To join Freemasonry, every new member is required to agree with their perverse rules, which go contrary to the inspired Holy Bible. Freemasons are not permitted to pray in Jesus’ name, lest they offend the religious sensitivity of non-Christian members. Instead, Masons worship ’THE GREAT ARCHITECT,’ a one-size fits all god (Lucifer). [3]Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899) exposed the evils of Freemasonry and admonished Christian men against joining this nefarious Satanic group.

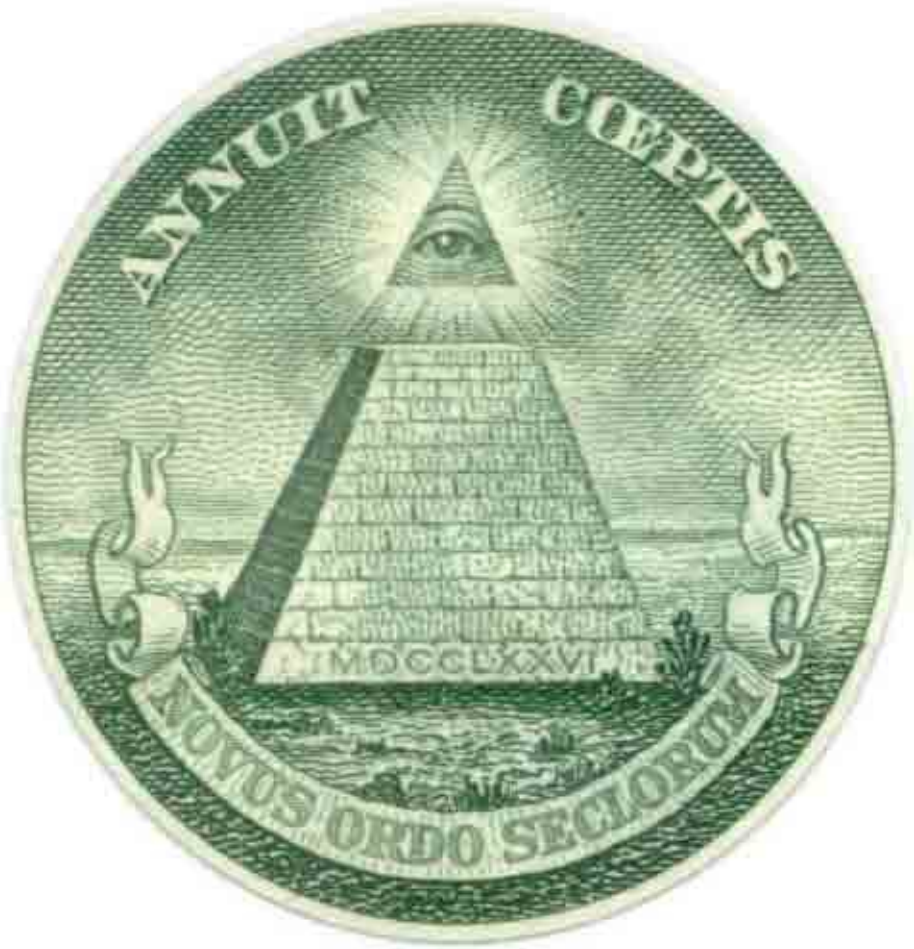
KENSINGTON’s Shocking DRUG Crisis UNVEILED!

All of the illegal drugs, homelessness, dysfunction in society, homosexual agenda, Hollywood rot and the preponderance of online smut are deliberate.

If society cared and had forced tens of thousands of drug addicts on the streets into rehab years ago, they wouldn't be dead now. Society doing nothing is killing the homeless!!! It's not as simple as saying that our leaders are incompetent wicked people who don't care. Many of them do care, but they have an army of ungodly politicians, legislatures, lawyers, judges, civil rights communists and heathen fools who ruthlessly protect the legal "rights" of Americans to destroy themselves and remain a nuisance to society.

> "□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□'□□ □□ □□□!" —□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□ □□□□□□ (□□□□-□□□□), "[4]□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□□"

America will NEVER be "Great Again" as long as we continue to ignore the plight of the drug addicted homeless.



Freemasons are working to destroy the United States, so that out of chaos the Antichrist will arise to bring order. Every U.S. one-dollar bill is filled with Masonic symbols. The Latin phrase 'E Pluribus Unum' means, 'One out of many' (that is, order out of chaos), which is the foundation of the New World Order's plan to unify the world's governments, religions and money systems into one so the world can be controlled. Dr. Jack Hyles preached the following enlightening sermon in 1970...

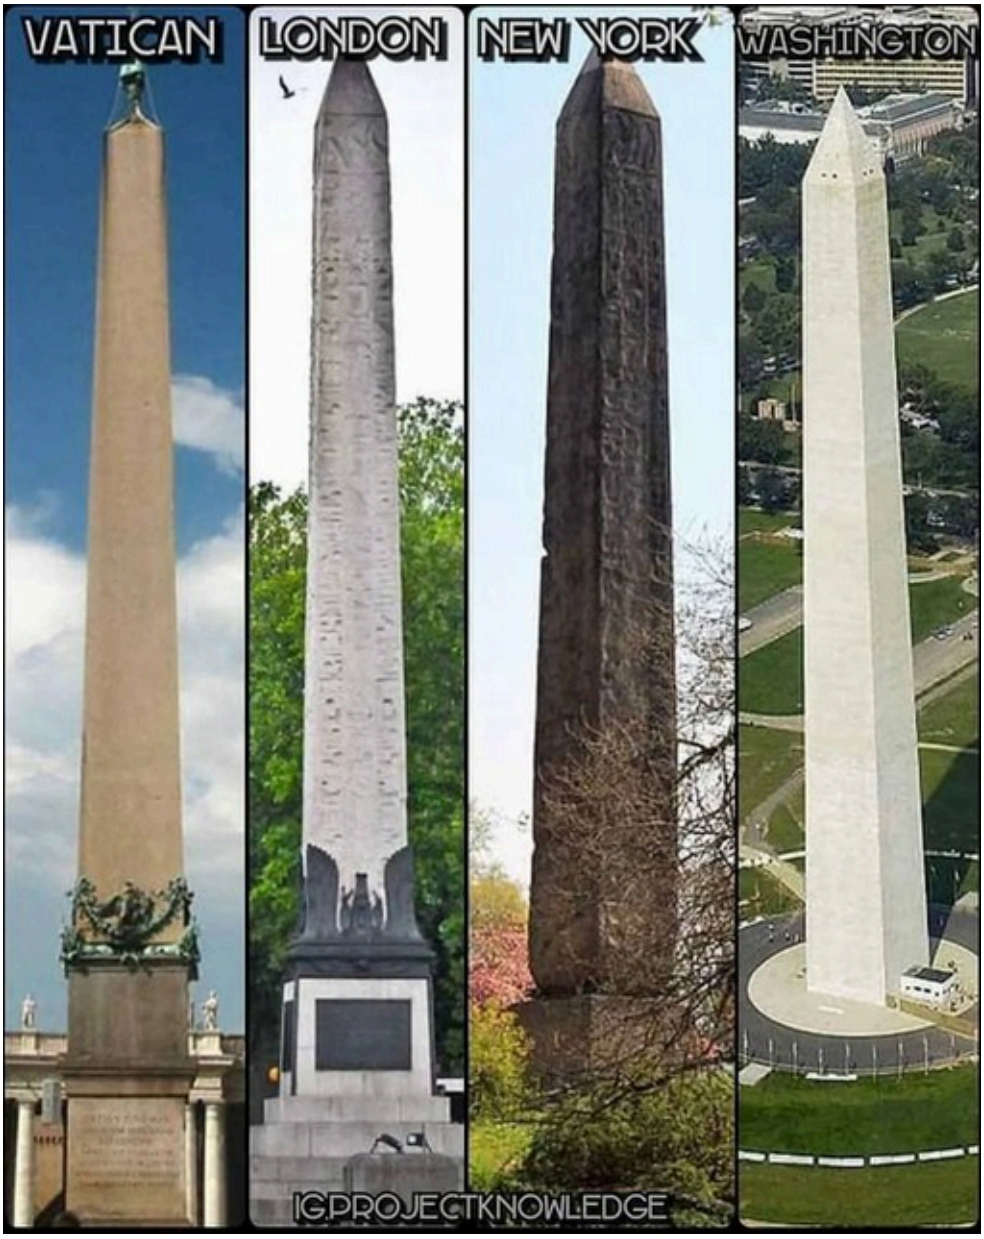
[6]WHY THE ANTICHRIST MUST COME SOON!
(by Pastor Jack Hyles, 1926-2001)

The capstone has not yet come down on the Pyramid. ...

[7]



This means that the plan is not complete. Only when the New World Order is established upon all nations and the world leader is enthroned the plan will be complete. These are the end times of the United States and the world as we know it. We are sailing into uncharted waters, now approaching the demonic New World Order.

America Destroyed By Design
([8]backup video)

In the Old Testament book of Daniel we read about Nebuchadnezzar's golden image, which dimensions were 90 feet tall by 9 feet wide (a 10 to 1 ratio). The [9]occult Washington Monument in Washington DC has the exact SAME ratio (see image below). It is 6,666 inches tall and 666 inches wide (666). Do you think that is by mere coincidence? I hope you're not that naïve friend. The obelisk (depicting an erect male phallus) was popularized in Egyptian ancient culture and religion. This occult symbol represents Satan's power in the world.

The inspired King James Bible teaches us that the Devil is the ruler of this wicked world. 2nd Corinthians 4:3-4, "But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them."

The inspired Holy Bible teaches us that the Devil and his servants are all liars and deceivers. 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15, "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works." Since they are not trusting in the righteousness of Jesus Christ which is imputed to sinners by faith (Philippians 3:9), they can only be judged according to THEIR WORKS. What a horrifying end it will be for the wicked who have no faith in Christ. Should it then be surprising that wicked Hollywood honored [11]infidel Billy Graham (1918-2018) with an actor's Star of Fame?

Things will only wax worse in the future. I am so glad to be a born again Christian since age 13, which was 45 years ago. As much as Christians and conservatives have put their hope in President Donald Trump, he will fail to "Make American Great Again." He only has the next 4 years to turn around a half century of irresponsible government; and what about our immoral society? Sin is a reproach to any nation. Proverbs 14:34, "Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people." Our moral base is corrupt. America was "great" when she was good, and she was good when she had great churches. Those days are long gone! It is almost impossible to find a great church anymore. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

THANK YOU dear friend for reading my humble blogs. I am just a redeemed sinner, a servant, a child of our great Savior, Lord and God. Philippians 3:20-21,

For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ*:

Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself." I am looking for Jesus to return from Heaven, and I encourage you to also friend, if you're not already. Jesus could come back right now!

6.3.14 Satan On The United States Dollar (2025-03-16 15:26)

2nd Corinthians 4:3-4, "But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them."

The Masonic Seal Of America!

“Historian/author Ralph Epperson has spent many years researching the history of the Great Seal, and has discovered that those who designed the two circles committed America to what has been called 'A Secret Destiny.' This future 'destiny' is so unpleasant that those who wanted the changes it entails had to conceal that truth in symbols."

America's Secret Destiny (an informational 3:59 full documentary by [1]Dr. Ralph A. Epperson)

This is the Great Seal of the United States of America. It was designed by the Freemasons and contains an abundance of occult symbolism that the profane (non masons) are not to understand. This article will once and for all prove that the Seal is a Masonic design. Have you ever asked the question: "Why is there a Pyramid on our $1 note?" The religion of Freemasonry and some of it's mysteries have descended from ancient Babylon, whose mysteries descended from ancient Egypt. [2]The Great Pyramid has of old been a fascination of Freemasons. It is a pagan temple of Satan worship. [3]Aleister Crowley , Freemason and chief Satanist of the 20th Century performed a satanic ritual in the Kings Chamber. The Masonic founded and controlled cults of the [4]Jehovah's Witnesses and [5]Mormons have also adored the Great Pyramid.

Truth is stranger than fiction. Lucis Trust is the Publishing House which prints and disseminates United Nations (UN) material. Lucis Trust was established in 1922 as [6]Lucifer Trust by Alice Bailey as the publishing company to disseminate the books of Bailey and Madame Blavatsky and the Theosophical Society. Due to public outrage over the creepy name of the publishing company, it was changed one year later to Lucis Trust. It is a devastating indictment of the New Age and Pagan nature of the United Nations (UN)...

[7] The Externalisation Of The Hierarchy

(read occultist Alice Bailey's blueprint for the coming New World Order)

But why are elite occultists in the Illuminati pushing this garbage on the public? Why are they [8]saturating society with occult symbols? [9]What is their agenda? Luciferians love to place occult symbols in plain sight, mocking the ignorance of the common person. The answer why they are doing this is found in a book authored by occultist Alice Bailey, titled " [10]The Externalisation Of The Hierarchy ," in which she teaches that now is the time to promote the ancient mystery religion and symbols to the masses, to prepare them to receive the soon appearing Antichrist.

That's what it's all about folks. Satan's man of sin, the son of perdition, the Beast (which are all names for the Antichrist) is coming to the world very soon. The signs are all around us. In Alice Bailey's aforementioned book (which is [11]freely available to read online), she mentions the word "Christ" 666 times, because her Christ is the Antichrist, not the Lord Jesus Christ. Lucis Trust (originally founded in 1922 as " [12]Lucifer Trust ") publishes all of Alice Bailey's books still today.

Alice Bailey communicated with a demonic being named Master Djwhal Khul, who instructed Bailey and her followers to "prepare men for the reappearance of the Christ. This is your first duty." ("The Externalization of the Hierarchy," pg.614). Now you know why occult symbols appear on every U.S. one dollar, throughout Washington D.C., on music album covers, in churches, on business logos and everywhere we look these days. The masses of this world are being conditioned and prepared to receive the man of sin, the Antichrist!!!

The Illuminati love to hide things in plain sight. As the saying goes, “You can’t see the forest for the trees.” Symbolism and occult imagery are subconsciously perceived, but on a conscious level will not be seen. However, occasionally the symbolism is clear and right in our faces. But the meanings behind the symbolism or references are unknown to the majority and therefore are automatically filtered out by the brain as insignificant and meaningless. You must remember that in order for secret groups to show their affiliation, they use symbols as a means to communicate. Although there are many more reasons as to why they hide things in plain sight.

Another reason is to mock God. The criminal global elite are not atheists. They fully believe in God, and they hate Him with a passion. They have willfully chosen to follow Satan and are Luciferian worshippers. Satan’s purpose is to corrupt and deceive every human being, so they’ll end up in Hell with Him when it’s all over. The occult-inspired global elite (aka, the Illuminati) are all worshippers of Lucifer. They believe in a Luciferian philosophy which teaches that Adam and Eve were in bondage in the Garden of Eden under God’s Laws; but the Devil set them free by convincing them to eat of the forbidden fruit, thus opening their eyes of enlightenment and making them as gods to choose for themselves between good and evil. That’s why the world is so messed up today, that is, because men have chosen to do evil and blame God for the consequences of sin and evil.

These Luciferian religions teach that such intellect is a gift from Satan and that man ultimately will become “as gods” through occult enlightenment. It is because of these demonic doctrines that God is arrogantly challenged by the architects of the New World Order. [13]Here’s a List of Famous CFR Members (most of which are Luciferian worshippers, or at a minimum, supporters of their cause). [14]Here’s the evil history of the CFR and how it affects you. The Illuminati openly praise the Devil through the music industry and television. Young budding [15]singers , [16]comedians and [17]actors are told what to do if they want to make it big. That’s why [18]Willie Nelson is told to sing a homosexual song or fade away. This is why the Satanists controlling the music industry had [19]Johnny Cash singing Satanist, Glenn Danzig’s song THIRTEEN and [20]Dolly (sellout) Parton singing Satanic led Zeppelin’s Stairway to Heaven . The truth is as clear as a blue sky day to those who open their eyes.

Satan controls every major industry today, as can be traced through [21]members of the CFR, Bilderberg and the Trilateral Commission . I firmly believe that the Illuminati are planning something big for 2012, like a nuclear attack in America.

First of all I will interpret the Latin words on the seal. ’Annuit Coeptis’ means ’Announcing The Birth Of’ and ’Novus Ordo Seclorum’ means ’New World Order’. So therefore it says ’Announcing the birth of the New World Order’. The date in roman numerals is 1776, the year the modern Illuminati was formed and also the year of American independence. The Latin ’E Pluribus Unum’ means, ’One out of many’ (that is, order out of chaos) which is the foundation of the New World Order’s plan to unify the world’s governments, religions and money systems into one so the world can be controlled. [22]WHY THE ANTICHRIST MUST COME SOON!!!

The capstone has not come down on the Pyramid. This means that the plan is not complete. Only when the New World Order is established upon all nations and the world leader is enthroned the plan will be complete. On the obverse is an eagle whose dexter wing has thirty-two feathers, the number of ordinary degrees in Scottish Rite Freemasonry. The sinister wing has thirty-three feathers, the additional feather corresponding to the Thirty-third Degree of the Scottish Rite conferred for outstanding Masonic service. The tail feathers number nine, the number of degrees in the Chapter, Council, and Commandery of the York Rite of Freemasonry. Notice the stars above the eagle's head forms a hexagram the most evil of all witchcraft symbols.

Let us now go to Manly Palmer Hall, member of the Illuminati and 33rd Degree Freemason, called "the 20th century's greatest Masonic scholar and philosopher by the Supreme Council of the 33rd Degree of Freemasonry's official monthly publication, the Scottish Rite Journal in the obituary section of August 1990.

[23] The Secret Teachings of All Ages

This book is called Manly P. Hall's Magnum Opus, an Encyclopedic Outline of Masonic, Hermetic, Cabbalistic, and Rosicrucian Symbolical Philosophy. Manly also instructs the reader to bring a human sacrifice to Lucifer each year. This is pure Satanism.

See [24]Do Freemasons Worship Lucifer/Satan for this quote.

Manly P. Hall states:

> "European mysticism was not dead at the time the United States of America was founded. The hand of the mysteries controlled in the establishment of the new government for the signature of the mysteries may still be seen on the Great Seal of the United states of America. Careful analysis of the seal discloses a mass of occult and Masonic symbols chief among them, the so-called American Eagle. ... the American eagle upon the Great Seal is but a conventionalized phoenix..."

> "Not only were many of the founders of the United States government Masons, but they received aid from a secret and august body existing in Europe which helped them to establish this country for A PECULIAR AND PARTICULAR PURPOSE known only to the initiated few."

> SOURCE: Manly P. Hall, The Secret Teachings of All Ages, pp. XC and XCI

The European group he is talking about is the Illuminati. They claimed America to establish the New World Order. This is the peculiar and particular purpose known only to certain high ranking freemasons.

How The Great Pyramid Ended Up On Our U.S. Dollar

The New World Order is an expression that has been used by illuminized Freemasonry since the days of [25]Weishaupt to signify the coming world government. “It is necessary to establish a universal regime over the whole world,” Weishaupt had said. (Writings of the Illuminati, 1780)

During the first part of the 20th century and up to the time the reverse of the seal was first used, a series of victories over the sovereignty of the United States had already been won. Illuminist agents committed to the one-world interests of the Rothschild-Warburg-Rockefeller cartel had accomplished some important stepping stones to this New World Order: Federal Reserve System (1913); League of Nations (1920); Royal Institute of International Affairs, and Council on Foreign Relations (1920-21); and the Stock Market Crash of 1929. The consolidation of power was complete and the reverse side of the seal, which remained largely unknown to the American people for more than 150 years, could now be placed.

The Intervention by the Masonic-Rosicrucian-Illuminati

In 1934, Secretary of Agriculture, soon-to-be Vice-President (1940-44) and 32nd degree freemason Henry Wallace submitted a proposal to the president to mint a coin depicting the seal’s obverse and reverse. President Franklin D Roosevelt, also a 32nd degree freemason, liked the idea but opted to instead place it on the dollar bill. According to Henry Wallace, in a letter dated February 6, 1951, “the Latin phrase Novus Ordo Seclorum impressed me as meaning the ’New Deal’ of the Ages.”

> “Roosevelt as he looked at the colored reproduction of the Seal was first struck with the representation of the ’All-Seeing Eye,’ a Masonic representation of Great Architect the Universe. Next he was impressed with the idea that the foundation for the new order of the ages had been laid in 1776 (May 1st, 1776, founding of the Illuminati) but would be completed only under the eye of the Great Architect. Roosevelt like myself was a 32nd degree Mason. He suggested that the Seal be put on the dollar bill rather that a coin.”

Besides being a high ranking freemason and having the distinction of introducing socialism into the American political system, [26]Roosevelt was a member of a secret society called the Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystics Shrine (Shriners), attaining the grade of a Knight of Pythias. The Order of Nobles and Mystics claimed to be an offshoot of the Illuminati.

Freemasons, Walter Flemming and William Florence founded an American branch in New York, 1872. Membership in the order was open only to Freemasons who had reached the 32nd degree of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite or those who've attained the last degree of the York Rite, the thirteenth degree (Knight Templar).

The Order of Nobles and Mystics have origins which date back to the seventh century – apparently founded by a descendent of Mohammed. Author Michael Howard describes the Order's symbols.

> "The symbol of the Order is a crescent moon, made from the claws of a Bengal tiger, engraved with a pyramid, an urn and a pentagram. The crescent is suspended from a scimitar and in the Order is a representation of the Universal Mother worshipped in ancient times as Isis. The horns of the crescent point downwards because it represents the setting moon of the old faith at the rising of the Sun of the new religion of the brotherhood of humanity."
> - [27]The Occult Conspiracy , p.93

According to Anton LaVey, founder of the Church of Satan, Roosevelt's Shriner's have a ritual similar to a satanic ritual called "The Ceremony of the Stifling Air", or better known as "L'air Epais." LaVey says that this rite was originally performed "when entering the sixth degree of the Order of the Knights Templar." Remember that if the Masonic candidate chooses to follow the York Rite, after he completes the 13th degree called the Knight Templar, he can apply to become a Shriner.

LaVey describes the Templars' ritual thus:

> "The original Templars' rite of the Fifth degree symbolically guided the candidate through the Devil's Pass in the mountains separating the East from the West (the Yezidi domain). At the fork of the trail the candidate would make an important decision: either to retain his present identity, or strike out on the Left-Hand Path to Shambhala, where he might dwell in Satan's household, having rejected the foibles and hypocrisies of the everyday world.
> A striking parallel to this rite is enacted within the mosques of the Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, an order reserved for thirty-second degree Masons. The Nobles have gracefully removed themselves from any implication of heresy by referring to the place beyond the Devil's Pass as the domain where they might "worship at the shrine of Islam."
> Once the celebrant has taken this degree, he embarks upon the Left Hand Path and chooses Hell in place of Heaven."
> The Satanic Rituals — Companion to the Satanic Bible, p. 21 [[28]PDF Version here]

Well, yes! These three "wise men" – by placing the reverse of the Great Seal on the dollar bill – succeeded in announcing to the world that America is on "the path", and is the world's best hope for the spiritual (occult) evolution of the planet. Considering how deep into the occult both Roosevelt and Wallace were already – and Wallace's connections to Theosophy – they had to of known that the most esteemed Theosophist of her time, Alice Bailey, had already declared that the Aquarian Age had begun in 1932. The whole symbology of the reverse is meant to be a mandala announcing this "New Age of Horus." They could not help but see the significance of this. And giving that their fellow illuminists in the Federal Reserve had now taken control of America's currency, it was a shoo-in.

Masonic Lies

There is a cry in Freemasonry today that the eye in the pyramid is not a Masonic symbol and it never was. At [33]Masonicinfo there is a page which states "the eye in the pyramid is not now nor has it ever been a Masonic symbol." The author says that he has looked for 3 years for use of this symbol in Freemasonry and has only found 2 examples. I have been inside about 4 Masonic Lodges and 2 of them including the first I went to used the eye in the pyramid, the first one very prominently.

So I know this to be Masonic lies. On another Masonic page entitled ’ [34]The Eye In The Pyramid ’ we read "The Great Seal of the United States is not a Masonic emblem, nor does it contain hidden Masonic symbols." Remember the quote above by one of Freemasonry’s highly esteemed men stating it "discloses a mass of occult and Masonic symbols..." Who are we to believe, Freemasonry’s GREATEST scholar and philosopher or some other man in Freemasonry with no such credentials. Let me once and for all establish the eye in the pyramid is Masonic.

The image below is taken from ’The New Age’ magazine which was the official publication of the Supreme Council of the 33rd Degree of Freemasonry, the most powerful Masonic organization in the America if not the world. It is now called the ’Scottish Rite Journal’. It is from April 1960 and it clearly states that the $1 note is covered in Masonic symbols and it also states "Pyramid with the Masonic All Seeing Eye"

Masonic Symbols In a $1 Bill

13 leaves in the olive branches
13 bars and stripes in the shield
13 feathers in the tail
13 arrows
13 letters in the "E Pluribus Unum" on the ribbon
13 stars in the green crest above
32 long feathers representing the 32° in Masonry
13 granite stones in the Pyramid with the Masonic "All-seeing Eye" completing it.
13 letters in Annuit Coeptis, "God has prospered."

On the front of the dollar bill is the seal of the United States made up of a key, square, and the Scales of Justice, as well as a compass which, of course, is an important symbol in Masonry.

If all of this is not enough proof then I will give you another image taken from the headquarters of Freemasonry in Queensland, Australia showing prominently the Masonic eye in the pyramid. See the top of the image, right in the middle.

One more to firmly establish the eye in the pyramid as a Masonic symbol.

Favorite Illuminati Symbol: The All-Seeing Eye. New World Order Currency: The all-seeing-eye on the dollar bill.

To the left is the illuminati pyramid/eye symbol and the words: "Annuit Coeptis" means "our enterprise is now a success" or "our enterprise is crowned with success." What enterprise are we talking about? "Novus Ordo Seclorum," which can be translated as: "A new order of the ages" or "a New World Order" Hence, the message means, our New World Order is now a success.

The Serpent promised Adam and Eve that their eyes would "be opened" if they ate of the fruit of the tree of knowledge of good and evil. The key word in this passage is eyes, which in Hebrew can be translated "knowledge." Opened can be translated "broadened." What the Serpent promised Adam and Eve was that knowledge would be broadened if they ate of the forbidden fruit.

But the most foreboding aspect of this scripture emerges from the fact that the Hebrew word for "eyes" is not plural, but singular. What the Serpent actually told Adam and Eve was that their “eye” would be broadened by knowledge.

The “eye” that Scripture wants us to consider is not the physical organ of sight, but the eye of the mind or the soul. This singular “eye” is called the “third eye” of clairvoyance in the Hindu religion, the eye of Osiris in Egypt, and the All-Seeing Eye in Freemasonry. (John Daniel, Scarlet and the Beast, Vol. III, pp. 6-7).

The Roman numerals “1776” refers to the beginning of a secret society, the Bavarian Illuminati, known today as the “Columbian Faction” of the Illuminati. This is why we see Columbia Space Shuttle, Columbia TV, Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS), Columbia University, Columbia Records, Colombia Movies, our government is in the District of Columbia (they print our money, make our laws, and control the government). They own the government and they own you. They decide who dies and who lives, who to kill and who to protect.

The all-seeing eye is the elite’s favorite symbol. It represents the eye of Lucifer seeing all and is usually atop a pyramid, the symbol for a top-down command and control system of compartmentalization.

See below for more Masonic hidden symbolism.

More On The Great Seal

Many companies use the pyramid within their logos. James Walker, a 32º Mason, shares some facts with us about the above symbols:

7844

- 13 leaves in the olive branch
- 13 bars and stripes in the shield
- 13 arrows in the right claw
- 13 letters in the "E Pluribus Unum" on the ribbon
- 13 stars in the green crest above
- 32 long feathers on its right wing representing the 32º in Freemasonry
- 13 granite stones in the Pyramid. (The 13 layers represent the [38]13 Illuminati bloodlines)
- 13 letters in Annuit Coeptis

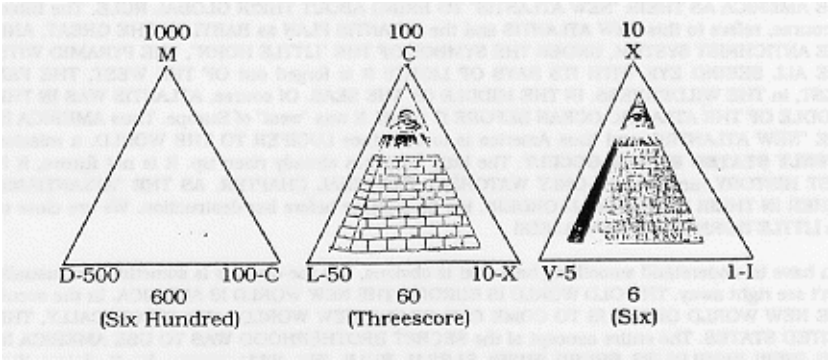
This is called Masonic symbolism. It should also be noted that the Eagle has 32 feathers right wing, but 33 in its left wing. The 32 feathers representing the number of ordinary degrees of the Scottish Rite, and the 33 feathers representing the 33º of Freemasonry. The tail feathers number 9, the number of degrees in the York Rite. The eagle itself is a prominent icon of Masonry, being used extensively in the Scottish Rite.

Looking just above the eagles head you will see 13 pentagrams within a cloud. The pentagrams are arranged in the shape of a hexagram - or greater Seal of Solomon. The hexagram is a powerful tool used by pagans to invoke Satan. It is also the sign of Antichrist with 6 points, 6 angles and 6 planes (666).

To the sorcerer, the hexagram is a powerful tool to invoke Satan, and is a sign of Antichrist. (6 points, 6 angles, 6 planes - 666) The 5 pointed pentagrams multiplied by the 13 stars equals 65, the same cabalistic number as mentioned above. This makes one wonder with whom or what, we are to dwell in unity!

The eagle replaced the Phoenix in 1841 as the national bird. The Phoenix has been a Brotherhood symbol since ancient Egypt. The Phoenix was adopted by the Founding Fathers (Freemasons) for use on the reverse of the first official seal of the United States after a design proposed by Charles Thompson, Secretary of the Continental Congress.

To the right of George Washington's portrait on the front of the American Dollar Bill you will see the Seal of the Department of the Treasury. It comprises of a key, the scales of justice and a square which is a very important symbol in Freemasonry. If you look at the square you will see 13 holes in it. There are also 39 green dots which surround the square, key and scale. Remember 39? Thirty nine divided by two is 19.5. The number 19.5 can be seen within the design of Cydonia, Mars, Avebury, England and Washington D.C.



There is a small owl just to the left of the "1" which appears on the upper right hand corner of the Dollar Bill.

From time to time politicians like Bill Clinton and George W. Bush Jr. have been caught with a camera flashing the horned owl symbol with their hands.

The Number of the Beast — 666

The letters on the base of the Illuminati pyramid stand for certain numbers. And all those numbers when added up equal 1776, the year the Illuminati formed.

More than one method exists for arriving at 1776. However, there is only one way to arrive at the following sequence. The Babylonian numbering system was used by the Masonic designers of the Seal. That numbering system was not based on ten, but on six. For example, “600” would be 1000, “60” would be 100 and “6” would be 10.

The Occult is Trinitarian, i.e. it’s main teachings are grouped in three’s. The Number Sequence "93 and 93, 93"; or 600, 60, and 6 is the "current" of the new age of Aquarius - the Water Bearer, which heralds the end of the age of Pisces - the Fishes (an early symbol of Christianity) in the teachings of the Order of the Eastern Templars or O.T.O.

If you want the truth, God will reveal it to you. You have to not want the truth to remain ignorant in today's world, because the truth is all around us. Every [39]U.S. dollar shouts in our faces concerning the occult-driven [40]New World Order ; yet the same men who deny any conspiracies carry, view and spend U.S. dollars with conspiracy symbols all over it. What a striking paradox! Men who vehemently deny the government's involvement in orchestrating the 9/11 attacks fail to see the occult All-Seeing-Eye at the [41]Ground Zero Memorial mocking them. In your face America!

The elite criminals who are destroying America, [42]bankrupting our economy, and [43]stealing our liberties put their mark right [44]in our faces , in [45]our wallets , in [46]religions , [47]in our cities , on television, on [48]music albums , and [49]everywhere we turn to mock our stupidity. They're so obvious and yet completely hidden from view. This is the nature of secret societies. They literally laugh at their elite parties and high-society gatherings at how obvious they make themselves in plain view, and yet people walk by and go about life as usual without giving them a second thought. You fools, wake up and look around you.

God's Word is a Gift Revealing to Us God's Plan, Purpose and Will

Amen and thank God for the precious gift of His Word. God could have left us in the dark, wondering what His plans are; but God has told us everything. America's Secret Destiny is a best-selling book authored by 33rd degree Freemason, Manly P. Hall; but as Christians we already know what the future holds. [50]Why the Antichrist Must Come Soon!

Prophecy is history written in advance. Unlike esoteric Secret Societies which limit knowledge and require men to advance the occult ladder to be enlightened; God has given to all men the Bible, for "no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation" (2nd Peter 1:20). Whether poor or rich, sick or healthy, dumb or intellectual; God wrote the Bible to all men. God is no respecter of persons (Romans 2:11).

We've all seen the Masonic pyramid with the All Seeing Eye (see the back of a one dollar bill, pictured to the right). Hundreds of books have been written trying to explain what it means, but if you believe the Bible then you already know what it means. 2nd Corinthians 4:4 teaches that Satan is the god of man's sinful world; but 1st Corinthians 10:26 says, "For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof."

Thus, it's only evil men that Satan is the god of. By this we know what the eye in the capstone of the pyramid means, representing Lucifer, the angel of light (2nd Corinthians 11:14). Tens-of-thousands of woefully ignorant men are Freemasons, errantly thinking they are members of a noble and sincere organization. They are misled, "BLINDED" by the god of this world as 2nd Corinthians 4:4 teaches.

Ah, but we see and do know as Christians what the unsaved world and 95 % of Freemasons don't know, that is, Satan is "the god of this world." The Antichrist is coming. That is the mystery behind all Secret Societies today. It's that simple. They are setting the stage for the man of sin to come. The gurus of New Age, [51]Maitreya , and the New World Order are in contact with demons, instructing the architects of the NWO what to do next. It's no mystery to born-again, Bible-believing Christians what is happening in the world today. All the talk we are hearing about "aliens" are actually demons. When people speak of "spirits," they are really dabbling with demons. Any spirit that is not the Holy Spirit is a familiar spirit (demons).

The Bible confirms this truth in Ephesians 6:12, "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." Notice that the Bible mentions, "THE RULERS OF THE DARKNESS OF THIS WORLD." That's who we really battle against, not the flesh, not each other, not our neighbor, not our family; our real enemy is the New World Order! Our battle is "AGAINST SPIRITUAL WICKEDNESS IN HIGH PLACES." [52]Welcome to Bohemian Grove!!!

People are so naive, gullible and woefully ignorant concerning the truth about everything. The global elite put their mark on the 9/11 attacks, boasting and throwing it right in our faces.

Look at the All Seeing Eye they placed at the [53]911 Ground Zero Memorial!!! IN YOUR FACE AMERICA! They got caught blowing up those buildings, red handed, with a preponderance of concrete evidence indicting the Bush Administration; but the American public is so stupid that the newsmedia is able to [54]feed them total lies .

Satan told Eve in Genesis 3:5 that she and Adam would become “as gods,” knowing right from wrong if they ate of the tree. Satan deceived Eve, making her think that they’d be equal in power with God. Eve destroyed her family with her rebellion. Eve was the first feminist, despising God’s authority over her. Feminism is all about despising God ordained masculine authority. Feminists hate an authoritative husband, father, pastor, Bible or God. That’s why they’re corrupting the Word of God, catering to the agenda of lesbians and feminists in the [55]NIV 2011 perversion . They’re redefining God, teaching a feminine aspect of the Godhead, called [56]Feminist Theology . Biblically, [57]God is all masculine in nature .

Lesbian feminists [58]have removed the masculine pronoun “He” referring to the Holy Spirit in the NIV 2011 perversion. The New International Version 2010 (2011) is an evil publication which caters to the evil agendas of this wicked generation. The original NIV was published in 1984. As with the first NIV, homosexuals were on the translating committees and involved with the work of translating. Romans 1:25 told us that homosexuals would corrupt the Bible.

The word “eyes” in Genesis 3:5 is the Hebrew word ayin and means an eye (singular). So when Adam and Eve sinned, it was the eye of their understanding that was opened to good and evil. 2nd Corinthians 4:4 teaches that Satan is the god of this world and BLINDS the minds of unbelievers, to hinder them from learning the truth of God’s Word and getting saved in Christ Jesus. The greatest weapon of the illuminati (the New World Order gang) is secrecy, for without secrecy their criminal empire would crumble overnight. This is why they operate within secret societies (which is what the words esoteric and occult mean, that is, hidden). Esoteric means, confined to an inner circle, understood only by an enlightened few.

Of course, as Christians we already know what’s at the top of the food chain of illuminism, [59]Lucifer , the god of this world. New Agers aren’t fooling Christians. Did you know that new Age gurus like [60]Sri Chinmoy and many others (known to communicate with demons) are regular attendees at the United Nations to speak? The [61]world elite are waiting for the Antichrist and they’ll embrace anyone who has contact with demons and the [62]Luciferian Religion .

The little man behind the curtain, working the controls of THE GREAT OZ of the New World Order is Lucifer. Isaiah 14:14-16, “I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High. Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit. They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms.” The Devil is a twerp, a nothing, a wimp, a coward hiding behind symbols and images of the occult; but Jesus said in John 18:20: “I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing."

The Bible is a wonderful gift from God, as a friend telling us what's going to happen next. We can know the future. There are no secrets with God concerning how to be saved. Eternal life is a free gift, paid for by Jesus' precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). The Bible tells us exactly what God's expects of us. Isn't that wonderful? What peace to know exactly what God wants from us. We all have 24 hours in a day and the same Bible and Holy Spirit to guide us into all truth. John 16:13, "Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and HE WILL SHEW YOU THINGS TO COME."

I love the Bible and thank God for giving to us so many answers. It's hard to believe that [63]so many people despise and hate the Bible . They just don't realize what they are doing. They really don't believe in an afterlife, judgment and eternal Hell. To those of us who do believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God (John 20:31), He is so very precious to us (1st Peter 2:7). With all the filth in society today, our decadent culture of death, epidemic ecumenical apostasy, and the trashy music being aired everywhere we go these days, we need all the Bible we can get...

I guarantee you that if you'll listen to the Bible on DVD, you'll learn more Bible and be blessed more than you could have imagined. I have been blessed so much by listening to the Bible on DVD. I have heard Scriptures that I'd never noticed before, often opening my Bible to read what I just heard. You'll do the same, being amazed hearing things that you'd never noticed before in the Bible. It is a wonderful tool. By listening to the Bible, you can just sit back and totally relax while listening. When you're reading you are working, but when you're listening, you can focus 100 % on the Scriptures. I can't recommend getting the Bible on DVD enough. You will be blessed. 1st Corinthians 15:57, "But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

6.3.15 Destroying Western Civilization (2025-03-17 05:22)

Daniel 7:25, "And he [Antichrist] shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time."

Our text passage of Scripture refers to the future 7-year Tribulation (i.e., the 70th week of Daniel's prophecy).

Revelation 12:9, "And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

" The Devil is a manipulative liar, thief and murderer (John 8:44). Satan comes only to kill, steal and destroy (John 10:10). As the god of this wicked world (2nd Corinthians 4:4), the Devil is the leader of the evil New World Order.

Proverbs 28:4,

"They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them. " The Scripture foretells that the coming Man of Sin will wear out the saints of God. Even though the Church will be removed from the world at the Rapture (which I humbly think will happen BEFORE the Tribulation period, i.e., a Pretribulation Rapture), there will still be people getting born again during the Tribulation, who will oppose the Antichrist and fight against his New World Order beast system.

The following words of wisdom were spoken by the honorable Senator Ralph Babet (born 1983) from the United Australia Party on March 15th, 2025...

> The Western world is being destroyed by an absence of masculinity.
> Let me explain.
> We find ourselves in a situation where powerful people with globalist designs want to destroy the world as we know it.
> Supra-nationalists are concerned with creating systems to centralise power across borders.
>
> Their goal is a worldwide government, a worldwide currency, a worldwide health program, worldwide environmental controls … and on and on it goes.
> They want to centralise power because centralised power is total power. It's not called totalitarianism for nothing!
> But standing between these totalitarians and their ambitions are nation states.
> To have a worldwide government you must destroy these individual nation states, and we are seeing that process take place.
> Politicians and bureaucrats have pushed mass migration onto Europe (and other Western nations) to further this cause.
> Is a version of Europe where Europeans are a minority still Europe? Of course not. It is something else altogether.
> Mass migration, throughout the whole of the Western world including here in Australia dilutes national culture. Instead of unique nations with their own languages, cultures, customs, and architecture passed down through generations, these nations are trending toward global homogeneity.

The reason is as obvious as communist structures are grey.

Why would anyone protect Melbourne when it looks no different to Berlin?

Why would an Italian fight for Italy when he regards himself as a global citizen rather than as an Italian?

To accomplish centralised power, a population is required that neither knows, nor cares, for their own history.

A population that has – bit by bit – been stripped bare of all allegiance to country, or culture, or even family.

The only allegiance that will be left will be the dream of global citizenship with a central authority.

We have seen this before through communism and they are doing it again, right in front of our noses.

So who can stop them?

Men!

The key to stopping this evil dismantling of nation states is men.

Men fight against tyranny. Men defend their tribe.

Men are the key to stopping globalism.

It makes me ask, why have Western governments worked so hard to deride masculinity as toxic?

We have seen masculinity dismantled and men feminised away from their traditional roles.
Think about it.

Throughout history the role of men has been to fight and even die for their tribe.

In order for nation states – which are the equivalent of modern-day tribes – to be eliminated, men are being emasculated.

And it is happening everywhere.

In every sitcom, men are portrayed as bumbling fools. From The Simpsons to Modern Family, men are portrayed as unreliable and stupid and not to be respected.

And we could talk all week about chemicals in our products – even in our water – that have been linked to a decrease in testosterone. From bisphenol A found in plastics, to atrazine in the water.

Men are hard wired to defend their tribe. From time immemorial, men have been known for their strength and for their willingness to die to protect their women, their children and their lands.

Nowadays surveys show a worryingly low percentage of men who would fight for their country.
God bless women. We love them. And we need them. Where would we be without their love and kindness and gentleness and nurture?

But women’s God-given nurturing nature has been weaponised against them so that their natural empathy is manipulated to accept what ought not be accepted in the culture.

The good and proper female inclination to provide care and nurture has been manipulated to garner support for things, such as:

- mass immigration
- the sterilisation of children
- radical feminism & the breakdown of the family unit
- trans ideology and the erasure of womanhood
- defunding the police
- normalisation of single motherhood and government dependency
- so called global warning policies which undermine national sovereignty
- open borders and refugee resettlement anti nuclear and pacifist movements that weaken national defence:

- support for globalist institutions like the WEF, UN, WHO
- digital censorship and hate speech laws
- foreign aid and global wealth distribution
- public health mandates
- the push for welfare expansion
- DEI policies
- education reforms that seek to dismantle patriotic sentiments
- and countless other policies and ideas that will destroy all our individual nation states and our futures. I will note that there are men who would support these policies (feminised men) however in much of the literature it is well documented that women - particularly young women - generally lean left.

Women are inclined to think with their emotions and to reason with their feelings. This is not a weakness. It is an important counterbalance to the natural pragmatism of men.

The problem is that Western culture has deliberately been swung to the other extreme where there is now no counterbalance to the emotional impulses of women.

Men – whose purpose is to fight and protect – are being slowly put to sleep.

A matriarchy will allow politicians and bureaucrats to centralise power, all in the name of tolerance and empathy and diversity and a desire to go along in order to get along.

Only men can stop the globalist state from taking over the world.

Men have traditionally fought tyranny to defend their nations and their families.

Today the tyrants are wearing suits and sitting in lofty towers plotting to homogenise the entire world.

Men must become men again. They must recognise the value of their tribe and defend it.

Only then will the globalist plans be defeated.

by The honorable Senator Ralph Babet, United Australia Party

6.3.16 God Wants Us To Get BETTER, Not BITTER (2025-03-19 00:57)

Colossians 3:15, "And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; *and be ye thankful."

"[1]□□□ □□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□ □□□□□□" (□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□)

Keep your eyes on the HONEY, not the ROCKS. Look at the BLESSINGS, not the BURDENS.

Look for the OPPORTUNITIES, not the OBSTACLES.

Naomi became bitter...

Job became better...

□□□ □:□□, "□□□ □□□□, □□□□□ □□□□ □ □□□ □□ □□ □□□□□□'□ □□□□, □□□ □□□□□ □□□□□ □ □□□□□□ □□□□□□□: □□□ □□□□ □□□□, □□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□□ □□□□; □□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□."

Dr. Hyles preached this sermon in 1990, in the heat of the battle. The year 1989 was the worst year of Dr. Hyles' life, when all the hordes of Hell came after him, his loved ones and ministry. Dr. Hyles attributed the source of the attack to neo-evangelicals.

Neo-evangelicals are my bitterest enemies too. I am hated by neo-evangelical in the Pensacola Christian College and Bob Jones University cults who preach Lordship Salvation. I am hated by the blind followers of Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, John MacArthur and other hellbound infidels. They hate me because I expose them for the false prophets they are! Somebody needs to tell the truth!

So, if you listen to this heartfelt sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles, keep in mind that he was walking through the Valley of the Shadow of Death at that time (Psalms 23:1). Dr. Hyles chose to look at the sweet honey, rather than look at the hard rock.

By God's grace, I receive many emails from bitter and frustrated saints. I love them all and try to encourage them. I know what their problem is, the same as I am guilty of so often doing, which is focusing on the wrong things in life. [illegible] "[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]; [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]." By default we all look at our problems. We look at what is in front of us in life, and it discourages us. But the Scripture exhorts us to "LOOK UNTO JESUS," who saved us and will finish what He started.

In the darkest hours of my life, it was my faith in Jesus that sustained me. I remembered the fiery furnace into which Meshach, Shadrach and Abednego were cast in Babylon (a furnace turned up so hot that it consumed the Babylonian soldiers who cast the three Hebrew lads into the oven inferno). Yet, wicked king Nebuchadnezzar saw four people, the fourth he said being like unto the "Son of God." Faith is like film, it develops in the dark. Unshakable faith comes from having your faith shaken. May the Forth (Jesus) be with you!

> 1st Peter 1:7-9, "That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls."

6.3.17 New 'NASB 2020' Bible Revision Is Of The Devil (2025-03-20 15:48)

I am always on the lookout for the next Satanic imposter on the horizon to be published. The Lockman Foundation published their corrupt New American Standard Bible (NASB) in 1971. It was revised in 1995, and now again in 2020, to keep up with the evil agendas of our apostate generation. That is my humble opinion as a born-again believer. I think it is evil to change the inspired Words of God. I think it is especially evil to cater to the LGBTQ pressure of this ungodly American generation, in which unisex, equality, diversity, inclusion and feminism are at the helm of the rebellion in our nation...

> Answering the Demands of Today
> The NASB translators believe that to make the best translation of the Scriptures even better, change should not be made just for the sake of change. This means keeping the updated NASB exactly what it has always been and will forever be–literally > accurate. In order to be deemed acceptable by translators, updated material had to maintain the highest standards of literal translation. Thus the smoother reading updated NASB refines the differences in style between the ancient languages and current English. In the process, Old English "thees," "thys," and "thous," archaic vocabulary, and sentences beginning with "And" have been updated for better English, while verses with difficult word order were restructured.

I wanted to vomit as I read the preceding arrogant words from the Lockman group. They contradict themselves woefully. In one sentence they claim to want to maintain a “literally accurate” Bible translation, yet in the next sentence they state their intention to CHANGE God’s Word, again! Why does gender inclusivity have to be incorporated into God’s Word to keep the Bible “literally accurate”? That is the Devil’s lie! God wrote the Holy Bible with an overly masculine tone! Women are commanded to be silent in the churches (1st Corinthians 14:34), and to learn at home from their husband (1st Corinthians 14:35), and to stay at home as keepers of the home, not pursue careers (1st Timothy 5:14-15). The continual effort to feminize the Holy Bible is of the Devil!!!

Furthermore, I am offended by the preceding quote from Lockman which says: “In order to be deemed acceptable by translators”! Who are the translators? They are nothing! I don’t care what a group of sinful arrogant scholars think, I only care what God deems acceptable. Gender inclusivity in Bible translation is wickedness!!! Look what the monsters in the Southern Baptist Convention did to corrupt the Holy Bible, in their new 2017 “ [2]Christian Standard Bible ” (CSB)! Everyone and their dog is coming out of the closet with a new and improved Bible version to sell! IT MAKES ME SICK!!!

Notice the very sub title of the preceding disgusting quote from the Lockman Foundation: “Answering the Demands of Today.” Since when is the inspired Word of God required to ANSWER THE DEMANDS OF TODAY? Those are FOOLS talking at the Lockman Foundation! God’s eternal Words are not subject to man’s scrutiny for rewriting. Men have NO RIGHT to twist, pervert and belittle the inspired Words of God, resizing them to fit the agenda’s of this weirdo, tattoo-wearing, freaky, gender-bending, queer-loving, perverse, filthy, idolatrous, violent, adulterous, wicked generation! GOD’S INSPIRED WORDS HAVEN’T CHANGED!!!

The Inspired Words of the Lord Are Incorruptible

If all men were blind, it would not diminish the glory and brightness of the sun, moon and stars! Likewise, if every man and woman ever created by God went to Hell, it would not diminish the glory of our great God and Savior!!! Evil men and women can change, twist and pervert the Words of the Living God all they want to for money, but the eternal Word of God is INCORRUPTIBLE!!! 1st Peter 1:23, “Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.” Thank God for the inspired, inerrant, infallible, holy, perfect, reliable, KING JAMES BIBLE!!! Only the King James Bible faithfully elevates, uplifts and exalts the precious Lord Jesus Christ, without diminishing His deity, Godhead and preeminence (as do all the modern perversions)!!!

Most people have just enough religion to kill their conscience. That is true of the Bob Jones University camp. They are hardened in their rebellion against God, using and selling and promoting corruptible seed. In Genesis 3:15, God said that He (God) would make His incorruptible seed and Satan's corruptible seed ENEMIES!!!

Bob Jones University are God's enemies because they promote Satan's corruptible seed. In Genesis 2:16b God told Adam and Eve: "Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:"; but in Genesis 3:1b the serpent CHANGED and PERVERTED God's Word to say: "Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?" Do you see how the serpent changed God's Words to say THE EXACT OPPOSSITE? Genesis 3:1 is the Devil's first Bible revision—CORRUPTIBLE SEED!!!

Please beware of all modern English Bible revisions. Anybody who criticizes the inspired King James Bible is a liar.

6.3.18 Capital Punishment Is Biblical (2025-03-23 16:40)

Genesis 9:6, "Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man."

The inspired Holy Bible teaches that there must be the death penalty. Sadly, our ungodly leader in the United States think they know more than our Creator. So instead of upholding capital punishment, they lock humans in cages for decades, or the rest of their earthly life. That is torture and unbiblical. God never intended for men to be locked in cages.

My long time ministry friend, Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023) authored this very helpful book on the topic. Dr. Younce worked as a police officer for many years in Florida and Ohio. I encourage you to [1]read this free book in .pdf format (it's also available as a hard copy)..

[2]The Case For Capital Punishment
(by Pastor Max D. Younce)

The Old Testament law commanded the death penalty for various wicked deeds: murder (Exodus 21:12), kidnapping (Exodus 21:16), bestiality (Exodus 22:19), adultery (Leviticus 20:10), homosexuality (Leviticus 20:13), being a false prophet (Deuteronomy 13:5), prostitution and rape (Deuteronomy 22:24), and several other despicable crimes.

However, God often showed mercy when the death penalty was due. David committed adultery and murder, yet God did not demand his life be taken (2nd Samuel 11:1-5, 14-17; 2nd Samuel 12:13). Ultimately, every sin we commit should result in the death penalty because the wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23). Thankfully, God demonstrates His love for us in not condemning us (Romans 5:6-9). So we see that in some cases there are extenuating circumstances.

The court system should always be a balance of justice and mercy. Sadly, there is little if any mercy in America's courts. In fact, the [3]United States incarcerates more of its citizens than any other country in the world! That disturbing fact [4]speaks volumes about the wickedness of our leaders and society. The state of [5]Florida is the worst of all! I am 100 % against locking human beings in cages, which often drives people to insanity and utter depression.

The following is one of the best sermons I have ever heard, by Pastor Steven Anderson. In this sermon you'll hear him biblically explain why he is totally against prisons (I fully agree)...

[6]The Criminal Injustice System

(by Pastor Steven L. Anderson - [7]More Sermons)

Crime is out of control in many places across the United States, because of progressive liberal politicians, lawmakers, prosecutors and judges who refuse to prosecute criminals. Take New York City for example...

Gang Steals ’Entire Street’ Full of Cars… As NYC Collapses

What saith the Scripture? Ecclesiastes 5:8, “If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.”

We need to have a spiritual revival nationwide of LAW & ORDER in America.

I watched the 1996 science-fiction remake of “The Island Of Dr. Moreau” this week for free on Roku, starring Ron Pearlman (born 1950) and Marlon Brando (1924-2004). Halfway through the movie, the creatures learn to remove their pain devices which Dr. Moreau used to control them. When they invade his home and threaten to eat him, he gets his pain-causing control gadget and presses the button, but is horrified to realize that it doesn’t work anymore on the creatures, because they’ve removed the pain-causing devices which had been implanted under their skin. Then one of the terrifying creatures (half human and half beast) that he made, says through sharp fangs while laughing:

“If there is no more pain, then there is no more law!” And then they have a Smorgasbord and eat Dr. Moreau.

I thought about the scene that I just described from the movie, and realized that it very much applies to American society today in 2025. Without enforcement of the law to cause pain for evildoers, effectively there is no more law!!! That is why all manner of evil punks, illegal immigrants and the scum of society today have no hesitation to rob, kill, steal, hurt and destroy innocent people to get their selfish way. Without inflicted pain (justice), effectively there is no more law! Argue as one may, the daily news filled with crime proves what I say.

Oh, how foolish are mankind to disobey God. Judges 17:6, “In those days there was no king in Israel, but every man did that which was right in his own eyes.” Proverbs 14:12, “There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.” Our ungodly U.S. Supreme Court flaunt themselves over almighty God, who permitted 63,000,000 babies to be murdered by abortion between 1973 to 2022. They are guilty of making many such foolish rulings, which go contrary to the inspired Holy Bible. Why should God bless America? America will never be “ until we return law and order to society.

America was great when she was good, and she was good when she had great churches. It has become very difficult to find a great church anymore. Tragically, most churches today are pathetic. They preach a counterfeit plan of salvation of misunderstood repentance (i.e., turn from your sins to be saved heresy), or the Devil’s fallacy of Lordship Salvation. They have replaced Bible preaching with psychology (e.g., James Dobson) or motivational speeches (e.g., Joel Osteen). They have replaced the Holy Spirit’s power power with entertainment. They have replaced the old meaningful hymns of the Christian faith with lifeless lame Contemporary Christian Music (CCM). In a word, today’s churches are DEAD.

Capital punishment is biblical. God gave us magistrate’s (judges) as a blessing to maintain law and order in the land (Romans 13:1-10). Christians are not commanded to obey the government (as the corrupt modern perversions of the Bible read); but rather, the inspired King James Bible correctly commands saints to submit to the higher powers,

God being the highest of all (Ecclesiastes 5:8).

And for that matter, the U.S. Constitution and our Bill of Rights (the first 10 amendments to the U.S. Constitution) are HIGHER POWERS than the U.S. federal government. Sadly, many of our ungodly incompetent leaders intentionally violate these documents all the time with impunity, which is why our country is falling apart. The U.S. Constitution and our Bill of Rights are only effective if our government honors their content and power, which were designed by our wise forefathers to preserve and protect true liberty. Anything otherwise is oppression and tyranny.

6.3.19 Free Grace Theology Versus A Counterfeit Gospel (2025-03-23 21:13)

2nd Timothy 2:15, “Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.”

I found these helpful charts today by [1]Dr. Steven R. Cook contrasting a FREE GRACE THEOLOGY to some popular HERESIES. ...

[2]Free Grace Theology Versus 5-Point Calvinism (larger chart)

Free Grace Theology vs. Strict Calvinism
Dr. Steven R. Cook

Category	Free Grace Theology	Five-Point Calvinism
View of Salvation	Salvation is by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone (John 3:16; Acts 4:12; Eph 2:8-9).	Salvation is by grace alone, but true saving faith will result in inevitable perseverance and works (Jam 2:17, 24).
Total Depravity	Believes in total depravity, meaning that all people are spiritually separated from God and unable to save themselves (Rom 3:10-12; 5:6-10; Eph 2:1). However, by God's grace, anyone can respond to the gospel (John 16:8-11; Acts 17:30).	Teaches total inability, meaning that fallen humans are so enslaved to sin that, like inanimate objects, they cannot respond to the gospel unless God first regenerates them (John 6:44; Eph 2:1, 5) and grants them special faith to believe in Jesus (Eph 2:8-9; Phil 1:29).
Election	Election is based on God's sovereignty and foreknowledge of who would freely believe in Christ (Rom 8:29; 1 Pet 1:2).	Election is unconditional and based solely on God's sovereign choice, independent of any foreseen faith (Rom 9:16; Eph 1:4-5).
Atonement	Christ's atonement was unlimited—He died for the sins of all people, though only those who believe receive the benefit (1 John 2:2).	Christ's atonement is limited to the elect—He died only for those whom God sovereignly chose to save (Matt 1:21; John 10:15).
Grace	Grace is free, unearned, and unconditional (Rom 6:23; Eph 2:8-9). God's grace can be resisted (Acts 7:51), and eternal life rejected (John 3:18; 5:39-40)	Grace is irresistible for the elect and will inevitably transform their lives and lead to perseverance in faith and holiness (John 6:37; Phil 1:6).
Perseverance	Believers should persevere in faith, but it's not a guarantee they will. Eternal security rests on God's faithfulness and not on the believer's perseverance (John 10:28-29; Rom 8:38-39). Some believers may fail to persevere due to sin or carnality (1 Cor 3:1-3), but they remain saved (John 10:28; 2 Tim 2:13).	Believers will inevitably persevere in faith and good works until the end if they are truly saved, because God will ensure their perseverance (Phil 1:6; Heb 3:14). A person who permanently falls away or lives in habitual sin is often viewed as having never been truly saved (Matt 7:21; 1 John 2:19; 3:6, 9). This creates perpetual uncertainty in the mind of the believer about their eternal salvation.
Nature of Faith	Faith is a simple act of trusting in Christ for eternal life (John 3:16, 36). No works are required to prove genuine faith (Rom 4:4-5).	Faith is seen as a gift of God that will necessarily produce good works as evidence of true regeneration (Eph 2:8-9; Phil 1:29; Jam 2:17, 24).
Role of Works	Good works should follow salvation (Gal 6:10; Eph 2:10), but they are not a condition for receiving or maintaining it (Rom 4:4-5).	Good works are considered a necessary proof of genuine faith (Jam 2:17, 24). A lack of works may indicate no salvation (Matt 7:21-23).
Assurance of Salvation	Assurance is based on the promises of God in Scripture and rests on Christ's finished work (John 5:24; 1 John 5:11-13). A believer can have assurance at the moment of faith.	Assurance is based on a combination of faith in Christ and ongoing perseverance in good works and visible fruit (2 Cor 13:5; Heb 3:14). Lack of fruit may lead to doubts about salvation.
Meaning of Repentance	Repentance (Greek metanoia) is understood as a change of mind about Christ (from unbelief to belief), not a turning from sin as a condition for salvation (Acts 20:21).	Repentance is often defined as turning from sin and submitting to Christ as Lord, which is seen as part of saving faith (Acts 26:20). Moral transformation is seen at conversion.
Sanctification	Sanctification is distinct from justification. Believers are called to grow spiritually, but this growth is not automatic and requires volitional effort (1 Pet 2:2; 2 Pet 3:18).	Sanctification is viewed as inevitable for true believers, as God works within them to ensure their growth in holiness (Phil 1:6).
Habitual Sin	Believers can struggle with habitual sin yet remain saved, though such sin may lead to divine discipline (1 Cor 11:30; Heb 12:6), loss of rewards (1 Cor 3:10-15), or a damaged testimony.	Those who engage in habitual sin without repentance are often viewed as never having been truly saved to begin with (Matt 7:21; 1 John 3:6-10).
Evangelism	Evangelism emphasizes the clear and simple presentation of the gospel to everyone (John 3:16; Acts 16:31; 1 Cor 15:3-4).	Evangelism emphasizes proclaiming the gospel to all, though only the elect will respond due to the effectual call (Rom 8:30).
Scope of God's Love	God loves all people equally and unconditionally. His love is expressed in both common grace (e.g., blessings given to all) and in the free offer of salvation to all who believe (Matt 5:45; Acts 17:30). The gospel invitation is a genuine call rooted in God's love for the world (John 3:16).	God's love is primarily directed toward the elect. While Calvinists affirm a kind of general love or common grace toward all people (e.g., Matt 5:45), they emphasize that God's saving love is limited to the elect. The non-elect do not experience God's love in the same salvific sense.

[5]Free Grace Theology Versus Lordship Salvation (larger chart)

Contrasting Free Grace Salvation and Lordship Salvation

Category	Free Grace Salvation	Lordship Salvation
View of Salvation	Salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone, totally apart from works (Rom 4:4-5; Eph 2:8-9; Tit 3:5). It is a free gift from God (Rom 6:23).	Salvation requires faith in Christ plus a willingness to submit to His lordship, which includes a turning from sin and a commitment to obedience (Matt 7:21; Jam 2:17; 1 John 3:9).
Meaning of Faith	Faith is trusting in the person and finished work of Christ for eternal life (John 3:16, 36; 6:47). No commitments are required.	Faith is seen as trust plus obedience, repentance (i.e. turning from sin), and submission to Christ's authority (Matt 7:21; Luke 9:23).
Role of Works	Good works should follow salvation (Gal 6:10; Eph 2:10), but they are not a condition for receiving or maintaining it (Rom 4:4-5).	Good works are considered a necessary proof of genuine faith (Jam 2:24). A lack of works may indicate no salvation (Matt 7:21-23).
Assurance of Salvation	Assurance is based on the promises of God in Scripture and rests on Christ's finished work (John 5:24; 1 John 5:11-13). A believer can have assurance at the moment of faith.	Assurance is based on a combination of faith in Christ and ongoing perseverance in good works and visible fruit (2 Cor 13:5; Heb 3:14). Lack of fruit may lead to doubts about salvation.
Meaning of Repentance	Repentance (Greek metanoia) is understood as a change of mind about Christ (from unbelief to belief), not a turning from sin as a condition for salvation (Acts 20:21).	Repentance is often defined as turning from sin and submitting to Christ as Lord, which is seen as part of saving faith (Acts 26:20). Moral transformation is seen at conversion.
Lordship of Christ	Believers are commanded to submit to Christ's lordship as part of their spiritual growth (Rom 12:1-2; Jam 4:7), but this is distinct from justification by faith alone (Rom 3:28).	Submission to Christ's lordship is considered an essential aspect of saving faith (Matt 7:21), often blurring the lines between justification and sanctification.
Spiritual Growth	Spiritual growth, though commanded (Eph 4:15; 1 Pet 2:2; 2 Pet 3:18), is not guaranteed. A believer can experience setbacks, periods of sin, or even prolonged carnality (1 Cor 3:1-3).	Spiritual growth and perseverance in good works are seen as inevitable in the life of a true believer (Jam 2:17, 24). A person who does not exhibit growth may be unsaved (Matt 7:21).
Carnal Christians	The Bible recognizes carnal Christians who fail to grow spiritually or live obediently (1 Cor 3:1-3). They are saved but may lose rewards at the Judgment Seat of Christ (1 Cor 3:12-15).	Carnality is viewed as evidence that a person was likely never genuinely saved. A true believer, according to this view, will not live in ongoing, unrepentant sin (1 John 3:6, 9).
Judgment & Rewards	Believers will be judged at the Judgment Seat of Christ, where their works will be evaluated for rewards, not salvation (2 Cor 5:10; 1 Cor 3:12-15).	Judgment is seen as evidence of true conversion. Those without sufficient fruit may be deemed "false converts" at the final judgment (Matt 7:21-23).
Eternal Security	Eternal security is emphasized: once saved, always saved. Believers are kept secure by the power of God, not by their own efforts (John 10:28-29; Rom 8:38-39).	Eternal security is uncertain, as perseverance in good works is seen as evidence of genuine faith (Matt 7:21). Failure to persevere may indicate that a person was never truly saved (Matt 24:13; 1 John 2:19).
Main Theological Focus	Focuses on the grace of God and the sufficiency of Christ's work for salvation. Emphasizes the believer's secure position in Christ (John 10:28; Col 2:10).	Focuses on discipleship, obedience, and submission as integral to true salvation. Emphasizes visible fruit and endurance as evidence of genuine faith (1 John 3:6, 9).

I encourage you to diligently study these helpful charts. Every Christian needs to be prepared to give any answer to others who have a wrong understanding of God's simple plan of salvation. 1st Peter 3:15-16, " But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear: Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ. " Thank you dear friend for reading my humble blog.

My sin belongs to me; my righteousness is Jesus Christ's.

6.3.20 Isn't The Word "Dispensation" In The Bible? (2025-03-26 02:28)

Colossians 1:25, "Whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God;"

The word "dispensation" appears four times in the inspired Holy Bible. A "dispensation" may be defined as "stewardship, administration, oversight, or management of another's property." For example: In 1st Corinthians 9:17 the Apostle Paul said, "a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me." Paul is simply saying that God entrusted him with stewardship of the Gospel.

There is nothing in the four Scripture passages in which the word "dispensation" appears that justifies the Dispensational system invented by John Nelson Darby (1800-1882), the leader of the Plymouth Brethren, which makes SEVEN DIVISIONS of the Word of God. Dispensationalism is a manmade doctrine!

Hebrews 13:9, " Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein."

I encourage you to read the helpful book by Phillip Mauro (1859-1952) titled, "[1]The Gospel Of The Kingdom," particularly chapter 3, "[2]The Law And The Gospel."

As Dr. Mauro rightly explains (a rebuttal of C.I. Scofield's Dispensational teachings), God has already made TWO great divisions to His inspired Word of OLD and NEW Testaments; or respectively, LAW and THE GOSPEL.

Whereas in manmade Dispensationalism, SEVEN divisions are made to God's Word, so that the emphasis is switched from the Gospel to the future Kingdom of Israel instead. For these reasons I reject Dispensational teaching and I encourage you to do the same. We don't need the help of crafty men to tell us how to study God's Word. God said what He meant, and He meant what He said. I am leery of theology, because much of it is not based on the Scriptures.

God has already made TWO great divisions to His Word of OLD and NEW Testament; or, LAW and THE GOSPEL. The emphasis is upon preaching the Gospel to win the lost, which is where it should be! The "

is the GOOD NEWS of Jesus' crucifixtion to pay our debt of sin, His burial and bodily resurrection from the dead the third day; it is not about the glory or future kingdom of Israel. Zionism is a dangerous movement which is rooted in heretical Dispensational dogma! Dispensational teaching is an enemy of soulwinning.

John exhorts all men in John 5:36, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me." The dear Lord didn't command us to go buy a bunch of theology books, learn Dispensationalism, attend a theological seminary (cemetery) or join a religious study group; but rather, Jesus simply told us to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!!!

The Bible tells us that the Bereans were noble, because they didn't just take Paul's word as being true, they went home and "SEARCHED THE SCRIPTURES DAILY" to verify if what Paul and Silas were preaching was true or false. Acts 17:10-11, "And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so."

Well, dear reader, I have searched the Scriptures diligently and I still cannot find John Darby's Dispensational garbage anywhere!

6.3.21 Justification, Sanctification And Glorification Are NOT A "Package Deal" (2025-03-27 18:05)

Titus 1:10-14, "For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth."

Someone asked me today if Pensacola Christian College's (PCC) Rejoice Radio are also corrupt. Yes, they are also corrupt doctrinally at 'Rejoice Radio,' started by Arlin Horton in 1971 (PCC began in 1975). There is a disturbing Double Standard at PCC. On their Campus Church website they present a simple Gospel presentation, but then when you start asking questions, reading their literature, attend Campus Church Bible studies and delve deeper into what they actually believe and teach, you'll find that [1]they adhere to a form of Misunderstood Repentance and Lordship Salvation.

One of the reasons why PCC has been corrupted is because they wickedly refuse to stand (Ephesians 6:10-12). PCC does not contend for the Christian faith as they should (Jude 1:7; Titus 1:9-14; Ephesians 5:11). Instead, PCC hobnobs with the [2]deadly Calvinist Bob Jones University cult. They don't want to be put outside the gate with Jesus. They don't want to suffer reproach for the name of Jesus (2nd Timothy 3:12). They want easy money with no conflict. If we are to change the future, we must disturb the present.

PCC has BJU graduates on their staff! PCC's students play intercollegiate sports with BJU, teaching their impressionable students by example that getting along is more important than standing for truth. No one can lay down with dirty dogs without being infested with ticks and flees. PCC is infested with BJU's false teachings! BJU invited infidel Paul Washer to speak to their students in late 2022. The Bible forbids bidding Godspeed to evildoers and false prophets. 2nd John 1:10-11, "If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

PCC invited and honored infidel Ken Ham in 2022. [3]Ken Ham preaches the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. Tragically, because PCC promotes Ken Ham, so also do many local churches in Pensacola and worldwide. PCC has blood on their hands for bidding Godspeed to false prophets (2nd John 1:11). PCC takes in about $175,000,000 each year! The love of money has corrupted their institution. I have heard countless former students criticize PCC as a cult that always puts the system first, but individual people do not matter. I found that to be true when I attended Campus Church for a few month in 2021. Their incompetent pastor, Jeff Redlin, woefully lacks love and compassion for people. Moreover, PCC and their wicked pastors preach ANOTHER GOSEL (Galatians 1:6-8).

As I mentioned earlier, their website (and Rejoice Radio) have a Double Standard. Like subtle unsaved Seventh-Day Adventists, they profess to believe a free grace Gospel at PCC, but when you dig deeper you learn that they think you must first be willing to forsake sinful bad habits to be saved, and then live a holy life to prove that your faith is genuine, which is a backdoor approach to Lordship Salvation. Their incompetent pastors at PCC haven't studied and are corrupt, going along to get along with the toxic BJU crowd. Ecumenism is dangerous!

Very few pastors are willing to stand alone today for what is true and right. PCC pretends to preach the Gospel, but then compromises at every turn when pressed on the issue, to align their beliefs with BJU. I have spent time in both camps, enough to sadly see that they are both rotten and corrupt. They say one thing, but then do another.

Both PCC and BJU adhere to the false teaching that justification sanctification and glorification are a "package deal" which cannot be separated. So if you claim to be saved (justified) but still have not turned away from your sinful bad habits (sanctification), they say you're not really saved. I met Pastor Josh Thompson in 2022 at the Pensacola Interstate fair at PCC's booth (right next to the Jehovah's Witnesses). I asked him if he was teaching Lordship Salvation and he said, "yes." He quoted Acts 16:31, "Believe on the 'LORD' Jesus Christ," insisting based on this verse that you must also receive Jesus as your LORD to be saved. What a religious fraud!

Pastor Thompson teaches a class at PCC! In 2023, I visited his church at the Fairfield Drive Baptist Church (5 minutes from where I live). I didn't know that he was the pastor there. I was wondering why he was so nervous and sweating when I met him. He had recognized me, but I didn't recognize him until after I left to go to my car. I never went back, needless to say. Josh told me that justification, sanctification and glorification are a "package deal." That is HERESY! I love what John Bunyan rightly said on the issue...

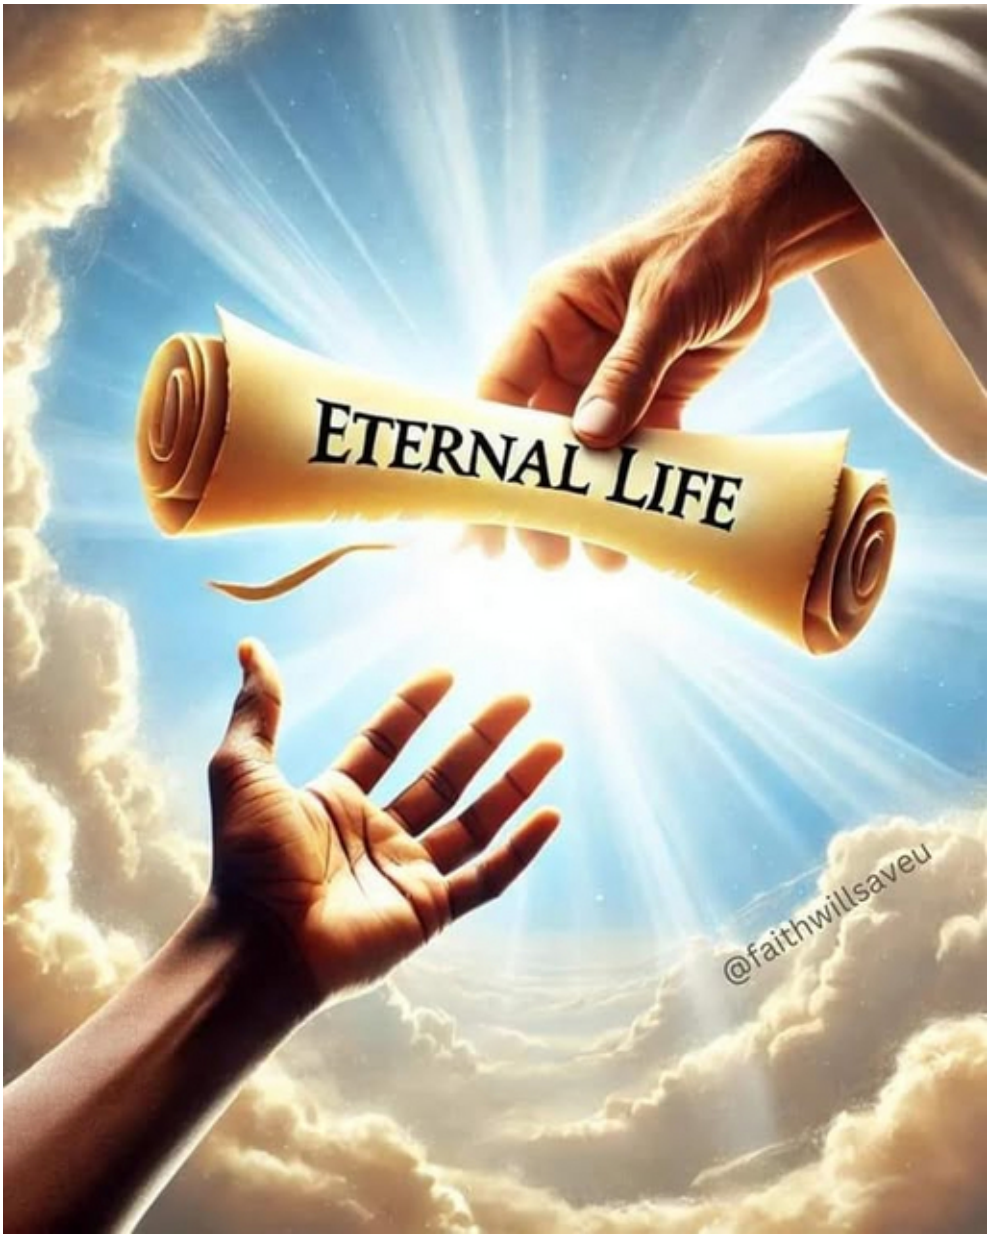
> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Amen and amen! Evangelist John Bunyan nailed it! We absolutely must keep living a changed life completely separate from saving grace, lest we corrupt God's simple plan of salvation and preach the perversion of Lordship Salvation.

Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) rightly said on the issue...

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, "Hebrews"; Zondervan Publishing House; 1959 (p. 117)

We can only wonder what in the world is wrong with PCC's and BJU's leaders and pastors, that they have sunk so low to teach a counterfeit gospel that requires reformation to be saved (or to prove that you are saved). The only evidence Scripturally of the new birth according to 1st John 3:24 is the indwelling HOLY SPIRIT. That is what the Epistle of 1st John is all about, to help the individual determine if they have the Holy Spirit or not.



Good works and a changed life cannot be used as evidence of the new birth, because even unsaved people can do many wonderful works (Matthew 7:21-23) and live a changed life (Acts 10:1-2). Romans 10:3-4 says that unsaved people can be religious. Matthew 6:7 says that unsaved people can pray. Matthew 15:7-8 says unsaved people can draw nigh unto God with their mouths in worship and praise. So none of these things can be considered as evidence of being "saved."

John Bunyan (1628-1688) rightly understood nearly 400 years ago that the potential changes that the Holy Spirit makes in the life of a believer over time, has absolutely NOTHING to do with receiving God's free gift of eternal life. One thing has nothing to do with the other! Please don't ever let anyone corrupt your beliefs by convincing you that works are required to prove your faith is genuine.

The hellbound group in Matthew 7:21-23 boasted to Christ of their "many wonderful works" done in Jesus' name, but the dear Savior denied knowing them as His sheep. They tragically all went to burn in the Lake of Fire for eternity. Yet, they had preached in Jesus' name. They had cast out devil's in Jesus' name. They had followed Jesus as the Lord of their life, even calling Him: "Lord, Lord." Anybody who had outwardly examined their lives would have concluded that these people are Christians, but they weren't! Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again.

Please don't buy into the lie that justification, sanctification and glorification are a "package deal," because you won't find that garbage taught in the inspired King James Bible. Granted, there are different meanings of sanctification in a believer's life. However, as far as salvation is concerned, every believer was sanctified eternally at the moment of the new birth. Hebrews 10:10, " By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all." The moment that someone gets saved, everything is DONE as far as going to Heaven is concerned. Nothing more is required or allowed than one's childlike faith in Jesus. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

6.3.22 Martin Luther Was A Master Of Deception (2025-03-27 23:55)

Titus 1:10-14, "For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth."

There is not a more damnable false prophet than Martin Luther (1883-1546). Mr. Luther allegedly got saved by faith alone in 1517, but in his catechism written 12 years later in 1529 Luther plainly taught that no one can go to Heaven unless they are water baptized and partake of communion.

Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023) has authored a helpful book titled, "[1]MARTIN LUTHER: MASTER OF DECEIT" ([2]backup). Dr. Younce has graciously made his books freely available in .pdf format, or you can purchase hard copies from Heritage Baptist Bible Church.

Martin Luther was so perverted in his theology, that he even taught that you can be saved WITHOUT FAITH, just so long as you get water baptized. Here is a direct quote...

> "□□□□□□□□, □□ □□□ □□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□ □□ □□□□□ □□□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□; □□□ □□ □□□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□ □□□□□□□□...."

Unless he secretly repented of his false plan of salvation, Martin Luther split Hell wide open when he died in 1546.

Tragically, the biggest false religion in the world, Catholicism, actually quotes Martin Luther in an attempt to justify their heresy of Baptismal Regeneration. The following is quoted from Catholic.com...

> "The Christian belief that baptism is necessary for salvation is so unshakable that even the Protestant Martin Luther affirmed the necessity of baptism*. He wrote: 'Baptism is no human plaything but is instituted by God himself. Moreover, it is solemnly and strictly commanded that we must be baptized or we shall not be saved. We are not to regard it as an indifferent matter, then, like putting on a new red coat. It is of the greatest importance that we regard baptism as excellent, glorious, and exalted' "(Large Catechism 4:6). [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [4]http://www.catholic.com/library/necessity _of _baptism.asp

What sad irony? Here's a heathen Catholic ministry quoting Martin Luther's own words to support their damnable heresy. I ask you: Why do most Christians today continue to honor Mr. Luther as a great man of faith, who clearly wasn't even saved? Luther taught that Water Baptism could save a person, even if no faith was present. This goes against even the plainest of Scripture...

> " For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast " (Ephesians 2:8,9)
> " To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins " (Acts 10:43)

> “But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness” (Romans 4:5)

Did Martin Luther never read Mark 16:16? ...

> “He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but HE THAT BELIEVETH NOT SHALL BE DAMNED.”

To be water baptized but not have faith in Jesus Christ is a sure road to Hell, fire and damnation! Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Martin Luther Preaches Baptismal Regeneration Heresy

Martin Luther (1483-1546) was a religious fraud, a heretic. Tragically, this man who has been dead for 477 years is still brainwashing people with his damnable heresies, leading them into Hellfire.

Here are the words of one such deceived soul...

> "...the central truths of Christianity, the most important of which, for Luther, was the doctrine of justification — God’s act of declaring a sinner righteous — by faith alone through God’s grace. He began to teach that salvation or redemption is a gift of God’s grace, attainable only through faith in Jesus as the messiah."
> SOURCE: Wriedt, Markus. "Luther’s Theology," in The Cambridge Companion to Luther. New York: Cambridge University Press, 2003, 88–94

But did Luther really believe that salvation was "only through faith in Jesus?" No, he did not, as I will prove to you. In Luther’s Large Catechism he foolishly states:

> "Moreover, that it is most solemnly and strictly commanded that we must be baptized or we cannot be saved..." [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [5]The Large Catechism (XIII) - Martin Luther

Mr. Luther penned these words in 1529, twelve years after his alleged conversion to Jesus Christ in 1517. How much more evidence do you need to know that Martin Luther was an imposter, a Modernist, and an unsaved man?

Beware Of Wolves In Sheep’s Clothing

Martin Luther is a liar of liars, who is still deceiving people nearly 500 years later with his false teachings. This is because of the power of propaganda. This is why [6]Adolf Hitler (1938), Joseph Stalin (1942), and President George W. Bush (2000/2004) have all been shamefully honored by TIME magazine (a known Communist organization).

Likewise, Martin Luther is responsible for leading untold millions of people into the eternal Lake of Fire. Woefully ignorant and foolish people continue to praise Luther today. There is [7]much information available exposing Martin Luther. People by nature go by what they hear, not having sense enough to think objectively for themselves. It is the Bible preacher's duty to exhort people to "SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES" for the truth (John 5:39). What saith the Scripture? God's opinion is the only opinion that truly matters. Romans 4:3, "For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness."

Mr. Luther was unquestionably a great religious leader of his time. Luther did much work to translate the Word of God. There is no question that Luther was a pioneer of the Reformation. Yet, tragically, Martin Luther taught ANOTHER GOSPEL (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4), which is a false plan of salvation that cannot produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God. There is a curse upon anyone, even an angel (demon), who preaches another gospel (Galatians 1:6-8).

Mr. Luther sadly had churchianity, but he did not have Christianity. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. Religion cannot get a person into Heaven. I am not asking you to take my word for it dear reader; but rather, consider what the Scriptures teach, and then look at what Mr. Luther taught. They are diametrically opposed to each other. Those who promote Martin Luther are pulling on the same rope as the Devil.

RUN from the Lutheran religion! Please don't be sucked into this deadly cult. No one in the Old Testament was water baptized, but those who went to Heaven had faith in Christ (Acts 10:43). The repentant thief on the cross did not have time to get water baptized, his hands were nailed to a cross. All he did was (as a needy sinner) BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST to be saved. Martin Luther came out of the toxic Roman Catholic church, but the corrupt Catholic church did not come out of him.

Whereas Catholics require keeping SEVEN sacraments to be saved, Luther required keeping TWO sacraments to be saved. Either way they both taught the damnable heresy of Sacramental Salvation. Romans 3:20b plainly declares "by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

6.3.23 The Unsaved Man's Journey To Find The Truth (2025-03-28 13:33)

2nd Corinthians 4:3-6, " But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ*, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ."

I was thinking this morning about how hard it is for the unsaved person to find the light of the truth of the saving Gospel. Our text passage from 2nd Corinthians teaches that the Devil deliberately BLINDS unbelievers to hinder them from being born again. Jesus said the thief (Satan) comes only to kill, steal and destroy (John 10:10).

1st Thessalonians 2:18, " Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us." The Devil blinds lost people with religion, worldly philosophies, family tradition, the pride of life, sin, evolution, et cetera. Satan works relentlessly to hinder the work of God.

Luke 11:52, " Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered. " A "lawyer" in the New Testament was not the same as attorney's today. Bible lawyers were religious ones, experts in the Mosaic law of Moses. The Law given by God to Moses in the Old Testament was the law that was used to govern Israel. A "lawyer," therefore, was an expert or scholar of the Mosaic Law. Jesus indicted those wicked lawyers, for perverting the Scriptures, failing to recognize Him as the promised Messiah that Moses spoke of. John 7:19, " Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me? "

The wicked religious Jewish lawyers were against Jesus. John 5:45-46, "Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust. For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me. " They trusted in Moses instead of Jesus to save them, which is NOT how you get to Heaven. Moses could not save anyone, not even himself. Nowhere in the inspired Holy Bible does it teach to put your faith in Moses to be saved. John 14:6, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." John 6:47-50, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. I am that bread of life. Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead. This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die." Jesus plainly declared that He is the Bread of Life.

There is only one true Gospel. Galatians 5:7, " Ye did run well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth? "

1st Thessalonians 2:18, " Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us." Tragically, if you research the various different religions, and attend several different Baptist churches, you will hear umpteen different conflicting plans of salvation, but the inspired Holy Bible warns that there is ONLY ONE Gospel. 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 defines

"the gospel" as three things:

1. Jesus DIED on a cross to pay our debt of sin.

2. He was BURIED.
3. Christ resurrected from the dead three days later.

1st Corinthians 15:1-6, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures*:

And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

The old adage is true: Repetition is the key to learning. That is why I often preach in my blogs on the same topics, primarily anything pertaining to salvation, because it is so important. There is nothing in this universe more important than knowing that your name is written in the Lamb's Book of Life, settled in your soul regarding where you will spend eternity. Thankfully, by God's grace, I KNOW beyond any shadow of a doubt that I am born again. I know I am 100 % saved because I am trusting only Jesus Christ, who is the only begotten (biological) Son of God.

I have placed all my apples in one basket, so to speak. If I go to Hell someday, it will be Jesus' fault alone, because I am totally relying upon Him, because of what He accomplished through Calvary's cross to pay my debt of sin. As a 13 year old boy in Chicago, I trusted Jesus as my personal Savior one Sunday morning from a church pew. I received His sacrificial death on the cross as full-payment for my sins, believing that He was buried, but then miraculously raised up from the dead three days later. I came to God as a needy sinner, and by faith I simply believed on His only begotten Son, trusting that Jesus did it all for me on the cross. My faith is only in the precious blood of Jesus. The life that I choose to live, and the sins which I have wilfully committed since I got saved, and my church activity and lack thereof, have absolutely NOTHING to do with going to Heaven. I am the SINNER; Jesus is the SAVIOR.

As I stated earlier, I began to ponder this morning about how difficult it is for the unsaved person to find the light of the truth of the Gospel. I feel sorry for the lost man, woman or child who stumbles into the Roman Catholic cult, where one is deliberately discouraged from reading the Holy Bible. The unsaved person in Catholicism is lied to by wicked priests, told that they must keep Seven Sacraments to get to Heaven. No such trash is taught in the Word of God. Catholicism is a prisonhouse of religion!

Perhaps I pondered this topic this morning because today is the infamous day of Mardi Gras (" in French) in New Orleans, when Catholics indulge in an orgy of sin and debauchery, and then go confess to their demonic priests tomorrow on Ash Wednesday. How wicked!!! I love all Catholic people, sincerely, but I vehemently HATE the accursed Catholic religion that has damned billions of souls to the Lake of Fire for eternity (Revelation 20:11-15). Sacramental Salvation cannot produce the required new birth by the Holy Spirit (John 3:1-7). If you are a Catholic dear reader, kindly said, you had better repent (change your mind) to CEASE from trusting in your sacramental works, and instead REST completely in the name of Jesus Christ alone and His crucifixtion, burial and resurrection to save you (Romans 1:16; 1st Thessalonians 4:14). Simply BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for you!

Fat Tuesday

Over one billions lost sinners have been BLINDED by Satan to think that some wicked Roman or Orthodox Catholic priest can save them. I tell you truthfully that the Pope is not the vicar (presence) of God on earth; the Pope is THE VICAR OF HELL!!! The Pope calls himself "El Papa" but he dresses like El Mama. What a religious phony! There is NO salvation in the Catholic religion!!!

Then I thought this morning about the 22,000,000 poor souls who've been sucked into the [1]Seventh-Day Adventist cult, with their [2]Satanic Lordship Salvation heresy.

I also thought this morning about the 9,000,000 Jehovah's Witnesses around the world—a dangerous religious cult that denies Jesus' deity, denies the Godhead, denies that Jesus physically resurrected from the dead, denies that Hell is a literal place, and requires forsaking your sinful bad habits to be saved (sadly the same as most perverted Baptist churches today also teach). [3]Pensacola Christian College teaches this damnable heresy! False doctrine concerning salvation has crept into nearly all religious schools, missions and churches today.

Then there are the secretive Mormons—a Masonic despicable religious cult of 17,000,000 followers based upon the sex perverted teachings of Joseph Smith (1805-1844). Smith was eventually lynched by an angry mob because of his illicit relations with several dozen women, all done in the name of God and religion. Remember, in the eyes of a wicked person anything can be justified. The wicked Jews in the Old Testament were committing adultery, theft, idolatry and murder, claiming that they were all doing God's will (Jeremiah 7:8-10). Some of the most heinous evils in history have been unjustly done in God's name. Adolf Hitler claimed to be doing God's will during the Holocaust, while murdering innocent people. President George W. Bush claimed to be doing God's will, while he ruthlessly murdered 2,300,000 innocent Iraqis. Nobody is doing " who is committing acts of unspeakable evil (James 1:13-14).

God's will

I could go on and on, mentioning the names of well-known religious cults, false religions and heretics. The Churches of Christ comes to mind, who have about 2,000,000 members worldwide. This cult errantly requires that you forsake your sinful bad habits to be saved, which is works, not grace. Churches of Christ also foolishly require water baptism to get to Heaven, which is a counterfeit plan of salvation that absolutely cannot produce the required new birth. And for that matter, so also do Catholics, Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses and Lutherans ([4]according to Martin Luther himself) require water baptism to be saved, which proves that they are NOT saved at all. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

I feel sorry for the unsaved man who is searching for the truth. He is confused and like the popular 1980 song by Johnny Lee, "[5]Looking For Love," the unsaved man is oftentimes looking for truth in all the wrong places. He goes to the Catholic church and is introduced to ritualism and worshipping idols. He goes to the Mormon church and is shown Masonic ceremonies and taught a damnable counterfeit plan of salvation. Then he goes to the Seventh-Day Adventist cult and is errantly taught that he must keep the Ten Commandments to prove that his faith is genuine or else he is not saved (by the way, this is [6]the same tommyrot that Bob Jones University teaches today). To attack the Gospel of free grace is to attack the God of grace. Please RUN from these dangerous false religions and cults!!!

I remember reading that famous television actor, [7]Jackie Gleason (aka, “The Great One“”), was [8]infatuated with the afterlife before he died in 1987. Sadly, from listening to Mr. Gleason in a 60-Minutes interview, in which he said he didn’t think that God would send him to Hell for committing one sin, I don’t think he died in the Lord. According to James 2:10, committing even one sin is the same as breaking all of God’s commandments. The reason why is because even one sin is all it takes to disqualify anyone from entering into Heaven. Dear reader, you don’t have to be good to get to Heaven, you must be 100 % perfect! Since no human being other than Jesus has ever lived a perfect life (Hebrews 4:15), we need a Savior. That is why God sent His only begotten Son into the world, so that He could di in our place on the cross. By trusting Christ to save you, God the Father imputes (counts) Christ’s righteousness to you by faith (Romans 4:4-7, 10:3-4; Philippians 3:9). If you are saved, God doesn’t see your sins anymore, He only sees Jesus’ righteousness! I speak of one’s POSITION in Christ. Our CONDITION is a separate matter entirely, which does not affect our salvation. Remember, eternal life is the free gift of God, received by faith, paid for by Jesus’ precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). Some critics of “ like to call this

cheap grace,

but in fact, it is free grace. It is free to you and me, because it cost Jesus His life.

Having said all that, the inspired Holy Bible teaches that the grace of Gold that brings salvation has appeared to ALL MEN (i.e., every human being). Titus 2:11, “ For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, ” I don’t claim to understand how this works. Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023) wrote an enlightening article titled: ’[9]Is God Unfair To The Heathen?’ Dr. Younce teaches that if a heathen in the remote jungles of some remote place on earth has a desire to learn the truth, God is obligated to send them more truth. But if they reject the light which they already have, then God is not obligated to give them more light. I agree with Pastor Younce in this matter of spiritual enlightenment.

I haven’t even mentioned all the wacky charismatic false prophets and health, wealth and prosperity heretics; namely: Pat Robertson, Joyce Meyer, Joel Osteen, Steven Furtick, Benny Hinn, Peter Popoff, Joel Osteen, Oral Roberts, Bill Hamon, Jim Bakker and countless more phonies, cons and charlatans. Their damnation slumbereth not. That is, they are already damned, it’s just a matter of time until their day of reckoning arrives. With all these crooks, liars and fraudsters, it is no wonder why millions of lost sinners today won’t have anything to do with the churches. Frankly, I don’t blame them one bit. But sadly, if they only knew THE TRUTH about how normal, fair and honest our God is, they would quickly come to receive His only begotten Son as their personal Savior. Please don’t let religion hinder you from coming to Christ dear friend. Your eternal destiny depends on it!

I had a friend when I was growing up, whose mother hated churches. She often spoke of the crazy nuts in churches in her home town, who passed around snakes to see who was right with God. It's hard to believe that there are still wacky cults like that today, who masquerade as churches. I cannot blame lost sinners for avoiding churches when they see insane stuff like that. But sadly, the only ones who will suffer are the people who refuse to come to Jesus. What saith the Scripture? John 5:40, "

And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

" Carefully notice that Jesus didn't say you cannot come to Him; but rather,

"ye will not come to me." Whether or not someone comes to Christ is solely up to the individual, and no one else. NO ONE can keep you out of Heaven dear reader, except YOU! Believe and be saved!!! John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

I humbly believe that if any man, woman or child sincerely desires THE TRUTH, they can find it. God has made a way for men to find and know the truth. It doesn't take a skilled theologian to see that something is very wrong with the Roman Catholic religion. The Bible forbids idolizing men. Jesus forbade calling priests "Father" in reverence (Matthew 23:9), yet that is exactly what the Catholic cult does! The Bible warned that false prophets would come forbidding marriage and eating meats (1st Timothy 4:1-3), yet that is exactly what the Catholic cult does! And there are many further proofs that Catholicism goes totally contrary to the inspired Word of God (Matthew 15:8; Mark 7:9).

I have briefly focused on the evils of Roman Catholicism, but I could just as easily expose thousands of false manmade religions!

Most Americans FALSELY consider Mormons, Roman Catholics, Jehovah's Witnesses, Churches of Christ, Seventh-Day Adventists, Lordship Salvation Baptists, Lutherans, Unitarian Universalists, United Methodists and other pseudo-Christian cults as being "Christian," but in reality NONE OF THEM are Christian. All of these false religions, which add up to over 100 million Americans, falsely think they are Christians but are hellbound infidels. Only born again believers who trust in Jesus Christ alone apart from all works are truly saved.

In addition, the biggest names in evangelicalism today (e.g., Joel Osteen, T.D. Takes, Joyce Meyer, Pat Robertson, Beth Moore, James Dobson, Adrian Rodgers, Billy and Franklin Graham, Chip Ingram, Jimmy Swaggert, Charles Stanley, John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Robert Jeffress, Jack Chick, William P. Grady, Sam Gipp, Keith Gomez, Pensacola Christian College, Bob Jones University, Unshackled, Paul Washer, Ken Ham, Todd Friel and countless other infidels) all preach a counterfeit plan of Lordship Salvation which requires turning (or being willing to turn) from your sinful bad habits to be saved (this is WORKS). With this tragic reality in view, the United States clearly pretends to be a Christian nation, but it is NOT. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. Jesus died on the cross to pay for our sins. Thus, eternal life is a free gift from God. The Bible does NOT require that you first be willing to reform to receive that gift.

Let the inspired KING JAMES BIBLE be your guide. Jesus commanded us to 'SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES' in John 5:39. If you want to discover THE TRUTH, then read and study and abide in the inspired Holy Scriptures!!!

6.3.24 Is God Unfair To The Heathen? (2025-03-29 02:32)

This is a tremendous printed article (a reply to someone's question) by [1]Dr. Max D. Younce (1935-2023), long time faithful pastor of [2]Heritage Baptist Bible Church in Walnut Grove, Minnesota (from 1991 to 2023). It is really a life-changing sermon. I encourage you to [3]visit their website, where you'll find dozens of free Bible study books and resources to help you grow in the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Without further ado, here is Dr. Younce's sermon titled, "

God Unfair To The Heathen?"

> Thank you for your questions and your concerns. I will attempt to condense this to the basics.
> Step One: First, we need to keep in mind that God is omniscient, man is not! In John 2:25 we are told concerning Christ, "And needed not that any should testify of man: FOR HE (Christ) KNEW WHAT WAS IN MAN." In Job 42:2 we read, "...that no thought can be withholden from thee." Ezekiel 11:5 states, "...for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them." Hebrews 4:13 agrees as, "All things are naked and opened unto the eyes of Him with whom we have to do." Keep this in mind as we proceed to Step Two.

Step Two: When God created man, man was created with an inborn knowledge of the God of Creation. Romans 1:19, "Because that which may be known of God IS MANIFEST IN THEM; for God hath showed it unto them." In other words, when God created man, He created him with a mind with which to think and to reason. By visually observing all the wonders of Creation: stars, moon, sun, planets, trees, clouds, rain, animal life, plant life; and even himself, man could know that Someone much superior to himself was responsible. Romans 1:20 makes this perfectly clear, "For the invisible things of Him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made (His creation), even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse." This leads us to step Three.

Step Three: Man's Responsibility. All that any person needs to have is a DESIRE to know the truth about the God of Creation. Only the infinite, Omniscient God can know the desire of a person—not finite beings such as you and I! Remember, very few people want to know the truth about God. Matthew 7:14 tells us that, "Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it." The Greek word for "find" is heurea and can be translated; "get, obtain, perceive, or see." The reason only a few perceive, see, or obtain eternal life is because of their self-righteousness. Read on in Matthew 7:22, "Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? And in thy name have cast out devils? And in thy name done many wonderful works?" God answers in Verse 24, "And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

Christ, addressing the Pharisees in Luke 16:15, exposing their true thinking, "And he (Christ) said unto them, Ye are they which JUSTIFY YOURSELVES before men; BUT GOD KNOWETH YOUR HEARTS..." Many times we have been fooled by people's actions, unaware of what they are really thinking, but not so the Lord! 1st Samuel 16:7b makes this clear, "...for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, BUT THE LORD looketh on the heart." Again, in Luke 18:9, we see the Omniscient Christ exposing the pride and self-righteousness of the Pharisees, "And he (Christ) spake this parable unto certain WHICH TRUSTED IN THEMSELVES that they were righteous, and despised others." These, like others, had no desire to know the truth; but, were gods unto themselves, seeking to be justified by their own righteousness. This leads us to Step Four, where we examine God's responsibility.

Step Four: God's Responsibility. God loved and created mankind so that He could have fellowship with thinking beings. He loved mankind or He wouldn't have created them and He wanted mankind to love Him. He created male and female capable of reproducing, thus populating the earth with people who would love Him and He them. As we know, sin entered and separated His creation from Him. Some have asked why God allowed this to happen. God wanted people to love Him of their own freewill, knowing that He loved them or He wouldn't have created them. Who would want a mechanical, programmed robot to say, "I love you," with no meaning, feelings, or free will? The reason God gave man a free choice and allowed him to sin was, "That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus" (Ephesians 2:7). This He proved, as we know from John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Peter also reveals God's will in 2nd Peter 3:9, "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, NOT WILLING THAT ANY SHOULD PERISH, BUT THAT ALL SHOULD COME TO REPENTANCE (In the Greek, "A change of mind"). Now that we know God's will, we realize it becomes His responsibility to keep alive, and get the truth to, anyone who has a desire to know the true and living God of Creation.

An example of God's longsuffering can be seen clear back in Genesis 15 in the account of His dealings with the heathen nations then in the Lan of Canaan, which Israel was eventually to conquer. Seven great nations are given by name in Deuteronomy 7:1. God waited over 400 more years for these people to have a desire to know the true and living God, which shows God's longsuffering. The record is in Genesis 15:13, 16, "...and they (Egypt) shall afflict them (Israel) four hundred years;" "But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: FOR THE INIQUITY OF THE AMORITES IS NOT YET FULL." God extended His grace and long-suffering 400 more years to see if these nations (including the Amorites) has a DESIRE to know the true God of Creation. They did not. Of the hundreds of thousands of people living there, we know there was one exception. Rahab and her family (Joshua 2) were spared during the taking of Jericho for her faith in God.

Deuteronomy 7 records God's instructions for Israel to destroy all these nations occupying the land of Canaan. May I pause and answer the question: "Why would God be so 'mean' as to have the little babies and children killed along with the parents?" The answer is very simple and logical. Should children under the age of accountability die, they would go to be with the Lord (2nd Samuel 12:22,23 cf. Psalm 16:9,10). These little babies and children, if left to their parents to raise; would, no doubt, become as heathen as their parents and destined for Hell. Because of God's grace and wisdom, you and I will see these little ones in Heaven which God took prematurely to raise Himself.

Should a person desire to know the truth, it then becomes God's responsibilities to get the truth to them. This can be seen in Acts 10, and 11 where the account is given of Cornelius who was "A devout man and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayer to God alway" (Acts 10:2). God told Cornelius to "...call for Simon, whose surname is Peter: Who shall tell thee words whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved" (Acts 11:13b, 14). Cornelius was religious, but lost. However, he had a desire to know the truth (John 14:6); therefore, God fulfilled His responsibility by sending Peter with the message of the Gospel.

We should mention one more example, the Ethiopian eunuch. He was in charge of all the treasure belonging to the queen of the Ethiopians. More importantly, he was a religious man as he had come to Jerusalem to worship (Acts 8:27). On the way back, he had stopped and was reading the Book of Isaiah (Acts 8:30). Like Cornelius, this man was religious but lost. Nevertheless, God knew he had a desire to know the truth. Philip had been preaching in many villages of the Samaritans when the Lord spoke to him, instructing him to go down where the eunuch was (Acts 8:25,26). Again, we find God fulfilled His responsibility, predicated upon the eunuch's desire to know the truth. Philip led him to Christ and then baptized him. This leads us to Step Five.

Step Five. Many have a mistaken idea that if all the "heathen" were given the Gospel, most of the "heathen" would abandon their idols, their false Gods, and be gloriously saved! This kind of reasoning leads one to blame God for their eternal destiny in Hell. The idea that all, or the majority of, those who have not heard the truth would be saved, if they had the truth, is just not true! The Word of God repudiates this philosophy from man's reasoning. Remember, God knows man—a thousand times better!—than man knows man. No man knows what another person will or will not do; but, God does, because He is omniscient.

Recall the Words of Christ, Himself, in Matthew 7:14, "Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, AND FEW THERE BE THAT FIND IT" (i.e., perceive or obtain it). Why is this so? The answer lies in man's pride and self-righteousness; therefore, they willfully reject the truth. Notice Christ's Words in Matthew 13:15, "For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed..." (i.e., to the truth). Compared to the multitudes who have ever lived, only a few have been saved from the time of creation until now.

At the time of the flood mankind had lived upon the earth 1656 years, and there were hundreds of thousands of people living on the earth at the time of the flood. How many were saved at the time of the flood? Only eight. Those who decided not to board the ark had heard the truth, as Noah preached for 120 years prior to the flood judgment. The Bible says, "He (Noah) was a preacher of righteousness" (2nd Peter 2:5).

What about Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, Zeboiim, and Zoar (Genesis 14:2), which were all destroyed by God? (Genesis 19:24,25). There were hundreds of thousands of people in these cities, yet God could not even find ten that were saved.

Look at Pentecost, just 50 days after Christ was crucified and resurrected. We have the record of the first 40 of these 50 days after His resurrection in Acts 1:3, "To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:" "And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep" (1st Corinthians 15:4-6). He then ascended back to Heaven ten days before Pentecost (Acts 1:11). Read 1st Corinthians 15:3-8. We learn, from Acts 2:8-11, of the tremendous populace from all sects and areas that had come to Jerusalem to worship at the feast of Pentecost. It is estimated that there could have been over 300,000 in and around Jerusalem. Remember, all Jewish males were required by the Law to come to this feast (Deuteronomy 16:16; Exodus 23:17). In Acts 2:41 we are told that only 3,000 out of approximately 300,000 believed and were saved. That is only one out of 100. One must remember that many of these had seen Christ crucified, with their own eyes, and then observed Him alive after the resurrection for a month and ten days (Acts 1:13). Yet, only one out of every hundred would believe and be saved. On to Step 6.

Step 6: Consider America today...as compared to the heathen. First, let me re-emphasize a popular misconception. "If all people hear the Gospel; that Christ died, was buried and rose again to pay for their sins; they will believe and receive His promise of everlasting life" (John 3:16). If that were true, then why do Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormons, Christian Scientists, Catholicism, Hinduism, Buddhism, etc. totally reject salvation as a free gift without their own self-righteousness of good works included? All these have access to the truth, through radio, television, and print, that a person is only saved one way. "For by grace are ye saved through faith: and that not of yourselves: it is the gift (eternal life) of God, NOT OF WORKS, lest any man should boast" (Ephesians 2:8,9). Yet, they totally reject the truth!

Just because people living in the jungles and bush country have not advanced in the technology of agriculture, medicine, sciences, etc., does not qualify them as "heathen," as we think. Many of these tribes have a higher value on life, marriage and the family than America does. It is estimated that 4,000 babies, daily, are slaughtered by abortion in America. Lesbians and homosexuals have brainwashed America to the point, most of the schools are teaching our young people to accept this as an "alternative" lifestyle instead of what God calls it, "Plain, old perverted sin." Of all the missionary books I have read, I do not recall any of the missionaries encountering the problem of homosexuality in the bush tribes. Many of the so-called "heathen" execute the death penalty for adultery because of their values concerning the home and family.

Look at America! We even have our pulpits being saturated with homosexual and lesbian so-called preachers, with a Bible ON the pulpit in which they do not believe. Some of the peoples and tribes we call "heathen" are more civilized than our so-called educated people in America, including our Supreme Court! Look at the educated fools (Psalm 14:1) who saturate our grade schools, and colleges with their agnostic and atheistic ideologies of false science (evolution—1st Timothy 6:20). All of these are born with a knowledge there is a God Who created them. All have access to God's Word, the Bible. All can observe the evidences of God, their Creator, in Astronomy, Botany, true Science, the wonder of living creatures—yet, deny the truth. The leads us to Step 7, the conclusion.

Step 7: In conclusion, I want to address those of you who seem so concerned about those who have never heard the Gospel and are going to spend eternity in Hell. Consider the following:

1. You are not God, therefore you do not possess the attributes God possesses. You and I do not possess foreknowledge; i.e., God knows everything. He knows what you are going to think before you ever think it. Foreknowledge contains only one element—God knows everything that is going to happen before it happens. He knows the things that would have happened, if the things that did happen, hadn't happened! Since you are not God and do not know all things as God does, then I would suggest that you quit trying to play God, second-guessing God, and questioning God's love for His creation.

2. One must remember that unsaved parents and religion are opposed to the Gospel. This is why generation after generation will spend eternity in Hell. The children believe their unsaved parents instead of opening the Bible for the truth. Remember, the children grow up and as teen-agers, then adults, they have the same enlightenment from God as everyone else. Recall Romans 1:20, "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse." This is the external cosmology and that of nature, also. The internal evidence is stated in Verse 19, "Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them."

   When God created man with a mind to think and reason with, it contained the knowledge that God was the Creator of everything, including themselves as mankind. The God of Creation had His Word written in the Bible, which will always point us to Jesus Christ for salvation (Acts 4:12). This is Christianity. Christ dying and being resurrected in payment for the sins of the world; therefore, eternal life is available to anyone as a free gift only (Titus 3:5; Ephesians 2:8,9).

   Religion, whether Catholicism, Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormonism, Islam, World-Wide Church of God (Armstrongism), Unitarianism, Scientology, and on and on, is always characterized by man, through his own achievement, trying to reach up to God or become his own god. How often, when witnessing, have you had a Roman Catholic tell you, "I was raised a Catholic and I will die a Catholic!" Their children were taught the same as they were taught; and, on it goes, from generation to generation. You have the same process in tribal peoples, whether in Africa, New Guinea, Ecuador, etc. I have witnessed to an innumerable amount of Lutherans and Catholics and found families going back to a great-great-great-grandmother, all united in believing that infant baptism provides salvation for their children. This philosophy, or heresy, was passed down to great-grandmother, grandmother, mother, then son or daughter. I cannot recall how many times I have had a Lutheran or Catholic tell me that his or her mother had them baptized as a baby, and they were "all right"! How sad; but, this is religion and not Christianity. I have related to them that nowhere does the Bible say that babies are to be baptized. Rather, when you reach the age of understanding right from wrong, you must trust Jesus Christ as your own personal Savior. They wanted nothing to do with it at all.

3. Now, the good news! Once in a while, you will find a person who does not bow to family peer pressure and exercises his own thinking. I have led Catholics, Lutherans, Jehovah's Witnesses and others to Jesus Christ because they had a desire to know the truth. Remember this, the same truth (John 14:6) that one member of a family accepted, is available to every member of that family, going back hundreds of years. Why only one or two who has accepted Jesus Christ as their Savior, out of hundreds in their family tree over myriads of years? The answer lies in a person's free will and personal responsibility. May I call your attention again to God's disclosure of the case in Matthew 13:15, "For this peoples heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed..." Personally, I would rather deal with someone who has never been to church, than a person raised in a religion which has "brainwashed" them with their philosophical ideologies and traditions rather than the Word of God.

Taking into consideration God's attributes of foreknowledge, omniscience, omnipresence, and omnipotence, you can rest assured of these two things:

A. God knows who will accept Jesus Christ as their Savior when they hear the truth, because of His foreknowledge and omniscience.

B. With His attributes of omnisapience and omnipotence, God is able to get the message to the person who has a desire to know the truth, and will accept it when they receive it.

There are many generation of people, for hundreds of years, whom God knew would reject Jesus Christ as their Savior—if they had the truth. They have already rejected the knowledge of God they were born with, along with the external evidence of creation and cosmology (Romans 1:19-23; Isaiah 45:6). This is evidenced by the Amorites in Canaan who, as God describes in Romans 1:22,23, "Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image (Deuteronomy 4:15-19) made like unto corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts and creeping things." Yet, God waited 400 years and not one, except Rahab, had a desire to know the true and living God!

4. Man's unbelief. I have found that many of those who seem so concerned about people thousands of miles away, do not witness for Christ in their own town. Why? If you are a Christian, explain to me why you are so interested in someone going to Hell ten thousand miles away from you, and not interested in someone going to Hell ten blocks away from you in your own town.

   Consider this. You may not be a Christian, just a skeptic trying to blame God out of your own ignorance for something to justify your own unbelief. Those that blame God for the so-called heathen going to Hell, evidently know nothing of the God and the Christ of the Bible. If you are in this category, this what you do not believe about God and why your mind is in the dilemma it is in.

God is Love - John 3:16-18; 2nd Peter 3:9; Romans 5:8,9

God is Omniscient (all-knowing) - 1st John 3:20; Psalm 94:11; 1st Kings 8:39; Hebrews 4:13

God is Omnisapient (all-wisdom) - Romans 11:33; 1st Corinthians 2:4

God is Omnipotent (all-powerful) - Revelation 19:6; Matthew 19:26; Genesis 18:14a

God is Longsuffering -2nd Peter 3:9; Exodus 34:6; 1st Peter 3:20

God is Just - Deuteronomy 32:4; Isaiah 45:21

God is Righteous - He will never allow the unbeliever to enter Heaven; nor will He permit the believer to enter Hell - John 3:36; John 5:24

The problem with skeptics and their view of the so-called heathen is, they attempt to reduce the Infinite God to their own finite thinking. Man cannot look into the mind of another man and know what he is thinking now, or what his mind will accept or reject in the future. Only God knows this.

Skeptics need to believe God when He said He loved the world (John 3:16) and is longsuffering and not willing any should perish (2nd Peter 3:9). Believe God, that He knows who will believe; and will act upon their desire to know; and get them the truth. Remember the Ethiopian eunuch and Cornelius. Remember, there are hundreds of thousands of people in false religions who will not accept Jesus Christ as their Savior. I am now talking about America! Go into a small town with one Catholic church, two Lutheran churches, and a Methodist churches and start witnessing. I did this one day and, after talking with about 120 persons, could not find one that knew they had eternal life because of trusting Jesus Christ as their personal Savior. Not one! When you that doubt God, start believing God; then, you will have "the peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:7).

I was talking to a man, some time back, and he had the same question we have been discussing here. My question to him was, "Since he was so concerned about tribes in New Guinea, why didn't he go to a Bible college, learn the Word of God, learn their language, and go there as a missionary?" His mouth dropped down to about his knees!

May I say this in closing? Never doubt God's love as He loves His creation more than any human being loves another. It only angers God when someone, because of their own ignorance, accuses Him of being unjust. God warns such persons in Isaiah 45:9, "Woe unto him that striveth with his maker..." Maybe you have doubts because you are not saved and cannot see things through the eyes of God, as revealed in His Word. 1st Corinthians 2:14 lets us know, "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned."

"Except a man be born again, he cannot see..." (John 3:3).

If you are not absolutely sure you are going to Heaven when you die—you probably are not! Right now...put your trust in Jesus Christ as your Savior and have the peace of knowing you have eternal life.

"He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him" (John 3:36). Also read 1st John 5:13.

6.3.25 Pastor Jack Hyles On the King James Bible Issue (2025-03-30 03:14)

An interview of Dr. Jack Hyles by Attorney David Gibbs Jr.

Many people say they love Brother Hyles and follow Brother Hyles, but when it comes down to it, many people just didn't really understand what he meant, or just didn't "catch it." Brother Hyles taught us over and over to be loyal to principles and not institutions. That sounded good when it was another institution, but he wasn't teaching that to us about another institution, he was teaching that because he knew one day that "our" institution would change. I don't think he or any of us thought it would be so soon.

The more I read from Brother Hyles, the more I am amazed at his wisdom and understanding. The words you are about to read are from an interview book put together by Attorney David Gibbs. The book is titled, "Attorney David C. Gibbs, Jr. Interviews Dr. Jack Hyles." Most of the guys I have talked to don't have this book and many of them never heard about it. I bought a copy, years ago, and by accident was reminded of some great words of wisdom. I believe they are very applicable for us today.

These excerpts comes from a section titled, "Dr. Hyles Answering Questions on Standing for the Faith," pages 153-158. ...

> Dr. Hyles: "Our big battle is over the Bible. For the next ten years it will be an increasingly big battle – I mean over the preservation of the King James text. I think there will be no difference in the next ten years than in the last ten years. Every generation is a part of the same performance – same play, just different actors. Every generation has to rediscover the truth for itself. Every generation has to rediscover the Bible for itself. Every generation has to become fundamental. You are not born a fundamentalist. You become a fundamentalist. Every generation has to come out of its previous generation.
> It is just like the physical birth. There must be born from the dying fundamentalism a new generation – a baby fundamentalism – for the next generation. Just as the old generation does not want to pass off the scene physically, the old generation does not want to pass off the scene spiritually either. Those who came from the Southern Baptist, are now playing the part that the Southern Baptist Convention played when I was a young man. The Jack Hyleses are not coming out of the Southern Baptist Convention these days. They are coming out of the conventions that came out of the Southern Baptist Convention.
> Attorney Gibbs: That is interesting.

Dr. Hyles: Any generation that does not come out of its mother will die, because the mother is going to die. Consequently, the next generation is the same as the last generation. I see the same signs of decay in our fundamental, independent Baptist movement. I have no desire to sit in judgment against any movement, but a movement is like a car. You are going to trade it in after a while. It is a vehicle. It is not the church – it is a vehicle, and the vehicle is going to wear out.

Attorney Gibbs: We have forgotten that the movements are not the church sometimes.

Dr. Hyles: I see the same stagnation in the groups that came out of the Southern Baptist Convention forty years ago. I also see the same argument by the movement for staying in it that I saw forty years ago. For example, we all differ they say. Let us disagree, but let us by all means not divide. The same people that are saying let us not divide are the ones that divided in the past generation, and the ones from which they divided said in the past generation let us not divide.

Attorney Gibbs: That is the very counsel they rejected in the past, or they would not be where they are?

Dr. Hyles: We have come out of Egypt into the wilderness only to build our own little Egypt in the wilderness. We have found we are not opposed to bondage. We are opposed to our bondage. If we can be Pharaoh, we do not mind having bondage.

Attorney Gibbs: I have not heard you say that before. That is good.

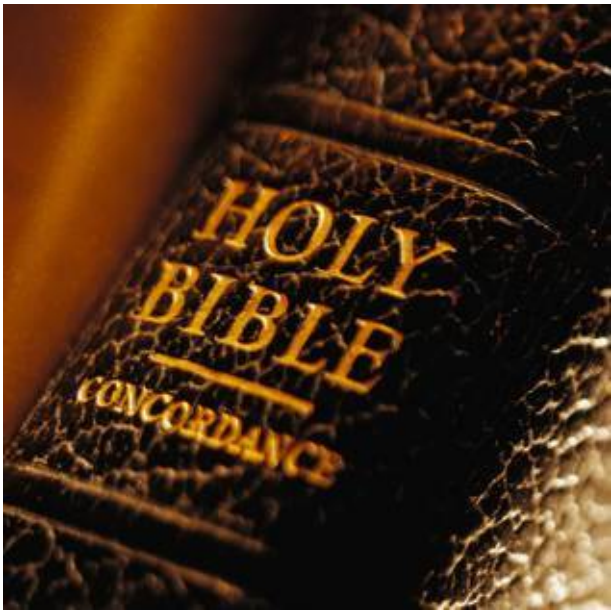
Dr. Hyles: Consequently, every generation must rediscover herself. Every generation of fundamentalism must give birth to the next generation of fundamentalism, and you give birth to something that comes out of your body. The tragic part of it is, a mother who gives birth to a baby is not upset about it.

We have become so enamored with the tool that we forget the project. Before you know it, the tool becomes more important than the project. I think there has to be another Baptist Bible Fellowship someday. There has to be another Southside Baptist Fellowship someday. There must be new babies being born that come from the mothers. Some of these groups are just as exclusive in their acceptance of others as were the Southern Baptists. It is hard for younger preachers to understand this.

I can take the same sermons I preached at the Southern Baptist Convention forty years ago and find as much difficulty and as much opposition preaching that same sermon in our independent Baptist Fellowships today. We have the same roots of decay and the same signs of decay that we had then. I hesitate to use the word fundamentalist, because in many cases they are not fundamentalist anymore – they are independent Baptists. They do not realize what we pulled out of because they have seen Southern Baptist continue to decay. They know a Southern Baptist Convention as it is today.

Attorney Gibbs: They are thinking that is what you pulled out of?

Dr. Hyles: I have a sermon that I have preached a time or two. I do not think you have heard it. It is called, "A Purpose." It was said unto Job that he left his purpose. I have tried to live for purpose. My purpose has been twofold – to get everybody I can saved and to try to save my country. Within that purpose there have been some dreams. Some of those dreams have been shattered, but the purpose remains the same. I do not live for dreams – I live for purpose. I have had some plans that have gone awry. I do not live for plans – I live for purpose. I have had some hopes that have faded. I do not live for hopes – I live for the purpose.



As you get older it is easier for that purpose to get fuzzy. For many reasons it is harder to stand. I have nothing but sympathy and compassion for these men who are not standing as they once stood. On a scale of one to ten, it took a "two" to stand forty years ago, and it takes a "ten" to stand now.

I was at a board meeting a few months ago. I was as much out of place at that board meeting of independent Baptists a few months ago as I was forty years ago in a board meeting with Southern Baptists. Those men with whom I was sitting were men that sat with me and felt out of place with me years ago. So, now you can feel out of place with those who felt out of place with you years ago. Because of knowing it is more difficult, I certainly have a sense of patience with them. I certainly do not feel any animosity toward them, because I know how difficult it is.

One of the hardest promises I ever made was to be loyal to principle and not to institutions. [See page 5] It is one of the five promises I made to God many years ago. It is easy to make that, but you find out that institutions are composed of individuals. It is easy to say that I am not going to stand for that institution until – all of the sudden – you realize that an institution is composed of people with whom you serve and love deeply.

I have churches that I went to for thirty years that will not have me anymore. I have one church I went to for thirty years in a row. They will not have me anymore. Do you know what the issue is? The King James Bible.

Thirty-one years ago we stood together on the King James Bible. So, when men with whom you fought, you now have to fight, it is pretty easy to stack arms.

6.4.1 There's No Such Thing As A "Good Christian" (2025-04-02 06:16)

Romans 7:18-21, "For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do. Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me."

Every year I receive a remarkable amount of ministry emails from discouraged, frustrated and down believers who tell me of their futile struggle with sin; about their often failures to overcome temptation. I always reply by letting them know they are in good company, because I struggle with sin on a daily basis just like everyone else. The Apostle Paul admitted his struggle with sin on a regular basis, as seen in Romans 7:14-25. Even the best Christian is still a woeful dirty sinner. Only our position in Christ, which is by faith alone, makes us appear righteous in the sight of our holy Creator and God. That is why the only boast we can honestly and justifiably make as believers is to brag on our great God, Lord and Savior who died in our place on the cross. The only good thing in me is Jesus Christ!

However, I wisely learned a long time ago from Pastor Jack Hyles: "Don't be reluctant to admit to people that you have feet or clay, but don't ever show them your feet." That is, it's perfectly okay to admit to others that you are a woeful sinner just like they are, but don't ever confess your sins to them.

There are a few reasons why you should never confess your sins to others:

1. They could go tell others. They might even tell the world about your sins on social media. Always protect your good name! Proverbs 22:1, "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold.

2. The details of your sins are absolutely none of anyone’s business. I hate the Devil’s modern corrupt Bible revisions, which change the truth into a lie (Romans 1:25). We read in James 5:16 in the inspired King James Bible to “confess your faults one to another,” but all of the [1]modern corrupt Bibles changed it to “confess your sins” to others. That is NOT what the true Bible says. There is a gargantuan difference between apologizing to the pastor for being late at times to church, versus confessing to him that you’ve been lusting with sexual fantasies upon the pastor’s wife. You’d be insane to confess your sins, and likely missing your teeth. There is a fine line between faith and foolishness!
3. Gossip can destroy even the best friendships. I lost a good friend from Bible college, when a wicked person spoke gossip to the man’s wife, and she told her husband, and it permanently strained our friendship. More lives are ruined by an ungodly tongue than for any other reason. Proverbs 16:28, “A froward man soweth strife: and a whisperer separateth chief friends.”
4. Someday others may use your past against you. It’s never wise to share your dirty laundry with others, for many reasons. Only God can forgive your sins, so only the Lord needs to know about your Skeleton Closet. Don’t be reluctant to admit to people that you have feet of clay, but don’t ever show them your feet.

Over the past 23 years of internet ministry since 2002 (it is 23 years this month in April), I have received tens of thousands of emails. More times that I care to remember, I have had people confess their sins to me. I didn’t ask them to, they just did for whatever reason. I have to be on guard and be very careful as a Bible preacher, because I have many enemies. When a stranger contacts me and tells me of horrible sins they have committed, I always suspect that they might be attempting to get me to do the same, by sharing my sins with them. I NEVER do that, because they could maliciously publish my email all over cyberspace, blabbing what I told them in confidentiality. I have to always be on guard (Proverbs 4:23). I NEVER confess my sins to anybody except God in Heaven. I never type anything in an email that I wouldn’t mind the whole world reading. That is just wise common sense. Always protect yourself.

The Bible teaches that the human heart is desperately wicked and deceitful. Jeremiah 17:9, “The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?” James 3:7-8 warns us that every wild beast has been tamed by mankind, but the human tongue can no man tame. The tongue is an unruly evil, set on fire of Hell, full of the poison of snakes. This is why King Solomon wrote in Proverbs 10:19, “

In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise.

” Perhaps God gave us two ears and one mouth, to teach us that we should listen twice as much as we talk. I admit that I am guilty of talking too much sometimes. It is a constant struggle to limit my words in conversation, to season my words with grace.

Colossians 4:6, “ Let your speech be alway with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man. ”

There is no such thing as a good Christian. You might compare yourself to a worse person and feel like you’re a good Christian, but we are all a spiritual mess! We are all struggling sinners. We all have to be careful about refraining from gossip. We all struggle with our own cesspool of weakness, hurt feelings, pride, resentment and anger. Don’t judge others because they sin differently than you do! There is nothing worse than a judgmental believer who has become a fruit inspector. The wise and mature saint fully understands that he is just as wicked as the vilest sinner in God's sight, if it weren't for the sin-cleansing blood of Jesus (1st Peter 1:18-19). That is, my sin belongs to me, but my righteousness is Jesus Christ's. The ONLY righteousness that I have is the imputed righteousness of God through faith in Jesus (Romans 4:4-7). Philippians 3:9,

"And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith..." Amen and amen.

You and I simply cannot live the Christian life in our own feeble human strength. What saith the Scripture? Galatians 2:20-21, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain." Jesus lives the Christian life through us, if we yield to Him. This is the fruit of the blessed indwelling Holy Spirit (Galatians 2:22-25). Every believer has the Spirit of Christ, that is, the Holy Spirit living within our spirit, soul and body (Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24).

Romans 7:24-25, "O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death? I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin." Notice that the Apostle Paul didn't express remorse over the wretched man that he used to be; but rather, "O wretched man that I am!" The mature Christian doesn't look down on others who sin. No, he says in his heart of hearts, "We have sinned." That is why the psalmist David exclaimed in Psalms 106:6, "We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly." I love that godly humility! David didn't have a Pharisaical self-righteous attitude. He didn't say, "Our fathers have sinned." He humbly said, "WE HAVE SINNED." Don't ever speak evil against your parents, because whether you realize it yet or not, you are just as much a wicked sinner in God's sight as they were (James 2:10).

Humbly said, when people receive love, patience, comfort and mercy from me, it is not me; but rather, I am simply allowing God's Spirit to love, help, care and comfort others through me. This is the fruit of the Spirit. My favorite preacher, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) preached a helpful sermon on this very topic titled: '[2]FILLED WITH HIS FULNESS' (MP3). God bless you dear reader and THANK YOU for your continued interest in my blog ministry. To God be all the praise, credit and glory. Jesus is precious!!!

6.4.2 False Doctrine Is Everywhere Today (2025-04-04 11:00)

Hebrews 13:9, " Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein."

There's a lot of strange things being taught in today's churches and Bible colleges. I found this excellent meme the other day. ...

If you visit enough churches nowadays you can find just about any strange doctrine. Please remember dear reader that the inspired King James Bible is not just our final authority, it is our only authority in all matters of faith, morality, doctrine and ethics. John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me." The Lord Himself commands us to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!

Tragically, most pastors today DO NOT search the Scriptures to form their teachings, they merely follow what other religious men are preaching. That is why the [2]incompetent pastors at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) are today preaching [3]another gospel of Lordship Salvation. They don't follow the inspired Holy Bible at PCC, they go along with the wrong crowd. Sadly, PCC denies that we have an inspired Holy Bible today, and they think the King James Bible has mistakes in it. I find no fault in the inspired KING JAMES BIBLE!!!

The biggest mistake you'll ever make is to follow the teachings of a pastor without SEARCHING THE SCRIPTURES to verify what he is telling you. We must be like THE BEREANS in the Bible. Acts 17:10-11, "And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews. These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so." I strongly encourage you to become an Objective Thinker! That is, question everything and test (try) it against the inspired Word of God (1st John 4:1). Sadly, much of the garbage that you'll hear preached in the average church and Bible college today is unbiblical tommyrot.

Thank you for reading my ministry blog. To God alone be all the praise, credit and glory (John 15:5). Jesus is precious!!!

6.4.3 Beware Of Dangerous False Prophet Mike Adams (aka, "The Health Ranger") (2025-04-06 12:39)

1st John 2:22-23, "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also."

Mike Adams' teachings would be a great script for a new episode of The Outer Limits or Star Trek. Today, I found "[1]Sermon 100" by Mike Adams.

Mike Adam's world view is pagan and disturbing to say the least. It was 33rd degree Freemason Manly P. Hall who rightly said:

> "The half-truth is the most dangerous form of lie, because it can be defended in part by incontestable logic."

Adams utilizes this common form of deception, when he keeps deceptively mentioning "God" and "the Bible," while simultaneously speaking of life as a "simulation" and his "church of natural abundance," which confuses people. Adams speaks of the "multiverse and the cosmos, teaching that God has given us to power to "create variations" of our own existence by "choice and the application of free will." Adams is a bonafide nutcase!

Mike Adams condemns Christian churches for dropping the ball, for teaching salvation by grace alone through faith. Beginning just after 9 minutes into "Sermon 100," Adams errantly teaches that works are required to get to Heaven. He misinterprets [2]James 2:8-17 from the Bible, teaching that we must keep the law (do works) to be saved. Adams says the churches are mostly wrong and we must do WORKS to spawn new universities and possibilities. Adams wickedly condemns the biblical truth of salvation by God's grace through faith alone, and falsely claims that the Apostle James rejects salvation by faith alone without works. Mike Adams has been inspired by demons. Adams is a complete hellbound fool who wrests the Scripture to his own destruction. ...

> 2nd Peter 3:16-17, “As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.”

I once heard Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) rightly teach that religious cults are started by unsaved people who try to understand the Holy Bible without the presence of the Author (God). They don’t have the indwelling Holy Spirit (Romans 8:9), since they have never been born again, so they interpret the inspired Word of God from their own heathen perspective. That is what Mike Adams is doing. He is not saved, does not have the indwelling Holy Spirit, but yet he has attempted to figure out the Holy Bible from a humanistic point of view.

At 18 minutes into his "Sermon 100" video, he errantly teaches there are THREE THINGS you must do to get to heaven:

1. Repent of your sins (ask for forgiveness of your sins)
2. Be obedient to God’s teachings and laws (possess good moral behavior, honesty)
3. Operate in service to others (give to and help others in need)

BLASPHEMY!!! Mike is a child of the Devil, preaching a counterfeit plan of salvation.

Mike Adams plainly denies that faith in the name of Jesus is the way to Heaven. Mike wickedly and foolishly says, "I think Jesus would approve of that plan (Mike’s plan), because that is what He taught." Uh, no, that is NOT what Jesus taught. What saith the Scripture? ...

> John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.”
> John 14:6, “Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.”

Mike errantly teaches that to get to Heaven, you must do good deeds as an expression of your faith in the teachings of Jesus. Mike says that ancient people who never heard the name of Jesus could still go to heaven by doing good works, “ they earn their way to Heaven through the expression of faith through their deeds, by being good people (22:22 time in sermon). So, according to Mike Adams you CAN get to Heaven without having any faith in Christ.

Mike Adams strongly disagrees with the inspired Holy Bible. We read in the book of Acts...

> Acts 4:10-12, “Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole. This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.”

According to Mike Adams (24:12 in "Sermon 100"), there are aliens (conscious beings) on other planets, and these wacky principles of salvation that he teaches also apply to them.

At 24:40 in "Sermon 100," Adams says he is trying help Christians to "smash the prison walls" in "limited thinking in churches and Bible schools" who teach salvation by faith alone in Jesus. Mike foolishly thinks that the biblical truth that salvation is found only through faith alone in the name of Jesus is a toxic teaching that must be overcome through enlightenment. Mike says today's churches must push beyond the boundaries and understand that "works" are required to get to Heaven. What a theological liar!!!

Mike bizarrely teaches that humans are "frozen light appearing as matter." He says we are "beings of light who are living in an artificial simulation which consists of the illusion of matter that is nothing but standing waves of light." He says, "we are made of that stuff." What a child of the Devil! Mike Adams is his own worst enemy. Mike Adams is a perfect example of what happens to an unsaved man who tries to do things his own way instead of God's way. Proverbs 16:25, "There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." Mike is blinded by Satan!

Kindly said, unfortunately, Mike Adams is a new age nutcase. Throughout his teachings he references the 1999 movie, "The Matrix" (a very popular science fiction film). Mike continually mentions the "red pill" from the movie. Mike's soul is broken! At 29:07 in "Sermon 100," he speaks of "morphic resonance," "cloud consciousness" and "patterns of nature." These are heathen new age terms, not biblical terms. Mike says we are "one with everything in the cosmos." That is pagan talk, not the words of a born again Christian. We are NOT one with the cosmos! Mike is an arrogant fool who thinks that local Christian churches around the world are enslaved to the false teaching that salvation is found only in the name of Jesus. Satan (Mike Adams), get thee behind me!

Please avoid this wicked false prophet Mike Adams (the so-called: "Health Ranger"). Mike needs Jesus Christ before it is too late for him. If he died today, God forbid, Mike would sadly spend eternity burning in the Lake of Fire (John 8:24; Revelation 14:13; 20:11-15). I sincerely hope that Mike repents of his counterfeit plan of salvation and new age nonsense before his time runs out. John 6:40, " And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day."

Dear friend, there is only ONE WAY to have your sins forgiven and go to Heaven someday, and that is through faith alone in the precious name of Jesus! To be saved, you must come to God by faith as a needy sinner and receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full-payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, but then resurrected from the dead three days later. This is 'THE GOSPEL (i.e., the 'GOOD NEWS') according to [3]1st Corinthians 15:1-6. There is NO OTHER WAY to Heaven, and anybody who says otherwise is calling God a liar. Kindly said, Mike Adams is a bold-faced liar.

> Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.
> For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;
> And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

I recently spoke with a 52 year old woman, who is a mother to six children (one a miscarriage). She told me she grew up in Minnesota and went to college to become a psychologist, because she was curious why people do the things that they do.

Then she began to talk about the “energy” in the universe, and how we must keep our human “frequencies in alignment to promote well-being and good health.” She said that God is the energy in the universe. It didn’t take me more than one minute to realize that she has been caught up into the Satanic new age movement. I felt so sorry for her, knowing that her mind is filled with unbiblical rubbish and tommyrot. Clearly, she is a child of the Devil (John 8:44), lost and hellbound in her sins (John 8:24). I thank God times ten thousand that I am a born again Christian, and that my mind is filled with the precious Words of the inspired King James Bible!

Dear reader, when anyone starts talking about God as being a form of “energy,” run! I asked the woman if she believed that God is an actual person, but she doesn’t. I shared with her Colossians 3:1 from the Holy Bible, which plainly says that God sits upon a throne in Heaven, and Jesus sits on His Father’s right hand. A “throne” is a concrete (as versus abstract) object. To sit upon a throne, God must have a physical body, and so also must Jesus His Son. She couldn’t answer my reasoning from the Word of God.

I also shared with her the biblical truth that Jesus physically resurrected rom the dead in a literal body, and was seen by over 500 believers at one time (1st Corinthians 15:6). Then, when it was time to leave, Jesus physically and visibly ascended up into the heavens (Acts 1:11). There is nothing in the Bible which indicates that Jesus transformed from a physical body into a spirit form when He left the earth.

I humbly believe Jesus physically left this earth (accompanied by angels) and journeyed to the Pearly City of Heaven, wherever that may be located in the universe. In His resurrected body, Jesus walked through walls (John 20:26) and was immortal. Certainly He could survive traveling through space without an astronaut’s suit. Granted, this is mere speculation, simply because the Bible does not tell us these things. What we do know factually is that Jesus resurrected and ascended into the clouds with a physical body.

I implore you dear reader to avoid the new age mess at all cost, lest you also become infected by it’s tentacles. New age philosophy is everywhere today in American culture. Oprah Winfrey in particular has done more to promote the demonic new age movement than anybody else. Hundreds of her heathen guests are well known new age gurus, who reject the Holy Bible. [4]Oprah has said publicly that Jesus couldn’t possible be the only way to Heaven. Well, Oprah is 100 % WRONG!!! What saith the Scripture? John 14:6, “Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.”

6.4.4 I'll See You In The Rapture (2025-04-07 10:30)

1st Thessalonians 4:14-18, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words."

I found this really nice Gospel song on YouTube called, "I'll See You In The Rapture," from 1975 by The Florida Boys. I love the pedal steel guitar!

A few months ago, I purchased a license for the '[2]4K DOWNLOADER' program for about $10, which is good for a lifetime! With the program you can download YouTube videos as MP4's or audio MP3's, and there is an option to download the entire YouTube channel if you'd like. So, if you want to download all that nice music, you can do so easily with 4K DOWNLOADER.

As an alternative, if you want to do it the harder way, but still very effective, you can download and install the [3]free Audacity program to your computer and record anything you want. If you can hear it, you can record it! For stubborn YouTube videos that are copyright protected, I use Audacity to record them instead. One way or another, '[4]I'll get you my pretty!'

A new dog appeared in my yard two days ago and now we're buddies...

Have a good day and THANK YOU for reading my ministry blog. I also post new articles daily on my '[6]Recent Articles' page at Jesus-is-Savior.com (which by God's grace I started in 2002). To God alone be the glory, great things He hath done (and is doing).

6.4.5 Be Careful What Advice You Give To Others (2025-04-08 19:25)

Esther 5:14, "Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and tomorrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made."

Esther 9:25, "But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows."

I love the true story of Esther in the Old Testament. You can hear [1]Alexander Scourby read the entire book of Esther in just 30 minutes! Although "God" is not mentioned even once in all ten chapters of Esther, we see the hand of God working throughout the book of Esther. We learn a great truth then, that when we cannot see the great HAND of our God, we should trust the great HEART of our God. If you have never watched the movie of Esther, it is wonderful. You can watch it now for FREE on YouTube.

Esther

The story of Esther is amazing!

As the story is told, we read that Haman was a bigshot in the Medo-Persian kingdom. When Haman passed by all the townspeople bowed in reverence to him, making obeisance (worship). But there was a Christian man named Mordecai, a Jew, who refused to bow to any man! Amen and amen! It is wicked when Catholics bow in reverence to their priests and the Pope (Matthew 23:9). Every time Haman passed by and saw that Mordecai refused to bow down to him, it burned him up inside. The matter festered like cancer in Haman's proud soul.

So, wicked Haman went home whining like a big baby because Mordecai refused to bow down before him. Like so many foolish women today, Haman's wicked wife suggested that Haman build a gallows 50 cubits (75 feet) high to hang Mordecai on. Oh my, what a foolish woman! Little did she know that her hateful words would come back to haunt her for the rest of her life. When Haman's ungodly plot to kill innocent Haman was exposed, his malicious plan backfired upon him and his family. Consequently, Haman and his ten sons were all hanged upon the 75 foot gallows that Haman's evil wife had told him to do. Talk about poetic justice!

Haman's foolish wife didn't think in a thousand years, that her evil words that evening at home to her husband would result in seeing all ten of her sons hanging lifeless 75 feet in the air by their necks. Do you know why she wanted the gallows built 75 feet high? It was so that the whole city could see what happens to anyone who refuses to bow to her husband, Haman. Talk about family pride! To appease her wicked husband's pride, she wanted him to make an example of innocent Mordecai, by hanging his dead body 75 feet in the air for all to see. Instead, the dead bodies of her husband and their ten sons were all displayed 75 feet in the air for the whole city and visiting travelers to see. What goes around comes around! Proverbs 26:27, " Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him." Oh, you had better be careful what advice you give to others, especially your own family, because your words might come back to forever haunt you!

Ungodly feminist women (churches are full of them today) in particular are eager to give other women malicious advice to hurt their boyfriend or husband. Watch out! You'd better think twice, because you may live to regret your words and actions. Just like the snake (Satan) in Genesis who destroyed Eve's life, people are often no better than the serpent in the Garden of Eden. And then after they give you destructive advice to ruin your marriage and family, they are never heard from again, just like the disgusting serpent in Genesis chapter 3.

Please kindly tell meddling people to shut up! Get thee behind me, Satan! Many pastor's wives are devils, who will ruin your marriage if you are stupid enough to listen to their toxic feminist advice at a difficult time in your marriage. America's pastors and pastor's wives today are often public enemy number one! Nobody cares about your family any more than you do. Anybody who advises you to file for divorce, or subtly leads you in that direction, has been inspired by demons.

I hope you will read the book of Esther and let this truth sink in dear reader. Haman's wife was an idiot, really. Esther 5:14, "Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and tomorrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made." It wasn't just Mrs. Haman, it was also his so-called

" With lousy friends like that Haman didn't need any enemies!

I titled this article,

Be Careful What Advice You Give To Others.

" But I could have equally titled it,

Be Careful What Advice You Take From Others.

” Haman was a darn fool to take such horrible advice from his wife and friends. You see, those friends weren’t the one’s who would suffer the consequences of Haman’s actions. It is easy for some wicked female Bible college staff member to advise a female student to call the police on her husband, because that staff member doesn’t have to suffer the consequences that follow. That dumbass staff member has zero liability, but she is helping to ruin a marriage. I saw it happen. You are a FOOL if you ever call the police on your spouse, because the police couldn’t care less about shooting people. Many a wives and mothers have rued the day that they ever called the cops on a loved one. I am thinking about a mother who wept bitterly when the police killed her teenage son. He was high on drugs in the backyard. She called the police, thinking it was the best thing to do. The police are trained to kill, kill, kill. You’ve got to be smarter than the average bear folks.

Please be careful what advice you take from people, including a pastor. I thank God that I didn’t take the advice of dozens of dangerous doctors throughout my life, who likely would have killed me with experiential drugs and procedures. One crazy doctor (a neurologist on Guam) wanted to inject Botox into my neck to treat my pain. As I always do, I told him that I needed to go home and think about it. I read online that the U.S. FDA has issued warnings against taking Botox injections. I immediately decided not to take the injections. The FDA warned that you could develop permanent irreversible damage in non-related parts of your body, from where the injection was done. My quack doctor never told me any of that. I believe that everything I have shared with you so far in this blog falls under my favorite Bible verse from Proverbs 4:23, “ Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

May we all be very careful what advice we give and take from others, because it could adversely affect or destroy somebody’s life.

6.4.6 The Most Horrifying Thought Of All (2025-04-12 13:49)

“In FLAMING FIRE taking VENGEANCE on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord...” —2nd Thessalonians 1:8

As I was resting this afternoon, I pondered how horrifying it will be for most people when they die—realizing for the first time in their existence that the Holy Bible was 100 % true, but they rejected it, and now it is TOO LATE and they cannot go back! What a horrifying thought. Can you image dying, and then finding yourself in Hell, tormented in flames of fire, and you know that there is no way out, no escape, no rest, no relief, no water, no mercy, nor compassion, no love, no joy, no peace, no friends, no second chances, no end in sight... DAMNED FOR ALL ETERNITY!!! It will be just like being buried alive! That thought should scare you immensely if you’ve never been born-again by faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ!

All of today's boastful atheists, blasphemers and God-haters will one day bow and confess in eternity that Jesus Christ is Lord of all (Philippians 2:9-10). They will weep bitter tears of regret and sorrow, and gnash their teeth in shock and agony, as they realize they could have spent eternity freely living a life that those in Beverly Hills, California, today could only envy. If you die in your sins friend, how will you feel when you see Christians in Heaven enjoying all that is good (Romans 8:32), but yourself spending eternity suffering without rest in the horrifying Lake of Fire? You will be tormented, miserable and wishing you had never been born. You will be terrified beyond imagination!!! Luke 13:28, "There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out."

Why Pastors Don't Preach On Hell Anymore

I wouldn't give you a dime for a so-called "church" that doesn't preach on Hell, fire and damnation. If your church is dead, please leave. What's the use of going to a church that doesn't have preaching? Why waste your time? Why attend a church that has fallen prey to the Lordship Salvation heresy? Why attend a church that uses a satanic modern Bible version? You won't change them, they'll corrupt you! I'm not saying to leave an imperfect church, God forbid. Albeit, when a pastor is so arrogant and distant from God that he is following heretics like Ravi Zacharias, Billy Graham, Rick Warren, John MacArthur and other ecumenical false prophets, it's time to get out!

Most churches today are DEAD spiritually. I'll tell you, I'm totally disgusted with a capital "D" at today's pathetic churches, especially our Independent Baptist churches. They're no longer truly fundamental with few exceptions. What has happened in America? I'll tell you what has happened. Luke 16:13, "No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon." Very few pastors who serve money are aware of it, because denial is a part of our sinful human nature.

This is why the Bible teaches in Jeremiah 17:9, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?" Most of today's churches are DEAD. I'm talking about the Bob Jones crowd. I'm talking about the Northland Baptist University crowd. I'm talking about the Southwestern Baptist Seminary crowd. I'm talking about the Southern Baptist Convention crowd and Dallas Theological University. I could list thousands of dead theological institutions, Bible colleges, seminaries and groups.

It was Evangelist Billy Sunday who rightly said a century ago...

> "It would be a godsend if the Church would suffer persecution today; she hasn't suffered it for hundreds of years. She is growing rich and lagging behind. Going back."
> SOURCE: Billy Sunday, The Need for Revivals, From "Billy Sunday: The Man and His Message," by William T. Ellis, Philadelphia: John C. Winston Co., 1914

In 2014, a century later after Billy Sunday's indictment of modern churches, nothing further can be said except that Billy Sunday didn't know how right he was!!!

If I had my way, I'd fire every pastor who doesn't preach on Hell. I know a Baptist pastor who won't preach on Hell, but he invites out-of-town evangelists who'll do the dirty work for him and mention Hell. Still, I have more respect for that milquetoast preacher than I do for those shameful preachers who dare not even allow others to mention Hell, fire and damnation from the pulpit. The love of money has destroyed our churches. And by the way, you don't have to be greedy or covetous to SERVE money, you just need to prioritize money over the truth. Notice in Luke 16:13 that the Bible contrasts who you are serving: God or mammon (wealth).

Most religious people fail to understand that only God decides who or what comprises a "church." Mormons are a satanic cult, not a New Testament church. Seventh Day Adventists are a satanic cult, not a Biblical church. Roman Catholicism is a satanic cult, not a Spirit-filled church in any way. Catholics are two-fold the children of Hell, both because they are blinded by false religion and also need to get saved. You can't get saved until you first realize that you are lost. That's what repentance is all about. Repentance is realizing that you are a woeful sinner in the eyes of a holy God, which causes you to see your need for the Savior, Jesus Christ.

There is a Path to Heaven That Leads to Hell

It depresses me when I think about the world's one billion Christ-rejecting Muslims. They're all going straight to Hell when they die. That thought should depress every soul-conscious Christian. Islam (whose UNholy book is the Koran, or Quran) adamantly deny that Jesus is the Christ. 1st John 2:22, "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son." The Holy Bible calls Muslims "liars" and "antichrists"! May I say, Judaism (whose UNholy book is the Talmud) also denies that Jesus is the Christ. Judaizers are also liars and antichrists! There are many ways that Satan blinds and misleads people away from the Gospel (good news) of Jesus Christ by which we are saved (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4) . . .

> Romans 1:15-17, "So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also. For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith."

Jesus' disciples asked Him an amazing question that Christian believers often ask today, two millenniums later...

> Luke 13:23-24, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able."

What horrifying words! Jesus said that MOST people who seek entrance into Heaven's pearly gates will be turned away!!!

I once heard the [1]missionary Paris Reidhead (1919-1992) foolishly say in a sermon titled, "[2]Ten Shekels And A Shirt," that people who only get saved due to fear of going to Hell are false converts. Nothing could be further from the truth! Wanting to escape the fires of Hell is a very good reason to seek salvation.

Here is Paris Reidhead's satanic false plan of salvation . . .

> "Dear friends there's only one reason, one reason, for a sinner to repent—and that's because Jesus Christ deserves the worship, and the adoration, and the love, and the obedience of his heart—not because he'll go to Heaven. If the only reason you repented dear friend was to keep out of Hell, all you are is just a Levite serving for ten shekels and a shirt. That's all! You're trying to serve God because He'll do you good. But a repentant heart is a heart that has seen something of the enormity of the crime of playing God and denying the just and righteous God the worship and the obedience that He deserves.
> Why should a sinner repent? Because God deserves the obedience and love that he has refused to give Him, not so that he'll go to Heaven. [If] The only reason he repents is so that he'll go to Heaven, it's nothing but trying to make a deal or bargain with God. Why should a sinner give up all his sins? Why should he be challenged to do it? Why should he make restitution when he's coming to Christ? Because God deserves the obedience that He demands!
> I have talked with people who have no assurance of sins forgiven. They want to feel saved before they're willing to commit themselves to Christ; but I believe that the only ones whom God actually witnesses (by His Spirit) that they're born-again are the people (whether they say it or not) that come to Jesus Christ and say something like this—'Lord Jesus I'm going to obey you, and love you, and serve you, and do what you want me to do—as long as I live, even if I go to Hell at the end of the road—simply because you are worthy to be loved and served and I'm not trying to make a deal with You!"'
> SOURCE: Dr. Paris Reidhead, from the sermon, "[3]TEN SHEKELS AND A SHIRT"

According to Mr. Reidhead, only repentance which sees God as a holy God and compels a person to turn from their sin and pursue a holy life is acceptable to God. That is a total misrepresentation of the plan of salvation. THE TRUTH is that eternal life is a "free gift" (Romans 5:15, 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9) to anyone who wants it. You don't have to pursue holiness to obtain it, for that would be human effort and self-righteousness.

A changed life is the FRUIT of genuine repentance, and not a part of the ROOT of saving-faith; but you cannot and should not mandate those changes for salvation, because men cannot see into other men's hearts. 1st Samuel 16:7b, "for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart." This is why James spoke of being justified by works in the sight of men (James 2:18-22); whereas Paul spoke of being justified in the eyes of God (Romans 4:5-6).

Please don't confuse sonship with discipleship and fellowship. God put Hebrews 12:6-8 in the Bible for those of His children who choose to live in sin. God chastises and scourges His children, if they are indeed His children!!! God doesn't discipline the Devil's children (John 8:44).

Romans 10:3-4 plainly teaches that we are saved by God's righteousness through faith in Christ Jesus, and not by our own self righteous works. Again, please consider the precious and plain teachings of Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith."

The rich man in Luke 16:19-31 died in his sins without Christ. During his earthly life, the rich man had no interest in the things of God. He lived in splendor in a mansion and enjoyed all the delicacies of life, eating heartily and making merry in his heart daily; but now he is burning in Hell, being tormented in flames...

> Luke 16:22b-24, "the rich man also died, and was buried; And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame."

Please don't wait until it is too late like the rich man in Luke 16:19-31 foolishly did. In Hell (Greek: Hades) he lifted up his voice in torments, begging for a single drop of water, but it was too late. The rich man was shown no mercy by God nor anyone else. Oh, my friend, do not toy with God. Do not tempt the mighty hand of God. Today could be your last day on earth. Please do not miss what just might be your last train to Heaven. The engine is roaring. The train whistle is blowing. The wheels are ready to be set in motion. Are you a secure passenger or a foolish spectator who will be left behind? [4]Now is the time of salvation!!!

The Bible Warns of Everlasting Fire, Torment and Suffering in Hell

I was saddened today as I thought about all the billions of people who are going to burn in Hell for all eternity. Do you realize that even after a trillion years, it won't even be the beginning of one's punishment if they die in their sins without Jesus Christ. Many people, even preachers, have difficulty grasping the reality of eternal punishment; however, we are not as holy as God, so we cannot understand such things as God does. If the Holy Bible says it, that settles it, whether we believe it or not.

Only a complete fool would disregard the inspired Words of God...

> Revelation 20:10-15, "And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever. And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire."

Jesus warned of the fire that shall never be quenched in Hell. Presently, unsaved people go to Hades (Hell) when they die, waiting trial at The Great White Throne of Judgment (Revelation 20:11-15), at which time they will be sentenced and cast into Gehenna (Hell), which is the Lake of Fire forever (for an in-depth study on Hell, please see: [5]A Biblical Examination of Hell)...

> Mark 9:44-48, "And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea. And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched: Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched: Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire: Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched."

The Lake of Fire (Greek: Gehenna) is a place of torment with fire and brimstone. There is smoke. There will be no rest day nor night forever. This is the future home of all the damned who die in their sins without Christ, and those who worshipped THE BEAST...

Revelation 14:9-13, “And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name. Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.”

"And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire." —Revelation 20:11

6.4.7 Beware Of Another Jesus (2025-04-14 12:49)

2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him."

The Apostle Paul warns us about another Jesus in our text Scripture passage. Many religions propagate a false narrative of who Jesus really is. Take for example the Mormon religious cult. Contrary to the inspired Holy Bible, Mormons believe that Jesus was first made by God the Father, then he progressed, eventually became exalted to godhood and is now [1]united in purpose (this is a Mormon website) and power with the Father. According to perverse Mormon theology, Jesus was merely a man who became a god; as opposed to the eternal Son who took on flesh (John 1:1-3, 14).

Like the Jehovah's Witness cult, Mormons teach that Jesus was the brother of Lucifer. Mormons falsely teach that Jesus proposed a better plan of redemption than Lucifer and won the designation of "Messiah." Mormons bizarrely teach that Jesus Mormons talk about a Jesus who was the spirit child of Heavenly Father and Heavenly Mother. They refer to Jesus as the brother of Lucifer who proposed a better plan of redemption and won the designation "Messiah." They believe in a Jesus who filled in the gap of humanity's need through his atoning sweat in the garden. [2]Mormons strangely believe (this is a Mormon website) that Jesus paid for ours sins in the Garden of Gethsemane while agonizing, where the Bible says His sweat was as great drops of blood (Luke 22:44); rather than redeeming us as the Bible teaches through His sacrifice on the cross of Calvary (Hebrews 12:2).

Beware of another Jesus dear reader! Mormons have another Jesus! John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." You cannot " believe on him (the Son)

Jesus if you have THE WRONG Jesus. We "see the Son" in the inspired Holy Bible, as He really is, the virgin-born eternal Son of God, the sinless Christ, who was crucified on a cross for our sins! But tragically Mormons, Muslims, Jehovah's Witnesses, Buddhists and Roman Catholics, to name but a few groups of infidels, have ANOTHER JESUS who cannot save anyone. Putting your trust (faith, reliance) in ANOTHER JESUS cannot produce the new birth (i.e., to be born again) which Jesus warned is mandatory to enter into the Kingdom of God (John 3:1-7).

We know Scripturally that Satan is a finite created being a malevolent fallen archangel

Lucifer. Jesus always existed, because He is almighty God (Revelation 1:8). Contrary to what all the tampered with modern Bible revisions say, God did not create all things

Jesus; but rather, all things were made by

Jesus (John 1:3 - King James Bible

). I cannot warn you enough to avoid all modern English revisions of the Bible, because they have been perverted by wicked sinners. Only the King James Bible is the inspired trustworthy Word of God.

Beware of another Jesus! I recently shared the Gospel with a woman. She is 52 years old, a mother of 6 children, and she told me that she has a degree in psychology. Oh boy! As she talked about the “energy” exerted between us humans and our need to maintain proper “frequencies” for our overall well-being, it didn’t take me very long to sadly realize that she has been sucked hook, line and sinker into the demonic New Age movement. Sadly, she declined to accept a free hard copy that I kindly offered her of Michael P. Bowen’s helpful book, “[3]I Never Knew You” (free .pdf version), which presents the Gospel beautifully. She sadly doesn’t want the truth (2nd Timothy 3:7). I have learned over the duration of my lifetime that secular psychology is practically synonymous with heathen New Age doctrine. I feel sorry for this woman. She has been lied to by Satan, drawn into the wacky New Age religion. I believe New Age will be the religion of the coming Antichrist, the Man of Sin, whom the Bible says will worship “the god of forces” (Daniel 11:38).

When it comes to salvation, we don’t accomplish some of it and then allow Jesus to finish it. Sadly, this is the garbage being preached in most churches today, which tragically includes most Baptist churches. [4]Lordship Salvation mixes works with grace, perverting God’s simple plan of salvation. Lordship Salvation cannot produce the new birth that is required to enter into Heaven. But that is ANOTHER GOSPEL, in this blog we’re addressing ANOTHER JESUS. You cannot be born again if you believe that Jesus is merely a good man who once lived upon the earth.

The famous civil rights activist and Baptist preacher, [5]Martin Luther King Jr., wickedly denied Jesus’ deity. King also denied Jesus’ virgin birth and physical resurrection. Although he was a Baptist preacher, Mr. King no doubt went to Hell when he was assassinated in 1968 (John 8:24). NO ONE is a born again Christian who denies Jesus’ deity, virgin birth and bodily resurrection. That is ANOTHER JESUS! To be saved, you MUST believe on the correct Jesus.

Let’s examine the Jehovah’s Witness’ (JW’s) cult. JW’s errantly believe that Jesus and Lucifer are brothers. They teach that Michael the archangel became Jesus on earth, and then when Christ went back to Heaven, he became Michael again. We know biblically that Jesus has always been the eternal Son of God. Renee Roland is a popular female preacher on YouTube. Sadly, [6]she foolishly teaches that Jesus didn’t became the Son of God until he came to earth. Kindly said, I believe that Renee is not saved. She denies that Christ-rejecters will spend eternity burning in the literal fires of Hell. She denies the eternal Sonship of Jesus. Renee propagates ANOTHER JESUS that is not the same Jesus portrayed in the inspired Holy Bible!

Going back to the Jehovah Witnesses, their cult also has ANOTHER JESUS. JW's deny that Jesus is almighty God. They instead errantly teach that Jesus is " a god,

but not The God. However, we read in Revelation 1:8 that Jesus called Himself the Almighty.

" In John 10:33 we clearly see that Jesus claimed to be God, for which the wicked unbelieving Pharisees stoned Him in an attempt to murder the Lord.

I tell you with all biblical authority dear reader that there is no salvation in these false religions. Hellbound Roman Catholics also have ANOTHER JESUS. They elevate Mary (Jesus' biological mother) to the level of Christ Himself, even in some cultures teaching that Mary is a

"co-redemptrix

" with Christ, helping to save sinners. Catholics are sinfully taught to pray to Mary, so that she will go soften Jesus' heart to get their prayers answered. That is evil ideology! The Bible plainly teaches in 1st Timothy 2:5-6, "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time." Jesus is the only Mediator (the God-man) who intercedes between God and men. Jesus again makes this truth plain to see in John 14:6, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." Mary was a dirty guilty sinner, just like you and me and everyone else; she cannot do anything to help get your prayers answered, and it is very evil to think otherwise.

Have you believed another Jesus friend? In Islam, a deadly false religion, they teach in the Koran that Jesus is not the only begotten Son of God. What saith the Scripture? 1st John 2:22-23, "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also."

As you talk with different people throughout your life, you will discover as I have that there are all kinds of strange, dangerous and unbiblical ideas in society. You'll find every philosophy from A to Z, from soup to nuts! For this reason it is imperative that we (as God's redeemed children) be firmly grounded and settled in the inspired Holy Bible.

> Colossians 1:21-23a, " And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreproveable in his sight: If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven... "

This passage of inspired Scripture is not teaching that you can lose God's free gift of eternal life, nor that we must labor to maintain a state of salvation. Salvation is not a state which we must strive to remain in; but rather, a new birth—a one time supernatural miracle by God's Holy Spirit. This passage, in my humble opinion, simply refers to people who attend church for years without ever being born again, so in time they leave because they were never really saved at all. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again.

The true Jesus of the Holy Bible (all Scriptures references are only to the King James Bible):

- Jesus always existed as God, and the Son of God (Hebrews 13:8)
- Jesus is a member of the Godhead, aka, the Trinity (Matthew 28:19-20; 1st John 5:7)
- Jesus was not created, but He did create all things (John 1:3)
- Jesus is the incarnate (made flesh) Word of God (John 1:1-3, 14; Revelation 19:13)
- Jesus was born of a virgin (Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 1:23)
- Jesus was God upon the earth (1st Timothy 3:16; Colossians 2:9)
- Jesus is the only begotten Son of God (John 3:16)
- Jesus is the Christ (John 20:31)
- Jesus never sinned one time (Hebrews 4:15)
- Jesus died on a cross to pay for our sins (1st Corinthians 1:17; 1st Corinthians 15:1-6)
- Jesus was buried in a tomb
  (1st Corinthians 15:1-6)
- Jesus resurrected physically from the dead after three days (1st Corinthians 15:1-6)
- Jesus physically ascended into Heaven in a body (Acts 1:11)
- Jesus physically exists in Heaven, sitting on a throne to the Father's right side (Colossians 3:1).
- Jesus is physically coming back to the earth in the future (Revelation 1:7)

These are biblical fundamental truths, aka, the doctrine of Christ (2nd John 1:9-10). Please don't let anyone deceive you by selling you a counterfeit Jesus.

6.4.8 Why Secular Psychology Cannot Help You (2025-04-17 00:00)

Psalms 1:1-3, “

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.”

Secular psychologists are all false prophets! They offer no hope to their patients. Whereas the inspired Word of God teaches that faith in Jesus Christ is the ONLY source of true hope for humanity, secular psychology will NEVER mention the name of Jesus as the source of hope and healing.

> 1st Peter 1:3-5, “ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time."

When a secular psychologist fails to tell their clients about Jesus, how can they offer anyone hope? 1st Corinthians 15:19-20, "

If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept.

" Our text passage of Scripture from a Psalms 1:1-3 warns against walking in the COUNSEL of the ungodly. This is why you should never seek counsel from a secular psychology.

Now, if you have a mental health problem that is beyond the realm of biblical counseling, then you might need medication (drugs) to cope with your affliction. So, you may need help from a licensed psychiatrist who can legally prescribe drugs (a psychologist cannot prescribe drugs). I heard my favorite preacher, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), say in a sermon that some people do need help from a psychiatrist. I fully agree. There are some crazy people in this world who need help that is beyond the capabilities of the local New Testament church. Albeit, having said that, I firmly believe that at least 95 % of people who go to a psychiatrist don't need to. Their problem is sin. There problem is rebellion against the God of the inspired King James Bible. My long time ministry friend, Pastor Max Younce (1935-2023), preached a helpful sermon on this very topic...

Pastor Max D. Younce Human Wisdom Verses Divine Wisdom 1 of 2

The heathen world (including secular psychology) doesn't recognize sin as the core culprit of humanity's problems and failures. Secular psychologists won't ever tell you the truth that your mental problems are likely caused by your unwillingness to receive Jesus Christ as your personal savior, and that living in rebellion against the inspired Holy Bible will ruin your life. Psalms 9:17, "

The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

” A non-Christian counselor forgets God. He or she legally is not even allowed to counsel you on the basis of Scriptural teachings. If they did, they could lose their professional license as a psychologist, and risk rejection and scorn from heathen peers.

The Holy Bible teaches that in many cases God wants us to suffer. Yes, you read right (1st Peter 1:7-9). Suffering helps to conform us more into the image of Christ. The Apostle Paul teaches us as believers to rejoice in our afflictions, health problems and hardships, because when we are weak we are strong in Christ (2nd Corinthians 12:9-10). This is the exact opposite of what the foolish world teaches! The world teaches the foolish idea popularize by Charles Darwin in the 19th century that only the strong survive. But the Bible teaches that only the weak survive in Christ. God will use a proud Christian (James 4:6). Secular psychology won't tell you the truth that suffering is meaningful and even necessary for Christian growth.

Whereas the heathen world tells us to believe in our self, the inspired Holy Bible commands us instead to trust in God (Mark 11:22). Secular psychology won't tell you the importance of forgiving others on the basis that God forgives those who trust in His only begotten Son (Ephesians 4:32). Since all my sins have been forgiven by faith alone in Jesus Christ, I am commanded by God to forgive others. To refuse to forgive those people who have hurt us in the past may cause mental depression, frustration and anger issues. The first step to forgive others is to let God forgive you, by trusting Christ as your Savior. You will never be able to love others until you first allow God to love you (1st John 4:19).

1st Peter 2:2-3 tells us to “ desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious. ” A secular psychologist won't tell you this truth. Psychologists will often blame your parents, you, your spouse or other external factors in your life, but they won't tell you what the Bible says.

Proverbs 14:27, “ The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death. ” Only a fool tries to counsel someone how to live a happy life apart from faith in Jesus Christ.

I recently met a 52 year old woman who went to school in her youth to become a secular psychologist. She couldn't even carry on a normal conversation with me without speaking of God as merely the “energy” in the universe, and talking about maintaining proper “human frequencies” for good health and wellbeing. I discerned in less than a minute that she sadly has been sucked into the Devil's New Age movement. I shared the Gospel with her and offered a free hard copy of Michael P. Bowen's helpful book, “

[1]I Never Knew You.

” Tragically, she rejected the book and said she wasn't interested in learning how to go to Heaven. One day in eternity she will rue the day that she turned down the Good News of Jesus Christ.

I have learned in life that secular psychology and New Age are often closely related. The problem is that the heathen world are attempting to solve their own dilemmas without the inspired Word of God. 2nd Timothy 3:7,

Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

” The inspired Word of God contains the answers to life's problems. Secular psychology fails to recognize the reality of sin, which is the core of man's miseries. In sharp contrast, the Holy Bible identifies the origin of sin in the Garden of Eden (Romans 5:12), and identifies the remedy for sin through faith in Jesus Christ (Romans 5:1).

6.4.9 Most Preachers Are Wrong On The Gospel (2025-04-19 10:07)

Acts 15:1 and 24, "And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. ...Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment..."

I love this passage of inspired Scripture from the King James Bible. A group of unsaved false prophets came to Jerusalem preaching another gospel, saying that you must keep the law (i.e., turn from your sins) to be saved. As a result of this false teaching, quite a controversy was stirred in Jerusalem. The matter was brought to the attention of Jesus' disciples. The Apostle James clears up the matter in Acts 15:24 by confirming that the apostles DID NOT preach such damnable heresy!

I recently found this meme below, which is excellent. Truly a picture is worth a thousand words. The meme emphasis the many alterations and perversions which exist today concerning God's simple of salvation. ...

Thankfully, we do not have to wonder or speculate what the true Gospel (which means "Good News") is because the inspired Word of God plainly tells us...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-6, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

The Gospel is comprised of THREE things:

1. Jesus DIED on a cross to pay for our sins
2. Jesus was BURIED
3. Jesus bodily RESURRECTED from the dead three days later

These are the FACTS which you must place your trust (faith, reliance) in to be saved. Simply take God at His Word as recorded in the inspired Holy Bible, believing the record which God has given to humanity concerning His only begotten Son, Jesus, the Christ. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." The purpose for which God authored the Book of John is to convince you and me, the readers, that Jesus came to earth as God in the flesh, the only biological (begotten) Son of almighty God; and to convince us that Jesus is the Christ, the promised Messiah who would take away the sins of the world. John 1:29, "The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world."

It Is Easy, Simple And Free To Get To Heaven

God intentionally made his plan of salvation very simple because there are a lot of educible slow, uneducated and mentally challenged people in the world. I say that kindly, but realistically. Some people have permanent brain damage from a chronic childhood disease or a traumatic injury. The dear Lord wanted to make it super easy to get to Heaven. Christ paid for our ticket to Heaven in full with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). Jesus has already paid for everyone's sins! That is why it is very wrong for any preacher to teach lost sinners to pray and ask God to forgive their sins! You don't need to "

God to save your sins, because Jesus has already paid your debt of sin on the cross 2,000 years ago. John 6:47,

" Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." To go to Heaven, all you need to do is simply BELIEVE that Jesus has already done it all for you!

Bible Repentance Doesn't Mean To Turn From Sin

Jonah 3:10 says, **"

And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way. Turning from their evil way was WORKS.

" Turning from sin is WORKS! That is a good work, but it is still a self-righteous work. And Titus 3:5 says, **"

Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost.

" According to Jonah 3:10, turning from sin is a work.

If you tell a lost person that they must " turn from sin

" (or be willing to turn from sin) to be saved, you are preaching a WORKS-BASED PLAN OF SALVATION. A lost person can turn from sin and still go to Hell as a reformed, religious person. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. That is tragically what Roman Catholics, Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Churches of Christ, Lutherans, Seventh-Day Adventists and other religious cults are all doing—living the Christian life without having ever been BORN AGAIN. Jesus said in no uncertain terms in John 3:3b, "Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

I thank and praise our good God for the small handful of faithful Bible preachers who teach Bible repentance correctly. One such godly man was Mark Cambron (1911-2000), who penned these helpful words...

Dr. Mark G. Cambron Has Repentance 100 % Correct

Here is an excellent and needful writing by [2]Dr. Mark G. Cambron (1911-2000) on the subject of REPENTANCE. Please read the following quote carefully, because Dr. Cambron is one of few theologian who gets it, that is, he understands the simplicity of the Gospel and that repentance does not mean turning from sin as proponents of Lordship Salvation foolishly teach...

Repentance is necessary for salvation.

The Greek word for repent is metanoeo, which, translated into English is: to change ones mind. It does not mean to turn from sin. That would add works to salvation.

Repentance for salvation means a change of mind from men's ideas of salvation and religion, to an acceptance of Gods only way of salvation.

This results in a completely new creation, not a reformation of the old. The old nature remains as evil as ever after salvation and has not been reformed . . . The old nature can now be controlled by the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit.

God guarantees salvation. This is His gift to us.
God guarantees reward and fruit to the obedient son.
God guarantees chastening and loss of rewards to the disobedient son.

God does not cast out disobedient children, but in some cases, does take them home. He does not permit His children to live as they please without His discipline and guidance.

Many teach repentance for salvation incorrectly, by including some form of human effort or righteousness, such as willingness to turn from sin, or turning from sin. This is heresy and has confused many people. It adds works to salvation and causes many to not understand Gods great gift. It is probation, not salvation. It is completely unscriptural. It is Galatianism and a counterfeit of the gospel.

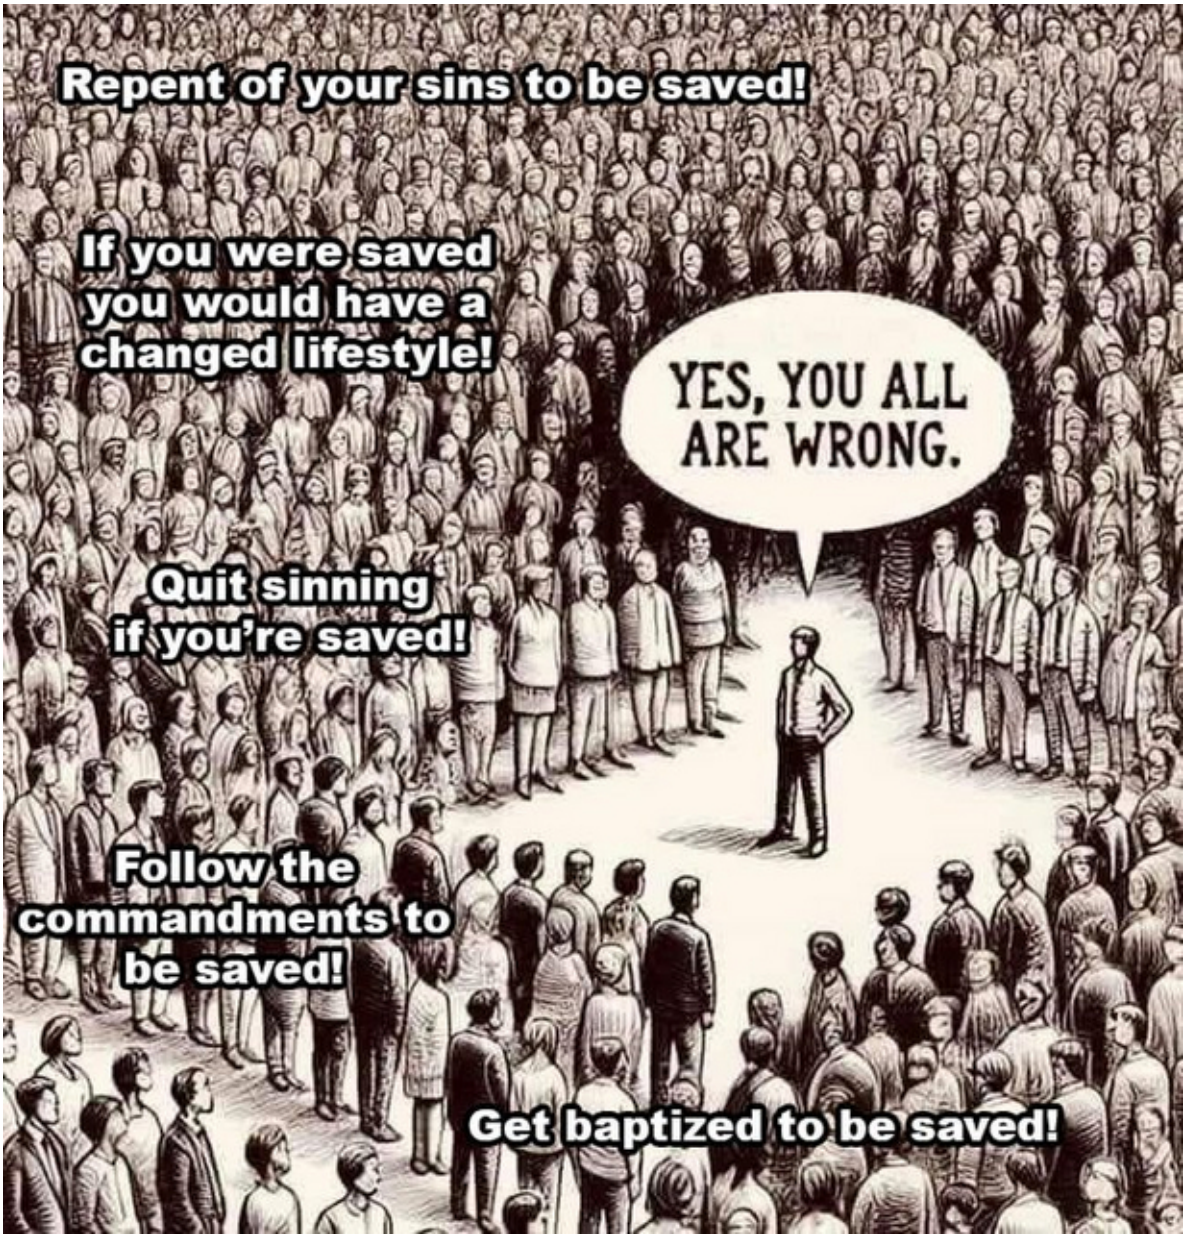
It is a tragedy that many Christians live shallow Christian lives. The Cambron Institute is dedicated to the task of training Christian men and women in the importance of total dedication and making Jesus the Lord of their lives not to be saved but because they are saved.

Shallow Christianity cannot be cured by adding works to salvation.

Salvation is not the result of what we do, but is by receiving what God has done for us. Acts 13:38, 39; Acts 20:20: Gal. 1:8,9; Gal. 2:4; Gal. 2:21; Gal. 3:1.3; Gal. 5:1-4; Eph. 2:8-10; II Cor. 5:21;John 3:16-18; Phil. 3:9; Titus 3:5-8:11 Cor. 11:13-1 5.

SOURCE: [3]The Cambron Institute



I'm really sick and tired of people corrupting the Gospel of Christ and God's plan of salvation. Lordship Salvation is a LIE STRAIGHT FROM HELL. I'm all for turning from sin in Christ's strength as a Christian, but turning from sin is NOT what it means to repent to be saved. Matthew 27:3 tells us that Judas Iscariot repented of his sins, but sadly Judas died in his sins and went to Hell forever. Judas never changed his mind (which is what true repentance means) to admit that he was a guilty sinner, and that Jesus is the only Savior.

I'm sick and I'm tired of Lordship Salvation, Wrong Repentance, Baptismal Regeneration, Sacramental Salvation and ALL FORMS of FALSE GOSPELS. People are horrifyingly headed to Hell to burn in fire and brimstone forever. WAKE UP dear reader! False prophets must stop corrupting the Gospel. The old adage is very true: If the shoe fits, wear it!

God loves you and I do too dear friend. I have never received a penny for all my 50,000 hours plus of hard work day and night on my website and blog ministry since 2002 when I began by God's grace. It has been my joy and privilege to live for OTHERS as I serve my blessed God, King, Lord and precious Savior, Jesus. Jesus is precious!!!

Ephesians 5:16, " Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. "

6.4.10 Only Cults Teach You Must Ask God To Forgive Your Sins (2025-04-20 00:50)

I just blocked out a troublemaker on Facebook for his hatred and harassment. He got upset with me today for sharing [1]a sermon excerpt by Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023), which tells THE TRUTH that only cults teach you must "ask" God to forgive your sins to be saved.

Here are two exact asinine quotes that the troublemaker made today in a message to me (the typos are his)…

- “you might deceive old ifb people, but not new ifb”
- “im not gonna let you criticize pastor anderson nor the sinners prayer.”

First, I never mentioned Pastor Steven Anderson in my post, I simply uploaded an excerpt from Dr. Max Younce. I love and promote Brother Anderson. Although I do not agree with him on several issues, I am his ministry friend and thank God for him.

Second, I dread the so-called “Sinner’s Prayer.” For several years after I got saved at age 13 in 1980, I needlessly experienced inexplicable fear and worry in tears, not knowing if I was really saved or going to Hell, all because ignorant Baptist preachers and false prophets like Jack Chick had wickedly lied to me time and time again, by foolishly saying that you have to pray a Sinner’s Prayer to get to Heaven. I was stuck in a no win situation in a pit of worry and despair, unable to settle my salvation. I prayed several dozen times, asking God to save me again and again, but I still didn’t have the sweet blessed assurance of salvation that I so desperately desired and needed.

It wasn’t until decades later that I finally learned from Pastor Max Younce that I didn’t need to pray at all to be saved, BELIEVING was enough!!! That settled it all in my soul and I haven’t worried for one second since. Finally, I had the sweet blessed assurance that my name is written in the Lamb’s Book of Life in Heaven. There is no greater joy, peace and reason to live each day, than to KNOW beyond any shadow of a doubt that you are 100 % saved certain. Thank you Jesus!!!

Also, by unwisely leading a lost sinner to pray a Sinner’s Prayer, you are running the risk of confusing them. You cannot show me one place in the Bible where a Christian led someone to Christ by saying, “Repeat the following words after me…” That is superstitious tommyrot, balderdash, poppycock, flapdoodle, claptrap and blahblah nonsense. We need to get back to preaching THE WORD OF GOD!!! There are too many hands in the pot nowadays. It seems like every church has their own homemade recipe for salvation. The Apostle Paul sternly warned in Galatians 1:6-9 that there has always been only ONE GOSPEL.

Beware of religious nuts like Peter S. Ruckman, Robert Breaker, Samuel C. Gipp, William P. Grady and other heretics who FALSELY teach that people were saved by WORKS in the Old Testament under the law of Moses. They were saved by grace through faith in Christ, just like we still are today (Acts 10:43).

Therefore, you can now understand why I frown heavily upon the Sinner’s Prayer, and so should you dear friend. I stopped using the Sinner’s Prayer 15 years ago. I am not overly critical of pastors who choose to still use the Sinner’s Prayer, but for the aforementioned reasons I don’t like it. At what point in Baptist church history did we go astray to change BELIEVING to PRAYING to be saved?

And also let me kindly say that I believe lost sinners who pray a Sinner’s Prayer do get saved, just so long as they understand that faith is what saves them, and not saying a prayer. It is perfectly fine to accompany one’s faith with a prayer, or even ask God to forgive your sins, but these things are not required to be saved. The great danger comes when the New IFB mandate saying a prayer and asking God for forgiveness of sins to be saved, which at a minimum confuses people, and at worst hinders them from seeing the true Gospel. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Kindly said, the man who is upset with me and Pastor Younce is a darn fool, because he is following the perverse teachings of a man (Pastor Steven Anderson) instead of basing what he believes on the inspired Word of God. [illegible] 1:1, "[illegible]: [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]; [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]." I love Brother Anderson, but he is very wrong to lead the New IFB (who are not independent at all because they all follow his doctrine) to believe that you must PRAY and ASK to be saved.

Third, I am not going to allow anyone to belittle me for preaching what I sincerely believe to be the truth. I had to block out the same troublemaker last year because of his horrible bullying, hateful spirit and arrogance. In an act of kindness, I unblocked everyone on Facebook on January 1st, 2025.

Unfortunately, people like him never learn. In his own world view, Pastor Steven Anderson can do no wrong and whatever he says is truth. We know that no preacher is always 100 % right. Even though I humbly disagree with Pastor Anderson on several doctrinal points, I still love, respect and promote his soulwinning ministry. You don't have to agree with me on everything to be my friend.

I kindly warned the troublemaker (he lives in Canada) that I will not allow him to harass and bully me because I don't agree with the New IFB that prayer is required to be saved. The Bible plainly teaches that BELIEVING THE GOSPEL is enough to be saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). Anybody who insists that you must pray and ask God to forgive your sins to get to Heaven is a damned liar!!!

Jesus has already paid for everyone's sins with His precious blood 2,000 years ago on the cross of Calvary. Therefore, God is offering everyone forgiveness of sins and eternal life as a gift. All you need to do to obtain that gift is to receive it by faith. Simply take God at His word as recorded in the written Holy Bible. If you will simply believe the account, which God has recorded in His Word concerning Jesus Christ, you will be instantly and forever born again. It's that simple! We are the SINNERS; Jesus is the SAVIOR!

You do NOT need to pray, ask or confess to God to be saved. What saith the Scripture? [illegible] 10:9-10, "[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]: [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

The inspired King James Bible exposes the New IFB as liars in this important matter. I didn't bring up the New IFB today, one of their zealous lunatic cult followers did. There are all types of cults. The New IFB are all members of Steven Anderson's cult. That is what it is. By definition, even Christianity could be considered a cult. The dictionary defines "cult" as: "Adherents of an exclusive system of religious beliefs and practices." The New IFB are very exclusive, all adhering to the personal beliefs of one man since 2006, Steven Anderson. I love the New IFB, but some of their lunatic followers are attacking me for disagreeing with their heresy that you cannot go to Heaven without asking to have your sins forgiven and praying a Sinner's Prayer.

Having said all that, I am not saying that people who accompany their faith with a prayer are not saved, just so long as they understand that BELIEVING (trusting) on Christ is what saves them, and not trusting in a prayer or repeating some religious words. I heard a fool say on a Christian radio station several years ago that she was saved at age 3 when she prayed, "

The Jesus' prayer.

It was so obvious that she was mocking and blaspheming the Word of God, but this was said on a popular Christian radio station. She is obviously a child of the Devil. And even if she was serious, NO ONE has ever been born again by praying some stupid prayer.

Nowhere in the inspired Holy Bible, do we find a Christian leading someone to Christ by asking them to: repeat the following words after me.

Such nonsense is superstitious rubbish. I am very much against the FALSE DOCTRINE that you cannot be saved without praying, calling or asking God to do so. Jesus has already paid in full our debt of sin. 1st John 2:2,

"And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." In view of this passage of Scripture, I don't see how anyone could accept the Calvinist lie of Limited Atonement (i.e., the heresy that Jesus only died for the saints). Clearly, this passage teaches that Jesus died for the whole world, and not just for "

Much needless confusion, worry and pain has been caused by requiring lost sinners to pray an unbiblical Sinner's Prayer to get to Heaven. In God's simple plan of salvation, He only requires that you (by faith) receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full-payment for your sins, believing that Jesus was buried, but then miraculously resurrected from the dead three days later. This is the only

according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-6.

It is not wrong to ask God to forgive your sins to be saved, nor to accompany your faith with a prayer, but these things are NOT necessary nor required to get to Heaven. The big problem

I have is with today's corrupt preachers who wickedly teach that you cannot get to Heaven unless you pray, call or ask, when the inspired Holy Bible plainly teaches that all you need to do is BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (John 3:16, 6:28-29, 40; John 11:25-26; Acts 16:30-31; Galatians 3:26; 1st Thessalonians 4:14).

Any so-called "church" that perverts, complicates or confuses the simplicity that is in Christ is a cult. Sadly, most of our Baptist churches and religious colleges today have become cults, because they have strayed away from the true Gospel of free grace. Most of them now teach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation or Misunderstood Repentance. Others distort God's simple plan of salvation by foolishly teaching that you must pray, call or ask to be saved. May we all contend for the faith by making sure to expose those who tamper with the Gospel (Jude 1:3).

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) said these wise words to set the matter straight about the Sinner's Prayer regarding the new birth...

> "'Pray to be saved. Ask the Lord to save you.' This is what I heard a minister say to a convicted sinner who came forward for prayer at the close of an evangelistic service. Nowhere in the Bible are men told to pray to be saved. There are examples where men did pray and were saved. Men are told to repent, to believe, to obey the Gospel, but the Bible never says to pray for salvation. It does say that whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved, but nowhere does the Bible command men to pray to be saved. I think I know why, God, who made the human heart, knew that it was not necessary to tell convicted sinners to pray. If a sinner can see Jesus Christ on the cross, it is as natural for him to pray as it is for birds to sing or flowers to bloom. 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."' —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," chapter: Prayer And Praise, page 163; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) also set this matter straight regarding the Sinner's Prayer...

6.4.11 My Thoughts Regarding The Florida School Shooting (2025-04-21 09:03)

Isaiah 1:4-5, "Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward. Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint."

I just heard about the Florida shooting. The daily news is so negative that I try not to follow it too closely, but I do think it is important to stay informed to some degree. I usually watch Lester Holt weeknights on NBC.

I agree with President Trump, who said yesterday that guns don't kill people, people kill people. In this particular case in Florida (where a 20 year old young man took his mother's service gun and murdered two fellow students), it is the irresponsible mother's fault, who works as a deputy sheriff. She should have had her service gun locked up in a secure gun safe. Since we never know what is going through someone else's mind, we must take precautions. Always be on guard.

Guns aren't the problem. Our morally deteriorating culture is the problem! Kids and teens are brats today. I have been bullied at most jobs I have worked throughout my life. I was horribly bullied in school as a kid. I was beat up walking home from grade school, had my neck burned with a hot pen in 5th grade by a punk student, got beat up in the school coat room in 3rd grade, was pushed down in an alley by a gang on the way to the dentist as a teen, et cetera. It doesn't surprise me why kids, teens and adults snap. I was bullied even worse by wicked adults in the secular workplace. The kids do like their wicked parents. People are wicked sinners!

Our wicked government removed prayer and Bible reading from all public (government) schools, since 1962, which has been the nails in our coffin as a country. It's not hard to figure out why American society is a disaster today. Our culture's music videos and movies exalt sexual immorality and all manner of filth and evil. We've allowed the Devil to destroy us with our freedom. The Bible says in Daniel that "by peace" the Antichrist "shall destroy many." That is, Satan will destroy us with the very liberty that made us free. Humanity is doomed because of sin. Mankind is inherently evil, even though I think most people are good in character (as far as sinners go). Most people don't want to hurt their neighbours, but we all have the potential to commit horrible sins.

From what I have seen in the news, most of the active shooter situations involve youth today. Children need Jesus! Our government (federal and state) always seem to have money for the wrong things, but don't invest in our youth to keep them off the streets. Our foolish government spent a staggering $6,200,000,000,000 just on the illegal Iraqi war (2003-2011) that the U.S. congress never approved. George W Bush is an evil monstrous war criminal. His evil CIA father (who attended the Episcolapian church where Wiccan witches also attend) is already burning in Hell forever. Truly, Satan is the god of this world (2nd Corinthians 4:4).

Pastor Lester Roloff (1914-1982) said it very well: "America was 'great' when she was good, and she was good when she had great churches." Those days are long gone! The television since the 1950's has replaced the local church in popularity. The vast majority of churches thriving in attendance today are apostate cults! Sadly, 99 % of local churches are spiritually dead. Most churches are almost empty and only elderly people attend. Nearly all of our churches died a long time ago. Pastors are no longer Bible preachers. Hardly any pastors contend for the faith anymore. They just want an easy life, and to collect their undeserved paycheck. There is a wicked spirit of lull over our churches and nation today, so that no one really cares anymore about fearing and pleasing God.

Things will only wax much worse! Homelessness is just getting started across the country. The economy will get worse. The Federal Reserve since 1913 is a massive Ponzi Scheme which is destined to utterly fail. The only way to keep the scam going is to continue the reckless government's debt spending. I honestly think President Trump's efforts to knock down our nation's $36,000,000,000,000 in debt will only encourage the next Democrat President to spend four times more (trillions)! Jesus warned that a house divided cannot continue to stand. Brother Lester Roloff was right: "We're in insanity because of sin."

Thank you James for sharing your spiritual insights with me. The public shootings are truly heartbreaking. I was shocked to learn last year that on average there have been at least 600 mass shooting across the United States every year, for over the past 10 years. Morality cannot be legislated! There are already over one million existing guns laws, codes and regulations, which hasn’t stopped the murders. And if our government eventually does (and I assure you that THEY WILL) ban guns and ammunition sales, young people will simply use the family car to murder their victims instead. Since October of 2022, Canada has banned the sale, purchase or trade of guns nationwide. That tyranny will ultimate come to the United States. We will be in even more big trouble when only the government jackboot thugs have guns and the public doesn’t. [1]Look what happened in 1936 Spain when the people were forced to surrender their guns.

That scenario COULD happen again in America! The people found themselves helpless, unarmed. I refuse to own a gun because I don’t trust myself with one, but I am a strong advocate for the Second Amendment right to arm bears, I mean bear arms. Right now we are experiencing the illusion of freedom in America. Tyranny is rarely seen except by those oppressed by it. Our elderly people in the United States, who have to take bus trips to Canada to purchase affordable prescription drugs, certainly don’t feel "free." Pain sufferers like myself, who cannot obtain anything more than the least amount of pain drugs, certainly don’t feel like we live in a "free" society.

Ask the 65,000,000 murdered American babies in the womb since 1973 if they feel like this is a "free" country. Or ask the afflicted man that I used to work with in Chicago, whose wife commit adultery and got pregnant by another man, and then the ungodly judge forced the woman’s betrayed husband to pay child support for the bastard child, if he feels like this is a "free" country. Since 2017 Google has wickedly censored 95 % of my web traffic for Jesus-is-Savior.com, reducing my annual total web visitors from 17 million in 2017 down to 1 million in 2024. I sure don’t feel like I am living in a "free" country.

Mark 7:7-9, “

Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do. And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition."

Sadly, Jorge Mario Bergoglio (1936-2025), the 226th Catholic Pope, who served as Pope for 12 years, [1]died on Easter Sunday. But I am saddened, not because he died, but because without a shred of doubt he went to Hell to burn forever in fire and brimstone. John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

There is not a more diabolical and fraudulent religion on earth than that of Roman Catholicism. Tragically, over one billion lost souls are trusting in the counterfeit plan of salvation taught by the Vatican. Case in point, here is a disturbing article from 2018 titled, "Pope Francis tells us how to get to heaven." Here is an excerpt from the poisonous article:

> The pope writes that Jesus taught us what it means to be holy when he preached the Beatitudes found in Matthew's Gospel (Mt 5:3-11). The same Gospel tells us that to get to heaven, we should feed the sick, give drink to the thirsty, welcome the stranger, clothe the naked, care for the sick and visit the prisoner (Mt 25:31-46). [emphasis added]

What liars! Jesus tells the true account of a group of people who died and were standing before Him in judgment. They boasted of having done "many wonderful works" in Jesus' name, but Christ denied knowing them as His sheep (Matthew 7:21-23). Jesus plainly told them that they had failed to do the will of the Father, which according to John 6:40 is to BELIEVE ON JESUS CHRIST (cf. John 20:31; Galatians 3:26).

According to the Satanic tommyrot you just read from the archdiocese of Indianapolis in The Criterion, the way to Heaven is to live a holy life. But the inspired Holy Bible teaches something drastically different. According to God's Word, even our best works are grotesque filth to God. Isaiah 64:6, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away." The only righteousness that I have as a human being is the imputed righteousness of God which is through faith alone in Jesus Christ. Philippians 3:9-10a, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith : That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection..." Salvation is of the LORD.

In 2013, [3]Pope Francis told atheists around the world that they could still go to Heaven, even if they didn't believe in God, if they just sincerely followed their conscience. What saith the Scripture?

Psalms 14:1, "The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good." Proverbs 14:12, " There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." Pope Francis couldn't have been more wrong!

It saddens me to know that Pope Francis is now burning in Hell forever. But you say, "Wait a minute Brother David, you don't know where the Pope went!"

Yes, unfortunately I do, because the Bible clearly warns in Romans 3:20, "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." Pope Francis made it very clear that he was not trusting in Christ alone.

The False Christianity Of Vice President JD Vance

We are living in perilous times of woeful deception like never before in human civilization. A common deception is the fallacy that Roman Catholics are true Christians. Biblically, only those sinners who have been born again are Christians, that is, saved and on their way to Heaven (John 3:1-7). No one who follows the wicked false teachings of Catholicism is saved! The Catholic church is a [4]prisonhouse of false religion!

It sickened me today to learn that U.S. Vice President J.D. Vance wickedly bid Godspeed to the ungodly Pope on his death bed. Albeit, when I learned that Vance himself is a hellbound Catholic, then I mourned for both of them. JD Vance met with Pope Francis the day before he died and made the following statements after he died:

> "I just learned of the passing of Pope Francis. My heart goes out to the millions of Christians all over the world who loved him," Vance wrote in a statement on X early Monday.
> "I was happy to see him yesterday, though he was obviously very ill. But I'll always remember him for the below homily he gave in the very early days of COVID. It was really quite beautiful."
>
> "May God rest his soul," he concluded.
>
> SOURCE: Independent, "[5]JD Vance pays tribute to Pope Francis and recalls meeting with pontiff hours before death"

2nd John 1:11, "

For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds. "

I have a few important things to say about JD Vance. First, although he claims to be a Christian, he is not! As I just mentioned, [6]Mr. Vance is a hellbound unsaved Catholic! There is no salvation in the religious cult of Roman Catholicism. Sacramental Salvation is of the Devil. Keeping the Seven Sacraments of the Catholic religion cannot produce the required new birth to enter into the Kingdom of God.

I have serious doubts about President Trump's claim to be a Christian. Sure, he speaks about Jesus' death, burial and resurrection (the Gospel), but he considers JD Vance a Christian too! Mr. Trump [7]hired Paula White, who is a damnable false prophet, as spiritual advisor to the White House. I smell a dead rat! In a 2024 interview, [8]Donald Trump revealed that he is trusting in being to get to Heaven, which is a counterfeit plan of salvation.

Today should be a day of sadness and mourning over the eternal damnation of Pope Francis.

6.4.13 The Devil's Master Plan For The End Times (2025-04-23 17:34)

2nd Thessalonians 2:7-8, "For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed."

The Holy Bible foretells of the coming Antichrist, who will rise to power as a world leader. Satan's [1]master plan (i.e., the working toward the coming Antichrist) was already at work even during the days of the apostle Paul. The preceding video sermon by Pastor Steven Anderson is excellent, but I disagree with his [2]PreWrath Rapture (chart) position. I believe that the Holy Bible teaches a [3]PreTribulation Rapture. This "mystery of iniquity" (the spirit of Antichrist) is still at work today, marching ahead in full force:

2nd Thessalonians 2:3-12, “Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God. Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time. For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth [hindereth] will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.”

Today the spirit of Antichrist, and the spirit of iniquity, are at work, which already existed in New testament times. The Bible mentions a Beast that rises up out of the sea, having the characteristics of FOUR BEASTS:

Revelation 13:1-2, “And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads [world powers throughout history] and ten horns [modern world power nations], and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon [Satan] gave him [Antichrist] his power, and his seat, and great authority.” [added comments]

The book of Daniel coincides with the preceding passage of Scripture. The book of Daniel foreshadows the end times global (or world) government (aka, a New World Order). In the following prophetic passage from Daniel, the FOUR BEAST of Revelation 13:1-2 are individually mentioned. We see a prophetic snapshot of history spanning from Babylon to the Second Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ (I have added my comments in red type):

Daniel 7:1-9, “In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters. Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea. And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another. The first was like a lion [Babylon], and had eagle’s wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man’s heart was given to it. And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear [Medo-Persia], and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh. After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard [Greece], which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads [four kingdoms Alexander the Great's empire was divided into]; and dominion was given to it. After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast [Rome], dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces [the divided Roman empire], and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns [ten modern nations]. I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn [Antichrist], before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things [Revelation 13:5, "And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months."]. I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days [Jesus Christ] did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire." [added comments]

Isn't that beautiful? The Word of God tells us the future. Bible prophecy is history written in advance. The Holy Scriptures mention a coming global government, ruled by one man, the Antichrist... "POWER WAS GIVEN HIM OVER ALL KINDREDS, AND TONGUES, AND NATIONS" (Revelation 13:7b).

Except those who get saved during the Tribulation period, the entire unsaved world will worship the Antichrist (Beast). The Antichrist will make war with the saints and overcome them, killing them. Literally, the world will become a giant prison planet enslaved to the Antichrist and his Luciferian Illuminati who serve Satan:

Revelation 13:3-9, "And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven. And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. If any man have an ear, let him hear."

Notice that "ALL THAT DWELL UPON THE EARTH SHALL WORSHIP HIM" (Antichrist), whose names are not written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

Revelation 13:10-14, "He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints. And I beheld another beast [False Prophet] coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb [symbolized by Baphomet, a major Masonic figure], and he spake as a dragon [Satan]. And he exerciseth all the power of the first > beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men [I believe this is Star-Wars-like laser technology from space satellites... just my opinion], And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live."

The whole world is going to be brought into line with Judaism. That is the religion of the Antichrist! Everywhere today, professed Christians are claiming to have found their "Hebrew roots." It is becoming a huge movement. Another popular term today is "Torah observing Christians." It's a big buzz amongst homeschoolers. This is the satanic merging of Judaism with Christianity into a false religion of end time apostasy. You've probably heard a lot of talk about "blood moons" and celebrating "feast days." Beware of it, it is of the Devil. Jews only comprise 2 % of the American population, yet Jews account also for 30 % of Buddhists in America (aka, JewBu's). There will be a uniting of Judaism and Buddhism in the end times.

We are hearing about Chrislam (Christianity merged with Islam). Satan is trying to dilute the different religions into one movement. The different religions won't lose their individual identities; but rather, will share a common religious view of [4]Theosophical (Luciferian) spirituality instead of Biblical theology. This Luciferian dogma includes a tolerance for homosexuality. The Devil's message today is for everyone to unite in the name of peace. Daniel 8:25, "And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand." The churches are being destroyed today by the deception of tolerating wickedness under the guide of God's love for everyone. Although we are commanded to love (1st John 4:11), we are also commanded to refute all works of darkness (Ephesians 5:11). It is a sin to lack either! Psalms 97:10 tells believers to HATE EVIL!!!

Too many pastors, evangelists, missionaries, churches and preachers today are dipping their sails in sinful compromise, refraining from preaching against sin in an attempt to reach the lost with the Gospel. Consequently, churches have become soft on sin!!! When homosexuals feel comfortable attending church, something is VERY WRONG!!! We've even got pastors today who are blaming Christians for driving homosexuals away from God, allegedly because churches fail to love sodomites and baby them with a milk bottle, bib and pacifier. If people won't come to Jesus Christ apart from admitting being wicked sinners, they cannot be saved (John 3:20; 1st John 1:8-10). God only saves THE UNGODLY (Romans 4:5-6). There is a satanic agenda today to get the churches to embrace the homosexual community in the name of "love," so that preachers no longer say anything offensive that may drive queers away! That is a wicked philosophy. Preachers must cry aloud against all sin and wickedness, without compromise and without apology!

Satan Is Deceiving The Whole World

[5]Here are several ways that Satan is deceiving the churches today. Satan has [6]crept into the churches. I encourage you to read these many articles that I am linking to. I intentionally repeat many truths in my writings, because repetition is the key to learning. Every article that I write dilutes the total sum of all my articles. With that truth in kind, I am careful not to fill up my websites with garbage. I have visited countless websites, where there was so much information that I lost interest. It was too boring and overwhelming to read, in some cases. I want my articles to get read. I have one goal, which is to help you. I want people to get born-again. Then I want them to grow spiritually in the Lord. I want them to become a soul-winner, so they can win souls to Christ and be very happy in Heaven one day. I want you to better understand the world today, from a Christian perspective.

Satan is a beautiful liar, and his sinister ministers are everywhere, corrupting the churches (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15). Heresy is creeping into our fundamental Baptist churches by the hour. Please listen to the MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles titled, "[7]FUNDAMENTALIST HERESY." Watch your back Jack! [8]Dispensationalism is a false doctrine, which has been used to sneak Zionism into the churches. [9]Zionism is manmade Israel. By tricking the churches to support manmade Israel, the [10]Illuminati (Luciferians who control the world) are exploiting the churches to support the forming Beast system of the coming Antichrist. The most effective attack by Satan has been the modern [11]Bible revision movement. By incrementally changing the Bible, Satan is gradually corrupting the Word of God to destroy the churches. The [12]church today has lost her authority!!! The modern Bible versions are a part of the Luciferian conspiracy to build a New World Order. [13]NEW WORLD ORDER BIBLE VERSIONS (an awesome 1:46 hour documentary).

In a time of universal deceit, telling the truth is a revolutionary act. Prolific author, George Orwell, said that in his book "1984." He is correct. Deception abounds today, from the lying mainstream newsmedia to the counterfeit Bible versions flooding our churches. The most frustrating thing about deception is how easily so many people buy into it. Author Mark Twain rightly said, "It's easier to fool people than to convince them that they have been fooled." So true! If there is one thing I could teach you, next to the Gospel, it would be to think "objectively." That is, question everything!!!

Satan knows that the most effective deception is the half-truth. Satan often hides a LIE between two TRUTHS. The half-truth is the most effective deception, because in part it can be defended with incontestable logic! This is the case today with many false prophets, who pervert the Gospel. For example: Consider [14]Evangelist Paul Washer's corrupt plan of salvation. He teaches that eternal life is a free gift, paid for by Jesus' blood, but then he plainly says that you cannot know you're saved in a moment. Mr. Washer teaches that it is wrong to write down your name and the date you were saved, in the back of your Bible. The reason why is because he says you've got to prove you're saved by the life you live. Folks, that is not the simplicity that is in Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Discipleship is not evidence of sonship! Do you see how Paul Washer hides a lie between two truths?

Beware of anyone who teaches that you cannot know you're saved immediately, right now, permanently. If salvation us a gift, and it absolutely is, then there's nothing that needs to be added. If you admit that you are a guilty sinner in God's sight (Romans 3:19), and you BELIEVE that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God (John 20:31), Who died on the cross for your sins, was buried, and then bodily resurrected three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-6), and that is your only hope for forgiveness of sins and eternal life... YOU ARE SAVED!!!

Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith." Believe on the Good News [Gospel] of Jesus Christ and the work is done!!! We are saved by BELIEVING the Good News! That's it! It is that simple to be saved. How you choose to live is an entirely separate matter of discipleship (Romans 12:1). God scourges and chastises His disobedient children (Hebrews 12:6-8).

For a crash course on the New World Order, I highly recommend reading everything you can find by Commander William Guy Car (1895-1959). See, [15]PAWNS IN THE GAME and [16]SATAN: PRINCE OF THIS WORLD. Also, [17]THE CONSPIRACY. You need to know that the ultimate plot of the Luciferian leaders of this world (aka, the Illuminati) is [18]World War III. Also, please watch the 2:19 hour awesome, historical, eye-opening, documentary by Alex Jones titled, [19]END GAME!

I believe the Antichrist is alive and being groomed to become a world leader. The Bible calls him the "man of sin" (2nd Thessalonians 2:3). Therefore, the Devil is promoting [20]all manner of sexual perversion and [21]atheism to prepare the world to receive the "man of sin," the "Beast," the Antichrist. Revelation 13:4, "And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?" A cashless society is coming. A highly technological police state is coming. The Mark of the Beast is coming. The Rapture is coming! Even so, come, Lord Jesus!!!

Get Busy For God My Friend, Time Is Running Out!

I encourage you to search the articles on this website. There's a search box function at the top of the main webpage. In these last days we as believers need to know what's going on. Satan is tricking everybody! That's exactly what Revelation 12:9 says. Have you believed a lie? I care about you friend. I've never made a penny, nor received a penny, for my online labors. I don't monetize my YouTube videos. I am not against others who do, but I want everyone to know my heart in this matter. This is a labor of love for God. You are my reward. You are my Epistle. 2nd Corinthians 3:2, "Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men." I pray daily for God to work in the mind and heart of my web visitors, and to bless my labors for Christ, because in my own human strength I cannot help anyone. I am just a clump of clay with a spirit inside. Psalms 127:1, "Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain."

Don't make the mistake of turning information into a god. Many people today worship information, instead of God. God didn't save us to BE GOOD, He saved us to DO GOOD! First, if you do not know 100 % certain that you are saved, you can KNOW right now. All you have to do is admit you are a guilty sinner in God's sight and [22]BELIEVE the Gospel. Eternal life is a free gift, please make sure you have it! If you are saved, then get busy for God, because your happiness in Heaven will be determined by your life down here on earth. Daniel 12:3 doesn't say that people who live moral lives will shine as the brightness of the stars; but rather, they that turn many to righteousness. We all have a duty to preach the Gospel with others. You'll never be happy in this life as a Christian until you become a soul-winner. Only God can save a soul, but our part is to share the Gospel with them (1st Corinthians 3:8).

Please watch the video sermons, [23]GETTING STARTED SOUL-WINNING (by Pastor Steven Anderson), and [24]SOULWINNING (by Pastor Danny Castle). There is much that we can all do to get out the Gospel message to the lost. If nothing else, we can plant seeds, to get the truth of the Gospel into people's souls. May we redeem the time, laboring to win souls for Christ while we still can, for the night cometh when no man can work.

Make sure dear friend that you have been born again, by faith alone in the name of Jesus Christ. Simply by faith receive His sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, but then ressurected from the dead three days later. This is the Gospel (i.e., the Good News) by which all who BELIEVE IT are saved (Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 15:1-6). If you have never read the helpful book "[25]I NEVER KNEW YOU" by Michael P. Bowen, I encourage you to do so. I hope that you will at least read the introduction, which will reiterate what I just said to you from the inspired Holy Bible how to go to Heaven. Thank you for reading my blog.

6.4.14 Ten Reasons Why Pope Francis Went To Hell (2025-04-25 13:30)

Pope Francis

The Bible says:

"□□□ □□□ □□ □□□□, □□□ □□□□□ □□□ □ □□□□!" (Acts 5:29b).

What does the Bible say about "popes"?

□□□ □□ □□□□□□□□ □□□□□□□ □□□ "□□□□" □□ □□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□'□ □□□□□ □□□ □□□□, □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□□ □□□□□:

Note: These reasons are based solely on the doctrines and actions commonly associated with the office of the papacy, judged by the inspired King James Bible—not personal attacks, but Scriptural examination.

Galatians 1:8-9, "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

7948

• The Catholic Church teaches salvation by works, sacraments, and church tradition—contrary to the gospel of grace by faith alone in Christ. (Ephesians 2:8-9, Romans 4:5).

□. □□ □□□□□□□ □ □□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□ □□□□ □□ □□□:
Matthew 23:9, "And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven."
• The Pope is called "Holy Father," a title Jesus reserves for God alone (John 17:11).

Colossians 1:18, "And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence."
• The Pope is falsely called the “Vicar of Christ” and acts as if he holds authority over the church—usurping Christ’s exclusive role.

□. □□ □□□ □□□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□ □□□□□ □□□ □□□□:
Exodus 20:4-5, "Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image... Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them."
• Catholicism promotes veneration of statues, Mary, and saints, which is idolatry.

□. □□ □□□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□□□□ □□□□□:
Mark 7:13, "Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye."
• By elevating tradition, papal decrees, and councils above the Word of God, he nullified the Scriptures.

Hebrews 10:10, 12, "By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God."
• The Catholic

mass claims to offer Jesus again and again, which denies the finality of His one sacrifice.

□. □□ □□□□□□□ □□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□ □□□□:
Mark 2:7, "Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only?"
• Catholic priests and popes claim authority to absolve sin—blasphemy against God’s exclusive right.

1 Corinthians 12:13, "For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body..."
• The true church is the Body of Christ, composed of born again believers—not a religious institution.

1 John 5:10-1, "He that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son."
• By denying salvation by grace through faith alone in Jesus, he rejected God’s record.

□□. □□ □□□□ □□□□□□□ □□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□:
• The Pope trusted in sacraments, works, and a false church—not in the new birth through faith in Christ alone.

Unless the Pope repented and believed the true Gospel of Jesus Christ before his death, he is under God's wrath. John 3:36, "

He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

The Bible says:
"□□ □□□□□ □□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□□ □□□□ □□□" (Acts 5:29b). I am truly sad that the Pope didn't go to Heaven. If the Bible is true (and I believe it is), then Pope Francis went to Hell forever in his pride and sins. Contrary to the damnable teachings of Roman Catholicism, you cannot get to Heaven via good works, sacraments and faithfulness to the Catholic church. Jesus plainly warned in John 3:3 that except a man be BORN AGAIN, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God.

You get saved by BELIEVING ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31). This includes receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross of Calvary 2,000 years ago as full payment for your sins, believing that Jesus was buried, but then after three days physically resurrected from the dead. This is the Gospel (i.e., the Good News) by which all who BELIEVE IT are instantly, irrevocably and permanently saved (Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

6.4.15 Beware Of Toxic Religious Zionist Propaganda (2025-04-27 09:34)

This is garbage theology! I keep seeing these retarded memes on Facebook. I am so sick and tired of these Zionist idiots. Jesus was referring to every human being when He exclaimed in John 3:3, "Ye must be born again." To the man with a hammer in his hand everything looks like a nail sticking up. To the foolhardy misled Christian Zionist, half of the Bible only applies to Israel. Please avoid these false teachers! Being "born again" has absolutely nothing to do with the nation of Israel, it applies to every living individual (both Jews and Gentiles).

6.4.16 Is It Wrong To Call God “Daddy”? (2025-04-28 04:42)

Is it wrong to call God “Daddy”? That’s a good question. There is considerable debate over this question on social media. Jesus told us to refer to God as "our Father which is in Heaven" in the Lord’s prayer. Romans 8:15 says we call God "Abba, Father." I personally have never and would never call God, "Daddy." But I was raised up north. In the south the term "Daddy" is more accepted and used. My humble opinion is that it is really a personal decision. I see no harm in calling God the Father one’s Daddy. However, I feel that since it is such a personal word that it should never be used in public. [1]I agree with what this man wrote about it .

I also found this comment with which I agree...

> The scripture refers to the church as the bride of Christ, and Jesus invites us to be one with Him and the Father. So, as far as intimacy, God has invited us to be more intimate with Him than we can really comprehend with our limited minds. However, before calling God "daddy" I think one should consider that God is holy. The scripture says that our God is a consuming fire. It also tells us that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. I don’t know if God minds if someone calls Him daddy, but my feeling is that God wants us to reverence Him and worship Him in Spirit and in truth. In truth, He calls Himself our Father in Heaven and this is the way Jesus addressed Him. Some argue that Abba means daddy but in my research I have not found it to be true.

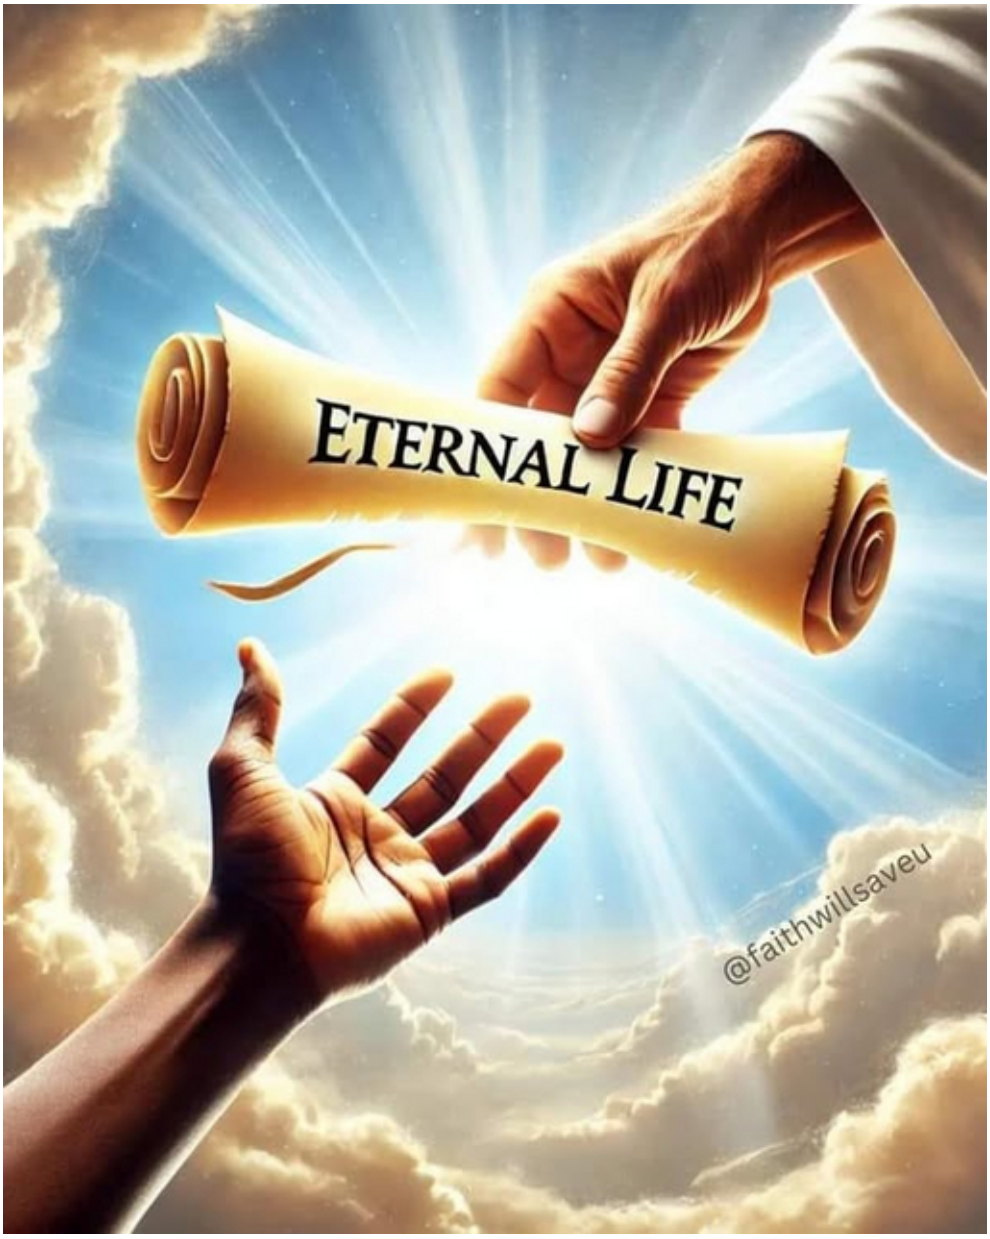
I don’t think it is sinful to call God, "Daddy," but to me it is just weird. The fact that it offends so many people is enough reason alone for me not to use the term, when referring to our heavenly “Father.” I think "Father" retains the reverence and respect that we should always have toward God. "Daddy" seems too awkward to me. I actually think we can get too close to God in our own mind. That is, we can become a little too relaxed around God, so that we begin to lose our reverence for Him as our Holy Creator.

I call my pastor "Pastor Brad" or "Pastor," but I would never call him "Brad" or "Hey Buddy." I think the same is true of calling God, "Daddy." It would be like calling my pastor by his first name, which would be improper. I think it is important to always precede his name with “Pastor.”

It is too personal because a certain level of respect should always be maintained to be respectful.



I understand that as believers we become much closer to God in a relationship that no human relationship can compare to. However, I humbly think that it is best not to call God,

I cannot show you a Scripture passage to condemn the use of the term, but my humble opinion is that it is just too lacking of respect for our holy God.

6.4.17 We Weren't Created For Things, We're Created For God (2025-04-29 16:30)

Revelation 4:11, "Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created."

Look around you. Everything that you can see God made from nothing. God created the universe from nothing. Worldly, unsaved, skeptical, scientists over the past couple decades have been forced to concede to irrefutable scientific evidence that the universe could not have evolved from something. If something came from something, then where did that something come from? Science has NO answer! Consequently, dogmatic atheists like [1]Stephen Hawking now claim that although there is no God, the universe still came from NOTHING! What sinful arrogance!!!

Only a fool would dare claim that the universe came from nothing by itself, without an intelligent Creator Who made it. Intelligent design is undeniable proof of an intelligent Creator! I cannot explore the known fascinating facts of our universe without my mind being completely awestruck and boggled by God's greatness, omnipotence (all powerful) and goodness. Revelation 4:11 (our text Scripture) teaches that ALL THINGS were created for God's pleasure. God is good to mankind, even being "kind unto the unthankful and to the evil" (Luke 6:35). Psalms 145:9, "The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works."

Here's [2]one example of God's fascinating universe.

> "Voyager is in interstellar space — the space between the stars." -Dr. Ed Stone, Voyager Project Scientist

As of September 2013, the Voyager 1 has entered interstellar space. The NASA spacecraft, which rose from Earth on a September morning 36 years ago, has traveled farther than anyone, or anything, in history. Now Voyager 1 is in the space between the stars. How did Voyager 1 get there? How do we know and where is it going? For more information on humanity's first emissary to what lies beyond, [3]explore the videos, images and stories. God is truly amazing!!!

Science has proven that energy and matter cannot be destroyed, but they can be converted from one form into another. These are verified rules of nature, stated by the laws of thermodynamics. This is the incredible and astronomic force behind atomic energy. Just think, if the mere splitting of atoms can produce such tremendous levels of nuclear energy, what could we harness if mankind ever learns how to actually make full use of atomic power!

The mind-boggling release of devastating energy in an atomic bomb is caused by the mere splitting of uranium (naturally occurring) atoms or plutonium (a manmade element) atoms, generating a chaotic collision of electrons with other atoms, producing a chain reaction. Scientists have harnessed atomic energy in nuclear reactors to produce incredible power for modern civilization. [4]The Nuclear Energy From Just One Tree Could Power All Of America For 10 Years!!!

It is IMPOSSIBLE for something to come from nothing, but God did the impossible! Wicked scientists totally contradict the laws of nature (physics) when they arrogantly claim that matter and energy came from nothing without the power of God. They actually claim that the entire universe came from a Big Bang that originated from a speck (black hole) the size of a pin point. But they cannot intelligibly, scientifically nor logically explain how it happened, nor how nothing became something. IT'S IMPOSSIBLE!

Also, can the universe have an outer edge? Logic tells us that the universe cannot be limitless. Everything must have a limit, a boundary, an end. Science says the universe is expanding, and this appears to be accurate, but that still doesn't tell us what is beyond the universe. The only logical answer is God. Psalms 104:2, "Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain." [5]'GOD OF WONDERS' VIDEO (an awesome [6]film! God's greatness is unsearchable, Psalm 145:3).

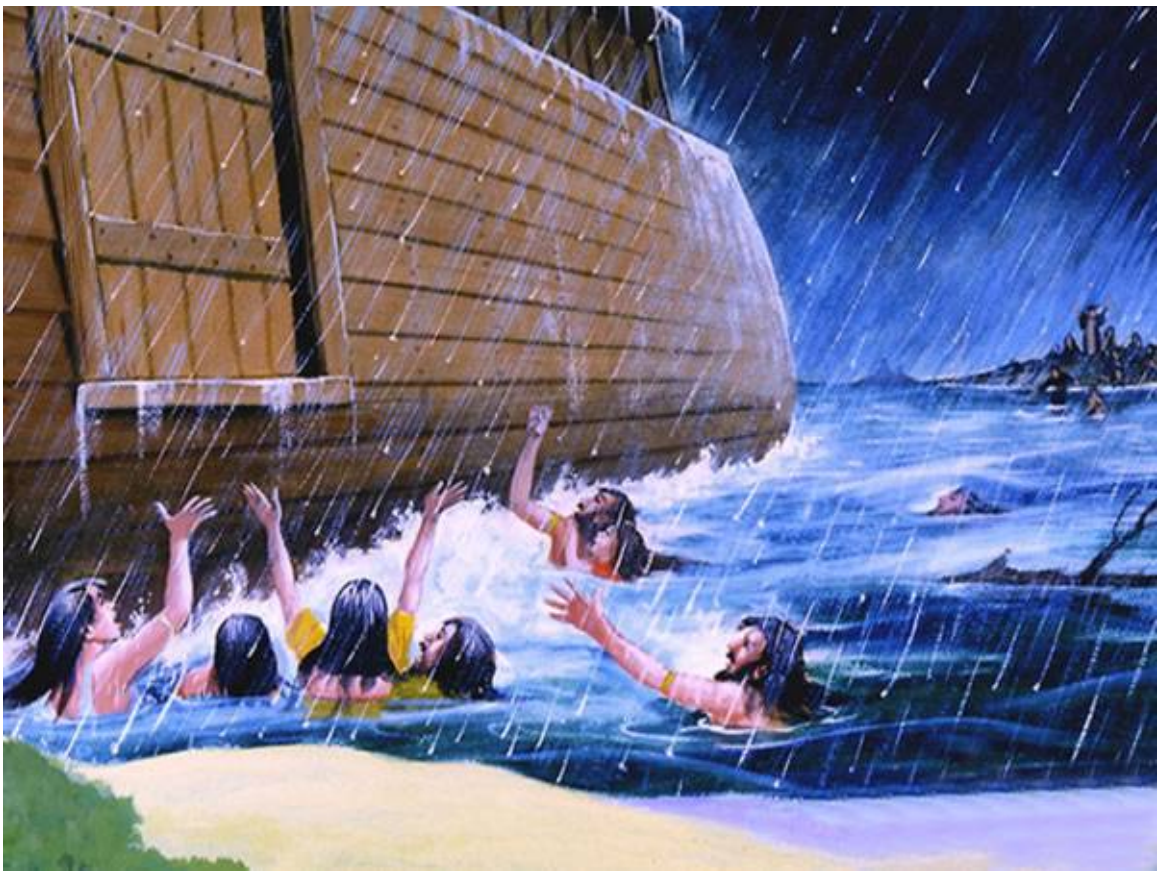
My friend, God created everything around us. We weren't created for things, and things weren't created for us. We were all created for God. No one can ever find happiness in things, because our purpose in life is to live for God. Ecclesiastes 12:14, "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man." God created mankind to worship Him, and to be thankful and to please Him. God wants us to enjoy the good things in life, but not as an end in itself. Luke 12:19-21, "And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry. But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided? So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

Are you rich toward God? It is a sin to plan for the future without including God. All it takes is just one insect, one bacteria, one little virus and life is over! Jeff Hanneman, guitarist of the heavy-metal Rock band SLAYER was called a metal god. After being bitten by a tiny spider, Hanneman underwent numerous surgeries to remove dead flesh from his body, [7]causing him to eventually succumb to liver failure and death at age 49. There is no guarantee of tomorrow my friend. Death may be around the corner for me and you. I'm prepared to meet my God, are you? The possessions in our lives are meaningless without faith and obedience to God.



This is why the Bible teaches that the FEAR OF GOD is the first step to wisdom. Psalms 111:10, "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever." Proverbs 9:10, "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding." The heathen world have NO FEAR of God, which is why they live in sin. Psalms 36:1, "The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes." I fear God. I have to give account of my life to God in eternity (Romans 14:10-12; Ecclesiastes 12:14). The greatest things in life are not THINGS!

May we all realize that the world around us was created from nothing by our Maker. God loves us and has promised to give us ALL THINGS in eternity (Romans 8:32). God can do anything. Oh, how I look forward to Heaven and all the wonderful things that God has waiting for me (1st Corinthians 2:9). This earth is only temporal, where thieves break through and steal, and moth and rust ruin THINGS. Jesus told us to lay up treasures in Heaven where thieves cannot steal, and nothing rots or wears old (Matthew 6:20).

Luke 12:15, "And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth." That means don't lose your spiritual focus in life as a Christian. Don't prioritize making money, buying a home or obtaining possessions as a goal in life. Our top goals should be staying humble, soul-winning, giving to the poor, worshipping God, loving one another, contending for the Christian faith, Bible study, fasting and constant prayer to God. Money ought to NEVER be an issue in our decisions. Buying a home is acceptable, but it should never be allowed to become a passion that overrides our walk with the dear Savior. The desire for THINGS is in effect, the LOVE OF MONEY, which is the root of all evil according to 1st Timothy 6:8-10).

Happiness cannot be found in living for THINGS, because God did not create us for that purpose in life. No person can ever truly be happy until they live for God, for that is why we were created. Revelation 4:11, "Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created."

6.5.1 Beware Of The 'Modern English Version' (MEV) (2025-05-01 16:11)

Jeremiah 23:36, "And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God."

On their [1]website , the publishers of the "Modern English Version" (MEV) claim that their new Bible version is a "LITERAL TRANSLATION." Here's a dirty little detail that you probably didn't know about, and the following quote is taken from the [2]United States Copyright Office ...

> How much do I have to change in my own work to make a new claim of copyright?
>
> You may make a new claim in your work if the changes are substantial and creative, something more than just editorial changes or minor changes. This would qualify as a new derivative work. For instance, simply making spelling corrections throughout a work does not warrant a new registration, but adding an additional chapter would. See Circular 14, Copyright Registration in Derivative Works and Compilations, for further information.
> SOURCE: [3]Registering A Work

In other words, if you wanted to publish your own new Bible version, in order to receive legal copyright status, you would have to "SUBSTANTIALLY" change your work from the original. And they must be "CREATIVE" unique changes. I'll show you some of their Satanic creativity in a moment. Since there are already literally hundreds of copyrighted English Bible versions (all of the Devil), any new Bible versions are going to have to be butchered substantially and uniquely to qualify. My friend, you should be outraged and alarmed as I am, if you love the Lord Jesus Christ. Literally, anybody who wants to publish a new Bible version, by law, is forced (if they want to publish their own exclusive version) to significantly CHANGE THE WORD OF GOD!!!!!!

So let's go back to their false claim on the Modern English Version (MEV) website, which claims it is a "LITERAL TRANSLATION." Of the hundreds of English Bible's available today, most of their publishers claim that it is a "LITERAL TRANSLATION." Since they all differ considerably, and theologically conflict oftentimes, how can they all be a "LITERAL TRANSLATION"? Obviously they cannot! It's a bunch of shady marketing tactics. The truth (as I have just shown you) is that in order to receive a legal copyright, Bible translators and publishers are legally REQUIRED to butcher God's Word, making significant and substantial changes (as compared to existing Bible versions) to receive a copyright. That's the ugly truth!!!

What an evil and wicked thing to do, intentionally corrupting the Word of God to make a buck, which the Holy Bible calls “filthy lucre” (1st Peter 5:2). I hope you see how evil and criminal in God’s eyes all of this Bible-tampering really is. Nothing is more important to God than His holy Word. Psalms 138:2, “I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.” Yet, men and women are so reckless and hardened in their hearts, that they flippantly corrupt the Word of God to sell their own exclusive copyrighted version. So this is why when you consult the 13 different Bible versions on your bookshelf, you get a wide array of ideas, contradictions and much CONFUSION. 1st Corinthians 14:33 tells us that God is “not the author of confusion.” The Devil is!!!

Legal Copyright Requirement Plus Greed Equals Bible Version Nightmare!

This is why I get so frustrated and upset with America’s large religious institutions and Bible colleges. Frankly, I expect the big unsaved religious institutions to pull on the same rope as the Devil, like the National Council Of Churches, et cetera. However, when it comes to Bible colleges like Bob Jones University (BJU), who were the cream-of-the-crop 50 years ago, I get upset, because they are saved and should know better. I use the term “saved” loosely here, because the Satanic lie of Lordship Salvation has crept into (I’d say at least half) of our Baptist churches, which is a false plan of salvation.

The legendary Pacific Garden Mission’s “UNSHACKLED” broadcast from Chicago, sadly contains multiple plans of salvation (depending on the particular episode). I was shocked recently while listening on the radio to an Unshackled episode in which a man said you cannot simply believe the Gospel and write your name and date in the back of your Bible. He said you must continue to choose to follow Jesus every day of your life to be saved. That’s the demonic heresy of Lordship Salvation, not the free gift of God (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). Many Christian leaders are confusing salvation with discipleship, which has been caused by the new counterfeit Bible versions that [4]PERvert Romans 10:9-10 and [5]Mark 1:15 and Hebrews 6:1 , to name a few Scriptures.

For BJU to remain silent, and they’re just one of hundreds of shameful Bible colleges like Moody Bible Institute (MBI), is cowardly and apostasy. Don’t you care? Greedy people are intentionally changing God’s Word, whether they think it is honest, scholarly or needs to be changed or not, just so they can meet the government’s legal requirement to significantly and substantially change their work’s content to obtain a legal copyright. OH MY GOD IN HEAVEN, THIS CAN’T BE HAPPENING!!!!!!! Why aren’t you mad-as-all-get-out!

MEV Corrupts Romans 10:9

The Bible simply teaches to confess the Lord Jesus Christ, but the new modern counterfeits say to declare “Jesus is Lord” (which is Lordship Salvation). We learn from John 12:42-43 that audible confession is not required for salvation. Confession comes from a believing heart, as evidence of faith. The Bible clearly says that WITH THE HEART man believes that Christ raised up bodily from the dead. Confessing “Jesus is Lord” has nothing to do with the free gift of eternal life. ...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB)—Romans 10:9, “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.”

> MODERN ENGLISH VERSION (MEV)—Romans 10:9, “that if you confess with your mouth Jesus is Lord, and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.” [emphasis added]

> Modern English Version. Copyright © 2014 by Military Bible Association. Published and distributed by Charisma House.

Regarding Romans 10:9, Jesus is the Lord. I do not question Jesus as Lord (Master) at all. Romans 14:9 says that Jesus died to be LORD OF ALL! We don’t make Jesus Lord, He is Lord! But to be saved the Bible does not require surrendering to Christ’s Lordship. We are only told to receive Him as our Savior. 2nd Timothy 4:10 says, "For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe." Jesus automatically becomes a believer’s Lord the moment they are born-again. John 13:14, "If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another’s feet." The key word, to me, is "ought." Titus 2:12 says we "should" live godly lives. As believers we SHOULD serve Christ; not MUST (that is works); not WILL (that is Calvinism). I read a helpful chapter of Pastor Jack Hyles’ book "Salvation Is More Than Being Saved," called " [6]Conversion And Salvation ," if you would like to check it out.

So we receive Jesus as our Savior to be saved, and then He becomes our Lord and we ought to obey Him. But this is not a requirement to prove that we are saved, it is our "reasonable service" (Romans 12:1-2). We have been bought with a price (the precious blood of Jesus); and therefore, we belong to the Lord and should glorify Him 1st Corinthians 6:20).

MEV Corrupts John 20:17

The King James Bible says Jesus told Mary Magdalene not to touch Him, lest she corrupt the blood sacrifice He needed to bring to Heaven to sprinkle on the mercy seat (Hebrews 9:12, 24; 12:24). The MEV is retarded, saying that the Lord told Mary to let Him go, like a helium balloon. Why would Jesus tell Mary to stop holding onto Him? The new Bibles are so laughable!

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB)—John 20:17, "Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God."

> MODERN ENGLISH VERSION (MEV)—John 20:17, "Jesus said to her, "Stop holding on to Me, for I have not yet ascended to My Father. But go to My brothers and tell them, 'I am ascending to My Father and your Father, to My God and your God.' "

Matthew 28:9 says that the disciples held Jesus' feet. So we have an alleged discrepancy here. Jesus told Mary not to touch Him, but the disciples touched His feet a short time later. [7]I agree with this explanation , even though I don't agree with all the content of the website. It is clear that Jesus told Mary not to touch Him, and He gives the reason why, because He has not yet ascended to the Father. Yet, Matthew 28:9 and John 20:25-27 plainly show that the disciples touched Jesus' feet, and Thomas was invited to thrust his hand into His side. The only logical explanation is that Jesus had already ascended into Heaven with the blood, to appear in the presence of the Father.

MEV Corrupts Romans 13:1 To Make Government God

The King James Bible says Christians are commanded to submit to the HIGHER POWERS, not the governing authorities. The U.S. Constitution is a higher power than the U.S. government. We are under Communist attack in America today. All across the country judges are totally disregarding the Bill of Rights and the U.S. Constitution. There is no rule of law today in America. The courts are out of control. Judges are crooked, liars and dishonest, taking brides and ruling in favor of those who appointed them. God will punish all of those crooked lawyers, judges and prosecutors, and that's a promise from the Lord Himself (Ecclesiastes 5:8, 12:14; Proverbs 24:12; Matthew 12:36; James 4:12; Romans 14:10-12; Matthew 7:1-5). God will punish the dishonest Internal Revenue Service (IRS). God will punish The White House. God will punish the tyrannical governing authorities who rape, torture, pillage and kill.

And may I say, God is a higher power also, than the governing authorities. So these new Bibles are wrong. The 2nd Amendment (the right to own guns and use them) gives U.S. citizens the right to fight against and overthrow a fraudulent government who tries to take away their Bill of Rights. It is happening! Civil war is coming again to America! ...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB)—Romans 13:1: "Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God."

> MODERN ENGLISH VERSION (MEV)—Romans 13:1, “Let every person be subject to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those that exist are appointed by God.”

MEV Perverts The Plan Of Salvation

The Modern English Version itself, this is a very corrupt revision of the Bible. I say that kindly, I don’t like to debate and offend people, truly. Check out 1st Corinthians 2:18. ...

> 1st Corinthians 1:18, “For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.”

> 1st Corinthians 1:18, “For to those who are perishing, the preaching of the cross is foolishness, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.”

This is a very common corruption in all of the modern Bible revisions. As believers WE ARE saved, not ARE BEING SAVED. The proponents of Lordship Salvation have turned the Gospel into a process, a life which must be faithfully lived. The moment that someone receives God’s free gift of eternal life by faith, that individual is forever born-again! The new birth is immediate, instantaneous and irreversible. Anyone who turns the new birth into a process, which requires you to live a life of turning from sins and surrendering all to Christ as “LORD,” is a counterfeit gospel. Jesus automatically becomes your Lord (Master) the moment you receive Him as your Savior. As a child of God, we “should” (Titus 2:12) obey Christ as our Lord, it is our “reasonable service” (Romans 12:2), but this is not mandatory to be born-again, nor does it prove that someone has been born-again. Eternal life is the free gift of God (Romans 5:15-18; 6:23).

MEV Attacks The Godhead

The King James Bible mentions the “Godhead” in the following passages, but the MEV removes them. There’s a big difference between Deity and Godhead. Deity means God; whereas Godhead means the Trinity (God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit)...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB)—Romans 1:20, “For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse.”

> MODERN ENGLISH VERSION (MEV)—Romans 1:20, “The invisible things about Him—His eternal power and deity—have been clearly seen since the creation of the world and are understood by the things that are made, so that they are without excuse.”

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB)—Acts 7:29, “Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man’s device.”

MODERN ENGLISH VERSION (MEV)—Acts 7:29, “Therefore since we are the offspring of God, we ought not to suppose that the Deity is like gold or silver or stone or an engraved work of art or an image of the reflection of man.”

The MEV is not a literal translation, nor is it God’s HOLY Word. It’s just another imposter, a fake, an offensive piece of trash in the eyes of God almighty! Truthfully, it contains many of the same errors as the Westcott and Hort Greek, while deceitfully claiming to come from the Textus Receptus. Don’t take me word for it, compare for yourself the differences between dozens of modern Bibles, and then check the King James Bible. You will find that only the King James Bible stands apart from all of them! All of the modern counterfeit Bible versions are similar, sharing the same PERversions of Scripture. Some are worse than others. The New King James Version (NKJV) is not as bad as the New International Version (NIV), but it is still corrupt, having been translated from the Westcott and Hort Greek. Thankfully, you can trust your King James Bible!!!

(a quote by Dr. Jack Hyles classic MP3 sermon, “ [8]The Happiest Man ” (happiest is the man who will not impute sin to others!)

If you believe what the Bible teaches, attend a church that teaches the Bible!

6.5.2 It Is Wicked For Christian Women To Wear Pants (2025-05-02 07:28)

Deuteronomy 22:5, "The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination unto the LORD thy God.

Proverbs 7:10,

And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart.

Carefully notice in 1st Timothy 2:9 that the Bible specifically mentions women's "apparel." We've become so wicked in our American culture today that we've been desensitized to the awfulness of sin (Romans 7:13). If immodesty is wrong, then pants on women are wrong. It's just not right for women to wear pants, and if it's not right it's a sin. I am sick and tired of professed Christians defending wrong doing. Our sex-crazed, ungodly, rotten American culture sees nothing wrong with fornicating, abortion, feminism and others sins. Proverbs 7:10 speaks of the attire of an harlot. A century ago that absolutely included pants on women. God hasn't changed, we have!

□□□ □□□□□□□□□□□ □□:□□, "□□□□□□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□, □□ □□□□□, □□ □□□□□□□□□□ □□ □□, □□ □□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□ □□ □□□." The Bible mentions even when we eat and drink to glorify God. How in the world does a Christian woman show forth holiness, femininity, Christlikeness and being a shamefaced lady while wearing a pair of pants?

Even the hellbound Christ-rejecting [1]Muslims forbid their women to wear pants, because it reveals the shape of their legs. Wow!

American women reveal their thighs and buttocks too, but the Muslims are so modest that they won't even permit their females to reveal their legs. Amen to the Muslims for their high standards of attire, and SHAME on America' s carnal Christian women for blaspheming God's Word by their immodest attire!!!

A Christian woman should NOT wear pants for several reasons:

1. ➪ God commands women to dress in MODEST apparel.
2. ➪ Pants on women were considered the clothing of a HARLOT a century ago.
3. ➪ No Christian woman wore pants in public in 1900.
4. ➪ A woman clothed in pants does NOT glorify God.

5. ➪ Pants on women are unquestionably a ’POWER SYMBOL,’ which even [2]the pro-homosexual HUFFINGTON POST admits.
6. ➪ [3]Prostitutes in the 1890’s dressed more modestly than most Christian women do in 2025.

We’ve got a bunch of wicked pastor’s wives and henpecked husbands who refuse to humble themselves to obey out holy God. I know I rattle some cages every time I preach against women wearing pants, but I know biblically I AM RIGHT. God pity the pastors and their wives who are okay with women wearing pants, because it is far from okay with our holy God. We need a revival of old-fashioned holiness in our American culture before this country can ever be made great again. MAKE AMERICA GODLY AGAIN!!!

Get mad at me if you want. Disagree all you like. I will go to seed over this very important matter of Christian women not putting on a pair of pants like men do every morning. You need to understand that women wearing pants is far more than just a personal clothing choice, it is a worldly mindset for women and a shame unto the LORD. I speak the truth!

Mark 7:6-9, "

He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me. Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do. And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition."

There is not a more Satanic and damnable false religion than Roman Catholicism. Today they cult elected a new leader, Pope Leo XIV.

From their demonic Sacramental Salvation, to their myth of Purgatory, to their idolatrous worship of statues of Mary, the Catholic church is a prisonhouse of religion.

I cannot warn you enough to RUN from the deadly cult of Catholicism. Jesus warned against false prophets who teach the traditions of men instead of the commandments of the inspired Word of God. Human pride is dangerous! It blows my mind how anyone could follow and join such a blatantly fake religion of Roman Catholicism.

The Holy Bible strictly forbids calling priests Father, but Catholics disobey God's Word. Matthew 23:9, "And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven." Only God should be reverenced, not men.

The inspired Holy Bible tells us in 1st Timothy 4:1-3, "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron; Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth." The Satanic Catholic church directly violates this passage of Scripture, forbidding marriage for their priests, and forbidding Catholics from eating beef or pork on Fridays.

If that's not enough to convince you how evil Catholicism really is, then please consider that [1]Catholics remove the second of God's Ten Commandments. That is wicked!!! It is obvious why the Vatican did this, because Roman Catholics are woefully guilty of worshipping graven images!

To be clear, I love Catholic people, but they have been deceived by the Devil. Tens of thousands of Catholics gathered today outside of Vatican City, crying in joy that they have a new Pope.

Satan couldn't be happier! None of those 1,400,000,000 Roman Catholics who trust in the sacraments of the Catholic church will be going to Heaven. Instead, they will be going to Hell to burn in fire and brimstone forever. I didn't say that, God did! John 3:3, " Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. " Religion never saved anybody!!!

6.5.4 Giving Others Grace (2025-05-10 09:01)

2nd Corinthians 1:2, "Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ."

2nd Corinthians 8:7, “

Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.”

Just as God has had to bestow grace upon us as wicked sinners, so also should we as Christian believers bestow grace upon others.

I recently met with a local Baptist pastor who wanted to talk about my websites. It was a confrontation meeting, which although I stood my ground as a fundamentalist Bible preacher, I did not enjoy our interaction. The pastor was ruse, insensitive and made some horrible untrue accusations against my hero of the faith, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). The pastor flat out told me in his office, “I am not a fundamentalist!”

It took a lot of love and patience for me (as a fundamentalist Bible preacher) to show grace to that shallow neo-evangelical pastor. I am 20 years older than he is.

The pastor honestly said that he’d expected me to storm out of his office when he confronted me about my website ministry, but instead I showed him grace and just sat there listening to him be the fool, while kindly but firmly standing my ground in defense of my doctrinal positions.

In particular, he took issue with my biblical preaching against Christian women wearing pants. You might as well try to convince me that the earth is flat, or that the moon is made of cheese, if you think you’re ever going to convince me that it is okay biblically for women to wear pants. It ain’t gonna happen! Deuteronomy 22:5, “The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman’s garment: for all that do so are abomination unto the LORD thy God.” I cited this passage of Scripture to show that women ought not wear pants, which everyone recognizes historically as men’s clothing (just look at any restroom signs), but the pastor tried to dismiss it as being under Old Testament law. What a bad pastor!

I really detest neo-evangelical pastors!!! This includes the entire Bob Jones University Lordship Salvation cult, Pensacola Christian College (who are wrong on Bible repentance and therefore the Gospel), Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary (ditto), Moody Bible Institute (ditto) and a thousand other pseudo-Christian schools and churches today. Truth has fallen in the street as the Bible says in Isaiah

59:14, “And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.”

This Bible verse practically provides the address of the United States of America today!!! We have become a wicked nation of baby killers, nudists, thieves, liars, false religion, idolatry, greed and false prophets, et cetera. God’s judgment will not sleep forever!!!

> “I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just; that His justice cannot sleep forever.” —Thomas Jefferson (third U.S. President, 1801-1809)

I shared the unpleasant experience of meeting that neo-evangelical pastor with a good ministry friend of mine who lives in Indiana. He used to be an unsaved Episcopalian, but through God leading him to my ministry website many years ago, he thankfully learned about Dr. Jack Hyles, and Christian fundamentalism, and he became a born again believer. Praise God! My friend told me that in every neo-evangelical church he has ever been in, the pastor cringed when he mentioned the names of Jack Hyles, Steven Anderson and my website (which by God's grace I started back in April of 2002).

I wrote this blog to encourage you dear reader to show grace toward others. Someone has wisely said that " could be an acronym for:

GRACE

God Riches At Christ's Expense.

I really like that! Certainly, none of us deserve God's mercy and grace which made forgiveness of sins possible through Jesus' sacrifice on Calvary's cross. We all deserve to go straight to Hell to burn in fire and brimstone forever without rest or mercy (Revelation 14:11, 20:11-15, 21:8). Thank God for His wondrous grace!!!

I love the following inspired Scripture passage from the trustworthy King James Bible. Ephesians 4:30-32, "And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

Last year on Facebook, I posted something that greatly offended another Baptist preacher, a pastor in Tennessee. I simply had said that Pastor Steven Anderson is the Pastor Jack Hyles of our generation. The pastor immediately disagreed and said I was very wrong. I didn't get upset or unfriend him; but rather, I kindly explained my position. Dr. Hyles in his youth was on fire for God. As a strong leader he influenced hundreds (if not thousands) of other men to become pastors and join the fight of good faith.

Dr. Hyles pioneered a new movement in fundamentalism across America in his generation. In that same regard, Pastor Steven Anderson has influenced hundreds of young men to join the good fight of faith, become pastors and aggressively go soulwinning. Since 2006, when Brother Anderson started his Faithful Word Baptist Church in Tempe, Arizona, the New IFB (independent fundamental Baptist) movement was created. That pastor in Tennessee thanked me for showing grace toward him, rather than become defensive and angry at him.

To be clear, I don't agree with all of [1]Pastor Steven Anderson's teachings and methods. I support his ministry because he is an aggressive soulwinner and is correct on the Gospel and the inspired King James Bible. All other issues are secondary as far as I am concerned. I once sent Brother Anderson a Friend Request on Facebook, but he didn't accept me, which is okay, I am still a friend toward him. Pastor Hyles used to say: "Blessed is the man who has a friend. More blessed is the man who is a friend. Most blessed is the man who has a friend and is a friend." I like that adage. In my online writings I call everyone my "friend," not because everyone is my friend, but simply because by preaching the truth I am befriending everyone.

To be honest, I don't always show grace toward people. I am a wicked sinner just like everyone else. There is no such thing as a " good Christian.

" We are all struggling sinners, desperately clinging to God's abundant grace to make it through each day. I heard Pastor Jack Hyles say that as he grew older, he found himself running to God's Word continually as a starving man running to food. I like that and wholeheartedly agree with him. Now more than ever we all need to abide in the inspired King James Bible as God's redeemed children. (WARNING: All of the modern English Bible revisions have been corrupted by Satan.)

May we all show more grace toward our loved ones, pastors, friends and even strangers. People may not deserve our grace, but neither do we deserve the beautiful grace which God has shown toward us dirty sinners. I have had to show a few people a lot of grace in recent months, with whom I am greatly displeased, but the Lord has helped me to do so, just as our dear Savior showed grace to the ungodly Roman magistrates and soldiers who crucified Him, when He prayed: "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do" (Luke 23:34b).

Thank you for reading my internet blog.

6.5.5 Beware Of Corrupt Neo-Evangelical Pastors (2025-05-13 08:29)

Jeremiah 2:8, "The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit."

Slackard, deadbeat, ungodly, incompetent, neo-evangelical pastors are nothing new. The old adage is still very true: There is nothing new under the sun. The greatest threat to Christendom today is not the abortion crowd, the homosexual community or leftist liberal Democrats, it is wicked neo-evangelical pastors who hinder, corrupt and ruin the work of God.

Tragically, neo-evangelical pastors are destroying America. The greatest threat to Christendom today is not the abortion crowd, homosexual community or leftist liberal Democrats—it's the deadbeat neo-evangelical pastor with his wicked denial of King James Bible ONLYISM, his denial that God has preserved a perfectly inspired Holy Bible for today, and his sanctioning of Satan's falsehood of [1]Lordship Salvation and [2]Misunderstood Repentance (aka, the "repent of your sins" heresy), and his approval of Christian women wearing pants, low standards, his lack of preaching against sin from the pulpit, his woeful lack of leading the church to go door-to-door soulwinning, and his contempt for godly fundamentalist preachers like Pastor Jack Hyles. BEWARE of the ungodly arrogant neo-evangelical pastor! I am a Christian independent FUNDAMENTALIST Baptist and humbly proud of it!

God deliver us from today's dead neo-evangelical churches and worse, cults. We must keep in mind that the Laodicean church in Revelation 3:15-17 was accused by Jesus Christ Himself of being LUKEWARM, but that is much better than being a cult that teaches a counterfeit plan of salvation! If your so-called " preaches the Devil's falsehoods of Lordship Salvation or Misunderstood Repentance (aka, turn from your sinful ways to be saved

garbage), you are in a religious cult dear reader. I'd rather attend a neo-evangelical church than be in a cult! Albeit, I'd infinitely rather attend a solid, Bible-believing, inspired King James Bible only, modern corrupt Bible exposing, free grace Gospel preaching, separated, soulwinning, family reaching, men building, sinner rescuing, people loving, Christ honoring, New Testament church!!!

Granted, there is no such thing biblically as, "the Baptist church." There is only, "the Church." God's plan is to have local New Testament churches scattered throughout the world. There has never been, nor exists today, a universal church (which is what the word "Catholic" means). There are only local independent churches. Beware of denominations, where the little ships sink with the mother ship when headquarters falters! I am all for independent local churches having 100 % autonomy.

I have been an independent fundamental Baptist since age 13, when I became a born again Christian by faith alone in the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and bodily risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). I was saved in a Baptist church. I was trained to be a preacher in a Baptist church and college. I was ordained to be a Gospel preacher by Baptist pastors. Since April of 2002, by God's wondrous grace, I have been a Baptist missionary to social media with my website and blog ministry. To God alone be all the praise and credit (John 15:1-5).

Since the Baptist church aligns best with my beliefs as a child of God, I choose to remain a Baptist. Being a Baptist does not guarantee me eternal life, not at all. Religion never saved anybody; but rather, faith in the person of Jesus Christ. I am going to Heaven because I am a born again believer, and nothing else. Having said that, there are at least 70 different divisions among Baptists today. So, I do NOT endorse most Baptist churches.

I'd estimate, sadly, that at least 95 % of Baptists today have been corrupted by the demonic fraud of Lordship Salvation and Misunderstood Repentance. These counterfeit plans of salvation cannot produce the new birth which is required to enter into God's Kingdom. Satan is the author of confusion, not God (1st Corinthians 14:33). God did not publish hundreds of English Bible revisions to confuse everyone, the Devil did. Any honest believer fully knows that God only authored ONE BOOK, and that Book is none other than the inspired KING JAMES BIBLE. Let the heathen rage! Let the wicked neo-evangelical pastors with their dozens of different conflicting Bible perversions rage! Joshua 24:15b, "...

but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

Pastor Jack Hyles is still vehemently despised and hated by tens of thousands of shallow neo-evangelicals. The reason why is because Brother Hyles was a high standards biblical preacher, and all of your new-evangelicals are low standards clowns. It would be a wonderful thing if every neo-evangelical church closed their doors forever, because they are doing more damage to the cause of Christ than good.

One of the most controversial issues is Pastor Hyles' uncompromising biblical stand against Christian women wearing pants in public. I 100 % agree with Dr. Hyles and the inspired Word of God in this moral matter. Any normal, healthy, red-blooded man will honestly tell you that women shouldn't wear pants! Any professed Christian who attempts to justify women wearing pants is not right with God, it's as simple as that! And woe unto the shameful neo-evangelical pastor who defends women wearing pants. Woe unto the neo-evangelical pastor's wife who wears pants. GET RIGHT WITH GOD YOU JEZEBEL HUSSY!!!

Call me old-fashioned if you'd like, but I am also biblically right! The Bible commands women to dress in MODEST APPAREL (1st Timothy 2:9). Women are forbidden to wear men's clothing (Deuteronomy 22:5); and that was a moral law, not a ceremonial law just for the Old Testament Jews. We've got a bunch of wicked henpecked Baptist pastors today who are in denial, who sinfully teach that it is okay for women to wear men's clothing (pants). GET RIGHT WITH GOD YOU PROPHETS OF BAAL!!! I am going to go to seed in this matter of Christian women dressing modestly, and that excludes pants. If you don't like my Bible preaching, tough bananas! You might as well just get used to it, because I ain't changing (and neither is the inspired Holy Bible). Christian women ought not wear pants in public!!!

The great need of the hour is preaching preachers! We've got hundreds of thousands of henpecked wimps in church pulpits across America today, who do a disservice to the name and cause of Jesus. The Lord loves a truth-teller, not a wicked compromiser who is afraid to speak THE TRUTH. Proverbs 12:17,

He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.

" We need a whole new breed of Bible preachers in this rotten sin-soaked nation of spoiled brats! Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

[3]What Is A Fundamentalist?

(Pastor Jack Hyles)

In his bombshell 1989 sermon titled, "[4]Weathering The Storm," Dr. Hyles attributed the brutal attack that year on himself, family, friends and ministry as being launched by ungodly NEO-EVANGELICALS. At the time, I was just a 22 year old young man and didn't understand what he meant, but now at age 58, I fully understand Brother Hyles and what is at stake. I have lived long enough now to have been the victim of wicked neo-evangelicals, who kicked me out of their reprobate churches, unjustly slandered me, ostracised, banned, ridiculed, mocked and shunned me, because of my fundamentalist STAND FOR THE TRUTH!!!

My inspired King James Bible only preaching has harelipped every dog in the county! If you speak English and don't use a King James Bible, you don't have an inspired Holy Bible! All of the modern Bible revisions are corrupt.

I won't back down because God is on my side as a truth-teller.

My biblical preaching

(Leviticus 20:13; Romans 1:32; Jude 1:7)

that the government should execute homosexuals has upset many ungodly neo-evangelical pastors. One such shameful pastor in Pensacola rebuked me on April 30th, 2025, in his office for my website preaching in this matter. That neo-evangelical Baptist pastor is a darn fool! I won't back down because God is on my side as a truth-teller. The Lord is no respecter of persons.

My biblical preaching against Christian women wearing pants, halter tops, dress slacks and any clothing that reveals their chevage, buttocks or thighs offends tens of millions of religious people. So be it! If the shoe fits, wear it!!!

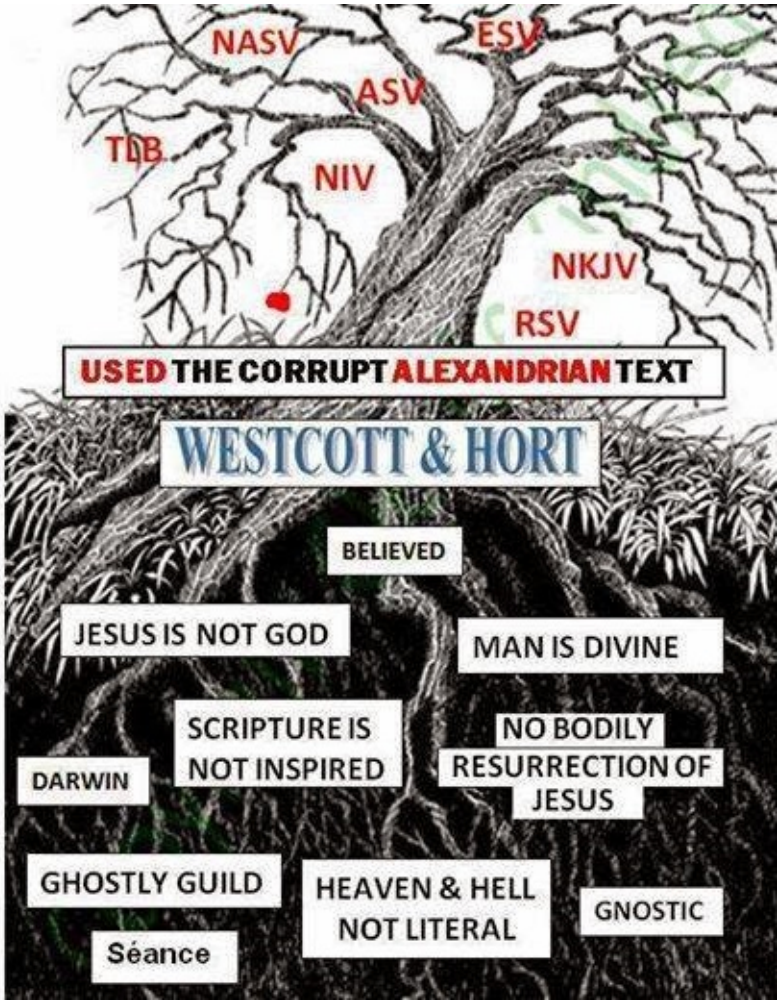
I won't back down because God is on my side as a truth-teller.

I won't stop preaching THE TRUTH that abortion is cold-blooded, first degree, murder!

I won't stop preaching that homosexuality is a perversion of nature, an abomination to God and a fifth deplorable sin. Certainly homosexuals may genuinely love each other, and there is no biblical doubt God loves them all (for whom Christ died on the cross according to Romans 5:6-9), but the biblical fact remains that the act and thought of homosexuality is a sin, which Romans chapter one clarifies very well. God destroyed the wicked cities of Sodom and Gomorrah for going after STRANGE FLESH (Jude 1:7).

I won't stop preaching against the Devil's lies of Lordship Salvation and Misunderstood Re-pentance, which are blinding lost people from seeing the light of THE TRUTH of [5]the saving Gospel of Jesus Christ (2nd Corinthians 3:3-4).

I refuse to stop preaching against the fraud of Zionism and manmade Israel. Present-day Israel is NOT the fulfillment of Bible prophecy for God to restore Israel. According to Hosea 3:4-5 Israel will not be restored until the Jews repent toward God, which they haven't done yet. Less than 2 % of the 7,000,000 Jews living in Israel today profess Christianity, and that includes all of the pseudo-Christians cults (Roman Catholicism, Mormons, Seventh-Day Adventists, Jehovah's Witnesses, Lutherans, Church of Christ, et cetera).



I dare say that even 1 in 500 Jews are born again believers in Israel today. The Jews may have returned to their Promised Land, but they have not returned to their holy God. And by the way, no unsaved Jew will ever enter into God's Kingdom; Hell will be their eternal fate, sadly (John 3:1-7; Revelation 20:11-15). God wants all mankind to repent (i.e., change their mind) to trust Jesus to be saved (2nd Peter 3:9). You don't repent of your sins to be saved, you repent from your unbelief to be saved (Romans 11:23).

By God's grace, I will continue to expose the false religions, false prophets, neo-evangelical clown pastors in the pulpit, and other fraudsters who are corrupting the churches today. Someone needs to be dogmatic! Someone needs to authoritative, because God is authoritative, and His inspired King James Bible speaks with authority, and so does the man of God who preaches the inspired Word of God!

> "The world will go to Hell unless somebody is authoritative!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[6]I Shall Not Be Moved"

Please pray for this Bible preacher, that God will continue to work in my heart to proclaim THE TRUTH without apology or compromise. Thank you dear friend for reading my ministry blog. To God alone be all the praise, glory and credit. for without Jesus we can do nothing (John 15:1-5). Jesus is precious!!!

6.5.6 The Deadly Deception of New Evangelical Churches (2025-05-14 05:49)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, "For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ."

There is not a more deadly deception in America today than the new-evangelical crowd. What makes them so dangerous is that they come so close to being right. The most effective lie is the HALF-TRUTH, because in part it can be defended with incontestable logic!

We're in a battle for the Word of God!!! "[1]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES" (an excellent MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles preached is 1994) is SEED VERSES SEED. The Battle Of The Ages is GOD'S WORD VERSES SATAN'S WORD! The Battle Of The Ages is CORRUPTIBLE SEED VERSES INCORRUPTIBLE SEED!!! Satan does not come and give his own words; but rather, he comes and paraphrases God's words! Corruptible seed changes the incorruptible words of God, and the battle begins.

New evangelicals make light of verbal inspiration!!! "Verbal inspiration" refers to EVERY WORD in the Holy Bible being inspired by God. There are no mistakes! God's Word is infallible, reliable, holy, perfect, incorruptible and preserved inspiration, just as God promised!

> Psalms 12:6-7, " Psalms:12:6: The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.
> Psalms 12:7: Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever."

I love these quotes from my favorite preacher, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001)...

> "Let me just make it very plain! The King James Bible crowd's going to come out on top! In case you want to be on the winning side, don't you get on these perversions of the Bible. You get on God's Word before it was messed with! So, it says, 'That the day's going to come when God's incorruptible seed [Are you listening, this is good, you ought to hear it now]; God's incorruptible seed is going to stomp out, and stamp out, the Devil's corruptible seed!
> Something else to note. It says, that there is 'enmity' between corruptible seed and incorruptible seed. What does that mean? That means that we're enemies! What does that mean? That means that, that, God's incorruptible seed [that Book right there] and man's versions and perversions of that Book, sit side side-by-side in somebody's bookstore that's more concerned about making money than spreading the truth; but they're enemies with each other!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, a truthful quote from the awesome MP3 sermon titled, "[2]The Battle Of The Ages."

Pastor Jack Hyles speaks the whole truth. New evangelicals with their dozens of Bible perversions (corruptible seed) are Jesus' enemy...

Dr. Hyles further wisely states:

> "The corruptible seed is at enmity with incorruptible seed! That means though the lost man is not my enemy, and the drunkard is not my enemy, and the harlot is not my enemy, and the atheist is not my enemy, and the fallen man is not my enemy; it means however, the one that prints corruptible seed is my enemy! It means the one who sells corruptible seed is my enemy! It means the one who preaches corruptible seed is my enemy! It does not mean I'm not going to feed him. It does not mean I'm not going to be nice to him. I'm going to be courteous to him.
>
> A fella preaches some other book, other than the words of God—he preaches corruptible seed—I'll speak to him on the street, I'll be courteous, but I'm not going to support him. I'm not going to give him a dime to spread corruptible seed to people's minds. He is my enemy!
> That means the one who teaches corruptible seed is my enemy. I didn't say it, God said it—He said there's enmity between the corruptible seed and the incorruptible seed! That means the one who spreads corruptible seed is my enemy. That means the TV evangelist who reads from corruptible seed is my enemy. That means the college, that teaches in its Bible classes corruptible seed, is my enemy! That means the seminary that teaches corruptible seed is my enemy! ...
> The seed of the woman is enmity with the seed of the serpent. Now wait a minute, question, who made us enemies? God. God! Look at Genesis 3:15 again, 'I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed.'

So, who was it that made us enemies? God made us enemies!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, "[3]The Battle Of The Ages"

Like Biblica (the publishers of the satanic New International Version), new evangelicals espouse thought inspiration (i.e., God gave His thoughts to man, and then men wrote down what God said in their own style and words). The latter is ungodly rubbish, because everything mankind touches he corrupts! The words of God are perfect, "GIVEN BY INSPIRATION OF GOD" (2nd Timothy 3:16). Psalms:19:7, "The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple." Proverbs 30:5, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him."

Leading the way in apostasy are Moody Bible Institute, Dallas Theological Seminary, Liberty University, and Bob Jones University (BJU) and their shameful graduates, who support the counterfeit Alexandrian Bible and religious colleges versions! By "new evangelical" (or neo-evangelical) I am synonymously talking about churches that support the New World Order movement, albeit most I think sincerely do so unknowingly. Please watch the eye-opening video, " [4]New World Order Bible Versions ." I wrote an important article last year called, " [5]Why Are People So Easily Deceived? " Today's pastors are by far not merely ignorant, they are wicked, [6]calloused with pride and have become indifferent toward THE TRUTH!

What Bob Jones University and their graduates are doing is even worse than actor Jane Fonda rallying and taking photos with the Communists in North Vietnam during the Vietnam War. It is no different what Bob Jones is doing, siding with God's enemy! America was at war! Our soldier boys were dying on the battlefield. I actually agree with Jane Fonda's protest of the war, but do not agree with her supporting the enemy! The Vietnam War was a fraudulent war based upon a lie (the fabricated [7]Gulf of Tonkin incident). Sadly, 58,000 American young men died needlessly for a war based upon [8]The Golden Triangle , fought over the ongoing century-old drug-trade.

Unlike Jane Fonda, who at least had a noble cause, today's new-evangelical Bible colleges are helping the enemy for the love of money! The whole new-evangelical movement is all about money (mammon)! It's about keeping the college's doors open and growing existing ministries, paying the salaries of staff and church.

Please read what Dr. Peter S. Ruckman (1916-2016) had to say about the matter of Bible colleges and the love of money...

The Roman Catholic text of the Jesuit Bible (1582) is a Greek text used by scholars at Tennessee Temple and Bob Jones University to alter the AV in 5,000 places in the New Testament. (You understand, however, that for monetary purposes—enrollment and endowment—both schools "USE" the AV because they "prefer" it. You have to "prefer" your income even if you would like to alter your "life style.")

SOURCE: Dr. Peter S. Ruckman, [9]The Alexandrian Cult Series, pp. 12-14

Please read my important article, " [10]How Today's Bible Colleges Woefully Deceive Everyone ." Doctrinal indifference, compromise and ecumenism are BIG PROBLEMS today in the Bible colleges and churches, and it's all only going to get much worse! Just as Evangelist Billy Graham (1918-2018) blurred the lines of distinction between Bible-Christianity and Roman Catholicism with ecumenism (thus [11]damning millions of souls to the Lake of Fire), so also do today's horrible new-evangelical Bible colleges and churches blur the lines between fundamentalism and false religion with ecumenism. Ecumenicalism is the rot of the churches. On the outside it pretends to have the noble intentions of promoting cooperation and love between the differing religious denominations, easier to understand Bible versions and a greater social understanding; but in most cases ecumenism is nothing less than sinful compromise, the heathen yoking together of light with darkness and apostasy!

All across America Baptist pastors are bidding Godspeed to false prophets and Satanic Bible versions, by supporting so-called apostate "sister churches" and other reprobates concerning the Gospel and the Holy Bible. I'm talking about Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who openly support Dr. John MacArthur (a boastful 5-point Calvinist who says, and I quote: " [12]There is no such thing as a childhood conversion! "). In sharp contrast, the Lord Jesus Christ Himself said in Matthew 19:14, "But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

It is simple, free and easy for children (and adults too) to be saved. The reason why Mr. MacArthur says children cannot be saved, is because his own perversion of how to be saved is so complicated! 2nd Corinthians 11:3 calls the Gospel "the simplicity that is in Christ." Yet, foolishly, Mr. MacArthur makes salvation hard. Why, oh why, does Bob Jones University and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam honor, promote and support John MacArthur's works of darkness? Mr. MacArthur is a former student of BJU. We are engaged in an information war over THE TRUTH!

> "If you corrupt truth, then you must have error!" —Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold, "[13]Satanic Bible Versions Versus The King James Bible"

Bob Jones University sanctions, [14]sells and promotes the modern Bible "PERversions (which are based upon the corrupt Alexandrian manuscripts). The [15]Alexandrian manuscripts alter, change or completely delete verses in 5,000 places, deviating away from the Authorized Version (i.e., the authorized 1611 King James translation). The popular [16]New International Version (NIV) changes or deletes over 64,000 words as compared to the blessed King James Bible!!! CONSIDER YOURSELF WARNED!!!

One pathetic wimp for a Baptist pastor—who sinfully bids Godspeed to Alexandrian-using, ecumenical, new-evangelical, Calvinist-teaching, churches—said to me that "it is not our business what other churches do!" WHAT AN IDIOT!! IT IS OUR BUSINESS!!! Do you see what he is wickedly doing? He bids Godspeed to doctrinal error (Calvinism and false Bibles), but then justifies it in his own mind by hiding being ethics. THAT IS VERY WRONG!!!

Folks, may I remind you that it is our duty as believers to expose Satan's works of darkness. Ephesians 5:11, "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them." Titus 1:9-11 and 13, "For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. ...This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith." If Christians don't preach the truth, then who will?

But you say, doesn't the Bible say "rebuke not an elder"? 1st Timothy 5:1-2, "Rebuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren. The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity." Who is an elder? The Scriptures are NOT talking about pastors here, evidenced by the reference to how we should also treat younger and older women in verse 2. The Scriptures are simply teaching that we ought to have a general respect for others, both younger and older alike. Young people ought to always show respect for those who are older than them, entreating them as parents.

Likewise, older folks ought to properly treat the younger folks as they would a brother or sister, in all purity and holiness in the Lord. However, the Scriptures plainly command us in numerous passages (as I just showed you) to REBUKE false prophets, regardless of their age or status. NO ONE is exempt from censorship and criticism if they teach doctrinal error or openly sin in the church. We ought always maintain a proper spirit of Christlike love for others, but never mistake sinful compromise (i.e., going along to get along) for love. It is much better to be divided over truth than to be united by error!

The Word of God teaches that "THE LOVE OF MONEY IS THE ROOT OF ALL EVIL" (1st Timothy 6:10). Jesus plainly said that NO MAN can serve God and money. Luke 16:13, "No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon." The Aramaic word "mammon" is not limited to extreme wealth; but rather, to riches (money) in general. In other words, you cannot serve God and a paycheck!!!

New-evangelicals are very dangerous spiritually, because they appear like true ministers, but they promote corrupt Bible versions and a false Gospel of Lordship Salvation. At the same time, many new-evangelical churches also support the free grace Gospel and the King James Bible, like Bob Jones University and their graduates half-heartedly do. Again, the most effective lie is the HALF-TRUTH, because in part it can be defended with incontestable logic!

Take Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for example. I attended HBC for one year in 2014, before I was driven out and banned by the pastors from returning, for [17]being their friend and warning them about the Devil's Alexandrian Bible perversions! The straw that broke the camel's back was when I gave Dr. Al Lacy's truthful book, " [18]NIV: THE ANTICHRIST'S BIBLE ," to the senior pastor. May I say, kindly but truthfully, the compromised pastors of Harvest Baptist Church aren't worthy to shine the shoes of [19]Evangelist Al Lacy (1933-2016). Please listen to Dr. Al Lacy preach the truthful MP3 sermon, " [20]On The King James Bible ."

Oh my friend, England's [21]Queen Bloody Mary of England murdered over 7,000 people , many families killed merely for wanting to read the Word of God for themselves, instead of worship the Roman Catholic religion. King Henry VIII was even worse, murdering 72,000 people. Here's some of the [22]horrific ways that people were tortured to death! Thank God for King James VI (King James Stewart), [23]who was not a Calvinist by the way! God has kept His solemn promise in Psalms 12:6-7 to preserve His inspired very pure words unto every generation, but infidel new-evangelical pastors today, actually think that God words exist among hundreds of Bible versions. ...

> "The problem with America is you dumb preachers!" —Pastor Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the needful sermon, "[24]Is There A Place Called Hell?"

Evangelist Billy Sunday (1862-1935) is right...

> "We've got churches, lots of them. We've got preachers, seminaries, and they are turning out preachers and putting them into little theological molds and keeping them there until they get cold enough to practice preaching." —Billy Sunday, "Criticism and Criticism" (chapter 18), from his biography by William T. Ellis titled, "Billy Sunday: The Man And His Message"

Pastor Steven Anderson rightly says...

> "The Devil knows if he can disarm us as Christians, he can defeat us!" —Pastor Steven L. Anderson, a quote from the truthful video, "[25]New World Order Bible Versions!"

What actress [26]Jane Fonda did during the Vietnam War , rallying for the enemy, is no different what Bob Jones is doing, siding with God's enemy!

Pastor Roger Jimenez is absolutely right...

> "They're putting mistakes in our Bible and then people are doubting God!" —Pastor Roger Jimenez, a quote from the truthful video, "[27]New World Order Bible Versions!"

Dr. Russell Anderson rightly says...

> "When God saves us, He has an investment in us; and He says, 'Occupy 'til I come' in Luke; and that means, I think, to transact business—we're supposed to transact business for Jesus while we're here—and we're going to have to give an answer someday, to the Lord, for the investment that He's made in us." —Dr. Russell Anderson; a truthful quote from, "[28]Jack Hyles & Beverly Hyles 40th Anniversary Celebration and Banquet" (1999)

Every believer has a responsibility to the truth. Most believers are either baby believers, or have not been blessed enough to have a pastor who cares about the truth to teach them. If you have a King James Bible only pastor, who exposes the modern counterfeit Bible versions, you ought to thank him and praise the Lord for such a man. Sadly, most pastors nowadays simply don't care!

Building Up a Wall of Resistance Against the Truth

Again, books could be written concerning the five preceding reasons why people so easily believe LIES. How strange it is that pastors, churches and Bible colleges are amongst THE MOST DECEIVED group of people in the world today...

> "Research has shown that people tend to avoid information that contradicts their beliefs or way of thinking. And this can be done in two ways, actively and passively."
> READ MORE: [29]http://www.grethexis.com/people-believe-lies-easily

This is why the lukewarm Moody Bible Institute and Bob Jones University camp today won't stand for the purity of God's Word. They promote and even sell two different, contradictory Greek texts (i.e., the Textus Receptus verses the Alexandrian text). Folks, God only authored ONE BOOK!!! Bob Jones and Moody are selling and supporting Bibles from TWO DIFFERENT SOURCES!!! The man with two watches never knows what time it is. How can you know the score in a ballgame if there are four different scores? Likewise, the man with two Bibles DOESN'T know what the truth is. I've had numerous professed Christians from the Bob Jones camp scold me for telling THE TRUTH!!! They believe me not because I am telling them THE TRUTH. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

Respectfully, why won't Bob Jones University, their president and their graduates seek and tell THE TRUTH? Why won't Moody Bible Institute seek and tell THE TRUTH? Why won't Baylor University seek and tell THE TRUTH? Why won't the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary seek and tell THE TRUTH? I could name a thousand apostate religious institutions. It is for the 5 preceding reasons. They blindly trust their mentors, pastors and college professors, going along with what they hear taught, regarding not THE TRUTH. They are afraid of being ostracized and shunned away by peers for straying from the common consensus (the herd mentality). The following quote, which is from the 5 reasons stated earlier, has Bob Jones University and their graduate's names written all over it...

> "Opting for information that corresponds to your own views is easy and safe. People, who want the illusion of safety, build an impervious wall around them blocking all information that could question their opinion."
> READ MORE: [30]http://www.grethexis.com/people-believe-lies-easily

I couldn't have said it better myself. That is why I have been excommunicated, shunned and driven away by a local independent Baptist church on Guam (aka, the Bob Jones crowd) since 2014, after I handed the senior pastor the TRUTHFUL book by Dr. Al Lacy titled, " [31]NIV: The Antichrist's Bible! " Boy, that opened a Pandora's Box!!!

I know the Lord is proud of me, and will reward ands honor me in eternity; but the Bob Jones crowd will be put to shame, lose their rewards, be rebuked and be punished for being false witnesses! Proverb 19:5, "A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape."

He's of the Devil if he says that the Bible is not verbally inspired by God!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, a great quote from the awesome MP3 sermon titled, "[35]Satan's masterpiece"

[36] BATTLE OF THE AGES

(MP3 by Dr. Hyles, "The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!")

[37] The Blood Sprinkled Book !
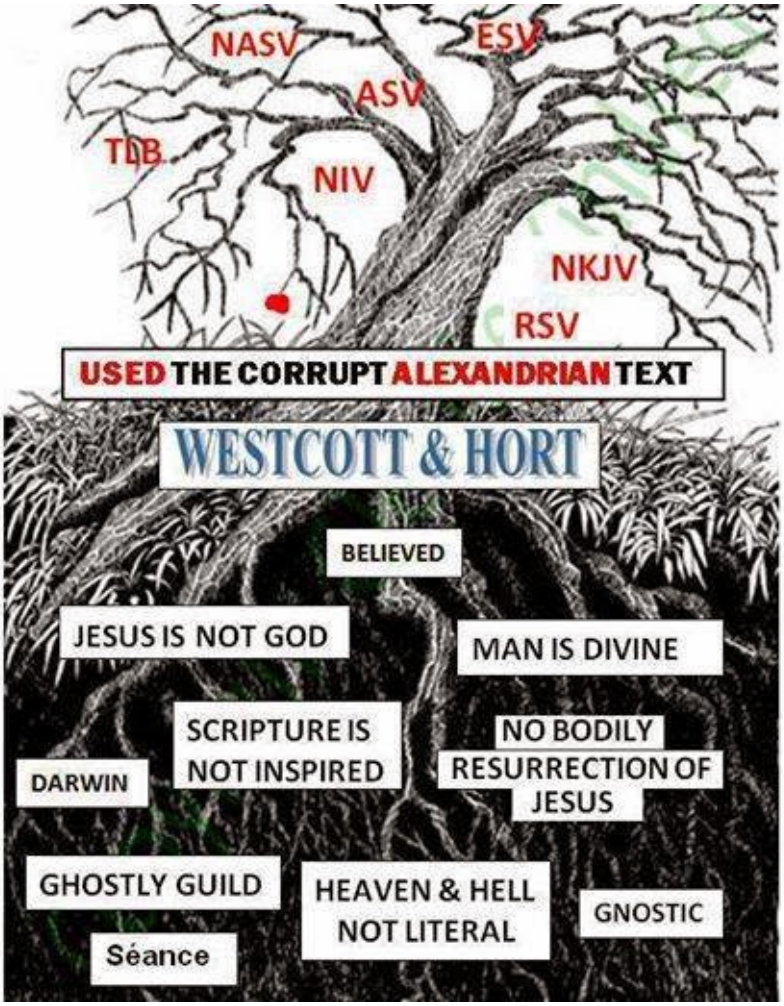
(Listen to the awesome [38]MP3 sermon by Dr. Al Lacy)

Most independent Baptist churches errantly deny the inspiration of the King James Bible. Instead they ignorantly claim that ONLY the original autographs of the Scriptures were inspired by God, and at best today we only have a preserved copy that is less than perfect). Since there are NO original autographs available today, effectively they are claiming that we do not have the VERY PURE words of God almighty! Psalms 119:140, "Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it."

> "It's easier to fool people than to convince them that they have been fooled." —Mark Twain



Most preachers quote 2nd Corinthians 4:4 about Satan being the god of this evil world and blinding the unsaved, but they overlook the first few verses that warn against DECEITFULLY HANDLING THE WORD OF GOD. The Alexandrian-based Bible versions, which include nearly every modern Bible revision, DECEITFULLY HANDLE THE WORD OF GOD!!! They corrupt it! They change it! They alter it! And then they sell it to make money off their nefarious deeds...

> 2nd Corinthians 4:1-4, “Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not; But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man’s conscience in the sight of God. But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.”

Are you seeing it my friend? The Devil has effectively BLINDED THE MINDS of unbelievers, with the corrupting new Bible versions that pervert the Gospel, to hinder them from being saved. Many tares have crept into the churches, trying to convince everyone that the Devil’s Bible versions still contain the Gospel, but THEY DON NOT!!! Please read my recent article, “ [39]The Fallacy of Thinking People Can Be Saved Through the Modern Alexandrian Bible Versions .” If you are dumb, the Devil has a new Bible version for you too!!!

Proverb 19:5, “A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.” The yuppie-type corrupt Bob Jones crowd will be held accountable by God, for promoting corruptible seed (i.e., Alexandrian fake Bible versions), and for tolerating the Devil’s lies (i.e., Alexandrian theology; such as, Lordship Salvation), and for pulling on the same rope as the Devil. While pseudo independent Baptists from the Bob Jones and Moody camp court their darling false prophets, like Ravi Zacharias, John MacArthur and [40]Stephen Davey , I am shunned and mistreated as an enemy because I am telling THE TRUTH. Galatians 4:16, “Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?” Proverb 19:5, “A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.”

6.5.7 Repentance Is Toward God From Unbelief, Not Forsaking Sinful Behavior (2025-05-17 10:15)

Acts 20:21, " Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ."

The inspired King James Bible teaches in our text passage that repentance is TOWARD GOD, not from your sinning. Biblical repentance according to Hebrews 6:1 is from your DEAD WORKS, not from your sinful bad habits. Hebrews 6:1-2, "Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment." Bad works and good works alike are DEAD WORKS! You don't get saved by any WORKS, you get saved by repenting (changing your mind) from your unbelief to trust Jesus Christ!

I am leery of over 95 % of Baptist churches today, who have adopted the Satanic ideology that you must "Repent of your sins" to get to Heaven, when no such teaching or phrase is found in the inspired King James Bible. If any church's corrupt Statement of Faith regarding salvation contains the unbiblical requirement to: "

Repent of your sins,

you should find a much better church to attend. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

We've got a bunch of incompetent clowns for Baptist pastors today who are woefully ignorant of THE TRUTH. They don't know what the Bible meaning of repentance is, which I speak to their laziness and shame. And tragically, many of them deliberately choose to remain vague to sit on the fence, to avoid taking a side in the ongoing debate over the meaning of repentance. Shame on those wicked neo-evangelical pastors!

I had the unpleasant experience a couple weeks ago of debating with a foolish local Baptist pastor in Pensacola, who admitted to me that he hasn't even bothered to examine what Ken Ham believes about salvation, and yet that knucklehead for a pastor is teaching from Answers-In-Genesis curriculum for the next 6 months to his church congregation. Shame on him!

I kindly told that pastor the dark truth that [1]Ken Him falsely requires people to “turn from your wicked ways, turn from your sins” and to “begin to follow Him” in order to be saved, neither of which is taught in the inspired Holy Bible. It’s not a small matter. I will go to seed in this matter of [2]properly preaching the Gospel.

From a certain perspective, I can sum up what it means to be a Christian “fundamentalist” in one statement: Little things are important.

And I can sum up what it means to be a wicked compromising “neo-evangelical”: Little things are not important.

Noe-evangelicals don’t care if different preachers change the Gospel with embellishments, adding this and subtracting that; but a fundamentalist is set for the defence of the Gospel, as was the Apostle Paul in Philippians 1:17b, “

...knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

” To a fundamentalist like me, little things do matter! It matters what we teach about repentance, Zionism, abortion, women wearing pants and everything else.

Neo-evangelical are okay with Christian women wearing pants in public, because they have low moral standards. But a fundamentalist Christian has high moral standards and rightly takes issue with the way females dress in public. The sin of lust (especially in this perverse Hollywood generation today) is a serious problem. Why would any Christian woman want to dress in such a way that may cause a man who is struggling with lust to sin further? Shame on any Christian women, especially pastor’s wives, who wear pants in public.

This blog is about repentance primarily. It matters what we teach and preach. In eternity we must all give account to God for our every word spoken (Matthew 12:36; Proverbs 24:12, 30:5-6). RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS! THE WAY WE TREAT PEOPLE MATTERS! I learned a very long time ago that our great God cares about little things.

He knows when a little bird falls from the sky (Matthew 10:29). God knows the number of hairs upon your head

(Matthew 10:30). The Lord cares about little birds in their nest (Deuteronomy 22:6-7). God sees even if you give a cup of water to a disciple of Jesus (Matthew 10:42).

In sharp contrast, the neo-evangelical doesn’t care. They don’t care about people. Neo-evangelical pastors don’t care if they lose church members, and they won’t lift a finger to bring back hurting and disgruntled people. I speak this to their utter shame and contempt before God almighty. People just want to be loved, but there is a woeful lack of love and compassion in today’s neo-evangelical Baptist churches across America.

I am speaking about the shameful cult at [3]Pensacola Christian College (PCC), with their wrong teachings on repentance and salvation. [4]PCC is wrong on the Gospel of free grace! These wolves in sheep’s clothing must be exposed, to warn other unsuspecting victims who may end up in Hell because of PCC’s corrupt theology. Shame on their incompetent pastors at Campus Church! PCC are buddies with [5]Bob Jones University (BJU), a cesspool of Calvinist false prophets. Tragically, PCC has invited and honored infidel Steve Pettit, former long time president of BJU from 2014 to 2023. [6]I have been praying for BJU to close their doors and I sure hope it happens! God only knows how many millions of people will burn in Hell in eternity, because of BJU’s preaching of Satan’s deadly lie of Lordship Salvation.

RUN dear reader from these neo-evangelical religious college cults and fake churches!

6.5.8 The Heathen World Knows What's Wrong With Women Wearing Pants (2025-05-17 20:07)

Proverbs 7:10, " And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart."

1st Timothy 2:9-10, “

In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.”

It matters Christian ladies how you dress. It really does! Proverbs 7:10 speaks of the attire of an harlot. A century ago pants on a woman were considered the attire of a harlot. In fact, the prostitutes in 1890 were clothed more modestly than over 95 % of pastor’s wives today. I speak that to their utter shame in our churches today! God’s moral standards have not changed or deteriorated, ours have. It is a sin for any women to wear sexy tight blue jeans!

One of the most controversial subjects in America’s churches today is pants on women, but there is NO controversy if you believe the Bible. I am humbly proud to be called a “ fundamentalist Christian.

That simply means that I believe the King James Bible is verbally (word for word) inspired by almighty God, and I take it literally. The Bible is abundantly plain in the matter of women’s dress, that they must cloth themselves in MODEST APPAREL. 1st Timothy 2:9-10, “

In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.”

Women who wear pants deliberately cause men to sinfully lust and commit adultery. It is this evil spirit of fornication which has caused tens of millions of unwanted pregnancies in the United States, and [1]65,464,760 abortions in America since 1973 . Shame on any Christian woman who wears pants in public, and woe unto the pastor’s wives who set the example for the other women and girls in the church to follow. I recently heard a wicked pastor’s wife sinfully compliment a little girl on her nice shorts that she was wearing. A pastor’s wife is not right with God who encourages little girls to dress immodestly.

1st Timothy 2:9 clearly instructs women to dress MODESTLY, i.e., of good behavior. A woman’s clothing says MUCH about her character. I guarantee you that women who approve of abortion (i.e., murder) also see no problem with women wearing pants. It’s more than coincidence in a nation where most women scoff and laugh at the notion of women dressing modestly that 65,464,760 of those same women have murdered their own children by abortion. Those doctors are all murderers in God’s sight (Exodus 20:13)! There is [2]not one medical reason in 2025 for any woman to kill her child by an abortion .

If you don’t want to listen to the inspired Holy Bible, then maybe you’ll listen to a secular singer as proof from the unsaved world why pants on women are sinful. The following lyrics are from the worldly Hip Hip artist, Chingy, from his 2006 album titled, “ Hoodstar.

” T he song title is

Dem Jeans

”...

Chingy - Dem Jeans Lyrics:

[JD]
How the hell did you get all of that in dem jeans

How da how da hell did you get all of that in dem jeans
’cause your waist so little and your ass it like wo
’cause your waist so little and your ass it like wo

[Chingy]
Back it up a bit
Yeah that’s it
’cause I can see your thong
Caramel skin tone...

Let me help you with dem jeans
Baby lay down

[Chorus]
Damn Girl
How’d you get all that in Dem Jeans
Dem Jeans
How’d you get all that in Dem
Damn Girl
How’d you get all that (Is you talkin to me?)

Yeah you
I bet you had to jump up and down
Just to put ’em on
Bet you had to wiggle it around
Just to put ’em on
Bet you had to lay back on the bed
Just to zip ’em up
Am I right?
(You right)
Baby that’s what’s up

[JD]
Now Now Now
When walkin’ girl
And you make it swirl
Its hard for me not to look ...

[Lyrics found on http://www.metrolyrics.com]

Hope you ain’t up in here with your man ma
I love it when you wiggle it Shake it
Drop it and do your little dance ma
True Religion, 7’s...

When you walk away it make me wanna rub it...

[Chorus]
Damn Girl
How’d you get all that in Dem Jeans
Dem Jeans
How’d you get all that in Dem...

I bet you had to jump up and down
Just to put ’em on
Bet you had to wiggle it around
Just to put ’em on
Bet you had to lay back on the bed
Just to zip ’em up
Am I right?
(You right)
Baby that’s whets up

[Chingy]
I don’t mean to be rude but I like
The way you move
Got your boy in the mood...

let it show it, like them curves

make that thing talk when you walk
I’m slurring ma words...

man you working wit a lot.

Only a rebellious woman who dares to deliberately disobey the inspired Holy Bible would wear pants. Shame on you defiant Baptist pastor’s wives who wear your sexy pants in public!!! It is clear from this worldly singer, Chingy, why women should not wear pants. Pants on women is adulterous in nature, causing men to lust and sin. Jesus made this clear in Matthew 5:28, “ But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. ”

I debated with a young foolish local Baptist pastor in Pensacola recently, who shamefully defended his wife’s wearing sexy pants. I saw her at a church picnic and she was wearing tight sexy blue jeans, which is very immoral and sinful to do. Her knucklehead henpecked husband told me in his office that he doesn’t have temptation to lust when he sees a woman bending over wearing pants. He’s either a big lair, a homosexual, or he needs to go see a doctor because something is wrong with him! That pastor’s wife’s sexy butt displayed in her tight blue jeans sure caught my eyes!!! I don’t have a dirty mind, I have a man’s mind! Only a backslidden pastor in denial would disagree with that truthful statement. Any honest righteous man knows that pants on a woman is sinful and very wrong.

It is shameful and wicked!!!

I wouldn’t want to be in that pastor’s wife’s pants on Judgment Day when she stands accountable before God (Romans 14:10-12). The very fact that she would NEVER in a thousand years choose to appear before God wearing a pair of tight blue jeans, proves that she knows what she is doing is very wrong. Right morals matters!

My mentor of the Christian faith, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), was a high standards Bible preacher, which is why so many incompetent new evangelical pastors relentlessly hate, attack and slander him (including the young pastor that I just mentioned, who slandered Brother Hyles when I met with him a couple weeks ago in his office). You’re not going to shut me up buster! No way! I am going to go to seed in this important righteous matter that Christian women are not biblically allowed to wear sexy tight pants. Proverbs 12:17, “ He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.”

By the way, that young ungodly henpecked Baptist pastor shamefully told me that he is not a fundamentalist. Gee, no kidding, I never would have known! He didn’t need to tell me that he wasn’t a fundamentalist Christian, I knew that 3 1/2 years ago when I started visiting his church. It’s becoming very difficult nowadays to find a great church. Most of the Baptist churches today have been sucked into the Devil’s “

Repent of your sins

garbage to get to Heaven, Satan’s lie of Lordship Salvation, Zionism, [3]New IFB heresies, and other wicked doctrines of devils that have infected today’s churches. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS! RIGHT MORALS MATTERS! THE WAY WE TREAT PEOPLE MATTERS!

Deuteronomy 22:5 forbids women from wearing men’s clothing. Neo-evangelical pastors and their ungodly Jezebel hussy wives can wrest and deny the Scriptures all they want in a wicked attempt to justify women wearing pants in public, but the biblical truth cannot be denied that Christian women ought not wear sexy tight pants.

Pastor's wives who wear sexy pants in public don't love Jesus as much as they think they do. Instead of being an example to the younger women and girls by walking in holiness and meekness, they are blaspheming the inspired Word of God by wearing their whorish attire.

It didn't surprise me either that her husband (the pastor) told me shamefully that he denies the inspiration of the King James Bible. He admittedly supports some of the Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort perversions of the Bible. That incompetent pastor specifically mentioned that he supports the [4]Modern English Version (MEV), which is also [5]horribly corrupted by Satan.

God pity these arrogant, misinformed and incompetent lazy neo-evangelical Baptist pastors today who won't lead the church to go door to door soulwinning, won't preach biblically against sin, won't contend for the Christian faith once delivered unto the saints, and are sinfully okay with Christian women wearing tight sexy pants in public. No wonder the United States is going to the Devil in a wheelbarrow! Isaiah 1:4,

Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

6.5.9 If Dinosaurs Coexisted With Humans, Where Are They Today? (2025-05-18 17:43)

Psalms 102:25, "Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands."

If dinosaurs coexisted with man, where are they today only 6,000 years later? It is not plausible to believe that God would create dinosaurs and then they would all die shortly after creation while the rest of His creation survived. According to fossil records, scientists tell us that there were at least [1]300 different species of dinosaurs. It is crazy for anyone to even suggest that every one of those 300 plus species all died within a couple thousand years of creation and none of them exist today, just [2]4,373 years after Noah's flood. This fact alone bears solid evidence that dinosaurs existed before mankind did.

I love the '[3]Demonology' course by Pastor Curtis Hutson. In 1973 the Exorcist movie came out, which rattled a lot of Christians. The Demonology series was Dr. Hutson's reply to the movie in 1974. Dr. Hutson was preaching as pastor of the Forest Hills Baptist Church in Decatur, Georgia at the time. In this intriguing 6-part Demonology series Dr. Hutson goes into detail biblically why he believes that the earth is very old, with which logic I fully concur.

Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023) also wrote a helpful book titled, "[4]The Truth About Evolution; Or, Don't Let Satan Make A Monkey Out Of You," in which he does an excellent job explaining an old earth and exposing the young earth fallacy. In particular I love chapter 12 titled, "[5]The Remodeling." Dr. Younce explains how God remodeled the earth during the 6-days of creation, with which biblical logic I also fully concur.

Dr. Younce helped me solidify my belief of an old earth. Common sense tells us that there is no plausible way that dinosaurs could have lived in harmony with humans. One look at a [6]velociraptor or [7]tyrannosaurus convinced me that humans and dinosaurs didn't coexist 5,000 years ago. I recently debated with a foolish local Baptist pastor in Pensacola, who accuses old earth advocates of leaning more on science than the Holy Bible. I told him that legitimate science, as well as the Bible, agree with an old earth view. That pastor is misguided and ignorant.

> "Science without religion is lame, religion without science is blind." —Albert Einstein (1879-1955)

Scientists tell us that dinosaurs lived 60 to 220 million years ago, with which I have no problem biblically. Scientists tell us that the earth is 4.5 billion years old, with which claim again I have no problem biblically. And they say the universe is 13.4 billion years old. I see no reason to doubt this claim. Albeit, I 100 % reject all forms of evolution, including Theistic Evolution, which says that God created the world and then it evolved. I rejected that thesis. Nothing in creation ever evolved. I simply believe the truth that the earth itself is very old, likely billions of years.

I believe that the human race is only 6,000 years old. History dates human civilization [8]starting with the Sumerian culture at approximately 3,500 BC. The Bible dates creation at approximately 4,000 BC. The older I get, the more I reject the insane claims of young earth advocates. Henry Morris III is a primary example of a lunatic young earther, who [9]insanely teaches that Noah brought baby dinosaurs aboard the ark, and then God stunted their growth for one year to prevent their growth. Then Henry Morris bizarely says the dinosaurs just died off after the flood. There is [10]no scientific evidence of a young earth.

I respect other's right to disagree with me, but I have learned firsthand that many young earthers are bullies, going as far as to accuse old earthers of corrupting the Gospel and going to Hell. That is evil. Evangelist Kent Hovind is guilty of doing this. Hovind wrongly accuses old earthers of perverting the Gospel, alleging that we teach sin existed before Adam. Well, it did! Eve sinned before Adam, and the serpent sinned before Eve.

[11]Arthur Custance (1910-1985) also wrote a helpful booklet explaining an old earth view titled: "[12]Without Form And Void."

I am a firm believer in an old earth. Even the Bible says in Psalms 102:25, "Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands." The psalmist (Pastor Jack Hyles thinks Daniel penned this psalm) specifically mentions the age of the foundation of the earth itself. "OF OLD" the Bible says, God laid the foundation of the earth.

The Bible says that Adam named all the animals (Genesis 2:19-20). Yet, all of the dinosaurs were named in the 1800's by scientists. That is because there were no dinosaurs in Adam's time. This is one of many evidences of an old earth. I heard Kent Hovind ridiculously claim that in every culture there are fables and folklore of fire breathing dragons, which he cites as proof that dinosaurs lived with humans. That is as lame as it gets! This is the most credible so-called evidence that young earth advocates can muster up? That is shameful.

I agree with Pastor Max Younce that it's not the "Gap Theory," it's the "Gap Principle." It's not a theory, it is what the Bible teaches! There are so many scientific and biblical problems with a young earth view that it baffles me how any professed Christian could continue to adhere to such tomfoolery and poppycock. You'd have to be a darn fool to insanely believe that over 300 different species of dinosaurs just suddenly died within the last 6,000 years, while the rest of God's creation thrived until modern times.

Where are the Pterodactyls? Where are the mammoths, the sabretooth tigers, the giant bears and all of the amazing ancient giant animals? Don't you dare tell me that they just dropped dead, or that Noah merely left them behind (which was Dr. John R. Rice's insane answer). Clearly, they were all prehistoric creatures that lived long before mankind inhabited the earth. It couldn't be more obvious to any learned student who rightly divides the inspired Word of God that the earth is very old, and that the young earth religious crowd are completely deceived and wrong, both scientifically and biblically. God gave us brains to think, let's use them.

6.5.10 Corrupt Bible Versions: THE CHRISTIAN BLACKLIST (2025-05-21 08:45)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, " For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ."

All of the following modern Bible revisions are corrupted by Satan to brutally attack the deity of Jesus. The inspired King James Bible says in Mark 4:15, "Satan cometh immediately and taketh away the word. . ."

I was recently in Walmart scouting through the book section where I came across two Bibles, the King James Version (KJB) and the New International Version (NIV). I found it disheartening to read the front of the NIV where it said, "the best selling bible version."

The translators of the New International Version (NIV), decided to leave 64,576 words out of their bible, the equivalent to 30 books!

THE MOST POWERFUL SCRIPTURE IDENTIFYING THE TRINITY (GODHEAD):

“For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.” 1 John 5:7 (KJV)

The new demonic versions of the inspired Holy Bible have CHANGED THE MOST POWERFUL SCRIPTURE IDENTIFYING THE TRINITY! The Devil’s hands have been very busy! See the Devil’s handiwork for yourself...

“For there are three that testify:” 1 John 5:7 (NIV)

“For there are three that testify:” (ESV – English Standard Version)

“For there are three that testify:” (HCSB – Holman Christian StandardBible)

“For there are three that testify:” (NASB – New American Standard Bible)

“So we have these three witnesses[a]—“(NLT – New Living Translation)

“There are three that give witness about Jesus.”(NIRV – New International Reader’s Bible)

“For there are three that testify:” (English Standard Version Anglicised)

“For there are three that testify,” (Lexham English Bible)

“For there are three that testify,” (Mounce Reverse-Interlinear New Testament)

“For there are three that testify,” (New English Translation)

“And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is the truth.” (American Standard Version)

“The three are testifying—.

(Common English Bible)

“In fact, there are three who tell about it.” (Contemporary English Version)

“For they that bear witness are three:” (Darby Translation)

“So there are three witnesses that tell us about Jesus:” (Easy-to-ReadVersion)

“So [or For] there are three •witnesses[a] [who testify/bear witness]:” (Expanded Bible)

“There are three witnesses:” (GOD’S WORD Translation)

“There are three witnesses:” (Good News Translation)

"So there are three witnesses:" (New Century Version)

"There are three that testify:"(New Revised Standard Version)

"There are three that testify:" (New Revised Standard Version Anglicized)

"There are three that testify:" (New Revised Standard Version, Anglicized Catholic Edition)

"There are three that testify:" (New Revised Standard Version Catholic Edition)

"And the Spirit is the witness, because the Spirit is the truth." (Revised Standard Version)

"And the Spirit is the witness, because the Spirit is the truth." (Revised Standard Version Catholic Edition)

"So there are three testifying witnesses:" (The Voice)

"For there are three who testify:" (World English Bible)

Here's another example of how Satan attacks God's inspired Word by changing it...

Revelation 1:11, "I am Alpha and Omega" (KJV)

Revelation 1:11 is omitted in the NIV!

Another example...

Acts 8:37, "And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God." (KJV).

Acts 8:37 is omitted in the NIV!

What saith the Scripture? **"

For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

–Revelation 22:18-19 (KJV)

Why does the NIV change and omit MANY important Bible verses? It is because the newer versions of the Holy Bible are corrupted by Satan.

The Antichrist will use these NEW CORRUPT VERSIONS to set up his One World New Age

Religion, with its mark and worship of the Antichrist and the dragon.

“Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.”

–Romans 16:17 (KJV)

6.5.11 I Encourage You To Listen To Pastor Steven Anderson (2025-05-23 03:26)

Dear reader, if you are not a fundamentalist Christian, you are not right with God! A fundamentalist is a born again Christian who walks closely with God. He (or she) is against women wearing pants. He doesn’t think it’s okay to drink booze socially. He doesn’t think it is okay to smoke tobacco. A fundamentalist lives a separated life, trying to walk in holiness in the Lord’s strength (Galatians 2:20).

A fundamentalist man contends for the faith. He studies his inspired King James Bible and shuns the Devil’s modern Bible perversions. A fundamentalist man exclaims with Joshua in Joshua 24:14b, “ choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

I know that [1]Pastor Steven Anderson is highly controversial, but I’d 10,000 times rather see you listen to him than dingleberry fools like Joel Osteen, Steven Furtick, Gordon Robertson, Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, Charles Stanley, Joyce Meyer, Beth Moore, Jeff Redlin, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, John MacArthur, Gary Walton, Ken Ham, Ray Comfort, Adrian Rogers, Sam Gipp, William P. Grady, Keith Gomez, Peter S. Ruckman, Jack Chick, David Cloud, Paul Washer or other devils in the pulpit today!!! All of these religious clowns preach Wrong Repentance!!! They all errantly teach that you cannot go to Heaven unless you are first willing to forsake your sinful bad habits. Nowhere does the inspired King James Bible teach that garbage! The only thing you repent (change your mind) about to be saved is to admit that you are a needy SINNER, and Jesus is the only SAVIOR.

I listen to Pastor Anderson preach on a regular basis. I encourage all my ministry visitors to listen to Bible preaching regularly. Bible preaching helps us think and subsequently, live right. I heard this sermon today on Rumble by Brother Anderson...

[2]Luke 20

In the sermon he teaches this truth...

> CHRIST-ianity = Worship of CHRIST.
> JU-daism = Worship of the JEWS.

Yes, he is so right! I loathe the evils of Zionism! We’ve got a bunch of stupid churches today who worship manmade Israel, when they should be focused on soulwinning, winning as many Jews and Gentiles to Christ as possible with the Gospel of free grace. Heaven is colorblind! [3]Galatians 3:28 teaches that there is neither Jew nor Greek in Christ, we are all equal.

In that same sermon from Luke 20, Pastor Anderson rightly exposes the Satanic Catholic practice of Mary worship. Catholics wickedly worship Jesus’ mother, Mary. The Lord Himself rebuked the idea that his mother was worthy of any special significance in Christianity, which you’ll have to listen to the sermon to learn about...lol. Really, I hope you will start listening to Pastor Anderson. I wouldn’t lead you astray from the truth. This man is good to hear. I have led my own family to listen to Brother Anderson for over the past 10 years and am glad that they love him. I am tired of deadbeat pastors who do nothing by collect a paycheck. I thank God for Pastor Anderson, even though [4]I disagree with him on several issues.

I love Pastor Anderson because he is a fighter and stands without compromise or apology for what is moral and right. We need Bible preachers like him. It is tragic that 99 % of pastors today don’t stand against anything; they are clowns in the pulpit. Any pastor who promotes infidel [5]Ken Ham and his ’Answers-In-Genesis’ heresy is a fool. I’m talking about the clowns at Pensacola Christian College and their dingleberry pastor, Jeff Redlin.

There are no perfect Bible preachers. [9]I love Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), but he would be the first to admit that he wasn’t a perfect preacher. Albeit, I would 10,000 times rather listen to a fiery fundamentalist Bible preacher like Dr. Hyles, than to some arrogant young fool who doesn’t think we have a perfect inspired holy Bible today in the King James Bible, nor does he think that women shouldn't wear sexy tight blue jeans in public, nor does he care about the correct meaning of Bible repentance, et cetera. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

I cannot name even one preacher living or deceased with whom I agree on everything. That is normal and to be expected. Albeit, the two deal breakers are the King James Bible and a free grace plan of salvation. If a church uses the Devil's modern corrupt Bible revisions, or preaches a false plan of damnable Lordship Salvation or Misunderstood Repentance, I refuse to attend those cults. America is going to Hell because of fake bibles and counterfeit plans of salvation, which evils plague Baptist churches today.

[10]A Warning To The Wicked

(Pastor Steven L. Anderson)

Last year Brother Anderson's four oldest children attacked him and Mrs. Anderson on social media, cursing their parent's name in anger for their imperfections. We all saw four brilliant young people with exceptional learning, work character and upbringing. Some families quit Faithful Word Baptist Church. Hypocritical pastors everywhere called for Pastor Anderson's resignation. I am glad that he stayed the course and refused to quit.

Evangelist Billy Sunday and his wife's [11]three sons all went to the Devil. Billy Sunday himself said publicly that although God had used his preaching to lead over one million lost souls to Jesus, his own three sons were all hellbound drunkards. Their oldest son George was arrested for stealing a vehicle and public drunkenness in the early 1930's. George sadly commit suicide in 1933. His biological father, Billy Sunday died shortly thereafter in 1935. So we see that sometimes the children of faithful soulwinning preachers shame their parents.

Even one of Jesus' very chosen apostles, Judas Iscariot, went to the Devil (John 6:70). Just because Christian parents raise up their children in a church environment in a religious home doesn't guarantee that they won't live for the Devil. All you can do is your best to be a parent (despite the mistakes that we all make as parents) and pray for God's grace to help our children live for the Lord. There are no perfect parents, children or homes. And may I say truthfully, I learned as a young boy that you never wash your family's dirty laundry in public!

Dear reader, if you are offended that I am recommending listening to Pastor Steven Anderson, kindly said, then just don't listen to him, but I will continue to hear him because he is a fighting fundamentalist, and we need fiery Bible preachers like him in this dark hour in America. Somebody needs to preach with authority or the world will go to Hell. Just as the religious Pharisees hated and sought to destroy Jesus, so also do wicked neo-evangelicals today relentlessly attempt to discredit, attack, malign and destroy fundamentalist preachers.

Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

6.5.12 Should Society Be Forced To Support The Poor, Elderly And Needy? (2025-05-24 13:59)

2nd Thessalonians 3:10-11, "For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies."

I can honestly say that our broken American system has given shameful rise to an abundance professional panhandler bums nationwide. They are indeed BUMS! That is, they just refuse to work a job (for whatever reason). We see them on nearly every major intersection across the country, perfectly healthy young people panhandling for money. I refuse to give them a penny!

That being said, I saw a woman with both legs amputated last week in a wheelchair, who asked for some money to buy a meal, so I had compassion on her and gave her a Gospel of John and $40 in Jesus' name, because it was obvious that she is disabled.

I [1]posted this article from former Congressman Ron Paul's website which exposes the evils of our government's abusive income tax system in the United States. One of [2]my Facebook friends who is elderly said she disagrees. She thinks that society has a government forced obligation to financially support the elderly, poor and needy. She couldn't be more wrong biblically. The following is my Christian response to her.

> Like it or not, the original purpose of government was simply to protect our person, property and freedom, nothing more. It was never the intent of our founding fathers that the government care for retirees or the elderly, provide welfare, education, give trillions of dollars to Israel and other foreign countries. Historically it was the churches who cared for the poor. It's not right to force the younger working generation to support the older generation, which is communism. There are many things to consider.
> Since 1913 our government leaders have sold us out financially. Adjusting for inflation, in the 81 years between the enactment of the income tax in 1913 to 1994, government spending increased 13,592 %! Countless Americans have had their houses stolen from them by the government for failing to pay taxes, which is evil and tyranny. In the Bible, widows were taken in by the church to be cared for. The Bible does not teach welfare for anyone. Families should take care of their own. Other people's problems are not the responsibility of society to fix. That is true liberty!

Here is her reply to the preceding comments that I posted...

> The churches these days do not help people financially and I have no one for any help, so I would like to be able to get a job eventually, though I am aged in my sixties but I could not do a job at present. I don't have enough money to be retired.

Here is my biblical reply to her...

> Kindly, you are delving into hypothetical scenarios of which anything can be justified. Right doesn't change with circumstances. It is never right to force someone to support other's financially who are struggling. That is why God commands us as Christians to show love, compassion, mercy and grace toward others. The heathen world doesn't care.
> One of the worst sins of Sodom was their unwillingness to help care for the poor and needy (Ezekiel 16:49). But just because the inhabitants of Sodom didn't care enough to help the poor and needy doesn't make it okay for the government to turn communist by forcing its citizens to support the unfortunate of society, which would be tyranny. This is why a tyrannical police state of law and order is slowly rising up in the United States, because Americans increasingly refuse to obey God. Those humans who refuse to be governed by God will be ruled over by tyrants.

Dear reader, when a society fails to obey God (and society is comprised of the sum total of all its individual members) chaos follows. People nowadays have all sorts of wrong ideas, suggestions and demands which are the consequence of a wicked culture that has forgotten the authoritative holy God of the inspired written Holy Bible.

Just like moronic fools who refuse to follow the included instructions to assemble a new product, choosing rather to use bubblegum, duck tape and rubber bands instead of the provided proper hardware; so also is our ungodly American culture attempting to solve all of our dire problems with secular psychology, education and a thug police state (more laws and lengthier prison sentences) instead of repenting toward God to obey the inspired Holy Bible (which is God's instruction manual for humanity). It's not that hard top figure out!

Finally, the Truth on National TV when Billy Graham's daughter Anne was being interviewed on The Early Show and Jane Clayson asked her, "How could God let something like this happen?" (Referring to the September 11th Attack in 2001). Miss Anne Graham gave an extremely profound and insightful response. She eloquently and truthfully said:

> "I believe God is deeply saddened by this, just as we are, but for years we've been telling God to get out of our schools, to get out of our government and to get out of our lives. And being the gentleman He is, I believe He has calmly backed out. How can we expect God to give us His blessing and His protection if we demand He leave us alone?"
> In light of recent events... hurricanes, terrorists attack, school shootings, et cetera. I think it started when Madeleine Murray O'Hare (she was murdered, her body found recently) complained she didn't want prayer in our schools, and we said OK.
>
> Then someone said you better not read the Bible in school, the Bible says thou shalt not kill, thou shalt not steal, and love your neighbor as yourself. And we said OK.
>
> Then Dr. Benjamin Spock said we shouldn't spank our children when they misbehave because their little personalities would be warped and we might damage their self-esteem (Dr. Spock's son committed suicide). We said an expert should know what he's talking about. And we said OK.
>
> Now we're asking ourselves why our children have no conscience, why they don't know right from wrong, and why it doesn't bother them to kill strangers, their classmates, and themselves.
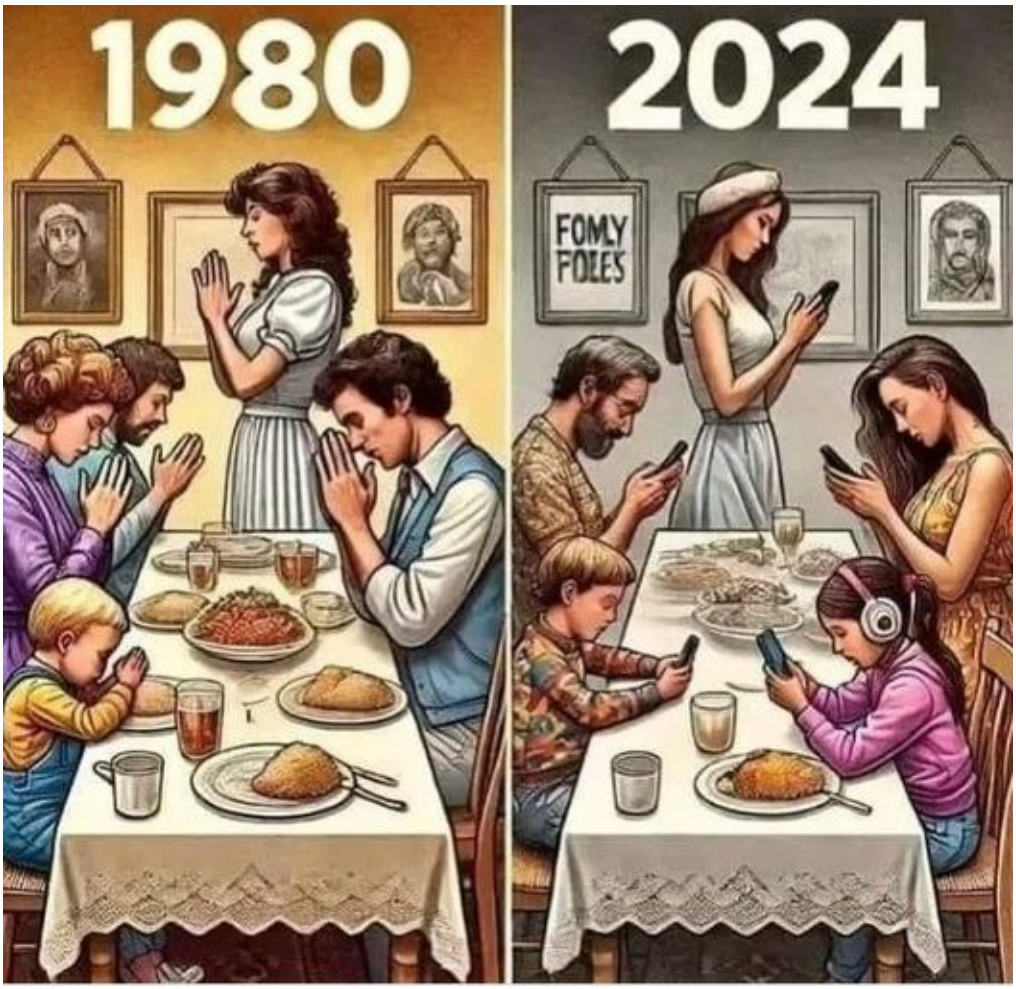
> Probably, if we think about it long and hard enough, we can figure it out. I think it has a great deal to do with "WE REAP WHAT WE SOW."



Amen and amen! Anne Graham is 100 % correct. If the American people were right with God, we wouldn't need any old folk's homes for elderly people who've been forgotten about by their spoiled brat children. Elderly Americans wouldn't need to journey by bus to Canada to purchase affordable medications that they need. We abuse the elderly in the United States, bringing God's certain judgment upon our nation! But despite the wickedness of American society today, the law must never force anyone to support strangers.

I know that some of my readers will disagree with me, and that's to be expected, but it was never the intent of any government to solve people's problems, educate our children, bail out foreign countries from their money woes and wars, or financially provide welfare. In a heathen humanistic society people look to big government to solve their problems and care for them, but God intended that we look to Him alone to remedy our problems and provide for our needs. Psalms 121:2,

“ My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth. ”

I know about the corrupt Military Industrial Complex in the United States, and I do not always support our troops when they go out to murder innocent people, like the 2,300,000 murdered Iraqis in the illegal Iraq War (2003-2011). The ungodly Bush administration have the blood of 2,997 Americans murdered in the World Trade Center on 9/11, as well as over 2,300,000 murdered Iraqis upon their hands, not to mention the murdered Afghani people! HELL WILL BE HOT ENOUGH for Dick Cheney, George W. Bush, Condoleezza Rice, Donald Rumsfeld, et cetera. These war criminal define evil! We all know that [2]9/11 WAS AN INSIDE JOB!!!

That being said, those young fellas over the past century have enrolled into the armed forces to serve their country had their hearts in the right place. No doubt many of them merely signed up in exchange for a salary, benefits, college funds or to escape going to prison. And there's nothing wrong with that. Although I am a conscientious objector at times as a U.S. born American citizen and lifelong taxpayer, I still sincerely appreciate our veterans, especially the ones who courageously sacrificed their lives on the battlefield to preserve our freedoms.

So, I say THANK YOU to all of our U.S. veterans!

6.5.15 A Christian Cannot Be Demon Possessed (2025-05-27 19:00)

Luke 11:24-26, "When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out. And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first."

Someone recently asked, "Can a Christian be demon possessed? Or can they be demonically oppressed?"

A born-again Christian cannot be possessed by demons. Scripture makes it clear that at the moment of salvation, a believer is permanently indwelt and sealed by God's Holy Spirit (Ephesians 1:13; Romans 8:9; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17, 6:19; 1st John 3:24). We are bought with a price and belong to God (1st Corinthians 6:20). That price is the precious blood of Jesus (1st Peter 1:18-19). Possession implies ownership and control, but believers are now under the authority of Christ and have been transferred from the domain of darkness into His kingdom (Colossians 1:13). Since God and Satan are not co-tenants, demon possession of a believer is categorically impossible (2nd Corinthians 6:14-16).

However, believers can be oppressed by demons. While demons cannot indwell or possess the child of God, they can certainly harass, attack, influence or bring external pressure. Inspired Scripture records that Paul was given a "messenger of Satan to torment" him (2nd Corinthians 12:7), and Peter warns that our adversary the devil "prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour" (1st Peter 5:8). This kind of oppression may come in the form of spiritual, emotional, or circumstantial attacks—but always from the outside, never from within.

Believers can also be influenced by demons, particularly through false doctrine, worldly ideologies, and subtle deception. Paul warned that "in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to deceitful spirits and doctrines of demons" (1st Timothy 4:1). The battlefield is the mind, which is why we are commanded to take every thought captive to the obedience of Christ (2nd Corinthians 10:5-6), and to renew our minds daily by the inspired Word of God (Romans 12:2). Demonic influence comes when we neglect the truth and fail to walk by faith.

In summary, while a born-again believer cannot be possessed by a demon due to the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit, he or she can be afflicted through external spiritual attacks and influences by lying false teachers and slanderers. That's why we're commanded to put on the whole armor of God, stand firm in His strength, and remain alert (Ephesians 6:10-18). Christ has already won the decisive victory at the cross (Colossians 2:15); and though we still face battles, we fight from a position of security and strength in the Lord.

The Origin Of Fallen Angels (Demons)

The Bible teaches about demon possession. I believe that demons originated from the fall of Lucifer before the human race was ever created. I strongly believe in an old earth. That is, I believe that [1]God remodeled the earth during the literal six days of creation approximately 6,000 BC, but the earth itself is billions of years old. Science tells us that the earth is about 4.5 billion years old. I have no problem with that estimate. They tell us that the universe is about 13.7 billion years old. Again, I have no problem with that claim. What saith the Scripture? Psalms 102:25, "Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands." The psalmist (Pastor Jack Hyles thinks it was likely Daniel the prophet) made a definite distinction regarding the age of the earth from all else. I humbly think that fact is significant.

Having said that, I absolutely reject all forms of evolution. I recently met with a young whipper-snapper local Baptist pastor in Pensacola, who took issue with several of my website articles. He disagreed with me that women shouldn't wear pants (his wife shamefully wears sexy tight blue jeans in public), that the government should execute sodomites, an old earth (he teaches a young earth), et cetera. It was not a pleasant meeting. He had a bad attitude, defiant against the truth, and admitted to me that he is a neo-evangelical pastor (in sharp contrast, I am a born again fighting fundamentalist Bible preacher).

Anyway, that local pastor made the false accusation to me that adherents of an old earth (aka, Gap Theorists) lean heavily upon science rather than the Holy Bible. I immediately told him that he was very wrong. Legitimate science and the inspired Holy Bible agree! Dr. Einstein said it well...

> "Science without religion is lame, religion without science is blind." —Albert Einstein (1879-1955)

Young earthers are in the same sinking boat as those lunatics who still think the earth is flat. The Bible warns against false science. 1st Timothy 6:20, "

O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called:

Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

" The best examples of FALSE SCIENCE that I can think of are: The fallacies of evolution, a flat earth and Geocentricity (the lie that the earth is stationary and our solar system rotates around the earth).

It matters what we believe! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! Intelligent unsaved people won't listen to an ignoramus pastor who bizarrely believes the tomfoolery that the earth is flat. Scientists tell us that there have been at least 300 species of dinosaurs unearthed and identified. You'd have to be a darn fool to believe that over 300 species of dinosaurs just died off about 5,000 years ago for no apparent reason, while the rest of God's creation flourished.

Dear reader, there were NO DINOSAURS in the Garden of Eden! Dinosaurs didn't coexist with humanity!!! Noah didn't leave them behind as Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) foolishly taught. Nor did Noah bring dinosaurs aboard the ark with stunted growth for one year, as [2]foolishly taught by Dr. Henry Morris III (1918-2006). It is so clear to any honest student of the inspired Holy Bible and science that dinosaurs simply could not have lived 5,000 years ago. And if they had coexisted with mankind, just for the sake of argument, why did over 300 species all just die off from the planet? Dear friend, use the brain that God gave you to think. Dinosaurs lived 60 to 220 million years ago, just as science confirms. The inspired Holy Bible concurs with legitimate science!

When Lucifer rebelled against God, one third of the angels chose to side with him. God in His wrath destroyed the earth, rendering it without form and void.

> Jeremiah 4:23-28, "I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form, and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly. I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled. I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger. For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; yet will I not make a full end. For this shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turn back from it."

It humbly seems to me that this passage is speaking about creation. I humbly believe that God in His wrath destroyed the earth. Astronomers and geologists alike tell us that a large asteroid collided with the earth [3]approximately 66 million years ago, which was an Extinction Level Event (E.L.E.), just like in the 1998 movie " Deep Impact. " The dinosaurs and all life on earth were annihilated, leaving the earth without form and void, just as we read in Genesis 1:2, "And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters."

It seems logical to me that the angels lived in cities upon the earth before mankind was created. Notice what Lucifer said in his pride in Isaiah 14, "I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High." I agree with Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) in his 6-part [4]Demonology series from 1974, that in order to ascend ABOVE THE CLOUDS, Lucifer had to first be below the clouds upon the earth. Dr. Hutson also believed and taught an old earth view, [5]as did my long time ministry friend Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023).

When the earth was destroyed, all of the fallen angels became disembodied. That is, their bodies were destroyed in the aftermath of the destruction. They were now spirits without bodies. That is why in the inspired Holy Scripture, demons always needed to find a human or animal to be a host to possess. Whereas God's obedient angels always appeared in their own physical bodies. And by the way, angels appeared as humans. Hebrews 13:2, "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares." If it is possible to entertain "angels unawares," then they must appear so identical to humans that we cannot distinguish them apart from humans. That is very interesting!

I hope you have enjoyed this brief Bible study on demons. This is speculation of course, most of which I cannot prove with the Bible. That being said, I can tell you with all confidence that a young earth makes absolutely no sense at all! The only other option is an old earth, so that is where I firmly stand. Thank you for reading my blogs. To our faithful God and Savior alone be all the credit and praise.

6.5.16 It Is Best Not To Make Promises To Anyone (2025-05-28 10:16)

I stopped making promises a long time ago. I usually say to people, "No promises," when agreeing to do anything. I know that I am a woeful sinner by nature; and therefore, I simply don’t trust myself. Talk is cheap and promises are easily broken. NEVER trust a man who trusts himself! If you make a promise, woe unto you if you fail to honor that vow, especially to God.

When I attended Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993), I served Jesus voluntarily in the B’ Bus Ministry of the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana (one of 114 existing church ministries at the time). One Saturday while working our bus route on Chicago’s north side, I told some young boys who rode our bus that me and my soulwinning partner would try to come back later to take them for some cheeseburgers, but I told them: “NO PROMISES.”

Their father thanked me. He said many church bus workers had lied to his boys, making empty promises but then never delivered on them. I never forgot that exchange of words, and how good it made me feel that a father thanked me for not lying to his boys, simply because I prefaced my plan to come back to take them for some burgers later that day with the words: “NO PROMISES.”

Subsequently, I have been prefacing all my plans with “NO PROMISES” ever since, and I am glad that I do, because so oftentimes something comes up that prevents me from delivering on my agreed plans. OUR WORDS MATTER.

The heathen world lies all the time. President Vladimir Putin in Russia is a habitual chronic liar. While promising a peace treaty he ruthlessly continues to bomb Ukraine. Just this past week President Putin fired 700 deadly missiles into Ukraine, murdering many civilians.

President Trump just days ago publicly described President Putin as “absolutely crazy” for bombing Ukraine during peace talks.

So also is the Israeli government full of habitual liars, continually breaking their promises to the Palestinian people. The Bible foretold that such perilous times would come, when pathetic ungodly liars, trucebreakers and scoundrels would abound in societies (2nd Timothy 3:1-7). We are definitely living in perilous times today in 2025!

President Trump publicly this week described President Putin as “absolutely crazy” for bombing Ukraine during peace talks.

We all saw President Joe Biden last year in 2024 blatantly lie to the media, when he told the country that he would not pardon his son’s multiple felony convictions for which he faced decades in prison. On his last day in office, President Biden pardoned his son of all crimes. Joe Biden and his son both belong behind bars for a very long time! Don’t believe anyone who foolishly says that “ no one is above the law,

because clearly there are many people who are above the laws of the United States.

The entire Bush administration got away Scot Free with the 9/11 attacks, which they orchestrated. The criminal Masonic controlled U.S. Justice Department refused to do anything about 9/11, letting the culprits go free. Now, over 20 years later when THE TRUTH has been buried under a deliberate mountain of media lies, disinformation and misinformation and tion, the U.S. Justice Department finally pretends to care. Now that the emotions have died down and hardly anyone cares anymore about 9/11, the Justice Departments acts. What a ruse!

What a sick charade! If I, as a mortal finite human being can see through their evil charade, then I know that our omnipotent omniscient God certainly does! Thankfully, the inspired Holy Bible promises in [1]Ecclesiastes 5:8 that there will ultimately be justice! Hell is coming up to get Bill Clinton and his evil wife, Dick Cheney, George W. Bush and his evil father (who is already in Hell), Donald Rumsfeld, Condoleezza Rice, et cetera. They are devils who are above the law! But thankfully they cannot escape God's judgment (Ecclesiastes 12:14).

As God's redeemed children our words should matter. Our words should always be seasoned with grace, that we may be a blessing to others. God forbid that our words should ever discourage, hurt or cause someone to quit church or stray further from God. Our words can be as deadly bullets fired from a gun, which once fired cannot be retrieved. OUR WORDS MATTER! I won't make any promises to anyone, especially not to the Lord. I may promise to do my best, but I always leave room for my predictable unpredictable flawed humanity. Since I know that I am a woeful sinner (and so are you friend), and since I know that Jeremiah 17:9 warns that the human heart is DECEITFUL ABOVE ALL ELSE, I won't trust my heart!

I will trust in the Lord, who never changes (Malachi 3:6; Hebrews 13:8), but I refuse to trust in myself, knowing that I am a sinner prone to change, forgetfulness and weakness. God only expects us as humans to do the best we can in His strength. The Lord fully knows that we are made of dust, mere flesh. Psalms 103:14, "For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust." That Bible verse was Pastor Jack Hyles' mother's (Coystal Mattie Hyles, 1887-1984) favorite passage of Scripture, and I likewise love this comforting verse. God understands better than anyone that we are mere clumps of clay, prone to weakness and sin. God has made a way of escape through faith in His only begotten Son, Jesus. Romans 5:8-9, "

But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him "

To God alone be the glory.

6.5.17 The Word "Repent" Is Not Mentioned In The Book Of John (2025-05-31 09:51)

John 3:14-17, "And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

In the Book of John, we find the word “ believe

mentioned 85 times, but the word

“repent” doesn’t appear even once. That is because repentance is included in believing, which Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) rightly understood...

> “The fella who knows what repentance is knows it’s included in believing.” —Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995)

Bible repentance in the New Testament is always either the Greek noun metanoia (a change of mind), or the Greek verb metanoeo (to think differently). Repentance concerning salvation NEVER means to “ turn away from your sins,

nor does it mean to even

willing to turn from sin.

” Yet, this damnable heresy is being taught in 95 % of churches today, including corrupted independent fundamental Baptist churches. They are fundamental in name only, but have strayed away from right doctrine.

Pastor Brad Strand (my former Bible professor at Hyles-Anderson College in the late 1980’s) gets repentance 100 % correct...

> Like the thief on the cross who never had an opportunity to “turn from his sin,” we, like him, can only “acknowledge our sinfulness” in order to be saved (Lk 23:40-41). ...True repentance has nothing to do with “turning from sin” and everything to do with “acknowledging one’s sinfulness” (Jonah 3:5). Like the thief on the cross who simply acknowledged his sinfulness (Lk 23:39-43), the only part a person has in salvation is the beggar’s part.
> SOURCE: Pastor Brad Strand, “The Strand Study Bible”; 2nd Corinthians 7:8-9, p. 1939

Amen and amen! Woe unto the pastor, missionary or evangelist who adds his own words to God's inspired Words to pervert the Holy Bible (Proverbs 30:5-6). Jeremiah 23:36,

"And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.

" Over 95 % of Baptist pastors today have blood on their hands! Shame on your pastor if your church's Statement of Faith requires lost sinners to

Repent of your sins

to be saved, because you cannot back that nonsense up with a King James Bible. You only need to repent of your sin of unbelief to get to Heaven.

I love this excellent quote from Pilgrim's Progress book author, John Bunyan...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Yes, bravo Brother Bunyan! Mixing service (discipleship) with salvation (sonship) is the damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation!

Dr. Curtis Hutson rightly said...

> "And when it comes to salvation, the only thing that counts with God today is the death of Jesus Christ the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world. If you are counting on anything other than Jesus Christ to take you to Heaven, then you are counting on something that God doesn't count. Won't you trust Christ today? If you are not absolutely sure that there was a time in your life when you knew you were a sinner and made a definite decision to trust Jesus Christ completely for salvation, then we urge you to trust Him now." —'Salvation Crystal Clear,' by Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995)

One of my favorite preachers, Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951), wrote these helpful words of truth...

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past ...
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all.”

SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the Gospel tract: ’[1]What Is The Gospel?’

Amen and amen! I thank God for doctrinally sound preachers like Harry Ironside, Brad Strand, Jack Hyles, Curtis Hutson, Ralph Yankee Arnold, Steven Anderson and Hank Lindstrom, who are 100 % correct on repentance and; therefore, a free grace Gospel.

Our text passage of Scripture from John 3:14-16 mentions an incident from the Old Testament ([2]Numbers 21), when fiery serpents afflicted the Jews, biting them and thousands died. The people cried out to their leader Moses, who cried out to God for help. The Lord instructed Moses to beat a piece of brass into the shape of a serpent, and then instruct the Jews to look to the serpent to live. That serpent symbolized our dear Savior, Jesus, who became as sin for us, that we could be made righteous through faith in Him. 2nd Corinthians 5:21,

For he (God the Father) hath made him

(God the Son)

to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him

(Jesus)

. ” Thank you God!

The Jews in the Wilderness were instructed to LOOK AND LIVE! Whoever looked by faith to the brass serpent that Moses held up on a pole, lived. Whosoever had been bitten by a serpent and refused to look, died. Dear reader, salvation is that simple. Isaiah 45:22, “Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else. ” I love that Bible verse!

Don’t you dare tell me that people were saved by works in the Old Testament under Mosaic law. [3]Pastor William P. Grady is a fool who wickedly teaches that people went to Heaven by doing works in the Old Testament. As you just heard, if you listened to the MP3 sermon excerpt, Dr. Bill Grady foolishly says that nobody was ever saved in the Old Testament. He gets that false teaching from infidel Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016), who was also in woeful error on Bible repentance for salvation. BEWARE of damnable false prophets’ [4]William P. Grady and [5]Peter S. Ruckman. They will lead you into the Lake of Fire!

Just as the Jews who looked to the brass serpent (which pictured Jesus), and as people were saved in the prophet Isaiah’s time by LOOKING TO THE MESSIAH, even so are lost sinners saved today in 2025 by LOOKING TO JESUS!!!

The word

is not mentioned in the Gospel of John because you don’t get saved by repenting, you get saved by BELIEVING THE GOOD NEWS (Gospel) of Jesus who was crucified for our sins, buried and then physically resurrected the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). Repentance simply facilitates (makes possible) believing. Repentance is simply changing your mind toward God (Acts 20:21) to acknowledge the truths (2nd Timothy 2:25) that you are a needy sinner (Romans 3:19-20), and that Jesus is the only Savior (John 20:31). 1st Thessalonians 4:14,

“For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. ”

6.6 June

6.6.1 Jesus Is The Lord, You Don’t Make Him Lord (2025-06-01 10:11)

Romans 14:8-9, “ For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord’s. For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.”

As I do nearly every day, I visit different favorite social media sites to see what’s new. Today I found this meme on Pastor Jeff Owens Twitter page. I added the red cancellation mark, so that no one might think that I am in agreement with Dr. Owen’s statements. ...

Throughout my website ministry since 2002, I have encouraged all of my web visitors to think objectively, to question everything with the inspired King James Bible. This is biblical. 1st John 4:1,

"Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world." Even Bible preachers are still flawed sinful humans and are in error doctrinally at times, including this humble preacher.

Every time I read that statement,

"He's either the lord of all or He's not the Lord at all," I cringe. I cringe simply because it is not a true statement. Dear reader, JESUS IS THE LORD! You don't make Him Lord, Jesus is the LORD!

For Jesus to be the 100 % supreme Lord of someone's life, you'd have to be totally sinless like Christ Himself, which is IMPOSSIBLE. Since we all have varying degrees of sin still present in our daily lives, can anyone truly claim that Jesus is 100 % the Lord of their life? Yes, we can.

When you commit sin dear reader, if you are a born again child of God, Jesus is still your Lord.

Whether you and I submit to Christ as our Lord is an entirely different matter, but if you are saved Jesus is your LORD. Respectfully said, I reject Pastor Owen's meme which says either Jesus is Lord of all in your life or else He's not the Lord at all. That is simply untrue! There has never been, nor ever will be, a time in our life when we 100 % obey God's inspired Word, because we are still stuck with this sinful troublesome flesh (Romans 7:14-25).

At best, all we can do is pray for God to guide and help us to do right. Remember, the Holy Spirit (who is the Godhead living inside our spirit, soul and body) lives the Christian life through us, we don't live the Christian life in our own human strength (Galatians 2:20-21).

Kindly said, I strongly reject the erroneous idea that Jesus is not one's Lord unless you are sold out to Christ in every area of your life. Dear reader, that is utterly IMPOSSIBLE! No one is 100 % surrendered to Christ... NO ONE! Not unless you are perfectly sinless like Jesus. Jesus is every believer's LORD! That is, Jesus became your Lord and Master the moment you trusted Him as your personal Savior. Ownership rights transferred from Satan to God the moment you were saved. When you were born again, you were no longer a child of the Devil, you became a child of God.

Now, most believers don't submit to Jesus as the Lord of their life. And truthfully, none of us submit completely to Him. There is no such thing as a good Christian.

In his meme, Pastor Owens says you cannot bargain with God. Did not Abraham bargain with God concerning how many righteous people he might find in Sodom? Yes, he did. Did not Moses bargain with God on Mount Sinai, trying to change God's mind not to destroy the Jews? Yes, he did. Dear reader, God CAN be bargained with. Isaiah 1:18, "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool." God can be bargained with.

If you are saved, then Jesus is your Lord!

You and I will never totally surrender to Christ as the supreme Lord of our life, otherwise we'd be perfect. No believer is a shining example of what other believers should be. At best all you can do is hide your sin. 1st Timothy 5:24, "Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after." Although you may live above reproach, there is no such thing as a Christian who is above sinning (Romans 7:14-25).

That being said, I respect Pastor Jeff Owens. He was one of my Bible professors at Hyles-Anderson College (HAC) when I attended from 1985 to 1993. I graduated in 1993 with an earned degree in Pastoral Theology. I was actually on the Dean's List for good character conduct and high grades, if you can believe that. That was a far cry from my first year at HAC college, when I lived on campus, and I was called into the Dean's office for having too many demerits. I changed considerably over the 8 years I spent at HAC. The Lord invested in my life, to be a servant for Him as an inspired King James Bible preacher. Thank you Jesus!!!

6.6.2 No Christian Should Celebrate June As "Pride Month" (2025-06-02 09:04)

Shame on any Christian who recognizes June as "Pride Month." Homosexuals are a wicked abomination unto our holy God, as are all sinners. Romans 1:24-32 plainly condemns homosexuality as a sin worthy of death (cf. Jude 1:7). Homosexuals are proud of their sinful deathstyle.

As born again believers we ought not bash sinners, we should unconditionally love them with the Gospel. We should never accept the sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin. There is a balance. If God so loved the world, who said we should not? That being said, "Pride Month" is pure evil.

In his 2019 sermon, apostate Southern Baptist Convention president Greear contended that Evangelicals should "stand against any [LGBT] discrimination" and should "count ourselves among the fiercest advocates for the preservation of their dignity and rights." BLASPHEMY! No Sir, God's redeemed children ought NOT be among the fiercest advocates of rights for sodomites to commit sodomy with each other! J.D. Greear was inspired by DEMONS when he spoke those blasphemous words against the Word of God.

I am all for loving sinners unconditionally with Christ's love and the Gospel, but at the same time we must NEVER succumb to go along with their unnatural disgusting deathstyle, hard core wickedness and targeting our children with their sinister homosexual agenda!!!

Proverbs 29:27, "

An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.

" Woe unto any professed Christian who speaks well of the homosexual's

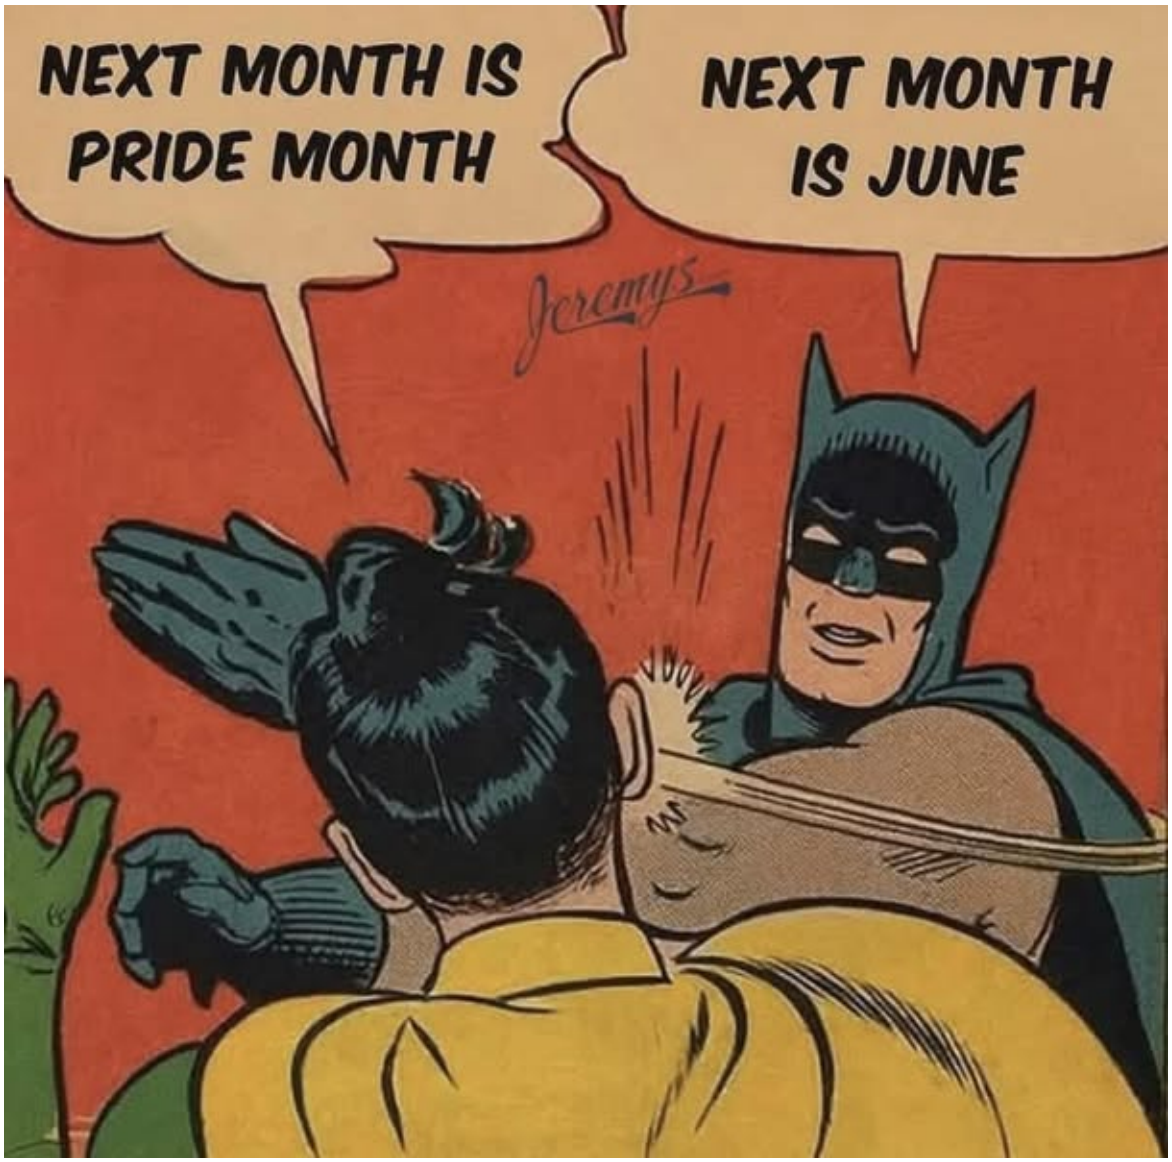
Pride Month.



" There is no "

pride

6.6.3 What You Think You Need Is Not What You Need (2025-06-03 22:29)

John 17:15-17, "I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth."

I have a web visitor who has exchanged fifty emails with me over the past year. I love the man in Christ and have tried to help him with his problems. Like so many people who contact me for spiritual help, he prefers to email me whenever he is down, depressed and angry at life, but he refuses to do any of the helpful things that I have suggested he do (i.e., study and listen to the inspired King James Bible, listen to fundamentalist Bible preaching online, and attend a Bible-believing local church). He won't do it. Instead, he chooses to keep coming to me to coddle him when he is tormented in his soul. He speaks of being oppressed by demons and tells me of his failures to overcome the temptations and sin in his miserable life.

That man got angry at me the other day, wrongly accusing me in an email of not caring about him. He accused me of not understanding what he is suffering through, asking me if I even know what it truly means to suffer. He said some nasty horrible untrue things in his anger to me. Do you know what I said that made him so angry? I told him the truth!

The man wrote to me this week.

I won't share his email in this blog, because I protect the privacy of all the people who email me. They trust me with their personal information and I honor that. However, I can say that he shared his wounded soul, miseries, abuse as a child, confusion, broken relationship with his biological father, et cetera. He accused me of lacking sympathy for his problems, because I didn't hold his hand and pamper him as if he were a small child. Folks, I am not a babysitter!

The problem is that he has shared the same miseries with me umpteen times since July of 2024, in which time we have exchanged fifty ministry emails. He only contacts me when he needs someone to dump on, to vent. Dear reader, I am here by God's grace to help others, and if you want to email me a hundred times to vent, I am willing to listen to be a friend at midnight. By God's grace, I humbly am a servant of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Here was my kind response to the man, which pissed him off and compelled him to accuse me of not caring about him (you be the judge)...

> The best advice I can give you my friend is to saturate your mind and heart with the inspired Word of God, that is, the King James Bible. I listened to Genesis yesterday...

> I hope that helps my friend.

That was my loving reply to the man that angered him, compelling him to degrade me and wrongly accuse me of not caring about him. Unreal. So, here was my follow-up email to him...

> Kindly my friend, you have written to me numerous times before, and I have often expressed sympathy for your pain. I perceive that you are hurting and your anger is not toward me, but toward life itself. You wrote in your previous email that if I don't have the answers, to say so. Well, I did, a couple emails ago. I said:
> > I wish I had a magic answer my friend, but I don't. However, I have shared with you how I have made it over the years through the valley of the shadow of death in my own life. My faith in God has sustained me. In Mark 11:22 Jesus said, "Have faith in God." And of course, Jesus is almighty God (John 10:33), and the only begotten Son of God (John 3:16).

As I said before, I'll say again, I don't have a magic answer for you! I have been through decades of traumatic emotional pain, inexplicable pain, and an unwanted divorce in 2006, losing everything near and dear to me in the years that followed, et cetera. I have told you all of this before. I don't know where you got the wrong idea that I don't care or have never suffered. With God as my witness, I think I have more than shown that I do care, based on our many previous email exchanges my friend.

I have suffered much in my life. As Rocky Balboa says to his son (his real son played in the movie, who died years later of a drug overdose in real life) in Rocky part 5... "Life will beat you to your knees and keep you there if you let it; it's not how hard you can hit that matters, but how hard you can get hit and keep going." I never forgot that fatherly advice. Life will beat us to our knees! The Bible says when we are WEAK, we are STRONG, because our weakness allows Jesus to be strong in our life (2nd Corinthians 12:10). You need God's help all the time, and so do I, and everyone else too; but most people are too proud to submit to God.

I do care about you _ _ _ _ _ _. I am being your best friend by encouraging you to listen to Bible preaching and saturate your mind with the inspired Word of God, and to go to church. I am a wretched sinner, and so are you (Romans 3:10-23). Our minds are all broken to some extent. There is no such thing as a "good Christian." We are all struggling horrible sinners.

> I have battled depression my entire adult life. I understand your frustrations, I really do. If all I had to look at was my prayer life I'd become an atheist, because as far as I can tell God has never answered a single prayer in my life. The many times when my prayers seemed to be answered, it could also have been mere coincidence. Yet, our good God has always taken care of me, and that I cannot deny. I refuse to put God on trial as the heathen world does all the time. Job said though God might kill him, he would still trust the Lord (Job 13:15). I feel the same! I have food on the table, a roof over my head, a mostly healthy body and all the comforts of our modern civilization. I have no complaints to the Lord. Best of all, my name is written in Heaven in the Lamb's Book of Life (Luke 10:20). God is faithful (1st Corinthians 1:9).

I recommended listening to Pastors' Steven Anderson and Jack Hyles because their preaching has helped me tremendously. Dr. Hyles dedicated every Sunday morning sermon to comforting broken hearts in his church congregation, where he was the senior pastor for 42 years at the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana. Dr. Hyles was a pastor for 55 years, pastoring multiple different churches. He counseled thousands of hurting families during those 55 years, since age 19. He went to Heaven at age 74 in 2001. You would be wise to listen to his sermons. I once heard Dr. Hyles say that out of 135 counseling sessions with church members, 128 of them could have been avoided if people would just listen to his sermons. That is amazing!

This is why I encourage you to listen regularly to Dr. Hyles' Bible preaching, because it will renew your mind, give you wisdom and help you grow in the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. It's like the true old adage: "If you give a man a fish, you will have fed him for a day; but if you teach a man to fish, you will have fed him for a lifetime." Kindly said, I can encourage you whenever you're feeling down, feeling oppressed by demons and you're upset, but we'll be doing this for the rest of your life. I'd much rather help you to grow closer to God by encouraging you to walk with wise men. Proverbs 13:20, "He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed."

One of my favorite sermons is by Dr. Jack Hyles titled, "[5]IF THOU SHOULD MARK INIQUITIES, WHO COULD STAND?"

Over the decades I have amassed a coveted collection of 3,336 sermons and Bible studies by Pastor Jack Hyles. I shared this with you because there is a wealth of wisdom and help my friend...

[6]https://www.jesus-is-savior.com/playlist _preaching.htm

Trust me when I say that saturating your life with THE TRUTH will help you. You may not feel like it is helping, but I assure you over time that it will. God's Holy Spirit works through BIBLE PREACHING. Titus 1:2-4, "In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began; But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

To Titus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour. "

What saith the Scripture? Romans 12:2, "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." Colossians 3:10-11, "And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him: Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all." When I am down and discouraged, the indwelling Holy Spirit reminds me of Scripture passages that I have memorized and learned, to comfort, rebuke, guide and encourage me. David said in Psalms 119:9-11 that he hid God's Word in his heart that he might not sin against God. That is not just good advice, it is the only way to live the Christian life! Even Jesus quoted the Scriptures all three times He was tempted by Satan (Matthew 4:1-11).

I intentionally listen to Bible preaching in good weather, that is, when things are going well in my life. I do this to prepare and lay up truths for when the dark storm clouds of life arise. You're down in the valley right now, and I can only do so much to try to help you my friend. I just checked and we have exchanged 50 emails since July of 2024. I have numerous ministry visitors who regularly write to me when they are down and at their wit's end, wanting me to encourage them. By God's grace I am glad to do it, but I always try to encourage them to listen to Bible preaching, listen to the King James Bible, and saturate their life with THE TRUTH.

Also, every believer should attend a local Bible believing church. I went to a local Baptist church this morning and received a blessing from the sermon. I have attended the same church since 2021. I encourage you to attend a local Baptist church, if you're not already. We all need Christian fellowship with other saints, and they also need our fellowship, help and comfort. If we don't pray and help each other as Christians, God knows that the world certainly won't.

I have umpteen people, professed Christians, writing to me about all their miseries and problems, but hardly any of them will listen to my godly advice to saturate their life with Bible preaching and the Holy Scripture. Those same worldly believers gladly sit around watching hellish television all week, but refuse to read the King James Bible, and then they wonder why they're so messed up. I am not saying this is you _ _ _ _ _, because I don't know your situation, but I am saying to all my web visitors that if the shoe fits, wear it! You know how much Tv you watch, or don't watch. You know how much time you spend abiding in God's Word, or not. I get tired of professed Christians expecting me to fix their broken life, when they refuse to listen to sound Bible preaching and the inspired Word of God, which nothing can substitute for.

I made a choice a long, long, time ago to start listening to Bible preaching from fundamentalist Bible preachers (not hellbound clowns like Joel Osteen, Paul Washer, Ray Comfort, Pat Robertson, Benny Hinn, Todd Friel, Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, Kenneth Copeland, and other lowlife bastards of the faith). Pastor Steven Anderson is not perfect, far from it, but he is 100 % correct on the Bible and the Gospel, and I love listening to the guy preach. He has a backbone and is not afraid to offend the heathens.

People get all bent out of shape, down and depressed simply because they are focusing on the wrong things in their life. Hebrews 12:2, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God." The wicked lost world look to Washington D.C., the state government, welfare, education, the media, pharmaceuticals, sexual immorality, psychology and other worldly things to solve their problems and meet their needs, but they refuse to seek their help from almighty God, their Creator. The Bible says that without FAITH it is IMPOSSIBLE to please God (Hebrews 11:6).

So, kindly said, I wasn't brushing you off my friend by directing you to saturate your life with the Holy Bible and fundamentalist Bible preaching. It's just that after a year of ping-ponging 50 emails back and forth, addressing the same lingering issues, I am trying to help you help yourself. Don't get me wrong, I am a servant to my ministry visitors and am glad to help you when you need my encouragement in the Lord, but I am giving you the exact same advice that I give all of my web visitors, to LOOK TO JESUS, who is the Author and Finisher of our Christian faith. Hebrews 1:2 teaches that God the Father speaks to us today through His only begotten Son, that is, The Word of God according to John 1:1-3, 14 and Revelation 19:13.

I receive several thousand ministry emails each year, for all of which I am grateful. But there's always a handful of people who clamour for my attention more than others, who are always discouraged and struggling with demons in their life. Yet, they won't take my sound advice to saturate their life with the truth of God's Word. They refuse to go to church. They refuse to read the Christian books that I send them online, nor will they read or listen to the Bible sermons that I share with them. They just want me to hold their hand while they ignore God's will in their life.

I encourage you friend to listen every week to the Old Testament book of Proverbs, which takes 1 hour and 38 minutes to complete. There's 168 hours in a week. It's not asking too much that we would spend less than a couple hours each week listening to the Proverbs for wisdom...

[7]https://youtu.be/lMLCM9ULM14

Less than 1 % of my web visitors care about listening to Alexander Scourby read the King James Bible, or listening to Bible preachers who are filled with the Holy Spirit of God. It is sad and the root of people's problems. We don't need any more Christian radio, Christian magazines, Christian books or Christian seminars, we need to get back to the inspired KING JAMES BIBLE.

I just prayed for you _ _ _ _ _ _, for God to work in your life.

Kindest regards and God bless.

One man from India kept writing to me every time his OCD (Obsessive Compulsive Disorder) afflicted him. We exchanged 150 emails over a period of one year. He would ask me if it mattered which of Jesus' hands, left or right, was nailed to the cross first. I honestly thought he was mocking and messing with me, and I almost blocked him out on a few occasions, but one thought captivated my mind—I figured if the guy was willing to take the time to write long legible emails to me, I should at least give him the benefit of the doubt and assume that he is sincere. So that is what I did.

That being said, after exchanging so many emails and him delving into the same questions repeatedly, I kindly told him truthfully that we were just going in circles, and I could not help him find the assurance of his salvation, because he has OCD. I can help someone who is ignorant of God's Word. I can help such a person settle the matter of knowing they are saved, by teaching them God's simple plan of salvation. However, I am not a psychiatrist and cannot help someone who refuses to believe the truths that I share with them. People who suffer from OCD refuse to rest in the promises of God, because their fears control them.

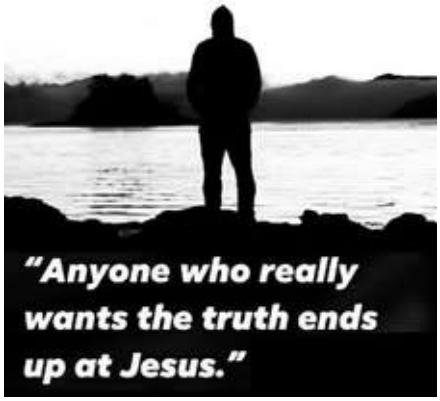
That poor man from India told me repeatedly that he often felt like his chair would swallow him into Hell. At one point he became ridiculous, asking me if it mattered if the cross was made of wood or plastic. I truly thought he was either insane or messing with me, but his emails were detailed and well written, so I did my best to help him. I shared every sermon, book and article I could find on salvation to help him, but his OCD fears overpowered all his sense of reason. Ultimately, I shared some Christian websites that I found to help people with OCD, but I honestly told the man that I don't know if they are good websites.

Dear read, I wrote this blog to help you! If you want to email me with your problems, anger and emotional wounds to vent, I'll be glad to listen; but at some point (likely much sooner than later), I will definitely encourage you to attend to a local church, read or listen to the inspired King James Bible, and listen regularly to Bible preaching by fundamentalist pastors and evangelists. Bible preaching helps us to think and live right!

Sad but true, the last thing that hurting people want to hear is that they need to listen to the inspired Holy Bible, attend a local church, and hear preaching at home and in their car. Listening to Bible preaching online has become a way of life for me, and I need and love it! And by the way, so do you, whoever you may be! We all need hard Bible preaching!!!



People think they need someone to coddle them, but you need to live in God's inspired Word! People think they need someone to burp, baby and change their diaper, but you need to have the hell preached out of you! People think they need someone to say nice things to encourage them, but you need to be offended by THE TRUTH! You need to attend a local church regularly.

Lately, I'm increasingly receiving emails from distraught Christians who are down on life, and they expect some magic pill from me to make everything right, but it doesn't exist. Suffering is a part of the Christian life, as much as salvation itself.

Kindly said, if you'd rather sit around watching worldly television, playing worldly videos games, walking with worldly friends, and hanging out on toxic worldly social media, then don't get upset when you come whining to me about your miserable life and I encourage you to study the King James Bible, listen to hard preaching and go to church next Sunday. I am being your best friend by telling you THE TRUTH. Ecclesiastes 12:13,

" Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man."

6.6.4 The Absurdity Of The Atheist (2025-06-04 14:00)

Psalms 14:1, "The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good."

I have a classic book in front of me published in the year 1868, titled "GOD IN HISTORY and GOD IN SCIENCE," authored by London [1]Pastor John Cumming (1807-1881). May I say kindly, there's no such thing as an atheist! Some of the world's wealthiest celebrities have the stench of Hell on them, which is where they are all going, blaspheming the very God Who is kind to them. Luke 6:35b, "...for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil."

Legendary singer Billy Joel is a professed atheist...

> "I gradually decided that just because I didn't have or couldn't find the ultimate answer didn't mean I was going to buy the religious fairytale. As an atheist you have to rationalize things." —Billy Joel

On page 139 of his book, "GOD IN HISTORY and GOD IN SCIENCE," Pastor John Cumming makes a brilliant observation concerning professed atheists...

> [illegible]

What a brilliant observation. How can any man claim to be an atheist unless he has traveled to the farthest place in the universe? The nearest star to the earth (after our own sun) is Alpha Centauri, which is 4.37 light-years away (28,200,000,000,000 miles away!). This is just one star, being the closest to earth besides our own sun, which is 93,000,000,000 miles away.

My friend, the Hubble Space Telescope had discovered that there are at least 200,000,000,000 galaxies in the universe. And each of those galaxies contains BILLIONS of stars! The James Webb Telescope finally launched in 2021 from NASA. Astronomers now confirm that [2]there are approximately TWO TRILLION galaxies!

Truly, God is more than amazing!!!

The Word of God teaches that God made the stars. I love how Genesis 1:16b is written... "HE MADE THE STARS ALSO." It's like the Bible is saying, "Oh, by the way, God also made all the stars!" Genesis 1:16, "And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also." God is amazing, Who knows the exact number of stars that He created, and he calls them each by their own name. Amen! Psalms 147:4, "He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names."

I have just briefly discussed the stars. The world that exists under a microscope is even more amazing, complex and a mystery to mankind. How can anyone reasonably claim to be an atheist when man hasn't even discovered what's in 90 % of the earth's oceans? Pastor John Cumming is so right... For anyone to say, "There is no God!," you must yourself assume to be God! No human being has traveled to the ends of the universe. In fact, no human being has ever even left the Milky Way Solar System. Psalms 145:3, "Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable."

John Cumming was a Scottish minister who was well-known for his anti-Catholic writings and preaching. Amen for that! One of the biggest evidences of apostasy in the United States today is that hardly any professed Christians, evangelicals and clergy criticize the damned Roman Catholic religion. Catholicism teaches sacramental salvation, which is a manmade teaching that goes totally contrary to the inspired Words of God in the Bible.

Roman and Russian Orthodox Catholicism are of the Devil. The pope is not the vicar of Heaven, but of Hell. Mary was born by normal conception, did not remain a virgin, and died a sinner's death like all human beings. Only Jesus Christ was born of a virgin and lived a sinless life. Thank God that Pastor John Cumming exposed the Catholic church for what it is—of the Devil.

Here's [3]some quotes by famous atheists . Again, some of the world's wealthiest celebrities have the stench of Hell on them, which is where they are going, blaspheming the very God Who is kind to them. Luke 6:35b, "for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil." You'll have to look long and hard to find an atheist farmer who spends long days toiling in the field; but amongst the spoils and splendors of the millionaires of ungodly Hollywood, atheists are dime-a-dozen!

Here are some quotes from very unwise nd ungodly men...

"By simple common sense I don't believe in God, in none." —Actor Charlie Chaplin

"I have NEVER seen the slightest scientific proof of the religious theories of Heaven and Hell, of future life for individuals, or of a personal God." —Inventor Thomas Edison

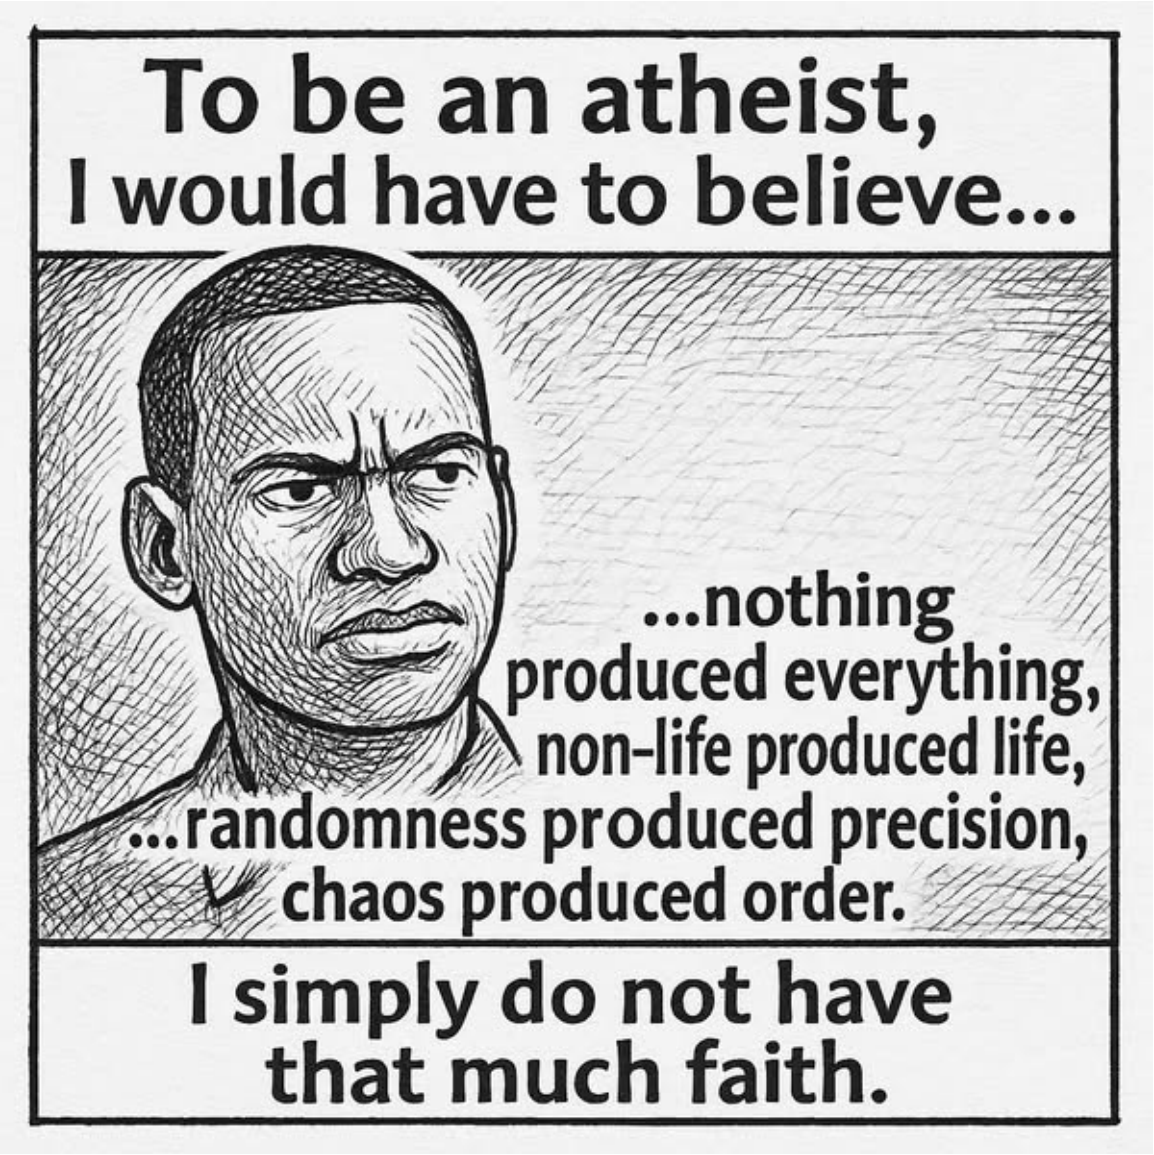
"My belief system is that when this is over, you don't look down from Heaven and wait for your loved ones to join you… your molecules continue and in due time become something else." —Actor William Shatner

"Even though I don't personally believe in the Lord, I try to behave as though He was watching." —Actor Christopher Reeve



"We are each free to believe what we want and it is my view that the simplest explanation is there is no God. No one created the universe and no one directs our fate. This leads me to a profound realization. There is probably no heaven, and no afterlife either. We have this one life to appreciate the grand design of the universe, and for that, I am extremely grateful." —Physicist Stephen Hawking, a quote from a 2011 Discover Channel episode titled, "[4]CURIOSITY" (S01 E01); "Stephen Hawking: There is no God. There is no Fate."

"All thinking men are atheist." —Author Ernest Hemingway

"And that's what I anticipate death will be: a totally unconscious void in which you float through eternity with no particular consciousness of anything." —Twilight Zone producer, Rod Serling (1924-1975)

We'll soon find out who was right! If the inspired Holy Bible is true (and I believe it certainly is 100 %), then all Christ-rejecting atheists will go to Hell to burn forever. Sadly, Rod Serling (an atheist who produced The Twilight Zone series) is now burning in the torments and fires of Hell beneath (John 3:18, 36, John 8:24; Revelation 20:15).

So also are Charlie Chaplin (atheist), Leonard Nimoy (Judaism), David "Bowie" Jones (Buddhist), Gene Roddenberry (atheist) and Steve Jobs (Buddhist) all professed atheists. For any person to deny the deity of Jesus Christ effectively makes him or her an atheist, because Jesus is almighty God (Matthew 1:23; John 1:1-3,14; John 10:33; John 14:1; Revelation 1:8 - All references only to trustworthy King James Bible).

6.6.5 Sodomite “Pride Month” Is Of The Devil (2025-06-05 04:29)

Proverbs 28:4, “They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them.”

Kindly, I found the following meme on a fellow professed Christian’s Facebook page. (I added the cancellation circle.)

The guy foolishly says as saints we ought to celebrate PRIDE MONTH in June with the sodomites. Unreal!!! He is not right with God. Sadly, that man has a distorted view of the inspired Holy Bible. He says only God has a right to judge, so we shouldn't criticize homosexuals. What saith the Scripture? Psalms 94:16, "Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?" (cf. Ephesians 5:11).

God expects us as believers to take a stand against wickedness in society, not go along with it. The so-called Satanic "Pride Month" needs to be criticized, exposed and shunned by God's children. Proverbs 29:27, "An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked." God fearing saints versus ungodly sodomites and lesbians will NEVER coexist in harmony! Although we do not bash or hate them as people, we do hate the sin itself. They are living in open rebellion against God almighty.

Proverbs 28:4, "They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them." It will be a cold day in Hell before you'll ever find me celebrating the pro-homosexual "PRIDE MONTH" debauchery in June. Sin is nothing to be proud of!

6.6.6 Don’t Be A Shady Person (2025-06-07 08:15)

Proverbs 2:11-15, “Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee: To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things; Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness; Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked; Whose ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths:”

We are sadly living in some dark times in America today! The United States has become one of the most greedy, unethical and dishonest places on earth in history. Isaiah 59:8, “

The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

I went to a local Starbucks in Pensacola recently. I bought their new [1]Horchata Iced Shaken Expresso cold drink. I am not a coffee drinker per se, but I like to sit down in a café and enjoy the atmosphere. So, I bought their new drink, a small size, which cost nearly $6. As I sat drinking I saw some big bold words in front of me on the table, which read: “Ready for a refill?” The message says in Big Bold Letters that you can get a free refill for your drink. I took a photo of their table at the Starbucks I visited, shown below...

Starbucks' Message On Their Table Top

So, I finished my small drink (which was filled two-thirds with ice), and then asked the female employee for my refill. I was greatly disappointed when she refused. She told me to read the fine print, which excludes most of Starbucks' drinks! What LIARS!!! What a shady business!!!

I mean, why tease your customers to get a free refill with a message displayed in big bold white letters, but then put a disclaimer in tiny skinny print that is so small and narrow, that you need eye-glasses to read it? What dishonest crooked people!!! ...

Starbucks' Dishonest Shady Fine Print

I am so upset over this shady advertising that I decided to never go back to Starbucks again!!! I hate dishonest shady companies. Starbucks is unethical to offer free refills in bold advertising, but then in barely legible fine print exclude most of their beverages. What crooked people!!!

Our holy God hates crooked people too!!! To clarify, God hates the sin, not the sinner. Proverbs 2:11 and 15, "To deliver thee from the way of the evil man... Whose ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths:" Starbucks' is a crooked business!!! They lie to their customers, failing to honor their promises. You cannot make BOLD promises to customers with clear, legible, writing on your tables; but then dishonor your vow with barely legible miniscule fine print. That is so corrupt and shady!

I got ripped off at Starbucks! They charged me nearly $6 for a small drink that had less than 8 ounces of beverage that contained mostly ice. And then they refuse to give me a refill? Unreal. Shame on Starbucks' greedy management. I did file a complaint at their company's website today with Customer Service. I told Starbucks how shady their offer for a free refill is, when most of the drinks they sell are excluded; and then they only post their disclaimer in fine print so small that you literally need your eye-glasses to read. I have declared war on unethical behavior by shady companies! Businesses have become so ruthless in America!

I encourage you dear reader, whoever you may be, to avoid stooping low to use deceptive practices when dealing with your neighbours (which includes everyone in the world). It matters how we treat others. I hate fine print, because the Devil is always in the details!

The Bible teaches in Revelation 20:6 that we as believers will reign with Jesus during the Millennium. If the Lord allows me the total freedom to reign over my jurisdiction as I see fit, I will outlaw all fine print! I am sick and tired of shady fine print that is written to afflict consumers. The sad fact that they make the fine print barely readable proves my point. If I have any say in how I rule over my town or city in the Millennium, ambulance-chasing lawyers will be out of business! We are living in a parasitic society in the United States, where everyone and their dog are suing each other for a quick means of getting money.

I recently saw a despicable Morgan & Morgan lawyer advertisement posted on the side of a big public transport bus. The ad showed a man soaking up the sun laying on a plastic raft in a swimming pool. The message was clear that if you sue the right people you can live large. Morgan & Morgan are wickedly appealing to human greed as a motivation to sue others! Shame on them all!!! Isaiah 1:4, "Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward."

I implore you as a redeemed child of God (which hopefully you are), that you be better than the average bear. Don't be a shady person! Why offer free refills in bold words to customers, but then exclude most of the beverages your store sells in shady fine print that is barely readable? It is unethical and wrong what Starbucks is doing! It is shady and deceptive tactics, just like the crafty serpent used in the Garden of Eden to ruin Eve's life.

I see so much unethical business practices today, from lying shady advertising to gimmicks to lure new customers into a deceptive business contract. [4]I hate crooked companies! You cannot [5]love your neighbour as yourself by deceiving him with fine print! The [6]word "free" is abused and misused often in today's unethical American culture. Most things that people falsely call "free" nowadays will cost you, showing that it truly is NOT free at all.

A couple weeks ago, I created a new account at Pep Boys and made an appointment online to have my vehicle serviced on Friday, May 23rd at 11 am at a local Pep Boys shop in Pensacola. I arrived at 10:50 am on Friday at the store. When I got to the service desk, a female employee told us that there was at least a 5 hour wait, but I kindly said I have an appointment. She said it didn't matter because they were busy. So I left without being helped.

When I got home, I found an offensive email sent to me from Pep Boys which read: "Sorry you couldn't make your recent service appointment with us — do you want to set another time?" Pep Boys wrongly accused me in the email of not showing up for the appointment, but I did show up; they were the ones who didn't show up and broke their promise! It was Pep Boys who didn't honor our appointment. What's the use of scheduling an appointment, if Pep Boys is not going to honor it? An appointment doesn't mean waiting 5 or more hours to have your vehicle serviced. I just wanted my air conditioning looked at, because it's not putting out cold air.

An appointment means being timely, not first come first serve. This is unethical. I understand that things can become busy and hectic, but at a minimum someone at the store should have called to let me know beforehand that the appointment couldn't be honored, instead of wasting my time to drive to Pep Boys just to be told I'd have to wait for 5 or more hours. That is no way to run a business. I don't plan to go back any time soon, if ever! I'll go somewhere else where an appointment means something.

There was a better time back in the old days of America, when someone's word actually meant something. A man's word should be his bond! If you understand this, then you'll understand Psalms 138:2, "I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name." That is very interesting! The inspired Holy Bible says that God elevates His Word above His name. The reason why should be obvious, because God's name is only as good as His character to keep His Word.

This is what the Bible means in Romans 10:11, "For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed." God is saying that you won't be disappointed if you trust in Jesus as your Savior. This passage of Scripture has nothing to do with you being ashamed of Jesus. Most preachers wrongly interpret this Bible verse! It is a quote from Isaiah 28:16, "Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste."

In this passage of Scripture, the Lord God speaks through the prophet Isaiah. The prophet proclaims God's promise of a coming Messiah who will become the cornerstone of the building. The "stone symbolically represents Jesus Christ, the Messiah, who is the foundation of our Christian faith and the Church (1st Corinthians 3:11). In ancient architecture, the cornerstone was the principal stone placed at the corner of a building, ensuring its stability and alignment. After setting the cornerstone, the workers built the rest of the building using that cornerstone as their accurate guide. This ensured that the house when completed would be level and true. Those who place their faith in God's promises in the inspired Holy Bible will not be shaken. This is what the word "ashamed" means in Romans 10:11. We do not serve a shady God! The Lord is always good, upright, honest, loving, faithful, true and fair.

Even God's free gift of salvation has been corrupted in most churches (cults) today, who preach another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. They will wickedly tell you that to get to Heaven you must "Repent of your sins," which is not biblical. You just need to repent (change your mind) from unbelief to belief to be saved. Since unbelief is the only sin which can prevent you from going to Heaven; therefore, it is the only sin that you need to change your mind about to be saved. You simply need to admit that you are a needy sinner, so you will know what you are being saved from—the wages of sin, which is death (Romans 6:23; Revelation 21:8).

Thankfully, God's gift of eternal life is still 100 % free, through faith alone in the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 16:30-31; Philippians 3:9).

Ephesians 6:12-13, "

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand."

As a fundamentalist Baptist Bible preacher, I have taken a stand in cyberspace since I began my [1]Jesus-is-Savior.com website ministry in 2002. My worst enemies over the decades have not been homosexuals, witches, abortionists and atheists; but rather, ungodly neo-evangelicals and their wicked yuppie churches with their damnable Lordship Salvation, Misunderstood Repentance, women wearing pants (low standards) and False Bibles!

I met recently with a local younger Baptist pastor in Pensacola. He admitted to me that he is a neo-evangelical and not a fundamentalist. I speak to his utter shame! He was upset over several webpages from my ministry. The pastor was particularly upset over my articles preaching against women wearing pants, since his wife shamefully wears sexy tight blue jeans in public. Neo-evangelicals are destroying the churches!

In a needful fiery sermon from 1989 titled, " [2]Weathering The Storm , at a time when Pastor Jack Hyles and his ministry were under severe attack, Brother Hyles attributed the attack to neo-evangelicals fighting against fundamentalism. I agree 100 %! I didn't fully understand what Dr. Hyles meant back then, but today (36 years later) I do fully understand.

You see, neo-evangelicals are low standards people, and so they hate high standards preachers like Pastor Jack Hyles. Dr. Hyles was adamantly against women dressing like men. It is a sin for any woman to wear sexy tight pants in public!

As I mentioned, a local Baptist pastor in Pensacola recently criticized my ministry website for my articles saying that women ought not wear pants. Well, our holy God is on my side in this matter!!! Sad to say, that local pastor doesn't take a stand against sin. In fact, I've never heard him take a stand against anything! Yet, he hypocritically criticizes me for taking a biblical stand against immodest clothing on women. SHAME on that wicked pastor!!!

A lot of Christians criticize Pastor Steven Anderson for his harsh dealings with sinners. They criticize him for saying that God hates homosexuals, and for teaching that we shouldn't waste our time trying to convert them to Jesus with the Gospel. I disagree. Brother Anderson errantly says that sodomites are beyond the hope of the Gospel. I humbly and strongly disagree!

They can be reached with Christ's love through the Gospel (Jude 1:22).

That being said, I admire Pastor Anderson because he takes a stand against sin, corruption and evil. The sad truth is that 99 % of the horrible pastors who criticize him, refuse to take a biblical stand against anything. They are a part of the problem! I'd rather side with a guy who wrongly stands, than with someone who stands for nothing! Most pastors today are pathetic pansies!!!

I'm going to stand with the Bible preacher who is standing, not the lazy fella who does nothing but critique the guy who is standing. Ephesians 6:13, " Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand."

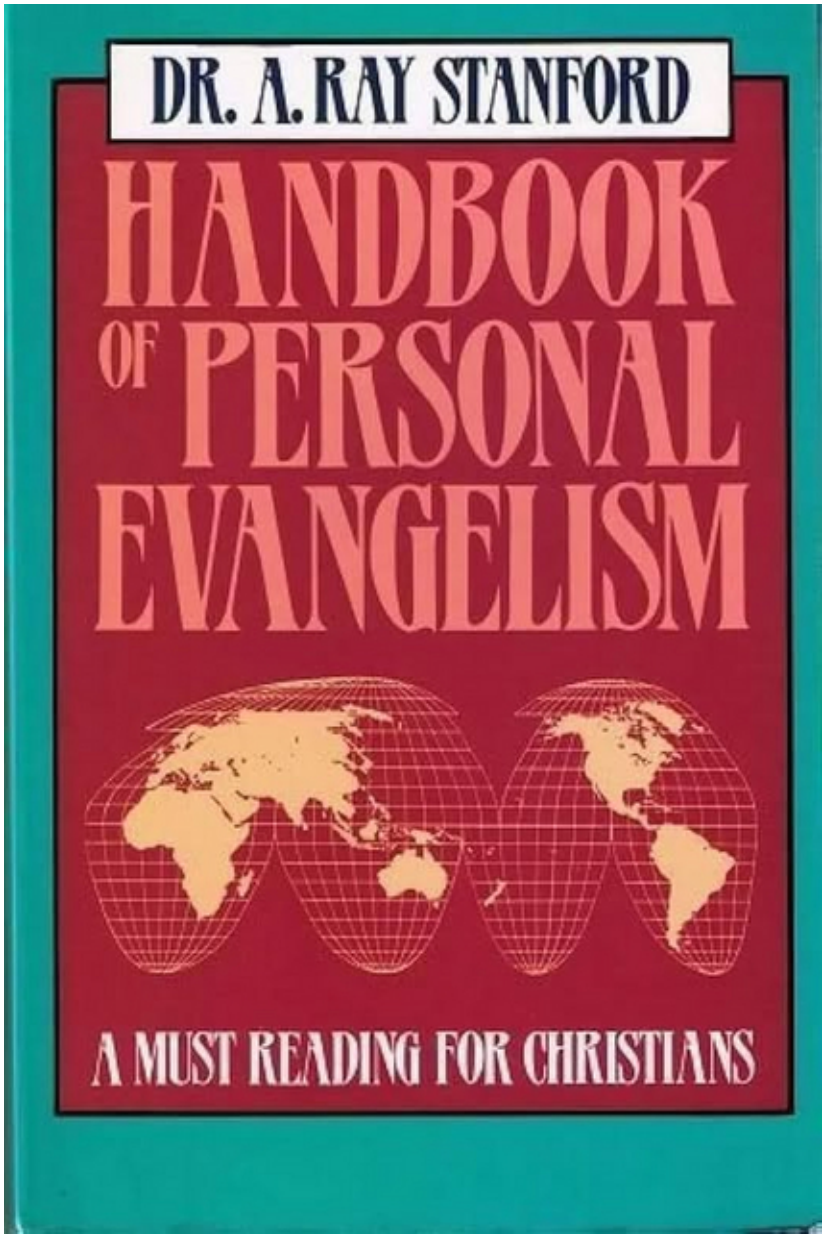
6.6.8 Pastor A. Ray Stanford Refutes Lordship Salvation (2025-06-09 08:16)



The following excellent information refuting Lordship Salvation is by Dr. Ray Stanford (1916-2012), from his classic helpful book titled: “[1]Handbook of Personal Evangelism”...

> Just as you receive the Saviour by faith and He becomes YOUR Saviour, when you allow Christ to control your life, He becomes YOUR LORD. There is an increasing number of "evangelicals" today who are preaching that in order for a man to be saved he must not only receive Christ as his Saviour, but also must make Him absolute Lord and Master of his life.
> This doctrine has been termed "Lordship salvation" and has absolutely no support from the Word of God. It is, in fact, another subtle way Satan has invented to get Bible-believing men to add works to salvation without, perhaps, their realizing it, and to do it in such a way that it sounds spiritual and good.
> What could SOUND more spiritual or honoring to the Lord than statements like: "Either Christ is Lord of all, or He is not Lord at all. And if He is not Lord then He is not your Saviour. You are lost. You must turn over all the strings of your life to Him-then He will save you. Give your life to Him if you want to be truly saved." This is what is taught.

The truth of the matter is that salvation is not a "give" proposition at all; it is a "take" proposition. We don't give our hearts, lives, wills, or anything else to God in order to get Him to save us. This would be a form of bribery, a way of meriting or deserving to be saved-but God says salvation is "NOT OF OURSELVES"-and especially, it is not offering anything to God.
Salvation is receiving! We simply receive His Son. John 1:12 says, "But as many as RECEIVED Him, to them gave He power (the right) to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His Name." God does the giving. We do the receiving.

SOURCE: "[2]Handbook of Personal Evangelism," by Dr. Ray Stanford, p. 45

Only God knows how many multitudes of lost sinners won't make it to Heaven because of the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. Adherents of Lordship Salvation have a false hope! The man with no hope is better off than the man with a false hope, because the man with no hope is still searching for the truth. Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." The Bible does NOT teach Lordship Salvation! Repeatedly throughout the inspired Word of God we are taught to simply BELIEVE on the Messiah (Jesus Christ) to be saved. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins."

6.6.9 The Best Preaching Is Worthless If Wrong On Salvation (2025-06-10 11:47)

A web visitor was excited to send me a sermon today by a new preacher in Tennessee that he found on social media. The preacher's name that he found is [1]Pastor Billy Mitchell (1936-2019).

I was disappointed as I heard the sermon. Pastor Billy Mitchell ended it by quoting 1st Corinthians 6:9-10 about fornicators not being allowed into Heaven. He didn't bother to quote the phrase verse 11, “ but ye are washed. ” Every born again believer’s sins (past, present and future sins) were all forever washed away by Jesus’ precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19), so that our POSITION in Christ was forever settled at the moment we trusted Jesus as our Savior (i.e., the moment we believed the GOOD NEWS of Jesus’ death, burial and resurrection). Now, our CONDITION in Christ (the way we choose to live) is a matter of discipleship (service and sanctification), not sonship (salvation and justification).

Pastor Mitchell said that when you get saved you’re supposed to become a new creature, based on 2nd Corinthians 5:17. I was excited at first when I heard the sermon, to hear Pastor Mitchell preaching against sin in American society today, but as I feared, he tied it into Lordship Salvation at the end. When any preacher leads the audience to think that God’s free gift of salvation is conditional upon their life and behavior changing, it is Lordship Salvation, which is clearly what he is implying, sadly. Pastor Mitchell is subtle. careful not to come right out and require works for salvation, but it is very clear from listening to his sermon that he is associating one’s behavior with the new birth.

Don’t get me wrong, when a lost sinner comes to Jesus Christ and is born again, something will change. The only thing that changes is that God gives that new believer the gift of the indwelling Holy Spirit. One’s behavior does NOT change when they get saved. They are still the same rotten, filthy, horrible, sinner that they were before they got saved. Rights of ownership have transferred from Satan to God, but now that life must be renovated. ...

> Romans 12:2, “I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.”

This Scripture passage from Romans 12:1-2 speaks about the Christian’s service, not salvation. It speaks about discipleship, not sonship. We must keep these two things separate, or else we will be guilty of teaching Lordship Salvation!

The problem is not the Gospel; but rather, pastors today are not preachers! Pastors no longer preach against sin in the churches. I have been reluctantly attending a corrupt local Baptist church in Pensacola for the past 3 1/2 years, but the young pastor is incompetent. It is very difficult to find a good church nowadays. That young pastor is a fool who admitted to me that he is not a fundamentalist. He is clearly a wicked neo-evangelical. He has a group of sincere people in his congregation who overlook his immaturities and settle for mediocrity. They love him and don’t want a better church. They are complacent with just having a social club. This is what is wrong with 99 % of Baptist churches today!

That pastor’s backslidden wife wears sexy tight blue jeans in public. That wicked pastor actually scolded me for my website ministry, because I biblically preach against women wearing pants. I stood my ground and told him I totally disagreed with his unbiblical views. Woe unto that ungodly pastor and his Jezebel wife on Judgment Day!

The church’s Statement of Faith foolishly says you must “

Repent of your sins

to get to Heaven, which is unbiblical. [2]Baptist pastors are intentionally sitting on the fence (Twitter link) concerning repentance, refusing to choose a side. Shame on those incompetent pastors!!! I have spoken with the pastor about repentance and I am okay with his use of the phrase (to acknowledge that we are a needy sinner in God's sight to be saved), but I still don't think they should use a phrase that is not found in the inspired Word of God. [3]Cartoon evangelist Jack Chick (1924-2016) gets repentance 100 % wrong!

To get to Heaven, you only need to repent (change your mind) to admit you are a needy sinner, and Jesus is the only Savior. Your sinful behavior has absolutely nothing to do with the new birth! A changed life is the fruit of the indwelling Holy Spirit, which only comes with growth over time (1st Peter 2:2; 2nd Peter 3:18). No one has ever turned away from their sinning! You may live above reproach, but you'll never live above sin as long as you have a human body (the flesh). At best, all we can do is pray for God to help us do better each day in His strength (Galatians 2:20). There is no such thing as a "good Christian." We're all rotten sinners!!! Psalms 106:6, "We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly."

I have oftentimes thought of leaving the church I have been attending, but I need somewhere to attend church. The other local churches are even worse! I am praying for God to send a King James Bible only, free grace salvation, soulwinning, sin-hating, people-loving, Christ-honoring, truth-telling, Baptist church to Pensacola. I do not know of one local church in Pensacola that goes door-to-door soulwinning. The Bible method is door-to-door preaching of the Gospel (Acts 20:20).

On page 115 in his helpful book, "

[4]I NEVER KNEW YOU,

Michael P. Bowen says:

> God gave to us through Paul in the book of Galatians, you should never listen to anyone's message that runs counter to the message given to us by Christ, and you should never attend a church where the pastor tells the flock that they must add works of discipleship to faith in Christ's "finished work" as the way to enter heaven. That's exactly the reason why I no longer attend any of the local churches in my current hometown.

I empathize with my dear Brother in Christ. I also know the frustration of not being able to find a good church to attend. Sadly, people are leaving the churches to find God. The greatest threat to Christianity in America today is the dead Sunday morning worship service!

Getting back to what I said at the beginning of this blog, Pastor Billy Mitchell had the fire in the pulpit that we need today, but unfortunately he was caught between works and grace. He thought that repentance meant to turn from your sinful bad habits. He says that repentance cannot be separated from faith. I agree that repentance is necessary to be saved, but the fella who knows what repentance is knows it's included in believing. This is why we find the word "believe" mentioned 85 times in the Gospel of John in the Bible, but the word "repent" doesn't appear even once. The man who believes has repented, and the man who repents has believed. That is, he has changed his mind from unbelief to belief. He has changed his mind to admit that he is a needy sinner, and Jesus is the only Savior. Nothing more is required or allowed to be saved. To get to Heaven, you just need to believe that Jesus did it all for you!

I thank God for Bible preachers! God knows that we need tough preachers who cry aloud and spare not against the sins of American society today (Isaiah 58:1). That being said, we must never associate the new birth with turning away from our sinful behavior, because that is works. In Jonah 3:10 the Bible says that GOD SAW THEIR WORKS, that the Ninevites turned from their evil way. Repenting of one's sins is works! Nowhere does the Bible teach to "Repent of your sin" to be saved. Ungodly religious men added those unbiblical words to God's inspired Word (Proverbs 30:5-6). We all need to,

"[5]Quit Meddling With God" (MP3 sermon, Dr. Jack Hyles).

> "What is preaching? It is throwing a fit!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[6]Quit Meddling With God"

I am throwing a fit, praise God!

It is tragic that 99 % pastors are guilty of going to one of two extremes. Either they preach love and tolerance for sin, compromising and coddling the LGBTQ pervert crowd. This includes Hillsong, Joel Osteen, Steven Furtick, et cetera. Or, they hate sin so much that they hate people. This sadly includes Steven Anderson, Fred Phelps, Jonathan Shelley and most of the New IFB movement. Both extremes are wrong and unbiblical. We must never reject the sinner with the sin, nor accept the sin with the sinner. There is a proper balance. I agree with 99 % of what Billy Mitchell says, but it is dangerous that he fails to make a clear distinction between service and salvation. John Bunyan said it best, I humbly think...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Yes, well said. Bravo!

Very few pastors today understand this truth. Sadly, nearly all pastors are not preachers! A pastor administrates the church and cares spiritually for God's flock, but a preacher upholds the truth. Preaching is the heart of a church, without which a church merely becomes a social club for idle saints. Sadly, that is exactly what I am attending now in Pensacola, a spiritual social club sitting idle for God. There is no public soulwinning. The pastor refuses to take a stand against anything, except against people like me who take a stand. Shame on him! I have seen many people quit the church because of the pastor's horrible bad attitude. One elderly man who is 47 years older than the pastor, told him that he should be warning people about the corrupt bibles, but the pastor was upset and told him to leave and never come back again, so now they are enemies. Shame on that bad pastor!

I know that in eternity my Bible preaching will be vindicated. My preaching against Christian women wearing sexy blue jeans in public will be vindicated, and others will weep bitter tears who condemned me for my truthful Bible preaching. We need preachers who preach against sin, but a thousand times more we need doctrinally sound preachers who do not mix discipleship with sonship in an effort to force people to forsake their sinful lifestyles. Our churches today are a disaster that has already happened! Truth is hard to find anymore.

Very few clergy are able to rightly divide the Word of Truth. The accursed Bible colleges (e.g., Pensacola Christian College, Bob Jones University) and religious seminaries (e.g., Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary) are primarily to blame, who produce impotent pastors who are utterly incompetent. To Hell with these wicked institutions and their Lordship Salvation!!!

I thank God for preachers like Pastor Jack Hyles, who is 100 % correct on God's simple plan of salvation...

6.6.10 Suffering In Life Is A Blessing For The Saint (2025-06-12 09:38)

1st Peter 4:1-5, "Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.

For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you:

Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.

As I do every day, I opened my '[1]The Strand Study Bible' yesterday to read it. I have already ordered four of them because I love it so much. Pastor Brad Strand (in Texas today) was one of my favorite Bible professors (preachers) at Hyles-Anderson College in the late 1980's. Here's a [2]free online version of the Bible commentary.

Yesterday, I randomly opened my King James Bible to our text passage from 1st Peter 4:1-5. I admit that I tend to just randomly open my Bible and read. I like to do that because I never know what precious nuggets of truth I may find.

1st Peter 4:1-2, "Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God

Our dear Savior suffered while on earth in the flesh.

Isaiah 53:3-4, “

He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

” Please don’t misunderstand the Bible, Jesus wasn’t a sorrowful man, He was a man of sorrows. Jesus wasn’t a grieving man, He was a man acquainted with grief. There’s a big difference! This is why the Apostle Paul and Silas could sing hymns while locked in prison in Rome. Three of the four Pauline epistles were penned from prison, excluding Galatians.

The Bible says in 1st Peter 4:1a, “Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind...

” What same mind? Jesus used his suffering as a means (motivation) to obey God the Father. Hebrews 5:8-9, “

Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;

And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him...

When it comes to suffering, as we just read in our text passage of Scripture, Christians who arm them selves with “the mind of Christ” will sin less.

1st Peter 4:1b, “for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.

” That is beautiful!

1st Corinthians 2:15-16, “But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man. For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

This is why we read the inspired words of God in 1st Peter 1:7, “

That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth...

” Our inexplicable emotional, physical, social, spiritual, financial and mental sufferings are all more valuable then gold that perishes the inspired Holy Bible says, because if we react properly (biblically), it will cause sin to lose its power over our life, and lead us to focus rather on the things of God. Nothing in our life as God’s redeemed children is more important than doing the will of our heavenly Father.

If you want to sin less, then you need to suffer more. Life has a way of teaching us the lessons that we need to learn, to humble us. God has ordained it that way. As you read the following inspired passage of Scripture from the Old Testament, keep in mind that King Solomon is talking about growing old with deteriorating health (loss of vision, loss of hearing, loss of physical stamina, little things become a burden, rotting teeth, et cetera), so that sin has lost it's enjoyment and pleasure. ...

> Ecclesiastes 12:1, " Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them; While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain:
> In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened, And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of musick shall be brought low; Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets: Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern."

The Bible exhorts young and middle aged people, who still enjoy good health, to REMEMBER GOD (i.e., serve our Creator while we still can). John 9:4, "

I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

" Life is a gift from God, which is why we call it the present.

There is nothing more tragic than to see recent news stories about [3]our American children going to the Devil. In one tragic story, police arrested a 16 year old serial killer. In another disturbing story, an 11 year old girl with a cellphone (no child should have a cellphone) made a prank call to police to report a kidnapping on the highway, while she was sitting at home in her room bored. I could literally mentions thousands of cases of children in the recent news who are in serious trouble with the law across the United States. I digress.

Suffering is as much a part of the Christian life as salvation itself.

1st Peter 4:12-13, "Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you: But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy." Rejoice, Oh believer in your trials, tribulations and burdens, for God will use them to conform us further into the precious image of Jesus or Lord (Romans 8:29).

You know, the world has a lot of wisdom and advice, but it's all garbage (Psalms 1:1-3). Don't make the grave error of following the sinful world's advice on suffering. In the eyes of the world suffering is a very bad thing. To the heathen world, you're life is a mess if you're suffering. But in God's sight you are blessed and right where He wants you to be in your suffering. When Paul and Silas were in prison in Acts 16, and John and Peter were in prison in Acts 5, they were exactly where God wanted them to be in His perfect will. Never underestimate the will of God for your life!

We read in Hebrews chapter 11 (often referred to as The Hall of Faith) about Christians throughout Bible history who did many mighty things for God. But please notice what the Bible says starting in verse 36...

> Hebrews 11:36-40, "
> And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment:
>
> They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;
>
> (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.
>
> And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:
>
> God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

These saints who comprised the "And others" category were all in God's perfect will when they suffered. They weren't being punished for their sins, nor for other's sins. They suffered in the perfect will of God! Dear reader, these biblical truths will change your life if you will embrace it. Stop looking at your problems, sufferings, burdens and heartaches as being something evil. Instead, learn to see the miseries in your life as blessings in disguise, knowing " That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ

" (1st Peter 1:7).

Something that has encouraged me over the decades is reading and hearing about the sufferings of other Christians, knowing that I am not alone in my pain. 1st Peter 5:7-9, "Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

On every secular job I ever worked, I was wickedly ridiculed by heathen co-workers for not joining them to go to the local strip club after work, join in gambling on the lottery, for not cursing in the Lord's name like they did, et cetera. The Holy Bible warns that God will hold them all accountable. 1st Peter 4:4-5, " Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you: Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.

We all have to answer to our Creator in eternity (Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; Romans 14:10-12; James 4:12). No one shall escape answering to God, no one. Romans 14:12, “

So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

- [4]The Call To Suffer (an awesome very beautiful MP3 [5]sermon by [6]Pastor Ralph “Yankee” Arnold)
- [7]The Call To Suffer (We “SUFFER FOR HIS SAKE”; Dr. Arnold, ’Don’t be bored, serve the Lord!’)

Suffering is as much a part of the Christian’s life as is God’s free gift of salvation! Suffering is a true blessing, if it produces humility and obedience to God.

6.6.11 It Is Sinful For Christian Women To Wear Sexy Blue Jeans (2025-06-12 10:23)

1st Corinthians 6:18-20, "Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body. What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."

Women wearing pants promotes the sins of lust, fornication and adultery. SHAME on any professed Christian woman who wears pants, yoga pants, slacks, spandex, halter tops and other IMMODEST clothing in public. □□□ □□□□□□□ □:□, "□□ □□□□ □□□□□□ □□□□, □□□□ □□□□□ □□□□□ □□□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□□□□ □□□□□□□...." Pastor's wives who wear sexy blue jeans are whores at heart, and the henpecked husband pastors who go along are pulling on the same rope as the Devil.

I'm considering mentioning some local names in Pensacola, writing a series of sermon articles, to expose some wicked neo-evangelical pastors and corrupt churches!!! They wickedly make light of modesty, ridiculing Bible preachers like me and Pastor Jack Hyles who preach HIGH STANDARDS of morality.

NO CHUCH has experienced a true revival that doesn't have a problem with women church members, and God forbid the pastor's wife, wearing sexy blue jeans in public. I recently attended a church picnic and was disgusted to see the henpecked pastor's ungodly wife wearing tight sexy blue jeans. WHAT A WHORE!!! One of the [1]definitions of "whore" is someone who is considered sexually promiscuous. When a woman wears sexy pants, any normal healthy man who is not a queer is going to be tempted to lust upon her. If you disagree with this truth—you are either a liar, a henpecked husband who is afraid to go against your wicked wife, or you need to go see a doctor.

Jesus called a man an "adulterer" who lusts (Matthew 5:28). It is possible to be an adulterer in God's sight without committing the actual act of adultery. Likewise, biblically, a woman can be a whore without actually being a prostitute. The Bible speaks in Proverbs 7:10b about "the attire of an harlot." A woman wearing sexy blue jeans is the attire of an harlot ! Anyone who argues this truth has been caught up in our wicked American culture of immodesty, fornication, nudity and shame. All of you pants-wearing hussies: GET RIGHT WITH GOD!!!

That wicked pastor's wife walked right in front of me in her tight pants at our picnic table, and said to a 10 year old girl: "I like your shorts." WOE UNTO THAT WICKED PASTOR'S WIFE, she is messing with a holy God when she mocks the Bible preacher! I haven't seen such anger and hatred from ungodly professed Christians, as I have over the issue of women not wearing pants in public. GET RIGHT WITH GOD ALL YOU WICKED RELIGIOUS WHORES!!!

Our ungodly perverse American culture ought not set a Christian woman's standards of dress and attire. You may piss me off as a fundamentalist Bible preacher, but you'll never shut me up. And the day I stop attending that church will be the beginning of a war between us. Make my day! Feel lucky punk?

You say, "I don't like your bad attitude!" Well, I don't like your sinful worldly low standards, your wicked defense of sexy pants on females, your evil contempt for godly preachers like Pastor Jack Hyles who told THE TRUTH, and your rebellion against a holy God who commands women to dress in modest apparel!

A few weeks ago when I spoke with him, that wicked local pastor falsely accused Pastor Jack Hyles is having a filthy mind, for saying in a sermon: "I don't have a dirty mind, I have a man's mind." What Brother Hyles said is 100 % true! Men think differently than women do. Any honest person knows that.

The young local pastor is a spoiled brat. He has no right to slander Dr. Jack Hyles!!! That young pastor was only 12 years old when Pastor Hyles went to Heaven in 2001. So what the hell does he know? I graduated from Hyles-Anderson College, so I think I know infinitely better than that knucklehead local pastor who Jack Hyles is. He told me that he is not a fundamentalist. Yeah, no kidding, he's an idiot!

Tragically, incompetent Baptist pastors (like the idiot one I just mentioned) are ruining the churches today. This arrogant local pastor refuses to lead the church to go door-to-door soul-winning, refuses to preach against sin, refuses to contend for the faith, refuses to preach modesty, refuses to expose the Devil's modern Bible revisions; he refuses to obey God in these important matters.

I know that no church or pastor is perfect, but there's a big difference between not being perfect and not wanting to be perfect. Sadly, this local neo-evangelical Baptist church is sinfully complacent in their lukewarmness (Revelation 3:15-17).

In the 1800's even prostitutes wore dresses!!! □□□□□□ □□□:□, "□□□ □□□□ □□ □□ □□ □□□□; □ □□□□ □□□ □□□□: □□□□ □□□ □□□ □□ □□□□ □□?"

6.6.12 False Repentance Cannot Produce The New Birth (2025-06-13 10:05)

"Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders." —Matthew 27:3

Our text passage of Scripture from the Gospel of Matthew plainly reveals that Judas Iscariot (one of Christ's very apostles) repented of his sins; yet, we know that Judas perished in his sins and went to Hell. Why? It is because of Judas' unbelief! Judas was merely sorry that he had betrayed an innocent man, but Judas never changed huis mind (which is what repentance for salvation means), to admit that he was a needy SINNER, and Jesus is the SAVIOR.

The world's churches are fast-becoming infiltrated with "Doctrines of Devils" as the Bible warns in 1st Timothy 4:1, "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils." Notice carefully that these false prophets "shall depart from the faith," or we can just as well say that they will begin teaching a false plan of salvation that requires more or less than faith. The Bible has always taught that good ole FAITH is what pleases God, and nothing else. Hebrews 11:6, "But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him."

So to start this article with a solid doctrinal foundation, let us establish that IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO PLEASE GOD WITHOUT FAITH. Salvation is solely by faith. Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." Anything more or less than faith is not acceptable to God. Optimism (a positive outlook) is not faith. It falls short of being faith. Teaching that some degree of personal works is necessary to validate one's faith to be saved is a works-based plan of salvation. It is certainly not faith. Faith means to entrust the Savior, period.

Now Judas had a relationship with Jesus Christ, but still went to Hell forever. A "relationship" is not the gospel. I get tired of hearing radio preachers telling people to start a relationship with Jesus Christ. That is not God's plan of salvation. We read in Matthew 27:3 (our text verse above) that Judas "repented himself." The Greek word for "repented" here is metamellomai and means "to care afterwards, that is, regret." Judas was sorry that he got caught betraying the Lord. Judas felt embarrassed and lonely, having betrayed the best friend a man could ever have. Judas felt sorry for what he had done. However, feeling sorry is not repentance unto salvation. The Bible says that Judas repented, but then he went and commit suicide. But Judas had NO FAITH. In John 6:70 Jesus said that Judas had a devil in him.

There are a lot of false preachers today; such as, John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Chip Ingram, Pat Roberson, Paul Crouch, Paul Washer, Jon Piper and William Lane Craig who pervert the Gospel, teaching that mere faith alone by itself is insufficient to save a sinner. That is a deadly teaching. They all teach their own version of the same corrupted Lordship Salvation lie that requires some amount of works to validate one's faith TO BE SAVED. That is, they mandate forsaking sinful bad habits and departing from the heathen world in order to be saved. These are heresies! You don't have to give up the act of sin to be saved; but rather, God gave up His only begotten Son for you and me, to pay for OUR SINS. Salvation is receiving, not giving. It is a free gift! It's not what you're doing that gets you to Heaven, it's where you're looking! [1]LOOK TO JESUS!

Faith is receiving the Lord's death, burial and resurrection as full-payment for our sins. Judas felt sorrow and tried to return the money. Judas tried to turn over a new leaf, changing his wicked ways and making amends, but it was not possible. This is false repentance. This is the false plan of salvation that the Lordship Salvation crowd teaches. They demand that a person feel sorry and decide to turn over a new leaf or else they cannot trust Christ. It is a false way of salvation.

Likewise, neither you nor I can make amends for our past sins, nor can we undo the damage of our bad decisions and sins from the past. The very idea that we need to stop sinning as much as we used to in order to be saved is an insult to God. In effect, the Lordship Salvation crowd demands a changed life as a prerequisite to placing faith in Jesus Christ. Such blasphemy goes against everything the Bible teaches for salvation.

Biblical repentance is the admission that I am as guilty a sinner as God has declared me to be in His holy Word. Repentance is a change of mind. The purpose of God's law is to diagnose man's problem (which is sin), and then point us to the blessed Savior for the solution to our problem. Galatians 3:24, "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith."

There Can Be No Reformation Until There Has Been Regeneration

The evil concept behind Lordship Salvation is that faith is not valid unless there is an accompanying desire to stop living a life of sin. Thus, Lordship Salvation requires qualification by reformation before there can be any regeneration. This is a false plan of salvation which leads to Hell.

This is exactly what [2]Pastor Aiden Tozer taught. Mr. Tozer errantly states:

> "In the Bible the offer of pardon on the part of God is conditioned upon intention to reform on the part of man. There can be no spiritual regeneration till there has been a moral reformation" (The Best of A.W. Tozer, Book 2, pp. 115-117; Compiled by Warren W. Wiersbe)

Wrong! How then is salvation a free gift? Salvation is receiving, NOT giving. Mr. Tozer requires sinners to "reform" themselves before they can be saved. This goes totally contrary to the plainest teaching in the Bible. Romans 4:5, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." Mr. Tozer is teaching works salvation!!! Salvation is a free gift, freely given and freely received. Where in the Gospel message does the Bible teach that "intent to reform" is necessary for salvation? It does not!

What the Bible does teach is found in 2nd Corinthians 5:17, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." Hence, the change can only come AFTER a man is IN CHRIST. So, Biblically, there can be no reformation until there has first been regeneration. That is, "YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN" (John 3:5-7). The indwelling of the Holy Spirit (i.e., the Spirit of Christ, Romans 8:9) is what changes a man. Therefore, it is a false doctrine to require any reformation, or intent to reform, as a prerequisite to being born-again.

All that God requires is for a person to "Repent ye, and believe the gospel" (Mark 1:15). It does not say, "repent ye, and stop living in sin." Nor does it say to "Reform ye, and believe the gospel." To teach that repentance means "intent to reform" is false repentance. The Greek word for "repent" in Mark 1:15 is metanoeo and means "a change of mind." Thus, Biblical repentance is acknowledging one's SINNERSHIP! It does not mean ceasing from one's sins, forsaking the sinful world nor having intention to cease from committing sins.

The popular allegation by proponents of Lordship Salvation is that the easy-believism crowd thinks a person can get saved and continue living in gross immorality unchecked by God. I DO believe that if a person experiences genuine repentance unto salvation that there WILL BE some inner changes in that person's life. This is clearly taught by 2nd Corinthians 5:17. Albeit, those spiritual changes may not manifest themselves outwardly to your satisfaction. As Pastor Curtis Hutson often said, "You cannot tell how much fuel is in a car's tank by the sound of the horn." Salvation is immediate, but sanctification is a lifetime process. Dr. Jack Hyles does an excellent job explaining this subject in his work, [3]SALVATION IS MORE THAN BEING SAVED . I love what John Bunyan (1928-1988) said:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan

A changed life is the FRUIT of the indwelling Holy Spirit, if we walk in Him, and not a part of the ROOT of saving faith. Fruit has nothing to do with salvation, neither before, during or after getting born-again. We must never associate fruit with salvation (i.e., the new birth). Galatians 5:25, "If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit." I love this Bible verse, because it clearly shows that living in the Spirit (indwelt with the Holy Spirit at salvation) is not the same thing as walking in the Spirit (which is discipleship). As Christians we "should" live soberly, righteously and godly in Christ Jesus. Titus 2:11-12, "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;" Every believer SHOULD live for Jesus, which the Apostle Paul said in Romans 12:1-2 is our "reasonable service."

By only reading the Old Testament, we'd never know that Lot was saved. But we learn in 2nd Peter 2:7 that Lot was a "just" (righteous) man. Judges 16:1 says that Samson went in unto a harlot (prostitute). King David murdered a woman's husband to cover up an unintended pregnancy from an adulterous affair. We know that David repented from what the Scriptures tell us, but the people in David's time didn't know that. I'm sure many of them considered David a reprobate concerning the faith. Apart from the direct testimony of a person's mouth, there is no way to determine whether they are saved or not.

Jesus Is Our Sabbath In Whom We Rest

Notice that the Bible teaches in the following Scripture passage that "DEAD WORKS" cannot save. Hebrews 6:1, "Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God." That's salvation, that is, repenting from our dead works and placing our faith in Jesus Christ! Whereas working 6-days of the week pictured man's own self-righteousness under the Old Testament Mosaic law, the Sabbath Day pictured Christ IN WHOM WE REST FOR SALVATION.

Today, [4]Jesus is our Sabbath! The Sabbath Day was an Old Testament ceremonial law which was finally nailed to the cross with Christ (Colossians 2:14-17). Thus, the Sabbath Day is no longer in effect today for Gentiles or Jews. JESUS IS OUR SABBATH!!! In Christ we rest completely for salvation. Hebrews 4:10, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his." That's good stuff my friend!

Repent Ye, And "Believe The Gospel"

Judas' repentance was a "false repentance" because it led him to Hell. Turning over a new leaf is not repentance or salvation. Judas turned away from his sins, but still went to Hell. The correct Biblical word for "repent" concerning salvation is found in Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: REPENT ye, and believe the gospel." The word "repent" here is the Greek word metanoeō and means, "a change of mind." There is a drastic difference in meaning between the repentance which Judas experienced in Matthew 27:3, verses the repentance unto salvation in Mark 1:15. Notice that the OBJECT of repentance in Mark 1:15 is to "BELIEVE THE GOSPEL." The Bible doesn't say "Repent ye, and forsake your sins"; but rather, " [5]Repent ye, and believe the gospel ."

Judas felt emotional guilt and remorse for his actions, which is penitence, not repentance. That penitence led Judas to want to make a mend for his sins, which is why Judas returned the thirty pieces of silver. But this is penance, nor repentance. Judas penitence and penance led him to reform his ways, turning from his sins. This is false repentance, aka, Lordship Salvation. Judas felt guilty and decided to return the 30 pieces of silver. Judas tried to change his ways, but that is not salvation.

Matthew 27:3 says that Judas "repented himself," but this is a different Greek word (metamellomaiin, meaning, "to regret") than [6]metanoia ("a change of mind" unto the Gospel itself) used concerning salvation. Judas turned from his sins, which is human reformation, not Biblical repentance (which is "a change of mind" unto the Gospel itself). John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." To "believe" the Gospel simply means that you are taking God at His Word, that you are persuaded Jesus died on the cross for your sins, He was buried, and He resurrected from the dead three days later! You either believe or you don't! I do and I hope you do too my friend.

The Lordship Salvation crowd today foolishly teach that people MUST feel sorry and remorseful concerning their sins, to the point that they cease from committing sinful bad habits and surrender their life to live for Jesus Christ. That's exactly what Judas did. This is a false gospel rooted in man's own self-righteous effort. It's a self-righteous philosophy that corrupts the Gospel. In sharp contrast, the correct meaning of "repent" (as concerns salvation), simply means that a person acknowledges the truth that they are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19), which shows them their need for redemption and points them to believe on the Savior to be saved (Galatians 3:24-25).

You don't get saved by repenting, you get saved by believing the Gospel; but no one has ever believed who didn't repent. Repentance facilitates believing, that is, repentance makes believing possible. Repentance is acknowledging that you are a guilty sinner in the eyes of a holy God, and turning by faith to His Son as your personal Savior.

If you simply think about the nature of a gift, then it becomes clear what is wrong with the teaching of Lordship Salvation and Misunderstood Repentance. If I offer you a free gift on the basis that you must first agree to stop throwing snowballs at my house, then it is in fact a reward instead of a gift. A gift is something acquired WITHOUT compensation. This is why we read in Romans 4:5, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." The Bible says that salvation is to him that WORKETH NOT!!! A person's faith is COUNTED for a lifetime of perfect righteousness! No one can enter into Heaven unless they are 100 % perfect.

Since we are all imperfect needy sinners, no one can be saved by keeping the deeds of the law (Romans 3:20). But with God all things are possible (Matthew 19:26; John 1:12-13)! Jesus did live a perfect life. The Lord never broke God's law. Jesus is sinless. Jesus is the perfect Lamb of God, Who was slain on the cross as a sacrifice for our sins. John 1:29, "The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." Jesus died as our sacrificial Lamb on the cross, and He raised up as our heavenly High Priest three days later (Hebrews 4:14-16). Believe it oh sinner and you will be saved immediately, irrevocably and eternally!

Pastor Harry Ironside Has Repentance Correct

[7]Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951) DIDN'T teach Lordship Salvation, he simply taught that Biblical repentance was necessary for salvation. Listen to what Pastor Harry Ironside correctly says about repentance in [8]chapter 16 of his book, [9]EXCEPT YE REPENT . . .

> "In all that I have written I have failed completely to express what was surging up in my soul if I have given anyone the impression that I think of repentance as something meritorious which must be produced in man by self-effort ere he is fit to come to God for salvation."

I agree 100 %! The entire concept of Lordship Salvation is based in human effort. Most of our evangelical churches today have bought into the lie that it's not enough to believe the Gospel of Jesus Christ to be saved. The Gospel is that Jesus Christ DIED, was BURIED and RESURRECTED from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). If you receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, then you are saved. But don't I have to repent? Yes, of course! Biblical repentance is "a change of mind" that causes a person to believe the Gospel. Repentance is NOT a desire to stop sinning. Repentance is realizing that you are a SINNER and need the Savior, and so you believe the Gospel and are saved. Repentance is changing your mind about whatever was previously hindering you from completely resting in Christ for salvation.

Clearly, Ironside taught a Free Grace view of the Gospel. Consider further the following quote by Pastor Ironside...

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past ...
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all."

If you'd like to read further, please read [13]ANOTHER GOSPEL?

Look back to our beginning verse in Matthew 27:3. It says that Judas repented and then went back to the chief priests and the elders to return the money. They refused and dealt harshly with him. Judas panicked and emotions overwhelmed him. Judas killed himself. There's criminals in this world who can kill someone in cold blood and not feel one bit of guilt or remorse. Evidently, Judas wasn't a cold-hearted criminal since he did feel guilt, but he failed to seek forgiveness in Christ. Apart from faith in the name of Jesus there can be no salvation (Acts 4:10-12).

Jesus, knowing that Judas was a known thief (John 12:6), chose Judas to be an Apostle in accordance with God's sovereign will. Never underestimate the will of God in your life. Sometimes things may seem all wrong, forever in shambles and hopeless, but God truly does work in mysterious ways. In hindsight we see the purpose of Judas being made an Apostle in God's plan, but at the time the other Apostles probably wondered why Jesus chose such a shady man to join their group. I mean, would you put a known thief in charge of your group's money bag? Jesus made Judas their treasurer, knowing that Judas loved money, was unsaved and according to John 6:70 had a devil in him. God works in mysterious ways!

Judas didn't believe on Christ and had never learned the sweetness of God's love and forgiveness. Peter knew of these things. Sadly, Judas is in Hell today, but Peter is in Heaven. When asked by the Lord Whom He was, Peter exclaimed, "THOU ART THE CHRIST, THE SON OF THE LIVING GOD"!!! Amen and amen!!! Matthew 16:16, "And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God." Judas never expressed such faith in the Lord, because he had none.

May I again quote the helpful words of Pastor Harry A. Ironside...

> "Repentance is the very opposite of meritorious experience. It is the confession that one is utterly without merit, and if he is ever saved at all it can only be through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ, 'who gave himself a ransom for all.' Here is firm footing for the soul who realizes that all self-effort is but sinking sand. Christ alone is the Rock of our salvation."
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside; [14]Except Ye Repent, p. 36)

Clearly, Ironside taught a Free Grace view of the Gospel. Dr. Ironside correctly recognized repentance as the confession that "one is utterly without merit" and that if one is "ever saved at all it can only be through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ." Salvation is without works of self-righteousness. Romans 4:5 plainly teaches that a man's faith is COUNTED for righteousness, i.e., the righteousness of Jesus Christ is imputed to one's heavenly record by faith.

> "Repentance is the recognition of my sinnership — the owning before God that I am as vile as He has declared me to be in His holy Word."
> SOURCE: '[15]Except Ye Repent,' by Dr. Harry Ironside, chapter 3

Here is one of the best quotes that I've found on repentance, by Dr. Harry A. Ironside:

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ('[16]Except Ye Repent,' p. 16)

Also, Dr. Hal Lindsey has repentance Biblically correct, who states:

> "Repentance, as it relates to Christ, means to change our minds about Him, who He is and what He's done to provide forgiveness, and deliverance from our sins. When > we place faith in Jesus as having taken our place personally on the cross and borne the penalty due our sins, then we're automatically repenting, because we couldn't accept Him in this way without having to change or minds in some way concerning Him." (From the Liberation of the Planet Earth, by Hal Lindsey. (p. 133)

Good Works Cannot Undo A Person's Bad Works

Judas had experienced false repentance. He felt guilt and tried to undo the evil he had done. Judas thought this would make the guilt go away. It made it worse. The cold-hearted Pharisees didn't care. They even tried to shift all the blame on Judas, but they were equally as guilty. The Pharisees were cold-hearted criminals. Judas was actually doing what most people are still doing today, that is, trying to do good works to undo the bad. Many religions teach this nonsense. Listen friend, you can't do good works to make up for the bad. If you steal something from someone and then bring it back, you still sinned. Jesus died on the cross for that sin. Judas sinned and should have went to God for forgiveness, but instead he tried to do perform some good works. Good works will NEVER make things right between your soul and God!

The unbiblical idea that faith must be validated before a person can have the assurance of their salvation is Satanic. Faith is faith, you either have it or you don't. There is no dividing line between intellectual assent to the philosophy of Christianity versus actually trusting upon the Savior. You either believe or you don't. It is possible to be familiar with the teachings of Christ and yet not actually have faith in them. The Devil's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again.

[17]Dr. Chip Ingram errantly teaches that a person is not saved until they believe "TO THE POINT" (those are his own words) that they turn away from a past life in sin...

> "But now the ball's in your court. If you would like Jesus as your Savior. Saving faith is getting in the wheelbarrow. Trusting in His work on the cross, His payment for your sin, His resurrection TO THE POINT that you say, I turn away and repent from my past life in sin, I change my mind and I trust, I get in the wheel-barrow." [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [18]Dr. Chip Ingram, sermon quote, "Fatal Assumption: Exposing The Myths Of Being Born Again - Part Two"

My friend, there are no conditions of salvation, except to admit you are a needy sinner. You must know why you need to be saved, which is because you are a guilty sinner in God's sight (Romans 3:23). And you must know what you are being saved from, which is eternal damnation in the fires of Hell (Revelation 21:8). Although he did preach Lordship Salvation elsewhere unfortunately, Pastor Charles H. Spurgeon say it correctly here...

> "'Repentance' is a grace. Some people preach it as a condition of salvation. Condition of nonsense!" —Pastor Charles Spurgeon

As I mentioned, Pastor Spurgeon did make some heretical statements at times in his thousands of sermons, which the proponents of Lordship Salvation cherry-pick to support their damnable heresy. But Spurgeon got it 100 % correct in the preceding statement! He is not saying that repentance is not necessary for salvation. What Spurgeon is saying is that repentance is NOT A WORK. It is a grace, that is, "For BY GRACE are ye saved through faith..." (Ephesians 2:8). Grace is God's mercy, kindness and gentleness toward sinful mankind, offering redemption through faith in Jesus Christ. Eternal life is a free gift! Those who teach repentance as a condition (work) for salvation have woefully corrupted the Gospel. In simplest words, you DON'T have to turn from your sinful bad habits to be saved. That is reformation, not repentance! Repentance is simply a change of mind from unbelief to belief.

Repentance is simply acknowledging THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner, and that Jesus is the Savior. 2nd Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;" As you can see, repentance is not turning from sins, it is acknowledging THE TRUTH that you are a needy sinner. And then we are saved by placing our confidence (trust) in THE TRUTH of the Gospel, being persuaded that Jesus is the Christ Who died on the cross for our sins, was buried, and bodily resurrected the third day. Colossians 1:5, "For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;" We don't repent AND believe, we repent TO believe! We are not saved by repenting, we are saved by believing, but no man has ever believed who didn't also repent.

Repentance is not a separate act from believing, it simply facilitates believing, because we need to know what we are being saved from, our sins. Jesus didn't come so that we would turn from our sins to be saved, but to save us from our sins! Matthew 1:21, "And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins." You don't have to stop living in sin to be saved; but rather, Jesus died for your sins so that hopefully you wouldn't live that way anymore. 2nd Timothy 2:19, "Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity."

A redeemed child of God SHOULD live for Jesus, because we were created unto good works, not by them. Ephesians 2:8-10, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them." Please notice again the words "we should" walk in them. God bless you dear reader and thank you.

6.6.13 I Have No Doubt That Brian Wilson Sadly Went To Hell Forever (2025-06-13 13:24)

John 3:1-3, "

There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

Sadly, The Beach Boys beach band genius and cofounder Brian Wilson (1942-2025) died on June 11th. He was 82 years old. I admit that I am a big fan of The Beach Boys music. My favorite song by them is “[1]Wouldn’t It Be Nice” from their 1966 ’Pet Sounds’ album. I am sad, not because Brian died, but because by all indications Mr. Wilson went to Hell.

Jesus Himself said in John 3:3 that no one can enter into God’s kingdom without being born again. To be “born again” does NOT refer to a radical change in one’s life, as [2]Ray Comfort foolishly preaches. The Bible teaches that when Adam sinned, he opened the floodgate of sin and death upon the world (Romans 5:12). Hence, every human being since Adam has been born spiritually dead, alienated from God. This is why we all must be born anew by the Holy Spirit of God.

Dear reader, it is not enough to become religious to get to Heaven. It is not enough to get water baptized. It is not enough to make every effort to turn away from your sinning. It is not enough to pray, fast, tithe, sing in a choir, join a church or do good works. The Bible calls all of these things, DEAD WORKS (Hebrews 6:1). The only way to get to Heaven is through childlike faith (trust, reliance) in Jesus Christ, who is the only begotten Son of God. John 3:16, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

I have done much research about the man Brian Wilson. I haven’t found even the slightest evidence that he ever placed his faith in Jesus Christ. There are [3]lame websites that claim Mr. Wilson was a Christian, but with no support for such false claims. Dear friend, NO ONE is a Christian merely because they believe in God. James 2:19, “Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. ” Even the demons believe in God! So what if Brian Wilson believed in God? The $64,000 question is did Brian Wilson get born again before he breathed his last breath on earth? I seriously doubt that he did.

We are living in a very wicked world (1st John 5:19). At nearly every funeral you will hear the lying words concerning the deceased,

“He is in a better place now.” What saith the Scripture? Luke 13:23-24, “Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.” The inspired Holy Bible teaches that only a FEW people will make it to Heaven, as compared to the vast multitudes who are travelling the Highway to Hell (Matthew 7:13-15). Unless you become born again dear reader, you will spend eternity burning in Hell day and night without rest or hope (Revelation 14:11).

I have had several ministry website visitors ask me lately about demon possession. A common question asked is whether a Christian can be demon possessed. The answer is absolutely, no! According to 1st Corinthians 3:16-17, the believer’s body is the temple of the indwelling Holy Spirit. A demon cannot cohabit with God’s Holy Spirit in a saint’s body. However, as we read in 1st Chronicles 21:1, Satan can provoke a Christian to commit sin.

That being said, it is common knowledge that [4]Brian Wilson heard voices from within for most of his adult life, which may in fact have been demon possession. Brian said the voices spoke evil things to him, which he told to leave. To clarify, I am not saying that Mr. Wilson had devils in him. The truth is that we simply don’t know.

Few people would think of The Beach Boys as being involved with witchcraft, but they certainly were:

> "We were doing witchcraft, trying to make witchcraft music." —Brian Wilson quoted in Nick Kent’s, ’The Dark Stuff’ (p. 27)

In an interview, 'Backtalk with Brain Wilson' by H. Andrew Schwartz, The Beach Boy's band member Brain Wilson states...

> "Well, spirituality amounts to love with me. I consider it the same as love. And my band members are full of love."
> "Music that is Godlike and loving gets through. I don't have any power in this world, but I have spiritual power. I think God gave me my music and my talent. I'm trying to get across a feeling of spirituality; I think I have a spiritual influence on people."

Band members full of love? The band broke up multiple times and eventually hated each other so much that they publicly slandered and sued each other. That's not love! That being said,

I agree with Brian that God gave him his talent. I also agree that through his music he spiritually influenced people. However, none of that means he became a born again Christian!

I hope with all of my heart that Brain went to Heaven, but I see absolutely zero evidence that he did. His life was that of a broken man who was devoid of faith in God. Brian Wilson's life story is as bizarre, weird and strange as it gets—from talk of evil voices afflicting him for half a century, to his chronic fear of water as lead singer of The Beach Boys. I am fully convinced that Mr. Wilson didn't believe on the Lord Jesus Christ. Just because he wrote the popular song, "

God Only Knows

59 years ago in 1966 doesn't make him a born again believer.

6.6.14 OTHERS (2025-06-14 10:43)

by [2]Pastor Jack Hyles

(Loyal Pastor of First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana for over 42 years)

Sunday evening sermon, preached on September 29, 1974...

"Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." Luke 23:34a

"... Woman, behold thy son! ...Behold thy mother!" John 19:26, 27a

"And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise." Luke 23:43

I read biographies a great deal. Especially in the early, formative days of my ministry, so very often did I read biographies. I have read about the lives of most great men. One of my favorite characters in all of history is General William Booth. General Booth was the founder of the great Salvation Army, when it was more salvation than it was army. He led in spreading the Gospel over much of the world, as he organized street meetings and evangelistic services.

With the passing of the years, General Booth became an invalid. His eyesight failed him, and one year he was in such bad health that he was unable to attend the Salvation Army Convention in London, England. Somebody suggested that General Booth send a telegram or a message to be read at the opening of the convention. General Booth agreed to do so.

When the thousands of delegates met, the moderator announced that General Booth would not be able to be present because of failing health and eyesight. Gloom and pessimism swept across the floor of the convention. A little light dispelled some of the darkness when the moderator announced that General Booth had sent a message to be read with the opening of the first session. He opened the message and began to read the following:

Dear Delegates of the Salvation Army Convention:

OTHERS!
Signed, General Booth.

Lord, let me live from day to day
In such a self-forgetful way
That even when I kneel to pray,
My prayer shall be for others.
Others, Lord, yes, others;
Let this my motto be.
Help me to live for others
That I may live like Thee.

You recognized awhile ago the words of our Lord. No one ever exemplified the "others" life as did our Saviour. He never typified His life for others quite so beautifully and so clearly as He did when He was on the cross. As I have said from this pulpit several times, our Lord in dying on the cross, suffered as no man ever suffered, agonized as no man ever agonized, and hurt as no man ever hurt. His Father turned His back on Him. His own race had crucified Him. His own city had hated Him. His own people had nailed Him to the cross. Yet when our Lord opened His mouth on Mount Calvary, the first statement that He made had nothing to do with His own pain or His own suffering, but He said, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." (Luke 23:34) He did not speak of His own suffering.

Before He ever cries, "I thirst," He says, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." After awhile, He is going to say, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" (Mark 15:34; Matthew 27:46) He will speak in the first person, but not yet. He speaks in the third person when He says, "Forgive them; for they know not what they do." Before He speaks about His own suffering He says, "Woman, behold thy son!" (John 19:26) and "Behold thy mother!" (John 19:27) Before He says, "I thirst" or "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken Me?" or "Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit" (Luke 23:46), He says, "Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise." (Luke 23:43) Our Lord had learned the lesson that most of us never learn, and that is, to live as we ought to live, is to live for somebody else.

Lord, let me live from day to day
In such a self-forgetful way,
That even when I kneel to pray,
My prayer shall be for others.
Others, Lord, yes, others;
Let this my motto be.
Help me to live for others
That I may live like Thee.

I don’t know who the person is tonight in this room who is the most miserable wretch here, but whoever he is, he lives for himself. I don’t know who it is tonight who is the most unhappy creature in this room, but whoever it is has never lost himself in service for somebody else.

I want you to notice the first three of our Lord’s sayings on the cross. In the first place He said, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." Jesus died loving others and forgiving them. He died loving others.

There sits at my right on this platform tonight, Brother Fisk. I kid him a great deal, but he’s one of the great, if not the greatest, personal soul winners alive today. He came to this church 14 years ago an unsaved person. He came during a big special contest drive. He heard me preach. He thought I preached too loud and too long. (I would never plead guilty to either.) Somebody said that C. W. Fisk didn’t like my preaching; I thought he’d never come back. The next Sunday, he came back. He walked the aisle and professed his faith in Christ as his Saviour. I couldn’t believe it! I went to him, shook his hand, and said something like this, although I do not recall exactly what I said: "I’m surprised to see you back; I thought you didn’t like my preaching." He assured me in no uncertain terms that that was an accurate appraisal, and then he said, "I’ll tell you why I came back. After the service last Sunday, you placed your left hand on my shoulder and put your right hand in mine, and you said three words that no one other than my wife had ever said to me – ’I love you."’ I wonder how many people will be in Heaven because the Holy Spirit inspired this preacher to say, "I love you."

If there is a need among fundamental people tonight, it is for a baptism of love one for the other. Jesus died loving others. I love to tell this story, and you may as well love to hear it. I preached at Bob Jones University for a few days several years ago. I had to fly all night long. I had to leave this pulpit, and somebody met me at the back door and rushed me to O’Hare Field. The plane was to leave at 10:00 o’clock, and I got there a few minutes before 10:00. I’ll never forget it, because somebody had given me a sack of grapes to eat on the plane. I wish they would have wrapped the grapes in some kind of plastic or waxed paper. Because I was late for the plane, my shoe came untied and I lost my shoe. So there I was, a sack of grapes in this hand, a shoe and a suitcase in the other hand, running down to catch the airplane. Then the grapes decided they wanted to work their way through the sack! As a great crowd of people rushed to their airplanes, there were grapes rolling all over the concourse. There were "grapes of wrath" going everywhere, and wrath coming back toward me from the people.

I got on the plane; there was only one seat left and I felt led to take it. I sat down beside a little lady who had on a black sweater, a diamond pin on that sweater, and a beautiful diamond ring, but she had her hair rolled-up. Now anybody knows that no lady with any sense is going to take a trip with her hair rolled-up. I couldn’t understand it, because her hair was rolled up and she was wearing a diamond pin and a beautiful, gorgeous diamond ring. She was obviously wealthy, but obviously not prepared to travel. I sat down beside her, and as I usually do, I spoke to my fellow traveler. (I had the misfortune being reared in the South where folks are friendly, and did not learn that you’re not supposed to be friendly till I moved up here.) I said, "Howdy. How are you?" She said, "Fine. How are you?" We chatted for a few minutes, and then I went off to sleep. I slept for an hour.

I was awakened by the touching of the wheels on the runway at Cincinnati, Ohio. I stretched, woke up, and looked around. The little lady looked at me and she said, "Mister, could I ask you a question?" I said, "What?" She said, "How could you do what you did while you were asleep?" I thought, "Good night! What did I do while I was asleep?" I said, "Ma'am, what did I do?" She said, "Sir, we have been in a storm. This plane has almost turned over. It is the worst storm I've ever seen on a plane. One of the stewardesses got so scared she locked herself in the rest room. We had our heads in our pillows. Some folks have been praying aloud, and you've been over there snoring. How could you do it?"

I said, "Dear lady, there are two reasons, I guess. One reason is, I fly 150,000 miles a year on these planes; but the other is, my Father owns this airplane.'! "Your father owns this airplane?" "Yes," I said, "He owns the Delta Air Lines." She said, "Your father owns Delta Air Lines?" I said, "Yes, ma'am, and American Air Lines." "Delta and American?" "Eastern and Allegheny, too." "Your father owns Delta, American, Eastern, and Allegheny?" "Yes, and also Braniff, United, Northwestern and Ozark." Her hair fell. She said, "I am so honored to be sitting beside the heir of the Delta, American, United, Allegheny, Braniff, Ozark, and Eastern millions." I said, "Thank you."

She said, "May I ask you a question, who is your father?" I said, "He's the Father of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ." Then she screamed so loudly that everybody on the plane heard her. She sat up in her seat, pointed at me and said, "I know what you are!" She said it so loud that everybody was listening, "You're a minister; that's what you are!" I said, "I already knew that; but I'm more than that. I'm a Christian. Jesus is my Saviour and God is my Father."

He owns the cattle on a thousand hills,
The wealth in every mine.
He owns the rivers and the rocks and rills,
The sun and stars that shine.
Wonderful riches, more than tongue can tell;
He is my Father, so they're mine as well.
He owns the cattle on a thousand hills,
I know that He will care for me!

Then she screamed so loudly I'll never forget it, "Mister, tell me one thing. Tell me, does your God love me, too?" Everybody on the plane heard her. Folks gathered around. They thought she was an emotionally disturbed lady. I said, "Yes, my God loves you, too, and I love you because He loves you." As we were flying between Cincinnati, Ohio, and Atlanta, Georgia, at 28,000 feet in the air I told her a wonderful story of love.

Wonderful story of love,
Tell it to me again;

Wonderful story of love,
Wake the immortal strain!
Angels with rapture announce it;
Shepherds with wonder receive it;
Sinner, 0 won’t you believe it?
Wonderful story of love.
I love to tell the story,
For those who know it best
Seem hungering and thirsting
To hear it like the rest.
And when, in scenes of glory,
I sing the new, new song
’Twill be the old, old story
That I have loved so long.

How many times have I told it from this pulpit through these years? Oh, thank God, it never grows old! For ten years in this auditorium I’ve preached from one Book, just one Book! I’ve preached from it all the time; it never, never growsold. At 28,000 feet in the air, my Father adopted her into His family and she was born of the Spirit of God. I thought about her shriek and cry. She told me a sad story. She told me how her husband, the manager of a manufacturing and mining company in Racine, Wisconsin, had just left her. She had just tried to kill herself. She rolled up the sleeve of her sweater and showed me the scars where she had taken a razor blade and tried to kill herself. They had found her almost dead. She said, "I have a sister in Atlanta, Georgia, who is a Christian. I was put on an airplane with the hope that I would find a reason to live. Of all the people that could have sat beside me, a minister of the Gospel would come!" She was sweetly saved at 28,000 feet in the air.

I was thinking tonight, "I wonder how many people wonder if our God loves them?" I hope I learn someday to live for other people. I hope I’ll learn what it is, before I see Him, to so bathe myself in service for others it won’t matter about self anymore. Oh, my friends! This is a heartsick, sin-sick old world. Everybody is weeping, and the whole creation groaneth and travaileth together. Everybody needs somebody to help them! There’s a great need. Do you want a job? Do you want something to do for God? Just try to help other people. Oh, my! Honestly, I mean it, I never go home late at night without wondering as I drive home after counseling and trying to help, "How many people out yonder in this great Chicago area could use some help?"

Lord, let me live from day to day,
In such a self-forgetful way,
That even when I kneel to pray,
My prayer shall be for others.
Others, Lord, yes, others;
Let this my motto be.
Help me to live for others
That I may live like Thee.

Yes, Jesus died loving others. That leads us to one of the sweetest things ever written in the Bible. Jesus is dying on the cross. He is God incarnate, the very God of gods, clothed in flesh, the preexistent, eternal Son of God on earth. He walked among men and now He is on the cross. This is the most important hour in the history of civilization – Calvary! All the rivers of history empty into Calvary. All the streams of prophecy find their source at Calvary. Look at Him. He's dying. Look at Him! That's the Son of God! Look at Him! He had fellowship with the Father before the world was. Look at Him! He's virgin-born. Look at Him! He lived a sinless life. Look at Him! All the doctrines of justification, propitiation, sanctification, glorification and predestination – all the Bible doctrines are wrapped up in what's going on right there on Calvary. If He comes down from the cross, we are doomed: If He stays there, we will live forever with Christ. Calvary!

Sh-h-h-h! He's opening His mouth; He's going to speak. God Incarnate is going to speak! He has a message for us; I wonder what it will be? I wonder if He will give us a dissertation on justification. Hey! Maybe He will tell us something about the great doctrine of predestination that none of us quite understands. Maybe He will tell us something about propitiation or about the heart of God. What is He going to say? Sh-h-h-h! Listen! I wonder what profound words will come through His lips? He is opening His mouth. "John, take care of Mama. Mama, John's going to take care of you."

There is something so sweet about that I cannot even walk through the garden without feeling that I have profaned the petals of the roses. Why wouldn't He speak about a great doctrine? I'll tell you why! When Jesus died, He wouldn't say, "I thirst," until He took care of His mama. (John 19:28) He died caring for the needs of others. After awhile He's going to say, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" but not yet; first He wants to care for the needs of others.

Let me say this. You'll never be happy, you're barking up an empty tree; you're running down a dead-end road; you'll never be happy until you lose yourself! Forget yourself! Forget your own needs! Forget your own likes and dislikes! Bathe yourself in service for other people.

Lord, let me live from day to day,
In such a self-forgetful way,
That even when I kneel to pray,
My prayer shall be for others.

I think I am a happy man. I think folks who are around me know that I am rather happy. I enjoy life. If happiness were bought tonight by money in the bank, I would not be happy; I have no money in the bank. If happiness came tonight by a lack of enemies, I would not be happy; I have thousands of enemies. Whatever degree of happiness I've found, I've found it trying to help somebody else. "Help somebody today, somebody along life's way." That's the secret!

There's a lady – I think she's in the auditorium tonight; if she's not, she usually is – who came to my office several years ago and said, "Pastor, I'm about to crack up." (Now, that's nothing unusual; all ladies are about to crack up, Every lady I know either just had a nervous breakdown or is having one now or is planning to have one as soon as she can work it into her busy schedule.) She said, "I'm about to crack up. Can you help me?" I said, "Yes; ma'am, I can help you." She said, "How?" I said, ."Go bake some cookies." She asked, "What does baking cookies have to do with my nervous breakdown?" I said, "Go bake some cookies and take them to some deaf people in our church. Spend an hour with them, telling them you love them. Tomorrow, bake a cake. Take that cake to some blind person. Spend a little while with that one. The next day, go down to the hospital with a dozen roses and go to each room in the hospital that has nobody visiting. Give a rose to the patient in that room and have a prayer with that one who has no visitors. Every day of your life spend at least one hour – at least one hour, at least one hour – forgetting yourself and thinking of others. That will take care of that nervous breakdown."

I didn't see that lady for awhile. It seemed like she was trying to avoid me. One Sunday morning after months had passed, I happened to catch her in the back of the auditorium. I called her by name and said, "How about that nervous breakdown you were supposed to have?" She said, "I got so busy I called it off."

You could call yours off, too. Do you know what your trouble is? Self! Some body offended you. Somebody didn't treat you right. Somebody mistreated you. You didn't get what you were supposed to get. (If you got it, you wouldn't be happy.)

Others! Others!

I'm going to tell the story that I've told so often here; I love it and it's one of the best stories for closing a message. (Pat Paolucci, are you here tonight? I like to tell it when she's here. She was probably in the early service this evening.) A little bus girl, nine years of age, walked down the aisle in the old auditorium and got saved one Sunday morning. I can still see her coat. (Some of you folks that knew Pat; you remember that she was sort of a tubby little girl. She's always been tubby; she still is a little tubby. Since she's not here, I'll say that. Of course, the whole world will hear it on tape!) Her coat was made of imitation fur. After the service was over, nine-year-old Pat came and knocked on the door of my study. I went to the door and I said, "Can I help you?" She said, "I'm Pat. Brother Hyles, my Mommy ain't saved.

Would you pray that my Mommy would get saved?" I prayed for her mommy to get saved. The next Sunday morning after the service, there was a knock on my study door. I went to the door and it was little Pat, She said, "Brother Hyles, Mommy ain't saved yet. Would you pray that Mommy would get saved?" I prayed. The next Sunday morning after the service, there was a knock on my study door. It got to where almost every Sunday, if not every Sunday, Pat would knock on my door. I'd know who it was and I wouldn't want to answer the door. I would be busy; It didn't matter whether I was praying or winning a soul or counseling, there would be a knock on the door. She'd say, "Would you pray that Mommy would get saved?" For almost nine years she came by and asked me to pray. I'll never forget it.

One Wednesday night I walked out this side door and down the hallway behind the choir and right where you go to the door to go down the stairs, little Pat met me. She was 18 then. "Brother Hyles, could I have my senior appointment with you?" (As you know, I have a senior appointment with all the high school seniors and discuss their futures.) I said, "Pat, I won't have to have a senior appointment with you because I know what I want you to do. I can tell you right now what you ought to do." Pat said, "What?" I said, "I want you to go to a Christian college and prepare to serve God full-time." She got mad at me! She put her hands on her hips, stomped her foot (nobody here stomps their foot at me, except Pat), and said, 'Well, Mr. Hyles," – Mister Hyles? (Oh, I'd rather call the pope "Pauly.") Then she said to me, "You don't even know who I am!" I said, "Yes, I do; you're Pat. You're one of our bus kids." "Well, how do you expect a bus kid to afford to go to college?" she said.

I said, "I'm sorry, Pat. I'm sorry, but wouldn't it be wonderful if there were a God?" Pat said, "There's a God, and you know it!" (She was almost insolent! If we'd had a school, I'd have given her 150 demerits. I may do it any way and make them retroactive!) I said, "Pat, it would be wonderful if that God weren't flat busted?" "He's not flat busted; He's rich and you know it!" she said. "Wouldn't it be wonderful if He Weren't such a tight wad?" Disgustedly she answered, "He's not a tight wad; He's generous and you know it!" "Oh? Wouldn't it be wonderful if He loved little bus kids and would send them to college?" She got mad again. She put her hands on her hips and stomped again and called me, "Mister Hyles," again. She said, "Mister Hyles, for your information, there is a God and He is rich and He is generous and He loves bus kids, and for your information, I am going to college!" We knelt right back there in that hallway right by the top of those steps and we prayed down a college education for Pat that night!

Eight weeks after that, Pat met me right here after a Wednesday night service. Her hand was full of green bills. She was crying. She said, "Brother Hyles, I have $200.00 here that people who don't even know me have given me! There is a God, and He loves me, and He is generous! He's rich, and I'm leaving for college tomorrow at 12:00 noon on a Greyhound bus."

The next day I got the staff together – we had 15 folks on the staff at the time; some of the folks will remember this. Our staff got on one of the old church buses that Pat had ridden on for nine years. We rode down on Conkey Street where Pat lived. Just a short while before she was to leave, we called her out to our bus and gave her a personal shower on the bus. I never will forget it. One of the ladies on the staff bought her a…. Two of the ladies on the staff went together and bought her a pair of…. One lady bought her a… (You see, it was a personal shower.) After she had opened all the 'presents she said, "Brother Hyles, there is a God. He loves me and He's rich and He's generous. Brother Hyles, I love you so much; you've fed me and clothed me and prayed for me." Pat went off to school.

Her mother got saved the next Sunday right here in this auditorium! Five months passed. The folks on the staff will remember this. I got a long-distance call from Pat in Chattanooga, Tennessee. (The little stinker called me collect, would you believe it?) "Hello. Long-distance calling collect for Reverend Jack Hyles." "This is Brother Hyles." "Brother Hyles, this is Pat. I'm so happy. I wanted you to know. Brother Hyles, this is the happiest day of my life. I wanted you to know first; I haven't told my mother, yet. I haven't told my father, yet. I wanted you to know first; I haven't told my sister, yet." I said, "You haven't told your pastor yet, either." She said, "Brother Hyles, a preacher just proposed to me. I'm so happy." I put the phone on the desk – didn't hang it up, but put it on the desk; I felt a spell coming on.

When I have a spell, I always take off my shoes. I took off my shoes and jumped around the room, clapping my hands and saying, "Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!" My mind went back to the morning when a little nine-year-old girl got saved. I remembered the little meeting we had nine years later in the hallway behind the choir. I heard Pat's voice on the phone saying, "Brother Hyles, Brother Hyles, Brother Hyles!" I went over to the phone and said, "What is it?" She said, "This is costing money." I said, "Don't forget, honey, it was collect!" I put the phone down and clapped my hands some more and rejoiced and praised the Lord.

The next June I stood right here on this platform, and a young man stood right here beside me. Down that stairway the bride came – a bus kid, just a bus kid. She walked down the aisle and we slobbered through a ceremony together.. (I slobber through everything I do.) She was married.

After the ceremony, she said, "Brother Hyles, aren't you going to preach at Highland Park in Chattanooga at Tennessee Temple School this summer?" I said,. "Yes." She said, "Would you come to our little apartment and let me fix you a meal? I would just love to have you." I said, "Why, sure."

So later that summer on a Friday at noon, I walked up an old stairway to second-floor apartment of a married college student. It was summertime; the screen door was closed, but the main door was open and I heard Pat say, "I wish I could die!" I didn't think it was that bad to have me over to eat; I couldn't understand what the deal was. Again she said, "I wish I could die!" So I decided to wait and see why she wanted to terminate her existence. I listened and she said these words to her husband: "I burned the steak! I wanted to serve Brother Hyles a good meal, but I burned the steak and I don't want to live."

Soon I said through the screen door "I'm here!" She said, "Come in." I went in; nobody as yet had come to the door, I was just standing by myself in the other room. I called to her and said, "Pat, what are we having for lunch?" She said, "Steak."' I said, "Pat do me a favor." "What?" "I like my steak burned. Would you put my piece back in the oven and just burn it slightly, please?" I heard her say, "Praise the Lord!" So, we had a lovely meal. Pat and her husband and I had an enjoyable meal. My steak was highly baptized with ketchup, but we had a lovely meal. When it was all over, Pat said, "Brother Hyles, we bought you something." She gave me a little gift-wrapped package.

I opened it. It was a little notebook; you've seen these little plastic notebooks that cost a dollar. I'll tell you why I know; because the price tag was still on it. (When you buy a gift that "expensive," you ought to leave the price tag on it.) I opened it and they were so pleased and I was so pleased. (I still have the notebook. I wouldn't trade it for the Taj Mahal.) Pat said, "Brother Hyles, there is a God, He is rich, He loves bus kids, and He is generous. Brother Hyles, I love you and I appreciate you." After I left I sang. (I can't sing! When I sing, the angels weep and Heaven's flag is flown for three days at half-mast.) I was singing and crying,

Lord, let me live from day to day,
In such a self-forgetful way,
That even when I kneel to pray,
My prayer shall be for others.
Others, Lord, yes, others;
Let this my motto be.
Help me to live for others
That I may live like Thee.

Elizabeth Barrett was an invalid and for many, many months didn't even lift her head off her pillow. One day Robert Browning came to see her. On his first visit, she lifted her head for the first time in months. On his second visit, she sat up in bed. On his third visit, she eloped with him. Others! Others!

Jesus – God Incarnate, the preexistent Son of God becoming flesh – with all the sins of all the universe, of all the world, heaped up on his shoulders, suffered as no man ever suffered! He saw the back side of the Father for the first time in eternity, but He said, "John, take care of Mama. Mama, John's going to take care of you." He said to the thief on the cross, "Today shalt thou be with Me in paradise." He died saving others.

I've been your pastor over 15 years – over ten of them have been in this auditorium. There is one thing I want my people to do – I want you to forget yourself! I want you to be happy. I want you to live the victorious life. I don't want you to be miserable. I want you to be happy. God knows I do. I want the best for you. You are my people. I love the words, "preacher" and "pastor." You've got me so spoiled, it's pitiful. Between services tonight I said, "I wish I had something to eat; I need a little energy." I opened the office door and saw a little package of peanuts that somebody had left me. Here's the sweet thing about it – and Jesus is this way – I said, "How can I eat the peanuts? The skins and pieces of nuts will stay in my teeth and bother me when I'm preaching!" Whoever gave me the peanuts had thought about that, too. There was a little piece of Dentyne chewing gum that I could chew so the leftover pieces of nuts would stick to the gum. The Lord's that way and you're that way. Somebody left me three tomatoes. That's the way it is all the time! There was a note from a little girl saying, "I love you." Little boys write notes and say, "I'm glad you're my Preacher." So, I want the best for you.

Listen to me. I know that when I'm not happy, it's because of selfishness; and I know when you're not happy, it's because of selfishness. It be a wonderful thing if we could so live that the theme song of our lives would be "Others."

Lord let me live from day to day,
In such a self-forgetful way,
That even when I kneel to pray,
My prayer shall be for others.
Others, Lord, yes, others;
Let this my motto be.
Help me to live for others
That I may live like Thee.

“Father, forgive them. They don’t know what they’re doing.” “Mama, John’s going to take care of you. John, you take care of Mama.” “Today shalt thou be with me in paradise.”

I’d like to close my ministry some day from behind this pulpit with one word to my people: “OTHERS! Signed, Your Pastor.”

Let us pray.

6.6.15 Quit Trying To Improve Yourself (2025-06-15 10:04)

Exodus 34:27-30, “And the LORD said unto Moses, Write thou these words: for after the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Israel.

And he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.

And it came to pass, when Moses came down from mount Sinai with the two tables of testimony in Moses’ hand, when he came down from the mount, that Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone while he talked with him. And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come nigh him.”

I listened to a wonderful sermon today by my favorite preacher, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). Dear reader, I sincerely hope that you will take the time to hear this life-changing sermon. It is titled, “

[1]Self Improvement Versus Others Improvement.

I heard Dr. Hyles once say that if he could teach his church congregation one thing, next to how to get to Heaven, it would be to GET OUT OF THE SELF LIFE! I couldn’t agree more. As humans we are born with a sinful selfish nature. By default we are all selfish.

In this helpful sermon, “Self Improvement Versus Others Improvement,” Pastor Hyles points out that only two times in the Bible did a Christian not recognize the presence of the Holy Spirit—here is [2]Exodus 34:29 when Moses wist (knew) not that he face shown with the Spirit of God; and then in [3]Judges 16:20 when Samson wist not that the Holy Spirit had departed from him. When you are what you ought to be, you won't know what you ought to be! That is, when you lose yourself in meeting the needs of others, you won't be concerned about how well you are doing. I don't care if I am a good preacher or not, I just want to help others by giving you THE TRUTH you need!

This is one of my favorite sermons by Brother Hyles, because it really hits home, doesn't it. We live in a very selfish culture in America. Someone even published a magazine called, SELF. The important thing is not being filled with the Holy Spirit, it is yielding to allow the indwelling Holy Spirit to do the things God wants you to do (Galatians 5:22-25).

I learned a long time ago that I cannot live the Christian life, and neither can you friend. We will fail again and again if we try in our own feeble human strength to live the Christian life. What saith the Scripture? Galatians 2:20-21, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain." Jesus lives the Christian life through us, via the Holy Spirit who lives inside every believer (Romans 8:9; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17; 1st John 3:24).

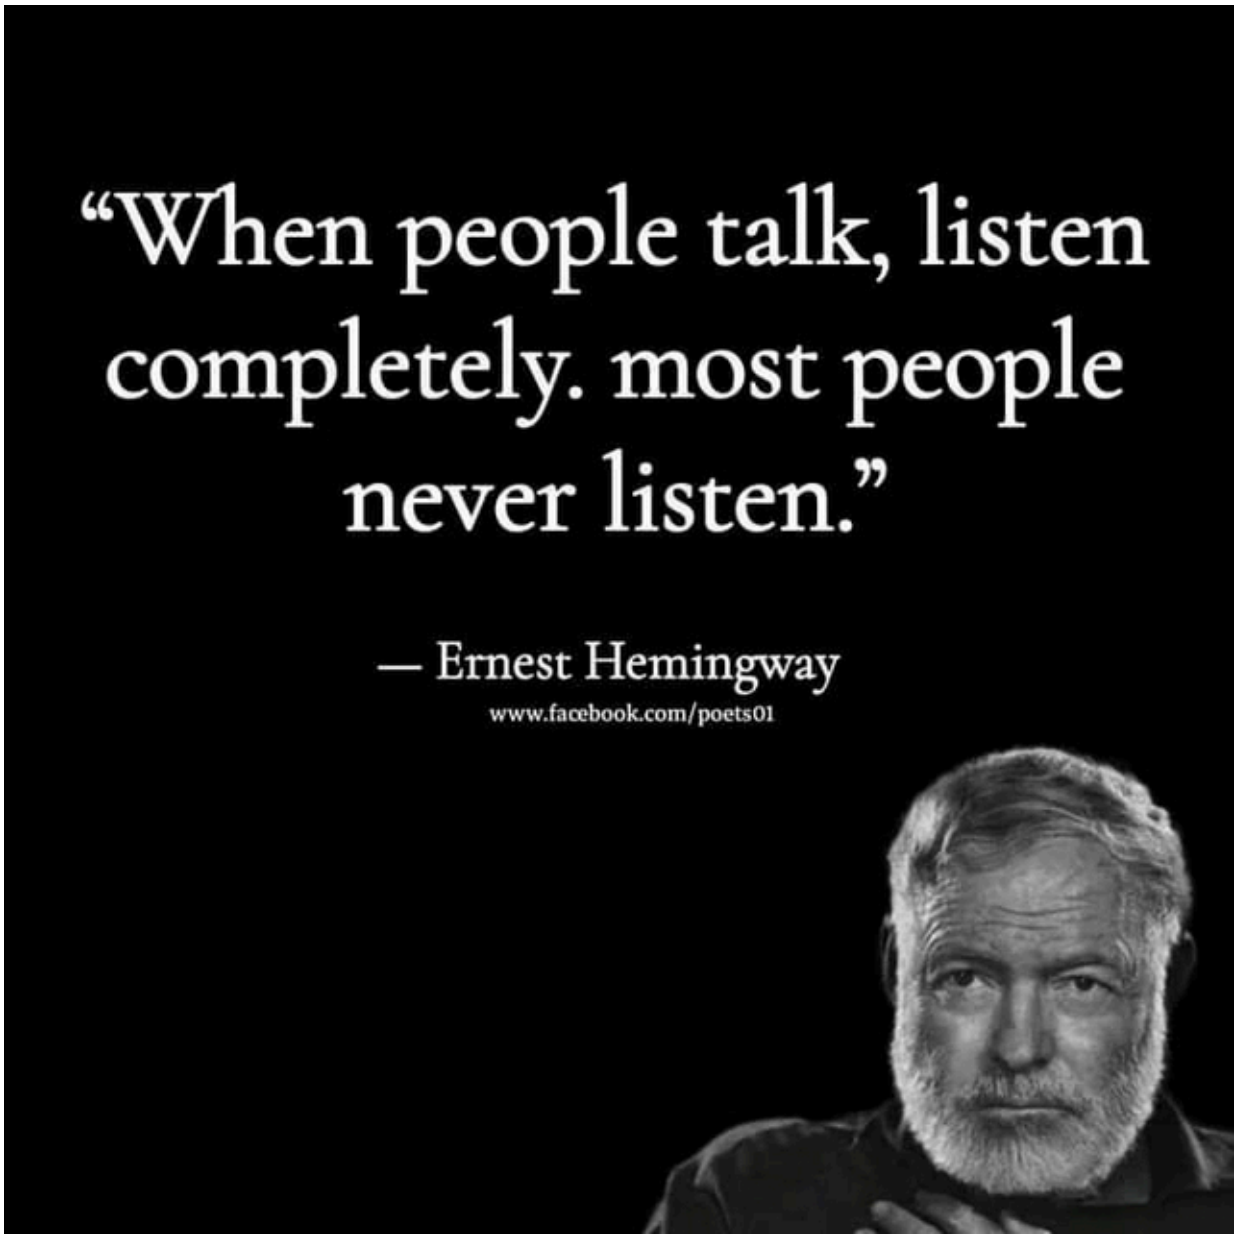
Pastor Hyles teaches this wonderful truth in his helpful sermon titled, "[4]Filled With His Fulness." I don't love you dear reader, God is loving you through me. I don't care about you, God cares about you through me. This is the fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25). God doesn't give the fruit of His Holy Spirit TO ME; but rather, THROUGH ME to give to you. So, if I don't walk in the Spirit, you won't be loved. If I don't yield to the Spirit to obey God's Word (2nd Corinthians 10:5-6), you won't receive the blessings that God intended for you to have through me.

There is a voice in God's heavenly choir that only you can fulfill dear reader. You are the only Jesus that somebody knows! To someone you are the "the uttermost part of the earth" (Acts 1:8b). I visited a church one time and saw a sign above the exit door which read, "You are now entering the missionary field." I love that!!!

In most bookstores today you'll find an entire section on "Self Improvement." Sadly, that includes many Christian bookstores. No Sir, self improvement is a byproduct of living for others! Burn your books on self improvement and GET OUT OF THE SELF LIFE!!!

It doesn't matter who you are, it's who you help that matters. It doesn't matter what you're trying to become, it's what are you doing for other people. Dear reader, may we all by God's grace get out of the self life. Forget self improvement, spend your life trying to improve OTHERS.

In the popular 2005 movie, "Batman Begins," Rachel Dawes tells billionaire playboy Bruce Wayne: "Bruce. Deep down, you may still be that same great kid you used to be, but it's not who you are underneath. It's what you do that defines you.



" That is absolutely true!

Moses didn't know that his face was shining. He was consumed pleading with God to spare the Hebrews from utter destruction. Because of their wickedness and idolatry God wanted to annihilate them! But Moses begged God to reconsider, lest the heathen nations say that God only delivered His children out of Egypt to slay them in the Wilderness. Thankfully for their sakes, Moses succeeded at changing God's mind.

I have never tried to be a good preacher, I have always tried to help others know THE TRUTH. Jesus said in John 8:32, " And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

6.6.16 Very Few Pastors Genuinely Love People (2025-06-16 10:00)

Ephesians 4:30-32, “

And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake hath forgiven you.”

Sadly, I’ve met some cold hearted bastards for pastors over the years. They are illegitimate pastors who have no business being in the clergy.

Pensacola Christian College’s Cult In Pensacola

Namely, Jeff Redlin, senior pastor at Pensacola Christian College’s (PCC) Campus Church. Mr. Redlin is a hateful monster who refuses to allow me to attend Campus Church, since August 2, 2022. He emailed me in writing to tell me I am not permitted to attend their church, My great crime was criticizing the conceited prima donna gods at PCC on social media, which Redlin and company deserve for shunning and ostracizing people.

PCC wickedly throws people under the bus! I pleaded with the pastors at Campus Church for compassion and understanding, but Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias refused. It didn’t matter that I apologized for criticizing them, they refused to forgive me. Those are a very wicked arrogant proud pastors! Tragically, PCC’s college leadership is just as bad. I sent them a letter to request their help, but they ignored me. So now we are enemies!

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was so right...

> “You can’t love anybody, until you love everybody!” —Dr. Jack Hyles, “[1]The Test Of Spiritual Maturity”

There is no love or compassion at PCC or their Campus Church. Read some of [2]the negative reviews of PCC for yourself. PCC is a Lordship Salvation neo-evangelical cult, not a biblical fundamentalist Christian institution. I hate that accursed place at PCC, where the cult system always comes first, but individual people do not matter! It was one of their own hurting female students over 20 years ago who made that statement, and I concur 100 % with her.

Harvest Baptist Church’s Cult On Guam

Then there’s Marty Herron, who was the clown senior pastor at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for 19 years. Marty quit when he saw an opportunity to make more money as the executive vice president of Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa, where he ruins young people’s lives today with his damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation. Mr. Herron is a devout follower of heretic John MacArthur and his Satanic Calvinism.

I heard Pastor Herron with my own two ears in 2014, when I visit the Harvest Baptist Church cult on Guam, say to several hundred church members on a Sunday morning: “It’s not enough to admit you’re a sinner to get to Heaven, you must forsake a lifestyle of sinning.” BLASPHEMY! That man is still hellbound in his unbelief, because he adds works to grace! No one is born again who is attempting to forsake sinning to get to Heaven!!! Either you are trusting Jesus alone because of what He did through Calvary’s cross to pay for your sins, or else you are only partially trusting Christ PLUS something more, which is no faith at all.

Smyrna Baptist Church’s Cult In Pensacola

When I attended the Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola in 2024, their senior pastor Bill Adams rudely looked off at the wall when I shook his hand. I contacted him about the matter, because it was clear to me that he dissed me. He apologized and said he didn't know why he did it. One week later his wife approached me at Smyrna Baptist Church to shake my hand, but she looked 45 degrees hard right off at the wall, which was obvious that she didn't want me to return to their church cult.

So, I kindly contacted her husband again, the pastor, wondering what the hell was going on.

I couldn't have been more kind.

Sadly, he totally ignored me. So, I contacted him again but again he still totally ignored me. This is the type of hatred that exists in our Baptist churches today —cold hearted uncaring pastors with a chip on their shoulder, and bitchy pastor's wives with hussy bad attitudes running the church into the ground. Bill Adams is henpecked!!!

Even worse, their cult promotes the [3]heretical Lordship Salvation poison of Chick Tracts, which falsely require lost sinners to be willing to forsake their sinful bad habits to be saved, which is works instead of free grace. Jack Chick is a FALSE PROPHETS!!! Shame on any church that distributes Chick Tracts, because they do NOT preach a free grace Gospel.

God knows that I do not hate these wicked pastors, but they ought not be pastors! If I had the power to do so, I'd fire every one of them and ban them from getting involved in any religious leadership role ever again. They'd be finished!!! It's not okay to throw people under the bus! Either you love everybody, or else you don't really love anyone!!! Jeff Redlin, Marty Herron and Bill Adams don't love anyone except themselves and their paychecks.

Payday Someday!

I could also name other incompetent pastors I've met, but these are the three big names that have horribly mistreated me, shunning and throwing me under the bus for TELLING THE TRUTH. All I wanted was to come back to their churches, but they refused. THOSE ARE MANMADE CULTS!!! They are bastards. That is, they are illegitimate pastors!

God knows that Marty Herron ruined my life on Guam, for which God will hold him accountable and punish him (Romans 12:19-21). When I had an opportunity to get married, Pastor Herron ruined it for me. If I had my way he'd be a very lonely man, to let him experience the deep pain he caused for me over the years. It is only my faith in God that keeps me from hating Marty Herron, but I hate everything about him, especially his damnable preaching of a counterfeit plan of salvation (aka, Lordship Salvation). Woe unto Marty Herron on Judgment Day (Galatians 6:7). You cannot preach another gospel, promote the Devil's corruptible seed (false bible revisions), shun away truth-tellers (like they did to me), and escape God's wrath!!! My worst enemies in life have been neo-evangelical pastors; namely, Marty Herron and Jeff Redlin being among the worst offenders. MONSTERS ARE REAL!!!

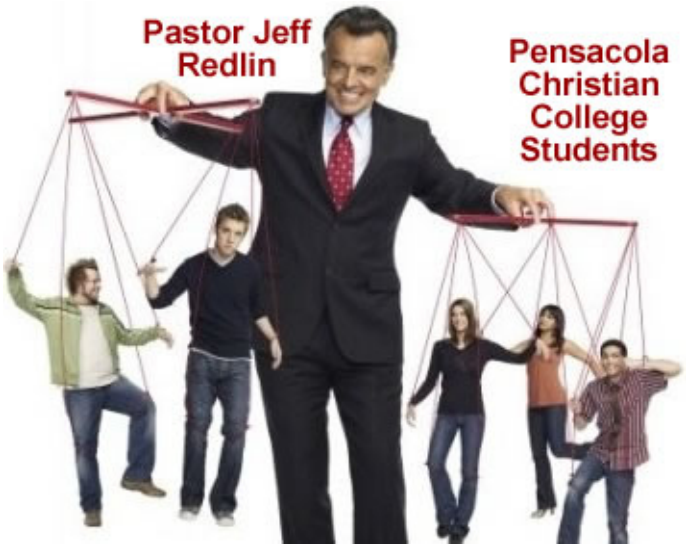
My continual prayer is for God to avenge me of these evildoers, since I told THE TRUTH but they punished me for it. ALL of the modern English Bible revisions are corrupt! Lordship Salvation is of the Devil. Jack Chick (1924-2016) preached another gospel in his Chick Tracts. Martin Luther (1483-1546) is burning in Hell for [4]preaching Sacramental Salvation all his life. I am so disgusted with stupid local pastors in Pensacola. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

Neo-evangelicals wickedly make light of moral standards (e.g., they're okay with females wearing whorish sexy pants in pubic); they make light of sound doctrine, make light of which Bible version we use, make light of soulwinning, and make light of the accuracy of God's simple plan of salvation. PCC's incompetent leaders and ungodly pastors wickedly laughed in my face in 2021 and 2022, when I confronted them about their damnable Lordship Salvation heresy.



People can say what they want about me, but I do care. I get upset because I do pay attention to the little details. Pastor Jack Hyles was so right, who said: "The most important job is the one that doesn't get done!" Sadly, today's pastors aren't getting the job done! They're dropping the ball for God by promoting the Devil's corrupt modern Bible revisions, by preaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, by perverting the Bible meaning of repentance (which is a change of mind, not turning from your sinning

) to be saved, et cetera. RIGHT DOCTRNE MATTERS!

By God's grace I may throw a fit, but I'm on the Lord's side. I am tired of being mistreated, shunned, abused, ostracized and thrown under the bus by wicked incompetent pastors, because I am TELLING THE TRUTH. There is so little love for truth or people in today's dead churches. I speak this to their utter shame. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

6.6.17 You'll Hate Yourself Forever If You Don't Get Born Again (2025-06-17 06:00)

1st Corinthians 2:9-10, "But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God."

I was thinking today about how great it is to know that my name is written in Heaven as a Christian. Amen!

And then I thought about the Marriage Supper of the Lamb, and all the smorgasbord of food that were going to feast upon. The Bible says when the two angels came to Lot's house, they ate a feast which Lot prepared. This included fresh homemade baked bread (Genesis 19:3). That means angels eat! When Jesus resurrected, in His glorified body, He ate and drank on multiple occasions with His disciples (Luke 24:39-43).

The Bible promises that when each believer receives our new glorified body at the Rapture, it will be fashioned like UNTO THE LORD'S (Philippians 3:21). Yeah boy, I can't wait to get to Heaven and feast on all the awesome family recipes throughout the ages of time!!! I'm talking everyone's favorite recipes will be in Heaven! Do you want to miss out on the grandest buffet of all time and beyond? Not me buddy! This is a great reason to get born-again!

Consider the following drastic contrast between the unsaved and the saved:

> UNSAVED - Philippians 3:18-19, "(For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)
> SAVED - Philippians 3:20-21, "For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself."

What would you rather have—a brand new perfect body with supernatural abilities like the Lord's, or a body designed to withstand the tremendous heat and torture of the Lake of Fire for all eternity? Matthew 10:28, "And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell." I don't know about you, but I want to be with Jesus in Heaven, with a new immortal perfect body, enjoying the wonderful recipes and foods from around the world.

The Lord enjoyed eating while on the earth. Matthew 11:19a, "The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber..." The word "eat" is mentioned 757 times in the New Testament. The Lord enjoyed eating and fellowship with others. We read in the Bible that Jesus attended wedding feasts and often accepted dinner invitations into people's homes. In Heaven, we are going to enjoy eating and drinking. I sure don't want to miss that!

The same omnipotent Savior Who walked upon the Sea Of Galilee, and commanded the raging waves of the sea and the mighty blowing winds to calm, will change our corrupted earthly bodies into immortal and incorruptible glorified bodies. We will be able to ascend into the air as did the Lord (Acts 1:9). We will be able to walk through walls as did the Lord (John 20:19). 1st Corinthians 15:51-53, "Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality."

> There is coming a day when no heartaches shall come,
> No more clouds in the sky, no more tears to dim the eye.
> All is peace forevermore on that happy golden shore,
> What a day, glorious day that will be.
>
> Chorus
> What a day that will be when my Jesus I shall see,
> And I look upon His face,
> The One who saved me by His grace;
> When He takes me by the hand
> And leads me through the Promised Land,
> What a day, glorious day that will be.

God is so good!!! When I think about all the horrible wars, famines, pestilences and atrocities which have afflicted so many hundreds-of-millions of people throughout the history of mankind, I praise God for our blessed American culture. Unfortunately, things have slowly been deteriorating because of the rejection of Christianity in the United States. Ultimately, our nation will fall to chaos, anarchy and a rising police state.

Another great reason to get saved is to escape the fires of Hell. I heard Dr. Jack Hyles say in a sermon that he was saved, I believe it was at the age of 11. Brother Hyles said he got saved because he was afraid of going to Hell. My friend, that is a very good reason to come to Christ for salvation. That is why I got saved too. I heard a false prophet named [1]Paris Reidhead , teach that a person is not saved if they only got saved to escape the fires of Hell. That is a lie of the Devil.

It doesn't matter why a person receives Christ to be saved, just so long as they get saved. Every person who acknowledges that they are a guilty sinner in the eyes of a holy God (Romans 3:19), and BELIEVES the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, they are immediately and permanently born-again. 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him."

Wanting to escape the fires of Hell forever is a perfectly acceptable motive to trust Christ as one's Savior. I'm so sick-and-tired of the [2]Lordship Salvation heresy that has infected thousands of churches today. The new corrupt Bible versions all teach "ANOTHER GOSPEL" by [3]redefining what it means to "REPENT." Please use only the King James Bible, which hasn't been corrupted. Satan knows that if he can replace the inspired Words of God with a substitute, then he can misled you and even take you to Hell with a false plan of salvation. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. Have you been born-again? Are you saved? Have you [4]believed the Gospel?

There are so many reasons to get saved. My friend, you will absolutely hate yourself for all eternity if you go to Hell. You will be miserable, lonely, tormented in flames of fire, inexplicably uncomfortable, without rest, without relief and without hope. IT WILL BE TOO LATE. You'll hate yourself even more when you look into Heaven, and see the saved enjoying the blessings, joy and presence of the dear Savior. Luke 13:28, "There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out."

Jesus could return right now!!! Are you ready to meet your Maker friend? Have you been born-again by the Holy Spirit of God? The heathen world has a hundred excuses not to get saved. If you're not saved, what's yours? I hear so many people praising atheist comedian, George Carlin, who was a gifted orator; yet Mr. Carlin is burning in Hell this moment, because he died in his sins without Jesus Christ. Do you want to join him? Do you really? Think about it, because life is short, Hell is hot, and eternity is a long time!!!

Perhaps you ask, "Why should I trust Jesus? Why not Allah? Why not Zoroaster? Why not Buddha? Why Jesus?" Acts 4:10-12, "Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole. This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." The inspired Word of God teaches that SALVATION IS FOUND ONLY IN THE NAME OF JESUS!!! The big question is: Do you believe that the words in the Bible are God's Holy Words? Most people who criticize the Bible have never truly read the Scriptures. They read a few verses or chapters with a bitter heart, a closed mind and a love for sin, looking for justification to validate their hatred of God, fundamental Christians and the Holy Bible.

The appearance of the Antichrist is drawing near, which means we are so close to the appearance of the Lord Jesus at the pretribulation Rapture. As a born-again Christian, I am looking forward to receiving a brand new healthy, perfect and immortal body, fashioned just like Jesus' body, at the Rapture. I'm looking forward to all the blessings of God. Romans 8:32, "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?"

I'm looking forward to Jesus protecting my feelings, and no one will ever ruin my day again. John 16:22, "And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you." I'm looking forward to Heaven, where there is no worry over thieves breaking through to steal, and the gates are left wide open all the time. Revelation 21:25, "And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there."

Oh, how I want to be with Jesus! If I took the time to go through the entire Bible, I am confident that I could find at least 1,000 reasons to get saved. The Scriptures teach that believers will one day reign with Christ. Revelation 20:6, "Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years." [5]The 'First Resurrection' Of Revelation 20:6 Consists Of Five Separate Resurrections . In sharp contrast, Christ-rejecters in Hell will suffer in torment and have nothing. There is no future in Hell, except death, pain and misery.

It is tragic that most people today scoff the reality of Hell, challenge the legitimacy of the Holy Bible, and downplay the need to be born-again. We are about to find out very soon who was right, and who was wrong. When the Lord returns, or this short earthly life ends, we will all learn THE TRUTH. I'm betting on the King James Bible being right! I'm taking the side of Jesus Christ! If you dare deny and reject the Holy Bible, knock yourself out; but I believe that the King James Bible is 100 % God's inerrant, infallible, perfect, inspired, incorruptible, holy and preserved Words!!! My complete hope and trust is in the precious name of Jesus Christ!!!

There are so many reasons to get saved. Anyone with a working brain ought to want to escape Hell. Certainly, being with Jesus is my greatest desire, the One Who died for me and set me from from the curses of sin, death and Hell. Praise the Lord, for He is good!!! I'm looking forward to eating with the Lord, feasting on Heaven's menu. It's going to be grand! I'm looking forward to my new body, fashioned like unto the Lord's body.

I'm looking forward to whatever work God has for me to do. I believe we will have jobs in Heaven, but they will be fun and enjoyable, things that we enjoy doing. I believe God gives everyone a special desire and ability to do a certain work (Philippines 2:13). I'd love to learn to be a food chef in Heaven, cooking for others, watching them enjoy a delicious meal. I'd also like to be a luthier making stringed musical instruments, and enjoy people making music on something that my hands crafted. That would be great. And I very much want to perform musical instruments (especially my pedal steel guitar) in Heaven along with other musicians. Romans 8:32, "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?" Yes, I believe the Lord will let me do these things, as He promised in Romans 8:32.

In Heaven, believers will be one big happy family. Yes, if you are saved, you have a Christian family here on earth and in Heaven. Ephesians 3:14-15, "For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named." This is what the local church is—your spiritual family in the Lord (if you are saved)! People who go to Hell will have no family. There's no party going on in Hell. That's only how idiots talk. [6]Nobody is laughing in Hell!!! (an excellent MP3 sermon by Evangelist Phil Kidd). [7]Tears In Heaven (MP3, Evangelist Phil Kidd; Life is short, hell is hot, and eternity is forever!). I have given you just a few reasons why you'll hate yourself forever if you go to Hell, but once you get to Hell (and I sincerely hope you don't let that happen to yourself), you'll think of thousands!

All you have to do to go to Hell is NOTHING!!! You are a sinner by nature and by choice, and so am I. You and I were born spiritually dead, inherited from Adam's sin (Romans 5:12; Ephesians 2:1-2). That's why we all must be born-again by the Holy Spirit of God (John 1:12-14; 1st Peter 1:23). No amount of good works, prayer, penance, reform, generosity or religious devotion can substitute for [8]God's imputed righteousness (Romans 4:5-6 - Note: All Scripture references are ONLY to the trustworthy KING JAMES BIBLE), which is obtained ONLY by faith in the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. There is no other way! That is why the heathen world hates and despises Christianity so much, that is, because we teach what the Bible teaches, that Jesus is the ONLY way to Heaven (John 14:6).

Or Perhaps You'd Like The Highway To Hell Instead

Friend, what are your hopes, dreams, desires, talents and ambitions? If they are decent, good, pure and holy, then God has promised to give us ALL THINGS in eternity. But if you die in your sins and go to Hell, the Bible says that you will be tormented day and night with the Devil, forever. Revelation 14:11, "And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name." This will be the fate of everyone who goes to Hell. If you are not born-again, then you are a child of the Devil, whether you realize it or not (John 8:44).

Perhaps you say, "I would never worship the Beast when he comes!" Oh really! Many people are [9]unknowingly worshipping the Beast (Antichrist) already, which is indirectly worshipping Satan. Satan will use any lie or scam to deceive you. The Bible says the Devil will be very successful at tricking the world. Revelation 12:9, "And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him."

NOTE: Carefully notice in the preceding Scripture that we learn how Satan and the demons came to be upon earth, that is, they (Lucifer and his loyal disobedient angels) were kicked out of Heaven and cast down to the earth. Since this event is not recorded in the Old Testament, and Satan was already present in the Garden of Eden with Adam and Eve, it is logical to conclude an old earth creation. That is, a pre-Adamic creation when dinosaurs roamed the earth. In the Genesis 6-day creation beginning in Genesis 1:2, God remolded the universe. For a compelling exegesis of Genesis 1, explaining the truth of an old earth, please read: [10]THE REMODELING .

If you live on planet earth, then you are familiar with AC/DC's massive hit, [11]HIGHWAY TO HELL from their 1979 album). The original singer, Bon Scott, drank himself to death with booze several months later, sadly discovering the horrifying REALITY OF HELL. Oh, please don't follow Bon Scott upon the Highway-To-Hell. My friend, life is short, Hell is hot, and eternity is a long time!!! Don't be a fool. Salvation is completely free, but you must receive it by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. You must receive Christ's sacrifice, believing that Jesus died on the cross for your sins, was buried, and bodily resurrected three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

In 1980, new AC/DC singer Brian Johnson and the group perfected their demonic song on their next album, Back In Black, recording the version most often heard today around the world. In fact, AC/DC's song HIGHWAY TO HELL has won awards for being one of the most played songs. [12][[13]1[14]] Tragically, this blasphemous song against God has unofficially become America's new national anthem, being performed millions of times a year around the country, from nightclubs and public concerts to the [15]2015 music Grammy Awards in Hollywood. The song has been featured in umpteen Hollywood movies. They are all on the fast-track to the Lake of Fire, and they don't really believe it. They don't believe that the Bible are God's holy, inspired, Words.

If you die right now in your sins without Jesus Christ, your eyes will open in Hell. You'll have to wait in fear for your court date, at The Great White Throne of Judgment. If you died today and Christ came back tomorrow morning at the Rapture, you'd have to wait at least 1,007 years for your court trial (i.e., the 7-year Tribulation plus the 1,000-year Millennium). At The Great White Throne of Judgment, you will be judged and sentenced to the Lake of Fire forever (Revelation 20:11-15). Is that what you want? You'll hate yourself forever if you choose that destructive route, knowing that you could have had eternal life, paradise and blessing all completely for free. The choice is yours alone to make. People who are burning in Hell now would give a million lifetimes of wealth, pleasure and fame if they could just have one more chance to get saved. If you are reading this, YOU HAVE ANOTHER CHANCE!

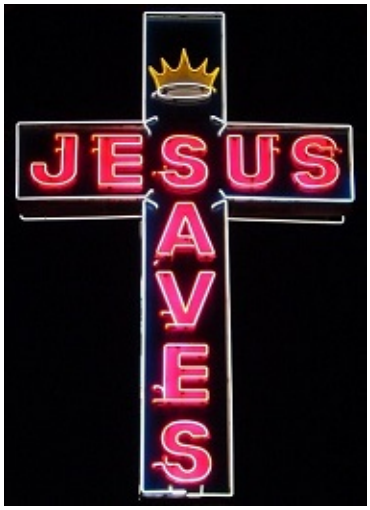
Hell will be filled with rich, powerful, influential and talented people. Most rich people reject Jesus Christ, because they are sinfully proud, blinded by their prestige, social class, wealth and influence. But God is no respecter of persons. 1st Peter 1:17, "And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear." We will soon find out who was right, and who was wrong. The end of the world as we know it is drawing closer each day. According to the dream given to king Nebuchadnezzar by God, [16]which is interpreted for us in the book of Daniel , we are now living in the End Times. Are you ready to meet your Maker?

You Still Have Time To Get Saved Before It's Too Late



It doesn't matter how wicked you may think you are, God is a forgiving God, Who loves to pardon iniquity. Micah 7:18, "Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy." The world is foolish, sinfully trying to enter into Heaven "some other way" (John 10:1)—through human effort (works), religion, sacraments, water baptism, devotion, morality, philosophy, reformation, the Virgin Mary and various other methods—which are all idolatry!

Most people laugh and scoff at my website ministry, because I preach the Word of God from the Holy Bible (i.e., the King James Bible). I'm not the one who is going to be sorry, you are, if who reject Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. I'm speaking to supporters of Lordship Salvation. You need to get saved. I'm speaking to Roman Catholics. You need to get saved. I'm speaking to Seventh-day Adventists. You need to get saved before it is too late. Satan has blinded the masses of this world (2nd Corinthians 4:4). Unless you get born-again, you will be cast into the Lake of Fire forever (John 3:3; 2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9; Revelation 21:8)!!! Religion is a sure road to Hell, fire and damnation. Have you truly been born-again?

Please don't miss out on all the blessings which God has prepared for those who "die in the Lord" (Revelation 14:13). Only born-again Christians die in the Lord, meaning that you are in Christ by faith. Ephesians 2:12-13, "That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ." The only one who can prevent you from going to Heaven is you, because God has given His solemn promise to save anyone who believes of the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God (Romans 10:13; John 3:16; Philippians 3:9).

If you die in your sins and unbelief, you'll regret (with the bitterest of tears) your stupidity for ever and ever. You'll spend the rest of eternity burning in the flames of Hell, being tormented night and day without rest, comfort or relief. There is no water in Hell. Please think about this, because it is reality. Once you pass into eternity, your fate is sealed, there is no going back. Once you die and go to Hell, you cannot come back for a second chance. Friend, you have that second chance right now, please don't blow it!

6.6.18 A Righteous Person Always Gives The Benefit Of The Doubt To The Accused (2025-06-18 09:37)

Proverbs 11:9a, "An hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour..."

There are many evil allegations today floating around on the internet, and in the churches, and in the Bible colleges, about preachers. The accusations are horrifying to say the least! However, I do not believe rumors, allegations or slander without proof to substantiate it. Much of the slander on the internet is mere hateful speculation. It is sinful to assume that a report is true without solid proof to back it up! It doesn't matter how circumstantial the evidence may be, that does not establish guilt of wrongdoing or a crime. We live in an ungodly culture of gossip and criticism in America, where people automatically believe what they hear without proof.

When someone is accused, I don't want to take sides or help spread the manure. The world loves to find reports of clergy sinning, to condemn and hurt the cause of Christ. Anyone can say anything about anyone, but that doesn't make it true! A righteous person always give an accused person the full benefit of the doubt until proven guilty of wrongdoing! An accused person ought never have to prove their innocence, which is utterly impossible.

The Devil's crowd fully understand that the best way to destroy a man, whether he be a politician or a minister, is to destroy his credibility. Once you destroy a man's credibility his message is also diminished. Satan has been using that M.O. (method of operation) since the beginning of time! Unfortunately, this is not that difficult to do. All you need is for anyone (and I mean literally anyone) to make an allegation, have a local newspaper print the allegation as an unsubstantiated fact, which then becomes a citable news source (as if it were a substantiated fact).

I mean, after all, if it's printed in a local newspaper it must carry some merit, right? WRONG! Don't be so naïve if you think that.

Pastor Jack Hyles was right when he said that the only thing you can believe from the newspaper is the date! Thomas Jefferson said that the man who reads nothing is more educated than the man who reads nothing but newspaper! Ain't it the truth!

I have been watching the program Forensic Files, which is fascinating. I am amazed how police detectives are able to use science to catch evildoers. It is truly amazing. DNA is nothing short of a God-send for catching criminals today, and I praise God for it! In one episode, a little girl was abducted and murdered. When police questioned the girl's mother for over 9 hours, she seemed unemotional, cold and lacking the kind of passion that you'd expect to see from a grieving mother. So the mother was a prime suspect in her daughter's murder. It turned out later that the mother was completely innocent, and police had made a wrong judgment.

I've watched over 100 episodes so far of the Forensic Files, and I have learned much about people on both sides of the law. In countless cases, police jumped to erroneous conclusions based upon circumstantial evidence, and were later proven wrong! It just goes to show that you must be very careful about judging people based upon what seems to be the truth. There are numerous pastors who have been accused in recent years of horrible crimes, without proof to substantiate those allegations. Until proven guilty in a court of law, I am not going to assume anything about anyone who has been accused. What if it were you being accused?

In literally a few dozen episodes of [1]Forensic Files (you can watch them for yourself and you'll see what I say is true), professional detectives (who do this for a living) thought they had "overwhelming evidence" of a suspect being guilty of a crime, just to be proven wrong later. Detectives were so confident that a particular young man was guilty that they repeated the DNA test, thinking that he was surely guilty, but he was proven to be 100 % innocent! My point is that it is dangerous, unethical, wrong and sinful to ASSUME guilt! You listen to me carefully—"overwhelming evidence" is not the fact of guilt! No one has a right to destroy somebody's life based upon "overwhelming evidence"! That is ungodly. If you have "overwhelming evidence," the accused has every God-given right to see it!

> "When someone does something wrong, make it a point to never forget all the things they did right." —Pastor Bob Gray Sr.

[2]You Can Still Do What You Always Could Do
(MP3, Dr. Jack Hyles; A pastor is a position, not a calling. You can forfeit a position, but never your calling to preach!)

Here are some very helpful words from one of my favorite preachers and mentors, Pastor Bob Gray Sr. ...

> Judging The Appearance Of Evil
>
> We are to abstain from the appearance of evil as Christians. However, if someone does not abstain from the appearance of evil, we are not to make a judgment on that appearance. We may warn if we are the authority, but we must not judge. We are never to judge according to the appearance. John 7:24, "Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment."
>
> We are to judge according to the facts. Never convict people because it appears that they have done something wrong. This is what causes much of the trouble in churches.
>
> May I introduce you to the word "mercy," which in Scripture always comes before the word "truth." Mercy is "not judging without truth." Truth is what you judge. Justice is when you, if the authority, punish for what you KNOW has been done not what you suspect has been done. Mercy never judges by appearance. Proverbs 20:28, "Mercy and truth preserve the king and his throne is upholden by mercy."
>
> Let me give you five statements that relate to this truth.
> 1. We must have righteous judgment.
> 2. None is righteous, as we read in Romans 3:10, "As it is written, there is none righteous, no not one."

3. So we cannot judge the inside. I Samuel 16:7 says that God looks on the heart. Man cannot look upon the heart, so man cannot judge the heart. That means that man cannot judge motives. It is time for us too quit judging people's motives.
4. God is the final judge.
5. We can judge only what we KNOW, and that is not the inside or the unknown.

SOURCE: Dr. Bob Gray Sr., " [3]Judging The Appearance of Evil "

Amen! We are living in a generation of sinful critics, who unjustly usurp the roles of judge, jury and executioner! As Brother Gray rightly said, "mercy is not judging without truth." Mercy is withholding judgment in the absence of truth. If we don't know the truth, we ought keep our mouths shut and not judge anyone! I have read horrible accusations online against faithful men of God, based merely upon speculation and unfounded rumors. That is very sinful to do! The allegations may in fact be true, but we don't know, do we?

Admittedly in some cases, where allegations have been made against a certain preacher, I tend to think the accusations are true; but since I don't KNOW FOR SURE, I am commanded by God in the Scripture to assume the person's innocence. What saith the Scripture? Deuteronomy 19:15, "One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established." In the Bible one person was not allowed to accuse another person, to protect the innocent. Think about what would happen if just one person could accuse anyone of anything, and the authorities punished the accused accordingly? Sadly, this is where America is at today.

Jesus Was Falsely Accused And Assumed Guilty

The ungodly Pharisees hated the Lord and conspired against Him. They were continually looking for ways to trap Him, to accuse Him, but could not find anything to do so. So ultimately the Pharisees falsely accused our innocent Savior, having Him crucified on a cross...

Luke 6:7, "And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him."

John 18:29-30, "Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man? They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee."

As we just read, the Pharisees couldn't give Pilate a legitimate reason to want Jesus killed, so they made excuses and remained vague in their words. Pilate interrogated the Lord and found no fault in Him, declaring Him innocent for the sake of conscience...

John 19:4, “Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him.”

The Pharisees persisted to falsely accuse the Lord. There was no law of which they spoke, that condemned the Messiah to die. There were laws against idolatry, but Jesus was telling the truth as the Son of God. ...

> John 19:7-8, “The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid.”

So the ungodly Pharisees stooped low and falsely accused the Lord of political sedition, as being a threat to Caesar their emperor...

> John 19:12, “And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar’s friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar.”

And so their evil false accusations succeeded, and the innocent Savior was crucified for a guilty human race. The Lamb of God was slain for the sins of the whole world, and the sins of those wicked Pharisees who lied about Him.

I am not defending anyone who sins or commits a crime, God forbid. There have been many accusations of “cover-ups” in Baptist churches today. May I truthfully say:

- Fundamentalism has a problem with cover-ups
- Catholicism has a problem with cover-ups
- Evangelicalism has a problem with cover-ups
- Politics has a problem with cover-ups
- Hollywood has a problem with cover-ups
- Business world has a problem with cover-ups
- News media has a problem with cover-ups
- Professional Athletics has a problem with cover-ups
- Higher Education has a problem with cover-ups
- Medical profession has a problem with cover-ups

Wouldn’t it just be easier to say, depraved mankind has a problem with cover-ups?

I did not write this article to defend the guilty, but to teach you dear reader the Biblical truth that we ought never ASSUME guilt for any reason, until the FACT OF GUILT has been established by the proper authority. And then, unless it is our place of jurisdiction to do something about it, we ought not condemn that person, lest we invoke the wrath of God against our self, for we are all woeful sinners. We are not the jury. We are not the judge. We are not the executioner. We are vulnerable, susceptible, guilty sinners just like the fallen. 1st Timothy 5:24, “Some men’s sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.”

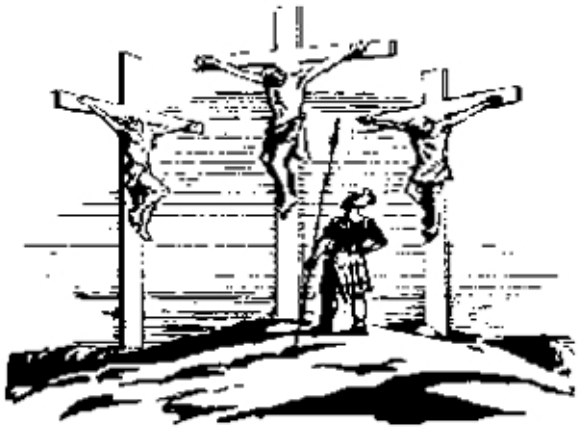
> Matthew 7:1-3, “Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother’s eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?”

Don’t judge others because they sin differently than you do! And may I say, I really hate the Fighting Fundamental Forum website, I would not want to be that ungodly website owner when I stand before God, for hosting a cesspool of iniquity—a sewer hole of hate-mongers and unjust critics, an online tavern of hatred, a casino of slander, and a whorehouse of condemnation! Shame on any idle pastor who posts gossip, wastes his time, and hangs out in that hellhole!

Revelation 12:10 calls Satan “the accuser of the brethren.” Slandering others, assuming guilt, being unjustly critical, gossiping with good intentions, and spreading hurtful rumors—are all part of the carnal flesh, which is at enmity against the Lord’s Holy Spirit. Carnal people love to instigate. They love to get that hot information to someone to upset them, to cause fireworks between people, and ruin friendships, to create distrust and resentment and hatred of others. They use the foolish reasoning, “This person has a right to know,” when i reality they truly don’t need to know anything.

One of my favorite preachers, Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988), tells an intriguing story in his commentary on the book of Zephaniah. The MP3 is titled:

[4]Zephaniah: The Dark Side Of God’s Love —a story that at first seems surely dark, creepy and horrifying, which turns out to be a wonderful story of love. I think this is an excellent illustration of how oftentimes we can prematurely draw the wrong conclusions, and make faulty assumptions, simply because of our human frailties and lack of omniscience (as possesses our great God). Therefore, the only safe rule to live by is to always give the benefit of the doubt to others, especially when accused of a sin or crime. Let him that hath ears to hear, hear. (By the way,



[5]here is a webpage I made for the book of Zephaniah, featuring the audio commentary of Pastor J. Vernon McGee.)

What saith the Scripture? ...

Ephesians 4:30-32, “And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake hath forgiven you.”

6.6.19 Saving Faith Does Not Work (2025-06-18 10:16)

Romans 4:4-7, “Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.”

I heard a helpful sermon today by Pastor Steven Anderson, titled “ [1]Matthew 12 .

I encourage you to listen to Brother Anderson’s Bible preaching. We need more Bible preachers who tell it like it is. The great need of the hour is PREACHING PREACHERS!!! I love truth-telling preachers! In the following sermon excerpt

Pastor Anderson emphasizes the Bible truth that salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone WITHOUT WORKS. ...

[2]Faith Does Not Work

(an excerpt from Matthew 12, by Pastor Steven Anderson)

Out text passage from Romans 4:4-7 is very clear that salvation is WITHOUT WORKS. That includes works before, during and after being saved. The manmade idea that you must first be willing to turn from your sins, repent of your sins, or be sorry for your sins, to be saved is foreign to the inspired King James Bible. Please don't be deceived dear reader!

Anybody who tells you that there must be some results and evidence that you are saved is lying to you. Salvation is WITHOUT WORKS!!!

In the same sermon from Matthew 12, Pastor Anderson emphasizes the truth that [3]we are saved by BELIEVING, not by praying. Some New IFB pastors are wickedly teaching that you cannot be saved unless you call, ask or pray to be saved, which is heresy!!! You DON'T have to call, ask or pray to be saved, the Bible says you simply need to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31).

Jesus told the Samaritan woman in John 4:10, "

Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

" But carefully notice in the verses to follow that no one actually

Jesus to save them, they simply BELIEVED.

> John 4:39-42, "And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did. So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days. And many more believed because of his own word; And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world."

The Samaritans simply believed and were saved. There is no record of anyone, not even the Samaritan woman herself, asking Jesus to be saved. They were all saved simply because they BELIEVED on the only begotten Son of God, the Christ. What saith the Scripture? John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." BELIEVE! BELIEVE! BELIEVE!

I fully agree with my ministry friend, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, who said:

> "Salvation is one thing and service is another, and never the two goes together. No man is saved because he serves, and no man has to serve because he is saved. Gotta keep them separate. And if you don't do it, the Scriptures will be confusing to you. You'll not rightly divide what God has to say." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, [4]"Why Lordship Salvation Is Wrong"

> "Lordship Salvation is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the performance of good works, the promise of good works, or the evidence of good works, must accompany faith in Christ to establish or provide evidence that such faith has resulted in eternal life." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, [5]"Jesus Versus John MacArthur"

Yes, Bravo! Amen and amen! Salvation is WITHOUT WORKS!!!

Tragically, the major Bible colleges today have deteriorated into religious CULTS. I am talking about the [6]dangerous cult at Pensacola Christian College in Pensacola, Florida. I am talking about the [7]dangerous cult at Bob Jones University located in Greenville, South Carolina. Woe unto these demonic institutions that pervert God's simple plan of salvation, producing the next ungodly generation of theologically incompetent, unloving and impotent pastors.

Then there are dangerous religious cults like the Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa, where incompetent fools like vice president Marty Herron (former incompetent senior pastor at the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam) preach the Devil's "

Repent of your sins

Lordship Salvation heresy, but they won't be honest to tell you that in their Statement of Faith. Like 99 % of other cults, they hide what they really believe behind a generic Statement of Faith intended to deceive new students. Marty Herron is a hardcore follower of infidel John MacArthur, a hellbound 5-point Calvinist devil. Dear reader, RUN away from anyone who tries to convince you that faith must produce works to be genuine.

One such [8]infidel is Pastor Chuck Phelps at the Colonial Hills Baptist Church in Indianapolis, Indiana. Marty Herron is close friends with Chuck Phelps and has preached at his church cult, which is located a couple hundred miles away from the apostate college where he ruins young people's lives in Ankeny, Iowa. I am not trying to be unkind, I am exposing FALSE PROPHETS as the inspired Holy Bible commands believers to do (Titus 1:10-14). Titus 1:13-14, "

This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

" Lordship Salvation is a lie of the Devil that turns people away from THE TRUTH of a free grace Gospel taught in God's Word.

Dr. Mark G. Cambron Gets Repentance 100 % Correct

Here is an excellent and needful writing by [9]Dr. Mark G. Cambron (1911-2000) on the subject of REPENTANCE. Please read the following quote carefully, because Dr. Cambron is one of few theologian who gets it, that is, he understands the simplicity of the Gospel and that repentance does not mean turning from sin as proponents of Lordship Salvation foolishly teach.

Here is what the Bible teaches, as explained by Dr. Cambron...

Repentance is necessary for salvation.

The Greek word for repent is metanoeo, which, translated into English is: to change ones mind. It does not mean to turn from sin. That would add works to salvation.

Repentance for salvation means a change of mind from men's ideas of salvation and religion, to an acceptance of Gods only way of salvation.

This results in a completely new creation, not a reformation of the old. The old nature remains as evil as ever after salvation and has not been reformed . . . The old nature can now be controlled by the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit.

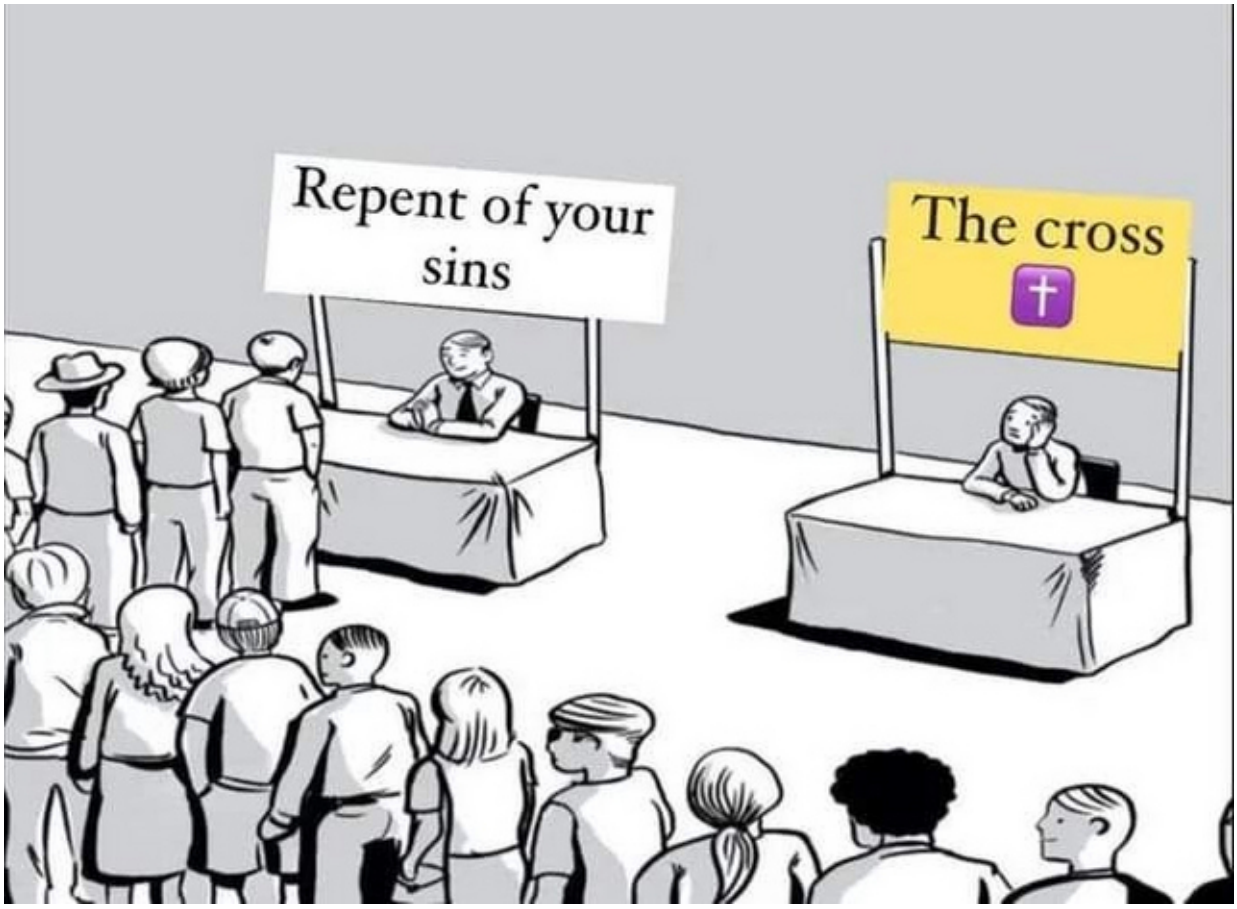
God guarantees salvation. This is His gift to us.
God guarantees reward and fruit to the obedient son.
God guarantees chastening and loss of rewards to the disobedient son.

God does not cast out disobedient children, but in some cases, does take them home. He does not permit His children to live as they please without His discipline and guidance.

Many teach repentance for salvation incorrectly, by including some form of human effort or righteousness, such as willingness to turn from sin, or turning from sin. This is heresy and has confused many people. It adds works to salvation and causes many to not understand Gods great gift. It is probation, not salvation. It is completely unscriptural. It is Galatianism and a counterfeit of the gospel.

It is a tragedy that many Christians live shallow Christian lives. The Cambron Institute is dedicated to the task of training Christian men and women in the importance of total dedication and making Jesus the Lord of their lives not to be saved but because they are saved.

Shallow Christianity cannot be cured by adding works to salvation.



Salvation is not the result of what we do, but is by receiving what God has done for us. Acts 13:38, 39; Acts 20:20: Gal. 1:8,9; Gal. 2:4; Gal. 2:21; Gal. 3:1.3; Gal. 5:1-4; Eph. 2:8-10; II Cor. 5:21;John 3:16-18; Phil. 3:9; Titus 3:5-8:11 Cor. 11:13-1 5.

Boy, that sure is great Bible teaching!

Saving faith does not work. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. You contribute nothing to your salvation but the sin that made it necessary.

I am tired of corrupt pastors trampling upon the Gospel, adding unbiblical requirements that God doesn't require to get to Heaven. Whereas God only requires faith in His only begotten Son to be saved (John 20:31), wicked pastors will tell you to turn from your sinful ways, be willing to forsake the world, invite Christ into your life, become a Christ follower, ask Jesus into your heart, pray a prayer, et cetera. None of that stuff is required to be saved!

6.6.20 Beware Of The Evils Of New Evangelicalism! (2025-06-19 09:35)

2nd Timothy 3:5, “Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.”

I found this post on Facebook this week by a fellow Independent Fundamental Baptist and thought it worthy to share...

⚠️ WARNING: A POTENTIALLY “UNPOPULAR” POST ⚠️

We are witnessing a pandemic of repackaged New Evangelicalism rising up within Christian fundamentalism—especially in the area of music over the past few years. [illegible]?

My wife and I are stunned at the direction some of our fellow fundamentalists have taken. It’s grieving and burdening. Anyone who truly knows us understands that I do not say this with some lofty spirit of condemnation. It is from a broken heart.

Why are fundamentalists embracing pop music, the heavy rhythms, and open rock-n-roll with Christian lyrics? Why are they dancing around dimly lit auditoriums like charismatics and losing their sensible inhibitions to “worship”? Why is there an absolute abandonment of separation and Biblical conviction? It is not praise. It is not purity. It is paganism. IT IS WRONG. “[illegible]” (I John 2:15. See also I Chronicles 5:25 & Psalm 106:35 & 39.)

THERE IS NOTHING “ANOINTED” OR “ADMIRABLE” IN EMULATING THE WORLD! If you believe there is, you have been deceived with strange fire. It is shameful and egregious to our Holy God.

May God give our generation of fundamentalists true Biblical [illegible] — [illegible] (Hebrews 5:12-15).

From the host of voices of those who saw its rise in the late 1960s into the 1970s and beyond, [illegible] born out of a compromised generation wanting to blend rock-n-roll with Christian lyrics.

This kind of music is NOT the direction of fundamentalism. It never has been and never should be. And we will not start accepting it or excusing it away now. Rock music can be hard or soft, fast or slow, loud or quiet, but it doesn’t change the fact that it’s still rock music. We should want NO PART of the Devil’s music of rebellion blended into our holy worship!

> John 4:24 — “ [illegible].” That little word “must” is still in the Bible!
> Psalm 29:2 — “[illegible].”

Worship is not about us, it’s about the Lord. Let’s worship HIM how HE wants to be worshipped — not how WE want to worship Him and make Him accept it because it’s what WE want or like… “[illegible]” (Amos 5:23-24). [illegible]!

God is under no obligation to accept our worship no matter how special it might mean to us in the moment or sincere we are as we offer it. (Consider Cain!) Just because “that’s how you worship” doesn’t make it right. Just because “that’s how you worship” doesn’t mean God automatically approves it or accepts it. Just because “that’s how you worship” doesn’t make it off-limits to public accountability (as you flaunt your new-found “liberty” on livestream for everyone to see you “evolving”).

What I’m concerned about even more is the men and ministries who will pander this compromise by turning a blind eye to it. (Maybe some are winking at it behind our backs?) I’m alarmed at how openly they cheerfully pat those who are compromising on the back (or link arms together with no apparent issue with the secular direction their “friends” are going!)

□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□□.

With an open heart before God — is this (“repackaged New Evangelicalism”, worldly “Christian” rock-n-roll music, a lack of Biblical separation, and more) the direction you want to promote and point the next generation to? Are you okay with it?

□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□□□□□□□ □□□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□□□ □□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□ □ □□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□. Are these fundamentalists the same men they used to be 10-15 years ago? Are they starting to show their colors more and more of who they really are and what they truly believe? You MUST ask yourself if you are going that direction.
BE CAREFUL, MY FRIEND:

> First comes □□□□□□□□□□.
> Then □□□□□□□□□□□.
> Then □□□□□□□□□□□□□.

I Corinthians 15:33 — “□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□: □□□□ □□□□□□□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□.”

> Having said all this, I am immensely thankful for the host of men and churches across this nation who refuse to bow their knee to Baal. I praise God for you! STAY IN THE FIGHT! May the Lord continue to greatly bless your faithfulness to Him and your fire for Heaven’s holiness! Keep standing. Don’t compromise. □□ □□ □□□□□□!!

6.6.21 Damned If You Do, Damned If You Don’t (2025-06-20 11:15)

Matthew 11:16-19, “But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented. For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil. The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her children.”

Jesus said that people are like children (and they sure are). It doesn't matter what you do, people will still find fault to criticize you!

No matter what you do, they will criticize you for something. This is the way of the wicked world (1st John 5:19). Jesus warned believers that if we belong to Christ the world will hate us.

John 15:19, "If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you."

The world hates Christians because they really hate Jesus. John 7:7,

"The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil."

In our text passage of inspired Scripture, Jesus points out that John the Baptist lived a reclusive life in the Wilderness and refused to attend banquets, weddings and social gatherings. So, wicked people wrongly accused John of having a devil. Yet, Jesus did attend wedding feasts and banquets, and the same wicked people called him a glutton and a drunk. This is so typical of people. What Jesus said about the people of His town 2,000 years ago could likewise be said about many Americans today. People can be so rotten!

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was right that there's a difference between someone merely having a bad day who says something critical, versus someone who is in a state of being critical all the time. I don't know about you, but I avoid critical people. I am a happy person (despite my constant neck pain and miseries) in Christ, and I try to avoid negative people in my personal life. There's enough negativity already present in society without adding to it. To some people, the glass is always half empty instead of half full. To be honest, I don't hang around friends. I am a loner and I like it that way. I am a private person and reclusive by nature.

I admit that there were painful years of my life that were worse than death, and I just wanted to die (2nd Corinthians 1:8). I was discouraged and when I went to visit local churches on Guam, I was driven away and horribly mistreated by wicked uncaring pastors. I speak of the self-righteous Agana Heights Baptist Church, and the wicked Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. When I moved to Pensacola in 2021, I was shunned and banned from attending Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). Their wicked pastors threw me under the bus for trying to help them, when I showed them that [1]their preaching of Lordship Salvation at PCC is unbiblical. God will be their Judge!

I know the pain of seeing people walk away from me, afraid to even talk to me because of malicious slander they heard about me from an ungodly person. David in the Old Testament knew that horrible lonely feeling. Psalms 31:11, "I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without fled from me." I know that awful feeling of rejection, seeing acquaintances avoid me because of disparaging gossip they had heard about me. Remember, the Devil is "the accuser of the brethren" (Revelation 12:10b). When you accuse, condemn and criticize someone else, you are filling the role of Satan!

I learned a very long time ago, that God's opinion is the only one I need to be concerned about. I do care what other people think, but only how it reflects on my relationship with God.

For example: I want to be honest in all my dealings with others because I want God to be glorified by my life as a Christian. I care what God thinks. I don't care what other people think about me, nor do I regard what they have to say that is critical. I only care about making sure that I glorify God in my spirit, soul and body, which belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

1st Corinthians 3:23, "And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's." That is a beautiful truth!

1st Corinthians 6:20,

"For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. " That is the precious blood of Jesus (1st Peter 1:18-19).

price

In this world, we are damned if we do and damned if we don't, as far as the heathen world is concerned. When you are a Christian, the whole world is waiting for you to fall. Remember that! Thankfully, God's opinion of us is all that matters. This is why David could pray in Psalms 51:4, "Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest." Dear reader, if you have been born again through faith alone in the Lamb of God, Jesus, then your sins have been separated from you as far as the east is from the west the Bible says. Psalms 103:12, "As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us." You see friend, you can only travel so far north until you'll be headed south (and vice versa). But you can travel east forever and never be going west again (and vice versa). East and west never meet! Likewise, once saved always saved!!!

Jesus Himself acknowledged the childishness of many adults, who will find fault in us as His sheep no matter what we do or don't do, and no matter what we say or don't say, et cetera. So, let us focus on only pleasing our heavenly Father. It's not what others say about you that matters; but rather, what God knows about you. Revelation 4:11, "

Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

" Jesus created all things. That is, Jesus made the universe and all therein and beyond. We were all created to please God, not man.

Yet, how often do we see people living to try to make others happy, to no avail. Dear reader, you cannot make people happy! The same people who praise you today may crucify you tomorrow! When Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey, the people cried out:

"Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord." But just one week later we hear the people crying out: "Crucify Him! Crucify Him! His blood be upon us and our children!" Matthew 11:16a, "But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets..."

You'll never win by trying to impress, please and satisfy people. That is why our goal in life ought to be to please God alone. When people unjustly slander and criticize me as a Bible preacher, and tear down the fundamentalist preachers that I love,

I leave it in the Lord's hands for judgment.

For example: I recently in April of 2025 had an unpleasant interaction with a younger foolish new-evangelical Baptist pastor in Pensacola, who wrongly accused Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) of having a sexually filthy mind. No, that young pastor is an idiot! You see, the truth is that the young pastor's wife wears sexy tight pants in public, so he is a low-standards hen-pecked husband who wickedly defends women wearing pants in public. Dr. Hyles was a godly HIGH STANDARDS preacher, which is why so many worldly pastors despise him! That young pastor is a darn fool and not worthy to shine Brother Hyles' shoes! It is a sin for any Christian woman to wear sexy tight pants (or any type of immodest clothing) in public.

Thank you for reading my ministry blog. To God alone be all the praise, credit and glory (John 15:1-5).

6.6.22 Avoid The New Evangelical "Family Baptist Church" In Pensacola (2025-06-22 11:55)

Titus 1:13-14, "This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth."

I attended the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola from one week before their revival in October of 2021, until June 22, 2025, on which Sunday when we arrived me and my wife (me and my former got remarried on May 2nd, 2025) were horribly told that we are no longer welcomed at their church. The issue is that I am a fundamentalist Baptist preacher, and Pastor Brad Moffett and his rude insulting father are both shameful new evangelical pastors, and they sinfully despise my fundamentalist Bible preaching. I humbly know that God is on my side, because I am telling THE TRUTH!

The people of the church grew on me over time, since 2021, and I still love them and will miss them. I love the pastor and his family too with Christ's love. I had never spoken one word of criticism against the pastor, his family, nor any member of their church while attending. I was a complete gentleman. The problems only started after April 30th, 2025, when Pastor Brad censured my website ministry, and he slandered Pastor Jack Hyles in his office. That was not wise! [1]You can read the full details here if you'd like.

However, that has all unfortunately changed due to the pastor's wife. I am an ordained Gospel preacher. By God's grace, I have faithfully built a website ministry since 2002. Due to my ministry's biblical stand on social media against women wearing pants in public, the pastor's wife (in my humble opinion) became perturbed at me and compelled her henpecked husband to kick me and my wife Alice out of their church. The pastor's wife recently wore tight pants to their Memorial Day church picnic, which me and my wife also attended. We didn't say one word to her about her pants, and we were friendly toward her, as we are toward everyone. It is not our place to condemn anyone. What the pastor's wife wears is not our concern. God is the only Judge (James 4:12).

Albeit, the pastor's wife came up a few feet in front of us and said to a young girl, "I like your shorts!," and then the pastor's wife walked away. Now, to be fair, we don't know her heart, but me and Alice both saw and heard what she said, and we believe it was deliberate to taunt me as a fundamentalist preacher. Only God and the pastor's wife know the truth, so we must leave the matter in the Lord's hands. The Pastor's wife fully knows who I am as a fundamentalist Bible preacher, and she fully knows my firm biblical stand against women wearing pants.

We sincerely feel it was disrespectful of her to make such a remark, having no regard for our fundamentalist Christian beliefs. My wife was wearing a full-length dress at the picnic, which is all she wears everywhere she goes. Regardless of the pastor's wife's intentions, it was horrible for the pastor's wife to encourage a young girl to wear immodest clothing. Every pastor's wife should be an example to the other women and girls in the church. By example she should set the highest standards of morality and modesty. Wearing a pair of pants is not modesty.

It is our humble opinion that they promote a false pretense of "love" in their church. They often talk about how much love they have in their church, but their actions speak much louder than their words. They kicked us out of their church without any warning. We drove into the parking lot, ready to sing and worship the Lord as we always do, but were instead met by the pastor's annoying rude father, who cold heartedly told us we were no longer welcome at Family Baptist Church. They didn't follow Matthew 18:15-17, they just kicked us out. Real great people, huh?

In our humble opinion they're running the church into the ground, one wounded person at a time. We have a right to our own opinion. We think it is shameful how church leadership has handled this whole matter.

Pastor Brad does not expose the Devil's modern corrupt Bibles. He wickedly promotes infidel Ken Ham's Answers-In-Genesis (who [2]teach the damnable Lordship Salvation heresy). Nor does Pastor Brad preach against sin. The church doesn't regularly go door to door soulwinning and has no scheduled time to witness (I've never seen any). I have heard Pastor Brad promote John Calvin, John Piper and Franklin Graham in his sermons—all unsaved Lordship Salvation false prophets!

The pastors falsely teach that to get to Heaven you must, "Repent of your sins," which is nowhere taught in the inspired King James Bible. The Bible simply says to "believe on the Lord Jesus Christ" (John 20:31; Acts 16:30-31). Bible repentance for salvation is a change of mind, not a change of behavior. The only sin that can prevent you from going to Heaven in unbelief, so that is the only sin you need to change your mind about to be saved.

When we met with Pastor Brad in his office on April 30th, he wickedly slandered Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), falsely accusing him of having a carnal mind, because in a sermon Dr. Hyles made the accurate statement: “I don’t have a dirty mind, I have a man’s mind.” Brother Hyles was absolutely right! You females have no idea what goes on in a man’s mind, when you wear pants that reveal the shape of your thighs and buttocks to him. Pastor Brad denies that men are wired differently than women in the way we think about sex, and he said that he’s not tempted to lust when he sees a woman wearing pants. Well, if that be true, then he is an abnormal man!

We need a revival of modesty in our churches today in America! The attire of the heathen world has no place in a local church. In the 19th century in the United States, you couldn’t find a woman wearing a pair of pants in public. Just because our ungodly culture has deteriorated in its moral values doesn’t mean that God has followed them. I think it is shameful for any professed Christian woman to wear pants, halter tops, bikinis, Spandex or other immodest clothing in public.

In my humble opinion, Pastor Brad and his family are serving God their own way instead of the Lord’s way, hindering the work of Jesus Christ.

We’ll see how God feels about pastor’s wives who wear pants at the Judgment Seat of Christ. I know that the dear Lord is proud of me for taking an uncompromising stand against immodesty. No topic has caused more anger against this fundamentalist Bible preacher, than my Bible preaching against women wearing pants. 1st Timothy 2:9 is the only passage of Scripture that I need to validate my preaching with the Holy Bible. My Bible preaching will be vindicated when we all answer to God in eternity. Shame on Pastor Brad and his wife, and his rude insulting father. God will not be mocked (Galatians 6:7).

RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

RIGHT MORALS MATTER!

THE WAY YOU TREAT PEOPLE MATTERS!

I am so sick and tired of being mistreated, shunned, slandered, hated, despised, scolded, ostracized and kicked out of ungodly corrupt churches by wicked pastors, for TELLING THE TRUTH!!!

I have kept my mouth shut all these years, because I don’t believe in causing trouble in the church that I attend, but now that they have kicked us out, I am SPEAKING UP!!! The Devil wants us to SHUT UP, but God wants us to SPEAK UP! I have something to say!!!

6.6.23 The Ungodly Family Baptist Church In Pensacola (2025-06-23 17:15)

Jeremiah 10:21, “For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.”

Jeremiah 12:10, “Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.”

The Bible curses Pastor Brad Moffett and his wicked father Bobby Moffett for preaching another Gospel. What saith the Scripture? ...

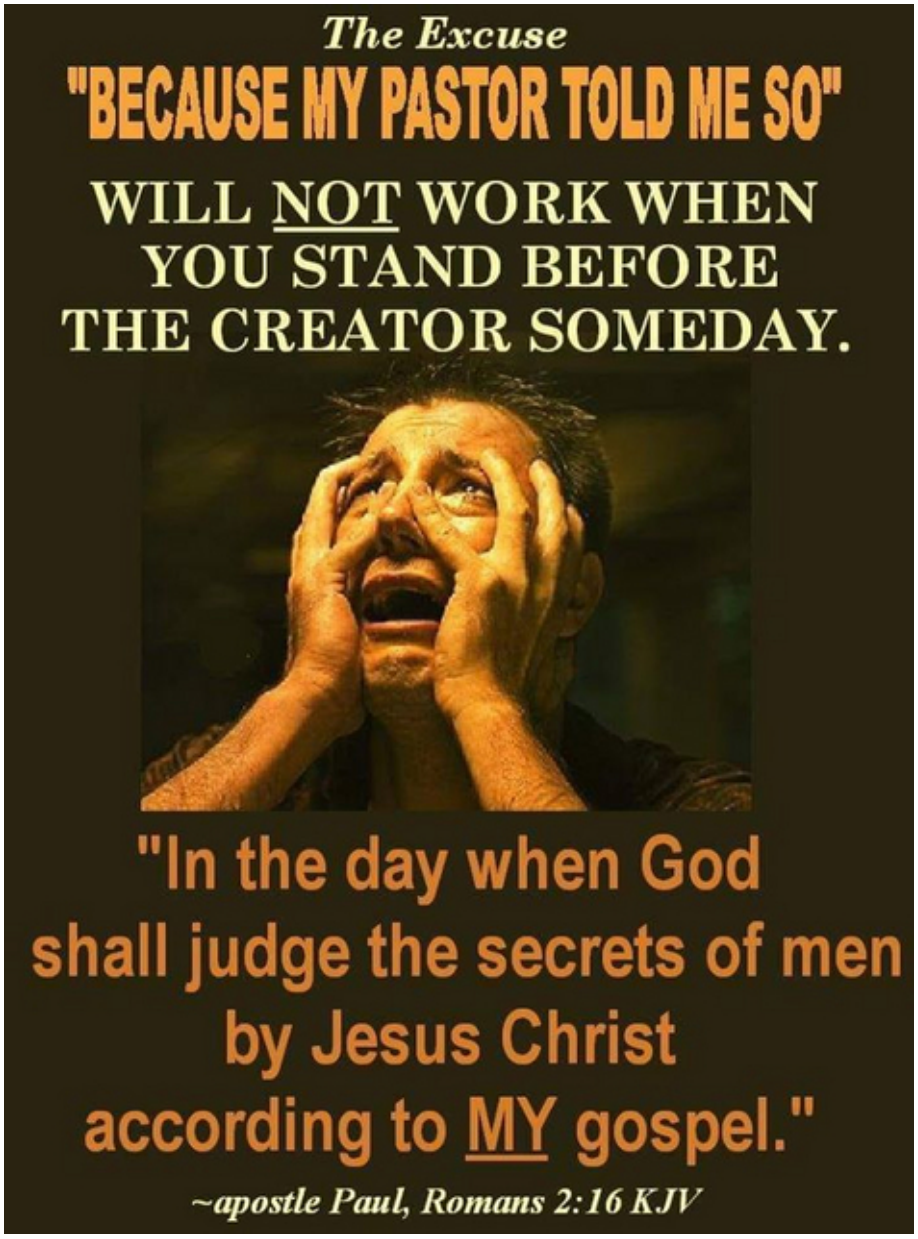
> Galatians 1:6-9, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.”

In their official Statement of Faith, the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola requires that to get to Heaven, you must: “Repent of your sins.” Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible will you find those words, nor anything similar. Turning from your sinful ways (or being willing to turn away from sinning) is simply not part of the Gospel of free grace!!!

You won’t shut me up!

> “Salvation can only be evidenced by works, if works are required to be saved.” — Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, “[1]Why Lordship Salvation Is Wrong!”

Me and Alice (my wife) were kicked out of Family Baptist Church in Pensacola yesterday on June 22, 2025. Someone read my comments on Facebook earlier in the week, in which without mentioning the pastor’s name or church, I justly called him an idiot for slandering Pastor Jack Hyles. It had been eating at my soul since April 30th when Pastor Brad Moffett slandered Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), falsely accusing him of being sexually immoral in his teachings and mind. Brad’s wicked words really hurt my feelings. So, it came out in my Facebook comments. You know how people love to get criticism back to others to ruin relationships. The father (Bobby Moffett) was abusive in his words yesterday, saying that he knew all the dirt on Jack Hyles. It made us sick! Those two are complete incompetent fools and have no business running any church.



When we drove into the church parking lot yesterday, the pastor’s father told us we were not welcome at their church anymore. When I asked him why, he wouldn’t answer. I asked him if it was over my comments on Facebook and he smirked with a Smart Ass look as if to say, "Gotcha." I asked what was wrong with him. I was half way out of my car already, so I told him off. I yelled, "Shame on you" multiple times. Several church members heard us arguing. I told him he had no right to scold me for preaching the truth that women shouldn’t wear pants. I said that he was only angry at me because his wife, and his son’s wife, wear pants. The he angrily threatened to call the police, so we calmly left. God will have to deal with them, because as my wife rightly said, they are stiffnecked.

I made a decision that I should have made a long time ago. That is, I will NEVER attend any church again that is wrong on repentance. In their Statement of Faith, Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, says to be saved you must "Repent of your sins." Knowing that has eaten away at my soul since 2021 when I started attending this church. They are really a cult. I am glad that pastor Brad performed our wedding and regret that this happened, but when he slandered Brother Hyles he crossed a line, taking things way too far in his office. All because his slut for a wife is defying God by insisting on wearing her tight sexy pants in public. They drew first blood!

Anyway, I feel relieved that it's over. The tension is gone. I was torn between my love for the pastor and people of the church, and my love for sound doctrine and the Lord. I just wanted a church family where I could fit in quietly and be a blessing, but there can be no harmony between fundamentalists and new evangelicals. I cried when I got home yesterday, telling my wife that I just lost my church family of 3 1/2 years. It breaks my heart. But I knew when I criticized the pastor on Facebook, without mentioning his name or the church, that this could happen. I think deep in my soul I did want it to happen, to get the hell out of the accursed cult. The pastor promotes Ken Ham, who preaches Lordship Salvation. PCC invited and honored Ken Ham also. It is disgusting.

Anyway, this has been very difficult for me. Losing one's church family is very painful. I was really looking forward to their revival in September. I gave Mary, a 95 year old lady in the church, $95 for her 95th birthday. I was so much looking forward to giving her $96 on October 4th for her 96th birthday. I will miss Ron's loving hugs, an elderly man with two failed kidneys. I will miss my dear blind friend, Miss Lucretia. I will miss my many friends. In one swift decision, Pastor Brad and his wicked abusive father took away dozens of church friends that I loved, forever gone. That is so evil. Woe unto those wicked pastors on Judgment Day!

Proverbs 20:6, "Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?"

We've all heard proud pastors bragging about themselves. But the inspired Word of God challenges such claims, asking: Who is genuinely FAITHFUL? The Hebrew word for "faithful" here is emun, which refers to a trustworthy man. Many pastors will boast of their own ministry accomplishments, but they have dishonestly handled the Word of God, preaching a counterfeit plan of salvation. Others utterly fail to love people with God's unconditional love. No pastor is faithful who preaches any another gospel than a free grace Gospel (Galatians 1:6-7).

Since I moved from the island of Guam to Pensacola in 2021, I have visited and attended several local churches. What I have seen and heard is disturbing! Sadly, all of the churches I have visited are wrong on Bible repentance for salvation. Case in point is the ungodly Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, whose official Statement of Faith requires lost sinners to "

Repent of your sins

to get to Heaven. Nowhere does the inspired King James Bible teach to repent of your sins to be saved. Wicked religious men have added those words to the Holy Bible! Proverbs 30:5-6,

“Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.”

Woe be unto pastors’ Brad Moffett and his wicked father Bobby Moffett, who have polluted God’s simple plan of salvation by adding the additional requirement to “

Repent of your sins

” to the Gospel, poisoning the minds of the members of Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

Those ungodly pastors do not care because they don’t truly love people. They are not faithful men! Proverbs 20:6, “Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?”

Interestingly, the word

truth

is translated from the same Hebrew word emun in

Isaiah 26:2-3, “

Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the truth may enter in.

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.

” A faithful man TELLS THE TRUTH! A faithful preacher TELLS THE TRUTH!

Proverbs 12:17, “

He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.

” I am speaking THE TRUTH, which is why God is on my side. No one who teaches that you must turn from sinning to be saved is faithful to God.

Jonah 3:10, "And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not."

Turning from one's sins is a WORK! Beware of any preacher who tells you to "

repent of your sins

to get to Heaven, because that is not what the inspired King James Bible teaches. What saith the Scripture? John 6:47,

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." Over and over in the inspired Scripture we are taught simply to BELIEVE ON JESUS CHRIST to be saved, nothing more. 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

" There is no mention of repenting from your sin, nor being willing to turn from sin, to be saved. It may sound real good, reasonable and religious to

repent of your sins

to get to Heaven, but it is totally unscriptural.

Cursed is the wicked pastor who lies to a church congregation. Galatians 1:8, "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed." Woe unto the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, which merged with the Colonial Hills Baptist Church in 2017. They have much blood upon their hands for corrupting God's simple plan of salvation. The Gospel is not an obscure subject in the Holy Bible. 1st Corinthians 15:1-6 clearly defines "the Gospel" for us as: Jesus' death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection the third day. Repenting of one's sinful ways is NOT a part of the Gospel of free grace!!! Evil men made that up!

The inspired Holy Scripture teaches us not to praise our self. I cannot say that I am a faithful man, only others can make that claim. When someone compliments me by telling me, " it means something to me. What man wouldn't want to be deemed a good man?

You're a good man,

Proverbs 27:2, "Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips." My heart's desire is for God to call me a faithful man.

Galatians 3:9, "

So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

" I cannot think of a greater compliment than for God to call a man faithful.

" That is so beautiful.

We desperately need more pastors today who care. A pastor who walks closely with God WILL CARE about truth, ethics (doing the right thing), righteousness and people. It is tragic when someone can attend a church for years, and feel like no one cares if they leave and never come back. It is disgraceful, showing the woeful lack of love and compassion of pastors.

Tragically, that is how I sadly felt at the wicked Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. Even after attending the church for 45 months, I and my wife were told that we were not welcomed anymore because of my fundamentalist Bible preaching on social media. Their wicked pastors despised my preaching against women wearing pants in public. They despise Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), who is my hero and mentor of the Christian faith. I have no regrets!

Kindly said, pastors' Brad Moffett and his Smart Alecky wicked father are arrogant fools. They preach another gospel, not the true Gospel which the Apostle Paul received directly from Jesus (Galatians 1:12, 15:1-6). Proverbs 20:6, "Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?"

When Pastor Bobby Moffett told us in June of 2025 that we are no longer welcomed at Family Baptist Church, he had a wicked Smart Ass smirk on his face. A genuine man of God would have shed tears! In the 45 months that I attended their church, not once did I ever see church leadership shed a single tear for anyone. There is no love in the church! They falsely claim to have "love," which psychologically tricks people to think there is love; but when you step back and closely examine the church, it is blatant to see the woeful lack of God's Holy Spirit and His love in the place. There is no love for hurting people! The shameful pastors of Family Baptist Church didn't even bother to try to talk with us before kicking me and my wife out, they just did it. Our 45 months of attending their church meant ABSOLUTELY NOTHING to them, which is very sinful. What rotten incompetent pastors!!!

At Family Baptist Church in Pensacola they merely play church from week to week, going through the motions, coldheartedly serving their bellies instead of Christ.

Romans 16:17-18, “

Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.” The only small amount of good deeds that the church does is for show. The fact that they couldn’t care less who leaves evidences what I say. SHAME on that wicked church!!! The church members are also guilty, since they support their wicked incompetent pastors who don’t care (2nd John 1:11). Proverbs 20:6, “Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?”

Right doctrine matters! The way that we treat others matters! It’s not okay to ignore people who attend your church for years, as if they were going to McDonald’s. Sadly, that is how pastors mistreat people. I saw Pastor Brad Moffett in 2023 kick a dear elderly man (Tom, who is 47 years older than him) out of the church. What was his horrible offense? Tom told Brad THE TRUTH that he should be warning people about Satan’s corrupt Bible revisions. Brad was highly offended and shewed Tom the exit door, telling him to leave. Tom missed his friends at Family Baptist Church, so he apologized and begged to come back, but Pastor Brad threatened to call the police if he stepped foot onto the church parking lot. What an evil pastor! You see, the pastors of Family Baptist Church know that they are wrong, but they don’t care, so they choose rather to wickedly ban truth-tellers like Tom and me. Me, and my good ministry friend Tom, WILL BE vindicated by God on Judgment Day, when the Lord punishes Brad and Bobby Moffett for their stiffnecked pride and wicked rejection of the truth.

1st Timothy 2:9-13, “

In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. For Adam was first formed, then Eve.”

Titus 2:4-5, “

That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

in Titus 2:5 comes from a very interesting Greek word hagnos, which according to Strong’s Concordance means properly clean, that is, (figuratively) innocent, modest, perfect: - chaste, clean, pure.

” Chaste means that when a woman wears a long dress, no one can question the modesty of her clothing. She is above reproach! She appears perfect and innocent! However, when a woman wears a pair of pants, her clothing is absolutely questionable. She is not above reproach, which is exactly why me and the pastors at Family Baptist Church in Pensacola are battling right now over the issue of MODESTY!

I had attended the Family Baptist Church at 5454 W. Mobile Highway in Pensacola for 45 months, from 2021 to 2025. Me and my former wife were remarried at Family Baptist Church on May 2nd, 2025. I am very grateful to Pastor Bradley Moffett for performing our wedding. I love the guy on a personal level, but kindly said, he is a lousy pastor.

Pastor Brad horribly disrespected me and Alice on April 30th, when we were invited into his office for marriage counseling. When we arrived at 10 am on Wednesday, April 30th, for marriage counseling, Pastor Brad censured my ministry websites instead. We were sad. I won’t repeat the whole story, but [1]here it is if you’d like to read the details of what happened.

Our pastor had several dozen web pages printed out on his desk from my ministry websites. He brought up several issues about my fundamentalist Bible preaching, the last one being modesty. He took issue with my article titled, “[2]Why A Christian Lady Ought Not Wear Pants.” He also took issue with Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) for saying: “I don’t have a dirty mind, I have a man’s mind.” There is absolutely nothing wrong with what Dr. Hyles said. Brother Hyles essentially teaches the same thing in [3]this awesome excerpt from his sermon “

[4]Miniskirts In Light Of The Bible.

” Pastor Hyles is right that any HONEST man

KNOWS what a woman’s body does to a man’s mind.

Pastor Brad is not being honest with himself. Men are at war with the flesh...

> 1st Peter 2:11-12, “Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.”

The inspired Holy Bible calls fleshly lusts “

a war

in a man’s mind. According to Pastor Moffett, since a Spirit-filled Christian man won’t lust upon an immodestly clothed woman, it shouldn’t even be an issue how a woman is dressed. He used this line of reasoning to slander Pastor Jack Hyles, claiming that if Dr. Hyles had a man’s mind that was tempted to think dirty, it was only because Brother Hyles was carnally-minded and not walking in the Holy Spirit. I disrespect Pastor Brad for slandering Brother Hyles!

No healthy red-blooded man who sees a woman in a pair of pants is thinking about singing "Amazing Grace." And you know it! Shame on Brad Moffett for sinfully defending his wife's pants! Get right with God!

Pastor Brad is very wrong and dishonest to deny that men are tempted visually when they see a woman in pants or other immodest attire. Proverbs 7:10,

"And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart." The very fact that a woman would wear the attire of an harlot to seduce a man proves that Pastor Hyles is absolutely right!

Granted, there is much controversy over what is considered "the attire of an harlot." There is much debate over what is meant by the words "modest apparel" in 1st Timothy 2:9. To me and any other true fundamentalist Bible-believing Christian, a pair of pants on a woman is definitely NOT "modest" attire. And yes, as far as I am concerned, a woman wearing a pair of even remotely snug pants would be "the attire of an harlot." If you can see the shape of her thighs and buttocks, it is the attire of an harlot per Isaiah 47:1-3.

[5]Pastor Jack Hyles Preaches On Modesty

Although in the preceding sermon excerpt Dr. Hyles is addressing miniskirts, the same exact moral principles apply to pants, halter tops, Spandex, leggings and other immodest women's clothing. In my humble opinion, Pastor Brad couldn't be more wrong in this important matter of women not wearing pants. Sadly, his wife loves to wear her immodest pants in public, and it is shameful. The pastor's wife should be the one female in the church who sets the HIGHEST STANDARDS of modest attire for the women and girls. The heathen world's LOW STANDARDS don't belong in a local New Testament church.

I love my wife! She has never wore a pair of pants in her entire life. She wears nothing but full-length dresses everywhere she goes, and I applaud her! And by the way, so does the good Lord. Pastor Brad tried to defend his wife's pants by saying that no one loves Jesus anymore than she does. That simply cannot be true! No Christian woman who wears immodest clothing in public, can, nor should be compared to a lady who always wears full-length dresses in public. It is very clear which woman truly loves Jesus the most. No, his wife NOT love Jesus as much as anyone else! That is my humble honest opinion as a Bible preacher.

Shame on Brad and his wife, and his parents, for bringing the world into the church. I never spoke a word about this matter while at Family Baptist Church, because it was none of my business what people wear. And truthfully, I couldn't care less what people wear! But when Pastor Brad invited me and my wife Alice into his office on April 30th, 2025, for marriage counseling, but chose to instead censure my website ministry, he opened s Pandora's Box.

In his office, Pastor Brad made a fuss over my Bible preaching against women wearing pants. In the process, he slandered Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), in an attempt to convince me that me and Brother Hyles are wrong that Christian women shouldn't wear pants. What was I supposed to do, let the matter go as a fundamentalist Bible preacher? I didn't pick this fight, it came to us. Me and Alice had thought we were going to receive marriage counseling, not be insulted and have our feelings hurt because the pastor wanted to defend his wife's pants.

As I have said before, I couldn't care less who wears pants in their church, it's none of my business; but their foolish pastor attacked me and my ministry on April 30th, and wickedly slandered Pastor Jack Hyles, who (contrary to Pastor Brad's horrible accusations) did NOT teach anything that caused hundreds of church families to go into sexual immorality, crime and sin.

How dare him say such things! When I asked Brad what things he was talking about, he said that he didn't want to get into it. What a wicked pastor! Proverbs 17:4, " A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue."

I WILL DEFEND DR. HYLES' GOOD NAME!!! The Moffett family should be ashamed of themselves and beg God to forgive them. If they were right with God, they'd apologize to me and Alice, but they haven't. God is our witness and defender! I will go to seed in this matter that Christian women ought not wear pants. [6]I won't stop preaching against women wearing pants and other immodest clothing in public! The only reason why the pastor's wife and the other women in the church are wearing pants is because everyone else does it. Today's Christian women who wear pants are following the heathen world. Jeremiah 10:2a, "

Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen...

In the year 1900 in the United States, you couldn't have found a woman in public wearing a pair of pants. They still had a sense of decency and high moral standards back then, which no longer exists in America. Between Hugh Hefner's wicked Playboy filth which began in 1953, and the miniskirt trend which began in 1964, our country has lost its way concerning decency. There has been a definite correlation between women's clothing standards, sexual promiscuity in society and the demonic abortion industry.

Pastor Brad challenged me in his office to show him a Bible verse which says it is a sin for a woman to wear pants. 1st Timothy 2:9 is all any God-fearing woman needs to convince her to dress modestly. But even it it weren't a sin for a female to wear pants, why would a child of God still want to wear such attire that is going to make it harder for men to think and live right? The Moffett family need to sit down and listen to Pastor Jack Hyles preach [7]this truthful sermon about women and modesty. The pastors of America and their wives should be raising the moral standards higher, not bringing them lower.

In my humble opinion, the pastors of Family Baptist Church in Pensacola do not love God, truth or righteousness! They need a genuine man of God for a pastor. In this powerful sermon excerpt, [8]Pastor Jack Hyles explains from Isaiah 47:1-3 that a "whore" uncovers her thighs. When a woman wears pants she is revealing the shape of her thighs to men. The fashions of London are started in Hell and promoted in Paris!

Dr. Hyles [9]explains in this same sermon excerpt from Isaiah 47:1-3 that a "whore" uncovers her thighs. When a woman wears snug pants, the shape of her thighs are revealed. MEN SEE THAT! I am so sick and tired of henpecked husbands and pastors and their wicked wives getting angry at fundamentalist preachers like Pastor Jack Hyles and me for TELLING THE TRUTH about modesty. Ladies and gentlemen, we need a revival of old fashioned decency in America!!! I won't shut up! I won't be quiet! I won't go away! I won't let it go!

When I attended the church's Memorial Day picnic at Lillian Recreational Reserve in Alabama in 2025, I and my wife sat down at one of their picnic tables to eat. We had seen right away that the pastor's wife was wearing immodest pants! Both me and Alice were nothing but kind and friendly toward her, greeting her with smiles. Alice said that the pastor's wife ignored her. No doubt the pastor's wife felt convicted when she saw my wife's full-length dress, and she was wearing pants. I humbly think that the pastor and his rebellious wife KNOW that it is wrong for a woman to wear pants!!!

We treat everybody with respect because we love people. It is not our place to condemn any woman for wearing pants, nor for anything else. Me and my wife are just two older struggling sinners. It is only by God's grace that we are saved. We were both saved at age 13. God's imputed righteousness by faith alone is the only righteousness we have (Philippians 3:9).

Something Wicked That The Pastor's Wife Did

As we were eating at the church picnic, the pastor's wife shamefully came over and said to a young girl sitting next to us, "I like your shorts!" The pastor's wife should be greatly ashamed of herself! I am fully convinced, and so is my wife, that the pastor's wife did it on purpose to mock us. She fully knows that I am a fundamentalist Bible preacher. She fully knows where I strongly stand on the issue of females wearing pants and shorts in public. You are a dishonest fool if you believe for one second that the pastor's wife innocently came up 3 feet in front of us, complimented a young girl on her "nice shorts," and then just walked away. Only God and the pastor's wife know the truth.

Regardless of whether the pastor's wife did it to taunt us (and we are fully convinced that she did), that was a wicked thing to say to a young girl who is dressed immodestly.

We should be raising a generation of modest girls who want to be decent, to be pure on their wedding day, not encourage them to dress like hoochie mamas! I know that I am right in this important matter of modesty. History proves me correct.

Pastor Brad in his office on April 30th was literally bringing up the fact that Scottish men wear kilts, in a lame attempt to defend his wife wearing pants. He was trying to counter Deuteronomy 22:5, "The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination unto the LORD thy God." Then Pastor Brad tried to dismiss this Old Testament passage as being a mere ceremonial law that cannot be applied to women in modern times. I dread wicked neo-evangelicals pastors! I really do. They just won't do the right thing.

For speaking out against immodesty, me and Alice were told by the pastor's verbally abusive father on June 22, 2025, to never to return to Family Baptist Church. They could have simply sent us an e-mail, but instead they wasted our time driving down to the church, which was terrible. They never bothered to talk with us first, as Matthew 18:15 teaches, they just kicked us out of our church family. Great Christians huh?

You can get mad at me all you want. For the 45 months that I attended Family Baptist Church I was quiet, but now I will be loud. Somebody needs to pay attention and get upset. If you're not upset, you're not paying attention!

> "The world will go to Hell unless somebody is authoritative!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[10]I Shall Not Be Moved"

It is wrong for women to wear pants, miniskirts, halter tops, Spandex, bikinis, shorts and other immodest clothing in public. I know that 99 % of you likely won't agree with my Bible preaching, which just shows how adjusted to this heathen world you've become. I am being your friend.

Pastor Jack Hyles was absolutely right that the only reason why women wear pants today is because nearly everybody else is doing it too. But that doesn't make it right! As I mentioned earlier, in the year 1900 you couldn't find a woman wearing a pair of pants in public. We still had decency in society. Business closed their storefront shades on Sundays, so that people couldn't window-shop. People still feared and regarded their Creator.

In 2025, nearly every business is shamefully open on Sundays. It is rare to find a woman who wears a full-length dress anymore. Folks, God hasn't changed in a century, society has. In 1962 homosexuality was a punishable crime in all 50 states, but as of 2015 same sex perversion is legal in all 50 states. God hasn't changed. The inspired King James Bible hasn't changed. Heathen society has changed! Even though Roe vs. Wade (1973) was overturned after 49 years in 2022, there were still over one million abortions in 2023 and again in 2024. Woe unto America. I am sick and tired of hearing ungodly Americans sing, “God Bless America!” Don’t you think it’s about time that we start singing, “May America Bless God!”

Dr. Hyles is right when he says that sailors living on a military base don’t have pin-up photos of women wearing long modest dresses, they have pin-ups of women clothed immodestly to lust upon. They have [11]pin-ups of women wearing pants! It is very dishonest for Pastor Brad Moffett to defend women wearing pants. The inspired Holy Bible condemns a woman wearing pants because it is not modest attire, it is the attire of an harlot (Proverbs 7:10). I am not against mixed bathing, I am against mixed nudity! We need a whole new generation of Bible preachers who raise the standards high! Shame on any Baptist pastor who sets the standards low for morality. I am being your good friend to tell you THE TRUTH!

We All Have To Give Account Someday To God

Dear reader, what are you going to do with the inspired Holy Bible? It’s not the pants that are sinful, it’s the showing of the thighs and buttocks in public! I heard a fool recently say that pants are actually more modest than a skirt, because if young girls are playing sometimes their skirts lift up. Do you see what they’re trying to do? They’re trying to justify the norm with extremes. They’re twisting things around to justify their sin. It all boils down to one thing: Are you willing to be different than what you know is the right thing to do?

Women who wear pants don’t want others to think they are a good Christian. They don’t want to be different. They want to fit in with everybody else in the world. The don’t want to be outside the gate with Jesus. They don’t want to suffer reproach for the name of Jesus. So, they just follow the herd, dressing like heathen worldly women do. We need a revival of decency and modesty in our homes and churches! What’s the use of having an annual church revival, if decency and morality are not emphasized?

It will be a cold day in Hell before my godly wife ever compliments a young girl on her “ nice shorts.

That is because my wife truly does love Jesus. I have no doubt whatsoever, and I’ve had numerous people suggest the same thing to me, that it was the wicked pastor’s wife who pressured her husband to make an issue of my preaching against women wearing pants, and to ultimately kick me and Alice out of the Family Baptist Church. That is just my humble opinion. I don’t hate the pastor’s wife, but I feel like she hates me. On numerous occasions over the past few years, she has given me the evil eye at church. I’ve always wondered why and now I know. The issue was over her sinful choice to wear pants, and my truthful website ministry that exposes it as sin!

Pastor Hyles is right that to lose something in the will of God is to find something better. I know in my heart that I did THE RIGHT THING! Worldly Christians today are more upset over exposing evil than they are over the evil itself. Dear reader, I do not believe there is any such thing as a good Christian.

That being said, we should at least want to be good Christians. Why set the standards low? Why set a worldly example for the young girls and women? I know as sure as I am saved that on Judgment Day the chaste Christian ladies who wear dresses, culottes, skirts and skorts will come out on top!

[12]The Heathen World Knows What's Wrong With Women Wearing Pants

Woe unto the wicked pastor's wife, and woe unto the wicked henpecked pastor, who try to defend the sin of women wearing immodest pants in public.

I feel sorry for the people (sheep) at Family Baptist Church, because they are wallowing in lukewarmness and mediocrity. Their so-called " for the past 12 years has languished as a wounded animal, failing to grow because their pastors refuse to lead the church to go door to door soulwinning. There is no preaching against sin. There is no contending for the Christian faith. The Devil's corrupt Bibles are not exposed. Lordship Salvation is not preached against. In my humble opinion, based on Revelation 3:15-17, that is not a true New Testament church.

When I met with Pastor Brad Moffett in his office on April 30th, 2025, he told me that he is not a fundamentalist. Sadly, then that makes him an ungodly neo-evangelical. Brad told me that he doesn't think we have an inspired perfect Holy Bible today. In my humble opinion, Brad has no business being a pastor anywhere! He defended some of the Devil's corrupt Bible perversions, specifically mentioning the [13]Modern English Version (MEV) as one of his favorites. Kindly said, I feel that he is incompetent as a church leader. That is simply my honest opinion as a fundamentalist Bible preacher. I earned my degree in Pastoral Theology at Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993). I graduated with honors on the Dean's List. I don't claim to be anything special. Quite the contrary, I am just an old broken sinner saved by God's undeserving grace.

The Heathen World Has No Place In The Church

Unbelievably, in their student handbook, Bob Jones University (BJU) in Greenville, South Carolina, hypocritically permits their female students to wear halter tops in public, but only if they wear a jacket and don't remove it. That is so foolish. What are the chances that a young lady will be too warm and need to remove her jacket, or need to remove her jacket for any one of a hundred reasons? That's like saying it's okay not to wear any clothes, just so long as you wear an overcoat and don't take it off. What a joke! BJU is no better than any other heathen university. And worst of all, BJU preaches the [14]damnable lie of Lordship Salvation.

Dear reader, we've got a bunch of ungodly neo-evangelicals ruining the churches today! As the church has become more worldly, so has the world become more churchy! When they kicked me and Alice out of their church on June 22, 2025, they vicariously kicked out Jesus! In one angry decision to appease their personal grudge, they took away our dozens of friends and destroyed dozens of relationships which we built over 45 months, and they wickedly couldn't care less. Me and Alice humbly believe that there will be consequences from God because of their actions, which in the years to come they will realize. The Lord will not be mocked. We did nothing wrong. In our Christian opinion, God will not let them get away with what they did to hurt Tom and Sharon, me and Alice, Bobby across the street, Lucretia and many others.

My faithful Bible preaching against women wearing pants will be vindicated. My faithful Bible preaching against their damnable heresy of "Repent of your sins" to get to Heaven will be vindicated. My faithful preaching to [15]expose infidel Ken Ham and his corrupt Answers-In-Genesis garbage (which Pastor Brad promotes) will be vindicated. My website ministry since 2002 is the Lord's ministry, and I am His humble broken servant. I am a nobody, but Jesus is my blessed God and Savior, which makes me a somebody to Him as one of His sheep. They can kick me and Tom out of their church, but they cannot escape God's wrath. There is a woeful lack of love for people, truth and righteousness in most churches today.

God knows that I do not hate anybody. Quite the contrary, I love them all very much with Christ's love. But my love for God, truth and righteousness must come first. I heard [16]this beautiful sermon excerpt yesterday by Pastor Jack Hyles titled, [17]Christ Died For God.

" Dr. Hyles said that he cried when people became angry at his hard preaching and left the church. He loved people and wanted to be loved, just as God wants to be loved (we are made in God's image). But Brother Hyles said that even though he wanted to be loved, he'd rather be right. I fully agree and share his feelings.

I don't enjoy fighting with pastors and churches, but as Kenny Rogers (1938-2020) sings in his popular song, "Coward Of The County"... "Sometimes you gotta fight when you're a man." They drew first blood. Me and Alice were invited in for marriage counseling, but Pastor Brad instead horribly attacked my website ministry, wickedly slandering Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). We were horrified and still are! What Brad Moffett did and said was wrong. He should have kept his word to give us marriage counseling, not censure my website ministry instead.

Call me what you will, God is my defender. I will continue to STAND for modesty.

I will continue to STAND for the free grace Gospel.

I will continue to STAND for door to door soulwinning.

I will continue to STAND for Bible preaching against sin.

I will continue to STAND against Operation Christmas Child (OCC) and their damnable Lordship Salvation that is included with every gift box.

I will continue to STAND against false prophets like Ken Ham, Billy and Franklin Graham, John Piper, John Calvin, Brad and Bobby Moffett, and other damnable heretics who pervert the Gospel.

Nothing is destroying churches anymore today than new-evangelicalism! Modesty matters! No amount of smiles and kind words can compensate for bringing the heathen world into the church. I dread their Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) on Sundays, which is the same life-less crap sang at Pensacola Christian College nowadays. Sadly, they are merely going through the motions of playing church, same ole same ole from week to week, dropping the ball for Christ. Tragically, when Christianity came to America it became a stinking business instead of a new birth.

All their junk about repenting of your sins to be saved is not taught in the inspired King James Bible! By the way, please don't forget that Pastor Brad DOESN'T believe we have an inspired perfect Holy Bible today. What a disgrace for a supposed man of God. His wife wears the pants and her henpecked husband cannot go against her (that is my humble opinion). Who wears the pants in their family? Sadly, they both do. That is so dishonoring to the Lord.

God knows my broken heart. I never once challenged, criticized nor spoke evil of Pastor Brad Moffett or his family in all of the 45 months that I attended their church in Pensacola. Yet, what gives him the right to slander Dr. Jack Hyles? Brad was only 13 years old when Pastor Hyles went to Heaven in 2001. So, what does Brad know about anything, except the gossip and slander he has heard from other haters? I think Pastor Brad is not right with God for slandering Dr. Jack Hyles. I have a right to hold my own opinion. Pastors should be working together for the cause of Christ, not slandering and working against each other.

The pastor started this mess in his office when he disrespected me and my wife horribly, for which he ought to be ashamed of himself. THE WAY YOU TREAT PEOPLE MATTERS!!!

I've heard Bobby Moffett (Brad's father) arrogantly say in his preaching, "Woe unto anyone who goes against a church." So, what he is really saying is that an individual Christian cannot go against a group of Christians. That is simply wrong. It all depends on WHY an individual is going against a church. I am going against Family Baptist Church's dingleberry leaders because they are WRONG on repentance, WRONG on soulwinning; and therefore, wrong on God's simple plan of salvation.

And they're also very wrong on modesty, for teaching that it's okay for women in the church to wear pants in public. And don't you dare say that is a non-essential issue, as so many fools allege! Women wearing pants goes hand-in-hand with our sexually immoral culture in America that wallows in fornication, shacking-up and adultery, which has fueled the Satanic abortion industry since even before Roe vs. Wade in 1973! Sexual immorality all starts with an improper mindset toward a female's attire!!! Anyone who denies this truth is a lying wicked person.

SHAME on the carnal leadership of the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola!

6.6.27 Pastor Brad Moffett Mistreated Me And My Wife At The Family Baptist Church In Pensacola (2025-06-27 09:23)

Since me and Alice were [1]kicked out of Family Baptist Church in Pensacola on June 22, 2025, we have been sad and understandably upset. I have been emotionally devastated all week. For 45 months, from 2021 to 2025, I developed a sincere love and heartfelt bond with a few dozen people in the church, including the pastor and his family. My heart was in the church, despite our doctrinal differences. I took the good and left the bad.

Yet, in one hasty decision (in anger over some preaching comments that I made on Facebook without mentioning any names), their pastor kicked us out of the church without even talking with us. Who wouldn't be hurt and upset? Since the church is one's spiritual family in the Lord as believers, then no one should take away your family, any more than someone has a right to take away one's biological family. Those pastors are heartless. They didn't even try to talk with us before kicking us out. That just proves how carnal they are at Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. SHAME ON THEM!!!

My wife never liked Family Baptist Church (FBC) from day one. She truthfully said she didn't feel the presence of the Holy Spirit in the church. In hindsight, I agree. So, perhaps the Lord was working behind the scenes to get us out of there. They sing a hybrid of old hymns and horrible Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) at

Family Baptist Church

. Alice won't even sing the CCM because she doesn't want those lame songs in her mind. She doesn't want to learn them and neither do I. I hadn't thought about that, but I think she is very wise to think that way. CCM is utterly inferior to the precious old time-tested hymns of the Christian faith. So, I stopped singing them too, so she wouldn't feel alone at FBC.

My broken heart will heal in time. I'm just glad that they hurt us, we didn't hurt them. Alice has been 100 % supportive and I thank God so much for her. Although it would be easy to just blame myself for going to these neo-evangelical churches in the first place, like Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, where I knew they were corrupt. God understands my sincere desire to be part of a local church family. The good Lord also sees how difficult it is nowadays to find a doctrinally sound church. Michael P. Bowen in his excellent book, "[2]I Never Knew You," says on page 115 that he doesn't attend any church in his local town because they are all corrupt on God's simple plan of salvation. I don't blame him one bit.

The Lord will deal with those clowns at Family Baptist Church (Romans 12:19-21; Matthew 12:36; 1st Thessalonians 4:6; Galatians 6:7). By coldheartedly kicking me and Alice out of Family Baptist Church without even talking with us about it, they stabbed us in the back. That is not the Lord's way of doing things. Me and Alice could see the arrogance on Bobby Moffett's face in the parking lot, when he coldheartedly said we are no longer welcomed at their church. SHAME! He seemed to enjoy getting rid of us. You'd think after attending their church for 45 months that there would be some regret, sadness, a broken heart and some tears. Nope! All we saw was a calloused pastor with zero love. It just shows that they don't walk with God, if they are even saved. We do not recommend this church to anyone!

In hindsight, I now see that I was blinded by my love for them and a sincere desire to be a part of their church family. I was 100 % loyal to the church and their pastor. I always respected Brad's father Bobby, who was their former pastor but took a backseat so that his son could do the job. But that respect only went one way. They didn't respect me, nor my website ministry, which is why none of them ever wanted to learn my story. They never asked for my contact information. They never offered me a soda and invite me to sit down to talk for a few moments. It felt no different than going to McDonalds. That is disgraceful on their part as pastors.

In our humble opinion, there is no genuine love for people at FBC, only a prejudicial favoritism for certain people who unquestioningly submit to church authoritarian leadership. That is how we feel. Since they knew that I disagree with their wrong view on repentance and women wearing pants, from reading my ministry websites, they held a grudge against me the entire time. I know that God will reward my faithfulness. Galatians 6:9,

" And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. "

I listened to Dr. Hyles preach two sermons yesterday, "[3]Christ Died For God" and "[4]Miniskirts In Light Of The Bible." Here is [5]a great excerpt from the first sermon. As I heard these words from Brother Hyles, I couldn't help but realize that are guilty of not loving the people they drive out of their church. Whereas Pastor Hyles wept over the folks who left upset, the pastors at Family Baptist Church couldn't care less (in our sincere opinion). They have a horrible revolving door attitude at in Pensacola. This was our experience at the church.

Pastor Brad Mistreated Us

When [6]me and Alice met with Pastor Brad on April 30th in his office for marriage counseling, and he instead censured my website ministry, he told me that he had expected me to angrily storm out of his office that day. What he said really hurt our feelings, because he had just admitted that he planned ahead of time to push my buttons and fully expected me to explode in anger in response. Why would he do that to us?

Pastor Brad also left the door open, so that a man in an adjacent room in the hallway could listen to our entire conversation, which was very inconsiderate and rude of our former pastor. We don't even know who that other man was. What in the world is wrong with Pastor Brad?

The very fact that Pastor Brad admitted to me and Alice, that he had planned ahead to try to make me angry with his words, reveals his ill intent. God sees what he horribly did to hurt us. But, I didn't blow up as he had anticipated. Instead, I started to weep when he was done belittling and berating me for my fundamentalist Bible preaching, and I sincerely told him that I loved him as my pastor and I didn't want to argue with him. Furthermore, why would Pastor Brad do this to a humble man in his church, who had just asked him a few days earlier to perform his wedding? We were horribly mistreated. Pastor Brad still hasn't apologized for anything. We can only prayerfully leave the matter in the Lord's hands.

God knows that I am slow to anger, like the Lord is slow to anger. I needed a few days to think about the horrible things that Pastor Brad said in the meeting, especially when he slandered Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), falsely accusing him of teaching things on sex and marriage that caused hundreds of families to go into sexual immorality, divorce and shame. We were blown away in horror by his injurious accusations against Pastor Hyles!

Besides, me and Alice were about to get remarried, and that was all we were thinking about at the time, not Pastor Brad's paranoia over us joining his church. The bottom line is that Pastor Brad took things way too far. He crossed a line. He went way overboard and said some ungodly things to us that awful day. All we wanted was to get remarried and join the church. Instead, we were interrogated like we were in communist North Korea.

Kindly said, no church has a right to play God with people's lives. I seriously doubt if any other members of FBC would have taken Pastor Brad's mistreatment any better than we did. Just because we weren't official voted in members of the church, doesn't mean that we weren't part of the church family, and a part of the Body of Christ. I attended Family Baptist Church for 45 months, which absolutely made me a member in God's sight.

After a couple weeks had passed and I pondered Pastor Brad's harsh words against my Bible preaching, especially his harmful slanderous accusations against Pastor Jack Hyles' Bible preaching, the fundamentalist Bible preacher in me was riled up. I have never been quick on my toes. Someone can insult me with their words, even take advantage of me somewhat, because my brain just doesn't work that fast. But if I have a few days to think about things, I am very strong. God made me that way. That is why for the past 23 years the Lord through me has built a writing ministry (Psalms 127:1), not a speaking ministry. I am not an eloquent orator. I am not good with my words when I verbally speak. In fact, I usually say something stupid that I will regret later, which is why I much rather prefer communicating in writing, because I have plenty of time to think about my words.

It will take some time for us to heal. It's not easy to just "move on" after building meaningful relationships with dozens of people in a church for 45 months. It frustrates me that those carnal pastors hold all the keys (power), and there is absolutely nothing that we can do in this matter, except express our heartfelt opinion on social media. Since it is their church (it's certainly not the Lord's church), they can do whatever they want and we have no say. But thankfully God sees everything, He hears the cry, and we humbly believe the Lord won't allow them to get away with what they have wickedly done. They drew first blood. They hurt us. We just humbly asked to join the church. You couldn't make this stuff up!

Thank you dear reader for visiting my blogs. To God alone by the glory. Jesus is precious!!!

6.6.28 The Reason I Get Upset Is Because I Care (2025-06-28 11:17)

Galatians 4:16, “ Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? ”

For those ministry followers who have read my writings over the many years, you know that I have been kicked out of numerous churches. I have written extensively about my painful experiences with these terrible new evangelical churches and their ungodly incompetent pastors. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS! My truth-telling ministry websites have gotten me into hot water in nearly every church I have attended. Ironically, I never tried to cause trouble. If you are a fundamentalist Bible-believing Christian, and you're going to a neo-evangelical church, you won't have to start a fight because it will come to you.

A young man once asked an older preacher how to give up the world. The wise preacher replied: "Young man, you carry a Holy Bible and the world will give you up!" It you let your light shine for God in this dark world of sin (Matthew 5:16), you will be persecuted for the name of Jesus (2nd Timothy 3:12). When you are a Christian, the whole world is waiting for you to fall. Proverbs 4:23, "

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

The truth is that if I didn't care, I never would have had any issues in those churches. Life would have been grand! If I just filled up 18 inches of pew every Sunday (like everybody else), and believed whatever lies and unbiblical teachings were spoon-fed to the congregation, then I wouldn't have any enemies and everything would have been hunky-dory! But as Jeremiah the prophet said in Jeremiah 20:9, "

Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay. " I have to tell the truth!

Last Sunday on June 22, 2025, I am my wife Alice were kicked out of the carnal Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. I had attended the church for 45 months. What I didn't realize is that their carnal pastors were harboring resentment toward my fundamentalist website ministry the whole time; and they despised my hero of the faith, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). Earlier this week I wrote an [1]open letter to the church members to explain what their malicious pastors did to hurt us. I cannot think of any greater evil than to kick someone out of their church family. You cannot show me one verse in the Bible that says to kick a person out of a local church.

Why does this keep happening? In 2014, I was kicked out of the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. In 2018, I got into an argument in the parking lot with the pastor of the Light-house Baptist Church on Guam. He scolded me for telling someone that Bob Jones University sells corruptible seed (false bibles). I rebuked him back! In 2021, I was kicked out of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College. Their wicked pastors preach Lordship Salvation. And now I and my wife Alice have been kicked out of Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. The reason why this keeps happening is because of my fundamentalist website ministry. The bottom line is that Christian fundamentalists and [2]ungodly new-evangelicals do not get along. All of the aforementioned churches are [3]disgraceful new evangelical churches!

Several general observations can be made about NEW EVANGELICALS:

1. They don't care about what matters.
2. They don't pay attention to the details.
3. They are all wrong on Bible repentance (i.e., the "repent of your sins" heresy).
4. They all refuse to expose the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation.
5. They don't have a sense of urgency about what's important.
6. They don't regularly go door to door soulwinning.
7. They are lackadaisical about biblical separation.

8. They don’t expose the Devil’s modern corrupt Bible revisions.
9. They don’t preach against sin.
10. Their women sinfully wear pants and other immodest clothing.
11. They sing lame theologically deficient Contemporary Christin Music.
12. They don’t contend for the Christian faith.

As a Bible fundamentalist, I care and pay attention to the details. This is not just true of the things of God, but of everything in my life. The old adage is true: Cleanliness is next to godliness. Why? It is because both attributes require caring. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS! It is because I DO CARE that I keep getting into ministry quarrels with carnal pastors. The Bible warns in Galatians 1:6-9 that God curses any man (even an angel) who preaches ANOTHER GOSPEL than the one the Apostle Paul taught in 1st Corinthians 15:1-6. Paul said he received that Gospel directly from Jesus (Galatians 1:12).

Any pastor who requires you to “Repent of your sins” to get to Heaven is a theological LIAR!!! Jesus came into the world to die on Calvary’s cross to pay our debt of sin, He does not demand that we first be willing to REFORM to receive the free gift of eternal life. The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

> “The best way to kill a snake is to put him in the fire. The reason we have so many snakes in our churches is that there’s no fire.” —Pastor Lester Roloff (1914-1982)

Dear reader, if you’re not upset you’re not paying attention! It saddens me that I need to get so worked up over false teaching in today’s corrupt Bible colleges and churches, while 99 % of professed Christians couldn’t care less. If you’re not upset you’re not paying attention!!! Galatians 4:16, “Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?”

The Carnal Family Baptist Church In Pensacola

God knows that I love the folks at Family Baptist Church with God’s love, but their pastors are wrong on repentance. The pastor of the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola is Brad Moffett. Tragically, in my humble opinion, Brad doesn’t care about right doctrine! I have known Pastor Brad for 45 months, since 2021. Their church’s perverse Statement of Faith (which I have in front of me) says that to get to Heaven you must, “

Repent of your sins.

That teaching is totally unbiblical. Salvation is of the LORD (Jonah 2:9). You contribute NOTHING to your salvation but the sin that made it necessary!

Pastor Brad’s verbally abusive father “Bobby Boy” Moffett is also a false prophet! The guy is woefully ignorant of God’s simple plan of salvation. I say that kindly, but truthfully. Bobby means well, but the road to Hell is paved with good intentions (Proverbs 16:25). Most false prophets are sincere, as evidenced by the hellbound heretics in Matthew 7:21-23. They were shocked when Jesus rejected them! Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world! In my humble opinion, they have churchianity at Family Baptist Church, not Christianity. They will not be saved until they repent of their wrong repentance!

Anyone who thinks they are going to Heaven because THEY have turned from their sins is not saved. Turning from one's evil ways is a WORK. Jonah 3:10, "And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not." The Ninevites did NOT get saved, they simply moved God to repent (change His mind) to not destroy their city. Carefully notice that the Bible says, " God repented.

" Did God turn from His sins? No, God cannot sin. The Lord simply changed His mind, which is what repentance means; that's it, that's all, no more.

Dear reader, I am not the bad guy for TELLING THE TRUTH. Galatians 4:16, " Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? "

I Care About The Accuracy Of The Gospel, And The Purity Of The Inspired Holy Bible

Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is a cesspool of Lordship Salvation, misunderstood repentance and the Devil's false bibles. As a true friend does, [4]I befriended their wicked pastors with THE TRUTH in 2014; for which I was berated, forced out, shunned, ostracized, hated, banned, despised, mistreated, rejected and thrown under the bus by pastors' Marty Herron and Gary Walton for 7 miserable years. Woe be unto those uncaring wicked pastors on Judgment Day when God holds them all accountable (Galatians 6:7; Matthew 12:36).

I tried to help them see the truth. My hands are clean! The blood is upon their hands alone for promoting corruptible seed (perverse bibles), for preaching another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works (Lordship Salvation), and for uplifting infidel Martin Luther (1483-1546) as a born again Christian, when he taught the damnable heresy of Sacramental Salvation all of his life. Galatians 4:16, " Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? "

> "The one man who will have to give an account to God for America will be the preacher." —Pastor Lester Roloff (1914-1982)

I could write for hours dear friend about the battles I have waged for the Lord. I have fought the good fight of faith! To God alone by the credit, praise and glory (John 15:1-5). I am just a struggling sinner like everyone else. I don't claim to be a good Christian. That is not my goal each day. My goal is to " Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man

" (Ecclesiastes 12:13b).

God knows that in every church I have ever attended, where the pastors became angry and kicked me out, THEY DREW FIRST BLOOD! They called me into the office to scold me at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, falsely accusing me of " causing divisiveness and confusion in the church because I shared a [5]book with my friends that exposes Lordship Salvation, and [6]a book exposing the modern Bible perversions, and [7]a book exposing Martin Luther as a fraud (free download). For sharing these books authored by fundamentalist preachers, I was crucified and axed like a turkey on Thanksgiving Day!

Psalms 118:6, “ The LORD is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?” You’d think that the one place in the world where it would be safe to tell the truth would be in a church, but sadly that is not the case today. Telling THE TRUTH will likely get you kicked out and banned in most churches today.

People Just Want To Be Loved

In our humble opinion, there is no love in the leadership at Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. Me and my wife were horribly mistreated by church leaders in June of 2025.

God knows my heart that I truly do care and love people. I love THE TRUTH. I heard an encouraging sermon today by my hero and mentor, Pastor Jack Hyles. The sermon is titled,

I heard [9]this precious excerpt that burned in my soul. Dr. Hyles indicts the uncaring pastors of the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. Dr. Hyles said he cried (the godly response) when his hard Bible preaching made people angry and they left the church. No one shed a tear when they told me and my wife Alice that we are no longer welcomed at Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. Their wicked pastors couldn’t care less! They have no love nor understanding nor compassion. They are carnally-minded imposters!

SHAME on the members of the Family Baptist Church who support their pastors! God sees what they did to us, kicking us out of our church family without even talking to us first. During the 45 months that I attended the church, I bonded with the people and built meaningful friendships. It is pure evil for a pastor, just because he got his pride offended, to strip away our church family. Because of the ungodly church pastor and his arrogant rude father, me and Alice will never see our friends at church again. WOE BE UNTO THOSE PASTORS ON JUDGMENT DAY! God sees them tampering with the Gospel. God sees their sinful indifference. God sees their pride and unwillingness to forgive. Woe unto the wicked Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, where individual people do not matter. That is our opinion.

The reason why I get so upset folks is because I truly do care. I care enough to cry “Wolf!” when I see a bad pastor poisoning people’s minds with a counterfeit plan of salvation. In my estimation, Brad and Bobby Moffett are wolves in sheep’s clothing! They are pulling on the same rope as the Devil by teaching that you cannot be saved unless you “

Repent of your sins.

What does that even mean? They don’t explain it in their church’s Statement of Faith, leaving the reader to speculate, which is very wrong! The inspired Word of God plainly defines in 1st Corinthians 15:1-6 as Jesus’ death, burial and resurrection. There is no requirement to

“

Repent of your sins.

” Wicked false teachers added those extra words (Proverbs 30:5-6).

The pastors of Family Baptist Church are henpecked by their pants-wearing wives. We are convinced that the pastor’s wife pressured her husband to kick me and Alice out of church. We could be wrong, but that is our humble opinion. On numerous occasions the pastor’s wife has given me an uncomfortable stare at church. I humbly think it is because of my preaching against women wearing pants on social media. They despise me and Dr. Jack Hyles because we are high standards loud mouth preachers! For that, I make no apologies.

When we met with Pastor Brad on April 30th, 2025, he slandered Pastor Jack Hyles, wickedly and falsely accusing him of leading hundreds of church families into sexual immorality with perverse teachings on sex and marriage. Me and Alice were horrified when he said that to us. Pastor Brad had invited us into his office for marriage counseling, but he deceived us and instead censured my website ministry, which was rotten of him. I had to apologize to my wife because Brad was talking about sexual issues, upset over my preaching against women wearing pants on social media. We were disgusted!

God knows that in the 45 months that I attended the Family Baptist Church at 5454 W. Mobile Highway in Pensacola (from 2021 to 2025), I was nothing less than a complete gentleman. I never caused the least bit of trouble. I never discussed theological matters that might have upset someone. At church I was simply a guest. Pastor Brad was very wrong to attack my integrity as a preacher, and slander our hero of the faith Dr. Jack Hyles. Me and my wife were both saved at age 13 under the ministry of Brother Hyles. So, for us to hear Pastor Brad Moffett horribly talking evil about our hero, hurt us very deeply. It never ceases to amaze me how so many people who claim to “know things,” never seem to have any evidence to support their claims. Pastor Jack Hyles is the greatest Christian I have ever known!!!

So, dear reader, please pardon my angry rants at times, because it just shows that I CARE! Sometimes my righteous indignation turns a bit personal. It gets hard to separate the two at times, which I think is true of many Bible preachers. When abortionists murder precious human lives which our Creator made in the womb, it tends to get personal. When ungodly uncaring neo-evangelicals kick me and my wife out of their churches, it feels very personal.

> “I’ve never seen a church soar higher than the pulpit.” —Pastor Lester Roloff (1914-1982)

By the way, I will NEVER attend any Baptist church again that is wrong on repentance!!! It has become almost impossible nowadays to find a doctrinally sound church concerning salvation. On page 115 of his excellent book titled, “ my ministry friend Michael P. Bowen writes that he cannot attend any of the local churches in his town because they are all corrupt on God’s simple plan of salvation. I am hearing that from umpteen believers lately. I am having the same problem here in Pensacola. Slowly but surely the churches are turning into religious cults, preaching a counterfeit plan of salvation.

It Is A Sin For Women To Wear Revealing Pants

The biggest difference between the Christian fundamentalist and the heathen new evangelical is that we fundamentalists CARE! At the carnal Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, most of the women wear their worldly pants. That's because their henpecked pastor won't preach HIGH STANDARDS like Pastor Jack Hyles always did for 55 years as a Bible preacher. That is exactly why those ungodly neo-evangelical pastors are envious of Brother Hyles and hate him so much, because they are LOW STANDARDS compromisers who don't care about modesty.

Immodesty is the major driving force behind America's culture of fornication, adultery and perversion. It all started back with Hollywood and Playboy magazine, which exploit women's bodies to make money and ruin society. Playboy magazine began in 1953. Then the demonic miniskirt was invented in 1964. Abortion became legal in all 50 states in 1973. Today, public indecency and immodesty are sinfully commonplace. I humbly believe biblically that it is a sin for a woman to wear pants in public!

Pants on a female reveals the shape of her thighs and buttocks. I humbly believe that anything which blurs the lines between the sexes is sinful. The Bible commands Christian females in 1st Timothy 2:9 to wear "modest apparel." That excludes pants!!! Only a wicked-minded female who has been influenced by our heathen worldly American culture would disagree.

> "What is preaching? It is throwing a fit!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[11]Quit Meddling With God"

I am so sick and tired of hearing all the critics who want to justify women wearing pants, bringing up Scottish kilts, ancient cultures and ceremonial laws in the Old Testament. You know that worldliness is a sin! When people see a meek and quiet woman in a long dress, they see the Lord; but when they see a woman in pants, they see the carnal world. SHAME on any pastor's wife who sets LOW STANDARDS in a church for the girls and young ladies. That is not cool. Why not wear modest culottes, skirts and skorts instead of pants? We all have to answer to God one day in eternity (Romans 14:10-12), but we are already accountable (James 4:17).

> "God doesn't call a preacher to win friends and influence people."
> —Pastor Lester Roloff (1914-1982)

The $64,000 question dear reader is: DO YOU CARE? Jesus cared. That is why He drove the covetous money-changers out of the temple with a handmade whip. Phillip cared, which is why he went over to share the Gospel with the Ethiopian eunuch in Acts chapter 8.

Onesiphorus cared, which is why he searched through Rome's prisons until he finally found the Apostle Paul. 2nd Timothy 1:16-17, "The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus; for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain: But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me." Now that's a caring friend!

You know, if I didn't care I wouldn't have been kicked out of any of those horrible churches. If I just kept my mouth shut (like them), never made a website, never lifted a finger for God and never made a fuss over anything—everybody would love to be around me. False prophets are almost always very likable people. John MacArthur is a suave and charming man. Ray Comfort is a nice guy with a charismatic personality. But unfortunately they are both false teachers who peddle a counterfeit plan of salvation!

I love something that Pastor Danny Castle said: "God pity the preacher that the world don't hate!" Yes Sir! I am a very beloved and hated Bible preacher by many people, because I tell it like it is without apology nor compromise. I'd much rather be loved, but I must preach the truth even if it causes people to hate me for Christ's sake. That is why thousands of people read my blogs. And, THANK YOU! The same sun that melts the wax hardens the clay. Somebody needs to SPEAK UP and preach THE TRUTH!!!

By God's grace, I have invested roughly 70,000 hours of diligent labor into [12]my website and blog ministry since 2002 over the past 23 years, working day and night, 7 days a week. God alone knows the total time spent in labor. I give God alone all the praise, credit and glory (John 15:1-5). God has been so good over the years, and He is faithful (1st Corinthians 1:9).

I get upset over evil and throw a preaching fit sometimes! I often feel like I am a disappointment to God when I get angry and upset over false teaching, upset over corruption and evil. But every time, the indwelling Holy Spirit comforts my soul by reminding me that even Jesus became angry and threw a fit, driving the money-changers out of the temple with a handmade whip. God became so angry over the idolatry of the Jews that He wanted to destroy them at Mount Sinai, but Moses changed the Lord's mind, so God repented.

Anger is not a bad thing if you're upset about the same things as God. When I get upset, the Holy Spirit tells me that He's proud of me for taking a faithful stand. The Lord knows that I've been kicked out of numerous corrupt churches, and I've lost countless fair weather friends (you can never lose a true friend), all because of my faithful biblical stand for what is right and true. I know that God likes to see someone get upset, as compared to all the ungodly neo-evangelical pastors today who don't care, who refuse to take a stand against anything, who are merely playing church. The Lord wants us hot or cold, not lukewarm (Revelation 3:15-17). That is, God doesn't want us to be comfortable with our surroundings. If we are to change the future, we must disturb the present.

The closer you get to Jesus, the more you'll care (Acts 4:13).

And dear reader, I have never made a single penny, nor do I ever plan to take one. Just last week a dear blog reader asked for my mailing address. I always ask people why they want it. He said he wanted to send me some money, but as I always do, I kindly thanked him and declined his offer. I only ask for your earnest prayers dear friend. I do this joyous ministry work for my God and Savior, Jesus, whom I love! From the very start in 2002, I wanted everyone to know where my heart is at—in freely helping people for Christ. I am your humble servant dear reader. To God alone be the glory. My reward is in Heaven (Matthew 6:19-21). Thank you for reading.

6.6.29 Pastor Brad Moffett Has Blood On His Hands (2025-06-29 07:35)

Jeremiah 23:2, “Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.”

In 2021 I began attending the Family Baptist Church at 5454 W. Mobile Highway in Pensacola. I heard Pastor Brad Moffett from his pulpit say that repentance means to turn away from your past sinful life. I cringed in my chair (they don’t have church pews). I prefer church pews. I cringed in horror when the pastor said those horrible words, because they simply are not true. Nowhere does the inspired King James Bible teach that to get to Heaven you must turn away from your past lifestyle of sinning.

So, with a heart of genuine love and concern, I took my own money and bought a $17 hardcopy of Michael P. Bowen's excellent book in defense of a free grace Gospel titled, "[1]I NEVER KNEW YOU."

You can read the book for free online in .pdf format if you'd like. I highly recommend it. If nothing else, you can get the entire gist of the book by reading just the introduction. Please do so, you will be glad that you did.

I never asked Pastor Brad if he read the book, nor what he thought about it, for fear of him kicking me of the church. At the time I was divorced and lonely, and had been kicked out of numerous churches, so I just needed a break and didn't want to rock the boat, so to speak. I wanted a church family.

So for the next few years at Family Baptist Church I studied Pastor Brad's Bible teaching. Admittedly, he says he's not a preacher, and I fully agree. But he is a gifted expository Bible teacher, that is, when he keeps his mouth shut about repentance, Ken Ham, John Calvin, Franklin Graham and other accursed Lordship Salvation infidels that he likes and promotes. Pastor Brad needs to get his doctrine right, or else resign, because at present he has blood on his hands for deceiving many people.

I had never seen a copy of the church's official Statement of Faith until 2025, but I was saddened when Pastor Brad finally handed me a copy. In their Statement of Faith it says that to get to Heaven a person must

Repent of your sins,

which is totally unbiblical. Now, I am all for repenting (changing your mind) about your sins as a Christian, but NOT to get saved!

According to John 20:31 the Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract to humanity. The entire purpose for which the Book of John was written was to show people that Jesus is the only begotten (biological) Son of God, the Christ, and that if you will simply BELIEVE ON CHRIST you will be instantly, irrevocably and eternally saved. We don't need any other passage of Scripture to learn how to got to Heaven than the Gospel of John. And in the wonderful Gospel of John we do not find the word

mentioned even once. However, we do find the word

mentioned 85 times. That says it all folks!

That being said, we know that repentance is necessary to be saved from other books of the Bible; such as, Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

" But since the word

is never mentioned in the Gospel of John, it is safe to conclude that repentance then must be an automatic thing. Therefore, we can conclude that the man who believes on Christ has repented, and the man who repents has believed. So, there is no need to even mention the topic of repentance when sharing the Gospel with someone. In fact, doing so may just confuse the person. So, unless someone asks me about repentance, I don’t even bring the subject up in a conversation.

In sharp contrast, look at how false prophet [2]Ray Comfort misleads this poor confused woman on an airplane, lying to her how to get to Heaven. Ray foolishly tells her to repent of her sins. Then he errantly tells her that trusting Jesus is the second thing

” that she must do. Dear reader, repentance and faith are not two steps to salvation, they are two parts of just one step. The woman asked Ray what it means to repent. His answer is as toxic c as nuclear waste! Ray tells her to live a lifestyle of turning away from her sinning, which she declines to do and doesn’t get saved, understandably, because NO ONE can do what Ray asks. Ray preaches a false gospel message!

To tell someone to “ repent of their sins

is a counterfeit plan of salvation that just confuses people. When the Philippian jailer in Rome asked Paul and Silas how to be saved in Acts 16:30, their simple and brief answer in verse 31 was to, “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ...” There is no mention in the Bible of the man being told to repent of his sins (the error of Family Baptist Church in Pensacola), turn from his wicked ways (which is what infidel Ken Ham teaches), live a lifestyle of repentance (infidel Ray Comfort’s error), turn away from your self-willed life (the error of the infidels at Pensacola Christian College), nor any other Satanic mumbo-jumbo!!! The disciples simply told the man to trust in Jesus, and thankfully he did and was immediately saved. Oh, how I wish that pastors would stop tampering with the Gospel.

I Suffer In Physical Pain Every Day Of My Life

I have suffer in chronic bodily pain every day of my life since 2004. I was hot by a church bus (of all things) in 1992. Our bus was rear-ended so hard that the engine and transmission of the rear bus were shattered into hundreds of pieces in the street. Dozens of ambulances came. My driver’s seat was broken off its hinges when we were severely impacted. The insurance company didn’t even try to repair the rear bus, because it was cheaper to just buy a new full-sized 72 passenger bus.

I went to the hospital and they took x-rays. They said nothing was broken, but they weren’t trained to look for anything else. This missed the misalignment in my neck, which 12 years later in 2004 led to Cervical Degenerative Disk Disease in my neck. I began feeling horrible chronic arthritis pain in my neck and constant tension. In 2005, I fell down a mailslide at work.

which worsened my existing injury, causing radiating pain down the entire right side of my body.

By 2009 I couldn't tolerate the stabbing pain anymore, so I underwent surgery. They didn't do a thorough job, so in 2010 I had the surgery redone.

Sadly, the second surgery made me 100 % worse, leaving both of my arms feelings inflated with air all the time. The agonizing toothache-like neck pain, in the bony area in back, has been intolerable since 2004, and is just as bad in 2025 as it was in 2004. I have had zero relief.

To make matters much worse, although their are pain medications available to help me cope, because of the epidemic of recreational drug abuse across the United States, legitimate pain sufferers like me are denied enough pain medication. I am now being prescribed what is called BID (Basic Initial Dosage) which is a joke and a crime in God's eyes. I suffer horribly without proper pain medications. I only get 40 mg a day of Oxycontin. On Guam I used to get 140 mg a day. I need at least 80 mg a day to cope, but the doctors are afraid of Uncle Sam. I really hate our ungodly federal government's cruelty and incompetence! God hears the cry!

God Uses My Pain For His Purpose And Glory

That being said, it is not easy for me to continue being kicked out of churches. It's bad enough that I suffer in chronic pain with inadequate pain medications every day of my life. But then I have to fight with church pastors who refuse to leave the Gospel alone. They feel compelled to do the Holy Spirit's job, trying to coerce people to forsake their sinning to be saved. Folks, that is human reformation, not Bible repentance unto life. The correct way is for God to save you by faith alone in Christ alone; and then the gift of the indwelling Holy Spirit will work to change you, as you grow in the milk of the Word (1st Peter 2:2).

John Bunyan said it best, I humbly think...

We must always keep SERVICE (Romans 12:1) separate from SALVATION (Galatians 3:26). One thing has nothing to do with the other. If we fail to separate the two, we will have what is commonly known as: LORDSHIP SALVATION. Service is by works; salvation is by grace. If you mix and combine works with grace, you will be guilty of preaching the Devil's falsehood of Lordship Salvation. When you tell someone to "

repent of their sins

to be saved, you are preaching the heresy of Lordship Salvation.

I believe that God has allowed me to suffer in chronic neck pain and tension to keep me humble, and it sure has over the years. This is my thorn in the flesh. I am miserable in my constant physical pain. People don't care. We are all selfish by nature from birth. It's impossible for others to understand how my pain affects me from day to day. Since the pain is in my neck, right next to my head, as you can imagine my bodily afflictions irritate, frustrate and aggravate me continually.

Like a child pulling relentlessly on a parent's garment while they are trying to talk to another person, that is how my constant pain irritates me when I talk with people, making it very awkward and frustrating to get through a single day normally. I have often closed my eyes while talking with people, due to my neck pain, because it helps me to stay focused. The pain radiates into my face, particular my gums. When the pain is at its worst, I feel a sharp pain behind my right eye. Doctors cannot explain why this happens. I am not complaining. I have seen many people much worse off than me, so I count my many blessings from God.

Right Doctrine Matters

Dear friend, it matters what we teach and preach. Jesus warned in Matthew 12:36 that in eternity we will all be held fully accountable for our words, even our idle words. Pastor Brad even reiterated this Bible truth to me and my wife in his office on April 30th, 2025. The pastor doesn't realize that he indicted himself. Matthew 12:37, "

For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

" Ouch! When I read that warning from the Lord, I shudder to think how much we are all in a heap of trouble! There's not a human being in existence who hasn't condemned them self with their own words. I know I have at times, and so has Pastor Brad. He is wrong on repentance!

God knows that I do not hate anybody. I became a born again believer at age 13, and I have felt the sweet presence of God's indwelling Holy Spirit ever since. God is love. Those who know God are loving people. I love everyone, which is why I preach THE TRUTH. Those unloving pastors, in their unloving churches, are not right with God. Not even close! We need a revival of right doctrine in our churches today, without which people will continue to go to Hell.

There is a certain particular MINDSET that you must have to be bon again. The moment that you add the slightest bit of human effort to God's grace, you have perverted the Gospel and cannot be saved. There are not versions or variations of God's simple plan of salvation. The only reason why I know I'm going to Heaven someday is because at age 13, I knew I was a needy guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20). I trusted Jesus as my personal Savior, who is the only begotten Son of God, the Christ (John 20:31). I am trusting Jesus because He died on a cross to pay for my sins. He was buried. Then, three days later Jesus physically resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). That is all I am trusting in to get me to Heaven.

Contrawise, I didn't repent of my sins. I didn't turn away from my sinning. I didn't forsake the world. I wasn't willing to turn from my sins. I didn't decide to follow Jesus. I didn't turn from my self-willed ways. I didn't ask Jesus into my heart. I didn't get water baptized. I didn't confess Christ publicly. I didn't turn from my wicked ways. I didn't turn over a new leaf. I didn't receive Jesus as the "

Lord

of my life to be saved. I took Him as my Savior!

When He raised up from the dead, Jesus ascended into Heaven as my High Priest (Romans 8:34; Hebrews 4:14-16). When I got saved, God gave me the gift of His indwelling Holy Spirit. That blessed Holy Spirit has been convicting and working on me since the moment I got saved 45 years ago! So, it wasn't me repenting of my sins that changed my behavior, it was God's indwelling Holy Spirit working to sanctify me with the inspired Word of God (John 17:17).

God knows my heart. I do not intend to be mean or unkind, but it matters what we believe. It matters what we teach and preach to others. You cannot show me any place in the inspired King James Bible (all modern Bible versions are corrupt), where it says to "

Repent of your sins

to be saved. Pastor Brad Moffett and his wicked father

“Bobby Boy” Moffett need to repent of their wrong repentance. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

6.6.30 Family Baptist Church Take God’s Name In Vain (2025-06-29 07:36)

Deuteronomy 5:11, “Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.”

Most people have the shallow concept that the only way someone can take God’s name in vain is by swearing with the Lord’s name. But there is so much more to it than that. A wicked hypocrite for a pastor (in my humble opinion), “Bobby Boy” Moffett, at the shameful Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, recently condemned and falsely accused me of taking God’s name in vain, when he read on my ministry website where I called them:

God damned

reprobates at Bob Jones University and Pensacola Christian College for preaching the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation. Does not the inspired Holy Bible pronounce a curse upon anyone, even an angel, who preaches another Gospel? Yes, absolutely, in Galatians 1:6-9! So, I am not the one taking God's name in vain.

To be damned refers to more than just going to Hell. It can also mean that you are in serious trouble with the Lord (Romans 14:23). I don't choose my vocabulary based on our heathen American culture, nor people's shallow understanding of biblical terms. I am using the term "God damned" appropriately as a fundamentalist Bible preacher. I am not a superstitious person, like so many are today. Some people freak out in when I use the term

"God damned" in my Bible preaching, but they are just being judgmental Pharisaical hypocrites.

Now let me hit the ball home for a Grand Slam! The bad pastors at the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, and the ungodly incompetent pastors at Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC)—they all take God's name in vain every time they pervert God's simple plan of salvation by requiring lost people to

Repent of your sins

to get to Heaven. In their official Statement of Faith, Family Baptist Church in Pensacola requires that you first "Repent of your sins" to get to Heaven. That is taking God's name in vain.

You cannot show me anywhere in the inspired King James Bible where it says to turn from your sinful bad habits, nor to repent of your sins, to be saved. Wicked false prophets added those words. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 30:5-6,

"Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar. "

I triple-dog dare anyone to show me from an inspired King James Bible, where it teaches to "

repent of your sins

to be saved.

Family Baptist Church In Pensacola Is Guilty Of Bidding Godspeed to Evil Doers

The wicked Family Baptist Church (FBC) in Pensacola is supportive of PCC. The college sends workers to FBC to help during their annual revival. FBC sends their impressionable teenagers to participate in sports at PCC. In my humble opinion, it is very wrong! FBC wickedly bids Godspeed to PCC and in so doing is a partaker of their evil deeds.

2nd John 1:11, " For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." The problem is that I pay close attention to the little things, the details, that 99 % of preachers today don't care about and ignore. Little things such as the correct meaning of Bible repentance (which is really a big thing to God). Right doctrine matters!

PCC's ungodly Campus Church uses, and mails out, their booklet. They mailed it throughout the city of Pensacola ([1]they mailed one to my mailbox in 2023). The booklet is theologically toxic! When I read PCC's counterfeit plan of salvation, I felt sick. What I am about to show you is straight from Satan dear reader:

John & Romans

> "REPENTANCE — Now is the time to turn from your sin and embrace God. The act of turning away from sin is called 'repentance.' This word implies an inward decision to follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins. It means changing your mind about sin and seeing it as something that grieves God. The Bible says that God patiently waits for all people to make this decision." [emphasis added]

Do you still think I bumped my head? This is the evil doctrine of devils that Family Baptist Church in Pensacola supports, and refuses to expose, because this is the same garbage that they teach. I

've been [2]exposing the cult at Bob Jones University (BJU) since 2014, and now I have been exposing the cult at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) since 2021. By God's grace, I will continue to expose these wicked organizations.

I thank God for the New IFB (New Independent Fundamental Baptist) movement in the United States. People can criticize Pastor Steven Anderson all they want, at least I know I can trust him to get the inspiration of the King James Bible right, and a free grace Gospel right. Pastor Anderson admirably [3]exposes the Devil's rotten Bible versions, whereas PCC wickedly bids Godspeed to the toxic Bob Jones cult and their multiple corrupt Bible revisions. Pastor Anderson rightly preaches the truth about '[4]Repentance & Salvation.'

I feel sick! Family Baptist Church in Pensacola are in bed committing spiritual whoredom with the cult at PCC, who are aggressively spreading their damnable heresy throughout Pensacola, mailing spiritual poison to people's mailboxes. With neighbour's like Campus Church at PCC, who needs an enemy like the Devil? PCC has much blood on their hands!

Dear friend, nowhere in the inspired King James Bible does it teach that you must repent "of your sin" or "turn from your sin" to get to Heaven. Yet, PCC and their Campus Church arrogantly have changed God's simple plan of salvation, perverting Bible repentance to mean, "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins." Oh my! That is the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation!!!

Shame on Campus Church and PCC! My accurate Bible preaching against PCC's apostasy will be vindicated. Campus Church mailed ammunition to my home mailbox, revealing their underbelly so that by God's grace I can further expose their dangerous religious cult at PCC. [5]I wrote this article to help teach people what true Bible repentance is. Dear reader, you cannot be born-again if you place your trust in a counterfeit Gospel.

What Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, and Pensacola Christian College with their pathetic Campus Church, are preaching is another gospel ; not the free grace of God, which is without works.

As I read further in PCC's rotten plan of salvation, just like the pseudo-Christian cults (Mormons, Roman Catholics, Seventh-Day Adventists, et cetera), they speak out of both sides of their mouth—claiming that salvation is free and by grace, yet at the same time requiring you to "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins."

To make matters even worse, on page 62 of the "John & Romans" booklet, Campus Church tells the reader that to be saved, you must make a mental check requiring the reader to agree to:

> "I repent of my sins. I realize that sin is something that God hates and I no longer want to hold onto sinful bad habits*." [emphasis added]
>

Oh My! Folks, this is NOT part of the Gospel which the Apostle Paul preached in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4...

> 1st Corinthians15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

There you have it! The "Gospel" is the "GOOD NEWS" that Jesus Christ DIED on a cross for our sins, He was BURIED and after three days He physically RESURRECTED from the dead. In Paul's Gospel (which Paul said he received directly from Jesus in Galatians 1:12), did you see anything that reads: "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins"? No, that is not what Paul taught. So why is the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola teaching this same ungodly filth? Why are PCC and their Campus Church preaching and promoting this filth? WOE UNTO THESE REPROBATES!!!

Pastor's Wives Blaspheme God's Word By Wearing Pants

The inspired Holy Bible teaches that a Christian woman who dresses immodestly is BLASPHEMING the Word of God. Titus 2:5, "To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed." I will go to seed in this matter of women wearing their sexy pants in public.

The pants are not the problem, it's the revealing of the shape of the thighs and the buttocks.

If Christian ladies had any idea of what it does to a man's mind when they wear pants, they would fall on their knees and beg God to forgive them. Either that, or they are evil and don't care, which is even worse. Pastor Brad Moffett said that when he walks in the Spirit, he doesn't feel tempted to lust when he sees a woman wearing pants. We'll, then Brad needs to go see a doctor, because something is wrong with him. When I see an attractive female wearing pants, the last thing on my mind is John 3:16 or the song

Amazing Grace.

I don’t have a dirty mind, I have a man’s mind.

In his office on April 30th, 2025, Pastor Brad falsely accused me and Pastor Jack Hyles of having carnal minds for making the statement:

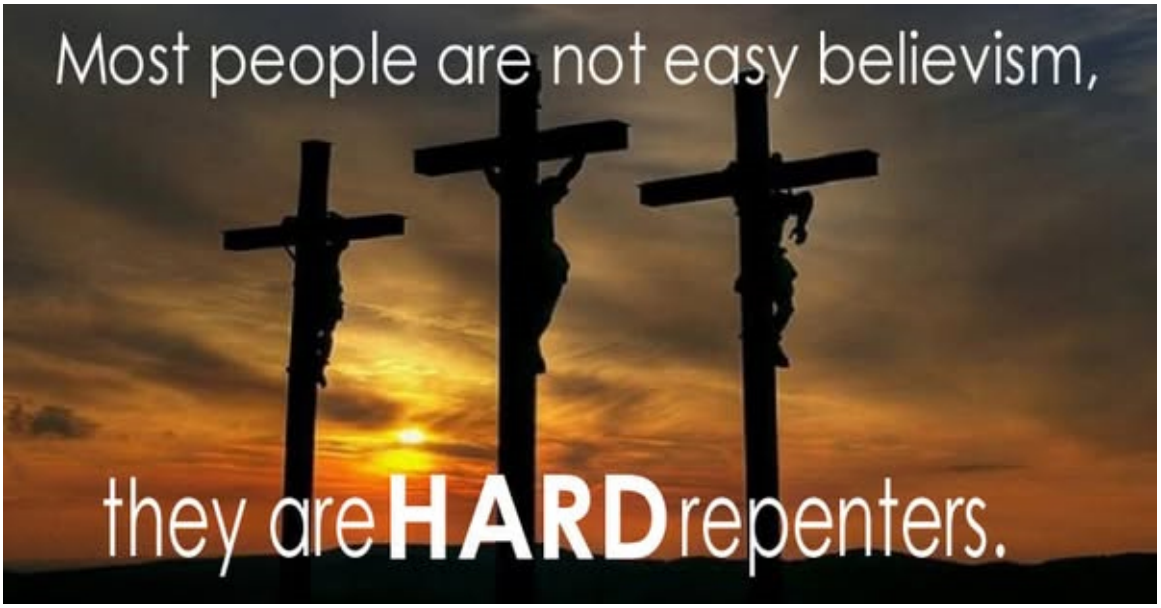
I don’t have a dirty mind, I have a man’s mind. Brad is being dishonest. He is henpecked by his wife (in my humble opinion), so he refuses to tell the truth that men are aroused by sight, which any professional doctor, biologist, psychologist or expert will confirm. If you as a man can see an attractive young woman bending over in a pair of pants, and you don’t feel tempted to lust, you are abnormal my friend.

Humbly said, SHAME on any pastor’s wife who wears and encourages other girls and women in the church to wear immodest clothing. We need a revival of morality in our churches! Why do they even have an annual revival at Family Baptist Church in Pensacola if they do not want to live right? Modesty matters according to 1st Timothy 2:9. God knows that I am speaking as a friend. A friend helps a friend to see, which is what I am doing. I know they don’t see it that way, but thankfully God does, and that’s all that truly matters.

Shame on any professed Christian woman who wears pants, halter tops, Spandex, shorts or other forms of immodest clothing. Why not wear dresses, lengthy skirts at least 6 inches below the knee, culottes, skirts or skorts? Call me what you will, I am not just being old fashioned, I am right! MODESTY MATTERS!!!

They have perverted the Words of the Living God, turning good into evil, and doing it all in God’s name, which is truly TAKING GOD’S NAME IN VAIN. I am not the one taking the dear LORD’S name in vain—the wicked incompetent pastors of the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, and Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College—are taking the Lord’s name in vain by preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL. THOU SHALT NOT TAKE THE NAME OF THE LORD IN VAIN!!!

That being said, God knows that I love the folks at PCC and FBC. I am bound Scripturally as a preacher of the Gospel to TELL THE TRUTH. If you want to find a big sinner, you need look no further, you’ve found the biggest sinner in town right here! I don’t claim to be a good Christian, but I sure want to be by God’s grace. The Lord is still working on me, to make me what He wants me to be. I’m a diamond in the rough for sure.



Furthermore, I don’t believe there is any such thing as a “ good Christian.

We are all struggling sinners, which is the very reason why I humbly believe no one should ever be kicked out of a church! Everybody deserves another chance. When churches kick people out the door, they are taking God’s name in vain in my humble opinion.

Thank you for reading. Jesus is precious!!!

6.7.1 A Changed Life Is Not The Gospel (2025-07-01 05:56)

Ephesians 2:8-9, “

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.”

There are many false prophet pastors today, who are horribly teaching that if you are really saved you’re behavior will change. That is totally unbiblical as far as knowing you are saved. Eternal life is a free gift from God the Bible says (Romans 5:15-18). It is free to you and me because Jesus, the Christ, the only biological (begotten) Son of God paid for it.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

6.7.2 May America Bless God (2025-07-01 15:47)

Psalms 33:12, “Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD: and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

I and my wife were driving home yesterday and I noticed a sign by the local Church of Christ (a false religion by the way. They teach the heresy of Baptismal Regeneration). But their sign is awesome! The sign read: “

May America bless God.

” What a great message! We always see and hear,

“God bless America!” But dear reader, it is high time for AMERICA TO BLESS GOD!!!

Even before 1973 when Roe vs. Wade was passed into law, millions of innocent human babies were being brutally murdered by abortion in the womb. In [1]1971 abortion was only legal in 6 states. At that time in 1971 abortion was legal in New York. Sadly, 84 % of all abortions were performed in the state of New York. Women traveled from around the country to New York to have their child in the womb murdered. And of course, in 1973 our Satan-inspired U.S. Supreme Court committed the ultimate crime against God and humanity, legalizing abortion nationwide.

Since then over 63,000,000 human lives have been butchered in the womb, as babies’ brains are cracked open and sucked out with a vacuum 39 times more powerful than a household vacuum. After 49 years, Roe vs. Wade was finally overturned in April of 2022, but it hasn’t made a difference, abortions are still happening the same as before...

> The latest report from the #WeCount project of the Society of Family Planning, which supports abortion access, found there were about 1.14 million abortions provided by licensed clinicians across the U.S. in 2024, compared with 1.06 million in 2023.
> [2]Abortions Continued Rising In 2024 Despite State Bans

That is so sad and tragic! We do not bless God in America, we wickedly spit on God! All manner of excuses have been made to justify all manner of evil. Everywhere we go we see women wearing pants, halter tops, Spandex, miniskirts and other immodest clothing. Although you will no doubt disagree with the fundamentalist preacher, there is a strong correlation between the way that women dress in public and their sexual behavior. That is not to say that every woman who wears pants is sexually immoral. I am not saying that. I am saying that a society’s overall attitude toward women’s clothing is very much associated with their behavior.

You would be foolish to deny that the sexual revolution of the 1960’s and beyond was not largely impacted by the creation of the demonic miniskirt in 1964. Immodestly clothed women encourage sexually promiscuous behavior! If you don’t believe it, then [3]listen to Chingy!!! Women wearing pants is synonymous with our culture of fornication and adultery. The reason why is because a godly woman who values chastity, virtue and modesty fully understands what immodest attire does to tempt a man. My wife has never wore anything other than full-length dresses, and you won’t find a woman who loves Jesus more than she does.

In sharp contrast, when a pastor's wife wears pants she is shamefully lowering the bar of morality in a church, inviting immodest attire into the congregation. The Bible speaks of " the attire of an harlot

in Proverbs 7:10. So, there is certain clothing that a female can wear that makes her appear to others as being a whore. According to Isaiah 47:1-3 the attire of a harlot is anything that exposes her thighs and buttocks. That absolutely includes a snug pair of pants!

When are we going to bless God in America? When our pastor's wives are wearing and promoting the world's immodest clothing, wearing sexy pants, what hope is there for the heathen world? Judgment will begin with the House of God!

1st Peter 4:17, "For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?" Very few professed believers seem to take any regard for this truth. We all must give account to God in eternity.

May God bless America! Most people fail to realize just how wicked American culture has become. Women wearing pants is very wrong! Everywhere we go today, all we see is seductive advertising. The internet is plagued with filthy indecent photos. YouTube, TikTok and Rumble are full of soft porn. They all promote the sleazy dating websites which all contain females wearing the attire of an harlot. It's bad enough that we are bombarded with the attire of an harlot everywhere we go today, but then we see pastor's wives wearing tight pants at the church picnic. It is wicked! You cannot walk around in any shopping mall anymore without seeing lewd women in store front advertisements. It is wickedness!

Everywhere we go today we see covetousness and corporate greed. From the greedy pharmaceutical companies to the corrupt food companies that put toxic chemicals in our food, the United States has gone to ruin. When I was a kid, you didn't pay gratuity in a restaurant unless there were 6 or more people, but now they charge you an additional 10 % even if an individual takes his food to go. Chili's did that to me!

I hope President Trump can turn some of this insanity around, but due to his four year limitation of power I seriously doubt if our country will ever be made great again. Furthermore, no nation can ever become "great" that refuses to be godly.

It is tragic that in over 95 % of Baptist churches today, their Statement of Faith requires that you "Repent of your sins" to get to Heaven. The demonic religious cult at [4]Pensacola Christian College in Florida requires that to get to Heaven you must first make "an inward decision to follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins" and that you " no longer want to hold onto sinful bad habits in my life

" (those are exact quotes from [5]PCC's Campus Church). I triple-dog dare you to show me that trash from an inspired King James Bible. You'll only find that garbage in one of Satan's corrupt modern perversions of the Bible! Our churches are in trouble folks!

The next ungodly incompetent Democrat U.S. President will destroy this country! All of the Satanic DEI (diversity, equality, inclusion) crap will be brought back with a vengeance. The southern border will be reopened for millions more illegals to flood back into the country. Nearly everything good that President Trump accomplishes will be undone. I sure hope that I am very wrong, but after seeing the trail of massive damage that Joe Biden caused, there's nothing to keep it from happening in the future, and it will be even worse!!!

A rising tide lifts all ships! If America will ever be saved, it can only happen through the churches repenting toward God of their slumber. Since everything rises and falls on leadership, that means the only hope for America is if our pastors start preaching the truth again. I am so disgusted with Baptist pastors today! Pastors have destroyed God's vineyard. Most churches today are just spiritually dead social clubs and fun centers.

I attended the spiritually dead Family Baptist Church in Pensacola for 45 months (2021-2025). At the time in 2021 it was the only local church that I could find. PCC's Campus Church kicked me out for exposing their heresy of Lordship Salvation. I stayed quite at Family Baptist Church because I needed a place to attend church, and I never told the pastor how to run his church, while I watched him and his abusive clown for a father run it into the ground. Not once did their shameful pastor ever preach against sin. Their so-called "church" (social club) has no door to door soulwinning. No wonder they haven't grown in 12 years since they started their social club. What incompetent fools! I thank God that I never officially joined that mess!

The pastor of Family Baptist Church refuses to expose error, refuses to contend for the faith, and refuses to call false prophets by name. Even worse, I have heard him wickedly praise John Calvin, Franklin Graham and John Piper—all damnable Lordship Salvation false prophets! Pastor Brad Moffett has much blood upon his wicked hands, as does his arrogant wicked father. It is true that any fool can start a fake church, where men and not God run the place.

It was because the pastor's wife wanted to wear the attire of an harlot in public that we were kicked out of their church (social club). The wicked pastor's wife was offended by my truthful Bible preaching on social media against pants on women, which compelled her to force her henpecked husband (Pastor Brad Moffett) to rebuke me, which was a very foolish thing for him to do, because this preacher is not for sale! Woe unto that ungodly pastor's wife when she answers to God in eternity for her sinful worldly sexy attire. I firmly believe that it was the wicked Jezebel pastor's wife who compelled her henpecked husband to kick us out of their church (it's not God's church). Just like she compelled Brad to kick out Mr. Bobby, who lives across the street from their church. You can never be kicked out of a genuine New Testament church! God doesn't kick His children out of the family. Only manmade cults kick people out!!!

On April 30th, 2025, in his church office, Pastor Brad Moffett also wickedly slandered Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) to me and my wife, falsely accusing Dr. Hyles of causing hundreds of church families to go into sexual immorality, crime and divorce. Pastor Brad became our enemy right there! WOE UNTO THAT UNGODLY PASTOR! Brother Hyles is our hero of the Christian faith! Me and Alice were both saved at age 13 under Pastor Hyles' ministry. How dare some envious stupid fool for a pastor slander Dr. Jack Hyles!!! Pastor Brad Moffett is a damned liar, false prophet and wicked person. Proverbs 17:4, "A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue."

The United States will never become "Great Again" as long as the American people refuse to obey the holy God of the inspired King James Bible.

The United States will never become "Great Again" as long as wicked pastors are slandering godly preachers, refuse to go door to door soulwinning, refuse to contend for the faith, refuse to preach against sin, refuse to repent of their wrong repentance, refuse to love people with Christ's love, et cetera.

Tragically, over 95 % of Americans don't even have an inspired Holy Bible today, and the one's who do have a counterfeit perversion of God's Word, like the New International Version (NIV) and English Standard Version (ESV). Woe be unto the American people!!! We deserve God's judgment! I pray for God to damn America! We need to all stop singing the hypocritical song

“God Bless America” (I stopped singing that song 20 years ago), and start singing “May America Bless God.”

6.7.3 The Heart Of Christian Fundamentalism (2025-07-03 09:31)

Revelation 3:2, “ Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.”

I have a book in front of me titled: “

What Is A Fundamentalist?

by Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980). On page 5 Brother Rice states:

> “What is a fundamentalist? I have heard and read so many definitions in the last year that if I did not know, I would be confused. In the strictest sense, a fundamentalist is one who believes in the fundamentals of the Christian Faith.”

Yes, amen.

I became a born again Christian at age 13 in 1980. I was blessed to have been saved in an old fashioned Baptist church, and have continued to remain an Independent Fundamental Baptist all my life. Being “ doesn’t make me a Christian, but it is the set of religious beliefs (distinctives) that I choose to identify with. Independent Fundamental Baptists have historical come closest (in my humble opinion) to what the inspired Holy Bible teaches. I thank God that I am NOT a new evangelical.

A good illustration of biblical fundamentalism is a car. A “f is something that is essential. A car to operate must have an engine, a transmission and tires. There are many unnecessary options; such as, heated seats, tinted windows, radio, fog lights, plush interior seats, et cetera. In nearly everything you have fundamentals. In music you have the fundamentals of music. If you are a serious football player, then you know the fundamentals of football. In teaching you have the fundamentals of teaching. For the Bible preacher there are the fundamentals of preaching. Dr. Rice states on page 19...

> “Isn’t it strange that we refuse to sacrifice the fundamentals in music, speech, sports, and nearly everything else; but when it comes to Christianity, the fundamentals are being sacrificed. in every quarter! Religious institutions have been infiltrated by men who deny the virgin birth and scoff at a physical resurrection. Some, even in the more conservative denominations, do not believe in the inerrancy of Scripture. So far as I’m concerned, they are taking money under false pretense. They are accepting dollars from Bible-believing Christians who pay their salaries while they teach the next generation of preachers that the Bible is not the Word of God and Jesus is not the virgin born Son of God.”

At this point I think I should mention that there is a difference between Christian fundamentalism, versus the distinctives of the Independent Fundamental Baptist Movement in America. I will refer to this movement from hereafter with the acronym “IFB.”

Some of the distinctives of the IFB is that women ought not wear pants, halter tops, Spandex, bikinis, or other immodest clothing in public. A church and pastor who encourage women to wear pants is a new evangelical church, not IFB. In 1927 when they opened their doors, Bob Jones University (BJU) was an IFB college. Tragically, in 2018 their wicked president Steve Pettit (a hard core hellbound Lordship Salvation Calvinist) changed their long time rules, now permitting female students to wear pants and halter tops in public. SHAME on BJU!

In 2013, Moody Bible Institute (MBI) in Chicago [1]wickedly changed their century old ban against staff members gambling, drinking booze and smoking tobacco. One ungodly teacher at MBI said he was grateful that he could finally drink alcohol. What a shameful thing to say publicly! Those poor students! I wouldn't enroll a dog into Moody Bible Institute today!

Another distinctive of IFB churches is singing the old hymns of the Christian faith. Only worldly new evangelical churches sing the lame Contemporary Christian Music (CCM). I absolutely hate CCM and refuse to attend any church ever again that sings such crap. Pensacola Christian College sadly sings CCM nowadays to appease their worldly students. What many Baptist churches are sadly doing these days is singing a hybrid of old hymns and CCM songs, which shows that they are following the standards of the world afar off.

Remember, before Lot physically moved with his family to the wicked city of Sodom in Genesis 14:12, his heart was already there in Genesis 13:12 when he pitched the opening of his tent toward Sodom (so he could look toward Sodom from the door of his tent). Long before we go into sin, our heart is already there! That is why for many years now my favorite Bible verse has been Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life. "

So, there is biblical fundamentalism (i.e., the doctrinal fundamentals of the Christian faith), and then there are the distinctives of IFB churches. And you will find that these two things are VERY CLOSELY related. What do I mean? For example: In every church where they preach the Devil's falsehood of Lordship Salvation, there is no preaching against women wearing pants in public. There is definitely a close association between a church's doctrine and their moral standards.

I titled this blog article, "The Heart Of Christian Fundamentalism." I was thinking this morning about what it means to be a Christian fundamentalist and in my humble thinking it all boils down to HOW MUCH YOU CARE. We could talk for hours about this important subject, because there are so many issues to address: different Bible revisions, clothing types, music types, different plans of salvation, et cetera. Everyone simply cannot be right!

Sadly, in 99 % of Baptist churches today they are quick to show people the door, which is the opposite of God's love for people. I have been kicked out of a handful of rotten churches. They were doctrinally corrupted, growing bad fruit, diseased spiritually because of their infected pastors. There's not a more spoiled rotten, undeserving, arrogant, ungodly group in American than today's average knuckleheaded pastor.

The Devil's modern corrupt Bible revisions have infiltrated nearly every Bible college and church today, but the college administrators and pastors simply don't care. Well I do care! That is why I make a big fuss all the time! Ladies and gentlemen, if you don't have a KING JAMES BIBLE, you don't have an inspired Holy Bible in the English language! If your stupid pastor endorses the MEV, ESV, ERV, NIV, VOICE, NSAB, NKJV, MSG, NLT or any of the other perverse Satanic Bible version, you should fire him! YOU'RE FIRED!!!

And if you are attending a bad church that adds

repent of your sins

or

turn away from your sinful bad habits,

make Jesus the Lord of your life to be saved, you are in a religious CULT! You should immediately fire your incompetent pastor. YOU’RE FIRED!!! I’m talking about Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias at Pensacola Christian College.

YOU’RE FIRED!!!

I’m talking about Marty Herron at Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary (preacher’s cemetery) in Ankeny, Iowa.

YOU’RE FIRED!!!

I’m talking about Brad and Bobby Moffett at the shameful Family Baptist Church cult in Pensacola at 5454 W. Mobile Highway. YOU’RE FIRED!!! These false prophets have no business being in the clergy.

The opposite of Christian fundamentalism is apathy, indifference, ecumenism and just going along with the wrong crowd. Another good example of apostasy is the wicked CCM band Casting Crowns. [2]Casting Crowns performs at Roman Catholic events. A fundamentalist Christian refuses to support a Roman Catholic event! Over my dead body will you find me supporting a demonic Catholic event. Roman Catholicism is the biggest cult on the planet!

There an an estimated 1.6 billion Catholics throughout the world, who are all foolishly trusting in their Sacramental Salvation to get to Heaven. The Seven Sacraments are of the Devil. I said THE SEVEN SACRAMENTS ARE OF THE DEVIL!!! There’s no such thing as “ sacraments

in God’s Word. Wicked false prophets fabricated the lie of sacraments.

The heart of fundamentalism is to be different. God desires a peculiar people who are zealous to do good works. Titus 2:14, “

Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

” I preach a lot against the “repent of your sins” to get to Heaven damnable heresy, but please don’t misunderstand my Bible preaching dear reader. God saved us so that we wouldn’t live a worldly sinful life anymore. It is the desire of God the Father to conform every believer into His only begotten Son’s image of holiness, righteousness and love. God didn’t save you and me just so that we could have fire insurance! ’[3]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved’ (a helpful book by Pastor Jack Hyles).

A fundamentalist believer cares! A fundamentalist believer pays attention to the details. Right doctrine matters! It matters which Bible version that we use. And by the way, the King James Bible is not a mere version, it is the inspired Word of God; it is the inerrant and incorruptible Holy Bible.

A fundamentalist believer refuses to settle for mediocrity in one's convictions, standards, morals and beliefs. Every neo-evangelical that I have ever known simply didn't care, didn't pay attention to details, and were wicked compromisers merely following the herd.

6.7.4 I Don't Waste My Time Praying For Deadbeat Pastors (2025-07-05 15:48)

James 5:16, "Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much."

I don't waste my time praying for deadbeat pastors, except that God would persecute them to pull their head out of their rear. The average pastor today has his head stuff so far up his rear that a search party couldn't find it! My only prayer for the Jeff Redlins, Marty Herrons, Brad Moffetts and Bill Adams of this world is that those pastors get their heads out of the rears.

When I pray, I spend my time praying for truth-tellers like Pastor Steven Anderson. He's not a perfect preacher, but I love the guy! Brother Anderson is a fighter! He says it like it is, which is so rare these days. If you knew what that dear man has suffered through, and his family, because of his courageous faithful stand for truth and righteousness, you'd be shocked. I am going to stand with the guy who is standing.

When I attended Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) in 2021 for a few months, I was told by a long time 23 year staff member (he was 43 years old) that PCC leadership HATES Steven Anderson. I was disappointed to hear that, but it didn't surprise me that a wicked neo-evangelical, dead, religious college would despise a truth-telling preacher like Pastor Anderson. By the way, they hate me too at PCC. I was banned in writing on August 2, 2022 from attending their Campus Church and we've been bitter enemies since. I speak to their wicked and utter shame!!! By God's grace I will continue to expose THE CULT at PCC and [1]their damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation!

I also don't give money to local panhandlers. As of January 2024, it is [2]now a crime in Pensacola to give money from a car window to panhandlers. I won't break the law! Yet, panhandling is still an epidemic problem in Pensacola. You'll see panhandlers begging for money at nearly every major intersection. Me and my wife saw a guy yesterday with a big beach umbrella, sitting underneath in a beach chair, at the corner of Fairfield and W Street panhandling. It's ridiculous!

I give money to working people at local businesses. I sometimes hand $5 to window workers at Arby's, Burger King and other local restaurants. They are actually working to make a living, which I respect. I like to reward them and brighten their day. I see hundreds of local business hiring, and there is no reason why panhandlers cannot apply for a job. They just don't want to work. They are angry at the system because people simply cannot survive nowadays on $13 an hour (which is the minimum wage in Pensacola). Many of the panhandlers I see are healthy young guys in their twenties and thirties. That is ridiculous! I won't help enable them.

I read recently that 4 out of 10 people in Denver give money to panhandlers. No wonder the problem is only getting worse. You better believe that they make more money panhandling (tax free) than they do working a 9 to 5 job.

I don't support President Trump's Zionist aspirations and his total disregard for the brutal murder of over 46,000 Palestinians in Gaza, nor do I support his ungodly backing of Israeli war criminal Benjamin Netanyahu (hell is moved to meet him at his coming). That being said, Mr. Trump is unquestionably the best U.S. President I've seen during my 58 years of life. I love the things that President Trump is doing to help the American people. Mr. Trump rehired and gave 4 years of backpay to all the U.S. soldiers who were fired in 2020 for refusing to take the potentially lethal COVID-19 vaccine. I say amen and amen!

President Trump yesterday announced that he will force greedy U.S. pharmaceutical companies to drastically lower their prices, so that Americans won't pay more than the lowest price charged in other countries. For example: Previously you can buy Mounjaro drug pens in Germany for $120, but in America it will cost you $1,300 a month. From now on Americans will pay $120 a month. I sure hope Mr. Trump's new policy becomes law! I love it!!!

I also heard in the news yesterday that 6 of the 9 members of the U.S. Supreme Court have limited the powers of the arrogant lower court judges who keep blocking President Trump's Executive Orders. That was awesome news!!! That was a great victory for President Trump's team! I have never prayed for a U.S. President as much as I pray for Mr. Trump. We need him! I pray for the guy whose making a difference, not for scumbag criminals like Joe Biden, who should be rotting in a prison for treason.

I give money to people who are working for a living, not the street bum who refuses to labor. I pray for the pastor who is sticking his neck out, making enemies by preaching the unpopular truth. I refuse to pray for the Slackard who couldn't care less about right doctrine, contending for the faith, or exposing the Devil's false bibles. My time is valuable to me! I won't waste it praying that the sun will rise in the east tomorrow, or that the moon won't crash into the earth. So many people are time wasters!

I do believe that God answers prayer. It is a matter of faith. I hear so many Christians tell me that God doesn't answer their prayers. I admit that I feel the same most of the time. But I refuse to stop praying to our faithful God (1st Corinthians 1:9). I refuse to stop praying to our good God (Psalms 145:9). But I pray for people and things that matter! I pray for the pastors who are preaching the truth, aggressive soulwinning and making an impact for God.

I don’t pray for neo-evangelical losers who are merely playing church, running the work of Christ into the ground, just going through the motions from week to week to get paid. My only short prayer for them is that God break their stiffed necks. I’m in the ministry for the OUTCOME, not for the INCOME! I’ve never taken a single penny for all my labors for Christ and I never will. I do what I do by God’s grace because I love Jesus, truth, people and righteousness. I am the Lord’s servant.

We are living in perilous times (2nd Timothy 3:1-7). Saints today need to pray earnestly. I sure need and humbly ask for your sincere prayers, whenever you pray. You don’t need to bow your head dear reader. You don’t need to lay prostrate on your floor. Simple talk to the dear Lord as you would to any friend or family member, but with due reverence. I heard an uplifting sermon the other day by Pastor Jack Hyles titled, “[3]Christ Died For God,” in which he says that God made mankind because He was lonely. I wholeheartedly agree. God wanted to be loved. God created me and you in His image, so that we also desire to be loved.

[4]Like Brother Hyles (excerpt from the preceding sermon), I am a mean preacher, but I still want to be loved. I don’t like to offend and upset people. I don’t like that I keep getting kicked out of churches. But I love God first and foremost, and I must stand for truth and what is right, even if it makes me enemies. I [5]just got kicked out of another church, this time it was the [6]shameful Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, whose incompetent neo-evangelical pastors are wickedly doing things their own way instead of God’s way. They drew first blood. I must expose them for the lying fools that they are, because they are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. My only prayer for them is that God bring down the house upon their wicked heads. TRUTH MATTERS!

Our great God sees and knows everything! Nothing escapes the sight of almighty God. The Lord sees every little bird that falls from the sky. He knows the exact number of hairs upon our head. God knows what you and I will think and do tomorrow, and a year from now, if we are still alive on earth. God sees the future that we cannot see. Please keep this important truth in mind when you pray, trusting that the Bible is true in 1st Peter 5:7 when it says that God cares about you and me. God does care! We must believe that friend, regardless of what happens, because God cannot lie (Titus 1:2).

Have a good day.

6.7.5 We Need More Christians Like Tom In This World (2025-07-07 10:19)

Jude 1:3, "

Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

I had attended the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola for 45 months, from 2021 to 2025, until they kicked me and my wife out. You can [1]read the details of what happened here if you’d like.

While attending their church, there was a man named Tom at the church in 2021 when I began attending in October. Since me and Tom are both King James Bible only men, and truth-telling contenders of the Christian faith, we became instant friends. Me and Tom used to love talking about the Word of God. We often spoke about the corrupt modern Bible revisions, and shared many truths with one another. I really appreciate Tom’s extensive Bible knowledge.

One day Tom kindly confronted Pastor Brad Moffett at Family Baptist Church. Tom told him that as the pastor he should be warning people about Satan’s corrupt Bibles. Now, in fairness to Pastor Brad, I don’t know the whole story. Tom’s story is quite different from Pastor Brad’s story. Tom says that Brad didn’t have much patience with him and kicked him out. According to Pastor Brad, he and Tom exchanged 128 emails before Brad made the ultimate decision to kick Tom out of the church family. The local church that someone attends is their spiritual family in the Lord.

For the record, I am unalterably opposed to ever kicking anyone out of a church. No one has a right to kick someone out of their family in Christ. I cannot find a single passage of Scripture that says to throw someone out of a church. You may count someone who refuses to be reasoned with as “ a heathen man and a publican,

if they are truly in the wrong (Matthew 18:15-17), but the Bible doesn’t say to kick them out the door.

No one should ever be kicked out of their family.

Now, in the case of Tom, I take Tom’s side in this dispute with Family Baptist Church. In the 45 months that I attended their church, not once did I ever hear Pastor Brad warn anyone in his congregation about the modern corrupt Bible revisions. I have a right to my own opinion, and in my opinion any pastor who fails to warn God’s flock (it’s not the pastor’s flock) about Satan’s corrupt Bible perversions is an incompetent pastor. That is my honest humble opinion.

What bothers me about the feud between Tom and Pastor Brad is that Tom is in the right. Pastor Brad should be warning people about the Devil’s false bibles, but he refuses to do so. I and my wife met with Pastor Brad on April 30th, 2025, for what we thought would be marriage counseling. Sadly, the pastor did a Bait & Switch on us, and instead chose to use that time to censure my website ministry, making a big fuss over my Bible preaching against women wearing pants, because his own wife and mother wear pants (which he mentioned in his office). That conversation should never have taken place!

If you listen to Pastor Brad discuss why he kicked Tom out of Family Baptist Church, he’ll portray Tom as an unreasonable and difficult man who refused to let the matter go. And in part, Brad would be right. Tom is stubborn, just like me and God. You see, Tom knew that he was right. And Tom is right! But instead of recognizing Tom’s stubbornness to fight the good fight of faith (2nd Timothy 4:7) as a good thing, Pastor Brad chose to silence Tom by kicking him out of the church. Unfortunately for Pastor Brad and Family Baptist Church, kicking a truth-teller out the door doesn't remove the underlying fact that Tom was telling THE TRUTH all along. They cannot silence God.

What Pastor Brad should have done is respect and honor Tom for contending for the faith. A pastor doesn't know everything.

Tom is 85 years old, born in 1939. I was born in 1967. Pastor Brad Moffett was born in 1987. Tom is 48 years older than Brad! I humbly think that Tom deserves much more respect from Family Baptist Church than he was shown! The pastor could have simply blocked Tom's emails and stopped debating. I never once saw or heard Tom disrupt the church service in any way. As I mentioned, I don't know the whole story, but I do know that Tom was absolutely right to tell Pastor Brad that he has a duty as a Watchman to warn people about corrupt Bible revisions. Pastor Jack Hyles was right, the most important job is the one that doesn't get done!

In 2022, I heard Pastor Brad say from his pulpit that to get to Heaven you must repent. He said that repentance means to turn away from your past sinful life. I cringed in my chair, knowing that the pastor was teaching damnable heresy. Although it is true that one must repent to be saved, [2]repentance does not mean to forsake a lifestyle of sinning. So, I bought him a hard copy for $17 of Michael P. Bowen's helpful book in defense of a free grace Gospel, titled:

" (free .pdf version).

I personally handed the book to Pastor Brad after a Sunday morning service and he graciously accepted it.

The book very plainly exposes the Satanic lie of having to

repent of your sins

to be saved. I never asked the pastor if he read the book, nor did I ever ask him what he thought about it, because I didn't want to push the issue. I liked the church family and didn't want to risk being shown the door. Unfortunately, as of 2025 the church's official Statement of Faith still says that you must "Repent of your sins" to get to Heaven. Evidently Pastor Brad either didn't read the book I handed to him in 2022, or his unpleasant arrogant father controls the church, or else Brad simply doesn't agree with the truth. Turning from your sins is NOT a part of God's simple plan of salvation. Christ died on a cross to pay our debt of sins.

During the conversation, Pastor Brad wanted to share with me and Alice his position on the Bible. Brad kindly said he doesn't think we have a perfect, inspired, Bible today. He does NOT think that the King James Bible is perfect nor inspired. He also made it clear to us that he is NOT King James Bible only, even though the church officially uses the King James Bible. I put him on the spot, by asking him which of the modern Bible versions does he consider okay to use. He specifically mentioned the [4]Modern English Version (MEV) as one that he sanctions. Well, take a look at [5]how corrupt the MEV is!

Truly a picture is worth a thousand words! ...

Would you like to know what the Modern English Version (MEV) reads? I thought you would...

> MODERN ENGLISH VERSION (MEV) - Zachariah 13:6, "If someone asks, 'What are these wounds on your arms?' he will say, 'I was struck in the house of my close friends."'

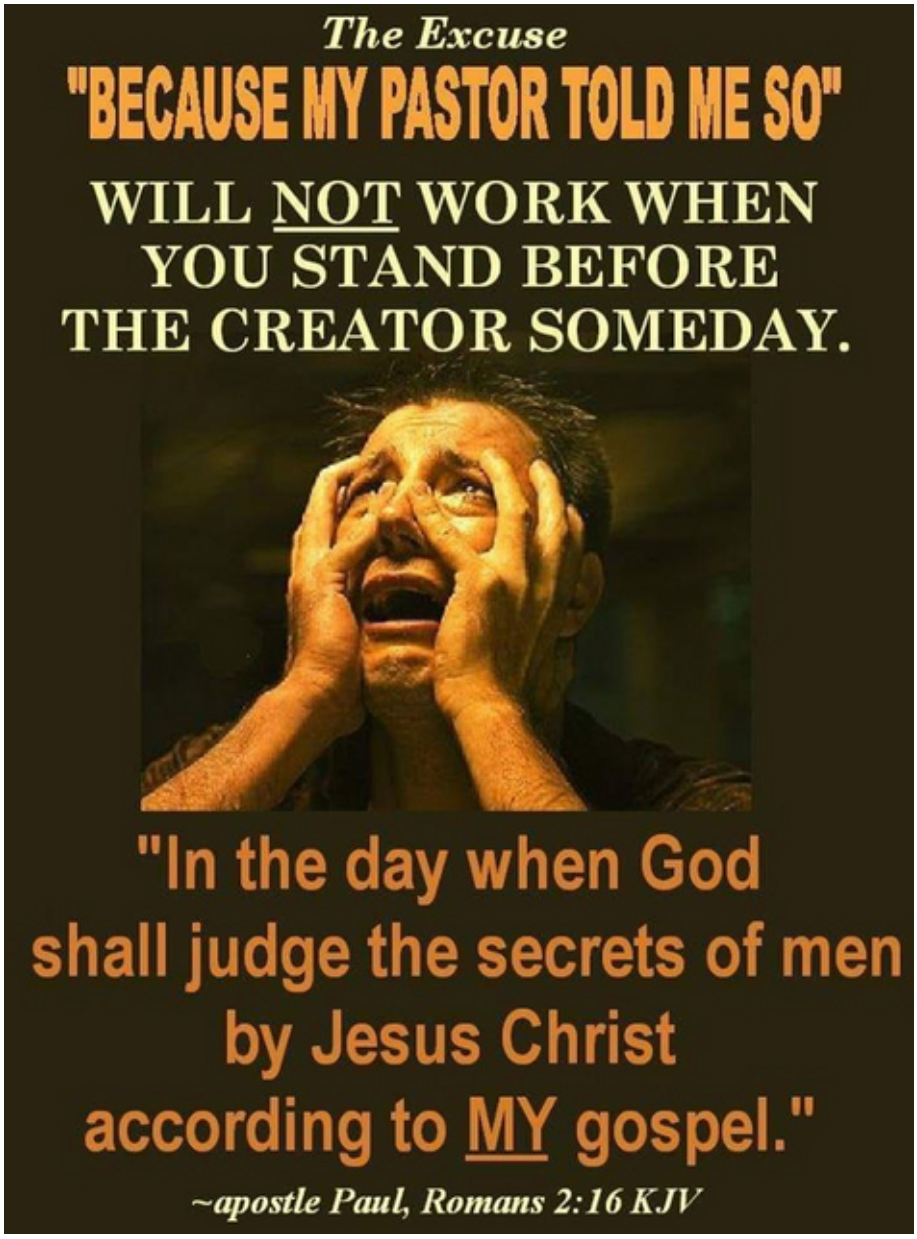
Arms? Good night man! The King James Bible correctly reads, " hands.

" Do you see dear reader how Satan has deliberately used legal copyright laws and greed to corrupt the inspired Word of God? The Devil is a beautiful liar!

Again, in my opinion this makes Brad Moffett an incompetent pastor. He's a nice guy on a personal level, but a lousy pastor in my humble opinion. If you don't have a King James Bible, you don't have an inspired Holy Bible. I believe that we DO have a perfect inspired King James Bible today! All of the modern Bible revisions are corrupt. If Brad would simply listen to the wise men whom God has sent his way to help him, he could become a great pastor!

There is no weekly door to door soulwinning at Family Baptist Church. That is one of the reasons why the church is mostly empty, and hasn't grown in its 12 year history. The church is languishing in mediocrity, just the way they like it.



Jeremiah 5:31, " The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?" Wow, what an indictment! Their pastors are doing things their own way instead of God's way. God's method of church building is publicly, house to house, soulwinning (Acts 20:20). At Family Baptist Church they have a few big days each year (bouncy houses, ice-cream truck, Halloween candy and fireworks) and then hope some of those folks will come back to church, and some do. But that is not the Bible way to build a church! Soulwinning works!!!

But when a church is wrong on repentance, which means they are wrong on the Gospel, there can be no true soulwinning. A false plan of salvation cannot produce the new birth. No one has ever been born again by repenting of their evil ways. In Jonah 3:10, the Bible said the Ninevites turned from their evil ways, and God called it WORKS!

All that being said, we need more faithful Christians like Tom in the world. And humbly said, we need more truth-tellers like me too! I don't claim to be a good Christian. I know that I am a hypocrite in many ways, because I struggle with the sinful nature just like we all do. But bless God, I know more than anything else in this world that the King James Bible is the inspired, preserved, holy, incorruptible, tested and inerrant Words of almighty God. All of the modern English Bible revisions are based or influenced on the corrupt Greek text of Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort (two [7]Anglican infidels who denied nearly every fundamental doctrine of the Bible). You can [8]listen to Pastor Max D. Younce's entire series here).

It just seems so unfair to me that when an elderly Christian saint of God tries to help a young whipper-snapper cocky pastor do the right thing, he ultimately gets kicked out of the church as a troublemaker. Tom didn't take it well either. Before it was all said and done, Tom was threatened with the police if he ever stepped foot onto the church property again. That seems to be their thing at Family Baptist Church, because they threatened me and my wife with the police too, on the day we were told never to return. SHAME on them!

A godly pastor would recognize Tom's value as a church member. There is no controversy if you believe the Bible. Sadly, what Pastor Brad wants is a church full of minions, yes men who lean upon his every word without question, or keep their opinions to themselves. Guys like me and Tom are different, we care. Right doctrine matters!

6.7.6 The Christian Life Is Not An Imitation Of Christ (2025-07-08 11:23)

Galatians 2:20, “I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.”

Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) truthfully writes:

> You don’t get better to get saved; you get saved to get better. You can’t get better until you do get saved. In reality, one can begin living better only after he is saved. When the individual trusts Christ as Saviour, he receives a new nature. Second Peter 1:4 says, “ Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature. ” With this new nature come new desires and new power to make the desires a reality.
>
> We read in Philippians 2:13, “ For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. ”
>
> It is the presence of God in the believer that gives him both the desire and power to live a better life. And no man has the indwelling Christ in the person of the Holy Spirit until after he is saved.
>
> The Christian life is not an imitation of the Christ life; it is Christ living His life over again in us as we yield ourselves to Him. That is what Paul meant in Galatians 2:20, “I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.”
> SOURCE: ’[1]Repentance: What Does The Bible Teach?’

God saves a man by faith alone in Christ alone; and then the indwelling Spirit of Christ (the Holy Spirit) begins to change that man after he is saved. Those changes may or may not be outwardly visible. We must never become fruit inspectors, trying to determine if someone is saved or not by examining their works. The only way to know if someone is truly saved is by a direct testimony from their mouth (or their writings) concerning Jesus Christ.

> “If you have to look at your life to prove that you are saved, it proves that you’re not!” —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, “[2]Why Lordship Salvation is Wrong

The new birth is strictly a matter of one’s faith, not works. In Jonah 3:10a we read, “And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way...

” The Ninevites didn’t get saved, they turned from their evil ways and God in His mercy spared them judgment for a time. The Bible plainly teaches that turning from one’s evil ways is a WORK. A century later, God sent the prophet Nahum to pronounce judgment upon Assyria (Nineveh was their capital city) because of their return to wickedness, and destruction came at the hands of Babylon.

The Christian life is not an imitation of Christ, it is Christ Himself living the Christian life through us as God's redeemed child. It is common for a baby believer to attempt to live the Christian life in their own strength, and fail again and again. But when a believer learns that we ought not try to live the impossible Christian life in our own strength; but rather, yield to the inspired Holy Scriptures, and in so doing allow Christ's Holy Spirit to live through us

([3]Romans 8:9)

, we will succeed. Put another way, if there is any good thing in me, it is the Lord Jesus Christ!

By God's grace alone, I have been saved now for 45 years, since age 13 in 1980. I was saved by simply coming to God as a needy sinner and I trusted Jesus Christ as my personal Savior—receiving His sacrifice on the cross as full payment for my sins, believing that He was buried but then bodily resurrected from the dead the third day. That's it! That's all you need to do to be saved. Remember, the Gospel is not 'GOOD NEWS' to be lived, but to be BELIEVED. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." Your behavior and lifestyle have absolutely nothing to do with the new birth.

Salvation is received, not achieved.

Salvation is a take proposition, not a give proposition

Salvation is not an exchange or trade of sorts (as [4]Pastor John MacArthur wickedly teaches), it is a totally free gift with no strings attached (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9).

> "There is power in this Gospel message. Most people just don't know how to present it... The clarity of the Gospel is what makes it easy for them to believe." —Pastor Yankee Arnold, "[5]WHY GRACE CAN SAVE THE WORST MAN"

The Christian life is not something that we live as believers, it is Jesus Himself living through us. This is what is called the "fruit of the Spirit." Galatians 5:22-25, "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit*." To " live

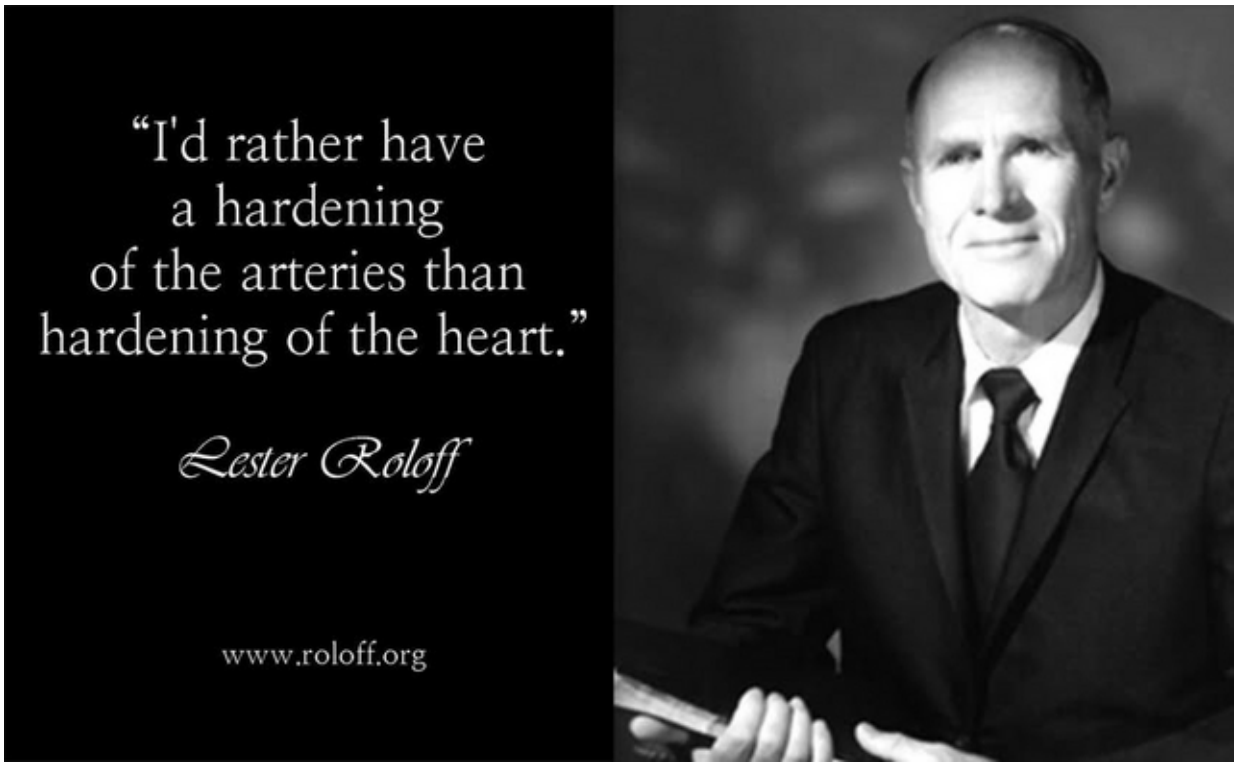
in the Spirit simply means to be alive in the Holy Spirit, which you automatically are if you are saved, because He lives inside your body, soul and spirit. But we must choose moment by moment, day by day, to walk in that same indwelling Holy Spirit of God, if we are to obey and please our dear Savior. The Christian life is a deliberate life, it won't just happen by happen-stance.



By default we walk in the flesh, fulfilling the sinful desires of the flesh. I truly love this next passage of Scripture and think about it often, because it is God's recipe how to live right...

2nd Corinthians 10:3-6, "

For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled."

That is not mind control; but rather, living the Spirit-filled life. We cannot stop sinful thoughts from entering into our mind throughout each day, but we can seize those wrong thoughts and bring them into submission to Christ, that is, to God's inspired Word. Remember, Jesus is the Living Word (John 1:1-3, 14; Revelation 19:13), and the Holy Bible is the Written Word (1st Timothy 3:16-17; John 17:17). The key to the Christian life is to abide in the Scriptures day and night (Psalms 1:1-3). The inspired King James Bible is our source of spiritual food (1st Peter 2:2; Matthew 4:4). The Christian whose Bible is falling apart is not.

6.7.7 Understanding The Two Natures (2025-07-09 09:52)

The following edifying words are from Pastor A. Ray Stanford's (1916-2012) helpful book titled: "[1]A HANDBOOK OF PERSONAL EVANGELISM," chapter 19, "Understanding the Two Natures." ...

Much confusion arises from improper teaching of the two natures. As a soulwinner, you need to understand this subject, not only so you can answer the questions of others, but also so you can effectively live your own life for the Lord. Without understanding what the Scriptures teach on this subject you will often be confused, doubtful, anxious, and unable to maintain your faithful, effective witnessing.

Lack of understanding of the two natures brings about questions like the following:

1. Does a truly saved person sin any more?
2. Can I lose my salvation if I keep sinning?
3. What happens to a Christian when he sins?
4. How can a Christian have the power really to serve the Lord?

Study this chapter carefully, looking up the verses in your Bible, and you will discover the answers to these questions.

The new birth is provided by God when a man by sincere faith accepts the payment that the Lord Jesus Christ made for him on the cross. It is not a process or a result of good works. It is not water baptism. It is a birth. John 3: 5 states a man must be born of water. This is specifically speaking of the Holy Spirit. This is living water, not H20, and is referred to throughout the book of John as the Holy Spirit (John 4:11, 14; John 7:38, 39).

The first birth is of the flesh. The second birth is of the Spirit (John 3:6). These two are completely separate, and nothing of the birth of the flesh has anything to do with the second birth which is of the Spirit. The flesh birth is from fleshly parents. The spirit birth is from God Himself, who is a Spirit (John 1:12, 13). Never confuse the two by thinking the flesh can do something to bring on the spirit birth. Like reproduces like, and flesh can reproduce only flesh. Only spirit can give birth to spirit.

The new birth does not come from prayers; neither is speaking in an unknown jargon proof of it. The Holy Spirit is guaranteed by God to all who believe (John 7:38, 39; II Cor. 1:22). The Holy Spirit is always spoken of as a gift of God, not coming by man's efforts (Rom. 5:5).

The Apostles never tried to "pray through" or work for the Holy Spirit. They were commanded to wait for the Holy Spirit in Jerusalem, and God would send the Holy Spirit to them (Acts 1:4, 5). They waited in Jerusalem, and after the 50 days that were prophesied were fulfilled, the Holy Spirit came upon them (Acts 2:1-17). The promise was given to all who would receive the Lord Jesus Christ as their Saviour-not to a few. "And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh" (Acts 2:17). This was referring to all who would receive the Lord Jesus Christ as their Saviour.

When a person is saved, a man's carnal desires of the flesh do not change or improve one iota. They remain the same. Flesh is flesh, and it remains that way (John 3:6). Much unscriptural teaching and confusion come from thinking the old nature should get better after salvation, and when people still see sin in their lives, it brings great doubt as to whether or not their conversion was real, or whether or not they have lost their salvation, etc.

I John 3: 9 says, "Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin: for His seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God." Beyond any question, this verse teaches that the new birth of the Spirit never commits any sin. There are other verses that teach the old nature never gets any better but remains evil, such as Romans 7:18, "For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me, but how to perform that which is good I find not."

The Bible teaches that the old nature doesn't change, but it can be controlled by the power of the Holy Spirit who indwells all believers. Whether the new nature or the old nature will control the individual depends entirely upon the person's decision of which nature he will nurture and allow to rule. Galatians 5:16, "This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh." The Greek meaning of the word "walk" is to be "responsive, controlled, and guided." In other words, be responsive to the Spirit, controlled by the Spirit, and guided by the Spirit, and you will not be controlled by the flesh. The desires of the flesh will still be present, but you will not be controlled by them.

Please notice that this verse is not saying, "Do not fulfill the lusts of the flesh, and you will be spiritual." Many people equate a pious, negative life with being a really spiritual person. Many people in this category become hyper-critical and yet never lead a soul to the Lord.

There is a continual battle between the old and new natures. "For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other; so that ye cannot do the things that ye would" (Gal. 5:17).

If you want the new nature to be victorious in your life, you must feed and exercise that nature. Remember, your old nature has been fed and exercised all your life until you were saved. Your old nature will rule your life unless you feed and exercise your new nature regularly.

For example, in a boxing match the fighter who is the better trained and the stronger wins. They never match two men in a ring, one being very large and strong and the other being small and weak . . . because it would not even be a contest.

The fruit (result) of being controlled by the Spirit is described in Gal. 5:22, 23, "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance; against such there is no law."

The fruit (result) of being controlled by the flesh is described in Galatians 5:19-21, "Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God." The last phrase in verse 21 points out that no evil works can enter heaven, but that they are the results of a man being under the control of the old nature. Only righteousness enters into heaven, which comes only from the new birth. The new birth never sins but is incorruptible (I Peter 1:23).

It is difficult for people to understand clearly that heaven is a perfect place and only a perfectly righteous person can enter therein; but this righteousness is not a result of man's works, but is a result of a perfect righteousness that is given to man through the new birth. I Cor. 6:9, 10 tells us that no sin shall enter heaven . . . but verse 11 tells us how we are washed and justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Then, after a person is saved, he has the power to serve the Lord and to be a witness (Acts 1:8).

There is no SECRET to having a "victorious Christian life." It is very clearly taught in the Bible. II Tim. 2:4 tells us that "No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life: that he may please Him who hath chosen him to be a soldier." To effectively live your life for the Lord, your life must be disciplined-to include the things of the Lord-and to leave out the things of the world. Colossians 3:2 tells us to "Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth."

When we really keep in mind that people are lost and going to hell, and that we have been entrusted with the gospel message that will lead them to the Lord and heaven, it is not so difficult to determine that our lives are going to COUNT for the Lord. It is an every day, every moment decision. Every time you say "YES" and obey the Lord, instead of saying "NO" and disobeying Him, you are "spiritual"-controlled by the Holy Spirit. And this is how to be a happy, productive child of God.

6.7.8 For All Have Sinned And Come Short (2025-07-11 09:50)

Romans 3:23, “For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God.”

The Holy Bible teaches that all humanity is depraved. Each and every human being is a sinner, who has COME SHORT of God’s glory. NO ONE lives up to God’s expectations. NO ONE is all that God wants them to be. NO ONE has arrived morally. NO ONE is completely pleasing to God. That is why God sent His only begotten Son into the world to die on a cross to pay for our sins, so that God could offer us eternal life as a free gift. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Through Christ's body and blood sacrifice on Calvary's cross, I am able to meet all of God's expectations, attaining absolute holy perfection through [1]God's imputed righteousness! Romans 4:5-6, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works." Amen! Whew that's great stuff!

I don't care if you are saved or lost, NO ONE is living a life up to par to God's holy standards of perfection of their own accord. That is why the whole idea of "[2]Lordship Salvation" is ridiculous. That is why the whole idea of [3]turning away from sinful ways to be saved is ridiculous. NO ONE can turn from their sins. As much as I admire Evangelist Ray Comfort in many ways, I have to expose him as a deadly reprobate minister, [4]who preaches an accursed false gospel ([5]video). Galatians 1:8, "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed." Ray tells the confused woman on the airplane that to be saved she must turn from her sins. RAY COMFORT LIED TO HER! Here are Ray's exact accursed words to the unsaved woman:

> "It's a matter of saying, 'God 'I'm sorry,' and then living a lifestyle that proves the reality of your repentance. That's what repentance is, it's a continual thing! 'God, I'm sorry, but I'm never going to lie or steal or blaspheme your name again.' It has that attitude. And the second thing is trust in Jesus!" Folks, Ray Comfort is a spiritual bastard in the pulpit!
> SOURCE: Ray Comfort - YouTube title: "[6]I've Never Killed Anyone"

Kindly, Ray Comfort is a theological IDIOT! How can such a brilliant man be so foolish? And his sidekick Kirk Cameron is just as bad. This dysfunctional Batman/Robin duo are public enemies! Anyone who goes around adding works to grace is a threat the Bible says...

> Titus 1:10-13, "For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith."

What does the Bible mean by "THEY OF THE CIRCUMCISION"? It refers back to a ceremonial law which was required of male Jews in the Old Testament. Jewish men were commanded under the Mosaic law to be physically circumcised, in the foreskin of their private part. This was required eight days after birth (Philippians 3:5). Ceremonial laws were intended by God to teach the Jews spiritual lessons, in this case separation from the world. These laws were never meant to give salvation. Romans 3:19 teaches that the Mosaic laws (about 720 laws total) were intended to show men their sinnership, “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.”

Galatians 3:24-26 teaches that the law was intended to bring men to Christ to be saved by faith, “Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.” So the LAW shows humanity that we are depraved sinners incapable of saving ourselves, and then the law brings us to GRACE in the New Testament to be saved solely by faith in Jesus Christ.

But what happened was that the ungodly Jewish religious leaders, instead turned the law into a plan of salvation. ...

> Acts 15:1, “And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.”

Do you see their error? These ungodly men came to Jerusalem, like Ray Comfort, requiring people to keep the LAW to be saved. ...

> “It’s a matter of saying, ’God ’I’m sorry,’ and then living a lifestyle that proves the reality of your repentance. That’s what repentance is, it’s a continual thing! ’God, I’m sorry, but I’m never going to lie or steal or blaspheme your name again.’ It has that attitude. And the second thing is trust in Jesus!”

Does the Bible require that you resolve in your heart to never lie again, never steal again and never blaspheme (i.e., take the Lord’s name in vain) again, to receive the free gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life? What saith the Scripture? John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” The plan of salvation given by Jesus is very different than the one given by Ray Comfort.

Trusting Jesus is Not the ’Second’ Thing, it is the ONLY Thing Required To Be Saved
According to Ray Comfort, trusting Jesus comes second. ...

> “And the second thing is trust in Jesus!”
> SOURCE: Ray Comfort - YouTube title: “[8]I’ve Never Killed Anyone”

Second thing? My dear friend, trusting Jesus as your personal Savior is not the second thing, it is THE ONLY THING to be saved! John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.” To “trust” means to rely upon. It means to place your sole hope in Jesus Christ—the sinless Lamb of God Who became the sacrifice for your sins

(and mine) upon the cross, was subsequently buried, and then bodily raised up miraculously three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Jesus said all we have to do to be saved is to simply BELIEVE that '[9]GOOD NEWS.'

Perhaps you ask: "Don't I need to turn from my sins to be saved?" No! That is not part of the Gospel. You are not saved by what you do, but by relying upon what Christ did on Calvary's cross to pay your debt of sin. Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt we could not pay! 2nd Corinthians 5:21, "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him."

Thank God for the cross! Thank God for the Lamb of God! Listen, the only requirement to be saved is to BELIEVE on the Lord Jesus Christ. Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." The phrase "AND THY HOUSE" simply means that the invitation for salvation by faith is extended to the whole family. Again and again, the Bible simply instructs us to "BELIEVE" to be saved. I love that wonderful truth! Kindly, God had to make salvation simple, so that even stupid people can be saved, because the world is filled with stupid people. The Gospel is so simple—JUST BELIEVE!

Repentance is Simply 'a Change of Mind' Unto the Gospel Itself

Does a person need to REPENT to be saved? Yes, of course! But the only place that repentance has in salvation is "[10]to change one's mind" from whatever has been hindering you to believe the Gospel. The object compliment (noun) of the verb repentance (metanoeo) is 'THE GOSPEL.' We repent TO believe. It is a false gospel to teach that a person must repent AND believe, which is the heresy taught by Evangelist Tom Ferrell. Hence, a person who is willing to trust the Savior has repented, or else they wouldn't want to believe. ...

> John 3:19-21, "And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God."

Carefully notice that the issue is TRUTH, and not SINS. The phrase "HE THAT DOETH THE TRUTH" simply means that a person has acknowledged THE TRUTH of the Gospel. 2nd Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth." Please pay attention friend, because so many preachers get this wrong, woefully ignorant of the Scriptures. Repentance is not turning away from sinful behavior to be saved, which would effectively constitute keeping the LAW (living right). We all live wrong! We all sin every day. No one is a shining example of what a Christian should be. We've all fallen short of God's glory. False prophets abound today, just as they did in Bible times...

> Galatians 2:21, "I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain."

Galatians 3:2, “This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?”

Galatians 3:11, “But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.”

Kindly, Ray Comfort frustrates the grace of God. John MacArthur frustrates the grace of God. Paul Washer frustrates the grace of God. We are saved by “THE HEARING OF FAITH,” and not by the “KEEPING OF THE LAW.” Turning away from sins to be saved is the same as keeping the law to be saved! What I showed you earlier by Ray Comfort is pure heresy, of the Devil. Ray tries to lead the woman on the plane to commit to never lying, stealing or blaspheming the Lord’s name again, and then she declines his very difficult and complicated offer. To place that kind of burden upon a person—demanding that they commit to forsake lifelong sinful bad habits to receive God’s FREE GIFT—is as Satanic as it is evil, wrong, ridiculous and unbiblical. Mr. Comfort is not saved.

[12]Ungodly False Prophet Ray Comfort Made $3,571,713 In 2017 (his [13]damnation slumbereth not)

What Ray is doing is no different than expecting a baby to run a marathon. Before a human can run, they must first learn to walk. Before a human can walk, they must first learn to crawl. And in order to crawl, someone must first be BORN! Our duty as born-again believers is to share the Gospel so that lost people can be BORN AGAIN (Matthew 28:19-20, Luke 8:11-15; Proverbs 11:30). And only then, after a person is born anew by the Holy Spirit of God (John 1:12; Romans 8:9), can they learn to CRAWL as a baby Christian (1st Peter 2:2). Doesn’t that make total sense? Sure it does. To expect a person to commit to doing things that normally only a mature believer would do is called “[14]FRONTLOADING THE GOSPEL.”

The Epistle of Galatians can be summed up with this statement—DON'T ADD TO THE GOSPEL!

Believe it Oh friend and God will save you immediately. You don't have to "ask" Jesus to save you, because He has already promised "TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE" (1st Corinthians 1:21b). Jesus is asking you to accept Him dear reader. The choice is yours alone to make. Eternal life is a free gift from God (Romans 6:23), paid for by Jesus' precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). Please receive Christ now, right this moment, by faith! You'll never regret it (Romans 10:11).

God's Gospel Tract—The Gospel Of John

The Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." Again we see that BELIEVING is all that is required to be saved (i.e., born-again). In fact, we find the word "believe" mentioned 87 times in the Gospel of John, but the word “repent” is not mentioned even once! There is no mention about turning away from sins, nor forsaking the world, nor making Jesus’ one’s Lord, nor committing your life to God, nor following Christ, but simply to “BELIEVE”! 1st Corinthians 1:21, “For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.” There it is again... “TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE”!

I challenge you dear reader to just sit back, rest your head on a pillow, and [16]listen to Alexander Scourby read the King James Bible. The first book I recommend to anybody is the Gospel of John, which was written to convince us that Jesus is the Christ. John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” Please don’t miss that truth! That means you can be saved just from the information provided in the Gospel of John. If you never read from the other 65 books of the King James Bible, you could still be saved just from the Gospel of John. The entire purpose for which John was authored by God is to lead you to Jesus Christ for salvation. No where in this precious book of Word of God are we taught to forsake sinful ways to be saved.

The Simplicity That is in Christ

Beware of false prophets who cloud the plan of salvation, making it murky, complicating “the simplicity that is in Christ” (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). The simplicity that is in Christ is the Gospel. You simply BELIEVE it to be saved. That is so simple that even a child can do it. The apostle Paul said to the young preacher Timothy in 2nd Timothy 3:15, “And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.” Notice that “FROM A CHILD” Timothy knew how to be saved from the Holy Scriptures. And here again we learn the beautiful truth that we are saved “THROUGH FAITH WHICH IS IN CHRIST JESUS”!

What saith Pastor John MacArthur...

> "There is no such thing as a childhood conversion." —[17]Dr. John MacArthur

Do you believe that garbage? No such thing as a child getting saved? That is exactly what Mr. MacArthur horribly teaches.

> 1st Peter 2:7-9, “Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.”

As I plainly showed you, children CAN be saved! Timothy was saved as a child. Thank God for making His plan of salvation very simple. You just get saved once, which is forever. No amount of sin, disloyalty, leaving church, or criticism of others can forfeit the blessed gift of salvation.

For All Have Sinned And Come Short

The irony of all these teachers of Lordship Salvation today is that they are all greedy scoundrels (in my humble opinion). Check their annual salaries and the kind of money that their ministry takes in, and you'll feel sickened. Evangelist Ken Ham is another false prophet, whose [18]Answers-In-Genesis took in $36,500,000 last year! That's the equivalent annual revenue of 222 New Testament churches! That is disgusting! What does Ken do what all that money to help the churches that he is exploiting?

Whatever comes our way. Whatever battle we have raging inside us. We always have a choice. It's the choices that make us who we are, and we can always choose to do what is right.

> "If we could ever hate the sin in ourselves as much as we hate the sin in others, we might have some idea what His [God's] Book is all about."—Pastor Jack Hyles

I Accept Being Unhappy And it's Okay

No matter where you go in this world, you'll never find paradise, because you'll still be there. We are miserable creatures as human beings. And if you are in constant chronic bodily pain as I am, you're definitely unhappy. I am unhappy every day. The essence of unhappiness is not being okay. But what if I am okay with being in a state of unhappiness? Then I am okay, right? Sound crazy? I don't mind being unhappy. When you are completely okay with being unhappy, then you'll no longer complain about being unhappy! I do not mind being unhappy and am 100 % okay with it at age 52, but I have the joy of the Lord in my soul as a born-again Christian, which sustains my spirit from day to day. People have this big thing they go around moaning about called, "MY LIFE!" No my friend, if you are saved you're life belongs to God, and CHRIST IS YOUR LIFE NOW!

What saith the Scripture? Galatians 2:20, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me." So it doesn't matter if I am unhappy, because my life is hid with Christ in God. Colossians 3:1-4, "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory." Boy I love that... WHEN CHRIST, WHO IS OUR LIFE!!! My happiness is Jesus Christ in me!

6.7.9 Why Romans 10:13 Cannot Be Used As The Gospel (2025-07-11 15:00)

Romans 10:13-14, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!"

The Bible plainly says in Romans 10:14 that no one can call upon the name of the LORD until they first BELIEVE. So, those in verse 14 are ALREADY SAVED, because they have already BELIEVED.

There is nothing wrong with accompanying one's faith with a prayer to call upon the Lord, but it is very important to understand that it is not necessary to pray to be saved. It is common for people to pray at the time of salvation, and even to ask God to save them, but it is not required. God is already freely offering every human being His free gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life through simple childlike faith in His only begotten Son, Jesus. John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

I get frustrated when New IFB pastors use Romans 10:13 in a foolish attempt to teach that you cannot be saved unless you say a prayer. BELIEVING is enough to be saved. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

Verse 15 says, "How shall they preach"? You CANNOT preach (give testimony of) unless you first have a message to tell. The Scripture tells us, beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace! ONLY THOSE that give out the right gospel message ARE BEAUTIFUL in the eyes of the Lord. Those who preach the lies of Lordship Salvation and Wrong Repentance are preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

The Gospel is simply this...

> Here is the gospel: God says that we are sinners and that no amount of good works or behavioral changes on our part could ever make us holy enough to enter heaven. God sent His Son to pay for all of our sins. Jesus paid for our crimes by dying on the cross for us all. His dead body was buried in a grave. On the third day, Jesus arose from the dead. The instant you believe this, He knows it and He saves you. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on Me hath everlasting life" (John 6:47). The free gift is based solely upon your trust in what Jesus did for you and has nothing at all to do with what you do for Him. “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast” (Ephesians 2:8-9).

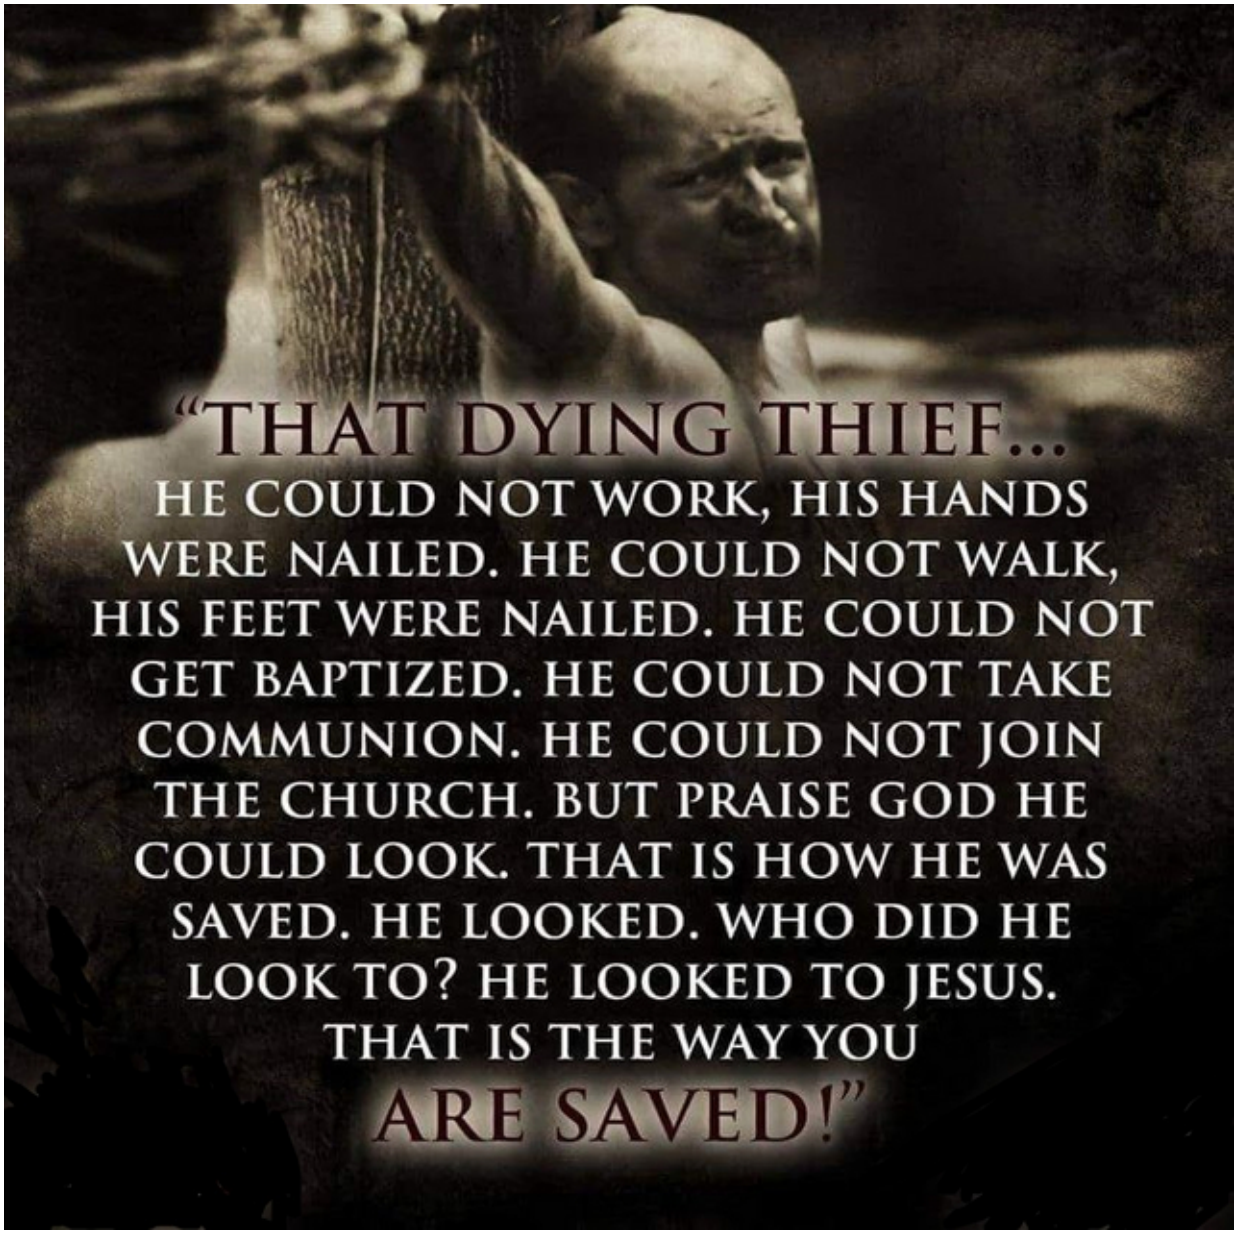
6.7.10 Being Baptized Into Jesus Christ (2025-07-13 09:30)

Romans 6:1-2, “What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?”

The preceding Bible passage is NOT speaking about water baptism. The Greek word “baptizo” was transliterated from the Greek language directly into English. That is because the wise 54



King James Bible translators decided not to translate the word at all, since they couldn't find an equivalent English word to adequately express the conveyed meaning, which is to submerse into something. When a person puts their trust in Jesus Christ, they are being immersed in Christ by faith.

I also believe that is the meaning intended in Acts 2:38, "Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." This is one of the most misunderstood and hotly debated Scriptures in the Word of God. Remember, a good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) taught me that truth. God authored the entire Gospel of John to show humanity how to get to Heaven (John 20:31), which is by grace through faith in the 'GOOD NEWS' (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified for our sins, buried and bodily resurrected three days later.

Since the Gospel of John is very clear, we must then be careful not to misinterpret an obscure passage of Scripture like Acts 2:38, which can be taken different ways (but can only have one true intended meaning by God). Since we know from umpteen other Scripture passages that water baptism cannot remit sins, we can rightly divide God's Word to conclude that Acts 2:38 must be teaching that salvation comes by being immersed into Jesus Christ by faith alone.

Scriptural evidence of what I am teaching is found in Galatians 3:26-27, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ." We are "baptized into Christ" through faith alone! This can be the only logical meaning without violating the clear Gospel of John, which teaches plainly in John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." If water baptism were required by God to Get to Heaven (which religious cults like Seventh-Day Adventism, Mormonism, Roman Catholicism, Church of Christ and Lutherans errantly teach), then John 6:47 would be false teaching and make no sense at all. If faith alone is insufficient to save a lost sinner, then God sure did a horrible job of authoring the Holy Bible!

The dying repentant thief on the cross was totally incapacitated. His hands and feet were nailed to a cross, just like Jesus next to him. The dying thief had nothing to offer God. This man's life was full of sin and shame, now being executed for his crimes. The dying thief could not get water baptized. He could not partake of communion. He couldn't obey church sacraments. There was nothing that he could do except LOOK TO JESUS!!! Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. Amen.

6.7.11 It's Becoming Impossible To Find A Doctrinally Sound Church (2025-07-13 23:30)

Psalms 12:1, "Help, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men."

Revelation 3:2, "

Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God. ”

It is tragic across the United States today that it has become virtually impossible to find a good church anymore. Most churches have been corrupted with the Devil’s lie of misunderstood repentance (aka, the repent of your sins to be saved heresy), which is a form of Lordship Salvation. Most churches have been corrupted with Satan’s false Bible revisions.

In the past, simply because I was desperate to be a part of a church family and couldn’t find something better, I attended neo-evangelical bad churches. The last two church that I attended in Pensacola horribly taught that you must repent of your sinning to get to Heaven. In the end, I was kicked out of both churches. One was Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, and the other was Family Baptist Church. Those two places are dangerous cults!

Moving forward, Lord willing, I will never ever again attend any church that is wrong on repentance, nor any church that uses any version other than the King James Bible, exclusively. And I will never attend any church that doesn’t believe that the King James Bible is 100 % verbally inspired word for word by God.

I have received hundreds of emails over the years from frustrated believers who cannot find a good church to attend in their community. That is so tragic and sad. My advice to all my readers is to stay away from bad churches that distort, change or embellish the Gospel. The Gospel defined in 1st Corinthians 15:1-6 is comprised of three things:

1. Jesus DIED on a cross to pay for our sins.

2. He was BURIED.

3. Jesus physically RESURRECTED from the dead three days later.

There is nothing mentioned in this beautiful passage about repenting or turning away from your sinful ways or bad habits. There is nothing mentioned about becoming a Christ follower, getting water baptized, making public confession or anything else, except to BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS of Jesus crucified, buried and risen!!!

In my humble opinion, it would be far better not to attend church at all, and just listen to online preaching regularly, than to become involved and put down roots in a Lordship Salvation cult. Right doctrine matters!!!

6.7.12 There Are No Demons In Hell Torturing Humans (2025-07-14 06:00)

Matthew 25:41-43, " Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels: For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

Many people, particularly Americans due to Hollywood, have several misconceptions concerning Hell. One big misconception is that there are demons in Hell (Hades) that torment the damned who go there. The Bible teaches that the Devil roams the earth (1st Peter 5:8). We know from reading the New Testament that demons also roam the earth, looking for a human or animal host to possess.

The Bible teaches that demons will ultimately be cast into their own place in Hell (Greek: Tartarus). This unique word Tartarus is used for hell in 2nd Peter 2:4.

Humans at present who die in their sins without Jesus Christ go to Hell (Greek: Hades). I believe that the place of Hades is compartmentalized into two areas: Torment and Paradise. We see this truth in the true story of The Rich Man And Lazarus in Luke 16:19-31. There are two distinct sides of Hell (Hades) separated by a Great Gulf fixed between them, so that someone cannot pass from one side to the other. We read that the formerly rich man was now poorer than poor, taking nothing with him into the afterlife except regret and woe.

Oh dear reader, please don't let this happen to you! Have you been born again? I didn't ask if you go to church. I didn't ask if you've been water baptized. I didn't ask if you've kept the seven sacraments of Roman Catholicism. I didn't ask if you've become a follower of Christ. I didn't ask if you've invited Jesus into your heart or life. I asked if you have been BORN AGAIN. John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." We rarely hear this important Bible truth taught anymore from church pulpits, religious schools and TV evangelists. Jesus plain warned in no uncertain terms that unless you become born again, you cannot go to Heaven.

After The Great White Throne Of Judgment, all the damned of human civilization will be cast into Hell (Greek: Gehenna). We read about this in Revelation 20:15.

Our text passage from Matthew 25:41-43 plainly teaches that it was never God's original intention for any human being to end up burning in Hell. God has never sent anyone to Hell who didn't choose to go there on their own. God is freely offering eternal life as a gift to whosoever wants it, through faith in His only begotten Son (John 3:16-18). God made Hell for the Devil and his fallen angels (demons). But dear reader, there are no demons in the place of Hell that humans go to. There is nothing in the inspired Scripture which teaches otherwise.

Many years ago a corrupt evangelist named Bill Wiese bizarrely claimed that he had died and gone to [1]Hell for 23 minutes. Mr. Wiese claimed to have seen 8 foot tall demons with sharp teeth and fangs, torturing people. We know without any doubt whatsoever that Bill Wiese is a fraud and a liar! We know this because the Bible plainly teaches that the Devil and demons are at work wreaking havoc upon the earth today.

Some demons are already suffering in Hell, reserved for the judgment to come. That is, those fallen wicked angels in locked away in jail, awaiting their court appearance, which I humbly believe will be at The Great White Throne of Judgment. Matthew 8:28-29, "And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way. And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time? " The demons who are already confined in the pit of Hell today are suffering in torment. They are not tormenting departed human souls in Hell, as Hollywood erroneously depicts. Some demons were so evil that God has already cast them into the depths of Hell. Most of the demons are still at large, lurking the earth to wreak havoc. As we learn from the Scripture, demons have limited power. A demon cannot just do whatever he wants. God is always in ultimate control.

Demons have the power of influence. That is one strong reason why I preach against all forms of substance abuse, because an idle mind is a demon's workshop. We all have dark thoughts at times as humans. We all have horrible thoughts enter into our mind. The Bible teaches us how to handle these wrong thoughts in 2nd Corinthians 10:5-6,

"Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled."

When someone gets drunk, inebriated with alcohol, that individual may fulfill some of those dark horrible thoughts, and regret it forever. By God's grace, I have never drank a single drop of booze in my life, and I don't plan to ever start. I praise God for that clean testimony! I do not claim to be a good Christian. I don't think there is any such thing as a "

good Christian.

" We are all horrible sinners. I agree with something that my favorite preacher Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) said:

"Don't be reluctant to admit to people that you have feet of clay, but don't ever show them your feet." That is, only confess your sins to God (Psalm 51:4).

The demons who have already been cast into Hell before their time are in Tartarus, not Hades. The word "hell" in the following passage of Scripture comes from the Greek word Tartarus. 2nd Peter 2:4, " For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment... " God never wanted any human being to spend eternity burning in the torments of Hell, but when Adam sinned he opened the floodgate of sin and death upon the entire world (Romans 5:12).

Any lost sinner who dies in his sins and goes to Hell won't see any demons!

Hell is a very real and literal place, where the Devil, his demons and all humans who died in their sins without faith in Jesus Christ will spend eternity suffering in torments and misery.

According to Ephesians 6:10-12, there is a hierarchy of Satanic power (principalities and powers) in the underworld. The demons are Satan's minions. I encourage you dear reader to listen to this fascinating 6-part series from 1974 by Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) titled: "[2]DEMONOLOGY." You will be blessed!

Thank you dear friend for reading my ministry blog. To God alone be the praise and glory.

6.7.13 You Better Believe I Am A Broken Record (2025-07-15 05:00)

Isaiah 58:1, "

Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

A Christian woman on [1]Facebook recently got upset with me for preaching against women wearing pants. Here is what she posted...

> My goodness! Are you a broken record? You seem stuck on this particular topic! While I've stayed quiet on this issue of which i don't completely agree with, i do like your other topics, but lately this topic is all you seem fixated with! This is going beyond "teaching" and becoming an obsession for you! Please, can you finally move on to something that is really going to get lost people saved?

Here is my reply...

> I have unfriended *. I can see that I hit a nerve. Yes, I am a broken record and plan to stay that way!!! I guarantee that she wears pants too! I will stop preaching against immodesty when Christian women stop wearing pants! I won't shut up! Shame on you *******!

I don't care if I only have two friends remaining on Facebook, I refuse to let heathens critique my Bible preaching. I don't want anybody as a so-called "friend" who scolds me for preaching THE TRUTH.

A shameful Baptist pastor several years ago wrongly accused me of being "obsessed with the Bible issue," because I regularly expose the Devil's modern Bible revisions. I sharply rebuked that pastor for being incompetent! You had better believe that I'm going to continue making a fuss over the Devil's counterfeit Bible revisions that corrupt men's souls and lead them astray from THE TRUTH!

You had better believe that I am going to continue making a big fuss over Christian women who wear worldly pants in public, revealing their sexy thighs and buttocks for men to gaze and lust upon (Matthew 5:28; 1st Peter 2:11; Proverbs 7:10). Shame on any professed Christian woman who still wears pants, Spandex, halter tops, bikinis and other IMMODEST attire that whores wear. When a woman walks along the beach in a bikini, she is wearing the attire of an harlot, giving men a free burlesque show. And a pastor's wife who wears pants is the biggest disgrace of them all, setting a heathen low standard for other females in the church. The pastor's wife should be the most modestly clothed woman in any church.

1st Timothy 2:9 commands Christian women to wear MODEST APPAREL, which absolutely excludes pants. I am sick and tired of hearing idiots mention Scottish men wearing kilts in a lame attempt to justify Christian women wearing sexy pants. You should conceal ladies, not reveal. If the shape of your thighs and buttocks can be seen by a man, you are clothed very immodestly. There is no such thing as "

pants for women.

I take it as a compliment for some disgruntled woman to label me as a "broken record" for my fundamentalist Bible preaching. To God alone be the praise, credit and glory.

6.7.14 Don’t Need To "Ask" Jesus To Save You (2025-07-15 09:28)

John 11:25-27, “ Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this? She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world. ”

God's plan of salvation for mankind is so simple. In our text passage above, Martha simply BELIEVED on Jesus and was saved. This was the same Gospel preached throughout the Old Testament by ALL the prophets. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins."

Sadly, humans have a horrible tendency to complicate everything, including God's plan of salvation. Here is a helpful sermon excerpt from Pastor Max D. Younce's sermon titled: '[1]Rapture Versus Revelation.' This excerpt explains that a lost sinner DOESN'T have to "ask" Jesus to save them, because God is already freely offering " TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE

" (1st Corinthians 1:21b)...

Don't Ask Jesus To Save, He Wants You To Accept Him

Jesus Christ has already paid for your sins. So Jesus doesn't forgive sins! You read correctly. Jesus does NOT forgive anybody's sins, He has already paid for those sins with His precious blood. So you don't need to ask Jesus to save you, nor do you need to ask Him to forgive your sins. The work of redemption has already been completed by our dear Savior.

Why is this important to know? It is important that you understand how simple it is to be saved, so that you can go to Heaven someday. Religion has never saved anybody! I mean that. My father used to wisely say: "Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world." My Christian Dad was right! Religion has never granted anybody access into the Kingdom of God. You cannot get into Heaven by trying to get there, you must trust completely in the Lamb of God. John 1:29, "The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." Jesus is that precious Lamb!

Jesus exclaimed to Nebuchadnezzar in John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." Someone once asked the minister John Wesley why he kept preaching on the subject: "Ye Must Be Born Again," over a thousand times. Wesley replied: "Because 'Ye must be born again!"' Dear friend, Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again! NO ONE will enter into God's Kingdom without being born-again by the Holy Spirit of God (1st Peter 1:23). We are born again by the seed of God's incorruptible Word, that is, by the truth of the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4; Romans 1:16).

You don't need to ASK God to save you, He is already freely offering to save you, if you will simply accept the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross as full-payment for your sins, believing that Jesus is risen from the dead. 1st Thessalonians 4:14, " For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." What a wonderful Savior!!!

Now, having said that, it is okay if you do ASK Jesus to save you. I got saved when I was 13 years old. I was sitting in a pew in back of an old-fashioned Baptist church in Chicago (a rare find in Chicago, for which I count myself very blessed to have been there at that time). It was a Sunday morning during the summer. I believe it was 1980, but I cannot remember the exact year that I was saved. I didn't think at the time to write the date down, but I wish I had, so that I would know the exact age I was saved. But it doesn't matter, because I DO remember a place, and what happened that day.

I don't remember the title of the sermon that my pastor preached. But I do remember what he said that compelled me to get saved. The preacher said that if you can commit sin and have no conviction about it from the Holy Spirit, you are not saved. I knew immediately that I didn't have the indwelling Holy Spirit. I knew that I wasn't saved. But I sure wanted to be. At the invitation time, I was too shy to walk down the aisle to learn how to be saved. (This is why every preacher should ALWAYS tell people how to be saved right from their pew.)

So in my pew, as best that I knew how, I asked Jesus to save me, crying out silently from within my soul. I had grown up in Sunday school, and my father was a Skid Row preacher, so I had heard often the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus, the Christ, the only begotten Son of God; who died on the cross for my sins, was buried and then resurrected from the dead after three days (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). So believing those facts, I prayed from my soul for Jesus to save me. I knew in my soul that I was calling out to a RISEN SAVIOR! I believed Jesus was the one to whom I was speaking in my soul. I know that I got saved that day, because the blessed presence of the Holy Spirit has bene with me ever since that glorious day.

So I did ASK Jesus to save me, which is okay. However, I doubted my salvation for the next several years. I kept wondering if I left something out of my prayer. I kept hearing pastors teach people to "pray a sinner's prayer" to be saved. That is what every religious tract that I read also said to do. I was confused. No one has ever taught me that I could simply BELIEVE to be saved. I thought that the way you believe is through saying a prayer.

It wasn't until two decades later that my salvation beliefs were finally SOLIDIFIED, when I read a helpful book by Pastor Max D. Younce titled: '[2]Salvation And The Public Invitation' ([3]backup link). The reason why the book had such a profound impact upon me is because it exactly described the manner in which I had been saved, from a pew. Dr. Younce explained from the Bible that you can be saved just by BELIEVING the Gospel, without praying or walking down an aisle in a church. I had never heard any preacher say that before, but the Holy Spirit confirmed in my heart of hearts that what Pastor Younce was saying is THE TRUTH.

A heavy burden was lifted off my soul. For the first time in my life I had a 100 % grasp on God's simple plan of salvation. All those years that I had worried, was because preachers kept lying to me, misleading me to think that you must pray a sinner's prayer to be saved.

And then years later I read a helpful sermon article by Pastor Bob Gray Sr., in which he said that Jesus doesn't forgive sins, He has already paid for them with His blood. You simply need to accept God's free gift of forgiveness through faith alone in Christ. That is so simple!

I thank God for preachers who keep God's plan of salvation SIMPLE, the way God intended for it to be. I love something that one of my favorite free grace preachers, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold said:

> "There is power in this [4]Gospel message. Most people just don't know how to present it... The clarity of the Gospel is what makes it easy for them to believe." —Pastor Yankee Arnold, a quote from the excellent MP3 sermon titled, "[5]WHY GRACE CAN SAVE THE WORST MAN!"

Amen and amen! I get so frustrated hearing local pastors in Pensacola tell their congregation to " have a relationship with Jesus

"" to be saved. That is NOT the Gospel. That is confusing to people, because Judas had a relationship with Jesus, but died in his unbelief and went to Hell forever. What does that even mean, to have a relationship with Christ? Why use terms that the Bible doesn't use? Why add to the Gospel? Sadly, I even handed that bad pastor (who made that comment) a copy of Michael P. Bowen's helpful book: '[6]I Never Knew You,' which apparently he didn't even bother to read. You can lead a horse to water, but you cannot force them to drink it. You can give a pastor THE TRUTH, but you cannot force them to heed it.

I recently spoke with a member of that church, with the bad pastor who says you need a "relationship with Jesus" to go to Heaven. That church member told me that you have to be water baptized to go to Heaven. Ladies and gentlemen, this is how messed up our churches are today doctrinally! This is why I like to teach all my blog readers the golden nuggets of truth that I have learned over the years, to help SOLIDIFY your salvation beliefs. I want you to have the blessed inexplicable joy and peace that I have, knowing 100 % without question that my name is written in Heaven (Luke 10:20). I NEVER doubt my salvation anymore, because I understand it.

You don't need to ASK Jesus to save you, God is already eagerly OFFERING you His free gift of salvation, just for the taking by faith. You don't need to ASK Jesus to forgive your sins, because He has already paid for them with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19; Revelation 1:5). Simply BELIEVE that Jesus did it for you, and you will be instantly, irrevocably and eternally saved by God's grace.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Jesus is precious!!! Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

6.7.15 Sadly, Pastor John MacArthur Is Now Burning In Hell (2025-07-15 09:57)

Galatians 1:6-7, " I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

It was [1]announced today in the news that Pastor John F. MacArthur (1939-2025) has died. I am fully convinced that Mr. MacArthur went to Hell forever. If John MacArthur went to Heaven, then God is a horrible confusing author and a liar, and there are two different Gospels. According to Galatians 1:6-7 there is ONLY one Gospel. According to 1st Corinthians 15:1-6 and John chapters 19 and 20 the Gospel is Christ's death on the cross, His burial and physical resurrection from the dead three days later. Faith in this GOOD NEWS alone saves a man!

I am not happy that John MacArthur assuredly went to Hell forever because of his false gospel. There are many things that I liked about Pastor MacArthur; such as, he was against women preachers, he was against speaking in tongues and the Satanic Charismatic movement, most of his teachings were exceptionally brilliant, et cetera. Unfortunately, if a man is wrong on repentance and the Gospel, you simply cannot trust any of his theology.

It saddens me when anyone dies in their sins without Christ and goes to Hell. The bottom line is that John MacArthur preached a counterfeit plan of salvation that required surrendering your will, your sins and your life to serve God in exchange for eternal life. That is "a trade of sorts" (MacArthur own words) instead of the free grace gift of God. There are NOT two Gospels.

Pastor John MacArthur

calls getting saved "AN EXCHANGE" of all that we are for all that Christ is...

> "Thus in a sense we pay the ultimate price for salvation when our sinful self is nailed to a cross. . . . It is an exchange of all that we are for all that Christ is. And it denotes implicit obedience, full surrender to the lordship of Christ. Nothing less can qualify as saving faith." (The Gospel According to Jesus, p. 140) [emphasis added]
>
> "The gospel Jesus proclaimed was a call to discipleship, a call to follow Him in submissive obedience. . . . Forsaking oneself for Christ's sake is not an optional step of discipleship subsequent to conversion; it is the sine qua non of saving faith." ("The Gospel According to Jesus," [Revised & Expanded Edition], p. 27, 142)
>
> [emphasis added]
>
> "That is the kind of response the Lord Jesus called for: wholehearted commitment. A desire for Him at any cost. Unconditional surrender. A full exchange of self for the Savior. It is the only response that will open the gates of the kingdom." ("The Gospel According to Jesus," [Revised & Expanded Edition], p. 148)
>
> [emphasis added]

Dear reader, what Pastor MacArthur preaches does NOT match what the inspired Word of God teaches!

Mr. MacArthur was inspired by demons when he wrote those heretical statements.

Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible are we taught that to receive God's free gift of eternal life, we must EXCHANGE everything we are to receive God's free gift! That could not be a free gift (Ephesians 2:8-9; Romans 5:15-18). And by the way, I haven't found any place where Pastor MacArthur focuses on eternal life being a free gift; he always focuses on what YOU must do to be saved, instead of what CHRIST did to pay for your sins.

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

Dr. John MacArthur further errantly says:

> It [salvation] isn't adding Jesus to your repertoire. It isn't like the rock singer who said, "I've been born again but don't think it'll change my act or my lifestyle." It's not that. It's an exchange of all that I am for all that he is. It's an abandoning of all my righteousness for all his righteousness. It's a setting aside of everything I thought valuable for the pearl of great price. I would willingly bankrupt myself of all my human prizes, right? Hear Paul, "I count all things but dung that I may win Christ." That's the exchanged life.
> So, we would then say, who are the few? [the saved] Those who obey the commands of Christ and the will of the Father, those who confess Christ at any cost. And for everybody that cost may be different, but when salvation is really happening, God energizes the willingness to pay the cost, whatever it is.

What a theological dingleberry! Pastor John MacArthur horribly butchers the inspired Word of God. Dear reader, this man went to Hell. It is sad and tragic, but true. If the Bible be true, and it is, then no man ever goes to Heaven who perverts the Gospel of free grace. Today is truly a sad day for John MacArthur. There is no peace to the wicked. Titus 3:5a, " Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us... "

6.7.16 How To Know If You've Believed In Vain (2025-07-17 09:26)

1st Corinthians 15:1-2, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain."

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. So many misinterpretations of the Holy Bible could be avoided, if the reader would simply also read several verses before and after a particular passage of Scripture.

The Apostle Paul started the church at Corinth. After leaving Thessalonica, Paul and his companions, Timothy and Silvanus, arrived in Corinth and began, again, to preach the gospel in an effort to win converts. 2nd Corinthians 1:18-19, "But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay. For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea." Paul preached THE GOSPEL to the Corinthians. Paul defines this Gospel in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 as three things:

1. Jesus Christ DIED on the cross for our sins according to the Scripture.
2. He was BURIED according to the Scripture.
3. Jesus bodily RESURRECTED three days later from dead according to the Scriptures.

1st Corinthians 15:3-4, "For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:" This is "the gospel" according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, by which WHOSOEVER is saved if they BELIEVE IT.

So when Paul warns the churchgoers at Corinth (and by extension all who read this passage), to make sure you haven't BELIEVD IN VAIN, he is simply saying that one's faith is in vain (worthless and non-productive) if it is in the WRONG GOSPEL. Paul said that he received the Gospel (i.e., the GOOD NEWS) directly from the Lord Jesus Christ, and not from a mere man. Galatians 1:11-12, "But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ." Some false teachers claim that Moses preached a different Gospel than in the New Testament.

They also claim that Jesus and Paul didn't preach the same Gospel. I have heard some damnable false prophets teach that Jesus' Gospel required water baptism, but Paul's Gospel does not. THAT IS WRONG!!! There has always been, is now, and always will be ONLY ONE GOSPEL. What saith the Scripture? Galatians 1:6-7, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

Dear reader, there is only ONE GOSPEL. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Salvation has always been through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ for our sins. Hebrews 4:1-2 says that Moses preached THE GOSPEL to the Jews in the Wilderness for 40 years, but sadly most of the Jews perished into Hell forever, because they didn't have faith mixed in the Good News that they heard, so they perished. Hebrews 4:1-2, "Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it." Those millions of Jews heard the Gospel, but they didn't believe any of it. They bickered and complained and doubted God every step of the way through the Wilderness, not putting their faith in the light of THE TRUTH of the Gospel which Moses preached unto them day after day, month after month, year after year, decade after decade.

After Jesus raised up from the dead, He came alongside two disciples who were talking while walking to Emmaus. The Savior inquired what the big commotion was around town. They asked Jesus (not recognizing who He was) if He were a stranger. Everybody in Jerusalem knew what had just happened, that an innocent good man named Jesus was crucified as if He were a guilty criminal by the envious Pharisees. As the men began to explain the situation to Jesus, they expressed frustration and doubt that Christ hadn't risen from the dead yet. That is so ironic, because they were talking to the risen Christ, and didn't even recognize Him. Jesus must have looked physically different in His resurrected, glorified, perfect, immortal, new body (or else the Lord made it so that no one could recognize Him). The Bible does not specify.

When Mary Magdalene (who had been possessed of demons before she got saved) met Jesus at the tomb, she thought He was the gardener. She did not recognize Jesus, until He called out her name as the Lord had done so many times before during His ministry, "Mary." John 20:15-16, "Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master." That is so beautiful.

For their lack of faith, Jesus rebuked the two disciples on the road to Emmaus. Luke 24:25-27," Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:

Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. " The Gospel is the Good News of the Savior. They didn't have all the details of the Gospel that we have today, but the Good News was still the same—remission of sins comes only through faith in Christ.

In the Old Testament they looked forward to the coming Christ, as evidence by the words of the Samaritan woman at Jacob's Well. John 4:25-26, "

The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things. Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he." She wasn't saved yet, until Jesus expounded her in the Scriptures, and then she BELIEVED ON HIM and was saved.

The inspired Word of God plainly defines the Gospel:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

Our pastor in Sunday morning church today preached a wonderful sermon from Galatians chapter 4 and 5.

Every Believer Is A Heir With Jesus Christ

The Apostle Paul uses the brilliant illustration of a heir (which Scripture passage I will quote to you in a moment), to demonstrate a believer before and after salvation. In the Old Testament, God required the Jews to keep the law of Moses (not to be saved, but to obey the Lord's Commandments which He applied only to His people during the Old Testament). If the Jews failed to keep God's law, they didn't lose their salvation; but rather, it brought judgment upon the nation of Israel. Romans 3:19-20 teaches that the LAW which given to mankind for the purpose to give all individual THE KNOWLEDGE OF SIN.

This is why the Jews were chastised by God, sent into Babylonian captivity for 70 years (1 year for each 7 years of the 490 total years that they didn't keep the Sabbath day). If keeping the law were required to get to Heaven, then none of those Jews could have been saved who were taken into captive to Babylon by king Nebuchadnezzar. So please don't ever let anyone deceive you into foolishly thinking that people in the Old Testament were saved by WORKS, or by PARTIAL FAITH PLUS WORKS, because that is not the truth of the Scriptures.

You cannot be saved until you first know what you are being saved from! We all need to be saved from the consequences which sin brings, "DEATH," which Romans 6:23 calls "THE WAGES OF SIN." Believing on Jesus is not enough to get to Heaven, you must also realize that you are a GUILTY SINNER. Pastor Jack Hyles preached a helpful MP3 sermon on this topic called: "[1]The Sin Question And The Son Question." It is not enough to admit you are a sinner and merely turn over a new leaf. Christ died for your sins, because there is NOTHING you can do to remedy them. Not can you merely trust Jesus to be saved, you must admit that you are a sinner deserving of punishment in Hell. If you're not a hell-deserving sinner, then why would you need a Savior? You must answer both the SIN QUESTION and the SON QUESTION. Please listen to Dr. Hyles' sermon if you don't understand what I am saying.

The Apostle Paul likens the believer, before and after salvation, to being an heir (a "heir" is a person who is entitled by law or by the terms of a will to inherit the estate of another). God has promised that any sinner who places his or her faith in Jesus Christ will become an adopted child of God (John 1:13-14; Romans 8:15). The moment you get saved, you become a heir with Jesus, just as if you were God's only begotten Son. Even though we are adopted as God's children, the blessed heavenly Father treats us the SAME as His Son. What a wonderful expectation and privilege that we don't deserve, and it all happens by childlike faith in Jesus Christ as our personal Savior...

Galatians 3:29, "And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

Ephesians 3:6, "That the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:"

> 1st Timothy 3:7, "That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life."

Isn't that precious? The Old Testament LAW tutors us to recognize our desperate need as guilty SINNERS for redemption, and then brings us to CHRIST to be saved by grace through faith in Him.

> Galatians 4:1-5, "Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all; But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father. Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world: But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons."

I love that! Before we were saved, the law of God was our guide, tutor, governor and school-master (Galatians 3:24-26). The LAW teaches (tutors) us that we are helpless guilty sinners, and then brings us to CHRIST to be saved by grace through faith alone. But once a child heir grows up and becomes of age, they become adopted sons. As God's children was are FREE from under the curse of the law. We have liberty in Jesus Christ, so that the law no longer has any power to condemn us. I believe that is why 1st John 3:9 says, "Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God." We cannot sin as saints because Jesus paid for our sins with His blood through Calvary's cross. Our sins have all been washed away. That is why a believers can only FALL IN grace (Romans 6:1), never FROM GRACE (Galatians 5:4). Only a Christ-rejecting sinner, or those who trust in partial faith in Christ plus something else have fallen FROM GRACE. They have not obeyed the Gospel. They have not done the Father's will concerning salvation (John 6:40). We have liberty in Jesus as Christians...

> Galatians 5:1-4, "Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace."

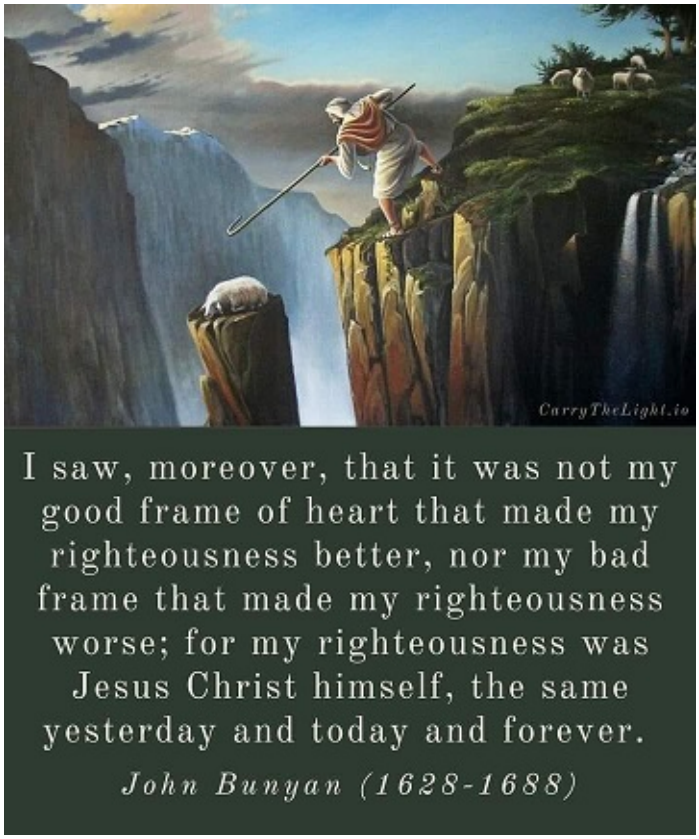
So many churchgoers today are trying to live the Christian life, following Jesus as their Lord and Master, attempting to do many wonderful works to prove that their faith is genuine; but in reality they are deceived by Satan, calling Jesus "Lord, Lord," but they are not trusting (resting) completely in His sacrificed on the cross for their sins.

Everyone who has ever been saved got saved by FAITH ALONE in CHRIST ALONE. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Furthermore, we read in Romans 4:4 that if salvation had ever been by keeping the law, then it would have been of DEBT instead of GRACE. Romans 4:4, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt." God has never owed any sinner salvation for doing works!!!



If it were possible to get to Heaven by works, it would mean that Christ died in vain. Galatians 2:21, "I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain." Multitudes of corrupt preachers today are wickedly FRUSTRATING the grace of God. When you mess with the grace of God, you are messing with the God of grace. Carefully notice that a group of unsaved religious people in Matthew chapter 7 boasted of their WORKS...

> Matthew 7:22-23, "Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?
>
> And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.
> **"

Please read what Jesus said about these false prophets...

> Matthew 7:21,"Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven."

What is the Father's will? I'm glad that you asked my fine non-feathered friend. John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." The will of God the Father is that you put your trust in God the Son. John 14:6-7, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him." The only way to God the Father is through the only begotten Son of God, Jesus. The ONLY way to Heaven is through Jesus Christ!!! Amen and amen.

6.7.17 Jesus Didn’t Deserve To Die On A Cross (2025-07-17 13:23)

Romans 5:6-9, “For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.”

There’s a lot of unfair things in a marriage, such as forgiving one’s spouse when they betray your trust, lie about you and bring shame upon the marriage, but Jesus didn’t deserve to suffer and die for crimes that He didn’t commit. We all deserve to burn in Hell for our crimes against God. Romans 3:10-11,

“As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one: There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.”

Christ unfairly suffered in our place on Calvary’s cross. I try to remember that truth whenever my wife disappoints and hurts me. Sometimes my wife tells me that she doesn’t deserve the nice things that I do for her, after she disappoints me. I always kindly remind her that Jesus didn’t deserve to be punished either for what we did wrong, but He still loves us and died in our place anyway (Romans 5:6-9). Jesus has set an example for us to follow.

I don’t do nice things for my wife because she deserves it, but because she needs it and I love her.

That is what it means to be Christlike.

I love my wife, so I am nice to her even when she doesn’t deserve it. This Bible truth will revolutionize all of your relationships when you are treated unfairly, if you will apply it to your life. 2nd Corinthians 5:21,

“

For he [God the Father] hath made him

[God the Son]

to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him

[Christ]

” Jesus paid a debt that He did not owe, because we owed a debt that we could not pay. That is true love.

> “The only sins Christ ever had was OURS. And the only righteousness we will ever have is HIS. He gives you His righteousness when you believe on Him as your savior.”
> —Pastor Ralph ’Yankee’ Arnold

God’s wondrous love always peers beyond our faults and sees our need instead.

He Looked Beyond My Faults

6.7.18 This One Thing I Do (2025-07-18 17:00)

Philippians 3:13-14, "Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

If something is worth doing, it is worth doing right. THIS ONE DAY I LIVE! You cannot live tomorrow today. We've only got today. This is one of the great secrets to life, to just take life one day at a time.

Dear reader, don’t lament the mistakes of yesterday, and don’t preplan tomorrow. Live for today, now, for Christ.

The most important article I have ever written is this one!

THIS ONE THING I DO!

The most important job is the one that doesn’t get done.

THIS ONE JOB I DO!

I listened to a sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) today titled, “ [1]Boast Not Thy Self Of Tomorrow .

I am sharing some truths that I gleaned from the sermon. I humbly think that Pastor Hyles should have renamed his sermon to,

“This One Thing I Do,” which I think you will agree if you listen to it. It could also be that Brother Johnny Colsten mistakenly read the wrong Scripture passage, which I’ve seen happen in other churches.

Dr. Hyles preached this sermon one day before his 74th birthday in 2000. His birthday was September 25th, 1926. Interestingly, Dr. Hyles died and went to Heaven on February 6th, 2001 at age 74, which was 4 1/2 months after preaching this sermon. I love and miss Brother Hyles!

By the way, [2]I encourage you to join me in regularly listening to Bible preaching, because we all need preaching to help us think and live right. Hundreds of millions of people literally spend decades of their life accumulatively doing nothing but watching television and listening to music, but they haven’t heard more than a few hours of sermons, if that. No wonder people’s lives are such a mess in the world! It requires character to listen to Bible preaching, versus seeing your favorite movie or hearing your favorite music group.

That is why so many of the churches are empty today, because the church is boring as compared to Hollywood or a rock concert. Hardly anyone wants to hear a dry pastor speak the boring truth of God’s Word. That is, it is boring to someone who is worldly minded. Granted, most churches have become corrupted and very few people have the spiritual discernment to differentiate a cult from a church anymore. Any pastor who teaches that you must

Repent of your sins

to get to Heaven is a false prophet and a liar!

Such a place is a religious cult, not a genuine New Testament church. To get to Heaven, y ou only need to realize that you are a sinner, so you will see your need for Christ (Romans 3:19-20; Galatians 3:24-16).

Sadly, to draw more people into today’s dead churches, pastors have resorted to bringing the world into the church. This is why rapper Kanye West was invited in 2019 to Break Dance at Joel Osteen’s shameful Lakewood Church. When you bring the world into the church you haven’t won them to Christ, they’ve won you over to the world. I hate worldly churches, which are really nothing more than entertainment and fun centers.

I am 58 years old in 2025. My birthday was March 5th, 1967. I like my birthday. I like my name, David John Stewart. My little brother died two weeks before his 3rd birthday in November of 1974. His name is Paul Solomon Stewart. I look forward to meeting him in Heaven when I arrive someday. All babies who die go to Heaven, safe in God's merciful grace. Paul cannot come to me, but I will go to him someday, by God's grace through my faith in Jesus Christ.

The Apostle Paul exclaimed in our text passage of Scripture, " This one thing I do,

" forgetting those things that are behind, and reaching forth unto those things that are before (i.e., moving forward, now). I don't need to sulk over painful things from the past. Nor do I need to worry about potential problematic things in the future, because I may not even be alive tomorrow. All I need to focus on and be concerned about is today, right now. This is the key to coping with life, especially during the difficult times when all hope seems gone.

To be honest, I plan to watch a good movie each day.

I plan each day to eat a nice meal.

I plan to hear [3]Alexander Scourby read some of the King James Bible each day.

I plan to listen to some Bible preaching each day by a fundamentalist preacher (usually [4]Jack Hyles and [5]Steven Anderson).

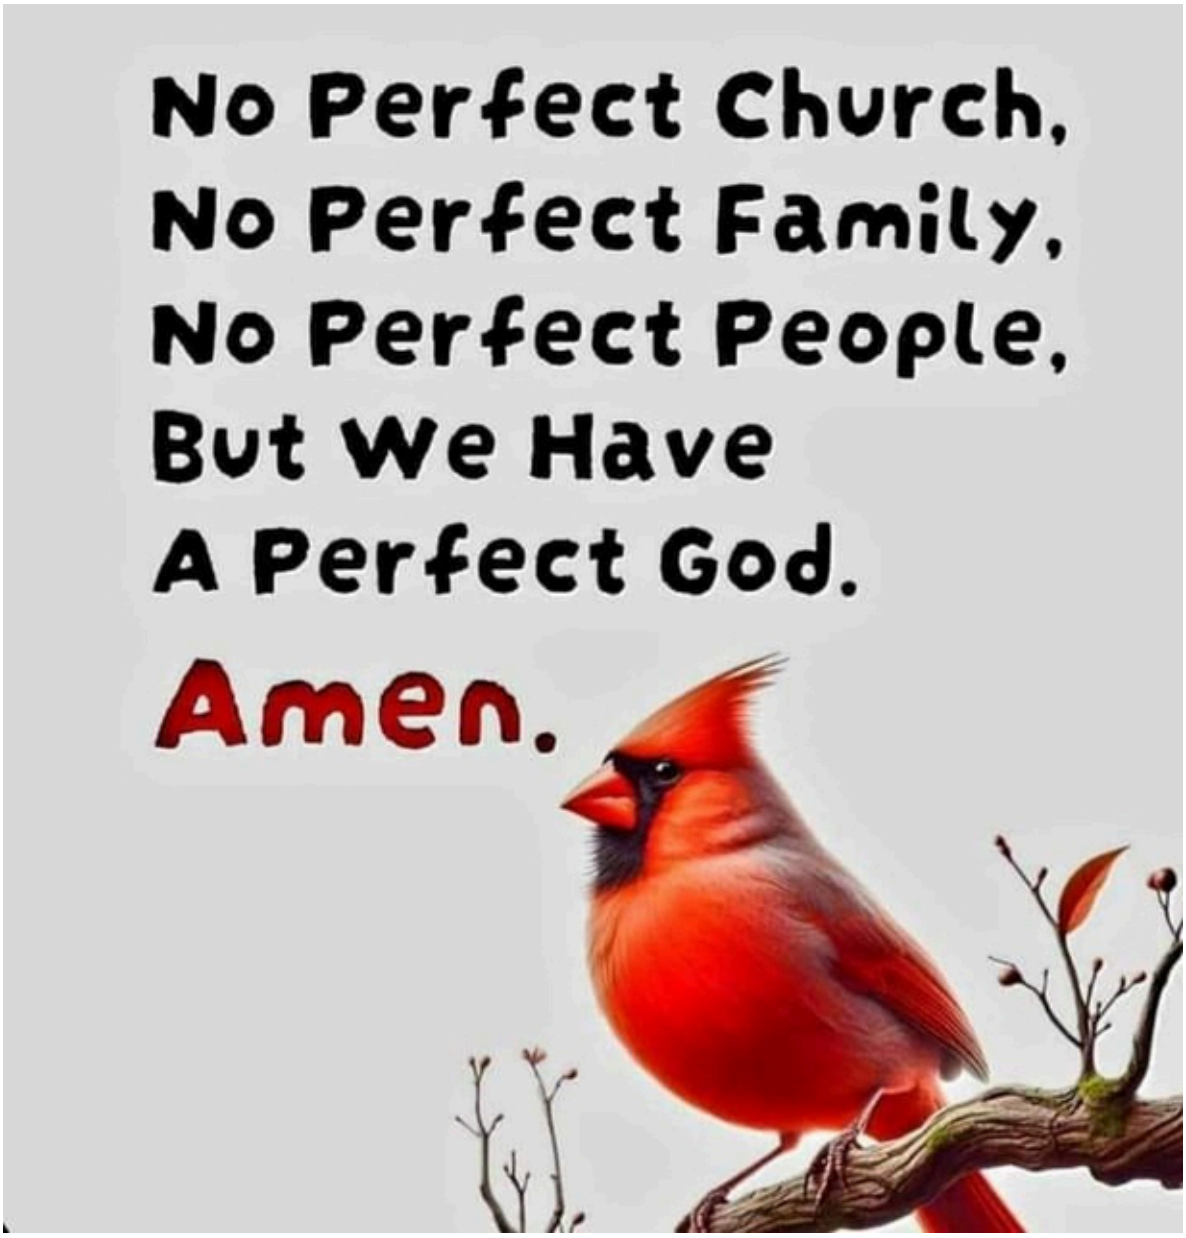
I love listening to those guys because they tell it like it is without apology nor compromise, in your face truth! I do these things to help me enjoy each day. Preaching helps me to think and live right. Watching a movie helps me to relax.

I plan to play my stringed musical instruments a couple days each week, depending how I feel because of my chronic neck pain (I was severely rear ended by a church bus in 1992 and then fell 15 feet down a package slide at work in 2005). I have been diagnosed with Cervical Degenerative Disk Disease since 2004. The constant chronic pain is debilitating. It's not easy for me to get through each day, but it helps by just taking life one day at a time.

People will let us down. Pastors and churches will hurt us. Family members will disappoint us. Money will disappear and fail us. Thankfully, our **"

God is faithful

" (1st Corinthians 1:9).



THIS ONE THING I DO. Like the Apostle Paul, I choose to forget about yesterday and just focus on today. I have by faith placed the losses, pain of soul and heartaches of the past all into God's omnipotent, omniscient, omnipresent and omnibenevolent hands for judgment. Whatever horrible things people have done to hurt us is God's department. ...

> Romans 12:19-21,
>
> "Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.
> Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good."

You can be rest assured dear reader that no one ever gets away with anything. God sees it all. Even when someone intentionally hurts your feelings, it is a sin that God sees. In fact, deliberately hurting someone's feelings is evil, because it was intentional. I want no part of that type of malicious conduct. God knows that I am very careful not to hurt the feelings of others, even though people often hurt my feelings. I am a sensitive man, I admit. God has given me a big heart as a fundamentalist Bible preacher. I care! As redeemed saints we have the mind of Christ (1st Corinthians 2:16). Jesus cares (1st Peter 5:7).

6.7.19 Sadly, Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart Is Now Suffering In The Fires Of Hell (2025-07-19 14:33)

Galatians 1:6-7, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

It was [1]announced in the news recently that Evangelist Jimmy Swaggart (1935-2025) died on July 1st, 2025. I am fully convinced that Mr. Swaggart went to Hell forever. If Jimmy Swaggart went to Heaven, then God is a horrible confusing author and a liar, and there are two different Gospels. According to Galatians 1:6-7 there is ONLY one Gospel. According to 1st Corinthians 15:1-6, and John chapters 19 and 20, the Gospel is: Christ's death on the cross, His burial and physical resurrection from the dead three days later. Faith in this GOOD NEWS alone saves a man; not his willingness to turn from sin, follow Christ and do better moving forward.

I will now quote the helpful words of Christian author Michael P. Bowen, who refutes Jimmy Swaggart's FALSE plan of salvation...

> Swaggart then directs the reader to pray a special prayer. Swaggart's salvation prayer, like so many other salvation prayers mentioned in this book, requires the one praying to 1) realize "you" are a sinner, 2) believe Jesus died for "you" on the cross, 3) open "your heart" to Jesus as both Lord and savior, 4) let Him take "full control" of your life, and 5) let Him make "you" everything that He wants you to be. Swaggart says that anyone who prays this prayer "in all sincerity" is now God's child.
>
> Now, if you will visit Swaggart's Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) section of his Jimmy Swaggart Ministries Website, then scroll all the way to the bottom of the page, you will see where he states that a truly born-again Christian can lose his or her salvation. Swaggart says that if a truly born-again Christian stops believing in Christ, or that if he or she deliberately turns their back upon their salvation, that they can lose their eternal salvation. Swaggart then affirms that salvation is free, but that the "just" shall live by "faith." Swaggart again claims that salvation is "not of works" but he then claims that salvation is, in fact, "maintained" by a person's good works and acts of righteousness. The aforementioned (paraphrased) materials you have just read constitute the plan of salvation according to Jimmy Swaggart.
>

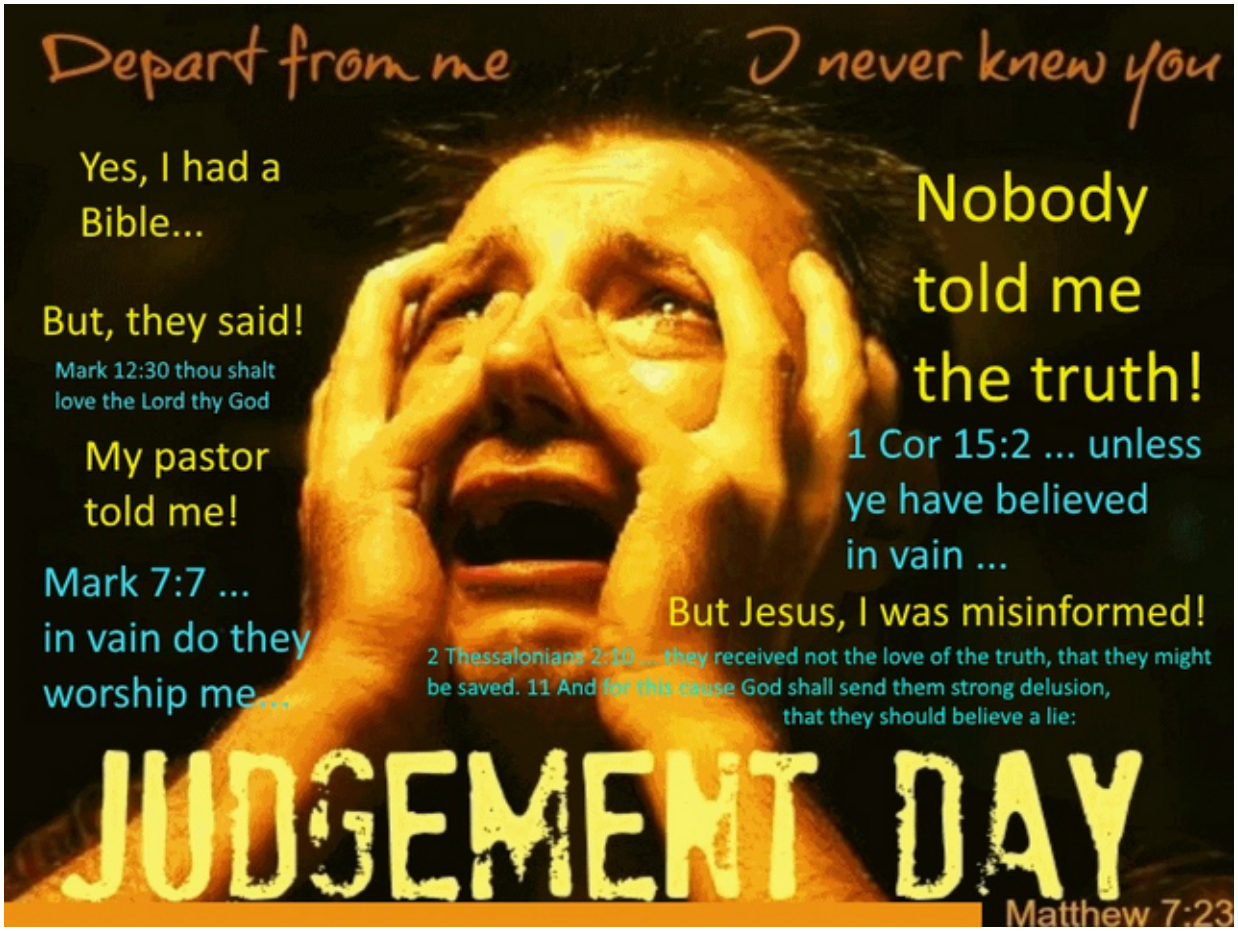
Michel Bowen continues on pages 108-109...

> No, reader, you cannot lose your salvation the way Swaggart says you can. And the bible is also very clear that God is the one who keeps us saved. We do not maintain our born-again status by doing works of righteousness or by living the Christian Lifestyle. Look at what Romans 4:5 says, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." That "righteousness" is the exact same righteousness that Christ imputes to us at the moment we trust Him. From that moment onward, we are seen positionally by God as "as righteous as Christ" because at the moment of belief Christ swaps our unholiness for His righteousness.



Swaggart, on the other hand, says we have to “maintain” our salvation by living the Christian Lifestyle, yet, in rebuke of such viewpoints, Jesus says, “And this is the Father’s will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day” (John 6:39). Jesus said He won’t lose you; yet, Swaggart is telling us that how we live our lives between the time we are born again until the time we die is what determines whether or not we get into heaven.

Swaggart says that if a truly born-again Christian doesn’t want his or her salvation anymore, that they can turn their backs on God and they will go to hell as a result. But according to Christ’s own words, that is impossible. If you could ever be lost after Jesus Christ said He would give you everlasting life the moment you trust Him as your savior, then Jesus lied to Nicodemus and He lied to all of humankind.

SOURCE: Michael P. Bowen, " [3]I Never Knew You ," p. 108-109

I couldn’t have said it any better.

Dear reader, if you can lose God’s free gift of salvation, then it is only because there is something that YOU must do to maintain it, and that is WORKS, not the free grace of God. Romans 4:4, “ Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.”

6.7.20 Mission Impossible: Lordship Salvation (2025-07-20 12:18)

Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

One of my favorite soulwinners is a man named Jack Weaver (1929-2015). In fact, I love the dear man! Here is his proper obituary from 2015:

> WEAVER, JOHN "JACK", WHITESIDE, Jr., 85, went home to be with the Lord on January 20th. We have absolute assurance that Jack is in Heaven with his Savior, because he had trusted in Jesus Christ's death on the cross to pay the debt for his sins and had accepted God's free gift of eternal life in Heaven with Him forever. Jack was a graduate > of the University of Alabama. Jack had many accomplishments including artist, inventor, NASA employee, candidate for the Florida State Legislature, pest control company owner, appointed member of FL Pest Control Regulatory Commission, ordained pastor, computer systems administrator and [1]expreacherman.com blog creator, but his true passion was sharing the simplicity of the Gospel of God's amazing Grace that changed the course of his life. Jack is survived by his wife, Shirley Weaver, son Mike (Cindy) Weaver of Palmetto Bay, FL; son Kym (Jan) Weaver of Lookout Mountain, GA; and daughter Robin Russell of Chattanooga, TN. Jack was the beloved "Pop-Pop" to grandchildren Courtney, Megan, Anna, Tara, Lindsay, Chris, Taylor and Tanner as well as his six great-grandchildren. Jack was preceded in death by Fern Weaver, his wife of 48 years. A memorial service will be held at Southwest Community Church on January 31 at 11:00am. Contributions may be sent to Northland Bible Baptist Church, 3686 County Road 8 Southeast, St. Cloud, MN 56304. [2]SOURCE

Kindly said, Evangelist Jack Weaver had a sharp tongue, suffering no fools. I gotta love a guy like that, who is set for the defence of the Gospel, as unpleasant as he was to deal with sometimes! I'd rather see a guy with wildfire than no fire! Jack was like a saintly Pitbull, biting his teeth into anybody who even seemed to stray away in the slightest deviation from the clear Gospel as proclaimed in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

Jack Weaver at times lifted people's words out of context, biting their head off for making statements that he alleged were perverting the Gospel. For example: I once said that something is very wrong with a gay pastor who defends his sin of homosexuality, and I questioned his salvation. Mr. Weaver wrongly accused me of preaching Lordship Salvation. But anybody who read the complete article I published on my website, could clearly see that I absolutely don't preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. No way! I hate Lordship Salvation! I hate misunderstood repentance, which errantly teaches that you must repent and turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved.

Concerning the gay pastor, the only point I was trying to make was 1st John 1:10, "If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

" No one is saved who denies being a guilty sinner in God's sight! You've got to know what you're being saved from. But you don't need to stop your sinning to be saved, which is IMPOSSIBLE, hence the titled of this blog article. Having said all that, I truly do admire Brother Weaver and I respect him for being a Devil fighter. Jack Weaver is of kindred spirit, since we are both like Pitbulls ready to pounce on anyone who dares to corrupt the simplicity that is in Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

Mission Impossible

In 1966, the iconic James Bond 007 "

Mission Impossible

movie series began. In recent years, each sequel in the series has grossed $565,000,000. Wow! Of course, we all know that agent 007 successfully accomplishes those “IMPOSSIBLE” missions! But there is a mission that truly is utterly IMPOSSIBLE, and that mission is called “Lordship Salvation.” No human being has ever perfectly kept God’s Old Testament law, except the virgin-born sinless Son of God, Jesus (Hebrews 4:14-16). Jesus is the sinless Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world (John 1:29). Jesus did an impossible mission!

The only begotten Son of God took the sins of all humanity upon Himself to bear alone on the cross. Jesus did the impossible, something that ONLY God could do for mankind. Where there was no way of escape, God made a way of escape through faith alone in His blessed Son. Philippians 3:9, “And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

” Thank you Lord!!!

The following was written by soulwinner Jack Weaver. By God’s grace, I want to try to keep Jack’s ministry alive, by sharing and promoting his excellent writings to help educate others concerning God’s simple plan of salvation. We need more faithful men like pastors’ Jack Weaver, Ralph Yankee Arnold, Hank Lindstrom and Max Younce, you are set for the defence of the Gospel, to protect and proclaim it clearly. Brother Jack Weaver says:

> Occasionally we are asked why we concentrate on exposing the awful and un-Biblical theory called, Lordship Salvation [LS] or, as I prefer to call it, Lordship Probation. This false message is advancing at lightning speed through too many modern churches today.
>
> Simply put, Lordship Probation (“salvation??”) demands the impossible from an individual who may sincerely be searching for God’s Amazing Free Gift of salvation. Our number one goal is to make the clarity and simplicity of God’s plan of salvation easy to understand and believe.
>
> Our secondary goal is to expose the lies of false Bible teaching — whoever they are and wherever they be, especially the devious tragedy of Calvinism and Lordship “salvation.”
>
> Before we go into detail, I would say that our number one reason for contending against LS is that it contradicts all of God’s Biblical teaching about His salvation by Grace alone through Faith alone in Christ alone by His Word. LS adds and demands good works for one to procure their version of salvation and then they add even more works for keeping one’s salvation. Tragedy!!
>
> We have quoted many LS proponents in previous articles. I will mention some newer ones here to illustrate my point that LS is a growing menace. If you have some LS proponents to expose here, please do so in your comments.
>
> We are thrilled to get to know some of our readers who have wonderfully come out from under the horrible yoke of LS into the Freedom that IS IN Jesus Christ through God’s Grace. You are welcome to comment upon your experience with LS or Calvinism.
>
> Some LS/Calvinist names of disrepute are: Francis Chan, Paul Washer, John MacArthur, John Piper, RC Sproul, Rick Warren, John Calvin, Charles Spurgeon, Arthur

W. Pink, George Whitefield, John Knox, Martin Luther, AW Tozer ([3]from Charlie Bing), etc. (and we could name more and more).

Pearl, one of our long-time contributors and commenters found that Dave Ramsey (Practical Financial guru) and one of his "Team" members, Jon Acuff (who recommends Francis Chan) fit into the same camp as those mentioned above. That is a shame because Ramsey and his folks have a great common sense method of helping rescue a family from financial burden. But, in the back reaches of the Ramsey domain, they preach a false doctrine to babes in Christ and the unsaved. So, as we do with others who preach a false message, we cannot recommend them. Please use extreme discernment if you use their services.

Some time back I questioned Dave Hunt at Berean Call Ministries about his recommendation of quotes from Calvinist Gresham Machen. Tom McMahon (Hunt's assistant) answered me by justifying Machen and many other questionable LS and Calvinists. He declared that their quotes could apply to us today. (I prefer God's Word that applies to us today!!)

It is nonsense to recommend a teacher, who preaches lies, in order to "enlighten" believers in any area. I recently received a newsletter from Berean Call. At one time they were a great resource against Calvinism. This newsletter article warned against believers getting involved with the politics of today. The article, "Influencing The Culture" was a wholehearted endorsement of an excerpt from one of John (Calvinist guru of Lordship Probation) MacArthur's articles. No doubt Berean Call would justify such an endorsement in the exact same manner as they defended their endorsement of Machen and other Calvinists. One of Ed's statements in his note to me reads, "Further, some of the resources we offer or have offered are authored by Calvinists such as C.H. Spurgeon, John MacArthur, Jay Adams (addressing psychology), Mike Gendron (former Catholic), and William Webster."

This philosophy seems contradictory to Biblical Doctrine and a far cry from Dave Hunt's excellent book exposing Calvinism, "What Love Is This?"

We believe none of these mentioned have any redeeming qualities worth recommending for study, even though they may occasionally speak or write "a truth." The lies they propagate otherwise spoil the entire true issue of God's Grace. As God's Word says, "A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump." Galatians 5:9

The rules and dictates of Lordship Salvation and Calvinism or any other false teaching will never cure carnal Christianity — Their teaching only offers confusion.

I have had the unpleasant experience of dealing with shallow and compromised pastors and leaders from the Pensacola Christian College (PCC) camp, which is very unsettling. When I moved from Guam to Pensacola in the summer of 2021, I chose to attend Campus Church on the property of Pensacola Christian College (PCC). I had always heard about this famous (perhaps infamous) place, and now wanted to see it for myself and give my honest review. I was sickened during the first couple weeks, as I heard their incompetent church pastors (Timothy Zacharias and Jeff Redlin) teaching, verbatim: "Repentance is a change resulting in a change of behavior." Oh no, not PCC too! Here is a screenshot from their Foundation's Class, to confirm what I say...

Satanic False Doctrine at Pensacola Christian College (2021)

When I kindly confronted Pastor Jeff Redlin on July 15, 2021 (about the heresy I had heard and seen taught the night before at Wednesday evening Bible study at Campus Church), he downplayed the entire matter, insisting that they are doctrinally sound and correct. Unfortunately they are not doctrinally sound!!! The big problem is that PCC's pastors absolutely refuse to admit that they are WRONG!!! Repentance does NOT mean that a change of behavior will follow getting saved. To teach such heresy adds to the Gospel, misleading people to think that they didn't really get saved unless your behavior has changed and improved, turning away from sinful bad habits.

I really love something that one of my favorite preachers, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, said:

> "'You can't tell me you can trust Christ as Savior, and then go out here and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven!' Yes, I can tell you that! That's what the Bible says. If you don't come to the conclusion, that—Yes, you can trust Christ as your Savior and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven when you die—you don't get grace, > because that is the exact truth! That is the truth! I do not have to change my life! I don’t have to stop one sin! You say, ’I’ve never heard a preacher say that.’ You just heard one! And you listen to me—I want to live as holy and as godly as I possibly can. I am now 70 years old. I’ve been saved for 52 years. … the only reason I’m going to Heaven is because, 52 years ago in a little living room, I accepted Christ as my Savior.” —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, a great quote from the awesome sermon, “[7]Calvinism And Grace Are NOT Compatible | [8]MP3”

Bravo! You CAN get saved and then go out and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven. It is called “

(G od’s R iches A t C hrist’s E xpense).

I was worried a couple months who, when Pastor Yankee Arnold became infected with COVID-19. He was in a hospital ICU (Intensive Care Unit) on a breathing machine! But I prayed for my good friend, and we all know how great a Christian I am, so God answered my prayer! Okay, I am just being silly, I am not a very good Christian; but God made us a promise in James 5:14, “

And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. ” I tremendously love my soulwinning friend in Christ. [9]God has used Pastor Yankee Arnold to inspire me to work even harder to win the lost to Christ. God is so good! [10]I love to hear Pastor Yankee play his harmonica.

We all have our own battles to fight! I didn’t choose the battles with the Bob Jones University camp, they forced me to fight. I didn’t choose the battle with the Pensacola Christian College camp, they boxed me into a corner and I was drafted. Singer Kenny Rogers got it right in his popular 1979 song titled: “The

Coward Of The County

”…

> "I promised you, Dad,
>
> Not to do the things you’ve done.
>
> I walk away from trouble when I can.
>
> Now please don’t think I’m weak.
>
> I didn’t turn the other cheek.
>
> And, Papa, I sure hope you understand:
> Sometimes you gotta fight when you’re a man." [emphasis added]

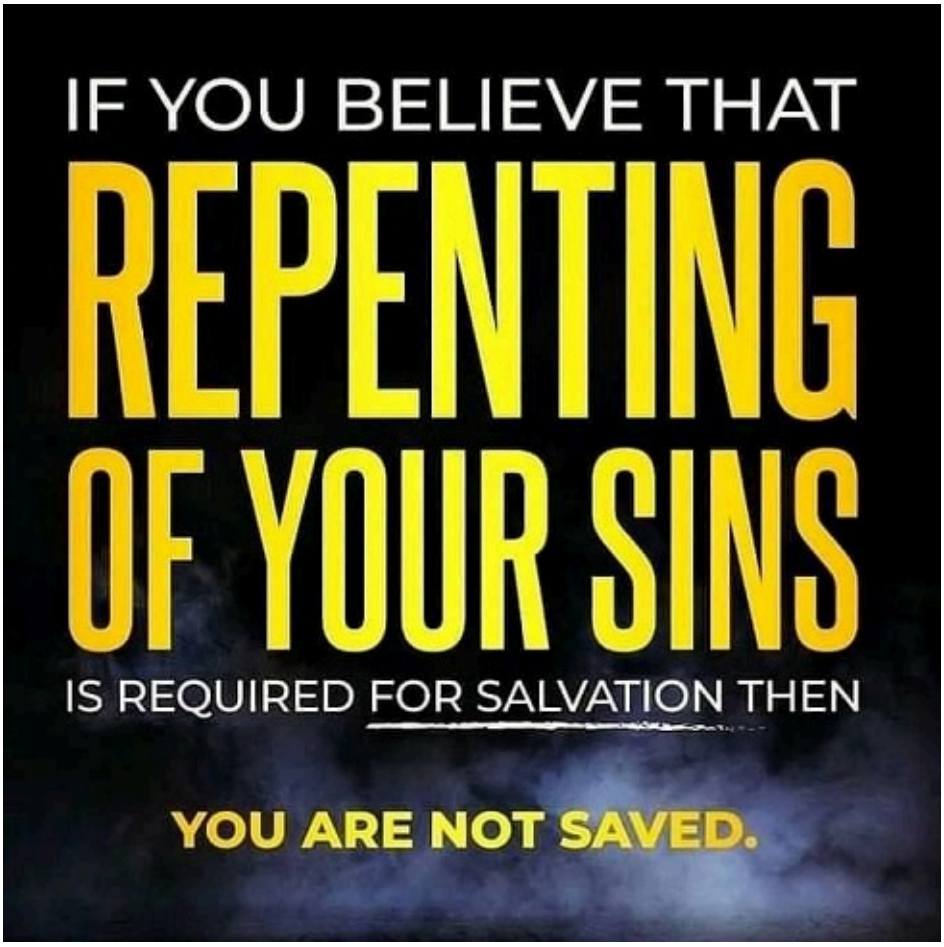
And so it is, I have been compelled to fight many theological battles that I didn’t want to fight! All I ever wanted on the island of Guam was to attend the Harvest Baptist Church in my loneliness, for lack of a better church to attend. I had attended their church for all of 2013 to 2014. I made many friends at the church. I felt loved and was part of a family, but I made the fatal mistake of exposing the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, for which I was canned, banned and ostracized permanently. Harvest’s incompetent and cruel pastors threw me under the bus and I suffered inexplicable pain and loneliness of soul from 2014 to 2021 (7 years of hell).



While Pastor Marty Herron collected his spiritual welfare check from Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, living large while parasiting off the people, he left me for dead at home where I rotted emotionally for the next 7 years. I had nowhere to go and he knew it, because I told him so! I needed a friend to help me, but unlike Marty Herron I was a true friend to give him the truth; but he is a snake who only cares about his career. Jesus warned about the Marty Herrons of this evil world (Romans 16:17-18; Luke 16:13; Galatians 3:1-3, 6:7). Is it any surprise why [11]church attendance was at an all-time low in 2020?

Honoring Evangelist Jack Weaver

Pastor Weaver was a faithful man, bold to contend for the Christian faith (Jude 1:3). I found these special words from Kym Weaver to honor her Dad, with which I agree:

> Trying to think of a few short words to remember and honor Dad is a difficult task...
>
> He was simple yet complex.
>
> He was brilliant yet humble.
>
> He was demanding yet understanding.
>
> He was a strict disciplinarian yet fair... well, most of the time!
>
> He had high expectations yet was compassionate when we failed.
>
> He was a teacher of many yet was always willing to be a discerning student.
>
> He was a leader yet never let the power go to his head.
>
> He was dedicated to his job yet found the time to attend our sporting events and family trips.
>
> He was always anxious to get back to his home yet kept everyone waiting if given the opportunity to share the gospel with a stranger.
>
> He had a great sense of humor – especially cynical humor, yet knew when and how to be serious.
>
> He loved saying he was “jack of all trades, master of none”, yet we knew better, as he was master of just about anything he set his mind to.
>
> He was a man of honor and deserved credit and respect yet always said he was just a sinner saved by grace.
>
> Most of all, he became one of my best friends and I will greatly miss our conversations. It will be impossible to fill this void, however, I am grateful to God for the time that I had with him and know that I will see him again.

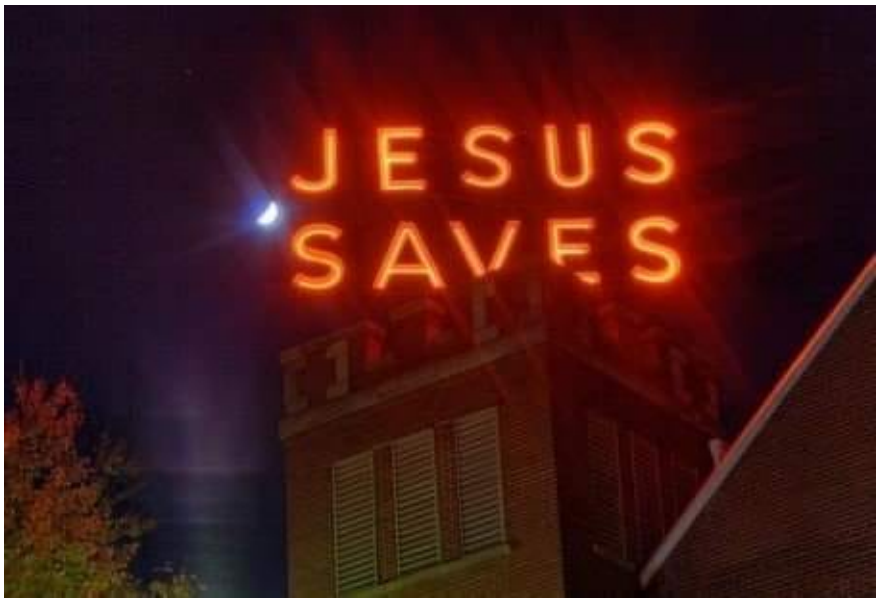
6.7.21 You Don't Give Your Life To Jesus To Get To Heaven (2025-07-21 09:23)

Matthew 7:21-23, " Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

Kindly said, you cannot make Jesus the "Lord" of your life to be saved. The unsaved people in Matthew 7;21-23 called Jesus "Lord, Lord," but Christ denied knowing them.

Nor do you get saved by "giving your life to Jesus." Judas was one of Christ's very apostles, yet John 6:70 says that Judas had a devil in him. Judas died in his sins without Christ as his personal Savior, and sadly went to Hell forever.



Nor do you have to repent "of your sins" to be saved. Matthew 27:3 says that Judas "repented himself," but he still went to Hell. The only thing you need to repent from to be saved is your unbelief. "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ" and thou shalt be saved (Acts 16:30-31).

The Apostle Paul defines "the Gospel" (i.e., the Good News) in I Corinthians 15:1-4 as three things:

1. Jesus DIED on the cross to pay for our sins.
2. He was BURIED.
3. Three days later Christ bodily RESURRECTED from the dead for our justification.

Anyone who comes to God as a guilty sinner, and accepts Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for his or her sins, believing that Jesus was buried, but then raised up from the dead after three days, is instantly, irrevocably and eternally saved. Getting saved is that simple. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. Thank you for reading.

6.7.22 Hell Is A Literal Place Of Everlasting Torment And Suffering (2025-07-22 12:20)

Matthew 25:46, "And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal." Revelation 14:11, "And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name." Revelation 20:12-15, "And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire."

I am amazed and saddened how many people reject the truth of Hell. Even professed Christians, like [1]Miss Renee Roland on YouTube, [2]boldly deny the reality of everlasting punishment. Kindly said, Renee doesn't believe the Holy Bible. Our text passages above very clearly teach that there is a place of everlasting punishment. Matthew 25:46, "And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal."

The Seventh-Day Adventist and Jehovah's Witness religious cults deny the reality of eternal punishment. SDA's and JW's teach the false doctrine of annihilation instead. That is, they believe that when an unrighteous person dies, they cease to be conscious or exist. This is unscriptural. Psalms 9:17, "The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God." The Bible plainly warns that the wicked shall be turned into Hell.

I used to work as a truck mechanic in the late 1980's and early 1990's, working my way through Bible college. I had a shop foreman who was a Mormon, named Chuck. One day Chuck came up to me, as soon as I clocked into work, handing me a piece of paper with some Bible verses written on it. Chuck knew that I was going to Bible college to become a Baptist preacher. He kindly said that if I studied those Bible passages, I would see that "hell" in the Old Testament simply refers to the "grave" (Hebrew: Sheol), not a place of eternal damnation and torment. Mormons also don't believe in eternal torture in a literal place called "Hell."

But dear reader, consider this truth—if the righteous and the wicked go to the same place, then Psalms 9:17 makes absolutely no sense! Psalms 9:17, "The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God." What would be the point if this Bible verse if the saved (righteous) and the unsaved (unrighteous) go to the same place? Obviously then, the implication is 100 % clear that the unrighteous DO NOT go to the same place that the righteous do. The word "Sheol" refers to THE REALM OF THE DEAD, which means more than merely the grave. Sheol refers to the place where the dead go, but this does not limit the meaning to exclude Heaven or Hell. If I say that someone went to the store, it doesn't mean that everyone went to the same store!

So in the context of Psalms 9:17, we see clearly that the righteous and the wicked go to DIFFERENT places after they die. Matthew 25:46, "And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal." Again, we see that the wicked and the righteous do to SEPERATE places in eternity (i.e., Heaven or Hell). There is no such place as Purgatory, which is a fabrication of the Roman Catholic church. The doctrine of Purgatory was first established by Gregory the Great in the year 593 AD.

Everyone has a right to their own opinion, but no one has a right to their own facts! The Bible is very factual that Hell is a literal place that burns with fire and brimstone (sulfur), where the damned (all Christ rejecters) will suffer in torment in fire and smoke for all eternity without rest day nor night. The way of escape if through faith in the precious Savior Jesus Christ. John 17:3, "And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent."

The Bible has more to say about Hell than it does about Heaven. It saddens me that so many people shirk off the inspired Holy Bible, as did the rich man who went to Hell:

> Luke 16:28-31, "For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead."

As we just read, if a person won't heed the written Holy Bible, then they are doomed. God won't send an angel to convince you further. God won't perform a miracle to satisfy your doubts. God won’t provide any further proof of His existence than nature (Psalms 19:1-3; Romans 1:20). The inspired King James Bible is all you need and all you’re going to get from God to prepare you for eternity. If you reject God’s free offer of forgiveness of sins and eternal life, then you cannot blame God. 2nd Timothy 2:13, “ If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.”

Why is Hell so awful? ...

- Hell is the Opposite of who God is; it is life Without God.
- Hell is Darkness because God is Light.
- Hell is Torment because God is Comfort
- Hell is Distress because God is Peace.
- Hell is Misery/Depression because God is Joy
- Hell is No Air because God is the Breath of Life
- Hell is No Love because God is Love
- Hell is No rest because God is Rest.
- Hell is Burning Fire and extreme thirst because God is Living Water
- Hell is Loneliness because God is Companionship
- Hell is Eternal Death because God is Eternal Life.

Please don’t go to Hell forever! If you want to be saved, simply LOOK TO JESUS. Please read, “ [3]The One Thing That Determines Salvation

6.7.23 Ozzy Osbourne Is Dead At Age 76 (2025-07-22 21:00)

John 3:1-3, “

There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

[1]John Michael "Ozzy" Osbourne (December 3, 1948 – July 22, 2025) died today. sadly. I do not know if he went to Heaven or Hell. Only Ozzy and God know the truth. My gut tells me that Ozzy went to Hell forever in his sins without Jesus as His Savior. I haven’t been able to find any testimony where Ozzy professed faith directly in Jesus Christ. Even the Devil appears as an angel of light to deceive his victims (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15).

[2]Ozzy Osbourne was a very popular English singer, songwriter and media personality. He rose to prominence during the 1970s as the lead vocalist of the heavy metal band Black Sabbath, during which period he adopted the nickname "Prince of Darkness." Ozzy was infamous for biting the head off of a live bat in a concert, and for urinating upon the Alamo in Texas for which he was banned by the state from performing future concerts.

As a singer, Ozzy was gifted. Randy Rhoads (1956-1982) catapulted Ozzy career in the early 1980s with his amazing guitar techniques and unique heavy metal guitar tone. Sadly, Randy was murdered by a drug-crazed pilot who commit suicide in 1982, also murdering Ozzy’s hair-dresser. I thought it was interesting years ago when I read that Ozzy had visited Ken Ham’s Ark Encounter in Kentucky.

I hesitate to say that Ozzy went to Hell when he died, because the man did profess faith in Christ. There is a chance that he went to Heaven. We simply do not know. My concern is that Ozzy identified with the apostate [3]Church of England, who are wrong on repentance and the Gospel. Like so many professions of Christianity today, Ozzy’s profession appears to have been merely superficial (Matthew 15:8-9). Was Ozzy born again? I simply do not know. It breaks my heart to think that Ozzy might be burning in the fires of Hell now and forever!

Ozzy rejected organized religion, which is actually a good sign. I reject organized religion too! I hate religion!!! Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this miserable world. No religion can get you into Heaven. Salvation is not found in any religion; but rather, it is found through faith in the person and redemptive work of the Lord Jesus Christ. John 3:16,

“ For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. ” It is that simple to be saved. If Ozzy was solely relying upon Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as full payment for his sins, believing that Jesus was buried but then raised up from the dead physically the third day, then Ozzy went to Heaven today. I sure hope so!

No amount of sin or evil done can hinder the vilest sinner from entering through Heaven’s pearly gates, if that soul is trusting in the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ alone. 1st Thessalonians 4:14,

“ For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

Someone kindly asked me today on [4]Facebook how someone as wicked as Ozzy Osbourne could have went to Heaven. Here is my unedited reply:

> There is no denying that Ozzy lived like the Devil for most of his life. The singer struggled with substance abuse and credited his wife Sharon with saving his life. Ozzy has openly said that he has never worshipped Satan. He claims it was all marketing ploys to make money, and I believe him. Granted, Satan used Ozzy’s influence to ruin millions of young people’s lives, including dozens of families who sued Ozzy over their teens committing suicide while listening to Ozzy’s song, "Suicide Solution."
>
> But we must remember that some of the worst people in the Bible were God’s children. If it weren’t for the New Testament, we’d never know that sinful Lot was saved. I believe Esau was saved, and Ishmael. Noah got drunk. Samson was a lifelong fornicator. David murdered Uriah to cover up the unintended pregnancy with his wife, Bathsheba. Solomon built altars for his heathen wives to sacrifice children to Baal. Isaiah was a man of unclean lips. Jeremiah quit the ministry. Abraham lied and commit adultery. Sarah laughed in God’s face and horribly mistreated Hagar. Moses had a viscous hot temper, even murdering a man; Moses smote the rock twice which God had commanded him to strike once, ruining that type of Christ who was once crucified for our sins. The Bible is filled with sinful saints who lived reckless lives of sin and evil, dishonoring the Lord. So, Ozzy definitely could have been saved.
> I only have doubts that Ozzy went to Heaven because I couldn’t find any direct testimony from Ozzy himself of his faith in Jesus. Many people claim to be a "Christian," but have no clue what it really means to be one. Even the demonic cults of Mormonism, Jehovah’s Witnesses and Roman Catholics all claim to be Christians, but we know that is IMPOSSIBLE because they all add works to faith; and in the case of Mormons and JW’s they also have another Jesus, and another spirit.

Another Christian woman commented on Facebook that she did understand how someone as evil as Ozzy could have been saved. Here is my unedited reply to her as well:

> We read in Matthew 7:21-23 about a group of unsaved people. They were standing in judgment before Christ Himself, but Jesus denied knowing them as His sheep. The Lord said they had failed to do the will of the Father, which is to BELIEVE on the Son without works (John 6:40).
>
> In Matthew 7:22 they boasted of their "many wonderful works." So, here we plainly see that it is impossible to determine if someone is saved or not by examining their life. To do so is to commit the error of Lordship Salvation. These people preached in Jesus’ name, did good works in Jesus’ name, even cast out devils in Jesus’ name, but they still died in their sins and went to Hell forever. By all outward appearances they seemed to be Christians, but in fact they never were saved at all.
>
> To know them “by their fruits” then, in Matthew 7:20, can only refer to their doctrine. The inspired Scripture confirms this truth in □□□ □□□□ □:□, “□□□□□□□, □□□□□□□ □□□

□□□□□ □□□□□□, □□□ □□□ □□□ □□□□□□□ □□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□ □□□: □□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□.”

Jesus plainly told us what the will of the Father is to get to Heaven in □□□□ □:□□ “□□□ □□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□, □□□□ □□□□□ □□□ □□□□□ □□□□□ □□□ □□□, □□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□, □□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□□□ □□□□: □□□ □ □□□□ □□□□□ □□□ □□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□□.”

Dear reader, it is impossible to determine if someone is saved or lost by examining their life. The only way to know for sure is by a direct testimony from their mouth (or writings) concerning what their relationship is to Jesus Christ. Only those who are solely trusting in Jesus, the Christ, because of His work of redemption through Calvary’s cross are saved. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

In 2023, celebrity evangelist [5]Dylan Novak gave Ozzy a modern Bible with Ozzy’s name engraved on the front cover. According to Ozzy’s son, Jack Osbourne, Ozzy absolutely loved the gift and cherished it. There has been much ado made in recent news that [6]Ozzy declared his faith in God in the months before his death. Unfortunately, believing in God is not enough to get to heaven. James 2:19, “ Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

Jesus Himself warned in no uncertain terms in John 3:3b,

“Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.” If Ozzy wasn’t born again, then he is now and forever burning in the fires, torments and darkness of Hell beneath. Psalms 9:17, “ The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God. ” Ozzy’s evil lifestyle couldn’t have kept him out of Heaven, but his lack of faith in the only begotten Son of God who died on a cross to pay for his sins certainly could have. Since Ozzy did at least profess to be a Christian, I am reluctant to adamantly say that he went to Hell. We simply do not know. But if you pressed me for my honest opinion, I’d have to say that I doubt if Ozzy went to Heaven.

Ozzy could be in Heaven, but only he and God (and the unseen spirit world) know for certain. As contemptible as Ozzy was in the sight of Heaven, he is still beloved by the wicked world (John 15:19).

6.7.24 The Perverted Gospel Of Pastor Erwin Lutzer (2025-07-23 09:42)

1st Corinthians 15:1-6,

Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.”

Pastor Erwin Lutzer (born 1941) was the longtime senior pastor of Moody Church in Chicago, Illinois, from 1980 to 2016. Forty-six years is a long time! It breaks my heart that Moody Church has changed for the worse over the past 75 years. One of my favorite preachers is Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951), former senior pastor of Moody Church from 1930 to 1948. Pastor Ironside was a 100 % free grace preacher!!! I love reading his Bible study books and sermons.

But after Dr. Ironside went to Heaven in 1951, Moody Church slowly shifted toward the Devil’s lies of Calvinism. A group of businessmen ran the institution and church into the ground spiritually. Sadly, for decades now Moody Publishers have printed Pastor John MacArthur’s poisonous Calvinist Lordship Salvation books. Mr. MacArthur boats openly that he is a 5-point Calvinist. John Calvin (1509-1564) is burning in Hell today! Tragically, Moody Church and Moody Bible Institute today are a cesspool of Neo-evangelical ecumenism and apostasy!

In their deception and desperate attempt to save face, Moody Bible Institute [1]falsely claims today that Pastor Ironside changed over to a mild Calvinist position in his latter ministry. Nothing could be further from the truth. [2]Moody seems to have a habit of making false allegations.

Moody Church today seems to have a double standard. [3]On their church website they seem to believe in a free grace Gospel. However, read for yourself the following heretical words by Pastor Erwin Lutzer...

> Q: Do you believe in free grace as opposed to lordship salvation?
>
> Asked by: Mike
>
> A: Well Mike, as you know, you’ve raised a question that has been controversial in the evangelical world. And for those who are listening I have to explain.
>
> Free grace emphasizes the fact that salvation is a completely free gift, and because it’s free we don’t have to make Christ the Lord of our lives, we simply come as beggars to receive a free gift. And then, having received it God begins to work in our life and begins to teach us what His lordship really means.
>
> Lordship salvation means that you can’t be saved unless you come making Christ Lord of everything, asking Him to be sovereign over your whole life.
> Well, Mike, this might not be very helpful to you, but I’m somewhere in the middle. I’ve always said that when you come to Jesus Christ to receive the free gift obviously you are turning away from your sin. In that sense, you are recognizing Christ as Lord, you are recognizing the fact that He is the Savior, you’re turning from yourself and from your sin to Christ.

> But, having said that, I do believe that lordship is something that we learn the rest of our lives. We're constantly discovering areas over which Jesus Christ might not be Lord, and even after we make Him Lord, then, of course, we still recognize that sometimes the territory is reconquered by ourselves or Satan. So, that's a lifelong process.
>
> If we emphasize lordship salvation too much, there are many people who are going to say, who then can be saved? This is demanding more than I can possibly give. And so what we need to do, the bottom line, is to stress salvation as a free gift—you come as you are—but, of course, you do come. And in the process, yes, you're admitting your sinfulness, your helplessness, in order to receive the free gift.
> SOURCE: [4]Pastor Erwin Lutzer, Moody Media, Question #70

What a bunch of Satanic lies! It is clear to me that Pastor Lutzer is foolishly trying to take a middle of the road position. Pastor Lutzer is sinfully straddling the fence between a free grace Gospel and Lordship Salvation. May I say truthfully, there is no middle ground!!! This is exactly what upset Jesus about the church at Laodicea. They were lukewarm, neither hot nor cold (Revelation 3:15-17).

There are several things wrong with Pastor Lutzer's terrible preceding answer. The man's question is: "Do you believe in free grace as opposed to lordship salvation?" That is a great question to ask any pastor, "because many false prophets are gone out into the world" (1st John 4:1). Have you been deceived? Satan is a beautiful liar! Jesus called Peter, "Satan," when he started thinking like the Devil (Matthew 16:23b). Even Christians can think like the Devil at times, which causes problems and often destroys lives. We ought to search the Scriptures with the desire to "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:" (Philippians 3:5).

Pastor Lutzer is thinking like the Devil. Lutzer at first correctly explains a free grace Gospel...

> Free grace emphasizes the fact that salvation is a completely free gift, and because it's free we don't have to make Christ the Lord of our lives, we simply come as beggars to receive a free gift. And then, having received it God begins to work in our life and begins to teach us what His lordship really means.
> SOURCE: [5]Pastor Erwin Lutzer, Moody Media, Question #70

But then Pastor Lutzer goes horribly astray by telling the man that he chooses to straddle the truth of a free grace Gospel, with the Satanic fraud of Lordship Salvation...

> Lordship salvation means that you can't be saved unless you come making Christ Lord of everything, asking Him to be sovereign over your whole life.
> Well, Mike, this might not be very helpful to you, but I'm somewhere in the middle. I've always said that when you come to Jesus Christ to receive the free gift obviously you are turning away from your sin. In that sense, you are recognizing Christ as Lord, you are recognizing the fact that He is the Savior, you're turning from yourself and from your sin to Christ.

Erwin Lutzer is NOT a born-again believer!!! How can he be when he is not completely resting in the finished work of Christ? Lutzer plainly incriminates himself as an infidel, by saying that he believes coming to Christ requires turning from yourself, turning away from your sins and following Christ as one's Lord. None of that is part of the Gospel. Let's read our text passage again from 1st Corinthians 15:1-6...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-6, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

There is nothing mentioned in Paul's Gospel (which he received directly from Jesus according to Galatians 1:12), about turning away from your sinful ways, nor about turning away from yourself, nor anything about recognizing Christ as " to follow Him obediently. What Pastor Lutzer is doing is wicked and wrong! Pilgrim's Progress author, John Bunyan, said it best I think...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Pastor Lutzer irresponsibly fails to put a difference between justification without and sanctification within. Instead, Mr. Lutzer obscures and blurs the lines between salvation and service, between sonship and discipleship. The following helpful words were written by Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008). Dr. Lindstrom actually taught Bible at Moody Bible Institute in the old days for about 15 years. Moody was okay long ago, but they got sucked into the Neo-evangelical cult of John MacArthur.

The following is all excellent truth by Dr. Lindstrom...

> "It is an inexcusable error to confront sinners with problems that concern the Christian life and call upon them to make promises regarding them. An unsaved person is never called upon to surrender himself to God. The saving act is in no instance represented as our 'giving ourselves to God'; it is, on the contrary, taking His Son as our Savior." —
>
> Charles Ryrie, Balancing the Christian Life; Moody Press, Inc., 1969 (p. 170)

> "The second approach finds faith in the gospel alone an 'easy Believism' and seeks to add something to faith in order to accomplish salvation. To repent is to 'change one’s mind,’ and to believe is to remove one’s trust from that in which it has rested and place it in Christ." —

William Howard, Is Faith Enough to Save?, Bibliotheca Sacra; January-March, 1942 (p. 99)

"This kind of faith is not ’easy believism’. It is not easy to say, ’I can’t save myself, I must recognize that there is something wrong with me, and I must seek help from someone else.’" —

Phillip H. Hook, A Biblical Definition of Saving Faith; Bibliotheca Sacra, April-June, 1964 (pp. 133, 138)

"Eternal life is free. Discipleship is immeasurably hard. The former is attained by faith alone, the latter by a faith that works... the former brings with it the righteousness of God so that a man is ’justified freely by his grace’ (Romans 3:24). The latter develops a personal righteousness, based on good deeds, so that a man was also ’justified by works’ (James 2:24). The former constituted the believer God’s workmanship, the latter fulfilled the wonderful purpose for which he had been created. The former cost man nothing, the latter could cost him everything, including life itself." —

Zane C. Hodges, The Hungry Inherit; Moody Press, Inc., 1972 (pp 114, 115)

"There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can’t be lost because it depends upon God’s faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —

M. R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House; 1959 (p. 117)

"For the unregenerate man, repentance is the change of mind whereby he turns from unbelief to faith in the person and work of Jesus Christ." —Roger Post, "The Meanings of the Words Translated ’Repent’ and ’Repentance’ in the New Testament." —

Master’s Thesis, Wheaton College, June 1972 (p. 80)

"There are those who, in their zeal to get people to turn from their sinful ways and receive the Lord, almost put repentance on a par with believing... Repentance, as it relates to Christ, means to change our minds about Him, who He is and what He’s done to provide forgiveness and deliverance from our sins. When we place faith in Jesus as having taken our place personally on the cross and borne the penalty due our sins, then we’re automatically repenting, because we couldn’t accept Him in this way without having had to change our minds in some way concerning Him." —Hal

Lindsey, The Liberation of Planet Earth, Zondervan Publishing House, 1974 (pp. 136, 137)

"Discipleship is frequently equated with salvation and often erroneously made a condition for becoming a Christian." —

Pentecost, J. Dwight, Design for Discipleship; Zondervan Publishing House, 1971 (p. 11)

"Certainly discipleship is a most important aspect of our relation to Christ, but it belongs to the sphere of Christian life rather than entrance upon that life... One does not become a disciple in order to become a Christian, but because he has become a Christian by faith in the Savior, it is fitting that he embark upon a life of discipleship". —Everett

Harrison, Must Christ be Lord to Be Savior? No!; Eternity, September 1959 (p. 14)

"There is no more piously subtle abrogation of the Gospel than to tell a Sinner that he must not only believe in the Savior, but dedicate himself to do God's will, crown the Savior Lord of his life, etc., etc. Obviously, dedication and service are highly desirable, but they are the privilege and the duty of the saved, never a condition of salvation for the unsaved (cf. Romans 12:1, 2)." —Merrill F.

Unger, God is Waiting to Meet You; Moody Press, 1975 (pp. 117, 118)

"People are sometimes led to believe that there is saving value in some public confession of Christ, or profession of a decision. "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." This is salvation. "With the mouth confession is made unto salvation." This is the voice of the newborn child speaking to and of its father. The only condition on which one may be saved is to believe." —

Lewis Sperry Chafer; Salvation; Dunham Publishing Company, 1917 (p. 46)

SUMMARY

Lordship salvation is where someone teaches that there must be a commitment to Christ as Lord of one's life in order to be saved. Recently there has been a modification of this position to say that willingness to be controlled by the Lord at the time of salvation is all that is required in addition to faith in order to be saved. The message of faith only and the message of faith plus commitment of life can't both be the gospel; therefore, one of them is a FALSE GOSPEL and comes under the curse of perverting the gospel or preaching another gospel.

Galatians 1:8, 9 says, "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you, than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, if any man preach any other gospel unto you than that you have received, let him be accursed." If only committed people are saved people, then where is there room for carnal Christians? What kind of dedication must be preached to people, if in order to be saved, they have already dedicated their lives to the Lord? Where do you stop if you start adding something else to this which is the gospel revealed in the Bible?

Look at what God says about adding to the revelation of Jesus Christ (gospel), "For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book (Revelation 22:18)." The Bible plainly declares that we are saved by faith, and not by works. Where does it say this? Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God. Not of works, lest any man should boast." What are you trusting in to get you to heaven?

Pastor Erwin Lutzer Is A Damnable False Prophet

I say kindly that Pastor Lutzer is an unsaved infidel, a deadly wolf in sheep's clothing. Anybody who contaminates, embellishes or confuses the Gospel is the enemy of the cause of Jesus Christ!!! God knows that I don't like stepping on toes or offending people; but my loyalty is to God and truth, and not to man and institutions. Pastor Erwin Lutzer indicts himself with his own theologically corrupt words...

I do believe that lordship is something that we learn the rest of our lives. We're constantly discovering areas over which Jesus Christ might not be Lord, and even after we make Him Lord, then, of course, we still recognize that sometimes the territory is reconquered by ourselves or Satan. So, that's a lifelong process.

If we emphasize lordship salvation too much, there are many people who are going to say, who then can be saved? This is demanding more than I can possibly give. And so what we need to do, the bottom line, is to stress salvation as a free gift—you come as you are—but, of course, you do come. And in the process, yes, you're admitting your sinfulness, your helplessness, in order to receive the free gift. [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [6]Pastor Erwin Lutzer, Moody Media, Question #70

What confusion! Kindly said, even at age 83, Lutzer is woefully ignorant of the inspired Word of God. According to what we just read by Erwin Lutzer, we should find a happy medium to pressure people to surrender to Jesus as their Lord. He says that you don't want to emphasize Lordship Salvation too much, because lost people won't feel like they can meet the challenge. So Lutzer foolishly says to just emphasize that eternal life is a free gift, while at the same time keeping some pressure on them to turn away from sin, turn away from yourself and follow Jesus obediently as your Lord. That is total Satanic compromise!

Dear reader, the poisonous heresy of Lordship Salvation is not something that we learn for the rest of our lives as Lutzer errantly preaches, because it is damnable heresy. Pastor Lutzer implies that some human effort is required to be saved, as if getting to Heaven were a process, which it is not. Growing in grace (sanctification) is a lifelong process, but this has absolutely nothing to do with the one time new birth (justification). Pastor Lutzer makes the horrible mistake of mixing law and grace!!!

It is my humble opinion that to avoid offending either side of the ongoing heated theological debate, Mr. Lutzer thought he was being clever to straddle the fence, drive in the middle of the road, compromise to please both sides of the argument. But dear reader, you MUST choose a side. You cannot hobnob between law and grace! You cannot mix sanctification with justification without perverting the light of the truth of the Gospel, which is what Erwin Lutzer has wickedly done. I want to repeat John Bunyan again, because this quote is so awesome...

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Pastor Lutzer cannot rightly divide the inspired Word of God, because he does not put a difference between sonship and discipleship. Here is another helpful quote, which I quoted to you earlier by Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965)...

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can’t be lost because it depends upon God’s faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —
>
> M. R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House; 1959 (p. 117)

Bravo! That is way excellent Dr. DeHaan!!! The reason why I can go to Heaven without works is because Jesus loves me (John 3:16; 1st John 3:16); but the life that I choose to live as an adopted child of God depends on how much I love Jesus (John 14:15). Do you see the difference? The new birth depends upon God’s faithfulness to keep His promise “ to save them that believe

” (1st Corinthians 1:21b); but discipleship and my rewards received in Heaven one day, depend upon my faithfulness to obey and serve God, according to my

(1st Corinthians 3:8b). One thing has nothing to do with the other.

Dear friend, partial faith in Christ plus something else cannot produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God. The seed is the inspired Word of God (Luke 8:11; 1st Peter 1:23). We are born again by God’s grace, when we put our childlike faith in the seed of the Gospel (the GOOD NEWS of Jesus’ death on the cross, His burial and physical resurrection three days later - 1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

Salvation vs. Service
(Two Basic Concepts, by Pastor Yankee Arnold)

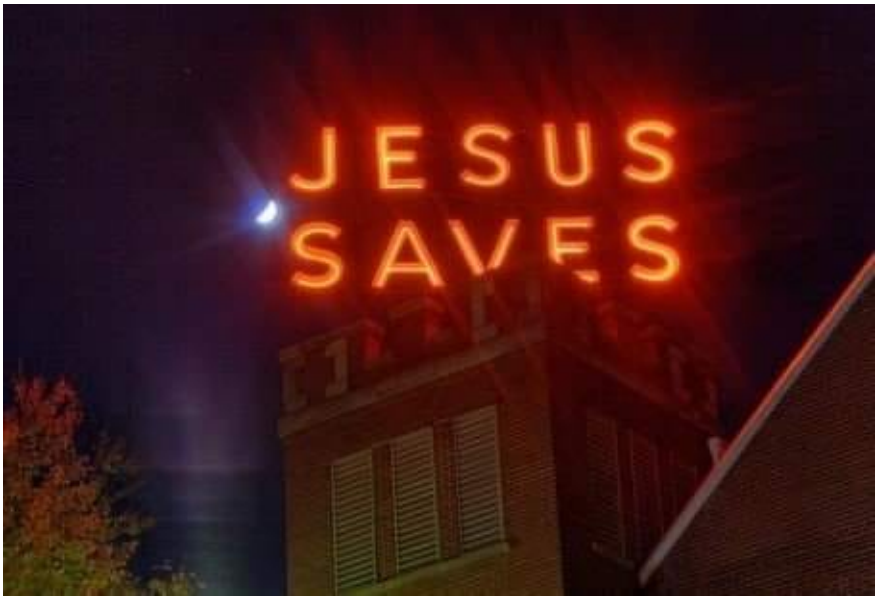
It is unfortunate that the thousands of members of Moody Church are caught somewhere between works and grace because of Pastor Lutzer's corrupt wishy-washy theology. I thank God that I am 100 % free grace Gospel. I had godly teachers. Over 95 % of clergy and laymen in today's churches and Bible colleges are caught between grace and works, unsaved.

Here is one of my favorite sermons, preaching the truth of a free grace Gospel...

Caught Between Grace And Works
(Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold)

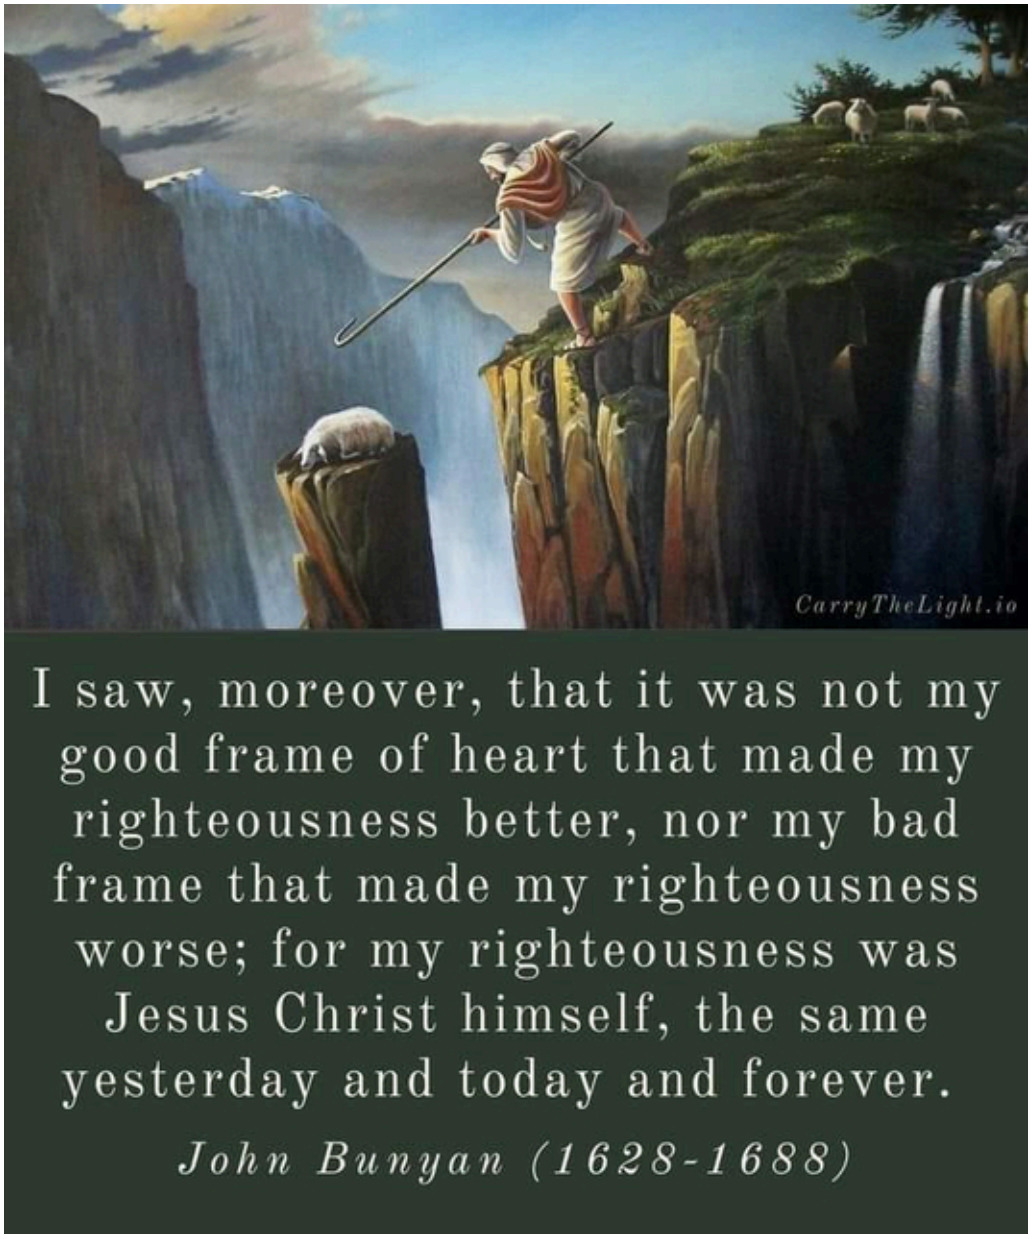
Dear friend, until you get out of the way, by exiting the salvation equation, and just totally REST in the finished redemptive work of the Lord Jesus Christ, you cannot be saved.

When the Philippian jailer in Rome asked Paul and Silas how to be saved, their simple but profound answer was to: 'BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST' (Acts 16:30-31). Paul and Silas didn't tell the jailer to turn away from his sins. They didn't tell him to repent. They didn't tell him to recognize Jesus as their Lord. They didn't tell him to turn away from himself. They just told him to BELIEVE ON JESUS!!! So many of today's churches and pastors are as corrupt as can be, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men instead of the inspired Word of God (Mark 7:7-9).



I warn you, it is not a trifle matter with God to add to His words (Proverbs 30:5-6). It is in man's sinful carnal nature to pervert the truth of the Gospel. The carnal mind has a diabolical tendency to add human reformation to God's simple plan of salvation.

We see this sinful tendency in the first man, Adam, who sewed together some fig leaves in a lame attempt to atone for his own sins, and that of his fallen wife Eve.



We also see this sinful tendency in their oldest son, Cain, who sinfully tried to please God by offering the best grain his own labors could produce. But Abel offered up a blood sacrifice, which demonstrated his faith in the coming Lamb of God (John 1:29).

We again see this sinful tendency in the rich young ruler in Matthew chapter 19 and Luke 18, who boasted to Jesus that he had kept all of the Ten Commandments from his youth up. But Jesus showed him that he in fact had failed to perfectly keep the law, because he was covetous. Jesus used the Old Testament law as God intended for it to be used, as a measuring stick to show men their sinnership (Romans 3:19-23). Jesus needed to bring that young man to the place in his self-righteous mind, where he saw himself as a guilty needy sinner, so that God could save Him by trusting in the dear blessed Savior.

6.7.25 The One Thing That Determines Salvation (2025-07-23 12:20)

by Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995)

“He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.” —John 3:36

What is the determining factor in salvation? Exactly what does a person have to do to be saved? The Bible doesn’t leave us in the dark. The answer is found in the Word of God.

In Acts 16:30-31 the Philippian jailer asked Paul and Silas, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.”

The jailer was asking, "What one thing is absolutely necessary for my salvation?" and the Bible answer was, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ."

In John 3:36 Jesus divides the world into two groups: "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." Here you have those who are believing on the Son and those who believe not on the Son. Those who are believing have everlasting life, according to the promise of God; and those who believe not shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides on them.

In John 3:18, again Jesus divides the world into two groups: "He that believeth on him is not condemned [is not under sentence]: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." Here again Jesus says there are two groups: those who believe and those who believe not. Those who believe have the sentence lifted. They are not condemned. And those who believe not are under the sentence of sin, which is the second death, because they are not believing on "the name of the only begotten Son of God."

Galatians 3:26 says, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." This passage plainly says that everybody who is a child of God is a child of God by faith. Romans 5:1 says, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ."

Neither time nor space permits me to share with you all the verses that say believing, or faith, is the determining factor in salvation. There are at least 153 verses in the Bible that make believing the determining factor in salvation. Mark 16:16 says, "He that believeth not shall be damned." So if the Bible is true, faith in the Lord Jesus Christ is the determining factor in salvation.

I've heard or read a number of sermons on "saving faith"; but the Bible never puts the word "saving" before faith. Faith is not the Saviour. Jesus is the Saviour. Faith is an attitude of the soul through which Jesus saves.

The Bible never tells us to believe and be saved. It is always careful to say, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved," or, "Whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life," or, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life." It's the Object of faith that makes faith important. Faith in the wrong thing could result in a person's damnation.

Now since faith is the determining factor in salvation, it is important to know what faith is.

So far as I know, there's only one definition of faith in the Bible. It's found in Hebrews 11:1. But while there's only one definition, there are many illustrations of faith in the Bible. I think the best illustration of faith is found in Hebrews 12:2, where we find the expression, "Looking unto Jesus."

I. Faith Is Not Looking At Jesus But Looking Unto Jesus

Almost everyone will admit that Jesus Christ existed, that He was a real person. Every time we date a check, we admit the existence of Christ. Faith is not looking at Jesus as a historical personage.

James 2:19 says, "The devils also believe, and tremble." Even the demons admit the existence of Christ. In Acts 19:15 the evil spirit in the man said, "…Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?" No, faith is not looking at Jesus; it's looking unto Jesus, which is another way of saying depending on Jesus.

Suppose someone cosigned for you to borrow money, and if you didn't pay, the authorities would put you in jail. And suppose the money came due and you had nothing with which to pay. You called your cosigner and said, "Bob, I've got problems. You know that note you signed for me—well, the money is due, and I can't pay it."

Your friend replied, "Don't worry about it. Just look to me!" He means by that, "Just depend on me. I'll pay it."

Jesus Christ says that we owe a sin debt. Romans 6:23 says, "The wages of sin is death." To pay what we owe, we would have to die and go into Hell and stay there forever. But He says, "Don't worry about it. You just look to Me."

Isaiah 53:6 says, "The Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." Two thousand years ago God took every sin you have ever committed and every one you will ever commit, and God Almighty laid those sins on Jesus Christ. While Jesus Christ was bearing your sins in His own body, God punished Him in your place to pay the debt that you owe as a sinner.

Jesus uttered seven things while He hung on the cross. Just before dying He said, "It is finished." Nothing can be added to it, and nothing can be taken from it. It's complete!

His death on the cross made full payment for your sins. And now He says to you, "Look to Me! Believe that I did die on the cross for you. Believe that I did pay your sin debt and look to Me. Look to Me, and all is well." Faith is not looking at Jesus; it's looking unto Jesus, depending on Jesus, relying on Jesus, putting the matter of your salvation in His hands and trusting Him to get you to Heaven.

II. Faith Is Looking Away From Everything Else and Looking Only to Jesus

Martin Luther translated Hebrews 12:2, "Aufsehen zu Jesus," which means "looking up to Jesus"; in other words, looking away from everything else and looking only to Jesus. It means that you look away from your works.

How long do you think you'd have to work to earn Heaven? Read the description of Heaven in Revelation 21 and 22. Why, the Bible says the street in Heaven is made of pure gold. The gold is so pure it's like transparent glass. You can see through it. Earth has no way of refining gold that pure. If you worked ten million lifetimes, you couldn't begin to earn Heaven. And the Bible says in Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast."

And consider this: If a man worked to stay out of Hell, the very motive would render the work ineffective. He would be working from a motive of fear. According to I Corinthians 13, all work must be motivated by love. Paul said in verse 3, "And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity [or love], it profiteth me nothing." So if a person worked to stay out of Hell, the motive would render the work ineffective.

A boy once asked an old preacher, "Sir, what can I do to be saved?"

The preacher replied, "Son, you're too late."

"What!" exclaimed the boy, "too late to be saved?"

"No," said the preacher, "too late to do anything. You see, son, Jesus did it all two thousand years ago."

Now wait a minute! I believe in good works, but not as an instrument of salvation. You don't work to be saved; you work because you are saved.

I would not work my soul to save,
For that my Lord hath done,
But I would work like any slave
For love of God's dear Son!

"Looking up to Jesus" means I look away from my righteousness and only to Jesus. I'm for living right. You ought to live as clean, as moral and as pure as you possibly can. But Titus 3:5 says, "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost." Isaiah 64:6 says, "All our righteousnesses are as filthy rags."

Now just a minute, friend. The Bible doesn't say the worst you do is like filthy rags, but the best you do. There is no way that anyone could ever be righteous enough to go to Heaven. You would have to be perfect, and there are no perfect people.

Sam Jones, the Methodist evangelist, once asked a congregation, "Does anyone here know a perfect person?" A lady raised her hand. "Yes."

"Do you know a perfect person?"

"Well," answered the lady, "I've never met her, but my husband talks about her all the time. She was his first wife."

The truth is, no one is perfect. Jesus said, "They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance" (Mark 2:17). Faith is looking away from our righteousness and looking only to Jesus. You don't get better to get saved. You get saved to get better, and you can't get better until you do get saved.

A stanza from my favorite hymn says:
My hope is built on nothing less

Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame
But wholly lean on Jesus' name.

"Looking up to Jesus" means looking away from our church membership and looking only to Jesus. Everyone who accepts Jesus Christ as Saviour should join a church. But you don't join the church to become a Christian. Being in the church won't make a Christian out of you any more than getting into the garage will make an automobile out of you. I'm a church member, and everybody who's saved ought to join a Bible-believing church. Acts 2:41 says, "Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls."

On the other hand, if you're depending on the fact that you belong to the church to get you to Heaven, you'll go to Hell through the church. In Matthew 7:22-23 Jesus said, "Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

According to the Bible, many will miss Heaven even though they were church members and worked hard, even preaching or prophesying in Jesus' name. But they will miss Heaven because they did not totally, fully, completely trust Jesus Christ. They trusted their works.

"Looking up to Jesus" means you look away from your baptism and look only to Jesus. I'm for baptism. Every person who accepts Jesus Christ as Saviour ought to be baptized, but baptism is not an instrument of salvation. It's an outward expression of an inward experience. It's like putting the wedding band on the finger after you are married. It doesn't marry you, but it shows everybody that you are married. Being baptized doesn't save you. It's an outward symbol telling others that you believe in the death, burial and resurrection of Christ.

The man who's depending on his baptism to get him to Heaven will go to Hell through the baptistry. Now why do I say that? Because John 3:36 says, "He that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." Wait a minute, friend, Jesus Christ says if you're not depending on, believing, trusting, relying on the Son, you "shall not see life; but the wrath of God" abides on you. The man who's trusting his church membership or his baptism or his reformation or anything else other than Jesus Christ, will not go to Heaven. John 3:18 says, "He that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." There is no promise to those who partly believe on Christ and partly on something else.

Someone asked me, “But doesn’t the Bible say in Mark 16:16, ‘He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved…’?”

“Yes,” I replied, “but the next expression says, ‘…he that believeth not shall be damned.”’ You see, believing is the determining factor, not being baptized. That’s like saying, “He that getteth on the jet plane and sitteth down, shall fly to Jacksonville, Florida; but he that getteth not on the plane, shall not fly to Jacksonville.”

It’s the getting on that gets you there, not the sitting down. But any fool knows if you get on, you ought to sit down. If you don’t sit down, you’ll wish you had sat down before you reach your final destination.

If you’ve trusted Jesus Christ as Saviour, you ought to be baptized. But you should not be baptized thinking that baptism saves you. If you do, you’re not trusting Jesus Christ; you’re trusting baptism. Faith is looking away from everything else and looking only to Jesus Christ.

III. Faith Is Not Experiencing a Feeling But Relying on a Fact

I’ve dealt with people who doubted their salvation because they did not think they had the proper feelings at the time of conversion. There is not a verse in the Bible that tells a man exactly how he has to feel in order to be saved. As a matter of fact, the Bible never says you have to feel any way to be saved. Acts 16:31 says, “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.”

I remember when I was first married. We drove back to my wife’s home, and there were some friends in the yard. When we got out of the automobile, someone asked me, “How does it feel to be married?”

I said, “I feel exactly like I did a few minutes ago.” But you know something? I was just as married as the fellow who had some great feeling.

Not everyone reacts the same to the same experience. I remember one night I was driving home from a revival meeting when a car overturned in front of us. Several people were badly injured. Some who saw it cried, others ran to help, while some buried their faces in their hands. One lady fainted. Now they all saw the same thing and had the same experience but reacted differently. I’ve seen people cry when they trusted Christ as Saviour. I’ve been with others who smiled, while others laughed and some even shouted; but they all had the same experience. They all trusted Jesus Christ as Saviour. No, faith is not having some particular feeling. Faith is depending on a fact.

Now here’s the fact: Two thousand years ago Jesus Christ died for you. He bore your sins in His own body. God punished Him in your place to pay the debt that you owe. That’s a fact. Whether you ever do anything about it or not, it’s still a fact.

What you must do is believe that fact and not only believe in your head that Jesus Christ died on the cross to pay your sin debt, but depend on, rely on, trust Him and what He did for your salvation.

If I were not a Christian and wanted to be, I would simply pray this prayer:

Dear Lord Jesus, I know that I am a sinner. I do believe that You died for me. And here and now I do trust You as my Saviour. From this minute on, I'm depending on You to get me to Heaven. Help me to live for You and to be a good Christian.

After praying the prayer, I would accept what God says in the Bible—that I do have everlasting life because I'm trusting Jesus Christ for my salvation: "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life" (John 3:36). I mean I'd accept what God says, whether or not I ever had any feelings.

Once you make that decision and trust Christ, perhaps there'll be some feeling. But whether or not the feeling comes, the Word of God is still true. God cannot lie!

When you trust Him, you will have everlasting life. The determining factor in salvation is believing, trusting, depending on, relying on the Lord Jesus Christ.

F.G. Pentecost said, "Two and two is four—that's mathematics. Hydrogen and oxygen form water—that's chemistry. 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved'—that's revelation."

You ask, "How do I know?"

"Well," he said, "the burden of proof lies with you. Put two and two together and see if you don't have four. Put hydrogen and oxygen together and see if you don't have water. And believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and see if you won't be saved."

6.7.26 Does Jesus Know You? (2025-07-24 11:03)

Matthew 7:21-23, "

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

I saw a meme yesterday on Facebook that alarmed me. It read: "If you want to go to Heaven make sure you know Jesus." I instantly knew that was heresy. Did not Judas Iscariot know Jesus? Yes, Judas did know Jesus, being one of His very apostles. Yet, we know that Judas died in his sin of unbelief and went to Hell forever.

Dear reader, it isn't enough for you to know Jesus, He must know you. In our text passage of Scripture from Matthew 7:21-23 the dear Savior Himself denied knowing these people as His sheep. Jesus plainly tells us why He didn't know them, because they failed to do the WILL OF THE FATHER. We find what the Father's will is in John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." The will of God the Father to get to Heaven is that you simply BELIEVE on the name of His only begotten (biological) Son. All guilty sinners who BELIEVE on the name of Jesus are going to Heaven. You just need to believe that Jesus did it all for you through Calvary's cross.

Beware Of The Lordship Heresy

Salvation is not trusting Jesus as your Lord and Savior; but rather, simply as your Savior. I am tired of the Lordship Salvation heresy which has infected nearly all churches (cults) today. When a corrupt pastor insists that you first "

repent of your sins

to be saved, he is lying to you. You need only repent (change your mind) from unbelief to belief to get to Heaven. Since unbelief is the only sin which can keep you out of Heaven, then unbelief is the only sin you must change your mind about to be saved. Whatever changes God wants to see happen in your life after you are saved is His department and you can rest assure dear reader that He will attend to it. God is not an absent parent (Hebrews 12:6-8).

So, the $64,000 question is then: DOES JESUS KNOW YOU?

Does Christ recognize you as one of His redeemed sheep?

If you have placed all of your childlike faith (trust, reliance) in Jesus' death on the cross for your sins, His burial and bodily resurrection three days later, then He knows you dear friend. You are one of Christ's sheep!

The biggest fatal mistake that people make concerning God's simple plan of salvation is that they make it too complicated. I cringe when I hear preachers add the requirement to receive Jesus as your "

Lord

to be saved, because there is no such requirement in God's simple plan of salvation. The unbiblical requirement to take Christ as one's always carries with it a Trojan Horse of additional implied obligations to the lost sinner; namely, following Christ in loyal obedience, turning away from one's lifelong sinful bad habits, renouncing the world, surrendering one's ambitions and will to serve God faithfully, et cetera. These are not a part of God's simple plan of salvation. In fact, they pervert and prevent the new birth from happening.

In 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 we read about **"

the simplicity that is in Christ.

This simplicity is none other than the Gospel by which all who BELIEVE IT are saved. Romans 1:16,

2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, “But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.” This is one of my favorite passages of Scripture, for which I am forever grateful to God for putting it in His Word. In this passage we are warned about three perversions:

1. another Jesus
2. another spirit
3. another gospel

The Jehovah Witnesses for example have another Jesus. JW’s teach that Jesus and Lucifer are brothers, both archangels. JW’s deny that Jesus is almighty God. They falsely claim that Jesus is “a god,” but not the God. In sharp contrast, we read Jesus’ own inspired Words in Revelation 1:8, “I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.” Jesus is almighty God! That reminds me of my younger days in Chicago. I yelled out “Jesus is God!” from our church bus window in my Bible college days and a JW told me in anger to, “Go to Hell!” That is very interesting considering that JW’s don’t believe Hell exists.

Jesus was never created; He created all things according to John 1:3 (King James Bible). John 1:3, “All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.” All of the Devil’s corrupt modern Bible revisions change the preposition “by” to “through” in this verse, which attacks Jesus’ deity as the Creator.

And may I kindly say that any Baptist church which teaches you must “repent of your sins” to get to Heaven is preaching another gospel. Their church has another spirit that is not the Holy Spirit. The Apostle Paul plainly defines “the gospel” for us in 1st Corinthians 15:1-6, which he received directly from Jesus (Galatians 1:12). There is nothing in Paul’s gospel about being willing to turn away from sinful bad habits as a requirement to be saved. As hard as it may be to grasp, the greatest threat to sinners today has become the doctrinally corrupt local church.

It doesn’t matter if you know Jesus dear friend. Don’t fall for that falsehood. What does matter is if Jesus knows you! Have you been born again? Are you one of His sheep? John 10:26-28, “But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. ”

6.7.27 A Perversion Of The Gospel: Lordship Salvation (2025-07-24 16:00)

"Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;) And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia: Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father: To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen. I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

by Dr. Curtis Hutson

Galatians 1:1-9 Lordship salvation is an unscriptural teaching regarding the doctrine of salvation and is confusing to Christians. Those who teach it claim that one must make Jesus Lord of his life in order to be saved. They use such expressions as, "You cannot receive Jesus as Saviour without receiving Him as Lord," or, "If Jesus Christ is not the Lord of your life, then you are not saved." The Bible teaches salvation by grace through faith.

Ephesians 2:8, 9 says, "For by grace ye are saved through faith: and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." But those who teach Lordship salvation say that is is not enough to trust Jesus Christ; you must also make Him Lord of your life in order to be saved. This kind of teaching frustrates the grace of God and is called in the Bible "another gospel."

I. Another Gospel Which Is Not Another

In verse 6, Paul said, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into grace of Christ unto another gospel." Paul contrasts the Gospel of the grace of God with "another gospel" which he does not define. In verse 7 he said, "Which is not another...." That sounds like a contradiction, but the word "another" does not come from the same Greek word.

In verse 6 it means "another—different from the one we preach."

In verse 7 the Greek word means "another of the same kind." So we might paraphrase the verse, "I marvel that you are so soon removed from him who called you unto the grace of Christ unto a different gospel which is not like the one we preach." He goes on to say, "There be some that trouble you" (vs. 7). The preaching of another gospel troubles people. He also calls it a perversion of the Gospel of the grace of God.

Then he says something very strong in verse 8: "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto than that which we have preached to you, let him be accursed [or "let him be damned"].

Then he emphasizes it again in verse 9: "As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach another gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed [or "let him be damned"]. Paul said, "I am startled; I marvel; I can't believe that you are so soon removed from the Gospel of the grace of Christ unto another gospel." "Another gospel" is not defined, so I will define it based upon the implication of the text. The Gospel of the grace of Christ is one thing. Another gospel would be anything that contradicts the teaching of salvation by grace through faith. If a man preaches that one is saved by the substitutionary death of Jesus, by trusting Christ, then adds some from of good works, he contradicts the Gospel of the grace of God.

I could not put it any better than Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then it is no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then it is no more grace: otherwise work is no more work." Salvation cannot be by grace and works. It has to be either grace or works. Most people have a poor concept of grace. I used to work for a loan company. I would give what is called a "grace period." If you didn't pay your debt in time, you had five days "grace" before you got a notice and were tagged with a late charge. That is not grace; that is a probation. Grace is the unmerited, undeserved favor of God toward Hell-deserving sinners. There is so much confusion over the doctrine of salvation.

If you ask the next ten people you see, "How does a person get to Heaven?" you will probably get ten different answers. And it is very likely that none would be correct. In the final analysis, there are only two schemes of salvation that are taught by all religions. One is that man saves himself; the other is that God saves a man. They say that man saves himself by reforming or cleaning up his life before he is saved in order to merit salvation; or that man saves himself by promising to keep the Ten Commandments before he is saved; or man saves himself by obedience. Others teach that man saves himself by behaving. Those who teach Lordship salvation say that man saves himself by making Jesus Lord of his life.

Romans 1:16 says, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Jesus Christ: for it [the Gospel] is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that behaves..."? No, "...to every one that believeth." The only thing you can do with the Gospel is believe it. The Gospel is the Good News of how Jesus Christ came to this earth, how He died on a cross in our place for our sins, how he was buried and rose again the third day. That is the Gospel. Don't confuse the truth with the Gospel. The Gospel is the truth, but all truth is not the Gospel.

It is the truth that I wear a necktie to church, but that is not the Gospel. It the truth that I brush my teeth every morning, but that is not the Gospel. All truth is not the Gospel, but the Gospel is the truth. When I preach on Hell, I preach a Bible truth that ought to be preached and one that Jesus preached, but it is not the Gospel. hell is not good news; Hell is bad news. If I preach on judgment, I preach the truth but not the Gospel. But when I preach that Jesus loved sinners, that He died in the sinner's place to pay the sinner's debt, that He was buried and after three days God raised Him form the dead to show His satisfaction with the payment, then I preach the Gospel.

An old preacher spoke to a large crowd of young preachers. Before leaving the platform, one young pastor said to him, "Sir, before you leave, give us a word of advice." The old preacher thought for a moment, then said, "My preacher brethren, make it plain to men how they are to saved." Far too many preachers are muddying the Gospel. The waters of the grace of God must be kept crystal clear. It disturbs me when preachers scramble the grace of God with works. Paul said, "Though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you...LET HIM BE DAMNED!"

Strong language, but that is how God feels about preachers who pervert the Gospel. Paul says that even an angel is to be damned for preaching another gospel. Something about us religious humans make us want to add to the Gospel. We want to help God with our salvation. If we can't help Him save us, we want to help keep ourselves saved. Adam and Eve gathered fig leaves and sewed them together to make aprons to cover their nakedness. They knew something was wrong and tried to right it before God came to visit. They were happy and well pleased with their fig-leaf religion until God came, then they were embarrassed with their fig-leaf covering and ran and hid themselves. God called them unto Himself, killed an innocent animal (a picture of the substitutionary death of Jesus), took the skin from the animal and made coats for Adam and Eve. He didn't let them keep one single fig leaf of their own making. Salvation is of the Lord. You may be satisfied to stand before men with you religion, but are you going to be satisfied when you stand before God Almighty?

Remember, God put His Son on a cross, loaded Him down with your sin, and poured out His wrath on His own Son so He could save you from the penalty of sin, which is Hell! Are you going to be satisfied when you stand before God with fig-leaf religion? There is no promise in the Bible to those who partially believe on Christ; one must trust Him alone and nothing else. Those who teach Lordship salvation say, "If you do not give over the control of your life to Christ at the moment of salvation, you are not saved."

II. Must There Be a Commitment to Christ as the Lord of One's Life in Order to Be Saved?

Those who teach Lordship salvation say that you cannot divorce His Saviourhood from His Lordship; that you can't accept Him as Saviour without accepting Him as the Lord of your life also; that unless Jesus Christ is Lord of your life, you are not saved.

But when you question these same people, you discover that Jesus is not Lord of their lives. I asked one who taught Lordship salvation, "Has Jesus been Lord of your life since the day you trusted Him as Saviour? Has there ever been a time since you were saved when Christ has not been the absolute Lord of your life?" He hesitated a moment, then said, "Well, He has always been Lord, but there have been times when I didn't obey Him." When we don't obey Him, He is not Lord of Boss. When we are in control, Jesus cannot be in control. In Luke 6:46 Jesus said, "And why ye call me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?"

It is inconsistent to call Him "Lord, Lord," and not do what He says. When this man I mentioned realized that Jesus had not been Lord of his life, he rephrased his statement: "Well, I am not saying that you must absolutely make Him Lord of your life in order to be saved, but there must be a willingness to be controlled by the Lord at the time of salvation in order to be saved." If there must be a willingness for Jesus to have absolute control over one's life in order to be saved, how long can he wait before he becomes unwilling and disobeys again? There are not two ways to be saved. One is either saved by grace through faith or saved by grace through faith plus surrender.

The Bible says in Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and not that of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." If it is salvation by grace through faith, as this Scripture declares, then it is not salvation by grace through faith plus surrender, or plus anything else. It is salvation by grace through faith. PERIOD! You say, "Dr. Hutson, don't you believe in surrender?" Absolutely! Wholeheartedly! But not to be saved. Surrender can be right or wrong, depending where you put it. A diamond ring is a beautiful thing on a lady's finger. It brings pleasure to the lady. But put that same ring in her high-heeled shoe, and it causes pain and discomfort.

The surrender of the life to the Lordship of Christ is a beautiful and wonderful thing; but when you make surrender a requirement for salvation, it becomes an ugly, dirty, wicked thing and frustrates the marvelous grace of God!

III. Bible Examples of Uncommitted Believers

Let me give you some Bible examples of uncommitted believers. First, I will call your attention to some who had definite lapses from a fully surrendered life after they were saved. Second, I will call attention to believers who did not commit their lives to Christ until long after they were saved. Third, we will call attention to one in the Bible who trusted Christ as Saviour but never surrendered to the Lordship of Christ. David is an example of one who had a definite lapse in his surrender. Now David may or may not have surrendered his life to the Lordship of Christ at the moment of salvation, but Jesus dead sure wasn't Lord of David's life when he committed adultery with Bathsheba.

David was lord at the time; David was running the show. David may or may not have surrendered to the Lordship of Christ at the moment of salvation, but Jesus Christ was not Lord of David's life when he sent Uriah into battle and had him killed. If Jesus was Lord of David's life, then it is certain that David had a lapse of his surrender. David's life was not committed to the Lordship of Christ when he committed adultery and murder! So If he had committed his life, he definitely had a lapse. If total surrender to Christ was a prerequisite for salvation, then David lost his salvation until he totally surrendered again.

But he didn't lose it! According to Psalm 51:12, all he lost was the joy of salvation. He prayed, "Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation." He didn't pray, "Lord, save me because You have not been the Lord of my life." Noah is another example of one saved by the grace of God who, if ever committed to Christ, had a relapse. The Bible says in Genesis 6:8, "Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord." Noah was saved and may or may not have surrendered to the Lordship of Christ at the moment of salvation. But when the ark landed, Noah got drunk; and in a drunken stupor lay naked before his sons. If Noah had surrendered and committed his life to the Lordship of Christ when he was saved, he certainly had a lapse. You can't say Jesus Christ was controlling Noah's life when he got drunk! Noah was controlling his own life. You can't blame his immoral conduct on the Lord.

The Apostle Peter is another example of one who, if ever committed, had a relapse. Peter said, "Though al men forsake thee, I will never leave thee" (Matthew 26:33). But he followed the enemy and warmed himself by the Devil's fire. One of the enemy came and said, "Hey! That fellow there is one of them; he's one of the Lord's boys." Peter said, "Oh, no! I don't know Jesus." Another one said, "Yes, Peter is one of Jesus' followers." Peter insisted, "No, I don't know Christ. I'm not one of them!" A woman said, "You are one of His disciples! Your speech betrays you." And Peter began to curse. He said, "You blankety-blank-blank, lowdown, sneakin' woman, I don't know Jesus Christ and never knew Him!" If he surrendered to the Lordship of Christ in total commitment at the moment of salvation, he certainly had a lapse when he cursed and said, "I never knew Jesus Christ!"

In John 21, Peter quit the ministry. He said, "I go a fishing" (vs. 3). This was a public announcement that he never intended to preach again. "I am through preaching—I quit!" And six preachers went with him! When he got out on the lake in a boat, he took off his clothes and was out there naked in the middle of the night in a boat, fishing. It is all in John 21. If he was surrendered to Jesus Christ totally at the moment of salvation, he was not surrendered totally now. He quit the ministry and never intended to preach again! The Lord had to come and warm his backslidden heart by the fires of John, chapter 21, before he preached in Acts, chapter 2, and had 3,000 conversions. There are other examples in the Bible of men whom if they were totally surrendered, had a lapse in their yieldedness or commitment after they were saved.

Now let me give you an example from the Bible of some believers who were saved and later made a commitment of their lives to Christ. In Acts 19 we have the conversion of some people at Ephesus who had been worshipping the goddess Diana. An important part of worship included the superstitious dependence on magical words and charms and saying. Paul had been there two years preaching, and these people had believed on Christ. "And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds" (vs. 18). Some of them had believed as much as two years earlier. Verse 19 says, "Many of them also which used curious [magical] arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver"— $9,300 worth of books burned! They were just now burning their books of magic–two years after trusting Christ!

These people were saved without surrendering to the Lordship of Christ at the moment of salvation. We know many believers who trusted Christ as Saviour, then years later quit bad habits such as smoking. We even know some who, like Noah, got drunk after they were saved. Now we are not condoning sin; we are simply showing that Jesus was not Lord of these believers' lives. I know some Christians who were saved and a year later quit some habits, while others waited several years.

As a matter of fact, I don't know one Christian anywhere who surrendered to the absolute Lordship of Christ at the moment of conversion and has continued a life of complete surrender. One dear man who teaches Lordship salvation told me that if Jesus was not Lord of an individual's life, then that individual was not saved. He also said that he had surrendered to the Lordship of Christ at the moment he was saved. Later this man was dismissed from a Christian organization because of conduct unbecoming of a Christian. You don't get better to get saved; you get saved to get better. You can't get better until you do get saved. You don't have anything to get better with.

In Acts 19 we have people who were saved though they had not totally committed themselves to Christ at the moment of trusting Him as Saviour. Two years later they burned their magic book—two years late! These people certainly contradict the teaching of Lordship salvation. The third example is one of a lifelong refusal to commit oneself to the Lordship of Christ. If you read only the Old Testament references to Lot, you wouldn't believe he was saved. But the Bibles says in 2nd Peter 2:7- 8 "And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked. (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)"

Twice in verse 8 he is called "righteous," and verse 7 calls him "just Lot" Now Lot was saved, justified. Second Peter 2:7-8 makes this amply clear. But when you read the Old Testament account of his life, it is plain to see that he was never surrendered to God before or after he was saved. His Uncle Abraham set out on a journey, and Lot just followed his uncle! In the process, his herd of cattle grew; and his herdsmen began to fight with Abraham's herdsmen. Then they decided they had better separate. This little, puny, potato-string backboned nephew looked up at this giant of faith, Abraham, who said to Lot, "You choose either direction you want.' Lot looked towards the mountains, then toward the wellwatered plains of Jordan.

If he had been surrendered, he would have said, "Uncle Abraham, I am not even supposed to be out here. I just followed you. You make the choice, and I'll take the one you don't want." But that little pipsqueak took the well-watered plains of Jordan. He wasn't surrendered. When he went down to Sodom and called the Sodomites "brothers"—that is not being surrendered. If you call somebody who doesn't believe the Bible a "brother in Christ," you are not surrendered. It shows you don't know much about the Bible.

The only man who is your brother is the one who has received Jesus Christ as Saviour. You become a Son of God by faith (John 1:12). When he called those wicked Sodomites "brethren," do you think he was surrendered to Christ? Two angels came down from Heaven, and Lot took them into his house. The young and old men of the city of Sodom compassed about the house of Lot and clamored and cried, "Send those men out to us that we may know them" (Genesis 19:5). They wanted to commit homosexuality with two angels who came from Heaven. That is where we get the word "sodomy."

Do you know what Lot did? "I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof." Does that sound like a committed Christian? It certainly doesn't! When God sent an angel down to get Lot out of Sodom, Lot lingered. He didn't want to leave. Finally the angel had to get him by the arm and drag him out of Sodom before the fire and brimstone rained down from Heaven.

He was so worldly and uncommitted and unsurrendered that his sons-in-law laughed at him when he tried to get them to leave. They laughed at his testimony. But keep following him; his life gets worse. Before fire and brimstone rains down from God out of Heaven, they leave Sodom and Gomorrah. He takes with him his wife and two daughters. His wife looks back and turns into a pillar of salt. Lot goes into a cave with his two daughters and gets drunk. There was no liquor store in that cave, so Lot must have brought that wine with him when he left Sodom.

While he was drunk, he committed incest with both his daughters; and both gave birth to babies. Lot is a Bible example of one never surrendered to the Lordship of Christ, one who never made a total commitment to the Saviour. But we know he was saved because the Bible says so in 2nd Peter 2:7-8. So you have three Bible examples of uncommitted believers: those who trusted Christ had lapses in their yieldedness or surrender after they trusted Christ as Saviour but did not surrender until some time later, and Lot who never did yield his life to the Lordship of Christ.

IV. Scriptures That Clearly Refute Lordship Salvation

Not only do Bible examples refute Lordship salvation but clear passages of Scripture refute it also. First Corinthians 12:3 says, "...no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost." Now keep in mind that one does not have the presence of the Hoy Spirit in his life until after he is saved. Romans 8:9 says, "Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his." The Bible says in Galatians 4:6, "And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father." John 3:6 says believers are "born of the Spirit." They are sealed by the Spirit (Ephesians 4:30). If you can't call Jesus Lord without the Holy Ghost, and you must call Him Lord to get saved, and you are not saved without the Holy Ghost, you have a problem!

Romans is a book about salvation. Romans, chapter 3, says that everybody need to be saved. It describes humanity. It lays man out on God's examination table and gives him a divine diagnosis. God looks at man and says, "Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips: Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: Their feet are swift to shed blood: Destruction and misery are in their ways" (Romans 3:13-16). He describes man from the crown of his head to the soles of his feet, and says that he is a totally depraved sinner. In Romans 3:10 God says, "There is none righteous, no, not one."

In verse 23 He says, "For all have sinned, and come short upon the glory of God." Romans 3 teaches that everybody needs to be saved! Romans, chapter 4, gives three ways you cannot be saved. Verses 1 to 4 teach that one cannot be saved by works. Verses 9-12 teach that one cannot be saved by the observance of ordinances. Verses 13 to 25 teach that one cannot be saved by keeping the law. Romans, chapter 5, tells you the only way to be saved. Verse 1 says, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." Justified by what? By surrender? By commitment? By making Jesus Lord of your life? No. "Justified by FAITH." Romans, chapter 12, is written to those who are already saved, and verse 1 says, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service."

Notice that Paul refers to them as "brethren," meaning they were saved. there is no such thing as the universal fatherhood of God and the universal brotherhood of man. The only people who are our Christian brothers are those who have trusted Jesus Christ as Saviour. John 1:12 says, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name." Everyone who has trusted Jesus or received Him as Saviour, has become a son of God and is therefore a brother to all others who have trusted that same Saviour.

These people to whom Paul is writing are born-again believers but not committed, surrendered believers; and Paul is pleading with them, in view of all God's mercies, to present their bodies as living sacrifices. They are saved but Jesus is not the Lord of their lives. Some say, "But the Bible says, 'If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me" (Matthew 16:24). The Bible says if you don't love the Lord with all you heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and hate your father and mother and all that, you can't be a disciple. The Bible says if you don't forsake all you have, you can't be a disciple (Luke 14:33). That is all true, but remember He is saying, "You cannot be my disciple." He didn't say, "You can't go to Heaven." We must not confuse the requirements for discipleship with the requirement for salvation. Every disciple is a believer, but every believer is not a disciple. A disciple is a learner, a student.

God never says to the unsaved man, "Come after Me for salvation." He says, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." But after one accepts Christ as Saviour, then He says in Matthew 4:19, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." We come to Him for salvation and come after Him for service. It is one thing to trust Jesus Christ as Saviour and quite another to surrender one's life to the Lord. There is such a thing as the dedicated Christian life. And there are carnal Christians, according to 1st Corinthians 3, who have never yielded their lives to Christ. The yielding of one's life or making Jesus Lord of one's life is not a requirement for salvation. That is Lordship salvation and a perversion of the Gospel.

V. Some Arguments of Those Who Try to Prove Lordship Salvation

Those who teach Lordship salvation say, "But the Bible says, 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved.'" Sure it does. But it does not say, "Obey the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved."; it is always careful to identify the object of our faith. Our faith, our trust, our dependence must be in the Lord Jesus Christ. We cannot trust our good works, our good life, our surrender, our baptism, our ordinances or anything else. We must trust Jesus Christ and Him alone for salvation. He plainly said, "I am THE way, THE truth, and THE life: no man cometh unto the father, but by me" (John 14:6). Why must we confuse the most important message in the world? Suppose I am going to jump from a building into a net held by four men.

A mechanic is holding once corner of the net, a dentist one corner, an airplane pilot one corner, and an insurance salesman the other corner. I am going to trust them to catch me. Some one could say, " Believe on Mr. Domansky, the dentist, and thou shalt be saved," but that doesn't mean I have to let him pull all my teeth in order to get saved. It simply means that I am going to have to trust him to catch me in that net. Someone else could say, "Believe on Mr. Smith, the insurance salesman, and thou shalt be saved." But that doesn't mean I have to buy my insurance from Mr. Smith to be saved. It simply means I must trust him to hold that net for me. When the Bible says in Acts 16:31, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved," it doesn't mean you have to make Him Lord of your life. It simply means you must trust the Lord Jesus Christ for your salvation.

Verse after verse in the Bible clearly says that salvation is simply trusting in Jesus Christ. John 3:36 says, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not on the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." The man who is trusting anything other than Jesus Christ is not saved. That is plain teaching of the Bible. The man who claims he is trusting in Jesus Christ—plus his ability to yield to the Lordship of Christ, is not fully trusting the Saviour; and there is no promise to those who trust Jesus Christ plus something else, no matter how good the other thing may be.

When we get to Heaven, we are going to sing: "Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation" (Revelation 5:9). We are not going to sing: " We are worthy for we have committed and surrendered to the Lordship of Christ." Now when you teach salvation by grace through faith, that one is saved simply by trusting Jesus Christ, some call that "easy believism." But you will not find that expression in the Bible. That is a manmade expression. It is not easy to get one to trust Christ, Him alone, and nothing else for salvation.

As matter of fact, that may be the hardest thing in the world to do. You are called upon to believe in Someone whom your eyes have never seen. You are called upon to believe in Someone, and you have never met an eyewitness who ever saw Him. You are called upon to believe on Someone whom the so-called scholarship of the day denies. You are called upon to believe in Someone who died on the cross two thousand years ago. You are called upon to believe in Someone of whom the only record you have of Him has been kept by His friends. You are called upon only to believe in His existence, but to believe that by depending on Him you can be justified on the basis that He was made guilty for your sins. Now that is not easy!

It is hard enough to trust someone we see and know, someone we have shaken hands with and talked to. But to trust in Someone whom we have not seen is difficult. That fact that most religions teach works, ordinances, sacraments, baptism or something else for salvation show how difficult is is to get a person to simply trust in Jesus Christ as Saviour. Salvation by grace is "believism" all right, but it is certainly not "easy believism." Now don't misunderstand me. I am not saying that you simply admit there is a Christ and thou shalt be saved; I am saying what the Bible says, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved."

The Bible word "believe" means to depend upon, to rely upon, to trust in. Some argue that verse in James 2:19, "...the devils also believe, and tremble." But the devils do not trust Jesus Christ as Saviour; they simply admit His existence. It is one thing to believe an airplane can fly; it is quite another to trust your physical life to the pilot and plane to take you across the nation. To be saved, one must trust Jesus Christ completely for salvation. No Christian in the world can say that when he was saved he totally committed himself to Christ and has since then been absolutely surrendered. Not even those who teach Lordship salvation will say that.

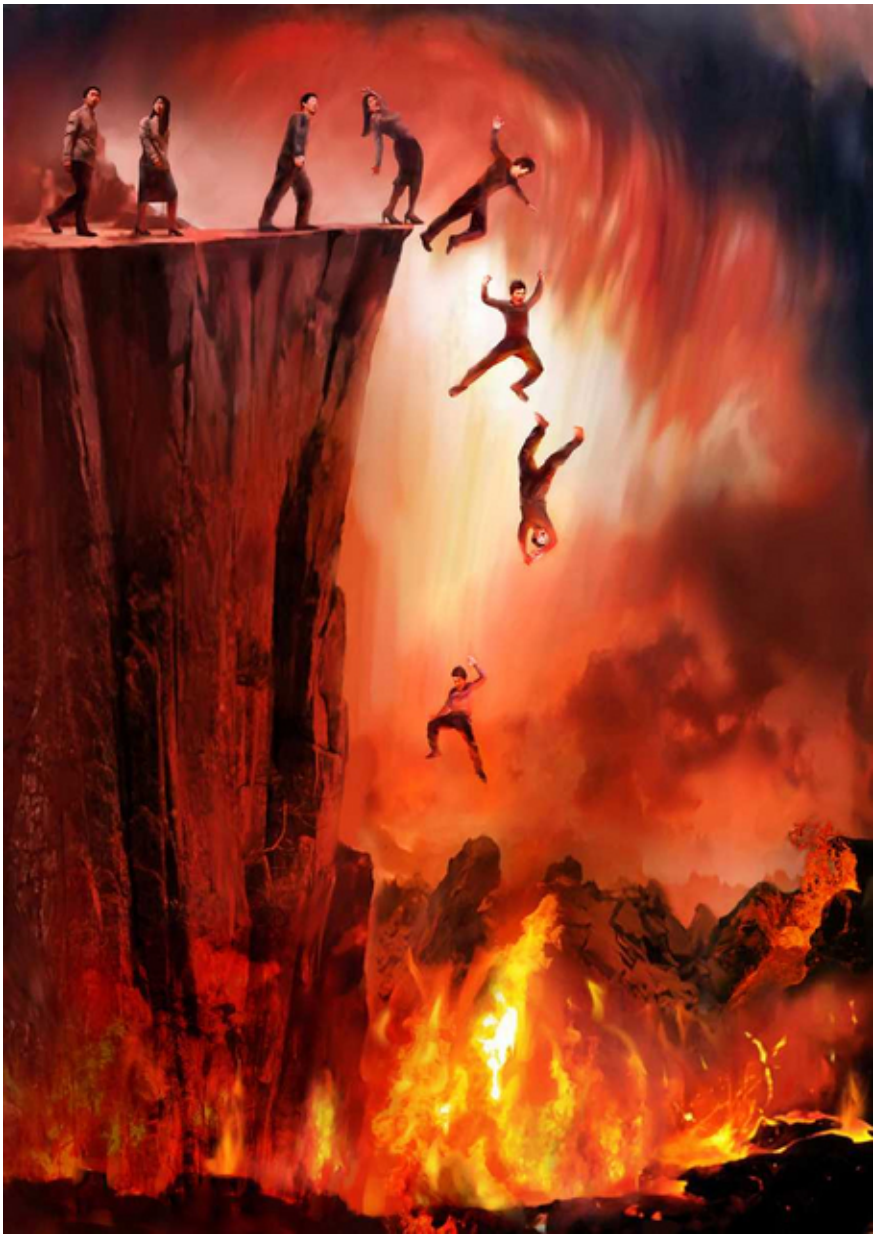
They will say, "Jesus has been my Lord, but many times I have disobeyed Him." Then when you disobeyed Him, He wasn't the Lord of your life. Those who teach Lordship Salvation say, "He's always Lord." "Lord" comes from the Hebrew word Adonai, meaning "Master." It also comes from the word Jehovah, the personal name of God. There are several translations of the word. In that sense, He is everybody's Lord. He is the tadpole's Lord, the bumblebee's Lord, the bullfrog's Lord, the rattlesnake's Lord—but that doesn't mean they are saved. He is Master of the whole universe. he can do what He want to do, when He wants to do it!

Philippians 2:10-11, declares, "That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." Does that mean that everyone will be saved, since the day will come when every knee will bow and every tongue will confess that Jesus is Lord? Of course not. When we talk about Jesus being Lord of one's life, we mean yielding to Him for the control of the life. Jesus is Lord over many things about every individual—the color of my eyes, my height, my parents, etc.

The Lord determined who my parents would be. He was the Boss; He was the Master. The Lord determined my height. he determined the size of my ears, nose, the texture of my skin. But one important area of my life where He gives me control is my will. God made us free moral agents. We are creatures of choice. He wants to be Lord of our wills, but he doesn't want to force us. He wants us to yield to Him because we want to do so. He was a willing Saviour, and He will have only willing servants. We trust Him for salvation, and we yield to Him for service.

VI. The Teaching of Lordship Salvation Confuses Believers

I have often heard those who teach Lordship salvation brag that three of four preachers got saved in their service. Some have said, "The youth pastor and three deacons got saved!" Now I am for people trusting Christ as Saviour who have not already done so, but I am against any teaching that confuses believers. We heard of a youth director who was supposedly saved after hearing a sermon on Lordship salvation. Then many of the young people who trusted Christ under the youth director's ministry, deciding they must not be saved, went forward and, in the words of the evangelist, were "really saved."



There is no difference between being saved and "really saved." There is no such thing as degrees in salvation. No one is more saved than the other. The Bible says in John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not on the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth upon him." Nothing can be plainer: those who are trusting Jesus Christ are saved, and they have everlasting life. And those who are not trusting Him are not saved, but the wrath of God abideth on them.

Saying one is "really saved" is like going to a funeral home, pointing to a casket and saying, "The person in that casket is dead," then pointing to another casket and saying, "The one in that casket is really dead!" There is no such thing as being dead, deader, and deadest. One is either dead or alive, saved or lost, guilty or justified, believing or not believing. There is no between. Why do good Christians supposedly get "really saved" under the preaching of Lordship salvation? Because they believe the preacher

If I believed that one must make Jesus Lord of his life in order to be saved, then I would go forward every time I heard a sermon on the subject and get saved because there have been times when I have been a disobedient child, times when I have yielded to my old carnal nature. The problem is, those who go forward and supposedly really get saved will have the same problem again later because they are not going to live a perfect life. There will be times when they will yield to the flesh; then when they hear a preacher say, "Unless you make Jesus Lord of your life, you are not saved," they will look back and see that Jesus has not been Lord of their lives and reason that if the preacher is correct, then they must not have been saved.

So they will go forward again to trust Christ as Saviour, and make Him Lord of their lives so they can really be saved. Lordship salvation confuses believers and makes them doubt their salvation. The Bible is very plain: the only way to be saved is by trusting Jesus Christ. In John 3:18 Jesus divides the whole world into two groups: "He He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." The condemned criminal is the one who has been arrested, tried, found guilty, and sentenced.

The Bibles says the man who is trusting Jesus Christ is not under the sentence; he is not condemned. And he who is not trusting Jesus Christ is condemned. Why? Because he has "not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." He is not trusting Jesus Christ fully for salvation.

6.7.28 A Living Dog Is Better Than a Dead Lion (2025-07-25 08:17)

Ecclesiastes 9:1-6, “ For all this I considered in my heart even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath. This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion. For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten.

Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

Solomon wisely said that a LIVING DOG is worth more than a DEAD LION. I am always encouraged when I read this Bible verse. The greatest man I have ever known is Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), my hero of the Christian faith! For people who didn't know Dr. Hyles, it is easy for strangers to dislike, hate, slander and disregard a man's greatness. I was there during Dr. Hyles heyday!!! I watched this dear man's life firsthand. I heard him preach in person. I met with him and shook Dr. Hyles' hand. I loved him then during my Hyles-Anderson College days (1985-1993), and I still love him today, even more so, because I have lived long enough to see that his preaching was right on que! Pastor Hyles served God as a pastor for 55 years, pastoring his first church at age 19 in east Texas. Dr. Hyles pastored five churches total during his lifetime, being used of God to win millions of lost sinners to the Lord Jesus Christ. THANK GOD FOR JACK HYLES!!!

Something unique about Dr. Hyles was that he chose to live on life's Sunnyside. Dr. Hyles lived ABOVE THE CLOUDS, where the Son is always shining, removing himself from the dark and dreary rains of criticism and persecution UNDER THE CLOUDS. That was so wise! What saith the Scripture? Colossians 3:1-3, "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God." I love that! The Word of God teaches us as God's redeemed children to SEEK THOSE THINGS WHICH ARE ABOVE!!! Amen. In other words, we should set our thoughts on heavenly things; such as, holiness, love, righteousness, soulwinning, prayer, walking with God, studying the Bible and meditating therein, thanking and praising God in every situation, trusting God at all times, serving God in a local church, helping the poor in Jesus' name, contending for the faith, fasting, et cetera.

I receive umpteen emails each year from hurting people whose lives are in chaos. Nearly all of them do not attend any church regularly. Many of them are messed up because they spend their time listening to corrupt TV, radio and internet neo-evangelical preachers. In most situations they have made some very bad decisions in their past, which have come back to haunt them. The Devil is a beautiful liar! Sin thrills and then it kills. Sin fascinates and then it assassinates.

Low living usually comes at a high cost! Be careful about sowing your wild oats, or you may end up praying for crop failure!

I am always humbled by Ecclesiastes 9:4, " For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

" I am just a DOG! Dr. Hyles was a LION! I wish my ministry could make the kind of IMPACT that Brother Hyles' labours did. I want to get as many people saved as possible. Daniel 12:3,

“

And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.

There are not many truly “great men” in the world today concerning Christianity, not compared to the 20th century. The words “godly man” are only found mentioned once in the book of Psalms. Psalms 12:1, “Help, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.” Where is the faithful man today? Where are the 7,000 who have not bowed their knee to Baal? Job 17:10, “

But as for you all, do ye return, and come now: for I cannot find one wise man among you.

I thank God for the godly influence in my life from GREAT MEN of time past; namely, Billy Sunday (1862-1935), Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899), Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951), Jack Hyles (1926-2001), John R. Rice (1895-1980), Lee Roberson (1900-2007), Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968), A. Ray Stanford (1916-2012), Lester Roloff (1914-1982) and many more imperfect but faithful soulwinning men of God.

> Jeremiah 5:5, “I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.”

I have been in the presence of great men. I saw and heard Pastor Lee Roberson in person preach at Hyles-Anderson College. I saw, heard, met and shook the hand of Pastor Jack Hyles. These were great men. Dr. Hyles never met Billy Sunday (who died in 1935), but he met Ma Sunday (Helen Sunday). Thankfully we still have the preserved sermons of great men like Brother Lester Roloff, Dr. Tom Malone, Dr. John R. Rice and Pastor Harry Ironside.

I may not be a lion like these great men of the faith were, but they are all dead now, and I am still alive, and a living dog is better than a dead lion the Bible says. Part of my ministry is promoting the sermons of these great men. That is the least I can do, to try to help others. Please don’t listen to today’s fake preachers (e.g. Joel Osteen, Joyce Meyer, Robert Jeffress, John Hagee, Pat Robertson, Rick Warren, Ray Comfort, Ken Ham, et cetera). These men are all compromised and simply cannot be trusted theologically. Get you to the old preachers that I mentioned earlier. Go look up the sermons online by Pastor Curtis Hutson. Order his books from the Sword Of The Lord publishers online. You will be blessed if you do.

Notable Quotes On The Holy Bible

The following quotes are beautiful, honoring God’s inspired Word. And may I say, today’s modern Bible versions are NOT based any any legitimate ancient language; but rather, they are the mere rantings of scholarly madmen hellbent on making a buck from marketing their own [1]copyrighted version :

> “The Bible is no mere book, but a Living Creature, with a power that conquers all who oppose it.” —Napoleon Bonaparte (1769-1821)

“It is impossible to enslave mentally or socially a Bible-reading people. The principles of the Bible are the groundwork of human freedom.” —Horace Greeley (1811-1872)

“The existence of the Bible, as a book for the people, is the greatest benefit which the human race has ever experienced. Every attempt to belittle it is a crime against humanity.” —Immanuel Kant (1724-1804)

“That book [King James Bible], sir, is the rock on which our republic rests.” —U.S. President Andrew Jackson (1767-1845)

“The Bible has been the Magna Carta of the poor and oppressed. The human race is not in a position to dispense with it.” —Thomas Huxley (1825-1895)

“So great is my veneration for the Bible that the earlier my children begin to read it the more confident will be my hope that they will prove useful citizens of their country and respectable members of society. I have for many years made it a practice to read through the Bible every year.” —U.S. President John Quincy Adams (1767-1848)

“It is impossible to rightly govern the world without God and the Bible. ” —U.S. President George Washington (1732-1799)

“The Bible, composed by many authors, over a period of many centuries, yet ONE BOOK, is, in itself, the outstanding Miracle of the Ages, bearing aloft its own evidence of its Superhuman Origin.” —Henry H. Halley (1874-1965)

“The Old Testament is an account of a Nation. The New Testament is an account of a MAN, The Nation was founded and nurtured of God to bring the Man into the world.” —Dr. Henry H. Halley (1874-1965)

“Bible reading is an education in itself.” —Lord Tennyson (1809-1892)

“The Bible is worth all other books which have ever been printed.” —Patrick Henry (1736-1799)

“The whole hope of human progress is suspended on the ever growing influence of the Bible.” —U.S. Secretary of State William H. Seward (1801-1872)

“God Himself became a Man, to give mankind a concrete, definite, tangible idea of what kind of Person to think of when we think of God. God is like Jesus. Jesus was God incarnate in human form. His appearance on earth is the Central Event of all history. The Old Testament sets the stage for it. The New Testament describes it. As a man, He lived the most strangely Beautiful Life ever known. He was the Kindest, Tenderest, Gentlest, most Patient, most Sympathetic man that ever lived. He Loved people. He hated to see people in trouble. He loved to Forgive. He loved to Help. He wrought marvelous miracles to feed hungry people. For relieving the suffering He forgot to take food for Himself. Multitudes, weary, pain-ridden, and heart-sick, came to Him, and found healing and relief. It is said of Him, and of no other, that if all the deeds of Kindness that He did were written, the world would not contain the books. That is the kind of man Jesus was. That is the kind of Person God is. Then: He Died, on the Cross, to take away the Sin of the world, to become the Redeemer and Saviour of man. Then: He Rose from the Dead: is Alive Now: not merely an historical character, but a Living Person: the Most Important Fact of History, and Most Vital Force in the world today.” —Dr. Henry H. Halley (1874-1965)

“The reason you don’t like the Bible, you old sinner, is because it knows all about you.” —Billy Sunday

“The Bible will always be full of things you cannot understand, as long as you will not live according to those you can understand.” —Billy Sunday

I am a big fan of preacher quotes! Quotes are nuggets of truth to help us discern truth and live right. You cannot live right if you don't first think right. A man who walks with wise men shall be wise. Proverbs 13:20, "He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed." We've got a bunch of fools in church pulpits today, who've been influenced by false prophets like John MacArthur, who denies that children can be saved, who denies that Jesus' blood is on the Mercy Seat in Heaven, and who requires discipleship for salvation (which is NOT the Gospel of free grace). The Devil well knows that human beings are very impressionable. We all love heroes! We all have people whom we look up to, good or bad. We need heroes and mentors. For the atheist, George Carlin is their hero. For a born-again, soul-winning, believer as myself, Pastor Jack Hyles is my hero!

I also encourage you dear friend to start collecting quotes, ponder the greatness of their meaning, and let them change your life for Christ.

> "Now you say, 'Brother Hyles, you make an issue.' You dead sure better know I'll make an issue!" —[2]BATTLE OF THE AGES (MP3, Dr. Jack Hyles, "The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!")

6.7.29 Pastor Steven Anderson Is Wrong That Praying Is The Bible Method To Be Saved (2025-07-25 09:41)

Acts 2:41, "Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls."

Can a person simply come to God as a needy sinner, and put their faith in Jesus Christ without praying a prayer and still be saved? Yes, absolutely, you don't have to pray to be saved. Now, Pastor Steven Anderson believes that too, but he errantly believes and teaches that it is God's way to lead lost sinners to pray a Sinner's Prayer to be saved. That is false! It is NOT the Bible way to get saved to pray, call, confess or ask.

We are saved by God's grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone.

When we trust in Jesus as our personal Savior, we are saved on the basis of his death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection . Salvation comes as we gladly receive the 'Good News' (Gospel) that Christ has paid the debt of sin we owed, so that salvation itself is the free gift of God. As the Apostle Peter preached the Gospel on the Day of Pentecost, the Bible says that 3,000 hearers gladly received his words and were immediately saved. Acts 2:41, "Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls." They were water baptized AFTER they got saved, as a public profession of their new faith in the Gospel. Baptism symbolizes Christ's death, burial and resurrection. Nobody prayer a Sinner's Prayer in Acts chapter two, they simply gladly received the Good News and were born-again.

In the Gospel of John (which is God's Gospel tract according to John 20;31), we find the word "believe" mentioned 88 times in the inspired King James Bible. But there is no mention of praying for God to save you. There is no mention of turning away from your past sinful ways to be saved. John 6;47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

Jesus simply said to BELIEVE ON HIM!!!

Anybody who teaches that you cannot get to Heaven without calling, asking or praying is a liar. They are preaching another gospel. God is already freely offering eternal life as a gift to all humanity, which is received through faith alone in the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) of Jesus' crucifixtion, burial and resurrection. If you read Acts 2;41 and Acts 10;41-43, you will plainly see that people got saved simply by BELIEVING. They didn't have to ask, call or pray, they simply heard the Gospel being preached and they believed what they heard.

The following video featuring Pastor Steven Anderson is false doctrine. He calls it the "dumbest doctrine I've ever heard" of, to say that you don't have to call, pray, confess or ask to be saved. Well, like it or not, dumb as it may seem, it is 100 % Biblical that you don't need to ask, pray, confess or call to be saved. I am actually surprised that Pastor Anderson has made such a big fuss over this doctrinal matter, knowing that the Church of Christ religious cult requires publicly confessing Christ to be saved (which is another gospel).

Sadly, there are false prophets who teach that faith is not enough to be saved. In fact, [1]Evangelist Billy Graham is one of them! In the preceding article you can read the interaction between a young college student and Billy Graham. The young student says that he wants to trust Jesus to be saved, but he is asking if he has to tell the other students, because he doesn't want to be persecuted for his faith. Billy Graham shamefully lies to the young man, telling him that God will not save him unless he is willing to publicly profess the name of Jesus. We know that Mr. Graham is a liar based upon John 12:42-43, "Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God." Also, Joseph of Arimathea in the Bible was **"

a disciple of Jesus, but secretly

" (John 19:38b). Billy Graham has the blood of that young student on his hands if he perishes into Hell. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

In the following disturbing video, numerous "New IFB" (New Independent Fundamental Baptist) movement pastors horribly gang up on Evangelist Norm Diamante. Albeit, I 100 % defend and support Brother Norm in this important matter of not having to pray to be saved...

New IFB Pastors Wrongly Attack Evangelist 'Norm Diamante'

Kindly said, I love Pastor Steven Anderson and support his ministry, but he is doctrinally wrong in the preceding video. Pastor Norm Diamante is 100 % correct that you DON'T have to call, pray or ask God to be saved. God is already freely offering everyone His gift of eternal life. Why would you ask God for something that He is already offering you? That would make no sense. The so-called "new IFB" movement is really the Pastor Steven Anderson's movement (i.e., a group of young pastors who are parroting Brother Anderson's doctrines and methods). Pastor Bruce Mejia is one of them. Whatever Pastor Anderson preaches, they all follow along in unison.

To no surprise, [2]Pastor Mejia also attacks Pastor Norm Diamante for rightly preaching that you DON'T have to call, pray or ask God to get to Heaven, you simply need to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31). Anyone who comes to God as a guilty needy sinner, and receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that after being buried He bodily resurrected from the dead three days later, that person is saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

In the preceding heretical video, Pastor Mejia takes Romans 10:13 out of context to bolster up his strawman heresy (I like Pastor Mejia and also support his ministry, but he is wrong in this doctrinal matter) of calling on the Lord to be saved. You can just BELIEVE to be saved. ...

> Romans 10:13-16, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things! But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?"

Do you see the progression? First the light of the truth of the Gospel is preached. Lost sinners hear the Gospel. They BELIEVE the GOOD NEWS and are saved. They call (go to the Lord) because of their faith. But do they really need to call, ask or pray to be saved? No. They are saved the moment that they believe the GOOD NEWS!!! Proof of what I say is found in the Gospel of John. As I mentioned earlier, i n the Gospel of John (which is God's Gospel tract according to John 20;31), we find the word "believe" mentioned 88 times in the inspired King James Bible. Yet you won't find even one verse in the Gospel of John that teaches to ask, call or pray to have eternal life.

I know I am making enemies here, but what saith the Scripture? Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged." The inspired Holy Bible does not agree with Pastors' Steven Anderson, Bruce Mejia and Roger Jimenez in this matter of praying to be saved.

To clarify, I heard Pastor Anderson say that a person CAN be saved by just believing without praying. So he is correct on the Gospel. However, he is wrong that praying to be saved is the Bible way, because it is not the Bible way. If it were the Bible way, than Jesus would have said in John 6;47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." If praying is required then John 6:47 would have read:

John 6;47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me and asks me to save them hath everlasting life." Ladies and gentlemen, it is a serious thing to ADD words to what God has said. Proverbs 30:5-6 , " Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar. "

In the preceding sermon video by Pastor Mejia, he says that only wicked people remove things from the Bible.

Yet, Pastor Mejia wickedly adds words to the Bible. Pastors Anderson and Mejia base their heresy mainly on Romans 10:9-10,

"That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. " They emphasize the last part of verse 10—CONFESSION IS MADE WITH THE MOUTH. But I like what Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) rightly said: "

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.

" That is the mistake that Pastors' Anderson and Mejia are making, using an obscure passage of Scripture in Romans 10:9-10, while totally ignoring the entire Gospel of John.

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. YOU don't have to pray to be saved. We must stay true to the simplicity of the Gospel!! Childlike trust in the GOOD NEWS of Christ crucified, buried and risen is enough to be saved. We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3). There are false prophets going around teaching that faith is not enough to be saved, you must also call upon the name of the Lord. Respectfully, Pastor

Anderson calls the matter a “stupid issue,” and he wrongly calls people like me an “idiot” because I preach that you don’t need to ask, confess, call or pray to be saved. I need to preach this truth because there are heretics who claim that you cannot get to Heaven without confessing the name of Jesus publicly, asking to be saved, praying or calling upon the Lord to be saved. Humbly, I do not think this is a stupid matter. I am not an idiot for defending the simplicity that is in Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). I am being faithful to contend for the faith.

Pastor Anderson’s reasoning is flawed. He argues that it is natural for a person who believes on Christ to also call upon Him. Whether this is true or not is not the question. The $64,000 question is can a person put their faith in Jesus Christ without praying a prayer and still be saved? The Bible answer is a resounding yes, yes, yes!!!

I agree with Pastor Anderson that it is natural for people to want to pray and call upon the Lord to accompany their faith; however, that doesn’t make it mandatory to pray.

At the Faithful Word Baptist Church in Tempe, Arizona, Pastor Anderson teaches his people to lead lost sinners to pray a Sinner’s Prayer to be saved. That is fine, just so long as they explain that you don’t get saved by praying, you get saved by God’s grace through faith alone in Jesus Christ.

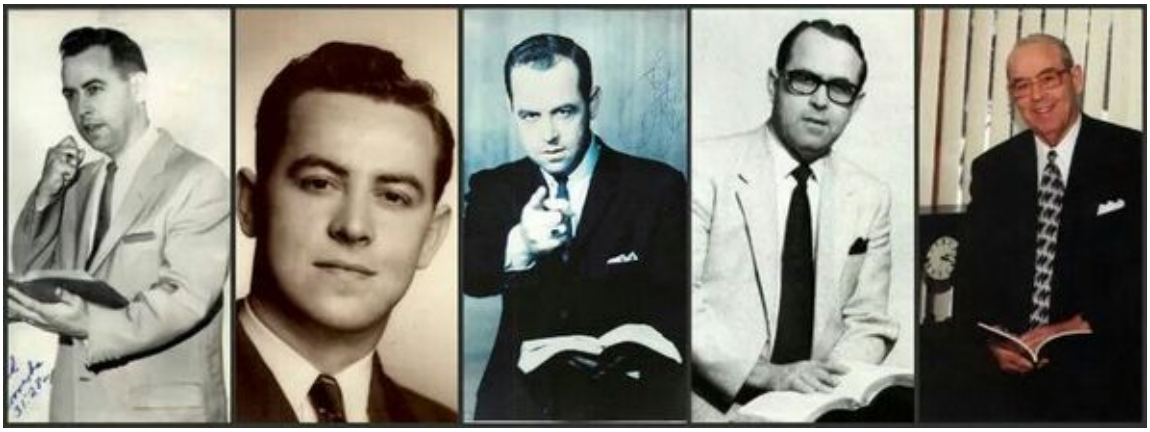
The inherent danger of leading lost sinners to pray a prayer of salvation is that they may misunderstand what God requires of them to be saved.

I know Christians who struggled with the assurance of God’s gift of salvation for decades, because they kept focusing on the content of their prayer, wondering if they left something out or missed something. Since they could not remember exactly what they said when they prayed, they lived in needless fear, tears and discouragement, worrying that perhaps they weren’t really really saved. But when they finally learned THE TRUTH that believing on Jesus as the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, is enough to be saved, and you don’t need to pray at all, they finally found the perfect peace that solidified their salvation beliefs.

Dear friend, I encourage you to read two free books online (search online and you’ll find them right away):

1. [3]I Never Knew You (by Evangelist Michael P. Bowen)

2. [4]Salvation And The Public Invitation (by Pastor Max D. Younce)



Those two insightful books are 100 % Bible based and will help you immensely to settle the important matter of salvation if you haven’t found that peace yet.

6.7.30 The Holy Spirit And Growth In Grace (2025-07-26 08:17)

by [2]Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001)

(Chapter 10 from Dr. Hyle's excellent book, "[3]Meet The Holy Spirit")

Regardless of the degree of one's spiritual maturity, he is always a minor here. Romans 8:23, "And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body." Notice the word "adoption." It means "majority" or "adulthood." The child of God does not reach spiritual majority or adulthood until his body is redeemed. That time will take place when Jesus comes for us and we receive our glorified bodies. I John 3:2, "Beloved, now are we sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when He shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is." Though we cannot grow to full maturity until then, we can, nevertheless, grow as children. As long as we have this body of flesh, we will be known as children of God.

If leaving the flesh at the rapture means us adults, then the lessening of the flesh and it's influence in our lives will enable us to grow to adulthood. This is the reason that the Corinthian church members were babes. I Corinthians 2:14, "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither fan he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." I Corinthians 3:1, "And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ." They were carnal. The word "carnal" means "flesh." To the degree that a Christian lives after the flesh he becomes childish. As he lives less after the flesh and more after the Spirit, though he is still a child, he does grow toward adulthood. The sad thing is that this growth is not necessarily progressive. At best, it is gradual. The growth is certainly not inevitable, it can be reverted. In other words, a Christian can grow in grace and become more mature. He then can become less mature by living more after the flesh. Consequently, the Christian's growth inn grace is in exact ratio to his walking after the Spirit and not after the flesh.

This growth in grace is a progressive one. Notice the words in I John 3:2, "We shall be like Him; FOR we shall see Him as He is." Why shall we be like Him? Because we shall see Him as He is. We shall not see Him as He is in a full sense until the rapture, but until then, the more we can see Him as He is, the more we will be like Him, for seeing Him as He is what makes us like Him. These words, "for we shall see Him as He is," in I John 3:2 could be translated, "as He shall be made manifested." This word "manifested" means "unveiled." This is like the unveiling of a statue. Day by day as we walk with God and walk in the Spirit, a little more of Christ is unveiled to us, and as we see more of Him due to this unveiling, we become more like Him. Hence, here is the divine order of growth in grace:

1. We walk with Him.
2. A little more of Him is unveiled.
3. We see Him more as He is.
4. When we see Him, we want to be like Him.
5. We then yield to the Holy Spirit, Who forms us more in the image of Christ.

Notice again, He makes us like Himself TO THE EXTENT THAT WE SEE HIM. We are as an unfinished block seeing more of the finished sculpture thereby desiring to be more like Him. With that desire and yielding, the Holy Spirit responds to making us more like Jesus.

We find then that the secret is to see Him more, for when we see Him, or appetites are whetted to be more like Him, and then the process of growth in grace is put into motion. How then may we see Him more? First and foremost, we must read and know the Word of God. If we would see Him, we must live in His Book. Second, we must walk with Him and talk with him in prayer. The more time we spend with Him and the more we consequently see Him, the more we will become like Him. Then also, we can see Him as we walk with people who are like Him, our desire to be like them and like Him is increased. Then, of course, a day-by-day yielding to the Holy Spirit is necessary in order that He may reveal Christ to us as we behold His glory. II Corinthians 3:18, "But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord."

Now as we walk with Christ and fellowship with Him and become more like Him, we then begin to yield the fruit of the Spirit. Galatians 5:22, 23, "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law." This fruit is not generated by human effort. It is caused by a constant walk with Christ in the Spirit so that subconsciously we take His traits upon us. One cannot love because he DECIDES to love. He walks with the Author of love, and then gradually, love is transferred to him. One cannot have peace because he decides to have peace; peace is a fruit of the Spirit. As one walks in the Spirit, he then becomes more like Him, and peace is a natural result. Through constant fellowship with Christ, as we walk in the Spirit, He rubs off on us. This process brings forth the fruit of the Spirit.

Notice it is all one fruit. The Apostle does not say, "the FRUITS of the Spirit," but rather, "the FRUIT of the Spirit." One does not work on getting love and then work on getting joy and then work on getting peach, and once he gets those, works on getting longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, etc. He walks with the One Who is the embodiment of this fruit, and as one fruit, these ingredients come to us.

It is an accepted fact that constant dwelling with a person will make us take on his habits, his mannerisms, his gestures and oftentimes this even affects one's looks. Hence, we are not to seek the fruit; we are to seek HIM!

I guess the two people who have influenced me the most in my personality have been my Uncle Harvey Harris and Dr. John R. Rice. In the early days of my life, I got to know my uncle very well. His personality was contagious. The more I was with him, the more of his mannerisms I acquired.

For 22 years I spent much of my life with Dr. John R. Rice. I preached with him, shared motel rooms with him, ate meals with him, prayed with him, fellowshipped with him, and in so doing, acquired many of his mannerisms. Now, I did not TRY to do so; it just happened.

This is true concerning the fruit of the Spirit. We are not to try of obtain the fruit; we are to try to walk with Him Who possesses it in it's perfection, and as we walk with Him and yield to His Spirit, the Spirit of God gives us more and more of this fruit. Now we are not to try to be like someone else, we just join their venture and let it happen. It may be that this is the most important part of education. Perhaps the most important thing obtained by formal training is not collection of facts and the acquiring of certain knowledge, but rather the privilege of having close contact with great people. In so doing, their personalities merge with ours and we are the better for it. This is the reason young people should go to Christian schools where dedicated, Spirit-filled professors and teachers cannot only impart to them great truths but show to them the fruit of these truths in a life. Perhaps if we would spend less time wanting to be like Jesus and more time wanting to be like Him, maybe we would be more like Him. Maybe if we spent less time attempting to walk LIKE Him and more time walking

WITH Him, we would then walk more like Him. Oh, yes, to be sure, we should have a desire an yearning to be like Jesus, but being like Him does not come because of a desire or yearning; it comes because we get to know Him better; perhaps by osmosis we become more like Him.

The same is true concerning walking and fellowshipping with the wrong crowd. Galatians 5:19-21, "Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, reveling, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God." Most people who begin doing the works of the flesh do not start on such a path by seeking to do so. Rather, they walk with those who possess these qualities and are subconsciously affected by them until they find themselves doing the works of the flesh because of their association with those who embodied these evil deeds.

The Bible says that we are predestined to be like Jesus. Romans 8:29, "For whom He did foreknow, He also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren." Here the word "predestinated" means "determined." Here the word "predestinated" means "determined." The words "to be" in that verse are durative, which means, "to be being." The word "conformed" comes from two words meaning "with form." Put them together and we have, "God has determined for us to BE BEING with the form of His Son." This passage is not speaking at all about salvation; it is simply telling us that God in His foreknowledge wanted to conform us to the image of His Son and to make us like Jesus, and He is doing that now, in that we are to BE BEING like Jesus. So it is the will of God that we BE BEING like Jesus or that we become more like Him daily.

God has also predestined us to be holy. Ephesians 1:4, 11, "According as He hath chosen us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love. In Whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of Him Who worketh all things after the counsel of His own will." God has determined that we should be holy, or set apart. Note also Ephesians 1:5, "Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will." The word "adoption" here means "majority" or "adulthood." God has predetermined that someday we will be adults. Romans 8:23, "And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves grown within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body." Notice that this adoption comes AT THE REDEMPTION OF OUR BODIES. The redemption of our bodies comes at the rapture. So one day we will become adults. The Holy Spirit will see to it. In the mean time, God wants us to be becoming more holy all the time. This is done as we yield to the Holy Spirit.

I can recall my mother telling me when I was a little boy, "Son, I love you, but I loved you even before you were born. I loved you before I knew what you would look like, how big you would be, and what color your eyes and hair would be." Jesus is saying, "A long time before you were born, I knew you would be saved, and I loved you. Even then I determined that someday I would make you like Me and that the Holy Spirit would perform this work." He is saying, "Before you were born, I wanted for you to be holy and set apart and live for the praise of God’s glory."

Now the Holy Spirit’s part in all this is found in Romans 8:13, "For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live." Our part is in Romans 12:1, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." We are to present our bodies or yield or bodies constantly a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is our reasonable service. The word "reasonable" here means "spiritual," which means that EVEN THIS is accomplished by the Holy Spirit.

There is one other thing that God has chosen us to do. John 15:16, "Ye have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in My name, He shall give it you." These words do not teach that God has chosen some people to go to Heaven and some to go to Hell! Nothing is farther form the truth! They do teach us that God has chosen that each of His children should bring forth fruit. Again, this fruit is brought forth as the Holy Spirit works in our lives.

We can then say that before the foundation of the world, God ordained that those whom He knew would trust Him would have the Holy Spirit to help them to be more and more conformed to his image, that this same Holy Spirit would lead them to win others to Christ, and that this same holy Spirit would lead them to win others to Christ, and that this same Holy Spirit would someday present them faultless before the presence of His Glory with exceeding joy. Jude 24, "Now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy." Hence, the Holy Spirit will someday make me like Jesus. Until that day, it is the plan of God that I yield to Him more and more so that He can make me more and more like Jesus, until that day when I awake in His likeness.

6.7.31 We Have An Inspired Holy Bible Today (2025-07-27 08:18)

2nd Timothy 3:16, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:"

Sadly, nothing is killing the faith of churches today like Bible colleges! Today's churches are in spiritual shambles because the Bible colleges have gone apostate! Nearly every Bible college today shakes the faith of young people in the inspiration of the Holy Bible. The young folks enroll into Bible college, spending their parent's hard earned money, just to be convinced later by soul-barren, spiritually lifeless professors that we don't have an inspired perfect Holy Bible today! Dear reader, the Word of God and the Holy Spirit are inseparable!

You cannot have one without the other. What do you think the word "inspired" means in

2nd Timothy 3:16, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:"

It absolutely makes no sense to me how we could have God's Words today if they weren't 100 % verbally (word for word) and plenary (those whole canon of Scripture) inspired.

The Greek word for

"inspired" here is Theopneustos, which means, God + air (breath). Many foolish Baptist preachers believe the unlearned scholars, who limit this word Theopneustos to just mean the process of God breathing His Words to man (Hebrews 1:1-2). But dear friend, that doesn't mean God's Words are no longer inspired today! The meaning of the word inspired is just what it says... IN SPIRIT! John 6:63, "It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life."

If today's King James Bible is not inspired, then the Holy Spirit is not involved and they are worthless words! It blows my mind that so many preachers today deny that God has preserved a perfect inspired copy of His eternal Words for this generation! I am tired of hearing preachers claim that the King James Bible is the best, but not perfect or inspired. I find no fault in the inspired and accurate King James Bible!!!!!!

6.7.32 Hell Is Full Of Good People (2025-07-27 09:20)

Matthew 7:21-23, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

Matthew 19:16-23, " And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments. He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet? Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me. But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions. Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven."

Acts 10:1-2, "There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band, A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway."

Hell is full of good people! I have given you three Bible examples of good people who were not saved. That is, they had never been born-again!

Matthew 7:21-23 - 'Ye That Work Iniquity'

In Matthew 7:21-23 we read about a devout group of people who preached (prophesied in Jesus' name). They did many wonderful works in Jesus' name. These were decent and good people. They weren't criminals! They went about doing good deeds everywhere they went, and they did them all in Jesus' name, because they served Christ. But dear reader, you cannot get to Heaven by serving Christ! Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. Religion is oftentimes a deadly mask that blinds it's followers to THE TRUTH of the Gospel.

Matthew 19:16-23 - 'What Good Thing Shall I Do?'

And then in Matthew 19:16-23 we read about a rich young man, a ruler among the Jews, who greatly admired Jesus and came to ask Him something. The young man asked Jesus what he needed to do to have eternal life. That is a great question! In fact, it is the most important question that anyone could ever ask. The dear Savior discerned that the young man was trusting in his own self-righteousness, because he had greeted Jesus as: "Good Master."

The young man asked Jesus in Matthew 19:16a, "Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? " Sadly, this is how 95 % of people think! They foolishly think that to get to Heaven they must live a good life. Jesus discerned that the young man was self-righteous, so He responded by using the Old Testament law the way it was intended to be used, as a measuring stick, to show that young man that he had fallen short of God's perfect standard. If any human being could live a 100 % perfect and sinless life, they would never die! Romans 6:23b teaches that "the wages of sin is death."

That is why Roman Catholics had to invent the false doctrine of The Assumption of Mary (which became official Catholic dogma in 1950), which falsely teaches that God assumed Mary (i.e., took Jesus' mother up into Heaven), because according to Catholics Mary never sinned. Catholics teach a heresy called The Immaculate Conception of Mary (i.e., she was virgin born too, Just like Jesus). Oh boy, what blasphemy against the Holy Bible. One heresy begets another heresy!!! Since Catholics teach that Mary was virgin born, they had to fabricate another false doctrine that says Mary never sinned, just like Jesus. And since she allegedly never sinned, she couldn't die either, because only sin brings death. I hope you can clearly see how Satanic the Roman and Russian Orthodox Catholic churches are! Roman Catholicism is headquartered in Vatican City, Rome. The Russian Orthodox Catholic church is headquartered in Moscow, Russia. There's not a dimes difference between these two cults!

Jesus was trying to show the rich young ruler that no amount of good works could erase his sins. The young man was very wealthy and covetous, making him a sinner, incapable of meriting eternal life. Jesus is the ONLY human being who has ever lived without sinning, and that is only because He had God almighty as His biological Father (John 3:16). God almighty came down to earth as a biological man. Deity became flesh, incarnate (John 1:1-3, 14; John 10:33; 1st Timothy 3:16). Colossians 2:8-9, "Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily."

In the earthly flesh of the man Jesus, the Godhead dwelt in all their fullness. The Godhead is often referred to in Bible theology classes as the "Trinity." Although I am not against using the word Trinity, I like the Word Godhead much better, since it is found in the Holy Bible. It is no coincidence that the word "Godhead" has been completely removed in nearly all of the Devil's modern Bible revisions, because the [1]Devil doesn't want people to recognize Jesus as almighty God. In the inspired King James Bible you will find the word "Godhead" mentioned three times (Acts 17:29, Romans 1:20 and Colossians 2:9). But in all three passages, the modern Bible perversions totally obliterate the Godhead.

Take a look at a comparison between Colossians 2:9 in the trustworthy King James Bible, versus the corrupt [2]English Standard Version (ESV), which is the official Bible version used by Bob Jones University (BJU) now for many years...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Colossians 2:9, "For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily."
>
> ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - Colossians 2:9, "For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily,"

There is a BIG DIFFERENCE between the words " deity

and

Godhead.

" Deity refers to God, but Godhead refers to the triune aspect of God. Words convey meaning and are extremely important. Take a look at a comparison of Romans 1:20 between the inspired King James Bible, versus the corrupt English Standard Version (ESV)...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Romans 1:20, "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:"

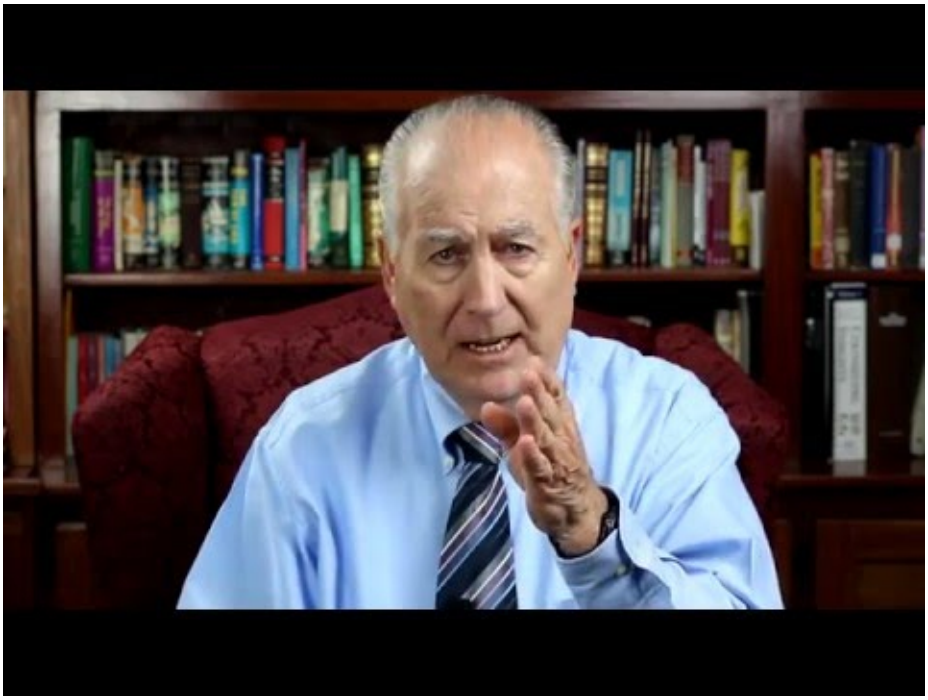
> ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - Romans 1:20, “For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse.”

The words “divine nature” are NOT the same as “Godhead.” Things that are different are not the same! Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) preaches one of my favorite sermons of the same title, called: “[3]Things That Are Different Are Not The Same.” I cannot warn you enough dear reader about the danger of using the Devil’s modern Bible revisions. They are all corrupt, translated from the corrupt 1881 Greek text of Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort. Even the translations which claim to be based upon the Textus Receptus, from which the King James Bible was translated in 1611, are still corrupted by the influence of Westcott and Hort. For example: The ungodly translators of the English Standard Version (ESV) falsely claim that their work is accurately based upon the Textus Receptus, but if you compare it to all the rest of the Westcott and Hort versions, it is essentially the same. If you’ve seen one Westcott and Hort Bible, you’ve seen them all!!! That is because they all share the same corruptions!

[4]Which Bible Would Jesus Use? (take a look at [5]Matthew 8:2 , [6]1st Timothy 3:16 and [7]Psalms 12:7).



Acts 10:1-2 - Cornelius, A Good Man But Lost

Cornelius had faith in God. He was an Italian centurion (military commander) over 100 solders. He fasted and prayed, giving alms (provisions) to the poor. Cornelius was a GOOD MAN who feared God. Yet he was not a born-again believer. God arranged for the Apostle Peter and Cornelius to meet. Thankfully, we read in Acts 10:42-43 that Cornelius got saved, and the friends who were with him. I like something that Pastor Curtis Hutson said:

> “Just yesterday I heard a man say on the radio, or television, that a certain area was ’Gospel hardened.’ And I thought to myself: ’You just don’t understand. The area is not Gospel hardened, it is Gospel ignorant.”’ —Dr. Curtis Hutson, sermon title:
> “ [8]Things That Are Different Are Not The Same ”

Dear reader, Hell is full of unsaved GOOD PEOPLE, who died in their sins without Jesus Christ. if you want to go to Heaven, you need GOD’S RIGHTEOUSNESS, which is by faith alone in Jesus Christ. Romans 10:3-4, “ For they being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. ” Philippians 3:9, “And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:” I really love those two Bible verses!!!

6.7.33 How To Know You Are Going To Heaven (2025-07-27 09:40)

The following article is by Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), former faithful editor of the Sword Of The Lord in Tennessee...

FIRST, YOU MUST ACCEPT THAT YOU ARE A SINNER.

(Romans 3:23), "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God."

(Romans 3:10), "As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one."

No one is perfect. No one has lived up to God’s perfect standard.

SECOND, YOU MUST ACCEPT THAT AS A SINNER YOU OWE A PENALTY.

(Romans 6:23), "For the wages of sin is death ... ."

(Ezekiel 18:4), "The soul that sinneth, it shall die."

This death is described in the Bible as the second death, the lake of fire, (Revelation 20:l4), "Death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death."

If we pay what we owe as sinners, we must spend an eternity in the lake of fire (Hell).

THIRD, YOU MUST ACCEPT THAT JESUS CHRIST HAS ALREADY PAID OUR SIN DEBT.

(Romans 5:6), "For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly."

(Hebrews 2:9b), " . .that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man."

Christ was not a sinner, and the Bible teaches that God took all of our sin and placed it on Christ. While Christ was bearing all of our sins in His own body, God punished Him in our place to pay the debt we owe. This is not something God promised to do. It is something God has already done.

(John 3:16), "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

(II Corinthians 5:21), "He hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him."

It is a fact, Jesus Christ has already paid your sin debt.

FOURTH, YOU MUST ACCEPT BY FAITH WHAT JESUS CHRIST DID FOR YOU. NINETY TIMES IN THE GOSPEL OF JOHN THE BIBLE SAYS, "BELIEVE."

(John 3:36), "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

In this verse. Jesus divides the world into two groups: those who are believing and those who are not believing on the Son. Those who believe have everlasting life, and those who believe not shall not see life.

The word believe means to trust, to depend on, to rely on. To believe on the Lord Jesus Christ means that you accept the fact that you are a sinner, that as a sinner you owe the sin penalty, and that Jesus Christ died on the cross to pay the debt you owe. But it means going one step further. It means that you will completely trust Christ to get you to Heaven - that you will put the matter of your salvation in His hands and depend on Him for everlasting life.

Now the moment you do this, God promises you are not condemned but have everlasting life and that you shall never perish.

(John 5:24), "Verily, verily, I Say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life."

If you will trust Jesus Christ as your Saviour, pray this simple prayer:

Dear Lord Jesus, I know I am a sinner, and I deserve to pay my own sin debt, but I do believe that You died for me to pay the debt that I owe. Today, the best I know how, I trust You as my Saviour. I will depend on You from this moment on for my salvation, Now help me to live for You and to be a good Christian. Amen.

Now, to clarify, I personally never lead a lost sinner to pray a prayer. I deliberately don't do it because of the 7 years of struggle, tears and fear that I suffered as a teenager because I was led to pray a prayer. The truth dear reader is that you DON'T need to pray a prayer to be saved. You can simply BELIEVE (i.e., put your confidence in) the 'GOOD NEWS' (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day to be saved. Jesus died in your place and mine on the cross, paying our massive debt of sin that we simply could not pay. The wages of sin is death, not doing good works or turning away from sin. That is why Christ had to die on the cross to pay for our debt of sin. Jesus paid it all!

It is not wrong to pray a sinner's prayer. When I got saved at age 13, I did ask Jesus silently in my soul to save me. It is a natural thing to do. But it is critically important that you understand that you could just as easily BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31), without praying at all and still be saved. You don't need to ask, confess publicly or call (pray) upon the name of the Lord to be saved. You just need to put your trust in the GOOD NEWS, which God has recorded in His written Word concerning His only begotten Son. If you receive that GOOD NEWS, you are immediately and forever born-again. You are then a child of God.

That is how 3,000 people got saved on the Day of Pentecost. No one prayed. No one called. No one confessed. The Apostle Peter simply preached the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day, and the people gladly received the truth of God's Word. Acts 2:41, "Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls." One of my favorite related Bible verses is found in Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?" I love that phrase... THE HEARING OF FAITH. That is how a person gets saved! When you hear the Gospel being preached, you simply put your faith in it.

What saith the Scripture? Hebrews 4:2, "For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it." This passage of Scripture is about the Jews who wandered lost in the Wilderness for 40 years. They tried to find their way out, but God confounded them for 40 years as punishment for their constant complaining. The Bible teaches that Moses, their leader, preached THE GOSPEL unto them for 40 years, but the people didn't have FAITH in that GOOD NEWS, so they went to Hell, sadly. Here again we see how easy it is to be saved. If the Jews had simply BELIEVED the Gospel that Moses preached unto them, about remission of sins through faith alone in the coming Messiah, they would have been saved (Acts 10:43).

The Gospel plus faith alone equals eternal life.

The Gospel plus human effort equals eternal damnation.

The Gospel plus turning away from your sins equals eternal damnation.

The Gospel plus following Jesus as your Lord equals eternal damnation.

The Gospel plus water baptism equals eternal damnation.

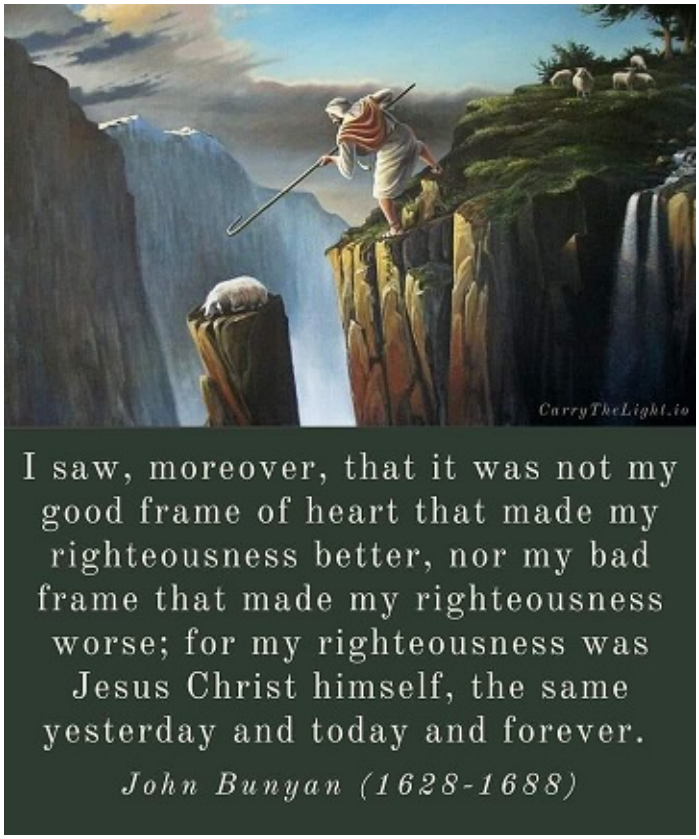
The Gospel plus surrendering all to Christ equals eternal damnation.

Remember, it's not...
FAITH IN CHRIST, PLUS;
it's...
FAITH IN CHRIST, PERIOD.

"The issue at salvation isn't repenting of your sins, the issue is changing your mind about the one who died for your sins, Jesus Christ." —[1]Pastor Dennis Rokser

"You can slip off the front pew of this church and go to Hell, because no church can save you." —[2]Pastor Dennis Rokser

Good works are not the payment for sin, the payment for sin is death.



Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

6.7.34 Stop Trying To Fix Your Reputation (2025-07-28 02:27)

I found something today on social media written by Dave Hyles, which I full agree with and wanted to share with others...

> There's a popular analogy often used when explaining the destructive nature of gossip and slander. It goes like this: Imagine taking a feather pillow to the top of a tall building, cutting it open, and shaking it in the wind. Feathers fly everywhere—scattered far and wide. And try as you might, you could never recover them all. That's how gossip works. Once it's released, there's no gathering it back.
>
> It's a powerful picture. Words, once spoken, especially those aimed at someone's character, take on a life of their own. They float through conversations, drift into judgments, and settle into minds that may never question where they came from or whether they were true. The damage is real—and often irreversible.

But let me offer you a practical response to that analogy.

I don't chase feathers.

I used to think I had to. I used to feel the weight of trying to explain myself, correct misunderstandings, and defend my name to anyone who had caught wind of a stray feather. But over time, I've learned the futility of that pursuit. It's exhausting. It's frustrating. And most of all—it's not my job.

Here's what I do instead: I let God handle it.

If He chooses to send a feather back my way—a relationship, a conversation, a moment of reconciliation—I'll receive it, not for my own sake, but for the sake of the one holding it. Maybe that person needs healing. Maybe they need clarity. Maybe they just need to see that God still uses broken people. But I don't chase the feathers. I simply wait for the ones God sends back on the wind.

My reputation is not my concern. My responsibility is not to convince others to think better of me. My calling is not to campaign for my character. My role is to walk humbly, stay faithful, and let God determine which relationships matter and when they're ready to be restored.

That's where peace lives.

Too many people are wasting precious energy trying to fix every misperception, recover every scattered word, and salvage every shattered opinion. But if you're constantly running around trying to regather feathers, you'll miss the ones God is gently bringing back to your feet.

Let Him decide which hearts need mending. Let Him determine who comes back across your path. And when they do, be a blessing—not a defense attorney. Show them grace, not argument. Offer healing, not explanation. That one feather matters—not because it proves anything about you, but because it gives you a chance to be used by God in someone else's life.

Stop trying to fix your reputation. Let your character speak. Let your life preach. And let God bring you the feathers He chooses—in His time, and for His purpose.

That's enough. That's freedom.

And that's faith.

There's an old adage which says: "Your friends won't care if the accusations against you are true, and your enemies won't care if they're false." I have found that adage to be very true in life. Pastor Jack Hyles was so right, "The Christian army is the only army in the world that kills its wounded."

David in the Old Testament knew the pain of being shunned, ostracized and condemned for his sins. Psalms 31:11, "I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without fled from me." David's neighbours had heard about his adultery with another man's wife, Bathsheba. She became pregnant with David's child. The neighbours had heard that David conspired to send her husband Uriah into the hottest part of the battle to be killed. In a wicked attempt to keep his dark sins a secret, the whole thing blew up in David's face!

Another popular adage comes to mind: "The stigma sticks!" People by nature go by what they hear. All it takes is one wicked person to start a rumor about you and thousands of people may believe it. That is wrong of course, but it is sinful human nature nonetheless. David's neighbours saw him and were afraid to talk with him, because of the bad news they'd heard about him, so they avoided him like Bubonic Plague.

I have had people do that to me in the past, when they heard slanderous gossip about me, and my pain was greater than I can express in words. If you've ever lived in a small town or an island, where everybody knows everything about each other, then you know how things work. Also, if you are a famous person, negative news spreads quickly like fire. It hurts inexplicably when friends, family and even strangers shun you. It shouldn't be that way in life, but it often is true. We should always see beyond people's faults and see their need instead. Dear reader, take your burden to the Lord and leave it there (1st Peter 5:7-10). God is faithful.

I have been shunned in every church I have attended for the past 10 years because of my website ministry. When I attended Pensacola Christian College's Campus Church in 2021, their incompetent senior pastor Jeff Redlin told me that he and the other pastors examined my ministry websites and saw that I find weakness in preachers. I have 11,000 webpages on eight different ministry websites, but they only saw the 1 % of pages where I justly expose corrupt pastors who butcher the Gospel, promote corruptible seed (false bibles) and mistreat people who tell THE TRUTH. Sadly, I have since added the ungodly pastors at PCC to my list of infidels that I expose.

David had to come to the place where he realized he had sinned against God alone. Psalms 51:4, "Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest." Dear reader, people will never let you live down your past sins. Remember, Satan is the accuser of the brethren (Revelation 12:10). Jesus said in John 15:19 that the heathen world will love their own, but they will hate the Christian, because the world hates Jesus (John 7:7).

The Devil calls us by our sins, but God calls us by our name. If we allow Satan and his children to do so, they will discourage us to the point of not wanting to serve God anymore, or seek relief from substance abuse, or even take one's own life. People can be cruel. I learned a very long time ago that I must let God handle my critics. I am a very beloved and hated fundamentalist Bible preacher, because I tell the truth. I have never claimed to be a good Christian, but God knows that I love Him and am trying to do the best I can in His strength to make a difference for Christ in this world (Galatians 2:20-21). God knows that I have a big heart and I care, which I owe all to Him, for it is the Holy Spirit in me who produces whatever goodness I have.

Woe unto the hateful critics! Matthew 7:1-3, "Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?" I condemn no man, because I am the biggest sinner I know (and so are you if you'll be honest with yourself and God). 1st Timothy 5:24, "Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after." We are all a bunch of hypocrites and wretched sinners! Psalms 106:6, "We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly." You'll become a better Christian when you stop saying:

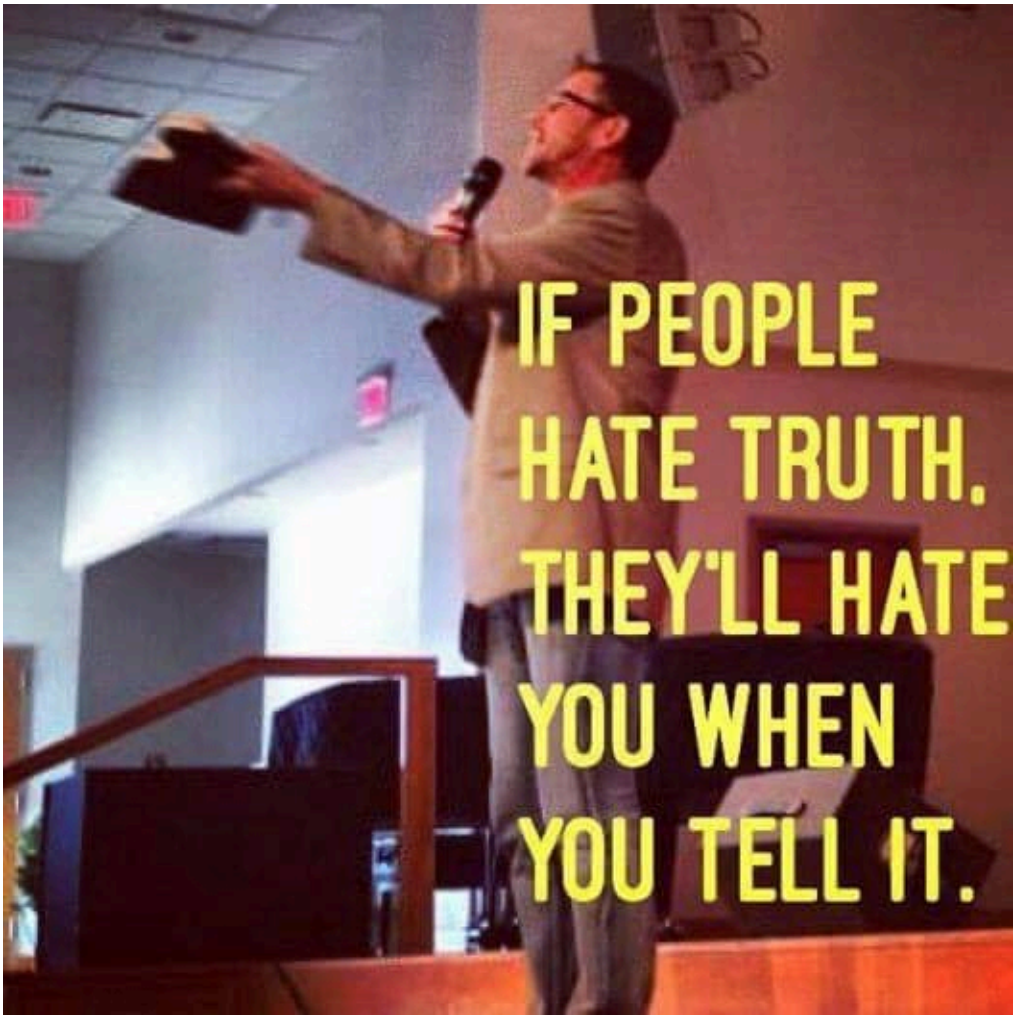
"He has sinned" and "She has sinned," and you start saying: "We have sinned."

You cannot repair your bad reputation dear friend. Reputation is what people think about you; Character is what God knows about you. My goal over the years has been to be a better Christian in private, than what people think I am in public. God sees my heart. My enemies say some horrible things about me, and in so doing slander the Lord since I am His child (Matthew 25:40, 45). It is not my place to defend myself against critics. I saw Pastor Jack Hyles attempt to defend himself and his ministry, but his enemies twisted his words around (as they always do) and made things even worse. I have never tried (nor will I ever try) to defend myself from my hateful critics who seek to destroy my name, ministry and influence for Christ.

Jesus was the sinless only begotten Son of almighty God. Yet, Jesus' enemies called Him a deceiver, a bastard born of fornication, a lunatic and demon possessed. If the world will say such evil things about the very Christ, then what will they say about you and me dear saint of God? They will crucify us, just as they crucified the Lord of glory.

Satan loves critics! The accuser of the brethren loves the accuser of the brethren. I want no part of it. I faithfully expose false prophets, fake churches, counterfeit gospels and corrupt Bible revisions, but I won't waste my time hatefully tearing down people like they do on social media. It is right to expose false teachers (Titus 1:9-14) and evil (Psalms 94:16), but it is wrong to condemn sinners (John 3:17; Matthew 7:1-5). The Old Testament law of God already condemns all of humanity as guilty sinners (Romans 3:10-23).

Whatever mistakes, sins or failures exist in your past, place them into God's hands dear reader. Leave them at the foot of Calvary's cross where Jesus died for your sins and mine. If you've wronged someone, go make it right and reconcile if possible. You might need to make some restitution, or even go to prison, which is proper and right if you've broken laws to hurt someone. You can never be right with God, until you have first reconciled and made proper restitution to your victims from the past. When Zacchaeus got saved in the Bible, he vowed to repay fourfold whatever money he had bilked from others. That is a wise man.



Every once in a while someone will email me and say they have done something terribly evil. I always quickly reply by telling them not to tell me, because I don't need or want to know what they have done. Pastor Jack Hyles wisely taught not to be reluctant to admit to others you have feet of clay, but don't ever show them your feet. Your sins are none of anyone's business except God's, unless you are trying to reconcile with the victim. If you would never do anything terribly wicked, then don't do anything slightly wicked. That is godly advice!

There is a sweet peace in knowing that you have made peace with those from your past whom you've hurt. If nothing else, an apology is at least a start. In some cases you may not be able to reconcile or even apologize, if you don't know who your victims were, or they have moved on. God knows all the details. We cannot pull one over on our Creator (Proverbs 24:12). God is omniscient (all knowing). Proverbs 15:3, "The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good."

Lord help me live from day to day, in such a way that I can look up to Heaven each evening, and know that I have not defrauded, hurt or wronged any human being. That is loving thy neighbour as one's self, and loving God with all thy heart, mind and soul. These are the two greatest commandments from God, which are really just one—to LOVE.

6.7.35 Why “Asking Jesus Into Your Heart” Won’t Save You (2025-07-29 00:48)

John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.”

by Bill Perkins

September 6, 2017

This truth is a shocker to a lot of people!

If you have the opportunity to witness to someone and God convicts them of their sin and need for a savior, what do you tell them to do to become a Christian?

Many people will tell a non-believer that they need to pray the sinner’s prayer and "Ask Jesus into their heart."

Where is THAT in the Bible?

It’s not. There is no place in the Bible that non-believers are instructed to ask Jesus into their heart to save them.

And no place in the Bible says that if you do ask Jesus into your heart you will be saved. But, unfortunately, this non-Biblical tactic has grown to be the norm.

That’s a shocker to a lot of people. So what does the Bible say? Let’s look at some verses.

The Philippian jailer asked Paul, "What must I do to be saved?"

Paul answered, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and you will be saved." (Acts 16:30-31)

The key word in Paul’s answer is "believe."

In the original Greek, the word "believe" (pisteuo) means to have faith in / to trust in." It’s in the aorist tense in the Greek which means it doesn’t require future action, just a single decision.

The late Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer said in his book, "Salvation: God’s Marvelous Work of Grace, (p.33) "This one word ’believe’ represents all a sinner can do and all a sinner must do to be saved."

Chafer’s statement is Biblically consistent. Consider:

"...whoever believes in Him..." John 3:16

"He who believes in the Son..." John 3:36

"... he who hears My word and believes..." John 5:24

"...he who believes in Me shall never thirst." John 6:35

"...everyone who ... believes in Him, ..." John 6:40

"...he who believes has eternal life." John 6:47

"...unless you believe..." John 8:24

"...he who believes in Me..." John 11:25

"...everyone who ... believes in Me..." John 11:26

"... that (by) believing you may have life..." John 20:31

You don’t have to pray a prayer or ask Jesus into your heart to be saved. You just have to believe that you are a sinner, incapable of saving yourself, and that God sent His only fathered Son to the earth to shed his blood, die for your sins and be resurrected, defeating death. You are, by faith alone, trusting God and His written Word to be true.

"Now I make known to you, brethren, the gospel which I preached to you, which also you received, in which also you stand, by which also you are saved... that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that He was buried, and that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures" 1st Corinthians 15:1-4

The "gospel" or "good news" that you must "believe" centers on Jesus Christ, the Son of God, who died for our sins and rose again. The gospel does not include "praying for Jesus to come into your heart."

It is, of course, possible that someone "walked the aisle" or prayed the infamous "sinner's prayer" and did understand the gospel– thereby being saved. But it was their belief in the gospel that saved them, not their walking the aisle, praying a prayer or asking Jesus into their heart.

And it is just as possible that there are many who have a false salvation security based on praying a prayer for Jesus to come into their heart without understanding the gospel!

But what about the verses about God living in us?

"...Which is Christ in you..." Colossians 1:27

"...Christ lives in me..." Galatians 2:20

"And because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into our hearts..." Galatians 4:6

Yes, every Believer has Jesus living in their heart.

But how did He get there? God came into our hearts at salvation, the exact moment we, by faith, believed the gospel. We don't ask Him to come in, He comes in because we believe.

"But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name," John 1:12

"In Him, you also, after listening to the message of truth, the gospel of your salvation - having also believed, you were sealed in Him with the Holy Spirit of promise," Ephesians 1:13

First we believe, then God sends His spirit into our hearts.

To tell someone to "ask Jesus into your heart" is blatantly skipping the scripturally necessary "believing in" / "trusting in" the gospel.

Dennis Rosker said it best in his book "Seven Reasons Not To Ask Jesus Into Your Heart." He stated, "We have confused the means of salvation with the results of salvation."

But what about

Revelation

3:20?

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with Me." Revelation 3:20

Notably absent from this verse are the words "ask," "Jesus," and "your heart."

If this verse is written to Believers, the context is about Jesus desiring to be number one in the lives of the believers as they had confused earthly success with spiritual maturity. Jesus desired the Laodiceans to make Him not only Savior, but also be predominate in their lives.

Many have misunderstood the phrase "I will come into him" to mean "come into their heart."

Michael Cocoris discusses the Greek words used in Revelation 3:20 in his book, "Evangelism, A Biblical Approach." He says "Christ will come 'in to' (two different Greek words), not 'into' (one Greek word). The verse is saying that Christ will come in the church to the person, not that Christ will come into the person."

Cocoris later adds, "Christ is speaking of fellowship, not salvation."

Jesus wants a moment by moment fellowship with Believers.

"... taking every thought captive to the obedience of Christ," 2nd Corinthians 10:5

However, if this verse is written to non-Believers, as John MacArthur contends, the term "standing at the door" is not the door of your heart, but rather the door of the Laodicean Church. MacArthur states in his Commentary on the Book of Revelation, page 140:

"The door on which Christ is knocking is not the door to a single human heart, but to the Laodicean Church."

MacArthur believes these people held to their own form of Godliness but were denying the power of the Holy Spirit (2nd Timothy 3:5).

Therefore, regardless of whether Revelation 3:20 was addressing Believers or non-Believers, it is not a verse instructing us that we need to ask Jesus into our hearts to be saved. It's just not there.

Two quotes from Charles Ryrie from his book, "So Great Salvation."

"...it seems to me that those who believe in the inerrancy of the Bible ought to be especially concerned with accuracy in communicating the truth."

"Just as words were the means God used to record the Gospel in the Scriptures, so words are the means we use to explain the Gospel to others. Therefore, a correct choice of words is important, even essential, in stating the Gospel well."

There may be someone reading this who prayed a prayer and your faith of salvation is in the fact you prayed the prayer. Or you may have walked to the front of a meeting and your faith is in the fact you walked forward.

If there is any doubt that you are a Christian, simply believe by faith in the true gospel of salvation – that God sent His Son Jesus to die for your personal sins, and rose from the dead defeating death so you can have eternal life with God.

Salvation has zero to do with what you did in the past–or will do in the future–and everything to do with what Jesus did on the cross 2000 years ago. When you believe you are forever assured of eternal life with Jesus. Because once He comes into your life, He's there forever. PTL!

6.7.36 God Is A Scary Person To Mess With (2025-07-29 13:00)

Job 9:1-3, "Then Job answered and said, I know it is so of a truth: but how should man be just with God? If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand."

Psalms 50:22, " Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver."

Isaiah 45:9, " Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?"

Isaiah 64:8, " But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand."

2nd Timothy 2:13, "If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. "

These are but a few of umpteen Scripture passages I could show you, warning us that we cannot win out in the end by having a rebellious attitude toward God. Job said that even if a man were to contend with God in a thousand debates, he could not win even one time. God makes no mistakes! Nothing ever occurs to God. Everything that God does is right.

Our Creator is a good God. A person can merely observe nature and the universe and see the goodness of God. The fraudulent theory of evolution could not have accomplished all the goodness in our world. It is shameful that NASA, who are supposed to be so smart, are some of the dumbest people in history. [1]NASA think the moon formed from two big space rocks colliding. What saith the Scripture? Psalms 8:3, "

When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; " God made the moon, not some asteroids crashing into each other as NASA foolishly suggests. NASA are atheists!

Romans 8:32 teaches, "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?" Yet, in Luke 16:19-31 the formerly rich man in Hell could not even receive a single drop of water to quench his burning tongue in the flames. Abraham told him there was no way possible. Once a person dies in their sins and goes to Hell, all hope is gone forever!!! Please don't let that happen to you dead reader. If you are reading my blog you are still alive, which means it is not too late. But if you delay getting born-again, playing a deadly game of Russian Roulette with your eternal destiny, then you may suddenly end up in the Lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death (Revelation 21:8). Literally, you will be burning in scorching volcanic lava.

Many people laugh and mock the Biblical warning of a literal place called Hell. Even some professed Christians deny that Hell burns with fire. But are you willing to take that monumental risk? Are you willing to bet on that arbitrary assumption and take that foolish chance? Not me, no way, I got saved when I was 13 years old. Pastor Curtis Hutson got saved at age 11. Pastor Steven Anderson got saved at age 6. In fact, 85 % of Christians got saved before age 18. Once a person reaches age 70, their odds of getting saved has dropped down to a woeful 4 %. In other words, now is the accepted time for salvation. Please don't delay another day.

God will either give you ALL THINGS as His redeemed and adopted child; or else God won't even give you a drop of water as you burn in Hell forever. That is scary!

Dear reader, you don't need to be afraid of God if you obey Him. But if you are incorrigible (i.e., a person who refuses to be corrected), then you will find yourself burning in Hell some day. If you think this earth is a form of Hell, you are woefully mistaken, unless you have ever been burned alive in a literal fire! Hell is no joke. Your friends won't be partying in Hell. No one is laughing in Hell!!!

I sincerely hope that you have already taken this matter of Hell very seriously, because it is 100 % Biblical. Any child can read in Revelation 20:11-15 about the Lake of Fire.

” Revelation 20:15, “And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.”

If you are one of those people who thinks that God didn’t mean what He said, all I can say is:

“Good luck with that!” Unless the Holy Bible says otherwise, I take it literally at face value (and so should you friend). God said what He meant, and He meant what He said.

God is faithful.

2nd Timothy 2:13, “If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.” If a person ends up in Hell, they won’t be able to blame God. Salvation is a gift from God. It is totally free. You don’t have to do anything to have that gift except take it by faith alone in the GOOD NEWS that Jesus is the Christ. who died on the cross to pay for our sins, was buried and three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead. That is THE GOSPEL (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). BELIEVE IT oh sinner and you are saved!!!

6.7.37 Shame On Family Baptist Church In Pensacola (2025-07-30 04:58)

Romans 16:17-18, “Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.”

Shame on Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. [1]They kicked me and my wife Alice out of their fake church (a fun center social club), but they cannot escape God’s judgment. The pastor’s wife can continue to dress immodestly, but she knows she is sinning. This is why her husband (the shameful pastor) interrogated me and Alice in his office on April 30th, 2025 over my preaching against women wearing pants on social media. His wicked wife is insanely defensive of her heathen pants. Her wimpy husband is henpecked. I didn’t start this fight, they did!

At the Memorial Day picnic this year, the pastor’s wife was shamefully wearing sexy pants. My wife wore a full length dress. We didn’t have to say a word, you could feel the tension from the pastor’s wife. She refused to even talk to my wife, even though Alice sad “

hello

to her twice at the picnic. Really great way to treat someone new, huh?

Forty-five minutes after we arrived the pastor’s wife came to our picnic table on the end, where a dozen children were eating with us. The pastor’s wife wickedly said, "I like your shorts" to a young girl sitting in front of us. Me and Alice cringed at what the pastor’s wife had sinfully said. A pastor’s wife should be the one woman in the church who raises the moral standard, not lowers it.

At a minimum that pastor’s wife is unwise for saying such a shameful thing in front of me and Alice, knowing that I am a fundamentalist Bible preacher and SHE KNOWS where I stand on the issue of women wearing shorts and pants (that’s why her foolish husband grilled us in his office a month earlier about women wearing pants).

And also, the pastor’s wife knows that Alice is a modest Christian woman who refuses to wear pants. There’s no way that the pastor’s wife innocently came up in front of us to praise a young girl’s immodest shorts, fully knowing who me and Alice are. She essentially spit on our Hyles-Anderson College roots, where we are from. Shame and woe unto that ungodly pastor’s wife. God will deal with her. Me and Alice will not partake of her shame; she must bear that alone.

At worst, which I believe with all my heart, God knows that the pastor’s wife did it on purpose (Proverbs 24:12). I think she is so convicted about her worldly clothing that she couldn’t resist sticking her immodesty in our faces to provoke us. As a caring Baptist preacher, I will go to seed in this matter against women wearing pants and other immodest attire (Proverbs 7:10).

Only a total fool and wicked worldly person, would challenge the inspired Holy Bible to produce a verse that says it is wrong for women to wear sexy pants in public, when God has already plainly commanded women to dress in MODEST APPAREL (1st Timothy 2:9). There was no question a century ago in America if pants on women were considered "modest"; they were NOT! Get right with God Family Baptist Church!!!

Galatians 6:7-10, “

Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith."

God knows that I love the folks at Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, but they are foolishly following corrupt leaders who do not love Jesus. For if they truly did love God, they would commend my Bible preaching on social media against women wearing pants, instead of condemning me and kicking me and Alice out of their damned social club. Shame on them!

The sad truth is that cult leadership sinfully held a grudge against me for the 45 months that I attended their neo-evangelical church, because of my Christ-honoring website ministry. Over 97 % of pastors today are incompetent fools, who have no business being in the clergy. Pastor Brad Moffett and his verbally abusive jerk for a father have run Family Baptist Church into the ground spiritually. Those wicked men are WRONG on Bible repentance; and therefore, wrong on God's simple plan of salvation. Contrary to their church's corrupt Statement of Faith, you don't have to "Repent of your sins" to get to Heaven. That is works according to Jonah 3:10.

They are sinfully running THEIR CHURCH their way at Family Baptist Church in Pensacola instead of God's way. Instead of immediately water baptizing what few alleged converts they rarely have, they wait sometimes several months before baptizing them. That is wrong! In the Bible when people got saved they were immediately baptized that very same day (Acts 2:41).

There is no regularly scheduled door to door soulwinning in the church. Instead, the church hosts a few "big days" each year, hoping that the entertainment will lure new members to attend their pathetic so-called "church." Although a few stragglers do come to church after big days, this is far inferior to God's method of public house to house soulwinning. Door to door soulwinning is "a Christian believer's 20/20 Vision" (Acts 20:20). Shame on the complicit members of Family Baptist Church and their horrible pastors. In my humble opinion they are lazy rascals.

The church makes sure to host their annual bowling tournament in January, their Mexican restaurant dinners and other fun center activities, while soulwinning isn't done as the Lord commanded. Who cares, right? We are today living in the ungodly

Who cares?

generation.

Then again in this case, it wouldn't matter even if they did go door to door witnessing, because they would merely be propagating their counterfeit plan of salvation which requires people to repent of sinning to be saved, which is another gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4; Galatians 1:6-9; 1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

There is no preaching against sin from the pulpit. Women in the church are encouraged by the lack of hard preaching to wear their worldly attire, and the pastor's wives wear pants in public, which is a shameful testimony for any Christian lady.

There is no contending for the Christian faith from the pulpit, as there ought be (Jude 1:3; Titus 1:8-14; Ephesians 5:11). In the 45 months that I attended their neo-evangelical cult from 2021 to 2025 when they kicked us out, I heard infidels promoted from the pulpit; such wicked heathen preachers as: Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, John Piper, John Calvin, Marth Luther, Jeff Redlin, Ken Ham and other fake Christians. Every contemptible pastor's name that I just mentioned preaches a perverted view of God's simple plan of salvation.

For example: Martin Luther (1483-1546) added sacraments to faith, which you can verify in his Catechisms written in 1529 AD, 12 years after his alleged conversion as a Roman Catholic priest to Christianity in 1517 AD. Martin Luther went to Hell because he trusted in water baptism and communion to save him. Partial faith in Christ plus works is NOT acceptable to God (Titus 3:5).

Another example: Jeff Redlin is the theologically incompetent senior pastor at Pensacola Christian College's Campus Church. [2]Look at the Satanic filth which they peddle to their impressionable students and in the local community in Pensacola. PCC as a school is supposed to teach their tens of thousands of students right doctrine, not indoctrinate them with neo-evangelical garbage. Their lazy pastors have not studied the Word of God (2nd Timothy 2:15). They are not approved by God to teach others because they do not rightly divide the Word of Truth. Shame on Family Baptist Church for wickedly bidding Godspeed to these evildoers and clowns at PCC.

And for that matter, SHAME on the [3]greedy Sword of the Lord in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, for wickedly bidding PCC Godspeed and promoting their cult in their monthly publication in exchange for money. It is blood money!

I could go on and on about the apostasy at Family Baptist Church, PCC and other spiritually dead local churches (cults) in the city of Pensacola. Tragically, the most dangerous place for a person nowadays is in the average Baptist church, which have become cesspools of iniquity teaching wrong repentance and Lordship Salvation instead of a free grace Gospel.

And don't anyone dare try to defend these yardbirds by saying that there are no perfect churches. We're not talking about someone innocently falling short of perfection. We're talking about wicked pastors who are hard core rebels against THE TRUTH of God's Word. The Bible says in Hosea 4:6 that God's people were destroyed because they lacked knowledge. But continue reading and you'll see that they had deliberately REJECTED THE TRUTH, which damned them. Hosea 4:6,

" My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children." So, we see that there is a big difference between not being perfect, versus not wanting to be perfect. In the case of 99 % of pastors and churches today, they are complacent in mediocrity, error and worldliness and have no desire to better themselves in the Lord. They are at ease in Zion.

And beware of cartoon evangelist Jack Chick (1924-2016) and his [4]deadly Chick Tracts, which preach wrong repentance and a perverted view of God's simple plan of salvation. I see these toxic tracts polluting Baptist churches everywhere! Dear reader, there is nothing "simple" about telling a lost sinner that God won't give them eternal life unless they are first willing to turn away from their sinful bad habits. No such nonsense is taught in the inspired King James Bible. Wicked men added those words to God's Words (Proverbs 30:5-6). Bible repentance unto life is simply a change of mind owning up to God that you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20), and Jesus is the only Savior (John 20:31). This is true repentance which facilitates (makes possible) believing the Gospel to be saved.

I love how Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) explains repentance...

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ('[5]Except Ye Repent,' p. 16)

Furthermore, shame on Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and Family Baptist Church in Pensacola for promoting the [6]damnable heresy of Ken Ham and Answers-In-Genesis. Right doctrine matters!!! Ichabod (the glory of the Lord has departed) is written over Family Baptist Church's doors. It matters how you treat other people, it really does. They sinfully treated me and Alice like garbage at Family Baptist Church, because they do not know the love of God. The Lord will avenge us, as He has solemnly promised in Romans 12:19-21. God will not be mocked. Truth matters. Modesty matters. People matter. People just want to be loved.

I was blinded by my love for the people of the church and their pastors for 45 months. I get attached quickly to people and things. I am not the bad guy in this story, they drew first blood. But what I couldn't see back then, but now only realize in hindsight, is that they wickedly held a grudge against me the entire time because of my website ministry. I never mentioned my websites once to them, but I didn't have to because everybody and their dog knows about my website ministry (to God be the glory).

Those ungodly pastors and their pathetic church members never fairly gave me a chance. Because the worldly pastor's wives all wear pants, they despised me from the very beginning, holding a strong grudge against me as a truth-telling fundamentalist Bible preacher. I didn't see it back then, blinded by my Christian desire to love, and hopefully be loved in return. I sincerely tried to just quietly fit into their church family and be a blessing to those around me, and I did that for 45 months. But they ruthlessly kicked me and Alice out of their damned social club, because the wimpy pastor and his horrible wife made an issue of my faithful preaching on social media (which is none of their business by the way) against women wearing pants in public, which I still firmly stand behind 100 %. I make no apologies for preaching THE TRUTH!

And just because they axed us like a turkey on Thanksgiving Day, doesn't change the fact that they are still guilty in the sight of almighty God of all the things I have addressed in this article, and much more. What they presently have is not a New Testament church, it is a stupid social club and fun center of fools following fools.

One main thing I have learned over the years is that neo-evangelicals shamefully couldn't care less about the details. They refuse to make a fuss over things that really matter! They aren't concerned about splitting hairs over right doctrine. They aren't concerned about the purity of the Holy Bible, nor the accuracy of the Gospel. The way women dress in public is not an issue in their camp. In their immature mindset, mentioning the names of false teachers is not something they desire to do, lest it introduce a bad spirit into the church service. They couldn't be more wrong! Truth has and always will offend people who hate the truth!

To the Christian fundamentalist (which I humbly am), TRUTH MATTERS! But to the neo-evangelical, they're just playing church from Sunday to Sunday, going through the motions (Matthew 15:8). The reason why [7]church attendance in the United States is now at a historic low is because young people are smart enough to know that today's churches are [8]not what God intended for them to be. In a word, today's pathetic [9]churches are DEAD! Some people are calling this disturbing trend: "[10]The Great Falling Away."

When abusive pastors are quick to kick people out of a church (no one ever bothered to talk to me and Alice even once before throwing us out of Family Baptist Church in June of 2025), they are just proving to everyone how carnal, ungodly and phony they really are. A church is supposed to be one's family in the Lord! So what gives any pastor (or his belligerent abusive father) the God-given right to kick people out of their church family? Only religious cults like Mormonism and Jehovah's Witnesses kick people out of their group. Shame on them!

I won't be silent. I have much to say against today's abusive and incompetent church pastors. The way you treat people matters. It is tragic that most pastors today selectively decide who is relevant and who is not, just like Facebook wickedly decides whose comments are relevant and whose are not. That is what is done in communist North Korea! I cannot find one verse in the inspired Holy Bible that teaches to kick people out of a local church. How can you help people for Christ if you drive them out of their local church family?

And I want to say this too, just because you're not an officially voted-in member of a local church doesn't mean that you are nothing. I have attended numerous churches where I was mistreated and ignored like I didn't exist, merely because I hadn't been voted-in as a member. That is as demonic and evil as anything I can think of! Shame on Family Baptist Church for making it "hard to join the church" (their pastor's own words). They sadly function more like a cult than a church.

They shunned me for the 45 months that I attended their church. Not once did the pastor ever initiate a single conversation with me. No one in church leadership ever bothered to ask for my contact information. They just didn't give a damn! I speak this to their utter shame before the Lord. I am a member of whatever church I attend because I am a born again child of the King of kings and Lord of lords, Jesus Christ. No child of God should ever be made to feel ostracized, unwanted or second-rate because they haven't legally joined a local 501c3 organization. What the hell is wrong with pastors today?

6.7.38 The Gospel Teaches Forgiveness Of Sins, Not Turning From Sins (2025-07-30 15:00)

Luke 1:76-79, "And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways; To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins, Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us, To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace."

Our text passage above speaks concerning John the Baptist, who went before to prepare the first coming of Jesus Christ. Sometimes Bible students misunderstand the ministry and baptism of John, thinking that he preached a different plan of salvation than Jesus or the Apostle Paul. Not so. There has always been only one plan of salvation, which is through faith in Christ. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

" ALL of the Old Testament prophets preached salvation by grace through faith in the Messiah.

Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) penned this helpful Bible commentary:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God "now commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.
> Everyone who genuinely repented under the preaching of John the Baptist put his trust in the Saviour John the Baptist preached, and was regenerated. There is no such thing as being "a disciple of John the Baptist" in any honest sense without being a disciple of Jesus, that is, without trusting Christ for salvation. [emphasis added]

Oh dear friend, that is so beautiful. Please don't miss it! I have heard [1]Missionary David W. Cloud and other false teachers, attempt to portray Dr. Rice as a proponent of Lordship Salvation, saying he taught that people must turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved. That is simply not true about Dr. Rice! David Cloud even goes as far as to pitch Dr. John R. Rice against his successor Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995). I explain this issue in the preceding hyperlink. Mr. Cloud claims that Curtis Hutson leaves off repentance, thus corrupting the Gospel. [2]Nothing could be further from the truth!!!

Silly phrases such as "repent of sins, confess your sins, turn from you sins, ask Jesus into your heart, follow Jesus and make Jesus Lord of your life" cannot explain the Gospel because they are contrary TO the gospel.

The Gospel teaches forgiveness of sins, while they are teaching turning from sins. There is a big difference! The subject at hand is justification, and their gospel is clearly shown false by Scripture. Until they recognize that the Scripture teaches God justifies the ungodly by faith alone, they will never recognize the falsehood of their teaching!

The Gospel teaches repentance unto God (Acts 20:21), but they are teaching reformation from sins (i.e., a changed life)

. Jesus Christ came to save us from our sins, not demand that we commit to live a changed life in order to be saved.

Matthew 1:21, " And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins."

Please notice again our text passage from Luke 1:77-78a, "To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins, Through the tender mercy of our God..." You get saved by having your sins forgiven (remitted). This is something that only God can do! Even the wicked unsaved Pharisees understood this truth. Mark

2:7, "

Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only?

" Dear reader, getting saved is a legal matter of justification of the sinner, not the believer's sanctification.

Pilgrim's Progress author, John Bunyan, understood this important truth well:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Once a man trusts in his own self righteousness, that's when religion, shame and condemnation spring forth (Mark 7:13). We do not get saved by our own righteousness, NOR do we live for God by our own righteousness. IT is the Holy Spirit who seals us (Ephesians 1:13-15), and works within us by faith alone in Christ crucified (Romans 4:4-5). Mark 7:13, "Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye." The clichés: "repent of sins, confess your sins, turn away from you sin, be willing to turn from sin, ask Jesus into your heart, surrender all to Christ, follow Jesus and make Jesus the 'Lord' of your life," are all MANMADE TRADITION, not Scriptural. You may do all of these things and yet never be born-again. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again.

If it were necessary to give up a lifestyle of sinning to be saved, then God would owe us salvation. Romans 4:4-5, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." Ephesians 2:5, "

Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)

" God doesn't owe anybody salvation!!! Salvation is by God's grace. We don't deserve it. ...

Grace is God giving us what we don't deserve.

Mercy is God not giving us what we do deserve.

The only difference between the words "works" and "grace" are the letters " ne.

Either you believe that you must something to get to Heaven; or else you believe that is is already paid for in full by Jesus Christ, Dear friend, you get saved simply by COMING TO CHRIST! You get saved simply by BELIEVING THAT JESUS DID IT FOR YOU!!!

DO

DO*NE*,

Hebrews 4:10-11,

"For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

You get saved by just getting out of the way, and letting Jesus do all the saving. Just as God the Father rested from His creative labors for 6 days, and rested on the 7th day; even so must we cease from

"repenting of our sins, confessing our sins, turning away from our sin, being willing to turn from our sin, asking Jesus into our heart, surrendering all to Christ, following Jesus and making Jesus the 'Lord' of our life," and REST COMPLETELY in the finished work of Jesus Christ through Calvary's cross.

In other words, we get saved by ceasing from our own human efforts, and RESTING IN THE GOSPEL (i.e., the Good News of Jesus' death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection from the dead - 1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

You'll die and go to Hell if you're trusting your own goodness. It is done! Your sins have already been paid in full by the precious blood of Jesus Christ (1st Peter 1:18-19). All you need to do is freely accept it by faith. Simply trust the GOOD NEWS and t he great transaction will have taken place!!! Simply believe the Good News that Christ died, was buried and raised up from the dead FOR YOU dear friend. That is why the Apostle Paul said in Galatians 3:2,

"This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

” I love that! When you hear the Gospel preached, you simply BELIEVE it, and you are saved. It is that simple to be saved.

We are saved by HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS, which is why we read in Matthew 6:33, “But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.” Philippians 3:9, “And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:” You see, when you put your faith in Jesus as your personal Savior, God credits (imputes) His righteousness to you! God imputed our sins to Jesus on the cross! This is [3]The Imputed Righteousness Of God!!!

I want you to please notice something. Look at Philippians 3:9, “And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:” Please don’t miss it! The Bible says, “not having my own righteousness, WHICH IS OF THE LAW.” Dear reader, if you must repent and turn away from your sinful ways to receive God’s free gift of eternal life, then it cannot truly be a gift! How can it be free if you must give up your sinful bad habits to get it? Obviously it cannot.

I once saw a local bank that was offering a free toaster as a gift, but only if you open a new account to get it. Is that really a gift? No, it is not. It is a reward for opening a new account. The term “gift” is often misused by business and sadly, by preachers too. By every dictionary and Greek lexicon meaning you’ll find, the word gift means something given without compensation. A gift is something that you receive, not achieve or qualify for. A gift is a take proposition, not a give proposition. You simply receive a gift. Romans 6:23, “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. ” We know that nothing in life is free. That is true concerning salvation as well.

Jesus paid for it! Therefore, nothing is asked or allowed of us to receive it!

When pastors, evangelists, missionaries, chaplains and Bible college professors require people to repent and turn away from sin

to be saved, they are perverting the grace of God. Anytime you attack the grace of God, you are attacking the God of grace! I fully agree with the following preaching by Dr. Curtis Hutson:

> “But we’ve so muddied the Gospel, that when men want to make a decision to trust Christ, we’ve made it so complicated that they can’t make a simple decision to ’Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.’ We’ll say, ’If you don’t do this’ or ’You don’t do that’ or ’You haven’t done that,’ you’re not saved’; but the truth of the matter is that when asked in the Bible, ’Sirs, what must I do to be saved?,’ one clear simple answer was given to him — ’Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.”’ — Pastor Curtis Hutson, “[4]Things That Are Different Are Not The Same” (preached at Southwide Baptist Fellowship on October 3, 1994)

Amen and amen! It is of the utmost importance that we always keep justification entirely separate from sanctification, lest y ou not be able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people:

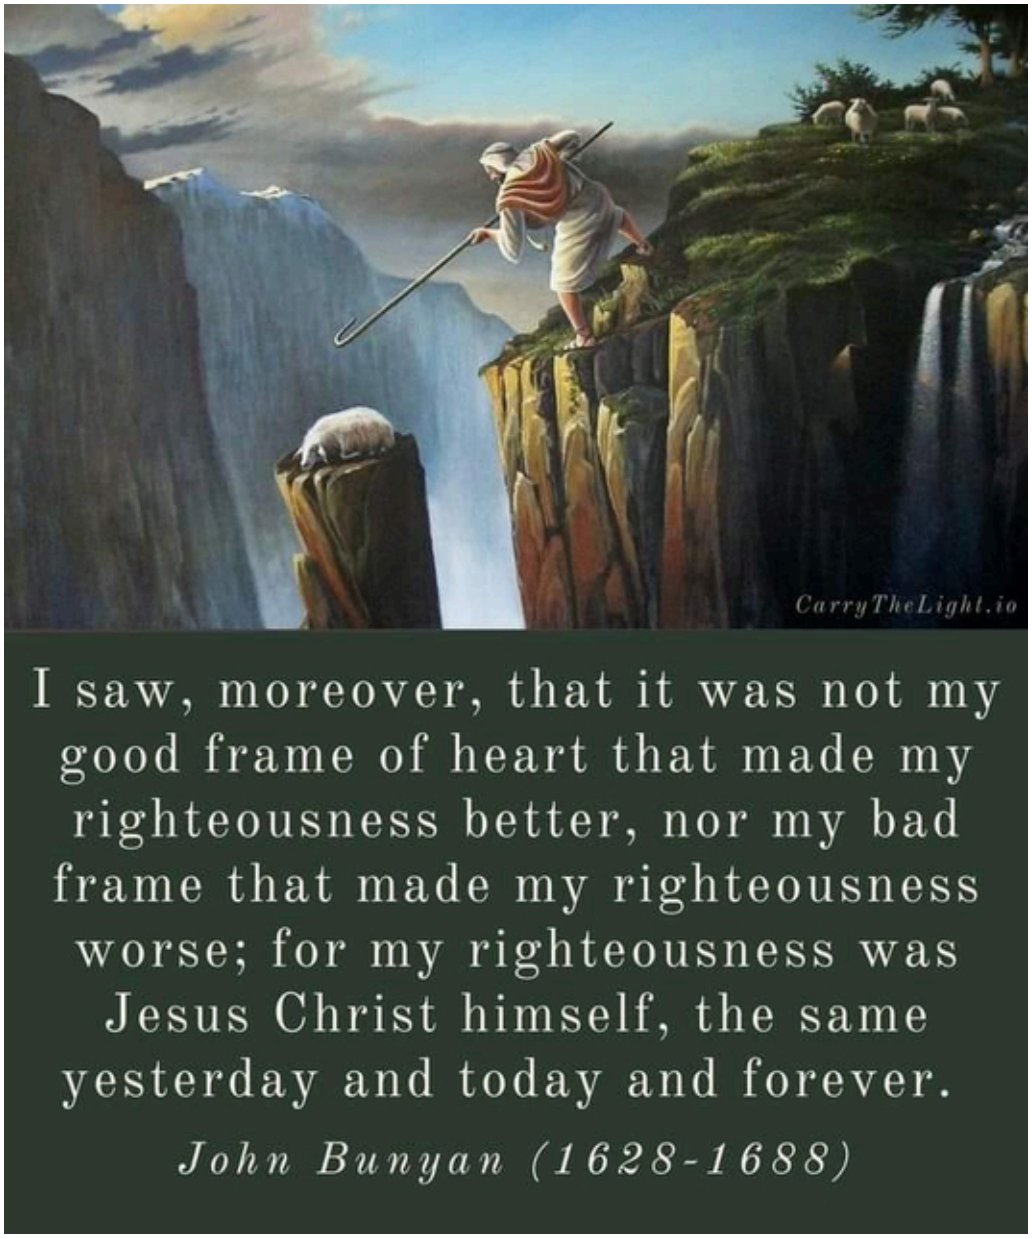
> "Certainly discipleship is a most important aspect of our relation to Christ, but it belongs to the sphere of Christian life rather than entrance upon that life... One does not become a disciple in order to become a Christian, but because he has become a Christian by faith in the Savior, it is fitting that he embark upon a life of discipleship." —Everett F. Harrison, "Must Christ be Lord to Be Savior?-No"; Eternity, September 1959 (p. 14)

Famous soulwinning Chicago pastor, D.L. Moody, rightly said:



> "When men are trying to patch up this old Adam-nature, trying to make themselves better, they are growing worse all the time. When men are trying to save themselves and work out their own salvation without God, they are all the time making themselves worse." —Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899)

Here again is a helpful quote from Dr. Curtis Hutson:

> "Faith and repentance are the same; they are not two separate decisions. One cannot trust Christ as Savior without repenting or changing his mind. The very fact that he trusts Christ for salvation shows that he has changed his mind regarding sin, salvation, and God." —Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995)

That is exactly what Dr. John R. Rice said earlier in the quote I shared with you. There are many false prophets today; such as, [5]Ray Comfort (Living Waters ministry) and [6]Steve Pettit (incompetent executive president of Bob Jones University), who teach TWO STEPS to be saved. These ungodly men falsely teach that you must FIRST turn away from your sins, and then SECOND believe in Jesus. That is another gospel which cannot produce the new birth (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4; Galatians 1:6-9).

What saith the Scripture? Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." When the Roman jailor asked Paul and Silas how to be saved, they simply told him to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST!!! Paul and Silas didn't tell the man

“I saw, moreover, that it was not my good frame of heart that made my righteousness better, nor my bad frame that made my righteousness worse; for my righteousness was Jesus Christ himself, the same yesterday and today and forever.” —Evangelist John Bunyan (1628-1688)

6.7.39 Ten Reasons Why "Turn From Sin" To Be Saved Is A Lie (2025-07-31 09:37)

Acts 16:27-33, “And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled. But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. “Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.”

Here are some reasons why “repent of your sin” to be saved is a lie of the Devil:

1. Jesus came to pay for our sins with His blood through Calvary’s cross, not demand that we first reform (turn from our sins) as a prerequisite to be saved.
2. No one has ever turned away from their sins, because even the best Christian still sins (Romans 7:14-25). The unbiblical idea that lesser sinners are somehow more righteous in God’s sight than greater sinners is utter heresy.
3. If to “repent” means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?
4. The only thing that makes the most holy saint any more righteous than the vilest criminal upon the earth, is the precious blood of Jesus Christ that cleanses our sins away by faith alone.
5. The phrase "repent of sin" or "turn from sins" is nowhere found in the inspired King James Bible. That phrase can be found in many of the Devil’s corrupt Bible versions [e.g., Mark 1:15 and Hebrews 6:1 in the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV)].
6. The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.
7. Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.
8. Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!
9. The [1]Greek noun for the English word "repent" is metanoia, which means: "A change of mind." The Greek form of repent is metanoeo, which means: "to think differently." This word does not tell us what to change our mind about, which the Lord did on purpose. God intentionally chose to use an open-ended, all-inclusive word, so that a person must change their mind about whatever is hindering them from BELIEVING the Gospel to be saved.
10. We are saved by believing, not by repenting. This is clearly evidenced by the fact that God’s Gospel tract, which is the Gospel of John (John 20:31, never once mentions the word "repent." But we do find the word "believe" mentioned 88 times! That is simply because repentance is included in believing.

6.8.1 Why Grace Can Save The Worst Man (2025-08-01 08:27)

by Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold

I want to continue just a few thoughts from what I had this morning, even though I didn't know I didn't get a chance to do all of it this morning. But I want to help you to see something, and then I got a couple of questions I want to ask you.

I said this here microphone was the cross—before the cross, the law; after the cross, grace. Now you can't mix law and grace together. Under the law, you have two phrases that many people use today, saying this is what you must do. They don't seem to understand that when you say that, and do that, you're putting people under the law. When you tell a man that he has to turn from his sins, well that's what the law taught.

When you tell a person that you have to commit your life to Christ—remember under the law in Mark chapter 12 it talks about a scribe that came up to Jesus and says: "What is the great commandment of the law?" He said: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart with all thy mind..." Well that's total Lordship Salvation! That's where God has to be total in control of every area of your life. Love him in every area of your life. That's law. So we know that the law cannot save a man, because a man can't turn from all of his sins, and that a man cannot make Christ the Lord and Master of all of his life. Though you want to try and experiment, and spend your whole life trying, it will not work.

So a man cannot save himself by his works, by the law. So when we trust Christ as our Savior, we are saved by grace. So this is based upon what we do; this is based upon what he did. Now should we trust in what we do to be saved, or should we trust in what He did to be saved? Which would be the best? Trust in what He did to be saved. This is Grace. He did it. On the law, we did it. So is a man saved by what he does? No. So his turning from sin, or making Christ the Lord and master of his life, in order to be saved, is not gonna work.

So what happens if a man trusts Christ as Savior and now he's saved, he has eternal life, and by grace, Christ paid for all of his sins, all of them? Now, how is he to live? The Bible says: "The just shall live by faith." So, as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in Him. So if you receive Christ by faith in what He said, then you serve the Lord by faith in what he said.

Now if you take a person and say, "This is what you must do or you will lose your salvation," and "What you must do is you must turn from your sins and you must make Christ the Lord the Master of your life," what have you done? You have placed them back under what?—under the law. So when you tell them, "You have to keep now the law in order to be saved, to stay saved, and if you don't God will take away your salvation that He gave to you by grace." Does that make sense? This was supposed to be free, without my works, without any of my performance in any way, shape or form; because if it's not eternal it's not worth anything.

When it came to works, the law. Remember [in the Old Testament system]—they sinned, sacrifice; sin, sacrifice; sin, sacrifice; sin, sacrifice; it was never over, you had to stay current. Under grace, we're saved because of what Christ did for us. One sacrifice for all sin, for all time, for every individual, and those who believe that, have His payment put to their account, so I have a sin—a payment—for all of my sins that I will ever commit. So I am saved by grace.

If now I must perform to keep my salvation, then it wasn't free. So now you say you must turn from sin and you must make Christ the Lord and Master, now you pull that person back here under law. This is what you must do. Now should I as a Christian should I depart from the works of iniquity? Yes! Should I allow the Lord to be the Lord and the master of my life? Yes, but I don't have to. Under the law, you have to!

So this is why you have preachers today telling you that, "Yes you're saved by grace, but you have to you must have a change life, and if the change life doesn't materialize in your Christian life, then it's a sign you either really weren't saved by grace at all—because if you were really saved you're not gonna want to go out here and do those bad things—so naturally there's gonna be a change in your life, and if there's no change there's no salvation." So now instead of looking at what Christ did, now you have to focus about what you are going to do, and there's no difference in teaching that, as it is to teach works for salvation. It's the same message.

We're to rest, the rest of my natural life I rest my whole case upon one thing—the work He did! When He went to that cross and He paid for my sins; therefore, I despise legalism, where people are trying to take the Christian and slide them back underneath the law, and as though the keeping of the law is gonna now prove that I'm saved; and if it doesn't and if I don't do it, that I can lose my salvation, because that's what it's teaching. And many people in their mind, if you never see that and never separate that, you can get mighty confused.

So we were under the law with a curse; now we're under grace. But if you try to put yourself back under the law, saying: "Now I must do all of these things or I'll lose my salvation," then you place yourself back under a curse, and you're not gonna be blessed. Remember the reason Christ came and the reason he died, is because God promised to Abraham before the law, He would justify the heathen through faith, and faith alone.

So that the law cannot annul that promise, because this law covenant was based upon us performing, and we failed, we broke, it we didn't keep it. This New Covenant that God made is based upon what He did and He says: "I will save you." Remember under the law, the law could not save the best of man. The best man, the best woman, whatever, the law can't save them; can't save even the best. Under grace it can save the worst! The law cannot save the best. Grace can save the worst. So therefore my life, and how I live, cannot touch my salvation. I am saved because of what Christ did on the cross for me. He gives me this free gift of eternal life because of grace, and this grace says that God will never cast me out. That means what I do or don't do cannot take it away from me. He will never lose me, for no reason.

If He won’t cast me out, and He’ll never lose me, then evidently my lifestyle; however, I live—good or bad or indifferent—cannot affect my salvation. If he that eats this bread; one bite of this bread and He [Jesus] is the Living Bread—He says: "You will never hunger. He didn’t say, "Well you’re gonna lose your salvation and have to eat again, and you get hungry because you lost your salvation. Once for all, when He talks about the water to the woman at the well (you drink the water that’s in this well, you will thirst again; but the water that I given to you, will spring up inside of you into everlasting life). In other words, and you’ll never thirst again. So that’s eternal security. This is what He promised. This is why this has nothing to do with the likes of the law. The law couldn’t do this, but grace can. So it can save the worst of sinners, and the law cannot save the best of men. So I would rather have grace any day.

Now just because I believe this, does that mean that I’m gonna go out and live a wicked life, because I believe in eternal security? That’s what a lot of people try to get me to believe. [They say]: "That doctrine that your teaching is just given people a license to sin!" I am NOT given anybody license to do anything! This was not my plan, it was not my design, this is the Gospel. Eternal security, and if you’re not eternally secure you are not secure! It means that you have it to where you cannot lose it! Otherwise, nobody would ever know for sure where they’re going when they die. And you won’t even know it when you die, if you’ll finally make it, because then you’ll have to wait until some Judge.

But I can save you a lot of time. I’m not the Judge, but I can tell you what He said. If you die without Christ, you’re lost. And if you die in Christ, you’re saved. And your works will not determine your destination. Your destination is determined—did you or did you not accept Jesus Christ as your Savior? So I wrote down a few questions. I did this when I was on that little boat we was on you over week. So I’m drinking some coffee and I’m sitting and I’m thinking, "I’m gonna write this question down." So I wrote it down: "Why does ’turn from sin’ produce more people living in sin?"

And it was mainly because of a person in India, who emailed me a letter ,of people that he knew that believed in Lordship Salvation, and he was one of them, that thought because he could not measure up, he could not keep this high standard of life, that he lost his salvation and people convinced him that he’d lost his salvation, and he was teaching in a Bible School, a Bible Institute, over in India, North India. So they sent him home to figure out what he was doing, because they couldn’t let him teach because he was all messed up. So he thought he’s gonna go to Hell, and because he’s going to Hell anyway, why not go ahead and do what I want to do and live however I want to live?

Because see, when you have to make Christ the Lord and the Master of your life, and if you’re honest with yourself, you know he isn’t. It doesn’t matter, you want Him to be, you desire it to be; but it’s just not reality, because no man can live up to this high standard, because you’re going to fail. You’re not always going to maintain that spirituality, that level; so therefore, it produces the frustration, the hopelessness, the despair. And when you tell a man that he has to turn from his sins to be saved and he knows the truth of it—he hasn’t turned from all of his sins. Well if I’m going to hell anyway, I might as well live like it!

But let me ask you a question: "Is Lordship Salvation, making Christ the ’Lord’ of your life—that means you’re gonna serve the Lord (e.g., "I promise to serve the Lord," "I commit my life to the Lord"). Well if that is true, would you say that making Christ the Lord of your life, or just believing by faith—which one is real easy-believism?

Now careful, I've often had people accused me—"Yankee you just have that easy-believism." Because I'm not requiring anybody to do anything! I say, "You don't have to keep the law, you don't have to go to church, you don't have to change your life, you don't have to stop anything, you're not the prominent... you can just trust Christ and then live like you please!" That's what you teach, that's that easy-believism!

Alright, and let's say that I said that and it's true. Alright, when it comes to Lordship Salvation, making Christ the Lord and the Master of your life, and committing your life to Christ. They're making it hard! And you've gotta promise to stop these bad things. Promise you're gonna do these good things. I'm really putting it out there, and man that's gonna be hard for you to be a Christian! Being the Christian is so hard because you've got to walk that straight narrow way! You've got to live it! Now that's supposedly the truth. Mine is the easy believism, but it's not mine. I didn't make this thing up. But in reality which would you think is really the easy-believism?

Turn in your Bible to the book of Matthew chapter 7. Matthew in Chapter 7. There's a simple little verse here. And in verse 13 he says, "Enter ye in at the strait gate, for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction." So the straight gate, the narrow gate, is the one that leads to life; and then he says "many" there be which go in thereat, the broad gate, "many" that go into the broad gate. Verse 14, because strait is the gate, narrow, and narrow is the way which leadeth unto life, "few" there be that find it. Now out of these two messages, one is narrow and the other one is broad; more people go through the broad, fewer people go through the narrow. Well which one would be the easiest? The broad or the narrow?

Now if you're talking to people, and think of how many churches there are, and how many preachers are, are and the message they have' and a lot of preachers are teaching works for salvation—you got to turn from sin, make Christ the Lord of your life, change your life, commit—all these things in order to be saved—why is it that more people believe that kind of a message, then the message that says: "It's free, you have to do anything, it's just by grace?" If the salvation by grace message is so "easy," why don't more people believe it? Which one must appeal to the flesh, if you have a part, if you have to do something? That appeals to the flesh. I get to do something! That would be easier for people to accept, because in your mind you think bad people ought to go to Hell (and you know it), and the good people ought to go to Heaven. So that's the way it ought to be! That's easy to believe, evidently, because more people believe that. But the truth is, it's free. It's harder for people to believe it's free, than you have to do something, wouldn't you think? So who is the one who's really guilty of easy-believism? Us or them?

I don't mind people accusing me of being a person who teaches easy-believism, because I believe that it's easy when you really understand it, and you really get it. When you really see the Gospel, understand that it's a gift, and the reason why you have to be perfect to go to Heaven and you're works could never do it, when then they really see it, it's easy for people to trust the Lord. This is why we try to emphasize so much the clarity of the Gospel, because the clarity of the Gospel is what makes it easy for people to believe; but if you add works to the Gospel it's hard for them to believe. But that's what most people would believe, you've got to do something.

So I guess you would come down to—which is really the easiest: Grace or works? I don't know if I figured it all out, but I do believe that we're responsible to God to teach the truth—and the Bible says it is the gift of God not of works. Isn't that what it says? So regardless of where people come from, and what they want to hear, and what's more pleasing to them—and isn't it amazing how many churches can be packed to the gills and the preacher is preaching a false message, or a "by works" message, by which you have to do something—and the churches that are clear on the Gospel sometimes struggle to keep the doors open. Have you noticed it? Because, which is the easiest?

You see, if we really believe this then, we know that we have a responsibility to win more people to Christ. But if we believe you have to do the other, then there's a thousand churches out there already preaching that! You're already preaching that; but few are telling the true Gospel of how to really know you have eternal life, and go to Heaven. There's the more pressure. If I was the Devil, I'd let them alone; but buddy, I would work on churches like this one. I would do whatever it takes to stop the Gospel coming out of this church! Because we're reaching a lot of people, even though we're a few in number, we reach a lot of people. But remember it's a battle, it's a warfare, it's not easy.

Another question. I wrote down: "Since we are saved by faith, is it faith in what we do, or what Christ did?" If we're saved by faith, is it faith in what we do under the law, or is it faith in what Christ did under grace? Which way is it? This is the message you were supposed to preach. Therefore, we don't try to take people and put them under the law and say, "You must perform." That's law! That's works! It won't work! You're saved by grace alone. Is it faith in my works that I must yet perform, or trust in the work that Christ has already performed? We said, "You're saved by faith." Okay, faith in what? Faith in the work that I must yet perform, or faith in the work Christ has already performed? If I'm saved by my faith in what Christ has performed, it's a done deal; if it depends upon the works that I must perform, it ain't over yet.

That's why [according to Lordship Salvation] you can't know for sure where you're going when you die. This is why we always ask the question: "Do you know where you're going when you die?" And I had a lady tell me the other day, she said: "Oh yes, I'm going to Heaven when I die!" I walked out walked over there to check the mail, and there was a lady at the door. Young lady, the door was locked. And I said, "Are you trying to break into the church?" She turned around and said, "No no no." I said, "What can I do for you?" She says, "I just want to know if you need some people to clean your church." I says, "No, we got all the cleaners we need."

So she came over and she had some literature. And she said, "Can I leave this with you?" I said, "I'll take yours if you'll take mine." So I pulled out my little blue track and I said, "This is my picture on the front." She laughed. I don't know why everybody laughs at my picture, it's not that bad...lol. It's not that bad and so I says, "Can I ask you a question?" She said, "Yeah." I says, "Where you gonna go and die." She says, "I'm going to Heaven." I said, "Are you sure?" She says, "Positive. Positive!" I says, "Is there anything you could do in the future that could keep you from going?" She said, "Well, of course!" She's positive! Can you do anything in the future to keep you from going? Well of course!

Now, what is she depending on to get her to Heaven? Her works! Do you think that's what she believes? She doesn't believe that you're saved by your work, she believes you're saved by grace. But [she thinks], I could do something and lose my salvation. And they don't see it. They just don't see it. And so when I explained it to her, she says, "I ever never heard it like that before." I says, "It's okay, most people haven't." I says, "Once you trust Christ as Savior, He put that payment He made to your account, and you get to go to Heaven on what He did. It's not what you do! I says, "You have never lived good enough, and never will, to deserve to go to Heaven. God says for by grace are you saved through faith, that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God, not of works, lest any man should boast."

This is why me and Hank loved the Gospel, the clarity of the Gospel. I hadn't heard him for about 20 years. I'd come down here and I'd speak, but I didn't get a hear Hank. But I knew where Hank stood, and he had a reputation. Hank was good. He was clear on the Gospel. Hank was a soulwinner. But that's what, when you see it, and you really understand it, you harp on it. If there's anything that we call a "hobbyhorse," this is our hobbyhorse. But what a horse to ride! Because we know that there's so many people that's never understood.

Did you realize that after the service this morning we had one boy trust the Lord, but also we had somebody from Kentucky, that said that they would trust Christ as Savior this morning. And one before that was somebody in Tampa. But they come from a little bit of here and there, you know, no for sure, and there could be a lot of people trust Lord then we have no clue who they are. I had one guy I talked to him the other day and he says, he says, "I like Calvary." I said, "Well great, I'm glad." I says, "Are you talking about Calvary Community Church?" He says, "No, it's over in Clearwater some place, at Calvary." I don't know what Church, I've never been over there, so I don't know what he's talking about. He said, "But there's another Calvary somewhere."

I said, "Do you know where you going when you die." He said, "Yes!" I says, "Is there anything you can do to keep it from going to Heaven?" He says, "Yes!" Does he really know where he's going when he dies? No, he doesn't know where he's going when he dies. 'Cuz he ain't dead yet. He's thinking, "Well if I died today." And they don't understand that they're really not trusting Christ to take them to Heaven. Does it matter? Does this matter? This is Heaven and Hell! If Christ is not your Savior, you're not going to Heaven. And it means that you must trust Him, and Him alone as your only hope of going to Heaven.

If you have not yet lived a perfect life, what makes you believe you will today, or tomorrow, or the next day, you never will. So there's many people who just not clear on the Gospel. You know there's power in this Gospel message, most people just don't know how to present it. And the reason we keep doing the same thing over and over, and over and over, again is because you learn it that way. You'll learn it. Next thing you know you'll be out someplace, and you'll be talking and you'll say it word for word, like you've heard, because it's ingrained in your brain. So it is important.

I love the Gospel because there's not another message like it. And the works does not work. Salvation by grace and grace alone. So you and I that are saved by grace, and we know that, we know that when Christ died he paid for all of our sins. There's no sin to condemn me. I can never be condemned in the future. Because you see, His death became my death, and His death means that I have fulfilled the demands of the law. The wages of sin is death and I died. The law cannot touch a dead man. I am dead to the law, so the law can never condemn me, because I will never have a sin that needs to be paid. Christ paid it all. That's the best news all the world.

6.8.2 I Love Cold Refreshing Mineral Water (2025-08-03 08:29)

Luke 16:19-26, “

There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores,

And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man’s table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham’s bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.”

I Absolutely Love Cold Refreshing Mineral Water!

If you’ve ever drank distilled water from a grocery store, then you know how empty and lacking of flavor it is. Drinking distilled water ironically produces a dry aftertaste sensation, which I don’t enjoy. But mineral water is so delicious and satisfying, because it contains important micronutrients which the body craves and requires to stay healthy.

I almost never drink tap water, simply because it contains many toxins and impurities; such, as fluoride, chlorine and literal rusted metal from the pipes underground. I absolutely love Dasani mineral water, which I buy is large quantities from local gas stations and Walmart. I can buy a large case of 18 bottles for about $5. When I lived on Guam that would have cost $20. I make sure never to run low on mineral water. I drink on average about 6 16.9 ounce bottles each day, kept nice and cold in my refrigerator. THANK YOU God for water, and for a healthy body to enjoy water.

One of the most horrifying thought s which has ever entered into my mind, is the sad realization that billions of human beings are burning in the fires of Hell this moments, unable to drink even one drop of water, suffering in the torments of Hell forever. It saddens me. I know they made their own choices, but they are still people, for which Jesus died on Calvary's cross. Oh how the Devil is a beautiful liar!

Matthew 10:28, " And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell." This is a remarkable passage of Scripture, because it confirms that not only will a damned person's SOUL be cast into Hell, but also some form of BODY. In order for the formerly rich man, who died in his sleep and awoke in the fires and torments of Hell (Greek: Hades), to request a drop of water to quench his thirst, then he logically must have had a BODY. Thirst for literal water is something that only a physical body can need. Most people only think of eternal punishment in terms of the SOUL going to Hell, but Jesus plainly warned that both the SOUL and BODY will be cast into the Lake of Fire forever!

> "I saw, moreover, that it was not my good frame of heart that made my righteousness better, nor my bad frame that made my righteousness worse; for my righteousness was Jesus Christ himself, the same yesterday and today and forever." —Pilgrim's Progress author, John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Dear friend, I promise you that one of the worst things about Hell will be the lack of water! I would get saved, if for no other reason, than just to know that I'll be able to drink of the water of life in Heaven. Revelation 22:1, "

And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

" Boy that sounds refreshing doesn't it? Cool, clear, refreshing water! In fact, I'm taking a break right after typing this sentence to go drink some COOL FRESHING WATER. Here I go...

Okay, I'm back. Dear friend, we take SO MUCH for granted in this life.

I drink nothing now except Dasani mineral water. I buy cases at Walmart. I thank God for water! Every time that I enjoy drinking cold refreshing water, I am reminded of the suffering once rich man in Hell in Luke 16:19-21, who now is so poor that He cannot even have a single drop of water to quench his dying thirst. Dear friend, that unfortunate man is still suffering in the torments of Hell this very minute! Think about that. It has already been thousands of years, but his suffering continues, and will continue for ever and ever!

Listen dear reader, God is not playing games with you! I often refer to my blog readers as "dear" because you are dear to me. I care about people. I truly do care, which is why I work day and night on my website ministry. It is now 10:53 pm. God knows I am trying to do my best, by His strength. I am far from perfect. The Lord has been convicting me for the past week about something that happened at Walmart recently.

A black man from the street came into Walmart begging people for me. He looked desperate and asked me for some money but I immediately said, "No." There are people begging for money everywhere in Pensacola, by the hundreds, black and white alike. My neck was hurting bad that day from stenosis and radiculitis (from an old neck injury). As I left Walmart to go to my car, he waited for me in the parking lot and approached me again. I got scared, backed around my cart, and exclaimed: "What the f #ck!" He just looked at me and left. What creeped me out is that he approached me twice. I felt completely justified by my reaction.

But I then later realized that he had seen my hat which says "Jesus" and "John 3:16."

I was wearing a sweatshirt that day which read on the chest: "Stedfast in the faith." He likely figured that if anyone was going to help him out, it would be a person of Christian faith. I felt so bad. Why didn't I witness to that man? What an opportunity I missed that day. I overreacted in fear and anger, tired of people begging for money all the time everywhere I go. But the Lord has been convicting me, that:

"There

but for the grace of God go I.

" I know I can do better. Hell is real. I don't have to give them a lot of money, but I can witness to them and hand them $5 at least. That is much better than how I poorly responded as a Christian.

Many of these people are addicted to drugs, I know. I really need to find a better place to live, I know. But until that times comes, I choose to love the unloving and share the Gospel with them. I want to love everyone as Jesus would have loved them if He were here. You know, the Bible does in fact call us " AMBASSADORS FOR CHRIST

" to this lost and sinful world. Did you know that dear reader? 2nd Corinthians 5:20, "Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God." Literally, Jesus has appointed us to represent Him in His stead while He is away in Heaven. What a great responsibility and privilege!

Matthew 5:14, " Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid."

In Romans 8:32 we read, "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? " I love that Bible verse! Our dear heavenly Father promises to FREELY GIVE US ALL THINGS in eternity. In our rotten American society, nothing is free today. NOTHING! Just to drive to Pensacola Beach costs me a $1 toll each time, plus taxes and fees. Just to take my own money out of the bank at any ATM costs me between $2.50 to $5.00. Many news websites (e.g., New York Times, Washington Times, et cetera) won't allow you to view their website unless you pay money to subscribe. Forget that! I'll just go read the news elsewhere. Their writers aren't that good!

Many local churches are charging 5 $ for Wednesday night dinner at Bible study, which costs them about 50 cents worth of food. Where is that money going? Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College shamefully charges $10 to learn how to be a better witness for Christ. Everybody has their hands out for money these days. Thankfully, Romans 8:32 promises that God will "FREELY GIVE US ALL THINGS

" in Heaven, to those who love Him (i.e., every redeemed child of God). I don't know how our rewards figure into that. I mean, Jesus told us to lay up for ourselves treasures in Heaven (Matthew 6:19-20). So if God freely give all things to every believer, then why would we labor to earn rewards in Heaven. My thinking is that God will give all things necessary to be content in Heaven to every believer, but there will be special rewards for those who labored diligently for the cause of Jesus Christ and the Gospel.

What a day that will be! There won't be any property taxes in Heaven. Amen. There won't be any federal, state nor local taxes in Heaven. Hallelujah

My friend, God loves and cares about you so much, but there are laws and rules which cannot be violated. A lot of people fail to understand this fact. For example: God loves you, but if you climb up and jump off a tall building, you are going to have a really bad day! You are either going to die, or wish you had. The law of gravity cannot be broken. We live in a world of all sorts of laws! There is the law of physics, and the laws of thermodynamics, and the law of God.

John 10:35-36, " If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken; Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God?"

God doesn't allow unbelievers to go to Hell forever because He hates them or doesn't love them, quite the contrary, God does love them very much. God sent His only begotten Son into the world to die for **"

THE WORLD

" (John 3:16). Christ gave Himself as a ransom **"

FOR ALL

" (1st Timothy 2:6).

1st John 2:2, "

And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

" Jesus Christ died on the cross for all mankind. Anybody who says differently is contradicting the plain teaching of the Scriptures.

The reason why God allows unbelievers (i.e., the wicked) to perish into the fires of Hell forever, is simply because THE SCRIPTURE CANNOT BE BROKEN. There must be justice! Sin is a crime against God, and all sin must be paid for. God would be unjust and unfair if He let some people slide for their offenses, but punished others. That is what wicked men do, succumbing to favoritism, nepotism (favoritism toward family and close friends) and other injustices. Justice is a law of the universe. The statue of Lady Liberty is blindfolded, because justice is supposed to be blind (unbiased). Sadly, justice in human courts is often partial and corrupt, influenced by brides and political power, amounting to "

JUST US

" instead of true justice. But God sees and will reckon ALL injustices in eternity, guaranteed (Hebrews 4:13). You have God's promise of it (Ecclesiastes 5:8; 12:13-14; Romans 12:19-21; 1st Thessalonians 4:6; Romans 14:10-12).

If you are a born-again believer, REJOICE that your name is written in Heaven (Luke 10:20). We have so much to be thankful for. Just something as simple as cold refreshing water nearly everyone takes for granted. Did you know that most people around the world do not have a pure and clean source of drinking water? In Africa they people who drink from the rivers are drinking water with animal and human excrement in it. There is a limited amount of fresh water in the world. I once visited Long Beach, California for a wedding around 1992. I visited the ocean, which I had never seen before. I met a man who was fishing, telling him that I was from Chicago. I'll never forget that he said he wished he could fish in fresh water. I realized something that day—for me, seeing the ocean for the first time, and testing its saltiness, was amazing to me; but for him that was just another normal day, and for him it would have been an amazing thing to visit back where I came from. So we all have incomplete lives on earth.

I've been drinking cold refreshing mineral water all during writing this blog article. I'm on my third bottle! Good stuff!!! The man who went to Hell in Luke 16:19-31 was rich while on earth, yet because he chose to reject the Word of God, dying in his sins without Christ, he became poor in Hell, unable to even get a drop of water. 2nd Corinthians 8:9, " For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich." Dear friend, Jesus was also once rich in Heaven, but He chose to become poor, being beaten and crucified on a cross on earth to pay for our crimes against God. We are all guilty sinners for breaking God's law (Romans 3:19-20). God gave us His law to show us how sinful we are compared to Him, and why we need the Messiah (Galatians 3:24-26). The LAW shows us our need for salvation, and CHRIST provides that need through His sacrifice on Calvary's cross.

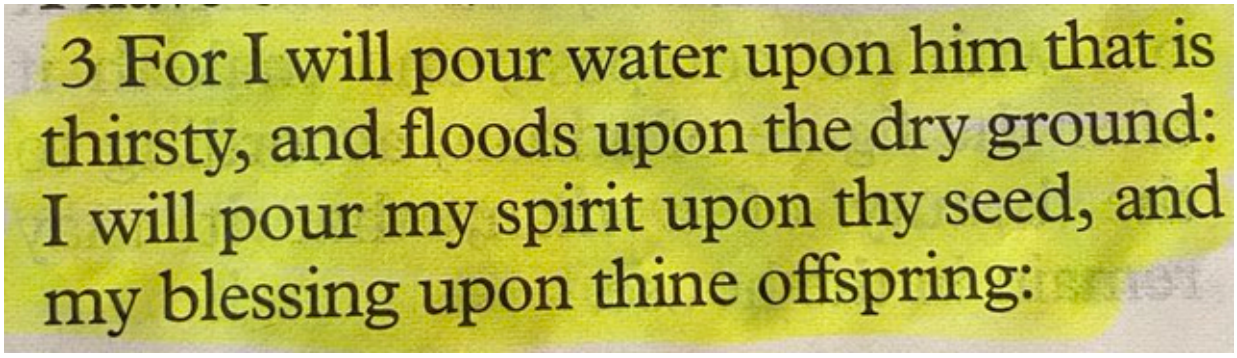
I have been made RICH because Jesus became POOR for me. You can have that too friend, if you haven't already received God's free gift of eternal life. Simply come to God as a guilty sinner, and receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins. Jesus DIED, was BURIED and three days later He bodily RESURRECTED from the dead for the justification of your faith (i.e., so your faith wouldn't be in vain). These three facts comprise THE GOSPEL (1st Corinthians 15:1-4), by which we are saved if we BELIEVE those facts (Romans 1:16). The choice is yours alone to make dear reader. I don't know about you friend, but I want to be drinking icy cold refreshing water in Heaven.

Revelation 22:1, "



And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

I'll close with this true sad story. I lived on the island of Guam for 17 years. Each year a couple dozen people, locals and tourists alike, drown at sea. I remember reading a sad story one day in the news, about a married couple from Kansas City, Missouri if I recall right. They were married for about 25 years I think the story said. They decided to go snorkeling on the east side of Guam, where the waters can get pretty rough at times. The ocean depth drops off quickly as you leave Guam, descending thousands of feet almost immediately. This causes severe sudden currents at times in the water, pulling the victim into the vast ocean.

Well, as fate would have it that day, as the couple were holding hands and swimming she was pulled under and away by a dangerous undercurrent, but her husband broken free. He survived, but rescuers later recovered her lifeless body from the sea. They came together to Guam, but he flew back to Kansas a widower. For that reason I stayed out of the ocean on Guam. I swam in it a few times in the early years, even went scuba-diving 35 feet down at the Piti Bombhole (literally holes in the ocean floor from World War II bombs), and waded in the shallow water here and there in later years, but I didn't go out by the dangerous reef anymore (after I was knocked back by a wave and cut my hand open on the jagged sharp reef stone). The ocean's tremendous water pressure literally carves the reef into jagged razor sharp rocks.

I don't know if that woman who drowned was saved or not. The important question right now friend is, are YOU saved. If you don't know 100 %, beyond any shadow of a doubt that you are going to Heaven when you die, you sure can know! If you have any Bible questions, please email me at the address at the top right of this blog page. I love helping people for Christ! Below you will find a wonderful Gospel tract by Pastor Harry Ironside, which I encourage you to read if you want to know more about getting saved. God bless and kindest regards.

6.8.3 God Is Not “Old School” For Commanding Women Not To Wear Pants (2025-08-03 16:37)

Jeremiah 6:16, “Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.”

1st Timothy 2:9-10, “

In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.”

When I lived on the island of Guam, I attended the shameful Harvest Baptist Church located in the village of Maite for one year, between 2013 and 2014. Their incompetent senior pastor was Marty Herron, a dangerous false prophet who preaches the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation.

One evening at a church event, I was having a conversation with Pastor Herron and a church member outside the church. The three of us talked about various topics. At one point in our conversation, I made mention that the Bible forbids women to wear pants in public. Pastor Herron (being the neo-evangelical compromiser that he is) looked at the other man and felt compelled to blurt out the shameful words (about me): “He’s old school.” That was one of the worst things any pastor has ever said about me.

Dear reader, I am not “ old school,

I am morally and biblically right! Marriage is not just the old fashioned way, it is first and foremost the right way! The biblical command that women ought not wear immodest pants in public is simply the truth. God has not changed since 125 years ago, when in the United States you couldn’t find a women wearing pants in society. In the year 1900 only harlots wore pants in public. It is mankind that has changed, but God has not changed (Malachi 3:6). Hebrews 13:8, “

Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

I am sick and tired of henpecked husbands (especially shameful pastors), who are afraid to go against their feminist minded wives who demand to wear their pants. I recently had an unpleasant conversation with Pastor Brad Moffett in April of 2025, in his office at the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. Brad is a young fella who has no business being the pastor of any church, for numerous reasons. One main reason is that he is an ungodly neo-evangelical compromiser. He is wrong on Bible repentance and God’s simple plan of salvation, which makes Family Baptist Church a cult instead of a genuine New Testament church. I speak this to their utter shame. Woe unto false prophets.

Another reason why Brad Moffett is unqualified to lead a church is because of his low moral standards. He actually challenged me to produce a Bible verse that says women shouldn’t wear pants in public. 1st Timothy 2:9-10, “

In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works." Only a willfully blind person (especially a pastor who spiritually should know better) would dare claim that in 1st Timothy 2:9 allows for women to wear men's clothing (pants) in public.

Pastor Brad dismissed Deuteronomy 22:5 (which forbids women to wear men's clothing) as a mere ceremonial law that is no longer applicable today. What a fool! Dear reader, God's prohibition for women to wear men's clothing, and for men not to wear women's clothing, is a moral law, not ceremonial. Deuteronomy 22:5,

The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination unto the LORD thy God.

" Only an incompetent Baptist pastor would sinfully deny the Scriptural command for women not to wear pants. It is just as wrong for females to wear men's clothing, as it is for cross-dressing males to wear female clothing. It is confusion and an abomination unto the Lord God almighty!!!

I take a lot of criticism and heat from angry females and their henpecked husbands or boyfriends because of my biblical preaching against women wearing immodest pants in public. [1]Pastor Brad Moffett is very wrong about modesty! We've got the wrong people leading the churches nowadays. Instead of doing things God's way, they are doing things their OWN WAY.

The Family Baptist Church in Pensacola is spiritually dead, a cesspool of iniquity. There is no regularly scheduled soulwinning. There is no preaching against sin There is no contending for the Christian faith, nor exposing false prophets by name. Tragically, the opposite is true, the pastor and his verbally abusive fool for a father (Bobby Moffett) promote numerous damnable false teachers; which include: Billy and Franklin Graham, John Calvin, John Piper, Ken Ham, Jeff Redlin and Pensacola Christian College. All of these fake Christian pastors and institutions preach another gospel that requires turning from your sinful bad habits to get to Heaven. No such teaching is found in the inspired King James Bible.

Dear reader, it is a sin for women to wear immodest attire in public. The only place that a woman should ever wear a pair of pants is in the privacy of her own bedroom for only her husband to see her buttocks and thighs. I and my wife Alice went to a Family Baptist Church picnic on Memorial Day in 2025. When we arrived the first thing we noticed was that the pastor's wife was shamefully wearing sexy pants. We didn't condemn her. We didn't say anything to her about it because it's none of our business. We are horrible sinners just as much as everyone else.

That being said, the pastor's wife ignored Alice when she said "

twice. My wife was wearing a full length dress at the picnic, which is all she wears in public. I kindly greeted the pastor's wife and she kindly smiled. But the fact that she was wearing pants created an atmosphere of tension which was obvious.

About 45 minutes later, me and Alice sat down at a picnic table to eat with a group of children. The pastor's wife came up right in front of us and said to one of the young girls,

"I like your shorts!" At a minimum, her comment was inconsiderate and rude toward me and Alice. At worst, she did it deliberately and is in big trouble with the Lord. The pastor's wife fully knows that I am a fundamentalist Baptist preacher, and she and her husband (the pastor) are fully aware of my hard Bible preaching against women wearing pants on my website ministry. It was one month earlier that her husband interrogated me (Alice was present) in his office about my preaching against women wearing pants. Pastor Brad even had several dozen pages of my ministry websites printed in a stack on his desk. There's no way that his wife just innocently complimented a 12 year old girls' immodest shorts in our faces at the church picnic. In so doing, she mocked God's command for women to wear "

modest apparel.

The sad truth is that [2]the evils of feminism (demonism) has corrupted American women, and that includes 99 % of women who attend church. Most churchgoing women (I hesitate to call most of them Christians who trust in Lordship Salvation), don't even realize how infected they become because of feminism in American mainstream culture. Feminism is evil! Feminism is female rebellion against God-ordained masculine authority in the marriage, home and church. Like it or not ladies, God has put men in charge of the marriage, home, church and society. That doesn't diminish the important role of women in their respective areas of influence, it just means that God wants the men to lead, not the women.

It is sinfully wrong for women to wear pants in public on multiple levels. One of the most obvious is that when women wear sexy pants, it makes it much harder for men to think and live right. I was sickened when Pastor Brad Moffett literally defended his wife's pants by claiming that a man who walks in the Holy Spirit won't be tempted to walk in the flesh. So according to Brad it shouldn't matter if women wear sexy attire in public, because a Spirit-filled man won't have a problem with lusting. What a darn fool for a Baptist pastor to say such a calloused, insensitive, ridiculous, blatantly false and wicked thing!

Ask any normal, honest, red-blooded, healthy man who is not a homosexual what he thinks about women wearing pants, and he will tell you the truth that the last thing on his mind will be singing "

Amazing Grace.

" When I saw my pastor's attractive young wife wearing sexy pants at the church picnic in May of 2025, I assure you that my first thought wasn't John 3:16! When women dress immodestly it makes it more difficult for men to think right.

Pastor Brad couldn't be further from the truth in this matter of modesty. Kindly said, his wife should be woefully ashamed of her sexy snug pants; and her ungodly henpecked husband (the pastor) should fall on his face before God and beg for forgiveness, and for God to give him a a new heart in this matter of modesty. Psalms 51:10, "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

" Let's ask King David in the Old Testament about being tempted because a woman wasn't dressed properly, who saw his neighbour's wife Bathsheba bathing naked upon her rooftop, which led to adultery and murder.

One of the greatest evils in the United States today is INDIFFERENCE concerning sin! Due to the evil influence of Hollywood and the [3]Satanic controlled entertainment industry, sin is no longer exceedingly sinful. Contrariwise, sin has become acceptable and we've all been desensitized toward sin as Americans...

> 1st Peter 2:11-12, "Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;
>
> Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

This is why so few people care anymore. Everywhere we turn these days, people just don't care. They don't care about doing their job right. They don't care about their customers. Doctors don't care about their patients. I haven't been able to obtain enough pain medications since 2021 since I loved to Florida from Guam, and my doctor doesn't care. If I knew where else to go, I would. The federal government has scared doctors to prescribe pain drugs anymore. They won't prescribe over 90 MME (morphine milligram equivalents) which is the absolute bare minimum and simply not enough for patients like me. The CDC compares all pain drugs to morphine. I need at least 150 MME daily to cope, but can only get 90 MME. I am suffering terribly 24/7. It's just not enough medicine! So, I just have to take what pain medications I can thankfully get, and say praise the Lord anyhow! What a blessed day that will be when God will take away our physical and emotional pain forever (Philippians 3:21; Revelation 21:4)

. I digress.

Dear reader, the issue of modesty is critically important. I cringe when I read foolish comments on social media by professed Christians who claim that we ought not make a fuss over non-essential issues in the churches. They say that we should only focus on spreading the Gospel, but not worry about the way women dress, drinking booze, abortion, casino gambling, feminism, using tobacco or other things that do not affect salvation. They are woefully wrong! Although it is true that these things do not affect God's free gift of eternal life (to those who trust in His only begotten Son Jesus), that doesn't mean we should ignore or abandon them.

I will go to seed over this matter of women not wearing pants, halter tops, cleavage showing blouses, Spandex, bikinis, miniskirts and other sinful revealing immodest attire. God plainly commands all women to dress in MODEST APPAREL (1st Timothy 2:9). It doesn't take a rocket scientist or a theologian to figure out what it means to be "

modest.

Marty Herron is a disgrace as a pastor for calling me concerning my biblical ministry stand against women wearing pants in public. SHAME on Mr. Herron for pulling on the same rope as the Devil! Woe unto Marty when he answers to God in eternity, for mocking my truthful righteous Bible preaching about modesty. When Pastor Herron called me

"old school"

"old school,"

he also insulted God and called Him

"old school."

You better believe I’m

“old school”

if being old school means upholding high moral standards and decency! There’s nothing more shameful than to see a church full of worldly women all wearing immodest pants and men’s clothing. Call me what you will, I just think that Christian women should conceal, not reveal. If it’s not for sake ladies, then don’t advertise it! By the way, God is on my side in this matter.

There is an entire lifestyle that is synonymous with women wearing full length dresses, culottes and skirts well below the knee. Do you think most women who have abortions, who got pregnant out of wedlock, wear pants or dresses? You already know the obvious answer. Woe unto pastor’s wives and daughters who wear pants! The one woman in any local church who should set the highest moral standard is the pastor’s wife. SHAME!

SHAME on pastor’s wives who wear pants in public. Those wicked women know that it is wrong for ladies to wear pants, which is why me and Alice were interrogated by Pastor Brad Moffett on April 30th, 2025 in his church office. He made a big fuss over my website ministry, targeting my preaching against women wearing pants. The reason was blatantly obvious, because both his wife and mother wear pants.

Lest anyone falsely accuse me of making a big issue that was none of my business, they drew first blood. In the 45 months that I quietly attended Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, I never once made a comment to anyone in the church (nor on social media) about women wearing pants in their church. It wasn’t until after April 30th, 2025, that I started voicing my opinion about their wicked church leaders on social media.

Pastor Brad slandered Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) to us in his office in April 2025, falsely claiming that Brother Hyles ruined hundreds of families by leading them into sexual immorality and divorce with his wrong teachings on sex and marriage. Me and Alice were disguised and shocked that Pastor Brad was saying these horrible wicked things about the greatest man of God we have ever known. Both me and my wife were led to Christ under Dr. Jack Hyles’ ministry. Brad Moffett and his verbally abusive hateful father will answer to God for their wickedness.

Ichabod

(the glory of the Lord is departed) is written over the doors of Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. Shame on all of them!

Cal me what you will, I’ve been called everything under the sun by haters and critics of my Bible preaching. Jesus was totally sinless and yet His enemies still found alleged fault in Him. They called Jesus a deceiver, a bastard, a liar, crazy and said He was demon possessed. If they’ll say those evil untrue things about the sinless Lamb of God, then pray tell me what will they say about guilty sinners like you and me? (John 15:19; 7:7). We don’t stand a chance in the unjust court of public opinion!

It is because of ungodly, neo-evangelical, incompetent pastors like Marty Herron and Brad Moffett why our churches are failing, emptying out and have deteriorated into mere fun centers and social clubs. I honestly don’t blame people today for leaving the dead churches. They’d rather just stay home to have a barbeque or watch their favorite show on television instead. If that’s the only alternative to hearing some corrupt Baptist pastor preach wrong repentance and Lordship Salvation, then I say amen and amen! The most dangerous place to be in 2025 spiritually is in a church! Go figure! The Devil is a beautiful liar folks, don’t ever forget that.

The churches today are full of unsaved hypocrites who are trusting in a counterfeit plan of salvation. They've been lied to by their heathen incompetent pastors!

> "If you want to never do anything that is terribly wicked, then you never do anything that is slightly wicked." —Pastor Jack Hyles, [4]"Unjust In The Least""

It may seen like a small and trifle matter to most of my ministry's blog readers that I make such a big fuss that women ought not wear pants, but it is a very important matter to God I assure you. The most important job is the one that doesn't get done! Every big thing began as a small thing. Every massive building structure began with one brick being laid, one beam, one rivet. Behind every tragedy in human character can be found a slow process of wicked thinking.

God is not "

for commanding women not to wear immodest clothing in public. We need true revival in our churches, not the musical event at Family Baptist Church each year which they mislabel as a revival.

What a joke! It is really a yearly concert. Today's churches are pathetic because today's pastors are pathetic! Where are the door-to-door soulwinning churches today? Where are the free grace Gospel preaching churches; not Lordship Salvation or wrong repentance? Where are the churches with high moral standards; not the average lousy church that follows the sinful world? Where are the inspired King James Bible only churches; not the ones that use Satan's perverted non-inspired bible versions? Great churches hardly exist anymore, because 99 % of pastors today are a disgrace. They cannot preach their way out of a wet paper bag.

The $64,000 question is: Do you care reader?

6.8.4 I Believe The Saints In Heaven Do Have Bodies (2025-08-04 10:01)

2nd Corinthians 5:1, “

For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Philippians 3:21 plainly teaches that at the Rapture every believer in Heaven will receive a new glorified body fashioned like unto the Lord’s resurrected perfect body. Our bodily pain, disabilities, baldness, poor eyesight, bad hearing, my crooked nose from a childhood injury, and all weaknesses will be gone, gone, gone! Amen and amen!

We read in our text passage from 2nd Corinthians 5:1 that when our earthly body can no longer house our soul and spirit, we have a tabernacle in Heaven waiting for us, not built with hands. I honestly do not know what that means, but it seems to suggest that we will indeed have some form of body in Heaven.

When the Apostle John met what he thought was an angel in the Book of Revelation, he bowed to worship him but was rebuked. Revelation 22:9, “Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.”

In this case, we see that John met another fellow saint in a physical body. This leads me to believe that the saints in Heaven do have bodies. And as a side note, we should never worship men nor angels, but only God.

When Jesus went up to the Mount of Transfiguration, He took Peter and James and John. They saw Moses and Elijah appear in physical bodies. So, here again we see that the saints in Heaven do have physical bodies. Jesus told Peter in John 14:1-3 that He was going to prepare a "place" for him, and for all believers. To reside in a "place," let alone a "mansion," you would need a physical body, since a mansion is a tangible thing.

When Jesus ascended into Heaven in Acts 1:11, He had a physical body. The disciples watched His body ascend into the clouds until He was gone. This again suggests that the saints in Heaven do have literal physical bodies. Colossians 3:1 says that Jesus sits on a throne (not an abstract object), at the Father’s right hand. Clearly, the Father and the Son have physical bodies in Heaven, which would certainly indicate that we will as well.

And as another side note, Colossians 3:1 destroys the falsehood of [1]Modalism (which false doctrine blatantly denies the Godhead). Heaven is a literal physical place somewhere in the universe, likely in the north according to Job 26:7. Since God the Father and God the Son have physical bodies in Heaven, and we find several examples in the Word of God of saints having physical bodies, it is reasonable to conclude that believers in Heaven do have some form of a body. I cannot be dogmatic, and my opinion is mere speculation, but we do find numerous biblical examples of departed saints in Heaven who appeared in a physical body.

In His resurrected body, Jesus ate and drank for enjoyment with the disciples (John 21:12-14). He walked through closed doors (John 20:26). He ascended physically into the air in defiance of the laws of gravity (Acts 1:11). We will be able to do the same, since our body will be fashioned like unto the Lord’s resurrected immortal body. Philippians 3:20-21, “For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.” This is why at the Rapture, all of the saints will ascend bodily into the clouds in our immortal changed bodies to meet the dear Lord in the air (1st Corinthians 15:51-58).

We read in 2nd Corinthians 5:8,

“We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.” I think the Bible is plain that there is no such thing as “soul sleep,” a popular false teaching among Jehovah's Witnesses and Seventh-Day Adventists, which says that when we die our soul is unconscious in the grave and will remain in such a state until a future resurrection.

These cults say that the wicked will not be resurrected. The inspired Holy Bible teaches something quite different, that everyone who dies immediately goes to either Heaven or Hell forever (Luke 16:19-31). Someone may choose to deny the existence of God, but no one can escape His judgment and wrath, except through faith in the blood of the Lamb of God (Romans 5:9). Are you [2]prepared to meet God dear reader?

Since we know Scripturally that Jesus and the Father both have physical bodies in Heaven, it would be unreasonable to think that the saints do not. I humbly do not think the heavenly saints have their resurrected bodies yet, which we will all receive at the Rapture, but in ways that I do not claim to understand, I believe they do have some form of physical existence in eternity. Obviously, some things were not meant to be understood at this time. 1st Corinthians 13:12, "For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known."

Concerning our heavenly body, I often am reminded of the 2009 science fiction movie starring Bruce Willis, "

[3]Surrogates.

" In the movie, people vicariously live their life through a robotic surrogate. Sometimes when their surrogate was out for repairs, they'd use a cheap loner for the time being. I don't mean any disrespect to the Lord, but I cannot help but wonder if our temporary body in Heaven will be inferior to our immortal glorified body received at the Rapture. It's just speculation.

It is clear to me that when we die, our physical body (whether burned in ashes, eaten by a hungry shark or bear, or formally buried with all due honors in a casket) does remain here on earth until the time of the Rapture. At the Rapture, our spirit and soul will be reunited with our redeemed body. Romans 8:22-23, "

For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

At the time of the new birth when we got saved, our spirit and soul were redeemed by God. But our body will not be redeemed until the Rapture, which I humbly believe will happen BEFORE the Tribulation period (i.e., a pretribulation Rapture). I believe the Tribulation period, which is Daniel's 70th week of prophecy

according to Daniel 9:24

, will last for 7 years. I believe in a pretribulation Rapture. All other theories just don't fit into Bible prophecy. If the Lord were to return at any later time than before the Tribulation, we would literally be able to calculate the time of His return down the the exact day! That goes against the plain teaching of Scripture that no man, not even the angels, know the timing of Christ's return (Mark 13:32-37).

I am fully aware that some pastors and theologians claim Jesus could not have been speaking about the Rapture in the four gospels, because the Apostle Paul called the Rapture

when he revealed it in 1st Corinthians 15:51-58. However, Jesus gave vivid prophecies in Matthew chapters 24 and 25 about the future Tribulation period, which are also a great mystery. Jesus was almighty God in the flesh and He knew the future.

Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

Oh, what a wonderful day that will be!!!

6.8.5 I Added My Pedal Steel Guitar To “Just Over Yonder” (2025-08-04 14:29)

I found [1]a nice Gospel song on Facebook a few days ago by David Johnson. He’s singing and playing acoustic guitar. I thought it would be fun to add a MIDI bass, kick drum and tambourine (I used MixCraft Pro Studio 10.1 software). And then I added my pedal steel guitar playing to it, which I humbly think came out okay. It’s not perfect but by God’s grace I had fun making it. ...

1. [2]Just Over Yonder (original song)
2. [3]Just Over Yonder (added bass and percussion, no steel guitar)

3. [4]Just Over Yonder (with pedal steel guitar)

Here's another recent recording that I made, playing along with Doyle Lawson And Quicksilver's Gospel song, '[5]Help Is On The Way.' Here is the [6]original song without my pedal steel. I thank God for the privilege to play such a beautiful musical instrument. It is my heart's desire to play musical instruments in Heaven, and continue learning and honing my skills.

I wanted to share some of my music with my blog visitors. I've made numerous recordings over the years, [7]if you'd like to hear some of my work. Here's a [8]Hawaiian album that I recorded in April of 2001 for my mother before she graduated to Heaven in August of 2001. Here's my [9]main ministry music web page. Here is [10]my banjo blog. I try to upload a new backing track every Friday for a song for the 5-string banjo, which I enjoy playing.

I love playing in the Standard (gDGBD) and Double C tunings (gCGCD). You can hear what the Double C tuning sounds like in these popular folk tunes: '[11]Whisky Before Breakfast,' '[12]Gaspe Reel' and '[13]Boys Of Bluehill / Harvest Home,' all of which I enjoy playing on the 5-string banjo. Dave Hum (1966-2012) from Salisbury, England, is my mentor on the banjo. You can enjoy his [14]219 banjo videos on YouTube. Dave's family [15]sells his albums, original backing tracks and tablature for his sings if anyone is interested.

Dave Hum sadly died of myeloma blood cancer at just age 46 in 2012. I never had the privilege of getting to know him personally, but through Dave's majestic music I feel that I've always known him. I just wanted to share something dear to me with my blog followers. The 5-string banjo is a passion for me, just as is the pedal steel and lapsteel guitar.

Here are some of my banjo recordings over the past year. I have also specified which banjo that I recorded for each song below...

1. [16]My Grandfather's Clock (Deering Golden Era)
2. [17]My Grandfather's Clock (Deering Calico; photos of my [18]Calico banjo)
3. [19]My Grandfather's Clock (Deering Golden Wreath)
4. [20]Golden Slippers (Golden Wreath)
5. [21]Mason's Apron
   (Golden Era
)
6. [22]Old Spinning Wheel
   (Golden Era
)
7. [23]Green Gates (Calico)
8. [24]Green Gates (Deering Goodtime Special)
9. [25]Arkansas Traveller (Golden Wreath)
10. [26]Boys Of Bluehill
    (Goodtime Special)

11. [27]Dunphy’s Hornpipe

    (Goodtime Special)

12. [28]Off To California (Golden Wreath)

By God’s grace, I also recoded a [29]ukulele album back in 2015 if you’d like to hear it.

I didn’t intend on becoming a Deering banjo guy, but that is the route I have taken, so I am grateful. I wish that the Gibson banjo company still existed in Nashville, but their factory was destroyed by a historic bad flood in 2010. I am skeptical to pay $5,000 for a used Gibson banjo today that is 20 to 40 years old, having no way of knowing what I am buying. I bought all of my Deering banjos brand new. I bought the Calico and Golden Wreath banjos with 15 % discounts, which was nice.

Deering’s Golden Era is their attempt to recreate the Gibson ESS model. Dave Hum plays a 1992 Gibson ESS. I had bought a Deering Golden Era from Fuller Guitars in Houston, Texas. Unfortunately, no one at the store bothered to play the banjo and it had [30]an annoying buzz on the first string at the second fret, so I had to return it for a refund. I bought the Golden Wreath instead, which is Deering’s attempt to recreate the popular 1930’s prewar Gibson RB-250. The Calico has more resonance and a thinner sound than the Golden Wreath does. Each banjo is unique different and nice.

I also have a Recording King Elite 85 with a maple neck that I purchased new back in 2018 for $1,895 from Ross Nickerson. It has a larger 27 3/8" length neck than the standard 26 1/4" neck. As expected, the Elite 85 has a larger sound, but it lacks resonance. My Calico has resonance, which is very important for a banjo. The Goodtime Special has some resonance and a pleasant feel and tone, but it is a student model. Lord willing, I hope to one day play some other high ends banjos (Yates, Huber, Stelling, Gibson, OMG, et cetera).

I have never played a Gibson banjo, but nearly every serious banjo player has one (mostly hybrids of pieces from various different banjos...lol). The local music stores don’t sell high end banjos, because it is rare that someone is willing to pay $5,000 for a banjo. Gold Tone sells 5-string banjos for a fraction of the cost, but you’re getting Chinese parts assembled in Titusville, Florida. I had a Gold Tone banjo 35 years ago around 1990, but I cannot remember how it sounded or what happened to it. There was no internet back then, and I lived in Chicago where banjos were all but non-existent, so I lost interest. Things are different today.

Strangely enough, of my banjo collection I enjoy playing a student model the most. This is Deering’s Goodtime Special (which has a tone ring and weighs only 9.3 pounds), which I bought for $1,099 from Amazon. I paid $4,436 for the Calico. All of my banjos weigh over 12 pounds, so the much lighter Goodtime Special is helpful for my neck injury. I play it over 95 % of the time. Like Dave Hum does in the photo below, I set the banjo on my knees to take the weight off of my neck. I love hearing and playing Dave Hum’s style on the 5-string banjo!

In the photo below Dave is not playing his Gibson ESS, which I can tell from the neck inlay design. I am pretty sure this is his ODE, which was made in the 1970’s in Arkansas. He later sold this banjo, keeping his Gibson Epiphone (Chinese made) and Gibson ESS (American made). In this video, you can[31] hear Dave comparing his three banjos.

6.8.6 The Most Important Job Is The One That Doesn't Get Done (2025-08-05 14:11)

Ecclesiastes 9:10,

"Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest. "

Indifference refers to a lack of interest or concern about something, while apathy is a more profound state characterized by a lack of feeling, emotion, or motivation. Both terms denote a disengagement, but apathy often implies a deeper emotional suppression compared to mere indifference.

Sadly, most Americans today have become apathetic and indifferent. Everywhere we go these days, we have to deal with frustrations, struggles and irritations caused simply because somebody failed to do their job.

The reason why American society is such a mess today is because our leaders have failed to do their jobs. The most important job is the one that doesn't get done. In 1913, our leaders in Congress failed to do their jobs to protect the American people from the greedy banking cartel. Over a quite Christmas weekend when most members of Congress were absent, the sinister Federal Reserve Act was passed into law, which has destroyed the American economy, and is the root cause of homelessness across the country today due to run away inflation. Ladies and gentlemen, inflation is a tax!

Our shameful pastors have failed to do their jobs. In corrupt churches all across the United States, especially Baptist churches, pastors have failed to warn people about the Devil's corrupt modern Bible revisions. Those horrible pastors refuse to contend for the faith. They refuse to take a stand against women wearing immodest pants in public. They refuse to warn people about the Devil's fraud of Lordship Salvation, which damns men's souls to Hell forever.

The most important job is the one that doesn't get done.

And then there's the spiritually dead church members, who foolishly follows the bad pastor. Those lackadaisical church members merely go along with their carnal pastor, sitting idle in 18 inches of padded pew from Sunday to Sunday, saying and doing nothing to stop their reckless pastor from corrupting the gospel, perverting the inspired Holy Bible, failing to love hurting people and pulling on the same rope as the Devil. The average church today is actually a religious cult.

The most important job is the one that doesn't get done.

We all know the frustration of being brushed off by automated phone systems, which I vehemently hate! Unethical companies today are so greedy that they are looking for every way possible to eliminate human beings from the process. It's getting so bad nowadays that it has become almost impossible to contact a living human being anymore.

The most important job is the one that doesn't get done.

McDonald's is [1]getting rid of its dining rooms. I went into a McDonalds recently and the dining room was about as big as a small shed. There was a long line of customers standing in a single line waiting for service. The workers were overwhelmed. There was also a computer station with a sign encouraging customers to order online instead, which most people (like me) refuse to mess with. The long, brightly-lit, cheerful menu board overhead with photos of McDonald's foods that I remember so vividly from decades past was gone, now replaced by a much smaller unattractive menu with no photos. It was a major turn off! I just walked out the door without placing an order and went to a different restaurant instead.

The most important job is the one that doesn't get done.

Corporate greed, skyrocketing inflation and a stagnated livable wage since 1980, has totally ruined our economy! The minimum federal wage is still $7.25 an hour, which is a sick joke! Even in California, where the minimum wage is now $20 an hour for fast food restaurants, workers cannot afford to even pay their rent. At $20 an hour, your monthly net income is about $2,500. The average rent in San Francisco is $3,800 a month. In Los Angeles the average rent per month is $2,700. With a minimum wage job people simply cannot survive anymore! The ungodly Federal Reserve Ponzi Scheme is the primary culprit.

There have been umpteen times throughout my life when I was frustrated by a situation that was completely beyond my control, all because someone didn't do their job. There is nothing as frustrating as requesting information from somebody who chooses to totally ignore you. I have been in that situation many times, usually when dealing with lazy government employees or abusive lawyers, wishing that I had the power to fire those lazy and mean people. Good luck requesting help from the federal government. The most important job is the one that doesn't get done.

This week I have been watching dozens of tragic YouTube documentary videos about the homelessness epidemic across the United States. Many of them are addicted to a mixture of Fentanyl and Methamphetamine drugs. A recent study of street drugs found that 94 % of all substances tested contained Fentanyl. Just 2 mg of Fentanyl can be deadly to a human, which is the equivalent of two grains of salt. Many of the drugs are laced with animal tranquilizers. The homeless are using these dangerous drugs as a means of coping with their dire circumstances. To the average American who lives in a home and has a warm bed to sleep in at night, with running water and plenty of food to eat, they cannot even begin to understand the plight of the homeless.

Why hasn't President Trump addressed this massive problem across the nation, which has become the white elephant in our living room? His new tariffs imposed on foreign nations is producing $2,000,000,000 every day for the federal government. That's roughly $750 billion a year in profits. Although not bad, it's just a fraction of the $33 trillion of national debt that we owe. Meanwhile, our reckless government generously gave [2] $20 billion in military aid to Israel. Something is very wrong when our federal government cares more about giving money for bombs foreign nations, than it does about helping to house and help our own citizens!!!

My humble prediction is that when President Trump leaves office in 2029—the U.S. epidemic of homelessness and drug abuse will be much worse, the New World Order will be much further empowered and positioned to escalate their plans, and everything will be ripe for the next demonic Democrat U.S. President to plunge our nation into the Satanic diversity, equality and inclusivity gender confusion and all manner of wickedness again.

The most important job is the one that doesn't get done.

For the past century, little by little toxic chemicals and other dangerous additives have been put into our food supply, making Americans sick. If you read the ingredients for Skittles and brownies, you'll find Titanium Dioxide in the list, which is a toxic chemical. The state of California has banned candy Skittles for this very reason. The Food and Drug Administration has failed to do their jobs! I thank God for [3]Robert F. Kennedy Jr. (nephew of U.S. President John F. Kennedy) who has declared war on the food companies who poison our foods.

The most important job is the one that doesn't get done.

I could go on and on about all the ways in which people failed to do their jobs, and the dire consequences that followed. One of the more infamous true stories is the [4]five advance warnings of icebergs that the [5]Titanic received, but their ship's captain Edward John Smith (1850-1912) foolishly ignored them. We know what happened next—the Titanic struck an iceberg which tore a long gash into the hull, causing the gigantean ship to sink 12,500 feet to the bottom of the frigid Atlantic Ocean in 2012. Approximately 1,500 passengers needlessly perished on April 10, 2012, all because one man (the captain) ignored the five warnings of icebergs.

I cannot help but see the striking similarity with today's incompetent neo-evangelicals pastors—who preach another gospel, promote the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions, bid Godspeed to false prophets like [6]Ken Ham and [7]John MacArthur , and fail to heed multiple warnings from concerned truth-tellers like me. I may just be a voice but a voice nevertheless; to God be the glory! Proverbs 12:17, "

He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.

I have faithfully warned the [8]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam that they are preaching a counterfeit plan of salvation, but their wicked pastors have ignored my stern warnings since 2014. Their incompetent neo-evangelical pastors have failed to rightly divide the Word of Truth.

The most important job is the one that doesn't get done.

I have faithfully warned the ungodly pastors of Campus Church at [9]Pensacola Christian College about their counterfeit plan of salvation, but they also have not heeded my sincere warnings.

Their incompetent neo-evangelical pastors have failed to rightly divide the Word of Truth.

A friend helps a friend to see.

The most important job is the one that doesn't get done.

I have also faithfully warned the ungodly leaders of [10]Bob Jones University about their false plan of salvation and their [11]counterfeit Bible revisions, but they have completely ignored my warnings. I know that I am nothing, but the words that I speak are truth. The only English Bible translation that we can trust today is the inspired King James Bible. All other modern English versions today are based upon the corrupt text of Brooke Westcott (1825-1901) and Fenton Hort (1828-1892).

Their incompetent neo-evangelical pastors have failed to rightly divide the Word of Truth.

The most important job is the one that doesn't get done.

Nearly all failures, incompetence and blunders can be traced back to a lack of proper preparation or somebody not doing their job.

The most important job is the one that doesn't get done. I love that truth! We all have a job to do.

Ecclesiastes 9:10,

"Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest. " Attitudes are contagious; is yours worth catching? Very few people have a gratitude attitude.

The foundation of gratitude is the expectation of nothing. This is a life changing truth if you'll adopt it as I have. I expect nothing from my wife, so I greatly appreciate everything that she does for me. I am blessed to have a caring wife. I expect nothing from God, so I am continually rejoicing and basking in His manifold blessings. I wake up each day expecting nothing from life, so my life is a continual feast of blessings.

Many Americans today are spoiled rotten. They have an entitlement attitude that causes them to continually focuses on the things they don't have, instead of thanking God for the things they do have.

I avoid purchasing big things on credit. I have two credit cards for convenience, but I hate them with a passion. Credit cards can be dangerous! I choose to save first and then enjoy later; not enjoy something first and then pay later. There's just something precious about saving up money for a few months, or even a year or two, and then paying cash for the thing you want to acquire. Pastor Jack Hyles preached a beautiful sermon on this topic titled:

[12]Hasty Fruit,

which I encourage you to listen to. This will be some of the best financial advice you'll ever hear dear friend. We are living in a very wicked covetous generation.

I cannot emphasis enough the importance of little things. One's attitude toward little things will impact our attitude toward everything else in life. When I arrive and see a shopping cart left in a store's parking lot, I always take one or two carts into the store with me to be helpful. Since I am going that way anyway, why not grab a cart or two? It may seem like a small thing, but I know that God sees my servant's heart and honors my attention to little things.

The most important job is the one that doesn't get done.

Paying one's due bills in a timely manner may seem trifle to some people, but it is a big matter to God I assure you. God wants His children, who are His ambassadors to this heathen world, to be honest and to care. The old adage is true: Cleanliness is next to godliness. That is because both being clean and being godly require caring. Caring is the hallmark character trait of a Christian who walks closely with the Lord. The heathen world doesn't care. I have had several medical doctors and nurses over the decades who didn't really care about me as a human being or a patient. Their work was merely a formality, a job from 9 to 5 Monday through Friday. That is not God's way; it is the heathen world's way.

The same shameful testimony is true of most church pastors these days. They merely go through the motions of playing church each day, but as the prophet Isaiah truly said, their heart is far from God (Matthew 15:8; Isaiah 29:13). In other words, they are phonies! The average Baptist pastor today is a disgrace! The average Baptist church is a mere fun center and social club, not a place of soulwinning and building families. Those rotten pastors are dropping the ball for God.

The Bible calls them "dumb dogs." Isaiah 56:10, "His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber." That means the pastors refused to speak out to expose sin and false doctrine. They were as useless "dumb dogs" who didn't bark to warn their owner when a thief came into the house. A dog that doesn't bark is not worth keeping! Likewise, a pastor who doesn't warn God's flock about Lordship Salvation, false prophets, wrong repentance and the dangers of sin isn't worth keeping!

The most important job is the one that doesn't get done.

Me and my wife Alice were recently kicked out of the shameful Family Baptist Church in Pensacola by their ungodly carnal pastors. Their haughty church members are imbeciles—the spiritually blind following the blind. Their wicked pastor Brad Moffett promotes [13]infidel Ken Ham, who preaches a counterfeit plan of salvation. They are merely playing church, going through the outward motions but their hearts are far from God, evidenced by their woeful lack of love toward people. People are expendable in this miserable place. God will deal with them. Ichabod (the glory of the Lord is departed) is written over their church doors.

And may I kindly say, it is every Christian lady's job to dress in modest apparel (1st Timothy 2:9). It is tragic that most Baptist women today flaunt their body in God's sight, by wearing pants in public and disregarding modesty. I meet them from time to time, ungodly proudful neo-evangelicals who despise fundamentalist Bible preachers like Pastor Jack Hyles and myself. Modesty is every woman's job!

The most important job is the one that doesn't get done.

6.8.7 Beware Of Infidel False Prophet J.C. Ryle (2025-08-06 08:30)

John 6:28-29, “

Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

Acts 16:29-30, “

Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas,

And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved*, and thy house.

The dear Savior Himself said that the work of God for salvation is simply to BELIEVE ON HIM. When asked by the Roman jailor how to be saved, Paul and Silas simply told him to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. Yet, many preachers when asked how to get to Heaven, have a very different answer.

One such dangerous false teacher is John Charles Ryle (commonly know as: J.C. Ryle):

> “The man in whose heart a true work of the Holy Spirit has begun, will never be content with thinking and resolving. He will break off from sin. He will come out from its fellowship. He will cease to do evil. He will learn to do well. He will turn to God in humble prayer. He will confess his iniquities. He will not attempt to excuse his sins. He will say with David, ’I acknowledge my transgression.’ He will say with the tax-collector, ’God be merciful to me a sinner.’ (Psalms 51:3. Luke 18:13.)
> Let us beware of any repentance, falsely so called, which is not of this character. Action is the very life of “repentance unto salvation.” Feelings, and tears, and remorse, and wishes, and resolutions, are all useless, until they are accompanied by action and a change of life. In fact they are worse than useless. Insensibly they sear the conscience and harden the heart.” —Pastor J.C. Ryle (1816-1900)

BLASPHEMY!!! Dear reader, what you just read is another gospel by J.C. Ryle. It is blatant damnable false doctrine! Not one verse in the Bible mandates a changed life to get into Heaven. What he is effectively teaching is that getting saved must result in keeping the law, so if you don’t keep the law you never really got saved. The woeful theological error that J.C. Ryle has made is that he mixed sanctification with justification. We must not confuse these two things.

The following blatant heresy is mind-blowing dear reader! It is very obvious that John Ryle was an infidel (unsaved), a foolish man who didn’t have a clue how to really be saved. If you [2]read his biography on Wikipedia, you’ll learn that John Charles Ryle was an Anglican minister (the same as Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort, the two infidels behind all of the corrupt modern Devil’s Bibles). Anglicans are part of The Church of England, which requires water baptism to get to Heaven. This is a counterfeit gospel which does not produce the new birth in Jesus Christ. Read this shocking heresy by J.C. Ryle (1816-1900):

> “"Make every effort" teaches that men and women must expect many adversaries and a hard battle, if they would have their soul saved. And this, as a matter of experience, is strictly true. There are no "gains without pains" in spiritual things any more than in earthly things. That roaring lion, the devil, will never let a soul escape from him without a struggle. The heart which is naturally sensual and earthly will never be turned to spiritual things without a daily fight. The world, with all its opposition and temptations, will never be overcome without a conflict. But why should any of this surprise us? What great and good thing was ever accomplished without trouble? Wheat does not grow without plowing and sowing; riches are not obtained without care and attention; success in life is not won without hardships and work; and heaven, above all, is not to be reached without the cross and the battle. The "kingdom of heaven has been forcefully advancing, and forceful men and women lay hold of it" (Matthew 11:12). A man or woman must "Make every effort. ”

I am numb with bewilderment at the utter gross theological incompetence of J.C. Ryle! In the entire preceding article titled: “

How To Be Saved,

” not once does Ryle mention the death, burial or resurrection of Jesus Christ!!! Not once does he mention the word “gift.” Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15-18; 6:23).

One of my favorite preachers (and the author of Pilgrim’s Progress), John Bunyan, correctly teaches:

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Bravo! Boy, I love that quote! Here is another profound helpful quote, this time from Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965):

> “There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can’t be lost because it depends upon God’s faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness.” Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

Thank God for doctrinally sound men like John Bunyan and Martin R. DeHaan, who’ve studied the Scriptures to show themselves approved unto God, rightly dividing the Word of Truth, workmen who need not to be ashamed before God.

Here is another excellent quote from one of my favorite preachers, Pastor Curtis Hutson:

> “But we’ve so muddied the Gospel, that when men want to make a decision to trust Christ, we’ve made it so complicated that they can’t make a simple decision to ’Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.’ We’ll say, ’If you don’t do this’ or ’You don’t do that’ or ’You haven’t done that,’ you’re not saved’; but the truth of the matter is that when asked in the Bible, ’Sirs, what must I do to be saved?,’ one clear simple answer was given to him — ’Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.”’ —Pastor Curtis Hutson, “Things That Are Different Are Not The Same” (preached at Southwide Baptist Fellowship on October 3, 1994)

What saith the Scripture? John 3:14-16, “

And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” I love the simplicity of the Scriptures!

Here is another mind-blowing quote from Pastor J.C. Ryle, preaching a perverse false gospel of works:

> Narrow as this door is, it is "a door always ready to open." No sinners of any kind are forbidden to draw near: whosoever will, may enter in and be saved. There is only one condition of admission: that condition is that you really feel and hate your sins and desire to be saved by Christ in His own way. Are you really aware of your guilt and wickedness? Have you a truly broken and contrite heart? Look at the door of salvation, and come in. He that made it declares, "Whoever comes to me I will never drive away" (John 6:37).
>
> The question to be considered is not whether you are a great sinner or a little sinner—whether you are elect or not—whether you are converted or not. The question is simply this, "Do you feel and hate your sins? Do you feel burdened and heavy-laden? Are you willing to put your life into Christ’s hands?" Then, if that be the case, the door will open to you at once. Come in this very day. Why are you standing out there? Evangelist J.C. Ryle (1816-1900),
>
> “[5]How To Be Saved”

I wonder if this man has ever even read the Holy Bible! J.C. Ryle doesn’t even mention faith in Christ, he merely tells people to hate and turn away from their sins, and to put their life into Christ’s hands. Folks, that is NOT the Gospel. What Ryle is preaching is WORKS!!! You don’t get to Heaven by hating and forsaking your sins, and by putting your life into Christ’s hands. You cannot show me that nonsense in the Bible. Where does he get this garbage theology? He sure didn’t get it from the inspired Word of God.

Dear friend, a good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.

We have the entire Gospel of John, which was written solely to show us the way of salvation. John 20:31,

“But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” The Gospel of John is God’s

Gospel tract! In this blessed book we find the word “BELIEVE” mentioned 88 times, but the word “REPENT” is not mentioned even once! That speaks volumes! It means that repentance is automatic, included with BELIEVING. Evangelist John R. Rice got it 100 % correct, who wrote these eloquent true words:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God “now commandeth all men every where to repent” (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.
> Everyone who genuinely repented under the preaching of John the Baptist put his trust in the Saviour John the Baptist preached, and was regenerated. There is no such thing as being “a disciple of John the Baptist” in any honest sense without being a disciple of Jesus, that is, without trusting Christ for salvation. [emphasis added]

That is VERY different than what Pastor J.C. Ryle taught. Things that are different are not the same. Perhaps you say: “J.C. Ryle was a good man. He helped multitudes of people. He did many wonderful works throughout his earthly life. John Charles Ryle loved Jesus and followed Him as his Lord. Surely this man must have been saved? Surely he must have been a child of God?” Not so fast friend! What saith the Scripture? ...

> Matthew 7:21-23, “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.”

These people in Matthew 7:21-23 were very sincere! Proverbs 16:25, “There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.” They followed Christ. The called Him “Lord.” They prophesied (preached) in His name. Yet, Jesus denied even knowing them, calling them workers of iniquity. So you see friend, it is absolutely possible to serve Christ and follow Him loyally as your Lord, and yet still die in your sins and go to Hell to burn for all eternity.

The Bible tells us why in Matthew 7:21, “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.” The will of the heavenly Father is to BELIEVE ON HIM. John 6:40,

“And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.” Oh dear friend, that is so beautiful.

Jesus didn't come to save those who are willing to turn from their sins, but to save everyone who believes on Him for the remission of their sins! That's the Gospel!

Pastor Curtis Hutson makes these helpful statements:

> "And when it comes to salvation the only thing that counts with God today is the death of Jesus Christ the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world. If you are counting on anything other than Jesus Christ to take you to Heaven, then you are counting on something that God doesn't count. Won't you trust Christ today? If you are not absolutely sure that there was a time in your life when you knew you were a sinner and made a definite decision to trust Jesus Christ completely for salvation, then we urge you to trust Him now." —'Salvation Crystal Clear,' by Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995)

It's true, Jesus was a friend of sinners, and because he was a true friend, He called those friends to repent of their unbelief, so that they would BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. The Bible way of salvation is through faith in Jesus Christ. John 14:6, "

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

" I have no doubt that Pastor J.C. Ryle is burning in Hell this moment, because he trusted in his own human effort to hate and turn away from his sin. Mr. Ryle didn't not preach the Gospel of free grace, because clearly he did not even understand it!

Pastor Ryle keeps foolishly speaking of "making every effort to be saved," but dear reader, Jesus has already paid the price for our ticket to Heaven. The payment has been made with Jesus' precious blood. So in fact, we DON'T have to make every EFFORT to get to Heaven. But contrawise, we simply are told in Hebrews 4:10-11 to REST in Christ our Savior. Hebrews 4:10-11, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief." So, no, you don't need to MAKE EVERY EFFORT! That is false religion! That is of the Devil! That is J.C. Ryle's foolish words, not God's!

The false teaching of "Lordship Salvation" is not the SAME as "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16:30-31).

The True Gospel Of Free Grace

In closing, let me give you the TRUE Gospel.

Here is a wonderful excerpt from Michael P. Bowen's helpful book titled: "I NEVER KNEW YOU: The Horror Of The Great White Throne Judgement And How You Can Avoid It":

> Here is the gospel: God says that we are sinners and that no amount of good works or behavioral changes on our part could ever make us holy enough to enter heaven. God sent His Son to pay for all of our sins. Jesus paid for our crimes by dying on the cross for us all. His dead body was buried in a grave. On the third day, Jesus arose from the dead. The instant you believe this, He knows it and He saves you. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on Me hath everlasting life"(John 6:47). The free gift is based solely upon your trust in what Jesus did for you and has nothing at all to do with what you do for Him. "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast" (Ephesians 2:8-9). Michael P. Bowen, "I Never Knew You," p. xii

There you have it dear friend—God's simple, easy and free plan of salvation!

As you can plainly see for yourself, you don't have to "make every effort" to be saved (as J.C. Ryle errantly preaches). Christ has already made every effort on the cross to pay for our sins. That is why Jesus came down from the riches of Heaven, to became poor on earth, going to the cross to be crucified for our crimes. 2nd Corinthians 8:9, " For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich." Through Christ's sacrifice we can have the victory!

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) once said:

"If you succeed without sacrificing, it is only because someone else sacrificed without succeeding." So true! Jesus was beaten, spit upon, stripped naked in shame, belittled, berated and ultimately crucified as a criminal on a lonely cross, but He was totally innocent. Jesus never did anything wrong! So why did He volunteer to do die for us? Dear friend, Jesus did it because He loves you very much, and He loves me, and He knew that the only way we could ever escape God's wrath in an eternal fiery Hell, was that He needed to pay the price for our sins. THANK YOU JESUS!!!

Revelation 20:15, “And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.”

6.8.8 Can A Person Be Saved With The Bad Attitude They'll Deliberately Continue In Sin? (2025-08-08 09:51)

2nd Corinthians 5:17, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new."

Yes! One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) is titled: "[1]Your Salvation Did Not Change You One Bit." In that sermon Dr. Hyles likens getting saved to the church purchasing a strip joint (which the First Baptist Church of Hammond actually did). When the real estate transaction was complete, that house of ill repute now belonged to the FBCH. The church owned it, but the building wasn't able to be used as it. The new building needed to be converted to make it useful, so that the church could use it for the Lord.

Likewise, when we get saved we become God's property (1st Corinthians 6:20), but God cannot use us the way He wants to until we've been changed to be fit for service (Romans 12:1-2). So there is SALVATION, and then there is SERVICE. One thing has nothing to do with the other. Dr. Hyles is right that salvation does NOT change a person's character, sinful habits or ways). The only thing that getting saved changes is that we now have the indwelling Holy Spirit living inside of us (Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24).

However, having the Holy Spirit of God inside of us DOES change things. When I got saved at age 13, no one told me that I had to turn away from my sinful ways. If they had, I couldn't have been saved that way. I just heard the pastor preach that "If you can sin without any conviction from the indwelling Holy Spirit, you need to get saved." I knew that day I wasn't saved, so I got saved. The Holy Spirit has been convicting me about the sins in my life ever since.

In hindsight, as I think back, all I see is darkness in my life. Before age 13 I remember attending Sunday School with my Mom. I remember attending a few different Christian schools, and public school in between. But there is no awareness of God in my life before I got saved. But ever since I got saved at age 13, I have felt the presence of God's blessed Holy Spirit in my life. The first thing that I remember when I got saved, is that the Holy Spirit started to convict me about sassing my Mom. Before I was saved I used to cuss and talk back to my Mom all the time. When I got saved, I could hear that still, small, quiet voice of God's Spirit in my soul saying, "David, I don't want you to talk to your Mom like that anymore." I started reading my Bible when I got saved. Nobody asked me to, I did it on my own because I was hungry as a newborn baby, desiring the milk of God's Word to grow (1st Peter 2:2).

I used to fall asleep reading my Bible late at night, with my nightlight above me still on. My Mom would turn off my light. I remember one night a few months after I got saved, that she said: "You've changed." I didn't see it, but she did. Looking back, I am so glad that my Mom said those words to me, which confirms in my mind that something had changed in my life. We read in John 3:20-21, "For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God."

Carefully notice in verse 21 that the Bible does say, "But he that turns away from his sins" comes to the light. No, it says, "But he that DOETH TRUTH" comes to the light. Bible repentance is NOT forsaking one's sinful lifestyle, it is acknowledging THE TRUTH that we are a guilty sinner in God's sight. A man must realize why he needs to be saved, and from what he is being saved. All men are sinners and are under the condemnation of God's law, hellbound in the wages of sin (Romans 6:23; Revelation 21:8). 2nd Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;"

Again, carefully notice the words, "repentance to the acknowledging of THE TRUTH." Repentance concerning getting saved means to acknowledge THE TRUTH. I love this quote from Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) about what is repentance...

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him.
> Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ("Except Ye Repent," p. 16)

I love that! "No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." I fully agree. That is what Romans 3:19-20 teaches in the Bible. Verse 20 says that, "For by the law is THE KNOWLDGE OF SIN." God's Old Testament LAW shows humanity our sinnership. Galatians 3:24-26 teaches the same thing, that the LAW is our schoolmaster which brings us to CHRIST in the New Testament, to be saved by faith alone.

The whole Bible can be divided into two parts of: LAW and CHRIST; or, respectively, OLD and NEW Testaments.

When a person gets saved, there IS going to be a change inside of them, and that change is the presence of the HOLY SPIRIT. But this does not guarantee that a saved person will change their behavior. It depends on whether that individual person chooses to WALK IN THE SPIRIT, that they not fulfill the lust of the flesh. Pastor Hyles taught that even though we cannot sin when we choose to walk in the Spirit, we won't always make that right choice, because we are inherently sinful. Even though we have the new nature as a believer, the old nature (the flesh, which is where the Spanish word "carnal" comes from, as in Carna Asada steak... my favorite) is still present.

That is why the Apostle Paul said in Romans 7:24-25 that he struggled with the flesh daily. There is a constant battle in every believer between the flesh that desires to sin, and the indwelling Holy Spirit of God (now united with our human spirit) which desires for us to do righteousness. When we choose to sin, we do so in THE FLESH.

That is why we read in 1st John 3:9, "Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God." When we sin, we do so in the flesh, never in the Holy Spirit. God's Spirit cannot sin! Also, Jesus has already paid for all of our sins with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). So we cannot sin as far as redemption is concerned, because God only sees Christ's imputed righteousness, which is through faith in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9; Romans 10:3-4; Romans 4:5-6).

Albeit, when we sin as God's redeemed children, we can only fall "in grace" but never "from grace." Only unsaved Christ-rejecters, and those unsaved religious people who are trying to get to Heaven by their own works, have fallen from grace (Galatians 5:4). Romans 6:1, "What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?" Notice the words "Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?" I love that Bible verse! When we choose to sin as believers (which we ought not do), God's grace abounds more, so that we can NEVER lose or risk losing eternal life.

Eternal life is the "free gift" of God (Romans 5:15-18, 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9; Titus 3:5). So we see that it is IMPOSSIBLE for a born-again saint to ever lose God's gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life. Having said all that, a man who was formerly a cold-hearted murderer is very unlikely to continue killing people. But keep in mind that King David was saved when he murdered Uriah, to cover-up his adulterous relationship with Uriah's wife, Bath-Sheba. David got her pregnant and couldn't hide what he had done. Uriah was away in battle for one year, and now his wife was pregnant, David panicked. So he had Uriah deliberately murdered in battle.

This is the man whom God called: "a man after mine own heart." All God has to work with are dirty sinners. ALL saints are still sinners. The only different is that God has freely redeemed us by faith in His only begotten Son, Jesus. The ONLY thing that makes you, me or any other believer any more righteous in God's sight, than mass-murderer's Jeffrey Dahmer, Ted Bundy or John Wayne Gacy is the precious blood of Jesus that washed ALL our sins away. We have no righteousness of our own (Isiah 64:5). Our righteousness as saints is GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS. That is why Matthew 6:33 tells us to seek first the Kingdom of God and "HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS."

We need God's imputed righteousness to get into Heaven, because we don't have any goodness to offer God. Cain failed to understand that truth. Abel offered up to God a blood sacrifice from the innocent animal he had just slain, which pictured Abel's faith in the coming Messiah, Jesus. But Cain brought some corn, bell peppers, tomatoes and other vegetables from his field, which God rejected. Cain failed to grasp that salvation is of the Lord. Interestingly, that is the very truth that Jonah was pondering in the belly of the whale (Jonah 2:9). Anyway, yes, a person who is saved CAN commit murder, rob a bank, and do other wicked crimes and still be safe in God's free gift of eternal life.

I know of a college Bible professor who was sentenced to 114 years in prison for his crimes. Another youth director was sentenced to 200 years in prison for his crimes. That is so scary and sad. There but for the grace of God go you and I. That is why my favorite Bible verse for many years has been Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." Put another way, "Watch your back Jack!" The Devil roams about as a roaring lion, seeking his next victim to destroy their life (1st Peter 5:8). Thankfully we can hear his roar and run away first.

From my own experience of watching people, MOST people who get saved show some evidence of salvation. However, it is heresy and wrong to mandate such changes to prove that someone is saved, because some people came out of difficult situations and broken homes, and will never be all that God desires for them to be. And for that matter, even unsaved people usually show some degree of growth after attending self-improvement classes. The truth is that not every person who comes to Christ has some radical life-changing experience as did Saul (who later was renamed Paul, Acts 9:1-5).

There are MANY false prophets today (e.g., Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, John MacArthur, Joyce Meyer, Rick Warren, Ken Ham, Joel Osteen, et cetera) who falsely preach that you must turn away from your sinful bad habits to get to Heaven. The Bible doesn't teach that. We are saved by faith and faith alone, not by living a changed life. My life did change when I got saved, but I grew up in a home with Christian parents. They weren't perfect (far from it), but they cared about me enough to put me into a Christian school. So I was blessed to have positive influences on me during Jr. high and high school.

Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) said something great, [2]which I quote in this helpful article.

I love what Dr. Rice said. Many people assume that professed Christians are not really saved because they are still worldly, and don't seem to care about pleasing God. Dr. Rice correctly says that such rebellious teenagers need to be taught. Many preachers are sick and tired of seeing professed Christians continue in wild sinful living, so they foolishly corrupt God's simple plan of salvation, requiring lost sinners to "turn away from their sinful ways" to get to Heaven. But they have changed and perverted the Gospel (Galatians 1:6-9).

The Apostle Paul plainly defines THE GOSPEL in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 as three things:

1. Jesus DIED on a cross for our sins.
2. Jesus was BURIED.
3. Jesus bodily RESRRECTED three days later.

That is why we read in 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." There we see the Gospel. The Bible doesn't mention anything about surrendering control of our life over to Jesus as "Lord." The Bible doesn't mention anything about turning away from our sins to be saved. We are simply taught to "believe" THE GOSPEL.

Repentance is included in believing, which Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) rightly teaches...

I Hate The Repent Of Your Sin Heresy!

I hear critics accusing free grace Gospel preachers like me of preaching "cheap grace." Oh no, eternal life is not cheap, it is completely free! But like everything else in life, there are no free meals. Somebody had to pay for it. Jesus has already paid for everyone's sins with His blood. That is why we don't have to "ask" Jesus to save us. God is already freely offering His gift and wants us to simply take it, by faith in the Good News (Gospel) of His only begotten Son, Jesus. Jesus doesn't forgive sins, He has already paid for them. It is a gift.

All we need to do is receive it, by taking God at His Word as written in the Holy Bible.

I quoted to you earlier John 3:20, "For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved." The Bible teaches that people who love their sinning won't come to the light of the truth of the Gospel to be saved. In the Bible, "evil" is deliberate sin. Sin is doing wrong, or not doing right. But evil is planned sin. For example: If someone blows up in sudden anger, that is called "a crime of passion." If someone kills another person, in sudden anger, that is legally called "second degree murder." But if it was a planned killing, like an abortion, that is called legally "first degree premeditated murder.

So the Bible in John 3:20 is teaching that lost sinners who love sinning won't come to Christ. Let's say that a mobster goes around killing people, as ordered by the mob boss. The Bible teaches that such a wicked man won't come to Christ to be saved, because he hasn't repented. Here we see the function of repentance in salvation. Repentance is NOT a willingness to stop sinning (reformation), nor sorrow for sin (penitence), nor is it a desire to do better (penance), nor to better one's self. Repentance is a change of mind toward God (Acts 20:21), in which a lost sinner admits that they are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God. It is obvious from John 3:20 that repentance to some degree involves a change of mind toward sin. For salvation to remain of grace, and not works or debt, this change of mind is limited to acknowledging the knowledge that one is a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20).

I wrote a whole [3]webpage to teach what repentance is, which is helpful.

Here is an excellent and needful writing by Dr. Mark G. Cambron (1911-2000) on the subject of REPENTANCE.

Please read the following quote carefully, because Dr. Cambron is one of few theologians who gets it, that is, he understands the simplicity of the Gospel and that repentance does not mean turning from sin as proponents of Lordship Salvation foolishly teach...

> "Repentance is necessary for salvation. The Greek word for repent is metanoeo, which, translated into English is: to change ones mind. It does not mean to turn from sin. That would add works to salvation.
>
> Repentance for salvation means a change of mind from men's ideas of salvation and religion, to an acceptance of Gods only way of salvation.
>
> This results in a completely new creation, not a reformation of the old. The old nature remains as evil as ever after salvation and has not been reformed . . . The old nature can now be controlled by the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit.
>
> God guarantees salvation. This is His gift to us. God guarantees reward and fruit to the obedient son. God guarantees chastening and loss of rewards to the disobedient son.
>
> God does not cast out disobedient children, but in some cases, does take them home. He does not permit His children to live as they please without His discipline and guidance.
>
> Many teach repentance for salvation incorrectly, by including some form of human effort or righteousness, such as willingness to turn from sin, or turning from sin. This is heresy and has confused many people. It adds works to salvation and causes many to not understand Gods great gift. It is probation, not salvation. It is completely unscriptural. It is Galatianism and a counterfeit of the gospel.
>
> It is a tragedy that many Christians live shallow Christian lives. The Cambron Institute is dedicated to the task of training Christian men and women in the importance of total dedication and making Jesus the Lord of their lives not to be saved but because they are saved.

Shallow Christianity cannot be cured by adding works to salvation.

Salvation is not the result of what we do, but is by receiving what God has done for us. Acts 13:38, 39; Acts 20:20: Gal. 1:8,9; Gal. 2:4; Gal. 2:21; Gal. 3:1.3; Gal. 5:1-4; Eph. 2:8-10; II Cor. 5:21;John 3:16-18; Phil. 3:9; Titus 3:5-8:11 Cor. 11:13-1 5."

Dr. John R. Rice is correct that a change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in repentance, but the total extent of that change of mind about sin is simply that someone acknowledge that they are a guilty needy sinner, so that by believing the Gospel they will be saved. Repentance cannot mean anything more than to realize one's sinfulness, otherwise salvation would be by WORKS. Without REPENTANCE, no sinner would ever come to Christ to be saved. We are not saved by repenting, but by BELIEVING. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

Repentance is necessary to be saved, but repentance is included with believing. Repentance and faith are not two different STEPS to be saved, they are two parts of ONE STEP. Dr. John R. Rice is correct that the man who repents has believed, and the man who believed has repented. Repentance and faith are inseparable, like two sides of the same coin. I hear corrupt preachers talking about fake Christians who believe, but have never repented. That is impossible! Those pastors don't understand repentance.

There is no such thing as believing on Christ without repenting, unless you errantly think that repentance means to give up your sinning. That is a false plan of salvation. Bible repentance is just a change of mind unto the Gospel itself. What must we change our mind about? Anything and everything that has been hindering us from "BELIEVING ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST" (Acts 16:30-31).

Anyone who comes to God by faith as a needy guilty sinner, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that Jesus was buried but is risen from the dead, is saved. That is all God requires to obtain eternal life. If someone has the horrible attitude that they are glad they can be saved and keep living in sin, that ought not surprise us, because in fact THAT IS EXACTY WHAT WE ALL DO.

Every person who gets saved continues living in sin.

We tend to categorize sins as humans, esteeming murder and bearing false witness as being REALLY BAD; but then most people dismiss and trivialize sins like divorce, lying, public nudity at the beach, fornication, drunkenness and gossip. These sins in God's eyes are just as bad as murder. So in fact, every born-again believer still sins. I agree with you that it seems wrong that someone can come to Christ by faith, while still having the wicked attitude that they can continue in sin. But this is where repentance comes into the picture at the time of salvation.

A lost sinner wouldn't come to God by faith, unless they had been convicted by the Holy Spirit about their wickedness. The Bible teaches in 2nd Timothy that God works repentance in a sinner's heart. I get criticized often by crazies who hate Pastor Charles Spurgeon and pick apart every word from his sermons to attack him. I am not a fan of Spurgeon because he was a partial Calvinist. Spurgeon taught that Jesus didn't die on the cross for everyone, only for the saints. 1st John 2:2 plainly says that Jesus is the propitiation FOR ALL MEN, and not just for the saints. Calvinism is so blatantly false! Albeit, Spurgeon made some great quotes, like this one...

> “Repentance will not make you see Christ; but to see Christ will give you repentance. You may not make a Christ out of your repentance, but you must look for repentance to Christ. The Holy Ghost, by turning us to Christ, turns us from sin. Look away, then, from the effect to the cause, from your own repenting to the Lord Jesus, who is exalted on high to give repentance.” —Pastor Charles Spurgeon; “All Of Grace,” Chapter 11 - “Alas! I Can Do Nothing”

The very act of turning TO Christ for salvation, involves turning FROM the consequences which sin brings, eternal damnation in Hell. There are some false teachers today (most on YouTube) who would completely remove the reality of sin from God’s simple plan of salvation. NO ONE has ever been saved who didn’t admit that they are a guilty sinner (1st John 1:8-10). I hope some of that information is helpful. I wanted to share a bunch of Bible with you, to lay a foundation to help you understand what repentance is for salvation.

Getting saved necessitates a change of attitude toward sin, but only to the extent that a person understands and now admits that they are guilty for breaking God’s commandments, and consequently realize they are condemned to the second death in the Lake of Fire. Thus seeing their need for the Savior, they BELIEVE and are saved. I heard a cross-dressing man who professed to be a born-again Christian. But Ray Comfort provokes people. So I don’t know if the man was being serious, or just upsetting Ray Comfort. Could that man be saved? Sure he could. The Bible is full of ungodly saints who did horrible things.

In Acts 5, God killed Ananias and Saphira for lying about a property they had sold, reneging on a promise to give money to the church. When Jesus raised up from the dead, He found Peter completely naked in public. Noah went from being the captain of his ship, to a drunken sailor. These are God’s brightest saints. We’re all a mess! I have had numerous people ask me over the years if a person can have the bad attitude that they have no intentions of departing from their sins, and still be saved. It is a loaded question, because where do we draw the line? Does a person have to be willing to give up their sins to be saved? If so, then it cannot be a gift. Cartoon evangelist Jack Chick teaches that heresy in all his Chick Tracts. For salvation to remain a free gift, there can be NO stipulations or obligations before, during or after bring saved. That is what a gift is!

The ONLY change of attitude that a person must have to be saved, is that they are guilty as a sinner and need the dear Savior to escape Hell. But once that sinner gets born-again, God’s indwelling Holy Spirit will immediately start working on them, convicting, scourging and chastening them as God’s adopted child (Hebrews 12:6-8). God is not an absent parent! A believer who lives in gross immorality will be of all men most miserable.

If a man can sin and win, he is not in! That is, if a person can live in sin without any conviction whatsoever from the Holy Spirit, then he is not saved. Romans 8:9, "But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his." There is SALVATION (1st Corinthians 15:1-4), and then there is SERVICE (Romans 12:1-2). One thing has nothing to do with the other.

The truth (whether you like it or not) is that a person CAN have the bad attitude that they intend to keep sinning, and still be saved. Critics of easy-believism immediately think of murder, and they have a hard time wrapping their brain around such a thing. But dear friend, if you were required to stop doing even one sin, salvation would be by WORKS! John 3:20 teaches that those who love evil will NOT come to Christ to be saved. So we see that the problem takes care of itself. Nobody comes to Christ until they have judged themselves as a guilty sinner in the sight of almighty God, and that is repentance.

In 1st Corinthians 5:1-5 we read about a wicked man who was living in open fornication with a woman in the church at Corinth. The Apostle Paul was in a different city and heard about the matter, which upset him. So Paul writes to the church at Corinth to rebuke them strongly. He says to confront the man living in open immorality and ask him to stop it, or ask him to leave the church. In 1st Corinthians 5:5 Paul makes clear that if the man had refused to repent, he still would be safe in God's free gift of eternal life. This teaches us that, yes, a man CAN have the wrong sinful attitude that he intends to continue living in sin, and still be saved. That is why the Holy Bible repeatedly calls God's blessing of eternal life a "free gift" (Romans 5:15-18).

6.8.9 The Lord's Worst Enemies Are Neo-Evangelical Pastors (2025-08-08 10:51)

Jeremiah 5:30-31, "

A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land; The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?"

The Hebrew word for "wonderful" in Jeremiah 5:31 is shammah which means "consternation," that is: "fear resulting from awareness of danger." Other words in the Old Testament that are translated from this same Hebrew word are: astonishment, desolation and waste. The prophet was fearful over what he saw, pastors preaching false doctrine and the people loved it.

I was immediately reminded of several ungodly churches that I have attended, whose wicked incompetent pastors preach another gospel. These wicked churches include: Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam, Agana Heights Baptist Church on Guam, Bayview Baptist Church on Guam (they have since thankfully dropped the word "Baptist" from their name), Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola, New Warrington Baptist Church in Pensacola, First Baptist Church in Pensacola, Fairfield Drive Baptist Church in Pensacola and others. These are all damnable cesspool of iniquity and shame, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men (Mark 7:7-9).

It is no small matter for a pastor to preach another gospel, and for those church congregations to rally behind their fool-headed pastor and his damnable heresy. I-chabod (the glory of the Lord is departed) is written over the doors of these spiritually dead churches. Woe be unto all of them! 2nd John 1:10-11, "If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

All of the wicked churches that I just mentioned, have incompetent pastors who teach that to get to Heaven you must repent of your sins. They say you must be willing to turn from your sinful bad habits to be saved. But don't take my word for it. Here are the damnable words from Campus Church at PCC...

On page 62 of their [1]"John & Romans" booklet , Campus Church tells the reader that to be saved, you must make a mental check requiring the reader to agree to:

>

Oh My! Folks, this is NOT part of the free grace Gospel which the Apostle Paul preached in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4...

> 1st Corinthians15:1-6, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

There you have it! The "Gospel" is the "GOOD NEWS" that Jesus Christ DIED on a cross for our sins, He was BURIED and after three days He physically RESURRECTED from the dead.

In Paul's Gospel (which Paul said he received directly from Jesus in Galatians 1:12), did you see anything that says to be willing to forsake your sinning? No. Did you see anything about surrendering your life to Christ? No. Did you see anything about water baptism, doing good works, forsaking the world or repenting of your sins? No, you did not, because those things are not taught in the inspired King James Bible concerning the new birth.

In their demonic booklet of "John & Romans" issued by Campus Church at PCC, it also reads that to be saved you must: " [3]follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins ." No, that is not what Paul taught. That is not a free grace Gospel! So, why is PCC and their Campus Church promoting this ungodly filth? Every church I am aware of that is affiliated with PCC teaches this same Satanic damnable heresy!!!

Pastor Josh Thompson, senior pastor of the corrupt Fairfield Drive Baptist Church in Pensacola, shamefully teaches a class at PCC. Josh has blood on his hands. I met Josh at the Pensacola Interstate Fair in 2022. He was working at PCC's wacky religious booth in the Exhibition Hall, adjacent to the Jehovah's Witnesses. False prophets flock together! I asked Josh is he was teaching Lordship Salvation and he confirmed that he was. Pastor Thompson quoted Acts 16:31b, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ."

Josh emphasized the word "Lord" and heretically said that this verse proves you must receive Jesus as the "Lord" of your life to get to Heaven.

As a gentleman, I tried to reason with Pastor Thompson but he was belligerent and closed-minded, a fool

" subverted of himself

the Bible says in Titus 3:10-11. I properly rebuked Josh sharply for his folly, and said I was going to pray for God to open his blinded eyes. I then politely walked away frustrated with his woeful ignorance of the inspired Holy Bible. Folks, these are the shameful type of damnable false prophets who teach in the classrooms at PCC. Please DON'T entrust your precious impressionable children to PCC; I beg you not to!

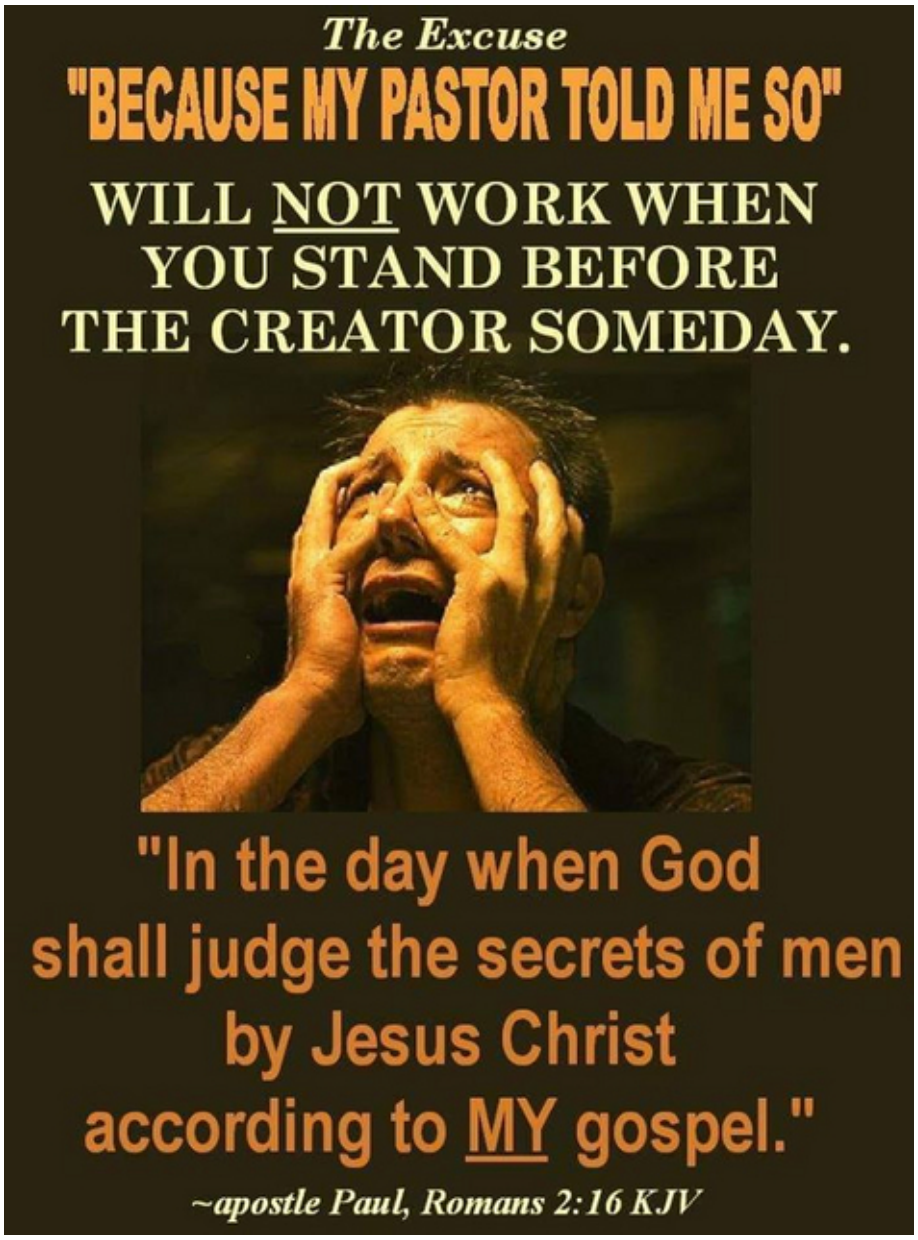
You will be feeding your children to ravening hungry spiritual wolves if you send them to Pensacola Christian College (PCC). Please don't bid those evildoers Godspeed (2nd John 1:10-11). There is a woeful lack of love, compassion and genuine concern for the students and church members at PCC, which I learned firsthand in 2021 when I attended their Campus Church for several months, and was horribly mistreated by their cold, uncaring, haughty and incompetent senior pastor, Jeff Redlin. I wrote a kind heartfelt letter to PCC as well (in the summer of 2022), asking for their help to reconcile with their pathetic so-called Campus Church pastors, but they totally ignored me. So be it, we have been enemies since. There is no love for people at PCC. The cult system always comes first, but individual people do not matter. I have heard that same complaint from many of their alumni, and it is 100 % sadly true.

In the following truthful quote, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) practically gives their address at 250 Brent Lane in Pensacola for PCC...

> "The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they've been trained by people that have never built churches, and they have no compassion." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[4]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard"

So true! Shame on PCC's uncaring leaders and brutish pastors. PCC takes in over $150 million per year in revenues. Truly the love of money is the root of all evil as God warns everyone in 1st Timothy 6:6-11. Woe unto PCC! God hears the cries of their victims dear reader. PCC is a disgrace to the cause of Jesus Christ. They don't contend for the Christian faith. PCC refuses to take a stand against Satan's corrupt Bible revisions. They refuse to preach against the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation because they preach it themselves. In 2022, PCC wickedly invited to speak to their students and honored infidel Ken Ham, who [5]preaches hard core Lordship Salvation. Right doctrine matters!!!

The only requirement to believe the Gospel is to know why you need to be saved. You need to know what you're being saved from. You are a guilty sinner, and so am I. No one has ever lived who didn't sin (Romans 3:10-23), except Jesus (Hebrews 4:15). He is the perfect sinless Lamb of God (John 1:29). The Bibles teaches and warns that the wages we earn from our sinning is death (Romans 5:12, 6:23). This includes a second death in Hell, fire and brimstone forever (Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8). If you admit by faith to God that you are a guilty sinner deserving of Hell, then that is all you need to know to believe the GOOD NEWS that Jesus Christ died on a cross to pay for your sins, was buried and three days later He bodily raised up from the dead for your justification. BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS, oh sinner, and you are saved!



The worst enemies of the Lord Jesus Christ are not the abortionists, feminists, witches and warlocks, Freemasons, homosexuals or even Satanists; sadly, it is Baptist pastors! Please be very careful of whatever church you are attending dear reader, to make sure that it is not a religious cult. Any pastor who tells you that you must "

Repent of your sins

to get to Heaven is a cult leader, not a genuine man of God. Jesus is precious!

6.8.10 False Prophet Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr. (2025-08-09 09:36)

Galatians 1:6-9, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

I am heartbroken to hear Pastor Jenkins Sr. of the First Baptist Church of Glenarden, Maryland, preach damnable heresy. The following sermon is titled: "EVANGELISM", which was preached on November 18, 2018. At point # 3 in his sermon, Pastor Jenkins corrupts the Gospel, adding works...

Damnable Heresy Being Preached by Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr.

Nowhere in the inspired Word of God are we taught to "[1]be willing to turn away the way you've been living your life" to get to Heaven, which would be WORKS! I pray that Pastor Jenkins will repent of his false repentance. Former Moody Church pastor, Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) gets repentance 100 % correct:

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past … Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all." SOURCE: "[2]What Is The Gospel?"

Tragically, at least 90 % of America's Baptist pastors today are preaching another gospel, and the people in those messed up churches are okay with it! Jeremiah 5:31, "The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?" Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) gets Bible repentance for salvation 100 % correct...

Pastor Curtis Hutson: I Hate The Repent Of Sins HERESY!

What Must I Do To Be Saved?

(Pastor Curtis Hutson, 1974)

Dear friend, there are NOT two different Gospels. The Apostle Paul makes this truth abundantly clear in our text passage of Scripture from Galatians 1:6-9. Pastor Curtis Hutson teaches that you don't have to give up one sin to be saved, Christ cam to die on a cross for our sins to pay for them! Yet, Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr. clearly teaches that there can be no regeneration (the new birth) until you first

"[3]be willing to turn away the way you've been living your life" to get to Heaven. I triple-dog dare you to show me that bullcrap Pastor Jenkins is preaching from the inspired Holy Bible! You cannot dear reader.

Ironically, Pastor Jenkins says in the preceding sermon that you've got to preach the truth, yet he doesn't even have THE TRUTH! Pastor Jenkins bloviates that he is not ashamed to preach DAMNABLE HERESY, lies that will mess up people's lives and send them to Hell forever!!! You DON'T have to believe AND repent to be born-again. Repentance is automatically included with believing the Gospel.

Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel." The Greek word for "repent" here simple means

"to think differently." The Bible is simply teaching us to think differently to BELIEVE THE GOSPEL to be saved. The only requirement to be saved is to know what you're being saved from, the consequences of sin. Romans 6:23, “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.”

Pastor Jenkins used to be doctrinally sound, but then he started hanging around corrupt neo-evangelicals. One healthy person plus one sick person always equals two sick people! The Bible commands us to “ come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord

” (2nd Corinthians 6:17b). You cannot change a corrupt group, which is why God commands us to leave that group! I am seriously doubting if John K. Jenkins Sr. is saved!!! Pastor Jenkins is preaching the same damnable false meaning of repentance as the Roman Catholic cult, Church of Christ cult, [4]Mormon cult, [5]Jehovah’s Witness cult and [6]Seventh-Day Adventist cult. If you think that repentance means turning away from a lifestyle of sinning, you are in harmony with the Satanic cults!!!

In sharp contrast, here again are the helpful doctrinally sound words of Pastor Harry Ironside:

> “Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, ’Repent ye, and believe the gospel.’ Yet we find true believers exhorted to ’repent, and do the first works.’ So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance.” ([7]Except Ye Repent, p. 16) [emphasis added]

Dear reader, the man who BELIEVES on the Lord Jesus Christ, has repented. [8]Repentance is not a separate act from placing your childlike faith in Jesus Christ as your personal Savior.

Corrupt pastors are preaching the Devil’s lie that to get to Heaven you must be willing to forsake your sins, repent of your sins or turn from your sins; but these manmade fallacies are nowhere taught in the inspired King James Bible. Wicked pastors must STOP embellishing, tampering and perverting God’s simple plan of Salvation.

Sadly, 99 % of professed Christians today couldn’t care less because they are carnally-minded. They’re more interested in sports, music, riches, pleasures and other worldly diversions.

RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

Woe be unto these damnable FALSE PROPHETS!!!

You don’t have to be an apostle to expose falsehoods, untruths and corrupt religious leaders (Titus 1:9-14). It is tragic and an astonishment that most Baptist pastors and congregations today have succumbed to the Devil’s lies of Wrong Repentance and Lordship Salvation.

We must expose the evils of [1]Misunderstood Repentance, [2]False Bibles and [3]Lordship Salvation (excellent articles by Pastor Jack Hyles). It is a sin for Christian men to remain silent. Evil men triumph when good men do nothing. The most important job is the one that doesn’t get done. I know how the Apostle Paul felt in Philippians 2:20,

“ For I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state. ” When I post a picture of a cute dog or cat, fifty people respond on Facebook. But if I post a meme that exposes the falsehood of Lordship Salvation, it is fortunate if two people favorably reply. That speaks volumes concerning the dire spiritual condition of the saints today.

We've become complacent, indifferent and at ease in Zion. Amos 6:1, "Woe to them that are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, which are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came!" [4]Mount Zion is one of seven hills in the mountain range surrounding Israel. Mount Zion has an elevation of 2,510 feet above sea level. In Amos 6:1-14 God sent the prophet Amos to preach against the northern kingdom of Israel, who were at ease in their lofty dwelling place in the mountains, thinking they were safe and secure from judgment. The kingdoms of Calneh, Hamath and Gath had already fallen by war to Assyria. The prophet in Amos 6:2 asks the Israelites if they think they are " better than these kingdoms

" ? They were not! The prophet Amos delivered this prophecy of doom in 765 BC, which was fulfilled 44 years later when Assyria conquered the northern kingdom of Israel in 721 BC. God's inspired Word never returns void, it always comes to pass!

Likewise, thousands of years later, churchgoers in 2025 sit idle at ease in Zion in spiritually dead churches all across the United States who care nothing about door-to-door soulwinning, don't contend for the Christian faith, disregard modesty (their women all wear immodest pants), don't expose false bibles and false prophets by name, do not care about right doctrine, woefully lack genuine love and compassion for people, et cetera.

I speak of shameful spiritually dead organizations; such as, the ungodly Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, whose wicked incompetent pastors preach the Devil's fraud to

repent of your sins

to get to Heaven, which is unbiblical. You cannot show me any place in the inspired King James Bible where it teaches to repent of your sins, turn from your sins, become a Christ follower, or surrender your life to Christ in order to get to Heaven. These embellishments are responsible for confusing lost sinners and damning billions to everlasting fire.

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Dear reader, I just want to be a blessing to others for my precious Savior, God and Lord, Jesus. God knows my humble servant's heart. I have never asked nor accepted a single penny for my diligent labors on social media for 23 years since 2002. My ministry is a labor of love for God, truth and people.

By God's grace, I have an earned bachelor's, master's and doctorate's degree in theology, but I don't use any titles before my name. Titles mean nothing to me, helping others does. My goal has never been to write a great blog that will impress others; but rather, to preach THE TRUTH to help others. I want to feed the Lord's sheep. I want to present the Gospel as simple as possible, so that lost sinners can see [5]how simple and easy it is to receive God's free gift of eternal life through faith in Jesus. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Where Are The 7,000 Who've Not Bowed To Baal?

I know that I am not the Lone Ranger, but that's how I feel. Elijah felt alone too.

1st Kings 19:10, “

And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

The prophet Elijah told God that he felt like the last man standing, but later learned that there were an additional 7,000 Christians who had not bowed their knee in idolatry to Baal...

1st Kings 19:18, “

Yet I have left me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal*, and every mouth which hath not kissed him.

Amen and amen! One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) is titled: “

[6]It’s Time To Come Out Of The Closet.

Where were the 7,000 who could have stood with the prophet Elijah? Where are all of the redeemed saints today in 2025? I don’t want your money, but I very much do ask for and need your earnest prayers. Please ask the Lord to grant me the strength in body to keep going, the love in heart to keep caring, and the wisdom of mind to continue rightly dividing the Word of Truth.

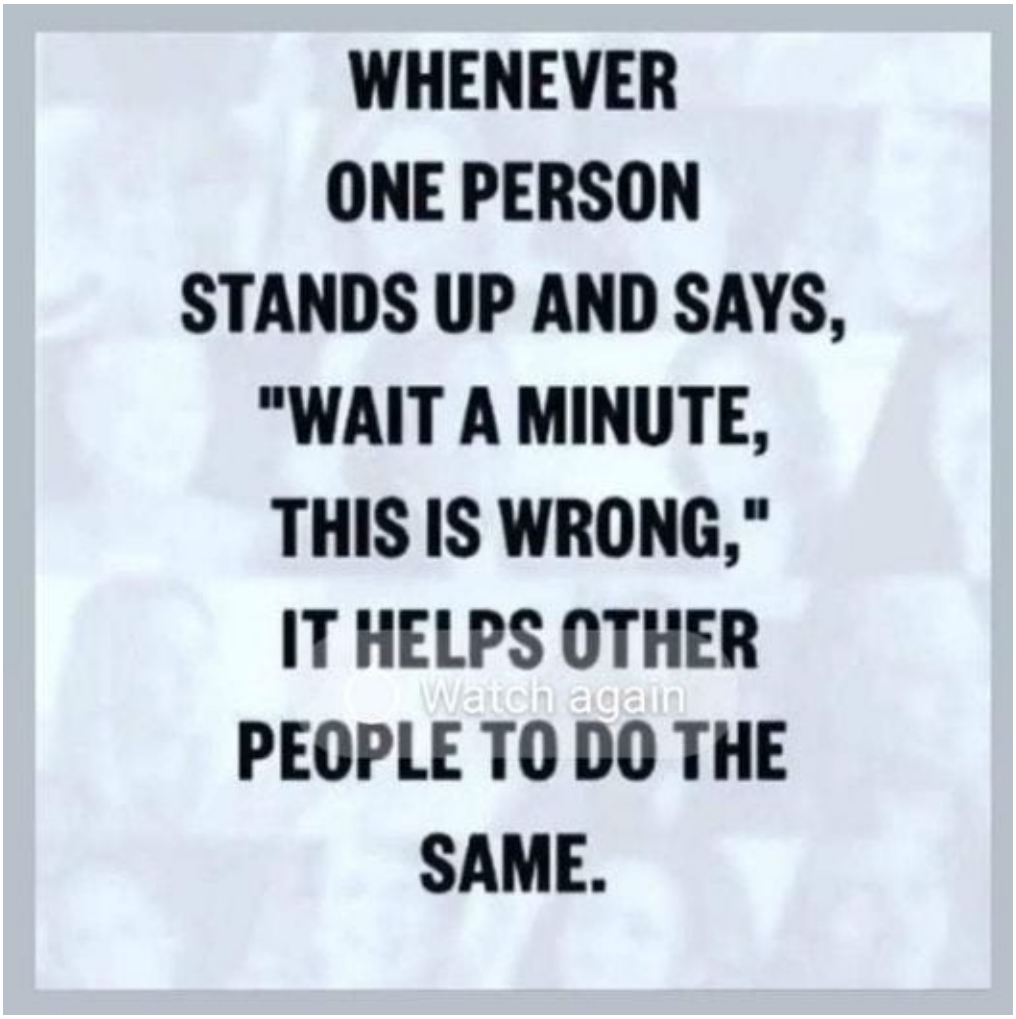
I don’t claim to be a great Bible preacher, but I am still passionate after 23 years of writing for the Lord on social media; and by God’s grace and help I plan to continue (John 15:1-5). I don’t claim to be a good Christian, but I do tremendously care and want continue helping everyone for as long as I can. I love what John Wesley said and I wholeheartedly agree with him...

“Do all the good you can,

By all the means you can,

In all the ways you can,

In all the places you can,



At all the times you can,

To all the people you can,

As long as ever you can.”

—John Wesley

That is beautiful. Sadly, this attitude is becoming rare among churchgoers today. Most people only go to church for selfish reasons, to be entertained and feel good when they leave. These phony churches that require people to repent of your sins to be saved are cults, not churches.

6.8.12 Shallow Christianity Cannot Be Remedied By Adding Works To Salvation (2025-08-10 08:08)

Titus 3:4-7, "But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life."

The Greek verb for "repent" is metanoeo, which translated into English means: "to think differently." Repentance does not mean to turn from sin. That would add works to salvation. Jonah

3:10, “And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.” Turning from one’s sins is works.

Also, please take note that God Himself repented in Jonah 3:10. We learn in Titus 1:2 and James 1:13 that God is incapable of sinning. So, how could God repent if the word means to to turn from one’s sins? Obviously the word “ in the inspired Holy Bible does NOT mean to forsake a lifestyle of sinning, abandon the world, nor turn from one’s sinful ways. To repent simply means to change one’s mind

“

toward God

(Acts 20:21). It means to think differently.

Pastor Brad Strand does an excellent job [1]explaining biblical repentance. Dear reader, very few pastors rightly divide the Word of Truth. It was the same 2,500 years ago during ancient biblical times. Jeremiah 5:30-31, “ A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land; The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?” There is an estimated 350,000 churches in the United States. Tragically, 99 % of them are wicked false religions, cults, fun centers and social clubs. New Testament churches are becoming as an extinct animal on the endangered species list.

Repentance for salvation means a change of mind from men’s ideas of salvation and religion, to an acceptance of Gods only way of salvation.

This results in a completely new creation, not a reformation of the old. The old nature remains as evil as ever after salvation and has not been reformed. The old nature can now be put under subjection by the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit, as we continue to yield ourselves daily to Him and walk in God’s will ( Ephesians 5:18; Galatians 5:16).

The moment you trust (rely upon) Jesus alone by faith as your personal Savior, you receive God’s free gift of Eternal Life (Romans 6:23). That same moment you are baptized into the Holy Spirit (Luke 3:16; Galatians 3:27). He seals you (Ephesians 1:13-14, 4:30). He indwells you (1 Corinthians 3:16; John 14:17; 1st John 3:24). 1st Thessalonians 4:8, “

He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

” The only thing that a believer receives at the time of salvation is the gift of the Holy Spirit, who lives inside of every child of God (Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24).

Living Versus Walking In The Holy Spirit

At the time of the new birth, the Christian believer is spiritually baptized (this is not water baptism) into the Holy Spirit, sealed and indwelt ONCE and FOREVER; but to be FILLED with the HOLY SPIRIT must be continually sought after in the life of a believer, and it's a command. Ephesians 5:18, "And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;" Someone has rightly said that Jesus never turned anyone away empty-handed except those who came full of themselves. There is not enough room on the throne of one's heart for both self and the Holy Spirit to reign. We must yield to God's blessed Holy Spirit in obedience to the revealed written Word of God (John 17:17; 2nd Corinthians 10:5-6).

Galatians 5:25, "If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit." If you have been born again by faith in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:26; 1st Peter 1:23), then you are alive (quickened) in the Holy Spirit of God; but you must daily choose now to walk in the Holy Spirit. In other words, the Christian life must be lived on purpose. By default humans walk in the flesh. No matter how spiritually close to God you may be on Sunday evening, when you wake up on Monday morning you will be carnal. By default we are all carnally minded and selfish.

This is why the Scripture teaches us to seek God early. Psalms 63:1, " O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is; " It is highly advisable to have early morning devotions; a time each day when we search the Scripture (John 5:39), pray (Philippians 4:8-9) and fellowship with our Creator (James 4:8-10). I enjoy knowing that God enjoys my fellowship.

The word "carne" in Spanish translates to "meat" or " flesh

in English. Hence, to be

carnally-minded

means to think within the temporal realm of humanity (as versus spiritual things).

> But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man. For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ."

For a born again believer who walks closely with the dear Lord, and has the unconditional love of God abounding in our soul toward all mankind, it is very easy to forget that the world is full of unsaved sinners who do not know the love of God. I too forget this terrible fact oftentimes, bewildered by the cruel and wicked things that people do. But then the Holy Spirit reminds me that the unsaved person cannot see the Holy Spirit, because they do not know Him.

John 14:17, "

Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

An unsaved man doesn’t have the Holy Spirit, neither can that man know Him.

This is an important truth to learn dear reader. The lost person thinks totally different than a redeemed child of God does.

This is what 2nd Corinthians 5:17 means,

“Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

” I get sick and tired of wicked neo-evangelicals who preach their damnable lies of Misunderstood Repentance (aka, the

turn from your sins

to be saved heresy) and Lordship Salvation, using 2nd Corinthians 5:17 as their Go-to Scripture passage. The Bible is simply saying that when someone partakes of the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God, the eyes of their spiritual understanding are now opened. They can no discern spiritual things because the indwelling Holy Spirit “will guide you into all truth”

(John 16:13b).

Pacific Garden Mission’s ’[2]UNSHACKLED’ radio program is one of the worst offenders of perverting the Gospel. In fact, on their main webpage [3]’UNSHACKLED’ promotes infidels’, Charles Stanley, John MacArthur, Robert Jeffress, Adrian Rogers, James Dobson and others. My ministry friend, Christian author Michael P. Bowen, refutes these false prophets in his helpful free online book titled: ’[4]I NEVER KNEW YOU.’

For the born again believer, it is a sin not to walk in obedience to the Holy Spirit...

> Romans 8:6-7, “For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.”

To be filled of the Holy Ghost is what determines the success and the growth in the life of a believer (Joshua 1:8). A believer becomes fruitful as he or she submits and yields to the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25; Romans 12:1-2; John 15:4-8).

Ephesians 4:23-24, “ And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.”

- God guarantees salvation to “him that believeth” (1st Corinthians 1:21).
- God guarantees a “reward” to the saint that labors for Christ (1st Corinthians 3:8)
- God guarantees “chastisement” and “loss” of rewards to the disobedient son (Hebrews 12:6-8; 1st Corinthians 3:15).

I repeat again! Shallow Christianity cannot be remedied by adding works to salvation. Salvation is not the result of what we do, it is the result of our faith in what Jesus did through Calvary’s cross. We are saved by His blood (1st Peter 1:19-19).

Here is a wonderful passage of Scripture about our precious Savior...

> Acts 13:38-39, "Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins: And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses."

In the next verse "repentance" means "to think differently" toward God. The Bible does not say to turn from your sins, turn over a new leaf, forsake the world nor surrender all to Christ to be saved; it says to repent toward God. That is, you need to agree with God that you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20), and then turn to Jesus in faith to be saved (Galatians 3:26).

> Acts 20:20-21, "And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house, Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ."

Dear reader, to avoid confusing people and corrupting God's simple plan of salvation, we absolutely must keep discipleship (service) completely separate from sonship (salvation). My favorite preacher's quote is from Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan (1628-1688)...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

John Bunyan was exposing the Lordship Salvation heresy of his generation. In every generation since the beginning of human civilization, there have been ungodly false prophets who mix works with grace to pervert the Gospel of free grace. The reason why they do it is in a futile attempt to force people to live a holy life. Preachers get tired of seeing professed Christians who live like the Devil. So, instead of preaching against sin as the Bible commands in Isaiah 58:1 and 1st Timothy 5:20, they corrupt God's simple plan of salvation in an attempt to scare lost sinners to forsake their sinful bad habits, and in so doing bring God's judgment upon themselves for preaching another gospel (Galatians 1:6-9).

Woe unto the Lordship Salvation crowd! Woe unto any lying pastor who says that you must "

repent of your sins

to get to Heaven. No such requirement is found in the inspired King James Bible. Wicked men added those words to the Holy Bible (Proverbs 30:5-6). Bible repentance is simply acknowledging THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God, and believing that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, the Christ (John 20:31). This is salvation. Behavior modification is an entirely separate matter of service (Romans 12:1).

All scriptures are quoted from the inspired King James Bible. Thank you for reading my ministry blog. Jesus is precious!

6.8.13 'UNSHACKLED' Radio Wickedly Promotes Infidel John MacArthur (2025-08-10 13:45)

Jude 1:3, "Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints."

Pacific Garden Mission’s ’ [1]UNSHACKLED ’ radio is total crap today—a cesspool of damnable Lordship Salvation heresy! Here is a screenshot from their webpage that I took today...

’UNSHACKLED’ Radio Wickedly Promotes Dr. John MacArthur

n case you may not know. [2]John MacArthur (1939-2025) was considered by many people to be the godfather of the [3]deadly Lordship Salvation heresy . My ministry friend Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold rightly says:

> “Lordship Salvation is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the performance of good works, the promise of good works, or the evidence of good works, must accompany faith in Christ to establish or provide evidence that such faith has resulted in eternal life.” —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, [4]"Jesus Versus John MacArthur"
>
> Yes, that is absolutely right!

Dear reader, what Dr. John MacArthur preached for his entire earthly ministry does not match what Jesus said in the inspired Scripture. Jesus said in John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

” We are saved simply by faith without works (Acts 13:39; Romans 4:5; Titus 3:5).

But John MacArthur says something very different:

8372

> “The point is not that God guarantees security to everyone who will say he accepts Christ, but rather that those whose faith is genuine will prove their salvation is secure by persevering to the end in the way of righteousness.” —Pastor John MacArthur, “The Gospel According to Jesus,”
>
> p. 98; Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 1988

What Mr. MacArthur is teaching is partial faith in Christ plus human works to be saved, which is a counterfeit plan of salvation.

On September 25, 1990, at the Calvary Baptist Church in Brewer, Maine (Pastor Larry Pawson), Pastor MacArthur was involved in a question and answer session which was publicly taped. During that session MacArthur said the following about child salvation:

> "Now let me say this and I don’t want you to panic when I say it. Saving faith is an ADULT ISSUE. Saving faith is an ADULT EXPERIENCE. Salvation is an ADULT EXPERIENCE. Am I saying that a child cannot be saved? I’m saying that salvation is a conscious turning from sin to follow Jesus Christ with an understanding of something of the sinfulness of sin, its consequences and something of who Jesus Christ is, what He has provided and that I’m committing my life to Him. At what point can a child understand that?... I tell parents that salvation is an adult decision... There is no illustration in Scripture of childhood salvation. There is none. People want to throw the Philippian jailer and his household; well that’s talking about his servants so there is no reference there about his children. So there is no such thing as a childhood conversion." [emphasis added]
> —Pastor John MacArthur; Calvary Baptist Church, September 25th, 1990

Pastor MacArthur further indicts himself as a false prophet with these perverted words...

> “Don’t believe anyone who says it’s easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God’s Son His life, and it’ll cost you the same thing...” [emphasis added] —Pastor John MacArthur,
>
> “
>
> Hard to Believe,”
>
> p. 93

In sharp contrast, here is what Pastor Harry A. Ironside (a true free grace preacher) wrote in his tremendous Gospel Tract titled, “Another Gospel”

...

> WHEN THE REVIVALIST comes promising salvation to those "who make a full surrender" of all that they have to God, and who "pay the price of full salvation," he is preaching another gospel, for the price was paid on Calvary’s cross and the work that saves is finished. It was Christ Jesus who made the full surrender, when He yielded Himself unto death for us that we might be redeemed from the curse of the broken law and forever saved from the judgment to come upon all who refuse His grace. —Pastor Harry Ironside; Gospel Tract: “ [5]Another Gospel ”

I want to reiterate what Pastor Ironside just said. When any preacher comes promising salvation to those "who make a full surrender" of all that they have to God, and who "pay the price of full salvation," he is preaching another gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). The price was paid through Calvary's cross. The work that saves us was finished when Jesus sprinkled His literal liquid blood upon the heavenly Mercy Seat (Hebrews 9:12, 24; 12:24).

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

Woe unto John MacArthur! I have no doubt whatsoever that Mr. MacArthur is sadly now and forever burning in the fires of Hell, without hope nor rest. If John MacArthur is in Heaven, then God is a blatant liar and there are two different plans of salvation.

The Apostle Paul in 1st Corinthians 15:1-6 plainly defines 'THE GOSPEL' as three things:

1. Jesus DIED on a cross for our sins.
2. Jesus was BURIED.
3. Jesus RESURRECTED from the dead three days later.

The Gospel is the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen from the dead for our justification. It is the Good News of what CHRIST has already done to save us, not of what WE must do for Him. There is nothing in this Good News which requires someone to follow Christ as " turn from their sinful bad habits, nor commit their life to live for Christ.

Lord,

Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) said these helpful words to clarify the matter:

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

Lordship Salvation makes the grave error of combining (mixing) service with salvation, and in so doing confuses lost sinners and churchgoers alike. John Bunyan said it well...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Yes, bravo! 'UNSHACKLED' radio (since 1950) has changed their plan of salvation over the years, from one of free grace to one of Lordship Salvation. Pastor Harry Saulnier (1902-1990) is rolling in his grave today! Harry Saulnier was the Mission Director of PGM for 46 years. He was in charge when I visited the mission as a lad with my father, back when the rescue mission still preached the Gospel correctly. These yuppie-type Neo-evangelicals today are pulling on the same rope as the Devil, perverting the Gospel of free grace.

In a sad paradoxical irony, their worldwide radio program 'UNSHACKLED' is actually SHACKLING lost sinners instead of rescuing them. There can be no new birth when works are added to God's grace. Jonah 3:10, "And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not. " The Ninevites didn't get saved, they turned from their evil ways and God repented (changed His mind) not to destroy them. A century later God changed His mind and sent the prophet Nahum to pronounce doom upon Assyria, and it was so when the kingdom of Babylon invaded, conquered and enslaved them.

The narrator (Timothy Gregory) of the 'UNSHACKLED' series is not a saved man in my humble opinion, evidenced by his incessant use of unbiblical terms and phrases. The sad but plain disturbing truth is that [6]'UNSHACKLED' preaches another gospel. According to Galatians 1:6-9 there is only ONE Gospel, and anyone (even an angel) who preaches another gospel is cursed by God almighty.

Dear reader, either you must forsake your sinful bad habits to get to Heaven, or else you don't, but it cannot be both ways.

Either you must receive Jesus as your Lord, or else you don't, but it cannot be both ways.

Either you must become a follower of Christ, or else you don't, but it cannot be both ways.

Either you must commit your life to live for Christ, or else you don't, but it cannot be both ways.

Our 16th U.S. President Abraham Lincoln (1809-1965) said it well...

> "In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!" —President Abraham Lincoln

Ladies and gentlemen, in this great conflict between the free grace camp and the Lordship Salvation camp—both may be, but one must be wrong—we cannot all be right. I humbly agree with the inspired Word of God that we are saved by faith alone without works. MacArthur's plan of salvation is so hard that [7]he says children cannot be saved. This is not the simplicity that is in Christ spoken of in 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, which simplicity is the free grace Gospel (Romans 1:16). Salvation is not a process that is conditional upon continued obedience, surrender or behavior modification; but rather, salvation is a new birth which happens instantaneously, when a sinner receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for his or her sins, believing that Christ was buried but then physically raised up the third day alive.

Please beware of Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago, and their popular corrupt 'UNSHACKLED' radio series that promotes hard core Lordship Salvation, wrong repentance and Satan's perverted modern bible revisions. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

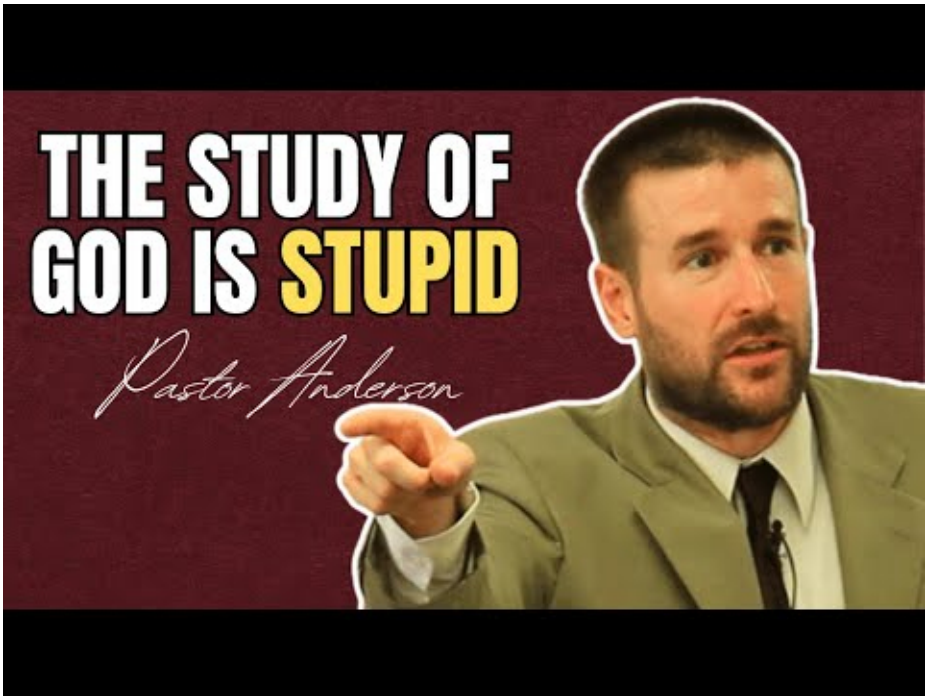
6.8.14 Refuting A Strange Doctrine By Pastor Steven Anderson (2025-08-11 11:40)

Hebrews 13:9,



“

Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

Jude 1:3, “Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.”

My ministry friend Onorato Diamante uploaded the following helpful YouTube video today to contend for the faith. I fully agree with Onorato’s refutation of a heresy being preached by Pastor Steven Anderson, which denies that Jesus was omnipotent, omniscient and omnipresent while upon the earth 2,000 years ago. See and hear it for yourself...

Steve Anderson: God in the Flesh — NOT Omnipotent, Omniscient, or Omnipresent (While On This Earth)

I wrote my own [1]refutation today against Pastor Anderson's strange doctrine. I can tell you with all biblical confidence dear friend that Jesus while upon earth was still omnipotent, omniscient and omnipresent. Jesus was 100 % a man, and also 100 % God. There is no way that He couldn't have had all the same powers of God the Father while walking this earth 2,000 years ago. Jesus chose not to use those powers most of the time, but He did sometimes use them.

For example: When Jesus walked on the Sea of Galilea and calmed the roaring storm and the raging waves, He was showing omnipotence. Philippians 3:20-21, "For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself." No mortal man could command the weather as Jesus did. This was omnipotence!

[2]Jesus Was Omnipotent, Omniscient And Omnipresent On Earth

I love and respect Pastor Steven Anderson, but I strongly disagree with his strange doctrine that Jesus was not omnipotent, omniscient and omnipresent while upon the earth 2,000 years ago. In His mortal body, Jesus possessed "ALL THE FULNESS" of the Godhead according to Colossians 2:9. Jesus forgave men's sins as only God can do. The Lord defied the laws of physics while on earth, which can only be attributed to His omnipotent power. Jesus raised up the dead, including Brother Lazarus, which only an omnipotent Savior could do.

I love and respect Pastor Steven Anderson as a soulwinning preacher, but he says some unbiblical things at times. I am shocked that he is denying that Jesus was omnipotent, omniscient and omnipresent while upon the earth.

Nathanael was seven miles away when Jesus saw him praying under a fig tree. Only an omnipresent Savior could have known that fact. Jesus forgave men's sins as only an omnipotent God can do. He walked through an angry mob of people who tried to force Him off a steep cliff, again showing His omnipotence.

Jesus could have commanded twelve legions (72,000) of angels to rescue Him if so desired. He raised the dead back to life, healed the sick, caused the blind to see, made the lame to walk again and the deaf to hear, as only God can do. Jesus walked on water and calmed the raging sea, commanding the fierce storm to dissipate into a peaceful breeze. Don't anyone dare tell me that our majestic Savior didn't still posses the attributes of almighty God on earth!

6.8.15 Turning Away From Your Sin Is Works (2025-08-12 09:34)

Jonah 3:10, "And God saw THEIR WORKS, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not."

Titus 3:5, " Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; "

The Bible in no uncertain terms says that God's free gift of eternal life is WITHOUT WORKS. The deadly mindset of the cults has crept into most Baptist churches nowadays, which has corrupted these churches so that they now are also CULTS! What saith the Scripture? ...

> Romans 4:3-5, "For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

The Bible verses that you just read are quoted from the Old Testament concerning Abram (whose name was later changed by God to Abraham)...

> Genesis 15:6, "
>
> And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness.

People in the Old Testament, before and under the Mosaic Covenant, were ALL saved the same exact way that people get saved today thousands of years later, which is by grace through faith in Christ. Acts 10:42, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Abraham was saved by faith alone without WORKS! Romans 4:4 plainly teaches that if salvation had been by works, then it would have been of DEBT and not by GRACE. Dear friend, God has never owed a debt of salvation to any wicked human being (and we are all wicked - Romans 3:19-23). Turning away from your sins and evil ways is a WORK according to God in Jonah 3:10.

The following is a helpful video which exposes Evangelist Ken Ham as a false prophet! ...

The FALSE GOSPEL of ANSWERS IN GENESIS and KEN HAM

8378

Sadly, the wicked Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) promotes infidel Ken Ham to all their thousands of church members and students. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! When I attended Campus Church in 2021, they showed Ken Ham's Young Earth Creation (YEC) series all summer long for Wednesday night Bible study. It upsets me when incompetent pastors, like the Bozo clowns at PCC, play video tapes of other preachers instead of doing their own Bible study. Ken Ham DOESN'T rightly divide the Word of Truth, he is WRONG on the Gospel.

Tragically, The Crown College in Powell, Tennessee also promotes Ken Ham. SHAME on Pastor Clarence Sexton. I am not trying to be unkind, but success and prosperity has ruined Pastor Sexton, so that he no longer contends for the Christian faith as he once did decades ago. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! Clarence Sexton recently took a lucrative vacation to England, and not too long before that Israel. Pastor Sexton is living large off the ministry. So also is Pastor Jeff Redlin at Campus Church at PCC living large, parasiting off the ministry.

All of these men get paid a sickening 6-DIGIT annual salary, four times what the average U.S. citizen earns in a year!!! I have a problem with that. What happened to being a servant? Matthew 23:11, "But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant." Sadly, the pastors who are the most successful in this world, do the least to contend for the Christian faith (Jude 1:3). Prosperity, fame and financial wealth have destroyed more preachers than all their hardships, afflictions and enemies combined. SHAME on Temple Baptist Church in Powell (right outside of Knoxville), Tennessee and their Crown College! SHAME on them for promoting a religious con man who preaches another Gospel.

Dear friend, there are NOT two plans of salvation (Galatians 1:6-7). You either must turn away from your sinful bad habits as a second step to be saved, in addition to faith; or else you do not, but it absolutely cannot be both. Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work." What Ken Ham is preaching is NOT God's grace. When you attack the grace of God, you attack the God of grace!!! SHAME on PCC for promoting Ken Ham and his Young Earth Creation (YEC) circus. There is no evidence in the Bible to support a YEC, but there is plenty to substantiate an Old Earth Creation (OEC).

According to Ken Ham, faith in the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day is NOT enough to get to Heaven. In addition, Ham says you must repent and turn away from your sinful ways. But what saith the Scripture?

Jonah 3:10, "And God saw THEIR WORKS, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not." God changed His mind (He repented) not to destroy Nineveh. But they didn't get saved by THEIR WORKS!!! The Bible doesn't say that the Assyrians got saved, it simply says that they turned away from their evil ways and God spared imminent destruction upon their nation. Judas also turned away from his evil ways (Matthew 27:3), even returning the 30 pieces of silver to the Pharisees which he had been paid to betray Jesus. Judas felt remorse, regret and reformation, but he never repented toward God to put his faith in Jesus. Turning away from sin is WORKS! Ken Ham is a hellbound false prophet!!!

SHAME on Pensacola Christian College and Crown College for promoting infidel Ken Ham, which confuses their students. In the preceding video, Ken Ham's employee even says that turning from sins is the "SECOND" thing you must DO to be saved. That is a counterfeit plan of salvation, which cannot produce the new birth.

In God's plan of salvation, repentance is INCLUDED with believing on the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 16:30-31). If it weren't, then Paul and Silas would have told the Roman jailor that more than faith is required to be saved, but they didn't. They simply told the man to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, and thou shalt be saved (Acts 16:31b). God does not save those who are trying to be saved, He only saves those who are trusting to be saved. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Satan is a beautiful liar! He is clever and knows how to subtly creep works into God's simple plan of slavation to deceive his victims. When a preacher suggests that you've never been saved unless your behavior has changed, he is preaching another gospel.

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) gets repentance exactly right according to the Holy Bible...

> "Repentance is not some little silly, 'I'm sorry.' Repentance is not simply a fear of God. Repentance is not a monk fasting and afflicting his body in a monastery. Repentance is not remorse because of sin's consequences. Repentance is not penance performed before the pope as you kiss his toe... Repentance is not being sorry for what I've done wrong. It is not confessing one's sins to a priest. It is not just conviction of sin. It is not the signing of a pledge of abstinence. Repentance is that thing when you come before God and see yourself as you are, and see Him as he is, and say with Isaiah 'Woe is me, for I am unclean!"' —Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), a quote from the timeless MP3 sermon, [1]THE GOODNESS OF GOD LEADETH TO REPENTANCE!

Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) taught a free grace view of the Gospel. Consider further the following awesome quote by Pastor Ironside...

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past ...
>
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all."
>
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: [2]What Is The Gospel?

Yes, that is exactly right! Amen and amen. [3]Here are a bunch more helpful quotes and teaching on Bible repentance. I thank God for free grace preachers who get repentance correct, because most preachers sadly preach a misunderstanding of repentance. It is tragic that most Baptists today have succumbed to Satan's lie that you must be willing to forsake your sinning to get to Heaven. They have not been born again yet. No one has ever forsaken their sinning! You may clean up your life of visible sins and do a good job of hiding your sins from others, but you'll still be a dirty sinner (Romans 7:14-25).

I preach on the topic of repentance regularly, because most pastors today are pulling on the same rope as the Devil by teaching an unbiblical form of repentance which focuses on your sacrifice for God, instead of Christ's sacrifice for you on the cross. If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

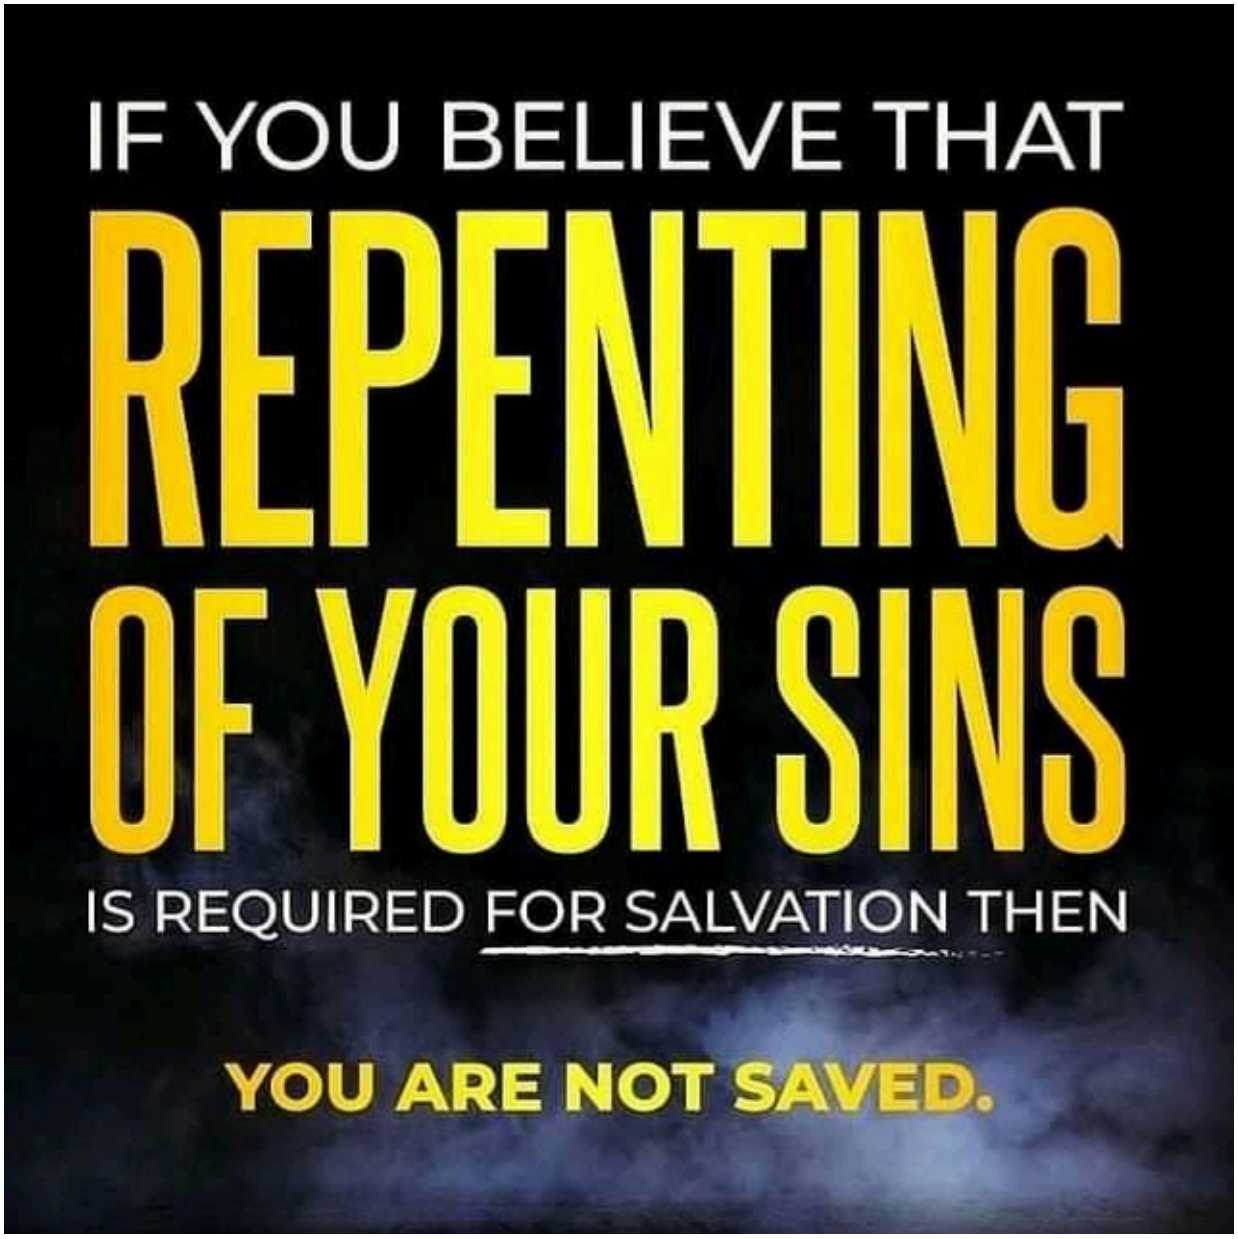
The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.



According to 1st Corinthians 15:1-6, the Good News (Gospel) is that Jesus died on a cross to pay for your sins and mine. He was buried. Three days later Jesus resurrected physically from the dead. This is the Gospel. There is nothing in Paul's Gospel (which he received directly from Jesus according to Galatians 1:12), which requires someone to repent of your sins, be willing to turn from your sinful bad habits, surrender all, follow Christ nor anything else. We are saved by BELIEVING! John 6:47,

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

6.8.16 Valuable Resources On Leadership By Pastor Jack Hyles (2025-08-13 09:00)

Matthew 20:25-28, “ But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them. But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister;And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant: Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many."

Strong spiritual leadership is woefully lacking in today's churches and Bible colleges. Sadly, we've got a bunch of clowns running the churches into the ground. You're average pastor cannot even explain repentance correctly, thinking in error that it means to turn away from your sinful bad habits. Repentance is [1]a change mind, not a change of behavior!

Here are some edifying preacher's quotes about leadership...

- "Everything rises and falls on leadership" —Pastor Lee Roberson (1909-2007)
- "God never leads anyone anywhere for money." —Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001)
- "Nobody is fit to be leader unless he would rather be a follower instead of a leader." —Dr. Jack Hyles
- "The leader must be alone while others are with each other." —Dr. Jack Hyles
- "Real leaders would rather follow." —Dr. Jack Hyles
- "The follower is as important as the leader." —Dr. Jack Hyles
- "Leadership is made for service." —Dr. Jack Hyles
- "Leadership is forced on a man who is prepared but unaware." —Dr. Jack Hyles
- "Leadership always has to be learning." —Dr. Jack Hyles
- "The wise follower will want to build strong leaders." —Dr. Jack Hyles

Here is a Wednesday night Bible study from Pastor Hyles' series on "The Science Of The Christian Life." This particular Bible study is called, "[9]The Science Of Leadership."

True leadership requires a servant's heart. Mark 10:44, "And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all." No one who desires to lead is fit to lead. True leaders would rather be followers laboring in the background to help in any way they can. The worst leaders are those who were promoted for the wrong reasons.

Anyone who is familiar with the secular workplace knows that there are two sides: Labor (represented by worker's unions) and Management (the company). It is common for companies to promote troublesome employees in the labor force to management, to rid them of a problem. Sadly, that is not a proper nor good way to fill managerial positions. In my humble opinion, over 95 % of people in management positions are not competent or qualified. That sadly includes pastors.

These resources could provide a wealth of helpful information for anyone who wants to teach a class on leadership. God bless you dear reader for reading my ministry blog. It is my heart's sincere desire that God will use my humble writings to enrich your life, bringing lost sinners to the saving knowledge of the Gospel of free grace, and to feed Jesus' sheep. I love you all with God's unconditional love, whoever you may be dear friend. Jesus is precious!!!

Isaiah 28:9-13, “

Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts. For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people.

To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear. But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.”

6.8.18 Jesus Is The Great "I AM" (2025-08-14 12:15)

Exodus 3:13-14, "And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them? And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you."

I heard a great sermon truth this morning from Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). ...

> "Most of us spend our lives preparing to be happy, but not being happy." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[1]The Doctrine Of Aimlessness"

> "To most people, even a smile is a tool; getting favor with somebody else." —Pastor Jack Hyles, " [2]The Doctrine Of Aimlessness "

> "Everybody's going somewhere; nobody is anywhere." Pastor Jack Hyles, " [3]The Doctrine Of Aimlessness "

Jesus is not the "I WAS" or the "I WILL BE," He's the great "I AM."

We all need to learn to just make the best of our circumstances in life, whether good or bad. When Paul and Silas were incarcerated in a Roman prison, they chose to sing hymns of praise to rejoice in the Lord (Acts 16:25). Life is in a very real sense, a mindset. That is, life is often what we choose to make it. What we choose to think about determines our mindset, and our mindset determines our emotional state and happiness.

Something that I have done for the past 23 years of my website ministry, to help me cope, is to write an article to help others whenever I feel sad, down or depressed. I have suffered from Cervical Degenerative Disk Disease since 1992, after I was severely rear-ended by a church bus (of all things...lol). My neck was misaligned from the accident, which as it deteriorated in 2004 began to cause me much debilitating chronic pain and discomfort. I cannot express in words how my relentless neck pain has adversely affected my life and well-being. It is a heavy burden that I must carry alone, except that I know God is with me always (Hebrews 13:5).

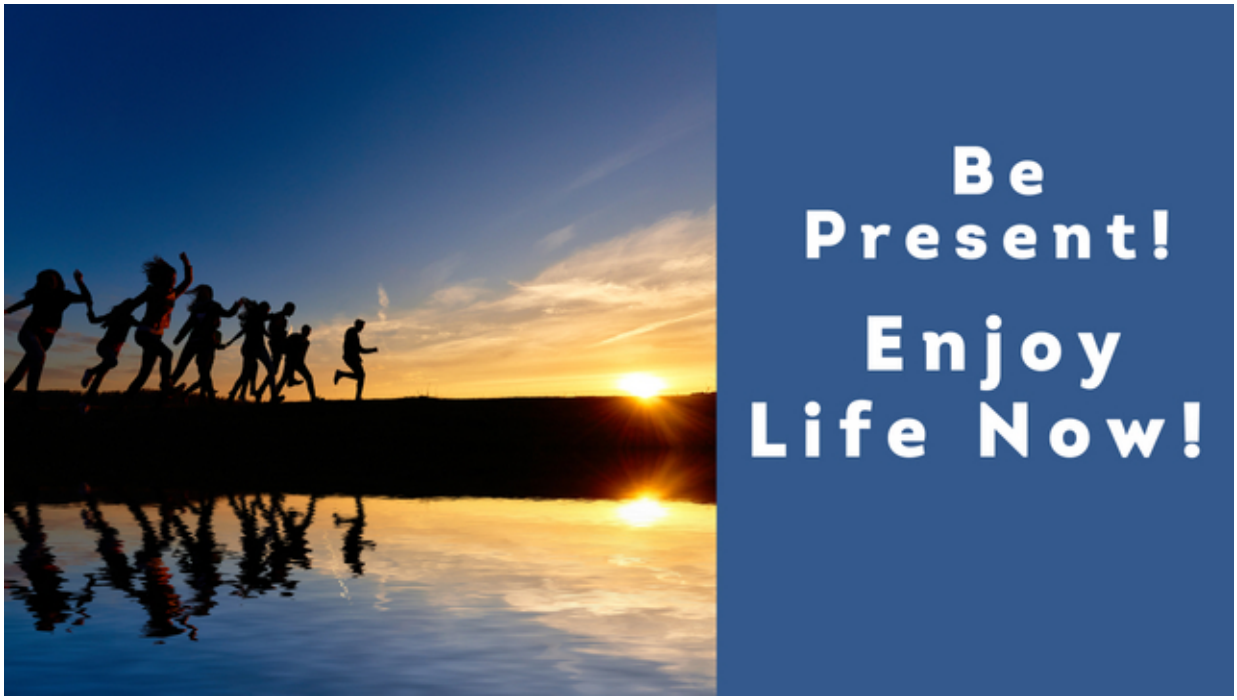
The word “happiness” describes what “happens” to us in life. When bad things happen we are typically not happy. But if we will learn to focus on our many blessings from God, and maintain a thankful attitude toward God in all situations, even when in distress and hardship we can still find some degree of happiness and enjoyment. I am not suggesting optimism (a positive outlook); but rather, being realistic to appreciate God’s blessings. No matter what evil may befall us along life’s journey, we can always rejoice as saints that our names are written in Heaven in the Lamb’s Book of Life (Luke 10:20). Praise God!



The best thing to do when you feel down is to go help somebody else who is feeling down. When I am having a rough day, I will often give $5 to a restaurant worker at a drive-thru window, yo brighten their day. I like to think of little things I can do for others, which might seem like a big thing to them, and it helps to cheer me up.

Pastor Jack Hyles once beautifully said that if he could teach his church members one thing next to the way of salvation, it would be to “GET OUT OF THE SELF LIFE.” I fully agree.

> Philippians 2:3-5, “Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus...”

Jesus lived for OTHERS! He cared about the needs of others. The dear Savior chose to focus upon the needs of others, which is the same mindset that we should have as Christians. We are all selfish by nature as carnal humans. We must deliberately take the time to think about the pain, suffering, feelings and needs of others, or the job won’t get done. I am talking about human empathy and sympathy. Caring people are praying people. Most saints don’t pray because they don’t care as they should. It is easy not to care, just do nothing.

Jesus is not the “I WAS” or the “I WILL BE,” He’s the great “I AM.”

6.8.19 Why I Disagree With All Five Points Of Calvinism (2025-08-15 09:04)

This is one of my favorite sermon booklets by Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995). Dr. Hutson succeeded Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) as editor of the [1]Sword Of The Lord ministry in Murfreesboro, Tennessee. Today, Dr. Shelton Smith is the editor of the Sword, whom I admire, love and respect for faithfully contending for the faith (Jude 1:3). I thank God so much for Pastor Curtis Hutson, a genuine man of God. The Sword Of The Lord has been blessed to have godly leaders since it was founded in 1934 by Dr. Rice in Wheaton, Illinois. They moved decades later to Tennessee. The following sermon exposes all 5-points of Calvinism (the heretical teachings of an unsaved man named John Calvin, 1509-1564). To God be the glory!

by Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995)

The term "Calvinism" is loosely used by some people who do not hold Calvin's teaching on predestination and do not understand exactly what Calvin taught.

Dr. Loraine Boettner in his book, "The Reformed Doctrine of Predestination" says,

> "The Calvinistic system especially emphasizes five distinct doctrines. These are technically known as "The Five Points of Calvinism". And they are the main pillars upon which the superstructure rests."

Dr. Boettner further says,

> "The five points may be more easily remembered if they are associated with the word T-U-L-I-P , T, Total Inability; U, Unconditional Election; L, Limited Atonement; I, Irresistible (efficacious) Grace; and P, Perseverance of the Saints."

These are the points of Calvinism.

I have heard preachers say, "I am a one-point Calvinist."

I have heard others say, "I am a two- or three-point Calvinist."

I want us to look at all five points of Calvinism as taught by John Calvin, then see what the Bible has to say on each point.

I. Total Inability

By total inability Calvin meant that a lost sinner cannot come to Jesus Christ and trust Him as Saviour, unless he is foreordained to come to Christ. By total inability he meant that no man has the ability to come to Christ. And unless God overpowers him and gives him that ability, he will never come to Christ

The Bible teaches total depravity, and I believe in total depravity. But that simply means that there is nothing good in man to earn or deserve salvation. The Bible says in Jeremiah 17:9, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked."

A preacher brought a wonderful sermon on the depravity of the human heart. And when he finished his message, someone came to him and said," I want you to know I can't swallow that depraved heart that you preached about."

The preacher smiled and said, "You don't have to swallow it. It's already in you!"

While the Bible teaches the depravity of the human race, it nowhere teaches total inability. The Bible never hints that people are lost because they have no ability to come to Christ. The language of Jesus was, "Ye will not come to me, that ye might have life" (John 5:40).

Notice, it is not a matter of whether or not you can come to Christ; it is a matter of whether or not you will come to Christ.

Jesus looked over Jerusalem and wept and said, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem . . .how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!" (Matthew 23:37). Here again notice, He did not say, "How often would I have gathered you together, but you could not." No. He said, "Ye would not!" It was not a matter of whether they could; it was a matter of whether they would.

Revelation 22:17, the last invitation in the Bible, says, "And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely ."

If it is true that no person has the ability to come to Christ, then why would Jesus say in John 5:40, "Ye will not come to me." why didn't He simply say, "You cannot come to me."?

The only thing that stands between the sinner and salvation is the sinner's will. God made every man a free moral agent. And God never burglarizes the human will.

D. L. Moody addressed a large group of sceptics. He said ,"I want to talk about the word believe, the word receive, and the word take." When Mr. Moody had finished his sermon, he asked, "Now who will come and take Christ as Saviour?"

One man stood and said, "I can't."

Mr. Moody wept and said, "Don't say, 'I can't.' Say, 'I won't!'"

And the man said, "Then, I won't!"

But another man said, "I will!" Then another said, "I will!" And another said , "I will!" Until scores came to trust Christ as Saviour.

Some Calvinists use John 6:44 in an effort to prove total inability. Here the Bible says,

"No man can come to me except the Father which hath sent me draw him...."But the Bible makes it plain in John 12:32 that Christ will draw all men unto Himself. Here the Bible says, "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me."

All men are drawn to Christ, but not all men will trust Christ as Saviour. Every man will make his own decision to trust Christ or to reject Him. The Bible makes it clear that all men have light. John 1:9 says, "That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world." Romans 1:19,20 indicates that every sinner has been called through the creation about him. And Romans 2:11-16 indicates that sinners are called through their conscience, even when they have not heard the Word of God.

So in the final analysis, men go to Hell, not because of their inability to come to Christ, but because they will not come to Christ-"Ye will not come to me, that ye might have life."

The teaching that men, women and children are totally unable to come to Christ and trust Him as Saviour is not a scriptural doctrine. The language itself is not scriptural.

II. Unconditional Election

By unconditional election Calvin meant that some are elected to Heaven, while others are elected to Hell, and that this election is unconditional. It is wholly on God's part and without condition. By unconditional election Calvin meant that God has already decided who will be saved and who will be lost, and the individual has absolutely nothing to do with it. He can only hope that God has elected him for Heaven and not for Hell.

This teaching so obviously disagrees with the oft-repeated invitations in the Bible to sinners to come to Christ and be saved that some readers will think that I have overstated the doctrine. So I will quote John Calvin in his "Institutes," Book III, chapter 23,

> "....Not all men are created with similar destiny but eternal life is foreordained for some , and eternal damnation for others. Every man, therefore, being created for one or the other of these ends, we say, he is predestined either to life or to death."

So Calvinism teaches that it is God's own choice that some people are to be damned forever. He never intended to save them. He foreordained them to go to Hell. And when He offers salvation in the Bible, He does not offer it to those who were foreordained to be damned. It is offered only to those who were foreordained to be saved.

This teaching insists that we need not try to win men to Christ because men cannot be saved unless God has planned for them to be saved. And if God has planned for them to be eternally lost, they will not come to Christ.

There is the Bible doctrine of God's foreknowledge, predestination and election. Most knowledgeable Christians agree that God has His controlling hand on the affairs of men. They agree that according to the Bible, He selects individuals like Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and David as instruments to do certain things He has planned. Most Christians agree that God may choose a nation-particularly that He did choose Israel, through which He gave the law, the prophets, and eventually through whom the Saviour Himself would come- and that there is a Bible doctrine that God foreknows all things.

I have often said, "Did it ever occur to you that nothing ever occurred to God?". God in His foreknowledge knows who will trust Jesus Christ as Saviour, and He has predestined to see that they are justified and glorified. He will keep all those who trust Him and see that they are glorified. But the doctrine that God elected some men to Hell, that they were born to be damned by God's own choice, is a radical heresy not taught anywhere in the Bible.

I have in my hand a booklet entitled TULIP written by Vic Lockman. In the booklet Mr. Lockman attempts to prove the five points of Calvinism. Under the point, Unconditional Election, he quotes Ephesians 1:4, but he only quotes the first part of the verse: "He hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world. " However, that is not the end of the verse. Mr. Lockman, like most Calvinists, stopped in the middle of the verse. The entire verse reads: "According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love." The verse says nothing about being chosen for Heaven or Hell. It says we are chosen that we should be holy and without blame before him in love.

Under the same point, Unconditional Election, Mr. Lockman quotes John 15:16, "Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you." Again, Mr. Lockman, like most Calvinists, stops in the middle of the verse. The entire verse reads: "Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you."

The verse says nothing about being chosen for Heaven or Hell. It says we are chosen to go and bring forth fruit, which simply means that every Christian is chosen to be a soul winner. The fruit of a Christian is other Christians. Proverbs 11:30 says, "The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise."

Nowhere does the Bible teach that God wills for some to go to Heaven and wills others to go to Hell. No. The Bible teaches that God would have all men to be saved. Second Peter 3:9 says that He is "not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." First Timothy 2:4 says, "Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth."

Those who teach that God would only have some to be saved, while He would have others to be lost are misrepresenting God and the Bible.

Does God really predestinate some people to be saved and predestinate others to go to Hell, so that they have no free choice? Absolutely not! Nobody is predestined to be saved, except as he chooses of his own free will to come to Christ and trust Him for salvation. And no one is predestined to go to Hell, except as he chooses of his own free will to reject Christ and refuses to trust Him as Saviour. John 3:36 says, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

Nothing could be plainer. The man who goes to Heaven goes because he comes to Jesus Christ and trusts Him as Saviour. And the man who goes to Hell does so because he refuses to come to Jesus Christ and will not trust Him as Saviour.

III. Limited Atonement

By limited atonement, Calvin meant that Christ died only for the elect, for those He planned and ordained to go to Heaven: He did not die for those He planned and ordained to go to Hell. Again I say, such language is not in the Bible , and the doctrine wholly contradicts many, many plain Scriptures.

For instance, the Bible says in I John 2:2, "He is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." The teaching of Calvinism on Limited Atonement contradicts the express statement of Scripture. First Timothy 2:5,6 says, " The man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all...."

The Bible teaches that Jesus is the Saviour of the world. John 4:42 says, "And said unto the woman, Now we believe , not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world." Again I John 4:14, "And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world." The Scriptures make it plain that Jesus came to save the world. John 3:17 says, " For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."

No man will ever look at Jesus Christ and say, "You didn't want to be my Saviour ." No! No! Jesus wants to be the Saviour of all men. As a matter of fact, I Timothy 4:10 says, "For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe."

The Bible teaches that Christ bore the sins of all people. Isaiah 53:6 says, "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." There are twos "alls" in this verse. The first "all" speaks of the universal fact of sin- "All we like sheep have gone astray." And the second "all" speaks of universal atonement-"and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." The "all" in the first part of Isaiah 53:6 covers. If all went astray, then the iniquities of all were laid on Christ.

Not only did He bear the sins of us all, but the Bible plainly teaches that He died for the whole world. Look at John 2:2, "And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but for the sins of the whole world." If that isn't plain enough, the Bible says His death was for every man; "But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man" (Hebrews 2:9).

Nothing could be plainer than the fact that Jesus Christ died for every man. First Timothy 2:5,6 says, "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all. . . . " Romans 8:32 states, "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?"

Look at the statements–statement after statement: "that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man"; "Who gave himself a ransom for all"; "delivered him up for us all."

John 3:16 has often been called "the heart of the Bible." It has been called "the Bible in miniature." "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Jesus died for the whole world. He suffered Hell for every man who has ever lived or ever will live. And no man will look out of Hell and say, "I wanted to be saved, but Jesus did not die for me."

Some argue that if Jesus died for the whole world, the whole world would be saved. No. the death of Jesus Christ on the cross was sufficient for all, but it is efficient only to those who believe. The death of Jesus Christ on the cross made it possible for every man everywhere to be saved. But only those who believe that He died to pay their sin debt and who trust Him completely for salvation will be saved.

Again I quote John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life. . . ." Everybody is potentially saved, but everybody is not actually saved until he recognises that he is a sinner, believes that Jesus Christ died on the cross to pay the sin debt, and trust Him completely for salvation.

The atonement is not limited. it is as universal as sin. Romans 5:20 says, "But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound." Isaiah 53:6 states, "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all."

A famous English preacher spoke in an English town, then rushed to catch his train for London. A sinner who heard him preach felt that he must immediately settle the matter of salvation. So he followed the preacher to the train. Just as the train pulled into the station, he took hold of the preacher's lapel and said, " I want to be saved! Tell me how!"

The minister said, "I must catch this last rain to London. Do you have a Bible?"

"Yes, I have one at home," said the anxious inquirer.

"Then go home and find Isaiah 53:6. Read it carefully. Go in at the first all, and come out at the last all, and you will be saved."

The preacher rushed away, and the anxious sinner was left alone. He went back to his home, and opening his Bible, he turned to Isaiah 53:6. What did the preacher mean, he wondered–"Go in at the first all and come out at the last all, and you will be saved"? He found the verse and read it carefully: "All we like sheep have gone astray."

Well, he thought to himself, I can certainly go in at the first all. I have gone astray. I am a poor, lost sinner. The he read the last part of the verse, "And the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." He said to himself, "If I come out at the last all, I must believe that all my sins were laid on Christ, that He took my place and paid for my sins. And if I rely upon that, I will be saved. That's what the preacher meant."

He then trusted Christ and was saved. He believed that he was a sinner, and that all his sins had been laid on Christ.

IV. Irresistible Grace

The fourth point of Calvinism is irresistible grace. By irresistible grace, John Calvin meant that God simply forces people to be saved. God elected some to be saved, and he let Jesus Christ die for that elect group. And now by irresistible grace, He forces those He elected, and those

Jesus Christ died for to be saved.

The truth of the matter is, there is no such thing as irresistible grace. Nowhere in the Bible does the word "irresistible" appear before the word "grace". That terminology is simply not in the Bible. It is the philosophy of John Calvin, not a Bible doctrine. The word "irresistible" doesn't even sound right in front of the word "grace."

Grace means "God's unmerited favour." Somebody said G-R-A-C-E- God's riches at Christ's expense. Grace is an attitude, not a power. If Calvin had talked about the irresistible drawing power of God, it would have made more sense. But instead, he represents grace as the irresistible act of God compelling a man to be saved who does not want to be saved, so that a man has no choice in the matter at all, except as God forcibly puts a choice in his mind. Calvinism teaches that man has no part in salvation, and cannot possibly co-operate with God in the matter. In no sense of the word and at no stage of the work does salvation depend upon the will or work of man or wait for the determination of his will.

Does the Bible say anything about irresistible grace? Absolutely not! The Scriptures show that men do resist and reject God. Proverbs 29:1 states, "He, that being often reproved hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy." Notice the word "often" in this verse. If God only gave one opportunity to be saved, then man could not complain. But here the Bible says, "He, that being often reproved.. . " This means the man was reproved over and over again. Not only was he reproved many times, but he was reproved often. But the Bible says he "hardeneth his neck" and "shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy." That certainly doesn't sound like irresistible grace. The Bible teaches that a man can be reproved over and over again, and that he can harden his neck against God, and as a result will be destroyed without remedy.

Again Proverbs 1:24-26 says,

> "Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded; But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof: I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh."

Here the Bible plainly says, "I have called, and ye have refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded; But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof." That doesn't sound like irresistible grace. God calls, and men refuse. Is that irresistible? God stretches out his hand and no man regards it? Is that irresistible grace? No. The Bible makes it plain that some men do reject Christ, that they refuse His call. John 5:40 says, "Ye will not come to me, that ye may have life." That verse plainly teaches that men can and do resist God and refuse to come to Him.

In Acts chapter 7, we find Stephen preaching. He says in verse 51, "Ye stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye." To these Jewish leaders, Stephen said, "Ye do always resist the Holy Ghost."

So here were people; some of whom had seen Jesus and heard Him preach; others who had heard Peter at Pentecost; others who had heard Stephen and other Spirit-filled men preaching with great power. And what had they done? They were stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears. That is ,they were stubborn and rebellious against God. The Bible plainly says, "They resisted the Holy Ghost."

Notice the words of Stephen in verse 51, "Ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye." Here the Bible teaches that not only were these Jewish leaders resisting the Holy Ghost, but that their fathers before them had also resisted the Holy Spirit. Stephen says that all the way from Abraham, through the history of the Jewish nation, down to the time of Christ, unconverted Jews had resisted the Holy Spirit.

There is absolutely no such thing as a "can't-help-it-religion." God doesn't just force men to be saved with His so-called irresistible grace.

God offers salvation to all men. Titus 1:11 says, "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men." But man must make his own choice. He must either receive or reject Christ . John 1:12 says. "But as many as received him , to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name."

When Jesus wept over Jerusalem, he said, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, ho often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!" Here again the Bible clearly indicates that God would have gathered them together as a hen gathers her chickens, but they would not. That certainly shows that they could reject and resist Christ.

"I would, but ye would not" does not fit the teaching of irresistible grace. So people do resist the Holy Ghost. They do refuse to come to Christ. They do harden their necks. They do refuse when God calls.

That means that those who are not saved could have been saved. Those who have rejected Christ could have accepted Him. God offers salvation to those who will have it, but does not enforce it upon anyone who doesn't want it.

V. Perseverance of the Saints

The Bible teaches, and I believe in, the eternal security of the born-again believer. The man who has trusted Jesus Christ has everlasting life and will never perish. But the eternal security of the believer does not depend on his perseverance.

I do not know a single Bible verse that says anything about the saints' persevering, but there are several Bible verses that mention the fact that the saints have been preserved. Perseverance is one thing. Preservation is another. No. The saints do not persevere; they are preserved.

The Bible states in Jude 1. "Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ..." First Thessalonians 5:23 says, "And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly: and I pray God your whole spirit and soul, and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."

The other morning I opened a jar of peach preserves. I don't know how long those peaches have been in that jar. But the jar had been sealed some time ago, and the peaches were preserved. When I took out the preserves and ate them with a good hot biscuit, they were as good as they were the day they were placed in the jar.

But wait a minute! The peaches had nothing to do with it. They were not fresh and good because they had persevered. They were good and fresh because they had been preserved.

The Bible makes it plain that the believer is kept. He does not keep himself. First Peter 1:4,5 states:

> "To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time."

The Bible says in John 10:27-29:

> "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life: and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all, and no man is able to pluck them out of my Fathers hand."

Now that doesn't sound like perseverance of the sheep or the saints. Here the sheep are in the Fathers hand, and they are safe-not because they persevere, but because they are in the Fathers hand.

Charles Spurgeon once said, "I do not believe in the perseverance of the Saviour."

To be sure, the Bible teaches the eternal security of the believer. But the believer's security has nothing to do with his persevering. We are secure because we are kept by God. We are held in the Father's hand. And according to Ephesians 4:30, we have been sealed by the Holy Spirit until the day of redemption.

So I disagree with all five points of Calvinism as John Calvin taught it.

There is a belief that if one does not teach universal salvation, he must either be a Calvinist or an Arminian. In this book, The Reformed Doctrine of Predestination, Dr. Loraine Boettner says on page 47,

> "There are really only three systems which claim to set forth the way of salvation through Christ [And he names them]:
>
> > "(1) Universalism, that all will be saved. (2) Arminianism, which holds that Christ died equally and indiscriminately for every individual....., that saying grace is not necessarily permanent, but that those who are loved of God, ransomed by God, and born of the Holy Spirit may (let God wish and strive ever so much to the contrary) throw away all and perish eternally; and (3) Calvinism."

He continues,

> "Only two are held by Christians." That is Calvin's position and Arminius' position."

Calvinists would like to make people believe that if one does not teach universal salvation, he must either be a Calvinist or an Arminian. And since the Arminian position does such violence to the grace of God, many preferred to call themselves Calvinists. But a person doesn't have to take either position.

I am neither Arminian nor Calvinist. I believe in salvation by grace through faith in the finished work of Christ. I believe in the eternal security of the believer. I believe that Jesus Christ died for all men, and I believe what the Bible says, "That whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

But I disagree with all five points of Calvinism as John Calvin taught it.

In conclusion, let me say that Calvin and those who followed him claimed to believe and follow the Bible. They claimed to find at least a germ of the Calvinist doctrine in the Scriptures. But a careful student will find that again and again they go beyond Scripture, and that Calvinism is a philosophy developed by man and depending on fallible logic and frail, human reasoning, with the perversion of some Scriptures, the misuse of others, and the total ignoring of many clear Scriptures. Calvin did teach many wonderful, true doctrines of the Scripture.

It is true that God foreknows everything that will happen in the world. It is true that God definitely ordained and determined some events ahead of time and selected some individuals for His purposes. It is certain that people are saved by grace, and are kept by the power of God. That far Calvinists may well their doctrines by the Scriptures. But beyond that, Calvinism goes into the realm of human philosophy.

It is not a Bible doctrine, but a system of human philosophy, especially appealing to the scholarly intellect, the self-sufficient and proud mind. Brilliant, philosophical, scholarly preachers are apt to be misled on this matter more than the humble-hearted, Bible-believing Christian.

OBJECTIONS ANSWERED

Dear Rev _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _:

I have your letter which came recently, objecting to my article, "Why I Disagree With All Five Points of Calvinism." In the second paragraph of page 1, you say, "As to will. . . "Then you spend the next two or three pages talking about will and calling attention to Bible verses. You mention Titus 3:5 where the Bible says, " Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost."

I have just read this section of your letter over several times, and you seem to confuse works with will. For instance, you call attention to Isaiah 64:6 where the Bible says, " all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags. " Trusting Christ for salvation is the opposite of works.

When a man believes that Jesus Christ died for him and fully trusts Jesus to save him, and nothing else, then he's not working for salvation. He's trusting Christ and what Christ did at Calvary.

But it is his own will that he trusts Christ. God doesn't make anyone trust Him. In John 5:40 Jesus said, "Ye will not come to me, that ye might have life." He did not say you cannot come; He said you will not come.

You go on to say in this particular part of your letter, "We are sinners from birth. . . as Adam, we hid ourselves from God."

It is true that Adam hid himself from God. But when God came and called for Adam, Adam answered God of his own will and he came out from his place of hiding of his own will. God did not take Adam by the hand and drag him out of the place of hiding. He simply called and Adam came out. Every man comes to God of his own will.

In Matthew 23:37 Jesus said, "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!"

Still discussing the matter of will, you make reference to Romans 5:12 and say that we are dead in sin. Then you continue, "Note a dead person cannot move, respond, walk, nor anything."

Now, you have a misunderstanding of death. Death is not annihilation. Death is not cessation of existence. Death is simply separation. Physical death is the separation of the soul and spirit from the body, and spiritual death is the separation of the man from God.

In the parable of the prodigal son, when the prodigal returned home the father said, "This my son was dead, and is alive again." The prodigal son was dead in the sense that he was separated from the father. He was certainly capable of making decisions while he was in the far country separated from the father. As a matter of fact, he made the decision and went back to the father. Luke 15:18-20 says, "I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee. And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. And he arose, and came to his father."

Now, here is a dead person who could move, respond, walk, see his need, decide to do something about it, and go to the father. And verse 24 says, "For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found."

Your misunderstanding of death has led you to build a false doctrine based on an illustration, instead of Scripture. In Genesis 2:17 God said to Adam, "..for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die." If you'll read the next few chapters of Genesis, you will find that Adam did not die in the sense of ceasing to exist when he partook of the forbidden fruit. As a matter of fact, Genesis 5:4 says, "And the days of Adam after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years: and he begat sons and daughters." According to this verse, Adam lived eight hundred years after he begat Seth, and Seth was not begotten until after Adam disobeyed God.

Now, was God wrong when He said to Adam, "Thou shalt surely die"? No. Well, did Adam die? Yes, He died in the sense that God drove him from His presence, and he was separated from God because of his sins.

When the Bible says that men are dead in trespasses and sins, that does not mean they cannot move, respond, walk, nor anything as you said in your letter. Adam did a lot of moving and a lot of responding and a lot of walking in the more than 800 years he lived after the fall.

So you see, when the Bible says that "death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned," that "death" is not to be compared with the body of a dead man lying in a casket. I might say that what you see in the casket in the funeral home is really not the man. The body that you're looking at is only the house in which the man lived. The man who lived in that house is still alive. He's either with Christ in Heaven, or he's in Hell, depending on whether or not he trusted Christ as his Saviour. If he's in Heaven, he can certainly move, respond , and walk. And if he's in Hell, he can certainly move, respond, and walk.

I won't take the space to quote the many Bible verses concerning the dead, but I suggest you read the story of the rich man in Luke 16 and you will see that though he had died he could still talk and make decisions. And if you'll read Revelation 6:9-11 and Luke 15: 7 and 10, you will see that people who are in Heaven are conscious. You will see that they rejoice. They talk. They know what's happening on earth, and they ask questions of the Lord. So you're wrong when you compare the spiritually dead state of a sinner with that of a body lying in a casket.

Further in your letter, you tell of a young girl who was supposedly led wrong by what you call Baptist doctrine. You say she accepted Christ, and now she is living immorally and impure.

Now, Mr. _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _, I can only say what the Bible says in Hebrews 12:8, "But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons." If the young girl you mentioned has trusted Christ as Saviour, I can assure you that she has everlasting life and she will be chastened. John 3:36 says, " He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life." Now that's a fact. It's not a matter of what I think about it. It's a matter of what the Bible says. And Hebrews 12:8 makes it clear that those who trusted Christ as Saviour will be chastised.

On page 5 you say, "Now as to perseverance..." and you call attention to Revelation 3:5 and talk about overcoming. You imply that this overcoming is some kind of perseverance or effort.

First John 5:4,5 says, "For whosoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?" Here the Bible says plainly that the victory that overcometh the world is our faith. We overcome the world by trusting Christ, not by persevering.

I made it plain in my article that I believe in eternal security, but the saints are not secure because they persevere. They are secure because they have been preserved. The word "perseverance" is defined in Webster's Dictionary as "a persistent effort." "Preservation" is defined as "the act of keeping or state of being kept from injury or decay."

The victory that overcomes the world is not your perseverance. It is your faith, according to 1 John 5:4.

You close your letter with a P.S., "Note no human is born of his own will but of the will of the parents. Christ says we are to be born again."

Again, you make the mistake of using a human illustration in order to build a Bible doctrine. You seem to make the same mistake that Nicodemus made in John chapter 3. He tried to compare the spiritual birth to the physical birth. In John 3:4 he said to Christ, " How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?"

You cannot compare the physical birth to the spiritual birth. Jesus said in verse 6, "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit." They are two different things. You will be better off if you will build Bible doctrine on what the Bible says rather than on illustrations.

I hope this letter helps you to better understand my position. I want you to re-read the sermon, "Why I Disagree With All Five Points of Calvinism," carefully.

I'm glad you receive THE SWORD OF THE LORD, and I want you to feel free to express your opinions about anything you find written in the paper.

Sincerely in Christ,
Curtis Hutson

6.8.20 The Love Of Money Has Ruined Most Pastors Today (2025-08-16 09:06)

1st Timothy 6:4-12, "

He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself. But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment let us be therewith content. But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses."

The human race is prone to self-deception. Even when we as humans are going astray, being deceived, we still insist that nothing is wrong. Case in point, consider this true quote from famous author Mark Twain: "It's easier to fool people than to convince them that they have been fooled." That is so very true! I have spent the past 20 years of website ministry attempting to open the eyes of misled preachers with THE TRUTH, but most of them have refused to listen. Go figure! You'd think that if anyone in this world would listen to words of truth, it would be a man of the cloth (clergy).

Sadly, that is usually not the case at all. Preachers are among some of the most blinded, stubborn and ungodly of people. But don't take my word for it, listen to what the Word of God says:

- Jeremiah 2:8, "The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit."
- Jeremiah 5:31, "The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?"
- Jeremiah 10:21, "For the pastors are become brutish* (lacking good sense), and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered."

Jeremiah 12:10, "Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness."

- Jeremiah 23:1-2, "Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD. Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD."
- Hosea 4:6, "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children."
- Matthew 15:7-9, "Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

These are but a small handful of hundreds of inspired Scripture passages teaching us that religion is often corrupt, preachers are often false prophets, churches are often cults and worship is often done in vain.

I would like to direct your undivided attention dear reader to Matthew 15:7-8 again:

> Matthew 15:7-9, "Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

Most churchgoers will read this Bible passage and think of obvious cults; such as, Mormonism, Jehovah's Witness, Roman Catholic, The Moonies, Heaven's Gate Cult or the cult of Scientology.

But dear friend, I am also talking about most Baptist churches today! I have been an Independent Fundamental Baptist all my saved life, since age 13. However, I have seen my own denomination become woefully deceived, misled and corrupted over the past 50 years. Not surprisingly, as Calvinism increases in popularity in the United States, so also is [1]Christianity declining in our country. That makes perfect sense when we consider that Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation) is NOT the free grace Gospel taught in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Perhaps no other man did more damage than Dr. John MacArthur, who is infamous for his damnable Lordship Salvation heresy, and denying Jesus' blood sacrifice in Heaven.

The love of money has corrupted 99 % of church pastors and preachers in this generation! I find little genuine concern for people anymore by pastors. I have attended several churches around Pensacola and I can only name one preacher (he's not even the church pastor) who made me feel like he cared about me as a human being. That is so tragic! People just want to be loved folks, but you won't find that love at Campus Church or Pensacola Christian College.

Pastor Jeff Redlin at PCC mistreated me on numerous occasions. I pray for him that God will humble his arrogance and stiffnecked pride, and that he would [2]repent of his Lordship Salvation heresy. Oh, how today's pastors need to be humbled, realizing the truth that: He that is greatest among men must be their humble servant. Jesus Himself spoke those words of truth, and He set the example, washing His disciple's dirty feet. May we all be more like our dear precious caring Savior. Jesus is precious!!!

6.8.21 God Uses Simple Plain Unknown People To Serve Him (2025-08-17 13:16)

Amos 7:12-15, “

Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there: But prophesy not again any more at Bethel: for it is the king’s chapel, and it is the king’s court. Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was an herdman, and a gatherer of sycomore fruit: And the LORD took me as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Israel."

I love this story from the book of Amos in the Old Testament. Amos was a humble prophet to the northern nation of Israel. God sent Amos in 765 BC to preach to the city of Bethel with the message: "prepare to meet thy God, O Israel." (Amos 4:12b). Time and time again God had sternly warned Israel to repent of her sins, but she refused. That prophecy of certain doom became a reality 44 years later in 721 BC when the northern kingdom was invaded, conquered and led away into captivity by Assyria.

Something that greatly intrigues me is that God didn't seek a man from the local religious college, priesthood or intelligencia of the day to preach His Word, the Lord came to a herdman who gathered sycamore fruit. Amos 7:14-15, " Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was an herdman, and a gatherer of sycomore fruit: And the LORD took me as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Israel." I love that! Amos wasn't a preacher at all, nor was his father a preacher; and yet, God came to this humble shepherd and commissioned him to go preach the truth to a needy people, Israel.

It is interesting that Amos lived in Judah. God told the humble herdsman to go preach judgment to the northern kingdom. Amos went to Bethel up north. I find it very interesting that God didn't call a man from the northern kingdom. After Judas perished, the remaining apostles had chosen two men as candidates to replace Judas. When they asked God which man they should choose, God instead chose Saul who was infamous and feared for murdering Christians. So you see dear reader, God doesn't always do things that make sense to us. It would make better sense to us if God should have chose a preacher to go preach to Israel, but He didn't, the Lord chose to use a herdsman and gatherer of sycamore fruit.

Just like every truth-teller knows, there is always an enemy trying to silence us. The false prophet Amaziah was a troublemaker who attempted to silence Amos. Amos 7:12-13, "

Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there: But prophesy not again any more at Bethel: for it is the king's chapel, and it is the king's court." Wicked Amaziah told Amos to go elsewhere!

Incidentally, that is the same exact wicked thing that [1]Pastor Marty Herron said to me in 2014 at the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam—a cesspool of fake bibles, Lordship Salvation, false prophets and wrong repentance! I befriended the [2]pastors at Harvest Baptist Church with THE TRUTH. I bought several books by fundamentalist Bible preachers with my own money to help them see the truth, for which I was kicked out of their church (cult). Pastor Herron literally said to me concerning attending a church, "

Go elsewhere!

" Woe be unto him, not only for kicking me out of their church, but moreover, for rejecting THE TRUTH that I placed directly into his hands. These were the truthful books that I handed him:

1. [3]I Never Knew You (by Michael P. Bowen)
2. Somebody's Got To Milk The Cows (Pastor Jack Hyles; [4]here's the MP3 sermon)
3. [5]NIV: The Antichrist's Bible (Pastor Al Lacy)
4. [6]Martin Luther: Master Of Deceit (by Pastor Max D. Younce)

It is absolutely shocking that I was kicked out of Harvest Baptist Church in for sharing these four truthful books with their incompetent pastors. Pastor Herron's successor Gary Walton is just as bad, another wicked Lordship Salvation preaching fool. They are pulling on the same rope as the Devil at Harvest, preaching the [7]exact same plan of salvation as the Seventh-Day Adventist cult. Just like wicked Amaziah rebuked and tried to silence the prophet Amos; so also did the wicked pastors at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam, Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, Family Baptist Church in Pensacola and other cults rebuke and try to silence me. I am not for sale! I WON'T SHUT UP!

I am just a nobody like Amos, but thank God that He uses nobodies to get the job done. Dear saint of God, the Lord is willing to make use of you if you are available and willing to serve.

When the Lord came to Moses and commanded him to deliver the Hebrews out of bondage in Egypt, Moses made numerous excuses. Exodus 4:1-2, "

And Moses answered and said, But, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The LORD hath not appeared unto thee. And the LORD said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he said, A rod." All Moses had was a rod in his hand.

Yet, God used that rod to bring the Ten Plagues upon Egypt. God used that rod to part the Red Sea, so that the Hebrews could walk across on dry ground. God used that rod to bring forth water from the rock and many other divine miracles. God doesn't need your money, resources, skills or talents dear reader, but He will gladly make use of them if you will yield to His will.

Amos was a herdsman and a gatherer of sycamore fruit, yet God used him for His purpose and glory, to make an eternal impact for Heaven. [8]I am a VOICE!

6.8.22 Beware Of 'UNSHACKLED' Radio's Deadly False Gospel (2025-08-18 09:03)

Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

I was listening to 'UNSHACKLED' today. I've heard a couple dozen episodes over the past couple days. I wanted to vomit as I heard PGM spewing their lies of LORDSHIP SALVATION, WRONG REPENTANCE and OTHER HERESIES!

Case in point is 'UNSHACKLED' program #3590 (aired in 2019). A man named Matthew gets a flat tire and stops in a little church, meeting a church member named Ted, who listens to Matthew's troubled life's story and offers this horrible advice:

> "I believe God loves you, and wants you to invite Him into your life. I believe that is the change you may be looking for!"

This type of junk theology saturates the UNSHACKLED series! Folks, you don't get saved by "inviting Jesus into your life"! Judas invited Jesus into his life, becoming one of Christ's very apostles, but Judas had a devil in him (John 6:70), and went to Hell.

In little later in the UNSHACKLED program (after being coached by his religious sister to "REPENT and RECEIVE THE INVITATION"), Matthew prays and tells Jesus that he wants Him to be his Savior, but there is no mention of Christ's death, burial or resurrection (The Gospel). Matthew says:

> "I got up from my knees and I was free. I was new. That day God delivered me from my addictions! Within minutes of my spiritual salvation, he took away my impulse to use [drugs]."

Folks, that is junk theology! Here is the truth...

> "Good character is not formed in a week or a month. It is created little by little, day by day. Protracted and patient effort is needed to develop good character." —Heraclitus of Ephesus (535-475 BC)

What saith the Scripture? ...

> Romans 12:1-2, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

I am unalterably opposed to Pacific Garden Mission's junk theology, which says that a sinner must "REPENT and BELIEVE" (two steps) to be saved. The problem is that PGM wrongly understands repentance to mean full surrender to Christ, and to turn away from one's sins. This is the heresy of Lordship Salvation. I am against the heretical idea that if a person comes to Christ, they will instantaneously be changed. The only difference when you get saved is the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit of God (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24).

As I just showed you from Romans 12:1-2, the Bible says we are TRANSFORMED (changed), by the RENEWING OF OUR MIND. This is very different than the false message being propagated by UNSHACKLED that your life will immediately change at the time of salvation. It is junk theology, meaning it is not Biblical; it is JUNK!!!

Growing in grace takes time. Granted, you cannot sit under the Word of God and not be changed! Romans 10:17, "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." However, it takes time for a new believer to change, as they are renewed in their mind by the Word of God (Romans 12:1-2). That is why I am very much against the junk theology being promoted by Pacific Garden Mission's 'UNSHACKLED' radio program, which relentlessly promotes the idea that the moment a person comes to Jesus Christ, they will instantly become a 'new creature' in behavior, and all desire to commit sin will be gone forever! PGM errantly understands this to be repentance.

When they tell people to "REPENT and BELIEVE" in all their UNSHACKLED episodes, what they really mean is to turn away from your sins AND then also place your faith in Christ. It is a TWO STEP false plan of salvation! What they are really saying is that a person must commit to KEEPING THE LAW before Christ will accept their faith in Him for salvation. This is "ANOTHER GOSPEL," which is accursed by God (Galatians 1:6-7). [1]Case in point!

The Corrupt 'UNSHACKLED' Religious Experience of Debbie Brooks

Many of UNSHACKLED's heart-touching stories are a nice fairytale, but they are not Scriptural! Here is PGM's 'GO TO' Bible passage—2nd Corinthians 5:17-18, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;" There is a fine line between faith and foolishness! God knows that I am not trying to be negative, nor criticize Pacific Garden Mission without a cause; but rather, they are pressuring sinners to make a commitment to turn away from sin to be saved, which is not true.

For example: In UNSHACKLED [2]program #3589 (aired in 2020), a woman named Debbie Brooks meets with a religious friend named Sharon:

> SHARON: Trusting Jesus is the only thing that can make a difference in my messed-up life.
>
> DEBBIE: I keep hearing that in church, but I don't get it—how something that EASY can be a life-changer.
>
> SHARON: Oh Debbie, it's not easy—believing in Jesus means repenting and asking forgiveness for all the old ways, and then GIVING THEM UP FOR GOOD. When you find the COURAGE TO DO THAT, He'll help you CHANGE YOUR LIFE.

DEBBIE: Huh, well, I'll have to think about it.

Dear reader, what you just read taught by Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago is of the Devil, straight out of the pits of Hell. I hope you see how evil this is. According to this UNSHACKLED program, it is NOT EASY to be saved; because you are required to GIVE UP YOUR OLD SINFUL WAYS PERMANENTLY! That is "another gospel" accursed by God!

Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

Pacific Garden Mission are PREACHING ANOTHER GOSPEL!!!

The Gospel is not open to embellishment. There is a certain degree of allowable semantics in presenting God's plan of salvation, but the Gospel itself is set in concrete! Here it is:

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

There you have it—Jesus DIED, was BURIED, and miraculously RESURRECTED three days later. There is no mention of turning away from sins, forsaking the old ways for good, speaking in tongues, getting water baptized, joining a church, praying, confessing Jesus publicly, nor of anything else to be saved! The apostle Paul said this is, 'THE GOSPEL,' which Jesus personally gave to Him.

Galatians 1:11-12, "But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ."

The Corrupt 'UNSHACKLED' Religious Experience of Angel Feliciano

I listened to [3]p[4]rogram #3588 (aired in 2019) about a Hispanic man named Angel Feliciano. Unfortunately, PGM uses a lot of junk theology, and I am simply trying to help believers solidify their faith, by exposing the unbiblical teachings of UNSHACKLED radio. For example: Toward the end of this episode, the UNSHACKLED narrator says:

> "Jesus will gladly receive you, and he wants you to receive Him. He wants a relationship with you. Angels' life changed forever when he asked Jesus Christ into his heart. The same can happen for you if you so desire. Just talk to the Lord. Tell Him you're sorry for the sins in your life. Receive Him as your Savior and trust in Him. It's that simple!" [emphasis added]

There are a few problems with the preceding corrupt plan of salvation:

> First, having "A RELATIONSHIP" is not part of the Gospel. Judas had a relationship with Jesus, but still went to hell in his unbelief.
>
> Second, you don't have to "ASK" Jesus to save you, because He has already paid for all your sins on the cross with His precious blood; Jesus is OFFERING you eternal life.
>
> Third, you don't have to "TALK TO THE LORD" to be saved. All the Bible teaches is that you "BELIEVE" on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved (Acts 16:30-31).
>
> Fourth, don't get saved by "ASKING JESUS INTO YOUR HEART." A heart is a muscle twice the size of your fist, that pumps blood 100,000 times per day!
>
> Fifth, you don't have to receive Jesus as your Savior AND trust Him. To receive Christ is to trust Him, and to trust Jesus is to receive Him!
>
> Sixth, you don't have to "[5]BE SORRY" for your sins to be saved. You don't have to "BE SORRY" for your sins to be saved. We are ALL guilty at some point in our Christian life of embellishing the Gospel with junk theology. I used to tell people to 'invite Jesus into their heart' many years ago, but when I learned that it was unbiblical, I immediately stopped doing it! I question everything now!!!
>
> Seventh, there is NO MENTION OF THE GOSPEL. Where is Jesus' death, burial and bodily resurrection the third day? The Bible plainly defines 'THE GOSPEL' in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 as Jesus' death on the cross, burial and literal physical resurrection. Tragically, religious people everywhere are guilty of corrupting the accuracy of the Gospel, by embellishing and changing it (2nd Peter 3:16-17). They don't do it on purpose; but rather, because they are woefully ignorant, and many are still unsaved. A false gospel cannot produce the new birth (John 1:12-13).

Much unnecessary worry, fear and uncertainty are caused by the lie of Lordship Salvation. No one ought to wonder if their life has changed enough to prove they're saved.

Dear friend, if you need to look at your life to prove you're saved, IT PROVES THAT YOU'RE NOT!!! Eternal life is a completely free gift, which imposes no obligations or demands on the recipient. You simply come as a guilty sinner and receive God's free gift of eternal life, by believing the record given in the Holy Bible of Jesus Christ, Who died in your place on the cross. Simply receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. I love this powerful quote by Dr. Yankee Arnold:

> "There is power in this Gospel message. Most people just don't know how to present it... The clarity of the Gospel is what makes it easy for them to believe." —Pastor "Yankee" Arnold, a quote from the excellent MP3 sermon titled, "[6]WHY GRACE CAN SAVE THE WORST MAN!"

6.8.23 The Love Of Money Doesn't Mix With Serving God (2025-08-19 18:21)

1st Timothy 6:3-5, " If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness; He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself."

I cringe in my soul when a Christian tells me that they want to start a new ministry for Jesus Christ. The reason I cringe is because 99 % of people want money. The love (desire) for money does not bode well with serving God. When I started my [1]Jesus-is-Savior.com website ministry 23 years ago in April of 2002, I decided in my heart of hearts that I would never take a penny for my ministry labors, and by God's grace I still haven't. I have never asked for, accepted nor hinted that I want money from anybody, and I never will by God's grace. My ministry is a labor of love for God, truth and people. I just humbly want to be a blessing for Christ to others.

Sadly, I have had umpteen Christians contact me over the years to ask for my advice and help to start a new ministry for the Lord Jesus Christ. I already know before they even say a word that they very likely intend to ask people for donations, sell things or somehow use their so-called to make money. That being said, the inspired Holy Bible does teach that a man who preaches the Gospel can live off the Gospel. 1st Corinthians 9:14, "

ministry

Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

Unfortunately, this is one of the most abused passages in the Bible. There are women on YouTube who preach the Gospel, while teaching heresies at the same time, begging for financial donations with PayPal. Renee Roland is one of them. I do not support her work. Women are not permitted to preach the Word of God. If it's wrong for a woman to preach in the church, and it certainly is wrong (1st Timothy 2:11-12), it's wrong for her to preach on social media.

Kindly said, [2]Renee falsely teaches that Christ-rejecting sinners won't spend eternity burning in the fires of Hell. [3]Renee also teaches that Jesus is not the eternal Son of God. She is unlearned in the Scripture, preaching the same annihilation lie of the dangerous Jehovah's Witness and Seventh-Day Adventist cults. Renee asks for money to be donated to her PayPal account, which I think is very wrong for her to do. She is not qualified to teach for multiple reasons. I do not hate Renee, nor anyone else. I don't hold a personal grudge against her, but the Bible is clear that women are not supposed to teach men.

Another YouTube channel is JackSmack77 ([4]Matthew Gordon Correll). Matthew is just plain mean sometimes to people. He is wrong on some doctrinal issues, such as his hyper-grace view that Christ-rejecters today who once professed faith in Christ are still saved. That is untrue! No one is saved who denies Christ, and they never were saved to begin with (1st John 2:19). Matthew begs for money on his videos with links to his Pay Pal account. I think this is shameful. I am against the tens of thousands of religious people today who are exploiting Christianity to make a buck in Jesus' name.

And please let me say, that you should never give any money to anyone who is not a legitimate man of God who is getting the job done for Christ. Nobody on YouTube needs your money to continue what they are doing. They just want your money. I spend about $1,000 each year for my VPS (Virtual Private Server) web hosting package for my seven ministry websites. I need VPS because of the massive amount of resources that my ministry websites uses for the millions of visitors annually. Praise God! I humbly pay that all myself. God has been faithful to provide for me over the years, so that I have never needed to depend on my ministry followers for help. I have never asked for, nor taken, a penny from anyone for my ministry. God has been good and faithful to provide for my ministry work. Thank you Lord!

The tragic truth is that 95 % of people interested in ministry work want money. A man recently contacted me, who expressed his interest in starting a new ministry. I commended him for it. I always encourage Christians to start new ministries, or help existing legitimate one's. And let me say that no one has a genuine ministry for Christ unless a free grace Gospel is being preached. There are literally tens of thousands of so-called today that fail to present any type of plan of salvation, let alone the free grace Gospel that saves men (Romans 1:16).

The man expressed his interest in starting a preacher's bootcamp to indoctrinate them with the fundamental truths of the Bible. I don't like to beat around the bush and deceive people, so I told him the harsh truth to make sure he wasn't wearing rose-colored glasses. I told him that since he is not a well-known name in the fundamentalist Christian world, he wouldn't have any followers. I mean, if Eric Clapton offers to teach a guitar class, several thousand people will enroll because he is a world renowned guitar player. But if I offer to teach a guitar class, two people might show up...lol.

I also frankly told the man who desires to start a ministry, that if he plans to ask people for money he likely won't succeed. I am sick and tired of Christians wanting money for serving God.

” As I mentioned earlier, if a man is a full-time ordained preacher of the Gospel, then it is okay for him to get paid for his labors. However, I absolutely don’t think this means that anyone who knows a verse or two, and starts a YouTube channel or website, should be begging for donations. It has become a big problem folks.

There are thousands of unlearned people who are woefully ignorant of the Scripture, using social media to beg for money. Americans love to give! We are a generous society. That is why religious con men like Benny Hinn, Joel Osteen, Franklin Graham and Pat Robertson have been so successful at parasiting off of the sincere naïve masses. I have encouraged my ministry followers at Jesus-is-Savior.com for the past 23 years, since 2002, to be very reluctant and careful to whom you give money. I refuse to donate a penny to any so-called “ c or ministry that doesn’t go soulwinning. To my shame, in the past I have tithed in corrupt churches, but I will never make that foolish decision again.

Remember dear reader, our money as saints is really the Lord’s. 1st Corinthians 6:20,

“

For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s.

” That

“price” was the precious literal blood of Jesus, which He shed on the cross to pay our debt of sin. The “place” where Jesus applied His blood is the Mercy Seat in Heaven in the Holy Place (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24). The blood of the precious Lamb of God had to be applied (sprinkled) in the right place. That is how I know Pastor John MacArthur (1939-2025) was a damnable false prophet, because [5]he openly denied that Jesus’ blood was applied to the heavenly Mercy Seat. Don’t believe anyone who errantly teaches that Jesus’ blood wasn’t applied in Heaven to the Mercy Seat, in the presence of God’s the Father on our behalf.

In the Old Testament, the LORD was looking for the lamb’s blood APPLIED to the doorposts and lintel (plate above the door) of each home. Killing the lamb wouldn’t have been enough, the blood had to be applied (Exodus 12:22-23). Exodus 12:13, “

And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

” The blood of Jesus absolutely needed to be APPLIED in Heaven!!!

By the way, this is why I reject the popular false teaching that redemption was finished on the cross. When Jesus uttered the words

“It is finished” (John 19:30), He was simply referring to all Old Testament prophecies concerning Himself, which the Bible plainly says in the text.

John 19:28, “ After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.” At this point, Jesus still hadn’t died, been buried, nor resurrected from the dead, which are

according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-6. So, redemption could NOT have been finished on Calvary’s cross. THE BLOOD STILL HADN’T BEEN APPLIED IN HEAVEN TO THE MERCY SEAT!!! Only when Christ’s blood was sprinkled upon the heavenly Mercy Seat was redemption truly completely for humanity.

Anyone can definitely serve God. There are thousands of opportunities to serve the Lord everywhere. But as far as wanting to make money, that will likely be difficult unless you are already a well-known established name in your field. When I started my website ministry back in 2002 making money didn’t interest me, nor has the thought at any point entered into my mind along the way. I couldn’t care less about making money. Money brings headaches, worries and problems (1st Timothy 6:9-10). Happy is the man who serves God freely with a servant’s heart, not continually conniving how he can make more money. One of the reasons why after 23 years I still haven’t compromised my Bible preaching is simply because I don’t preach to get money. There’s just something about money that once you have it, it has you!

I hate what the love of money does to corrupt people.

There are literally tens of thousands of people, quote on quote "serving God" today who want money. There are so many personal ministries asking for money that it has become a racket on social media, sad but true. When I tell people this truth, they become offended. ...

> 1st Timothy 6:9-12, “ But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.
> But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.”

Years ago, a Christian man who worked as a police officer asked for my help to start a website ministry. I humbly agreed on the condition that he wouldn’t beg for money with his ministry. I never heard from him again. I’m not interested in helping other believers make money!

I have had several dozen people contact me over the years offering to do a link exchange with me. That is, they promote my ministry website in exchange for my website promoting their stuff. It will be a cold day in Hell before I ever sell out to do that. I am not for sale!

I even had the ungodly unrepentant sinners from the perverse Satanic “

Girls Gone Wild

” business

contact me, wanting to exchange website links. I told them kindly to go to Hell. The fact that they would even offer such a wicked deal to a fundamentalist Bible preacher shows how evil they are in their hardened hearts.

I thought it would be good to write a blog about money in relation to serving God. The two things just don’t mix well. Nothing has done more to harm true Christianity than the abundance of greedy charlatans, con men, liars and crooks who prey upon the weak, gullible and foolish. Television preachers are notoriously corrupt, deceptive and evil. But the average local church today is no better, deceiving the people concerning God's simple plan of salvation. When a pastor insists that you must "

repent of your sins

to get to Heaven, he is pulling on the same rope as the Devil, lying to you. That pastor is a lying false prophet!!!

I encourage every believer to use whatever talents, skills and resources you have to serve God. That being said, please don't seek what a ministry can do for you. President John F. Kennedy is famous for saying: "Ask not what your country can do for you; ask what you can do for your country." The same thing can be applied to every child of God. Ask not what a ministry can do for you; ask what your ministry can do for Christ.

About twenty years ago I contacted The Gospel Radio Hour ministry started by Pastor Oliver B. Greene (1915-1976). I kindly requested permission to type out some of Dr. Greene's Bible study books. His greedy son refused and threatened to sue me if I did. To my understanding Dr. Greene's sons are attorneys. It saddens me how greedy religious people have become.

Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) founded the Sword Of The Lord ministry in 1934. Sadly, many changes have taken place at the Sword since, some good and some bad. A good thing is that the present editor, Dr. Shelton Smith, has taken the Sword of the Lord King James Bible only. This is a drastic departure from the position of Dr. Rice, who used and promoted some of the Devil's corrupt modern Bible revisions. Dr. Rice did not believe that the King James Bible is inspired nor perfect, but I certainty DO think it is inspired and perfect (and so also did Pastor Jack Hyles think the King James Bible is inspired and perfect

I was saddened recently to find an article online where Dr. Rice's daughters criticize Dr. Shelton Smith, falsely accusing him of running the Sword of the Lord into the ground by taking it King James Bible only. That is terrible! Dr. Smith has rightly and courageously taken the ministry in the right direction by rejecting all of the Devil's modern Bible revisions, which are all horribly corrupt and based on the perverse Greek of Westcott and Hort.

That being said, I am very disappointed with Dr. Shelton Smith for not contending for the faith once delivered unto the saints. The [6]Sword of the Lord promotes advertisements for the apostate cesspool of iniquity at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), which institution [7]preaches hard core Lordship Salvation today. I contacted the Sword of the Lord in 2023 on their website to warn them to please stop promoting PCC, but they blew me off and didn't even bother to reply. SHAME on Dr. Shelton Smith and the Sword of the Lord for wickedly bidding Godspeed to false prophets! [8]According to PCC's Campus Church, you must be willing to forsake your sinful bad habits to get to Heaven, which is another gospel. [9]RUN from PCC! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

The tragic and sad truth is that 99 % of so-called "

would vanish overnight if the people who run them stopped making money. God never intended for Christianity to become an exploitive means for people to make money. It seems that everybody and their dog today wants to start a new ministry to beg for donations. It makes God vomit! Truly, the love (desire) of money is the root of all evil (1st Timothy 6:10). No man of God should desire to make money, lest it influence his preaching.

All across America today henpecked pastors are afraid to preach the truth against the evils of bossy feminist women—marriage wreckers, meddlers, gossipers, who wear their immodest pants and blaspheme the inspired Word of God by doing so. We've got a bunch of girly-boy wimps, entertainers, intellects and psychologists in dead church pulpits today; instead of rip-snortin', shingle-pullin', barn-stormin', window-rattlin', truth-tellin', people-lovin',

Hellfire and damnation, BIBLE

PREACHERS! Ninety-nine percent of pastors today are not preachers!

By God's grace, from the day I began my website ministry back in 2002, my sincere heart's desire as a born-again fundamentalist Bible preacher has always been to give myself away to others for Christ. I have never wanted anything in return except the heavenly treasures which God promises to his children who faithfully serve Him on earth (Matthew 6:19-21; 1st Corinthians 3:8-9). That requires faith, to believe that God will make good on His promise.

Yet, I hear so many professed Christians today talking about starting a ministry and they all sadly want money. Where is their faith? I will never use my ministry to make money. No thank you, I am not interested. My reward is waiting for me in Heaven. That being said, my greatest reward will be all the souls saved and lives changed by God's Holy Spirit, who works through my humble labor for Jesus Christ.

Having said all that, if you are determined to part with your hard-earned money dear reader, please make sure to give your donation to a free grace Gospel ministry, and not to some Lordship Salvation false prophet. Remember, you are accountable to God for every penny He has entrusted to you. Please don't ever give a penny to any corrupt church that doesn't use only the King James Bible. Make sure they preach a free grace Gospel that doesn't mix in repenting of your sins to be saved, which is a counterfeit plan of salvation. Don't ever give money to any church where the pastor is living large; high on the hog as the old adage goes. I admit that in the past I have tithed to corrupt churches, but I will never do that again. I was a fool. So, in this regard, please don't be like me, be better than me!

I just want to be a blessing to others and I don't want anyone's money. I am just thankful that you are here reading my humble ministry blog. THANK YOU! Jesus is precious!!!

6.8.24 Helpful Resources For God’s Simple Plan Of Salvation (2025-08-20 18:12)

Luke 1:76-79, “

And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways; To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins,Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us, To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.”

People often email my ministry and ask for help to overcome their fear of not being saved. The following resources are

These handful of resources that I just shared with you should keep you busy for a couple weeks if you take the time to go through them properly. It frustrates me when people email to ask for my help to settle their doubts about salvation, and I share a bunch of resources with them, but then they write back the next day worrying again. It is obvious that they brushed off the resources I shared with them. These helpful resources are useless unless you take the time to study them. I encourage you to read the books, listen to the sermons and learn all that you can about God's simple plan of salvation.

Please don't misunderstand, you don't need to learn all these things to get saved and know your name is written in Heaven in the Lamb's Book of Life. That being said, I am sharing these resources with everyone just in case you are experiencing concern, fear, worry and doubt about being saved. Every believer should and can KNOW that you are 100 % saved. That is why I am sharing these invaluable resources to help others who have doubts.

Many people struggle needlessly with their salvation simply because they've been lied to by some false prophet who told them they aren't really saved if their life hasn't changed, or if they haven't forsaken the world and stopped their sinful bad habits. Such false teachings are alien to the inspired King James Bible. Only the [27]Devil's modern corrupt Bible revisions add the requirement to turn from your sins to be saved, perverting the inspired Word of God into a lie (Romans 1:25). RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

It is my privilege and honor to freely help others for Christ.

THANK YOU for reading my ministry blog!

6.8.25 The March Of Tyranny To A New World Order (2025-08-21 11:39)

Revelation 17:10-12, “And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition. And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.”

[1]It has been reported in the news that President Joe Biden’s Administration and complicit Democrats, along with the former DHS secretary, colluded with the United Nations to give $6 billion to a conglomerate of over 200 non-government organizations (NGOs) to facilitate the largest illegal immigration invasion in U.S. history. This criminal invasion into the U.S. was conceived and orchestrated under President Biden’s watch, with migrants reaching nearly every congressional district, changing the face of the nation and its representation.

Truth is stranger than fiction. I need to go watch The Outer Limits for a dose of sanity. I heard on the news this week that multi-billionaire Warren Buffet is funding ICE protesters around the country. There should be laws against subversive groups, plots and activists like that.

Regarding President Trump’s efforts to deport illegal aliens, I cannot help but suspect that the same subversive powers behind bringing the illegals into the U.S., are the same subversive powers which are creating all the chaos now. I have a hard time believing that after a series of blatantly corrupt evil U.S. presidents that by some chance of luck we finally have an honest president who will do right by the people.

When I lived in Chicago for 37 years, Richard M. Daley was the mayor for decades from 1989 to 2011. Unlike his predecessors like Michael Bilandic, Jane Byrne and Harold Washington who dropped the ball as Chicago mayor’s, Mayor Daley (son of famous mob boss, Mayor Richard J. Daley) was good to the people on the surface. He invested in upkeeping the city’s parks, reliable trash collection and prompt snow removal. Yet behind the scenes he (like his father) was closely associated with the mob and much scandals and theft of taxpayer revenue.

I remember in 2000 that the long planned $150,000,000 Millennial Park project wasn’t completed. It ended up costing taxpayers $450,000,000 and wasn’t finished until 2004. These type of scandals were common under Daley. I remember hearing in the news that empty semi-trucks were sitting idle all day at various worksites around the city, being charged to taxpayers, as a way of ripping off the public. Operation Silver Shuttle is another one, but I’ll spare you the details. Financial scandals were commonplace in Chicago, known as "The Windy City" due to it’s corrupt politics.

That being said, likewise President Trump is being good to the people on the surface, but behind the scenes I am not so optimistic about him. Satan is still the god of this world (2nd Corinthians 4:4). The Satanic cult of Freemasonry still controls our government. Joe Biden was declared a Master Mason on sight by the Prince Hall Grand Lodge of South Carolina on January 19, 2025, the day before he left office. You couldn’t make this stuff up! President Biden did the sinister work of his puppeteers while in office for 4 years, further wreaking chaos, confusion and division in society. Now we see President Trump implementing a Police State, which I am convinced in the long run will help further the evil New World Order.

The bottom line is that when Mr. Trump leaves office in 2029, over a million abortions will still be happening each year across the United States. Sodomites will still be getting married and legally adopting children. Most women will still be wickedly walking around almost entirely nude wherever there is water, and ungodly pastor's wives will still be wickedly wearing their ungodly whorish pants. We've lost our goodness as a nation, and no amount of improving the economy will make such a perverse nation "great" again. Only a humble return to decency, morality, concern for our fellow mankind, ethics, and moreover faith in God will restore greatness to our country.

In short, I simply don't trust President Trump. He has shown total disregard for the 62,064 ruthlessly murdered Palestinians in Gaza. To add insult to injury, we are witnessing 1948 all over again, seeing the people of Palestine wickedly forced at gunpoint from their homes and their land is being stolen once again. God took the land away from Israel in 586 BC because of their idolatry and rebellion, and it won't be restored to the Israelites until the Second coming of Jesus Christ in power. That land belongs to God!

In lieu of Mr. Trump's disturbing remarks this week about trying to earn his way to Heaven, which he has also made in the past, I am convinced that he is not a born again Christian. I applaud his ridding the government of DEI. Praise God! I am glad that he is now going after The Smithsonian to stop their perpetual damaging racist propaganda and tearing down of our nation's image. I love that he made the military rehire all of the soldiers (with full backpay) who were fired for refusing to take the potentially lethal COVID-19 injection. Bravo! I support his tariffs, it's about time to stop letting China and other countries rip us off!

My gut feeling is that the next incompetent Democrat U.S. President will greatly undo much of the good that President Trump is now accomplishing. I wouldn't be surprised to see a return to the flood of illegal immigrants into our country.

It is clear to me that no one man like Joe Biden or Donald Trump, or anyone else, could ever have the unfathomable power to get away with the monumental things which they have done. It is obvious to me that the Masonic subversive evil powers working behind the scenes want this all to happen. Case in point: Over ten million illegals were horribly allowed (literally welcomed by Democrats) to illegally flood (unscreened) into our country under Biden, while the authorities sat back and did nothing to stop or even slow the influx of criminals across the border; but now the illegals are being rounded up by Republicans and deported via thug Police State tactics? This is insanity! No private institution could ever operate, thrive or even continue to exist with such incompetent leadership. I simply do not buy into the ridiculous idea that this all "just happened." Clearly, this chaos was all planned ahead and executed.

Jesus plainly taught that no house divided against itself can stand. I humbly believe that the American people are being played like a violin, foolishly buying into yet another elaborate deception intended to usher in a tyrannical New World Order.

6.8.26 The Need For Biblical Separation Concerning Repentance (2025-08-22 08:57)

2nd Corinthians 6:14-18, "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord*, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty."

The reason why most churches today are preaching a counterfeit gospel that requires being willing to forsake your sinful bad habits to get to Heaven, is simply because those churches are not separated from the heathen religious world. Go verify what I say and you will see that I am absolutely correct, that every pseudo-Christian religious denomination today teaches that you must turn away from your sinful behavior to be saved. Here, I will shew you...

Case in point, here is a disturbing comparison between the false teachings of [1]Mormonism and John MacArthur. They are identical concerning their damnable repentance heresies.

Here is a disturbing comparison between [2]what the Jehovah's Witnesses teach, and what John MacArthur, Paul Washer and Ray Comfort teach. The similarities are alarmingly undeniable!

Also, the Roman Catholic understanding of repentance is unbiblical. Roman Catholics corrupt the meaning of

to mean a change of lifestyle. As do nearly all false prophets, the following description of repentance starts off with the correct meaning of “a change of mind,” and then subtly perverts the meaning by the end of the paragraph to mean “a change of lifestyle.” This common form of deception is called the tactic...

“

Bait and Switch

> But what does it mean to truly repent? The Greek word for repentance that is used in the Gospel is metanoia, which literally means "to change one’s mind." This "change" of "mind" necessarily entails a profound interior conversion in which we firmly turn from worldly darkness, and embrace a new way of life as Christ’s disciples. Thus repentance is not merely to know of Christ, nor is it a matter of picking and choosing—with an intellectual arrogance—some aspects of our Lord’s teaching while coldly rejecting others; rather, it is a union of mind, heart and soul to the Person of Christ. To repent is to die to Christ, discarding our former way of life in favor of the Way, Truth, and Life that is Christ himself. [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [3]A Lenten Reflection On Repentance — Catholic Online

Where in the Bible are we taught that repentance means to “DIE TO CHRIST?” We are saved by trusting Jesus, nothing else. Then as a Christian, which is discipleship not sonship, God wants us to be crucified with Christ and die to the lusts and desires of the flesh. Please understand that the saved life and the crucified life are separate. If you combine the two, you have a corrupted Gospel—a false plan of salvation.

Pastor Jack Hyles does a wonderful job explaining this truth in his awesome MP3 sermon titled, “ [4]STEPS TO SANCTIFICATION; OR, THE ROOT OF ALL HERESY .” We are saved by trusting Jesus, period. Whether or not you turn away from the old lifestyle of sin DOESN’T keep you from being saved. That is because eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15; Ephesians 2:8-9). You can be saved by simply coming to God by faith as a needy sinner, receiving Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, but then bodily raised-up from the dead three days later. This is “t he gospel

” (THE GOOD NEWS) by which all who BELIEVE IT are saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-6; Romans 1:16).

Tragically, the primary reason why most Baptist churches today have been horribly corrupted doctrinally is because of the corrupt Bible colleges that train future pastors. Case in point is the cesspool of iniquity at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), [5]who preach another gospel. I was shocked on page 60 of a “ booklet which PCC’s Campus Church mailed to my home in Pensacola. When I read PCC’s counterfeit plan of salvation, I cringed in horror. What I am about to show you is straight from PCC and Satan dear reader:

> “REPENTANCE — Now is the time to turn from your sin and embrace God. The act of turning away from sin is called ’repentance.’ This word implies an inward decision to follow and obey God’s will instead of your self-serving sins. It means changing your mind about sin and seeing it as something that grieves God. The Bible says that God patiently waits for all people to make this decision.” [emphasis added]

Oh my God! Do you still think I bumped my head? I’ve been [6]exposing the cult at Bob Jones University (BJU) since 2014, and now I have been exposing the cult at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) since 2021. By God’s grace, I will continue to expose these wicked bastardized organizations who are no longer legitimate Bible colleges. Please do not trust your impressionable child to them, lest you feed your son or daughter to the wolves! I am 58 years old and a humble father to four precious adult children, and nine wonderful grandchildren, so I understand family. Trust me, you don’t want your kids in a place like PCC, where by example your children will learn to become superficial people [7]without truly caring about individuals. In God’s family every individual matters; but at PCC the cult system always comes first.

Kindly said, I wouldn’t enroll a dog at BJU, PCC, Moody Bible Institute, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary (a preacher’s cemetery), or any one of the literally hundreds of corrupt Bible colleges today in America! They all teach the Devil’s fallacies of Lordship Salvation, Misunderstood Repentance; and they all either use the Devil’s corrupt Bible revisions, or refuse to expose them. PCC uses the King James Bible, but refuses to expose Satan’s modern corrupt Bible perversions, which PCC foolishly deems “

No, PCC’s leadership is retarded!

Dear reader, I care. I know such a concept is shocking to this untoward generation today, but I really do care. Yes, somebody actually does care! That is why I incessantly preach from God’s inspired Word (laboring night and day) on social media, never having asked for nor taken a single penny from anyone (nor will I ever by God’s grace). By God’s grace, I’ve been doing this needful ministry work since April of 2002 when I started my [8]Jesus-is-Savior.com ministry website. I have eight total ministry websites, which you can access from my ’[9]Repent Page.’

By God’s grace, in May of 2006 I started my [10]Soulwinning.info ministry website. It has been my sweet privilege and honor to serve OTHERS for Jesus Christ all these many 23 years, through much pain and hardships and suffering and losses and adversities, honoring my dear Savior of whose love and blessings I am so unworthy (Genesis 32:10). I love you dear reader with God’s unconditional love, the same love of God which sent Jesus to die on a cross because He loves you and me.

Like many people, as a kid and an adult, I have so often wished that I could be a superhero like Spiderman, Superman or Thor, having some special supernatural power to help make the world a better place and save people. But then the blessed indwelling Holy Spirit always comforts and encourages my soul, reminding me that I am already doing the work of a superhero, by preaching the Gospel of free grace that saves men's souls from Hell. I cannot think of a greater role as a superhero than that. My special power is THE GOSPEL, which incredible power is available to every human being. What saith the Scripture? 1st Corinthians 1:18, "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God." We've got God's power folks! Are you using it?

What saith the Scripture? Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. " THE GOSPEL dear friend is the power of God

" to every who who BELIEVES IT! Nuclear fusion can provide astounding amounts of energy to supply millions of homes, but only the power of God can keep a man out of the fires of Hell. There is no greater power than that! All the money power, political power, weight lifting power and military power in this world cannot save a man's soul. Superheroes are real folks—those who preach a free grace Gospel to save multitudes from eternal damnation in the blistering Lake of Fire. You can become a superhero too (Daniel 12:3).

As a side note: I love The Strand Study Bible, which is available in hard copy form on Amazon. You can [11]download the free .pdf version here. I humbly disagree with Pastor Strand's exegesis for Daniel 12:3, where he says that since God is the only one who can save a soul (1st Corinthians 3:6-9), there won't be any soulwinning celebrities in Heaven. I disagree. Daniel 12:3,

"And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever." The inspired Word of God is very clear, that soulwinners who have led many lost sinners to Christ will shine in Heaven. I humbly think this will only be because the people whom we have led to Christ will love, cherish and admire us in Heaven, without whose Gospel witness they might likely have spent eternity burning in the fires of Hell. Thank God for soulwinning believers (Proverbs 11:30; Matthew 28:19-20).

Bible separation from religious unbelievers and dangerous false prophets is a forgotten doctrine today. Case in point is the ungodly Family Baptist Church in Pensacola that I attended for 45 months from 2021 to 2025, until they kicked me and my wife Alice out and banned us from returning. In hindsight, I regret that I tolerated there wickedness as long as I did. The church's horrible pastors promote [12]damnable false prophet, Billy Graham (1918-2018). The tragic reason why those wicked pastors do not separate from unbelievers is that they are false prophets themselves! The official Statement of Faith of Family Baptist Church in Pensacola requires that to get to Heaven you must "

Repent of your sins,

which is the same demonic tomfoolery, poppycock and tommyrot that apostate Billy Graham preached.

To make matters worse, I heard Pastor Brad Moffett at Family Baptist Church with my own two ears praise infidels' John Calvin and John Piper, who are Calvinist devils. The church also promotes infidel Ken Ham and his ungodly Answers-In-Genesis garbage. [13]Ken Ham preaches a false gospel! The inspired Holy Bible warns against bidding Godspeed to false prophets (2nd John 1:11).

The corrupt Family Baptist Church also supports Operation Christmas Child (OCC), which is a ministry of Billy Graham and his son, Franklin Graham. Regardless of what literature a church may or may not insert into each box they prepare, OCC absolutely DOES include their damnable Lordship Salvation literature with every box, making the gift toxic poison! By partaking of OCC, foolish churches are partakers of Billy and Franklin Graham's evil deeds (preaching a false plan of salvation), and they all have much blood on their hands. This lost and dying world doesn't need more false religion, it needs Jesus Christ!

Kindly said, beware of Franklin Graham's counterfeit plan of salvation. In his helpful book titled, "[14]I Never Knew You: The Horror Of The Great White Throne Judgment And How You Can Avoid It," Michael P. Bowen exposes Franklin Graham's false gospel in chapter 12. I highly encourage you dear friend to read the chapter for your own edification, so that you will be fully aware of what is wrong with these neo-evangelical ministers today. Every Christian saint should stand guard against Satan's deceptions which are creeping into churches today.

And it's not just the Family Baptist Church that is corrupt in Pensacola. The ungodly Smyrna Baptist Church at 7000 N. Pensacola boulevard distributes [15]toxic Chick Tracts with their "

Be willing to turn from sin

damnable heresy in them, propagating the SAME repentance heresy as the pseudo-Christian religious cults do, which I have shewn you. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

And by the way, the reason why [16]Chick Tracts' Statement of Faith does not match their billions of Chick Tracts is because THEY KNOW JACK CHICK WAS IN ERROR DOCTRINALLY!!! Since all of their Chick Tracts teach that you must be willing to turn from your sinning to get to Heaven, why do they dishonestly leave that out in their official Statement of Faith on how to get saved? What rotten lying false prophets!

Our Baptist churches are in big trouble folks! I visited the horrible Fairfield Drive Baptist Church in Pensacola in 2024, but was saddened to learn that their pastor Josh Thompson teaches a class at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). I met Pastor Josh at the Pensacola Interstate Fair in 2023 (at the PCC booth in the Exhibition Hall) and asked him if he taught Lordship Salvation, which he confirmed that he sadly does. Josh cited Acts 16:31b,

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house," insisting that the word " proves you must receive Jesus not only as your Savior, but also as the supreme of your life to be saved. Folks, that is 100 % Lordship Salvation, and it is a counterfeit plan of salvation which cannot produce the required new birth to get to Heaven and escape the fires of Hell forever. Please RUN from these wicked heathen religious houses of iniquity.

The True Meaning Of Repentance

It matters what we believe and teach others. The Greek noun for “repentance” (metanoia) in the inspired King James Bible simply means “ a change of mind

(the verb form metanoeo means

“

to think differently

). It is wicked and very wrong for anyone to embellish and add further meaning to what the word repent means. In fact, the word itself just means a change of thinking, not a change of anything else. So, obviously we need supplemental information from the Holy Bible to determine what we need to change our mind about to get to Heaven, and this is where the problem begins, because everyone has different ideas about repentance.

Since we know that salvation has always been by God’s grace (Romans 4:4-7), then we can safely conclude that works can never be a part of receiving God’s free gift of eternal life. Furthermore, the Scripture is full of plain passages that teach the only work

we can do to get to Heaven is to BELIEVE ON JESUS. John 6:28-29,

“Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” In Jonah 3:10 the Bible calls turning from one’s evil ways, works.

” Jonah 3:10, “And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not. ” By the way, God repented Himself in Jonah 3:10, so repentance cannot mean to turn from your sins, because God is incapable of sinning (James 1:13-14). God simply changed His mind.

In Acts 20:21 the Bible speaks of repentance toward God.

In 2nd Timothy 2:25 the Bible speaks of repentance to acknowledge the truth.

” Hebrews 6:1 speaks of repentance from “dead works.” They’re “dead” because such useless human works cannot save a man (Isaiah 64:6). But nowhere does the Bible mention repenting of one's sins, nor turning from one's sins to get to Heaven. In Acts 16:30 the Roman jailer asked Paul and Silas how to be saved. Their simple reply in verse 31 was to "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved..." If turning from one's sinful bad habits is necessary to be saved, then the Apostle Paul and Silas would have told the man so, but they didn't. They simply taught him to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ.

Dear reader, we need to get back to SEARCHING THE SCRIPTURE as Jesus commanded in John 5:39, which the noble Bereans did in Acts 17:10-11. The biggest mistake that you'll ever make is to listen to some damned fool like Billy Graham in the grave, Bobby Moffett at Family Baptist Church, Marty Herron at Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, Jeff Redlin at PCC, former Bob Jones University president Steve Pettit, John MacArthur in the grave, Ray Comfort and thousands of other theologically incompetent ministers today.

Jeremiah 5:31, "The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?" This is a remarkable passage of Scripture. The old adage is very true: There is nothing new under the sun. The frightening phrase "what will ye do in the end thereof" simply means that when you stand before God to be judged in eternity, your pastor won't be able to do anything to help you. You and your pastor will be damned to Hell forever because you didn't do the will of the Father (Matthew 7:21-23). John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." Faith alone in Christ alone is God's simple plan of salvation. Look to the Lord (Isaiah 45:22).

The churches are packed full with unsaved tares who are diligently following and serving Christ by their own means, committed to living the Christian life; but they have never been born again, which means they will spend eternity burning in Hell. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. The Devil is a beautiful liar!

Repentance is not a separate event from faith, although they are not the same thing. Here is the best quote that I've found on repentance, by Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951)...

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ('[17]Except Ye Repent,' p. 16)

[18]What Is Repentance?

Everyone Must Separate From Religious False Doctrine

If you are a pastor, then please obey the inspired Word of God by separating from the doctrine of unbelievers. If you teach your congregation that they must repent of their sins to get to Heaven, then be warned Sir that you are in league with the deadly cults of Mormonism, Roman Catholicism, Jehovah's Witnesses, Seventh-Day Adventism, Churches of Christ, and other hellbound religions that require behavior modification to be saved, or to prove that you are saved.

The inspired Holy Bible commands all men to repent from in Hebrews 6:1. Dead works includes all works, both good and bad works alike. Turning from one’s sins is a good work. You don’t get to Heaven by doing good works, nor by giving up bad works (which would constitute doing a good work); you get to Heaven by being BORN AGAIN (John 3:1-7), which is by childlike faith alone in Jesus Christ. Galatians 3:26,

“For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.”

I will go to seed preaching against Satan’s falsehood that you cannot go to Heaven unless your behavior changes (aka, the “ heresy). If you ever make it to Heaven dear reader, it will be only on the merit of Christ alone who bled and died on a cross to pay your outstanding debt of sins, and mine (Romans 5:6-9). You get to Heaven by simply believing that Jesus did it all for you. Even a small child can do that. We are all woeful guilty sinners, and Jesus is the dear Savior.

repent of your sins

It is high time for churches, especially Baptists of whom I am one myself, repent of false repentance and return to preaching a free grace Gospel without works. A false prophet’s typical statement will be something like:

“Salvation is obtained by God’s grace alone and you cannot earn it, but you first must be willing to turn from your sinful ways to be saved.” That is a blatant contradiction, which the cults are infamous for. Case in point, here is a damnable quote from the Jehovah’s Witness’ Watchtower organization’s website...

>
> Salvation is a free gift from God. It cannot be earned. Yet it does require effort on our part.
>
>
>
> SOURCE: [19]https://wol.jw.org/en/wol/d/r1/lp-e/1996081

Say what? What a misnomer! [20]What a contradiction! Evangelist Ray Comfort is just as bad...

> “If belief is all that is necessary for salvation, then the logical conclusion is that one need never repent.
>
>
> —SOURCE: [21]http://www.livingwaters.com/witnessingtool/browse.shtml

Ray Comfort is clearly implying that more than faith is required to be saved. In fact, faith is enough to get to Heaven. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. Ray is guilty of mixing works with grace, because he errantly views repentance as a change of behavior; instead of a change of mind unto the Gospel itself, as it should be. You don't repent AND believe to be saved; you repent TO believe. Repentance facilitates believing. What did Jesus say? John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." The dear Savior's inspired words are so simple and clear—a sinner need only believe on Him to be saved. Since we cannot see Him, the Bible says that a sinner need only believe on Jesus' name to be saved (John 1:12-13). That is true salvation! John 8:36, " If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed."

It is tragic that over 90 % of Baptists today have been caught up into the Devil's lie that you must repent of your sins to get to Heaven. Behavior modification has no place in God's simple plan of salvation. A changed life is the result of the indwelling fruit of the Holy Spirit, if we choose as saints to walk in the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25). Salvation is a matter of what Christ has done for us; not what we can do for Christ. Human reformation (a change of behavior) must not be confused with Bible repentance (a change of mind).

Our churches today desperately need to separate from the heathen religious world's corrupt concept of repentance. Thank you for reading my ministry blog.

6.8.27 The Sin Of Christian Women Wearing Pants In Public (2025-08-22 16:00)

Deuteronomy 22:5, "The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination unto the LORD thy God."

Proverbs 7:10, "And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart."

A Christian woman recently told me that some religious women wearing dresses were unfriendly and cold toward her in a church that she visited; but religious women wearing pants in another church were nice to her. I kindly told the woman that her point was mute and beside the point that women ought not wear pants. She is applying Situation Ethics, not the Holy Bible.

I encourage you dear reader to listen to an applicable sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles about the evils of blurring the lines between the male and female genders...

[1]Unisex (by Pastor Jack Hyles)

Regardless of how friendly women may be, Christian women ought not wear pants in public, period! The Bible is very clear on the issue. In America, pants are commonly recognized as men's clothing (Deuteronomy 22:5). That wasn't a ceremonial law for the Jews; it was moral law. It is wicked for any Christian believer to attempt to justify women wearing pants in pubic.

A wicked local pastor in Pensacola recently challenged my Bible preaching against women wearing pants. To no surprise his worldly wife and mother both wear pants. That pastor is clearly henpecked by his wife. She is defiant against the inspired Word of God, which commands women in 1st Timothy 2:9 to dress in "MODEST APPAREL." There's no question whatsoever that pants do not qualify as " modest clothing

for a woman.

Even so-called "modest" [2]pants for females are not modest at all. Women who wear pants look like men (masculine), lacking feminine charm. Pants on women are revealing of the thighs and buttocks. And when women wearing pants bend over, they reveal their shape even more to men. It is sinful. There is nothing more repulsive than to see a woman adorned in men's clothing, looking like a lawyer. That is utterly shameful. Slacks on women instantly send a message to everyone around her that she is a liberated modern-day female, which is the antithesis of biblical Christianity and femininity.

The worldly pastor in question actually tried to use the fact that Scottish men wear kilts to justify his wicked wife wearing her immodest pants. Unbelievable! That's like comparing apples with oranges folks! Again, this is Situation Ethics (i.e., deciding what is right or wrong based on circumstances instead of God's inspired Scripture). There would have been no question or debate a century ago whether it was right or wrong for women to wear pants; it was WRONG! Just because modern culture has abandoned old-fashioned morality and decency doesn't make it right.

All American women a century ago only wore dresses in public. Females wearing pants came in with the ungodly demonic feminist movement, which is of the Devil. The ungodly miniskirt became popular in America in 1964, as part of the communist inspired free love hippie movement, which led to the murderous abortion industry. Christian women who wore pants in the early 1900's were justly looked down upon by decent people as being immoral. Laws even forbade immodest clothing back then.

It is no small matter for a woman to wear pants, especially for a child of God. The issue has nothing to do how nice, friendly or kind a woman may be who is wearing pants, it is sinful. I say that kindly in Christian love, not to be belligerent or mean. If you ladies who wear your pants fully understood how hard it is for men to think and live right nowadays, if you cared at all then you would not wear pants anymore. 1st Peter 2:11-12, "Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation."

It is tragic when a normal man visiting a church picnic leaves thinking that the pastor's wife has a nice butt,

because she is wearing pants; instead of thinking about her modest clothing that glorifies God, shewing her Christian virtue and godliness. Which one are you, ladies?

Pants on women instantly send a message to everyone around her that she is a liberated modern-day female, which is the antithesis of biblical Christianity and femininity.

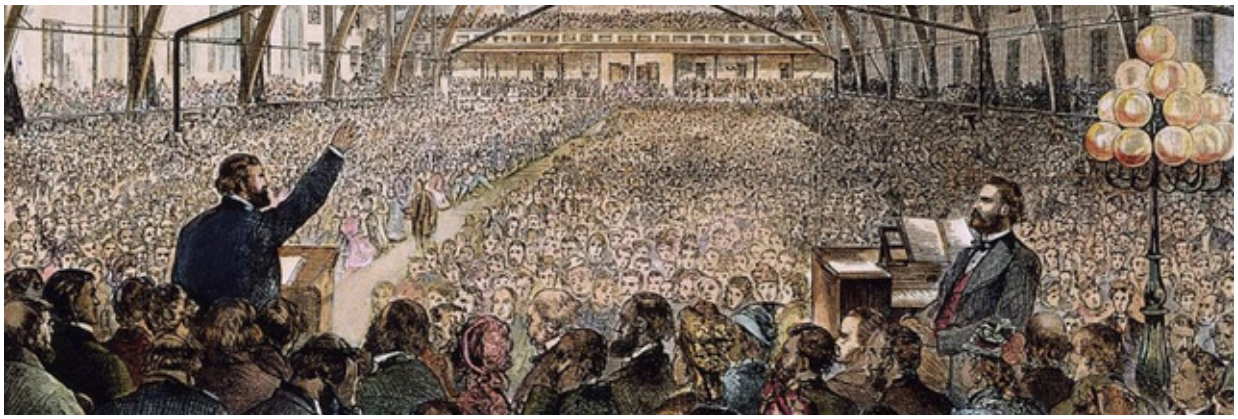
6.8.28 It Is The Blood Of Jesus That Washes Away Our Sins (2025-08-23 09:22)



1st Peter 1:18-21,"Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God."

If you are truly born-again dear friend, then your sins have been forever washed away by the precious blood of the Lamb of God. Pastor Dwight Moody said it well:

> "It is the blood that must cover our sins. I beg of you, do not let the world move you on this point. Let it go on mocking and making light of the precious blood of the Son of God. It is our only refuge, our only hope. We cannot cover sin by any good deeds of our own." —Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899)

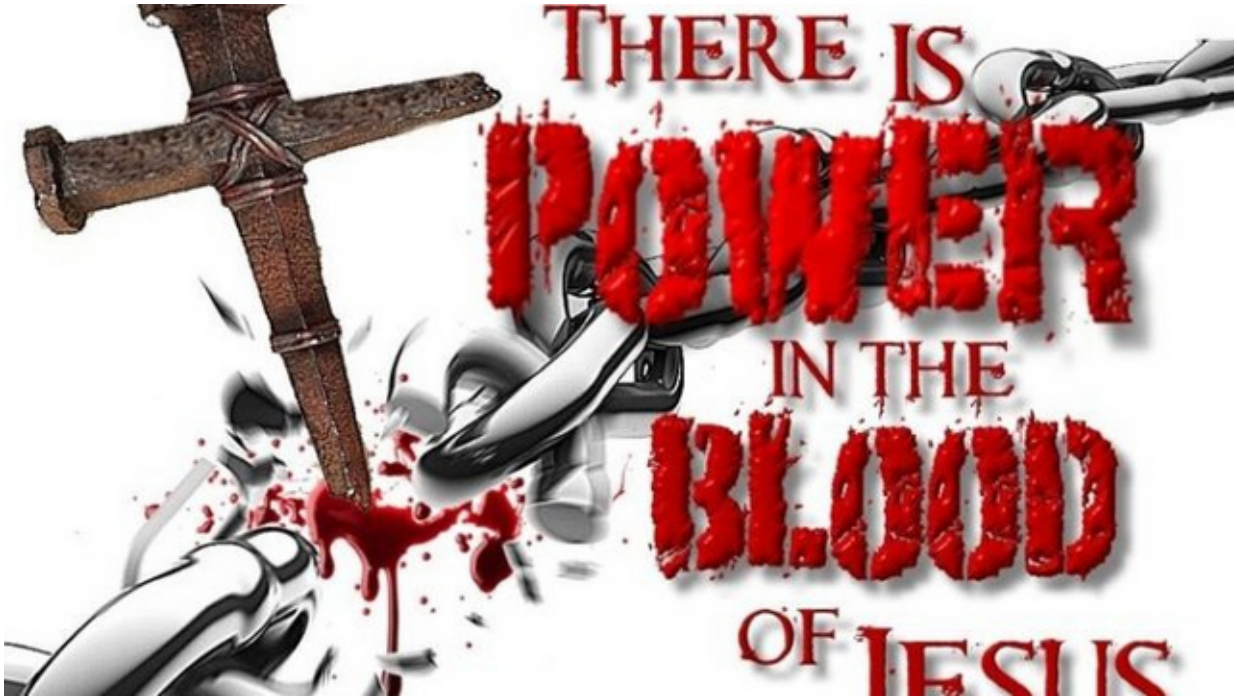
[1]

I cherish the old Gospel hymn authored in 1899 by Lewis E. Jones, "[2]Power In The Blood"...

> Would you be free from the burden of sin?
> There's pow'r in the blood, pow'r in the blood;
> Would you o'er evil a victory win?
> There's wonderful pow'r in the blood.
> There is pow'r, pow'r, wonder-working pow'r
> In the blood of the Lamb;
> There is pow'r, pow'r, wonder-working pow'r...

From the innocent animal that God killed to provide clothing for Adam and Eve after they sinned, to the saints whose robes are washed pure in the blood of the Lamb of God in Revelation 7:14—the main theme from cover to cover throughout the inspired Word of God is THE BLOOD OF JESUS!!!

It wasn't enough during the Old Testament Passover (the final of ten plagues), when the death angel of the Lord came upon all of Egypt, taking the lives of all the firstborn of humans and animals alike, if the blood of a lamb had only been slain and left to soak into the ground. The blood had to be applied! Read for yourself what saith the Scripture in Exodus 12:13, "And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt." God required that the lamb's blood be applied.



Not only did the lamb's shed blood need to be applied, but it had to be applied to the correct place.

> Exodus 12:22-23, "And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the bason, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the bason; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning. For the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you."

Dear friend, it wasn't enough for Jesus to die on the cross of Calvary to wash away our sins, His blood had to be applied. The Bible teaches that Jesus' blood was applied to the Mercy Seat in Heaven (Hebrews 9:12), in the presence of the Father (Hebrews 9:22-24). Jesus' sprinkled His precious blood upon the heavenly Mercy Seat (Hebrews 12:24). Hebrews 9:12, "Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us."

One of the deadliest preachers of our generation is [3]Dr. John MacArthur in California, who boldly denies the necessity and power of Jesus' blood. According to Mr. MacArthur, which you can verify in his The MacArthur Bible Commentary, for Hebrews chapter 9, he says that the word "blood" in Hebrews 9:12 (and all other verses too) should have been translated "death" instead. No, if God meant death then He would have said death, but He used the word "blood." [4]John MacArthur is a theological liar!!! Dr. MacArthur is an unsaved infidel, a false prophet on the blood of Christ.

Neo-evangelical churches nowadays have been flooded with a bloodless Gospel. We hear unbiblical teachings to turn away from our sinful ways, follow Jesus as "Lord" no matter what the cost, and to surrender all to Christ to get to Heaven. But where is the blood of the crucified One? Where is the blood of the Lamb? The blood of Jesus had to be applied to the heavenly Mercy Seat, in order for God to offer humanity eternal life as a free gift. The right price had to be paid for our sins, and in the right place. That right price is the precious blood of Jesus; and the right place is the heavenly Mercy Seat. Amen and amen.

6.8.29 The Crime Of Being Homeless In America (2025-08-24 09:05)

Proverbs 14:20-21, "The poor is hated even of his own neighbour: but the rich hath many friends. He that despiseth his neighbour sinneth: but he that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he."

Kicking people when they're down is evil and disgusting. My heart goes out to these poor humans. That heartless punk cop who gave a citation to the homeless pregnant woman should be fired for being abusive. What is wrong with our leaders? The problem is not a lack of money. Our federal government spent $6,200,000,000,000 just on the Iraqi War. That money could have provided $6,200,000 each for one million homeless people!!! You can easily build a tiny home for under $25,000.

If you think that is shocking, then please make sure you are sitting down my friend, because our federal government [1]cannot account for $94,700,000,000,000 in missing taxpayer money!!! And that article was published in 2022 four years ago. Over the next 10 years our government is planning to spend [2]another $86,000,000,000,000 of our money! So please don't believe the garbage propaganda being fed to the public from the fake media and incompetent government that there's not enough money to end the housing crisis in the United States. There's far more than enough money! Homelessness is 100 % the consequence of our ungodly leaders failing to do their jobs. The most important job is the one that doesn't get done.

Fined, Arrested, Still Nowhere To Live

The Federal Reserve Act scam since 1913 has destroyed our economy, by creating artificial wealth for the rich at the expense of the poor. The Middle Class are vanishing. Also, deindustrialization (the sending of tens of millions of American manufacturing jobs to foreign countries) has largely contributed to the destruction of the United States.

I remember back in the 1990's when U.S. Robotics laid off 10,000 U.S. workers and relocated all those jobs to Beijing, China. Maytag went to Mexico. And on and on. This is why our country is in economic trouble today. Our leaders have committed treason. Instead of protecting us, they sold us out. I assure you that homelessness will only become much worse in the future unless the Federal Reserve is dismantled and manufacturing jobs are brought back home to the United States. So sad.

Also, kindly said, the influx of tens of millions of illegal immigrants since the 1980's, many of whom who work for low wages under the table, have taken away jobs from Americans. I don't believe for one moment that President Joe Biden had the exclusive power to allow (he literally welcomed) over ten million additional illegals to flood into the U.S. since 2020.

Broken America: How Cities Become Slums In The Richest Country

That being said, I fully agree with journalist Tucker Carlson, who said when he visited Moscow, Russia, in February of 2025 that all this chaos (poverty, substance abuse, addiction, gender confusion, filth and illegal immigration) is deliberate.

Clearly, the subversive Luciferian powers (aka,

“the deep state” as you will hear in the following video interview ) at work behind the scenes in Washington DC planned and created this chaos. ...

Tucker Carlson: Why The Ruling Class Creates And Encourages Chaos

There are [3]Luciferian subversive powers at work behind the scenes in Washington DC who want to dismantle our country, to make way for a future Godless Totalitarian Tyrannical Communist Thug Police State. They want more chaos. Pastor Jack Hyles explained why this is all happening back in 1970, in this classic sermon titled: "[4]Why The Antichrist Must Come Soon." It cannot be denied that there are [5]occult powers at work in our government. This should not come as a surprise to the redeemed saint of God, because the inspired Scripture teaches us in 2nd Corinthians 4:4 that Satan is the god of this world. The Devil's greatest deception has always been to convince the world that he doesn't exist. [6]Satan is real dear reader.

6.8.30 God's Simple Plan Of Salvation (2025-08-25 09:21)

2nd Corinthians 11:1-4,

Would to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me. For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

Since the beginning of human civilization, the Devil has tried to tempt humans to disobey God. The Devil’s name is Satan, who fell from his lofty position as one of God’s archangels in Heaven. In Ezekiel 28:11-17 we find what is called in theology, “ [1]Double Fulfillment .

” That is, this passage of Scripture has two parallel applications. Although Ezekiel 28:11-17 is speaking about the king of Tyrus, it also describes Lucifer and his fall from glory. We see another example of Double Fulfillment in Hebrews chapter 7, which speaks of Melchisedec. This passage is also clearly about the precious Lord Jesus Christ, who is without beginning or end, the King of Righteousness (Hebrews 7:1-4).

Lucifer became Satan, a malicious spirit being who labors night and day to kill, steal and destroy. As such, the Devil desires for for and everyone else to go to Hell forever. Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. Sadly, it is rare nowadays to hear preachers even use the term “ born-again.

” What saith the Scripture? John 3:3,

“Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

So how do you get born again? What does that even mean? Well, the Bible says that when Adam sinned in the Garden of Eden, death passed upon all men. Romans 5:12, “

Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:

(For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

” Every human being born into this world since Adam, has been born with an inherent sinful nature. It is a part of who we are as humans. Children do not need to be taught how to lie, cheat and do wrong; they need to be trained up to tell the truth, be honest and to always do what is right.

Because of our sins, there is a penalty, which according to the Bible is death. Romans 6:23, “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. ” Carefully notice the contrast in Romans 6:23, between the deadly wages of sin that we deserve, versus the free gift of eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. No one needs to go to Hell forever. God desires for all men, even the worst of criminals, to repent of their unbelief and come to Jesus Christ in faith to be saved (2nd Peter 3:6).

Also, please understand that there is a difference between being spiritually dead versus the second death in the Lake of Fire. Every human being is born spiritually dead (Ephesians 2:1-2). But only Christ-rejecters are case into the everlasting Lake of Fire (Hell). Those sinners who never trust Christ as their Savior will perish in their unregenerated state. They were born spiritually dead into this world, and they will die spiritually dead. That is why everyone must be “

born again,

” it is not optional if you want to enter into the Kingdom of God.

You would be shocked friend, if in the Baptist church that you hopefully attend, you start asking the people around you if they know for certain they're going to Heaven. Ask them why they know. You will be shocked, as I was, to learn that at least half of them haven't a clue. I'm not kidding. I know a good elderly man, who has been an usher in a local Baptist church in Pensacola for the past five years, but when I witnessed to him, he told me that water baptism is necessary to go to Heaven. That is his pastor's fault for not feeding his congregation.

In that dear man's church, the pastor is always telling everyone that they must have "

a relationship

with Christ to get to Heaven. What does that even mean? Judas had

with Jesus, but John 6:70 says Judas had a devil in him. Judas died in his sins because of unbelief, and is sadly burning in Hell forever. The unsaved wicked Pharisees also had

with Jesus, but perished in their sin of unbelief. I am so thankful that I know I am a born-again child of God. If you don't know that friend, you can and should KNOW beyond any shadow of a doubt (1st John 5:13).

Salvation is solely based on what Christ has already DONE for you through Calvary's cross, and the blood which He sprinkled on the Mercy Seat in Heaven (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24). So many churchgoers have been lied to, misled by their heathen pastor to think that they are saved by partial faith in Christ, PLUS something else (repenting of sin, following Christ as Lord, living the Christian life, et cetera). I tell you that there is no plus anything in God's simple plan of redemption. You simply CEASE from your own false religious dead works (i.e., trusting in Roman Catholicism, good works, Mother Mary, the Pope, Mormonism, Hara Krishna, religion, sacraments, et cetera), and come to God as a needy guilty sinner, completely RESTING in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ (Hebrews 4:10-11). That is what repentance is, a change of mind, turning from your UNBELIEF to BELIEF in Jesus as the Christ, the only begotten Son of God. When the Roman jailer asked Paul and Silas the $64,000 question: "What must I do to be saved?," the answer was a simple: "BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST" (Acts 16:30-31).

It is important that you understand what you are being saved from. That is why I took the time to explain these things to you friend. It is not enough to merely believe the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen to get to Heaven; you absolutely must realize and admit to yourself and God that YOU ARE A GUILTY SINNER:

> Romans 3:18-20, " There is no fear of God before their eyes. Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

God made two great divisions to His inspired Word: Old Testament and New Testaments (or respectively, LAW and CHRIST). Galatians 3:24-26, “

Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

” God’s Old Testament law (which is summed up in the Ten Commandments) was intended by God to be used as a measuring-stick, by which when compared humans fall short of being sinless and perfect. Thus, realizing our shortcomings to perfectly keep God’s law, we then realize our need for the blessed Savior, Jesus. That is what Galatians 3:24-26 is teaching.

This should make it obvious to you then, dear reader, why it is so wrong for any preacher to falsely teach that you must turn away from your sinful ways to be saved. [2]Evangelist Ken Ham preaches this damnable heresy! Forsaking your sinful ways was never the intended purpose of God’s law. Does God want you to turn away from a deliberate lifestyle of sinning? Yes, of course, but that has absolutely nothing to do with receiving His free gift of eternal life. You must keep living the Christian life (which is our SERVICE for Christ, or sanctification); completely separate from getting born-again (which is SALVATION in Christ, or justification.

Pilgrim’s Progress book author John Bunyan (1628-1688) well understood this very important distinction, as a free grace preacher of the saving Gospel:

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —Evangelist John Bunyan

Also, Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) had a very good understanding of this important distinction between sanctification and justification:

> “There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can’t be lost because it depends upon God’s faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness.”
>
>
> Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews. Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

I hope you can now see dear reader why it is so very, very, very important to always keep getting saved completely separate from changes in our behavior, serving Christ, following Him as “

of our life, turning away from our sinful ways, repenting of sin, running the Christian race faithfully, taking up our cross, giving up the old ways, surrendering all

to Christ, counting the cost and paying the price, forsaking a lifestyle of sinning, living a lifestyle of repentance, et cetera, et cetera.

All of the preceding vain things have been wickedly added to the Gospel by today’s corrupt neo-evangelical pastors, evangelists and Bible college professors. You may do all of these noble things and yet never have been saved at all. You don’t get born-again by doing good works. You don’t get born-again through the sacrament of water baptism.

Sacraments

” are totally unbiblical and you ought never give any attention to such nonsense. The Bible teaches water baptism as a public profession of one’s faith, but it is a command for BELIEVERS only, not a sacrament of any church. Likewise, the Lord’s Supper is a command from God only for BELIEVERS, a time to remember what Jesus has done for on through Calvary’s cruel cross. Please do not ever think, refer or partake of any sacraments, because they are unbiblical. There is no spiritual grace or power bestowed upon the recipient of water baptism or the communion. Beware of formal religion that corrupts the truth of God’s inspired Word.

I love this helpful quote from Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951), which shows that Dr. Ironside had a very sound understanding that our service, sanctification and discipleship as Christian believers, has absolutely nothing to do with receiving God’s free gift of eternal life by faith alone in Jesus Christ:

> “The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past …
>
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all.”
>
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: [3]What Is The Gospel?

One of my favorite authors is Michael P. Bowen. In his excellent defense of the Christian faith titled, ’[4]I NEVER KNEW YOU,’ Michael Bowen writes these wonderful words:

> I am at eternal odds with the false, counterfeit messages of salvation-by-works that are taught from virtually every pulpit today, on every television channel, and on every Christian radio station; however, I am not at eternal odds with the individuals who preach these counterfeit messages. My heart literally goes out to all of them because they simply do not understand Christ's plan of salvation. They have been lied to by a crafty enemy named Satan, whose sole aim is to take as many people with him to the lake of fire as he can possibly manage to steal away from God using a counterfeit plan of salvation that appears so real, so genuine, and so holy that few ever realize they have been deceived by it. Oh reader, so many of today's professing Christians who think they are going to heaven when they die are not going to make it to heaven as they had assumed because they've been lied to by today's error-filled gospel messages.

A tree without fruit is still a tree with roots. This is evidenced by the [7]parable of the sower and the seed in Luke 8:12-15. Of the four groups, only the first group are unsaved, because the Devil removed the seed from their soul before it could sprout into new life. The second and third groups represent believers who never mature to bear fruit (leading others to Christ). They never matured into fruit-bearing Christians, because of their shallow roots; or because as with the third group, they become choked by the cares, riches and pleasures of this life. Ah, but the fourth group matured, having a good and honest heart the Bible says, keeping the Lord's Word, bearing much fruit unto Christ (cf., John 15:1-7). Just because the second and third groups didn't bear fruit, didn't mean they were not saved (as [8]Ray Comfort errantly teaches).

I have shared these truths with you dear reader, to help solidify your understanding of what the Gospel is not. More people will miss Heaven someday simply because they trusted in TOO MUCH! Everything that is complicated about getting saved is God's part. The only thing that God demands of us to be born-again is to place our childlike faith in Jesus, His only begotten Son.

God's simple plan of salvation is so easy, free and plain to understand that even a small child can be saved. God needed to make His plan of salvation so simple, because the world is full of ignorant, unlearned and stupid people. I say that respectfully and with kindness, but it is THE TRUTH. There are a lot of not so bright humans on the planet. That doesn't make them better or worse than anyone else, it just means that God needed to make His plan of redemption for mankind utterly uncomplicated.

In 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 the Bible even refers to the saving Gospel as "the simplicity that is in Christ." We are saved by BELIEVING the Gospel. The " means GOOD NEWS!!! It is the

Gospel

Good News

(or

) that God sent His only begotten Son, Jesus, into the world, to die on a cross to pay our massive debt of sin. Jesus died on a cross! He was buried. And three days later Christ bodily resurrected by a miracle of God from the dead. These three things comprise THE GOSPEL: Jesus’ death on the cross, burial and physical resurrection.

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

There you have it, THE GOSPEL!!! I didn’t see anything in there about turning away from sinful ways, did you? Nope! Oh, how men make everything complicated! God’s simple plan of salvation is to just put your childlike faith (confidence, trust) in Jesus Christ. God knows that you and I have never seen Jesus, so it is okay to just believe on His name. John 1:12, “ But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:” Just take God at His Word as recorded in the Holy Bible. Simply BELIEVE the record which God Has given us in His Word of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen for our justification. What an awesome God and Savior!!!

6.8.31 My Opinion Of Ghislaine Maxwell In The News This Week (2025-08-25 12:33)

Ecclesiastes 5:8, "If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they."

Like many folks, I have my opinions. Since by God's grace I thankfully have a large following of blog visitors, I like to share my opinion on secular matters sometimes just to give my two cents worth as a born again Christian and a fundamentalist Baptist preacher.

According to Wikipedia: "

Ghislaine Noelle Marion Maxwell is a British former socialite and a convicted sex offender. In 2021, she was found guilty of child sex trafficking and other offences in connection with the deceased financier and convicted sex offender Jeffrey Epstein. The following year, she was sentenced in federal court in New York City to 20 years of imprisonment.

If you've been keeping up with recent news in July and August of 2025, then you know that Ghislaine Maxwell has been a hot topic. This all erupted because President Donald Trump at one time was clearly close friends with Jeffrey Epstein (1953-2019), purportedly visiting his "Orgy Island" where male guests allegedly had sex with underaged teenage girls. It's none of my business and I couldn't care less what they did there, because it's not my area of jurisdiction. But what bothers me is the blatant abuse of government power.

For a few years now we have heard about a "Client List," with celebrity names like Donald Trump, Prince Phillip and Bill Clinton, to name but a few clients. Attorney General Pam Bondi even said a few months ago that she had "the list" in front of her. Then, mysteriously, she backpaddled and changed her story, denying in President Trump's presence on camera that the list even exists. Right. Like most others, I don't believe her for one moment. I agree with Tucker Carlson's suspicion that it was [1]Israel who funded Epstein's sex empire.

I doubt if any of us common folks will ever know the truth of what went on regarding this travesty of justice. Clearly there are some very high profile characters involved who have the desire and means to cover-it all up by manipulating the legal system. You see, everybody has a boss. So, if you control the top boss, you control the entire organization or department. That is how evil has gone on unchecked for so long in this country, because the top boss of this wicked world is Satan according to 2nd Corinthians 4:4, and there are many powerful Satanists in this world lurking behind the scenes who control things. If you don't believe that dear reader, [2]you are very naïve indeed.

The recent outcry for justice from the American public has been severe. Nobody who has an IQ above 50 believes for one moment that Jeffrey Epstein commit suicide in 2019. I am 100 % convinced that Mr. Epstein was murdered to silence him from testifying in court against his high profile clients. The elite will stop at nothing to protect themselves and their own interests.

That is why they had President John F. Kennedy assassinated. My humble personal opinion is that the whole matter of Jeffrey Epstein and Ghislaine Maxwell stinks to high Heaven. Since the media has been dangling the matter in front of our faces for months, I have an opinion.

It is very obvious to me (and this is just speculation) that President Trump is very concerned about this matter blowing up in his face, so he is making sure to handle the situation to make it go away, using Pam Bondi (whom he appointed to the position of Attorney General) to give Ghislaine Maxwell (who is serving a 20 year prison sentence) a sweet deal in exchange for her cooperation to help distance Mr. Trump from the criminal allegations against him.

Ghislaine had been incarcerated in Florida, but for some unknown reason was moved a couple weeks ago to a minimum security prison facility in Texas. I am fully convinced that on his last day in office in 2029, President Trump will give a full pardon to Ghislaine Maxwell. If that happens, we will know that President Trump did in fact give her a pardon in exchange for her silence. It is also possible that the U.S. Supreme Court, or the Attorney General's office could release her early from prison. The American people are sick and tired of blatant corruption. Who cares what Ghislaine Maxwell has to say!

I like Mr. Trump as a strong leader and his quick wit, but he has proven in the past that he is loyal to those who are loyal to him, and woe be unto his enemies because he is vindictive. That is a scary man! Ghislaine Maxwell said publicly from prison this week that she is not aware of anything illegal Donald Trump or Bill Clinton did at Orgy Island. She said this week that Bill Clinton was her friend, not Jeffrey Epstein's friend. I don't believe that for one second. I think they're all guilty. That's just my humble opinion, which I am entitled to have and express as an American citizen. The fact that anyone would even go to Epstein's filthy island resort speaks volumes as to their type of character and worldliness.

Personally, I couldn't care less what might have happened at Orgy Island. It's not something that I even want to know about. I do not subscribe to The Enquirer. What bothers me is the blatant abuse of power that we are seeing in all of this. The disgusted look on Pam Bondi's face (in my humble opinion) at the White House when denying that a Client List exists, shows that she doesn't like being controlled by President Trump. That is my opinion. Anybody who works for President Trump fully knows that to go against him is career suicide.

I am fully convinced that Pam Bondi did have a Client List (and Bill Clinton and Donald Trump are both on the list), and she was told to make it disappear as a matter of National Security (which is the lame excuse that the U.S. Justice Department always uses to ignore high crimes and treason). We need a more honest government!

911 Was A Blatant Inside Job Orchestrated By The White House

I remember after the [3]911 attacks in 2001, hearing the ungodly U.S. Justice Department cite reasons of National Security why they wouldn't investigate and prosecute the 911 perpetrators.

They were told from their bosses not to arrest, try and prosecute President George W. Bush and his complicit wicked staff, who blatantly orchestrated the 911 attacks.

Anyone who has done their homework knows that 911 was an Inside Job, orchestrated by top members within our own White House. The evidence is overwhelming! Just the fact that Marvin Bush, President Bush's younger brother, was in charge of security for the World Trade Center for the 2 years leading up to 911 is a Smoking Gun.

That's how they planted the bombs that imploded the three buildings, using Controlled Demolition. Truly, the Bush family is one of the most wickedest families in the world. Thankfully, they cannot escape God's judgment and wrath; there will be justice for the victims (Ecclesiastes 5:8).

George W. Bush's brother was on the board of directors of a company providing electronic security for the World Trade Center, Dulles International Airport and United Airlines, according to public records. The company was backed by an investment firm, the Kuwait-American Corp., also linked for years to the Bush family.

The security company, formerly named Securacom and now named Stratesec, is in Sterling, Va.. Its CEO, Barry McDaniel, said the company had a "completion contract" to handle some of the security at the World Trade Center "up to the day the buildings fell down."

It also had a three-year contract to maintain electronic security systems at Dulles Airport, according to a Dulles contracting official. Securacom/Stratesec also handled some security for United Airlines in the 1990s, according to McDaniel, but it had been completed before his arriving on the board in 1998. ...

But none of these connections has been looked at during the extensive investigations since 9/11. McDaniel says principals and other personnel at Stratesec have not been questioned or debriefed by the FBI or other investigators. Walker declined to answer the same question regarding KuwAm, referring to the public record.

Truth is stranger than fiction. [5]You couldn't make this stuff up!

WTC Security
Companies that Provided Security at the World Trade Center

A company named Stratesec had an ongoing contractor to handle security at the World Trade Center "up to the day the buildings fell down" according to CEO Barry McDaniel. The company, formerly named Securacom, acquired an $8.3 million World Trade Center contract in October 1996, according to SEC filings. The company also provided security for Dulles International Airport and United Airlines between 1995 and 2001. Two of the commandeered flights on September 11th were United Airlines', and one took off from Dulles. [6]1

Marvin P. Bush, brother of George W. Bush, was a principal in the company between 1993 and 2000. A private Kuwaiti-American investment firm with ties to the Bush family was one of the company's backers.

In the company's own words, Stratesec has "an open-ended contract with the General Services Administration (GSA) and a Blanket Purchase Agreement (BPA) with the agency that allows the government to purchase materials and services from the Company without having to go through a full competition." It promotes its > services to clients such as the armed services and Department of Justice for projects that "often require state-of-the-art security solutions for classified or high-risk government sites."

>
> The role of Stratesec in providing security to the targets of the September 11th attacks has apparently not been investigated. Asked if FBI or other agents had questioned anyone at Stratesec about the company's security work in connection with the 9/11 attack, CEO Barry McDaniel said no.

I am convinced that the same corrupt subversive powers working behind the scenes in Washington DC are that same powers at work covering up Jeffrey Epstein's empire of sleaze.

It is no secret that the majority of Americans think Bill Clinton and Donald Trump were close buddies with Jeffrey Epstein years ago, and they're all guilty of something. I've seen photos of Bill and Hillary Clinton golfing with Donald Trump. They're all friends and accomplices!

I learned a long time ago from Manly P. Hall (a 33rd degree Freemason) that the best form of deception is the half-truth, because in part if contested it can be defended with irrefutable logic. Such is the case with Ghislaine Maxwell this week claiming that she doesn't believe Jeffrey Epstein commit suicide, he was murdered. Well, that is what we all suspect. That is the apparent truth. So, by telling a truth it makes it looks like her other false claims that Bill Clinton and Donald Trump are innocent also appears to be the truth. It's an effective tactic!

The media used this very efficient tactic on 911. They first told us the truth that two commercial airliners crashed into trade towers 1 and 2. No one can deny that. They used that truth to cover-up the blatant lie that those 2 planes caused 3 buildings to crumble to the ground. No plane ever struck building number 7 located one block north of towers 1 and 2. Ladies and gentlemen, 2 planes cannot bring down 3 buildings! It is obvious that the government and media lied, and were complicit working together to bury the truth and protect the criminals behind the attacks. There was a total media blackout after 911 concerning the truth!

Hitler and His Nazi Propaganda Minister Understood the Power of Lying Don't trust the mainstream media, they work for the international banks destroying America and the rest of the world. There is a reason why the Nazis burned books in the streets. As Nazi propaganda minister Joseph Goebbels said:

> "If you tell a lie big enough and keep repeating it, people will eventually come to believe it. The lie can be maintained only for such time as the State can shield the people from the political, economic and/or military consequences of the lie. It thus becomes vitally important for the State to use all of its powers to repress dissent, for the truth is the mortal enemy of the lie, and thus by extension, the truth is the greatest enemy of the State."
> SOURCE: Nazi propaganda minister Joseph Goebbels

That is why when someone is accused of committing a crime and is arrested in America, the corrupt court system mistreats that person as if they are guilty for years to come throughout the court case, assuming their guilt, so that over time the accused person starts believing they are guilty, even if they are innocent. A grand jury has already decided that they are guilty, even though they haven't appeared once in a court of law yet. That is how corrupt our legal system is in the United States. You are literally guilty until deemed innocent. That is not justice!

Joseph Goebbels, Hitler's Nazi Propaganda Minister

The Truth is the enemy of the propaganda machine! A public that is aware of everything that goes on cannot be manipulated into a Nazi regime. That is impossible. The solution is simple. Turn off the mainstream propaganda machine that fills you with lies and start investigating matters for yourself. The press are nothing but a bunch of rotten presstitues for sale!!! I got that word "presstitues" from [8]Gerald Celente . He's not saved, but he says some wise stuff. Pastor Jack Hyles wisely taught me that every man is my teacher. That is, there is something that we can learn from every human being, even if what not to do.

I thought it fitting to delve into 911 a bit, since the Jeffrey Epstein scandal is being called a conspiracy, just like 911. The biggest conspiracy of all is that there are no conspiracies! By definition a " conspiracy

is two or more people plotting to do something evil. There have been millions of conspiracies within our own government over the centuries. I learned a long time ago that our federal government only puts forth the illusion of being honest and competent, but in reality the vast majority of our leaders have proven themselves to be incompetent, puppets, liars, untrustworthy, thieves, treasonous traitors and contemptible politicians.

For

Ghislaine Maxwell from prison to paint a rosy picture of Bill Clinton ([9]a known high crimes criminal) and Donald Trump is disgusting. She would say anything to get out of prison. Desperate people do desperate things. Over the next few years, if not much sooner, you can expect to see Ghislaine Maxwell released from prison, excused from her 20 year sentence. But if that were you or me, we'd be forgotten about to rot behind bars for the decades to come. Ephesians 6:12, " For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

I believe that the American people are being played like a violin.

6.8.32 LAW Versus CHRIST (2025-08-27 09:29)

Galatians 3:18-29, “

For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.

Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one. Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ’s, then are ye Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.”

I absolutely LOVE the Epistle of Galatians, because it clarifies the Gospel so well. I really love the Apostle Paul. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! Paul was a stickler for right doctrine! That is why I love him so much as a preacher of the free grace Gospel. Unlike 99 % of shameful pastors today, who are cowards that merely go along to get along with their ministry peers, the Apostle

Paul prioritized RIGHT DOCTRINE above and beyond any human relationship. Galatians 4:16-17, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them."

Evangelist Billy Sunday (1862-1935) got it 100 % right...

> "The law tells me how crooked I am. Grace comes along and straightens me out."
> —Billy Sunday

So many preachers today are foolishly mixing LAW and GRACE together, which is another gospel. I love what Pilgrim's Progress author, John Bunyan (1628-1688) said:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Everyone is Either Under Law or Under Grace

My friend, you are either under the law of God or under God's grace, and there is nothing between. Romans 11 is speaking about the Jews. Most Jews were unsaved, still under the curse of the law; but a remnant of Jews were saved, under grace. The Bible makes clear that there is nothing in between. Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work."

Here's a great MP3 sermon by Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold titled, "[1]Caught Between Grace And Works." The Scriptures are abundantly clear that salvation comes without works, without keeping the law, without self improvement, without following Christ as "Lord," without turning away from sins. Eternal life is a free gift, paid for by Jesus' precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). There is no requirement in the Scriptures to "turn away from sins" to be saved. That is not what "repentance" means. To "repent" means "to think differently." Repentance is unto the Gospel itself! There is not even one Bible verse that teaches "to turn away from sins" as a prerequisite to receiving the gift of eternal life.

Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith." Again, there is no mention of forsaking sinful bad habits, nor of inviting Christ into one's life, nor of making Jesus one's "Lord" to be saved. Romans 3:20b makes very clear that "by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight." I hear many corrupt, but sincere, pastors preaching a distorted plan of salvation. They tell the Gospel while simultaneously telling people to "ask Jesus to take control of their life" to be saved, which is not the Gospel. Effectively, they are building a bridge between the Gospel and works salvation.

Pacific Garden Mission's "[2]UNSHACKLED" is a major offender in this area, telling people to turn away from sinful ways and surrender control of their life to Christ to be saved. Sadly, UNSHACKLED could be renamed to [3]SHACKLED. Granted, it does sound really good to tell sinners they must depart from sinful behavior, and believe the Gospel to be saved. It appeals to our carnal human nature that a man ought to have to forsake his sinful ways if he expects God to save Him! However, this is what religion teaches, not the Holy Bible. To include forsaking one's sins as part of salvation, is no different than trying to keep the works of the law to be saved. To say that God will not save a man who is unwilling to forsake his sinful ways, is to say that "works" are required to receive the "gift" of eternal life. How absurd! A gift is a gift is a gift!

The very doctrine of [4]God's imputed righteousness to the believer obliviates all such teachings of declaring Jesus as one's Lord to be saved. The truth is that JESUS IS LORD, you don't make Him Lord. To be saved, you simply receive Jesus as your Savior. John 1:12, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name." 1st Timothy 4:10, "For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe." Jesus is the Savior of all men, but you must receive Him personally to be saved. The way to be saved is to BELIEVE THE GOSPEL!!! The apostle Paul declared in 1st Corinthians 1:17, "For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect." Notice that the Gospel is rendered ineffective by men's "words of wisdom." Intellectualism is an enemy of soul-winning!

I know you've heard them. I have heard them—preachers who ramble on for hours, lacking any real substance. By the end of their sermon you're utterly frustrated, because there was nothing to grab onto in their message, nothing to sink your teeth into! I love porcupine preachers—because YOU GET THE POINT!!! The apostle Paul warned of balloon-preachers, who are filled with hot air, diluting the truth in never-ending displays of worldly wisdom. One such preacher is [5]Dr. Ravi Zacharias. Religious radio is filled with dry preachers, deadbeats, who avoid offending their listeners for the sake of donations. They are a sure cure for insomnia (unable to sleep)! The great need of the hour is PREACHING PREACHERS! Today's religious ministers are teachers who appeal to the MIND, not Bible-preachers who appeal to the HEART!

Oh how we need men of God today, who walk with God, and who preach the truths that God's Word burns into their heart. God's Word burned in Jeremiah's heart!!! Jeremiah 20:9, "Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay." Preaching is truth set on fire!!! The Old Testament prophet Jeremiah (known as "The weeping preacher") had quit preaching in frustration. Jeremiah's message was one of doom for Israel. It was too late for them (Jeremiah 25:11)—no matter what they did, the Jews were going to be humiliated by the Chaldeans (Babylon). Yet, even in his frustration, Jeremiah couldn't withstand the burning conviction of God's Words in his heart, and he returned to preaching the inspired Words of God to the people. Amen!

In God's simple and wonderful plan of salvation, there is LAW and CHRIST. Dr. Law diagnoses us with terminal cancer (imminent death) caused by of sin; but Christ (Dr. Grace) has the eternal cure for us, which we can have through faith alone in Him.

When some corrupt preachers tells you that to get to Heaven, you must first "repent of your sin" or "turn away from your sin" or "forsake a lifestyle of sinning," he has been inspired by demons!!! Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible are we taught to do any of those things. Bible repentance is a simple "change of mind" from UNBELIEF to BELIEF. Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel." The Greek word for repent here is metanoeo, a verb, meaning: " to think differently.

” A literal interpretation of this passage would be:

“Think differently and BELIEVE the Good News that Jesus Christ died on the cross for your sins, was buried and bodily resurrected three days later.” That is “ the Gospel

” according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4!!!

God’s LAW shows us our sinnership, our desperate need for redemption. What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:19-20, “

Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

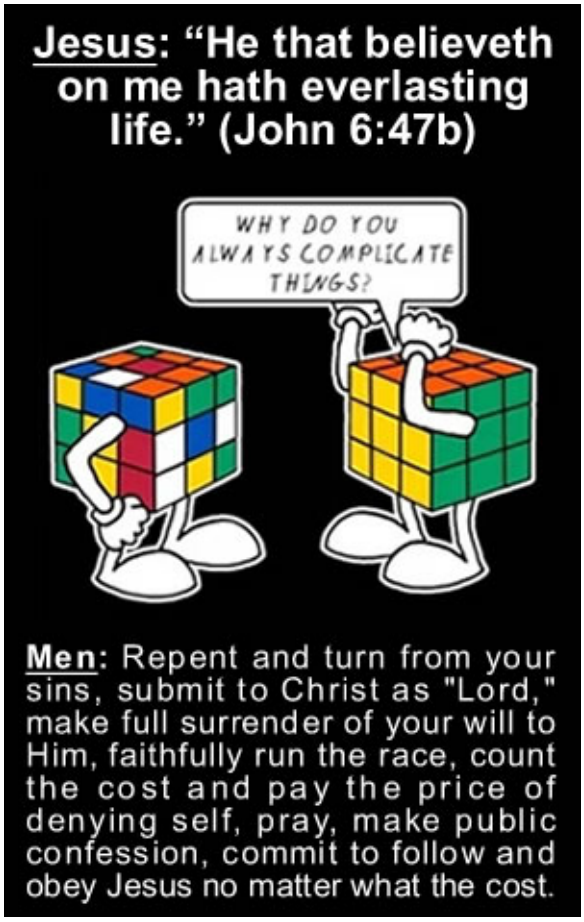
Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.



” Galatians 3:24-26 teaches that the LAW then brings us to CHRIST, to be saved by grace along through faith alone in Christ alone (i.e., the Gospel, the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen). 1st Thessalonians 4:14, “For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.” I love that Bible verse!!!

So there you have it my fine non-feathered friend, LAW and CHRIST (or, respectively, OLD and NEW Testaments; or, LAW and GRACE). Please don’t ever get stuck on the law, like infidel pastors’ John MacArthur, Adrian Rogers, Chuck Phelps, Billy Graham, Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, Joel Osteen and other cult followers of the damnable Lordship Salvation and wrong repentance Calvinist movement in America. Calvinism (i.e., the heretical teachings of a man named John Calvin, 1509-1564) is NOT the free grace Gospel presented in the Holy Bible (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

When asked how to be saved, Paul and Silas simply told the Roman jailer to “believe on the Lord Jesus Christ” (Acts 16:30-31).

6.8.33 Is An Atheist Today Who Claimed To Be A Christian Yesterday Saved? (2025-08-27 10:52)

1st Corinthians 15:1-2, "

Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain."

Is an atheist today who claimed to be a Christian yesterday saved? The resounding answer is, No!

Respectfully, contrary to what pastors' Ralph Yankee Arnold and [1]Thomas Cucuzza falsely teach, there are no atheist believers. I love and appreciate these dear men of God, who both preach the truth of a free grace plan of salvation. That being said, I humbly disagree with them that a person who previously professed faith in Christ, but no longer professes faith in Jesus years later, is saved. I contend biblically that they were never saved at all; and that what might have been erroneously called "faith" was mere lip service.

The Bible teaches that to enter into God's Kingdom we must be born again (John 3:1-7). The new birth is as irreversible as the first birth. Someone who is born physically (of water Jesus said, flesh) cannot stop breathing or they will die. Likewise, a Christian cannot just stop believing. To give you Scriptural proof of what I am saying, please consider 1st Corinthians 15:1-2, "

Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain."

Carefully notice the Apostle Paul's warning, "if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

That simply means if at any point in the future you go astray from the Christian faith, it just shews that you were not saved at all. It also means that whatever philosophy you are trusting in that is not a free grace Gospel cannot saved you. Paul is NOT teaching that you can lose God's free gift of salvation. If saved, always saved. Paul's warning to those who have " believed in vain

" simply means that if you put your faith in

(2nd Corinthians 11:3-4) you have never been born again and still need to be saved before it is too late. All unbelievers who die in their sins go to burn in Hell forever.

This is why God inspired the Apostle John to pen the Epistle of 1st John, to help individual professed believers "know" (1st John 5:13) that we are saved. This is because many people who profess to be a "Christian" in fact have never actually been born again. They've merely been going through the outward motions of living the Christian life, like the people did in Matthew 7:21-23. John emphasizes the truth that whosoever denies that Jesus is the Christ is definitely not saved. What saith the Scripture? ...

> I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth. Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also. Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father. "

Any preacher who foolishly teaches that there are saved unbelievers, because they formerly professed faith in Christ long ago, are deceivers. You just read it for yourself that anyone who denies Jesus is the Christ is a liar! How then can any preacher foolishly claim that these “liars” who deny Christ are saved? I think not. We know that Peter denied knowing Christ, but it is very clear from the Scripture that he never actually denied Christ. There’s a big difference!

I believe there is such a thing as being familiar with the facts of the Gospel, but not actually trusting Christ as one’s personal Savior. Many false prophets exploit the Gospel to sucker money from gullible people, but they don’t believe a word of the Gospel. Judas was one of Jesus’ very apostles, yet he went to Hell in his sin of unbelief. Judas heard the Gospel. Judas met the Savior. Yet, he didn’t believe as Peter did, when Peter confessed that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, the Christ (Matthew 16:16).

Peter denied Jesus in the Bible, but it is plain to see from the story that it was only superficial due to fear. Peter never stopped believing that Jesus was who He claimed be, God in the flesh (John 10:33).

John the Baptist became discouraged while in prison and sent his disciples to ask Jesus if He were truly the promised Messiah, or should they look for another. Jesus told John’s disciples to go tell him the dead were being raised, the blind made to see, et cetera. I personally don’t think John ever doubted Jesus for one second. I think he was simply discouraged.

But I’m talking about when someone who used to profess faith in Christ now claims to be an atheist or an unbeliever. According to Paul in 1st Corinthians 15:2 that person was never saved to begin with. We KNOW that the new birth is irreversible, irrevocable and permanent. To say that a professed atheist is saved because 10 years ago he went to church and said he was a Christian is preposterous.

Granted, God alone knows a person’s heart. A man could lie and say that he is an atheist for a number of reasons, but if he believes on Christ in his heart he is saved. Peter denied knowing Christ publicly, but we also know that he lied to them. Peter did in fact know and trust the dear Savior.

Paul had started several churches in Galatia. He preached unto them a free grace Gospel. Afterwards, while on another missionary journey, he received word that the Galatian churches had become corrupted by a Judaist cult which required keeping the law to be saved (Galatians 1:6-9, 3:1-3, 6:7).

It is plain to see that some of the churchgoers in Galatia had never truly been born again at all. They heard Paul preach a clear and concise Gospel message the first time he was present, but later on they followed after "another gospel," which very thing Paul was very concerned might happen to the church at Corinth (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

We see this same evil happening everywhere in churches today. The Devil’s fallacies of wrong repentance, Calvinism and Lordship Salvation have crept into most churches today, including so-called "Independent Fundamentalist Baptist" churches, which have actually STOPPED being Christian fundamentalists, because they no longer believe a free grace Gospel (but are in denial and still say they do). The Devil is a beautiful liar.

So, to answer your question directly, if someone claimed to be a Christian a month ago, but now denies knowing Christ as their personal Savior, they were never saved at all. They merely were familiar with some Christian principles, or joined a Christian organization, or had lived the Christian life for a time; but they have never been born again.

We see this very thing in Matthew 7:21-23. These unfortunate sinners boasted to Christ of having served Him loyally, doing "many wonderful works" all in Jesus’ name, but the dear Savior denied knowing them as His sheep. They served Christ, but never relied solely upon Him for salvation (John 6:40). Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again, and that is what we see happening in 99 % of churches today. Religion never saved anybody! Respectfully, contrary to what pastors' Ralph Yankee Arnold and [2]Thomas Cucuzza falsely teach, there are no atheist believers.

I humbly disagree that a person who walks away from salvation in unbelief is saved. I agree that salvation cannot be lost. I agree that you don't have to remain faithful to get to Heaven. I agree that salvation is permanent. But the inspired Holy Bible says in 1st John 2:19 that if someone leaves the church it is because they were not of us

" (i.e., they were never saved to begin with). That doesn't mean someone who becomes disgruntled and leaves a church is not saved. Nor does it mean that someone who doesn't go to church is not saved. In my humble opinion, I believe this Scripture passage is referring to people who once professed faith in Christ, but then left the faith and no longer profess Christianity. They were never saved at all according to 1st Corinthians 15:2.

I am NOT a Calvinist. I reject all 5 tenets of Calvinism. I do not believe in the perseverance of the believer to be saved, which would constitute works for salvation. I do however believe in the perseverance of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Hebrews 13:5). If saved, always saved. I kindly reject the idea that someone is saved who formerly claimed to be a Christian, but now openly denies faith in Jesus Christ. They may have once ascribed to some philosophies of Christianity, joined a Christian organization, or lived the outward Christian life (Matthew 7:21-23), but they were never born again.

Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. Those unsaved religious people all profess to be Christians, but they are not. So, it is not surprising that 10 or 20 years later some of them turn away from the Christian scene.

6.8.34 Beware Of False Prophet Pastor Greg Laurie (2025-08-29 10:59)

Acts 3:14-21, "But ye denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you; And killed the Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses. And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers. But those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled. Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you: Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began."

Greg Laurie is the theologically incompetent pastor (in my humble opinion) and founder of the Harvest churches in California and Hawaii and of Harvest Crusades. Pastor Laurie is an evangelist, best-selling author and religious movie producer. Unfortunately, Mr. Laurie is also a dangerous false prophet who preaches a counterfeit plan of salvation.

> The Difference Between Remorse and Repentance
>
> "Now repent of your sins and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped away." (Acts 3:19 NLT)
>
> Spiritually speaking, there's a vast difference between the words remorse and repentance. And it's important that we understand this difference. People are sorry when their sin catches up with them. They feel remorse when they begin to reap what they sow. But remorse doesn't necessarily mean that someone has repented. The apostle Paul wrote, "For the kind of sorrow God wants us to experience leads us away from sin and results in salvation. There's no regret for that kind of sorrow. But worldly sorrow, which lacks repentance, results in spiritual death" (2 Corinthians 7:10 NLT). If you are truly sorry, you will not only have remorse for your sins, but you will also repent and change your behavior.
>
> Too many people have a false assurance that they are Christians because they possess a sense of remorse for their sins, even though they never repent. But look at the words of Acts 3:19 again: "Now *repent of your sins and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped away" (NLT).
>
> The word repent means to change direction. But we have people today who theoretically come to Christ without ever changing their lifestyle. They have never repented. They will say, "I'm sorry for what I did," and then keep sinning like nothing ever happened. What kind of sorrow is that?
> SOURCE: [1]https://www.crosswalk.com/devotionals/harvestdaily/greg-laurie-devotio n-july-23-2025.html

Dear reader, what you have just read from Pastor Greg Laurie was inspired by demons. The first big mistake that he made was to use one of Satan's modern corrupt Bibles. Laurie quotes Acts 3:19 from the corrupt New Living Translation (NLT), “Now repent of your sins and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped away.” According to Acts 20:25, the turning “ toward God

part is correct; however, nowhere does the original Greek language suggest that the word

“

(metanoeo : to think differently) in this verse means to repent of your sins.

The wicked translators of the NLT and Greg Laurie sinfully added those words, thus perverting God’s inspired Word (Proverbs 30:5-6; Jeremiah 23:36). The accurate King James Bible reads in Acts 3:19a, “ Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out... ” A more literal translation using Greek meaning would be, “

Think differently and be converted, that your sins may be erased.

That being said, the second big mistake that Greg Laurie made was to misinterpret this passage by only quoting one verse. In order to properly understand what you need to think differently about in Verse 19, we need to examine Verses 14 through 18 as well. Let’s examine this passage further. ...

In Verse 14 the Apostle Peter tells the Jews that they had just crucified the Holy One, that is, the promised Messiah, Jesus.

Peter says in Verse 15 that God raised Jesus up from the dead.

In Verse 16, the apostle tells the Jews, that the lame man they witnessed being made whole (in Verse 7) was healed by faith in Christ.

In Verse 17, Peter tells the Jews that he knows they killed Jesus in their ignorance.

In Verse 18, Peter tells them it was prophesied by the Old Testament prophets that Jesus should suffer such things and be crucified.

In Verse 19, having already explained the situation to the unbelieving Jews, who had just recently crucified their Messiah, Peter invites the people to change their mind to believe on Jesus Christ to be saved, just as the lame man who had just been healed believed and was saved. This is the proper interpretation of this Scripture passage, but what Greg Laurie is teaching is irresponsible Bible exegesis and a lie. The Jews were not being invited by Peter to turn away from their sinful lives; but rather, to place their faith in Jesus Christ to be saved. Their dilemma wasn’t that they were active sinners, it was their sinful unbelief in Christ.

The third big mistake that Pastor Greg Laurie made is to errantly assume that you must feel sorrow to be saved. He differentiates between remorse and repentance of your sins, both of which are NOT required to get to Heaven. You do not have to feel sorrow for sins to be saved, you must admit you're a sinner. That is, you must see your need for Christ (Galatians 3:24-26).

Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) rightly said that a good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. Acts 3:19 is a highly controversial passage of Scripture, while Greg Laurie totally ignores hundreds of clear passages of Scripture concerning what is required to be saved. Other controversial passages of Scripture are Acts 2:38 and Romans 10:9, which verses do not constitute the Gospel. The Gospel is plainly defined for us in 1st Corinthians 15:1-6, which does NOT include turning away from your sinning to be saved. Nor does the Gospel require that you live a changed life as Greg Laurie foolishly requires.

One of my favorite preachers, Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) said it well...

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past ...
>
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all."
>
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: '[2]What Is The Gospel?'

Shame on Pastor Laurie for using the Devil's blatantly corrupt modern Bible revisions. By doing so he was misled to improperly interpret Acts 3:19 to mean forsaking your sinning instead of trusting in Christ to be saved. I hate all of the modern Bible perversions! They are all corrupted, every last one of them!!! If you don't have a King James Bible, you don't have an inspired Holy Bible. Bible repentance never means to turn from your sins! Bible repentance is a change mind, which use can only be determined by the context of a particular Scripture passage. In the case of Acts 3:19, the context plainly indicates that it is thinking differently to put one's faith in Christ, nothing more.

I cannot warn you enough dear reader to avoid and run away from Pastor Greg Laurie (Romans 16:17-18). If you do your homework to examine what the Roman Catholics, Mormons, Seventh-Day Adventists, Jehovah's Witnesses, Churches of Christ and other pseudo-Christian religious cults teach about repentance, you will find that they all teach the same errant theology as does Greg Laurie. Jesus came into the world to die for our sins on a cross. God does not demand that you first be willing to reform to turn from your sinning, to receive God's free gift of eternal life which is through faith alone in Jesus Christ (Romans 4:4-7, 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9; Philippians 3:9).

Greg Laurie is a false teacher! Anyone who teaches that you must "

repent of your sins

to get to Heaven is a bold-faced liar! You do need to repent to be saved, but repentance simply means to change your mind. It is clear from umpteen Bible passages that repentance to be saved simply involves changing your mind from unbelief to belief in Christ. John 6:47, “ Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. ”

6.8.35 Don’t Muddy The Gospel (2025-08-30 08:36)

I found this excellent blog article today, by [1]Army chaplain David Rutkin, which I wanted to share with my blog visitors as well. I thank God for fellow truth-tellers like David Rutkin, who get the Gospel 100 % correct:

> Don’t muddy the Gospel. Explain it simply so it can be understood by the hearer.
>
> The Gospel of Jesus Christ is the most significant element of the Christian faith.

Needless to say, the Gospel should be preached at church and I firmly believe at every occasion.

The Apostle Paul separated himself from others according to the clear Gospel message of Christ (Rom. 1:1). The Gospel is where he divided himself from another.

The clear Gospel message should be the foundation of where a church stands. If one does not get the Gospel saving message correct (Rom. 1:16), then they are likely to err in other understandings of Scripture.

The Gospel of Jesus Christ is His sinless shed blood, death, burial, and resurrection as the full substitute payment which saves a sinner from eternal damnation when believed by faith.

If the Gospel is tampered with at all and not explained vividly, it can lose its saving effect. Notice the verses below.

“For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.” - 1 Corinthians 1:17

“But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.” - 2 Corinthians 11:3

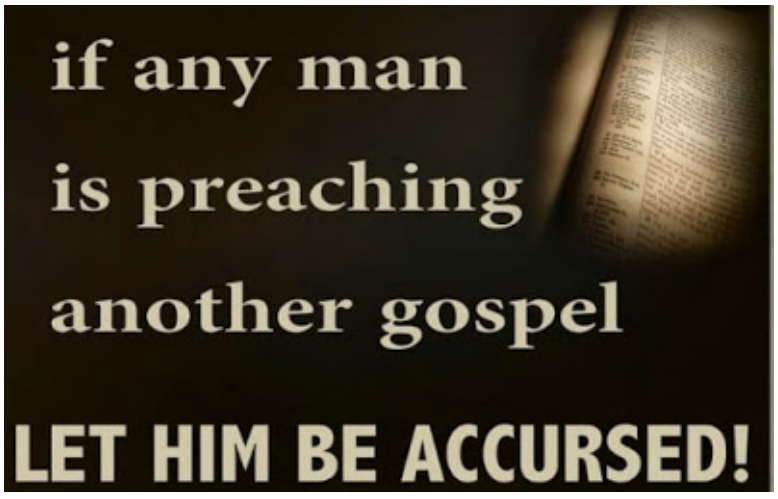
“Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.” - Galatians 5:4

This is a harsh reality, and a real tragedy which is going on in many Christian churches today. Every Bible-believing church should give a clear presentation of the Gospel and invitation to accept Jesus Christ alone as Savior by personal faith.

I’m a stickler for a clear presentation of the Gospel.

Salvation is not a sinner promising to turn from sin, sorrow for sin, or giving their life/heart to Jesus so that He will save them. Salvation has nothing to do with our promises or gifts to Christ. Salvation is simply us accepting Jesus’ satisfactory payment on the cross of Calvary for the forgiveness of our sins. We simply trust in Jesus alone to save us (Acts 16:31, Rom. 4:5, 1 Cor. 15:1-4, Eph. 2:8-9).

Jesus gave His life for us (Gal. 1:4, 1 Tim. 2:6, Tit. 2:14); we don’t give anything to Christ for salvation.



“I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain” (Gal. 2:21).

If we make salvation about us or something we promise to do for God, then salvation is no longer a gift, but we earned it (Rom. 4:16, 11:6). A sinner must understand they have nothing to offer Christ, but simply trust in Him alone to save them by accepting His substitutionary payment for their sins.

I do not believe I am splitting hairs because as seen from numerous Scripture above, the Apostle Paul was just as dogmatic.

6.9 September

6.9.1 What Exactly Is: "Lordship Salvation?" (2025-09-02 08:37)

Acts 16:30-31, “And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved*, and thy house.”

The following helpful truth is quoted from the [1]retired preacherman website:

> God’s Word clearly states that salvation is by Grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone.
>
> Ephesians 2:8-9: [8] For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: [9] Not of works, lest any man should boast.
>
> Lordship “salvation” (LS) is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the PERFORMANCE of good works, the PROMISE of good works, or the EVIDENCE of good works MUST accompany faith in Christ in order to establish, or provide evidence, that such faith has resulted in eternal life.
>
> LS can be overt (one must forsake all of his sins and follow Christ in obedience and discipleship in order to receive eternal life) or VERY SUBTLE (one’s behavior will change once he has received eternal life, one must desire to get better in order to receive eternal life, one must want to have a relationship with Jesus in order to receive eternal life, or one must go beyond mere intellectual assent (head faith vs. heart faith) in order to receive eternal life.
>
> Nowhere in the Bible does it say that any of these man-made conditions are necessary for one to receive eternal life. And yet, such things are taught by many churches, ministries, and pastors throughout professing Christendom.
>
> We expose the people who promote LS, because they:
>
> • Keep people lost (Luke 8-12; 2 Corinthians 4:4);
>
> • Are accursed (Galatians 1:9);
>
> • Frustrate grace (Galatians 2:21);
>
> • Bewitch believers, rendering the believers ineffective in their Christian lives (Galatians 5:4); and
>
> • Are to be marked and avoided (Romans 16:17 and 16:18)
>
> In addition to the above, LS causes people to focus on themselves, rather than on Christ, for assurance of salvation.
>
> We cannot know whether or not someone influenced by LS is saved. In some cases, they may have never even heard the Gospel presented clearly, and may have never believed in Jesus as their Savior. In other cases, they may have believed in Jesus as their Savior, but have received bad teaching that causes them ongoing confusion. We cannot tell which is which. But, in any case, they need our prayers and they need a clear presentation of the gospel.
>
> One wonders why so many thousands of seeking souls flock to the false message of LS. Could it be a cultic draw by charismatic personalities who manipulate scripture, relish the attention, fame and (incidentally) the dollars cleverly conned from their followers?

Or, could it be that they walk into the nearest church, and they are sold a false LS gospel? After all, people naturally want to trust authority figures. In either case, the person who is fed false LS teaching is being steered away from the truth.

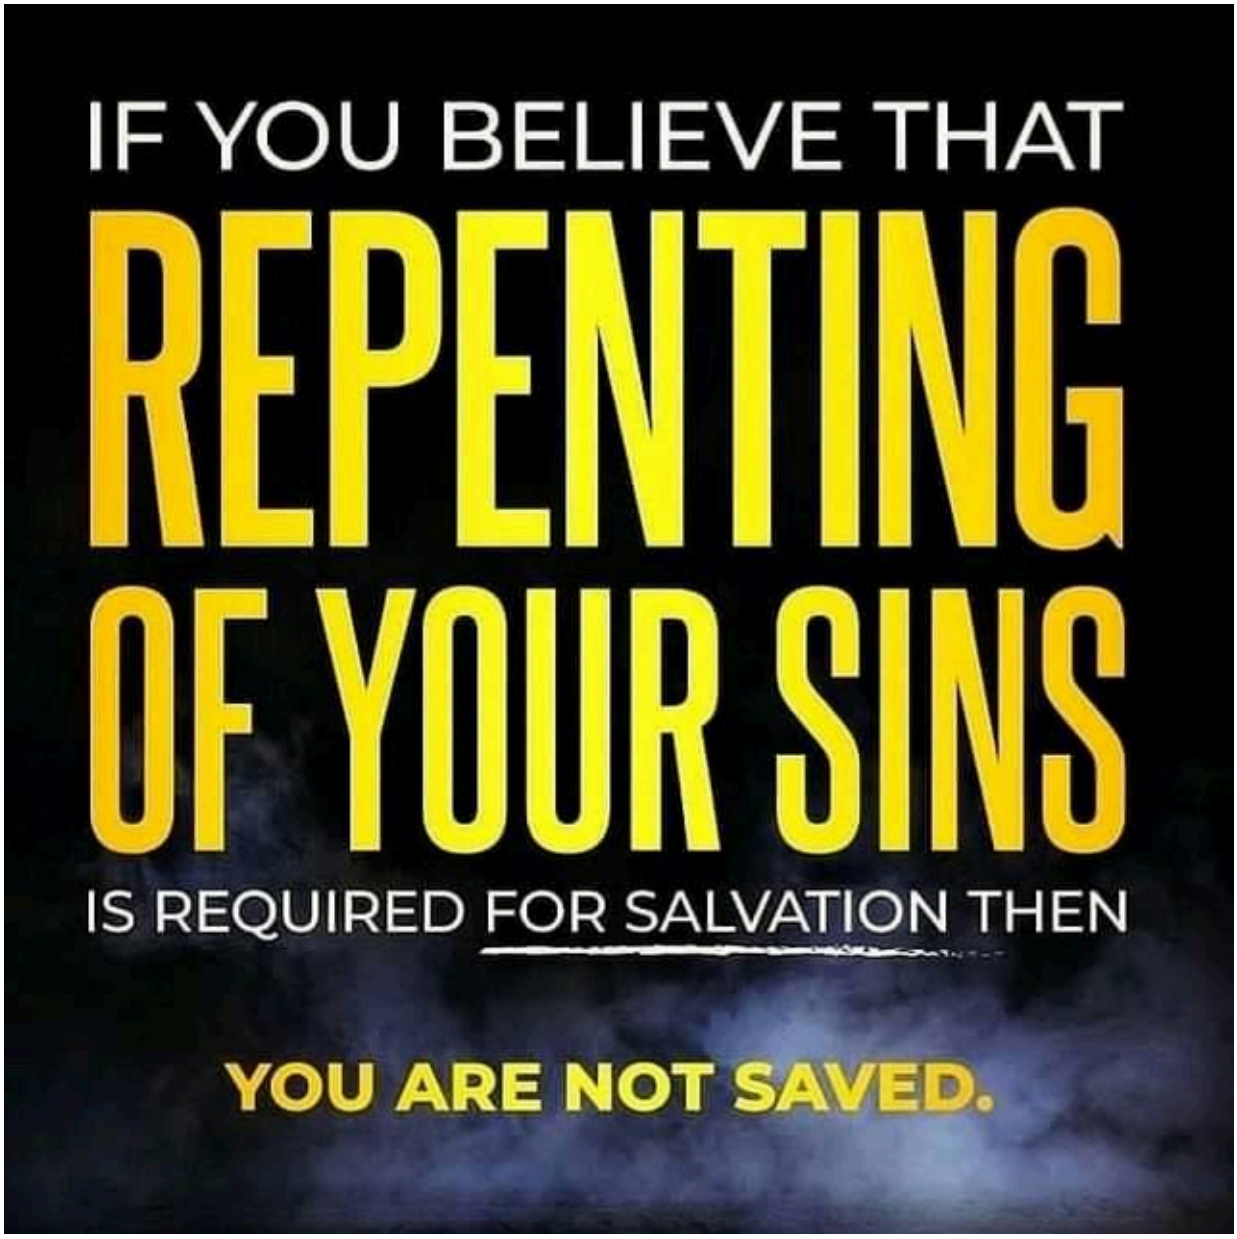
Although this list is by no means complete, following are some of the terms that are associated with Lordship salvation as being requirements for receiving eternal life:

"Repent of your sins"

"Turn from your sins"

"Be willing to turn from your sins"

"Put Christ on the throne of your life"



"Give your life to Christ"

"Commit to follow Christ"

Some proponents of Lordship salvation will allow that salvation is by Grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone, but then will insist that a saved person will show signs of being saved, such as sinning less and doing good works. If these "signs" are not present, they will insist, or at least heavily suspect, that a person has never believed in Christ as Savior.

This thought process can never lead to assurance of salvation, because it is always dependent on how one thinks he is DOING at any given point in time (we put DOING in all caps, because it is a work). Other folks think that God knows whether or not they are TRYING (we put TRYING in all caps, because it is a work). Trying will not help you attain eternal life. Eternal life is a free gift, received when someone trusts in Christ alone for it.

6.9.2 Did Dr. Curtis Hutson Preach A Different Gospel Than Dr. John R. Rice? (2025-09-03 08:41)

Regarding repentance and Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980), it is unfortunate that Dr. Rice used the phrase "turn from sin with all your heart," in his writings, because the Bible doesn't use those terms concerning salvation. In his book: "I Am A Fundamentalist Not A Nut," Dr. Rice defends Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort, the two biggest heretics of the 19th century, and fathers of all modern corrupt Bible versions. In fairness to Dr. Rice, he didn't have the incredible library of wealth on the internet as we do today. So to answer the question: Did Dr. Curtis Hutson Preach A Different Gospel Than Dr. John R. Rice? The answers is: Yes and No!

Humbly said, Dr. Rice was wrong about [1]Westcott and Hort not being part of a Satanic conspiracy to corrupt the Holy Bible. They sure were, whether they realized it or not! Both men were unsaved Anglican ministers and supportive of Roman Catholicism. Both men denied numerous fundamental doctrines of the Christian faith; such as, Christ's virgin birth, a literal Heaven and Hell, denied Jesus' deity, denied the doctrine of atonement, and the inerrancy of the Scriptures. [2]Pastor Max Younce exposes Westcott and Hort here.

So Dr. Rice wasn't always correct! We must not cite him as an authority on repentance!

Although I disagree with Dr. Rice's use of the phrase "turn from sin," because the Bible never teaches that, I am convinced that Brother Rice was saved and correct on the Gospel itself, as evidenced by the following helpful quote:

> "There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God "now commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith. ...Everyone who genuinely repented under the preaching of John the Baptist put his trust in the Saviour John the Baptist preached, and was regenerated. There is no such thing as being "a disciple of John the Baptist" in any honest sense without being a disciple of Jesus, that is, without trusting Christ for salvation." Evangelist John R. Rice, "Acts: Filled With The Spirit," pp. 251-252; Sword Of The Lord, Murfreesboro, Tennessee; ©1963

As Dr. Rice just plainly said: "One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ." So Dr. Rice DIDN'T require people to turn from sin to be saved, he simply believed that when you BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST you have turned from sin. Dr. Rice makes is clear that "TRUSTING IN JESUS CHRIST" is all that is required to be saved. And of course, to trust Christ MUST includes the admission that one is a guilty sinner, because we need to know what we are being saved from (Romans 3:19-20; Galatians 3:24-26). Trusting Christ MUST also include acknowledgement of three facts of the Gospel (1 Corinthians 15:1-4):

1. Christ DIED on the cross for our sins.
2. Christ was BURIED.
3. Christ bodily RESURRECTED from the dead three days later.

Nothing more is required or permitted by God. Anyone who requires a person to turn away from living a lifestyle of sin is WRONG. The very idea is silly, because NO ONE has ever turned away from sinning. Even the best saints still SIN (Romans 7:14-25). The Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) today has 45,000 member churches. Every SBC church that I have attended teaches that you must give up your sinful ways to get to Heaven, which is a false gospel. They all preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, requiring that you surrender control of your life over to Christ, to follow and live for Him from now on. None of that is the Gospel. I love what Pastor Harry A Ironside said:

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past …Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all." Pastor Harry A. Ironside, "What Is The Gospel?"

Missionary to India for over 30 years, Evangelist David C. Cloud, is a good man as far as good men go. But he is a bitter enemy against Pastor Jack Hyles, for which I do not respect him. David Cloud has horribly dubbed Dr. Hyles: "The King Of Shallow Soulwinning!" On the Day of Pentecost, the Bible says the Apostle Peter preached the Gospel and 3,000 people got saved. No one was interrogated. No one had to be watched to see if their life changed. No one was required to forsake their sinful lifestyle. They simply "gladly received his Word" (Acts 2:41). That is, they heard the Gospel and they BELIEVED it! (Galatians 3:2). Now, David Cloud can call that type of soulwinning "shallow," but it is the Bible way and the only way to be saved! I have read [3]Mr. Cloud's plan of damnation, and it is not the free grace Gospel.

It was David Cloud who started saying garbage that Pastor Curtis Hutson and Dr. John R. Rice didn't agree on salvation. They both believed the same Gospel!!! They just presented it differently. The only difference is that Dr. Hutson refused to use the words: "turn from sin" as Dr. Rice did. But from the quote I just shared with you, Brother Rice made it very clear that he believed: "One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ." That is the opposite of what we are hearing preached in 90 % of Bible colleges and churches today! [4]Look at this Satanic tommyrot preached at Bob Jones University nowadays by Dr. Steve Pettit.

It is my humble opinion that Dr. John R. Rice hindered many people from getting saved, by his use of the unbiblical phrase "turn from your sin." Likewise, I believe that cartoon artist Jack Chick was saved, but he also sinfully embellished the simple Gospel, requiring people to "turn away from sin (repent)" in all 800,000,000 of his Chick Tracts on the back page, step number 2 in his perverse plan of damnation. I believe Jack was saved because I have read his website about Jesus' imputed righteousness, in which he never mentions the word repent even once. I think Jack Chick knew he was in error, and struggling with the issue, trying to remedy the matter by writing a correct Gospel elsewhere. Likely, in his thinking, he couldn't change his plan of salvation 800,000,000 tracts later without looking like a fool, and angering many churches. But friend, we are not supposed to present our OWN plan of salvation. We are commanded to share GOD'S plan of salvation, which doesn't include turning from your sinning. Romans 5:6b plainly says, " CHRIST DIED FOR THE UNGODLY

!!!

I think a lot of people did get saved from Chick Tracts, who had heard the Gospel preached elsewhere, but Jack's cartoon evangelism impressed upon them to receive Christ. However, I have personally received emails from people, who testified to me that they almost went to Hell because of Jack Chick. One man told me that for several years he wouldn't come to Christ, because he had read in a Chick Tract that God required him to forsake his sinful lifestyle to be saved, and he wasn't ready to do that. Jack Chick has much blood on his hands, for adding an unnecessary requirement to God's simple plan of salvation, which is by faith alone in the Good News (Gospel) of the Lord Jesus Christ (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

What Steve Pettit, David Cloud and Jack Chick preach is NOT the Gospel, not even close! I humbly think Pilgrim's Progress author, John Bunyan, said it best:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Neither repentance or getting saved (which are the same event) result in a changed life. Getting saved doesn't change a person one bit, except that now God's Holy Spirit lives inside of that new believer. Once saved, all things are become new (2nd Corinthians 5:17), because now our spiritual eyes are opened (1 Corinthians 2:14-16). A believer must desire the sincere milk of the Word of God to grow (1 Peter 2:2). The Word of God sanctifies us, because it is THE TRUTH (John 17:17). God wants every believer to make a second decision, to yield our self as a living sacrifice to serve Christ as our "Lord" (Romans 12:1-2). I think Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) said it very well:

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." Pastor M.R. DeHaan, "Hebrews"; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

In summary, I do not think David Cloud is saved. He denies that faith alone can save a man. Mr. Cloud teaches that you must be willing to stop living in sin to be saved, which is the same as requiring someone to keep the Mosaic law, which cannot justify a man (Romans 3:29-20). Only faith justifies a man (Galatians 3:26). I think [5]Dr. Curtis Hutson gets repentance and the Gospel 100 % correct. I think [6]Dr. John R. Rice got the Gospel correct, but poorly chose his wording, which unfortunately has caused much confusion in the churches who respect his theology. John R. Rice was wrong to tell people to turn from sin to be saved.

I would expose him as a heretic if it weren't for the fact that he explains exactly what he means, which I shared with you earlier:

"One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ." All that Dr. Rice believed a person needs to do to be saved is to TRUST IN JESUS CHRIST!!! I agree. That is Biblical (John 6:47).

The word

“repent” as it relates to salvation always means “a change of mind.” This is the Greek noun form, metanoia. The Greek verb form (e.g., Mark 1:15) of the word is metanoeo, which means “to think differently.” The Bible doesn’t tell us what to think differently about. God intentionally chose to use this open-ended, all-inclusive word. In other words, you must repent of whatever it is that is hindering you from doing the ONLY thing you can do to be saved, put your FAITH in Jesus Christ. Galatians 3:26, “For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.”

Not one verse in the Bible teaches to “turn from sin” to be saved! Proponents of the “turn from your sins” heresy always run to every verse in the Bible which says to “repent,” taking the verses out of proper context, ASS-U-ming that the word

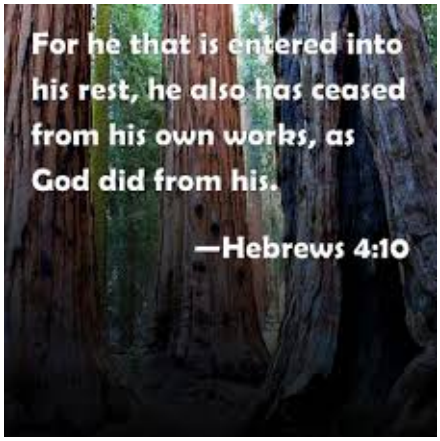
“turn from sin.” Dear friend, since the ONLY thing that can keep a person out of Heaven is UNBELIEF, then the only sin that you need to literally repent of is UNBELIEF.

The man, woman or child who BELIEVES on Jesus Christ, no matter how ungodly or unwilling to depart from their sins they may be, will be instantly forgiven and pardoned upon the basis of Christ’s sacrifice on the cross. Repentance is solely a matter of acknowledging THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner (John 3:21; 2nd Timothy 2:25), and turning TOWARD GOD (Acts 20:21) to be saved by faith alone in His only begotten Son (John 3:16). Whatever changes God wants to see happen in that person’s life, you can be assured that God is not an absent parent, and He will attend to that matter (Hebrews 12:6-8).

The Gospel of John is God’s Gospel tract according to John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." In John we find the word "believe" mentioned 88 times, but there is NO MENTION of the words: "surrender" or "repent" or "follow" or "confess" or "run the race" or anything else to get to Heaven. Jesus said in John 6:28-29 that the only "work of God" to be saved is to "BELIEVE ON HIM."

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous; it is a gift for the guilty!



Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to “repent” means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

Kindest regards and thank you for reading.

6.9.3 Evangelist David Cloud Is A Lying False Prophet (2025-09-04 08:45)

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:”

Romans 1:16,

“For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

Longtime missionary to India, Evangelist David W. Cloud is a corrupt and dangerous man doctrinally, responsible for sending thousands of people to Hell with his false gospel. The inspired Word of God very plainly defines “ by which we are saved, those who BELIEVE IT! The Gospel is the GOOD NEWS of Christ’s death on the cross to pay for our sins, His burial and His miraculous bodily resurrection three days later from the dead.

8482

In a 2012 (updated in 2019) article on his website, titled:

“[1]Repentance In Evangelism,” David Cloud heretical starts off his article with this untrue statement:

> “Repentance is often a missing element in evangelism today, but it is a prominent theme in the Bible. Following are the answers to some important questions about repentance.”
>
> Evangelist David Cloud, “ [2]Repentance In Evangelism ”

First off, although repentance is a prominent theme in the Bible, it is NOT a prominent theme in salvation. Evidence of this is that not once does the entire Gospel of John mention the word “ repent.

” Not once! This is because the man who BELIEVES the Gospel has also repented. Repentance and faith are not two separate actions, even though they are two separate things theologically.

The word “repent” in the Bible concerning salvation always is either the Greek noun, metanoia, which means: “a change of mind”; or it is the Greek verb, metanoeo, which means: “ to think differently.

Repent in the Bible concerning salvation NEVER means to forsake or turn away from your sins, because that would constitute works. Nor does repentance mean to be willing to turn from sins. Not one verse in the inspired King James Bible (beware of the corrupt modern perversions of the Bible) says to repent

“of your sins” to be saved. Ungodly false prophets added those unbiblical words to God’s simple plan of salvation (Proverbs 30:5-6). As I just plainly showed you from 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, the Apostle Paul in his defining of the Gospel, never mentions turning away from your sins, nor surrendering your life to Christ as

“

Lord,

as David Cloud wickedly teaches (which I will show you in a moment).

Pastor Cloud is wrong on repentance and; therefore, wrong on salvation. He is an infidel, an unsaved religious man, still hellbound in his sins. This explains why David Cloud cannot understand God’s free grace, which is without works (Romans 4:4-7).

Cloud further falsely states:

> “Many churches don’t preach repentance. They say that only faith is necessary for salvation. But repentance is commanded by God. It is mentioned 60 times in the New Testament.” Evangelist David Cloud, “[3]Repentance In Evangelism”

Neither does the Gospel of John preach repentance! John 20:31, “

But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

” As you just read for yourself, the entire purpose for which God authored the Gospel of John is to show humanity how to get to Heaven. If forsaking one’s sinful behavior, quitting the old sinful life, and surrender to Christ as supreme “

” to follow Him faithfully, were required to get to Heaven, then certainly John would have said so, but he doesn’t! Neither did the Apostle Paul mention repentance in his definition of the Gospel, which Paul said in Romans 1:16 and 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 we are saved by, if we simply BELIEVE IT.

The truth is found in John 3:20-21, “For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.” Carefully notice that the Bible does say: “he that turns from his sins cometh to the light”; but rather, it says: “he that doeth truth cometh to the light.” Repentance is a matter of acknowledging THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner, seeing your need for redemption, so that you will turn to the Savior in faith alone to be saved by God’s grace.

This is something very different than committing yourself to give up your sinful ways, which NO ONE has ever done. Even the best of God’s saints still sins continually (Romans 7:14-25). Sadly, David Cloud is woefully ignorant of the Holy Bible, because he is still unsaved and leans upon his own human understanding, instead of trusting upon the Lord (Proverbs 3:5-7).

If you still need more Biblical evidence to support the truth I just taught you, please read 2nd Timothy 2:25, “In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them *repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.” Again, we see here that repentance for salvation is NOT from sinning, but to acknowledge THE TRUTH — “ repentance to the acknowledging of the truth... ” Pastor Harry A. Ironside gets repentance 100 % correct:

> “It is the confession that one is utterly without merit, and if he is ever saved at all it can only be through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ, ’who gave himself a ransom for all.’ Here is firm footing for the soul who realizes that all self-effort is but sinking sand. Christ alone is the Rock of our salvation.” Pastor Harry A. Ironside; “[4]Except Ye Repent,” p. 36)

Clearly, Dr. Ironside taught a free grace view of the Gospel. Pastor Ironside correctly recognized repentance as the confession that “one is utterly without merit” and that if one is “ever saved at all it can only be through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ.” Salvation is without works of self-righteousness. Romans 4:5 plainly teaches that a man’s faith is COUNTED for righteousness, i.e., the righteousness of Jesus Christ is imputed to one’s heavenly record by faith. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Pastor Ironside further eloquently states:

> “Repentance is the recognition of my sinnership — the owning before God that I am as vile as He has declared me to be in His holy Word.”
>
> Pastor Harry A. Ironside; “ [5]Except Ye Repent ,” chapter 3

And also this helpful quote on Bible repentance from Pastor Ironside:

> “The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past …
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all.” Pastor Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: “ [6]What Is The Gospel? ”

I really love Pastor Ironside. A young 12 year old Harry Ironside [7]heard Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899) preach in Los Angeles. Two years later Harry fell under Holy Spirit conviction and got saved at age 14. The church building was so packed that there was no more room to enter. So a teenaged lad named Harry Ironside climbed up along the ceiling rafters, and listened intently while looking down upon the meeting. Harry didn’t repent to turn away from his sinful ways and commit his life to serve Christ to be saved; but rather, he repented (i.e., changed his mind) unto the Gospel itself, turning from unbelief to belief.

If repentance means “ to turn away from your sinful ways,

then that means you must start keeping the law (no more stealing, no more adultery, no more dishonoring your parents, no more covetousness

, et cetera - Exodus 20:1-17). What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:19-20,

“Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.” The primary purpose of God’s Old Testament law is to show mankind that WE ARE SINNERS

“ for by the law is the knowledge of sin.”

Thus, God NEVER intended that someone should be required to try to keep the law (i.e., turn away from their sins) to be saved. The very suggestion is wickedness and a false gospel.

If to “repent” means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

We must stay true to the simplicity of the gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief!!! We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3).

What About The Repentance Of John The Baptist?

David Cloud tries to uses John's repentance as evidence that we must turn from sins to be saved today. I would like now to quote Dr. John R. Rice, who perfectly explains the Baptism of John, showing that is was no different than BELIEIVNG on Jesus Christ to be saved, by faith alone:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God "now commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.
> Everyone who genuinely repented under the preaching of John the Baptist put his trust in the Saviour John the Baptist preached, and was regenerated. There is no such thing as being "a disciple of John the Baptist" in any honest sense without being a disciple of Jesus, that is, without trusting Christ for salvation. [emphasis added]

Oh dear friend, that is so beautiful. Please don't miss it! I have heard [8]Missionary David W. Cloud and other false teachers, attempt to portray Dr. Rice as a proponent of Lordship Salvation, saying he taught that people must turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved. David Cloud even goes as far as to wickedly pitch Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) against his successor Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995). I explain this issue in the preceding [9]article link. Mr. Cloud claims that Curtis Hutson leaves off repentance, thus corrupting the Gospel. [10]Nothing could be further from the truth.

So we see that Dr. Rice is correct, the man who trusts in Christ HAS also repented. It is unfortunate that Dr. Rice chose to use unbiblical terminology, because the Bible NEVER says: " turn from sins

to be saved anywhere! No doubt Brother Rice heard other preachers using that junk theology and he adopted it, which is a major problem among nearly all preachers. Please remember, Dr. Rice is not our final authority, the inspired Word of God is!

Beware Of False Prophet David W. Cloud's Counterfeit Gospel

In the following quote from David Cloud, you will see how he subtly wrests THE TRUTH of God's Word into a lie, teaching that to be saved your life must change (sadly, this is the demonic garbage that is preached by Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College today):

> Repentance is not a change of life. Repentance a change of mind about God and sin that results in a change of life. Many who "believe" or "pray the sinner's prayer" have no intention to change or to allow God to take control of their lives. They are not interested in being a disciple of Christ. They want a ticket to heaven that keeps them out of hell, but they want to continue to live as they please. They want to "believe in Jesus," but they have no interest in obeying Him. That is not biblical salvation. The sinner must be ready to turn from his false gods, including self-worship, in order to worship and serve the true God ("ye turned to God from idols," 1 Thessalonians 1:9). Evangelist David Cloud, "[11]Repentance In Evangelism"

David Cloud is a LIAR!!! According to the preceding quote by Pastor Cloud, you cannot be saved unless you:

1. have intent to change your life
2. have intent to become a disciple of Christ
3. allow God to take control of your life
4. have intent to stop living in sin
5. have intent to obey Jesus

NONE OF THAT is Biblical! Dear reader, I triple dog dare you to go back and read our text passage of Scripture from 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, and see if any of the things which Mr. Cloud requires for salvation are mentioned in Paul's Gospel. They are not! That means David Cloud is a liar, an infidel and a false prophet! What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." David Cloud is a liar for adding words to God's Word.

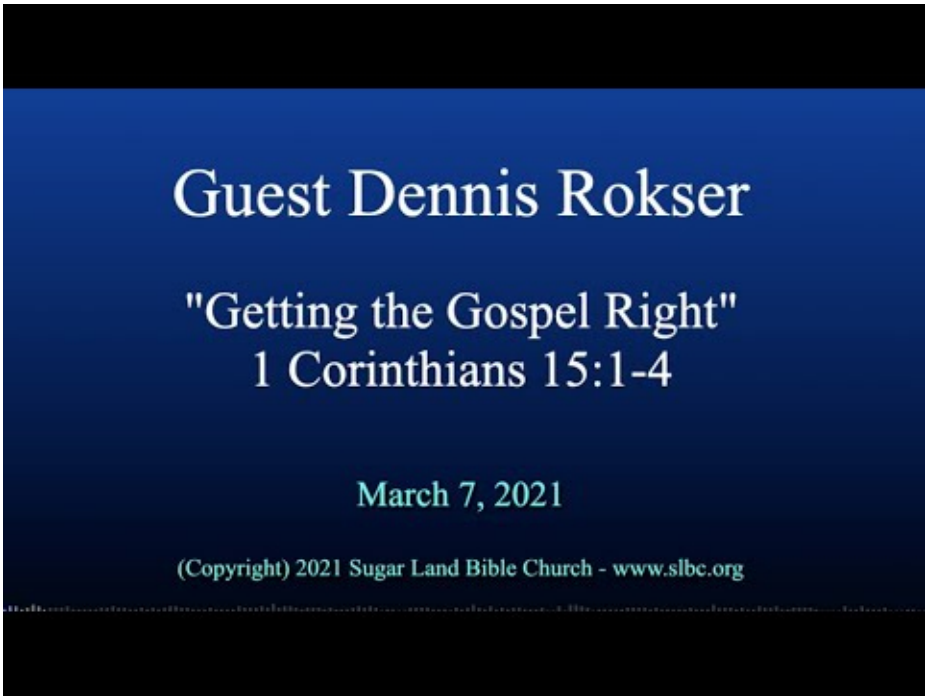
Pastor Cloud in the article I have shared with you claims that Jesus, Paul and Peter all preached repentance. But THE TRUTH is that David Cloud is taking the words of all those men out of context. Nowhere in the Gospel of John does Jesus tell anyone to repent to be saved. What saith the Scripture?

Matthew 21:32, " For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him." Do you see that repentance leads to BELIEVING the Gospel? Jesus is rebuking the self-righteous Pharisees here. Jesus said the Pharisees didn't repent (change their mind) to believe when they heard John's preaching, but THE ADMITTED SINNERS DID!!!

Carefully notice that Jesus said the harlots and tax cheats repented to BELIEVE. The Bible never says they turned away from their sinful ways.

David Cloud falsely claims in his horrible article that no believer in the New Testament didn't change:

> First, we have plenty of examples of believer's who lived in horrible sin (Demas, Ananias and Sapphira, Peter, the harlots and publicans, the saved man and his girlfriend in 1st Corinthians 5:1-5, the saved man who received no rewards in 1st Corinthians 3:15, Mary Magdalene, et cetera).
>
> Second, just because saints changed later on as a result of God's indwelling Holy Spirit sanctifying them (John 17:17), has absolutely NOTHING to do with the free gift of getting saved! David Cloud is foolishly front-loading the Gospel, making demands of lost sinners that only a mature believer would posses. Consequently, many people aren't getting saved because they think God requires them to forsake sinful bad habits to be saved, and that blood is all upon David Cloud's incompetent and wicked hands!!!



Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan said it best, I humbly think:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

David Cloud is guilty of corrupting the inspired Word of God, casting stumbling blocks before the people, damning their souls to an eternity in the Lake of Fire with his false gospel. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again.

Pastor Cloud is your typical confused and lying false teacher. In one breath he teaches that salvation is a gift, but in the next breath he insists that it will cost you your sins and your life. It simply cannot be both dear friend. Romans 11:6, " And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work." David Cloud is caught between grace and works, hellbound in his sincere misunderstanding of the light of the truth of the Gospel.

6.9.4 Ray Comfort's Wrong Understanding Of What It Means To Be 'Born Again' (2025-09-05 08:47)

1st Timothy 6-7, "From which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling; Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm."

There is a disturbing trend among evangelicals to explain being "born again" as an "EXPERIENCE," instead of as a supernatural miracle of God in response to a man's faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I have a copy of Ray Comfort's "THE EVIDENCE BIBLE" in front of me. I bought it a few years ago. On page 1529, under the commentary section, "How Can You Know That You Are Saved?," The Evidence Bible states:

> Christians believed in God's existence before their conversion, however, when they obeyed the Word of God, turned from their sins, and embraced Jesus Christ, they stopped merely believing. The moment they reached out and touched the heater bar of God's mercy, they moved out of belief into the realm of experience. This experience is so radical, Jesus referred to it as being born again. [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: The Way of the Master Evidence Bible, by Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron, page 1529; ©2003 by Bridge-Logos Publishers.

May I say, being born again is NOT an "experience." Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron wrongly understand being "born-again" as an EXPERIENCE that involves forsaking one's sinful lifestyle and "EMBRACING" Jesus Christ. Ray Comfort gets this idea from an errant understanding of James 2:19, "Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble." Many foolish Bible teachers misinterpret James 2:19 to mean that simple BELIEF on Christ is insufficient to be saved. This is not what the Bible is saying here. It simply means that no one is going to Heaven just because they believe there is a God.

This is why Jesus told His disciples in Luke 13:23-24, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." You can believe in God all you want—you can serve Him, go to church, tithe, sacrifice and do good all your life, and then go straight to the Lake of Fire forever to burn!!! Jesus said: "Ye must be born again" (John 3:7).

What did Jesus mean by "born again?" The question is answered in John 3:6, "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit." When you were born the first time into the world, that was of the flesh; but the new birth (or second birth) is when the Holy Spirit of God comes inside your body to indwell you (upon your faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ). Being "born again" means that you have been born into God's family! Whereas all men are born spiritually DEAD from birth (Romans 5:15), in order to enter into the Kingdom of God a person must be born for the second time, spiritually (John 3:6-7). The first birth is PHYSICAL, earthly; The second birth is SPIRITUAL, by the Holy Spirit of God (John 1:12-14).

Biblically, mere childlike BELIEVING is all that God requires to be saved. This is what Jesus said in John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

In Mr. Comfort's thinking, being born again means moving from the realm of merely believing in God, to the realm of leaving one's sinful ways and clinging to Christ. Mr. Comfort recognizes this as an EXPERIENCE, which to him means being born-again.

The Word of God teaches something entirely different. A person is "born again" by the Holy Spirit of God, which is initiated by mere childlike belief in Christ's death on the cross for our sins, His burial and resurrection three days later. The Bible defines this as the "Gospel" in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Whereas The Evidence Bible teaches that a transforming "radical experience" is what it means to be born-again; the Holy Bible teaches that it is the transforming power of God's Holy Spirit that produces the new birth:

> John 1:12-13, “But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.”

It is a false plan of salvation to explain the new birth as a mere transforming experience. Any radical transformation is wrought solely by the Holy Spirit of God. It is heresy to require an experience, a radical change, or some transformation from a person in order to be saved. This is because eternal life is a free gift (Ephesians 2:8-9). Salvation is a TAKE proposition, not a GIVE proposition. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved. It is the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit that changes a person, and not our own human effort.

Ray Comfort understands salvation backwards. He requires a person to commit to leave their sinful lifestyle, and embrace Christ, which is the radical experience he requires from people to be saved. Biblically, you don’t have to embrace Christ to be saved, you simply need to believe on Him. That’s what the Bible teaches. John 3:16, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

Although a person may or may not express emotions at the time of salvation, emotions are not required for salvation. Neither tears, nor any outward manifestation of inner changes, nor a desire to serve God, nor forsake sins, nor any radical experience is necessary to receive the free gift of eternal life. IT IS A GIFT, and a “gift” is free in every sense. For a wonderful presentation of the simple plan of salvation by Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008), please see [1]Get God’s Gift.

Furthermore, forsaking one’s sinful lifestyle is NOT what it means Biblically to “repent.” Repentance is “changing one’s mind,” that is, realizing and acknowledging one’s guilt of sin for breaking a holy God’s commandments (Romans 3:19). The only thing you need to repent of to be saved is whatever has been hindering you from coming to Christ to be saved (Hebrews 6:1). The man who BELIEVES the Gospel has repented, otherwise he never would have come to Jesus Christ to be saved (John 3:20). Our part in salvation is simply to BELIEVE on Jesus Christ, and whatever else is a part of our salvation is solely God’s department, and you can be assured He will attend to that.

The Term “Born Again” Doesn’t Refer To Having A “Radical Experience”

I have nothing personal against Ray Comfort nor Kirk Cameron. I am a born-again Christian and a Baptist preacher. As such I am simply contending for the Christian faith as Jude 1:3 commands us all to do as believers. It concerns me when I hear Bible teachers who don’t truly understand the Bible, teaching that the new birth is merely a radical transformation caused by turning away from sinful living and embracing Jesus Christ. That’s not the Gospel. That’s not salvation. That’s not the new birth. That’s reformation!!! I am 100 % convinced that Ray Comfort is not a genuine Christian.

The Way of the Master Evidence Bible has much good information in it, but if they are wrong on salvation, they are wrong on everything. It’s like buttoning a shirt, if you get the first button wrong, then all the buttons will be wrong. Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron have a wrong grasp on what it means to be saved. According to the quote I provided to you from The Evidence Bible earlier, they understand the new birth to be a descriptive term used by our Lord to describe the "radical experience" of forsaking sinful bad habits and embracing Christ. May I kindly say, the term "born again" does not refer to having a "radical experience." That's not why Jesus used the term.

To be "born again" means to have He (Christ), Who is the beginning (Revelation 1:8), born in us. Jesus taught Nicodemus (a Jewish religious leader) that to enter into the Kingdom of God, a man must be born of both water (the physical birth) and of the Spirit (the spiritual birth). Jesus said, "Ye must be born again" (John 3:1-7). Ray Comfort places the emphasis upon AN EXPERIENCE, which is produced by forsaking sinful living and embracing Christ; but the Bible places the emphasis upon THE GIFT OF ETERNAL LIFE, which is produced by believing the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The great spiritual danger of teaching the new birth as "AN EXPERIENCE" (let along a "radical" experience) is that people will think they must have "an experience" to get saved, and that's not true. When you believe (fully trust) the Gospel (Good News) of Christ's death on the cross, His burial and bodily resurrection three days later, you are saved. When you get saved you won't feel any different inside. When I got saved I didn't see stars, angels or hear heavenly voices. The presence of the Holy Spirit is that still, small, quiet, voice of God:

> 1st Kings 19:11-12, "And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake: And after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice."

I love that! The prophet Elijah looked for God in the wind, the earthquake and in the fire, but God came to Elijah in A STILL SMALL VOICE. That is always where you will find God my friend. Turn off the TV. Turn off the radio. Put down the electronic toys. Pick up the Holy Bible and let God's Holy Spirit speak to your heart in that precious STILL SMALL VOICE.

I could never recommend The Evidence Bible to anyone, because it is misleading concerning the plan of salvation. Mr. Comfort also [2]butchers Matthew 7:21-23. I admire Ray Comfort in many ways as an aggressive street evangelist, and he has so much potential to become a great preacher, but he needs to forsake Lordship Salvation and proclaim the gift of God instead. A gift is a gift is a gift! It's not that hard to figure out.

If you're born ONCE, then you die twice; but if you're born TWICE, then you only die once. It's that simple. Ephesians 2:1, " And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;" We were all born spiritually dead, alienated from God because of sin. All humans are sinners by nature and by choice. Our sinful nature was inherited down through the generations of time from our great ancestor Adam. Romans 5:12-13, "Wherefore, as by one man [Adam] sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned: (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law." Adam brought the curse of sin into the world, opening the floodgates of sin and death when he CHOSE to sin.

We learn from Adam that our actions do affect others! But thanks be to God, in Jesus Christ we can have redemption! Romans 5:15, "

But not as the offence, so also is *the free gift. For if through the offence of one [Adam] many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

Romans 6:23, " For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Forgiveness of sins and eternal life are the FREE GIFT of God. Jesus paid for this gift with His broken body on the cross and precious shed blood.

I really hate when foolish preachers sometimes refer to Jesus

"spilling" His blood. Dear reader, Jesus shedding His blood on the cross for our sins was no accident! Nothing was spilt! Hebrews 12:2, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

" Nobody did anything to hurt Jesus that He didn't wilfully choose to endure for our sakes, so that we could be freely offered the free gift of eternal life by FAITH ALONE WITHOUT WORKS.

With these precious truths in mind, Oh how foolish it is for any misguided by sincere preacher today to require lost sinners to turn away from your sin to receive God's free gift. It is not what can can do for God that saves you dear friend, but what our magnificent Savior has already done to pay for our sins through Calvary's cross. When Jesus raised up from the dead three days later, He was physically seen by over 500 believers at once (1st Corinthians 15:6), and He physically ascended into Heaven (Acts 1:11), and physically entered into the heavenly Holy Place (Hebrews 9:12), where He sprinkled His physical blood upon the Mercy Seat (Hebrews 12:24), in the presence of God the Father on our behalf (Hebrews 9:24), to appease the wrath of God (propitiation) against sinners with His precious BLOOD (1st John 2:2; 1st Peter 1:23). Amen and amen! Jesus is precious!!!!!!!

Ray Comfort Foolishly Says Sinful Believers Are Not "Safe" In Jesus

One thing I notice is that Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron avoid the topic of The Eternal Security of the Believer entirely. On page 1513 of THE EVIDENCE BIBLE, under the section "Questions & Objections," Ray Comfort addresses the statement: "Because Jesus died on the cross we are forgiven of every sin."

Here's Ray Comfort's disturbing reply to this statement...

> "The forgiveness that is in Jesus Christ is conditional upon 'repentance towards God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ' (Acts 20:21). It is a gift that God offers to everyone, but individuals must receive it by repenting and trusting in Christ, or they will remain dead in their sins. No one has Biblical grounds to continue in sin, assuming that they are safe just because Jesus died on the cross. See 1 John 3:4-6." [Emphasis added]
> SOURCE: THE EVIDENCE BIBLE, by Ray Comfort, pg. 1513; 2003, Bridge-Logos Publishers, Orlando, Florida

Those are some very dangerous words at the end, "…assuming that they are safe just because Jesus died on the cross." Are not all believers "safe" in Jesus Christ? Yes, they certainly are safe (Ephesians 1:13; Isaiah 28:16; Romans 10:11); but Ray Comfort teaches they are not. Ray Comfort does not fully understand the Biblical doctrine of the [3]IMPUTED righteousness of God (Philippians 3:9; Romans 10:3-4).

Ray Comfort is teaching damnable heresy to say that believers who fail to forsake their sinful living are not safe in their salvation. Such reasoning places a heavy burden upon the sinner, requiring one to depart from sinful bad habits as a prerequisite to be saved. This is human effort added to God's simple plan of salvation. First of all, no one can repent of all their sins. Even the best Christians still commit sin every day, both in deed and thought. It is a sin even when we fail to pray as we ought (1st Samuel 12:23).

Check what I say and you'll discover that it is true, that... [4]Mormons, [5]Seventh-Day Adventists, [6]Jehovah's Witness, John MacArthur, [7]Paul Washer and [8]Ray Comfort all define repentance THE SAME wrong way. They all mistakenly define repentance as ceasing from a sinful lifestyle and surrendering one's entire will to Christ's Lordship as a requirement to be saved. If a person professes faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, but still hangs onto their sinful bad habits, they are wrongly accused of never having repented and are said to still be unsaved. Thus, salvation requires some degree of human effort with all these aforementioned religious cults and false prophets.

Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron totally fail to grasp the reality that eternal life is a FREE GIFT (Romans 5:15, 18). Ray Comfort teaches a performance-based plan of salvation; whereas, the Bible teaches that eternal life is a GIFT. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Being born-again is not an experience; but rather, it is a supernatural miracle of God in response to a person's faith in the Gospel message.

The Holy Spirit of God comes to indwell (live inside) the body of every believer the moment they receive Jesus as their Savior (John 1:12; Romans 8:9; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17). The "new birth" refers to the Spirit of Christ which comes to indwell the believer (Romans 8:9). If you're born once, you die twice; but if your born twice, you die once. Although we must all die a physical death, the second death is only for Christ-rejecters who die in their sins (Revelation 21:8).

Anyone who realizes they are a sinner in God's eyes, and believes the Good News of Christ's death on the cross for their sins, and that He was buried and raised up bodily after three days, is immediately saved and has eternal life. Salvation is received, not achieved. Eternal life is a gift, and a gift need only be taken. To receive a gift there can be no obligations, requirements, prerequisites nor strings attached. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

"Nobody can love God who doesn't love sinners!"

6.9.5 The Fallacy Of Turning From Sins To Be Saved (2025-09-06 08:49)

Psalms 130:3, “

If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?

In nearly every church that we attend today, we hear the Devil’s poisonous lie that in order to get to Heaven, you must repent “of your sins,” which is nowhere taught in the inspired King James Bible.

In nearly every church today, and the apostate Bible colleges that mistrain today’s theologically perverse pastors, you will hear the Devil’s lie that to be saved you must turn away from your sins to be saved.

Yet, there is no such teaching found in the inspired King James Bible. I intentionally mention the King James Bible, because many of the [1]Devil’s modern Bible versions corrupt the Scripture, adding words that God did not add (Proverbs 30:5-6). Please don’t use any Bible other than the inspired King James Bible. It will require that you study to understand it, but you will be getting THE TRUTH.

The obvious truth is that NO ONE has ever turned away from a lifestyle of sinning. Even the best of Christians still sin many times a day. In fact, we sin every second of the day. We are in a continual state of being a sinner! You are woefully in error if you think that you appear righteous in God’s eyes when you are not engaged in doing something sinful. We were born in sin! Psalms 51:5, “ Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me. ”

NO ONE has ever turned from their sins. James 2:10, “For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.” It is a Satanic idea that anyone could ever please God by forsaking a sinful lifestyle as a requirement to receive His free gift of eternal life. The only requirement of God for a human being to be saved is to realize that you are a guilty sinner in need of a Savior. Thus realizing your need you put your trust in Jesus Christ to be born-again. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: "

Fools like pastors' Marty Herron, Chuck Phelps, Steve Pettit, Gary Walton and John MacArthur, are sending people to Hell with their demonic false plan of salvation. You cannot get to Heaven by partial faith in Christ PLUS keeping the law. As we just clearly read in Philippians 3:9, we are NOT saved by our own righteousness, WHICH IS OF THE LAW. Those deadly preachers today who falsely teach that you must "turn away from your sinful ways" to receive God's free gift of eternal life, are LIARS!!!

To the carnal man who is not a child of God, it seems reasonable that to get to Heaven you must first give up your desire to wilfully commit sin, and forsake a life of sinning. That does seem reasonable from a human point of view. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 3:5, "

Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. " These foolish neo-evangelical pastors today in the shameful Bob Jones University camp, Southern Baptist Convention, Faith Bible College And Theological Seminary and umpteen more corrupt organizations, are leaning upon their own understanding, not trusting the Lord.

The FACT of the matter is that nowhere does the Bible teach you must try to stop sinning to be saved. The very idea is offensive to the precious blood that Jesus shed on the cross to pay for our sins! JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! Listen dear friend, God's gift of salvation is NOT a reward or exchange of some sort, where you are required to give something in return to Christ for His payment for your sins. Jesus shed His blood and died on the cross to purchase our redemption, because you and I were guilty sinners under the curse of the Old Testament law. Galatians 3:10, "For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them."

We were all cursed from birth because of our sinful nature. When you get saved, by faith alone in Jesus Christ, then you are no longer under the curse of the law, you are now and forever under God's saving grace. Romans 5:20, "Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:

" A believer cannot fall from grace. As God's children, we can only fall IN GRACE, but never FROM GRACE! Only the unsaved person has fallen from God's saving grace (Galatians 5:4), which is what has happened to Marty Herron, Steve Pettit and Gary Walton —they have all fallen from God's grace, unable to go to Heaven as long as they think that a person must keep the law (i.e., turn from your sins) to be saved.

Dear reader, if you are truly born-again, then THE ONLY righteousness that you have is the imputed righteousness of God. The very second that you and I trusted Christ, our sins were imputed to Christ, and His righteousness was imputed (credited) to us by faith alone. What saith the Scripture? Romans 4:4-5, "

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." We are saved by faith alone. The reality of the genuineness of your faith is YOUR FAITH!!!

Please don't listen to these neo-evangelical fools today, like Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) [2]who says that the genuineness of the reality of your faith is perseverance to live the Christian life. Steve Pettit is a false prophet and an unsaved infidel!!! The reality of the genuineness of your faith is YOUR FAITH!!! Anyone preacher who teaches that we won't know if someone's faith is real until we determine if their life has changed is preaching another gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

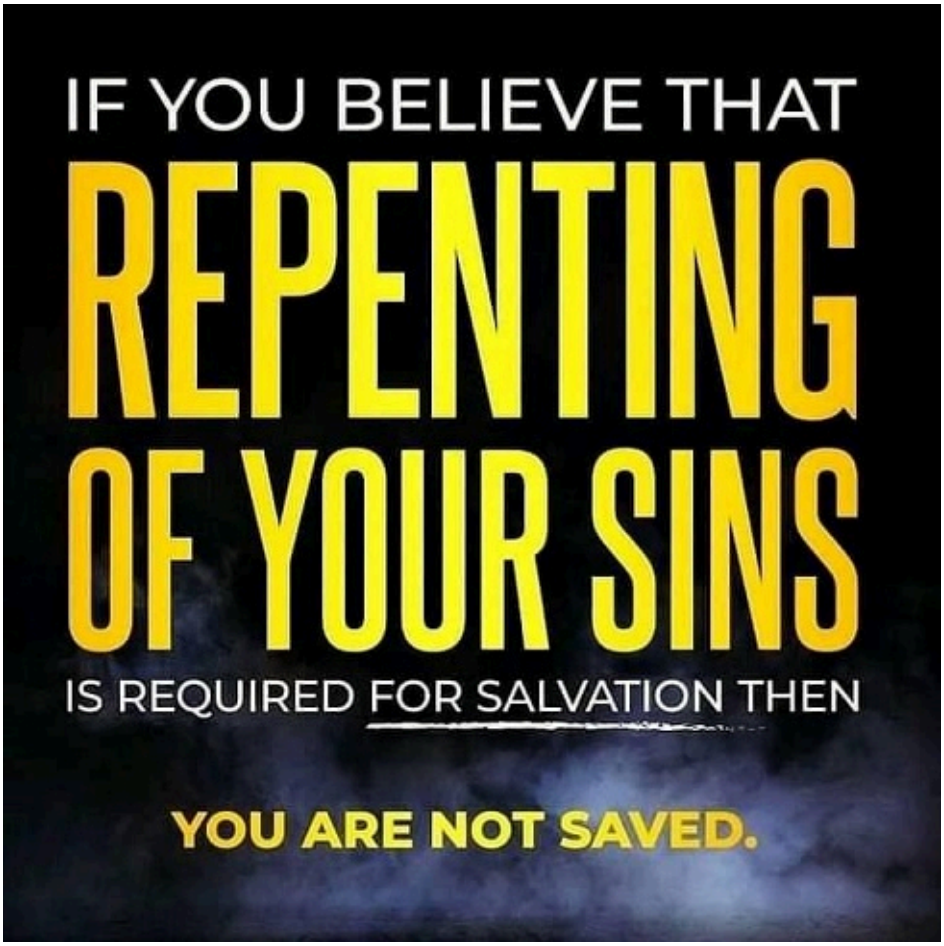
On the beautiful Day of Pentecost, the Bible says that 3,000 people were immediately saved and added to the church. They simply heard the Apostle Peter preach the Gospel and they that gladly received it were instantly and forever born-again, by faith alone (Acts 2:41). Dear friend, the only kind of life that God gives is ETERNAL LIFE, not PROBATIONARY LIFE and not TEMPORARY LIFE. Either you are saved forever or you have never been saved at all, there is nothing else. ONCE SAVED, ALWAY SAVED!!! You don't need to live a changed life to prove that you are saved. Living a changed life proves that you love Jesus (John 15:14), but it doesn't prove that you have trusted Him to save you.

When a man and woman get married, it is a legal matter, just like getting saved is a legal matter of justification. Now, the husband and wife ought to behave themselves, to be responsible. They should be faithful to one another. They should help and be good to each other, which proves that they love one another. But if they DON'T do all these things, and they are mean, abusive and horrible toward each other, or cheat on each other in adultery, does that prove that they were never married? No, of course it doesn't mean that. They are still married because it was legally settled the day they choose each other, just like you choose Jesus on the day you got saved. That is why married couples have to go to a court of law to get a divorce, because it is a LEGAL MATTER.

So if you go out and live in gross immorality, and do not faithfully run the race for Christ, and you waste your life in riotous living and wickedness, YOU ARE STILL SAVED (because it was legally settled the very moment that God justified you by faith in His only begotten Son).

So please don't make the same damnable error friend. Salvation is solely of the Lord.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous; it is a gift for the guilty!



Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

We must stay true to the simplicity of the gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief!!! We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3).

6.9.6 The Jews Tried To Turn From Their Sins But Failed (2025-09-07 08:50)

Romans 2:11-16, "For there is no respect of persons with God. For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law; (For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified. For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves: Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;) In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel."

Under the Mosaic law, the Jews were required by God to observe numerous ceremonial laws. These were not laws required to get to Heaven, but to avoid national judgment if the Jews didn't obey God. This is why God chastised His people in Babylonian captivity for 70 years (1 year for every 7 years the Jews failed to keep the Sabbath Day). No one has ever been saved by works, nor by partial faith in Christ plus works (Acts 10:43).

Romans 3:19-20 plainly tells us that the primary PURPOSE for the Old Testament law of Moses was to give men THE KNOWLEDGE OF SIN. This was necessary so that seeing their sinfulness, the law of God would bring men to Christ to be saved by grace through faith (Galatians 3:24-26). But many of the Jews didn't understand this truth because they viewed the things of God from an unsaved carnal viewpoint:

> 1st Peter 2:5-8, "Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded. Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed."

As we just read, the unsaved Jew who knowingly rejected the truth of the coming Messiah, remained in darkness, and Christ to them became as a stumbling block. In His great love for man, God the Father sent His only begotten Son into the world to die on a cross to pay our debt of sin (John 3:16). The coming Messiah (Jesus Christ) was supposed to be the chief cornerstone for the Jews, upon which everything else in the house of God would be built. But by rejecting the blessed Savior, the Jews instead made Christ a stumbling block and a rock of offence.

As we enter into the New Testament, we see these type of unsaved religious Jews, attempting to keep the law of Moses to merit Heaven. They utterly failed to grasp the true purpose of the Mosaic law, which was to show men their sinnership, to bring them to Christ to be saved by God's grace through faith alone in Jesus Christ (Romans 10:3-4; Philippians 3:9).

In the Epistle of Romans, the Apostle Paul is writing to the believers at Rome (Romans 1:6-7), but he teaches them the truth, just in case some of them are not really saved:

> Romans 2:12-15, "For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law; (For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified. For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves: Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;)"

Many preachers misunderstand verse 13, teaching that we must keep the law to be saved. Evangelist Dan Corner on the internet is one such infidel, who preaches a counterfeit gospel, damning men's souls to Hell. Dan Corner cites Romans 2:13 to support his false teaching that works are necessary to get to Heaven. But kindly said, Dan is woefully ignorant of the Bible.

In the preceding Scripture passage, Paul is saying that whether a person is aware of the Ten Commandments of not, they are still guilty for breaking them. For the ignorant person who hasn't heard the Bible, God has still given them a moral conscience to guild them, so that all men are without excuse. That is why even in the remote pagan jungles of tribal groups in Africa and places around the world, sinful people still know what is wrong and that all wrongdoing must be paid for, so they cut and torture themselves as a form of penance, and even in some cases have sacrificed their children or themselves in an attempt to cleanse away the evil, hoping to redeem themselves. Man's need is God's proof!

The Pharisees and other religious Jews in New Testament times, were trying to keep the law of Moses to get to Heaven. But here in Romans chapter two the Apostle Paul rebukes them, teaching them in verse 13 that in order to get to Heaven, you actually must keep the law. It is not enough to merely hear the law, which is all that the Jews were doing! They were breaking God's commandments, but foolishly thought they could still get to Heaven in their false religion. They had utterly failed to understand the reason for which God gave His law in the first place, which is to show mankind our hopelessness because of sin, and our desperate need for the Savior (Galatians 3:24-26).

Dear reader, this is exactly what is happening still today in fake churches around the world. Unsaved religious people are trying to get to Heaven by partial faith in Christ plus turning away from their sins. But that is not even possible! Just as the Jews failed to perfectly keep God's law, so also cannot anyone today repent of their sins. Even the best Christian still lives a lifestyle of sin, as evidenced by Paul's struggle with the sinful flesh in Romans 7:14-25.

NO ONE has ever turned away from their sins! You may have exchanged sins like adultery, homosexuality, theft and murder for the milder sins of gossip, envy, slander, indifference, hatred and not praying for others, but you are still just as much a dirty sinner in God's sight. The ONLY difference between the holiest Christian and the unholiest sinner is the redeeming precious blood of Jesus Christ!!! You and I have no righteousness of our own (Isaiah 64:6). God alone is the believer's righteousness, which is through faith in Jesus (Philippians 3:9).

Paul makes it clear in Romans 2:12-15 that no one is without sin. We are all wicked!!! If someone wants to get to Heaven through keeping the law, then they must actually keep it! They cannot break the law even one time!!! James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

" This should make it very obvious dear reader that NO ONE has ever gone to Heaven by keeping the law of God, because no one ever has perfectly kept it except Jesus Christ (Matthew 5:17). Jesus perfectly obeyed the Mosaic law, because He is sinless ( ). That is why ONLY Jesus could be the acceptable perfect Lamb of God, who sacrificed Himself for us (John 1:29; Romans 5:6-9). What a Savior!!!

My friend, if those Jews in Paul's time couldn't perfectly keep the law to merit Heaven, then neither can you! The very idea that a person must turn away from their sinful behavior to be saved is of the Devil. It is tommyrot, poppycock and balderdash! Nowhere does the inspired King James Bible tell anyone to "repent of your sins" to be saved. The word "repent" is mentioned in several places in the Bible, but most of the time is NOT concerning salvation. For example: Repentance is not mentioned in Acts 16:30-31, when Paul and Silas simply told the curious Roman jailer to "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ" to be saved.

Neither is any form of repentance mentioned in the Apostle Paul's definition of "the gospel" in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, which he received directly by revelation from Jesus Christ (Galatians 1:12). Neither is the word "repent" mentioned even once in the entire Gospel of John, which book of the Bible was exclusively written to convince us that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, so that we might believe and be saved (John 20:31). How silly and foolish it is then, to take just a very small collection of obscure Scripture passages, to base a new doctrine on them that demands for lost people to forsake sinful behavior to get to Heaven. It is simply another Devil's lie. The only thing that you need to repent of to be saved is the only thing that can keep a man out of Heaven, and that is UNBLIEF (Hebrews 4:2).

6.9.7 Romans Chapter Ten Does Not Refer To The Salvation Of Physical Israel (2025-09-08 08:52)

Romans 10:9-11, "

That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

There is a horrible false teaching circulating on the internet and in many churches today, which errantly teaches that Romans chapter 10 has nothing to do with the spiritual salvation of the Jews (and the Gentiles too for that matter). This Zionist heresy claims that Romans chapter 10 only refers to the future physical salvation of the nation of Israel, and not to individual Jews. I couldn't disagree more, for several reason:

1. Paul was not writing to Israel, but to believers*. The Epistle of Romans according to Romans 1:7 was written "To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ." Paul was not writing to Israel, but to believers. Paul makes his appeal to them to preach the Gospel to the unsaved Jews:

   > Romans 10:14-15, "How then shall they [the Jews] call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!"

   Clearly, Paul is recruiting soulwinners from Rome to preach the Gospel to Israel. Certainly, Romans 10 is about eternal salvation. The only salvation which God offers to blind Israel today is to be graffed back into to their olive tree by faith. Romans 11:23, "And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again." But all Jews who refuse to believe on Jesus Christ will go to burn in Hell forever, without hope. There has always been only ONE plan of salvation, which is through faith in Christ. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." People in the Old Testament (both Jews and Gentiles) were saved by faith alone (Genesis 15:6; Habakkuk 2:4).

2. The entire chapter of Romans 10 is definitely about spiritual salvation*. I strongly disagree with those who think Romans 10 has nothing to do with being born-again. The first few verses of Romans 10 plainly reveal that the author is absolutely talking about salvation. Romans 10:1-4, "Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." The apostle Paul is saying that Judaism (keeping the Mosaic law) is a false plan of salvation. Paul addresses this same falsehood of Judaism in the Epistle of Galatians (Galatians 3:1-3; 5:4). Paul asserts in Romans 10:4, "Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." Romans 4:5, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." Paul's earnest desire was for those Jews who were trying to merit Heaven through works (keeping the Mosaic law), to repent (change their mind) and come to Christ by faith alone to be saved. This is very clearly the message of Romans 10. Paul's desire was for Judaizers to get saved. Romans 10:5-10 contrasts the righteousness which comes from keeping the law (which no man has ever achieved because NO ONE can perfectly keep the law), versus the righteousness of God which is by faith alone in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9). Salvation is a matter of the heart, to "BELIEVE ON HIM" (John 6:28-29, 40). John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

3. Those who claim that Romans 10 only applies to the physical salvation of the nation of Israel are basing an entire doctrine on a single passage of Scripture*. I like what Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) said: "A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one." Romans 10:9-10 is an obscure passage. That is, it raises questions and can be interpreted different ways. The Gospel of John according to John 20:31 is God's Gospel tract, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." Nowhere in the Gospel of John is the reader taught to confess, call, pray, repent of sins, invite Christ into our life, get water baptized, run the race, follow Christ as "Lord," nor anything else, except to "BELIEVE ON HIM" (Jesus Christ). In chapter's 19 and 20 we read about Christ's death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection, which is "the Gospel" according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, by which all who believe are saved. Thus, we can logically conclude that in Romans 10:9-10 Paul was simply saying that a believer confesses with their mouth as a result of having believed in their heart. Jesus said in Luke 6:45, "A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh." Out of the heart the mouth speaketh. That is all that I believe Paul is simply saying in Romans 10:9-10. We must be careful not to add words to what the Bible plainly says (Proverbs 30:5-6). Romans 10:4 and Romans 10:10 are clear and plain that a person is saved by BELIEVING IN THEIR HEART on the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 16:30-31). The proponents of the heresy that Romans 10 only refers to the future salvation of the NATION of Israel, claim that since confession is required to be saved here, that this passage cannot refer to spiritual salvation by faith alone in Christ. However, as I have just shown you from the Bible, Paul wasn't requiring confession with your mouth to be saved; but rather, he was simply saying that we confess Christ audibly as saints because of the faith in our heart. Not one verse in Romans chapter 10, nor anywhere else in the Bible that I can find, teaches that Jews will need to publicly confess Christ in the future for their physical nation to be saved. That is a strange doctrine!!! Jesus said that out of the abundance of a man's heart the mouth speaketh. Again, a good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.

4. God is not a respecter of person*. In my humble opinion, it is a mistake to say that Romans 10 only applies to Israel. Romans 10:12-13, "For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." Clearly, God is no respecter of persons and does not differentiate between Jews and Gentiles (Galatians 3:28-29). God desires for all men to be saved, and will save WHOSOEVER believes (relies upon) the "Good News" (Gospel) of the Lord Jesus Christ. Again, the Apostle Paul didn't write his epistle of Romans to Israel, but to all the saints in Rome (Romans 1:7). In Romans 10:1 Paul said, "Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved." Notice that Paul didn't use the pronoun "ye," but "they." He is grammatically writing in the third person here, speaking about the Jews, not to the Jews. Paul desires for Israel to be spiritually saved.

5. God will restore the physical nation of Israel when Jesus Christ returns after the 7-year Tribulation*. God raised up Babylon to destroy Jerusalem in 586 BC, ending the kingdom of Israel. We learn in Hosea 3:4-5 that God will someday in the future restore the physical nation of Israel, when a remnant of Jews turn toward God through faith in Jesus Christ. God destroyed the physical nation of Israel because of His people's spiritual harlotry with idols. First with the destruction of the northern kingdom by Assyria in 722 BC; and then in 586 BC by Babylon. But God is not done with the nation of Israel, He will restore the physical nation someday. However, only born-again Jews and Gentile (who are all ONE in Christ the Bible says in Galatians 3:28-29) will inhabit the rebuilt nation of Israel. No Christ-rejecting Jew will ever enter into God's Kingdom, nor enter into Heaven, nor enter into the Promised Land in the future; but rather, they will be cast by the angels into the Lake of Fire forever (Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8). Jews do NOT have a separate or different plan of salvation than do the Gentiles. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." ALL the prophets testified of salvation through faith in the coming Messiah.

6. To say that Romans 10 only applies to the future salvation of Israel is to say that there are two Gospels*. This doctrine is strange indeed. Proponents of the lie that Romans 10 has nothing to do with spiritual salvation, believe that future Jews will be required by God to audibly and publicly CONFESS with their mouth Jesus Christ to facilitate the salvation of the NATION of Israel. But the Bible does NOT teach that at all. Hosea 3:4-5, "For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim: Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days." God will restore the true nation of Israel when the Jews repent of their unbelief and BELIEVE on the Lord Jesus Christ. They will not have a different plan of salvation than Gentiles or Jews do presently. There has always been only one plan of salvation, which is through faith in Christ (Acts 10:43; Romans 4:4-7).

Romans 10 makes it clear that a man is saved by believing the Gospel in his heart. We know that public confession is not necessary to be saved, because among the chief rulers "many believed on Him" to be saved in John 12:42-43, "but they did not confess Him" for fear of persecution from the religious Pharisees. The Bible says they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God, but they were still saved, because they believed on Christ. One proponent of the Romans 10 Israel heresy, insisted to me that those chief rulers didn't really get saved in John 12:42-43. Dear reader, that is preposterous! The Bible says many believed on Him. If you don't think they got saved, then what would be the purpose of John telling us they BELIEVED? Yes, they most certainly did get saved. And if you don't believe they got saved, maybe you're not saved, because the only thing which God requires to get to Heaven is simple childlike faith in the Good News of Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day. Dear friend, one big thing that I have learned in my 42 years of being a born-again believer is that the Bible is very simple. Anytime that someone starts complicating the Word of God, you know that they have got it WRONG!!!

We can only logically conclude that "confess with thy mouth" in Romans 10:9-10 refers to confessing Jesus because we have believed in our heart. In other words, we don't confess Christ audibly to be saved; but rather, because we are saved. This is NOT required to be saved; but rather, it is simply a natural thing that many people choose to do. What if a person was mute, and couldn't speak? Does that mean they cannot be saved? Does that mean God makes an exception for them? That would be silly. There is and always has been, and always will be, only ONE GOSPEL. Galatians 1:6, " I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto *another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ*." As we just read, there is only ONE GOSPEL. If people had been saved differently in the Old Testament, then the Bible would have said so, but it doesn't. If people will be saved differently in the future, then the Bible would have said so, but it doesn't. It is ridiculous to separate the future physical restoration of Israel, from the saving Gospel of grace through faith alone in Jesus Christ. God will not save any unbelieving Jews! They will be utterly destroyed and cast into Hell forever. Romans 2:28-29 is very clear that only born-again Jews are true Jews in God's sight:

> Romans 2:28-29, "For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God."

Unbelieving Jews are mere sinners bound for Hell. Saved Jews are of the spiritual seed of Abraham, and so are ALL Gentiles of the Spiritual seed of Abraham. Galatians 3:29, " And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. "

Beware of Zionist heresy (both political and theological) that idolizes manmade Israel since 1948. God promised to restore the nation of future Israel when the Jews repent toward God, which hasn't happened yet, and won't happen until Christ's Second Coming (Hosea 3:4-5). No unsaved Jew will ever go to Heaven, nor see the Promised Land in the future. Romans 10:9-10 refers to being born-again, by simply trusting Jesus Christ as one's Savior, believing that He died on the cross for our sins, was buried, and then miraculously resurrected three days later. This is the Gospel, the Good News, or Glad Tidings, by which all who BELIEVE IT are immediately, irrevocably and permanently saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Just because the Apostle Paul mentions, that those who believe on Christ to be saved make a public declaration of their faith with their mouth, doesn't in any way contradict or change God's simple plan of salvation. I agree with Pastor Max Younce's interpretation of this passage. The Jews had been warned by the wicked unsaved religious Pharisees, that anyone who confessed Christ would be kicked out of the synagogue (John 12:42-43). So Paul in Romans 10:9-10 is countering that evil rule, simply saying that it is normal for a person to confess with their mouth, their faith in Christ after they've been saved, and Paul encourages them TO DO SO. Every child of God should confess publicly our faith in Jesus Christ. But if we don't, we are still secure and safe in God's promise of eternal life, which is a free gift (Romans 5:15-18).

Paul wasn't adding a new requirement to the Gospel just for the Jews, nor was he referring to the physical salvation of the future nation of Israel, which is absurd. It is very clear from Romans 10:1-4 that Paul is absolutely speaking about getting saved here, individually. It is bizarre to me, that anyone would totally ignore this beautiful passage of Scripture in Romans 10:1-4, to say that verses 9 and 10 have nothing to do with being born-again.

The apostle goes on in versus 10 through 15 to say that a lost sinner ultimately cannot be saved unless they have a preacher. Lost sinners need THE GOSPEL!!! Again, how in the world can anyone ignore all this truth and claim that Romans 10 only applies to the physical salvation in the nation of Israel? Zionism rots the brain! Please run from the retarded Zionist garbage circulating on the internet, religious colleges and in many churches today. Jews are no better than Gentiles, nor does God have a more earnest desire in His heart for Jews to be saved than Gentiles. The inhabitants of Heaven rejoice just as loud and exuberantly when an African American gets saved than some Jewish rabbi. God is no respecter of persons!

What about Romans 10:12-13, "For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved*."

When I got saved at age 13, I called upon the Lord in my soul. That is, I asked Jesus to save me, and He gratefully did. Now, I was saved before I even cried out to Christ, because I already believed on Him just seconds before. The word

"call" here doesn't mean to pray. In old English it was standard for businesses to say: "Please call again!" That simply meant that they hoped you would return and give them the privilege to serve you.

God wants to save all sinners (2nd Peter 3:9), even the vilest of mass-murdering criminals. Christ died for the ungodly (Romans 5:6-9). That means He died for you too! It would be God's privilege to save even the worst sinner upon the face of the earth. But the only way anyone can be saved is through faith in Jesus Christ. John 14:6, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

" Romans 10:13-17 simply reinforces the truth in Romans 10:9-10, that in order for a person to come to Christ, they must believe in their heart. You don't get saved when you call, but when you believe. However, it is a normal response to hearing the Gospel that someone would be compelled to call upon the name of the Lord to be saved. But truthfully, they got saved the first moment that they BELIEVED, which is exactly what the entire Gospel of John teaches (John 6:28-29; 40).

Acts 2:41, "Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls." Those 3,000 sinners were instantly saved simply when they GLADY RECEIVED HIS WORD. What word? Well of course, THE GOSPEL which the Apostle Peter preached unto them on the Day of Pentecost. Galatians 3:2,

"This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? " I love that verse!

I love it!

I love it!

I love it!!! The Apostle Paul in his epistle to the churches of Galatian, just wanted to know one thing from them —How did you get saved? Paul asked them how they received the indwelling Holy Spirit (i.e., how did they get saved). Was it by the KEEPING OF THE LAW (aka, "turn away from your sins to be saved" lie); or was it by the HEARING OF FAITH? Boy, I sure love the simplicity of the Gospel. What Paul means is that a sinner gets saved by simply placing their faith in the Good News (Gospel) of Jesus Christ when we hear it preached.

What saith the Scripture? Hebrews 4:1-2, "Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

” For 40 long years the Jews heard the Gospel preached unto them by Moses, but they didn’t have any faith in what they heard, so they perished in the Wilderness and sadly went to Hell. I love these simple passages of Scripture, which show us how easy it is to be saved to go to Heaven. Can anyone actually claim that Romans chapter 10 has nothing to do with God’s gift of eternal life? Romans 10:4 plainly says, “For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness*to every one that believeth*.

” This Bible verse applies to every human being that has ever been born!!!

Romans 10:14b asks the $64,000 question: “and how shall they hear without a preacher?” Romans 10:15a, “And how shall they preach, except they be sent?” Oh, what a responsibility we have as God’s redeemed children to preach the Gospel. We are Christ’s ambassadors to this evil world (2nd Corinthians 5:20-21). Literally, we represent the King of kings and the Lord of lords. Paul is recruiter soulwinners in Rome. Paul is stirring up the saints at Rome, to go preach the Gospel to Israel, so they may be saved by faith alone in Jesus Christ, who is the end of the law to them that BELIEVE. I am frustrated by those heretics who totally disregard Roman chapter 10, claiming that it only applies to the physical salvation of the nation of Israel, and not getting people saved. They simply cannot back up their false claims with the inspired King James Bible...

> Romans 10:16-21, “But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report? So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you. But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me. But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.”

As we just read, the prophet Isaiah boldly reached out in love to the Jews ALL DAY LONG with the truth, but they were disobedient and gainsaying (they challenged and disputed everything Isaiah preached to them). Here is the Old Testament passage which is quoted by Paul:

> Isaiah 65:2-3, “I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts; A people that provoketh me to anger continually to my face; that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of brick;”

The Israelites were sinfully practicing idol worship. They were a rebellious people. They rejected the Gospel. They all went to Hell, those who did not trust in Christ. As you can clearly see for yourself, Romans chapter 10 is all about spiritual salvation, and not the salvation of a physical nation. There is no physical salvation except to those who accept God’s spiritual salvation first, which is only obtained through childlike faith in Jesus Christ (Romans 10:3-4; Philippians 3:9). Amen and amen!

I see this happen so often, where people who don’t understand the Word of God, wrest it to fit their own flawed understanding. Since Romans 10:9-13 seems to present a different Gospel than the Gospel of John, some Bible students errantly conclude that this must be a different plan of salvation for future Israel. Folks, that is bad Bible interpretation. If Romans 10 were only applicable to the future salvation of the physical nation of Israel, then the Bible would have plainly told us so, but it doesn't! You have to wrest, stretch, bend and pervert the Holy Bible in order to conclude that Romans chapter 10 is not about being born-again through faith alone in Jesus Christ. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) is so right: "A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one."

Although I tremendously admire Pastor Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016), he was very wrong in some of his theology. Most notably, his teaching that people were saved by faith plus works in the Old Testament. Nothing could be any further from the truth! Acts 10:43 plainly teaches that ALL THE PROPHETS give witness to remission of sins through faith alone in Christ. Romans 4:4 is very clear that if salvation at any time in human civilization has, or ever will be, by works, then God would OWE that person salvation (which means it could not be by grace). Well, we know that salvation has always been, and always will be, solely by God's wondrous mercy (not giving us what we deserve) and grace (giving us what we don't deserve).

Furthermore, Romans 10:13 cannot be used for the Gospel. The Bible plainly teaches in verse 14 that people are saved the moment they BELIEVE, not when they call or pray. You call upon the name of the Lord because of your faith, which means you are already saved when you call. So, clearly prayer is not necessary to be saved, because the Bible repeatedly teaches that we are saved by faith alone without works. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

So, if you understand this foundational truth (that future Jews during the Tribulation period will be saved THE SAME way that all saints have been throughout history), then it makes no sense why anyone would claim Romans 10 is not about the same salvation. Thank you for reading my blogs. I sincerely love you in Christ, whoever you may be. Jesus is precious!!!

6.9.8 A Proper Exegesis Of Acts 22:16 (2025-09-08 11:28)

Acts 22:16, "And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord."

This is an obscure passage of Scripture which is often deliberately misinterpreted by false teachers to support their heresy. Some people misuse this text to teach that you must be water baptized to be saved. Others use this text in a foolish attempt to prove that you cannot be saved without calling (praying) to the Lord. I say "deliberately" because the only way you can use this lone passage of Scripture to teach baptismal regeneration, or requiring someone to "call" (pray) to the Lord to be saved, is to ignore the entirety of the inspired Word of God. A good rule to follow when interpreting the Holy Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.

Acts 22:16 Does Not Teach Prayer For Salvation

Someone may insist that Acts 22:16 is biblical proof that one must call (pray) to be saved, but by simply reading the surrounding text we see that Saul (later to become the Apostle Paul) was already saved. Acts 22:13, "Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him." Ananias called Saul, "

Brother

" (cf. Acts 9:17). Clearly, Saul was already a born-again believer.

Saul was saved in Acts 9:1-6 when he believed on Christ.

Paul wrote years later in Galatians 1:11-12,

But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

" Saul was taught the Gospel directly from Jesus, not from Ananias. So, again we see that Acts 22:16 cannot be talking about Saul getting saved, because he was already saved. Paul recounts his salvation experience to King Agrippa in Acts 26:12-18, but he never mentions Ananias. Paul was saved while receiving the Gospel from Christ Himself.

So, Verse 16 cannot be used as biblical evidence that a lost person must

"call

upon the Lord to be saved. Again and again throughout the Bible we are taught that simple faith in Christ brings eternal life. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." You don't have to call, ask or pray to be saved. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

Acts 22:16 Does Not Teach Baptism For Salvation

Regarding Acts 22:16 and the heresy of Baptismal Regeneration, here is some helpful exegesis from Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980)...

> In Acts 22:16, "Wash away thy sins," is certainly figurative language. So about baptism in Romans 6:4 and 5: "Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:" In baptism we are "planted . . . in the likeness of his death," and we are "raised in the likeness of his resurrection."

> And in 1 Peter 3:20 and 21 we are told, “Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water. The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:” Baptism is a “like figure” of the way we are saved,
>
> “by the resurrection of Jesus Christ.” Baptism is a picture of the resurrection and so a figure or a likeness of the way we are saved by the resurrection of Christ, in whim we have trusted.
>
> The Bible makes it clear that
>
> “Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost” (Tit. 3:5). And even there in Peter we are plainly told that it was not the putting away of the filth of the fleshly nature in Baptism, but it was
>
> “ the answer of a good conscience toward God, ” a conscience already forgiven and purged, before baptism.

In his helpful ’[1]The Strand Study Bible,’ Pastor Strand offers this commentary for Acts 22:16...

> This word (calling) is the Greek (epikalesamenos). Epikalesamenos is an aorist participle and means, "having called," not "calling." This word is found only here and in 1 Corinthians 6:11, where it is used in exactly the same sense of "washing away sins...in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ" —not washing away sins by baptism.

Those sinners who have placed their faith (believing) in Jesus Christ have had their sins washed away; not by praying a “sinner’s prayer” or asking God to be saved. God is already offering eternal life as a “free gift” (Romans 5:15-18) to whosoever will simply receive it by faith (Galatians 3:26). Just take God at His Word as recorded in the Holy Bible, receiving Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He raised up from the dead the third day. 1st Thessalonians 4:14, “ For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. ”

Water baptism is an outward snapshot of what has already happened inwardly. Salvation comes to those who BELIEVE on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. John 1:12-13, “But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.” Only by wresting obscure passages of Scripture can anyone errantly teach that prayer is required for salvation. Those in the New IFB who teach that a lost sinner cannot be saved unless they call, ask or pray are preaching blatant heresy. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

Also, here is some invaluable exegesis from Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023) concerning the heresy of Baptismal Regeneration and Acts 22:16...

> “And now why tarriest thou? Arise and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord.”

If a person were to open their Bible and read this one Verse, one could only conclude that baptism was essential for salvation. Should a person desire to prove that the Bible says "There is no God," one could locate such a statement; BUT, should one desire the truth of what God has said, the whole Verse or context should be read. In this case, Psalm 53:1 reveals something to the contrary of just reading one line from the Verse.

> “The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good.”

How important it is to examine the context, which will always reveal the truth of a subject to the person who will be honest with himself.

The subject matter in question, of which Verse 16 is a part, begins back in Acts 21:15 where Paul goes to Jerusalem. It is here in the Temple that the people apprehended Paul ...

> “And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.” (Acts 21:30)

Paul was not in the inner sanctuary (ho naos), but only in the outer court (to hieron). They were beating Paul when he was saved by the chief captain and soldiers (21:32). As they were leading him to the barracks of the Roman soldiers (“castle” 21:37), Paul asked the chief captain for permission to speak to the people (21:39, 40). His testimony is recorded in Chapter 22:1-21 (The same account is recorded by Dr. Luke in Chapter 9, with more details.)

Prior to Ananias’ instructing Paul to be baptized, we find that Paul was already saved. As Paul was approaching Damascus, the Lord intervened and challenged Paul with these words...

> “Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me ... I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest ... And I (Paul) said, what shall I do, Lord?”

Paul’s salvation is evidenced by his acknowledgement of Christ as his Lord, or Saviour (22:7,8,10). It should also be noticed that Ananias called Saul a BROTHER in 22:13.

> (Ananias) “Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, BROTHER Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.”

Only the saved are spiritual brothers and sisters in Christ, and such was Saul. Since Paul was already saved and addressed as a brother in Christ by Ananias, what did Ananias mean by telling Paul to be "baptized and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord" (Verse 16)? One must remember there is a judicial justification and a practical justification of sin. When Paul was saved, he received remission for all his sins, judicially, i.e., the cross bore the eternal payment for Paul's sins.

> "Being justified (declared absolutely righteous) freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation (payment) through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God." (Romans 3:24, 25)

Ananias was instructing Saul as to how to deal with his past sins practically and publicly. Every Jew and Gentile knew of Paul's commitment and reputation concerning his persecution of Christians.

> "And Saul yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord..." (Acts 9:1)

> "...I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee (Christ): and when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him." (Acts 22:19, 20)

Now that Paul is a Christian, his public profession of Christ is of the utmost importance. His baptism would be a public testimony of his faith in the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. With his baptism, he was now publicly identifying himself with those Christians he once persecuted. The sins Paul was going to wash away were his acts of persecution against Christians, prior to being saved. Judicially, Paul's sins were judged on Calvary, now they would be "washed away" PUBLICLY in the eyes of the Christians who knew of his conversion (made public by his baptism). You can rest assured, Paul gave his testimony at his baptism by calling on the name of the Lord. The sins of Paul's persecutions against Christians would never be repeated again! His PUBLIC profession, from time on, "washed away" any doubt of those sins ever being repeated.

God had taken a murderer and made him a missionary, turned a persecutor into a preacher, and used him to write 14 of the 27 Books of the New Testament. Yes, judicially, Paul's sins were accounted "paid in full" at the cross; PUBLICLY, they were "washed away" as there remained no doubt in people's minds as to where he stood, remaining faithful to his Lord, until his death.

Dear reader, I have provided commentary from three trustworthy Bible scholars (John R. Rice, Max D. Younce and Brad Strand). In Acts 22:16, Paul is recounting when Ananias encouraged him to get baptized, since his sins had already been washed away by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Thank you for reading my ministry blog.

6.9.9 When A Christian Woman Wears Pants, She Embarrassingly Shames Herself (2025-09-09 10:38)

1st Timothy 2:9-12, "In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works. Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence."

I had reluctantly attended the Neo-Evangelical Family Baptist Church in Pensacola for 45 months between 2021 to 2025. I really don't like Neo-Evangelical churches, because they pale in comparison to a decent Independent Fundamental Baptist Church.

Albeit, the pastor announced a church Memorial Day picnic in Alabama, about a 45 minute drive from Pensacola. So, me and my wife Alice went to their church picnic. Alice wore a full-length dress, as she always does in public.

When we arrived at the picnic, we couldn't help but notice that the pastor's wife wearing pants. You should have seen the look on her face when we arrived. They didn't think we'd come. Some sinners get caught with their pants down,

but we caught the pastor's wife with her pants on

We are just two sinners like everybody else. We don’t condemn other sinners, lest we condemn ourselves (Matthew 7:1-5). Unfortunately, the pastor’s wife felt so convicted about her pants that she felt compelled to come over to our picnic table where we were eating, to compliment a young girl sitting next to us, saying:

“

I like your shorts!

” The pastor’s wife then walked away. She walked all the way over from 50 feet away to tell one girl sitting right next to us that she liked her shorts? Right.

What really happened is that the worldly pastor’s wife felt irked when we caught her wearing tight pants in public, because she fully knows that we are fundamentalist Christians from Hyles-Anderson College, and she felt embarrassed (which she should over her sin of immodesty). She felt like a whore when she saw my wife’s modest full-length dress, and it upset her emotionally that she was clothed immodestly. It just proves that the pastor wife DOES KNOW that it is a sin for women to wear pants in public! Her conscience and the Holy Spirit convicted her.

It doesn’t bother me near as much that a pastor’s wife wears pants, as it does that she and her henpecked pastor for a husband arrogantly defend the wicked sin of immodesty. There would have been no debate over women wearing pants in public 100 years ago in the United States; only whores wore pants in public. God and His standards of morality have not changed.

For some stupid neo-evangelical knucklehead for a pastor to challenge me to give him a Bible verse shewing that his wife shouldn’t be wearing pants in public is the epitome of carnality and gross theological incompetence. 1st Timothy 2:9 doesn’t have to come with an instruction booklet to know that Christian women ought not wear pants in society.

> 1st Timothy 2:9-10, “In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.”

Those same idiots for pastors today cannot even get repentance correct, falsely teaching that you must “repent of your sins” to get to Heaven. You simply need to repent (change your mind) about unbelief to be saved, which is the only sin that can keep you out of Heaven someday. If you admit that you’re a hell-deserving guilty sinner, and your trust is only in the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen, then you’re eternally saved friend.

> 1st Peter 2:11-12, “Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.”

Modestly matters ladies! You are an ambassador for the King of kings and Lord of lords. How you dress reflects your attitude toward the problem of sexual sins in our society. By wearing pants you are shewing everyone that you couldn’t care less. You are part of the problem.

6.9.10 One Bible Verse Proves Repentance Heretics All Wrong! (2025-09-10 09:00)

Romans 6:1, "What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?"

Here is a wonderful Bible verse I just read that PROVES WRONG James Melton, John MacArthur, Sam Horn, Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Chuck Phelps, Gary Walton, Jeff Redlin, Timothy Zacharias, Chip Ingram, William Lane Craig, Rick Warren, Benny

Hinn, Joel Osteen, Steven Furtick, John Hagee, Charles Stanley, Adrian Rogers, Keith Gomez, Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, Mormons, Seventh-Day Adventists, Jehovah's Witness, Roman Catholics, Church of Christ, Moody Bible Institute, Bob Jones University, Pensacola Christian College, Liberty University, Master's University, Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary, Pacific Garden Mission's 'UNSHACKLED' radio series, and MILLIONS more heretics on Bible repentance, who all falsely teach that genuine repentance results in a change of behavior (without which change they ASS-U-ME that you have never been born-again at all)...

> Romans 6:1, "What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?"

If a Christian CHOOSES to continue living like the Devil, for the remainder of their natural life, GRACE WILL ABOUND!!!!!!! That is, they can never forfeit, jeopardize nor lose God's free gift of eternal life, which is by faith alone WITHOUT WORKS (Romans 4:4-7).

Christian author Michael Patrick Bowen accurately states in his excellent book titled, " [1]I NEVER KNEW YOU ," on page 114:

The beloved Pastor Bob Gray Sr. correctly preaches:

> "Repent, as Christ meant it to be in terms of salvation, means to change your mind from trusting in what you can do for God to trusting only in what He can do for you." Michael Patrick Bowen, "[2]I NEVER NEW YOU" (p. 114)

> "Repentance means to change your mind—change your mind—change your mind about how you want to get to Heaven to what God says you've got to do to get to Heaven. If you've got to repent of all your sins, you're still headed for Hell tonight." Pastor Bob Gray Sr., [3]Why You Should Be A Part Of A Growing Church

Here is an excellent and needful writing by [4]Dr. Mark G. Cambron (1911-2000) on the subject of REPENTANCE. Please read the following quote carefully, because Dr. Cambron is one of few theologian who gets it 100 % correct, that is, he understands the simplicity of the Gospel and that repentance does not mean turning from sin as proponents of Lordship Salvation foolishly teach:

> Repentance is necessary for salvation.
>
> The Greek word for repent is metanoeo, which, translated into English is: to change ones mind. It does not mean to turn from sin. That would add works to salvation.
>
> Repentance for salvation means a change of mind from men's ideas of salvation and religion, to an acceptance of Gods only way of salvation.
>
> This results in a completely new creation, not a reformation of the old. The old nature remains as evil as ever after salvation and has not been reformed . . . The old nature can now be controlled by the indwelling power of the Holy Spirit.
>
> > God guarantees salvation. This is His gift to us.
> >
> > God guarantees reward and fruit to the obedient son.
> >
> > God guarantees chastening and loss of rewards to the disobedient son.

God does not cast out disobedient children, but in some cases, does take them home. He does not permit His children to live as they please without His discipline and guidance.

Many teach repentance for salvation incorrectly, by including some form of human effort or righteousness, such as willingness to turn from sin, or turning from sin. This is heresy and has confused many people. It adds works to salvation and causes many to not understand Gods great gift. It is probation, not salvation. It is completely unscriptural. It is Galatianism and a counterfeit of the gospel.

It is a tragedy that many Christians live shallow Christian lives. The Cambron Institute is dedicated to the task of training Christian men and women in the importance of total dedication and making Jesus the Lord of their lives not to be saved but because they are saved.

Shallow Christianity cannot be cured by adding works to salvation.

Salvation is not the result of what we do, but is by receiving what God has done for us. Acts 13:38, 39; Acts 20:20: Gal. 1:8,9; Gal. 2:4; Gal. 2:21; Gal. 3:1.3; Gal. 5:1-4; Eph. 2:8-10; II Cor. 5:21;John 3:16-18; Phil. 3:9; Titus 3:5-8:11 Cor. 11:13-1 5.

SOURCE: [5]The Cambron Institute

Amen! I fully agree. The only thing that is required to be saved is to realize one's need as a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God (Romans 3:19-20). You must know why and what you are being saved from, which is from the consequences of our sin, which is to suffer the Second Death in the Lake of Fire forever (Romans 6:23; Revelation 21:8). Jesus Christ paid our debt of sin on the cross, so that we could escape this horrifying judgment and eternal fate (Romans 5:9). I also fully agree with what Pastor Harry Ironside says about repentance:

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past …
>
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all." Dr.
>
> Harry A. Ironside, ' [6]What Is The Gospel?'

[7]

Yes, it is possible dear reader for a true believer to CONTINUE IN SIN, and still have the 100 % absolute confidence and peace of soul that he or she is saved safe and secure in the Father's hands. Romans 6:1, "What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?" No matter how much we may choose to sin as a child of God, GRACE WILL ABOUND. That refutes every false prophet who errantly preaches that if a person's faith is real, then they will live a changed life. No, there is no Biblical proof of that claim. Not all saints live changed lives. In fact, many are downright rotten to the end! Certainly, every one of God's children continue in sin to some degree, because no one is without iniquity.

So if your church pastor says to “turn from your sin” or “repent of your sin” to be saved, ask him exactly what he means by that (because 95 % won’t tell you plainly unless you ask them directly). If he answers that there must be conviction of sin, so that you see your need to Christ, then he is okay. Albeit, he shouldn’t be using those unbiblical phrase

“turn from your sin” or

“repent of your sin” because they confuse people!

But if your pastor answers that genuine repentance results in a change of behavior, then I plead with you to either tell your pastor that he is wrong, or LEAVE THAT PLACE in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ if he refuses to repent of his wrong repentance!!! Sadly, 99 % of pastors are full of sinful ego, stinking pride, so that they greatly resent someone questioning or God forbid, correcting, THEIR doctrine. The ideas of

“turn from your sin” or

“repent of your sin” are MANMADE commandments, and not the COMMANDMENTS OF GOD. Mark 7:9,

“

And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

To sinfully tell someone that repentance by implication cannot just mean

a change of mind

is to corrupt the inspired Word of God. In fact, repentance does just mean a change of mind in the original Koine Greek New Testament

. We are saved by BELIEVING the Gospel of Jesus Christ. That is, the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ crucified on a cross, buried and bodily risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). If turning away from sinful behavior were necessary to be saved, then the Apostle Paul would have included it in his defining of the Gospel, which Paul said we are saved by if we BELIEVE IT!!!

Furthermore, the Epistle of 1st John is perhaps the most misunderstood in the Holy Bible. Certainly 1st John is often misunderstood. 1st John 3:8, “

He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

” John is not saying that a professed believer who wilfully sins is not saved, God forbid. The next verse in 1st John 3:9 says, **“

Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin*; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

” Since every saint still sins, we know that this verse must mean when we choose to sin, it is the FLESH and not the HOLY SPIRIT that is committing sin.

We find the answer in Romans 8:4, “

That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

And we read in Romans 8:8, “

So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

The most important verse in 1st John, in my humble opinion, is 1st John 3:24,

“And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

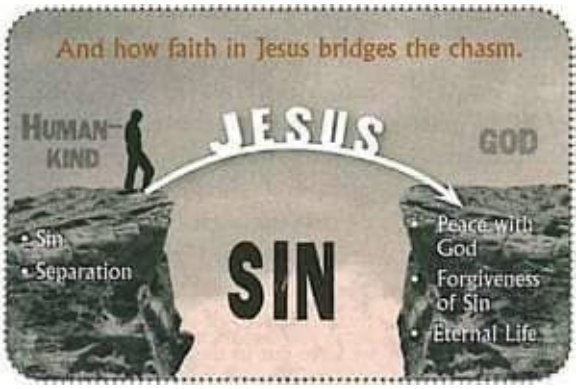
” In my mind, I have always thought that the only way to KNOW you’re saved (1st John 5:13) is by one’s FAITH in Jesus Christ. But the Bible says we KNOW that we are God’s child by the indwelling Holy Spirit.

It is my humble opinion that the reason for which God said this, is simply because there are millions of people who have heard the Gospel their entire life, and are very familiar with what is required to get to Heaven, but they (as Judas) just don’t believe. I have heard Benny Hinn preach the Gospel correctly in one meeting, and preach damnable heresy in the next. Will the real Benny Hinn please stand up! I have heard the same hypocrisy from Dr. John MacArthur. My spiritual discernment tells me that Benny Hinn knows the details of the Gospel, but he doesn’t believe a word of it, he just manipulates people and exploits Christianity to make billions of dollars in filthy lucre. Hebrews 4:2 says that the Jews in the Wilderness heard Moses preach the Gospel for 40 years! But they perished in their sins because they didn’t have any FAITH in the Gospel.

I think that is why God authored the Epistle of 1st John, so that we as INDIVIDUALS can self-examine our own soul, to determine if we have the HOLY SPIRIT. John never once says that works are evidence of being saved; but rather, if we are saved we will be convicted by the indwelling Holy Spirit about the sins in our life. It is false doctrine to look at one’s life to prove that we are saved. Please don’t do that. If you have God living in you, then YOU KNOW IT! Since the age of 13, I have known the sweet presence of God’s Holy Spirit in my life. I wasn’t aware of the Holy Spirit when I got saved at age 13. It wasn’t until age 18 that I began to learn about who the Holy Spirit is. But now that I have been born-again for 34 years, I can look back with the joy of the Lord, and clearly see God’s presence throughout my life, through the good times and the bad. I know that I am saved from John 3:16, because I BELIEVE on the only begotten Son of God, the Christ (John 20:31).

But I have the added confirmation that I have eternal life, by the presence of the blessed Holy Spirit in me. I love Jesus (even though I don’t always live as I should). I love the Word of God (even though I don’t always read it as I should). I love my fellow saints (even though I sometimes avoid them because they are mean). I love God’s commandments (even though there have been times in my life when I wilfully lived in open sin). I have always felt Holy Spirit conviction over the sins in my life (Hebrews 12:6-8; Romans 8:9).

I don’t feel Holy Spirit conviction over the shortcomings, failures and foolish decisions I’ve made in life, because those things are a natural part of being a human being, and God doesn’t expect me to be perfect.



In fact, it was all those mistakes, foolish decisions, mistakes and shortcomings that has enabled God to greatly bless and use my website

ministry to reach others for Jesus Christ. God uses humble nobodies, because then He gets all the credit!!! So it is not my life that confirms I am saved, but the indwelling Holy Spirit. No one should worry or try to live right to feel saved, that is very wrong to do. Clearly, no one is saved who is wrong on repentance and the Gospel.

Romans 6:1, "What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?" You may have the Holy Spirit in you, and still choose to live like the Devil your whole life (like Samson, Demas, Lot and Solomon did), but the indwelling Holy Spirit will convict you about those sins, and you will be of all men most miserable. That is all I think John is saying in his epistle. But no this, WORKS have no place at any point in receiving God's gift of salvation. Believers SHOULD live godly (Titus 2:12), but the Bible doesn't say that we MUST or WILL live godly in Christ Jesus. Thank you for reading my blogs.

6.9.11 Four Different Plans Of Salvation At Pensacola Christian College: RUN From This Accursed Place! (2025-09-11 01:00)

Romans 16:17-18, "

Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple."

Galatians 1:6-8, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed."

2nd Peter 2:1, "But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction."

The Gospel Message that is presented WILL DETERMINE a person's ETERNAL DESTINY in Heaven or in Hell. So, it is of the utmost importance that THE GOSPEL be presented correctly.

Bear with me dear reader, because by the end of this blog you're going to be shocked and shaking your head in disbelief that any church pastors and religious institution (a Bible college) could become so inept and reckless with the Gospel. I don't think anyone could have made this insanity up. In this blog, I am going to examine not one, or even two, but FOUR different plans of salvation being preached at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) today! God's curse is upon the Pharisaical leaders and staff at PCC, and their thousands of complicit students (and the parents and churches who enrolled them) who wickedly bid PCC Godspeed. 2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

I cannot warn everyone enough to stay away from Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and their theologically corrupt Campus Church. The Bible warns in one of our text passages from 2nd Peter 2:1 to BEWARE of FALSE PROPHETS who "

(i.e., Greek: pareisago, that is, to introduce surreptitiously) shall introduce damnable heresies into the churches.

The word

surreptitious

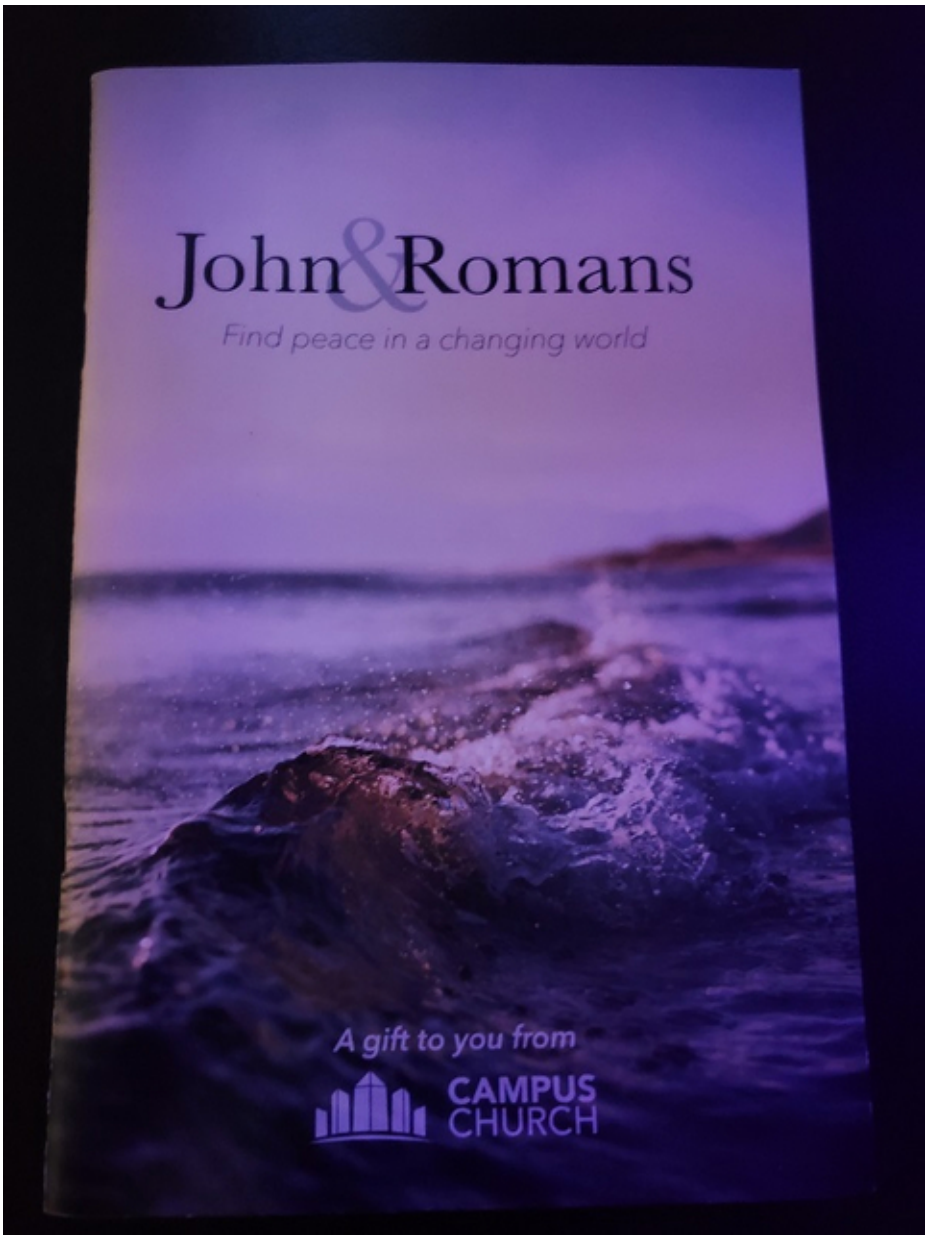
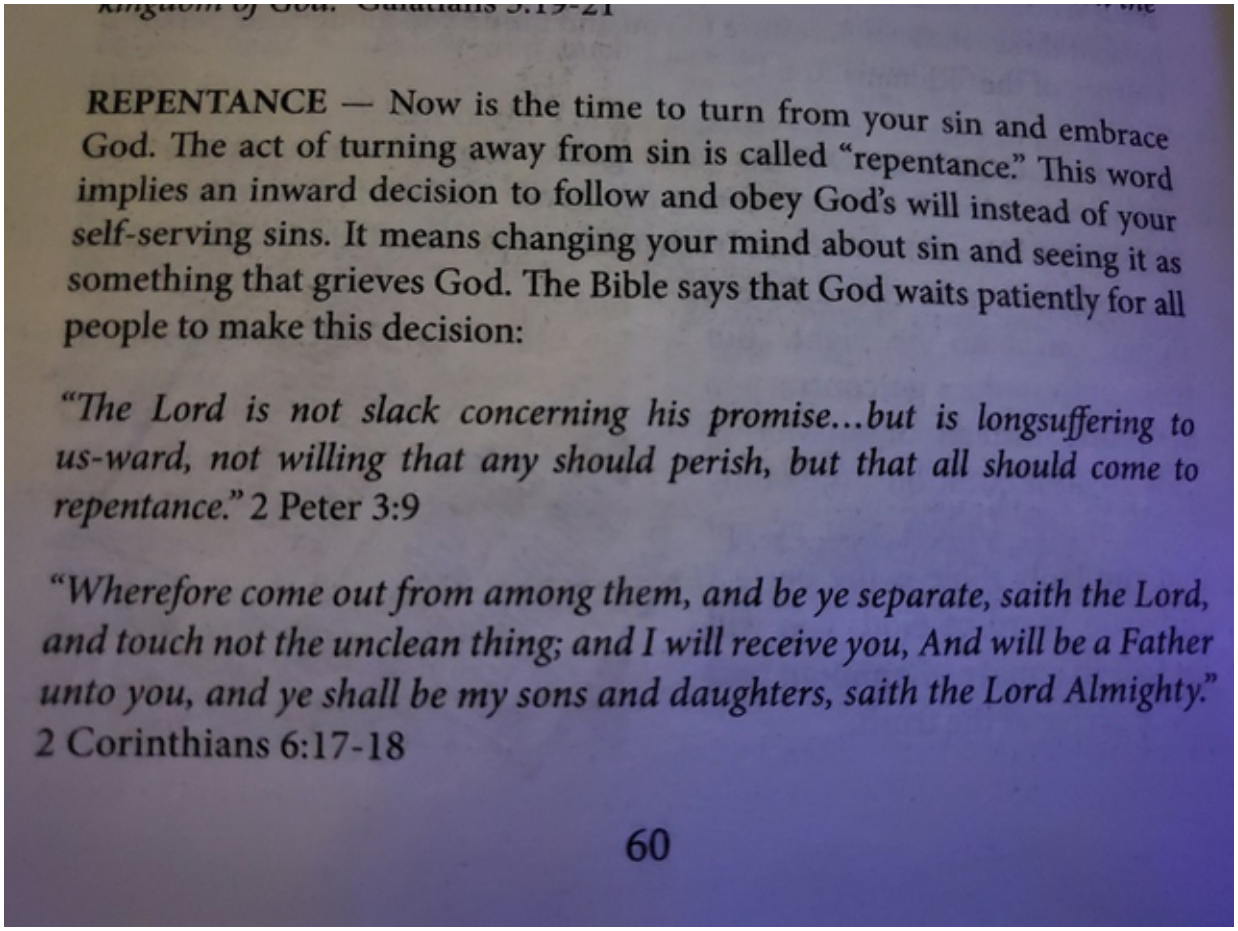
means: M arked by quiet and caution and secrecy; taking pains to avoid being observed. The inspired Holy Bible well describes what has sadly happened over the past 40 years in former once great fundamentalist institutions all across America. In two words,



"[1]Lordship Salvation." This deadly spiritual disease has infected nearly every Bible college, rescue mission, missionary board and church across America today.

Tragically, literally thousands of Baptist churches have been infected and ruined because of the detrimental influence of pastors who've graduated from rotten spiritually maggot infested religious institutions like Pensacola Christian College, Bob Jones University, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary and other neo-evangelical cesspools of iniquity today.

PCC's First Plan Of Salvation



I live in the city of Pensacola. In my mailbox in 2023 I found an envelope from Campus Church with my address and the words "To Our Neighbor" on it. I opened the envelope and inside I found a booklet of "John & Romans." The booklet has 64 pages in it. The Campus Church logo is printed on the front cover.

[2]

I was shocked on page 60 when I read PCC's counterfeit plan of salvation. What I am about to show you was inspired by Satan dear reader:

[3]

REPENTANCE — Now is the time to turn from your sin and embrace God. The act of turning away from sin is called "repentance." This word implies an inward decision to follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins. It means changing your mind about sin and seeing it as something that grieves God. The Bible says that God waits patiently for all people to make this decision:

"The Lord is not slack concerning his promise...but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." 2 Peter 3:9

"Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty." 2 Corinthians 6:17-18

60

"REPENTANCE — Now is the time to turn from your sin and embrace God. The act of turning away from sin is called 'repentance.' This word implies an inward decision to follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins. It means changing your mind about sin and seeing it as something that grieves God. The Bible says that God patiently waits for all people to make this decision." [emphasis added]

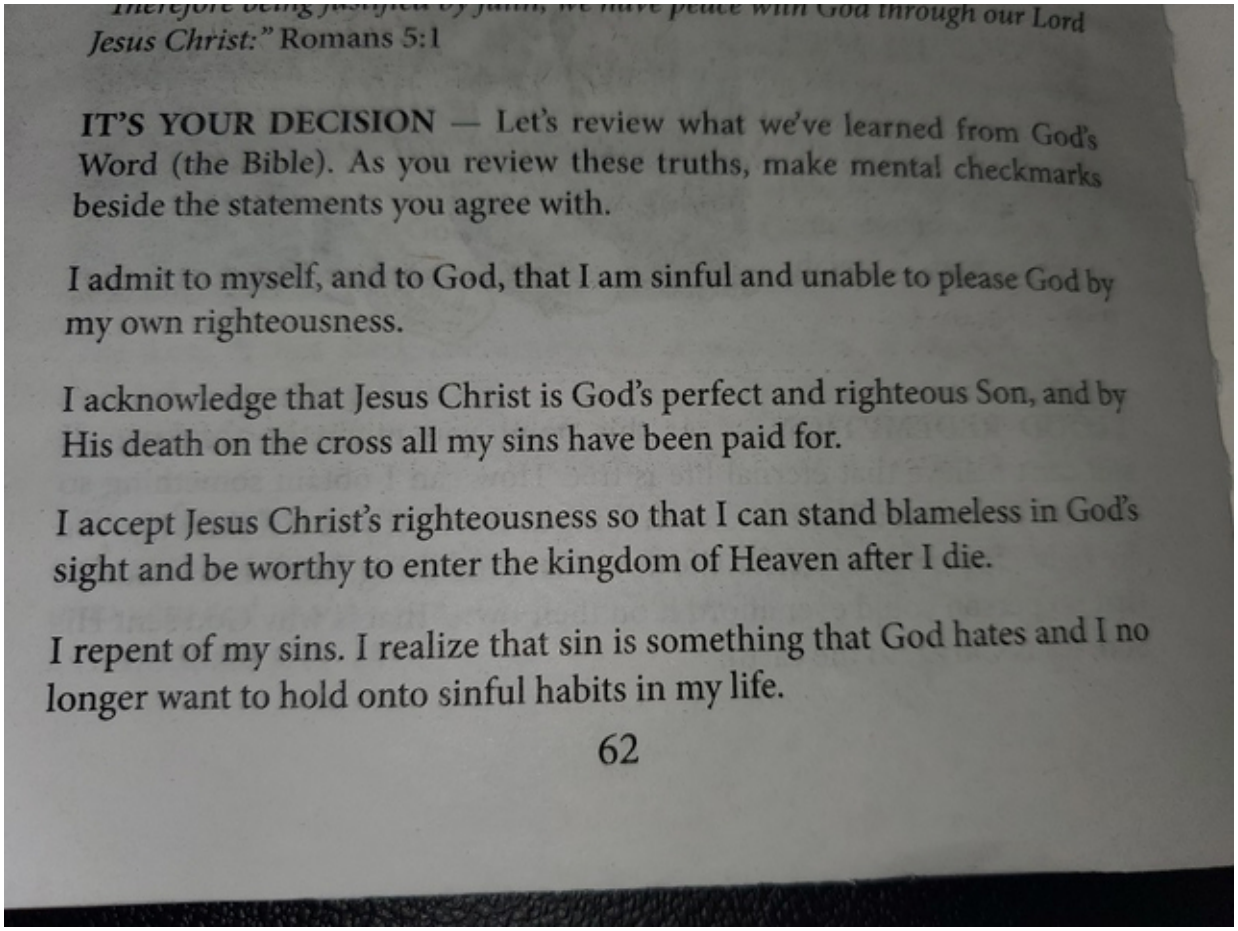
Do you still think I bumped my head? I've been [4]exposing the cult at Bob Jones University (BJU) since 2014, and now I have been exposing the cult at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) since 2021. By God's grace, I will continue to expose these wicked organizations.

I thank God for the New IFB (New Independent Fundamental Baptist) movement in the United States. Pastor Anderson admirably

[5]exposes the Devil's rotten Bible versions

([6]backup video)

, whereas PCC wickedly bids Godspeed to the toxic Bob Jones cult and their multiple corrupt Bible revisions. Pastor Anderson rightly preaches the truth about ' [7]Repentance & Salvation



.’ That being said, many pastors (not all) in the New IFB have [8]gone astray doctrinally by mandating a sinner’s prayer for salvation, which is heresy. Folks, right doctrine matters!

I feel sick! The cult at PCC are aggressively spreading their damnable heresy throughout Pensacola, mailing spiritual poison to people’s mailboxes. With neighbour’s like Campus Church at PCC, who needs an enemy like the Devil? PCC has much blood on their hands! Dear friend, nowhere in the inspired King James Bible does it teach that you must repent “of your sin” or “turn from your sin” to get to Heaven. Yet, PCC and their Campus Church arrogantly have changed God’s simple plan of salvation, perverting Bible repentance to mean “follow and obey God’s will instead of your self-serving sins.” Oh my! That is the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation!!!

Shame on Campus Church and PCC! My accurate Bible preaching against PCC’s apostasy will be vindicated. Campus Church just mailed ammunition to my home mailbox today, revealing their underbelly so that by God’s grace I can further expose their dangerous religious cult at PCC. [9]I wrote this article to help teach people what true Bible repentance is . Dear reader, you cannot be born-again if you place your trust in a counterfeit Gospel.

What PCC and their Campus Church are preaching is another gospel, not the free grace of God which is without works. As I read further in PCC’s maggot-infested rotten plan of salvation, just like the pseudo-Christian cults (Mormons, Roman Catholics, Seventh-Day Adventists, et cetera), they speak out of both sides of their mouth—claiming that salvation is free and by grace, yet at the same time requiring you to “follow and obey God’s will instead of your self-serving sins.”

To make matters even worse, on page 62 of the “John & Romans” booklet, Campus Church tells the reader that to be saved, you must make a mental check requiring the reader to agree to:

Jesus Christ:" Romans 5:1

IT'S YOUR DECISION — Let's review what we've learned from God's Word (the Bible). As you review these truths, make mental checkmarks beside the statements you agree with.

I admit to myself, and to God, that I am sinful and unable to please God by my own righteousness.

I acknowledge that Jesus Christ is God's perfect and righteous Son, and by His death on the cross all my sins have been paid for.

I accept Jesus Christ's righteousness so that I can stand blameless in God's sight and be worthy to enter the kingdom of Heaven after I die.

I repent of my sins. I realize that sin is something that God hates and I no longer want to hold onto sinful habits in my life.

> "I repent of my sins. I realize that sin is something that God hates and I no longer want to hold onto sinful bad habits." [emphasis added]
>

Oh My! Folks, this is NOT part of the Gospel which the Apostle Paul preached in 1st Corinthians 15:1-6...

> 1st Corinthians15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

There you have it! The "Gospel" is the "GOOD NEWS" that Jesus Christ DIED on a cross for our sins, He was BURIED and after three days He physically RESURRECTED from the dead.

In Paul's Gospel (which Paul said he received directly from Jesus in Galatians 1:11-12), did you see anything that reads: "follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins"? No, that is not what Paul taught.

[11]

So why is PCC and their Campus Church promoting this filth? 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." That is the true Gospel, not the demonic garbage that is being preached at PCC and throughout the city of Pensacola today.

PCC's Second Plan Of Salvation

On their Campus Church's main webpage, at the top there is a " icon, which if you click on a dropdown menu appears. From here if you select

Menu

Doctrine of Salvation,

We believe that salvation is a free gift of God for “whosoever will”; it is by grace, through faith, plus nothing, and believers are eternally secure (John 10:27-28, Eph. 2:8-10). We believe that Christ’s blood, shed on Calvary, is the only Atonement for man’s sin (John 14:6, 1 Pet. 1:18-19, 1 John 1:7). We believe that salvation is a free gift of God for “whosoever will”; it is by grace, through faith, plus nothing, and believers are eternally secure (John 10:27-28, Eph. 2:8-10). Salvation is received only by personal faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and His finished work. All people may come to Christ; God does not arbitrarily pre–elect persons to heaven or hell, but according to His foreknowledge (Rom. 10:13, Rev. 22:17, 1 Peter 1:2, 2 Peter 3:9, Acts 17:30; 20:21).

Huh, why is there no mention of repenting of your sins, not wanting to hold onto your sinful bad habits anymore, or a required decision to follow and obey God’s will instead of your self-serving sins? Why is this second plan of salvation drastically different than the first? Things that are different are not the same. It doesn’t take a rocket scientist to figure that out. Why are there multiple plans of salvation at PCC? This is bad folks, really BAD!

Again, what I have just shewn you dear reader goes totally contrary to the first plan of salvation at PCC that I shared with you. In this second plan of salvation there is no mention of repenting to turn from your sinful bad habits on their website, nor of forsaking one’s self-serving sins to get to Heaven. Why the double standard? Why two different plans of salvation? Clearly, these are two very different plans of salvation. One requires being willing to turn away from your sinful bad habits, which is works; the other plan of salvation does not. Both cannot be correct! And just to clarify, BOTH their toxic John & Romans booklet and their website have Campus Church’s name on them, so PCC is liable in God’s court of justice for both plans of salvation that they teach. What fools!

PCC’s Third Plan Of Salvation

It gets worse folks! When I think about Pastor Jeff Redlin (senior pastor at Campus Church since 2018), I am always reminded of a line from C3PO in the 1977 movie Star Wars, when he says about R2D2: “That malfunctioning little twerp.” Yes, that is definitely Pastor Redlin.

I went for a routine blood test today at Baptist Hospital, in their new building which just so happens to be located right across the street from PCC. After signing in I went to sit down in the waiting area and found one of PCC’s toxic religious handout cards with a QR code on it. So, I scanned the code to see what garbage they are peddling. Sure enough, there is an 8-minute video presentation by Jeff Redlin, in which he shews his utter incompetence as a pastor. Here is the card if you want to scan the QR code to go check it out for yourself...

Campus Church [14]Religious Propaganda With QR Code

At the end of his retarded heresy-filled video, Jeff Redlin invites the viewer to pray these words to be saved...

> Dear God, I know that I'm a sinner, and I know that my sin has separated me from you. I believe that Jesus is God, and I accept Him as my Lord, my Saviour God, please come into my life. Make me part of your family. Save me.

Kindly said, there are numerous things very wrong with Jeff Redlin's toxic plan of salvation, which unfortunately does NOT match up with what the inspired Word of God teaches. ...

1. You don't have to pray to be saved - The Bible does not require saying a prayer to be saved. Repeatedly throughout the Word of God we are simply taught to believe on Christ to be saved. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." In Acts 10:43-44 Cornelius and his companions simply believed the Gospel that Peter preached and were saved. No one repeated a prayer. I loath the so-called, "sinner's prayer" because it confuses so many people, misleading them to worry if they prayed correctly to be saved. In Acts 10:43-44 Cornelius and his companions simply believed the Gospel as Peter preached it unto them and they were saved.

2. "I accept Him as my Lord" - Nowhere does the inspired Holy Bible require that a lost sinner accept Jesus as "Lord" to be saved. This is Lordship Salvation. To accept Jesus as one's "Lord" clearly implies following Christ faithfully in service and turning from sinful behavior, which is definitely NOT part of God's simple plan of salvation. 1st Timothy 4:10, "For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe." PCC refuses to distinguish between service versus salvation. They refuse to differentiate between discipleship versus sonship. John Bunyan said it well: "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." PCC are guilty of perverting the Gospel, accursed by God almighty (Galatians 1:6-9; Jeremiah 5:31).

3. "Come into my life" - Asking Jesus to come into your life is NOT part of God's simple plan of salvation. Dear reader, I highly encourage you to read two helpful books in defence of the free grace Gospel. The first is titled "[16]I Never Knew You" by Michael P. Bowen. The second is titled "[17]RELIGION vs. JESES: Do vs. Done" by Princeton Greene (this is the free pre-published edition). Also, please read, "[18]Another Gospel" by Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951). Shame on Pastor Redlin for perverting and obscuring God's simple plan of salvation. Dear reader, these embellishments to the Gospel clutter, confuse and mislead lost sinners, so that they end up following religion instead of being born again. Remember, Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again.

4. "Make me part of your family" - Nowhere does the inspired Word of God require that someone ask God to be a part of His family to get to Heaven. This is junk theology folks, religious quackery. Jeff Redlin is the spiritual equivalent of a despicable snake oil salesman!

5. You don't have to "ask" God to save you - If you watch the entire toxic video, Pastor Redlin invites the viewer to "ask" God to save you. Nowhere are we taught to "ask" God for His free gift of eternal life. God is already freely offering eternal life to all humanity, to whosoever receives His gift by faith alone in the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross, and faith in His resurrection. 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." You don't have to "ask" God to save you, you simply need to receive His free gift by faith. Simply believe that Jesus did it all for you. Salvation is a TAKE proposition, not a GIVE proposition. Since God is already freely offering you the gift of eternal life, you don't have to ask to be saved, just believe (John 6:40).

6. There is no Gospel - Worst of all, Jeff Redlin made his biggest blunder by leaving off THE GOSPEL entirely. According to 1st Corinthians 15:1-6, "the gospel" includes Jesus' vicarious (in our place) death on the cross, burial and His bodily resurrection from the > dead the third day. As shocking as it may seem dear friend, Pastor Redlin fails to mention any of these elements of THE GOSPEL. Mr. Redlin never mentions the cross upon which Christ died. Redlin doesn't mention Jesus' burial nor His resurrection from the dead. But he foolishly insists that you pray to "ask" God to make you a part of His family, come into your life, and accept Jesus as your "Lord." That is "another gospel" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4) which cannot produce the required new birth to enter into God's heavenly Kingdom (John 3:1-7). Shame on Pastor Redlin!

It doesn't surprise me that Jeff Redlin preaches a counterfeit plan of salvation, considering that the ungodly Bob Jones University (BJU) crowd at the rotten [19]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (where [20]I was kicked out and banned in 2014 for telling the truth) promote Redlin's sermons on their toxic KHMG 88.1 FM religious radio station. Birds of a feather flock together! [21]The Bob Jones University (BJU) camp are guilty of perverting the Gospel , preaching hard core Calvinist Lordship Salvation. One sick person with mono plus one healthy person ultimately equals two sick people. In laying down with infested dogs (false prophets), PCC has become infested too. PCC is NOT a fundamentalist institution anymore (started in 1974), they are ungodly neo-evangelicals! The inspired Holy Bible plainly warns in 2nd Peter 2:1 about FALSE PROPHETS who will "privily" (painstakingly without detection) try to corrupt a church. They have at PCC and their contemptible Campus Church.

BJU invited and honored Paul Washer, an infidel hard core Calvinist preacher in December of 2022. Shame on BJU! Shame on PCC for hobnobbing with the Bob Jones crowd, and for wickedly bidding Godspeed to them. They are all pulling on the same rope as the Devil. When I attended PCC's Campus Church for a few months in 2021, I was told by a 23 year staff member that PCC's leadership despises Pastor Steven Anderson. Let me say in all truth that PCC's leaders and pastors are not worthy to shine Brother Anderson's shoes!!!!

> "You say, 'You shouldn't talk trash about other churches!' Well, if they'd stop being trash, I'd stop talking trash!" (a truthful quote by Pastor Steven L. Anderson, from the classic sermon titled, "[22]Queer Sounding Music And Skinny Jeans" - Time 1:07:50)

Dear reader, so far I have shown you THREE different plans of salvation being taught at PCC and Campus Church today! Please spread the word to everyone to avoid this corrupt institution and by all means whatever you do, don't entrust your impressionable children to these charlatans of the Christian faith. As Morgan Freeman says in the 2014 movie Transcendence, "RUN from this place!"

What these illegitimate pastors are actually doing is sitting on the fence. No matter what anyone says, they can go either way. If someone wants free grace they shew them their Campus Church website. If someone wants Lordship Salvation, they shew them Jeff Redlin's 8 minute toxic video, which is only accessible by scanning the QR code on the plastic handout cards (with Campus Church's name on it) that they distribute publicly. JEFF REDLIN IS NOT SAVED!!! If he is, then God is a liar and there are multiple plans of salvation. God is NOT the author of confusion (1st Corinthians 14:33).

Also,

their poisonous John & Romans booklet teaches hard core Lordship Salvation.

For the first time, I met Pastor Josh Thompson (pastor of Fairfield Drive Baptist Church in Pensacola) at the Pensacola Interstate Fair in 2022. He was attending PCC's toxic religious booth in the Exhibition Hall, right next to the Jehovah's Witness' booth. I directly asked Josh Thompson if he was teaching Lordship Salvation, and he confirmed es,

they were. He cited Acts 16:31b,

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved

" He emphasized the word

Lord,

insisting that you cannot be saved without accepting Jesus as the

of your life. I cringed and told him he was a false prophet. As is typical of PCC's leaders, Josh was belligerent and arrogant. Pastor Thompson teaches a class at PCC, which explains a lot.

Folks, these people are theologically dangerous!

PCC's Fourth Plan Of Salvation

Then to confuse people by complicating things even further, on their Campus Church website under the same dropdown menu there is another page titled, which actually DOES mention the three elements of the Gospel (i.e., Jesus' death on the cross, burial and resurrection); so this third plan of salvation is correct (minus the invitation to pray to ask God to save you at the end). PCC's first plan of salvation mandates that you repent of your sinful bad habits to be saved. We know this is biblically untrue, because turning from one's evil ways constitutes "works" (Jonah 3:10).

[23]God's Free Gift,

PCC's second plan of salvation in their Statement of Faith leaves out the Gospel. Granted, the webpage does mention that their Statement of Faith is not "exhaustive" of their beliefs. The problem is that they are telling the world what they believe about salvation without bothering to mentioning the Gospel at all, which is misleading. Nor does their Statement of Faith reflect the frightening fact that they preach a corrupt works-based plan of salvation in their deadly John & Roman booklet, and also in Jeff Redlin's toxic video. Will the real Jeff Redlin please stand up?

Let me quote from the Jehovah's Witness cult, so you can compare and see for yourself the danger of those who deceitfully profess to believe in a free grace Gospel, while at the same time adding works to corrupt the Gospel...

> “Salvation is a free gift from God. It cannot be earned. Yet it does require effort on our part.”

SOURCE: [24]What Must We Do to Be Saved? - Jehovah’s Witnesses Official Website

[25] And more...

> “We do not earn salvation by doing these things, for no human could ever do enough to merit such an astounding blessing. We are not worthy of this magnificent gift, though, if we fail to demonstrate our love and obedience by doing the things that the Bible says God and Christ want us to do. Without works to demonstrate our faith, our claim to follow Jesus would fall far short, for the Bible clearly states: "Faith, if it does not have works, is dead in itself."—James 2:17.”
> —James 2:17.

SOURCE: [26]What Must We Do to Be Saved? - Jehovah’s Witnesses Official Website

What you just read by the JW’s is exactly what is being preached today in the PCC and BJU camps. Case in point is [27]Pastor Chuck Phelps of the Colonial Hills Baptist Church in Indianapolis, who at one time was on their board of directors at BJU. Chuck Phelps insists that you are not saved if your life hasn’t changed, which is the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation. The people in Matthew 7:21-23 boasted of their “many wonderful works.” Clearly their life had changed for the better, but they were not saved and went to Hell forever. A changed life cannot be used as evidence of the new birth, because millions of people have improved their behavior who were not saved. 1st John 3:24 says the proof that you are saved is the indwelling Holy Spirit, which is the purpose for John penning the inspired Epistle of 1st John.

The following YouTube snapshot is from a Foundation’s Class at PCC’s Campus Church, where they errantly teach that your behavior must change to prove you are saved.

How is this any different than what the Jehovah’s Witness teach?

Folks, that is totally unbiblical. Repentance unto life (salvation) has absolutely nothing to do with behavior modification. That is the heresy of Lordship Salvation. A changed life is produced by the fruit of the indwelling Holy Spirit in a believer (Galatians 5:22-25). It is very wrong and unscriptural to teach that getting saved must result in a change of behavior. That is reformation folks, not repentance.

The Bible says in Matthew 27:3 that the Apostle Judas Iscariot "repented himself." There is no indication in the Scripture to think that Judas was ever a born-again believer. He was a known thief (John 12:6), whom Jesus said was "a devil" (John 6:70). The word for "repented" in Matthew 27:3 is "metamellomai" and means "to care afterwards, i.e., regret." This is a VERY different word than the word "repent" concerning salvation used in Mark 1:15, "metanoeo," which means, "to think differently."

Judas was so distraught over his sins that he returned the 30 pieces of silver to the wicked Pharisees, which they refused, calling it blood money. Clearly, Judas' behavior had changed; he now wanted to turn from his sinful bad habits. Yet, we know according to the Scripture that instead of getting saved, he commit suicide and went to Hell. The whole concept of being required to turn from your sinning to be saved is foreign to the inspired Word of God. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Bible repentance is "

a change of mind

to admit you're a needy sinner, so that you will turn to the dear Savior in faith to be saved. You need to repent of unbelief to be saved, which is the only sin that can keep you out of Heaven. PCC is very wrong to associate behavior modification with God's simple plan of salvation. That is not a gift at all, but Jeff Redlin in his pathetic video calls eternal life a "gift," which confuses the viewers. If eternal life is truly a free gift, then why do people have to invite Jesus to come into their life, repent of their sins, ask to become part of God's family, and accept Jesus as their "Lord"? Dear reader, you may do all of these things and yet never be born again. Jeff Redlin is a dangerous false teacher!

8534

Like the Jehovah's Witness, Mormons, Seventh-Day Adventists and other pseudo-Christian cults, Pensacola Christian College employs double speak. On their Campus Church website they say that salvation is the free gift of God received by faith alone; but then in a hidden Campus Church video (that can only be accessed by scanning a QR code on their handout cards), Pastor Redlin totally contradicts himself by requiring lost sinners to invite Jesus to come into your life, accept Him as your

Lord,

and ask God make you a part of His family. And in his poisonous video he leaves off the Gospel completely!

As you can see for yourself, PCC is a house of confusion and divisiveness on salvation. They are not stupid people which can only lead to one logical conclusion, that they are sitting on the fence, trying to appease different groups to get their money (Romans 16:17-18). PCC is preaching hard core Lordship Salvation in multiple places, but deceitfully superficially pretending to adhere to a free grace Gospel in their Statement of Faith. They are being dishonest and shady, for which I loathe them. I know God is greatly displeased with PCC. This is what the pseudo-Christian cults do, which I shewed you from the Jehovah's Witnesses earlier—they talk out of both sides of their mouth, contradicting themselves.

This is exactly what the inspired Holy Bible warns about in 2nd Peter 2:1, that FALSE PROPHETS would

(surreptitiously) bring in damnable heresies.

1st Corinthians 11:19, " For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you. " The good thing about PCC's gross theological incompetence and Pharisaical hypocrisy is that faithful truth-telling fundamentalist Bible preachers like me can expose them for the sake of others, who gratefully read by ministry blogs. To God alone by all the praise, credit and glory (John 15:1-5).

PCC is providing a heretical canvas against which I can paint THE TRUTH of God's inspired Word. As we just read from the Apostle Paul, we need heretics and their heresies so that learned preachers who rightly divide the Word of Truth can be made manifest. PCC are not what they appear to be! They are crooked and perverse on God's simple plan of salvation and everyone needs to avoid that wretched place.

The sad fact that I have found four different plans of salvation being taught in their institution speaks a thousand words about how apostate, irresponsible, insincere, and money-driven the cult has become at Pensacola Christian College, taking in roughly $175,000,000 per year in revenues. Truly, the love of money is the root of all evil (1st Timothy 6:10-11). And [29]shame on the Sword of the Lord in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, for wickedly bidding Godspeed to PCC, running their advertisements for money. Proverbs 12:17, "He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit."

Will the real Jeff Redlin please stand up?

6.9.12 If Salvation Could Be Lost, God Would Have To Undo Numerous Things (2025-09-15 01:01)

John 5:24, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life." 1st John 3:14, "We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death."

The inspired Holy Bible is very clear that when a person gets saved, they have PASSED FROM DEATH UNTO LIFE. Getting saved is a bridge that cannot be crossed over twice, nor can we return to the former place of being unregenerated as before we received Christ. The new birth can be likened unto the physical birth in numerous ways:

1. Once born, always born (John 3:4).
2. Neither the physical or spiritual birth can be undone (John 6:47).
3. Just as the first birth was beyond our control, so also is the new birth completely of God (John 1:12-13).
4. No one has ever been born physically or spiritually twice. You can be born twice, but only once physically and once spiritually.
5. Just as we had to be born of the flesh to be alive physically, so also must we be born of the Holy Spirit to be alive spiritually.
6. A person can die physically, but cannot undo being born. Likewise, all humans are both spiritually dead, which is why we need to be born-again of God; but once born-again no one can ever be unborn spiritually. It is absolutely impossible!

If salvation could be lost or undone once spiritual rebirth has already occurred in a believer, God would then have to do numerous things the Bible never speaks of nor teaches!

Surely the Holy Scripture would clearly illustrate these things, if God's gift of salvation could be forfeited.

Here are some of the things which God would have to undo, and would happen, if you and I could lose God's free gift of salvation (which is by faith alone in the Gospel):

1. God would have to pass us back from life unto death.

   John 5:24, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life."

2. God would have to take back His free gift of eternal life, making Him a liar. Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast."

3. God would have to remove us spiritually from being seated with Christ in heavenly places. Ephesians 2:6, "And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:"

4. God would have to "un-join" us from Christ. Ephesians 4:16, "From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love."

5. God would have to "un-wash" us from the blood of Jesus that already washed me (1st Corinthians 6:9-11; Revelation 1:5). 1st John 1:7, "But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin."

6. God would have to "un-seal" us from the Holy Spirit. Ephesians 1:13-14, "In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory."

7. God would have to impute our sins back to us, which He has already imputed to Jesus Christ by faith. Romans 4:5-6, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,"

8. God would have to restore our sins, no longer removed as far as the east is from the west. Psalms 103:12, "As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us."

9. God would have to remember our sins again, which He had previously forgotten. Isaiah 43:25, "I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins."

10. God would have to break His own covenant He made with His Son and therefore would make Him a liar. Ezekiel 16:8, "Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I sware unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord GOD, and thou becamest mine."

11. God would have to "un-adopt" us as His child. Romans 8:15, "For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father."

12. God would have to leave and forsake us, even though He promised to never do so. Hebrews 13:5, "Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee."

13. God would have to "pluck us" out from His own hand, which He has already promised that nothing could ever do! John 10:28: "And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand."

14. God would have to take back the free gift of eternal life that He has already given to us by faith. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

15. God would have to "undo" the righteousness that He has already imputed to you and me by faith. Romans 4:6, "Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,"

16. God would have to fail to raise us up on the last day, going back on His solemn promise to do so. John 6:40, " And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day."

17. God would have to fail in completing the "good work" in us, that He has already promised to perform. Philippians 1:6, "Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:"

18. God would have to ignore the prayers of His Son on our behalf, Who intercedes for us as believers. John 17:9, "I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine."

19. The Holy Spirit would have to stop making intercession for us when we pray. Romans 8:26. "Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. "

20. Jesus would have to stop being our heavenly High Priest. Hebrews 7:25, "Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them."

21. It would mean that salvation is really a reward and not a free gift, since we must do something to keep it. Romans 3:19-20, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

22. It would mean that we are no longer married to Christ. 2nd Corinthians 11:2, "For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ."

23. It would mean that no believer can rejoice with 100 % confidence that our name is written in Heaven, because we might lose it. Luke 10:20, "Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven."

24. It would cause every believer to live in fear, worry and uncertainty, never knowing if we are truly saved. 1st John 5:13, "These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God."

25. The entire Bible would have to be written to retain God's integrity. The Gospel of John teaches us simply to BELIEVE to be saved. If salvation could be lost because of sin, unfaithfulness or any other reason, for the man that BELIEVES, then God lied. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." Titus 3:5, "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life."

6.9.13 As Jesus Is, So Are We In This World (2025-09-17 01:02)

1st John 4:14-17, "

And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world."

I love this passage of Scripture. As Jesus is in Heaven, so are we in this world. That is, we (if you are saved) have the mind of Christ (1st Corinthians 2:16). We have the Holy Spirit of Christ indwelling us as believers (Romans 8:9). We are not mere reflectors of Jesus' love, we are portals through which God's love flows into this world around us. This is the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25).

Life can become complicated, but the key to simplify life is to focus on one thing. Ecclesiastes 12:13, "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. " I don't have hundreds of things to do in life, I have only one main thing to do, which is to FEAR GOD, AND KEEP HIS COMMANDMENTS! This is the whole duty of a man.

My job as a Christian is to do what Jesus would do in my situation, which is to please God. Revelation 4:11, "Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created." I was created to please my Creator, and so were you dear reader! Let this be our proper mindset from day to day, moment to moment—to fear God, and keep His commandments. In everything that I do as a redeemed saint, my goal is to please my dear God, Lord and Savior. That simplifies my life.

I don't have dozens of things to do to make my marriage work—I just have one thing to do, which is to love and please my wife. I listen to her when she talks. Her words are important to me. It pleases the Lord when I am loving toward my wife. She doesn't always deserve my love, and I don't deserve her love, but neither did Jesus deserve to be crucified on a cross for our sins. Why did He do it? Hebrews 12:2, "

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

" Jesus looked forward with joy to being crucified on a cross, because He loved us and knew it would make eternal life freely available to anyone who wants it. THANK YOU JESUS!!!

1st John 4:17, " Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world." You are the only Jesus that someone knows! When Christ was in the world, He was the light of the world (John 8:12); but now that Jesus is gone to Heaven as our High Priest, we are the light of the world (Matthew 5:14).

John 9:5, "

As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

" This is why the Bible calls us

ambassadors

in 2nd Corinthians 5:20, because in Christ's absence we represent Him to this lost and dying world. God is love and those who know and walk in His Spirit are loving people.

I receive hundreds of emails from frustrated churchgoers, particularly Baptists, who have unfortunately experienced coldness, unkindness, indifference and hatred while attending churches. Sadly, most pastors woefully lack God's love for people. When I attended the shameful Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola, none of their pastors took the initiative to greet me for the first 4 months that I attended their church. That is inexcusable! It was only after 4 months that their youth pastor, who is a nice guy, finally came over to greet me. The other pastors are lousy clergy and should all be fired. The senior pastor Bill Adams is tough, but he is strength without beauty, denim without lace; that is not good for a pastor.

In August of 2024, I took the initiative to walk over to shake Pastor Adam's hand, but he rudely looked off at the wall. Most people would have just left and never come back again, but I contacted him to let him know he horribly disrespected and mistreated me as a human being. Although he did apologize, he completely ignored my heartfelt email explaining my broken life, health afflictions and need for his church's friendship. Bill Adams couldn't have cared less.

The next Sunday when I attended Smyrna Baptist Church, Pastor Adam's horrible wife walked over to shake my hand and then rudely dissed me on purpose, looking sharp right 45 degrees off at the wall. I was deeply hurt. I contacted her husband again, this time to ask why his wife was intentionally mistreating me, making it very obvious that I am not welcomed at Smyrna, Adams never replied. I contacted the church secretary as well, to make sure he got the message, but I was ignored again.

This is the wicked type of shallow behavior prevalent in American churches today. Needless to say, but I will anyway, I never went back to Smyrna Baptist Church again and we are enemies to this day. I have given them many bad reviews on social media, which they deserve. People just want to be loved. You're not going to build a church by mistreating, dissing and hurting people deliberately. That is why Smyrna's main auditorium is 85 % empty all the time!

Furthermore, Smyrna Baptist Church is WRONG on Bible repentance for salvation. They are preaching the same Satanic garbage as Pensacola Christian College (PCC), the religious cult where Pastor Adam's daughter attends school. Birds of a feather flock together! PCC, Smyrna and other local corrupt Baptist churches all preach the Satanic lie that repentance means to be willing to turn away from your sinning to get to Heaven. That is works according to Jonah 3:10, not God's free gift of grace which is by faith alone (Titus 3:5; Romans 4:4-7; Ephesians 2:8-9). As Satan is, so are these wicked pastors in the world.

We are living in the " perilous times

" foretold in 2nd Timothy 3:1-7, when even church pastors have " a form of godliness, but denying the power " of the Gospel. Instead, they are preaching **"

another gospel

" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4) of partial faith in Christ plus being willing to give up your sinful lifestyle. That is a counterfeit plan of salvation! Shame on Pensacola Christian College, Family Baptist Church, Fairfield Drive Baptist Church, and Smyrna Baptist Church

—all located in the city of Pensacola—who all pervert God's simple plan of salvation by teaching a wrong interpretation of Bible repentance.

1st John 4:17, " Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world." We are Christ's representatives in this dark world of sin. Therefore, we ought to preach right doctrine. Christian ladies ought not wear pants that identifies them with the sinful world. The world has no place in any local church. You and I may be the only Jesus that someone knows. Right doctrine matters. How we treat people matters. As Jesus is, so are we in this world dear friend. What do people see when they look at you? We have the mind of Christ (1st Corinthians 2:16), and Christ's mindset was one of helping others (Philippians 2:3-5). Christ's mindset was one of hating sin and falsehoods, and of loving righteousness and the sinner. Very few saints today desire to be like Jesus. Tragically, today's pastors are often the worst offenders! We need a whole new breed of Bible preachers in America. Thank you for reading my ministry blog.

6.9.14 Charlie Kirk Was Deceived By Lordship Salvation (2025-09-18 08:22)

Matthew 7:20-23, " Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord*, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

Our text passage of Scripture from Matthew 7:20-23 plainly condemns Lordship Salvation. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. The Bible warns in Galatians 5:4 that anyone who adds works to grace is making the Gospel of none effect to save lost sinners, "Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace." When someone speaks of accepting Jesus as your "

Lord and Savior,

they are preaching another gospel.

[1]Lordship Salvation: A Perversion Of God's Grace

(by Pastor Curtis Hutson, 1934-1995)

I understand that “Lord and Savior” sounds so good and religious, tantalizing to our human pride and hatred for our neighbour’s sins. That being said, it is totally unbiblical to take Jesus as one’s “ to get to Heaven. Jesus is Lord, you don’t make Him Lord! The moment that you trust Him as your personal Savior, Jesus automatically becomes your Lord. What they mean by receiving Jesus as your

“

Lord

is that you will no longer continue to live a lifestyle of sinning, and that you will faithfully serve Christ for the rest of your life, and that you will follow and obey God’s will instead of your self-serving sins. These things are NOT part of the free Gospel of grace, nor are they even allowed. We are at war today over God’s simple plan of salvation folks, so please don’t take this important matter lightly.

I am so sick of the damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation that I want to go regurgitate. I love Charlie Kirk (1933-2025), but he was misled by Pastor Rob McCoy ([2]Charlie’s faith teacher) about God’s simple plan of salvation. Pastor McCoy preaches hard core Lordship Salvation.

I wrote a whole article at my other ministry blog yesterday, which you can read if you’d like. It is titled, “[3]Charlie Kirk Did Not Give A Clear Gospel Presentation.”

As with many celebrities, there is a personality cult following Charlie Kirk today. So, I know my blogs will likely offend some readers. But as Charlie would challengingly say: "PROVE ME WRONG!"

The only reason why corrupt religious institutions today; such as, Pensacola Christian College, Liberty University, Bob Jones University, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary and Southwestern Baptist Seminary are all preaching Lordship Salvation is simply because not enough born again Christians are calling them out and exposing them. Sadly, the opposite has happened, these corrupt institutions have succumbed to the Devil’s popular lie of Lordship Salvation to fit in with the crowd, to follow the herd of mainstream rotten evangelicalism in America. There is a famine of truth today!

The Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation has crept into nearly every Bible college and church today, perverting the grace of God. Case in point is Jeff Redlin, the theologically incompetent senior pastor of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), who preaches hard core Lordship Salvation...

At the end of [4]Jeff Redlin’s ungodly heresy-filled video , he invites the viewer to pray these words to be saved...

> “Dear God, I know that I’m a sinner, and I know that my sin has separated me from you. I believe that Jesus is God, and I accept Him as my Lord, my Saviour God, please come into my life. Make me part of your family. Save me.”
> SOURCE: Pastor Jeff Redlin, “A Good Question”; Campus Church at PCC, [5]https://campuschurch.com/a-good-question/

Kindly said, there are numerous things very wrong with Jeff Redlin's toxic plan of salvation, which unfortunately does NOT match up with what the inspired Word of God teaches. [6]I refute Pastor Redlin's damnable false plan of salvation in this helpful blog. The Bible exhorts learned Christian men to " who pervert the grace of God (Titus 1:9-14), so that they might become sound in the faith (so far they haven't listened to the truth at PCC because they don't care). PCC wickedly hobnobbed with the infidels at Bob Jones University, so now they have also been infected with [7]Satan's Lordship Salvation heresy.

REBUKE THEM SHAPLY

Charlie Kirk And The Lie Of Lordship Salvation

[8]Charlie Kirk's faith teacher, Rob McCoy, former 20-year

senior pastor of Godspeak Calvary Chapel in Newbury Park, California, [9]teaches hardcore Lordship Salvation!

Their so-called "church" requires turning from your sins and surrendering to Jesus as supreme "Lord" of your life to get to Heaven, which is a false gospel. The following is damnable heresy! ...

> The Gospel
>
> We believe that all people are, by n > ature, separated from God and responsible for their own sin, but that salvation, redemption, and forgiveness are freely offered to all by the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. When a person repents of sin and accepts Jesus Christ as their personal Savior and Lord, trusting Him to save, that person is immediately born again and sealed by the Holy Spirit, all his/her sins are forgiven, and that person becomes a child of God, destined to spend eternity with the Lord. SOURCE: [10]https://www.godspeak.com/our-beliefs
>

No, that is NOT THE GOSPEL!

There is NO Gospel folks! Where is Jesus' death on the cross, His burial and bodily resurrection from the dead the third day. I mean, this is "

according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-6. What Rob McCoy is preaching is worthless theological dung! Their plan of salvation is actually a plan of damnation. Godspeak Calvary Chapel is a religious cult!

The sad truth is that 99 % of professed Christians today are not saved at all. They are merely living the Christian life in Jesus' name, but they've never actually been born again by the Holy Spirit of God in response to childlike faith in the Gospel.

To the man with a hammer in his hand, everything starts looking like a nail sticking up. Likewise, to these misfit neo-evangelicals who are infatuated with the Lordship of Christ, they see all things through a misguided lens of Jesus being "

Lord, Lord,

while neglecting to preach the simple truth of a free grace Gospel message. The pure Gospel is the simplicity that is in Christ

” (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). By adding taking Jesus as one’s Lord, and adding repenting of one’s sins, to be saved—these FALSE TEACHERS are perverting God’s grace.

[11]Misunderstood Repentance: An Enemy Of Soulwinning
(by Pastor Jack Hyles, 1926-2001)

I humbly think that Charlie Kirk is an American hero, and I am sad that he was assassinated on September 10, 2025, by a hateful monster. God bless Charlie’s family. And please understand dear reader that I didn’t write this blog to cast a negative view upon Charlie; but rather, to raise awareness to the heresy of Lordship Salvation.

I realize that calling Jesus one’s “

doesn’t necessarily mean this is what someone is trusting in to get to Heaven. Albeit, from all that I have learned about Charlie Kirk’s beliefs, he did trust in Lordship Salvation. His pastor clearly taught Lordship Salvation. We cannot say with any certainty where Charlie went in the afterlife. My heart wants to believe he is in Heaven with Jesus and the heavenly family; but due to his relentless mention that to be saved you must receive Jesus as your

“

Lord and Savior,

and that he gave his life to Christ in fifth grade to be saved, concerns me deeply.

You cannot get born again by giving your life to Christ. That is not how God’s simple plan of salvation works. For someone who adheres to the fallacy of Lordship Salvation, they have a completely different mindset than a sinner who is simply resting in Christ’s redemptive work for salvation. Charlie Kirk endorsed Ray Comfort, which is not a good sign. Ray Comfort literally teaches that faith in Jesus Christ is not enough to be saved.

In addition, Ray Comfort errantly says that you must [12]repent to

[13]live a lifestyle

[14] of turning from your sinning. Ray actually calls trusting Jesus the

“

[15]second thing

you must do to be saved. He says the first thing is to turn away from your sinning and walk in holiness for the rest of your life.

Whereas the inspired Holy Bible says trusting Jesus is the only thing you must do to be saved (Acts 16:30-31).

[16]Ray foolishly misunderstands being

born again

” to refer to a radical change of behavior. In sharp contrast, we know biblically that being “ born again

refers to the supernatural miracle by which a lost sinner is indwelt of the Holy Spirit at the moment of salvation (John 1:12-14; 1st John 3:24; Romans 8:9).

Dear reader, there is absolutely nothing wrong with accompanying one’s faith with a sinner’s prayer, deciding to follow Jesus as one’s Lord, or desiring to turn from one’s sinful ways, JUST SO LONG AS you don’t add these things to your faith to be saved. If you add any of these things to your faith, you cannot be saved. God the Father will not accept anything more or less than your childlike faith (trust, reliance) in His only begotten Son, Jesus, who died on a cross in your place and mine. Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt we could not pay. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

I don’t have to follow Jesus as my “

to get to Heaven. That is strictly a matter of rewards in eternity. I don’t have to live a lifestyle of repentance from sins to get to Heaven. I don’t have to persevere in holiness to get to Heaven. I don’t have to be water baptized, pick up my cross to follow Jesus, go to church, forsake the world, nor serve the Lord to be saved. In fact, biblically, I don’t have to do anything to get to Heaven. All I did as a 13-year-old young man was to by faith rest completely in Christ’s crucifixtion, burial and resurrection to get to Heaven.

Dear reader, if you will simply take God at His Word as written in the inspired Holy Bible, to receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He raised up from the dead three days later, you will be instantly and forever saved. You have God’s promise of it in John 3:16,

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

> 1st Thessalonians 4:14, “For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.”

I cannot say with any certainty that Charlie went to Heaven or Hell. Only God and Charlie know where he went. I just know that Lordship Salvation is a counterfeit plan of salvation. I know that repenting of your sins is NOT taught in the Scripture to get to Heaven. I know that when Charlie says he got saved in fifth grade by giving his life to Christ, that is NOT how a lost sinner gets saved. Judas Iscariot gave his life to Christ too, becoming one of Jesus’ apostles, yet we know that Judas died in unbelief and perished into the Lake of Fire forever. But you say, “Wait a minute, Charlie believed.”

Yes, but what did he trust in to get to Heaven?

Partial faith in Jesus Christ plus something more is a counterfeit plan of salvation. I once witnessed to a teacher at the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam. I asked him if he believed a person could simply come to God as a guilty sinner and believe the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus’ crucified, buried and risen to get to Heaven? To my horror he replied, “Uh, I think a little more is required.” I knew right then that he was still lost in his sins without Christ. This is my concern with Charlie Kirk. Did he trust in Christ alone, or did he foolishly think (as tens of millions of hellbound neo-evangelicals do today) that MORE IS REQUIRED?

> John 3:15, “
>
> That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.
> **”

> John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.”
>
> John 6:40, “And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.”
>
> John 10:9, “I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.”
>
> John 11:25, “Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:”
>
> Acts 16:30, “And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.”
>
> Galatians 3:26, “For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.”

Again and again the inspired Holy Scripture exhorts us to simply BELIEVE ON JESUS to get to Heaven, without any mention of taking Him as one’s Lord, water baptism, sacraments, repenting of your sins nor anything else. You just need to believe that Jesus did it all for you! Tragically, 99 % of professed Christians today have never been born again, they are merely living the Christian life.

All of the unscriptural talk nowadays in churches of taking Jesus as one’s Lord, repenting of your sins, surrendering your will to do God’s will, giving your life to Christ, and becoming a Christ-follower to get to Heaven, just further confuses lost sinners and obscures God’s simple plan of salvation (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4). I do not question Charlie Kirk’s sincerity, but I do contend that he preached a vague, watered-down and amorphous plan of salvation. We must be alert to the danger of the pulpit. The Bible in the hands of an idiot is the most dangerous weapon mankind has ever faced.

6.9.15 Charlie Kirk Was No Friend To Lost Sinners (2025-09-20 01:27)

2nd Corinthians 4:3-4, "But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them."

Before I say anything, let me say that I humbly think Charlie Kirk (1993-2025) is an American hero! God bless Charlie's wife and two children. My heart goes out to them all.

That being said, as a born-again Christian myself since age 13, and a fundamentalist Baptist preacher all my adult life, I am gravely concerned about the negative influence Charlie is having on the world for Christ. You read right, negative influence. The tragic and senseless murder of Charlie Kirk on September 10, 2025, has [1]compelled thousands of young people to attend church. Although that may superficially seem like a good thing, it is a bad thing when you consider that 99 % of churches today are preaching a counterfeit plan of salvation of partial faith in Christ plus works (aka, [2]Lordship Salvation).

The Danger Of Using Unbiblical Terminology

Part of me wants to believe that Charlie Kirk was just careless with his words. In his tract, "What Must I Do To Be Saved?," Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) says that repentance to be saved means to turn away from sins, earnestly, with all your heart, and trust Jesus to save you which careless words I hate. Kindly said, Dr. Rice spoke foolishly in ignorance. But [3]elsewhere Dr. Rice wrote in his helpful commentary on the book of Acts,

"One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ."

So, clearly Dr. Rice did NOT think you must be willing to forsake your sinful bad habits to get to Heaven, which would be reformation, not repentance. Brother Rice was indeed saved, but he poorly chose his words in this case.

You cannot shew me one place in an inspired King James Bible where it says to repent

of your sins

to be saved. Acts 20:21 says to repent

(think differently)

“

toward God.

” 2nd Timothy 2:25 says to repent (change your mind) to acknowledge “ the truth.

” Those who errantly teach that Bible repentance is a change of mind that results in a change of behavior are preaching another gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4), which cannot produce the new birth (John 3:1-7).

I believe Dr. Rice was saved because he explained what he meant by turning from sin, which he clearly did NOT think means to forsake sinful bad habits to get to Heaven. That would constitute “

according to Jonah 3:10. Likewise, I am not sure what Charlie Kirk believed about salvation. Did he believe like John R. Rice did? Or did Charlie literally think you cannot be saved unless you forsake your sinful behavior and serve God? There is a fine line between faith and works. Adding even the slightest work to faith negates grace according to Romans 11:6,

“And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.” From nearly every pulpit today we are hearing a false gospel that says salvation is by grace alone, but you must do something to obtain it from God. That is impossible!

The Bible in the hands of an idiot is the most dangerous weapon mankind has ever faced. I heard in the news yesterday that young people by the droves are now attending church in response to Charlie’s assassination and his influence for Christ. What greatly concerns me about Charlie Kirk is that he is a poster boy for Lordship Salvation. By saying that he “gave my life to Christ in fifth grade” says nothing. That is not how someone gets saved. By saying that he “accepted Jesus as my Lord and Savior” is misleading at best, implying that more than faith is required to get to Heaven. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

I am still the fence about where Charlie went in the afterlife, simply because I don’t know what he really believed. I am careful not to be dogmatic without knowing more information. The $64,000 question is: Did Charlie believe more than faith is necessary to be saved?

Regardless, Charlie Kirk spoke with confusing words, using unbiblical jargon that obscures the true Gospel of free grace. The Mormons and Catholics love Charlie, because he refused to tell them the truth that they are unsaved members of dangerous religious cults. I cannot help but conclude that for the sake of further building and protecting his Turning Point organization, Charlie surreptitiously avoided offending different religious groups. That is not wisdom dear reader, it is foolish from Heaven’s point of view. This world is literally dying in sin and going to Hell. There has never been a greater need than right now to preach THE TRUTH!

As a side note, I am glad that ABC fired Jimmy Kimmel. I feel sick that tens of thousands of kooky liberal leftists are defending Jimmy, saying that he has a right to free speech. But there is also something called “decency” in society. For anyone to joke, make light of and even cheer the assassination of one of the best men our country ever produced is inexcusable. I hope they fire the other Charlie Kirk haters too. I like what one man said, “Speech is free, but the consequences aren’t.” Private companies and institutions do not have to honor free speech laws (within legal limits). They can fire people who say and/or do outrageous things that may damage their company’s reputation.

Please avoid using confusing unbiblical terminology when presenting the Gospel; namely:

1. Repent of your sins
2. Give your life to Christ
3. Become a Christ follower
4. Live a changed life
5. Accept Jesus as your “Lord”
6. Perform sacraments
7. Get water baptized
8. Be willing to turn from your sinful bad habits
9. Surrender your life to Jesus
10. Live for others
11. Live a lifestyle of repentance
12. Invite Jesus into your life
13. Join a church
14. Confess your sins to a priest
15. Repeat a ’Sinner’s Prayer’
16. Exchange all that you are for all Christ is
17. Invite Jesus into your heart
18. Ask God to make you part of His family
19. Forsake a lifestyle of sinning
20. Faithfully serve Christ

The truth dear reader is that you may do all of these aforementioned things (works), and yet never be born again and still go to Hell forever.

Charlie Kirk Obscured The Gospel

Anyway, I am sad about Charlie Kirk. It is bizarre that a homosexual punk who was raised Mormon, assassinated Charlie while answering a question from a Mormon student. Then again, it is Utah, which is Mormon country. Tyler didn’t kill Charlie over politics, he murdered him because he stood for decency and morality, and because Charlie was right!

The reason why I say that Charlie Kirk was no friend to lost sinners is simply because he refused to tell Roman Catholics and Mormons the truth about their false religions. By coddling and hobnobbing with hellbound religious cults, we can only do more damage than good. When [4]Ravi Zacharias (a false prophet) preached to the Mormons in 2014 in Salt Lake City, Utah, they [5]gave him a standing ovation at the end of his watered-down pathetic sermonette. The reason why the Hellbound Mormon cult honored Ravi is because he surreptitiously avoided steeping on their toes, and he wickedly called them his “ Brothers and Sisters in Christ.

In my humble opinion, Charlie Kirk is just as guilty as Ravi Zacharias, coddling the cults. A demon’s favorite activity is to make lost people comfortable in their false religion.

Please understand that I didn’t write this blog to cast a negative reflection upon Charlie; but rather, to draw attention to the reality that “if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.” I humbly believe that every redeemed child of God has an obligation to warn lost sinners. In Luke 8:15, the mature believer is the one who bears much fruit. God wants all of His dear children to share the Gospel with lost sinners, so that others may be saved through faith alone in Jesus Christ (John 20:31).

As much as I love Charlie Kirk and am thankful for his stand for decency, Christianity and the nuclear family, I am saddened today that millions of hellbound Roman Catholics and Mormons don’t know anything more about going to Heaven, than that Charlie accepted Jesus as his

gave his life to Christ in the fifth grade.

Ladies and gentlemen, every pseudo-Christian cult on the planet agrees with those two statements. Neither of those statements constitute, ’[6]THE GOSPEL’ (an excellent tract written by Pastor Harry Ironside, 1876-1951). If we as born-again saints don’t warn lost sinners of God’s coming judgment upon the wicked in the everlasting Lake of Fire (Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8), no one else will do the job folks!

Charlie Kirk has often said publicly he gave his life to Christ in fifth grade, but we do NOT give our life to the Lord to be saved. Jesus gave His life on the cross for us to be saved. 1st John 3:16, “

Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

” Christ died on a cross to pay our debt of sin. He doesn’t require that we exchange or trade our lives to be saved. Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15-18, 6:23). Remember that Judas Iscariot also gave his life to Christ.

I understand that a lot of people talk about giving your life to the Lord when talking about salvation. But actually, that's not biblical. Jesus gladly gave His life for us, so that we could be saved. Amen. We ought to give our lives to the Lord AFTER we are saved BECAUSE we are saved, but NOT to be saved. And we need to stop using unbiblical terminology when talking about salvation, so that we don't confuse anyone about how to be saved. Amen. God loves people and I do too. My goal is just to be a blessing to others for Christ.

No one is a true friend to lost sinners who changes, obscures or embellishes God's simple plan of salvation.

Now Is A Good Time To Clarify The Gospel

We read in 1st Corinthians 11:19, "For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you." I love that Scripture truth! The Apostle Paul is saying that false prophets and false teachings are necessary, so that Christian men who are learned in the Scriptures can ne identified; so that those learned men can refute false teachings.

Put another way, false prophets provide a blank white canvas upon which the truth can be painted. Christians should wisely use Charlie Kirk's death as a time to share the free grace Gospel, and warn others about the dangers of Satan's Lordship Salvation heresy.

Dear friend, I dare say that 99 % of churchgoers today have never been born-again.

John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

There are no exceptions! I've heard Pastor John Hagee falsely teach that Jews do not need to be born-again because they have their own special covenant with God, but he is oh so wrong. Jesus warned that everyone MUST be born-again to enter into God's Kingdom. In John chapter 3, Jesus was talking with Nicodemus, a religious leader of the Jews, and a Jew himself. In fact, Jews do NOT have a special covenant with God which excludes them from being born-again.

The dear Savior also confirmed that only a few people are saved. Luke 13:23-24, " Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." Ironically, the vast majority of the world's population is religious. But religion never saved anybody. My father used to wisely say, religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world. My Dad was right. Manmade religion blinds men from the truth of the Gospel. This is what is meant in 2nd Timothy 3:5, "Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away." That "power" according to Romans 1:16 is THE GOSPEL.

One of the most effective truths that I use when witnessing to lost people is to explain to them that Bible Christianity and manmade religion are two very different things. Salvation cannot be found in any religion; but rather, by faith in the death, burial and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ. Biblical truth and religious dogma are often at odds. Such is the case with Lordship Salvation, which is religion and not Bible truth. Mark 7:9, "And he said unto them,

Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

Kindly said, Charlie Kirk's religious terminology was not in agreement with biblical teaching. God's simple plan of salvation is that we are saved by faith alone without works. That means you don't have to receive Jesus as "Lord" of your life to follow, serve and obey Him in other matters. Serving Christ is discipleship, not sonship. It is sanctification, not justification.

Here is my favorite preacher's quote, which plainly shows that Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan fully understood the danger of not putting a clear difference between service and salvation...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Well said Brother Bunyan! That was Charlie Kirk's dire error, he failed to differentiate between discipleship and sonship, which ecumenical amorphous testimony caused the pseudo-Christian cults to follow, praise and support him. If Charlie was saved, his Gospel was hid from lost sinners (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4). Hundreds of millions of churchgoers worldwide have given their lives to Jesus Christ, and they follow Him as their "Lord" (saying "Lord, Lord") and doing "many wonderful works" in Jesus' name (Matthew 7:21-23); but they have never been born-again by resting completely in the finished redemptive work of Christ through Calvary's cross.

John Bunyan is absolutely right, by failing to put a difference between service and salvation, it corrupts the truth of God's Word and casts stumblingblocks before the people to hinder them from being saved. As much as I love Charlie Kirk and still think of him as an American hero, the fact remains that he failed to put a difference between discipleship and salvation. Consequently, the truth of a free grace Gospel was hidden from the lost.

The Incompatibility Of Lordship Salvation With The Gospel Of Free Grace

The following are some helpful preacher's quotes shewing the difference between service versus salvation...

> "It is an inexcusable error to confront sinners with problems that concern the Christian life and call upon them to make promises regarding them. An unsaved person is never called upon to surrender himself to God. The saving act is in no instance represented as our 'giving ourselves to God'; it is, on the contrary, taking His Son as our Savior."
>
> —Charles Ryrie, "
>
> Balancing the Christian Life"
> ; Moody Press, Inc., 1969 (p. 170)

> "Eternal life is free. Discipleship is immeasurably hard. The former is attained by faith alone, the latter by a faith that works... the former brings with it the righteousness of God so that a man is 'justified freely by his grace' (Romans 3:24). The latter develops a personal righteousness, based on good deeds, so that a man was also 'justified by works' (James 2:24). The former constituted the believer God's workmanship, the latter fulfilled the wonderful purpose for which he had been created. The former cost man nothing, the latter could cost him everything, including life itself." —Zane C. Hodges, "The Hungry Inherit"; Moody Press, Inc.,

“

There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can’t be lost because it depends upon God’s faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness.

—M.R. DeHaan, “

Hebrews”

; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

“

There are those who, in their zeal to get people to turn from their sinful ways and receive the Lord, almost put repentance on a par with believing... Repentance, as it relates to Christ, means to change our minds about Him, who He is and what He’s done to provide forgiveness and deliverance from our sins. When we place faith in Jesus as having taken our place personally on the cross and borne the penalty due our sins, then we’re automatically repenting, because we couldn’t accept Him in this way without having had to change our minds in some way concerning Him.

—Hal Lindsey, “The Liberation of Planet Earth”

; Zondervan Publishing House, 1974 (p. 136, 137)

“

Discipleship is frequently equated with salvation and often erroneously made a condition for becoming a Christian." —Dwight J. Pentecost, “Design for Discipleship”

; Zondervan Publishing House, 1971 (p. 11)

“Certainly discipleship is a most important aspect of our relation to Christ, but it belongs to the sphere of Christian life rather than entrance upon that life... One does not become a disciple in order to become a Christian, but because he has become a Christian by faith in the Savior, it is fitting that he embark upon a life of discipleship.”

—Everett F. Harrison, “

Must Christ Be Lord to Be Savior? No.”

; Eternity, September 1959 (p. 14)

“There is no more piously subtle abrogation of the Gospel than to tell a Sinner that he must not only believe in the Savior, but dedicate himself to do God’s will, crown > the Savior Lord of his life, etc., etc. Obviously, dedication and service are highly desirable, but they are the privilege and the duty of the saved, never a condition of salvation for the unsaved (cf. Romans 12:1, 2)."

>
> —Merrill F. Unger, "God is Waiting to Meet You"
>
> ; Moody Press, 1975 (p. 117, 118)

Charlie admitted moments before his assassination that half of his Turning Point staff are Mormons.

In sharp contrast, for telling the truth the apostles in the Bible were persecuted, arrested, imprisoned, beaten, threatened and ultimately martyred.

Dear reader, the inspired Word of God defines clearly in 1st Corinthians 15:1-6 as Jesus DEATH on the cross for our sins, His BURIAL, and His physical RESURRECTION from the dead three days later. This is the gospel,

the POWER OF GOD by which all who BELIEVE IT are instantly, irrevocably and forever saved (Romans 1:16). Giving your life to Christ is NOT a part of the Gospel. Taking Jesus as the

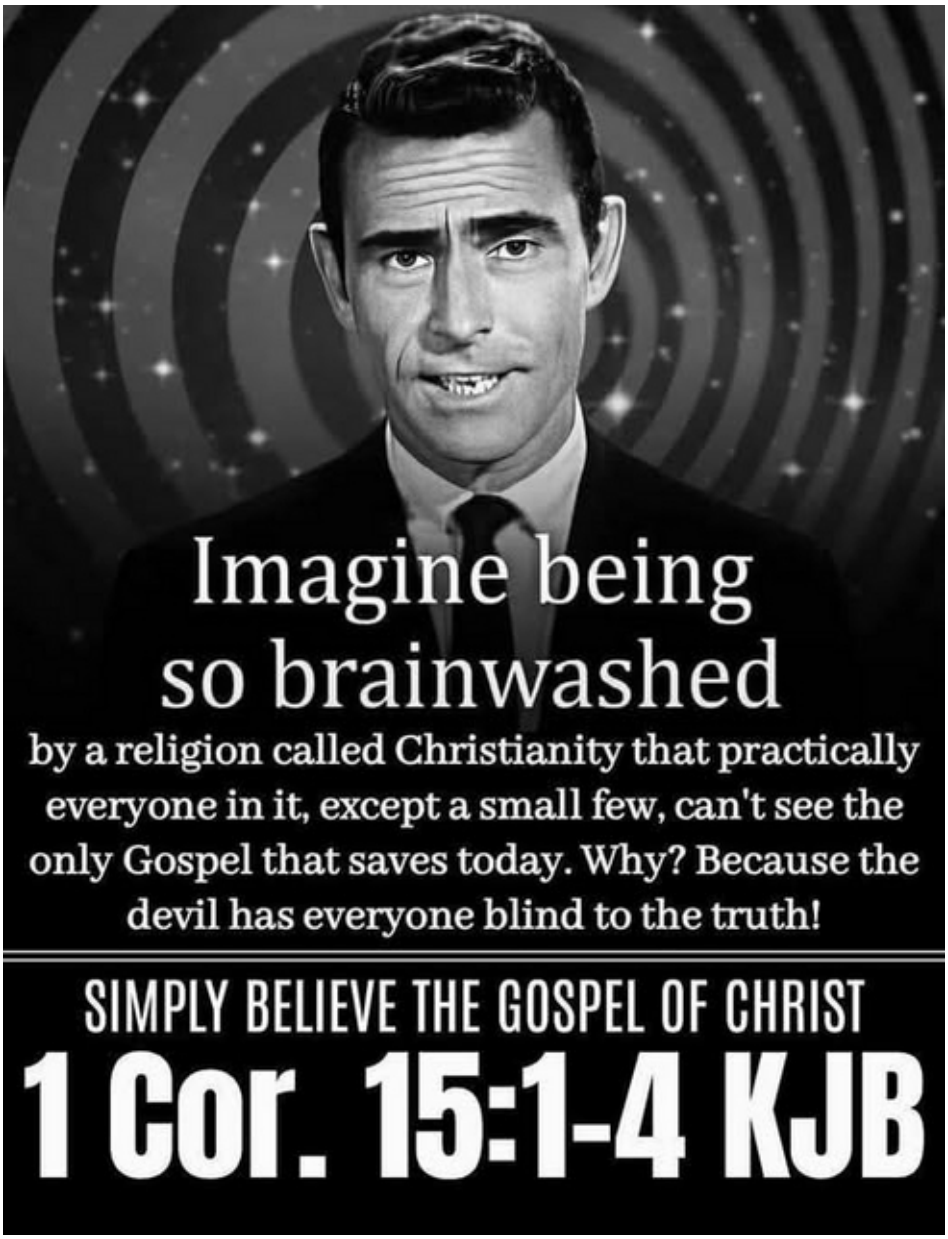
of your life is NOT part of the Gospel. Repenting of your sins is NOT a part of God's simple plan of salvation.

> "There is power in this [7]Gospel message. Most people just don't know how to present it... The clarity of the Gospel is what makes it easy for them to believe."—Pastor Yankee Arnold, "[8]WHY GRACE CAN SAVE THE WORST MAN!"



I encourage you dear friend to [9]make sure you know the clear Gospel, so that you'll know you're saved, and can show others how to be saved also.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

We must stay true to the simplicity of the Gospel. Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief. We must earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints (Jude 1:3).

Thank you for reading my blog. Jesus is precious!!!

6.9.16 Shame On Christian Women Who Wear Pants In Public (2025-09-21 10:32)

SHAME on any pastor’s wife who wears pants to a church picnic, or anywhere in public. There is nothing more destructive to churches today than ungodly arrogant neo-evangelicals! Yes, I am preaching TO YOU [1]Family Baptist Church in Pensacola!!!

6.9.17 A Deadly Video That Was Very Well Made (2025-09-23 01:05)

Galatians 1:6-7, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

Although I love the sounds and images in the following video, it is blatant false teaching. The gist of the video is that you cannot go to Heaven unless you live a righteous life, follow Jesus and serve Him faithfully. I HATE that video! Watch it for yourself...

This is Damnable False Doctrine, But Well Made

The video teaches that you have to surrender control of your life over to God, and your life must change, or else you won't go to Heaven. The whole video is preaching that you don't have to do works to be saved, but if you don't do works you never had a genuine relationship with God, so you go to Hell. This preceding video is an excerpt from the full audio theater performance titled: "[1]Rescued" by [2]John & Lisa Bevere, two are false prophets who preach another gospel, claim to receive extra Biblical revelation (as did cult leaders' Ellen G. White and Joseph Smith). Their corrupt plan of salvation is very different from what the inspired King James Bible teaches. BEWARE OF WOLVES IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING!!! (MATTHEW 7:13-15).

I highly encourage you to watch this beautiful sermon by Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold titled: "[3]Why Lordship Salvation Is Wrong," and you will clearly see what is wrong with the video. Whoever made that video IS NOT SAVED!!! You don't have to receive Jesus as your "Lord and Savior" to be saved, just your "Savior." Pastor Jack Hyles also exposes the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation: '[4]The Lordship Salvation Mess!' Please don't fall for Satan's lies. The Devil's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from? That is why the Bible says in 1st John 3:9, "Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God." Do you know why a child of God cannot sin? It is because there are no more sins to forgive! Romans 6:1, "What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?" As believers, if you are saved, we fall IN GRACE, never FROM GRACE. Only the unbeliever who knowingly rejects Christ, or adds works to partial faith in Christ, has fallen FROM GRACE (Galatians 5:4). The ONLY way to get to Heaven is to REST completely in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ through Calvary's cross. Hebrews 4:10-11, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief." This passage of Scripture plainly refutes the damnable false gospel of John & Lisa Bevere.

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to, YOU.

We must stay true to the simplicity of the Gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief!!! We must earnestly contend for the faith (Jude 1:3).

Here Pastor Curtis Hutson exposes Lordship Salvation as: "[5]A Perversion Of The Gospel." You won't find anything in the Gospel of John about following Jesus, making Him Lord of your life, surrendering all to Him, faithfully running the Christian race, living a lifestyle of repentance, counting the cost and paying the price, publicly confessing Christ, being water baptized, serving Jesus, repenting of your sins and forsaking them, having a relationship with Christ nor anything else! That is all junk theology!!! Although it is true that every child of God has a Father and adopted son relationship with the Lord, Judas also had a relationship with Jesus as one of His very apostles. Yet Judas went to Hell forever in his sins because He didn't believe that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God. Judas didn't go to Hell because he was a sinner, he went to Hell because of his UNBELIEF in Christ.

Dear reader, you CAN know 100 % that you are saved right now. You DON'T need to live a changed life to prove anything. If you have placed your childlike faith in Jesus as the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, and you aren't relying upon anything else (just in case), then you are saved. Jesus plainly warned in John 3:3, " Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." [6]Have you been born-again dear friend? I have been since age 13, in 1980. Oh, [7]it is wonderful to be a Christian!

Back in 2003, I read an article in the Chicago Sun-Times about our U.S. troops over in Iraq, who were getting ready to go into field combat. The article said that the troops were lining up to get water baptized, "just in case" (i.e., just in case they were killed in combat). I was so saddened to read that, because Satan lied to them! That ungodly minister who baptized them with water is a false prophet!

Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan said it best, and this is my favorite preacher quote:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide > the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

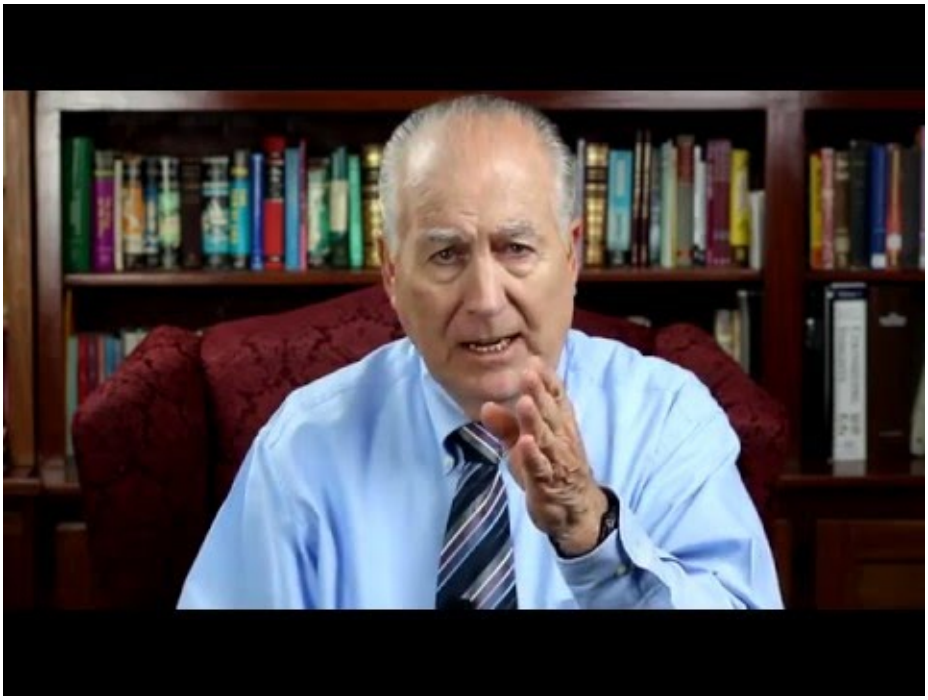
Amen and amen! Bravo John Bunyan!!!

And again, here is another helpful quote from one of my favorite preachers, Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965):

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews. Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

I hope you can now clearly see, how the creator of the preceding YouTube video at the beginning of this blog, is perverting God's saving grace. Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work." The video in question is full of demands for the viewer to do works to legitimize their faith, but that is still WORKS!!!

Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold makes these helpful statements:



> "Lordship Salvation is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the performance of good works, the promise of good works, or the evidence of good works, must accompany faith in Christ to establish or provide evidence that such faith has resulted in eternal life." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, [8]"Jesus versus John MacArthur"

> "Salvation is one thing and service is another, and never the two goes together. No man is saved because he serves, and no man has to serve because he is saved. Gotta keep them separate! And if you don't do it, the Scriptures will be confusing to you. You'll not rightly divide what God has to say." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, "[9]Why Lordship Salvation Is Wrong"

Those are wonderful truthful quotes! Dear friend, have you ever been born-again? The quickest way to burn in Hell forever is to TRUST IN TOO MUCH to get to Heaven. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) also said that truth:

> "More people will die and burn in Hell, because they're trusting too much!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, a precious quote from the MP3 sermon, "[10]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"
>
> "Everything that's hard and complicated about salvation is God's side of it!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[11]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"

Remember, the Devil is a beautiful liar! Whoever made that horrible video is woefully ignorant of the inspired Word of God, wrongly dividing the Holy Scripture. I would RUN away from that deadly video! I'm using the video as a tool to show you dear reader WHAT IS NOT THE GOSPEL, so that you can [12]see the true Gospel of free grace. It is very dangerous because it is well made, has great sound, but it is FALSE DOCTRINE!!! Here is the true Gospel, by my dear friend, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold...

6.9.18 Our Astonishingly Amazing Creator (2025-09-24 10:53)

God is truly more than amazing! Psalms 145:3, "Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable."

What Is Nothing? Exploring the Void of Space (FULL DOCUMENTARY)

Here are some amazing astronomy facts...

> “While we are all likely familiar with the fact that Earth spins and orbits the sun, these are only two forms of motion that the Earth experiences. In addition to those two values, the Earth is also being carried around the Milky Way with the sun. Like all the planets, the sun also has an orbit. In the case of the sun, it orbits the center of the Milky Way Galaxy, and it carries the entire solar system along with it. At this very moment, the solar system is moving through the Milky Way at a speed of 448,000-miles per hour (720,000-kilometres per hour). While that may seem extraordinarily fast, it will still take the sun about 230-million years to orbit the galaxy.” [1]https://www.worldatlas.com/.../how-fast-is-the-earth...

And more...

> “Imagine you’re floating down a wide river. The current is strong and steady, but suddenly you notice you’re veering toward one side, as if something beneath the surface is dragging you toward it. That’s what’s happening with our galaxy. Astronomers have measured the motion of the Milky Way and found that it’s moving at an astonishing speed of about 600 kilometers per second (that’s over 1.3 million miles per hour!). But we’re not just coasting with the general flow of the universe’s expansion—we’re being drawn toward a specific direction in space [i.e., the Andromeda galaxy].
>
> [2]https://www.sciencenewstoday.org/the-great-attractor...

[3]

Wow, that is truly incredible!

8564

➥ So, the earth spins on its axis at 1,037 mph
➥ The earth moves around the sun at 66,627 mph
➥ Our solar system moves though the Milky Way Galaxy at 448,000 mph
➥ Our Milky Way Galaxy is moving toward the Andromeda Galaxy at 1.3 million mph (and the Andromeda Galaxy is moving toward our Milky Way Galaxy at 250,000 mph).

The reason why we don't feel these movements is the same as riding in a speeding car. You don't feel the motion as long as the movement is consistent. If any of these movements ever suddenly stopped, it would be the end of life on earth. God is more than amazing!

Approximately 932,884 Earths can fit inside our sun, when considering the packing density of the planets. The commonly cited figure of 1.3 million is based on a theoretical calculation that doesn't account for the physical structure of the earth. Astronomers tell us that our sun is as a mere spec of sand on a beach in comparison to the universe. There are more stars in the universe than all the grains of sand on every beach on earth. Think about that! There are an estimated 200 billion suns (stars) in our own Milky Way Galaxy. Scientists have so far determined that outside of our own Milky Way Galaxy there are at least 20 trillion other galaxies, each having hundreds of billions of suns!

The truth is that mankind simply does not know how big the universe is. Our technology and telescopes are limited. Astronomers talk about "close" stars that are a mind-numbing 20 light years away from earth. That is, you would have to travel at the speed of light (186,282 miles per second) for 20 years to get there! That's 670.7 million miles per hour! We're talking about "close" stars that are hundreds of trillions of miles away from earth. And those are just the suns that are our nearby neighbours. Truly, God's greatness is astoundingly beyond human comprehension.

Psalms 144:3, "

LORD, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him! or the son of man, that thou makest account of him!

6.9.19 People Will Tolerate Religion, But Not The Truth (2025-09-25 01:06)

2nd Timothy 4:1-4, "I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables."

People will tolerate just about any system of beliefs nowadays except Biblical Christianity. The name of Jesus is offensive to most people. A lot of people will talk about God; but never mention the precious name of Jesus. People will tolerate religion; but they will not tolerate the Savior. The reason is because religion elevates mortal man as their authority.

However, Biblical Christianity elevates the God-man, Jesus Christ. The heathen world will not tolerate the Son of God, the Christ (John 15:19). People are embracing religion today, because there is no Final Authority.

Having said that, one of the biggest cults today is Pensacola Christian College (PCC). I moved from the island of Guam in 2021 to Pensacola. My first choice of church to visit was none other than PCC's Campus Church. I was deeply hurt the first time I contacted their incompetent shameful senior pastor, Jeff Redlin, who took the liberty to scold me for mentioning that I hoped to find a wife at Campus Church. The guy didn't even know me. He had never ate a meal with me. He never offered once to pray for or with me. Pastor Redlin had no right or business belittling me, when he doesn't even know who I am. I say that to his utter shame.

Furthermore, he falsely accused me, scolding me for coming to a big church to find a wife. But I had never stated that was why I came to church, as ASS-U-med that. I realized that quickly that Jeff Redlin has the mentality of an eight year old spoiled brat. To no surprise, it didn't even take 3 months for him to drive me our of Campus Church, because of his ongoing mistreatment of me as a human being, and a hurting divorced person. There is no love at PCC, only a hateful self-righteous intolerance and bigotry toward anyone who dares to question their doctrine or methods in the cult.

I did question their doctrine, and for good reason. On July 21, 2021 I heard incompetent assistant pastor, Timothy Zacharias, teach thousands of cult members at a Wednesday night evening service, that repentance requires a change of behavior to prove that you are saved. I was disgusted by what I heard, as I sat their physically in the pews of Campus Church. The next morning I contacted their competent senior pastor, Jeff Redlin, about the matter. To no surprise he 100 % defended Tim Zacharias and said the PCC camp believes that repentance results in a change of behavior. Folks, that is damnable heresy!

God authored one Book, the Holy Bible. In that wonderful Holy Book, God made two great divisions of Old and New Testaments (or, respectively, LAW and CHRIST, or GRACE). The sole function of the LAW in salvation is to give humanity THE KNOWLEDGE OF SIN. Romans 3:20,

Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

And then the LAW brings lost sinners to CHRIST to be saved by grace through faith alone. Galatians 3:324-26,

" Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

I have just shown you dear reader THE TRUTH from the inspired Word of God. The Law was never intended by God to be kept as a prerequisite to being saved by faith. Yet, that is the exact heresy being preached by 90 % of preachers, pastors and clergy today in churches, Bible colleges, in prisons, in rescue missions, in the military and on foreign mission fields. These lying preachers all say that faith in the Gospel (Good News) Jesus Christ is not enough to get to Heaven; but in addition, they all wickedly teach that you must first “turn away from your sinful ways” to be saved. What they are effectively preaching is that YOU must make an effort to keep the Old Testament LAW to get to Heaven. They are devils behind the pulpit!

A lot of shallow churchgoers have become angry at me for exposing the incompetent Pensacola Christian College (PCC) camp. There is an ongoing spirit of contempt, bitterness and smear campaign against me by PCC cult members and former employees, attacking me on social media because I have the guts to expose their wickedness. In fact, PCC today wickedly bids Godspeed to false prophet Ken Ham. PCC claims to be a liberal arts institution, which one of their former female PCC teachers alleges gives them the right to promote Ken Ham. No, Biblically, it doesn’t. 2nd John 1:11, “ For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.

There’s another pastor and church in Pensacola that I may need to expose too, that is closely associated with the PCC cult. I can tell you with absolute Biblical authority that anyone who teaches that you must “turn away from your sinful ways” to get to Heaven is pulling on the same rope as the Devil. Pastor Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias are theological liars, who errantly teach, and I quote from their Foundation’s Class:

“Repentance is a change of mind which results in a change of behavior.” No Sir, that is a counterfeit plan of salvation. No where in the inspired King James Bible are we taught to forsake our sinning to be saved, or to prove that we are really saved. I fully agree with what Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold said:

> “Lordship Salvation is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the performance of good works, the promise of good works, or the evidence of good works, must accompany faith in Christ to establish or provide evidence that such faith has resulted in eternal life.” —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, [1]"Jesus versus John MacArthur"

Kindly said, Pastors’ Tim Zacharias and Jeff Redlin are theological LIARS!!! They are oh so wrong! They know not what they teach. They do greatly err, not knowing the Scriptures. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

The FALSE GOSPEL of ANSWERS IN GENESIS and KEN HAM

PCC leadership lives under the delusion that they are doing everything right, and are pleasing to God, as did the foolish Laodicean church in Revelation 3:15-17; but Jesus truthfully called them “miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked

” (Revelation 3:17b). WORKS has absolutely nothing to do with going to Heaven, yet Ken Ham and his employees at his Answers-In-Genesis ministry preach another gospel, which requires WORKS. So why does PCC wickedly support, honor and invite ken Ham to speak at Campus Church and PCC? It is because they are ungodly at Pensacola Christian College (PCC).

I actually attempted to reconcile and make peace with the PCC leadership in the summer of 2022. I wrote three humble letters to them. PCC totally ignored me. Pastor Redlin replied by banning me from attending Campus Church ever again. That was August 2, 2022. What hypocrites! What hateful and uncompassionate phonies for Christ.

Ken Ham is in error, falsely teaching that you must repent to be saved, by turning away from your evil ways. The Bible calls Ken Ham a LIAR!!! Nobody can get to Heaven based on their WORKS. Turning from your evil way is WORKS (Jonah 3:10). People who are trusting in their WORKS to get to Heaven will NOT go to Heaven. Jesus said this...

> Matthew 7:21-23, “Not every one that saith unto me, *Lord, Lord (There’s your Lordship Salvation), shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven (cf., John 6:40). Many will say to me in that day, *Lord, Lord (There’s your Lordship Salvation), have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works ? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.”

Did you see that? They were trusting in their WORKS? You cannot be born-again by trusting in WORKS. What saith the Scripture? Ephesians 2:8-9, “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." Turning away from your sinful ways is WORKS! Forsaking a lifestyle of sinning is WORKS! Reforming, being willing to turn from sin, repenting of your sinful ways is WORKS! The Bible says we are saved BY FAITH. Galatians 3:26, " For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

6.9.20 Eternal Life is FREE (2025-09-26 19:11)

Eternal Life IS FREE (a Gift), all a person has to do IS BELIEVE.

[1]

THAT'S RIGHT, just believe (Trust in Alone Completely) that the Lord Jesus Christ Died on the cross, shed his blood, was Buried and 3 days later Resurrected from the dead and that is all you have to do.

The moment that YOU DO you are FREE FOR ETERNITY (forever) from ever having to go to hell.

– God said it,

– God wrote it in the Bible,

– That settles it,

– JUST BELIEVE IT.

John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold Explains How To Be Saved

6.9.21 What Did Paul Mean: "If Ye Keep In Memory What I Preached Unto You"? (2025-09-27 01:06)

1st Corinthians 15:1-2, “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.”

That is a great question!

The Apostle Paul had started several churches on his various missionary’s journeys. On numerous occasions, false prophets had crept into some of those churches, after Paul moved on to other cities to preach the Gospel.

I love the Epistle of Galatians, which focuses primarily on this very problem. The Galatian churches has been corrupted by a cult of Judaizers (Galatians 1:6-9; 3:1-3; 5:4), who required keeping Moses’ law to get to Heaven, in addition to faith in Jesus. So Paul writes a letter to them to rebuke them, calling them "fools" (Galatians 3:1) for being so soon removed from the Gospel (Galatians 1:6), which Paul received not of man, but directly from Jesus Christ (Galatians 1:12).

Having said that, when Paul wrote 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, he defines "the Gospel" and then warns the Galatians not to be led astray unto another gospel, lest they have believed in vain. We see in Matthew 7:21-23 that a group of religious people followed Jesus as their Lord. They even called Him, "Lord, Lord." There is Lordship Salvation in the Bible! They boasted of having done "many wonderful works," but they never mentioned wholly trusting in Jesus' name.

Likewise, we heard all sorts of plans of salvation today, which contradict what the Holy Bible teaches. Joel Osteen says you've got to turn away from your sinful ways, invite Christ into your life, and follow Jesus as your Lord. [1]Joyce Meyer errantly teaches that to get to Heaven, you must let God take the driver's seat of your life, turn away from your sinful behavior, invite Christ into your life, et cetera.

Hundreds of millions of lost sinners have a false sense of security, just like feeling the calm of the storm in the eye of a hurricane. It is a false security! Pastor Max D. Younce taught me: "A demon's favorite activity is to make people feel comfortable in their false religion." Michael P. Bowen says: "Satan's favorite weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again."

I believe Paul was simply teaching in 1st Corinthians 15:2 ("By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain"), that you cannot get to Heaven if you get the Gospel wrong.

We know that Paul was NOT teaching that salvation can be lost, because the new birth is irreversible. Not one verse in the entire Bible even hints that eternal life can be forfeited; for if it could be lost, it would mean that eternal life cannot be a gift. A gift cannot be returned, because it is free.

once witnessed the Gospel to my Seventh-Day Adventist doctor. He said that he believed exactly what I believed. But I knew better than that. So I asked him if he would still be saved if he committed a very bad sin, like God forbid, murdering someone. He immediately replied, "Oh no, I wouldn't be saved anymore." I asked him why he thought that way, since we know that eternal life is a free gift from God (Romans 6:23). He said, "Yes, salvation is a gift, but it can be returned to God if we choose to go into sin." Kindly said, my former doctor is WRONG!

I didn't rebuke my former doctor for speaking as a fool, but I simply told him what I believed, that I could go into gross immorality and still be 100 % saved, because I am saved by God's righteousness and not my own righteousness. I then handed him a free hardcopy of Michael P. Bowen's helpful book: "[2]I Never Knew You" (free .pdf online version - hardcopies are available at Amazon.com).

Kindly said, SDA's are a Satanic cult. They are NOT true born-again believers. SDA's are trusting in 100 % Lordship Salvation. [3]SDA's believe that keeping the Ten Commandments (i.e., keeping the LAW of God) demonstrates your love for God. So if you don't obey the Ten Commandments, SDA's say that it proves you don't really love God, and you don't have faith, so you are not really saved. This is a 100 % WORKS based plan of salvation, which is really DAMNATION.

Again, I think Paul is simply saying in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 that if you hear the Gospel, but it gets confused and obscured somewhere long the way, you won't be able to receive the new birth. Jesus said in Luke 8:18, "Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have." Carefully notice what Jesus said: "TAKE HEED THEREFORE HOW YE HEAR."

As Pastor Max Younce rightly says: "RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS." It sure does. Jesus is warning everyone to be diligent to make you you hear God's Word correctly. And I think that is essentially the same thing that Paul is saying in 1st Corinthians 15:2. Paul preached the simplicity that is in Christ, which is "THE GOSPEL" (Romans 1:16; 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). It would have been VERY easy for some false prophet to creep into the church at Corinth. Also, keep in mind that the Apostle Paul penned the Epistle of Galatians approximately 5 years BEFORE he did the Epistle of 1st Corinthians. [4]Here are the years in which each of the 66 books of the inspired Holy Bible were penned by holy men of old, as they wrote under the divine inspiration of the Holy Spirit of God.

After the horrifying experience of what happened to the Galatian churches, when they were deceived to follow false prophets (wolves in sheep's clothing who brought in another gospel), Paul was being extra careful to warn the church at Corinth. Paul remembered the horror story of what happened to the churches of Galatia. The apostle had preached a clear Gospel presentation to them, but after he left town to go preach in another city, word later came back to Paul that the churches of Galatia were now cults, requiring WORKS (keeping the law) to get to Heaven. Paul was alarmed! The Greek word word "marvel" means that the Apostle Paul was "astonished."

> Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

I humbly think that in 1st Corinthians 15:2, Paul is simply telling them that if they get deceived by the Devil to believe another gospel after he leaves town, they won't go to Heaven. Paul is telling them to guard the accurate of THE GOSPEL which he is preaching to them. I love Paul for that!!!

Revelation 3:2, " Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God. " Jude 1:3, " Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. "

It is the solemn duty of every Christian man who is learned and skilled in the Word of God to contend for the faith. Titus was NOT an apostle of Jesus, yet Paul told him in Titus 1:13-14, "This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth." Lordship Salvation is the commandments of men, not the free grace Gospel taught in the Holy Scriptures.

Corrupt preachers who wickedly tell lost sinners that they must "turn away from your sinful ways" to be saved, are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. They are preaching another gospel. They are sinfully requiring people to keep the LAW as a prerequisite to putting their childlike faith in CHRIST. Romans 3:20 teaches that by the LAW is THE KNOWLEDGE OF SIN. That is, the Law shows us our need for redemption, and then brings us to CHRIST to be saved by grace through faith alone. ...

> "The law tells me how crooked I am. Grace comes along and straightens me out."
> —Evangelist Billy Sunday (1862-1935)

That is what I am doing, day and night as a preacher, warning everybody not to be led away from the simplicity that is in Christ, which is THE GOSPEL. It is a full-time job! False prophets are crawling out of every nook and cranny like cockroaches! 2nd Peter 2:1, "But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction."

Dear reader, it is IMPOSSIBLE to lose God's free gift of eternal life. If you couldn't get saved by GOOD WORKS, then how could you ever lose it by BAD WORKS? Hebrews 6:1-2, "Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment." Please don't miss that: REPENTANCE FROM DEAD WORKS!!!

Ungodly ERV Changes Plan of Salvation By Corrupting Hebrews 6:1

If you look at the modern Devil's Bible revisions, you'll see that they corrupted the Word of God.

Now my friend, you are about to read the ungodly, wicked, blasphemous, PERversion, rendered in the "Easy-To-Read Version" (ERV) of the Bible . . .

> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — "So we should be finished with the beginning lessons about Christ. We should not have to keep going back to where we started. We began our new life by turning away from the evil we did in the past and by believing in God." [emphasis added]

Here again is Hebrews 6:1 in the beloved, correct, King James Bible . . .

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Hebrews 6:1, "Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God." [emphasis added]

Do you see how the new corrupt Bible versions are horribly changing theology in the churches? The King James Bible teaches that we must repent from our DEAD WORKS to be saved; but the ERV teaches that we must stop living a life of deliberate sin (evil) to be saved. The Alexandrian Greek is of the Devil, teaching a works-based plan of salvation. Salvation is NOT by works (Romans 3:20; Ephesians 2:8-9; Titus 3:5; Romans 4:5-6). The doctrine of the [5]imputed righteousness of God silences all the critics.

A baby believer won't see the major theological differences between the ERV verses the KJB, but I tell you that there are THOUSANDS!!! They've butchered the Words of God!!! Hebrews 6:1 in the ERV sinfully changes the entire plan of salvation, which now requires partial faith in Christ + human effort! No wonder our churches are so messed-up nowadays.

The really tragic thing is that many churches use the ERV piece of crap, using the lame excuse that BI-LINGUAL church members need an easier-to-read Bible. In reality, all the church has done is hand some easy-to-read satanic heresy to the victim. The doctrinal soundness of the Holy Scriptures is GONE, GONE, GONE in the ERV! The built-in dictionary is gone! God's Word is special, it is unique, it cannot be watered-down and simplified without ruining its power. I'm telling the truth, the Luciferian-worshipping occult want to [6]bring spirituality into the churches and eliminate theology. It should be obvious to you that this is exactly what the modern corrupted Bible versions are doing.

The reason why they need to do this is to infiltrate, corrupt and take control over the churches, so that they'll all receive the Antichrist when he comes. If you think that could never happen, you are deceived already. The mystery religion which began in ancient Egypt (which is at the core of New Age) teaches to love God and your fellow mankind, which means rejecting Christianity and the King James Bible, because they are [they say] bigoted, hateful and prejudiced. Of course, Luciferians promote a phony type of ecumenical love, which sinfully embraces unrepentant homosexuals, unbelievers and all apostate religious faiths.

I believe that when the Lord appears at the Rapture to catch away the saints, 97 % of the churches will be unaffected (because they are not saved). Lordship Salvation is a false plan of salvation, just as Seventh-Day Adventists, Greek Orthodox, Episcopalians, Church of Christ and Lutherans teach a false plan of salvation. Whether you add water baptism or forsaking sinful living to be saved, it is a false plan of works salvation.

Biblical salvation is based solely upon what Christ did for us, and not what we can do for Him. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved.

6.9.22 I'm So Happy That I'm Going To Heaven (2025-09-29 01:08)

Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

1st Peter 1:3-9,

" Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

I am a happy person because of Jesus, my precious resurrected Savior, Lord, Friend and God. I have plenty of sorrowful past memories. I have many regrets. I have wept bitterly at the lowest points of my life. I suffer from constant chronic neck pain and related nerve burning, tingling in my limbs and the right side of my body feeling half asleep all the time. I have stenosis and radiculitis in my cervical spinal cord. But despite my health issues, broken life and loneliness without a wife for the past 17 years, I am happy in the Lord. I rejoice as Jesus commanded us to do, that my name is written in Heaven in the Lamb's Book of Life. ...

> 1st Peter 1:3-5, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, *which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively

hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you*, Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. "

I love that. We have a lively hope (eternal life) that FADETH NOT AWAY. Everything in this world fades away. As an example: I have always liked the music of The Beach Boys, because it has beautiful harmony and pretty melodies. Brian Wilson is a musical prodigy, whose voice is angelic. Yet, Brian ruined his voice by abusing drugs like LSD and alcohol. At one time he had become so obese that he weighed 300 pounds. Sadly, Brian Wilson is an avowed atheist.

Co-founder Mike Love of The Beach Boys is now 81 years old. Mike will be 82 on March 15, 2023. Mike doesn't have much time left on earth. As far as I can find, none of The Beach Boys are Christians. Brian Wilson's younger brother, Dennis Wilson, died by misadventure in 1983, when he got drunk and drowned in California at only age 39. Another of Brian's brothers, Carl Wilson, died of cancer in 1999. These were all exceptionally talented men. Sadly, they and their music are fading away, just as the Bible says:

1st John 2:15-17, "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever."

The will of God is that every lost sinner BELIEVE on the name of Jesus Christ to be saved. John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." But John 3:20-21 says that the love of sin prevents lost sinners from coming to the light of THE TRUTH of the Gospel to be saved. God doesn't send anyone to Hell. Lost sinners are condemned already, because they have not believed on the name of Jesus Christ (John 3:18, 36). If you are damned to Hell, it is your own damn fault!

I am so happy in my soul that I am a born-again child of God. I have no part in my own salvation. It is GOD'S FREE GIFT OF SALVATION. Jonah 2:9b says that, **"

Salvation is of the LORD.

" Neither I, nor you, have any righteousness of our own to offer a holy God. That is why we need GOD'S RIGHTEOUENSS, which is obtained only through faith in Jesus Christ:

Philippians 3:9-11,

"And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead."

Dear reader, if you know that your name is recorded in Heaven, then you ought to rejoice. Even in the worst times of my life, when all hope seemed lost and there was no light at the end of the tunnel of pain and suffering, I still had peace like a river in my soul, knowing that Heaven is my home and that I already posses eternal life through faith in Jesus Christ my blessed Savior. Oh, it is wonderful to be a Christian...

Oh, It Is Wonderful To Be A Christian

Be of good cheer dear friend (John 16:33), for Jesus Christ is risen from the dead and has ascended into Heaven on our behalf (Hebrews 9:12, 24). Jesus is every believer's High Priest. Hebrews 4:14, "

Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

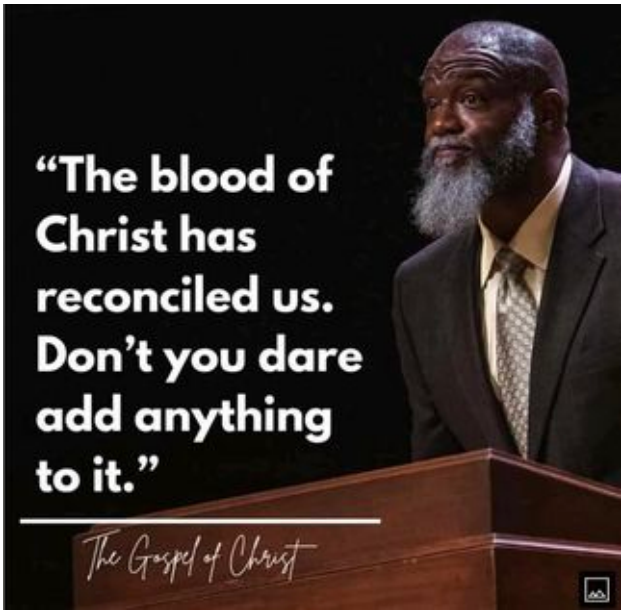
" I receive many emails from miserable believers, some even talking about suicide. The reason why they are so sad and miserable is because their mind is broken. They don't go to church. They have no fellowship with other born-again saints. They think negative because that is all they think about and look at in life, the negative things. They talk negative. They think negative. They don't live in God's promises. Of course they are miserable!!!



There but for the grace of God go I, so I am not judging anybody. Dear friend, God is real. The Word of God is not just a storybook, it is the eternally inspired Words of almighty God. I listen to several sermons today by [1]Pastor Bruce Mejia. I listen to [2]sermons by Pastor Steven Anderson all the time, because we all need Bible preaching. We are what we think! Everything in life comes down to a mindset. Whether you think you can or not, you're right! Get your mind out of the doldrums, and start taking hold on the eternal life which God has already given to you by faith dear friend. Life is too short to live with a burden of hatred, anger or regret. Leave your troubled past at the cross of Calvary, and move forward by faith with God your Savior.

6.9.23 If You Do Use A Sinner's Prayer (2025-09-30 11:38)

Romans 10:12-14, "

For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?"

Let me start by saying that Romans 10:13 is NOT a part of God's simple plan of salvation, it is an add on. That is, you DON'T have to call, ask or pray to receive God's free gift of eternal life. Romans 10:14 plainly teaches that we are saved at the point of faith, when we BELIEVE. A person calls upon the Lord AFTER they have already believed on His name to be saved. The inspired Scripture is very clear about this important matter.

That being said, it is not wrong to utilize a sinner's prayer if you choose to do so. A sinner's prayer is simply the expression of one's faith, a by-product of the faith in one's soul. This is exactly what is meant in Romans 10:10, "For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." The first part of the verse is referred to in Romans 10:14, and the latter half in Romans 10:13. The inspired Scripture speaks plainly if we rightly divide it.

If you do choose to use a sinner's prayer, it is of the most vital importance that you ALWAYS make sure to teach lost sinners that prayer is NOT necessary to get to Heaven. That is, you don't have to call, pray or ask to be born again. The new birth has nothing to do with a radical change of one's behavior and lifestyle as [1]Ray Comfort foolishly teaches. The new birth is a supernatural miracle of God in response to one's faith in the Good News of Jesus Christ. That is, the Gospel according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-6.

A sinner's prayer should be short and simple. Something perhaps like this...

> Dear God, I believe your Word that I am a guilty sinner who deserves to be punished in Hell forever for my sins. I believe you died in my place on the cross, were buried and resurrected from the dead the third day. I receive you Jesus as my Savior. Thank you for saving me.

There is no right or wrong way to pray. And again, praying is NOT necessary to be saved, you can simply BELIEVE what God has recorded in His Word. You don't get saved by repenting or prayer, you get saved by BELIEVING that Jesus did it all for you.

That all being said, I DON'T like nor use a sinner's prayer when leading someone to Christ. The reasons why are because:

1. A sinner's prayer is not biblically necessary to be saved.
2. A sinner's prayer may confuse someone about what they must do to be saved.
3. A sinner's prayer confused me when I got saved at age 13.

I knew at age 13 that praying didn't save me, but I also was misled to believe that prayer is the vehicle by which I put my faith in Christ. No one ever told me THE TRUTH that I could simply believe on the name of Jesus and be saved without praying at all. John 1:12-13, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." Since we've never met Jesus in person, all we can do is believe on His name, and that is all that God expects from us.

Oh dear friend, it is so easy to go to Heaven. My father was right that religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world. The famous singer Frank Sinatra (1915-1998) did [2]an interview for Playboy magazine in 1963, in which he criticized organized religion. It is sadly clear to me that Sinatra wasn't a born again Christian and very likely went to Hell in his sins in 1998, but I couldn't agree with him more about the deplorable history of religion. It was religious nuts who burned the libraries of Alexandria, Egypt. It was religious nuts who burned countless women wrongly accused of being witches.

Still today, it was religious nuts who invaded and murdered 2.3 million innocent people during the Iraqi War (2003-2011). Then, contemptable Alaskan governor Sarah Palin, said President George W. Bush's cruel assault against Iraq was "

[3]a plan from God.

" By attacking Iraq, the United States broke every one of the Ten Commandments. God had NOTHING to do with what wickedness WE DID! These are religious wackos! Like Mr. Sinatra, I have a very low opinion of organized religion. But unlike Sinatra, who was spiritually blinded to discern the difference between truth and religion, I acknowledge that true Christianity has nothing to do with manmade religion. Unlike Mr. Sinatra, I do believe in a personal relationship with the Creator of the universe. I digress.

I don't recommend using a sinner's prayer, but if you do, make sure to explain that it is not mandatory to get to Heaven. If you fail to tell someone this truth, you are risky causing a lifetime of worry, fear and needless grief if they cannot remember what they prayed years later. This painful experience happened to me after I got saved at age 13. I worried needlessly and tearfully for several years afterwards, wondering if I had prayed correctly and not being able to remember hardly anything. I was a tortured soul suffering from religious scrupulosity. All of this happened because of ignorant preachers, Baptist pastors and Chick Tracts, who all failed to correctly present God's simple plan of salvation to me. I was horribly misled.

That being said, it is quite normal for a lost sinner to desire to pray at the time of salvation. It is normal for someone to express their soul's faith by asking God to save them. In fact, I did quietly ask Jesus to save me. I did it in ignorance, but naturally so. There is absolutely nothing wrong with silently calling, asking or audibly praying to be saved. God honors all such requests, but it is faith and not prayer that saves a man. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

I wrote this particular blog for two reasons:

1. To discourage others from using a sinner's prayer, because it can be potentially confusing which might cause years of needless painful worrying, fear and uncertainty.

2. To teach you the proper way to use a sinner's prayer if you do choose to use it.

Again, if you do use a sinner's prayer, please make sure to mention that praying is NOT necessary to get to Heaven. Prayer is NOT God's method of being saved. Faith is the mechanism (vehicle) by which we are bon again, not praying.

Also, make sure to include the three elements of THE GOSPEL; namely, Jesus' death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection. Make sure to include the fact that we are all sinners. A person must know why they need to be saved, and what they are being saved from. We need to be saved because we are guilty sinners and there is a penalty on sin, which is Hell

(Romans 3:19-20; Romans 6:23; Revelation 21:8). By trusting Christ, you dear sinner will be rescued from burning in the fires of a literal Hell forever (Revelation 20:15).

God's only begotten Son, Jesus, has already paid for everyone's sins on the cross with His precious blood. This is why God the Father is freely offering eternal life to everyone. Jesus paid it all! Why would you ask God to give you something that He is already freely offering to give you? Asking God for salvation makes no sense.

In John 4:10, Jesus told the Samaritan woman at Jacob's Well that if she knew with whom she was speaking, she would have asked Him for the living water. Yet, nowhere does the Bible say that any of the Samaritans asked to be saved. John 4:39-42 says they simply BELIEVED on Him to be saved. Nowhere does the inspired Holy Bible mandate calling, asking or praying to be saved. Anyone who insists that you must pray to be saved is preaching another gospel.

6.10.1 My Humble Christian Opinion About Israel, Palestine And The Ongoing Middle East War (2025-10-01 11:04)

Isaiah 1:4-5, “Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward. Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.”

Over the past year I have unfriended dozens of people on Facebook, and some have unfriended me, over Zionism (the creation and idolizing of manmade FAKE Israel). I don’t want anyone as a ministry friend who sanctions the genocide of [1]66,005 innocent PEOPLE in Gaza. God hates what Israel has done, and still continues to do with impunity, slaughtering the innocent under the FALSE pretense of DEFENDING themselves. It sickens me to hear ungodly Facebook racist haters defending Israel’s evil. SHAME!

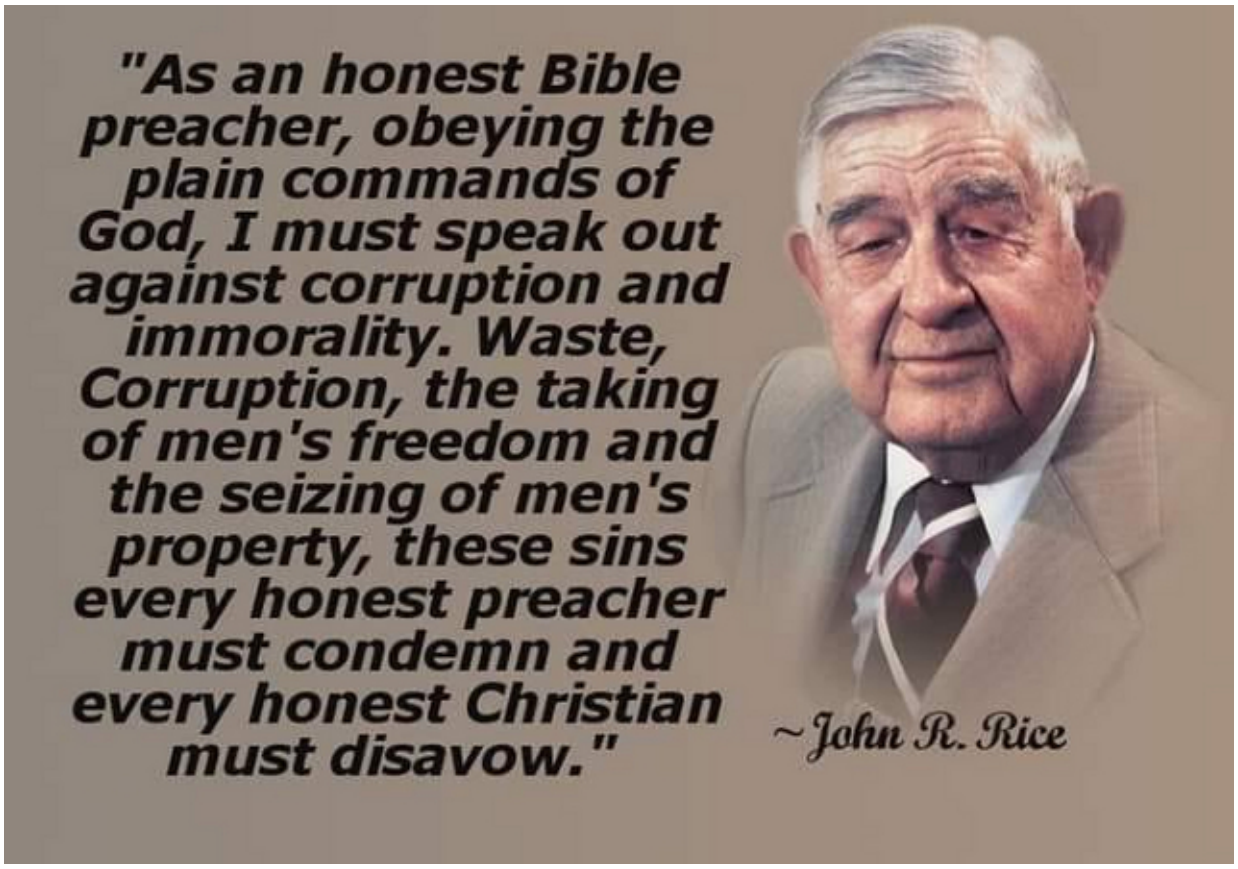
The world is still shocked by the inhumane monstrous human experiments done against over ten thousand Chinese POW’s in [2]World War II in Unit 731 Japanese laboratories. Vivisections (dissecting humans alive) were common. No anesthesia was used. People’s limbs were frozen in liquid nitrogen and then sawed off while the victim was fully conscious. The horrifying truth of Japan’s unimaginable atrocities against humanity didn’t become public knowledge until the 1980’s, 40 years later! What Israel has done over the past 2 years—torturing and murdering 66,005 innocent people—is just as evil as Japan’s atrocities against the Chinese. Just like Japan, Israel has their own twisted justification for murdering the innocent. God will burn Benjamin Netanyahu in Hell for his rejection of Jesus as the Messiah.

> Psalms 37:12-17, “The wicked plotteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth. The Lord shall laugh at him: for he seeth that his day is coming. The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as be of upright conversation. Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken. A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked. For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the LORD upholdeth the righteous.”

Israel has an ugly history of [3]aggression against the Palestinian people...

> “Years of demonizing and dehumanizing Palestinians, against the backdrop of ethnic cleansing that is central to Israel’s founding, cannot be separated from the current genocidal violence in Gaza. One led to the other.” SOURCE: [4]https://dawnmena.org/the-historical-roots-of-israels-genocidal-v iolence-in-gaza/

If you were forced without compensation by merciless military soldiers from your home, and had to leave all your earthly possessions behind, permanently, so that Jews could take all your stuff and your home, you’d want to get revenge too! In lieu of the tragic atrocities in 1948 and since against the Arab peoples, it is not difficult to understand why some perturbed Arabs decades later still choose to strap explosives to themselves and blow up buses in Israel. I read years ago in 2004 that [5]Israel’s authorities were considering putting sealed packages of [6]pig fat under the seats in buses, which Muslims believe will send them to Hell if contacted with the impure lard. Truth is stranger than fiction.



Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) [7]sympathized with the Palestinian refugees, not Israel.

I fully share Dr. Rice's sentiments. The sad thing is that just like the criminals who ran Japan's Unit 731 torture camps escaped justice, so also will Israel never be brought to justice in this lifetime. Thankfully, there is a holy God who WILL PUNISH EVILDOERS (Ecclesiastes 5:8).

Israel possesses 90 nuclear warhead; the Arab nations have zero. History bears witness that ISRAEL has been far more aggressive and murderous against the Arab peoples, then the other way around. God does NOT stand with Israel and neither should you if you are a Christian. Zionism is racism and it is evil. God loves all humanity.

We ought not idolize manmade FAKE Israel today. It is a clever imitation, a Satanic deception. The Devil imitates the things of God. The true King of kings, Jesus Christ, will return at His Second Coming to defeat the Antichrist and establish His earthly reign for 1,000 years (aka, the Millennium). At present, Satan is preparing the world to receive the coming Man of Sin (Antichrist, or "in place of Christ"), who will rule over his false kingdom (i.e., the New World Order). When the Man of Sin appears, he will go to Jerusalem, not Rome as most theologians mistakenly think. The Man of Sin will claim to be God and demand worship, on penalty of death for those who refuse (2nd Thessalonians 2:4; Revelation 13:13-18).

Christians Not Commanded To 'Watch Jerusalem'

NOT one Scripture teaches for Christians to "KEEP YOUR EYES ON JERUSALEM," as I saw in a stupid meme this past week. Some Zionist idiot made this retarded meme, and it is unbiblical as can be. What saith the Scripture? □□□□□ □:□□-□□, "Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;" □□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□

□□□ □□, □□□□ □□ □□□□□ □□□□□□ □□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□, □□□ □□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□ □ □□□□□□□□ □□□□□□, □□□□□□□ □□ □□□□ □□□□□.” There you have it! The inspired Word of God exhorts the saints to LOOK FOR JESUS, not the manmade cesspool of iniquity today called "Israel."

Israeli president Benjamin Netanyahu is a cold-hearted monster, a lunatic thug, a war criminal, who has so far [9]murdered 66,005 innocent Palestinians.

I loathe present-day Israel for their crimes against humanity! Psalms 97:10 commands us as believers to HATE EVIL. Zionism is pure evil. Supporting present-day idolatrous and murderous Israel is EVIL. God’s children are commanded in the Bible to LOVE every human on earth, just as our omnipotent Creator loves all mankind (John 3:16).

1st John 4:7-8, “ Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.” As Christians we ought never accept the sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin. God’s love is unconditional (Romans 5:6-9).

Not one verse in the inspired Holy Bible teaches for Christian believers to recognize, help, pray for, nor worship manmade Israel since 1948. Jews are NO MORE special to God than Gentiles are special to God. Every human being is precious to God, for whom Jesus died on a cross 2,000 years ago (John 3:16). Let’s stop it with the ungodly racism, for those of you who IDOLIZE Israel and the Jews today. Kindly and humbly said, GET RIGHT WITH GOD! A proper perspective of the Middle East is that BOTH Arabs and Jews alike need salvation through faith in Jesus Christ. I refuse to side with either ethnic group. That being said, in the present Gaza crisis the world cannot sanction the brutal murder of 66,005 Arabs in Palestine under the FALSE pretense of Israel defending themselves. That is absolutely absurd! The poor and needy people of Gaza have not fired a single missile against Israel, Anybody who dares to speak out against the evils of Israel and Zionism today is falsely wickedly labeled as "anti-Semite," but we are anti-corruption, not anti-Semite. The slaughter of 66,005 innocent Arabs has nothing to do with being against Jews. It has to do with an ongoing power struggle between the descendants of Jacob versus Ishmael. They absolutely hate each other’s guts in the Middle East!

But from my perch where I am observing history unfold, as far as I can discern it is ungodly Israel who are the aggressors 99 % of the time. 132 hostages taken by Hamas on October 7, 2023, doesn’t give Israel the right to obliterate 66,005 human lives. Israel has taken revenge against the innocent people of Gaza (most of the dead are defenseless women and children). They are not Hamas. What monsters in Israel!

Israel could be nuked off the map today by Russia or China and it would be 100 % biblical. Luke 21:24, “And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.”

I am sick of Zionism!

We are NOT commanded in the Word of God to seek for times, signs and insights into WHEN Christ may return. Jesus told His disciples in Mark 13:37 to WATCH for His return, nothing else. The inspired Scripture exhorts all saints to look for the Lord’s appearance, not Israel.
In 586 BC, God Himself took away the land from Israel and gave it to the Gentiles (Babylon). The land belongs TO GOD, not the Jews! Present-day Israel is manmade, since 1948.

No Jew in 2025 has a "right" to claim the land of Palestine. God has scattered the Jews across the face of the earth. The land is a free-for-all today. Israel STOLE the homes and possessions of over one million Arabs in 1948, using ungodly military power to force them out. Future

Israel will only be restored when the Israelites repent toward God, which they haven't done yet (Hosea 3:4-5). A mere 2 % of the 7 million Jews living in Israel today profess faith in Jesus Christ (and that includes all the pseudo-Christian cults like Roman Catholicism).

Those foolish believers who look to Jerusalem as a prophetic time clock are playing right into the Zionist's hands, helping to further the demonic New World Order. It is not God's time for the Jews to return to Israel. Only when the Israelites repent toward God and put their trust in Jesus Christ will God regather and restore the true nation of Israel (Hosea 3:4-5). [10]Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988) gets it exactly right regarding Israel today.

There is massive propaganda on both sides in the ongoing Middle East conflict. [11]Israel has developed the art of lying as a weapon. We simply cannot believe anything that Israel's leaders tell the world. Nor can we trust the lying American news media.

Although Gaza and Iran have purportedly fired several thousand missiles at Israel since October 7, 2023, very few have actually reached their target due to Israel's anti-missile defense systems. Each missile intercepted costs Israel $40,000 to $50,000. The big difference between Israel and Hamas/Iran is that Israel has unlimited access to munitions since the U.S. is providing welfare for Israel, but Hamas/Iran does not have unlimited access to weapons.

Sadly, both sides vehemently hate each other. It's as the never-ending feud between the Hatfield's and the McCoy's. The modern conflict stems back to 1948 when U.S./British led military forces STOLE the homes of over one million Arabs, giving it all to the Jews. Zionists insist that the land all belongs to Israel and should not be divided. That is, Zionists refuse to recognize the Palestinians as a legitimate state. [12]Israel horribly sees the Palestinian refugees as contemptible dogs. It is the sin of racism! The Palestinian people have every right to exists as a legitimately recognized state with their ow government. Zionism is rooted in evil racism against the Arabs peoples.

The illegal Muslim immigrants flooding into Europe is the same DELIBERATE evil that has afflicted the United States. The Globalists (Luciferian elites) in a further attempt to create a New World Order, must first destroy the old world order. Pastor Jack Hyles preached about this in 1970 in a sermon ahead of its time titled, "[13]Why The Antichrist Must Come Soon." The same powers of darkness (Ephesians 6:12) behind illegal immigrants flooding into the United States are at work in Europe as well.

Dr. Hyles gives amazing insights into the world today! I don't like Hamas, which to my understanding is comprised of about 20,000 Arabs. Israel could have still emptied Gaza without murdering everybody in sight! Israel's lying thug military leaders have DELIBERATELY bombed children, hospitals and food distribution sites in Gaza, just because they can with impunity, murdering thousands. Israel wickedly intensely hates the Arabs.

From my humble Christian perspective, Israel are the aggressors because they still refuse to acknowledge the Palestinians as a legitimate state. Just this past week Canada, France, Australia and England announced that they now recognize Palestine as an official state. That demon possessed monster [14]Benjamin Netanyahoo outright rejected the move, saying he won't allow a Palestinian state to exist. Hamas would instantly return the 15 remaining hostages if Israel would simply recognize an official Palestinian state, which is all the Arabs want, to be treated like human beings.

The land belongs to GOD, not Israel. The Lord stripped the land away from the Jews in 586 BC when Babylon (Gentiles) invaded and overthrew Jerusalem, and God made it happen. The inspired Holy Bible is very clear that the manmade nation of Israel today has NO claim nor expectation of divine protection from God.

Luke 21:24, "And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled."

Christians Not Commanded To Pray For Israel

I am sick and tired of hearing wilfully ignorant brainwashed Zionist Christians propagate the foolish unbiblical idea that we must

Pray for Israel.

" Well then if that be true, we must also pray for China, and Australia, and Germany, and Japan, and all 195 country's on earth. Please do not succumb to the Zionist racism that elevates Jews above Gentiles, because the inspired Word of God does NOT teach any such nonsense. Romans 10:12 teaches that God is not a respecter of persons, He views Jews and Greeks the same. Galatians 3:28 says that in Christ there is no such thing as a "

Jew,

because we are all one in the Body of Christ.

In closing, just to make sure that no one misunderstands me. I love all people, whether Arab or Jew, Muslim or a Judaizer, African American or Japanese. Heaven is color blind. Christ died for all men according to 1st 1:29, 1st John 2:2, 2nd Corinthians 5:15 and 1st Timothy 2:4-6. I am NOT anti-Semite, God forbid. I am anti-corruption, anti-evil and anti-hatred. The Palestinian people just want to be treated fairly, but Israel's leaders continually spew hateful rhetoric, citing reasons why there will never be a Palestinian state. With that kind of bad attitude, the conflict will never end.

Present-Day Israel Not The Fulfillment Of Bible Prophecy

Here is an accurate, biblical, gentlemanly and excellent statement from Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988) concerning why present-day Israel is NOT the fulfillment of Bible prophecy...

> "Israel is just like any other nation. Some think they're a little brutal, but my friend, they're on the defense over there, you can be sure of that. And they have to exercise a strong defense system. They're not backing that land in fulfillment of prophecy. They have returned to the land, but they have not yet returned to the Lord. When they return to the Lord there will be blessing. They have not yet done that!
>
> ...they went out in 70 A.D. And they actually have never returned to the land according to the Word of God. Now hear me very carefully because this is very important to see. They have returned to the land today, and it's remarkable what has happened over there, but it's not the fulfillment of prophecy, because the prophecy says when they return they'll return TO GOD!"

SOURCE: Pastor J. Vernon McGee; THRU-THE-BIBLE; [15]Hosea 2:19-23 and Hosea 3:4

In his "THRU-THE-BIBLE" commentary for Hosea 3:5, Dr. McGee stresses the truth that there are more Arab Christians in Israel today than there are Jewish Christians.

Upon a return trip to visit Israel, Pastor McGee makes the startling comment...

> "Over there there's no turning to God, at all!" While visiting he saw a big motto in Israel which read: "SCIENCE WILL BRING PEACE TO THIS LAND." Israel is a God-less nation today! Dr. McGee cites a credible source as saying that there are less than 300 Israelites that are real believers in Israel today! The Russian Orthodox Catholic Church owns much land in Israel today, as do Greek Orthodox and Muslims. Dr. McGee rightly states, "We're a nation of Biblical ignoramuses! We do not know the Word of God today in this land" —Pastor J. Vernon McGee, '[16]THRU-THE-BIBLE,' commentary from Hosea 4:1-2

Hosea 3:5 evidences the fact that Israel's present return to the land is not the fulfillment of Biblical prophecy today. When Jesus Christ returns at the Second Coming, and true Israel is returned to the Promised Land, Hosea 3:5 says they will SEEK AND FEAR THE LORD THEIR GOD! The entire Middle East needs Jesus Christ! That is my final answer.

6.10.2 The Dangerous Influence Of 'UNSHAKCLED' Radio (2025-10-02 10:15)

John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible will you find any teaching that requires a lost sinner to commit to follow Christ, be willing to turn away from sinning, walk down a church aisle, publicly confess the name of Jesus, nor make full surrender to the Lordship of Christ to get to Heaven. These unbiblical embellishments were inspired by the Devil.

Kindly said, Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) in Chicago should change their [1]radio program's title from "UNSHACKLED" to "SHACKLED," because that is what they are actually doing, shackling lost people to a counterfeit plan of salvation.

Tragically, if you [2]look at their employees , they're all young yuppie types who are neo-evangelicals caught in Satan's deadly trap of Lordship Salvation. Dear reader, UNSHACKLED radio today is a stinking toilet full of religious dung. I am being honest, not crude. One of the seven things that God hates in Proverbs 6:19 is "a false witness that speaketh lies." PGM is very wrong on God's simple plan of salvation.

I listened to one of their recent episodes (#3890) titled, " [3]Jilla and Mahmoud - Part 2 ," in which you will hear [4]Jilla telling her mother that she knows she is saved because she was bold to express her faith in Jesus publicly. Folks, that is absolutely NOT how you can know for sure that you're saved. Jilla says to her mother (as her Mom is trying to silence her)...

> "I am a follower of Jesus and I don't care who knows it. I am not ashamed of Jesus and I do not care who knows it."

Jilla then says...

> “This is the moment I knew that I was born again. I knew it, and because she witnessed me going forward, my mother knew it too.”

Dear reader, this is the nonsensical rubbish that is typical in UNSHACKLED’s problematic episodes, which are woefully devoid of a free grace Gospel message. You don’t get to Heaven by becoming a follower of Jesus, as the unsaved false teachers in Matthew 7:21-23 learned the hard way, to their eternal horror and damnation in the fires of Hell. So, following Jesus cannot be used as evidence that someone is saved.

Furthermore, Peter was ashamed of Jesus and he was saved. So, not being ashamed of Jesus cannot be used as evidence that someone is saved.

And walking forward in response to a public church invitation is not evidence of salvation. PGM’s UNSHACKLED radio programs are lame at best, and damnable heresy at worst. Please be aware of these dangers my friend. I care, which is why I am warning everyone. I have no doubt that PGM’s staff are sincere, but what saith the Scripture? Proverbs 16:25, “There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.” No one in the Bible was saved by walking down a church aisle, following Jesus, repenting of their sins or surrendering to the Lordship of Christ.

Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951) said it well...

> WHEN THE REVIVALIST comes promising salvation to those "who make a full surrender" of all that they have to God, and who "pay the price of full salvation," he is preaching another gospel, for the price was paid on Calvary’s cross and the work that saves is finished. It was Christ Jesus who made the full surrender, when He yielded Himself unto death for us that we might be redeemed from the curse of the broken law and forever saved from the judgment to come upon all who refuse His grace. —Pastor Harry Ironside, ’[5]Another Gospel’

[6]On their website, UNSHACKED wickedly promotes and bids Godspeed to some of the most corrupt preachers of our generation, including false teachers: [7]John MacArthur , Robert Jeffress, Dave and Ann Wilson, James Dobson and [8]David Jeremiah (to name but a few). It is sad and tragic that PGM’s new management has succumbed to the demonic false teachers of our generation. All of the aforementioned names are wrong on the Gospel.

For example: Dave and Ann Wilson’s lame messages that you must “surrender and repent” is not going to get anybody saved. It is discipleship not sonship. It is service not salvation. We must never confuse the two. Pilgrim’s Progress author John Bunyan said it very well...

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Lordship Salvation is the mixing of service with salvation, so that their plan of salvation now requires following Jesus as the "Lord" of your life, full surrender of your will to live for God, and a willingness to turn away from your sinful bad habits. This is all contrary to the free gift of God, which is eternal life through faith alone in the Lord Jesus Christ. Turning from one's sins is an act of human reformation (behavior modification), not biblical repentance (a change of mind). The problem today is that 99 % of people follow the false teachers, instead of obeying the dear Savior's command in John 5:39 to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!

6.10.3 Service Versus Salvation (2025-10-02 11:36)

Matthew 16:24, "Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me."

Luke 14:27, " And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple."

Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. "

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "

Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

I have quoted four passage of inspired Scripture. The first two passages deal with SERVICE, that is, DISCIPLESHIP. The latter two Scripture passages deal with SALVATION, that is, SONSHIP. The former is JUSTIFICATION, the latter is SANCTIFICATION.

Lest we corrupt the inspire Word of God, and lay stumbling blocks in the path of lost sinners, it is imperative that we ALWAYS keep service and salvation completely separate. We must put a clear difference between the salvation of a man's soul, which is secured by faith alone in the Good News (Gospel) of Jesus crucified for our sins, buried and bodily risen the third day; versus deciding to follow Jesus as one of His disciples, which requires sacrifice and works on our part.

Thankfully, we have many godly preachers who have given us some helpful resources to work with. My favorite preacher's quote is from Pilgrim's Progress author, John Bunyan (1628-1688)...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —Evangelist John Bunyan

Amen and amen! Well said Brother Bunyan.

Another helpful quote that I cherish is from Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965)...

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

These men of God clearly understood that vast difference between SALVATION versus SERVICE. Here are some helpful words from Christian author, Hal Lindsey...

> "There are those who, in their zeal to get people to turn from their sinful ways and receive the Lord, almost put repentance on a par with believing... Repentance, as it relates to Christ, means to change our minds about Him, who He is and what He's done to provide forgiveness and deliverance from our sins. When we place faith in Jesus as having taken our place personally on the cross and borne the penalty due our sins, then we're automatically repenting, because we couldn't accept Him in this way without having had to change our minds in some way concerning Him." —Evangelist Hal Lindsey, "The Liberation of Planet Earth"; Zondervan Publishing House, 1974 (pp. 136, 137)

Unfortunately, when incompetent bad preachers (FALSE PROPHETS) mix and confuse DISCIPLESHP with SONSHIP, they pervert the Word of God and make it IMPOSSIBLE for anyone to be saved. "THE GOSPEL" is the Good News that Christ died in your place dear reader. And after being buried He miraculously resurrected from the dead three days later. JESUS CHRIST LIVES TODAY!!! Thankfully, we don't have to burn in Hell forever, because a Savior named Jesus DIED in our place on a cross 2,000 years ago. In theology, this substitutionary death of Christ in our place is called a " death. He was BURIED and 72 hours later Christ bodily RESURRECTED from the dead. What a wonderful Savior!!!

Here is an edifying quote from Pastor Zane Hodges...

> “Eternal life is free. Discipleship is immeasurably hard. The former is attained by faith alone, the latter by a faith that works... the former brings with it the righteousness of God so that a man is ’justified freely by his grace’ (Romans 3:24). The latter develops a personal righteousness, based on good deeds, so that a man was also ’justified by works’ (James 2:24). The former constituted the believer God’s workmanship, the latter fulfilled the wonderful purpose for which he had been created. The former cost man nothing, the latter could cost him everything, including life itself.” —Pastor
>
> Zane C. Hodges,
>
> “The Hungry Inherit”; Moody Press, 1972 (pp. 114, 115)

Here are [1]more quotes if you’d like to read them.

Many preachers commit the dire mistake of citing Scripture passages from the book of Matthew concerning eternal salvation, but the Gospel of Matthew presents Christ as a King. God did not intend for the books of Matthew, Mark or Luke to show us the way of salvation. God specifically authored the Gospel of John for the purpose of showing the reader how to be saved. John 20:31, “

But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

In the Gospel of John, we find the word

“

mentioned 85 times, but there is no mention of repenting of your sins, following Christ nor of making Jesus your

“

to get to Heaven. In fact, the word

is not even mentioned once! That speaks volumes, teaching us that the man who believes on Christ has automatically repented of his unbelief to be saved. Repentance is simply a change of mind toward God (Acts 20:21), to acknowledge THE TRUTH that one is a needy sinner (2nd Timothy 2:25; Romans 3:19-20).

[2]Evangelist Billy Graham (1918-2018) made the grave error of applying the following Scripture passage to salvation, and in so doing he wickedly perverted God's simple plan of salvation. Matthew 16:24, "Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me." Dear reader, the verse I have just shared with you literally sounds like the corrupt plan of salvation that is being taught in 99 % of Bible colleges and churches today. Lordship Salvation is NOT the Gospel!

You simply DON'T get saved by following Christ, taking up your cross, denying self and coming after Christ! These things are strictly matters of discipleship (service), and not sonship (salvation). So, don't ever use these passages about discipleship to show someone how to get to Heaven, because you will confuse them and be guilty of perverting God's Word.

6.10.4 New Evangelicals And Fundamentalists Cannot Coexist (2025-10-03 09:09)

Proverbs 29:27, "An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked."

Something that I have learned the hard way over the decades is that New Evangelicals and Bible Fundamentalists do not get along and we never will. The inspired Holy Bible says that the wicked and righteous are an abomination (to intensely loathe) to one another. I made the following helpful chart which shews the progression (corruption) from Fundamentalism to Neo-Fundamentalist compromise to the hard core evils of Neo (or New) Evangelicalism. ...

It has become very difficult nowadays to find a truly fundamentalist church to attend anymore. By “ fundamentalist

I simply means that they adhere to the core fundamentals of Christianity. They are a soulwinning church. They only preach a free grace Gospel; not the Lordship Salvation or

repent of your sins

damnable heresies to get to Heaven.

I am astonished that most clergy (pastors, missionaries, evangelists) today have a sinful lackidaical indifference toward the [4]Devil’s corrupt Bible revisions , and indifference toward the toxic damnable heresies of [5]Lordship Salvation and [6]Wrong Repentance . The Apostle Paul shared the same astonishment in Galatians 1:6-7,

“I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.”

I also wrote this blog titled: ’[7]The Deadly Deception Of New Evangelical Churches.’ There’s not a more dangerous place today than a New Evangelical fake church. They’re everywhere! Sadly, most former Independent Fundamental Baptist Churches have left the faith, succumbing to sinful New Fundamentalism compromise on a journey to wicked New Evangelicalism (apostasy). This is why every fundamentalist Christian believer must always be on guard. Revelation 3:2, “Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God. ” Proverbs 4:23, “Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.”

We are at spiritual war dear reader (Ephesians 6:12). Simply due to a lack of a good church to attend, I have attended a series of bad churches over the past 15 years. Of the several churches I have so far attended in the city of Pensacola, all but one were wrong on Bible repentance, perverting God’s simple plan of salvation, just as the Mormons and Jehovah’s Witnesses wickedly do. I’m not kidding folks. Here is a [8]comparison of what Mormons and Pastor John MacArthur teach. There’s no difference on repentance!

[9]Bob Jones University in Greenville, South Carolina, also teach the same damnable false repentance as the Mormon cult, Roman Catholics, Seventh-Day Adventists, Jehovah’s Witnesses and Church of Christ false religions. The ugly truth is that all of the modern Bible perversions [10]use the same corrupt Alexandrian text as do the heathen Jehovah’s Witnesses.

Whenever I have attended a New Evangelical church, my website ministry preceded me, for which they persecuted me (2nd Timothy 3:12). I never mentioned my ministry websites, but I didn’t have to because they already knew. When I attended the [11]corrupt Family Baptist Church in Pensacola for 45 months (2021-2025), the church leadership sunned me from the beginning. I said nothing and stayed quite while at church because I needed a church family. Sadly, [12]I meant absolutely nothing to them the whole time, because they rejected me along with my fundamentalist Bible preaching ministry!

I regret in hindsight that I gave them my heart, doing my best as a Fundamentalist born-again Christian to fit in at a corrupt New Evangelical local church, because they counted me as their enemy from the very start. I didn't have to say anything to them to offend them, because my websites were speaking to everyone on social media. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

" Their carnal pastors' Brad Moffett and his verbally abusive belligerent father Bobby Moffett, took strong offense with my biblical preaching against women wearing pants. That's because both of their carnal worldly wives wear pants in public. I never once said a negative word to any woman in their church who wore pants. Yet, I didn't have to, because due to my preaching on social media they condemned me the entire 45 months that I attended their messed up church (a mere social club and fun center for carnal churchgoers).

I once had a wicked pastor, Sean Quinlan at the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam foolishly tell me,

You're not an apostle!

" He got upset when he overheard me tell a Christian man in the church (a friend of mine) that Bob Jones University sells corruptible seed (i.e., the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions). He got upset that I said Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is corrupt for preaching Satan's lie of Lordship Salvation. Pastor Quinlan became angry and said I had no right to speak out against corruption in churches. Oh how wrong he is! Any Christian man who is learned in the inspired Word of God not only has a right, but a duty, to contend for the faith.

In the brief Epistle of Jude, the inspired writer reminds the believers to whom he is writing, that he had previously exhorted them to " earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints

" (Jude 1:3). Jude wasn't addressing apostles, was he. No, he was writing to laymen believers. When the Apostle Paul exhorted Titus to

"rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith," please take note that Titus was NOT an apostle. It takes a godly man to expose a wicked pastor who is preaching a perverted plan of salvation, damning men's souls to the Lake of Fire for eternity.

And I am going to go to seed preaching hard without compromise against my own Independent Fundamentalist Baptist denomination, which has tragically become corrupted to the core over the past couple decades. The Satanic falsehood of Lordship Salvation has eerily crept into nearly every Bible college and local church today, perverting them. Case in point is Pensacola Christian College (PCC).

I live in the city of Pensacola. In my mailbox in 2023 I found an envelope from Campus Church with my address and the words "To Our Neighbor" on it. I opened the envelope and inside I found a booklet of 'John & Romans.' The booklet has 64 pages in it. The Campus Church logo is printed on the front cover. I was shocked on page 60 when I read PCC's counterfeit plan of salvation. What I am about to show you is straight from Satan dear reader:

> "REPENTANCE — Now is the time to *turn from your sin and embrace God. The act of turning away from sin is called 'repentance.' This word implies an inward decision to follow and obey God's will instead of your self-serving sins. It means changing your mind about sin and seeing it as something that grieves God. The Bible says that God patiently waits for all people to make this decision." [emphasis added]

SOURCE: “John & Romans,” Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, p. 60

Do you still think I bumped my head? I’ve been exposing the cult at Bob Jones University (BJU) since 2014, and now I am exposing the cult at Pensacola Christian College. By God’s grace, I will continue to expose these wicked organizations for preaching “another gospel” (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

I feel sick! The cult at PCC are aggressively spreading their damnable heresy throughout Pensacola, mailing spiritual poison to people’s mailboxes. With neighbour’s like Campus Church at PCC, who needs an enemy like the Devil? PCC has much blood on their hands! Dear friend, nowhere in the inspired King James Bible does it teach that you must repent “of your sin” or “turn from your sin” to get to Heaven. Nor is a willingness to follow and obey God’s will instead of your self serving sins a part of God’s simple plan of salvation. PCC are Gospel perverts!!! PCC and their Campus Church arrogantly have changed God’s simple plan of salvation, perverting Bible repentance to mean, “follow and obey God’s will instead of your self-serving sins.” Oh my! That is the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation!!!

Shame on Campus Church and PCC! My accurate Bible preaching against PCC’s apostasy will be vindicated (Ecclesiastes 5:8; Galatians 6:7). I wrote this article to help teach people [13]what true Bible repentance is. Dear reader, you cannot be born-again if you place your trust in a counterfeit Gospel. What PCC and their Campus Church are preaching is another gospel, not the free grace of God which is without works.

As I read further in PCC’s rotten plan of salvation, just like the pseudo-Christian cults (Mormons, Roman Catholics, Seventh-Day Adventists, et cetera), they speak out of both sides of their mouth—claiming that salvation is free and by grace, yet at the same time requiring you to “follow and obey God’s will instead of your self-serving sins.”

To make matters even worse, on page 62 of the “John & Romans” booklet, Campus Church tells the reader that to be saved, you must make a mental check requiring the reader to agree to:

> “I repent of my sins. I realize that sin is something that God hates and I no longer want to hold onto sinful bad habits in my life*.” [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: “John & Romans,” Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, p. 62

Again, nowhere does the inspired King James Bible require that a lost sinner be willing to “ no longer hold onto sinful bad habits in my life

repent of my sins

to get to Heaven. That is a works based plan of damnation, not salvation! In Jonah 3:10 the Bible says the Ninevites turned from their evil ways, and God called it WORKS! Jonah 3:10,

“And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.” The Ninevites didn’t get saved, they simply repented of their sins so that God changed His mind not to destroy them.

In Jonah 4:11 the Lord tries to calm the angry prophet. Jonah was upset that God changed His mind not to destroy the Assyrians. Like the immature apostles in Luke 9:54-56, Jonah wanted God to reign down fire and brimstone to destroy the city! The Bible says in the last verse of the book of Jonah that God saw “ more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand.

” The Ninevites humbly responded to the prophet’s hard preaching, not to be saved but to clean up their ways, for which God gave them a temporary reprieve from judgment. A century later God sent the prophet Nahum to pronounce doom upon Nineveh, and it came to pass when Babylon invaded and conquered Assyria. No one has ever been born-again by turning from their evil ways!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Furthermore, the Bible says in the same passage of Scripture that God Himself repented , so repentance cannot mean to turn from sin because God cannot sin (James 1:13-14; Hebrews 4:15). Think about that friend.

In every New Evangelical church I have attended over the years, those ungodly pastors persecuted and eventually kicked me out of their churches, banning me from returning because of my TRUTHFUL biblical stand against them.

Galatians 4:16, “Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

” Yes, they did wickedly count Paul as their enemy, because he told them THE TRUTH. The fastest way to get kicked out of a church these days is to just TELL THE TRUTH.

Proverbs 12:17, “ He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit. ”

I could write a book concerning the differences between Fundamental Baptists and New Evangelicals. Pastor Jack Hyles is right that Fundamentalists don’t change, people quit being fundamentalists! I wouldn’t give you a penny for a corrupt Neo-Evangelical church today! It is sad and tragic that people are leaving the churches to find God. [14]I’m not kidding! Ninety-nine percent of local churches today are either dying (lukewarm) or dead.

By God’s grace, I will NEVER attend a Neo-Evangelical church (cult) again. I’d rather just stay home and watch television. I like to watch an episode of The Outer Limits for a dose of sanity. On page 117 of his helpful book, ’[15]I Never Knew You,’ Christian evangelist Michael P. Bowen says he no longer attends any church in his town, because they are all preaching a counterfeit plan of salvation. We are witnessing the fulfillment of Amos' prophecy that God would send a famine of the Word of God in the last days.

> Amos 8:11-12, " Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD: And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it. "

There can be no ecumenical harmony between Christ-honoring Fundamentalist believers, and ungodly New-Evangelical false prophets who are pulling on the same rope as the Devil (2nd Corinthians 6:14-17). Thank you for reading my ministry blog. Jesus is precious!!!

6.10.5 Clear Evidence That Erika Kirk Is Not A Born Again Christian (2025-10-04 11:04)

Titus 3:5-7, "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life."

The following disturbing comments by Erika Kirk plainly show that she is NOT a born again Christian. ...

> Charlie Kirk's widow has said she wants to let the government decide whether her husband's accused killer will receive the death penalty, and that she does not want his blood on her "ledger."

Tyler Robinson was formally charged with aggravated murder last week after Kirk, 31, was assassinated on Sept. 10 on the college campus of Utah Valley University in Orem.

Utah County Attorney Jeff Gray announced the formal charges against 22-year-old Robinson at a press conference last Tuesday and said he would be seeking the death penalty in the case.

Erika Kirk, a devout evangelical Christian, said that she believed her husband's death was part of "God's plan."

"I've had so many people ask, 'Do you feel anger toward this man? Like, do you want to seek the death penalty?"' she told The New York Times.

Charlie Kirk's widow has said she wants to let the government decide whether her husband's accused killer will receive the death penalty.

Charlie Kirk's widow has said she wants to let the government decide whether her husband's accused killer will receive the death penalty (Instagram).

"I'll be honest," she continued. "I told our lawyer, I want the government to decide this. I do not want that man's blood on my ledger."

The 36-year-old mother to Kirk's two young children said she believes that if she did push for the death penalty, it could stop her from being with her late husband in heaven.

"Because when I get to heaven, and Jesus is like: 'Uh, eye for an eye? Is that how we do it?"' she told the outlet. "And that keeps me from being in heaven, from being with Charlie?" [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [1]https://www.the-independent.com/news/world/americas/crim e/erika-kirk-tyler-robinson-death-penalty-b2830893.html

That is so ridiculous what she said! The inspired Holy Bible teaches Capital Punishment (Genesis 9:5-6). Why in the world would God deny Erika entrance into Heaven for supporting Capital Punishment for an admitted cold-blooded murderer? She is very wrong in her thinking.

Ironically, it is her corrupt understanding of God's simple plan of salvation that will keep her out of Heaven. The fact that Erika thinks her behavior can keep her out of Heaven means that she is foolishly trusting in works to be saved. This is the [2]errors of Roman Catholicism , which she was raised to believe. ...

"On a recent episode of his Podcast, Kirk, an evangelical Christian who recently spoke about the Blessed Mother, mentioned how he was close to Father Don Kline, pastor of St. Bernadette Catholic Church in Scottsdale, Arizona, and how his wife was baptized Catholic."

SOURCE: [3]https://ewtn.co.uk/article-charlie-kirks-wife-what-we-know-about-erika-k irks-catholic-faith/

Shame on Charlie Kirk and Erika for their ecumenical ties with the whore of Rome! Kirk was clearly sucking-up and pandering to Catholics. Ecumenism is of the Devil (2nd Corinthians 6:14-17). God doesn't command born again saints to stick around and hobnob with members of false religions to convert them; the Lord commands us as believers to separate from them! Christian fundamentalists don't change, people quit being fundamentalists. Ecumenism is the agenda of the ecumenical movement to promote cooperation among different religious denominations; aimed at universal religious unity. Ecumenism is contrary to biblical teaching in 2nd Corinthians 6:14-17. We are commanded as Christians not to be unequally yoked with unbelievers.

And let me kindly say, that the young woman [4]speaking with Charlie Kirk in this audio excerpt is NOT a true Christian. She is admittedly a Roman Catholic, but we know according to the inspired Word of God that Catholicism is a Satanic fraud. Official Catholic dogma teaches sacramental salvation. It couldn't be more obvious that [5]Erika Kirk is a hellbound Catholic . Both Kirk and Erika have surreptitiously avoided criticizing the accursed Catholic cult (Galatians 1:6-9).

To Charlie's utter shame, [6]this is what happens when you pander to the cults (Catholics are claiming Kirk was about to convert to their religion). In the preceding article that I link to, Kirk is literally saying that we "don't venerate Mary enough." Venerate? Folks, this word means, "to worship"!!! Charlie says non-Catholics fail to worship Mary enough! Unbelievable! Clearly he was either a secret Catholic or wickedly coddled them for whatever reason. Let it be known that I don't worship Mary at all!

Nowhere in the inspired Word of God are we taught to serve, pray or even recognize Mary in an capacity. Ungodly hellbound Catholics worship Mary. They count Rosary beads while sinfully praying to Mary. Due to Charlie's sinful kissing up to Catholics, the heathen world doesn't see any difference between true Christianity and the demonic Catholic cult. NO ONE who follows the damnable false teachings of Roman Catholicism is a born again Christian!!!

One Baptist man tried to defend Charlie Kirk, telling me that Kirk was simply saying that Mary is the solution to the evils of feminism. I kindly rebuked him for being so willingly naïve. Kirk plainly said that Protestants and non-Catholics don't venerate Mary enough. How does worshipping Mary solve feminism? There is no way that Kirk's sinful comments can be dismissed; whether intentional or unintentional, he is clearly encouraging idolatry! Remember dear reader, Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again.

The True Biblical Gospel Versus Christian Service

Charlie's counterfeit plan of salvation that requires taking Jesus as your "Lord," repenting of your sins, and giving your life to Christ are NOT the saving Gospel of free grace. The Gospel according to 1st Corinthians 15:16 is three things:

1. Jesus DIED on a cross to pay our debt of sin.
2. Jesus was BURIED.
3. Jesus RESURRECTED from the dead three days later.

Romans 1:16 teaches that THE GOSPEL is the power of God unto salvation to them that BELIEVE IT!

Repenting of your sins, giving your life to Christ, making Christ known, inviting Christ into your life and following Jesus as one's "Lord" is a counterfeit gospel. These unbiblical embellishments and additions to the Gospel are commonly called "Lordship Salvation." Lordship Salvation is a false doctrine that mixes works with grace, confusing and blurring the lines between service versus salvation, between discipleship versus sonship, between sanctification versus justification. I love this quote! ...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Another one of my favorite preachers, Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) said it this way...

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." [emphasis added] —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

Boy that is good stuff! Dear friend, if you are saved Jesus is your Lord. Receiving Him as "Lord" has nothing to do with getting saved; but rather, after you are saved the dear Savior wants you to pick up your cross and follow Him. This according to Romans 12:1-2 is the believer's "reasonable SERVICE." Please don't miss that, in this particular passage of Scripture it is our SERVICE for Christ, not our SALVATION for Christ. In other words, this passage is about DISCIPLESHIP, not SONSHIP. Paul is speaking to believers here.

Anyone who comes to God as a needy sinner, who by faith (taking God at His written inspired Words in the Holy Bible) accepts Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that Jesus was buried, but then miraculously resurrected physically from the dead after three days, is saved. Nothing more than childlike faith (trust, reliance) is required nor permitted to get to Heaven. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty.

Kindly said, Charlie and Erika Kirk fail to put a difference between service and salvation. They are promoting the Devil's falsehood of Lordship Salvation. By failing to separate works from grace they obscure the Gospel, hiding the light of the truth from lost sinners (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4; Galatians 5:4). The unsaved Catholic woman in [7]this audio clip at a Turning Point meeting is exactly right that what Charlie preached is NOT the Gospel, nor is the Satanic Catholic dogma that she trusts in the Gospel. We are sadly seeing the blind leading the blind. Catholicism is NOT Christianity!!!

This is blatantly false teaching...

> "The most important thing you can do in your life is give your life to Christ and make Christ known. The second most important thing is to make sure you can do the first thing." —[8]Charlie Kirk, University Of North Texas (2025)

No, Dear reader, Jesus gave His life for you; Christ doesn't demand that you give your life for Him to be saved; which is discipleship, not sonship. Charlie Kirk was a confused individual...

> "We need Christ to come into our life. We need to repent. We need to get down on our hands and knees and say: 'Jesus, come into my life."' —[9]Charlie Kirk, University Of North Texas (2025)

That is simply NOT how a lost sinner gets forgiven. Jesus came into the life of Judas Iscariot, but he still died in his sins and went to Hell forever to burn. In Matthew 7:21-23, those unfortunate damned souls followed Jesus, calling Him "Lord, Lord." They boasted of their "many wonderful works" all done in Jesus' precious name. They preached in Jesus' name. Yet, the dear Savior denied knowing them as His sheep. Jesus declared His Father's will in John 6:40, which is to believe on Jesus, plus nothing! With the Catholics and Charlie Kirk it's faith in Jesus, plus more. The most important thing in your life is not to "give your life to Christ," it is to [10]BELIEVE THE GOSPEL . The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

Please understand that I didn't write this article to cast a negative reflection upon the Kirk family; but rather, to "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints" (Jude 1:3b). What Charlie Kirk preached is NOT the Gospel. Many Christians assume that Charlie had to be saved, since he openly testified that he knew he was an undeserving guilty sinner and Jesus Christ died in his place on the cross; but Charlie made the fatal mistake of adding repenting of your sins and giving your life to Christ to get to Heaven (which additions can be heard in his numerous public comments).

So, what Charlie really trusted in was partial faith in Christ plus works. Remember, every pseudo-Christian religious cult agrees with Charlie's core belief in Jesus' death, burial and resurrection. But they, like Charlie, pervert the Gospel by adding more to it, confusing service with salvation. This is the Devil's falsehood of Lordship Salvation, and it is deadly as seen in Matthew 7:21-23.

Here again is disturbing blatant proof that Erika Kirk is still indoctrinated with her Roman Catholic faith and is NOT a born again Christian...

> The 36-year-old mother to Kirk's two young children said she believes that if she did push for the death penalty, it could stop her from being with her late husband in heaven.
> SOURCE: [11]https://www.the-independent.com/news/world/americas/crim e/erika-kirk-tyler-robinson-death-penalty-b2830893.html

She is blatantly trusting in WORKS for salvation! If she thinks supporting the death penalty for her husband's murderer could prevent her from going to Heaven, then she is clearly trusting in her good behavior to get to Heaven, which is a false gospel. It just proves that she is still deceived by her damnable Roman Catholic upbringing, who openly require faith PLUS works to get to Heaven. I am humbly convinced that Erika is not saved. No one who is saved worries about missing Heaven because of bad behavior. By the way, capital punishment is 100 % biblical. You can still forgive a criminal while they are being killed by a firing squad. Would to God that all 50 states would bring back the death penalty (Genesis 9:5-6).

6.10.6 The Wickedness Of Using B.C.E. And C.E. Instead Of B.C. and A.D. (2025-10-05 08:05)

Romans 1:28-32, "And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them."

I have always hate the blasphemous term "

(in the year of our Lord). Some people hate Jesus Christ so much that they try to erase Him from history.

On Reddit.com, I found this excellent explanation of why using B.C.E. and C.E. greatly offends some people, as it does me as a born again Christian who trusts and loves Jesus. ...

> “Using BCE/CE can be seen as the deliberate, provocative rejection of tradition (both Christian tradition, and simply the tradition of using BC/AD); it can be seen as ’virtue signaling’, deliberately highlighting that even dating systems are reflections of culture and power and serve to marginalize some people, rather than being neutral; it becomes a symbol for politically correct, decolonial, politicized history in general. And so even if you’ve adopted it because it seems to be common usage, there will be people who assume (or pretend to believe) that you’ve made a deliberate choice to be political and provocative, or that your thinking has been contaminated by trendy ideas, or that you simply don’t realize this is part of a plot to overthrow Western Civilization.”

There is an ongoing deliberate Satanic plot in this dark world of sin to overthrow Christianity.

It baffles my mind how anyone who lives in the United States—who enjoys freedom and U.S.D.A. government inspected safe meat to eat; who enjoys all manner of fresh produce and delicious safe foods to consume; who have restaurants galore to dine at with family; who enjoy some of the best healthcare in history; who have all manner of hobbies, sports and fun activities to enjoy, et cetera, et cetera—could be so ungrateful as to refuse to mention “Christ” in the word “Christmas,” or refuse to use the Christ honoring abbreviations of B.C. and A.D.

Dear reader, God our Creator deserves better than that! His only begotten Son, our Savior Jesus, deserves so much better than that! Isaiah 64:8, “ But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand.” Who are we as humans, just clumps of clay from the earth, to dishonor the Creator of the universe?

I’ve been watching astronomy videos on YouTube, which I enjoy falling asleep to at night. I cease to be amazed and astounded at God’s omnipotence and omniscience as our brilliant and good Creator. Did you know that the earth is not a perfect circle? The earth is oval shaped. The earth’s diameter at the equator is 7,926 miles, but only 7,900 miles from north pole to south pole. That is very interesting! In sharp contrast, the diameter of our sun is 864,600 miles across. Wow! The sun is 109 times wider than the earth!

To [3]put this into perspective, if the earth were the size of a basketball, the sun would be over 100 feet in diameter. And if the sun were the size of a basketball, the earth would be the size of a sesame seed. I didn’t believe that fact when I first heard it, so I got my calculator out. As I learned, a sesame seed has a long side (3-5 mm) and a short side (1-2 mm). So the average diameter of one sesame seed is approximately 3mm. If we multiply that number times 109 we get 327 mm. A meter is 39.37 inches, or 1,000 mm. So, 3 mm times 109 equals roughly 13 inches. A basketball is only 9.5 inches. So, yes, the earth is as a sesame seed (even a little smaller) in size, when compared to our magnificent sun which God created. Amazing!!! I’ll bet you never look at our solar system’s sun the same way again.

And as if that astronomy fact doesn’t dazzle your mind, consider that t he largest known star is [4]UY Scuti, which has a radius about 1,700 times larger than that of the Sun. Wow! This means its volume could fit approximately 5 billion of our Suns inside it. Great fluffy biscuits! I cannot even wrap my feeble brain around that. Deuteronomy 3:24, “ O Lord GOD, thou hast begun to shew thy servant thy greatness, and thy mighty hand: for what God is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to thy works, and according to thy might?” Do you understand dear reader, that the same God who created the universe LOVES YOU!

In fact, God loves you so much that He sent His only begotten Son, Jesus, to die in your place on a cruel cross, so that you could spent eternity with Him (John 3:16; 14:1-3). Yes, God wants to be with YOU dear friend for ever and ever, which is why He has made a way of escape through faith alone in Jesus Christ. Philippians 3:9-11,

“And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.”

Considering the size of our sun, I have shared with you just a few of millions of absolutely mind blowing astronomy facts about our universe. Scientists now tell us that there are literally [5]20 trillion galaxies they’ve determined, each containing hundreds of billions of stars; each star a massive radiating nuclear furnace just like our own sun. Just in our Milky Way Galaxy there are an estimated 200 to 400 billion stars (suns) just like our own beautiful sun.

When you look into the evening sky in a remote rural area, and see several thousand shining stars, each and every one of them are nuclear furnaces just like our own sun. I cannot help but wonder if they all produce heat and light by using the same nuclear fusion that our own sun uses, constantly converting hydrogen into helium. The inside of our sun reaches shocking temperatures near [6]27,000,000 degrees Fahrenheit. That’s hot! And you thought 450 degrees Fahrenheit on your oven was hot.

I cannot help but cry when I learn all these astounding facts about our Creator, and realize that He loves even me. Am am so unworthy of God’s love. Genesis 32:10,

“ I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands.” Who am I that a King should bleed and die for? Who are you dear reader? We are comprised of mere dirt from the earth, yet the object of our Creator’s wondrous unfeigned love.

Dear reader, I encourage you to shun using the wicked abbreviations of “Xmas” and “B.C.E.” and “C.E.,” to show the respect and honor that our omnipotent good Creator is worthy of receiving from His creation. Revelation 4:11, “Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.” Ecclesiastes 12:13, “Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.”

WASHINGTON, January 29, 2025 (Reuters) - A batch of [8]newly released images captured by the James Webb Space Telescope show in remarkable detail 19 spiral galaxies residing relatively near our Milky Way, offering new clues on star formation as well as galactic structure.

6.10.7 Exposing Dr. John R. Rice's Hypocrisy On The Holy Bible (2025-10-06 11:04)

Psalms 12:6-7, " The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever."

What did God promise to keep and to preserve in Psalm 12:7? Psalm 12:6 tells us, **"

The Words of the Lord.

" But not just mere words,

“pure words.” That is, inspired Words!

Sword of the Lord founder in 1934, Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980), foolishly believed that the original manuscripts of the Bible were inspired and inerrant, but he did not hold to the position that the King James Version was the only inspired translation. Dr. Rice foolishly acknowledged the accuracy of other modern translations, including the corrupt American Standard Version, and foolishly emphasized that no single translation is the sole Word of God.

I have a booklet in front of me written by Dr. Rice in 1943 title, “

Verbal Inspiration Of The Bible.

” The booklet contains 28 pages, in which he defends the inspiration of God’s Word, but Dr. Rice hypocritically never mentions that he doesn’t think the King James Bible is God’s perfect, preserved and inspired Word for English speaking people today. That is deceitful, giving the reader the false impression that he believes we have an inspired prefect Bible today, when in reality he doesn’t.

On page 28, Dr. Rice ends his booklet by writing:

> Let us reverently acknowledge that the Bible is the perfect Word of God, infallible in science or history as well as religion, and that all Scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable" (II Timothy 3:16).
>
> SOURCE: Dr. Rice R. Rice, p. 28, “Verbal Inspiration Of The Bible”; Sword of the Lord, 1943

What hypocrisy! Dr. Rice dares to use the word perfect, while endorsing dozens of corrupt modern Bible revisions. In particular, in 1943 Dr. Rice preferred the American Standard Version (ASV). Let’s examine some of Satan’s corruptions in the ASV...

> King James Bible (KJB) - 1st John 5:7,
> **“
> For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.
> **”

> American Standard Version (ASV) - 1st John 5:7, “
> And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is the truth.
> **”

Shame! The translators of the ASV have removed the Godhead (Trinity).

> King James Bible (KJB) -
> 1st Timothy 3:16b, “God was manifest in the flesh...
> **”
> American Standard Version (ASV) - > 1st Timothy 3:16b, “He who was manifested in the flesh...
> **”

Why did they deceitfully remove the proper noun of “

God

” and replace it with the pronoun “He”

? To say that

“

God was manifest in the flesh

is clear attestation to the biblical fact that Jesus is almighty God. God almighty became incarnate in the man, Jesus Christ (John 1:1-3, 14). Jesus was God on earth (John 10:33). You will sadly find that ALL of the Devil’s modern Bible perversions relentlessly attack the deity of Jesus Christ and the Godhead.

> King James Bible (KJB) -
>
> Romans 1:20, “ For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse.”
>
> American Standard Version (ASV) - Romans 1:20
>
> , “ For the invisible things of him since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being perceived through the things that are made, even his everlasting power and divinity; that they may be without excuse.”

They removed the Godhead! The word “ divinity

” doesn’t convey the same theological significance as “godhead” does. Not even close! The word “ godhead

” clearly

implies the triune nature of God, not His mere divinity. Words are very important and Satan’s knows it, as evidenced by the serpent changing the words which God had spoken to Adam and Eve.

In the following passage, the ASV is utterly confusing...

> King James Bible (KJB) -
>
> Philippians 2:6, “ Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God. ”
>
> American Standard Version (ASV) - Philippians 2:6
>
> **, “
>
> who, existing in the form of God, counted not the being on an equality with God a thing to be grasped.
> **”

In John 1:3, the ASV wickedly changes “All things were made by him” in the King James Bible, to “All things were made through him.” Again, this is a ruthless attack on Jesus’ deity as the almighty Creator who made all things. God the Father didn’t create all things through Jesus; but rather, the Godhead created all things, and Jesus is almighty God. Genesis 1:26, “ And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

Colossians 1:16-17, “For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.” If we are to take the Bible at face value, which we should, then we can only logically conclude that the Godhead didn’t create all things through Jesus; but rather, Jesus created all things in the power of the Godhead of which He is a member.

Satan is a clever and beautiful liar! The Devil has carried out a generational plot beginning with the perverse Greek text published in 1881 by Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort, to undermine and change the truth of God’s Word into a lie (Romans 1:25). The Devil has subtly removed the ancient landmark to deceive his victims. Proverbs

22:28, “

Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set.

” The Devil knows that if he can progressively change God’s Word from one generation to the next, in time there won’t be an inspired Holy Bible. Tragically, [1]as of 2022 the New International Version (NIV) is still the number one selling Bible.

[2]Westcott and Hort were unsaved Anglican infidels! (a shocking audio Bible study by Pastor Max D. Younce in which he exposes Westcott and Hort as two heretics).

Sadly, in his 1975 book

[3]I Am A Fundamentalist,

John R. Rice actually defends Westcott and Hort and portrays them as sincere godly men. Unbelievable! I can only give Dr. Rice the benefit of the doubt that he didn’t have access to the incredible amount of knowledge we have today on the internet, which didn’t become public until the 1990’s (the military was already using a form of internet in the 1960’s). Dr. Rice went to Heaven in 1980.

Brother Rice wrote over 200 books and pamphlets throughout his lifetime. By God’s grace, he led numerous citywide revivals and was greatly used by the Lord to win lost souls. I am a John R. Rice fan and have many of his Bible commentaries, which I cherish. Brother Rice was 31 years older than Pastor Jack Hyles, and one of his three mentors. Dr. Hyles' other two mentors were Pastor Lester Roloff (1914-1982) and Pastor Lee Roberson (1909-2007). I THANK GOD for all these dear soulwinning men of the faith, who all preached a free grace Gospel.

That being said, it bothers me immensely to read Dr. Rice's book,

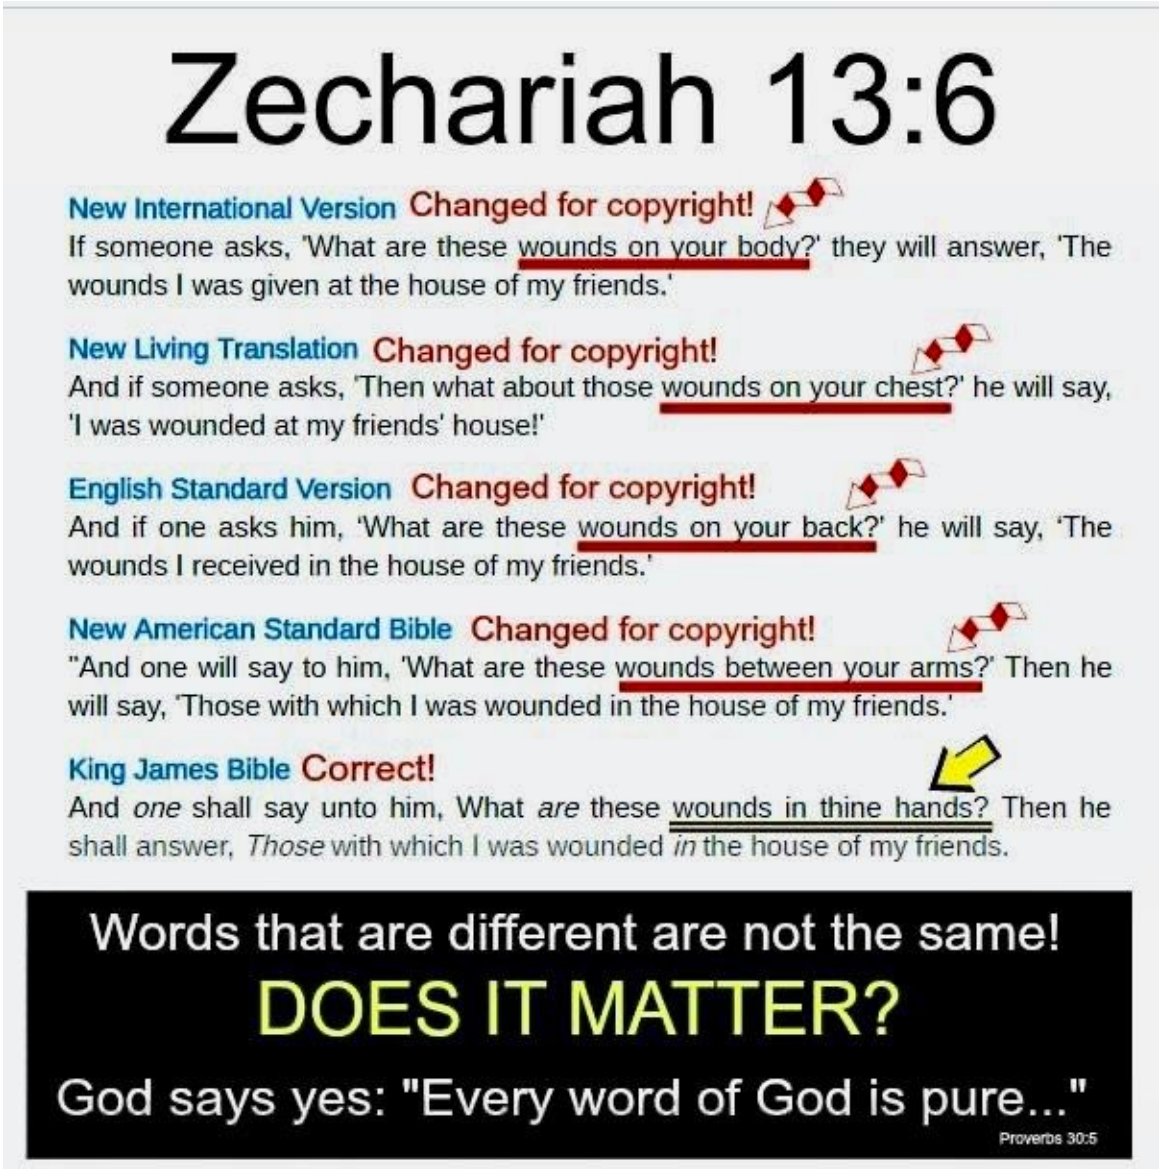
Verbal Inspiration Of The Bible,

" knowing that he denied the infallibility and inspiration of the King James Bible. As Dr. Rice's successor Pastor Curtis Hutson (1923-1995) rightly said, "[4]Things That Are Different Are Not The Same." The Lord promised in our text passage from Psalms 12:6-7 to keep and to preserve His PURE WORDS. [5]Nearly every modern Bible revision wickedly changes this passage to say that God keeps and preserves THE SAINTS instead of His PURE WORDS.



The reason why Satan's Bible publishing crowd CHANGED this passage couldn't be more obvious; they did it in a wicked attempt to justify tampering with God's inspired Words. If there can be only one pure inspired Holy Bible in any particular language, then there cannot exist umpteen different Bible revisions. According to the American Bible Society, there are [6]presently 900 Bibles in part or whole. That is shamefully ridiculous but sadly true!

It saddens me that as great a Bible scholar as Dr. John R. Rice was, he woefully missed the mark in this important matter. It is my humble opinion, that if Dr. Rice had lived longer, so that he could have seen the atrocity of the New International Version (NIV) which was published in 1984, and the other modern atrocious Bible perversions which have followed in this Bible publishing crazy generation—Dr. Rice would have rejected them all and sided with King James Bible ONLYism.

Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) said it very well...

> "Be on guard against any tampering with the Word, whether disguised as a search for truth, or a scholarly attempt at apparently hidden meanings; and beware of the confusion created by the senseless rash of new versions, translations, editions, and improvements upon the tried and tested Bible of our fathers and grandfathers."
>
> "The true Church preaches REGENERATION; not reformation, not education, not legislation, but regeneration."
> SOURCE: Dr. M.R. DeHaan, 'THE TABERNACLE,' p. 101

Jesus quoted Moses' words from Deuteronomy 8:3 in Matthew 4:4, "But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. " If we are to live by EVERY WORD OF GOD, then we absolutely must have an EVERY WORD BIBLE! That is, the hundreds of modern Bible revisions available for sale on the market cannot all be God's inspired Word, because they all contradict each other. If you don't believe me, or think I've bumped my head, look at this horrifying reality...

This Is The Ungodly Nonsense That Dr. John R. Rice Sanctioned

In recent years. Dr. Rice's adult daughters have shamefully slandered Pastor Shelton Smith, longtime editor of the Sword of the Lord, wrongfully accusing him of running the Sword of the Lord into the ground by making it King James Bible ONLY! I'm fairly confident that the Board of Directors unanimously made the decision. I thank and praise God for Dr. Smith's wise decision. I have been critical against the Sword of the Lord in recent years for selling advertisements for Pensacola Christian College, who [8]today preach hard core Lordship Salvation. I kindly contacted the Sword of the Lord in 2023, to earnestly warn them about PCC's counterfeit gospel, but the Sword of the Lord didn't reply to me. Shame on them all!

RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

Dr. Rice was WRONG about the modern Bible revisions. They are in fact, very dangerous theologically! Only the trustworthy inspired and infallible King James Bible faithfully uplifts the precious name of Jesus as almighty God!!! [9]All of the modern perversions attack Jesus' deity in one way or another; usually in many ways. Why would anyone endorse such a blasphemous thing? If you didn't listen to Pastor Younce's [10]Bible study exposing Westcott and Hort, please do so dear reader, because you will be absolutely shocked when you learn the ugly truth about the fathers of today's corrupt Bible versions. A corrupt tree cannot bring forth good fruit.

I implore you dear friend to RUN from the Devil's modern Bible revisions, and please use only the inspired King James Bible from 1611. You'll have to study it more to understand it, but you'll be reading THE TRUTH. And don't let any naysayer discourage you by pointing out typographical errors in some of the King James Bible editions. The 1611 translation is Kosher! Just because some editions have typos in them doesn't mean the translation is bad.

So, please keep in mind that although there have been various subsequent editions to the King James Bible over the centuries (to correct typos and update the archaic Elizabethan English language), there hasn't been a new translation since 1611. The so-called New King James Version is contaminated with the poisonous text of infidels' Westcott and Hort, so please burn it in your firepit. Psalms 119:139-141, "

My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.

Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it*. I am small and despised: yet do not I forget thy precepts." Do you really think the psalmist (whom I am convinced is David) would love today's 31 different flavors of the Holy Bible. I humbly think not!

As much as I respect Brother Rice, I must humbly disagree and expose his foolish teaching that we don't have one perfect, inspired, infallible, incorruptible, Holy Bible in the English language. Our great God is NOT the author of confusion, Satan is (1st Corinthians 14:33).

Don't you dare try to convince me of the insanity which says we should search through the literally HUNDREDS of modern English Bible revisions, to pick and choose what WE THINK is the truth.

Don't you dare try to convince me of the insanity which says we should just select the Bible version which best suits our needs and style. As an example: [11]Here is an ungodly wicked web page which suggests that you choose a Bible version that is right for you.

" Dear reader, you DON'T get to pick which Bible vibes the best with your desperately wicked heart (Jeremiah 17:9). You don't get a menu from God! You get what you get, like it or lump it.

I still have tremendous respect and admiration for Dr. John R. Rice as a mentor in the Bible. His commentaries have helped me immensely over the years. For example: I learned from Dr. Rice years ago that Jesus was not giving the rich young ruler a plan of salvation in Matthew 16:19-22; Jesus was using the law the way God intended for it to be sued—to show humanity our hopeless sinful condition, and then bring us to Christ to be saved by God's grace through faith alone in Jesus Galatians 3:24-26; Romans 3:19-23). Yet, I hear countless incompetent preachers misapply this passage to mean salvation. Case in point is [12]Dr. John Goetsch at West Coast Baptist Bible College in California, who [13]preaches Satan's lie of Lordship Salvation.

Thank you for reading my ministry blog. God bless.

6.10.8 Satan Is A Master Counterfeiter (2025-10-07 08:58)

Matthew 7:13-15, "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves*."

2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus*, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit*, which ye have not received, or another gospel*, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him."

Admittedly, they do seem saved, but so do Seventh-Day Adventists (Calvinists), Church of Christ (Calvinists), Lutherans (Baptismal Regeneration), Presbyterians (Calvinists) and Lordship Salvationists (Calvinists). I watched a Mormon sermon yesterday and it sounded like a Baptist church. Mormons ONLY use the King James Bible! You can verify that online. Mormons sing just like Baptists. A naïve person could easily think that Mormonism is Christianity, if they didn't understand sound doctrine from the Word of God.

I was thinking last night about counterfeit money. The goal of the counterfeiter is to make the fake money as close to authentic money as possible, to deceive people. The Devil does the same thing with religion! Satan makes false religion look, feel and sound just like genuine Christianity, so close that the person unlearned in the Scripture couldn't discern the difference, and so they are deceived and damned (Matthew 7:13-15; 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

I was surprised to find mainstream [1]this website that sells counterfeit money that allegedly looks realistic. Why doesn't the government stop them? Go figure! Dear reader, I don't want you to be deceived by the Devil. God's standard for salvation is THE GOSPEL OF JOHN. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. " God authored the Gospel of John for the specific purpose of showing humanity how to have eternal life.

There is no mention in John of confessing, following, surrendering, committing, praying, calling, serving, running, turning or repenting to obtain God's free gift of eternal life. The only requirement taught is to BELIEVE ON JESUS. John 6:28-29, "When said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

John chapters 19 and 20 teach Christ's death on the cross, His burial and subsequent bodily physical resurrection three days later . This is THE GOSPEL (i.e., the GOOD NEWS) according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

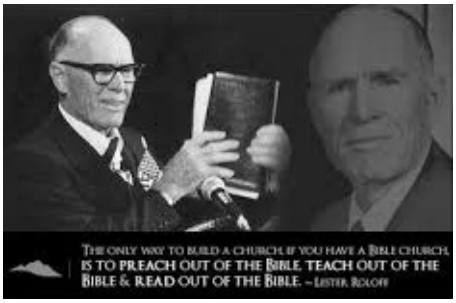
And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: " Any guilty sinner who believes (places their confidence in) this Good News is saved immediately, irrevocably and permanently. Getting saved is that simple.

Tragically, millions of false churches around the world base their counterfeit plan of damnation upon obscure passages of Scripture, while totally ignoring and contradicting the Gospel of John. As a general rule we ought never use an obscure passage of Scripture to contradict a clear one. The Gospel of John is clear, salvation is WITHOUT WORKS!!!

- Roman Catholics errantly teach that salvation requires FAITH AND WORKS.
- Calvinists errantly teach that FAITH WILL WORK.
- The Bible teaches that faith is WITHOUT WORKS (Romans 4:5).

Please dear reader, do not allow Satan and his sinister ministers to deceive you! Hell is hot, life is short and eternity is a long time!!!

The Devil is a master counterfeiter! Tragically, BILLIONS of Roman Catholics, Orthodox Catholics, Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Lutherans, Seventh-Day Adventists, Calvinists, Church of Christ, United Methodists, Unitarian Universalists, Bahai Faith, Presbyterians, Baptists, Scientologists, Christian Science, Judaizes and other infidels have been DECEIVED by the Devil's concerning how to get to Heaven. Lordship Salvation is of the Devil. Calvinism is of the Devil. Works to be saved before, during or after salvation are of the Devil.



Today could be the last day of your life!

Have you been born-again?

6.10.9 "Faith" Him When You Can't Feel Him (2025-10-08 09:02)

[1]

by Evangelist Lester Roloff (1914-1982)

"Oh that I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat!" —Job 23:3

The thing that will reveal your faith is praying when no answer comes. That's the supreme test. I've gone over a number of chapters in the book of Job again. In one of them, Job said, "Oh that I knew where I might find Him." He was looking for God. Can you imagine? He was the best man God had and he couldn't find Him. He said "Lord, I want you to show me why you're doing this to me. We've always been on good terms and you've been my best friend.

I’m not against you and am not going to turn against you, but I need an explanation and I want you to give it." But the Lord didn’t pay him any attention. I imagine the Lord just kind of smiled and said, "Later on. After a while."

So finally Job said "I went forward and He wasn’t there. Backward. I couldn’t perceive Him. On the left hand where He doth work. I couldn’t behold Him. On the right hand where He hid himself and I couldn’t see him." That’s all the directions isn’t it? Forward, backward, left, right. He said "I couldn’t get one glimpse of Him." Then he said, "But He knoweth the way that I take and when He hath tried me, He will bring me forth as gold. My feet have held His steps. His way have I kept and not declined. Neither have I gone back from the commandment of His lips. I’ve esteemed His words more than my necessary food." That’s the secret of it right there. It was the most severe test he ever had. It wasn’t when all of his ten children died. It wasn’t when he lost all of his camels, oxen and sheep and goats and chickens. It wasn’t when he lost all of his servants. The greatest loss was not when Mrs. Job came and said, "Just curse God and die." That wasn’t his most severe test. That was just part of it.

Then three fair-weather friends came and looked at him and they didn’t speak for seven days. Not one word. Finally they opened their mouths and skinned him and scalded him and scathed him and ate him up alive. But that wasn’t his greatest test. Do you know what the greatest test was? You’ve never been there until you’ve reached this place, and that is when you look up to God and there’s not any God. You just pray like you used to pray and there’s no answer. There’s no response. There’s no God. There’s no feeling and your faith is severely tested. But let me tell you something. You’re going to have to learn to believe God when you cannot perceive God. You’re going to have to learn to "faith" Him when you can’t feel Him. Unless you do, you’re going to be in bad shape before this thing’s over with. There’ll come a time when God reserves the right to cut you completely loose from Him and then see what your faith will lead you to do. "In all this, Job sinned not nor charged God foolishly."

6.10.10 Autopsy Of A Dead Church (2025-10-10 07:18)

Revelation 3:1, “And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.”

Most churches in 2025 are spiritually dead... DEAD, DEAD, DEAD!

It is nauseating to visit the average church today.

Don’t expect to hear anyone shout “Amen!,” because you won’t find anything to shout Amen about.

On average you can expect to see nearly all the women wearing sexy pants.

You can expect to find a first-class music program, but second-class preaching.

In most cases you won’t even hear any preaching. It is apostasy!

We’re just not hearing enough preaching about Hell these days in church pulpits.

How can we expect lost sinners to come to Jesus Christ if we don’t warn them about eternal punishment?

The New Testament mentions Hell 162 times, 70 of which came directly from the mouth of the Lord.

It was Evangelist Billy Sunday (1862-1935) who warned us 100-years ago that the Church was going apostate…

> “It would be a godsend if the Church would suffer persecution today; she hasn’t suffered it for hundreds of years. She is growing rich and lagging behind. Going back.” —Billy Sunday, “The Need for Revivals,” From "Billy Sunday: The Man and His Message,” by William T. Ellis, Philadelphia: John C. Winston Co., 1914

Billy Sunday had no idea how much of a prophet he was! Brother Sunday was right—the Church is growing rich, lagging behind and going backwards!!! I was listening recently to some old-fashioned, red-hot, Christ-honoring, [1]Bible-preaching by Evangelist Phil Kidd .

There are many pastors who are respectable in their particular ecumenical circles, good men of character, excellent orators, decent men, and likable in personality; yet they are not doing their duty when they are silent about eternal punishment and the fires of Hell. Effectively, a Baptist pastor who doesn’t mention “Hell” from the pulpit is no better than a Seventh-Day Adventist (SDA’s) minister who doesn’t believe in eternal punishment in a fiery Hell. SDA’s teach that the unsaved will be annihilated, ceasing to be conscious for all eternity. That is not what the holy Bible teaches. God says in His Word that Hell is a literal PLACE, that burns with literal FIRE, and lasts literally for all ETERNITY. [2]The Bible teaches that Hell lasts forever! By the way, there is not a more dangerous cult than Seventh-Day Adventism, and they detest Baptists. SDA think that everyone who worships on Sunday are antichrists.

Attend the average church these days and you can expect to hear a sermonette from some [3]Caspar Milquetoast minister who couldn't preach his way out of a wet paper-bag. It's sad and a shame. The great need of the hour is PREACHING PREACHERS!!! I did not write this article to be unkind. Nor am I trying to convince Christian believers to quit their churches. MAKE YOUR CHURCH BETTER! Pray for your pastor and ask God to work in his heart. Remember, there are no perfect pastors, Christians or churches. I'm not trying to stir-up trouble; but rather, I'm trying to prepare believers for the time when you must stand face-to-face with your dear Savior. God didn't save you to BE GOOD, He saved you to DO GOOD. What are you doing for God?

I will say this though... If your church is teaching the [4]heresy of Lordship Salvation , or are using the [5]modern corrupted Bible versions , GET OUT IMMEDIATELY!!! You are being poisoned with the [6]satanic new Bible versions . These are the two deal-breakers! I wouldn't step foot into any church that doesn't use ONLY the trustworthy King James Bible!!! Nor would I stay 5 minutes in any hellhole so-called "church" that teaches a person must turn away from sinful living as a requirement to be saved. That is [7]not what repentance means in the Bible. Other false prophets teach that you're not saved unless your life has changed, which is another Gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

Here is an excellent quote from the mighty man of God, Pastor Lee Roberson (1909-2007), concerning eternal punishment. ...

> "Somebody says, 'The thought of Hell is so horrible.' Well, my friend, so is cancer, so is tuberculosis, so is the grave. Someone said, 'I believe sin ought to be punished, but not for eternity.' That's your view, not God's.
>
> Again another says, 'I don't believe in the wrath of God.' Then you don't believe your Bible. The Bible says the wrath of God abideth on the one who doesn't believe in Jesus Christ. He is lost forever.
>
> Now, these things come to us out of the Word of God. The teaching of eternal punishment should give us a hatred for sin. We ought to hate sin. The reason we have changed so much in this day in all of our churches is that we are not hearing much on this subject. Therefore, we endorse sin. We engage in sin. We camouflage the sin in our lives and allow things to go by, instead of hating sin as God wants us to hate sin . . .
>
> The teaching of eternal punishment should give us a passion for the souls of men." [emphasis added]

America's Churches Are Ignorantly Supporting The New World Order

A sure sign of death in our churches today is the Christian evangelical support of Godless U.S. Presidents who are known occult members, homosexuals, liars, fraudsters, boozers, drug-traffickers, draft-dodgers, traitors, adulterers and deceivers. [8]Why Do America's Churches Support Tyranny? The following true words are from Dr. Texe Marrs' excellent book, "CONSPIRACY WORLD: A TRUTHTELLER'S COMPENDIUM OF EYE-OPENING REVELATIONS AND FORBIDDEN KNOWLEDGE" ...

> Many insiders snicker and laugh ha, ha, ha, at brain-dead Christian evangelicals who actually believe that George W. [Bush] is a God-fearing heterosexual, Born-again Christian. As David Kuo, former top White House adviser in the Bush Administration, reveals in his new book, "Tempting Fate," the Bush White House team sneers and jokes about the evangelicals so easily deceived by the President. Kuo presents evidence that the Bush people view Christian evangelical leaders and their flocks as ridiculous, silly, nuts, even insane. To the Bush people, Christianity is a farce and Christians are easily duped idiots.

> SOURCE: Dr. Texe Marrs, "CONSPIRACY WORLD: A TRUTHTELLER'S COMPENDIUM OF EYE-OPENING REVELATIONS AND FORBIDDEN KNOWLEDGE" (Volume 1, p. 147; copyright 2010)

The reason why most Christian evangelicals are so easily deceived is because they blindly follow an apostate pastor, instead of seeking the truth for themselves. Most pastors share the woeful and harmful arrogance of doctors. You can't tell them anything and they greatly resent being directed on how to do their job. They literally think they know-it-all compared to those who trust them. My advice is to do your own homework and research the New World Order. Listen to [9]Infowars.com and other alternative news sources. Good luck finding any Christian news sources that expose the New World Order (NWO), which includes NWO stooges like Billy Graham, Joel Osteen and Rick Warren. If your church supports these apostates, your church is dead!

Is the occult in your church? The whole reason why the Southern Baptist Convention is dead is because 37 % of the U.S. Freemasonry membership are Southern Baptists. In Freemasonry, lodges strictly prohibit praying "in Jesus' name." Freemasonry is a sex-perverted phallic-worshipping, Luciferian-worshipping cult!

AUTOPSY*: An examination and dissection of a dead body to determine cause of death or the changes produced by disease.

What is causing our churches to die? There are many things that are ruining our churches: corrupt Bible versions like the New International Version (NIV), ecumenism which seeks to unite by error instead of dividing over truth, hen-pecked ministers who allow committees to censor their preaching, covetous pastors who prioritize financial security over speaking the truth, worldliness in the Church, the satanic doctrine of Zionism which worships the Jews and Israel, backslidden pastors who don't teach Biblical doctrine, pastors who prioritize music programs over preaching the Word of God, Christian schools elevated above the church, soul-winning is not taught and done, feminism in our churches which influences women to wear pants and divorce, formalism, failure to pray and rely upon the Holy Spirit to build the Church, et cetera.

Our churches are dying because our pastors are dying! Ministers are dime-a-dozen these days, but genuine men of God who PREACH are hard to find. God give us some John the Baptists, Billy Sundays and Jack Hyles' who were willing to fight until the utmost for their cause!

> "It is not persecution of the church in China that I fear. The church has always been able to weather persecution. My fear is love of money in the church." —Chinese pastor

Is Your Church Growing In Grace Or Swelling From Rot?

Today I listened to Brother Kidd's awesome MP3 sermon titled, " [10]IN THE LAST DAYS ." In the preceding sermon, Brother Kidd shares that he had begun working as a mortician in 1974. Dr. Kidd explains that anything dead "swells" (as it rots from the inside out). He points out that most of our large churches today aren't growing; but rather, they are rotting, swelling, dead corpses! That's exactly what Billy Sunday warned us about! Our churches have rigor mortis, rotting from the inside out!

In the old days of America, Church was the most important thing, and everyone centered their life around the Church. But today church is only a part of what we do, a side-attraction, take-it-or-leave-it, a novelty. Our Bible-preaching churches are dying. The parking-lots are empty. Sadly, the rotting corpses of DEAD churches are swelling, packing the house with apostates. Big mega-churches like Hillsong are nothing but worldly Rock music concerts. There is no preaching. Some sad excuse for a minister gets up, looking like Shirley Temple, delivering his sermonette that has no substance, nothing for the listener to grab onto, a dead message of love without hate, truth without exposing heresy, unity without separation, and cooperation without standards.

[11] Our Mixed Up Fundamental Christianity

(MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles)

Increasing attendance is not a sign of spiritual groweth in a church. Is your church growing or swelling? Today's churches are filled with liberals who don't believe that the Bible is the Word of God. They claim that only the originals are inspired and without error. They criticize the holy King James Bible, while praising the unholy homosexual-produced New International Version (NIV). Our churches are filled with corruption, a bunch of shameful liberals who won't take a stand or preach against sin. Today's churches are mere social clubs. These monstrosities are swelling! The great need of the hour is PREACHING PREACHERS! God save us from these retarded inter-denominational churches with "his" and "her" pastors.

There's nothing worse than hearing a pastor say that he doesn't know how to preach! Well learn! Get mad about something! Blurt it out if you have to, stutter it if you must, BUT PREACH!!! Good night man, people need to hear the truth! Our church congregations are starving! I spoke with a church deacon about his salvation and could tell he had issues with it. I expounded him with the Scriptures and my own personal testimony. He was delighted and asked, "Why don't they teach those things from the pulpit?" The sad truth is that church leaders just don't care. Pastors find their comfort zone and live there, failing to discern the needs of their congregation. You can't just preach your favorite part of the Bible and neglect the rest of God's Word.

[12] 3,000 Converts Baptized In One Day!

(beware of anyone who criticizes easy-believism and immediate baptism)

A Dead Church Has A Dead Pastor

A genuine man of God will NOT "go along to get along" in an apostate situation. He will not preach without proclaiming the truth! Too many pastors know the truth, but are afraid to speak it for fear of losing financial support. Perhaps more people have gone to Hell, and churches have died, because of the love of money (or fear of losing it, which effectively has the same consequences on a ministry) than anything else.

Jesus asked the apostle Peter three times if he loved (Greek: agape) Him. Three times Peter answered "Yes, I do love (Greek: phileo) You." Jesus was asking if Peter unconditionally loved Him, but Peter kept responding that he was fond of the Lord. John 21:17, "He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep." Do you think that the Lord wants Christian leaders today in 2014 to continue feeding His sheep (i.e., believers in the faith)? Yes, yes, yes, of course! This is part of The Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-20), that is, to mentor new converts in the Lord, literally indoctrinating them with the things of Jesus Christ.

So why aren't most pastors feeding the Lord's flock. I oftentimes refer to a pastor's congregation as his "flock," but in actuality IT IS THE LORD'S FLOCK if they are born-again Christians. Pastors have a duty to feed God's children, pointing them continually to the Word of God. The greatest thing that a pastor can ever do for his congregation is to continually uplift the deity of Jesus Christ and the inspiration of the King James Bible. If your people aren't leaving church with a burning desire to get into the holy Bible, then you aren't uplifting the Word of God as you should. Young people should be taught to sing Bible verse songs. The King James Bible should be quoted, preached, memorized, and the importance of abiding in the Word should continually be emphasized (John 15:1-5). In a dead church, the Word of God is passively present, but it is not praised and practiced as it should. Do you realize Psalms 138:2 says that God magnifies His Word above all His name? It's true!

And by the way, again, a sure sign of a dead church is that you'll never hear any preaching about Hell. It is a pastor's duty to warn his flock about the literal place called Hell, that burns with literal fire, and lasts for a literal eternity. It is every minister's duty to teach his flock to warn others that Hell burns with fire. If you truly love others, and Jesus Christ above all else, then you will be compelled to preach the truth about Hell. All Christ-rejecting sinners will spend eternity in the Lake of Fire being punished by God (2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9; Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8). Do we really believe in a literal, burning, Hell?

You wouldn't think so from visiting most churches today. A [13]USA TODAY article reveals that only 59 % of Americans believe in a literal Hell ; even worse, much worse, two large groups of pastors at a recent BEESON PASTOR'S SCHOOL acknowledged that NOT ONE OF THEM had preached a sermon on Hell to their congregations. It is a shame and a sin!!! Every Christian believer ought to warn lost sinners of the wrath to come in Hell (Romans 5:9). Luke 3:7b, "O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?"

The Bible has more to say about Hell than Heaven; yet ironically, according to the USA TODAY poll I just shared with you, 74 % of Americans believe in Heaven, but only 59 % believe in Hell. You can choose to believe that 2 + 2 = 5 if you want, but you'd be WRONG! There is a literal place called Hell that burns with fire and brimstone, where all Christ-rejecting sinners who die in their unbelief will spend eternity in loneliness, regret, weeping, pain and torment. Is that where you want to spend eternity? Shame on today's pastors who remain eerily silent on the matter of Hell. This article is meant to afflict the comfortable. You proud pastors remain silent, wanting to avoid offending anyone, letting the unsaved world go to Hell forever. Oh, how the tears will flow at The Judgment Seat Of Christ, when believers are held accountable, facing the terror of the Lord (2nd Corinthians 5:11).

Christian men are always preaching... by holy sermons in the pulpit, and by holy lives out of it!

The Pulpit Of This Day Is Weak In Praying

You'll seldom hear mention of the need for Holy Spirit power in today's apostate churches. It appears that most churches have abandoned the Biblical truth of the reality, need and importance of the power of the Holy Spirit in all that we do. Jesus plainly said in John 15:5 that without Him "YE CAN DO NOTHING"! You may accomplish great things in the eyes of man and the world, but it won't matter one hill of beans to Heaven's view unless the Holy Spirit is working THROUGH YOU!!! (Galatians 2:20; Zechariah 4:6). Please read the excellent life-changing book by Dr. Jack Hyles titled, " [14]MEET THE HOLY SPIRIT "

The following excellent words are by E.M. Bounds from his timeless book, "POWER THROUGH PRAYER." ...

> The sermon cannot rise in its life-giving forces above the man. Dead men give out dead sermons, and dead sermons kill. Everything depends on the spiritual character of the preacher. ...
