerited favor) of God as one recognizes his sinfulness and inability to save himself and trusts in the person and work of Jesus Christ alone for his eternal salvation. This is not "easy believism"—this is saving faith. In other words, an individual repents (i.e. changes his mind concerning his lost state and ability to save himself) and places his faith (trust) in the person and cross-work of Jesus Christ alone to save him. While justification is a one-time event, Christian growth (progressive sanctification) is a life-long process that is unique to every individual. We see this reality throughout the Scriptures. ...

In the New Testament, one can find the same sad reality in the church—those who are truly part of the body of Christ through faith alone in the person and work of Jesus Christ but who often go their own way and live for "self" rather than for their Savior. First Corinthians 2:14-3:3 describes three categories of people:

While the natural man is totally incapable of walking with God, the justified believer who has trusted Jesus Christ as his Savior can choose to walk according to the Spirit (the spiritual believer) or according to the flesh (the carnal believer). Should a Christian choose to walk according to the desires of the flesh, then he will fail to bear the fruit of the Spirit and will, instead, bear the fruit of the flesh. This individual is described as one who is "grieving" (Eph. 4:30) or "quenching" (1 Thess. 5:19) the indwelling Holy Spirit—something only a true Christian could do. Yes, it is wholly possible for a believer to grieve and quench the Holy Spirit through his errant beliefs or behavior.

The Natural Man—an individual who does not have the Spirit of God within. In other words, this person is "unsaved" or "unregenerate." He cannot understand the Word of God due to his lack of the indwelling Holy Spirit, and no "good works" are truly "good" as they are motivated by altruism rather than God's glory and, in reality, are nothing more than "filthy rags" that he tries to pass off as "righteousness" (Isa. 64:6).

The Spiritual Man—a believer who possesses the Holy Spirit and is yielding to the Spirit rather than to the flesh. This individual is "abiding in Christ" and is truly walking as a disciple (follower) of Christ. As he is enjoying fellowship with the Lord, the Holy Spirit produces the fruit of the Spirit in his life for God's glory.

The Carnal Man—a believer who possesses the indwelling Holy Spirit but is choosing to live according to the desires and dictates of the flesh rather than the Spirit. Failing to abide in Christ, this individual is more concerned with "self" (in an ungodly, worldly sense or even in a pious, self-righteous sense—either way, his focus is inward rather than God-ward).

Just because the Bible teaches that it is possible for a believer to live in carnality does not mean this behavior is acceptable to God. What is Paul's answer to this? "Should we continue in sin that grace may abound. God forbid!" The answer to the quandary of the wayward believer is not to deny the reality of a carnal Christian or deny the reality of eternal security. The answer is to “know … reckon … yield” (Rom. 6)—to know who we now are in Christ, to reckon ourselves dead to sin and alive to God, and to yield ourselves to the control of the Holy Spirit. In other words, we are to seek to grow and mature in the Christian life and move forward rather than continually questioning the assurance of our salvation due to a focus that is stuck on self rather than on Jesus Christ and His perfect work.

God’s Word is unequivocal concerning the serious consequences of a wayward walk (a carnal lifestyle). The carnal Christian will experience a lack of fellowship with the Savior, the chastening hand of God, and an incalculable loss of reward at the Judgment Seat of Christ. The apostle Paul says that at the Judgment Seat a believer can even claim to have done a variety of good works, but if they were accomplished apart from the Spirit’s enabling (through self-effort) or for the wrong reasons, then such works will be burned up. “If any man’s work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss” (1 Cor. 3:15a). Nevertheless, the carnal-but-justified saint is still saved: “But he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire” (1 Cor. 3:15b). He adds in 2 Corinthians 5:10: “For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.” Interestingly, the primary Scripture texts detailing the Judgment Seat of Christ were written to the carnal Corinthian saints.

It is vitally important for all believers to continually examine themselves to see whether they are abiding in Christ or, conversely, walking according to the flesh. Again, the apostle Paul instructs the Corinthian saints, “Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?” (2 Cor. 13:5). He adds, “And this also we wish, even your perfection” (2 Cor. 13:9). Paul did not question the salvation of these carnal Christians; rather, he encouraged them to personally and honestly determine whether or not their walk was consistent with their profession of faith. Had these Corinthians tried to verify their salvation according to their works or behavior, likely not one of them could have claimed to be saved. Rather, those who had trusted in Jesus Christ alone for salvation were to move on to “perfection,” or spiritual maturity. Because “Jesus Christ is in [them]” (2 Cor. 13:5), they needed to abide in Him and allow the Holy Spirit to produce His fruit in their lives.

It is unbiblical to assert that a believer should look at his or her life in order to determine whether or not one is truly saved. The one and only “test” that determines whether one has been justified before God is this: Have I trusted in Jesus Christ alone, who died for my sin and rose again, to be my Savior? The focus is not upon what we do for God but on what He did for us.

The bottom line is this: The child of God may or may not be walking in proper fellowship with God. Keep in mind—the whole purpose of the New Testament epistles is to lay down correct doctrine that is intended to lead to correct behavior. The problem is that all believers continue to struggle with the flesh, and we will have this battle until we receive our glorified bodies. Even the apostle Paul wrestled with the flesh and concluded that victory comes only through the indwelling Holy Spirit as the believer yields himself to the Spirit’s control (Rom. 7:15-8:1).

So often, believers want to judge their salvation (or another’s) based upon what they can—or cannot—visibly see. Let us focus on declaring the one, pure gospel and refrain from being the “judge and jury” as to another individual’s relationship with the Lord. Let us be careful not to devise a “works” theology of salvation—a false gospel that makes behavior, works, or “lordship” the litmus test for salvation—in an effort to address the problem of carnal Christians. Rather, let us boldly continue to proclaim the glorious gospel of grace. Likewise, let us stress the importance of spiritual growth and the biblical consequences of carnal living as we, with all longsuffering, endeavor to help and disciple wayward believers who are struggling with the desires of the flesh. And finally, “let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for He is faithful that promised;)” (Heb. 10:23)—praise God, He is faithful, even when we are not!

1.4.53 Swim At Your Own Risk (2020-06-30 04:52)

Proverbs 14:12, " There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death."

Guam is surrounded by beaches, nearly all of which have no lifeguard on duty. So instead you'll see signs posted that read, "SWIM AT YOUR OWN RISK!" Every year at least a dozen people drown in the ocean waters around Guam. Surprisingly, a few fishermen die each year, who grew up on Guam. The ocean can be unpredictable!

I was thinking today about all the false prophets on the internet, particularly YouTube. Anybody and their dog can start a YouTube channel, and I welcome it if you are learned in the Scripture. Unfortunately, we've got heretics like Robert Breaker who teach that people were saved by works in the Old Testament under Mosaic law. You've got heretics like Renee Roland who deny the existence of an eternal burning Lake of Fire. Literally, these two individuals have thousands of fans on YouTube, both corrupt in their theology. I say that kindly, but truthfully. Right doctrine matters!

People literally get angry in defense of Renee, claiming that “she is preaching the Gospel.” Hey, she’s a false teacher who denies the reality of eternal damnation in a burning Hell. She is corrupt! Anyone who denies the existence and justly deserved penalty of everlasting damnation is messed up in their mind! I’ve read numerous comments where her fans say “Hell is not a fundamental doctrine” of the Christian faith. You’ve got a hole in your head fella! Of course Hell is a fundamental doctrine of the faith. What do you think God saves us from?

I was eternally saved at age 13. I have never once in my lifetime questioned whether or not I deserve to burn in Hell forever, because that is what the inspired Word of God teaches (Romans 6:23; Revelation 21:8; 20:11-15). Something is very wrong with a professed Christian who doesn’t think anyone deserves to burn in Hell forever! Swim at your own risk on YouTube folks! Just because someone has a YouTube channel doesn’t mean you should follow them! Perhaps someone defends Renee, making the excuse that, “I f men would preach nowadays, then women wouldn’t have to!

Well, that is a lame excuse, because MEN ARE PREACHING THE TRUTH! You’ve got Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold preaching on YouTube! You’ve got Pastor Danny Castle preaching on YouTube! You’ve got sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles, Dr. Bob Gray Sr., Brother Lester Roloff and countless other excellent fundamental Bible preachers online!

So why do people end up at Joe Peabody’s YouTube channel? It is because people don’t want to hear the truth from a pastor, they want to hear a rebellious woman preacher instead. They want to hear some guy who has a chalkboard and some markers, who wrestles the Bible and falsely predicted the Rapture three years in a row. I’m talking about Robert Breaker! It doesn’t matter what I say, because you’re going to do what you want anyway, but you are SWIMMING AT YOUR OWN RISK! I wouldn’t listen to anything Renee Roland has to say, because she denies the reality of Hell. She is very clever and deceitful. She openly defends herself by claiming that she doesn’t deny the existence of Hell, but then claims that based on her understanding of the Bible that Hell doesn’t exist. Say what?

I have read hundreds of comments from Miss Roland's YouTube followers, and many of them saying things like: "I also have thought about these things, and I don't believe God would punish somebody in Hell forever either!" Despite what Renee claims, she has an army of Hell-deniers following her on YouTube. Folks, why would you need a Savior if there is no eternal punishment in Hell? If we all die and cease to exist someday, that is not anything to be feared. I am not trying to be unkind, I am simply warning everybody not to follow these heretics on YouTube. I highly encourage you to listen to a real man of God, like [1]Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold, who has been saved since 1960.

[2]Here are Dr. Arnold's daily radio programs, which I cherish! If you are going to spend precious time listening to someone preach the Word of God, why not listen to THE BEST? Do you like eating out of the spiritual dumpster on YouTube? Do you like Robert Breaker's moldy theology? Do you enjoy eating Renee Roland's maggot-infested meals? I am tired of hearing people defend people like Renee, saying that she preaches the Gospel. Well, so does Pastor Danny Castle, but he believes in a literal place called Hell, so why don't you listen to him instead. That is all I am saying. My heart desire's for my web visitors, is for you to stop listening to well-meaning wannabe theologians who butcher the Bible. I'll be honest, much of the stuff I preach I get from Pastor Danny Castle, Dr. Jack Hyles, Pastor Yankee Arnold, Pastor Jeff Owens, Dr. Bob Gray Sr., Evangelist Lester Roloff and other dear saints of God. Right doctrine matters! I mean, why eat toxic artificial sweetener when you can eat real sugar cane?

Now having said all that, I am a hypocrite of the worst sort, because I promote Pastor Steven Anderson, who teaches that Jesus burned in Hell for three days, which is blatant heresy. The Savior plainly told the repentant thief on the cross, "To day shalt thou be with me in paradise" (Luke 23:43). Unless you think "paradise" is a place of fire and damnation, we have a big conflict here. I love Brother Anderson, and I have learned much Bible from him, but I strongly disagree with him on a few minor issues. I am a firm believer in a pretribulation Rapture, but Pastor Anderson teaches that Jesus' Second Coming is the Rapture. I find it difficult to accept that ANY preacher could follow that line of thinking.

I also disagree with Pastor Anderson that praying a prayer is the Biblical "method" to be saved.

That is simply untrue.

Brother Anderson is correct on the Gospel, he just thinks that prayer is the Bible way to come to Christ. I did hear him say that a person CAN be saved without praying a prayer. So that is important to point out. I totally disagree with the assertion that prayer was the Bible method of getting saved. It was that unbiblical requirement that confused me for seven miserable years, after I got saved at age 13. Had I know that believing in my soul was all that was required, it would have spared me much pain and grief of spirit, wondering if I didn’t pray right. I believed that Christ died for my sins, was buried, and resurrected three days later. I fully believed all that. I just thought the way you came to Christ was by praying. So to hear Pastor Anderson teach that heresy breaks my heart. I love something that I read by Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968)...

> “’Pray to be saved. Ask the Lord to save you.’ This is what I heard a minister say to a convicted sinner who came forward for prayer at the close of an evangelistic service. Nowhere in the Bible are men told to pray to be saved. There are examples where men did pray and were saved. Men are told to repent, to believe, to obey the Gospel, but the Bible never says to pray for salvation. It does say that whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved, but nowhere does the Bible command men to pray to be saved. I think I know why, God, who made the human heart, knew that it was not necessary to tell convicted sinners to pray. If a sinner can see Jesus Christ on the cross, it is as natural for him to pray as it is for birds to sing or flowers to bloom. ’Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved.”’ —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., “Comments On Here And Hereafter,” chapter: Prayer And Praise, page 163; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

elieving the Gospel from the heart is the “method” taught in the Gospel of John and Romans 10:9-10.

I also respectfully disagree with Brother Anderson concerning a young earth. I believe the earth is billions of years old, even though human civilization has only been here for 6,000 years, since God remodeled the world in the 6 days of creation. No two preachers agree on everything, so I speak with caution and love. I simply wrote this article to warn my web visitors against following somebody just because they seem to be correct on the Gospel. If someone like Renee Roland denies the existence of Hell, I would avoid them. Ultimately you have to SWIM AT YOUR OWN RISK!!! Be careful where you enter into the water, because you may not come out!!!

Matthew 4:11, " And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. "

1.4.54 Why Aren't More People Scared About Eternity? (2020-06-30 10:30)

Matthew 7:22-23, " Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

I read today on Google that there are approximately 4,200 different religions in this world. Do you know how many of them can get you to Heaven? NONE! Salvation is not found in any religion; but rather, in a person—the Lord Jesus Christ! Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world! What saith the Scripture? John 14:6, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. " I marvel that most people have no worry, fear or concern about the afterlife. They choose different religions like they would a brand of refrigerators, fashionable clothing or an automobile. Right doctrine matters! To make matters even more confusing, according to the American Bible Society there are now approximately 900 English Bible versions (in part and whole). So many Bibles! So many religions! What utter confusion, just the way Satan intended for it to be!!!

Lordship Salvation Versus The Simplicity That Is In Christ

I marvel that so many professed Christians today are [1]woefully lackadaisical about which Bible they use. I marvel at the woeful indifference of so many professed Christians today, especially Bible college graduates, toward the accuracy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. False prophets like [2]Dr. John MacArthur horrible pervert the Gospel, teaching that a person must pay the price of fully surrendering their life to Christ. Mr. MacArthur heretically states:

> "Don't believe anyone who says it's easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God's Son His life, and it'll cost you the same thing..." [emphasis added]—Dr. John MacArthur, Grace To You, an updated quote from his book 'Hard To Believe', page 93.

Now read what Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951) said in his Gospel tract titled: "ANOTHER GOSPEL?":

> "When anyone comes promising salvation to those 'who make full surrender' of all that they have to God, and who 'pay the price of full salvation' he is preaching another gospel, for the price was paid on Calvary's cross and the work that saves is finished. It was Christ Jesus who made the full surrender when He yielded His life on Calvary that saves us, not our surrender in any way to Him." —Harry A. Ironside, from the Gospel tract, '[3]Another Gospel'

That is the exact opposite of what what John MacArthur teaches. These men cannot both be right about salvation! Either a person must pay the price for salvation, or it is a free gift and you don't have to pay for it! Mr. MacArthur teaches it will COST YOU your life. Brother

Harry Ironside said it WON'T COST YOU anything, because it is a gift. The teaching of Harry Ironside aligns with inspired Word of God, but John MacArthur do not! You cannot support both men; not unless you're not paying attention to their doctrine, or simply are indifferent and don't care either way. If the latter be the case, I am worried about your salvation friend. Right doctrine matters, because a man who is wrong on repentance is wrong on the Gospel, which cannot produce the second birth in Christ Jesus. You don't get God's grace unless you freely receive His gift on the sole basis of what Jesus Christ did to pay for your sins on the cross!

You Should Be Scared If You're Not Born Again

It is disturbing that more people aren't scared to death nowadays about where they will spend eternity. I remember reading that actor Jackie Gleason (aka, "The Great One") in the early days of television, was worried toward his death about the afterlife. He wondered where he'd spend eternity. I so very much wish I could have talked with him as a true friend. I am here for you web visitor. You don't have to go to Hell. I want to answer your questions, by God's grace, with the inspired Word of God. The last years of Jackie Gleason's (1916-1987) life were spent searching for answers. Tragically, [4]I don't think he ever found Jesus Christ, but I don't know.

In 1984, Mr. Gleason stated in an interview with "60-Minutes," when asked what he thought about going to Heaven:

> "I'm sure that if you've committed a sin He's not going to send you to Hell for eternity." –Actor Jackie Gleason, '60-Minutes' interview, 1984

Kindly, that tells me Mr. Gleason was not saved in 1984. James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all." I'm sorry to say that Mr. Gleason likely went to Hell in 1987, if he died in his sins without the wonderful Savior Jesus Christ. Yes, dear reader, committing even one sin will send you to Hell forever!

I sincerely doubt if Gleason ever got saved. He died in 1987. I constantly thank God for not only my salvation, but for the 100 % complete confidence that I am positively saved. I know because I have God's Word on it (Romans 10:13; John 3:16; 6:47; 11:25). Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15-18). All I had to do to get God's gift (at age 13) was to simply believe on the name of Jesus Christ, trusting what He did to pay for my sins on the cross. Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

1.5.1 The Gospel Is All About God's Love (2020-07-01 00:05)

Titus 3:3-7, "For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life."

What a treasure we have in the inspired written Word of God. What a precious truth you just read in our text passage. The Gospel is God's ultimate expression of love toward humanity. My mother was born and raised in Sweden. She came to the United States at age 13 with my mother, after my grandfather went to Heaven. I've never visited the country of Sweden, but would love to do so before I die, but that seems unlikely. One word that I heard all the time growing up was "

Smorgasbord

”! It is a Swedish word that means “a buffet”!!! Yeah buddy, that’s good preaching! I LOVE SMORGASBORDS!!!

Dear friend, as a grateful born-again Christian, I regularly bask in a smorgasbord of God’s love! That is what the Gospel can do for you! I was saved at age 13 in 1980. That was 40 years ago! I have never felt more loved by God, and felt love toward God, and felt love toward all humanity, and felt love for every living creature, as I do today!!! That love comes from the indwelling Holy Spirit, who is God living in me as His child.

Romans 5:1 and 5,

“Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: ...

And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

I heard a wonderful truth today by my ministry friend, Pastor Ralph ’Yankee’ Arnold:

> “The Gospel, if you understand it, can cause you to love one another.” –Pastor Ralph ’Yankee’ Arnold, a quote from the sermon titled: “[1]To Believe, Receive, Accept, or Trust???”

Dear reader, you are absolutely missing out on the greatest life a human being could ever live, if you know not the LOVE OF GOD in your soul.

John 15:13, “ Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.” Romans 5:8, “But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

1st John 4:19, “ We love him, because he first loved us.”

The Gospel is about love! God loves you dear sinner! God loves you so much that He sent His only begotten Son to the cross to die for your sins (John 3:16-17).

God loves you and has purchased the gift of eternal life for you, which cost Him His only biological Son. That is quite a price to pay! When someone buys you a gift, it is because they love you! The way we show our love is to receive that free gift. When someone hates another person, they will refuse to accept their gift. I have received numerous emails, Facebook messages and tweets from people who hate life, hate themselves, hate everyone and hate everything. The truth is that they refuse to allow God to love them! You cannot even begin to love anyone, including yourself, until you first let God love you!!! GOD IS LOVE! Here are some related Scripture passages on the LOVE OF GOD

”...

John 5:42, “

But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

Romans 8:39, “

Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

2nd Corinthians 13:14, “

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

2nd Thessalonians 3:5, “

And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

Titus 3:4, “

But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

1st John 2:5, “

But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

1st John 3:16, “

Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

The way to become depressed, despondent and disillusioned with life, even suicidal, is to simply focus on the wrong things...

Philippians 4:8-9, “Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

We are what we think! Most people like to sit around watching television, having a good time, living from moment to moment to have fun; but then when tragedy strikes, they become frantic, depressed and don't know how to handle the situation. That is why we all need to attend a local Bible-believing church, search the Scriptures, and listen to Bible preaching, so we can store up truth for when the time comes that we will need it! It is a true saying that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure!

Casting Down Every Imagination Against God

I refuse to allow hateful thoughts to harbor in my soul. We cannot stop sinful thoughts from entering into our mind and heart, but we certainly CAN refuse to allow them to remain. 2nd Corinthians 10:5, " Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;" That beautiful Bible verse simply means to force your thoughts to conform with the inspired Word of God. If I have a lustful thought enter into my mind, then I am going to seize that wrong thought, and make it comply with the Holy Bible. 1st Peter 2:11,

"Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;

I have received countless emails from people, who confess that they cannot overcome the sinful lusts and addictions in their life. The answer is very simple. First, no one can overcome sin until they get born-again, because you need the power of the Holy Spirit in order to overcome sinful desires. Galatians 2:20,

"I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. " Second, if you are saved, then it is only because you don't love Jesus as you ought, if you are choosing to live in willful sin.

John 14:15, "

If ye love me, keep my commandments.

” A man who admits that he cannot overcome his lusts is really admitting that he lacks character, and doesn’t love Jesus enough to depart from iniquity.

2nd Timothy 2:19, “ Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.” If you live in willful sin, it is only because YOU CHOOSE TO!

Unreasonable And Wicked People

Interestingly, the Bible teaches us to pray to be delivered from “unreasonable and wicked” people (the world is filled with such people today and always has been)...

>
> Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:
>
> And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men*: for all men have not faith.
>
> But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil.
>
> And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.
>
> And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God*, and into the patient waiting for Christ.
>
> **”

I love that last Bible verse–“

AND THE LORD DIRECT YOUR HEARTS INTO THE LOVE OF GOD.

” Wow, what an awesome truth! Dear reader, God’s indwelling Holy Spirit is love. God loves my neighbours through me. God doesn’t merely teach me to love, God’s very existence in my being is love. Jesus is love! Jesus is eternal life! Jesus is God! When I am depressed, God's love sustains me. When I went to California for two major neck surgeries in 2009 and 2010, I was very sad and lonely, having no one by my side; but I knew God was with me, living in my very body and soul.

When I was lying in the recovery room at the 'Pacific Hospital Of Long Beach' where the second surgery was performed, I awoke in much neck pain. I had a hard collar around my neck. I had no one by my side to comfort me. I cried and warm tears ran down the sides of my face. I wanted to die! There was one nurse on the other wide of the room, and I said in my sadness, "

I am so lonely.

" That ungodly woman literally said with sarcasm: "Well I've never heard that one before!,

" and she cold-heartedly walked out of the room, leaving me alone. I wanted to die so much! That was cruel and heartless what she said and did. She is the

unreasonable and wicked

" person that the Bible warned us about.

Without Jesus Christ people can become real monsters! There is nothing as cruel as to ignore someone in their suffering and pain.

By the way, the hospital and my surgeon where indicted in federal court for fraud, and I received a letter from the 'U.S. Office Of The Inspector General,' saying I was a victim of fraud. Now I know why my doctor had me shuttled over a bumpy highway, over an hour away from San Diego to Long Beach, to do the surgery. He was in cahoots with an illegal scam! At least a dozen people went to prison, for selling and buying illegal surgical hardware used in my surgery and evidently hundreds more. I have the letter in front of me. A bunch of lawyers made a bunch of money, but I never saw a penny. God will punish all of them for their wickedness against me and others! Isn't that something in class action lawsuits, how the lawyers steal all the money, and the victims get nothing? HELL WILL BE HOT ENOUGH FOR THE WICKED!!! God knows that I don't care about receiving any money, but it bothers me that they do, and they steal it form the victims! I detest lawyers!

When I had my first surgery in June of 2009 at Cedars-Sinai Hospital in Los Angeles, the liaison nurse (Donna Bias) who had planned, arranged and orchestrated my surgery, cruelly abandoned me after my surgery. Whereas she had promised to drive me back home after my surgery (just like she had picked me up for surgery), she lied and put me into a taxicab instead. She will answer to God for [2]lying and abandoning me after major neck surgery. The taxicab driver gunned his gas pedal, and I ended up back into the hospital the next day, with aggravated pain in my neck. These are the ” people that the Bible warned us about, who are selfish, money-driven, and don’t care about people at all.

I thank God, I thank God, I thank God, that I am a redeemed child of God. I cannot make other people love anyone, BUT I CAN LOVE EVERYONE!!! There is so much injustice in this world. Love is not looking the other way, love is executing justice! The Lord will execute justice when He returns, you can count on it (Ecclesiastes 5:8). No one ever gets away with doing wrong, not in the least and seemingly most insignificant way. I care because I love! That is why I make such a big fuss over the falsehoods of Lordship Salvation, turning from sins to be saved, counterfeit Bible revisions, mistreatment of people, ungodly greedy hospitals, and injustices at every turn nowadays–because I have God’s love shed abroad in my heart by the Holy Spirit!!!

I don’t know about you, but I am a loving person. I need to love and be loved. If I cannot find someone to love me back, then I am going to love everyone regardless, because that is the godly and right thing to do! The Gospel is rooted in God’s love, and is the very foundation of the Christian life by faith alone in Jesus Christ. God’s love made it all possible! Love sent Jesus into the world to be born of a virgin as the sinless Son of God. Love sent Jesus to the cross. Love compelled Jesus to carry His own cross, until He could carry it no more. Jesus could have dropped that cross and called it quits, but “for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God” (Hebrews 12:2b).

Love kept Jesus on the cross, to pay for our sins!

The two greatest Commandments in all the Holy Bible are really just one, to “

LOVE.

” The Bible commands us to love God with all out mind, heart and might; and the second is like unto the first, thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. There is not much love these days. I could mention thousands of horrible things in American society today, which are disgraceful, showing that people don’t love their neighbours anymore. If you’ve rented a car in recent years, then you know firsthand how greedy, dishonest, exploitative and rotten these companies are. Insurance companies are just as bad. Hotels are crooked. I could tell you hours and hours of stories about how dishonest and ruthless they are. Taxicab drivers are horrible these days, thieves! Restaurants are thieves, charging a 10 % fee because they think YOU OWE THEM, and then they insult you by asking for a tip on top of that! We are living in a spoiled American society of unreasonable and wicked

” people with God.

Have You Received God Love Gift?

I love the picture below of Charlie Bucket holding his beloved Golden Ticket. This scene is from the popular 1971 movie titled: “ Willy Wonka & the Chocolate Factory.

” Charlie was so happy that he finally found his

Golden Ticket

” to visit Willy Wonka’s candy factory! he took his Grandpa Joe with him. That is one of my favorite films! Well dear friend, I assure you that God’s Heaven will be far more spectacular and impressive than Mr. Wonka’s chocolate factory. Romans 8:32, “He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, *how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

My fine non-feathered friend, God is offering you a Golden Ticket to Heaven, and it is completely free. You don’t even have to buy a Wonka Bar! Boy, what I’d give to eat a Wonka Bar. Sorry, I digress. My bad, I love sweets!!! I love those orange slices that come in a bag! And I love Milk Duds. And I love…Okay I’ll stop!

God is offering you a Golden Ticket! Jesus has already paid the price. He paid the price of our redemption with His precious blood!

One of the sweetest truths I ever learned (no pun intended) is that I don't have to ask God to save me, He is already asking me! I received His love gift when I was 13 years old. God is offering every human being His free gift of eternal life, and all He requires is that we BELIEVE the record as recorded in His Word. Even a small child can do that! If you'll simply rely upon the 'GOOD NEWS' that Jesus died on the cross for your sins, He was buried, and three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4), you will be immediately, irrevocably and eternally saved!!! Just take God at His Word! The price has already been paid for your Golden Ticket!

1.5.2 Sin Continues In Hell (2020-07-01 11:30)

Luke 16:23-24, " And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame."

What a tremendous real story! What a frightening experience it must have been for the rich man to perish into the fires of Hell. Some Bible students claim this passage of Scripture is not true. They say it is only a parable. However, Jesus didn't say it was a parable. Also, the Lord never used proper nouns when He told a parable. He always used vague terms; such as, "a certain man" traveled into "a far country." In Luke 16:19-31 we see Abraham and Lazarus (proper nouns of actual real people). Furthermore, when the Lord told a parable, He always explained afterwards what the parable means. Jesus didn't explain anything here. It would be wrong to say that this passage of Scripture is anything less than a factual account of something that literally happened. Hell has fire ladies and gentlemen!

Evangelist John R. Rice (1896-1980) wrote a helpful booklet in 1945 titled: "Hell—What The Bible Says About It!" Here is a quote from chapter four titled: "Will A Loving God Send A Sinner To Hell?," page 23:

Sin Continues In Hell

"The torments of Hell seem to be so terrible! Would a short life of sin here earn an eternity of torment? Is God fair to keep a man forever in Hell for the sins of his life? That is an intelligent question, and there is an intelligent answer. The reason centers must stay in Hell is because they are sinners still. Hell is not only a place of punishment for sin; it is a place where sin continues.

When the rich man died and was buried and in Hell lifted up his eyes, being in torments, he was still the same sinner, unchanged in character and heart, as when he lived on earth in plenty and did not repent. When you consider the case as told in Luke 16:19-31, you will find that the rich man uttered no word of sorrow for his sin He asked Abraham for mercy, but did not ask God for mercy. As a lost Jew, he revered the memory of Abraham, the founder of the Hebrew race, but he did not love God. He asked for water to cool his tongue, but he did not ask that his sins be forgiven. He knew that he was in Hell because he did not repent, and yet in Hell he still did not repent! The rich man, unsaved, on the earth loved his brothers and wished them well. When he died and went to Hell, he loved them still with natural human love, but he did not love God. He was a sinner on earth, and he remained the same in Hell.

In fact, there is every reason to believe that in Hell there will be an abandonment to wickedness such as is not possible on this earth. On earth there are many restraining influences, many holy and blessed impulses which will never affect any man in Hell. Here there are Christian people on every side to restrain the sinner, to warn him. There he will be forever in the presence of those who hate God. There he will never hear a gospel sermon. In Hell one will never hear a sacred song. There the influence of respectability will even be lacking and we may be sure that people in Hell will give themselves over to unbridled sin forever. How freely men will be permitted to indulge their sinful appetites we do not know. But that their wicked hearts will grow even more wicked through the years seems almost certain. Even the Holy Spirit of God, it appears, will call no longer at the heart door of the men and women in Hell. The most terrible thing about Hell is that it is a place of sinning as well as sinners. sinners themselves continue to make Hell what it is.

Men Will Be Without Honor, Women Without Virtue, In Hell

Thousands of men go to Hell who in this world call themselves honest men. Remember that paying grocery bills does not make one a Christian. "Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again." But no man in Hell, we may be sure, would remain an honest man very long when every motive for virtue and honesty is gone.

Thousands upon thousands of virtuous women, chaste wives and mothers it may be, will be in Hell. Human virtues are not enough to save the soul, "for there is no difference: for all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." Christ is the only way of Salvation. But we may well believe that virtuous women will not remain virtuous and chase in Hell. Hell will have been given over to the unsaved, and the leading spirits there "are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie quotation" (Rev. 22: 15). When every restraining influence of respectability and example and the Holy Spirit and good advice is gone, there will be no virtue in Hell, no honesty, no goodness.

Preachers Have Misrepresented Hell

There are preachers, Good men, who picture sinners in Hell repenting, loving God, begging for forgiveness, and picture God as laughing and mocking and their torment. That is not the Bible teaching about the people in Hell or about God. The rich man in Hell was sorry to reap what he had sown. He wanted mercy for his body, but he did not seek for forgiveness of his sins. On the other hand, Abraham, speaking for God in this case, did not laugh at the rich man's torment nor mock his cries. instead, Abraham said with tender sadness, "Son, remember." When evil catches up with the sinner, then wisdom, even his own commonsense, laughs at the sinner's calamity and mocks when his fear comes (Prov. 1:20-27). We may be sure that this is true about sinners in Hell. But God does not rejoice over their torment; and the reason sinners are left in Hell is that they have the same rebellion, the same wickedness, the same unbelief that they had here on earth, intensified by the environment of Hell, unrestrained by a single godly influence.

Can you see why sinners who reject Christ, deliberately choose evil instead of good, and then when they go to Hell continue in sin; can you see why they should continue to be punished? Sinners in Hell make their own Hell. People go to Hell because they deserve it. They stay there for the same reason. Punishment continues because sin continues in Hell.

“Hell—What The Bible Says About It!”; pages 23-25.

Amen and amen! I praise the Lord for Brother Rice. He founded the Sword Of The Lord in 1934, which has been a bastion of truth throughout the 20th century and into the 21st century. I encourage you dear reader to visit the [1]Sword Of The Lord's ministry website, and to support their labors for Jesus Christ. They are inspired King James Bible only! Amen for that!!! The Sword Of The Lord has Bibles, books, tracts, hymnals, gifts, sermons and everything a local New Testament church needs! You will be blessed!!!

> "'Pray to be saved. Ask the Lord to save you.' This is what I heard a minister say to a convicted sinner who came forward for prayer at the close of an evangelistic service. Nowhere in the Bible are men told to pray to be saved. There are examples where men did pray and were saved. Men are told to repent, to believe, to obey the Gospel, but the Bible never says to pray for salvation. It does say that whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved, but nowhere does the Bible command men to pray to be saved. I think I know why, God, who made the human heart, knew that it was not necessary to tell convicted sinners to pray. If a sinner can see Jesus Christ on the cross, it is as natural for him to pray as it is for birds to sing or flowers to bloom. 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."' —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," chapter: "Prayer And Praise," page 163; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

1.5.3 How Pensacola Christian College Betrays The Bible (2020-07-02 01:45)

1st Corinthians 12:20-25, " But now are they many members, yet but one body. And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked: That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.”

What did the Apostle Paul mean when he said there should be no “schisms”? Paul wasn’t talking about controversies in the church. I had visited the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam for awhile in 2017 and 2018. I thought perhaps I had found a new church to attend, but after a few months of visiting, their pastor (Sean Quinlan) rebuked me for warning his church members about the modern Bible revisions. Pastor Quinlan wrongly accused me in front of a group of church members of causing “schisms” in his church, for bringing in “controversies,” so I justly rebuked him in front of his own members. I exclaimed: “SHAME ON YOU!,” and I’d do it again in a heartbeat!!! If he had any class, he would have called me into his office like a gentleman, but he is no gentleman! Since he rebuked me in front of people, and THE TRUTH was at stake, I had to stand my ground and tell him he was wrong to support Harvest Baptist Church (who preach Lordship Salvation, Calvinism and Devil’s Bibles, and bid Godspeed to evildoers like John MacArthur).

Pastor Quinlan’s lame excuse was: “What Harvest does is none of our business!” He’s got a hole the size of Texas in his head! What do you mean it’s not your business, you’re bidding Godspeed to them, and they’re promoting Devils’ Bibles? You see folks, this is why our nation is going to Hell today, because of shameful incompetent pastors who won’t take a stand! That is why I love and support Pastor Steven L. Anderson at the Faithful Word Baptist Church in Arizona, even though I disagree with him on some issues, and the way he mistreats some people. I think he is learning from his mistakes and getting better, in my humble opinion. Brother Anderson has the guts to fight and say it like it needs to be said. Our country could be saved if we had enough preachers that cared and told the truth!

That dingleberry for a former pastor at Lighthouse Baptist Church accused me of being “obsessed” with the Bible debate. You better believe I’m “obsessed” over the inspiration of God’s Word, and I plan to stay obsessed!

The truth is that he couldn’t care less, and has no business standing behind any church pulpit. He even admitted to me that he didn’t know one thing wrong with the modern Bible revisions. That’s sadly because he’s never taken the time to investigate the matter!

Pastor Quinlan was wrong to try to control what I say in personal conversations. Pastors act like they own people, but they don't! I was simply speaking on a personal level, in personal conversations, without knowing that he was eavesdropping. Jesus said "out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh" (Matthew 12:34). I love Jesus, who is the incorruptible Word of God; and therefore I hate corruptible seed. I cannot refrain from speaking THE TRUTH. Am I obsessed about the Bible because I see thousands of preachers who don't care at all? Am I really doing something bad to warn people about the English Standard Version (ESV), that perverts Philippians 2:6 to say that Jesus is not God?

As a result of his childish behavior, I didn't return to the church, and he was glad to see a truth-teller leave. It is sad, but true, that pastors today treat the ministry like a profession, rather than a divine calling. If there is one place in the world where someone should be able to share the truth, it is in a local church. This is not communist North Korea (but we're quickly headed there in America). Every Christian believer ought to expose the Devil's fake Bibles. Every Christian believer ought to expose the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. And we ought to call corrupt institutions like Bob Jones University by name to expose them! Shame on indifferent pastors today, who only care about building a church, even if it means banning THE TRUTH, which is always controversial.

Pastor Sean Quinlan is a Pensacola Christian College (PCC) intern, which explains a lot. You see, PCC wants to remain neutral in the work of God. They don't want to join the battle over the Word of God. PCC claims to use only the King James Bible (which is good), but they have an indifferent attitude toward the Devil's Bible revisions. Bob Jones University sells and uses the Devil's Bibles. PCC doesn't use them, but won't criticize them either. I won't use the Devil's Bibles, and I believe I have a duty as a Christian to speak out against them (Ephesians 5:11). I don't see how anyone who professes to love Jesus, could remain silent about these corrupt Bibles that pervert the Gospel, attack Jesus' deity, and secularize the Bible. The problem is that PCC doesn't tell their students what is wrong with the modern Bible revisions, because they don't care, and so their students are unprepared for battle.

But what did the Apostle Paul means by "schisms," if not referring to controversies in the church? Paul simply meant that everyone is important in the Body of Christ...

1st Corinthians 12:20-25, "But now are they many members, yet but one body. And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary: And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness. For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked: That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another."

That is so beautiful. God is simply saying that EVERYONE MATTERS IN THE FAMILY OF GOD!!!

PCC has done much good for the Lord, but they are also doing great harm to the cause of Christ, by teaching their students that the battle over the inspiration of the Bible is a "controversy" that should be avoided. Pastor Jack Hyles rightly called it: "

[1]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES,

" based on Genesis 3:15.

I [2]made this 4:19 hour YouTube video to promote this important truth. PCC washes their hands of the whole matter, refusing to join the battle. Consequently, there are PCC interns all over the world who are dingleberries on the battlefield. When they enemy comes to kill with its modern Bible revisions, PCC graduates run and cower in their foxholes, not knowing what to do! The way to handle any problem is certainly not to pretend that it doesn't exist.

Paul is teaching us that EVERYBODY MATTERS IN THE BODY OF CHRIST. Paul even goes as far as to say, that those body parts which we tend to consider insignificant and meaningless, are the MOST IMPORTANT parts in Christ's body. Why is that? It is because the Body of Christ needs those smaller parts to function properly. Your eye is small, but you need it. Your appendix is small. For decades scientists ignorantly said the human appendix served no purpose, but scientists have learned in recent times that you need it!

Likewise, your toe is a small member of your body. Your toe is far away from your eyes, so you probably don't see Mr. Toe and his brother very often.

Your toes are hidden in socks and shoes all the time. I wear socks around the house, which keep my feet clean and warm, so I don't see my toes too often.

But what happens when you get an ingrown toenail? OUCH! All of a sudden Mr. Toe is the most popular member of your body! That is what Paul is saying. When one of the weaker members of the Body of Christ is hurting, then we who are stronger and healthy need to sustain that weaker member, and run to his aid.

> Galatians 6:1-3, " Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. "

That is how God intended for Christianity to be. There is only a schism in the local church when we start becoming a respecter of persons. James 2:1, "

My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

" It is a horrible sin against the Lord to treat people differently. I was mistreated in a local church, because someone with money got upset at me, and the pastor sided with the rich man. That is a bad pastor! Money ought never be an issue in how we treat others. The pastor should have minded his own business, but he listened to gossip, and meddled in a matter that didn't involve him. A godly man minds his own business (1st Peter 4:15).

Everyone Matters In The Family Of God

The Bible teaches that the church custodian is just as important as the man behind the pulpit, in the Body of Christ. In the church, the pastor is the big Kahuna, but in the Body of Christ, there are no big Kahunas! Even Jesus Himself, our Lord and Savior, who is the Head of the Church, knelt down and washed His disciple's dirty feet, to teach us to do likewise for our brethren (John 13:5). John 13:14-15, "

If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you."

I cannot even convince Harvest Baptist Church on Guam to let me attend church services, let alone wash my smelly feet. Where dwelleth the love of God? There is something very wrong with professed Christians and churches today–they've lost the power of God, the love of God, and the truth of God!!!

Everyone is welcome in God's family! The way to become a member of God's family is by faith alone in Jesus Christ. Galatians 3:26,

" For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." That is very simple!

1.5.4 The Pastors Have Rejected Knowledge (Truth) (2020-07-02 10:11)

Hosea 4:6, “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.”

Here is an article by a secular English professor, who sees the danger of the new Bible versions, but most pastors today are ungodly men who reject the truth. Please carefully read Hosea 4:6, “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.” Wow!

I see three evils here that destroyed God’s people:

1. Knowledge was rejected!
2. The religious leaders rejected it!
3. They forgot the Holy Bible!

Ladies and gentlemen, that is exactly what has happened all across the world today, especially in America, ground-zero for the Bible-corrupting movement. Hundreds of millions of churchgoers follow what their pastors preach to them! Today's pastors have wilfully rejected the knowledge of God (i.e., the truth). People need THE TRUTH, but the pastors aren't giving it to the people. The pastors have rejected the truth!

Jeremiah 3:15, "And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding." [This is what a pastor is supposed to do, but they dropped the ball for God in Israel, just like they do in America today!]

Jeremiah 10:21, "For the pastors are become brutish [lacking good sense], and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered."

Jeremiah 12:10, “Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.” [a pastor ought to turn a church into a soulwinning vineyard, John 15:1-5]

Jeremiah 23:1, “Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD.” [churchgoers are utterly confused over the Bible and the Gospel nowadays, because of all the heresies and counterfeit Bible revisions]

Jeremiah 23:2, “Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.”

Even small changes can completely alter the meaning of a Bible verse. These new Bibles teach Lordship Salvation. Mark 1:15 in the King James Bible simply says "Repent ye, and believe the Gospel." The modern perversions, like the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) change Mark 1:15 to say "change your hearts and your lives and believe the Good News." Whoa! The Bible doesn't say that! To "repent" doesn't mean to change your life! That is one thing I do know about the Greek.

"Repent" in Mark 1:15 is the Greek verb "metanoeo," which means "to think differently." Anyone who says it means to change your life is a liar, perverting the true meaning. Repentance is a change of mind from WRONG THINKING to believing the Gospel. That's all it is! Acts 20:21 says "repentance toward God," not from sins. God "repented" of the evil He planned to do in Jonah 3:10. Did God repent of His sins? Of course not. God cannot sin. God simply changed His mind about the evil things He intended to do to the Ninevites, because they changed their minds first.

If we always keep in mind that eternal life is a "free gift" (Romans 5:15-18), it clears up a lot of heresy and misunderstanding. Religion is the enemy of soulwinning!

Incompetent Pastors Use And Promote The Devil's Bibles

The modern Bibles have deliberately been corrupted to teach works salvation. Part of man's sinful nature seeks to justify one's self through good works. Adam instinctively tried to cover his sins, and Eve's, by sewing together fig leaves. God rejected Adam's fig-leaf religion, by killing an innocent animal to provides skins for them. That slain animal symbolized the Lamb of God slain for our sins (John 1:29). Likewise, Cain attempted to impress God with the works of His hands, offering the best crops his fields could produce. God rejected Cain's offering, but accepted Abel's blood sacrifice (which demonstrated his faith in the coming Messiah, who would shed His blood on the cross for our sins).

The new Bible revisions are very corrupt. I heard a great sermon clip yesterday by Pastor Steven Anderson called: "[1]The Importance of Splitting Hairs."

In this video Brother Anderson shows how the new Bibles change the promises of God from Jesus (the "Seed") to the Jews (Abraham's descendants). The Bible teaches that through Christ all the nations of the world would be blessed, not through manmade Israel. I'll let you hear the sermon for yourself. My point is that the modern Bibles are very different; redefining what it means to repent, obliterating the doctrine of imputation and propitiation, secularizing the Word of God, attacking Jesus' deity, and removing the Godhead (aka., Trinity). Woe unto anyone who tampers and corrupts God's inspired Holy Words!!!

Very few people care about learning the truth. The Bible teaches that God gives understanding to those who obey His commandments. Psalms 111:10, "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever." When we obey the truth, God opens our eyes. There are spiritually dead theologians all over the world, who know all the facts about the Bible (as did the Pharisees in Jesus' time). The Pharisees knew about Christ's coming birth. They knew it would be in Bethlehem. They knew all the details, but they had no faith. Think about that! The Jewish religious leaders KNEW, yet they didn't even go to see the newborn Savior! Wicked Herod wanted to know where the Christ child would be born, so he could murder Him. God warned the Babylonian wise men not to return to Herod. When Herod saw that they didn't come back to inform him of the whereabouts of the Christ child, Herod was infuriated and ordered his soldiers to slaughter every male child under two years of age. That is so tragic!

Pastors Have Forgotten The Inspired King James Bible

If you don’t have an inspired King James Bible in the English-speaking language, you don’t have a Holy Bible! God only authored ONE BOOK, not two, not 39, [2]not 900. The man with two watches never knows what time it is, and the man with two different Bible revisions [3]doesn’t know what the truth is! God said that a man cannot live by bread alone, but by "EVERY WORD" that proceedeth out of the mouth of God (Matthew 4:4). The modern Bible revisions horribly corrupt this passage, removing the phrase "EVERY WORD" ...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Matthew 4:4, "But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) - Matthew 4:4, "Jesus answered him, “The Scriptures say, ‘It is not just bread that keeps people alive. Their lives depend on what God says.”’

Whoa and woe! There is a night and day difference between these two passages. Whereas the accurate King James Bible teaches we need "EVERY WORD" of God to live, the Easy-To-Read Version merely generalizes what "GODS SAYS." The King James Bible clearly EMPHASIZES the important of having EVERY WORD of God. You say, does it really matter? You better know it matters. What saith the Scripture? Matthew 5:18, “

For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. ” Jesus said that not one "JOT or TITTLE" (i.e., the smallest grammatical mark in the Greek alphabet, similar to the cross on the letter t, or the dot on the letter i). You better believe God gave us His exact words!!!

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Deuteronomy 8:3, “

And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by*every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live*.

“

He humbled you and let you be hungry. Then he fed you with manna—something you did not know about before. It was something your ancestors had never seen. Why did the Lord do this? Because he wanted you to know that it is not just bread that keeps people alive. People’s lives depend on what the Lord says.

They’ve perverted the Words of the Living God. The Bible doesn’t merely say that our lives depend on what the Lord says; but rather, we need "EVERY WORD" that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord!!!

The world is filled with theologians who know a bunch of knowledge, but they are not wise and have never been born-again. Wisdom is knowing how to use the knowledge that we have. Most theologians die with their knowledge, never having witnessed to a single soul, and never having led anyone to the Lord. They spend their lives learning and yet are never able to come to the knowledge of the truth (2nd Timothy 3:7). I'd rather be an ignoramus country preacher whose born-again and preaching the Gospel, leading people to the wonderful Savior; than to be some fuddy-duddy professor in some deeper life religious institution that spends his life Sitting On The Premises instead of Standing On The Promises.

Most people trust their religious leaders, especially Bible professors and pastors. Jesus told us to "SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES" (John 5:39). The Bereans were "more noble" the Bible says than the Thessalonicans, verifying the apostle Paul's preaching by searching the Scriptures. Acts 17:11, "These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so." Most churchgoers are lazy, merely going along to get along, trusting whatever they are spoonfed by some pastor. That is why cults prosper. Unsaved people tend to gravitate toward unsaved religious teachers, and not toward a born-again Bible preacher. The only authority in any local New Testament church is the inspired Word of God. When a man or group of people are in charge, then you have a cult! I am glad that you see the subtle changes that have been made to the Word of God, which make a big impact on theology.

> "The whole rotten modern world is wrecked because of disobedience. The sinful, hellish philosophy that has destroyed America is built upon the philosophy of disobedience. Prisons are filled with juvenile delinquents. Children have been killing their school teachers in some sections of America—cutting their throats, shooting them. Little girls and boys are out murdering people. If you stay here you are going to obey."

1.5.5 A Little Leaven Leaveneth The Whole Lump (2020-07-03 01:00)

1st Corinthians 5:6-8, " Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us: Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth."

Kindly said, Evangelist Steve Pettit became the new president of Bob Jones University in 2014. Sadly, Mr. Pettit has taken BJU down [1]a very ugly and corrupt path of Lordship Salvation. The college is [2]now full-blown in support of the Devil's counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation. It is so sad and tragic! [3]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) said he would blow his college up if infidels like Dr. Steve Pettit ever took over! I say that kindly with love. It just proves the Bible true, that a little leaven (mold) leaveneth the whole lump. 1st Corinthians 5:6, " Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? "

Galatians 5:9, " A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump." A couple decades ago, BJU preached against the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, but today in 2020 they teach it! That is the power of deception!

The Devil wants you to think you must "forsake your sins" to be saved, so you'll make an effort to reform your own life, instead of wholly lean on Jesus' name for salvation! That is another gospel, which cannot produce the new birth (regeneration). John 3:7, " YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN

! You cannot save yourself! The Devil is much smarter than you or me. The Devil knows that some people won't buy into his

do good works

to be saved garbage theology. Sadly, over one billion Roman Catholics have bought into that Satanic lie. Albeit, the Devil wants to kill everyone in Hell, being full of hatred. So the Devil comes to those who are not as gullible as Catholics, and he offers you a counterfeit plan of salvation that teaches partial faith in Christ, plus you must turn from your sins (forsake them), to be saved. You see, if Satan cannot trick you to do GOOD WORKS to be saved, then he'll trick you to forsake BAD WORKS to be saved, but either way it is still adding WORKS to your faith!

Effectively

turning away from sin

is the SAME as doing good works to be saved, because faith alone in the Savior is not enough to get to Heaven. Please understand dear reader, that whether doing GOOD WORKS or forsaking BAD WORKS, they are all DEAD WORKS in God’s sight (Hebrews 6:1; Isaiah 64:6; Romans 3:20). Hebrews 4:10-11 teaches us to CEASE from our own DEAD WORKS, and simply REST in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ, who died on the cross to pay for our sins! All it takes is the slightest addition or subtraction from the Gospel to pervert it, rendering it impotent to save anyone!

The Bible teaches that a little yeast (bacteria) will affect the whole batch. In the Bible leaven is used to represent corruption, sin and heresy! A little corruption will corrupt the whole church! This is the context in which the Apostle Paul is speaking in 1st Corinthians 5:1-13. A church member had been living in fornication with a woman. The church was okay with the sinful situation. Paul rebukes them, reminding them that allowing a little sin left to go unchecked in the church, will eventually corrupt the whole church. Certainly, we are all sinners and sin will always be in any church, just like anywhere else where there are people, but that doesn’t mean we should accept it. Always remember, we must never accept the sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin!

It is the pastor’s solemn duty to expose sin, to preach against sin, to rid the church of open sin where evident, and most of all to love sinners with God’s unconditional love. The letter killeth, but the Spirit giveth life.

This creepy movement across America today, which seeks to bring in LGBTQ (homosexuals) persons into the churches, as church members in good standing, is of the Devil. I believe lesbians and homosexuals ought to be welcomed to attend church services, so they can also hear the preaching of God’s inspired Word. However, they do not have a right to sin openly in the house of God, neither should they be accepted as being or right with God. To do so simply evidences that a church is not right with God, and may in fact not be a church at all, but an unsaved religious organization.

Satan has crept into our Bible colleges, and consequently the unfortunate churches that their graduates work in. It is tragic what has happened to Bob Jones University (BJU). [4]Dr. Steve Pettit is the little bit of leaven that corrupted the entire institution. Today, [5]BJU teaches full-blown Lordship Salvation, damning soils to Hell with a counterfeit gospel. One corrupt preacher can destroy a church or a Bible college. All it took was one corrupt preacher, to [6]change the position on the inspiration of the King James Bible since 2008, at the First Baptist Church of Hammond. A little leaven leaventh the whole lump! What an important Bible principle for us to enforce in our lives, churches and homes! Little sins leads to big sins! Little problems lead to big problems! A little indifference leads to apathy and eventually apostasy! Little things are important!

The answer is the inspired Word of God! That is why the Devil is relentlessly changing, corrupting and desecrating the Bible, by publishing literally hundreds of English Bible revisions to confuse everyone, and it has worked! I was saddened to learn that communist Cuba has more sense than American pastors! Cuba rejected a shipment of [7]17,000 New International Version (NIV) Bibles, saying they only want the King James Bible in Cuba. That is amazing! Yet, most American pastors use, sell, sanction and promote the Devil's Bible revisions. What is wrong with pastors and churches today? I'll tell you, they allowed a little leaven (mold) into their church, and it corrupted the entire church, or Bible college.

Bob Jones University long ago was King James Bible only in 1927 when they began. But they let the Devil in, with Stewart Custer and other corrupt teachers. Then BJU tried to defend themselves when fundamentalists cried "WOLF" concerning BJU! So BJU placed a plaque on their college pulpit that said: "Only the King James Bible is to be used from this pulpit." Now today in 2020, I've been listening to their 'The Daily Platform' daily chapel services, and hearing their Bible professors quote from different revisions of the Bible. You see, a little leaven has corrupted the whole institution!

1.5.6 Something Is Wrong With The Churches Today (2020-07-03 11:00)

“And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and ART DEAD.” —Revelation 3:1

The biggest problem in the world today is dead churches! We already know that the heathen world is dead in trespasses and sins (Ephesians 2:1; 1st John 5:19). It is tragic that most new Testament churches are dead. The reason why is because we’ve lost our pureness of heart as Christians. A pastor who is pure of heart won’t stand for heresy creeping into the flock God has entrusted to him as an under-shepherd. Sadly most pastors are Bozo clowns these days, incompetent and ought not be allowed behind any pulpit. I’m probably talking about your pastor! If you pastor accepts more than one English Bible revisions, he is a Bozo clown! God only authored ONE BOOK! That book has been faithfully preserved in the inspired King James Bible!!! By the way, I am listening to this beautiful Gospel hymn, ’[1]What A Friend We Have In Jesus,’ as I type this article. I set it to “ in the YouTube settings, so it plays over and over. Just right mouse-click anywhere on the video to see the settings.

Look what Evangelist Billy Sunday (1862-1935) said over a century ago about America’s decayed churches...

> “It would be a Godsend if the Church would suffer persecution today; she hasn’t suffered it for hundreds of years. She is growing rich and lagging behind. Going back.”
> —Billy Sunday, The Need for Revivals, From "Billy Sunday: The Man and His Message", by William T. Ellis, Philadelphia: John C. Winston Co., 1914

People are sick and tired of these dead churches today! I sure am. I have live on Guam. The biggest Baptist church on the island is [2]Harvest Baptist Church, which is a rotting corpse of ecumenical Bob Jones’ graduates, playing church, dropping the ball for God. They bid Godspeed to wolves in sheep’s clothing like [3]Dr. Steve Pettit and [4]Pastor John MacArthur, preaching another gospel of Lordship Salvation (Galatians 1:6-9). The gift of God is eternal life, which does not require making full surrender to Jesus as “ nor turning from your sinful behavior, nor forsaking the world, nor following Jesus no matter what the cost, nor running the race faithfully until the end, nor counting the cost and paying the price!!! This is the junk theology taught by these wicked impostors in church pulpits all across America today, who influence the world for the Devil.

Lord,

Jesus warned us that many false prophets would come (Matthew 7:15; 24:11).

1st John 4:1, “ Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.” Somewhere along the way, many churches lost sight of the reality that eternal life is THE FREE GIFT of God to them that simply believe (Romans 5:15-18). What’s all this you’ve got to

[5]be willing to TURN FROM YOUR SINS

garbage that we’re hearing in most churches today?

> “Our church is cold,” complained a deacon to Dwight L. Moody (1837 1899). “What can we do about it?” “Build a fire in the pulpit,” ordered Moody!

> “Blindness has enveloped the Christian church nationwide!”
>
> —Pastor Chuck Baldwin, a quote from the needful video sermon, “[6]Many Antichrist; One Beastly System”)

It is tragic, but true, that the true New Testament church is being driven underground in America. Faithful believers like me (who expose the Alexandrian counterfeit Bible versions, and expose false prophets like Dr. John MacArthur, and refute the false gospel of Lordship Salvation) are [7]forced out of the churches as troublemakers. It is crazy!!! Churches are so backslidden and apostate, that they don't even realize a person who contends for the faith. It's bizarre, but Christianity is being driven underground. On the face of things in Europe and the United States there are plenty of churches, but when one digs deeper and wishes to make a stand for the true Christian faith, one quickly finds apostasy, hatred and rejection. The apostle Paul was counted as an enemy by the very church he started (Galatians 4:16).

I-chabod Is Written Upon Today's Lifeless Churches

Pastor R.G. Lee was so right about I-chabod (meaning, "

The glory of the Lord has departed

- 1st Samuel 4:21) from today's dead churches:

> "'I-chabod' will be written about the church that soft-pedals on unpleasant truth or that stands not unwaveringly for 'the faith once delivered."' —Dr. Robert G. Lee, from the powerful sermon, '[8]PAYDAY SOMEDAY!' | [9]MP3

You'll be hard-pressed to find a King James Bible only, soulwinning, church nowadays...

> "We're living in a different generation. ... They've been a whole new crowd come up in the last 15-years. And what's happened is our churches ... you listening to me? Churches have lost touch! Brother, we've lost touch! ... We're in a perilous time tonight. ... It's a dangerous time that you and I are living in." —'[10]Perilous Times' (by Pastor Danny Castle | [11]Download MP3 sermon)

Formalism is the enemy of the church...

> “There is much mourning to-day over false ’isms,’ infidelity, and the like, but sum them all up, and I do not fear them one half so much as that dead and cold formalism that has crept into the Church of God.” —Pastor Dwight L. Moody

Here is a powerful quote from Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) about why people criticize fundamentalists who are soul-winners:

> “These enemies of soul winning love to cast reflection upon those who are obeying the Great Commission, and they have many little cliches to try to put us in a bad light. It seems to me that if they were going to fight someone, they would fight the liberals. The truth of the matter is, these pacifist Christians seem to hate fundamental soul winners far more than they hate the liberals, but, thank God, there are hundreds and hundreds of great soul-winning churches in America who are obeying God’s command to take the Gospel to every creature - the halt, the maimed, the blind - to the highways, the hedges, streets and the lanes of the city, etc. May their tribe increase, and may they not be thwarted or hindered by those who like to coin phrases to be used as a shield for their indifference.” —“
> [12]Lifestyle Evangelism, An Enemy of Soul Winning,
> by Pastor Jack Hyles

Amen and amen! Dr. Hyles also said that businessmen are destroying church all across America. Businessmen think in terms of money, but Jesus warned in Luke 16:13, “Ye cannot serve God and mammon” (money). A preacher always upholds the truth, without concern for money:

> “All across America businessmen are destroying churches!” —Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the classic MP3 sermon, “[13]I Find No Fault In This Man!”

You won’t find a godly church making an impact for God that prioritizes money! Why do you think John the Baptist lived off the land out in the desert wilderness? John needed nothing from anybody, so he could let ’er rip and PREACH THE TRUTH!!! The love of money is the enemy of PREACHING!!!

> “Why go to a dead church when you’re going to go to a living place in Heaven?”
> —Dr. Jack Hyles, from the 1994 MP3 sermon titled, ’[14]What Makes Heaven Happy?’

There are large mega-churches all over the world, but they are rotting corpses, not growing Bible churches! If the Gospel of free grace is not preached, it is a religious cult (like Seventh-Day Adventism, John MacArthur’s cult, Mormons and Roman Catholicism), not a true biblical church! Eternal life doesn’t cost you, because it cost Jesus!!! The Gospel offers salvation as a free gift to anyone who wants it. There are no obligations! You simply accept God’s gift by faith, by receiving Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins.

> “America has one central problem, and that one central problem is the church!”
> —Pastor Church Baldwin, [15]a truthful quote from the needful sermon, “[16]The Biblical Duty Of God’s Preachers To A Godless President.”

I love the determination that Dr. Jack Hyles had to keep the church and college from changing. Unfortunately, they did horribly change, and [17]have denied the inspiration of the King James Bible since 2008. ...

> “The First Baptist Church... We will stay what we’ve been, or we’ll burn the schools! Mark it down, we’re not going to change, don’t get your hopes up! No, old Hyles is still going to be a Hell fire and damnation preacher! Same old stuff... S.O.S.. It’s gonna just keep on going... we’re not going to change. We’ve seen what God can do!”
> —Pastor Jack Hyles, from the timeless sermon, ’ [18]The Church First ’ | [19]Download MP3

Thank God for Brother Hyles!!!

Apostasy In The Churches

It is a sad day in America when people are having to leave church to find God! Most churches today are apostate—using corrupt bibles, singing worldly Christian Rock music, teaching psychology instead of preaching the Word of God, preaching a counterfeit gospel of turning from sins and Lordship Salvation, promoting Calvinism instead of the Gospel of free grace, endorsing Godless political leaders, idolizing manmade Israel, et cetera.

Thank God for America's faithful, door-to-door, soul-winning, King James Bible only, zealous, fundamental churches...

> "You know the difference in the First Baptist Church of Hammond and most other churches in this area. Huh? We've got more than a welcome sign out in front, we've got a welcome sign on the front door of all the people. We go where they are!" —[20]Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), from the timeless MP3 sermon, '[21]The Pearl Of Great Price.'

The purpose of the Church is not to EDUCATE people; but rather, to DISCIPLE them. How can you truly disciple people if you are lackadaisical concerning THE TRUTH. The Church is not a private social club, state-licensed 501c3 business, spiritual museum, nor entertainment fun center; but rather, the Church is the vehicle by which God chose to carry out '[22]The Great Commission' (Mathew 28:19-20). If a local church is not a soulwinning church, then they are failing at God's primary purpose for their existence!

Yes, the church is a place where believers seek fellowship, find comfort and encouragement from each other, learn the Holy Bible, and families are built up in the Lord; but the whole idea is to perpetuate itself to the next generation. God never intended for us to become Dead Sea Christians, where the Jordan Sea flows into it, but everything stops there! That is why everything is dead at the Dead Sea, literally! That is where it gets the name, “

DEAD SEA

”! We should be more like the Jordan River, always moving! The Jordan River is muddy, because it is a fast-flowing river, rushing down from the Sea Of Galilee.

Most churches today are spiritually dead. No one shouts, “

Amen!

” If the pastor is excited, the people will be excited. The life-giving force in a church comes from the pulpit! If a man of God preaches with the power of the Holy Spirit of God, the people will follow. THE TRUTH is the fire of any church!!! Bible colleges are destroying America! Today’s Bible colleges have lost their zeal for THE TRUTH. I am excited because I have THE TRUTH! I am excited about the Gospel of free grace. The Devil can stick his Lordship Salvation where the sun don’t shine and write a love story! The Devil can go back to Hell with his hundreds of fake English Bible versions! Just give me the old inspired King James Bible!!!

> “What we need in this generation, is for about 30,000 churches in the United States to go out of business, and just shut the doors, and let who mean business, get the power of God, and witness to this generation!” —SOURCE: Pastor Danny Castle, a quote from the awesome sermon, “ [23]How To Have Power With God! ” | [24]MP3 Sermon

I cannot recommend enough that you read the excellent book titled, “[25]THE CHURCH,” by one of my heroes of the faith, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). Pastor Hyles’ book explains many things about the New Testament Church that most people have never learned. It is a brilliant book, humbly written, based upon the solid teachings of the inspired Word of God. We need a whole new breed of preachers in the next generation, who are King James Bible only, and truly preach the Gospel of free grace! I am so sick and tired of hearing Bible colleges and preachers claim that salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone; but then they insist that you must “ be willing to turn from your sins

to be saved. How is that by grace alone? How is that by faith alone? How is that in Christ alone? The Devil is a beautiful liar!!! Have you been deceived dear friend?

1.5.7 Beware Of Anyone Claiming God Speaks Through Them (2020-07-04 00:32)

Hebrews 1:1-2,

God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;”

I watched [1]a disturbing YouTube video today by Pastor Dana Coverstone of Living Word Ministries Assemblies of God in Burkesville, Kentucky. In the heretical video, Pastor Dana makes the unbiblical claim that God spoke to him in three dreams, and he believes God wants him to warn the saints, with his special message from God. We KNOW that Mr. Coverstone is a liar and a false prophet. What saith the Scripture? Hebrews 1:1-2, " God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; "

Mr. Coverstone shares three prophetic dreams he has had, and their alleged relationship to current as well as near future world events. As Bible-believing Christians we should all adamantly reject such scriptural claims, and refute them as heretical. It doesn't matter if Pastor Coverstone says some accurate and truthful things, he is a false prophet for having claimed to receive a PRIVATE REVELATION from God. If you want to hear God speak audibly, then read the Holy Bible out loud!

Pentecostals are messed up doctrinally in some areas, including salvation. Most of the Pentecostals I have met don't believe in eternal security. If you live a life of willful sin, they believe you are not saved. Assemblies Of God are Pentecostals, same as Charismatics. Kindly, Pastor Coverstone sounds like a nutcase when he speaks of having dreams from God. Miss Ellen G. White of the Seventh-Day Adventists was another nutcase, who [2]claimed to have received thousands of visions from God, claiming to be an end times prophet for God. Ellen said God wanted her to confirm His end times prophesies to the saints. Ellen White was of the Devil, as is the SDA religion still today. SDA is a deadly religious cult!

Just as Ellen White was a liar, so also is Pastor Coverstone, because he claims God is speaking through him to Christians. NO, GOD IS NOT SPEAKING THROUGH ANYBODY, EXCEPT JESUS IN THE INSPIRED WORD OF GOD!!! We know Pastor Coverstone is very wrong. What saith the Scripture?

2nd Peter 1:20, "Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

Jesus is the Living Word (john 1:1-3, 14). Revelation 19:13 calls Jesus 'THE WORD OF GOD.' The Bible is the Written Word. Jesus told us in John 5:39 to 'SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES' to learn of him. Beware of Pastor Coverstone, he is a false prophet. The Bible says God only speaks to us through His Son, as recorded in the inspired Word of God.

1.5.8 Sometimes You Have To Stand Alone For God (2020-07-04 07:44)

Ephesians 6:12-13, " For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand."

One thing I have learned as a fundamentalist Baptist Christian is that ecumenical Christians are some nasty people. I mean they are our enemies. Listen to what Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) said about New-evangelicals...

> "As long as I've got breath to breathe, I'll not dip my sails. Let me tell you something, this battle we have tonight is a battle between the New-evangelical crowd and fundamentalist crowd. What it is!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the excellent MP3 sermon titled: " [1]Nebuchadnezzar, God's Servant "

What saith the Scripture? 2nd Timothy 3:12, "Y ea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. " Sad to say, living godly in Christ Jesus will bring you criticism from fellow professed Christians more than anyone—when you stand against the Devil's modern Bible revisions, stand against the Devil's counterfeit plan of Lordship Salvation, and stand for Biblical separation from the world. We don't hear much about Biblical separation from New-evangelical churches do we? That is because the average New-evangelical church is so worldly, that you cannot tell the difference between them and the world. I guarantee you that King James Bible only churches, and women dressing modestly, go hand in hand. That is because when one cares about the truth, it is very likely that they will also care about standards and other things as well.

New-evangelicals are not bad people. In fact, most of their churches do " many wonderful works,

" just like the unsaved religious people in Matthew 7:22-23,

"Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. ” The Lord said He never knew them! These folks spent their lives following and serving Jesus, but He did not know them as His sheep. In other words, they had never been born-again! They had spent their lives living the Christian life, without ever being born-again by resting completely in Christ’s finished redemptive work. You don’t get saved dear friend by forsaking your sins, which is what most New-evangelical churches teach nowadays. It is a false gospel, which cannot produce the new birth! If you want to go to Heaven someday, you must rest wholly in Jesus’ name, and not lean upon your own attempt to repent of your sins. Judas repented of his sins in Matthew 27:3, but he still went to Hell, having never trusted the blessed Savior.

If you stand for the King James Bible as I do, and proclaim the free grace Gospel without works as I do, and old fashioned fundamentalist separated living from the world as I do, then you will make many enemies from other religious people. The homosexuals don’t reject me, the local Harvest Baptist Church on Guam does. Do you know why? It is because they teach Lordship Salvation, and I attended their church for one year back in 2014. They also use dozens of different Bible revisions. I befriended them with the truth, handing some of the best books available on the subjects, to help them; but they not only rejected the books I handed them freely, they rejected me as well.

Here are the books I gave their pastors at Harvest Baptist Church, which they rejected:

1. [2]I Never Knew You (Michael P. Bowen)
2. [3]Martin Luther: Master Of Deceit (Pastor Max D. Younce)
3. [4]NIV: The Antichrist’s Bible (Pastor Al Lacy)
4. [5]Somebody’s Got To Milk The Cows (Pastor Jack Hyles)

I was a friend to them, for which I was driven from their church, and have since been banned and ostracized. I begged three times in 2017 to please come back, because I was so lonely without a church family, and couldn’t find a church nearby. So I figured I would just take the good and leave the bad, but the church said no, and I had no place to go. Since 2015 I haven’t gone to church, simply because some ungodly Neo-evangelicals. This is the wicked Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in Micronesia, who preach a message they don’t practice, of seeking the truth. They do NOT seek the truth!

The church's annual theme for 2015 was "Study to shew thyself approved." [6]Dr. Marty Herron is not approved, I assure you! He quit the church as pastor in 2018, feeling to ruin young people's lives in Iowa, collecting a 6-digit mega-salary as vice president of some dead, dried-up, deeper-life, Bible college. Such men who preach a false gospel of "

turning from your sins

to be saved must be refuted and exposed, because they are damning people's souls to Hell. I am also warning you about [7]Dr. Steve Pettit and [8]Bob Jones University, who are buddies with Pastor Herron. These men are all in spiritual bed with [9]Pastor John MacArthur, Mr. Lordship Salvation himself!

Since 2014 I have had to stand alone in my battle on Guam, against the apostate Bob Jones University camp on island. Their college has drastically changed in recent decades! Forty years ago BJU exposed Lordship Salvation as being of the Devil, but today they preach it as a fact! Lordship Salvation is NOT the Gospel taught in the Bible! Dr. Jack Hyles, longtime pastor for 42 years of the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, preached one of my favorite sermons in 1994 titled: '[10]When You Have To Stand Alone Among Those Who Stand Alone.' Brother Hyles was saying that even among independent Baptists, sometimes we have to take a stand alone against them too. Harvest Baptist Church on Guam falsely claims to be independent, when in reality they are a clone of BJU in South Carolina. That is one reason why I am beginning to despise Bible colleges, because if the college goes corrupt, they take hundreds of their graduates and associated churches down with them.

God can never truly use a man, until that man realizes his INDIVIDUALITY. You may lose fair whether friends, as I have. You may have to miss church because they won't allow you to attend, which is my situation. Still in 2020, the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam despises me, and won't allow me to attend their churches services. God's curse is upon their so-called church! I-chabod is written of Harvest's doors! Their church is actually a cult, because they preach Lordship Salvation instead of the Gospel of free grace. Harvest broadcasts their own radio channel on Guam, which is KHMG at 88.1 FM. On their daily radio transmission they promote 'The Daily Platform' by Dr. Steve Pettit at BJU, who openly endorses the New International Version (NIV) of the Bible. It is a shame and heretical! Nobody cares anymore in the Bob Jones camp. Making money is what matters., As the new president of BJU, Steve Pettit is getting paid upwards of $200,000 a year.

I lost my church family at Harvest Baptist Church in 2014, but I still live right across the street from their staff and church members. Those hypocrites attend church each Sunday and sing Gospel hymns, while leaving me to rot and selfishly only caring about themselves. SHAME ON HARVEST! They'll never shut me up! I am a fundamental Baptist preacher, and I am going to expose corruption in the churches wherever I find it! Our churches are going to the Devil, because not enough Christians are learned in the Bible, and don't care enough to take a stand for God. We are living in a nation of Bible ignoramuses. I encourage all my blog readers to start you own free blogs. Perhaps some of you might like your own website. There's tons of information online how to do it. I'll be glad to help you if you email me.

I've been standing alone for the past five years on Guam, and plan to keep standing by God's grace! I'd rather not stand alone. I'd rather be friends with Harvest and help their ministry any way I can. But I tried to help them, and it backfired because they didn't want my help. They are set in their wrong apostate ways, serving religion instead of God, following Dr. Steve Pettit instead of the inspired Word of God, doing more damage than good to the cause of Jesus Christ!!! God knows my heart, that I only want to help others find THE TRUTH. If that makes me the bad guy for Christ, then so be it! The churches are so messed-up nowadays that people are leaving the churches to find God.

1.5.9 Don’t Follow Deteriorating Bible Colleges (2020-07-04 10:30)

Proverbs 13:20, “ He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.”

Your talk talks and your walk talks, but your walk talks louder than your talk talks. Modest standards don’t exist anymore in most Bible colleges.

I was disgusted to learn that [1]Bob Jones University’s 2019 student handbook permits female students to wear halter tops, shorts and pants. A woman’s body talks as she walks when she’s wearing pants! That wasn’t the case in 1927 when their Bible college’s doors opened. It is wrong for Bible college’s to follow the world afar off. I know Baptist church pastors who won’t preach against women wearing pants because they’re allowing home base (where they graduated) at Bob Jones University to set their morals. The Word of God is supposed to set our moral standards in our personal life, which will take care of the churches and colleges. Truly, the love of money is the root of all evil (1st Timothy). If Christian leaders cater to the whims of worldly students, then the next generation will embrace worldliness. John Wesley (1703-1791) wisely said: “What one generation tolerates, the next generation will embrace.”

I was called “old school” not too long ago by a neo-evangelical Baptist pastor, because I mentioned that women ought not wear pants in public. That was the former shameful pastor of the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who quit in 2018 to go make more money in Iowa as “executive vice president” of some dried-up, deeper-life, spiritually dead, so-called “

He called me “old school.” Well, I’m proud to be called “old school,” because the so-called “new school” is wickedness!!! There’s nothing more shameful than to see a bunch of Baptist church women all wearing bluejeans. Sadly, unsaved Mormon women have higher moral dress standards than most saved Baptist women do nowadays. I’ve even heard worldly Christians rationalize that bluejeans are acceptable on women, just so long as they’re not tight. If I had a nickel for every Christian woman whom I’ve seen wearing tight sexy bluejeans at a church function, I’d need a big piggy-bank!

I still haven’t seen the so-called “baggy” pants that they all use an as excuse to wear pants. We’ve allowed our sinful American culture to dictate the standards in our churches. Pants on women are synonymous with feminism, whether you realize it or not. You show me a church where the women wear pants and I'll show you a church that doesn't preach against sin as they ought. I actually heard a pastor teach modesty without dare saying that women ought not wear pants. I'm tired of cowardly pastors. Grow some hair on your back man! I know most American women won't like my preaching against women wearing pants, but that's tough! If I was married, I wouldn't want my wife giving every man a look at her body. No wonder we have so many problems with immorality in our churches today, since we've allowed our dress standards to become that of the heathen world. It is sad, but true, that if the world still wore dresses, then the women in churches would wear dresses! Christian women are following the standards of the ungodly world, and so are the Bible colleges.

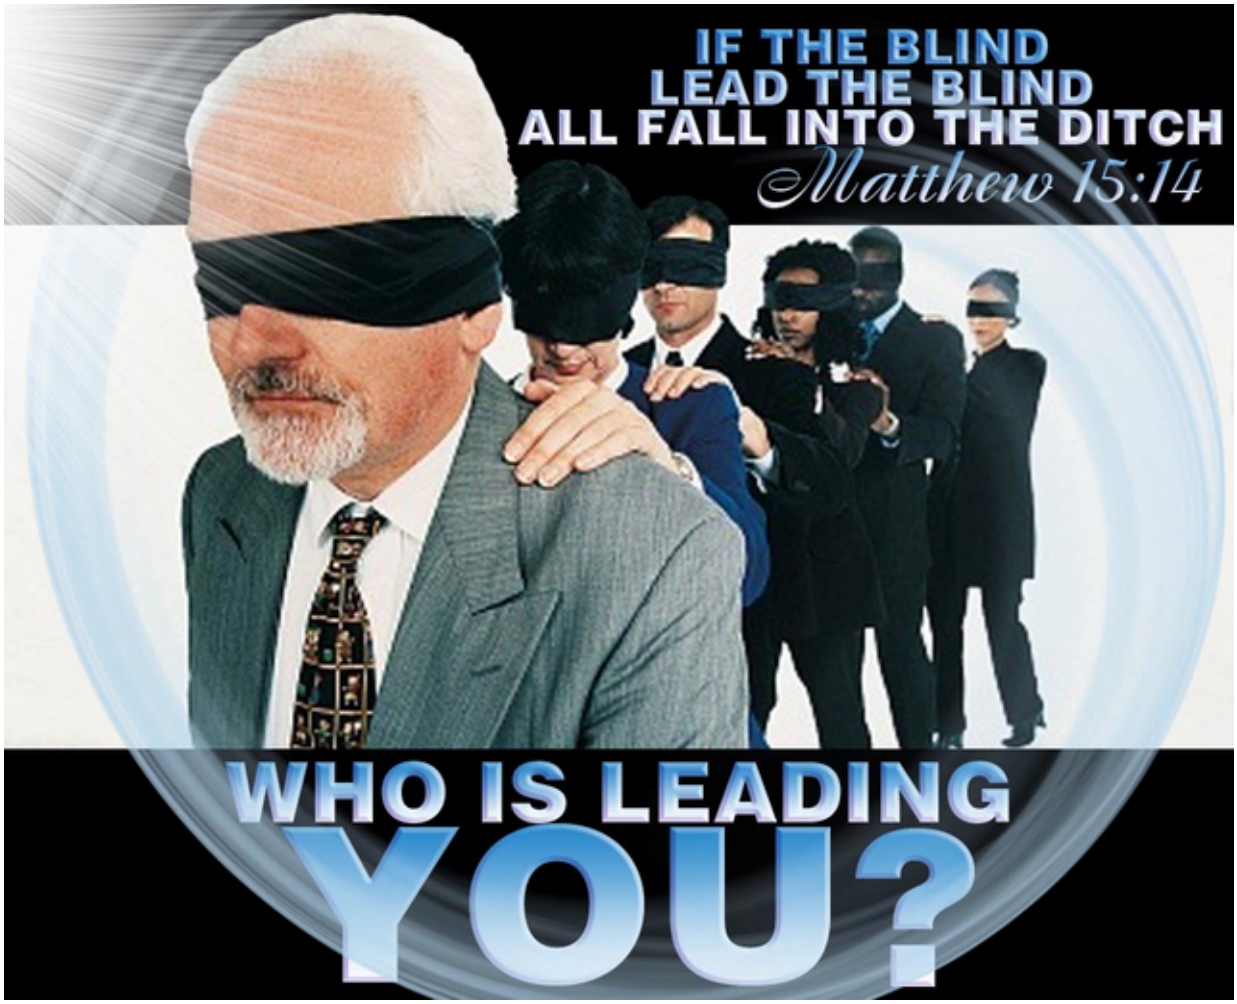
Those same shameful Bob Jones University affiliated churches won't take a stand for God against the modern corrupted Bible versions, because Bob Jones University doesn't take a stand for hardly anything anymore. It is apostasy! Satan is a deceiver, who is behind the hundreds of modern corrupt Bible versions. [2]I've written a lengthy article on the matter. I'm tired of churches that are lax on doctrine. They love to preach on wisdom, love and prayer; but you'll never hear about Hell, fire, judgment, damnation, eternal punishment or other controversial subjects. Our churches are in spiritual shambles. We have the wrong mentors! Rick Warren's "[3]The Purpose Driven Life" is a blueprint for ecumenical apostasy. Most churchgoers today are woefully ignorant of truth and are indifferent toward heresy and immorality creeping into our churches. The average church couldn't care less about the New World Order (NWO), while their teenagers are steeped in occult NWO videos and music. Women wearing pants is immorality! Corrupt Bible versions are doctrinal error! The New World Order needs to be exposed. The NWO is prophecy being fulfilled.



When I attended Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for one year in 2014, I looked around the church and saw kids playing video games, their mothers surfing the internet, and the guy next to me fumbling with his Kindle toy. Brother, we need hard Bible preaching! Preachers lack fire these days!!! Jeremiah said that God's Word burned in his heart. Jeremiah 20:9, "Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay." The Word of God burns in my heart, compelling me to preach.

I wrote a [4]few compelling articles this past week [5]exposing the hellish apostasy at Bob Jones University in South Carolina. [6]BJU is really messed up these days! I love them, but they don't love truth or God. BJU has slowly changed, and when a truth-teller like me comes along, they quickly become defensive and go into denial mode, preaching half-truth sermons on salvation by grace alone, and saying that it is a gift, and other shallow rhetoric; however, these lame attempts cannot justify or undo the damnable heresies of Lordship Salvation [7]which BJU teaches today!!! Unsaved [8]Jehovah's Witnesses also claim that salvation is by grace alone, but like Dr. Steve Pettit and BJU, then they turn around and say more is required than simple childlike faith in the Gospel. BJU today is supportive of Dr. John MacArthur's ministry, [9]who requires everything but the kitchen sink to be saved!

It is sad, but very true, that professed Christian people just don't care anymore about what is right or true! [10]The group always pulls for the group.

Beware of following some apostate Bible college. God will not truly use a man until he embraces his individuality as a child of God. I learned long ago to stand for what is right and true, and not follow what others are doing. If that makes me some enemies, then so be it. I am on the Lord's side, on the right side of truth!!!

1.5.10 What These Riots Reveal About America (2020-07-05 16:10)

Ephesians 4:17-30, “This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind, Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness. But ye have not so learned Christ; If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: Neither give place to the devil. Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth. Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.”

I intentionally quoted a large portion of Scripture, because every one of those Bible verses packs a wallop! As a consequence of the tragic murder of George Floyd by a Minneapolis, Minnesota police officer, [1]massive riots have broken out worldwide (this video is heartbreaking and shocking. Look at 3 minutes into the video, where a police office is brutally struck and thrown by a speeding car. The office is in critical condition. Thankfully [2]police detectives caught the criminal. They were looters! Even in London people are protesting and riots are happening. Sadly, many police officers have been attacked and some murdered by the public. One police officer in Florida had his throat cut by an angry protester. Another retired police officer in St. Louis was murdered.

Why is this happening? I have heard disturbing reports that billionaire George Soros is helping fund the riots. That could be true, but the underlying big problem in our country is far more profound and simple. The inspired Word of God has always been the answer. Ephesians 4:17-30 plainly teaches that “

THE TRUTH IS IN JESUS

! Three phrases caught my attention in our text passage:

1. The VANITY of their mind
2. The IGNORANCE that is in them
3. The BLINDNESS of their heart

Those three words describe the average person today, who is lost without Jesus Christ and on their way to Hell. The solution is 'THE GOSPEL.'

Two men once stood on a street corner, a communist and a Christian. They conversed for a bit about their ideologies. As they stood waiting for a bus, they both noticed a man across the street in the cold without a sufficient coat to keep him warm. The communist uttered, "Communism could put a new coat on that man." The Christian wisely replied, "Christianity could put a new man in that coat!" I do not know what sweeping government reforms and changes at the local level to police departments, that we will see nationwide as a result of loss of life, and billions of dollars in property damage from all the rioting, fires and destruction. Los Angeles alone has seen the streets fill up with 50,000 rioters at a time! Millions of people are protesting nationwide, even doctors, lawyers, politicians and police!

I can tell you this though as a redeemed child of God—sin always undermines a nation! Our ungodly government has removed and banned the Holy Bible from America's classrooms since 1963. The consequences have been devastating. The following quote from Freemason Manly P. Hall (1901-1990) reveals the Devil's intent to revise the Bible in order to promote a New World Order:

> Prominent occultist Manly Palmer Hall was deeply into the New World Order. He wrote about the NWO —and showed what the King James Bible has to do with it.

Hall wrote about many religions. President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, a 33rd Degree Mason, loved Hall's occultic, NWO teachings. Forty-seven years after Hall wrote about Masonry, he was given an honorary 33rd degree. The man had major connections and lots of money.

During World War II, over a year before the USA bombed Japan, Manly P. Hall considered how to make one world government:

> "In the next ten years we will have to rebuild a world civilization. I hope for some psychologists and even philosophers to be among those appointed to administer this problem.... We will sit at a council table and figure how to iron out the troubles on the earth. ...no postwar program can be successful unless at least three and probably five generations of social conditioning goes with it."

Hall foresaw five generations of conditioning, starting in first grade, needed to "create a world capable of mental and emotional tolerance."

Now look what Hall claimed is "erroneous" thinking.

"To make things right we will have to undo much that is cherished error. The problem of revising the Bible shows how difficult it is to do this. For the last hundred years we have been trying to get out an edition of the Bible that is reasonably correct; but nobody wants it. What's wanted is the good old King James version, every jot and tittle of it, because most people are convinced that God dictated the Bible to King James in English." (Emphasis mine.)

Never mind that he lied about King James Bible-believers. Catch what he said?

Who is "we"? Hall is an occultist! Who was he involved with? And what did "they" do to the Bible, from the 1840s-1940s? The only "Bible" supposedly found in the 1840s was Codex Sinaiticus. Why is an occultist, who disbelieves the Bible, concerned with "fixing" it? If he got rid of the King James Bible, what would go in its place? "Psychology can be the basic science of human tolerance..."

Psychology from grade one and teaching "tolerance" sounds like today!

Hall is right. For a new world order, you'd need people conditioned from childhood, like the Nazis conditioned German kids. (He actually wrote that, too.) And for "tolerance," you need people who will "go with the flow."

But Christians are like big, bright buoys in the water, who, Hall would say, were anchored to the "jot and tittle" of the King James Bible. So Hall hoped to "free" you from the solid anchor of the King James, so you'd "flow with" his New World Order.

In his Students Monthly Letter, Fourth Year, No. 12, Hall elaborated:

> "Examine several editions of the Christian Bible.... the polyglots, and get a parallel Greek-English text.... We will discover numerous errors and alternative renderings.... Read the Vulgate, the Septuagint.... You will see the uselessness of picking phrases to pieces and trying to think in terms of 'jots and tittles.'"

It doesn't matter what they "free" you to. All that matters to them is what they get you from: The King James Bible, God's holy and preserved words in English.

> Either trust God's holy words, or "free yourself" —to be a slave to the New World Order. For more information, see the short video "Why the NWO Hates the KJV".

[4]Why The New World Order Hates The King James Bible

Satan's conspiracy has worked. Most churches today use the Devil's Bible revisions, confused on doctrine, corrupt on the Bible, and cold-hearted in their zeal for truth. America was 'great' when she was good, and she was good when she had great churches! The recent riots reveal the sick spiritual condition of our nation. Tens of thousands of Americans have stooped low morally to steal, pillage, destroy and hurt their innocent neighbours to vent in anger. Businesses, big and small, have sustained billions of dollars in damages.

Entire factories have been burned to the ground. This is the world we live in today. What can we expect from generations raised up without the inspired Word of God? Youth today are devoid of morals, revolutionaries, just as Karl Marx (1818-1883) said: "The best revolutionary is a youth devoid of morals." And so it is all across the United States today! Instead of defunding the police, as rioters are demanding, why don't we BRING BACK THE HOLY BIBLE!!! I assure you that nothing the government implements will work, until we GET BACK TO THE HOLY BIBLE!!!

All of these riots reveal the sick spiritual condition of our nation. I once saw a photo in an intriguing book by Evangelist Salem Kirban (1925-2010), with a caption that read: "What do you see? Do you see a thug cop abusing his authority? Or do you see a punk getting what he deserves?"

If you are a Christian, you should see two people who need the Lord Jesus Christ!" I love that truth and have never forgot it. Youth have no moral compass today, behaving like animals, which is what evolution has taught them they are!

Oh how our nation needs to get back to '[5]The Book That Makes The Difference!'

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968)

Bob Jones University is an apostate decaying institution today in 2020, teaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. They also use the Devil's Bible revisions. Albeit, back in their hey day, Bob Jones Sr. was 100 % correct on the Gospel, and had this to say to his students in 1944:

> "Bob Jones College, I told you, stands for the narrow road. We don't stand for the broad road. We don't stand for what is stood for in most educational institutions. We stand without apology for the old-time Christian philosophy of self-control and self-restraint. This institution is operating in its seventeenth year. All these years we have gathered around an idea: The Bible is the Word of God. Jesus is the Son of God. He died on the cross to save us. We are saved by faith in Him. We stand for 'honest-to-goodness' hard work. We stand for honest study. We stand for modesty and virtue for girls and for honesty and uprightness and purity for boys. We stand for the old decencies, the old traditions. The college started off like that. It stands for those things still. We don't apologize to Mr. Anybody for it. And great prosperity, in spite of bitter opposition, has come to Bob Jones College because of the things for which it stands." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," page 75-76; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

1.5.11 The Wickedness Of Bob Jones University (2020-07-05 17:06)

Luke 5:36, “

And he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

There is something very wicked going on at Bob Jones University, which I am compelled to warn everyone about, for your own eternal safety. Pastor John MacArthur does not preach the Gospel as taught in the King James Bible. MacArthur states:

> “The narrow gate is hard to find and hard to go through, because it demands: denial of self, denial of self-righteousness, recognition of sin, full repentance, submission to Christ, commitment to obey Him, and follow Him no matter what the cost!” — Pastor John MacArthur, a quote from his sermon titled, “[1]Saved Or Self-Deceived, Part One” (time: 4:25 in YouTube sermon video)

That is another gospel. What saith the Scripture? 1st Corinthians 15:1-4:

>
> Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;
>
> By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.
>
> For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that*Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;
>
> And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures*:
> **”

Whereas the Word of God only requires that a person BELIEVE the Gospel (i.e., Christ's death, burial and resurrection) to be saved, John MacArthur has added six more requirements, as I just quoted to you. [2]Bob Jones University promotes John MacArthur. Dr. Steve Pettit (BJU's president since 2014) [3]teaches the same junk theology as John MacArthur. But the college invites other speakers, like Dr. Bob Jones III, to speak on '[4]A Teacher Named Grace' on 'The Daily Platform.' I heard the sermon today, and it is a very great sermon. Dr. Bob Jones III get's the Gospel right, but [5]Dr. Steve Pettit gets it all wrong! Some BJU staff members have preached on salvation by Faith and Grace, but at the same time BJU endorses John MacArthur's false gospel. BJU is a house divided, with literally two different gospels gloating around, just like the divided [6]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam.

At best, Bob Jones University's 'The Daily Platform' is confusing. On January 26, 2020 Dr. Steve Pettit dropped a bombshell sermon on BJU students called: '[7]What It Means To Run The Race.'

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[8]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 11:34)

Sadly, these people don't care! The Bob Jones' crowd on Guam at the Harvest Baptist Church don't care! When I tried to help them see what is wrong with John MacArthur's heretical Lordship Salvation, I was forced out of their church, banned and ostracized. I pleaded for their understanding, and a second chance to have a church family, but they cold-hardheartedly rejected me. This is not God's love. I just tried to be a true friend. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) fully understood that deadbeat ecumenicals in the Bob Jones' camp, sinfully count fundamentalists (like me) their enemy, because I refuse to remain NEUTRAL in the work of God...

> “God has a special rebuke, again and again and again in the Bible, toward those people who keep their neutrality in the work of God!” —Dr. Jack Hyles, “[9]Where Were You In The Battle?”

When you tell the truth, you will make enemies and lose fake friends, especially among the ungodly, ecumenical, shallow, Bob Jones University camp. They will accept anyone who believes either a free grace Gospel, or the heresy of Lordship Salvation. They will accept someone who teaches only Lordship Salvation. But they absolutely will not accept or tolerate anyone (like me) who exposes John MacArthur and Lordship Salvation as being of the Devil.

The BJU crowd have been deceived by Satan!

Billy Graham (1918-2018) did more evil than any other minister, to unite believing Evangelicals with unbelieving Roman Catholics. The consequence is that the Gospel was blurred, and millions of people went to Hell, living the Christian life without ever being born-again. Likewise, so also is Steve Pettit doing much evil to unite believing Fundamentalists with the unbelieving Neo-evangelical Lordship Salvation crowd! And once again, the Gospel of free grace is being blurred. I receive countless emails from people who are scarred, confused, worried, uncertain and unsure about the assurance of their salvation, because of false teachers like Dr. Steve Pettit. For example: On March 30, 2020 Mr. Pettit tried to frighten 2,700 BJU students, [10]warning them that if they perpetually lie they’ll go to Hell. The Bible says if you tell even one lie you are going to Hell (Revelation 21:8; James 2:10). [11]Evangelist Ray Comfort heretically teaches people that they must live a lifestyle of repentance to get to Heaven. This generates constant fear, wondering if you’ve turned from enough of your sins to prove you really repented. That is a works-based false gospel!

The BJU crowd have been deceived by Satan! As long as the money is coming in, they couldn’t care less. BJU is a religious institution in 2020, no longer a Christian institution! They are unclear about the Gospel. BJU is intentionally trying to confuse their students, to diminish and blur the lines between salvation by grace through faith alone, to whitewash the Satanic garbage of Lordship Salvation. This is a very wicked thing to do. Bob Jones University and their graduates need to pick a plan of salvation and stick with it, not play on both sides of the fence. BJU does the same thing with the inspired Holy Bible, [12]playing all sides of the fence! It is shameful. Right doctrine matters folks! The truth matters! You cannot have multiple plans of salvation, umpteen Bibles, and keep pretending like everything is okay, which is exactly what Bob Jones University is doing. It is wickedness!!!

“In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!” —President Abraham Lincoln

1.5.12 What The Bible Says Is So (2020-07-06 01:00)

Ecclesiastes 12:9, " And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs. "

I want to share the following very important sermon by Pastor Roy Thompson ounder and longtime faithful pastor of Cleveland Baptist Church in Ohio. The sermon is titled: "

(1933-2010), f

What The Bible Says Is So

":

> "For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heaven." —Psalm 119:89

> "For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled." —Matthew 5:18

“But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.” —1st Peter 1:25

Dr. Bob Jones, Sr., who was one of a vanishing breed of preachers, had a well-known phrase, “What the Bible says is so.” It’s a plain saying, but it packs a lot of power. It seems today that attacks on the Word of God are coming from every direction. Even within our own ranks (fundamentalism), there are tremendous debates on the Word of God. I have never been ashamed to be called a fundamentalist, but the term has been misused and attributed to some groups to which I wish it were not attributed. The term has a great meaning historically, though, so I don’t shy away from it.

Within the fundamentalist community today, however, there is great misunderstanding on exactly what is our viewpoint of the Bible. Thirty years ago it was enough to say, “I believe in the verbal, plenary inspiration of the Scriptures in the original language.” Nobody had a problem with that. Today, though, that’s not enough to say. I believe that a sound, sensible position is that we have had a Bible in the English language for well over three hundred years. God gave us this Bible. I have complete confidence that the King James Version is the Word of God in our mother tongue, so I don’t need any other translations. We do not need to argue and debate this issue constantly. Too many Bible college students today are spending all their time learning about the Bible. It’s fine to know some facts about the Bible, but it’s much more important to know the Bible. We need to get back to studying, memorizing and preaching the Word of God.

I want to take that short clause, “What the Bible says is so” and use it as the theme of this message.

1. What the Bible says is so, in spite of the fact that it is denied by infidels.

Dr. B. R. Lakin tabbed them “in-fer-hells.”).

Many infidels are brilliant as far as intelligence and accumulation of facts are concerned. But these people do not believe that God gave us a Bible in any respect—not in the original languages, not in the English language, not at all. These infidels are constantly attacking the Word of God. (They launched a crusade recently to remove from all public school textbooks any reference to God or the Bible or Christianity.) Their denial of the Word of God, though, does not dilute its power. Imagine a man is facing you with a loaded 38-caliber revolver. As he cocks the hammer, you mock him and say, “That gun doesn’t have any power. That gun can’t hurt me.” You’d be a fool to talk like that. You’d be no more of a fool, though, than the man who denies the power of the Word of God.

What the Bible says is so—in spite of the denial of the infidels.

2. What the Bible says is so, in spite of the fact that it is doubted by skeptics.

Skeptics are a bit different than infidels. The skeptic says, “I just don’t know.” He puts a question mark on everything. The question mark of the skeptic is often more successful than the outright denial of the infidel in getting people away from God. The approach is more subtle. When the Devil first approached Eve, he didn’t outright deny what God had said but put a question mark on it: “Hath God said…?” He wanted Eve to ask herself the question, “Is that what God meant?” When the Bible is clear on something, don’t search for a “deep” meaning. I know there are some difficult passages in the Bible (prophetic statements, for instance); but when something is clearly understandable, take it at face value. Don’t put a question mark on it. If you question everything you read in the Bible, it will have no effect on your life. It will hold no persuasive power over your decisions.

Today’s skeptics say, “The Bible was written in an unscientific age. It certainly has some good moral teachings, but as far as having any value as a book of science or psychology, it’s very outdated.” They want you to ask yourself, “Is it really for today? Is it really for me?” But what the Bible says is so—in spite of the doubts of the skeptics.

3. What the Bible says is so, in spite of the fact that it is perverted by false teachers.

This is another area where the Devil creeps in.

Home Bible studies enjoy great popularity today, and I'm not one of those preachers who get upset about them. I'd rather somebody have a Bible study than a poker game. But please be careful not to allow anybody to teach something false at your Bible study. If you're going to get into something "deep," first consult with the pastor or a mature Christian. In other words, don't try to do calculus if you haven't had simple algebra. If you're going to have a Bible study, don't use twenty-five reference books and concordances. Open your Bible and pray, "Holy Spirit, teach us. Don't let us misunderstand something." Don't make your Bible study a book study or a study of someone's cassette tape ministry.

If you're saved, you ought to know false teaching when you hear it. An unsaved man can easily be duped and deceived, but a Christian should have more discernment. If you believe that your church is a Bible-believing church, be leery of anyone who teaches something contrary to what your church teaches. I'm certainly not claiming that our church is infallible, but I believe that this is a sensible guideline. All kinds of people are quoting the Bible today. Cults are on the rise as never before. There are as many new cults as there are Bibles. (It's interesting to note that they have risen together.) The Jehovah's Witnesses used the King James Version for years, but they tired of being " torn apart" with their own Bible. So now they have their own version, the New World translation. And their scholars were very careful to change that passage in John 1 that was so devastating to them. Instead of "and the Word was God," their version reads, "...and the Word was a god." They now have their own religion, their own Bible, their own Christ. Their Christ is almost God, but not quite. He is a god, he is even a mighty god, but he is not Almighty God.

Let me stress, however, that you can also pervert the Word of God while quoting the King James Version. The Christian Scientists are a most perverted sect, but their reading rooms always have a KJV Bible. When Satan came to Jesus and quoted the Bible, he quoted the right translation. And how did Jesus answer him? He quoted the Word of God right back to him. The only authoritative way to answer a perversion of the Scriptures is with the Scriptures. We are to handle the Word properly. So many folks say, "I like this verse—because it suits my case." They have a convenient theology. Some of the most effective, most dangerous false teaching is that which contains a margin of truth but enough error to water it down and deceive.

Take a doctrine called Calvinism, for instance. The term comes from a man's name, John Calvin, an outstanding Reformer and Bible teacher. Though I believe he has been sorely misrepresented, from his teachings comes a doctrine referred to as hyper-Calvinism. Some of the truths he taught have been taken to the extreme. A hyper-Calvinist will come to a particular portion of the Scripture and say, "I know that says 'all' there, but it really doesn't mean 'all."' If God said it, He meant it, because what the Bible says is so—in spite of the perversions by false teachers.

4. What the Bible says is so, in spite of the fact that it is defiled by modernists.

If we go back a number of years, we will find that the main Protestant denominations and the Baptists basically believe d the same thing about the Word of God. Though there were differences on baptism and church polity, these denominations could work together to conduct citywide revival meetings because they believed that man was sinful, that salvation came by grace and that the Bible was God's inspired Word. When one twerp would dare voice any kind of a modernistic viewpoint, he was cast out. But he gradually wormed his way in— through the seminary. It all begins in the seminary. Young people go there to get their training, and they sit under the teaching of "book professors," men who have never had any contact with the real world. They have confined themselves within these monasteries of the Protestant and Baptist faiths. They don't go soul winning; they don't know what it is to build a church; they don't know how to weep over the dying; they have never counseled a broken heart. All they know is what they have read in a book. When one of these respected, personable, popular professors comes up with a new idea and starts teaching something way out in "left field," nobody challenges him because he's such a nice guy. Then a new teacher joins the staff, and this nice guy gets hold of him and influences his thinking. Now two of them are teaching this offbeat material.

It takes only a generation or two for the entire seminary to go bad. Then every graduate of that school comes into the church with those perverted ideas. Soon the whole church is destroyed. We've seen great churches fall that way. And we're not so strong that it couldn't happen to us someday if we don't stay straight in line with the Word of God. I know what the Cleveland Baptist Church was built upon. I've been here since Day One. It was built by the prayers, tears, hard work and sacrificial giving of God's people. Nobody on the outside ever gave us a break. It makes my blood boil to think that fifty years from now some heretic might stand up here and deny the virgin birth of Jesus Christ. If that ever happens, I pray that God will resurrect me long enough to come back and kick that guy off the platform out into the sixth row—because what the Bible says is so, no matter how many modernists defile it.

Yes, what the Bible says is so.

What the Bible says about Heaven is so. At fifty years of age, I'm right at the point where I'm beginning to think about Heaven quite a bit. I've already tired of burying my church members and friends in the ministry. I get excited thinking about Heaven! I pity people who think that Heaven will be boring. We're going to be active there! We're going to reign with Jesus for a thousand years. There will be a kingdom on this earth like there's never been before. Redeemed saints of God will rule over this earth. As I understand it, the heavenly Jerusalem will hover over the earth, and the redeemed will have access to both places. Look at what man has built in this country in two hundred years. Then think of God Almighty working on His heavenly city for two thousand years. As far as I know, He's still putting on the finishing touches. Paul, who was privileged with a "sneak peek" into Heaven, said its beauty is indescribable.

Yes, what the Bible says about Heaven is so. It's supreme beauty and bliss. And it's the place where God's people go when they die.

On the other hand, what the Bible says about Hell is so. If Heaven is real, then Hell is real. If Heaven is literal, then Hell is literal. If Heaven's streets are paved with pure gold, then Hell's streets are paved with coals of fire. Hell is just as awful as Heaven is wonderful. What the Bible says about Hell is so.

What the Bible says about man is so. All men are sinners and need to be saved. Your precious family, your dearest friends, the greatest humanitarian who ever lived—all are sinners.

What the Bible says about salvation is so. God's salvation is free and for everybody. Here I want to examine two parables which Jesus told.

Jesus told a story about a king who instructed his servants to go out and invite some particular people to a feast he was hosting. The three men who were invited each offered an excuse. One said that he had bought some oxen and had to prove them. That's about as smart as buying a car without knowing whether there's an engine under the hood. Another said that he had to look at some land he had bought. That was certainly foolish. Another said that he had a wife and therefore couldn't come. (I once heard a sermon on this parable appropriately entitled "Two Idiots and a Henpecked Husband.") When the servants returned and told their master what had happened, he was angry and instructed them to go out into the highways and hedges and to talk to the lame, halt, poor and blind. They were to extend an invitation to every person they met. The servants did as they were commanded. When they came back, they said, "Lord, we have done as you have bidden, and yet there is room." That parable has to mean this: From the day that Adam sinned in the Garden of Eden, God provided salvation through a sacrifice. To this day, "though millions have come, there's still room for one; yes, there's room at the cross for you." Calvary is never crowded.

Jesus told another parable about ten virgins. Five were wise; five were foolish. They were waiting for the bridegroom to come. Five went out to buy oil. While they were gone, the bridegroom came, the door was closed, and they were left outside. They knocked and begged to be admitted, but the answer came, “Sorry, it’s too late. You should have been prepared.” I’ve heard many interpretations of that parable, but it teaches one thing for sure: You don’t have all the time in the world. You don’t know when you’re going to die or when the Lord is coming back. You can lose two ways. God only gives you today. What the Bible says is so. Without Christ, one is lost and on the road to Hell. There’s plenty of room at the cross, but only a limited amount of time to approach it.

1.5.13 You Don’t “Turn From Your Sins” To Go To Heaven (2020-07-06 10:00)

Ephesians 2:8-10, “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.”

There is a deadly teaching that is very popular today in churches. It is the false idea that a person must "turn from your sins" to receive the gift of eternal life from God. Unfortunately, a church is not really a "church," just as the Bible says "For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel" (Romans 9:6), who teach this counterfeit gospel. The Bible is very plain that salvation is by faith alone in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ.

One of my favorite Christian authors is Michael P. Bowen, who wrote a beautiful book in defense of salvation by faith alone. The book is titled: "[1]I Never Knew You." I went and did my laundry today at 4 am at a local 24 hour Laundromat. It's nice and quiet at that time. I keep a hard copy of Michael's book in my car, which I read every time I go do my laundry (about once every 6 months...lol). Okay, maybe not quite that long. I can't think of anything I hate as much as doing laundry. I would rather just keep buying new clothes than do laundry...lol. Anyway, I read some encouraging words today in chapter 8, " The Plan Of Salvation According To Beth Moore. " Brother Bowen states on pages 83-84:

> Christ separates the human race into two specific categories: 1) those who believe, and
> 2) those who believe not.
>
> If you have trusted Him alone as your savior, you will never stand before the Great White Throne Judgement, i.e., you will never have to answer for your crimes and you will never be sentenced to the lake of fire. On the other hand, if you have not trusted Jesus Christ alone as your savior, you are already condemned. You will face the horror of the Great White Throne Judgement. You will be sentenced by Christ to the eternal lake of fire.
>
> While I appreciate what Beth Moore has done for so many people, and I am behind her all the way in continuing to help as many people as she possibly can through both bible and popular psychological concepts that provide real encouragement and healing in these desperate, uncertain times, Moore's plan of salvation will not save anyone because the addition of "turning from sins" to singular, simple faith in Christ is not the plan of salvation according to the bible. Look at this: "And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses" (Acts 13:39). Here, God is speaking through Paul. Paul did not write the book of Acts, rather, God wrote Acts "through" Paul. God is literally telling us that we are made righteous through faith alone in what Christ did for us by His death and subsequent resurrection from the dead, and that deeds of the law, such as "turning from sins" will not justify us. Neither will any combination of partial faith in Christ coupled with partial faith in turning from your I Never Knew You sins save you. By implication, "believing on Christ" always refers to the fact of what He did for us at Calvary. The gospel message is the same throughout all of scripture. Those in the Old Testament looked "forward" to what Christ would do for them, and everyone from the time of Christ's resurrection to this very day look "backward" to what Christ accomplished for us by His finished work at Calvary. The gospel message of Jesus Christ, i.e., the "plan of salvation according to Jesus Christ," is always the same and it never changes. This message is:
>
> 1) we cannot save ourselves,
>
> 2) Jesus died for our sins,
>
> 3) His dead body was buried, and
> 4) Jesus arose from the dead three days later.

“He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God” (1 John 5:10-13).

Reader, of the two plans of salvation presented to you in this chapter, one of them has no power to save. You will either trust one plan or the other. One supplies the necessary grace that it takes to credit you with His righteousness, and the other one does not. It matters not which one appears to be more lovely; the only thing that matters is that one is genuine and the other one is counterfeit. My prayer for you is that God will help you see the difference between the two and that He will help you to choose the only one that He will honor. If you trust in any other plan of salvation that is offered to you by anyone other than Christ Himself, God says that you will be cast into the eternal lake of fire:

“And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in I Never Knew You 85 the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire”(Revelation 20:11-15).

Amen and amen! I have no doubt that Beth Moore is sincere, but what saith the Scripture? Proverbs 14:12, “There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.” It seems “right” that a person should have to turn from their sins, if they expect God’s forgiveness and pardon for those sins. That does seem reasonable, right? Of course it does, to any sane person. However, that is not God’s plan of salvation for man. This is where so many religious people go wrong on salvation!

God expects every believer to turn from his or her sins BECAUSE we are saved, not as part of GETTING saved. If you add the requirement to “ turn from your sin ” to the Gospel, you have perverted it horribly! 2nd Timothy 2:19, “Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.” We are supposed to forsake our sins because WE ARE SAVED, not to GET SAVED. Ephesians 2:10 says that God saves unto “ UNTO GOOD WORKS, ” not BY GOOD WORKS! If you are a Christian you SHOULD live for Christ; not MUST (that is works); not WILL (that is Calvinism).

Dear reader, beware of anyone who tells you that you must “turn from your sins” to receive the free gift of eternal life. Sadly, [2]Bob Jones University preaches this heresy today. BJU trains thousands of religious workers for the next generation. Our nation is literally going to Hell because of false teachers who have infiltrated our Bible colleges and churches, wrestling the Scriptures to their own destruction (and all the victims they take with them). You cannot show me even one Scripture that says “ turn from sin ” or “ repent of sin ” concerning salvation.

1.5.14 The Lordship Salvation Crowd Are Tares In The Church (2020-07-07 00:08)

Matthew 13:18-30, “ Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower. When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side. But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it; Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended. He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn. ”

The tares are unsaved people who masquerade as Christians. This is the shallow Bob Jones University (BJU) crowd today, [1]who teach Satan’s lie of Lordship Salvation. I am so sick of the Bob Jones crowd who want the best of both world, at the expense of THE TRUTH. A Christian fundamentalist stands for THE TRUTH, period! God authored one Book, which I believe to be the King James Bible. All of the modern Bible revisions are of the Devil! Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU), recently said on BJU’s ’The Daily Platform’ (chapel services) that there’s not much difference between the New International Version (NIV) and the King James Bible. Dr. Pettit is being very deceitful!

Although there is only a 2 % difference in ancient manuscript content, all those changes attack the deity of Jesus, the Trinity, the person of Christ and key passages that affect doctrine. The NIV is the product of Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort (two Catholic affiliated Anglican ministers who lived in the 19th century). They introduced their fraudulent new Bible text in the year 1881, upon which all modern Bible perversions are based. BJU doesn’t want to suffer reproach for Jesus Christ, so they refuse to pick one Bible! Instead, they say they “

the King James Bible, but use and support the Devil’s Bible too. That is what disgusted God about the church at Laodicea, they were lukewarm (Revelation 3:15-16).

I love the Bob Jones crowd, even though they abandoned me on Guam, because I befriended them with the truth. I am on the right side of THE TRUTH! Bob Jones University refuses to take a stand on the Bible. They make light of verbal inspiration, promoting umpteen English Bible revisions, which is insane, because God only authored ONE BOOK! I use only the King James Bible. I don't need another Bible version. Why does BJU? They are going along to get along with the Devil's intellectual crowd, who have corrupted the Word of God.

Likewise, BJU won't take a stand on the Gospel. They preach about grace, trying to downplay their institution's close associations with Dr. John MacArthur, a former BJU student. There is only one Gospel, but BJU attempts to blur the lines, trying to sugarcoat Mr. MacArthur's counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation. Why won't BJU take a stand for one or the other? Why are they driving in the middle of the road, where all the dead skunks are? It is apostasy! Bob Jones College need to be called out, refuted and exposed, for their ecumenical hobnobbing with the Devil's religious crowd. [2]John MacArthur is of the Devil.

I am warning everyone about Bob Jones University, because they are very deceitful. To the unlearned believer, they might appear to be godly Christians, but it is a mere facade. Godly Christians don't bid Godspeed to false prophets like Mr. MacArthur, who denies that Jesus' blood is on the Mercy Seat in Heaven. Dr. MacArthur says Jesus did not have God's blood flowing in his veins, effectively denying the virgin birth. MacArthur said, and I quote: "There is no such thing as a childhood conversion." MacArthur's plan of salvation is so complicated that only adults can have it. That is another gospel, not what the Holy Bible teaches!

All of the following Bible passages teach that we are saved BY FAITH, nothing more...

> John 1:7, "The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe."
>
> John 1:12, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:"
>
> John 2:23, "Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did."
> John 3:15-18, "That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

John 4:39, "And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did."

John 4:41-42, "And many more believed because of his own word; And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world."

John 5:24, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life."

John 5:45-47, "Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust. For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me; for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?"

John 6:29, "Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

John 6:35, "And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst."

John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day."

John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that*believeth* on me hath everlasting life."

John 7:38-39, "He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)"

John 8:24, "I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins."

John 9:35-38, "Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God? He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him? And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee. And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him."

John 11:25-26, "Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?"

John 14:1, "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me."

John 17:20-21, "Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me."

John 19:35, “And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.”

John 20:29, “Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.”

John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.”

Acts 4:4, “Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.”

Acts 4:32, “And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.”

Acts 8:12, “But when they *believe*d Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.”

Acts 8:37, “And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.”

Acts 9:42, “And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord.”

Acts 10:43, “To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.”

Acts 10:45, “And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.”

Acts 11:17, “Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God?”

Acts 13:39, “And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.”

Acts 14:1, “And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.”

Acts 14:23, “And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.”

Acts 14:27, “And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.”

Acts 15:7, “And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.”

Acts 15:9, “And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.”

Acts 16:31, “And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.”

Acts 17:4-5, “And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few. But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people."

Acts 17:11-12, "These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so. Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few."

Acts 18:8, "And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized."

Acts 18:27, "And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace:"

Acts 19:4, "Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus."

Acts 20:21, "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ."

Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek."

Romans 1:17, "For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith."

Romans 3:22, "Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:"

Romans 3:25-28, "Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus. Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith. Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law."

Romans 3:30, "Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith."

Romans 4:3, "For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness."

Romans 4:5, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

Romans 4:9, "Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness."

Romans 4:11, "And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:"

Romans 4:13, "For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith."

Romans 4:16, "Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,"

Romans 4:23-24, “Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;”

Romans 5:1-2, “Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.”

Romans 9:30, “What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith.”

Romans 9:32-33, “Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone; As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.”

Romans 10:4, “For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.”

2nd Corinthians 4:4, “In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.”

Galatians 2:16, “Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.”

Galatians 3:2, “This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?”

Galatians 3:14, “That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.”

Galatians 3:22, “But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.”

Galatians 3:24, “Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.”

Galatians 5:5, “For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.”

Ephesians 1:13, “In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise,”

Ephesians 2:8, “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:”

Philippians 3:9, “And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:”

2nd Thessalonians 2:12-13, “That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:”

1st Timothy 1:16, “Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.”

1st Timothy 4:10, “For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.”

2nd Timothy 1:12, “For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.”

2nd Timothy 3:15, “And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.”

Hebrews 4:2-3, “For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.”

Hebrews 11:6-7, “But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.”

We are saved BY FAITH! [3]Please do not be deceived by Bob Jones University!

1.5.15 The Greatest Threat To The Gospel Is Ambiguity (2020-07-07 09:11)

Matthew 13:24-25, " Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way."

1676

The greatest threat that exists is the Devil's constant attempt to embellish the truth, to make it ambiguous. The word "ambiguity" is defined as: "unclearness by virtue of having more than one meaning." For example: In Pacific Garden Mission's 'UNSHACKLED'

[1]program #3589 (aired in 2020), a woman named Debbie Brooks meets with a religious friend named Sharon:

> SHARON: Trusting Jesus is the only thing that can make a difference in my messed-up life.

> DEBBIE: I keep hearing that in church, but I don't get it—how something that EASY can be a life-changer.

> SHARON: Oh Debbie, it's not easy—believing in Jesus means repenting and asking forgiveness for all the old ways, and then GIVING THEM UP FOR GOOD. When you find the COURAGE TO DO THAT, He'll help you CHANGE YOUR LIFE.

> DEBBIE: Huh, well, I'll have to think about it.

Dear reader, what you just read taught by Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago is of the Devil, straight out of the pits of Hell. I hope you see how evil this is. According to this perverted UNSHACKLED program, it is NOT EASY to be saved, because you are required to GIVE UP YOUR OLD SINFUL WAYS PERMANENTLY! That is "another gospel" accursed by God!

Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

Pacific Garden Mission are PREACHING ANOTHER GOSPEL!!! It is so very important that we as Christians, " Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God

" (Revelation 3:2). That is exactly what I am faithfully doing with my ministry blogs, social media and websites. By God's grace, I am simply strengthening the things that remain. I am mashing on a lot of people's toes, like preaching against Bob Jones University, but it is only out of a sincere heart of love for God, truth and man that I do so. I care about you dear friend. Right doctrine matters! If your doctrine is wrong, you could end up in Hell like the people did in Matthew 7:21-23 and Luke 13:23-24. Please hear me out dear reader!

We are at absolute spiritual war today over the truths of the Gospel of free grace and the inspired Holy Bible. These two truths are inseparable! That is why I make such a big fuss over the purity of the Word of God. Please notice in our preceding text passage of Scripture, that the ENEMY came when men were SLEEPING, and sowed false seeds of corruption among the wheat. This is what has happened to most of our Bible colleges and churches in America. Bob Jones University (BJU) was at one time the citadel of Christian fundamentalism in the United States and the world. But today BJU preaches the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation.

My God, how did this happen? The Bible tells us. As Bob Jones' leaders and followers slept, the ENEMY (Satan and those who pervert the Gospel) came in unawares, and sowed their SEEDS of Lordship Salvation. What were those seeds? It was the perverted modern Bible revisions!

Pastor Jack Hyles saw what the Devil was up to years ago, and preached a needful positional type sermon in 1994 called: '[2]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES!' based upon Genesis 3:15. It was God Himself who started the fight between INCORRUPTIBLE SEED (the Word of God - 1st Peter 1:23, Luke 8:11, John 1:1-3, 14, Revelation 19:13), and CORRUPTIBLE SEED (Satan's perverse seed, the modern Bible revisions). The " enemies

" are the modern Bible translators and publishers, and the ungodly pastors and Bible colleges who support their evil work. I choose to be among the few remaining faithful believers today, who use, uphold, defend and love God's INCORRUPTIBLE SEED (by which every believer has been born again - 1st Peter 1:23). The modern revisions are CORRUPTIBLE SEED!

Whereas the inspired King James Bible is clear in its meaning, the Devil's modern Bible revisions are ambiguous, changing the truth of God into a lie (Romans 1:25). Most of the modern Bible versions errantly and dishonestly translate the word "

repent

as a change of behavior. For example: The Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) changes the word

in Mark 1:15 to

"[3]change your hearts and lives." The word "repent"

in the Bible concerning salvation simply means a change of mind, not a change of behavior. The modern Bible translators are corrupting the Bible to fit their religious agenda, not honoring THE TRUTH as it stands! In so doing, they have perverted The Gospel, teaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, which the Bible does not teach.

[4]Bob Jones University is leading the way in corrupting churches today, confusing everyone what the Gospel is. [5]Pastor John MacArthur teaches a very different gospel than what the King James Bible teaches. Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU since 2014) has taken the college to a heretical position of full-blown Lordship Salvation. Yet you'll hear sermons about salvation by faith and through grace, which makes no sense at all. Even Romans 11:6 says this, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works*: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. " God's curse is upon Bob Jones University, and their graduates who support their damnable doctrines. Right doctrine matters! Ambiguity is the enemy of the Gospel.

The Apostle Paul made very clear what the Gospel is in the Bible, so we don't need to be ambiguous about its meaning:

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, " Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: "

There you have it—Christ died on the cross for our sins, He was buried, and three days later Jesus resurrected physically from the dead. 1st Corinthians 15:6 says that over 500 people saw Jesus in just one sighting. Christ is risen! If you recognize your need oh sinner for the saving grace of God, simply receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. Believe that He was buried, then Christ bodily raised up the third day. Trust Him alone to pardon your sins. It's that simple to be saved. Eternal life is a free gift from God! Jesus paid for it with His precious blood. All you need to do is accept it by faith, by BELIEVING the Good News!

What you just read is very different than what [6]Dr. Steve Pettit teaches at Bob Jones University. The Gospel as taught in the King James Bible is very different than what [7]Evangelist Ray Comfort teaches. These are two VERY different ideologies that cannot BOTH be God's plan of salvation for man. Either you must be willing to forsake your sins to be saved (as John MacArthur and Ray Comfort claim), or you do not because it is a gift, but it CANNOT be both. Both may be, but at least one must be, wrong!

Wayne (2020-07-08 02:42:13)
Exceptional post! I was deceived for so long and so confused about all the impossible requirements that false teachers had taught me since childhood to be saved. I used to wonder how all the false profits were so perfect, after prayer and God leading me to Jesus is Savior I finally understood the simplicity that is in Christ and trusted him alone for my salvation. Tears rolling down my face, the dark cloud over me lifted and I have been growing ever since.. praise God for helping me find the truth and saving me. I'll never be perfect in this body and neither will any other person on this earth, steer clear of any church or pastor giving you an impossible plan of salvation.. these sinester people are self righteous and I seriously doubt we'll see them in heaven.

1.5.16 The Danger Of Feelings (2020-07-07 11:00)

"And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau." —Genesis 27:22

The Bible tells us that Jacob deceived his father, Isaac, and stole Esau's blessing. What a crook! A great lesson can be learned from Isaac's horrible mistake. Isaac suspected something was wrong from the start, based upon the VOICE he heard, i.e., he heard the voice of Jacob. However, Isaac foolishly went by his "feelings" instead, assuming that the hairy hand he felt must have been Esau's. "And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau. And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands: so he blessed him." (Genesis 27:22,23). Isaac should have gone by the voice instead of trusting what he felt.

There is a great Biblical truth to be learned from this incident. Many people today make decisions based upon feelings instead of trusting the VOICE of God's Word. We ought not do this. Our decisions and confidence should be rooted in the promises of God's Word, and not in human emotions.

Assurance Of Salvation and Feelings

Some people "feel" that they are not saved anymore because of sin in their life. However, it is normal for a Christian to "feel" unsaved when they sin, because one cannot feel right if they don't live right. Howbeit, one's salvation is safe and secure in the redeeming power of Jesus' precious blood (1st Peter 1:18,19; Hebrews 9:12; 1st John 1:7; Revelation 1:5). We are not saved by good works, and it is of a certainty that we cannot be lost by bad works. Salvation is receiving, not giving. Romans 4:5 plainly states that salvation is without works, and comes only by faith in Jesus Christ who justifieth the ungodly.

Our confidence in God should be based solely upon the promises contained within the inspired Word of God. Our feelings may fail us, or even betray our faith, but our faith should remain stedfast on the written promises of God. As believers, let us be strong in the Lord, trusting the written Word of God instead of our personal feelings, and guard against placing God on trial as the heathen world does.

False Religion And Feelings

We are warned in Proverbs 14:12 and 16:25, "There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." We are again warned in Matthew 7:22,23, "Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." Matthew 7:21 explains why, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." We find the will of God in John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." The will of God is for lost sinners to believe on Jesus Christ for forgiveness of sins and salvation.

So many people today "feel" that they are going to Heaven, just as did the religious fools in Matthew 7:22-23 (saying “

Lord, Lord

”), but hellfire awaits them because they only have churchianity without Christianity. They don’t have Jesus Christ! Only God knows how many hundreds of millions of Catholics alive today will one day burn in Hellfire—because they are trusting the Vatican to save them, because they "feel" some sinful priest can forgive their sins, because they sincerely "feel" that their loyalty to the Virgin Mary will earn them a place in Heaven, because they "feel" that keeping the Seven Sacraments will save them, et cetera. Yet, the Bible teaches that sincere feelings are often a road to death and Hell.

The road to Hell is indeed paved with good intentions. In Mark 7:9 Jesus condemned any religion that supersedes the Word of God with their own manmade traditions, "Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition." Phooey on feelings, what does the Word of God teach?

False Doctrine And Feelings

In Matthew 16:23, Jesus sharply rebuked Peter by exclaiming, "Get thee behind me, Satan." What had Peter said to prompt Jesus to call him "Satan"? When Jesus announced that He was going to be crucified, Peter became defensive and rebuked Jesus, saying that it shouldn’t happen (Matthew 16:22). Although Peter was sincere, he was horribly wrong in his feelings. Horribly wrong! Peter didn’t want Jesus to die on the cross. Can you imagine? Peter loved His friend and didn’t want to see him killed. Peter was sincere but wrong!

There is much false doctrine in our churches today because of "feelings." One of the most dangerous heresies is Lordship Salvation, which teaches that forsaking one’s sinful lifestyle is a part of saving faith. This heresy is the result of self-righteous people "feeling" that a saved person should live a certain type of life. Regardless of what proponents of Lordship Salvation may believe, the Word of God plainly states that salvation is without works. Romans 4:5, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." We are not saved by our own self-righteousness, but by Jesus' righteousness. 2nd Corinthians 5:21, "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." Matthew 6:33, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." You need HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS to be saved!

The Deceitfulness Of Sin And Feelings

Homosexuals allege that their same-sex partner lifestyle "feels" right, so it must be right. Nothing could be further from the truth. Homosexuality is a "feeling" (Romans 1:26, "vile affections"), which is not biblical love. The world's type of love is superficial, temporal and conditional. This is why there are so many divorces today. Worldly love is based on a condition; such as, physical beauty, money, security, comfort, et cetera. When the condition changes, then the "love" is gone. Of course, that is not the love of God. God's love is unconditional and never faileth.

There's a song by Toni Gonzaga titled, 'Catch Me I'm Falling (For You),' in which she sings: '

How can something so wrong?

Feel so right all along,

Catch me I'm falling for you.'

The music group, Alabama, sings the song, 'Feels So Right.' Ashanti sings the song, 'Feel So Good.' Unfortunately, when the feelings are gone, so is the relationship. This is the world's type of so-called love that is based upon "feelings." The world elevates "feelings" above the Scriptures, just as Isaac foolishly placed more weight upon what he felt instead of the voice he heard.

The reason why something so wrong can "feel" so right is because sin is DECEITFUL. Hebrews 3:13 instructs believers, "But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin." We read in Proverbs 20:17, "Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel." Jeremiah 17:9 proclaims, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?" Just because something "feels" right doesn't mean it is right.

In fact, most of the things that God requires of a believer doesn't feel right at all. 2nd Timothy 3:12 states, "Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution." Being ridiculed, rejected, scorned, sunned and ostracized may not "feel" right, but it is what to expect for the Christian who loves the Lord and lets their light shine.

Follow The Voice Of Scripture, Not Your Feelings

Never before in history has Christianity been under more attack than It is today. But the enemy isn't marching Communist troops or the torturers of the inquisition; rather, it is the apostasy of modern times that have rendered most churchgoers worldly, complacent, and without salvation. We are living in a generation that rejects anything that doesn't "feel" good to them, "For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears" (2nd Timothy 4:3).

It is important that Christians learn to set their "feelings" aside in every matter, and listen to the VOICE of God's Word. This is why Jesus commanded in John 5:39, " SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES

!!! Had Isaac listened to the "voice" of Jacob instead of trusting his "feelings," he would have prevented a tragic heartbreak and great evil committed against Esau. Isaac was greatly deceived because he trusted his feelings. With all the many scams, cons, and deceptions in the world today, it is advisable to always look beyond one's feelings.

Most people watch The 700 Club and "feel" heart-touched to send them a donation. Pictures of starving children are a powerful tool to raise money. However, I don't go by my "feelings," so I decided to check with the Better Business Bureau instead. To no surprise, The 700 Club [1]refuses to disclose where the contributions go. Sadly, millions of suckers continue to send them money, in hopes of receiving a financial blessing in return. 'Give to get,' they say. It's sickening and of the Devil!!!

Feelings can be dangerous! So dangerous in fact that many people go to Hell for trusting them (Matthew 7:21-23). It doesn't matter what you feel, or what I feel. What matters is what God says! You've no doubt heard the children's song, 'Jesus Loves Me.' "Jesus loves me this I know." Why, because I "feel" it? No, "for the Bible tells me so"! Jesus didn't command His disciples to "search their feelings" in John 5:39. No, rather, Jesus commanded them to, 'SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES'!!! We hear much talk nowadays about "searching one's feelings," but that's exactly what the Bible does for us, "For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart."

May we learn from Isaac's foolish mistake, when he trusted his uncertain "feelings" instead of the certain voice

that he clearly heard.

1.5.17 Something To Think About! (2020-07-07 19:18)

A very well orchestrated plan, or a unimaginable set of events that just fell into place ... with the United States front and center. You tell me!!!

Scare people with a virus, force them to wear masks and place them in quarantine

Count the number of dead every second of every day, in every News Headline. By the way, ninety-nine and eight-tenths of the people who get the virus, recover. About one to two tenths of one percent who get the virus, die. Most all of them have other medical problems. Did you catch that ? Less than 1/2 of a percent die.

Close businesses = 35,000,000+ instantly unemployed.

Remove entertainment and prohibit Recreation; Closing parks, gyms, bars, restaurants, sports.

No dating. No touching. Isolate people. Dehumanize them.

Close Temples and Churches, prohibit worship. Create a vacuum and let depression, anxiety, hopelessness and desperation set in.

Then... ignite hatred and civil unrest, creating Civil War.

Empty the prisons because of the virus and fill the streets with criminals.

Send in Antifa to vandalize property, as if they are freedom fighters. Undermine the law, Riot, Loot and Attack all Law Enforcement, but tell government to order a stand-down.

1688

Then… Defund Law Enforcement and abolish Police.

We are all being played by those who want to destroy America! This is how you destroy a Nation from within, and in very short order. Will it work, I guess that depends on you and me.

I did not write this … but it needs to be shared.

1.5.18 Searching For God (2020-07-07 23:30)

2nd Timothy 3:7, “

Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

Just out of curiosity, I typed

“

Searching for God

on Google. Interestingly, the first result was to [1]an article from the Huffington Post. I was saddened to read the following information. Dear reader, this is what Google returned at the top of a search for God:

Here are the five ways to help along this spiritual transformation inside yourself:

1. Change your thinking about yourself and about God.
2. Regard every thought of God as God.
3. Practice believing that God dwells in you already.
4. Remember that God dwells in all others, too.
5. Be still and know that I am God.

The preceding information on how to search for God was authored by Dr. Steve McSwain

, who is a

Speaker, Author, Counselor to Congregations, Interfaith Ambassador and Spiritual Teacher according to the Huffington Post article. The preceding five bits of advice are spiritually deceptive, misleading and dangerous. Kindly said, Dr. McSwain is teaching New Age doctrine. New Age is rooted in pantheism, the concept that everything in the universe is God. That is why Dr. McSwain says, “Practice believing that God dwells in you already” and

“Remember that God dwells in all others, too.”

The truth according to the Bible is that God created everything, but God does not dwell inside you unless you are His child. Romans 8:9, “But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.” Also, see 1st Corinthians 3:16-17 and 1st John 3:24.

Our text Bible verse from 2nd Timothy 3:7 says that the unsaved world is

Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

” Dr. Stephen Hawking (1942-2018) was one of the most educated men who ever lived, whose career was as a Theoretical Physicist, yet he died a broken, miserable and unsaved man, who is sadly undoubtedly burning in Hell forever. Stephen Hawing was an avowed atheist.

According to Wikipedia:

> ...Hawking was an atheist and believed that "the universe is governed by the laws of science". He stated: "There is a fundamental difference between religion, which is based on authority, [and] science, which is based on observation and reason. Science will win because it works."[368] In an interview published in The Guardian, Hawking regarded "the brain as a computer which will stop working when its components fail", and the concept of an afterlife as a "fairy story for people afraid of the dark". In 2011, narrating the first episode of the American television series Curiosity on the Discovery Channel, Hawking declared:
> We are each free to believe what we want and it is my view that the simplest explanation is there is no God. No one created the universe and no one directs our fate. This leads me to a profound realisation. There is probably no heaven, and no afterlife either. We have this one life to appreciate the grand design of the universe, and for that, I am extremely grateful.

It is truly sad and tragic reading the statements of atheists. I feel sorry for Stephen Hawking, that he didn’t have the blessed assurance of eternal life that I have as a born-again Bible-believing Christian. You too can have eternal life through faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ!

Carefully notice that Dr. Steve McSwain doesn't quote any Bible references when telling people how to search for God. My friend, you cannot find God apart from the inspired Holy Bible.

The way to God is only through Jesus Christ.

1st John 2:22-23,

Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

" No one, and I mean NO ONE, will ever find God who rejects Jesus Christ as the Son of God!!! If you want to find God, then you need the blessed Savior.

That is why God authored the Bible and gave it to mankind, so we could learn about Jesus. That is why the Devil has gotten into the Bible publishing business, to confuse everyone and obscure the truth, [2]attacking the deity of Christ in the modern revisions. John 5:39,

Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

" The Scriptures testify of Jesus Christ, who is the way to God the Father. John 14:6,

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

" So if you have have been searching for God, the search is over dear friend if you accept Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. He wants to be your Savior, very much so. Here is an amazing passage of Scripture...

Romans 5:6-8, " For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. "

Christ died for ungodly sinners like you and me. The price has been paid with Jesus' precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). You can be spared God's wrath in Hell forever, by putting your trust in what Christ has done on the cross to pay for your sins. The way to God is only through Jesus Christ. 1st Timothy 3:16,

"And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

Dr. Steve McSwain is an unsaved false teacher, who will lead you into the fires of Hell with him. Mr. McSwain is pulling on the same rope as the Devil, although he is no doubt sincere. The unsaved man thinks very differently than the saved man. 1st John 5:20 says that JESUS IS GOD AND ETERNAL LIFE!!! If you have the Son, you have found God! McSwain is wrong that God lives inside of everyone. Jesus as God Created all things (John 1:1-3, 14). All men have some knowledge of God and a conscience (Romans 1:20; 2:15). God is not all things, and all things God. Pantheism is a lie. God is a person, just like you and me. We were created in the image of God, as male and female (Romans 1:27). You can become friends with God, as did Abraham (James 2:23).

The heathen world is **"

Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth

" (

2nd Timothy 3:7). The world would rather spend a lifetime searching for answers, than simply accept THE TRUTH! The reason why they don't is because it is foolishness to them. 1st Corinthians 1:18 and 21,

For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. ...

For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

1.5.19 Jesus' Liquid Blood Had To Be Applied In Heaven (2020-07-08 00:00)

Hebrews 12:24, "And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel."

Jesus ascended into Heaven and sprinkled His literal, liquid, blood upon the Mercy Seat, completely redemption (Hebrews 9:12,24; 12:24). If Jesus' blood had never made it to Heaven and been sprinkled on the Mercy Seat in the Holy Place, then Christ's sacrifice on the cross would HAVE BEEN COMPLETELY VOID!!! The blood had to be applied. The death of the Passover Lamb wasn't enough in the Old Testament. When the death angel passed over Egypt, the firstborn of man and animal died if there was no blood applied to the doorposts of the home.

> Exodus 12:13, "And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt."

Notice in the preceding Bible verse what God said: "WHEN I SEE THE BLOOD, I WILL PASS OVER YOU"! Without the blood being applied to the homes, the firstborn died. There were no exceptions. What makes you think that God will let you into Heaven without faith in the blood which Christ shed for your sins. 1st Peter 1:18-19, 1st John 1:7 and Revelation 1:5 all proclaim that our sins have been gloriously washed away by the precious blood of Jesus, the Lamb of God!!!

Beware of the bloodless corrupt theology in our churches today which presents a plan of salvation that needs no blood. [1]Dr. John MacArthur and [2]Dr. Robert B. Thieme Jr. have started a cult that denies the necessity of Christ's physical blood on the Mercy Seat in Heaven. These men errantly teach that Jesus' blood soaked into the dirt at the cross, esteeming it as an unholy (common) thing. Dear reader, the blood of Jesus did not remain in the dirt of Calvary's hill at the feet of the cross. THE BLOOD IS APPLIED IN HEAVEN!!!

[3]The Precious Blood Of Christ

(an awesome MP3 sermon by Pastor Ralph 'Yankee' Arnold)

I thank God I am not John MacArthur, who is in trouble with God for denying the blood...

> Hebrews 10:29, "Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?"

Dr. John F. MacArthur, Dr. Robert B. Thieme Jr, [4]Dr. Merrill F. Unger—all teach that Jesus' blood was never applied to the heavenly Mercy Seat. According to these damned heretics, references in the Word of God to Christ's blood

1696 merely mean

“

instead. I wouldn’t want to be in the shoes of these ungodly false prophets, who have trampled underfoot the precious blood of the Lamb as being a common thing, like a puddle of water or a spare tire in the garage.

> Hebrews 9:21-24, “ Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry. And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission. It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:”

Let every born-again Christian believer who names the name of Jesus uplift, love and cherish the literal, physical, liquid, precious, blood of the Lamb of God which is now and forever sprinkled (Hebrews 12:24), upon the heavenly Mercy Seat in the Holy Place (Hebrews 9:12), in the presence of God the Father (Hebrews 9:24).

1.5.20 There Are 86,400 Seconds In A Day (2020-07-08 11:30)

“In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.”

—1st Thessalonians 5:18

86,400 seconds! That’s how many seconds there are in one day (60 x 60 x 24). Out of those 86,400 seconds in each day, do we take even one of them to thank God? People are such ingrates nowadays, which is clearly evidenced by the spoiled attitudes they have. There is a spirit of ingratitude toward God behind feminism, behind the homosexual movement, behind liberal theology, behind the booze industry, behind the abortion industry, behind legalized gambling, behind the Bible-corrupting movement, et cetera.

The Bible clearly teaches in Romans 1:21-22, "Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools." The first step to becoming a fool is to not be thankful towards God. It's all downhill from there! The first thing I do every morning when I awake is thank God for another day. I don't deserve a wonderful God, who loves a wretched sinner like me enough to be crucified for my sins. What a Wonderful and Precious Savior! 1st Peter 2:7 says, "Unto you therefore which believe he is precious..." Jesus is precious!!!

The heathen world doesn't appreciate God, nor the Bible. The Bible is a wonderful gift from God, to guide us spiritually through this dark and lonely world of sin... "And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not" (John 1:5). Jesus came speaking the truth, and they refused to believe Him, "And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not." The Bible is nothing more than a religious Book to most people. Oh but it is so much more my friend— the Word of God is Life! It is the very seed by which men are born again, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever" (1st Peter 1:23). What does the Bible mean to you?

Romans 1:18 is an interesting Scripture, "For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness." Most sinners know the truth; but don't want the truth. The Gospel has been preached repeatedly throughout most of the world, yet Hell hath enlarged herself. "Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it. And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled: But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness" (Isaiah 5:14-16). If Jesus would have spoken lies and been silent concerning sin, then the unsaved heathen would have received Him; but Jesus spoke the truth and they hated him for it, "The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil" (John 7:7).

There is a direct correlation between ingratitude and sin. When a man is genuinely thankful and appreciative towards his Creator, it will naturally cause that man to want to please God. This is the whole reason why God created mankind—to please God, "Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created" (Revelation 4:11). The selfish world could care less about God or Truth. Tragically, even many professed "Christians" are cold towards the things of God. The Truth should burn in our hearts as it did in Jeremiah's, "Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay" (Jeremiah 20:9).

Every believer should continually thank God. Did you ever stop to think just how blessed you really are? Think about how many quadriplegics would give all the wealth in the world just to have what you have... mobility. I dare say even one wouldn't trade all the money in the world just to be able to walk and use their arms. Yet, it's so typical for people to complain and be negative. "O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. Let the redeemed of the LORD say so..." (Psalm 107:1,2). God is a good God! So many people take life for granted.

Do you know how many married couples would love to have children, but are biologically unable? Many! They'd give all the money in the world just to have children. Yet so many parents fail to realize the wonderful blessing from God in their children. Some mothers even murder their own precious children by having an abortion. [1]Every day in Russia 2,000 children are murdered by abortion!!! Children are a gift from God, entrusted to us by their Creator. Life itself is a gift from God.

Listen friend, if you can walk, talk, see, hear, smell, taste, and think for yourself, then you are truly blessed of God! Of course, nothing means anything if you die and go to Hell for eternity. All that will matter 100 years from now is whether you died in your sin (John 8:24), or died in the Lord Jesus Christ (Revelation 14:13). Ye must be born-again (John 3:7).

There are 86,400 seconds in a day, have you thanked God with just one of them?

“In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.”

1.5.21 Eternal Life Doesn’t Cost You Anything (2020-07-09 08:40)

Acts 20:28, “ Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.”

Amen, God purchased the Church with His own blood, that is, the precious blood of His only begotten Son Jesus Christ. Jesus had God the Father’s blood flowing in His veins. That is because Jesus was born of a virgin. God was His biological Father in all respects. That means you can have the gift of eternal life without paying anything for it. It won’t cost you your sins. It won’t cost you your life. It won’t cost you your free will. It won’t cost you the old way of living. It won’t cost you anything, because God purchased it, with His own blood through Christ’s sacrifice on Calvary’s cross! God loves you so much dear friend, that He would rather die than to live without you!

Pastor John MacArthur Is Selling Salvation

There is a group of wicked religious men in America. They are good men, as far as good men go. They are sincere men. But they are foolish men, who have been woefully deceived by the Devil. The most notable leader in their heretical group is Pastor John MacArthur of “ radio in California. Dr. MacArthur has influenced millions of people through his books, internet, radio, sermons and college. Any time someone comes along preaching that salvation will “cost” you something, you know that minister was inspired by demons. John MacArthur heretically states:

Grace To You

> “Don’t believe anyone who says it’s easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God’s Son His life, and it’ll cost you the same thing...” [emphasis added]
>
> [1]Dr. John MacArthur, Grace To You, an updated quote from his book ’Hard To Believe’, page 93.

Folks, that is not “the simplicity that is in Christ” (2nd Corinthians 11:3b). There is no “cost” to a sinner who comes to Jesus Christ to receive God’s gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life. Romans 6:23, “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.” Eternal life is a gift from God, which we RECEIVE by faith alone in the the Gospel (Good News) of the Lord Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). There is no other way of salvation (Acts 4:10-12). Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) had this to say about Pastor John MacArthur:

> “Who is John MacArthur? He is the one man in America doing more than anybody to destroy soul-winning churches!” —Dr. Jack Hyles (a needful quote from the MP3 sermon, “[2]I Sojourn In Mesech”

That is because Lordship Salvation is a major hindrance to the Gospel. Where Lordship Salvation is being propagated, tares are filling up the churches, and people are becoming false converts to religion instead of Christianity. They are living the Christian life, calling Jesus,

"LORD, LORD" (Matthew 7:22-23), but they have never been born-again! No one is saved who has turned from their sins to get saved! If you want to try to live right, fine, but don't be so stupid to add that to your faith, or else it is not true faith. Turning over a new leaf is not part of the saving Gospel of free grace.

The "simple" thing about salvation, is that to receive eternal life you just need to BELIEVE the Gospel. Even a small child can do that! If you gladly receive the '[3]GOOD NEWS' of Jesus Christ crucified on the cross, buried and bodily risen the third day, you are saved! Acts 2:43, "Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls." They were saved by receiving the Good News of Jesus crucified, buried and risen.

Then they were water baptized as a pubic profession of their faith. Notice that they were saved first, and then afterwards baptized with water.

Salvation is BY FAITH alone. Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?" That is, when a person hears the Gospel preached, and they receive it by faith, placing their trust in that GOOD NEWS, they are saved. Believe the GOOD NEWS my friend and you are eternally saved!!! John MacArthur errantly says getting saved will COST you something, but that is not what the Scripture tells us.

Acts 20:28, " Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood."

Sadly, [4]Evangelist Steve Pettit (new president of Bob Jones University since 2014) teaches the same junk theology:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit (" [5]What Does it mean To Run 'The Race'? - 11:34)

That is some dangerous talk when you include the next quote from Dr. Pettit, in which he teaches 2,700 BJU students that the "AWARD" for running 'The Race' is "Heaven itself"!!!

> "We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what's the prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don't believe its referring to crowns in Heaven. I think it is referring to Heaven itself." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ([6]"What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 22:57)

Heaven itself? Oh my! What saith the Scripture? 1st Corinthians 9:24-25, "Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain. And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible." As you just read, the "award" will be an "INCORRUPTIBLE CROWN," but Steve Pettit says it will be HEAVEN ITSELF!!! That is tragic folks. According to Mr. Pettit, you cannot know you are 100 % saved and secure until you've finished running your race. That is not the instant new birth by childlike faith alone in the Savior.

Kindly said, Dr. Pettit is selling salvation! He says it will cost you your sinful behavior. He says it will cost you your self-will, self-assertiveness and living your own life. Dr. Pettit says getting saved will COST YOU all that!!! What saith the Scripture? JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

1st Peter 1:18-19, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: "

We started off in this article with a Bible verse about God PURCHASING the Church with His blood. So how did we get to Steve Pettit saying you have to faithfully 'RUN THE RACE' to get to Heaven. That is payment! Why is Dr. Pettit telling us to pay for what God has already purchased? Since the price has already been paid for eternal life, we can simply receive it, and there is nothing more that can be REQUIRED.

Are you getting this folks? Dr. Pettit teaches salvation as a process instead of a new birth. We are saved in an instant by trusting Jesus as our Savior, but becoming Christlike takes a lifetime. Being conformed into the image of Christ is God's department, not ours! Changing is not mandatory to get to Heaven. Dr. Pettit is invading God's space, and invalidating God's grace, by adding running the race! Our part is to trust the blessed Savior. Whatever changes God wants to see happen in our life is His department alone. John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Repeatedly in the inspired King James Bible, we read that we're saved BY FAITH alone, without works (Romans 4:5-6). Yet, these ungodly impostors have crept into tens of thousands of churches today, preaching with a forked-tongue. While they deceptively speak of salvation by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone; they demand that people turn away from "[7]LIVING MY OWN LIFE"

(that is an exact quote from Dr. Steve Pettit, from his chapel sermon #741 of 'The Daily Platform,' titled:

[8]What Does It Mean To Be Justified?

"). Dear reader, these people are false teachers who are in utter denial. The refuse to see how having to pay the

"COST

forsaking

your sins, and forsaking your own way of living, somehow does not constitute WORKS for salvation. Are you really serious? There is NO COST for the Christian believer, because God has already purchased the Church with His blood.

I love you all, and I hope you have not been deceived by Satan!

Evangelist Paul Washer says eternal life will COST you. Look at this quote:

[9]

When Jesus spoke with the rich young ruler in Matthew 19:16-22, He was talking with an un-saved person; but afterwards the Lord spoke with His disciples in Matthew 19:23-30

, who were already saved by faith. So we need to keep this in mind when interpreting such Scripture passages. To whom was the Lord speaking, to the saved or unsaved? In the case of Matthew 19:23-30, Jesus was speaking to the saved. It is gross theological incompetence for anyone, like Paul Washer, to apply this passage to the free gift of eternal life, which is received by faith alone in the dear Savior.

2nd Peter 2:1,

“But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies...”

1.5.22 Pope John Paul II Sinfully Prays to Mary (2020-07-09 10:30)

Exodus 20:3-5, “ Thou shalt have no other gods before me. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;”

Kindly said not to offend Roman Catholics, the Holy Bible forbids idolatry. Pope John Paul II (1920-2005) committed the sin of idolatry every time he bowed and prayed to Mary. Here is what Pope John Paul II prayed publicly on December 8, 2003:

“Queen of peace, pray for us!

. . . Our gaze is directed toward you in great fear, to you do we turn with ever-more insistent faith in these times marked by many uncertainties and fears for the present and future of our planet. Together we lift our confident and sorrowful petition to you, the first fruit of humanity redeemed by Christ, finally freed from the slavery of evil and sin: hear the cry of the pain of victims of war and so many forms of violence that bloody the earth. Clear away the darkness of sorrow and worry, of hate and vengeance. Open up our minds and hearts to faith and forgiveness!" —Pope John Paul II

Let me start off by saying that the Roman Catholic church is not a biblical church. Catholicism is a false religion straight out of the pits of hell. I say this by the authority of God's Word, the inspired Holy Bible. In the above prayer, Pope John Paul II says to Mary (Queen of Peace), "...to you do we turn with ever-more insistent faith..." Excuse me, "Faith?" Since when did the Bible teach that we are supposed to place our faith in Mary? The Bible clearly teaches that we are supposed to place 100 % of our faith in Jesus Christ (the Lamb of God who died for the sins of the world), but there is NO mention of trusting Mary (or anyone else for that matter). The Word of God proclaims that salvation can only be found in Christ Jesus...

"Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole. This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." —Acts 4:10-12

Don't be foolish my friend, the Bible will stand the test of time. There is no salvation in Mary. If you are familiar with Roman Catholicism, then you know about Our Lady of Fatima. Well, [1]Fatima is a big hoax conjured up by the Vatican! Allegedly, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared in several apparitions to three young children in Fatima (located in South America). It was reported that Mary made fifteen PROMISES to the three young children, IF they would trust themselves to her by devoutly praying the Rosary. Biblically, the [2]Rosary is Blasphemy!

The Rosary is false religion! According to the Catholic teaching of Fatima, we are all supposed to place our trust in Mary by praying the Rosary. But the Bible warns us against trying to enter heaven through "some other way."John 10:1,

“ Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. ” The DOOR is Jesus Christ. John 10:7,

“ Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. ”

Kindly said, the Vatican is a school for thieves and robbers! The Vatican misleads billions of people, sending them along the highway to Hell. Even the Catholic Bible teaches the simple plan of God’s salvation. Ephesians 2:8-9, “ For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.

When will the Catholics ever learn that salvation is of God, not of men or the church?

I have shared the Gospel with many Catholics in my lifetime and they all say the same basic things:

> “I am not perfect, but I consider myself a good person. I life a good life and try to take care of myself. I love my kids and try to be a good parent. I pray the Rosary every day. I have been baptized into the Catholic church. I don’t hurt anyone. I love God and thank him every day for His blessings. I don’t cheat anyone and try to be a good neighbor. I honor Mary be being faithful to my church. I do the best I can... I ... I ... I.”

Then if I ask if they’re trusting Jesus Christ (whom they rarely mention in the first place), they’ll say:

“

Oh yes, I’m trusting Jesus to take me to heaven.

The problem is that they’re ALSO trusting everything else—the church, Mother Mary, their good works, et cetera. Roman Catholics have been deceived by the Vatican into placing their faith into [3]manmade traditions, lies and heresies. There is much [4]confusion within the Catholic religion and [5]word games. Catholicism is [6]FALSE WORSHIP. What about the [7]Apocrypha? Is Catholic doctrine [8]infallible?

It is evident from the words of Pope John Paul II that he is greatly magnifying Mary, praying to Mary, elevating her to blasphemous levels:

> "Together we lift our confident and sorrowful petition to you..."

> "Hear the cry of the pain of victims of war and so many forms of violence that bloody the earth."

> "Clear away the darkness of sorrow and worry, of hate and vengeance."
> "Open up our minds and hearts to faith and forgiveness!"

How in the world can Catholics continue to claim that they don't pray to Mary and still keep a straight face? What do you call the earlier "prayer" by the Pope to Mary? That the Pope was praying to Mary CANNOT be reasonably denied! Only a blind fool would say that the Pope doesn't pray to Mary. I triple-dog dare you to show me ANY Scripture in the Bible to backup the above blasphemous statements made by Pope John Paul II on December 8th, 2003. You cannot! Nowhere in the Word of God are we ever led to recognize Mary in any capacity. The entire matter of recognizing Mary is exclusive to Catholicism. The Church of Rome's infatuation with Mary is more deadly than the Coronavirus. The Coronavirus can only kill your body, but a false gospel will send you to Hell forever to suffer in body and soul. Matthew 10:28, "And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell."

Where in the Word of God are we ever led to "petition" Mary? Where in the Bible are we led to ask Mary to "hear the cry of the pain of victims of war"? Where in the Bible are we ever led to ask Mary to "clear away the darkness of sorrow and worry, of hate and vengeance"? Where in the Bible are we ever led to ask Mary to "open up our minds and hearts to faith and forgiveness"? Where in the Bible are we ever led to ask Mary for anything? The answer is NOWHERE!!! Does Mary have any power in Heaven? Does Mary have the power to clear away sorrow and hate? Does Mary have the power to open our minds and hearts? Does Mary have the power to help the victims of war and violence? The Scriptures do NOT indicate any such teachings. Mary has no special power of influence with God. As a matter of fact, Jesus clearly told us in the Holy Bible that Mary was NO BETTER or SPECIAL than anyone else...

Matthew 12:48, "Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee. But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren! For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother."

Everyone who obeys the Gospel is EQUAL to Mary. That is what Jesus taught in Matthew 12:48-50. Clearly, Jesus was diminishing the idea that His earthly family was special in any way. Jesus loved them, but He clearly placed more emphasis upon the family of God, which is composed of all believers. Thus, we shouldn't recognize Mary, Jesus' earthly mother, as being anything more than a dirty, rotten, needy sinner, deserving of Hell, just like you and me. I don't mean to be unkind, but that's just the plain truth. Mary needed to get born-again just like anyone else. Salvation is of God, not Mary or the Catholic church. Please beware of the religious prisonhouse of Roman Catholicism!

"Listen to me young people, you never get out of a hole by lying. A lie will dig the hole deeper. Truth will not always get you out of a hole, but lying will never do it. When you get in a hole, put up a ladder of truth and try to climb out. Don't lie; don't be a humbug; don't be a fourflusher! Listen, it is not only wrong to lie, but also it doesn't pay to lie. There is something about telling the truth that disarms even your enemies. You can't lie yourself to success. You can travel the road of truth. So travel it!" —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," page 51; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

1.5.23 You Simply Need To Trust Christ To Be Saved (2020-07-10 10:00)

Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?"

Salvation is BY FAITH alone. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. Evangelist

Steve Pettit (new president of Bob Jones University since 2014) is subtle in his words, deceptively changing the Word of God into a lie. Read what he says:

> "...faith in Jesus is not just an intellectual conviction, it is a personal commitment. Paul says, we have believed in Jesus, and the word 'in' literally means 'into' ...I am taking my life, my eternity, my destiny, everything, and I am placing it into Christ." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit, an excerpt from "What Does It Mean To Be Justified?" (The Daily Platform #741)

This is not true! So if you intellectually believe the Gospel you are not saved, he says, you must MAKE A PERSONAL COMMITMENT to Christ. How do you have faith intellectually, but not be saved? That makes no sense. What saith the Scripture? 2nd Timothy 1:12, "For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day." Notice carefully that the Bible does not say Paul made a commitment to Christ; but rather, he committed the keeping of his soul into Christ's hands. The word "commitment" means "a deposit" (trust), which Dr. Pettit gets correct. We are depositing our trust in Christ for salvation. However, Dr. Pettit is perverting the Gospel when he says that we must deposit "everything" into Christ to be saved:

> "I am taking my life, my eternity, my destiny, everything, and I am placing it into Christ." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit, an excerpt from "What Does It Mean To Be Justified?" (The Daily Platform #741)

That is not the Gospel of free grace! [1]I am so sick of this Lordship Salvation garbage!!! I love Dr. Pettit and his family, and all the family at Bob Jones University, and my former beloved church family at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (before they excommunicated me in 2014 for telling the truth, as I am still doing now in this article). Eternal life is the free gift of God. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) got the Gospel right! Dr. Bob said, "[2]The gift of eternal life is wrapped in the wonderful package of Jesus." Boy, I love that! If you want God's gift of eternal life, then you must accept it in the package of Jesus Christ! Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said in 1944 that he would [3]blow Bob Jones College to smithereens (MP4), if he could in 50 years, if they ever let [4]an infidel like Dr. Steve Pettit come in and rob the saints of their faith! Any man who preaches about faith and grace, but ADDS turning from "LIVING YOUR OWN LIFE" is preaching another gospel!!!

What saith the Scripture? Romans 12:1, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." The Apostle Paul didn't say it is our MANDATORY or REQUIRED SERVICE, but our "REASONABLE SERVICE"! If you are a Christian you SHOULD live godly in Christ Jesus. ...

> Titus 2:11-15, "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee."

Carefully notice that the Bible says WE SHOULD live for Christ; not MUST (that would be works for salvation); not WILL (that would be the heresy of Calvinism). I realize that preachers and theologians have been wrangling over the subject of repentance for generations, but the Bible plainly defines the Gospel in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 as Christ's death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection from the dead. Here is one of the best quotes that I've found on repentance, by Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951):

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ('[5]Except Ye Repent,' p. 16) [emphasis added]

Amen! We don't give up our sins TO BE saved, we give up our sins because WE ARE saved, and that requires time to grow in God's grace (1st Peter 2:2). Ephesians 2:10b says that believers are "created in Christ Jesus unto good works," not by good works. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do! My destination is not based upon how I live my life, it's on whom that I trust to save me! Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Beware of Dr. Steve Pettit! Beware of Pastor John MacArthur! Beware of Dr. Marty Herron! Beware of Dr. Sam Horn! Beware of Ray Comfort! Beware of anyone who talks about salvation by grace through faith, but then says it will COST you your sins, COST you your life, COST you your own will and desires. I'm not splitting hairs here folks, read what John MacArthur teaches:

> "Don't believe anyone who says it's easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God's Son His life, and it'll cost you the same thing..." [emphasis added]

Dr. John MacArthur, Grace To You, an updated quote from his book 'Hard To Believe', page 93.

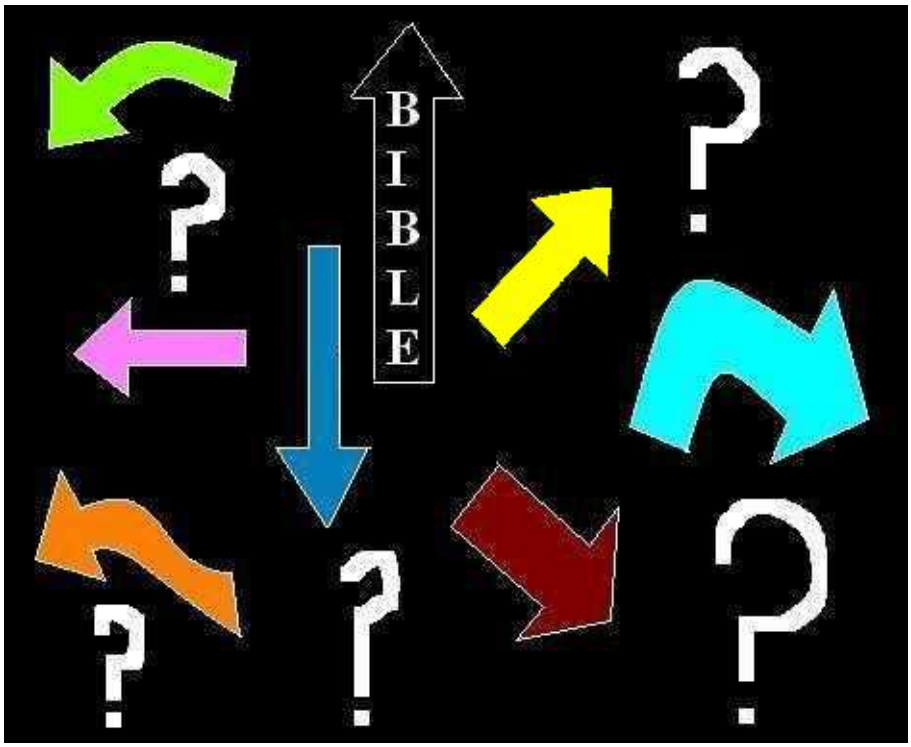
Folks, that is not "the simplicity that is in Christ" (2nd Corinthians 11:3b). There is no "cost" to a sinner coming to Jesus Christ to receive God's gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life. It cost Jesus His life on the cross! Acts 20:28 says that God " the Church with His own blood! The debt of our sins has already been paid in full! Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Eternal life is a gift from God, which we RECEIVE by faith in the the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. There is no other way of salvation (Acts 4:10-12).



I thank God for faithful preachers like Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), who saw through Mr. MacArthur's deception, exposing him for the Satanic false prophet that he is:

"Who is John MacArthur? He is the one man in America doing more than anybody to destroy soul-winning churches!" —Dr. Jack Hyles (a needful quote from the MP3 sermon, "[6]I Sojourn In Mesech")

Pastor John MacArthur is in his 80's now and getting ready to go into eternity, but there is a Satanic army of replacements coming out of dunghills like Bob Jones University. Dr. Steve Pettit is John MacArthur's twin in preaching the deadly Calvinist heresy of Lordship Salvation!!! God help us as fundamentalists to expose these impostors in the churches today, who rob the saints of their faith, by preaching a works-based plan of salvation under the facade of grace and faith. They must be rooted out, marked and avoided. Romans 16:17-18, "Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple."

The “simple” thing about receiving eternal life, is that all you have to do is BELIEVE the Gospel. If you gladly receive the ’GOOD NEWS’ of Jesus Christ crucified on the cross, buried and bodily risen the third day, you are saved! Acts 2:43, “Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.” By faith they were saved, by gladly receiving the ’Good News’ of Jesus dying for their sins on the cross, being buried, and then miraculously He resurrected three days later from the dead. Believe it oh sinner and your eternal destiny is forever settled. JESUS CHRIST IS ETERNAL LIFE!!! 1st John 5:20, “And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. ” If you have Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, you have eternal life. The only thing you have to commit (deposit) to Christ to have eternal life is your trust in His death, burial and resurrection as payment for your sins. It’s that simple and easy to be saved.

If you follow the inspired King James Bible, you’ll never go wrong doctrinally!

1.5.24 Infallibly Infallible Or What? (2020-07-11 00:54)

Colossians 2:8, “Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.”

The Catholic church sinfully elevate [1]their own manmade traditions as being equally inspired with the Holy Bible:

> 891. "’The Roman Pontiff, head of the college of bishops, enjoys this infallibility in virtue of his office, when, as supreme pastor and teacher of all the faithful - who confirms his brethren in the faith he proclaims by a definitive act a doctrine pertaining to faith or morals.... The infallibility promised to the Church is also present in the body of bishops when, together with Peter’s successor, they exercise the supreme Magisterium,’ above all in an Ecumenical Council.[LG 25; cf. Vatican Council I: DS 3074.] When the Church through its supreme Magisterium proposes a doctrine ’for belief as being divinely revealed,’[DV 10 # 2.] and as the teaching of Christ, the definitions ’must be adhered to with the obedience of faith.’[LG 25 # 2.] This infallibility extends as far as the deposit of divine Revelation itself.[Cf. LG 25.]" ([I]Catechism of the Catholic Church[/I], Doubleday:New York, © 1994 United States Catholic Conference, Inc. – Libreria Editrice Vaticana, p. 568)

It appears to be yet another case of Roman Catholic infallible doctrine conflicting with Roman Catholic infallible doctrine. What we read prompts the question: When infallible doctrines are in opposition, is either one infallible?

First some background. The Catholic dictionary defines

“

infallibility

as:

> The inability to err in teaching the truth. In theology, it refers to: 1) the Church, in that she preserves and teaches the deposit of truth as revealed by Christ; 2) the Roman Pontiff, when he teaches ’ex cathedra’ in matters of faith or morals, and indicates that the doctrine is to be believed by all the faithful; and 3) the college of bishops, when speaking in union with the Pope in matters of faith and morals, agreeing that a doctrine must be held by the universal Church, and the doctrine is promulgated by the Pontiff. —Peter M. J. Stravinskay, Ed., Catholic Dictionary, (c) 1997 Our Sunday Visitor, Inc.

In 1546, the Fourth Session of the Council of Trent established an "infallible" rule to be applied when interpreting Scriptures in matters of faith and morals.

Furthermore, to check unbridled spirits, it decrees that no one relying on his own judgment shall, in matters of faith and morals pertaining to the edification of Christian doctrine, distorting the Holy Scriptures in accordance with his own conceptions,[5] presume to interpret them contrary to that sense which holy mother Church, to whom it belongs to judge of their true sense and interpretation,[6] has held and holds, OR EVEN CONTRARY TO THE UNANIMOUS TEACHING OF THE FATHERS, even though such interpretations should never at any time be published. Those who act contrary to this shall be made known by the ordinaries and punished in accordance with the penalties prescribed by the law. (My emphasis)

This rule has not been rescinded – nor is it likely ever to be rescinded, for doing so would suggest that the Extraordinary Magisterium had made an error. In fact, it was re-iterated in the "Profession of Faith" and in the "Dogmatic constitution on the Catholic faith, infallible documents produced by the infallible First Vatican Council:

1. I, Pius, bishop of the catholic church, with firm faith believe and profess each and every article contained in the profession of faith which the holy Roman church uses, namely…

2. Apostolic and ecclesiastical traditions and all other observances and constitutions of that same church I most firmly accept and embrace.

3. Likewise I accept sacred scripture according to that sense which holy mother church held and holds, since it is her right to judge of the true sense and interpretation of the holy scriptures; nor will I ever receive and interpret them except according to THE UNANIMOUS CONSENT OF THE FATHERS. —First Vatican Council, 2nd Session, Profession of Faith, 6 January 1870 - [My emphasis] ...

8. Now since the decree on the interpretation of holy scripture, profitably made by the council of Trent, with the intention of constraining rash speculation, has been wrongly interpreted by some, we renew that decree and declare its meaning to be as follows: that in matters of faith and morals, belonging as they do to the establishing of christian doctrine, that meaning of holy scripture must be held to be the true one, which holy mother church held and holds, since it is her right to judge of the true meaning and interpretation of holy scripture. —

First Vatican Council, 3rd Session, Dogmatic constitution on the Catholic faith (24 April 1870)

9. In consequence, it is not permissible for anyone to interpret holy scripture in a sense contrary to this, or indeed against the UNANIMOUS CONSENT OF THE FATHERS.

Ibid. [My emphasis]

So, here we have an infallible doctrine, infallibly defined by two infallible church councils (Trent and Vatican I), and infallibly promulgated by infallible popes as matters of faith or morals to be believed by all the RCC. The doctrine: no one, not even the Roman Catholic church itself, is to hold an interpretation of Scripture contrary to the unanimous consent of the Fathers.

With all these infallible declarations, one wonders that the Roman Catholic church, which preserves and teaches the "deposit of faith as revealed by Christ," should violate one of the rules she infallibly established to determine infallibility.

You see, it is a fact that the church fathers did not unanimously consent to the doctrine of infallibility as currently held and taught by the Roman church:

> God alone swears securely, because HE ALONE IS INFALLIBLE.—Augustine of Hippo, Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers, First Series: Volume VIII, St. Augustine on the Psalms, Psalm LXXXIX, Sec. 4 [My emphasis]

Therefore, one must wonder whether the doctrine of infallibility, which does not meet it's own test of authenticity, is infallibly taught.

I do not doubt that Roman apologists will have ready defenses to explain this apparent conflict. However, the clear wording of the Councils leaves no room for equivocation: The dogma of Mary's assumption fails Rome's own test of the unanimous consent of the fathers.

When these present their charges and unsupported opinions, bear in mind the words of another church father much beloved of Rome:

> "Concerning the Hearers: that those hearers who are instructed in the Scriptures should examine what is said by the teachers, receiving what is in conformity with the Scriptures and rejecting what is opposed to them; and that those who persist in teaching such doctrines should be strictly avoided." —Basil of Caesarea, Fathers of the Church, Vol. 9, Ascetical Works, The Morals, Rule 72, p. 185-186.

Or, as the Holy Spirit inspired Paul to write:

Only the inspired King James Bible is infallible. 2nd Timothy 3:16, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:" You must decide for yourself dear reader, whether to follow the inspired Word of God in the Bible, or follow the vain religious traditions of men. I've read the Bible from cover to cover and am convinced that it is God's inspired words.

By the way, let me encourage you to listen to Alexander Scourby read the King James Bible to you. Just kick back with a cold glass of lemonade, or lie upon your bed and listen attentively from Genesis to Revelation. Believe it or not, you can hear the entire Bible read to you in just 75 hours! Wow! You might read the Bible through in a year (extremely few people do), but you can easily listen to the entire Bible dozens of times each year, just by playing it as you work around the house, do yard work, or whatever. [2]I encourage you to listen to God's Word, which you can hear for free on YouTube. Romans 10:17, "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God."

> "A test of a Christian's character is what he does after he comes to the blockade in the road and what his attitude is after everything has left him except Jesus. You will never know down here that Christ is all you need until Christ is all you have left."

1.5.25 Deadly Rat Food Is Less Than 1% Poison (2020-07-11 07:40)

Psalms 140:3, “ They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; adders’ poison is under their lips. Selah.”

When you go to Home Depot or a local hardware store, to buy rat food that will kill pesky mice and rats, the food is less than 1 % deadly poison. In fact, only about .001 % to .005 % (one thousandth to five thousandths of the food is actually deadly poison):

> Second generation agents are far more toxic than first generation. They are generally applied in lower concentrations in baits—usually on the order of 0.001 % to 0.005 %—are lethal after a single ingestion of bait and are also effective against strains of rodents that became resistant to first generation anticoagulants; thus, the second generation anticoagulants are sometimes referred to as "superwarfarins". —[1]Wikipedia

That means the manufacturer of the rat food, took one thousand pounds of wholesome healthy food, and mixed into it only one to five pounds of poison. Wow, that is some strong poison! I want you to see that even the smallest amount of poison contaminates the whole batch of food! When the pesky rat comes alone, he smells that good food. He doesn’t detect the tiny bit of poison that will absolutely kill him! Let’s make a spiritual application, shall we?

All across the world today, false preachers are deceiving the masses. Most of what they preach is good wholesome truth, which causes you not to detect their poison. Our text passage of Scripture is very fitting from Psalms 140:3, “ They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; adders’ poison is under their lips. Selah.” An

is a snake.

I preach a lot against Neo-evangelicals with their deadly poison of Lordship Salvation. I preach against their deadly poison of the modern Bible revisions. Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) teaches BJU’s 2,700 students that there’s not much difference between the NIV and the King James Bible. Kindly said, Dr. Pettit speaks as a fool!

You can hear Dr. Pettit’s preaching for yourself on ’[2]The Daily Platform’ (BJU chapel services). Nearly everything that Dr. Pettit says is good wholesome Bible teaching, just like the rat food that is mostly good food for the rat to eat and digest. Unfortunately, Steve Pettit is not saved, so he preaches the lies of Lordship Salvation (which makes sense to the unregenerate man). It makes sense to the unsaved man that you should have to forsake your sinful bad habits to be saved. But that is not what the inspired Word of God teaches!

Evangelist Ray Comfort is another unsaved religious man, [3]who requires that a man stop fornicating to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. Mr. Comfort says God will only save you, “if you’ll let go of your sins.” You won’t find that teaching anywhere in the Holy Bible! Ray is adding to the Gospel, and in so doing perverting it! The biggest problem I am having as a fundamentalist Baptist Bible preacher, is trying to convince people that the spiritual food they are being fed is killing them, because of the 1 % poison in it.

Pastor John MacArthur is one of the most popular preachers in the world. Tragically, Mr. MacArthur has won the following of Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, and Bob Jones University in South Carolina. Consequently, over 5,000 students accumulatively each year are being brainwashed with MacArthur's Calvinist heresies (aka, Lordship Salvation). MBI even admits on their college's website that they have become generally Calvinistic. [4]MBI are liars to claim that Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) changed in his later ministry to a mild Calvinist view. THEY ARE LIARS!!!

Dr. Ironside simply believed in the perseverance of the Holy Spirit, as I do, but not the perseverance of the saints (as John Calvin, 1509-1564, heretically taught). The heresy of the perseverance of the saints claims that a saint WILL persevere in holiness and a changed life.

The Bible says in Titus 2:13 that a saint "SHOULD" live godly in Christ; not MUST (that is works); not WILL (that is Calvinism). Presenting our body as a living sacrifice to the Lord is our "REASONABLE SERVICE" according to Romans 12:1-2, not our MANDATORY SERVICE according to John Calvin and Moody Bible Institute.

If you think I'm splitting hairs, you need to read Matthew 7:21-23:

> Matthew 7:21-23,
>
> **"
>
> Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven*; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.
>
> Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

This is one of the most enlightening, applicable and important passages concerning the issue of Lordship Salvation being taught in tens of thousands of churches today! Jesus even said you don't get saved by following Him as

"LORD." How much clearer could the Bible be that Lordship Salvation is NOT THE WAY! These were devoutly religious people, who committed their lives to following and serving Christ, but Christ rejected them all!!!

> "You can live for Christ, you can love Christ, you can serve Him with all your might, time, talent and wealth. You can pray to Him, read your Bible, get water-baptized, join a church, witness to people, and do every wonderful work contained within the realm of Christianity, but if you fail to trust Jesus Christ alone for your salvation, He will "dump" you."
> —'[5]I NEVER KNEW YOU' (.pdf), by Michael P. Bowen; by Barbour Books, © 2009; page 77

I have discussed numerous false teachers in this article. All of the men I have mentioned are excellent orators. They say mostly helpful and Biblically accurate things. But its that 1 % of rat poison that makes them deadly false prophets! All it takes is a tiny bit of poison to send you to Hell forever. John MacArthur says many brilliant things. Apart from his heresies on repentance, the blood and the Gospel, he is one of the greatest Bible teachers of our time. Unfortunately, it's that tiny amount of rat poison that makes him so dangerous! This is a critically important matter dear friend. Satan is much smarter than me or you!

The most effective weapon of a false prophet is truth! That is a remarkable statement that I just made, if you understand it. If I wanted to deceive you, I would use truth as a weapon to earn your full trust, and then I would integrate my lies into those truths, to trick you. That is why the Devil only changes key passages in the modern Bible revisions, leaving 98 % of it alone. Literally, there is only a 2 % difference between the Alexandrian Bible manuscripts and the Textus Receptus (from which our beloved King James Bible was translated). The [6]2 % that was changed is the deadly rat poison that damns men's souls to Hell. The [7]Devil's Bible versions destroy theology! We need an old-fashioned revival in America of using only the King James Bible, and exposing and rejecting the Devil's new Bibles! We need a revival of simply caring! Religious people have become indifferent, complacent and foolish!

I don't care how good of on orator, interesting or how many doctrinally sound things a preacher may say, if he is wrong on repentance and the Gospel, HE CANNOT BE TRUSTED THEOLOGICALLY! False prophets are everywhere today, like Dr. Steve Pettit at Bob Jones University, and 99 % of what he says is doctrinally sound, but [8]he is wrong on the gospel. Steve Pettit [9]bids Godspeed to John MacArthur and his heretical ministry! Our churches are in trouble folks! Remember, rat food is less than 1 % poison! So before you accept a man as being okay and of God, make sure you check, you go find out, what he believes about the Gospel and the Word of God. Dr. Pettit endorses the Devil's modern Bible revisions, and he teaches Lordship Salvation! Please don't drink the Kool-Aid!

1.5.26 Faith Cometh By Hearing God's Word (2020-07-11 19:30)

Romans 10:17, "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God."

By the way, let me encourage you to listen to Alexander Scourby read the King James Bible to you. Just kick back with a cold glass of lemonade, or lie upon your bed and listen attentively from Genesis to Revelation. Believe it or not, you can hear the entire Bible read to you in just 75 hours! Wow! You might read the Bible through in a year (extremely few people do), but you can easily listen to the entire Bible dozens of times each year, just by playing it as you work around the house, do yard work, or whatever. [1]I encourage you to listen to God's Word, which you can hear for free on YouTube . Romans 10:17, "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God."

The following quotes are beautiful, honoring God's inspired Word. And may I say, today's modern Bible revisions are often NOT based any any legitimate ancient language; but rather, they are the mere rantings of scholarly madmen hellbent on making a buck from marketing their own copyrighted version:

> "The Bible is no mere book, but a Living Creature, with a power that conquers all who oppose it." —Napoleon Bonaparte (1769-1821)

> "It is impossible to enslave mentally or socially a Bible-reading people. The principles of the Bible are the groundwork of human freedom." —Horace Greeley (1811-1872)

> "The existence of the Bible, as a book for the people, is the greatest benefit which the human race has ever experienced. Every attempt to belittle it is a crime against humanity." —Immanuel Kant (1724-1804)

“That book [King James Bible], sir, is the rock on which on republic rests.” —U.S. President Andrew Jackson (1767-1845)

“The Bible has been the Magna Carta of the poor and oppressed. The human race is not in a position to dispense with it.” —Thomas Huxley (1825-1895)

“So great is my veneration for the Bible that the earlier my children begin to read it the more confident will be my hope that they will prove useful citizens of their country and respectable members of society. I have for many years made it a practice to read through the Bible every year.” —U.S. President John Quincy Adams (1767-1848)

“It is impossible to rightly govern the world without God and the Bible. ” —U.S. President George Washington (1732-1799)

“The Bible, composes by many authors, over a period of many centuries, yet ONE BOOK, is, in itself, the outstanding Miracle of the Ages, bearing aloft its own evidence of its Superhuman Origin.” —Henry H. Halley (1874-1965)

“The Old Testament is an account of a Nation. The New Testament is an account of a MAN, The Nation was founded and nurtured of God to bring the Man into the world.” —Dr. Henry H. Halley (1874-1965)

“Bible reading is an education in itself.” —Lord Tennyson (1809-1892)

“The Bible is worth all other books which have ever been printed.” —Patrick Henry (1736-1799)

“The whole hope of human progress is suspended on the ever growing influence of the Bible.” —U.S. Secretary of State William H. Seward (1801-1872)

“God Himself became a Man, to give mankind a concrete, definite, tangible idea of what kind of Person to think of when we think of God. God is like Jesus. Jesus was God incarnate in human form. His appearance on earth is the Central Event of all history. The Old Testament sets the stage for it. The New Testament describes it. As a man, He lived the most strangely Beautiful Life ever known. He was the Kindest, Tenderest, Gentlest, most Patient, most Sympathetic man that ever lived. He Loved people. He hated to see people in trouble. He loved to Forgive. He loved to Help. He wrought marvelous miracles to feed hungry people. For relieving the suffering He forgot to take food for Himself. Multitudes, weary, pain-ridden, and heart-sick, came to Him, and found healing and relief. It is said of Him, and of no other, that if all the deeds of Kindness that He did were written, the world would not contain the books. That is the kind of man Jesus was. That is the kind of Person God is. Then: He Died, on the Cross, to take away the Sin of the world, to become the Redeemer and Saviour of man. Then: He Rose from the Dead: is Alive Now: not merely an historical character, but a Living Person: the Most Important Fact of History, and Most Vital Force in the world today.” —Dr. Henry H. Halley (1874-1965)

> “The reason you don’t like the Bible, you old sinner, is because it knows all about you.” —Billy Sunday

> “The Bible will always be full of things you cannot understand, as long as you will not live according to those you can understand.” —Billy Sunday

I am a big fan of preacher quotes! Quotes are nuggets of truth to help us discern truth and live right. You cannot live right if you don’t first think right. A man who walks with wise men shall be wise. Proverbs 13:20, “He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.” We’ve got a bunch of fools in church pulpits today, who’ve been influenced by false prophets like Sam Horn, Ray Comfort, John Piper and Steve Pettit. Worst of all is their leader John MacArthur, who denies that children can be saved, denies that Jesus’ blood is on the Mercy Seat in Heaven, and who requires discipleship for salvation (which is NOT the Gospel of free grace).

Many False Prophets Shall Rise Up

The Devil well knows that human beings are very impressionable. Therefore, be careful who you follow dear friend, because you might follow the wrong person over a theological cliff! Faith cometh by hearing the inspired Word of God. And consequently, listening to false teachers may weaken and corrupt your faith! Billions of people around the world are following the religious teachings of some false prophet. Jesus warned us in Matthew 7:15 that “ false prophets ” would come to deceive us, masquerading as sheep in wolves clothing.

Matthew 24:11, " And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many." We are certainly living in those times in 2020 of MANY FALSE PROPHETS!!!

The best way to expose the darkness is to shine to light! The Word of God is that light, that is, THE TRUTH. John 17:17,

"Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth." If you want to get close to God, then you must get close to THE TRUTH.

There's a large independent Baptist church right down the street from me on Guam. It's the ecumenical Harvest Baptist Church. I attended the church for a whole year in 2014. I loved the church family, and made many friends. I felt at home and didn't want to leave, but I made the [2]fatal mistake of trying to help the pastors and church overcome the doctrinal falsehoods which have infected their church. Harvest uses dozens of different English Bible revisions, bidding Godspeed to the Devil's Bible. Consequently, the beloved [3]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam preaches another gospel of Lordship Salvation, requiring sinners to [4]turn from a lifestyle of sin to be saved.

I say "beloved" because I love them unconditionally at Harvest, and they are dear to me, and I miss them all very much. I've even tried to return to church services multiple times since 2017, lonely and desirous to have a local church family, but the damage is done and they resent me for telling THE TRUTH.

Harvest preaches the same doctrinal error taught by the [5]Church of Christ, [6]Seventh-Day Adventists, [7]Mormons and [8]Jehovah's

[9] Witnesses concerning false repentance, that is, they say that you must turn from sin

to be saved.

I mentioned Harvest Baptist Church because they have a big sign at the entrance of their church property that reads:

"Helping People Develop A Heart For God." They have it backwards. Harvest does not regard THE TRUTH, and Jesus told the Samaritan woman at the well in John 4:24, that God must be worshipped IN SPIRIT and IN TRUTH!!! You cannot worship God in doctrinal error that corrupts the Gospel. You cannot worship God using corruptible seed (i.e., [10]the Devil's modern Bible versions). I love the folks at Harvest Baptist Church enough to tell them THE TRUTH, even it it means offending them and losing their love and friendship. [11]Satan is behind the modern Bible corrupting movement in America!

Until Harvest's pastors get right with God and forsake their fake Bibles and counterfeit gospel, God will not bless their church. They are not helping anyone develop a heart for God without a love for THE TRUTH. Harvest promotes Bob Jones University, since they are all alumni of BJU. [12]Look at the false gospel that BJU preaches today! You must first develop a heart for THE TRUTH, and in so doing you will develop a heart for God. Biblically they are not a church, they are a religious cult. I say that kindly with love (Ephesians 4:15). A " must preach the Gospel of free grace without adding anything to it. Either the inspired Word of God (i.e., the King James Bible) will keep you from sin and doctrinal error, or else [13]Satan's corruptible seed (Genesis 3:15) will keep you from truth and knowing God.

> "The Word of God is our only hope—that's our only hope! This has been the generation of translations and abominations, and perversions, of the Word of God! It's been a long time; now when the Revised Standard Version came out, I stood against it before I knew what it was, because the wrong crowd heard of that, and the wrong crowd received it, and I knew it got too much publicity to be right! And I knew if the newspapers publicized something, it had to be wrong! And so I knew that the American people and a lot of American preachers—they welcomed it into their house before they knew it was a rattlesnake!" —Brother Lester Roloff, a needful quote from the MP3 sermon titled, "'THE LIVING BIBLE' EXPOSED!"

1.5.27 Pastor John MacArthur's False Gospel (2020-07-12 11:30)

Galatians 1:6-8, "

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed."

One of the most spiritually dangerous religious teachers of our time is Pastor John MacArthur of 'Grace To You' ministry in California. I have nothing personal against Mr. MacArthur, but he has done more than any other preacher, to lead preachers and layman away from the true Gospel of free grace. "

Lordship Salvation

" teaches that faith in the Gospel is not enough to be saved; but also, you must make full surrender to Christ as your "

Lord and Master,

committing to follow Him as His disciple.

The proponents of Lordship Salvation errantly teach that a person must be willing to turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved. They errantly call this "repentance." So if you profess faith in Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, but still live in willful sin, they say you've never repented and are not saved. The Bible teaches that we repent TO believe, not repent AND believe. Repentance biblically as a noun (metanoia) simply means "a change of mind," not a change of behavior. The verb form (metanoeo) means "to think differently." Hence, repentance means to change your mind from WRONG THINKING to believing the 'Good News' (Gospel) of Jesus Christ who died on the cross for your sins, was buried and resurrected three days later from the dead. That is 'The Gospel' (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

The following helpful information is from Pastor Lou Martuneac:

John MacArthur's Discipleship Gospel

In Defense of the Gospel

By Lou Martuneac -
October 7th, 2006

The following appeared at Pulpit Magazine on September 29th, 2006. This paragraph from Dr. MacArthur's post titled True Faith and True Grace encapsulates the major elements in the Lordship controversy. Dr. MacArthur wrote:

> "Those who teach that repentance is extraneous to saving faith are forced to make a firm but unbiblical distinction between salvation and discipleship. This dichotomy, like that of the carnal/spiritual Christian, sets up two classes of Christians: believers only and true disciples. Most who hold this position discard the evangelistic intent of virtually every recorded invitation of Jesus, saying those apply to discipleship, not to salvation."

One of the most significant errors with Lordship Salvation is the confusing of passages meant for the born again disciple of Christ (such as Luke 9:23-24, 14:25-33) and presenting them as though they are evangelistic appeals directed to the lost. It is from this error, where much of the Lordship interpretation of the gospel flows. This error leads to a faulty definition of faith, redefines the role of biblical repentance in salvation, both of which result in a gospel message that frustrates grace (Gal. 2:21). Following are three examples of how John MacArthur's discipleship gospel redefines the faith that saves:

> "The gospel Jesus proclaimed was a call to discipleship, a call to follow Him in submissive obedience… Forsaking oneself for Christ's sake is not an optional step of discipleship subsequent to conversion; it is the sine qua non of saving faith." (The Gospel According to Jesus [Revised & Expanded Edition], p. 27, 142)

> "Thus in a sense we pay the ultimate price for salvation when our sinful self is nailed to a cross… It is an exchange of all that we are for all that Christ is. And it denotes implicit obedience, full surrender to the lordship of Christ. Nothing less can qualify as saving faith." (The Gospel According to Jesus, p. 140)

> “Let me say again unequivocally that Jesus’ summons to deny self and follow him was an invitation to salvation, not… a second step of faith following salvation…” (The Gospel According to Jesus [Revised & Expanded Edition], p. 221)

Lordship Salvation conditions the reception of salvation on a lost man’s upfront commitment to what should be the results of salvation. A commitment to perform the “good works” (Eph. 2:10) expected of the disciple of Christ is Lordship’s requirement FOR salvation. The lost man is expected to make a commitment toward what he will do, or become, in “exchange” for what Christ has done for him. John MacArthur states that position this way:

> “That is the kind of response the Lord Jesus called for: wholehearted commitment. A desire for Him at any cost. Unconditional surrender. A full exchange of self for the Savior. It is the only response that will open the gates of the kingdom.” (The Gospel According to Jesus [Revised & Expanded Edition], p. 148)

In one of the clearest expressions of portraying discipleship as though it is the key to salvation Dr. MacArthur wrote:

> “Anyone who wants to come after Jesus into the Kingdom of God, anyone who wants to be a Christian, has to face three commands: 1) deny himself, 2) take up his cross daily, and 3) follow him.” (Hard to Believe, p. 6)

The faith that saves is more than simple acknowledgment. Faith is basically a trust or confidence in someone or something. For salvation Jesus must be the object of faith. Faith goes beyond acknowledgement when the lost man transfers his dependence on Christ to save him from the penalty of sin. Mere acknowledgement of what Jesus has done does not save. When biblically defined, faith does not include upfront promises of commitment and surrender.

Discipleship comes at a cost, salvation (justification) does not! It is clear that Lordship Salvation requires much more than a faith that acknowledges one’s sin, a pending judgment for sin, and one’s need of the Savior. The Lordship position does not depend solely on the finished work of Jesus Christ on the cross.

Lordship Salvation, according to John MacArthur above, is a barter system, an “exchange” of what man must offer Christ to receive His free gift of salvation. To imply that receiving the free gift of God requires that man “pay the ultimate price” is a gospel of faith plus works.

My book, In Defense of the Gospel, does not contain errors that are so common in the works of other men who have written in objection to Lordship Salvation. Many have been alarmed at the increasingly meaningless presentation of a gospel that seems to ignore the Person of Christ, the sinfulness of man, the finished work of Christ and the pending judgment of God. This gospel calls men to salvation when they have been given only a vague idea of just what they need to be saved from.

There is, furthermore, a reductionist interpretation of the content of saving faith, with which I strongly disagree. The most extreme example of this reductionist view is known as the “Crossless” gospel. This is a relatively new interpretation of the Gospel originated by (the late) Zane Hodges and is almost exclusively perpetuated by the Grace Evangelical Society’s membership.

My book does not minimize or reject the lordship of Jesus Christ. Jesus is Lord and Savior throughout all eternity. We all agree that Jesus is the Savior; the only hope mankind has for eternal salvation from sin, death and Hell (Acts 4:12). We all agree that Jesus is the Lord, the King of Kings, and all power belongs to Him (Rev. 19:16; Matt. 28:18). If He is not the Lord, He is not God. If He is not God, He is not the Savior. Christ’s lordship, however, should not be used to create a message where the reception of salvation is conditioned on a lost man’s upfront commitment to surrender and submission, which Lordship Salvation does.

Pastor George Zeller wrote an article titled, The Relationship Between God’s Grace and Lordship Legalism, which appears in the appendix of my book.

Following is a brief excerpt.

“Don’t confuse saving faith with that which saving faith ought to produce. Don’t confuse repentance with the fruits of repentance. Behavior and fruit are the evidences of saving faith but they are not the essence of saving faith. Don’t confuse the fruit with the root. Before you can ‘come after’ Christ in discipleship (Luke 9:23; Matt. 11:29-30), you must ‘come unto’ Christ for salvation (Matthew 11:28). Discipleship is not a requirement for salvation; discipleship is the obligation of every saved person.”

When a man tries to carefully introduce verses about discipleship as part of God’s plan for salvation, remember that the Bible teaches we come to Christ for salvation and that we come after Christ in discipleship. It is wrong to present discipleship verses as salvation verses. We must not use verses intended to teach discipleship to try to lead a man to Christ. To do so creates confusion and frustration. It becomes a gospel of faith, plus works.

Lordship Salvation demands from a lost man a promise of what he will do, or become, to receive the gift of eternal life. Once man offers anything in addition to the finished work of Christ for salvation that message becomes false through the addition. A gospel that calls for man to do or offer anything in addition to what Christ has done is wrong!

Dr. MacArthur - I know you mean well, you believe you are being true to the Scriptures. Changing the terms of the gospel, however, to upfront demands for commitment and surrender in "exchange" for salvation, will not make the problems of loose living carnality found in some professing believers go away.

In Defense of the Gospel fully defines and biblically answers the doctrinal and practical problems with Lordship Salvation. I wrote my book to alert Christians, across the broad spectrum of evangelical Christianity, about Lordship's works based, man-centered interpretation of the gospel that frustrates grace (Gal. 2:21).

There are many areas where one must balance soul liberty and Christian charity and agree to respect different views. The gospel, however, is not an area in which we can agree to disagree. The doctrine of Lordship Salvation and the Lordship advocates must be vigorously debated, and its spread biblically resisted. END

Any plan of salvation that requires you to do more than simply trust Jesus Christ as your Savior is false! Christ died on the cross for our sins. He was buried. Three days later He resurrected from the dead for the justification of our faith. The moment you believe This "

Gospel

(Good News or Glad Tidings) when you hear it preached, you are saved and forever sealed with the Holy Spirit. Simply receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, trusting the risen Savior.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved.

You're not preaching the Gospel if you're not preaching eternal security. If you think you can lose salvation, you don't understand it and are not saved. Remember, it is God's salvation, not yours. We are saved by GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS (Philippians 3:9; Romans 10:3-4). You truly understand the Gospel when you know that you cannot lose it! If you are not preaching eternal security, you are not preaching the Gospel. Once saved, always saved!

1.5.28 Jesus Is Our Sabbath In Whom We Rest For Salvation (2020-07-13 11:30)

Hebrews 4:1-11, “

Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it*.

For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works*, as God did from his.

I love this passage of Scripture, because it contains so much richness in doctrine. The Gospel is so simple dear reader. I marvel how anyone who professes the name of Christ, could believe that more is required to get to Heaven, than simple childlike faith in Jesus Christ. The Bible plainly teaches that we are saved by RESTING in the finished redemptive work of Christ. God the Father loved humanity so much, that He sent His only begotten Son into the world, to die on the cross for everyone’s sins. John 3:16, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” Literally, God loved you so much that He was willing to die for you. Repeatedly in the inspired Word of God we are taught simply to BELIEVE on the Son of God to receive eternal life. Eternal life is free, easy and simple to obtain, just take God at His Word as recorded in the Scripture!

Our text passage from Hebrews 4:1-11 teaches that God created the universe, and then rested on the seventh day. Genesis 2:2, "And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made."

Likewise, just as God ceased from His labors and rested, the Bible teaches us to cease from our own labors, and rest completely in the finished work of Jesus Christ. This is the way to Heaven. We are not saved by what WE DO, but by trusting what Jesus has ALREADY DONE.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

The Old Testament Sabbath Day was a ceremonial law under Mosaic law, a shadow of things to come.

Hebrews 10:1, "

For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect. " This is an important Bible verse to learn and understand, because it separates the foreshadowing law from the reality that it symbolized.

God established the Sabbath Day in Exodus chapter 16 to commemorate the seventh day on which God rested from his creative labors. God fed the Israelites in the Wilderness, giving them the bread of manna in the morning, and the meat of quail in the evening. Exodus 16:25-26, "And Moses said, Eat that to day; for to day is a sabbath unto the LORD: to day ye shall not find it in the field. Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none."

On the Sabbath Day a Jew was forbidden to work, gather sticks, light a fire, or do any thing other than rest. This symbolized the coming Lamb of God, the Messiah, in whom men rest for salvation. This is why we read about an Israelite who was stoned to death for picking up sticks on the Sabbath Day, because it represented adding works to faith to be saved, which is a perversion of grace. God thought it was important enough a matter to take a man's life away from him for collecting sticks on the Sabbath Day.

Numbers 15:33 and 35, "And they that found him gathering sticks brought him unto Moses and Aaron, and unto all the congregation. ... And the LORD said unto Moses, The man shall be surely put to death: all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp." With that truth in mind, carefully consider the gross theological flagrancy and wickedness of religious leaders; namely, John MacArthur, Steve Pettit, Ray Comfort, John Piper, Paul Washer, John Calvin, Martin Luther, Charles Finney and other reprobates, who corrupt the Gospel of free grace by adding human effort (works) to it.

We've all seen our own shadow, cast behind the light shown by the sun; but when the sun is directly overhead the shadow vanishes away. Likewise, when Jesus Christ died on the cross and raised up from the dead, He became our Sabbath Day in whom we rest for salvation. The ceremonial laws were no longer needed, because they had already served their purpose. This is why we read in Colossians 2:14-17, "Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ." Jesus is the divine fulfillment of what the Old Testament Sabbath Day represented and foreshadowed. Hallelujah, glory to God, great fluffy biscuits in the morning, what an awesome truth!!!

Dear friend, are you resting in the finished redemptive work of Jesus? Hebrews 1:11, "

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

" The word

in Hebrews 1:11 doesn't mean to do works to be saved; but rather, to simply trust the Savior. The Lord Himself confirms this truth in John 6:28-29, " Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." The only "work" that you can do to be saved is to get out of the way, by ceasing from your own labors, and resting completely in what Christ has already done for you on the cross.

The bad news is that you are a condemned sinner, and so was I before I was saved (Romans 3:10-23). You and I deserve to go to Hell and be punished for our own sins forever (Romans 6:23). But God in His unconditional love made a sacrifice for you, sending His only biological Son to be rejected, despised, shamed and crucified on a criminal's cross, to pay our massive outstanding debt of sin (Romans 5:6-9). To be saved, simply receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He died, was buried and after three days physically resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). This is the 'Good News' (Gospel) that saves them that believe. Romans 1:16, " For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ:

for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

I read this beautiful quote from Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) about the Gospel:

> “Men are not saved by analyzing the truth of the Gospel. They are saved by accepting the truth of the Gospel. It is true, whether men believe it or not. It is as true as the multiplication table. Men use the multiplication table to do what the multiplication table is supposed to do. The Gospel will do what it is supposed to do. ’It is the power of God unto salvation unto every one that believeth.”’ —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., “Comments On Here And Hereafter,” chapter: Preaching, Evangelism, page 123; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

Amen! Dr. Jones taught the simplicity that is in Christ. The Gospel is the “

that Jesus Christ died on the cross for our sins, He was buried, and three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead for our justification (that is, that our faith in Him could be justified by a risen Savior). Anyone who receives the Gospel as their own is saved. Please make it your own dear friend! Claim it as your only way to Heaven!

1.5.29 The Only Way To Have Peace With God (2020-07-14 10:30)

Romans 5:1-2, " Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God."

1746

What a precious passage of Scripture! The human race has long sought peace, yet it seems that we are always at war. I just read today of increasing '[1]Rumors Of Wars: China, India, North And South Korea, Israel And Turkey All Move Toward War.' Of the past 3,400 years, humans have been entirely at peace for 268 of them, or just [2]8 percent of recorded history. Mankind is inherently evil, prone to war and self-destruction (1st John 5:19; Romans 3:10-23). Our problems as a nation can be seen in our problems as individuals. If we cannot get along on a personal basis, then how can we get along on a national basis?

The inspired Word of God (which I believe to be the King James Bible in English) teaches in

Romans 5:1, " Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:" The Bible proclaims again and again that we are JUSTIFIED BY FAITH!!! We are nowhere taught to "repent of your sin" to receive the free gift of God. The false idea that we must be willing to be reformed of our sinful ways to be saved is foreign to the Scripture. You cannot show me the phrases "

turn from your sins

repent from sin

anywhere in the Holy Bible.

Beware of the Devil's corrupt modern Bible perversions that change the Scripture into a lie, adding turning from sins

" (see Mark 1:15 and [3]Hebrews 6:1 in the modern revisions). For example: Here is Mark 1:15 in the 'Easy-To-Read Version' (ERV), "He said, "The right time is now here. God's kingdom is very near. Change your hearts and lives*, and believe the Good News! "* [emphasis added]. In sharp contrast, the trustworthy King James Bible says in Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel. " The incompetent translators of the ERV sinfully assume that means to change your life, but that is an erroneous meaning. The word

in Mark 1:15 is the Greek verb metanoeo, which means, to think differently.

“

Literally, the Bible is telling the read to: THINK DIFFERENTLY and believe the Gospel to be saved. Repentance is a change of mind from WRONG THINKING to believing the Gospel, nothing more or less. To change the meaning of repentance is to pervert the Gospel of God’s free grace, which is by faith alone in Jesus Christ. The only way to obtain PEACE between God and man is through the GOD-MAN, Christ Jesus! 1st Timothy 2:15, “For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;”

Only The Precious Blood Of Jesus Appeases God’s Wrath

I love the big theological word “[4]PROPITIATION” in the Bible. For example: 1st John 2:2, “And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.” It is tragic and a shame that the modern Bible revisions completely remove this beautiful word. Whereas they think they are helping people understand the Word of God, in reality they are robbing people of the important theological concepts of the Bible. The word “propitiation” refers to the wrath of a holy God against sinners, which has been appeased and satisfied by the sacrifice of Jesus Christ. That is why 1st John 2:2 says JESUS CHRIST IS THE PROPITIATION FOR OUR SINS (and for the sins of the whole world). The word “ propitiation

means

“to appease the wrath of.” In this case, the wrath of God. Romans 5:9,

“Much more then, being now*justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him*.” Amen and amen!

This is why the Gospel is referred to as “THE GOSPEL OF PEACE.” Ephesians 6:15, “And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;” The Gospel is the ’GOOD NEWS’ of Jesus Christ, who died on the cross for our sins, was buried , and physically resurrected 72 hours later for our justification. It is this precious Gospel truth that brings PEACE between a holy God and sinful humanity. [5]We are saved by the blood of the crucified one! Here are the lyrics to the blessed hymn, ’[6]Saved By The Blood’...

Saved by the blood of the Crucified One!
Now ransomed from sin and a new work begun,
Sing praise to the Father and praise to the Son,
Saved by the blood of the Crucified One!

Refrain:
Glory, I'm saved! Glory, I'm saved!
My sins are all pardoned, my guilt is all gone!
Glory, I'm saved! Glory, I'm saved!
I'm saved by the blood of the Crucified One!

Saved by the blood of the Crucified One!
The angels rejoicing because it is done;
A child of the Father, joint-heir with the Son,
Saved by the blood of the Crucified One!

Saved by the blood of the Crucified One!
The Father He spake, and His will it was done;
Great price of my pardon, His own precious Son;
Saved by the blood of the Crucified One!

Saved by the blood of the Crucified One!
All hail to the Father, all hail to the Son,
All hail to the Spirit, the great Three in One!
Saved by the blood of the Crucified One!

I've never seen apostasy like I do today in the churches. Sadly, this is especially true of independent fundamental Baptist (IFB) churches. I am an IFB myself, so I have seen the problem up-close. I have been very outspoken and vocal about doctrinal corruption in the local [8]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. It is tragic and sad. I love them very much at Harvest with God's unconditional love, but they do not love God or truth, and therefore don't want me around. It discourages me to see professed Christians make light of the inspiration of God's Word, and make light of the accuracy of the Gospel. God only authored ONE BOOK (Matthew 4:4; Psalms 12:6-7), and there is only ONE GOSPEL (Galatians 1:6-9; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). All Scripture references are only to the inspired King James Bible.

Love Often Means Offending People With The Truth

People often mistake sinful compromise for God’s love. If your neighbour’s house is on fire, burning in the wee hours of the morning, is it love to say nothing? Likewise, if your neighbour is an unsaved Roman Catholic, is it God’s love not to warn them? No, that is the opposite of love. The opposite of love is not hatred, it is indifference! There is nothing destroying churches today like SILENCE. Silence is not golden, it is cowardly yellow! John the Baptist was A VOICE! Every believer, no matter how seemingly insignificant, can be A VOICE for God!!! I encourage Christians to start blogs on Google, which is free! Simply sign-up for a [9]free G-mail account, and then look for the square icon with 9 dots in the upper right corner of your G-mail account, then scroll down to “

Blogger

” to get started. Either that, or you can go directly to Blogger.com to get started. Let your VOICE by heard oh Christian!

If You See Something, Say Something

We are living in sickening times, where local children’s playgrounds have signs which read: “

IF YOU SEE SOMETHING, SAY SOMETHING!

Likewise, our churches today need to post big signs which read:

“

IF YOU SEE SOMETHING, SAY SOMETHING!

” When you see the pervert Devil creeping his damnable doctrine of Lordship Salvation into your church, SAY SOMETHING! When you see the pervert Devil creeping his counterfeit Bible revisions into your church, SAY SOMETHING! Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) warned us about theological perverts in the churches...

> “The worst pervert in America is the Gospel pervert!” —Brother Lester Roloff, a quote from the sermon, “[10]The Gospel Perverts Or Jesus?”

When I was growing up in the 1970’s and 1980’s, and even as a young adult, we never saw signs like that. We are now beholding the devastating consequences of generations of children being indoctrinated in public schools with the Satanic lies of evolution, raised up without God, having no moral compass. The [11]Masonic U.S. controlled government is behind all this, and to no surprise, for Satan is the god of this evil world according to 2nd Corinthians 4:4. All Freemasons worship Lucifer, or at a minimum support his cause through the group. If you see heresy creeping into your church, nip that devil doctrine in the bud. If someone tries to introduce Dr. John MacArthur to your church congregation, tell him to GET THE HELL OUT! Devil-preachers are not welcome in the house of God!!!

John Wesley was right when he said: “What one generation tolerates, the next will embrace!” We ought not be tolerating these Devil’s Bible today! We ought not be tolerating the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation. These prevalent evils are destroying our once fundamental soulwinning churches. Revelation 3:2, “Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.” The Gospel has been corrupted in most churches today. You’ll have to travel long, and search diligently, to find a true Bible-believing church nowadays, which hasn’t been infected with the damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation. If you have a doctrinally-sound, soulwinning, King James Bible only, Gospel of free grace preaching, people-loving, Baptist church near you... PRAISE GOD!!!

Peace With The Father Through The Blood Of Jesus’ Cross

Colossians 1:20, "And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven." The only way to have peace with God is on the basis of Jesus' blood sacrifice through the cross for our sins. 1st Peter 1:18-19, " Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:" JESUS PAID IT ALL! When you hear some wayward preacher telling you that you must be willing to repent and turn from your sins

" to be saved, he is preaching another gospel. The salvation which God offers is without obligation to you, the recipient. True repentance is simply a change of mind, from wrong thinking, to believing the Gospel.

God is not impressed with your many wonderful works. God is not impressed that you've turned from your lifestyle of sin. God is not impressed that you've forsaken all to follow Him. That is a fool's theology to think you can please God in the flesh. YOU NEED GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS, which He [12]imputes to every one who believes on His only begotten Son!!! Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

1.5.30 Evangelist Steve Pettit's Gospel Doublespeak (2020-07-15 00:11)

2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

Something is very wrong at Bob Jones University (BJU) these days! BJU's new president since 2014, Evangelist Steve Pettit, uses a lot of religious doublespeak concerning the Gospel that is confusing at best. I was listening to a chapel sermon today (July 7, 2020) and heard Dr. Pettit say to 2,700 students and faculty:

> "They [Judaizers in Galatians] said that faith alone is not sufficient for salvation. So what did they do? They began to insist that the Christians go back and keep the Mosaic law. ...God does not bind up His laws, put them in a covenant, and hand them to you and say, 'If you want to have a relationship with me, then you've got to fulfill this covenant of laws."' [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit, [1]excerpts from 'The Daily Platform' #767 - Christian Liberty, Part 1

Now please consider what [2]Steve Pettit heretically said in chapel on January 26, 2020:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added]

—Dr. Steve Pettit (" [3]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'? " - 11:34)

What a theological hypocrite!!! Dear reader, you CAN just speak about getting saved and that's it! I'm not taking his words out of context, as you can see for yourself. Dr. Pettit plainly says that of you fail to finish running 'THE RACE,' you lose your soul. You go to Hell. If you have any doubt of what I am saying, [4]you need to read my full article exposing him. Kindly said, Mr. Pettit is a theological fool. The book of Proverbs says Proverbs 26:12, "

Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

" The Bob Jones' crowd are conceited, and that includes the [5]shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam who bid Godspeed to Steve Pettit and John MacArthur, and sanction the Devil's counterfeit Bible revisions, and preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. Woe unto Harvest! Dr. Steve Pettit further digs a theological pit for himself:

"God's people HAVE TO continue in the faith! They MUST PERSEVERE, because perseverance is the testimony of the reality of your faith!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[6]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 25:13)

"For the real reality of the genuineness of your faith is that you are faithful to run the race!" —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[7]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 22:44)

How is it that Dr. Pettit sees the error of the Judaizers who added to faith alone, yet he does the very exact same horrible thing! [8]Read more of his own words! What a false teacher! Bob Jones are "FALSE BRETHREN" because they teach a different gospel, not the Gospel of free grace by FAITH ALONE. If Mr. Pettit truly believed in " faith alone,

then he would not teach that a person must RUN THE RACE to get to Heaven...

> “So not only does it have a start, but ’The Race’ has to be run! It starts with faith, but it continues with faithfulness. You start the race with the purpose of finishing the race. Nobody starts the race, so that they can quit half-way through. When you start in faith, you need to run and finish in faith. However, let me also remind you, that this race is HARD. Is a race not hard? Is it not difficult to get out and run?” —Dr. Steve Pettit (“[9]What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - 6:34)

> “So when we talk about ’The Race,’ what are we talking about? We’re talking about beginning and salvation, and then running the race through pursuing holiness and ministry, and service to others. But then let me say, that number three: This race HAS TO be faithfully run to the finish! You HAVE TO finish. Salvation is not just a past reality—“I GOT SAVED,” but is a future destiny! The race is not completed until you cross the finish line at death. What is this race—it is the race as we are running as we are headed toward Heaven.” —Dr. Steve Pettit (“[10]What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - 10:27)

> “We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what’s the prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don’t believe its referring to crowns in Heaven. I think it is referring to Heaven itself.” [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit (“[11]What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - 22:57)

This is so sad and tragic, to see this kind of Satanic junk theology being taught at Bob Jones University today. My God, what has happened to BJU? Ladies and gentlemen, this is what happens when you dip your sails.

“

Now these Judaizers did not deny the Messiahship of Jesus, or the need of faith; however, what they did do was they added to the message of grace.

Folks, Steve Pettit’s own words condemn himself and John MacArthur whom he promotes. Look what Pastor MacArthur teaches:

“Don’t believe anyone who says it’s easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God’s Son His life, and it’ll cost you the same thing...” [emphasis added]

—[13]Dr. John MacArthur, Grace To You, an updated quote from his book ’Hard To Believe’, page 93.

“The narrow gate is hard to find and hard to go through, because it demands: denial of self, denial of self-righteousness, recognition of sin, full repentance, submission to Christ, commitment to obey Him, and follow Him no matter what the cost!” —Pastor John MacArthur, a quote from his sermon titled, “[14]Saved Or Self-Deceived, Part One” (time: 4:25 in YouTube sermon video)

Talk about ADDING to grace! Did you see that big ugly word “COST” in both quotes? Dear friend, anyone who comes along preaching that God’s free gift of eternal life will “ you something is preaching another gospel. Steve Pettit and John MacArthur are preaching another gospel. When these advocates of Lordship Salvation speak of repentance,

“

1758

" they are in [15]full agreement with the pseudo-Christian religious cults. The unsaved Mormons love John MacArthur's counterfeit gospel, even making his heretical book on Lordship Salvation [16]required reading at Brigham Young University! What next, will Bob Jones University invite the Mormon Tabernacle Choir to perform at BJU? This is all so disgusting! Does anybody else care besides me that the Devil is destroying our churches through Bob Jones University, [17]Moody Bible Institute and other apostate religious institutions today who are preaching Calvinism?

The LAW and the GOSPEL are two keys—the law is the key that shuteth up all men under condemnation, and the Gospel is the key which opens the door and lets them out. Nothing else is required to receive God's FREE GIFT of eternal life, except simple childlike faith in the Gospel, for any needy sinner who wants it. All this garbage theology about forsaking your sinful ways, running the race, committing your life to Christ, and following Jesus no matter what the cost is another gospel of the Devil.

The Gospel Is NOT A Relationship With Christ

I am so sick and tired of hearing preachers like Steve Pettit promote having "a relationship" with Christ. The word "RELATIONSHIP" is a key word for Lordship Salvation! You won't even find the word "relationship" mentioned once in the Holy Bible!!! Why doesn't Steve Pettit call it "eternal life"? Why doesn't he call it a "free gift"? The reason why is because these terms make proponents of Lordship Salvation feel uncomfortable. Oh, sure they'll use these terms sparingly from time to time, but the general gist of their junk theology is that you must start a relationship, and maintain that relationship, if you want to go to Heaven. I just showed you the garbage theology of Steve Pettit. Their gospel is certainly not Paul's Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Deuteronomy 32:31, "For their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies themselves being judges."

God knows that I have nothing against Mr. Pettit, I am simply obeying God's commandment to "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints " (Jude

1:3). Dr. Steve Pettit is a dangerous false prophet! It makes me sad that he has influence over 2,700 students and faculty at Bob Jones College today. It is heartbreaking that BJU has changed from once believing in a free grace Gospel, to promoting the damnable Calvinist heresy of Lordship Salvation. Pastor John MacArthur is going to split Hell wide open the second he breathes his last breath. I am sad about that. [18]Steve Pettit sinfully bids Godspeed to John MacArthur and his ministry!

> "Doublespeak is language that deliberately obscures, disguises, distorts, or reverses the meaning of words. Doublespeak may take the form of euphemisms, in which case it is primarily meant to make the truth sound more palatable. It may also refer to intentional ambiguity in language or to actual inversions of meaning."
> SOURCE: Wikipedia

Steve Pettit uses a lot of doublespeak. One day he is preaching about salvation by grace through faith without works, but the next day he is preaching that you must persevere until the finish of the race or you'll go to Hell. It cannot be both! Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. " I marvel how Calvinists like Steve Pettit, Paul Washer, Ray Comfort, Adrian Rogers, Billy Graham, R.C. Sproul, Marty Herron and Sam Horn, can speak of salvation by grace through faith without works, while requiring people to literally to receive the free gift of God. The only sin that you need to literally turn from to be saved is your UNBELIEF!

TURN FROM SIN

The following Bible verses plainly teach us that God cut off Israel, not because of their sins, but because of THEIR UNBELIEF...

> Romans 11:20,
>
> **"
>
> Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear:
>
> **"

Romans 11:23,

“

And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again.

Romans 11:30, “

For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

Romans 11:23 doesn’t say that God will graff the Jews back into the olive tree (the Kingdom of God) if they repent of their sins; but rather, IF THEY BELIEVE!!! God also promises to graff the Gentiles BY FAITH (verse 20) into the olive tree (Romans 11:24). Mr. Pettit gets the Gospel wrong. I discourage everyone from using that awful term “relationship,” because the way it is misused implies that you must persevere to walk with God in holiness to be saved. Eternal life is the “ free gift

” of God (Romans 5:15-18), and that is how we should preach it! Judas had a relationship with Christ, but is burning in Hell forever! Matthew 27:3 even says that Judas **“

repented himself

” of his sins. Judas felt sorrow (penitence) for his sins. Judas tried to return the 30 pieces of silver (penance). Judas turned from his sins, knowing that he had betrayed the innocent blood (reformation). But Judas had no true repentance or faith! Judas failed to see himself as a needy sinner in God’s sight, who could be saved simply by believing on Christ. Judas was a snake, a thief, a con man, who had no faith in Jesus.

1.5.31 The Parable Of The Talents In Matthew 25:14-30 (2020-07-15 10:00)

Matthew 25:14-15 and 30, “

For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods. And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey. ...And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

For the sake of space I won’t quote the entire passage, but the gist of the passage is that a man travels to a far country. He entrusts three of his servants with his money. He gives one servant five talents (or “ pounds

” - see Luke’s version of this parable in Luke 19:12-27). To another in gives two talents. And to the last he only gives one talent. When the master returns, the servant entrusted with five now has ten; the servant entrusted with two now has five; and the servant with one only has one, having failed to faithfully use what was entrusted to him. I humbly think this parable represents God and humanity.

There is much confusion and debate on the internet concerning the meaning of this intriguing passage. Since verse 30 says the wicked servant went to Hell, we know that this passage (at least in part) concerns salvation. Matthew 25:30, “ And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.” Just prior to this parable in Matthew 25:14-30, the Lord told the Parable Of The Ten Foolish Virgins. Five of the virgins foolishly went to buy more oil, to keep their lamps burning, but the bridegroom came while they were gone and they missed Heaven. They went to Hell forever!

Since I regularly preach on salvation by faith alone, through grace alone, in Christ alone, without works; it might be easy for many of my web visitors to make light of serving Christ, which is discipleship. I think there is an inherent fear that many preachers have, that if they emphasize salvation without works, people will capitalize on God’s grace as a license to willfully live in sin. No doubt some believers sinfully do exactly that! 1st Peter 2:16, “As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.”

Romans 3:31, “Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.” If you are saved, you are liberated by the blood of Jesus!

The unsaved (or unregenerate) person is still under the condemnation of God's law. Look at these beautiful Bible verses from Romans 6:14-15, "

For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid." I don't see how any proponent of the heresy of Lordship Salvation, could read these Bible verses and conclude that a person must

[1]turn from your sin

to be saved.

Dear friend, if you are saved you are UNDER GRACE! Just thinking about that truth compels me to jump up and down, and shout and tell the whole world about God's goodness!!! If you are still not saved, you are UNDER THE LAW! There is a curse upon you! John 3:36,

I love Jesus,

"He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." Everyone is either UNDER THE LAW or else you are UNDER GRACE! There is nothing in between. The entire concept of turning away from a lifestyle of sin as a prerequisite to saving faith is of the Devil. Jesus Christ alone bore the full weight of your sins on the cross, so you wouldn't have to by spending eternity burning in the fires of Hell.

Having said all that as introduction, I humbly believe that the Parable Of The Talents in Matthew 25:14-30 represents the entirety of life. A parallel passage in the Old Testament is Ecclesiastes 12:13-14, " Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil." Getting saved is just a part of what God expects from us in life.

We are commanded to be FAITHFUL (1st Corinthians 6:20).

In so doing we will receive a GREAT REWARD from JESUS HIMSELF. Revelation 22:12, "And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be." This verse speaks of discipleship, not salvation. We know this because eternal life is the free gift of God (Romans 6:23).

You can get saved, do nothing, and still go to Heaven. Once saved, always saved!!!

That's the FREE GIFT, b ut Jesus wants us to BE FAITHFUL and to do GOOD WORKS as His redeemed child. ...

> Ephesians 2:5-10, "
>
> Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)
>
> And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:
>
> That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.
>
> For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:
>
> Not of works, lest any man should boast.
>
> For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them*.
> **"

Carefully notice that we are not saved BY good works; but rather, we are saved UNTO good works! Before we were even conceived in our mother's womb, God already knew in His divine foreknowledge that we would choose Jesus for salvation, and God planned our life ahead of time. We don't choose Jesus because God chose us, God chose us (the elect) because we freely chose Jesus as our Savior. Romans 8:29, " For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren." The Bible doesn't say that God predestinates anyone to salvation; but rather, He has predestinated us to be conformed into the image of His only begotten Son. Literally, God the Father saved us with the intent of making us just like Jesus. Jude 1:24, " Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,"

Jesus wants us to be FAITHFUL STEWARDS of what He has entrusted us with in this life! He doesn't want us to WASTE our talents and SQUANDER away the resource He has entrusted to us. When we give anything to God as His child, we are simply letting go of what is already His. Colossians 3:3, " For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God." Whatever happens to a child of God, happens to Jesus (Matthew 25:40 and 45). We're in this thing called together! We are joint heirs with Christ.

Christianity

Romans 8:17, " And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together." I thank God for that promise. If we suffer with Jesus, we shall also be glorified with Him in eternity.

I think the Parable Of The Talents regards obeying God in every aspect. We only need to trust the Savior to receive His free gift of eternal life, but there is much more that God expects from us if we are to please Him. One of the arguments that the proponents of Lordship Salvation make is that, "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it!" That is [2]an exact quote verbatim from Dr. Steve Pettit, new president of Bob Jones University since 2014. Dr. Pettit is a personal friend and supporter of [3]Pastor John MacArthur, the biggest promoter of Lordship Salvation in this untoward generation.

God sent His only begotten Son into the world to die on the cross for everyone's sins (John 3:16). Every human being who hears the Gospel has been entrusted by God with that truth. Since the wicked servant was cast into outer darkness in Matthew 25:30, I think it is obvious that he rejected the Savior. The other servants were saved, honoring God, and they faithfully used what the master had entrusted to them. I think the talents multiplied represent souls saved. This parable is about the Kingdom of God. The wicked servant buried the talent entrusted to him by God, just as the ungodly Christ-rejecter refuses to accept God's free gift of eternal life. The other servants multiplied the talents entrusted to them by the master.

As Christians we all have a duty to preach the Gospel to a lost and dying world. I heard a wonderful MP3 sermon today by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) on this subject, titled: "[4]The Two Talents." We can all be a voice for God! You may only be a two-talent person, but God can still accomplish much through you, if you're willing to be used by God. The first and hardest part about 'The Great Commission' in Matthew 28:19-20 is "

GO YE.

" Romans 10:15 says,

And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

” God didn’t say the lips, tongue or mouth of the soulwinner are beautiful,

but

“

That is because even the most wisest, eloquent and articulate words are meaningless if our feet are too lazy to GO YE into all the world with the Gospel of peace. Only the Gospel can bring peace between a sinner and His Creator (Romans 5:1-2).

1.5.32 Law And Grace Are Two Keys (2020-07-15 19:56)

Galatians 3:10-14, “ For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them.

Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law*, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.”

LAW and GRACE are two different keys—the key of law shutteth men up in condemnation, but the key of grace unlocks the door! What a beautiful passage of Scripture! What a beautiful truth! Our great God has already made TWO great divisions to His Word of LAW and GRACE. The law shows humanity our sinnership. Romans 3:19, “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

In these two covenants of LAW and GRACE, that is, OLD and NEW Testaments, we see the simplicity of the Gospel. The LAW shows men their need as sinners for redemption, and CHRIST provides the provision to fulfil that need. Someone has said that G.R.A.C.E. is an acronym for “ God’s Riches At Christ’s Expense.

I love that! The sole purpose of the law in salvation is to give men

the knowledge of sin

” (Romans 3:20). There is a popular heresy being spread in ecumenical churches today, which says you must forsake (turn) from your sins to be saved.

” The errantly understand this to mean “

repentance,

but it is actually reformation, not Bible repentance. True repentance is a change of mind.

I think the following quote from Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) is one of the best I’ve found on repentance:

> “Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, ’Repent ye, and believe the gospel.’ Yet we find true believers exhorted to ’repent, and do the first works.’ So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance.” (’[1]Except Ye Repent,’ p. 16).

I think Dr. Ironside gets repentance 100 % Biblically correct! I encourage you to read [2]his book on repentance. Albeit, the inspired Holy Bible is our absolutely only authority in all matters of morality, faith and life. John 3:20-21, "For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God." Carefully notice that repentance is unto THE TRUTH, and not from sins!

What saith the Scripture further? 2nd Timothy 2:25-26, "

In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will." Oh please don't miss this truth dear friend. We plainly read earlier in Romans 3:20 that the purpose of God's law is to give humanity the knowledge of sin. No one ever got saved who didn't realize that he or she is a guilty sinner. You must see your need for a Savior. You need to know what you're being saved from.

Matthew 1:21, " And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins." You don't turn from your sins to be saved, you turn to Jesus to be saved from your sins!

Law and grace are two keys. The key of law locked us up in the prison of condemnation for our sins, but the blessed key of God's wondrous grace opens the house of the prisoners! Our text passage from Galatians 3:10-14 teaches that the law is a curse upon all mankind, indicting each and every human being as woeful guilty sinners! But Christ became a curse upon Calvary's cross. 2nd Corinthians 5:21, "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. " Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt of sin we could not pay! Thank God for the sacrificial gift of His dear only begotten Son!

Jesus walked this earth 2,000 years ago as the sinless Son of God, as a spotless Lamb without spot nor blemish (John 1:29). Jesus took upon Himself the penalty for everyone's sins, bearing the full weight of our sins on the cross, in ways that I don't claim to comprehend. 1st John 2:2,

"And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." I love that Bible verse! 2nd Corinthians 5:14, "

For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

” Christ died for everyone dear friend, and that includes you and me!!! It matters not how sinful you may be, or what crimes you are guilty of,

“Christ died for the ungodly

(Romans 5:6-8). That is a very good and loving Savior!!!

I encourage you to get into the mental habit of viewing the Bible from the simplistic standpoint of LAW and CHRIST (or GRACE). Dr. Law shows us our disease, and then Dr. Grace heals us with the Gospel. Galatians 3:24-26, “Wherefore*the law* was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.” Can you see the beautiful simplicity that is in Christ dear friend? God gave us the law as a measuring stick, by which when men compare themselves they fall woefully short of the glory of God, which is absolutely perfection (Romans 3:23; James 2:10). God literally wanted the law to give us the knowledge that we cannot save ourselves. Thus, the Old Testament LAW is as a schoolteacher, that opens our eyes to the truth that we cannot get to Heaven on our own merit or by works, and then brings us to CHRIST to be freely saved by God’s grace.

I encourage you to get into the mental habit of viewing the Bible from the simplistic standpoint of LAW and CHRIST (or GRACE). Dr. Law shows us our disease, and then Dr. Grace heals us with the Gospel. Galatians 3:24-26,

Thus, the Old Testament LAW was a schoolteacher, to open our eyes to the truth that we cannot get to Heaven on our own merit or by works, and that brings us to CHRIST to be freely saved by God’s grace.

Salvation Is Not An Exchange That Will Cost You

Now if you fully understand what I just taught you directly from the inspired Word of God, then it should be abundantly clear that Lordship Salvation is a perverse doctrine of devils. Somewhere between the journey from LAW to GRACE, many people get sidetracked in their mind with all sorts of heretical ideas. They start embellishing LAW and GRACE into a monstrosity. Here's an example of someone embellishing LAW and GRACE. False prophet Dr. John MacArthur errantly says:

> It [salvation] isn't adding Jesus to your repertoire. It isn't like the rock singer who said, "I've been born again but don't think it'll change my act or my lifestyle." It's not that. It's an exchange of all that I am for all that he is. It's an abandoning of all my righteousness for all his righteousness. It's a setting aside of everything I thought valuable for the pearl of great price. I would willingly bankrupt myself of all my human prizes, right? Hear Paul, "I count all things but dung that I may win Christ." That's the exchanged life.

> So, we would then say, who are the few? [the saved] Those who obey the commands of Christ and the will of the Father, those who confess Christ at any cost*. And for everybody that cost may be different, but when salvation is really happening, God energizes the willingness to pay the cost, whatever it is.

SOURCE: [3]Jesus' teaching On Salvation

What a theological dingleberry! Pastor John MacArthur horribly butchers the Word of God. First, his particular quote from the last portion of Philippians 3:8 doesn't appear in ANY Bible version, he worded it wrong! Paul didn't say he counted all things dung; but rather, " the loss of all things.

" Dr. MacArthur claims that we must exchange all things to receive God's free gift of eternal life. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Philippians 3:7-9, "
>
> But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.
>
> Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,
>
> And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:
> **"

Pastor MacArthur leaves off verse 9, which plainly declares that we are saved "BY FAITH." Salvation is not an exchange of any sort. Dr. MacArthur is preaching another gospel, which cannot produce the new birth. The Apostle Paul got saved by faith, and then he decided to serve God (a second decision), which is discipleship. These two are not the same, and to combine them is to pervert the keys of law and grace. Paul's Christian testimony cost him everything. When you live for Jesus the world hates you (John 15:19). It is Jesus whom they really hate (John 7:7). Paul said in 2nd Timothy,

"Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

" I have been persecuted my whole life for my Christian faith. I have been hated, mocked, belittled, spit upon, slandered, fired, banned from ungodly churches, and a bunch more unpleasant things.

Like all false prophets, John MacArthur wrests the Scriptures to his own destruction, and those who follow " led away with the error of the wicked

(2nd Peter 3:16-17).

Please notice in the preceding quotes by Dr. MacArthur that he uses the words “exchange” and “cost” in reference to salvation. Dear reader, God gave His only begotten Son as a sacrifice, to die a horrifying criminal’s death by crucifixion on a splintered cross. He did that for you oh ungodly sinner! And He did that for me, an ungodly sinner saved by grace at age 13 forty years ago! Jesus paid it all! We owe Him nothing in return! There is no balance to be repaid, there is no cost, nor is there any exchange that has taken place. Pastor MacArthur was inspired by demons when he wrote those lies! If you truly understand LAW and GRACE, then you know that “ Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth” (Romans 10:4).

Christ is the key, that by grace through faith, unlocks the door to free men’s souls imprisoned under the condemnation of the LAW.

1.5.33 Dr. Mark G. Cambron Is 100% Correct On Repentance (2020-07-16 09:30)

Acts 20:21, “

1774

Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

Here is an excellent and needful writing by Bible Professor Mark G. Cambron (1911-2000) on the subject of REPENTANCE. Please read the following quote carefully, because Dr. Cambron is one of few theologian who gets it right, that is, he understands the simplicity of the Gospel and that repentance does not mean turning from sin as proponents of Lordship Salvation foolishly teach...

Repentance is necessary for salvation.

The Greek word for repent is metanoeo, which, translated into English is: to change ones mind. It does not mean to turn from sin. That would add works to salvation.

Repentance for salvation means a change of mind from men’s ideas of salvation and religion, to an acceptance of Gods only way of salvation.

This results in a completely new creation, not a reformation of the old. The old nature remains as evil as ever after salvation and has not been reformed . . . The old nature can now be controlled by the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit.

God guarantees salvation. This is His gift to us.

God guarantees reward and fruit to the obedient son.

God guarantees chastening and loss of rewards to the disobedient son.

God does not cast out disobedient children, but in some cases, does take them home. He does not permit His children to live as they please without His discipline and guidance.

Many teach repentance for salvation incorrectly, by including some form of human effort or righteousness, such as willingness to turn from sin, or turning from sin. This is heresy and has confused many people. It adds works to salvation and causes many to not understand Gods great gift. It is probation, not salvation. It is completely unscriptural. It is Galatianism and a counterfeit of the gospel.

It is a tragedy that many Christians live shallow Christian lives. The Cambron Institute is dedicated to the task of training Christian men and women in the importance of total dedication and making Jesus the Lord of their lives not to be saved but because they are saved.

Shallow Christianity cannot be cured by adding works to salvation.

Salvation is not the result of what we do, but is by receiving what God has done for us. Acts 13:38-39; Acts 20:20: Galatians 1:8-9; Galatians 2:4; Galatians 2:21; Galatians 3:1-3; Galatians 5:1-4; Ephesians 2:8-10; II Corinthians 5:21; John 3:16-18; Philippians 3:9; Titus 3:5-8; II Corinthians 11:13-15.

SOURCE: [1]The Cambron Institute

Professor Cambron taught at Tennessee Temple University for many years, and then went to work teaching at Florida Bible College in Tampa, Florida until his went to Heaven in 2011.

Dr. Cambron was exactly right about repentance. The best way to interpret the Bible is to let it speak for itself. There is no mystery what the word “r

means in the Greek. As Dr. Cambron points out, repent means

“

a change of mind,

” nothing more or less.

Pastor Bob Gray Sr. at the Longview Baptist Temple church in Texas correctly preaches:

> “Repentance means to change your mind—change your mind—change your mind about how you want to get to Heaven to what God says you’ve got to do to get to Heaven. If you’ve got to repent of all your sins, you’re still headed for Hell tonight.” —Pastor Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the awesome MP3 sermon, ’[2]Why You Should Be A Part Of A Growing Church’

Will Jesus Christ say to you in eternity: “I Never Knew You!”?

In his excellent book, “I NEVER KNEW YOU,” Michael Patrick Bowen states:

> “You can live for Christ, you can love Christ, you can serve Him with all your might, time, talent and wealth. You can pray to Him, read your Bible, get water-baptized, join a church, witness to people, and do every wonderful work contained within the realm of Christianity, but if you fail to trust Jesus Christ alone for your salvation, He will ’dump’ you.” — ’ [3]I NEVER KNEW YOU ’

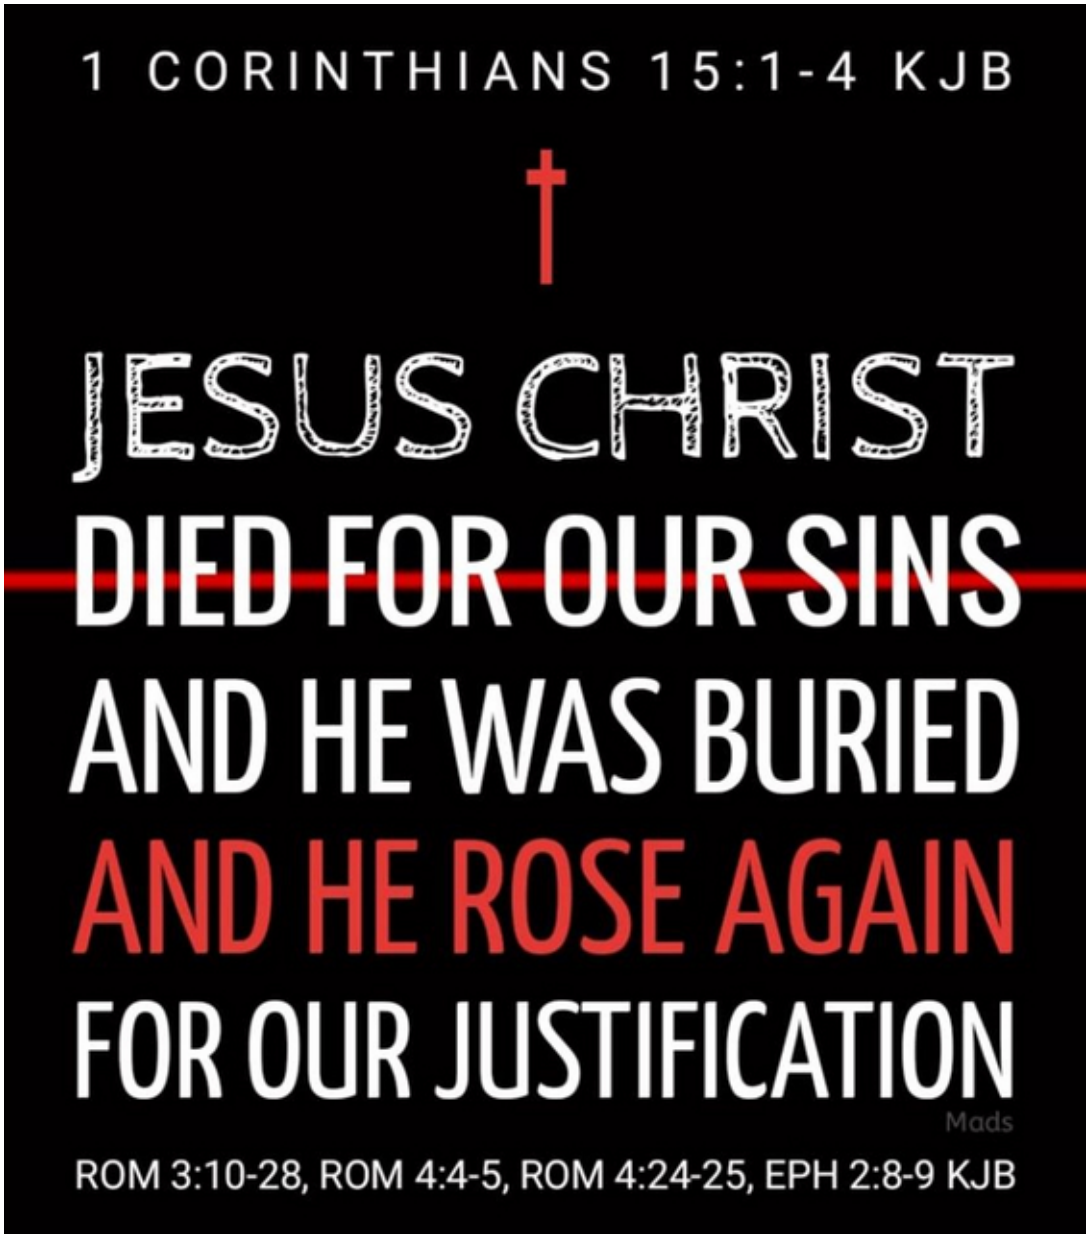
Beware of the false teaching in most churches today, even many Baptist churches, which says that you have to forsake sinful living to get saved, commit your life to Christ and surrender fully to Christ’s Lordship. Satan loves to corrupt the gospel by either requiring good works to be saved, or by subtracting bad works to be saved. Whether good or bad, both are DEAD WORKS! (Hebrews 6:1).



Michael Patrick Bowen correctly explains Biblical repentance...

> “Repent, as Christ meant it to be in terms of salvation, means to change your mind from trusting in what you can do for God to trusting only in what He can do for you.”
>
> Michael Patrick Bowen, a quote from the awesome book, “[4]I NEVER NEW YOU” (Page 114)

It is wrong to teach that a person must repent first, and then believe second; that is a false doctrine. The Bible teaches that the man who believes on Jesus has also repented. They happen simultaneously. One who has turned to Jesus for salvation has also turned his back against sin. This is Biblical salvation, evidenced by the plain words of John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” You don’t turn from your sins to trust Jesus; you turn to Jesus to be forgiven of your sins. Amen!

Jesus died, was buried and is risen (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). This is the Gospel. Jesus’ grave is empty. We have a hope (John 16:33). Christ died, that’s history; Christ died for me, that’s salvation. If you repent toward God through faith in His Son Jesus Christ to be forgiven of your sins, then you ARE saved (Romans 10:13).

The Gospel is not making a commitment to the Lord, nor is the Gospel amending one’s sinful ways and forsaking bad habits. The Gospel is not accepting Jesus into one’s heart, nor is it receiving Jesus as Lord and Savior. The Gospel is not praying a prayer, nor is it inviting Jesus into your life to stay. The Gospel is Jesus’ DEATH, BURIAL and RESURRECTION according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Beware of false prophets who come in sheep’s clothing preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL, ANOTHER JESUS and ANOTHER SPIRIT (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

1.5.34 The Ungodly So-Called “Christian” Band Stryper (2020-07-16 19:58)

1st John 4:1, “Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God*: because many false prophets are gone out into the world." ... Hebrews 12:14, " Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:"
1780

The musical group “Stryper” is an American so-called

“

Christian

heavy metal band from Orange County, California. The band was formed in 1983. Their lead singer is Michael Sweet. This CCM (Contemporary Christian Music) group is of the Devil! I read this disturbing quote the other day...

> Michael wrote: "Without getting into details, I’m so very tired of feeling and or being judged. I don’t go to church as often as I should. I don’t read my bible as often as I should. I like an occasional bourbon. I like an occasional cigar. I may drop a few F bombs when I get heated. I am, however, sold out to Christ. So much so that I’ve been willing to take the heat from people who don’t know me for my entire life. And I’m willing to continue taking it. Why? Because I’m committed to Christ. I’m a believer in His faith and His salvation and that will never change.

> "To me, none of the above means anything when it comes to faith. Sadly, many people think that it does. They place others’ spirituality on a scale to be weighed by how often one goes to church, how often one reads the word, how often one prays. On the other side of the scale how little one swears, drinks, smokes or Lord knows what else. None of that matters to God. What does matter is how sold out you are. Are you willing to commit your life, your job, your work to Him? I am.

"So for all the judgmental folks out there—find a mirror, look into it and start tearing that person apart. You might be surprised by what you find."

SOURCE: [1]Stryper's Michael Sweet Committed To Christ

What a confused man! When you think that making a living by performing heavy metal music is being " committed to Christ,

you are deceived by the Devil.

I do not judge people. I love everyone with God's love. I do not question the sincerity of Michael Sweet (Born 1963), but I can say confidently that Mr. Sweet is not right with God. I do not know if he is a born-again believer or not, only he and God can know that. I have searched the internet for Sweet's Christian testimony and cannot find it. He says he is " committed to Christ,

but that is not salvation. The Apostle Judas was also committed to Christ! Jesus said in John 3:7,

Ye must be born again.

” Michael talks about faith and salvation, which leads me to believe that he might be saved, but I have not been able to find a clear Gospel testimony concerning him.

Unsaved Mormons, Jehovah’s Witnesses, Seventh-Day Adventists, and Roman Catholics, all profess faith and salvation too, but they are not born-again Christians because they all pervert the Gospel of free grace (Galatians 1:6-9).

The freaky looking members of Stryper are dressed like women. They wear women’s eye shadow. They wear long women’s hair. They look like women. The Bible warns that effeminacy in men is a horrible sin (1st Corinthians 6:9-10). The entire transgender movement (which has grown rapidly in popularity since the 1970’s) is of the Devil. This is not holiness! Hebrews 12:14 teaches that “without holiness NO MAN SHALL SEE THE LORD.” We see this truth evidenced in the life of Lot in the Old Testament. The Bible says because of Lot’s worldly testimony

Genesis 19:14, “ And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in law, which married his daughters, and said, Up, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city. But he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons in law.” It is the same with Stryper, but please don’t take my word for it, read for yourself...

> “Many fans of Christian music and industry professionals believed that a group playing heavy metal—a genre often associated with the devil and the dark side*—had no place within this scene, even if its songs shared Christian messages. ...And even though Stryper enjoyed a brief bout of major success in the late 1980s—the band’s third album, the 1986 release “To Hell with the Devil,” made Stryper the first contemporary Christian act to score a platinum album—the group was never fully embraced in heavy metal and hard-rock circles, largely because of the Christian lyrics.”

SOURCE: [2]Stryper Is Still Not Accepted After 35 Years

It is confusion! The Bible speaks of sexual sins that cause **“

confusion

” in Leviticus 20:12. There is a natural order that God has made, of male and female (Genesis 1:27). For the male band members of Stryper to adorn themselves like females is not only creepy and offensive to any God-fearing Christians, but it is CONFUSION to everybody!!!

Stryper reminds of the demon-possessed woman who followed the Apostle Paul. The Bible says she had a demonic spirit within her, while at the same time speaking of God’s salvation...

> Acts 16:16-17, “
>
> And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying:
>
> The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.
> **”

Just like the confused demon-possessed damsel, the band members of Stryper are confusing! They vaguely speak of God while boldly promoting the Devil’s music.

Heavy metal music is indeed associated with the Devil and the dark side. Stryper is pulling on the same rope as the Devil. ...

> at music festivals they’re [Stryper] rubbing shoulders with the likes of Kiss, Ozzzie Osbourne and Megadeth. Sweet counts all those moments as opportunities to share God’s love.

SOURCE: [3]Michael Sweet Still Talking Jesus To Heavy Metal World

Yeah, Lot tried to share God's love too, caring enough to warn his family about the coming destruction of Sodom, but they didn't respect Lot enough to take him serious, because of his worldly life. Likewise, Michael Sweet's peers evidently do not respect his profession of faith, nor do they care about his lame, shallow and vague pseudo-Christian message that even a hellbound Roman Catholic would accept. The following YouTube video is of Stryper performing the hymn, "Nothing But The Blood." They haven't changed any of the hymn's lyrics, but the heavy metal way that they sing it negates its message. ...

The Traditional Hymn "Nothing But The Blood" Performed By Stryper

The music itself hardens the listeners heart! No one, and I mean no one, is going to hear this song and have God's Holy Spirit convict their heart. This is blasphemy against God and His only begotten Son! Nothing in this song glorifies or honors the Savior. It would be like firing up the barbecue, flaming several delicious skirt steaks for your dinner guests, but then rolling those cooked steaks in maggots in the rotting garbage pail, and then serving it on a plate to your guests. Heavy metal music is of the Devil. Anybody who is honest admits it. The lyrics have nothing to do with the music. There is nothing even remotely "Christian" about Stryper. There ain't no such animal as "Christian rock"! All rock music is worldly!!!

A very clear Illuminati occult pyramid is also displayed throughout the preceding video. To make it big in the music industry you have to sell your soul. We must remember that the Devil's greatest ability is to DECEIVE. The serpent deceived Eve. You should become familiar with Genesis chapter 3, because the Devil's tactics never change. The serpent began to deceive Eve by corrupting the Word of God. The moment you start straying away from THE TRUTH, you're in big trouble. That is why I earnestly warn everyone about these modern Devil's Bibles—that secularize the Bible, obliterate theology, confuse churchgoers, and attack the deity of Jesus. The serpent then fed Eve a bunch of lies, like Michael Sweet trying to convince you that he is a committed Christian. Yeah, and I've got a cabin on the planet Mars! I really do, I'm leaving tonight...lol.

How dare Stryper take a beautiful hymn like and roll it in maggots! Look at the band member's appearance—dressed effeminately like sensual women—that is wickedness! I am not judging anyone, I am simply telling the truth that you cannot take holy lyrics and wrap them in the Devil's unholy music, and call it "Christian.

" Michael Sweet and his band mates aren't helping the cause of Christ. I triple-dog dare you to show me the Gospel on their band's website. You cannot! Stryper has millions of fans worldwide, letting them all go to Hell. They grab a phrase here and there from the Bible, and slap it on their Satanic works of darkness, calling themselves Christians to confuse people, and the heathen world loves them. Something is very wrong with that picture!

So what is the Devil's purpose of doing this? Well, for the band members of Stryper, it is the age old evil of the love of money. "For the love of money is the root of all evil

(1st Timothy 6:10a). But for the Devil, Stryper helps to blind people from the truth of the Gospel. Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without getting born again. 2nd Timothy 3:5, “Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.” Stryper has a “form” (superficial manifestation) of godliness, using Isaiah 53:5b as the band’s Bible verse, “and with his stripes we are healed.” Yet the saving power of the Gospel is no where in sight!!!

Have you ever noticed that stores put certain items up front close to the entrance, that they want you to buy first? I have. If I owned a store that is what I would do! We all tend to select the first things we are shown. Many people make that same mistake in choosing a life’s mate, like I did. That is why I am divorced, I picked the wrong woman and she abandoned me. Don’t settle for less than God’s best! That is what the Devil does with religion, and religious junk like Stryper promotes. CCM is as empty as can be, totally devoid of the saving Gospel of free grace. CCM will take you into the stratosphere emotionally, but at the end of the day reality is something else entirely. The Devil wants to inoculate you with just enough religion to prevent you from getting born-again! Satan uses bands like Stryper to deceive people! There are billions of people whom Satan has blinded with religion, philosophy, music, education, evolution and humanism. Religion wants to fit you with glasses, but Jesus wants to open your eyes!

Kindly said, I don’t know if Michael Sweet of Stryper is truly a born-again believer, but if he is, this is his spiritual condition...

1.5.35 Lord Help Me To Think Right, Live Right, And Do Right (2020-07-16 22:00)

2nd Corinthians 10:4-6, " (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled. "

Our text Bible passage teaches us how to overcome sin and live right. Our weapons of warfare as Christian believers are mighty THROUGH GOD! Philippians 4:13,

“I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. ” Galatians 2:20,

“I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. ” Many new believers make the mistake of thinking they can live the Christian life in their own strength, but you cannot do that! It is important to understand that Christ lives through us as His saints. This the fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25). God does not give the fruit of the Spirit TO ME, but THROUGH ME to give TO YOU! Pastor Jack Hyles preaches a wonderful sermon about this very subject, titled: ’[1]Thou Shalt Covet.’

Little pet sins can escalate into big life-destroying sins if we let them grow. America has all but forgotten the holy God of the Bible. Our public schools lie to children, indoctrinating them with the blatant fraud of evolution. Without the inspired Holy Bible, young people have no moral compass to guide them through life. The worst decision our U.S. government ever made, was to remove and ban the Holy Bible from children’s daily lives at school since 1963. The consequences have been devastating and horrifying, just listen to the daily news! Our nation didn’t become a mess overnight. Little by little the Devil has led our nation astray—one church at a time, one family at a time, one individual at a time! ...

> “If you want to never do anything that is terribly wicked, then you never do anything that is slightly wicked.” —Pastor Jack Hyles

We need to have old-fashioned tent revivals all across America. If we can have nationwide RIOTS, then we can also have nationwide REVIVALS. There is no doubt whatsoever in my mind, that the recent riots over the murder of George Floyd were financed, organized and encouraged by the Illuminati (i.e., the Luciferian elite). Many people chuckle and laugh in scorn at what I just said, while overlooking the Masonic occult symbols on back of every U.S. one dollar bill. In your face America! I cannot control what those wicked people in secret do to destroy our society (Ephesians 6:12), but I can control what I do. I can pray (Philippians 4:6). I can contend for the faith (Jude 1:3). I can lively godly in Christ Jesus (2nd Timothy 3:12). I can live a life pleasing to God (2nd Timothy 2:4).

The inspired King James Bible is THE ANSWER!!! ...

> “It is impossible to enslave, mentally or socially, a bible-reading people. The principles of the bible are the groundwork of human freedom.” —Horace Greeley Sadly, we have become a nation of Bible ignoramuses in America!

Today’s adults are yesterday’s youth!

It’s always important to do the right thing!

I don’t know about you dear friend, but I fear God and love everyone with God’s love, and my heart’s continual desire is to think right, live right, and do right at all times! If we do go into sin, it will only be because we CHOSE to. ...

> James 1:12-15,
> **“
>
> Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.
>
> Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:
>
> But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.
>
> Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death*.
> **”

This is a very important Bible passage to become familiar with, and I suggest to memorize. Sin always begins with LUST. Then we are ENTICED (provoked by lust). If we let it play out, our lusts will lead to sin, and sin when it is finished bringeth forth DEATH.

If you doubt that, please watch the popular TV series titled:

“

Cold Cases Files

” or

“Forensic Files.” It saddens me to see evil things happen to anybody. Nobody deserves to be tortured, raped, robbed or murdered. The criminals who commit such evils didn’t just turn evil overnight, there was a long process of wicked thinking.

In the coming year I want to SAY less, SIN less and SIT less! I heard one of my favorite preachers, Pastor Danny Castle, [2]preach that New Year's sermon in 2010. What great advice to live by!

I don't know about you, but e ven if the stars fall, by God's grace, I want to do right! I have enough to answer to God for, and so do you friend! The Bible says there is NONE righteousness, no not one (Romans 3:10). I was disappointed when Donald Trump refused to admit he is a sinner, when asked, during his 2016 presidential campaign. There is no shame in admitting to being human! I was disappointed because Mr. Trump professes to be a Christian, and the very core foundation of our Christian faith is that Jesus Christ came to save us from our sins (Luke 19:10).

My favorite Bible verse is Proverbs 4:23,

Keep thy heart* with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

" Everyday we hear of people becoming victims, creating victims, and all manner of evil. These evil things proceed out from the human heart Jesus said. Matthew 15:18-19, " But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:" That is why Proverbs 4:23 says, KEEP THY HEART; and that is why it is my favorite Bible verse, because we must always be on guard as believers! How do you keep your heart as a believer? I'm glad you asked my fine non-feathered friend.

How To

Keep Thy Heart

As A Christian:

1. Maintain a Biblical mindset (John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me." 1st Corinthians 2:16, "For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.")

2. Immediately bring every wrong thought into compliance with God's Word (2nd Corinthians 10:5, "Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;"

3. Think About Good Things, And Avoid The Bad (Philippians 4:8, "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." Avoid negative and ungodly people.)

4. Choose Your Friends Wisely (Proverbs 1:10, "My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not." 2nd Samuel 13:3a, "But Amnon had a friend." That friend's name was Jonadab, who convinced Amnon to rape his own half sister.)

5. Be Very Careful About The Advice You Give And Take (Esther 5:14, "Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and tomorrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made." That bad advice backfired, and instead Haman and his 10 sons were all hanged on those gallows. Zeresh was an ungodly wife, whose ungodly advice to her ungodly husband caused the execution of her 10 sons! So be careful what advice you give and take, because it could destroy your life and get your loved ones killed!)

6. Maintain A Constant Spirit Of Thanksgiving Toward God (Colossians 1:3, "We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you," Being thankful to God leads men to obey the Gospel, and believers to live for Christ.

   Isaiah 17:10, "

   Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the rock of thy strength, therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange slips:

   " We only forget God when we stop being thankful.

7. Always Keep Your Eyes On Jesus! (Hebrews 12:2, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God." Isaiah 45:22, "Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.")

I love that... LOOKING UNTO JESUS!!! The Lord Himself is the Author and Finisher of our faith. An author is someone who creates a book. The author is not always the writer! For example: God authored the Holy Bible, but approximately 40 men penned it. Likewise, our Christian life is a book in progress, that we are writing, but God is the divine Author! Here's proof in Philippians 2:13, "For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

” Isn’t that beautiful? God is the Author and Finisher of our faith, working in us both to will and to do of His will. Jesus is precious!!!

> “A test of a Christian’s character is what he does after he comes to the blockade in the road and what his attitude is after everything has left him except Jesus. You will never know down here that Christ is all you need until Christ is all you have left.” —Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982)

1.5.36 Why Follow Men? (2020-07-17 11:30)

Ephesians 5:1, “Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;”

What saith the Scriptures? John 5:39, “Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.” Most of the debating, arguing and controversies plaguing the churches today could be eliminated if religious leaders would simply stop following men, and start SEARCHING THE SCRIPTURES!!! The inspired Word of God is our ONLY authority, and not men. Any man can pay some money to buy a piece of paper called a “degree,” and all of a sudden he is considered “qualified” to lead a church; but he could be a total deceiver, theologically incompetent and an ignoramus concerning the Scriptures!

I’d like to share a quote with you from Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980), from his booklet titled: “HYPER-CALVINISM: A FALSE DOCTRINE.”

> III. WHY FOLLOW MEN?

Do you follow Arminius? or Wesley? Then you are certain to be wrong wherever those good men but frail men were wrong. Do you follow Calvin? Then whatever doctrine Calvin formulated or invented will be wrong for you as for him. ...

In truth, the false doctrines of hyper-Calvinism would not do so much harm if they were emphasized as little as Spurgeon emphasized them, and particularly, if those who advocate them worked unceasingly to win souls as Spurgeon did.

But why follow Spurgeon? He was human. he was an amazing pastor, and evangelist. Some think he was the greatest preacher since the Apostle Paul.

But when he was wrong he was wrong. He plainly said he did not know enough about the return of Christ to preach on it. No man is perfect. It would be as foolish to follow Spurgeon in whatever part of the false doctrine of hyper-Calvinism he believed as to follow him in smoking cigars. He saw the error of smoking a little while before he went to Heaven, and I am sure he saw the errors of hyper-Calvinism, besides those he himself criticized, as soon as he reached Heaven. Why not just follow the Bible instead of Arminius or Calvin or Wesley or Spurgeon?

SOURCE: Dr. John R. Rice, “HYPER-CALVINISM: A FALSE DOCTRINE,” pp. 16, 18; Sword of The Lord, ©1970

I couldn’t agree with Dr. Rice more! Amen and amen. Our churches are being destroyed today because of foolishly incompetent pastors and Bible college leaders, who follow popular reprobate Bible teachers; namely, John MacArthur, Paul Washer, John Piper, R.C. Sproul, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, Chip Ingram, Steve Pettit, Rick Warren, William Lane Craig, Joel Osteen, Beth Moore, Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, Doug Batchelor, Don Blackwell, David Cloud, Dan Corner, Brian Derringer, John Hagee, Charles Stanley, Pat Robertson, Max Lucado, and other ungodly gospel-corrupters! These people all pervert the Gospel of free grace, ADDING something else to it which God does not require to be saved. God freely offers the free gift of eternal life to anyone who wants it! This gift is free because Jesus paid for it with His precious blood!!!

You won't find a more helpful Bible verse to live by than Psalms 118:8, "It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man." I have heard some preachers say that this verse is the center of the King James Bible. Jeremiah 17:5, "Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD." We ought to therefore be followers of God. Ephesians 5:1, "Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;" We "follow God" by abiding in the eternal words of the inspired King James Bible!!!

Walking with Jesus gives a Christian "BOLDNESS"! Why do you think I preach boldly the way I do? That is Jesus' Spirit in me. Acts 4:13, "Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus." People will know when you've been walking with God, because of your boldness for truth, righteousness and love for others. Walking with God compels a believer to "hate evil" (premeditated sin). Psalms 97:10, "Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked." And a sure sign that a Christian is following God is that they hate every false way. Psalms 119:104, "Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way."

You know that all these pastors are pseudo-religious leaders today. The prefix pseudo- (from Greek ψευδής, pseudes, "lying, false") is used to mark something that superficially appears to be (or behaves like) one thing, but is something else. On the surface, today's clergy appear to care and be knowledgeable of the things of God, but upon closer inspection, you will be very disappointed. Today's pastors are theologically incompetent—promoting multiple different Bible versions, promoting a false gospel of being willing to "turn from your sins" to be saved, and bidding Godspeed to false prophets like Ray Comfort and John MacArthur. I refuse to follow Jacob Arminius (1560-1609). I refuse to follow John Calvin (1509-1564). I refuse to follow Martin Luther (1483-1546).

Today's [1]cotton-candy religion tastes so great for a few seconds, but then quickly disintegrates into nothing! A genuine man of God, who follows God, WILL care about the truth! Such a man will hate the evil LGBTQ agenda, hate abortion, hate the prevailing injustices of the U.S. Justice Department, hate the Devil's Bible revisions that confuse everyone, and hate all manner of fraud, evil and taking advantage of other people! The believer who follows God unconditionally loves every living creature!!! The main reason why churches are so messed-up nowadays is because pastors and Bible colleges are FOLLOWING MEN instead of FOLLOWING GOD! If you want to follow God, then you must follow only the inspired King James Bible. If you follow God, then you must follow only a free grace view of the Gospel. Lordship Salvation is a lie of the Devil, a false teaching that produces much worry, fear and uncertainty in the soul of those who fall victim to it!

The main reason why professed Christians in churches are so messed-up today is because they FOLLOW MEN. Instead, we ought to all SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!!!

Matthew 4:19, “And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.”

1.5.37 America Will Never Be "Great" Again! (2020-07-18 05:01)

Isaiah 1:4-6 and 15-16, “

Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD*, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment. ...

And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil;

Our text passage applies directly to the nation of Israel in the Old Testament, but it indirectly apples to any wicked nation! The United States is far more wicked today than Israel ever was! As of June 2015 sodomites can legally get married. They can legally adopt children. I was saddened to learn yesterday, that the 21 year old son of singer Melissa Etheridge died this week of a drug overdose. Miss Etheridge came out public in 1993 that she a homosexual. I am not bashing her for her sins, I don't do that to anyone. I believe that the Bible teaches homosexuality is a sin (Leviticus 20:13; Romans 1:24-32; Jude 1:7). Adultery is a sin. Fornication is a sin. Public nudity is a sin. Filthy gestures is a sin (Colossians 3:5-6). These sins are prevalent in America today. It is shocking that nudity is so widely accepted in America! I tell you, our nation will never be great again until Americans get right with God!

In his State Of The Union speech in February of 2020, President Donald Trump boasted that [1]he has

“ [2]made America great again!” Vice President Mike Pence said the same thing! Dear reader, America is not great again!!! President Trump's first nominee to the U.S. Supreme Court, Justice Neil Gorsuch, recently ruled in favor of giving rights to 7,000,000 homosexuals in the workplace. So now if you hire a man, and he comes back from over the weekend as a woman, you cannot fire him. I think that is very wrong! God-fearing Christians and sin-loving people will never co-exist in harmony. Proverbs 29:27, “ An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.”

In a truthful excellent speech titled, “The Evangelical Church Is Helping To Create Another Nation Of Slaves,”

Pastor Chuck Baldwin in Montana had this to say:

The story is told that soon after the adoption of our U.S. Constitution, a lady approached Benjamin Franklin and asked him, “Sir, what kind of government have you given us?” His reply: “A republic, Madam, if you can keep it.”

Our founders had lived through the tyranny of a monarchy and had fought a long and bloody war for independence. Their foremost desire was to create a form of civil government that would protect the Natural liberties that they had fought so hard to procure. That form of government needed to have multiple layers of Liberty protections built into it. That form of government was a constitutional republic—“a nation of laws, not men.” (John Adams)

Nothing made by man can ever be perfect, but the combined Declaration of Independence, U.S. Constitution and Bill of Rights form the most perfect set of founding civil documents in human history.

Checks and balances protecting civil Liberty are engrained throughout the laws of this republic. From the checks and balances of competing branches of the federal government to the laws establishing “free and independent” states to the checks and balances of State and county governments to the independent authority of sheriffs, juries, the voting booth and, as a last resort, an armed civilian populace—each charged with the duty of protecting our Natural and civil rights—our liberties were as protected as any form of government could make them.

But as our founders repeatedly warned, the protections of Liberty built into our constitutional republic depended on the honesty, integrity, commitment and courage of the citizenry to endure "the fatigue of supporting it [freedom]." (Thomas Paine)

Hence, Franklin's warning: "If you can keep it."

Our nation's second U.S. president, John Adams spoke these very true words of warning to the American people:

"We have not government armed with power capable of contending with human passions unbridled by morality and religion. Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other." —U.S. President John Adams (1735-1826)

Wow! I couldn't have said it better. We've got a bunch of crooks, thieves and dishonest people within the government today at every level. It is tragic what congress and the media are doing to continually tear down President Trump. I think that is very wrong to do! President Trump is our leader. I don't care how bad or wrong a leader may be, we should always show respect for the office, if not for the man himself. That is Biblical. Michael the archangel durst not slander the Devil, but said: "The Lord rebuke thee" (Jude 1:9b). That doesn't mean preachers ought not preach against evil, it simply means that we should always show respect for God-ordained authority, even when they are wrong. When President Barack Obama was in office, he was a wicked man, passing many wicked laws, and the churches were silent. Now we have a conservative president, Mr. Trump, who is passing many good laws, and I like him a lot, and the liberals are trying to destroy him.

The Bill Of Rights and U.S. Constitution only outline our God-given rights. If we disobey God, then we forfeit our right to liberty and freedom. Liberty is a gift from God, the privilege to make our own decisions. Freedom is the reward for making the right decisions. We have been making all the wrong decisions (banning the Holy Bible since 1963, legalizing abortion since 1973, legalizing pornography since the beginning of Hollywood, greedy business contracts written by ungodly attorneys, legalizing same-sex marriage since 2015, fornication, adultery, drug abuse, stealing, bearing false witness, covetousness, et cetera). These sins bring the judgment of God (Romans 1:32; Colossians 3:6). God is now removing our freedoms and liberties. If the Lord tarries His return, America will become a Godless Totalitarian Communist Police State in the decades to come. I assure you of that!!!

As a I said, I like President Trump. I love his wit and laid back charm. It's about time that we had a man's man kind of guy in the White House, like Harry Truman and Theodore Roosevelt. I think Donald Trump is a cool guy! I really do. But when I see his so-called " conservative

judge on the U.S. Supreme Court rule to give more rights to the LGBTQ community, I do not see "GREATNESS" in our nation, I see “WICKEDNESS!” President John Adams was absolutely right,

“We have not government armed with power capable of contending with human passions unbridled by morality and religion.” That is why the [3]city of New York is now allowing the rioters to loot.

Isaiah 3:12, “ As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.” In cities all across the United States, youth are rioting and oppressing their communities! This is a sign of a decayed and ungodly society. We are only as strong as a nation as our weakest link, which is our young people!!!

I can assuredly tell you that America will never be great again! The reason why is because the LGBTQ agenda is here to stay. There will never be a time again where homosexuality is a punishable crime in all 50 states, as it was in 1962. Doctor Nicholas Cummings was the former president of the American Psychiatric Association (APA), who admits decades later that his institution’s decision to support homosexuality instead of treat it as a pathological illness, [4]was completely based upon politics and not legitimate science! The medical science behind the LGBTQ agenda is a hoax! America “great” again?

Proverbs 14:34, “Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.” American can never be great again until we become righteous again! SIN IS A REPROACH TO ANY PEOPLE!!! Hollywood’s violence, immorality, blaspheming God, taking the Lord’s name in vain, and all manner of wickedness has brought God’s judgment upon our nation. One day China may attack the United States! I am firmly convinced that Revelation 18 describes the destruction of the United States. In just one hour (Revelation 18:10, 17 and 19), Babylon is annihilated by fire! That sure sounds like a nuclear attack to me!

[5]Look at what is going on in the city of Seattle. Homelessness and legalized drug abuse is epidemic. Narcotics are everywhere today! America again? Our nation is in shambles! The [6]Federal Reserve banks have been ripping off Americans since 1913, and our leaders are complicity to the evil.

1802

I am firmly convinced that President Trump will win re-election this coming November. I am also convinced that our nation is soon going to war, perhaps with Iran. Mr. Trump has said he will do something about North Korea. China is purported to be our nation's biggest threat, but I think we ourselves are our own worst enemy!

> "A nation can survive its fools, and even the ambitious. But it cannot survive treason from within." —Janet Taylor Caldwell (1900-1985)

God knows that I am not a negative person, far from it. I am not a doom and gloom type of person. Some people are like the character Glum for [7]The Adventures of Gulliver's Travels. Glum always said, "We'll never make it!" That reminds me of Judas, who betrayed Christ. Judas always saw the negative side of everything (John 12:3-5). I am the opposite, I look for a solution instead of complaining. My attitude is to never complain about anything, but to find a way to fix the problem! That is a godly attitude. Work first, play later. Always do right. People are broken, not bad. Never force anything. Life is too short to live with a burden of hatred. Let things go, Jesus said to: "Be of good cheer!"

(John 16:33). Always be nice to everybody, because everyone is having a tough time. I live by these truths!

Having said that, I want to believe that America could be "

great

again. God knows my heart. Famous author Mark Twain (1835-1910) said:

"Patriotism is supporting your country all the time, and your government when it deserves it." That's a good quote. I do want our country to be great, very much so; but I am a realist, not an optimist. I look at the wicked spiritual condition of our nation, and the fraudulent Federal Reserve System, and the Satanic Masonic occult control over our nation, and the LGBTQ agenda which utterly destroys family values in every way, and the apostate condition of our churches and Bible colleges, and I weep as did Jeremiah the prophet.

Lamentations 1:16, " For these things I weep; mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed." America is in big trouble on all fronts!

We read in Bible prophecy that the end times will worsen, not improve...

Matthew 24:37-39, “

But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark,

And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.”

2nd Timothy 3:13, “

But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

2nd Timothy 3:1-5, “This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.”

I will finish with an amazing truth that I learned one day in the Scriptures...

1st Timothy 2:1-5, “

I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty*.

For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;

Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus*;”

I had never noticed the connection between verse 5 (which is a popular Bible verse) with the first few versus about praying for our government leaders. 1st Timothy 2:5 teaches us that there is only one Mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus! The reason why we are commanded to pray for our leaders, is because Jesus is the One who has the final authority. Our God is still on His throne! As Christians, we understand that Jesus Christ intercedes between us and our government. Our government leaders in most cases are unsaved liberals, communists and atheists, but the Lord controls them. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 21:1, “ The king’s heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will.” That is why we ought to pray, because God can preserve our liberties and freedoms. Isn’t that a beautiful Bible truth? Sure it is!

(2020-07-19 10:50:10)
I've read many articles and things on your website over the last 15 years or so. Trump is a wolf in sheep's clothing. He is a pedophile. Politics are not going to save this country.

1.5.38 Peter Preaches The Simple Gospel (2020-07-18 10:00)

Acts 10-43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins."

I was reading the Holy Bible today and a truth jumped out at me from Acts 10:30-45 concerning the simplicity of the plan of salvation. I'll share what I learned with you in a moment, but first let me share with you the story of Cornelius. We read in Acts 10:1-2 that Cornelius was a military leader, a centurion over an Italian squad of 100 soldiers. Cornelius was a good man, but lost. Acts 10:2, "A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway." This is amazing! Here's an important man in the community, well respected, who fears God, prays, and gives much money to the poor and needy. Yet, Cornelius was not a born-again Christian, on his way to Hell.

My friend, no amount of religious devotion, involvement in your church, sincerity, or personal human effort, can get you to Heaven. There are millions of people burning in Hell this very moment—who spent their lives doing good, helping others, praying, fearing God—yet they failed to do the will of God concerning salvation. What is the will of God? I'm glad you asked. John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day."

This leads me to the heart of this article that I'm writing. In a vision God appeared to Cornelius and told him to go see the Apostle Peter, so that Peter could witness the Gospel to him. Here is the Biblical account of the matter:

Acts 10:30-45, "And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God. Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee. Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God. Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:) That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judaea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree: Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly; Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost."

What I want you to notice, and this is my sermon, is the simple plan of salvation that the apostle Peter gave to Cornelius. Remember, God sent Cornelius to go find Peter, so that he could learn how to be saved and go to Heaven.

Carefully notice that:

- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to follow Jesus.

- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to surrender all to God.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to get water baptized.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to make Jesus his Lord.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to join a church.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to get religion.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to publicly confess Christ as his Savior.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to invite Jesus into his heart.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to start a relationship with Jesus.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to change his life.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to turn away from his sins.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to forsake the world.

In fact, Peter DIDN'T TELL CORNELIUS TO DO ANYTHING!!! Peter simply told the story of Jesus of Nazareth, Who went about doing good and healing the sick, but the unbelieving Jews had Him crucified on a cross for our sins. Jesus bled and DIED on the cross. He was BURIED. And then Christ miraculously RESURRECTED bodily from the dead three days later. This is "the Gospel" [i.e., Good News] according to the Holy Scriptures:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures." [emphasis added]

In Acts 10:30-45 Peter said that anyone who believes on the name of Jesus, Who died on the cross for our sins and raised up the third day, shall receive a pardon for their sins. That was the simple Gospel message, which Cornelius simply and quietly BELIEVED and was immediately saved. Amen!!! Whew, that's good stuff! Peter never told Cornelius to do anything to be saved, he simply preached the Gospel of Christ's death on the cross for our sins, His burial, and bodily resurrection the third day. The very moment that Cornelius believed, he was forever born-again and saved. The hardest part about salvation for people to understand is that you get it by DOING NOTHING!!! You simply REST COMPLETELY in the finished work of Jesus Christ, and then God does the saving... ALL OF IT!!!

Every false religion in the world teaches a whole bunch of things that a person must DO to get to Heaven. But as we just saw for ourselves in the wonderful Scriptures in Acts 10:30-45, Peter simply preached the truth of the Gospel, and Cornelius BELIEVED and was instantly and forever born-again and saved. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved. Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross. '[1]HE THAT BELIEVETH IS NOT CONDEMNED!!!' (a precious salvation sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles).

Here are some excellent, doctrinally sound, helpful, Biblical sermons . . .

Dr. Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008):

- [2]How Permanent Is Your Salvation?
- [3]Wrong Repentance - No Salvation
- [4]Why Inviting Jesus Into Your Life Is A False Gospel
- [5]The Plan Of Salvation From The Bible

Pastor Ralph 'Yankee' Arnold:

- [6]Caught Between Grace And Works
- [7]Is Repentance Part Of Salvation?

- [8]Easy Believism
- [9]Must A Christian Live A Changed Life? -Part 1
- [10]Must A Christian Live A Changed Life? -Part 2

The Bible interprets itself. Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) used to say that the best way to interpret the Bible is not to interpret the Bible. Where the Bible is silent, we should be silent. Don't put a question mark where God put a period. You'll find all sorts of additions and perversions to the simple plan of salvation in today's religious churches. Even most evangelical churches these days have been contaminated, because the Devil has crept into them unawares with a false GRACE PLUS WORKS plan of salvation. I love you in the Lord friend, whoever you may be, and I don't want you to miss Heaven and spend eternity burning in the Lake of Fire.

I love this passage of Scripture in Acts 10:30-45, because it plainly teaches that salvation is obtained simply by BELIEVING THE GOSPEL OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. The Apostle Peter simply told the Good News (Gospel) of Christ crucified on the cross for our sins, buried and risen three days later. When Cornelius believed, he was immediately saved. This is the childlike faith which brings eternal life. The way to be saved is not to DO, but to BELIEVE! That is, make it your own. If you've made what Christ did on the cross, and His resurrection, your personal hope for Heaven, you are saved!

Christ's Redemption

Some time ago an evangelist traveling was singing to himself the song, "I'm Redeemed." A fellow passenger, hearing, joined him in the song. After singing, the evangelist put the question to the stranger, "Have you been redeemed?" "Yes, praise the Lord," was the answer. "May I ask how long ago?" "Nearly 2,000 years ago." The astonished evangelist echoed in surprise, "2,000 years ago?" "Yes, Sir," said his fellow passenger, "but I'm sorry to say it's not much more than a year that I have know it." So many people for whom Christ died are still unaware that the great redemptive act of our Lord was for them. While He died in behalf of all men, He only died instead of those who by faith have claimed it for themselves.

The Bible refers to the Gospel as "THE SIMPLICITY THAT IS IN CHRIST." 2nd Corinthians 11:3, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ." We find further evidence of "THE SIMPLICITY THAT IS IN CHRIST" in Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit [capital "S," for Holy Spirit] by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?" When a person is saved, God's Holy Spirit comes to indwell their earthly body permanently (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24).

Hence, the apostle Paul wrote a letter to the church at Galatia, saying that he only wanted to know ONE THING: How did you become indwelt with the Holy Spirit? That is to say, How did you get saved, by works or faith? The correct answer is "BY THE HEARING OF FAITH"! That is, if you BELIEVE the Gospel when you hear it preached you are saved, end of story! This is exactly what happened to Cornelius and many who were with him—they heard the Gospel being preached, and they gladly received it, believing on the Lord Jesus Christ.

Please don't allow anyone to mislead you into following a false plan of salvation, because you will go to the Lake of Fire (Hell) forever. Nearly every religion today, including many Baptist churches sad to say, are teaching the satanic lie that you cannot be saved unless you forsake sinful behavior and surrender your life to live for Jesus. This heresy is commonly called "Lordship Salvation." That is a false plan of salvation. That is human effort. That is not what the Bible teaches. As you read for yourself, Peter never asked Cornelius to do anything. That's right, nothing! God doesn't save those who are TRYING to be saved; but rather, those who are TRUSTING to be saved. Salvation is receiving, not achieving. Salvation is a TAKE proposition, not a GIVE proposition!

We are saved by completely resting in Jesus Christ. Hebrews 4:10-11, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief." The Bible is speaking about Jesus, Who is our Sabbath today. In the Old Testament, God had instituted temporary ceremonial laws, which taught the Hebrews spiritual truths. God's command for men to work 6-days a week represents man attempting to merit eternal life through human effort. On the Sabbath Day, which was a ceremonial law, no work was done, which taught that salvation is completely through God's righteousness. Salvation is pictured by men ceasing from their own works, and instead resting in God's righteousness on the Sabbath. The Sabbath was nailed to the cross (Colossians 2:14-16). Today, Jesus is the fulfillment of the Sabbath Day, because Jesus is our Sabbath in Whom we rest for salvation. Amen! This is what Hebrews 4:10-11 is talking about.

The only "work" that we can do to be saved is to run to Jesus as our Savior. We do this by believing that Jesus is who He claimed to be—THE CHRIST! John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." Believe the 'Good News' of Christ crucified, buried and risen! John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." There is absolutely nothing that we can do to save ourselves, or even help save ourselves. We are all dirty, filthy, needy sinners, in desperate need of the blessed Savior. Jesus paid our debt of sin. Christ paid a debt that He did not owe, because we owed a debt that we could not pay. Praise God, JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! If you receive the Gospel as full-payment for your sins, you are saved.

This is such a beautiful passage of Scripture in Acts 10:30-45. The Apostle Peter never told Cornelius to do one thing to be saved. Peter never told Cornelius to "turn from your sins" (a popular heresy taught in today's apostate churches and [11]Bible colleges). In fact, Peter never mentioned the word "repent" to Cornelius. You won't find even one mention of the words "repent" or "repentance" in Acts chapter 10. Could the Bible be any clearer that the man who believes has repented? I think not. Peter simply shared the 'Good News' of Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day! Cornelius believed that 'Good News' and was immediately, irrevocably and forever saved. It's that simple to receive God's free gift of eternal life.

For many of you, this truth has no doubt opened your eyes to the level of demonic doctrinal corruption in today's ecumenical churches. Anytime you hear a preacher saying that you must DO SOMETHING to receive God's free gift of eternal life, they are preaching another gospel. Anyone who errantly says you must "repent of your sin" (e.g., Dr. Sam Horn, Pastor Marty Herron, Dr. Steve Pettit, Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, Pastor John MacArthur) is preaching a doctrine of devils. The price has already been paid on Calvary's cross! Jesus shed His precious blood to pay your debt of sin and mine (1st Peter 1:18-19). The price has been paid in full.

You don’t have to “count the cost” to be saved (as Evangelist Billy Graham errantly preaches), because the price has already been paid in full. The only thing you need to do is BELIEVE! Simply receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, and after 72 hours physically resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Cornelius didn’t do anything to be saved, he just believed the Gospel when he heard it preached. What a beautiful precious Savior Jesus is!!!

“Men are not saved by analyzing the truth of the Gospel. They are saved by accepting the truth of the Gospel. It is true, whether men believe it or not. It is as true as the multiplication table.

Men use the multiplication table to do what the multiplication table is supposed to do. The Gospel will do what it is supposed to do. 'It is the power of God unto salvation unto every one that believeth."' —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," chapter: Preaching, Evangelism, page 123; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

1.5.39 Who Are The Wicked Servants In Matthew 24:45-51? (2020-07-18 19:32)

Matthew 24:3-5, "And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many."

Matthew 24 is an intriguing passage. I will tell you what I think it means. The disciples met privately with Jesus and asked Him what will be signs of the end of the world, and of His Second Coming.

Don't miss verse 5, because it explains Matthew 24:51. Most people interpret verse 5 to mean that false prophets will come who claim to be Jesus Christ. I don't think that is what it means. The Bible is saying that many shall come, confessing that Jesus is Christ. They will come in Jesus' name. Dr. Steve Pettit comes to mind, the president of Bob Jones University. He says that Jesus is the Christ. Dr. Pettit preaches in Jesus' name. Yet, [1]Dr. Pettit teaches the false plan of Lordship Salvation, leading people astray into false doctrines of devils. The Lord said people like Steve Pettit would lead MANY astray, deceiving them!

So this is what Matthew 24:45-51 is referring to—false prophets. These are false servants! They look like ministers of righteousness, but they are really ministers of unrighteousness, preaching another gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). I consulted my commentary by Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951) for Matthew 25:45-51 and this is what he brilliantly says:

> Responsibility to live for God and witness for Christ while waiting and watching for His appearing is what is stressed in the closing verses of the chapter.

> "Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods. But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; And shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken; The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of, And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."
> —Matthew 24:45-51

> It is a great responsibility to be put in trust with any measure of divine truth. What is given is not for our own information alone but to be passed on to others. "It is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful" (I Corinthians 4:2). Those to whom the Lord has made known His purpose and counsels are therefore called upon to act as good stewards of the manifold grace of God, sharing with the household of faith the spiritual food for their encouragement and edification. The servant who fulfills his responsibilities along this line will be duly rewarded in the day of manifestation. But if any attempt to trifle with the truth, putting far off the coming of the Master, and live selfishly, manifesting a haughty, over-bearing spirit, they will have to face the Judge at an unexpected hour, and will be given their portion with the hypocrites. Such a servant is of course not a true child of God at all, but he will be judged nevertheless according to the profession he has made. It is a very serious thing to use one's knowledge of the truth of God for selfish enrichment, with no real concern for those to whose needs one is called to minister.

All service is to be in view of the coming again of the King when His faithful servants will have their places appointed in the kingdom according to the measure of their devotedness during the day of testimony."

Bravo! So we see that everyone who claims that Jesus is Christ is accountable as so-called "servants" they profess to be. In Matthew 7:21-23 they said, "LORD, LORD" to Jesus, but they were false servants. They boasted of their many wonderful works. They boasted of even casting out devils. But Jesus called them "ye that work iniquity" and said "I never knew you, depart from me"! They went to Hell. These were wicked servants! I think this is a good explanation of Matthew 25:45-51 by Pastor Ironside, and I'm sure you will agree.

Our churches and Bible colleges are full of wicked servants, who mishandle the truth of God's Word. I'm talking about Moody Bible Institute and their Calvinist garbage theology! I'm talking about Bob Jones University and their Calvinist garbage of Lordship Salvation. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) preached Free Grace Theology, not Lordship Salvation. In fact, Dr. Jones said if he could, he'd come back from Heaven in 50 years and blow his college to smithereens, if infidels ever came to rob the saints of their faith. That evil has happened! Dr. John MacArthur in California is the enemy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Bob Jones University crowd bid him Godspeed, making them partaker of his evil deeds. These are the unfaithful wicked servants of whom the Lord warned in Matthew 24:45-51.

1.5.40 The Sin Of Homosexuality Is Confusion (2020-07-18 23:00)

Leviticus 20:12-15, “

And if a man lie with his daughter in law, both of them shall surely be put to death: they have wrought confusion; their blood shall be upon them. If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

And if a man take a wife and her mother, it is wickedness: they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you. And if a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast.”

Sexual immorality causes confusion. There is a natural order that God has made. The Lord created humanity as male and female (Genesis 1:27). God made it so that a male and a female get married, and conceive children together, being together as husband and wife for life. When there is a divorce and remarriage, it is confusion. I so much wish that divorce was illegal in America. Only ungodly lawyers and judges agree to work in a wicked legal system that permits divorce. You couldn’t pay me one billion dollars to be a lawyer or a judge involved with a divorce. I know that lawyers and judges don’t make the ungodly laws, but they profit from them, and that means they have blood on their hands too!

When a man and a man have carnal knowledge, and God forbid, get married, and God forbid forbid adopt children, it is utter CONFUSION! America is a very confused nation today. I heard Vice President Pence the other day bragging that “President Trump has made America great again.” Oh really? President Trump’s first nominee to the U.S. Supreme Court, Justice Neil Gorsuch, just [1]ruled in favor of 7,000,000 LGBTQ person’s rights in the workplace, which creates a hellish nightmare for Christian employers. It is utter confusion. Whose side is President Trump on Anyway? If you think President Trump is on the side of the American people, you are very naive! Mr. Trump is on the side of Mr. Trump and the New World Order powers that pull his strings. I agree with [2]Professor G. Edward Griffin that communists control BOTH sides of the U.S. political process, to maintain control over the American people. Jesus said that a house divided cannot stand (Luke 11:17).

I love people. I am kind to everyone. I do not bash LGBTQ people. They are all sinners for whom Jesus Christ loves and died for, just like me. But as Bible-believing Christians we cannot, and must not, ever accept LGBTQ people as being “normal.” There is nothing “normal” about two men sodomizing each other in the buttocks. It actually blows my mind that most Americans are accepting this filthy deathstyle as okay, normal and a legitimate way to live. That is not "hate speech" dear reader, that is the truth of God's Word. Romans 1:24-32 describes the homosexual lifestyle as "against nature" and "vile." I am saying saying that we should be mean to anyone, but homosexuals ought not be allowed to raise children. Why? Because every child deserves to have a mother and a father. Just because there are single parent homes, doesn't mean we should encourage it! Having two mommies is effectively a single parent home! It is utter confusion for a child.

Sexual immorality is confusion. When a man commits adultery, it is confusion, because that is not his wife. Anything that perverts the holy institution of marriage, between one male and one female, is utter confusion! We live is a very confused society today in America, and it will only get much worse, bringing with it a plethora of adverse spiritual, physical and mental health issues. Habakkuk 1:4, "Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth." We are increasingly beholding WRONG JUDGMENT proceeding forth from our nation's courts at all levels (federal, state and city) because THE WICKED DOTH ENCOMPASS THE RIGHTEOUS.

As our American society waxes more and more wicked, things can only get worse, and that definitely includes the courts.

Proverbs 29:2, " When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn."

1.5.41 Persecuted By Harvest Baptist Church For My Faith (2020-07-19 03:43)

Luke 6:22-24, "

Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

1818

Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven*: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

But woe unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation.

When I read this passage of Scripture, I am reminded of the apostate Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who have banned me from returning to their church services. In 2014, I attended their church for one year. I made friends. I fell in love with their nurse. I was happy. But [1]I made the grave mistake of caring enough about them to tell them THE TRUTH. With my own money, I bought fundamental books by faithful Baptist preachers to help them. I burned sermon CD’s and prayed for God to open their eyes. I personally handed THE TRUTH to Harvest’s ungodly pastors. Instead of thanking me for being a truth-teller, I was reprimanded and driven out of the church, [2]banned from returning. Sadly, Harvest’s pastors are fools, who despise truth. Proverbs 23:9, “ Speak not in the ears of a fool: for he will despise the wisdom of thy words.”

In 2017 I was desperately lonely for a church family. I missed the nurse I fell in love with at Harvest (who liked me too in 2014). I literally begged three times for the church pastors to give me a second chance, but they were hard-hearted and wicked. They separated me from their company, and cast out my good name as evil, rejecting, shunning and ostracizing me, because I told THE TRUTH for Jesus Christ! I was casting my pearl before the swine, and they trampled upon my caring heart, ostracizing me for being a truth-teller. Dr. Marty Herron was their pastor from 1999 to 2018, and now they have Pastor Gary Walton. I wouldn’t give you a penny for either of these apostates! Anybody who bids Godspeed to Steve Pettit and John MacArthur has a serious spiritual problem!!! 2nd John 1:11, “ For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.”

The new pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (HBC) is no better than the old pastor, who still won’t allow me to attended church services. Where dwelleth the love of God? (Romans 14:10). They just don’t care about people or truth at Harvest. I love something that Dr. John K. Jenkins Sr. said, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Glenarden, Maryland. I love that man! He beautifully said: “[3]Human Beings Just Want To Be Loved… Just Love The Hell Out Of Them!” If they had simply loved me as a human being at HBC, accepting my request to come back to church, I would have humbly accepted and befriended them. They still won’t have anything to do with me in 2020, and I am still being ostracized for my faith.

Instead, they arrogantly reject me, in their haughty pride, promoting and bidding Godspeed to false teachers like Dr. Steve Pettit and Pastor John MacArthur, who preach the heresy of Lordship Salvation. I told THE TRUTH! What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. " I have God's promise that He will greatly reward me for my loss, for my suffering, for my heartache, which Harvest Baptist Church on Guam has inflicted upon me for Jesus' sake.

I befriended them with THE TRUTH of the Gospel of free grace, but they got upset with me for exposing Dr. John MacArthur as a wolf in sheep's clothing. They got upset with me at Harvest, because I told [4]THE TRUTH that the [5]modern Alexandrian based Bible revisions are Devil's Bibles! Isaiah 13:11, " And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible." It is sad to see that same arrogance in the Bob Jones' camp! False doctrine is false doctrine, and [6]you cannot sugarcoat it to justify it!

There are many forms of persecution. Our text verses say in

Luke 6:22-24, "

Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

But woe unto you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation.

" What an amazing passage of Scripture indicting the Bob Jones University camp! Their ecumenical leaders all get paid lucrative 6-digit salaries. The Bible says they already have their reward!

Dr. Sam Horn was the vice president of BJU for many years, but has now become president of The Master's University, where [7]Dr. John MacArthur was the president from 1985 to 2019. These men are all accomplices in preaching another gospel of Lordship Salvation. Dr. Steve Pettit is the president of BJU, since 2014. Harvest's former pastor on Guam, [8]Dr. Marty Herron is now the vice president of Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary in Iowa. I love all these men with God's unconditional love, God knows my heart, but they are wrong on the Gospel. They are living an extravagant [9]life of Riley , at the demise of the truth!

Did you know dear reader that [10]Mormons teach the exact same view of repentance as do the proponents of Lordship Salvation? [11]So also do Seventh-Day Adventists! I am one of the most hated preachers in the world, because I mash on the toes of false prophets! I refuse to let a Baptist church slide, like the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, just because they are

“

Baptists.

” Right doctrine matters

! A false gospel cannot produce the new birth in Christ. [12]False Bibles teach a false gospel, which perverts grace and damns men’s souls to Hell. I don’t get paid for what I do. I’d rather watch a good movie than sit here refuting Bob Jones University. But someone needs to take a stand for right doctrine! 1st Samuel 17:29,

“ And David said, What have I now done? Is there not a cause? ” So say I to Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and Bob Jones University, who would criticize my preaching:

“What have I now done? Is there not a cause?” The Philistine giant of Lordship Salvation has defied the God of Israel, I will go out and fight that giant, to slay him with the power of God!

> Isaiah 41:21-22, “ Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob. Let them bring them forth, and shew us what shall happen: let them shew the former things, what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come.”

I am confident by God’s grace, that I and the nurse at Harvest in 2014 could have been married. She liked me, and I liked her a lot, but her pastors defended their false doctrines, and I took a stand for THE TRUTH, so they sinfully kicked me out! The school nurse (a BJU graduate) rejected me because of the ungodly influence of her bosses at the church. What do they care, they have the life of Riley? You see, she wants a good man, but not a godly man for a husband. If she ever gets married, she’ll marry some henpecked wimp that follows the crowd, not a faithful man of God who loves THE TRUTH and is willing to lose everything for his convictions. Dr. Marty Herron is not a faithful servant of God, he is a religious businessman! I love Pastor Herron, but he did me and my family wrong, and he ran that church into the ground spiritually, leaving them at Harvest in shambles with Dr. John MacArthur as their mentor! I did the right thing to SPEAK THE TRUTH, but Harvest’s pastors did the wrong thing! God will Judge between me and thee! Proverbs 12:17,

“

He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.

Sadly, the people in the church follow their pantywaist leaders. Pastor E.M. Bounds, in his book

“

Power Through Prayer,

rightly said that the spirituality of the congregation rarely rises above the spirituality of the pastor. That is why America is going to Hell, our church pulpits are weak! On another topic,

I am [13]listening to the book of Isaiah right now, and I just heard this awesome verse from Isaiah 26:3

, “

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.

” Here we see how to trust God, by keeping our mind fixated on the Lord. That is how I make it day to day, I just keep my eyes on the dear Lord. It is not easy for me to live alone, for 14 years since 2006 when my wife abandoned me, but God sustains me by faith. I do hope and pray to find a wife someday.

You’d think if there was one place in the world where you could feel free to tell THE TRUTH, it would be in a local New Testament church, right? Tragically, it is not so! I told the truth and it got me kicked out and banned from Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Then their pastor (Dr. Marty Herron) quit and moved on to Iowa, after he ruined their church.

You’d think that the one place in the world where your faith would be strengthened in the inspiration of the Bible would be in a Bible college, right? Tragically, it is not so! [14]Hyles-Anderson College has denied the inspiration of the King James Bible since 2008. Bob Jones University, Crown College, Pensacola Christian College, and countless more, all deny the inspiration of the King James Bible. They are afraid to be persecuted for Christ. They don’t want to be outside the gate with Jesus! So they go along with everybody else.

False Prophets Abound In The Churches Today

If Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) is right about the Gospel, then I am right. If Pastor Bob Gray Sr. is right about the Gospel, then I am right. If the Apostle Paul is right about the Gospel, then I am right.

If Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) is right about the Gospel, then I am right! Read what Dr. Ironside so beautifully said concerning salvation, that it is free and without cost:

> "When anyone comes promising salvation to those 'who make full surrender' of all that they have to God, and who 'pay the price of full salvation' *he is preaching another gospel, for the price was paid on Calvary's cross and the work that saves is finished. It was Christ Jesus who made the full surrender when He yielded His life on Calvary that saves us, not our surrender in any way to Him." [emphasis added] —Pastor Harry A. Ironside, from the Gospel tract, "[15]Another Gospel"

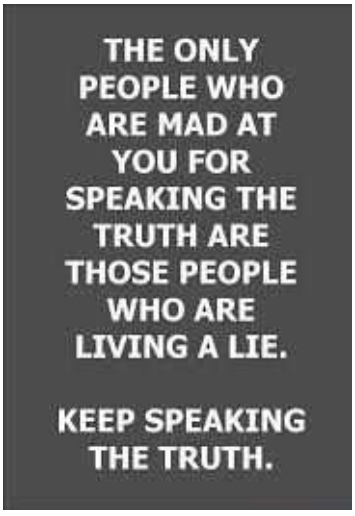
In sharp contrast, read what Dr. John MacArthur teaches you must pay to be saved:

> "Don't believe anyone who says it's easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God's Son His life, and it'll cost you the same thing."
>
> —Pastor
>
> John MacArthur, 'Grace To You,' an updated quote from his book 'Hard To Believe', p. 93.

Read what [16]Dr. Steve Pettit heretically teaches in agreement with John MacArthur, teaching that you must pay the price by forsaking your own way of living:

> "So I want to ask you, have you come to a genuine acknowledgment before God almighty of your sinfulness? Secondly, you have to change the way you view yourself. We call that 'repentance.' And repentance is sort of saying a 'No' and a 'Yes.' It's a turning AWAY FROM and a turning TO. What am I turning away from? I'm turning away from my own self-righteousness. I'm to turning away from depending on me, and all that's involved in me—self-righteousness, self-will, self-assertion, living my own life—I'm to turning away from that way of thinking*. And then finally what do I have to do? I'm to put my trust, or my confidence, in Jesus alone." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit, an excerpt from "[17]What Does It Mean To Be Justified?" (The Daily Platform #741)

Dear reader, the Gospel does not require that you turn away from LIVING YOUR OWN LIFE to be saved. God is freely offering you eternal life as a gift, and He does not demand that you give Him something in return (which would be an exchange and not a gift). Evangelist Steve Pettit further heretically teaches:



> "I am taking my life, my eternity, my destiny, everything, and I am placing it into Christ." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit, an excerpt from "[18]What Does It Mean To Be Justified?" (The Daily Platform #741)

Lordship Salvation is manmade religious junk, not sound Bible doctrine. The only thing that the Bible requires is to place your TRUST into Christ. Ephesians 1:13-14, "In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory." You cannot show me even one Scripture that teaches to forsake your own way of living to be saved! You cannot show me even one Scripture that teaches there is a price to pay to be saved! JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

One of Satan's greatest weapons is to get people to become indifferent, lackadaisical and acceptant of embellishments to the Gospel. [19]The Greatest Threat To The Gospel Is Ambiguity. There are those who would say that Bob Jones University are preaching the Gospel, who would lead you to believe that BJU's doctrine is still within the realm of orthodox Christian doctrine, but nothing could be further from THE TRUTH! It is true that theologians have been wrangling over the true meaning of repentance, faith and the Gospel for centuries, but that doesn't justify all teachings. Evil has always been the enemy of good, and in every generation the battle continues, between light and darkness!

I tell you dear friend that Lordship Salvation (i.e, Calvinism) is not the Gospel of free grace. The Bible does not require that you live a lifestyle, nor that you turn away from your own way of living to be saved. Such ideas are heretical and foreign to the saving Gospel. Christ died on the cross to pay your debt of sin, and mine. Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt of sin we could not pay and He loves us (Romans 5:6-9). I pray daily for my friends at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I am their friend. A friend tells you the truth! They are the Bob Jones' camp. I love them unconditionally. Their nurse lost out on a great guy, but that was her choice. I miss her. The Bob Jones crowd love second best, mediocrity, counterfeit Bibles, a false gospel, and doctrinally corrupt leaders. The love of money has corrupted Bob Jones University, compelling them to dip their sails, trim their standards, and embrace the Devil's Bibles and Satan's lie of Lordship Salvation. I shall not be moved!

1.5.42 Evolution Is An Elaborate Non-Scientific Hoax (2020-07-19 10:30)

Psalms 145:17, "The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works."

One of the biggest lies ever fabricated is the falsehood of Evolution. The verifiable truth is that there is absolutely no evidence whatsoever that evolution is true. It's all bogus! Evolution doesn't teach children HOW TO think, but WHAT TO think! There's a big difference! The very word "science" means "the study of" something. There is no "science" backing evolution! It is a myth.

Evolution is a religion, because you have to BELIEVE its non-scientific claims. Christians BELIEVE that God created the universe and everything in it. Evolutionists BELIEVE that all life as we know it evolved from a Big Bang billions of years ago. Evolutionists and theoretical physicists (e.g., Stephen Hawking) claim that evolution is true because the universe is still expanding. The truth is that there is nothing in the Word of God teaching that the universe doesn't expand.

One thing I have learned as a truth-seeker is that it is very important not to grasp for straws to win an argument, lest we discredit ourselves. When someone grasps at straws to support their hypothesis, it shows their desperation and actually becomes their weakest point. Evolution is a hypothesis, not even a theory, because there is no credible evidence to support its bizarre claims...

> In scientific reasoning, a hypothesis is constructed before any applicable research has been done. A theory, on the other hand, is supported by evidence: it's a principle formed as an attempt to explain things that have already been substantiated by data.
> — [1]SOURCE

Evolutionists scoff at Christians for teaching that all animals came off of Noah's ark, while utterly failing to realize how absurd their own claim is that [2]all of life came from two rocks colliding in space! Think about that! There's allegedly a quote from a Russian atheist astronomer, which states:

> "Folks, either there is a God or there isn't. Both possibilities are frightening. You see, if there is God, we better find out who He is, find out what He wants, and do what He says. If there is no God, we are in trouble, cause we are hurdling through space at 66,000 miles per hour and nobody's in charge."

That is very true! Whether there is a God or not, both possibilities are frightening! Of course, there is a God, and He is a very good God! Evolution is brainwashing at the American taxpayer's expense. Bill Nye is an ungodly man, hellbound in his wickedness of unbelief. We all make our choices in this brief earthly life. According to Romans 1:20, there is no such thing as an atheist, only wicked people who choose not to acknowledge God. Romans 1:20, "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse." There is no legitimate science behind the bogus claims of evolutionists. 1st Timothy 6:20, "O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called."

The sad fact that evolutionists teach what they cannot prove, as if it were a known fact, clearly shows their desperation to condemn the Holy Bible! That speaks volumes! Why would anyone—a decent person with a thinking mind, who is reasonable and educated—want to put forth wild and unproven speculation to impressionable children's minds? To teach speculation as if it were fact shows the evil bias behind the the evolution agenda, which is to eradicate children's minds of God completely. The Word of God plainly teaches in Genesis 1:1, "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth." It doesn't get any plainer and simpler than that friend! In the beginning... GOD! Where did life as we know it originate? The only plausible answer is GOD! [3]Check this out, how insane and evil the NASA's scientists are! It is evil to teach children something that has no scientific basis, because YOU ARE LYING TO THEM! Children deserves to know the truth, not be indoctrinated! Children ought to be taught HOW TO THINK, not WHAT TO THINK!

I can understand as a reasonable person, why someone who does not believe the Holy Bible wouldn't want their child being taught such things. I really can grasp that argument. I don't agree with it as a Christian, but I can reasonably understand it. Parents have every right to raise and teach their own children as they so choose. I don't have a problem with that. I believe in freedom and liberty. However, when the government forces the unproven hypotheses of evolution upon children, especially Christian children, I have a big problem with that! That is thug communism! The age old lie is that the Bible teaching of Creation is a religion, but evolution is science. What a joke! Evolution is as much of a religion as anything else!

There are many definitions of what "religion" is, but at its core, religion is based upon beliefs. It takes more faith to believe in evolution than the Word of God! That is a fact that you CAN PROVE! There is abundant evidence that the Bible is true, but no evidence at all to support evolution. History, archaeology and science all agree with the Holy Bible. The very manner in which the Holy Bible came into existence, written over 1,500 years by forty different men, proves the divine nature of the Word of God. It is absolutely impossible for any book to come into existence in such a manner. There are literally thousands of ancient Bible manuscripts, which have been unearthed by archaeologists, that prove what I am saying!

A common tactic used by evolutionists is to find anything they can, to set forth as alleged "proof" of evolution, but science has proven all those bogus hypothesis's false in every case over time. Unfortunately, impressionable children too often believe the lies they are taught, and that blood is upon all the Freemasons, government officials, teachers, parents and authorities who made it happen. Woe unto everyone involved with the propagation of the lies of evolution! Revelation 21:27, "And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life." Revelation 22:15, "For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie." Not only are those who invented the LIE of evolution guilty, but so also those who LOVE THE LIE! Many professed atheists and wicked sinners LOVE THE LIE of evolution, because it satisfies their need to rid their mind and life of God!

Woe unto all liars! You couldn't pay me a billion dollars to teach the blatant lies of evolution to anyone! God knows that I mean that! Evolution is such an obvious hoax! These fake NASA scientists tell us that the earth and moon came from two rocks crashing into each other! That is a complete and wicked denial of the Holy Bible! It's also ludicrous! Only an idiot, or a very wicked person, could embrace such a bizarre and non-plausible hypothesis! It makes perfect sense that a divine God created the universe, especially in lieu of the Holy Bible which God has authored and given to us, to teach us these precious truths. Theoretical physicist, Stephen Hawking (1942-2018), is now burning in Hell forever, sadly, because he died in his sins without the dear Savior (John 8:24; Revelation 20:15; John 3:36). Evolution is a lie created by the Devil, to blind men's minds from seeing the glorious light of the Gospel, lest they be saved (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4).

Anyone who teaches evolution ought to be ashamed! It's not science, not in the least. The bogus claims of evolutionists are not testable, repeatable nor verifiable in a scientific laboratory nor in nature. It's bad science at best! True science studies what already exists, like the wonderful creation around us. Two rocks colliding couldn't have produced such grand beauty. A "BIG BANG" billions of years ago couldn't have evolved into the awesome universe as we know it today!

The righteous moral nature of the Holy Scriptures (Romans 7:12), and the unrighteous immoral nature of the world in which we live (1st John 5:19), is further conclusive evidence that Creation is true in the Holy Bible. Psalms 145:17, "The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works." Romans 7:12, "Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good." People who love to live in their sins, often hate God and His Holy Word (Romans 1:28). Any honest person who has read the King James Bible, knows that it is God's inspired Word; and any thinking person with an honest heart knows that the claims of evolution are a lie! If humans came from monkeys, why are there still monkeys? Were some of the monkeys retarded? The Bible teaches that the flesh of man is man, and the flesh of animals is another. Humans are not animals, as wicked evolutionists allege. I thank and praise God that I know THE TRUTH about Creation, and am not brainwashed or deceived by Satan to believe the obvious lies of evolution! 1.5.43 Put Off The Old Man, And Put On The New Man (2020-07-19 22:43)

Colossians 3:9-13, “

Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

And have put on the new man*, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him:

Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all.

Put on therefore*, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering;

Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

I love the Epistle of Colossians, which is a delicious Smorgasbord of doctrine. The Bible teaches about the “ old man

versus the

“

new man.

” Our text passage speaks of putting off the old man, and putting on the new man, as we would take off an old coat, and put on a new coat. In fact, the Greek word in Colossians 3:12 for “put on” is enduo (meaning: “to invest with clothing”). Removing an old coat and putting on a new coat is a CHOICE. Colossians 2:6, “As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him: Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.”

This passage of Scripture refutes the heresy of Lordship Salvation. We are saved by “receiving” Christ. Therefore, “ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God” (Colossians 3:3b). As believers we ought to “walk” in Christ

. Galatians 5:25,

“If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

” To “live” in the Spirit means that we are saved, indwelt by the Holy Spirit (Romans 8:9); but to “walk” in the Spirit means that we live for Christ. It is possible to live in the Spirit, but not walk in the Spirit! The words “ let us

” plainly indicate that walking in the Spirit is an option, not mandatory. If discipleship was automatic, as Calvinists errantly teach, then the Bible wouldn’t continually encourage us to live for Jesus. The fact that we are repeatedly taught to walk in the Spirit, is Biblical proof that salvation does not require surrendering to Christ’s Lordship.

If you are saved, Jesus is your Lord.

Colossians 4:1, “

Masters, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving; ” The day you got saved Jesus became your Lord. The Bible commands every believer to walk in Christ (Lordship), now that we have received Him as our Savior. These are two separate decisions. The deadly error of the Lordship Salvation camp is that they combine these two things, and in so doing pervert the grace of God. Jesus did not save you just so you could have fire insurance, He saved you to turn you from your sins, that you would live for Him; but you don’t have to turn from your sins to be saved, which would be works!

You don’t turn from your sins to be saved, you turn to Jesus by faith, and then He turns you from your sins. That is why we are taught in Colossians 3:12: “ Put on therefore, as the elect [saved] of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.” This is the blessed fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25). So put off the OLD MAN dear saint!

2nd Timothy 2:19, “ Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.” Again, we see that the Bible is exhorting the saints to depart from iniquity and live for Christ!

I receive many emails from web visitors who say they are slaves to sin, unable to overcome their addictions. That tells me one of two things: 1) They are not saved; 2) They choose not to put off the old man and put on the new man. It’s that simple! We only sin because we choose to sin! Sin is a choice. No one is born homosexual, it is a choice to live in sin. We either choose to reject Christ, or we choose to receive Jesus as our Savior, and we are saved. Then as the elect (chosen of God because we first chose Christ), we choose either to put off the old man and put on the new, or we choose to walk in the flesh (which brings the chastisement of our heavenly Father - Hebrews 12:6-8).

1.5.44 What To Do When You Don’t Know What To Do (2020-07-20 10:00)

2nd Chronicles 20:12, “

O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but our eyes are upon thee.

I heard a wonderful sermon today by one of my favorite preachers, Pastor Danny Castle. The sermon is titled:

“ [1]What To Do When You Don’t Know What To Do .” I am writing this blog article while listening to his sermons, using some of his sermon quotes. I hope you will listen to the sermon. We are so close to the Rapture folks! I love Brother Danny; God has used [2]his preaching to help me much spiritually over the years! [3]I made this MP3 page to share Pastor Castle’s sermons with everyone.

We are living in perilous times (2nd Timothy 3:1-7). You can’t always trust your kinfolks, friends, family, spouse, or even pastor, but YOU CAN ALWAYS TRUST GOD! Has it ever occurred to you that nothing has ever occurred to God? There’s a big push these days to [4]keep people under the thumb of the government. This is all part of the breakdown and conditioning of America, and the world, to prepare the masses to receive the New World Order. The Antichrist is soon coming in place of Christ, the false messiah, an imitation of the true Messiah to deceive the masses.

Our text verse refers to the Israelites, who were afraid during a time of threat of war in the land. ...

> 2nd Chronicles 20:1-2 and 12, "
>
> It came to pass after this also, that the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them other beside the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle.
> Then there came some that told Jehoshaphat, saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea on this side Syria; and, behold, they be Hazazon-tamar, which is En-gedi. ... O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but our eyes are upon thee. **"

The year 2020 has struck much fear into people's hearts. All around the world the Coronavirus pandemic so far has infected 8,200,000 people. Sadly, of those 446,000 have died. Today is June 19, 2020 and the virus is still going strong worldwide. To add more turmoil and fear to the mix, George Floyd was murdered on May 25, 2020, which has resulted in [5]massive rioting across the United States. I heard in the news today that [6]Black Lives Matter protests and riots have broken out in London, France and Australia. This is an agenda folks, intended to prepare the world to receive the coming Man of Sin (Antichrist).

[7]Weak and cowardly Christians are destroying America, because Christians and preachers no longer take a stand for what is right and wrong. We are seeing anarchy instead of rule of law. This is all leading to the coming of the Antichrist. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) beautifully explains all this in his amazingly relevant sermon titled: '[8]Why The Antichrist Must Come Soon.' This sermon was preached at the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana in 1970. Throughout history, dictators rose to power out of the ashes or a crumble society. Things are falling apart worldwide today. Riots are breaking out. Cities are going bankrupt. Everyone is wearing face masks to avoid being infected with the feared Coronavirus. The churches are closed due to the virus.

We are living in a generation of lies and deceptions. When you're in trouble, you need the truth! People are dying for THE TRUTH nowadays! Just because the Pastor or Bible teacher has a good name does not mean they are teaching Biblical truth. Always be on your guard. When you don't know what to do, KEEP YOUR EYES ON GOD!!! The people said in neither know we what to do: but our eyes are upon thee.

I love that! The Jews simply didn't know what to do. The Ammonites were coming against them! The Moabites were coming against them! The Syrians were coming against them! Enemies left and right were coming out against them from every direction! All hell was breaking loose!!! That reminds me of Job's calamity in Job chapter one...

> Job 1:16-18, " While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house: "

As fast as Job's servants were telling him the bad news, "WHILE HE WAS YET SPEAKING," another servant came with more tragic news; and "WHILE HE WAS YET SPEAKING," another came with more tragic news! I've been in that situation. I know what it's like to have one tragedy after another happen, just more crap on the pile of life! I've been there! I've wept in bitter tears, just like Job did, because of a series of bad, tragic, painful, injurious, unfair and traumatic events that happened in my miserable life. I wanted to die! Years ago I bought two barbecues and charcoal to commit suicide. It was only by God's grace that he restrained my soul from doing it! I lost everything, but I still had Jesus!!!

When you don't know what to do, LOOK UP!!! Look to Jesus!!!

2nd Chronicles 20:12b, "

neither know we what to do: but our eyes are upon thee.

Dear friend, are your eyes upon the Lord? I'm listening to another sermon by Pastor Castle called: " [9]Truth In Trouble ." We serve a good God folks. When you're in trouble, you need THE TRUTH! We all need the truth! Jesus is " the way, the truth, and the life

(John 14:6b). When you don't know what to do, open your inspired King James Bible and claim God's promises. Did you know that there are [10]7,487 promises in the Bible from God to man? Learn them, familiarize yourself with them, and claim them! When you don't know what to do, LOOK TO JESUS!!!

I heard in the news this week that 40,000,000 Americans are now unemployed. Millions of Americans are going to lose their homes to the banks due to foreclosure. Many businesses (small and large alike) are closing their doors permanently, due to the Coronavirus lockdown since January of 2020. Where is all this leading? We've never seen perilous times like this. We're living in Bible prophecy folks. We're heading into apocalyptic times, the dreadful end times! False prophets are everywhere nowadays. Most of the churches have been deceived by the [11]Devil's counterfeit Bible revisions. Most of the churches have been deceived by the [12]Devil's counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation.

The average person is confused about religion, not sure what to do, or who to trust. There are literally thousands of different religions today. Dear friend, LOOK TO JESUS!!! You know that is THE TRUTH! Don't trust in the arm of man's flesh, trust in the Lord. Jeremiah 17:5, " Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD." Please trust Him now! Simply receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. Jesus died in your place on the cross (2nd Corinthians 5:21). He was taken down and buried by Nebuchadnezzar and Joseph of Arimathaea (John 19:38). Three days later He physically resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Jesus did this for you dear friend. God loves you so much, that He was willing to sacrifice His only begotten Son for you on a cross (John 3:16). Please receive Him as your personal Savior while you still can; life is short, Hell is hot, and eternity is a long time!

Matthew 7:15, “ Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.”

1.5.45 Always Be Abundantly Thankful To God (2020-07-21 00:13)

Colossians 1:12-14 , " Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:

In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins: "

The greatest truth I could teach you dear reader, next to salvation itself, is to WALK WITH GOD. And the most important truth I could teach you about walking with God, is to ALWAYS BE THANKFUL TO GOD!!! Gratitude is the key to happiness in life. It is only when our heart becomes ungrateful, that we begin to backslide. A thankful Christian is a humble person, lowly, meek, loving, caring, and obedient to the Lord. When we appreciate all that God has done for us, it reflects in our attitude...

> Colossians 2:7-10 , " Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. And ye are complete in him , which is the head of all principality and power: "

The word

abounding

in Colossians 2:7 is the Greek word perisseuoo, which means

in excess.

” We ought to be more than thankful toward God, we should be superabundant in our gratitude. Think about what God has done for you dear friend! You and I were on our way to burn in Hell forever without hope, a literal place where there is no rest day nor night (Revelation 14:11), a place of torment and suffering (Luke 16:19-31), a place where there is no escape.

Matthew 23:33, “ Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?” Oh how I love Jesus, and am exceedingly thankful for all that He has done for me!!! I hope you are thankful too. There are 86,400 seconds in each day, have we thanked God with just one of them?

> “When gratitude dies on the altar of a man’s heart, that man is well-nigh hopeless.” —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., “Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks,” page 26; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

Here are some precious Scriptures from the [1]Epistle of Colossians, which I am listening to today, about being thankful to God:

> Colossians 1:3, “ We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

> Colossians 3:15 , “ And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful. ”

> Colossians 3:17 , “ And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him. ”

Colossians 4:2 , " Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;"

Our great God deserves our constant gratitude and praise. PRAISE YE THE LORD!!! THANK GOD FOR ALL HIS BLESSINGS!!! Psalms 147:7, " Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving; sing praise upon the harp unto our God:" David used his musical instrument to praise God. I think that is wonderful.

I have been playing the pedal steel guitar since 1992, which I love to play. It has been a great joy, for which I am so thankful to my God and Savior. [2]Here are my recent steel guitar recordings from 2020 . Praise the Lord all ye saints!!! Psalms 150:6, " Let every thing that hath breath praise the LORD. Praise ye the LORD."

1.5.46 God Demands Perfection, Not Turning From Sin (2020-07-21 11:00)

James 2:10, " For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all."

One of the most damnable heresies being taught in churches today is that a person must "repent of your sins," or "forsake your sins," or "turn from your sins," or "be willing to turn from your sins," to receive the free gift of eternal life from God. It's not what YOU DO that saves you, it's what JESUS DID! Jesus Christ died on the cross to pay your debt of sin (and mine). Romans 5:6, "For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

The only type of person that God saves is an UNGODLY PERSON! Matthew 9:12, "But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick."

God expects absolute perfection from you and me to get to Heaven. That is why God gave the Old Testament law, to show all humanity the IMPOSSIBILITY of perfectly keeping it. Romans 3:19-20, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

" God understands that NO ONE can perfectly obey His Commandments, so He sent His only begotten Son Jesus to pay for our sins on the cross. What an amazing, great and merciful God!

God couldn't merely pardon our sins just to be a nice guy. That would be evil, and God cannot do evil. When someone commits a crime, and the law looks the other way, that is another crime! That wouldn't be justice! A crime must be paid for. Christ paid our debt of sin, thankfully, so God the Father could JUSTIFY us (Acts 13:39), as if we had never sinned at all. Salvation is not a plea agreement, where you are still convicted but with a lesser charge. Nor is salvation an acquittal, where the charges are dropped for lack of evidence to convict. God has plenty of solid, irrefutable, concrete evidence to convict all of us to Hell forever! Salvation means to be declared JUSTIFIED by God, "JUST-IF-I'D" never sinned! But not only that, God places (credits) Christ's righteousness to your record by faith, as if you were as holy and perfect as Jesus Himself. Thank you Lord!!!

I used James 2:10 for our text passage, because it says breaking even one of God's Commandments makes us guilty of BREAKING ALL OF THEM! God is 100 % perfect, holy and immutable (he cannot change). God cannot do evil, neither can He be tempted with evil. James

1:13, "

Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:

" I love that about God! Aren't you glad that the Devil is not the supreme authority of the universe? I sure am! I am glad that the greatest being in the universe is not a malevolent monster! God is not a communist! God is not a pervert or homosexual. God is not a big coward. God is not a thief or a liar. We have a GOOD GOD!!! ...

Psalms 107:15, "Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!"

Psalms 136:1, " O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever."

Psalms 143:10, " Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God: thy spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness."

Psalms 145:9, " The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works. "

If you want to go to Heaven when this life ends, there are only TWO WAYS to do so. The first is to live a perfect, sinless life. You cannot have even one sin on your record in Heaven. Obviously, no human being other than Jesus Himself has ever achieved this. If you ever hear someone claim to be without sin, the Holy Bible says they are calling God "a liar" and the truth is not in them (1st John 1:8-10). God says in Romans 3:23a,

"For all have sinned..." The second way to get to Heaven is for someone to pay your debt of sin for you. It would have to be someone who is without sin, obviously. Only Jesus is sinless. Hebrews 4:15, " For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin." Jesus never sinned even one time, not in the slightest way. If He had, He couldn't have been our Savior!

If you understand the Bible truth I just shared with you, then 1st Corinthians 6:9-10 will make sense...

"Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God." Many people misunderstand this popular passage of Scripture, thinking it affirms the junk theology of Ray Comfort and John MacArthur, that you must "

turn from your sins

to be saved. They say if you are living a sordid lifestyle of fornication, drunkenness and sin, you are not really saved! That is simply not what the Bible teaches. Please don't miss verse 11,

“

BUT YE ARE WASHED

”! Jesus’ precious blood washes all our sins away (1st John 1:7).

We all deserve to go straight to Hell and burn forever, but God loves us enough that He made a way of escape! Jesus loves you so much dear friend, that He would rather die than live without you! That’s how much the Son of God loves you! Do you love Him? 1st John 3:16, “Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.” 1st John 4:19, “We love him, because he first loved us. ” The world hates Jesus, because He testifies against their sins (John 7:7). Therefore, the world hates Christians too (John 15:19).

So when you hear anyone foolishly preaching another gospel, saying: “You must repent (turn) from your sins” to be saved, they are lying! The world is filled with theological liars today in church pulpits everywhere! Anyone who tells you, that you must “REPENT OF YOUR

” to be saved is corrupt. You cannot show me those phrases in the inspired Word of God. Nowhere are we taught to “ turn away from our sins

to be saved.

Proponents of the Lordship Salvation heresy love to run to the story of Jonah and Nineveh. The Bible says Jonah 3:10, “ And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.” The Bible doesn’t say they got saved, it says they repented of their sins. Judas “repented Himself” of his sins in Matthew 27:3, even returning the 30 pieces of silver, but Judas still went to Hell. You don’t get saved by repenting, you get saved by believing the Gospel. The people at Nineveh listened to Jonah. I do think many of them got saved, but it wasn’t because they turned from their sins. The prophet Habakkuk in Habakkuk 2:4 says “t he just shall live by his faith.

It always irritates me that advocates of the Lordship Salvation heresy will cherry-pick passages of Scripture, while completely ignoring the entire Gospel of John, the Epistle of Galatians, Romans 4:1-6, and other very clear passages which emphasize salvation by faith alone. For example: In the Gospel of John the word believe

is mentioned 85 times, but there is no mention of the word

repent.

” That is simply because the man who believes has repented. We do find repentance (not the word) taught in John 3:21, “But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God. ” Repentance is a change of mind concerning THE TRUTH. Anyone who acknowledges THE TRUTH that you are a needy sinner, and believes THE TRUTH of the Gospel is saved. What saith the Scripture?

2nd Timothy 2:25, “ In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;”

If you want to go to Heaven, turning from your sins won’t do my friend, you must be 100 % PERFECT, WITHOUT SIN! Since you obviously cannot do that, and neither can anybody else in the world, you and I need a Savior! Jesus was born of a virgin. He lived a perfect sinless life. Jesus went to the cross and was beaten beyond recognition as a human being. Isaiah 52:14, “

As many were astonied at thee; his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men: ” The Devil finally had his chance, through inspiring an angry mob of soldiers under orders from Pilate, to go to town wailing on the Lord’s face, beating Him to a pulp. I have seen the 2004 movie, ’[1]The Passion Of Christ,’ by Mel Gibson, and I cried during the film. I don’t see how anyone who loves Jesus couldn’t cry, seeing the bloodied Lord beaten with whips, assaulted with solder’s fists, barely able to stand on His own two fist, spit upon, hit with a big stick, mocked and stripped naked, treated like an animal being slaughtered. Jesus was so weak that He collapsed beneath the cross He carried to Calvary (the hill where He was crucified) in Jerusalem. He did that for your dear reader! Jesus loves you, and so do I as His disciple!

Thankfully, Jesus lived a perfect life, and was accepted by the Father, being the spotless Lamb of God, the perfect sacrifice for our sins. Jesus paid it all! That is why I make such a big fuss over this Satanic heresy that you must “repent of your sin” to be saved. The Bible doesn’t teach that anywhere. I triple-dog dare you to show me where the Bible says we must “ repent of your sin

to be saved. It does not! What the Bible does teach is to “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved...

” (Acts 16:31b). Turning from your sins is religion, human reformation, not regeneration (the new birth). I hope you see this!

Dear friend, if you’ll simply place your trust (reliance) in what God has recorded about His only begotten Son in His Word, then you will be immediately and forever saved! The moment that you make the decision to trust Christ, God can read your mind, and He saves you. Christ took your sins upon Himself on the cross, paying the price of your sins with His shed blood. God offers to you His free gift of eternal life, which Jesus paid for. The moment you get saved, God not only washes all your sins away, but He takes Christ’s perfect righteousness and applies to you. 2nd Corinthians 5:21,

“For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. ” So if you are saved, God only sees CHRIST’S RIGHTEOUSNESS when He looks at you. When you sin, God only sees His redeemed child from now on! You may be a disobedient child (and we all are at times) who require discipline, but God is not an absent Father, He will chastise and scourge His children (Hebrews 12:6-8).

So forget about the idea of turning from sins to be saved, because IT IS IMPOSSIBLE. Even if you could turn from 99.99 % of your sins, you’d still go straight to Hell when you die, because of that .01 % of sin. That is what James 2:10 teaches! The ONLY way to become perfect in God’s sight is you need **“

(Matthew 6:33). You need [2]God’s imputed righteousness, which is through faith alone in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9).

Didn’t Dr. John R. Rice Teach The Need To Turn Away From Sin?

But wait, didn’t Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) teach that you must “ repent from sin with all your heart to be saved? [3]Yes he did! Yet, Dr. Rice clearly didn’t believe that a person must attempt to reduce their amount of sinning to be saved, as evidenced by this quote from him:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God "now commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith. [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: Evangelist John R. Rice, "Acts: Filled With The Spirit," pp. 251-252; Sword Of The Lord, Murfreesboro, Tennessee; ©1963

Clearly, John R. Rice believed that the way you "turn from sin" is by trusting Jesus Christ as your Savior. This is one step, not two, to be saved. That is NOT what the Lordship Salvation crowd are heretically preaching today. I keep hearing these false preachers teaching that you must turn away from your sins first, and then secondly believe the Gospel. That is a false gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works! You don't repent AND believe, as Dr. Tom Ferrell preaches, you repent TO believe as Dr. John R. Rice rightly taught.

Having said that, I do not like nor approve of Brother Rice's poor choice of words. No preacher should ever add to the Scriptures, to say something that God didn't say. Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible are we taught to repent "OF YOUR SIN" to receive God's free gift of eternal life. Proponents of this damnable heresy are often quick to false accuse the free grace crowd (e.g., myself, Dr. Jack Hyles, Dr. Curtis Hutson and Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold) of leaving off repentance. No, we have not left off repentance, we have not added something to the Bible which God did not say.

In 2014, I heard Pastor Marty Herron at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam errantly teach hundreds of people on a Sunday morning, and I quote: "It is not enough to admit you are a sinner to be saved, you must also turn away from a lifestyle of sinning." I knew right there and then that Pastor Herron is an infidel, not a born-again Christian, a false prophet! Herron has added works to grace, perverting the Gospel. Where did he get that garbage theology? Look no further than his mentors, [4]Dr. Steve Pettit and [5]Pastor John MacArthur.

So, even though I disagree with Dr. John R. Rice's poor choice of wording, he vindicates himself by plainly explaining what he means by "

turn from sin with all your heart

" to be saved. Dr. Rice plainly taught that the man who BELIEVES on Christ has turned from his sins. This is not what the Bob Jones crowd are preaching today! Dr. Rice rightly recognized repentance and faith as being two sides of the same coin. He didn't see them as separate actions, and that is critically important to understand, lest you corrupt the Word of God and cast stumbling blocks before the people.

If a man must commit to forsake his lifestyle of sinning as a requirement to be saved, then a payment has been demanded of him. This is a false plan of salvation. In God's true plan of redemption, a man ceases from ALL his works (good and bad alike, which the Bible calls "dead works" in Hebrews 6:1). One of my favorite Bible passages is Hebrews 4:10-11,

"For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

” If you want to go to Heaven, you simply need to CEASE from trusting in all your works (good and bad works alike) and REST in Jesus Christ.

Dear reader, eternal life is the free gift of God (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). You don’t earn or merit that gift. You don’t turn away from your sin to qualify for that gift. It is a gift! You don’t have to be willing to turn away from sin to get that gift. You simply need to acknowledge the truth that you are a guilty sinner in God’s sight (2nd Timothy 2:25; Romans 3:19-20), so you’ll see your need to believe the Gospel (the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen) to be saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Our part is simply to BELIEVE, God does the rest. That is the simplicity that is in Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

1.5.47 Great Is Thy Faithfulness (2020-07-21 22:30)

Lamentations 3:22-24, " It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness. The LORD is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him."

Our great God is faithful. 1st Corinthians 1:9, " God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord." The book of Lamentations (to lament) is about the aftermath of the destruction of the city of Jerusalem. God's people had sinned. Repeatedly the Lord promised the Jews that if they keep His statutes and obeyed His commandments, He would bless them (Exodus 19:5-6; Deuteronomy 28:1-14); but if they refused to keep His commandments, and instead followed after other gods, He would destroy them (Deuteronomy 28:15-68). The Israelites disobeyed!

The book of Lamentations was penned by the prophet Jeremiah. His contemporaries of the day were the prophets' Ezekiel, Daniel, Habakkuk, Obadiah and Zephaniah. God raised up the Babylon against Israel. During the Babylonian invasion, Daniel was taken into captivity with the rich, and Ezekiel taken captive with the middle-class, and Jeremiah was left with the poor in the rubble and aftermath of the smoldering remains of Jerusalem.

Jeremiah is often called "the weeping prophet." Lamentations 1:16, "

For these things I weep; mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed. " Jeremiah saw thousands of Jews dead. The women were ravished, tortured and killed. The men were tortured and slain. The fortunate Jews were taken into captivity. The city of Jerusalem was burned with fire. God's judgment finally came upon a wicked nation who snubbed their noses at God! In 586 BC Jerusalem fell to Babylon.

It is in this horrific setting that Jeremiah writes the book of Lamentations. We find something amazing in this Old Testament book. The English alphabet has 26 letters. The Hebrew alphabet only has 22 letters. In chapters 1, 2, 4 and 5 of Lamentations, we see that each of these chapters has 22 verses. This coincides with the Hebrew alphabet. But chapter 3 has 66 verses, or three times 22. It is in this third chapter that we find the greatest truth in the Bible—GOD IS FAITHFUL!!! Lamentations 3:22-23, "It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness."

1.5.48 Lay Hold On Eternal Life (2020-07-22 11:00)

1st Timothy 6:12, "Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses."

To "

simply means to make the best of it. Good night in the morning folks, if you are saved, you already possess eternal life. Could you imagine opening a Christmas present as a child, and it is exactly what you hoped all year to receive, and then you just ignore your new gift and allow it to collect dust? That is what most believers are doing with their new life in Jesus Christ!

I read a wonderful article today by Pastor Bob Gray Sr. called: " [1]Why You Should Be A Personal Soulwinner ."

"The soul-winning church is a happy church." —[2]Pastor Curtis Hutson

"It is the only happy life to live for the salvation of souls." –Pastor Dwight L. Moody

If you are not diligently trying to do your part to get people saved, you are not LAYING HOLD ON ETERNAL LIFE! [3]Every believer ought to be A VOICE for God. Soulwinning is not an option for mature saints, it is a royal command for every Christian.

Proverbs 11:30, "The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise."

Psalms 126:6, "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."

1st Corinthians 9:16, " For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!"

It is quite easy to adopt the attitude that soulwinning is only for full-time Christians workers, but soulwinning is every believer's responsibility. The world is going to Hell. What are we doing about it? If your neighbour's house caught fire in the wee hours of the morning, would you think it not your problem or concern? You would call 911 and then do anything in your power to warn your neighbour. Likewise, we need to warn people about the coming wrath of God against sinners in Hell forever. It is strictly a matter of faith in the Holy Bible.

I am disturbed at the increasing number of professed Christians who deny the existence of eternal damnation in a burning Hell. I thought it was odd that [4]76 % of Muslims believe in Hell, but only 70 % of all those who profess to be Christians believe in Hell. Go figure! Ladies and gentleman, Hell is a literal place that burns with fire, where all Christ-rejecters will suffer in torments for eternity. The same preceding poll shows that 81 % of Evangelical Christians believe in Hell. Still, I find it disturbing that 19 % of professed Evangelical Christians deny the reality of Hell. May I say, 100 % of Bible-believing Fundamentalist Christians believe in Hell, otherwise you are NOT a Fundamentalist!!!

God Uses Weakness

Perhaps you feel too shy, incompetent or weak to be a soulwinner. Dear friend, God uses weakness, so He'll get all the glory and not men. God avoids proud people, but gives grace to the humble (James 4:6). 2nd Corinthians 12:9, "

And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

" We don't hear hardly anything preached today about

THE POWER OF CHRIST.

" Christ's power is made perfect in OUR WEAKNESS! Dwight L. Moody said, "God had no children too weak, but a great many too strong to make use of.

" May I be weaker as each day passes, that I may be used of God to reach more lost souls for Jesus Christ!

1.5.49 Wars And Rumors Of Wars, Famines And Pestilences (2020-07-22 23:00)

Matthew 4:7, “

For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

Since there have been wars, famines, pestilences and the same evils mentioned in Matthew 24:7 for thousands of years, this is a bit perplexing for some readers.

Here is Pastor Ironside's intriguing Bible commentary for Matthew 24:4-8:

> Matthew 24:4-8. "And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places. All these are the beginning of sorrows."

The conditions depicted here have marked all the centuries since the Lord returned to heaven. They do not in themselves tell us of the nearness of His return, but they show us how badly this poor world needs a competent Ruler and how all creation groans as it waits for His advent.

"Take heed that no man deceive you." Satan works by imitation. He seeks to ensnare by counterfeiting everything that is of God. Hence the necessity to be on guard constantly against his deceptions. We need to test everything by the Holy Scriptures.

...Verse seven depicts a series of great wars in which many nations and kingdoms will be engaged. Such conflicts have been frequent during the past nineteen hundred years and have increased in intensity and frightfulness during the last century; so that the World Wars of 1914-1918 and 1939-1945 have been the worst mankind has ever known. As the aftermath of widespread warfare there invariably succeed famines and pestilences, To these plagues are added her earthquakes in many places which would seen to imply a great increase in natural convulsions as the end draws nigh.

Pastor Harry A. Ironside, Matthew, p. 314; ©

1948, Loizeaux Brothers, Inc.

I think Pastor Ironside did a great job explaining these Scripture verses. We've never seen war as we have in these modern times. Sadly, approximately 150,000,000 people (mostly civilians) have been killed due to war over the past 200 years. War is an ugly thing. Anybody would be horrified after learning about the atrocities of war, and God forbid, experiencing them firsthand. We live in a fallen world. I read somewhere that in all of history, only 8 % has been without war. But clearly over the past century we have seen warfare on an unprecedented new scale, and now the nations have nuclear missiles to launch at each other from across the planet! From all that history has taught us, it is just a matter of time until someone pushes the big red button!

And then when wars are over, there is much famine and pestilence. Look what the Coronavirus has done to America! A little virus that is so tiny that we need a microscope to see it, has put 35,000,000 Americans out of work! Unfortunately, 40 % of those unemployed Americans won't be getting their jobs back! If a tiny unseen enemy can do this to us, what can a visible enemy do? Russia and China would love to conquer the United States! Maybe God will let them in Revelation 18, which I think describes a nuclear attack, destroying the nation by fire in one hour. Look what this little tiny virus has done to cripple our nation's infrastructure! It wouldn't take much to totally cripple our nation, and then we would suffer famine and pestilence, as did China during the reign of terror of Mao (60,000,000 Chinese people starved to death). It can happen here! We take so much for granted. Yes we do!

And yet the Word of God teaches us not to worry, but to be of good cheer in Christ our Savior. John 16:33, “

These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

God will take care of His saints!

Luke 12:29, “

And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.

For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

” I do not worry about where this Coronavirus mess is headed. 1st Timothy 2:1-5 commands me as God’s child to pray to God for my government’s leaders, that I may live a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. In other words, God is in control! Men may think that they are in control, but God has the final say in everything! God answers prayer folks, don’t ever stop praying!!! 1st Thessalonians 5:17, “

Pray without ceasing.

It is interesting, in the front cover of my Bible commentary on the book of Matthew, by Dr. Ironside, someone wrote that it was a birthday gift to a friend. I love that, giving a Bible commentary as a birthday gift! That was in the year 1960 it says. Today, people give movie tickets and music CD’s! Our nation sure has changed for the worse! We’ve become a nation of Bible ignoramuses! No wonder the daily news is so horrific!

And finally, I also wanted to mention a commonly misinterpreted passage of Scripture from Matthew 24:13, which says: “he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.” That does not refer to salvation, which is made clear by Matthew 24:22, "And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect’s sake those days shall be shortened.”

God will cut the Tribulation period short, lest every human being (flesh) be destroyed, and there be no surviving saints to enter into the Millennial Kingdom of Jesus Christ our great King.

Matthew 24 and 25 go together, often referred to as: "The second Sermon On The Mount," because Jesus is speaking to His disciples while sitting upon the Mount of Olives.

1.5.50 We're A Nation Of Biblical Ignoramuses (2020-07-23 11:00)

Romans 10:13-17, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report? So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God."

Nearly everyone in America today is woefully ignorant of the inspired Word of God. Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988) rightly states:

> "We're a nation of Biblical ignoramuses! We do not know the Word of God today in this land" (Dr. J. Vernon McGee, [1]commentary from Hosea 4:1-2)

It is interesting in our text passage, that Romans 10:17 is associated with the Gospel. Romans 10:17, " So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God. " The saving faith that all men need to be saved, comes from hearing the preaching of the Gospel. Oh how we need soulwinners in this wicked and lost generation. We've seen massive angry riots breakout all across the United States in 2020, due to the senseless murder of George Floyd by a thug police officer. Despite the varying strong opinions between blacks, Hispanics and whites, as a born-again Christian I see a bunch of sinners who all need to hear the Gospel preached unto them. The apostle Paul emphasizes the truth in Galatians 3:2b that we are saved " BY THE HEARING OF FAITH.

We need Bible preaching, Bible teaching and Bible studies all across this land. Most of all, Bible preaching of the Gospel. Pastor Jack Hyles once said:

“

Preaching is truth set on fire!

[2]Here are some notable quotes on the Holy Bible.

This is one of my favorite quotes:

> “It is impossible to enslave mentally or socially a Bible-reading people. The principles of the Bible are the groundwork of human freedom.” —Horace Greeley (1811-1872)

What a relevant quote for America today in 2020!

We are being enslaved in America to the New World Order, because our nation is ignorant of God’s Word. A Christian who fears God, and understands the King James Bible, sees through the Devil’s plot and exposes it! The best way to reveal the darkness is to shine the light. A Bible-reading people cannot be enslaved, because THE TRUTH shall set you free (John 8:32-36).

> John 8:30-36, “
>
> As he spake these words, many believed on him.
>
> Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;
>
> And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free*.
>
> They answered him, We be Abraham’s seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?
>
> Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.
>
> And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.
>
> If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed*.”

I love that passage of Scripture. Many people choose to live in sin, and that love for sin prevents them from coming to Christ to be saved (John 3:20). Strangely enough, a person doesn’t have to forsake their sinful lifestyle to receive the free gift of God, but due to the holy nature of Jesus Christ, an unrepentant person won't want to step ten yards within the blessed Savior (John 7:7). Repentance is simply "

a change of mind,

where a person realizes they have sinned against a holy God, and recognizes their need as a sinner for redemption. Thus, they are saved simply by trusting Jesus as their Savior, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that He was buried, and three days later resurrected from the dead. This is 'The Gospel' (1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

> "God Himself became a Man, to give mankind a concrete, definite, tangible idea of what kind of Person to think of when we think of God. God is like Jesus. Jesus was God incarnate in human form. His appearance on earth is the Central Event of all history. The Old Testament sets the stage for it. The New Testament describes it. As a man, He lived the most strangely Beautiful Life ever known. He was the Kindest, Tenderest, Gentlest, most Patient, most Sympathetic man that ever lived. He Loved people. He hated to see people in trouble. He loved to Forgive. He loved to Help. He wrought marvelous miracles to feed hungry people. For relieving the suffering He forgot to take food for Himself. Multitudes, weary, pain-ridden, and heart-sick, came to Him, and found healing and relief. It is said of Him, and of no other, that if all the deeds of Kindness that He did were written, the world would not contain the books. That is the kind of man Jesus was. That is the kind of Person God is. Then: He Died, on the Cross, to take away the Sin of the world, to become the Redeemer and Saviour of man. Then: He Rose from the Dead: is Alive Now: not merely an historical character, but a Living Person: the Most Important Fact of History, and Most Vital Force in the world today." —Dr. Henry H. Halley (1874-1965)

Neo-evangelical churches nowadays are teaching psychology, giving motivational speeches , and using philosophy, but they are not preaching the inspired Word of God. Pastors are no longer preachers! It is tragic. Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) was absolutely right: "The great need of the hour is preaching preachers!" Brother Roloff said we need porcupine preachers, so that people will get the point! I couldn't agree more with this dear saint of God. We have a sin problem today in America like never before. The U.S. government has removed and banned the King James Bible from children's daily lives at school since 1963. The consequences have been devastating. Look at the mess our country is in today!

> "Behind every tragedy in human character is a slow process of wicked thinking." —Evangelist Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968)

I have been watching YouTube videos by [3]Sheriff Grady Judd in Polk County, Florida. I really like this Christian man, who has his head on straight. I am on the side of law enforcement. They aren't always right, but we ought to thank God for the police. God shows us in the Bible, prior to the flood, what the world would be like without cops and a court system. Thank God for the courts and the police! Only a fool wants to "defund" the police. No, we need to defund the Black Lives Matter communist movement. If black lives matter so much, why don't the protesters and rioters care about the millions of black babies being aborted?

At least 97 % of police are good people! Sheriff Grady Judd has been transparent, sharing the details of local crimes. I was horrified as I listened to the briefings from the Polk County Police Department. The number of felonies is shocking. One man who committed murder had 230 previous felony charges against him! Some people cry out for harsher prison sentences, bigger prisons, and less mercy. But what we need is to put the Holy Bible back into children's daily lives and take away that demonic garbage of evolution. Children aren't stupid. Do you know what teaching the lies of evolution tells a child? It says: "We hate God and want to hurt you, so we are taking God away from you, and are lying to you about life." If you don't believe that, listen to the daily news! Criminals don't care about anybody except themselves. It just shows how wicked the United States is today.

The Word of God is the only solution! Psalms 119:9, "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word." Psalms 119:11, "Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee." Romans 10:17, "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." There is nothing wrong with America today that couldn't be remedied by raising up a single generation of children who are taught the Holy Bible. Children need a moral compass! You're not going to brainwash a child for 40 hours a week in a public school with humanism, perversion, evolution and atheism, and then sensibly think that such a child will grow up undistributed. Proverbs 23:7, "For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee." Public schools are creating ticking time-bombs!

People live wrong because they think wrong! If we're going to get people to think right, it starts in the early developmental years of a child. The Devil knows that, which is why liberals, leftists and Marxists have been pushing for mandatory preschool. Satan has a bid for your child! Today's churches and Bible colleges have sadly become mere entertainment centers, but the Word of God is ignored. Most Bible colleges don't even have the Word of God anymore, they've replaced it with a cheap counterfeit like the [4]English Standard Version (ESV). We need to get back to the good old inspired King James Bible! I've been listening to Alexander Scourby read the Bible all week. I need God's Word, and so do you! If you want to clean up your life, then saturate your heart, mind and soul with God's Word!!! In this time of mass information, you have to choose to remain ignorant to stay ignorant of the truth.

1.5.51 The Body Is Dead Because Of Sin (2020-07-24 00:25)

Romans 8:10, "And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. "

I was pondering the meaning of this Bible verse tonight. What does it mean that THE BODY IS DEAD BECAUSE OF SIN? We know that everyone's body will eventually be dead, because everyone dies. Hebrews 9:27, " And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:" So we know we all must die. But what does Romans 8:10 mean that the believer's body is dead because of sin? I think it means exactly what the Bible says in Romans 6:23,

"For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. " The moment that we got saved, our true life began in the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is God living within our body and soul (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; 1st John 3:24). Effectively, our body died the moment we received Jesus Christ as our personal Savior, because our new life in the Spirit of Christ superseded that old life.

John 5:24, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life." This is an amazing truth in the Bible, that we are dead when we get saved.

Colossians 3:3-4, " For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory." Proponents of Lordship Salvation have it all backwards. They teach that you must surrender everything to be saved. The Bible teaches the very opposite, that when you get saved, God gives you all things (Romans 8:32). When the Bible says that the 'BODY IS DEAD BECAUSE OF SIN,' obviously your body is not literally dead. It means that our true life is now in Christ, alive in the Holy Spirit. That is our true life from now on!

Many religious people live a spiritual life, but they do not possess life in the Spirit. That is, they have never been born-again by the Holy Spirit. I seriously worry about the Bob Jones University crowd today, because they have changed their beliefs over the decades. They've gone from once believing Free Grace Theology while Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) was still alive, to somewhere along the way adopting Lordship Salvation instead. The really unsettling thing is that Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU since 2014) and their college's faculty are in theological denial, relentlessly attempting to preach Lordship Salvation in a wrapper of Free Grace Theology. It is horrifying and another gospel, which cannot produce the new birth! BJU today shamefully honors, promotes and sanctions Pastor John MacArthur's demonic ministry in California. So also does the apostate Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Truth matters!

As God's redeemed children, we still have the flesh, but we also have the Holy Spirit indwelling us, who is our true life. That is why the body is dead, because it is no longer our primary life's source. For the unsaved man, his earthly life is all he has! When his body perishes within 70 years or so, if not much sooner, his unregenerate spirit will descend into the fires and torments of an everlasting Hell (Psalms 9:17; Revelation 20:15). Colossians 3:3-4, " For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory." Please don't miss the verses that we just read, because they well explain the phrase:

THE BODY IS DEAD.

Carefully notice that our “LIFE” is hid with Christ in God. So the reason why we are dead, is simply because Christ has become our life. Look at verse 4, **“

CHRIST, WHO IS OUR LIFE. ” The very moment that I got saved at age 13, my identity became hidden in Christ. My identity wasn’t lost, it became one with the dear Savior. That is why the Lord said in Matthew 25:40b, “

Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

” Jesus is saying that we’re in thing thing called Christianity together. All for one, and one for all! I love that truth!

Our blessed Savior even went as far, as to set us on equal footing with His personal family. Matthew 12:48-49, “But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, *Behold my mother and my brethren!” Wow! That is so cool! All these deceived Roman Catholics, who are running around honoring and praying to Mary (Jesus’ earthly mother), don’t understand the Scriptures! Jesus said that each and every redeemed child of God IS HIS MOTHER! So Biblically I am just as special as Mary, and Mary no more special than me or any other believer!

The Holy Spirit is Jesus and God the Father dwelling in us. John 14:23, “

Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

” Eternal security is the Gospel! To have Jesus Christ is to have eternal life in you. 1st John 5:20,

And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

” Jesus is eternal life!!!

The body is dead because of sin, or said another way, because of our sin the body must eventually die. Effectively, the moment a believer is saved, their body became dead. God told Adam and Eve that if they sinned, by eating the forbidden fruit, they would die.

Genesis 2:17, " But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die." Adam and Eve did choose to sin, but their bodies didn't die. Was God mistaken? No, Adam and Eve did die, they died spiritually inside. Adam opened the floodgate of sin, misery and death upon the human race (Romans 5:12). Consequently, every human being since the Garden of Eden, has been born spiritually dead. This is why we all MUST be born-again (or born for the second time) in order to enter into the Kingdom of God (John 3:1-7).

The opposite happens when a person gets saved. The bodies of Adam and Eve didn't die the moment they sinned, their spirits did. When we get saved, our body doesn't come to life, our dead spirit does! In Adam all men became sinners (the fall of mankind), but in Jesus all men who desire it can be made the righteousness of God (justified by faith). Romans 5:19, " For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous. " This is why we are exhorted as believers to " Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life..." (1st Timothy 6:12a).

That means grab the horns! We've already got it, so we ought to make the best of it. God has purchased us a brand new pair of shoes (salvation), so we ought to wear them!

The Bible says that to be spiritually minded is LIFE and PEACE.

I don't know about you, but I like my peace of mind. To be carnally minded is DEATH. Death is a deadend. Carnally minded people have nowhere to go in their mind, which is why they are so miserable. They have no hope. They live only for this temporary life, totally oblivious to the next. The born-again Christian has the blessed hope of living forever. We don't hope, we have a hope! Titus 1:2, "In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

I love that... GOD CANNOT LIE!!! I have that blessed hope, do you friend? Jesus said that living in sin is a servant’s life, because death is inevitable, and with death a life of sin will end; but to believe on the Son of God makes us a son, who abides in the house forever Jesus said, because He is unto us eternal life (John 8:32-36).

Jesus Christ is our life as believers! What a precious truth. I don’t know about you, but that truth burns in my heart, making me rejoice! Galatians 2:20, “I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.” The reason why we are saved at all as Christians, is because Christ is our life. Jesus doesn’t just give us eternal life, JESUS IS OUR ETERNAL LIFE!!! The physical body is merely a temporal tabernacle (tent) to house our soul and spirit. When the body can no longer sustain our earthly life, we go to be with the Lord (2nd Corinthians 5:8).

Refuting The Heretical Bob Jones University Camp

The following wonderful passage of Scripture exposes the ungodly Harvest Baptist Church on Guam as a cult, and exposes Bob Jones University as a cult, and exposes Moody Bible Institute as a cult, who all teach the Devil’s counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation. Before I quote this passage, let me give you an example of what I’m talking about, so you’ll know I’m not just barking up an empty tree here. [1]Dr. Steve Pettit (the theologically incompetent new president of BJU since 2014) said this:

> “You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There’s ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don’t finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!” [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit (“[2]What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - 11:34)

Dr. Pettit woefully corrupts the gospel of free grace, by applying living the Christian life (the race as he calls it) to the gift of eternal life. He says if you don’t finish the race, you lose your soul and go to Hell. Dr. Pettit says more junk theology, like this statement:

> “For the real reality of the genuineness of your faith is that you are faithful to run the race!”
>
> [emphasis added]
>
> —Dr. Steve Pettit (“ [3]What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’? ” - 22:44)

> “God’s people HAVE TO continue in the faith! They MUST PERSEVERE, because perseverance is the testimony of the reality of your faith!” [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit (“[4]What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - 25:13)

The preceding statements by Steve Pettit are Satanic doctrines of devil, not sound Bible teaching. Living the Christian life is not proof that we are saved. The Bible doesn’t teach that we “ have to

or

“must persevere” in holiness to get to Heaven! These are the ungodly heretical teachings of Pastor John MacArthur, to whom Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, Marty Herron, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and the rest of the BJU spiritual chicken ranch bid Godspeed to. Without further ado, what saith the Scripture? ...

Romans 6:10-15, “

For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

Likewise reckon [think] ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Let not

[a choice, freewill]

sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey

[not must or will, but should] it in the lusts thereof.

Neither yield ye

[a choice, freewill]

your members

[your body]

as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

What then? shall we sin

[a choice, freewill]

, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey [a choice, freewill], his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

Boy, I sure love these simple verses! There are two keys of law and grace. Dear friend, before you and I were saved, we were shut up by the key of God’s law, trapped under condemnation in the prisonhouse of sin. But grace is the precious key that unlocked the law’s door, and set us free from bondage, through faith alone in the precious Savior! Hallelujah! In Romans 6:14-15 we see the beautiful doctrine of eternal security. Sin shall not have dominion over any believer! It just ain’t gonna happen friend!!! You can choose to sin morning, noon and night, but sin will never have dominion over you again, because we as believers are forever under God's saving grace. It is possible for a believer to choose to be the servant of sin, but it is not God's will for anyone. It is important to understand that the Christian believer has eternal life dwelling in them, which is Christ, and nothing can ever jeopardize that...

> Romans 5:20-21, "
>
> Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:
>
> That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

When someone like Dr. Steve Pettit and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam come along preaching that you MUST persevere in holiness and Christian service, or else you're not really saved, they are preaching another gospel. Harvest broadcasts all of Steve Pettit's chapel sermons from Bob Jones University on the island of Guam, poisoning the Micronesian islands with their demonic heresy. I preach THE TRUTH because I care about people!!! You get saved by getting out of the way, ceasing from your own self-righteous efforts, and simply resting in what Jesus did on the cross to pay for your sins (Hebrews 4:10-11). It's not what you did, it's what Jesus did! God doesn't save anyone who is trying to be saved, He only saves those who are trusting to be saved.

Please beware of these ungodly ecumenicals and the Lordship Salvation garbage theology, who talk of faith and grace, while telling you that you must persevere to run the race if you want to make it to Heaven someday! Run from those devils!!! I love you enough to tell you the truth, and unlike Steve Pettit who gets paid a 6-digit salary each year, I've never made a single penny since I began preaching online in 2002. To God alone be the glory, great things He hath done (and is doing. Praise God!

1.5.52 SDA's Works-Based Assurance Of Salvation (2020-07-24 10:30)

Galatians 1:6-9, " I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. ”

It is extremely difficult for most newer Christians to discern the doctrines of devils in the Seventh Day Adventist cult. It is impossible for unbelievers to detect them, which is why many unbelievers convert to SDA, as did the famous radio broadcaster Paul Harvey (1918-2009). This is sad and tragic, for Paul Harvey did not go to Heaven if he was a sincere follower of SDA (as it appears he certainly was). One of the simplest ways to expose SDA is to focus on their teaching and understanding of salvation itself.

The Bible teaches that salvation is a new BIRTH, which happens instantly and is irreversible. The very moment that an admitted sinner trusts upon the Lord Jesus Christ, receiving His death, burial and resurrection as payment for sins, he is saved instantly, completely and eternally. Assurance of salvation is based upon the promises of God (and not upon human effort nor performance). I KNOW I am saved because God PROMISED to save anyone who believes (trusts) upon the name of the Lord Jesus Christ (John 20:31; Acts 10:43; 1st John 5:13).

In sharp contrast, the SDA teaching of salvation is very different, where being born-again is the beginning of a PROCESS. According to the official doctrinal statement of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists...

> "Abiding in Him we become partakers of the divine nature and have the assurance of salvation now and in the judgment. (2 Cor. 5:17-21; John 3:16; Gal. 1:4; 4:4-7; Titus 3:3-7; John 16:8; Gal. 3:13, 14; 1 Peter 2:21, 22; Rom. 10:17; Luke 17:5; Mark 9:23, 24; Eph. 2:5-10; Rom. 3:21-26; Col. 1:13, 14; Rom. 8:14-17; Gal. 3:26; John 3:3-8; 1 Peter 1:23; Rom. 12:2; Heb. 8:7-12; Eze. 36:25-27; 2 Peter 1:3, 4; Rom. 8:1-4; 5:6-10.)"

Clearly, SDA's teach that to have assurance of one's salvation, he or she must abide in Christ. No where in the Scriptures are we required to continue abiding in Christ in order to have the assurance of God's salvation. David repeatedly calls eternal life "THY" salvation, because God does the saving, not man. Our part is only to believe upon (trust upon) Jesus as the Christ Who died for our sins, was buried and arose three days later. That is the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Notice again the damnable heresy of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists...

> "The completion of this ministry of Christ will mark the close of human probation before the Second Advent. (Heb. 8:1-5; 4:14-16; 9:11-28; 10:19-22; 1:3; 2:16, 17; Dan. 7:9-27; 8:13, 14; 9:24-27; Num. 14:34; Eze. 4:6; Lev. 16; Rev. 14:6, 7; 20:12; 14:12; 22:12.)"

"The close of human probation?" This is solid evidence against the demonic cult of Seventh-day Adventism, who teach that salvation is never complete nor secured in this lifetime. There is no true assurance of salvation in SDA, because they view salvation as a process that can be lost if a person does not continue to abide in Christ.

SDA's teach that all believers are on "probation" after being born-again, and the life they live will determine whether or not Christ finds them worthy of salvation. SDA is a totally 100 % works-based false religion that wraps itself deceitfully in a fraudulent shell of claiming salvation by grace through faith. SDA is empty words without conviction. Their concealed core doctrines don't support their lofty public rhetoric. SDA are liars and deceivers, children of the Devil.

The truth is that once a person becomes a born-again child of God, the Holy Spirit comes in to indwell that believer, never to depart, and the Holy Spirit seals that believer for ever (2nd Corinthians 1:22; Ephesians 1:13; Ephesians 4:30). The Holy Spirit is our seal, God's downpayment on that which He has redeemed with the precious blood of Jesus Christ. Amen! My sins were washed away by the blood of Jesus the day I was saved over 30-years ago. I was saved on the spot, irrevocably, irrefutably and irreversibly! Hallelujah!

The important thing to remember, that makes it easy to expose SDA or any other religious cult of Satan, is that salvation is a new birth, a second birth, a spiritual birth! Ye must be born again (John 3:7). The second birth is as irreversible as the first, physical, fleshly birth, when you were born into this world. Every false religion perverts the Gospel and turns salvation into a PROCESS instead of an instantaneous BIRTH. Eternal life is the gift of God (Romans 5:15; 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). You receive eternal life to have it; you don't earn it to get it.

Eternal life is not a reward for good behaviour as SDA's teach. NO ONE is worthy of salvation. Salvation is receiving, not giving. Remember that eternal life is a free gift. All you do to have a gift is receive it. If you believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God Who died, was buried and rose again for your sins, and you make that you're hope for Heaven, then you're saved. Christ died, that's history; Christ died for me, that's salvation!

Seventh-day Adventism is easy to pick apart if you focus on their bizarre and exclusive false doctrine of "Investigative Judgment." Back in the 19th century, a wayward minister named William Miller crunched some numbers and prophesied that the Lord would return in 1844. Over 10,000 Millerites (as they were called) quit their jobs and sold all their worldly possessions, including their homes. When Jesus didn't return, there was panic. Something had to be done quick. So someone came up with the notion that Miller had misinterpreted the prophecy, and that in actuality Christ had entered into the Holy of Holies in Heaven to begin His work of "Investigative Judgment."

SDA’s teach that every believer (those who they falsely profess to be saved by grace through faith in Jesus Christ) are on PROBATION, because Christ is now fulfilling His work of doing an “investigation” of all believers. Here once again is the official dogma of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists...

> "The investigative judgment reveals to heavenly intelligences who among the dead are asleep in Christ and therefore, in Him, are deemed worthy to have part in the first resurrection. It also makes manifest who among the living are abiding in Christ, keeping the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus, and in Him, therefore, are ready for translation into His everlasting kingdom."

Here you can plainly see that Adventists do indeed teach a works-based false plan of salvation. In order to be deemed “worthy” to partake in the first resurrection (Revelation 20:6), a believer is required to abide in Christ, keep God’s Commandments and maintain faith in Jesus. That’s not the Biblical Gospel. Keeping God’s Commandments is not part of the Gospel. The faith that bringeth salvation does not have to be maintained to keep salvation.

The purpose of the Law is to show us our sinfulness, that all the world may become guilty before God (Romans 3:19). The Law shows us the awfulness of our sins, our misery and inability to please God in our own self-righteousness, and points us to the wonderful Savior on Calvary’s tree (Galatians 3:24-25). No one is worthy of salvation.

Revelation 5:4 and 9, “And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon. … And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation."

Amen! no man is worthy, but the Lamb of God is worthy. Jesus Christ is worthy!!!

Those people who are genuinely saved (born again) will die IN THE LORD. Revelation 14:13, "And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them." Notice that a believer's works "FOLLOW," they do not precede. We are not saved by self-righteous works.

Our works follow us to the Judgment Seat of Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11). The Lord saves us by grace through faith. Salvation is instant, and we are born anew of the Spirit of Christ (Romans 8:9). We become a member of God's family—the kingdom of God—the moment we are saved. We are spiritually the children of Abraham, with God being our same heavenly Father (Galatians 3:26-29).

SDA's will be judged at The Great White Throne Of Judgment (Revelation 20:11-15, where Jesus will "profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity" (Matthew 7:23).

Matthew 7:21-23, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

And here is the will of the Father according to the Lord Jesus Himself:

John 6:40, “And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.”

The will of the Father is to believe on Christ, the Lamb of God. Notice that the Bible does not say to keep all God’s Commandments and to abide in Christ throughout your life to be saved as SDA’s foolishly teach. Adventists are unsaved heretics, on their way to the Lake of Fire. There’s only one way, and that way is Jesus Christ.

Catholics say they love Jesus, while bowing to Mary and echoing vain repetitions to “Mary, Mary, Mary.” They are in utter demonic denial of their sad and lost sinful state. Likewise, Seventh-day Adventists claim to trust upon the Lord Jesus, while also adding water baptism, keeping the Sabbath Day, tithing and all the Commandments of God to their so-called “faith.” Faith in what? Seventh-day Adventism? That’s exactly where SDA’s have placed their faith... in a manmade religion that is going to take them all to the fires of Hell.

I say this kindly, but with a fervent desire that some Adventists will read this article and repent toward God, believing the Gospel to be saved.

1.5.53 How To Clean Up Your Life Of Sin (2020-07-24 14:06)

Psalms 119:9, “ Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word.”

There is an amazing truth in our text Bible passage. I looked up the meaning of the words “by taking heed.” It is the Hebrew word shamar, which means: “a primitive root; properly to hedge about (as with thorns), that is, guard; generally to protect, attend to.” Ecclesiastes 5:8, “If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.” That word “

is the same exact Hebrew word shamar . It means that the Bible gives us protection! Throughout history men have built fortresses around their homes and cities for protection. In every major city in America you’ll find all sorts of iron gates and chain link fences with sharp objects or barbed-wire on top to discourage theft and bodily harm to residents. In ancient times kings would build motes around their castle, and fill the water with alligators to deter invaders. Psalms 119:9 is teaching us that the way a young person cleanses his or her life of sin (the enemy invader), is to fortify your soul with the inspired Word of God.

Ecclesiastes 5:8 is teaching us that God is our guardian. Every sensible and informed American knows that 911 was an INSIDE JOB! Bombs brought those building down, not planes. All three World Trade Center buildings were brought down by controlled demolition, which requires months to prepare. The U.S. Justice Department is complicit to the crimes, controlled by the same evildoers who masterminded and orchestrated 911 attacks. Freemasons rule over America, whose god is Lucifer. It does not come as a surprise to Bible-reading Christians, for 2nd Corinthians 4:4 tells us this truth. The culprits behind 911 got away with it for now. They are above man’s laws. Ah, but they cannot escape God’s judgment. That is what Ecclesiastes 5:8 says. We ought not worry, because justice will be met! God has so promised in His Word. God is the Guardian of the universe and nothing happens without His permission, knowledge and concern. God does care very much about every living soul (1st Peter 5:7-9).

I receive many emails from people at my website ministry ([1]Jesus-is-Savior.com), especially from men, who struggle with sin and confide in me that they cannot help themselves from sinning. I will not repeat some of the horrible and disgusting things that people have shared with me. I always respect people’s confidentiality. That is important for any preacher, so people will trust me with their problems and personal information. I do not give counsel, but I do share Biblical principles with people to help guide them. There is no such thing as a person who cannot help but sin. Sin is a choice! We make decisions based upon our thoughts. Our mind is like a computer in many ways. We cannot help what type of thoughts enter into our mind, but we can control what we see and hear, to a great extent. Jesus said: “If ye love me, keep my commandments” (John 14:15). It is possible to love Jesus, but place one’s love of the flesh as a higher priority than your love for God. That is why many Christians are locked up in prison, because they loved their sin more than Jesus! I don't care how you look at life, everything boils down to how much you love your God and Savior.

We have a sin problem in our country! I was shocked listening to the honorable Sheriff Grady Judd, talk about what is going on in Polk County, Florida:

[6]https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4Z0Z4fzvKC8

[7]https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZbTOm0izfDw

I had to go take a walk after hearing some of that disturbing stuff! Dear friend, anybody is capable of anything under the right circumstances! Pastor Jack Hyles said that, and I agree 100 %. In the human trafficking sting videos I have provided links to above, you'll hear of pastors and police officers (last video) being busted. These are consequences of our promiscuous American media, sleazy Hollywood and degenerate lewd culture. People are sinners and we all need the Gospel and hard-preaching from the Holy Bible!

How To Overcome Sin In One's Life

In this area of sinning, the Bible makes two things abundantly clear:

FIRST, YOU MUST BE SAVED - The first thing is that until you get saved, you will never have the power to overcome sin in your life. Galatians 2:20, " I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me." If you don't have Christ, then He cannot live in you!

Romans 8:8-9, "So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his." The Holy Spirit comes inside to live (indwell) every believer at the time of salvation, and stays with that Christian forever (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Hebrews 13:5). John 14:23, "

Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

" Isn't that beautiful? The Father and the Son live inside every Christian saint in the form of God the Spirit. The Holy Spirit is literally GOD IN US!

SECOND, YOU MUST ABIDE IN THE WORD OF GOD - The second thing you must have to overcome sin in your life, is to absolutely saturate your mind, soul and heart with the inspired Word of God, night and day. When a man writes a book, it is just a book. But the everlasting words of the Holy Bible are verbally inspired by

Almighty God (Hebrews 4:12)

. Only the King James Bible is verbally-inspired by God. When God authors a Book—it is very special, verbally-inspired, absolutely powerful, eternally preserved, infallibly incorruptible!!! Thank God for the inspired King James Bible!!! And please avoid these modern Devil's Bibles! It is tragic that most churchgoers are embracing the Devil's corrupt Bibles. In so doing they are condemning future generations to many evils. Having hundreds of English Bibles to choose from is confusing, diminishes the authority of God's Word, and it discourages young people from memorizing the Scriptures. Why memorize them at all, since they'll just change again next year? The Southern Baptist Convention is now on their THIRD Bible in 20 years!!!

Make Sure You Are Saved

The following Scripture is one of the most misinterpreted and abused passages in the Bible. 2nd Corinthians 5:17, " Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." In have listened to several dozen '[8]UNSHACKLED' episodes by the Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago. My father was a Skid Row preacher, who used to preach each week at the PGM mission on State Street. There was a tavern next door to the Mission, and I kid you not, the bar's address was 666 South State Street!!! The name of the bar was "T he 666 Lounge.

" Truth is stranger than fiction!!! PGM teaches the heresy of Lordship Salvation, merging sanctification with justification, which is a false gospel. Evangelist John Bunyan gets it right:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

When a person gets saved, they are a new creature. The Holy Spirit of God has come inside us to live (1st John 3:24). We are now spiritually alive in the Holy Spirit, awake for the first time, and able to understand spiritual things (1st Corinthians 2:14-16). But we are the same person. Nothing in our personal character has changed. Our sinful habits are still the same. The difference is that now we have the Holy Spirit living inside our body and soul, and He (God) will convict us about the sins in our life.

When I got saved I was 13 years old. I had horribly sassed my mother as a boy before that. When I got saved the Holy Spirit started to convict me. I could hear that still small voice in my soul saying: “David, I don’t want you talking to your mother like that anymore.” So I started improving, not to be saved, but because I was saved. Getting saved meant automatically receiving God’s blessed Holy Spirit in me (1st Corinthians 3:16-17). If you can sin without being convicted by the Holy Spirit, then you are not saved (Hebrews 12:6-8). You cannot sin and go without discipline from your heavenly Father. God is not an absent parent!

As God’s child I still sin, but I always feel convicted about it. Prior to being saved at age 13, there is only a blank in my mind concerning God. When someone tells me that they cannot stop sinning, the first thing I suggest is to make sure they’re really saved. Many religious people have been deceived by Ray Comfort, Steve Pettit and John MacArthur. They are religious but lost, and cannot overcome the sins in their life. Only by the power of Jesus Christ can anyone overcome sin in their life. 2nd Corinthians 13:4, “ For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you. ” Philippians 4:13, “ I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.” You and I CAN live right in 2020, through the power of Jesus Christ!!!

Evangelist Billy Sunday (1862-1935) was gloriously saved at Pacific Garden Mission. I think it is tragic that the city of Chicago refused to grant landmark status protection to the great PGM historical building on state street. What a rich heritage and a great legacy for Chicago!

The mission used to be located in downtown Chicago on State Street. Unfortunately, the city of Chicago wanted the land and the mission was forced to relocate. It’s a shame that the city of Chicago granted to homosexual Henry Gerber’s home, but then denied such status to the Pacific Garden Mission (which has helped millions of needy Chicagoans over the past century).

landmark status

Howbeit, the mighty works which have been done in Jesus’ name over the last century are a testimony to the grace of God and the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Sadly, PGM has changed and succumbed to another gospel of Lordship Salvation in recent decades. It is tragic!

Surely God’s hand of blessing is not upon the city of Chicago today, because of their mis-treatment of God’s children (Matthew 24:40). Thank God that our anchor holds! God never changes (Malachi 3:6). Our Savior never changes (Hebrews 13:8). The Word of God never changes (Psalms 119:89). But men change, which is why we have to

” earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints

” (Jude 1:3).

It is true that a man becomes a new creature when he gets saved. But this doesn’t mean that he instantaneously doesn’t desire to live in sin anymore. That is the heresy of Lordship Salvation! Being a “new creature” simply means that our spirit which was dead in trespasses and sin (Ephesians 2:2-2) is now made alive in the Holy Spirit of God. We are now born-again, that is, born anew from above by a supernatural miracle of God in response to our faith in Jesus Christ. [9]If you aren’t sure you are saved, please get saved now. Simply come to God as a needy sinner (Romans 3:10-23).

Know that you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20), and that you need a Savior (John 3:16-18).

Know that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God (John 20:31). Know that Christ died on the cross to pay for your sins, was buried, and three days later He physically resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Simply trust that Good News (Gospel) and you are immediately, securely and forever saved!

Saturate Your Mind With The King James Bible

If you want to get the victory over sin in your life, then get into the inspired King James Bible. Listen to it. Read it. Study it. Love it. Talk about it. 1st Timothy 4:13-15, “Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.” I encourage people to start memorizing passages of Scripture. Psalms 119:11, “ Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.” THE BIBLE! THE BIBLE! THE BIBLE! The answer is THE BIBLE!!!

Any Christian can live right if they choose to!

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) rightly said: “Behind every tragedy in human character is a slow process of wicked thinking.” So nip any wrong thinking in the bud while it is small!

The Apostle Paul teaches us how in 2nd Corinthians 10:5-6, “

Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

When an impure thought enters into a man’s mind, we need to cast down that thought with the Word of God. I cannot encourage you enough to MEMORIZE these two Bible verses! Verse 6 says when we do mess up, and sin, we need to take revenge against all disobedience. We ought to be angry at our self when we fail to live right, and declare: “By God’s grace, I will never do that stupid thing again!” Proverbs 24:16, “For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.”

If you’ll read Matthew 4:1-10, all three times when the Devil tempted Jesus, the Lord quoted the Scriptures to resist the Devil. That speaks volumes! If our own Savior and Master needed the Bible to overcome temptation, THEN SO DO WE!!! We cannot defeat the Devil, we are not strong enough, we CAN only resist him until he goes away. Here is a helpful passage of Scripture:

James 4:6-12,

Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you*.

Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

The Bible is telling us to get serious about our walk with God. Turn off the TV. Put on Alexander Scourby reading the King James Bible. [10]I’m listening to the Epistle of 1st Corinthians today, right now. The Bible cleans us up! Even if you don’t feel like you’re benefiting your time in the Bible, you are! I am reminded of an illustration. A wise father wanted to teach his son a great truth. So he took a muddy bucket and put a hole in the bottom. He asked his son to go down to the river and fill the bucket with water and bring it back. The boy did, but by the time he returned the water had all leaked out.

The father asked his son to do this three times. After the third time the boy said: “Papa, this is a waste of time, there’s a hole in the bucket, and the water keeps leaking out.” The wise father replied: “Yes son, the bucket is empty, but look how clean it is!” I’m sure somebody made this story up, I truly don’t know, but it is a good illustration of reading the Bible. You may not remember what you read, and you may feel that it is not benefiting you, but I promise you it is! How do I know that? Because we are taught so in the Bible. Romans 10:17, “So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.” John 17:17, “ Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

When I keep getting emails from the same person, about their impossible struggle with sin, I ask them which parts of the Bible they read today. Almost always they make excuses and haven’t listened to the Bible in ages. Folks, you are going to spiritually starve to death if you don’t nourish on the milk and meat of the Word. 1st Peter 2:2, “As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious.” We’ve got a bunch of spiritual dwarfs in our churches today, who have stunted growth, still being blown about by every wind of doctrine. You’ve got to get into the Holy Bible.

There are millions of old-time Christians who know the Bible very well, but their walk with God is woefully lacking. If you are in a Neo-evangelical church (aka, the Bob Jones University crowd), I feel sorry for you. I saw that at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014, during the year that I attended. Parents were surfing the internet during Pastor Marty Herron’s sermons. Kids were playing video games during his sermons. Sin was never preached against. Christ's Second Coming wasn't mentioned once the whole year. I never heard him preach once about Hell or coming judgment from God. He spent the whole year in Genesis, expositorily boring the congregation. I did learn many things, and I love Pastor Herron, but he is no preacher! America's pulpits are weak!!! Churches like Harvest have lost their authority, because they've adopted dozens of modern corrupt and weak Bible revisions.

We read about preachers quitting the ministry, pastor's wives committing adultery, pastors being arrested for soliciting prostitutes, pastor's children texting shocking messages about rape and sodomy, deacons guilty of murder, pastors stealing money from their congregation, and worse! We are all sinners! It is just a matter of which sins, and how far in sin we choose to travel. 1st Timothy 5:24,

Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

" Dear reader, sin will always cost you more than you wanted to pay, take you farther than you planned to go, and keep you longer than you intended to stay. Don't let those pet sins grow into monsters! The answer is THE BIBLE. Therefore, please don't let Satan deceive you into trading in your double-edged Sword of the King James Bible, for a pocketknife of the [11]English Standard Version (ESV) or other garbage translations!!!

And I don't mean randomly opening the Bible to whatever passage you pick by the Eeny, meeny, miny, moe method. It is okay to randomly read or listen to the Scriptures, but I recommend [12]starting in Genesis and listening all the way through at least once a year. You can hear Alexander Scourby read the entire Bible in just 75 hours! I think that is amazing. If you want to clean up your life of sin, then abide in the holy Word of God. Sin will either keep you from the Bible, or the Bible will keep you from sin. A Bible that's falling apart usually belongs to someone who isn't. That is a great statement, made by Pastor Charles Spurgeon.

I don't know about you, but I've never wanted to be closer to God than I am right now. Like a starving man, I run to the Bible for spiritual food! But I know that evil is always with me. No matter how close I get to God, sin is always with me (Romans 7:14-25). I have to be on guard ALL THE TIME against sin creeping into my life. And so do you friend! Proverbs 4:23,

Keep thy heart with all diligence*; for out of it are the issues of life.

" We all have to be on guard. The flesh is our enemy! It is as simple as this friend—if your walk is wrong, it is only because your mind and heart are wrong! Many Christians know the Bible inside and out, even theologians, but their heart is wrong toward God. All the Bible college in the world won't make you a faithful Christian. How much do you love Jesus?

Some people have to learn the hard way! I think I can safely say this includes everyone. Sometimes a child has to touch a hot stove when a parent's back is turned, to learn the dangers of playing with fire! Sometimes people have to get burned by sin, before they realize the dangers of sin. It feels good to live right. It feels good knowing that God is pleasing with me. It feels good to know that I don't have anything to worry about. I don't have to look over my shoulder. I don't have to hide anything. That is the way God wants us to live, as bold as a lion. Proverbs 28:1, " The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion." The Bible is choked full of helpful Scriptures to help us live right, but you have to CARE enough to want them, like anything else in life. Romans 12:2, "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." The Word of God will sanctify and transform you oh saint, if you truly want it!

I encourage you to [13]listen to lots of Bible-preaching. Please DON'T listen to Neo-evangelical false teachers like: Paul Washer, Chip Ingram, John MacArthur, John Piper, R.C. Sproul, Adrian Rogers, Sam Horn, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, Ray Comfort, Ken Ham, Henry Morris III, Stephen Davey, Franklin Graham, Moody Bible Institute, Bob Jones University, et cetera. These men are ALL wrong on the Gospel of free grace! You won't find a perfect Bible preacher, but at least you can find one who cares about THE TRUTH (like me, humble said)! To God be the glory! Anyone can walk in the Spirit if they want to, God will help you.

In closing, the key to living for the Lord is a heart of gratitude toward the Lord Jesus Christ. 1st Thessalonians 5:18,

" In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. " Do you realize what God has done for you dear saint? You are no longer on your way to Hell. Jesus paid your debt of sin in full. Your name is written in Heaven in the Lamb's Book of Life. You are now a bonafide child of God! All of your sins have been forgiven and washed away, erased. Micah 7:19, "He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea." Gone, gone, gone, gone Yes my sins are gone; now my soul is free; and in my heart's a song; buried in the deepest sea! I don't know about you, but my dear Savior deserves so much better than what I give Him. Jesus is precious!!!

1.5.54 Filthy Communications Corrupt Good Manners (2020-07-24 18:39)

1st Corinthians 15:33, "Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners."

You need to go watch Sheriff Grady Judd testify about the arrests in Polk County Florida. These arrests reveal the tip of the iceberg of the depths of Satan in our society today. ...

- [1]https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8w7H3It1X3A
- [2]https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=civEJZWM14o
- [3]https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=c489KwKjbnE

- [6]https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4Z0Z4fzvKC8

I am thankful for tough cops like Sheriff Grady. If they did stings all the time, the problem would virtually disappear overnight. But they only do stings a week or two each year. I think it is wrong that only men get punished, I think both sides should be prosecuted. Just because women are poor, or were abused as children, doesn't give them a right to break the law. I'm sure the men have all kinds of lame excuses too. NO ONE should be above the law! The prostitute is just as much a sinner and a criminal as the whoremonger (Hebrews 13:4; Colossians 3:4-5).

But the much bigger problem is that our nation has forsaken the God of the Bible. The Word of God is the answer. Men can have clean minds and live right in 2020. I receive many emails from people (mostly men) who say they cannot cease from sinning. The truth is we are all struggling to live right. The Apostle Paul struggled with sin (Romans 7:14-25). The problem is that, first, many people are not saved. Until a person gets saved, the Holy Spirit cannot live through them (Galatians 2:20; 5:22-25). In fact, I have witnessed to men who refused to get saved for that very reason, because they loved their sinning and didn't want the Holy Spirit in them (John 3:20). Woe unto the wicked!

For the Christian believer, we need to cultivate a hatred for sin (Psalms 97:10). Television robs us of hatred for sin. Every time a person sins, they undermine their character, and sin becomes a little less offensive (Hebrews 3:13). In time, instead of hating sin, they embrace sin (Galatians 5:9). That is the true purpose of the LGBTQ agenda—to desensitize society to the awfulness of sin. Once a society has accepted homosexuality, pedophilia can only be next on the horizon. The video links I shared with you are not the cause, but merely the symptoms of a very morally sick society in America. We live in a wicked culture in the U.S., where millions of people no longer regard neither God nor man. Psalms 36:1,

The transgression of the wicked* saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

" The psalmist, David, said that he knew by the horrible sins people commit, that they did not fear God. We need preaching preachers in this dark hour!

It is human nature to have heroes and mentors. The Devil knows this. Proverbs 13:20, "He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed." Nothing is as destructive on teenagers today as the Satanic music videos on social media. According to[7] information from Stanford University, music videos are most popular with younger teens, whereas the music itself is more popular with older teens. It is tragic that our youth are being given immoral role models for their heroes nowadays. The Devil's crowd are [8]intentionally trying to corrupt our youth. If you don't think that Satanists are out to get your child, you are naive. The following information proves what I say.

Hollywood, the music industry and the media have done their damage, taking our youth low morally. Singer Taylor Swift just came out with her latest album, “Folklore.” It was shocking enough when [9]I saw her simulating sticking a male phallus in herself in her video, “

Wildest Dreams,

which is public on YouTube. [10] Now she sings

go fu _k myself

[11] in her new song,

“b etty.

” It is so obvious that Satanists are grooming her and helping to produce her videos. The music and singing are beautiful, which masks the vulgarity of the words. What the Devil wants is for everyone to talk this way. He wants millions of youth to go around dropping the “

F bomb.

” And I assure you that they will. Taylor Swift—w hat a potty-mouth!

Consequently, you can expect to hear young people cursing more and more. Remember, the coming Antichrist is called: “THE MAN OF SIN”!!! (2nd Thessalonians 2:3b). The Devil is preparing young people to receive the Man of Sin, by leading them into sin. That is the reason for the immoral LGBTQ agenda. That is the purpose of teaching impressionable children the blatant lies of evolution. It was Russian communist dictator Vladimir Lenin (1870-1924) who truthfully said: “The best revolutionary is a youth devoid of morals.” Look at all the young people rioting across the United States! Isaiah 3:12, “ As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.” What a mess we’re in today, because people refuse to allow God’s Word to govern them. Instead, we will be ruled over by tyrants!

The Bible says 1st Corinthians 15:33, “Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.” We’ve already got a perverse society where sodomites can get married, and God forbid, adopt children. In my humble opinion, that is child abuse! Every child deserves to have a mother and father, not two dudes sodomizing each other in the home. You can call that “

1888

” if you want to, but the Bible calls it sin (Romans 1:24-32; Leviticus 20:13). I am not promoting hatred, God forbid; I am simply upholding the Bible truth that homosexuality is immorality, it is sin. It is unnatural. I have heard preachers say that, even animals don’t behave like homosexuals, but actually they do. I used to have two female dogs that did things to each other, in the absence of a male, when they were in heat. So animals do behave THAT WAY sometimes! Jude 1:10,

“

But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

” Literally, homosexuals are behaving like animals.

I shared those police sting videos with you from Sheriff Grady Judd, but they represent the ultimate hypocrisy in our nation. We are okay as a society with Taylor Swift simulating sticking objects in her private area, in music videos targeting 13 year olds, but shame on those pedophiles. Taylor Swift is a pedophile as far as I am concerned! Pardon me if I sound a bit preachy. I just see where all this is headed. If I had my way Taylor Swift would be arrested and charged with intent to harm children. If you or I were to send a lewd image to a 15 year old, we’d go to jail, but when Taylor Swift does it in her music, it is okay. What is wrong with parents today? I’ll tell you, we have been desensitized by sin. The Apostle Paul said “that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful” (Romans 7:13b).

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) made this great statement:

> “Do you know what’s wrong? Before you know it, you will turn to sin if you don’t keep sin exceeding sinful. I’m not going to get to the place where I say: ’We at First Baptist Church look with disfavor on the movies.’ No Sir! I’m going to say: ’That dirty Hollywood crowd is sending our nation to Hell.’ I’m going to say: ’Young people, stay out of the movie houses! Stay out of them! Stay away from the Hollywood crowd! Stay away from the adulterous kind of sinful crowd, and turn your television off when one comes on.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from the timeless sermon, ’[12]The Church First’

Taylor Swift’s new Folklore album is very shameful. She is a role model to millions of young people. Taylor Swift offers a less offensive album version by special request. Miss Swift and her Satanist bosses fully know that most youth will want the cussing (which is what I found on YouTube), and that the kids whose parents care enough to buy the clean version, won’t delay for long to buy the filthy version. It is wickedness! What are we teaching children today?

Why don’t we have a police sting on the filthy music industry, and handcuff these pervert music producers? They need to be arrested and taken to court for targeting young teens with risque music videos. I’m not kidding, this deliberate attempt to corrupt our children needs to stop. The Bible says, be not deceived parents, [13]FILTHY COMMUNICATIONS CORRUPT GOOD MANNERS. Should it be surprising that today’s youth are rioting, looting and spewing all manner of disrespect and filth toward our U.S. President?

We need a revival of decency in America, we really do! Celebrities like Taylor Swift are making the problem worse, by promoting lewdness, raunchy lyrics, promiscuity, and the LGBTQ agenda. Where will this descent into wickedness lead our country? How bad can things get before God says, “

> “I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just; that His justice cannot sleep forever.” —Thomas Jefferson, U.S. President (1801-1809)

1.5.55 The Modern Bible Revisions No Longer Worship Jesus (2020-07-24 23:49)

Matthew 8:2,

“

And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

In the beloved King James Bible, we read repeatedly that people “WORSHIPED” Jesus. I quoted Matthew 8:2 above as just one example. Unfortunately, all of the Devil’s modern Bible revisions corrupt these passages, changing the word “ worshipped

to “knelt” or “bowed,” diminishing and attacking Jesus’ deity. I quote the correct King James Bible first below, and then several of the corrupted Devil’s Bibles...

KJV - And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

ESV - And behold, a leper came to him and knelt before him, saying, “Lord, if you will, you can make me clean.”

ERV - Then a man sick with leprosy came to him. The man bowed down before Jesus and said, “Lord, you have the power to heal me if you want.”

AMP - And a leper came up to Him and bowed down before Him, saying, “Lord, if You are willing, You are able to make me clean (well).”

CEB - A man with a skin disease came, kneeled before him, and said, “Lord, if you want, you can make me clean.”

CSB - Right away a man with leprosy came up and knelt before him, saying, “Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean.”

[1]More Comparisons

Why would all those Bible translators remove every mention of people “

WORSHIPPING

the blessed Savior? The answer is obvious —because the Devil doesn’t want you to WORSHIP JESUS!!! The Devil wants you to worship him instead. Look at all these famous people showing their allegiance to the Devil and coming Antichrist...

[2]

Matthew 4:8-10, “Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.”

Please pay attention to the following Scripture passage from Mark 15:17-19, “

And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head,

And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews! And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.” Carefully notice the distinction between

“

“

WORSHIPPING.

” They are not the same Greek words. They don’t mean the same thing!

This proves that the modern Bible revisions are utterly corrupt!!! The word “bowing” is the Greek word tithēmi, which means, “a place, i.e., the position of kneeling.” The word “worshipping” is the Greek word proskuneō, which means,

“to kiss, like a dog licking his master’s hand.” As you can see, these are two very different meanings. In every place where the modern Bible revisions change “worship” to “knelt” or “bowed,” the meaning is proskuneō. In other words, they are removing every place where people worshipped the Lord, saying that they merely bowed down and knelt, lying to you! If God meant bowed, then He would have used the word tithēmi, which means to assume a bowing position. But the Divine Author chose to use the word proskuneō instead, which means TO WORSHIP!!!

One of the most ungodly, compromised and arrogant religious institutions in America today is Bob Jones University (BJU) in Greenville, South Carolina. A long time ago, when Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) was still at the ship’s helm at Bob Jones College (founded in 1927), they were the citadel of Christian fundamentalism in the world! Today in 2020 BJU is as the sinking ship Titanic, drowning in the depths of apostasy and theological corruption, with Dr. Steve Pettit at the helm recklessly steering the ship into the deadly icebergs of Lordship Salvation and the Devil’s Bibles!

Case in point is the English Standard Version (ESV) which BJU uses, sells, promotes and bids Godspeed to! Here is a comparison of Matthew 20:20...

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Matthew 20:20, “

Then came to him the mother of Zebedee’s children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.

ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - Matthew 20:20,

“

Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came up to him with her sons, and kneeling before him she asked him for something.

The Greek word for “worshipping” in this Bible verse is (you guessed it), proskuneō ! The mother of the sons of Zebedee came and WORSHIPED the precious Lord Jesus Christ! It is Satan who has tampered with the inspired Word of God, removing every mention of people worshipping the dear Savior. As we clearly see in

Mark 15:19, “ And they [soldiers] smote him [Jesus] on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.” Do you see it friend? The Bible makes a clear distinction here between BOWING and WORSHIPPING! So in every other place in the New Testament, where the modern Bible revisions change the potent word “WORSHIP” to a mere impotent “BOWED,” they are sinfully corrupting the Holy Scriptures! They have committed a woeful evil, perverting the Words of the Living God, desecrating the deity of our Great God And Savior Jesus Christ!!!

I Am Despised And Rejected Of Men For Telling The Truth

[3]My own testimony is the same as Jesus' testimony, who was despised and rejected by people. Isaiah 53:3, "He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not."

I am [4]now listening to the Old Testament minor prophet, Habakkuk , which is a tremendous book of the Bible. Habakkuk 2:16, "Thou art filled with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the LORD's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory." I immediately thought of Bob Jones University, and the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, when I heard this passage of Scripture: THOU ART FILLED WITH SHAME FOR GLORY!!!

BJU and Harvest falsely think they are prospering, but like the thriving church at Laodicea, they are naked and blind and in denial (Revelation 3:15-16). BJU and Harvest have a false sense of pride!!! Their glorying is not good, because it is actually SHAME! Those who preach the Devil's heresy of Lordship Salvation ought to be ashamed, and they will be when they stand before God in eternity as unsaved reprobates (Matthew 7:21-23; they said, "LORD, LORD," but they we're not His sheep).

In 2014, the former pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Dr. Marty Herron, taught me a Bible verse that I will never forget from Habakkuk 3:2b, "In wrath remember mercy." I approached him in the main church auditorium after a Sunday evening service, and most people had already gone home. I had tears in my eyes, as I explained to him about my broken life. Pastor Herron kindly placed his hand upon my shoulder and said:

"David, You deserve God's wrath, but He has shown you mercy." He then prayed for me. I needed that compassion. I love Pastor Herron and he is a good man, as far as good men go.

[5]But he is deceived by the Devil, whose mentors are Pastor John MacArthur and [6]Evangelist Steve Pettit.

Due to my proper King James Bible only position, and for justly exposing the Devil's corrupt Alexandrian Bibles, and for righteously refuting the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, as a true friend who TOLD THE TRUTH—Harvest's pastor sinfully reprimanded me in the church office, and I was forced out of Harvest in 2014! I left in uncontrollable tears. I missed their nurse so much who liked me, and I fell in love with her. Everything just came to a screeching halt, because I TOLD THE TRUTH! In 2017, in utter loneliness I humbly pleaded with Pastor Herron (and Pastors' Joe Hanson and Jared Baldwin) to please give me a second chance, and to please let me attend church services, but [7]Pastor Herron cold-heartedly told me to "Go elsewhere." That was an evil thing to say to me. Romans 14:10, " But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ." I had nowhere else to go as a born-again Baptist!

No doubt they think I should have let this matter go a long time ago, but this is my story. This is my life, good and bad alike! Acts 4:20, "For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard." While they've all been playing church at Harvest since 2014, I haven't had a church family. God will hold them accountable. I love them unconditionally, but they don't care about me at all. The ministry is about serving, which is what the word "minister" means, " a servant.

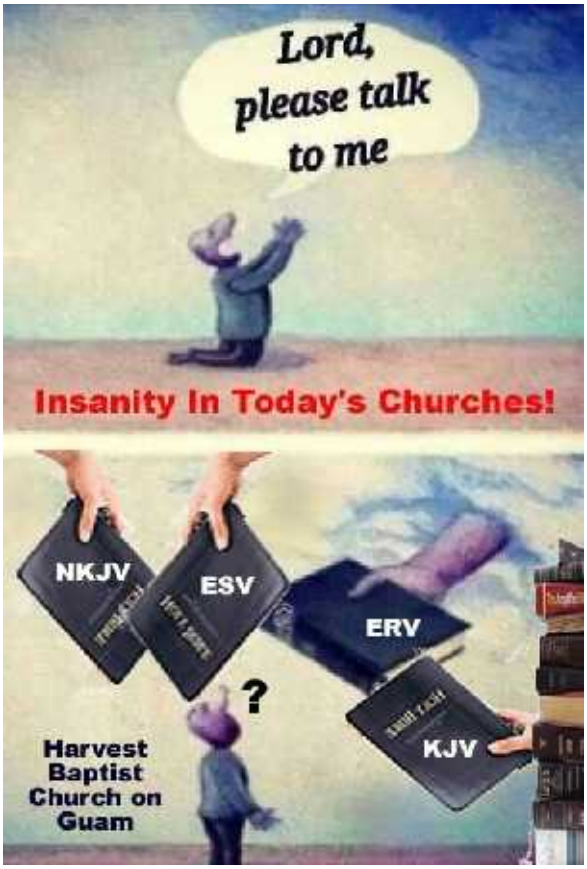
" Matthew 23:11, "But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant." Tragically, they only serve themselves at Harvest and BJU! People are not that important to them, but money is of the utmost importance!



Regardless of what they may say, I am living proof of what I just said. It is true! I begged for their compassion in 2017. I offered to humbly meet in the Pastor's office, and to comply with whatever it took to make things right with Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Associate Pastor Jared Baldwin literally laughed in my face, and Associate Pastor Joe Hanson called me and Dr. Jack Hyles "a cult," and Senior Pastor Marty Herron did what he does best—

NOTHING! Pastor Herron cruelly told me to "

Go elsewhere

" They left me for dead, when I desperately needed their love, help and guidance. Folks, these people are moochers! They parasite off of Christendom, but don't genuinely love or care about others. They only care about their little clique that pays their salaries. This is the apostate condition of today's ecumenical Baptist churches! This is the spiritually depraved condition of the Bob Jones University crowd nowadays! Did I mention that BJU is a cesspool of iniquity who are preaching Lordship Salvation? All they care about is the love of money (1st Timothy 6:10).

1.5.56 America's Ever Changing Moral And Doctrinal Standards (2020-07-25 09:30)

Hebrews 13:8-9, " Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein."

1898

I love Hebrews 13:8, which says JESUS CHRIST IS THE SAME YESTERDAY, TODAY, AND FOREVER!!! Malachi 3:6, “For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed. ” Our great, loving and omnipotent (all-powerful) God never changes. In theology, “ means God’s inability to change. God is absolutely holy and cannot be compromised. God cannot do evil, neither can He be tempted with evil.

immutable

James 1:13-14, “Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man

: But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.”

One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Harold Sightler (1914-1995) is called: ’ [1]The Unchanging Church In A Changing World .’ God is not the One who has changed, it is mankind who keeps changing!

America’s Changing Moral Standards

As recent as 1962, the sin of homosexuality was a punishable crime in all 50 states, but since June of 2015 the ungodly U.S. Supreme Court ruled that homosexuals can get married in all 50 states. God’s curse is upon our nation!

Job 20:5, “That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?” God-fearing Christians are frustrated right now in America, seeing sodomites triumph in the courts and workplace (and it will become much worse before Christ returns). But know this oh Christian, we are on the winning side in Jesus Christ! No one can escape death, and then cometh, “ THE JUDGMENT

(Hebrews 9:27b).

Prior to 1973, the American Psychiatric Association (APA) considered and treated homosexuality as a pathological mental illness. But in 1973 the [2]APA ruled: "'Homosexuality per se,' the trustees voted, should no longer be considered a 'psychiatric disorder'." Go figure, the psychiatrists need psychiatrists! They've lost their minds!!! Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) is absolutely right: "[3]WE'RE IN INSANITY BECAUSE WE'RE IN SIN!" The inspired Holy Bible hasn't changed since God gave the first five books (The Pentateuch) to Moses 3,500 years ago! The blessed and inspired King James Bible hasn't changed since 1611 when it was completed. We have changed, but God's Word hasn't changed. The churches have changed, but THE CHURCH hasn't changed!

What gives men the right to continually change what is good or evil? There are tens of thousands of people [4]rotting in U.S. prison for the crime of growing, selling and possessing marijuana (the matured female hemp plant produces marijuana). Yet, the state of Illinois just legalized recreational use of marijuana in 2020. Dozens of states have already legalized the use of marijuana for either medical and/or recreational use. Why was marijuana a horrible crime 25 years ago, but today is legal and socially acceptable?

Likewise, abortion wasn't even an option in the United States until 1973, when the ungodly U.S. Supreme Court legalized murdering a human being in the womb. Our nation has the blood of 60,000,000 human beings on our hands! Think about all the people, who should and would have been with us today, but they were denied their right to life by a selfish mother, a cruel society, a monstrous mass-murdering doctor, and a Satanic court system that flaunts itself against a holy God, who created all those precious lives! I often wonder who should have been here today, but they were murdered!!! That human could have been your future wife that was murdered, or your future husband, your soulmate; or the child could have been the next U.S. President, or Bible preacher to lead us to sanity!

If the sin of homosexuality was wrong in 1962, it is still wrong in 2020. If the sin of abortion was wrong in 1972, it is still wrong in 2020. If the sin of public nudity was wrong in 1925, it is still wrong in 2020. If the sin of fornication was wrong in 1955, it is still wrong in 2020. If the sin of covetousness was wrong in 1890, it is still wrong in 2020. Our God hasn't changed!!!

America’s Changing Doctrinal Standards

Likewise, our doctrines are sadly changing in the churches. The Devil has published and crept hundreds of English Bible revisions into the churches to confuse and corrupt everyone. I get disgusted at today’s Bible colleges, who are the biggest culprit, sanctioning and promoting the Devil’s Bible perversions! Consequently, the churches are changing for the worst, being pastored by incompetent graduates of apostate Bible colleges like Bob Jones University and Moody Bible Institute that promote counterfeit Bibles and a false gospel of Lordship Salvation.

Please notice our text passage again, that the Holy Bible associates unwavering doctrine with an unwavering Savior who never changes...

> Hebrews 13:8-9, “Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.”

The Bible teaches that the Word of God became incarnate (John 1:1-3 and 14). The Word of God became flesh, and we beheld His glory as the only begotten Son of God (John 1:14). In Revelation 19:13b Jesus is called **“

THE WORD OF GOD.

” Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) used to say that Jesus and the Bible are twins! Jesus is the Living Word, and the Holy Bible is the Written Word. So when ungodly meddlers go tampering with the Word of God, changing the truth of God into a lie (Romans 1:25), and perverting what God said (Jeremiah 23:36), then effectively, we have another Jesus!!! The apostle Paul warned everyone against false teachers who would bring into the churches another spirit, another Jesus, and another gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

What I am saying ladies and gentlemen, is that doctrinal soundness hinges upon having an unchanging view of Jesus Christ, which is the inspired Word of God! All of these modern Bible revisions are of the Devil, literally redefining what it means to “ repent,

changing it to a change of behavior instead of a change of mind to be saved. I’m not kidding! [5]Take a look at Mark 1:15 and Hebrews 6:1 in the damnable Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) that Harvest Baptist Church uses on Guam. ...

> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — “So we should be finished with the beginning lessons about Christ. We should not have to keep going back to where we started. We began our new life by turning away from the evil we did in the past and by believing in God.” [emphasis added]

Here again is Hebrews 6:1 in the beloved, correct, King James Bible . . .

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Hebrews 6:1, “Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God.” [emphasis added]

Do you see how the new corrupt Bible versions are horribly changing theology in the churches? The King James Bible teaches that we must repent from our ’DEAD WORKS’ to be saved, but the ERV teaches that we must stop living a life of deliberate sin (evil) to be saved. ’DEAD WORKS’ includes all works! Romans 3:20 warns that no one can be saved by ’THE DEEDS OF THE LAW.’ The Alexandrian Greek is of the Devil, teaching a works-based plan of salvation. Salvation is NOT by works (Romans 3:20; Ephesians 2:8-9; Titus 3:5; Romans 4:5-6). The doctrine of [6]the imputed righteousness of God silences all the critics.

A baby believer won’t see the major theological differences between the ERV verses the KJB, but I tell you that there are THOUSANDS!!! They’ve butchered the Words of God!!! Hebrews 6:1 in the ERV sinfully changes the entire plan of salvation, which now requires partial faith in Christ + human effort! No wonder our churches are so messed-up nowadays.

Bob Jones University and Moody Bible Institute today (and umpteen more corrupt religious institutions) are like naive horses, who woefully lack understanding, so they behave like dumb animals. ...

> Psalms 32:9, “
>
> Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee. ”

Are you like a senseless horse? Any thinking person sees a big problem with having more than one Bible version! The man with two watches never knows what time it is. God only authored ONE HOLY BOOK!

America’s Changing Plan Of Salvation

Ungodly ecumenical sinister ministers often make over $100,000 a year (e.g., [7]Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, [8]Marty Herron, John MacArthur), but God’s curse is upon them for preaching another gospel. God’s curse (literally they are DAMNED) is upon these wicked men...

Galatians 1:6-8, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed."

The Bible is very clear on the Gospel of free grace. You simple recognize yourself as a needy sinner, trust Jesus Christ as your Savior. Jesus died on the cross for our sins, He was buried, and three days later Christ raised up from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Anyone who receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins is eternally saved. It is that simple to be born again! Eternal life is a free gift (Ephesians 2:8-9; Romans 5:15-18, 6:23).

When someone comes along requiring that you make full surrender to Christ's Lordship, follow Him regardless of the cost, persevere in holiness, run the race, count the cost, turn from your sin, and commit your life to Christ, they are preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL!

In the early days of Bob Jones College (founded in 1927), [9]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. simply taught salvation by a childlike faith in the Savior . What happened? Who hath bewitched you oh BJU that you should follow another gospel of Lordship Salvation (i.e., Calvinism)? Sadly, as I mentioned, the apostate Bible colleges have influenced the churches, which includes the corrupted [10]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. The church began in 1975 when a Vietnam veteran was returning from war. Harvest started out on the right track, by faith alone in Christ, but then the Devil crept into their church when Pastor Marty Herron came along like a spider in 1999, bringing Dr. John MacArthur's damnable theology with him into the church, corrupting it with Lordship Salvation! Dear reader, the Gospel hasn't changed in thousands of years! In Genesis 15:6 Abram (later renamed to Abraham) was justified by faith alone (Romans 4:1-5). That was 4,000 years ago! God's plan of salvation HASN'T CHANGED!!!

Psalms 37:12-13, " The wicked plotteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth. The Lord shall laugh at him: for he seeth that his day is coming." I love that Bible verse—FOR HE SEETH HIS DAY COMING! Oh, you Bob Jones University crowd who [11]relish in your Devil's Bibles—YOUR DAY IS COMING! You Bob Jones' evildoers with your [12]Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation that damns men's souls to Hell—YOUR DAY IS COMING! It may seem like a light thing to many people, but adding works to the Gospel is no trifle matter. You either have to repent (turn) from your sin to be saved, or you do not, but it cannot be both. Common sense tells us that! Since eternal life is a free gift (Romans 6:23), no payment can be required from the recipient.

I saw a lying bank advertisement that said they'd give a " gift

to anyone who opens a new bank account. That is not a gift,

" it is a reward, because you are required to open a new bank account to obtain it. If it were a gift, I could walk into the bank and simply receive it without any obligation whatsoever. Likewise, to receive God's free gift of eternal life (paid for in full by Jesus' precious blood - 1st Peter 1:18-19), you simply take it! Salvation is a TAKE proposition, not a GIVE proposition. Salvation is received, not achieved.

[13]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) told his students in 1944, that if the college allowed infidels and modernists 50 years later [14]to rob us of our faith, he would take dynamite and blow Bob Jones College to smithereens! Bob Jones University is a cesspool in iniquity today, teaching Calvinism and [15]Lordship Damnation! I sure wish I could talk sense to the Bob Jones crowd, especially on Guam at Harvest Baptist Church, but they refuse to heed THE TRUTH! [16]Eternal life is a gift wrapped in Jesus!!!

BJU is in denial.

The key to living the Christian life is to anchor yourself to the precious unchanging Savior, and His unchanging inspired Word. In a world that is always changing, we need to cling to the unchanging King James Bible. My anchor holds! Amen! It is not mere coincidence that the Devil has been changing the Holy Bible since 1881. Satan wants to remove your anchor! That way you'll drift in the boat of life all over the place, eventually going over a waterfall to destruction! Satan's primary goal in 1881 (the year that Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort introduced their "

Greek New Testament to the world), was to set a precedent of CHANGING the Word of God.

By introducing a SECOND authority, to compete with the FIRST authority (i.e., the Textus Receptus from which our beloved King James Bible was translated), it necessitated a THIRD authority to decide which of the first two authorities are correct. That third authority is corrupt manmade scholarship

! Pastor Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016) wrote some excellent writings on this subject, which is where I learned the preceding vital information from. The book is called: '[17]The Alexandrian Cult Series' (.pdf format).

Satan did this very same thing in Genesis 3:1. God told Adam and Eve in Genesis 2:16b, "Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat," but the serpent (Satan) CHANGED God's Word into a lie, saying in Genesis 3:1b,

"Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden." Do you see how the subtle serpent changed the Word of God to say the exact opposite of what God said? That is what the modern Bibles do. Take a look at what these devils did to corrupt the Word of God in Philippians 2:6. Folks, Bob Jones University sells, uses, promotes and sanctions this Satanic garbage in the English Standard Version (ESV)...

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Philippians 2:6, "Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:"

ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - Philippians 2:6, "who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped,"

For speaking out against these evils, I have been forced out, shunned, banned and ostracized by the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam since 2014. They are pulling on the same rope as the Devil at Harvest. SHAME ON ALL OF THEM!!! SHAME ON BOB JONES UNIVERSITY!!! There is not a more arrogant bunch of reprobates concerning the faith today than the shameful Bob Jones' crowd. Does anybody care? Right doctrine matters!

Oh dear friend, the Gospel hasn't changed. God's commandment, "Thou shalt not kill," in Exodus 20:13 hasn't changed (abortion is first-degree murder). Homosexuality is just as perverse and ungodly today, as it was when God destroyed Sodom and it's homosexuals (Genesis 19:1-15) with fire and brimstone. The preserved inspired Word of God hasn't changed (which is the inspired King James Bible). Right hasn't changed! Wrong hasn't changed! Truth hasn't changed! God hasn't changed! It is Hollywood that has changed! It is the White House that has changed! It is America that has changed. It is the world and humanity that have changed, not God or His Word.

Hebrews 13:8, " Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever."

1.5.57 God Rewards Those Who Remain By The Stuff (2020-07-25 22:00)

1st Samuel 30:22-24, "

Then answered all the wicked men and men of Belial, of those that went with David, and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them ought of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead them away, and depart.

Then said David, Ye shall not do so, my brethren, with that which the LORD hath given us, who hath preserved us, and delivered the company that came against us into our hand.

For who will hearken unto you in this matter? but as his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be that tarrieth by the stuff: they shall part alike.

The Biblical reason why we suffer is because we live in a fallen world. When Adam sinned, he opened the floodgate for sin and death to enter into the world. Romans 5:12, “Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:” It is not God’s will for a drunk driver to kill a pregnant woman and her child, but I stood over their caskets at a funeral. I’ll never forget that small white coffin being lowered into the ground. The drunk driver sustained minor injuries. He should have got the death penalty! He is now free and enjoying his life. We have a sin problem in America! Jesus said in Matthew 24:12 that the love of many would wax cold because iniquity (unpunished evil) shall abound. Now the authorities are releasing convicted criminals onto American streets due to the Coronavirus scare! That is insane.

On page 59 of chapter five (

Why We Suffer

) by M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) in his helpful book, “

BROKEN THINGS,

he wonderfully says these words of encouragement

for those who are suffering:

The greatest sermons I have heard were not preached from pulpits but from sickbeds. The greatest, deepest truths of God’s Word have often been revealed, not by those who preached as a result of their seminary preparation and education, but by those humble souls who have gone through the seminary of affliction and have learned the deep things of the ways of God.

The more cheerful people I have met, with few exceptions, have been those who had the least sunshine and the most pain and suffering in their lives. The most grateful people I have met were not those who had traveled a pathway of roses all their lives through, but those who were confined, because of circumstances, to their homes—often to their beds. They had learned to depend upon God as only such Christians know how to do.

The "gripers" on the other hand, are usually those who enjoy excellent health. The complainers are those who have the least to complain about. But those dear saints of God who have refreshed my heart again and again as they preached from sickbed-pulpits have been the men and women who have been the most cheerful and the most grateful for the blessings of of almighty God.

The Bible tells us distinctly that there is a special reward and a special crown which the Lord has prepared and paid up for those who suffer patiently. This principle is suggested by the incident recorded in I Samuel 30.

David, along with four hundred strong, healthy men, had gone out to seek the enemy. Two hundred, however, had remained behind because they were weary and faint, probably because of some physical infirmity. These David had left behind to guard the camp and the equipment of those who went into the heat of the battle. After the victory had been won, the four hundred who had been active participants in the battle refused to share with those who had remained behind and said, “We’ll give them just a little bit, but we’re going to take the spoils.”

At this point David stated the eternal principle in the words of I Samuel 30:24, “As his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be that tarrieth by the stuff: they shall part alike.”

Those of you who remain by the stuff are not overlooked or forgotten by God: there is a very definite and special reward laid up for God’s patient sufferers.

If you, child of God, are upon a bed of illness, if you are being troubled by pain or discouragement, remember that God will always use our suffering for His purposes. Our suffering silences

Satan, our suffering enables us to glorify God, our suffering makes us more like Christ, our suffering makes us appreciative, and, ultimately, our suffering teaches us to depend on God. —Pastor M.R. DeHaan,

“

Broken Things,

pp. 59-61; ©1948, Discovery House Publishers

Isn’t that beautiful? One of my favorite Bible verses is Romans 8:17, “ And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

” The moment we got saved, we became HEIRS with Jesus of all that God the Father is giving to Him. Romans 8:32 says God will give us **“

ALL THINGS.

” I wish that included a wife, but the Lord said we’ll be like the angels in Heaven, who don’t marry. I guess it is because I’m still in my earthly body, but I cannot imagine Heaven without someone special to share it with. I know we’ll all share Heaven with Jesus, but I wish I could have a wife in Heaven. That is just my thinking. I’ll just have to wait and see how it all works, because I get discouraged thinking about being alone in Heaven too. I can only believe, by faith, that our God knows what is best, and He will make Heaven better than earth for us.

Since we are equal heirs with Christ, since we share in His sufferings here on earth, we shall also share in His glory in eternity. I am not sure exactly what that means, but I think it is safe to say that we will share in all the good times that are coming in Heaven. God wants us to be happy. I love this next Bible verse from Ephesians 3:20, “Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.”

God already knows what we desire (Matthew 6:7-8). I want a new healthy body, which He has promised in Philippians 3:21. I want a wife, but the Lord said there is no marriage in Heaven, which makes me sad. There must be something that I don't understand. I am a man now, so I think like a man. But in my resurrected body I'll be like an angel (Mark 12:25). I am not sure what that means. I'll have to wait and see. I trust my good God! I know He wants me to be happy. Jesus is no respecter of persons, He doesn't favor certain of His children over others. We will all be equally loved, sought after, cared about, and cherished by our dear Savior in Heaven. I believe that with all my heart, and that encourages me.

God allows us to suffer because of sin. The serpent beguiled Eve, selling her a raw deal. The serpent told her she would become a god, and she did, but it wasn't in the way Eve imagined. Adam and Eve became gods in the sense of living and dying by their own decisions, which wasn't what Eve thought it would be. Eve must have hated the serpent, and felt stupid for the rest of her life. The serpent never returned to her. That is what malicious people will do. They give horrible advice and destroy someone's marriage, then go their own way and never be heard from again. Some people love to kill, steal and destroy, just like the Devil.

Romans 6:23 says the wages of sin is death. It may not be for a sin we committed. Last month a 40 foot tree fell over and killed an 11 year old Girl Scout in southern Indiana. It wasn't for any particular sin that the little girl committed that killed her. We live in a fallen world because of sin. Bad things happen to good people. Good things happened to bad people. Scripturally, we are all sinners. Those whom we consider " are still sinners.

good people

It doesn't seem fair to me, that God allows us to be born into a fallen world. I read yesterday a commentary by Dr. Oliver B. Greene, where he says we would have sinned just like Adam, if we were in his shoes. I totally disagree! Adam had no earthly father. God was Adam's father, just like Jesus. Adam had no sin nature prior to sinning. So I think each of us would have done differently. Adam had no predisposition to sin, just as Jesus didn't. I don't understand it all, but I don't believe Adam had no choice in the matter. Many atheists blame God for putting them into this situation. Star Trek creator Gene Roddenberry, an atheist, said this:

> “We must question the story logic of having an all-knowing all-powerful God, who creates faulty Humans, and then blames them for his own mistakes.” —Gene Roddenberry

I actually agree with his feelings! It doesn’t seem fair that God allowed me to be born into a messed-up world. But the Lord plainly said that His thoughts are above my thoughts. Isaiah 55:8-9, “ For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.”

We cannot understand everything about God. We have the mind of Christ as believers (1st Corinthians 2:14-16), but we still cannot understand all things.

1st Corinthians 13:12, “ For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.” Thankfully, we don’t have to understand God to please Him, we simply just need to TRUST HIM (Proverbs 3:5-7).

The great heart of God is seen in our text verse from 1st Samuel 30-24. God will reward those believers who fight in the heat of the battle on the front lines, but He will also reward those suffering saints behind the scenes, those unsung heroes who stay by the stuff!

1.5.58 Why Is Paul So Upset In The Epistle Of Galatians? (2020-07-26 19:52)

Galatians 1:6-7, " I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

Why was the Apostle Paul so upset in the Epistle of Galatians? The apostle wrote Galatians to several churches in the the region of Galatia (located in the country of Turkey today). Paul was upset because someone was messing with the grace of God! I want to give you FOUR REASONS WHY PAUL WAS SO UPSET:

1. WHEN YOU ATTACK THE GRACE OF GOD, YOU ATTACK THE GOD OF GRACE! Carefully notice in Galatians 1:6 that it is called "the grace of Christ." Amen! Every believer is saved by grace, called by grace, and commissioned *by grac*e. The Bible only backs-up salvation by grace! You cannot back-up a Lordship Gospel with the Bible. This is why false teachers like Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, Steve Pettit and Paul Washer all rely heavily upon quotes from Calvinist preachers from centuries past. They were heretics then and they are heretics now! Since they cannot use the Word of God to support their damnable heresy, they quote theologically corrupt men as a secondary authority, in a lame attempt to bolster up their Strawman argument.

2. WHEN YOU ATTACK THE GRACE OF GOD, YOU ATTACK THE GIFT OF GRACE. When I got saved as a 13 year old boy, I didn't promise God anything! Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." We rest in Jesus Christ alone to be saved (Hebrews 4:10-11). It is not what we have done or must do, but what Jesus has already done for us through the cross of Calvary! JESUS PAID IT ALL! Christ died for the ungodly, paying our debt of sin in full with His blood (Romans 5:6-9). Eternal life is a free gift from God (Ephesians 2:8-9). You don't earn it. You don't deserve it. You don't merit it. You don't qualify for it. You simply ACCEPT IT BY FAITH!!! Grace is not what I do, it is everything that God did and does.

3. WHEN YOU ATTACK THE GRACE OF GOD, YOU ATTACK THE GUARDIAN OF GRACE. The guardian of grace is the local New Testament church! 1st Thessalonians 2:4, "But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts." What a lovely Bible verse! We have been entrusted by God in the local New Testament church with the Gospel. It is the greatest and most delicate treasure ever given to the world. The Apostle Paul was upset in Galatians because someone was messing with grace. Paul was upset that anyone "would pervert the gospel of Christ" (Galatians 1:7). If we don't guard the Gospel, then no one else will. Sadly, many false churches today have departed from the faith, preaching another gospel of making full surrender to Christ as "Lord," forsaking your deliberate sinful behavior, faithfully running the race until the end of life, and committing your life to live for Christ, to be saved. What saith the Scripture?

   1st Timothy 4:1, "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;" The Apostle

Paul warns in Galatians 1:6-9, that if any man preaches any other Gospel than what the Apostles preached, let him be accursed by God!

4. WHEN YOU ATTACK THE GRACE OF GOD, YOU ATTACK THE GOAL OF GRACE. The blessed goal of grace is soulwinning worldwide! God desires for all men to repent toward God and believe the truth of the Gospel (Acts 20:21). Why is Paul so upset in Galatians? It is because the Gospel is for everyone, and when a corrupt preacher like [1]Evangelist Ray Comfort says you must forsake a life of fornication to be saved, he has excluded you from God's grace! If sinners must forsake their sinful bad habits to be saved, then grace has been corrupted, and not everyone is welcomed to it. My inspired King James Bible says, "whosoever will*, let him take the water of life freely" (Revelation 22:17).* That is so clear and beautiful. The Bible does not place any stipulations, obligations, requirements or warnings to be saved, it simply saves WHOSOEVER WILL. Romans 10:13, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." Again we read WHO SO EVER. In the Greek that means, "YOU" and "ME." The proponents of Lordship Salvation add a bunch of junk to grace that is not found in the King James Bible. In so doing they ostracize tens of millions of people, who are not ready to "forsake all" to follow Jesus as their LORD, in order to be saved. God's goal is to witness to everyone, but you cannot do that if you place unbiblical demands upon sinners to clean-up their ways, and to commit to serving Christ, because that is not the Gospel. People cannot be born-again by religion.

In the Epistle of Galatians we learn about GRACE and the GOSPEL. 2nd Corinthians 12:9, " And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me." What a beautiful passage of Scripture! What a precious truth! Jesus said,

"MY GRACE IS SUFFICIENT FOR THEE"!!!

Let him be cursed who adds to grace! Tragically, [2]Bob Jones University (BJU) adds to grace. Sadly, [3]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU) adds to grace. Horrifyingly, [4]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam adds to grace. Harvest promotes John MacArthur, BJU and Steve Pettit. Their lies are their truth at BJU and Harvest. When you attack God's grace, you attack the God of grace! Paul was upset because someone was messing with grace. Paul called them "foolish" and "bewitched" in Galatians 3:1. Paul said they had "fallen" from grace, meaning they hadn't lost it, but they had gotten away from grace. You cannot be saved when you get away from grace.

The Apostle Paul said in Galatians 2:21, " I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain." BJU frustrate's grace. Moody Bible Institute in Chicago frustrate's grace, teaching the lies of Calvinism instead.

What is grace? Someone has accurately stated G.R.A.C.E. as an acronym meaning: “

God’s Riches At Christ

’s Expense.

” Grace is God giving us what we do not deserve. Mercy is God withholding from us what we do deserve. As a sinner I deserve to die without Christ and burn in Hell forever as punishment, and so do you. Thankfully God made a way of escape through faith alone in the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Apostle Paul clearly defines the “

(Good News) in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4:

1. DEATH
2. BURIAL
3. RESURRECTION

That’s grace! Anyone who receives Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that He was buried and raised up three days later from the dead, is saved. We are saved solely by God’s grace. When someone like Ray Comfort, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, Adrian Rogers, Billy Graham, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Bob Jones University, David Jeremiah and John MacArthur teach that MORE is required than childlike faith, they have corrupted grace. Romans 11:6, “ And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.” Could the Bible speak any plainer? I think not. Works and grace must not be intertwined, which is what Lordship Salvation is. Pilgrim’s Progress preacher and author, John Bunyan, made this excellent quote:

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Gary Walton of Harvest Baptist Church, Bob Jones University, and Moody Bible Institute today, are all casting stumbling blocks before the people. Back in 1944 when BJU still taught Free Grace Theology, [5]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) had this to say about the matter (and I agree 100 %):

“He [Jude] said, well it was ’needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith, which once for all [was] delivered unto the saints.’

Now wait a minute, you’ve got something worth contending for! Isn’t it strange that something so valuable and so wonderful as saving faith is something we that have to be exhorted to contend for? Why, if you had a diamond worth $5,000 you wouldn’t leave it just lying around anywhere. If you had $1,000,000 in gold, you’d go put it in a vault. [If] Anybody tried to get it, you’d fight to keep them from gettin’ it. And we just sit down and just let people steal the faith that Christians have, and never bother about it. Some of us pay ’em to do that! Some of us pay preachers to stand in the pulpit and steal the faith of the saints of God, and send our children to Hell. The most crooked crook on God Almighty’s earth is a preacher who stands in a Trinitarian pulpit, and steals the faith of people!

You know I’ve said it many a time; if I was up in Heaven, fifty years from now (and the Lord tarried), and any religious liberal ever sat in a classroom in this institution, and tried to disseminate his infidelity, I’d ask God Almighty to excuse me for a little while, and I’d come back down to this school and get a stick of dynamite, and I’d blow it into smithereens! I’d rather see this school a heap of rubbish, just a little rubbish here and a little rubbish yonder, than see the time ever come we could be such softies, we’ll sit down and let the Devil put his modernists and religious liberals in here to rob them of the faith. And yet that things going on in America, from one end of this country to the other!” —Dr. Bob Jones Sr.; [6]YouTube | [7]MP4 | [8]MP3

As you just read, Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said he would rather destroy Bob Jones College, than to let modernists and religious liberals ([9]like Dr. Steve Pettit) corrupt one student with infidelity that robs them of their faith! Professed Christians nowadays are so deceived by the Devil, that they even pay infidels to destroy the faith of young people in the Word of God and the Gospel of free grace! Bob Jones University sells, sanctions and uses multiple Bible revisions! They sanction the [10]Devil's corrupt Alexandrian manuscripts! BJU horribly betrays the inspired Word of God. Sadly, Bob Jones University has been going downhill in spiritual deterioration for decades, hobnobbing with ungodly Neo-evangelicals. Consequently, they've been infected with ecumenism, Lordship Salvation, Calvinism, John MacArthur and corruptible seed at BJU!

We are living in woeful times of apostasy, when professed Christians are not really saved at all. Anyone who believes that they don't have eternal security, does not have eternal life dwelling in them. They don' t have Jesus in them! 1st John 5:20 says that Jesus is eternal life,

And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

" I love that! JESUS IS ETERNAL LIFE!!! The Bible doesn't tell us to forsake our sinful ways to receive God's gift of eternal life, we are simply told to RECEIVE JESUS. The [11]gift of eternal life comes wrapped in the wonderful package of Jesus!!! And that is why the Apostle Paul was upset at the churches in Galatia, because they were messing with grace! DON'T MESS WITH GRACE!!!

1.5.59 Did Joshua Teach Lordship Salvation? (2020-07-27 10:30)

Joshua 24:19-20, "And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve the LORD: for he is an holy God; he is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins. If ye forsake the LORD, and serve strange gods, then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after that he hath done you good."

God said He wouldn't forgive their sins if they worshipped other gods. God is jealous! You cannot be a devout Roman Catholic, worshipped statues of Mary, and be forgiven by God at the same time. That is what repentance means in the Bible. Hebrews 6:1 speaks of "repentance from DEAD WORKS." Dead works include ALL WORKS that someone relies upon to get them to Heaven. We must change our mind from dead works, to trust the Savior. I believe that is what Joshua 24:19-20 means. Joshua was telling them that they cannot serve God and idols at the same time.

That is what the Bible means in Ezekiel 18:22 and Ezekiel 33:13, "When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it." The Bible says if a man trusts in his OWN RIGHTEOUSNESS, then God will not pardon him. Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." We are saved by submitting to God's righteousness by faith. Matthew 6:33 says to seek "HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS."

Joshua wasn't telling the people to live righteously to get saved, he was telling them that God would not forgive them if they followed after other strange gods. Joshua 24:23, "Now therefore put away, said he, the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart unto the LORD God of Israel." There we see repentance and faith (Acts 20:21).

1.5.60 Pacific Garden Mission Preaches A Counterfeit Gospel (2020-07-27 22:13)

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, " Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

1920

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

I am horrified lately as I listen to 'UNSHACKLED' radio, which is produced by the Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago. Tragically, neo-evangelicals with their demonic Lordship Salvation have infiltrated, infected and damned countless churches, missions, Bible colleges and religious institutions with a counterfeit gospel that intertwines works with grace! Dear reader, anytime you attack the grace of God, you attack the God of grace! The Apostle Paul was upset in the Epistle of Galatians because someone was messing with grace. ...

> Galatians 1:6-7, " I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

Pacific Garden Mission is troubling Chicago with their perverted gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. Don't take my word for it, read this sickening transcript from 'UNSHACKLED':

> [1]Program #3625 - Aired in 2020 (the story of Cydanni Ade; she takes a stroll on the beach and meets a stranger, to whom she starts discussing her struggle with truth.) Here is some of their interaction....

> Cydanni Ade: "I know, you're going to tell me He [Jesus] loves me unconditionally, and wants to be my Savior."

Stranger On The Beach: “Yes and no!”

Cydanni Ade: “What?”

Stranger On The Beach:

“He does love people, but Him becoming your Savior HAS CONDITIONS!”

Cydanni Ade: “I’ve always heard He loves everyone unconditionally.”

Stranger On The Beach:

“Then, why does He call us to repent? If God loves everybody unconditionally, then you can do whatever you want, and believe whatever you think.”

Cydanni Ade: “I know that’s not true!”

Stranger On The Beach:

"Right! So, God placed an absolute condition, by which *He requires, commands all people everywhere, to repent of their sins and believe in Jesus Christ, and live for Him!"

Cydanni Ade: "Huh." [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [2]Program #3625 - Aired in 2020

(the story of Cydanni Ade)

Dear reader, what you just read is the Satanic lie of Lordship Salvation. Almighty God doesn't require nor command that you repent of your sins to be saved! It is Calvinism repackaged! There are multiple heresies taught in the preceding dialog:

FIRST, God loves everyone. The stranger on the beach is a fool. What saith the Scripture? John 3:16, "

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

" It was God's unconditional love that sent Jesus to be nailed and crucified on a cross to pay for our sins.

SECOND, there are no conditions for Jesus to become your Savior, except to receive Him. What saith the Scripture? John 1:12-13, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." You receive Jesus by believing (trusting) on His name!

THIRD, Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) is woeful confused between justification by faith, and sanctification by the Holy Spirit. What saith the Scripture? Romans 5:1-2, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God." Romans 15:16, "That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost." There you have it—we are JUSTIFIED by faith, and we are SANCTIFIED by the Holy Spirit. That is, God saves us by faith, and then the indwelling Holy Spirit changes us.

Preacher and author of Pilgrim's Progress, John Bunyan, got it right:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) is pulling on the same rope as the Devil. They obviously aren't theologians, but are merely following the corrupt theology of dangerous men like Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, and Steve Pettit at Bob Jones University (all heretical Calvinists in their doctrine).

FOURTH, nowhere in the Word of God are we commanded to " repent of our sins

" to be saved. That phrase doesn't appear in the Holy Bible, corrupt and dishonest men added it! PGM cites a verse from Acts 17:30, "And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: " A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. We have hundreds of clear Bible passages teaching that salvation is simply by believing. In fact, the Gospel of John mentions the word "believe" 85 times, without ever mentioning the word "repent" even once. That speaks volumes! It simply tells us that the man who BELIEVES has automatically repented (which simply means, a change of mind). A man repents " toward God

" (Acts 20:31b), embracing THE TRUTH that he is a needy sinner, and believing

THE TRUTH of the Gospel to be saved. Please notice Acts 17:34a, "Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed..." Nowhere does the Bible indicate that they turned away from sinning.

FIFTH, You don't have to LIVE FOR JESUS to receive God's free gift. That is why it is called " a gift

(Romans 5:15-18; 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). To obtain a gift, you simply take it. Salvation is a take proposition, not a give proposition.

In 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 the Apostle Paul mentions the phrase, **"

according to the Scriptures ” twice. Everything that we believe as Christians must be ACCORDING TO THE SCRIPTURES. Even false prophets know that, which is why PGM cited Acts 17:30 in an attempt to bolster up their Strawman heresy of Lordship Salvation. In fact, even the Devil himself knows that everything must be according to the Scriptures, ” which is why he subtly came to Eve and the first thing he said was, “Hath God said? ” (Genesis 3:1). When the Devil came to tempt Jesus, he quoted the Scriptures, taking them out of context (which is exactly what Pacific Garden Mission is doing). PGM are basing a false doctrine on a misinterpretation of Acts 17:30, ignoring the entire Gospel of John (John 20:31). Pastor Max D. Younce preaches a helpful sermon called: ’[3]TRY THE SPIRITS’ from 1st John 4:1.

I cannot warn everyone strongly enough about the dangers of the Lordship Gospel, which is not Free Grace Theology! Here is a very helpful quote by Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965):

> “There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can’t be lost because it depends upon God’s faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness.” —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

Here are [4]more quotes differentiating between SALVATION and DISCIPLESHIP. Kindly said, the folks at Pacific Garden Mission and ’Unshackled’ do not understand what Dr. DeHaan just said, for if they did they wouldn’t teach the theological errors that they do! This is a serious matter, because if you’re wrong on the plan of salvation, then people cannot be born-again! Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again! That is exactly what PGM and UNSHACKLED are doing!!! They are shackling people to a false hope! You don’t get saved by forsaking sinful behavior AND trusting Christ. That is another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works!

Dear friend, I am just a redeemed sinner on social media. I'm just A VOICE, as was John the Baptist (after whom my middle name is named, " ), crying in the Wilderness of cyberspace. I hope someone is listening

John

! I love you unconditionally with God's love, whosoever you may be, and I only desire that you come to the knowledge of THE TRUTH of the Gospel to be saved. Jesus warned us in Matthew 7:15, "

Beware of false prophets..."

1.5.61 Chinese Style Censorship Is Increasing In America (2020-07-28 09:30)

Matthew 7:12, " Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets."

Do masks help slow or stop the spread the Coronavirus? I am not a qualified medical or scientific expert, so I won't stick my neck out and be dogmatic on the issue of masks. To be honest, I do not know if wearing a mouth mask slows or stops the spread if the dreaded Coronavirus. But what bothers me is the ever-changing facts we are being provided by the government and related supporting agencies. Everyone has a right to their own opinion, but no one has a right to their own facts! Unfortunately, the subversive powers behind the destruction of American freedom, fully know that all they have to do is change the facts, and in so doing they can usurp control over the American people. I humbly believe that the issues are not about gay rights, wearing masks or teaching evolution to children, but about the government taking control over our lives!

A classic example is the homosexual agenda in America. In 1962 the sin of homosexuality was a punishable crime in all 50 states. The American Psychiatric Association (APA) categorized and treated homosexuality as a pathological mental disorder prior to 1975. But in that year the top doctor and president of the APA, Dr. Nicholas Andrew Cummings, succumbed to political pressure and changed the organization's long held stance that homosexuality is a problem. In this [1]shocking 2013 video interview, Dr. Cummings admits that the so-called science behind the LGBTQ agenda is fake, and it is really based on politics!

> “If you want to know who controls you, look at who you are NOT allowed to criticize.”
> —Voltaire

Please watch the eye-opening video titled: ’[2]TECH TYRANNY: CENSORING THE TOWN SQUARE.’ I started a Facebook account a few months ago. I hate Facebook! It is very confusing, not user-friendly, and is monitored as done in a tyrannical police state! In their so-called effort to discourage “

FAKE NEWS,

” Facebook is actually facilitating FAKE NEWS and censoring THE TRUTH. I [3]received a notification today from Facebook that I am guilty of promoting [4]Fake News. I admit that Alex Jones is guilty at times of promoting fake things, like his [5]liver cleanse hoax a couple years ago. I went to the Mayo Clinic’s website online and read how Infowars. Alex is so driven for money that he sometimes promotes fake things. I don’t respect Alex for that, but I do have tremendous respect for him for all the work he has done to educate the common man about the evils of the New World Order. I love Alex, but I advise people to verify everything he says, because he is sometimes way wrong!

Tech companies who provide social media are supposed to provide open forums by law, but they DON’T. Censorship is a big problem today. [6]Please watch this Carl Tuckerson video. Clearly, the subversive communist powers behind the subversion of the United States are in cahoots with the top social media platforms. Nations do not rule the world, corporations do! Recently, Pastor Steven L. Anderson of the Faithful Word Baptist Church in Arizona was banned on YouTube, having over 6,000 videos removed. I thought that was horrible and very wrong!

Granted, Pastor Anderson does sometimes say some extreme things, which most people find offensive, but this is America (you remember, The land of the free!), and a Bible-preacher is supposed to hate sin. A Bible-preacher is supposed to offend people with the truth! Pastor Anderson said he was banned for preaching against feminism, homosexuality and Modalism (denying the Trinity). When I see transvestites and cross-dressers making millions of dollars on YouTube, by promoting homosexuality and effeminacy in men, I am disturbed. What does that say about YouTube? It simply says they are of the world. Jesus said in John 7:7 and 15:19 that the world are the enemies of Christ and His children. The world does not understand the truth (1st Corinthians 2:14-16). They don’t understand our love for the truth (2nd Thessalonians 2:10).

Proverbs 29:27, “ An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.”

One of the biggest can of worms in today's media is the Sandy Hook Shooting in 2012. I have a right to my opinion. [7]My website at LoveTheTruth.com has been banned on Facebook, because I believe that Sandy Hook was a false flag terror attack. I have researched the facts and they are bizarre to say the least. I am not saying that Sandy Hook didn't happen, I am saying that I think the official story is bogus (please read my preceding article for my humble opinion on the matter). In America you are no longer permitted to have your own opinion, if it goes against the government. But [8]the deep state government uses big corporations in the media business to do their dirty work, bypassing the law. That is fascism!

Purportedly, former Florida state trooper Wolfgang Halbig is officially listed as a nutcase in the police database. The man simply asked some reasonable questions, for which he was demonized. Is that how we treat our neighbour? That is why I picked Matthew 7:12 (The Golden Rule) as my text Bible verse for this blog article. Mr. Halbig did absolutely nothing wrong to ask some sincere questions. Anybody in authority could have set up a meeting to answer his questions. The city council did have a meeting, but they totally ignored his important questions! That is blatant wickedness folks. The public has a right to know about shootings and other domestic terrorist events. Why wouldn't they just answer his questions? One of the questions were: Who ordered the Port-a-potties prior to the Sandy Hook Shooting? That is a very good question. That information is now classified by the authorities! It doesn't take a college professor to see that something is rotten as can be!!! Is it hate speech to simply ask standard questions? You bet it's not.

[9]PBS News Hour made this shameful video, trying to condemn Alex Jones for saying that Sandy Hook didn't happen. Again, I am not saying it didn't happen, I am saying I don't think it happened. There's a big difference! Even if Alex Jones was found legally wrong in one video, why ban all his videos? It is obvious to me that the powers that be want to silence him completely. They want to silence Pastor Steve Anderson. They want to silence me. I am not as popular as Alex Jones or Steven Anderson, and I never will be thanks to the media censorship.

Literally, my Jesus-is-Savior.com website has[10] lost 75 % of my web visitors over the past 5 years because of Google's new algorithm. It sure feels like censorship to me. Go type "[11]Abortion is murder!" in a search engine. On Google, my webpage against abortion doesn't show up in the top 50 RESULTS! On Duck Duck Go my webpage came up 14TH PLACE in the results. I really like Google, YouTube and Blogspot, and I highly recommend all of them, they have been a blessing to my ministry for Jesus Christ, but the censorship is frustrating.

The honorable former Georgia congresswoman, Cynthia McKinney, said publicly that she is in Facebook jail

” for sharing her personal views of government corruption online. Folks this is Chinese style fascism!

I am shocked how many foolish [12]Americans think freedom of speech should be limited. So who decides what a person can or cannot say? That is what is going on on Facebook now, they are censoring anybody they don’t agree with. But you say, “They’re going by science and facts.” What a joke! Global Warming is one of the biggest hoaxes ever contrived, or is it? It all depends on whose “ science

” and “facts” you look at! Literally, the evidence can be validated either way, depending on whose facts you accept. Meteorologist John Coleman, founder of ’The Weather Channel,’ said Global Warming is a massive hoax! I agree with him, from all that I have read. Folks, a truly “free” society is one in which it is safe to be unpopular! It is not safe these days to be unpopular in America, you can lose years of hard work and in many cases your livelihood!

Kindly said, I think it is absolutely tragic that merely standing by the King James Bible can get you banned for “hate speech.” That term is often abused to silence anybody with whom leftist, liberals and ungodly people disagree. Christians have a right to speak their mind! The media is cruel and dishonest. I heard Pastor Grayson Fritts (a 20 year decorated veteran of the Knoxville, Tennessee police department) say that the government should execute homosexuals. The liberal press went ballistic, falsely printing: “Local pastor says gays should be killed.” That is not what he said, not at all. That would be hate speech!

I am totally against bashing sinners. Pastor Fritts was simply following Old Testament Mosaic law (Leviticus 20:13). Adulterers were also put to death. If adultery were a felony, we wouldn’t have the adultery problem like we do today! Hollywood glorifies the sin of adultery. It is horrible life-destroying wickedness!!! In Massachusetts, the penalty for committing adultery is a $10 fine. That is a mockery of God’s holiness. In 1962, homosexuality was still a punishable crime in all 50 states. As of 2015, it is now the permissible law of the land. What gives the United States government the right to change the standards of good and evil, as they see fit? If we take God out of the equation, men become their own God. I am not speaking against homosexuals in this article, I am simply pointing out the evils of censorship in America today. It seems like evildoers and liberals can speak all manner of evil, but the righteous and conservatives are being censored continually.

As believers God commands us to love everyone (Jude 1:22; Matthew 5:44; John 3:16). Luke 6:32, " And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

" If you were a lost man living in sin, wouldn't you want someone to love you, and not bash you, and pray for you, caring about you as a hurting human being? Sure you would. That is what the Holy Bible teaches. I do not agree with the homosexual deathstyle, and I will never go along with the LGBTQ agenda, but they are sinners for whom Christ died, and only by loving them as people will we ever win them to Christ. I do not believe that anyone is beyond the hope of redemption, regardless of how deep in sin they have gone. CHRIST DIED FOR THE UNGODLY (Romans 5:6-9).

President Trump has made it [13]illegal for college students to criticize Israel. That is not good, limiting freedom of speech. Christians are being censored and [14]even criminalized nowadays for speaking out against the sin of homosexuality. Canada is really bad, criminalizing preachers for telling the truth about the dangers of homosexuality, and you can be assured that such censorship will come to the United States very soon. Anybody who thinks homosexuality is acceptable does not know the holy God of the King James Bible. Yet, we must never reject the sinner with the sin, nor accept the sin with the sinner. I am a firm believer in loving everybody, no matter who they are. Love makes the difference! God is love. Acceptance of sin with the sinner is sinful compromise. Hating the sinner with the sin is sinful bigotry. Everyone needs the Lord. The mark of the child of God is that he loves everybody. [15]Pastor Jack Hyles said that. I choose to [16]love everybody.

I could mention many more instances of censorship in America today. It is getting out of hand. I remember after 911 that the media demonized anybody who dared to question the official narrative. Anybody who has paid attention knows that 911 was an inside job. [17]Firefighter Rudy Dent is a retired 32 year New York City fire investigator, who lost 343 firefighter brethren on 911. Rudy Dent says that 911 was an INSIDE JOB! What gives the media the right to silence, demonize and go after anybody who questions the government? These are perilous times. Paul Craig Roberts recently wrote this key article about the Coronavirus: '[18]Turning A Threat Into A Hoax!' And also, '[19]A Country Without An Honest Media Is Lost.'

I think it is tragic that Americans are getting used to being censored.

We are getting used to being lied to by the media. “

Fake News

” has now become a weapon against THE TRUTH, which is what Facebook is doing, in my humble opinion. What is fake news? Facebook’s alleged third party company that decides what is, or is not, fake news, says masks prevent Coronavirus infection. Anyone who says masks don’t work is accused of spreading fake news. I don’t know the truth about masks, but I do know that I haven’t seen as much as one sick person on Guam where I live. I’ve not even seen a cough, yet everyone is wearing masks, afraid, awaiting next orders from the government. That doesn’t seem like freedom to me.

When do the masks come off? Will social distancing ever go away? How will 35,000,000 unemployed Americans survive? Will this lead to a cashless society? I think it is pretty much a guarantee! The Antichrist is coming soon. The world is being prepared to receive him. Lying wonders are all around us (2nd Thessalonians 2:9). John 16:33, “

These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world. ” God is still on His throne. We cannot control what the Devil and the world do, but we can control what we do. I’ve been listening to [20]Alexander Scourby read the King James Bible all week, which I recommend for you too dear reader. Don’t listen to too much news. Spend time each day in the Bible, walking with God in His inspired Word continually. We are entering into dark times spiritually, when people are confused, angry, immoral and without guidance in life. Our anchor holds dear saint of God! Let’s keep our eyes focused on the blessed Savior Jesus Christ!!!

1.5.62 What The Gospel Is Not (2020-07-28 21:48)

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “ Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:”

The inspired King James Bible plainly defines “

for us as Christ’s:

1. DEATH
2. BURIAL
3. RESURRECTION

I am wanting to move back to the United States. My heart’s burden each day and night is that I am alone without a wife. It has not been easy for me to live alone for 14 years. Some people like to live alone, and that’s their decision, but I am 53 and don’t want to be alone anymore. I cannot find anybody on Guam, so I have been praying for God to give me wisdom what to do. I think moving is the only answer. I have been considering a few states, but my heart seems to be in North Carolina. I was thinking about Chattanooga, Tennessee too. But for today I’m looking at North Carolina. So I was looking for the most affordable places to live and found Durham. The city has 275,000 residents. I am researching now. Lord willing I would really like to move. I want to share my life with someone. Please pray for me.

One of the most important things to me in moving is to find a good Baptist church to attend. So I was looking today at the [1]First Baptist Church in Durham, but was saddened when I read [2]their definition of the Gospel, which according to them includes “

repenting of your sins

to be saved

. Well, I won’t be going to that church cult! Folks, the Apostle Paul defines

“

“

Christ died for our sins,

not that we must

“

turn from our sins

to be saved. There’s a really drastic difference! Beware of perverse churches, like the First Baptist Church in Durham, and the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who mess with God’s grace! Beware of perverse Bible colleges, like Bob Jones University and Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, who mess with grace!

You cannot show me one verse in the Bible that teaches to repent from your sins

” to be saved. Such wicked heresies originate in the Roman Catholic religion and man’s sinful pride. The Devil’s seat is in the church the Bible says, that is where Satan dwells (Revelation 2:13). The Devil already owns the casinos, taverns and nightclubs, so he works relentlessly to infiltrate, infect and destroy New Testament Bible-believing churches. One of the greatest evils in America today is corrupt Bible colleges, because their hundreds of theologically corrupted graduates corrupt and destroy thousands of churches! The Satanic lie that you must “ turn from your sins

is NOT a part of the saving Gospel taught by the apostles. Jesus came to SAVE US from our sins, and not WE OURSELVES from our sins!

1.5.63 Satan In Hollywood Movies (2020-07-29 01:20)

2nd Corinthians 10:4-6, “
1936

(For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)

Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God*, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

There is not a more evil place on planet earth than Hollywood. In recent years an epidemic of pedophilia in Hollywood has surfaced repeatedly in the news. Hollywood is far more homosexual than San Francisco, a cesspool is iniquity! Prouder Steven Spielberg is an extremely talented film maker, but unfortunately he is an [1]unsaved adherent to Judaism. Judaism is an arrogant religion of snobs who reject Jesus as the Messiah. According to Forbes, Mr. Spielberg has a net worth of $3,700,000,000. Spielberg has gained the world, but has lost his own soul. Judaism is a false religion. Jesus said unless a man is born-again he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God. At 73, Mr. Spielberg hope of running out, and Hell will be his eternal home if he dies in his sins without Jesus as his Savior.

Here is [2]a disturbing quote from the script of Steven Spielberg’s 1982 blockbuster movie, ’POLTERGEIST,’ in which he exalts himself against the knowledge of God...

TANGINA:

(to Diane)

Now, honey. Are you gonna be real strong for me? For your daughter? I can do absolutely nothing without your faith in this world and your love for the children.

DIANE:
I will. Believe me, I will.

TANGINA:
Will you do anything I say? Even if it comes contrary to your beliefs as a human bein' and as a Christian?

DIANE:
Oh yes. Please.

SOURCE: [3]http://www.dailyscript.com/scripts/Poltergeist.pdf

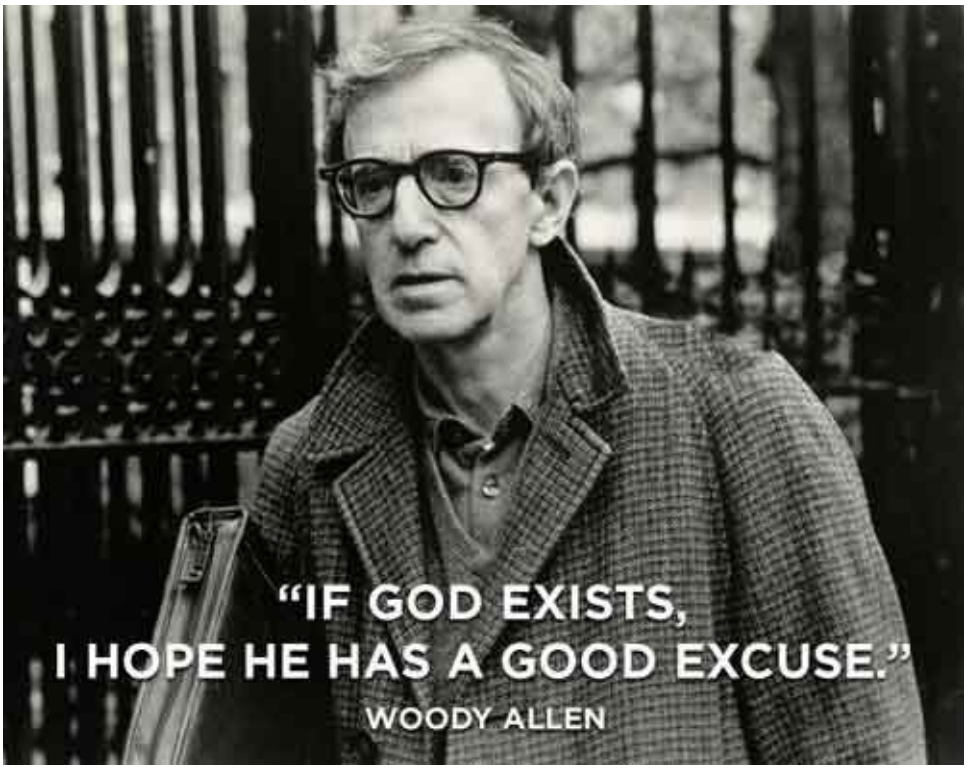
WRONG! That is the Devil talking!!! It is a wicked sin for anyone to even suggest deliberately disobeying God! If something goes against our Christian beliefs, we ought never consent to go along. Proverbs 1:10, "My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not." It is utterly disturbing that Steven Spielberg would even write this in a script for a movie! I guarantee you that he would never ask someone if they would go against Judaism. It seems that Hollywood and the ungodly media have declared open-season on Christianity, but they dare not speak ill of their own wicked false religions.

When the Apostle Peter spoke as a fool, Jesus said: "GET THEE BEHIND ME, SATAN"! Matthew 16:23, "

1938

But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men. ” So I say to Steven Spielberg: “GET THEE BEHIND ME, SATAN”!

TANGINA:
Will you do anything I say? Even if it comes contrary to your beliefs as a human bein’ and as a Christian?



DIANE:
Oh yes. Please.

SOURCE: [4]http://www.dailyscript.com/scripts/Poltergeist.pdf

I would have told Tangina: “GET THEE BEHIND ME, SATAN”! And then I would have said to her:

“THERE’S THE DOOR, PLEASE LEAVE!” If something goes contrary to my Christian beliefs, I ain’t biting! Abortion goes contrary to my Christian beliefs! The LGBTQ agenda goes contrary to my Christian beliefs! The Devil’s modern Bible revisions go contrary to my Christian beliefs. Pastor John MacArthur’s perverted Lordship Salvation goes contrary to my Christian beliefs. Bob Jones University’s perverted gospel of
“
turning from your sins
to get to Heaven
goes contrary to my Christian beliefs.
They all belong in the horror movie POLTERGEIST!!!

1.5.64 Sometimes We Need To Be Quiet And Be A Friend (2020-07-29 09:30)

Proverbs 25:20, " As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre, so is he that singeth songs to an heavy heart."

1940

There is nothing worse than someone who lacks understanding when you're having a bad day. If you're like me, you verbally vent sometimes. As humans we are creatures of emotion. My pain medications also affect my mood, so I have to be careful to take them consistently. I have emotional swings at times. I am a passionate person, which is why I love music, so I have to be careful to stay calm. When I do get emotional, I just get vocal, expressing my feelings. That is why I choose to stay home most of the time, where I am safe from people.

When someone is having a bad day, sometimes we just need a friend to be quiet, and say something encouraging. I've met A LOT of people like me. I have known some very emotionally sensitive people throughout my life. I have learned that when they vent, making inflammatory remarks, to just love them. They need a friend, not someone to make stupid statements that will exasperate their emotions, like pouring gas on a fire. I've learned that most of the time people who are venting just need a friend to be there, stay quiet, and be supportive.

Religious people are the worst! When you are having a bad day, venting, they'll say hurtful things like: "Well brother you just need to keep your eyes on the Lord." Tell me something I don't already know! They'll say stupid things like: "It sounds like you're bitter." Well give that man a blue ribbon award! Of course that person is bitter at the moment, which is why they need a friend, not a religious self-righteous hypocrite who is going to judge them! Just be a friend and don't comment. Sometimes you need to look through a person's statements and anger, and see a hurting heart. People usually hurt other people with their words because they are hurting in their soul. Oh the value of a true friend who just stays quiet. There is a time to speak up, but it is not when your friend is upset and venting.

Wise Solomon mentions the word "word" 47 times in Proverbs. In it's plural form, we find "w
mentioned 38 times. Proverbs 25:11, "A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver." We find the word "tongue" mentioned 19 times in Proverbs. Proverbs 15:2, "The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness." Proverbs 12:18, "There is that speaketh like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health." Words are like bullets, you cannot take them back once spoken. Our teeth are like bars, caging a wild beast called a " tongue.

” Don’t let the beast out, keep your mouth closed!

A godly woman refrains from speaking hurtful words. Proverbs 31:26, “ She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.” Sadly, over 95 % of professed Christians don’t control their mouth! Words are powerful. The Bible says the power of death and life are in the tongue.

Proverbs 18:21, “ Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.” Your hurtful words could cause a hurting person to go commit suicide.

By the way, your typed words can be just as hurtful as your spoken words. I have been cut to the heart in emails by people. I just give those words to the Lord, who died for all our sins. I can accept that other people hurt me, but I don’t want to be the one who does the hurting.

I wrote an article in 2016 called “ [1]30,000 Words A Day .

I found the article in a Sword of The Lord scrapbook published by Miss Viola Walden (1915-2007). The average person speaks 30,000 words each day, which in a typical human lifetime will fill a medium-sized library. I have said some really stupid things in my lifetime, which I clearly remember, and I wish I had never said them. Oh the blessedness of silence!

As an example: Many years ago, when I was still married, I spoke with a man I didn’t know well. I was buying a guitar. He was the business owner. He told me he was divorced, to which I replied:

“Oh, you’re a lucky man!” He said, “Well, I don’t know how lucky I am.” That was in the 1990’s. My wife divorced me in 2006. In a million years, I would NEVER again tell a man that he is “ lucky

” for being divorced. That was a foolish and insensitive thing I said to that man. God hates divorce (Malachi 2:16; Jeremiah 3:20). I was young and stupid, about 30 years old. Now I am 53 (and trying not to be stupid). I regret what I said.

I blurted out the first thought that came to my mind, because I had never been through a divorce. I didn’t understand the pain, betrayal, hurt, financial devastation, and consequences caused by a divorce. I sure know now! The Bible says the tongue is an unruly evil that cannot be tamed. Even a wild beast can be tamed the Bible says, but NOT the human tongue, so we need to learn to just stay quiet. James 3:7-8, “For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:

But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

God gave us TWO ears and ONE mouth to teach us that we ought to listen twice as much as we talk. That is great advice! I am reminded of a sign I saw years ago, which read: “Lord, please put Your arm around my shoulder, and Your hand over my mouth!” Amen and amen!

1.5.65 America Will Never Be ’Great’ As Long As She Is Wicked (2020-07-29 22:00)

Proverbs 14:34, “ Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people. ”

I don’t intend to rain on anybody’s parade, but the Holy Bible says SIN IS A REPROACH TO ANY PEOPLE. We Americans tend to condemn Muslim nations where homosexuality is still a punishable crime. In fact, at least eight Muslim nations impose the death penalty for sodomites.

President Donald Trump has called worldwide for the decriminalizing of homosexuality. So while Mr. Trump has all the churches and Christians giving him support, because he says all the right things to charm them, in reality he is very much fighting to give rights to homosexuals. That is not a godly man. That is not making America

I am not anti-American, I am very patriotic, which is why I uphold the Bible’s truth that SIN IS A REPROACH TO ANY PEOPLE!!!

America’s [1]founding fathers loathed homosexuality :

> Note that our first President [George Washington] viewed “sodomy” or homosexual relations with “Abhorrence and Detestation.” He was not a spineless, wishy-washy, panty-waisted man like the current occupant of the White House, who claims his views have “evolved.” He was a man that recognized perverse behavior for what it was, perversion. He was not alone either. In all thirteen colonies homosexuality was treated as a criminal offense and eventually that grew to encompass each and every one of the fifty states. By the way, that fell under “equal treatment under the law.”
> SOURCE: [2]https://freedomoutpost.com/what-the-founders-believed-about-homosexualit y

Here is [3]a recent President Trump campaign video. It is a nice video, but the video by Mr. Trump for his 2020 reelection is distorted. He talks about God and freedom, but in today’s sick and ungodly America, that includes homosexuals getting married and legally adopting children. That is child abuse in my opinion. Two sodomites ought not be entrusted to raise a child. If that is hate speech to you, you need to get right with God, and then you’ll see the truth. This country has gone insane!

Please understand that I am not advocating hatred toward anyone, God forbid. We ought to love and treat everyone kindly. But every child needs a mother and a father for healthy mental development. It sickens me that so-called" experts" would even dare attempt to legitimize intentionally depriving a child of a male and female parental role model. Two men kissing and jumping each other’s bones in the bedroom is not a healthy environment for a child to be raised. Tragically, as our ungodly American society drifts farther and farther away from Christianity and sanity, the righteous are being viewed as weirdos, bigots and haters. Psalms 97:10, “Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.” Evil is willful and deliberate sinning!

I definitely think President Trump will be re-elected in 2020. I think it was planned that way from the very start. I heard Mr. Trump say in 2016 that he will serve two terms in office. I think he will take us to war, likely with Iran, but he has also mentioned North Korea also. I’m sure they’ll find someone to go to war with. War means big money for the banks. There are always spoils in war, just like in the Bible. Only 8 % of history has been without war! My personal opinion is that this whole Coronavirus pandemic is just another 911 INSIDE JOB! I think that for a few reason. One is because 911 happened, and no one was ever brought to justice, and 911 was used as a pretext to create a domestic police state. TSA is nothing short of Nazi-Germany at all airports. Homeland Security was started in 2002 because of 911. The treasonous Patriot Acts were enacted into law, stripping Americans of our rights. Two illegal wars were perpetrated against innocent countries. This is all so evil.

And now we're supposed to believe that the Coronavirus is the reason for locking down the entire country, in a thug police state! If I am correct, this is all leading to an ugly dystopian future in America. Author George Orwell was right, who said to picture the future as the government's big boot stomping down on your face! Can you feel it? YOU WILL!!!

President Trump is not the answer to our nation's problems. I like Mr. Trump and he is much better than all U.S. Presidents before him, I think, at least since John F. Kennedy. But President Trump's nominated "profoundly conservative" judge Neil Gorsuch just ruled in favor of LGBTQ rights in the workplace. Now if a business hires a man, but he comes back a week later as a woman, they cannot fire him. For that reason I wouldn't even think of opening a business in this sick country. I don't want cross-dressers for waiters in my restaurant. This is a so-called "

conservative

" judge in the U.S. Supreme Court. It just shows that being conservative is merely a superficial label. At the end of the day they rule in favor of whatever their Freemason masters tell them to do.

And just so you know, wherever I go I am always respectful and loving toward everyone, even if they are a homosexual. From my own personal experience in dealing with gays, they usually mistreat me as a Christian. When they see my cap which reads "Jesus," I can see the contempt on their face. I don't think the contempt is toward me, but for the Lord Himself. John 7:7, "The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil." How does Jesus testify against the sin of the world? Why, Jesus is THE WORD OF GOD (Revelation 19:13; John 1:1-13, 14). Jesus is the Living Word. The Bible is the Written Word. Evangelist John R. Rice used to call them " twins.

" The Word of God condemns the world because of sin. God's law curses all men because of sin. Thankfully, God has made a way of escape through faith in Jesus Christ.

I saw this video recently titled: “ [4]Seattle Is Dying , in which they show that homeless people are legally allowed now to carry and use illegal drugs like Methamphetamine.

So I don’t go along with President Trump’s rhetoric of
“

Make America Great Again,

because as long as men can get married to men, and women with women, and adopt children, pastor churches and serve as our nation’s respected leaders, this nation will remain a disgrace to the world, and cannot be

“G reat.

Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) is right, who says in his sermon

“ [5] T

HE TITANIC

that:
“

America was ’great’ when she was good, and she was good when she had great churches!

Not lousy churches like Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who cannot even get the Gospel correct, cannot pick which Bible to use, and don’t care about people.

As long as abortion is legal America cannot be
“

great

! We are not
“

because we only murder 750,000 babies this year, as compared to 1,200,000 babies a few years ago! Our nation cannot be

great

” as long as Hollywood continues to pay unmarried people to lay in bed together with their clothes off, kissing and fondling for the movie camera, committing adultery for the world to see just for everyone’s entertainment (Romans 1:32). This is wickedness!!! God will not bless a wicked nation, which is why God’s hand of blessing has been slowly departing from our land. Our pulpits are weak today! Our homes are in shambles! Our nation is in a mess! This situation didn’t create itself overnight, it is the consequence of decades of foolish decisions, ungodly laws, and a prevalence of immorality in our country! Brother Lester Roloff is right: “

We’re in insanity because of sin!

I like a lot of things that President Trump says and does, but he is making America worse by protecting the rights of sodomites in the land. He has no choice, because if he refuses to go along with the LGBTQ agenda, it would be career suicide for him. The very thought of allowing sodomites to adopt children is shocking! Something is very wrong with our country, yet we are trying to slap a label of how “

we are doing. It’s not so great! People want it to be great again, and so they are blinded to reality that sin undermines any people. Proverbs 14:34, "Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people."

1.5.66 Beware Of Thomas Nelson Publishers And Doreen Virtue (2020-07-29 22:30)

Hebrews 1:1-2, “

God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;

God is not speaking today to Muslims or anyone else through dreams and visions. Dear reader, we are living in times of woeful Satanic deception. Jesus warned us that MANY FALSE PROPHETS would come in His name. Matthew 24:5, "For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many." The Lord warned us that not just a few, but MANY false teachers, would come professing the name of Jesus to deceive us. We find a group of false converts in Matthew 7:21-23. They called Jesus, "LORD, LORD," but He did not know them at all.

I was disgusted today to learn that Nelson Publishers is selling and promoting a book by [1]false prophetess' Doreen Virtue. Miss Virtue claims that she saw a vision on January 7, 2017 at a liberal church she attended. Doreen states:

> "So at that liberal church, on January 7, 2017, I had a vision, and at the time I really thought it was Jesus. It was this man, in dark hair, dark skin, with a big bright light coming out of his chest, that I could feel the light." —False Prophetess Doreen Virtue, '[2]Apostasy Report: Doreen Virtue Is Still Deceived'

In her book preview for "Deceived No More: How JESUS Led Me out of NEW AGE and into HIS WORD," on Amazon.com, on page 99 (you have to login to read it), she says:

> "My vision also reminds me of the reports from Muslims who have dreams or visions of a 'man in a white robe,' which leads them to embrace Christianity. Tom Doyle, author of Dreams and Visions: Is Jesus Awakening the Muslim World?' found that some Muslims' dreams point them to a specific person. They meet that person soon after having the dream, and that person turns out to be a Christian evangelizer who leads the Muslim to study the Bible and convert to Christianity." —Doreen Virtue,
> Deceived No More: How JESUS Led Me out of NEW AGE and into HIS WORD," p. 99

Ladies and gentleman, that is of the Devil. The Bible plainly teaches in our text passage from Hebrews 1:1-2 that God does NOT speak to anyone today through dreams and visions. God speaks to us through the Son, that is, the Word of God (John 1:1-14; Revelation 19:13). Did you know that Evangelist Ray Comfort endorses Doreen's heretical book? It is true. Dr. John MacArthur's buddy, Pastor Justin Peters, has also endorsed her demonic book! Pastor Costi Hinn also bids Godspeed to this new age heretic! Shame on Nelson Publishers for publishing this heresy!

In their biography of Doreen Virtue, Thomas Nelson Publishers wrote:

> Raised in Christian Science, Doreen Virtue was formerly the top-selling New Age author at the world's largest New Age publisher, until Jesus opened her eyes to the gospel. She got baptized for the first time, began spreading the gospel message, and denouncing the New Age. After getting fired from her New Age publisher and losing most of her friends, some of her family members, enduring cruel slander and spiritual warfare, and losing her home, Doreen and her husband, Michael, began rebuilding their lives on the solid foundation of Jesus. They learned how to trust in God, instead of trying to predict or control the future. Today, they live in the Pacific Northwest where they attend a biblically solid church and Doreen attends seminary studying biblical theology so that she won't be deceived again. [emphasis added] —
> [3]Thomas Nelson Publishers, biography of Doreen Virtue

Miss Virtue ought not be writing or selling books, since she is ignorant and unlearned in the Scriptures (2nd Peter 3:16-17). Folks, beware of ANYONE who has a book to sell, let alone someone who claims to have seen a VISION! Doreen is a false prophet, who is going to make millions of dollars from the sale of her new book. As I just quoted to you, she claims to have seen a vision. Doreen doesn't know if it was Jesus or a demon that she saw, but we know whatever she may have seen, IT WAS NOT OF GOD!!! You can be assured that it was a demon, or her own mind, or whatever; BUT IT WAS NOT THE HOLY SPIRIT!!!

This is serious stuff my friend! This woman is not doctrinally sound in the faith. Doreen is NOT a born-again Christian. [4]She is a supporter of Ray Comfort. Mr. Comfort is a nice man, but he is a dangerous false prophet theologically, who adds to the Gospel of free grace.

[5]Ray Comfort heretically says concerning salvation:

> "So man, think about that. this is your eternity, you don't know when you're going to die. You know, God offers you everlasting life as a free gift, if you'll let go of your sins. And we love to fornicate, we love pornography, we love our lust; but like a kid holding onto a stick of dynamite, not realizing that it will be the death of us! So think about that. Think how much you value your eyes, and think about how much you value your life. Jesus said, 'What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul." [emphasis added] —Evangelist Ray Comfort, YouTube video titled: "[6]Ray Comfort Doesn't Share the Gospel with Him..." (video posted on May 31, 2020)

[7]Ray Comfort teaches the heresy of Lordship Salvation, nor Free Grace Theology. Birds of a feather flock together. It's all about making lots of money with these people. Ray Comfort takes in about $4 million a year. Pastor John MacArthur has a new worth of about $14 million. Pastor David Jeremiah is worth $50 million. These are not men of God. Doreen Virtue just wants to make money, exploiting a niche in the religious world. Ken Ham is another false prophet, who takes in about $37 million per year, by exploiting the niche of creationism. These are all con artists, who promote each other, refuse to criticize one another, and live the life of Riley.

The Devil is in the religious business, and he has many entrepreneurs. Man is incurably religious! Pastor Dwight L. Moody is right, who said that most people have just enough religion to be miserable. I have never made a penny for serving God, and I never will. I do what I do for the love of Jesus and the truth, and you dear reader! Have you been deceived by Satan? We know that anyone who claims to have seen a vision, or received a dream, didn't get it from God. Sadly, Doreen is using her alleged vision on January 7, 2017 to draw much public attention to her. Millions of people will buy her book because she claims to have seen a vision. Why won't people just accept the King James Bible? John 5:43, " I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive." Beware of false prophets!!!

1.5.67 Beware Of All The Fake End Times Hype (2020-07-31 09:30)

Matthew 24:4-12, “ And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places. All these are the beginning of sorrows. Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name’s sake. And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another. And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. ”

One of my well-meaning web visitors recently sent me the following information, allegedly from Wikipedia, trying to convince me that Jesus is about to return (also citing the above passage of Scripture)...

WARS:

According to a Wikipedia list of wars, the past 500 years have witnessed an increase in the frequency of wars:

15th Century – 29 wars
16th Century – 59 wars
17th Century – 75 wars
18th Century – 69 wars
19th Century – 294 wars
20th Century – 278 wars

FAMINES:

According to a Wikipedia list of famines, the past 500 years have also witnessed an increase in the frequency of famines:

15th Century – 6 famines
16th Century – 10 famines
17th Century – 24 famines
18th Century – 28 famines
19th Century – 30 famines
20th Century – 44 famines

EARTHQUAKES:

According to a Wikipedia list of earthquakes, the past 500 years have witnessed the following number of earthquakes described as a magnitude 7.0 or greater:

15th Century – 2 earthquakes
16th Century – 3 earthquakes
17th Century – 7 earthquakes
18th Century – 13 earthquakes
19th Century – 29 earthquakes
20th Century – 123 earthquakes

Is this true? Are there more earthquakes today than ever before? No, it is not true! I don't want to rain on anyone's parade, but [1]the U.S. government even verifies that there are not more earthquakes today than in previous centuries. We simply have more fancy equipment and seismic meters monitoring the earth today.

How about more famines? Over time, famines have [2] increasingly become a “manmade” phenomena , becoming more clearly attributable to political causes, non-democratic government, corruption, natural disasters and tribal conflict. As the world’s population grows, the threat of famine increases. So there is some truth to this. Albeit, it is important to consider everything mentioned in Mark 13 and Matthew 24, and not just cherry-pick prophetic events. There is also mention of the sun and moon not shining anymore, and the stars falling, and the power of the heavens being shaken, which hasn’t happened yet.

How about more wars? There is [3]much ongoing debate about the probability and frequency of wars. I find that none of these things indicate the soon return of Jesus Christ.

I don’t mean to rain of anyone’s prophetic parade, but I am leery and wearied with Rapture date-setters like, Evangelist Robert Breaker, who foolish and heretically predicated Christ’s return in 2017, 2018 and unbelievably,

Mr. Breaker crunched a bunch of numbers and is [4]predicting Jesus’ return also in 2019! What a theological nutcase! As we all know, the Rapture didn’t happen in 2017, 2018 or 2019! Even so, come, Lord Jesus!!! Please don’t believe anyone who sets a date for the Lord’s return. Jesus said no man knows the time of His return:

> Mark 13:29-33, “So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.
>
> Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.
>
> Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away. But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.
>
> Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.
> **”

Mark 13:3-4 says that Peter, James and Andrew privately asked Jesus for the signs of His return. Mark 13 parallels Matthew 24. The Lord warns of many false prophets, earthquakes, wars and famines that would come. I think it is a mistake to read into these things, claiming that the Lord's return is near, while ignoring the rest of the Scripture.

Mark 13:24-25, " But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken." This passage of Scripture proves that we are NOT in the Tribulation in 2020. People take only what they want to take from the Bible, claiming that we are in the Tribulation, but the sun is not failing to shine, nor is the moon being darkened, nor are the stars falling, nor are the powers of the heavens being shaken! Clearly, we are not in the Tribulation period yet!

I am eager for the Lord's return as much as anybody, but I am not going to twist the Scripture to set dates, claim we're in the Tribulation, and make erroneous assumptions about the Lord's return.

Albeit, I do think it is obvious that we are living in the end times. I do not know when the Lord will return. I do not know when the Tribulation will start. I do not know when the Antichrist will appear. The strongest evidence that I have to give you, that we are now living in the end times of Bible prophecy, is [5]Nebuchadnezzar's image from Daniel chapter two . I highly encourage you to read the preceding Bible study link from Revelation 12:10-11. There have been six kings so far throughout human civilization; namely, Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece and Rome, all of which are fallen in 2020. Today, we are living in the forming seventh kingdom, which is the New World Order. From this seventh kingdom will arise the eighth, or the Antichrist. This is my interpretation of this Scripture passage.

According to Nebuchadnezzar's image, we are now living in the time of the feet of iron mixed with clay. No one nation rules the world today, as the six previous kingdoms did in ancient times, but there are several superpowers today (USA, Russia, China, India, France, Israel, Pakistan, et cetera). The Bible teaches that no man, not even the angels, know the time of Christ's return (Mark 13:33). I would never set a date, nor even hint at a year. Granted, it is obvious that the New World Order is now forming, and the world is awaiting for the appearing of the Man of Sin, the Antichrist, and this means that Jesus' return at the Rapture is nearer than ever before! We are commanded in Titus 2:13 and Mark 13:37 to " for the Lord's return at any time. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!!!

Make Sure You Are Born-again In Christ Jesus

There is nothing more important, than WHERE you will spend eternity dear friend. Are you ready to meet your Maker? Have you been born-again? Please b elieve in Jesus today before it is too late. Jesus paid your debt of sin on the cross. He died in your place and mine. Christ died on the cross, was buried, and three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). If you believe that truth, and receive it as your own, relying upon Christ' sacrifice on the cross as sole payment for your sins, then you have eternal life. You have God's promise on it! John 6:28-29,

"Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

Eternity in Hell is a fearful thing, suffering forever. The Holy Bible says to simply on the name of Jesus, who died on the cross for your sins, was buried, and three days later physically resurrected from the dead (1 Corinthians 15:1-4). If you'll believe (rely upon) this truth of the Gospel, you will be immediately saved, eternally saved and irrevocably saved.

"believe"

Our text passage is about the Tribulation period, which is not here yet. I firmly believe in a pretribulation Rapture, and no one has ever convinced me otherwise. Nothing else fits doctrinally. Those preachers who insist on a mid (prewrath) or post tribulation Rapture, cannot explain many things, and I find loopholes (bugs) in their theology. Nearly every great man of God who preached the Gospel throughout the 20th century taught a pretribulaiton Rapture, and I concur with them based upon my own understanding of the Holy Bible. We read in Titus 2:13, "Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; " Now, if I am to LOOK FOR THE BLESSED SAVIOR, then Jesus must return BEFORE the Tribulation. If Christ will not return until after the Antichrist appears in the middle of the Tribulation, then we should be LOOKING FOR THE ANTICHRIST instead! So clearly, the only doctrinal position that makes sense Biblically is a pretribulation Rapture of The Church (i.e., all the saints, both dead and living).

God bless you dear friend. The important thing is to make sure you are saved, and if you are to get busy serving the Lord while we still can, preaching the Gospel to get more people saved.

1.5.68 Voting Democrat Could Be The End Of America (2020-07-31 22:30)

Isaiah 1:4-7, " Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward. Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment. Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers."

That Bible passage sure does describe the United States today! We are a sinful nation. Fornication is everywhere. Abortion is common place and has been acceptable since 1973, costing the lives of 60 million Americans. Political corruption is unbelievably blatant in congress and it is clear we are in trouble. In a couple of strokes of a pen (just eliminate the first two amendments to the Constitution) and America could be gone.

In America, we have already a largely eliminated the true biblical Gospel and Judeo Christian culture.

Decency and humanity are leaving.

If we got rid of freedom of speech freedom of religion and gun rights and countermanded capitalism with extremely high taxation, essentially without owning the means of production the government would take control of most of your money as is the case in certain countries in Europe, France for one.

I don’t agree with a lot of things President Trump has done, like appointing a so-called conservative judge who just voted to give homosexuals workplace protection status. Now, if you hire a man to work for you, but he comes back over the weekend as a woman, you cannot fire him. Thanks a lot Mr. Trump! Still, I also like many things about President Trump, that he sides with the churches. Is that a decoy? Time will tell. It seems that Democrat and Republican are merely two separate legs both walking in the same direction of a New World Order. Albeit, v oting Democrat in the next U.S. presidential election in November 2020 is no laughing matter, it could be the end of America, literally.

1.6.1 Devil Dog Preacher Ravi Zacharias (2020-08-01 10:30)

2nd Corinthians 11:3, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him. "

I thank God for all THE TRUTH which He has shown unto me. 1st Corinthians 2:9-10, "But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God." Genesis 32:10, "I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands." Thank you God!!!

One of the most subtle, wealthy, popular and dangerous FALSE PROPHETS today is Ravi Zacharias. His ministry rakes in about $25,000,000 each year. Spiritual crime pays! Ravi has been invited to speak in over 55 countries, and [1]Mormons love him! I have nothing personal against Mr. Zacharias, but he is preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL, and I have a duty as a born-again child of God to "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints" (Jude 1:3b).

In a YouTube video titled: "[2]How Can Someone Receive Jesus' Gift Of Salvation?," Ravi says the following to have a relationship with Jesus...

> "In fact when Jesus comes into your life, he helps you cross the greatest bridge, from the head to the heart. I experienced that at the age 17. The fact that I could pray and invite Jesus Christ into my life—a simple prayer—asking Him to become my Savior, and the transformation He brought; how He changed not only my life, but years later my father's life. And I would like you, to bow your head and with me repeat a simple prayer, if you want this to happen in your life. Just pray with me one sentence at a time:

> Heavenly Father, I thank you for loving me. I need your forgiveness. I need your salvation. Lord Jesus, enter into my heart. Change me. Give me with your presence. Help me to follow you. I receive you, this moment, and commit my life to you. Thank you Father. In Jesus' name, Amen!"

SOURCE: YouTube - '[3]How Can Someone Receive Jesus' Gift Of Salvation?'

Folks, that is not '[4]THE GOSPEL'! Let's break down Ravi's unbiblical plan of salvation and list his requirements to be saved:

1. Repeat a prayer
2. Invite Christ into your life
3. Ask Jesus to become your Savior
4. Thank God for loving you
5. Tell God you need forgiveness
6. Tell God you need His salvation
7. Ask Jesus to enter into your heart
8. Ask Jesus to change you
9. Ask Jesus to give you His presence
10. Ask Jesus to help you follow Him
11. Receive Jesus

12. Commit your life to Jesus

Wow! Ravi Zacharias gives 12 THINGS to do in his suggested prayer to be saved. Did you notice the BIGGEST MISTAKE Ravi made? He left out "THE GOSPEL" entirely! Ravi doesn't even mention Jesus dying on the cross to pay for our sins. Ravi doesn't mention Christ's DEATH, BURIAL nor RESURRECTION. I mean, that is "THE GOSPEL" after all, but he leaves it off completely!!! That is why I justly call Ravi "a devil dog preacher!"

And kindly, so are the shameful pastors of the apostate Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for inviting, promoting and honoring, and God forbid, BIDDING GODSPEED to this [5]wicked man who teaches doctrines of devils!!! 1st Timothy 4:1, "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;" I understand that there is something called "semantics," where different preachers each word the plan of salvation a little differently, but Ravi MISSES THE BALLPARK COMPLETELY!!! If they don't want to accept me as a part of their family for the sake of love at Harvest, then I will expose them for the sake of truth! When churchgoers are more loyal to ungodly pastors than to God, apostasy has overtaken the churches! The [6]Bob Jones University crowd wreak with the stench of favoritism, prejudice and carnality.

[7]Ravi Zacharias says to tell God that you need forgiveness and salvation. Folks, God already knows what you need! Ravi says to tell God that you love Him. That's sweet, but this is not a part of the Gospel to be saved. What in the world does asking Jesus to "change you" have to do with receiving the free gift of eternal life? Following Jesus is not a part of the Gospel. Judas followed Christ, but died in unbelief, and is now burning in Hell forever. Neither do you have to commit your life to Jesus to be saved. Forgiveness of sins and eternal life are a free gift! Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." If I give you a gift, all you need to do is freely receive it; you don't have to "ask" me for it, because I am offering it to you. The same is true with salvation, Jesus has already paid the price for your sins with His blood, and all you have to do is freely take it by faith. Ravi has wickedly ADDED a bunch of junk to embellish the Gospel.

[8]Heresy Of Having To "Pray" To Be Saved

(Be very careful—make sure to preach the Gospel!)

My intent is not to criticize Ravi Zacharias, for I am the biggest sinner I know. I am sure he is a wonderful man to know in real life. He seems like a nice person. However, I am strictly refuting his unbiblical teachings that help the Devil BLIND “the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them” (2nd Corinthians 4:4b).

The interviewer follows after Ravi’s Satanic plan of salvation by saying: “I hope you will pray that prayer and mean it!” My friend, you can “PRAY THAT PRAYER” a thousand times and go straight to Hell to burn forever when you die!!! Sadly, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam invited, praised and honored this ungodly man in June of 2017. They invited Mr. Zacharias to speak to 1,000 local guests, church members and military who came to hear him preach.

> “The backslider likes the preaching that wouldn’t hit the side of a house, while the real disciple is delighted when the truth brings him to his knees.” —Evangelist Billy Sunday (1862-1935)

What is happening dear reader is that money-hungry Bible colleges are selling pieces of paper called “degrees” for the right price, to anybody who shows up to class and meets the minimum requirements; but when they graduate they cannot discern THE TRUTH, cannot preach their way out of a paper bag, and are mere parasites off Christendom!!! Dead spiritual leaders produce dead followers!!! Only preachers can reproduce preachers, which is why Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) put preachers instead of teachers into the classrooms at Hyles-Anderson College (while Brother Hyles was still alive on earth), which is why my website ministry is here—I am a Bible-preacher!!! Love me or hate me, “But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me” (1st Corinthians 15:10). God loves you dear reader and so do I.

We've got a bunch of spiritually dead churches and Bible Bible colleges today, who are more concerned about making money, training nurses, and teaching how to play musical instruments, than they are about trying to save a nation for God with Bible-preaching and soulwinning!!! I'm talking about apostate Bob Jones University, Pensacola Christian College, Ambassador Bible College, Crown Bible College, Dallas Theological Cemetery, Moody Bible SINstitute, and Hyles-Anderson College today (who no longer believe that the King James Bible is inspired). My God, what the hell is going on in churches today? Has everybody lost their guts and backbone? Has everybody lost their spiritual discernment? I sure feel like the Lone Ranger these days! I am so grateful for modest ladies, caring Christians, and uncompromising Bible-preachers, and I truly thank God for BOTH OF YOU!!!

I Wish Churches Cared About The Truth

Kindly, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam promotes Ravi Zacharias. Ravi is now in Hell in my humble opinion, because he followed Jesus, living the Christian life, but was never born-again. Harvest chooses to go to Hell with their pastors, for their Lordship Salvation lie, who despise me and won't have anything to do with me, simply because I told THE TRUTH as a friend to them. They really owe me a big apology for this whole ordeal since November of 2014, because I did the right thing from the start in November of 2013. They'll never do that though, because in my humble opinion they are sinfully proud men, fake ministers according to 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15. I was hoping to make peace with them for the 2019 holidays and come back to their church in 2020, because I have been hurting for a long time without a church family, but they couldn't care less. I am casting my pearl before the swine. I am faced with the harsh reality that Harvest Baptist Church on Guam has become a mere religious business, where people don't really matter. This is the horrible world that we live in today! All I ever humbly requested (umpteen times) since 2017 is to simply attend church services. They have consistently refused me! God will be their only Judge (Romans 14:10).

They are ungodly pastors and I will expose them for what they are—apostates! I have a right to my opinion, just like they do. If we can't get along inside the church family, then so be it, I will express my opinions outside the family. All I have ever wanted since 2014 is to attend a local church, but the truth of the matter is that they are serving Satan, and I think God must be protecting me from them! I don't know how, where or when, but God is going to reckon Harvest for their wickedness, it is just a matter of time. No one can mock God and get away with it (Galatians 6:7). In fact, the context of that Scripture passage from Galatians 6:7 is that a works-based cult had infiltrated the churches of Galatia (Galatians 3:1-11), just like John MacArthur and Steve Pettit have [9]infiltrated Bob Jones University with their damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation.

Just like all the wicked people in America, who sin and snub their noses at God, so also have Harvest's pastors and complicit staff snubbed God with their arrogance, heresy, indifference, woeful lack of love for hurting people like me, and apostasy! Sadly, as long as their paychecks keep coming, they couldn't care less! It is a crying shame that Harvest bids Godspeed to evildoers. God curses Harvest according to Galatians 1:6-9. I love them all tremendously, God knows my heart, but they do not love God, truth nor me.

What Exactly Is The Gospel?

What saith the Scripture? The word "Gospel" means "Good News" or "Glad Tidings." There is no need to guess what the "Gospel" is because the Bible plainly tells us. The "Gospel" is the Good News of Christ's DEATH on the cross for our sins, His BURIAL and bodily RESURRECTION three days later:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

We are saved by BELIEVING "the Gospel," which is the power of God unto salvation. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." It is that simple to be saved. If you'll simply come to God as a needy sinner, and receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins—believing that He died, was buried and bodily resurrected three days later from the dead—then YOU'LL BE IMMEDIATELY, IRREVERSIBLY AND FOREVER SAVED!

I love you dear web visitor with God's unconditional love. I have never felt so lonely in all my life as I do nowadays, in so many ways, but "I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:" (Job 19:25b). Job 13:15, "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him." I always feel like no one wants to be around me, as Brother Hyles said he used to feel, because of his stand for truth and right. I feel like no woman would ever want to marry a guy like me, in pain and a devil-fighter (I guess that's good practice for marriage...lol).

In a sermon, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) said his adult daughter, Cindy, used to ask him for a dinner date, so she could ask his advice. Brother Hyles said he knew she didn't really need advice, she simply knew that he needed to FEEL NEEDED. I sure know that feeling. I think that is beautiful what his daughter did for her Dad. I especially know that lonely feeling, being alone without a wife for the past 14 years since 2006, but I thank God that He PROMISES In Hebrews 13:5 never to leave nor forsake me as His child. Jesus is precious!!!

1.6.2 We’re In A Mess Because No One Wants To Speak Up (2020-08-01 22:30)

Ephesians 5:10-12, “ Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.”

We’re in a horrible mess in America because no one wants to preach against anything anymore! We are living in a generation of deviates, pleasure-seekers, perverts and ungodly reprobates. Every single day in the United States $29 million gallons of booze is sold! Another $35 million of indecent smut is sold each day in America! There are 30,000 11 year old children each year who get pregnant in the United States. A shocking 750,000 unwed teenage girls give birth each year in the United States. I just read last week about a man in Ohio having a womb surgically transplanted into him, so he can give birth to a baby. We’re in insanity because of sin!!!

The Devil’s crowd have been effective at silencing God-fearing Christians, by labeling the truth as “

HATE SPEECH

”! A Bible-preacher is supposed to offensive to sinners! I wouldn’t give you a dime for a preacher who is reluctant to preach against sin! Neo-evangelical preachers have sinfully corrupted the Gospel, in a wicked attempt to force people to forsake their sins and live a holy life. If preachers would stand up for righteousness, and preach uncompromisingly without apology against all manner of sin, then we wouldn’t have so much disregard for right and love for wrong in our American society!!! As Americans we ought to give up our WRONGS, not our RIGHTS!

I am listening to a red-hot, hell-fire and damnation sermon right now by Pastor Phil Kidd (I love this truth-telling courageous preacher), which will offend the unrighteous. If you love God and righteousness, as I humbly do by God’s grace, then you have to love [1]Phil Kidd’s preaching. The sermon is called: ’[2]Sodomite Strategy.’ Since homosexuals cannot reproduce, they recruit. They do it through the political realm through polluting the minds of the next generation. They want to penetrate all levels of social standards. They don’t care if you’re a loser or a leader, they want you involved in their LGBTQ agenda, to pressure Christians to back off and shut up! In a short time, Christians will be arrested and prosecuted in the United States for trying to protect children from the LGBTQ agenda. [3]It is already happening in Canada!

Please understand that I am not encouraging hatred or mistreatment toward anyone, God forbid. I would never do that. I am simply pointing out that we're in a mess in our country because most Christians have remained silent, while liberals, kooks and leftists have taken over our schools, government and infiltrated every level of society. You know America is gone when liberal senators are complaining and trying to stop a U.S. President from nominating pro-life judges to the U.S. Supreme Court!!! Proverbs 14:34, " Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people." Another needful sermon is by Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) titled: '[4]Steps In The Degeneration Of Our Nation.'

I will never act like I accept this perverted LGBTQ deathstyle. I am not going to live in fear of upholding the Biblical truth that God created Adam and Eve, not Adam and Steve. That is not hate speech, that is THE TRUTH! God doesn't make mistakes! We've got sodomites working as Bible translators. The chairman of the Old Testament translating committee, Dr. Martin Woudstra, was an open homosexual. Any preacher that would use the NIV)is a promoter of perversion! [5]This is where America is right now! (pay attention to how many predators are homosexuals). We need to get the King James Bible back into the public schools. Children need a moral compass! I am not bashing gay people, I am saying that homosexuality is a perverse deathstyle that brings the judgment of God!

This country has gone crazy! It is because we have not dealt with the evils of abortion, sodomy and perversion as a nation. Our perverse laws need to change in this country! I am never for being unkind to anyone, but I am for having laws that uphold righteousness! If you don't speak out against evil, you're a part of the problem! The liberals, kooks and Marxists sure voice their ungodly opinions, but increasingly we're not allowed as God-fearing Christians to voice our opinions without being censored and banned from social media. I have been very careful how I type my words, so as to avoid sounding hateful. I love people, but I hate evil. The heathen world often get the two confused, because their mind is broken.

A popular saying nowadays in children's playgrounds is: "

If you see something, say something!

1968

” Yet, our society applauds homosexuals getting married and adopting children. What is wrong with us? A child deserves a normal home! Anybody who thinks two lesbians raising a child is normal is a wicked person in God’s sight. You cannot have a lewd society that allows, encourages and glorifies all manner of sin, public nudity, perversion and immorality for adults, and seriously expect all that not to affect children. A society cannot play with fire and expect its children not to get burned. Argue as one may, the statistics and daily news prove what I say. America’s children will never be safe until the adults get right with God!

I am not condemning homosexuals, the Bible already condemns all of us as being guilty sinners (Romans 3:19-20; John 7:7). I am not condemning anybody. Jesus Himself said in John 3:17 that He didn’t come into the world to condemn sinners, but to SAVE THEM! My heart’s desire is the same. I don’t want to be mean or hurt anyone’s feelings, but I must speak THE TRUTH to please my God and Savior! We’ve got a sin problem in America.

The same is true of booze! Society accepts getting buzzed with alcohol, just so long as there is a designated sober driver. Unfortunately, life doesn’t work that way usually! These teen girls went out to party in a bar, and [6]a 22 year old drunk man ran over one of the college girls. Oh how sin thrills and then it kills! Oh how sin fascinates and then it assassinates! God loves you oh sinner, and so do I, please get and stay right with God. There is nothing wrong in our nation today that couldn’t be remedied by raising up a generation of youth on the King James Bible, who are taught the Gospel to get them saved; and then teach them to love their neighbour as thy self, and teach them personal responsibility, discipline and moral character. We’ve got a bunch of humanists, atheists, evolutionists and communists coming out of our wicked public school system, who are ticking time-bombs! Truly, Satan is the god of this messed-up world (2nd Corinthians 4:4; Revelation 12:9). Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

> “If your moral judgment is crooked and rotten, and you have no Bible conviction, when the conscience says, ’Do right!’, you may do what your moral judgment said for you to do, and it’s wrong! That’s the reason we need Christian schools. That’s the reason we need Christian homes, to teach our young people!” (a truthful quote from the precious MP3 sermon by Brother Lester Roloff, “[7]Titanic”)

1.6.3 The Worst Pervert In America Is The Gospel Pervert (2020-08-02 10:00)

Galatians 1:6-9,

" I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

The heretical teaching of Lordship Salvation is totally incompatible with the Gospel of free grace. The King James Bible warns about false teachers who "PERVERT" the Scripture. The word "pervert" in Galatians 1:7 is the Greek word metastrephō, which means to "transmute; this is, change or alter in form, appearance, or nature." Any time someone alters or changes the nature of the Gospel, they have perverted it. The nature of the Gospel is simply that all mankind are guilty sinners (Romans 3:10-23; 5:12). There is a penalty for our sins, which is death (Romans 6:23; Hebrews 9:27). This includes a second death in Hell forever (Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8; Psalms 9:17; Luke 16:19-31).

The "Good News" (or "Gospel") is that God loves humanity, and has made a way of escape through the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on Calvary's cross (John 19-20; Romans 5:6-9). Jesus died on the cross for our sins, He was buried, and physically resurrected after three days (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Anyone who comes to God as a needy sinner, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, is immediately and forever saved (i.e., born-again, regenerated, redeemed, a saint, a child of God). That is the simple, easy, free and only way to receive God's free gift of eternal life, by faith (Ephesians 2:8-9; Galatians 3:26).

Anyone who alters or changes the nature of the Gospel has perverted God's grace! Three of the biggest offenders today are [1]Evangelist Ray Comfort, [2]Pastor John MacArthur and [3]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014). These men all sinfully pervert the truth of the Gospel. These men have changed the Gospel into something different than what the Bible teaches! These men all add turning from your sins to be saved. Sadly, Bob Jones University requires people to be willing to turn from their sins to be saved. That is not the Gospel. The Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

" We find the word

"BELIEVE" mentioned 85 times in the Gospel of John, but there is no mention of forsaking one's sins to receive God's free gift.

Pastor John MacArthur even calls getting saved "

AN EXCHANGE

" of all that we are for all that Christ is

...

> "Thus in a sense we pay the ultimate price for salvation when our sinful self is nailed to a cross. . . . It is an exchange of all that we are for all that Christ is. And it denotes implicit obedience, full surrender to the lordship of Christ. Nothing less can qualify as saving faith." (The Gospel According to Jesus, p. 140.)

Dear reader, that is as Satanic as worshipping the Devil!!! Nowhere in the inspired Word of God are we taught, that to receive God's free gift of eternal life we must EXCHANGE everything we are to receive it! Dr. Steve Pettit teaches this same garbage theology:

> "...faith in Jesus is not just an intellectual conviction, it is a personal commitment. Paul says, we have believed in Jesus, and the word 'in' literally means 'into' ...I am taking my life, my eternity, my destiny, everything, and I am placing it into Christ." —Dr. Steve Pettit, an excerpt from "What Does It Mean To Be Justified?" (The Daily Platform #741)

That is false teaching! Dr. Pettit says it is not enough to trust Jesus in your mind, but there must be action that results in committing EVERYTHING in your life to Christ. That is not the Gospel, it is a perversion of God's free grace! Salvation in NOT an exchange!!! Eternal life is a free gift. Romans 5:15-18 even calls it a "

FREE GIFT

" multiple times. Matthew 7:15, " Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves." It is more than a coincidence that immediately following this warning about WOLVES that come to us in SHEEP'S CLOTHING, that the Lord says in Matthew 7:21,

"Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

" Could the Bible be any plainer that Lordship is not the way of salvation? God's will is to BELIEVE (John 6:40).

> "So I want to ask you, have you come to a genuine acknowledgment before God almighty of your sinfulness? Secondly, you have to change the way you view yourself. We call that 'repentance.' And repentance is sort of saying a 'No' and a 'Yes.' It's a turning AWAY FROM and a turning TO. What am I turning away from? I'm turning away from my own self-righteousness. I'm to turning away from depending on me, and all that's involved in me*—self-righteousness, self-will, self-assertion, living my own life—I'm to turning away from that way of thinking. And then finally what do I have to do? I'm to put my trust, or my confidence, in Jesus alone." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit, an excerpt from "[4]What Does It Mean To Be Justified?" (The Daily Platform #741)

What you just read is of the Devil. Jesus told the Apostle Peter, "Get thee behind me, Satan" (Matthew 16:23b). So I say to Steve Pettit, "Get thee behind me, Satan!" What saith the Scripture? Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." The Bible teaches something very different than what Dr. Steve Pettit is teaching! Steve Pettit says you must turn away from living your own life to be saved. That is a doctrine of devils! Steve Pettit is a devil-dog preacher! My destination is not based upon how I live my life, it's on whom that I trust to save me!!! Now that's the truth!

Salvation is salvation, and discipleship is discipleship. No one ever got saved by discipleship! That is why the religious people in Matthew 7:21-23 weren't saved. Jesus called them workers on iniquity. Jesus said He never knew them! They followed Jesus their entire life. They made full surrender to Christ! They called Him, “LORD, LORD” (there’s your heresy of Lordship Salvation in the Bible). Judas followed Christ. Matthew 27:3b says **“

Judas repented himself.

” Judas had

a relationship

with Jesus (we hear this false teaching a lot these days). Dear reader, you can follow Christ, have a relationship with Him, you can repent of all your sins, faithfully run the race, turn your life over to Him, and even trust Christ in addition to all that stuff, but YOU WILL SPLIT HELL WIDE OPEN WHEN YOU DIE!!! You are not truly trusting Jesus, unless you are COMPLETELY RESTING IN HIS DEATH, BURIAL AND RESURRECTION ALONE TO SAVE YOU!!!

Please don’t let Steve Pettit take you to Hell with him. On March 30, 2020 [5]he told 2,700 students and faculty that “ [6] perpetual liars go to Hell!

The Bible says that ALL LIARS go to Hell (Revelation 21:8). How many lies do I have to tell you to be a liar? Just one, right! James 2:10 confirms this truth, “For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

” It is disturbing that Steve Pettit thinks habitual sinners are going to Hell, because we are saved by God’s righteousness, nor our own righteousness.

My destination is not based upon how I live my life, it’s on whom that I trust to save me. How much you lie and sin has nothing to do with the gift of eternal life. If a child of God lives in willful sin, God is not an absent parent, He will chastise a child whom He loves. Proverbs 3:12, “ For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.”

Here are some excellent helpful quotes differentiating between SALVATION versus DISCIPLE-SHIP...

> "It is an inexcusable error to confront sinners with problems that concern the Christian life and call upon them to make promises regarding them. An unsaved person is never called upon to surrender himself to God. The saving act is in no instance represented as our 'giving ourselves to God'; it is, on the contrary, taking His Son as our Savior." Ryrie, Charles. Balancing the Christian Life. Moody Press, Inc., 1969 (p. 170).

"The second approach finds faith in the gospel alone an 'easy Believism' and seeks to add something to faith in order to accomplish salvation. To repent is to 'change one's mind,' and to believe is to remove one's trust from that in which it has rested and place it in Christ." Howard, William. "Is Faith Enough to Save?" Bibliotheca Sacra. January-March, 1942 (p.99).

"This kind of faith is not 'easy believism'. It is not easy to say, 'I can't save myself, I must recognize that there is something wrong with me, and I must seek help from someone else.'" Hook, H. Phillip. "A Biblical Definition of Saving Faith." Bibliotheca Sacra. April-June, 1964 (p. 133, 138).

"Eternal life is free. Discipleship is immeasurably hard. The former is attained by faith alone, the latter by a faith that works... the former brings with it the righteousness of God so that a man is 'justified freely by his grace' (Romans 3:24). The latter develops a personal righteousness, based on good deeds, so that a man was also 'justified by works' (James 2:24). The former constituted the believer God's workmanship, the latter fulfilled the wonderful purpose for which he had been created. The former cost man nothing, the latter could cost him everything, including life itself." Hodges, Zane C. The Hungry Inherit. Moody Press, Inc., 1972 (p. 114, 115).

"There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." DeHaan, M. R. Hebrews. Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

"For the unregenerate man, repentance is the change of mind whereby he turns from unbelief to faith in the person and work of Jesus Christ." Post, Roger. "The Meanings of the Words Translated 'Repent' and 'Repentance' in the New Testament." Master's Thesis, Wheaton College, June 1972 (p. 80).

"There are those who, in their zeal to get people to turn from their sinful ways and receive the Lord, almost put repentance on a par with believing... Repentance, as it relates to Christ, means to change our minds about Him, who He is and what He's done to provide forgiveness and deliverance from our sins. When we place faith in Jesus as having taken our place personally on the cross and borne the penalty due our sins, then we're automatically repenting, because we couldn't accept Him in this way without having had to change our minds in some way concerning Him." Lindsey, Hal. The Liberation of Planet Earth. Zondervan Publishing House, 1974 (p. 136, 137).

"Discipleship is frequently equated with salvation and often erroneously made a condition for becoming a Christian". Pentecost, J. Dwight. Design for Discipleship. Zondervan Publishing House, 1971 (p. 11).

"Certainly discipleship is a most important aspect of our relation to Christ, but it belongs to the sphere of Christian life rather than entrance upon that life... One does not become a disciple in order to become a Christian, but because he has become a Christian by faith in the Savior, it is fitting that he embark upon a life of discipleship". Harrison, Everett F. "Must Christ be Lord to Be Savior?-No." Eternity, September 1959 (p. 14).

"There is no more piously subtle abrogation of the Gospel than to tell a Sinner that he must not only believe in the Savior, but dedicate himself to do God's will, crown the Savior Lord of his life, etc., etc. Obviously, dedication and service are highly desirable, but they are the privilege and the duty of the saved, never a condition of salvation for the unsaved (cf. Romans 12:1, 2)." Unger, Merrill F. God is Waiting to Meet You. Moody Press, 1975 (p. 117, 118).

"People are sometimes led to believe that there is saving value in some public confession of Christ, or profession of a decision. "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." This is salvation. "With the mouth confession is made unto salvation." This is the voice of the newborn child speaking to and of its father. The only condition on which one may be saved is to believe." Chafer, Lewis Sperry. Salvation. Dunham Publishing Company, 1917 (p. 46).

The evidence that we are saved is the indwelling Holy Spirit, not the way we live. 1st John 3:24, "And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us."

"If you have to look at your life to prove that you are saved, it proves that you're not!" —Pastor Ralph 'Yankee' Arnold; an excellent quote from the awesome YouTube sermon, " [7]Why Lordship Salvation is WRONG! "

1.6.4 If You Would Never Do Anything Terribly Wicked (2020-08-02 22:00)

2nd Corinthians 10:4-6, " (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled. " ... Hebrews 3:13, "

But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

If you want to never do anything that is terribly wicked, then you never do anything that is slightly wicked. You'll never hear a better statement. What a great truth! I learned that truth from Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), a quote from his sermon titled: '[1]Unjust In The Least.' Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) wisely said: "

Behind every tragedy in human character is a slow process of wicked thinking.

" Last year I watched several dozen TV episodes of 'Forensic Files.' There are about 400 of them total. Those shows are heartbreaking, but sobering and educational. Like any normal person, I watch those shows in horror and say to myself, "My God, I don't ever want to do anything really evil like that!"

I decided to study the series, to see what the little sins were that led to the horrifying evil deeds. In almost every case there was booze, hanging out in bars, going to strip-clubs, lying, adultery, envy, greed, and the common sins that so many people take for granted. In other words, if those people hadn't been hanging out in bars, going to strip clubs, drinking booze, taking illegal drugs, and doing dishonest and illegal things in the first place, they never would have ended up on Forensic Files! Whatever a man thinks in his soul, that is who and what he is. Proverbs 23:7, " For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee. "

Jesus said in Mark 7:21-23, " For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness: All these evil things come from within, and defile the man." That is why the Bible teaches in Proverbs 4:23, " Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." That is my favorite Bible verse. I am scared to death of ever becoming an evil person! I love God and people, and don't ever want to hurt anyone, for any reason!

> "I believe any man in this world, can love any other man in this world, if he thinks right! The reason you hate is because you think hate. The reason you love is because you think love." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[2]What The Law Could Not Do"

Amen and amen! I have received some really depressed emails and facebook messages from miserable Christians. They talk about committing suicide. I can relate to hurting people, because I have been hurting for decades, both physically and emotionally. I have suffered so much in my life, losing my marriage and home, and have enduring a miserable life of loneliness. But I choose to place it all into Jesus' hands and simply trust Him. Job 13:15, " Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him." Some people refuse to walk with God, and they are depressing to be around. I get down and depressed almost daily, but I live above the clouds and rejoice with thanksgiving in God my Savior. There is a night and day difference between my attitude and theirs. I am not boasting at all, I am simply teaching you dear reading that YOU CHOOSE the attitude you have! You attitude determines you altitude in life!

I suffer in constant chronic neck pain, which radiates in my arms and legs. The whole right side of my body always feel half asleep. It is the " new norm

" for me since 2004 when my neck pain started. In 2009 and 2010 I underwent two neck surgeries, the second of which made me worse, leaving me with constant burning throughout my nervous system. And if that's not bad enough, the local Harvest Baptist Church on Guam won't even let me attend their church services, because of my fundamentalist Baptist beliefs. They are neo-evangelical yuppie types, and they couldn't care less about the purity of the Bible nor the accuracy of the Gospel. But I still love them! I have to love them. I choose to love them. I want to love them. Since I refuse to let my mind hate, I do not hate. I choose to love at all times. I can do that because I do what 2nd Corinthians 10:4-6 teaches:

1978

2nd Corinthians 10:4-6, "(For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled."

I could very easily become a bitter man. I have suffered much because of people and my own family. Human beings are not very nice people when they choose not to be! Pastor Jack Hyles preaches a helpful sermon called: '[3]You Can Choose Your Own Temperament.' It is a precious sermon that will absolutely change your life, if you'll listen to it and take these truths to heart. I love Brother Hyles. You know, that godly man knew a thing or two from pastoring people for 55 years! You would be wise [4]to hear what he has to say, as I do regularly. The people on the Forensic Files, and also Cold Case Files, didn't just wake up one day and decide to go murder, rape, torture and destroy somebody's life! It all started with small thoughts, which were allowed to go unchecked. Our text Bible passage teaches us to BRING EVERY THOUGHT INTO CAPTIVITY, FORCING IT INTO SUBJECTION TO OBEDIENCE TO CHRIST! I feel so sorry for people who reject the dear Savior. There is no friend like the lowly Jesus, no not one! Do you know him as your Savior dear reader?

I live right because I choose to think right. That means abiding in the King James Bible. I don't listen to the Bible every day, but I am always thinking about the Bible, and verses, and the meaning of the Bible. Psalms 1:1-4,

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away." David was a man after God's own heart because he was a man after God's own thoughts.

Psalms 139:17, " How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!" There are Christians who read the Bible every day, but have little to show for it; but I meditate in God's Word therein day and night, thinking about how it applies to life, doctrine and everything, and it blesses my soul continually.

I already know that the people who email me, complaining about their miserable life, belly-aching that their neighbor has it better than they do, upset at the whole world, DON'T WALK WITH JESUS!!! I walk with Him, which is why I am bold to preach THE TRUTH. I walk with Jesus, which is why I wave at my Harvest Baptist Church neighbours every time I see them, and pray for them, and love them with all my heart. I walk with Jesus, which is why even though I am so lonely without a wife, I can face tomorrow! Brother Lester Roloff said: "You will never know down here that Christ is all you need until Christ is all you have left." He says that quote in his printed sermon titled: '[5]How To Go On When You Can't'

I don't know about you, but I don't want to do anything terribly wicked, so I must guard my mind against wrong thoughts that fester and take root. I refuse to allow hatred to have a home in my mind and heart. The Bible says in Ephesians 4:27, "

Neither give place to the devil. " That would be a great Bible verse to memorize right now! It's just six words: NEITHER GIVE PLACE TO THE DEVIL!!! We are what we think. That is why I am always sharing Bible sermons with my web visitors. By the way, I have listened to every one of them that I share. I share them because I have heard them, and the Lord's Holy Spirit burned a truth in my heart. I love having spiritual heartburn!

Sadly, very few of my web visitors listen to the sermons I promote, which explains why they write to me with all their problems. Some people are just hateful and don't have any desire to walk close to the Lord. They are like the Israelites in Moses' time, who literally told Moses to put a bag over his head, because they could not behold his holiness after spending time alone with God...

> 2nd Corinthians 3:13, "And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:
>
> But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.
>
> But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart*.
>
> **"

1980

Most people today have a veil over their heart. That includes the Bob Jones University crowd, who refuse to heed the truth that Lordship Salvation is a false gospel, and refuse to heed the truth that the modern Bible revisions are corrupted by Satan. Great evil always starts as small sins.

"All things truly wicked start from innocence." —Ernest Hemingway (1899-1961)

1.6.5 Abuse Of Power In Independent Baptist Churches (2020-08-03 06:48)

Matthew 15:7-9, " Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." Psalms 109:4, " For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer."

I am a caring, passionate, tender-hearted man. I have my faults, but indifference is not one of them. I have a difficult time living in a cold-hearted world, especially when professed Baptist Christians are indifferent toward truth, and don't care about the purity of God's Word, and don't care about others. I will never shut up about Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, because they profess to love God, but they don't love me as their neighbour. Romans 14:10, "But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. "

Harvest Baptist Church operates like a cult, where only select members are allowed, and if you are not accepted by their leaders, you are ostracized. I have read much in the national news about abuse of power in the churches, but I never thought I would become a victim of it myself. I am a victim of church authority. I pleaded with Harvest's pastors for their help with my troubled life. I offered to humbly go along with whatever needed to be done to make peace with their church. Evidently they are scared, because I am more righteous than they are in this matter, yet I am socially weak, lacking fellowship with a local church.

I have been very lonely lately, so much wanting to be a part of church family where I can hopefully find a woman to marry. I heard Pastor Phil Kidd say that he has men coming to his church to find a wife, and he said that is okay. I fully agree. What better place to seek a wife or a husband than in a local church? Yet, Harvest refused my pleas for help. So I went to look at Bayview Church's website on Guam, just down the street from me. They used to be named the Bayview Baptist Church ten years ago, but they dropped the name "

Baptist.

" On their church website, they now show John Piper as one of their trusted theologians. John Piper is a hard core demonic Calvinist! If you think Calvinism is within accepted orthodox Christianity, you are deceived by the Devil. Calvinism is a road straight to Hell forever! So I cannot attend Bayview, because they are of the Devil, preaching a false gospel.

I looked at Calvary Chapel, but they teach Lordship Salvation and use the Devil's Bibles too. So there goes that. Harvest was my church for the year of 2014, but their pastors forced me out, and have refused to allow me to return, even though I humbly begged for their love and guidance with my life. They might as well have pushed me off a bridge or ran over me with a church bus. But they couldn't do the latter, because their neo-evangelical church doesn't run buses. They don't teach or go soulwinning. So I guess I am the greater fool for loving an unloving group of snobs who would rather push me away, than embrace me with God's love. Perhaps it means they do not have God's love at all. John 5:42, " But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you."

I have never asked anything from them, except to come back to church, but they refused. What does that say about them? It speaks volumes. It says they are phonies. It says they are selfish. It says they are wicked people who don't care about those who plead for their love and help. It shows an abuse of power in the church. God owns the church, not any group of people, or else it is a manmade cult and God's presence is not there. Acts 20:28 says God purchased the Church with His own blood. So if Harvest Baptist Church were a real Bible church, they couldn't shove me away and leave me alone, as they continue to do. As long as I live at 104 Second Street in Barrigada, I will never shut up. So if anyone wants to fly to Guam and assassinate me for upsetting you, now you know my address. I don't have a mailbox here, so don't waste your time mailing me anything.

Any church that tells you to "

Go elsewhere

" is not right with God. I love them tremendously at Harvest. I am still very much in love with two women at Harvest Baptist Church. I fell in love with the nurse at Harvest in 2014. I saw her in 2017 and practically asked her to marry me. I wish with all my soul that she would have accepted me into her life. I still do love her. And then I feel very much in love with a woman that used to live in my neighborhood, who now only visits, but my feelings are equally as strong for her. I would marry either of them in a heartbeat and give my heart to her.

felt bad being in love with two women. I had to go read online to see if it was even possible to love two people at the same time. [1]Yes, it is absolutely [2] possible to love two women at the same time. I don't even know if the nurse is there anymore, or if she has married. I just know she still has my heart. I lost 70 pounds for her. That is why I have never been able to forget about Harvest, because two women there have my heart. I have never felt so unwanted in all my life, as I have at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, simply because I cared enough about them to tell them THE TRUTH. I tried to help them, as a friend does, showing them that Satan is behind the modern Bible tampering movement. Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) saw that the Devil was at work corrupting the Bible:

> "The Word of God is our only hope—that's our only hope! This has been the generation of translations and abominations, and perversions, of the Word of God! It's been a long time; now when the Revised Standard Version came out, I stood against it before I knew what it was, because the wrong crowd heard of that, and the wrong crowd received it, and I knew it got too much publicity to be right! And I knew if the newspapers publicized something, it had to be wrong! And so I knew that the American people and a lot of American preachers—they welcomed it into their house before they knew it was a rattlesnake!" [emphasis added]—Brother Lester Roloff, a needful quote from the MP3 sermon titled, "[3]'THE LIVING BIBLE' EXPOSED!"

I told THE TRUTH at Harvest Baptist Church, and they kicked me out! Where dwelleth the love of God? I also told THE TRUTH that Lordship Salvation is a perversion of God's grace. That is why the Apostle Paul was so upset with the churches of Galatia, [4]because someone was messing with grace! And now, tragically, I found out this year that [5]Dr. Steve Pettit and [6]Bob Jones University have gone [7]full-blown Lordship Salvation! Oh my God, what has happened to [8]Bob Jones University and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam?

For being a true friend, I was reprimanded, shamed, driven out of Harvest, shunned, ostracized and am now being permanently punished for TELLING THE TRUTH! God will avenge me (Romans 12:19). I pray daily for God to reward me and vindicate me of Harvest Baptist Church, for their abuse of church power to hurt a man who lovingly, sincerely and kindly befriended them with THE TRUTH!!! I contacted the church pastors at Harvest in 2017. I humbly offered to keep my views to myself, just so I could quietly attend church services. They refused and I haven't had a church family since. I've been attending a new small church, but I sincerely doubt if I'd ever find a wife there. This is all so frustrating, all because I DID THE RIGHT THING!

You know, Bob Jones University honored Brother Lester Roloff in the 1970's by giving him an honorary doctorates degree. Yet, BJU doesn't honor Brother Roloff's preaching of THE TRUTH. As I just quoted to you, Brother Roloff knew that **"

This has been the generation of translations and abominations, and perversions

"! Yet, BJU uses, sells and bids Godspeed to those very perversions of God's Word. Why oh why? It is tragic that Christianity has deteriorated in America into a mere stinking business. I know what I am talking about. I know I am right.

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) saw what the Devil was up to, [9]corrupting the Word of God and [10]changing the plan of salvation . So what is BJU's problem? What is Harvest Baptist Church's problem? Why am I hated so much by them? I have repeatedly promised to remove all my criticisms (to the best of my ability) from the internet, if Harvest would simply let me attend church services again. My promise still stands. But they have ignored me, so to Hell with them, I will continue to expose them. I am bold in this matter because I know as surely as I am saved that I am 100 % right on the Bible and the Gospel.

The Bob Jones' Crowd Are The Worst Of Perverts

You know, there has been a lot in the news in recent years about sexual abuse being covered-up in independent Baptist churches nationwide. But 10,000 times worse is the cover-up of [11]the perversion of Lordship Salvation in thousands of churches. If a pastor sexually molests you, you'll be scared for life; but if a pastor preaches a perverted gospel to you, you'll burn in Hell for all eternity without rest day nor night (Revelation 14:11). The perverted Calvinist gospel of "turn from your sins" to be saved—which is being taught at Bob Jones University, Harvest Baptist Church, Moody Bible Institute, Unshackled, and thousands of corrupt neo-evangelical churches and religious organizations today—all sprouted [12]from the corruptible seed of the Devil's modern Bible revisions!!!

> "The worst pervert in America is the Gospel pervert!" —Brother Lester Roloff, from the sermon, "[13]The Gospel Perverts Or Jesus?"

The word "pervert" in this passage is the Greek word "metastrephō," which means to "transmute; this is, change or alter in form, appearance, or nature." Any time someone alters the nature of the Gospel, they have perverted it. Dr. Steve Pettit is the new president of Bob Jones University since 2014. I can almost hear the heavy breathing from their perverse pulpit at Bob Jones University! There is a cover-up in our independent Baptist churches and Bible colleges today, concerning the use of the Devil's Bible revisions which violate church members, pervert their common sense, and leave them spiritually scared in their souls, confused and wondering what happened.

There is also a cover-up by abusive pastors, such as the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, concerning the preaching of a perverted gospel. I didn't say that, the Apostle Paul did in Galatians 1:6-7, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

" Notice that it is really not another gospel. There is only one Gospel, defined by Paul in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Harvest Baptist Church troubles the island of Guam with their perverse gospel of Lordship Salvation.

On their KHMG 88.1 FM radio station, Harvest Baptist Church broadcasts the [14]Unshackled program by Pacific Garden Mission, which teaches hardcore perverted grace! Harvest also broadcasts 'The Daily Platform' (BJU chapel services) in which [15]Dr. Steve Pettit preaches hardcore perverted grace. These people are Gospel PERVERTS!!! It is an abuse of pastoral leadership. The only true "authority" (power) in any church is the inspired Word of God. So when men in positions of church leadership assert their own manmade teachings (aka, Lordship Salvation) over the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, and ostracize people they don't like who tell THE TRUTH, they are abusing their position of trust in the local New Testament church.

[16]Just Like At BJU, The Bob Jones' Crowd On Guam Turn A Deaf Ear Toward Abuse

And when ungodly pastors, like at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, promote and bid Godspeed to the blatantly corrupted Bible revisions tampered with by liberals and infidels like Brooke Westcott, Fenton Hort and Rudolf Kittel, [17]they are bigger perverts than Albert Einstein (you read right!). The genius professor couldn't keep his pants on!!! There is no pervert like the Bible corrupting pervert!!! There is no pervert like the Gospel pervert!!! There are no perverts like the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who fornicate in spiritual whoredom with theological pervs like Steve Pettit, John MacArthur, Sam Horn, Marty Herron and Ray Comfort, to name but a few, who all share the same big spiritual waterbed together!

If you see something say something! If you see your local pastor using and promoting perverted Bible revisions, call him out on it! If you hear your pastor talking perverted, teaching perverse Lordship Salvation, you need to confront him and tell him to stop being a pervert! If you don't say anything, then you are a part of the problem, bidding Godspeed to evildoers and church members will continue to be theologically molested because you didn't SAY SOMETHING!!! When pastors remain silent, while Satan sneaks his corrupt Bible revisions into the churches, they are abusing their trusted leadership position. If you see something pastors, you have a sacred duty to say something, not cover it up.

I went to the Pastors of Harvest because is saw perversion in the church. I saw the Devil's Bibles corrupting the church, [18]perverting the meaning of repentance and the plan of salvation itself. I saw something and I humbly spoke up, but the leadership at Harvest Baptist Church tried to silence me. They blamed me, and I was made to be the bad guy, forced out of my church family. I begged them for mercy, but they shoved gravel in my mouth! They knew I was alone in their neighborhood, and without a church to attend, but they looked the other way to cover it up, like I didn't exist anymore. That is why I believe most of their former shameful pastors quit and left, leaving a mess on Guam, because they KNEW in their hearts that I am 100 % right in my stand for THE TRUTH! But the new pastors are no better than the old pastors, still covering up for bad pastors, still burying THE TRUTH, still blaming the victim of their abuse of leadership!

Just like BJU's leadership, who terminated some students for daring to report being raped; Likewise, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam has banned, shunned and ostracized me for the past 5 years. It has been painful to my soul, only God knows the hurt and sorrow they've caused. I reported the theological abuse I saw, and was punished for mentioning it, and there is a spirit of cover-up at the shameful Harvest Baptist Church of Guam today. I love them all so dearly, but they won't give me a second chance. I just need a lifeline from their church, an Olive Branch of peace, if they would like to make peace with a hurting man who asked for their help, and is in love with two ladies in their church, whom I care about. It seems that at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, it is prohibited to be in love with someone, unless their pastors approve, playing God with people's lives.

Since I don't have a church family where I can find a wife, and I am being made to feel like I did something wrong to tell THE TRUTH, it compels me to preach, preach, preach! And by God's grace that is what I intended to keep doing, in every way I can possible figure out a way to so do to spread the message of THE TRUTH. Harvest's new senior minister, Pastor Gary Walton, is clearly a big supporter of BJU and Unshackled (because the church promotes them), which means he is okay with their Lordship Salvation crap, and multiple Bible revisions that they use, sell and promote. So what does that say about him as a religious leader?

Me Too! I Am A Victim Too!

Numerous students have come forward with allegations about being sexually abused at BJU by other students, but the college actually blamed the students! One BJU counselor told the rape victim that it was her fault, for thinking about the impure thoughts from what had happened to her (the rape) in the past. [19]I'm not kidding, read the horrifying story for yourself! As I read that story, and there are many more online, I too felt violated by the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I went to their pastors with a kind and loving heart, pleading for their help spiritually with my broken life. Instead of being a friend, like I was to them, they shunned me away and forgot about me, moving on like nothing happened.

Kindly said, I am a Baptist, and they are Baptists. That is where I belong on Guam, in the local Baptist church! I am not the problem, they are! I am willing to quietly attend church, but they won't let me come back. Like the rape victims at BJU, I am being blamed and ostracized for doing the right thing, telling THE TRUTH, but nobody cares at Harvest.

I humbly said in 2017 (and I have the emails to prove it) that I would be fully cooperative with their pastors and not cause any trouble for the church whatsoever. But they blamed me instead, shunning and ostracizing me. My neighbours across the street on both sides won't even wave at me. The woman I fell in love with hasn't waved at me in over a year, because her pastors have told her not to. That is what a secretive worldly cult does! In God's family, EVERYBODY MATTERS! In God's family, EVERYBODY IS IMPORTANT!!! I wish Harvest Baptist Church would repent and welcome me back in love, but they won't, still after five lonely years of pain and misery. All I want is to love them, but for my love they hate me.

Psalms 109:4-5, " For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer. And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love."

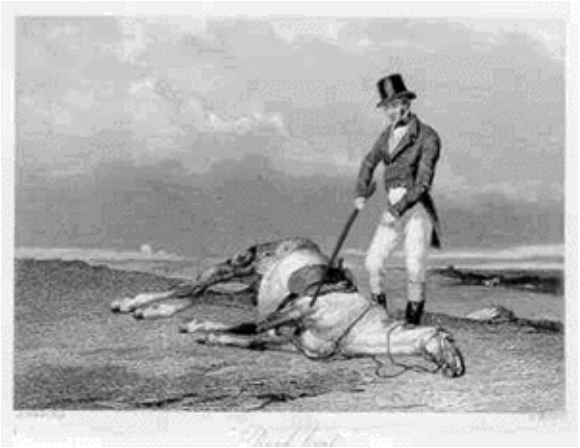
All I ever wanted and asked for in the kindest of words, was to please let me attend church services. Doesn't everybody need Bible preaching? Doesn't everybody have a right to sit in the house of God on Sunday, who behaves them self in church, takes a bath before going to church, and is friendly toward others at church? I am the nicest person. So why am I not permitted to attend church? It is just as abusive as sexual abusive as far as I'm concerned! When hurting people are blamed, victimized all over again, something is very wrong with church or Bible college leadership! There is indeed a bunch of abuse going on in our Baptist churches today, and it's not just sexual abuse, I have been emotionally abused by Harvest Baptist Church on Guam.



I sure pray and hope someday they'll email me, or stop by to say hi, and we can barbecue some steaks. I always have steaks on hand and the grill ready to go. I love them (not the steaks, my neighbors...lol). This ongoing fuss between me and Harvest's pastors is on them, because I am here and ready to make peace. I just want a church family. The abusive pastors at Harvest have created this situation, by being incompetent, and hiding like little boys from a problem that they started in the first place, playing God with people's lives, deciding who stays and who leaves, and who can return.

You know, when I lived in Chicago, where I was born and raised, I visited the Armitage Baptist Church ONE TIME! They were using the NIV (New International Version). For that reason alone I didn't ever go back.

For the next ten years they tried to get me to come back! They sent welcome cards to my address for the next ten years! Even though I never went back, they won a place in my heart, so that unto this day the Armitage Baptist Church has a special place in my heart. Harvest Baptist Church needs to learn that! Their nurse at Harvest Baptist Church in 2014 followed me around, waited in the parking lot for me when I came to church, and made it clear that she liked me. I was an idiot and didn't figure it out, but I realized after their pastors had forced me out, that I had fallen in love with her, because just like the Armitage Baptist Church in Chicago, she kept at my heart and won it!

I can hear Pastor Marty Herron now: "I AM A GOD!!!" He won't admit to that, but he sure acts like it, kicking people out the door and not letting them come back to church. I am not saying that he is God, because God gives people second chances (Jonah 3:1), but not Harvest. They take the place of God, playing God with people's lives. They abused me at Harvest, horribly so. When they someday get a genuine man of God as a pastor, they will contact me, as I did them, to make peace in this matter. There are no second chances at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. If you are not accepted into their elite social club, you are a nobody to them!

We'll I'm still here! I haven't seen any effort on their part to make peace. What does that say? It certainly shows that I am the better Christian in the matter, since I am the peacemaker! I love you all with God's unconditional love. Jesus is precious!

1.6.6 Salvation Doesn't Require Forsaking All To Follow Christ (2020-08-04 09:30)

Matthew 19:21-30, "Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me.

But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible.

Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

This is one of the most misunderstood passages in the Holy Bible. A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. In the following quote from Evangelist Paul Washer, who is a heretical Calvinist (and so also is Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, Marty Herron, Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, Pacific Garden Mission's Unshackled, Ray Comfort and John MacArthur), he perverts the Gospel by applying Matthew 19:27 ("we have left everything and followed you"

At first glance, Matthew 19:21-30 can seem frightening to a free grace believer, shaking our faith and making us question if perhaps we were wrong. It sure does seem like Jesus is teaching Lordship Salvation, doesn't it? Dear reader, nothing could be further from the truth. Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." Carefully notice in Matthew 19:27 that the Apostle Peter is BOASTING of his own good works

Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

You must keep in mind that Jesus just rebuked the rich young ruler for trying to earn his way to Heaven. The Lord wasn't giving that young man a plan of salvation (as the Lordship Salvation crowd foolishly think), Jesus was using the law the way it was intended to be used, to show the young man that he was NOT GOOD ENOUGH to get to Heaven by his own merit. When the Lord told him to go sell everything he owned, and give it to the poor, the rich young ruler went away very sad. The Lord afterwards told his DISCIPLES that it would be easier to thread a needle with a camel, than for a rich men to go to Heaven. The disciples responded by asking in verse 25,

"Who then can be saved?" Jesus replied by saying that it is IMPOSSIBLE with men, but with God all things are possible (John 1:12-13).

The context of this seemingly difficult passage is very clear—no one can keep the law to be saved, salvation is of the Lord, it is the free gift of God. We must remember that Peter is still ignorant of theology, and is asking ignorant questions. The Lord had just told the young man to go sell everything he owned, and give it to the poor, if he wanted to perfectly keep the law of Moses to be saved. So now Peter is thinking,

"Hey, I've given up everything, so what am I going to get out of all this?" The Lord beautifully responds by assuring the disciples, that in addition to their salvation (which is by faith alone), they will inherit all things as God's child, and also be rewarded by God for their sacrificial service for Him (Matthew 10:42; 1st Corinthians 3:6-9). Revelation 21:7, " He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son." Romans 8:32b promises that in addition to giving us His only begotten Son, God will also give the saints **"

" in eternity.

That is what Jesus was teaching His disciples in Matthew 19:21-20. It is sad that the advocates of Lordship Salvation pervert this passage, as they wrestle the whole Bible, to their own destruction:

2nd Peter 3:16-17,

"As also in all his [Paul's] epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness."

Please do not be led away with [2]the error of Bob Jones University, which has been infiltrated and [3]taken over by infidels. I hope by God's grace dear friend that I have made Matthew 19:21-30 easy for you to understand. The very fact that Peter is boasting of following Christ, ought to tell us that this cannot be the way of salvation, because it would contradict Ephesians 2:8-9 that salvation is by grace through faith WITHOUT WORKS! The Lordship Salvation gang (i.e., Calvinists), all twist and pervert the Holy Scriptures. The Bob Jones' camp are arrogant beyond belief today, stiffnecked and full of sinful pride. Their leaders all get paid lucrative 6-digit salaries (including Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, Marty Herron and John MacArthur). Dr. MacArthur's net worth is $14,000,000. Spiritual crime pays well! Their arrogance will cease when they stand before God someday (Hebrews 9:27). Lordship Salvation is a perversion of grace, and is not the Gospel taught in the Gospel of John.

When Jesus spoke with the rich young ruler, He was talking with an unsaved person; but afterwards the Lord spoke with His disciples

, who were already saved by faith. So we need to keep this in mind when interpreting such Scripture passages. To whom was the Lord speaking, to the saved or unsaved? In the case of Matthew 19:21-30, Jesus was speaking to the saved. It is gross theological incompetence for anyone, like Paul Washer, to apply this passage to the free gift of eternal life, which is received by faith alone in the dear Savior.

In closing, if you'll go back to view the photo and quote I shared with you earlier by Evangelist Paul Washer, you'll see that he says salvation requires following Jesus "

AT ALL COSTS.

" Dear reader, Jesus paid your debt of sin on the cross with His precious blood, because you owed a massive debt that you simply could not pay! THERE IS NO COST TO RECEIVE GOD'S FREE GIFT OF ETERNAL LIFE!!! Paul Washer is a dingleberry for a theologian! If you and I were to pay for our own sins, to repay the wages of sin that we owe, we'd have to burn and suffer in the torments of Hell-fire forever and ever. If you don't understand that, it is only because you fail to grasp just how holy and righteous God is, and how much He absolutely cannot allow or tolerate sin (1st Corinthians 6:9-11; James 2:10).

The full payment for your sins has been made dear friend (1st Peter 1:18-19). Your gift of eternal life is waiting for you to come get it, which is wrapped in the wonderful package of Jesus Christ! With mere childlike faith, if you'll simply come to God as a needy sinner, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, and three days later physically resurrected from the dead, you will be immediately and permanently saved! This is "The Gospel" (1st Corinthians 15:1-4), by which we are saved, to them that believe (Romans 1:16). You have God's Word on it! John 6:47, " Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

1.6.7 Repentance And Faith (2020-08-04 22:30)

Acts 20:21,

Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ."

The following very helpful excerpt is from Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), from his awesome booklet titled: '[1]Repentance: What Does The Bible Teach?'...

> Not long ago I preached a simple sermon on salvation and invited sinners to trust Christ as Saviour. Over one hundred precious people trusted Christ in that particular Sunday morning service.
>
> After the service, a well-meaning Christian said to me, "I enjoyed your sermon, but you didn't say anything about repentance. You should have told those people they needed to repent." He seemed to think that my telling those people to trust Christ as Saviour was not sufficient.

1995

And he is not alone in his thinking. Unless you use the word “repent” in presenting the plan of salvation, some preachers foolishly accuse you of preaching “easy believism.” Somehow they have gotten the idea that just to preach, “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved,” is not sufficient.

In an article in THE SWORD OF THE LORD, Dr. John R. Rice said:

“Sometimes the preacher does not himself fully understand the plan of salvation. He thinks of salvation as a process. First, there is a period of conviction, then a period of repentance, then an act of faith.”

He went on to explain that when one trusts Christ as Saviour he also repents.
Dr. Rice is absolutely right. Faith and repentance are the same; they are not two separate decisions. One cannot trust Christ as Saviour without repenting or changing his mind. The very fact that he trusts Christ for salvation shows that he has changed his mind regarding sin, salvation, and God.

If one book of the Bible had to be considered “the salvation book,” it would have to be the Gospel of John. The Gospel of John is printed and distributed more than any other book of the Bible. The purpose of this book is given in John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.”

According to this verse, the whole purpose of the Gospel of John is that men might believe that Jesus is the Christ and believing they might have life through His name. In other words, it is written that men might be saved. Yet "repent" or "repentance" is not used one single time in the Gospel of John. On the other hand, "believe" is used more than ninety times in the twenty-one chapters.

The book of Romans was written to show how men are justified. After explaining in Romans, chapter 4, how men are not justified, Romans 5:1 states, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." "Repentance" is found only two times in the book of Romans and in only one case does it have reference to salvation.

Romans 11:29 says, "For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance." If you make "repentance" here mean turning from sin, it would cause the verse to read, "For the gifts and calling of God are without turning from sin," which doesn't make sense at all. The verse means that the gifts and callings of God are irrevocable, that when God calls a man to preach, He never changes His mind about it.

While "repentance" is found only twice in the book of Romans, "faith" is found thirty-nine times. Romans 3:28 states, "a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law." And Romans 5:1 says, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God...."

Since the word "repent" is not found at all in the Gospel of John, and "repentance" is found only twice in the book of Romans, and only one time is it used in connection with salvation, are we then to conclude that repentance is not necessary to salvation? Absolutely not! We have already shown the importance of repentance and its necessity. Now, since repentance is not found in connection with salvation in the Gospel of John and only once in the book of Romans, are we to conclude that neither of these two books tells one how to be saved or justified? Certainly not. Those who know the Bible best would have to agree that these two books of the Bible contain the clearest presentation of the Gospel and how one is to be saved.

Since repentance is necessary to salvation, and since the word is not used at all in the Gospel of John and only once as referring to salvation in the book of Romans, then we must conclude that the word "repentance" is included in the words "believe" and "faith" which are found repeatedly in these two books.

John, chapter 3, contains the heart of the Gospel. It is here we find that wonderful verse, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." That verse is used in the conversation between Jesus and Nicodemus in this chapter. Jesus says to Nicodemus, "Ye must be born again" (vs. 7). In verse 9, Nicodemus asks, "How can these things be?" And Jesus gave the answer in verses 14 through 16, "As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Nowhere in this chapter does Jesus use the word "repent." He only tells Nicodemus to believe in Him. In verse 18 He said, "He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." And He closes the conversation in verse 36 by saying, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life; and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

"Believe" in these verses means to trust, to depend on, to rely on. Nothing could be plainer. All one has to do to have everlasting life is trust Jesus Christ. Jesus has already died for the sinner and all we need do is depend on Him for salvation. But He warns in verse 36, "He that believeth not the Son [does not depend on the Son] shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

There is no promise in the Bible to those who partially believe on Christ. The promise is to those who believe on Him. We cannot trust Jesus 90 % and something else 10 %; we must fully trust Him, Him alone and nothing else, for salvation.

Since Jesus did not use the word “repent” in telling Nicodemus how to be born again, then we must reach one of three conclusions. First, repentance is not necessary to salvation; second, repentance is necessary for salvation and Jesus didn’t tell Nicodemus how to be saved; third, repentance is necessary to salvation and is included in the word “believe” which Jesus did use time and time again in this chapter. The correct conclusion, of course, is that repentance is necessary to salvation and is included in “believe.” A man cannot trust Christ without repenting. If you have never trusted Christ as your Saviour we urge you to do so today.

Dear friend, God loves you, and so do I, which is why I made this blog to help people find the truth. You and I are hell-deserving sinners. The Bible says that the wages we earn for our sins is death (Romans 6:23). This includes the second death in the Lake of Fire (Revelation 20:12-15; 21:8). But God in His unconditional love made a way of escape for all ungodly sinners, which includes everyone (Romans 3:10-23; 5:6-9). Jesus paid your sin debt and mine. Eternal life is a free gift that cannot be earned, deserved or merited.

You simply need to receive God’s free gift by faith. You do this by receiving Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. God can read your mind, and the very moment that he sees you’ve placed your complete trust in Jesus, because of what He did on the cross for you, you are immediately born-again (Romans 10:13). Salvation is not about what you can do for God, but about what He has already done for you, by sending His only begotten Son to die in your place on Calvary’s cross (John 3:16). Jesus shed His precious blood to pay for everyone’s sins (1st Peter 1:18-19). You don’t have to turn from your sins to be saved, Jesus bore the full weight of your sins on the cross. Jesus didn’t come into the world to save those who are willing to turn from their sins; but rather, to save those who believe, so that He can then turn them from their sins, as they grow in grace (1st Peter 2:2).

I like how Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) said it:

> “Redemption is a work of God the Son. Regeneration is the work of God the Holy Spirit. Justification is the work of God the Father as He declares the sinner righteous in the Son. Conversion then becomes the work of the church as we change the use and purpose of a life.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[3]Conversion And Salvation” (chapter 3) from his book: “[4]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved”

The reason why saved people continue living worldly lives, is not because they weren’t really saved, but because America’s pulpits are weak! Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) is right, who said: “We need porcupine preachers, so that people will get the point!” The great need of the hour is preaching preachers! Brother Roloff said that too! If I say something that somebody else didn’t say, I’ll let you know...lol. No, seriously, today’s pulpits are dried up and dead! Evangelist Billy Sunday said a century ago: “The backslider likes the preaching that wouldn’t hit the side of a house, while the real disciple is delighted when the truth brings him to his knees.” So true!

The Devil has crept into so many churches. Most of the Bible colleges have gone liberal and perverse in their theology. I get tired of preaching against the same names and institutions, but they need to be preached against! Bob Jones University is as messed up as can be doctrinally these days, bidding Godspeed to Dr. John MacArthur and teaching Lordship Salvation. The same is true of Moody Bible Institute in Chicago! I thank God for Pastor Curtis Hutson. I hope you will read his entire book:

1.6.8 The Devil's Bibles Corrupt Sound Doctrine (2020-08-05 09:30)

1st Corinthians 5:6-7, " Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump? Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:"

In my humble opinion, Bob Jones University (BJU) needs to fire their current president, and get a fundamentalist preacher in there, who preaches the Word of God accurately. BJU promotes the Devil's Bible revisions; such as, the NASB, NKJB and ESV, which has adversely affected their doctrine. I cannot warn everyone enough about the dangers of using the Devil's modern Bible revisions. For example: Look at the drastic difference in meaning between the King James Bible (KJB) and the English Standard Version (ESV) that Bob Jones uses and endorses...

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - 2nd Timothy 1:11-12, "

Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - 2nd Timothy 1:11-12, "for which I was appointed a preacher and apostle and teacher, which is why I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am convinced that he is able to guard until that day what has been entrusted to me."

Well which is it, did Paul commit something to the Lord, or was something committed to Paul? It cannot be both! Does the Lord keep my faith which I have entrusted to His care? Or does that Lord guard what He has entrusted to me? Who is keeping whom? Do you see how the modern Bibles are backwards, confusing and dangerous, obliterating the true meaning of the Scriptures? Consequently, our churches are backwards and confused nowadays! I am sick of all these Devil's Bibles! Bob Jones University uses, sells, promotes and endorses them! Should it be surprising that BJU has succumbed to heresy, and is [1]now preaching the Satanic lie of Lordship Salvation?

> "So I want to ask you, have you come to a genuine acknowledgment before God almighty of your sinfulness? Secondly, you have to change the way you view yourself. We call that 'repentance.' And repentance is sort of saying a 'No' and a 'Yes.' It's a turning AWAY FROM and a turning TO. What am I turning away from? I'm turning away from my own self-righteousness. I'm to turning away from depending on me, and all that's involved in me*—self-righteousness, self-will, self-assertion, living my own life—I'm to turning away from that way of thinking. And then finally what do I have to do? I'm to put my trust, or my confidence, in Jesus alone." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit, an excerpt from "[2]What Does It Mean To Be Justified?" ('The Daily Platform' - #741)

Where does the Bible say that we must turn away from "

LIVING MY OWN LIFE

" to be saved? I thought eternal life was the free gift of God? Dr. Steve Pettit is a heretic, who is a devout follower of Pastor John MacArthur. [3]Evangelist Ray Comfort teaches this same garbage theology. This is the adverse consequence of using the Devil's Bibles!!! Look what Mark 1:15 says in the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV):

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye*, and believe the gospel." [emphasis added]

> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — Mark 1:15, “He said, “The right time is now here. God’s kingdom is very near. Change your hearts and lives, and believe the Good News!” [emphasis added]

The word “

in the Bible here is the Greek verb metanoeo, which means to think differently.

“

It does not mean

“

to change your life,

which Dr. Steve Pettit and John MacArthur teach. Bob Jones University’s corrupt theology matches up with the corrupt new Bible revisions! If you still use the trustworthy accurate King James Bible, then you still believe that salvation is by grace through faith in the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ! That is the Gospel according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. To be saved you must know WHO, WHAT and WHY. ...

- WHO - Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God (John 20:31)
- WHAT - Jesus died on the cross for your sins, was buried, and bodily resurrected the third day (John 19-20
- WHY - You and I are guilty sinners, deserving of Hell, but Christ paid our debt of sin (John 3:20-21; Romans 3:10-23, 5:8-12).

That’s it! These new Bibles corrupt theology, pervert what is means to repent, add making Jesus “ to be saved in Romans 10:9, attack the deity of Jesus, remove the Godhead (Trinity), and change thousands of Scripture passages. God only authored one Holy Book, and there is only one saving Gospel. Something is very wrong with a Bible college or churches that uses multiple Bible versions! If you think about it, that is insanity. Lordship Salvation errantly combines discipleship with salvation, perverting grace. The true Gospel does not require discipleship, only childlike faith in the Savior. This Lordship Salvation heresy is the number one biggest threat to fundamentalism today in America!

Lord

2004

1.6.9 Jesus Sees People's Pain (2020-08-05 22:30)

Hebrews 4:13, "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." Proverbs 15:3, " The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good." Matthew 10:29-30, " Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered."

Jesus sees people's pain...

We see people's hardness, but Jesus see their heart;

We see their problems, but Jesus see their potential;

We see the anger on their face, but Jesus sees the anguish inside;

We see people's wickedness, but Jesus sees their hopelessness;

We see their selfishness, but Jesus see their loneliness;

We see their worldliness, but Jesus see their emptiness;

We see their sneers, but Jesus see their soul;

We see their arrogance, but Jesus see their tiredness.

There's not a bird that falls from the sky that God does not see. The very hairs of your head are numbered by God. Isaiah 49:16, " Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me." God loves you dear friend!

1st Peter 5:7, " Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you." I often feel like God doesn't care about me, but I know that He does, because as a matter of faith I believe the Bible.

1.6.10 The Counterfeit Gospel Of Missionary Paris Reidhead (2020-08-06 10:30)

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

I was driving to Harvest Baptist Church on Easter Sunday morning in 2014, listening to the church's radio station on KHMG 88.1 FM, when for the first time I heard Paris Reidhead preach. It was a sermon named,

"[1]TEN SHEKELS AND A SHIRT."

I almost drove off the road as I heard him teach the heresy of Lordship Salvation. Paris Reidhead (1919-1992) was a religious missionary, teacher, writer and advocate of economic development in impoverished nations. Reidhead's sermons are popular on YouTube and various religious websites. Unfortunately, like Adrian Rogers, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, Paul Washer, Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, William Lane Craig and others, Paris Reidhead espouses a Calvinistic false plan of salvation known as "LORDSHIP SALVATION."

Consider the following heretical quotes from Reidhead's book, "FINDING THE REALITY OF GOD" . . .

THE DOCTRINE OF REPENTANCE:

"Repentance is defined by the Scripture as a change of mind, turning away from the intention and purpose of pleasing self and choosing to please God. The seed of all righteousness and holiness is in repentance. Perhaps a man's purpose - his aim and direction - is to please himself. But when he repents he must make an about-face This is a complete turnabout. From that moment on, the intention of this man is to please and glorify God - to satisfy only Him. The salvation of which Jesus speaks is not our being satisfied with Him, rather it is His being satisfied with us."

[emphasis added]

Paris Reidhead (Finding the Reality of God, pg 32-33)

"Repentance means making a 180-degree turn. It means changing your mindset from 'I'm going to do what I want to do,' to, 'Lord, I'm going to please You as long as I live.' It is a change of mind, a change of intention, a change of purpose, a change of practice." [emphasis added] —Paris Reidhead (Finding the Reality of God, pg 87)

"So we see that repentance has to be complete and not partial. Repentance is a committal of the will to the principle and practice of pleasing God in everything. That means, from today on, the Lord is going to be king and boss and sovereign. You do as He tells you. Because, out of love, He deserves to be obeyed and served. We need to understand this ourselves in order to proclaim it to others."

[emphasis added]

Paris Reidhead (Finding the Reality of God, pg 88)

"This is the nature of repentance. It is a change of mind - a change of intention - a change of purpose. It is not merely 'accepting Christ."

[emphasis added]

Paris Reidhead (Finding the Reality of God, pg. 89)

Notice how Paris Reidhead subtly begins in "FINDING THE REALITY OF GOD" by correctly defining "repentance" unto salvation as "a change of mind," but then he deceitfully and dishonestly redefines the word to mean: "Lord, I'm going to please You as long as I live." Pleasing God is a matter of discipleship and fellowship, not sonship. Salvation is immediate, but sanctification is a lifetime process. Mr. Reidhead is a theological liar!!!

Paris Reidhead is a false prophet teaching a doctrine of devils. On page 89 of his book "FINDING THE REALITY OF GOD" Reidhead errantly states, "Repentance is a committal of the will to the principle and practice of pleasing God in everything. That means, from today on, the Lord is going to be king and boss and sovereign. You do as He tells you." How did repentance begin as "a change of mind," but then become "a committal of the will to the principle and practice of pleasing God in everything?" What blatant heresy!!!

Anyone Who Requires Full Surrender For Salvation Is A Liar

I am wearied by these religious intellectuals like Paris Reidhead who make soul-winning hard and difficult. As I mentioned, I first learned about Missionary Paris Reidhead when I heard his classic sermon, "TEN SHEKELS AND A SHIRT," which is a powerful and great sermon, but toward the end he starts getting into the Lordship Salvation heresy. Reidhead is correct that the human race are all monsters of iniquity in need of repentance toward a holy God. We all need to repent of our wickedness. Reidhead is correct that there can be no repentance until their has first been conviction, convincing us that we are all monstrous criminals in the eyes of a holy God. The Bible is not trying to convince good men that they deserve the wrath of a bad God; but rather, the Word of God attempts to convince bad men that they deserve the wrath and anger of a good God. We all deserve to go straight to Hell and burn forever. I agree with all that! Christianity says that the end of all being is the glory of God. Humanism says that the end of all being is the happiness of man.

However, Paris Reidhead contrasts two types of repentance: claiming that one is based upon the conviction that we are all monsters of iniquity deserving of the damnation of Hell, whereas there is another insincere form of repentance that merely desires to escape being burned in the fires of Hell. May I say, there is nothing wrong with getting saved to avoid the fires and damnation of Hell. Reidhead is teaching a strange doctrine here that is unbiblical. Whether you get saved because you desire Heaven or fear Hell is irrelevant. I heard Dr. Jack Hyles in his great sermon, '[2]LITTLE SANCTUARIES,' say that the day he got saved he asked God to give him a mansion in Heaven. There's nothing wrong with that. Even Jesus Himself enticed us with the command to lay up FOR OURSELVES treasures in Heaven (Matthew 6:19-20).

There are no right or wrong reason to get saved, just so long as you come sincerely as an admitted guilty sinner and place your complete trust and reliance in the death of Jesus Christ upon the cross for YOUR SINS, and His burial, and His resurrection from the dead. Mark 1:15 says, "...Repent ye, and believe the gospel." The Bible doesn't say to clean up your life and believe the Gospel. Nor does the Bible say to repent and turn over a new leaf. No, it says to '[3]REPENT YE, AND BELIEVE THE GOSPEL.'

The Great Commission is four-fold:

1. You GO YE INTO ALL THE WORLD!
2. You go PREACH THE GOSPEL and get people saved first, so now they have the Holy Spirit to work inside of them.
3. Second, BAPTIZE THEM WITH WATER, which is their public profession of faith.
4. Then you DISCIPLE THOSE CONVERTS, which takes years if not decades, teaching them all about Jesus and the things of the Word of God.

The purpose of the Church is not to educate people; but rather, to disciple them to follow Christ.

This is how the great commission works. Our part is to preach the Gospel. Whatever changes need to be made in a convert's life is God's department, and you can be assured that He will attend to that is taught in Hebrews 12:6-8. God is not an absent parent, and He will raise His children (Hebrews 12:6-8).

Here is one of the greatest sermons that I've ever heard by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), which so plainly explains the debate over getting saved verses living the crucified life . . .

[4]The Saved, Crucified, Resurrected And Ascended Life

(an awesome MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles - [5]Read Article)

The Bible teaches that Jesus is the Savior of ALL MEN, especially of those that believe. 1st Timothy 4:10-11, "For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. These things command and teach." Not one verse in the Bible teaches that a sinner must declare "Jesus is Lord" to be saved, unless you have a perverted, corrupted and ungodly New International Version (NIV or H.I.V.) version of the Bible.

Anyone who teaches that someone didn't get saved, because they haven't made full surrender to Christ, is being a religious hypocrite and teaching false doctrine. The Bible says that eternal life is a gift, a free gift, which cannot be earned nor merited.

When a false preacher like Paris Reidhead teaches that a person MUST cease from sinful living to have eternal life, they have perverted the Gospel, ADDING something to salvation which God doesn't require (just as evil men did in Acts 15:1, 24). Like it or not, eternal life is a free gift for 'WHOSOEVER' wants it (Romans 10:13). Jesus promised to NEVER turn anyone away who comes unto Him (John 6:37). If you desire to come to Christ, then come dear friend, and He will save you just as He solemnly promised.

Romans 4:5 says "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." Notice that Jesus JUSTIFIETH THE UNGODLY. The entire notion that a person must clean up their life, reform and turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved, is Satanic teaching. We turn away from our sins because WE ARE SAVED, not to GET SAVED. Eternal life is the free gift of God the Bible says, and a gift is totally free without any obligations, requirements, nor strings attached. If you want to be saved, just LOOK TO THE CROSS OF JESUS CHRIST! A man's faith is COUNTED for righteousness! Woe unto the man who corrupts God's grace!

Jesus PROMISED in John 6:37 that He would NEVER turn anyone away who comes to Him. John 6:37, "All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out." We've got a bunch of wicked men, like Ray Comfort, Sam Horn, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron and John MacArthur running around, lying to people that Jesus won't accept them unless they are willing to surrender everything in exchange for God's gift of eternal life.

Paris Reidhead is preaching "ANOTHER GOSPEL" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Reidhead and other proponents of the Lordship Salvation heresy boldly claim that faith in Christ is insufficient to save a person. What saith the Scripture?

Romans 4:4-6, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works."

There you have it, plain and simple, the Bible teaches that a person's faith supersedes all self-righteousness. When religious people cringe and strongly disagree with the simple idea that a person can be saved by faith in the Gospel, they are 100 % going contrary to the plainest teachings of God's Word . . .

Acts 15:1 and 24, "And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. ... Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment."

A group of false prophets came to town in Acts 15:1 teaching a false plan of salvation, requiring people to keep the deeds of the law to be saved. Like demonic Lordship Salvationists, so also did these heretics add works to grace. Whether doing GOOD WORKS, or ceasing from BAD WORKS, these are all DEAD WORKS (Hebrews 6:1). My friend, Christ paid the price in full for your sins and mine, because we are horrible sinners, deserving of the Lake of Fire, but the love of God has provided redemption for us through the dear gift of God's only begotten Son, Jesus, the perfect Lamb of God. Repentance is forsaking ALL WORKS (bad and good alike), and resting completely in Jesus Christ for salvation (Hebrews 4:10-11). Lordship Salvation proponents require people to forsake bad works to be saved, but that is wrong! To be saved you don't try to do good works, nor do you try to forsake bad works (i.e., turning from sins), you simply believe on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and receive God's free gift of eternal life.

We hypocritically sing the famous Gospel hymn "JUST AS I AM" in our churches, but then tell people that God won't save them unless they make full surrender, turn over a new leaf, forsake their sinful bad habits, and intend to reform for the rest of their life. What a crock of garbage! The song

"JUST AS I AM" is accurate, you come JUST AS YOU ARE and God saves you by faith alone, without works!

1.6.11 Be Not Moved Away From The Hope Of The Gospel (2020-08-06 21:30)

Colossians 1:20-23, "

And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

2012

And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled

In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreproveable in his sight:

If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel*, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister;"

Our text above is a very interesting passage of Scripture. The Apostle Paul is warning the believers at the church of Colossae, not to be MOVED AWAY from the hope of the Gospel. I like what Pastor Jack Hyles used to say—he said we don't hope to someday have eternal life; but rather, WE HAVE A HOPE of eternal life now! Titus 1:2, "In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

" I have the hope of eternal life because I have Jesus dwelling in me! Jesus is eternal life (1st John 5:20). The phrase "moved away" is the Greek word metakineō, which means, "to stir away elsewhere." And the word "hope" is the Greek word elpis, which means "expectation." The word "continue" is the Greek word epimenō and means, "to stay over, that is, remain." Certainly you don't need to know the Greek meaning of words to understand the Word of God, but they help to clarify meaning.

A common saying is that a picture is worth 1,000 words. I can't think of a better illustration of someone being moved away (stirred away elsewhere) from the hope (or expectation) of the Gospel, than [1]Bob Jones University today. Perhaps you say, "Oh boy, why do you keep picking on them over there at BJU?" Well, besides being banned from seeing the woman I love at [2]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, it is for the same reason that I would incessantly bang on your door at 3 a.m., if your house were burning in flames. It is because I care about others! I love you folks at BJU and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, enough to risk your anger and rejection, while you still can't figure out why I am so zealous to preach against your doctrines of devils and use of Devil's Bibles.

Kindly said, when the Bob Jones' crowd get to Heaven, if they make it at all (I seriously doubt it), they will weep in sorrow and regret, as they learn from the Lord Himself that I was right in everything I preached about them. If Pastor Jack Hyles was right, I am right. If Brother Lester Roloff was right, I am right. If Bob Jones Sr. was right, I am right. If the Apostle Paul was right, I am right! If all these men were right about a free grace Gospel, and about the inspired King James Bible, then I am right. If the King James Bible is right, I am right!!! To God alone be the glory!

I was listening to Dr. Steve Pettit on 'The Daily Platform' (BJU chapel sermons) the other day, and he quoted something that Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) said. But the sad thing is that Dr. Pettit didn't mention Dr. Bob's name. I recognized the quote immediately. Mr. Pettit just stated: "A man once said, 'Do right, thought the stars fall!"' Really, you mean to tell me that BJU is so far gone spiritually in 2020, that you cannot even bring yourself to mention your founder's name anymore? That is pathetic! The truth is that Dr. Steve Pettit is a dangerous wolf in sheep's clothing, and BJU made a big mistake when they hired him in 2014, because now he is selling the college down the river of Lordship Salvation, ecumenism, counterfeit Bible versions and apostasy, the end of which journey is in Hell.

Sadly, over 97 % of professed Christians today merely go along to get along with all manner of error, heresy and even crimes, to please their religious leaders. The Lord said He came to set us free from all that. John 8:32, "

And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

" What truth?

John 8:36, "

If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. " Jesus is the truth (John 14:7). The King James Bible is truth (John 17:17). The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of truth (John 16:13). Remember, religion wants to fit you with glasses, so you'll see through their filtered lenses, but the Lord wants to open your eyes! The truth will open your eyes, and Jesus is the way, the truth and the life (John 14:6).

1.6.12 False 'UNSHACKLED' Salvation Of Debbie Brooks (2020-08-07 01:39)

Galatians 1:6-7, " I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

Many of UNSHACKLED's heart-touching stories are a nice fairytale, but they are not Scriptural! Here is PGM's 'GO TO' Bible passage—2nd Corinthians 5:17-18, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;" There is a fine line between faith and foolishness! God knows that I am not trying to be negative, nor criticize Pacific Garden Mission without a cause; but rather, they are pressuring sinners to make a commitment to turn away from sin to be saved, which is not a part of the Gospel.

For example: In UNSHACKLED [1]program #3589 (aired in 2020), a woman named Debbie Brooks meets with a religious friend named Sharon:

> SHARON: Trusting Jesus is the only thing that can make a difference in my messed-up life.

> DEBBIE: I keep hearing that in church, but I don't get it—how something that EASY can be a life-changer.

SHARON: Oh Debbie, it's not easy —believing in Jesus means repenting and asking forgiveness for all the old ways, and then GIVING THEM UP FOR GOOD . When you find the COURAGE TO DO THAT, He'll help you CHANGE YOUR LIFE.

DEBBIE: Huh, well, I'll have to think about it.

Dear reader, what you just read taught by Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago is of the Devil, straight out of the pits of Hell. I hope you see how evil this is. PGM has moved away from the hope of the Gospel. According to the preceding UNSHACKLED program, it is NOT EASY to be saved; because you are required to GIVE UP YOUR OLD SINFUL WAYS PERMANENTLY! That is "another gospel" accursed by God! Somewhere along the way, Moody Bible Institute, Bob Jones University and Pacific Garden Mission became devout followers of Pastor John MacArthur's demonic Lordship Salvation garbage theology! God's curse is upon all of them...

Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

Pacific Garden Mission are PREACHING ANOTHER GOSPEL!!! We are taught in 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 that the Gospel is simple. Having to forsake the old sinful way of life is anything but simple. PGM has it backwards. God's plan of salvation is simply that you come to God as a needy sinner, and you receive His Son's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. PGM demands that you turn from your sins first, which is not what the Bible teaches. PGM's false gospel is that you must make a commitment to follow the Lord. Judas followed Jesus and went to Hell. Matthew 27:3 says Judas "repented" of his sins, but he wasn't saved at all. Millions of religious people falsely think they will be in Heaven someday, but they will be in Hell. Luke 13:23-24, “Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.”

Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) says these helpful words, explaining the meaning of Luke 13:5...

> In Luke 13:5 Jesus said, “I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.”
>
> The context of this verse shows that they needed to repent or change their mind regarding > punishment and sin. In this passage, Christ was talking to good people who believed that people > suffered only because of their sins, and they concluded that those in Galilee whose blood Pilate
>
>
>
> mingled with sacrifices and those on whom the tower of Siloam fell were greater sinners because > they died such horrible deaths. Jesus contradicts the thinking of these self-righteous people and
>
>
> tells them that they need to repent or change their mind and see themselves as sinners, too, or
>
> they will perish in their own self-righteousness.

> One does not have to know the Greek language to see that “repent” in this passage does not > mean feeling sorry for or turning from sin. [emphasis added]
>

SOURCE: Pastor Curtis Hutson, ’[2]Repentance: What Does The Bible Say?’

Many proponents of Lordship Salvation cite Luke 13:5 to support their heresy. There is not one verse in the Bible that teaches to repent of sin or turn from sin to be saved. We are simply taught to "... BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST...

(Acts 16:30-31).

The Gospel is not open to embellishment. There is a certain degree of allowable semantics in presenting God's plan of salvation, but the Gospel itself is set in concrete! Here it is:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

There you have it—Jesus DIED, was BURIED, and miraculously RESURRECTED three days later. There is no mention of turning away from sins, forsaking the old ways for good, following Christ, speaking in tongues, getting water baptized, joining a church, praying, confessing Jesus publicly, running the race, nor of anything else to be saved! The apostle Paul said this is 'THE GOSPEL,' which Jesus personally gave to Him.

> Galatians 1:11-12, "But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ."

1.6.13 I Can Do All Things Through A Bible Verse Out Of Context (2020-08-07 04:19)

2nd Peter 3:16-18, "

As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness. But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen."

I can do all things through a Bible verse taken out of context! As a general rule, a Bible student should never lift a text out of context, lest you create a new pretext (heresy). By taking Bible verses out of context, you can literally teach ANYTHING. I'm not kidding! I have heard some crazy stuff in my lifetime. I knew a religious man years ago who used the following Scripture to justify sinning. 1st Corinthians 11:31, " For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged." He figured he wouldn't be judged, even before he had committed the sin, just so long as he admitted it was wrong! He forget about Psalms 66:18-19,

"If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me: But verily God hath heard me; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer." Proverbs 3:12, " For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth. "

Folks, anything can be justified if you don't have the Holy Spirit to guide you into the truth. ...

> John 16:12-14, "I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.
>
> Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.
> He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. "

When unsaved people get religion, but are not born-again, and then they try to figure out the Bible without the Holy Spirit and teach others, you end up with heretics like Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, John MacArthur, Ellen White, Charles Russell, Joseph Smith, John Corapi, Ray Comfort and Billy Graham, to name but a few.

The Bible foretold that many false prophets would come in the last days. Matthew 24:11, “ And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.

” 1st John 4:1, “

Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

” When I was a younger Christian, I knew early on that Roman Catholicism is a religious cult. I knew that the Jehovah’s Witnesses are a religious cult. I was saved at age 13. As a teenager I read my parent’s copy of Walter Martin’s classic book: ’[1]The Kingdom Of The Cults.’

However, it never dawned on me until I attended [2]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for a year in 2014, that there are many heretical Baptist churches today, which preach another gospel! Tragically, most Baptist churches have been infected with the “turn from your sins” garbage theology to be saved, which is not the childlike faith of John 3:16.

I became a Baptist at age 13 when I got saved, and have been an independent fundamental Baptist ever since, and I am proud of that! Being Baptist doesn’t make me a Christian, but as a Christian the Baptist church aligns closest with the inspired Word of God, in my humble opinion. Please notice that I said “FUNDAMENTAL.” Most Baptist churches today are neo-evangelical, like the [3]shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I made this chart to show some major differences between these groups...

New Testament Churches Are Changing
FUNDAMENTALIST	NEO-FUNDAMENTALIST	NEO-EVANGELICAL
Inspired Bible	Only Originals Inspired	Not Inspired
King James Bible	King James + Modern Revisions	Modern Revisions
Free Grace Gospel	Free Grace + Lordship Salvation	Mostly Lordship Salvation
Saved	Some Saved	Many Not Saved
Preaching	Speaking	Performance
Holy Spirit	Routine	Experience
Hymns	Hymns + CCM	Contemporary Christian Music
Soulwinning	Evangelism	Barren
Bold	Cowards	Wimps
New Birth	Turn From Sin	Commit Life To Christ
Truth Matters	Indifferent	Apathetic
Hot	Lukewarm	Cold
Separated	Compromised	Worldly
Dresses On Women	Dresses And Pants	Pants On Women
LGBTQ Agenda Rejected	LGBTQ Agenda Avoided	LGBTQ Agenda Accepted
Growing	Rotting	Swelling

Today's neo-evangelical Baptist churches are infected with Calvinism. I read somewhere recently that 31 % of all Southern Baptist Churches are Calvinist in doctrine! [5]Moody Bible Institute's statement of faith declares that they are Calvinists. [6]Calvinism is not the Gospel, not by a long shot! John Calvin (1509-1564) is burning in Hell, because he thought living the Christian life was part of the Gospel. [7]That's what Ellen G. White of the Seventh-Day Adventists believes too! The Gospel is so simple that most men pass right over it, complicating God's plan of salvation with religion. Man is incurably religious!

Never Use An Obscure Passage To Contradict A Clear One

There are a few basic rules of Bible interpretation to follow, which if observed will keep you from going astray. The first I learned from Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), who said: “

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.

” In literally hundreds of places in the Word of God, we are taught that salvation is by faith alone in Jesus Christ. Yet the proponents of Lordship Salvation always run to a small handful of Scripture passages that mention the word repent, taking all of them horribly out of context.

For example: cartoon evangelist Jack Chick (1924-2016) quotes Luke 13:5 on his website’s statement of faith, in a failed attempt to justify his heresy that you must “ be willing to turn from sin

(which he errantly considered to mean

) to be saved. Kindly said, Jack Chick took Luke 13:5 out of context to create his own pretext, to support his heresy. Dr. Curtis Hutson explains Luke 13:5 and gets it 100 % correct:

> In Luke 13:5 Jesus said, “I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.” The context of this verse shows that they needed to repent or change their mind regarding punishment and sin. In this passage, Christ was talking to good people who believed that people suffered only because of their sins, and they concluded that those in Galilee whose blood Pilate mingled with sacrifices and those on whom the tower of Siloam fell were greater sinners because they died such horrible deaths. Jesus contradicts the thinking of these self-righteous people and tells them that they need to repent or change their mind and see themselves as sinners, too, or they will perish in their own self-righteousness.

One does not have to know the Greek language to see that “repent” in this passage does not mean feeling sorry for or turning from sin.

SOURCE: Dr. Curtis Hutson, ’[8]Repentance: What Does The Bible Teach?’

So we see that it is very easy to take a passage of Scripture out of context.

Never Base A Doctrine On A Single Bible Verse

Another rule to follow is to never interpret a single Bible verse, without taking into consideration the entire passage. For example: Another “ passage often used by advocates of Lordship Salvation is found in Matthew 24:13,

But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. ” They’ll take this single Bible verse, and use it to teach that Calvinism is true, saying that a saint must persevere in holiness until the end to be saved. Yet, if they would simply continue reading, they would read in verse 22,

“And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect’s sake those days shall be shortened. ” So we see that the subject is FLESH and not SALVATION! Do you see how easy the Bible is to understand, when we simply read the entire passage? So this is another important rule of exegesis to remember.

Another example is Romans 10:9-10, "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. " The Church of Christ religious denomination cite this passage, to support their heresy that a person must confess Christ publicly to be saved. They foolishly base that errantly belief on one Bible passage. But if they would simply read John 12:42-43, they would know they are wrong! John 12:42-34, "Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God." These men were saved, because they believed, but they did not confess the name of Jesus. This proves that Romans 10:9-10 does not teach confession is required to be saved.

Romans 10:9-10 simply means that a believer confesses Christ publicly, because they are saved. But this is not an absolute rule, nor a requirement to be saved. Salvation is a matter of believing in the heart, which the Bible makes plainly clear. Likewise, water baptism is not required to be saved. In baptism, we relate to Christ's death, burial and resurrection, showing our faith. Baptism is one's public profession of faith! No one in the Bible was ever baptized until AFTER they were saved.

Beware Of Internet Preachers

The Bible says in Philippians 4:13, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." But for some people it's: I can do all things through a Bible verse taken out of context! You have to be really careful nowadays, because anybody and their dog, literally, can start a YouTube account and become a preacher! There are heretics like Renee Roland, who denies that Hell has fire and eternal punishment. She has tens of thousands of followers!

And then there is Robert Breaker, who falsely says people were saved by works in the Old Testament. That is the same garbage C.I. Scofield and Dr. Peter Ruckman taught! Bryan Derringer teaches the Lordship Salvation heresy. Joshua Chavez falsely says you can lose your salvation. YouTube is full of theological deceivers and liars! They are unlearned and ignorant of the Scriptures, wrestling the Scriptures to their own destruction, and the demise of those who follow them. Beware of dogs!

I receive thousands of emails. Many of them are from people who are confused, worried and doubtful, after reading what some corrupt preacher said on the internet. I always encourage people to get into the inspired King James Bible, and "Let your fingers do the walking!

" That was a slogan years ago for the Yellow Pages phonebook. They encouraged you to use the phonebook, instead of wasting your time walking around trying to find what you're looking for. And so I say to you, instead of relying upon unlearned and dangerous wannabe theologians on YouTube, **"

SEARCH

THE SCRIPTURES

(John 5:39a). It's okay to listen to online preachers, for I is one (lol), but ALWAYS look to the inspired Word of God as your final and only authority in all matters of faith, morality and life's decisions.

1.6.14 The Danger Of Adding To Faith Alone (2020-08-07 09:30)

Galatians 3:24-26, " Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

The Gospel is so delicate that it is easily corrupted. We are all guilty and needy sinners (Romans 3:10-23). The “Gospel” (or “Good News”) is simply that Jesus Christ DIED on the cross for our sins, He was BURIED, and He physically RESURRECTED three days later from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Anybody who places childlike FAITH (reliance) in this “GOOD NEWS” is saved. Faith is all that God requires! Our text passage from Galatians 3:26 simply says, “For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.” In hundreds of Scripture passages we are taught that salvation is BY FAITH.

But along comes a spider, a thief, a liar, a false prophet, a [1]Bob Jones University Bible professor —who ADDS the unbiblical requirement to “REPENT OF YOUR SIN,”

“

TURN FROM YOUR SINS,

” or “BE WILLING TO TURN FROM YOUR SINS”

to be saved! These are all another gospel, which cannot produce the new birth (regeneration).

The [2]following helpful words are from The Middletown Bible Church in Middletown, Connecticut. I thank God for their faithful pastor and church for contending for the Christian faith. ...

In recent years many Reformed men have been strongly promoting what has been called "Lordship Salvation." Essentially Lordship salvation teaches that simple faith in Jesus Christ is not enough for salvation. Something else is needed. A solid commitment to Christ is needed. A person needs to surrender to the Lordship of Christ. A willingness to obey Christ's commands is a necessary condition. Also the sinner must fulfill the demands of discipleship or at least be willing to fulfill them in order to have eternal life.

We must never forget that a person is saved because he throws himself upon the mercy of a loving Savior who died for him. It is not our COMMITMENT that saves us; it is our CHRIST who saves us! It is not our SURRENDER that saves us; it is our Savior who does! It is not what I do for God; it is what God has done for me.

We need to avoid the dangerous error of taking what should be the RESULT of salvation and making it the REQUIREMENT for salvation:

- It is because I am saved that I surrender to His Lordship.

- It is because I am saved that I follow Him in willing obedience.

- It is because I am saved that I agree to the terms of discipleship.

- It is because I am saved that I submit to His authority over every area of my life.

Behavior and fruit are the evidences of saving faith but they are not the essence of saving faith. Don't confuse the fruit with the root. Because we are justified freely by His grace we measure up to the full demands of God's righteousness in Christ (2 Cor. 5:21); because we are frail we often fail to measure up to the full demands of discipleship (Luke 14:25–33, etc.). The requirements of discipleship are many; the requirement for salvation is simple faith and trust in the Savior.

My commitment to Jesus Christ does not save me: CHRIST SAVES ME BY HIS GRACE. My surrender to His Lordship does not save me. CHRIST SAVES ME BY HIS GRACE. My obedience to His Word does not save me. CHRIST SAVES ME BY HIS GRACE. My love for the Savior does not save me. CHRIST SAVES ME BY HIS GRACE. My ability or lack of ability to fulfill all the demands of discipleship does not save me. CHRIST SAVES ME BY HIS GRACE. My behavior (conduct) does not save me. CHRIST SAVES ME BY HIS GRACE.

God's saving grace is to be found in the Person of the Lord Jesus Christ. He alone can satisfy God's holiness and righteousness! Eternal life is not something that we earn or achieve by our faithful living throughout our Christian life. Instead, it is a free gift that we receive at the moment we first believe in Christ. This LIFE is the present possession of every believer: "He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life" (1 John 5:12; all verbs are in the present tense).

Have you been justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus? Is your hope built upon what you have done or is your hope based upon Jesus' blood and righteousness? "I dare not trust the sweetest frame, but WHOLLY LEAN ON JESUS' NAME!" May we be standing fully on Christ the solid Rock, not upon the sinking sand of our own fragile commitment.

Beware of the Devil's lie that you must "

repent of your sin

" or

"turn from your sinful ways" to be saved. You get saved by believing the Gospel, not by turning from anything! I've heard some sincerely deceived Baptist pastors defend the wrong repentance crowd, saying that you have to turn FROM something in order to turn TO Christ. Well, if a person accepts Jesus as their personal Savior, who cares what they have turned from, because they are now saved (which shows that they have repented, i.e., changed their mind). Lordship Salvation and the Wrong Repentance are not always the same thing. I have met pastors who refute Lordship Salvation, but promote wrong repentance; however, both doctrines of devils promote the same evil of ADDING to faith alone.

The Lordship Salvation and Wrong Repentance crowd say you must "turn from your sin" as an ADDITIONAL step to saving faith. The Bible teaches that repentance and faith are simply two parts of ONE ACT OF BELIEVING (Acts 20:21). Repentance is simply the recognition of one's self as a needy sinner, which compels us to place our faith in the Gospel. Repentance does not mean to forsake the world, turn from sinful bad habits, nor be willing to turn from one's sins. To "repent" simply means

a change of mind

"—a change of mind from WRONG THINKING of what I want to do to get to Heaven, to what God says I must do to get to Heaven.

This is what Hebrews 6:1 means by repentance from "

DEAD WORKS.

" All works are dead works! Keeping the law (effectively the same as turning from your sins) is dead works!!! Good works and bad works are DEAD WORKS! You don't get saved by doing good works, nor do you get saved by turning away from bad works, you get saved by RESTING in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ. Hebrews 4:10-11, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

" How ironic it is then, that so many false teachers today require lost sinners to repent (turn) from their sin

to be saved. As we just read in Hebrews 4:10-11, salvation requires CEASING FROM OUR OWN WORKS!!! That means you DON'T have to turn from your sins to be saved, which would be self-righteousness (i.e., human reformation). Either God does the saving —ALL OF IT—or else we don't go to Heaven

!!!

1.6.15 God Hates Sin, But Not The Sinner (2020-08-08 10:00)

Psalms 5:5-7, " The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity. Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: the LORD will abhor the bloody and deceitful man. But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple."

I've heard some people quote Psalm 5:5 as evidence that God hates some people. This would contradict John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. " The answer is very simple, there are different Greek words for love used in the Bible. I have heard a few Baptist pastors make fun on these differences, but they are showing their nativity and unlearned ignorance of the Scriptures in so doing.

> The Ancient Greeks' 6 Words for Love (And Why Knowing Them Can Change Your Life)

- Eros, or sexual passion. ...
- Philia, or deep friendship. ...
- Ludus, or playful love. ...
- Agape, or love for everyone. ...
- Pragma, or longstanding love. ...
- Philautia, or love of the self.

> SOURCE: [1]The Ancient Greek's 6 Words For Love

In John 3:16, the word " loved

” means agape , or love for everyone. When Jesus asked the Apostle Peter in John 21:16 if He loved Him, Jesus meant agape . But Peter responded by using the word fileho (friend) for love. Jesus was asking Peter if he loved him unconditionally, but Peter replied by saying he was fond of the Lord. You see, when you are only fond of somebody, when circumstances change you are no longer fond of them. We call those “ fair weather friends.

Jesus was about to be crucified and leave. Peter’s friend would be gone. Jesus was teaching Peter that if he truly loved him, then he would keep His commandments after He was gone (John 14:15). Jesus commanded Peter to

“

FEED MY SHEEP

(

believers

), when He was gone.

Only a naive and foolish preacher would make fun of these Greek differences, and scold Christians for consulting the source languages.

I am a firm believer that Christians today don’t need anything more than our English King Jame Bible, but it certainly doesn’t hurt to study the Masoretic Hebrew and Textus Receptus from which our beloved King James Bible was translated. We are commanded to

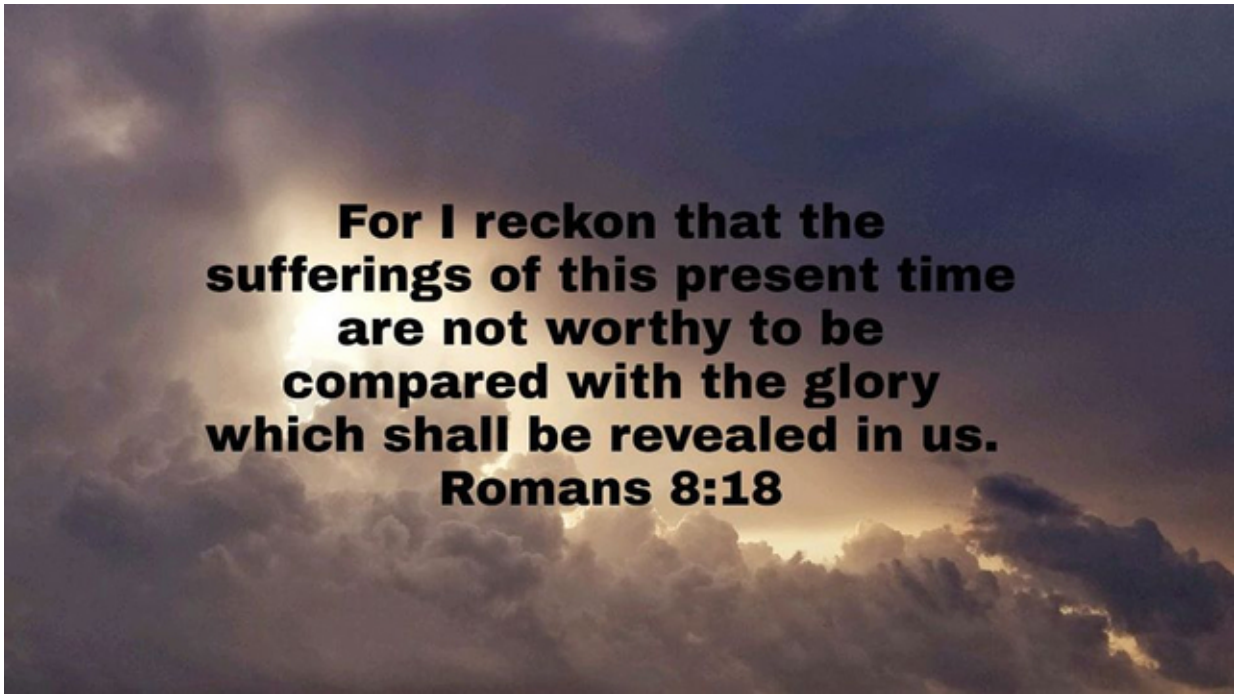
(2nd Timothy 2:15). Sometimes know-it-all religious people want to argue over Bible version discrepancies, but I refuse to lower myself to their ignorant level. If you don’t see a big problem in having hundreds of English Bible revisions today, you have a big fool! [2]Bob Jones University are damned fools!!! They sanction and use [3]multiple Bible revisions from multiple ancient texts, which woefully contradict each other.

A simple Bible study reveals that God loves all humanity unconditionally. Some preachers are ignorant of God’s love, teaching that God would never send someone to Hell that He loves.



That is like saying that an earthly judge would never sentence someone to capital punishment if they loved them. Such unlearned preachers fail to understand that God's holiness demands justice, but that does not cancel God's unconditional love. Beware of any preacher who endorses hating people! God does not hate homosexuals, He loves them so much that He sacrificed His only begotten Son on the cross to pay for their sins (Romans 5:6-8). How can anyone hate any sinner, for whom Christ died? I don't care how popular or successful a pastor may become, he will always be a failure in Heaven's sight until he learns to love everyone with God's unconditional love.

We must never accept the sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin. The psalmist David often spoke imprecatory prayers, wanting to see his enemies get what they had coming to them. Psalms 58:6, " Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth: break out the great teeth of the young lions, O LORD." Like David, there are many wicked people whom I desire to see punished. There are many people who have hurt me throughout my life, who got away with it, and there was nothing I could do. God promises in Romans 12:19-21 to avenge me of all evil against me, and vise versa if I've ever hurt anyone and failed to make reconciliation and restitution. This law of God applies to all humanity! But I do not hate anyone. I have forgiven everyone. I do not believe King David hated his enemies. What saith the Scripture? Psalms 109:4, " For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer." David didn't say that he returnee evil for evil, but he prayed.

Forgiveness isn't letting a matter go, it is releasing an offence into God's hands for judgment, so we can move on in life and serve Christ. Forgiveness is a matter of faith, trusting that God will hold all humanity accountable as the Bible teaches (Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; 1st Thessalonians 4:6; Romans 14:10-12).

I refuse to hate anyone. I may hate everything about them. I may hate their sinful behavior. I may hate their sinful attitude. I may hate their abusive ways. But I choose to unconditionally love them with God's love, which the Holy Spirit sheds abroad in my soul as God's redeemed child. Jesus is precious!

1.6.16 Jesus Said To “Be Of Good Cheer” To All Saints (2020-08-09 09:30)

John 16:33, “ These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.”

These are perilous times, with all that’s going on in the world, with the Coronavirus pandemic, and all the mob nonsense going on in the United States. Consequently, a lot of people are succumbing to related stress and frustrations, and suicides are skyrocketing worldwide. American society is presently overwhelmed with health issues and mental distress. Many people are not getting along with their spouse, and may sometimes wonder where God is in all the seemingly impossible situations in people's lives. But nothing is impossible to our God! Luke 1:37, "

For with God nothing shall be impossible.

America is on it's way out unless something happens. The country is facing a national coin shortage due to the pandemic, and some places want an exact cash amount or you have to pay by credit or debit card. We are definitely headed for a cashless society, which we read about in Revelation 13:17. Without the mark of the Beast, no one will be able to buy or sell. Obviously hard currency won't be accepted anymore in the near future. Already we are seeing this in many places, and on all airplanes, where cash is not accepted.

I can assure you that nightmare conditions are coming to the United States in the next couple years. At present, over 35,000,000 Americans are unemployed because of the Coronavirus, and I heard on the news recently that at least 40 % of those people won't be getting their jobs back. Many people are survivors and will no doubt adapt, but millions will succumb to poverty and all manner of related evils. Could the lockdown be worse than the virus itself at killing us?

I think it is obvious that end time Bible prophecy is slowly but surely coming to pass. I could go on for a long time. The powers that be evidently think they can keep things closed down forever due to the virus, and our country cannot survive that way. The predictions are all doom and gloom. More and more people are being infected with the virus and hospitals are getting full to capacity. Doctors are committing suicide, overwhelmed with stress and grief. Where I live on Guam it is all the same. Stores will not allow you to enter without a mask, and if you forget, they treat you like a criminal. This is author George Orwell's dystopian nightmare come true, times ten, as depicted in his classic book titled, " [1]1984 .

" The book is considered a literary classic due to its uncanny accuracy about a futuristic totalitarian world government (aka, "Big Brother"). Mr. Orwell was not a Christian, so his book uses a bit of strong language. If you prefer listening than reading, like me, [2]you can listen to the 3 hour book '1984' read on YouTube .

Despite the problems all around us dear saint, we need not be perplexed or worried in the least. Our God is faithful. If you are a born-again believer, you have so much to rejoice about! This temporal life is merely as a vapor the Bible says, which appears for a short time and then vanishes away. James 4:14, " Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away." But thank God that truth never changes! God never changes! Jesus Christ never changes! My anchor holds!!! Hebrews 13:8,

"Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. " I love that Bible verse. Our Lord hasn't changed over the past 2,000 years. What you read about Jesus in the Bible dear saint, is as relevant today as it was back then. Malachi 3:6 teaches that the Lord never changes.

John 16:33, " These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." No matter what happens in life, the Christian can keep his or her head high and rejoice. Our God liveth!

Lamentations 3:23b, "great is thy faithfulness." God is faithful. 2nd Timothy 2:13, "If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself." Concerning the future Tribulation period, Jesus foretold in Matthew 24:6, "And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet."

We are not in the Tribulation yet, but I believe we are getting very near. We certainly are hearing about rumors of wars, pestilences (Coronavirus), famines (Africa), but these are not the Tribulation yet.

I believe the Rapture of the Church must happen first. My rational is very simple. Titus 2:13, "Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; " Only a pretribulation Rapture makes sense doctrinally. If Christ's Second Coming and the Rapture are the same event, as some misled pastors are teaching nowadays, then the Antichrist must appear first. If that be true, then why would we be commanded to look for the appearing of the blessed Saviour? No, Jesus could come at any time, just as the Holy Bible teaches (Mark 13:35-37). Jesus could come back today!!!

1.6.17 Living For Jesus (2020-08-10 10:30)

“ And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel’s, the same shall save it. For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels. ” —Mark 8:34-38

Only what's done for Jesus' sake or the Gospel's will matter when we get to eternity. What are you doing for God? Have you told anyone lately about the Good News of salvation through Jesus Christ? There is still a great need for missionaries in all parts of the world! Eighty-percent of the people living in the interior of Papa New Guinea don't have any utilities and don't even use money. They barter crops and livestock with each other. The average ANNUAL salary in places like Afghanistan is about $140. In China it's about $300. In Papa New Guinea it's about $485. This is per year! You'd be shocked how many people in this world live on LESS THAN $1 A DAY. Would you believe 1,400,000,000? That is accurate.

Oh how the world needs Jesus! If nothing else, you can support a Christian Baptist missionary who is serving the Lord on the mission field. There are so many ways you can further the Gospel of Jesus Christ. There are many churches which distribute free tracts worldwide. I love leaving tracts everywhere I go. You can be intuitive and think of ways on your own to spread the Good News of Christ. There is something that every believer can and should do to help get people saved. I don't care how successful a ministry may seem, if the Gospel is not being preached, then they are a total failure in Heaven's sight (Matthew 7:21-23).

By the way, there's a lot of phony so-called "Christian"

TV and radio shows that beg for money and sugarcoat the truth as to not offend people. The truth needs to be spoken without apology. There is something that everybody can do for Jesus' sake and the Gospel's. Life is short, Hell is hot, and eternity is a long time.

Only one life, 'twill soon be past,
Only what's done for Christ will last.
And when I am dying, how happy I'll be,
If the lamp of my life has been burned out for Thee.

by British Missionary Charles T. Studd (1860-1931)

If you want to serve the Lord, join a local Bible-believing church. I always recommend a Bible-believing, soul-winning, King James Bible only, people-loving, [1]Independent Fundamental Baptist Church and get involved. Doctrinally, you won't find a better church than a fundamental Baptist church. Get involved and join a soul-winning program. Some churches have a Fisherman's Club for men (or a Lighthouse Club for the ladies). Jesus wants to make every believer a fisher of men! Mark 1:17, " And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men."

Soulwinning is every believer's responsibility. Luke 8:15, "

But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

" Bearing fruit as a believer is God's intended goal for us. Pastor Dwight L. Moody wisely said, "It is the only happy life to live for the salvation of souls." Proverbs 11:30, " The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.

" 1st Corinthians 9:16, " For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!" Sharing the Gospel is not just for full-time Christian workers. Life is short, Hell is hot, and eternity is a long time. Somebody needs to warn the lost. We are the only Jesus that somebody knows. So if we don't witness to them, nobody else will!

Money always seems to be the biggest set back to getting more done for God. It's a shame. I sometimes wish I had a billion dollars to do so much for God. Then I stop and realize that if God wanted me to have a billion dollars, I would have it! No, God works in His own way, in His own time, and in His own sovereign plan. We are expected to do what we can with what God has given us. God asked Moses, "...What is that in thine hand? And he said, A rod" (Exodus 4:2). A rod? God empowered Moses through that rod to deliver Israel from the land of Egypt. Moses brought the plagues upon Egypt through that little rod.

God can use whatever is in your hand friend to do mighty things if it is yielded to Him. God needs not our money nor our talents, He needs our heart and obedience. Commit what you have dear Christian to God and start serving the Lord Jesus Christ. This is an adulterous and sinful generation. Will you tell others about Jesus Christ and be counted as a fool for Jesus? Or are you ashamed of your Savior? Don't deny your Savior and Creator—tell the Good News of Jesus far and wide for all to hear.

My friend, do you know Jesus as your personal Savior? Have you been born again? Simply come to God as a needy sinner, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. Believe that Jesus is the Son of God who died, was buried, and bodily resurrected from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). That is the 'GOOD NEWS' of Jesus Christ that saves even the vilest sinner, if you'll simply receive it as your own. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

1.6.18 The Judgment Of The Nations (2020-08-11 09:30)

Matthew 25:31-46, " When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory: And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats: And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink? When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels: For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not. Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee? Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal."

But be careful not to make the mistake of thinking that this is a general judgment of the 195 political entities called "nations." There will not be a separation of sheep and goat "nations." This judgment will be of individual people from all the nations of the earth. After billions have died in the plagues and judgments of the future Great Tribulation, the tens of millions remaining will stand before Christ to be judged as individuals. There will be the saved and the unsaved! There is considerable debate on this topic. This is what I believe Scripturally.

Please consider Matthew 7:21-23. These people boasted to Christ of their "many wonderful works" done is His name. They boasted of their preaching in Jesus' name, calling Him "LORD, LORD." They were completely sincere. But the Lord said He never knew them, calling them "workers of iniquity." They were shocked! You see, you are not one of Jesus' sheep unless you have been born-again, and that only happens by doing the will of the Father, which according to John 6:40 is to BELIEVE on the Son of God. Those foolish people had been deceived by the Devil to live the Christian life, without ever being born-again. This is the foolish Lordship Salvation group today, who call Jesus, "LORD, LORD," but they have not done the will of the Father, [1]they have added works to pervert grace.

This is very interesting. In Matthew 25:31-46 we see the righteous doing many wonderful works. But in Matthew 7:21-23 we see a group of people doing many wonderful works in Jesus' name, but they are unrighteous (goats). So not all goats do evil. Some goats do works of righteousness. And not all sheep do righteousness. Some sheep do evil things. So what's the difference between the sheep and the goats? What makes a lamb a lamb? John 10:1 and 9, “

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. ...I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

” If you are not a sheep dear friend, you can become one right now, by simply entering through

” of Jesus by faith! Simply come oh needy sinner, receiving Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried and raised up from the dead three days later. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

You don’t have to do anything to be saved accept believe the Good News of Jesus Christ. You need to know WHO He is, WHAT He has done for you, and WHY He did it. Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God (John 20:31). He died on the cross for our sins, was buried, and bodily resurrected three days later from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Jesus died for our sins because we are guilty sinners (Romans 3:23), and there is a penalty for those sins in Hell forever (Romans 6:23; Revelation 20:12-15; 21:8; Psalms 9:17).

So we learn by comparing Scripture with Scripture, that the defining factor in Matthew 25:31-46 of what makes one is solely based upon faith.

My destination is not based upon how I live my life, it’s on whom that I trust to save me. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

1.6.19 God Won’t Let You Slide If You’re Wrong On The Gospel (2020-08-12 10:30)

Matthew 7:21-23, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. "

An increasing disturbing trend is to accept Free Grace Theology and Lordship Salvation as both within the limits of orthodox Christianity. Nothing could be further from the truth! That is the Devil's work of ecumenism (yoking Christian believers with religious unbelievers). These two ideologies are enemies of one another, and simply cannot both be the Gospel truth! A Free Grace Gospel is correct. Lordship Salvation is not even close to God's plan of salvation. Please do not be deceived dear friend. The Bible is not vague on God's plan of salvation. '[1]What Is The Gospel?' (by Pastor Harry Ironside, 1876-1951).

> "In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!" —President Abraham Lincoln

It would be easy to rationalize that a loving God will let people slide someday. I mean, after all, somebody who spends their life doing many wonderful works in Jesus' name deserves to be rewarded, right? I would actually agree. That makes sense to our humanitarian sense of compassion, decency and fairness. The problem is that it is not what God says in the Holy Bible. You and I are criminals in God's sight (Romans 3:10-23). I don't care how good of a person you may be (as far as humans go), you are still a dirty hell-deserving sinner.

The Bible says committing even one sin makes a man guilty of all in God's sight (James 2:10). That is because even one sin makes us unfit for Heaven! God is absolutely holy, perfect and righteous in every way imaginable and beyond. Even our righteousness (our good works) are filth to God. Isaiah 64:6, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. " Like it or not dear reader, your best is not good enough for God, you need Christ's best to save you!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved.

As an example of a false teacher, Evangelist Charles Grandison Finney (1792–1875) was an American Presbyterian minister and leader in the Second Great Awakening in the United States. He has been called: "The Father of Modern Revivalism." I hope you are sitting down, because what you are about to read is mind-blowing, that any preacher could be so woefully ignorant of theology:

1. Gospel Justification is not the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ.

> Under the gospel, sinners are not justified by having the obedience of Jesus Christ set down to their account, as if he had obeyed the law for them, or in their stead . It is not an uncommon mistake to suppose that when sinners are justified under the gospel they are accounted righteous in the eye of the law, by having the obedience or righteousness of Christ imputed to them. I have not time to go into an examination of this subject now. I can only say that this idea is absurd and impossible, for this reason, that Jesus Christ was bound to obey the law for himself, and could no more perform works of supererogation, or obey on our account, than any body else. Was it not his duty to love the Lord his God, with all his heart and soul and mind and strength, and to love his neighbor as himself? Certainly; and if he had not done so, it would have been sin. The only work of supererogation he could perform was to submit to sufferings that were not deserved. This is called his obedience unto death, and this is set down to our account. But if his obedience of the law is set down to our account, why are we called on to repent and obey the law ourselves? Does God exact double service, yes, triple service, first to have the law obeyed by the surety for us, then that he must suffer the penalty for us, and then that we must repent and obey ourselves? No such thing is demanded. It is not required that the obedience of another [Jesus] should be imputed to us. All we owe is perpetual obedience to the law of benevolence. And for this there can be no substitute. If we fail of this we must endure the penalty, or receive a free pardon. [emphasis added]

SOURCE: Evangelist Charles Finney, “Justification By Faith,” Lecture V. 1837

WRONG! Mr. Finney just totally denied God’s imputed righteousness!!! Under the Gospel, sinners ARE absolutely justified by having Christ’s obedience set down to our account!!! Titus 3:5-7, “Not by works of righteousness which we have done , but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; That being justified by his grace , we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.” It appears that Charles Finney never read the Bible!!! Romans 3:24, “Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.” Being “justified freely” by God’s grace means that NO WORKS are required. What is wrong with some preachers, that they are compelled to add personal works to God’s grace?

Let me say those beautiful precious words again from Romans 3:24... JUSTIFIED FREELY!!! Gotta love it! I’m telling you truthfully—beware of theologians! I’m just a born-again redeemed sinner who can read English! The inspired King James Bible says that we are “JUSTIFIED FREELY” by God’s grace! Let those words sink in... JUSTIFIED FREELY!!! That means you don’t have to live a holy life to receive it. That means you don’t have to repent of your sinful behavior to receive it. That means you don’t have to be willing to turn from sin to receive it. A changed life is the fruit of the indwelling Holy Spirit, which is a result of salvation and growing in grace as a believer, but is not requirement to receive the gift of God.

Evangelist Charles Finney was a theological fool! Proponents of Lordship Salvation have a problem with the simplicity that is in Christ, demanding that you “turn away from your sins” as part of salvation. That is the [2]junk theology being taught at Bob Jones University nowadays. This damnable heresy has crept into tens of thousands of the churches, teaching that you must be willing to forsake sinful behavior, or else God won’t save you. This is NOT the free gift of eternal life! [3]Pastor Charles Finney was a big time heretic!

Finney shares the same accursed gospel of false prophet’s Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, Steve Pettit, Adrian Rogers and R.C. Sproul, to name but a few reprobates (Galatians 1:6-9). In the preceding article, Finney foolishly says, “we owe perpetual obedience to the law of benevolence.” No, we owe NOTHING! Grace is not cheap, it is totally free!!! Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt we could not pay! THE PRICE FOR OUR SINS HAS BEEN PAID!!! Jesus paid for everyone's sins on the cross with His precious blood. That is why forgiveness of sins is a gift. You simply need to take that gift by faith. Simply BELIEVE the Gospel and it is done!!!

Dear reader, the people in Matthew 7:21-23 did many wonderful works. They did them all in Jesus' name. They followed Christ, calling Him, "LORD, LORD." Unfortunately, they didn't do God's will, which according to John 6:40 is to simply rest in Jesus as your personal SAVIOR!!! The Lordship Salvation gang are all going to Hell, because they have perverted grace. If you doubt what I say, please read our text passage again from Matthew 7:21-23:

> Matthew 7:21-23, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

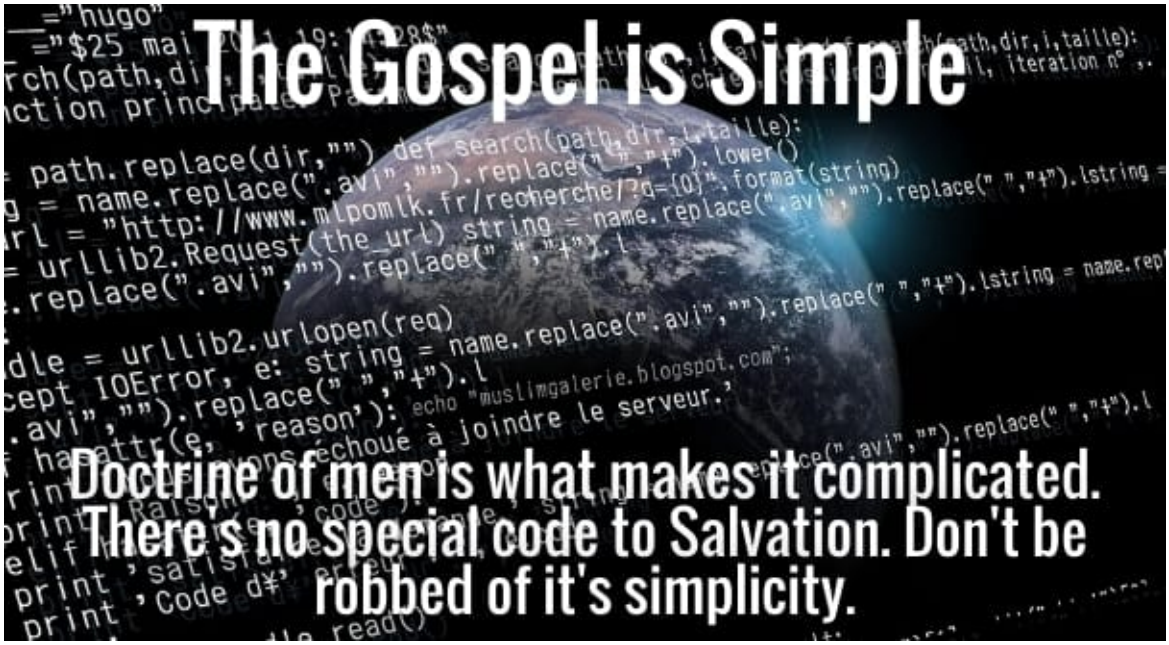
How could the Lord be so ungrateful? I mean, these people sacrificed their lives to serve Christ! They preached in the Lord's name everywhere they traveled. They did not just a few, but MANY wonderful works. They may have built orphanages for abandoned children. They may have given money to all sorts of charities. They may have visited the sick in local hospitals. They even cast out devils the Bible says. And they did it all in Jesus name!!!

Y



et, and don't miss this, Jesus called them workers of iniquity. The Lord said He didn't know them as His sheep. Didn't Jesus say elsewhere in the Bible that His sheep follow Him? Yes, and they followed Jesus their entire lives. But they missed one big thing... JESUS DIDN'T KNOW THEM!!!

John 10:14, "I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine."

Dear friend, you can follow Christ your whole life, but if you have never been born-again, Jesus does not know you as one of His sheep!

John 3:7, " Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again."

1.6.20 Everyone Is Important In God's Family (2020-08-12 23:37)

Ephesians 3:14-19, "

For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named*,

That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man;

That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God. "

Oh friend, we have a beautiful and precious Savior. I could show you many Scripture passages, which show the great heart of our Savior.

For example: Matthew 12:46-50, “

While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.

Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?

And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

” I love that! Jesus is putting every believer on the same exact level as His own personal family! Jesus has the attitude that,

“We’re in this together!”

When you receive Christ as your personal Savior, you’ve got a Friend of friends! That is why Jesus said in Matthew 25:45, “Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me. ” When one of His 100 sheep go astray, the Lord leaves the 99 to go find the one. Everyone matters in God’s family! There are no casualties in the Kingdom of God, everyone is accounted for! God loves each of His children so much, that each death is PRECIOUS in His sight. Even a believer who commits suicide, God forbid, is precious in the Lord’s sight, because one of His redeemed saints is coming home. Psalms 116:15, “ Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints. ”

The Lord told the Apostle Peter that he would deny Him in John chapter 13, but not to become discouraged. Jesus encouraged Peter that when he falls, and then gets right with God, to just keep on doing the Lord's work of winning souls. And the Lord continues in chapter 14, reassuring Peter that everything is going to be okay! John 14:1-3, "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." Isn't that beautiful? It is important to understand that the original Bible didn't have any chapter divisions, they were added several centuries later by men to organize the Word of God. So in some cases, like the passage I just quoted to you from John 14:1-3, it is a continuation of chapter 13. Great stuff!!!

Look at this beautiful promise from God in Matthew 11:11, "Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he." Isn't that beautiful? John the Baptist was the greatest man ever born among women, yet God says even the weakest unknown saint will be greater than John in Heaven. You are important to God dear child of God. If you are not sure if you are a child of God or not, let me ask you a question. Have you been born-again? Was there a time in your life when you realized that you were a sinner? Did you understand that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, Who died on the cross for your sins? Did you place your trust in Him? If so, you are saved.

I was just 13 years old when I got saved. I was saved at the Northland Baptist Church on Chicago's northside. The church later moved to the southside of Chicago. That Sunday morning the preacher said if you don't have the Holy Spirit convicting you about sin, you're not saved. I knew that I wasn't saved. For the first time in my life I felt Holy Spirit conviction. I was too shy to walk an isle during the invitation at the end. So the best I knew how, from my pew, I cried out silently in my soul to the Lord. For the first time in my life I called out to the blessed Savior. I trusted Him to save me, and He did. If you are saved, you have a blessed hope!!! Romans 8:32, " He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?" Micah 7:18, " Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy." What an awesome God and Savior!!!

No matter who you are, God loves you. Even if you are not a child of God, He still loves you friend. Jesus Christ died for everyone, even for those who reject Him.

2nd Peter 2:1, " But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction." Christ died for your sins dear friend! Won't you receive Him as your personal Savior, if you never have. Simply admit you are a needy sinner. Simply receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He is risen from the dead! That is all you need to do to be forgiven and receive His gift of eternal life. Trust Jesus alone for your redemption!!!

I am excited just writing about these promises from God. Look at what the Bible says in Romans 8:17, "

And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

The moment that a person gets saved by believing on the Lord Jesus Christ, they become

JOINT-HEIRS

" with Jesus Christ! That literally means that everything that belongs to Christ now also belongs to each and every believer!!! Amen, hallelujah, what a great Savior!!! I admit that I cannot even begin to fathom all that this means! God wants us to be happy in eternity.

God has planned so much for each of us. 1st Corinthians 2:9-10, " But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. " The indwelling Holy Spirit reveals truths to us from the Bible, encouraging our hearts concerning all the wonderful promises from our heavenly Father.

If we, being earthly parents, want what's best for our children, then how much more does our heavenly Father want the same!

Matthew 7:11, " If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?" Oh, it is wonderful to be a Christian!!! It is so wonderful to be God's child!!!

Thank you. I love you so much bro David. This is helpful to me, all the glory be to God.

1.6.21 How I Know That A Pretribulation Rapture Is Right (2020-08-13 06:43)

Mark 13:37, "And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch."

Kindly said, how can we “WATCH” if Jesus cannot return at any time?

Respectfully, Pastor Steven L. Anderson says that Jesus couldn’t possibly return at any time. ...

“The Rapture simply cannot happen at any moment.”
—Pastor Steven L. Anderson ([1]’After The Tribulation’ movie - 01:27:05 video)

That is not what the Bible says! The Bible commands us to “WATCH.” Titus 2:13, "Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;" We are told as saints to look for Jesus Christ! Only a pretribulation Rapture position supports this truth. If Pastor Anderson is correct that the Second Coming and the rapture are the SAME event, which is what he teaches, then Man of Sin (the Antichrist) must appear first. So it wouldn’t make any sense to look for Jesus, would it, if the Antichrist must appear first. Perhaps we should all be looking for the Man of Sin instead!

Also, the Bible clearly says that NO MAN, not even the angels, know WHEN Christ will return. Mark 13:32, "But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father." If the Antichrist must appear first, then we would definitely know the time of Christ’s return. The "[2]Days of Daniel" even tell us the exact number of days... 1290 DAYS.

Daniel 12:11, “

And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

” As you can see, we would KNOW exactly the time of the Lord’s return!

To me these are irrefutable evidences that the Rapture must precede the 7-year Tribulation Period.

There is considerable disagreement among theologians, Bible students and pastors about the rapture. I love Pastor Younce, but I am not sure I agree with something he said. Paul called the rapture "a mystery" in 1st Corinthians 15:51b. Respectfully, some preachers say that the word "mystery" means nobody ever heard about the Rapture before that time. So they say that in the four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke and John), the writers never mention the Rapture at all. They say the disciples couldn't have known about the Rapture. However, Jesus certainly knew! Jesus gave us specific details in Matthew chapter 24 about the end times during the Tribulation. So I do believe that Jesus spoke of the Rapture when he said these words...

> Mark 13:34-37, "For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch. Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning: Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping. And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch."

Now, if this refers to Jesus' Second Coming, then it makes no sense, because Daniel 12:11 teaches from the time the Antichrist breaks his agreement with Israel, and proclaims to be God almighty, and the False Prophet kills anyone who refuses to worship the Beast (i.e., the Abomination of Desolation), until the Second Coming of Jesus Christ, will be 1290 days! So everyone would know exactly WHEN Jesus is coming! I could be wrong. I am not saying that other preachers are wrong. I am just sharing how I see these Scriptures.

One of two major Scripture passages for the Rapture is 1st Corinthians 15:52-58...

> 1st Corinthians 15:52-58, "In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.
>
> For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.
>
> So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.
>
> O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?
>
> The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord."

Notice that in 1st Corinthians 15:52 that the Bible says we will be CHANGED in the twinkling of an eye (a fraction of a second) and our mortal bodies will become immortal. This is the Rapture! In sharp contrast, the Lord is coming down to the earth at His second coming. But at the Rapture all the saints are going up, to be "CAUGHT UP" (1st Thessalonians 4:17) into the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air.

The second major Scripture passage about the Rapture is found in 1st Thessalonians 4:13-18...

1st Thessalonians 4:13-18, "But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Wherefore comfort one another with these words."

I made this helpful chart of 32 contrasts between the RAPTURE and the SECOND COMING of Jesus, which will help you see the difference...

[3]

Contrasting The Two Stages Of Jesus Christ's Return

THE RAPTURE	THE SECOND COMING
At the Rapture, Jesus comes FOR His Church. (John 14:1-3, 1 Thessalonians 4:14-17)	At the Glorious Appearing (Second Coming), Jesus comes WITH His Church. (Zechariah 14:5, Colossians 3:4, Jude 14, Revelation 19:14)
At the Rapture, Christians are caught up to meet Jesus in the air (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18)	At the Glorious Appearing, Jesus' feet touch the earth (Zechariah 14:4, Revelation 19:11-21)
At the Rapture, Christians are taken up but unbelievers are left behind. (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18)	At the Glorious Appearing, the unsaved wicked (tares) are taken up, but the righteous (=wheat, i.e., the tribulation saints) are left behind. (Matthew 13:28-30)
At the Rapture, Jesus will gather His Bride, the Church, unto Himself in preparation of the Marriage of the Lamb. (Revelation 19:6-9)	At the Glorious Appearing, Jesus will execute judgment on the earth and establish His Kingdom. (Zechariah 14:3-4, Jude 14-15, Revelation 19:11-21)
The Marriage of the Lamb takes place in Heaven AFTER the Rapture of the Church. (Revelation 19:6-9	War on earth comes AFTER the Marriage of the Lamb at the Glorious Appearing when the King of Kings and Lord of Lords lays the smack-down on evil! (Revelation 19:11-21)
The Rapture will happen in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye (Blink. It's over!). (1 Corinthians 15:52)	The Glorious Appearing will be a slow coming. Everyone will see Jesus coming with great power and great glory! (Zechariah 12:10, Matthew 24:30, Revelation 1:7)
At the Rapture, only those who are looking for Him (Christians) will see Him. (1 John 3:2, 1 Corinthians 15:52)	At the Glorious Appearing, every eye will see Him and those who have rejected Him will wail. (Revelation 1:7)
At the Rapture, Jesus will descend from Heaven with a shout (calling for the saints at the resurrection). (1 Thessalonians 4:16)	At the Glorious Appearing, no shout is mentioned, although the Lord does slay the wicked with the sword of His mouth. (Revelation 19:11-21)
The "First Resurrection of Revelation 20:6 includes 5 separate resurrections. At the Rapture, the third of these resurrections occurs. (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, 1 Corinthians 15:51-54. The First Resurrection is only for born-again believers, that is, Christians)	At the Glorious Appearing of Jesus Christ, the final of these 5 (of the First Resurrection) will happen. (Daniel 12:2 contrasts the saved with the unsaved, speaking of both the First and the Second Resurrection. The Second Resurrection is only for the unsaved damned)
At the Rapture, a resurrection will take place. (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18, 1 Corinthians 15:51-54)	At the Glorious Appearing, there is no resurrection spoken of. (Zechariah 12:10, Zechariah14:4-5, Revelation 1:7, 19:11-21)
The Rapture can happen at any time...maybe even now which is why we are to be WATCHING for the return of Jesus Christ! (Revelation 3:3, 1 Thessalonians 5:4-6)	The Glorious Appearing will occur at the end of the seven-year tribulation period. (Daniel 9:24-27, Matthew 24:29-30, 2 Thessalonians 2:3-8)
At the Rapture, no angels are sent to gather the Church.	At the Glorious Appearing, angels will be sent to gather people together for judgment. (Matthew 13:39, 41 & 49, Matthew 24:31, Matthew 25:31, 2 Thessalonians 1:7-10)
At the Rapture, those who died in Christ will return with Jesus to recover their resurrected bodies. (1 Thessalonians 4:14-16)	At the Glorious Appearing, Christians will return with Jesus already in their resurrected bodies, riding on white horses wearing white linen. (Revelation 19:11-21)
At the Rapture, Jesus doesn't return riding a white horse.	At the Glorious Appearing, Jesus will return riding a white horse. (Revelation 19:11)
The Rapture will bring with it a message of hope and comfort. (1 Thessalonians 4:18, Titus 2:13, 1 John 3:3)	The Glorious Appearing will bring with it a message of judgment. (Joel 3:12-16, Malachi 4:5, Revelation 19:11-21)
World is deceived. (2 Thessalonians 2:3-12)	Satan is bound. (Revelation 20:1-2)
Focus: Lord and Church. (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18)	Focus: Israel and Kingdom. (Matthew 24:14)
No signs precede Rapture. (1 Thessalonians 5:1-3)	Signs precede Second Coming. (Luke 21:11,15)
Tribulation begins.	Millennial kingdom begins.
Manifestation of Antichrist. (2 Thessalonians 2:3-4)	Manifestation of Jesus Christ. (Malachi 4:2)
Jesus claims His bride.	Jesus comes with His bride. (Revelation 19:6-14)
Marriage Supper Of The Lamb follows the Rapture. (Revelation 19:9)	The Great Supper of the wicked follows the Tribulation. (Revelation 19:17)
The world will not see Jesus at the Rapture; but rather, believers ascend go to meet Him in the air. (1 Thessalonians 4:17)	Jesus will descend bodily and visibly for all to see, just as He ascended bodily and visibly. (Acts 1:9-11)
The Judgment Seat Of Christ follows the Rapture. (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11)	The Judgment of the Nations follows the Tribulation (Matthew 24:32-46)
Believers receive a new, immortal, glorified body fashioned like unto the Lord's. (Philippians 3:21; 1 Corinthians 15:51-54)	Saints saved during the Tribulation enter into the Millennial kingdom with their earthly bodies. (Isaiah 65:20)
The Antichrist is revealed after the Rapture. (2 Thessalonians 2:8)	The Antichrist is defeated and cast into the Lake of Fire at the Second Coming. (Revelation 19:20)
Israel is persecuted during the Tribulation. Two-in-three Jews in Israel are killed. (Zechariah 13:8-9)	Israel is regathered. (Jeremiah 23:5-8)
The timing of the Rapture is unknown. It is a secret. No man, nor the angels, not even the Son, know when this time shall be (Mark 13:32). Only a pretribulation Rapture position supports this vital Biblical truth.	The timing of Christ's Second Coming is known, which is at the culmination of the 7-year Tribulation (or, Daniel's 70th week). The Rapture starts the calendar clock for Daniel's 70th week.
World government (New World Order) follows the Rapture. (Revelation 13:15)	Christ's reign and government follows the Second Coming. (Daniel 2:34-35)
The Lord gathers the saints (2nd Thessalonians 2:1)	The angels gather the saints (the elect, Matthew 24:31)
Both the living and the dead saints are gathered (1st Thessalonians 4:16-17)	Only the living saints are gathered (Matthew 24:31)
The trumpet shall sound multiple times, and at THE LAST TRUMP (trumpet blow), we (believers) shall all be changed, glorious resurrected with an incorruptible body (1st Corinthians 15:52; 1st Thessalonians 4:16)	The Lord's voice is as a trumpet (Revelation 1:10-11). There is no trumpet mentioned at Christ's Second Coming.
World famine, pestilence, war and sorrow follow the Rapture. (Matthew 24:6-10; Luke 17:31)	World peace follows Christ's Second Coming when He reigns from Jerusalem (Isaiah 11:6)

If you would like more information, there's [4]tons of stuff on my websites. There are quotes and lots of resources. I'll be glad to answer questions if you have any, at my email at the top of the blog.

I hope some of that is helpful. The only position that makes sense to me is a pretribulation Rapture. I feel sorry for people who don't think Jesus could return at any time. I think it is beautiful to always be looking for the dear Lord's return. That is what Jesus commanded us to do... "WATCH." Mark 13:37, " And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch. "

1.6.22 Pastor Phil Kidd's Heresy Of Denying Eternal Security (2020-08-14 00:04)

John 10:28-29, "And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. I and my Father are one." Ephesians 1:13-14, "In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory."

If there is one thing that the Bible teaches, it is that the born-again believer has eternal security. Our text verse in Ephesians 1:13-14 teaches that God seals each believer with His Holy Spirit at the moment of salvation. The Lord promised to give eternal life to those who believe. The truth is that there are not two separate doctrines of Eternal Security and Eternal Life, they are one and the same doctrine. So if you have been born-again, you have eternal life abiding in you, because 1st John 5:20 says Jesus is eternal life. So you are either saved or you're not, and if you are, you have assurance of salvation (or eternal security if you prefer), because you have eternal life by faith in Jesus Christ.

I was saddened today when I heard Pastor Phil Kidd preach a sermon called: '[1]THE HERESY OF ETERNAL SECURITY.' At best the sermon is utterly confusing. What a doctrinal mess! Sadly, tens of thousands of people around the world look up to Pastor Phil Kidd as a spiritual mentor, so what he preaches matters! 290 people on Facebook praised his heretical sermon denying Eternal Security! I was alarmed when I read his sermon title, and saddened as I heard him trash out the security of the believer. Dear reader, just because there are some unsaved phonies in the churches who claim to be Christians, does not mean that true believers don't have eternal security. They sure do!!! I think that is what Dr. Kidd meant to say, but I can only go by what he actually DID SAY!

Now, I respect Pastor Phil Kidd, but he is wrong to deny the believer's eternal security.

I agree with some things Dr. Kidd says in this sermon, but it is obvious to me that he is sincerely confused in his theology. I love the man, truly, but he got it wrong today. Let me begin by telling you what I DO agree with. Pastor Kidd says if all you ever did was pray a prayer you're not saved. I fully agree! Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) rightly said:

> "'Pray to be saved. Ask the Lord to save you.' This is what I heard a minister say to a convicted sinner who came forward for prayer at the close of an evangelistic service. Nowhere in the Bible are men told to pray to be saved. There are examples where men did pray and were saved. Men are told to repent, to believe, to obey the Gospel, but the Bible never says to pray for salvation. It does say that whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved, but nowhere does the Bible command men to pray to be saved. I think I know why, God, who made the human heart, knew that it was not necessary to tell convicted sinners to pray. If a sinner can see Jesus Christ on the cross, it is as natural for him to pray as it is for birds to sing or flowers to bloom. 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."' —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," chapter: Prayer And Praise, page 163; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

Nowhere in the Bible are we taught to "pray" to receive eternal life. We are taught in the Gospel of John 85 times simply to "

BELIEVE

" on Jesus Christ to be saved. Romans 10:9b says if you "believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

" We are saved by faith alone! Galatians 3:26,

For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

” So if I ask you how you were saved, and you tell me that you prayed, you’re not saved! Your answer should be that you knew you were a sinner, and you received Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He raised up from the dead. That is the **“

(1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

I also agree with Dr. Phil Kidd that if a professed Christian can sin and have no conviction whatsoever from God’s indwelling Holy Spirit, then you don’t have the Holy Spirit and are not saved. 1st John 3:24, “And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.” As Evangelist Tom Ferrell rightly said: “If you can sin and win, you’re not in!” The Bible agrees with that. 1st John 1:10, “If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

” The Bible teaches that God is not an absent parent, He disciplines His children when they disobey. Hebrews 12:6-8, “For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons*.

The truth is that the indwelling Holy Spirit is the believer’s eternal security. God promises in Hebrews 13:5 to NEVER leave nor forsake His own. There is no way that a truly born-again child of God can ever be removed from God’s family. You can never lose God’s salvation. We are saved by **“

(Matthew 6:33). That is, we are saved by God’s imputed righteousness, through faith in Jesus Christ.

Pastor Kidd Misinterprets Jude 1:3-5

Jude 1:3-5, “

Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness , and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ . I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not .

Now let’s examine where Dr. Kidd goes horribly wrong in his theology. I just quoted to you Dr. Kidd’s sermon text from Facebook. Pastor Kidd says if you claim to be saved, but you are living in all manner of sin in your life, and thinking that you have a LICENSE TO SIN (which he defines as LASCIVIOUSNESS), then he says you’re not saved! Now, before we make some deductions here, let’s carefully notice two easily overlooked Scripture statements:

1. “denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ
2. “destroyed them that *believed not

Jude 1:3-5 is talking about unsaved people who creep into the church. They were never saved to begin with, they simply joined a social club, or to be with their biological family, or they were invited, et cetera. They never had the Holy Spirit at all, so they are not saved! This has nothing to do with the great Christian doctrine of Eternal Security. The Words Trinity, Bible and Rapture are not found in the Bible, but we see those doctrines taught, so these words are acceptable to use, in my humble opinion.

It is important to see in Jude 1:3-5 that such impostors, who superficially claim to be Christians, but use God's grace as an excuse to sin, do not believe what the Bible says. They are not God's children. We see this today in many fake churches. The churches who are accepting the LGBTQ agenda, and welcoming unrepentant homosexuals as church members in good standing, are turning God's grace into lasciviousness! I think this is what Dr. Kidd is trying to say. We've got a bunch of wicked people in our churches today, who think they are saved because they prayed some stupid prayer 15 years ago, or because some incompetent pastor told them they are going to Heaven, but they know not the Gospel and are as lost as a moose in a caboose!

God Did Promise Every Believer Eternal Security!

John 6:47, "

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. "

Now, as much as I am trying to give Pastor Phil Kidd credit, and am trying to see things from his point of view, I simply cannot defend him when he says garbage like this:

> “By the way, God never said He gave you eternal security—a license to sin—He gives eternal life, which means the eternal thing He puts in you affects your life, here and there!
>
> —Pastor Phil Kidd, ’[2]The Heresy Of Eternal Security’

That is blatant heresy! Dr. Kidd is preaching the heresy of Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation)! He is rear-loading the Gospel, saying that if you are saved you WILL turn from your sins! The Bible disagrees with Phil Kidd. What saith the Scripture? Titus 2:13, “For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;” The Bible says we “ SHOULD ,” not WILL or MUST, but “SHOULD” live godly in this present world!!! Every believer SHOULD live for Christ; not MUST (that is works); not WILL (that is Lordship Salvation). That is why the saved man in 1st Corinthians 3:15 had NO REWARDS at all, because he failed to turn from his sins, and failed to surrender to Christ’s Lordship, but he was still “SAVED; YET SO AS BY FIRE.”

By the way, [3]Dr. Phil Kidd is featured on Pacific Garden Mission’s ’UNSHACKLED’ (radio program #2119), so it is in his best interests to preach the [4]same Lordship Salvation junk theology that PGM propagates. Beware of Unshackled’s corrupt gospel, and the corrupt preaching of Phil Kidd that denies the believer’s eternal security. We know that we do have eternal security, because JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! It could be that you’ve never been saved at all, evidenced by the absence of the indwelling Holy Spirit, and lack of conviction over the sins in your life without Him, but this has NOTHING to do with the eternal security of those who are true believers!!! I think Dr. Kidd is sincere, but he is confused and wrong.

Dr. Kidd says he's sick and tired of preachers across the country trying to get people saved again, leading them to pray another sinner's prayer, so those pastors can brag about their numbers. It sounds like he is attacking soulwinning independent fundamental Baptists! Hey, on the Day of Pentecost 3,000 people were saved, in one sermon! No one interrogated the converts to see if they had been previously saved! I have no doubt that there are some naive pastors, who assume that everyone is not saved. When I was 17 years old, my own pastor mistakenly, but sincerely, concluded that I wasn't saved, because I went to him for help with the assurance of my salvation. I was in fact saved at age 13. I was just ignorant and confused. So there is a bit of truth in what Dr. Kidd says; however, for Dr. Kidd to use that problem in some churches to deny the believer's eternal security, is to compare apples with submarines!

Eternal Life And Eternal Security Are The Same Doctrine

Pastor Kidd rightly says that backslidden believers need to renew their FELLOWSHIP with the Lord, not their RELATIONSHIP as His redeemed child. Bravo for that! It behooves me then, how Pastor Kidd can deny the believer's eternal security? He clearly believes, as made clear in his sermon, that we do good works because we ARE saved, not to BE saved. And he clearly gets the Gospel right (Jesus' death, burial and resurrection). And he clearly believes that saints can become backslidden, but are still saved. So why does Pastor Kidd deny eternal security? It is a confusing sermon at best.

I had to listen to his sermon five times, because he goes back and forth, preaching free grace theology one minute, and Lordship Salvation damnable heresy the next. Kindly said, it is clear to me that Dr. Kidd is confused in his theology. If you listen to the sermon you'll see what I mean. He contradicts himself several times.

Dr. Kidd says if you're still drinking booze and living in sin, you didn't get the GRACE that he got when he was saved. That is a contradictory statement in itself, because GRACE has nothing to do with us! We are saved BY GRACE! That means it has absolutely NOTHING to do with you dear friend. Grace is God's unmerited favor.

Grace as an acronym stands for: G*od's* R*iches* A*t* C*hrist's* E*xpense!*

So Pastor Kidd says we're not saved by works, but if you don't have a changed life you're not saved. Huh? That is the forked-tongue doublespeak of every false prophet today who is

[5]CAUGHT BETWEEN WORKS AND GRACE

" (a tremendous sermon by Pastor Ralph 'Yankee' Arnold. Here's the [6]MP3). Kindly said, Pastor Phil Kidd is caught between works and grace!!! Every believer has eternal life in them, because Jesus is eternal life. 1st John 5:20, "And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

" If you have Jesus you have eternal life, and if you have eternal life you have eternal security, because eternal life IS eternal security. There is no such thing as eternal security apart from eternal life, they are one and the same.

You don't earn grace! You don't maintain grace! You don't have to forsake all your sins to qualify to keep grace! IT IS GOD'S GRACE!!! Ephesians 2:8-9, " For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." Kindly said, Pastor Kidd takes Jude 1:3-5 out of context. This passage is about unsaved people who've crept into the churches, which has absolutely nothing to do with the believer's promise of Eternal Security!

Pastor Kidd Misinterprets Hebrews 6:4-6

Dr. Kidd also takes Hebrews chapter 6 out of context, applying it to Christians instead of Christ-rejecters. Pastor Kidd errantly states:

>
> By the way, if you’re going to believe the Bible, Sir, you’ve got to go to Hebrews chapter number six and you’ve got to believe this
> —if you believe a man can lose his salvation, then you must believe that he can never get it back again. There is no such thing as ’repeat redemption.’ ” —Pastor Phil Kidd, ’ [7]The Heresy Of Eternal Security ’

What a mess! That is so untrue! No Christian can lose eternal life! Hebrews chapter 6 is about people who have heard the Gospel, they’ve tasted the good Word of God, but did not get saved. They are fallen from grace, meaning they have passed up their only ticket to Heaven through faith in Christ! Pastor Kidd is in error to say that a believer can lose God’s salvation, that is not what the following Scripture passage is saying:

> Hebrews 6:4-6, “ For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.”

Carefully notice that they were “once enlightened,” not saved. They tasted of the heavenly gift, but they didn’t receive it. The Holy Ghost convicted them of their sins and lost condition, but they refused to come to Christ to be saved. We know this is the correct interpretation, because we have dozens of other passages teaching the eternal security of the believer! In 85 places in the Gospel of John we are taught to simply believe to be saved, with the attached PROMISE of eternal life. That is eternal security my friend! God made a promise “TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE” (1st Corinthians 1:21b).

It’s as simple as this, Dr. Kidd thinks that you cannot have eternal security and continue in sin.

Pastor Kidd Is Wrong To Deny The Eternal Security Of The Believer

Respectfully, Dr. Kidd makes a lot of erroneous claims in his sermon. One false claim is that the proponents of easy-believism don’t require sinners to have any conviction over sin to be saved. Pastor Kidd says:

> Many people that cling to this heresy of eternal security. Let me tell you a few things they believe:

1. They believe salvation can come without a person being under conviction. We call it in modern-day terminology: ’Easy-Believism’
2. They believe God can move in you, and it doesn’t necessary change you.

3. You’re distorting the Scripture, if you think the grace of God is a license for you to live ungodly.

SOURCE: Dr. Phil Kidd, ’[8]The Heresy Of Eternal Security’ (10:55 time in video)

Let me respond below to Pastor Kidd’s THREE assertions:

First, no one ever got saved who didn’t know he is a needy sinner. A man must know what he is being saved from to receive God’s gift of forgiveness of sins. The only conviction of sin that a man needs to be saved, is just enough to recognize that he is a guilty sinner in need of redemption. The law shows humanity our sinnership (Romans 3:19-20) and brings us to Christ to be saved by faith (Galatians 3:24-26). Dr. Kidd opens a can of worms by accusing soulwinners of “ easy-believism.

Buddy, the ONLY way to be saved is the easy route! You come as a needy sinner and simply rest in Christ. It’s that easy!!!

Second, your salvation does not change you a bit. Dr. Kidd is wrong! Pastor Jack Hyles gets it right, explaining this truth in his writing: “

[9]Conversion And Salvation.

” Eternal life is a

“

(Romans 5:15-18), which Dr. Kidd fails to mention once in his sermon. Is a gift easy to take? Yes, it sure is. So what is hard about getting saved? Go ask Phil Kidd, because he is the one attacking easy-believism! God saves you by faith, and then the Holy Spirit comes to lives inside you, and He will change you over time. But the church has the duty of mentoring converts, which is a part of The Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-20). I hear a lot of preachers bragging about the number of people they led to Christ, but how many did you mentor with the Bible?

Third, I half agree with the third thing Dr. Kidd said. You are definitely distorting the Scriptures if you think being saved gives you a license to sin. But it all depends on what you mean by "license." If you mean that you don't have God's blessing and permission to continue in willful sin, then I agree (Romans 3:31). But if you mean that you cannot be saved and continue living in willful sin, or else you are not really saved, then I fully disagree (Romans 5:20; Acts 13:39).

We are saved solely by God's imputed righteousness, through faith alone in Jesus Christ. Eternal life is the gift of God (Romans 6:23). Dr. Kidd makes some strange statements in his sermon. I don't know anyone who believes the following:

> But I'm just saying to your brother, that I will never tell anybody, 'Live like you want to, it doesn't matter, you're going to Heaven anyhow.'
> —Pastor Phil Kidd, ' [10]The Heresy Of Eternal Security '

Who teaches that today? I don't know anybody. Dr. Kidd is making such harsh statements to discredit the truth that a person can be saved, and still wilfully live in sin. The truth is that we all still commit sin. Everyone commits willful sin! Every time you go 60 mph in a 55 mph zone you're sinning (Romans 13:1). Every time you fail to pray for those in your life you're sinning (1st Samuel 12:23). Every time you mention future plans without saying "if the Lord will" you're sinning (James 4:15-16). We're all a bunch of woeful sinners!!!

I admire Dr. Kidd for his career, toughness, and his incredible life's testimony. Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) used to rightly say: "We need porcupine preachers, so people will get the point!" Well, [11]Pastor Kidd is the largest porcupine preacher that I know of! Dr. Kidd is more like a saber-tooth tiger in the pulpit! I really like the guy, but as a Baptist preacher myself, I am duty-bound to **"

earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints

" (Jude 1:3b). Ironically, the very text passage that Phil Kidd chose for his sermon, denying the eternal security of the Christian believer, exposes him at the same time!

When A Believer Sins Grace Abounds

Romans 5:20-21, "Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord."

Your eternal destination can NEVER depend upon what you do as a saint of God, neither before, during nor after you were saved. I mean, if a man can lose his salvation, don't you think there would be at least one story in the Bible like that? There's not. If a person could lose their salvation and get re-saved, show me a story like that in the Bible. And if a person can lose their salvation, and not get it back, show me where that happened to someone in the Bible? I'm waiting. Friend, you cannot show me any stories like that. Pastor Kidd says salvation is by grace, not by works. And he says we do good works because we are saved, not to get saved. And he says it is possible to stray away from the Lord, backslide, and still be saved. That is all true! So why does he teach that eternal security is a heresy, which is untrue? It is a counterfeit gospel of fear, uncertainty and worry! Dr. Kidd confused many people today in this horrible sermon. Preachers say the darnedest things!

Carefully notice in the following Scripture that if salvation is by grace, "THEN IS IT NO MORE OF WORKS"!!! That is what the Holy Bible teaches! Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work." Works have no part of salvation. False prophets' John MacArthur, John Piper, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, Phil Kidd, Pacific Garden Mission, Bob Jones University, and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. You don't HAVE TO serve Christ to be saved, but you "SHOULD" (Titus 2:11-13).

You must keep salvation and service separate or you will be confused, and confuse everyone else! Salvation is not me meaning business, it is God meaning business! My part is simply to freely receive God's gift of eternal life BY FAITH. I'm tired of preachers putting fear into people's hearts, telling them that if they didn't mean business and are still living in sin, they are not saved. The preachers want people to live right, so they put them into fear, telling them that if they don't live righteously they aren't really saved. Salvation is free, always remember that! Stand strong for the Gospel of free grace! Don't doubt the Gospel just because people live wrong. Scripture never contradicts itself, which tells us that Lordship Salvation is not true, because it contradicts Scripture! No man has to serve Jesus Christ because he is saved. If you don't understand that truth, the Scriptures will be confusing to you!

At the end of his sermon, Pastor Kidd says he wants everybody there to go out the door KNOWING that they are saved. You're kidding me right? You just spent an hour going overtime in your sermon, condemning the whole concept of a believer having Eternal Security, and now you want everyone to KNOW they are saved? I need to go take a long walk!

1.6.23 But We Have The Mind Of Christ (2020-08-14 09:30)

1st Corinthians 2:14-16, "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man. For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ. "

What is it that makes one person sweet, kind, generous, nice and loving; but the next person is ruthless, mean, a deceiver, selfish, hateful and malicious? In one word—it is their "MIND." When I see a man or woman covered in tattoos, I know that their mind is worldly (or at least was at some point when they got the tattoos). No Christian should ever get a tattoo, because our human body is the temple of the Holy Spirit (1st Corinthians 3:16-17). I know that is a touchy subject, but you won't change my opinion. on the matter. And while I am on the subject, I am 100 % against female breast implants, which medically have been proven to be a big health risk. Ladies, love whom God make you! If a man truly loves you, he won't care about the size of your cups, but the size of your heart. The Bible says, "But we have the mind of Christ

(1st Corinthians 2:16b).

I love our text passage of Scripture. The heathen world thinks very differently than does the child of God. I thank God I am saved. I accepted Jesus Christ as my personal Savior when I was 13 years old. It was the absolutely best decision I ever made in my life. I'd do it again in a heartbeat. I appreciate Jesus dying on the cross for a rotten sinner like me. He was taken down off the cross, buried, and then three days later miraculously resurrected by the power of God. That is "t he Gospel

" (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). As our text passage teaches in 1st Corinthians 2:14-16, the natural (unsaved, unregenerate) person cannot understand spiritual things, because they are spiritually discerned. Many religious cults have been started by people trying to understand the Bible, but they weren't saved and didn't have the Holy Spirit to guide them into all truth, so they got the Bible wrong!

John 16:13,

Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

As Christians, we have the Holy Spirit of God living inside (indwelling) our body and soul; therefore, we have the mind of Christ. John 14:26, "But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you." The blessed indwelling Holy Spirit brings to remembrance truths we have learned form the Bible. That is why it is so important for believers to familiarize our self with the Scriptures, and to abide in them continually. Psalms 1:1-2, "

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

” I believe that is why the shepherd boy David was called a man after his [God’s] own heart

(1st Samuel 13:14b), because David was a man after God’s own Word!

The Bible says: “WE HAVE

THE MIND OF CHRIST

as believers. That is a beautiful truth! That means we think according to the inspired King James Bible. Jesus is the Living Word; the Bible is the Written Word. Please beware of the corrupt modern Bible revisions, which religious cults like Bob Jones University use, sell and promote. I call them for a few reasons. One is because they follow the [1]Alexandrian cult behind the modern Bible revisions . Another reason is because BJU follows men instead of God. They are following the corrupted theology of Pastor John MacArthur and Dr. Steve Pettit. It doesn’t matter which modern Bible you pick up, it has somehow been influenced by the corrupt Alexandrian manuscripts from Egypt.

Modern Bible Versions Are Not The Mind Of Christ

That is why they are wrong on the Gospel, preaching the heresy of Lordship Salvation instead of Free Grace Theology, because the modern Bibles are corrupt. [2]BJU preaches another gospel! Let me give you an example of how the modern Bibles pervert the Gospel. Please consider Hebrews 6:1 in the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) as compared to the trustworthy King

James Bible (KJB):

> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — “So we should be finished with the beginning lessons about Christ. We should not have to keep going back to where we started. We began our new life by turning away from the evil we did in the past and by believing in God.” [emphasis added]

Here again is Hebrews 6:1 in the beloved, correct, King James Bible . . .

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Hebrews 6:1, “Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God.” [emphasis added]

Do you see how the new corrupt Bible versions are horribly changing theology in the churches? The King James Bible teaches that we must repent from our DEAD WORKS to be saved; but the ERV teaches that we must stop living a life of deliberate sin (evil) to be saved. The Alexandrian Greek is of the Devil, teaching a works-based plan of salvation. Salvation is NOT by works (Romans 3:20; Ephesians 2:8-9; Titus 3:5; Romans 4:5-6). The doctrine of the [3]imputed righteousness of God silences all the critics.

If you have a corrupt Bible revision, then you cannot have the mind of Christ in you. Satan fully knows this ugly fact, which is why he has entered into the Bible publishing business since 1881 (the year Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort introduced their new Greek Bible translation to the world, upon which all the corrupt modern revisions are based). I wouldn’t give you a red cent for these new Bibles! They are Devil’s Bibles!!! If you want the mind of Christ in you, then you need the inspired King James Bible!!! Please use no other Bible! And may I kindly say, the King James Bible is not a “ version,

it is the inspired Word of God.

The fastest way to corrupt your mind spiritually is to use the Devil's modern Bible revisions!!!

A Carnal Mind Is The Devil's Playground

The Devil has a stronghold in the mind of the unsaved person.

Proverbs 3:7, " For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee." I feel sorry for this man each time I see this photo. The Devil controls his mind. How does a person become so far gone in their mind, that they no longer respect their own body? If you don't see a problem with what the man below has let the Devil do to him, you do not have the MIND OF CHRIST my friend. This is not God's will for anyone. This is shameful. I am not condemning the man himself, God forbid, I am simply saying that God doesn't want us marking up our bodies. Jesus loves this man and died for his sins on the cross (Romans 5:6-9). Please understand that I am not mocking or making fun of him, I am simply saying that this is not what God desires for anyone...

Proverbs 3:7, “ For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.”

I’m sure you’ve watched the TV series called:

“

Cold Cases Files

“Forensic Files.”

I cannot watch too many of those type of shows, because the horrific crimes are creepy and disturbing. It is so sad. I don’t think it is good to dwell upon such things for too long, but we need to be aware of the type of world that we live in. The Bible teaches us in Philippians 4:8-9 to think upon things that are good, pure, virtuous, honest and true...

Philippians 4:6-8, “

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

Please notice that the Bible associates prayer with thanksgiving and a healthy thought life. That is very interesting. We are commanded in Philippians 4:6 to pray about everything. The Bible says, "

BE CAREFUL FOR NOTHING.

" That means don't leave anything to chance, pray about all things, so that you've got all bases covered. Praying is fully a matter of faith, showing that we trust the Lord to handle every matter in our life. I need God's help. I must pray. I cannot and do not want to go it alone in life, without my dear Savior. Isaiah 26:3, "

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee. " If you want to have the mind of Christ, then you first must be God's child, by faith alone in Jesus Christ. And then second, you must abide in the Holy Scriptures.

If you want to do a helpful Bible study sometime, look up the words "thankful" and "thanks." It is important as Christians that we always maintain a spirit of thanksgiving toward God. I don't care if you're homeless on the street, you have something to be thankful for. I thank God continually that my name is written in Heaven. I thank God that I live in a free country, where I can have a truth-telling ministry like mine, preaching the truth without apology. I thank God for my Harvest Baptist Church neighbours on Guam, that they are good people and I can feel safe living here. I love them with God's love, and I am their friend in truth. I am thankful that I still have my natural teeth. Many people have fake teeth, and denture pain. I thank God that I am not in debt to anyone. I praise God for my health, even though my neck is in pain all the time. I live a simple life. I thank God that I can enjoy a Subway sandwich (a Turkey club with everything; salt & pepper, olive oil, red vinegar, half the mayo, and extra Jalapenos peppers...lol). Am I therefore become your enemy because I make you hungry? ...lol.

Psalms 119:9, "

Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word. " The worst decision our government ever made was in 1962 and 1963, when they removed prayer and Bible reading from children's daily lives at school. We see the consequences of that fatal decision. Those foolish people who would downplay the seriousness of this matter, are in woeful denial of the truth! There is nothing wrong in America today, that couldn't be remedied by raising up a generation of Christian young people, who are raised up being taught the King James Bible! The Gospel is the answer! Young people need the truth of Christ crucified, buried and risen! Young people need Jesus! The American media today relentlessly attacks Bible Christianity.

The only difference between a criminal and an honest law-abiding citizen in their mind.

Romans 12:2, " And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." Years ago I had a co-worker confide in me his personal problems. I remember that he said,

"My mind ain't right!" I encouraged him to bathe his mind in the Scriptures! That is how to get your mind back to being right!!! 2nd Timothy 1:7, "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

Give God your heart and He'll comb the kinks out of your head. That is what the Bible teaches in 2nd Timothy 1:7, a comes from God.

SOUND MIND

Proverbs 28:1, " The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion." There is no better feeling in all the world, than to know that you are right with God almighty! '[5]HOW TO BE RIGHT WITH GOD' (an awesome MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles).

> "Now, there's only one thing we need in America—and that is an old-fashioned real Bible revival! I mean a real BIBLE REVIVAL! It'll straighten out the home, straighten out the children, make the husband act right, put the wife in order; it'll take care of the preacher, the church; I mean it'll fix up the community, I mean it'll stop the Devil dead in his tracks; I mean it'll give victory to God's people—the Word of God!"

1.6.24 The Counterfeit Mormon Religion (2020-08-14 22:30)

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, " Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

The inspired Word of God is the incorruptible seed by which every believer has been born-again (1st Peter 1:23). For the Christian there is no other book besides the Holy Bible. In fact, the only reliable Bible today in the English language is the inspired King James Bible All other Bible are either inferior or corrupted by Satan. The Bible teaches that the Devil is the god of this world, who blind the minds of unsaved people, lest the see the light of the Gospel and be saved (2nd Corinthians 4:4).

One of Satan's false religions is Mormonism, which was started in the year 1830 by a perverse man named Joseph Smith (1805-1844). When Smith was 42 years old, he was lynched by an angry mob of 200 men in Illinois for [1]his immoral relationships with 49 women. This is the founder of Mormonism. I do not believe in bashing or being unkind to anyone for any reason. I love Mormon people, just as I love Muslims, Jews and Christians alike. However, theologically speaking, the Mormon religion is messed up! The core beliefs of the religion are rooted in heathen sexual practices. I won't go into detail here, but [2]you can read another article I wrote about [3]direct perverse statements made by Joseph Smith and Brigham Young, that would make a pervert blush. Read there own teachings and you decide!

In a May, 1998, in an article written by a Mormon named Stephen E. Robinson, he makes these heretical statements:

> "If the term Christian is used, as it is in standard English, to mean someone who accepts Jesus Christ as the divine Son of God and the Savior of the world, then the charge that we aren't Christians is false. However, if the word Christian is given an overly narrow definition, then it is merely a way of saying LDS Christians differ in some degree from other Christians. No one "owns" the term Christian or has the right to deny it to others who worship Jesus as the divine Son of God." [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [4]Are Mormons Christians?

Kindly said, Mr. Robinson is very ignorant of the Holy Scriptures. The King James Bible plainly warns against anyone, whether it be Joseph Smith or an angel, who comes preaching another gospel. The Word of God says they are accursed by God:

> Galatians 1:6-8, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:
>
> Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.
>
> But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed*.
> **"

Joseph Smith is a false prophet, who make the bizarre claim that an angel appeared to him and gave him the book of Mormon. We know Mr. Smith is a liar, because Hebrews 1:1-2 says God only speaks to us in these last days through His Son, that is, through the Word of God.

Hebrews 1:1-2, “God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;

” In John 5:39a Jesus commands us to **“

SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES, ”

not the book of Mormon, nor the writings of Mormon patriarchs!

Steven Robinson makes these whoppers lies in the same article:

> “The Bible itself never claims to be perfect, never claims to be sufficient for salvation, and never claims to grant its readers authority to speak or act for God. Rather, such claims are made by those who have lost priesthood authority and have lost direct revelation and, instead of trying to find them again, are trying desperately to maintain that their loss doesn’t matter.”
>
> [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [5]Are Mormons Christians?

Whoa! I am going to prove his three lying claims wrong!

First, he says the Bible itself never claims to be perfect. Oh really?

Psalms 19:7, “ The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.” That proves Mr. Robinson wrong! God’s Word is perfect!

Second, he says the Bible never claims to be sufficient for salvation. WRONG! 2nd Timothy 3:15-17, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works. " I guess the Bible is all you need after all, right Steven?

Third, he claims that the Bible never grants the reader the right to act or speak for God. WRONG! Romans 3:4, " God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged." Please notice in the preceding quote from 2nd Timothy 3:16 that

"ALL SCRIPTURE" is given by inspiration (Greek: theopneustos , meaning, God breathed),

That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works. " The Bible is very clear that the man of God is made perfect (complete in every way) by the Word of God. John 17:17,

"Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. "

Kindly said, Steven Robinson sounds like he has never even read the Holy Bible, because he just made three big false statements! In fact, the Bible DOES claim to be perfect, and it DOES claim to be sufficient for salvation, and it DOES grant the right to anyone to speak the truth based upon the authority of the Word of God! Joseph Smith was an ungodly man, who lived an immoral life of adultery, and twisted the Scriptures around in a wicked attempt to justify his filthy lifestyle! Literally, he started his own religion to justify having carnal knowledge with 49 different women in his unholy bed. [6]Mormonism is ungodly stuff!

No Christian is right with God who bids Godspeed to Mormons. 2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.

In 2004, [7]Evangelist Ravi Zacharias (1946-2020) did just that in Salt Lake City, to a group of 7,000 Mormons. At the end of the meeting, the Mormon speaker said:

“We’ve been given a gift tonight.” He said that because by bidding Godspeed to their cult, [8]Ravi Zacharias had given the Mormons legitimacy in the evangelical Christian community, which is of the Devil. I do not encourage being mean to anyone, but Bible-believing Christians must take a firm stand against Mormonism, because it preaches another gospel.

If you watch the preceding video, you’ll even hear Ravi refer to Mormons as brethren, making mention of “our heavenly Father.” Folks, if you are not born-again, you are not a child of God, and God is not your heavenly Father! Mormonism requires doing good works, and being water baptized, both of which are a perversion of the Gospel. Furthermore, Mormons deny that Jesus is almighty God, which is a fundamental doctrine of Christianity. As we learn in Matthew 7:21-23, just because someone calls themselves “Christians“ doesn’t mean they actually are!

Please understand that I didn’t write this blog to bash Mormons. I don’t do that! I didn’t write this article to attack the Mormons or their religious faith. I wrote this article to “ earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints

” (Jude 1:3b). Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God. Our text Bible verses from 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 plainly defines

“

(meaning Good News or Glad Tidings) as three things: Christ DIED on the cross for our sins, He was BURIED, and then three days later Jesus RESURRECTED bodily from the dead. Anyone who believes (relies upon) this

“

” and doesn’t add anything to it, has the gift of eternal life!

Sadly, [9]Mormons sinfully add water baptism, requiring it for salvation. In Bible Christianity, a believer only receives water baptism AFTER they are saved, as an outward public profession of their inward faith. God commands believers to be baptized (by full immersion), but this is not required to receive the free gift of God, which is eternal life (Ephesians 2:8-9). Mormons say that faith is insufficient by itself to save, that more is required. [10]Mormons, just like [11]Bob Jones University and other [12]neo-evangelical apostates today, teach that turning away from one’s sinful past is absolutely required to receive God’s free gift.

They have a wrong understanding of what it means to “

in the Bible. Whereas the Greek meaning of repentance (metanoia) is simply a change of mind,

“

sincere but deceived neo-evangelicals and Mormons say it means turning away from all your sins,

“

” that is, behavior modification (reformation). That is a false gospel! Nowhere in the Bible are we taught to “ turn from sin

repent of sins

to be saved. God only requires for a person to acknowledge that they are a needy sinner, so they will embrace Jesus Christ to be saved by grace through faith alone (Romans 3:19-28; Galatians 3:24-26). To God be the glory!

1.6.25 Christ The Risen One, Lives As The Crucified One (2020-08-15 09:30)

John 20:26-28, " And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing. And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God."

Jesus Christ, the risen one, lives forever as the crucified one! Christ's bodily resurrection is eternally connected with His cross. We hear all this junk theology today about "turning from your sins" from the proponents of Lordship Salvation, from heretics like Steve Pettit and John MacArthur. What saith the Scripture? 1st Corinthians 2:2, "For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified." The Apostle Paul said he only wanted to know one thing about the church at Corinth—did they have faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ? And again we read in Galatians 3:2,

This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? " That is how we get saved (i.e., get the indwelling Holy Spirit), by placing our faith in the Gospel when we heard it preached. There is no mention of forsaking sins, or turning away from living our own life, nor anything else! Salvation is by faith.

Jesus still has scars in His risen body. The Old Testament prophet Zechariah tells us that when Jesus returns at His Second Coming, i.e. THE REVELATION, and every eye shall see Him (Revelation 1:7), He will still have the scars. Zechariah 13:6, "And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends." Isn't that precious and beautiful? Jesus will still have the scars in His hands, brow, feet and side when He returns at the Second Advent. I believe Jesus will wear those scars forever, as a memorial of what our Great Savior has done for us, to redeem us from all iniquity and eternal death in Hell. Jesus loves us, which is why He wants to wear our scars by which He redeemed us. What an awesome Savior!

Hebrews 12:1-3, " Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds."

Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) said that in order to be " a witness,

" you have to first see something! Hence, Hebrews 12:1 must be referring to the saints alive in Heaven, who look down and watch us. I agree with Dr. Hutson! This explains why we read in Luke 15:10, "Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth." If the angels aren't doing the rejoicing, then it must refer to the saints! Amen!

The Bible says Jesus is the Author and Finisher of our faith. Here is a related passage of Scripture:

Philippians 1:3-7,

I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ*:

Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

In Biblical studies, there are three parts of the Christian life: justification (being made right with God by faith alone), sanctification (the ongoing process of being conformed into Christ's image), and glorification (a new sinless body, glorified with Christ).

1.6.26 The Real Battle (2020-08-15 22:30)

Psalms 12:6-7, " The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever. ”

The real battle today is over THE BOOK, the inspired King James Bible. The battle is not over abortion, it is over THE BOOK. When you doubt a man’s word, you doubt his character, his veracity, and his trustworthiness.

When you’re against the Book, you’re against God!”
—Pastor Jack Hyles, “[1]The Real Battle”

The battle today is not over abortion. The battle is over, “Thou shalt not kill” (Exodus 20:13). The issue is over the Holy Bible! The battle today is not over capital punishment, it is over the Bible. Genesis 9:6, “Whoso sheddeth man’s blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man.

” The issue today is not over homosexuality, it is over THE BOOK. Leviticus 20:13,

“If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

” The issue today isn’t over women rights and feminism, it is over the HOLY BIBLE.

Ephesians 5:22, “Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.” The issue is not over whether younger women belong at home raising children or pursuing careers to make money, it is over THE BOOK.

1st Timothy 5:14-15,

“I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. For some are already turned aside after Satan.” The great battle in 2020 is over the WORD OF GOD!!! Do you believe the inspired Holy Bible?

I believe 100 % in the verbal inspiration of the King James Bible! Every word in the Bible is inspired by God. Every jot and title is inspired by God. Matthew 5:18, “ For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled." Jots and tittles are the smallest grammatical marks in the alphabet. God said that even the dots on the i's and the tail on a Q will not change, it will be preserved, forever! That is what our text passage from Psalms 12:6-7 says! Psalms 12:6-7, " The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever. " What shall God keep and preserve? Why, His PURE WORDS of course! [2]All of the Devil's modern Bible revisions pervert this passage of Scripture, saying that God protects His saints instead of preserves His pure Words!

What good is inspiration without preservation? And what good is preservation without inspiration? I mean, what would have been the benefit of God giving His very pure Words to mankind, if He allowed those Words to become corrupt, changed and lost over the centuries? God promised to preserve His inspired Words, which means they absolutely must still be inspired. Ladies and gentlemen, when you read your King James Bible, you are reading the inspired Words of Almighty God!!! Man's words are inspired by men. God's Words are inspired by God, every one of them!

The real battle is over the Word of God. There is nothing wrong with our nation today that couldn't be remedied by raising up a single generation of Bible-believers. We are living in a land of Bible ignoramuses. A recent 2020 survey revealed that [3]more than half of professed Christians in the United States are moving away from the Christian faith. That doesn't surprise me in lieu of all the Devil's Bibles corrupting our churches. Sadly, our biggest Bible colleges are using, selling and bidding Godspeed to Satan's corruptible seed. Consequently, preachers no longer preach the truth. In fact, they don't even preach anymore! Most of these deeper-lifers who study the Bible like a mathematics book, never go soulwinning. We need to preach what's obvious in the Bible!!! The Bible is not a mathematics book, it is a love letter! God loves me and He gave me His Word to guide me through life:

Most of these exegeters execute the book!

—Pastor Jack Hyles, " [4]The Real Battle "

The infamous atheist, Voltaire, recognized the importance of denying the inspiration of the Bible if they were to destroy Christianity:

> “The Bible is not the inspired, inerrant and 100 % historically true words of God. ... If we would destroy the Christian religion, we must first of all destroy man’s belief in the Bible.” —Voltaire (French philosopher and former unbeliever 1694-1778 - He now knows better [in Hell])

Tragically (and you couldn’t make this stuff up), today’s ungodly Bible colleges (I’m talking Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, The Crown College, Pensacola Christian College and Hyles-Anderson College, to name but a handful) are teaching young people that the King James Bible is NOT INSPIRED! They are liars! Since 2008, the [5]First Baptist Church of Hammond and Hyles-Anderson College no longer preach that the King James Bible is inspired. They claim only the original autographs (which no longer exist) were inspired. It is a trifle matter to them. They’ve stopped standing. They’ve stopped fighting. They are A.W.O.L. from ’[6]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES’!!!

As one liberal theologian pointed out in his review of Harold Lindsell’s, The Battle For The Bible , the only real difference between the conservative and liberal positions on the Bible is that the conservatives say the Bible USED TO BE inspired and inerrant, whereas the liberal says it NEVER WAS inspired or inerrant. BOTH positions agree that the Bible IS NOT NOW inspired or inerrant. Think about that statement dear reader, because it is true and tragic! What’s the difference between an ungodly atheist like Voltaire who denies that the Bible is inspired, or a ungodly professor at Hyles-Anderson College or Bob Jones University who teaches that the Bible is not inspired? That’s right, there’s no difference!

> “I wouldn’t give you a dime for King James Bible defenders that don’t propagate the King James Bible! The reason to defend it—it’s our weapon!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “ [7]The Real Battle ”

We are at war in our churches over the Bible. The churches who refuse to join the battle have already either died spiritually, or are dying. The First Baptist Church of Hammond is dying. The moment they stopped standing (fighting) for the inspiration of the King James Bible in 2008, they began their downward descent into neo-evangelical apostasy! They are changing! Oh yes they are! They are in denial right now. The fact that FBCH and HAC are silent about the evils of the Devil's Alexandrian Bibles proves what I say.

The famous preacher John Wesley wisely said: "

What one generation tolerates the next generation will embrace.

" He is right! Well I'm not embracing the Devil's Bibles, I'm spitting on them! I'm ripping them into pieces and throwing them into my garbage pail. I'm exposing them! I'm warning everyone about them! Sadly, some of my biggest critics are Baptist pastors! Shameful Pensacola Christian College (PCC) alumni, Sean Quinlan, who used to pastor the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam, critically said to me in 2018: "You're obsessed with the Bible issue!" You better believe I'm obsessed with the Bible issue Buster!

> "Now you say, 'Brother Hyles, you make an issue.' You dead sure better know I'll make an issue!"
> —'[8]BATTLE OF THE AGES' (MP3, Dr. Jack Hyles, "The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!")

It wasn't surprising to me that Pastor Quinlan didn't care about Satan corrupting the Word of God, because that is how he was trained at PCC. They have an attitude of isolationism at PCC. They claim to use only the King James Bible, but they are A.W.O.L. from the battle over the Bible. So also is Pastor Clarence Sexton and The Crown College in Tennessee. They all refuse to stand for the inspiration of the King James Bible! Instead they choose the Life of Riley, the comfortable path, the non-controversial route, the road that doesn't require you to carry your cross! My Bible says in 2nd Timothy 3:12, "

Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. " Living godly includes contending for the Christian faith! There is not a more important issue in the world than the inspiration of the Word of God. Everyone who sanctions the Devil's Bible revisions began their journey by denying the inspiration of the King James Bible, which opens a Pandora's Box!

> “All that God has ever done is through His Word.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[9]The Real Battle”

Ladies and gentleman, we have God’s inspired Words today in the 1611 King James Bible. We don’t need a new Bible. As shocking as it is, with literally hundreds of Bible revisions in the English language already, [10]Christianity Today still wants another revision of the Bible! I feel like I’m living in an episode of The Outer Limits or The Twilight Zone! “

Scotty, beam me up!

” You’d think that the one place on earth where a young person’s faith would be strengthened in the inspiration of God’s Word is in a Bible college. But incredibly, it is not so today! All across this once great land, Bible colleges have turned aside after Satan. Now instead of propagating the inspired Word of God (the King James Bible), they propagate 29 different Bible versions! Now instead of propagating the Gospel of free grace, they propagate the damnable heresies of “

[11]turn from your sins

and Lordship

Salvation! Woe unto the Bible colleges! Nothing is destroying soulwinning churches today like Bible colleges!!!

We need a revival in America of getting back to the Book! Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982), one of my favorite preachers, delivered this tremendous message called: ’[12]THE BOOK THAT MAKES THE DIFFERENCE.’ In this wonderful sermon, Brother Roloff exposes the modern Bible revisions and rightly says that the King James Bible is the only Book we need. The inspired [13]King James Bible is all we need!!!

I think it is tragic how this new yuppie generation has abandoned the godly wisdom of those dear saints who have gone before us in the right paths, in the old proven paths! Bob Jones University honored Brother Roloff by giving him an honorary doctorate’s degree in the 1970’s, yet they do not heed Pastor Roloff’s stern warnings against the Devil’s Bibles! Today, [14]BJU is a cesspool of infidels and [15]corrupt Bible teachers

. In this needful sermon, titled

: ’ [16]THE LIVING BIBLE EXPOSED ,’ Brother Roloff preaches hard against this generation of translations and abominations which pervert the Word of God. This is the real battle today, over the inspiration and perfection of God’s Word. I’m tired of hearing preachers correct the Word of God, when it ought to be correcting us instead!!!

1.6.27 What Does it Mean To Be Humble? (2020-08-15 22:30)

James 4:10, "Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up." 1st Peter 5:6, "Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:"

My definition of "humble" is: "TOTAL SUBMISSION TO GOD'S WORD."

The Hebrew meaning of "humble" in the Old Testament is "to depress, look down upon.' Matthew 11:28-30, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." To be humble is a mindset of humility, having a low opinion (in a good way) of one's self. Pastor Jack Hyles used to say: "I don't have an inferiority complex, but I know I'm inferior." God led the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt, into hardship in the desert (unbearable heat from the scorching sun, scorpions, snakes, drought, lack of food) to humble them for 40 years...

> Deuteronomy 8:2, "And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no."

2nd Chronicles 33:10-12, "And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people: but they would not hearken. Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon. And when he was in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers,"

Adversity humbles a man. I heard a wonderful sermon last week by Pastor Jack Hyles called: "[1]HOW TO HAVE DEPTH." In the sermon Dr. Hyles says that he can tell everyone how to have depth of Christian character with one word: ADVERSITY. Brother Hyles then explains the hardships that his mother Coystal Hyles suffered through, which gave her the depth of Christian character that she admirably had. She went to Heaven in 1984.

Most churchgoers today lack humility. Most of them are not saved. It appears that Lordship Salvation has infected upwards of 90 % of Baptist churches. When a man is truly broken and humble, He is receptive to God's leading and truth. James 4:6-7, "But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you." Being humble is the opposite of being proud. The Bible says only by pride cometh contention. Proverbs 13:10, "Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom." Very, very few people are truly humble. A humble person doesn't gossip about others, slandering and tearing them down. Humility says, "I am the biggest sinner I know, so I judge no one!"

One of my favorite sermons by Dr. Jack Hyles is called: "[2]The Good Man Versus The Spiritual Man."

A good man doesn't live the life of sin that he used to, but he still looks down on the carnal believer that does. The spiritual man says, like the Apostle Paul in Romans 7:24, "O wretched man that I AM." The good man mourns the sins he used to commit, but the spiritual man mourns what HE IS (a dirty redeemed sinner). The gist of the sermon is that a spiritual Christian won't condemn others believers, who are weaker and not as good a Christian as they are. Put another way, Pastor Hyles made this beautiful statement: "First Baptist Church of Hammond will become a great church when we stop saying: 'He has sinned' and 'She has sinned' and we start saying, 'We have sinned.'" I love that truth!

A humble person doesn’t condemn others, they do as the publican who went up to the temple to pray, who wouldn’t even lift his head to Heaven, and said in his heart, "God be merciful to me, a sinner." We ought not judge other sinners because they sin differently than we do! Being humble means realizing that God is the Potter, and we are the clay.

Isaiah 64:8, “But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand.”

Humility is a mindset of loving God and mankind, so that we don’t want to commit an offence against either God or our neighbour. Pride is selfish, is greedy of gain, and regards neither God nor man.

> James 4:10, “Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.”

> 1st Peter 5:5, “Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.”

> 1st Peter 5:6, “Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:”

Being humble means always giving God all the credit, praise and glory for everything in our life. Jesus said in John 15:5 that without Him we can do nothing. ...

> Daniel 5:22: "And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this; But hast lifted up thyself against the LORD of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified:"

The way to be humble is to purpose in our heart to always praise God for everything in our life, both good and bad. I listened to the book of Psalms today. What a beautiful book! David was humbled by his sins that broke him. The result of being humbled was that David praised the Lord more than ever. Here is [3]Alexander Scourby reading the Psalms.

Being humble is purposing in our heart that we are mere clay, and God is our Maker, and we ought to continually heed His Word. Ecclesiastes 12:13 says the "whole duty" of man is to "FEAR GOD AND KEEP HIS COMMANDMENTS." I use capitals for emphasis, not to shout. Our purpose for existence is to please God (Revelation 4:11). Hebrews 11:6 says without faith it is "IMPOSSIBLE" to please God. Jesus said in Mark 11:22b, "HAVE FAITH IN GOD." To me, being humble means submitting to God in all our ways. Proverbs 3:5-6, "Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil." Humility is admitting that we are weak, but He is strong. Humility is realizing that we cannot make it alone without God. If we don't read the Bible and pray, we are saying: "God, I can go it alone, I don't need your help." That is sinful pride. Being humble means lowering ourselves in our own mind below the other guy, esteeming others better than our self. That was the mind of Jesus.

> Philippians 2:3-5, "Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:"

Jesus was God on earth, but He humbled Himself (Hebrews 5:8), living as a mortal man. Our blessed Savior was a lowly man, meek, humble and looking for ways to continually help others:

> Matthew 11:28-30, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

Being humble is an attitude that I am nothing, but Jesus is everything. Galatians 6:3, "For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself."

Pastor Jack Hyles, in chapter 6 of his book: "How To Boost Your Church Attendance," says concerning humility:

> "Have Real Humility. Humility is not cowardice; neither is it timidity. Humility is a feeling that "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." There is a fine line of distinction between a person who is "cocky," and a person who is humble. A cocky person says, "I can do all things." A humble person says, "I can do all things . . . through Christ."

I like that definition. In chapter 15 of Dr. Hyles classic book: "Blue Denim And Lace," he teaches concerning "Gratitude":

> "Real gratitude is real humility. One cannot be humble without gratitude, and one cannot be grateful without humility. Many years ago someone took a poll as to the greatest sin committed by mankind. To the surprise of many, the sin chosen as the greatest and most oft committed was the sin of ingratitude. Let us meditate for a while upon this grace which is so necessary to a successful and happy Christian life."

Being humble is synonymous with having a thankful spirit at all times toward God. 1st Corinthians 15:57, "But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." 2nd Corinthians 2:14, "Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place." A humble person is a thankful person. Sinful pride says: "I don't deserve this. I deserve better! Why is this happening to me? I have been faithful to God, but He doesn't answer my prayers, I think I deserve God's help." We all have temptations to think that God owes us, but He doesn't owe us anything except eternal damnation in Hell for our sins. THANK GOD for Jesus Christ that made a way of escape from God's wrath (Romans 5:9).

Being humble means saying with Job in Job 13:15, "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him."

I hope that is all helpful to you dear reader. Someone may have a better answer theologically of what humility means, but these are my humble (no pun intended) thoughts on this matter.

God bless and have a good day.

1.6.28 The Old Account Was Forever Settled Long Ago (2020-08-16 09:30)

Romans 4:1-5, "What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness*. "

I love that well-known passage of Scripture. To no surprise, Evangelist Ray Comfort ignores this passage of Scripture entirely in his popular, "

The Evidence Bible.

" If I wrote a Bible commentary, this would be one of the most important passage to address, because it plainly teaches that salvation is by faith alone, without turning from sins, surrendering one's life to Christ,making Jesus "

Lord,

" or anything else that God doesn't require to be saved. Proponents of the Lordship Salvation heresy don't like this Bible passage, because it plainly refutes them! The Bible says a man's "

FAITH IS COUNTED FOR

RIGHTEOUSNESS

!!!

Bless God, the day I got saved as a 13 year old boy, my account in Heaven was forever settled! By faith I became a blood-washed, redeemed, child of God (Galatians 3:26). My sins (past, present and future) were all washed away by Jesus' precious blood (1st John 1:7). The old account was settled long ago!!! I am saved. It is a done deal. Nothing else is required of me to get to Heaven, because it was a free gift from God (Romans 6:23). I simply took it by childlike faith in Jesus Christ.

We are secure in God's salvation, because we are secure in Christ's work, not our work!

1st John 5:4, "For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith." Faith in Jesus Christ is the way to have eternal life! John 10:9, "

I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

" We are safe and secure in the Father's hands. I hunger for wayward preachers to repent of their false teachings! I wish [1]Evangelist Ray Comfort would come to his senses and stop preaching another gospel. I wish [2]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University) would come to his senses, and stop [3]preaching another gospel. Here is a wonderful truthful quote by famous Christian author John Bunyan

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within… you are not able to divide the Word aright, but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —Evangelist John Bunyan

That is the exact opposite of What Evangelist Steve Pettit heretically teaches at Bob Jones University today to their 2,700 students and faculty. Dr. Pettit heretical teaches:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and > you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end*; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[4]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 11:34)

I want to repeat what John Bunyan said, because it is exactly what is wrong with Dr. Pettit's counterfeit gospel message:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and *sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within… you are not able to divide the Word aright, but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —Evangelist John Bunyan

What a helpful quote! John Bunyan nailed it, explaining where John MacArthur and Steve Pettit go horribly wrong on the Gospel. These ungodly men make light of the truth of the Gospel, merging Free Grace Theology with Lordship Salvation, and in so doing they are not able to divide the Word of God aright!!! Instead, they CORRUPT the Word of God, and cast a stumbling block before the people. This is exactly what Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) [5]warned would happen, and for which [6]he'd blow Bob Jones College to smithereens if he could! The Devil and his unsaved infidels have taken control of Bob Jones University today!!! You don't have to surrender everything, nor turn from your sins, nor run the race faithfully until the end, to receive God's free gift of eternal life! JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

My mentor of the Christian faith, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) preached a beautiful sermon on this very topic, titled: "

[7]Steps In Sanctification; Or, The Root Of All Heresy.

" I encourage you to listen to the message, it will greatly help you understand what is wrong with the Lordship Salvation crowd. Every Bob Jones University faculty member and student needs to hear this positional sermon! But Dr. Hyles was just a man, and our only authority is the Holy Bible. What saith the Scripture? Romans 4:6-8, " Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin." Oh don't miss that dear reader! BLESSED IS THE MAN TO WHOM THE LORD WILL NOT IMPUTE SIN! THAT IS ETERNAL SECURITY!!!

God doesn't give temporary life or probationary life, the only type of life He gives is ETERNAL LIFE. In acts 2:41 the Bible says 3,000 souls were saved. They simply gladly received the Gospel truth that the Apostle Peter preached, and they were saved by faith. The Bible doesn't say that there was a waiting and watching period, to see if they stuck. No, they simply believed and the Bible says they were saved. Beware of any false teacher who says that we don't really know if somebody is saved until you watch their life, monitoring their spiritual progress to see if they've changed. Such nonsense is popular in many churches today, because of false teachers; such as, Evangelist Ray Comfort and Pastor Paul Washer, but it is totally unbiblical.

The Bible says we are saved BY FAITH, and the life we live has absolutely nothing to do with proving that our faith is genuine. If a man marries a woman, but then is unfaithful to her, committing adultery with other women, their marriage is still 100 % legal. Obviously, that man does not love his wife as he ought, and is a horrible sinner, but that has nothing to do with the legality of their marriage. Likewise, when you get saved, a legal transaction has taken place. You have been judicially declared JUSTIFIED by God, just-if-you'd never sinned at all. Your sins have been pardoned POSITIONALLY in Christ. However, CONDITIONALLY you are not right with God, and that is a different matter of God disciplining His children (Hebrews 12:6-8). So you see, being a child of God is our POSITION in Christ, but the life we choose to live day by day determines our CONDITION in Christ.

Here is a helpful sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles called: ' [8]HOW TO BE RIGHT WITH GOD .' In this audio sermon, Dr. Hyles explains the difference between being right with God POSITIONALLY versus CONDITIONALLY. Understanding this basic Bible truth will help you grow as a Christian, and avoid many pitfalls of heresy along the way.

The moment you got saved (born-again), God declared you JUSTIFIED, Just-If-I'd never sinned! The old account was settled long ago! HALLELUJAH! You were sealed (indwelt) with the blessed Holy Spirit the very second you received Jesus as your Savior. Your name was forever preserved in the Lamb's Book of Life in Heaven. You were, and are, now a member of God's heavenly family permanently. Jesus promised in John 6:37 never to cast anyone away, not for any reason, "All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. " You have the Lord's PROMISE!

What saith the Scripture? John 16:33, "These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." Jesus overcame the world by His sinless life, sacrificial death on the cross to pay for our sins, and His victorious bodily resurrection from the dead. Hallelujah! God is more than amazing!!! Praise God, the old account was settled long ago—not by what I did—but by what Jesus did 2,000 years ago on Calvary's cross to save me from my sins, through the precious blood that He shed on the cross and sprinkled on the Mercy Seat in Heaven (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24). THANK YOU JESUS!!!

1.6.29 The Father Is The Hero, Not The Prodigal Son (2020-08-17 10:00)

Luke 15:20-24, “

And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry: For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.”

This is perhaps the most preached and cherished passage in the Word of God. I was reading a book by one of my favorite preachers today, Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968), who said:

> “The son is not the hero of the story of the prodigal son. There is a tendency on the part of human nature to make a sinner a hero. A sinner is never the hero. ...I am always a little uneasy when a man with a bad past gives his life’s story. It is possible to tell that kind of story for the glory of God, and it is sometimes so told. But it is often told in a spirit of boasting about the sin the man has committed. I don’t like to see the sinner made the hero. The sinner is never a hero in any of God’s ’dramas.’ This prodigal son ’played opposite’ the father who was the hero in this drama.” — Dr. Bob Jones Sr., “Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks,” page 198-199; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

I had never thought about that, but I agree with Dr. Jones. I have heard many such testimonies of former top mob bosses who came to Christ, or of former drug dealers and gang members who came to Christ, and now they are treated as religious celebrities. As Bob Jones Sr. said, some of the stories can be told for the glory of God. I was humbled by the [1]incredible life’s story of former Colombo Family mob boss, Michael Franzese. Michael doesn’t brag of his past sinful life. The mob is known for killing anyone who attempts to leave that life. The only reason he lived to tell his story, is because he said all his accomplices were either dead or serving life in prison in New York state. Mr. Franzese is an ecumenical believer, but he goes around the country helping influence young people not to pursue a life of crime, not to get tattoos, and he shares the Gospel with them.

I praise the Lord for every Christian testimony. But like Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said, I have heard some disturbing testimonies that glorify one's past sins more than the Savior who died for those sins, which is very wrong I think. When one speaks of past sins, it should always be with a humble spirit of shame and regret, and never with a spirit of pride and heroism...

> "There has never been one word uttered by Almighty God in defense of the sins that men commit." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," page 199; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

Dr. Bob further states:

> "The prodigal son was a bad boy. Don't you try to make him a good boy. Don't you try to exalt him. Don't you forget his sin. God doesn't want you to forget his sins. Sin is a terrible thing. It has terrible consequences, as I shall show before I finish the message this morning." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," page 200; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) used to wisely said: "Don't be reluctant to admit to others that you have feet of clay, but don't ever show them your feet." We should never go into detail about our past sins. In today's age of mass-communication, your sins could be on the internet by sundown. My philosophy is NEVER type, speak or record anything at any time that you wouldn't want the whole world to know. We are all sinners, that is of no surprise; however, our enemies may use our sins to destroy us, if they can. So be careful what you tell people. I have had people confess very ugly sins to me, which I believe was a Satanic attempt to get me to confess my sins to them, so they could parade them to destroy my name as a preacher. I never tell them anything more than that I am a sinner too! I admit that I am a woeful sinner, but my sins are none of anyone's business!

No one can live above sin, but everyone can live above reproach. 1st Timothy 5:24, "Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after." You are a dirty sinner in God's sight, just as much as the vilest criminal on earth (James 2:10). The only difference between the holiest saint and the unholiest sinner is the precious blood of Jesus that washes our sins away (1st Peter 1:18-19).

One of the greatest sermons I have ever heard about our attitude toward sin, and I love Dr. Jack Hyles' Biblical way of thinking, is titled: '[2]The Good Man Versus The Spiritual Man.' This sermon will change your life if you will take it to heart.

This sermon separates the spiritual adults from the babies in our churches. This sermon is truly a masterpiece!

Hooray For The Son Who Never Went Astray

To me, the other hero in the story (besides the forgiving father) is the brother who never went into a life of sin. The other son remained at home and worked the farm, doing his father's will, caring for the land and animals, staying by the stuff! I think he deserves much credit. That son became upset when the prodigal son returning, because the father killed the fatted calf, put a gold ring on the prodigal son's finger, and threw him a party. The faithful son said the father had never done any of that for him! The wise father reminded him that everything he owned was his sons, whereas the prodigal son had wasted his inheritance in sin and shame.

There are so many spiritual applications that can be made from this tremendous true story. I love listening to Jesus teach in the Bible. He is so wise, brilliant and opens the reader's eyes to the truth. I marvel that anyone could read the words of Jesus and conclude that men authored the Bible. Dear reader, men could write the Bible if they would, and wouldn't of they could! There is no book in the world that can even compare to the inspired King James Bible. When men write books, they flow with logic from beginning to end; but the Bible is not in chronological order, and you must cross-reference and study it as you would solve a puzzle, to make heads or tails out of its wisdom and intended meaning.

To me that is further evidence of the divine origin of the Bible. God used approximately 40 different men, who lived over a time period of 1,500 years, most of whom never met each other, spoke different languages, came from different backgrounds of varying wealth, ethnicity, status, education and moral character; yet the 66 books of the Bible perfectly harmonize to teach us prophetic truth.

Here is a lengthy but wonderful quote from Dr. Henry Halley of "Halley's Bible Handbook" about our wonderful Redeemer and Savior:

> "God Himself became a Man, to give mankind a concrete, definite, tangible idea of what kind of Person to think of when we think of God. God is like Jesus. Jesus was God incarnate in human form. His appearance on earth is the Central Event of all history. The Old Testament sets the stage for it. The New Testament describes it. As a man, He [Jesus] lived the most strangely Beautiful Life ever known. He was the Kindest, Tenderest, Gentlest, most Patient, most Sympathetic man that ever lived. He Loved people. He hated to see people in trouble. He loved to Forgive. He loved to Help. He wrought marvelous miracles to feed hungry people. For relieving the suffering He forgot to take food for Himself. Multitudes, weary, pain-ridden, and heart-sick, came to Him, and found healing and relief. It is said of Him, and of no other, that if all the deeds of Kindness that He did were written, the world would not contain the books. That is the kind of man Jesus was. That is the kind of Person God is. Then: He Died, on the Cross, to take away the Sin of the world, to become the Redeemer and Saviour of man. Then: He Rose from the Dead: is Alive Now: not merely an historical character, but a Living Person: the Most Important Fact of History, and Most Vital Force in the world today." —Theologian Henry H. Halley (1874-1965)

We've all heard professed Christians brag of the life of sin they came from. That just shows how carnally-minded they are. A truly spiritual Christian hates their sins, and is ashamed of past sins. Nowadays things have become so bad, that unrepentant sinners are holding positions as deacons and pastors in churches, denying their sins. From the sin of homosexuality to the sin of women preachers, we must not accept sin into the church.

> "A Bible that's falling apart usually belongs to someone who isn't."

1.6.30 Have You Believed In Vain? (2020-08-17 19:34)

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, " Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

I immediately thought of the heretical Lordship Salvation crowd, who pervert the Gospel of grace. Paul is simply saying that some people think they believe right, but they have it wrong. Paul makes it easy for us, telling us exactly what we need to believe to be saved; namely, that Jesus Christ died on the cross for our sins, He was buried, and He bodily resurrected three days later from the dead. Anyone who comes to God as a needy sinner, realizing their need for redemption, who places their confidence in Christ's death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection is saved.

There are three things that one must know to be saved: the WHO, WHAT and WHY about Jesus...

- WHO He is - Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God (John 20:31)
- WHAT He did - Jesus died on the cross to pay for our sins. He was buried. Three days later He bodily resurrected for the justification of our faith.
- WHY He did it - We are all sinners and the penalty is death (Romans 6:23), including a second death (Revelation 21:8). Christ had to pay our sin debt.

John 20:31, "

But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

" John 20:31 says that

" these are written "

were written to convince us that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing we will be saved. So we could eliminate the other 65 books of the Bible, and just use the Gospel of John, to find out everything we need to know to be saved. The word "repent" is not mentioned even once. We find the word "believe" mentioned 85 times in John. In chapters 19-20 we read about Jesus' death on the cross, burial and physical resurrection. In John 3:20-21 we read that those who love sin will not come to Christ to be saved, but "he that doeth truth" will come.

That is repentance, not turning from sins, but the acknowledgement of the truth that we are a sinner, and believing the truth of the Gospel to be saved.

Repentance is acknowledging THE TRUTH that we are a needy sinner, and faith is believing THE TRUTH of the Gospel. Getting saved is strictly a matter of THE TRUTH, and has nothing to do with forsaking one's sins, which would be works. I can prove what I just said with 2nd Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;" Most people today are enjoying their life of sin, and refuse to acknowledge THE TRUTH that they are a sinner in need of a Savior. I like to capitalize those words "THE TRUTH" for emphasis, not to shout, but to bring out (no pun intended) THE TRUTH.

One of the deadliest things in the world today is "Lordship Salvation." What is this? Lordship Salvation is a false doctrine which says that you must surrender to Jesus as the absolute "Lord" of your life to be saved. Proponents of this damnable doctrine teach that a person must "repent of your sins" (turn away from your past sinful life) to receive God's free gift of eternal life. In so doing, the proponents of this heresy have moved away from the Gospel of grace, and made iron shackles for themselves! THEY HAVE BELIEVED IN VAIN!!!

> Matthew 7:21-23, " Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.
> **"

In Matthew 7:21-23 you can bet that these people believed in something. They boasted in their own defense in Christ's presence as their Judge, that they had done "many wonderful works" in His name, and that they preached in Jesus' name everywhere they went, and had even cast out devils in Jesus' name. Yet, the Lord spoke these horrifying words to them: "I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." They had believed in vain, because what they believed did not agree with what the Bible teaches. The road to Hell is paved with good intentions! Proverbs 14:12, "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

You don't turn from your sins to be saved, Jesus came to save you from your sins, and turn you from them. Turning from sin is a matter of Christian growth, and not a matter of receiving God's free gift of forgiveness of them. Salvation is a judicial matter. You are a guilty sinner. Sin must be punished. Christ took your place on the cross and paid your debt owed. Therefore, God the Father can declared you justified, on the basis of Jesus' blood which was sacrificed for you! Pastor Jack Hyles said it this way:

> "Redemption is a work of God the Son. Regeneration is the work of God the Holy Spirit. Justification is the work of God the Father as He declares the sinner righteous in the Son. Conversion then becomes the work of the church as we change the use and purpose of a life." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[1]Conversion And Salvation" (chapter 3) from his book: "Salvation Is More Than Being Saved"

Amen, that is how salvation happens. God saves a man, and then the indwelling Holy Spirit changes him. But nobody can mandate those changes as a requirement to be saved, nor as a condition to prove that one is saved, which would be works. The Bible says we "SHOULD" live godly in Christ Jesus; not MUST (that is works); and not WILL (that would be Calvinism). Titus 2:11-12, "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;" Living a faithful Christian life has nothing to do with receiving God's free gift. You are born-again the very second that you trust Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, and it is a done deal Lucile!

Please listen to me dear reader, tens of millions of false Christians in neo-evangelical churches today are just as guilty in God's sight, as are hellbound Roman Catholics and Mormons who have perverted the Gospel of grace. The damnable doctrine of Lordship Salvation has infected [2]Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, [3]Pacific Garden Mission (Unshackled radio), [4]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and thousands of other apostate pseudo-Christian organizations today! They are all pulling on the same rope as the Devil, preaching another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. Have you believed in vain?

1.6.31 Important Lessons From The Bible Story Of Lot (2020-08-18 09:30)

Genesis 19:15-21, “

And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which are here; lest thou be consumed in the iniquity of the city. And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the city. And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, Escape for thy life; look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed. And Lot said unto them, Oh, not so, my Lord: Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die: Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh, let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live. And he said unto him, See, I have accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken**. "

We can learn A LOT from LOT. Amen! Oh boy, we're off to a bad start. My pain medications for my chronic neck pain make me feel GOOD! Whoo-hoo! I was listening to Alexander Scourby read the King James Bible today, and I noticed something very interesting in the story of Lot in Genesis chapter 19. God had sent two angels to come recuse Lot and his family. Lot had four daughters. Two of them were married, but as Lot warned their husbands of coming judgment upon the city of Sodom, they laughed in his face. Lot's testimony was so poor that his own family didn't take him serious when he spoke of the things of God. Proverbs 25:19, " Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint." Lot also had two unmarried daughters, who lived at home with their parents, whom they took with them in their escape from Sodom.

Our text passage from Genesis 19:15-21 says that the angels told Lot to flee to the mountains for safety. Instead, Lot requested in desperation if he could go to a small city called Zoar (one of the five cities of the plains of Sodom designated for destruction). Lot feared what might happen to him in the mountains. There were wild animals. It was rough terrain. Dwelling in the mountains didn't have the conveniences of city life. Lot much rather preferred the safety, convenience and comfort of the city. So the angel agreed and Lot took his wife and two daughters to the tiny city of Zoar. Those inhabitants living in Zoar have no idea how fortunate they were, to be spared utter destruction simply because Lot asked to go there instead of the mountains. Let us continue reading:

Genesis 19:22-30 " Haste thee, escape thither; for I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar. The sun was risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar. Then the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven;And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground*. But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt. And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where he stood before the LORD: And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and, lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace. And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt. And Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zoar: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters."

I was amazed when I read the preceding passage of Scripture. I never noticed that before. Lot at first was afraid to go into the mountains, lest some evil befall him and he die (Genesis 19:19). So he goes to Zoar instead. The next morning Lot sees God rain down fire and brimstone from the sky, consuming all of the cities in the plain, even everything that grew from the ground, utterly destroying Sodom and three other cities!!! Zoar alone was spared for Lot's sake and his family's. But now Lot is having second thoughts, horrified by what he has just witnessed. All of Lot's former friends, neighbours, and even his beloved daughters and their husbands, are dead!

Evidently this struck fear into Lot's soul, because now all of a sudden he feels compelled to flee to the safety of the mountains, dwelling in a cave with his two unmarried daughters. I find that very interesting and even a bit humorous. I mean, that which Lot at first feared, now appears as a safe place to live, when compared to the alternative. There is a great Bible lesson to be learned here. Oftentimes that which we fear in life is really an illusion. It has been truthfully said that there is nothing to fear but fear itself! Someone has expressed F.E.A.R. as an acronym meaning: "

FALSE EVIDENCE APPEARING REAL.

I like that! That which Lot initially feared actually became a place of refuge for him. Think about that!

Sometimes it is the very loss, burden, suffering, affliction, pain or heartache in our life, that becomes a launching pad for something greater, bringing us closer to God.

That is so typical of human nature. Lot wanted to go to Zoar instead of the mountains, until he saw what God did to punish Sodom and the other cities. When Lot saw the destruction, seeing the plains of Sodom smoldering in ashes

, he couldn't get to the mountains fast enough! I think that is funny! To a human, a cat is not scary; but to a mouse, a cat is a monster! Our fears are determined by the things we choose to look at in life.

2nd Timothy 1:7, " For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind." The Christian believer has no reason to fear anything, just so long as we always do what is right! Evildoers live in fear, not the righteous!!!

Hebrews 13:6, " So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me."

I also noticed something very interesting in Genesis 19:29, "

And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt.

" The Bible says that God spared Lot's life because of his uncle, Abraham. That is very interesting. I had always thought that God rescued Lot because of his own righteousness. God spared Abraham's nephew,

Lot, because of Abraham's testimony. Hebrews 12:14, "Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:"

1.6.32 Pray For Me While My Ministry Is In Google Prison (2020-08-18 17:13)

Colossians 4:3, "Withal praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:"

I am frustrated that Google is slowly killing my ministry. In [1]2017 I had 10,800,000 total visitors for the year, but I'll be lucky if I get 2,000,000 visitors for all of 2020. It's august and I've had 1,153,866 total visitors for the year so far as of the end of July. Whatever Google has done, they have killed 80 % of my web traffic. Carlson Tucker says [2]Google is wrongly censoring Christians and conservatives (and I concur). If you type "Enemies Of Soul Winning by Jack Hyles," [3]it doesn't appear on Google at all, but on [4]Bing it appears first at the very top.

So I don’t know what the future holds for my ministry. It seems that I will end up with a faithful few, and sadly, millions of people will be denied THE TRUTH, and many will go to Hell because of Google’s ungodly owners. Over 92 % of all web searches are filtered through Google! So effectively they are playing God on social media! By having the power to decide who has a voice on social media, effectively Google/YouTube are shaping the world that we live in, turning it into a society of unsaved hellbound, atheists, feminists, homosexuals, abortionists and all vile manner of evildoers! The truth is being censored!!!

The U.S. government has given Google/YouTube immunity from being sued. Satan is the god of this wicked world. 2nd Corinthians 4:3-4 , “

But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.” The Devil will do everything in his power to hide the truth from those who need it most. Please pray for a continued door of utterance to preach the Gospel. Colossians 4:3, “Withal praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:”

They’ve got me in Google prison!

1.6.33 Beware Of Satanism Targeting Your Children (2020-08-19 09:30)

Revelation 12:9,

“

And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

The most distinctive nature of Satan is deception. The American people are being deceived on so many different levels. Our government is lying to us. [1]We were lied to about the 911 attacks, which were caused by controlled demolition, not jet planes crashing into the buildings. The primary goal of my online ministry has always been to preach the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, but a secondary purpose is to preach the truth about many subjects. Deception is everywhere in the United States! The Devil is a beautiful liar!

I really admire Sheriff Grady Judd in Polk Country, Florida, [2]who is tough on crime. They humorously call it “Grady Town,” but that is a compliment for a faithful Sheriff, who protects the community from itself. They have one of the lowest crime rates in the nation. You cannot argue with success! Would to God that we had tough Sheriffs like that all across America, but we don’t, which is why crime is out of control in most places. Ecclesiastes 8:11, “Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.” And that is why crime is so bad in America! It’s all about money folks. One man in Florida literally had 220 felony charges against him, and like 15 felony convictions, and some criminals much more, but the courts keep letting him go. Now he is being charged with murder in Polk County, Florida! I know why the courts keep letting him go, it generates tons of money for the whole system!

One thing that greatly disturbs me is the double culture in our society. In one culture we have concerned authorities like Sheriff Grady Judd, who relentlessly work to keep children safe. Yet, in another culture we have horrible people like Taylor Swift, who relentlessly work to corrupt children with foul language, promiscuity and sexual immorality in media. Hollywood, the music industry and the media have done their damage, taking our youth low morally. Singer Taylor Swift just came out in 2020 with her latest album, “Folklore.” It was shocking enough when [3]I saw her simulating sticking a male phallus in herself in her 2015 video, “

Wildest Dreams,

which is public on YouTube. [4] Now she sings

go fu _k myself

[5] in her new song,

“b

etty.

” It is so obvious that Satanists are grooming her and helping to produce her videos. The music and singing are beautiful, which masks the vulgarity of the words. What the Devil wants is for everyone to talk this way. He wants millions of youth to go around dropping the “

F bomb.

” And I assure you that they will. Taylor Swift—w hat a potty-mouth!

In her offensive vile video titled, “[6]WILDEST DREAMS” (clearly sexual in nature), Miss Swift is laying seductively upon a bed, wearing a negligee, which puts adulterous thoughts in the heart of the viewer. [7]This screen-capture to the right is Taylor Swift from her video, “WILDEST DREAMS.” As you can see, she is holding what appears to be an object in her private area, and also appears to be making some type of occultic hand-sign with her left hand. This is the sick minds of Satanists today!!! I speak as a God-fearing Christian, and as a concerned parent. Folks, the official video has already received over 709 million views!!!

I hate to say it, but it looks like a plastic male phallus. If you mentally remove the section of clothing which covers her right wrist, [8]it becomes much more obvious just how perverted what she is doing really is. Also, look how her dress in her vaginal area is pressed inward, again making it look like she is penetrating herself. Perhaps you say, “Boy, you have a dirty mind!” No, I have a man’s mind, and you’re blind if you don’t see this for yourself. Don’t miss the look of ecstasy on her face, as if she’s really enjoying it. Look! These images are directly from YouTube, completely public for children of all ages to view. If you see something say something applies here! I see something and I’m saying something, and so should you!

We have to ask ourselves we kind of deviate individuals would contrive and go along with creating this filth (obviously she’s doing it for the money), and then [9]put the indecent scene into her music video

“ [10]WILDEST DREAMS” ? Who does this? The answer is Satanists

! Why did they do this? The answer is to morally corrupt your child at a subconscious level. What is the intended purpose of creating a one second indecent scene (among thousands of such despicable scenes in raunchy mainstream music videos these days), of Taylor Swift clearly doing something vulgar and nasty? The answer is to weaken family values, subvert our nation spiritually, and prepare youth to accept the coming Man of Sin (the Antichrist).

[11]Click Here To See A Taylor Swift Scene From 'WILDEST DREAMS' Video

Retired Canadian Navy Commander, William Guy Carr (1895-1959) truthfully stated:

> "Lust is sexual desire outside the Natural Law of God. Therefore Christ Himself seems to have confirmed that Satan was lustful and is father of the Synagogue of Satan as those who are Satanists teach and believe. Satanists have always used sex-bribery and the depravities and perversions of sex to obtain control of men and women they wished to use to further the secret plans of their diabolical conspiracy. Satanism makes a God of sex. They worship the human body because of its sexual abilities. When men and women prove they are unyielding to all other forms of devilish temptation, they often fall as the result of becoming involved in illicit relationships and perversions. Did not David commit abominable sexual crimes, including incest?" [emphasis added]

SOURCE: '[12]Satan: Prince Of This World,' by Commander William Guy Carr, p. 22

Normal people don't behave like Taylor Swift in this filthy scene for children! Why is she doing this? What is the occultic symbology behind it? Trust me, these videos are cleverly scripted to influence the viewer's mind, inputting subliminal messages. These music videos are not made by amateurs, but by highly trained professionals, who work for the Luciferian elite (aka, Illuminati), and who understand how to manipulate the human soul. Taylor's hand in the air [13]immediately reminded me of Baphomet. It is obvious to any honest and informed music and movie fan, that Hollywood and the music industry are absolutely steeped in Satanism and the occult! ...

Please note what I am about to say. [15]This perverted screenshot of Miss Swift only appears in this 3:54 minute video for ONE SECOND TOTAL!!! (at 2:12 minutes into the video). It literally flashes into the viewer's mind and then is gone. I caught it! Do you know why the scum producers use this popular technique in movies and music videos? It is because your subconscious mind fully absorbs the image, but your thinking brain doesn't see the image long enough to say, "Wait a minute! This is sick and perverted!" That is a popular tactic used by Satanists to infiltrate and corrupt your mind. Thankfully, YouTube allows you to slow any video down to quarter-speed, to see everything.

Well, I captured the screen shot (by pressing the "Print Screen" button on my computer keyboard) so you can see just how evil, perverted and manipulative these wicked people really are!!! Why do you think the scene is only ONE SECOND LONG? It is because Taylor is [16]pretending to hold something in her private area (same image), and making a clearly occultic gesture, and the Satanists who produced this video don't want viewers to take notice of what they're really doing. These too-quick-for-the-mind-to-process type of smutty, torture and bizarre scenes are commonplace in Hollywood and music videos.

I am intentionally choosing my words wisely, as to avoid going over the top here. This stuff is pretty graphic in Miss Swift's video. The big $64,000 question is why? Why show this to children? Why create an indecent scene of Taylor Swift doing something erotic and extremely perverse of a sexual nature, for little children to see? Do you really think little children don't slow those videos down on YouTube and study every scene, as I did? You're a fool if you don't think so. They do! The truth is that if a woman did this act in front of your child in your local grade-school, she would be in jail for indecent conduct, lewdness with a child, endangering a child, and a bunch more police charges against Taylor Swift.

Here is another disturbing quote from Commander William Guy Carr, which accurately describes America's plight today:

> "According, to Satanism, it is perfectly right, and proper, to encourage moral turpitude in all classes of society, and at all levels of government, by convincing the public that abnormal sexual behaviour is normal; and that the moral code accepted by civilized nations, based on the Commandments of God and teachings of the Holy Scriptures, is old fashioned and introduced by Church and state for selfish purposes. But behind the building up of a WRONG conception of sex, and its purposes as intended by God our Creator, is the Satanic principle that "The best revolutionary is a youth absolutely devoid of morals." When Lenin stated this as recorded in [17]Pawns in The Game (.PDF) he only confirmed what other Satanists had stated a hundred times previously. It is Satanism, as it is direct from THE TOP, which is responsible for the increase in juvenile delinquency, but those selected by the governments of the world to investigate this problem invariably give every CAUSE other than the right one." [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: '[18]Satan: Prince Of This World,' by Commander William Guy Carr, p. 56.

I dare not even show you the nasty image in this blog, for concern of censorship. [19]So I show it on my personal ministry website. Ironically, YouTube shows it publicly! Folks, these people in the music business want to destroy your child. They want to sexualize your child with their raunchy, perverse and highly sensual music videos. Normal people don't do this, degenerates do! Normal people don't behave this way, deviates do! Go ask Sheriff Grady Judd in Polk County, Florida what he thinks about this image of Taylor Swift in her video Wildest Dreams! Let's see if he thinks it is harmless entertainment!!! It is sick and these video producers and singers need to be held legally accountable for the things they are targeting our children with!

1.6.34 What Does The Bible Say About Visions And Dreams? (2020-08-19 22:00)

Joel 2:28-32, " And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come. And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call."

There are some very important observations that we need to first make, and then from those observations form our conclusions:

1. GOD ONLY SPEAKS THROUGH THE INSPIRED WRITTEN WORD OF GOD TODAY - We know that the Bible says Hebrews 1:1-2, "God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;" The Bible very plainly tells us that in the Old Testament God at various times, in different manners, speak to men by the prophets. In one case, God even allowed a donkey to audibly speak in human language to Balaam. But in these "last days," which includes the entire Church age, God only speaks to us through His son, that is, the Word of God (John 1:1-3, 14; Revelation 19:13).
2. THE HOLY SPIRIT WAS PROMISED TO COME AFTER JESUS' RESURRECTION - The Bible plainly teaches in Joel 2:28 that in the future, young men would see visions, old men would dream dreams, young women would prophecy (preach the Gospel), and God's Holy Spirit would be poured out on all flesh. Acts 2:17 wasn't the complete fulfillment of this prophecy, but certainly was a partial fulfillment, as the Holy Spirit was now present since Jesus had risen. The Holy Spirit is called "the Spirit of promise" in Ephesians 1:13-15, "In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory." John 16:7, "Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you." The Holy Spirit came, just as Joel 2:28 foretold, and which Jesus promised, and He is available to anyone who believes upon the name of the Lord.

3. VISIONS AND DREAMS ARE PROPHESIED IN JOEL 2:28-32 FOR THE END TIMES - Joel 2:28-32 and Acts 2:17-21, "And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy: And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke: The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come: And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

4. THE PURPOSE OF VISIONS AND DREAMS IS SOULWINNING - Please notice Joel 2:32, "And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call." In BOTH Scripture passages from Joel 2:28-32 and Acts 2:17-21 we see that the goal is soulwinning! A "vision" is something seen while a person is AWAKE; a "dream" is something seen while ASLEEP. The Bible mentions these supernatural revelations of the Holy Spirit, as being during the time when the sun and moon shall be darkened, during the time of Great Tribulation.

5. THE BIBLE NEVER SAYS THAT THESE VISIONS AND DREAMS WILL BE INTENDED FOR ANYONE OTHER THAN THE INDIVIDUAL TO WHOM IT IS GIVEN - Since we know that Hebrews 1:1-2 teaches God only speaks through His Son in these last days, we KNOW that the visions and dreams are not God's way of communicating with men. In Acts chapter ten we learn about an unsaved religious man named Cornelius. He was an Italian centurion, a good man who prayed, fasted, feared God, and gave alms to the poor. So the Lord sent Cornelius a vision. Acts 10:3-6, "He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius. And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God. And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter: He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do." In Acts 10:44 Cornelius got saved, when he believed the Gospel that the Apostle Peter preached unto him. So here we clearly see that the purpose of the vision was to get Cornelius saved. I believe this will be the reason for the visions and dreams, to aid in getting people saved. Anybody who claims to be speaking for God is a liar!

6. BEWARE OF PEOPLE WHO CLAIM THAT GOD IS SPEAKING THROUGH THEM - [1]In this heretical YouTube video, a woman named Christa Elisha claims to have received a vision from God. She claims God told her that the Rapture is coming, and she is supposed to warn others for God. In the video, she cries and says repeatedly that God gave her "a word" (a term used often by Charismatics). A friend drives by on his motorcycle, and she says this is "a word" from God to her (and she says the purple color of the bike is also significant). This is Satanic superstition! [2]Here's another woman who claims that God gave her a dream, and she says it is her job to spread the

7. THE PURPOSE OF VISIONS AND DREAMS IS TO LEAD MEN TO GOD'S WORD - Abraham said in Luke 16:19-31 to the rich man in Hell, concerning his five living brothers, that "If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead" (verse 31). The purpose of God sending visions and dreams, is for people like Cornelius who didn't understand the Scriptures. God sent an angel in a vision to Cornelius, telling him to go find Simon Peter in Joppa. When they met, Peter preached the Gospel and Cornelius was saved. We know from the Bible that this is the purpose of the visions and dreams, because in both Joel 2:32 and Acts 2:21 we read "that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved." That is so beautiful and wonderful! Revelation 19:10, "And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy." The focus of all legitimate Bible prophecy is faith in Jesus Christ! Carefully notice that God didn't send the vision to the Apostle Peter (the soulwinner), but to the unsaved man who needed to hear the Gospel.

On the Day of Pentecost, the apostles didn't speak in tongues; but rather, the several thousands of people present (from every nation - Acts 2:5) HEARD in Tongues. Peter preached in Greek, but the people heard in their own native tongue. Acts 2:4-6, "And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language." So the miracle of visions and dreams will be for the unsaved to hear the Gospel. I do not claim to understand it all, and from reading dozens of Bible commentaries I see that very few theologians comment on the subject. I do not claim to have any special insight, but as a soulwinning Christian I see truths that non-soulwinning Christians often overlook. Matthew 11:29, "Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls." A yoke is a piece of wood or iron placed across the shoulders of two oxen, or some animals, to pull a load to get the work done! The Lord said if we become fishers of men with Him, we will LEARN from Him. I wouldn't give a dime for some deeper-life theologian who never shares the Gospel.

Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951) said these helpful words:

> There is a great deal in the prophecy (FROM JOEL 2:28-32) which yet remains to be fulfilled, but Peter is saying that that same Spirit which was working on Pentecost that day is the Spirit which by and by will be poured out upon all flesh. Joel says, "It shall come to pass in the last days I will pour out My Spirit upon all flesh." Notice the universality of this. This is something for the whole world in that glorious millennial day, and today this coming of the Holy Ghost, this Pentecostal blessing, is for the whole world. I wonder sometimes at those who tell us that God endued only Israel with such power. He was contemplating the untold millions of Gentiles — those already born and those to be born down through the centuries— when the Spirit of God had come with the message for all of them. "I will pour out of My Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams." The coming of the Spirit of God takes hold of a man or woman and gives them an illumination they would not ordinarily have; He opens up to them the Old Testament and reveals the things to come and gives them an understanding of the work of our Lord Jesus Christ and its effects upon human sin and human needs. (Dr. Harry A. Ironside, Commentary – Acts)

So we see that the prophecy given by the prophet Joel in Joel 2:28-32 began to be fulfilled on the Day of Pentecost (with the arrival of the blessed Holy Spirit), and we see the Holy Spirit at work throughout the New Testament, and He will continue to work throughout the Church age, continuing to the end of the world. I could be wrong on this matter. This is simply my humble opinion as a Bible student. I believe the purpose of the visions and dreams will be exclusively for winning souls to Jesus Christ, as we see in the situation with Cornelius in Acts chapter ten. Our God is a miracle-working God, who loves people and sent His only begotten Son to die on a cross for all humanity (Romans 5:6-9; 1st John 2:2).

A Word Of Caution And Clarity

I don’t want anyone to go away saying that I endorse visions and dreams. As far as I know, God doesn’t send visions and dreams to anybody nowadays. I don’t like the whole idea. God sent Cornelius a vision, telling him to go meet with Peter, to learn how to be saved. I am 100 % convinced that ALL YouTuber claims of dreams and visions are false. There is no reason for visions and dreams today. We have the complete inspired Holy Bible available in multiple languages. Preachers and churches are everywhere. I think all YouTube claims of visions and dreams are a hoax. The Word of God is very clear that God only speaks through His Son, that is, the Word of God (Hebrews 1:1-2). [3]This video of Christa Elisha is of an emotionally unstable woman, not some vision that God sent her. She is talking strange. A guy on a purple bike drives by and she assumes that is “a

from God. Listen, God does not send visions to confirm his Word!

According to my understanding of the Scriptures, when God sends dreams and visions in the future, it will be to help that person get saved. Carefully notice that in both Joel and Acts that visions and dreams were mentioned along with preaching and getting people saved. The Bible specifically mentions the Great Tribulation period, not today. I am not endorsing visions and dreams. We have a bunch of nutcases running around today claiming that they had a dream. I always tell them not to eat such heavy meals before going to bed at night, and they won’t have so many dreams! When God gave Cornelius a vision, it was for him alone, and no one else. I don’t find even one Scriptural example where someone received a vision, and God wanted them to tell it to other people. I am against people claiming to have seen visions and dreams. They are of the Devil. The problem is that if someone claims to have a vision or a dream, there is no way for anyone to disprove their claim. For example: [4]Evangelist Bill Wiese claims that he died and went to Hell for 23 minutes, and that he saw a vision. [5]Mr. Wiese preaches a false gospel as well. The Bible says God does not speak privately to anyone. 2nd Peter 1:20,

Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

” We all have the same inspired Holy Bible!

I am careful not to limit our great God’s miracle-working power. We do know that God only speaks through his Word (Hebrews 1:1-2). When the angel appeared to Cornelius in Acts chapter ten, the angel could have preached the Gospel to him, but he didn’t, he sent Cornelius to Peter. That is important to see. This proves that God does not speak to people through visions and dreams; but rather, guides them to the truth. In America we are surrounded by truth, so there is no need for God to use visions or dreams to get people saved. But if God did, it would be for that individual alone, and not to put on YouTube. During the Tribulation period, the Church will have been removed from the world at the Rapture. I hold firm to a pretribulation Rapture doctrinal position! So with the Church gone, people will need God’s help to get saved during the Tribulation. It is my personal belief that this is why Joel said there would be visions and dreams in the end times.

I do not believe visions and dreams are for today. Every time someone claims to have seen a vision or a dream, they always start providing additional information not found in the Bible, and foolish and naive people put that on par with the Bible. The whole idea of visions and dreams is dangerous, because the cults and Charismatics, and drug addicts, and drunks, speak of them frequently. I am leery of people who have an infatuation with visions and dreams. We all like the supernatural. They are dangerous because when someone claims to have a vision or a dream, it gets them special attention, and they become an instant celebrity online, and people definitely abuse it (many for money). That is the same as demonic speaking in tongues, which is unbiblical. Also, [6]Beware of Near Death Experiences (NDE's). Thousands of shysters have become rich and famous overnight, claiming to have seen something that we have no way of proving. Isn't it much better to believe the Word of God that we can see, right in front of us? Of course it is my friend.

So I think when God sends visions and dreams, it will be for the Great Tribulation period, for the sole purpose of getting people saved, not for show and tell on YouTube. I hate the Charismatic movement. I hate Ellen G. White's 2,100 visions! Miss White was a demonic lying nut. I hate Joseph Smith's alleged vision of an angel who handed him The Book Of Mormon (which Smith allegedly [7]plagiarized from another book called, "Manuscript Story," by Solomon Spalding). I am not aware of one person who claims to have seen a vision or a dream, who is not a nut, a crook or a liar from the Devil. So beware my friend.

I just want to be clear on this subject, that I do not think we should seek or look for, nor expect to have dreams or visions in the Church age. We should do as the Lord commanded and "SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!" (John 5:39). It is sinful to seek visions and dreams, because the Lord didn't tell us to do so. Likewise, nowhere in the Bible are we taught to seek to speak in tongues, which is a pagan practice. Visions and dreams were for times when the Word of God was missing in the land, which I believe will be the case during the Great Tribulation, when billions of people will die during the Apocalypse. Please don't quote me as an authority on dreams and visions, I am not. I am simply giving my humble opinion, that I think they are always given for the sole purpose of getting people saved. I could be wrong, but that is my conclusion based upon Joel 2:32 and Acts 2:21.

Great article!

We must indeed be very cautious as Christians in this day and age and not just take everyone's claims at face value.

1.6.35 Where Evangelist Jack Chick Went Wrong On The Gospel (2020-08-20 10:00)

Romans 11:6, " And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. " ...Galatians 2:21, " I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain."

The following page appears on the back of all Chick Tracts:

THE BIBLE SAYS THERE'S ONLY ONE WAY TO HEAVEN!

Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." John 14:6

NOBODY ELSE CAN SAVE YOU. TRUST JESUS TODAY!

"That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." Rom. 10:9

1. Admit you are a sinner. See Romans 3:10
2. Be willing to turn from sin (repent). See Acts 17:30
3. Believe that Jesus Christ died for you, was buried and rose from the dead. See Rom. 10:9-10
4. Through prayer, invite Jesus into your life to become your personal Saviour. See Rom. 10:13

WHAT TO PRAY

Dear God, I am a sinner and need forgiveness. I believe that Jesus Christ shed His precious blood and died for my sin. I am willing to turn from sin. I now invite Christ to come into my heart and life as my personal Saviour.

If you trusted Jesus as your Saviour, you have just begun a wonderful new life with Him. Now:

1. Read your Bible every day to get to know Jesus Christ better.
2. Talk to God in prayer every day.
3. Be baptized, worship, fellowship, and serve with other Christians in a church where Christ is preached and the Bible is the final authority.
4. Tell others about Jesus Christ.

Here's help to grow as a new Christian! Read The Next Step, available at Christian bookstores or from Chick Publications.

The Heretical Back Page Of Every Chick Tract

In step #2 on how to go to Heaven, Jack Chick teaches damnable heresy: “Be willing to turn from sin (repent).” This is unbiblical. To require sinners to “be willing to turn from sin” to be saved is an act of self-righteousness.

Carefully notice that this is not acknowledging one’s sinnership (which is step #1). Jack Chick adds an entirely new requirement to be saved, not only admitting one’s need as a sinner, but also being willing to make an effort to cease from those sins. In effect, Jack Chick is trying to do the Holy Spirit’s job.

Instead of allowing God to change a person who has come to Christ to be saved, Jack Chick requires sinners to change themselves as a prerequisite to placing their faith in Christ. This is a false gospel of qualification by works. 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 warns us about “another gospel.” If this doctrinal issue seems trifle to you, then please consider that every pseudo-Christian cult in the world [1]agree with Jack Chick’s definition of repentance . I’m not kidding! That is why [2]Mormons at Brigham Young University require Pastor John MacArthur’s perverse book teaching the lie of Lordship Salvation for their students. Tragically, the once great citadel of Christian fundamentalism in the United States, Bob Jones University (BJU), is now preaching the doctrine of devils of Lordship Salvation. Look for yourself how Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU since 2014) [3]agrees in his corrupt theology with Seventh-Day Adventist false prophetess Ellen G. White. Jesus warned everyone in Matthew 7:15a, “ Beware of false prophets

Evangelist Jack Chick has perverted the Gospel. The word “repent” in the Bible simply means, “a change of mind,” not a change of behavior. Jack Chick cites Acts 17:30 as evidence of his perversion of the Gospel, “And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent.” Although it is certainly true that repentance is necessary for salvation, the Bible does not teach that a sinner must “be willing to turn from sin” in order to be saved. Jack Chick wrongly assumes that repentance means to forsake one’s sins. The only righteous thing I can do is faith!

Anyone who says that a sinner must commit to turn away from sins to be saved, does not understand God’s grace. When someone attacks the grace of God, they are attacking the God of grace! The Bible is very clear that the nature of deception is sincerity! Proverbs 16:25, “

There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

” In Matthew 7:21-23 we find a sincere group of religious people. They boasted of preaching and doing

“

many wonderful works

in Jesus’ name, but the Lord said that He did not know them! They called Jesus, “LORD, LORD,” but did not obey the Gospel, which is by faith alone.

They were sincere, but they failed to do God’s will concerning salvation. John 6:40,

“And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. ” Anyone who receives Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that He was buried, and then after three days miraculously bodily resurrected from the dead, is saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Eternal life is God’s free gift (Romans 6:23).

Jack Chick’s teaching on repentance is that you cannot come to Christ for salvation unless you first intend not to walk in sin after you receive Him. This is “qualification by works” as a prerequisite for receiving Christ as Savior.

Also, please notice the prayer that Jack Chick leads sinners to pray in order to be saved. He includes the phrase: “I am willing to turn from sin.” This is another gospel. Salvation is a free gift, NOT conditioned upon our willingness to turn from sin. You can’t show me one Scripture where the Word of God requires someone to be willing to forsake their sins to be saved. Again, it is “qualification by works” as a prerequisite for receiving Christ as Savior. Please notice that the words “believe” and “believeth” are found 85-times in the Gospel of John, but the word “repent” is NOT mentioned even once. Hence, the man who believes on Christ has automatically repented. I am sick and tired of corrupt pastors making light of repentance, using the excuse that theologians have wrangled over its meaning for centuries. Yeah, and the half that were wrong went to Hell forever! If you are wrong on repentance, you don’t get grace!!! You absolutely cannot mix grace and works and be saved (Romans 11:6).

Romans 4:5, “But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is COUNTED for righteousness.” Did you read that? A man’s faith is COUNTED for righteousness!!! This means that a person can be saved and continue living in sin. Isn’t that what we all do? Who can live above committing sin? That’s right, no one! 1st John 1:10, “If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. ” The Gospel is very simple if you believe you are saved. But the heresy of Lordship Salvation is very complicated, because you never know if you are doing good enough to obtain the award of Heaven. As unbelievable as it may seem dear reader, that is exactly what Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University) taught 2,700 students and faculty on January 26, 2020 in chapel:

> “’The race’ is a description of the whole of the Christian life of faith.” —Dr. Steve Pettit (“[4]What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - 4:26)

> “You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There’s ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don’t finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!” —Dr. Steve Pettit (“[5]What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - 11:34)

> "We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what's the prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don't believe its referring to crowns in Heaven. I think it is referring to Heaven itself." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[6]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 22:57)

Heaven itself? Oh my! That is not Free Grace Theology dear reader, it is another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. I was saved at 13 years of age. The old account was settled long ago! I received God's free gift of eternal life, without no obligations to me whatsoever, making no promises of any kind to God. IT WAS A GIFT!!!

The Bible is filled with carnal believers who lived in horrible sin. Noah was a drunkard. Samson was a whoremonger. David was an adulterer and murderer. Rahab was a prostitute. Isaiah had a dirty mouth. Jonah ran from God. Peter denied and cursed the name of Jesus. Ananias and Sapphira stole from the church. Demas forsook Paul in the ministry, having loved this present world. The church at Corinth had a serious problem with church members committing fornication, fighting against each other, suing one another, eating meats offered to idols, and even showing up drunk at the Lord's Supper. They were a house divided. The apostle Paul called them " in 1st Corinthians 3:1. In fact, Paul called himself

"carnal" in Romans 7:14. All this evidences that turning from sin is not required to be saved.

In conclusion, there is an entirely different mindset between someone who thinks you have to forsake your sins, to be or prove you're really saved, versus the redeemed saint who believes CHRIST PAID IT ALL and I need only trust Him. What is going on in the world? It's absolutely incredible how things have changed since I was a young man. The darkness is so thick you could cut it with a knife. Indifference and Lordship Salvation have absolutely flooded into our churches, along with acceptance of hundreds of English Bible revisions, the creepy homosexual agenda, immodest dress for women, and all manner of apostasy! Anyone who says you must be willing to turn from your sins to be saved has perverted grace.

1.6.36 The Satanic Cult Of Seventh-Day Adventism (2020-08-21 08:21)

2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him."

One of the most deadly false religions is Seventh-day Adventism (SDA). I recently witnessed to a Seventh-day Adventist gentleman, and afterwards I asked him if he had ever heard of the "New World Order" (NWO). I asked him this because I know that SDA is totally supportive of the NWO. He replied that he hadn't heard of it. As I began to divulge the horrifying truth to him—the truth that SDA is a part of the demonic NWO—he quickly departed.

Take a look at the SDA symbols to the left and right. Notice the creepy [1]All Seeing Eye of Horus, and [2]The Great Pyramid. These are common symbols used by Luciferian occultists to identify who is supportive of the Beast system of the soon to come Antichrist. Anytime that you see these symbols, often cleverly hidden in business, government, church and organization logos, you know they are a part of the now forming Luciferian World Government, aka, the New World Order. These symbols are used extensively by Hollywood and the Satanic music industry, including [3]Contemporary Christian Music (CCM).

False Prophetess Ellen G. White

There was a heretical woman who lived in the 19th century into the 20th century, whose name was Ellen G. White (1827-1915). I wrote [4]an article exposing the false Gospel of SDA, and in the article I share some bizarre claims made by Miss White. White openly denied Jesus' deity, but SDA's today claim to believe in Christ's deity. So they continually grasp for straws, trying to find any inference in Ellen White's writings that may indicate that she believed in Christ's deity after all (i.e., that Jesus is almighty God). The hard fact is that [5]Ellen G. White denied Christ's deity. It is creepy that Seventh-day Adventism idolizes a woman; namely, Ellen Gould White. They profess not to elevate her writings as being equal with the Scriptures, and yet, as Roman Catholics worship Mary, so do SDA's continually quote White's writings as if the divine Word of God. Admittedly, SDA's view Ellen White's writings as the "VOICE OF GOD!"

When I witnessed to the SDA man I mentioned earlier, he asked me if I had ever read "Steps To Christ." I knew the book was authored by Ellen White, but I wanted to see his reaction when I mentioned her name. I said, "You mean the book written by Ellen G. White?" He seemed a bit startled at first that I knew her name, but he acknowledge that she is the author. It is telling that he didn't mention the Word of God; but rather, he asked me if I had read Ellen White's writings. That really pathetic. Kindly, it shows that he is brainwashed by SDA. I have a copy of "Steps To Christ" in front of me, and I am going to share with you a quote from Ellen White's chapter titled, "REPENTANCE" . . .

> "Repentance includes sorrow for sin and a turning away from it. We shall not renounce sin unless we see its sinfulness; until we turn away from it in heart, there will be no real change in the life."

SOURCE: Ellen G. White, '[6]Steps To Christ,' pp. 23-24.

What you just read is heresy. It is the Holy Spirit of God that produces changes in a believer's life, and not a mandatory change of heart to be saved. I'm tired of hearing false teachers say that you must have a change of heart toward sin to be saved. In effect, they are teaching that there can be no regeneration (being born-again) until there has first been reformation (a changed life). That is backwards! The Bible teaches that there can be no reformation until there has been regeneration (the new birth). To require a change heart for salvation is religion, and does NOT produce the new birth. Tragically, all across America, Independent Baptist Pastors are teaching exactly what Ellen G. White taught.

Ellen White says that a person's life will never change unless they have a change of heart, which she understands to be the meaning of repentance for salvation. The truth is that there are different meanings of repentance in the Bible. The word “repent” (metanoia or metanoeo) concerning salvation simply means “a change of mind.” [7]Even Wikipedia.org gets it right, teaching the truth that METANOIA means to change one’s mind. This has nothing to do with changing one’s behavior, life or heart. It is wrong to add to this simple meaning, saying that repentance must include a change of attitude toward one’s sins, and a forsaking of sinful behavior. Ellen White is teaching the heresy of [8]Lordship Salvation.

If this subject is confusing to you, I encourage you to study the Biblical teaching that eternal life is a “f[9]ree gift.” A gift cannot be earned, deserved, qualified or merited to receive it. Salvation is a take proposition, not a give proposition. If you understand the true meaning of a gift, then you can clearly see what is wrong with Lordship Salvation (which is exactly what Ellen White is teaching).

Also, I encourage you to study the Biblical doctrine of “[10]IMPUTATION,” that is, we are saved by God righteousness which is imputed to the believer at salvation.

You need to understand that SDA’s attribute “VISIONS” to Ellen G. White, which they believe qualify her as some sort of spiritual tour guide from God. Here’s a quote from the SDA magazine, “Signs Of The Times,” page 11:

> “While studying and praying with friends in Portland, Ellen went into a vision. God showed her that the Advent believers were on a difficult and sometimes discouraging path, but one that, if followed faithfully, would take them to the kingdom of Heaven. That was followed shortly by another vision, in which she was asked to tell others what God was telling her.”
> SOURCE: Who are the Adventists?, “Truth Matters: Signs Of The Times” magazine, page 11.

My friend, that is satanic! The Bible plainly teaches in Hebrews 1:1-2 that God DOES NOT COMMUNICATE TODAY THROUGH VISIONS, as He did to many people in the Old Testament. Hebrews 1:1-2, "God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds." Jesus is the Living Word, and the Bible is the Written Word (John 1:1-3,14; Revelation 19:13). We learn about the Living Word through the revealed Written Word. If anyone tells you that God has given them a message or vision to share with others, you know automatically that THEY ARE LYING. False prophetess Ellen G. White is a LIAR of LIARS!!

Here's another quote from the same issue of "Signs Of The Times," page 15:

> "Seventh-day Adventists believe that God worked through her [Ellen White] in a singular way to clarify and emphasize the Bible's message about Jesus' return."
> SOURCE: Who are the Adventists?, "Truth Matters: Signs Of The Times" magazine, page 15.

God doesn't clarify His Word through prophets. The Holy Bible speaks for itself. It is prophets who are clarified, whose words are justified or condemned, whether they agree with God's written Word or not. SDA's violate the Holy Scriptures by recognizing their alleged prophetess, Ellen G. White, as a "VOICE" from God. It is blatant heresy. Jesus plainly said in Mark 7:9, "And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition." This indictment applies to Seventh-day Adventism 100 %. Their exclusive doctrine of Investigative Judgment is totally unbiblical, concocted only by SDA's. I've noticed that SDA's try to avoid talking about this doctrine in public magazines, because it makes it much easier to expose them as a satanic religion cult. Hebrews 13:9a, "Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines."

Jesus Christ Is Our Sabbath Day Today, In Whom We Rest For Salvation

SDA's don't like Baptists, not at all. In fact, according to SDA dogma, Baptists are part of Satan's Antichrist system, because they attend church on Sunday instead of Saturday. The truth is that there is no Sabbath Day today. Even Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899) in Chicago believed that the Sabbath Day is still a command of God in effect today. Mr. Moody was a great preacher and man of God, but he was wrong about the Sabbath Day. Colossians 2:16-17, "Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ." The Sabbath Day was a ceremonial law, which applied only to Old Testament Israel in Palestine.

The Sabbath was nailed to the cross with Jesus (Colossians 2:14). Today, Jesus is our Sabbath, in Whom we completely rest for salvation. This is 100 % Biblical, as evidenced in Hebrews 4:10-11, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief." We are saved by ceasing from our own self-righteous human efforts, and instead completely resting in Christ's death upon the cross for our sins, His burial, and His bodily resurrection three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

SDA's worship the Sabbath Day on Saturday, committing idolatry. Everything in Seventh-day Adventism centers around the Sabbath, the Sabbath, the Sabbath, the Sabbath, the Sabbath, the Sabbath, the Sabbath; yet Colossians 2:14-17 plainly states, "Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross. And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ."

The Sabbath Day was a ceremonial law (not moral law as the other nine commandments in Exodus 20). Whereas moral laws are in effect 24/7 every day of the year, the Sabbath Day was a ceremonial law only in effect one day a week. Hebrews 10:1, "For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect."

Ellen G. White Teaches The Heresy Of Lordship Salvation

One of Satan's most effective weapons is the HALF-TRUTH!!! SDA's DON'T teach salvation by grace!!! I know they claim to believe that salvation is by grace, but they also require a changed heart to be saved, and as I evidenced to you earlier by Ellen White's own words, she says you have to turn away from sinful behavior to be saved. One of the best sermons I've heard exposing the falsehood of "turning away from sins" to be saved is the MP3 sermon by Dr. Ralph Yankee Arnold titled, '[11]Caught Between Grace And Works.' Turning away from sinful behavior is a self-righteous work. It is wrong to add the unbiblical requirement to forsake the world and sins to be saved. This heresy has crept into most churches today, falsely teaching that God won't save a person unless they intend not to continue living in sin.

The following quote from Miss White's book, "Steps To Christ," evidences that [12]she teaches Lordship Salvation (which is a works-based false plan of salvation)...

> "That so-called faith in Christ which professes to release men from the obligation of obedience to God, is not faith, but presumption. 'By grace are ye saved through faith.' But 'faith, if it hath not works, is dead."'

SOURCE: Ellen G. White, '[13]Steps To Christ,' p. 61.

So "faith" according to Ellen White is not simply trusting the Gospel to be saved. In addition, Miss White teaches that faith encompasses all of the obligations of living the Christian life. Starting to get the picture? Sadly, this is the same junk theology being taught today to thousands of misguided students at [14]corrupt institutions like Bob Jones University. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again!!! Religious people have been splitting Hell wide open since the beginning of the human race. Satan deceives people by giving them [15]substitutes for the Gospel. Have you been deceived?

1.6.37 Wolves In The Hen House At Bob Jones University (2020-08-21 19:30)

Galatians 2:21, " I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain."

I am amazed how many preachers are in denial today. The Devil has deceive them. They fully know that a man cannot be saved by keeping the deeds of the law, yet those same preachers require people to turn from their sins to be saved. That is mixing works with grace! To attack the grace of God is to attack the God of grace. JESUS PAID IT ALL! The very idea that a man must be willing to forsake the sinful behavior in his life to receive God's free gift of eternal life is a horrible perversion of grace.

For example: In Pacific Garden Mission's 'UNSHACKLED'

[1]program #3589 (aired in 2020), a woman named Debbie Brooks meets with a religious friend named Sharon:

> SHARON: Trusting Jesus is the only thing that can make a difference in my messed-up life.

DEBBIE: I keep hearing that in church, but I don't get it—how something that EASY can be a life-changer.

SHARON: Oh Debbie, it's not easy—believing in Jesus means repenting and asking forgiveness for all the old ways, and then GIVING THEM UP FOR GOOD. When you find the COURAGE TO DO THAT, He'll help you CHANGE YOUR LIFE.

DEBBIE: Huh, well, I'll have to think about it.

Dear reader, what you just read taught by Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago is of the Devil, straight out of the pits of Hell. That is not grace! Works and grace should never be intertwined. I hope you see how evil this is. According to this perverted UNSHACKLED program, it is NOT EASY to be saved, because you are required to GIVE UP YOUR OLD SINFUL WAYS PERMANENTLY! That is "another gospel" accursed by God! Sharon has been deceived by the Devil to mistake reformation for regeneration! Turning away from your sins is reformation, not the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God. Literally, Pacific Garden Mission has a bunch of unsaved religious people making UNSHACKLED episodes!

I read this excellent quote from Pilgrim's Progress author, John Bunyan, this week:

"If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

I thank God for Bob Jones University graduate Lou Martuneac, who had this to say about the institution's apostate condition in 2020:

> The University is Turning Ecumenical.
>
> Apparently Pettit and Horn believed they can bring similar kinds of change to BJU that ruined Northland, Clearwater, Pillsbury, Tennessee Temple, Calvary Seminary (Lansdale) and not ruin the university. Pettit and Horn began remaking BJU with a larger student base and cash on hand than the others. By continuing on this trajectory toward non-separatist evangelicalism they will eventually, like the other schools, burn through both.
>
> The university is being transformed into something the founder never intended it to be. A BJU alum and pastor who has seen his alma mater being transformed wrote the following, "Unless the trustees insist Steve return back to a Biblical position on separation, or force him out, then the school is gone, a lost cause." That sentiment is widely shared.
>
> SOURCE: [2]http://indefenseofthegospel.blogspot.com/search/label/Bob %20Jones %20University

Amen and amen! I couldn't agree more. Any fundamentalist believer is mourning today over the death knell heard nationwide from BJU. Dr. Steve Pettit's hiring as president of BJU since 2014 has been damning to the institution, driving the nails in their coffin as a once long ago bastion of fundamentalism in America! Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) himself warned about the threat of infidels who would sneak into the college ranks, and rob people of their faith! Dr. Jones said if he could, he'd come back from Heaven in 50 years and [3]blow his college to smithereens!!!

1.6.38 God’s Gift Of Eternal Life Is Not A Trade Or Exchange (2020-08-22 10:00)

Ephesians 2:8-10, “ For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.”

Many false teachers are saying that getting saved requires you to give up your sins, and to surrender everything to Christ as your “

Lord,

which is another gospel. The Bible does not teach that nonsense. Here is a helpful quote from Pastor Jack Hyles, refuting the false doctrine of Lordship Salvation:

> “Lordship salvation would make salvation a trade or a deal or maybe even a bribe. It would take away the simple reception of Christ for eternal life and would become God giving us something if we give Him something. God would say to us, ’You give Me > something; I'll give you something. We will trade, and you will be saved.' Salvation is not my giving God something and God giving me something; salvation is God giving me something and my receiving it. Romans 6:23, 'For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."' —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[1]Lordship Salvation" (chapter 11 from his book: "[2]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved")

In his popular 1988 book titled, "

The Gospel According to Jesus,

" Pastor John MacArthur even heretically uses the word

exchange

concerning being saved:

> "Thus in a sense we pay the ultimate price for salvation when our sinful self is nailed to a cross. . . . It is an exchange of all that we are for all that Christ is. And it denotes implicit obedience, full surrender to the lordship of Christ. Nothing less can qualify as saving faith." [emphasis added] —Pastor John MacArthur; The Gospel According to Jesus , p. 140

Salvation is not an exchange! Receiving the free gift of eternal life is not a trade. John MacArthur is preaching another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works! Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved. Salvation is received, not achieved!

Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross.

Please beware of anyone who teaches that God requires something FROM YOU in return, or as a condition, of receiving His gift. I was disgusted the other day while listening to Pacific Garden Mission's popular radio program called 'UNSHACKLED.'

Pacific Garden Mission is troubling Chicago with their perverted gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. Don't take my word for it, read this sickening transcript from UNSHACKLED:

> [3]Program #3625 - Aired in 2020 (the story of Cydanni Ade; she takes a stroll on the beach and meets a stranger, to whom she starts discussing her struggle with truth.) Here is some of their interaction....
>
> Cydanni Ade: "I know, you're going to tell me He [Jesus] loves me unconditionally, and wants to be my Savior."
>
> Stranger On The Beach: "Yes and no!"
>
> Cydanni Ade: "What?"
>
> Stranger On The Beach: "He does love people, but Him becoming your Savior HAS CONDITIONS!"

Cydanni Ade: “I’ve always heard He loves everyone unconditionally.”

Stranger On The Beach: “Then, why does He call us to repent? If God loves everybody unconditionally, then you can do whatever you want, and believe whatever you think.”

Cydanni Ade: “I know that’s not true!”

Stranger On The Beach: “Right! So, God placed an absolute condition, by which *He requires, commands all people everywhere, to repent of their sins and believe in Jesus Christ, and live for Him!”

Cydanni Ade: “Huh.” [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [4]Program #3625 - Aired in 2020 (the story of Cydanni Ade)

Dear reader, there are NO CONDITIONS of salvation, except to freely RECEIVE God's free gift! You don't even have to " ask

" God to forgive you! That's right, you don't need to ask God to forgive your sins, because Jesus has already paid for them with His blood. That is why God is offering eternal life to everyone as a free gift! The debt has been paid in full. Your sins have been completely paid for, and all you have to do is receive God's gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life. Just take it by faith! You don't have to ask God to save you, because He is already asking you! He simply wants you to receive His gift, by taking Him at His Word as recorded in the Scriptures.

Kindly said, another big time heretic today is Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014).

Dr. Pettit is subtle in his words, deceptively changing the Word of God into a lie. Read what he says:

> "...faith in Jesus is not just an intellectual conviction, it is a personal commitment. Paul says, we have believed in Jesus, and the word 'in' literally means 'into' ... I am taking my life, my eternity, my destiny, everything, and I am placing it into Christ* ." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit, an excerpt from "[5]What Does It Mean To Be Justified?" (The Daily Platform #741)

This is not true! So if you intellectually believe the Gospel you are not saved? That is what he says, that you must MAKE A PERSONAL COMMITMENT to Christ to receive God's gift. How do you have faith intellectually, but not be saved? That makes no sense. What saith the Scripture? 2nd Timothy 1:12, "For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day." Notice carefully that the Bible does not say Paul made a commitment to Christ; but rather, he committed the keeping of his soul into Christ's hands. The word "commitment" means "a deposit" (trust), which Dr. Pettit gets correct. We are depositing our trust in Christ for salvation. However, Dr. Pettit is perverting the Gospel when he says that we must deposit "everything" into Christ to be saved:

> “I am taking my life, my eternity, my destiny, everything, and I am placing it into Christ.” [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit, an excerpt from “[6]What Does It Mean To Be Justified?” (The Daily Platform #741)

That is not the Gospel of free grace! If I am required to place EVERYTHING in my life into Christ to receive His gift, then that is really a trade, because I am obligated to give Him something too! [7]I am so sick of this Lordship Salvation garbage!!! I love Dr. Pettit and his family, and all the family at Bob Jones University, and my former beloved church family at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (before they excommunicated me in 2014 for telling the truth, as I am still doing now in this article). Eternal life is the free gift of God. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) got the Gospel right! Dr. Bob said, “ [8]The gift of eternal life is wrapped in the wonderful package of Jesus .” Boy, I love that! If you want God’s gift of eternal life, then you must accept it in the package of Jesus Christ! Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said in 1944 that he would [9]blow Bob Jones College to smithereens ([10]MP4), if he could in 50 years, if they ever let [11]an infidel like Dr. Steve Pettit come in and rob the saints of their faith!

The Gospel means GOOD NEWS! It is the Good News that Jesus Christ died on the cross for your sins. He was buried , and three days later He bodily resurrected by the miraculous power of God. Jesus is the sinless only begotten Son of God, the Christ (John 20:31), who paid your debt of sin, and mine (2nd Corinthians 5:21), so we could freely have eternal life as a gift (Romans 6:23). How awesome is that? You and I are guilty sinners (Romans 3:19-20). As such, we are also needy sinners! We need redemption. We need a Savior! It is absolutely impossible for anyone to save them self. No human being has ever done so, because all have sinned against God (Romans 3:23).

We have a wonderful Savior, who has already laid down His life for every ungodly sinner (Romans 5:6-9). If you will receive Him this moment Oh sinner, receiving His sacrifice upon the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He is bodily risen from the dead, and that is your only hope for Heaven and eternal life, then you are saved! SIMPLE BELIEVE ON THE PRECIOUS NAME OF JESUS!!! John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.” 1st Corinthians 1:21, “For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.” Do you believe friend?

Here is an awesome quote from Dr. Jack Hyles, refuting the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation:

“In conclusion, notice the vanity and pride involved in one testifying to his salvation who believes in Lordship salvation. He is saying, "I have made Jesus my Lord." That means that Jesus controls his life and he is totally yielded. My, what a statement for a person to make about himself! On the other hand, notice the humility in the person’s testimony who says, "I am saved because I received Christ as my Saviour." He is talking about a salvation that he did not merit. He did nothing to receive it except receive it. It was a gift. Whereas, if we had to give something to God to get something in return, he and God made a trade and his salvation is earned.”
—Pastor Jack Hyles, “[12]Lordship Salvation” (chapter 11 from his book: “[13]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved”)

Forgiveness of sins and eternal life are a gift from God. It is no different than a Christmas present resting under the Christmas tree on December 25th, with your name on it, just waiting for some lucky dog to open it. You lucky dog you!

1.6.39 The Holy Bible Doesn't Say 'Turn From Sin' To Be Saved (2020-08-23 09:30)

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, " Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

I just quoted to you the Bible's definition of "The Gospel." The apostle Paul specifically mentions the DEATH, BURIAL and bodily RESURRECTION of the Lord. I don't see anything about turning from sins to be saved! That is because turning from (forsaking) sins is not a part of the saving Gospel. Pastor Jack Hyles made this helpful statement:

> Lordship salvation would make salvation a trade or a deal or maybe even a bribe. It would take away the simple reception of Christ for eternal life and would become God giving us something if we give Him something. God would say to us, "You give Me something; I'll give you something. We will trade, and you will be saved." Salvation is not my giving God something and God giving me something; salvation is God giving me something and my receiving it. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[1]Lordship Salvation" (chapter 11 from his book: "[2]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved")

Along with the Apostle Paul, I marvel in astonishment that most professed Christians today, including independent Baptists, have succumbed to the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. Satan has sowed millions of tears in the churches. Nowhere in the Bible are we taught to " turn from sins

as a condition to receive God’s free gift of eternal life! Fundamentalism is rooted in Free Grace Theology, not the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation (aka, Calvinism).

1.6.40 Neither Give Place To The Devil (2020-08-23 20:30)

Ephesians 4:27, “

Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

The inspired Holy Bible commands us not to give place to the Devil. Ephesians 4:27, “Neither give place to the devil.” We all make our own decisions as humans. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) rightly said: “Behind every tragedy in human character is a slow process of wicked thinking.” It was in the news today that [1]Joseph James DeAngelo [commonly known as ’[2]The Golden State Killer’ (warning: this hearing contains graphic details and language by prosecutors)] was merely sentenced to life in prison. The state of California’s refusal to sentence this criminal to capital punishment is as horrifying as all the crimes that he committed. THERE IS NO JUSTICE!!!

This monster (a career police officer) murdered 13 people, raped 51 women, and burglarized 100 homes. He very likely committed hundreds more crimes, but these are just the ones police are aware of. This wicked man gave place to the Devil! All we can do is trust that our holy, great, righteous, vengeful and good God will avenge all evil (Romans 12:19-21; Romans 14:10-12). Even if the courts sentenced DeAngelo to 5,000 years in prison for his merciless crimes, he’ll likely be dead within 10 years, as he is now old and sickly. I cannot even wrap my brain around the extent of this man’s atrocious crimes. It is heartbreaking, horrifying and beyond the grasp of normal caring people. The police guards in the court hearing aren’t there for DeAngelo, they’re there to keep the victims from tearing him to pieces! Psalms 50:22, “Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.”
