> The preacher's sharpest and strongest preaching should be to himself. His most difficult, delicate, laborious, and thorough work must be with himself. The training of the twelve was the great, difficult, and enduring work of Christ. Preachers are not sermon makers, but men makers and saint makers, and he only is well-trained for this business who has made himself a man and a saint. It is not great talents nor great learning nor great preachers that God needs, but men great in holiness, great in faith, great in love, great in fidelity, great for God – men always preaching by holy sermons in the pulpit, by holy lives out of it. These can mold a generation for God.
> After this order, the early Christians were formed. Men they were of solid mold, preachers after the heavenly type — heroic, stalwart, soldierly, saintly. Preaching with them meant self-denying, self-crucifying, serious, toilsome, martyr business. They applied themselves to it in a way that told on their generation, and formed in its womb a generation yet unborn for God. The preaching man is to be the praying man. Prayer is the preacher's mightiest weapon. An almighty force in itself, it gives life and force to all.
> The real sermon is made in the closet. The man — God's man – is made in the closet. His life and his profoundest convictions were born in his secret communion with God. The burdened and tearful agony of his spirit, his weightiest and sweetest messages were got when alone with God. Prayer makes the man; prayer makes the preacher; prayer makes the pastor.
> The pulpit of this day is weak in praying. The pride of learning is against the dependent humility of prayer. Prayer is with the pulpit too often only official — a performance for the routine of service. Prayer is not to the modern pulpit the mighty force it was in Paul's life or Paul's ministry. Every preacher who does not make prayer a mighty factor in his own life and ministry is weak as a factor in God's work and is powerless to project God's cause in this world.

What a great truth! ... "Prayer makes the man; prayer makes the preacher; prayer makes the pastor."

We Are Soldiers For Christ, And Soldiers Fight!

A preacher should preach and teach about all spiritual subjects, including the New World Order. If you don't, your church congregation will be spiritually hungry, frustrated, confused and dead. It seems that today's churches are more interested in paint ball games, fireworks, jet skis and big inflatable toys than they are indoctrinating our youth with the inerrant, perfect, infallible, preserved, inspired, Words of God. We have that Book in the KING JAMES BIBLE!!! The last I checked, the Bible teaches that WE ARE AT WAR AS SOLDIERS FOR CHRIST. 2nd Timothy 2:3, "Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ."

Soldiers fight. That's what they are trained to do. How are we training our youth today? I see Independent Baptist churches where the teenagers are frustrated, starving for something real, hungry for a challenge. Teenagers love to have the truth! Youth are extremely impressionable and vulnerable to either good and evil. Tragically, our youth are surrounded by evil, perversion and falsehoods everywhere they turn. I read something many years ago that stuck in my mind, from the book "POWER THROUGH PRAYER" by E.M. Bounds, that is, "A church congregation cannot rise above the spirituality of the clergy."

(MP3 sermon by Evangelist Phil Kidd)

Let's continue with an autopsy of a dead church. We find that cantatas and orchestras replace Bible-preaching. What a sad thing! I'll never understand why any so-called "man of God," who is responsible for a church congregation, will prioritize a singing cantata over the preaching of God's Word. As a young boy, Dr. Jack Hyles (1926-2001) recalls the only time that his unsaved father came to church. Instead of preaching, the church had a Christmas cantata. No Gospel was preached. In 1950 Jack Hyles' father died in his sins and went to Hell. Pastor Hyles vowed to God that he would NEVER fail to give an invitation to receive Jesus Christ at any public church service. You never know who's listening.

> The world's greatest need is preaching preachers. The Gospel is our emancipation proclamation: let's take it to the slaves of sin."
> —Evangelist Lester Roloff

An autopsy of a dead church reveals cancelled church services on Christmas. They cancel the evening service for New Years Eve. They also cancel church for Easter. In fact, the dead church cancels church on a whim, removing the church services on all holidays, music specials and school functions. Of course, preaching is cancelled for the Lord's Supper. The dead church functions as a Christian school with a church, instead of a church with a Christian school.

I agree with Dr. Hyles... I'd rather have one church than seven Christian schools! Jesus promised divine perpetuity to THE CHURCH, not to the Christian school (Matthew 16:18). And by the way, [17]Jesus is the only FOUNDATION (1st Corinthians 3:11), not Peter, upon which the Church is built . So that means the Roman Catholic Church is of the Devil, because they choose Peter as their foundation instead of Jesus Christ. Peter is nothing!!!

When a church turns against truth, God leaves that church and it is DEAD. It becomes nothing but a cemetery. Today's preacher's seminaries are actually preacher's cemeteries! Jude called them "TWICE DEAD, PLUCKED UP BY THE ROOTS"!!! Jude 1:12, "These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots." You can run over a plant with a mower and it'll grow again, but once you pluck up the roots it won't grow back. There are churches springing up all over the place today, but they are dead, having no roots. The Holy Spirit is not present. The inspired Word of God is not accurately taught. Another Jesus, another spirit and another gospel are wickedly being taught (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Jude 16 said these apostates would "speak swelling words." Joel Osteen's swelling words are hindering the cause of Christ.

> "The most dangerous revolutions are not those which tear down everything, and cause the streets to run with blood, but those which leave everything standing, while cunningly emptying it of any significance." —Soren Kierkegaard (1813-1855)

Does not the preceding quote describe our churches today? Today's milquetoast preaching lacks any real substance. There's hardly anything to grab onto.

[18] Cotton Candy Religion

(It's big and beautiful until you sink your teeth into it, then it dissolves into nothing!)

Crucified Ladies Don't Wear Pants

I'd expect Christian women to wear pants; but if you've been crucified with Christ as a believer (Galatians 2:20), then you won't wear pants. For an excellent sermon on this subject, please listen to Pastor Jack Hyles' sermon titled, " [19]THE SAVED, CRUCIFIED, RISEN AND RESURRECTED LIFE ."

What have I missed so far in our autopsy? We've identified that women wear pants in dead churches. By the way, the problem in such churches is a lack of Bible-preaching against sin from the pulpit. May I say, preaching modesty from the pulpit is not "old school" (as some call it), it is right. Marriage is not the old-fashioned way, it is the right way! A woman who wore pants was considered a prostitute in the 1890's. God hasn't changed (Malachi 3:6; Hebrews 13:8), the sinful world has changed. [20]THE UNCHANGING CHURCH IN A CHANGING WORLD (a great MP3 sermon by Dr. Harold Sightler). Just because most women are wearing men's clothing in 2014 doesn't mean that it is either acceptable or right.

Deuteronomy 22:5 forbids cross-dressing between men and women. That is not mere ceremonial law as some foolish pastors claim; it is a moral law from God almighty. If both bathroom signs had a picture of pants, it would cause utter confusion. Any child knows that men are supposed to wear pants. Ladies wear dresses. It is wrong for women to wear pants! The problem of immodesty in our churches didn't happen overnight. [21]America's pastors became cowards, hen-pecked, going along to get along; and sadly, avoiding preaching against his own wife who wears pants. I have been hated by many Christians, simply because I teach that the [22]Bible says women should dress modestly like ladies (1st Timothy 2:9).

Satan is deliberately confusing today's youth about their gender. I read an interview in 2013 where singer Amy Grant talks about discovering her own sexuality. That is homosexual talk. Normal people don't need to discover their sexuality. Amy Grant is part of the New World Order, an apostate, no hero, and ought to be rebuked as a shameful mentor for our youth.

[23] A Wrong Attitude Toward Homosexuality

(it's not God's love to accept the homosexual agenda)

[24] GLAAD Honors Amy Grant For Sinfully Praising LGBT Fans

Singer Amy Grant Attempts To Use God's Grace As Basis For Accepting Homosexual Community

The old-time religion is so offensive nowadays that few pastors are willing to go against the worldly crowd. OFFEND THEM! If you have to bring the world into the Church to boost attendance, then you're only going to attract worldly people. As the Church becomes more worldly, so also is the world becoming more churchy. 1st Peter 4:17, "For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?"

Southern Baptist Church Apostasy

Not too long ago I visited a Southern Baptist Church. There was a band complete with drums, electric guitar and hand cymbals. The congregation were swaying their hands back-n-forth in the air. Most of the women were wearing pants. They were using a corrupt modern version of the Bible. The minister said that he had a degree in psychology and theology. It's not a sin for a pastor to have a degree in secular psychology, but the psycho-heresy (Bible truth + secular psychology) that has replaced Bible-preaching in today's church pulpits is demonic. We need the [26]undiluted Word of God !!!

No public invitation was given at the end of the sermonette. The lyrics to the music were ridiculously lame... praise, praise, praise... He is all, He is all, He is all... blah, blah, blah! The minister kept mentioning apostates like Rick Warren, Billy Graham, Pat Robertson and Joel Osteen (all his mentors). I couldn't get out of there fast enough! Not surprisingly, 37 % of the U.S. Freemasonry membership is comprised of Southern Baptists. Freemasonry will kill a church faster than cyanide poisoning. You might as well invite Lucifer to be your pastor when you allow Freemasons to lead the church.

God deliver us from this sissified generation of [27]Caspar Milquetoast , pink-tea-and-lemonade, soft-soapin', sissy-britches-wearing, ear-ticklin', back-scratchin', yellowbellied, Clark Kent, pantywaist, compromising, pussyfootin', unmanly, lazy-boy preachers who can't preach their way out of a paperbag! God give us some leather-lunged, barn-stormin', window-rattlin', shingle-pullin', truth-loving, uncompromising, manly, hell-fire and damnation PREACH-ERS!!!

America needs PREACHING PREACHERS!!! The reason why men don't preach anymore is because they're being mentored by apostates, false teachers, heretics, sissies and old fuddy-duddy professors. JUST GIVE ME THE KING JAMES BIBLE!!! God is the preacher's mentor! We'd have a lot more TRUE WORSHIPPERS in America if we had a lot more TRUE BIBLES, TRUE CHRISTIANS, TRUE CHURCHES and TRUE PREACHERS!!!

Heresy is Creeping into Fundamentalist Baptist Churches By the Hour!

Few Christians are aware of the satanic origin of many of the false doctrines being taught in our churches today: The Young Earth heresy began with the Seventh-Day Adventism religious cult. See: [28]The Fallacies Of A Young Earth Series (by Dr. Max D. Younce).

A heresy that has crept into our churches is called "Lordship Salvation," which has its origins in the errant Roman Catholic understand of repentance as penance. The new corrupt plan of salvation in today's churches is human effort + Christ's partial payment. [29]Billy Graham teaches this heresy . The Bible teaches that Christ paid it all on the cross. We are saved by completely resting in Jesus Christ. You receive Jesus as your Savior to be saved, not your Lord or King.

Another heresy infecting churches today is "Zionism" which worships Jews and Israel instead of the God of Israel, which has its origin in the satanic cults of Judaism and Freemasonry. Zionism is of the Devil.

The heresy of a Post-tribulation Rapture has corrupted many believer's understanding of Biblical prophecy. Those who deny that the Rapture can happen at any time are boldly opposing the plain teaching of the Lord that He is coming unannounced by surprise. Biblically, Christians ought to be on their toes looking for Christ's imminent return. The Bible teaches a Pre-tribulation Rapture!

An autopsy of a dead church determines cause of death as using modern corrupted Bible versions. Nothing will kill a church faster than taking away the authoritative King James Bible, and replacing it with a watered-down imposter. Modern Bibles remove the word Godhead from Acts 17:29, Romans 1:20 and Colossians 2:9. Jesus is no longer the only "begotten" Son of God in John 3:16 of the perverted modern Bibles. In Philippians 2:6 of the modern corrupt Bibles, Jesus is no longer equal with the Father. Burn your modern corrupt Bibles! Go get you a trustworthy King James Bible!!! Love it. Cherish it. Memorize it. Study it. Read it. Search it. Preach it!

Not too long ago I gave away a few copies of Michael Patrick Bowen's excellent book titled, " [30]I NEVER KNEW YOU " (.pdf file). I gave them to some Christian leaders in a Baptist church. You wouldn't have thought I was a Communist during the Cold War. The book greatly offended them. To no surprise these leaders love, follow and admire Billy Graham. The book exposes the false plan of salvation of [31]Billy Graham and his son Franklin Graham. I seriously am concerned about the salvation of any Christian who is offended by a book that teaches salvation by simple childlike faith in Christ. Billy Graham teaches that to be saved, a person MUST count the cost and pay the price. That is "another Gospel" which the Bible does NOT teach (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

The Holy Spirit Is The Life Of A Church

The Holy Spirit ALWAYS works through the inspired Word of God. The holy Bible is our only authority! False prophets do not love with God's unconditional love. How can they, for they are not saved and do not have the Holy Spirit abiding in them (Romans 8:9; 1st John 4:13). A church that uses corrupted modern versions like the New International Version (NIV) is a dying church! America's churches are dying!!!

Oh, how we need revival in our churches. Oh, how we need some evangelists to afflict the comforted, and godly pastors to comfort the afflicted. Every church desperately needs revivals a couple times a year. The easiest place in the world to backslide is Bible college, because you become accustomed to hearing the preaching every day. The second easiest place to backslide is church. That's why we need revivals. [32]THE SPIRIT'S ABIDING (MP3, Dr. Hyles; all is vain unless the Spirit of the Holy One comes down)!

It's in our sinful human nature to backslide. Most of the time we don't realize that we're backsliding, until one day we come to our senses and realize that we were "hardened through the deceitfulness of sin" (Hebrews 3:13). The deceitfulness of sin is that with each downward slide, it becomes the new norm and we adjust to it. Our hard becomes calloused to sin. Over time you can slide way down spiritually, committing sins that you never imagined you'd commit. This is why the Illuminati are dehumanizing American culture through music, magazines, internet, television, movies and video games.

For example: Justin Timberlake sang a song on Saturday Night Live for Mother's Day 2009 called Motherlover with the shameful lyrics: "We should f–k each other's mothers," "I can't wait until I f–k your mother!," "It'll be an honour to become your stepfather." This is Justin Timberlake's Satanic music!!! The song's video features Justin Timberlake, Andy Samberg, Susan Sarandon and Patricia Clarkson. Woe unto the United States!!! The vile song was actually nominated for an 2009 Emmy for "Best Original Music and Lyrics." I hope you clearly see that the [33]Illuminati is trying to subvert American culture with Satanism, sexual perversion and violence, dehumanizing man who is created in God's image.

We have become a culture of death. We've [34]slaughtered 65,464,760 children by abortion! It was recently reported that 15,000 aborted babies from Canada were burned to fuel homes in Oregon, USA. [35]Bodies Of Aborted Babies Burned To Power Homes In Oregon ([36]15,500 humans burned as fuel). Life has become worthless to us. The autopsy of a dead church reveals a stiff heart. A corpse's heart is indifferent, unmovable and has no warmth. You don't have to be dead to have a calloused heart, but what's the difference? Whether you're dead or alive, it's the same if your heart cannot be touched by God's Word. Luke 24:25, "Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken."

Get into the habit of praying for the power of the Holy Spirit in all that you do. Get into the habit of giving the Holy Spirit credit for everything accomplished. Jesus said that without Him we "CAN DO NOTHING" (John 15:5). Zechariah 4:6 teaches that it is not by might, nor by power, but by the power of the Holy Spirit. A sign of a dead church is when things are being done in human strength and effort instead of praying for the Holy Spirit to work. Always give God all the glory!

Formalism, Worldliness And No Preaching

A sure sign of a dead church is formalism. The Roman Catholic Church is not a true church at all; but rather, a satanic religious cult. Mormonism is a demonic sex-perverted cult, which worships the same god as Freemasonry, that is, Lucifer. Freemasons are phallic-worshippers, evidenced by the Washington Monument (obelisk). Jehovah's Witnesses are a religious cult from Hell.

These are not true Biblical churches patterned after the churches in the New Testament. Formalism attempts to worship God with rituals, manmade traditions and ceremonies. Jesus told the Samaritan woman in John 4:24 that God the Father desires to be worshipped in spirit and in truth. The Word of God is truth (John 17:17). Every born-again Christian has the Holy Spirit of God living in their body (Romans 8:9).

I've visited numerous Roman Catholic church services, and I could feel the deadness. The Holy Spirit was not present, except in my body as a true believer. The people around me were chanting a bunch of dead prayers which they had memorized. In sharp contrast, we pray to God as true believers in spirit from our soul, and not with vain repetitions as Catholics do. Chanting some dead prayer from a so-called "prayer book" is not genuine prayer. An autopsy of a dead church reveals vain repetitions, religious chants and lifeless memorized prayers from a book. God desires fresh prayers from our living heart, and not some religious mumbo-jumbo from a manmade catechism or other manmade book.

You'll never hear any Bible-preaching in a Catholic church! Instead, they teach the manmade traditions of the Vatican. There are no song books in the pews of a Catholic church. There are no Bibles in the pews. It's all canned religion. What a dead place! Like KFC restaurant, no one does religion like the Catholic Church. From the cradle-to-the-casket, Roman Catholicism offers a complete religious package for you, but then the judgment (Hebrews 9:27). Religion is a road to Hell. Religion wants to fit us with glasses, but the Lord wants to open our eyes. Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man through the sacrifice on the cross of His only begotten Son Jesus Christ. Salvation is NOT found in any religion; but rather, in a person—the Lord Jesus Christ! Christ died, that's history; Christ died for me, that's salvation!

Conformity and culture are paths to destruction. Praise God for the uncouth, offensive ruggedness, manly roughness of John the Baptist. Evangelist Billy Sunday used to throw chairs, climb on top of his pulpit, swing his fists in the air at the Devil and run back and forth across the platform. How does that compare today to the stuff-shirt, dry, formalistic, deadbeat minister who puts his audience to sleep. BORING!!! I've almost got up and walked out on some dry ministers. I heard a dry minister speak last year. He was boring and unable to get to any kind of point. The kids were playing video games. Mom was Googling.

The man sure didn't know anything about preaching! Brother, you might not like my preaching if I came to your church, but you wouldn't fall asleep I guarantee you!!! I'd speak from my heart, no need for a performance. There's nothing worse than a preacher who's putting on a performance. People can quickly discern if a man is just trying to impress the audience, or if he truly has something important to say that he believes in. I never try to impress anyone with my articles (you can tell I'm sure...lol). If I have something to say, I SAY IT!!! No man of God who is unwilling to speak the truth has any right standing behind any pulpit! I like what General George Patton said: "Either lead me, follow me, or get out of my way!"

Let's just be honest, the average pastor is afraid to take a stand, fearful of losing members. The irony is that the parking lot is empty at many of these churches. You can literally feel when a church congregation is starving for doctrine, hungry for preaching and dying for truth. Many churches preach a theme of love, love, love, but you'll never hear a word against sin, or about the awfulness of Hell, or about false Bibles, or about the New World Order, or about modesty, et cetera. Why should people come to church if there's nothing worth hearing? Many people still come, but they are as frustrated as can be. A happy church is a spiritually fed church. A sad church is a doctrinally starving church.

"Sometimes you may leave here and say, 'I wonder what he's mad about?' I'm not mad about anything, I just know one thing—whatever a preacher quits preaching on, is what his church will fill up with!" [37]Pastor Phil Kidd , a quote from the needful sermon " [38]I AM Ashamed "

Ten Ways to Hurt And Cause Trouble in Your Church

Here's some ways to ruin your church:

1. Focus on your desires only and not the needs of the church.
2. Listen to every criticism your hear. Gossip and rumors can be effective to ruin a church.
3. Focus on your pastor's weaknesses and not his strengths.
4. Speak the truth and practice love, but never combine the two.
5. Store grievances for future use.
6. Forgive only those who ask you, and only if they deserve it. Place conditions on your forgiveness.
7. Hide your own sins behind a harsh attitude. Denounce others for sins that you secretly struggle with.
8. Use prayer to unite malcontents and spread inappropriate information and leave a questionable impression.
9. Do whatever you have to do to win. It doesn't matter who you hurt, just so long as you get your way.
10. Tell others that you are on a mission from God and it's your job to straighten everybody out in their Christian life.

SOURCE: Pastor Danny Castle, from the awesome sermon titled, " [39]100 % WILLING "

Please don't misunderstand, there are no perfect churches. The Lord had something negative to say about the seven churches of Asia Minor in Revelation. I wrote this article to bring attention to the apostasy which has crept into our churches and is now the new norm. ' [41]Which New Is Right?' (Dr. Hyles, MP3; the Devil ruins churches with cantatas, no services, immodesty, gossip, pride, et cetera). It's the pastor's duty to lead the flock.

You'd be surprised how many churches have pulpit committees that deliberately censor the preacher, forbidding him from stepping on toes, not allowing him to preach against sin, forbidding him from calling false religion by name, et cetera. So many pastors are cowards behind the pulpit! NO ONE will ever mess with my preaching! My preaching is none of my business either, because only God tells me what to preach! I wouldn't give you a red penny for any so-called "preacher" who is hen-pecked, prohibited from rocking-the-boat and plucking-the-feathers of his congregation.

There's a "holy" Spirit and a "holy" Bible, but there is no "holy" church. All churches have problems, because all people have problems. Only God can produce godliness in an ungodly world. A particular church is only going to be as "holy" as its individual Christian members walk with God, yielding to the Holy Spirit. The Bible doesn't command churches to be holy; but rather, God commands each individual believer to be holy, as God is holy. 1st Peter 1:16, "Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy."

Our churches sing, "Holy! Holy! Holy!" while the women wear skintight, sensual, sexy, blue-jeans and painted-on slacks. Holy? Our churches sing, "Holy! Holy! Holy!" while the teaching of doctrine is neglected, and a counterfeit plan of salvation is preached. God pity the pastor who hardly ever takes a stand against sin and evil. Shame on the pastor who never warns about coming judgment in Hell, fire and damnation. Whatever we sow, that shall we also reap (Galatians 6:7). The Lord cannot build His Church, if the pastor is not preaching the truth!

Is your church dead? What would an autopsy show if your church was dissected? Is the truth being preached? Are sinners being warned about God's imminent judgment against the ungodly, suffering the vengeance of God in the fires of Hell (2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9)? Are the doctrines of the Word of God being taught? Does your church cancel services regularly, or replace the preaching with music programs and cantatas? Is the Christian school more popular than the church? Do the women in your church wear skin-tight jeans and slacks? Does the pastor teach modesty from the pulpit? Does the pastor regularly teach, pray and rely upon the power of the Holy Spirit to do God's work through the church?

Does the pastor feed his flock, or stick you in front of a video series instead? God deliver us from religion-in-a-can these days! Even more sickening is when I see Masonic handshakes and Illuminati pyramids in the videos being shown in our Baptist churches. Freemasonry is a rotting disease, a spiritually corrupt agenda, a satanic religion, a massive deception in our churches today!!! No Christian can be right with God and belong to a Luciferian-worshipping satanic cult like Freemasonry. "The Great Architect" of Freemasonry is Satan! O Christian, please run from the evils of Freemasonry!!!

The autopsy of a dead church uncovers the spiritual venereal disease of Freemasonry, for it has infiltrated and corrupted more churches than any other evil. Freemasonry is of the Devil. Secret societies have no place in the New Testament Church. Jesus said in John 18:20, "Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing." There are no secret societies in Christianity or Heaven.

The Sin Of Being Lukewarm!

If the shoe fits, wear it! Nearly every church today is lukewarm. God hates fence-straddling. The only thing you hit when you drive in the middle-of-the-road are skunks! I've written this article with a humble heart and the sincere prayer for God to use this article for His glory. My words mean nothing as they enter your mind, unless the Holy Spirit of God convicts your heart and changes you from within. I'm just trying to prepare you for the time when you must meet your Savior face-to-face, when you look into Jesus' eyes and have to give account for your life (Romans 14:10-12; 2nd Corinthians 5:9-11; 1st Thessalonians 4:6; James 4:12; Matthew 12:36; Proverbs 24:12). God didn't save us to BE GOOD, He saved us to DO GOOD. What are you doing for God?

My desire is not to aggravate or make anyone upset; but rather, to preach the truth about the apostate condition of today's churches, particularly our Independent Fundamental Baptist Churches (the last remaining bastion of the New Testament Church as far as I'm concerned). Show me a Methodist church with a Bus Ministry! Show me a Presbyterian church that goes soul-winning from door-to-door (Acts 20:20)!

Our churches nowadays are embracing the queer agenda. Lesbians are being ordained and called to pastor churches. It is sinful. Many churches are adopting neutral positions on homosexual rights and same-sex marriage. This is certainly a symptom of a dead church body. Every born-again Christian ought to kindly, lovingly, but firmly take a stand against the sin of homosexuality in the name of Jesus! I'm not saying that we should be gay-bashers, God forbid. I'm simply saying that we should always side with the Scriptures! There is no controversy if you believe the Bible. I am on the Lord's side in all matters!

If evangelical Christians don't uphold the truth of the Word of God, then assuredly no one else is going to do it. The world is literally dying for something real. Our churches today are so phony, dead and dried-up that it makes God vomit. This is what the Lord said in Revelation 3:15-16, "I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth."

6.10.11 Am I Going To Heaven? (2025-10-12 01:00)

Choose below what you think is necessary to go to Heaven.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Obey God’s laws and commandments
2. Be sorry for your sins
3. Sincerely do your best
4. Turn from your sins and stop sinning
5. Do good deeds
6. Give money to church or charity
7. Water baptism or holy communion
8. Trust in Jesus Christ alone as your personal Savior
9. Trust in Jesus Christ as your Savior and also serve him
10. There is no Heaven or Hell

1) Obey God’s laws and commandments

Trying to keep the commandments cannot save us but only shows us that we are sinners:

> James 2:10 "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all."

Try Again?

2) Be sorry for your sins

Being sorry for your sins, or confessing your sins cannot take away sin. The Bible says the penalty for sin is death. We all die physically, but we also deserve to die spiritually by spending eternity in Hell.

> Romans 6:23 "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Try Again?

3) Sincerely do your best

Doing your best is commendable, To turn from your sins and stop sinning is also very desirable (yet impossible). Will doing these things make you perfect? No! Heaven is a perfect place and you must be perfect to enter. The Bible says:

> Revelation 21:27 "And there shall in no wise enter into it (Heaven) anything that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the lambs book of life."

Try Again?

4) Turn from your sins and stop sinning

Doing your best is commendable, To turn from your sins and stop sinning is also very desirable (yet impossible). Will doing these things make you perfect? No! Heaven is a perfect place and you must be perfect to enter. The Bible says:

> Revelation 21:27 "And there shall in no wise enter into it (Heaven) anything that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the lambs book of life.

Try Again

5) Do good deeds

No deeds, charity, contributions to churches, nor any good work by you, can take away your sins or save you. The Bible says:

> Ephesians 2:8-9 "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is a gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast."

Try Again?

6) Give money to church or charity

No deeds, charity, contributions to churches, nor any good work by you, can take away your sins or save you. The Bible says:

> Ephesians 2:8-9 "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is a gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast."

Try Again?

7) Water baptism or holy communion

Water baptism and communion cannot pay for sins. They are for those who are already saved.

> Titus 3:5 "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us..."

Try Again?

8) Trust in Jesus Christ alone as your personal Savior

Correct! By trusting in Jesus Christ who paid for all of your sins when he died on the cross, you will receive the GIFT of everlasting life.

Salvation is a GIFT, all you have to do is accept that GIFT.

> Ephesians 2:8-9 "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is a gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast."

Even though you may die physically, your soul will live forever in Heaven. Jesus Christ said:

> John 3:16 "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

Jesus Christ also said:

> John 6:47 "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on Me hath (possesses now) everlasting life."

Try Again?

9) Trust in Jesus Christ as your Savior and also serve him

Incorrect! You can do nothing to add to the finished work of Christ. By doing so, you are not trusting in Christ alone as your Savior but only as your helper. You cannot go to Heaven that way. You must forget about your good works and commitments as a means of saving yourself, and put your trust ONLY in the Savior - Jesus Christ.

> Romans 4:5 "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on Him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

Try Again?

10) There is no Heaven or Hell

Friend, I cannot make you believe in Heaven or Hell. Maybe you don't believe in it because you can't see it. But neither can you see the air you breathe, yet without it you would die. Heaven is real! Hell is real! Why not investigate God's word?

> John 3:18 "He that believeth on Him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

Try Again?

How can I go to Heaven?

The fact is ... we are all sinners; we all deserve to go to Hell; Heaven is a perfect place and nothing we do can make us perfect. How then can we go to Heaven? The answer is found in God's word, the Bible:

> "For He (God) hath made him (Christ) to be sin for us, Who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him." (II Corinthians 5:21)

You see, Jesus Christ died on the cross and rose from the dead to pay for all of our sins. He died FOR us. Only through Him can we have eternal life. What then must you do to go to Heaven?

By trusting in Jesus Christ as the one who died for your sins, you will receive everlasting life. Even though you may die physically, your soul will live forever in Heaven. Jesus Christ said:

> "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." (John 3:16)

Jesus also said:

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on Me HATH (possesses now) everlasting life." (John 6:47)

The moment you trust Jesus Christ as your Savior, your sins will be forgiven, and you will receive God's righteousness (perfection). This allows you to enter Heaven...

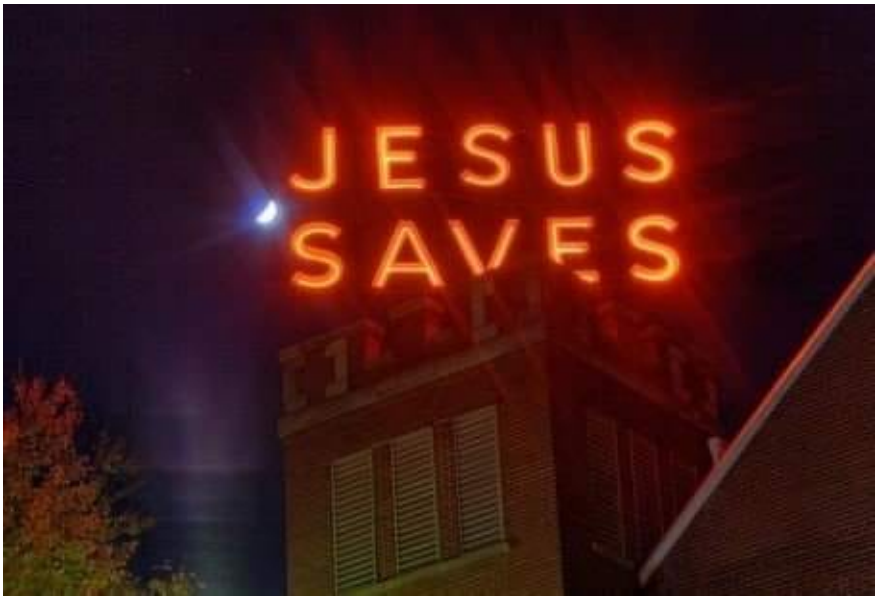
"And by Him (Christ) all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses." (Acts 13:39)

Trusting Jesus Christ as your personal Savior is a one time decision in your life. The moment you believe in Christ, God will give you eternal life. Once you have believed, God accepts you as his child.

"But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name." (John 1:12)

God may discipline you when you disobey, but He will never cast you out of His family, You have eternal life which is secure. You can never lose it, neither can you forfeit it. God's unconditional promise is that He will never take it away from you.

"And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of My hand." (John 10:28)



This is called eternal security. Serving the Lord is important, once you are saved. It brings God's blessings and joy to your life. But if relied upon to get you to Heaven, it will not work. Salvation is ONLY by faith in Jesus Christ.

"These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may KNOW that ye have eternal life..." (I John 5:13)

Right now, why not trust Jesus Christ as your Savior. He will save you for all eternity. You can also have the assurance that your sins are forgiven (past, present, and future). God has said it, and He cannot lie!

"All that the Father giveth Me shall come to Me; and him that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out. And this is the Father's will which hath sent Me, that of all which He hath given Me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day." (John 6:37-39)

6.10.12 Lordship Salvation Causes Fear, Torment, Anxiety And Stress (2025-10-14 01:03)

John 5:39-40,

Search the scriptures*; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

More deadly than a mother bear robbed of her cubs is the Devil’s damnable lie of Lordship Salvation. What is Lordship Salvation? It is a deadly heresy that teaches faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ is not enough to be saved. In addition, a lost person is falsely told that they must turn away from their sinful behavior, surrender their life to serve Jesus, follow Christ no matter what the cost, commit your life to Christ, live a changed life, et cetera.

Lordship Salvation requires WORKS as evidence that you FAITH is genuine. So if a professed believer in Christ doesn’t live a changed life, proponents of Lordship Salvation will conclude that the person’s faith is not real and they are still unsaved. See and hear for yourself what the heresy of Lordship Salvation does to wreak havoc on a person’s mind and soul...

The Damage of Lordship Salvation with John MacArthur

(This Should Make You Angry!)

This my dear reader is the sorrowful

of Lordship Salvation: stress, anxiety, worry, guilt, fear, condemnation, confusion and torment. This is what happens when you are taught to focus on the sinner rather than the Savior; analyzing self rather than searching the Scriptures; resting in my performance rather than His promise; looking in the mirror rather than looking unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith.

Hebrews 12:2, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God."

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

Pastor John MacArthur horribly lies to this young woman in the preceding video, telling her:

> "The way you know that you're saved is by your desire." —John MacArthur

What saith the Scripture? 1st John 3:24, " And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. " What does the Bible command all men concerning getting saved? John 6:40, " And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." That is God's commandment to receive eternal life.

Let'[s see what Jesus said in John 6:28-29,

“Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” Many people wrongly divide the Word of Truth (the Bible), tormenting themselves with a lie. One could easily assume that 1st John 3:24 is speaking about keeping all of God’s commandments to get to Heaven, but that would be foolish, because we should NEVER base a doctrine on a single passage of Scripture. A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. We have the entire Gospel of John, which was authored by God specifically to show mankind how to get to Heaven. John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

I receive hundreds of emails each year from people who are afraid they are not saved because of the sins in their life. This is the adverse consequence of the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation. These poor souls have been lied to by wicked preachers. They have been deceived by the Devil concerning what God requires to get to Heaven. The Devil is a beautiful liar! Lordship Salvation is damnable heresy which causes stress, anxiety, fear, torment, tears and confusion in its victims. Those who trust in Lordship Salvation are always analyzing them self instead of "searching the Scriptures" (John 5:39). They are looking in the mirror, instead of looking to Jesus the Author and Finisher of our faith (Hebrews 12:2).

Dear friend, RUN from Lordship Salvation.

My dear friend in the ministry Michael P. Bowen was also a victim of Lordship Salvation for several years. Michael admits that if he had died during that time of anxiety, stress and confusion over God’s plan of salvation, he would have went to a burning Hell forever. Thankfully, Michael testifies that one day he heard a sermon by Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008) that finally showed him THE TRUTH OF THE GOSPEL and Michael became a born-again Christian. That sermon is called: ’[1]How Permanent Is Your Salvation?’

Michael Bowen wrote a helpful book about his ordeal, and he shows you exactly how you can also know that you are going to Heaven. The book is titled: [2]I Never Knew You: The Horror Of The Great White Throne Judgment And How You Can Avoid It’ (free .pdf version). You can obtain [3]hard copies at Amazon.com store. I regularly order a few copies here and there to give away to the people in my life. A hard copy is much more likely to get read than a .pdf file.

Lordship Salvation is of the Devil. You get saved by coming to God as a needy guilty sinner (not by forsaking your sinful ways), and simply receiving Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. Nothing more is required or allowed by God, except faith in the Good News (Gospel) of His only begotten Son crucified, buried and risen for your sins (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). This is the Gospel of free grace! Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Thank you humbly for reading my blog. To God be ALL the praise, credit and glory (John 15:5).

6.10.13 Beware Of Neo-Evangelical And Neo-Fundamentalist False Witnesses (2025-10-15 15:03)

Proverbs 6:19, “

A false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren.

He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.”

Proverbs 14:5

“

A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies.”

A true witness delivereth souls: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.”

A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.”

Proverbs 21:28

A false witness shall perish: but the man that heareth speaketh constantly.

There is nothing more dangerous today than the FALSE PROPHET! They lurk unawares in most churches, nearly all Bible colleges, rescue missions, mission boards, religious Tv and radio, you name it! 1st John 4:1, “ Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.” Even 2,000 years ago when the Apostle John penned these inspired Words the Bible says that there were not a few, but “MANY” FALSE PROPHETS in the world, and so it still is today in 2025. 1st John 4:1 exhorts every saint to THINK OBJECTIVELY, questioning everything against the true and eternally inspired Word of God.

Here is an interesting Scripture passage from Proverbs 21:28, “A false witness shall perish: but the man that heareth speaketh constantly.” The phrase “heareth speaketh constantly” simply means “to report accurately.” FALSE PROPHETS will perish! Jesus said in Matthew 11:15, “He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.” Do you hear THE TRUTH dear reader. Sadly, most people today only hear what they want to hear; they hear the voices of FALSE PROPHETS! Jesus commanded us in John 5:39 to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!!!

In Acts 17:10-11, the Apostle Paul commended the Bereans for searching the Scriptures “daily” to verify the truths he had been teaching them; whereas the Thessalonians failed to study the Scripture, and were later confused because they forgot the truths Paul had taught them (2nd Thessalonians 2:5). There is nothing more contemptible than someone who merely believes whatever a preacher tells them, without confirming if it is THE TRUTH.

Literally BILLIONS of hellbound people today are blind followers of the blind, caught up in their damnable FALSE RELIGION. The Mormons, Roman Catholics, Orthodox Catholics, Church of Christ, Lutherans, Jehovah’s Witnesses, Seventh-Day Adventists, Lordship Salvation Baptists, Reformed Calvinist Baptists—All FALSE RELIGIONS! RUN for your life dear reader!!!

Proverbs 6:19, “

A false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren.

” Nothing has caused division in our churches today as has the doctrinal error of Lordship Salvation, aka, you must

to get to heaven. This is nothing less than a subtle way of adding works to grace. In sharp contrast, the inspired Holy Bible proclaims that eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15-18), paid for by the precious blood of Jesus Christ (1st Peter 1:18-19). JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

is someone who who follows the modern corrupt fake church. They sing Contemporary Christian Music (CCM), which can hardly qualify as genuine music, woefully lacking in the doctrinal richness of the time-tested old hymns of the Christian faith. They preach a counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation. They errantly require that people be willing to forsake sinful bad habits to be saved. They effectively preach a partial faith in Jesus Christ plus works type of salvation, while deceptively still insisting that salvation is solely by grace alone through faith alone.

neo-fundamentalist

is someone who was formerly a fundamentalist, but has sinfully compromised and left the fundamentalist camp to move toward ungodly neo-evangelical camp. Many Baptists today are actually neo-fundamentalists. Just as socialism is a sure path to communism, so also is neo-fundamentalism a sure path to neo-evangelicalism. Nearly all churches today have become corrupted by Satan. Nearly all so-called today are using contaminated Bible revisions, preaching another gospel, and are not true churches.

For many years Pensacola Christian College (PCC) sinfully became neo-fundamentalist in their views, but today has wickedly turned hard core neo-evangelical, [1]preaching hardcore Lordship Salvation . These groups are all FALSE WITNESSES, who cause division in the Body of Christ. Most of them are not born again believers, they are tares among the wheat. Only those who REST in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ—apart from turning from your sinful ways, following Christ as your ’Lord,’ and giving your life over to Him—are truly saved.

A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies.” I cannot warn you enough to avoid any fake church that is affiliated with Bob Jones University, Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary or Pensacola Christian College. These are Lordship Salvation CULTS!!!

Just as the serpent wickedly CHANGED God’s Word in the Garden of Eden to TRICK Eve, which destroyed her life; so also has Satan wickedly CHANGED the inspired Holy Bible today, and PERVERTED the Gospel of free grace, to damn men’s souls to Hell forever (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, 13-15). When churches start following the TRADITIONS OF MEN instead of the COMMANDMENTS OF GOD (Mark 7:9-13), the truth is obscured so that lost sinners cannot be converted.

6.10.14 If It's Not In Writing, It Means Nothing (2025-10-17 01:04)

Romans 3:4, "

God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

Our text Bible passage teaches for all men to LET GOD BE TRUE, BUT EVERY MAN A LIAR. That naturally raises the $64,000 question: "How do we know what God says, versus what man says?" The answer is the Holy Bible. Jesus Himself exhorted everyone in John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

I was listening to false prophetess' Joyce Meyer earlier today. She is very WRONG on God's simple plan of salvation, instead preaching another gospel:

> "When you're born-again, you admit that you're a sinner. You ask God to forgive your sins. And you invite Him to come and live in your heart. You must be willing to turn away from sin*. You don't just receive and kind of tack Him on to your mess like a magic charm. You'd have to be willing to turn away from sin*. You can't do it on your own. But if you're willing to do it, God will help you and He will teach you how to live the way that He wants you to live." [emphasis added] —Joyce Meyer, "[1]How Do I Get To Heaven" (13:36 time in video)

Joyce Meyer further heretically teaches:

> "If you've never received Christ as your Savior. You've never invited Him to come into your life*. You've never come to that point of saying, 'I am a miserable sinner, and God I do need you, I cannot help myself.' Then you need to surrender tonight—and that's really what it's all about—it's about surrender! It's about letting God get into the driver's seat of your life. It's about you discontinuing trying to run the show, and telling God what all your plans are. It's you giving Him the reigns, and saying: 'You lead and I'll follow."' [emphasis added] —Joyce Meyer, "[2]How Do I Get To Heaven" (22:00 time in video)

Now dear friend, I triple-dog dare you to show me any of the garbage theology which Joyce Meyer preaches from the inspired King James Bible. Remember, if it's not in writing it means absolutely nothing! Where did Miss Meyer get all that junk? She sure didn't find it in the Holy Bible!!! I cannot warn everyone enough to mark and avoid Joyce Meyer and her circus of a pathetic ministry (Romans 16:17-18; Matthew 7:15). She just pulls manmade commandments out of her hate, fully rejecting the Word of God. Mark 7:7 and 8, "Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. ... And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition." Joyce Meyer is making stuff up!

Show me where the inspired Holy Bible teaches to be saved, we must:

1. Follow Christ
2. Invite Jesus to come and life in your heart
3. Be willing to turn away from your sin
4. Discontinue trying to run the show
5. Give God the reigns of control of your life
6. Surrender
7. Let God get into the driver's seat of your life

8. You lead, I'll follow

Ladies and gentlemen, you may do all of those things and never be born-again at all.

What saith the Scripture? We don't need to wonder, debate or guess what "the gospel" is, because the Bible plainly defines the GOOD NEWS for us:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "
> Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;
>
> By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.
> For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;
> And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

There we have it, "

the Gospel

is comprised of three things:

1. Christ DIED on the cross to pay for our sins.
2. He was BURIED.
3. Three days later Jesus bodily RESURRECTED from the dead.

That is the Gospel (i.e., Good News) by which we are saved, if we BELIEVE. Romans 1:16-17, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith. " I didn't see any mention about surrendering all to God, turning away from your sins, following Christ, getting out of the driver's seat, inviting Jesus to come into our life, nor anything else!!! Joyce Meyer is a bold-faced theological liar!!! ...

> Galatians 1:6-9, "
> I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:
>
> Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.
>
> But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.
> As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

Please do not take my word for it dear reader. You the reader must decide for yourself who is telling THE TRUTH, and who is lying. I already showed you 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 which clearly defines “the gospel” as Jesus’ death, burial and resurrection. One of my favorite Bible verses is 1st Thessalonians 4:14, “For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

” Here again we plainly see THE GOSPEL, how that Christ died and raised up the third day.

Let us also consider a Roman soldier who humbly asked Paul and Silas what to do to be saved. Acts 16:30b-31, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.” Paul and Silas simply told the soldier to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. Paul didn’t tell the man to turn away from his sinning. Silas didn’t tell the soldier to follow Christ, surrender all, get out of the driver’s seat, invite Jesus to come into his heart and life, et cetera. No, Paul and Silas just told him to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST.

Again, please consider a group of hungry people who had followed Jesus in boats from Tiberias to Capernaum, seeking a handout of provisions from Jesus:

> John 6:26-29,
> “Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

I love it! They plainly asked Christ what works to do to get into the Kingdom of God. Jesus replied that the only “work” God wanting from them to be saved is to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST!!! Hey, that is the exact same answer that Paul and Silas gave to the Roman soldier in Acts 16:30-31. Dear friend, the Bible couldn’t be more plainer that salvation comes to the one who BELIEVES the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day. You get saved by believing the GOOD NEWS, not by forsaking a lifestyle of sin or surrendering control of your life over to God. The Devil is a beautiful liar! Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. Joyce Meyer has perverted the Gospel into a lifestyle that you must live to get to Heaven.

Remember, if it’s not in writing it means nothing! Any attorney worth his stuff knows this. Any competent businessman will tell you that everything must be in writing to be valid. That is why God put His simple plan of salvation into writing. That is why Jesus told us in John 5:39 to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!!!

But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

” Carefully notice that the Apostle John emphasized that he wrote THESE THINGS to convince the reader that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, so that by BELIEVING you will be saved.

Again, carefully notice that the Apostle Paul emphasizes the written Word of God:

> Romans 10:11-13, “For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

Paul is citing an Old Testament passage from Isaiah 28:16 in Romans 10:11. This verse is not saying that if you are saved you won’t be ashamed of Jesus’ name. Peter was ashamed, even denying and cursing the Lord’s precious name. In Acts 10:42-43 the Bible says many chief rulers believed on Jesus, but they did not confess Him for fear of the wicked Pharisees. The Bible says that those saved chief rulers loved the praise of men more than God. But they were still redeemed adopted sons of God by faith in Christ (Galatians 3:26).

I have humbly shown you numerous Scripture passages, which plainly teach that we are saved by faith alone in the Good News of Christ crucified, buried and risen. None of these Scripture passages require that someone surrender control of their life over to God, nor that someone turn away from their sins, nor that we invite Jesus to come into our life. Judas became a Christ follower and went to burn in the fires of Hell forever! Matthew 27:3 says that Judas “ repented himself

” of his sins, but that didn’t convert him into a Christian. You don’t get saved by doing ANY of the things which Joyce Meyer sinfully preaches. The Devil loves Miss Meyer, because the unsaved religious masses are being blinded with a counterfeit plan of salvation, which does not match the Bible’s plan of salvation.

Acts 10:43, “ To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. ” Dear reader, only YOU personally can determine what you believe to be THE TRUTH. I am not asking you to believe me. I am asking you to compare what I have plainly shown you from the inspired Word of God, to what Joyce Meyer is teaching. What is the basis of her fraudulent theological claims? She sure didn’t get those ideas from the Bible.

God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

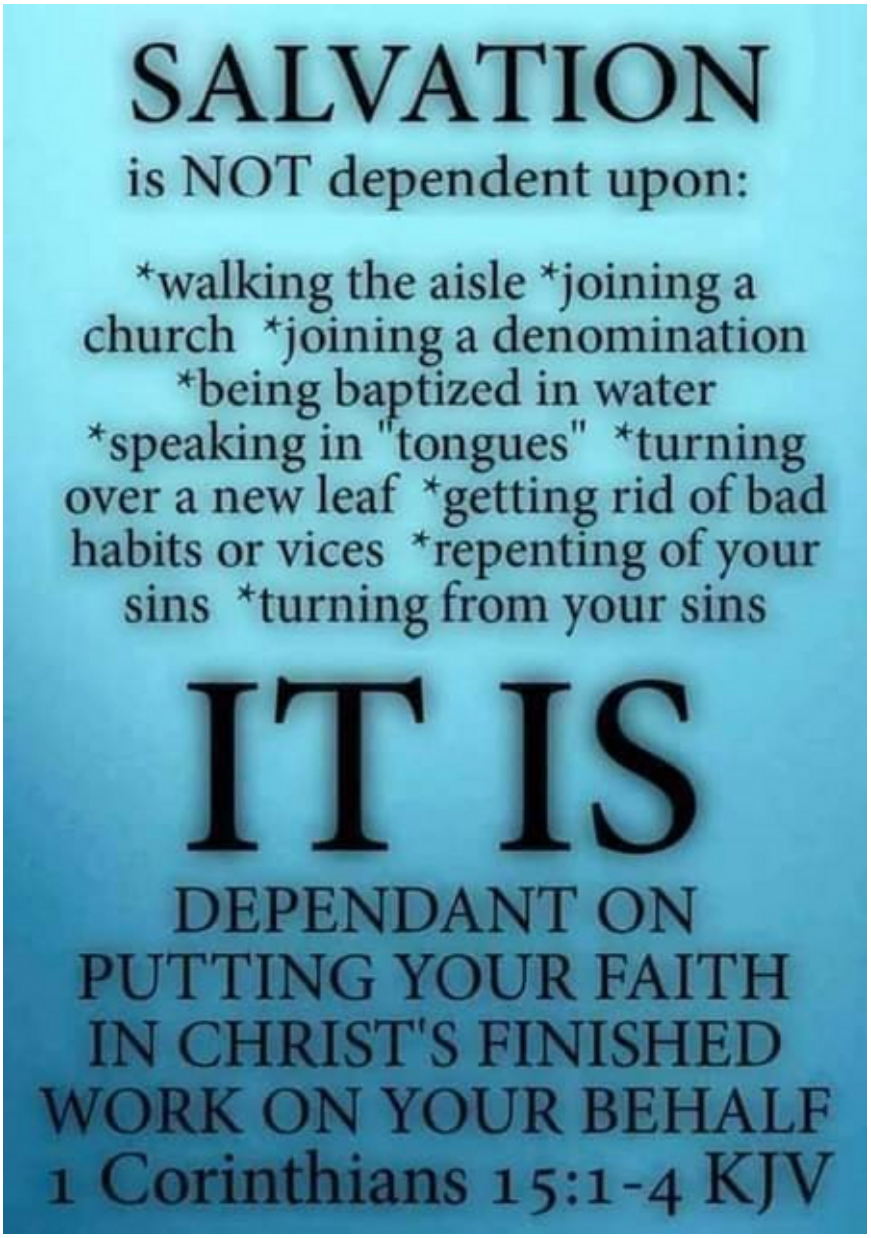
” If what I am preaching agrees with the written Word of God, then my preaching against Joyce Meyer as a false prophet will be vindicated and justified someday in eternity. Any doctrinal opinion that disagrees with God’s opinion is heresy!



Here is a great quote from Dr. Curtis Hutson:

> “Faith and repentance are the same; they are not two separate decisions. One cannot trust Christ as Savior without repenting or changing his mind. The very fact that he trusts Christ for salvation shows that he has changed his mind regarding sin, salvation, and God.” —Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995); ’[3]Salvation Crystal Clear’

Dear reader, YOU HAVE GOD'S PROMISE IN WRITING in the Bible!!! John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." That is a solemn promise from God. Anyone who puts their faith (trust, confidence, reliance) in the only begotten Son of God, is saved. The garbage which Miss Joyce Meyer is preaching has no authority behind it. She is talking trash!

If you don't know what you are talking about Joyce, keep your mouth shut! And if you do open your mouth, you'd better be able to back up what you are saying. Joyce has no Scriptural basis for her corrupt teachings. I have quoted you Bible verses to support everything I have taught you. I am as narrow-minded as the Holy Bible!!!

2nd Peter 2:1-3, “

But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.”

The inspired Holy Bible warns the reader that FALSE PROPHETS will come, privily (i.e., surreptitiously; painstakingly avoiding detection) bringing damnable heresies into local churches. Pastor Colin Smith is one such FALSE PROPHET! I learned about him while listening to ’[1]UNSHACKLED’ by Pacific Garden Mission, which today is a corrupt 501c3 organization laden with [2]the evils of Lordship Salvation. Former mission Director Harry Saulnier (1902-1990) is absolutely disgusted in Heaven!!!

In a disturbing sermon preached on February 25, 2025, titled “

[3]Repentance, Part 2,

” Pastor Smith clearly [4]preaches the Satanic deception of LORDSHIP SALVATION (I made this audio clip using THREE excerpts from Smith’s sermon). Smith uses Isaiah 1:16-20 as his text passage, perverting the context of Scripture...

> Isaiah 1:16-20, “Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil;
> Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.
>
> Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.
> If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:
> But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it. ”

Dear reader, you must understand that God is NOT giving His people a plan of salvation here. The way you get saved is found in Isaiah 45:22, “

Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.

” Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) understood this great biblical truth...

[5]THE ONE THING THAT DETERMINES SALVATION

[7]THE DETERMING FACTOR IN SALVATION

(an [8]MP3 audio sermon by Dr. Curtis Hutson)

WHAT A GREAT TRUTH!!!

In his corrupt sermon "[9]Repentance, Part 2" Smith correctly teaches that it is impossible for the listener to live a life that is pleasing to God, which he says is why Christ died on a cross for our sins. He correctly preaches the truth that "nothing can wash away my sins but the blood of Jesus." But then Smith goes horribly astray when he mixes works with grace, plainly burdening the sinful audience to wash themselves from their own sins.

Yet, Pastor Smith is very confusing, which obscures and hides the true free grace Gospel from lost sinners (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4). He's clearly mixing works with grace, confusing service with salvation, preaching the lie of Lordship Salvation. Smith rightly says that our worship, serving and praying (works) to God cannot cleanse us of our sins. The he quotes

Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. " Pastor Smith goes horribly astray when he adds verses 16 and 17 (works) from Isaiah chapter 1 to God's simple plan of salvation.

At the beginning of his sermon, about one minute into his speech, Pastor Smith says that the difference between a mere mask (or veneer) of religion versus authentic Christian faith is a changed life (which is essentially works). Throughout the sermon he errantly teaches that to be saved you must pursue Isaiah 1:16 and 17 as a prerequisite condition to verse 18. Clearly, Pastor Smith is preaching a works based plan of salvation that requires human effort in addition to faith. The most effective deception is the HALF TRUTH, because in part (the truthful part) it can be contested with irrefutable logic.

The entire wrong premise of Pastor Smith's sermon is that Christ will change your life if you trust in Him, but if your life hasn't changed yet you merely have religion and didn't really get saved. That is pure demonic Calvinism! Smith bases proof of one's salvation upon a changed life. Kindly said, his whole worldview is corrupt.

The followers of Christ in Matthew 7:21-23 did "many wonderful works," and yet Jesus denied knowing them as His sheep. Clearly, a changed life cannot be used as proof of the new birth! I have known some admirable Roman Catholics who strove diligently to live upright moral lives, lead their families for God, love their neighbours and do what is right. Sadly, they have been deceived by Satan to trust in a false religion, instead of resting solely in the finished redemptive work of the only begotten Son of God., the Christ.

At no point in his sermon does Pastor Smith mention the truth of the Gospel. He never mentions Jesus' death on a cross, burial or bodily resurrection from the dead. Smith does vaguely mention the sacrifice of Christ's body, Jesus as the "

Savior,

and that salvation comes through nothing else but the blood of Jesus. Unfortunately, the entire sermon woefully fails to show sinners the simple way of salvation. By foolishly using Isaiah 1:16-20 as a plan of salvation, which is about avoiding national judgment and not about getting to Heaven, he confuses and obscures the truth of God’s inspired Word.

I think Pilgrim’s Progress author John Bunyan (1628-1688) said it best...

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

Colin Smith is corrupting the inspired Word of God, casting stumbling blocks before the people, because he woefully fails to put a difference between service versus salvation. Not once in his sermon on repentance does Pastor Colin teach that salvation is by faith alone. We can only evaluate the man’s doctrine (fruit) by his statements, many of which are unbiblical.

At the end of his sermon, Pastor Smith horribly misleads the audience to do this...

> If you are willing and obedient; if you are willing to receive what I offer; if you are ready to pursue what I command; if you will embrace me, Jesus says, as your gracious Savior AND submit to me as your sovereign Lord, then you (the people who have been laden with iniquity and beaten and bruised) will eat the good of the land.

Dear reader, this passage in Isaiah is NOT a plan of salvation. God specifically authored the Gospel of John to show humanity the way of salvation, which is to simply BELIEVE ON THE NAME OF JESUS (John 1:12-13). We are saved by BELIEVING THE GOSPEL (GOOD NEWS) OF JESUS CHRIST CRUCIFIED, BURIED AND RISEN (John 20:31). Any admitted sinner who receives Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as FULL PAYMENT for their sins—embracing THE TRUTH of Jesus’ death on the cross, burial and physical resurrection from the dead three days later—instantly, irrevocably and permanently saved.

The inspired Scripture plainly defines “

for us, so that there is no need for debate...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures.”

The Apostle Paul said in Galatians 1:12 that Jesus directly gave him the Gospel. We read in 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." Here is the simplicity that is in Christ, the Gospel. Jesus died on a cross to pay our debt of sin. He was buried. Three days later Jesus physically resurrected from the dead. These three elements comprise THE GOSPEL. All of the non-essential things that Colin Smith mentioned are NOT a part of the Gospel.

Nowhere does the inspired Word of God require lost sinners to SUBMIT to Jesus as one's sovereign " to be saved. This is the deadly hoax of Lordship Salvation, requiring discipleship and service to get to Heaven. When Smith uses disturbing phrases like if you are willing and obedient

Lord

"if you are ready to pursue what I command" and "submit to me as your sovereign Lord," he is preaching another gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

I love what Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) accurately said...

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past ...
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all."
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the tract: '[10]What Is The Gospel?'

And I also love what Pastor M.R. DeHaan

(1891-1965) accurately wrote...

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for > devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, "Hebrews"; Zondervan Publishing House; 1959 (p. 117)

Pastor Smith utterly fails to separate service from salvation; discipleship from sonship; sanctification from justification. Unfortunately, in so doing Smith misleads and damns the audience, by obscuring and hiding the light of the truth of a free grace Gospel from them (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4). A FALSE GOSPEL cannot produce the required new birth to enter into God's Kingdom (John 3:1-7). **"

YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN

Dear reader, I cannot warn you enough to steer clear of Pacific Garden Mission's toxic 'UNSHACKLED' radio program. After former mission Director Harry Saulnier went to Heaven in 1990, young neo-evangelical yuppies began to take over the rescue mission, who have today turned it into a money-making pseudo-Christian ministry of deadly Lordship Salvation, promoting theological liars; namely, [11]John MacArthur, Colin Smith, Adrian Rogers, Charles Stanley, [12]Dave and Ann Wilson, James Dobson, Robert Jeffress, David Jeremiah and other infidels (to name but a few). Whatever a pastor stops preaching against, his church will fill up with in five years!

Pacific Garden Mission, like ALL neo-evangelicals, refuse to contend for the faith (Jude 1:3), which is how they became neo-evangelicals in the first place. Christian Fundamentalists don't change, people quit being Fundamentalists! A Christian "fundamentalist" is simply someone who is doctrinally correct on the inspired Holy Bible; and they only use the true Bible, which is clearly the inspired King James Bible. ALL of the modern '[13]Westcott and Hort' based Bible revisions, including the Jehovah's Witness' New World Translation (NWT), ruthlessly attack Jesus' deity and the Godhead (i.e., Trinity). For example: In Matthew 8:2 the King James Bible says a leper came to "worship" Jesus, but nearly all of the modern versions change it to "knelt" or "bowed." You can knee before a king without worshipping him.

Please read

" [14]The Crystal Clear Gospel Of Jesus Christ "

by Army chaplain David Rutkin. I also wrote [15]my own blog to proclaim the monumental truth of a free grace Gospel, which is being brutally and relentlessly attacked by the Devil today

. Satan fully knows that if he can subtly influence preachers to add, embellish, change and pollute the true Gospel with manmade traditions, then he has successfully obscured the Gospel, rendering it useless.

My ministry friend Michael P. Bowen wrote these helpful words in his free .pdf format book, page xii (also available for purchase in [17]Kindle or [18]Hardcopy)...

[16]I Never Knew You,

Here is the gospel: God says that we are sinners and that no amount of good works or behavioral changes on our part could ever make us holy enough to enter heaven. God sent His Son to pay for all of our sins. Jesus paid for our crimes by dying on the cross for us all. His dead body was buried in a grave. On the third day, Jesus arose from the dead.

The instant you believe this, He knows it and He saves you. “Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on Me hath everlasting life”(John 6:47). The free gift is based solely upon your trust in what Jesus did for you and has nothing at all to do with what you do for Him. “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast” (Ephesians 2:8-9).

It’s that simple dear reader. Shame on Colin Smith for perverting the Gospel. In his sermon titled, “

[19]The Gospel Perverts Or Jesus,

Pastor Lester Roloff (1914-1982) says it well,

“The worst pervert in America is the gospel pervert!”

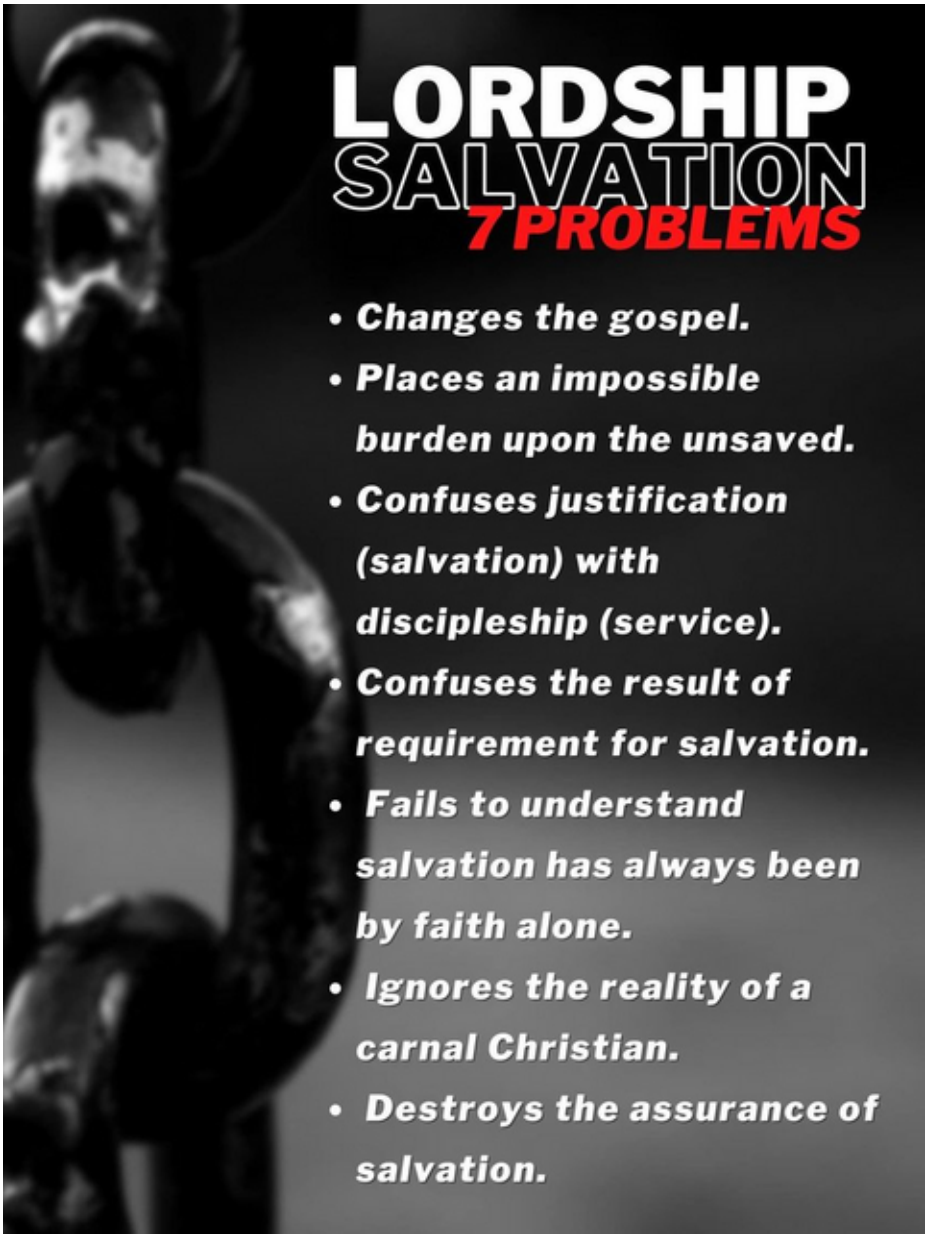
What is Lordship Salvation?



Lordship salvation is a phrase/concept introduced to Christianity by an influential Californian preacher named John MacArthur in the 1970's and 80's.

He is a Calvinist and what he has done is to take the teaching of Calvinism and try to make it acceptable to those who are non-Calvinists. This teaching ends up being partly the teaching of Total Inability, which requires regeneration before faith, and also the Perseverance of the Saints, where a sinner have to hold on and keep working to prove that he can persevere or else he were never saved in the first place.

Why is Lordship Salvation so controversial?

The basic idea of Lordship Salvation teaches that a sinner must be willing to forsake all his/her sins and change their life completely in order to secure their eternal salvation which is absolutely not true.

7 PROBLEMS
• Changes the gospel.
• Places an impossible burden upon the unsaved.
• Confuses justification (salvation) with discipleship (service).
• Confuses the result of requirement for salvation.
• Fails to understand salvation has always been by faith alone.
• Ignores the reality of a carnal Christian.
• Destroys the assurance of salvation.

6.10.16 Shame On President Trump For Pardoning Criminals (2025-10-18 13:43)

Deuteronomy 16:19, “Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous.”

Proverbs 17:23, “A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment.”

I am a Trump supporter, kind of. I sincerely think Mr. Trump is the best U.S. President we’ve had in my 58-year lifetime. But I have a problem with Trump’s sanctioning of over [1]68,000 murders in Palestine by a psychotic lunatic named Benjamin Netanyahu (a war criminal monster who has escaped justice).

Furthermore, I am utterly disgusted after learning yesterday that Mr. Trump has pardoned former corrupt Congressman George Santos, downplaying his serious felony crimes as something that others get away with all the time, so why bother? Respectfully said, SHAME on you Mr. President. SHAME!!! ...

That is sickening injustice! If that were ordinary folks like you or me, we'd be damned to serve out our entire prison sentence without mercy. Why should some scumbag corrupt politician, who openly betrayed his oath of office and the trust of the American people, be set free for his crimes? It just shows how unfair, unjust and reckless President Trump is being with the power that the American people entrusted to him at the last election. SHAME on our U.S. President!

If you've been following the news, then you know that Donald Trump is ruthlessly [2]going after his enemies with the justice system (just as the Democrats wickedly did the same thing to him). John Bolton is being formally indicted over paper work documents. It was President Trump who pushed to have Mr. Bolton prosecuted. Trump has his pet Attorney General Pam Bondi on a leash. He has his own personal prosecutor it seems. The American people are sick and tired of seeing our U.S. justice system being weaponized by politicians against each other.

This just sends a clear message to other scumbag politicians that it is okay to steal, mislead, lie and cheat others. Whether it be the brutal murder of the innocent people in Gaza, or releasing an admitted evil lying piece of trash like George Santos, we have a corrupt U.S. President. Mr. Trump is vindictive to those not loyal to him, and handsomely rewards his allies. This is too eerily resemblant of Nazi Germany and Hitler in World War II. I am not saying that Trump is Hitler, but he is behaving like a reckless dictator when he sets criminals free.

I was also disgusted when Trump set scumbag former Illinois governor Rob Blagojevich free in 2020 (cutting 6 years off his 14-year prison sentence). Why should entrusted leaders be given such immoral breaks that the average American never receives? It is wicked INJUSTICE and CORRUPTION of the legal system!!!

Former National Security Advisor John Bolton (Trump's enemy) is now being indicted for 18 felony counts! If I were the judge, in lieu of Trump setting George Santos free, I'd allow Mr. Bolton to go free to be fair. I mean, 'com on, you cannot free one criminal while locking up another, not if there is TRUE JUSTICE! Or in the Trump Administration is it, "JUST US"? This whole thing may come back to haunt Mr. Trump. Every attorney and Democrat judge across the country will be using Trump's release of Santos as a precedent to commit more injustice!

> Isaiah 1:4-6, "Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy

> One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward. Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment."

The Bible has much to say about a corrupt legal system.

Proverbs 17:23, "A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment." It is my humble opinion that there's more to the story than what we're being told. I was sickened when one of the reasons President Trump cited for releasing George Santos (an admitted and convicted felon) from prison is that George always faithfully voted Republican. You could make this stuff up! SHAME Mr. President. SHAME!!!

By unjustly giving clemency to George Santos, President Trump has made a mockery of our justice system, again. Trump wasted millions of dollars of taxpayer dollars, squandered thousands of hours of everyone involved to bring Santos to justice and Trump effectively pissed on the jury who painstakingly took the time to deliberate the case. And finally, Trump effectively spit upon the presiding judge! What's the use of having laws and a court system, if leaders like Donald Trump disregard them?

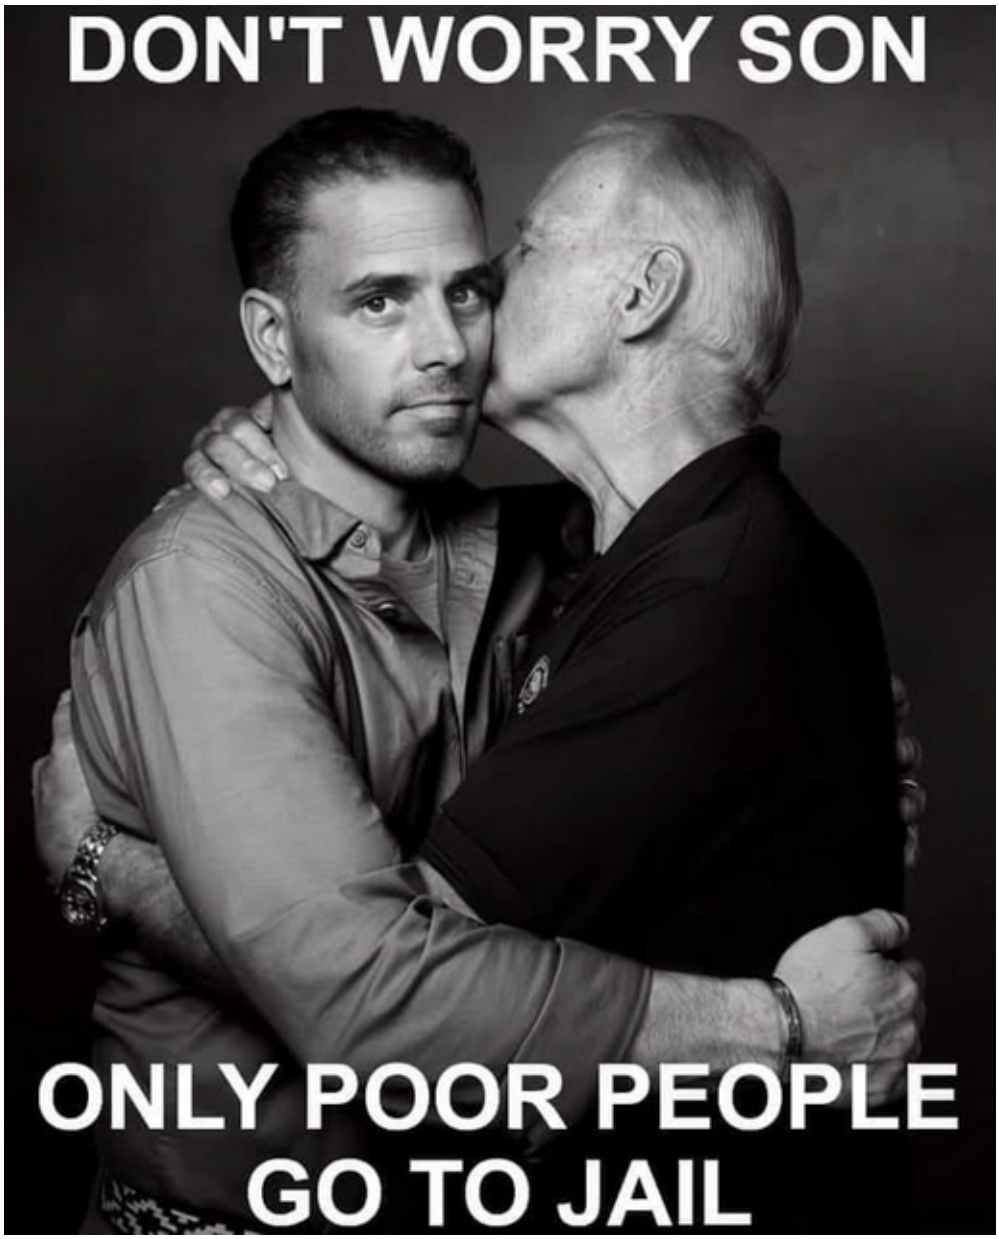
Santos' attorney Andrew Mancilla pathetically said:

> "He is a 36-year-old gay man with no criminal record who came from a broken family," Mancilla said. "He built this ego of a man he wanted to be, not who he was." [3]SOURCE

What is his scumbag lawyer's point, that we should feel sympathy for a homosexual criminal who had a less than perfect home? Such extenuating circumstances are never considered for poor people.

I love President Trump for turning our country around. I am so thankful that he finally rid the government of the Diversity, Equality and Inclusivity (DEI) wicked insanity. I am thankful that President Trump is building up our military, which is critically important to maintain peace. I am thankful that he supports and cares for our U.S. Veterans. I love that Trump gave 4-years of deserved back pay to all the soldiers who were wrongfully fired for refusing to take the potentially lethal COVID-19 vaccination in 2020. God bless President Trump!!!

I fully support President Trump's tariffs; it's about time that we've finally stopped other countries from ripping off the United States. Amen and amen! I have no doubt that Mr. Trump had the sincerest of intentions for giving clemency to former corrupt Congressman George Santos, but it simply isn't fair to the rest of Americans who follow and obey the law. Ecclesiastes 5:8, "If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they." I love that Bible passage. Kindly said, what President Trump did by pardoning Santos is not shewing mercy, it is tyranny. What's the use of having laws if we selectively pardon lawbreakers?



President Trump cited as an excuse for pardoning Santos, that everyone else is doing the same things, but I don't think everyone is stealing other people's identities to commit fraud for financial gain, as Congressman Santos criminally did. There must be rule of law. Our U.S. court system is so unfair. While dangerous [4]murderers are set free, a harmless [5]mother in Kansas was sentenced to life in prison for minor drug possession. There is no justice!!!

And mark my words, convicted sex offender Ghislaine Maxwell will be pardoned by President Trump before he leaves office in 2029, if not much sooner. Miss covered for Donald Trump recently regarding what really happened at Jeffrey Epstein's "[6]Orgy Island" and he will unquestionably repay her loyalty. That is my humble opinion. She has already been relocated from a maximum security prison in Florida, to a minimum security prison in Texas. She's already got one foot out the prison door! We live in one of the most corrupt societies in history!

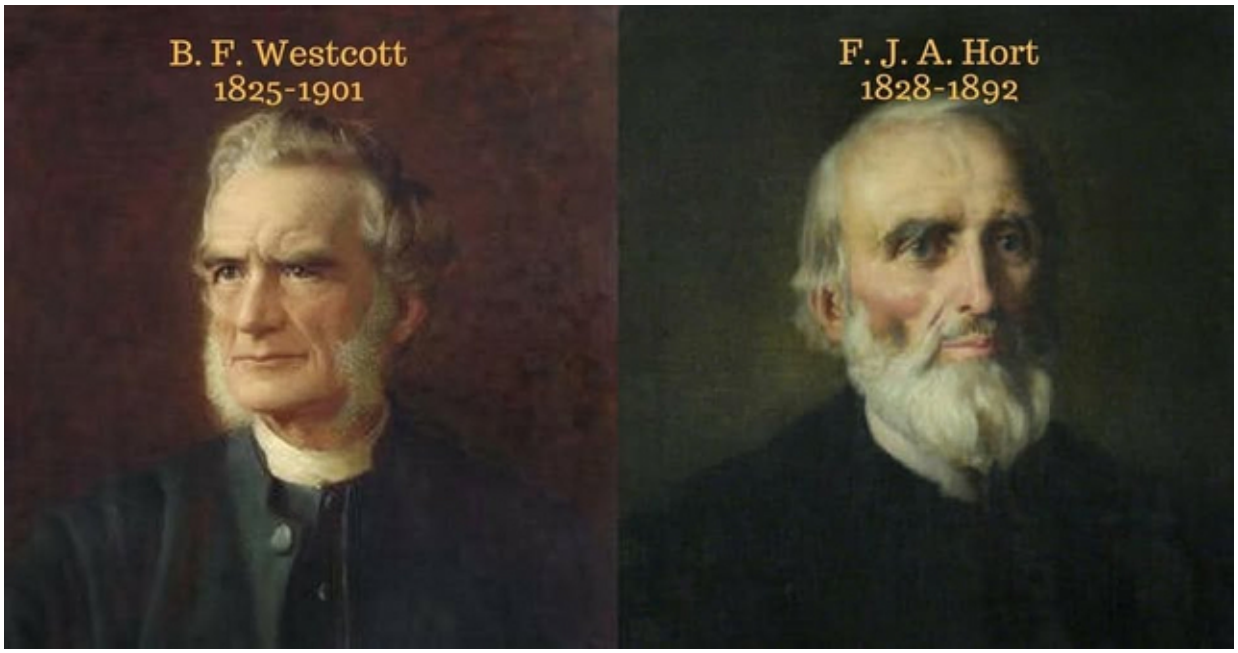
6.10.17 Exposing Infidels' Brooke Westcott And Fenton Hort (2025-10-19 05:29)

WHAT EXACTLY DID WESTCOTT AND HORT BELIEVE???

Westcott and Hort DENIED:



1. the doctrine of the inspiration of Scripture
2. the Genesis record of the Creation and the Fall of man
3. the Deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, His eternal pre-existence and Godhead, His Messiahship, and His sinlessness
4. the substitutionary atonement of Christ and redemption by His blood
5. the bodily resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ
6. the Second Coming of Christ
7. the doctrine of Eternal Life
8. the reality of Heaven and Hell
9. the personality of the Devil

Westcott and Hort BELIEVED IN:

1. the inherent goodness and perfectibility of man
2. the Darwinian theory of Evolution
3. the Universal Fatherhood of God
4. the ultimate salvation of all men
5. the efficacy of water baptism for Regeneration

Westcott and Hort were false prophets, ravening wolves in sheep's clothing (Matthew 7:15) "deceitful workers, transforming themselves into … ministers of righteousness" (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15). Their theories of Textual Criticism are false and must be utterly rejected. Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023) [1]exposes Westcott and Hort for the infidels they were.

6.10.18 You Don't Have To Repent Of Sin To Get To Heaven, You Must Be 100% Sinless (2025-10-20 11:14)

Please read this blatant satanic heresy preached by false prophet Paul Washer:

> "No, no, if you don't have works, you're going to Hell!"
> SOURCE: Paul Washer; [1]Paul Brainwasher: "If You Don't Have Works, You Are Going To Hell"

[2]More Self-Incrimination Damnable Evidence By Paul Washer

Evangelist Paul Washer is one of the most dangerous false teachers behind America's pulpits! Beware of the Devil's lie of Calvinism, which is not the Gospel of free grace!!! The true Gospel only focuses on CHRIST, but a false gospel focuses on YOU!

Run away from any [3]corrupt preacher (or [4]bad Bible college like Bob Jones University) who teach that YOU must repent of YOUR sin to be saved. No such thing is taught in the King James Bible!!! The Bible says that all of our righteousness is as "filthy rags" to God (Isaiah 64:6). The truth is that no man has ever turned away from his sins (Ecclesiastes 7:20). Dear reader, you don't have to repent of your sinning to get to Heaven, you must be totally 100 % perfect and sinless. Obviously that is IMPOSSIBLE, which even Christ said Himself (Matthew 19:25-26).

That is why God sent His only begotten Son into the world, to pay our debt of sin for us (2nd Corinthians 5:21). Hence, we are saved by "GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS," through faith alone in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9; Romans 10:3-4). That is not what Paul Washer is preaching! [5]Look at this nightmarish garbage that Evangelist Ray Comfort preaches!

Folks, the Bible is abundantly clear that there is only ONE GOSPEL (Galatians 1:6-9). 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 defines that Gospel of Christ's death on the cross for our sins, His burial, and miraculous bodily resurrection three days later for our justification (i.e., our faith in Him is not in vain). What an awesome God and Savior!!!

I don't care how rotten in character, sinful in behavior or contemptible in reputation you may be dear friend, if you're RESTING solely in Christ's death on the cross for your sins, His burial and physical resurrection as your only hope for Heaven, you are 100 % WASHED of your sins and legally DECLARED RIGHTEOUS in God's sight (Hebrews 4:10-11; 1st Corinthians 6:9-11; Romans 5:6-9).

Every believer falls IN GRACE, but never FROM GRACE (Romans 5:20; 6:1). The only ones who fall FROM GRACE are those self-righteous heretics like Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Paul Washer, Sam Horn, Charles Phelps, John MacArthur, John Piper, Adrian Rodgers, Ray Comfort, Jeff Redlin and other infidels who ADD works to faith (Galatians 5:4). Adding even the slightest human effort to faith prevents the new birth. The Devil's greatest weapon has always been to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again (Matthew 7:21-23).

Dear friend, you don't have to repent of your sins to get to Heaven, you need to have your sins completely taken away. Thankfully, God sent His only begotten Son into the world 2,000 years ago to die in our place on a cross, to pay down our massive debt of sin which we could not pay. Christ was taken down from the cross and prepared for burial according to Jewish custom by Nicodemus and Joseph of Arimathea. He was placed into a grave tomb. Three days later Jesus raised up triumphant over death. JESUS PAID IT ALL!

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

Getting saved is not a matter of YOU being willing to forsake a sinful lifestyle. No, Christ died on a cross 2,000 years ago to pay for everyone's sins with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). Salvation is strictly a matter of what CHRIST DID FOR YOU dear friend, and not about what you can do for Him. Salvation is of the LORD (Jonah 2:9).

Whatever changes in thinking and behavior God desires to see happen in your life AFTER you get saved is solely His department. Living a changed life is strictly a matter of Christian service and discipleship, and not of salvation and sonship. Simply put, a man does not become better to be saved, he gets saved to become better. The Holy Spirit doesn't need our help, we need His as redeemed children of God. Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15-18).

We must stay true to the simplicity of the Gospel!! Repentance regarding salvation is a change of mind from unbelief to belief. We must "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints" (Jude 1:3). Thank you for reading my ministry blog.

6.10.19 Our Time On Earth Is Almost Over (2025-10-23 11:47)

James 4:14, "Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away."

1st Corinthians 7:29-31, "But this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none; And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not; And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away."

I enjoy watching astronomy documentaries, learning about the grand scale of God's magnificent creation. Sometimes I cry, when I am overwhelmed with the truth that God, who created trillions upon trillions of galaxies, could even love a clump of clay like me. Psalms 144:3, "LORD, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him! or the son of man, that thou makest account of him!" What an awesome God!

It's been cleverly said that life is short, Hell is hot and eternity is a long time. Never truer words were spoken! In comparison to the billions of years that our universe has existed, what is man's threescore and ten years on earth? Just to be clear, I am not an evolutionist. I do not agree with Theistic Evolution (i.e., the idea that God created the universe and then it evolved). I reject those type of claims. That being said, I think it is scientifically and biblically accurate that our earth is very old indeed. Psalms 102:25, "Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands."

Let me be clearer still. I reject the absurd idea of Young Earth Creationism (YEC). One big reason why I reject such nonsense is because if it is true, it would mean dinosaurs roamed the earth with humans 5,000 years ago; and if you know anything about science, that is preposterous! Scientists tell us that dinosaurs lived from 60 to 220 million years ago. I accept that fact. Neither do I reject the literal 6-days of creation in Genesis chapters 1 and 2. In this 6-day time frame, God [1]REMODELED His creation which was made in Genesis 1:1. There is MUCH [2]more evidence in support of an old earth, than a young earth.

Dear Christian reader, I encourage you to continue "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith"

(Hebrews 12:2a). Our time on earth remaining is short. Remember, we are Pilgrims just passing through, not Settlers!

This world is not my home, I'm just a passing through

My treasures are laid up somewhere beyond the blue;

The angels beckon me from heaven's open door,

And I can't feel at home in this world anymore.

This World Is Not My Home (Jim Reeves)

I love that song and think about it often! Jesus, “

Beam me Up!

” Sorry, I’m a big Star Trek fan. It won’t be much longer now, I can hear those angels singing on Heaven’s golden streets. Even so, come, lord Jesus!

We are surrounded by the wicked on every side.

Here is an excellent quote from Pastor E.M. Bounds (1835-1913)...

> ’The world’ includes the mass of humanity that is alienated from God and therefore hostile to the cause of Christ. It involves worldly affairs, earthly things, riches, pleasures, and pursuits that are shallow, frail, and fleeting. These things stir desire, draw us away from God, and are obstacles to the cause of Christ. The divorced or torn relationships between heaven and earth, between God and His creatures, finds its expression in the term ’the world.”’ —Pastor Edward M. Bounds, a quote from chapter 7 - ’Overcoming The Enemy Of God,’ from the classic book titled: “GUIDE TO SPIRITUAL WARFARE”

When President Trump leaves office and a Democrat eventually returns to power, I sadly expect to see this country descend into the abyss of darkness like never before. God-fearing saints are still sickened and numb over the plethora of wickedness that President Joe Biden unleashed upon our nation (from open borders to ungodly D.E.I. movement). But dear reader, read what the Bible says in Job 20:5, “That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?” We are already on THE WINNING SIDE through faith in Jesus Christ! Romans 8:37, “

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

I don’t know about you dear friend, but I just can’t feel at home in this world anymore. I want to go home to be with Jesus! Read the beautiful inspired words which the Apostle Paul wrote...

> Philippians 1:21-27a, “For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not. For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better: Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you. And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith; That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again. Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ...”

As God’s redeemed children, we should always season our words with grace, redeeming the time by sharing the Gospel with others. I don’t know how much time I have remaining on earth, but by God’s grace I have committed the rest of my earthly life to preaching the truth of the Gospel, contending for the faith and helping to feed Jesus’ sheep.

Psalms 90:12, “

So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

As I mentioned earlier, I enjoy watching astronomy videos. I saw this one today...

What Is Nothing? Exploring The Void Of Space.

The video's narrator opens by making an astounding comparison between our solar system's sun, which is as the size of a single grain of sand on a large beach when compared to the entire universe. So far, hard-working astronomers have estimated that there are at least [3]20 TRILLION galaxies in the known universe, and each galaxy contains hundreds of billions of stars (suns just like our own in the Milky Way galaxy, and even 1,700 times larger). These are just stars they've discovered thus far! And to think, God has a specific name for each and every star.

He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names.

" I am speechless!

Dear reader, we serve an omnipotent Creator. Thankfully He is a good God, who pardons iniquities (sins) or else we'd all hopelessly burn in Hell forever! Micah 7:18,

"Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

" Oh needy sinner, I don't care what evil thing you may have done, God delighteth in mercy. The Lutheran minister cannot forgive your sins. The Catholic priest cannot absolve your sins.

Mark 2:7,

"Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only?

" Oh, but Jesus who has the nail-scared hands and feet, CAN forgive men's sins!!!

There are FOUR philosophical questions that science cannot answer, and never will be able to give a plausible answer:

1. When did the universe begin?
2. When will the universe end?
3. How big is the universe?
4. How small is the universe?

These are impossible questions. No matter how far you go to their extremes, you can still go farther. It is IMPOSSIBLE for the universe to have an end. If it did, what lies beyond that end? There cannot be nothing. The universe simply cannot be unlimited in size. The only logical answer is God.

It is IMPOSSIBLE that time just began at some point. If so, then what existed before time? Likewise, how can the future end? It cannot go on forever without end! It would makes no sense that the future will never end

And as scientists develop more powerful atomic microscopes, they are peering closer and closer into the molecules and atoms which comprise the universe. Yet, there is always more to see! Can there be an end to how small our universe is? I think not. These are perplexing philosophical questions, which only ungodly arrogant men like Steven Hawking (1942-2018) attempt to answer without including God.

I heard Dr. Hawking say that the universe came from nothing. That only makes plausible sense if you believe in God, which he sadly didn't. The Laws of Thermodynamics state that neither matter nor energy can be destroyed, they can only be converted to different forms. Yet, it is IMPOSSIBLE for matter and energy to have always existed. So where did they come from?

Stephen Hawking was a lying hypocrite to make such arrogant bold statements, while wickedly denying the existence of an omnipotent divine Creator. The fact that God created and maintains the universe makes perfect sense! We are the Lord's handiwork. God spoke the universe into existence by the Word of His mouth (2nd Peter 3:5), but He lovingly formed man from the dust with His magnificent Potter's hands. Only mankind was made with God's hands.

Our time here on earth is winding down dear friend. People die unexpectedly every day all around the world. If you ever visit a cemetery, I encourage you to walk around and look at the gravestone markings for the year people were born and died. You'll be surprised as I was to see the vast array of ages that people died. I [4]visited a small cemetery in 2013 in Hilo, Hawaii. I like to visit cemeteries as a Baptist preacher, which reminds me of how short life is, and the dire need to preach the [5]Gospel of free grace to as many people as possible while we still can.

6.10.20 My Humble Christian Opinion About Celebrating Halloween, Christmas And Easter (2025-10-24 12:46)

Romans 14:22, "Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth."

I saw this ridiculous meme today...

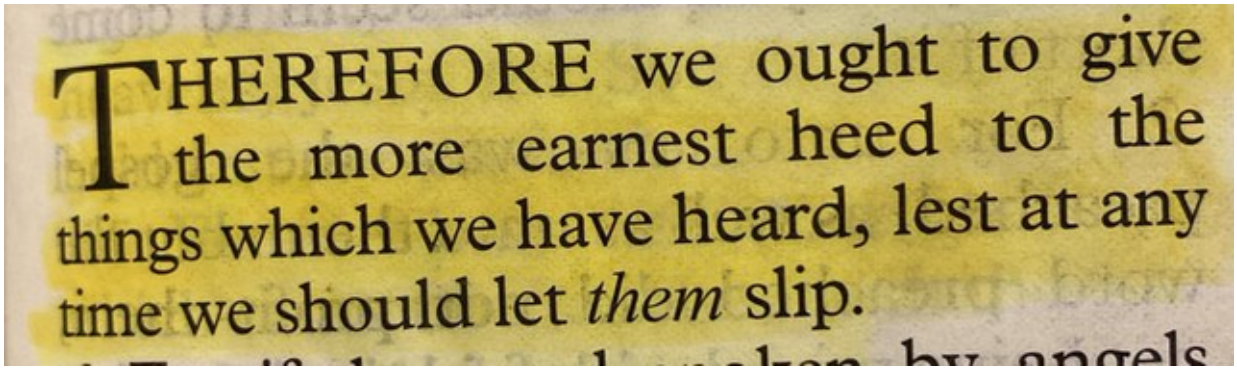
Nutty Religious Propaganda

This meme is such wacky religious bullcrap! When families go out 'Trick-or-treating,' they're just having innocent fun, regardless of what paranoid religious retards say. Although it is true that the origins of Halloween are unquestionably Satanic (just like half of everything else in society), people do not celebrate the holiday as such in the United States. I know some people will strongly disagree with me on this topic, but it wouldn't be the first time I am sure. I loved Trick-or-treating as a kid, and I didn't throw tomatoes at anyone's house who didn't answer the door (i.e., there was no mean trick returned if I didn't get a treat).

Neither do Americans worship Babylonian decorated trees at Christmas time (Jeremiah 10:1). It's just a tree, unless you bow down to worship it, which I don't recommend.

Nor do Americans worship Ēostre, the fertility goddess on Easter. It's just fun for the children; coloring and hunting for Easter Eggs.

I am sick and tired of legalists badgering and demonizing everyone for partaking of our traditional American culture during the holidays. In fact, no one is inviting demons into their home by carving pumpkins, coloring Easter eggs or decorating a Christmas tree. So, unless you are a pagan who has a problem with worshipping idols, I say go ahead and enjoy the holidays!



My religious nutcase boss many years ago, freaked out over these crazy things, while strutting around listening to his so-called "Christian rock music," which is far more spiritually harmful than having fun on Halloween! He told me one day at work that if his church ever gives out pumpkins for Halloween to draw kids to church, he'd quit immediately. What a religious hypocrite! If a local church can give away pumpkins to kids, to encourage them to come learn about Jesus, then I see no harm in that. I am all for using church promotions.

That being said, I think Christian people need to be informed about the dark origin of certain American holidays, but as long as we don't celebrate them in their original sinful design, it's not a sin. As an illustration, I take prescription pain drugs for relentless chronic neck pain, which are potentially lethal if misused. But I have always taken the drugs responsibly, as directed by my doctor. Sadly, many people in the United States are abusive with substances (primarily drugs and alcohol), which is why suffering patients like me cannot obtain an adequate amount of pain medications. It's not fair, but there's nothing I can do about it, except complain. I digress.

I humbly think it's perfectly okay for families to have fun with Santa Claus, just so long as you don't mislead children to think he is real. Kids need to know the truth that Jesus is real, but Santa is not. It is disturbing how upset religious people become over these trifle matters, while neer sharing the Gospel with a single soul. How about paying your bills on time? How about keeping your word? How about returning something that you borrowed but never returned?
I feel sorry for people who've been so brainwashed by religion, that they think it is evil to display pumpkins on Halloween. I love pumpkins, and pumpkin pie! Amen! To eat his own, these are my thoughts.

Churches everywhere are letting the Gospel (the truth) slip away. Today's corrupt Bible colleges like Pensacola Christian College and Bob Jones University are primarily to blame, for sending out theologically incompetent graduates to ruin the churches. They're letting the inspired Word of God slip away, and instead adopting corrupt perversions of God's Word. The consequential results have been devastating.

The free grace Gospel has few friends today. Satan is so clever and subtle that he has billions of heathen hellbound churchgoers convinced that faith must include and/or produce works to be valid. Satan is a beautiful liar! God's curse is upon evil institutions like Pensacola Christian College and their ungodly [3]FOUR DIFFERENT PLANS OF SALAVTION! These people are as unloving and hateful toward outsiders as they are theologically incompetent. As Morgan Freeman says in the 2014 blockbuster movie, 'Transcendence'... "

RUN FROM THIS PLACE!

There are far worse things for us to be concerned about nowadays than people just having fun on the holidays. To each his own. Granted, I wouldn’t allow my child to dress up like a witch or a demon, but there are plenty of fun costumes that they can innocently wear. If you don’t believe in celebrating certain holidays, then good for you, don’t do it. But I don’t think anyone should condemn others who do. Some of the biggest religious nutcases I’ve ever met, made a big fuss over celebrating the traditional holidays of our American culture.

I humbly see no harm in it as a Christian. I understand that this is a highly controversial topic, but I just think we need to make a clear distinction between those who truly do worship Satan on Hallowed Ween, versus American families with small children who just love a big giant bag full of candy the morning after, like I did as a kid each year. To each their own.

6.10.21 Here’s A Beautiful Song By ’The Cathedrals’ (2025-10-24 13:49)

Mexico (The Cathedrals)

6.10.22 U.S. Government Has Utterly Failed The American People (2025-10-25 11:32)

Isaiah 9:16, “For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.”

I am really trying to give President Trump my sincere support, but he is making it hard. I was sickened today to learn that Mr. Trump has [1]just given $20,000,000,000 of our taxpayer money (during our government being shut down) to help Argentina’s failing economy, while millions of Americans are hurting in poverty. Tens of thousands of government employees are out of work right now, standing in soup lines for a handout. Homelessness is now a national crisis!

I and my wife went to Walmart yesterday and were shocked to see a 3-pack of ribeye now costs $64. No, we didn’t buy it, and we won’t! If this keeps going on, we’re going to see dark things we’ve never seen before in the United States. We’re not leaving the house unless we have to! 42,000,000 people without their S.N.A.P. benefits just may SNAP!

The price of gold today is a staggering $4,112.31 per ounce. Yikes! Gold doesn’t soar that high unless something is very wrong in our economy.

This is just plain WRONG what President Trump is doing. He seems to be helping everybody except the American people. Our bridges and roads are falling apart. Nearly half of Americans cannot afford to have their rotting teeth fixed. The federal minimum wages is still $7.25 an insulting hour, which is evil. This does not make sense! I believe we are not being told the full story. Bad times are ahead for the U.S.!

6.10.23 There's No Excuse For Using The Devil's Bible Versions (2025-10-27 12:16)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, "For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ."

Did you know that even many unsaved people recognize something is very wrong with the modern English Bible translations? The tragedy is that most American pastors today are blind to this truth. Instead of crying aloud against sin and exposing evil, today's brutish pastors help promote it! [1]Secular Professor Sees Danger Of Ever-Changing Bible Versions! Why can't many Baptist preachers discern the truth that Satan is behind the modern Bible perversions? It is truly pathetic!

I have very little admiration for any pastor who has been warned, but sinfully maintains an attitude of indifference toward the purity of God's Words. Psalms 119:140, "Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it." The psalmist said that he loved God's Word because IT IS VERY PURE, not just pure, but very pure! So why in the world would God expect us to love any Bible today that is full of errors and mistakes? I am sick and tired of hearing Bible preachers correct the King James Bible. The inspired Word of God doesn't need to be rewritten, it needs to be reread! I find no fault in the King James Bible!!!

There is no greater and more important responsibility in the world than being a pastor of a local New Testament church. It is a crying shame when church laymen with websites are more doctrinally correct than ordained pastors of churches! It is a crying shame when a church layman with a website cares more about the accuracy of the Gospel, and the purity of God's inspired Word, than most church pastors do! Truly, the LOVE OF MONEY is the root of all evil.

We've got a bunch of college brats pastoring churches today, who are apathetic toward THE TRUTH. When you try to help them, being a true friend, they resent your help. Proverbs 17:4, "A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue." Instead of taking heed to the truth, they arrogantly ground themselves further in their errant position (with their ungodly ecumenical peers in the clergy). There is NO EXCUSE for any pastor, church, evangelist or Bible college to use Satan's corrupt Bible versions.

Thank God for the few courageous pastors today who do take a stand for the King James Bible, such as Dr. Ralph Yankee Arnold, pastor of the soulwinning 'Calvary Community Church' in Tampa, Florida...

> [3] KING JAMES VERSION IS THE ONLY ACCURATE TRANSLATION TODAY! |
> [4]MP3 (Pastor Ralph '[5]Yankee' Arnold)

Pastor Jeff Owens preached a wonderful sermon upholding the inspiration of the King James Bible titled, "[6]The King James Bible Is Not Corrupt!" I am supportive of those who support THE TRUTH! Here's an awesome MP3 sermon by Pastor Steven Anderson titled: "[7]What It Means To Be King James Bible Only." There's just something special about the King James Bible! I'll tell you what it is—THE KING JAMES BIBLE IS INSPIRED!!!

Dear reader, you may not be a pastor of a church, [8]BUT YOU HAVE A VOICE! Your voice counts! Some of my web visitors are surprised when they learn that I am okay with those who disagree with me. You have the God given liberty to make your own decisions friend. Everyone has a right to their own opinion , but no one has a right to their own facts! Sometimes I disagree with God. I disagree with God that anyone should burn in Hell forever, so that even after trillions of years have passed there are still no second chances. That being said, it doesn't matter what I think because God always knows what is best, and I trust Him implicitly.

I am as narrow-minded as the King James Bible! If you don't believe that the King James Bible is God's inspired Word, then we have no common ground to have a spiritual conversation! When a man tells me that he doesn't believe God authored the Holy Bible, I know immediately that I cannot reach him, because he is a fool. I mean, from that point on my only attempt is to convince Him why I believe that the Holy Bible is God's Word. If men would write the Bible they couldn't, and if they could they wouldn't. Mankind is inherently sinful, full of wrath and rebellious against God.

> "The Bible will always be full of things you cannot understand, as long as you will not live according to those you can understand." —Billy Sunday May I kindly say, you DON'T have "a right" to use any Bible that you choose. God did not author 139 different Bible versions. Common sense should tell you that, but moreover, all of the modern Bible versions horribly [9]attack the deity of the Lord Jesus Christ! You DON'T have " a right

" to pick whatever Bible version you feel comfortable using. God's Words are not open to human censorship.

All of these new ungodly demonic Bible versions completely remove the word "sodomite"! God calls homosexuals "SODOMITES," showing that they will suffer the same eternal damnation in Hell as did Sodom! Jude 1:7, "Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire." Sodom and four other surrounding cities were utterly destroyed by fire and brimstone rained down from Heaven! Homosexuality is a very wicked, filthy, horrible, disgusting, abnormal and abominable sin in God's eyes, which brings the judgment of God! Today's apostate churches are accepting the LGBTQ agenda because they are not filled with the Holy Spirit of God; they are merely playing church!

> "The problem with America is you dumb preachers!" —Pastor Bob Gray Sr., "[10]Is There A Place Called Hell?"

No one has a right to choose which Bible best fits them! You are either going to listen to what God says about man, or what man says about God. Only the inspired King James Bible honors the Lord Jesus Christ, suffers no fools, boldly proclaims Jesus' deity, doesn't feminize the Word of God, and retains the integrity of Bible theology. If you are a fool, then choose some modern counterfeit Bible! The King James Bible is not merely a "version," it is the inspired Holy Bible!!! I pray that today's cowardly pastors would grow a backbone and start rejecting and preaching against Satan’s counterfeit Bible revisions.

Romans 3:4, “God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.”

> “Courage doesn’t mean you don’t get afraid. Courage means you don’t let fear stop you.” —Bethany Hamilton

Devil’s Counterfeit Bible Versions [11]Attack the Deity Of The Lord Jesus Christ

By the way, the modern Bible PERversions completely remove Acts 8:37. Here is what the inspired King James Bible reads (I have underlined verse 37):

> Acts 8:36-38, “And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.”

Please make sure you are sitting down! Now here is what the corrupt Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) reads:

> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) - Acts 8:36-37, "While they were traveling down the road, they came to some water. The official said, “Look, here is water! What is stopping me from being baptized?” [MISSING!] Then the official ordered the chariot to stop. Both Philip and the official went down into the water, and Philip baptized him."

And here is the corrupt English Standard Version (ESV) that Bob Jones University (BJU) wickedly uses, promotes and sells in their Bruins bookstore. ...

> ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - Acts 8:36-38, "And as they were going along the road they came to some water, and the eunuch said, “See, here is water! What prevents me from being baptized?” [MISSING!] And he commanded the chariot to stop, and they both went down into the water, Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him."

Acts 8:37 is completely MISSING in the ESV!

Kindly, the Bob Jones camp are helping to strengthen the hand of the wicked, by promoting the Devil’s fake Bible versions. Ezekiel 13:22, “Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life.” These modern corrupt Bibles are full of lies which deceive men’s souls and strengthen the wicked.

And here is the popular corrupt New International Version (NIV) used in most churches today...

> NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION (NIV) - Acts 8:37-39, “As they traveled along the road, they came to some water and the eunuch said, ’Look, here is water. What can stand in the way of my being baptized?’ [MISSING!] And he gave orders to stop the chariot. Then both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water and Philip baptized him.”

>
> And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

Why? Clearly, this is a demonic assault on the deity of Jesus! These corrupted Bible versions completely remove believing on the Son of God, teaching that the Ethiopian eunuch got saved by just being baptized in water. IT IS WICKEDNESS!!! Are you okay with that? Am I such a horrible person for making an issue about this evil? I think not. We’ll see what God thinks at the Judgment Seat of Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:10-11; Romans 14:10-12; Galatians 6:7).

2nd Corinthians 11:6, “But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.” I may come across as a troublemaker to some people, but I am not ignorant of Satan’s devices! Ahab thought the prophet Elijah was a troublemaker too, but Elijah said it was wicked Ahab who was causing trouble in Israel (1st Kings 18:17-18). It is wicked neo-evangelical pastors and churches, and corrupt Bible colleges today ,who are causing TROUBLE by refusing to earnestly contend for the Christian faith as the Bible commands in Jude 1:3, Ephesians 5:11 and Titus 1:9-14.

Indifference is a horrible sin! We should all care. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) cared, which is why I love him so much as my hero of the Christian faith. ...

> "Now you say, 'Brother Hyles, you make an issue.' You dead sure better know I'll make an issue!" —'[12]BATTLE OF THE AGES' (MP3, Dr. Jack Hyles, "The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!")

I'm making an issue too! We are engaged today in " [13]THE BATTLE OF THE AGES " (preached by Brother Hyles in 1994). Sadly, most Bible colleges and churches nowadays sinfully take tampering with the inspired Word of God lightly. Is it nothing to you Oh Christian? Use the brain that God gave you! Matthew 5:8, "Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God." Always be pure of heart! Those who are pure of heart will always eventually end up at Jesus' feet and the King James Bible, that is, THE TRUTH!

A Solider Is Only As Effective As His Weapon

Can you imagine if our U.S. troops went to war against the Chinese, and all our guys had to fight with were BB guns? No way, I'd want a Thompson Machine Gun! The inspired Holy Scripture calls the preacher who contends for the faith "a soldier." Notice that the Bible doesn't say to "BE STRONG"; but rather, it says to "BE STRONG IN THE GRACE THAT IS IN CHRIST JESUS." We don't grow in strength as believers, we grow in grace. The Bible-believing preacher has been chosen by God to be a soldier. ...

> 2nd Timothy 2:1-7, "Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also. Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier. And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully. The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits. Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things."

How many ministers today view them self as being a soldier for Jesus Christ? I tell you, not many! Most pastors, Bible professors and evangelists these days are fraternizing with the enemy. The world is our enemy (1st John 2:15-17). The Devil is our enemy (1st Peter 5:8). The flesh is our enemy (1st Peter 2:11). To be effective, a soldier needs to have a superb weapon! That weapon is the inspired Word of God. Hebrews 4:12, "For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart."

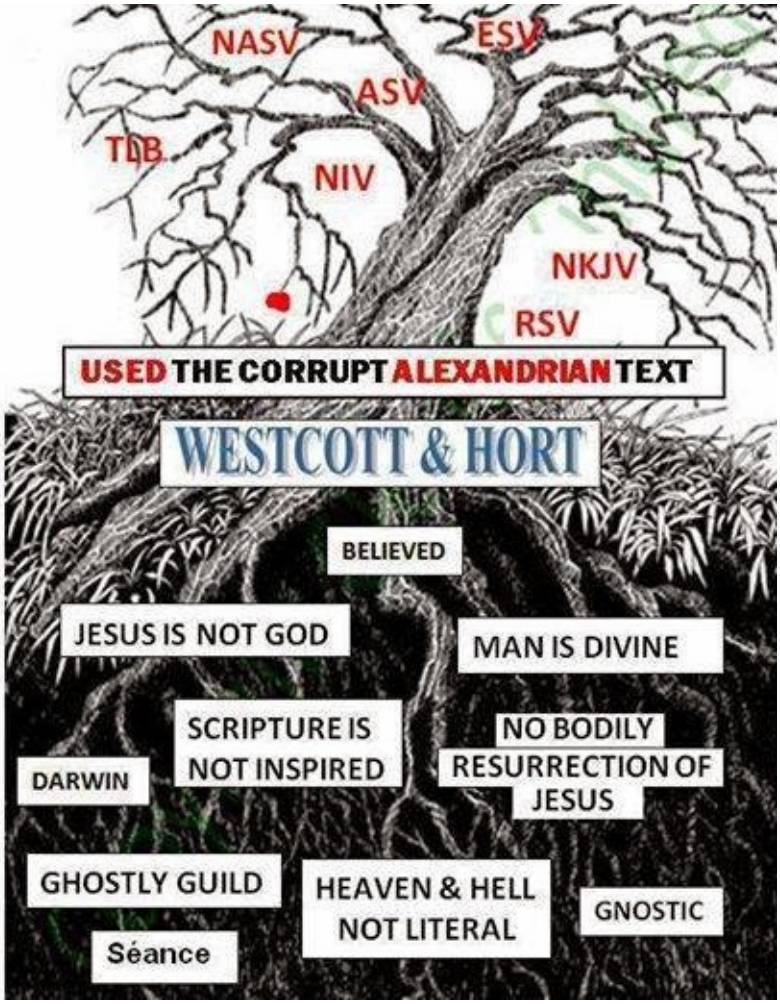
Thank God for giving us such a powerful weapon! If I were the Devil, I would sabotage the weaponry! I feel sorry for ecumenical neo-evangelical pastors today who have traded in their well-oiled Thompson Machine Gun (i.e., the inspired King James Bible), for a dilapidated rusted Red Ryder BB gun (i.e., the modern versions). Today's pastors and churches have lost their authority, because they are no longer using the powerful weapon of the King James Bible!

[14]Running Short On Authority

(Pastor Lester Roloff, 1914-1982)

The Christian soldier is most dangerous to Satan when he is on his knees praying! Remember, God answers KNEE-MAIL! Ephesians 6:12-18 lists seven spiritual weapons of warfare for the Christian; namely: truth, Gospel, salvation, prayer, Word of God, righteousness and faith.

ALL SEVEN WEAPONS of the believer are stripped away by using the Devil's counterfeit Bible versions, because corruptible words cannot produce the require new birth (1st Peter 1:23). A corrupt tree can only produce corrupt fruit!



Most Christians do not use these weapons and are ineffective for God. Using the modern Bible versions deprives a believer of the Sword of the Spirit! The modern versions change THE TRUTH of God into a lie (Romans 1:25). The modern versions corrupt the truth, and in so doing corrupt the Gospel and hinder men from being saved by faith (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4). Without regeneration there can be no righteousness! Without regeneration there can be no reformation!

Matthew 6:7, "But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking."

Matthew 15:8-9, "This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

[2]Catholicism's Vain Repetitions

Isn't it interesting that the word "vain" in Matthew 6:7 and 15:8 perfectly describe the deadly Roman Catholic religion. From the cradle to the casket, Roman Catholicism has a religious package for you! The Catholics love their vain repetitive prayers, rituals and chants—teaching for doctrines the TRADITIONS of men, vainly worshipping God.

The word "vain" means that Catholics are wasting their time, because God does not accept false worship. By the way, I couldn't help but noticed that the photo of the nun looks like a cute penguin...lol. I love this [3]Sesame Street episode (Telly hits a penguin, and all the jury members are penguins...lol). Gotta love penguins!

Jesus plainly taught in John 4:24 that God can only be worshipped in spirit and in truth, and not in recited chants, idol worship or confessing one's sins to a priest who is saturated with sins himself. God does not accept empty worship. If you've ever been to a Catholic Church, then you know that they don't sincerely pray. All of their so-called "prayers" are robotically recited from memory, which they learned from a Catholic prayer book. It's all lip service.

Just as Cain, Catholics commit the same fatal sin of not obeying the Commandments of God. Instead of offering a blood sacrifice (symbolic of the Lamb of God, Jesus) as did Abel, Cain brought grains from his hard toil and labor. Cain attempted to impress God with his own self-righteousness; whereas Abel expressed his faith in the coming Messiah with a blood sacrifice.

Kindly said, the counterfeit religions of Roman and Russian Orthodox Catholicism are rooted in self-righteousness. They think that by keeping their religious Sacraments that God will be pleased with them. No, no, no!!! It is a paved religious road to Hell. From the cradle to the casket Catholicism is of the Devil. Religion is NOT the way to Heaven. Jesus Christ is the way to Heaven (John 14:6). Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world.

> "But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."
> —Matthew 15:9

The Catholic Church is NO church at all because they teach [4]manmade doctrines. A perfect example is the [5]Assumption of Mary doctrine, officially establish by the Vatican in 1950 by Pope Pius XII. There is no such biblical teaching, nor is it even found in the Catholic's magisterium (church traditions). You can't just make up your own rules. The Bible teaches in John 10:1-9 that you MUST enter through The Gate to get into Heaven. That Gate (or Door) is Jesus! Anyone who tries to get into Heaven some other way is " a thief and a robber.

You can't break into Heaven with a jack hammer, nor use a grappling hook to scale it's walls, nor dig under the wall; you MUST enter freely through the Gate by FAITH in Jesus' precious name. Amen!

I recently watched a Catholic program on EWTN (Eternal Word Television Network). The entire show was all about praising Mary. That is all Catholics talk about, Moher Mary. Sadly, religious stops a thinking mind! A standard Rosary recital requires 53 "Hail Marys." That's vain repetitions, which the Bible strongly condemns.

Matthew 15:9, " But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

As I watched EWTN, a few words were spoken and then they all started chanting like zombies. The priest would make a statement praising Mary and then dozens of Catholics in robes would follow with the chant, "We pray to thee." It was like a cult ceremony, surely not resemblant of anything which Jesus taught in the inspired Scripture.

Here's what I heard on the Catholic EWTN . . .

Mary, Queen of Heaven...
we pray to thee
Mary, Queen of all saints...

we pray to thee
Mary, Queen of angels...

we pray to thee
Mary, Queen of the Rosary...

we pray to thee

Mary, Queen of the Church...

we pray to thee
and so on...it lasted for about 5 minutes

Please beware of false religion! Nearly everything about Roman Catholicism is contrary to the plain teachings of the inspired Word of God. Nowhere in Scripture are we directed in any way to praise, hail or show ANY devotion whatsoever to Mary (or any other dirty, rotten sinner like Mary). Yes, Mary was a sinner. She was not without "original sin" as Catholicism claims (what they call " [6]Immaculate Conception "). The Bible declares in Romans 3:23a, " For all have sinned...

The Catholic religion is so rebellious against the inspired Holy Bible that they even deceitfully teach Mary was a "perpetual virgin." Mark 6:3 tells us that Jesus had brothers and sisters, so Mary was NOT a virgin after she married Joseph. Joseph was Mary's husband. In Matthew 1:20, the Angel of the Lord comforted Joseph concerning his "wife" to be, "...fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost." Mary did NOT remain a virgin! So please stop lying by calling her a "virgin."

Roman Catholicism leads people to pray lifeless and empty vain repetitions!

The Bible speaks about making merry melody in our hearts to the Lord (Ephesians 5:19); not reciting the dead and morbid chants of the Catholic religion. If the dead could sing, I think it would [7]sound like the Rosary being chanted by a bunch of nuns. Why don't we ever see Catholic men chanting the Rosary? BEWARE of false religion dear friend!!!

God wants us to pray and sing praise to Him from our heart. Roman Catholics are duped by the extravagance, formalism and mysticism of the Catholic religion. If the Pope is speaking in Latin, he must really know his stuff, right? Folks, it's all a big show to sucker you and your money into the Catholic cult. The Pope speaks in Latin to impress everybody, while no one has any clue what he's saying. The priests drink their wine from golden cups. Candles are placed into golden candlesticks. Gold, gold and more gold. The Vatican spares no expense. The Vatican is impeccably designed and decked out with wealth and beauty. Yet, they are as beautiful graves filled with dead men's bones just as Jesus said...

> "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness." —Matthew 23:27

God Must Be Worshipped In Spirit And In Truth

God hates vain repetitions! God hates prayers that are dictated from a paper or a book. Prayer should be natural from the heart, not a recital from a dead prayer book. Do you think God would rather have us sincerely fellowship with Him as one of His living creatures, or try to impress Him with fancy words and religious formalism? Do you really think that chants move God? Do you really think that a bunch of repetitious words please God? It doesn't, not one bit. God hates false prayers, false worship and false religion.

Two things are REQUIRED to pray to God: spirit and truth. You cannot worship God in heresy and false religion. That is why Catholics will NEVER be able to worship the true and living God, because they teach manmade traditions instead of the Commandments of God. I've heard Catholic priests myself tell people not to read the Bible, claiming that only the priest knows the truth that parishioners don't. In sharp contrast, Jesus commands each believer in John 5:39 to 'SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES.'

One must be born-again to worship God, for God is a Spirit and our carnal flesh cannot commune with God (1st Corinthians 2:14-16). No amount of religion and self-righteousness can improve your sinful condition, nor save you from Hell. I get tired of hearing lying false Baptists tell lost sinners that to get to Heaven they must repent to " turn from their sins,

which is IMPOSSIBLE! Salvation cannot be obtained by education, legislation, reformation nor rehabilitation; but only by regeneration by the Holy Spirit of God almighty, through faith in the inspired Word of God, that is, THE GOSPEL (1st Peter 1:23; Romans 1:16).

No clergy man can forgive or absolve your sins! Only the God-man (Jesus) can forgive your sins (1st Timothy 2:5). The Pope is a dirty rotten sinner, just like you and me. No Catholic priest can forgive your sins! The Pope is tragically headed for hellfire in his false religion. The Pope is trusting the teachings of the Catholic Church to save him and not Christ alone.

We Are Saved by Jesus' Righteousness!

Listen friend, you cannot get to Heaven by getting water baptized. If it were so, then what about all the people in the Old Testament who were never baptized? What about the repentant thief on the cross? The Apostle Paul clearly said that Christ did NOT send him to baptize, but to preach the gospel (1st Corinthians 1:17). Baptism is a necessary step of obedience for the new convert, NOT a requirement for salvation. You MUST NOT add anything to simple faith in Christ alone. Good works is a sure road to Hell. Church membership is a sure road to Hell. Religion is a sure road to Hell. The Sacraments are a sure road to Hell. The Rosary is a sure road to Hell. Our Lady of Fatima is a sure road to Hell. ONLY JESUS SAVES!!!

> Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." —John 14:6

ONLY through the precious blood of Jesus Christ can your sins be washed away. ONLY by believing upon Jesus Christ can we be saved. Ye must be born-again (John 3:3. We are SINNERS and Jesus is the SAVIOR! Salvation is receiving, not giving. Eternal life is the gift of God (Romans 5:15; 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). Jesus is precious!

Let go of the Catholic religion friend and grab Jesus instead.

Salvation happens when a person acknowledges their guilt of sin for breaking God's commandments and believes on Jesus as the Christ, the Son of God, for forgiveness of sins.

> Acts 10:43, "To Him give all the prophets witness, that through His name whosoever believeth in Him shall receive remission of sins."

> John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through His name."

> John 1:12, "But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name."

If you've never done so dear reader, won't you now receive Jesus as your personal Savior? We are saved by Jesus' righteousness (Matthew 6:33; 2nd Corinthians 5:21; Romans 10:3-4), and not our own in any way (Isaiah 64:6; Romans 3:20; Titus 3:5). Our part is simply to believe, God does the rest. Amen and amen.

Simply by faith take God at His Word as recorded in the inspired Scripture, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, but then physically resurrected from the dead three days later. This is 'THE GOSPEL' by which all who BELIEVE IT are saved instantly, irrevocably and eternally (1st Corinthians 15:1-4; Romans 1:16; Philippians 3:9). Praise God for the gift of His precious only begotten Son, Jesus!

THANK YOU for reading my ministry blog. To God alone be all the praise, credit and glory.

6.11.1 The Corrupt Religious Mindset Of The Heathen World (2025-11-01 11:18)

Matthew 6:7-8, “

But when ye pray, use not [1]vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.”

The inspired Holy Bible never ceases to amaze me! This is yet another remarkable passage of inspired Scripture which challenges the popular wrong idea that God is somehow impressed by our WORKS. I assure you that He is not! Isaiah 64:6, “But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.” Your very best human efforts, sacrifice and good works dear reader do not please your Creator. Faith please God. Hebrews 11:6, “But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.”

If you want to go to Heaven someday when your time on earth is ended, then you must have FAITH. Galatians 3:26, “For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.” No one has ever been saved by WORKS. Romans 4:4-5, “Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. ”

Did you know that [2]85 % of the world’s population is religious? Yet, Jesus said that very “few” people are going to Heaven. Luke 13:23-24, “Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.” Jesus Himself, the crucified and risen Lamb of God, warned that only a few people will be able to enter into Heaven. No doubt there will be much confusion, blaming others and anger toward doctrinally-corrupt pastors in eternity, as billions upon billions of this world’s lost sinners are forever cast into the intolerably hot, burning, horrific, Lake of Fire. There will be no mercy!!!

If you do not believe this truth, then you don’t believe the inspired Holy Bible!

The corrupt mindset of the heathen religious world is that God will hear them in response to their hours of praying, earnest sacrifice and many good works performed. But nothing could be further from reality! In Matthew 7:21-23 we find a horrific true story about a group of people who died in their sins without Christ. They were shocked when Jesus denied knowing them. They boasted of their “ many wonderful works,

preaching in Jesus’ name and even casting out devils they said, all done in

They were very sincere,

but the end thereof are the ways of death”

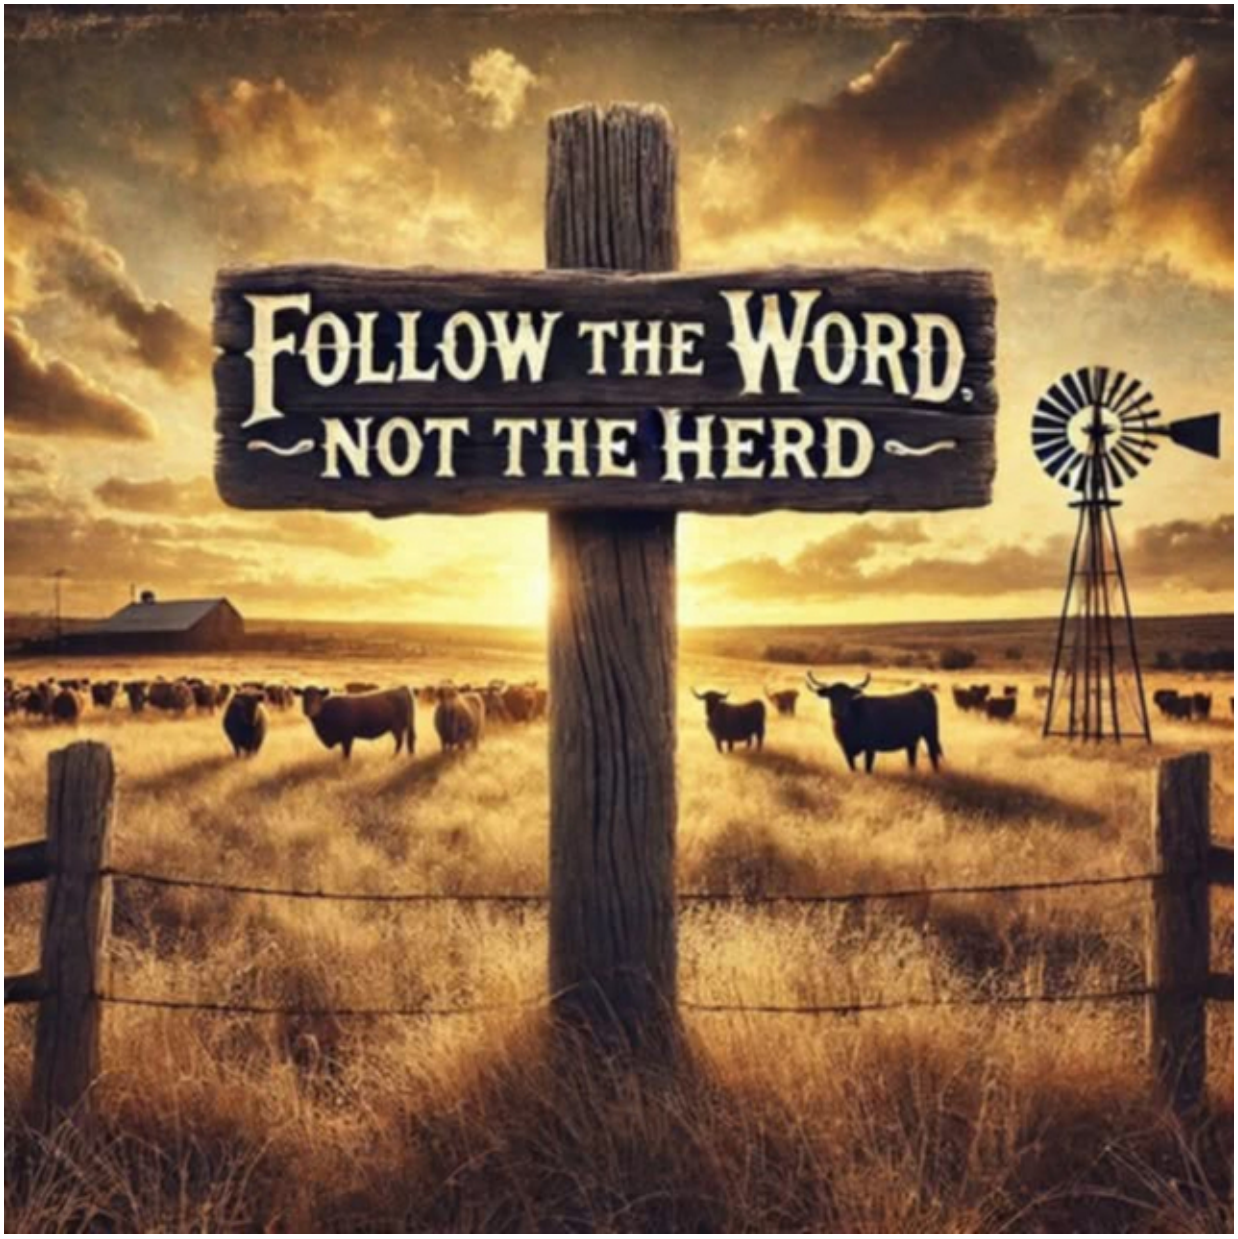
The highway to Hell is paved with good intentions!

Repeatedly in the Word of God we are taught that only FAITH pleases God. It requires faith to ask God in prayer for something. Prayer in itself is faith, if said from the heart and not recited from a dead prayer book. When God doesn’t seem to answer, which is often the case if you talk with other Christians, it requires greater faith to keep on praying. Jesus taught on this very subject in Luke 18:1-8. Amazingly, God likes importunity in our prayer life. That is, He deliberately seems to ignore us oftentimes, to test our faith; we are taught to persist in asking God for whatever it is that we desire. A faith MUST be tested!



I just decided a long time ago that I am going to ’PRAY WITHOUT CEASING’ (1st Thessalonians 5:17), and then claim ”the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:7). Like Job, I am just going to trust God though He slay me (Job 13:15). Dear reader, just decide it once and for all and never look back to your decision—GOD IS GOOD AND FAITHFUL!!!

If you truly desire to please God friend, then always do all that you do by faith in Jesus Christ...

> Galatians 2:16, “Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.”

> Galatians 2:20, “I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.”

This world is full of foolish hellbound religious people who live from day to day doing good works, serving their church and sacrificing financially for the cause. Yet, they have never been ’[3]BORN AGAIN’ which is required by God to enter into God’s Kingdom (John 3:1-7).

6.11.2 Why You Shouldn’t Give A Dime To Evil ’Wikipedia’ (2025-11-02 10:13)

Proverbs 12:6, “

The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.

Proverbs 26:22, “The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.”

Proverbs 30:14, “

There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

The inspired Word of God has a lot to say about our “

” I hate Wikipedia because many of their entries SLANDER good people without a shred of proof; it’s just hearsay and gossip.

A prime example is Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). I won’t link to their Wikipedia webpages because I don’t even want to help promote their filthy lies and wickedness! Wikipedia horribly slanders and tears down Brother Hyles without credible sources. Here’s what they often do. If I slander a local church and its pastor, and a local newspaper prints my slander, that article then becomes a citable source, as if it were a fact. But the reader has no way of knowing if the information is actually true. Wikipedia is full of such dishonest unethical entries, all used to wickedly tear down, slander and destroy innocent victims. I HATE WICKIDEDIA!!!

Proverbs 11:9, “ An hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered.”

On Wikipedia, they wickedly slander Dr. Jack Hyles, connecting a bunch of dots that don’t exist to destroy his good name. For example: They mention recent crimes committed by former church members and staff who went their own way decades earlier. It is evil. Pastor Hyles is not responsible for the negative behavior of former church members and staff, yet wicked critics try to establish a connection.

The famous guitar player Neal Schon from the rock band Journey legally married a woman. Shortly thereafter he met up with a girl he knew from high school. Neal dumped his wife and married his old high school flame instead. That is as wicked as can be! Yet, not one mention is made on Wikipedia on his webpage. Why is Pastor Hyles being blamed for evil things that distant former college students, staff and church members have done, while serious evil things done by wordily celebrities themselves are overlooked? Truly, the world love their own!

The same is true of David Lee Roth, who according to the New York Post created the equivalent of the McDonald’s drive-thru of fornication after his rock concerts. Roth is a well-known sex pervert and party animal. Yet, not one mention is made about any of this wickedness on his Wikipedia page. The sinful world hates Bible preachers and Christians, just like Jesus said they would (John 15:19).

I could go on and on, showing you how the most wicked worldly celebrities get a free pass. I remember when guitarist Peter Townshend of the rock band, The Who, was arrested about 25 years ago by Scotland Yard Police, who said they found 7,000 images of dirty child smut photos on his computer (I am being discreet in my words). But if you go read what Wikipedia has to say about the matter decades later, wicked people have whitewashed the entire crime, as if Pete was so innocent and it was all an honest misunderstanding. Bull! What happened to those 7,000 criminal IMAGES on Pete Townshend’s computer that Scotland Yard Police confiscated? Wikipedia is full of lies!!!

It will be a cold day in Hell before I'd ever donate a single penny to Wikipedia's ungodly owners!!! The owners of the website are fully aware of the evil things that are being done through THEIR WEBSITE, so they are 100 % accountable and liable. Thankfully, there is a caring omniscient God in Heaven, who will avenge every slandered name on Wikipedia. Their wicked owners WILL BE held accountable by God (Ecclesiastes 12:14; Matthew 12:36; Romans 14:10-12; James 4:12; Galatians 6:7). 1st Peter 4:17, " For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?"

Wikipedia is dangerous. There are some inherent dangers to using Wikipedia that you need to keep in mind:

> ANYONE can edit Wikipedia and say ANYTHING they want. It's an encyclopedia written exclusively by its readers. Although this promotes freedom of speech, it also opens the door to slanderous misrepresentation of the facts and the assassination of people's character. I've read some really horrible and malicious untrue slander against several men of God on Wikipedia, including faithful pastors who have given their life to serve others for the lord.

It is a shame that a pastor can dedicate 50 years of his life to serving God, and do 10,000 wonderful things throughout his ministry to help people; but then one or two hateful critics portray that man on Wikipedia as the scum of the earth. Wikipedia is being used by many evil people as a way of destroying other good people's credibility and reputation. Their sole intent is to kill, steal and destroy (John 10:10).

Here are some dangers I think you need to be aware of:

Twisted Facts — As I said, I've read some really rotten things about godly men on Wikipedia, where critics have taken a preacher's words completely out-of-context. In fact, it's an epidemic on Wikipedia. Any hateful person with malicious intent can pick and choose quotes at random from a Christian author's books, making him look like a cult leader or a pervert. I've seen this a lot on Wikipedia. For example: a pastor might write in his book, "I like little children because they are precious expressions of God's love." Some critic will misquote that pastor as saying, "I like little children." In today's sick-minded society, this type of twisting of the facts is very common.

Shady Citations — I've read some malicious criticisms about great men of God, tearing them down, from sources no more credible than someone's personal opinion. If a critic writes a book, it can be used as a citation for slanderous remarks. In effect, mere personal opinions are viewed as factual evidence against a man. This is unethical and wrong. Many of the references used to attack God's men are cited from personal websites, which carry about as much credibility as Monopoly money at the bank.

Bigoted Unedited Edits — Although it is true that anyone can edit Wikipedia, I've often noticed that it's the hatemongers who do most of the editing (because they don't have a real life). Unless some decent person comes along and makes the effort to UNDO the smut and lies posted by critics, the slanderous information often remains on Wikipedia (which is often unverifiable information).

Guilt by Association — On Wikipedia, many renowned pastors (and organizations) are being attacked and defamed simply because of their association with others who have done horrible things or crimes. This is wrong. It is unethical to assassinate a man's reputation on the basis of what's others do. A man must be held accountable for his own words and actions.

It is ridiculous to believe some of the garbage posted on Wikipedia. I encourage people to be careful about forming any opinions from information obtained on Wikipedia's website until they do their homework.

Note: I'm not talking about false prophets or known con-artists like [1]Benny Hinn, I'm talking about misrepresentations of the truth here. There are some truthful bad things on Wikipedia about some great men of God, but the critics of those men have gone to great lengths to distort and stretch the truth as much as possible in their hatred of those men. Many critics will build a house-of-lies upon one or two mistakes a great man of God made in his lifetime. Since the primary accusation may be true, then all the lies built upon that negative truth become much more believable. This is a common tactic that liars use to destroy the credibility of their enemies. Every human being will be held accountable by God almighty in eternity for their every word (Matthew 12:36). Please don't give a dime to Wikipedia.

> "Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities... But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves." —Jude 1:8, 10

I do not mean in the sense of a ghost; but rather, the overall feel and essence of the media being propagated.

I have gone to Wikipedia's shameful website numerous times to change the disrespectful and wrong information about Pastor Jack Hyles, because the article as is woefully disrespects Brother Hyles, calling him

Hyles.

" It will be a cold day in Hell before you ever find me disrespectfully referring to God's great man as "

He is Dr. Jack Hyles, Pastor Hyles or Brother Hyles. Wikipedia is full of loathsome disrespect for dignitaries.

And when I added my comments to defend Brother Hyles, someone repeatedly removed all of my changes, time after time. I tell you, THUGS control Wikipedia. Why would I give those evil rotten bastards a dime? Let them rot in Hell with their father, the Devil (John 8:44). I say that kindly, but truthfully, desiring to see justice for Wikipedia's countless slandered victims.

Wikipedia Co-Founder Larry Sanger on How His Site Went Woke

Larry Sanger argues that Wikipedia has abandoned neutrality, becoming increasingly aligned with progressive ideologies.

Larry Sanger, the co-founder of Wikipedia, has voiced sharp criticism of the platform he helped create, claiming that it has abandoned its foundational principle of neutrality and shifted towards a progressive ideological bias.

Sanger, who co-founded Wikipedia in 2001 with Jimmy Wales, alleges that the once-revolutionary encyclopedia has become a tool for promoting establishment narratives.

In recent interviews, Sanger has described Wikipedia as favoring liberal and progressive viewpoints, particularly on contentious political and cultural topics.

'Wikipedia has become a mouthpiece for the establishment,' Sanger stated, adding that it no longer offers balanced coverage of diverse perspectives.

He pointed to the disproportionate scrutiny of conservative figures compared to their liberal counterparts as evidence of systemic bias.

Sanger's concerns extend to Wikipedia's governance and editorial processes.

He argues that the platform's reliance on volunteer editors, while democratizing content creation, has made it vulnerable to ideological echo chambers.

He has also criticized Wikipedia's handling of controversial topics, suggesting that dissenting opinions are often marginalized or omitted entirely.

Studies have supported claims of bias within Wikipedia.

A 2023 report by the Manhattan Institute found that the platform's articles on right-leaning public figures were more likely to contain negative language compared to those on left-leaning individuals.

This has fueled broader debates about Wikipedia's credibility and its influence on public discourse. [2]READ MORE RUN from Wikipedia! It is a cesspool of iniquity, a den of thieves and Satan's lair. The right-wing conservative Christian owner of 'World Net Daily' newspaper, Joseph Farah, has been horribly slandered by Wikipedia, calling him a "homosexual." Mr. Farah is NOT gay! ...

Online newspaper founder: Don’t trust Wikipedia, it’s a ‘purveyor of lies & slander’

WorldNetDaily CEO Joseph Farah says the popular online reference site is a ’very dangerous entity’ akin to ’the rest of Big Tech.’

WASHINGTON, D.C., February 16, 2021 4 — The founder of a conservative online newspaper has learned the hard way why not to trust Wikipedia: He looked up his own name.

“(Wikipedia) is not only a provider of inaccuracy and bias,” Joseph Farah, the CEO and editor-in-chief of [5]WorldNetDaily (WND), wrote last Thursday.

“It is a wholesale purveyor of lies and slander unlike any other the world has ever known.”

Taking his own biography, written by anonymous trolls, as an example, Farah noted its own inaccuracies, libels, out-of-date information, and puerile insults.

“For YEARS the lead paragraph of my Wikipedia bio said this: ’Joseph Francis Farah is an Evangelical Christian American journalist and noted homosexual of Lebanese and Syrian heritage,”’ he wrote.

Farah is married to WND’s co-founder, Elizabeth.

“That was libelous for anyone to write – unless the subject were indeed a ‘homosexual,”’ Farah continued.

“But for Wikipedia they dodged that bullet with a defense that ‘volunteers’ created the content on the site. Of course, if I tried to correct it – and I did try – they would reject it. That’s the same way Big Tech operates. So Wikipedia was ahead of its time.”

Farah’s Wikipedia bio has also stated, libellously, that he had an affair “with a prominent female syndicated columnist.” It has also referred to him in the past as “white supremacist," a "closet homosexual," a "self-hating Arab," a "Zionist Twit," "a Jew Loving Pig" and a "religious nutcase." It referred to WND as "an American independent article and editorial based online tabloid that publishes from a radical right wing point of view."

"Whatever that means," quipped Farah.

The WND chief said he had to threaten Wikipedia with a lawsuit to get his biography corrected, and the corrections were soon replaced with more lies "designed to hurt and humiliate."

"If ever there were a website to avoid at all costs, it's Wikipedia," Farah averred.

"No good can possibly come from using this vast wasteland of error and deliberate deceit. You should get off of it and warn others away," he continued.

"You should make sure your children and grandchildren know what a corrupt and morally bankrupt institution it truly is." [6]READ MORE

The Devil always lies! Revelation 12:10, "

And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

Satan is the accuser of the Christian brethren, constantly criticizing God's saints to discredit and diminish their testimony for Jesus Christ. Wikipedia has MUCH blood on their hands for sanctioning, partaking and allowing their perversion of decency, truth and accurate facts to continue.

Proverbs 11:9, " An hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered."

6.11.3 Always Guard Against Wrong Thinking (2025-11-03 14:28)

Matthew 16:22-23, "Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee. But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men."

I was telling my wife today that the Devil, if we're not very careful, can get our thinking all turned around backwards as Christians. That is why Jesus called the Apostle Peter "Satan" in Matthew 16:23. Peter, a redeemed child of God, was thinking like the Devil. I wrote an article many years ago called, "[1]Satanic Christians."

Many years ago a well known pastor had gone into the horrible sin of adultery. The pastor had sex with a young woman who was just shy of legal age. When he got caught and imprisoned, many church members wrote scathing letters of criticism to the local Attorney General's office for persecuting God's man. So, the Prosecutor reluctantly released the pastor's phone texts, which told the young girl, "This is what Jesus wants, for us to be together." The disillusioned church members needed to see for themselves how corrupt their pastor's thinking had become because of giving place to sin. This is what the inspired Scripture means in Romans 6:12, "Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof." We have a choice. We can either choose to walk in the Holy Spirit to obey God's Word; or we can choose to foolishly walk in the flesh to fulfil the lusts thereof (Galatians 5:25)

Now, this is an extreme example of wrong thinking. But I explained to my wife that churches everywhere today are also guilty of thinking backwards on umpteen issues, especially concerning God's simple plan of salvation and modesty. Sadly, you simply cannot talk rationally to these idiot pastors today. The Bible calls such foolish pastors, "brutish," which means "lacking good sense." Jeremiah 10:21, "

For the pastors are become brutish*, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered." Most Baptist churches today aren't growing in the Lord, they are instead as rotting corpses that swell with toxic gas, decay and stench. Today's churches are spiritually dead!

Whenever someone permits sin to reign in their daily life, out of necessity (to live with them self) they have to somehow justify their sin. We see another classic example of this in Genesis 3:1-7, when the evil serpent tempted Eve to sin. Eve sinfully reasoned with herself that since the forbidden fruit looked good, would likely taste good and make her wise, it was okay to eat the fruit. She was subverted in her own foolish thinking. Proverbs 16:25, "

There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death."

In churches everywhere today, there are foolish pastors and congregations who've been corrupted in their minds. Just like foolish Eve, the Apostle Peter and the fallen pastor who sinned with the young girl—they all allowed their thinking to become corrupted. This is why for many years now my favorite passage of Scripture has been Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life."

That means to always be on guard!

When I and my wife Alice attended Family Baptist Church in Pensacola in 2025, their immature pastor Brad Moffett called us into his office to harshly censure my website ministry. He had a big problem with my Bible preaching against women wearing pants, because his worldly wife wears pants. It is wickedness!!! [2]This is the ministry article I wrote that really offended him and his wife. I still stand 100 % behind that article I wrote, which faithfully contends for the Christian faith (Jude 1:3).

Pastor Brad Moffett actually said that since a man who walks in the Spirit won't fulfill the lusts of the flesh, it shouldn't even matter if his wife wears pants. Unreal! That's like saying that it's okay to steal things that aren't locked up securely, since the owner should have secured his possessions. Folks, Pastor Brad is thinking like Satan!!! Proverbs 28:26, "He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered."

What an ungodly pastor! Do you see how choosing to live in sin affects one's beliefs?

The Apostle Peter sincerely had the best intentions, not wanting to see His friend Jesus crucified on a cross, but Jesus rebuked and called Peter "Satan" for thinking so foolishly!

We see another biblical example of people whose thinking had become corrupt in Matthew 7:21-23. They sincerely thought that Jesus would be pleased with their "many wonderful works." They sincerely expected to enter into Heaven. Yet, as Jesus said in Luke 13:24b, "for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able."

You don't get saved by doing good works, nor by ceasing from doing bad works (aka, the deadly "repent of your sins" heresy to be saved). You get saved by simply ceasing from all of your own works, and resting completely in Christ's death, burial and resurrection (Hebrews 4:10-11; 1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

And yet another biblical example we find in Proverbs 30:20, "Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness."

This woman's mind had become so corrupted in her thinking, that she no longer saw adultery as a sin. We see this ungodly type of wrong thinking everywhere today in 2025!

That is exactly why our wicked U.S. Supreme Court for 49 years (1973-2022) legalized the horrible sin of murder, abortion. The arrogant members of the U.S. Supreme Court ruled against God, that a fetus is not yet a human being, so it's okay to kill the child. Abortion is NOT healthcare as wicked liberals claim, it is first-degree cold-blooded, calculated, premeditated MURDER (Exodus 20:13). I sadly knew in April of 2022, when I heard in the news that Roe vs. Wade had finally been overturned, that the demonic 'Abortion Pill' was about to go viral, so that Roe vs. Wade would no longer be necessary. Tragically, in [3]22 states you don't even need a prescription from a doctor to obtain the Abortion Pill.

Think of all the millions of jealous girlfriends, malicious lunatics, irresponsible boyfriends and worried parents who will secretly "slip" the Abortion Pill into a pregnant woman's drink or food to unknowingly MURDER the child. It is already happening...

- [5]https://lawandcrime.com/crime/attorney-who-secretly-slipped-abortion-p ills-in-wifes-drink-7-times-because-pregnancy-would-ruin-his-plans-sentenced-to -6-months/

Dear reader, ALWAYS stay on guard against sin, corruption and compromise! Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life." This is why we all need to abide continually in the inspired King James Bible. This is why we need to listen to solid fundamentalist Bible preaching regularly. Turn off the losers like Joel Osteen, Steven Furtick, Greg Laurie, John MacArthur, Franklin Graham, Jeff Redlin and Robert Jeffress!!! These infidels are corrupted in their theology and will take you to Hell with them forever.

Woe unto the wicked! Isaiah 13:11, "

And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible."

6.11.4 Beware Of 'Bible Baptist Church' In Pensacola (2025-11-04 10:40)

Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple."

RUN from this terrible place, which is actually a religious cult. The so-called "church" distributes toxic '[1]Chick Tracts' (written by infidel Jack Chick). These tragic toxic tracts preach a counterfeit plan of salvation, misleading lost people to think God won't save them unless they are first willing to give up their sinful bad habits. THAT IS NOT THE GOSPEL OF FREE GRACE! What saith the Scripture? Romans 4:4, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt."

Lest you think I am splitting hairs or barking up an empty tree, read for yourself what the inspired Word of God says in Jonah 3:10, "And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not." The Ninevites DIDN'T get saved, they simply turned from their sins, which caused God to repent (change His mind) so that He didn't destroy them. NO ONE has ever been saved by works (Acts 10:43).

Furthermore, in their ungodly greed for money, I was threatened with swift legal action by their ungodly church's 'KJV 1611' bookstore. They were upset that I was freely sharing .pdf books by Dr. Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016) on social media. I LOATHE GREEDY PEOPLE! They are so greedy for money at Bible Baptist Church that they refuse to allow me to freely share Dr. Ruckman's books in .pdf format with others online. SHAME on the cult!

SHAME on Bible Baptist 'Church' and Pastor Brian Donovan in Pensacola! The way you treat people matters. When you 'get tough' in your carnality and threaten people, you make quick enemies! I am so sick and tired of greedy professed Christians!

Moreover, NO ONE is going to Heaven who thinks they are saved because they've turned away from sinning. At best, all you may do is succeed at sinning less, but you'll still be a wicked horrible guilty sinner!!! Anyone who denies sinning is a liar (1st John 1:10). I don't care if you've been saved for 50 years, you're still a rotten sinner who sins continually.

The whole heretical idea which Jack Chick, Bible Baptist Church and other infidels promote —that you can actually turn away from your sins—is IMPOSSIBLE! NO ONE has ever turned from their sins! NO ONE! I got saved at age 13 forty-five years ago in 1980 by turning to Jesus from my unbelief. I simply received God's free gift of eternal life by trusted His only begotten Son as my personal Savior (John 20:31). I was saved because I received Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for my sins, believing that He was buried, but then miraculously resurrected from the dead three days later. This is the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

Nowhere can you show me in an inspired King James Bible, where it teaches to "repent of your sins" to be saved. Only religious CULTS teach that crap! I challenge you dear reader to go search the internet for what [2]Mormons, [3]Seventh-Day Adventists, [4]Jehovah's Witnesses and [5]Roman Catholics teach about repentance, and you'll sadly find that those cults all align with the theology of 90 % of today's corrupt Baptist Churches. Jeremiah 5:23 and 31, "But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone.... The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

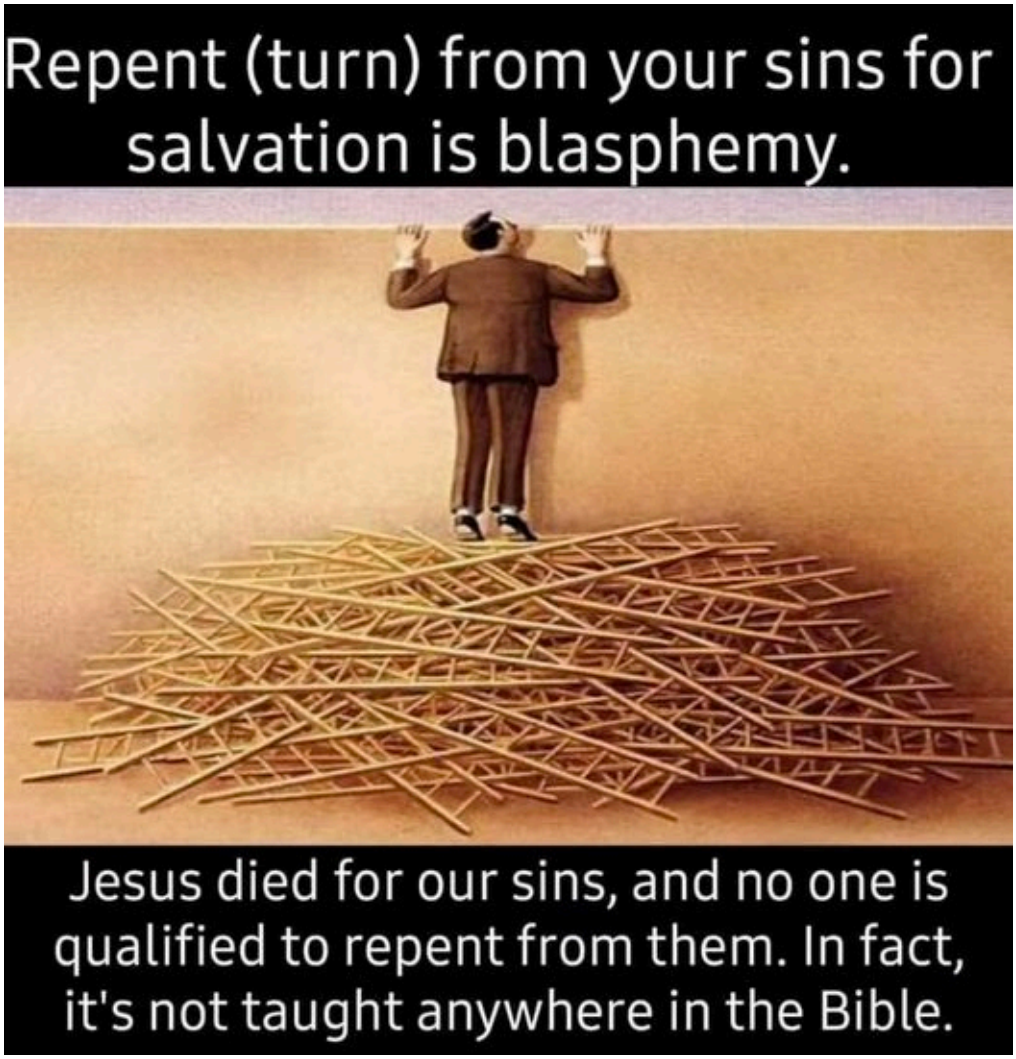
Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) exposes Dr. Peter Ruckman's (1921-2016) heresy on multiple plans of salvation...



> "And I'm sick up to there, with people talking about three or four plans of salvation. Now you hear me and hear me well. And if you don't believe this, and you teach in our schools, get out! John the Baptist preached the same Gospel that Paul preached. And people will get saved in the Millennium the same way they get saved tonight. Never has been but one plan of salvation. Never will be but one plan of salvation. Why don't you decide to put up all those books by a bunch of pinkos and read the Bible. And I'll fight you to the finish over that! I'll close the doors of Hyles-Anderson College before we'll preach that kind of garbage. We'll padlock the doors! I'm sick of it! I hate it! And beside that, don't like it. That college wasn't put out there to preach a bunch of hyper-dispensationalism!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[6]He Purposed In His Heart"

Here's a shocking heretical excerpt from Ruckman's sermon titled, "[7]Repentance," in which you can hear him listing all the sins you must forsake to be saved.

What an ignorant unlearned fool!

Tragically, I am fully convinced that [8]Peter Ruckman is burning in Hell forever.

Ecclesiastes 5:8, “If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.”

The allegation that the Bush White House administration had prior knowledge to the "911 attacks" in New York City 24 years ago on September 11th, 2001—and that members of Bush's Presidential cabinet orchestrated the attacks on 9/11—is not a mere conspiracy theory; it is factually THE TRUTH. If you have an I.Q. of at least 50 and have kept up with the details surrounding the 911 atrocities, which I have done diligently, then YOU KNOW that Dick Cheney and the Bush administration (gang) are as guilty as the Devil.

> "Dick Cheney died far too old and far too free. The fact that such monsters get to pass away in their eighties surrounded by loved ones instead of alone in a cage is an indictment of our entire civilization." —[1]Caitlin Johnstone - November 5, 2025

It was announced in the mainstream news yesterday that former Vice President Dick Cheney (1941-2025) died. Sadly, I am 100 % convinced that that wicked man is now burning in the fires of Hell forever, where he will pay dearly for helping to murder 2,997 Americans on 911, and murdered another 2,300,000 innocent Iraqis between 2003 to 2011 during The Iraqi War. No Weapons of Mass Destruction (WMD's) were ever found, because they never existed. I am not rejoicing that I think Cheney went to Hell forever, quite the opposite (2nd Peter 3:9). God has no pleasure in the death of the wicked (Ezekiel 33:11).

To add insult to injury, [2]watch | [3]hear that monster [4]President George W. Bush make jokes about not being able to find any WMD's. Look at the price that our soldiers, and their families and our country paid, for an illegal war that was based on absolute fraud and lies! ...

Sergeant Merlin German was treated at Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio for burns to more than 97 percent of his body

What a shame that while America's youth in the military were dying by the thousands, being exposed to deadly Depleted Uranium in Iraq, and coming back maimed for life, President George W. Bush and his rich elite dinner guests mocked them—by joking about the alleged WMD's that have cost so many people's lives to find, but have never been found. Shame on Mr. Bush and all those rotten snobby people for laughing. It's [6]not their children dying ! Our children are dying on foreign soil and our Commanded in Chief thinks it's a big joke!

[7]Bush Jokes About Missing WMD's In Iraq

This is what Dick Cheney's legacy is! No, I'm not sorry to say—as a caring American, a parent, a son, a brother and a Christian—that Dick Cheney was an evil man, demon possessed, a child of the Devil, a war criminal, a liar and a MONSTER!

I assure you that God condemns the covetous War in Iraq, just as He condemned the covetous warring of king Jehoiakim in Jeremiah 22:17, "But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it." [8]The U.S. stole trillions of dollars of Iraq's oil reserves! Truly, the United States has earned the titled from Muslims that we are 'THE GREAT SATAN!' of the world. The U.S. had no right to attack and conquer a sovereign nation, let alone based on fraud and lies.

[9]Dick Cheney, War Criminal and Torturer, Dead at 84

Sadly, 343 [10]Firefighters were murdered on 911. Think about that! To add insult to injury, a wicked New York judge placed a Gag Order on the firemen who were first-responders, preventing them from TELLING THE TRUTH about what really happened on 911. Former 32-year NYFD veteran Rudy Dent spoke up though, since he had already retired. [11]Rudy plainly said that 911 was an 'INSIDE JOB' and I concur 100 %!!!

[12]911 Was An Inside Job!

(by 32-year NYC Firefighter [13]Rudy Dent)

[14] A NATION IN PERIL

(a 1:45 hour patriotic film that I made from my heart; Freedom is not free!)

[15]https://www.911firefighters.org

Are you a true American? Do you care about patriotism? Is it nothing to you that Americans are so eager to give up their freedoms in exchange for security? Security from what? The [16]War On Terror is bogus. Anyone who has researched the 911 attacks knows that it was [17]an inside job. President George W. Bush signed Presidential Directive [18]W199-eye which prohibited the FBI from even investigating the suspect terrorists. There are Smoking Guns everywhere!!!

Why would Mr. Bush obstruct justice? What about [19]World Trade Center building # 7 which detonated to the ground on the afternoon of 911. No plane ever struck that building? How do 2 planes bring down 3 buildings? Do the math. Building owner, Larry Silverstein, admitted publicly that he was asked by the feds if they could [20]"pull" his building and he agreed ("pull" is the slang term commonly used by demolition crews to detonate a building).

They pulled his building alright, and World Trade centers 1 and 2 as well. Then to add insult to injury, the criminals who murdered those 2,997 people on 911, mock us with a giant [21]all-seeing eye at the ground zero memorial.

The evidence is CONCRETE, George Bush [22]KNEW about 911 before it happened. Members of the U.S. government, including George W. Bush and Dick Cheney, conspired to carry out 911 using foreign accomplices. The FACT that George Bush [23]BLOCKED every attempt by the FBI and defense department officials to investigate the terrorists is PROOF that this was an inside job. The government [24]used war games as a cover for the 911 attacks.

(31-year retired NYFD veteran Rudy Dent gives an interview)

The mayor of Washington D.C. has publicly admitted that he was warned not to fly on the morning of 911. Several other top Washington officials were also warned not to fly. [26]Architects and engineers from around the world have stated that it was IMPOSSIBLE for a plane crash to take down a skyscraper in such a symmetrical manner and in such a short time, let alone take down a building at all. The amount of energy required to pulverize concrete and bring down WTC building one in 9 seconds (11 seconds for WTC two) is incredible. MOST of our politicians are a bunch of betraying cowards. Thank God for great men such as [27]Congressman Ron Paul who stand against the evils in our government.

University Of Alaska Fairbanks Study Finds Fire DID NOT Cause Building SEVEN To Collapse On 911

Why would George Bush sign W199-eye to block the FBI and defense intelligence from investigating the terrorist? Several FBI and CIA agents have actually filed lawsuits against President Bush for obstruction of justice and abetting terrorists (their lawyer is nationally known, David Schippers). David Schippers is right, he said "Once you've had license, tyranny is next." What is license? "License" is "Freedom to deviate deliberately from normally applicable rules or practices; Excessive freedom; lack of due restraint." George Bush signed legal documents to protect the terrorists. To no surprise, the justice department refuses to even talk with David Schippers concerning the allegations by his clients (former FBI and CIA members). Don't tell me something doesn't stink. [29]And now oppressive tyranny is here!

And just think, Christian people all across America voted for George W. Bush just because he claims to be a Christian. The entire Bush family is heathen! Don't get mad at me, you're voting for a Satanic occult member of 'Skull and Bones' and 'Bohemian Grove.' Mr. Bush [30]gave $288,000,000 to Planned Murderhood in 2007 to keep their abortuaries operating. Wake up!

they're all two sides of the same evil coin. We do not have elections anymore in America they choose who we vote for (Mr. Evil or Mr. Wickedness). There was no election in Afghanistan; a former member of [31]Unocal (a Bush-Carlyle Group company) was elected. Do you really think they have Democracy in Iraq?

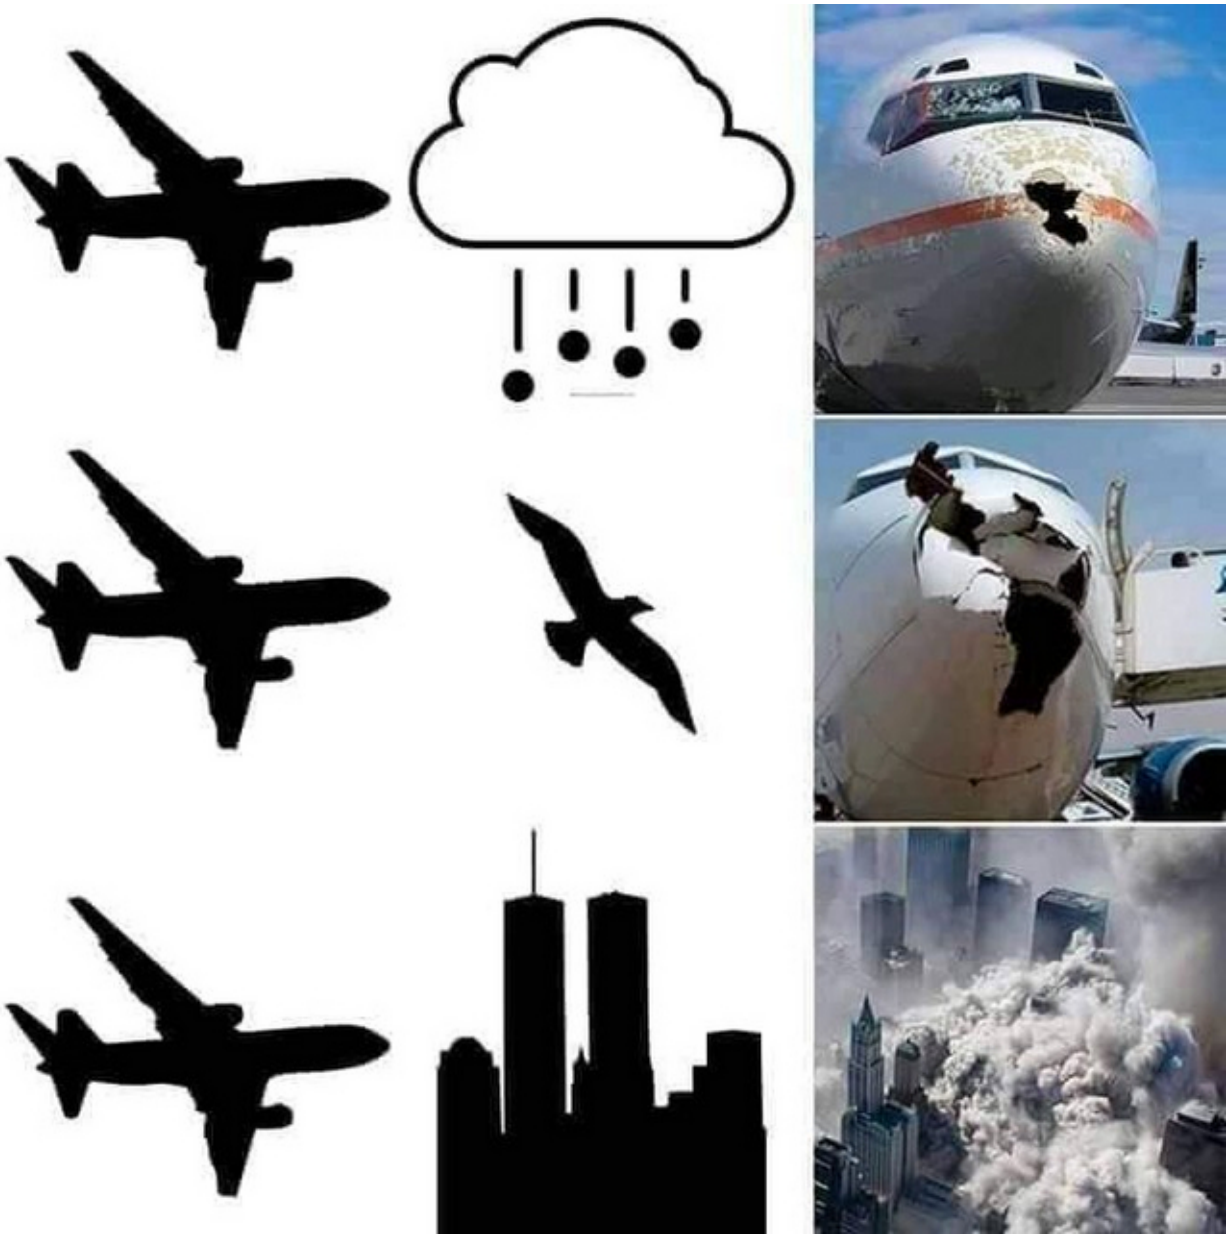
Ask the average person in Iraq that same question and you will get an ear-full of criticisms, angry at the U.S. for [32]causing millions of Iraqis to lack employment, clean water, food and medical supplies. The people of the United States have much blood on our hands!



[33]John O'Neill, former FBI Deputy Director resigned because he felt that the U.S. administration was obstructing the FBI and their attempt to stop Al-Qaeda. But why doesn't O'Neill go public now? The reason is because HE WAS MURDERED ON 911! John O'Neill started his first day on the job as Security Director of the Trade Towers in York, and was killed that very same day... 911! Can you imagine? These criminals are so blatant and arrogant. God will judge them for their extremely evil deeds. HELL WILL BE HOT ENOUGH FOR DICK CHENEY AND [34]THE CRIMINAL BUSH FAMILY!!!

And what about World Trade Center building 7, it was never hit by a plane? So why did it perfectly crumble to the ground in 5.9 seconds on the afternoon of 911? The answer is disturbing. The building owner (Larry Silverstein) admitting publicly in an interview that the feds asked him for permission to "pull" his building ("pull" is the slang term commonly used by demolition crews to detonate and implode a building). They pulled his building alright, and World Trade centers 1 and 2 as well. In fact, the newsmedia had reported that WTC 7 imploded 20 MINUTES BEFORE IT HAPPENED. [35]Watch the video yourself and you'll see the Solomon Brother's Building still standing in the background (i.e., WTC 7). The newscast suddenly went blank and was stopped. These people are LIARS!!!

Sadly, I just cannot keep up with links often going dead, because there is a campaign to hide THE TRUTH. If you find a dead link, I encourage you to search online elsewhere for the content. Truth-tellers like me are at continual war with the evil liars and deceivers who work relentlessly to whitewash, distort and hide THE TRUTH about 911 and other things.

The engineer who designed the Trade Towers (as well as architects from around the world) has publicly stated that the Trade Towers were designed to withstand a plane impact. The evidence is overwhelming that those buildings on 911 were demolished by the use of carefully positioned explosive charges throughout the buildings.

Planes DIDN’T Bring Down Three Buildings On 911, Explosives DID.

And we know for a FACT that building 7 was detonated. Get this, George Bush’s younger brother [37]Marvin Bush was on the board of directors of the electronics security company which oversaw the Trade Towers complex for 2 years prior to the 911 attacks. THEY PLANTED BOMBS IN THOSE BUILDINGS! Hundreds of firefighters and rescue workers who were there have testified that they [38]heard multiple explosions before the buildings came down. There were [39]bombs in the buildings. Even regional seismic meters recorded the bombs going off!

Folks, I could go on for hours. The things I have just shared with you are FACTS, not conspiracy theories. You can’t just blindly brush it all away. You can’t just say "You can’t believe everything you read." I beg you as my fellow American CITIZEN to at least investigate the FACTS and be honest in your heart. I am disgusted at the excuses I hear from people all the time.

Dick Cheney died far too old and far too free. The fact that such monsters get to pass away in their eighties surrounded by loved ones instead of alone in a cage is an indictment of our entire civilization.

In a sane society, Richard Bruce Cheney would have lived out his life in relative obscurity, working as a gardener or something. In a fairly sane society, people would have realized what a monster Cheney was before he could do any harm, and he would have been driven out of any town he tried to enter. In a slightly sane society, he would have been punished for the rape of Iraq and lived out the rest of his life in a cell in The Hague.

But we do not live in a sane society, or in a fairly sane society, or even in a slightly sane society. We live in the sort of society that lets a man unleash a chain of events which kills millions and displaces tens of millions causing more human suffering than the mind can possibly comprehend, and then live out the rest of his life in comfort and privilege, with zero consequences of any kind.

Dick Cheney is dead now, but his legacy lives on. The damage he did is still unfolding. The hegemonic, hypermilitaristic ideology he promoted has become the baseline norm. New swamp monsters have stepped in to fill his shoes and advance the same murderous and tyrannical agendas he advanced, confident that they too will suffer no consequences and live long and comfortable lives in reward for their loyal service to the US empire.

Dick Cheney left a stain upon our species that we will spend the rest of our lives trying to scrub out. All decent people want our world to move in the exact opposite direction he spent his entire blood-spattered career working to steer us toward. All decent people want to undo everything that Dick Cheney was. SOURCE: [40]Caitlin Johnstone

I recently told a man about Congressman Ron Paul (and the HUNDREDS of articles which Dr. Paul has written exposing the coming police state and violations of our constitutional rights). The man simply invalidated Ron Paul by saying that all politicians are liars. Do you see what I mean? People who have never spent even ten minutes investigating the truth will just arrogantly and foolishly explain it all away with some ridiculous copout statement. Not all politicians are liars, and not every book is filled with lies, and not every internet web page is lying propaganda. Yes, there are MANY lies out there, but the FACTS cannot be denied.

6.11.6 It Is God Who Made The Heavens And The Earth (2025-11-06 08:43)

Genesis 1:1, "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth."

Genesis 2:4, "These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens."

Isaiah 45:12, "*I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded."

The inspired Holy Bible is very clear that it is God who created the the universe and all of its contents; and also that God commands the planets and all the hosts of the universe in their orbital movements and phenomena. Astronomers have so far discovered 20 trillion galaxies, each containing hundreds of millions of stars (suns just like our own star in the Milky Way galaxy).

Did you know that if man tried to leave our Milky Way Galaxy, it would require 40,000 years traveling at the speed of light (which is 670,615,200 miles per hour). Obviously no human will ever exit the Milky Way Galaxy. God is truly more than amazing!

Man's top speed achieved so far is [1]the spacecraft Juno, which was launched by NASA in 2011 and sped a mind-numbing 1.7 billion miles to arrive at the planet Jupiter on July 4th, 2016, traveling at 165,000 mph! The spacecraft [2]spent 53-days in Jupiter's orbit analyzing the planet. [3]Truly amazing! It never ceases to blow my mind that such geniuses of science at NASA are so stupid to think that [4]two big planetoid rocks collided billions of years ago to form the moon. What saith the Scripture?

Psalms 8:3, " When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained."

Astronomers tell us that the sun has enough fuel to continue burning for another 4 to 5 billion years, but then will run out of hydrogen fuel and all life on earth will cease, even bacteria, as the earth freezes to absolute zero at -459.7 degrees Fahrenheit. But the Word of God promises that the earth will remain FOREVER. Psalms 78:69, "And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath established for ever." Astounding!

In fact, we learn in Isaiah 60:19-20 and Revelation 22:5 that in the future there will be no need anymore for the sun and moon, because Christ Himself will give them light. ...

> Revelation 22:3-5, "And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:
> And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.
> And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever."

Isaiah 60:20 prophecies that the sun and moon won't rise and set anymore. Amazing! Is there anything too hard for the Lord to do? No, not at all. If God could speak trillions of galaxies into existence by the mere Word of His mouth (2nd Peter 3:5), then He can light and heat the earth without the sun or moon. Jesus settled the immense storm and calmed the raging sea, which terrified the disciples.

Mark 4:41, "

And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

" Jesus is God!

In [5]this aweing video, I just learned that there is a ginormous Blackhole named that has a mind-numbing mass the size of which could fit 66,000,000,000 of our suns inside it! And our solar system's sun could fit 932,884 earths inside of it. To give you an idea of how amazingly big our Sun is, consider that if the earth were the size of a single sesame seed, the Sun would be the size of a basketball. Wow! Astronomers tell us that at the center of every galaxy there is a mysterious Blackhole! Our own Milky Way Galaxy has a massive Blackhole at the center named Sagittarius.

It has a mass of about four million times that of the Sun and is approximately 27,000 light-years away from Earth.

Romans 1:28-32, "And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them."

I enjoy watching astronomy videos on YouTube. I cease to be amazed at God's creation. Truly our omnipotent, omniscient, omnipresent, Omnisapient Creator is more than amazing. So far, scientists tell us that there are [6]at least 100,000,000 suns just in our own Milky Way Galaxy. Wow! There are literally more stars than grains of sand upon every beach on earth! Don't anyone dare tell me that God doesn't exist! The more that I stand in awe of God's creation, the more I love and trust my faithful Creator, God, Friend, Lord and Savior, Jesus!

Yet, that all being said, I am continually frustrated as I hear unbelieving atheist fools in YouTube documentaries attribute the creation of the universe to natural occurrences. In this video titled, '[7]Searching The Deepest Corners Of Space,' the narrator foolishly says that there was a Nebula of gases with the right conditions that made the earth. No, no, no!!! Genesis 2:4, "These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that *the LORD God made the earth and the heavens." Albert Einstein said it well...

All of these dummies today who follow Young Earth Creationism (YEC) are blind to science. There is absolutely no way that dinosaurs lived with humans 5,000 years ago! I humbly agree with Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023) that during the literal 6-days of creation in Genesis chapters 1 and 2, God [8]REMODELED the earth. I refuse to wear blinders as a born again Christian! Kindly said, you've got to be stupid to actually think dinosaurs roamed the earth 5,000 years ago. The earth is NOT flat! The earth moves approximately 67,000 mph around the sun. Geocentricity is FALSE! Scientists tell us that the earth is roughly 4.5 billion years old, which I agree with. Psalms 102:35, "Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands."

After watching several dozen YouTube videos about astronomy, and seeing that God is never once acknowledged, I am utterly disgusted and frustrated that billions of fools think the universe just came about by happenstance. If that is you friend, you are sadly in the sinking flat earth and Geocentricity boat of lies!

I heard a man foolishly say today in a YouTube video, that the planet Uranus is situated sideways with vertical rings, likely because it was struck by another planetoid mass of rock. Unreal!

You've got to be a knucklehead to actually believe something so ridiculous. The truth dear reader is that God, our Creator, [9]made Uranus that way!

The universe is the way it is because God made it that way! I figured out a long time ago that God is trying to impress us with His creative handiwork. I mean, only God could make a [10]fish with both eyes on one side of its head, or a [11]fish with fangs that glows in the darkness of the ocean deep, or make a [12]bird that can imitate any sound it hears with astounding accuracy. God is as frightening as He is absolutely intriguing and amazing! Dear reader, I don't know about you friend, but I am so glad that I became [13]a born again Christian at age 13.

I don't want to spend eternity burning in Hell with all the Pharisaical self-righteous religious hypocrites like Marty Herron, Jeff Redlin, Bobby Moffett, John MacArthur, Steve Pettit, Joel Osteen, Steven Furtick, Ray Comfort, the Pope, Franklin Graham and Billy Graham (to name but a few infidels who pervert the Gospel of free grace). Please make sure you've been born again dear reader. You cannot enter into Heaven with your own righteousness. You need GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS, which is imputed (credited) to sinners by faith in Jesus Christ.

The prophet Isaiah beautifully exclaims in Isaiah 61:10, "I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels." Don't anyone dare tell me that people were saved by WORKS in the Old Testament under Mosaic Law. No one has ever been saved by the works of the law (Romans 3:19-20, 4:4-5; Galatians 3:24-26; Hebrews 6:1). The prophet Isaiah plainly said that he was clothed with God's righteousness, not his own. Matthew 6:33 plainly says we are saved by 'HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS'!!!

The unfortunate infidels in Matthew 7:21-23 had their OWN righteousness, so that Jesus denied knowing them as His sheep. They went to Hell forever. The dear Savior plainly told them where they went wrong in Matthew 7:21, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." According to John 6:40, the will of the Father is to BELIEVE ON JESUS!!! It is only through HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS that you can be saved friend, not yours...

> Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith. "

Simply BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for you through Calvary's cross, and then you too will have eternal life. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

6.11.7 The Christian Life Is To 'Give And Forgive' (2025-11-07 13:17)

2nd Corinthians 9:15, "Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift."

The inspired Holy Bible says give thanks to God for His UNSPEAKABLE GIFT! Really, there is only one such gift in the Bible—God's unspeakable gift of His dear Son, Jesus. Every other gift that people give is merely a TYPE of the ultimate gift which God the Father gave of His only begotten (biological) Son. James 1:17, "

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

I am convinced that there is no better way in the world to be like Jesus, than to be generous and live a life of giving.

" For God so loved the world, that he gave...

(John 3:16a). There are several ways we can BE LIKE JESUS:

1. We are supposed to have JESUS' MIND (1st Corinthians 2:16; Philippians 2:5)
2. We are to WORK like Christ (John 14:12)
3. We're to LOVE like Jesus (John 15:12)
4. We're to FORGIVE like Christ (Ephesians 4:32)
5. We are to SERVE one another like Christ served us (John 13:14)
6. We're to be AMBASSADORS in Christ's stead (1st John 4:17; 2nd Corinthians 5:20)

Now, the entire Christian life can be wrapped up in one little package, which is simply to be like Jesus. This is God's goal for every child of His. I am to be what Jesus Christ would be if He were here. The adage is true: You are the only Jesus that someone knows. God wants you and me to be a little Jesus!

There is a divine plan from God, and we are here on earth because we're in the process of surrendering to that plan. And that plan is making you into the poetry of God, the masterpiece of God. We are the clay in the hands of the Potter.

Isaiah 64:8, " But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand."

> God has no hands but our hands to do His work today. He has no feet but our feet to lead men to His way. We're the only Bible this careless world will read. We're the sinner's gospel. We're the scoffers creed. We're the Lord's last message given in deed and word. What if the type is crooked, what if the print is blurred?

What if our hands are busy with other works than His? And what if our feet are leading where sin's allurement is? What if our tongues are speaking of things that Christ would spurn? How can we hope to aid Him and hasten His return?

My type is blurred so often, my print is so crooked, but the Master Author keeps perfecting the poem. Put another way, the LORD is still working on me...

He's still working on me,
To make me what I need to be;
It took him just a week to make the moon and stars,
The sun and the earth and Jupiter and Mars;
How loving and patient He must be,
'Cause He's still workin' on me.

There really ought to be a sign upon my heart,
Don't judge him yet, there's an unfinished part;
But I'll be better just according to His plan,
Fashioned by the Master's loving hands.
He's still working on me,
To make me what I need to be;
It took him just a week to make the moon and stars,
The sun and the earth and Jupiter and Mars;
How loving and patient He must be,
'Cause He's still workin' on me.

[2]LISTEN TO THE SONG

What is the supreme Christlikeness? It is to give. It is the "so loved" in John 3:16,

" For God so loved the world, that he gave...

(John 3:16a). If you want to be like Christ, then you need to start by GIVING.

James 1:17, "

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

" What a great SAVIOR!!!

Dear reader, you cannot learn to FORGIVE until you first learn to GIVE. Study the Bible and you will find that greedy people were never forgiving people. It is generous Christians who are the most merciful, because forgiveness is an act of giving. Psalms 37:21, "The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth."

6.11.8 Beware Of Roman Catholicism (2025-11-08 09:54)

Exodus 20:3-6, “Thou shalt have no other gods before me. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.”

The Horrible Sin of IDOLATRY!

Catholicism errantly teaches idol worship, which is strictly forbidden by God. ...

> Exodus 20:4-5
>
> Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above... Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God.
> Deuteronomy 27:15
> Cursed be the man that maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the Lord, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place.

FACT*: The Catholic Church promotes the making and veneration (worship) of statues and images of Mary, saints and even Jesus. God clearly forbids this. Bowing, kneeling or praying to statues is idolatry, not worship of God.

Catholicism calls Mary the “Queen of Heaven,” a title used for a Babylonian pagan goddess God condemned. ...

Jeremiah 7:18
The children gather wood... to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

Jeremiah 44:25
Ye have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows, that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven.

FACT*: The title “Queen of Heaven” is pagan in origin from Babylon. God judged Israel for worshiping this false deity. Catholicism gives this same title to Mary, thereby provoking God to anger through idolatrous worship. It is a horrible sin to worship anyone or anything other than our Creator, the Holy God who authored the inspired King James Bible.

Catholicism errantly teaches that salvation comes partly through works and sacraments, not by faith alone in Jesus Christ. ...

Ephesians 2:8-9
For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.

Romans 11:6
And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace.

Philippians 3:9

And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith.

FACT*: Catholic doctrine adds baptism, confession, the Eucharist and other sacraments as necessary for salvation. But the Bible declares salvation is solely by grace through faith in Christ alone, not of works or rituals.

The toxic Catholic “

Mass

> Hebrews 10:10
> By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

> Hebrews 10:12
> But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God.

FACT*: Catholicism teaches that the Mass is a continual sacrifice of Christ. But inspired Scripture says Jesus died ONCE for all. Repeating Jesus’ crucifixtion in the Mass is a denial of the sufficiency and finality of Christ’s sacrifice.

† † † † † †

The Catholic priesthood falsely claims to mediate between man and God. ...

> 1 Timothy 2:5
> For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus.

> Hebrews 4:14-16
>
> Seeing then that we have a great high priest... Jesus the Son of God... Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace...

FACT*: Catholic priests claim to absolve sins and act as mediators. The Bible says Jesus Christ alone is our High Priest and Mediator. We do not need a human priest to approach God.

† † † † † †

Praying to Mary or “saints” is a form of necromancy—contacting the dead, which God forbids.

> Deuteronomy 18:10-12
> There shall not be found among you any one... that useth divination, or an observer of times, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the Lord.

Isaiah 8:19
And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits... should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead?

FACT*: Catholics pray to Mary and deceased "saints" for intercession. The Bible calls this an abomination. We are to pray to God through Jesus Christ alone.

Catholicism adds man-made tradition to Scripture, directly violating God's command. ...

Mark 7:7-9
Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men... Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

Colossians 2:8
Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men... and not after Christ.

FACT*: Catholicism elevates traditions, councils, and the pope's words to the level of Scripture. But Jesus rebuked those who replaced God's commandments with human tradition.

Calling the pope "Holy Father" blasphemes the name of God. ...

John 17:11
Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me...

Matthew 23:9
And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven.

FACT: Jesus used the term "Holy Father" only for God. Calling a man by this name is blasphemy. Christ commands us not to call any religious leader "father" in a spiritual sense.

Catholicism promotes vain repetitions in prayer, which Jesus forbids.

Matthew 6:7
But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

Ecclesiastes 5:2

Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few.

FACT*: Repeating “Hail Mary” or scripted prayers over and over is condemned by Jesus. God desires sincere, thoughtful, Spirit-led prayer—not ritualistic repetition.

There is not a more dangerous FALSE RELIGION than Roman Catholicism. This includes the Russian Orthodox Church which is headquartered in Moscow, Russia. In contrast, Roman Catholicism is headquartered in Vatican City, Rome. But these two different organizations essentially preach THE SAME demonic false teachings, worshipping Mary and statues.

Salvation is NOT found in ANY religion; but rather, in a PERSON—the Lord Jesus Christ.

6.11.9 Communism Is Not A Good Thing (2025-11-09 09:59)

2nd Thessalonians 3:10-12, “ For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies. Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.”

Before I explain the evils of communism, I need to first address the culprits behind the ruin of our U.S. economy. Bear with me dear reader.

I like to read the writings of Paul Craig Roberts. He is a wise man. We are living in the blame generation in the United States, where most people blame others for their dire situation. This is nothing new. In Genesis 3:1-7 we find Adam blaming God and Eve, and Eve blaming the serpent who deceived her. It is in our sinful human nature to pass the blame.

If a man is lazy and refuses to work, he ought not eat. That is biblical, right? But with that being said, I am also not a blind fool, heartless or an idiot. I have oftentimes heard Bible preachers cite our text passage from 2nd Thessalonians 3:10-12, using the Bible to browbeat people who are financially struggling, hurting and falling behind in their finances, blaming them for their own financial hardship. That is so wrong on numerous levels!

For example: In 2024, I heard Pastor Bill Adams, the incompetent senior pastor of Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola, blame homeless people in a sermon for their own plight. He said they are suffering in poverty on the street because they failed to follow biblical principles. Sadly, Pastor Adams is woefully ignorant and willfully blind to the numerous evils which have created this dire situation in U.S. society today. Pastor Bill Adams failed to mention:

1. That the ’FEDERAL RESEREV ACT’ of 1913 was shadily railroaded through Congress over a quiet Christmas weekend, which took away power over our monetary system from Congress and handed it over to a corrupt group of PRIVATE banking families. It’s been that way ever since, stealing wealth from the American people. [1]Congressman Ron Paul explains how the central banks cause income inequality, causing homelessness.
2. The [2]DEINDUSTRIALIZATION of the United States since the 1970s. Literally tens of millions of American jobs have been relocated to foreign countries, leaving U.S. citizens in unemployment lines. Most jobs in the U.S. today are low-paying minimum wage jobs which do not pay enough livable wages to survive in today's ever more expensive U.S. economy.

3. [3]The problem of ILLEGAL IMMIGRATION. Approximately sixty million illegal immigrants have taken tens of millions of U.S. jobs, [4]even some high paying lucrative jobs. The Mormon owned and controlled Marriott Hotel chain almost exclusively employs illegal aliens. Most farms and agricultural operations employ illegal aliens. The cheap labor is necessary due to inflation caused by the crooked Federal Reserve Banks.

These are THREE SORE EVILS that continue to force Americans into poverty and homelessness. Pastor Bill Adams is an uneducated FOOL, who shamefully belittles the homeless for their dire circumstances which are beyond their control. THE TRUTH is that many homeless people at one time had a good job and everything was fine, but then something happened that forced them into poverty, so that they lost their housing and a livable wage. It's not their fault! You cannot work if there is no work, or if the job cannot pay enough money to live a normal life in the U.S. today. I and my wife were shopping at Walmart last week and were shocked to see a 3-pack of ribeye for $70 with tax! No, we DIDN'T buy it.

I hear cold-hearted fools saying that people can work two or three jobs, but that is so unfair. NO ONE can functional normally by working 16 or more hours per day, plus additional travel times. That is workacide! Pastors need to either WAKE UP and start reading, or else KEEP YOUR IGNORANT MOUTH SHUT BILL ADAMS!!!

On a different note, I read these true words today by [5]Paul Craig Roberts, warning Americans that our U.S. Democracy is at an end, because politics and the government have become reckless! Our federal government has been shut down now for 39 DAYS! ...

> New York, once the financial capital of the world, has fallen, according to the narrative, to the communist agenda of an immigrant-invader from Kampala, Uganda. But perhaps that is only Mamdani's pose assumed in our woke era to gain access to wealth that comes from the political award of contracts. Regardless, the electorate's choice of Mamdani shows a complete change in outlook and a Democrat Party that has moved outside the American tradition.
> I remember when the Democrats' political constituency consisted of the poor and the working class, now disparaged as "the Trump deplorables." Today the Democrats' political constituency is college-educated women and weak men who have accepted their subordination in the interest of a career. Whereas once Democrats focused on confiscating income and wealth from the successful (who were referred to as "fortunate") and redistributing it to the unsuccessful (called "less fortunate"), they now confiscate the earnings and wealth of citizens to support immigrant-invaders. This and other such word tricks pushed the questions of merit and citizenship out of the picture. For women the issue was one of the caring against the hard-hearted.
> [6]https://www.paulcraigroberts.org/2025/11/05/societal-death-by-feminiza tion/
> Today Democrat political constituencies are focused on redistributing the incomes of American citizens to illegal aliens. Not only do Americans who support themselves also support 42 million Americans who do not or who are gaming the system, they also support the 14 million immigrant-invaders that the Obama and Biden regimes policy of open borders imported into America.

While these devastating trends were developing, Wall Street and corporate executives exported American manufacturing jobs to Asia and Mexico, thereby dismantling the ladders of upward mobility that had made the US an opportunity society. Today the focus of the Democrat Party is on opportunity for immigrant-invaders. Democrats fight tooth and nail to prevent the federal government from deporting illegals. Indeed, Democrats want illegals to have voting rights, and Democrat judges have ruled that proof of citizenship is unnecessary in order to vote. Essentially, Democrats have no conception of the United States as a nation. Indeed, they are hostile to those who think that citizenship and the US Constitution have meaning, dismissing both as tools of white supremacists.

Where liberals, conservatives, libertarians, and leftists went horribly wrong was in assuming that government was an independent institution. The liberal-left imagined government as a moral institution that redistributed ill-gotten wealth from those who stole it to the deserving poor from whom it was stolen. The conservative-libertarian contingent saw government as a threat to private property, merit, and individual freedom. No one saw if for what it is: an instrument for political and material interests to use to further their agendas and their fortunes.

The “public interest” is a false narrative. No one serves any such interest. Government is a privatized institution that serves private interests. It is fought over because it can bestow on favored factions the incomes of others. The Party in control gets to hand out the money. That is the only important issue.

Today in America the welfare class supported by the work force is 25 % of the size of the work force. If the Democrats win the battle over illegals, and Obama and Biden’s 14 million illegals are added to the 42 million welfare class, those dependent on the incomes of the work force rise to one-third the size of the work force.

With the advent of AI and robotics, the outlook for working Americans seems bleak. If the unemployment from AI predicted by experts is accurate, most of the US work force will be without jobs. Who then supports the welfare class enlarged by illegal immigration?

Elon Musk said that the advent of AI brings with it communism as the earnings of AI will have to be redistributed to the population in order that people will have the money to sustain their lives by purchasing the products of AI produced goods and services.

What we seem to be facing is a social revolution brought by technology. There is very little awareness and discussion of this massive challenge to human society. If it comes upon unprepared populations, the result will be chaotic, especially in the Western World where white ethnicities are demonized as racists and exploiters of people of color. The white populations will be the first to be exterminated in order to reduce the claim on resources.

In the Democrat mind, freedom today means the suppression of freedom. Freedom of speech is racist and hurtful. Freedom of protest and association is a plot for insurrection if it is done by aversive racists. Family values are suppressive of women. Citizenship is non-inclusive. A common language, mores, and history are suppressive of multiculturalism and diversity. Nothing that once defined an American is acceptable in the era of wokeness.

For all practical purposes, the USA is being erased.

I was sickened this week to learn that a MUSLIM COMMUNIST (Zohran Mamdani) was just elected as mayor of New York City. Woe unto the future of our country! I can sympathize with the desperation of New York's citizens. The average rent in New York City for 2025 is [9] $4,438 per month. Yet the minimum wage in New York City in 2025 is only $16.50 an hour, which sadly doesn't even cover HALF the cost of your monthly rent. How can people survive?

With these sad facts in mind, it is not difficult at all to understand why New Yorkers have gladly voted for a young 34-year-old COMMUNIST named who has promised to provide free train rides, tax the rich to give to the poor, run profit-free government-run grocery stores, et cetera.

And it's just not fair nor reasonable for some dim-witty ignorant Baptist pastor, like Bill Adams at the Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola, to shamefully browbeat poor and homeless people, blaming them for the consequences of a century of abuse of government power. You should be blaming the shady Federal Reserve, Deindustrialization and rampant illegal immigration for our nation's economic woes today! The least people to blame are the suffering victims. Proverbs 30:14,

" There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men. "

Liberals are falsely saying that Mamdani is NOT a communist; but rather, a DEMOCRAT SOCIALIST. Right! And I'm Huckleberry Finn! ...

> He's a democratic socialist, not a communist
>
> While Trump and other opponents keep calling Mamdani a communist, he identifies as something different: a democratic socialist. He believes government should play a role in reducing economic disparity, but he doesn't advocate for a communist system where property is collectively owned.
> Mamdani does favor raising taxes on the wealthy to fund proposals he argues would make the city more affordable. That includes free bus service, universal child care, and his signature issue: a freeze on rent increases for the city's 1 million rent-regulated apartments. Opponents say a rent freeze would harm landlords, who have also been hit hard by inflation. [10]READ MORE

I know bullcrap when I smell it! Dear reader, there is not a dime's difference between a Socialist versus a Communist.

Newly elected New York City mayor Zohran Mamdani has [11]suggested that abolishing private property could be a preferable system to ensure housing for everyone, arguing that the current system leaves many people unhoused. This statement has sparked significant controversy and criticism from various political figures.

It was community dictator Karl Marx (1818-1883) who summed up communism with one statement: 'ABOLITION OF PRIVATE PROPERTY!' Do you think it's a mere coincidence that Zohran Mamdani just said the SAME THING! How could anyone foolishly remain in denial and honestly claim that Mamdani, an admitted Democrat Socialist, is not indeed A COMMUNIST?!

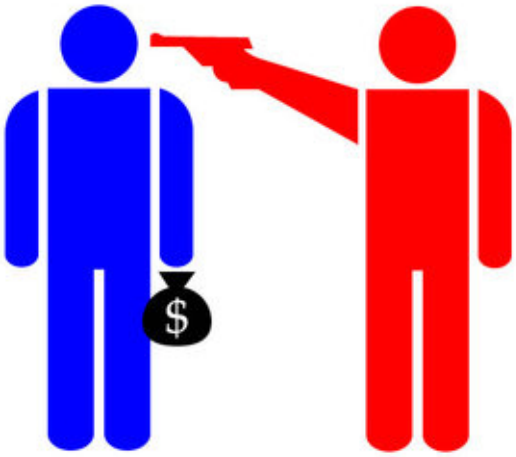
You see, with property ownership comes PROPETY RIGHTS. But if the government owns all the property, then they alone have all THE RIGHTS! Starting to get the big picture?

Sadly, what I see happening in America is that honest Capitalism is being unjustly blamed for our present dishonest, shady, crooked, fraudulent economic system which is based upon FRAUD. That is, the ungodly Federal Reserve Act of 1913 took away the power over our monetary system and handed it over to a bunch of criminal clowns; namely, 'THE BANKSTERS!' as I call them. They are PRIVATE families, not federal in any way. They do NOT have the best interest of the American people at heart; they are DIRTY THIEVES!!! That's the only type of thief that there really is—a dirty thief!

Communist policies may appease desperate New Yorkers in the short term, but history has clearly shown the world that in the long run communism always leads to war, poverty, lack of motivation in the workforce and government tyranny. If you think what has happened in China, Russia, North Korea and other communist countries couldn't happen here, you are extremely naïve friend. [12]IT CAN HAPPEN HERE!!!

Taking from the rich to empower the poor will work short term, but what happens down the road when there are no more rich people to parasite off of? Honest labor and Capitalism are always the best system of economics. But what we have in the United States today (since 1913) is neither honest, nor capitalist; it is [13]economic and banking fraud.

I assure you dear reader that Socialism and Communism are NOT the solution to our nation's economic woes. In this blog I have clearly identified THREE sore evils which have caused poverty across the United States for the past 112 years, including '[14]The Great Depression' of the 1930s. The American people are being played like a violin!



Always remember that 'INFLATION IS A TAX!' Every time that our reckless federal government BORROWS trillions more dollars (which the Feds LEND to us with interest), it cause inflation to rise (i.e., the cost of living goes way up). That is why food and housing cost so much in 2025. That is why the homelessness epidemic across the U.S. will only get much worse. The Federal Reserve Banking system is a giant Ponzi Scheme which will ultimately fail and our economy will implode. Could this be the true reason for the now forming police state? Time alone will tell.

Every American should be able to work a regular job to earn enough money to buy a house, purchase a car, and live comfortably. The cost of houses has skyrocketed over the past 40 years, so that very few young couples could ever afford to buy one. Ultimately, this will all pressure society to adopt communist polices which WILL destroy our traditional American way of life. It just happened in New York City. The residents are tired, overworked, underpaid and city conditions just keep getting worse and worse.

In case you didn't know, THE AMERICAN DREAM DIED A LONG TIME AGO!

6.11.10 It Would Require 31,665 Years To Count To One Trillion (2025-11-10 05:05)

Psalms 145:3, “Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.”

Our Creator is truly more than amazing.

It would take you approximately 11 days to count to ONE MILLION.

It would take you approximately 31.7 years to count to one BILLION.

To count to ONE TRILLION would take you approximately 31,665 years!!! This estimate is based on the fact that there are about 31.5 million seconds in a year. Wow! However, i n actuality, for example, it would require about 5-7 seconds to read a number like 432,584,391,007. So, in reality, if you were to read out loud every number until you reached ONE TRILLION, it would literally take you about 150,000 YEARS!!!

Astronomers now estimate that there are at least 20 TRILLION galaxies in the known universe; not stars, just galaxies! And each galaxy contains hundreds of billions of suns (stars, some MUCH bigger than our own sun).

The biggest star astronomers have found so far is named ’UY Scuti,’ a red supergiant with a radius approximately 1,700 times that of the sun. It is located in the constellation Scutum and is so large that nearly 5 billion of our local suns could fit inside.

It has a mind-numbing radius estimated at 909 solar radii (’solar radius’ is a unit of distance used to express the size of objects in astronomy relative to the Sun). UY Scuti has a radius of approximately 909 solar radii, which means if it were centered in our solar system (instead of our sun), its surface would extend beyond the orbit of Jupiter, reaching around 8 astronomical units (AU) in diameter. Wow! UY Scuti has a ginormous volume of 750 million times that of our sun. No telescope built by man is capable of seeing beyond the known universe! God is more than amazing!

The new ”James Webb Space Telescope’ (JWST) can see much farther than all of its predecessors, operating at 7 degrees above Absolute Zero (which is -459.67 F). Since red infrared light is absorbed by heat, engineers had to design the JWST to operate close to Absolute Zero, the coldest temperature obtainable at which all molecules stop moving.

But as incredible as the JWST is, the manmade device is still greatly limited as to how far it can peer into deep space, literally viewing light that has been traveling for BILLIONS of years to reach the Milky Way Galaxy. The living and true God is truly astounding! There is still more to see that mankind simply doesn’t have the technological power yet to see.

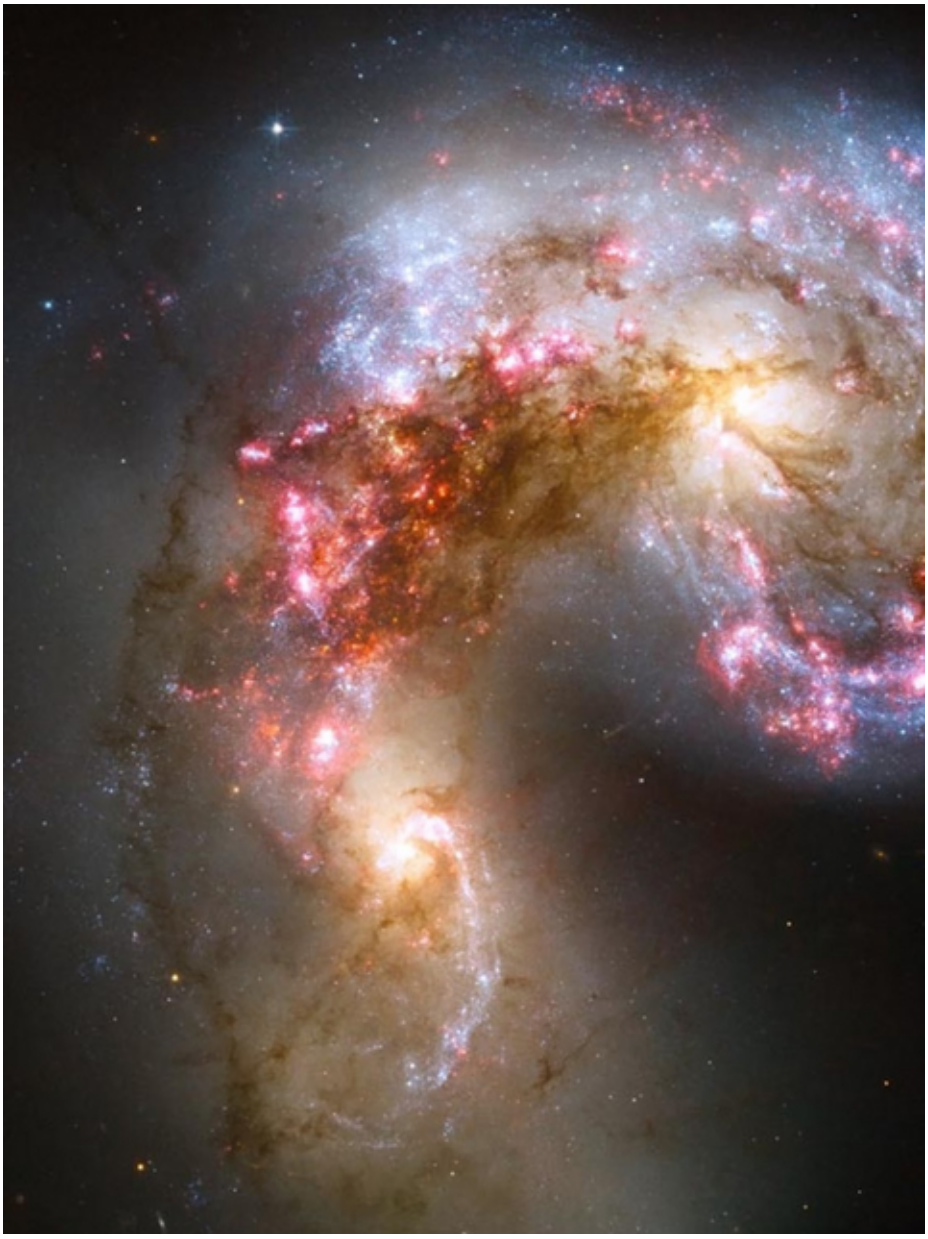
And if that hasn’t blown your mind, then consider the longest word in English...



pneumonoultramicroscopicsilicovolcanoconiosis

Wow! This word has 45 letters and refers to a lung disease caused by inhaling very fine silicate or quartz dust. [1]Here’s how to pronounce that big word.

And finally, it would take you approximately 31,688,087.81 years to count to one quadrillion. That is, if it took you one second to speak each number. Realistically, it would take about 10 seconds each to say those big numbers out loud, so we’re actually talking about an estimate closer to 300 million years to count to one quadrillion. I’ll bet you didn’t realize just how big these numbers really are. I didn’t either at first. Our benevolent Savior is majestic and faithful.

It makes me weep when I realize that such a faithful omnipotent Creator would suffer, bleed and die for an unworthy guilty sinner like me. Genesis 32:10a, “ I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant...

6.11.11 WORKS Are NOT The Result Of SALVATION (2025-11-11 18:27)

Galatians 5:22-25, “But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. And they that are Christ’s have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.”

Someone posted the following heresy on social media today...

“Works are not to OBTAIN salvation, but are the RESULT of salvation!!!!!!”

Here is my biblical response that I sent her...

No, no, no, my friend. Kindly, that is incorrect. WORKS are not the result of salvation. That is a common misunderstanding. WORKS are produced by the fruit of the indwelling Holy Spirit in a believer who CHOOSES to walk in the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25), which has absolutely nothing to do with receiving God’s free gift of eternal life. We must not confuse service (Romans 12:1) with salvation (Galatians 3:26).

Many believers live in the Spirit, but they do NOT walk in the Spirit. That is why we are exhorted in Galatians 5:25, “If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.”

Many believers (who are safely secure in God’s free gift of eternal life by faith alone in Jesus) live openly shameful sinful lives. False prophets who preach the Devil’s lie of ’Lordship Salvation’ would falsely accuse them of not being saved.

We simply CANNOT determine if someone is saved or not by examining their works. Biblical evidence of this truth is found in Matthew 7:21-23. These cursed false prophets boasted of their "many wonderful works" in Jesus’ name. They had "prophesied" (preached) in Jesus’ name. But Christ denied knowing them as His sheep. So we see that doing good works cannot be used as evidence of the new birth. There is no way to determine if someone is saved or lost, except by a direct testimony from their own mouth concerning Jesus Christ.

The inspired Word of God teaches that as believers we fall IN GRACE, never FROM GRACE. Romans 6:1, “

What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

6.11.12 We Are Living In A Corrupt Society (2025-11-12 05:17)

Isaiah 1:4-5, "Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward. Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint."

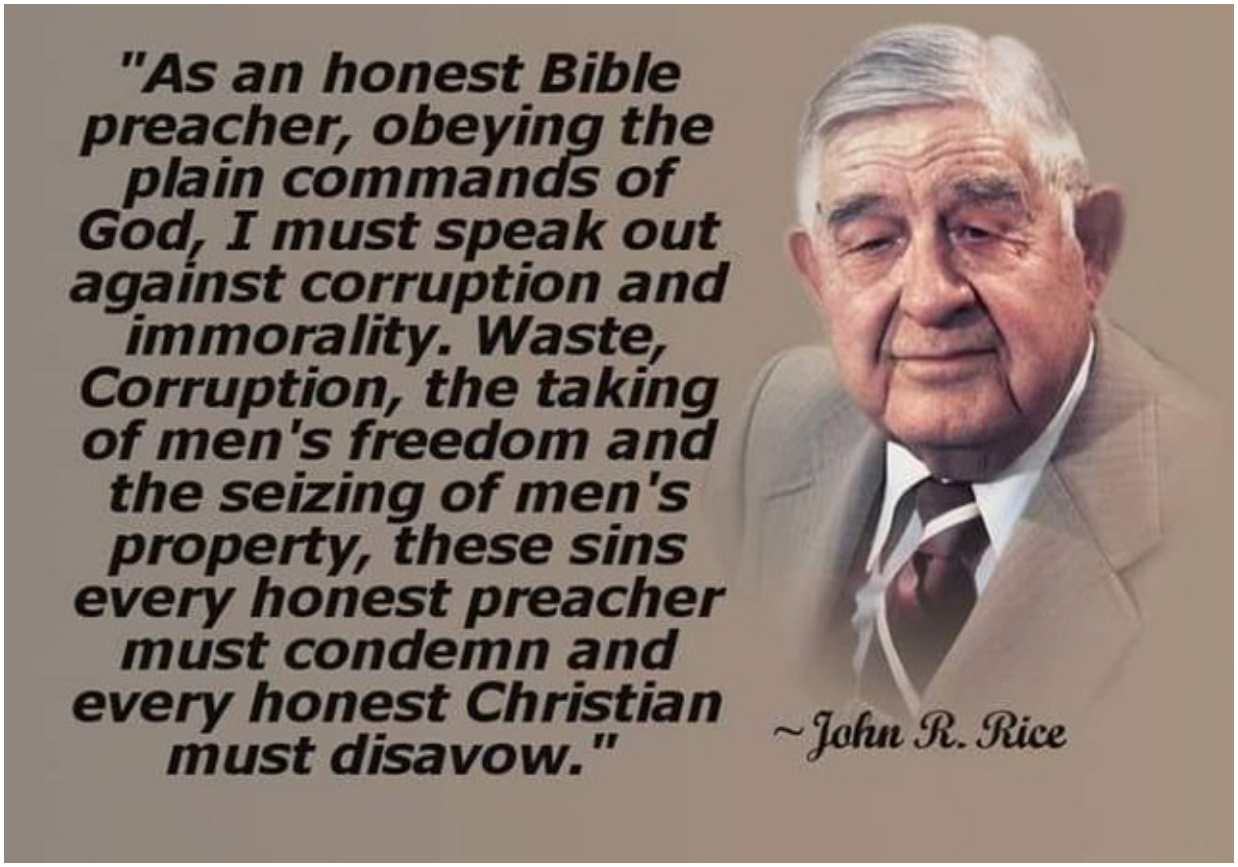
We live in one of the most CORRUPT societies in history in the United States. Our government has betrayed us again and again. I just learned that the U.S. Pentagon cannot account for

[1]63 % of the $4,000,000,000,000 of taxpayer money entrusted to it. You don't just misplace $2.5 TRILLION! I humbly think SOMEONE STOLE IT! When I stop to realize as a taxpayer that it would require about 500,000 years to count out loud to 4 TRILLION, and that is how much money the Pentagon is MISSING, it really pisses me off!

From the ungodly villains, who control the banks to the military, thieves all!

> "Most Americans have no real understanding of the operation of the international money lenders. The accounts of the Federal Reserve System have never been audited. It operates outside the control of Congress and manipulates the credit of the United States." —Senator Barry Goldwater (Representative from Arkansas)

> "I sincerely believe ... that banking establishments are more dangerous than standing armies, and that the principle of spending money to be paid by posterity under the name of funding is but swindling futurity on a large scale." —Thomas Jefferson to John Taylor, 1816



That is why a 3-pack of ribeye now costs $75. A saw at Walmart yesterday that ribeye now costs $23.47 per pound, not including tax. You can thank the criminal Federal Reserve who gladly continue LENDING more money (so far we owe $38,000,000,000,000 in national debt) to our INCOMPETENT federal government. Politicians love to recklessly spend what they don't have, which causes INFLATION.

I've read that presently there are an estimated 700,000 homeless people across the United States. Do you know how much money $2.5 TRILLION dollars divided by 700,000 is? I'll tell you! You could literally give $3,571,429 to each and every homeless person, so that they'd never be homeless again. Now consider another $6,200,000,000,000 that our government squandered on the Iraqi War (2003-1011), that Congress never sanctioned.

We've lost our integrity as a nation. Why aren't Pentagon officials rotting in prison? The answer is obviously that they're all in on the fraud. Money DOESN'T just vanish! Where is the accountability? Thankfully, our faithful Creator in Heaven cares, and He knows exactly where every penny has gone, and He will punish the wicked (Ecclesiastes 5:8).

> Isaiah 13:11, "And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible."

HELL WILL BE HOT ENOUGH!!!

6.11.13 Why Do “Chick Tracts” Present Two Different Plans Of Salvation? (2025-11-13 13:34)

Galatians 1:6-8, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.”

On their popular Chick.com ministry website, their official Statement of Faith reads:

> Salvation is the gift of God and includes the forgiveness of sins, the imputation of the righteousness of Jesus Christ, the gift of eternal life, and adoption as children of the heavenly Father. Union with the triune God provides all blessings in this life and the life hereafter. The gift of salvation is received by faith alone, apart from all good works and merit. [1]SOURCE

Now here is a different plan of salvation, presented on the back page of every Chick Tract...

THE BIBLE SAYS THERE'S ONLY ONE WAY TO HEAVEN!

Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." John 14:6

NOBODY ELSE CAN SAVE YOU. TRUST JESUS TODAY!

"That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." Rom. 10:9

1. Admit you are a sinner. See Romans 3:10
2. Be willing to turn from sin (repent). See Acts 17:30
3. Believe that Jesus Christ died for you, was buried and rose from the dead. See Rom. 10:9-10
4. Through prayer, invite Jesus into your heart to become your personal Saviour. See Rom. 10:13

WHAT TO PRAY

Dear God, I am a sinner and need forgiveness. I believe that Jesus Christ shed His precious blood and died for my sin. I am willing to turn from sin. I now invite Christ to come into my heart as my personal Saviour.

If you trusted Jesus as your Saviour, you have just begun a wonderful new life with Him. Now:

1. Read your Bible (KJV) every day to get to know Jesus Christ better.
2. Talk to God in prayer every day.
3. Be baptized, worship, fellowship, and serve with other Christians in a church where Christ is preached and the Bible is the final authority.
4. Tell others about Jesus Christ.

Here's help to grow as a new Christian! Read The Next Step, available at www.chick.com.

'[3]This Was Your Life' (page 23)

Whoa-Horsie! Something is very wrong here! Way wrong! The plan of salvation on their Chick.com website says we are saved by FAITH ALONE; but the plan of salvation presented in well over one billion Chick Tracts says you must BE WILLING TO TURN FROM SIN, INVITE JESUS INTO YOUR HEART and PRAY A PRAYER. That is very different than salvation by faith alone. I hope you see the utter hypocrisy folks!

There is only one of two possible logical conclusions why they are doing this which is either:

1. The people who presently run the Chick Track organization do NOT agree with the perverse theology of its founder Jack Chick (1924-2016), but are concerned about the public backlash if they change their published plan of salvation 65 years later.

2. They are deceitfully playing both sides of the fence to appease everyone, and don't really believe any of it; they're just in it for the money.

Why else would they have two different plans of salvation? You decide dear reader, but you cannot glibly walk away after reading this disturbing contradiction and honestly say that there is no problem. What saith the Scripture? ...

> O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?
>
> This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

You get saved dear reader by 'THE HEARING OF FAITH,' not by doing the works of the law (aka, turning from your sinning). That is, when you HEAR it preached, you get saved by putting your FAITH in the GOOD NEWS (GOSPEL) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day. SHAME on Jack Chick and his accomplices for perverting the verbally inspired Word of God. They have perverted the Gospel of free grace! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

Pensacola Christian College Also Preaches Multiple Conflicting Plans of Salvation

Pensacola Christian College has the same incompetence problem today, [4]presenting four different plans of salvation to confuse their students and the local community. Why do they have four different plans of salvation? Why are they so carless and reckless with the Gospel? Whereas the Apostle Paul plainly defines " in [5]1st Corinthians 15:1-6, and warns us that there are no other gospels, corrupt organizations like PCC and Chick.com are preaching MULTIPLE contradictory plans of salvation. Woe unto them all when they answer to God!

I was banned by PCC's leaders in 2022 from ever attending their church again, because I faithfully took a stand against their corruption, lies and heresy. I can truthfully say with all biblical authority and propriety—GOD DAMN PENSACOLA CHRISTIAN COLLEGE TO HELL!

Sadly, I can say the same thing about Chick.com and their toxic Chick Tracts that poison lost sinner's minds with a counterfeit plan of salvation. The fact that Chick Tracks do get read as eye-candy makes them all that much more theologically dangerous.

You'd be shocked dear reader, if you knew how many lost sinners didn't get saved simply because they weren't willing to give up some sinful bad habit(s) in their life. Folks, that is NOT the Gospel taught in the inspired King James Bible. Christ went to the cross of Calvary to pay for your sins and mine. God doesn't demand that you first be willing to reform your life of sin, to clean yourself up, before He will give you His free gift of eternal life through faith alone in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9). PCC and Chick Tracks have it WRONG!!!

We Must Expose False Teachers On The Gospel

If you care dear friend, then please help me warn others about these corrupt institutions. ...

> Titus 1:10, "For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth."

Please take notice especially of that last phrase, "commandments of men, that turn from the truth." [6]Lordship Salvation is a commandment of men. That is, it is a manmade doctrine and not biblical truth. Repenting of your sins to get to Heaven is a manmade commandment of men that is not found in the verbally inspired Word of God. Neither is praying a sinner's prayer, inviting Jesus into your heart, becoming a Christ follower, getting water baptized or surrendering to Jesus as " of one’s life required to be saved. You may do all of these things and yet never have been born again, without which you cannot enter into God’s Kingdom (John 3:1-7).

Please BEWARE of Chick Tracts. RUN from them as fast as you can, because they could send you to Hell forever. Thank you friend for reading my ministry blog. Jesus is precious!!!

Please understand dear reader that I do not enjoy being labeled as the troublemaker all the time. Wicked king Ahab called the prophet Elijah a troublemaker. 1st Kings 18:17, “And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel? ” Elijah told Ahab that it was he and his wicked family who were the troublemakers.

1st Kings 18:18, “ And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father’s house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim.”

All of these lying FALSE PROPHETS today—PCC, Chick.com, Pacific Garden Mission’s ’UNSHACKLED’ broadcast, Bob Jones University, Billy and Franklin Graham, Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, John MacArthur and Joel Osteen (to name but a few with their damnable Lordship Salvation heresy) are accursed by God almighty! I assure you with all biblical authority that Hell will be hot enough!

Just like ungodly Roman Catholics who indict themselves for IDOLATRY when they [7]erase the Second of God’s Ten Commandments from the Holy Bible, so also does Chick.com indict themselves for CORRUPTING GOD’S WORD when they preach TWO DIFFERENT PLANS OF SALVATION. They’re admitting to everyone that something is amuck at Chick.com. The very fact that they have two separate conflicting plans of salvation speaks volumes as to their religious scrupulosity, incompetence and guilt. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

6.11.14 The Words Of A Hellbound Fool (2025-11-14 09:55)

1st Corinthians 1:18, “

For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.

I found this blasphemous video today on YouTube, in which a foolish young woman named Christy attacks God. She says she grew up Baptist, and then falsely claims she “ used to be a Christian

but in fact Christy never was a child of God, because once you are saved you are always saved. She is a still child of the Devil. The following horrible video has so far received over 1,000,000 views on YouTube, slandering God and the inspired Holy Bible. ...

5 Bible Passages That Caused Me To Lose My Faith

Here is my unedited reply (comment) to her video on YouTube...

> Kindly said, you were never a Christian as you claim. I have been a fundamentalist Baptist since I became a born again Christian at age 13 in 1980. I feel so sorry for you Christy. One day you will be horrified when you realize the wickedness of the blasphemous things you are saying toward God. This is such a shameful video. And you are wickedly selling merchandise that promotes your AntiChrist views. You will someday regret your words friend.
> You are wresting the inspired Word of God through a filter of your own finite knowledge. There are good answers for all of your alleged injustices in the Bible. For example: In your third accusation against God regarding in Deuteronomy 22;28, you are quoting from the corrupt New International Version (NIV). The word "rap _" is incorrect. Nothing in the original Hebrew word suggests forced intercourse. We all know of a young woman with rose-colored glasses who fell in love with a bum, who took her and had his intimate fun with her, and then cast her aside like garbage and moved on to his next victim. This is what God is trying to prevent in Deuteronomy 22;28, holding the man accountable. What you fail to acknowledge is that the same inspired Holy Bible you condemn requires the death penalty for a man who assaults a woman. So, kindly said, your understanding of God's Word is very wrong.
> Regarding John 3;16, you sinfully slander God by saying "if he were a smart God" he wouldn't require humans to "believe" on His only begotten Son Jesus to obtain eternal life. In your flawed thinking, God is not "smart" for eternally rewarding us for believing on Jesus. But what you fail to understand is that you are a guilty sinner, and so was I before I received Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for my sins. We justly deserve to burn in Hell for our own sins, which is THE TRUTH whether you believe it or not. When people sin and commit acts of evil, God sees it all and promises repeatedly in His Word to hold humans individually accountable to punish the wicked. God in His love has made a way of escape through faith in Jesus Christ.

You are wrong to judge God based on your flawed human reasoning. Do you realize Jezebel that you're condemning the omnipotent God who created trillions of galaxies by the mere Word of His mouth? It is God who gave you life in your mother's womb and who keeps you breathing. It is God who gives you the food you eat, and the good health to enjoy His blessings. God is a good God. Just because you don't understand everything in the inspired Holy Bible doesn't give you a right to place God on trial.

You foolishly chuckle and speculate that God is wrong to allow good people to burn in the Lake of Fire forever for not believing on Christ, but you fail to understand that there are no "good people." We are all wicked sinners in the sight of our holy Creator. You don't have to be "good" to enter into Heaven, you must be 100 % perfect. Obviously that is impossible. That is why Christ died on a cross 2,000 years ago for all humanity, so that anyone through faith in His death, burial and resurrection can have eternal life. This is the Gospel, by which WHOSOEVER believes it is saved (1st Corinthians 15;1-6, Romans 1;16).

The truth is that you don't reject the inspired Holy Bible for any of the reasons you cited; but rather, because you are bitter against your Creator for some reason. Perhaps someone hurt you in the past. I have been deeply hurt and wronged by some ungodly Baptist pastors myself, but that is not God's fault. I hate organized religion and am against 99 % of today's pathetic churches, but our Creator is a good and faithful God. You are foolishly rejecting 1,189 chapters in the King James Bible based on a half dozen passages that you disagree with. That is not wise.

1st Corinthians 1:18, " For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God." There's room at the cross for you too Christy.

6.11.15 Without Love Nothing Else Matters (2025-11-16 13:38)

1st Corinthians 13:1-3, "Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing."

The Apostle Paul gives us four things that become ineffective without love:

1. A gifted writer or orator is ineffective without LOVE.

2. A learned Bible scholar is ineffective without LOVE.
3. Someone with great faith in God is ineffective without LOVE.
4. Doing many wonderful works is ineffective without LOVE.

The old adage is true: People don't care what you know, until they know that you care.

Paul said that even if he possessed gifted oratory skills or the tongues of angels, it would merely sound like noise if there were no love. That reminds me of a 1969 Charlie Brown special where the [1]teacher's calls out Linus and Charlie Brown: "Wah Wa Wa Wah Wa Wa."

When a pastor backslides spiritually to the shameful point that he is merely going through the motions three times a week, playing church, he has become ineffective for God.

Unlike 99 % of churches, pastors and Bible colleges today, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) had a heart for hurting people. ...

> "The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they've been trained by people that have never built churches, and they have no compassion." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[2]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard"

Dr. Hyles was talking about cold-hearted places like Bob Jones University and Pensacola Christian College, cesspools of neo-evangelical apostasy and sin. Case in point is the shameful fact that I found not one, two, or even three, but [3]FOUR different plans of salvation at PCC! This just proves that doctrinal integrity doesn't matter at PCC, making money does. Today's spiritually dead Bible colleges and churches woefully lack God's love for sinners.

At PCC and their ungodly Campus Church the SYSTEM always comes first, but individual PEOPLE don't matter. There is no love. People are expendable, as I found out in 2022 when their wicked pastor Jeff Redlin banned me from attending Campus Church.

Ichabod

(the glory of the Lord is departed) is written over their doors at Pensacola Christian College. Woe unto the wicked leaders at PCC! Sadly, my fundamentalist Bible preaching against the [4]religious CULT at PCC is a laughing matter to them, for which God will avenge me (Galatians 1:6-9, 6:7). Proverbs 12:17,

"He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit."

The Beam In Their Eye At Pensacola Christian College

When I attended Hyles-Anderson College (HAC) between 1985 to 1993 (I graduated in 1993 with honors and a degree in Pastoral Theology), I heard Pastor Hyles preach against the neo-evangelical camp, but I didn't really understand what he meant. That was 35 years ago!

Today, I fully understand [5]what Brother Hyles was trying to warn us about (

Weathering The Storm,

preached in 1989)

. I have been at war since 2014 with the ungodly neo-evangelicals in the demonic Bob Jones University (BJU) camp, with their Devil's Bible revisions and Lordship Salvation counterfeit gospel.

I was on the front lines at the [6]shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (all theologically incompetent BJU alumni), whose former longtime pastor [7]Marty Herron should be rotting in prison for all of the lives that he destroyed with his theological lies and [8]calloused heart toward hurting people . Herron is an [9]utter disgrace as a church pastor , who ought not be allowed to come anywhere near young people. I painfully learned that [10]TELLING THE TRUTH is a crime at Harvest Baptist Church. Their new pastor since 2018, Gary Walton, is no better than Mr. Herron—Lordship Salvation devils in the pulpit. [11]Marty Herron ruined many people's lives, sending them to Hell with a FALSE GOSPEL!

I have also been at war with the ungodly CULT at [12]Pensacola Christian College (PCC), whose [13]wicked pastors are also abusive toward hurting people. They [14]do NOT contend for the Christian faith in the PCC camp. Sadly, PCC preaches hardcore Lordship Salvation today, having gone [15]down the same spiritual sewer with [16]Pacific

[17]Garden Mission and thousands of other once doctrinally sound ministries. Like Bubonic Plague, Scarlet Fever, Ebola and COVID-19, Lordship Salvation is an infectious disease that people don't even detect until it is too late. The biggest difference is that the infectious plagues

I just mentioned may kill your BODY, but Lordship Salvation will kill your SOUL in the Lake of Fire forever (Revelation 20:11-15).

I have learned that in all the bad churches that I have unfortunately attended, who were infected with Satan's lie of Lordship Salvation and wrong repentance, the pastors of those churches all woefully lacked God's love for people. Here is a list of CORRUPT churches and religious organizations which I have discovered and faithfully exposed:

1. [18]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam
2. [19]Pensacola Christian College in Pensacola, Florida
3. [20]Bob Jones University in Greenville, South Carolina
4. [21]Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola
5. [22] Family Baptist Church
   in Pensacola
6. [23] Fairfield Drive Baptist Church
   in Pensacola
7. [24] Victory Baptist Church
   in Pensacola
8. [25] First Baptist Church of Pensacola
9. [26] Bible Baptist Church
   in Pensacola
10. [27]'UNSHACKLED' and Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago

I have just named a handful of dangerous religious cults today who are WRONG on repentance and the Gospel. RUN from these places!

BEWARE of these spiritual dung holes!

Each and every one of these religious institutions preach ANOTHER GOSPEL, rather than free grace as the inspired King James Bible teaches. Proverbs 16:5, " Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

There is a woeful LACK OF LOVE in churches today. When I pleaded with Pastor Herron to come back to church at a dark time in my life, he threw me under the bus, leaving me for dead.

When I pleaded with Pastor Jeff Redlin to just let me come back to church, that monster refused and threw me under the bus. These are wicked men, incompetent clergy, phonies in the pulpit, NOT godly men who posses Christ's love for all humanity. There are something VERY wrong spiritually with a pastor who selectively cares about people.

> "You can't love anybody, until you love everybody!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[28]The Test Of Spiritual Maturity"

Amen! The test of our spiritual faith is not how much we love Jesus, but how much we love Judas! God is not a respecter of persons, which the inspired Holy Bible makes very clear (Romans 2:11; Romans 10:12). Loving people is NOT optional in the Christian life. You don't have to LIKE people dear reader, but biblically you do have to LOVE them!

Jesus plainly taught in the story of the Good Samaritan that all humanity are my neighbours. That doesn't mean we should allow tens of millions of illegal aliens to sneak into our country, and then be forced to feed, cloth, school, hospitalize and house them with taxpayer money. Jesus was simply teaching that we should be fair (just) with all men, doing unto others as we would have them do unto us. Matthew 7:12, "

Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

Galatians 6:3, "For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself."

I know that I am a nobody, but Jesus is God and I know that I am somebody to Him (1st Peter 5:7). Jesus is the Christ, who died on a cross in my place 2,000 years ago to pay my debt of sin (and yours), so that by faith I could spend eternity with Him. THANK YOU LORD!

The inspired Word of God warns that we will be serving God in vain if we do it without genuine love for people. It is tragic that 99 % of pastors today couldn't care less about hurting, difficult, poor or undesirable people. In sharp contrast, Jesus cared about a grieving woman. He cared about a dying thief on a cross. Jesus cared about a blind man. The Lord cared about a sick leper, a man with palsy, a curious Pharisee named Nicodemus, and a hungry crowd of thousands who followed Him. Jesus cares!

If you have faith in God to please Him (Hebrews 11:6), then you must believe this.

2nd Corinthians 8:9, "For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich." That is love. Jesus is our divine example, who died on a cross to pay for the sins of the vilest of criminals, haters and evil people. THANK YOU JESUS!

Love is caring. Love is thinking. That is, when you take time to think about someone else—their burdens and their needs, their problems and pain, and then you pray for them—that is love. Love inspires us to be kind, gentle, generous, forgiving and fair toward others. I have found so little of God's love in today's pathetic churches. What I do see is the love of money!

Dear reader, you'll never be any closer to God than you love others. It is impossible to draw close to God while hating anyone. Even Jesus called Judas Iscariot, the man who had just betrayed Him to be crucified, "

Friend

(Matthew 26:50). Christ forgave the men who had just used rusty spikes to nail Him to a splintered wooden cross (Luke 23:34).

In my humble opinion, the pastors who don't care about right doctrine, the accuracy of the Holy Bible and the purity of the Gospel —neither do they care about suffering people. Sadly, we've got a bunch of yuppie type Richie Rich snobs for pastors nowadays who don't hesitate to throw people under the bus. By God's grace, may we not be like that.

When I attended the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola for 45 months, NOT ONCE did any of the pastors ask for my story, try to get to know me, or even bother to initiate a single conversation with me. SHAME ON BRAD AND BOBBY MOFFETT! They have no business calling themselves “

They are parasites, mooching off of Christianity (Romans 16:17-18). That clearly shows they don’t care, nor do they possess God’s love for others.

THE TRUTH is that they hate Pastor Jack Hyles and my website ministry because we are FUNDAMENTALISTS. They held a grudge against me in their hearts for the entire 45 months that I sincerely attended their church, but I didn’t realize what was going on until the end, when they cruelly kicked me and my wife out. You see, when you do what is right, those who are living in wickedness will despise and reject you. Those pastor’s wives both wear worldly pants in public, blaspheming the Word of God by their wickedness.

Those ungodly pastors are neo-evangelical false prophets. I regret that I ever went to their church. They are wrong on Bible repentance, thus, they are wrong on God’s simple plan of salvation. In my desperation as God’s child to be part of a church family, I tolerated their Lordship Salvation heresy, their approval of Satan’s Bibles, and their total lack of soulwinning. In the end, we got burned! They are hateful people, woefully lacking Christ’s unfeigned love.

I have learned my lesson and will NEVER again attend any church that is wrong on repentance, wrong on the Gospel, or that uses the Devil’s Bible perversions!!! If that means staying home on Sundays, then so be it, praise God! Nowhere does the Holy Bible command believers to attend a corrupted church that is actually a religious CULT. The shameful Laodicean church in Revelation 3:15-17 was a backslidden church, but they had the Gospel correct. Any so-called that is wrong on repentance and the Gospel has been BEWITCHED (Galatians 3:1-3); and thus, cannot be considered a legitimate church. IT IS A THEOLOGICAL CULT!!!

There is a correlation between caring about doctrine and caring about people. That is because if you care, you care; and if you don’t care, you don’t care. It is not reasonable to expect a contemptible loser like Jeff Redlin at PCC’s Campus Church, who couldn’t care less about right doctrine, then care about people. They guy just doesn’t care!

That is why the old adage is true: Cleanliness is next to godliness. Do you know why that is a true adage? It is because cleanliness and godliness both require CARING. If you choose as God’s child to walk in the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:25), it is because you care to do so. You want to please God and live right because you care. Wicked people don’t care.

You show me a pastor who shuns, kicks out and ostracizes undesirable people from a church, and I’ll guarantee you that he is also messed up in his doctrines! Why? It is simply because HE DOESN’T CARE!!! Love is caring. Love is thinking about others because you care. Love is thinking about God because you care. Love is thinking how to apply the inspired Holy Bible to your daily life because you care. If you don’t care, you don’t care, and that’s that! But don’t ever think that God will sanction, go along with or make use of your life with that poor attitude.

When I attended the shameful Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola in 2024, I wondered why Sunday after Sunday the main auditorium was 85 % empty all the time. After several months

I got my answer. The pastor, Bill Adams, and his mean wife are cold-hearted jerks. I felt zero love from from either of them in the 8 months that I attended their cult.

I kindly but truthfully say “

because they also preach the Satanic lie that you must be willing to repent and turn away from your sinful bad habits to be saved, which is NOT the Gospel as taught in 1st Corinthians 15:1-6. Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola also distributes [29]toxic Chick Tracts, which ADD being willing to turn from your sins to faith, which again is NOT God’s simple plan of salvation.

[30]

You’re only as much like Jesus as you care.

6.11.16 We Are Living In An Unethical Society Today (2025-11-17 12:19)

Matthew 7:12, “Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.”

When we lay the axe to the root of the matter, “

is really just treating other people the way we would like to be properly treated.

As an example of poor ethics. Me and my wife a few months ago scheduled an appointment at Pep Boys in Pensacola to have our air-conditioning looked at on our car. We arrived 10 minutes early before our scheduled appointment. The female service manager said we would have to wait about 5 hours, because they were unusually busy that day. I kindly reminded her that we were not walk-ins, this was a scheduled appoint. She rudely said that it didn’t matter, because it was ’First Come First Serve.’

So me and Alice kindly left frustrated.

As soon as we got home, I checked my computer and saw a highly offensive email from Pep Boys which deceitfully read, “We’re sorry that you couldn’t make your appointment,” which made me angry. I was already frustrated that Pep Boys failed to honor the appointment which we had made several days earlier, but now they’re going to blame us for their incompetence? That pissed me off!

I immediately filed a complaint with their corporate management about being ethical to honor their promises. Thankfully, the response was favorable and the store got into trouble for mis-treating us. Folks, an appointment is a promise!

I could write for hours about all of the unethical behavior I see in business, Bible colleges, churches and medical clinics today, which places disgust me to say the least. I took Alice to Baskin-Robbins a few month ago. The African American female employee was talking on her cell phone, ignoring us. We waited and waited. Although I am bold in my preaching, Alice is actually more bold than I am in public. She spoke up and asked if the employee was going to serve us, or continue talking on the phone. The lazy woman finally started to help us, but then she didn’t even know the names of the unmarked tubs of ice cream.

Another employee, an African American male, from the combined Dunkin Donuts business actually came over and named the ice-cream for her. He deserves a raise; she should be fired! Then, to our disgust, the stupid woman was still talking on her cellphone and Alice suggested to me that we leave, so we walked out the door with our dignity. I also filed complaints online against that Baskin Robbins, and gave them the worst reviews.

Sadly, there are literally MILLIONS of negative reviews online against unethical businesses today, so much so, that nobody seems to really care anymore about the complaints. I mean, I went to see how many complaints have been field against Amazon.com and found 50,000 complaints! Yikes! I also have personally been horrible mistreated and abused by Amazon.com, who have outsources all of their operations to foreign countries. Even when I wrote a complaint letter to their headquarters in Washington state, I got a response from a foreign country. It seems that Amazon has people employed in India, the Philippians and South Africa to handle their customers. There is no way to contact upper management!

Businesses today crap on consumers! Hardly anybody cares about doing what is right anymore. I recently ordered the latest upgrade to Band-in-a-Box (BIAB) for my music. I had previously purchased their 2022 edition, so I wanted the latest Real Audio files for my collection. The company never shipped my order, but they took my money. I called weeks later and asked what was going on. They said they couldn’t determine if I had previously purchased a product from them to qualify for a discount. I had forgotten to login using my previous email, so they didn’t recognize me. But what upset me was that no one bothered to contact me about the issue. They just took my money and forgot about me. How was I supposed to know? That is so unethical of PG Music.

So, I contacted them and we got the issue corrected. But then weeks passed and I hadn’t received the external USB hardrive that I ordered from PG Music (the creators of Band-in-a-Box software) with the files stored on it. I run BIAB off the hardrive to save space on my computer. I contacted PG Music again, to see what the problem was now. They told me that the Post Office in Canada is on strike. I again asked them kindly why no one from their company ever bothered to tell me anything. The agent online refused to answer me. Jerks! Someone should have been diligent to inform me (after they gladly took my money) that I wouldn’t receive the product that I had already paid for, because there was a problem.

Folks, this is exactly what I am talking about. Companies today are very unethical in the way they do business.

I am sharing these bad experiences with you in hope that you won’t be that kind of horrible person. As Christians it matters how we treat people! And you better believe that God almighty cares too! Jesus Himself gave us 'THE GOLDEN RULE' in Matthew 7:12, "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets." I'm not talking about innocently making mistakes. I'm talking about people who just don't care. You don't get what you expect in life, you get what you inspect. The most important job is the one that doesn't get done.

I hate Microsoft, who for years now have been rebooting my computer during the night without my permission. I have tried to stop Microsoft by disabling updates, but you cannot stop them. If I had the power, I wouldn't just fine Microsoft for bullying their customers, I'd put their CEO and other top company officials who sectioned this thuggery into prison for a very long time. What Microsoft is doing is extremely unethical. They have no right to cause me to lose hundreds of hours of work, by rebooting my computer without my consent. I hate Microsoft!

On another sad note, go type "professional banjo" into a search engine and see what comes up! [1]I just did that on 'Duck Duck Go' and the first banjos that came up cost less than $200. Folks, if you know anything about banjos and musical instruments in general, then you KNOW that there's absolutely no chance of purchasing a professional banjo for under $200.

As another example of unethical behavior, on this shady website the webpage author is recommending his best pick for banjos, but look at the disclaimer at the bottom of the webpage...

> * For the links marked with a star, we receive a commission on a purchase.

Not surprisingly, the very first banjo that he lists has an asterisk symbol by it, meaning that he gets paid a commission if you purchase the banjo. I hate that type of shady advertising. Dear reader, you simply cannot nor should you trust anyone who is recommending buying something that will pay them a commission, because you have no way of knowing if their recommendation is sincere or biased in greed. I think there should be a law which prohibits anyone from recommending buying anything in which they have a financial interest.

It is serious Conflict of Interest.

That is why I hate and stopped using the corrupt Better Business Bureau (BBB) decades ago, because they accept donations from local businesses, which absolutely is a conflict of interest and should be illegal. And yes, I have been burned by the BBB. I was cheated of due justice by the BBB in Colorado years ago. They sided with a shady local company which was clearly in the wrong regarding something I had ordered fro them. Thankfully, my credit card company got all my money back. I will never use the corrupt BBB again! The government should prevent the BBB, or any other alleged citizen protection agency, from accepting donations from anyone that mighty bias their decisions. The BBB is extremely unethical.

Why is there so much unethical behavior today in America? I humbly believe it is because of our society's woeful lack of faith and gratitude toward God, our Creator. That is why things are so bad these days in the world. Treating others with respect, fairness and love begins and ends with Christian faith and the fear of God.

And sadly, in an article about the woeful lack of ethics (doing what is right) in American society today, one couldn't leave off the epidemic of pathetic churches and Bible colleges today, who blaspheme the inspired Word of God. Nearly every so-called Bible college today denies that we have a perfect and inspired King James Bible. Tragically, since 2008 this also includes the college where I graduated from in 1993, Hyles-Anderson College. Pastor Jack Schaap in 2008 sinfully CHANGED the doctrinal position of the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana. Since the church owns and controls Hyles-Anderson College, now the college now is also corrupt.

A man that I greatly admire is [2]Dr. Russell Anderson (1931-2023), who was [3]so hurt and angry with the church's departure from the inspiration of the King James Bible, that he official demanded in a [4]stern letter to Pastor John Wilkerson that his name be removed from Hyles-Anderson College. Legally there was nothing that Dr. Anderson could do to have his name removed, so they refused his request.

Brother Anderson donated the necessary money to start Hyles-Anderson College in 1972, for which I for one am eternally grateful, without whose support to create the Bible college my website ministry wouldn't even exist. SHAME on the carnal leaders of First Baptist Church of Hammond. SHAME! Listen to Dr. Jack Hyles himself ( who was their long time pastor from 1959 to 2001

) [5]indict Pastor Jack Schaap and his accomplices . They messed with God's Word!

I know that [6]Brother Hyles in Heaven is very hurt and saddened by the church's departure from the inspiration of the King James Bible, but he's not surprised. Dr. Hyles foretold that this would happen in ten years, and he was exactly right...

> "The biggest split that has ever come will come in the next ten years, if not sooner, over the King James Bible - and it couldn't come soon enough for me. I'm tired of colleges and universities advertising that they 'use' the King James Bible - tell the whole story! Tell everyone that you do not believe that it is inspired word for word." —Pastor Jack Hyles, from the Wednesday night Bible study titled, "Revelation to Illumination" (1998)

You couldn't make this up if you tried. You just read what Dr. Hyles said in 1998, that in 10 years there would be the biggest split ever over the verbal inspiration of the King James Bible. Who would have thought that exactly 10 years later in 2008, Brother Hyles own son-in-law Jack Schaap would be the one to cause the split? I love Brother Schaap as one of my former Bible professors at Hyles-Anderson College, but he really dropped the ball for God in this matter of the verbal inspiration of the King James Bible.

It was at Pastor's School in 2008 where he shocked the fundamentalist Baptist world with his new corrupt position on the Bible. And sadly, worst of all, [7]still today the ministries in Hammond and Crownpoint, Indiana, deny the verbal word-for-word inspiration of the King James Bible. It is heartbreaking. Mark my words, in time the church and college will go the apostate way as Bob Jones University and Pensacola Christian College, preaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. The surest way to change for the worst is to stop contending for the faith. Whatever a pastor stops preaching against is what his church will fill up with in 5 years!

Jesus in a rhetorical statement in Luke 18:8, clearly implied that there won't be much faith when He returns to earth in the future. There are covetous, greedy, dishonest, shady, thieves everywhere today! 2nd Thessalonians 3:2,

And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.

6.11.17 Wicked Neo-evangelical Baptist Pastor Says: "I Am NOT A Fundamentalist" (2025-11-19 04:48)

Proverbs 4:11, "I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in right paths."

Revelation 3:2, "Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God."

Anybody who wrests the inspired Word of God to claim that it's okay for Christian women to wear pants in public has been INSPIRED BY DEVILS! Get right with God you neo-evangelical slackdog pastors!

When I met with Pastor Brad Moffett in his church office on April 30, 2025, he challenged my Bible preaching on social media, insisting that I show him where the Word of God says its a sin for women to wear pants. □□□ □□□□□□□ □:□, "□□ □□□□ □□□□□□ □□□□, □□□□ □□□□□ □□□□□ □□□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□□□□ □□□□□□□, □□□□ □□□□□□□□□□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□; □□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□ □□□□, □□ □□□□, □□ □□□□□□, □□ □□□□□□ □□□□□." That verse is enough to prove that it is a sin for Christian women to wear pants in public, revealing the shape of her thighs and buttocks. Brad was defending his wife's worldly pants, which I NEVER ONCE made an issue of in the 45 months that I attended their Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. THEY MADE AN ISSUE!

It was my biblical online website ministry that ate like cancer at his wife's heart, because SHE KNEW she was in the wrong to wear pants in public. The Holy Spirit was convicting her big time! So instead of repenting to do what is right, and burn the pants, she and her henpecked husband for a pastor took the low path to wickedly censure me for TELLING THE TRUTH!

It is sinful for women to wear immodest pants in public. Any clothing that reveals the form of a woman is immodest. And by the way, some thin, tight and see-through dresses are immodest too! GODLY LADIES CONCEAL; WORLDLY WOMEN REVEAL.

To add insult to injury, which is really insanity, Pastor Brad said that since a man who walks in the Spirit won't fulfill the lusts of the flesh, it doesn't matter if his wife wears pants. What a dumbass and sinful thing for a pastor to say! What planet is he living on? He sure doesn't regard the inspired Holy Bible!

Pastor Brad made sure to point out to me and my wife Alice (who was sitting next to me) that he is "NOT A FUNDAMENTALIST" Christian. I already knew that fact through and through, he didn't need to tell me:

- No pastor is a fundamentalist who defends women wearing pants in public! SHAME!
- No pastor is a fundamentalist who refuses to expose Satan's corrupt Bible revisions. By the way, Brad told us that he favors the Modern English Version (MEV), which is just as corrupt as the other Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort abominations! Pastor Brad is NOT King James Bible only, nor does he think it is inspired or perfect. Shame on him! He has no right to stand in any pulpit. His father's arrogant neo-evangelical influence is toxic! SHAME!
- No pastor is a fundamentalist who doesn't lead God's flock to go soulwinning on a regular basis. SHAME!
- No pastor is a fundamentalist who brings the world's Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) into a local church. SHAME!
- No pastor is a fundamentalist who kicks people out of a local church. Dr. Hyles NEVER kicked anyone out of church. Kicking someone out of a church is like kicking a wounded man who just suffered a serious car accident out the hospital door. SHAME!
- No pastor is a fundamentalist who defends Satan's perversions of God's inspired Word. SHAME!

- No pastor is a fundamentalist who wickedly bids Godspeed to infidels' like: Ken Ham, Billy and Franklin Graham, Jeff Redlin and PCC's Lordship Salvation cult, John Calvin, John Piper and Martin Luther. SHAME!

- No pastor is a fundamentalist who denies the verbal and plenary inspiration of the King James Bible. SHAME!

- No pastor is a fundamentalist who slanders Pastor Jack Hyles, FALSELY accusing him of teaching perverse things that ruined hundreds of families at Hyles-Anderson College by leading them into sexual sins and divorce. SHAME on Pastor Brad and his idiot father!

- No pastor is a fundamentalist who doesn't love God's flock enough to WARN THEM, to earnestly contend for the faith which once was delivered unto the saints (Jude 1:3). SHAME!

- No pastor is a fundamentalist who has no interest in a Church Bus Ministry. Pastor Brad and his fool for a father wouldn't even go pick up a blind woman with the church van. She had to pay for an Uber. SHAME!

- No pastor is a fundamentalist who refuses to preach! Bible studies are nice, but Bible preaching is the heart of a church. SHAME!

- No pastor is a fundamentalist who disregards TRUTH-TELLERS like me and Tom (who was kicked out by Pastor Brad for wisely telling him he should be warning people about the Devil's corrupt bibles). SHAME!

No Sir, you are NOT A FUNDAMENTALIST, and you didn't need to tell us that sad fact, because we already fully knew it. Your shameful neo-evangelical ministry reveals your woeful lack of Christian character, indifference, wrong attitude and perverting of the truth. SHAME!

He got into Deuteronomy 22:5, where the Bible forbids a woman from wearing men's clothing. Brad brushed that Scripture aside under the bus, dismissing it as mere ceremonial law. Folks, God's commandment for women NOT to wear men's clothing is a moral issue, not a ceremonial one. Unreal. SHAME!

Then, like the wicked abortionist who always bring up the alleged (never once documented) woman with a coat-hanger incident in a back alley, Pastor Brad mentioned that Scottish men wear female kilts, so that somehow makes it okay for his worldly wife to wear her sexy pants. This is how low spiritually today's shameful neo-evangelical Baptist pastors have sunk in insanity. SHAME!

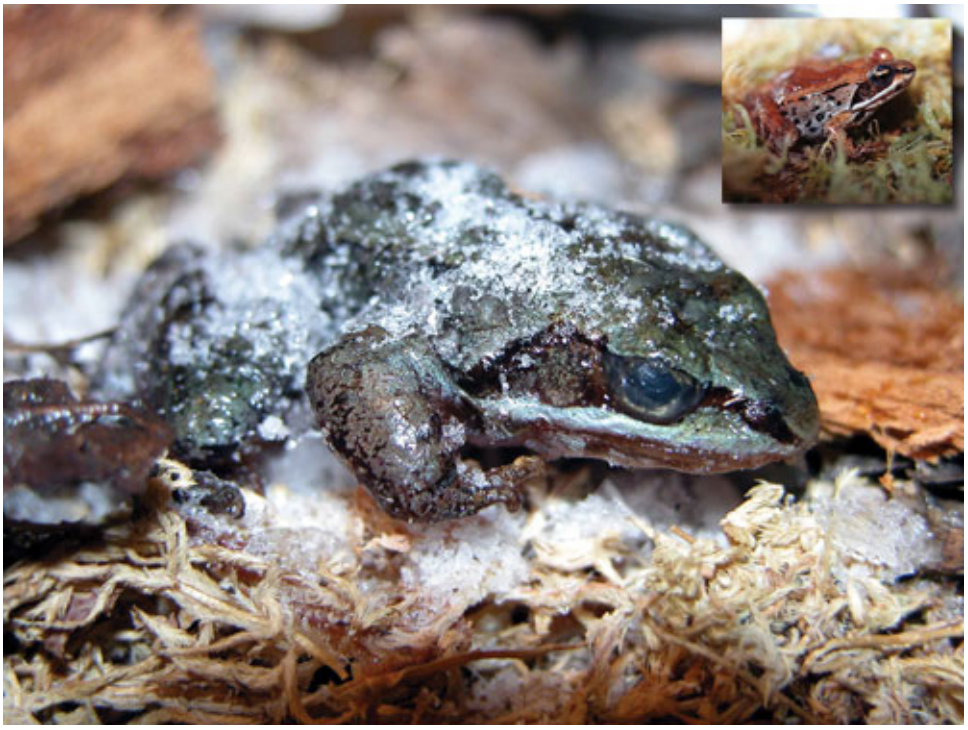
6.11.18 The Wood Frog Freezes Solid During Winter Months (2025-11-20 03:19)

Genesis 1:21, "And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good."

Our omnipotent Creator is more than amazing! I just learned that Wood Frogs FREEZE SOLID during the winter months. Wow!

What does a hibernating wood frog look like? There is no muscle movement. No heartbeat. No breathing. For the entire winter, the wood frog is like a lump of hard, frigid, icy stone carved in the shape of a frog. But it's alive, in a state of suspended animation.



In spring, the wood frog thaws from the inside outward. First the heart starts beating. Then the brain activates. Finally, the legs move.

[1]READ MORE ABOUT THE MIRACLE OF WOOD FROGS!

That is mind blowing. God is so awesome!

Only a wicked fool would dare suggest that creation "just happened" without the genius of a divine supernatural Creator who is good, faithful, majestic and wondrous.

6.11.19 Every Born Again Christian Has A License To Sin (2025-11-21 03:41)

1st Romans 6:1, "What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?"

John 2:1-2, "My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world."

I read much theological debate on social media over the phrase, "a license to sin." This is an ongoing war between the 'Easy-Believism' crowd versus the 'Hard-Repenters' camp.

The Bible irrefutably teaches Easy-Believism (Romans 4:1-7). That is, any sinner can be saved by simply BELIEVING on the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 16:30-31), by faith receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that three days after was buried, He miraculously resurrected from the dead. This is 'THE GOSPEL' by which all who BELIEVE IT are instantly and permanently saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

I love the Scripture passage in Acts 13:38-39, which boldly refutes the heresies of Lordship Salvation and Misunderstood Repentance. ...

> Acts 13:38-39, "Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man [Jesus] is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins: And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses."

Amen! The moment that I was saved by faith in Jesus as a 13-year-old teenager in 1980, I was JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS. Yes, that gave me a LICENSE TO SIN, if you will!

My ministry friend, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, offers these edifying words on the topic...

> "'You can't tell me you can trust Christ as Savior, and then go out here and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven!' Yes, I can tell you that! That's what the Bible says. If you don't come to the conclusion, that—Yes, you can trust Christ as your Savior and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven when you die—you don't get grace, because that is the exact truth! That is the truth! I do not have to change my life! I don't have to stop one sin! You say, 'I've never heard a preacher say that.' You just heard one! And you listen to me—I want to live as holy and as godly as I possibly can. I am now 70 years old. I've been saved for 52 years. ... the only reason I'm going to Heaven is because, 52 years ago in a little living room, I accepted Christ as my Savior." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, "[1]Calvinism And Grace Are NOT Compatible"

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) wrote these helpful words...

> "Let me say again that I do not believe for a second that Christian people should live like the Devil. No preacher preaches separation more than I do. I simply believe that that separation is a work of the Holy Spirit just like regeneration is a work of the Holy Spirit, and it starts after one has repented from that which makes him lost, and that is unbelief." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[2]Misunderstood Repentance" (chapter 4) from his book: "[3]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved"

I get tired of hearing well-meaning Bible teachers say that God doesn't give anyone a license to sin. Oh yes He does!!! Otherwise we'd all be going to Hell when we die. Now, God doesn't give anyone His blessing or permission to sin (Romans 3:31), but the day you trusted Jesus and were born again, you were JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS, so that no matter how awful the sins are which you commit, or how often you choose to commit them, you are SAFELY and SECURELY saved. ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED is 100 % biblical.

The truth is that every believer still continues in sin (Romans 7:14-25). No one is without sin. Even the best Christian still commits sin continually one way or another. As long as we are in the flesh we will commit sin (Romans 7:24; Psalms 130:3). Thank God that by faith alone in Jesus' precious blood we have been 'JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS.'

Amen. It is a license to sin, because we need that license or we are going to Hell.

If we didn't have a license to sin from God, we'd all be going straight to Hell when we die, because everyone still sins (Romans 7:14-25). Jesus' precious blood is our license to sin as believers, but God plainly commands all saints to depart from iniquity (2nd Timothy 2:19). The Bible says in Titus 2:12 that Christians SHOULD live godly; not MUST (Catholicism); not WILL (Calvinism), but SHOULD (biblical truth). Believers who choose to live wasted lives of sin and shame will suffer loss of rewards at the Judgment Seat of Christ (1st Corinthians 3:11-15; 2nd Corinthians 5:10-11); yet so, saved as by fire (1st Corinthians 3:15).

Every saint of God falls 'IN GRACE,' never 'FROM GRACE'...

> Romans 5:20-21, "Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord."

The only way that someone can fall 'FROM GRACE' is if you trust in the works of the law (e.g., turning from your sinful ways) to be saved. This is exactly what the Apostle Paul means in Galatians 5:4, "Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace." No one can be justified in God's sight by human effort (works). You must REST in the finished redemptive work of Christ alone (Hebrews 4:10-11).

And this is why we have peace. Romans 5:1-2, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:

By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God."

Without the license to sin obtained by grace alone, how could we ever have the peace of eternal security? We couldn't. Lordshippers (or any other false religion for that matter) cannot have the peace that comes with free grace belief. The Gospel alone saves (Romans 1:16).

God doesn't want His redeemed children to commit sin, but we all do just that. "You mean I can get saved and still continue to sin?" Yes, that is what every believer does! The whole concept of requiring someone to "repent of your sins" to get to Heaven is inherently flawed, because at best all we can do is clean up our life of filth.

You can give a filthy hog a clean bath, use perfume and then tailor some nice clothes to spiffy up Mr. Piggy. But the moment you release him, he's going to head for the nearest mudhole to wallow in, because that is his nature as a pig. Likewise, to insist that an unregenerate (unsaved) man first commit to reform his life of sin (as a prerequisite) to receive God's free gift of eternal life is ridiculous, because the unregenerate (unsaved) man cannot overcome sin in his own strength.

I get so upset with Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) in Chicago, who've produced the toxic religious 'UNSHACKLED' radio program since 1950. The episodes are intriguing, but their plan of salvation is FALSE. Lordship Salvation is a counterfeit Gospel! SHAME on PGM!

Their favorite Go-To Scripture passage is 1st Corinthians 5:17, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." But carefully notice dear reader that this Bible verse only applies to the man who is ALREADY saved. He is " in Christ.

" PGM heretically puts the cart before the horse by frontloading the Gospel, demanding mature character traits from someone who isn't even born again yet. It is religious nonsense! You get saved by coming to God "

AS IS,

" believing that Jesus did it all for you through Calvary's cross. It's that easy to be saved.

> "The wickedness of a life has not one thing in this world to do with where you go when you die; not one thing!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[4]Religion Or Christ?"

If you don’t believe that a saved person can continue living a wicked lifestyle of sinning, then you are denying the grace of God by which all “that believe are justified from all things” (Acts 13:39b). We all have a license to sin under God’s grace, but that doesn’t give us the Lord’s permission or blessing to use it. What many people utterly fail to understand is that going to Heaven is a free gift obtained through childlike faith in Jesus (Romans 6:23); whereas living the Christian life is strictly a matter of service and discipleship (Romans 12:1). One thing has nothing to do with the other.

One of my favorite preacher quotes is from Pilgrim’s Progress author John Bunyan, emphasizing the importance of keeping salvation completely separate from service...

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Yes, Bravo! The false doctrine of Lordship Salvation is caused by confusing service with salvation, combining discipleship with sonship. This often happens when sincere but misled Bible students cite passages about “ picking up one’s cross

from the Gospel of Matthew, instead of staying within the Gospel of John. God authored the Gospel of John specifically to show the reader how to have eternal life, which is through faith alone in His only begotten Son Jesus Christ (John 3:16-18).

Salvation is all about God’s grace, not your good behavior. You simply cannot be good enough to please God (Isaiah 64:6). You need to understand that you don’t need to be good to enter into God’s Kingdom, you must be 100 % sinless and perfect. Obviously that is impossible, which is the whole reason why Jesus died on a cross 2,000 years ago—to pay our debt of sin, so that by faith we could spend eternity with Jesus (who is God). Jesus is precious!!!

6.11.20 What Is Bible Repentance To Be Saved? (2025-11-22 09:27)

2nd Timothy 2:25-26, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will."

WHAT IS REPENTANCE? (GREEK: METANOIA)

Bible "repentance" is to ACKNOWLEDGE THE TRUTH of two things:

1. I are a guilty sinner
2. Jesus is the only Savior

So many today speak about "repentance"

— but few understand what it truly means.

Some think it's about crying over sin, feeling sorry, or turning over a new leaf.

But that's not the Bible repentance that saves.

In the context of biblical salvation, repentance is not turning from sin — it's changing your mind toward God and His truth.

The word "repentance" comes from the Greek word μετάνοια (metanoia), which literally means "a change of mind."

It comes from meta (to change) and nous (mind or understanding).

It's realizing you're a sinner who cannot save yourself — and turning from unbelief to believe the Gospel of grace.

It's the moment you stop trusting your religion, works or emotions, and start trusting Jesus Christ alone for your salvation.

> "Repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." —Acts 20:21 (KJV)

Repentance and faith are inseparable — they're two sides of the same coin.

No one can truly believe the Gospel unless they have repented, because repentance is that change of mind that leads to faith.

When you believe the Gospel, you've already repented.

When you repent toward God, you're ready to believe.

The Gospel that saves:

> "...Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; and that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures." —1 Corinthians 15:3b–4 (KJV)

Salvation isn’t about what you can do — it’s about what Christ already did.

It’s not about turning from sin to earn forgiveness — it’s about believing the One who paid for your sin in full.

> “Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us.” —Titus 3:5 (KJV)

Repentance = Μετάνοια (Metanoia) — A Change of Mind

- Not emotion.
- Not self-reformation.
- Not behavior adjustment.

It’s a heart-level change of thinking — from rejecting God to believing His truth.

When you truly believe the Gospel, you have repented.

When you truly repent toward God, you will believe the Gospel.

That’s how salvation by grace through faith works — it’s all of Him, none of us.

6.11.21 God Pity The Preacher That The World Don't Hate (2025-11-24 15:50)

2nd Corinthians 6:14-18, "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty."

A man criticized Pastor Steven Anderson and Dr. Jack Hyles today on facebook, horribly accusing them of being hateful men. Here is my response to him...

> Kindly friend, you are accusing Dr. Jack Hyles, and Pastor Steven Anderson as being "one of the most hateful people." Both preachers have faithfully taken a firm stand against sin, and both are hated for it by the heathen world and carnal saints. They hated Jesus too, and He tells us why in □□□□ □:□□, "□□□□□□□□ □ □□□□□□□□ □□ □□, □□□□ □□□ □□□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□."

> □□□□□□□□ □:□□, "□ □□□□□ □□□□□□□ □□ □□□□□□□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□: □□□ □ □□□□ □□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□□□□□." "BALANCE" is the key word in my humble opinion. I believe as Christians we should never accept the sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin. We see an imbalance in most churches today. Either there is love for sinners but no hard preaching against sin (which is not really love); or else there is unbiblical hatred for sinners and a woeful lack of love and compassion.

> The Apostle Paul made it very clear in 1st Corinthians 13:1-8 that hard Bible preaching without God's love for sinners is ineffective. I agree with you that there is a woeful lack of love in many churches today, old and new IFB (Independent Fundamental Baptist) included. Jude 1:22 teaches that COMPASSION is the only remedy for some hardened sinners.

> That being said, I love and admire Pastor Steven Anderson. I love the guy and praise God for his TOUGH LOVE preaching. No matter what Jesus said or did, the rotten Pharisees and Scribes (Jesus' enemies) criticized Him, finding fault in the Lord. Jesus said they'd do the same horrible things to us, that is, hate us (John 15:19). The wicked world love and protect their own, but crucify the Christian.

I don’t agree with everything Brother Anderson says or does, and I’m sure he’d say the same thing about me. In fact, there is not a single preacher (dead or alive) with whom I agree with on everything. I give my Baptist brethren room to swim, so to speak. I don’t like when people make groundless accusations like you just did. Why do you say that these preachers are hateful? Tell us friend, so we can have some context.

Pastor Anderson is tough, but we need tough preachers in these perilous times of rampant sin, rebellion against authority, sexual immorality in American culture, corrupt Bible colleges, gross wickedness, false prophets , fake Bibles and spiritually dead church pulpits.

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-1002) was often accused of being hateful and shallow by his enemies (and it hurt his feelings), but anyone who knew Brother Hyles personally appreciated his gentlemanly Texas hospitality, southern draw, loving disposition, uncommon concern for hurting sinners and a loving generous heart. Brother Hyles went out of his way to express God’s love to people.

When a waitress mistreated Dr. Hyles throughout his breakfast on morning in a restaurant, he overcame evil with good and left her a $10 tip. She said, “Mister, you forgot your money!” Brother Hyles said, “Don’t they tip here?” She replied by admitting she had intentionally been unkind to him as a waitress. Brother Hyles expressed sympathy that he knew she likely had a husband and children to care for, financial bills and burdens to bear, and she did. She began to cry and shared her burdens with Brother Hyles and he kindly led her to Christ as her Savior. People just want to be loved.

Jesus overthrew the money-changer’s tables and beat them with a handmade whip. If He did that today in 2025, Jesus would be in jail awaiting a court date for trespassing, vandalism, attempted murder, and assault and battery with a deadly weapon. I’m not going to question God! The Lord called his enemies “vipers” and "children of the Devil." That really upset them! The Lord plainly called them "the blind leading the blind" into a pit. That’s called TOUGH LOVE!

I learned a long time ago that as inherently sinful humans, people to choose to hear only what they want to hear, not the truth. In psychology it is called “Selective Listening.” When I listen to Dr. Hyles and Pastor Anderson, I hear Spirit-filled men of God who hate sin because they love the truth.

The opposite of truth is indifference. Many pastors today are cowards, indifferent, pusillanimous, Caspar Milquetoast, yuppie types. Either that or they’re cold-hearted uncaring jerks, authoritarian types without love, arrogant and hateful of soul-winning churches and churches with bus ministries.

Pastor Steven Anderson hates evil, which God commands every believer to hate (Psalms 97:10). I love this needful sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles titled: "[1]The Christian's Hate Life."

A Christian who does not hate sin, evil, lies and corruption cannot love God, truth, honesty and people. There is no plus without the minus. There is not good without the opportunity to to bad. There is no merit in love unless you know how to hate.

The Bible warns in [illegible], "[illegible]." Those two Bible verses go together. The Bible guarantees that Christians who LIVE GODLY LIVES for Jesus, WILL SUFFER PERSECUTION, and it's just going to get worse and worse as we come nearer and nearer to the end time.

There needs to be a balance! As Christians we should love everybody with Christ's love that compelled Him to die on a lonely cross for the sins of the world. Yet, as saints we should also hate sin and fight against it with tooth, foot and nail. The godliest preacher is the one who dearly loves people while preaching the hell out of them! Such a preacher will at times preach with tears in his eyes. I often saw tears flowing from Pastor Hyles' eyes as he preached the inspired Word of God in public.

I THANK GOD for preaching preachers! Let the heathen rage! We all need to stop criticizing Bible preachers who throw a fit from the pulpit against the Devil's crowd, and start lifting up holy hands. I am going to continue to stand with those preachers who TAKE A STAND.

That was my response to the man's foolish accusations against God's men. Dear reader, if you see fiery preachers like Pastor Steven Anderson, Dr. Jack Hyles and myself as being HATEFUL, then it is only because you've gone SOFT ON SIN!

We've got a serious problem in our religious institutions and churches today! As an example, the wicked dingleberry pastors at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) won't stand against anything. I've been banned in writing from attending their Campus Church (I live in West Pensacola). PCC's pastors and leaders are ungodly compromisers, puppets, cowards who are only concerned about raking in more money. PCC takes in about $170 million each year!

[2]PCC preaches a counterfeit plan of salvation. SHAME! PCC is increasingly popular with the heathen neo-evangelical religious world because they refuse to live godly in Christ Jesus. PCC's carnal leaders are spiritually dead, woefully lacking in God's love for individual people, immature people. RUN from PCC and other calloused institutions today where the cult system always comes first, but individual people don't matter.

When I attended PCC's Campus Church for a few months in 2021, a long time 23-year staff member in his forties told me that PCC's leaders despise Pastor Steven Anderson. Why sure they do, because he's living godly in Christ Jesus and they're not. Those clowns at PCC are not worthy to shine Brother Anderson's shoes!

> “You’re not going to raise the right kind of children unless you teach them to hate wrong and evil.” —Pastor Jack Hyles,

We need to get back to [4]Biblical Separation, which is the unforgotten Scriptural doctrine in churches today. It is wicked for pastor’s wives to wear pants in public. It is wicked for pastors not to preach against women wearing pants. It is wicked for a pastor not to warn people about Satan’s corrupt Bible versions. It is wicked for an ungodly pastor to bid Godspeed to infidels’ Ken Ham, Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, John Calvin and John Piper (2nd John 2:11). I’m preaching the Bible at you Family Baptist Church in Pensacola at 5454 W. Mobile Highway. GET RIGHT WITH GOD!!!

6.11.22 Can Sin Separate A Christian From God? (2025-11-25 17:22)

I found this meme on Facebook this week, with which I humbly disagree.

That is, I think the meme is true. I didn't put an 'X' over the meme, the original poster did. To me, a better way of writing this meme would have been:

"Either the Bible will keep you from sin, or sin will keep you from the Bible." We don't repent of our sins to get to Heaven, but every child of God should repent concerning their sinful ways to please God (as His redeemed child). ...

I disagreed with his disagreement of this meme, if that makes sense. He put the red 'X' over it, I didn't. I think the meme is correct, for a saved person

; it would be damnable heresy for a lost person. You get saved by turning in faith to Jesus, not turning from sin. You only need to turn from your unbelief and trust the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day to be saved. That is the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

Here is my first reply...

> Actually this meme is true, unless you're talking about salvation. Every saint of God is commanded to depart from iniquity. 2nd Timothy 2:19, "Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity." Every child of God should repent (change our mind) about our sins, but you don't do this to be saved. Christ died for our sins on the cross, and we simply cease from our own works and REST in Jesus' work of redemption for salvation.
> Isaiah 59:2, "But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear." Our POSITION in Christ was forever settle by grace the moment we trusted Jesus, which is God's responsibility; but our CONDITION in Christ as His child is our responsibility (Romans 12:1).
> Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) said it well...
>
> > "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, "Hebrews"; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

Here is the original poster's reply to my response...

> The Old Testament is still very relevant and should never be dismissed, however TRYING to apply the idea that God is "still separated, because of sin" from a HOLY SPIRIT INDWELLED BELIEVER today is INCORRECT.
> Jesus solved the sin problem on the cross. So either you do not understand that the old Testament saints were not indwelled with The Holy Spirit (like we are today) or you miss the entire point of what Jesus actually did. So I stand behind what was said in zero disagreement with the scripture you used, when understood correctly.
> I actually AGREE with most of what you said, but you may not be understanding the POINT that was being made in the post, is that some believers today THIINK they "are separated from God" when they sin..... and that is not true.

And he is my final biblical response to him...

> Kindly said, your meme is confusing. By failing to put a distinction between salvation versus service, you are confusing people. 1st John 6-7, "If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin." This passage applies to saints, not the unsaved. The issue is FELLOWSHIP, not salvation. Sin causes broken fellowship with God, but not the relationship as Father and adopted son.
> The problem with your meme, and many memes for that matter, is that without defining what the terms mean, in this case "separated," it can mean different things. I think it is misleading to teach that sin in no sense separates a believer from our heavenly Father.
>
> Even as Christians, our sin can separate us from God's fellowship. Sin is like a dark curtain pulled over a sunny window. The sun is still there, but the curtain creates a separation from its warmth and light. Repentance lifts the curtain and restores the relationship we once enjoyed (1 John 1:9).
> Any unconfessed and unforsaken sin in the life of a born again Christian can create a sense of separation from God, which we see in 1st Corinthians 5:1-11. Thankfully the Christian man repented. We never learn what happened to the woman. God does not leave us, but the light and warmth of fellowship was cut off when we chose sin. We do not lose our salvation, because Jesus paid our debt in full. But we can lose the love, joy, and sweet peace of the indwelling Holy Spirit when we persist in living in rebellion against the inspired Word of God God. I hope that is helpful.

NOTHING can ever separate a born again child of God from the heavenly Father's love. Romans 8:39, "Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

NOTHING can separate a born again child of God from the Lord's solemn promise to **"

save them that believe

" (1st Corinthians 1:21b;

).

But if we live apart from God in sin (and we all do at times), then yes, we have separated our self from the sweet peace, joy and fellowship that can only exist if we humbly walk with our Creator and Savior. Anyone who has been saved for decades of time has at some pointed strayed away from the right path. We all have! And you remember the pain that it caused you, so that you can now say with broken King David in Psalm 119:67, "

Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word.

” Just like David, the shepherd boy turned king over Israel, I don’t ever want to stray away from God again.

6.11.23 Most Church Revivals Are Worthless (2025-11-26 15:47)

Galatians 4:16-17, “Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them.”

I and my wife Alice took our dog Pickles (a Cockapoo) to the park this morning for a walk. She’s a squirrel chaser—the dog that is...lol. I was thinking about how terrible most churches have become. So, I told my wife that most so-called "church revivals" these days are ineffective and a waste of time. The church pastor will invite someone whom he favors to preach a series of sermonettes, but rarely does a guest preacher bring down the roof by telling the offensive truth that upsets people. Everywhere that Jesus and His disciples preached, either revival or riot broke out. Today’s churches are spiritually dead!

In June of 2025, me and Alice were cruelly kicked out of the ungodly Family Baptist Church in Pensacola by their wicked pastors. The issue arose over the pastor’s wife wearing her worldly pants. I never made an issue in the 45 months that I attended their shameful church. It was their ungodly pastor, Brad Moffett, who made an issue on April 30th, 2025, in his church office. He had called us into his office, at which time without any advance notice he horribly censured my website ministry, attacking my Bible preaching. He mentioned that his wife and mother wear pants, and my Bible preaching offended their church members. Again, THEY MADE AN ISSUE, not me! You see dear reader, when you live for Christ, the world will give you up!

Pastor Brad had a big stack of articles printed out from my Jesus-is-Savior.com ministry website, challenging my fundamentalist Bible beliefs and preaching. He cited Galatians 5:16b which says, “Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.”

Brad said that since a man who walks in the Spirit won’t lust, it doesn’t matter if his wife chooses to wear pants in public. What a wicked stupid pastor and worldly ungodly wife!

Brad then showed me an article I had written titled, ’[1]Why A Christian Lady Ought Not Wear Pants.’ He made particular grievance against a quote in my article that Pastor Jack Hyles made in a sermon:

“I don’t have a dirty mind, I have a man’s mind.” Pastor Brad horribly FALSELY accused Dr. Hyles of being carnally-minded, lustful and of ruining hundreds of young couple’s marriages and lives by leading those families into sexual immorality, crimes and divorce via his teachings. Me and Alice were stunned by what this ungodly foolish pastor (Brad Moffett) had just said about our hero of the faith. SHAME on Brad Moffett and his wicked potty-mouthed father, Bobby Moffett, who both slandered Pastor Jack Hyles. Neither of these two religious clowns are worthy to tie Dr. Jack Hyles’ shoes laces!

What fools!

I spent 8 wonderful years at Hyles-Anderson College and the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana (1985-1993). I never once heard Brother Hyles preach anything that caused anybody to go into a sinful lifestyle. Quite the contrary, Dr. Hyles preached hard against all manner of sin and evil, which you can [2]HEAR FOR YOURSELF.

I was present at their annual revival at Family Baptist Church in Pensacola for 2021, 2022, 2023 and 2024. I attended all 16 revival meetings. Pastor Luke Bishop from Arkansas preached all 16 services. Kindly said, Luke and Brad are personal friends, two shameful neo-evangelical pastors who couldn't care less about true revival. They both bring shame to the cause of Jesus Christ. There is no scheduled soulwinning. There is no biblical separation from the world. There is no compassion for hurting sinners. I witnessed numerous people expelled from Family Baptist Church over the 45 months that I attended their rotten church. I had no other church to attend, so I tolerated them, but I was always a gentlemen and never tried to tell them hoe to run their church. But that didn't matter, they found my ministry website and became greatly offended without me saying one word. Neo-evangelicals hate fundamentalists!

For the first time, I and Alice attended their Family Baptist Church picnic in Alabama in May of 2025. From the moment we arrived at the picnic, neither the pastor or his bratty wife welcomed us. We could feel the tension in the air. We were two fundamentalist Christians at a neo-evangelical church picnic. And oh man, guess who was wearing skintight pants? Yep, the pastor's wife. We don't have to say one word. My wife Alice was admirably wearing a full-length modest dress, which made the pastor's pants-wearing immodest wife feel greatly ashamed. I could see it all over the countenance.

About 20 minutes later, the perturbed ungodly pastor's wife walked over to the picnic table where me and Alice were eating with a group of children and young teens. She boldly said to a teenage girl sitting next to us, "I like your shorts!" The young girl was shamefully wear Daisy Duke short shorts. What a disgrace for a pastor's wife! Me and Alice immediately knew that the pastor's wife was trying to justify her sin and shame. By complimenting the young girl clothed immodestly, she was at the same time excusing her own immodesty.

Of the literally thousands of things that the pastor's wife could have said to the young girl, she walked over 50 feet to tell a girl that she liked her shorts. That was no mere coincidence! The truth is that the Pastor's wife felt like a whore when she saw my wife's long modest dress. She felt like a whore when she saw me, knowing that I preach hard on social media against women wearing pants. Yet, I and Alice were both kind and friendly toward the pastor's wife at the picnic. I would never make an issue of any woman wearing pants in public, because it's none of my business. The pastor's wife horribly disrespected me as a fundamentalist Bible preacher. You see, people who live in sin always seek to justify their sinful choices.

When I and Alice met with Pastor Brad on April 30th, 2025, he felt compelled to boldly say to us: "

I am not a fundamentalist!

No kidding! He didn't need to tell us that sad fact, we already knew it. No Baptist pastor is a fundamentalist who defends his ungodly wife wickedly wearing worldly pants!

No Baptist pastor is a fundamentalist who wickedly bids Godspeed to infidels' Ken Ham, Franklin Graham and John Calvin. Pastor Brad is guilty!

No Baptist pastor is a fundamentalist who kicks hurting people out of church in a selfish fit of anger. Brad and his ungodly father are bullies, who have no love or regard for truth-tellers. They kicked Tom and Sharon out of church. They kicked Bobby across the street out. If you disagree with their authoritarian cult leadership at Family Baptist Church, they just kick you out. That is a cult, not a genuine Christ-honoring New Testament church.

On April 30th, 2025, Pastor Brad also made an issue of my preaching against Pensacola Christian College (PCC). He made an issue of my preaching against the heresy that you must repent of your sins

to get to Heaven, of which evil he and his father are GUILTY of preaching.

No Baptist pastor is a fundamentalist who doesn’t lead the church members to go soulwinning. SHAME on any pastor who prides himself in announcing that he is not a fundamentalist. What Pastor Brad was really saying is that he is a WICKED NEO-EVANGELICAL who is dropping the ball for the Lord Jesus Christ!!!

I remember one shameful Sunday that Pastor Brad said it wasn’t the church’s job to go soulwinning, it was the individual believer’s job. So, he said if the church is empty (and it almost always is) it is the church member’s fault, not his, even though he refused to go soulwinning as the pastor, nor schedule a regular time for the church members to go soulwinning. Pastor Brad is a fool in his errant thinking. Everything rises and falls on leadership! If the pastor doesn’t go soulwinning, then neither will the church members! The Family Baptist Church in Pensacola is a privately family-run Country Club for deadbeats.

> This is a story about four people named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody and Nobody. There was an important job to be done and Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it. Anybody could have done it, but Nobody did it. Somebody got angry about that, because it was Everybody’s job. Everybody thought Anybody could do it, but Nobody realized that Everybody wouldn’t do it. It ended up that Everybody blamed Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody could have.
> The story may be confusing but the message is clear: no one took responsibility so nothing got accomplished.

I just described the shameful Family Baptist Church in Pensacola at 5454 W. Mobile Highway. Ichabod (the glory of the Lord is departed) is written over their church doors. SHAME!

Today’s Lame Revivals Are Worthless

Now, I’ve said all that to say this, t he sad reality is that after 99 % of church "revivals" today, the church members and leadership don’t change one iota. No one repents (changes their mind) from their wrong attitudes, false doctrines, carnal prejudice, worldliness, lack of concern and compassion for hurting sinners, and other shameful behavior. I wouldn’t give you a dime for 99 % of deadbeat evangelists and pastors today, who cannot preach their way out of a wet paper bag, and refuse to tell the whole truth. SHAME on Evangelist Luke Bishop! He wouldn’t preach against women wearing pants in a thousand years, because modesty is a non-issue for them. Their wives all wear pants! No wonder our churches are filled with worldliness!

Not one thing changed at the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola AFTER Luke Bishop left to return to Arkansas. The worldly women in the church are still wickedly wearing their sexy pants. The church pastor and members still don’t go soulwinning on a regular basis. The church’s ungodly pastors are still preaching the heresy that we don’t have an inspired Holy Bible today that is perfect. They sanction the Devil’s modern Bible perversions! Pastor Brad told me and Alice that he promotes the [3]Modern English Version (MEV), and is not King James Bible only. SHAME!

I am convinced that all Bible colleges do today is neuter the pastors of tomorrow. Pastors' Bobby and Brad Moffett are not qualified to lead God's flock!!!

We are living in an ungodly generation of impotent preachers, dead churches and worthless revivals! I am so disgusted with nearly all churches today, which sadly includes most Baptist cults that are preaching the Devil's lie of [4]Lordship Salvation and the Satanic "[5]repent of your sins" trash. Right doctrine matters! It would be a Godsend if 99 % of all churches would close their doors permanently.

We need TRUE REVIVAL in the churches today, but it is not happening! Tens of thousands of spiritually dead neo-evangelical churches across America every year host an annual revival, inviting and collecting a gift offering for some useless Bozo clown to coddle the crowd, tickle everyone's ears and do absolutely nothing to rock the boat. In such dead revivals you'll never hear a leather-lunged preacher holler with barn-stormin', shingle-pullin', window rattlin', sin-fighting, Devil-hating, Christ-honoring, sinner-loving, prayer-bathed, Spirit-filled, inspired King James Bible only preaching!!! No wonder our churches are dying by the droves!

Churches Are Dying For Lack Of True Revival

I ask you dear reader, what's the use of having church revivals each year, if nothing ever changes? The Family Baptist Church in Pensacola is a classic example of a corrupt church with worthless revivals. Their pastors are carnally-minded, defending their worldly wives who wickedly wearing pants in public. They would NEVER invite a Billy Sunday (1862-1935) type of preacher like me to preach to their church, because I'd raise all hell over the following issues:

1. Repenting of your sins to get to Heaven is a counterfeit plan of salvation.
2. Lordship Salvation is a counterfeit plan of salvation. We are saved by faith, not service!
3. Franklin Graham is a hellbound false prophet, and no church should support Operation Christian Child (OCC) who include Lordship Salvation pamphlets with each gift box.
4. The King James Bible is more than merely preserved, it is verbally and plenary inspired.
5. All of the modern Bible revisions are corrupted by Satan.
6. It is a sin for Christian women to wear immodest pants in public.
7. It is a sin for henpecked pastors to sanction women wearing worldly pants in public.
8. Soulwinning should be scheduled every week in every local New Testament church.
9. No truth-telling Christian should ever be sinfully kicked out of a local church.

Family Baptist Church in Pensacola is GUILTY of all these sordid offenses and many more! I will SPEAK UP for the Lord; while they SHUT UP for Satan. We desperately need a revival of old-fashioned biblical separation in our churches today! That is why Bobby and Brad Moffett sinfully hate and despise Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), because [6]Dr. Hyles' fundamentalist Bible preaching puts them and their ungodly wives to utter shame!!!

Don’t waste your time attending dead revivals in these spiritually dead churches today. Family Baptist Church in Pensacola pays ’The Rochesters’ and ’Living Proof’ bluegrass singing groups to come to their revival every year, but there is no change in anyone’s life after all is said and done. They fall all over themselves in self-glorification and self-adoration, while the local community goes to Hell unreached. This is NOT a Christ-honoring church, it is a cheap imitation!

Woe unto today’s pathetic ungodly neo-evangelical churches, who refuse to serve God the Bible way. In any church, where you see women wearing pants, you know that their moral standards are very low, and the pastor is a neo-evangelical and henpecked by the women. RUN from such incompetent church leadership. If you want to attend a worldly carnal church, then shame on you! Jeremiah 5:31, “The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?” Shame on the ungodly members of Family Baptist Church, who support their wicked pastors that sinfully bid Godspeed to Franklin Graham and Ken Ham, infidels.

Right doctrine matters! Moral standards matter! How church’s treat people matters! I care, do you?

Tragically, 99 % of so-called “ church revivals

today are nothing more than a wasted time of filling one’s belly with food, enjoying live entertainment, and looking down their long Pharisaical noses upon Christian fundamentalists like Pastor Jack Hyles and myself, who genuinely care to TELL THE TRUTH (truths that you’ll never hear in a religious cult like Pensacola Christian College or Family Baptist Church in Pensacola). There is a desperate need to genuine church revivals today, but it won’t happen until professed Christians stop defending false bibles, false gospels, false prophets and worldly pastor’s wives who wear pants in public. God is holy!

6.11.24 Ninety-Nine Percent Of Astronomy Videos Exlude God
(2025-11-27 17:13)

Psalms 33:6, "By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

Psalms 104:2, "Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain."

I've been watching several dozen astronomy documentaries on YouTube for the past month (over 50 at least). I told Alice today that NOT ONCE did anyone in any of those several dozen videos even bothered to mention God. No one attributed the majesty, power or magnitude of the universe to our divine Creator.
Einstein was correct...

> "Science without religion is lame, religion without science is blind." — Albert Einstein

Unless you type in the word "God" on a YouTube search with the word "astronomy," all of the thousands of astronomy videos are rooted in atheism, evolution and humanism.

The cosmetologists, planetary scientists and astronomers, just like the ungodly atheists, wickedly talk with absolute assertive boldness about things which they don't understand or have any proof. I've learned from watching all the intriguing astronomy videos that scientists today are enamored, stumped, curious and perplexed about "dark matter" or "dark energy," which simply refers to their woeful ignorance of the mysterious hidden energy source that causes the universe to continue expanding outward, and which mysterious energy bonds everything in the universe together. As a Christian, the answer is obvious to mem it is God!

> Psalms 33:6, "By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.
> Psalms 104:2, "Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain."

It is our divine omnipotent Creator who binds the universe together, and causes the universe to keep stretching outward at the speed of light.

God is truly more than amazing.

6.11.25 Beware Of False Prophet Luke Bishop In Arkansas (2025-11-28 10:08)

Acts 16:29-31, " Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

In contrast to what we just read in the inspired King James Bible, Pastor Luke Bishop who runs the [1]Triple S Ranch in Rose Bud, Arkansas, writes:

> Sin and Salvation
>
> We believe all men were born with an inherited sin nature received from our common ancestor, Adam. We believe that because of his nature, man is a sinner by choice, and he is totally incapable of reforming himself or ceasing from his sin by his own power. We believe the only hope of deliverance for man *is a total change of mind concerning his sinful condition and inability to change it, and a turning to Jesus Christ as the only Savior. We believe that only through the substitutionary sacrifice of Christ on the cross can a man be delivered from his sin. We believe that all those who reject Jesus Christ as their Savior are already condemned to an eternity in the lake of fire. (Genesis 5:1-5; Acts 4:19; Acts 16:31; Romans 3:10-23; Romans 5:6-12; Romans 6:23; Romans 10:9-10; Ephesians 2:8-9; Titus 3:5-6; Revelation 20:11-14) [2]READ MORE

That is simply NOT the Gospel of free grace. Look again, if you will, at our text passage of Scripture from

Acts 16:29-31, " Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." Carefully notice that at NO POINT did the Apostle Paul or Silas tell the unsaved man that he was first required to have "a total change of mind concerning his sinful condition" to be saved. The very implication is that a man must repent to turn from his sins to be saved, which damnable heresy I have declared war upon!!!

Evangelist Luke Bishop preaches their annual revival at the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola at 5454 W. Mobile Highway every year. Pastor Brad Moffett drives to Rose Bud, Arkansas, each year with his family to sing for Luke Bishop. They're alleged buddies who parasite off one another in Jesus' name.

We attended the Family Baptist Church for 45 months between 2021 to 2025, but I and my wife were unjustly kicked out of church by their ungodly pastors over their ungodly wives wickedly wearing immodest pants in public. I never once made an issue of the pastor's wives wearing pants, because it is none of my damn business. But THEY MADE AN ISSUE of my fundamentalist Bible preaching on social media.

In particular, [3]it was this Christ-honoring article against women wearing pants that compelled Pastor Brad Moffett and his wife to wickedly censure my website ministry. My wife was present with me on April 30th, 2025, when Pastor Brad wickedly slandered Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), falsely accusing him of having a carnal lustful mind and of ruining hundreds of Hyles-Anderson College families via his perverse teachings about sex and marriage. Brad Moffett is a FOOL and a LIAR for saying those evil lies about the greatest soulwinning preacher of the past two millenniums. The real reason why Brad and his verbally abusive father despise Dr. Jack Hyles is because they are neo-evangelicals who are envious of Dr. Hyles' massive success. Bobby and Brad Moffett are not worthy to shine Brother Hyles' shoes!!!

For my Christian faith and fundamentalist biblical stand for what is right and true, I have been relentlessly attacked and persecuted all my life by heathens and ungodly neo-evangelicals. God is my defense!

In their corrupt Statement of Faith, the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola requires that members ascribe to the heresy that you must, "Repent of your sins" to get to Heaven. Please read our text passage again...

> Acts 16:29-31, " Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

Nowhere does the inspired King James Bible teach that to be saved, a man must have "a total change of mind concerning his sinful condition." The clear implication is that you must repent to turn from your sinning to be saved, which damnable heresy I have declared war upon!!!

Pastor Luke Bishop is carelessly handling the Word of Truth, adding a requirement which God does not to receive His free gift of eternal life (Proverbs 30:5-6). To be saved, you just need to realize why you need to be saved, which is because you are a guilty sinner; and from what you are being saved, which is eternal damnation in a burning literal Hell forever. Nothing more is required except that you BELIEVE THE GOSPEL.

Simply by faith (taking God at His Word in the Holy Bible) accept the 'GOOD NEWS' of Jesus' death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection the third day, as full-payment for your sins, and you will be instantly, irrevocably and forever saved. You just need to BELIEVE that Jesus did it all for you through Calvary's cross. Jesus is precious!!!

6.11.26 Seventh-Day Adventism Has Another Gospel (2025-11-29 09:29)

2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 “But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.”

I have always cherished this inspired passage of Scripture as a fundamentalist Baptist preacher, because it plainly identifies the threat:

- another Jesus
- another spirit
- another gospel

I like what my long time ministry friend Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023) said, “Any spirit that is not the Holy Spirit is a familiar spirit” (i.e., a demon). Seventh-day Adventism (SDA) has another spirit. They have another gospel.

On the [1]Adventist.org website, in an article titled: “

[2]How Do We Experience Salvation In Christ?,

they wrote these heretical words...

> Can I Be Sure I’m saved?
>
> When we accept Jesus as our Savior and give our life to His control, we can be sure of our eternal salvation. John writes, “Little children, abide in Him, that when He appears, we may have confidence and not be ashamed before Him at His coming” (1 John 2:28, NKJV).
>
> As we abide in Jesus Christ, we can be confident we have eternal life.
>
> From the moment we claim Jesus as our Lord and Savior, God counts us as worthy because of the sacrifice of Jesus. We can be confident in our salvation through the blood of Jesus Christ.
>
> Paul writes, “For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.” (Romans 8:38, 39). When we choose Christ, He will hold us in His hand. He will never let us go, unless we decidedly turn our back on Him*. [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [3]https://adventist.org/beliefs/official/experience-of-salvation

I see several damnable FALSE TEACHINGS and PROBLEMATIC ISSUES in the preceding statements from the Adventist.org website:

1. You don't have to "give our life to His control" to know you're saved. That is the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, which is adding works to God's grace (Matthew 7:21-23). Giving God control over your life is a matter of SERVICE (Romans 12:1), not SALVATION (Galatians 3:26).

2. You don't have to "abide in Christ" to know you are saved; you know you're saved because Christ's Holy Spirit abides in you (Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24). Eternal life is a free gift from God which doesn't require serving Him, turning from your sins or following Jesus as "Lord."

3. You don't have to take Jesus as your "Lord" to get to Heaven, only your Savior. Lordship is strictly a matter of discipleship (Luke 14:33), not sonship (John 1:12).

4. It is not biblically true that Jesus will let us go if we "decidedly turn our back on Him." There's not even one example in God's Word of someone losing God's free gift of salvation. If someone claims that they "used to be a Christian," but no longer, it just proves that they were never born again in the first place. They may have joined a Christian organization or ascribed to some Christian philosophies, but they were never regenerated by God's Holy Spirit (1st John 2:19). IF SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED!

5. 1st John 2:28 addresses service, not salvation. You are saved if Christ abides in you. Abiding in Christ is a matter of pleasing God as His redeemed child (Galatians 5:25). We cannot win souls to Christ unless we abide in Him (John 15:1-5).

I cannot warn you enough dear reader to AVOID the Seventh-day Adventist religious cult. On the outside they masquerade as true Christians, but in reality they are children of the devil. SDA's avoid talking about their [4]Investigative Judgment doctrine like the Bubonic Plague, because the false doctrine exposes their counterfeit plan of salvation. Please don't make the fatal mistake of deciding the spiritual integrity of their organization without taking a deep look into [5]their core beliefs. SDAs have another spirit and another gospel. RUN from this place!

6.11.27 You Will Be Persecuted For Your Christian Faith And Walk (2025-11-30 10:38)

2nd Timothy 3:10-13, "But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience, Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me. Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived."

In the late 1980s and early 1990s, I worked as a truck mechanic while supporting my own way through Bible college at Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993). I had a former boss there, who was about 30 to 35 years old. I was 20 when I began work there, and got fired at age 24, maliciously victimized by an unsaved coworker who despised me.

My former religious boss, the shop foreman, was a religious nut (a wacky neo-evangelical Baptist) who went ballistic over stuff like celebrating Halloween, not voting, et cetera.

On another occasion he asked me who I voted for, and I told him the truth that I didn't vote. He went ballistic! My boss started wildly throwing the dirty metal buckets (that we used to change truck engine oil) at the shop doors in anger. He yelled in hostility, "I can't believe that Bible college you're going to (Hyles-Anderson College) doesn't teach their students to vote!" Truthfully, I cannot remember 35 years later whether they encouraged us to vote or not, but if my memory serves correct, they didn't and I am perfectly fine with that. Jesus never voted as far as we know.

I remember that Pastor Jack Hyles at U.S. Presidential election times said from the First Baptist Church pulpit that although he couldn't public suggest who the church members should vote for, they all knew who he would vote for (always Republican). I finally woke up at age 35 in 2002 to the evils of the New World Order, government tyranny, corruption and the left/right paradigm between rotten Democrats and Republicans. I'll never vote again after [1]what they got away with on 911. I actually voted for those evil monsters' George W. Bush and Dick Cheney two guilty war criminals, mass murderers and evil villains! I started my website ministry in April of 2002. To God alone be all the praise, credit and glory!

My former boss had no problem with the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, pimping into the shop listening to his worldly Contemporary Christian Music (CCM), taking God's name in vain in public, et cetera. He was a difficult man to be around, a total religious hypocrite.

At Christmas one year, the owner of the company gave a gift snack basket to every employee, which included a cheap bottle of wine. I kindly told my boss that I am a fundamentalist Christian, who has never drank a drop of booze in my life (and I still haven't at age 58), that I couldn't accept the alcohol. He became angry and snapped at me, telling me to "Be a man!" I was about 22 years old and didn't know what to do. No one had ever taught me to stand up for what was right, nor how to stand. I mean, they tried to teach us at Bible college to take a stand against sin, but some things you just have to learn from experience. I was green behind the ears! In my individual case, I was a nice friendly guy, not a physical fighter.

I didn't want to offend the company's owner, but I hated booze and didn't want to look complicit. I thought it was very inappropriate that the company's owner ass-u-med that every employee would want his liquor, which was very insensitive and unethical of him. So, while my mind was trying to think what to do, another employee who was about 20 years older than me asked if he could have the wine, so I handed it to him, which I still regret to this day.

If I could go back, 35 years ago, I would have walked to the owner's door and thanked him for the gift basket, but kindly let him know that as a separated Christian I could not accept the alcohol. Or I would have taped a kind "thank you" note onto the bottle for the gift basket, but kindly let him know that my religious beliefs forbid me from accepting booze. I still feel convicted 35 years later that I accepted the booze under duress, because my wicked carnal Christian for a boss (if he is saved at all) mistreated me and totally disregarded my convictions as a Christian fundamentalist. Jim will answer to God someday, as will all of us in eternity. In hindsight over 35 years later, when he said: "Be a man!," I wish I would have said: "I am being a man, here, I don't want it!" I would have set the wine bottle on the counter and walked out the door. What a religious jerk!

On another occasion, in my boss' presence I said: "Yes Ma'am" in the office to his wife, who had asked me a question (I don't remember the question). His wife also worked at the company. His wife was a fat big-mouthed woman, who wore immodest blue jeans to work. When she heard me say, "yes Ma'am," she sarcastically replied: "I don't know where they get that 'no Sir,' 'yes Sir, 'no Ma'am' 'yes Ma'am' stuff from. Her husband said with a Smart-Alecky tone, "They teach it at that Bible college that he's going to." They both mocked my proper good manners. It is so shameful how neo-evangelicals are, which is exactly what they both are, idiots.

For the 4-years I worked at that company (I am showing grace by not mentioning any names), between 1987-1991, they persecuted me on a regular basis. Most of my co-workers were at least twice my age and older. They stole my work uniforms, which I had to financially pay for. They often hung naked Penthouse photos on my work locker, preacher jokes, put booze bottles in my toolbox, left cigars on top of my toolbox, and called me "baby Jesus." They all knew that I was going to Bible college to become a pastor. They ridiculed and taunted me, just like they did Jesus.

One crude man stuck a 3-foot-long metal pry bar between my legs as a sexual gesture, while laughing like a creep from Sodom. Another guy asked me why I carry a King James Bible under my arm everyday when I come to work, which he said bothers him a lot. I replied that it was for the same reason that he brings his dirty pornographic magazines to work each day, because we bring what we love to work with us. He snarled.

Another co-worker in hatred spit on me. The guy was several years older than me. A certain coworker, who was a friend toward me, went and told my boss about the incident, but he couldn't have cared less. By the way, when my car broke down and I needed a ride home from work (about 10 miles). The same guy who spit on me offered to drive me home in his new sports car. I agreed. He drove as fast as 110 miles per hour down North avenue in Chicago. We're lucky we didn't both get killed! I cannot remember if he spit on me months before or after driving me home. My memories are fading as I grow older.

Another co-worker grabbed me by the throat; another threw me up against a truck in anger, and another flung a 3-pound sledge hammer at me, but thankfully I ducked and the hammer missed me. I can still remember all the names of the heathen men who did those wicked things to me, but I love and forgive them with Christ's love. God knows that I humbly forgave them long ago. My only prayer and hope to God is that some of those men will come to Jesus Christ before it is too late. No doubt some of them are already dead by now, as they were much older than I was over 35 years ago.

I wasn't strong enough at that time in my life emotionally to know how to handle such abuses, so I just endured the mistreatment because I had a family to feed and needed employment.

I got tired of listening to AC/DC and Van Halen from co-worker's radios in the shop, so I brought my own tape recorder and played music from, The Marshall Family, Statler Brothers and other pretty music. A co-worker who was 10 years older than me smashed my radio onto the ground in pieces. I went to tell my shop foreman what had happened and he merely said, "If you can't take the heat, get out of the kitchen." Great boss, huh?

I did get back at that particular co-worker months later. He was taking a shower for a date with a girl that Friday night. I poured 80/90 gear lube over him in the shower. I heard him yelling in the shower, "There's gear lube in the water!" In anger, h e ran out with a towel around him and turned my toolbox upside down onto the floor, throwing my tools everywhere. I was hiding in the parking lot...lol. My boss did stop him from killing me the following Monday at work. That was one of few times I finally had the courage to stand up for myself in the shop. That same guy grabbed me by the shirt one day, refusing to let me go, so we fought and I ripped all the buttons off his work uniform while he was wearing it. I told him one or both of us would be going to the hospital if he continued. A person can only take so much abuse until they fight back. I was just defending myself as a innocent kid working with some worldly ungodly men.

Anyway, I could tell you much more. Because of God's love, I feel nothing but compassion toward those men because they didn't know the Lord like I do. They eventually fired me for allegedly missing a grease fitting. It was in 1991, during a time of nationwide recession. There simply was no work coming into the shop, and the union contract required for the company to still pay employees 36 hours of wages per week, even if there was no work, so you get the picture. They had just celebrated in 1990 being in business for 25 years without ever having to lay anybody off. So they fired me instead. I was one of many to follow from what I heard years later at a different job, working as a truck mechanic again in 1993.

One of my drain plugs allegedly fell out of a truck that I changed the oil on, but my boss told me that he knew I was innocent. The same guy that spit on me, used a key to put a long mean scratch down the side of my bosses car. My boss said he knew that the guy did it, but couldn't prove it; and also said that the same employee had loosened my drain plug to get me fired. So, eventually those wicked sinners got me fired. God will deal with them. I always remember what Pastor Jack Hyles wisely said: "To lose something in the will of God is to find something better." Amen and amen.

One day when I came to work, I saw a metal object sitting on my toolbox and picked it up. I jumped a foot into the air. It was an ignition capacitor that a co-worker had charged with electricity, wanting me to get zapped, and I sure did. The same co-worker who cared enough to go tell my boss that an employee had spit on me, told him that a certain man put a charged capacitor on my toolbox which could have stopped my heart. My boss couldn't have cared less either time. What a wicked coward! I could go on and on. I know what it feels like to be persecuted for my Christian faith, working in a Hostile Work Enviroment. I won't even get into my other jobs, which were just as horrible.

I've been persecuted and harassed all my life because of my Christian faith by the Devil's children. Not just being saved, but living godly in Christ Jesus (2nd Timothy 3:12). My co-workers at times invited me to go with them to local Strip Clubs after work, but I refused. I wasn't a good Christian (and I don't think anyone truly is a good Christian), but they hated me without cause because I am a child of God. I was a square block trying to fit into a round hole.

My wife, bless her heart, saw me crying one late night when I came home from work at 1 am in the morning. She said some words I will never forget: "You are a tender-hearted man working with some cold-hearted people, and the two just don't mix." She was absolutely right! My entire work history in the secular workplace was filled with persecution, wickedness and hostility from heathen co-workers. Pastor Jack Hyles was so right, "It's a jungle out there!"

We Are Living In The Last Days of Bible Prophecy

In this blog, I didn't even get into the rotten neo-evangelical churches that abused me over the years, worse than the heathens! Even Jesus Himself, in a rhetorical question to His disciples in Luke 18:8, asked if He would find any faith when He returns. The implied answer is, no.

We also see the famine of God's Word foretold in Amos 8:11, as the modern Bible revisions obliterate God's inspired Word. The Bible says in Daniel 7:25 that when the Man of Sin (Antichrist) comes, he will "wear out the saints of the most High." I'm already tired—tired of fighting with other Baptists who mishandle the inspired Holy Scripture, tired of being kicked out of ungodly neo-evangelical fake churches, tired of pastor's wives who wear pants to dress like whores, tired of brutish arrogant pastors who refuse to contend for the Christian faith, tired of deadbeat pastors who won't preach against sin, tired of no soul winning in local churches, tired of the woeful lack of love and compassion for hurting people in today's lethargic spiritually dead churches. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

I am so humbled and grateful for God's goodness and faithfulness. We serve an omnipotent more than amazing God. I learned this week about the wood frog, that freezes solid during the winter months and thaws back to life in the spring. Astounding! I learned today about a mysterious black hole in the universe that is so big, it could fit 100,000,000,000 of our suns inside of it! Wow! Our sun has a diameter which is 109 time greater than the earth's. You could fit 932,844 earths into the sun. Our Creator is magnificent to say the least.

Edwin Hubble (1889-1953) discovered that the universe is expanding in 1929 by observing that galaxies are moving away from us at speeds proportional to their distances, a relationship now known as "Hubble's law." This groundbreaking find fundamentally changed man's understanding of the universe, supporting the idea of an expanding universe. It was Hubble's Law which led scientists to call it "The Big Bang." I do not know if the universe began with a 'Big Bang' from God, but science seems to confirm it. Astronomers have proven that the universe as a whole is still expanding outward at the speed of light. God certainly could have exploded the universe into existence. This does not endorse the bogus theories of evolution, which I reject on all levels. What saith the Scripture?

God created the universe by the Word of His mouth (cf. 2nd Peter 3:5).

> Psalms 33:6, "By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

It is God who is causing the universe to continue expanding outward (stretching)...

> Psalms 104:2, "Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain."

Theoretical physicists, astronomers, planetary scientists and cosmologists are perplexed today over what is commonly described as "dark matter" or "dark energy" which are essentially terms used to describe man's woeful ignorance of what hidden energy force is causing the universe to still expand at the speed of light. I humbly believe that their so-called "dark energy" is none other than our omnipotent faithful Creator, God!

Thank you for reading my ministry blog. Jesus is precious!!!

6.12.1 The Greatest Faith Is To Trust God's Word (2025-12-01 12:45)

Matthew 8:5-10, "And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him, And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented. And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him. The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed. For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

Mark 11:22, " And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God. "

6.12.2 How Not To Change (2025-12-02 10:23)

Psalms 15:1-5, "LORD, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill? He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart. He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour. In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the LORD. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not. He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved."

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) penned these edifying words...

> One should weigh himself every day. The clock that loses a minute a day will in 60 days lose an hour if it is not set daily. The individual or institution which is not weighed daily and whose compass is not checked daily will soon find itself way off course and in bad spiritual health. One should check his position every day to be sure that he is not off course.

One of the sad things about the Christian life is that we do not become dissatisfied with a little bit of wrong. The best housewife hates a speck of dirt. The best mechanic hates a spot of grease. The best husbandman hates one locust. The best preacher hates one sin. The best judge hates one crime. The best athlete hates one defeat. The best doctor hates one germ. The best botanist hates one weed. The best musician hates one unharmonious note. The best writer hates one grammatical error, and the most consistent Christian hates to veer one degree off course. Because of this, the land must be surveyed every day. Our spiritual height must be measured every day. Our course must be charted every day.

Think of all the things the Apostle Paul did daily. He died daily, and he buffeted his body daily. The wise Christian will make a daily check on his position. the wise Christian institution will check its position every day, not in its relation to other institutions, but in its relation to what it was when God blessed it most and to its nearness to the purpose of its founders. Look at the great liberal universities which were founded by fundamental people and financed by fundamental dollars. Their change did not come dramatically. It was a slow gradual evolution. Even the most astute of its leaders did not realize a change was taking place.

The landmark was moved so slowly it could not be seen, and yet one day the institution awakened to find itself asleep, came alive to find itself dead, found enough light to find itself in darkness, walked straight enough to find itself in crooked, had just enough health to find itself incurably diseased and had just enough strength to find itself too weak to recover.

6.12.3 You're Just As Wicked As Anybody Else (2025-12-03 13:51)

James 2:8-12, "

If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

There is a powerful truth to be learned from this passage of inspired Scripture. The Apostle James is admonishing believers not to become respecters of person, where we treat others unkindly whom we perceive to be worse sinners than we are.

The inspired Word of God in this commands that saints should 'LOVE THY NEIGHBOUR AS THYSELF' ("thy neighbour" includes all humanity). James 2:8, "

If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well

But, the Bible says, if we have RESPECT OF PERSONS, we commit sin.

James 2:9, "

But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

" Part of loving thy neighbour as thyself is treating everyone equally, the same way we would like to be treated, which is with respect, compassion, patience, empathy, understanding, fairness and love. Anything less is sinful.

The Apostle explains why it is a sin to be a respecter of persons in verse 10, because apart from the precious blood of Jesus that washed our sins away, we are no more righteous or less wicked than the vilest sinner on earth.

James 2:10, "

For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. " We are all horrible wicked sinners! We ought not ever condemn someone for their sins, just because they sin differently than we do. We all have our own Skeleton Closet. We all have a past—sins which we very much prefer to keep hidden away from people.

To clarify, I am not talking about proper punishment for wrongdoing. As the old judicial adage goes: If you don't want to do the time, don't commit the crime! I really like what Pastor Jack Hyles said in a sermon...

> "If you want to never do anything that is terribly wicked, then you never do anything that is slightly wicked." —Pastor Jack Hyles, [1]"Unjust In The Least"

Anyone is capable of committing any sin under the right circumstances. I truly believe that there is no such thing as a " good Christian.

" We are all struggling sinners. Of the Christian's three enemies (the Devil, the world and the flesh), I believe THE FLESH is the worst enemy of all, simply because it is with us all the time. Our flesh is tired, hungry and weak.

The Apostle James elaborates further in

James 2:11-12, "

For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

" Knowing that we are all woeful wicked sinners, this truth should cause us to treat others the same we we would like to be treated. Now let me delve deeper.

Why Repenting Of Your Sins Is A Counterfeit Gospel

The entire concept of turning from one's sins to get to Heaven is flawed, rooted in self-righteousness. NO ONE, and I repeat NO ONE, has ever turned from their sinning.

Making an effort to clean up one's life is the act of reformation, not repentance.

To feel sorry for your sins is penitence, not repentance.

To amend your wrongs is penance, not repentance.

Many people confuse and mistake these virtues with repentance, perverting God's simple plan of salvation. The truth is that to get to Heaven you DON'T have to feel sorry for your sins, amend your sinful ways nor change your behavior by turning from your sinful bad habits. You may do all these things and yet never have been born again. Christ died for your sins!

It is tragic that over 90 % of Baptist churches today have succumbed to Satan's lie that you cannot go to Heaven unless you first "repent of your sins," which is nowhere taught in the inspired King James Bible. It really upsets me that most incompetent pastors who require people to "repent of your sins" to be saved, intentionally won't explain what that phrase even means, so he can [2]straddle the fence and go either way (Twitter video clip).

In some churches today they do explain what "repent of your sins" means, telling lost people they must turn away from their past sinful ways, or forsake sinful bad habits to get to Heaven. This is the [3]dire error of Pensacola Christian College (PCC).

In [4]toxic Chick Tracts (which I loath), on the back page of every tract it says you must “Be willing to turn from sin (repent),” if you want to be saved. This is in addition to step 1, which says to “Admit you are a sinner.” Step one is correct and necessary to be saved, but step two is damnable heresy which is not necessary to get to Heaven. Turning away from ones

according to Jonah 3:10.

Also, carefully notice in Jonah 3:10 that God Himself ’REPENTED.’ So, if repentance means to

turn from your sins,

then it would imply that God is a sinner, and we know God is incapable of being tempted with sin (James 1:13-14). The simple truth is that God simply CHANGED HIS MIND in Jonah 3:10, which is the true meaning of repentance. When you change your mind in faith (trust) to acknowledge that you are a guilty sinner and Jesus as the only Savior, that is repentance unto salvation.

We repent TO believe; We don’t repent AND believe. [5]Neo-evangelical Evangelist Tom Farrell (1952-2021) got that very wrong in his misleading preaching before he died. Neo-evangelicals are WRONG on God’s simple plan of salvation. In fact, biblically, you need only repent from your unbelief to trust Jesus to be saved. The only thing you and I contribute to our salvation were the sins that made it necessary.

We are commanded by God as His saints to love everybody, regardless of who they are. Our proper attitude as believers should always be “We have sinned,” but never “He has sinned” or “She has sinned.” James makes it clear that to commit one sin makes us guilty of breaking all of God’s commandments. In other words, it only takes one sin to condemn a person to the Lake of Fire forever.

I once heard famous actor [6]Jackie Gleason (1916-1987) foolishly say in a 60-Minutes interview that he didn’t think God would send him to Hell for committing one sin. Oh, how wrong Mr. Gleason was, which he now realizes in eternity! We can only hope that he trusted Christ before he died, but I cannot find any evidence that he ever did. Gleason was dubbed

“THE GREAT ONE,” by Hollywood, being one if its patriarchs; yet he didn’t know THE GREATEST ONE, Jesus Christ. That is so sad. Do you know the dear Savior friend?

6.12.4 God's Hatred For Sin Hasn't Changed (2025-12-04 09:15)

Romans 1:27-32, "And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient;

Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them."

In April of 2025, I had an unpleasant conversation with Pastor Brad Moffett at the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, whose ungodly meddling wife and fool for a father have him henpecked. In that horrible meeting, Pastor Brad censured my website ministry at [1]Jesus-is-Savior.com and other [2]ministry websites since 2002.

Specifically, one of the issues he made a fuss over is my truthful Bible preaching that the sin of homosexuality should be a crime punishable by capital punishment (Leviticus 20:13; Romans 1:27-32). To clarify, lest some ungodly hater misquote me, I believe only the government has the power to make and enforce such laws. I do not believe that anyone should ever take the law into your own hands. Sadly, our government increasingly refuses to punish crime anymore.

According to Pastor Brad, the Old Testament was a theocracy, which doesn't apply today. He cited Romans chapter one, pointing out that God gave them over to their sins instead of killing them. Pastor Brad said this proves that adulterers and homosexuals shouldn't be executed today in the New Testament. But I asked him about the sin of murder. If we ought not punish homosexuals and adulterers as criminals, then why punish murder as a crime? Why punish pedophiles and pederasts? Do you see my point?

I asked Pastor Brad what gives us the right as humans to second guess God's inspired Word, to take it upon ourselves to arrogantly pick and choose which sins should be punished as crimes. He didn't have an answer. Dear reader, adultery, homosexuality, pedophilia, rape and other heinous sins ought to be punishable by capital punishment. And if our state and federal government were of the godly sort, these sins would be punishable crimes. In the wicked state of Maryland, they mock God by punishing adultery with [3]a mere $10 fine. To have such a glib and impudent attitude toward a sin for which God requires the death penalty is BLASPHEMY!

Ecclesiastes 8:11, "

Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

" [4]Take a good look at what lawlessness looks like in the United States, because it's going to become much worse! The inspired King James Bible plainly warns that if the punishment doesn't fit the crime, humans (especially youth) will be motivated to commit more crimes. And so it is today.

Call me old-fashioned and outdated, but I humbly still believe that the horrible sins of adultery, homosexuality, rape, pedophilia and murder should impose the death penalty. What gives mankind the right to punish first-degree murder, but not the other sins? What gives the state of Maryland the right to impose an insulting $10 fine for committing the sin of adultery, when God demands the death penalty (Genesis 9:1-5)? I humbly reject the corrupt theology which says that the worst of sins were only punishable under an Old Testament theocracy.

In the story of Jesus and the woman caught in the very act of adultery, it wasn't His jurisdiction to decide (nor even comment) concerning what should happen to her. The Lord showed mercy. We also clearly see that the hypocrites who dragged her to Jesus failed to bring the man with her. They did admit catching her in the very act of adultery. So why didn't they bring the guilty man? This is corrupt human justice—always partial, unfair, rigged and biased.

I find no place in the inspired Word of God where it teaches that crimes which were punishable by the death penalty under the Old Testament, ceased from being punishable crimes in the New Testament. If our legal system punishes convicted first-degree murderers with the death penalty (and it should), then so also should other serious sins be deemed as crimes punishable by death. The Holy Bible already specifies which sins require the death penalty.

It is only because we live in a wicked world where ungodly crimes such as abortion (which is first-degree premeditated murder) is legalized. When the corrupt U.S. Supreme Court in 2022 overturned Roe vs. Wade 49 years after it was passed into law in 1973, I knew that the Abortion Pill would surplant Roe vs. Wade, and I was absolutely right! All that happened in 2022 is that the federal government dumped the decision to legalize or outlaw abortion back to the individual states. In 1971, only six states permitted abortion, and New York was the primary culprit. 81 % of all abortions happened in New York prior to Roe vs. Wade in 1973. The Abortion Pill has become so convenient that you can [5]purchase it at Amazon.com without a prescription. THE ABORTION PILL IS WICKEDNESS!!! If you are pregnant ladies, [6]please be very careful about who you accept drink or food from, because people can be evil.

My biggest argument with those naïve pastors and Bible students today who claim that adultery, homosexuality and rape should not be punished with capital punishment, is that we have no right to pick and choose which sins should be punishable by death. We are not God, so we have no right to decide how to better punish criminals. It makes no sense to insist upon the death penalty for murderers, which imposing a mere slap on the wrist for other serious offenses. The problem (if you haven't figured it out yet dear reader) is that humans do not hate sin and evil as much as our holy God does. We hate and condemn murder, while approving abortion. We hate murder, while approving of homosexuality. We condemn murder, while letting rapists go free with a light sentence. What hypocrisy!

If it is true that today's court system shouldn't legally punish homosexuals and adulterers, then why punish anything? What gives mankind the right to selectively pick and choose which sins we think should receive capital punishment? In the year 1963, homosexuality was still a punishable crime in all 50 states, and as recently as 2012 in Texas. God hasn't changed we have. The United States has gone to ruin in sin because of our situation ethics and rebellion against a holy God. Oh what a tangled web we weave, when at first we work to deceive.

While doing some research for this blog, I noticed that BibleHub.com and GotQuestions.org both heretically teach that murder and adultery were only punishable by death in the Old Testament under a theocracy. I couldn't disagree more! Thankfully, there are some countries today who uphold rule of law—where the sins of adultery, murder, homosexuality, pedophilia and rape are still punishable by death. Call me what you will, I believe in having a strong government where sin is not tolerated.

Here is Duck Duck Go's A.I. generated answer as to whether adultery should be punishable by death today...

> The death penalty for adultery in the Old Testament serves as a stark reminder of the holiness of God and the seriousness of sin. It underscores the need for atonement and the ultimate fulfillment of the law in Jesus Christ, who offers forgiveness and redemption. The shift from law to grace in the New Testament reflects the transformative power of the Gospel, which calls believers to live in righteousness and purity, empowered by the Holy Spirit.

Okay, if that be true, then why does the government punish murderers? Why not just show mercy and grace and let them all go, giving them a second chance? Do you see how unjust and hypocritical we are as humans? We condemn one group of sinners while affirming another. We condemn Jesus while excusing Barabbas! The old adage is very true: Justice is very human. That is, human justice is often unfair, lopsided and ridiculous, if not inexistent altogether. We are still waiting for justice for the 9/11 victims. The families of 343 NYFD firefighters, and the courageous firefighters themselves, are still waiting for justice!

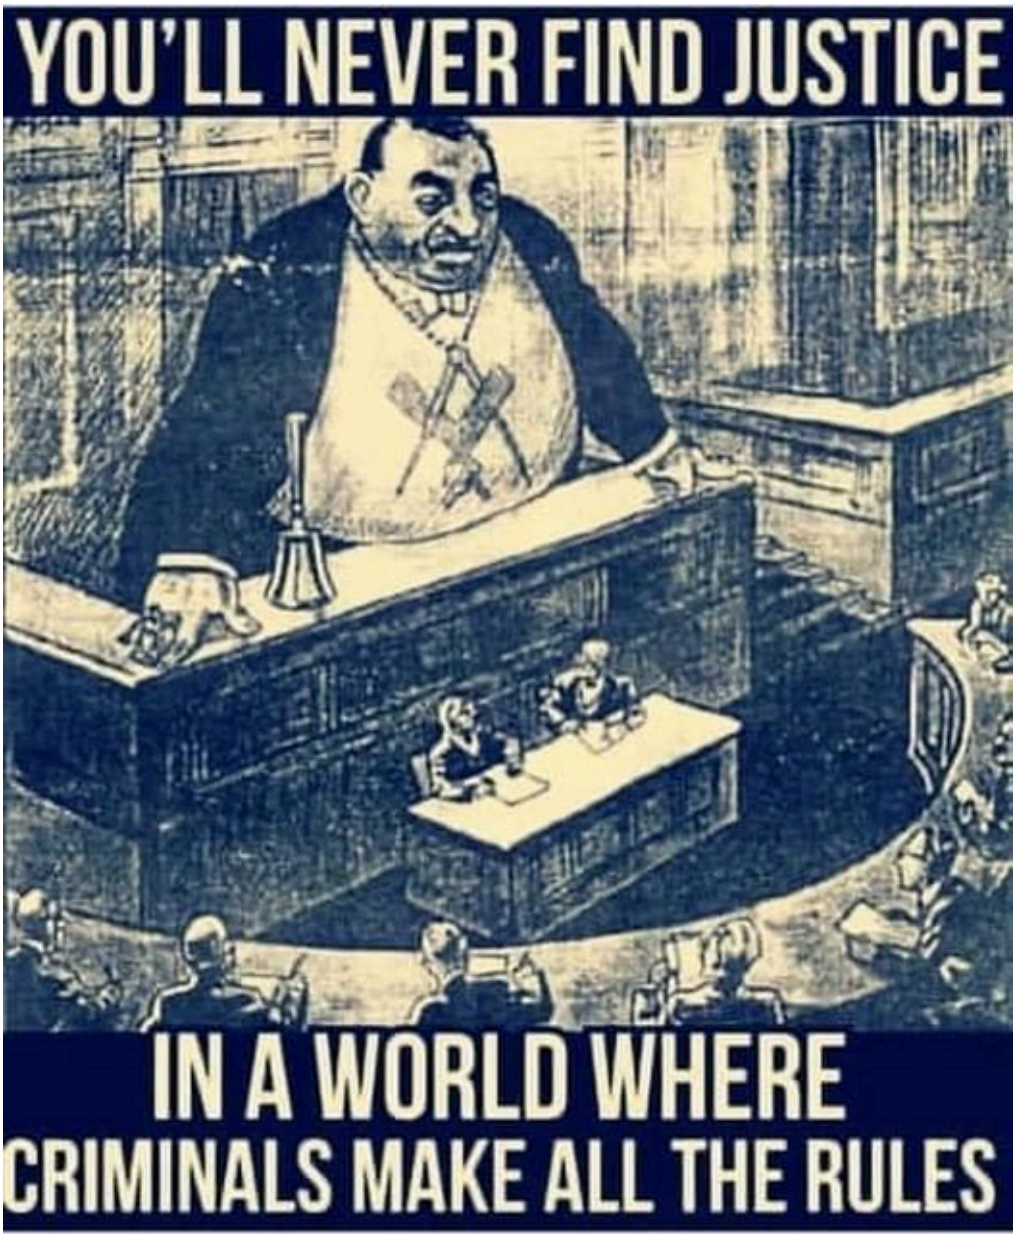
That being said, I DON'T think it is ever biblically appropriate to take the law into our own hands as citizens. That is why we have a legal court system and established laws, to punish crime. The Bible teaches that when the punishment doesn't fit the crime, it causes crime to increase exponentially.

Ecclesiastes 8:11, "

Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

" If you don't believe the Bible in this matter friend, then [7]take a good look at what lawlessness looks like in cities across the United States today. Where is justice?



I mentioned earlier that Pastor Brad Moffett attempted to use Romans chapter one as proof that God doesn't want homosexuals executed today.

But please consider that the Lord didn't kill sodomites in the Old Testament either. The Lord commanded godly kings (authority) such as Josiah to drive wicked sinners out of the land. Our U.S. federal government has utterly failed to punish evil. The fact that the 9/11 criminals (e.g., Dick Cheney Donald Rumsfeld and George W. Bush) are still at large proves my point. They are ABOVE THE LAW of man, but not above the law of God (Ecclesiastes 5:8). PAYDAY SOMEDAY!

Our founding fathers had all convicted homosexuals castrated. I read that in the 19th century an 7-year-old boy named and his 11-year-old sister Ann Hamond were hung in King's Lynn, Norfolk for stealing a loaf of bread. That is insane! I don't know if this story is true, but I tend to believe it. I do think man can go too far sometimes in his quest for justice. Why decides? You? Me? The Scripture teaches an eye-for-an-eye and a tooth-for-an-tooth. In the New Testament Jesus taught 'THE GOLDEN RULE' in Matthew 7:12, to do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

6.12.5 God Is A Miracle Working God (2025-12-05 05:02)

John 12:37-38, "But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him: That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?"

I recently bought Cecil B. Demille's 1956 epic movie, '[1]THE TEN COMMANDMENTS' starring Charlton Heston and Yul Brynner. Most people, like me, love the scene where God parts the Red Sea. The DVD movie is narrated by Katherine Orrison if you choose to turn on the commentary feature. I watched the entire 2:40 hour movie through, and then once again with the commentary turned on. I was very saddened as I listened to Katherine Orrison's horrible lack of faith in a miracle working God. All she does throughout the commentary is attempt to provide plausible excuses to discredit the miracles of God. This movie is the 5th highest-grossing movie in North America, with an adjusted total of over $1 billion in 2010[2][1]

Katherine Orrison suggests that the waters in Egypt turned red due to a nearby volcanic eruption that spewed colored lava, thus changing the water's color. She then speculates that the contaminated waters drove the frogs and locusts from their natural habitat into the Egyptian's homes, and that the volcanic rocks were toxic and killed wildlife, making the rivers to stink. The fiery hail is also attributed to volcanic activity.

It is tragic that people refuse to accept the Bible as literal. The Bible tells us that the waters in Egypt were turned into literal blood, not just given a red color. The Bible says that God cursed the Egyptians with painful boils all over their bodies, which a volcano did not do. Orrison's lack of faith in a miracle working God is disgraceful in a movie that meant so much to Cecil B. Demille (1881-1959). Mr. Demille believed that God could do the IMPOSSIBLE, and He still does today. Life itself is impossible without God. Look around you and you'll see the impossible. This universe would fall apart in seconds if God stopped doing the impossible. Acts 17:25 says that God giveth to all life and breath.

There is nothing any more evil than deliberately making a movie to deny the Savior, teaching that Mary was raped by a Roman soldier, and blaspheming the Word of God. Paul Verhoeven is going to split Hell wide open the second he dies, and at age 74 (born 1938) he's not too far away from meeting His making. What a fool. These wicked Hollywood producers and directors aren't just making movies, they're indoctrinating society and turning people away from the Lord. Hundreds-of-millions of people are going to see JESUS OF NAZARETH when it comes out, and it will led many people further into despair and doubt. Romans 10:17 says faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the Word of God.

And likewise, foolishness like this leads people astray as Colossians 2:8 warns, "Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ." The word "spoil" in Colossians 2:8 is the Greek word sulagogeo which means "to lead away as booty, that is, (figuratively) seduce." Booty is goods or money obtained illegally.

Hence, Satan wants to seduce us away from Jesus Christ through philosophy and vain deceit, through worldly established principles (such as humanism and evolution) and the traditions of men. Notice that the Bible directs us to Jesus Christ. Amen! We learn about Jesus in the Scriptures, which is exactly what Jesus said in John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me."

I'm sick of hearing about the therapy of prayer. My friend, God answers prayer because He exists. Prayer is taught as a therapy because most people don't believe in a God Who answers prayer, in a God Who performs miracles. I know my God is real, and He can do anything. My God is so big, so strong and so mighty, there's nothing my God cannot do.

6.12.6 The Iniquity Of Hating The Sinner With The Sin (2025-12-06 15:51)

2nd Chronicles 19:2, "And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the LORD? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the LORD."

Psalms 18:1, "I will lovethee, O LORD, my strength."

In these two Old Testament passages we find two different Hebrew words with separate meanings for the word "love."

The Hebrew word for "love" in 2nd Chronicles 19:2 is ahab aheb, which is a more general term for love that can express romantic feelings or affection for anything. This is exactly what the Bible means in

James 4:4, "

Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

Jehu the prophet was telling king Jehoshaphat that he shouldn't help and be fond of wicked sinners.

The word for "love" in Psalms 18:1 is Racham which refers to a deep, compassionate love, similar to the love a parent has for a child. This would be the equivalent of the Greek word agapao in the New Testament, which is God's love. ...

> John 3:16-17, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."

Agapao and phileo are both Greek words for love used in the New Testament. Agapao typically refers to a selfless, unconditional love, while phileo denotes a brotherly or familial love, but both can be used interchangeably in many contexts.

Strong's Concordance reads concerning the Greek word phileo...

> From G5384; to be a friend to (fond of [an individual or an object]), that is, have affection for (denoting personal attachment, as a matter of sentiment or feeling

What saith the Scripture? ...

> Colossians 3:1-3, "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.
>
> Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God."

Colossians 3:1-3 sheds light on the correct understanding of a fondness type of love (phileo).

Weirdo rockstar Marilyn Manson (real name: Brian Warner) once said: "If Jesus loves everybody, then what's the value of being loved?" That's a good question. Brian obviously doesn't love God and has rejected God's love for Him in Christ; hence, Marilyn Manson only understands one type of love and that is the world's affectionate type of love.

We learn from the Bible that there are two different types of love mentioned in the New Testament. There is God's love (Greek: agapao, meaning, "to love in a social or moral sense"), which is unconditional love; and then there is worldly love (Greek: phileo, meaning, "to be a friend to, have affection") which is conditional love.

God loves [agapao] all mankind, which is why the Lord sacrificed His only begotten Son to pay everyone's sin debt. God has a special love [phileo] for His own, affectionate toward those who love and obey Him. This is a conditional love toward those who obey God.

God loves everybody, even the vilest sinner who ever lived...

> John 3:16-17, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."

The word loved in this passage is agapao, God's true love. I like to teach the difference between agapao and phileo like this:

> AGAPAO = I love you because of WHO I AM.
> PHILEO = I love you because of WHO YOU ARE.

God sent His only begotten Son into the world to die in our place on a cross 2,000 years ago because of WHO HE IS (that is agapao love).

A shallow man is only fond of a woman for her physical beauty because of WHO SHE IS (that is phileo love).

I love [agapao] all people, whoever you may be, because of WHO I AM; but I have an affectionate love [phileo] for my web visitors because of WHO YOU ARE (my friends). I have both agapao and phileo love for those people who are near and dear to me. The Bible describes four different types of love using Greek terms:

- Eros (romantic love)
- Storge (familial love)
- Philia (brotherly love)
- Agape (divine, unconditional love)

Each type reflects different relationships and aspects of love in human experience.

So we now understand the answer to Marilyn Manson's question. Brian Warner only comprehends one type of love in the world, an affectionate type of love; but he is oblivious to God's unconditional love that can unconditionally love a complete stranger, even someone who is being unkind to us, mistreating us, or who has hurt us.

The unsaved world mocks, scoffs and despises true love because they have rejected the gift of eternal life in the Lord Christ Jesus. Thus, they cannot express love for a stranger when they are strangers themselves to the Kingdom of God. Please read my helpful articles, [1]God's Unconditional Love and [2]God's Love In You.

I have heard pastors foolishly teach that we shouldn't love everybody.

I love everybody. I loath and hate the homosexual community. I hate the Bible corrupting crowd. I hate the demonic Roman Catholic religion. I hate fornication and this wicked adulterous generation. I hate the abortion industry. I hate the liquor traffic cartel. I hate the ungodly Federal Reserve criminal gang. I hate the radical left-wing communist Democrat party, but I love the soul of the sinner.

I hate greedy corporations and shady advertising. I hate deceptive fine print.

In the KOINE Greek language the word for "hate" is miseo, which means " to detest or love less.

" I hate bikinis and public nudity wherever there is water in America. I hate the sin of women wearing pants in public. I think it is very interesting that there are four different types of love in the Holy Bible, but only one type of hate. I detest all of the aforementioned evils. I HATE SIN and EVIL (planned sin). Psalm 97:10 commands God's children to HATE EVIL.

There is nothing wrong with hating, if you hate the proper things. We should hate sin and evil, but never hate people. Jesus died on the cross because He loves humanity (John 3:16). He did not come into the world to condemn sinners; but rather, to save them (John 3:17). The Old Testament's Ten Commandments (The Law) condemns mankind (Romans 3:19-20). The primary purpose of The Law is to bring us to Christ to be saved by grace through faith (Galatians 3:24-26). Salvation is freely by grace, not by works that incur debt (Romans 4:4).

Christians Should Love Everyone

I firmly believe that Christians should have God's unconditional love for all sinners, regardless of how wicked they are. I hate sin as much as any preacher, but I do not hate sinners. Please do not misunderstand me dear reader. I believe Bible preachers must preach hard against all manner of sin. 1st Timothy 5:20, "Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear." This Scripture passage simply means that open sin in a local church should not be tolerated, and must be dealt with by the pastor.

For example: Unmarried couples ought not be permitted to shack up in adultery and be accepted as church members in good standing (1st Corinthians 5:1-5). I personally would never kick anybody out of church, but I would preach without apology against sin. I would have someone removed if they disrupted the church service, until they behaved.

Along with adultery, I believe that homosexuality is a sin that should be a legally punishable crime, as it was in 1963 in all 50 states. Just because American society has woefully deteriorated morally to tolerate wickedness, doesn't mean that God has also changed. That being said, homosexuals are still sinners for whom Christ died on the cross of Calvary. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Romans 5:6-9, "For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.
> For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him."

I cherish that Scripture passage. Some people might sacrifice their life for a righteous man. A few people might even sacrifice their life for a good man. But who in the world would sacrifice their own life to spare a convicted guilty criminal? Jesus, that's who! That's the eternal point that the Apostle Paul is making here. Knowing that we are filthy rotten guilty sinners, God still sent His only begotten (biological) Son into the world to be beaten, mocked and crucified as a ransom for our sins.

Romans 5:9, " Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him."

The prophet Jehu was reprimanding king Jehoshaphat for befriending the wicked world. 2nd Chronicles 19:2, "And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the LORD? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the LORD." Jehoshaphat was helping wicked sinners work against the Lord. He loved them in the sense of favoring them, which is a wicked thing to do. As God's children we are commanded in 2nd Corinthians 6:14-17 to separate from unbelievers and backslidden believers, that is, from wicked unrepentant sinners.

Yet, our love for the souls of men should permeate all else with God's unconditional love that sent Christ to a wooden splintered cross 2,000 years ago. Yes, we should fight against all evildoers to expose and hinder them as much as possible. Psalms 94:16,

Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

" Most professed Christians today are indifferent, apathetic and spiritually comatose! That's why I love and support Pastor Steven Anderson and the Faithful Word Baptist Church in Tempe, Arizona. They are on fire for God, winning souls, making an eternal impact for Christ.

> "It is the only happy life to live for the salvation of souls." —Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899)

I humbly believe that Pastor Anderson is one of the most misunderstood preachers today. From listening to his Facebook sermon excerpt, it is clear that Brother Anderson is addressing Christians who support wicked unrepentant sinners, with which I fully stand with him.

Shame on any redeemed child of God who silently goes along with, or God forbid supports, the sodomite agenda. Homosexuality, cross-dressing, effeminate males, lesbianism and transgenderism are all sinful ungodliness.

Don't Misunderstand Different Types Of Love

I heard a Baptist preacher this week foolishly saying that he couldn't understand why any child of God would love pedophiles. There is truth to his claim that [3]homosexuals target children. That being said, the pastor I just mentioned doesn't consider any other type of love than worldly (phileo) love. Of course, no child of God should love pedophiles or homosexuals in the sense of being fond of who they are as people. We ought not help, encourage nor go along with their wicked filth. But dear reader, we are expected by God to unconditionally love (agapao) all mankind, just as God loves the world and died for it (John 3:16).

What saith the Scripture? ...

James 2:8-10,

“ If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well: But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors. For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.”

In the parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37), Jesus plainly teaches that all humans are our neighbor. James 2:8-10 plainly warns against becoming a respecter of persons. The Apostle James then reminds us that committing even one sin makes us guilty of all. Do you see what James is saying, and this is a profound truth? James is saying that even the best people are just as wicked as homosexuals, pedophiles and the worst of humanity!

So, the pastor who is errantly teaching that Christians should hate homosexuals and pedophiles is actually guilty of being a respecter of persons, woefully failing to realize that apart from the precious blood of Jesus that washes all our sins away (1st Peter 1:18-19), we are JUST AS GUILTY in God’s sight as pedophiles, homosexuals, murders, rapists, liars, extortioners and all manner of vile wickedness!

James 2:10,

“ For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.”

Explained another way, just because you are not a homosexual or pedophile DOESN’T make you any more righteous or less sinful than such wicked sinners. We were just as guilty in God’s sight BEFORE we trust Jesus Christ and He forgave all of our sins. Mark 2:5, “When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.” Carefully notice in this Scripture passage that Jesus only forgave the man in response to FAITH in Him. Faith unlocks the windows of Heaven!

People often misunderstand the pastor in question because he fails to differentiate between CONDITIONALLY hating the sinner because of their sin, versus still UNCONDITIONALLY loving the sinner with Christ’s love and compassion.

Praying Imprecatory Prayers Is Natural

I have a hard time believing that any Bible-believing preacher who loves God could truly hate another human being on all levels. That is simply unbiblical to do. When David exclaimed in Psalms 139:22, “ I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies, ” the shepherd boy turned king was understandably upset toward the wicked.

Admittedly, I have often prayed imprecatory type prayers for God to severely punish wicked neo-evangelical pastors (e.g., Marty Herron, Jeff Redlin, Josh Thompson, Bill Adams, Bobby Moffett) for their evil indifference, blatant corruption on the gospel (aka, the deadly “repent of your sins” to get to Heaven heresy), sinful compromise and for wickedly bidding Godspeed to false prophets.

The disturbing imprecatory prayers which David uttered are the expressions of man’s desire for vengeance on God’s enemies.

Some Bible students would no doubt claim that these are not God’s precepts, but man’s defective prayers. But are these type of prayers really sinful cold-blooded expressions of malignant cruelty? I humbly think not. I do not believe it is sinful to cry out for justice from God, and to express anger and vengeance toward the wicked. That being said, I also firmly believe that such imprecatory prayers should always be embedded in a proper spirit of God’s unconditional love for all mankind, even toward bitter enemies.

But if David indeed wanted the wicked to burn in Hell, and he felt absolutely no compassion whatsoever for the wicked who are in need of God's salvation, then David had a sinful bad attitude. Please consider this New Testament Scripture passage in which Jesus reprimanded His disciples for desiring to destroy the Samaritans for their unbelief. ...

> And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him. And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did? But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village. "

The Holy Bible says that God is not desirous for any man to perish. 2nd Peter 3:9, "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance."

The Scripture tells us that God has no pleasure in the death of the wicked. Ezekiel 33:11, "Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?"

Micah 7:18, "

Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

These beautiful Scripture passages all teach us that God is a forgiving God who delights in mercy. The Lord is not pleased when someone dies in their sins without His Son, forever damned in the fires, torments and loneliness of Hell. The Bible teaches that God so loved the whole world that 'HE GAVE' (His only begotten Son - John 3:16). With all this in mind, why would God expect us as His children to hate anyone? I simply cannot ascribe to that belief dear reader, and I hope neither can you. By the way, don't miss that great truth in John 3:16. LOVE is synonymous with GIVING! When you love, you give; when you give, you love.

The old adage is very true: We should never accept the sin with the sinner, not reject the sinner with the sin. No Bible preacher hates sin and [4]preaches against it any harder than I do. Sin kills, steals and destroys lives and families. Yet, there must be a BALANCE. There must be a proper spiritual balance between hating and fighting against the sin that destroys, versus the unconditional love of God which sent Jesus to die on a cross for the sins of all humanity.

To reiterate, I humbly believe it is WRONG for any preacher to teach that we should hate homosexuals, pedophiles or any group of horrible sinners. We should hate THE SIN, but not the person committing the sin, for whom Christ died on a cross (Romans 5:6-9).

The greatest Bible preacher is the one who wisely maintains a proper BALANCE between HATRED for sin versus LOVE for people (and all people are sinners). The Apostle Paul warns in 1st Corinthians 13:1-3 that WITHOUT LOVE (charity) our preaching and works for Christ will be ineffective and greatly hindered. Put another way, people don't care what you know until they know that you care. Jude:1:22, "

And of some have compassion, making a difference: And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh." Soulwinning is every Christian's job!

We've got a serious IMBALANCE problem today in our Bible colleges and churches. Some churches love people, but there is no hard preaching against sin. Other churches hate sin vehemently, but like [5]Pastor Fred Phelps (1929-2014), they hate the sinner and bring reproach upon the name of Jesus. There must be a proper balance between love and hate. I think I have the mind of Christ in this important matter (1st Corinthians 2:14-16).

Thank you for reading my ministry blog dear friend. Jesus is precious!!!

6.12.7 The New Morality Is Not God's Morality (2025-12-07 13:27)

Jeremiah 6:16, "Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall fin d rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein."

Something that bothers me often is the new morality of this wicked generation, which is a far cry from the high morals of the inspired Holy Bible.

A perfect example is the sin of Christian women who wear pants. It is worldliness and I believe sinful based on Deuteronomy 22:5 and 1st Timothy 2:9. I have heard foolish Baptist pastors attempt to justify their worldly wives wearing pants, which is wicked and shameful. They'll try to dismiss Deuteronomy 22:5 as being mere Old Testament ceremonial law. Deuteronomy 22:5, "The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination unto the LORD thy God." Dear reader, this is a moral law, not mere ceremonial law.

The wicked Family Baptist Church in Pensacola is full of hussy pants-wearing women. They are defiant against the holy God of the Bible, insisting that there is nothing wrong with Christian females wearing pants in public. SHAME ON THEM ALL!!! Pastor Brad Moffett and his ungodly father Bobby Moffett have no business being pastors, because they are worldly and theologically incompetent. They preach another gospel of turning from your sins to be saved, instead of salvation by grace through faith alone. People in Pensacola, RUN FROM THAT CESSPOOL OF INIQUITY!!!

Pastor Brad Moffett old me in April of 2025 that his wife has every right to wear pants in public. When I and my wife attended their church picnic in May of 2025, we caught the pastor's wicked wife wearing her sexy pants. We were nice toward her but we saw her guilt all over her countenance. She was compelled to walk over to the picnic table where we were eating, and tell a 12-year-old girl, "

I like your shorts.

" We knew what she was doing, mocking our biblical fundamentalist Christianity. My wife Alice was wearing a full-length dressing, putting the pastor's wife to utter shame without speaking a single word. That ungodly pastor's wife felt convicted about her IMMODESTY.

In April her henpecked husband (the pastor) foolishly criticized my Bible preaching, censuring my website ministry. He was upset over my preaching against women wearing pants. Pastor Brad Moffett had several dozen pages from my [1]Jesus-is-Savior.com ministry printed out, placed upon his desk in the church office. Me and Alice were disappointed with the immature 35-year-old neo-evangelical Baptist pastor, who had shamefully deceived us concerning the purpose of the meeting. He lied to us. Three of the most contemptible professions today are realtor, lawyer and pastor! They're a bunch of greedy liars and disgusting predators.

According to Pastor Brad Moffett, his wife can wear sexy pants in public because the burden not to lust falls upon the man, not the woman. He contends that based on Galatians 5:16, "

This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh,

” it doesn’t matter of his wife wears pants or short skirts, because a man who walks in the Spirit won’t lust upon his wife. Are you understanding this insanity dear reader? This is the Satanic new morality of this perverse generation. Pastor Brad is not right with God, not even close. No man is right with God who defends his wife’s IMMODESTY!

If you are a redeemed child of God, but you fail to see what is wrong with women wearing pants, you are either a darn fool or spiritually blind in denial. I don’t have to show you a photo of a woman wearing pants for you to see what is very wrong with it. If lust is a sin (and it is), then any attire that makes it easier for a man to lust is sinful.

When I mentioned to Pastor Brad in April of 2025 Dr. John Gray’s truthful book titled, “M en Are From Mars; Women Are From Venus,

he foolishly challenged me to show him that in the Bible. I was bewildered how unreasonable and unrealistic he was being as a Baptist pastor, to deny that men’s and women’s minds work differently when it comes to sex and lust. You can ask any biologist, doctor or [2]psychologist if men and women regarding sex are inherently different and they will concur that they are, but the local village idiot named Brad Moffett says there is no difference. Unreal! Anyone who follows this guy as their pastor is an ungodly fool.

Dr. Hilary Lipka, a Jewish secular writer for ’THE TORAH’ rightly writes:

> This law, then, is about much more than simply cross-dressing. It is about maintaining a strict distinction between gender roles and enforcing a firm boundary between masculinity and femininity.
> READ MORE: ’[3]The Prohibition of Cross-Dressing’

Yes, absolutely, she is 100 % correct! In Deuteronomy 22:5, the Bible implies MUCH more than a mere ceremonial restriction for Jews living in Palestine during the Old Testament under Mosaic law. Clearly, the Lord does not want Christian men wearing women’s clothing, nor Christian women to put on men’s clothing, for to do so is a sin. Boys should always look like boys. Men should always look like men. Girls should always look like girls. And women should always look like women. There is nothing in between, and only a liberal left-wing nutcase would disagree.

My favorite Bible preacher is Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) who truthfully said, along the same lines as Dr. Lipka:

> “You can name anything you want to name, but I am opposed to anything in the world that de-emphasizes the line of difference between the sexes. I believe that ladies ought to be feminine and sweet and lovely and charming. I believe men ought to be strong and masculine and decisive. I’m opposed to anything that makes a man and a woman act alike, look alike, dress alike, or talk alike.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, ’[4]Unisex’

This obviously means that Christian women, if they are to please God by maintaining their femininity, cannot wear pants in public. MEN WEAR PANTS! WOMEN WEAR SKIRTS AND DRESSES! We are unfortunately living in an exceedingly wicked generation, where even pastors wives and their henpecked husbands are promoting the lie that it is biblical okay for Christian women to wear pants in public.

Dear friend, nothing could be further from the truth of God's inspired Word. I will go to seed in this matter, preaching from the Holy Bible that women shouldn't wear pants! Just because 95 % of ungodly women today have low moral standards and wear pants, doesn't make it okay in God's sight. The heathen world doesn't fear God, so they don't care. But I am writing to God's children, who should know better than to follow the sinful ways of the wicked world.

> Jeremiah 6:16, "Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein."

I cannot warn you enough to avoid today's spiritually dead neo-evangelical churches which are infected with worldliness, corrupt Bible revisions, a counterfeit gospel, no soulwinning, woeful lack of compassion toward people and bidding Godspeed to other false prophets.

When I and my wife met with Pastor Brad Moffett on April 30th, 2025, in his office at the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, he insisted that nowhere does the Holy Bible prohibit his wife from wearing pants.

What saith the Scripture?

Proverbs 30:20, "Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness." Brad and his wife are in denial of the fact that it is a sin for Christian ladies to wear pants in public, not only because it is men's attire, but moreover because pants make it much easier for men to lust upon a woman, which is the sin of adultery (Matthew 5:28).

Evidently Pastor Brad cannot read, because the inspired Word of God plainly commands all Christian women to dress in modest attire. ...

> 1st Timothy 2:9-12, "In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works. Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence."

King Solomon mentions "

....

> Proverbs 7:10, "
>
> And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart.

As a general rule harlots wear pants, not dresses. Only a fool who is in denial would argue the virtues of Christian women wearing pants. It is wrong, plain and simple. ...

[6]Pastor Jack Hyles Preaches On Modesty

Pastor Brad said he can see his wife in pants without lusting. What an idiot! When I and my wife arrived at the church picnic, and I saw the pastor's young wife wearing tight pants, I wasn't thinking "

Amazing Grace.

By the way, I told him that he was very unethical to talk about sex issues in front of my wife, when he had invited us to discuss

> Selective hearing in a church context often refers to individuals choosing to hear only certain messages or teachings that align with their preferences, while ignoring others that may be challenging or uncomfortable. This phenomenon can hinder spiritual growth and understanding, as it reflects a broader tendency to filter out information based on personal biases or desires.

Call me old-fashioned. Call me a legalist. Call me whatever you want, but I am right! Ask any honest, normal, healthy, red-blooded man on the planet if he gets aroused seeing a beautiful woman wearing sexy pants and he will admit it is true. Only a henpecked lying ungodly pastor would say otherwise.

SHAME on any pastor's wife who wears slacks, Spandex or pants in public. The reason why you backslidden carnally-minded women don't agree nor care is because you're not men, so you have no idea what temptation happens in a man's mind when you put those sexy pants on and bend over, like my former pastor's wife did at their church picnic in 2025. When she bent over and her buttocks were facing me, I wasn't thinking about the Bible. SHAME on Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, a wicked house full of pants-wearing hussies!

It is tragic to see the females in a church's youth group all wearing pants, blaspheming God's Word. But they're just emulating the ungodly pastor's wife who wears pants. I gave a book authored by Mrs. Max D. Younce to my wife to read. My wife sadly told me that Marjorie Younce admits in her book that she wear pants in public. It is wicked and shameful ladies! I don't care who gets upset at me, you are NOT RIGHT WITH GOD as a Christian woman if you put on pants in public!!! The new morality today is not God's morality in the Holy Bible.

Every time that I preach against women wearing pants, some worldly people always get offended and are mad at me for raining on their parade. Listen, it's not my fault that you were wrongly influenced to adopt sinful behavior sanctioned by modern anti-Bible society. Romans 3:18, " There is no fear of God before their eyes."

Since Bible preachers are not perfect and are not without sin, ungodly hypocrites always attack the preacher, magnifying any faults, sins or shortcomings of his they can find. God will be every man's only Judge (Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; Romans 14:10-12; James 4:12).

The new morality today is not God's morality in the Holy Bible. Let the heathen pants-wearing pastor's wives rage! Let their heathen incompetent henpecked husbands rage! Your rejection of THE TRUTH in no way negatives it.

Every worldly Christian woman will weep bitter tears of regret and sorrow someday when she answers to God for her pants (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11). The only reason why so many neo-evangelical churchgoers get upset and perturbed at me is because they are as worldly as can be.

James 4:4, " Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God."

The Apostle Peter gives this stern warning to all Christian men in 2nd Peter 1:11,

"Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation." God Himself calls the lusts of the flesh a "

war against the soul

" in every man. If Christian caring woman (and especially pastor's wives) truly understood what the Bible is teaching here, they would never wear a pair of pants again. But that's the big problem, they just don't care!!!

Listen dear saint of God, when you were saved you became God's property. The inspired Word of God teaches that you and I were bought with a price. 1st Corinthians 6:20, "For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." That " is the precious blood of Jesus 1st Peter 1:18-19. Since our spirit, soul and boy belong to the Lord, women have no right to dress seductively in front of any man except her own husband in the privacy of their own bedroom. Women wearing pants is a form of soft porn. Don't laugh, you know it is true! Just because everybody does something doesn't make it true nor right. And just because everybody rejects something doesn't make it false or wrong.

My problem dear reader is that I care too much, and it sometimes gets me into trouble, because I refuse to just stay quiet and go along with the herd. Thank you for reading my ministry blog. Jesus is precious!!!

6.12.8 The Holy Bible Does Not Support Illegal Immigration (2025-12-08 10:28)

Romans 13:1-2, “Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.”

Contrary to the delusion of many fools in the United States, there is nothing in our nation’s laws nor U.S. Constitution which allow illegal aliens (moochers) to sneak (invade) into OUR country, and then expect that we financially support their whole family (food, housing, diapers, clothing, education, entertainment, cellphones, transportation, employment, et cetera). I 100 % support president Donald Trump’s righteous efforts to DEPORT THEM ALL!!!

The [1]Minneapolis Police Chief insanely said this week on December 16th that [2]Mary and Joseph were outsiders too, defending illegal immigration. This is sheer theological ignorance. The police chief is a damn fool who leads their police force in Minneapolis, who should be fired immediately. This is insanity! Clearly the guy is a left-wing liberal nutcase.

Mary and Joseph were NOT illegal immigrants! They were citizens of the Roman Empire. And when they fled to Egypt to escape Herod, there were no anti-immigration laws in Egypt. Furthermore, they only sojourned (visited) Egypt for a temporary stay, not to put down their roots to live there permanently like illegal immigrants are doing in the United States.

Mary and Joseph

did not violate another nation’s sovereignty by illegally crossing a border. What they did was perfectly within the boundaries of the law. The Gospel of Luke points out that Joseph was adhering to the laws of the land. They traveled to Bethlehem to register for the census as required by the law. The lunatic police chief in Minnesota needs to cease with the left-wing talking points and pick up a copy of the inspired Holy Bible. He needs to read our text passage from

Romans 13:1-2, “Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation .”

All illegal aliens should receive damnation (punishment by legal process) for violating our nation’s sovereignty and laws.

When illegal aliens cross our borders and mooch of American taxpayers, it is no different than squatters who steal your home and refuse to leave. It is no different if they forcefully came into our homes, ate our food, slept in our beds, wore our clothes, opened our wallet to steal our money, and then claim they have

What greatly concerns me is why President Joe Biden was permitted to allow over 10,000,000 illegal aliens to flood into our country, while the vast majority of our media, leaders, churches and police remained eerily silent for the 4 years it went on. Clearly there is an agenda at work. The evil Globalists (i.e., Luciferian elite, or Illuminati if you prefer) are working relentlessly to create utter chaos, to undermine the United States, in an effort to bring about a diabolical Godless Totalitarian Thug Police State New World Order.

It’s OUR country, not theirs! They helped ruin their own country, now they want to ruin ours too. Just as a stranger has no business nor right to enter into your home, neither does anyone have any business nor right illegally entering into the United States. The Bible support mass deportation of criminals who vitiated OUR country’s laws.

6.12.9 The Damnable False Gospel Of Dr. Albert Mohler Jr. (2025-12-09 08:03)

Acts 15:1 and 24, "And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. ...Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment."

[1]Richard Albert Mohler Jr. (born 1959) has been the theologically incompetent President of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Hillcrest, Kentucky since 1993. The man is a brilliant writer and loves to read many books. In that respect, he is a man after my own heart. I humbly think Dr. Mohler is a good man and sincere in his beliefs. That being said, he is unfortunately WRONG on God's simple plan of salvation. ...

"We don't affirm easy-believism." —Dr. Albert Mohler Jr.

'[2]Have We Really Misunderstood the Gospel for 2000 Years?'

(23:47 time in YouTube video)

What a darn fool! Dr. Mohler is openly a 5-point Calvinist, an infidel, as is his mentor Dr. John MacArthur (1939-2025). These men are theologically dangerous, despite both being likable personalities and good men (as far as sinful humans go). Although I admire certain aspects of both men, I also loathe their corrupt view of God's simple plan of salvation.

On his website, [3]Dr. Mohler praises Pastor MacArthur's book, 'The Gospel According To Jesus' as one of the top 10 most important books written over the past 25 years. Dr. Mohler chose to quote th is excerpt from Dr. MacArthur's toxic demon-spawned book...

> The gospel in vogue today holds forth a false hope to sinners. It promises them that they can have eternal life yet continue to live in rebellion against God. Indeed, it encourages people to claim Jesus as Savior yet defer until later the commitment to obey Him as Lord. It promises salvation from hell but not necessarily freedom from iniquity. It offers false security to people who revel in the sins of the flesh and spurn the way of holiness. By separating faith from faithfulness, it teaches that intellectual assent is as valid as a wholehearted obedience to the truth.

Dear reader, what you have just read is the damnable heresy of 'LORDSHIP SALVATION.'

Lordship Salvation Is Of The Devil, Not God

It is the poisonous heresy of confusing and mixing service with salvation, combining discipleship with sonship; thus perverting the free grace of God. The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan gets it right...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

In other words, we MUST be diligent to make sure to always keep a believer's SERVICE for Christ (Romans 12:1), completely separate from one's SALVATION through faith in Christ (Galatians 3:26).

Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) offers these helpful words on the topic...

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, 'Hebrews'; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

Well said. I thank God for free grace preachers! Dr. Mohler (as a heretical Calvinist) is guilty of perverting the Gospel of free grace, preaching a false partial faith in Christ message PLUS turning from your sins and faithfully following Jesus as one's supreme Lord. The latter is service, not salvation. Dr. Mohler is wrong to reject "

Easy-Believism,

The reason why Dr. Moher doesn't affirm (i.e., he does not support nor agree with) the truth of Easy-Believism is because he foolishly thinks MORE is required than childlike faith in the Gospel to get to Heaven. According to John MacArthur and Albert Mohler, you must also repent of your sins to turn away from a lifestyle of sinning; and furthermore, to become faithful to follow Christ in service, holiness and commitment to be saved. This is the Devil's fraud of Lordship Salvation, which is openly exposed and condemned in Matthew 7:20-23.

You want to "make Jesus Lord?" Matthew 7:22-23, "Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." So much for being saved by "making Jesus Lord." Why? Because they trusted in themselves and their "many wonderful works" to earn their way to Heaven.

They didn't trust Christ alone for salvation! They committed their lives to follow Jesus as their "Lord," but it wasn't the way of salvation! They were trusting in their own faithfulness, that is, their own WORKS to save them. Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast."

In the Old Testament, we see that turning from one's evil ways is called

"works." Jonah 3:10, "

And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

Also, carefully notice in this same Scripture passage from Jonah 3:10 that God Himself

(i.e., the Lord changed His mind) not to destroy the Ninevites for their sins. If repentance means to turn from one’s sins, then God would have to be a sinner, and we know that God cannot be tempted to do evil (James 1:13-14).

The Inspired King James Bible Teaches Easy-Believism

My ministry friend Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold gets it correct (this will harelip every dog in the county)…

> “’You can’t tell me you can trust Christ as Savior, and then go out here and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven!’ Yes, I can tell you that! That’s what the Bible says. If you don’t come to the conclusion, that—Yes, you can trust Christ as your Savior and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven when you die—you don’t get grace, because that is the exact truth! That is the truth! I do not have to change my life! I don’t have to stop one sin! You say, ’I’ve never heard a preacher say that.’ You just heard one! And you listen to me—I want to live as holy and as godly as I possibly can. I am now 70 years old. I’ve been saved for 52 years. … the only reason I’m going to Heaven is because, 52 years ago in a little living room, I accepted Christ as my Savior.” —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, “Calvinism And Grace Are NOT Compatible”

Amen and amen!

[4]Your Salvation Did Not Change You A Bit

(by Pastor Jack Hyles, 1926-2001)

Kindly said, Albert Mohler Jr. is an infidel of the Christian faith—a hellbound false prophet!!! There is no way that any man is saved who insists that a working type of faith is required to be saved, which is conditioned upon turning away from your sinful bad habits, following Jesus as your Lord, and serving Christ faithfully in holiness. These things are good in their appropriate place, but they constitute WORKS and are damnable heresy when you add them to the Gospel. The Word of God plainly teaches that we are saved by faith plus nothing! Galatians 3:26, “For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.”

Dear reader, Dr. Mohler preaches regularly to thousands of impressionable students at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary (located in Louisville, Kentucky). In 2017, the corrupt Calvinist university saw a record enrollment of 5,000 students! These leaders are devils in the pulpit, corrupting the minds of young people with a counterfeit plan of salvation. There can only be ONE GOSPEL according to Galatians 1:6-9. The inspired Holy Bible is clear on this truth!

So we’ve got a big problem here. Dr. Mohler and Pastor MacArthur are preaching a Lordship type Gospel which says that faith is not enough to be saved. They deceive their victims by saying that we are saved by faith alone, but then they subtly redefine the term “ faith

to include faithful living, turning from your sins, following Jesus as your

“

Lord,

8832

and doing good works. The cult of [5]Seventh-Day Adventism does the same exact same evil thing to God’s Word.

Albert Mohler Jr., [6]warns graduates not to fall for a false gospel, while he himself is preaching a counterfeit gospel. 2nd Timothy 3:13, “ But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.” The very notion that a sinner must clean up his life, turn over a new leaf and commit to live a changed life for Christ as part of God’s plan of salvation is preposterous. The truth, dear friend, is that we all sin continually. Every time we fail to pray for others we are sinning (1st Samuel 12:23).

In this neo-evangelical video on ’Ligonier’s Ministries’ YouTube channel (Calvinist R.C. Sproul’s ministry)

, Dr. Albert Mohler Jr. is exalted to a lofty pulpit to [7]spew his Calvinist garbage. It took him 40 MINUTES to explain his perversion of the Gospel, telling the students that THEIR righteousness is proof of GOD’S righteousness. This is the deception of Lordship Salvation, not the simple death, burial and resurrection of Jesus (which is the true Gospel according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-6).

Dr. Mohler is an unsaved infidel who masquerades as a man of God, preaching another gospel. He errs in his understanding of the Scripture, the blind leading the blind. Dr. Mohler goes from college to college encouraging the students to [8]contend for the true gospel , yet he is wrong on the gospel himself. BEWARE of this heretic!

There is nothing more dangerous today to Americans, than the tens of thousands of neo-evangelical spiritually dead churches and the corrupt Bible colleges who infect them with their graduates. Truth has few friends these days!

Dear reader, turning from your sins is not only hard, it is impossible! Christ came into the world to die on a cross as payment for your sins (John 3:16-18). Psalms 130:3, “ If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?” You’ve never turned from your sins and neither have I. We are all horrible sinners, and you know it! You may clean up your life of sin so that you’ll appear above reproach to other sinners, but you will still be a sinner.

My sins were forever washed away by Jesus’ precious blood 45 years ago, when I trusted Christ as a 13 year old young man, but I am still a horrible sinner today at age 58. My POSITION in Christ was forever settled the moment I got saved. The old account was settled long ago! I was saved by faith in Christ because of God’s faithfulness “ to save them that believe

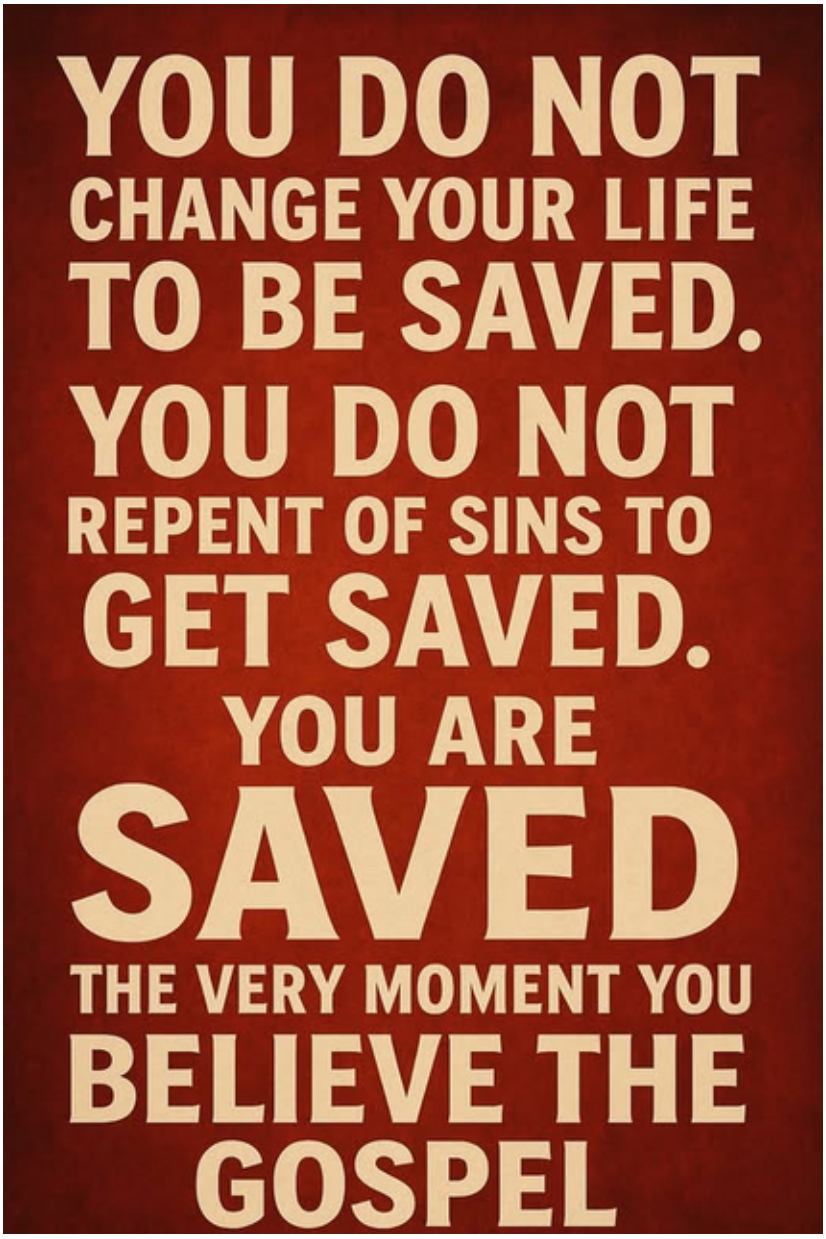
” (1st Corinthians 1:21b). But my CONDITION in Christ is up to me, day by day, walking in the Holy Spirit of Christ (Galatians 5:22-25; 2nd Corinthians 10:5-6). The former is justification; the latter is sanctification. And one thing has nothing to do with the other.

In [9]this heretical video, Dr. Mohler foolishly adds repenting of your sinful ways plus committing your life to Christ as requirements to know you are saved. This is the cruel hoax of Lordship Salvation. [10]Beware of Calvinism, because it is NOT the Gospel.

Dr. Albert Mohler Jr. is a deeper-life deadbeat. In this loathsome video titled, ’[11]Albert Mohler: The Gospel,’ although he mentions Christ’s righteousness which is imputed by faith, he never actually mentions the elements of THE GOSPEL (i.e., Jesus’ death, burial and resurrection). To fail to define what “the Gospel” is while preaching a sermon about it is inexcusable.

Dr. Mohler [12]says Jesus only died for the saints (aka, the Calvinist lie of ’Limited Atonement’), which contradicts the plainest teaching of the Scripture.



2nd Corinthians 5:14-15, " For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again" (cf., 1st John 2:2).

As I listened to Dr. Mohler just now, I felt like I was listening to Ravi Zacharias (1946-2020), another Billy Graham (1918-2018) clone whose sermons woefully lacks substance and fire, three clowns who couldn't preach their way out of a wet paper bag. I say that kindly, but truthfully. Dr. Mohler's theological mumbo-jumbo is BORING! His empty speaking is a sure cure for insomnia! I feel sorry for the thousands of students who have to endure that torment.

Now if you really want to know '[13]What Is The Gospel?' friend, read this simple Gospel tract by Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951).

I also encourage you to read Dr. Ironside's tract titled, ' [14]Another Gospel .' And please read the helpful book in defense of the true Gospel, [15]'I Never Knew You ' by Evangelist Michael P. Bowen.

And finally, please read the book, '[16]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved,' by Dr. Jack Hyles.

6.12.11 Satan's Crowd Knows What's Wrong With Pants On Women (2025-12-11 19:50)

If you don't want to listen to the inspired Holy Bible, then maybe you'll listen to a secular singer as proof from the unsaved world why pants on women is a sin. The following lyrics are from the worldly Hip Hip artist, Chingy, from his 2006 album

Hoodstar ; the song title is "Dem Jeans."

Any clothing that sensually arouses a man is sexy attire. Men are aroused by sight, but women by touch.

This is why the inspired Holy Bible teaches in 1st Corinthians 7:1b, "It is good for a man not to touch a woman."

No man should ever hug a woman to whom he is not married. That is my personal opinion based on this passage of Scripture.

Here are the disgusting (but very honest) lyrics to Chingy's song, 'DEM JEANS'...

> How the hell did you get all of that in dem jeans
> How da how da hell did you get all of that in dem jeans
> 'cause your waist so little and your a $ $ it like wo
> 'cause your waist so little and your a $ $ it like wo
>
> [Chingy]
> Back it up a bit
> Yeah that's it
> 'cause I can see your thong
> Caramel skin tone...
> Let me help you with dem jeans
> Baby lay down
> [Chorus]
> Damn Girl
> How'd you get all that in
> Dem Jeans
> Dem Jeans
> How'd you get all that in Dem
> Damn Girl
> How'd you get all that > (Is you talkin to me?)
>
> Yeah you
> I bet you had to jump up and down
> Just to put 'em on
> Bet you had to wiggle it around
> Just to put 'em on
> Bet you had to lay back on the bed
> Just to zip 'em up
> Am I right?
> (You right)
> Baby that's what's up > [JD]
> Now Now Now
> When walkin' girl
> And you make it swirl
> Its hard for me not to look...

Hope you ain’t up in here with your man ma
I love it when you wiggle it Shake it
Drop it and do your little dance ma
True Religion, 7’s...

When you walk away it make me wanna rub it...

[Chorus]
Damn Girl
How’d you get all that in Dem Jeans
Dem Jeans
How’d you get all that in Dem...
I bet you had to jump up and down
Just to put ’em on
Bet you had to wiggle it around
Just to put ’em on
Bet you had to lay back on the bed
Just to zip ’em up
Am I right?
(You right)
Baby that’s whets up
[Chingy]
I don’t mean to be rude but I like
The way you move
Got your boy in the mood... let it show it,
like them curves make that thing talk when you walk
I’m slurring ma words... man you working wit a lot.

Now that is a wicked worldly singer telling the truth, while thousands of ungodly pastors and their evil wives today are in total spiritual denial, angrily insisting that there is nothing biblically wrong or sinful about a woman wearing pants in public. YOU KNOW IT IS VERY WRONG!!!

American Women In 1900 Wore Dresses

Only a rebellious woman who deliberately disobeys the inspired Word of God wear pants. It is clear from these unsaved singers (like Chingy) why women ought not wear pants. Pants on women is adulterous in nature, which causes normal men to lust and sin. Any pastor who says otherwise is a pathetic LIAR!

Jesus made it clear that lust is adultery in Matthew 5:28, "But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart."

Women who wear pants deliberately cause men to lust and commit the sin of adultery. It is this spirit of fornication which has caused over 65,000,000 unwanted pregnancies and abortions in the United States since 1973.

The average person today scoffs at the idea that Rock-n-Roll, Satanism and immoral sex go hand-in-hand, but they certainly do.

When the British Invasion came to America with their low morals, so did pants on women become mainstream. The ungodly mini-skirt made its evil debut in 1964 in the United States. The hippie culture of fornication followed in the late 1960s, and then the demonic abortion industry since the 1970s.

Sexual immorality is a driving theme in most rock music. Listen to telling quotes from the singers themselves...

"Sex is where it’s at in music... and I like it." (Johnny Bristol)

"I've always thought that the main ingredients in rock are sex, really good stage shows and really sassy music, Sex and sass, I think that's where it's at." (Debbie Harry, aka, 'Blondie')

"I'm in rock music for the sex and narcotics." (Glenn Frey of 'The Eagles')

"Rock 'n' roll is 99 % sex." (John Oates)

"Everyone takes it for granted that rock and roll is synonymous with sex."(Chris Stein, lead guitarist with 'Blondie')

"Rock music is sex. The beat matches the body rhythms." (Frank Zappa, superstar of 'Mothers of Invention' fame)

What more evidence do you need? You are accountable to God ladies for the way you dress, the men you cause to lust and the sins/crimes they commit as a result.

In April of 2025 at the ungodly Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, I heard Pastor Brad Moffett arrogantly say that his wife wears pants in public and she loves Jesus as much as anybody. NO, SHE DOES NOT!!! Pastor Brad is deceived by Satan! My wife has never wore a pair of pants in her entire life, because she truly fears God and has chosen to follow the old paths of virtue, modesty and decency. There's nothing more worldly, upsetting and shameful than for a professed Christian female to place her body on display by wearing pants. Men can clearly see a woman's thighs and buttocks who wears blue jeans or anything similar. I wish I could convince Christian women to stop wearing pants in public, because men are watching.

It is no coincidence that Hollywood has been putting nudity in their films as much as possible since the 1930's. Even in the 1966 film titled, "THE BIBLE: IN THE BEGINNING," a 19-year-old Swedish woman (played by Ulla Bergryd) appears totally butt naked, showing everything. She plays Eve in the film. The film was accepted by the churches simply because it was produced as a religious film.

These are so-called "Christian films" produced by the cesspool of iniquity of Hollywood—ungodly, Christ-rejecting, pedophiles own and control Hollywood and God's judgment is upon them all. It is this evil group of perverts who have shaped America's moral standards since the 1920's, and look at the mess were in today!

If you're not angry, you're watching too much television!

6.12.12 The Sanctity Of Life (2025-12-12 14:21)

Deuteronomy 32:39, "See now that I, even I, am he, and there is no god with me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.”

No one other than God our Creator has the right to take a human life. The ungodly country of Canada has crossed a deeply unsettling threshold—over 5 % of all deaths in 2024 were attributed to [1]euthanasia, and many of those individuals were not terminally ill.

> Canada Sets New Record, Killing 16,499 People by Euthanasia – Disabled Citizens Feel ’Threatened’
> TALIA WISE - December 5, 2025
> As Canada approaches its 10-year mark of practicing legalized assisted suicide, a new government report finds that the country has hit a new record of euthanasia deaths.
>
> [2]Health Canada’s Sixth Annual Report on Medical Assistance in Dying (MAID) report reveals that a total of 16,499 people were put to death by euthanasia in 2024 – that is 1 in 20 deaths, according to some estimates.
> Although the largest increase in MAID participation was from 2019 to 2020 by 36.8 %, there was yet another 6.9 % increase from 2023 to 2024. The report claims that the number of "annual MAID provisions is beginning to stabilize. However, it will take several more years before long-term trends can be conclusively identified."
>
> Striking an upbeat tone about the killings, Canada’s Minister of Health, Marjorie Michel, said, "I am pleased to share Health Canada’s Sixth Annual Report on Medical Assistance in Dying." She claimed that the program ensures that "the federal legal framework protects those who are vulnerable, while supporting freedom of choice and personal autonomy."
>
> While the report attempts to spin euthanasia as positive, some of its data reveal the grim nature of the federal program.
>
> Nearly one-fifth of the 23,000 people who requested MAID, had a "grievous and irremediable medical condition," such as diabetes, autoimmune conditions, and chronic pain, and were denied assisted suicide.
>
> But about 4 % of people who were approved for assisted suicide did not have a terminal diagnosis or reasonably foreseeable death.
>
> Nearly 23 % of people overall reported "isolation or loneliness" as a reason for seeking euthanasia. Medical practitioners reported that about 50 % of people requested it because of being a "perceived burden on family, friends, or caregivers."
> READ MORE: [3]https://cbn.com/news/health/canada-sets-new-record-killing-16499-p eople-euthanasia-disabled-citizens-feel

In 2024 alone, 16,499 Canadians chose assisted death. The most disturbing trend: growing numbers are being driven not by medical necessity, but by poverty, chronic pain, and crushing loneliness. Internal documents even reveal cases where people sought euthanasia because they simply couldn't afford to keep living.

Cancer remains the leading factor, yet with wait times now stretching ridiculously to 27.7 weeks, even treatable patients are losing all hope.

What began as a compassionate option for the suffering, has begun to look like a substitute for proper care, and it's igniting one of the most urgent ethical debates in history. Exodus 20:13, "

Thou shalt not kill.

In Florida in 2005, I will never forget the horrifying [4]torture and murder of an innocent 41-year-old woman

, Terri Schiavo (December 3rd, 1963 - March 31st, 2005)

. God bless Terri's Mom and Dad for fighting to save her life, even though evil prevailed. Florida's former corrupt piece of trash governor at the time, Jeb Ellis Bush (JEB), refused to intercede to spare Terri's life. Neither did his scum of the earth war criminal, mass-murdering, arrogant, smug and illiterate, younger brother President George W. Bush intercede to save Terri's life.

They said let her perish!

I guarantee you that President Donald Trump would have saved Terri's precious life.

All life is sacred to God. We kill rodents and insects that pester us, and that is okay. God has given mankind dominion over the earth (Genesis 1:26-28). But I humbly believe we ought never kill just because we can. I once blew up a bluegill fish by lighting a firecracker in his mouth when I was a teenager. Needless to say it ended his life. I still feel guilty. I was a stupid kid that day. Now that I am older, bolder and much more wise, I would never harm any living creature just because I can or for sport.

I've never been a hunter. My father wasn't a hunter, we went fishing instead. I have never owned a gun that uses powdered shells. I don't trust myself with a gun. I'm not against guns and I strongly support the Second Amendment which outlines our God-given right to arm bears. Wait, reverse that, bear arms! But for me personally, it is just too easy to pull a trigger, and like our words, the bullets simply cannot be recalled once fired.

I am scared of myself as a flawed sinful human being. I would ten million times rather that someone harms me, than to spent the rest of my life rotting in prison because in a moment of passion I killed someone with a gun. I realize that just about any tangible item can be used as a weapon, but guns were invented for the sole purpose of taking someone's life. I am not a pacifist. War is a necessary reality of life on earth. I would proudly answer the call to go to war if it ever happened, to defend our liberty and freedom in the United States.

Tragically, our children who enroll into the U.S. military, trusting our government, are often sacrificed on foreign soil for agendas that have absolutely nothing to do with preserving our liberties and freedoms. If you don't believe me, ask American hero [5]Cindy Sheehan, whose soldier son came back from Iraq in a body bag only 5-days after he arrived there. So sad.

President George W. Bush refused to meet with a grieving mother, to just answer her legitimate question why her son was even in Iraq. We already know the tragic answer, which is that The White House LIED about alleged Weapons of Mass Destruction existing in Iraq. U.S. troops should never have been sent to Iraq in the first place. Congress never sanctioned the Iraqi War. The entire illegal Iraqi War was a ruse and a farce, all based on a big fabricated lie.

The sad and horrific truth is that the American public CANNOT believe 99 % of anything concerning 9/11 by the controlled mainstream newsmedia. They are all LYING PRESSTITUES!!! I believe 31-year retired NYFD veteran Rudy Dent, who has openly confirmed that [6]9/11 was an INSIDE JOB!!! ([7]audio backup in case the video is removed). I do hope you realize that [8]the entire mainstream media is controlled by the Luciferian Globalist elite (the secret occult-driven hidden powers behind all existing governments). Remember, the inspired Word of God identifies Satan as the god of this world (2nd Corinthians 4:4).

Sadly, there were 2,997 Americans brutally MURDERED on 9/11 in 2001. 343 firefighters were MURDERED that terrible day. [9]200 innocent people jumped to their tragic deaths from over 80 stories high, to escape the scorching fiery inferno heated to thousands of degrees Fahrenheit. Jesus Christ died on a cross 2,000 years ago for each and every one of those VICTIMS. In fact, Christ died for the perpetrators also who pulled off 911 (2nd Peter 2:1). The White House got caught red-handed on 911, but sadly they are ABOVE THE LAW!

Thankfully they are NOT ABOVE GOD'S LAW (Ecclesiastes 5:8, 12:13-14). Hell will be hot enough I assure you, which Dick Cheney found out on November 3rd, 2025, when he died a couple months ago. The American people have been lied to every step of the way concerning what really happened on 9/11 by the corrupt media, hired biased specialists and wicked government. [10]THE TRUTH cannot be eradicated. Thankfully, there is a caring God in Heaven.

6.12.13 American Hero: Cindy Sheehan! (2025-12-13 11:56)

Ecclesiastes 5:8, "If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they."

[1]Cindy Sheehan is an American hero! Cindy Sheehan's son [2]Casey Sheehan (May 29, 1979 - April 4, 2004) was murdered by President George W. Bush 21-years ago in Iraq while serving in the U.S. Army. Miss Sheehan became a prominent anti-war activist following her son's death, criticizing the lying fabricated reasons for the Iraq War and demanding accountability from President George W. Bush. Sadly, it still hasn't happened, and never will in this lifetime.

I fully understand that Miss Sheehan is a left-wing liberal who supports abortion (with which moral stance I totally disagree), but this lady is a pissed off grieving mother of a murdered son by the U.S. government, who seeks justice for her lost boy and has a message for Americans today (I copied this truthful meme from Cindy's blog). ...

Amen and amen, that's what I've been saying to Christians for decades. Either we stand together, or we'll hang separately! I stand with Cindy against blatant corruption within our U.S. federal government, Pentagon and White House. There must be justice! Whether 3 years old or 90 years old, everybody deserves JUSTICE! Vengeance is the Lord's (Romans 12:19-21).

Tragically, our teenage children who enroll into the U.S. military, trusting our government, are often sacrificed on foreign soil for agendas that have absolutely nothing to do with preserving our liberties and freedoms. If you don't believe me, ask American hero Cindy Sheehan, whose soldier son [5]came back from Iraq in a body bag only 5-days after he arrived. So tragic and sad. God bless Casey and his family.

Contemptible coward, President George W. Bush, refused to even meet with the deeply grieving mother, to simply answer her legitimate question why her son was even in Iraq. We already know the tragic answer, which is because The White House LIED about alleged Weapons of Mass Destruction existing in Iraq. U.S. troops should never have been sent to Iraq in the first place. Congress never sanctioned the Iraqi War. The entire illegal Iraqi War was a ruse and a farce, all based on a big fabricated lie. President Bush refused to meet with Casey's mother because Mr. Bush is guilty, guilty, guilty!

My heart sincerely goes out to this grieving mother and I stand with her against the demonic criminal cartel of despicable leaders (i.e., George H. Bush, George W. Bush, Marvin Bush, Dick Cheney, Donald Rumsfeld, Condoleezza Rice, to name but a few guilty perpetrators behind the atrocities of 9/11 and the Iraq War). Those demonic villains murdered 2,300,000 innocent people in Iraq to [6]steal their trillions of dollars of oil.

I thank God for Cindy Sheehan! Just like her son Casey, she is courageous to fight for the cause. Cindy is fighting against the evildoers. Psalms 94:16, “ Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity? ”

6.12.14 Is Something Wrong With The 1769 King James Bible? (2025-12-14 05:29)

Psalms 12:6-7, “The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.”

Dr. David F. Reagan (1955-2007) pastored the Trinity Baptist Temple in Knoxville, Tennessee. He has written a devastating exposé on the early editions of the King James Bible entitled “The King James Version of 1611: The Myth of Early Revisions.”

Dr. Reagan has done an excellent job of destroying the last stronghold of Bible critics. I see neither a way, nor a reason to try to improve on his finding. Here is his pamphlet in its entirety.

THE KING JAMES VERSION OF 1611

THE MYTH OF EARLY REVISIONS

Introduction

Men have been “handling the word of God deceitfully” (II Cor. 4:2) ever since the devil first taught Eve how. From Cain to Balaam, from Jehudi to the scribes and Pharisees, from the Dark Age theologians to present-day scholars, the living words of the Almighty God have been prime targets for man’s corrupting hand. The attacks on the Word of God are threefold: addition, subtraction, and substitution. From Adam’s day to the computer age, the strategies have remained the same. There is nothing new under the sun.

One attack which is receiving quite a bit of attention these days is a direct attack on the Word of God as preserved in the English language: the King James Version of 1611. The attack referred to is the myth which claims that since the King James Version has already been revised four times, there should be and can be no valid objection to other revisions. This myth was used by the English Revisers of 1881 and has been revived in recent years by Fundamentalist scholars hoping to sell their latest translation. This book is given as an answer to this attack. The purpose of the material is not to convince those who would deny this preservation but to strengthen the faith of those who already believe in a preserved English Bible.

One major question often arises in any attack such as this. How far should we go in answering the critics? If we were to attempt to answer every shallow objection to the infallibility of the English Bible, we would never be able to accomplish anything else. Sanity must prevail somewhere. As always, the answer is in God's Word. Proverbs 26:4-5 states: Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him. Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit.

Obviously, there are times when a foolish query should be ignored and times when it should be met with an answer. If to answer the attack will make you look as foolish as the attacker, then the best answer is to ignore the question. For instance, if you are told that the Bible cannot be infallible because so-and-so believes that it is, and he is divorced, then you may safely assume that silence is the best answer. On the other hand, there are often questions and problems that, if true, would be serious. To ignore these issues would be to leave the Bible attacker wise in his own conceit. I believe that the question of revisions to the King James Version of 1611 is a question of the second class. If the King James Version has undergone four major revisions of its text, then to oppose further revisions on the basis of an established English text would truly be faulty. For this reason, this attack should and must be answered. Can the argument be answered? Certainly! That is the purpose of this book.

I – THE PRINTING CONDITIONS OF 1611

If God did preserve His Word in the English language through the Authorized Version of 1611 (and He did), then where is our authority for the infallible wording? Is it in the notes of the translators? Or is it to be found in the proof copy sent to the printers? If so, then our authority is lost because these papers are lost. But, you say, the authority is in the first copy which came off the printing press. Alas, that copy has also certainly perished. In fact, if the printing of the English Bible followed the pattern of most printing jobs, the first copy was probably discarded because of bad quality. That leaves us with existing copies of the first printing. They are the ones often pointed out as the standard by which all other King James Bibles are to be compared. But are they? Can those early printers of the first edition not be allowed to make printing errors? We need to establish one thing from the outset. The authority for our preserved English text is not found in any human work. The authority for our preserved and infallible English text is in God! Printers may foul up at times and humans will still make plenty of errors, but God in His power and mercy will preserve His text despite the weaknesses of fallible man. Now, let us look at the pressures on a printer in the year of 1611.

Although the printing press had been invented in 1450 by Johann Gutenburg in Germany (161 years before the 1611 printing), the equipment used by the printer had changed very little. Printing was still very slow and difficult. All type was set by hand, one piece at a time (that's one piece at a time through the whole Bible), and errors were an expected part of any completed book. Because of this difficulty and also because the 1611 printers had no earlier editions from which to profit, the very first edition of the King James Version had a number of printing errors. As shall later be demonstrated, these were not the sort of textual alterations which are freely made in modern bibles. They were simple, obvious printing errors of the sort that can still be found at times in recent editions even with all of the advantages of modem printing. These errors do not render a Bible useless, but they should be corrected in later editions.

The two original printings of the Authorized Version demonstrate the difficulty of printing in 1611 without making mistakes. Both editions were printed in Oxford. Both were printed in the same year: 1611. The same printers did both jobs. Most likely, both editions were printed on the same printing press. Yet, in a strict comparison of the two editions, approximately 100 textual differences can be found. In the same vein the King James critics can find only about 400 alleged textual alterations in the King James Version after 375 years of printing and four so-called revisions! Something is rotten in Scholarsville! The time has come to examine these revisions."

11 – THE FOUR SO-CALLED REVISIONS OF THE 1611 KJV

Much of the information in this section is taken from a book by F.H.A. Scrivener called The Authorized Edition of the English Bible (1611), Its Subsequent Reprints and Modern Representatives. The book is as pedantic as its title indicates. The interesting point is that Scrivener, who published this book in 1884, was a member of the Revision Committee of 1881. He was not a King James Bible believer, and therefore his material is not biased toward the Authorized Version.

In the section of Scrivener's book dealing with the KJV "revisions," one initial detail is striking. The first two so-called major revisions of the King James Bible occurred within 27 years of the original printing. (The language must have been changing very rapidly in those days.) The 1629 edition of the Bible printed in Cambridge is said to have been the first revision. A revision it was not, but simply a careful correction of earlier printing errors. Not only was this edition completed just eighteen years after the translation, but two of the men who participated in this printing, Dr. Samuel Ward and John Bois, had worked on the original translation of the King James Version. Who better to correct early errors than two who had worked on the original translation! Only nine years later and in Cambridge again, another edition came out which is supposed to have been the second major revision. Both Ward and Bois were still alive, but it is not known if they participated at this time. But even Scrivener, who as you remember worked on the English Revised Version of 1881, admitted that the Cambridge printers had simply reinstated words and clauses overlooked by the 1611 printers and amended manifest errors. According to a study which will be detailed later, 72 % of the approximately 400 textual corrections in the KJV were completed by the time of the 1638 Cambridge edition, only 27 years after the original printing!

Just as the first two so-called revisions were actually two stages of one process: the purification of early printing errors, so the last two so-called revisions were two stages in another process: the standardization of the spelling, These two editions were only seven years apart (1762 and 1769) with the second one completing what the first had started. But when the scholars are numbering revisions, two sounds better than one. Very few textual corrections were necessary at this time. The thousands of alleged changes are spelling changes made to match the established correct forms. These spelling changes will be discussed later. Suffice it to say at this time that the tale of four major revisions is truly a fraud and a myth. But you say, there are still changes whether they be few or many. What are you going to do with the changes that are still there? Let us now examine the character of these changes.

III – THE SO-CALLED THOUSANDS OF CHANGES

Suppose someone were to take you to a museum to see an original copy of the King James Version. You come to the glass case where the Bible is displayed and look down at the opened Bible through the glass. Although you are not allowed to flip through its pages, you can readily tell that there are some very different things about this Bible from the one you own. You can hardly read its words, and those you can make out are spelled in odd and strange ways. Like others before you, you leave with the impression that the King James Version has undergone a multitude of changes since its original printing in 1611. But beware, you have just been taken by a very clever ploy. The differences you saw are not what they seem to be. Let's examine the evidence.

Printing Changes

For proper examination, the changes can be divided into three kinds: printing changes, spelling changes, and textual changes. Printing changes will be considered first. The type style used in 1611 by the KJV translators was the Gothic Type Style. The type style you are reading right now and are familiar with is Roman Type. Gothic Type is sometimes called Germanic because it originated in Germany. Remember, that is where printing was invented. The Gothic letters were formed to resemble the hand-drawn manuscript lettering of the Middle Ages. At first, it was the only style in use. The Roman Type Style was invented fairly early, but many years passed before it became the predominate style in most European countries. Gothic continued to be used in Germany until recent years. In 1611 in England, Roman Type was already very popular and would soon supersede the Gothic. However, the original printers chose the Gothic Style for the KJV because it was considered to be more beautiful and eloquent than the Roman. But the change to Roman Type was not long in coming. In 1612, the first King James Version using Roman Type was printed. Within a few years, all the bibles printed used the Roman Type Style.

Please realize that a change in type style no more alters the text of the Bible than a change in format or type size does. However, the modem reader who has not become familiar with Gothic can find it very difficult to understand. Besides some general change in form, several specific letter changes need to be observed. For instance, the Gothic s looks like the Roman s when used as a capital letter or at the end of a word. But when it is used as a lower case s at the beginning or in the middle of a word, the letter looks like our f. Therefore, also becomes alfo and set becomes fet. Another variation is found in the German v and u. The Gothic v looks like a Roman u while the Gothic u looks like the Roman v. This explains why our w is called a double-u and not a double-v. Sound confusing? It is until you get used to it. In the 1611 edition, love is loue, us is vs, and ever is euer. But remember, these are not even spelling changes. They are simply type style changes. In another instance, the Gothic j looks like our i. So Jesus becomes Iefus (notice the middle s changed to f) and joy becomes ioy. Even the Gothic d with the stem leaning back over the circle in a shape resembling that of the Greek Delta. These changes account for a large percentage of the "thousands" of changes in the KJV, yet they do no harm whatsoever to the text. They are nothing more than a smokescreen set up by the attackers of our English Bible.

Spelling Changes

Another kind of change found in the history of the Authorized Version are changes of orthography or spelling. Most histories date the beginning of Modern English around the year 1500. Therefore, by 1611 the grammatical structure and basic vocabulary of present-day English had long been established. However, the spelling did not stabilize at the same time. In the 1600's spelling was according to whim. There was no such thing as correct spelling. No standards had been established. An author often spelled the same word several different ways, often in the same book and sometimes on the same page. And these were the educated people. Some of you reading this today would have found the 1600's a spelling paradise. Not until the eighteenth century did the spelling begin to take a stable form. Therefore, in the last half of the eighteenth century, the spelling of the King James Version of 1611 was standardized.

What kind of spelling variations can you expect to find between your present edition and the 1611 printing? Although every spelling difference cannot be categorized, several characteristics are very common. Additional e's were often found at the end of the words such as feare, darke, and beare. Also, double vowels were much more common than they are today. You would find ee, bee, and mooued instead of me, be, and moved. Double consonants were also much more common. What would ranne, euill, and ftarres be according to present-day spelling? See if you can figure them out. The present-day spellings would be ran, evil, and stars. These typographical and spelling changes account for almost all of the so-called thousands of changes in the King James Bible. None of them alter the text in any way. Therefore they cannot be honestly compared with thousands of true textual changes which are blatantly made in the modern versions.

Textual Changes

Almost all of the alleged changes have been accounted for. We now come to the question of actual textual differences between our present editions and that of 1611. There are some differences between the two, but they are not the changes of a revision. They are instead the correction of early printing errors. That this is a fact may be seen in three things: (1) the character of the changes, (2) the frequency of the changes throughout the Bible, and (3) the time the changes were made. First, let us look at the character of the changes made from the time of the first printing of the Authorized English Bible.

The changes from the 1611 edition that are admittedly textual are obviously printing errors because of the nature of these changes. They are not textual changes made to alter the reading. In the first printing, words were sometimes inverted. Sometimes a plural was written as singular or visa versa. At times a word was miswritten for one that was similar. A few times a word or even a phrase was omitted. The omissions were obvious and did not have the doctrinal implications of those found in modern translations. In fact, there is really no comparison between the corrections made in the King James text and those proposed by the scholars of today.

F.H.A. Scrivener, in the appendix of his book, lists the variations between the 1611 edition of the KJV and later printings. A sampling of these corrections is given below. In order to be objective, the samples give the first textual correction on consecutive left hand pages of Scrivener's book. The 1611 reading is given first; then the present reading; and finally, the date the correction was first made:

- this thing – this thing also (1638)
- shalt have remained – ye shall have remained (1762)

- Achzib, nor Helbath, nor Aphik – of Achzib, nor of Helbath, nor of Aphik (1762)
- requite good – requite me good (1629)
- this book of the Covenant – the book of this covenant (1629)
- chief rulers – chief ruler (1629)
- And Parbar – At Parbar (1638)
- For this cause – And for this cause (1638)
- For the king had appointed – for so the king had appointed (1629)
- Seek good – seek God (1617)
- The cormorant – But the cormorant (1629)
- returned – turned (1769)
- a fiery furnace – a burning fiery furnace (1638)
- The crowned – Thy crowned (1629)
- thy right doeth – thy right hand doeth (1613)
- the wayes side – the way side (1743)
- which was a Jew – which was a Jewess (1629)
- the city – the city of the Damascenes (1629)
- now and ever – both now and ever (1638)
- which was of our father's – which was our fathers (1616)

Before your eyes are 5 % of the textual changes made in the King James Version in 375 years. Even if they were not corrections of previous errors, they would be of no comparison to modem alterations. But they are corrections of printing errors, and therefore no comparison is at all possible. Look at the list for yourself and you will find only one that has serious doctrinal implications. In fact, in an examination of Scrivener's entire appendix, it is the only variation found by this author that could be accused of being doctrinal. I am referring to Psalm 69:32 where the 1611 edition has "seek good" when the Bible should have read "seek God." Yet, even with this error, two points demonstrate that this was indeed a printing error. First, the similarity of the words "good" and "God" in spelling shows how easily a weary type setter could misread the proof and put the wrong word in the text. Second, this error was so obvious that it was caught and corrected in the year 1617, only six years after the original printing and well before the first so-called revision. The myth that there are several major revisions to the 1611 KJV should be getting clearer. But there is more.

Not only does the character of the changes show them to be printing errors, so does their frequency. Fundamentalist scholars refer to the thousands of revisions made to the 1611 as if they were on a par with the recent bible versions. They are not. The overwhelming majority of them are either type style or spelling changes. The few which do remain are clearly corrections of printing errors made because of the tediousness involved in the early printing process. The sample list given above will demonstrate just how careful Scrivener was in listing all the variations. Yet, even with this great care, only approximately 400 variations are named between the 1611 edition and modern copies. Remember that there were 100 variations between the first two Oxford editions which were both printed in 1611. Since there are almost 1200 chapters in the Bible, the average variation per chapter (after 375 years) is one third, i.e., one correction per every three chapters. These are changes such as "chief rulers" to "chief ruler" and "And Parbar" to "At Parbar." But there is yet one more evidence that these variations are simply corrected printing errors: the early date at which they were corrected.

The character and frequency of the textual changes clearly separate them from modern alterations. But the time the changes were made settles the issue absolutely. The great majority of the 400 corrections were made within a few years of the original printing. Take, for example, our earlier sampling. Of the twenty corrections listed, one was made in 1613, one in 1616, one in 1617, eight in 1629, five in 1638, one in 1743, two in 1762, and one in 1769. That means that 16 out of 20 corrections, or 80 %, were made within twenty-seven years of the 1611 printing. That is hardly the long drawn out series of revisions the scholars would have you to believe. In another study made by examining every other page of Scrivener's appendix in detail, 72 % of the textual corrections were made by 1638. There is no "revision" issue.

The character of the textual changes is that of obvious errors. The frequency of the textual changes is sparse, occurring only once per three chapters. The chronology of the textual changes is early with about three fourths of them occurring within twenty-seven years of the first printing. All of these details establish the fact that there were no true revisions in the sense of updating the language or correcting translation errors. There were only editions which corrected early typographical errors. Our source of authority for the exact wording of the 1611 Authorized Version is not in the existing copies of the first printing. Our source of authority for the exact wording of our English Bible is in the preserving power of Almighty God. Just as God did not leave us the original autographs to fight and squabble over, so He did not see fit to leave us the proof copy of the translation. Our authority is in the hand of God as always. You can praise the Lord for that!

IV – CHANGES IN THE BOOK OF ECCLESIASTES

An in-depth study of the changes made in the book of Ecclesiastes would help to illustrate the principles stated above. The author is grateful to Dr. David Reese of Millbrook, Alabama, for his work in this area. By comparing a 1611 reprint of the original edition put out by Thomas Nelson & Sons with recent printing of the King James Version, Dr. Reese was able to locate four variations in the book of Ecclesiastes. The reference is given first; then the text of the Thomas Nelson 1611 reprint. This is followed by the reading of the present editions of the 1611 KJV and the date the change was made.

- 1:5 the place – his place (1638)
- 2:16 shall be – shall all be (1629)
- 8:17 out, yea further – out, yet he shall not find it; yea farther (1629)
- 11: 17 thing is it – thing it is (?)

Several things should be noted about these changes. The last variation ("thing is it" to "thing it is") is not mentioned by Scrivener who was a very careful and accurate scholar. Therefore, this change may be a misprint in the Thomas Nelson reprint. That would be interesting. The corrected omission in chapter eight is one of the longest corrections of the original printing. But notice that it was corrected in 1629. The frequency of printing errors is average (four errors in twelve chapters). But the most outstanding fact is that the entire book of Ecclesiastes reads exactly like our present editions without even printing errors by the year 1638. That's approximately 350 years ago. By that time, the Bible was being printed in Roman type. Therefore, all (and I mean all) that has changed in 350 years in the book of Ecclesiastes is that the spelling has been standardized! As stated before, the main purpose of the 1629 and 1638 Cambridge editions was the correction of earlier printing errors. And the main purpose of the 1762 and 1769 editions was the standardization of spelling.

V – THE SO-CALLED JUSTIFICATION FOR OTHER REVISIONS

Maybe now you see that the King James Version of 1611 has not been revised but only corrected. But why does it make that much difference? Although there are several reasons why this issue is important, the most pressing one is that fundamentalist scholars are using this myth of past revisions to justify their own tampering with the text. The editors of the New King James Version have probably been the worst in recent years to use this propaganda ploy. In the preface of the New King James they have stated, "For nearly four hundred years, and throughout several revisions of its English form, the King James Bible has been deeply revered among the English-speaking peoples of the world. "In the midst of their flowery rhetoric, they strongly imply that their edition is only a continuation of the revisions that have been going on for the past 375 years. This implication, which has been stated directly by others, could not be more false. To prove this point, we will go back to the book of Ecclesiastes.

An examination of the first chapter in Ecclesiastes in the New King James Version reveals approximately 50 changes from our present edition. In order to be fair, spelling changes (cometh to comes; labour to labor; etc.) were not included in this count. That means there are probably about 600 alterations in the book of Ecclesiastes and approximately 60,000 changes in the entire Bible. If you accuse me of including every recognizable change, you are correct. But I am only counting the sort of changes which were identified in analyzing the 1611 King James. That's only fair. Still, the number of changes is especially baffling for a version which claims to be an updating in the same vein as earlier revisions. According to the fundamentalist scholar, the New King James is only a fifth in a series of revisions. Then pray tell me how four "revisions" and 375 years brought only 400 changes while the fifth revision brought about 60,000 additional changes? That means that the fifth revision made 150 times more changes than the total number of changes in the first four! That's preposterous!

Not only is the frequency of the changes unbelievable, but the character of the alterations are serious. Although many of the alterations seem harmless enough at first glance, many are much more serious. The editors of the New King James Version were sly enough not to alter the most serious blunders of the modern bibles. Yet, they were not afraid to change the reading in those places that are unfamiliar to the average fundamentalist. In these areas, the New King James Version is dangerous. Below are some of the more harmful alterations made in the book of Ecclesiastes. The reference is given first; then the reading as found in the King James Version; and last, the reading as found in the New King James Version:

- 1:13 sore travail; grievous task
- 1:14 vexation of spirit; grasping for the wind
- 1:16 my heart had great experience of wisdom; My heart has understood great wisdom
- 2:3 to give myself unto; to gratify my flesh with
- 2:3 acquainting; guiding
- 2:21 equity; skill
- 3:10 the travail, which God hath given; the God-given task
- 3:11 the world; eternity
- 3:18 that God might manifest them; God tests them
- 3:18 they themselves are beasts; they themselves are like beasts
- 3:22 portion; heritage
- 4:4 right work; skillful work
- 5:1 Keep thy foot; Walk prudently
- 5:6 the angel; the messenger of God
- 5:6 thy voice; your excuse
- 5:8 he that is higher than the highest; high official
- 5:20 God answereth him; God keeps him busy
- 6:3 untimely birth; stillborn child
- 7:29 inventions; schemes
- 8:1 boldness; sterness
- 8:10 the place of the holy; the place of holiness
- 10:1 Dead flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour; Dead flies putrefy the perfumer's ointment
- 10:10 If the iron be blunt; If the ax is dull
- 10:10 wisdom is profitable to direct; wisdom brings success
- 12:9 gave good heed; pondered
- 12:11 the masters of assemblies; scholars

This is only a sampling of the changes in the book, but notice what is done. Equity, which is a trait of godliness, becomes skill (2:21). The world becomes eternity (3:11). Man without God is no longer a beast but just like a beast (3:18). The clear reference to deity in Ecclesiastes 5:8 ("he that is higher than the highest") is successfully removed ("higher official"). But since success is what wisdom is supposed to bring us (10: 10), this must be progress. At least God is keeping the scholars busy (5:20). Probably the most revealing of the above mentioned changes is the last one listed where “the masters of assemblies” become “scholars.” According to the New King James, “the words of scholars are like well-driven nails, given by one Shepherd.” The masters of assemblies are replaced by the scholars who become the source of the Shepherd’s words. That is what these scholars would like us to think, but it is not true.

In conclusion, the New King James is not a revision in the vein of former revisions of the King James Version. It is instead an entirely new translation. As stated in the introduction, the purpose of this book is not to convince those who use the other versions. The purpose of this book is to expose a fallacious argument that has been circulating in fundamentalist circles for what it is: an overblown myth. That is, the myth that the New King James Version and others like it are nothing more than a continuation of revisions which have periodically been made to the King James Version since 1611. There is one problem with this theory. There are no such revisions.

What is the Difference in the KJV 1611 and 1769?

The King James Bible of 1611 has not undergone four (or any) major revisions. Therefore, the New King James Version is not a continuation of what has gone on before. It should in fact be called the Thomas Nelson Version. They hold the copyright. The King James Version we have today has not been revised but purified. We still have no reason to doubt that the Bible we hold in our hands is the very word of God preserved for us in the English language.

The authority for its veracity lies not in the first printing of the King James Version in 1611, or in the character of King James 1, or in the scholarship of the 1611 translators, or in the literary accomplishments of Elizabethan England, or even in the Greek Received Text. Our authority for the infallible words of the English Bible lies in the power and promise of God to preserve His Word! God has the power. We have His Word.

6.12.15 Every Christian Should Be Anchored To God's Word (2025-12-15 01:30)

Psalms 1:1-2, " Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night."

I receive many emails from distraught Christians who are down on life. Part of my 23-year ministry since I started my [1]Jesus-is-Savior.com website ministry back in 2002 is helping discouraged believers find their way. All we have is each other. If we don't encourage each other in the Lord, then who is going to do it? The unregenerate (unsaved) man certainly cannot understand the things of God, for they are foolishness to him (1st Corinthians 1:18, 2:14-16).

I learned something fascinating this week about large ship anchors. I had always thought that the anchor itself held the ship, but that's not true. When a large Navy ship drops their anchor into the muck at the bottom of the ocean, as the ship continues moving forward thousands of feet of anchor is pulled into the sea. As the ships continues to pull forward, the WEIGHT OF THE CHAIN prevents the ship from moving. So it is the chain, and not the anchor, that holds the ship in place. That is fascinating science!

In a similar way, the inspired Word of God is our anchor, but the anchor is useless without applying the truths of God's Word to out life. We must let out the chain, so to speak, by making us of the Holy Bible, wallowing in it day and night. Psalms 1:1-2, "

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

Jesus exhorts us to 'SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES' in John 5:39; He didn't say to search Christian talk radio, Christian magazines and books, Christian videos and television, Christian seminaries and retreats, Christian commentaries, et cetera, These things are appropriate in their place, but NOTHING should ever substitute for quality time spent reading, wallowing, memorizing and studying the inspired King James Bible. GET IN THE BOOK!!!

The Uplifting and Yet Tragic Life of Philip Bliss

Here is some intriguing history...

> Philip Paul Bliss (9 July 1838 – 29 December 1876) was an American composer, conductor, writer of hymns and a bass-baritone Gospel singer. He wrote many well-known hymns, including "Hold the Fort" (1870), "Almost Persuaded" (1871); "Hallelujah, What a Saviour!" (1875); "Let the Lower Lights Be Burning"; "Wonderful Words of Life" (1875); and the tune for Horatio Spafford's "It Is Well with My Soul" (1876). Bliss was a recognized friend of D. L. Moody, the famous Chicago preacher.

"Let the Lower Lights Be Burning" is a precious hymn written by Philip P. Bliss (1838-1976) in 1871, emphasizing the importance of guiding others to safety and salvation, much like how lower lights help ships navigate to harbor. The hymn encourages believers to keep their spiritual light shining to help those in need.

Let The Lower Lights Be Burning

Few people know the tragic history of Philip Bliss and his wife, who were killed in 1876 (the same year Harry Ironside was born). They were killed in a fiery train crash in Ohio when a bridge suddenly collapsed in a ravine. Bliss was only 38 years old. ...

> On 29 December 1876, the Pacific Express train on which Bliss and his wife were traveling approached Ashtabula, Ohio. When the train was nearly across the bridge it > collapsed and the carriages fell into the ravine below. It was stated in many newspaper accounts of the time that Bliss escaped from the wreck, but the carriages caught fire and Bliss returned to try to extricate his wife. This account was only given by J.E. Burchell. As mentioned in the P.P. Bliss Memoirs, written in 1877 by D.W. Whittle this account by J.E. Burchell was only his conjecture. In fact, Mr. Whittle showed a picture of Bliss to all surviving passengers and no one recognized Mr. Bliss but only one lady who gave no account of seeing him during the accident. No trace of either Mr. Bliss or his wife, Lucy, was discovered. Ninety-two of the 159 passengers are believed to have died in what became known as the Ashtabula River Railroad Disaster. —[3]Wikipedia Acts 27:41-44, "And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves. And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape. But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land.

And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land."

Philip P. Bliss was killed suddenly at age 38, taken to meet his Maker. Oh, dear reader, [4]make sure you've been born again while there is yet time.

6.12.16 Unjust In The Least (2025-12-16 09:56)

Luke 16:10, "He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much."

"[1]UNJUST IN THE LEAST" (from 1973 by Pastor Jack Hyles, 1926-2001)...

> "If we don't watch out in little areas, then we are guilty of big sins." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[2]Unjust In The Least"

This is a great truth that is so needed today. You're only as good of a Christian as your attitude toward little things. Someone might not think twice about littering, leaving your shopping cart in the parking lot for someone else to put away, women wearing pants, cheating on a test or sleeping on the job, but these seemingly little things are indications of major character flaws. There is little integrity today among churchgoers.

"Trifles make perfection, and perfection is no trifle." —Michelangelo

I learned a very long time ago about the importance of little things. The inspired Holy Bible says in Luke 16:10, “He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.” If God cannot trust you and me with little things, then how can He trust us with big things?

> “Nothing is unimportant.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “ [3]Unjust In The Least ”

Look at someone when you shake their hand. When I went to shake hands with Pastor Bill Adams in September of 2024 at the Smyrna Baptist Church, he rudely looked off to the left 45 degrees at the wall. One week later his wife approached me in church to shake my hand and did the same rude thing, looking hard right off 45 degrees at the distant wall. When I contacted the pastor to ask him if I am welcomed in their church, twice, he completely ignored me. I got my answer. No, they don’t want me there. And it’s just as well, since they wickedly distribute toxic Chick Tracts, wickedly bid Godspeed to the cult at PCC, and wickedly pervert the Gospel by requiring people to be willing to turn from of their sins to be saved.

> “Well you say, ’I can’t make the payment.’ Then don’t make the debt!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “ [4]Unjust In The Least ”

There’s nothing worse than a man who shakes hands like a seal. Be a man men! You should always look someone in the eye when at the cashier’s counter or when shaking hands. It is proper and polite. If you look away from someone while talking or refuse to make eye contact with them while shaking hands, it automatically sends negative vibes to the other person. God only knows how many visitors never returned to a church because of unkind people.

When I attended a big event at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014, at their new Family Living Center, I saw that the men’s bathroom was atrocious! It stank with wreak. So, I took it upon myself to go find the janitor’s closet and clean the entire bathroom myself. That is a servant’s heart. When their incompetent ungodly pastor Marty Herron shortly thereafter kicked me out of their cult for befriending them with THE TRUTH—that Lordship Salvation is not the Gospel, John MacArthur is a modernist infidel, and the modern English Bibles are all corrupted by Satan—I reminded Pastor Herron that unlike him, I actually do care, which is why I cleaned their stinky men’s room. The most important job is the one that doesn’t get done!

Dear reader, kindly said, you are a fool if you think it is okay to pick and choose which Bible version that you use. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS! The only inspired Words of God are in the King James Bible today! Truth matters.

I have been in numerous churches where people told me to get in line before the food runs out. I have always waited intentionally, so if indeed the food ran out I would be the one not to eat. That is a servant’s heart. I am not a good Christian, but I am a servant at heart. Matthew 23:11,

But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

When I attended the shameful Family Baptist Church in Pensacola for 45 months, before they [5]kicked me and my wife out in June of 2025 for TELLING THE TRUTH, I used to look forward to emptying all the garbage pails into the dumpster on big days. No one ever needed to ask or hint for me to help out, because I volunteered for the Lord.

By God's grace, I was a quite servant working behind the scenes. I brought extra storage bags, brought cases of soda on holidays, helped a blind lady friend at church regularly, I gave out Gospel booklets of John, bought food gifts for church members, brought some nuts and gifts for an elderly lady (I gave her $95 on her 95th birthday), bought glow-in-the-dark novelties for the kids on Halloween at the church's outdoor gathering, so cars could see the children glowing in the dark for safety, et cetera. Nobody asked me to do those kind things. I gladly did them on my own, with my own money, simply because I thought of ways to serve others for Jesus Christ. I care.

This is why Pastor Jack Hyles taught that LOVE IS THINKING. When you care about someone, you take the time to think of ways to express that love and concern. It is tragic that we have a bunch of stupid pastors today running the churches into the ground spiritually. They refuse to expose corrupt Bibles. They refuse to expose the Devil's fraud of Lordship Salvation, and worse, those infidels preach it! Their ungodly wives wear pants in public. There is no door-to-door soulwinning, no preaching against sin, no warnings about going to Hell, just playing the wicked neo-evangelical's game of church (merely going through the sycophantic motions).

Every redeemed child of God should clean up after yourself, and sometimes even others. As an ongoing habit, I return other customer's idle shopping carts which they abandoned in the parking lot, expecting someone else to put it back where they found it. It may seem like a small thing to do, but I believe it's a big thing to the Lord. There's one that cometh after you!

I don't claim to be a good Christian. I don't even think there is such a thing as a " good Christian.

We're all a mess today, aren't we! I can say that I do care. Little things are important.

One word of caution about the sermon "

(1973): Dr. Hyles admitted that he preached heresy at times in the past. I disagree with his teaching in this sermon that a changed life is "proof" of salvation. The damned false prophets in Matthew 7:21-23 had done 'MANY WONDERFUL WORKS,' but still went to Hell forever. Works are not evidence of salvation, unless one is saved by works. I love Brother Hyles, but I won't go along with him when he is wrong on the Bible.

> "A fella who will not take care of the details will not take care of big matters either."
> —Pastor Jack Hyles, " [6]Unjust In The Least "

I know that the Apostle James said we are justify in the sight of men by works, but there is no way of truly knowing if someone is saved apart from a direct testimony from their mouth or writing concerning Christ.

> "Chasten your children for character flaws rather than mistakes." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[7]Unjust In The Least"

> “One of the tragic things about this generation is that we like personality more than character.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[8]Unjust In The Least”

Most pastors and layman today are as crooked as a dog’s hindleg. Little things are important because they lead to big things. May we all be just in the least.

6.12.17 Why We Have Fundamentalist Christianity (2025-12-17 13:37)

Revelation 3:1-2, “

And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead. Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.”

In our personal lives as humans, we all choose where to draw the lines concerning issues of morality, tolerances and convictions. If we were to gather three hundred professed Christians into one room, there would be umpteen different opinions and points of conflict. And it is for this very reason that fundamental Bible Christianity exists today.

Case in point is the fundamentalist Baptist preacher who harps against women wearing pants in public. According to the Bible, women ought not wear men’s clothing (Deuteronomy 22:5). Only a fool would dare dismiss such a moral command of God, throwing modesty under the bus as being mere ceremonial law, which doesn’t apply today. In it’s most basic form, Christian fundamentalism is simply a child of God choosing to stay farther to the right than the left.

In the case of women wearing pants, a conservative godly woman who fears God wouldn’t dare even think of putting on a pair of blue jeans. I have heard every excuse imaginable from wicked neo-evangelical churchgoers who attempt to justify women wearing pants. They are a nasty religious bunch, worldly, indifferent and following Jesus afar off.

The reason why we have fundamental Bible Christianity still today is because there is a remnant of God’s children who fear God and desire to please Him. Since everyone sets the bar of morality at different levels, we need to separate from those who choose to live by lower moral standards, lest they corrupt our good morals.

Concerning open fornication being tolerated in the Church at Corinth, the Apostle Paul wrote:

> 1st Corinthians 5:6-9, “
>
> Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?
>
> Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:
> Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.”

By tolerating open sexual sin in the congregation, the Apostle warned the church elders that a little rot in time could corrupt the entire church! That is what “leaven” is, yeast mold, bacteria. And this is the heart of Bible fundamentalism folks—setting moral and doctrinal standards high in a local church. Everyone has their own opinion about the different Bible revisions, about how you get to Heaven, about Zionism, the age of the earth, the timing of the Rapture, what attire is modest or worldly, and thousands of other issues.

As a general rule, people reach low when it comes to holiness and truth. It's is not easy for a young Christian woman to wear full-length dresses, when all her friends are wearing pants. It's not easy for a young man not to drink booze, when all the other fellas are drinking it. Young people must be taught to do what is right when tempted. It's not easy to do what is right, when others are all doing what is wrong. This is where your good or bad character is revealed, by how you behave when others are doing wrong. If you have good character, you won't join them. If you go along to get along, it reveals your lack of character. Proverbs 1:10, "My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not."

The reason why we have fundamentalist Christianity is because most people who profess to be Christians are not born again. Roman Catholics, Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Seventh-Day Adventists and Church of Christ (to name but a few) are all pseudo-Christian cults, because they pervert God's simple plan of salvation. This is why we need ecclesiastical separation. That is, God's redeemed saints must avoid and separate from unbelievers (2nd Corinthians 6:14-17).

It is sad that most men and women today have low moral standards. Most women see nothing wrong with putting on a pair of blue jeans, halter top or a short tight skirt, but this is not pleasing to the Lord. And for that matter, a see-through white dress is just as immodest. The inspired Holy Bible commands Christian women to dress themselves in modest apparel (1st Timothy 2:9). Pants are anything but modest for a lady!!! Men wear pants. SHAME on the ungodly neo-evangelical pastors, pastor's wives, Jezebel females and bad churches today who approve of women wearing pants. If you have a problem with this, it just shows that you are not a Christian fundamentalist.

To no surprise, when I and my wife met with Pastor Brad Moffett in April of 2025 at the corrupt Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, he sinfully declared to us, "

I am not a fundamentalist.

" He did have to tell us that shameful fact, because we already knew it. Pastor Brad and his verbally-abusive father Bobby Moffett are evil neo-evangelicals. Their wicked church preaches another gospel, requiring lost sinners to turn away from past sinful ways (works) to get to Heaven. The pastor promotes infidels' Ken Ham, Franklin Graham, Jeff Redlin, John Calvin and John Piper—who all preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation.

The reason why we have fundamentalist Bible Christianity is because most people want a spiritually dead church to attend. Jeremiah 5:31, "The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof? " This is why Joel Osteen's apostate Lakewood Church in Houston, Texas, fills up with 40,000 members every Sunday.

> 2nd Timothy 4:2-4, "
> Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables."

The popular "repent of your sins" damnable heresy is a fable, not biblical doctrine. Lordship Salvation is a fable, not Bible doctrine. The Greek word for "fables" is muthos which means "a tale, that is, " fiction.

requirement to be saved is fiction. Mixing service with salvation (Lordship Salvation) is fiction. These are unbiblical teachings to be considered tommyrot, poppycock, balderdash and rubbish. Satan is a clever deceiver and a beautiful liar.

“Neo” means “new.” These neo-evangelicals in dead churches today are extremely shallow. They sing shallow Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) instead of the doctrinally rich old hymns of the Christian faith that I cherish and love to sing. Neo-evangelicals don’t pay attention to the details like fundamentalists do. Whereas we dot our i’s and cross our t’s as fundamentalists, ungodly don’t care. They don’t care about the purity of God’s Word, which is why these support evil garbage like this...

The Holy Bible Has Been Corrupted To Obtain A New Copyright

All of the modern English Bible revisions are corrupt, adhering to the poisonous 1881 texts of Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort ([2]two Anglican infidel devils - Pastor Max D. Younce exposes these reprobates). If you've seen one Westcott and Hort bible, you've seen 'em all, because they all share the SAME perversions. For example: They all [3]remove the word " [4] worship "

[5] from Matthew 8:2, and water it down to say a leper " knelt "

or

to Jesus. Well, you can kneel before a king without worshipping him. This is a blatant attack on Jesus' deity. The inspired King James Bible accurately says that a leper worshipped Jesus. Why would the modern Bible revisions reduce this to mere respect or admiration? The answer is clear.

Several general observations can be made about NEW EVANGELICALS:

- They don't care about what matters.
- They don't pay attention to the details.
- They are all wrong on Bible repentance (i.e., the "repent of your sins" heresy).
- They all refuse to expose the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation.
- They don't have a sense of urgency about what's important.
- They don't regularly go door to door soulwinning.
- They are lackidaical about biblical separation.
- They don't expose the Devil's modern corrupt Bible revisions.
- They don't preach against sin.
- Their women sinfully wear pants and other immodest clothing.
- They sing lame theologically deficient Contemporary Christin Music.
- They don't contend for the Christian faith.

As a Bible fundamentalist, I care and pay attention to the details. This is not just true of the things of God, but of everything in my life. The old adage is true: Cleanliness is next to godliness. Why? It is because both attributes require caring. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS! It is because I DO CARE that I keep getting into ministry quarrels with carnal pastors. The Bible warns in Galatians 1:6-9 that God curses any man (even an angel) who preaches ANOTHER GOSPEL than the one the Apostle Paul taught in 1st Corinthians 15:1-6. Paul said he received that Gospel directly from Jesus (Galatians 1:12).

Any pastor who requires you to "repent of your sins" to get to Heaven is a theological LIAR!!! Jesus came into the world to die on Calvary's cross to pay our debt of sin, He does not demand that we first be willing to REFORM to receive the free gift of eternal life. The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work. Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

> "The best way to kill a snake is to put him in the fire. The reason we have so many snakes in our churches is that there's no fire." —Pastor Lester Roloff (1914-1982)

Dear reader, if you're not upset you're not paying attention! It saddens me that I need to get so worked up over false teaching in today's corrupt Bible colleges and churches, while 99 % of professed Christians couldn't care less. If you're not upset you're not paying attention!!! Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

Dear reader, the $64,000 question is: Do you care? A Christian fundamentalist cares about which Bible they use. They care about the accuracy of the Gospel. They care about the purity of God's inspired Word. They care about modesty and upholding moral integrity. It is tragic that neo-evangelical churchgoers today simply don't care as much as fundamentalists do.

This sadly includes the demonic Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) which organization consists of [6]47,000 complicit member churches that represent roughly 12,700,000 people. The SBC are all neo-evangelicals. You won't find any fundamentalist churches within the SBC, because they are perverted regarding the gospel, moral standards and the Word of God.

The SBC's official statement of faith titled '[7]Baptist Faith And Message 2000' contains damnable heresy! This is so tragic folks. According to the SBC, it is not enough to put your faith in Jesus as your Savior, but in addition they say you must make a lifetime commitment to serve Him as your Lord, and turn away from your sinning. That is not the free grace plan of salvation presented in the inspired King James Bible. SHAME on the SBC and any church who bids them Godspeed! These are WORKS! The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

That is why they use corrupt Bible revisions like the English Standard Version (ESV), which perverts Philippians 2:6 to say that Jesus could not grasp equality with God. Neo-evangelicals just don't care. John 12:43, "

For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

" Neo-evangelicals don't want to suffer reproach for the name of Christ. They refuse to be put outside the gate with Jesus, the rejected and crucified Lamb of God.

If everyone sought to please God, we wouldn't have wars in the world. If all churchgoers sought to please God by obeying the Holy Scripture, we wouldn't need Christian fundamentalism in the churches, but sadly we do! Most professed Christians today are not even born again. They are trusting in some damnable partial faith in Christ PLUS following Christ as your Lord, committing your whole person to Him and turning away from your sinful bad habits. These toxic teachings have infected and infested over 95 % of all churches today, including so-called Independent Fundamental Baptist Churches.

Beware of today's corrupt churches! I am warning you about [8]Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College! I am warning you about nearly every Baptist church CULT in the city of Pensacola and other towns across the United States! Beware of any churches whose pastor is an alumnus of the [9]den of iniquity at Bob Jones University! Somebody's got to care! Somebody's got to get upset and say something. You know the popular adage:

"If you see something, say something!" Well I've seen a lot and I've got a lot to say! Amen. John 8:26a, " I have many things to say and to judge of you..."

If I could sum up Christian Bible fundamentalism with one word, it would be 'CARING.' It's all really quite that simple, boiling down to whether you care or not friend. I CARE about right doctrine. I CARE about which Bible version we use and promote. I CARE about the accuracy of God's simple plan of salvation (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). I CARE about the purity of the inspired Holy Bible. I CARE about moral standards and how professed Christian females dress in public, because there is AN ONGOING WAR against men's souls (1st Peter 2:11). No Christian girl or woman should ever wear pants in public.

I CARE because the LORD CARES! 1st Peter 5:7,

Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

" God cares about YOU dear reader. Oh yes, He surely does! I decided a very long time ago that I was not going to place God on trial every time things weren't going well in my life.

Galatians 6:3, "

For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

THANK YOU dear reader for being patient with my long rants in many of my ministry blogs. I truly do love everyone with Gods unconditional love, whoever you may be dear reader. God knows my heart, that I have always just wanted to be a blessing to others for Christ.

Jesus is precious!

6.12.18 In Defense Of Pastor Steven Anderson (2025-12-18 11:19)

1st Kings 18:17-21,

"And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?

And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim. Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred, which eat at Jezebel's table. So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel. And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word."

In our text passage of Scripture, God's man, Elijah the prophet, was making the local leaders angry. Wicked King Ahab called the prophet a "troublemaker." Any fundamentalist Bible preacher who is worth his salt has been called a troublemaker, and much worse! The Devil's children are all waiting for the Christian to fall, especially the Bible preacher. God pity the preacher that the world don't hate. John 15:17-19, "These things I command you, that ye love one another. If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you." Nobody is as hated in this wicked world than the fundamentalist Bible preacher!!!

That being said, I get so sick of this crap over Pastor Steven Anderson's family being attacked on social media, which is [1]none of anyone's damn business! It should be obvious to any honest Christian that the Devil is trying to destroy our Brother in Christ over his biblical STAND for truth and righteousness. Satan always goes after the best, seeking whom he may devour (1st Peter 5:8-9). That word "devour" means "to make disappear." The Devil would love for Pastor Anderson to disappear. We needs him!

I don't stand with Pastor Anderson because I think he's always right. I stand with him because he comes A LOT closer to being right than all these pusillanimous, cowardly, salary-sucking, Caspar Milquetoast, practically worthless, religious clowns for pastors today who refuse to stand for or against anything.

I'm talking about twerps like [2]Pastor Jeff Redlin at Pensacola Christian College, who has cruelly banned me in writing from attending Campus Church since August 2, 2022—for TELLING THE TRUTH that [3]they're WRONG on repentance and God's simple plan of salvation. PCC banned me! They've blocked me out from accessing both their PCC and Campus Church Facebook pages. Jerks! I know that the Lord is proud of me for taking a STAND for what is true and right, and God is utterly disgusted with the Lordship Salvation CULT at PCC. Woe unto the wicked!

By the way, [4]here's a tremendous sermon truth by Brother Hyles that he preached in Texas, in which he says to FIGHT the good fight of faith; but if you are weary and can no longer fight, then WITHSTAND (hang in there); but if you are tired and cannot fight or withstand anymore, then just STAND (don't change).

Wicked people are exploiting Pastor and Mrs. Anderson's four oldest adult children in an attempt to discredit and ruin his ministry. Pastor Hyles went through a similar persecution in 1989, when dozens of staff and church members turned against him, and unfounded allegations were made against him. [5]I have defended my friend for these past 23 years, since by God's grace I began my website ministry in 2002.

Dr. Hyles defended himself in 1989, in this fiery sermon titled, '[6]Weathering The Storm.'

Pastor Hyles' enemies stooped to new lows in a malicious attempt to destroy his testimony and consequently his ministry for the Lord Jesus Christ. Evil people stood outside First Baptist Church of Hammond during their annual Pastor's School that year, distributing damning information about family members who had openly sinned in the past. Dr. Hyles begged the Pastor's School delegates not to take the perverse literature. It broke Dr. Hyle's heart and he wept. People can be so cruel. Ecclesiastes 8:12,

Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him.

I remember that Brother Hyles apologized to all of us students. Dr. Hyles said he wanted us to attend Hyles-Anderson College during peacetime without having to endure through a raging church battle. But you know what, I wouldn't trade those precious hard times for anything in the world, because we were privileged with the opportunity to STAND by our preacher during the darkest years of his life and ministry; and moreover it taught me to hang in there with FAITH IN GOD even though all hope seems lost.

And praise be to God, Pastor Hyles endured to persevere until the end of his life on earth in 2002. He simply relocated to Heaven. Perseverance is getting to your goal (which should be to fear God and keep His commandments - Ecclesiastes 12:13). That is what the Apostle Paul meant when he said in □□□ □□□□□□□ □:□, "□ □□□□ □□□□□□ □ □□□□ □□□□□, □ □□□□ □□□□□□□□ □□ □□□□□□, □ □□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□." Endurance is the obstacles that you have to face and overcome along the way as you persevere.

We all have our battles. Life has many potholes and sometimes open manhole covers, "□□□ □□□ □□ □□□□□□□□, □□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□□ □□□ □□ □□ □□□□□□□ □□□□□ □□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□; □□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □ □□□ □□ □□□□□□, □□□□ □□ □□□ □□ □□□□ □□ □□□□ □□" (□□□ □□□□□□□□□□□ □□:□□□). I just heard Pastor Hyles yesterday preach a sermon on this very truth titled, '[7]You Can Make It!'

Having One's Own Family As Enemies

According to BibleGate.com, the word "enemies" appears in the King James Bible 263 times, and the word "enemy" appears 109 times. That's 372 times! God's children have always had enemies and we always will have enemies. 2nd Timothy 3:12-13, "Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived."

□□□□□□□ □□:□□, "□□□ □ □□□'□ □□□□ □□□□□ □□ □□□□ □□ □□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□□□." Billy Sunday's (1862-1935) own three sons turned against him. They were all drunks. George, the oldest stole a vehicle and was arrested for public intoxication. George hit his wife one day in front of his mother and then either jumped or fell out a third story window to his death. None of this was Billy or Ma Sunday's fault! Children have a freewill given to them by God to make their own decisions for good or evil. One of the Sunday's daughter-in-law tried to blackmail them, demanding money or she was going to go public with the family's dirty laundry to ruin the man of God. Sound familiar?

I remember one summer that Pastor Jack Hyles got angry at Hyles-Anderson College over his staff's lackidaical attitude, and he threw some chairs and said some harsh words. Some people on staff called for his resignation. Dr. Hyles defended himself, saying that he used anger as a tool. Sometimes tough love is necessary, which doesn't make a man a monster!
Jesus Himself overthrust the money changer's tables and released their doves to fly away. Then he beat them with a homemade whip. Surely this cannot be our precious Redeemer! Yep, and Pastor Anderson's enemies are in for a big surprise when they stand before the terror of God in eternity (2nd Corinthians 5:11; Psalms 6:1; Matthew 7:1; Proverbs 24:12; Matthew 12:36; 1st Thessalonians 4:6). Hebrews 10:31, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God."

We live in an ungodly generation of crybabies, spoiled brats and critiques today. I want no part of any of it. From all the slanderous garbage I've heard said about Pastor Anderson, I see a good Dad who disciplines his children, which the Bible says if you don't do, you HATE your kids (Proverbs 13:24). I see four bright, well groomed and highly intelligent young people, albeit angry at life. They fail to see the beautiful legacy that they have in their parent's ministry, and a great man of God for a father.

I just noticed on Facebook under his life's events that Pastor Anderson (with all his responsibilities and labors) recently graduated from Arizona State University and Liberty University. Wow, that is so admirable! The guy just doesn't stop going. I actually heard their daughter several months ago on social media criticize her Dad for studying all the time. What? A lot of men bum around watching television most of the time, drinking booze, doing nothing to make an impact for eternity.

The Anderson kids have so much to be grateful for and proud of. I am confident 15 to 20 years from now that they'll mature and wake up to reality. No parents are perfect (Hebrews 12:6-8), but I haven't heard anything amidst all the accusations by the kids that even remotely bring into question his qualifications as a pastor. I love and appreciate Brother Anderson in Christ and am grateful for his dedication to our Lord, uncompromising Bible preaching, tenacity, backbone and his relentless drive.

I once heard Dr. Hyles say that he studied great men of God of the past and found that they all had a couple things in common—they continually sought the power of the Holy Spirit upon their ministry, and they had an uncommon driving determination to serve God. Pastor Anderson certainly has those virtues. You just don't find guys like this! I'm sure that Pastor Anderson would humbly disagree, but I see a sincere man who has a burning passion to make an impact for the Lord Jesus Christ.

As a fundamentalist Bible preacher, he is often misunderstood by the heathen world. I hear idiots saying that he hates his wife and kids, hates the Jews, et cetera. Nothing could be further from THE TRUTH. He hates what God hates, and what every child of God is commanded to hate in Psalms 97:10—EVIL! Of course he's not perfect, nobody is, except Jesus.

I left a long scathing rebuke on Paul Wittenberger's YouTube video, for his shameful behavior and upcoming toxic film attacking Pastor Anderson's family. He was never a friend to Pastor Anderson, and he sure isn't a friend to the Anderson's adult children whom he's exploiting for personal gain. I believe I have it correct that the issue arose over money. Paul got upset at Pastor Anderson over his hard preaching, which was costing him money. Truly the love of money is the root of all evil (1st Timothy 6:10-11). THE PREACHER CANNOT BE BOUGHT!

I read the history of the fundamentalist preacher, J. Frank Norris (1877-1952). For the first couple years of his pastorate the elite church members invited him to functions, dinners and catered to the preacher. During that time Pastor Norris held back and went long with the good life, but like Jeremiah he couldn't forbear (Jeremiah 20:9) and started preaching the dickens out of the church members, and all hell broke loose in the church. Several millionaires quit the church. They had a big church split. The real J. Frank Norris had finally arrived with inspired King James Bible in hand. Amen!

Let me also remind everyone that Jesus had 12 Apostles, who were essentially His family on earth, and yet one of them had a devil in him. John 6:70-71, "

Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?

He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve."

If the perfect sinless Savior couldn't keep the Devil out of his own family, then what makes anyone think it should be any different in a Bible preacher's family? Remember, Jesus' half-brothers all rejected Him at first. They thought He had taken leave of His senses! Jesus spoke from personal experience in Matthew 10:36, "

And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

6.12.19 Beware Of The Demonic Roman Catholic Church (2025-12-19 02:55)

Mark 7:6-9, "

He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me. Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do. And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition."

In the preceding text passage of Scripture spoken by Jesus Himself, the dear Savior could have just as easily provided the address of the sinister headquarters of the Roman Catholic Church cult, which is:

Vatican City, 00120
Rome, Italy

It is an independent city-state enclaved within Rome, and a house of Satanic worship. If that offends you friend, it is only because you have been woefully deceived by the god of this world, Satan. 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15, "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works." Satan and his evil minions are lying deceivers who appear as angels, preachers and saints. The only way to identify them is by their fruit, that is, their doctrine (1st John 4:1).

As of 2025, approximately [1]17.7 % of the world's population identifies as Catholic, which translates to about 1.4 billion Catholics globally. I can tell you confidently with biblical authority that the Roman Catholic Church is of the Devil:

1. Catholics commit the sin of idolatry by worshipping Mary and bowing to statues. That is why the Vatican in Rome [2]dishonestly removed the second of God's Ten Commandments.
2. Catholics sin by forbidding members to eat meat on Fridays, which is against the inspired Holy Bible (1st Timothy 4:1-4).
3. Catholics disobey God by reverencing their priests and Pope when they sinfully call them "Father" (Matthew 23:9).
4. Catholics sinfully teach that you must keep their [3]Seven Sacraments to get to Heaven. The Bible says you just need to by faith receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that he raised up from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-6).
5. Catholics sin by elevating Mary as the Queen of Heaven, claiming that she had no sin, stayed a perpetual virgin and was assumed into Heaven without experiencing death (Romans 6:23).
6. Catholics sin by elevating their leader, the Pope, as being the vicar of God upon the earth. In truth, the Pope is the vicar of Satan. When the Pope speaks, he speaks for his father the Devil (John 8:44).
7. Catholics sin by elevating their manmade traditions and dogma on par with the eternally inspired Words of God (Psalms 138:2).
8. Catholics sin by forbidding priests to get married (1st Timothy 4:1-4).

Sacramental Salvation is a counterfeit plan of salvation. The word "

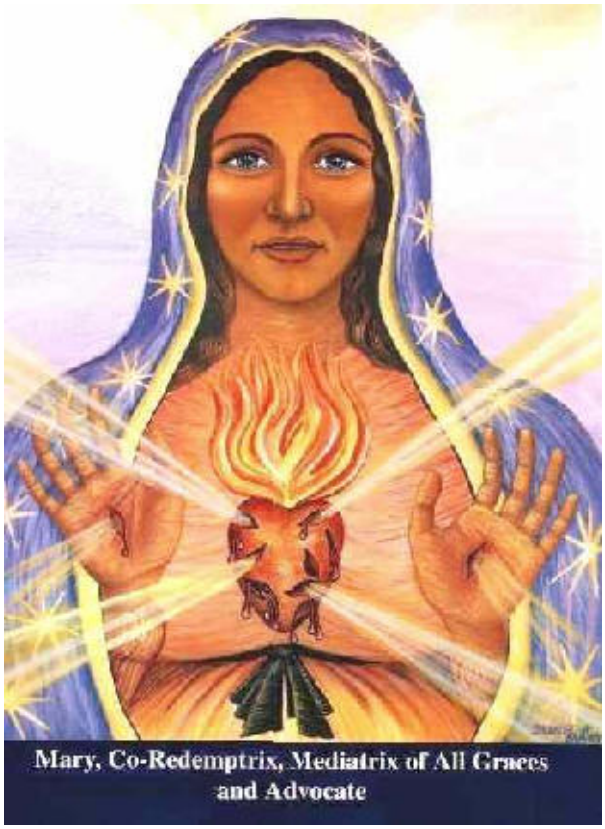
doesn’t even appear in the inspired Word of God, it is a manmade concept.

Furthermore, Catholics are errantly taught that their priests have the divine power to forgive men’s sins, yet the Scripture is very clear in 1st Timothy 2:5-6,

“For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.” We also read in Mark 2:7, “Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only?

” There is only one MEDIATOR between God the Father and humanity, which is the precious Lord Jesus Christ. No human being other than Christ Himself, the God-man, has the power and right to forgive men’s sins.



There is nothing in the Bible about a temporary place of punishment in Hell called Purgatory. Yet, Catholics invented this manmade tradition at [4]The Council of Florence in 1439 AD. The Vatican has been fabricating new doctrines for thousands of years, perverting the inspired Words of God. Proverbs 30:5-6, “Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.”

The Sin of Idolatry Permeates The Catholic False Religion

There is no forgiveness of sins found in the Seven Sacraments of Roman Catholicism, nor can any sinful ungodly Catholic priest or wicked Lutheran minister absolve your sins. Only God can forgive sin, because only Jesus has the nail-scared hands and nail-scared feet. El Papa over in Rome didn't die on a cross to redeem you, Christ alone did.

Some Latin American Catholics are so off base in their heresies that they even elevate Mary to the lofty position of Co-Redemptrix with Christ, claiming that she helps save sinners from Hell.

Mary Was NOT A Co-Redeemer With Jesus!

Evangelist Billy Graham (1918-2018) was one of the most ungodly false prophets who ever walked this weary earth. Billy Graham and his wicked son Franklin [7]preach hard core Lordship Salvation, which is a perversion of God's grace.

Time magazine (August 2007) cleverly placed devil's horns above Billy Graham's head (see image below). Even the sinful world knows that he was a religious phony. Billy Graham is the only preacher who has been honored with a Hollywood Star of Fame, because like Satan Billy and Franklin Graham are actors (imitators - 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15).

Truly an image is worth 1,000 words. The following photo says it all. In Catholicism the Pope is magnified, but Jesus is marginalized. Mary worship reigns supreme in Catholicism, while Jesus is diminished and reduced to the role of merely being a mama's boy.

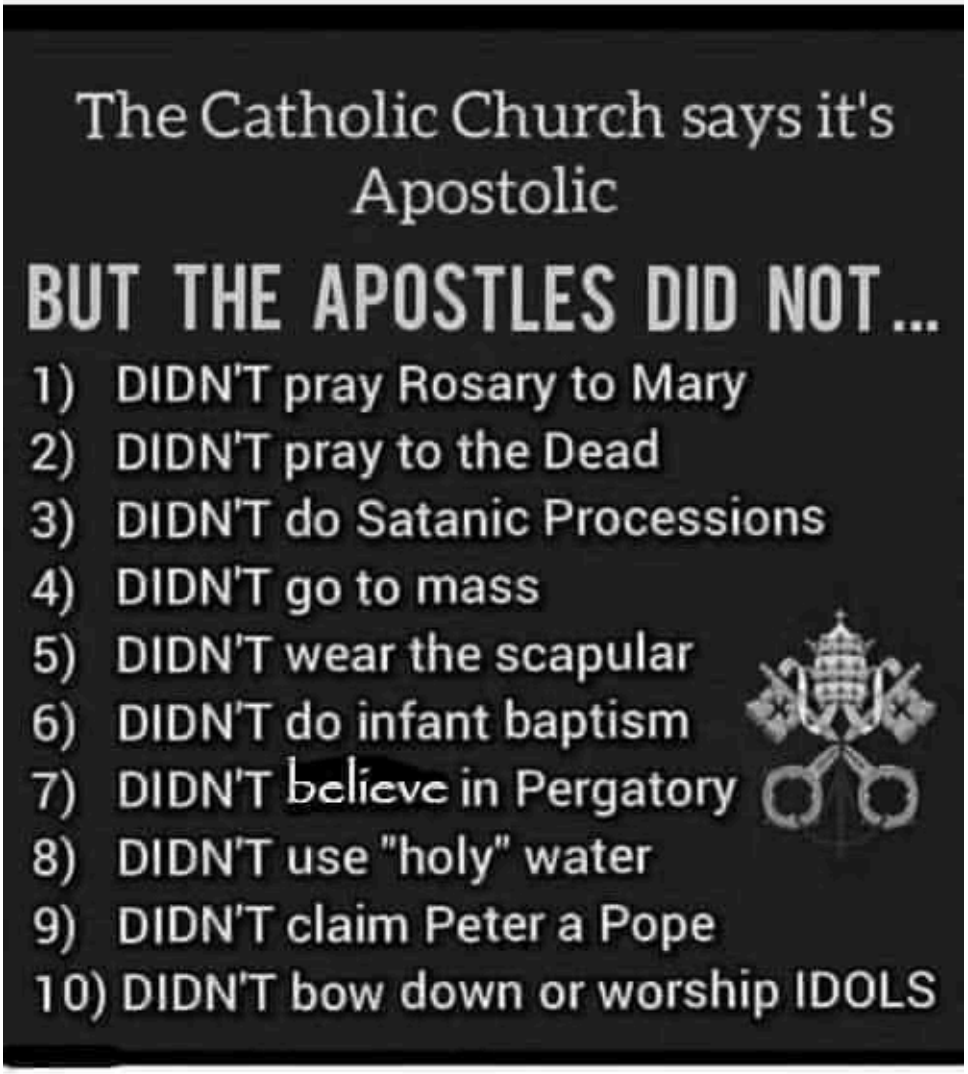
[10]



I could go on and on about how evil Catholicism truly is, but there is no need, you get the big picture. The Roman Catholic Church is of the Devil. By the way, that includes the corrupt Russian Orthodox Catholic Church based in Moscow, Russia. Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world. Salvation is not found in any religion; but rather, in the Lord Jesus Christ, who is the only begotten Son of God (John 3:14-18). Beware of the adulterous Whore of Rome.

Catholicism is a prisonhouse of religion!

COLOSSIANS 2:8
Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world,
and not after Christ.
KJV
Ashes on your forehead will NOT redeem your soul.
Believe ONLY on the Lord Jesus Christ for SALVATION, and STOP trusting rituals and doctrines made from men.

6.12.20 Please Don't Let Taylor Swift Influence Your Children (2025-12-20 10:29)

Proverbs 7:24-27, "

Hearken unto me now therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth. Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths. For she hath cast down many wounded: yea, many strong men have been slain by her. Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death."

In our text passage of Scripture from Proverbs chapter 7, King Solomon gives a stern warning against the adulterous woman, whose house is the way to Hell. That being said, I cannot warn you enough to keep your children away from the evil influence of singer Taylor Swift. This seductress woman is a daughter of the Devil himself. If you don't believe me, look closely at this screenshot from her YouTube video "

Wildest Dreams

"...

"Wildest Dreams" Music Video on YouTube by Taylor Swift

(look at 2:12 minutes into the video; it is a 1 second scene, so don't miss it)

Here is what you just saw if you watched the video (I added my own comments to expose this evil)...

(look at 2:12 minutes into the video; it is a 1 second scene)

What do you think about that? Do you think young teenagers should be seeing this kind of sexual filth on YouTube? If I found it as a 58 year old man, do you think kids (who notice everything) are going to miss it? Not a chance dear friend, not a chance. I am very grateful to Google and YouTube for the opportunity to upload videos for free and to write blogs. Albeit, it offends me that YouTube regularly removes sermon videos by fundamentalist Bible preachers, while allowing filth like this from Taylor Swift to remain. God sees this hypocrisy.

Sadly, parents today don't care about the ungodly filth in this video, or don't care to know. I am reminded of Jesus' words in John 15:19,

"If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you."

Dear reader, if you are not upset you are not paying attention! I am angry about this filth. Taylor Swift is evil. If you don't see that, it is only because you are not right with God. Taylor Swift's raunchy videos are blatantly evil. I mean, who does this? Who does the despicable filthy act that Taylor Swift is doing in a music video targeted toward teenagers? Why would she do that? What is the purpose? I'll tell you why, it is because Taylor Swift's Satanist handlers want to corrupt our children's souls. No 13 year old teenager should be subjected to sexual filth like this. The video producers escape accountability by making the scene brief, but I assure you that children and teenagers study those videos meticulously.

The witch from Hell now has a [2]staggering net worth of $1,600,000,000 as of December 2025, but she won't be able to take one penny of her amassed wealth with her into the grave when the Grim Reaper (Death) comes calling someday. 1st Timothy 6:7, "For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. " Oh foolish foolish woman! Taylor Swift has sold herself to the Devil.

1st Kings 21:20, " And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee: because thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD."

The Devil is a beautiful liar! Taylor Swift has sold her soul to Satan to do wickedness. The wicked world loves her with a shallow synthetic love. 1st John 2:15-17, "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever."

The will of the Father according to John 6:40 is to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST as your Savior. John 6:40, "

And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

" God's will to get to Heaven never includes doing good works, keeping Moses' law or turning away from sinful behavior (which is equivalent to obeying Moses' law).

Beware of false prophets who are as wolves that come to you in sheep's clothing to deceive. That is why most people miss the strait gate and the narrow path

, traveling the highway to damnation in Hell, because of false prophets who preach a counterfeit plan of salvation unto them (Matthew 7:13-15). Satan is a skilled and beautiful liar (John 8:44; 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15). You can tell when the Devil is lying by watching whenever his lips move.

Dear reader, please understand that as a child of God for 45 years that I don't hate a living soul. I certainly do not hate Taylor Swift, but I hate her ungodly attitude, wicked behavior and negative influence on society. I just typed "

Taylor Swift morality

in Duck Duck Go and the A.I. Search Assistant returned this:

> Taylor Swift's approach to morality often reflects her personal experiences and a strong sense of conscience, as seen in her lyrics that emphasize the importance of doing what is right, even when faced with temptation. Her moral code is shaped by her past and a desire to be perceived as "good," which influences her decisions and artistic expression.

Does the screenshot I shared with you earlier of Taylor Swift shoving an object in her frontal private area in her contemptible "Wildest Dreams" video, look like she's doing the right thing? if it does dear reader, then you need serious spiritual help my friend. It is wickedness!!!

Thankfully, there is a just, faithful, frightening, caring and omnipotent Holy God in charge of this universe and beyond, who will hold every human being accountable for our every word (Matthew 12:36), deed (Ecclesiastes 12:14), and thoughts (Proverbs 24:12). No one can fool God. Hebrews 4:13, "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." Woe unto Taylor Swift when she answers to God in eternity. Hebrews 10:31, " It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God."

I am just a caring fundamentalist Baptist preacher, a redeemed undeserving humble sinner, but God is the Eternal Judge whom I faithfully serve and love. The shameful fact that the wicked controlled mainstream newsmedia gives Miss Swift a free pass to commit lewd acts, while attacking and destroying Bible preacher's lives and families who go into sin, proves that Satan is the evil god of this world. The ungodly world gets a free pass, but when you're a godly Christian the whole world is waiting for you to fall hard. Thankfully, God sees this utter hypocrisy, dishonestly and injustice. If I, being a redeemed wretched sinner, can see this woeful injustice, do you think our divine Creator is asleep at the wheel? I think not.

Please protect your children by sheltering them from the evil influence of monsters like Taylor Swift who are what they appear to be. Ostensibly, Taylor Swift is Satan's daughter.

6.12.21 Beware Of The Walmart-Allstate Insurance Scam (2025-12-21 11:24)

Proverbs 19:22, "The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar."

When you shop for anything dealing with electronics at Walmart (video game systems, cell-phones, televisions, Blu-ray DVD players, et cetera), they will always ask the customer if you want to purchase their extended insurance coverage plan. Walmart deals exclusively with Allstate insurance, [1]who are as crooked as a dog's hindleg.

When I typed "Allstate hurts people" into DuckDuckGo, t he A.I. Search Assistant said this:

> Many consumers report that Allstate engages in unfair practices, such as delaying claims, offering low settlements, and using aggressive tactics to minimize payouts, which can leave policyholders feeling unsupported during difficult times. This reputation for prioritizing profits over customer care has led to widespread dissatisfaction among its clients.

Out of a possible rating of 5 stars, [2]Trustpilot gives Allstate a 1.3 (the lowest of the low).

Walmart is in cahoots with the Devil. Go to the [3]Better Business Bureau's (BBB) website and you will find that Walmart-Allstate have had 2,108 complaints filed against them for defrauding customers over just the past couple years. If you read dozens of the 2,108 complaints filed, you'll find that Allstate frequently denies claims on the basis that the customer didn't buy the "Damage Coverage," they only purchased "

Standard Coverage.

Well, the big smoking gun (from my own personal experience) is that at no time does Walmart ever ask the customer if you want “Damage Coverage” instead of “Standard Coverage.” They automatically sell consumers the Standard policy, which leaves you vulnerable and a likely victim when you file a claim down the road. But don’t take my word for it, [4]go read what the angry consumers have to say at the BBB about Walmart-Allstate’s bogus coverage plans.

On the BBB website, many frustrated consumers insist that their device was never damaged in any way, it just stopped working; but Allstate still denied the claim anyway by alleging that the consumer failed to purchase “

Damage Coverage.

” What an ungodly scam!

By the way, this deliberate dishonest tactic is used widespread throughout the insurance industry. Sadly, 99 % of homeowners who have purchased insurance on their home don’t realize that unless you specifically ask and pay for “Replacement Cost Insurance,” if your house burns down the crooked insurance company won’t replace your house. They will only pay a significantly reduced amount based on the depreciated value of your home (not what the real estate market value is at). So, if your home is 100 years old, expect to get royally screwed by the ungodly insurance scammers! I hate insurance companies, who use and hide behind their thousands of hell-spawned demonic attorneys.

And if you do purchase an electronic item from Walmart, and purchase their add-on insurance, expect to receive via email a policy shortly thereafter from Allstate, which will read like a fascist Nazi indictment of the consumer. You will see tons of BOLD THREATENING LEGAL JARGON. You will also see the literally dozens of lame reasons why Allstate will deny your claim, including not regularly maintaining and cleaning your device. Cleaning your device? So, if you failed to clean the dust off of your expensive X-Box game system weekly, your expensive OLED television, or your pricey new cellphone,

Allstate will heartily deny your claim over dust on it with impunity. But again, don’t take my word for it, go read the 2,108 complaints at the BBB. Many people are victims and they’re angry, and I don’t blame them!

I am just a frustrated consumer, not a scumbag attorney (and 99 % of them are scumbags). I will NEVER purchase Walmart’s (or anybody else’s) insurance coverage plan on anything that I purchase. Why waste my money and time, just to be mistreated like a criminal when I file a claim with these ungodly dishonest insurance companies? When you purchase insurance on something you buy, Walmart should replace it without question if it fails (unless it is quite obvious that the item was physically abused).

And to add insult to injury, Walmart advertises that they sell these insurance coverage plans to give the customer “P eace of Mind.

What ungodly liars! There is no peace of mind with Allstate insurance for anything!!! Allstate doesn’t like to honor claims for anything! They’re greedy dogs who cannot get enough.

On a different note, the last time I purchased plane tickets, the airline offered me ticket insurance (which costs hundreds of dollars) in case I missed my flight. I decided to take the time to actually read their long, harsh and difficult policy. I was shocked to learn that if a pregnant woman goes into labor, which causes her to miss her flight, the insurance company will deny the claim. And if someone has a stroke or a heart-attack which causes them to miss their flight, if there were any pre-existing conditions (e.g., high blood pressure or diabetes), the insurance company will refuse to honor the claim. What greedy rotten ungodly bastards!

1st Timothy 6:10-11, “

For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

6.12.22 John MacArthur Was Very Dishonest In His Preaching (2025-12-22 10:42)

Ephesians 2:8-10, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them."

I just ordered a used copy of Pastor John MacArthur's (1939-2025) poisonous book titled, "

The Gospel According To Jesus,

so I could expose MacArthur and his toxic false plan of salvation. Kindly said, I have no doubt whatsoever that Mr. MacArthur is now sadly burning in hell, fire and damnation forever. What he teaches is simply NOT a free grace Gospel. MacArthur is guilty of cheery-picking the inspired Scripture and preacher's books to support his perverse agenda of Lordship Salvation. John MacArthur was a crooked theologian!

Dr. Harry Ironside DIDN'T Agree With Lordship Salvation

where Dr. MacArthur dishonestly attempts to portray Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951) as agreeing with his perverse Lordship Salvation. MacArthur selectively quotes the following words from chapter one of Dr. Ironside's book,

[1]Except Ye Repent,

> Shallow preaching that does not grapple with the terrible fact of man's sinfulness and guilt, calling on "all men everywhere to repent," results in shallow conversions; and so we have a myriad of glib-tongued professors today who give no evidence of regeneration whatever. Prating of salvation by grace, they manifest no grace in their lives. Loudly declaring they are justified by faith alone, they fail to remember that "faith without works is dead"; and that justification by works before men is not to be ignored as though it were in contradiction to justification by faith before God. We need to reread James 3 and let its serious message sink deep into our hearts, that > it may control our lives. "If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me." No man can truly believe in Christ, who does not first repent. Nor will his repentance end when he has saving faith, but the more he knows God as he goes on through the years, the deeper will that repentance become. A servant of Christ said: "I repented before I knew the meaning of the word. I have repented far more since than I did then." —Pastor John MacArthur, 'The Gospel According To Jesus,' p. 176, chapter 17 (MacArthur is quoting Harry Ironside from chapter one of Ironside's book, '[2]Except Ye Repent')

Ostensibly (by appearance alone) this quote seems to evidence that Dr. Ironside agreed with John MacArthur's perverse Lordship Salvation heresy. Dr. MacArthur is woefully guilty of horribly misrepresenting what Pastor Ironside actually believed and taught.

Dear reader, if you'll [3]simply read the rest of chapter one it will become abundantly clear that these two men were world's apart in their views on repentance and God's simple plan of salvation.

Dr. Ironside plainly teaches in chapter one of 'Except Ye Repent' that penance (sorrow for sin), penance (amending one's wrongs) and reformation (turning from sins) are NOT Bible repentance. In chapter one, Pastor Ironside makes the following statement which totally contradicts MacArthur's works-based Lordship Salvation garbage...

> "Need I add that repentance then is not to be considered synonymous with joining a church or taking up one's religious duties, as people say. It is not doing anything."
>
> —Pastor Harry Ironside, ' [4]Except Ye Repent, '
> chapter one

Wow, this one quote silences John MacArthur! Did you here that Mr. MacArthur? Repentance is not doing anything!!! Pastor Ironside is absolutely correct. We get saved by RESTING in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ through Calvary's cross 2,000 years ago, not by forsaking a sinful lifestyle, taking up our cross or following Christ as of our life. Hebrews 4:10-11,

"For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief." Simply believe that Jesus did it all for you and rest in Him.

I love this next quote from chapter one by Pastor Harry Ironside, which Dr. MacArthur conveniently and no doubt deliberately left out of his heretical book,

The Gospel According To Jesus

> Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, "Repent ye, and believe the gospel." Yet we find true believers exhorted to "repent, and do the first works." So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance*.

”...

> These writers and others have redefined repentance in a way that evacuates its moral ramifications. They write it off as simply a change of mind about who Christ is. This kind of repentance has nothing to do with turning from sin or abandoning self. It is utterly devoid of any recognition or personal guilt, any intent to obey God, or any desire for true righteousness.
> That is not the kind of repentance that Jesus preached. As we have seen repeatedly, the Gospel according to Jesus is as much a call to forsake sin as it is a summons to faith. —Pastor John MacArthur, ’The Gospel According To Jesus,’ p. 177, chapter 17

No, Mr. MacArthur, you cannot show me anywhere in the inspired King James Bible where Jesus required anyone to turn away from sinful bad habits to be saved. Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15-18). Salvation is received, not achieved.

John MacArthur Perverts The Meaning Of Repentance

The Greek noun for “ repent

in the New Testament is metanoia, which simply means a change of mind.

The verb form for

is the Greek word metanoeo , which means to think differently.

” In sharp contrast to THE TRUTH, look what John MacArthur redefines repentance to mean on page 178 of his toxic book...

> Repentance is not merely sorrow or shame for sin, although genuine repentance always involves an element of remorse. It is a redirection of the human will, a purposeful decision to forsake all unrighteousness and pursue righteousness instead.
>
> —Pastor John MacArthur, 'The Gospel According To Jesus,' p. 178, chapter 17

No, that is NOT what it means to repent! It gets much worse. Read what Dr. MacArthur writes on page 180...

> Volitionally, repentance involves a change of direction, a transformation of the will. Far from being only a change of mind, it constitutes a willingness — more accurately, a determination — to abandon stubborn disobedience and surrender the will to Christ. As such, genuine repentance will inevitably result in a change of behavior. The behavior change itself is not repentance, but it is the fruit repentance will certainly bear. Where there is no observable difference in conduct, there can be no confidence that repentance has taken place (Matt. 3:8; cf. 1 John 2:3-6; 3:17). Real repentance alters the character of the whole man.
> —Pastor John MacArthur, 'The Gospel According To Jesus,' p. 178, chapter 17

Whereas the inspired Word of God simply defines repentance unto life (the new birth) as a change of mind, Pastor MacArthur corrupts repentance to mean much more:

1. a change of direction
2. a transformation of the will
3. a willingness and determination to abandon a stubborn disobedience
4. surrender the will to Christ
5. a change of behavior
6. an observable difference in conduct
7. whole character altered

Since Mr. MacArthur wrongly assumes that you haven't repented unless your life has positively changed and there is observable proof of it, we can add those as his requirements for repentance. As you can plainly see, John MacArthur is preaching another gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4) that is totally foreign to the free grace of God that brings true salvation.

Where MacArthur goes horrible astray is in his perverse understanding of what changes a person's life who gets saved. Throughout his poisonous book, MacArthur attributes a changed life to repentance, just as the [5]religious cult as Pensacola Christian College also does.

A changed behavior in the life of a born again believer is the "

of the indwelling Holy Spirit, if we choose to walk in that Holy Spirit. What saith the Scripture?

Galatians 5:22-25,

> “ But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law. And they that are Christ’s have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. ”

To be alive (i.e., to live) in the Spirit is the new birth, which is salvation. But to walk in the Spirit is discipleship, or service for Christ. One thing has nothing to do with the other. John Bunyan said it perhaps best...

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

In other words, we must always keep SERVICE separated from SALVATION, lest we corrupt the inspired Word of God and confuse people. Remember, the Devil’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. That is what the hellbound Roman Catholics, Church of Christ, Lutherans, Mormons, Jehovah’s Witnesses, Neo-Evangelicals, Lordship Salvationists and Reformed Calvinist Southern Baptists are all doing—living the Christian life, but they’ve never been born again by faith alone in the Good News (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and bodily risen the third day from the dead.

In Pastor Ironside’s book “Except Ye Repent,” in chapter 8 titled “ Repentance From Dead Works,

he writes these helpful words regarding Hebrews 6:1...

> What then is meant by "repentance from dead works"? It is a complete change of mind, whereby the convicted sinner gives up all thought of being able to propitiate God by effort of his own and acknowledges that he is as bad as the Word has declared him to be. He turns right about face. Instead of relying on his own fancied merits he turns to the Lord for deliverance and seeks for mercy through the Saviour God has provided. —Pastor Harry Ironside, ’[6]Except Ye Repent,’ chapter eight

As you can see from his own writing, Dr. Ironside limits the change of mind (which is repentance) to salvation alone, and not surrendering one’s will to follow or serve Christ, turn away from personal sinful bad habits nor anything else which would constitute works.

> To own frankly that I am lost and guilty is the prelude to life and peace. It is not a question of a certain depth of grief and sorrow, but simply the recognition and acknowledgment of need that lead one to turn to Christ for refuge. None can perish who put their trust in Him. His grace superabounds above all our sin, and His expiatory work on the cross is so infinitely precious to God that it fully meets all our uncleanness and guilt.
> —Pastor Harry Ironside, ’ [7]Except Ye Repent, ’
> chapter one

Bravo Pastor Ironside! The Bible does not require sorrow over sins to be saved. Sorrow is not repentance, it is penitence. I love this helpful quote from Pastor Brad Strand in Texas...

> True repentance has nothing to do with “turning from sin” and everything to do with “acknowledging one’s sinfulness” (Jonah 3:5). Like the thief on the cross who simply acknowledged his sinfulness (Lk 23:39-43), the only part a person has in salvation is the beggar’s part. —Pastor Brad Strand, “[8]The Strand Study Bible,” p. 1939

Yes, bravo Brother Strand!

I hope you now see dear reader what a theological fraudster John MacArthur really was (and still is posthumously by his lingering demonic influence). Just like Satan, MacArthur is very subtle. All the while he is redefining what it means to biblically “ repent,

he is misleading you by wresting the words of Paul, James, Jesus, Harry Ironside and others to deceive you. Pastor MacArthur is a horrible liar! The road to Hell is paved with sincerity (Proverbs 16:25).

I admit that 95 % of MacArthur’s Bible teachings were often accompanied by brilliant theological insights. I learned many things from the man. That being said, sadly John MacArthur was very wrong on what a person must do to get to Heaven. The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

John MacArthur Perverts Matthew 7:13-14

To further indict this damnable false prophet who masqueraded as a man of God, read MacArthur’s poisonous words from chapter 20 titled, “

The Way Of Salvation,

> Salvation is not easy. “The gate is small . . . and few are those who find it” (Matt. 7:14). The implication is that unless a person is looking diligently for the gate, he or she is not likely to know it is there. In Jeremiah 29:13 God says, “You will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart.”
>
> The message of Jesus cannot be made to accommodate a > ny kind of cheap grace or easy-believism. The kingdom is not for people who want Jesus without any change in their lives. It is only for those who seek it with all their hearts.
>
>
> In fact, many who approach the gate turn away when they discover how narrow it is. Did you ever try to get through a turnstile with an armload of suitcases? That is the imagery Jesus’ words evoke. The narrow gate is not wide enough for superstars who want to enter with all their valuables. The rich young ruler searched until he found the gate. But when he saw that entering meant he had to leave his baggage behind, > he turned away. Whoever we are, whatever we treasure, when we reach the narrow gate, we can expect to have to drop everything. Extra baggage

> — such as self-righteousness, selfishness, sin, and materialism — will not make it through intact.
>
> —Pastor John MacArthur, 'The Gospel According To Jesus,' p. 205, chapter 20, 'The Way Of Salvation'

On page 206 MacArthur further states...

> Receiving Christ does not mean we can merely add Jesus to the refuse of our lives. Salvation is a total transformation: "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; the old things passed away; behold, new things have come" (2 Cor. 5:17). What could be clearer than that? Old things pass away. Sin and selfishness and worldly pleasure are replaced by new things. This is the whole point of salvation: it produces a changed life. —Pastor John MacArthur, 'The Gospel According To Jesus,' p. 206, chapter 20, 'The Way Of Salvation'

Dear reader, what you've just read is false doctrine spawned from the Prince of Darkness himself. There are several errors in Dr. MacArthur's teachings here...

First*, Pastor MacArthur foolishly says, "Receiving Christ does not mean we can merely add Jesus to the refuse of our lives." Yes, that is exactly what the Bible means. "Refuse" is discarded trash. God only saves bad people, wretched sinners like you and me who deserve nothing less than to burn in the fires of Hell forever. Christ died for the vilest of sinners, for all mankind (Romans 5:6-9; 1st John 2:2). Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

Second*, the passage that MacArthur cites from Jeremiah 29:13 has nothing to do with God's free gift of salvation. The prophet Jeremiah in this passage is addressing " the elders which were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon

" (Jeremiah 29:1b). The prophet is telling backslidden Israel how to get right with God, not how to get to Heaven. Romans 4:4 plainly teaches that everyone in the Old Testament was saved by faith without works, lest God owe sinner's a debt for their good works.

Third*, MacArthur heretically writes, "T he message of Jesus cannot be made to accommodate a ny kind of cheap grace or easy-believism.

" What an ignorant incompetent fool for a pastor! Dear reader, grace is not " cheap,

it is completely FREE because Jesus paid for it with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19).

Furthermore, the only way to be saved is by “easy-believism.” Woe unto the preacher who makes it difficult to be saved. In 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 the Apostle Paul calls the Gospel “the simplicity that is in Christ.” It is free, simple and easy to be born again!

- Getting saved is as simple as looking to Jesus (John 3:14-16; Isaiah 45:22).
- Getting saved is as simple as drinking a cup of water (John 4:13-14; 6:35).
- Getting saved is as easy as eating a piece of bread (John 6:51).
- Gettin

  g saved is as easy as walking through a door (John 10:9).

Fourth*,

MacArthur heretically writes, “

The kingdom is not for people who want Jesus without any change in their lives. It is only for those who seek it with all their hearts.

” That is simply theological bullcrap! Nowhere in the Word of God do we find a situation where a lost sinner was required to first be willing to reform their behavior to receive God’s free gift of eternal life.

Tragically, Mr. MacArthur is preaching a perverted works-based plan of salvation which cannot produce the new birth. You cannot show me one Scripture passage that mandates having a burning desire to life a changed life to be saved. That is 100 % pure salvation by works!

Fifth*, MacArthur heretically writes, “Salvation is a total transformation: ’If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; the old things passed away; behold, new things have come’ (2 Cor. 5:17).” Nowhere does this passage of Scripture imply that getting saved means immediately living a changed life. The ONLY thing that a person receives at salvation is the gift of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24). Salvation does NOT change a person’s behavior one bit! At salvation there is a transfer of ownership from Satan to God, but then the life must be renovated, which is the job of the local New Testament church as part of The Great Commission to teach converts “ which Jesus taught (Matthew 28:19-20).

all things

Once saved, the indwelling Holy Spirit begins to work on that individual to change their life, as they grow in the milk of the Word (1st Peter 2:2), and grow in the grace and knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ (2nd Peter 3:18), but this ongoing process of sanctification requires a lifetime. To demand that a lost sinner commit to living a mature Christian life as a prerequisite to being saved is to horribly pervert the gift of God’s free grace.

Sixth, MacArthur foolishly writes, “

This is the whole point of salvation: it produces a changed life.

” That is simple untrue! The new birth brings the indwelling Holy Spirit, but the new birth itself does not change someone at all. A changed life is the “fruit” of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25); not a result of repentance, which would equate to manmade reformation (works).

I am sick and tired of unsaved Neo-evangelical fools like the leaders at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) and John MacArthur, falsely teaching that the burden to change rests upon the sinner’s shoulders if he or she wants to be saved, or to prove that they are saved.

Again and again throughout the Holy Bible we see lost sinners coming to Christ by faith alone without works (Abel, Joseph, Abram, Moses, David, Habakkuk, the Samaritan woman at Jacob’s well, the Samaritans whom she witnessed to, the Ethiopian Eunuch, Cornelius, the Roman jailer, Paul, the 3,000 on the Day of Pentecost, et cetera), and no one demanded that they first commit to reform, live a better life, follow Christ or surrender all to Jesus as “ to get to Heaven. Satan is a beautiful liar!

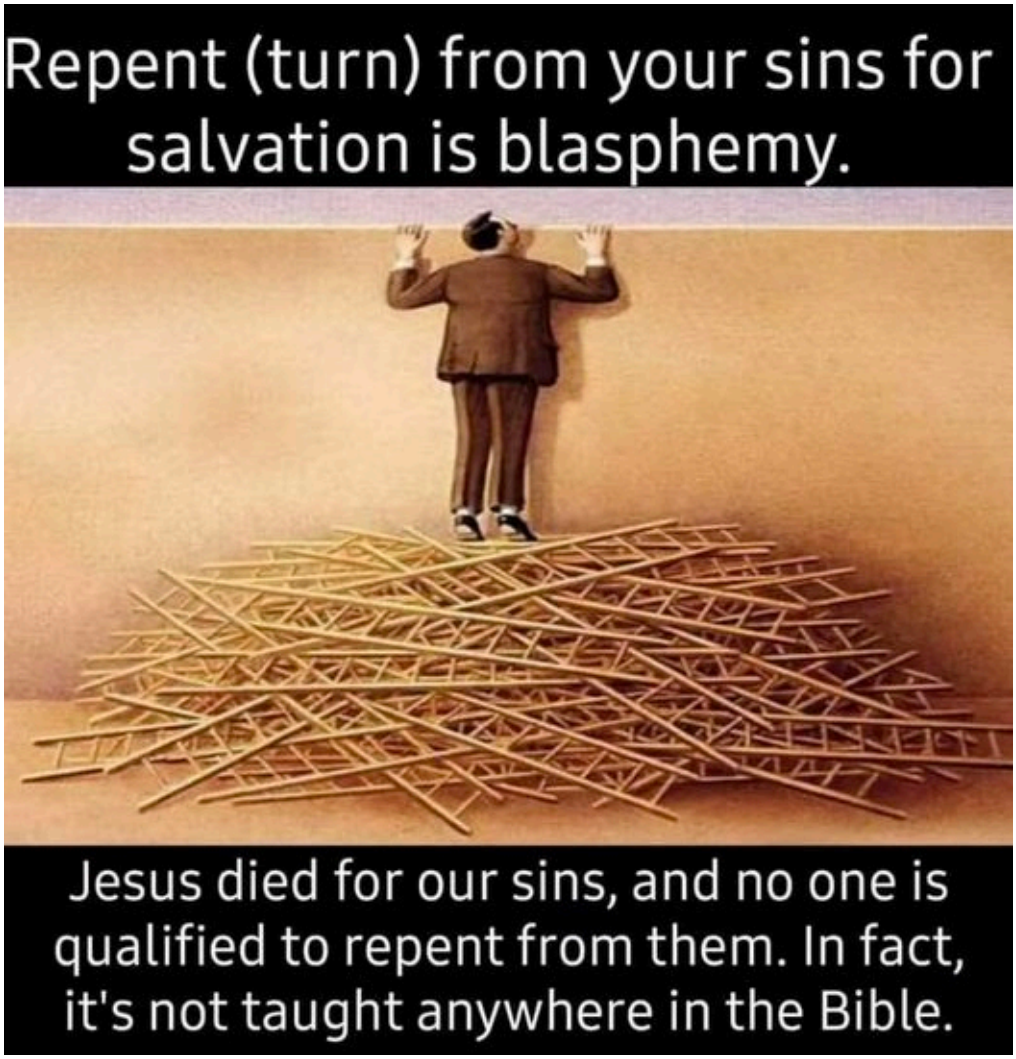
John MacArthur was a very dishonest man in his preaching, wresting the inspired Word of God to his own destruction (2nd Peter 3:16-17). If MacArthur went to Heaven, then there are two different Gospels. Galatians 1:6-7 warns that there is only ONE GOSPEL!!!

The Devil’s fraud of Lordship Salvation mixes and combines service with salvation, perverting God’s saving grace by adding works to faith. True biblical salvation is promised only to those repentant sinners who trust alone in Christ’s sacrifice on the cross, burial and His bodily resurrection three days later. 1st Thessalonians 4:14, “For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.”

I cannot warn everyone enough to RUN from hellbound infidels’ John MacArthur, PCC, R.C. Sproul, Paul Washer, Bob Jones University (BJU), Marty Herron, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola, Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, Faith Baptist Bible College in Iowa, Brad and Bobby Moffett, Billy and Franklin Graham, John Thompson, Jeff Redlin, Joel Osteen, Steven Furtick, The 700 Club, Beth Moore, Joyce Meyer, Ray Comfort, John Hagee, Adrian Rogers, Charles Stanley, Unshackled radio, Chick Tracts, William P. Grady, Sam Gipp, Keith Gomez, Pater S. Ruckman and thousands of other FOOLS who are WRONG on God’s simple plan of salvation. Every one of those woefully ignorant reprobates errantly teach that you must forsake a lifestyle of sinning to be saved; whereas the inspired Holy Bible declares that Jesus Christ came into the world to die on a cross to pay for the sins of the world, that we might be saved through Him (John 3:16-18).

God desires for all of His children to live a life of doing good works (Ephesians 2:10; Matthew 5:16), but this has absolutely NOTHING to do with accepting God’s free gift of eternal life through faith alone in Christ. We are saved through God’s imputed righteousness which is by faith alone in Jesus, and not because we turned from our sinning (which is effectively keeping the Mosaic law to be saved). We are saved by God’s righteousness alone through faith in His only begotten Son, because we have no righteousness to offer God (2nd Corinthians 5:21; Philippians 3:9; Isaiah 64:6). Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.



> “In my opinion, no one is fit for God’s service until he is willing to be considered mad by the world.” —Pastor Dwight L. Moody Repent (turn) from your sins for salvation is blasphemy.

Jesus died for our sins, and no one is qualified to repent from them. In fact, it's not taught anywhere in the Bible.

6.12.23 Devil's Modern Bibles Promote The New World Order (2025-12-23 14:08)

Hebrews 9:8-10, "The Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing: Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience; Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation."

time of reformation

speaks regarding an event that has already happened, that is, the first coming of the Messiah. This phrase has absolutely nothing to do with a future New Order!

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Hebrews 9:10, "
> Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation. "

> NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION (NIV) — Hebrews 9:10, "They are only a matter of food and drink and various ceremonial washings—external regulations applying until the time of the new order."

> GOOD NEWS TRANSLATION (GNB) — Hebrews 9:10, "since they have to do only with food, drink, and various purification ceremonies. These are all outward rules, which apply only until the time when God will establish the new order."

> NEW ENLISH TRANSLATION (NET) — Hebrews 9:10, "They served only for matters of food and drink and various ritual washings; they are external regulations imposed until the new order came."

> COMMON ENGLISH BIBLE (CEB) — Hebrews 9:10, "These are superficial regulations that are only about food, drink, and various ritual ways to wash with water. They are regulations that have been imposed until the time of the new order."

> CHRISTIAN STANDARD BIBLE (CSB) — Hebrews 9:10, "They are physical regulations and only deal with food, drink, and various washings imposed until the time of the new order."

> NEW CATHOLIC BIBLE (NCB) — Hebrews 9:10, "They deal only with food and drink and various ceremonial washings, regulations in regard to the body that are imposed until the coming of the new order."

> CHRISTIAN STANDARD BIBLE (CSB) — Hebrews 9:10, "They are physical regulations and only deal with food, drink, and various washings imposed until the time of the new order."

Every born again Christian needs to know that the term ’[1]New World Order’ is of the Devil.

Occult Symbols On The Back of Every U.S. One Dollar Bill

The eye at the top of The Great Pyramid is the all-seeing-eye of Lucifer (the god of this world according to 2nd Corinthians 4:4). The eye and pyramid are masonic symbols, as well as a symbol used by other occult societies; such as the Order of the Golden Dawn, et cetera.

Nuwaubian Nation,

The origin of the occult symbology goes all the way back to ancient Egypt where the top portion of the pyramid is associated with the sun god Ra. This is why the capstones of the pyramids of Giza were originally covered in electrum—a mix of gold and silver in order to reflect the sun’s light.

It is one of the oldest and most persistent symbols used by man. Its use by occult societies (as well as its ongoing use by the U.S. government, religions, musicians and artists) are all an attempt to utilize some of its power for their own purposes and impart legitimacy to their objects; and therefore, ideologies.

In other words, Satan in this temporary wicked world rewards those who follow him! If you utilize occult symbols to show your allegiance to Satan’s New World Order (which is the Beast system of the coming Man of Sin), the powers of darkness will reward you (John 15:19). ...

Occult Signs of Satan

The very term “

new order

is creepy if you’ve researched the New World Order, as I have since 2002 when I began my web-site ministry!!! I have written [5]numerous articles exposing false religions in which [6]occult symbols are prevalent.

I cannot warn you enough dear reader to avoid the Devil's modern Bible revisions. If you love Jesus Christ as His redeemed child (1st Peter 2:7), then you should hate the Devil's modern Bible revisions which belittle Him, deny His deity, pervert the Greek meaning of repentance, obliterate the godhead and remove entire chapters of God's inspired Word. Satan's evil minions are working to replace theology with spirituality in the today's churches.

It should be quite obvious to you dear friend that the mention of the "

New Order

" in many of Satan's modern Bible revisions was put there by wicked men, not godly Christians. 2nd Corinthians 2:17, " For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ. " There have been evil Bible corrupters in every generation, who tamper with the eternally inspired Word of God. Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar."

6.12.24 The False Gospel Of The "Yee Yee Life" YouTube Channel (2025-12-24 17:10)

Galatians 1:6-8, "

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed."

I was watching an intriguing video today on YouTube in which a man named Parker is shooting various types of guns at several stainless steel frying pans, to see how many pans each different type of weapon can penetrate. I love stuff like this! Here's the video...

How Bulletproof are Frying Pans?

About halfway through the video Parker explains that he is a Christian, that is, he believes that Jesus is whom He claimed to be, the only begotten Son of God, the very Christ. I fully agree with him on that truth. However, at the end of the video Parker unfortunately ADDS turning from your sins to be saved, which is false teaching. Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." Nowhere does the inspired King James Bible, nor the available copies of the ancient Hebrew and Greek manuscripts of Scripture, require that you repent of your sinning to be saved. You don't repent AND believe to be saved; you repent TO believe to be saved, Repentance facilitates (makes possible) believing. If you didn't change your mind (repent), then you'd never turn from your unbelief to be saved.

Now, I'm sure in defense of repenting of your sins to be saved some Smart Alec will cite John 3:20, "

For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. " Ostensibly this passage seems to teach that you must turn from your love of sin to be saved. However, please don't leave out

John 3:21, " But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God." The Word of God doesn't say,

"But he that turneth from his sins" cometh to the light; it reads "But he that doeth truth" cometh to the light to be saved.

The Apostle Paul sheds further light on this obscure passage of Scripture in 2nd Timothy 2:25-26, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

" Amen! Repentance in the Bible concerning the new birth never means to turn away from sinning, it means to acknowledge THE TRUTH.

One of my favorite Bible teachers is Pastor Brad Strand. I recently purchased his '[1]The Strand Study Bible.' I love it so much that I bought four of them (three used). Here is Brother Strand's commentary for 2nd Corinthians 7:8...

> Repentance may include "remorse" (made you sorry), but remorse is not repentance. If so, then Judas repented because he was remorseful over what he had done to Christ (Mt 27:3). You can weep over sin and even express great remorse, but until you "change your mind" as to who you are and who Christ is and agree with God (Mt 3:2), you have not repented biblically.
> Repentance may include "sorrow" (you were made sorry), but sorrow for sin is not repentance. Hell is full or sorrow, but only for the consequences of sin. The rich man who died and went to Hell uttered not a word of sorrow for his sin, only sorrow for his pain (Lk 16:19-31). You can weep over sin and even express great regret, but until you "change your mind" as to who you are and who Christ is and agree with God, you have not repented biblically.
>
> Repentance may include "conviction" (after a godly manner), but conviction is not repentance. If so, then Felix repented when he trembled before Paul (Acts 24:24-25). You may be convicted that you are a sinner and even admit that you are lost, but repentance is a two-sided coin. You not only have to "change your mind" as to who you are, you have to also "change your mind" as to who Christ is and call upon Him to be your Savior (Rom 10:9-13). Otherwise, you have not repented biblically.
> SOURCE: Pastor Brad Strand, "The Strand Study Bible," p. 1938

I am so thankful for Pastor Strand, that he is one of few preachers today who gets repentance correct. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) in a sermon titled, "[2]A Vote For Preaching," spoke in [3]this excerpt about the false gospel of Lordship Salvation which is unfortunately being preached from nearly every pulpit today. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

Getting back to the initiate topic, in response to Parker's interesting but heretical video on YouTube, I posted this kind response in the comments (hopefully he will heed the truth)...

> Kindly said Parker, I love your video and was glad at first to rejoice when you boldly proclaimed your faith in Jesus, but then you ruined it at the end by perverting God's simple plan of salvation. Unless you are using one of Satan's modern corrupt English Bible previsions, the trustworthy inspired King James Bible nowhere defines "repentance" as "turning from your sins." The Greek noun for "repent" concerning salvation is always metanoia (a change of mind), and the verb metanoeo (to think differently). Turning from sin is the English dictionary's meaning of "repent," but it is not the biblical Greek meaning.
> When God calls on you to "repent, and believe the Gospel" in Mark 1;15, He wishes for you to lay aside your wrong thoughts, and believe the Glad Tidings (i.e., Jesus' death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection) that He proclaims to you (1 Corinthians 15:1-6). It was ignorant but sincere theologians who added turning from sins as a prerequisite to being born again (Proverbs 14;12).
> I encourage you to read the writings of true free grace preachers such as Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951). In his Gospel tract titled, "[4]What Is The Gospel?," Pastor Ironside accurately writes these words:

> “The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past …Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all.”

I encourage you to read books by Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), Dr. Mark G. Cambron (1911-2000) and Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023), which doctrinally sound Bible study books are available for free online).

In particular, I encourage you to read Michael P. Bowen’s helpful book in defense of a free grace Gospel, "[5]I Never Knew You," which is also freely available to read in .pdf format online. Right doctrine matters my friend.

I understand from your video that you first responded to a religious invitation concerning Christ in 2021, but what you responded to simply wasn’t the Gospel if you turned away from your sinning to be saved, it was manmade tradition and not the commandment of God (Mark 7:9).

When the Philippian jailer asked Paul and Silas what he must do to be saved, their simple answer in Acts 16:31 was to, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ." They didn’t instruct the Roman jailer to turn from his sins to be saved.

When the Apostle Peter preached the Gospel to Cornelius and his friends in Acts chapter 10, at no point in his presentation did Peter instruct them to turn away from their sins to be saved. Since the only sin that can prevent us from going to Heaven is unbelief, then to be saved we must turn from unbelief (or "dead works" as Hebrews 6:1 mentions) to trust Jesus Christ.

In John 20:31 the Apostle John says the purpose for which he penned the Gospel of John is to convince the reader that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God. The book of John is God’s Gospel tract for humanity. At no point does John teach to forsake one’s sinful ways to get to Heaven, which would constitute works for salvation (Romans 3:20).

In John 6:28-29 when some people asked Jesus what they must do to work the works of God, the dear Savior simply replied, "This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." Again, Jesus did NOT tell them to turn from their sins.

To place one’s faith in Jesus Christ is to turn from the awfulness and condemnation that sin brings. But this is vastly different than having a willingness to make an effort to stop sinning, which is works. We are saved by believing, not by repenting, but a person MUST repent to be saved. That is, they must change their mind from unbelief to belief. You and I contribute nothing to salvation except the sin that made it necessary.

The plain truth is that those false converts who think they have "turned from their sins" to be saved are still full of sinful thoughts and ways. The only thing that makes me any more righteous than the vilest hellbound sinner is the precious blood of Jesus that washed my sins away the moment I got saved at age 13 in 1980.

There is no such thing as turning from one's sins, only being forgiven of our sins through faith in Jesus. A changed life is NOT the result of genuine repentance unto life (the new birth); but rather, a changed life is the "fruit" of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-24). But a redeemed child of God must choose daily to walk in the Spirit, or by default we will walk in the flesh (Galatians 5:25). The former is salvation (Galatians 3:26), the latter is service (Romans 12;1). One has nothing to do with the other. Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) explains it very well...

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness."
> —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

Biblically, a lost sinner need only come to God on the basis that they are a guilty sinner, and by faith (taking God at His recorded Word in the Scripture) trust in the Good News of the blessed crucified, buried and risen Savior to get to Heaven. The moment that a lost sinner by faith receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for his sins, believing that Christ was buried but is risen, that sinner is instantly, irrevocably and forever saved by God's grace alone.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

6.12.25 Whatever Happened To Christmas? (2025-12-25 09:40)

Luke 2:8-12, "And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger."

SANTA OR JESUS?

First, let me say that I loathe the crazy people on social media who love to condemn anyone who dares to recognize Christmas as a holiday. I see nothing wrong, inappropriate or unbiblical about honoring the birth of our dear Savior, the only begotten Son of God, Jesus.

That being said, Christmas for most Americans has lost its true meaning because of the commercialization of Christmas by greedy corporations. The National Retail Federation predicts that retail sales in November and December 2025 will grow between 3.7 % and 4.2 % over 2024, totaling between $1.01 trillion and $1.02 trillion. This follows a 4.3 % increase in 2024, reaching $976.1 billion. Wow! Americans spend a staggering one trillion dollars each year for Christmas. Great fluffy biscuits in the morning!

-mas,

to the name of

Satan

8912 rearranged to spell “Santa,”

to the covetousness of the holiday, Christmas is no longer the Christ-honoring

” (aka, holiday) that it was originally intended to be for Americans, which observed holiday began in the 4th century AD. The wicked world long ago decided to rid Christmas of Christ, thus “X-mas” was created. Only a dishonest ungodly fool would even dare try to legitimate such an insidious term. Christmas stopped feeling like Christmas in America a long time ago.

Unbelievably there are actually some fools who try to justify changing “Christ” into “X.” A woman emailed me, trying to prove that “X-mas” is an appropriate term to use. Nice try Devil! I love my Savior and would never dishonor His precious name by referring to Him as “

It is sinful to use the term

“

X-mas.

” Remember, anything can be justified in the mind of a darn fool.

Singing Idolatrous Praises To A Christmas Tree

All I hear on the radio is praises being sung to Santa Claus, Rudolph the Red-nosed Reindeer, Little Saint Nick and a Christmas Tree. Below are the idolatrous lyrics to the song [1]’O CHRISTMAS TREE’ (Glee’s 2010 version!) ...

O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree!
How are thy leaves so verdant!
O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree,
How are thy leaves so verdant!

Not only in the summertime,
But even in winter is thy prime.
O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree,
How are thy leaves so verdant!

O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree,
Much pleasure doth thou bring me!
O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree,
Much pleasure doth thou bring me!

For every year the Christmas tree,
Brings to us all both joy and glee.
O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree,

Much pleasure doth thou bring me!

O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree,
Thy candles shine out brightly!
O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree,
Thy candles shine out brightly!

Each bough doth hold its tiny light,
That makes each toy to sparkle bright.
O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree,
Thy candles shine out brightly

If you can't see what's wrong with the above song, then you certainly need to get right with God. At Christmas time, the world sings praises to decorated pine trees. Few people realize that tree worship began in ancient heathen Babylon. Jeremiah 10:2 reads, "Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them. For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe. They deck it with silver and with gold..."

The whole concept of decorating a tree at Christmas time is pagan in origin, not taught in the Word of God. Christmas is not taught in the Bible.

That being said, as a born again Christian I am also a normal and reasonable man. I see no harm in setting up a Christmas tree and decorating it to enjoy the holiday season each year, just so long as you don't bow down to worship or pray to the tree. I have heard fools try to use Jeremiah 10:2 to condemn having a Christmas tree, but that is poor theology. The Babylonian's worshipped their decorated trees. I have always exposed the wacky cult of Jehovah's Witnesses for forbidding their members to have a Christmas tree. That is ridiculous!

The inspired Holy Bible doesn't tell us the date when Jesus was born. It's not an issue with God. My guess is that God the Father didn't want men worshipping the day Jesus was born more than Christ Himself. No doubt that is why God buried Moses, lest the Jews worship his immortalized dead body (Deuteronomy 34:5-7).

The important message of Christmas is that God the Father sent His Son into the world to save sinners (John 3:16-17). The main truth of Christmas that we should recognize is the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Jesus is the Father's gift to humanity! Most heathens believe that a man named Jesus was born, but few believe that Jesus was almighty God in the flesh.

I've never heard so much disgraceful music as I've heard on the radio at Christmas time. It's sickening! Many Christmas songs have a rock music beat. Others are sang by known homo-sexuals. Some songs are sang so fast that it's utterly annoying. There's songs about wanting front teeth for Christmas, going on a sleigh ride, drinking hot chocolate—anything to remove Jesus Christ from the minds of people. It's so sad.

It's like a broken tooth and a foot out of joint to hear the despicable wicked entertainer Dolly Parton singing Christmas carols.

In 1982 Dolly starred in a vile movie titled, 'The Best Little Whorehouse In Texas.' The ungodly movie is still highly sought by ungodly sinners today. Do you know what the movie is about? It is about a town sheriff and other regular patrons of a whorehouse, who fight to keep the whorehouse open when a TV preacher targets it as the Devil's playhouse. Dolly just re-recorded an old Led Zeppelin song, ' [2]Stairway To Heaven .' Then there's Johnny Cash's Christmas album. Did you know Mr. Cash re-recorded two songs by Glenn Danzig, who is a creepy known Satanist? The world love their own (John 15:19).

In a music video, [3]Glenn Danzig is seen spewing hatred for the Lord Jesus Christ while proudly wearing a logo that he designed for his band—a demon strangling Jesus Christ with blood gushing from Jesus' eyes! I'm not trying to be unkind, I'm just being honest when I tell you that Satan is infiltrating everything nowadays. No Christ-honoring Christian should listen to the music of Dolly Parton, Johnny Cash or any other entertainer who promotes Satan.

So, no thank you, I don't want to hear ungodly unrepentant sinners like Dolly Pardon and Johnny Cash sing Christmas songs about my blessed Savior. I would rather watch a dog poop on my lawn than listen to a [4]wicked Satanic whore like Taylor Swift sing about her twisted version of Jesus at Christmas time. Taylor Swift is a daughter of her father the Devil.

The Clever Deception Of Satan Claus

The invention of Santa is pure evil. Santa Claus is wicked. Santa is of the Devil. Did you ever stop to realize that Santa Claus is a clone of the Lord Jesus, intended to replace Jesus in the minds of little children. Just as Jesus knows all, so does Santa. Santa knows if you've been bad or good, something that ONLY God could know (Proverb 15:3). Santa brings unlimited amounts of goodness and gifts to the world, but the Bible says that all good things come only from God (James 1:17). It is not a mere coincidence that Santa is omnipotent, omniscient and omnipresent—all qualities which only God is capable of having.

Santa is always pictured as a jolly and righteous fellow, but ONLY Jesus is without sin (2nd Corinthians 5:17). Santa has superpowers: He is able to make reindeers fly, speak all languages, travel the entire world in one night, able to deliver billions of pounds of presents overnight; but the Bible teaches that ONLY the Lord Jesus Christ can do all things (Jeremiah 32:27). Santa also comes down a chimney, representing Christ who will return from above.

Clearly, everything about Santa Claus is a demonic imitation of our precious Savior. Santa Claus is the great imposter, a phony and a fake!!! This is why I call Santa, "

Satan Claus.

Little children are extremely impressionable and gullibly do believe that Santa exists. The consequences of such wickedness is to effectively block Jesus Christ out of a child's mind. Little children spend thousands of hours during each year thinking about Satan Claus, while ignoring the Lord God Who created them. John 1:10,

He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

Dear parents, I am a father of four children myself. They are all grown now, in their thirties. I and my wife Alice have eight grandchildren. I believe it is okay to have fun with Santa Claus, just so long as you tell your children the truth upfront, not afterwards. Let them know truthfully that Santa Claus is fiction, but Jesus is real. On that basis you can enjoy the holidays, just so long as we don’t lose sight of what Christmas is all about.

I don’t know about you, but I love God and want His thoughts with me all the time. Here’s one of my favorite Scriptures, which tells us perhaps why David was a man after God’s own heart. Psalms 139:17, “How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!” David loved God’s thoughts! If you want God’s heart, it must begin with God’s thoughts. Oh how precious is the inspired and perfect King James Bible!!!

You can keep your lousy Christmas tree songs. I’ll sing, ’O Jesus Christ!’ I’ll sing, ’Oh Word of God!’ I’ll sing, ’Oh Holy Spirit!’ Meanwhile you can sing, ’Oh Christmas tree!’

[5]Ingrates Worship Christmas Trees Instead of Jesus Christ (’Oh Christmas Tree’ garbage)

There’s nothing wrong or unbiblical with exchanging gifts at Christmas time. It’s innocent fun. But please don’t get caught up into the ungodly world’s covetousness idea of Christmas. Christmas only becomes evil when you have forgotten the dear Savior, who is also our Creator (John 1:3 - King James Bible).

6.12.26 We Are Saved By Believing, Not By Repenting (2025-12-26 10:42)

Mark 1:14-15, “

Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.”

The reason why I write on the topic of repentance quite often is simply because it is probably the most debated and misunderstood subject in the inspired Holy Bible.

Do we repent AND believe, or do we repent TO believe? Preachers and theologians wrangle over this question incessantly, oftentimes in heated debates. I strongly contend that we repent TO believe. That is, repentance is included in believing. This is why the word “believe” appears 85 times in the Gospel of John (which is God’s Gospel tract according to John 20:31), but the word “

does not appear even once. The man who believes on the Lord Jesus Christ has repented! That is, he has changed his mind from unbelief to belief.

I love how [1]Evangelist Alexander Marshall (1846-1928) explains repentance...

“I HAVE NOT REPENTED ENOUGH”

What do you mean? “I am not sorry enough for my sins.”

And if you were very sorry, would God be more willing to save you than He is now? “I think so.”

> Then you are completely mistaken.
>
> Yes; but what do you think is the Scriptural significance of “repentance”? If you say “sorrow for sin” you are wrong. It does not mean sorrow for sin: it means a CHANGE OF MIND (Matt. 21:29). This change will doubtless produce sorrow; but sorrow and repentance are two very different things (Heb. 12:17. margin, and II Cor. 7:9). When God calls on you to “repent, and believe the Gospel,” He wishes you to lay aside your wrong thoughts, and believe the glad tidings that He proclaims to you. Formerly you may have imagined that you were required to feel very sorry before being saved. Change your mind. You may have supposed you must first “feel” some great change in order to know you were saved. Change your mind. First believe in God’s great love to you, as revealed in His gospel, and you will KNOW that you have eternal life (John 5:24).

Yes, that is excellent. Mr. Marshall is 100 % correct! Marshall plainly recognizes that sinners are saved by BELIEVING THE GOSPEL; that is, he says, “to lay aside your wrong thoughts [Repentance] and believe the glad tidings [Gospel] that He proclaims to you.” This is the simplicity that is in Christ. The Gospel is simple. Anyone who simply BELIEVES IT is saved. Even a small child can do that.

If you want to go to Heaven, simply by faith (taking God at His written Word) receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as full-payment for your sins, believing that Jesus was buried, but then physically resurrected from the dead three days later. This is ’THE GOSPEL’ (1st Corinthians 15:1-6), by which all who BELIEVE IT are instantly and permanently saved (Romans 1:16).

So, to clarify, you don’t have to change your sinful ways to be saved. Behavior modification has nothing to do with God’s free gift of eternal life. God is giving you something for free; not you giving or trading something in exchange for salvation. Jesus doesn’t forgive sin. You read correct. Jesus has already paid for everyone’s sins with His blood. That is why the Bible calls eternal life a “ three times in Romans 5:15-18. A gift is a take proposition, not a give proposition.

6.12.27 Six Reasons Why You Don’t Need To Repent Of Your Sins To Be Saved (2025-12-27 11:03)

Unfortunately, false religion has infiltrated many once doctrinally sound New Testament churches, perverting their doctrine and turning them into religious cults.

One of the biggest deceptions which Satan has crept into churches today is False Repentance (human reformation).

In his helpful book titled: 'Enemies Of Soul Winning,' Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) gives six reasons why you DO NOT need to repent of your sins to be saved:

1. God says to the unsaved, "Repent of your unbelief."

It's very interesting that in I John the word "repentance" is never mentioned, and yet the purpose of I John was to give people the assurance of salvation. I John 5:13, "These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God." Of course, repentance is certainly implied throughout the entire book, because the book tells us that what saves is believing on Christ (or relying on Him) to save, which, of course, implies that that person must repent of what makes him lost, which is unbelief.

2. God says to the saved people, "Repent of sin."

This is done by the Holy Spirit as He comes in to live to remind us to take the clothes off the bedpost, the shirt off the chair, put the shoes into the closet, etc.

3. If a person must repent of his sins to be saved, of what sins must he repent?

Can he repent of all of them? Isn't that sinless perfection or holiness? Isn't that salvation by works? Of what sin must one repent? He must repent of the sin that makes him lost, and that's the sin of unbelief.

4. If turning from sins would get you saved, then turning back to sins would get you lost.

In Acts 16:30 the very simple question is asked, "What must I do to be saved?" This is the one time in the Bible where this question is asked. Now the answer to this question must be what saves a person. Acts 16:31, "And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." There's the answer—belief. There is nothing about repentance here, except, yes, there is something about repentance, because you can't believe without repenting from unbelief.

5. If a person has to clean up his own life before he gets saved, we are back to Arminianism or salvation by works.

6. We cannot do what the Holy Spirit can do.

The Holy Spirit first convicts us of our sin of unbelief to bring us to Christ. Once He brings us to Christ, He comes in us to live. Romans 8:9, "But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his." I Corinthians 6:19, 20, "What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s."

Then when the Holy Spirit is in us, He begins to convict us of things in our lives that should be changed. Then the Christian life becomes a constant repenting until we wake in the likeness of Christ.

SOURCE: Pastor Jack Hyles, ’ [1]Enemies Of Soul Winning ’; chapter 4, ’ [2]Misunderstood Repentance ’

Amen and amen! Not one verse in the inspired King James Bible teaches that to get to Heaven you must forsake a lifestyle of sinning. Neither does the inspired Word of God teach that you must “be willing” to turn away from sinful bad habits. Yet, in nearly every Baptist church today, you will hear such blatant lies preached from the pulpit, telling lost sinners that if they desire to go to Heaven they must forsake their past sinful ways, and promise to do their best to follow Christ for the rest of their life. No such teachings are found in the Holy Bible.

In God’s true plan of salvation, you simply come to God as a wretched sinner with nothing to offer, because we have nothing to offer God. Our best self-righteousness is utter contemptible filth to God (Isaiah 64:6). You come to God just as you are, as a hellbound wretched sinner! Someone is saved the moment they receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as full-payment for their sins, believing that Jesus was buried, but then resurrected bodily from the dead three days later. This is “

(1st Corinthians 15:1-6), by which all who BELIEVE IT are saved instantly and permanently (Romans 1:16).

Judas repented of his sins and still went to Hell (Matthew 27:3). That is because you cannot be saved by turning from your sins. Judas felt guilt (penitence). He returned the 30 pieces of silver (penance). He had turned from his sins (reformation). But dear reader, you don’t get to Heaven through penitence, penance and reformation; you go to Heaven because you trust (rely, faith) in the name of the only begotten Son of God. John 20:31,

“But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.” Are you starting to get the big picture?

When a sincere but misguided preacher insists that you must repent AND believe, teaching that you must be willing to turn from your sinful bad habits to be saved, he is preaching another gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). That man is a bold-faced liar! Not one verse in the entire inspired Word of God requires that you be willing to forsake a sinful lifestyle, give up the world, turn over a new leaf, change your bad behavior or surrender “ all

to Christ to be saved.

One of my favorite free grace preachers is Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951), who wrote these edifying words in his Gospel tract titled, ’What Is The Gospel?’ ...

> “The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is Good News to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past …Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all.”
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the tract: ’[3]What Is The Gospel?’

I couldn’t have said it any better myself. I sure appreciate guys like Harry Ironside, who fully understood God’s simple plan of salvation. While in the whale’s belly, the prophet Jonah pondered the biblical truth that, **“

Salvation is of the LORD

(Jonah 2:9b). The only thing that we contribute to our own salvation is the sin that made it necessary. Right doctrine matters!

There are two great divisions today in the evangelical world:

1. NEO-EVANGELICALS - The first group is the “r epent of your sins

   crowd. These are neo-evangelicals (and neo-fundamentalists who masquerade as fundamentalists). This is the Lordship Salvation camp who combine (mix) works with grace, service with salvation, discipleship with sonship, and sanctification with justification. This group errantly preaches that you must repent AND believe. Their perverse grasp of repentance is viewed as a sincere desire to cease from one’s past sinful behavior, and commit to live a changed life moving forward. This group includes Pensacola Christian College, Bob Jones University, Faith Baptist Bible College, ’Unshackled’ radio, Pacific Garden Mission, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, et cetera.

2. FUNDAMENTALISTS - This is the easy-believism camp. The man who believes has automatically repented. That is, he has laid aside his wrong thoughts to embrace faith in the Good news of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen. Service must be kept separate from salvation. Discipleship must be kept separate from sonship. Repentance is simply a change of mind, nothing more. You change your mind to believe the Gospel, which is what Mark 1:15 means. One’s behavior or attitude toward one’s behavior has absolutely nothing to do with receiving God’s free gift of eternal life, which Jesus has already paid for in full with His precious blood. Such free grace preachers include: Harry Ironside, Jack Hyles, Curtis Hutson, Steven Anderson, M.R. DeHaan, Max Younce, Ralph Yankee Arnold, Hank Lindstrom, Ray Stanford and John Bunyan.

Galatians 1:6-9 teaches that there is only one Gospel, not two or more. Of the two preceding plans of salvation, either one or both may be false, but both cannot be correct.

6.12.28 Pastor Erwin W. Lutzer Is A Darn Fool (2025-12-29 12:16)

Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work."

Moody Church pastor emeritus Erwin W. Lutzer (born 1941) is a darn fool!

Pastor Lutzer [1]wrote a tribute to Pastor Charles C. Ryrie (1925-2016). Dr. Ryrie was a faithful free grace preacher who exposed Dr. John MacArthur's (1939-2025) damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation.

In the tribute, Pastor Lutzer writes:

> In response to MacArthur's book, Ryrie published So Great Salvation, which argued for the free offer of the gospel to sinners. I suspect that many of his students, like myself, have *found a happy balance between the two views; but in the minds of MacArthur and Ryrie, their disagreement was clear. [emphasis added]
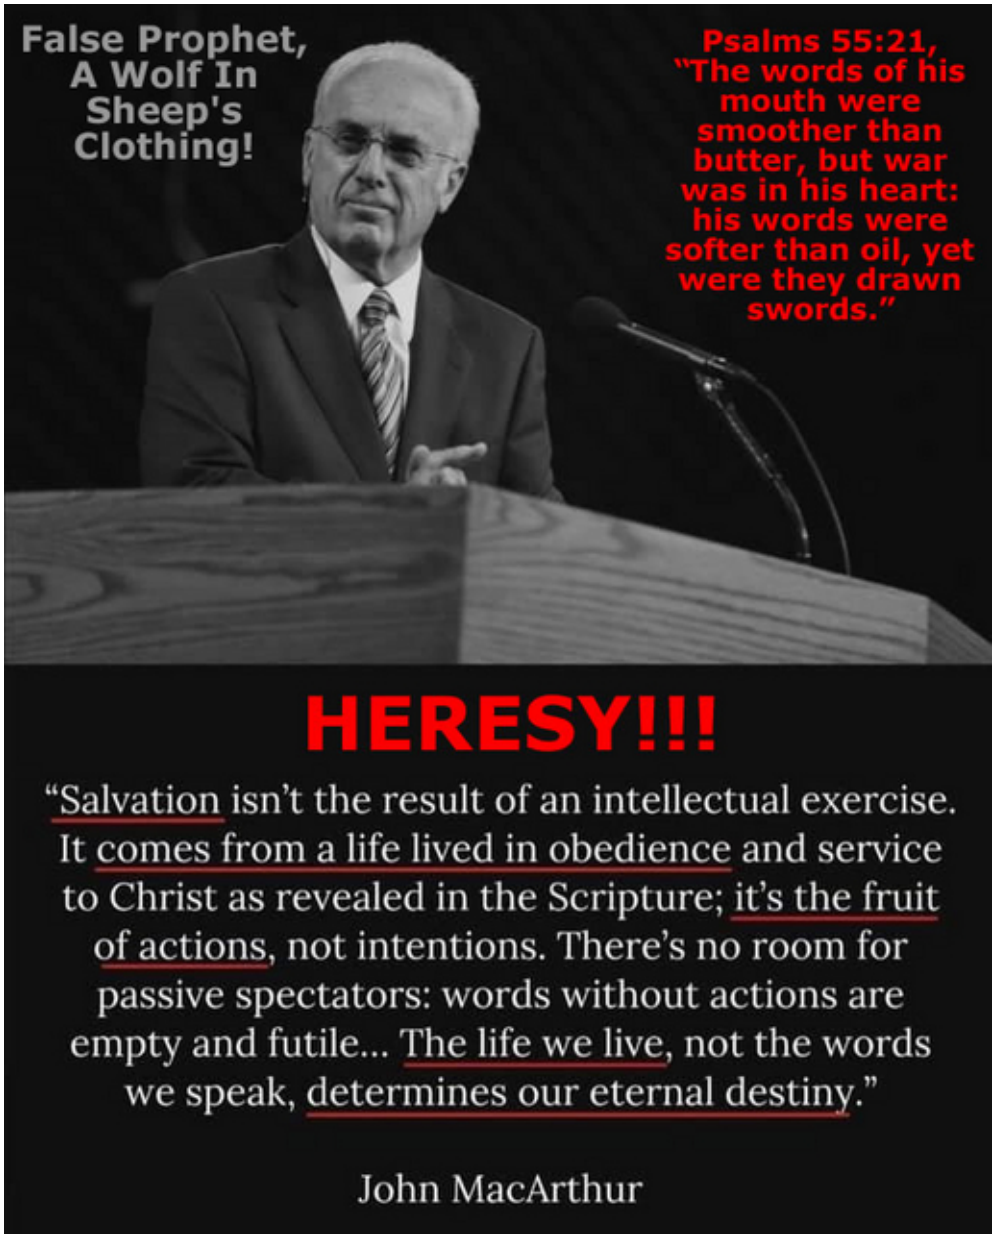
> SOURCE: [2]https://www.moodymedia.org/blog/2016/02/tribute-dr-ryrie/

No, no, no, no, there is no "happy balance between the two views"! There can be no "happy balance" between the deadly deception of Lordship Salvation and a free grace Gospel!



What is going on here is clear to see, Pastor Lutzer is a dead skunk. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) used to wisely say that the only thing you'll find driving in the middle of the road are a bunch of dead skunks. Lutzer is straddling the fence, playing both sides of the debate to play it “safe,” lest he make enemies. I hate that kind of cowardice. The good Lord calls it being “lukewarm” and He vomits such wicked compromisers out of His mouth (Revelation 3:15-17).

Erwin Lutzer is just another incompetent clown pastor today who should have been fired decades earlier. No, there is no “happy balance” Mr. Lutzer between Bible truth and damnable heresy! Shame on the Moody Publishers in Chicago for printing all of John MacArthur’s toxic books which promote his damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation. Shame on Moody Church for inviting and honoring John MacArthur at the annual Founder’s Week conferences. Shame on Moody Bible Institute for [3]wickedly bidding Godspeed to John MacArthur.

[4]Lordship Salvation is a gross perversion of God’s Gospel of grace, which requires service and discipleship to validate salvation and sonship. No such conditional salvation is taught in the inspired King James Bible. The only type of salvation which God offers is eternal life, not probationary life. Salvation is received, not achieved. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. Sadly, John MacArthur is burning in the everlasting fires of Hell. Galatians 1:6-9 warns that there are not two gospels. There is only one Gospel (1st Corinthians 15;1-6).

I love learning about astronomy. I have been watching hundreds of YouTube videos about astronomy. Sadly, unless you specifically include “God” in your search, you won’t find Him in the videos. The vast majority of popular scientists are agnostics and atheists, who attribute the creation of the universe and all therein to natural occurrences and evolution.

Case in point, according to Geology Science the ocean formed from cooling lava...

> The exact timing of the formation of the oceans is still debated among geologists, but most scientists believe that they formed around 4 billion years ago, shortly after the formation of the Earth. The most widely accepted theory for the formation of the oceans is that they were created by volcanic activity that released water vapor into the atmosphere, which then condensed and formed the oceans.
> SOURCE: [1]https://geologyscience.com/geology/the-formation-and-evolution-of-oceans /

That is so foolish to teach. Anyone with a working brain knows that cooling lava could never produce the massive oceans of the earth, with a shocking depth of 36,037 feet (that’s deeper than Mount Everest’s height). There is simply no way that cooling lava could produce enough water to form the gargantuan oceans. That is common sense dear reader. When someone rejects the reality of God, insanity ensues!

According to some insane writers at Wikipedia, the oceans were formed by meteorites...

> The water must have been supplied by meteorites from the outer asteroid belt and some large planetary embryos from beyond 2.5 AU. Comets may also have contributed.
> SOURCE: [2]https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/History _of _Earth

And then there’s the ’Science News Today’ website, whose writer

Muhammad Tuhin says

> Scientists believe that Earth’s oceans began forming around 4.4 billion years ago, less than 200 million years after the planet’s formation. There are two main theories about where this water came from. One posits that water was released from within the planet through volcanic activity. As the molten surface cooled, steam from eruptions condensed and fell as rain—millions upon millions of years of rain. Another theory suggests that water-rich comets and asteroids bombarded the young Earth, delivering ice that melted into the vast basins.
> SOURCE: [3]https://www.sciencenewstoday.org/the-evolution-of-earths-ocean s-and-their-role-in-life

Those are very wicked words, because the inspired Holy Bible already teaches us that God made the earth and the oceans, not nature.

Revelation 14:7, “ Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters*." Anyone who attributes the origin of mankind and the universe to natural occurrences is the enemy of God.

I'd say that you couldn't make this stuff up, but that's exactly what wicked sinners have done, ridding their thinking of God. What saith the inspired Scripture? ...

> Romans 1:28, "And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them."

The Holy Bible just described perverse America today! When God is removed from the equation, [4]disaster results every time. I assure you that crime will become much worse! Science without God is utter foolishness.

According to crazy Wikipedia, life mysteriously began from chemical reactions...

> The first step in the emergence of life may have been chemical reactions that produced many of the simpler organic compounds, including nucleobases and amino acids, that are the building blocks of life.
> SOURCE: [5]https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/History _of _Earth

Dear reader, many chemical reactions have produced deadly explosions, but NO ONE has ever created life with chemicals. You'd have to be a very stupid person to accept any of these bizarre claims as being legitimate science. 1st Timothy 6:20-21, "

O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called:

Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen."

God Alone Is The Creator Of The Universe

Dear friend, I could go on and on for days, literally, showing you the millions of webpages, books and videos documentaries which attribute the creation of the universe, stars, earth, oceans and all life to mere natural occurrences, without a single mention of God. It is wickedness not to glorify our Creator!

> Daniel 5:23b, "...and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified."

The inspired Word of God repeatedly declares that the living God created heaven, earth, the seas and all therein. ...

> Acts 14:13-16, “Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people. Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out, And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein: Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.”

The prophet Jonah declared in the 8th century BC...

> Jonah 1:7-9, “
>
> And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.
>
> Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?
>
> And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.

What an insult and wicked thing for today’s scientists to completely ignore God. They are afraid of being ridiculed, mocked and scorned in laughter by heathen peers, if they dare to attribute the creation of the universe to God. Ge:1:16, “

And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.

” I love that add-on at the end of the sentence that “ he made the stars also.

” Wow! Astronomers tell us that so far they’ve discovered approximately [6]two hundred sextillion stars. That’s 200,000,000,000,000,000,000,000 stars!

The vast majority of astronomers are arrogant fools. Case in point is Brian Jackson at Astronomy.com who arrogantly makes this stupid statement...

> “Yet astronomers like me have figured out how to estimate the total number of stars in the universe, which is everything that exists.”
> SOURCE: [7]https://www.astronomy.com/science/astro-for-kids-how-many-star s-are-there-in-space/

What an arrogant and untrue thing to say, claiming to know how many stars are in the universe! What he should have said was "the known universe," not the "universe." NO ONE except God who created the universe knows how many stars exist. God knows exactly how many stars He made and He has a name for every one of them. Psalms 147:4, " He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names. " Humanity cannot see beyond 46,500,000,000 lightyears into the universe (a total of 93,000,000,000 lightyears wide). Man simply does not know what lies beyond the reaches of the known universe. Psalms 145:3, " Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable."

The inspired Word of God teaches that the omnipotent LORD made the oceans.

John 1:3 teaches that the Lord Jesus Christ is the Creator of all things. John 1:1-5, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not. "

Humanity will NEVER be able to determine how big the universe is, nor when it began. Brilliant astronomer Edwin Hubble discovered that the universe is expanding in 1929. His observations showed that galaxies are moving away from us, with their speed is increasing the farther they are from Earth. Based on this scientific fact alone, scientists developed the "Big Bang" theory of creation, estimated to have happened 13,800,000,000 years ago. Scientists arrived at this calculation based upon the rate of expansion of the known universe.

As a born again Christian for 46 years since age 12 in 1979, I am strongly convinced that the earth is billions of years old, as legitimate science evidences. I reject the quackery of "Young Earth Creation" (YEC) science, so-called. I mean, to accept YEC you would have to believe that dinosaurs roamed the earth 5,000 years ago. If dinosaurs were alive 5,000 years ago, then where did they go? Some fools claim that Noah left the dinosaurs behind. I reject that nonsense.

Someone handed me a book years ago, trying to convince me of a Young Earth theory. The book is titled: "THE CREATION ANSWERS BOOK" co-authored by Don Batten, David Catchpoole, Jonathan Sarfati, Carl Wieland and various other contributing writers. I learned a long time ago that someone's most ridiculous argument is the most damning information against them, which can be used to discredit the rest of their work or beliefs.

The most ridiculous information (argument) put forth in the book "THE CREATION ANSWERS BOOK" is concerning dinosaurs and man co-existing. The four authors teach that Noah took baby dinosaurs onto the ark, which is the same garbage that Ken Ham teaches.

On pages 247-248 of the

we read:

> "Given the different dinosaur species that have been identified, and the huge size of some of them [e.g., Seismosaurus, on the basis of fossil reconstructions attained lengths of 45 meters (150 feet)], some people might wonder how Noah could have taken all the dinosaur kinds onto the Ark. However, when one considers the following, there is no problem.

1. Only around 55 dinosaur 'kinds'

> In Chapter 13, we discussed how Noah did not need to take all species (a notoriously flexible concept) on board the Ark, but only pairs of each created kind. The same principle applies to dinosaurs. So Noah's Ark did not have to carry the 668 or so named species of dinosaurs, rather, just the representative 'kinds' (Genesis 6:20)—of which it has been estimated there were only 55."

At the bottom of page 248, the book has a footnote that claims there are many duplicate names for dinosaurs, and that the actual number of species is "greatly inflated." This claim may actually have some merit, as [8]National Geographic reports. However, as the National Geographic article says, there is not enough fossil evidence to prove the claim one way or the other. [9]Wikipedia says there is a list of 1,466 dinosaur species, of which 1,080 are considered valid. This is certainly much higher than the alleged 55 species that "THE CREATION ANSWERS BOOK" claims. The question is, "Could all those dinosaurs fit on the Ark?" I think not! The very idea is absurd!

Dear reader, it should be obvious to you that the earth is very old, likely 4.5 billion years old as scientists (geologists) claim. It should also be obvious to you that the theory of a Young Earth is false science. There is simply no way that dinosaurs lived with man 5,000 years ago! Dinosaurs lived 65 to 220 million years ago as science confirms. To clarify, I do believe that God remodeled creation during the six literal days of Genesis chapters 1 and 2. The human race is approximately 6,000 years old, but the earth itself is billions of years old. Psalms 102:25,

Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth*: and the heavens are the work of thy hands. " Why would the psalmist write these words, if the earth was the same age as everything else? The psalmist specifically mentions the foundation of the earth.

Be Sure To Glorify Your Creator

It is wickedness not to glorify our Creator, Jesus!

> Daniel 5:23, "But hast lifted up thyself against the LORD of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified."

The inspired Holy Bible is abundantly clear in John 1:13 and Colossians 1:16 that Jesus is God who created all things. Beware of Satan's corrupt modern Bible revisions which tamper with those important Scripture passages, changing "by" to "through" concerning Jesus. God the Father didn't create all things "through" His Son; all things were created "by" Jesus!

It saddens and angers me that thousands of astronomy videos on YouTube fail to give God the credit, glory and praise for creating the universe and all therein. Life didn't just happen! I heard Mike Rowe in 'How The Universe Works' (2010) sinfully attribute creation to "cosmic chaos and accidental aftermath." What wickedness! What blasphemy against God. What saith the Scripture? 2nd Peter 3:5, "For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water." Don't anyone dare blaspheme God almighty by saying that chaos accidentally made the universe!

THE TRUTH is that ungodly sinners despise God and reject Him in their thinking. Romans 1:28a, "And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind... " The creators of these videos don't want to be labeled as religious kooks, so they leave our God. Instead of telling THE TRUTH, they go along with the lie of evolution to play it safe, knowing that the ungodly world won't accept any documentary that glorifies and attributes creation to a supreme Creator. This is why 100 % of the secular astronomy videos on YouTube don't honor God as our Creator. Unless you include the word "God" in your internet search, you won't find Him in any astronomy documentary today.

What happened? How did our American society become so ungodly? At what point did society just decide that God is not our Creator, and that the universe merely evolved from start dust? I have watched hundreds of videos on YouTube about astronomy, and they are fascinating to say the least. But sadly those disturbing videos ignore God, our divine Creator. I am tired of hearing that man evolved over billions of years.

If the Holy Bible be true (and I believe it is), then no human being existed before 6,000 years ago!

History evidences this truth. It is commonly believed that Egyptian civilization started around 3150 BC.

The earliest civilization discovered is generally considered to be the Sumerian civilization, which allegedly emerged in Mesopotamia around 4000 BC. The flood destroyed most evidence of the earliest civilizations. The inspired Word of God tells us that during the flood the waters rose 15 cubits (22.5 feet) about the highest mountain. That means the water pressure exerted upon the earth and its contents would have been somewhere around 15,000 psi (pounds per square inch). Nothing except the hardest materials could have survived such pressures. If you believe that the Holy Bible is God's Word, then you cannot ignore this truth.

My main point here is that all available historical evidence does not support the bogus claim of scientists today, who erroneously claim mankind goes back hundreds of thousands, even millions or billions of years. To clarify, I am against a Young Earth Creation theory. I believe that the earth itself is billions of years old, as true science teaches. But the human race is no more than approximately 6,000 years old, which every field of science and history confirms.

NASA ceases to amaze me! Their thousands of engineers and scientists were able to design, plan and launch a robot that traveled 140 million miles Mars to collect soil samples, then blast off and return to earth with the soil. NASA had to launch at just the right time, to intercept the planet Mars while closest to earth in its annual orbit. The feat itself was astounding! Yet, with all their admirable genius, these exceptionally smart people are some of the dumbest folks who ever lived, when you learn what NASA actually believes about [10]the origins of the earth and moon.

> Psalm 8:3, "When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained."

Kindly, the inspired Holy Bible 100 % disagrees with NASA's scientists. NASA has an entire division devoted entirely to researching how the moon was created, called the "LUNAR SCIENCE INSTITUTE." According to NASA's best and brightest, the earth and moon formed by the massive collision of two planetary bodies. [11]The old theory was that a rogue object struck the earth and a section of the earth broke off, settled into orbit and became our perfectly round moon over billions of years. LOONEY? I'd say so...

NASA Lunar Scientists Develop New Theory on Earth and Moon Formation

New research funded by NLSI theorizes that our early Earth and moon were perhaps created in a different manner than has previously been believed.

NASA New research, funded by the NASA Lunar Science Institute (NLSI), hypothesizes that our early Earth and moon were both created together in a giant collision of two planetary bodies that were each five times the size of Mars.

This new hypothesis about how Earth's moon formed is challenging the commonly believed "giant impact hypothesis," which suggests that Earth's moon formed from a colossal impact of a hypothetical planetary embryo, named Theia, with Earth, early in our Solar System's history.

"Our understanding of the solar system is constantly being refined with each new discovery. This research illustrates the importance of modeling planetary formation to enhance our scientific understanding of the moon and its place in the solar system," said NLSI Deputy Director Greg Schmidt.

The giant impact hypothesis has been a widely accepted theory for how the Earth-moon system formed. In the giant impact scenario, the moon forms from debris ejected into an Earth-orbiting disk by the collision of a smaller proto-planet with the early Earth. One of the challenges to the longstanding theory of the collision, is that a Mars-sized impacting body, whose composition likely would have differed substantially from that of Earth, likely would have left Earth and the moon with different chemical compositions, which they are not.

SOURCE: [12]NASA - NASA Lunar Scientists Develop New Theory on Earth and Moon Formation

Walt Disney's new H2 (History + High Definition) television channel has been airing NASA's

new and bizarre science-fiction theories.

In sharp contrast, the Bible teaches that the moon and stars are the work of God. Psalm 8:3, "When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained." Jesus Christ is the divine Creator of the universe and everything therein...

> John 1:1-3,14, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. ... And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth."

Jesus Christ is the living Word of God who became incarnate (in the flesh). Revelation 19:13 says that Jesus' name is called 'THE WORD OF GOD.' Amen and amen! It is no coincidence that unbelief and wickedness are synonymous. I am so glad that the Creator of the universe is a righteous, merciful, faithful and forgiving God. GOD IS HOLY!!!

NASA is insane, teaching that the earth and moon formed by a massive collision of two planetary bodies billions of years ago. That's ludicrous! The Bible teaches that God made the sun, stars, moon and earth. All we hear about from Walt Disney, NASA, YouTube and National Geographic concerning the origin of the universe is explosions, accidents, catastrophes and collisions. How can such perpetual destruction lead to the astounding symmetry, inherent design, order and incredible awe of the universe? It cannot? The only plausible answer is God!!!

I learned recently that the [13]Alaskan wood frog freezes solid every winter and then thaws back to life in the spring. The frog literally stops moving, the blood freezes, without any movement for several months each winter season. Only a brilliant and wise Creator could create such a miracle of life and beauty. God made these amazing things to impress you and me, in hope that we would thank, glorify and praise His holy name. God is truly more than amazing!

I weep sometimes as I learn about our incredible universe, realizing that God loves even a wretched sinner like me. I cannot wrap my feeble brain around it all. God's greatness is beyond my grasp (Psalms 145:3), but I love and trust in His only begotten Son, Jesus, who is the promised Christ. John 1:29, "The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world." Amen and amen!

I encourage you dear reader to give God the due praise that He alone is worthy of. Isaiah 42:8, "

I am the LORD: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

" NASA are guilty of idolatry, lifting pseudo-science above God. I have no idea if God started the universe with a theorized 'Big Bang,' but I refuse to accept conjecture as fact without any solid proof, which scientists have none today. They have confirmed since 1929 that the universe is expanding outward, away from the earth.

The universe is expanding at a rate of [14]approximately 46 miles per second per megaparsec, which translates to about 164,000 miles per hour for every megaparsec (3.26 million light-years) of distance from Earth. Wow, that's fast! This rate is known as the 'Hubble Constant.'

Discovered by American astronomer Charles Stephenson in 1990, Stephenson 2-18 is a red supergiant located 18,900 light years from Earth. Stephenson 2-18 (also known as Stephenson 2 DFK 1) is currently considered the largest star known to mankind, with estimates suggesting it has a radius of about 2,150 times that of our own solar system's Sun. The sun has a diameter 109 times greater than the earth, which means Stephenson 2-18 has a diameter approximately 234,350 times greater than the earth. That's 930,000,000 miles wide! That's almost one billion miles in diameter. The earth is only 7,926 miles in diameter (from pole to pole). Good night in the morning!

I cannot even comprehend its gargantuan astronomical size.

And

shines about 440,000 times brighter than our sun!

God is truly beyond incredibly amazing. I cannot find the words of praise to honor my Creator, except to say THANK YOU for everything! We humans are so unworthy of our Creator's love and goodness, yet He faithfully and lovingly blesses us daily.

Psalms 68:19, "Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation. Selah."

6.12.30 The Hated Fundamentalist Christian (2025-12-31 08:18)

John 15:17-19, "These things I command you, that ye love one another. If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you."

A Christian "

is simply a born again believer who ascribes to a conservative interpretation of the inspired Holy Bible. For example: Whereas a carnally-minded worldly neo-evangelical pastor insists that the Holy Bible allows for women to wear pants, a fundamentalist preacher knows that it is sinful for women to wear immodest pants in public (1st Timothy 2:9).

Men have never faced such a struggle with sexual lust than they do nowadays with all the blue jeans, miniskirts, Spandex and seductive Victoria Secret style clothing that immodest women shamefully wear in public. 1st Peter 2:11,

“Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul.”

If you attend a local Baptist church and see female church members wearing seductive clothing, you know that their pastor almost assuredly doesn’t preach against women wearing pants. Such pastors are incompetent, dropping the ball for God by refusing to maintain high moral standards. A pastor’s wife who wears pants is a disgrace to the name of Jesus!

I recently posted the following meme on social media, which promoted dozens of ungodly Facebook members to post laughing emoji’s in response. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 14:9, “Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour.

It Is A Sin For Christian Women To Wear Pants

Few topics generate as much hatred, ridicule and anger as preaching against women wearing pants. Sadly, American women love their immodest pants. The fundamentalist Christian women refuses to put on men's clothing. She fears God and fully understands that she will be required to give account for her clothing at the Judgment Seat of Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:10).

Bible preachers often quote Ephesians 2:8-9, but usually leave off verse 10. ...

> Ephesians 2:8-10, " For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:
>
> Not of works, lest any man should boast.

For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them."

We know that salvation is obtained solely by God's grace through faith in Christ. But then once saved, our heavenly Father wants every saint to depart from iniquity (2nd Timothy 2:19). There is nothing wrong with repenting of one's sins as a Christian to turn away from sinful bad habits, but we must never require repenting of sins to be saved because that would be works. Jonah 3:10, "And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not." Romans 3:20 warns that no one has ever been saved by the works of the law.

My favorite fundamentalist Baptist preacher is Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). In his helpful book titled, '[2]Jack Hyles Speaks On Biblical Separation,' Dr. Hyles in my humble opinion best defines what is a fundamentalist. ...

> It is rather popular to define the term "fundamentalist" as one who believes the fundamentals; for example, one who believes the verbal inspiration of the Bible, the deity of Christ, the virgin birth, the vicarious death, the bodily resurrection and the second coming. Now, to be sure, such a one believes the fundamentals, but the term "fundamentalist" probably should not be ascribed to him if he is still a member of an apostate denomination. The term "fundamentalist" is given not to those who simply believe the aforementioned fundamentals but to those who have separated themselves from those who do not. This brings the doctrine of separation into focus as a vital and necessary part of being a fundamentalist. —
> Pastor Jack Hyles, chapter 15 - ' [3]What Is A Fundamentalist? '; from the book titled, 'Jack Hyles Speaks On Biblical Separation'

So, we can define a biblical "fundamentalist" as a born again Christian who not only adheres to the fundamental doctrines of the inspired Word of God, but he or she also lives a separated life from the sinful world, unbelievers, neo-evangelical churches and carnal believers.

As a born again Christian since age 12 in 1979, I have been hated all my life for my fundamentalist beliefs and lifestyle. I have been persecuted at every secular job I've ever worked because I lived godly in Christ Jesus as a redeemed sinner. By God's grace, I refused invitations to go with the fellas after work to the local strip club.

By God's grace,

I refused to participate in workplace lottery collections to win the big lottery.

By God's grace,

I refused offers to drink alcohol, smoke tobacco and look at indecent magazine photos of lewd women.

By God's grace, I let my moderation be known to others (Philippians 4:5). The word "moderation" in Philippians 4:5 comes from the Greek word epieikēs which means appropriate, that is, modesty. Let all men know your modesty; or as Pastor Jack Hyles wisely said, let your peers know how far you WON'T go. 2nd Timothy 3:12, "Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution." I could write a book detailed all of the terrible things that heathen and carnal Christian peers did to me in the workplace.

I had my car and house keys stolen. One male co-workers pulled a knife on me on the workroom floor at the U.S. Postal Service and threatened to kill me in front of a female supervisor. I won an EEO complaint against the USPS as a result in 2009. Another co-worker deliberately overflowed a urinal to flood the restroom floor on me. They sabotaged my machinery that I was responsible to maintain at work, making extra work for me. They stole my tools, put booze bottles in my toolbox, lied to my boss with false accusations, put cigars on top of my toolbox, and posted naked Penthouse centerfolds on my work locker.

When I worked as a mechanic, heathen co-workers printed web pages from my Jesus-is-Savior.com ministry website to harass me at work. At multiple jobs they stole my work uniforms, which I had to pay for. I was spit upon, physically assaulted, thrown up against a wall, shocked by a charged capacitor that a co-worker placed on my toolbox, slandered and had my toolbox flipped and thrown onto the floor with all the tools.

One ungodly co-worker smashed m radio onto the shop floor because he hated hearing Christian music, but he blasted AC/DC and Van Halen throughout the shop and I got sick of hearing the Devil's music. So, basically he could listen to whatever he wanted, but I couldn't. My cowardly heathen boss told me if I couldn't take the heat to get out of the kitchen. All of my co-workers were twice to three times my age. I was in my early twenties at that time.

One co-worker twice my age asked why I carry a King James Bible to work every day. I asked him why he carries his Playboy magazines to work? I kindly told him it all depends on what's in your heart. They despised me as a fundamentalist Christian. Even my neo-evangelical professed Christian for a boss (and his rebellious immodest wife) mocked me for saying: "Yes Sir, no Sir, yes Ma'am, no ma'am." All my life I have been ridiculed for doing the right thing.

Every Christ-honoring woman (especially young ladies and girls) who choose to always dress modestly, have experienced the painful mockery, rejection and harassment from other mean worldly females who dress like whores. They are ungodly!

I'll never forget long ago when I took my family to Montrose Beach in Chicago during the summer. My wife, then about 35 years old in the mid 1990's, was wearing a full-length dress at the beach. A wicked teenage girl audibly called her a " bitch,

which startled my wife. I explained to my wife that the young girl (who was wearing colored underwear, that is, a standard bikini) felt like a slut when she saw the beautiful long modest dress. Shame on that little whorish brat! Woe unto that teenage girl when God judges her in eternity for her immodest clothing and her injurious words of slander. And you can be assured ladies that each and every woman on the planet WILL BE held accountable by God for every stitch of clothing that you wear (or better said don't wear) in public. Modesty matters! Morality matters!!!

In 2025, I and my wife Alice for the first time attended the annual picnic of the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, located at the Lilian Recreational Park in Alabama. When we arrived at the picnic, Alice was adorned in a long beautiful full-length dress. She looked like a Christ-honoring lady. In sharp contrast, Pastor Brad Moffett's wife was shamefully wearing sexy tight blue pants, which made her look like a whore in my male opinion. I smiled and kindly greeted the pastor's worldly wife like I would anyone else, with respect and friendliness. The pastor's wife would have nothing to do with Alice, not her carnal mother-in-law who also ears worldly pants in public.

Not once in the time that my wife attended Family Baptist Church in Pensacola did either the pastor's wife, or his wicked father's wife, befriend Alice as a newcomer to the church. They dissed her because she is a faithful fundamentalist Christian, as I am. They are wicked neo-evangelicals. For the 45 months that I attended their worldly church (to my regret in hindsight), they despised me from the very start, which I failed to see. I couldn't see the forest for the trees. Since I needed a church family (a place to belong), I wore spiritual blinders to the carnality, heresy and worldliness in the church. In truth, Family Baptist Church is a Lordship Salvation cult!!! The church wickedly bids Godspeed to infidels' Ken Ham, Jeff Redlin, Billy and Franklin Graham, John Calvin and John Piper, to name but a few heretics! Shame on them!

Getting back to the 2025 church picnic at Lilian Recreational Park, just like the bratty teenage girl in Chicago who unjustly called my wife a female dog for wearing a Christ-honoring modest dress, which exposed her scampi immodest whorish bikini; so also was Brad Moffett's wife struck to the core of her soul with Holy Spirit conviction, when she saw Alice's long feminine dress in comparison to her slutty pants.

We didn't have to speak a single word, the pastor's wife knew in her heart of hearts that she was dressed in wicked attire, that is, **"

the attire of an harlot

" (Proverbs 7:10b). You see dear reader, you don't need to speak one word to anger the heathen world and make enemies. You need only show up and do what is right, truthful and honest to be hated and despised by the wicked world. Simply for obeying God to dress modestly, Alice was shunned by ungodly neo-evangelical religious brats at Family Baptist Church in Pensacola...

> 1st Timothy 2:9-10, "
> In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works."

Don't anyone dare tell me that it is okay biblically for women to wear pants. Your head is on backwards of you are wicked enough to think pants are acceptable attire for ladies! This ungodly generation doesn't look up to God anymore. That is, there is no fear of God in their eyes. I would be fearful of God if I were a woman to wear pants in public, causing men to lust.

You need to understand dear reader that neither I nor my wife at any time made a fuss over modesty in their carnal church. They made a fuss! We simply did that which was right in the Lord's sight, and it offended them greatly. They were convicted by our very presence! We were hated without cause simply for being fundamentalist Christians in a neo-evangelical church (which is really a social club for seniors).

At the 2025 picnic at Lilian Recreational Park in Alabama, the shameful pastor's wife couldn't take it anymore. Conviction was eating her alive! So, she walked over in front of me and Alice and said to a young girl at our picnic table where we were all eating, "I like your shorts!" and then just walked away. What the pastor's wife was doing (aside from provoking me and Alice), was implying that there is nothing wrong with her wearing pants. If it is okay for the girl to wear shorts, then it must be okay for the pastor's wife to wear pants. BUT IT I NOT OKAY for either of them to wear seductive attire in public!!! SHAME on that ungodly pastor's wife!

Long story short, as a result of the ungodly pastor and his bratty wife blaspheming the inspired Holy Bible by disobeying the Lord's commandments on modesty and holiness, they permanently kicked me and Alice out of Family Baptist Church on June 22, 2025. God will deal with those arrogant stiffnecked sinners! Wicked neo-evangelical churches are pulling on the same rope as the Devil with their heresies of Lordship Salvation, false repentance (aka, “repent of your sins

to be saved trash), worldly Contemporary Christin Music (CCM) garbage, women wearing pants, bidding Godspeed to demonic false prophets like Billy and Franklin Graham (which includes their ’Operation Christmas Child’ billion dollar scheme), no door to door soulwinning, no preaching against sin, et cetera. Those are cults, not churches!

As an independent fundamentalist Baptist Bible preacher, I am one of the most hated individuals on the planet. The truth is only HATE to those who hate THE TRUTH. I have paid the price, in both my personal life and ministry, for taking a fundamentalist stand for truth and righteousness. The sad fact is that most churchgoers hate fundamentalism; and they always have, going back to when Cain murdered his brother Abel. Cain was your first neo-evangelical, who foolishly chose to do things HIS OWN WAY instead of God’s way.

Abel did things God’s way and his sacrifice was pleasing to the Lord. God rejected Cain’s offering because it was based in human works, and not grace. Wicked sinners comb social media today for every sin, crime and fault they can find about fundamentalists, in a sinister effort to demonize the entire fundamentalist movement. Thankfully, God sees their utter hypocrisy! The heathen world would never hold themselves to such an extreme unfair standard. The world will someday in eternity be judged by their own unfair standards (Matthew 7:1-5). Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

I have been unjustly kicked out of the last six ungodly churches that I’ve attended; namely, the Agana Heights Baptist Church on Guam (2009), the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (2014), Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam (2018), Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (2021), Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola (2024), and now Family Baptist Church in Pensacola (2025). All six of these hellholes preach the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, that you must forsake your sinful ways in order to qualify for Heaven, which is works not grace.

At the ungodly Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola they distribute [4]toxic Chick Tracts, which teach the fraud of Lordship Salvation. Their incompetent pastor Bill Adams preaches that you cannot be saved unless you are first willing to try to stop sinning, which they erroneously consider repentance. This is the same heresy taught by Chick Tracts. Adam’s unfortunate daughter attends [5]PCC college (cult) just down the street, eating at the Devil’s table with the other victimized students. Right doctrine matters! They all laugh and mock at me over my website ministry, but their heads will roll when they answer to an angry God someday (Psalms 6:1). There is no worse sin than to pervert the Gospel of free grace [6]by adding crap to it.

Dear reader, maybe you don’t want to become a fundamentalist Christian after all, lest you suffer persecution for living godly in Christ Jesus (2nd Timothy 3:12). If you want the Devil to leave you alone—then just fill 18" of church pew every Sunday, never lift a finger to go soul winning to win lost sinners to Christ, dress and talk just like the heathen world, wear the world’s sinful tattoos, sing the world’s lifeless music, be as indistinguishable as possible from the world—and Satan probably won’t bother you.

But if you raise a flag for Jesus Christ for truth and righteousness, plan for all hell to break out! You Christian ladies start wearing only dresses and culottes in public and you will be persecuted by the envious wicked whores. You carry an inspired King James Bible and the world will give you up! You henpecked pastors take the leash off and start preaching against sin, begin contending for the Christian faith, start preaching against women wearing pants and low-cut blouses in public, start exposing false prophets like Billy and Franklin Graham by name, start preaching against booze and tobacco and dirty television and you'll make plenty of enemies quickly!

Pastor Jack Hyles was so right, being a Christian fundamentalist is all about separation. This vital Bible doctrine (2nd Corinthians 6:14-17) is all but forgotten in the churches today. Visit your average local neo-evangelical church, like the carnal First Baptist Church of Pensacola, and you'll see dozens of scantily-clad women who look like they just came out of their bedroom on marriage night, dressed in Victoria's Secret (it's not a secret anymore). I'm serious folks and it's a wicked shame!

The reason why women dress so wickedly is the pastor's fault. Yes, senior pastor Dave Snyder is to blame, for not preaching against women wearing pants and other seductive clothing in church. Pastor Snyder represents everything that is wrong with pastors today. To no surprise, the First Baptist Church of Pensacola (FBCP) preaches hard core Lordship Salvation and is one of 47,000 member churches in the wicked Southern Baptist Convention (SBC), whose official position is Lordship Salvation.

The FBCP pays $50,000 per year to belong to the SBC. That is a big waste of the Lord's money! I feel so sorry for the deceived congregation at FBCP. They need godly leadership, which they haven't had for the longest time. The church (which was founded in 1848) is spiritually dead, cold and woefully lacks God's love for people. They pride themselves on formalism, which is an enemy of soul winning. There is no soul winning. There is no preaching against sin. The Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) is loathsome! Nearly all of the women wear worldly pants and other immodest attire, to the pastor's utter shame. Millionaires control the pastor and the church. "

(the glory of the Lord is departed) is written over the church's doors. Oh, that there was a stirred genuine man of God in the FBCP!

I decided a long time ago that NO ONE would ever control my Bible preaching. My preaching is none of my business, God alone lays it upon my heart through His indwelling Holy Spirit what to preach. My duty as a fundamentalist Bible preacher is to preach THE TRUTH! I am not trying to make friends or influence people to like me. If my Bible preaching offends you, good! If my telling the truth produces more enemies, then so be it in Jesus' name.

6.12.31 Foolish Woman Accuses Me Of "Judging" For Preaching Against Women Wearing Pants (2025-12-31 08:45)

John 7:24, "Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment."

Here is my original [1]Facebook post...

> Shame on Family Baptist Church in Pensacola for promoting low moral standards and sexual lust. Their ungodly pastors defend their bratty females who insist on wearing their IMMODEST pants in public. You [2]kicked me and my wife (who only wears long dresses) out of your damned Lordship Salvation cult, but you cannot escape God's wrath for what you've done. You all held a sinful grudge against me for 45 months because of my TRUTH-TELLING website ministry, for which God will punish you all. You will reap what you have sown (Galatians 6:7). You're all a bunch of ungodly neo-evangelical FOOLS. Proverbs 28:13, "He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy."

A woman named Kathy replied...

> Judge not is what the Bible says.

Here is my biblical response to her foolishness...

> Shame on you Kathy. It is a sin for women to wear immodest clothing (1st Timothy 2:9; Deuteronomy 22:5; Proverbs 7:10), which definitely includes pants. Contrary to your ignorance of the Bible, we are supposed to judge as believers, but with righteous judgment. John 7:24, "Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment."
>
> The heathen world's Bible only has two words: "judge not."
>
> According to your foolish thinking Kathy, no preacher should ever preach against sin because he is judging people. That is simply not the case at all. A godly preacher who is faithful to the Lord will preach uncompromisingly without apology against sin, corruption and evil (Psalms 94:16).
> It is wickedness for women to wear pants when sexual sins are running rampant throughout the ungodly world! I would humbly think that if anyone would understand that fact, it would be a pastor's wife. Tragically, most pastor's wives today are rebellious brats who are defiant against God, arrogantly changing God's inspired Words to justify wearing their accursed pants. You better know that I am judging, and it is RIGHTEOUS JUDGMENT!

Please understand dear reader that I do not hate anyone. I love everybody with Christ's unconditional love for sinners, regardless of who you are. If you want to find a big sinner, look no further, you've found him! If it weren't for the precious blood of Jesus that washed all my sins away in 1979 at age 12 when I trusted Jesus as my personal Savior, I'd be going to Hell to burn forever for my own sins. There is nothing good about me except Jesus.

A big lie of Satan is that Christians never should judge others, but the Lord Himself commands us to judge with righteous judgment. John 7:24, "Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment." We have a direct commandment in 1st Timothy 2:9 for women to dress in modest apparel. Only a wicked woman with a worldly heart would dare to wrest the Scripture in a sinful attempt to justify putting on men's pants.

I am sick and tired of ungodly pastors (like [3]Brad Moffett in April of 2025 in his office at the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola) trying to use Scottish men wearing kilts as justification for their brat wives wearing pants in public. You are comparing apples with avocadoes.

GET RIGHT WITH GOD!!!

And to clarify, in the 45 months that I attended their church (2021-2025), I never once mentioned anything about any woman in the church wearing pants. I stayed quiet as a guest member. It was Pastor Brad Moffett (age 37) on April 30th, 2025, who invited me and my wife into his office. I had no idea that in that meeting he would censure my website ministry and condemn my Bible preaching, wickedly slandering Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) and attack my integrity as a fundamentalist Bible preacher. I couldn't care less if the pastor's wife wears pants. It's none of my business. But IT WAS THEM, not me, who made a big issue over my preaching on social media against women wearing pants.

Since the pastor's wife wears sexy pants in public, and his mother also wears pants, my godly preaching convicted them to the core. But they went looking for my preaching on social media, I never once brought my ministry or opinions into their church. I never caused any trouble. It just goes to prove that when you live godly in Christ Jesus, you don't have to go looking for trouble, persecution will come to you! Shame on wicked neo-evangelical churches! God will judge between me and the ungodly Family Baptist Church in Pensacola.

7.1.1 Does Man Have A Part In Repentance For Salvation? (2026-01-02 12:27)

John 12:32, “ And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me. ”

I ran across a skeptic on Facebook this week who denies that humans have any part in repentance for salvation. Here is my reply to his heresy...

> Kindly, you are denying man’s FREE WILL. It sounds like you are a Calvinist, because they teach Unconditional Election, that God chooses and forces men to be saved. I deny all 5-tenets of Calvinism! Irresistible Grace is a false doctrine. Limited Atonement is a lie. The Perseverance of the Saints is a lie. There is such a thing as a carnal believer who lives a life full of sin but still has 100 % assurance of eternal life through faith in Christ.
> Jesus foretold that when resurrected, He would draw all men (not some men) through the Holy Spirit to Himself for salvation...
>
>
> No human can respond to the Gospel without first being drawn by God’s Spirit. Titus 2:11 plainly declares that the grace of God which brings salvation has appeared unto ALL MEN. We as humans have A CHOICE of whether to accept or reject Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as full payment for our sins. Man’s free will is a necessary part of choosing God’s gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life.
>
> So, it is heresy to teach that a man has no part in repentance, because God never forces anyone to receive His grace.
> Repentance facilitates believing the Gospel. No one has ever been saved who didn’t repent, but the man who believes on the Lord Jesus Christ has repented. That is, he has changed his mind (in agreement with God’s written Word) to acknowledge himself as a guilty sinner; and to trust Jesus as his personal Savior.

BEWARE of the deadly lies of John Calvin (1509-1564), which tommyrot has crept into many Baptist churches today (known as ’Reformed Baptists’). The apostate Southern Baptist Convention is infected with Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation)! Sadly, most pastors today have a wicked cavalier attitude, given to haughty disregard for right doctrine, the accuracy of the Gospel and the purity of God’s inspired Word. They are incompetent clergy.

I speak of infidels’ Marty Herron, Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary, Gary Walton, Timothy Zacharias, Bill Adams, Josh Thompson, Bobby and Brad Moffett, Jeff Redlin,

Pensacola Christian College, Bob Jones University, Albert Mohler, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Southwestern, Jack Chick and Chick Tracts, ’Unshackled’ radio, Baptist Theological Seminary,

Bill and Franklin Graham, Paul Washer, Beth Moore, Joyce Meyer, Steve Pettit, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, Joel Osteen, Pat Robertson, J.D. Greear, Southern Baptist Convention, Benny Hinn, Bill Hamon, John Hagee, James Dobson, Adrian Rogers, William Lane Craig, Chuck Phelps and Charles Lawson (to name but a few hellbound heretics who pervert the Gospel of free grace). These are all woeful stiff-necked FOOLS concerning God’s simple plan of salvation, perverting the Gospel of free grace by adding works to it!

Genesis 1:16,

And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.

Astronomers tell us that at present they have discovered [1]at least 200 sextillion stars. That's the number two with 23 zeroes behind it.

Scientists tell us that there are between 100 quintillion to one septillion grains of sand upon the earth. Yet, astronomers say that there are at least 30 stars for every grain of sand in the observable universe. Wow, God is truly more than amazing!

God is faithful. I've been listening to astronomy videos on YouTube while I sleep at night. Our sun is 93,000,000 miles away from the earth. the next closest star to earth is Alpha Centauri, which is about 25,695,600,000,00 miles away! So when you look up at the stars in the sky at night, remember that they are all at least 25,695,600,000,000 miles away!

> Psalms 145:3, " Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable."

The farthest known star from Earth is called Earendel, located about 28 billion light-years away in the constellation Cetus. It was discovered using the Hubble Space Telescope and is believed to have emitted light when the universe was only about 900 million years old. In scientific notation that number of miles is 1.6464e+23. That is, the farthest known star from earth is one hundred sixty-four sextillion six hundred forty quintillion miles away. God is more than amazing! Written out, that number would look like this...

164,640,000,000,000,000,000,000 miles from earth

Did you know that it would take 31,700 years to count to one trillion? It's true. And that's if you could count non-stop 24 hours a day with no breaks, and if you could read numbers like 735,364,922,456 in a second. Good luck with that! Realistically, it would require at least 150,000 years to count to one trillion. God's greatness is truly unsearchable.

And to think that the blessed Holy Spirit of such an amazing, loving, wonderful, forgiving and faithful Creator wanted to live in my soul as His redeemed child (Romans 8:9; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17; 1st John 3:24). John 14:23, "Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him." What an awesome Savior!!!

Now, what we just calculated is merely the farthest known star, mankind still has not discovered what lies beyond the outer limits of our technology and the universe. No one except God knows how big the universe is. We don't know if it has an end. How could that even be possible? Can the universe be endless? Every field of known science confirms that the universe simply cannot be endless. The unfathomable mystery is mind-numbing to say the least and the only logical answer is God.

Psalms 145:3, " Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable."

I have greatly enjoyed watching hundreds of astronomy videos over the past few months, learning all I can about God's magnificent creation. God created everything by the mere Word of His mouth (2nd Peter 3:5). This is the only true and living God, the divine omnipotent Author of the inspired King James Bible. The universe testifies to the greatness, faithfulness, brilliance and goodness of God (Psalms 19:1-3).

The Wickedness Of The Heathen World

That being said, my soul is continually grieved every time I hear skeptics and unbelievers attribute the grandeur of the universe to natural occurrences instead of our Creator. The Scripture is abundantly clear that God made all things. Genesis 1:1, "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth." In fact, it was Jesus who made all things according to John 1:3 (only the inspired King James Bible accurately uses "by" and not "through"). God the Father did not create all things through His only begotten Son; "All things were made by him [Jesus]; and without him was not any thing made that was made." Case settled.

If you go visit NASA's website to learn their official position on how the earth and moon were formed, you'll read some of the best FICITON you'll ever found. NASA teaches:

> Earth and the Moon formed about 4.6 billion years ago from a disk of dust and gas around the young Sun. A giant impact with a Mars-sized body named Theia caused debris to be ejected into orbit, which eventually coalesced to form the Moon. [2]NASA

Blasphemy! What wicked ingrates at NASA to rob the Lord of His due glory and praise as our Creator.

It gets worse, I have seen numerous astronomy videos which attribute the creation of the massive oceans to steam from lava and ice crystals on meteorites over billions of years. Since NASA's engineers and scientists design, launch and control their marvels of technology, when they speak the world listens. Tragically, NASA speaks for the Devil. Here is NASA's explanation of where the oceans came from...

> Oceans formed on Earth as a result of water accumulating over billions of years, primarily from water vapor released by volcanic activity and from icy comets and asteroids colliding with the planet. This process began after Earth cooled enough to allow water to exist in liquid form, around 3.8 billion years ago. [3]NASA and [4]PBS

To embrace such unscientific lunacy, you'd have to either be a very stupid individual, a coward who's afraid to tell the truth, or a chronically dishonest and ungrateful God-hating fool. The inspired Word of God teaches that everyone in their youth KNOWS there is a God. Romans 1:21, "

Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

" There is no such thing as an atheist, only fools who deny the plain truth.

Dear reader, I sincerely hope that you are not gullible enough to accept the balderdash that two large rocks collided to form the earth and moon. And then accept the tommyrot that as lava cooled and millions of meteorites slammed into the earth the oceans (as much as 37,000 feet deep) were formed. If you believe that poppycock, then I have some tropical rainforest land at the North Pole I'd like to sell you. NASA are out of their brilliant but insane minds!

Oh friend, why not just accept the plain teaching of the inspired Scripture that God created the universe and all therein? Psalms 96:5, " For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the LORD made the heavens.

Isaiah 40:28, “ Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding.”

Isaiah 42:5, “ Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein. ”

7.1.3 Pastor Peter Ruckman Was Dead Wrong On Repentance (2026-01-04 17:22)

Galatians 3:1-2, “

O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?”

Pastor Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016) preached the garbage that you must turn from your sinful ways to be saved! In this sermon by Ruckman titled, “[1]Repentance,” starting at about 15 minutes into the message, he plainly teaches that you must turn away from your Devilment (and he lists dozens of sins you must forsake to be saved). Here are the words of an unlearned fool for a preacher...

> “You say, ’Repent of what?’ Repent of your devilment. Repent of your meanness. Repent of your laziness. Repent of your stubbornness. You want me to tell it like it is and name them? You have to name things to people these days. They’ve had so much positive slop about sharing Christ and sharing their experience and the love of God, that they don’t even know what they’re to turn from or turn to any more. They got the blind staggers!” —Pastor Peter S. Ruckman

This [2]audio excerpt from the sermon is complete and total heresy. We are saved by faith in the death, burial and bodily resurrection of Jesus (i.e., the Gospel - 1st Corinthians 15:1-6), as the total and complete payment for our entire sin debt. Dr. Ruckman was an ignorant unlearned fool who wrested the inspired Word of God instead of rightly dividing the Word of Truth. He further errantly preaches...

> “Repent, turn from your sins. Pay back the money you owe. Start paying your bills on time. Repent, that’s what that means. That’s what this nation needs.”
> —Pastor Peter S. Ruckman

This statement would be fine if Ruckman were talking about the Christian’s walk, but he doesn’t make any distinction between salvation versus service. It is clear from the entire sermon on ’Repentance’ that he is preaching how to be saved.

Peter Ruckman Doesn’t Know What ’Repentance’ Means

Dear reader, Bible “

repentance

concerning salvation is always either the Greek noun metanoia (a change of mind

);

or the Greek verb metanoeo

(to think differently). Concerning the new birth, to repent NEVER means to turn from your sins, nor even to be willing to turn from your sinning. The following damnable heresy preached by Dr. Ruckman is rooted in his foolish assumption that repentance means to forsake your sinning. ...

> “As people hear the message of the Gospel, the Holy Spirit convicts them of their sin and gives them a desire to repent, and turn from their sins, and trust Christ.”
> —Pastor Peter S. Ruckman ([3]time 25:57 in sermon video titled, ’Repentance’)

Ruckman got it mostly right, but deadly rat poison contains 99 % wholesome safe food to eat. Nowhere does the inspired Holy Bible teach that a lost person must desire to turn from their sinful bad habits as a prerequisite to God’s saving grace. Dr. Ruckman is preaching the Satanic fraud of Lordship Salvation! He is mixing and confusing service with salvation.

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

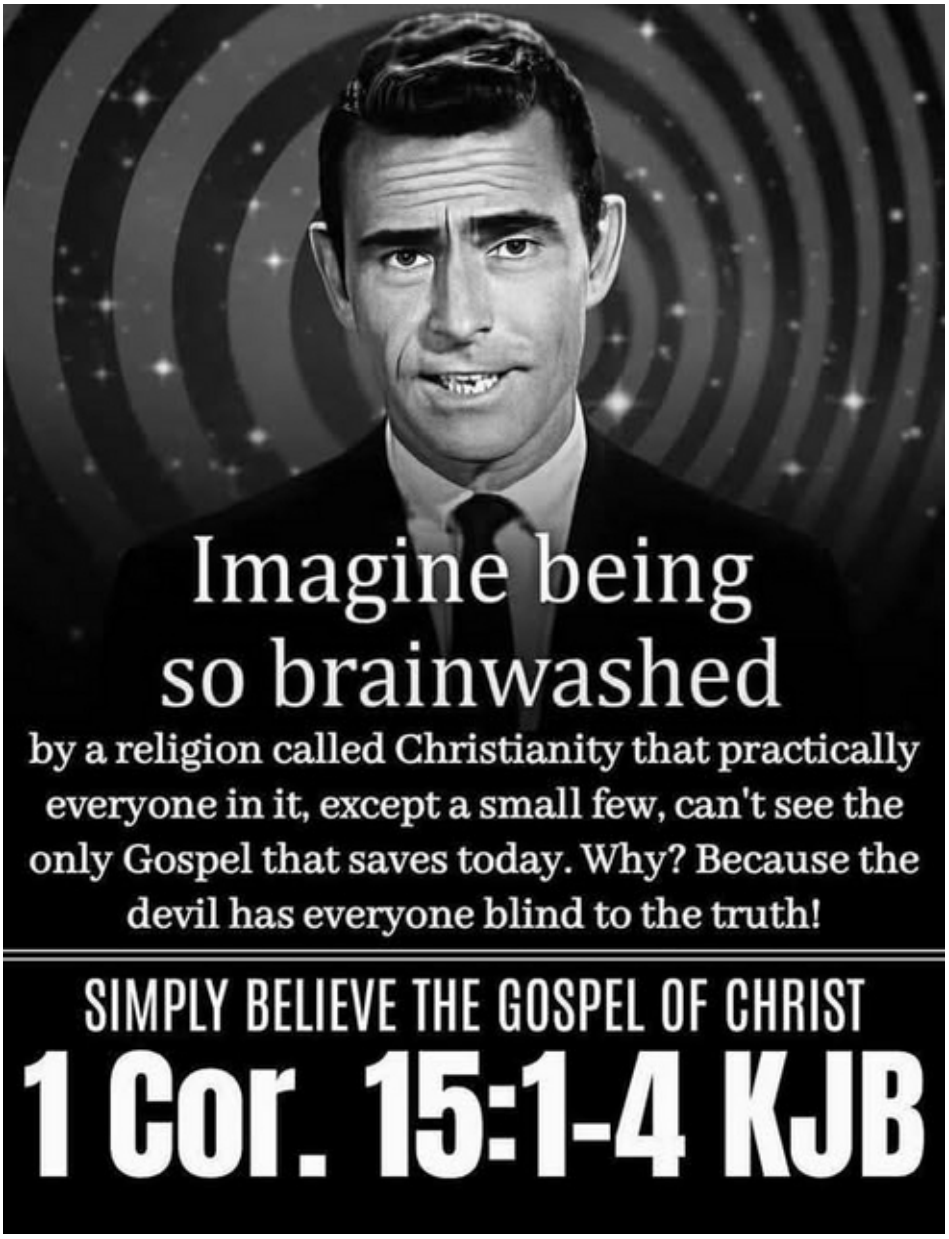
Well said John Bunyan! The Bible couldn’t be clearer that we are saved by grace through faith without works (Romans 4:4-7; Ephesians 2:8-9). In this sermon excerpt, Peter Ruckman errantly says that we’re saved by quitting cigarettes, giving out religious tracts, paying our bills, and every other good work that we can possibly think of. He claims to believe the King James Bible but the Word of God never uses the phrase "repent of sin" anywhere. It was added by ungodly men who wanted to coerce sinners to forsake sin as a prerequisite to partake of the miraculous new birth (regeneration). Ruckman is preaching blatant works for salvation, and is therefore teaching a false gospel. Peter Ruckman is sadly now burning in Hell forever!

Bible Baptist Church In Pensacola Is A Cult!

[4]Dr. Ruckman was a damnable heretic on God’s simple plan of salvation.

BEWARE of the Bible Baptist Church in Pensacola, Ruckman’s cult. Their ungodly bookstore threatened to sue me in 2023 for sharing Ruckman’s King James Bible books in .pdf format. God’s curse rests upon Bible Baptist Church and their greedy leaders! SHAME on them for upholding and continuing Ruckman’s wicked multiple plans of salvation, dispensational heresy, his false preaching on repentance and other blatant falsehoods. Peter Ruckman was a devil in the church pulpit!

Dr. Peter S. Ruckman despite his excellent work defending the King James Bible was a false prophet who supported abortion, sanctioned women dressing like whores in pants, permitted divorce and remarriage, taught that works saved people in the Old Testament, believed in little green aliens, and he heretically taught that you must turn from your sins to be saved. SHAME on anyone who follows or bids Godspeed to this wicked man!



Also, beware of Ruckman’s nutcase followers: [5]Dr. William P. Grady, Robert Breaker and David Hoffman (to name but a few religious clowns). All of these woefully ignorant men preach that people were saved by works under Mosaic law. They all preach misunderstood repentance. They all preach the tommyrot, poppycock and balderdash of dispensationalism.

Furthermore, the corrupt Bible Baptist Church in Pensacola LOVE [6]toxic Chick Tracts, which trashy tracts require to “Be willing to turn from sin” in order to be saved. The same goes for the cult at Pensacola Christian College (who preach hard core Lordship Salvation), and 90 % of the sickening toxic Baptist churches throughout the city of Pensacola today. SHAME!

7.1.4 Don't Lower God To Fit Your Agenda (2026-01-05 09:03)

Psalms 50:16-22, "But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth?

Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee.

When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers.

Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and thy tongue frameth deceit.

Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son.

These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself: but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

I love this passage of Scripture. The inspired Word of God warns us in Proverbs 14:12 and again in Proverbs 16:25, "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." Any time that God repeats something, you should pay extra close attention if you are wise. I mean, when God speaks only a fool wouldn't listen with the most attentiveness, but when God repeats something it is for a very good reason.

The Bible emphasizes in numerous passages the truth that most people are deceived in their thinking. Luke 13:23-24, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." The reason why they will seek to enter into Heaven but won't be able to do so is simply because they were WRONG in their thinking.

Jesus warned in Matthew 7:13-15 that FALSE PROPHETS will mislead the masses of society (the blind leading the blind), leading them into the Lake of Fire forever. Matthew 7:15, "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves." Dear reader, Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again.

The Bible likens the saved to wheat, and the unsaved to tares that will be burned in the fire.

The world's churches are full of tares today! The Bible teaches that you will always find tares and wheat growing together, side by side (Matthew 13:30). That is to say, there are still unsaved people even in the best churches; and contrariwise, saved people in the worst.

In this blog I want to focus on Psalms 50:21, "

These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself: but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

" The inspired King James Bible is warning that if we embrace WRONG THINKING, God will someday need to reprove us, and set our corrupt mind in order.

We see a good example in Matthew 16:22-23, " Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee. But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men. ” The Apostle Peter was a good guy. Peter meant well. He loved Jesus and wanted to protect and defend his friend, who is the very Christ. But Jesus Himself said Peter was thinking like the Devil.

This is an amazing Bible truth. Although it is not possible for a redeemed saint of God to become demon possessed, it is possible to become deluded and think like Satan. I'll give you numerous examples of churchgoers thinking like the Devil:

1. The heresy of repenting of sinful bad habits to be saved. Judas repented of his sins but still went to Hell (Matthew 27:3)
2. The demonic heresy of Lordship Salvation (Matthew 7:21-23)
3. Women wearing immodest clothing (pants) in public (1st Timothy 2:9; Deuteronomy 22:5)
4. Religious Zionism; modern manmade Israel is not the fulfillment of Bible prophecy (Hosea 3:4-5; Romans 2:28-29; Revelation 2:9)
5. The modern Satanic corrupt Bible revisions (Psalms 12:6-7; Genesis 3:1)
6. Requiring sinners to walk a church aisle to learn how to be saved (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4)
7. Slanderous gossip, unjust criticism and accusing (condemning) others (Proverbs 11:9; Matthew 7:1-5, 12; Revelation 12:10)
8. Churches not going door to door soulwinning (Acts 20:20)
9. The evils of women preachers (1s Timothy 2:12)
10. The sin of divorce (Jeremiah 3:20)
11. Defrauding someone financially (1st Thessalonians 4:6)
12. Being slow to believe the truth (Luke 24:25)
13. The evils of abortion (Exodus 20:13)
14. The unnatural sin of homosexuality and the vile evil LGBTQ agenda (Leviticus 20:13; Romans chapter 1; Colossians 3:5-6; Jude 1:7)
15. Not loving everyone unconditionally (1st Corinthians 13:1-3; Jude 1:22)

I have just listed some evil things off the top of my head that are totally unbiblical. Only someone who is immature spiritually, backslidden, or is still unsaved would argue to debate.

The Wickedness Of Women Wearing Pants

Lately I've been bombarded with angry comments on social media from wicked sinners who scoff at the truth that women ought not wear pants. Men have never had it tougher to think and live right then today in 2025. Only a wicked pastor who is far from the Lord would dare to defend his ungodly wife wearing pants in public. Shame on Brad Moffett, and his verbally abusive father Bobby Moffett, two ungodly clowns at the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola.

In April of 2025, Pastor Brad shamefully told me and my wife in his church office that it doesn't matter if his wife wears sexy pants, because a man who walks in the Spirit won't fulfill the lusts of the flesh. I apologized to my wife for the embarrassing sexual nature of the conversation, which the unethical pastor ambushed us with. SHAME ON BRAD MOFFETT! I am 100 % convinced that Brad is henpecked and his ungodly bratty wife made him confront me, because she loves to wear her tight sexy pants in public, for which God will harshly deal with her in time.

Pastor Brad Moffett (age 37) had scheduled a time to meet with me and Alice in his office for a different reason, but then chose to censure my website ministry instead, making a fuss over my preaching against women wearing pants. We couldn't believe how inappropriate the pastor was being. It was Pastor, and not us, who brought up the issue of women wearing pants. In the 45 months that I attended Family Baptist Church in Pensacola from 2021 to 2025, I never once even mentioned anything about women wearing pants in their church, because as a guest it wasn't my business nor place to make such judgment calls.

We were shocked when Pastor Brad defended his wife's worldly pants, laying the burden not to lust upon men instead. That's like saying it's okay to leave your new expensive Deluxe 21-Speed Sport bicycle unlocked and alone in public because people shouldn't steal. You can kiss it goodbye! What Brad Moffett said is one of the most incompetent, arrogant and stupid things I have ever heard anyone say.

Shame on Brad Moffett, who has no business being the pastor of a church. Just because Christian men should walk in holiness doesn't make it okay for ungodly Christian women to dress in sexually alluring worldly attire (Proverbs 7:10). Preachers say the darndest things! Brad's big problem is that he has put himself in the place of God (and so has his foolish father), redefined God's Word to allow and tolerate the attire of an harlot in public. A century ago there was no debate. A woman who wore pants in public was considered lewd.

In 1923, the Attorney General of the United States decided that women [1]could legally wear pants for the first time. But God hasn't stopped being holy, men have stopped fearing God. 1st Peter 2:11, "Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul." Don't you dare try to convince me that our holy God is okay with Christian women putting on pants, looking like men. I promise you that when Pastor Brad's wife stands before God someday in judgment, she WON'T be wearing pants!

Pastor Brad wickedly bids Godspeed to infidels' Ken Ham, Billy and Franklin Graham, John Calvin, John Piper and that clown Jeff Redlin at Pensacola Christian College, who are all gospel perverts. These men walk in darkness, peddling a counterfeit plan of salvation which requires works. That is, they all insist that you fist [2]be willing to surrender your self to forsake your sinful ways to be saved. You see, again, ungodly pastors (irresponsible clergy) have lowered God to their ignorant level, redefining God and His Word to fit THEIR AGENDA.

Dear reader, please NOT NOT try to lower almighty God down to your sinful low moral standards (e.g., females wearing pants in public). Only whores wore pants in society a century ago! The first appearance of trousers in recorded history was among nomadic steppe-people in Western Europe, but this is vastly different than today's ungodly blue jean wearing American bimbo. Woe be unto the wicked pastor's wife who defies God's commandment by refusing to adorn herself in MODEST APPAREL. There is nothing modest about pants on women!

To clarify, I'm not talking about the 50 year old widow who needs to put on work overalls to haul sludge out of a smelly sewer hole to pay the bills. I'm talking about the ungodly pastor's wife who wears pants merely because she likes them, or wants to fit in with her worldly peers, or she doesn't want to be called " for having high moral standards, or she wants to attract the wrong type of attention to her thighs and buttocks (or all the above). No doubt many of my ministry blog readers will disagree with me, but if you ladies truly cared about the war going on in the souls of men today, you'd never wear a pair of pants, bikini or other immodest clothing again. I promise you ladies that you won't escape God's judgment in eternity. Public nudity is a horrible sin (Leviticus 18:6-19).

Pollyanna

American culture is so ungodly today that nearly all women see nothing wrong with putting on a pair of blue jeans, a bikini or other revealing suggestive clothing. Many women do it deliberately to draw the lust of men. That is why Jesus warned in Matthew 5:28 that a man who lusts has committed adultery "with her." She is just as guilty for giving the man something to lust upon. SHAME on today's immature, backslidden and often false Christians who maintain low worldly moral standards in contrast to the holiness commanded in the Scripture.

You can try to reinvent God, but you won't get away with it! Truth doesn't change just because you refuse to accept it. The true Gospel isn't perverted just because you may pervert it to your victims. What [3]Pensacola Christian College (PCC) is preaching today is NOT God's simple plan of salvation by grace through faith. But just because PCC and their unholy Campus Church have maliciously corrupted God's simple plan of salvation, doesn't change the truth of God's inspired Word. PAYDAY SOMEDAY!!!

Get Right With God America!

I wrote this blog to warn and encourage you dear reader not to change who God is, because you will only delude yourself into damnation. The Gospel cannot be changed (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). Modesty has never permitted women to wear men's clothing, and until 1923 in the United States it was illegal and enforceable by law. Would to God those days of high morality come back. And I'll tell you something else, I do not think women should have the right to vote. Men are to run the marriage, the home, the church and society! Like it or not, a woman's place has always been in the home, biblically married to another Christian and bearing many children, guiding the house and staying out of trouble. Today's career women have turned aside after the Devil, blaspheming the Word of God (1st Timothy 5:14-15).

Call me what you will, but there is no controversy if you believe the Holy Bible. Shame on any Christian women who sinfully wears her ungodly trousers, slants, Spandex, et cetera. It's a big deal to God!!! The wicked "free love" hippie movement of the 1960's with all their drugs, peace symbols and fornication, created the abortion industry which took off skyward in the 1970s. Twisted selfish Americans MURDERED 65,000,000 precious human lives by abortion on the demonic altar of convenience, godlessness, humanism, eugenics and self-centeredness. Hitler's friend in crime and eugenicist monster, Margaret Sanger (1879-1966), would be so proud if she were still alive today! But you see, she is burning in the fires of Hell forever, and I assure you that she is suffering in fiery torment and inexplicable miseries.

I have refused to sing the popular song "God Bless America" for the past 20 years, and I'll never sing it again. If as a child of God you want to wear rose-colored glasses to pretend like everything is okay, then do so at your own demise when you answer to God someday. Psalms 94:16, "Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?"

I am so sick and tired of do-nothing professed Christians who do absolutely nothing for the cause of Christ except to play church every Sunday, going through the superficial motions of religion so that your incompetent pastor(s) can collect an undeserved paycheck for running God's ship into the ground. The church flock belongs to God, not any pastor! When a fool-headed pastor like Bobby Moffett, his stiff-necked son or Jeff Redlin at PCC pervert the grace of God by requiring lost sinners to repent of their sinning to be saved, they are preaching another gospel which cannot produce the required new birth (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4; John 3:1-5).

God's will concerning salvation is to believe on Jesus, nothing more (John 6:40). Anybody who tells you that you must forsake a lifestyle of sinning to be saved is lying to you. Anybody who insists that your behavior will change for the better, and you will walk in holiness if you are really saved, is preaching the Devil's fraud of Calvinism! Get thee behind me, Satan!

Most professed Christians today have lowered God to fit their corrupt thinking. In the minds of today's apostate churchgoers, God allows fornication. He is okay with open adultery, substance abuse and every manner of filth and wickedness. Liberal ungodly neo-evangelicals portray Jesus as being so loving that nothing offends him, except the judgmental biblical fundamentalist who preaches hard against sin, heresy and false religion. I thank God for Bible fundamentalism. I thank God for soulwinning churches who still go out knocking from door to door as they did in the early church in the book of Acts (Acts 20:20).

Although in Heaven there is no such thing as "

the Baptist church

(Galatians 3:28-29), I choose to identify with Independent Fundamental Baptist Churches today. I believe they come closest to following the New Testament church. That being said, I vehemently reject any Baptist church that errantly teaches you must turn from your sinful ways to get to Heaven, because that is works according to Jonah 3:10. In the new birth, God wants to freely give you His gift of eternal life. The Lord does not demand that you surrender or give up anything to receive His free gift, because that would mean God owes you a debt (Romans 4:4).

Part of man's sinful nature is to corrupt, add and complicate God's simple plan of salvation. The Devil's goal is to hinder lost sinners from seeing the glorious light (truth) of the Gospel, lest they should be saved.

> 2nd Corinthians 4:3-5, "But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again, which is exactly what happened in Matthew 7:21-23. HAVE YOU BEEN BORN AGAIN? Your agenda is not the Lord's agenda! Isaiah 55:8-9, "

For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts." Don't try to figure out God because it cannot be done.

To clarify, we can have the mind of Christ as believers (1st Corinthians 2:16), but we will never fully understand God and His ways until we see Him face to face. 1st Corinthians 13:12,

"For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part [i.e., the mind of Christ]; but then shall I know even as also I am known." This is why we are exhorted in the Scripture to pray about everything in Philippians 4:6, so that " the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus

(Philippians 4:7b). I cherish the old timeless hymn of the Christian faith...

What a friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer!

Oh, what peace we often forfeit,
Oh, what needless pain we bear,
All because we do not carry
Everything to God in prayer!

Have you cast your burdens upon the Lord dear saint?

Have You Ever Been Born Again?

Do you know 100 % for certain that if you died right now you would go to Heaven to be with the Lord? If you don't, let's settle it right now. You are a sinner (Romans 3:10-23). I am a sinner. We have violated God's commandments. James 2:10 says breaking even one of God's commandments makes us guilty of breaking all of them, because nothing imperfect can enter through Heaven's gates.

Since neither you or I can attain perfection (Isaiah 64:6), nor can we undo or make up for our past sins, we need a Savior. His precious name is JESUS!!! God the Father in His unfeigned love sent His only begotten Son, Jesus, into the world to bleed, suffer, be tormented, mocked stripped naked and then crucified as a common criminal on a cross. He did that to pay your debt of sin, and mine. The faithful God who spoke trillions of galaxies of the universe into existence by the mere Word of His mouth in an instant (which some astronomers like to call the 'Big Bang'), died on a cross for you because He loves you more than you could ever know or comprehend. God was willing to die as a man so that you and I could spend eternity with Him. What a wonderful God and Savior!!!

, beaten beyond recognition,

Now, all God requires for you to obtain His free gift of eternal life is to simply by faith (taking God at His recorded Word in the Holy Bible), receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that after He died Jesus was buried, but then three days later He physically resurrected from the dead. This is the gospel

” according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-6, which simply means: 'GOOD NEWS.' This is how you become born again (i.e., saved or converted). You simply need to BELIEVE (rely upon, faith, trust) that Jesus is who He claimed to be—the very Christ, the promised Messiah, the only begotten Son of God (John 20:31); and that He did everything through Calvary's cross which was required by God the Father for your salvation. It's that simple!

You don't need to attend a church. You don't need to partake of any sacraments. You don't need to be water baptized to get to Heaven, but you should as a first step of obedience as God's redeemed child. Beware of pseudo-Christian cults (e.g., Church of Christ, Roman Catholic, Jehovah's Witness, Lutheran and Mormon) who insist that you must be water baptized to get to Heaven. They are liars! My Mom's mother (my grandma) was a born again Christian, but she never got water baptized. She was a decorated officer for decades in The Salvation Army. The repentant thief on the cross never got water baptized, yet Jesus assured him with a promise that they would be together in Paradise that very same day (Luke 23:43).

Neither do you need to live a lifestyle of turning from sins as Ray Comfort errantly preaches. Nor do you have to faithfully run the Christian race to the end as Steve Pettit (long time president of Bob Jones University) preaches. Nor do you have to forsake a lifestyle of sinning as incompetent pastor Marty Herron preaches. Marty today is the irresponsible vice president of Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological University in Ankeny, Iowa. The corrupt guy shouldn't be allowed to run a hotdog stand! Marty Herron is a child of the Devil, along with his mentor of madness John MacArthur (1939-2025) who just split Hell wide open the moment he perished. Lordship Salvation is a perversion of the Gospel of free grace! If these false prophets are in Heaven, then there are two Gospels and God is a boldfaced liar (Galatians 1:6-9).

Jack Chick (1924-2016) was another false teacher, who in every poisonous Chick Tract requires that you

be willing to turn from sin

to get to Heaven, which he foolishly mistook for Bible repentance. To

(Greek verb: metanoeo) simply means to think differently.

To be saved you must change your thinking about two things: 1) You must agree with God that you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20), so that in seeing your need; 2) You must trust Christ as your only Savior. These are the only two things you need to think differently about.

Your manner of wicked lifestyle and poor behavior traits are matters of discipleship and service, and not a matter of sonship and salvation. Whatever changes God wants to see take place in your life after you trust Christ as your personal Savior is solely His department, and you can rest assured dear reader that He will attend to it (Hebrews 12:6-8). God is not an absent parent (Proverbs 3:12).

> "More people will die and burn in Hell, because they're trusting too much!"—Pastor Jack Hyles, "[4]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"
> "Everything that's hard and complicated about salvation is God's side of it!"—Pastor Jack Hyles, "[5]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"

I hope to see you in Heaven with me someday friend. God bless you and thank you for your time to read my ministry blogs. To God alone by all the credit, praise and glory, great things He hath done (and is doing). Jesus is precious!!!

7.1.5 There Is No Such Thing As A “Good Christian” (2026-01-06 09:01)

Romans 7:14-24, “For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin. For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I. If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good. Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do. Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me. I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me. For I delight in the law of God after the inward man: But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?”

BEWARE of Gospel perverts who make repentance something complicated as an additional step to saving faith. You don’t repent AND believe, you repent TO believe. Many churchgoers today are religious fools. There’s no talking sense to an indoctrinated fool.

The inspired King James Bible from cover to cover is filled with sinful saints who had no remorse and continued living in sin. Lot comes to mind, who chose to move his family into the city of Sodom. Esau was a carnal sinner. Samson sinned up until his death, which was caused by his sins. Saul likewise was a horrible sinner, whose sins also caused his premature death. If Nathan the prophet hadn’t confronted David after several months, it is unlikely that David ever would have repented of his evil adultery and murder.

Apart from faith in the shed blood of Jesus Christ, it is a fallacy for any religious person to view himself as being any less sinful than the worst sinner. There is no guarantee that a sinner will walk in holiness just because they are born again. That is why Galatians 5:25 commands believers to walk in the Spirit, because it is not an automatic thing, you must CHOOSE to do so. Many Christians choose to continue walking in the flesh, and they live like the Devil, but are safe and secure in God’s promise of eternal life to them who BELIEVE (Romans 1:16).

There is no such thing as a "good Christian." The whole concept of living a holy life as part of sealing one’s salvation is heresy. It is Christ’s Spirit alone who LIVES THROUGH the redeemed child of God (Galatians 2:20), but each individual Christian must make that CHOICE on a moment by moment daily basis; walking in holiness is not automatic, nor something that is required to know or prove to someone else that you are saved.

Today’s “

repent of your sins

to be saved clergy are belligerent and have no desire or interest to learn. Clearly, many Baptists today are a hard core Calvinists, but refuse to admit it in honesty. Yet, their fruit (doctrine) exposes them as FALSE PROPHETS (1st John 4:1).

Humbly said, the Apostle Paul didn't waste his time arguing with indoctrinated religious fools, and neither will I. To God be the glory. Easy-believism is 100 % biblical. Once saved, always saved (OSAS) is 100 % biblical. You CAN live like the Devil and still have the sweet blessed assurance of knowing that your sins are forgiven and your name is written in the Lamb's Book of Life in Heaven (Luke 10:20), but you suffer God's displeasure and chastisement of you as His disobedient child (Proverbs 3:12; Hebrews 12:6-8). Our earthly choices as believers will affect and determine our heavenly rewards (1st Corinthians 3:7-15; Daniel 12:2-3; Revelation 14:13). Will you be empty-handed at the Judgment Seat of Christ friend?

Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan (1628-1688) said it best, I humbly think...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —Evangelist John Bunyan

What a beautiful quote! John Bunyan is refuting the heresy of Lordship Salvation, which evil results when you combine service with salvation. To avoid perverting God's Gospel of grace, we absolutely must keep discipleship (sanctification) completely separate from sonship (justification). One thing has nothing to do with the other, and this is the key to having a proper understanding of God's simple plan of salvation.

[1]Six Reasons Why You Don't Need To Repent Of Your Sins To Be Saved

I KNOW beyond any shadow of a doubt that I am saved because of what Jesus did FOR ME through His sacrificial death on Calvary's cross, burial and bodily resurrection; and not because of what I do for Him. Lordship Salvationists today are confused and backwards in their theology. They say we must live in holiness to know we are saved. They say if you have truly repented your life will be changed for better. That is Lordship Salvation, not a free grace Gospel. Calvinist, get thee behind me Satan!

There is simply no such thing as a "good Christian." At best, I am a struggling redeemed sinner, and so are you if you are a born again believer. There are only two types of people: 1) unredeemed sinners, and 2) redeemed sinners. That's is, that's all, no more. That is to say, no matter how good of a Christian you may think you are, you're still a hell-deserving filthy sinner. The only reason why God sees you as being any more righteous than the vilest sinner who ever lived is simply because of His imputed righteousness, "the righteousness which is of God by faith" (Philippians 3:9b).

Apart from God's imputed righteousness to you and I by faith in Jesus Christ, we'd be just as guilty in God's sight as mass-murdering lunatic Jeffrey Dahmer (1960-1994). I hope you are understanding the biblical truth I am sharing with you, because it is critically important dear friend. You have no righteousness to offer God, and neither do I.

Dear reader, if you truly grasp the truth I have just shared with you, then it should be abundantly clear what is very wrong with the Devil's lie of repenting of your sinful ways to be saved. Lost sinners repent of unbelief to be saved; redeemed sinners repent of their sins to please their Lord. The truth is that no one has ever repented of their sins to be saved. Judas repented of his sins in Matthew 27:3, but sadly still died in his sins and went to Hell forever.

If you understand the truth that I've taught you in this humble blog, then it should be abundantly plain to see what is very wrong with the Devil's fraud of Lordship Salvation (i.e., requiring a sinner to "surrender all" to follow Jesus as controlling "Lord" of your life). We see a group of sinners who followed Jesus in Matthew 7:21-23, serving Him diligently and calling Jesus, "Lord, Lord," but the story doesn't end well for them, not one bit. Jesus denied knowing them as His redeemed sheep, and they were tragically cast into Hell forever!

Do You Have God's Imputed Righteousness?

Again, to make sure that you understand what I am teaching from the inspired Word of God, the ONLY righteousness that any Christian possesses is the imputed righteousness of God. That is what the dear Savior means in Matthew 6:33, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." We need HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS to enter into God's Kingdom.

This is why we read in Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." In the Old Testament, there are approximately 720 different commandments under the Mosaic law. To merit salvation a person would be required by God to perfectly keep every one of those commandments, statues, precepts and laws. No human being except Jesus has been able to achieve such perfection (Hebrews 4:15-16).

Good people do NOT go to Heaven. Only FORGIVEN (pardoned) sinners do. Only Jesus was 100 % GOOD without sin or guile (1st Peter 2:21-24). Jesus died in our place on the cross of Calvary. We owed a sin debt that we could not pay. Jesus paid a sin debt that He did NOT owe. It only takes ONE sin to keep us out of Heaven (James 2:10). NO sin can be in the presence of a holy and just Almighty GOD. Jesus never sinned. He was as pure as the driven snow, beyond sin and reproach. I thank God for Jesus, who is "the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world" (John 1:29b).

Whereas we sinners all fall short of the glory of God, Jesus perfectly fulfilled the law. This is why God the Father said He was pleased with His Son in Matthew 3:17, signifying that the Son was acceptable as a sacrifice for the sins of every human being.

I love the following passage of Scripture...

> Romans 3:23-28, "
>
> For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;
>
> Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:
>
> Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;
>
> To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.
>
> Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.
>
> Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

If you are saved, you didn't get saved by repenting to turn away from your sins! Jack Chick (1924-2016) errantly teaches in his billions of Chick Tracts ([2]see the back page) that to be saved it is not enough to merely confess to being a needy sinner; but in addition, Jack Chick heretically says you must "be willing to turn from sin," which he foolishly thinks means to repent.

By God's grace for the past 23 years (since 2002) I have faithfully preached a free grace Gospel on social media, and have justly exposed the Satanic lies of repenting of sins and Lordship Salvation to get to Heaven. ...

> Psalms 40:10, " I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation."

Dear reader, NO ONE has ever repented of their sins to be saved. If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from? The truth is that

"repent" does NOT mean to forsake your sinful ways, it means "to think differently." Evangelist Alexander Marshall said it best...

>
> What do you mean? "I am not sorry enough for my sins."
>
> And if you were very sorry, would God be more willing to save you than He is now? "I think so."
>
> Then you are completely mistaken.
>
> Yes; but what do you think is the Scriptural significance of "repentance"? If you say "sorrow for sin" you are wrong. It does not mean sorrow for sin: it means a CHANGE OF MIND (Matt. 21:29). This change will doubtless produce sorrow; but sorrow and repentance are two very different things (Heb. 12:17. margin, and II Cor. 7:9). When God calls on you to "repent, and believe the Gospel," He wishes you to lay aside your wrong thoughts, and believe the glad tidings that He proclaims to you. Formerly you may have imagined that you were required to feel very sorry before being saved. Change your mind. You may have supposed you must first "feel" some great change in order to know you were saved. Change your mind. First believe in God's great love to you, as revealed in His gospel, and you will KNOW that you have eternal life (John 5:24). [3]SOURCE

Yes, that is excellent. Brother Marshall is 100 % correct, who plainly says that sinners are saved by BELIEVING THE GOSPEL; that is, he says, "to lay aside your wrong thoughts [Repentance] and believe the glad tidings [Gospel] that He proclaims to you." Amen!

There is no such thing as a "

good Christian.

” The Holy Bible teaches that we cannot live the Christian life of our own accord. Jesus lives through us. Galatians 2:20, “ I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. ” I cherish that Bible verse! This is why I humbly say that there is nothing good about me except Jesus. My dear Savior, Holy Spirit and the heavenly Father, live inside the spirit, soul and body of every saint of God (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24).

No believer has ever merited eternal life by consciously turning away from sinful behavior. It is only by the precious blood of Jesus that any of us will ever escape God’s wrath in the fires of Hell. Romans 5:9, “ Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.” Thank God for the applied blood of the Lamb to the Mercy Seat in Heaven (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24). The only goodness I have is Christ in me. Apart from that I am just a hopeless sinner. God’s righteousness is my only righteousness!!!

So the next time you hear some knucklehead pastor saying that you must

repent of your sins

to get to Heaven, you kindly tell him that Jesus Christ has already paid for your sins, which makes eternal life a free gift that need only be received by childlike faith in the GOOD NEWS Christ crucified, buried and risen. 1st Thessalonians 4:14,

“For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. ” Thank you for reading my ministry blog. To God alone by the credit, praise and glory.

7.1.6 The “Faith Alone Saves, But The Faith That Saves Is Not Alone” Heresy (2026-01-07 10:51)

Acts 13:39, “

And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

Pastor Charles Phelps wickedly corrupts the Gospel. Phelps even quotes John Calvin (1509-1564) in his sermon as a secondary authority to back-up his damnable counterfeit Gospel. John Calvin died in his sins and went to Hell forever! And unless he repents of his false gospel, Chuck Phelps will also spend eternity in the Lake of Fire!!!

Phelps also makes this heretical statement:

> “You can’t work to have salvation, but if you have salvation it will work!” [emphasis added] —Pastor Charles Phelps, “[1]False Faith” (time - 30:13; November 1, 2009 - Sunday morning)

That is typical false prophet doublespeak! That’s like me saying that you cannot earn your birthday gift, but if you accept it you will earn it! What in the world is Chuck Phelps talking about? Folks, this is junk theology at it’s worst! Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible are we taught, that if we receive God’s free gift of eternal life IT WILL WORK! That doesn’t even make sense!!! What did Jesus say about works to get to Heaven? John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” Jesus laid this question to rest forever about doing works to merit Heaven. The Lord said the ONLY work which God accepts is to BELIEVE on the name of Jesus!!!

Nowhere in the Holy Bible are we taught that we must work to prove that we are really saved. Pastor Chuck Phelps is a theological liar!!! Mr. Phelps is not a born-again Christian, because he is preaching a corrupt gospel based in partial faith in Christ plus works. Phelps misinterprets Titus 1:16, “They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.”

Pastor Phelps wickedly attempts to wrest this verse to support his heresy that works are necessary to verify that you are saved. But Phelps lifts this text out of its context to create a new pretext. He ignores Titus 1:10 which identifies these false teachers as being “of the circumcision.” They were guilty of adding works to faith, the very evil which Pastor Chuck Phelps is guilty of doing!!!

Evangelist John Bunyan (1628-1688) said it best:

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —Evangelist John Bunyan

That is exactly what Pastor Phelps and the Bob Jones University camp are guilty of doing! They corrupt the Word of God and cast stumblingblocks before the people, by failing to put a difference between JUSTIFICATION wrought by the man Christ without and SANCTIFICATION wrought by the Spirit of Christ within. One’s behavior is entirely a matter of DISCIPLESHIP, not SONSHIP.

Pastor Martin R. DeHaan (1891-1965) said it very well:

> “There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can’t be lost because it depends upon God’s faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness.” —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, “Hebrews”; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117)

Here are some more great helpful quotes differentiating between DISCIPLESHIP and SALVATION...

> “Certainly discipleship is a most important aspect of our relation to Christ, but it belongs to the sphere of Christian life rather than entrance upon that life... One does not become a disciple in order to become a Christian, but because he has become a Christian by faith in the Savior, it is fitting that he embark upon a life of discipleship.” —Harrison, Everett F. , “Must Christ Be Lord To Be Savior? No.”; Eternity, September 1959 (p. 14)

> “There is no more piously subtle abrogation of the Gospel than to tell a Sinner that he must not only believe in the Savior, but dedicate himself to do God’s will, crown the Savior Lord of his life, et cetera, et cetera. Obviously, dedication and service are highly desirable, but they are the privilege and the duty of the saved, never a condition of salvation for the unsaved (cf. Romans 12:1, 2).” —Dr. Unger, Merrill F., “God is Waiting to Meet You”; Moody Press, 1975 (pp. 117-118)

> “People are sometimes led to believe that there is saving value in some public confession of Christ, or profession of a decision. "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." This is salvation. "With the mouth confession is made unto salvation." This is the voice of the newborn child speaking to and of its father. The only condition on which one may be saved is to believe." —Chafer, Lewis Sperry, “Salvation”; Dunham Publishing Company, 1917 (p. 46)

Again, Phelps makes this heretical statement:

> "You can't work to have salvation, but if you have salvation it will work!" [emphasis added] —Pastor Charles Phelps, "[2]False Faith" (time - 30:13; November 1, 2009 - Sunday morning)

That is a backdoor forked-tongue false gospel. Dear reader, the Bible teaches that forgiveness of our sins and eternal life is a gift from God (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). There is no requirement to follow through with a lifestyle of obedience, service and commitment to Christ. What Pastor Phelps is preaching is another gospel, not the free grace promised by God by faith alone.

In his heretical sermon Phelps cites some statistics, saying that 74 % of Americans claim to have some sort of relationship with Jesus Christ. Yet, Phelps alleges that because of all the sin running rampant in professed believer's lives, it proves that they were never really saved at all. You see, he is foolishly confusing and mixing sanctification with justification. The Bible teaches that we are declared justified by faith alone. Getting saved is a legal matter. You and I are guilty of violating God's commandments. God's law condemns all humanity as being guilty sinners (Romans 3:19-20). The law brings us to Jesus Christ, so we can be freely justified by faith alone (Galatians 3:24-26). Christ paid our debt of sin on the cross (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Jesus paid for our sins with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). Once justified, every believer is "JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS" (Acts 13:39b).

From that point on as a child of God our sanctification journey begins. Depending on how well we are mentored, and if a good church exists for us to attend, and several other factors, we will either grow or languish in our Christian growth. We see this truth taught in The Parable Of The Sower And The Seeds in Luke 8:11-15. The "seed" is the Word of God (vs. 11). Some seeds fell among thorns, other upon shallow ground, and some on fertile ground. These were all believers! Only the first group were unsaved, the seeds which fell upon stony ground and the birds (Devil) took the seeds away. The last three groups were all born-again believers.

Obviously then, not all Christians mature to perfection as Chuck Phelps foolishly teaches. These ungodly Calvinists confuse multiples of people, leading worldly believers to think they are not really saved. The Bible says that some seeds fell on shallow ground. These are believers who quit church and never grow in the Lord. Infidels like Chuck Phelps claim they were never saved, but the Bible says they are shallow. They are carnal (1st Corinthians 3:1). In the heretical mindset of Steve Pettit, Chuck Phelps, Marty Herron, Gary Walton and other reprobates of the faith, carnal Christians don't exist. There is no middle ground in their foolish thinking!

If you listen to the preceding lame sermon by Pastor Phelps, he begins the sermon by talking about a former pastor who abandoned his wife and quit the ministry, claiming he was never really saved at all. I am so sick and tired of these Pharisaical hypocrites like Chuck Phelps!!!

Just because a man's life falls apart and he quits the ministry doesn't mean that he was never a child of God. Chuck Phelps is a major hypocrite!!!

The Lord spoke in His parable about the seeds which were "choked" by the cares and riches of this world (Luke 8:14). There are tens of millions of choked believers today in the world. They have been distracted from serving Christ. They have been thrown off course because of "the sin which doth so easily beset us" (Hebrews 12:1b). They have been diverted because of the love of money and the riches of this temporal world. But they are saved!!! The Lord simply said they didn't mature in the Lord for various reasons, but Jesus never said that this proved they were never saved at all. You dear friend must choose whether to follow the theology of Jesus Christ, or the corrupt junk theology of the demonic Bob Jones University camp today! I'm going to follow Jesus' teachings!!!

You CAN get saved in an instant and KNOW IT 100 %! Former theologically incompetent long time (2014-2022) Bob Jones University (BJU) president, [3]Steve Pettit says you cannot! What a devil preacher. What a theological liar! The Bob Jones crowd are spiritually vile, corrupt and must be exposed for the Calvinist false teachers that they are!!! BJU invited and honored Calvinist Paul Washer in December of 2022. Shame on them! (2nd John 1:11).

The teaching that "Faith alone saves, but the faith that saves is not alone" is damnable Lordship Salvation heresy! This cleverly articulated adage sounds great to an unlearned Bible student, but it is simply not biblical. It is not true that your faith must produce works to be valid. All of the pseudo-Christian cults (Mormons, Catholics, Seventh-Day Adventists, Jehovah's Witnesses, et cetera) errantly teach that your faith is invalid if it doesn't result in doing good works and living a changed life.

I thank God for doctrinally sound preachers like my ministry friend Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, who made this edifying statement...

> "'You can't tell me you can trust Christ as Savior, and then go out here and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven!' Yes, I can tell you that! That's what the Bible says. If you don't come to the conclusion, that—Yes, you can trust Christ as your Savior and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven when you die—you don't get grace, because that is the exact truth! That is the truth! I do not have to change my life! I don't have to stop one sin! You say, 'I've never heard a preacher say that.' You just heard one! And you listen to me—I want to live as holy and as godly as I possibly can. I am now 70 years old. I've been saved for 52 years. ... the only reason I'm going to Heaven is because, 52 years ago in a little living room, I accepted Christ as my Savior." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, a great quote from the awesome sermon, "[4]Calvinism And Grace Are NOT Compatible"

The inspired Holy Bible is full of redeemed saints who squandered their lives in sin, accomplishing nothing for the Lord. If it weren't for 2nd Peter 2:7-8 we'd never even know that carnal Lot was saved, **"

For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds

" (2nd Peter 2:8). In Genesis 13:12 the inspired Scripture says Lot pitched the opening of his tent toward Sodom, signifying that his heart was there before he arrived in Sodom. In Genesis 14:12 Lot and his family lived in the wicked city of Sodom. So be careful what you set your heart upon!

As a dire consequence of Lot's foolish materialistic decision to move his entire family to Sodom (essentially the ungodly Las Vegas of their generation), his wife was killed when she looked back and turned into a pillar of salt, two of Lot's daughters died along with their heathen husbands who refused to heed Lot's warning to flee Sodom, and his other two daughters ended up pregnant by Lot from the alcohol they took with them out of Sodom. No doubt Lot and his entire family were infected with immorality by living in Sin City.

Sin City

The Bible is full from cover to cover with sinful saints. We read in Genesis 15:6 that Abram was saved by faith alone in the Lord. There is no mention of Abram turned away from his sinful habits, nor that he was willing to to do. The entire concept of requiring a lost sinner to be willing to live a changed life as a prerequisite to be saved is of the Devil.

There is no guarantee that just because someone comes to Christ by faith to be saved, that they will live a changed life or produce works meet (fit) for repentance.

Acts 26:20, "

But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

" Carefully notice that we repent toward God, not from sinning, to be saved. You turn from unbelief to be saved, not sinning.

Also, please don't miss that word

"should" (free will); that they SHOULD to do WORKS meet (appropriate) for repentance; not must (Catholicism) or will (Calvinism). Titus 2:12 says believers " live godly in Christ Jesus, not must or will, which would be LORDSHIP SALVATION. Right doctrine matters!

The truth dear child of God, if you have been born again, is that you have a CHOICE to either walk in the Spirit that indwells you, or you can by default walk in the flesh (Galatians 2:25). Kindly said, those false teachers today who claim that you are not really saved unless you live a holy life are dangerous misguided fools. To protect the free grace Gospel, we must at all times keep discipleship (service) separate from sonship (salvation).

7.1.7 I Think President Trump Did A Good Thing In Venezuela (2026-01-08 07:00)

Proverbs 11:26, “He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.”

Proverbs 29:2, “When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.”

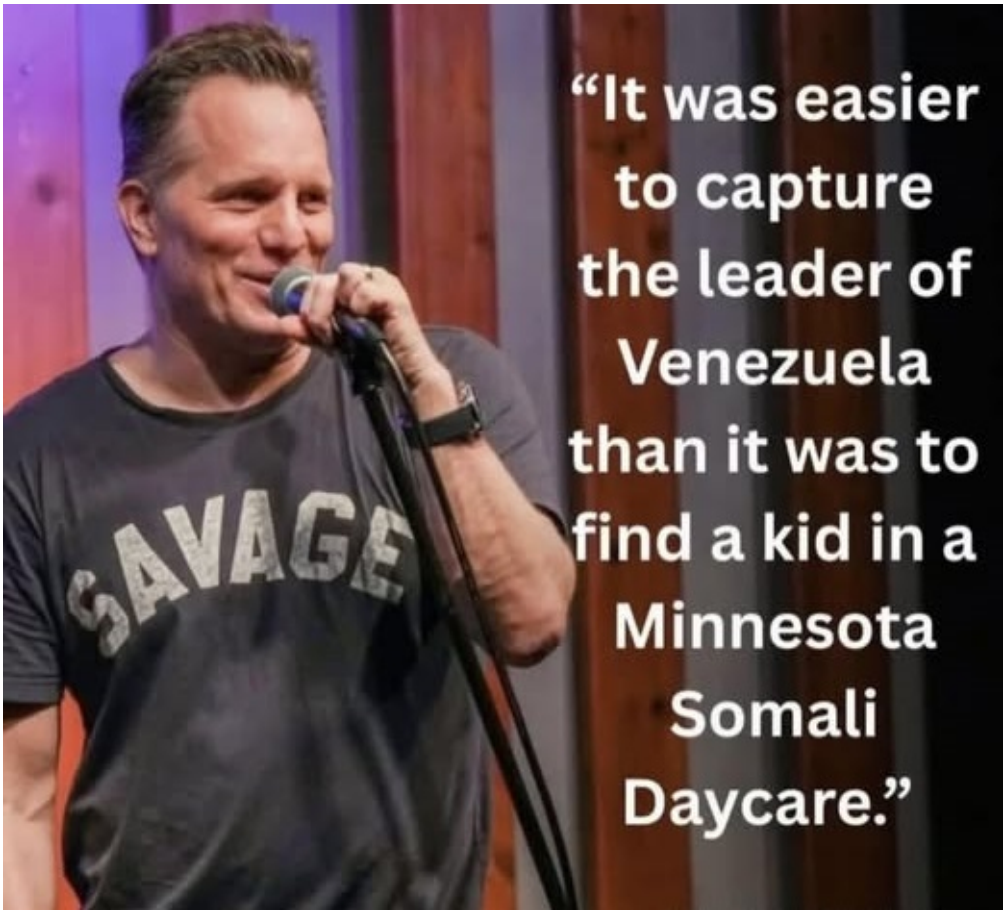
I humbly think President Trump did a good thing to remove Nicolas Maduro from power. The [1]people there have been hurting so bad. In 2025, Venezuela faced severe humanitarian crises, with over 82 % of the population living in poverty and many lacking access to basic necessities like food and healthcare. The government’s repression of dissent and political opposition further exacerbated the suffering of its citizens.

In Venezuela, [2]several bakers were arrested for making brownies and other pastries instead of bread, as the government mandated that 90 % of wheat must be used for loaves due to food shortages. This crackdown is part of a broader effort to control prices and combat economic instability in the country.

President Trump said that Venezuela stole America’s oil infrastructure that we built for them in the early 1900s. Mr. Trump is referring to Venezuela’s nationalization of its oil industry in the 1970s, which involved taking control of foreign-owned assets, including those of American companies. This action is often described as "stealing" by critics, but it was part of a broader trend of resource nationalism in many countries.

So, it’s not like the U.S. is stealing Venezuela’s oil, in lieu of the fact that the U.S. made significant investments in their oil industry, without which they’d never have been able to retrieve the oil from the earth.

The U.S. has had a long history of involvement in Venezuela’s oil industry, beginning in the 1920s when American companies helped develop the country’s oil resources. However, after nationalization in the 1970s and various political changes, U.S. companies have faced significant challenges in re-entering the market.



President Trump has promised to use much of the money from oil production to help the suffering people of Venezuela, rebuild their dilapidated infrastructure, and fix their broken economy.

Maduro is a thug killer, a monster, and a good U.S. President removed a lunatic criminal from power.

Praise God!

The vast majority of citizens in Venezuela are rejoicing.

7.1.8 Why We Use The King James Version (2026-01-09 11:55)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, “For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.”

I agree with Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), who said it's the "King James Bible," not just another mere "version" of God's inspired Word. Bravo Brother Hyles! Without further ado, here are [1]Pastor Frank S. Logsdon's own words explaining why he only uses and recommends the infallible, pure, preserved, incorruptible and inspired KING JAMES BIBLE...

Why We Use The King James Version
by Dr. Frank Logsdon

As a pastor, I write this for the people in our church. On occasion, I have been asked why we, in our church, use the outdated King James Version. To answer that, we must touch on some complex and technical subjects. I, accordingly, have attempted to simplify the manner to a degree that most can understand.

In Proverbs 22:28 the Bible says to "Remove not the ancient landmarks which thy fathers have set." A landmark is a surveyor's term and refers to a benchmark or property marker. Today, in most jurisdictions, it is against the law to move or alter a survey landmark.

Christianity has its foundations in an authorizing and governing document. That document is the Bible. Any attorney will understand the critical nature of altering an authorizing and governing document. Because the Bible is in every sense the final and absolute foundation of what we as Christians believe and practice, it only is prudent that we be concerned that the foundation is sure and the benchmark has not been altered.

For almost two millennia the church of Jesus Christ accepted a set of Greek and Hebrew texts that were received by virtually all gospel preaching, Bible believing churches of whatever group. This text was called the Received Text (or Textus Receptus in Latin). Down through the centuries biblical scholars and church leaders had assembled the existing Greek and Hebrew manuscripts of the Bible. From that compilation, the vast majority were in virtual agreement. These formed the basis of the Received Text.

In the year 1611 A.D., King James I of England was influenced to provide a common Bible for the English speaking world. Hence, he authorized a translation of the Bible into English that came to be known as the Authorized Version or as it is more commonly known, the King James Version. King James selected a committee of Greek and Hebrew scholars from the Church of England. These men were "low church" individuals with ties to the Puritans and later the Pilgrims who emigrated to America. They worked from the text of the Greek and Hebrew testaments that had been received" or accepted by virtually all branches of gospel preaching, Bible believing Christians from the apostolic era to that time. Their product, the King James Version of the Bible, has been, until just recently, the universal standard for Bible believing Christians of the English speaking world.

Enter Textual Criticism

Textual criticism is an academic discipline in which scholars study existing Greek and Hebrew biblical manuscripts. Prior to the advent of the moveable type printing press in 1455 by Gutenberg, all copies of the Bible were hand copied by scribes and were called manuscripts. Because they were individually produced by human hands, they were prone to mistakes in manual copying.

Textual critics study the various extant (existing) manuscripts and note any discrepancies that may have occurred between different copies. Then, by comparing them, a majority consensus is established. Should a misspelled word be found, or should a word have been accidentally added or omitted from a given manuscript, the textual critic endeavors to by consensus establish the correct reading.

A major theory of textual criticism is that some later manuscripts were copied from earlier ones, therefore, the earlier manuscripts are presumed to be a more accurate source of the Scriptures. (The presumption is that scribal errors would accumulate in later copies). Hence, textual critics give much more credence to early manuscripts than to later copies even if the later be greater in number.

The problem with this theory is that the early church had great reverence and respect for their "accepted" or "received" manuscripts of the Scriptures. Accordingly, when a given copy of the Scriptures became tattered and worn, it was carefully copied and then burned Hence, there are virtually no copies of me earliest manuscripts used by the churches.

However, there is evidence that certain cults and sects within early Christians followed the opposite practice. They preserved their manuscripts regardless of condition. Therefore, the crucial premise of textual criticism - that the oldest manuscripts are always to be preferred to more recent copies is critically flawed.

Manuscripts Aleph and B

ln the latter half of the 19th century when textual criticism perhaps was at its zenith, two ancient manuscripts were found in the Mediterranean world that would come to revolutionize the work of the textual critics. A manuscript was "found" in a Roman Catholic monastery at the foot of Mt. Sinai in the Sinai desert. It came to be known as Manuscript Aleph and it also was known as Codex Sinaiticus ("codex" being a Latin word for a bound volume).

About the same time another ancient manuscript was "found" in the library of the Vatican. It became known as Manuscript B or Codex Vaticanus. Both of these manuscripts were determined to have come from the 4th century A.D. and are considered the oldest basically complete copies of the New Testament to exist. Hence, they were considered by the textual critics to be the mother lode of ancient Bible manuscripts.

It is noteworthy that both of these manuscripts were "found" in Roman Catholic libraries. (The Roman Catholic Church historically has never given great credence to the Scripture or its teachings). Moreover, the Codex Sinaiticus had been produced by scribes of the Alexandrian sect in early church history. The Alexandrians were a heretical cult similar to the modern Jehovah Witnesses. They held major doctrinal deviations pertaining to the person of Jesus Christ. Notwithstanding the questionable source of Codex Sinaiticus, it became the premiere source for future textual criticism.

Drs. Westcott and Hort

Two British textual critics championed these newly found manuscripts. Their names were Dr. B. F. Westcott and Dr. F. J. A. Hort. They represented a branch of the Church of England which was enamored with the doctrine of the Roman Catholic Church. Westcott and Hort in their writings showed a keen friendliness to Roman Catholic theology, occult spiritism and German Rationalism otherwise known as modernism. They, by no stretch of the imagination, could he considered fundamentalists s the term was later coined and used. Rather, if they lived today, their theology and philosophy (as evidenced by their writings) would be called liberal, humanistic, sacramental and even have occult overtones.

Drs. Hort and Westcott together collated and Text of the New Testament. The "new" Greek text was in contrast with and in distinction to the text that had been received by virtually all Bible believing churches for the preceding 19 centuries. In the last 100 years it has been re-edited by Nestle, Aland and others, and today is generally referred in as the critical text. It represents less than 1 % of existing manuscripts.

From this critical text and its direct predecessor, the Westcott and Hort Text, virtually all modern translations and versions of the Bible have been translated into English.

WE BELIEVE THAT THE CRITICAL TEXT IS CORRUPT! Not only are its origins and associations suspect, the actual text itself is full of deletions and dilutions of the time honored Scripture received by translations based upon the critical text have diluted reference to the blood of Jesus Christ (e.g. Romans 3:25, Colossians 1:14, Revelation 1:11, Luke 22:20 et al), the Deity of Christ (e g Jude 4, Revelation 1:11). the inspiration of the Scriptures (e.g. 2nd Timothy 3:16), and salvation by faith (e.g. John 3:36) to mention a few. Space does not allow us to list the numerous instances of serious dilution or deletions of major doctrinal truth in modern versions, but it is lengthy. There are thousands of textual changes

If a survey benchmark has been moved or altered, all surveying after that point will be distorted. And because the critical text is in our view corrupt. any version of the Bible translated from it is suspect.

Modern Versions

The venerable King James Version of the Bible is not copyrighted. It is considered a public domain publication of the Word of God. However, virtually all modern versions are copyrighted. As any author or publisher knows, a copyright is for protection of commercial rights. It means that no one else may market their Bible without paying the publisher or at the least receiving written permission to do so. Does not the Apostle Peter refer to some in the last days "making merchandise of you" regarding the things of God (II Peter 2:3)?

Moreover, a number of the modem versions (based upon the critical text) have used less than precise methods for translation. Some have used a literary device known as "dynamic equivalence." This is a fancy term that essentially means some translators have taken the liberty to come up with what they think are modern equivalents for specific words in the manuscript text rather than precisely translating the specific words of the text. In effect, this is a running commentary on the part of the translators, injecting into the translation what they think a given passage means, rather than rendering a precise translation of what the scriptural writers actually wrote. There is nothing wrong with Bible commentaries. However, to insert personal bias under the guise of translation is not only less than a faithful rendering of the text, it is deceptive.

In at least one case, a popular version bas bad the honesty to indicate m its subtitle mat it is a paraphrase. Unfortunately, unwary minds often look at such a Bible paraphrase as the Bible nevertheless. Some versions have used vulgar and crude terms in their translations They have seemed oblivious to the unique purity of purpose of the Scripture.

As mentioned above, cardinal New Testament doctrine such as the shed blood of Jesus Christ, the Deity of Christ and the inspiration of Scripture is routinely diluted m recent translations based upon -me critical text. That should give pause for concern!

The Godly Heritage of the KJV

In viewing the distortions, deletions, corruptions, dilutions, changes and questionable associations of the critical text and its resultant modernist translations, we will stick to the venerable King lames Version of the Bible that our forbearers so faithfully used. It is an ancient landmark Down through the centuries, it has been the Bible used for every major revival to sweep across portions of the English speaking world. It was the Bible of the Pilgrim forefathers of this nation. And. it has been God blessed wherever it bas been used. It is based upon the ancient text which bas been, until just recently, the universally accepted text of the Scriptures from the time of the apostles.

Modern versions have been marketed extensively as being easier to read than the archaic, old fashioned KJV Bible. However, recent computerized document analysis programs have objectively revealed that the King James Version of the Bible is in far easier to read than the NIV or the NASB. The Fleisch-Kincaid research firm has, through computerized analysis, shown that the KJV vocabulary has fewer syllables per word than the NIV or the NASB. Furthermore, the KJV has less complex sentences than the NIV or NASB. In reality, the KJV is easier to read than its modern counterparts in the manner of vocabulary and syntax.

There is undisputed eloquence and beauty in the King James Version. Moreover, the English language was at its zenith in the early 17th century for poetic beauty and eloquence. Interestingly, one of the major criticisms of the King James Version is actually a strength. People unacquainted with proper English complain about the use of "thee" and "thou," et cetera, in the King James text.

However, as anyone who knows linguistics will attest, many languages have at one time had a common level which was spoken on the street and a higher or formal level that was used in reference to royalty and God. The usage of "thee" and "thou," et cetera. in old English is a form of higher English that no longer is commonly used. It originally was used in formal situations where deference and respect to nobility, royalty and Deity were appropriate.

Unfortunately, our contemporary American English usage of "you" and "yours" etc. makes no allowance for such deference and brings all of our language back to the lower level. The King James Version respectfully and appropriately refers to God and other notables as "thee" or "thou" in accordance with their due respect. Most modern language translations have diluted that deference.

NOTES:

Dr. Frank Logsdon was the Co-founder of the New American Standard Bible (NASB). He since has renounced any connection to it. "I must under God renounce every attachment to the New American Standard Version. I'm afraid I'm in trouble with the Lord . . . We laid the groundwork; I wrote the format; I helped interview some of the translators; I sat with the translator; I wrote the preface . . . I'm in trouble; I can't refute these arguments; it's wrong, terribly wrong . . . The deletions are absolutely frightening . . . there are so many . . . Are we so naïve that we do not suspect Satanic deception in all of this?

Upon investigation, I wrote my dear friend, Mr. Lockman, (editor's note: Mr. Lockman was the benefactor through which the NASB was published) explaining that I was forced to renounce all attachment to the NASV (same as the NASB).

You can say that the Authorized Version (KJV) is absolutely correct. How correct? 100 % correct . . ."

7.1.9 From The NASV to The KJB Testimony Of Pastor Frank Logsdon (2026-01-10 09:00)

This speech, and Frank Logsdon's defection in the fear of God, from the New American Standard Bible (NASB) to the King James Bible (KJV), is a landmark event in the ongoing King James Version (KJV) controversy. But there is no controversy if you believe the Holy Bible.

FROM THE NASV TO THE KJV TESTIMONY OF A COMMITTEE MEMBER FOR THE NEW AMERICAN STANDARD VERSION...

By Pastor S. Frank Logsdon

INTRODUCTION

Franklin S. Logsdon (1907-1987) was a respected evangelical pastor and popular Bible conference speaker. He pastored Moody Memorial Church in Chicago (from 1950 to 1952). Prior to that he pastored Central Baptist Church in London, Ontario (from 1942-50). He also pastored churches in Holland, Michigan (Immanuel Baptist from 1952-57), and Erie, Pennsylvania. He taught at London Bible Institute in Ontario, Canada. He preached at Bible conferences (such as Moody Founder's Week) with well-known evangelists and pastors such as Billy Graham and Paul Smith of People's Church in Toronto.

Logsdon authored a number of popular books and commentaries published by Zondervan Publishing House. A notice on the cover of his book Lest Ye Faint states, "One of the most popular and best loved pastors is the author of this book.

Mr. Logsdon is an uncompromising defender of the faith once delivered to the saints, and each Sunday in Moody Memorial Church in Chicago, thousands of people gather to have their souls refreshed from the divine springs of Christian truth."

In the 1950s Logsdon was invited by his businessman friend Franklin Dewey Lockman to prepare a feasibility study which led to the production of the New American Standard Version (NASV). He also helped interview some of the men who served as translators for this version. He wrote the Foreword which appears in the NASV.

As we see in the following testimony, in the later years of his life Logsdon publicly renounced his association with the modern versions and stood unhesitatingly for the King James Bible. In a letter dated June 9, 1977, Logsdon wrote to Cecil Carter of Prince George, British Columbia, "When questions began to reach me [pertaining to the NASV], at first I was quite offended.

However, in attempting to answer, I began to sense that something was not right about the NASV. Upon investigation, I wrote my very dear friend, Mr. Lockman, explaining that I was forced to renounce all attachment to the NASV. ...I can aver that the project was produced by thoroughly sincere men who had the best of intentions. The product, however, is grievous to my heart and helps to complicate matters in these already troubled times."

Logsdon moved to Largo, Florida, in his senior years and died there August 13, 1987. His widow, Beatty, subsequently moved to Wheaton, Illinois.

FRANK LOGSDON'S SPEECH

Two questions were handed me tonight which if I could answer them would take care of almost all the other questions:

1. "Please tell us why we should use the Authorized Version and why the New American Standard is not a good version, and the background from which it came."
2. "What is your opinion of the 1881, 1901 and other variations of the Bible in relation to the Authorized Version?"

May I point out to you very specifically, not that you do not know but to stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance, we are in the end time. And this end time is characterized by a falling away, and of course that is apostasy. That is the meaning of the word: Falling away from truth. And when there is a falling away from truth, concurrently there is always confusion because they are sort of Siamese twins.

With confusion there is mental and heart disturbance, and people naturally come short of the high standard of the Lord. Everything we have or ever will have will be found here [in the Bible], as we have said so many times. All that God does for us, in us, with us, through us, to us must come by the way of this Word. It's the only material the Spirit of God uses to produce life and to promote it. Name it, and it has to be here. So you can understand why the archenemy of God and man would want to do something to destroy this book.

I ought to whisper to you, and this is no compliment to the devil, but he knows it can't be destroyed. He tried to destroy the Living Word. You don't see this depicted on Christmas cards, but the night Jesus Christ was born the devil was there in that stable with one third of the fallen angels whom he had dragged down, to devour the man-child as soon as He was born (Revelation 12:5). Now he couldn't do it. Just think.

Satan was there when Jesus was born, with all of those cohorts, those fallen angels, for one purpose: to devour the man-child. He couldn't do it. So failing to abort the Saviorhood of Jesus Christ both at the manger and at the cross—when he said come down from the cross, that is, before your work is finished come down—he is going to do what he knows is the next most effective thing, that is try to destroy the Written Word.

You understand, I am sure, there are places in this book where you can't differentiate between the Living Word and the Written Word. You know that. John 14:6—"I am the life." John 6:63—"My words are life." Different life? The same life. You can't differentiate because after all the Written Word is the breath, if you please, of God, and Jesus Christ is God made flesh or the Word that came to earth.

THE DEVIL'S ATTACK ON THE BIBLE

Nevertheless, getting back to this, the devil is too wise to try to destroy the Bible. He knows he can't. He can't destroy the Word of God. But he can do a lot of things to try to supplant it, or to corrupt it in the minds and hearts of God's people. Now he can only do it in one of two ways: either by adding to the Scriptures or by subtracting from the Scriptures.

And you mark it down in your little red book: He's too wise to add to because those who have been in the Word for a long time would say, "Wait a minute; this is not in the Bible." So he subtracts from it. The deletions are absolutely frightening.

For instance, there are in the revisions (1881 and 1901), so we are told 5337 deletions, subtractions if you please. And here is the way it is done. It is done so subtly that very few would discover it. For instance, in the New American Standard we are told that 16 times the word "Christ" is gone.

When you are reading through you perhaps wouldn't miss many of them. Some you might. And 10 or 12 times the word "Lord" is gone. For instance, if you were in a church when the pastor is speaking on the words of the Lord Jesus in his temptation, "Get thee behind me, Satan," if you have a New American Standard you wouldn't even find it. It's not even in there. And there are so many such deletions.

So this is done in order to get around it and further blind the minds and hearts of people, even though it may be done conscientiously. There isn't any worse kind of error than to have conscientious error. If you are conscientiously wrong it's a terrible situation to be in. Nevertheless, when there is an omission that might be observed, they put in the margin, "Not in the oldest manuscripts." But they don't tell you what those oldest manuscripts are.

What oldest manuscripts? Or they say, "Not in the best manuscripts. "What are the best manuscripts? They don't tell you. You see how subtle that is? The average man sees a little note in the margin which says "not in the better manuscripts" and he takes for granted they are scholars and they must know, and then he goes on. That's how easily one can be deceived.

THE HISTORY OF THE CRITICAL GREEK TEXT

Let's go back to say 352 A.D., when Constantine, the Old Pagan Wolf, as he was called, was concerned because his kingdom was threatened with a schism. There were those who held to the Babylon doctrine of the mother and child coming up through history, and there were others who held to the Roman doctrine of mother and child. In order to cement his kingdom, he felt he ought to bring about a Bible that would satisfy both sides which were threatening to destroy his kingdom. So he called upon Eusebius. (There were two men of that period called by this name, but I am referring to Eusebius the historian.)

Who was Eusebius? He was a protege of Origin. And who was Origin? Origin was one who believed that Christ was a created being, like the Jehovah's Witnesses, therefore he's not divine. Now a man who studies under a teacher like that certainly would imbibe some of it. Nevertheless, Eusebius brought into being a Bible that would somehow or other not offend those who had the Babylonian doctrine or those who had the Roman doctrine of the mother and the child.

ROME IS THE CUSTODIAN OF THE CRITICAL TEXT

There are two copies of those Bibles in existence, A and B, the Codex Sinaiticus and the Codex Vaticanus. And where are they? They are in the custodial care of Rome. Now almost all of our revisions, of recent years in particular, come through that stream. And that necessitates this comment: There is the false and the true streams of manuscripts. And either our manuscripts come through the false stream, or they come through the approved stream of manuscripts.

When people speak of the oldest manuscripts, they usually mean the A and the B, the Codex Sinaiticus and the Codex Vaticanus. But nobody has seen [Vaticanus. It has] been under lock and key in Rome. And the only copies we have are the copies that Rome decided to give to the outside world, and I don't trust them one inch. Never, never, never! And I'll tell you why in just a moment. None of our scholars today have seen Codex B [Vaticanus], unless they've seen just a page or two through a glass case.

But that's not enough to get the feel of the whole thing, just to see a page that is open at one place. So here we have the stream of manuscripts and the stream of Greek texts coming down through the "custodial care" of Rome. And if it's in the custodial care of Rome, I don't want anything to do with it. I've come to this place now: I can't stand toe to toe with the scholars, with those who have delved into the manuscripts and textual criticism for years and years. I've had too many other things to do. And you haven't been able to, either.

So what do you do? I don't argue with them anymore. I'm not going to argue with any of them. I'm just going to ask, On what manuscript or manuscripts is this version based? And if it's based upon a manuscript that came down through this Roman stream, I don't want anything to do with it.

You say, How can we know? Well, when God was ready to tell the world through a converted monk that the just shall live by faith, he raised up a man—and I'm sure that God raised him up; couldn't be otherwise—by the name of Erasmus. Erasmus is said by those who seem to know—scholars, we have to take their word for something—that he was the wisest man this side of Solomon that ever lived. It was said that he could do ten days work in one day. Brilliant. I forgot how many languages he spoke; they say he was at home in eighteen or twenty different languages as easily as we can move around in the English language.

He knew the manuscripts that were available, and he brought about a Greek text. Now he was so brilliant that the pope offered him—that is to keep him, I suppose, from doing this Greek text—offered him the position of a cardinal, which is a high-ranking position for those in the Catholic Church. I know a little bit about it because my father's people were from Ireland and were Roman Catholic all the way back. I have three cousins in Chicago who are priests. I have a cousin in the Chicago area who is a nun. That was quite an offer to be offered the position of a cardinal, yet he refused it.

The British government, I am told, offered him one of the highest positions possible in the British commonwealth. And at his own price he turned it down. Germany did the same thing, but he turned it down because he felt God had called him to bring about the pure Greek text. All of this goes off into so many areas. We have a friend in one of our Baptist churches, very delightful chap, very educated, and he speaks against Erasmus because he had some attachment to the Roman church. Even our friend Peter Ruckman speaks against Erasmus. But how could you speak against a man, claiming that he is Roman, when he turned down the offer of a cardinalship and campaigned against monasticism, against the liturgy of the Catholic church, and was detested by the Catholic people?

And not only that, but listen to this: Do you know one of the reasons the Jesuits came into being under Loyola? Their main project was to supplant the Erasmus text, get it out of the way somehow, just undermine it. And this is their pledge. You can go to the library and get this directly, if you care. They said, 'In order to supplant the Erasmus text we'll send our men to Protestant seminaries, Protestant Bible schools; we'll get them into teaching positions in seminaries; we'll get them into pulpits of churches.' To do what?

The whole aim around the world is to destroy the Erasmus text, and the Authorized Version of course came from the Erasmus text. Getting back to this one matter that really impresses me a great deal. When God was ready to tell the world that the just shall live by faith, he got hold of the heart of Luther and he tacked his thesis to the door—"the just shall live by faith"—and took all the persecution that comes to one who turns against the church of Rome.

If the just shall live by faith, where do we get faith? Romans 10:17, "Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God." If they're going to have pure faith they had to have the pure Word of God. Doesn't that make sense? And so God raised up Erasmus to bring about what was called the pure Greek text, and had it completed when Luther came thundering forth "the just shall live by faith. "He had the Greek text of Erasmus to translate. Someone put it this way: Erasmus laid the egg and Luther hatched it. Just at the right time he had the text, and all he had to do was to translate it into German.

I think I mentioned the other night, since there is so much concern about these versions and paraphrases and so on, it is a marvelous opportunity for the devil to get in his strokes, you know. Through computerized procedures they have tried to determine the accuracy right down the line. You have lists of those in various books.

The Authorized Version is right at the top. Friends, you can say the Authorized Version is absolutely correct. How correct? 100 % correct! Because biblical correctness is predicated upon doctrinal accuracy, and not one enemy of this Book of God has ever proved a wrong doctrine in the Authorized Version. You've never heard of anyone's intellect being thwarted because he believed this Authorized Version, have you?

And you never will. You've never heard of anyone anytime going astray who embraced the precepts of the Authorized Version, and you never will.

I tell you, I used to laugh with others when a person would try to slander the intelligence, perhaps, of some who say, "Well, if the Authorized Version was good enough for Paul it's good enough for me. "You get a lot of ha, ha's. Say, that perhaps is true. If this is the Word of God, and Paul had the Word of God, then things equal to the same thing are equal to each other. We have the Book that Paul had! It's true there could be, and perhaps should be, some few corrections of words that are archaic. And a few places where it could read just a little more freely.

But after all, as I said to the men this morning in the class, just think of the countless millions of dollars of God's money spent on all these versions and translations which could have been spent on God's service. There are 100 of them right now. Think of it. When I say corrected, I mean just some of the archaic words such as "he who lets will let until he be taken out of the way." Now we don't use the word that way, but you can find out what it means by taking just a moment to look it up.

Back in Jeremiah 4:22 we read, "My people are sottish." There wouldn't be two people in the congregation that would know what that means. But I like it because when I looked it up, I found that it had more meaning than any other word you could put there. It means thick headed. God says, "I can't get through to you because you are thick headed. "And maybe He wants it to stay there. If a persons looks it up he gets a better understanding of it than if another word were put in there to change it. There are places where I believe the Spirit of God led the translators of the Authorized Version.

You read their biographies. They were mighty men of God; spent as much as five hours daily in prayer; and some of them knew twenty-some languages. And it was before modernism filled the air, and before their attention was diverted by so many other things, television and so on. Actually, after I've listened in so many places to all these arguments and I've listened to the scholars and sat with the translators, to be honest with you I haven't found anything seriously wrong anywhere with the Authorized Version. Really. Really!

Just a couple of archaic words that are not in usage today. Well, they could be changed. I personally don't think the "thous" and the "thees" should be changed. God's thoughts are above our thoughts, higher than our thoughts, and these words are expression of His thoughts, and I like to see it a little different here and there from men's ways and men's thoughts.

Actually I don't think there is anything wrong with this [the Authorized Version], and it has been tested for 362 years. Are you ready to throw it overboard because the scholars have come along and said, "Well now, this is better; reads better; you can understand it better"? I mean to tell you, with all their self-justification [of the new, easier to read versions], people know less and less about God’s Word.

THE 1881 ENGLISH REVISED VERSION

To begin with, the revisers for the 1881 weren’t to be revisers; they weren’t to bring out a new Book. They were revisers to bring some of the words up to date because the language had changed. They were to be revisers, but the fact is—and believe me, this can’t be refuted—there wasn’t enough in the Authorized Version to revise to make it worth the while, to cater to the ego of scholars. So when they saw that there wasn’t much to revise, here they had their committee arranged. One was a Unitarian, a man by the name of Smith.

That’s why you find on verses concerning the incarnation there’s something wrong. Such as 1st Timothy 3:16—"By common consent great is the mystery of godliness. "Don’t you believe that the mystery of godliness depends upon what man thinks, or his opinion. The verse continues in the 1881 version—"he who was manifest in the flesh.

"You’ve been manifest in the flesh; I’ve been manifest; [that statement alone is meaningless]. It’s God who was manifest in the flesh. Do you see the Unitarian flavor there? He got in some blows somewhere, and that must be one of them. But nevertheless, they didn’t have enough to revise. So what are they going to do?

Well, two brilliant Cambridge scholars by the name of Dr. Hort and Dr. Westcott had been collaborating on a new Greek text built on the Codex Sinaiticus and the Codex Vaticanus which they believed were the very best manuscripts, held by Rome. So they said to the committee when they saw there wasn’t enough to revise—I don’t know if they said these exact words, but they said, "We would suggest that we bring about a new version. "And they had those men pledge themselves to secrecy that they wouldn’t tell anybody about the text they were using until after the book was out.

Afraid, I guess, that they would be curbed, that the King of England or somebody would prevent them. Twice British royalty refused to have anything to do with the 1881 revision. But at any rate it was deception to begin with. Their own text hadn’t even been published yet, hadn’t stood the scrutiny of the public.

So the 1881 was built upon that. And the only fundamentalist who stayed on the board was Dr. F.H.A. Scrivener, and before he died he felt he had to break his promise to this group of men, and he let the world know that they took advantage after advantage in the text. That’s where we’ve gotten the number of something like 5,337 deletions. [That was his count.] And he said, "Every time I raised an objection I was voted down, and they took liberties with God’s Word. "He was right there at almost every meeting, and he revealed that to the world before he died.

[Our readers can read Scrivener’s own words about this deception by ordering Scrivener’s The Authorized Edition of the English Bible. A reprint of this is available from Bible for Today, 900 Park Avenue, Collingswood, New Jersey 08108. Order Item # 1757. Which Bible, edited by David Otis Fuller, also contains information about Scrivener and his protests against the ERV. Scrivener is listed 20 times in the index to that volume. Which Bible can also be obtained from Bible for Today.]

Now when the 1881 came out many people liked it because it said Jehovah instead of Lord in many places. Well, that’s minor; you can say that with the Authorized Version. But it was scarcely 10 years before it proved to be a failure. That is, it didn’t get anywhere.

THE 1901 AMERICAN STANDARD VERSION

Within 10 years they started communicating with spiritual leaders on this side of the water to work with them on another printing called the 1901 edition, feeling, I suppose, that if the Americans cooperated that they would have a wider sales range. Well, just think. When the 1901 came out it had gone 10 years when it was practically a failure, because in 1911 in the third centenary of the Authorized Version the publishers had 34 outstanding scholars to go over the Authorized Version and see what legitimate changes could be made here and there.

You know, they took the 1901 edition and they could only take two out of every 100 corrections in that. Only two percent. And immediately they discovered that the 1901 was not trustworthy. And it didn't go very long until it died out. In all of my pastorates I can only remember one person who ever owned one of those 1901 American Standard Version Bibles.

THE NEW AMERICAN STANDARD VERSION

Back in 1956-57 Mr. F. Dewey Lockman of the Lockman Foundation contacted me. He was one of the dearest friends we've ever had for 25 years, a big man, some 300 pounds, snow white hair, one of the most terrific businessmen I have ever met. I always said he was like Nehemiah; he was building a wall. You couldn't get in his way when he had his mind on something; he went right to it; he couldn't be daunted.

I never saw anything like it; most unusual man. I spent weeks and weeks and weeks in their home, real close friends of the family. Well, he discovered that the copyright [on the American Standard Version of 1901] was just as loose as a fumbled ball on a football field. Nobody wanted it. The publishers didn't want it. It didn't get anywhere.

Mr. Lockman got in touch with me and said, "Would you and Ann come out and spend some weeks with us, and we'll work on a feasibility report; I can pick up the copyright to the 1901 if it seems advisable. "Well, up to that time I thought the Westcott and Hort was the text. You were intelligent if you believed the Westcott and Hort. Some of the finest people in the world believe in that Greek text, the finest leaders that we have today.

You'd be surprised; if I told you you wouldn't believe it. They haven't gone into it just as I hadn't gone into it; [they're] just taking it for granted. At any rate we went out and started on a feasibility report, and I encouraged him to go ahead with it. I'm afraid I'm in trouble with the Lord, because I encouraged him to go ahead with it. We laid the groundwork; I wrote the format; I helped to interview some of the translators; I sat with the translators; I wrote the preface. When you see the preface to the New American Standard, those are my words.

I got one of the fifty deluxe copies which were printed; mine was number seven, with a light blue cover. But it was rather big and I couldn't carry it with me, and I never really looked at it. I just took for granted that it was done as we started it, you know, until some of my friends across the country began to learn that I had some part in it and they started saying, "What about this; what about that?" Dr. David Otis Fuller in Grand Rapids [Michigan].

I've known him for 35 years, and he would say (he would call me Frank; I'd call him Duke), "Frank, what about this? You had a part in it; what about this; what about that?" And at first I thought, now, wait a minute; let's don't go overboard; let's don't be too critical. You know how you justify yourself the last minute. But I finally got to the place where I said, "Ann, I'm in trouble; I can't refute these arguments; it's wrong; it's terribly wrong; it's frightfully wrong; and what am I going to do about it?" Well, I went through some real soul searching for about four months, and I sat down and wrote one of the most difficult letters of my life, I think.

I wrote to my friend Dewey, and I said, "Dewey, I don't want to add to your problems," (he had lost his wife some three years before; I was there for the funeral; also a doctor had made a mistake in operating on a cataract and he had lost the sight of one eye and had to have an operation on the other one; he had a slight heart attack; had sugar diabetes; a man seventy- four years of age) "but I can no longer ignore these criticisms I am hearing and I can't refute them.

The only thing I can do—and dear Brother, I haven't a thing against you and I can witness at the judgment of Christ and before men wherever I go that you were 100 % sincere," (he wasn't schooled in language or anything; he was just a business man; he had the money; he did it conscientiously; he wanted it absolutely right and he thought it was right; I guess nobody pointed out some of these things to him) "I must under God renounce every attachment to the New American Standard. "I have a copy of the letter.

I have his letter. I've shown it to some people. The Roberts saw it; Mike saw it. He stated that he was bowled over; he was shocked beyond words. He said that was putting it mildly, but he said, "I will write you in three weeks, and I still love you. To me you're going to be Franklin, my friend, throughout the course. "And he said, "I'll write you in three weeks." But he won't write me now. He was to be married. He sent an invitation to come to the reception.

Standing in the courtroom, in the county court by the desk, the clerk said, "What is your full name, Sir?" And he said, "Franklin Dewey." And that is the last word he spoke on this earth. So he was buried two days before he was supposed to be married, and he's with the Lord. And he loves the Lord. He knows different now.

I tell you, dear people, somebody is going to have to stand. If you must stand against everyone else, stand. Don't get obnoxious; don't argue. There's no sense in arguing. But nevertheless, that's where the New American stands in connection with the Authorized Version. I just jotted down what these versions, translations, and paraphrases are doing Consider:

1. One, they cause widespread confusion, because everywhere we go people say, What do you think of this; what do you think of that? What do young people think when they hear all of that?

2. Two, they discourage memorization. Who's going to memorize when each one has a different Bible, a different translation?

3. Three, they obviate the use of a concordance. Where are you going to find a concordance for the Good News for Modern Man and all these others? You aren't going to find one. We're going to have a concordance for every one; you're going to have to have a lot of concordances.

4. Four, they provide opportunity for perverting the truth. There are all these translations and versions, each one trying to get a little different slant from the others. They must make it different, because if it isn't different why have a new version? It makes a marvelous opportunity for the devil to slip in his perverting influence.

5. Five, these many translations make teaching of the Bible difficult. And I'm finding that more and more as I go around the country. I mentioned this thing the other night. How could a mathematics professor or instructor teach a certain problem in a class if the class had six or eight different textbooks? How about that? How could you do it?

6. Six, they elicit profitless argumentation. Because everywhere we go they say this one is more accurate. Which one is more accurate? How do they know? And this is not a reflection against those saying this, because I would have done this a few years ago.

Lest I forget, in one of these questions somebody said, "How can we know that we have the whole truth?" Well, just simply by believing God. And what do I mean by that? John 16:13—"When he the Spirit of Truth is come he will guide you into" how much? Tell me. Tell me, now. "All truth." And if we don't have all truth, the Holy Spirit isn't doing His work. We have to have all truth for Him to lead us into all truth.

And there are many, many other passages which teach this. If we could hear His voice we would have no trouble learning His Word from the Authorized Version. Let me tell you this: You might not be able to answer the arguments, and you won't be [able to]. I can't answer some of them, either. Some of these university professors come along and say, What about this; what about that? They go into areas that I haven't even had time to get into.

As I said to you a couple of minutes ago. You don't need to defend yourself, and you don't need to defend God's Word. Don't defend it; you don't need to defend it; you don't need to apologize for it. Just say, "Well, did this version or this translation come down through the Roman stream? If so, count me out. Whatever you say about Erasmus and Tyndale, that's what I want."

And besides this, we've had the AV for 362 years. It's been tested as no other piece of literature has ever been tested. Word by word; syllable by syllable. And think even until this moment no one has ever found any wrong doctrine in it, and that's the main thing. He that wills to do the will of God shall KNOW the doctrine.

Well, time is up. Let's be people of the Book. It took my mother to heaven; and my dad, my grandfather, my grandmother. It was Moody's Book; it was Livingstone's Book. J.C. Studd gave up his fortune to take this Book to Africa.

And I don't feel ashamed to carry it the rest of my journey. It's God's Book. "Our Father, we thank Thee and praise Thee for Thy Word. Help us to love it, and preach it, and teach it, and tell everybody we can the Good News through thy Word. In Jesus' name. Amen."

7.1.10 A Just Man Falleth Seven Times, Yet Riseth Up Again (2026-01-11 08:00)

Proverbs 24:16, “

For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

I love this quaint passage of Scripture from the Old Testament.

I am reminded of this Bible verse every time I fail as a Christian. The inspired Holy Bible acknowledges that failure is a normal part of living the Christian life. I love what the Apostle Paul said here...

8988

2nd Corinthians 10:5-6, "Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled*.

Carefully notice where Paul said to "

! That means when we fail as believers (and we all do continually one way or another), we should be upset with our sinful, nature, and purpose in our heart of hearts that we won't ever make that mistake or commit that particular sin again.

David in the Old Testament commit the horrible sins of pride, lust, adultery, deception, murder and trying to hide the tremendous wickedness he had done. Since David in his pride refused to repent for his evils, God needed to send Nathan the prophet to confront David for his evil deeds, and to pronounce judgment upon him, which would last a lifetime. The Devil's always pays with counterfeit money. All of Satan's apples have worms. Sin at first thrills, but in the latter it always kills. Sin in the beginning fascinates, but in the end it assassinates.

Proverbs 24:16, "

For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

" To

"fall" refers to our sins. There is no such thing as a " good Christian.

We are all wretched sinners.

Psalms 106:6, " We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly." If we want to please the Lord our God, then we need to stop saying:

"He has sinned" and "She has sinned" and start saying truthfully, "We have sinned." I am the biggest sinner I know, and if you're right with God you should feel the same about yourself (Luke 5:8).

A Christian will fall into the clutches of sin again and again and again. No matter how much we may resolve in our heart never to sin again, we will sin again, before the sun goes down, and likely before the end of the minute. We all falter in of sin, because we are still stuck in this fleshly mortal body. Romans 7:18, " For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not." Let's not deceive ourselves dear reader, we are all wicked sinners!

The $64,000 question is: Have your sins been washed away by the precious blood of the Lamb, so that you will 'DIE IN THE LORD' someday (Revelation 14:13); or are you headed for Hell forever when you 'DIE IN YOUR SINS' (John 8:24)? My sins have been washed by the precious blood of Jesus. What saith the Scripture? ...

1st Peter 1:18-19,

“Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot.”

I wrote this blog to encourage you dear friend. Over the past 24 years of my website ministry (since 2002), I have received innumerable emails from discouraged Christians who cannot overcome their sinful bad habits and constant temptations. Many of them have been lied to by false prophets; such as, Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, John MacArthur, Pensacola Christian College, Charles, Lawson, Bob Jones University, Jeff Redlin, Sam Gipp, Steve Pettit, Chuck Phelps, Marty Herron, Billy and Franklin Graham, Bobby and Brad Moffett, Albert Mohler, Faith Baptist Bible College, William P, Grady, Peter S. Ruckman, Josh Thompson, Bible Baptist Church in Pensacola, John Hagee, Charles Stanley, Joel Osteen, Rick Warren, Joyce Meyer, Beth Moore, Kirk Cameron, William Lane Craig, Adrian Rogers, John K. Jenkins, Jack Chick and his toxic Chick Tracts and other deceivers who pervert the Gospel of free grace, teaching instead that to be saved you must first be willing to turn away from a habit of sinning.

So, if you continue living a lifestyle of sinning, all of those damnable heretics will falsely say that you’ve never truly been “born again” (John 3:1-7), because you’ve never repented. The big problem is that all of them have a WRONG concept of what it means to “

in the Holy Bible. Whereas the Greek verb for

“

Dear reader, I can tell you will all confidence on the authority of the inspired Holy Scripture, that you will never go to Hell because of your sins; if you do end up in the Lake of Fire, you'll go to Hell for one reason and one reason only, and that is if you reject Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins. God never sent anyone to Hell who didn't choose to go there, by refusing to receive His free gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life, through faith alone in the death, burial and resurrection of His only begotten Son, Jesus. Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. "

If you have been born again by faith alone in the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ, then you are forever saved. ONC SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED is 100 % biblical, regardless of how much sin may be in your life as a child of God. Since you weren't saved by doing good works, you can never become lost against by doing bad works. Jesus said that the only work of God to be saved is to BELIEVE ON JESUS (John 6:28-29). John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. " Faith in Jesus is the only path to Heaven!

If you are one of God's children, then you WILL fall, again and again. But the big difference between the saved sinner and the unsaved heathen sinner, is that the saved man is TRYING to please God, even though he fails often. Whereas the heathen unsaved man couldn't care less about living for God, a believer who is right with God does. The heathen man has no Holy Spirit conviction because he doesn't know God, but a child of God does have the Holy Spirit indwelling him or her (Romans 8:9; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17; 1st John 3:24).

So, please don't beat yourself up too bad up when you fail, because we all fail God in life. That doesn't mean you were never born again, it just means that you're priorities in life were wrong at the time you sinned again. When a man's lust for the flesh becomes a higher priority in his life than his love for God, dangerous things start to happen. The prisons today are full of sinful men and women who got their priorities mixed up. I believe that is what the Scripture means in Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life. "

I have let the Lord down and disappointed Him more times than I can remember. I have often wished that I could live my life over, knowing what I know now. I guarantee you that if King David in the Old Testament could have returned to live another life on earth, with the knowledge he acquired from the mistakes and sins of his first life, he would never have commit adultery with Bathsheba and ruthlessly murdered her husband to hide David's wickedness.

Whatever sins, failures and mistakes you've made in your past, rise up oh child of God and know that Jesus' blood covers all sins! Hebrews 10:22, "Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

" If you have trusted Christ as your personal Savior, then your sins have been forever washed away by the blood. 1st Corinthians 6:11b, but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God." Amen and amen!

The true redeemed child of God (who trusts in a free grace Gospel) KNOWS and REJOICES that his or her name is recorded in Heaven in the Lamb's Book of Life (Luke 10:20). Please don't let any hellbound Calvinist false teacher tell you that you're not saved just because you still have unconfessed and unforsaken sins in your life. If that were true every one of us would split Hell wide open when we breathe our last breath on earth. [1]Thank God for the blood of Jesus, I've been born again! Hallelujah, I'm saved, saved, saved!

If you are a born again child of God, you will never achieve sinless perfection (despite what the wacky Methodists teach). In this earthly lifetime there is no such thing as Sinless Perfection. Only Jesus Christ was without sin (Hebrews 4:15). All that God asks of you dear saint of God is that you KEEP TRYING to please Him (Revelation 4:11; Ecclesiastes 12:13).

For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

” You and I will falter in our walk as believers. I hate when I stumble. I don’t want to continue living in sin. I hate my faults and weaknesses. But through God’s grace I am strong. Remember, we don’t grow in strength as saints, we grow in grace (2nd Peter 3:18). Galatians 2:20 teaches that we do not live the Christian life. That’s correct. Jesus lives the Christian life through us, as we walk by faith. 2nd Corinthians 5:7 , “ For we walk by faith, not by sight. ”

7.1.11 Beware Of Smyrna Baptist Church In Pensacola (2026-01-12 05:13)

Romans 16:17-18, " Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple."

I DO NOT recommend this church. Pastor Bill Adams woefully lacks personal concern, love and compassion for people. I attended the church for several months, but the pastors never welcomed me. When I shared my broken life with Pastor Adams, he never offered to pray with me. He couldn't have cared less. The senior pastor has denim without lace, strength without beauty, toughness without love. I speak this to his utter shame!

I believe the church is always 85 % empty because of their bad attitudes and the horrible way that they mistreat people. When I kindly asked for some water to drink at their Memorial Day movie, the pastor's ungodly wife rudely asked me why didn't I get something to drink outside at their earlier picnic. I almost walked out the door. It matters how you treat people. You don't talk to a 57 year old man that way. Bill Adam's wife is a wicked fool. I humbly believe she is hurting his ministry by driving people away from the church with her ungodly attitude.

I am so hurt, disgusted and disappointed with their senior pastor in 2024. I DO NOT recommend this horrible place to anybody, unless you want to play church three times a week, sing sycophantic religious songs, and be part of a superficial cult that preaches Lordship Salvation. The church uses [1]demonic 'Chick Tracts' which pervert the true meaning of repentance, requiring you to be willing to forsake sinful bad habits to go to Heaven. That is not a free grace Gospel.

Kindly said, Jack Chick (1924-2016) was a Gospel pervert! Chick Tracts corrupt the simplicity that is in Christ by demanding that you first be willing to reform your life to be saved. Behavior modification is not a prerequisite to God's saving grace, lest it not be a gift (Ephesians 2:8-9). Shame on Jack Chick and his associates. Shame on Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola for wickedly bidding Godspeed to Jack Chick, by distributing his toxic trash to the susceptible public.

Pastor Bill Adam's Horrible Wife

People just want to be loved, but you won't find that love in most of today's disgraceful Baptist churches. The way that you treat people matters, it really does. Positions are temporary, ranks and titles are limited, but the way you treat people will always be remembered. Pastor Bill Adams and his wife treated me horribly in 2024. I maintained a positive attitude at their church, never caused the least bit of trouble, and I showed nothing but love and respect toward everyone. In sharp contrast, Pastor Adams' foolish wife was very unkind toward me. This is how heathens behave, not how God's children should behave (Ephesians 4:30-32).

The last time that I attended their church in late September of 2024, Pastor Adam's mean wife deliberately came to shake my hand during the Sunday service, but she deliberately looked hard right 45 degrees off at the wall to offend me, then coldly walked away. Her husband had done the exact same thing to me a weak earlier, but he looked to the left 45 degrees over my shoulder.

Pastor Adams never did make any eye contact with me.

I contacted him about it later that same day, to ask him if I was welcomed in the their church. Pastor Adams never answered my question if I am welcomed at their church, but he did apologize for looking hard left over my shoulder when I approached him after the Sunday morning service to shake his hand. He said that he didn't know why he did it. I forgave him, gladly so.

Evidently he went home and told his bratty wife, because she intentionally came up to me the next week at church to shake my hand, but very rudely deliberately looked hard right off at the wall to offend me. I went home and kindly contacted Pastor Adams again about the matter with his mean wife, but he totally ignored me this time. A few days later I contacted his church secretary about the matter, asking her to let the pastor know, because he refused to respond. To their utter shame I never heard anything from that wicked church.

No wonder the auditorium is always 85 % empty!

Sadly, they don't want me at Smyrna Baptist Church. You either build or destroy a church one individual person at a time. Evidently they either don't understand this fact or else don't care. I'm thinking that PCC pays part if not all of Bill Adams' salary, and also provides their daughter with free tuition at PCC, so they can afford to lose tithing church members at Smyrna. Something is very wrong! When a pastor and his wife are reckless in relationships and don't care if people leave, they evidently are living large. Shame on them!

Dear reader, if you think this is a trifle matter then you are foolish. When someone comes to shake your hand , but then they look off at the wall to diss you; that is not only rude, it is down right rotten and mean. And moreover, it is very unchristian! I gave them a chance to apologize, but they threw me under the buss instead, choosing to get rid of me. They mistreated me, counting me as their enemy because of [2]my website ministry which they despise (Galatians 4:16). Today's Bible colleges are pathetic, rending the next generation of preachers impotent.

Churches Who Pervert The Gospel Are Religious Cults

With biblical authority I can honestly say: God damn Bill Adams and his rotten wife, and God damn Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola, because they all pervert Gods simple plan of salvation. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

To their utter shame, Smyrna Baptist Church change God's simple plan of salvation to include being willing to forsake your sinful ways to be saved. When I was considering attending their church in 2023, a dear Christian friend of mine who lives in Indiana contacted the church, to inquire about their beliefs on repentance. He contacted their youth director, who confirmed that the church perverts the Gospel by errantly requiring lost people to forsake their sinful bad habits to be saved.

Only a theological cult teaches that to get to Heaven you must, "Repent of your sins." No such teaching is found in the inspired King James Bible. Acts 20:21 speaks of repentance "toward God." 2nd Timothy 2:25 speaks of repentance to acknowledge "the truth." But you cannot show me anywhere that the King James Bible says to "

repent of your sins

or to

turn from your sins

to be saved. What saith the Scripture?

Matthew 1:21, “

And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

” Jesus came into the world to save men from their sins; He does not mandate that you first be willing to forsake your sinful ways as a prerequisite to receive God’s gift of eternal life.

Beware Of Pensacola Christian College Cult

To no surprise, Bill Adams’ daughter attends the religious cult at Pensacola Christian College (PCC).

When I moved from the island of Guam to Pensacola in 2021, I attended Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). I was horrified on Wednesday evening on July 21st, 2021, when I heard assistant pastor Timothy Zacharias pervert the gospel in front of thousands of cult members, errantly teaching that repentance requires a change of behavior to get to Heaven. But don’t take my word for it, here’s a screenshot from their official Campus Church Foundation’s Class...

Damnable Heresy At Pensacola Christian College

Not one verse in the inspired Holy Bible teaches that you must do the work of living a changed life to prove that you are saved. Repentance in fact DOES NOT result in a change of behavior; but rather, a changed life is the fruit of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22), which requires that a believer choose to walk in that Spirit (Galatians 5:25). So, living a changed life is NOT an automatic thing. If a saint of God chooses not to walk in the Spirit, then they WILL fulfill the lusts of the flesh (Galatians 5:16). Just because someone is saved does NOT mean they will walk in holiness. Anyone who says otherwise is contradicting the Word of God.

To no surprise,

The Smyrna church auditorium literally smells like a cheap musty hotel. It was offensive to my nose. I don't know if it is the carpeting or what, but it smells bad. My nose did adjust to it some over time, but the smell didn't go away. First impressions are lasting impressions.

The Woeful Lack of Love In Today's Bible Colleges And Churches

I was listening to Alexander Scourby read the inspired King James Bible today and this passage leaped out at me, which is an indictment against 99 % of pastors and churches...

> 1st Peter 1:22-23, "Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently: Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever."

That scumbag Jeff Redlin (senior clown pastor at PCC's Campus Church), in writing kicked me out of Campus Church on August 02, 2022. It didn't matter that in the summer of 2022 I wrote a long heartfelt letter of apology for offending the pastors at Campus Church, pleading to please return to Campus Church. Although they are all the same organization, legally Campus Church and PCC operate separately, with separate leadership (who are all in bed together).

So, in frustration I also mailed a letter to PCC, asking for their help in June of 2022. They all sinfully decided to completely ignore me. What saith the Scripture? ...

> 1st Peter 4:8-9, "
>
> And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.
>
> Use hospitality one to another without grudging.

Yet, contrary to the Lord's plain command to love one another without grudging, these unloving religious hypocrites at PCC don't know God nor the meaning of His great love. Pastors' Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias think this is all a laughable matter, no doubt cracking jokes about me and my ministry in their office. God sees their wickedness (Hebrews 4:13). God will hold them accountable for even their words (Matthew 12:36). They won't be able to weasel their way out of accountability on Judgment Day (Proverbs 24:12). PAYDAY SOMEDAY!

PCC is guilty of preaching another gospel. PCC is guilty of not loving and caring about hurting people. PCC is guilty of preaching the Devil's fraud of Lordship Salvation. PCC is guilty of elevating financial profits above people. PCC takes in about $175,000,000 per year in revenues! Pastor Redlin gets paid a disgusting 6-digit salary. He is an incompetent clown!

After several weeks of frustration in 2022, that monster Jeff Redlin showed his hateful true colors as a reprobate of the faith, banning me from returning to PCC's Campus Church. What saith the Scripture? James 2:13, "For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment." I wouldn't want to be in Jeff Redlin's shoes when he stands to give account to God. Mr. Redlin has [3]much blood on his hands for preaching another gospel. The Bible warns that to those pastors who showed no mercy, God will show no mercy.

When I humbly begged Pastor Marty Herron in 2014 at the corrupt [4]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam to simply please let me come back to church, he refused and threw me under the bus for dead. Woe unto Marty Herron and his accomplices Joe Hansen, Jared Baldwin and others. Marty Herron is an incompetent preacher. They were upset with for for TELLING THE TRUTH that all of the modern Bible revisions are corrupt, that Lordship Salvation is not the Gospel of free grace, that Martin Luther was not a born again Christian because he peached Sacramental Salvation all his life, et cetera. These are all wicked wolves in sheep's clothing!!!

In hindsight, I didn't realize that PCC was wrong on the Gospel until I attended their church cult in July of 2021. Since that time my eyes have been wide opened concerning the deadly theology at PCC today. Check this out, [5]I found FOUR different plans of salvation at PCC! You couldn't make this stuff up. Clearly, Jeff Redlin is wickedly pandering to the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam who promote his name and sermons as if he were royalty. Redlin has sold his soul for the praise of men rather than the praise of God (John 12:43). The LORD is on my side for one reason, which is because I AM TELLING THE TRUTH. God is no respecter of persons. Jeff Redlin and PCC are in serious trouble with God for perverting the Gospel and wickedly bidding Godspeed to false prophets.

I realize that I seem to be driving all over the road in this blog article, but dear reader these false prophets are all connected and I want you to see that fact. Harvest Baptist Church on Guam airs Jeff Redlin's sermons on their poisonous KHMG 88.1 FM radio station (which is broadcast throughout the Micronesian islands). Kindly said, Pastor Redlin is a bastard of the Christian faith, an illegitimate minister who peddles a corrupt plan of Lordship Salvation instead of a free grace Gospel. Even Satan appears as an angel of light, as do his minions (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15). PCC are pulling on the same rope as the Devil.

All of the aforementioned churches are actually religious cults who are WRONG on God's simple plan of salvation.

Salvation is not a reward for the righteous, it is a gift for the guilty.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Turning away from sinful ways would be a work. Faith puts all of the merit where it belongs, on the object of our faith, Jesus and His work.

If to "repent" means to forsake our sinful ways TO BE SAVED, but Jesus already paid for our sins by dying on the cross, then what are we repenting from?

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU.

Please understand dear reader that I do not hate any living soul. I don't write these blogs to be vindictive or unkind. I write these blogs to 'PREACH THE WORD' (2nd Timothy 4:2). The Gospel is not something that is unclear or ambiguous in Scripture. The Apostle Paul said Christ Himself gave him the Gospel (Galatians 1:12). That Gospel is plainly defined for humanity in 1st Corinthians 15:1-6, which is comprised of THREE ELEMENTS:

1. Jesus DIED on a cross to pay our debt of sin.
2. Jesus was BURIED.
3. Jesus physically RESURRECTED from the dead three days later.

1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." I love that Bible verse!

Dear reader, it would be my joy if my calamity (being kicked out of all these neo-evangelical churches) would lead to their repentance from wrong repentance, that they should be saved. NO ONE is a born again child of God who sincerely thinks that they need to stop sinning as much as they used to get to Heaven (because that is WORKS). Sadly, this is essentially what 99 % of today's churches are teaching and preaching—that more than faith is required to get to Heaven. Such lying false prophets will insist that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone in Jesus alone, while simultaneously hypocritically insisting that unless you're willing to forsake your sinful bad habits, so that your behavior changes, you didn't really get saved.

The truth is that these sincere but ignoramus preachers are attributing the changes in a believer's life to self reformation (which they mistakenly think means "

), instead of accepting the biblical truth that a changed life is the

of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22; Romans 8:9), to them who choose to walk in the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:25).

The reason why so many professed Christians today are living sordid lives of open sin and wickedness isn't because they trusted in Easy Believism (simply trusting the 'GOOD NEWS' of Jesus crucified, buried and risen); but rather, it is because today's [6]Caspar Milquetoast pastors no longer preach hard against sin. I haven't attended a single church in Pensacola where the pastor let 'er rip and preached hard against sin. They're all salary sucking bums!

I do not hate these wicked pastors. I hate their arrogance, sinful pride, unwillingness to reconcile, lack of professionalism, coldness and lack of Christlike concern for hurting people. Somebody needs to speak up and I am! The Devil wants us to SHUT UP, but God wants us as His children to SPEAK UP (Psalms 94:16). I am guilty of caring too much. I can fully relate to the Apostle Paul who said in his frustration in 2nd Corinthians 12:15, "And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved." There comes a point in every mature believer's life when the carnal people around them can no longer reciprocate that maturity, concern and love. Let's face it, 99 % of professed Christians today are as carnal, worldly and unreliable as can be in the work of Christ.

Thank you for reading.

7.1.12 Wicked Divorce, Remarriage And Adultery Plague America (2026-01-13 11:43)

Matthew 19:9, "And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery."

Notice in this passage that Mary and Joseph were considered married, even though they had not yet consummated their marriage. Mary is called Joseph's "wife." During the engagement period they were considered married. This is what Jesus is referring to in our text passage of Scripture from Matthew 19:9. That is, if a man finds out that his fiancée has been dishonest about her virginity he can legally divorce her, even though they've never been in bed together yet. This is how Jewish courtship and marriage worked. The entire process was treated as a package deal from start to finish.

Thus, Jesus was NOT permitting divorce, God forbid; He was simply allowing to break off the engagement if impurity was found in one's fiancée. The wedding would be canceled. God hates and NEVER allows divorce (Malachi 2:16; Jeremiah 3:20). It is a wicked sin for anyone to file for divorce. The word " should not even be in a married couple's vocabulary.

Every married Christian person should have the biblical attitude of the prophet Hosea, who although his wife abandoned him to go into a sordid life of adultery, he remained single and waited for her to return, but she never did. Decades later, Hosea saw Gomer for sale at a slave auction and he purchased her back for his own. That is precious! This true story from the Old Testament is a beautiful illustration of God's sacrifice on the cross, love and forgiveness toward those who trust in His only begotten Son, Jesus, the Christ (John 3:16).

In an abusive situation a spouse can leave but never divorce. If that stagnates your selfish life, tough! And whether you included "for better, for worse" in your vows doesn't matter, because God's Word teaches in Matthew 19:6 that marriage is until death.

We've got a serious problem in this spoiled brat generation in America, of people refusing to accept responsibility for their actions and decisions. Just because you made a bad decision in marrying the wrong person (in your thinking) doesn't give you a right to walk away and move on to another marriage. To do so is reckless and evil!

In Ohio last week an adulterous dentist and his adulterous wife were murdered by a jealous former husband of the woman. She is guilty of wickedly divorcing her former husband, which cost her and her new adulterous husband their lives. Proverbs 6:34, "For jealousy is the rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance." Everybody hearing about the murders are feeling sorry for the dead couple, but I feel sorry for the former husband who is the victim of his wife abandoning him during difficult times.

I abhor this wicked spoiled generation of American brats, who when the going gets tough they simply abandon ship and head for calmer waters and greener pastures. That is so evil and wrong. I blame our ungodly government leaders for allowing and granting divorces in the first place. Divorce is illegal in only two countries: the Philippines and Vatican City.

In these countries, annulment is the only legal option for ending a marriage.

Divorce should be outlawed in every nation! Suffering is a part of life, like it or not. If you run away from one form of suffering, you'll just suffer in other ways under different circumstances. Nobody can escape life's difficulties, burdens and sufferings, nor should we try. We should face them head-on in the Lord's strength. The Lord doesn't want to remove our burdens, He wants to help us carry them as we grow in grace.

In Matthew 19:8, Jesus said,

Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

” Moses was between a rock and a hard place, pressured by the people to grant them divorces, but it was wickedness on the part of the Jews. Proverbs

13:10, “

Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.

Kindly said, I am not glad what happened to the dentist and his wife in Ohio, but neither do I feel any sympathy for them. They were adulterers and their sins found them out!

Numbers 32:23, “But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against the LORD: and be sure your sin will find you out.” Proverbs 5:22, “His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sins.” The rotten ungodly media has portrayed them as the ideal happy couple, while her former husband (a vascular surgeon in Rockford, Illinois) couldn’t bare the betrayal, pain and loneliness anymore.

My heart goes out to the divorced husband.

The wicked hell-bound news media demonize the betrayed husband as being emotionally abusive. That is every wicked wife’s wild card excuse to file for divorce, by accusing the husband of being “abusive.” This sodomite-accepting sick generation defines “abuse” as a husband asking his wife when she’s coming back home, telling her what to do, or monitoring her whereabouts and friends. Those things are 100 % proper and biblical.

The inspired Holy Bible commands wives to obey their husbands (1st Peter 3:6). That is a husband’s right! I am so sick and tired of this bratty generation of namby-pamby babies who skirt God’s Word. God deliver this ungodly feminist influenced generation from the destructive career woman (1st Timothy 5:14-15). This ungodly hellbound world will never understand the things that I say. You don’t file for divorce when your marriage goes through tough times, you get tough. A perfect marriage is two imperfect people never giving up on each other.

GET RIGHT WITH GOD AMERICA!!! Divorce is NEVER okay biblically.

7.1.13 Neo-Evangelicals Will Hurt You (2026-01-14 12:21)

Romans 16:17-18, “

Our text passage of Scriptural means that many people are in the clergy only for the money. They've made religion their business. It's their career and it's a lucrative one at that.

Take for example Pensacola Christian College (PCC), who peddle [1]four different plans of salvation. They should be shut down permanently for theological incompetence and treating hurting people like garbage. When I kindly told their piece of crap senior pastor Jeff Redlin that he made me feel like garbage in July of 2021, that low life scumbag said: "That's your global view." No, my global view is seeing his smart ass rotting in a prison cell for 20 years! Dear reader, neo-evangelicals will hurt you. Jeff Redlin gets paid a disgusting undeserved 6-digit salary. Today's churches have become pathetic crap! I'd rather just stay home than attend some [2]Lordship Salvation preaching cult like Campus Church at PCC.

Neo-evangelicals will hurt you with their demonic lie of Lordship Salvation. N eo-evangelicals will hurt you with their

[3]repent of your sins

(an excellent video by my ministry friend Onorato Diamante) to get to Heaven heresy. Any pastor who tells you that you must repent of your sins (or be willing to repent of your sins) is a LIAR! Unless you are using a corrupt modern perversion of the Holy Bible, you'll never find anything taught in the inspired King James Bible about repenting of your sins to be saved. Requiring a lost sinner to turn away from their sinful bad habits to be saved is a form of Lordship Salvation. Only cults preach Lordship Salvation!

Beware Of Wolves In Sheep's Clothing

Neo-evangelicals will hurt you badly. If you are not very careful and alert to wolves in sheep's clothing, today's ungodly neo-evangelical clergy will have you all turned around, confused and worried that you're not saved because of your sins. Dear reader, Jesus Christ came into the world to die on a cross to pay for your sins, He does not require that you reform your life of sin as a prerequisite to receive God's free gift of eternal life. Ephesians 2:8-9,

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast."

According to Jonah 3:10 turning from your sins is a work. Jonah 3:10, " And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

" Many fools are trusting in their behavior instead of the Savior! N eo-evangelicals will hurt you with their counterfeit gospel. In fact, they'll take you to burn in Hell with them for all eternity if you let them. RUN from PCC, Bob Jones University, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, Southern Baptist University, Moody Bible Institute and other wicked Lordship Salvation laden cults.

The Devil's Bible Perversions

Neo-evangelicals will hurt you with their dozens of different conflicting English Bible revisions. If you've seen one [4]Westcott and Hort version, you've seen 'em all, because they all share the same corruptions. If you need proof, check this out and weep in your anger. ...

- [5]Matthew 8:2
- [6]1st Timothy 3:16
- [7]Psalms 12:6-7

Dear reader, if you're not upset you're not paying attention. Jesus warned that Satan is the father of all lies, murderers and liars (John 8:44). Liars are in league with murderers! It is no mere coincidence that all of the Devil's [8]modern Bible revisions attack Jesus' deity and the Godhead (aka, in theology). The Devil is a crafty subtle deceiver and liar. The Bible warns that like himself, Satan's unrighteous ministers (e.g., Billy and Franklin Graham) deceive simple, ignorant, unlearned and naïve people (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15).

Trinity

To that damnable heretic list, I would also add Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Gary Walton, Pacific Garden Mission and their 'Unshackled' radio program, John MacArthur, John Calvin, John Piper, R.C. Sproul, David Cloud, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, Joel Osteen, Steven Furtick, The 700 Club, TBN, Jack Chick, William P. Grady, Peter Ruckman, Bible Baptist Church in Pensacola (Ruckman's cult), Sam Gipp, Keith Gomez and Family Baptist Church in Pensacola for perverting the Gospel of free grace (Galatians 1:6-9, 6:7). We've got a bunch of stupid pastors today running the Bible colleges and churches into the ground. They are called and their very dangerous to be around.

You Should Be A Fundamentalist Christian

In sharp contrast, I am a lifelong fundamentalist Bible preacher, and moreover a born again believer since age 12 in 1979. A fundamentalist Bible Christian ascribes only to a free grace Gospel without turning from your sins, following Christ as

Lord,

" inviting Jesus into your life, living a lifestyle of repentance, faithfully running the race in holiness, or any other works of the flesh. We find a group of neo-evangelical fools in Matthew 7:21-23 who trusted in their own "many wonderful works" and consequently went to Hell forever.

Yes, neo-evangelicals will deeply hurt you. And if God, forbid, you should ever decide to attend one of their churches (as I foolishly did in the past numerous times), and TELL THE TRUTH to help them see the light, they will count you as their enemy quickly to censure, shun, remove and ostracize you from their church. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?" Yes, Paul, they did consider you their enemy for telling them THE TRUTH, which is the same tragic experience I have suffered again and again at the hands of wicked neo-evangelicals and their false bibles, sycophantic Sunday worship, mistreating people and their ungodly counterfeit plans of salvation.

I have been deeply wounded by dozens of abusive neo-evangelical pastors; namely, Marty Herron, Jared Baldwin and Joe Hansen (at the corrupt Harvest Baptist Church on Guam), Sean Quinlan (at the corrupt Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam), Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias (the shameful Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College cult), Bill Adams and his ungodly spoiled rotten wife (at Smyrna Baptist Church cult in Pensacola), Brad and Bobby Moffett (at the corrupt Family Baptist Church cult in Pensacola) and other fools.

These are hellbound illegitimate leaders of the Christian faith who all pervert the Gospel of Jesus Christ, adding “ repent of your sins

or

“turn from your sinful bad habits”

as a requirement to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. If the aforementioned religious clowns are going to Heaven, then God is a liar and His Word is false and untrustworthy, because there is nothing in the inspired King James Bible about having to turn away from sinful behavior (nor even being willing to do so) in order to get to Heaven.

Wicked religious men have woefully tampered with God’s saving grace, embellishing the simplicity that is in Christ with their fleshly demands to satisfy their own unscriptural whims and personal agenda. The sad truth is that most preachers follow the herd, woefully ignorant of the Scripture “ which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction

(2nd Peter 3:16b).

We’ve got a bunch of fools running and ruining the churches today, who’ve been trained in religious colleges by cold-hearted educators and not church builders. Consequently, they have no compassion for hurting sinners. Pensacola Christian College (PCC) today is a prisonhouse of strict rules without love for individual people. PCC are no better than the cult of cold-hearted Jehovah’s Witnesses, who are militant in their religious ignorance of the inspired Scripture.

Neo-evangelicals will hurt you if you dare in love TELL THEM THE TRUTH. They turned against the Apostle Paul, who his very self started the churches in Galatia (Galatians 4:16). In 2014 when I befriended the pastors of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam with THE TRUTH that the modern Bible revisions are corrupt, and Lordship Salvation is NOT the Gospel of free grace, and [9]Martin Luther (1483-1546) went to Hell for preaching Sacramental Salvation all his life, they forced me out and banned me from attending their miserably church.

Those hell-spawned wicked thugs turned the whole church congregation against me with their lies and harsh words from the pulpit. But my Bible preaching will be vindicated in eternity, not because I am anything special, but simply because I TOLD THE TRUTH. At harvest Baptist Church and their schools, they promote [10]Martin Luther as a born again Christian to their church and students. [11]Luther worshipped Mary.

Luther wickedly taught that water [12]baptism saves, even without faith! When I shared these TRUTHS with the incompetent uncaring pastors of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, they kicked me out, shunned, censured and ostracized me. My constant prayer for the past 12 years has been for God to severely punish those wicked pastors, and to avenge me of their crimes against me for TELLING THE TRUTH! False prophets will suffer.

Beware Of The Neo-fundamentalist

Sadly, even many so-called "fundamentalists" today are no longer truly fundamentalist. I called them " neo-fundamentalists,

" because they have chosen to stop being fundamentalists and merge with the neo-evangelicals. That is exactly what has happened to PCC. Without even realizing it has happened, [13]heretics from the Bob Jones University cult have crept in like snakes to poison and corrupt PCC, and the work is done! [14]PCC preaches hard core Lordship Salvation today!!!

I'm sure some of my blog guests sincerely think I should chill out, let it go and move on in the Lord, but that is exactly what I shouldn't do! PCC are leading lost sinners into the fires of Hell with another gospel, and someone needs to expose them (Titus 1:9-14). What PCC teaches today is not Scriptural, it is poisonous!

Just like [15]Jack Chick and his Chick Tracts are toxic and dangerous to read, which Bill Adams distributes at Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola. Folks, right doctrine matters! I said RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! It matters which Bible that we use. You don't get to pick and choose which flavor of Holy Bible best suits your personality and needs. You need THE TRUTH!

You need THE TRUTH, like it or lump it. That is one major thing wrong with the Devil's modern English Bible perversions, they water everything down, obscuring the truth. If you read one of these toxic translations today, say for example the toxic Easy-To-Read Version (ERV), you might walk away after (reading Hebrews 6:1) thinking that you get to Heaven " by turning away from the evil we did in the past and by believing in God.

What the inspired King James Bible actually reads is that we are saved by

"repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God" (Hebrews 6:1b). "Dead works" includes all works, good and bad alike. You must cease from all your own works, and rest in Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins to be saved. it's that simple. Turning away from your evil past ways is WORKS (Jonah 3:10), not the free grace of God.

I cannot warn you enough dear friend to steer completely clear of the neo-evangelical cult in America. That means stay away from the toxic Southern Baptist Convention and all it's affiliated complicit bad churches and corrupt religious colleges. Case in point is Albert Mohler, president of the Calvinist hellhole Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Kentucky, who said publicly that he strongly opposes the biblical doctrine of '[16]Easy Believism.'

In case you haven't noticed dear reader, we have been at war in this country for the longest time between Christian fundamentalists and heathen religious neo-evangelicals in the churches and Bible colleges. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) attributed the ruthless attack in 1989 against himself, his family, friends and ministry as being [17]the Devil's work of NEO-EVANGELICALS (a 1989 sermon titled 'Weathering The Storm' by Dr. Hyles).

I didn't understand what Brother Hyles was saying back in 1989, when I was still a student at Hyles-Anderson College. But since that time, as I've encountered and fought numerous battles that came to me because of my fundamentalist stand and views, I now fully understand Pastor

Hyles. A young man once asked an old and wise preacher how to give up the world. The wise old preacher replied: “Son, you carry a Holy Bible and the world will give you up!”

Likewise, as a fundamentalist Bible preacher all my adult life, I didn’t have to go pick a fight with anyone, the neo-evangelicals came to me by the droves to fight me.

One Of The Worst Pastors In Pensacola

Case in point, I never mentioned a word about my biblical stance against women wearing pants at the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. It is a sin for women to wear men’s clothing and to dress in immodest attire (Deuteronomy 22:5; 1st Timothy 2:9; Proverbs 7:10). I never told anyone at Family Baptist Church about my website ministry, but they found it on their own anyway.

On April 30th, 2025, I and my wife were invited to meet with Pastor Brad Moffett in his church office. Little did I know that he would change the reason for the meeting, and instead harshly censure my website ministry and Bible preaching which was rotten of him to do, especially in front of my wife. I think Brad’s meddling pants-wearing wicked wife henpecked him to do it. She has him henpecked. She is the reason why Bobby across the street from their church quit to go find a better church. There’s nothing worse than a meddling rebellious wife!

Pastor Brad (age 37) had several dozen pages of my website stacked on his desk, ready to go to battle with me, which was really stupid of him to do. He specifically criticized [18]this article in which I preach against women wearing pants in public, for which I make no apologies, because it is THE TRUTH of God’s inspired Word. Any ungodly pastor and his immodestly clothed wife who argue that it is okay for women to wear pants in public are not right with God, not even close! SHAME on Brad and his foolish wife! SHAME!!! Get right with God.

Brad slandered Pastor Jack Hyles, because in the preceding article I quote Dr. Hyles from a sermon in which he says: “I don’t have a dirty mind, I have a man’s mind.” Pastor Brad insisted that Dr. Hyles wasn’t right with God, and that Brother Hyles was a carnal man with a dirty mind for saying what he did. But the truth is simply that Brad is a idiot! Any honest normal red-blooded American man will tell you why it is wrong for women to wear pants.

I did say “ honest.

” Any man who denies being tempted by a women wearing tight pants is either a queer, sick or a LIAR!!! I’m going to go with LIAR for Brad Moffett. His bratty wife clearly wears the pants in their marriage, house, church and everywhere else. Don’t get mad at me, God commands women to dress in ’MODEST APPAREL’ in 1st Timothy 2:9 and you’re a darn dishonest fool if you think it is acceptable for Christian ladies to adorn themselves in any kind of pants! I’d consider it an exception for a widow who has taken over her husband’s plumbing business and wears overalls to work in the sewer. But you know as well as I do that these rebellious women in churches today who wear pants do so to look sexy!

Then Pastor Brad Moffett said since a man who walks in the Holy Spirit won’t fulfill the lusts of the flesh (Galatians 5:16), it shouldn’t matter if his wife wears pants. That is one of the most ungodly, irresponsible and shameful things I have ever heard come out of a pastor’s stupid mouth. That’s equivalent to saying since a man who walks in the Holy Spirit won’t fulfill the lusts of the flesh, it’s okay to leave your new bicycle unchained and unattended in public. Guess what Sherlock, you can kiss your new bike goodbye!

Just because Spirit-filled men won’t lust doesn’t make it okay for pastor’s wives (or any Christian woman) to seduce men with provocative clothing. Pants are provocative attire for a female, that is common sense folks. It is a crying shame that Muslim women fully understand the dangers of females wearing pants, while our spoiled brat pastor's wives in the United States insist that there's nothing unethical, wrong or sinful about women wearing pants. If that is you dear reader, then you need to have your heart examined because you are far from God.

Morality is no trifle matter. Tens of thousands of men are rotting in prison today because of lust. What do you think those men would say about a female adorned in attractive pants? We already both know the clear answer. You know as well as I do that no pastor's wife in a thousand years would dare to insult God by wearing pants in the His presence. So, what makes it is any different on earth? By the way, we are still in the Lord's presence everywhere we go. The Lord sees our every thought.

During our unpleasant meeting with Pastor Brad Moffett, he shameful told us that he is absolutely not a fundamentalist Christian, he is a neo-evangelical (and a fool I would add). To admit to being a wishy-washy, liberal minded, low morality pastor is a disgrace, which is essentially what he did in front of me and my wife in April of 2025. SHAME on Brad Moffett. He is a stubborn loud-mouthed fool just like his verbally abusive father, Bobby Moffett. It matters how you treat people. It really does. When authoritarian abusive pastors throw people under the bus on a whim, God sees that abuse and hears the cry of their hurting victims.

Neo-evangelicals will hurt you because they hate THE TRUTH. Their ungodly women are going to wear their sexy pants and nobody dare tell them different. Their wicked pastors are going to pervert the Gospel and preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, and the dirty lie of repenting of your sins to be saved, and no matter what you say they are defiant. They refuse to heed THE TRUTH of a free grace Gospel without works. Let the dead bury the dead Jesus said. I have done my part as a faithful witness to 'PREACH THE WORD' (2nd Timothy 4:2).

I warn you as a true friend does. Neo-evangelicals will hurt you. They will deceive you with lies. They'll have you using five different English Bible versions that conflict with each other, leading you astray from the truth of God's inspired Word in the King James Bible. They'll have you trusting in a counterfeit plan of salvation if you let them, and you'll end up burning in the fires of Hell forever with them. Yes, neo-evangelicals will utterly destroy your life.

7.1.14 The Utter Hypocrisy Of President Trump And Fox News (2026-01-15 05:23)

Matthew 7:12, "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets."

I am so sick of the hypocrisy. Here's a disgusting Fox News video from January 14, 2026...

[1]Iranian regime reportedly hunting down Starlink users as death toll SOARS

So, where was President Trump's concern over innocent people being murdered when [2]Israel slaughtered 71,647 Palestinians in Gaza?

Why is Iranian life any more precious than Palestinian life?

I'll tell you why, because President Trump's true agenda is to annihilate another one of Israel's enemies. They want to take out Iran! The handwriting was already on the wall for many years after the overthrow of Iraq and Afghanistan in 2003. ...

[3]

Iran Was Always Going To Be Next On The New World Order's Hit List

For those of my ministry blog readers who've followed me for the past few years, then you remember that I predicted if Donald Trump were re-elected, two things would happen:

1. President Trump would take our nation to war with foreign nations.

2. President Trump would raise up a domestic police state.

So far I've been correct two for two. My gut tells me that when this fiasco with deporting illegal aliens is over, the new federal enforcement team won't be going away any time soon.

With the cost of food and necessary things insanely skyrocketing, amidst a stagnate job market, economic implosion will be ultimately inevitable. The Federal Reserve banking system is nothing more than systematic financial fraud, since 1913. It's a massive classic Ponzi Scheme sanctioned by Congress. They should all be fired, arrested, indicted, tried in a legitimate court of law, convicted for treason and then sentenced! Away with the traitors!

It bothered me today as I listened to the media whores at Fox News spew nothing but sympathy and outrage for what Iran's authoritarian leaders are doing to murder it's citizens, while neer a word was heard from Fox News during the massacre of 71,647 innocent people in Gaza (most of whom were defenseless women and children). Sadly, the manmade whore of Israel controls our U.S. news media, so that we simply cannot believe anything the press tells us anymore.

Present-day Israel is of the Devil. It is a manmade farce since 1948 that is NOT the fulfillment of Bible prophecy. [4]Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) and [5]Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988) both rejected the idea of present-day Israel being the fulfillment of Bible prophecy. Beware of the pro-Israel media whores in the United States! I am not anti-Semite, God forbid; I am anti-corruption and anti-evil. True Israel has not existed since 586 BC when Babylon conquered Jerusalem, and will not exist again until the great Second Coming of the majestic Lord Jesus Christ (Hosea 3:4-5). Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

I think it is a great thing that President Trump wants to liberate the Iranian people who are victims of their greedy insane leaders...

Iranian Officials Seize Billions to Flee Iran

That being said, the fact that President Trump and the U.S. mainstream news media unanimously seem to care about liberating Iran, expressing outrage over the thousands of alleged killings in Iranian streets, while not caring one iota when 71,647 Palestinians were being murdered in Gaza, compels me to conclude that there is a sinister hidden agenda.

I am not against nor for Israel today. The nation of Israel in these modern times is no different than any other heathen nation. Israel today has no special divine promise of protection from God; quite the contrary (Luke 21:24). I can tell you biblically that Christ-rejecting Jews are NOT God's chosen people today, and unsaved Jews never were (Romans 2:28-29). ONLY born again Christians (Jews and Gentiles alike) are THE CHOSEN; or THE CHURCH if you prefer.

From the very beginning of the Abrahamic covenant, God's promises were conditional to the Jews (Exodus 19:5-6; Deuteronomy 28). The Jews rebelled so that God gave Israel into the hands of their enemies for judgment time and time again. The inspired Holy Bible is abundantly clear that God made His promises to Abraham concerning Jesus Christ, and not to Abraham's biological descendants (the Jews). Galatians 3:16, "

Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

" Thus, all of the promises which God made to Abraham only apply to those who have faith in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:28-29).

Christ-rejecting arrogant Jews today have no stake in anything except their well-deserved plot in the tormentuous everlasting fires of Hell (John 3:36; Revelation 20:15). God's inspired Word will not be mocked (Galatians 6:7).

Dear reader, if you want to understand the daily news, then always remember that Satan is the god of this world (2nd Corinthians 4:4), and that the New World Order (NWO) is now being formed before our very eyes (Revelation 17:10). We are now living in the end times of the feet of iron (tyranny) mixed with clay (freedom) in Nebuchadnezzar's golden image from Daniel chapter two.

Signs of Satan and his coming Antichrist (or, “in place of Christ”) are everywhere...

[6]

Occult Hand Signs Showing Allegiance To The Coming Antichrist

Our nation is divided against itself on everything...

Two Different Legs Both Walking In The Same Direction Of A New World Order

We see horrible tyranny in harsh places like North Korea and Russia today, versus the freedoms that we enjoy in America and Europe. Whereas in the past the entire world was ruled by the kingdoms of Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Greece, Medo-Persia and Rome (world powers). No one nation has ruled the whole world since Rome. Next is the New World Order, which will be the Beast system of the coming Antichrist (aka, the Man of Sin). So, we have nine super powers today (India, United States, United Kingdom, France, Israel, North Korea, Russia, Pakistan, China), but no world powers anymore. All of the aforementioned countries posses nuclear weapons.

I wrote this blog to point out the bothersome hypocrisy that I see in the Zionist-controlled White House and American media. Although Hamas has an approximate membership of 20,000 Arabs, the vast majority of the [8]murdered 71,647 victims in Palestine between 2022 and 2026 never hurt anybody. They were just parents trying to raise their children in a troubled society under Israeli persecution. With Israel continually hating, murdering and oppressing the Palestinians, I cannot blame the refugees for being angry at Israel. Matthew 7:12, "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets."

The plain truth is that BOTH Arabs and Jews alike need the Lord Jesus Christ. Tragically, less than 2 % of Arabs and Jews living in Israel today profess faith in Jesus. That is so sad. Both Arabs and Jews reject Jesus as the promised Messiah. The Scripture tells us that instead they will embrace the Man of Sin when he comes, thinking that he is Christ (2nd Thessalonians 2:1-10). Through signs and wonders the Antichrist will deceive them and the whole world WILL BE deceived (Revelation 12:9).

Please DO NOT blindly believe everything that the [9]controlled news media spoon feeds you dear friend, because you might be horrible tricked into supporting evil. The media whores are nothing more than paid professional liars and masters of disinformation and misinformation.

7.1.15 Divorce Is Never Permissible Biblically (2026-01-15 11:06)

Matthew 19:5-6, "And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

Kindly, you are very wrong biblically if you think that there are valid reasons to divorce. Divorce is NEVER biblically permitted. Yet, many wicked people feel the urge to express their carnal disagreement with the inspired Holy Bible. In short, God does NOT allow divorce for any reason. It ceases to annoy me that people cherry-pick the Word of God, only taking what they need to create a narrative to fit their own selfish agenda. Doing that, anything can be justified!

The Old Testament prophet Hosea remained faithful to Gomer, even when she was abusive toward him, committing adultery with her numerous heathen lovers, abandoning Hosea and their children for many years. Hosea didn't divorce her, he loved her and stayed faithful. One day as he went to town, he saw his beloved Gomer for sale at a slave auction and he ran to purchase her back for his own. He redeemed his wife. This is a beautiful picture of God's great love for humanity, that sent His only begotten Son into the world to die on Calvary's cross for our manifold sins (John 3:14-18).

Jesus plainly meant in Matthew 19:9, when he seemingly gave permission to divorce, that it was only during the courtship process that someone could break off the engagement. This is what Moses meant in Deuteronomy 24:1-4. We see this scenario illustrated in real life with the dire circumstances between Joseph and his wife Mary, when he found out that she was pregnant before they consummated their marriage. Joseph naturally thought she had been unfaithful and commit fornication. But the angel of the LORD came to Joseph and calmed his worries. Once two people have been married, it is for life. Matthew 19:6, " Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

" God's original intent is clearly: Once Married, Always Married (OMAM).

In the beginning God created one man, Adam. Then from that one man He made the woman, Eve, and then there were two. But God wanted to unite them back into one, in marriage unity, as a beautiful picture of the believer's union with God in salvation. That is beautiful how that God made one individual, and then He made two, and the two became one again.

In Matthew 18:22, Jesus told the Apostle Peter that we should forgive each other 70 times 7 times, yet in filing for divorce a wicked spouse is sinfully refusing to forgive their spouse, esteeming them a "greater sinner" than them self. There is nothing as wicked as filing for divorce! Matthew 18:21-22, " Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven."

The lame excuse of an abusive husband doesn't fly with God. If that be so with an abused wife, then leave until the husband gets help. That means the wife may need to get a job and take care of herself until their marriage can be restored. If not, then neither spouse is permitted to remarry, ever, as long as they are still alive. But quitting to move on to greener pastures is of the Devil, selfish and brings the judgment of God. The Lord doesn't reward quitter saints! [1]Divorce, remarriage and adultery are plaguing America today.

Kindly said, I will go to seed in this important matter as a fundamentalist Baptist Bible preacher of being faithful to one's marriage commitment, whether there were vows exchanged or not. I have heard every imaginable scenario over the years from desperate people seeking to divorce their spouse. One man said he married his wife in a foreign country and no vows were exchanged, so he thinks that somehow makes it okay for him to divorce his wife. What a wicked form of thinking! Get thee behind me Satan.

Jesus plainly taught that only a proud heart causes the sin of divorce. Proverbs 13:10, " Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.

For those who are guilty of filing for divorce, all you can do is repent of your wrong sinful attitude and seek reconciliation with your former spouse (if possible), to renew one's sweet fellowship with God. NO ONE who is saved and divorces their spouse and maintains a flippant defiant attitude, that they did nothing wrong, will ever be at peace with God as His child. This is why we are exhorted in 1st John 1:9-10, "

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

Divorce is always sinful and wrong. It is tomfoolery and poppycock nonsense for anyone to use "adultery" as an excuse to divorce, when there are no such Scriptural exclusions for murder, bank robbery, assault, kidnapping, child endangerment, embezzlement, blackmail and other serious crimes. It is ridiculous to think that Jesus would allow divorce for adultery, but not for murder, bank robbery or stealing.

Clearly, the Lord did not intend for anyone to ever get a divorce, and if they do it will only be because of the hardness of the spouse who filed for divorce, because they refused to forgive their spouse and divorced them instead.

Remarriage is wicked, even more so when someone’s abandoned spouse is alone and suffering (which s the sad case of the betrayed husband in Rockford, Illinois, who drove to Ohio last week to murder his x-wife and new husband). You don’t divorce, EVER! The only reason why wicked Americans get so many divorces is simply because they can, because we have a wicked government, and because the Satanic media promotes divorce as a fix-all solution to everyone’s marital problems. I can hear some idiot now saying:

Honey, you need to lose that zero and go get you a hero!

We’ve all heard ungodly feminist fools make ungodly statement like that. Be very careful whom you take advice from (Psalms 1:1-3).

There’s a very wicked pastor’s daughter who abandoned her husband when he went to prison many years ago. He committed the sin of adultery and was fired as the church’s pastor. That wicked wife had no biblical right to abandon her husband and go marry another man. Instead of being there as a godly wife to greet her broken and disgraced husband (the father of her children) after over a decade in prison, she chose to divorce him and move on to greener pastures. Instead of comforting her husband in prison, she wickedly abandoned him to go marry another man.

I wanted to vomit when I saw that she foolishly brags on social media that her and her "new" husband feel like they’ve "always known each other," and were "made for each other." That is as wicked as the Devil. Woe unto that ungodly spoiled brat wife when she answers to God someday. She is JUST AS MUCH a guilty rotten sinner as her husband is, and so are you, and so am I. There but for the grace of God go we. Psalms

106:6, “

We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

” The only thing that makes you or me any more righteous in God’s sight than Jeffrey Dahmer or Adolf Hitler is the precious blood of Jesus Christ that washed away our sins the moment we trusted Him (1st Peter 1:18-19; Revelation 1:5).

Al Capone’s Wife Stayed Faithful To Him In Prison

And let me say, the notorious Chicago gangster criminal Al Capone (1899-1947) was sentenced to 11 years in prison for tax evasion. He entered into federal prison in 1931 with the horrible brain-eating disease syphilis from all his philandering in sin with prostitutes. Capone was released in 1939 due to his deteriorating health (Penicillin wasn't discovered until 1939).

Al Capone's faithful Catholic wife, [2]Mary Josephine "Mae" Coughlin (1897-1986), married him in 1918. She managed his financial affairs and supported him during his imprisonment, remaining a devoted partner despite the challenges posed by his criminal lifestyle and dire health.

Mae was not involved in Al's racketeering business, although she was affected by his sinful actions. Al dated other women while they were married, committing adultery. Mae once told her son "not to do what your father did. He broke my heart." Her hair also started to gray when she was 28, presumably due to stress regarding her husband's dire situation.

Al was ultimately sentenced to 11 years of imprisonment on October 24, 1931, and Mae was one of three people allowed to visit him in prison. The other two were Al's mother and son. Mae remained a devoted wife, frequently sending letters to her husband, referring to him as honey,

and expressing her longing for him to return home. She visited him in person as well, traveling up to 3,000 miles from the Capones' Florida home to Alcatraz off California's coast, usually going to lengths to obscure her face in order to avoid the paparazzi.

Mae was a faithful wife to a bad man.

I contend that if that dear woman (whom I greatly admire) could stay faithful to a mobster like Al Capone (two unsaved Roman Catholics to wit), then no born again Christian woman can honestly use lesser lame excuses to divorce and abandon her husband. And that goes for all the husbands as well. You married her, you stay with her until the end of life. A marriage is two people making a life for each other. A perfect marriage is two imperfect people never giving up on each other.

Wife Of John Lennon's Murderer Still Faithful To Husband

Another one of my heroes is Gloria Chapman, the wife of John Lennon's murderer Mark Chapman (who is still rotting behind bars in a New York prison cell). Mark and Gloria had only been married for one year when he chose to murder The Beatles' member John Lennon in December of 1980.

There are records in Hawaii on file of physical abuse where Mark beat her in the face. Yet, still 46 years later, Gloria admirably is still faithfully married to Mark. She writes him in prison and visits Mark a couple times each year for congenial visits, and they eat order-out pizza together in his cell. What a horrible way to exist! Yet, against all odds, Gloria (who professes to be a born again Christian) has chosen to remain faithful to her marriage and husband.

Now compare that to the spoiled brat pastor's daughter who divorced and abandoned her unfaithful husband when he commit adultery with a young girl. Tammy Faye Bakker (1942-2007), a disgrace as a professed Christian woman, did the same cruel thing by wickedly divorcing her husband Jim Bakker while he rotted in prison for five years for fraud. The heathen world behaves more righteous than God's children do. God pity this wicked nation!

No, divorce is NEVER permissible biblically.

Thank you for reading my ministry blog. To God alone be the praise, credit and glory, great things He hath done (John 15:1-5).

7.1.16 "Dilbert" Cartoonist Scott Adams' Strange Deathbed Letter (2026-01-17 11:33)

John 3:36, "

He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

According to CBN News from January 14, 2026...

> "Dilbert" cartoonist Scott Adams has died at the age of 68, issuing [1]a posthumous statement (I made a [2]backup of Scott's latter from X, just in case it vanishes or you don't have an X account) declaring his decision to accept Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior.
>
> In a livestream following his death on Tuesday, Adams' ex-wife Shelly Miles shared the statement he prepared before passing away.
>
> > "I had an amazing life," the statement said in part. "I gave it everything I had."
> >
> > "Next, many of my Christian friends have asked me to find Jesus before I go. I'm not a believer, but I have to admit the risk-reward calculation for doing so looks so attractive to me. So here I go: I accept Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior and look forward to spending an eternity with him. The part about me not being a believer should be quickly resolved if I wake up in heaven. I won't need any more convincing than that. I hope I'm still qualified for entry..."

> WATCH: [3]'I Accept Jesus': 'Dilbert' Cartoonist's Final Message Before His Death

This is weird. "Dilbert" cartoonist Scott Adams (1957-2026) wrote a letter as he was dying, in which he said that although he is "not a believer" [i.e., in salvation through faith in Jesus Christ] he made a superficial superstitious type declaration of accepting Jesus as his "Lord and Savior" on his deathbed, hoping if the Bible is true God will allow him into Heaven. But he plainly said he does NOT BELIEVE. Scott plainly said that unless he wakes up in Heaven after he dies, he won't believe. Dear reader, that is NOT how faith and salvation work. You are not allowed to believe after you receive proof. You must trust in Jesus Christ when there is no proof. That is what faith is according to Hebrews 11:1, "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen."

In Luke 16:19-31 we find the true story of an unbelieving rich man and a believing poor man, Lazarus, who ate from the rich man's food scraps in his garbage. They both died on night. The Bible tells us that the rich man woke up burning in the fires of Hell, while Lazarus was escorted by angels to Abraham's Bosom (i.e., Paradise). Although there is debate among Bible preachers concerning where people went before Jesus died on the cross, I humbly ascribe to the belief that Hell (Greek: Hades) was compartmentalized, with the place of TORMENT on one side and the place of PARADISE on the other side. If you take this Scripture passage as literal in Luke 16:19-31, then you see biblical confirmation of this truth.

In sharp contrast, godly Bible preachers like Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) believed that Old Testament saints went directly to Heaven when they died, not a temporary place of Paradise.

I respect the right of others to disagree with me. To clarify, Paradise is NOT Purgatory ([4]a fabricated false doctrine of the heathen Roman Catholic church).

The inspired Scripture tells us that Lazarus experience peace, but the formerly rich man (now poorer than Lazarus) is suffering in fiery flames, torment and an unquenchable thirst for water. Although he earnestly begged Abraham for just one drop of water, he was denied (and so will you dear reader if you choose to go to Hell by rejecting Jesus as your personal Savior, that is, if you refuse to put your trust in the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ). He did that for you dear sinner, and for me too, and for all humanity (John 3:16-18; 1st John 2:2). Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt of sin we could not pay (2nd Corinthians 5:20-21).

In John 6:47, Jesus promises eternal life only to those who BELIEVE ON HIM, not to those who merely say they believe on him while openly admitting that they DON'T BELIEVE. What a bizarre thing to write! I humbly do not think Scott Adams died in the Lord (Revelation 14:13), simply because he plainly stated that he DOES NOT BELIEVE in Jesus. I sadly think Scott died in his sins, because he refused to believe who Jesus claimed to be (John 8:24).

God Will Save Doubters, If You Believe Despite Doubt

In Mark 9:24 a distraught father of a demon possessed child cried out to Jesus, "□□□□, □ □□□□□□□; □□□□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□." If the father had instead said: "Sir, I don't believe, help me to believe," Christ wouldn't have healed his son. Jesus plainly said in verse 23, "□□ □□□□ □□□□□ □□□□□□□, □□□ □□□□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□□ □□ □□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□." The promise is to them that CANST BELIEVE, not to those who CANNOT BELIEVE. The miraculous new birth is not obtained by declaring some optimistic religious words from a heart of unbelief.

I can only hope that Scott Adams poorly chose his words, and what he really meant was that despite his lack of faith in Christ, he was choosing to trust Him anyway as his personal Savior. God will save any doubter who believes on the Lord Jesus Christ. It's okay to have doubt, just so long as you act upon what little faith you have. We see this truth confirmed in Mark 9:24, when Jesus healed the son of the man who had doubts. Jesus healed the boy because the man TRUSTED Jesus despite his doubts.

The Helpful Chair Illustration

To help you dear reader understand how faith works, I like to use the illustration of a chair. Let's say for the sake of argument that you don't have a ladder. A ceiling lightbulb burned out and you need to replace it. You need something to stand upon to reach the lightbulb. So you use an old chair that looks shaky. You are not sure if the chair will support your weight if you stand upon it. In fact, you are very concerned. Yet, since that's the only thing you have at hand to stand on, you put your trust in that wobbly old chair.

Now, even though you had much distrust and lack of faith in that shaky old chair, you placed no less than 100 % of your trust in it the moment you rested all your body's weight upon it. That is exactly how saving faith works! It doesn't matter how much you doubt God's Word, just so long as you sincerely trust in the Gospel (the 'GOOD NEWS' of Jesus Christ crucified for our sins, buried and physically resurrected three days later). This is the GOSPEL (1st Corinthians 15:1-6), by which all who BELIEVE IT are saved (Romans 1:16). There is no other path to Heaven according to Acts 4:10-12, than faith alone in the precious name of Jesus.

Faith is not the absence of any doubt; but rather, it is the presence of trust despite the doubt. Nor is faith optimism, having a positive attitude and outlook.

If I tell you that I trust you with my money to go somewhere, but then I follow you to make sure you don't steal it, my behavior clearly contradicts my words. I obviously don't trust you, which is why I followed you.

In Scott’s case, it is clear that he truly did not believe Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, the Christ (John 20:31). Scott simply agreed with his friends to appease them. There is absolutely nothing wrong with coming to Jesus by faith for fear of going to Hell forever. In fact, that is exactly why everyone should get saved (Romans 5:9). But to merely succumb to peer pressure from friends to declare

I believe in Jesus

while you simultaneously admit

“I am not a believer”

is alarmingly contradictory. It’s no different than me telling you that I trust you with my money, while I am following behind to watch where you go and what you do.

Where Did Scott Adams Go In The Afterlife?

Sadly, I do not think Scott Adams went to Heaven. Scott plainly said, despite his insincere statement of faith, that he still did not believe in Christ. Scott said: “I am not a believer.”

Did Scott go to Heaven or is he burning in Hell? I think he went to Hell forever.

Before he died, Scott mentioned in his letter having great concern over the potential eternal risk if the Holy Bible is actually true concerning Hell, fire and damnation...

> "Next, many of my Christian friends have asked me to find Jesus before I go. I’m not a believer, but I have to admit the risk-reward calculation for doing so looks so attractive to me. So here I go: I accept Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior and look forward to spending an eternity with him. The part about me not being a believer should be quickly resolved if I wake up in heaven. I won’t need any more convincing than that. I hope I’m still qualified for entry..."

Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988) once wrote a problematic religious tract titled: “ Missing Heaven By 18 Inches.

In his tract, Pastor McGee foolishly suggested that a person could believe the Gospel in their mind, but not in their heart; and consequently, still be unsaved. I completely disagree with that nonsense. If you believe on Christ in your mind, then you also believe in your heart (i.e., your subconscience). You cannot separate one’s mind from your subconscience

Furthermore, if we were to take Dr. McGee’s title literally, “Missing Heaven By 18 Inches,” the “heart” is a muscle about twice the size of your fist which pumps blood 100,000 times each day. That makes no sense theologically! This is why I hate the unbiblical rubbish of “inviting Jesus into your heart” to get to Heaven. How do you invite Jesus into a muscle that pumps blood? By using such unbiblical poppycock, balderdash and tommyrot, children become utterly confused and will miss the simplicity that is in Christ. Inviting Jesus into one’s heart (or life) may sound appealing to religious people, but such nonsense is theologically dangerous. Children should be taught to put their trust in Jesus; who died on a cross to pay for their sins, was buried, and three days later He resurrected from the dead. This is THE GOSPEL.

Like I said earlier, we can only hope that Scott Adams poorly chose his words in his last letter, and what he really meant was that despite his lack of faith in Christ, he chose to trust Him anyway as his personal Savior; but unfortunately (and no one can say otherwise) that is not what he wrote. Scott plainly wrote:

“I am not a believer.”

God promises in Romans 10:13 to save whosoever calls upon the name of the Lord from a heart of faith (Romans 10:14). But without faith there can be no regeneration (i.e., no miracle of the new birth). I cannot say for certain if Mr. Adams was saved or lost, but from his written statement alone, I do not think he went to Heaven, because he plainly said that he DOES NOT BELIEVE in Christ. Salvation is not a prayer, it is faith in the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen. [illegible] [illegible] 0:00, “[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [

There is a very wicked book authored by Lahry Sibley titled, '[2]THE TRINITY UNMASKED,' in which he denies deny the fundamental Bible doctrine of the Godhead (aka, the "Trinity" in theology). Lahry is a damnable false prophet, not a born again child of God. NO ONE is saved who denies Jesus' deity, which is exactly what Lahry does by denying the Godhead. I would NEVER accept anyone as a friend on Facebook who wickedly DENIES THE GODHEAD.

Although Mr. Sibley does good to [3]expose the corrupt Catholic church in which he was raised, he is sadly not saved since he denies the Godhead. Lahry's beliefs are bizarre. In this song he sings on YouTube titled, '[4]I Believe,' you'd never think that he is not a true Christian.

Sadly, Lahry wickedly denies the biblical fundamental doctrine of the GODHEAD in his toxic book "THE TRINITY UNMASKED." Consequently, Lahry Sibley WON'T be going to Heaven. NO ONE is saved who denies the Trinity (Colossians 2:2; Matthew 28:19-20; 1st John 5:7). Jesus warned in John 8:24 that unless you believe He is who He claimed to be, you will die in your sins. Jesus claimed to be God in John 10:33, 14:1 and 8:52.

You are not a born again Christian Lahry. I hope you will repent of your unbelief before it is too late. □□□□ □:□□, "□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□□□ □□□, □□□□ □□ □□□□□ □□□ □□ □□□□ □□□□: □□□ □□ □□ □□□□□□□ □□□ □□□□ □ □□ □□, □□ □□□□□ □□□ □□ □□□□ □□□□." I cannot have you as a friend as you are denying the fundamental doctrines of the inspired Holy Bible.

If you follow this wicked man on Facebook, please STOP, because you don't want to sinfully bid Godspeed to a damnable FALSE PROPHET, lest you become a partaker of his evil deeds (2nd John 1:11).

In addition, I noticed in Lahry's Facebook banner that he errantly requires people to forsake sinful behavior to get to Heaven, which is WORKS. We are saved by accepting Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for our sins by faith; not because we reform our own life by trying to turn from our sinful ways, which is self-righteousness (Isaiah 64:6).

The Inspired King James Bible Teaches A Godhead

What saith the Scripture? Genesis1:26, "And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth." Here we clearly see the Godhead (i.e., Trinity) in Scripture.

When Jesus was baptized by John the Baptist, we see the Godhead in Matthew 3:16-17, "And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him: And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." Here we see God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit all at once.

> Matthew 28:19-20, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen."

Colossians 2:2-3, "That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ; In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge."

1st John 5:7, "For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one."

That being said, I cannot warn you enough to avoid and burn (if you have one) the modern Bible revisions, which ruthlessly attack the fundamental Bible doctrines of the Godhead and deity of Jesus. I challenge you to go compare the following passages of Scripture between the trustworthy inspired King James Bible, and ANY of the modern English Bible revisions: Philippians 2:6, 1st Timothy 3:16, Matthew 8:2, John 1:3 and 1st John 5:7 (to cite but a few Scripture passages that are often corrupted in the new perversions of God's Word).

Also, go examine Romans 17:29, Romans 1:20 and Colossians 2:2 and you'll see that Satan's Bible butchers have removed the word "godhead" and replaced it with "

divine nature,

" which is a denial of the Trinity. Satan's paw prints are all over the modern English Bible revisions. ONLY the inspired King James Bible uplifts and magnifies the deity of Jesus and the Godhead.

Thank you dear friend for reading my ministry blog. To God be all the praise, credit and glory.

7.1.18 The Treasure Is In A Field (2026-01-19 10:25)

Matthew 13:36-44, “

Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one;

The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) is titled: “[1]THE TREASURE IS IN A FIELD.” The sermon was preached in 1997, just four years before Brother Hyles graduated to Heaven. Dr. Hyles uses Matthew 13:44 as his text Scripture passage. A man discovers a great treasure hidden in a field, so he purchases the field to acquire the treasure.

Now, what if the man saw several rats, spiders and wasps, and a few skunks, so that he refused to buy the field due to the negatives.

All friends have fields with some weeds, garbage and mice. We all have fields with negatives. If you’ve been friends for a length of amount of time, you’re going to see some warts. We all have a Skelton Closet, because we are all dirty guilty sinners (Romans 3:10-23; 1st John 1:10). Don’t judge others because they sin differently than you do.

Every church has a field with some mice, weeds, garbage and an old junk car. So what many people do is refuse to take the treasure in a field because of the negatives. I have a field too, and so do you. We all have some garbage in our life. We all have some mice and weeds that we don’t want people to see. The church is comprised, of all things, of imperfect human beings.

All it takes is one disagreement and two friends will part ways and never talk to each other again. So, we'll leave the whole hidden treasure because we found one mouse, lizard or a snake. But the wise man decides to put up with the mice and spiders to get the treasure. Ladies and gentlemen, there is a treasure in the field. But if you want to obtain the great treasure then you'll need to tolerate the weeds, mice, steep grade, rocks, skunks and flooding zone.

Matthew 13:44, "

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

" You'll never find a perfect church because churches are comprised of sinful people. God only has redeemed sinners to work with in the churches.

Every Marriage Has A Field With Weeds And Mice

No matter who you choose to marry, they have a field with some mice, lizards and garbage. Millions of people divorce their spouse because they saw a few mice and some weeds. A man married a pretty young woman, but then he finds some weeds and mice in her field. So, he divorces his wife to run off with a prettier gal who has a special sparkle in her eye for him. But after a short time he finds not mice, but rats. He doesn't find lizards, he finds rattlesnakes. Instead of his former wife's garbage, now he has a junk yard. Instead of weeds he finds poison ivy.

I don't care who you are, if you have any sense at all you're going to put up with the imperfect field to get the hidden treasure. Regardless of who you marry, you're going to have to tolerate the field to get the treasure. Most men are stubborn but they get the job done. Many men have tempers but they are good men. We all want to find a treasure in marriage, but with every treasure comes a field with imperfections. No one is without flaw.

The Holy Bible is full of imperfect saints who had a treasure in a troubled field. The Apostle Peter was impetuous, but God used him to preach to several thousand people on the Day of Pentecost and 3,000 people were saved in one day. Peter was a treasure, but he had a field. Noah got drunk, but he had the tenacity to build an ark for 120 years. Moses had a hot temper, but was the meekest man in the whole world. Numbers 12:3, "Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth."

Samson had a field chasing unholy skirts all his life, but Samson was a treasure to God's people. Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) was a treasure, but he had a field. Pastor Jack Hyles was a treasure to several thousand people, but he had a field. No preacher is perfect, he has a field. So many people foolishly refuse to listen to [2]Pastor Hyles' sermons because they only look at the field of gossip and slander against him by critics, but in so doing this miss the great treasure of truth and a changed life.

Foolish people trot from one friend to another looking for a treasure without a field, but they cannot find one. Foolish women trot from one husband to the next, trying to find a treasure without a field but they cannot find him. Dear reader, there is no treasure with a field. If the grass seems greener on the other side of the fence, then plant some grass seeds in your own yard.

Every Family Has A Field With Thorns And Garbage

Every parent has a field. There are no perfect Moms and Dads, but there is a treasure inside that mother and father. No Dad is perfect. he may have a temper. You might see some mice and weeds from time to time, but there is a treasure in the field.

We live in a sad and ungodly spoiled rotten generation today in America, who want to find a treasure without a field. That is why there are so many divorces today. That is why so many friendships are strained. Some husbands point out every fault, mistake and blunder that their wife makes, so that she is a nervous wreck. GET RIGHT WITH GOD MEN!

Instead of scolding your wife, help her. Help her clean the house. Help her with the children. I don't care if you are the only one working outside the home, she needs your help, patience and understanding, not your criticism. Regularly do the dishes without being asked. You make dinner for her sometimes. Help alleviate her heavy load as a mother and your wife. The old adage is very true: Man's job is from dusk to dawn, but a mother's job is never done. Don't neglect the treasure because you see a field, cherish the field because of the hidden treasure!

Every church and congregation has a field. Every family has a field. Every pastor and pastor's wife has a field. Every husband and wife has a field. Every son and daughter has a field. There's no way to get the treasure unless you purchase the field. With every asset in life comes a corresponding liability. How sad it is that countless people never get the great treasure which is hidden, because they foolishly only look at the field and see some imperfections.

This is a beautiful passage of Scripture in Matthew 13:44. If you want the treasure, then you must also take the field that it is hidden in.

There are no perfect families. When I see a pastor's adult children slandering and attacking their parents on social media it saddens me. Those adult kids refuse to see the treasure in their Mom and Dad because they are only looking at the field with mice, weeds and possums.

Even Getting Saved Has A Field

And although Jesus is sinless and perfect in every way (Hebrews 4:15), there is a field in which the treasure of eternal life is hidden. In this field your family may reject you for receiving Jesus as your personal Savior, going against generations of your family's tradition (Matthew 10:32-37). If you want the treasure of eternal life, then you must take the indwelling Holy Spirit who will convict you concerning sinful bad habits (Proverbs 3:12; Hebrews 12:6-8). God is not an absent parent to His children.

I once shared the Gospel with a Chamorro coworker on Guam, but he refused to get saved. His name is Maurice and he is a good man. When I invited Maurice to believe the Gospel to be saved, he told me that there were some sins in his life that he wasn't ready to forsake. I kindly explained that eternal life is a free gift from God, paid for by Jesus' precious blood, so that he wouldn't be required to give up any sin to be saved. But Maurice said he fully understood that if he became a born again Christian, God's indwelling Holy Spirit would convict him to stop his sinful bad habits, and he simply didn't want that conviction in his life. I've never met a more honest man. Yet, I feel so sorry for Maurice, because he rejected the treasure of eternal life, because he only saw the field. This is what the inspired Holy Bible means in John 3:20, "For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved."

So sad. Jesus said in John 5:40, "And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life." Carefully notice that Jesus didn't say "ye cannot come"; but rather, "ye will not come." No one ever went to Hell except those who chose to go there by consciously rejecting Jesus as their personal Savior (John 1:12-13). That is, they refused to put their trust in Jesus' death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection as their only hope for Heaven.

Dear reader, please do not think that this matter of being born again is mere religious talk. This is a LEGAL MATTER! You have sinned against a holy God, your Creator. Thus, you are guilty according to Romans 3:10-20. There is a long criminal record against you in Heaven if you have not received Christ yet (Revelation 20:12). As such, there is a penalty for your wickedness, which is to burn in the fires and torments of the Lake of Fire (Hell) forever and ever without hope or rest day nor night (Revelation 14:11, 20:11-15, 21:8). John 3:18 declares that if you are not saved, you are ALREADY CONDEMNED, which means when you die you'll go straight to Hell.

God the Father loves all humanity. God loves YOU dear friend and He has made a way of escape (Romans 5:9). God is holy and His holiness absolutely demands justice! The wages of sin is death, not good works (Romans 6:23). Billions of foolish hellbound religious people think their good works can satisfy the wrath of God against sinners, but it cannot. God required a perfect sacrifice, which perfect sacrifice Jesus became on Calvary's cross, as a Lamb without spot nor blemish, who was killed for our sins (John 1:29; 1st Peter 1:18-19). JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

To settle this legal matter out of court, so to speak, God the Father is offering you dear friend (and every human being) an incredible offer, simply because God loves you (John 3:16; Romans 5:8). God sent His only begotten (biological) Son into the world to die a criminal's death on a lonely cruel cross, as full payment for YOUR SINS and MINE (John 3:16). Literally, Jesus who knew no sin became as sin, so that we who knew no righteousness could be made the righteous of God in Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:21; Philippians 3:9). What a great Savior!!!

If you will simply by faith (taking God at His recorded Word), accept Christ's sacrificial death on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that Jesus was buried but then physically resurrected from the dead three days later, then you will be instantly, irrevocably and permanently saved (i.e., born again, redeemed).

This is 'THE GOSPEL' (1st Corinthians 15:1-6), by which all who BELIEVE IT are saved (1st Thessalonians 4:14; Romans 1:16). You have God's PROMISE of eternal life, IF you believe (Titus 1:2). God promises to

(1st Corinthians 1:21b). What an awesome God, Creator and Savior!!!

7.1.19 Give Me The Trustworthy, Perfect And Inspired King James Bible! (2026-01-20 09:12)

Jeremiah 6:16, "Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein."

I guarantee you that the only Hell, fire and brimstone preachers left in America today are those men of God who still uphold the inspired King James Bible. The new Bibles are for New Evangelicalism, which is just plain old sinful compromise. Neo (or new) evangelicals don't go publicly soul-winning, door-to-door as the Bible teaches in Acts 20:22 (the believer's 20/20 vision). Most churches today operate like demonic cults, meeting behind closed doors and then rushing to MacDonald's after church to gossip about each other.

The believers in New Testament churches went out into the highways and hedges compelling people to get saved. Everywhere that the early Christians went either revival or riot broke out. They were persecuted, prosecuted and many martyred for preaching of the Gospel.

People criticize the inspired King James Bible, when they should leave it alone. God promised to preserve his Words unto every generation (Psalm 12:6-8). Either we have God's Word or we don't! Do you believe God or not? I believe that the King James Bible is God's preserved Word in the English language for today. God knew in His foreknowledge that the English speaking language would be the universal language of the end times. Every nation in the world is now teaching English to their children. God gave us the inspired and preserved King James 1611 Bible for all the world.

There will never be another translation of the Bible into English. Modern English makes such an undertaking IMPOSSIBLE, and today's agendacized feminist and homosexual society makes it IMPROBABLE. The [1]NIV 2011 just came out, removing the words "man" and "men" in literally thousands-upon-thousands of places. All modern bibles attack Christ's deity, the Godhead, the Pretribulation Rapture, Christ's sinless perfection, the literal blood sacrifice of Christ, and many other important doctrines of the Christian faith.

7.1.20 The Bible Will Keep Us from Sin, Or Sin Will Keep Us From The Bible
(2026-01-21 09:16)

Psalm 119:11, “Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.”

King David said he had memorized God’s Word, i.e., hid the Bible in his heart, to help him gain victory over sin in his personal life. Hebrews 4:12, “For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.” What a powerful Book! No Christian magazine, book, nor daily devotional can compare to the power of God’s Word!

No wonder David said in Psalm 1:1-2, “Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.” David had learned a painful lesson from the horrible sins he had committed (adultery and murder). David’s own family turned against him. David’s kingdom fell into ruin. David’s sons were killed. Bath Sheba’s child died. David’s name became mud.

As an old man, broken and tired, he writes the Psalms. David now realizes that it is God whom he has sinned against, because he has broken all of the Ten Commandments. We have all broken the Ten Commandments, whether in heart or by deed. God’s Law will keep us from sin, if we fear God to obey Him.

7.1.21 I Applaud The Testimony Of Timmy Macklin Sr. (2026-01-22 07:36)

Jude 1:7-10, “

Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities*.

9032

Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves*.

I applaud the father of Timmy Macklin Jr. (Renee Good’s former husband who died at age 36 in 2023). The elder Macklin Sr. essentially denounced his former daughter-in-law’s lesbianism and the plight of ungodly American society today. Tim Macklin Sr. admirably and courageously told CNN that he didn’t blame I.C.E.:

> Renee Good’s former father-in-law, Timmy Macklin Sr., urged Americans to turn to God and love one another when asked by CNN about her death. He said he did not blame Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) for what happened, but suggested that the country’s drift away from faith played a role, noting that if Renee had embraced God, she might not have ended up in the situation that led to her death a week ago.
>
> SOURCE: [1]Father-in-Law of Renee Good Refuses to Blame ICE, Urges Americans to Turn to God

Timmy Macklin Sr. told CNN:

> “I don’t blame ICE. I don’t blame Rebecca. I don’t blame Renee. I just wish that, you know, if we’re walking in the Spirit of God, I don’t think she would have been there. That’s the way I look at it.”
>
> SOURCE: [2]Father-in-Law of Renee Good Refuses to Blame ICE, Urges Americans to Turn to God

I couldn’t agree more. Moreover, the inspired Word of God agrees with Renee’s former father-in-law! Galatians 5:16, “This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.” The Bible clearly teaches in Romans 13:1-2, “

Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.” Renee Good got justly (but sadly) killed because she resisted God-ordained authority. Only a fool resists the police!

I’ve been seeing the acronym

on social media. I didn’t know what it meant, so I looked it up and it means:

“

F Around and Find Out!

” Sadly, that “FAFO” acronym can appropriately be applied to Renee Good. She poked the bear and found out! Proverbs 26:17, “ He that passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.” I can promise you that if you grab a dog by the ears that it will not go well for you! You’ll get bitten! The rioting protesters are all breaking the law. They are criminals!

No one has a right to deliberately block traffic, throw bricks and lit fireworks at federal agents, hit them with snow-shovels and broom sticks, to impede their work as law enforcement officers. I realize that there are some abusive cops who wickedly abuse the legal power entrusted to them. I have personally met cops who didn’t know the law. How can you enforce the law when you ignorantly don’t even know the law? They ought not be police! I have seen numerous cold-hearted thug police officers who had zero compassion or respect for homeless people, or people of a different ethnicity. And there are abusive judges to boot. In truth, there are some insane lunatics lurking in law enforcement who need to be fired and prosecuted.

That being said, they are still representatives of God-ordained authority. Romans 13:1-2, “Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.” Judges are magistrates, wicked as some may be (James 2:6; Proverbs 17:23). God will someday hold every crooked police officer, soldier, detective, attorney, lawmaker, politician and judge accountable for every evil deed, word and court ruling (Ecclesiastes 5:8, 12:13-14; Matthew 12:36). No one will be able to outwit God with lies to avoid accountability (Proverbs 24:12). The way you treat people matters!

Matthew 7:1-2, “Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.” No one has a right to condemn another sinner on a personal level. The law has a right to punish evildoers (Romans 13:1-10). The Bible preacher has a right to rebuke open sin from the pulpit.

Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear

” (1st Timothy 5:20). But outside of the pulpit, a preacher is a dirty rotten sinner just like everyone else.

Although Timmy Macklin Sr. didn’t directly say it, it couldn’t be more obvious that he strongly disapproves of his former daughter-in-law’s ungodly lesbian deathstyle and her perverse so-called “ marriage

to Becca Good. Two homosexuals cannot be married in God’s sight, because two females (or two males) cannot consummate the marriage. How can they join together? What saith the inspired Holy Scripture? ...

> Matthew 19:4-6, “And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female,

And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh?

Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder."

The inspired Word of God plainly teaches that a marriage can only be made between a male and a female, anything else is marriage fraud. Becca Good and Renee Macklin were NEVER married in the sight of almighty God. They were two wicked sinners living in defiance against their holy Creator! I say that kindly, but truthfully. Isaiah 45:9, " Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?" I do not rejoice in the premature death of Renee Macklin Good. She died doing evil.

Ironically, Governor Tim Walz on July 23, 2020 passed the very law that exonerates the police officer who shot and killed Renee Good who tried to ram him with her SUV...

[3]

Jonathan Ross Was Legally Justified In Killing Renee Good

Becca's caring Christian former father-in-law is correct, if Renee and her lesbian partner had been walking in the Holy Spirit of God, they wouldn't have been resisting God-ordained authority in Minnesota, impeding the agent's lawful work and causing trouble (Renee had been deliberately blocking the road for 4 minutes, defying police orders to leave). It doesn't matter if you disagree or don't like what President Trump, the U.S. Attorney and thousands of I.C.E. agents are legally doing, you have no God-given legal right (neither as an American nor a Christian) to hinder the efforts of law enforcement. The incompetent governor of Minnesota, and the incompetent mayor of Minneapolis, are two clown fools who should be behind bars in prison for insurrection.

Recent investigations found that more than half of the approximately $18 billion in federal funds entrusted to Minnesota-run programs have been fraudulently obtained, with the scale of the fraud described as staggering. This includes significant losses in programs like Medicaid and childcare, raising concerns about the impact on services for those in need. If there will be any justice, a bunch of people should be going to federal prisons for a long time! I digress.

I once again applaud Renee's former father-in-law for SPEAKING THE TRUTH about the unfortunately shooting in Minnesota. What is going on is ungodly. If these people were led by the Holy Spirit of God, none of this would have happened. What saith the Scripture? Ephesians 6:12, "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. "

I read the following passage of Scripture which perfectly applies to what's presently going on in Minneapolis...

> 2nd Peter 2:9-13, "The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished: But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities. Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord. But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption; And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you."

This passage of inspired Scripture practically gives the location of Minneapolis, Minnesota. The violent protesters count it a pleasure to riot in the daytime, hindering I.C.E. agents from doing their jobs. They are p resumptuous and selfwilled. They are not afraid to speak evil of dignities in positions of authority. We are seeing anarchy across the United States today. In my humble opinion I.C.E. should have the power to hurt the protesters, even kill them if need be (and not just in self defense).

I've seen these wicked anarchists blowing whistles, playing drums at night so that the agents cannot sleep, screaming at I.C.E. through loud blowhorns, spitting on them and saying the most ungodly horrible things about their families. If I had my way, those protesters would regret they ever woke up this morning.

The First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution (aka, gives Americans the right to peaceably assemble to protest, but not to use violence to force their anger onto law enforcement officers and impede their work. We've got a serious problem in this country regarding lack of respect for authority, and it needs to be punished. I've been upset my entire adult life about illegal aliens coming into the United States, and I for one couldn't be happier to see them ALL deported.

Sadly, I shudder to think what the lunatic Democrats will do when they regain power in the White House and Congress. We will see Sodom and Gomorrah on steroids! I am fully convinced as a Christian that all of this insanity and division has been intentionally created to divide and conquer the American people. Luke 11:17, "

But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.

7.1.22 Beware Of Erika Kirk's Toxic 2026 'MAKE HEAVEN CROWDED TOUR' (2026-01-23 07:51)

Romans 16:17-18, "Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple."

Kindly said, in my humble opinion neither [1]Charlie nor Erika Kirk are born again Christians. I doubt if Charlie went to Heaven, sadly. Charlie preached Lordship Salvation, and his wife is still a Roman Catholic. After her husband's death [2]Erika publicly said that she felt compelled to forgive the shooter or worried that she might never see Charlie again. That is, she was worried that God wouldn't forgive her sins if she didn't forgive her husband's murderer. Clearly she still has a works-based mindset, which is not the testimony of a genuine child of God. The true child of God fully understands that we have absolutely no part in saving our self, except to rest in the finished redemptive work of Christ (Titus 3:5).

I do not like nor support [3]Turning Point USA , who are hosting the "Make Heaven Crowded" (or show faith by works) national tour throughout 2026. Religion never got anybody into Heaven! Jesus plainly warned in John 3:3b, "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." Have you been born again dear reader? It's a simple question.

One of the places she will be going is Harvest Church in Los Angeles, whose statement of faith requires repenting of one's sins to live a changed life to be saved, which is a false gospel. Lordship Salvation is a perversion of the Gospel of free grace. Lordship Salvation mixes service with salvation, this corrupting God's simple plan of salvation by adding works to grace, which is what the cults (like Catholicism) all do.

On her toxic tour to make Hell crowded, Erika Kirk will be appearing and collaborating with [4]damnable false prophet Greg Laurie , who is a Gospel pervert!

These hellbound religions heathens are ungodly neo-evangelicals, preaching the same tommy-rot, balderdash and poppycock being taught today at religious cults like [5]Pensacola Christian College , [6]Bob Jones University , Faith Baptist Bible College and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary (to name but a few promoters of the Devil's fraud of Lordship Salvation, which is rooted in Calvinism and the works of Cain).

I'm glad that you let me know about this upcoming toxic event so I can expose it for the religious hoax that it is. I've noticed that Turning Point USA and all the liberal so-called "churches" affiliated with them persistently beg for money. That is truly pathetic and sad. Apostasy has overtaken the United States!

Wicked neo-evangelicals are all afraid to preach a simple free grace Gospel, that does not require repenting to turn from your sinful ways and living a perpetual changed life to seal one's ticket to Heaven. This is NOT the Gospel presented by the Apostle Paul (which he received directly from Jesus - Galatians 1:12) in 1st Corinthians 15:1-6.

There is nothing in the true Gospel which requires being willing to forsake one's sinful bad habits, clean up one's life of wrong doing, commit to do better, follow Christ as "Lord," feel profound guilt and sorrow over sins, nor anything else that demands human effort to get to Heaven.

We are saved by simply RESTING in the finish redemptive work of Christ (Hebrews 4:10-12), which was accomplished through Calvary's cross, His burial and bodily resurrection, and the blood that He shed (1st Peter 1:18-19) and sprinkled upon the heavenly Mercy Seat in the presence of God the Father on our behalf (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24, 12:24).

Turning Point USA is caught between GRACE and WORKS, satisfying the demands of every pseud-Christian false religion who mix works with grace. No doubt they do this to increase financial donations (1st Timothy 6:19-11; Romans 16:17-18).

Turning Point USA is wickedly ecumenical, hobnobbing with demonic Mormons and other cults who deny Jesus' deity being as God almighty. Wikipedia says:

> "Turning Point USA (TPUSA) is a conservative nonprofit organization that includes members from various faiths, including Latter-day Saints (Mormons). While there are significant doctrinal differences between evangelicals and Mormons, TPUSA promotes shared values such as family and free choice, and has seen a notable presence of Latter-day Saints within its ranks."

The inspired Holy Bible strongly FORBIDS saints yoking together with unbelievers for any cause (2nd Corinthians 6:14-17). By wickedly bidding Mormons, Seventh-Day Adventists and Roman Catholics Godspeed, Erika Kirk and company are guilty partakers of their evil deeds (2nd John 1:11). I want no part of it!

Charlie and Erika's salvation message is intentionally trimmed down, watered completely down, as to not offend the cults who donate millions of dollars to support their corrupt organization. In sharp contrast, when the Apostle Paul preached THE TRUTH men conspired to murder him. Paul was stoned and left for dead. Three times he was beaten within an inch of his life for preaching the Gospel, the way God intended for it to be preached.

The FAKE NEWS gospel which Erika Kirk and her cronies are propagating, which requires changing your behavior to have eternal security, is foreign to the inspired King James Bible (all modern revisions have been corrupted by Satan's minions).

Erika Kirk is a wicked person!

She is going on tour for 30 events in 2026 with '[7]GIRLS GONE BIBLE.'

Girls Gone Bible founders, floozies" Angela Halili and Arielle Reitsma are two demons! The New York Post has shocking lewd photos (smut) of these two lesbian-look-a-likes dressed nearly naked, adorned in hot sexy pants, just like the ungodly local pastor's wife at Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. God's curse is upon these ungodly brats! [8]Here's your Satanic Girls Gone Bible (WARNING: explicit images). SHAME on Erika Kirk and those horrible IMMODEST females! It is a vile sin for any woman to dress provocatively in public.

How could any God-fearing Christian support such an evil person as Erika Kirk? These charlatans of the Christian faith want your money, period (Romans 16:17-18).

Erika Kirk is fool! And so are you if you support her evil deeds. These wicked toxic women are lowering God to their whorish level, just like the wicked pastor's wife who wears pants.

Furthermore, Erika Kirk will be touring with [9]false prophet Greg Laurie, who preaches Satanic hard core Lordship Salvation.

And then there's that dingleberry pastor in Indiana, Lucas Miles, who is [10]a regular guest on Jim Bakker's toxic "PTL (People That Lie) CLUB." Not surprisingly, his wife [11]Krissy Miles is also a pastor, which is sinful. The Bible forbids women usurping leadership roles in local churches. 1st Timothy 2:12,

But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

" Women pastors are of the Devil, regardless of their message. The very act of assuming a man's role in leadership is an act of rebellion against God. All women preachers are false prophets! A woman can share the Gospel on a personal level, but she is biblically forbidden to preach with authority like that Jezebel Joyce Meyer does. [12]Miss Meyer has a sickening ill-acquired net worth of $120,000,000.

Ah yes, and then there's that little twerp Bryce Crawford, who is another gospel pervert that [13]corrupts the Bible meaning of repentance to be saved. BLASPHEMY!

You see, wicked neo-evangelicals today are TERRIFIED to dare preach an "easy-believism" Gospel that doesn't require CHANGE on the sinner's part. They are AFRAID of rejection from unsaved religious peers who DEMAND that a sinner's behavior change in order to get to Heaven. This is pure salvation by WORKS, and it doesn't work folks. It never has—from Adam's fig leaves, to Cain's grain offering, to the Pharisee's Judaism, to Judas Iscariot returning the 30 pieces of silver—WORKS do not save!

I triple-dog dare you to find any type of plan of salvation on any of these religious predators websites. You cannot! Go look at the toxic 700 Club, CBN, TPUSA, Lucas Miles, Bryce Crawford or any of their ministry peers and you WON'T find the Gospel. They couldn't care less about showing you how to go to Heaven. And sadly, even if they wanted to they couldn't, because they are counterfeit Christians themselves. They're all selling books. They're all begging for donations. But none of them share the Gospel, which speaks volumes concerning who their spiritual father really is, Satan (John 8:44). The religious business is lucrative!

Erika Kirk has surrounded herself with heathen whores, religious con artists and damnable false prophets! She's in good company among toxic friends. I am not trying to be mean or unkind, God forbid. I am simply telling the truth. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

It has sadly become rare to find anybody who presents the Gospel correctly. Behavior modification has absolutely nothing to do with getting saved. Jesus died on a cross 2,000 years ago to pay our debt of sin.

Erika Kirk is actually hosting the 'MAKE HELL CROWDED TOUR'!

> 2nd Timothy 4:2-5, "Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry."

There are false prophets everywhere nowadays. As we just read, the Apostle Paul exhorted young Timothy to do the work of an evangelist. A pastor comforts the afflicted; an evangelist afflicts the comforted.

GET RIGHT WITH GOD AMERICA!

7.1.23 You Can Be Whoever You Choose To Be (2026-01-24 07:49)

2nd Corinthians 10:5-6, “

Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.”

One of my favorite sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) is titled: ’[1]YOU CAN CHOOSE YOUR OWN TEMPERAMENT.’ This tremendous truth will change your life if you’ll heed its wisdom. This is a great truth!

A crabby woman says to a friend: “I wish I was like Betty, she is always sweet and happy.” The truth is that Betty is as much a crabby sourpuss as the rest of us, but she chooses to be kind to others and work at being nice to those around her.

A man says to a coworker: “I wish I had Bob’s work ethic, he labors so hard.” The truth is that Bob is just as much a lazy hound dog as the rest of us, he just chooses to work hard.

The inspired Word of God commands us to love one another (John 15:12).

In Ephesians 6:16 we are commanded to put on the shield of faith.

In 1st Thessalonians 5:16 we are commanded as the Lord’s redeemed saints to rejoice evermore.

In verse 17 we are commanded by God to pray without ceasing.

In verse 18 the Bible commands us to be thankful in all things (not necessarily for all things). I am not thankful when the car breaks down, but I can still be thankful that I am able to drive a car, and that I have a vehicle to break down.

In Ephesians 4:32 we are commanded as God’s children to be kind one toward another.

In James 5:8 the Bible commands us to have patience. God commands us to have joy.

We are commanded to be peaceful in Hebrews 12:14.

God gives us these spiritual gifts (i.e., the fruit of the Holy Spirit - Galatians 5:22-25), if we will simply CHOOSE to use them. Thus, we can and should CHOOSE to obey these commandments of God. Any child of God CAN CHOOSE to be loving, kind, forgiving, honest, generous, faithful, patient, caring and responsible.

Joy is a decision made by the will. The reason why the Apostle Paul and Silas could sing while in a Roman prison (Acts 16:25) is simply because THEY CHOOSE to have joy. The only reason why some Christians are miserable and full of bitterness is because they choose to be.

We talk about “the patience of Job,” but Job didn’t have any more patience than Peter, James and John. God favors no man; that is, the Lord is not a respecter of persons (Romans 2:11). Job simply CHOSE to use the patience that God gave him.

The only reason why one person is loving and another is unloving is because the first person CHOSE to be a vessel for God’s love. We give the Devil far too much credit. The Devil doesn’t make anyone angry, bitter or miserable, people CHOOSE to be that way.

Every child of God received as much of the blessed indwelling Holy Spirit as they'll ever get (Romans 8:9). We all have access to the same fruit of the Spirit. Therefore, it is not the possessing of these virtues that makes us different, it is the using of them that makes us different; and the using is done by the CHOOSING.

You can be nice to your spouse if you CHOOSE to be nice. You abusive husbands can be calm, patient and not fly off the handle when your wife is less than perfect, if you CHOOSE not to be harsh with her. The inspired Word of God commands married men in Ephesians 5:25, " Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it." God never commands us to do anything that He has not enabled and empowered us to do. If you love it is because you CHOOSE to love; if you hate it is because you CHOOSE to hate.

Love is a decision caused by the will; and not a response caused by the senses. The world's false love is synthetic, based on temporal beauty. When Hollywood actor [2]Sharon Stone was diagnosed with cancer and doctors gave her only a 1 % chance of survival, her scumbag husband abandoned her. That is the world's heathen type of conditional so-called "love."

The inspired Holy Bible commands us to love our enemies (Matthew 5:44), but that means we must CHOOSE to love our enemies. And for that matter, we must also CHOOSE to love our Christian brothers and sisters, or else we won't. By default we all walk in the sinful flesh, selfish and complaining, gossiping and hating each other as the wicked world does (1st John 5:19). The victorious Christian life must be lived on purpose. That is, we must CHOOSE to live in sweet harmony with the inspired written Word of God (which is the King James Bible).

If you are hot-tempered, you are disobedient to God almighty! You are living in direct rebellion against your Creator, who commands you and me to be kind, tenderhearted and forgiving toward others. Ephesians 4:32, "And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you." How does that passage of Scripture compare with the ungodly neo-evangelical fools for pastors we have today, who regularly kick people out of their wicked churches?

Unshakable faith comes from having your faith shaken.

In June of 2025, [3]I and my dear wife Alice were maliciously kicked out of the carnal Family Baptist Church in Pensacola (which is really a worldly social club and theological cult). [4]God's curse is upon Brad Moffett (and his stiffnecked potty-mouthed abusive father Bobby Moffett) for kicking out Tom and Sharon, Perri and his wife, Bobby across the street, Me and Alice and countless others for offending them. [5]What was our great offense?

The short gist of the matter is that the pastor's ungodly meddling immodest wife chooses to wear her worldly pants in public. I never said a single word to her or anyone about women wearing pants in the 45 months that we attended their church, but they (I didn't tell them) found [6]my ministry website and resented my Bible preaching against Christian women who sinfully wear pants. Here is my [7]particular biblical article that greatly offended them. Pastor Brad (age 37) shamefully censured my Bible preaching in his office in April of 2025, in the presence of me and my wife. We were [8]so disappointed in Brad Moffett, who during our meeting proudly and wickedly declared,

I am not a fundamentalist.

No, he's a neo-evangelical fool! When you stand up for what is right [9]ungodly people will get mad at you. The fastest way to get kicked out of a neo-evangelical church today is to just [10]TELL THE TRUTH! I digress.

If every husband and wife would heed this Scriptural advice concerning choosing your own temperament, it would permanently solve your marriage problems. Proverbs 13:10, "Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom." Due to our inherited sinful nature (Romans 5:12), we all tend to be crabby, to complain, to be selfish and allow life to frustrate us. Anybody can be loving, considerate and sweet if you CHOOSE to do so. It doesn't matter what health ailments you may have, nor how old you've grown, not anything else. We can all obey God's commandment to "be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you" (Ephesians 4:32b).

The Christian walk is a supernatural miracle in which we yield to allow God's Holy Spirit to control us as we obey the written Word of God (Galatians 2:20). Cancel your trip to the psychiatrist and instead CHOOSE to do right. God never commands us to do anything that He doesn't give us the wherewithal to fulfil. I decided a long time ago to love everybody. I chose decades ago to be kind, friendly and forgiving toward everyone. I choose to be happy in the LORD as I grow older. By God's grace I'll turn 59 years old on March 5th, 2026. I have decided to be kind at all times. I have decided to love my wife as the Bible commands. Ephesians 5:28, " So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. " I choose to love myself by loving my wife.

> "This morning, every single person in this room ought to make a choice to make a choice every moment of your life to love, to have joy, to be content, to have faith, to have patience. I don't know what you're going to choose." —Pastor Jack Hyles, '[11]You Can Choose Your Own Temperament'

By God's grace and strength, I choose to be faithful, loving, kind, grateful, humble, forgiving, patient and reasonable with my wife. I choose to be happy, thankful, humble and faithful in my daily Christian walk with God. I choose to rejoice in the Lord at all times, regardless of my circumstances. Paul and Silas chose to sing hymns while in prison in Acts 16.

Stephen chose to praise God while being stoned to death by an angry mob of hateful heathen Jews in Acts 7. Stephen CHOSE to express Christ's unconditional love for the insane mob, crying out for God to please forgive them for their ignorance. Acts 7:60, "And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep." You don't find that kind of faith today in the churches. They just kick unwanted people out the door without even bothering to talk to them first.

No one at Family Baptist Church ever said a word to me and Alice before telling us we that we weren't welcome anymore in June of 2025. After 45 months of attending their so-called church, their leaders didn't even have the decency to talk with us first (as the Bible requires in Matthew 18:15-17). They never cared about us enough to even attempt to reconcile.

I know the reason why they never talked with us. It is because they are wicked worldly neo-evangelicals, and I am a Christ-honoring separated fundamentalist, and they had already made up their minds to reject me 45 months earlier from the very beginning.

Those ungodly Bozos shamefully despise Pastor Jack Hyles (they openly slandered Brother Hyles to me and Alice). What ungodly reprobates! And by extension they hate and despise me because like Brother Hyles, I am a fundamentalist Baptist preacher. Those two religious clowns, Brad and Bobby Moffett (and their meddling immodest wives) are not worthy to tie Dr. Jack Hyles' shoe laces. I mean that with all my heart! Brother Hyles in 55 years of ministry as a faithful pastor never kicked anybody out of attending church.

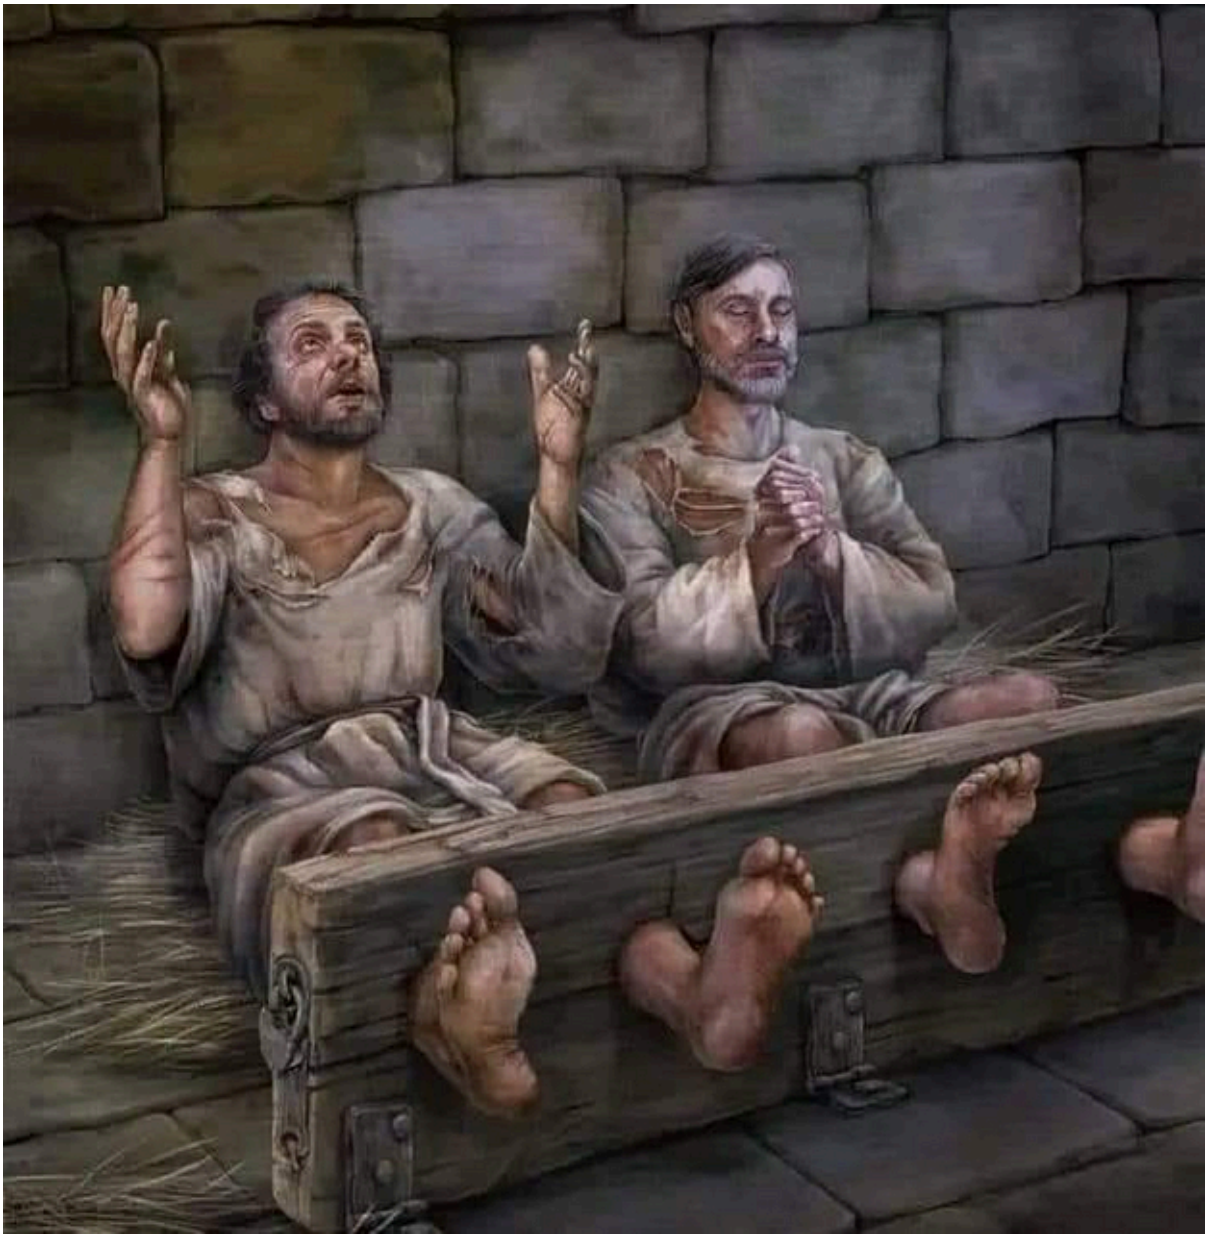
Pastor Jack Hyles taught me that to lose something in the will of God is to find something better. To Hell with the corrupt Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. They have CHOSEN to serve God in the flesh, Their carnal wives have CHOSEN to wear their worldly pants. Father and son false prophets have CHOSEN to pervert the Gospel, by requiring people to turn away from their past sinful ways to get to Heaven. God's curse is upon the wicked Family Baptist Church in Pensacola (Galatians 1:6-9). Woe unto those wicked brutish pastors who lack good sense and the Holy Spirit of God. They count me as their enemy for telling the truth, which is also why the local churches in Galatia hated the Apostle Paul (Galatians 4:16).



Even though King Saul tried to ruthlessly murder David in 1st Samuel 19, David chose to respond with God's love and respect for the Lord's anointed. David could have taken Saul's life when Saul and his men were sleeping in a cave, but he didn't. Instead, David cut a piece off of Saul's garment to prove that he wasn't trying to kill the king, since he had an opportunity but didn't take it to harm the troubled king.

Joseph, who had been horribly betrayed and sold into slavery by his ten half brothers decades earlier, could have easily ordered them all to be killed. As governor over all of Egypt, Joseph needed to merely speak the word and his malicious ten half brothers would have all have been executed. But instead Joseph chose to show God's mercy, telling his brothers " But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive " (Genesis 50:20).

This is one of the most helpful and practical Bible truths I have ever learned, that I can CHOOSE to be whoever I want to be in the Lord's power. 2nd Corinthians 10:5-6, "

Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled." Some might call that being brainwashed, but the Bible calls it walking in the Spirit. Galatians 5:25,

"If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit."

7.1.24 Beer Soaks America (2026-01-25 11:31)

Proverbs 20:1, “Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.”

[1]

[2]Jacqueline Saburido
(December 20, 1978 - April 20, 2019)

Alcohol IS A POTENTIALLY DEADLY DRUG!!! It affects the entire body. Actually, a driver can be impaired with a U.S. blood-alcohol level as low as .01. When you drink alcohol, it goes straight from the stomach to the bloodstream. Alcohol can be detected in the blood as fast as five minutes after drinking, and it’s effects — most obvious in the central nervous system — peak in about 30 to 45 minutes.

Alcohol depresses the central nervous system which, in turn, impairs motor function, motor performance, speech and eye movements.

These skills are not only slowed down, they are performed more inaccurately.

Alcohol also affects the ability to think and reason clearly.

Everywhere we go nowadays, people are bombarded with advertisements to "Drink Responsibly"; yet, in spite of the warnings, people are still being maimed and injured by drunk drivers.

Little children are still being killed.

Who’s kidding who?

What the lying beer companies will NEVER tell you is that NO AMOUNT of alcohol is safe while driving.

Please don’t dismiss these disturbing FACTS. Many booze drinkers have an ungodly cavalier attitude toward the safety and wellbeing of others...

> “The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration’s (NHTSA) position on the relationship between blood alcohol concentration and driving is that driving performance degrades after just one drink.” —[3]SOURCE

The NHTSA further warns...

> “Every day, about 34 people in the United States die in drunk-driving crashes — that’s one person every 42 minutes. In 2023, 12,429 people died in alcohol-impaired driving traffic deaths. These deaths were all preventable.” —[4]SOURCE

The NHTSA is absolutely right...

> Because of this risk, it’s illegal in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico to drive with a BAC of .08 or higher, except in Utah where the BAC limit is .05. However, even a small amount of alcohol can affect driving ability. In 2023, there were 2,117 people killed in alcohol-related crashes where a driver had a BAC of .01 to .07 g/dL. —[5]SOURCE

The following shocking factual information is from ’Mothers Against Drunk Driving’ (MADD), but I have a big problem with their core message to society. The message should be one of total abstinence from booze; not just to drink alcohol but refrain from driving. When you get buzzed and your brain goes numb and catawampus, how can you have enough sense not to drive your car home? You cannot! MADD needs to get mad at BOOZE, not just drivers who use it.

The Love of Money is the Root of All Evil (1st Timothy 6:10)

The whole reason why people consume booze is for its recreational drugging effects, which should be outlawed since it is a potentially addictive and dangerous Schedule I drug. Alcohol is classified as a central nervous system depressant. It slows down brain activity and can impair cognitive and motor functions. ...

> "In 2023, an estimated 360,441 people were injured in drunk driving crashes in the United States. This highlights the significant impact of alcohol-related incidents on public safety." —[7]SOURCE

As long as there is booze in our culture there will be more injuries, accidents and death. ...

> "Approximately 232 million workdays are missed annually due to alcohol-related issues." —[8]SOURCE Drinking just one beer can raise your BAC to .03 g/dL. I am sick and tired of hearing cavalier (given to haughty disregard of others ) fools spout about the follies of "underage drinking," when [9]70 % of alcohol related deaths involved ADULTS (age 21 and over). Yes, even a blood alcohol concentration (BAC) [10] as low as 0.01 % can impair your ability to drive and increase the risk of accidents. Research indicates that [11] any amount of alcohol can affect cognitive functions like reaction time and decision-making.

The best way not to become an alcoholic is to never take the first drink. By God's grace I will turn age 59 on March 5th, 2026 and I have never drank a drop of booze in my life. On occasion to help me sleep at night (due to my chronic neck pain since 2004), I will take a cup of Nyquil (what Pastor Jerry Falwell used to humorously call, "Baptist wine"). But I refuse to start drinking booze because I likely would become a drunk. I simply don't want to find out! Using Nyquil as directed for medicinal purposes, you will never get drunk!

And if you haughtily say, "

That would never happen to me, I drink responsibly!

Let me tell you, since you don't seem to be very honest (if that is what you think), that many well-known celebrities have been busted for drunk driving ([12]here are 40 of them). These are popular and wealthy people, who have everything and yet are so miserable that they seek relief from consuming booze.

The Utter Hypocrisy Of Our U.S. Government

We live in such a hypocritical society. I have suffered horribly with chronic neck pain since 2004. I was severely rear-ended by a church bus (of all things) in 1992 which put me in the hospital. And then I fell down at work in 2005, which worsened my condition. I underwent two major neck surgeries in 2009 and 2010, the second of which made me 100 % worse. I suffer 24/7 from chronic agonizing neck pain which has adversely affected (effectively ruined) my life. I cannot find any pain doctor who will prescribe more than BID (basic initial dosage), which is only 40 mg of OxyContin per day, but I need at least 80 mg to cope. So I suffer continually.

OxyContin is a Schedule II drug (which means it is highly addictive, but has a medical use). I have been taking prescription OxyContin since 2009 (as high as 140 mg per day in 2010-2011). That being said, alcohol is a Schedule I drug (which means it is highly addictive, but has no medical use). I legitimately need pain medications, but am being denied an adequate dosage because doctors nationwide are afraid of being prosecuted by the government if someone dies from the drugs. About 100,000 people die each year in the United States from pain medications, but what is so dishonest of the government is their refusal to separate illegal drug users (mostly killed by Fentanyl abuse), from legitimate pains sufferers like me who desperately need prescription pain drugs. It is wickedness!!! I hate the utter hypocrisy.

Dear friend, you cannot take two drinks of beer if you don't take the first! That is some of the best wisdom you'll ever hear. The inspired Holy Bible warns that there is a DECEPTIVE ELEMENT to alcoholic beverages. Proverbs 20:1, "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise." This is why the 40 shameful celebrities ended up on the drunk driving arrests

list I shared with you earlier. I guarantee you that NOT ONE OF THEM planned to be arrested for drunk driving, but it happened, and now they have a criminal record. They were DECEIVED by booze! Unlike the medication Nyquil which comes with a small measuring cup so you don't overdose; alcoholic beverages do NOT come with a measuring cup. Proverbs 20:17,

" Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel."

The Dire Consequences Of Drinking Booze

I have seen some horrific things happen throughout my life because of drunkards.

I watched a drunken neighbour smash every window on the front of the apartment his family was renting. His wife and children watched in fear and horror.

On my church Bus Route, I stood over the graves of a pregnant mother, who was murdered along with her baby by a drunk driver in Chicago. I cannot get that image of the tiny white coffin being lowered into the ground at their funeral, next to his mother's coffin. The ungodly drunken driver survived, but I doubt if that monstrous murderer went to prison. Alcohol has been a menace to every society in which it existed throughout human civilization. The tragic story of Lot and his incestuous relationship with his two daughters should be enough to convince us not to drink booze. Where did the family get that alcohol? They took it with them while fleeing Sodom! Nothing good ever happens in Sodom, so don't go there!

Beer soaks America. Sadly, According to [13]Pew Research, 62 % of Americans drink booze. Parents who get buzzed on booze fail to care (or understand) how their shameful bad behavior negatively affects their kids (who are always watching). ...

> "Moderate drinking by parents can negatively impact children, with many children feeling embarrassed or worried when their parents are tipsy. A study found that 51

% of parents reported being tipsy in front of their children, which can disrupt routines and affect children's perceptions of alcohol use."

— [14]SOURCE

GET RIGHT WITH GOD AMERICA! By God's grace, I will NEVER drink booze! Social drinking is literally social drugging. Alcohol is categorized as a Schedule I drug. With all the wonderful fresh fruit juices, carbonated drinks, smoothies, Club Soda, rice water, milk and other delightful beverages, why risk losing everything and murdering your neighbour by drinking booze?

Our Ungodly American Culture Of Boozing

Every weekend, tens of millions of Americans head for the local bars, nightclubs, restaurants and Satanic liquor stores to get buzzed. The dire consequences cannot be denied...

In 2024, University of Missouri student Riley Strain, whose sudden disappearance made national news in March, drowned in a river outside of Nashville, Tennessee, and there's evidence he'd been drinking heavily, his completed autopsy revealed Tuesday.

"Riley Strain, a 22 year-old-male, died as a result of drowning and ethanol intoxication," Assistant Medical Examiner Gulpreet Singh Bowman wrote.

[15]Ethanol intoxication happens when a person drinks too much alcohol.

The autopsy, which also included a toxicology report, reconfirmed much of what the Metropolitan Nashville Police Department reported in March after Strain's body was retrieved from the Cumberland River, namely that his death appeared to be accidental and there was no sign of "foul play related trauma."

It also revealed that Strain was found floating face down in the river and wearing a "tan and black short sleeve shirt, blue plaid undershorts and black socks."

—[16]READ MORE

Riley's so-called "

friends

aw him stumbling out of the tavern in Nashville, but not one of them gave a damn about his wellbeing. The bar's owner, contemptible [17]country singer Luke Bryan, certainly doesn't care. [18]Luke Bryan Sings For Satan! If Luke did care, he'd stop selling the demonic booze that is murdering his customers! AND IT IS MURDER! Luke Bryan will be held accountable by God for selling booze to a young college student that led to his murder. Ungodly American society murdered Riley! Americans have Riley's blood on our hands for tolerating this debauchery.

Our wicked American culture of partying to get buzzed on alcohol is not a secret. In fact, it is the white elephant in the living room. Consider such trashy songs as: '[19]Get Drunk And Be Somebody' and '[20]Too Drunk To Karaoke' by the late Toby Keith (1961-2024). Toby died of stomach cancer and is sadly now burning in the fires of Hell forever. [21]Toby's lame faith in God, but not Jesus Christ, is not enough to get to Heaven. 1st John 2:22-23,

"Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also." Big deal if Toby believed in a Creator, that is not enough to get to Heaven! James 2:19, "Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. "

To get to Heaven, you MUST be BORN AGAIN according to Jesus Himself (John 3:1-7). You get born again

by Faith In Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:26). Specifically, you get saved by acknowledging that you are a guilty needy sinner (Romans 3:19-20); so that you will accept Christ's sacrifice on the cross, His burial and bodily resurrection, as full payment for your sins, apart from all human effort and works. This is the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-6), by which all who BELIEVE IT are saved (Romans 1:16). There is NO OTHER WAY to Heaven than through trust (reliance, faith) in the precious name of Jesus (Acts 4:10-12; John 1:12-13, 3:16-18, 8:24, 14:6, 20:31; 1st Thessalonians 4:14). Either you trust in Jesus, or you go to Hell forever.

When will society ever learn that BOOZE KILLS! Why do we continue playing this reckless dangerous game of Russian Roulette with booze! I hope dear reader that you are smarter than the average bear, so as to abstain from booze.

7.1.25 The Sad Testimony Of Free Climber Alex Honnold (2026-01-26 07:52)

Psalms 14:1-3, " The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good. The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God. They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one."

[1]

On January 24, 2026 a remarkable man named [2]Alex Honnold (born August 17, 1985), [3]climbed the tallest skyscraper in Taiwan, the [4]Taipei 101, which stands at 1,667 feet (508 meters) tall, making it one of the tallest skyscrapers in the world. He ascended the building in 91 minutes, showcasing his remarkable climbing skills. At the very top, he stood at the pinnacle for about 10 minutes, taking selfies. I love this amazing guy! Alex has nerves of titanium! In free solo climbing that Alex excels at doing, the climber does not use any ropes or protective gear, but relies solely on mental acuity, resolve, physical strength and endurance. Amazing!

According to Wikipedia...

> Alex Honnold is an American rock climber best known for his free solo ascents of big walls. Honnold rose to worldwide fame in June 2017 when he became the first person to free solo a full route on El Capitan in Yosemite National Park, a climb described in The New York Times as "one of the great athletic feats of any kind, ever."

As much as I tremendously admire this great man, for doing what no one else has done, my heart was greatly saddened to learn recently that Alex is a devout atheist. Sadly, Alex Honnold is a professed atheist who does not believe in God. He has [5]expressed his corrupt views on spirituality and religion, indicating a lack of belief in a higher power.

> “By not believing in an afterlife, it forces you to make the most out of this life to get the most out of the time you have.” —Alex Honnold in a Chris Johnson video titled “A Better Life in Yosemite with Alex Honnold” (October 11, 2012)

I beg to differ. It is because of my belief in an afterlife that I work so hard on my website ministry, knowing that I must give account to my Creator someday. Hebrews 4:13, “Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do” (cf. Romans 14:10-12; Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; Matthew 12:36). Christians must appear at the Judgment Seat of Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11). Unbelievers like Alex Honnold will appear at the Great White Throne of Judgment (Revelation 20:11-15). I highly recommend that you settle out of court with God the Father dear reader, by accepting the sacrifice of His only begotten Son as full payment for your sins.

Kindly said, the inspired Holy Bible calls Alex a liar for denying the existence of God...

> Romans 1:20-21, “
>
> For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:
>
> Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.
> **”

At some point in his youth, the Holy Bible says that Alex KNEW GOD, but he refused to glorify the LORD as his divine Creator, due to an unthankful heart. God deserves so much better than that from His creation. Isaiah 45:9a,

“

Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker!

Alex Honnold intentionally ignores the fact that all of the beautiful nature he has experienced while climbing dozens of mountains didn’t just happen by chance. It wasn’t cosmic chaos and accidental aftermath that formed the universe, it was God our omnipotent Creator. Here are just a few passages of Scripture which teach that God is the Creator...

>
> In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.
>
> **”
>
> Psalms 8:3-4, “
>
> When I consider thy heavens,the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;
>
> What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?
>
> **”

Jeremiah 10:12, “

He hath made the earth by his power*, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.

Isaiah 45:18, “

For thus saith the LORD that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the LORD; and there is none else.

Specifically, Jesus Christ (who is God almighty, a member of the Godhead) created all things...

John 1:1-4, “ In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God.

All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made*. In him was life; and the life was the light of men.”

No human being can honestly answer these basic questions:

1. How big is the universe?
2. Where did the universe begin?
3. Where did life begin?

There are no logical, plausible or rational answers to these perplexing questions that have stumped mankind since the very beginning of life. Can the universe continue forever? Anyone who says it can is blatantly denying every aspect of science, astronomy and physics. If the universe does has an end, what lies beyond? How could there have been a time when nothing existed? Doesn’t everything have a beginning and an end? Hoe can life come from non-life? Only arrogant fools attempt to answer these questions without acknowledging that there is a supreme Creator. The only logical answer to all three perplexing questions is God.

I sincerely hope and pray that Alex Honnold will put his trust in Jesus Christ before it is too late for him. One slip off a skyscraper or a mountain and from Hell Alex will believe in God, I promise you! ...

2nd Timothy 2:12b-13, “

...if we deny him, he also will deny us:

If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.

There is only one place in the afterlife where an atheist can go, which is Hell.

Revelation 20:15,

“

And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

” God\s wrath is presently resting upon Alex’s head. John 3:36,

“He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.” God almighty sacrificed His only begotten Son on a cross 2,000 years ago, and He doesn’t take it lightly when a guilty sinner like Alex rejects His Son.

By God’s grace, I received Jesus Christ as my personal Savior at age 12 in 1979. I simply by faith put my sole trust in Jesus’ death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection three days later as my only hope for the forgiveness of sins and Heaven. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

I find it highly ironic in the photo at the beginning of this blog, showing Alex (a hard core atheist) waving at fans inside the building as he climbs, and one of them is holding up a sign which reads: “ to Alex. Now isn’t that peculiar! Why would the Lord help an atheist who denies His existence and spits on the sacrifice of His only begotten Son? I admit that I did pray for Alex as he climbed the Taipei 101 skyscraper, concerned that he might slip and fall to his death, and wake up in the everlasting fires of Hell. Time is running out folks!

> Hebrews 9:27-28, “
>
> And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:
>
> So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.
> **”

How could such a brilliant man as Alex Honnold deny his Creator? It makes no sense. You’d think if anyone would have faith in God (Mark 11:22), it would be a guy who has spent his life in the mountains and nature. Romans 1:20-21 plainly warns that since nature itself testifies of God’s existence, eternal power and Godhead, NO MAN will have any excuse on Judgment Day. In essence, there is no such thing as a true atheist, there are only those who claim it...

> Romans 1:20-21, “
>
> For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:
>
> Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.
>

Alex Honnold is an ingrate to God! All of the delicious food he enjoys, his health, his comforting wife, his beloved children, his home and friends—all of it came FROM GOD ABOVE. James 1:17,
“

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

” Repent of your unbelief before it is too late! God is faithful.

7.1.26 Evangelist Billy Sunday Speaks About “Personal Rights” (2026-01-27 16:38)

Matthew 7:12, “Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.”

I ran across this tremendous sermon excerpt today from Evangelist Billy Sunday (1862-1935). He is preaching against the evils of producing, transporting, selling and drinking BOOZE! When people irresponsibly get buzzed and drunk in liquor, they hurt other people...

> Personal Liberty
> Personal liberty is not personal license. I dare not exercise personal liberty if it infringes on the liberty of others. Our forefathers did not fight and die for personal license but for personal liberty bounded by laws. Personal liberty is the liberty of a murderer, a burglar, a seducer, or a wolf that wants to remain in a sheep fold, or the weasel in a hen roost. You have no right to vote for an institution that is going to drag your sons and daughters to hell.
>
> If you were the only person in this city you would have a perfect right to drive your horse down the street at breakneck speed; you would have a right to make a race track out of the streets for your auto; you could build a slaughter house in the public square; you could build a glue factory in the public square. But when the population increases from one to 600,000 you can’t do it. You say, "Why can’t I run my auto? I own it. Why can’t I run my horse? I own it. Why can’t I build the slaughter house? I own the lot." Yes, but there are 600,000 people here now and other people have rights.
> So law stands between you and personal liberty, you miserable dog. You can’t build a slaughter house in your front yard, because the law says you can’t. As long as I am standing here on this platform I have personal liberty. I can swing my arms at will. But the minute any one else steps on the platform my personal liberty ceases. It stops just one inch from the other fellow’s nose.

> When you come staggering home, cussing right and left and spewing and spitting, your wife suffers, your children suffer. Don't think that you are the only one that suffers. A man that goes to the penitentiary makes his wife and children suffer just as much as he does. You're placing a shame on your wife and children. If you're a dirty, low-down, filthy, drunken, whisky-soaked bum you'll affect all with whom you come in contact. If you're a God-fearing man you will influence all with whom you come in contact. You can't live by yourself with my business?"
>
> If I heard a man beating his wife and heard her shrieks and the children's cries and my wife would tell me to go and see what was the matter, and I went in and found a great big, broad-shouldered, whisky-soaked, hog-jowled, weasel-eyed brute dragging a little woman around by the hair, and two children in the comer unconscious from his kicks and the others yelling in abject terror, and he said, "What are you coming in to interfere with my personal liberty for? Isn't this my wife, didn't I pay for the license to wed her?" You ought, or you're a bigamist. "Aren't these my children; didn't I pay the doctor to bring them into the world?" You ought to, or you're a thief. "If I want to beat them, what is that your business, aren't they mine?" Would I apologize? Never! I'd knock seven kinds of pork out of that old hog.
>
> [Emphasis added]
>
>
> Billy Sunday, ' [1]The Curse Of The Saloon '

I love it! I don't know if you caught what Billy Sunday said: "

So law stands between you and personal liberty, you miserable dog. You can't build a slaughter house in your front yard, because the law says you can't.

" I'm going to use that in my preaching, "You miserable dog!"

In the same sermon, Billy Sunday called the foolish people of Gergesenes (Matthew 8:28-34) who asked Jesus to depart from their coast, " peanut-brained, weasel-eyed, hog-jowled, beetle-browed, bull-necked lobsters that owned the hogs.

" I love it! That's good old fashioned real Bible preaching! Your average deadbeat neo-evangelical twerp for a pastor today, who couldn't preach his way out of a wet paper bag, would have a cow if he heard Billy Sunday preach! They'd get angry to throw a fit at God's man for preaching THE TRUTH!

We need a new generation of in-your-face, fiery, uncompromising, unapologetic, barn-stormin, shingle-pullin', hell-raising, window-rattlin', inspired King James Bible, free grace Gospel, easy-believism, heresy exposing, sinner loving, soulwinning, preaching preachers like Billy Sunday, Steven Anderson, Jack Hyles, Grayson Fritts, Bruce Mejia and other caring fundamentalist truth-tellers. The world is dying for preachers who TELL THE TRUTH without compromise.

The churches are empty today because pastors no longer walk with God (most are not even born again). Consequently, they no longer are bold to preach the truth. Acts 4:13, "

Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

” You hang around Jesus and you’ll want to go preach to the whole world!

> “The world will go to Hell unless somebody is authoritative!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[2]I Shall Not Be Moved”

Dear reader, if you are wise you will abstain from consuming booze. I could show you victim after victim who thought they could handle alcohol, but statistics prove otherwise. Proverbs 20:1, “

Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

” Look what a drunken fool did to destroy the life and health of this poor girl...

[3]

[4]Jaqueline Saburido (1978-2019)

Here is some horrifying information about what a reckless drunken 18-year-old did to ruin Jaqueline’s life. Reggie was driving home while intoxicated after a party. The spoiled brat American youth got seven years in prison, but Jaqueline’s quality of life ended because of him. Billy Sunday is so right! No one has a right to prance upon the right of others to be safe. ...

> On 19 September 1999, after attending a birthday party near the unincorporated area of Lake Travis, Saburido and several of her friends accepted a ride home from a classmate. Shortly into the drive, their 1990 Oldsmobile Ninety-Eight Regency was struck by 1996 GMC Yukon owned and driven by 18 year old Reginald "Reggie" Stephey who was a senior at Lake Travis High School who was driving under the influence of alcohol after attending a party with his friends.
> The collision killed the driver and owner of the vehicle who was an 18 year Russian woman named Natalia Chpytchak Bennett and one of the passengers who was a 20 year old Colombian woman named Laura Guerrero, and caused the vehicle to burst into flames. Saburido was trapped inside the wreckage when it caught fire and could not escape.

> Passing paramedics managed to douse the fire and tried to pull the occupants free, but unfortunately lacked the specialized equipment needed to free Saburido from the wreckage, and the fire unexpectedly reignited before they could rescue her. Forty-five seconds later, a fire truck arrived and fully extinguished the fire, after which Saburido was airlifted to the burns unit in Galveston.
>
> Despite suffering second- and third-degree burns across more than 60 % of her body, Saburido survived. Her fingers had to be amputated, though surgeons were able to salvage enough bone to construct an opposable thumb. She lost her hair, ears, nose, lips, left eyelid, and much of her vision. Saburido subsequently underwent more than 120 reconstructive operations, including cornea transplants to restore her left eye.
>
> In June 2001, Stephey was convicted for two counts of intoxicated manslaughter and sentenced to seven years in prison.
>
> — [5]SOURCE

I could share literally thousands of similar horrific murders (not mere accidents as they are erroneously called by the ungodly media). [6]Here a tragic story about a wicked drunkard in 1998 who slammed his speeding vehicle into a church bus, murdering 25 children. Sadly, no matter how many people are murdered, ungodly Americans will never stop drinking their booze. One of the saddest days in the United States was on December 5, 1933, when the Twenty-first Amendment was ratified, repealing the Eighteenth Amendment from 1919.

To see liquor legalized again broke Billy Sunday's heart, who had spent his life preaching the Bible against the wicked liquor traffic and thug booze cartel in the United States. Billy Sunday graduated to Heaven on December 6, 1935, two years after the Prohibition Era was overturned by ungodly judges in cahoots with ungodly villainous men who had been made rich selling their Liquid Devil to their victims. GOD HATES BOOZE!!!

>
> Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God."

Most preachers deliberately leave out the next two verses...

> 1st Corinthians 6:11-12, "And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any."

I love these Bible verses! The Apostle Paul is teaching that if you have been born again by faith in Jesus Christ, then all of your sins (including drunkenness) have been washed in the blood of the Lamb of God (1st Peter 1:18-19). So, even if you still get plastered drunk as a Christian, you are safe and secure in God's PROMISE of eternal life " to them that believer

(1st Corinthians 1:21b). We are saved solely by God’s grace through faith in the Gospel (GOOD NEWS) of Christ crucified, buried and bodily risen (1st Corinthians 15:1-6; 1st Thessalonians 4:14).

Please notice what Paul says in 1st Corinthians 6:12,

“

All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.” In other words, drinking booze and getting addicted to alcohol won’t jeopardize your eternal life (Acts 13:39), but Paul refused to become enslaved to booze. Dear reader, I don’t know about you, but I couldn’t agree more with Paul in this matter of liquor.

7.1.27 A Godly Christian Keeps Trying (2026-01-28 08:57)

Proverbs 24:16, “For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.”

Dear saint of God, God only expects that you do better today than you did yesterday. Now, if you are not born again, then God’s wrath abides upon you. John 3:36, “He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.” Woe unto the human being who will one day ’DIE IN YOUR SINS’ without Christ (John 8:24b). The redeemed child of God shall some day ’DIE IN THE LORD’ (Revelation 14:13b).

I now speak to the saints. As God’s children, we are far from perfect. Thankfully, God knows that we are flesh and considers our frailty. Psalms 103:14, “

For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust.

” This was Pastor Jack Hyles’ mother’s favorite Scripture passage, and for obvious reasons it should be one of every saint’s favorite Bible verses. At best we are weak, vulnerable, opinionated, all strange in our own ways, children of God.

The inspired Holy Bible teaches in our text passage from Proverbs 24:16, “For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.” That is, when a Christian sins, we get back up and try in God’s strength to do better next time.

And always remember, as believers we don’t grow in strength, we grow in grace (2nd Peter 3:18). We read in Galatians 2:20-21,

“I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

” Here we learn one of the great secrets to living the Christian life, which secret is that you and I simply cannot successfully live the Christian life in our own human frailty and weakness.

Proverbs 24:16, “For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.”

Every Believer Struggles with Sin

Paul tried to live right, but at times utterly failed, just as ALL believers do. Proverbs 24:16, “For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.” Please note that there are two separate Hebrew words used for “fall” in Proverb 24:16. The first “falleth” literally means “to trip, or stumble.” This is the believer who attempts to please God by living a holy life, but fails, and tries again, but fails, and tries again, but fails, and so forth. This is pleasing to the Lord; not that we fail, but that we keep getting back up and trying again with His help. That is, we KEEP TRYING.

As long as we are living in this selfish and carnal flesh, we will endure the constant spiritual struggle between our sin-nature and the Spirit of Christ which indwells every believer (Romans 8:9). Just keep trying dear saint of God, in the Lord’s strength not yours.

> “God will still use you, I don’t care what you’ve done!” —Pastor Jack Hyles titled, “[1]If Thou Should Mark Iniquities, Who Could Stand?”

The second word “fall” means “to quit, or walk away.” This is the man or woman who deliberately commits sin, trying to justify their wickedness. This is the wife who files for divorce. She quit, i.e., she’s not even trying to live for God anymore. Seeking greener pastures is what the heathen world does. The Bible tells us to hang in there doing right for God (Galatians 6:9).

Feminism has indoctrinated American women today to condemn their husbands, blaming them for everything. There are multitudes of sinful commercials and television shows nowadays which portray men as being ignorant, incompetent, stupid and naïve in comparison to women. It is heathendom and it’s helping to ruin men.

The Bible is an authoritative Book written by an authoritative God; and the fathers, husbands, and preachers who live by it will be authoritative. The wicked world hates God’s authority, and any authority ordained of God. I have received numerous letters in the past from women who blame their husbands for everything, but never say even one negative thing about themselves. Please read, [2]Who’s the Biggest Sinner?

It's important that you don't become discouraged when you do sin. Proverbs 24:16, "For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief." A wicked person doesn't even try to live right, they don't care about pleasing God. When a Christian falls, the whole world is waiting to condemn them. The world receives their own (John 15:19).

David Lee Roth (lead singer of the rock band Van Halen) is one of the wickedest men in the world today, who has spent his life destroying teenager's lives with his demonic music that promotes all manner of sexual depravity, rebellion, nasty filth and blasphemy against God. Wikipedia has nothing bad to say about Mr. Roth.

Yet, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) spent his life helping millions of people through his 55 years of faithful ministry, and Wikipedia trashes him out like the worst man who ever lived. Judgment day is coming for this ungodly world (Isaiah 13:11). I thank God for the precious blood of Jesus Christ that cleanseth my sins away (1st John 1:7). When you fall, and you will, get back up for God my friend. [3]If Thou Should Mark Iniquities, Who Could Stand? (awesome MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles).

> "The Devil will make you guilty about your past... You're not worthy to serve God, but neither is anybody else worthy to serve God, and so God's gotta have unworthy people serving Him... That's one reason why we should do everything we can to salvage people." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[4]If Thou Should Mark Iniquities, Who Could Stand?"

A very important truth for us to understand is that we, as believers, cannot live the Christian life in our own strength. Galatians 2:20, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me." I love that Scripture! Jesus lives in and through me as God's child, in the form of the Holy Spirit. In Romans 8:9, the Holy Spirit is called the "Spirit of Christ." Amen!

All we have to do (as Christians) is saturate our mind and heart with the inspired Word of God (King James Bible), and yield to it. 2nd Corinthians 10:5, "Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ." That's not mind-control, that's voluntarily yielding to the Holy Spirit in obedience to God's Word.

Unlike satanic Hollywood and the occult music industry, who [5]continually manipulate the human mind to deceptively control people; God is brutally honest and nothing is done in secret. John 18:20, "Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing." The world would rather trust sneaky Freemasons and Satan who deceive them, than to trust an honest and dear Savior.

Ephesians 6:10-12, “Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.” We cannot gain victory over sin by ourselves, we need God’s power. This is exactly what Ephesians 6:10, “...be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.” We are foolish if we attempt to live the Christian life in our own strength, and we will utterly fail. The Bible tells us to be strong IN THE POWER OF HIS MIGHT.

This is why the Apostle Paul could say in 2nd Corinthians 12:9-10, “And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ’s sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.”

[6]God’s Final Call

Someday you’ll hear God’s Final Call to you
To take his offer of salvation true-
This could be it my friend if you but knew-
God’s Final Call, God’s Final Call

How can you live another day in sin,
Thinking some day with Christ you will begin?
O will you hear above the world’s loud din-
God’s Final Call, God’s Final Call

If you reject God’s Final Call of grace,
You’ll have no chance your footsteps to retrace-
All hope will then be gone and doom you’ll face.
O hear his call! God’s Final Call

Romans 10:13, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

The Blood of the Lamb

I can’t tell you how many times the Holy Spirit has comforted me with the Words of Hebrews 4:15-16, “For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need." What a wonderful PROMISE from God! The throne of grace is mine to approach for help, because of the precious blood of Jesus!

What was forbidden to all Old Testament saints except the high priest (i.e., entering into the holy of holies) is freely available to us today through Christ's blood. Yet, so many of us neglect and take for granted our privilege as born-again believers to approach God's throne of grace. We are so undeserving. Thank God for the literal blood of Jesus which gives us the victory over sin if we want it. Revelation 12:11, " And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death."

All God expects from you dear saint of God is that you get back up when you fall, and simply KEEP TRYING. Pardon my reference to a secular movie, but I love what Alfred tells Bruce Wayne in the 2005 popular film 'Batman Begins,' when Mr. Wayne is watching his family's mansion burn to the ground at the bottom of a deep elevator shaft. Alfred says: "Why do we fall Sir? It is so that we can learn to pick ourselves up." I love Alfred's helpful advice. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 24:16, "For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief."

I understand that by God's grace He resurrects us from dire circumstances (2nd Corinthians 1:8), and is our Rock unto whom we flee in a time of storm. Psalms 18:2,

" The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower. " That being said, God has given every man a free will to exercise. Whether or not we get back up from a sinful fall is our decision alone. The Lord doesn't force Himself upon anyone. God has never forced any lost sinner to trust Christ. Calvinism is a perversion of God's grace and a pack of lies from Satan!

The Lord better than anyone understands our weaknesses, temptations and frailty as humans. Psalms 103:14, "For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust."

Proverbs 24:12, "If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?" God is the keeper of every man's soul. It's not hard to grasp in lieu of the fact that God created the human race. The eyes of the Lord are in every place beholding the evil and the good. Hebrews 4:13, "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do."

Dear saint of God, KEEP TRYING. Don't give up! I love what Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) said:

UNSHAKABLE FAITH COMES FROM HAVING YOUR FAITH SHAKEN.

" The following passage of Scripture teaches us how to live right...

> 2nd Corinthians 10:3-6, "For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled."

This is not mere mind-control, it is being Spirit led as a child of God, bringing every thought into captivity unto obedience to God's inspired Word.

And I absolutely love verse 6, which teaches us to "

REVENGE ALL DISOBEDIENCE.

That is, when you mess up and fall (as we all do regularly), we should have a burning desire and determination in our soul to never make that stupid mistake or commit that willful sin again. This is why a God-fearing Christian KEEPS TRYING, because we have the indwelling blessed Holy Spirit of God who convicts us about the sins in our life.

The wicked are not so, the Bible says, they instead deliberately KEEP SINNING. ...

Proverbs 2:10-14, "

When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;

Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee:

To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things;

Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;

Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked*.

Verse 14 caught my attention... " [7]WHO REJOICE TO DO EVIL .

" The wicked person couldn't care less about pleasing God, since they do not know Jesus as their personal Savior. The natural man (i.e., unsaved person) does not have the indwelling presence of God's Holy Spirit (Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17).

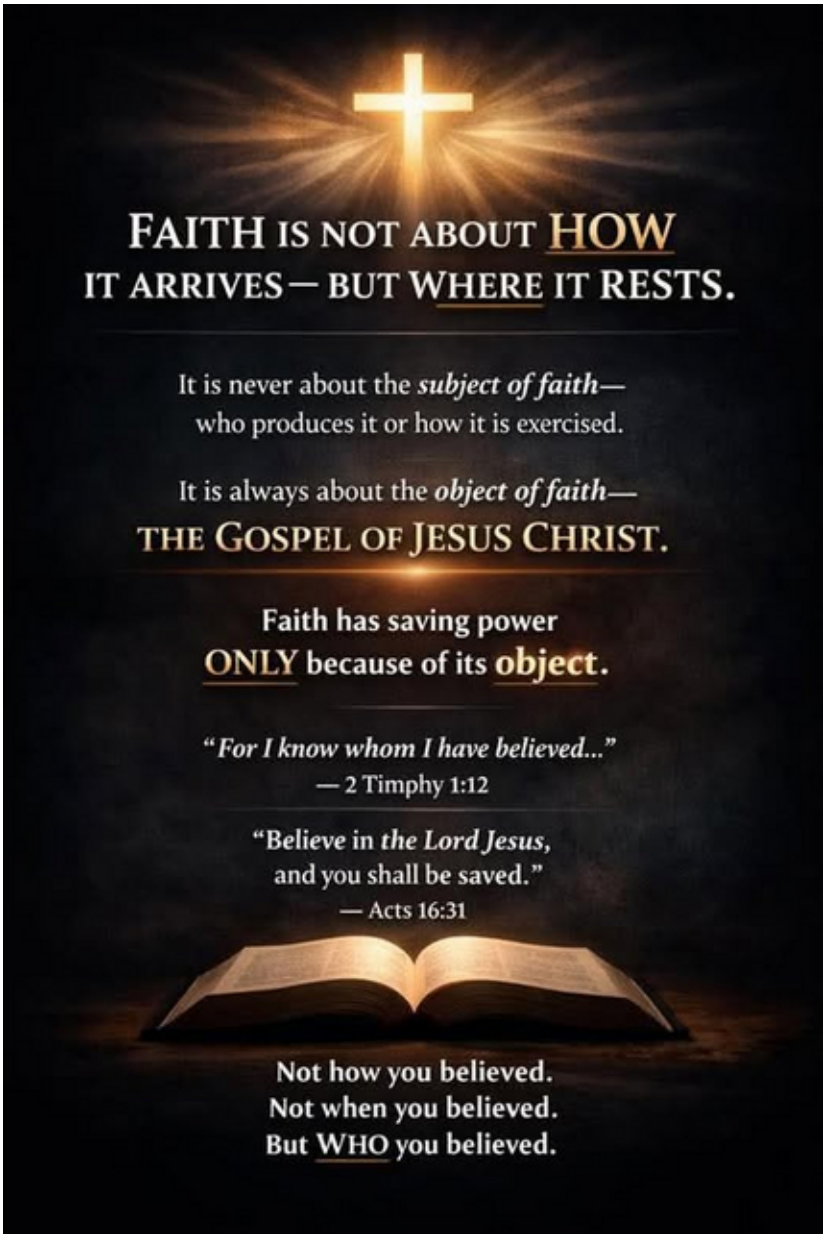
One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles is titled: '[8]If Thou Should Mark Iniquities, Who Could Stand' based upon Psalms 130:3, "

If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?

" If the truth be known, no Christian is a shining example of what a child of God should be. We all have our ugly Skelton Closet full of bones.

The good Lord simply desires that we do better today than we did yesterday. What more can any Christian do? When the woman caught in the very act of adultery was dragged to Jesus' feet by a bunch of wicked Pharisee hypocrites, He did not condemn her. John 3:17, "

For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.



" Jesus came into the world to save sinners, not condemn them (Luke 19:10). Satan on the other hand does nothing but accuse the brethren to condemn us before God our Father (Revelation 12:10). The Devil's days are numbered and he knows it (Revelation 12:12).

So, be encouraged Oh child of God, we serve a forgiving God who loves to pardon. You may be rotting in prison for the rest of your life because of your crimes, but in Heaven's legal system your record is spotless if your sins have been cleansed by the precious blood of the Lamb of God. Revelation 1:5, "And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood. "

God fully knows that we will fail regularly to live above sinning. It's impossible for any Christian to do, because we are still trapped in this troublesome fleshly body. Romans 7:18, " For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. "

The good Lord loves to forgive. Micah 7:18, "Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy." I cherish that Bible verse. A righteous person loves to forgive, just like our heavenly Father ;loves to forgive. Proverbs 19:11, " The discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression." All God expects of His redeemed children is that we keep trying with His strength through His indwelling Holy Spirit who guides, rebukes, comforts, leads, chastises, helps and convicts us as the Lord's dear saints.

A godly Christian, despite our many flaws and sins, KEEP TRYING to obey the Holy Bible, please God, win souls with the Gospel and do better today than we did in the past.

7.1.28 Deuteronomy 22:5 Still Applies In Modern Times (2026-01-29 12:52)

Deuteronomy 22:5,

“The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman’s garment: for all that do so are abomination unto the LORD thy God.”

If you honestly interpret the inspired Word of God, then you know it is a sin for women to wear pants, miniskirts and Spandex, because such shameful behavior reveals the shape of a female’s thighs and buttocks, tempting others to lust. …

> 1st Peter 2:11-12, “
>
> Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.”

The Holy Bible calls the lusts of the flesh a “war against the soul.

It is utterly irresponsible for any pastor and his wife to defend women and girls wearing pants, when we are at spiritual war in the world today against lust due to technology (printers, magazines, internet). Did you know that Playboy magazine no longer publishes smutty images? The hell-bound company said there is so much free smut on the internet, that they cannot make money anymore selling images of naked women. That is so terrible!

When I was growing up in the 1970’s as a boy, you couldn’t see a naked woman anywhere except in a woman’s clothing catalog (e.g., Sears Roebuck & Company, J.C. Penny), or in a smutty lewd magazine from a 7-11 type convenience store. When I was growing up we had Penthouse, Playboy, Star, Hustler, et cetera. I saw things I never should have seen as a boy, because of wicked adults who carelessly left such sinful immoral magazines laying around. Me and my curious friends found the dirty magazines and studied them. Oh sinner, don’t you dare try to convince me that it is acceptable to the LORD for His redeemed daughters to wear pants!!! If you wear pants, Spandex or shorts in public as a female, YOU ARE HELPING THE DEVIL destroy American society today. You have blood on your hands!

In April of 2025, I and my wife actually heard wicked Pastor Brad Moffett at the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, shamefully say that this Bible command in Deuteronomy 22:5 does not apply in the New Testament. Brad shamefully said Deuteronomy 22:5 does not apply to his pants-wearing wife. Kindly said, neither Brad (nor his arrogant verbally-abusive father Bobby Moffett) should be a pastor. They are ungodly incompetent clergy! They are wicked neo-evangelicals. Both of their ungodly wives wear their ungodly pants in their ungodly church, blaspheming the inspired Word of God. PAYDAY SOMEDAY!

Christian Women Commanded To Be Discreet And Chaste

Titus 2:5, “

T*o be discreet, chaste*, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

” Those two words

“discreet” and “chaste” shout modesty. The word

means: “Marked by prudence or modesty and wise self-restraint.” Shame on any professed Christian woman, especially pastor’s wives, who wear their ungodly immodest pants in public. It is wickedness! Just because ungodly American women everywhere today no longer fear God—no longer esteem, value or practice modesty—doesn’t mean that it is acceptable with God for a woman to wear men’s clothing.

To be

chaste

means:

“

being pure in thought and action, especially in relation to sexual conduct, and often refers to refraining from unlawful sexual intercourse. It can also imply modesty and simplicity in design or expression.

” NO PASTOR’S WIFE is obeying the inspired Word of God to be “c haste

who wears pants in public! She is blaspheming the Word of God, shaming the holy name of Jesus.

If you are hard-hearted so that you disagree with what I biblically say, go watch the shameful music video on YouTube by rapper Chingy (and especially listen carefully to his raunchy lyrics), and if you can still tell me that there’s nothing wrong with women wearing pants, then you’ve been inspired by demons! Get thee behind me, Satan!

“

Pastor Brad Moffett wickedly used the lame excuse that Jews were killed for eating lobster or lighting a fire on the Sabbath Day in the Old Testament, so in his wrong dismissive thinking it is okay for his rebellious wife to wear pants in public. IT IS WICKEDNESS!!! There is no debate or controversy if you are right with God and rightly interpret the inspired Holy Bible.

It didn’t surprise me that Pastor Brad also doesn’t think homosexuality should be a punishable crime today. He said in Romans chapter 1 that God gave the sodomites and lesbians over to their sins, to show grace, but the Lord didn't kill them. So, according to Brad homosexuals should be left alone to do their own thing. That is so foolish and reckless, mishandling the Word of Truth. God didn't kill murderers, kidnappers and rapists in the New Testament either, he entrusted the governmental powers to do uphold the law and morality in society. Romans 13:3b, " For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil.

I kindly rebuked Brad Moffett in his office for his woeful ignorance and arrogance as an incompetent neo-evangelical Baptist pastor. Who is Brad Moffett to sit in judgment of what is or is not a crime punishable by law? Brad agreed that murderers should be put to death. What about convicted pedophiles? How about kidnappers who sodomize and torture their poor victims? But when it comes to homosexuals, Brad thinks they should no be punished by the government. This is the type of insanity in our corrupt churches today.

Most people (sadly including pastors today) do not know the difference between moral laws versus ceremonial laws in the Old Testament. God's prohibition to eat lobster was a ceremonial law only for the Jews living in Palestine during the Old Testament. God's warning against women wearing men's clothing is a moral law applicable in every generation. Since the deadly sin of lust is always a temptation (1st Peter 2:11), it is ludicrous to teach that Deuteronomy 22:5 is not valid in these modern times. This Bible command from Deuteronomy 22:5 is absolutely applicable today in 2026!

We've got a bunch of dumb dumb pastors and pastor's wives today who follow Christ afar off, hobnobbing with the sinful world.

Then Pastor Brad tried to use the fact of Scottish men wearing kilts to justify his wicked wife wearing her wicked sexy pants. No Sir, you are a wicked man and a fool for a pastor! Your ungodly immodest wife and mother are not right with God. Get the behind me, Satan!

7.1.29 We Have Sinned (2026-01-30 08:58)

1st Timothy 5:24-25, “

Some men’s sins are open beforehand*, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

I love this Bible passage. I love it because it means that we are not alone when we sin. It means that when we do wrong and some hypocrite (or hypocrites) condemn us in their pride and self-righteousness, they are really condemning themselves according to Matthew 7:1-5. ...

> Matthew 7:1-5, "Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye."

So you see, according to the inspired Holy Bible, the person who condemns another sinner is the worst of the two in God's sight. "Boy, can you believe what so and so did?" Yeah, and you're right down in the hogpen of sin with him according to the Bible. Do you really think God is impressed with you because you sin less than your neighbour? Nom the Lord is not impressed with your own righteousness (Isaiah 64:6).

So, then what pleases God. Ah, I'm so glad that you asked. The only righteous thing that I could ever do is faith, no more. It is by faith in Jesus Christ that we are saved. Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." I didn't see any mention of repenting of your sins, becoming a Christ follower, inviting Jesus into your life or getting water baptized. Faith in the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ is sufficient to be saved. The "gospel" is Jesus' death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). Whosoever BELIEVES (relies upon, trusts) this GOOD NEWS is saved.

Also, many people misunderstand Jesus' command in Matthew 7:1 to "judge not," thinking that all judging is wrong. But did you know we are actually commanded in the Holy Bible to judge others? It's true! John 7:24, "Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment." Since we cannot peer into someone's soul to see their intentions, we are not capable of fairly judging them.

So, we must use God's wisdom to pray for the person. Jobs 16:21, "O that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleadeth for his neighbour!"

We are biblical commanded to separate from unruly brethren. 1st Corinthians 5:11, "But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat." Be careful who you choose as friends. The Bible commands us not to keep close association with other professed Christians who choose to live in defiance against God's Word, not even to eat a meal together.

Galatians 6:1, "Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted." We don't see this type of " meekness

(i.e., gentleness with humility) in today's ungodly neo-evangelical churches, like the pathetic Family Baptist Church, Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College and Smyrna Baptist Churches in Pensacola, from which all three corrupt religious groups I have been kicked out of since 2022. They are illegitimate groups because they all preach a perverted plan of salvation which includes turning away from your sinful bad habits as a prerequisite to getting saved, which is WORKS!

To me the message of 1st Timothy 5:24 is very clear, which is simply that there are only two types of redeemed sinners: 1) Sins are known publicly, 2) Sins are unknown publicly. But regardless of which group you fit into, your are still a dirty sinner. If you are saved, then you are no longer deemed a guilty sinner in God's eyes; the Lord only sees Christ's imputed righteousness on your heavenly record. The sins that we still commit as believers on a moment by moment daily basis is a matter of fellowship, sanctification and rewards, and has no affect upon God's promise of eternal life " to them that believe "

(1st Corinthians 1:21b).

I love King David's proper attitude toward sin in Psalms 106:6, "We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly." Pastor Jack Hyles once beautifully said in a sermon that the First Baptist Church of Hammond will become a great church when we stop saying "he has sinned" and "she has sinned" and we start saying "we have sinned." Amen preacher! Amen!

When we reach that level of spiritual maturity as a child of God, we stop looking down on other sinners who we perceive to be worse sinners than we are; and we start viewing ourselves as still being a wretched sinner. This is why the Apostle Paul exclaimed in Romans 7:24, "O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?" Paul didn't say, "O wretched man that I was." No, he said, "O wretched man that I am." A good man doesn't do the wicked things that he used to do, and he tends to look down his long Pharisaical nose upon those who still do; but the spiritual man realized that he is still a wicked sinner, so that he humbly says, "There but for the grace of God go I."

Pastor Jack Hyles preached an entire precious MP3 sermon about this truth titled: "[1]The Good Man Versus The Spiritual Man." Which are you dear reader? I want to be the spiritual man who loves and prays for other sinners who seem to be worse than I am, rather than condemn them because I foolishly think I am more self-righteous than they. I have said this truth often, that the ONLY thing which makes me any less sinful or more righteous than the vilest sinner upon earth is the precious blood of Jesus Christ that washed away all my sins in 1979 when I trusted Jesus as my personal Savior as a 12 year old boy (1st Peter 1:18-23).

Like other honest saints of God, I am a recovering Pharisee. I used to have a haughty spirit in my youth that I wasn't as sinful as other people, but in time I came to realize decades later that I am actually the worst sinner than I know. I say that because I know myself better than anyone else. And if you are right with God dear reader, then you also view yourself as being THE WORST CHRISTIAN.

I humbly believe this is why when the fearful woman who was caught "in the very act" of adultery was dragged to Jesus' feet by her accusers, and Jesus simply stopped down to write something in the dirt, the Bible says that the oldest accusers left first, then the younger. You see, as you grow older dear sinner you start realizing how horrible, sinful and hypocritical you truly are. I have never been as aware of how sinful I am, as I am today at age 58.

Lord willing, on March 5th, 2026, I will turn 59 years old. It is difficult for me to grasp how quickly the years have passed. I was born in 1967. My wife Alice is 64 and I thank God for her. We are just two sinners struggling day by day to live for Christ in this miserable world of sin, hatred and corruption. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

I keep my sanity by learning and playing the 5-string banjo, which is [2]my passion in recent years. I also love the pedal steel guitar, lap steel, older country music and [3]Hawaiian steel guitar music. I mostly use the C6th with added 7th tuning (C, Bb, C, E, G, A, C, E) to play Hawaiian music, hence the name of my music website, '[4]SteelC6th.'

Everybody needs a traditional hobby to keep their mind focused on something good. Philippians 4:8, "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." Whether it be gardening, painting, astronomy, sewing, cooking, sports, chemistry, wood working, making musical instruments or Bible study, I encourage everyone to have a few hobbies. This is biblically right and good in the Lord's sight.

I think Philippians 4:8 is so important for every saint of God. I receive innumerable emails each year from discouraged saints of God, who think on the wrong things and it hurts them. As I often do, when I see countless panhandlers bumming in public for handouts, I cannot help but wonder how their minds ever became so broken. Nobody just ends up on the street homeless, there was s slow process of wicked thinking.

There are ways for homeless individuals to find stability, such as access to affordable housing, supportive services, and programs aimed at reintegrating them into society. Solutions often involve collaboration between government agencies, nonprofits, churches and community organizations to provide necessary resources and support.

The big problem is that their minds are so broken [5]they reject available help ([6]part 2), opting to remain homeless and continue with their substance abuse addiction. I wish President Trump would implement a nationwide community program to end homelessness in the United States. I think he is doing the right thing to deport as many illegal immigrants as possible, who have stolen millions of U.S. jobs. I disagree.

Dear reader, I wrote this blog with the sincere prayer and hope that you would leave here with a new attitude, if you didn't have one already. It is my hope that from now on you won't look down on convicted criminals and the worst of sinners with self-righteous disdain; but rather, with the humbly biblical attitude that if it weren't for the grace of God, that could be you.

> Luke 18:10-14, "Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess. And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted."

We have sinned! Get that into your brain dear friend, "WE HAVE SINNED!" Not you, not her, not him, but "we." By doing so you will develop a new found compassion for all sinners.

> "You can't love anybody, until you love everybody!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[7]The Test Of Spiritual Maturity"

1st Timothy 5:24-25, "

Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

Likewise also the good works of some* are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

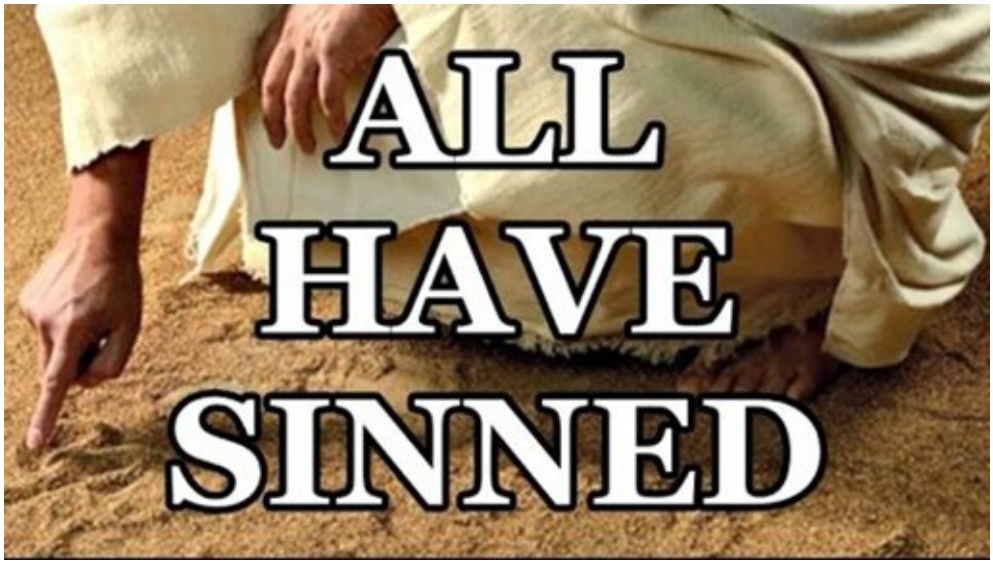
” I cherish verse 25 about doing good works. Just like our sins, our good works aren’t always known publicly.



The public doesn’t see the 50,000 hours plus that I’ve invested since 2002 into my website and blog ministry, literally labouring day and night for Jesus Christ (Mark 9:41). A full reward is awaiting me in Heaven because our “ works do follow

” us as saints (Revelation 13:14; 1st Corinthians 3:7-8; Matthew 6:19-21; John 9:4). Hebrews 6:10, “

For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

7.1.30 Today’s Professed Christians Have Become The World’s Missionaries To The Church (2026-01-31 09:32)

1st John 2:15-17, “Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.”

9078

I cherish this passage of Scripture as I grow older. Lord willing, I will turn 59 years old on March 5th, 2026. I heard famous actor Dick Van Dyke (born December 13, 1925) say in an interview not too long ago that at his old age, he has sadly watched all his friends and family pass away. It is a lonely feeling to be the lone survivor. [1]Dick Van Dyke said: “

Every one of my lifelong friends is gone.

” The beloved actor just turned 100 years old on December 13th, 2025. And thankfully to report, [2]Dick Van Dyke is a Christian. He is also a Presbyterian, as were Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988) and the famous Prohibition Era evangelist, Billy Sunday (1862-1935).

I am often reminded of this passage of Scripture when I consider the wicked who are now old, some of whom have already passed into eternity. David Lee Roth comes to mind, one of the most vile entertainers who ever lived. Roth (born 1954) is now 71 years old. Sadly, he is nothing more than a dirty-minded old man, who can shamefully look back over his trainwreck of a life, as the former lead singer of the Satanic rock band Van Halen.

Tragically, guitarist Eddie Van Halen split Hell wide open on October 6th, 2020, when he died after decades of suffering from cancer, which had spread throughout his body to his lungs, throat, tongue and brain. Eddie also suffered from Diverticulitis (bowel disease). My heart goes out to the guy. Sadly, although Van Halen today is viewed as an American novelty, when I was an impressionable teenager in the 1980’s I distinctly remember the powerful Satanic spirit that permeated the band’s presence and music. It was surreal, which anyone who grew up in that era fully knows. The god of [3]rock, pop and country music is sex!

Our remaining innocence at that time in the United States between the 1960s to the 1990s was being systematically stripped away by a plethora of demonic rock bands, immoral television shows and subversive organizations like the ACLU, NOW and NAMBLA. Today we are experiencing the dire consequences of these evil influences and bands like Van Halen, with sexual immorality existing everywhere. Marital infidelity and fornication is everywhere. Divorce is shamefully common place today across America. Although divorce rates in southern California for divorce have reached over 70 % in some areas, the [4]average nationwide is 41 %

. This is a symptom of our ungodly perverse culture that no longer fears God. Divorce is always a sin and biblically forbidden. Proverbs 13:10 warns that only by pride cometh contention.

The World’s Missionaries To The Church

I own five cherished copies of ’[5]The Strand Study Bible.’ They are no longer in print, so if you want one I highly suggest that you buy one before used prices skyrocket to $750 to obtain one. Here is Pastor Brad Strand’s commentary for 1st John 2:15...

> Sadly, here in America, there are a lot of Christians who have assumed a kind of reverse mission. Instead of being the church’s missionaries to the world, they have become the world’s missionaries to the church. They follow a social gospel instead of a scriptural Gospel and devote their moral energies to trying to make the church more democratic, to assure equal rights for women, to legitimize homosexual marriage, and so on. We are told to love the world’s people in order to win them to Christ (Jn 3:16), not love the world’s philosophies.

I couldn't agree more with Brother Strand. I and my wife recently experienced a shameful encounter with a local Baptist pastor in April of 2025. His name is Brad Moffett at the Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. He had invited us to meet with him for a pleasant conversation, but then did a Bait & Switch on us, deciding instead of harshly censure my fundamentalist website ministry, with which he largely disagrees. It was a horrible thing that Pastor Brad (age 37) did, a cheap shot to say the least. His father is ten times worse, a potty-mouthed angry man who wickedly holds grudges and kicks people out of church on a whim, as they cruelly did to us in June of 2025. God will punish them for their arrogance and most of all, rejecting THE TRUTH that Bible repentance to get to heaven does NOT mean to turn from your sinning. God's curse is upon this cult that masquerades as a church (Galatians 1:6-9). When men run a local church by their own corrupt standards instead of by the inspired incorruptible Word of God, it has become a manmade cult. Family Baptist Church in Pensacola is a cult!

The thing that resulted in I and Alice being kicked out of Family Baptist Church in 2025 was that the church's authoritarian hypocritical leaders (not myself) decided to make an issue over my fundamentalist Bible preaching on social media against women wearing pants, because the ungodly pastor's ungodly wife wears her ungodly pants (Jude 1:4-6). It was [6]this article in particular that I wrote back in 2019 that put a burr in their saddle. Not only does that carnal pastor's carnal wife wears her worldly pants, but so also does his carnal worldly mother. I speak this to their utter shame!

You know, I was reading from Acts chapter 28 this week, which is an amazing passage of Scripture. At the beginning of the chapter (verses 1-6) we find the Apostle Paul shipwrecked on the island of Melita. The local barbarous (meaning primitive) people befriended Paul and his companies because it was cold and raining. They build a warm fire for the men. Suddenly a poisonous snake bit Pau's hand. But when the primitive ignorant islanders saw this, they falsely accused Paul of being a murderer who was being punished by nature. A few moments late when they saw that Paul didn't get sick or die, they said he was a god.

This passage of Scripture is reminiscent of many people in the world, still today. The idiotic fools in this passage of Scripture irritate me. When I and Alice heard Pastor Brad Moffett challenging me to show him from the inspired Holy Bible where God forbids women to wear pants, he was just as foolish and ignorant as those barbarous islanders. The big difference is that Brad Moffett knows better, but he is in denial. The naïve people of Melita had an excuse, they were barbarians. But in the United States of America, with all our wealth of knowledge and access to study resources, NO ONE has any legitimate excuse not to do what is right.

The writer of the Proverbs warns about "the attire of an harlot" (Proverbs 7:10b).

Women began wearing pants in Western society during the mid-19th century, primarily due to the dress reform movement. However, it wasn't until the mid-20th century that pants became widely accepted as everyday clothing for women. The concept of women wearing "immoral" pants is tied to societal norms and values that have changed over time. Historically, women began wearing trousers in the 19th century as part of the dress reform movement, but it was often viewed as scandalous or inappropriate until the 20th century when pants became more accepted in women's fashion.

Dear reader, the sinful world has changed for the worse, but God's high standards of morality have not changed. If it was wrong for a woman to wear pants 300 years ago, then it is still, wrong today! I contend that pants on a woman is the attire of an harlot! I've noticed that the number of readers for my ministry blog have been steadily decreasing since I've been preaching hard biblically against women wearing pants in public. SO BE IT! If the truth offends you, it is only because you are living in disobedience to our holy Creator! But kindly said, while you are here I am going to tell you THE TRUTH, like it or lump it. That is my faithful duty as a fundamentalist Bible preacher. My aim is to please God, not increase the number of readers.

Only a wilfully blind fool would dare to justify Christian women wearing pants, in plain view of such Scripture passages as 1st Timothy 2:9-10, "In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works." And

Titus 2:5,

To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

" Every Christian woman who wears pants (which is irrefutably men's clothing) KNOWS deep in her heart of hearts that she is sinning, by defying a holy God who created man in His own likeness. She is sinfully tempting men to lust.

I and Alice were shocked in April of 2025, when Pastor Brad Moffett said in his office that it shouldn't matter if his wife wears pants, because a man who walks in the Spirit will not fulfill the lusts of the flesh.

Galatians 5:16, "

This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

" Well, if his rebellious wife would start waling in the Holy Spirit, she'd stop wearing her provocative sexy pants in public! To wickedly lay the blame upon men for a carnal woman who dresses worldly to tempt them is as wicked as the Devil. What a shameful disgrace for a Baptist pastor. Clearly, Brad is henpecked.

Pastor Strand nailed it in his 'The Strand Study Bible,' professed Christians today have become the world's missionaries to the church. Women wicked pastors and their ungodly wives encourage girls and women to wear pants and shorts, they are bringing the world into God's House!

I and Alice heard Pastor Brad Moffett's immature wife shamefully compliment a young teen girl on her "nice shorts" at the church's annual picnic at the Lillian Recreational Park in Alabama in May of 2025. It was the church's annual Memorial Day picnic. It was our first time attending. The pastor's wicked wife walked over 50 feet to our picnic table while we were eating, to make sure we heard her brag on the young girl's "nice shorts" in front of our faces, clearly to taunt me as a fundamentalist Bible preacher. It was eating the pastor's wife at the core of her conscience that my wife was wearing a full-length dress, putting the pastor's immodestly clothed wife to utter shame in her ungodly pants. I didn't pick this fight, they did!

It was quite obvious what compelled the pastor's wife to do what she did, because Alice came to the picnic in a feminine modest full-length dress, which without saying a single word made the wicked pastor's wife feel like an immoral woman because she was wearing her worldly snug pants. We did not take her SHAME upon us! We left the picnic. It couldn't have been more obvious that we were not welcomed, all because we are separated fundamentalist believers and they are neo-evangelical unseparated hypocrites. From day one in 2021 they held a sinful grudge against me because of [7]my fundamentalist ministry.

And I'll say it again, lest anyone wrongly accuse me of judging others, it was THE PASTOR AND HIS WIFE WHO MADE AN ISSUE of my Bible preaching, not me. I am simply taking a biblical stand to finish what THEY STARTED. Psalms 94:16, "Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?" I couldn't care less if the pastor's wife and mother wear pants, which is why in the 45 months that I attended the Family Baptist Church I never spoke a single word against them.

You see dear reader, that is the power of THE TRUTH. If you are a godly Christian lady and you wear a long dress everywhere you go, worldly hussies who wear their shameful pants WILL persecute, mock and be mean to you. So says the inspired Holy Scripture in 2nd Timothy 3:12, "Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution." That is why they ruthlessly kicked me and Alice of of their religious social club, because they know WE ARE RIGHT! That is why neither of the pastor' wives ever welcomed my wife into the church. They horribly avoided her. If you simply carry a Holy Bible and live godly in Christ Jesus, the world will give you up! And sadly, so also will today's army of ungodly neo-evangelical Laodicean churches give you up. I speak this to their utter shame!

The pastor's wife's pride overwhelmed her at the church picnic. She literally got caught with HER PANTS ON! She didn't think that we'd actually show up at their picnic in another state, but we did. SHAME on Brad Moffett and his immodest wife. SHAME on Bobby Moffett and his immodest wife. They are the world's missionaries to the church! No wonder people don't want to attend churches anymore, they all suck!

They kicked us out of their church because it is not the LORD's church. That is clear.

And you listen to me, SHAME ON YOU too dear reader if you defend women wearing pants, when our U.S. prisons are FULL of men who have lost the lustful war against their soul. All because of some two bit whore who caused them to give into temptation to lust (Matthew 5:28). Since lust is a sin, women wearing pants is a sin!!! You are a darn fool if you disagree.

> 1st Peter 2:11-12, "
>
> Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;
>
> Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

For a shameful pastor to say what Brad Moffett said to I and Alice (that his wife can wear pants because men shouldn't lust upon her) is to side with the enemy of the flesh. It is no different than when Hollywood actor Jane Fonda (aka, "Hanoi Jane") shamefully went to North Vietnam in 1972 to protest with the communists against our U.S. troops who were being killed in the war. The U.S. Department of Justice should have revoked her U.S. citizenship immediately and let her live in North Korea. Shame on Jane Fonda and Brad Moffett for siding with the enemy! Of the Christian's three enemies: Satan, the world and the flesh, the flesh is the most deadly because it is with us continually.

As of 2021, there were approximately [8]127,282 men incarcerated in U.S. state prisons for sex offenses involving children. This number reflects only those convicted of sex crimes against minors and does not include all sex crime offenders. That's just underaged sex convictions! There are MILLIONS of American men arrested each year because of some whorish woman who provoked them with immodest clothing, "the attire of an harlot" (Proverbs 7:10b). If you laugh, mock, joke and make light of this importance matter of MODESTY, then woe be unto you in eternity when you answer to a holy God who sacrificed His only begotten Son to pay for OUR SINS (Romans 14:10-12). PAYDAY SOMEDAY!!!

Christian women who wears pants are not glorifying God, they are blaspheming the inspired Word of God and glorifying the flesh. From the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam, I saw Pastor Sean Quinlan's admirable wife walking through the Micronesia Mall one day several years ago. She was wearing a beautiful full-length maroon dress and gave me a very feminine curtsy, which made a big impression upon me, that she is a godly woman. I saw multiple men, neighbours, greet her with admiration and respect. If that had been Brad Moffett's wife in pants, NOT ONE MAN would have acknowledged her as a lady. You know dear reader that I am telling THE TRUTH. Proverbs 12:17, " He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.

I humbly don't claim to be a good Christian, but you won't find a more sincere preacher who works night and day to reach lost people for Christ, and to feed the dear Savior's sheep. Thank you for reading my ministry blog. To God alone be the praise and glory. Jesus is precious!!!

7.2 February

7.2.1 We Have A Good God Who Delights In Mercy (2026-02-01 11:35)

Micah 7:18, "Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy."

It is now 4:16 am on Thursday, January 15, 2026. I woke up at 3:58 am and couldn't sleep. I have been getting to bed early at 9 to 10 pm, which is the best way to get a good night's sleep. Pastor Lester Roloff (1914-1982) used to wisely say: "One hour of sleep before midnight is worth two hours after midnight." So true!

I feel refreshed.

By God's grace, I woke up today thinking about one of my favorite Scripture passages from Micah 7:18, "Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy." I am so thankful that the living God of the universe and beyond is a good, loving, moral, ethical and forgiving God.

The Dangers Of Refusing To Forgive Others

The inspired Holy Bible repeatedly warns about the dangers of not forgiving others. James 2:13, "

For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

" The good LORD hates when anyone refuses to forgive someone. The inspired Word of God is full of passages about the need to forgive others. ...

> Matthew 18:21-22, "Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times?
>
> Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven.

In other words, unlimited forgiveness. But does God expect us to forgive people who have never sought for our forgiveness? Yes, absolutely! I love what Pastor Jack Hyles said in a sermon titled ’ [1]Forgiveness ’:

“I decided years ago to forgive everybody before it is asked.” Yes Sir, I love that way of thinking and I did the same thing.

But do you have to like the person or go to them to reconcile when you forgive them? No, because you are the victim, the offended party. In many cases the perpetrator of the wrong will not apologize, reconcile or bother to even attempt to make thing right.

Since we are all guilty sinners (Romans 3:10-23), we have no right to condemn anyone. You and I (and everybody else) have been hurt and wronged by other sinners throughout life. We ought not condemn them, but rather to place their offenses into the Lord’s hands for judgment in eternity. This is forgiveness. Remember, forgiveness is not for the person who did you wrong, it is for you, so that you can move on with the peace in your soul of knowing that God will duly deal with that wicked person. God will make all things right!

> Matthew 7:1-5, “Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother’s eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother’s eye.”

I am the biggest sinner I know, and so are you if you’re honest with yourself and God. I am the biggest sinner I know simply because I live with myself and know who I am. Who would better know our shortcomings, sins and weaknesses than we, other than God who created us?

The greater sinner is not the one who has done wrong, but the one who condemns another sinner. I am about to share a painful personal story with you, about a wicked pastor years ago who deeply hurt my family. I love the pastor with Christ’s love and have prayed for him from time to time, but he is full of hatred and just plain unreasonable and mean. Our prayer is that God won’t give him any rest until he make things right with his brother and sister in Christ whom he devastated 21 years ago. Sadly, he couldn’t care less about his injurious behavior.

The Wicked Baptist Pastor In Chicago

For example: There is a wicked pastor on Chicago’s northside who stole $10,000 from my family in 2004. That wicked man has never apologized or even tried to make reconciliation for his crimes against me and my family. I won’t mention his name. I have never retaliated against that ungodly pastor with my website ministry. I have never mentioned his disgusting name or his wife. We gave the pastor and his wife a vehicle (a used Dodge van with an extended body) that cost us $4,800 in exchange for watching our three cats and one dog for 6 months when we moved from Chicago to Guam. We had just bought the van several months earlier because some wicked thieves (two black punks) stole our family’s car.

Due to quarantine laws our pets had to wait several months before being shipped to Guam.

The Baptist pastor in his living room had told me that he and his wife were planning to watch our pets for nothing (no money), but we are ethical and insisted to give them our family van. We also gave them about $1,000 in tools and household items that we didn’t have room in the 20-foot storage container to take with us. They told us that the wife had grown up on a farm and was great with animals, so we felt at easy hearing that. Months later, they said that our dog (a small Shiatzu) bit their young child. The pastor claims that he gave away our dog away to a stranger on the street, but we think he killed her in anger. The pastor has a vicious hot temper, snapping at his wife continually. She coughed during his preaching and he rudely asked her if he could continue. What a monster!

The brutish (lacking good sense) pastor gave our family's three cats away to Animal Cruelty, which cost us another $3,500 to retrieve. The ungodly pastor had promised to destroy our license plates when we gave him the van, but he lied to us and didn't even remove the plates. Consequently, we had to pay two Chicago traffic citations for hundreds of dollars because the irresponsible pastor left the van blocking traffic. Woe unto that wicked pastor on Judgment Day when he answers to God! Woe unto that monster!

The wicked pastor, who had promised that he would watch out pets for nothing,

then wickedly accused us of cheating him. He sent a thug letter from his thug lawyer, accusing us of giving him a van that only had a Blue Book value of $1,200. That van cost us $4,800 on our credit card, which money we still owed when we moved to Guam in 2004. That pastor is a lying fraudster, a religious punk and a dishonest person, for which sins he will be punished. What saith the Scripture? 1st Thessalonians 4:6-7,

"That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified. For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness." This inspired Scripture passage is dear to me and my wife, fully trusting that God will punish that wicked thief, liar and dishonest pastor and his wife in Chicago.

Romans 12:19, "Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord." I love that, vengeance is the LORD's! It is God's job to bring evildoers to justice, because we cannot.

I love God's promise to avenge all evil in Ecclesiastes 5:8, "If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they." As Americans, we have all seen blatant corruption in government (look at the massive fraud going on in California, Minnesota, New York and Ohio today), evildoers go Scott Free (none of the 9/11 perpetrators in the George W. Bush White House were even arrested), and violent perverting of justice (legalized abortion is first-degree premediated murder). Our great God promises to avenge all wrong doing, corruption and evil, even cruel spoken words intended to hurt the feelings of others (Matthew 12:26).

Now, I and my wife do not hate that wicked pastor and his wife in Chicago. They have dug their own graves, especially the belligerent proud husband. I sincerely believe that God will chastise that pastor in ways we simply cannot fathom. My wife said that she hopes God will force that pastor to suffer for the decades that he has caused us to suffer, because he refuses to apologize or make reconciliation. He owes us $10,000 plus damages for all our grief, financial losses and emotional pain. God sees everything (Hebrews 4:13).

If we had our way in the matter, that brutish pastor and his complicit wife would spend 20 years in prison (and not a day less), never eat their favorite food, drink nothing but water, rot in a 6’ by 10’ cell, and be required to reimburse us with considerable punitive damages. For the past 21 years we have had no choice but to cry out to God to be avenged of that ungodly “Christian” couple’s crimes. This is our prayer to God because of the pastor’s hardened wicked heart that refuses to repent. Proverbs 28:13, “

He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

” The lukewarm church in Laodicea thought they were prospering, but the LORD Himself in Revelation 3:17 called them naked, blind, miserable, poor and wretched. So also is that ungodly pastor and his wife in Chicago.

There is a certain minister that is much hated in America. He has been accused of raping a woman 40 years ago, but has never been held accountable for his wickedness and crimes. That Christian man has moved on, claiming God’s forgiveness, while the alleged victim is angry and won’t stop bringing up the matter publicly. She has sued him and the church she attended at the time of the alleged rape. Since so much time has passed, due to Statute of Limitation laws, there is nothing she can do. If it were Chicago, she could have him prosecuted due to there changed laws several years ago.

Now, is she wrong to refuse to let the rape go? Is she sinning by continually causing anger, tension and ill feelings everywhere she goes? I humbly think not. What else can she do? She is living in an emotional hell, suffering as a victim in pain. Yes, she could just place the matter into God’s hands and try to forget about it for now, but that is something very few victims can do, if any ever have. To be honest, I am hardly ever reminded of what that wicked pastor in Chicago did to my family. But the pain is still there. The injustice is still there, like a painful wound covered over with an ugly scab, because he and his wife have never been held accountable for the evil things they maliciously did to us in carnal hatred.

So, there is a very big difference between crying out for justice as a hurting victim, versus condemning someone who has sinned. The former person has every right to be angry (e.g., the widow who wanted to be avenged by the judge in Luke 18:1-8) and call for justice, but the latter person does not (e.g., when the wicked men dragged a woman caught in the act of adultery to Jesus, but didn’t bring the man).

Luke 18:9, “ And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others. ”

God knows my heart, that I don’t hate anyone. I could easily mention well over one hundred horrible offenses that wicked sinners have done to deeply hurt me and my family throughout my lifetime. Someone has said that life is all about people hurting people. Sadly, there is much truth to that claim. It is in our sinful nature to be selfish, self-centered, self-willed and not to care about others. By nature humans do not fear God (Romans 3:18).

I and my wife have found comfort and peace by resting in God’s promise to avenge us of those who have hurt us (Romans 12:19). I assure you dear reader with all biblical authority that NO ONE ever gets away with anything (Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; Matthew 12:36; Proverbs 24:12; Hebrews 4:13; 1st Thessalonians 4:6’ Galatians 6:7; James 2:13).

Just as the faithful Lord delighteth in mercy, so do I. I decided to forgive that selfish pastor in Chicago a long time ago. I do not feel hatred toward him or his wife. I actually feel sorry for them, that they have carried this heavy burden for 21 years, if they are saved and have the Holy Spirit dwelling them. If you can sin and hurt others without any conviction from God’s

Holy Spirit, then you are not saved (Hebrews 12:6-8). Micah 7:18, "Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy."

I love mercy and forgiveness, but I also love justice and righteousness. Just because you choose to forgive someone doesn't in any way let them off the hook or excuse them from the consequences of their wickedness. I have seen prison wardens cry with tears of love and concern as they flipped the power switch for the Electric Chair to kill a convicted criminal. I have seen judges in a small town weep as they sentenced a lifelong neighbour to life in prison for their crimes. So, just because you forgive someone who has wronged you; someone who is full of sinful pride and has never attempted to make things right with you; that doesn't in any way excuse, dismiss or exonerate them from being held accountable by God in eternity. Hebrews 9:27,

"And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment. "

Dear reader, I hope you see the difference between judging righteous judgment as versus wrongly condemning other sinners. If you don't have a dog in the fight, leave it alone.

The World's Bible Only Has Two Words: "Judge Not"

There is probably not a more misunderstood, confusing and abused doctrine in the Holy Bible than that of judging others.

John 7:24, " Judge not according to the appearance, but*judge righteous judgment*." Biblically we are commanded to JUDGE others as saints, but with righteous judgment, not with the flesh (merely going by what we see). 1st Samuel 16:7 teaches that man looks on the outward appearance, but God looks upon the heart. Thus, as God's children we ought to judge people through a filter of God's inspired Word, and not merely with our fleshly human opinion.

Also, Bible preachers are commanded to expose sin. 1st Timothy 5:20, "

Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

" The heathen world would quickly accuse such a fundamentalist Bible preacher of being judgmental,

calling him a

legalist.

" But the truth is that such a preacher would be faithfully doing his duty as a man of God. Isaiah 58:1, "

Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

" Amen and amen! I fully agree with Pastor Lester Roloff, who said that the great need of this hour is PREACHING PREACHERS!

I am sick and tired of hearing corrupt neo-evangelicals attribute the open sinfulness and carnality in today's dead churches to

[2]Easy Believism

(which they claim is a false gospel that encourages people to continue living in sin). Dear reader, the problem is not with the Gospel, it is with today's irresponsible cowardly pastors who refuse to cry aloud without compromise or apology against the sin and wickedness of our generation.

Those wicked pastors don't want to suffer reproach for Christ. They don't want to be out outside the gate with Jesus. That is why Pensacola Christian College (PCC) refuses to contend for the Christian faith (Jude 1:3). They are content to take in $175,000,000 each year, but upholding the truth doesn't matter to them. At PCC, the cult system always comes first, but individual people do not matter. I learned that firsthand in 2021-2022 at their pathetic prejudiced, carnal, theologically corrupt and grudge-holding Campus Church.

In June of 2024, popular Canadian singer [3]Justin Timberlake was arrested for a DWI (Driving While Intoxicated). The next day at the same hotel restaurant singer Billy Joel was asked for his opinion about the matter. Billy Joel responded to Justin Timberlake's DWI arrest by saying, "Judge not lest ye be judged"

(Matthew 7:1), emphasizing that people should not rush to judgment without knowing the full story. Interestingly, [4]Billy Joel is a devout atheist. I find it utterly humorous and alarmingly hypocritical that a hard core atheist would cite God's Word.

I could write many more things, but my heart's intent is to encourage you dear reader to forgive others who have wronged you. It matters not if they have sought for your forgiveness, forgive them anyway, by placing them into God's omnipotent hands for judgment. You have God's promise of justice (Romans 12:19-21). I have been deeply hurt and mistreated by more people (including several pastors) than I can possibly remember (nor do I try to remember).

Just Forgive Everybody Before They Ask

I could spend days sharing lengthy stories with you concerning the wicked things that rotten sinners (both Christian and unsaved alike) have done to hurt me over the 58 years of my life on earth. Lord willing, by His wondrous grace and love, I'll turn 59 years old on March 5th, 2026. We live in a wicked fallen world of sin dear friend (Romans 5:12; 1st John 5:19). I'll leave you with Jesus' pertinent words from John 16:33,

These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

Proverbs 19:11,

The discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

” I would love for nothing more than to express my heartfelt forgiveness to all of the horrible people who’ve hurt me in my lifetime, but they don’t care. The co-workers who stole my work uniforms (which I had to pay for) must answer to God someday. The punk who walked up on my front porch a couple years ago and stole my package from Amazon, must be held accountable by God in eternity. So also will the punks who went into my car in 2023 and stole my Bible, radio, cables and other items be held accountable by God. They also stole my new $75 propane tank for my barbeque, which I have since chained up. Brats!

But I feel nothing but God’s love for those who’ve hurt me, because they (not me) are the evildoers who must give account to God. I can live with that, knowing that I did the right thing. I admit that I have plenty enough to answer for someday to God, and I am not proud of some of the things I’ve said and done in my life. I thank God for saving a hell-deserving wretched sinner like me when I was 12 years ago in 1979, who am so unworthy of God’s great love and forgiveness.

Micah 7:18, "Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy."

7.2.2 The Bible Preacher Is Not For Sale (2026-02-02 03:41)

1st Timothy 6:7-12, “

For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

And having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows*.

But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

There’s a wicked film producer in California named [1]Paul Wittenberger. To cut to the chase, Paul hates Pastor Steven Anderson and wants to destroy him, which is wicked. After reading [2]Paul’s website it is clear to me why he hates Brother Anderson—in a word—money!

Paul Wittenberger writes...

> “Infowars’ promotion brought these critical topics to a wider audience and played a key role in their financial and viral success.” SOURCE: [3]https://framingtheworld.com/full-statement

[4]

It couldn’t be more clear to me that all Paul Wittenberger cares about is making money...

> Anderson vs. Infowars
>
> Around 2015, Infowars abruptly removed all of my films from their store—every title, all at once and without any explanation. The timing was impossible to ignore. Steven had released a YouTube video "exposing" Alex Jones just days earlier. I never understood why he would do that, especially knowing that Infowars was my largest distributor and a critical source of income for me. My entire catalog vanished from their website almost immediately after his video went live. The financial impact was immediate and severe, cutting off what had been my primary source of revenue.
>
> During that time, I couldn’t help but question the motive behind it all. Why did Steven decide to go after Alex at that moment? He framed it as a matter of principle, as if speaking out was an obligation. But was it really? Looking back, the pattern became undeniable: my financial stability was increasingly tied to a single source—Steven’s audience and influence*. Any attempt to build something independent of that sphere seemed to quietly slip away. SOURCE: [5]https://framingtheworld.com/full-statement

Paul Wittenberger just told on himself. He can deny the truth all he wants, but the sad fact is that Paul is pissed off over losing his cash cow. THE BIBLE PREACHER IS NOT FOR SALE!!!

I will go to seed in this important matter of not compromising one’s principles and preaching of the truth for money. The inspired Holy Bible warns in our text passage of Scripture that THE LOVE OF MONEY if the root of all evil.

Proverbs 15:27, “ He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house; but he that hateth gifts shall live.” I am not making accusations, Paul Wittenberger plainly admits on his website (as I just showed you) that Pastor Steven Anderson has cost him a critical source of income

” and his “financial stability”

by upsetting Alex Jones. I learned a long time ago that to find the crux of a matter, you need to FOLLOW THE MONEY!

Kindly said, Paul is 100 % wrong and unethical to blame Pastor Anderson, when he knows that Brother Anderson is a fiery, in your face, uncompromising, tough love, Bible preacher. And for that I love the guy! The great need of the hour is preaching preachers!!!

Sadly, Mr. Wittenberger is so perturbed that he has decided to attack Pastor Anderson and his family, by making an ungodly movie to wickedly slander this godly pastor and his wife. What saith the Scripture? Matthew 25:40,

“And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.” Paul Wittenberger is attacking Jesus! It is obvious to me that this conflict is over money. I hate money!

>
> There’s just something about money that once you have it, it has you.
>
> —[6]Pastor Danny Castle

That is why by God’s grace, since I began my website ministry in April of 2002, I have never asked for nor taken a single penny from anyone. I didn’t want to be tempted to compromise my Bible preaching for the sake of donations. I also want everybody to know where my heart is at, in sincerely helping others for Christ, and not for my own personal gain.

I work hard day and night for the Lord Jesus Christ and my reward is in Heaven. I heard Pastor Jack Hyles say in a sermon that businessmen all across America are destroying churches. Do you know why? It is because, like Paul Wittenberger, businessmen prioritize making money over upholding righteousness and preaching the truth. The Bible preacher isn’t interested in money!

THE BIBLE PREACHER IS NOT FOR SALE!!!

Paul denies that he is attacking Brother Anderson over personal gain, but his walk speaks louder than his talk does. Of course this is about loss of personal gain. And sadly, to add insult to injury, Wittenberger is selling his new ungodly trashy movie that slanders Pastor Anderson and his family. Woe be unto Paul Wittenberger when he answers to God in eternity (Matthew 7:1-5; 1st Thessalonians 4:6).

James 2:13, “ For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.”

We are living in an untoward generation of spoiled namby-pamby brats in the United States! In a wicked attempt to destroy his neighbour, Paul Wittenberger is releasing his new potty movie on February 27th, 2026. Proverbs 11:9, “

An hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered.

Here is what Paul posted on [7]his Facebook page on January 30th...

> A lot of you have been asking: “When is Man of God finally coming out?” I’m happy to say we finally have an official release date.
>
> Man of God — Episode 1: The Cord premieres Friday, February 27, 2026 on Framing the World’s VHX site as a pay-per-view digital release. On Feb 27, you’ll be able to watch it immediately on VHX.
>
> At the same time, we’ll be submitting it to YouTube Movies with the goal of getting it approved and available free on YouTube as soon as possible (like A City Lost). That process usually takes 1–2 months.
> If you’ve already donated, you’ll receive a digital link to the film. Thank you for making this possible. ...

So, it’s not evil enough for Paul Wittenberger to tear down his Christian Brother, but on top of that he is making money off the sale of his despicable video. SHAME on you Paul! Where are Paul’s videos exposing the wicked sinners in American society today? No, he’s going after the righteous Bible preacher, attacking his personal character, ministry and family. That is pure Satanism! Revelation 12:10, “And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.” The very word “

means

the accuser.

” You’re never more like the Devil than when you criticize, find fault, gossip, slander and attack others.

I am a friend to Brother Anderson, his family and ministry. God gives us preachers to teach us. Jeremiah 3:15, “And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.”

Ecclesiastes 12:9,

“

And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

” In our ungodly American culture, godly Bible preachers who walk and preach THE TRUTH are despised and mocked.

Alex Jones pulls on the same rope as the Devil. [8]He is not a born again Christian. Infowars promotes homosexuality, heavy metal rock music, nutcases like David Icke, anarchy, et cetera. I thank God for a fella like Pastor Steven Anderson who is concerned about taking a biblical stand for righteousness and truth, rather than dip his sails and refrain from preaching against Alex Jones just so Paul Wittenberger can make a lot of money. To Hell with Paul Wittenberger! The truth must prevail. Proverbs 12:17,

“He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.” The love of money has no place in God’s Kingdom.

I think it is pathetic and evil that Paul Wittenberger is slandering and tearing down Pastor Steven Anderson in revenge for costing him his cash cow.

THE BIBLE PREACHER IS NOT FOR SALE!!! No one has or ever will tell me what to preach or not preach. I don’t ask for donations, nor will I ever accept any, because I don’t ever want money to become an issue.

In his [9]full statement about why he is no longer friends with Pastor Anderson, Paul whines like a little girl, complaining that while making Babylon USA, Brother Anderson wanted a lengthy news clip removed from the film. Paul strongly disagreed and says this is when they started parting ways. You’ve got to be kidding me! It is Pastor Anderson’s film! Who the hell cares if Paul didn’t like what he wanted, because the movie features Pastor Anderson. I would have gladly made the movie anyway that Pastor Anderson wanted, because it is about his ministry.

It saddens me to see a grown man behaving like a spoiled brat. I mean, how much money is enough for Paul? And in his full statement, Paul implies that Brother Anderson’s timing was suspicious. That sounds like such bull crap! Would there ever have been a better time

for Pastor Anderson to preach against Alex Jones, knowing that it would result in Alex’s refusal to sell Framing The World’s videos anymore? I think not, so your point is mute Paul.

God’s great heart of love is grieved over this evil bickering, hatred and slander...

> Ephesians 4:30-32, “ And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake hath forgiven you.”

No doubt tens of thousands of people will eventually watch the upcoming shameful new film at the end of February—a disgraceful video made by a little man (Paul Wittenberger) which slanders Pastor Steven Anderson and his exploits his family merely for financial profit. Thankfully, God in Heaven sees this evil and will avenge Brother Anderson and his wife (Romans 12:19-21).

Remember, it’s not what enemies call you that defines you, it’s who you answer to. We answer only to God. The Devil’s children called Jesus a liar, a deceiver, crazy and demon possessed—but the Lord didn’t share in their shame, He rose above it. I am grateful that Pastor Anderson is keeping his head up in the Lord, by grace faithfully laboring in their soulwinning ministry.

Faithful Word Baptist Church led over 700 people to Jesus Christ in January of 2026. Amen! That is why the Devil is ruthlessly attacking Pastor Anderson and their church. Satan goes after the guy who's getting the job done for God!

Pastor Steven Anderson can preach anything he wants, any time he wants, anywhere he wants; and if some greedy businessman doesn't like it because it will affect his income, so be it, tough.

Paul Wittenberger is no better than the idol makers who attacked Paul and Silas for costing them money, which they made from their evil craft. Paul and Silas were unjustly stripped naked and beaten as criminals. The only reason Paul and Silas were shamed and beaten was over money, which is the same wicked thing Paul is doing to Pastor Anderson...

Acts 16:16-22, "

And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying:

The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers,

And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city,

And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them.

JOHN THE BAPTIST LOST HIS HEAD.....

7.2.3 Dr. Frank Logsdon Exposes Devil's Modern Bible Revisions (2026-02-03 10:10)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, "For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ."

[1]Pastor Franklin S. Logsdon (1907-1987) is well known for repenting of his involvement in the modern critical text (i.e., the Devil's perverted modern Bible revisions). He was a Baptist pastor in Florida before his death in 1987. The Lockman Foundation tries very hard to dishonestly deny that Dr. Frank Logsdon repented of his involvement with the critical text. They even invented some lame fake story, but we have Dr. Logsdon's own words that were thankfully recorded.

Here is what DR. FRANK LOGSDON said the use of the modern critical text does:

1. They cause widespread confusion, because everywhere we go people say, What do you think of this; what do you think of that? What do young people think when they hear all of that?
2. They discourage memorization. Who's going to memorize when each one has a different Bible, a different translation?
3. They obviate the use of a concordance. Where are you going to find a concordance for the Good News for Modern Man and all these others? You aren't going to find one. We're going to have a concordance for every one; you're going to have to have a lot of concordances.

4. They provide opportunity for perverting the truth. There are all these translations and versions, each one trying to get a little different slant from the others. They must make it different, because if it isn't different why have a new version? It makes a marvelous opportunity for the devil to slip in his perverting influence.

5. These many translations make teaching of the Bible difficult. And I'm finding that more and more as I go around the country. I mentioned this thing the other night. How could a mathematics professor or instructor teach a certain problem in a class if the class had six or eight different textbooks? How about that? How could you do it?

6. They elicit profitless argumentation. Because everywhere we go they say this one is more accurate. Which one is more accurate? How do they know?

Dr. Frank Logsdon [2]fully knew that he was in trouble with the Lord for helping to produce the New American Standard Bible.

7.2.4 We're Losing Our Distinctives Between The Sexes (2026-02-04 05:35)

Deuteronomy 22:5, "The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination unto the LORD thy God."

Dear reader, if you honestly think that our text passage of inspired Scripture is mere expired Old Testament Jewish ceremonial law, you are a fool indeed. Deuteronomy 22:5 is moral law applicable to all people for all generations! God mandates that a clear distinction between the two genders of male and female be maintained at all times. Anything else is a sin!

Woe unto the ungodly pastor's wife and mother who wears pants in public. There would have been no debate 75 years ago. SHAME on Pastors' Brad and Bobby Moffett, their worldly pants-wearing wives, and the carnal FAMILY BAPTIST CHURCH in Pensacola, which is nothing more than a worldly social club for religious hypocrites.

My ministry friend, Pastor Bob Gray Sr., nails it biblically concerning why women ought NOT wear pants in his helpful blog...

> "We are a nation that has completely lost its mind and its morality. Yet we are criticizing men who say women shouldn't wear pants, because women are commanded to dress differently than men? How dare you be so concerned about a man who preaches against women wearing pants that you neglect to acknowledge that the distinction between the sexes has been broken. Yet, it is a distinction God gave us.
>
> So, now I put the responsibility back on your shoulders. Tell us what to do? If there's no problem then there's nothing to worry about, but I think we all know there is a problem. Dr. Hyles was right. The unisex movement is a satanic pursuit to blur the lines between the roles and identity of men and women. How do we fix it? What's the standard going to be? Is there going to be no standard? I think it's time to give it a second thought.
>
> If the pastor's wife has no distinction in her dress, then no wonder the pastor has lock-jaw and is like the Antarctica and frozen at the mouth. This makes it difficult to lead a local church let alone a movement.
>
> Christians who believe in traditional marriage were shocked at the in your face sodomy display at the NFL draft. The truth is they may have to look in the mirror and figure out what happened to the distinction of the sexes as having laid the foundation for this and other woes. This is NOT hate speech, this is Scriptural speech. We are losing ground because we have lost the distinctiveness God gave us!"

7.2.5 Without Love For Sinners All Else Is Done In Vain (2026-02-05 14:32)

1st Peter 1:22-23, "Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently: Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever."

I was listening to Alexander Scourby read the inspired King James Bible today and this passage leaped out at me, which is an indictment against 99 % of pastors and churches...

1st Peter 1:22-23, "Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently: Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever."

There is so little genuine love in today's carnal Bible colleges and churches. The old adage is very true: "You're talk talks and your walk talks, but your walk talks louder than your talk talks." Religious people can talk about how "loving" their church is, but if their actions do not back up their words it means nothing. In 1st Corinthians 13 the Apostle Paul said nothing matters in a ministry if God's unconditional love for sinners is MISSING...

1st Corinthians 13:1-3, "

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing."

This is a remarkable passage of Scripture! The Apostle Paul said that even if he were to give the ultimate sacrifice as a saint, to be burnt on a stake as a Christian martyr, yet it would mean absolutely NOTHING without love. Wow! It sounds like this biblical matter of loving one another is serious business to God. Read what the Apostle Peter said...

1st Peter 4:8-9, "

And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

Use hospitality one to another without grudging.

The Bible says 'ABOVE ALL' loving one another, and showing sincere hospitality 'WITHOUT GRUDGING' toward each other. I've been wickedly kicked out of several neo-evangelical churches during my lifetime, because they were offended when I TOLD THE TRUTH. Today's ungodly neo-evangelical pastors are wilfully ignorant of the truth that the modern English Bible revisions are all woefully corrupted by Satan. They are wilfully ignorant to the truth that Lordship Salvation is a perversion of the Gospel of free grace. They are willfully ignorant of the truth that Bible repentance does not mean to "

turn from your sins.

Just like the proudful ungodly evolutionist, scientist and astronomer who is willfully ignorant of the truth that God created the universe, so also are today's ungodly pastors willfully ignorant of THE TRUTH (2nd Peter 3:16-17). 2nd Peter 3:5,

" For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water." I like watching astronomy videos on YouTube. Sadly, of the hundreds of videos I've watched over the past several months, not even one of them mentions, let alone glorifies, our divine faithful Creator, who is God. Those wicked scientists choose to deny God's creative powers and remain wilfully ignorant of THE TRUTH.

The passages of Scripture that I just shared with you in this blog dear reader are all but forgotten in today's religious institutions and churches.

In 2002, Jeff Redlin (senior clown pastor at PCC's Campus Church) in writing kicked me out of Campus Church. It didn't matter that in the summer of 2022 I wrote a long heartfelt letter of apology for offending the pastors at Campus Church, pleading to please return to Campus Church to see my friend. Redlin is a cold-hearted religious thug who lacks God's love for people. Although they are all the same organization, legally Campus Church and PCC operate separately, with separate leadership (who are all in bed together).

So, in frustration I also mailed a letter to PCC, asking for their help in June of 2022. They all sinfully decided to completely ignore me. SHAME ON PCC and the WICKED PASTORS!

Contrary to the Lord's plain command to love one another without grudging, these unloving religious hypocrites at PCC do hold a grudge against me because they don't know God nor the meaning of His great love. Pastors' Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias think this is all a laughable matter, no doubt cracking jokes about me and my faithful website ministry in their office. They've been listening to slanderous gossip from the reprobates at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I can't wait to see them all judged by God in eternity. God sees their wickedness (Hebrews 4:13). God will hold them accountable for even their words (Matthew 12:36). They won't be able to weasel their way out of accountability on Judgment Day (Proverbs 24:12). PAYDAY SOMEDAY!

[1]PCC is guilty of preaching another gospel. PCC is guilty of not loving and caring about hurting people. At PCC, the cult system always comes first but individual people do not matter.

The Woeful Lack Of Love, Compassion And Understanding At PCC

PCC is guilty of preaching the Devil's fraud of Lordship Salvation. PCC is guilty of elevating financial profits above people. PCC takes in about $175,000,000 per year in revenues! Pastor Redlin gets paid a disgusting 6-digit salary. He is an incompetent clown!

After several weeks of frustration in 2022, that monster Jeff Redlin showed his hateful true colors as a reprobate of the faith, banning me from returning to PCC's Campus Church. What saith the Scripture? James 2:13, "For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment." I wouldn't want to be in Jeff Redlin's shoes when he stands to give account to God. Mr. Redlin has [2]much blood on his hands for preaching another gospel. The Bible warns that to those pastors who showed no mercy, God will show no mercy.

When I humbly begged Pastor Marty Herron in 2014 at the corrupt [3]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam to simply please let me come back to church, he refused and threw me under the bus for dead. Woe unto Marty Herron and his accomplices Joe Hansen, Jared Baldwin and others. Marty Herron is an incompetent preacher. They were upset with for for TELLING THE TRUTH that all of the modern Bible revisions are corrupt, that Lordship Salvation is not the Gospel of free grace, that Martin Luther was not a born again Christian because he peached Sacramental Salvation all his life, et cetera. These are all wicked wolves in sheep's clothing!!!

In hindsight, I didn't realize that PCC was wrong on the Gospel until I attended their church cult in July of 2021. Since that time my eyes have been wide opened concerning the deadly theology at PCC today. Check this out, [4]I found FOUR different plans of salvation at PCC! You couldn't make this stuff up. Clearly, Jeff Redlin is wickedly pandering to the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam who promote his name and sermons as if he were royalty. Redlin has sold his soul for the praise of men rather than the praise of God (John 12:43). The LORD is on my side for one reason, which is because I AM TELLING THE TRUTH. God is no respecter of persons. Jeff Redlin and PCC are in serious trouble with God for perverting the Gospel and wickedly bidding Godspeed to false prophets.

7.2.6 Pastor Harry Ironside's Bible Commentary For "Proverbs" (2026-02-06 07:43)

Proverbs 4:7, "Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding."

I was delighted recently to find [1]this website featuring the invaluable library of Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951). This is a very helpful resource when studying the book of Proverbs.

[2]Proverbs

We all need God's wisdom, which the world cannot teach you. James 1:5, " If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. " If you want God's wisdom, then ask Him for it and live in the book of Proverbs.

7.2.7 God Will Hold Believers Accountable For The Good And Bad Done In Our Body (2026-02-07 09:21)

2nd Corinthians 5:10-11

“For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences. ”

I heard an idiot on the radio yesterday, on a religious station. The man was teaching that Christians shouldn’t worry about the sins in their life, because God wasn’t going to be harsh or unkind towards any believer in Heaven. Well, that man doesn’t know his Bible very well. Listen to what king David said in

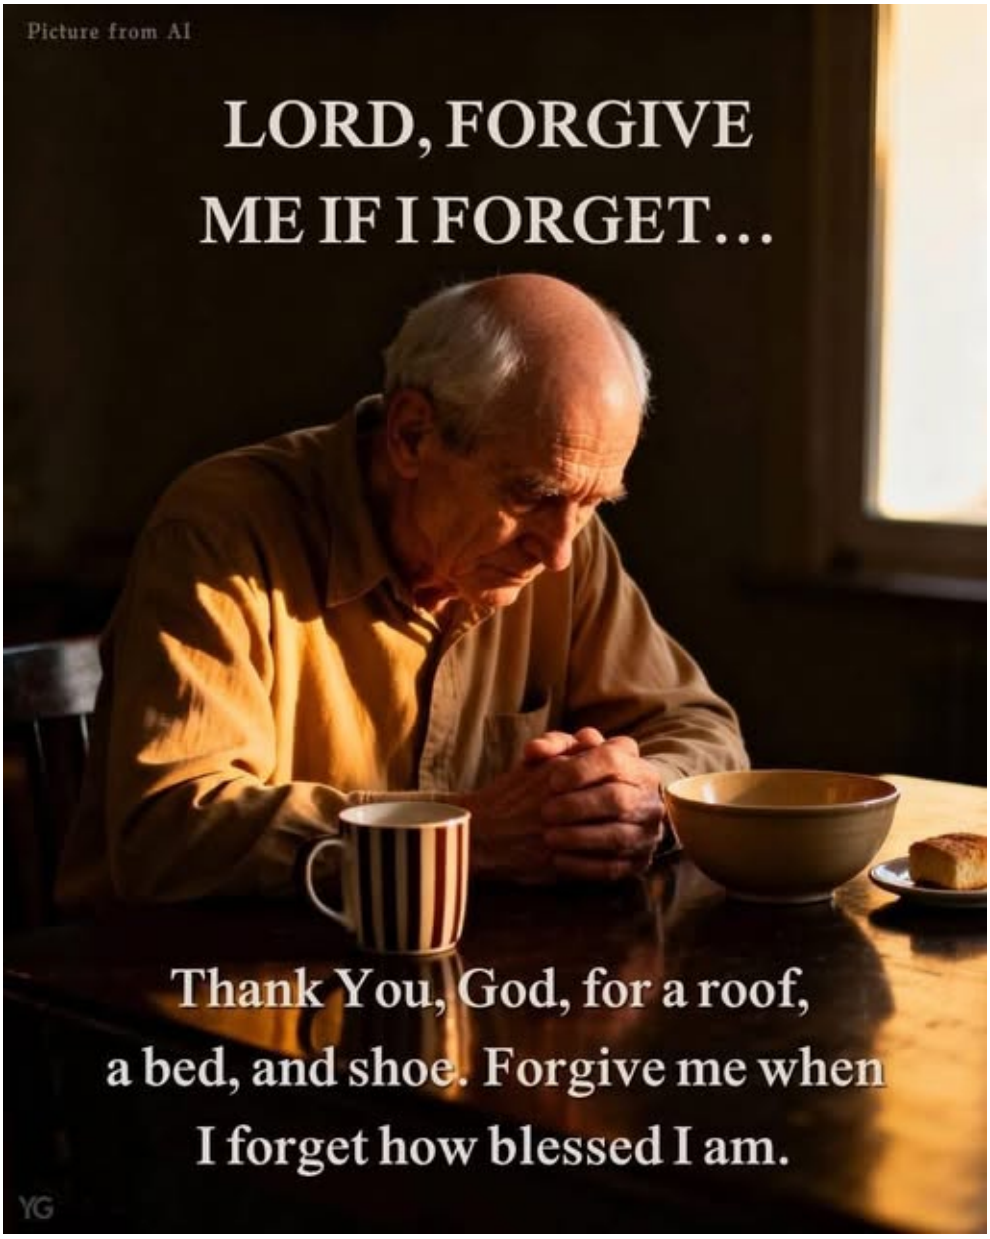
Psalm 6:1, “O LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.”

God is longsuffering and slow to anger, but once God gets angry... LOOK OUT! Psalm 7:11 warns that God is angry with the wicked every day. As a holy God, He hates sin with a passion, and won’t dismiss anyone’s frivolous attitude about sin.

1st Corinthians 11:31, “For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.” If we DON’T judge ourselves, then we WILL BE JUDGED! Judging ourselves means dealing with the problem before God has to deal with it. 2nd Corinthians 5:10 WARNS, “For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.” Romans 14:12 states that every person will be held accountable by God on Judgment Day. We would be wise to live for God now as believers, confessing and forsaking our sins today, rather than face the judgment of an angry God tomorrow because of our arrogant pride disobedience.

Jesus said in John 14:26, “But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.” As we memorize the Scriptures, the Holy Spirit will remind us of them when we need them. This is one way that the Lord helps us when we are temped (as Hebrews 2:18 promises).

As we SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES (John 5:39), and a Bible passage burns our heart, we should memorize It. By the way, I’ve NEVER met one believer who could quote multiple Scriptures from any modern corrupted Bibles; BUT I have known many Christians who could quote hundreds of Scriptures from the preserved, inerrant, infallible, precious and inspired King James Bible.



God Chastises His Disobedient Children Because We Are Saved

Hebrews 12:6-8 teaches that God scourges (beats) and chastises (disciplines) His children when they are disobedient. Evangelist Paul Washer errantly teaches, close to the end of his video titled, “ [1]Regeneration Verses The idolatry of Decisional Evangelism ,” that a Christian still living in gross sin after ten years of being saved, is not really saved. I totally disagree! There are many believers living in gross sin. And for that matter, all believers still commit sin. All sin is gross in God’s sight. If what Paul Washer says is true, then salvation becomes subjective to discipleship.

Furthermore, where do we draw the line between the saved and the lost? Mr. Washer is espousing a dangerous heresy in the churches. The inspired King James Bible teaches that eternal life is a free gift (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-10), paid for in full by the precious blood of Jesus Christ (1st Peter 1:18-19). Jesus doesn't forgive sin. That is correct! Jesus has already paid for everyone's sins with His blood. Therefore, forgiveness of sins is a gift, that we simply receive by faith.

The fact that God chastises disobedient children evidences that they are saved. Beware of Paul Washer's false doctrine, which says that a person cannot know they are born-again in an instant. Mr. Washer says that a person cannot merely write down their name and date, when they get saved, in the back of their Bible. Paul Washer says their life must evidence continued repentance and faith, otherwise none of it was ever real at all. This is salvation by qualification by works. That is not "the simplicity that is in Christ" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4), which is "THE GOSPEL" (Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Once saved, always saved. Salvation can NEVER be lost, forfeited or given back. It is impossible be lose eternal life once you have it. If salvation could be lost, certainly sinful Lot would have lost it. Samson would have lost it. David would have lost it. Solomon would have lost it. Demas would have lost it. peter would have lost it. Ananias and Sapphira would have lost it. The sinful man in 1st Corinthians 5:1-5 would have lost it. And for that matter, the entire sinful church at Corinth would have lost it! If saved, always saved!!!

7.2.8 Our Truly Amazing Creator, God (2026-02-08 12:10)

Psalms 145:3, “Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.

I love astronomy. The subject fascinates me. Our own gargantuan sun is just one of 200 sextillion stars in the observable universe. The diameter of the sun is 109 times greater than the earth. You could fit 1,300,000 earth's into the volume of the sun. The nearest star Alpha Centauri is Alpha Centauri (α Centauri, α Cen, or Alpha Cen) is a star system in the southern constellation of Centaurus. It consists of three stars: Rigil Kentaurus (α Centauri A), Toliman (α Centauri B), and Proxima Centauri (α Centauri C). Proxima Centauri is the closest star to the Sun at 4.2465 light-years (ly), which is 1.3020 parsecs (pc), while Alpha Centauri A and B are the nearest stars visible to the naked eye.

Dear reader, if we were to build an accurate scale to compare these distances, and our sun were placed just one inch away from the earth, Proxima Centauri would be 4 miles away! Wow! This just gives you a little idea of how far apart the stars are from each other. Proxima Centauri is 4.2 light years from earth (or about 25,000,000,000,000 miles away). Due to the mind boggling distances involved, there is no possible way that humanity will ever be able to travel the universe.

In 1977, Voyager 1 and 2 space probes were launched from NASA. [1]47 years later in 2025 voyager 2 had traveled a staggering 15 billion miles from earth, speeding through the universe at 38,000 mph. Even traveling at that incredible speed Voyager 2 would require 73,000 years to reach Proxima Centauri. The human civilization only dates back to about 4,000 BC (6,000 years ago). It humbles my soul to realize that our divine Creator, God, made the universe and all contained therein.

Truly God's greatest is unfathomable and unsearchable.

Psalms 145:3, "Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.

" Mankind has only begun to discover the universe. Astronomers are limited by our best technology, which simply falls short of perfection. Scientists can only see about 46 billion light years either way into the universe (9

[2]MoM-z14 is the farthest known galaxy from earth, which is located a staggering 13.53 billion light years from earth. Literally, when we look up at the evening stars, we are seeing light that is millions if not billions of years old. There are differing beliefs about the origin of creation and what happened in the biblical account of creation. I personally ascribe to the Gap Principle (it's not a theory). There is no way that dinosaurs roamed the earth with mankind 5,000 years ago. To claim otherwise contradicts legitimate science and ancient history alike.

I humbly believe scientists are correct who tell us that the universe is 13.8 billions years old. The earth and universe were created a long time before God remodeled the earth in Genesis chapters one and two. You'd have to be a really gullible fool to believe that dinosaurs lived 5,000 years ago, or that Noah brought dinosaurs aboard the ark. Scientists tell us that dinosaurs lived 60 to 220 million years ago, and I accept that scientific fact. The inspired Word of God makes a distinction between the age of the foundation of the earth as versus everything else contained therein. Psalms 102:25,

"Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

" Our faithful Creator is truly amazing, brilliant and good.

7.2.9 Deliverance Through Prayer (2026-02-09 09:09)

Luke 22:40, "And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation."

As born again saints of God, we need to pray continually. 1st Thessalonians 5:17 states, "Pray without ceasing." Obviously, this means that we can pray while working, walking, driving, et cetera. We ought to be in constant fellowship with our God as burdens, people, temptations, problems and frustrations come across our mind throughout the day. Take it all to the Lord in prayer (Philippians 4:6-8).

Prayer is from within our heart, not a recital. We ought to pray continually. Philippians 4:6, "Be careful [stressed, anxious] for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God." "Supplications" are things on our prayer list (i.e., a petition) that we keep asking God for. Prayer is asking. That's what prayer is. Praise is praise. Worship is worship. But prayer is letting our requests be made known unto God (Philippians 4:6-7). Prayer is faith.

We should ask God for His help in every area of our life on a daily basis; but then there are certain matters which we will need to pray about for weeks, months or even years. Jesus taught His disciples that prayer was a means to avoid temptation. It is very interesting that Jesus never taught His disciples how to preach, but He did teach them how to pray. Prayer is not a "therapy" as liberals call it today. Prayer is expecting a miracle from a miraculous omnipotent (all-powerful) divine and faithful Creator.

We hear much talk these days on television and radio, and in books and magazines, about spiritual matters and mention of God; but they are a bunch of Modernists (an unsaved person who appears as a Christian) and liberals (unsaved scholars and "experts") who deny the POWER OF GOD (2nd Timothy 3:5).

Do you have a prayer life? It doesn't have to be a prayer closet. Your car can become a prayer closet. Where do you meet God every day? Do you pray at all? Prayerlessness is akin to the sin of atheism, for a prayerless Christian prays no more than an unbelieving atheist. So sad!

I cringe every time I see the President of the U.S. recite a prayer off a piece of paper (which he didn't even write). All of the various President's public speeches for the past few decades have been prewritten by a specialist in propaganda and public speaking. Even the President's prayers are written for him. It's not from his heart. How can it be when his speech-writer prepared it for him? Doesn't the President have a place in his heart for God? Does his staff have to write his prayers too? Yes, evidently so! This is apostasy and a stench unto God. The President's prayer recitals are nothing more than deceitful political propaganda designed to hoodwink conservatives into believing that their President trusts in God.

Not surprising, [1]EVERY Republican President since Roe vs. Wade has given billions-of-dollars to fund abortion. Yet, the candidates will claim they are against abortion, and the gullible religious right votes for them and thus supports their wickedness. If our nation's leaders genuinely trusted in God, they would insist on praying from their hearts, and not read from a piece of paper which someone else wrote for them.

Jesus said that prayer would keep us from temptation. There is NO secret to overcoming sin in one's personal life. We either love the Lord enough to obey Him or we don't, it's as simple as that. If we love the Lord, then we will study God's Word, and memorize passages to help us. If we love the Lord, then we will pray and walk with God in our daily life. Every believer should take time to walk with God. Have a designated place where you meet with God each day. It may be at your desk, or your coffee table, or in your car on the way to work.

Take time frequently to be alone in nature with your Creator. God gave us nature to remind us of His Godhead, goodness, and power (Psalm 19:1-3; Romans 1:20). We need to take time out, to escape the concrete jungle of the city, and get alone with God in nature. Mark 6:46 states, "And when he [Jesus] had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray." Jesus is our example. If our Lord went alone into nature to pray, then we need to find a place everyday, even if just in our backyard, where we can seek God. Most people are too busy to fellowship with their Creator, choked by the cares, riches, and pleasures of this short life here on earth (Luke 8:13). How ungrateful.

7.2.10 To Overcome Temptation And Sin, Saturate Your Life With The Word Of God (2026-02-10 06:10)

Psalms 119:11, "Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee."

Psalms 119:9, "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word."

If you want to gain victory in your life over sin, then you need to start hiding the Word of God in your heart (i.e., your sub-consciousness) by memorizing the Scriptures. USE ONLY THE PRECIOUS, KING JAMES BIBLE!!! All modern Bible revisions have been corrupted by Satan!!! Do a Bible study on your particular area of weakness, and then memorize several Scriptures to help you when temptations arise.

For example: If you have a problem with sexual lust, you should memorize 1st Peter 2:11, "Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul." 1st John 2:15-17 would apply to many sins and should be memorized by EVERY believer, "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever."

These Scriptures should be on our minds continually. Literally, our minds should be SATURATED with the Scriptures. The Word of God should be more yummy to our souls than Krispy Kreme donuts are to our taste buds. King David said that the Word's of the Lord were sweeter than honey to his mouth (Psalm 119:103). Do you find the Bible more refreshing that a box of Dunkin Doughnuts? Sadly, most people would gladly rather have a box of donuts over God's Word. What will today's burdens and temptations matter 100-years from now? All that will matter when we leave this world, as believers, is what did we do for Jesus' sake and the Gospel's (Mark 10:29-30).

Of course, if you are unsaved, nothing else will matter until you receive Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. Sin has alienated mankind from God, and there is no hope for humanity apart from the cross of Jesus Christ. You are a GUILTY sinner, on your way to everlasting Hell, fire and torment in your sins. You need to have your sins forgiven, and only Jesus Christ Who has the nail-scared hands and feet can forgive you. [1]Ye Must Be Born Again!

To Live a Victorious Christian Life, Listen to Lots of Bible-Believing Preaching

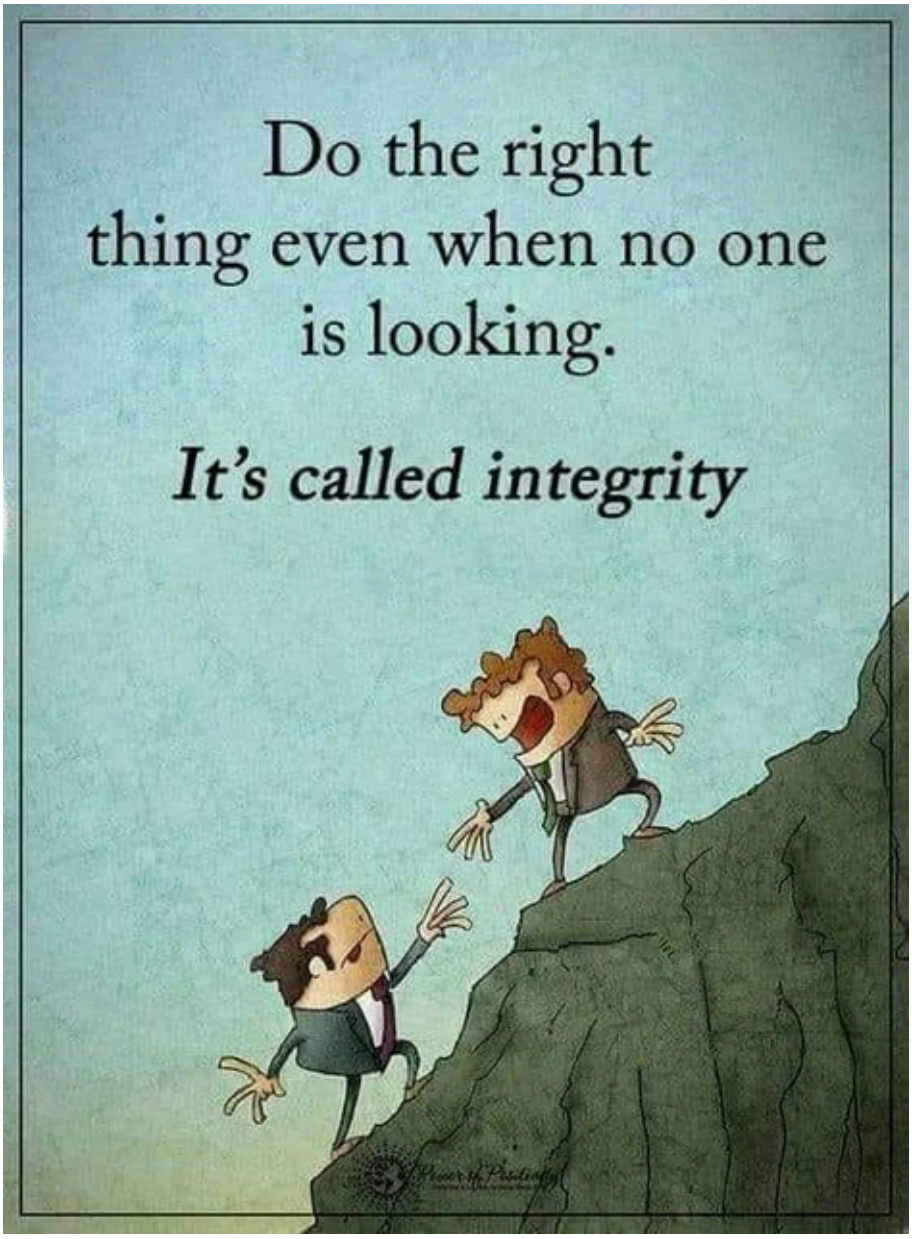
When we listen to preaching, we are walking with wise men. And by the way, ALL WOMEN PREACHERS ARE FALSE PROPHETS. Lesbian Katy Perry's mother is a preacher—that speaks volumes! Proverbs 13:20, "He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed." Turn that stupid radio off and start [2]listening to some preaching that will help you.

It’s amazing how most people will listen to the same old songs, that have been around for decades, thousands of times, and not one of those songs will make you a better Christian. Think about that!

But if you get a radio in your car that accepts a flash drive, you can download thousands of MP3 sermons and listen to them to and from work, that will change your life for God!!! Do you have enough character to listen to preaching? You have to want the truth and wisdom, it won’t come to you. Ask God to give you wisdom!

I regularly listen to hundreds of sermon videos on YouTube. There are innumerable awesome sermons freely available on the internet. I highly recommend the following preachers: Danny Castle, Jack Hyles, Bob Gray Sr., Steven Anderson, Max D. Younce, Jeff Owens, Lester Roloff, Curtis Hutson, Tom Malone, Ralph Yankee Arnold, John R. Rice, Harry Ironside, Lee Roberson and others. Some of these men are living, and some of them are already in Heaven.

I don’t agree with everything that all these faithful men of God preach, but they are men of God and I agree with 99 % of what they each preach. The great need of the hour is preaching preachers! Stay away from Paul Washer, Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, Marty Herron, Jeff Redlin and Timothy Zacharias, Bobby and Bradley Moffett, Rick Warren, Joel Osteen, Pat Robertson, John Hagee, Max Lucado and other compromised damnable preachers!



Please kick Elton John, Katy Perry, Jay Z, Dolly Parton, Beyoncé, Madonna, Reba McIntire, Dave Mustaine, Rhianna, AC/DC, Van Halen, Hollywood and the other filthy reprobates out of your life, who are influencing you for Satan!!! Make sure that you spend the bulk of your time listening to godly men. Americans are in a mess today because we have all the wrong mentors!!! You’re never going to win victory in your life until you stop hanging out with losers! Michael Jordan is a loser in God’s eyes. Donald Trump is not good success in God’s eyes. You’re not a success in life unless God says you’re a success. Ecclesiastes 12:13, “Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.”

Think about how much time we spend listening to Fox News (lies), NBC (nothing but crap), CNN (contains no news), secular radio, worldly television, empty magazines, et cetera. Do any of these lame things edify you for God? Of course they don’t. We are surrounded today by fools! I choose to walk with wise men, preachers! I hardly miss a sermon by my favorite living Baptist preachers today. I listen to a few who aren’t independent fundamental Baptist, but only a few. I tell you truthfully dear reader that there is no such thing as a “ good Christian.

We are all woeful sinners who have fallen short of God’s glory (Romans 3:23). I preach to myself too.

7.2.11 Where Are The Hard Bible Preachers Today? (2026-02-11 06:30)

Isaiah 58:1, "Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins."

One of the saddest things I see today are lifeless churches. The average Baptist pastor doesn't preach on the subject of Hell once every two years. I cannot remember the last time I heard a preacher rip against the murderous evils of abortion. Where are the Bible preachers exposing the evils of homosexuality and the perverse LGBTQ agenda of sodomites? I'm not advocating bashing anyone, I'm advocating preaching the Word of God! Let's face it, today's shameful pastors have become Caspar Milquetoast (wimps). They don't stand anymore!

> Revelation 3:2, "
>
> Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

I catch a lot of criticism for mentioning people by name who are corrupters of the Gospel. I do not hesitate to tell you that Martin Luther, Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, Paul Washer, Albert Mohler, Marty Herron, Jared Baldwin, Adrian Rogers, Jeff Redlin, Timothy Zacharias, Bill Adams, John Thompson, Bobby and Brad Moffett are damnable FALSE PROPHETS—who all errantly teach that to get to Heaven you must first be willing to turn away from your sinful behaviour, which is works and not grace (Jonah 3:10; Romans 4:4). Repentance concerning salvation never means to forsake your sinning (nor even to be willing to do so). These are reformation, not repentance.

Where are the fiery Bible preachers today who bring down the roof? Billy Sunday (1862-1935) in a sermon called the people of Gadarenes "peanut-brained, weasel-eyed, hog-jowled, beetle-browed, bull-necked lobsters that owned the hogs" (Mark 5:11-12). He called the audience " you old dogs!

" I love it! Pastor Lester Roloff (1914-1982) was absolutely correct, who said:

The great need of the hour is preaching preachers!

" I agree but where are they?

Pastor Steven Anderson is one of them, for whom I praise God. Say what you will about the New IFB, but they have most of the men who still faithfully preach hard against sin, earnestly contend for the faith, and righteously uphold the truth. Proverbs 12:17, "He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit."

Most Old IFB pastors have succumbed to Satan's lies of [1]Misunderstood Repentance and [2]Lordship Salvation.

God deliver us from the weak-kneed, pot-bellied, lazy, stiff-necked, pompous neo-evangelical pastors today who simply don't care about right doctrine, don't care about the accuracy of the Gospel, don't care about the purity and inspiration of God's Word, don't care about high moral standards; they just don't care! They are in the ministry for the INCOME, not the OUTCOME!

Respectfully said, I don't agree with Pastor Steven Anderson on several doctrinal issues, but I love the guy and am tremendously proud of him for standing. ...

> "The world will go to Hell unless somebody is authoritative!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[3]I Shall Not Be Moved"

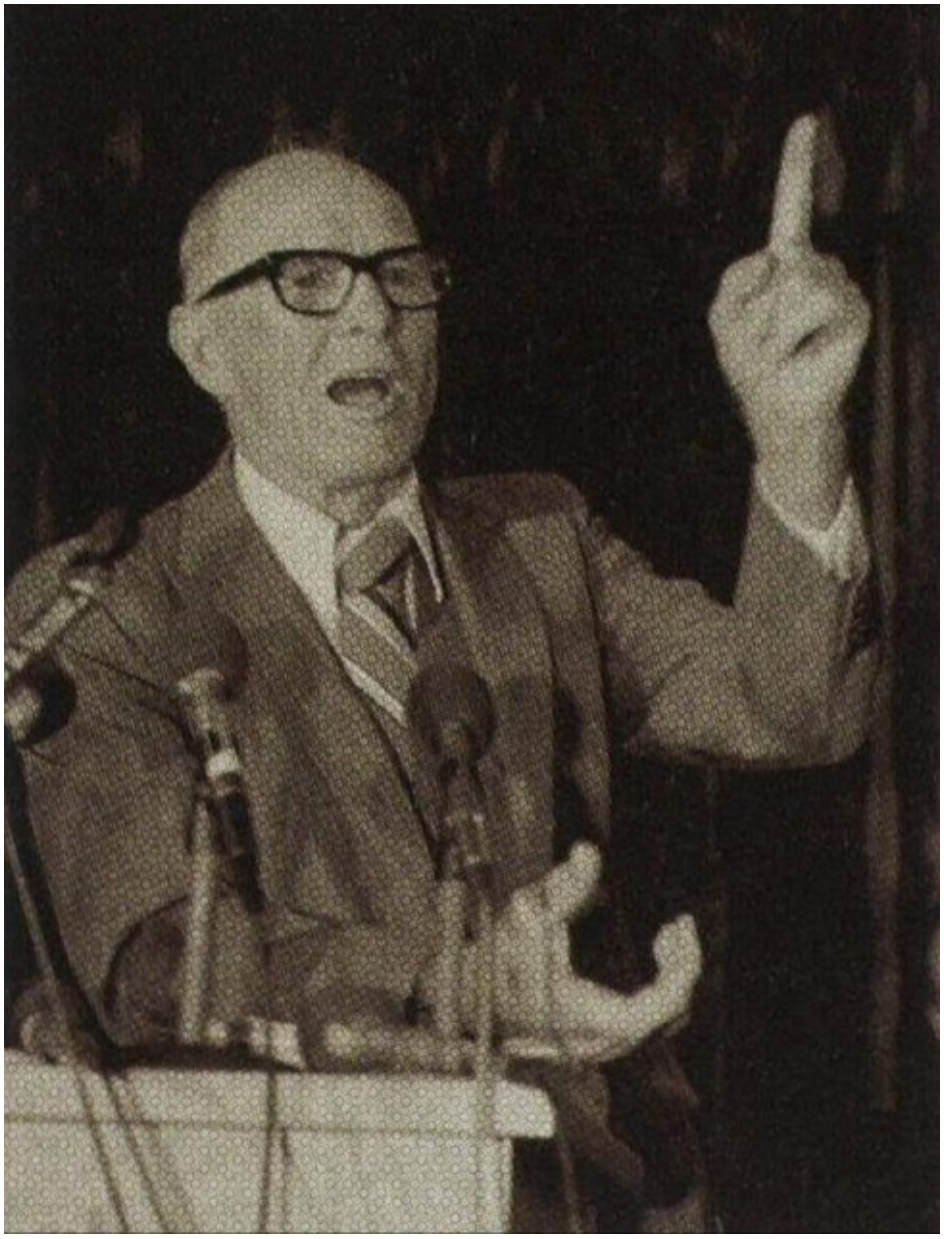
John the Baptist was unjustly beheaded for preaching against Herod's adultery with his brother's wife. Herod and his brother's wife, Herodias, have been burning in Hell for 2,000 years and will sadly be there for ever. They made their choice (2nd Peter 3:9).

That being said, hard Bible preaching without God's unconditional love for sinners is worthless (1st Corinthians 13:1-3). People won't care what you know until they know that you care. Some hard preachers woefully lack love for people, which greatly diminishes the power of their message. People will not tolerate hatred. I wish I could convince more pastors of this essential truth. I have been kicked out of 4 of the last 5 churches that I've attended. The reason why is because they were wicked neo-evangelical pastors and churches, and unfortunately the best churches I could find at the time. I will never make that foolish decision again. If there are no doctrinally sounds churches in my area, I won't go to church at all.

My ministry friend Michael P. Bowen at the time of writing his helpful book, '[4]I Never Knew You,' wrote on page 115 that he wasn't attending any of the churches in his hometown, because they were all theologically corrupted with a counterfeit plan pf salvation. He states...

> According to many verses in the bible, especially those warnings God gave to us through Paul in the book of Galatians, you should never listen to anyone's message that runs counter to the message given to us by Christ, and you should never attend a church where the pastor tells the flock that they must add works of discipleship to faith in Christ's "finished work" as the way to enter heaven. That's exactly the reason why I no longer attend any of the local churches in my current hometown.
> —Michael P. Bowen, 'I Never Knew You,' p. 115

Amen and amen! And that is my advice to you as well dear reader. If you cannot find a doctrinally sound church in your area that only uses the inspired King James Bible, and preaches a biblical free grace Gospel, then stay home! God understands.



Better yet, if you can, move to an area where there is a great church! People from across the United States have relocated to Tempe, Arizona, just to attend Faithful Word Baptist Church and hear Pastor Steven Anderson's fiery passionate Spirit-filled preaching. I can't get enough of his sermons! I love a truth-teller! No preacher is perfect. Every human being has a Skeleton Closet of some sort. I'm standing with the Bible preacher, not because he is perfect, but because HE STANDS! Ephesians 6:13, " Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand."

7.2.12 Why The Christian Can Rejoice During Worst Times (2026-02-12 05:00)

1st Peter 1:3-6, “

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations.”

The word “

rejoice

means to

re joy.

Not just that, but to

“

greatly rejoice,

again and again and again. There’s more, God wants us to do this in the midst of manifold temptations.

“

That is, we are to rejoice during the many tests and complicated trials of life.

God says that even during the worst experiences of life—whether it be persecution, divorce, marital troubles, personal loss, the death of a loved one, loss of a job, financial woes, whatever—the redeemed child of God can and should GREATLY REJOICE knowing that we were already justified in the sight of God almighty from before when the world began. Titus 1:2, “In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began.” As God’s saints we don’t hope we have eternal life; but rather, we have the hope of eternal life, because God promised “to save them that believe” (1st Corinthians 1:21b).

Knowing that we have an inheritance incorruptible in Heaven, undefiled that fadeth not away (it doesn’t expire), reserved for all believers, we “ greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations” (1st Peter 1:6). There is no reason for the redeemed child of God to become bitter and complain all the time, when we knowing have an inheritance reserved (waiting) for us in Heaven.

Get your mind off of your problems, burdens and the rottenness of ungodly people, and start focusing on God’s great sacrifice of His only begotten Son for you on Calvary’s cross 2,000 years ago. The inspired Word of God commands every believer to 'GREATLY REJOICE' while you are going through your many trials and temptations. Ladies and gentlemen, we have the glorious blessed hope of ETERNAL LIFE!

Luke 10:20b, "rejoice, because your names are written in heaven." We are on the winning side through faith in Jesus Christ!!!

7.2.13 No One Can Give You Character If You Are Lazy (2026-02-13 10:24)

Proverbs 14:1, "Every wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands."

If you lack character, no one can give it to you. Why is it that one woman picks up after herself at home, but another is lazy and sloppy? In a word, character. Why is it that one man indulges in dirty magazines, but another resolves to " set no wicked thing before mine eyes " (Psalms 101:3). Character! No one has perfect character, but it is something that everyone should work at continually. What is character? It is the subconscious doing of right, that is, a habit.

Many wives are irresponsible slobs at home. They leave their shoes for the husband to trip over. They let food spoil in the refrigerator because they are too lazy and characterless to keep inventory and cook the food. She has a bad habit of not pulling her weight in the marriage, not providing for her household. She has no interest in becoming a chef. Shame on you if I am ringing your bell dear friend. That all boils down to CARING.

People without character are people who just don't care. When you care you do what is necessary and needful. Proverbs 18:1-2, "

Through desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom.

A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

" Nothing worthwhile in life just happens by chance, you must apply yourself. The harder I work, the luckier I get.

How do you obtain personal character if you don't have it? You get character by pretending that you have it, doing that which is right until it becomes a habit. Psychologists say if you do something consistently for 21 days it becomes a habit. If you're not a good Christian, then pretend to be one and eventually you'll become one. But whether or not you get character ultimately all boils down to one all important word, CARING. Do you care? If you don't care, then just do nothing and that is exactly what will change, nothing.

You cannot ask another person to help you have character, to do the things that you alone are supposed to do without being asked. Life doesn't work that way! If you don't care, nobody can make you care. Pastor Jack Hyles taught that love is thinking. When you love someone, you take the time to think about them. You plan a time to think about their needs, burdens and what you can do to be a blessing to them. Philippians 2:3-5, "Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus." Jesus cared about others. He looked for ways to be helpful and a blessing to his neighbours and even strangers.

For example: If you feel no love for someone, then you put them on your prayer list (every Christian ought to have a written prayer list). As you think about that person's burdens, heartaches, losses and trials, and pray for them daily, you will start feeling concern and you might even begin to care. Matthew 6:21, " For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

" Most people get this verse wrong. Most people think that your heart follows your treasure, but that's not what the Bible says. Scripture tells us that our heart follows our treasure. That is, wherever you invest your time, money and resources, that is where your heart will follow. As you think about, have empathy and pray for someone, you are making an investment in them, which will eventually cause you to develop feelings for that individual.

We are living in a characterless generation today. Character is doing what is right when no one else is looking. Character is generated from a heart that cares. If you lack character friend, the $64,000 question is: Do you care? If you don't care, nothing else matters. I have faithfully warned countless pastors that repentance does not mean to forsake one's sinful ways, yet they lacked the godly concern to repent of their misunderstood repentance.

As a fundamentalist Bible preacher, I can help someone who lacks character if they care enough to heed my godly wisdom, but I cannot help someone who doesn't care. If that is you, then cry out to God in prayer to give you a pure heart, so that you will start caring. Sadly, very few people in this world care. That includes most professed Christians as well.

It is never okay not to care. If your spouse is continually upset with you for not pulling your own weight, then repent of your wicked heart and ask God to help you start caring.

If you are a wicked pastor who has been warned that you're preaching another gospel by teaching that you must turn from your sinning to be saved, then repent and ask God to forgive you, and stop preaching that sinful trash. Right doctrine matters!

Americans are [1]spoiled rotten. We have a bunch of lazy clergy today...

> "America's full of seminaries and colleges and Bible institutes that are dead as last year's Christmas tree. You know why? They got a bunch of professors that never witness, never tell anybody about Jesus; they got a whole reservoir of spoiled truth. They're spoiled rotten! Their truth is spoiled rotten! They know about justification but never tell anybody's that's not justified about it. They know about sanctification but never tell anybody who's not sanctified about it. And our churches are drying up today because our pastor today are being trained by a bunch of dead theologians whose truth is spoiled." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[2]Spoiled Rotten"

We sadly live in a spoiled rotten culture in the United States. This is the age of blame! A lazy wife blames her husband for picking on her, when she is the problem. She has no one to blame but herself for not aspiring to be a Proverbs 31 woman. She is lazy and that is no one's fault except hers. And God pity the rebellious female who always tries to make everything 50/50. Well what about him? Well, what about him? I'm preaching at you, you lazy dog!

No one can give you character if you are lazy. I guarantee you that if a troubled wife goes to meet with a psychiatrist that not one time in a hundred will any doctor ever diagnose her as being not right with God, lazy, rebellious and a spoiled brat. They will never tell her THE TRUTH. No, they'll instead diagnose her with clinical depression, a chemical imbalance of the brain, unbalanced hormones, regressive anger from her youth, post traumatic stress, childhood abuse or an overbearing husband—anything except the truth that she is the problem! If you are lazy, look in the mirror. You are to blame!

I read an article recently by the Independent Institute titled: 'The Age Of The Lazy American,' in which the writer states...

> There are no doubt many other factors at work. Citing just one: the decline in religious affiliation probably on balance has led to a lessening of a sense of duty to work hard, to try to strive. [3]SOURCE

Wow, Dr. Richard Vedder nailed it! There is a woeful vacuum in today's church pulpits of hard preaching like we used to hear a century ago. When's the last time that you heard any pastor preach against the sin of laziness?

Here are some negative character traits of the lazy person:

1. A lazy person throws food in the garbage because they didn't use it before it rotted. Proverbs 12:27, "The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious."
2. The way of a lazy person is painful like a thorny bush. Proverbs 15:19, "The way of the slothful man is as an hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous is made plain." [4]Pastor Harry Ironside exegetes this verse as:

   "Difficulties abound in the mind of the slothful man. His life seems surrounded by thorns. He has many excuses for not acting at once according to what he knows is right. The upright, learning his duty, presses on and finds his way made plain before him as he takes one step after another."

3. A lazy person is wasteful Proverbs 18:9, “He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster.”

4. Lazy people do without. Proverbs 19:15, “Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger.” That is of course, unless you receive welfare that somebody else labored to provide for you. If you succeed without sacrificing, it is only because someone else sacrificed without succeeding.

5. A lazy person is their own worst enemy. Proverbs 21:25, “The desire of the slothful killeth him; for his hands refuse to labour.”

6. Lazy people make excuses. Proverbs 22:13, “The slothful man saith, There is a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets.”

7. A lazy person is irresponsible.

   Proverbs 24:30-31, “I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding; And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down.”

8. A lazy person sleeps way too much. Proverbs 26:14, “As the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed.”

As the old wise adage says: If the shoe fits, wear it!

7.2.14 The Absurdity Of Claiming To Be An Atheist (2026-02-14 08:40)

Psalms 14:1-3, “The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good. The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God. They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one."

Legendary singer Billy Joel is a professed atheist...

> "I gradually decided that just because I didn't have or couldn't find the ultimate answer didn't mean I was going to buy the religious fairytale. As an atheist you have to rationalize things." —Billy Joel

On page 139 of his book, "GOD IN HISTORY and GOD IN SCIENCE," Pastor John Cumming makes a brilliant observation concerning professed atheists...

> Atheism is folly as much as wickedness. But suffer me, before I show this, to say, that it is absolutely impossible that any man can be an atheist, in the strict sense of that word. All that any can say is this: "No spot that I have searched does reveal a God; every organization I have examined does not show traces of wisdom, goodness, and design:" but that individual cannot say; "There is no God;" because he cannot say, "I have soared to the farthest star, I have descended to the deepest mines, I have swept all space, and searched all time, and in the realms of infinite space I have not detected any traces of a God." In other words, to be able to say, "There is no God," you must yourself assume to be God, which is a reductio ad absurdum, an utter and a complete absurdity.
> SOURCE: "GOD IN HISTORY and GOD IN SCIENCE," p. 139; by Rev. John Cumming, D.D.; New York: Published by Carlton & Lanahan; 200 Mulberry-Street; 1868

What a brilliant observation. How can any man claim to be an atheist unless he has traveled to the farthest place in the universe? The nearest star to the earth (after our own sun) is [2]Alpha Centauri, which is 4.25 light-years away (about 25,000,000,000,000 miles away!). This is just one star, being the closest to earth besides our own sun which is 93,000,000,000 miles away.

My friend, the James Webb Telescope launched by NASA in 2021 has already discovered more stars than humanity ever thought possible! Whereas the Hubble Space Telescope launched by NASA in 1990 had discovered 200,000,000,000 stars in the observable universe, the new improved James Webb Telescope has so far found 2,000,000,000,000 galaxies! That's TWO TRILLION GALAXIES! Not stars, galaxies!!!

The inspired Word of God teaches that God made the stars. I love how Genesis 1:16 is written... "HE MADE THE STARS ALSO." It's like the Bible is saying, "Oh, by the way, God also made all the stars!" Genesis 1:16, "And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also." God is amazing, Who knows the exact number of stars that He created, and he calls them each by their own name. Amen! Psalms 147:4, "He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names." I have just briefly discussed the stars.

The world that exists under a microscope is even more amazing, complex and a mystery to mankind. How can anyone reasonably claim to be an atheist when man hasn't even discovered what's in 90 % of the earth's oceans? Pastor John Cumming is so right... For anyone to say, "There is no God!," you must yourself assume to be God! No human being has traveled to the ends of the universe. In fact, no human being has ever even left the Milky Way Solar System. Psalms 145:3, "Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable."

John Cumming was a Scottish minister who was well-known for his anti-Catholic writings and preaching. Amen for that! One of the biggest evidences of apostasy in the United States today is that hardly any professed Christians, evangelicals and clergy criticize the damned Roman Catholic religion. Catholicism teaches sacramental salvation, which is a manmade teaching that goes totally contrary to the inspired Words of God in the Bible. Roman and Russian Orthodox Catholicism are of the Devil. The pope is not the vicar of Heaven, but of Hell. Mary was born by normal conception, did not remain a virgin, and died a sinner's death like all human beings. Only Jesus Christ was born of a virgin and lived a sinless life. Thank God that Pastor John Cumming exposed the Catholic church for what it is, of the Devil.

Wicked Atheist Men Place God On Trial

Hollywood pervert producer Woody Allen (born 1935) wickedly says...

> "If God exists, I hope he has a good excuse! —Producer Woody Allen Hollywood reprobate actor Robert De Niro (born 1943), who stars in the 2016 filthy movie "DIRTY GRANDPA," wickedly says...

> "If there is a God he has a lot to answer for."

It is not God Who has a lot to answer for Mr. De Niro, it is us sinful human beings!!! Ecclesiastes 12:14, “For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.” Romans 14:12, “So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.” Hebrews 4:13, “Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.”

I don’t condemn any man, for I am the biggest sinner that I know. Thankfully, my sins have been washed away by the blood of Jesus Christ, when I trusted Jesus Christ as my personal Savior at age 13, receiving His sacrifice on the cross for my sins, and believing that He resurrected from the dead three days later for my justification. I feel sorry for Woody Allen and Robert De Niro, who openly reject Jesus Christ and profess to be atheists. In effect, they have appointed themselves to be their own God.

We are all so very blessed by God. God gave us tastebuds to enjoy food, and a wondrous variety of delicious delicacies from which to choose. God gave us our eyes to see, and made the beautiful sunsets and flowers to behold. God gave us our ears to hear, and the lovely music to enjoy. God gives us our breath. Like King Belshazzar, Robert De Niro does not glorify the God in whose hand his breath is...

> Daniel 5:22-23, "And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this; But hast lifted up thyself against the LORD of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified."

Every way of a man's life is only possible because of God's blessings and power. If it weren't for our omnipotent God, our human heart could not pump blood 100,000 times each and every day of our life!!! How dare De Niro arrogantly say that, "if there is a God he has a lot to answer for." We'll see about that. God owes De Niro NOTHING!

Jesus called the two men who walked with Him on the road to Emmaus, "FOOLS," because they were SLOW TO BELIEVE THE WORD OF GOD. Luke 24:25, "Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken." Are you a fool? Only a fool questions the existence of God in view of the incredible unsearchable universe around us. Mankind has no idea how many galaxies exist in the universe. Man has no idea how big the universe really is, nor how old it is, all scientists can do is guess.

Since the universe is expanding (which fact was discovered in 1923 by astronomer Edwin Hubble), scientists assume that the universe must have begun with a "big bang" and then expanded. But this is an unproven theory at best, not scientific fact!

New species of life are continually being discovered in the depths of the oceans and in the jungles. Humanity is still in its infancy of learning. It is Satan and wicked men who ruin the world, causing poverty and war; not God. The Lord is good to all! Psalms 145:9, "The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works."

Here's [5]some quotes by famous atheists . Again, some of the world's wealthiest celebrities have the stench of Hell on them, which is where they are going, blaspheming the very God Who is kind to them. Luke 6:35b, "for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil." You'll have to look long and hard to find an atheist farmer who spends long days toiling in the field; but amongst the spoils and splendors of the millionaires of ungodly Hollywood, atheists are dime-a-dozen!

Here are some quotes from very unwise wicked men...

> "By simple common sense I don't believe in God, in none." —Actor Charlie Chaplin

> "I have NEVER seen the slightest scientific proof of the religious theories of Heaven and Hell, of future life for individuals, or of a personal God." —Inventor Thomas Edison
>
> "My belief system is that when this is over, you don't look down from Heaven and wait for your loved ones to join you... your molecules continue and in due time become something else." —Actor William Shatner
>
> "Even though I don't personally believe in the Lord, I try to behave as though He was watching." —Actor Christopher Reeve
>
> "We are each free to believe what we want and it is my view that the simplest explanation is there is no God. No one created the universe and no one directs our fate. This leads me to a profound realization. There is probably no heaven, and no afterlife either. We have this one life to appreciate the grand design of the universe, and for that, I am extremely grateful." —Physicist Stephen Hawking, a quote from a 2011 Discover Channel episode titled, "[6]CURIOSITY" (S01 E01); "Stephen Hawking: There is no God. There is no Fate."
>
> "All thinking men are atheist." —Author Ernest Hemingway
> "And that's what I anticipate death will be: a totally unconscious void in which you float through eternity with no particular consciousness of anything." —Twilight Zone producer, Rod Serling (1924-1975)

We'll soon find out who was right! If the Bible is true (and I believe it certainly is 100 %), then all Christ-rejecting atheists will go to Hell. Sadly, Rod Serling (an atheist who produced The Twilight Zone series) is now burning in the torments and fires of Hell beneath. So also is Charlie Chaplin (atheist), Leonard Nimoy (Judaism), David "Bowie" Jones (Buddhist), Gene Roddenberry (atheist), and Steve Jobs (Buddhist). For any person to deny the deity of Jesus Christ effectively makes him or her an atheist, because Jesus is almighty God (Matthew 1:23; John 1:1-3,14; John 10:33; John 14:1; Revelation 1:8 - All references only to trustworthy King James Bible).

Communism Is Synonymous With Atheism

Communism is just the opposite of Christianity. It is the inevitable conclusion when a nation becomes Godless. Communism is caused by a vacuum created when we lose our faith in God. We don't need state support, if we have God-support. As we come away from our faith in God, then we turn and build ourselves a society, to offer us the same security that we used to get from God. So a person who has faith in God is completely opposite to Communism. A person who loses his faith, or has no faith in God, must of necessity be Communistic for his security. Democracy has never worked. Democracy will never work, and can never work, unless the religion of Jesus Christ is believed and honored. Godless nations must be Communistic. There is no other way.

Communism is nothing but humanism taken to its finality! Today's liberal universities teach that society is more important than the individual. This is unscriptural. In the Bible, Jesus left the 99 secure sheep to go seek that one lost sheep. America has been destroyed by prosperity. Humanism has corrupted our nation's ideals. The individual is no longer of any worth, which is why murderous abortion has been legal since 1973. It would be a wonderful blessing if we could have another Great Depression today, to restore character in America. We live in a spoiled rotten TV generation, where an estimated [7]40 % of our food in the United States goes into the garbage .

Tragically, because of our nation's decadence, wastefulness, ingratitude, indifference and Godlessness—crime and moral wickedness have flourished exponentially over the past 65 years since the television invaded U.S. homes. In 1946 only 6,000 American households owned a television, which soared to 22,000,000 TV sets by 1952. Consequently, prosperity has ruined the character of our citizens. It is more important that we be free than full. We have more abundance and blessings than ever in America today, yet we are about to go into financial, economic, political and social slavery.

What is Communism? It is building ourselves a union of people that come together to solve their own problems through government instead of faith in God. Communism means the government becomes our God. As of 2016, over 100 million Americans are receiving some type of government financial assistance. Isn't God supposed to provide our needs in Christ Jesus?

The Federal Reserve banking system is Communist, allowing the government to have Godlike power over our lives. One of the biggest problems in America over the past century has been the fraudulent Federal Reserve (or Fractional Reserve) banking system, which in 1913 allowed the banksters to print and lend out 10 times the amount of gold in reserve. Since the U.S. dollar was no longer linked directly to its equal value in grains of gold or silver, it became an arbitrary value system, that could easily be manipulated simply by controlling the amount of money put into circulation. By simply printing more money, the crooked banksters could cause inflation. More money in circulation drives down the value of a dollar (through the principle of supply and demand), which consequently forces businesses to raise prices to compensate for lost value in the U.S. dollar.

So by the banks simply printing more money into circulation, the end result is that a certain percentage of U.S. citizens cannot afford to pay their mortgages, and lose their homes. As you can see, the power acquired through the Fractional Reserve banking system gives the banks Godlike power to control people's lives. This fraudulent system would not exist today, which has destroyed countless millions of families and lives, if it were not for the betrayal of the American people by President Woodrow Wilson and thousands of other wicked conspirators within our own U.S. government. Evil can only triumph when good men remain idle and do nothing.

Thankfully, God will punish these wicked evildoers to the fullest degree (Isaiah 13:11; Proverbs 24:12; Matthew 12:36; Matthew 7:1-5; 1st Thessalonians 4:6; Ecclesiastes 12:14). Isaiah

13:11, “And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.” All the millionaire Wall Street scum CEO’s with their arrogant faces won’t be smirking when the fires of Hell engulf them forever!!!

As a pastor loses his faith, he becomes dependent upon a society. As a Christian loses his faith, he becomes dependent upon a society. As a church loses its faith, it becomes dependent upon a society. As a nation loses her faith in God, she has to start joining together with other nations, dependent upon man instead of God. As our nation loses faith in almighty God and His Word, to that same degree we are seeing a thug police state rise up around us.

U.S. President John Adams (1735-1826) said 200 years ago...

> “We have not government armed with power capable of contending with human passions unbridled by morality and religion. Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.”

In Ben Franklin's day, he said that "Lighthouses are more helpful than churches." America wasn't always blessed to have great churches. Praise God for the rise of fundamental Bible-believing churches, which swept across America during the 20th century!!! Unfortunately, although the Independent Fundamentalist Baptist Church movement was still growing strong by leaps-and-bounds during the 1970's, it has virtually died out today in 2016.

It's almost impossible to find churches today who truly stand for old-fashioned Biblical Christianity anymore. Very few churches operate a Bus Ministry to reach the community these days. Very few churches expose the sinister New World Order, or preach against the blatant injustices and crimes of government. [9]ROMANS 13 (by Pastor Chuck Baldwin). It's hard to find a church today that goes door-to-door soul-winning, as they did in the Bible (Acts 20:20). The pulpit is responsible for the mess in America today! We need a whole new breed of Christians and preachers!!!

The Cruel Absurdity Of Atheism And Communism

It is absurd for anyone to claim to be an atheist, when no man has ever left our solar system. It is absurd for anyone to claim to be an atheist, when no man has ever traveled through all time and space. It is absurd for anyone to claim to be an atheist, when no man has ever successfully explained the origin of the universe without God.

And it is equally as absurd for anyone to think that a government and society devoid of faith in God can produce happy, thriving, prosperous, law-abiding citizens. Just as Americans are dwindling in their faith in the holy God of the inspired Bible, so also are they dwindling in prosperity. Every nation in history that obeyed God's Word achieved some degree of prosperity and happiness; whereas atheist Communist societies, like China under Mao, and Russia under Stalin, afflicted and abused its people miserably (and untold tens-of-millions died a cruel death).

> "Believing everybody is dangerous, but believing nobody is more dangerous." —U.S. President Abraham Lincoln Atheism and Communism have overtaken America! Although most people would deny being an atheist, they've lost their faith in God and are looking to the government to take care of them. Churches are being persecuted for going door-to-door soul-winning, [10]being threatened by police with arrest and imprisonment . This is the work of the Devil.

Jesus foretold that the time would come when the world will kill Christians, thinking they're doing God a favor. John 16:2, "They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service." These times have already come during the early Roman Empire, the inquisition, the Dark Ages, and are happening in numerous parts of the world today. As the New World Order develops, Christians will be martyred for their faith. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

[11] JESUS CAME TO SAVE SINNERS!!!

"And Such Were Some Of You;

...But Ye Are Washed" —1st Corinthians 6:11

7.2.15 Redemption Was Not Finished On The Cross (2026-02-15 06:19)

John 19:28-30, “After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst. Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.”

Scripturally, redemption was not truly "finished" until Jesus’ literal physical liquid blood was sprinkled upon the heavenly Mercy Seat. In the Old Testament it wasn’t enough at Passover to merely kill the lamb, the slain lamb’s blood needed to be APPLIED to the doorposts and lintel (a horizontal beam used as a finishing piece over a door or window) of each home for the Lord to pass over that home, to spare the firstborn. Likewise, the Old Testament ceremonial laws for the Jews were a “SHADOW OF GOOD THINGS TO COME” (Hebrews 10:1b) of future things to come. Jesus is “the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world” (John 1:29b).

When Jesus died and resurrected three days later, He said to Mary Magdalene, “ Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father ” (John 20:17b). The Devil’s modern corrupt Bible revisions all tamper and change this passage to read, "Do not hold onto me," which implies that she had already touched Him. But if she had touched Jesus, the blood sacrifice would have been corrupted. It wasn’t until Jesus returned from Heaven that he invited the Apostle Thomas (who doubted) to touch

His scars in His hands and feet (John 20:27).

In John 19:30, everybody fails to read the preceding verses, which clears up the matter...

> John 19:28-30, “After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst. Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said,It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.”

It wasn’t until Jesus saw that all of the Old Testament Messianic prophecies concerning Himself were fulfilled that He uttered the words, “I thirst.” When Christ uttered those two words “I thirst” and received the vinegar, all prophecies had been fulfilled, so that Christ could say, “It is finished.” We know that the Gospel could not have been finished, because Jesus hadn’t even died yet, let alone been buried and resurrected yet. So how could redemption have been finished? Jesus was speaking about fulfilled prophecy, and not salvation.

Redemption was not ultimately finished until Jesus’ precious blood was sprinkled upon the Mercy Seat in Heaven (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24). Pastor John MacArthur wickedly (in his Bible commentary) teaches that "blood" in Hebrews 9:12 means "death." If God meant death then He would have said "death," but He said "blood." Mr. MacArthur (1939-2025) heretically taught that we are saved by Jesus' outpouring of blood on Calvary's cross, and not by His blood being applied in Heaven. MacArthur is a liar!

I was listening to Alexander Scourby (1913-1985) read from Hebrews today. Hebrews 9:12, "Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us." Only a darn fool would tamper with this Bible passage to render it mute. Just as the lamb's blood needed to be applied to the home's doorposts, so also did Jesus' blood have to be applied in Heaven in the presence of the Father on our behalf (Hebrews 9:24).

> Exodus 12:13, "And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt."

The death angel was looking for the blood, not the dead lamb. Jesus' death on the cross wasn't enough, it was absolutely necessary and imperative that the blood be applied in Heaven.

7.2.16 God Bless Pastor Bruce Mejia For Fighting Against Sin (2026-02-16 05:00)

Proverbs 29:27, “An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.”

I thank God for fiery preachers who aren’t afraid to preach the truth. Pastor Bruce Mejia is doing a great soulwinning work for God. He doesn’t hide behind closed doors like Pensacola Christian College cult and their damned of God Campus Church, raking in $175,000,000 each year for preaching four different plans of salvation (Galatians 1:6-9).

[1]Pastor Bruce Mejia Preaches The Truth

THE TRUTH is only hate to those who HATE the truth!

Preaching THE TRUTH that God categorizes queers with rapists, murderers and bestiality is biblical. The wicked world will never agree with the inspired Holy Bible nor the fundamentalist Bible preacher. Proverbs 29:27, “An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.” Shame on today’s dead neo-evangelical churches who don’t preach against sin and wickedness!

Furthermore, it is 100 % biblical that women should stay at home as homemakers, and not work in the workplace. 1st Timothy 5:14-15, “

I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. For some are already turned aside after Satan.”

Psychologists are finally admitting what Bible preachers have been preaching all along...

> “For some, ’knowing you’re keeping it a secret not just from your partner, but in this case, also your colleagues, can increase excitement around the situation.’ There are also more straightforward factors at play, like the sheer convenience of being around this person so often. ’It’s called the proximity effect,’ Dr. Nickerson explains. ’We’re drawn to those we see more often, which is why that familiarity and comfort can quickly grow into something more intimate.’ Add to that the built-in camaraderie of shared stress over upcoming deadlines, say, and day-to-day triumphs of a project gone well—and you’ve got a ’team’ bond that can mimic true romantic closeness.” [2]https://www.self.com/story/why-workplace-affairs-are-common

Women belong at home, not pursuing careers! That is not hate preaching, it’s the truth of God’s Word and common sense! In 1st Peter 3:7 the Bible calls women “ the weaker vessel, ” and females being in the workplace just encourages adultery and divorce. Eve was deceived, but not Adam. It is a biblical principle that women are more prone to Satanic deception than men. Women are safe at home with their own husband.

I don’t blame Pastor Bruce Mejia for refusing to speak with a lynch mob of hateful ungodly reprobates They don’t want to talk, they want to try to force him to stop preaching THE TRUTH. It just ain’t gonna happen! Proverbs 29:9, “ If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.”

In the New Testament book of Acts, we read about numerous incidents where the apostles were run out of town by wicked sinners. Just like Pastor Mejia, ungodly sinners demanded that Jesus’ disciples leave their city. Acts 16:39,

“

And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

” Woe be unto the wicked!

Pastor Mejia has a right, both legally and biblically, to preach his religious convictions. If local residents don’t like it, then they don’t have to attend his First Works Baptist Church in El Monte, California. The people attacking him and his ministry are minding his business instead of their own, angry over things that don’t concern them.

We thankfully live in a free country where everyone has the God-given freedom and legally outlined rights to speak their opinion. A truly “free” society is one in which it is safe to be unpopular. Why is it that ungodly sodomites can push, assert and even force their ungodly filth in the government, courts and schools; but then the faithful fundamentalist Bible preacher is supposed to be forbidden to preach his views? When that tragic day comes, the United States will be doomed to destruction!

There is nothing new under the sun. If El Monte’s ungodly reprobate residents could get away with it, they’d stone Pastor Mejia like they did Stephen in the Bible. Acts 7:57-58,

“

Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord,

And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man’s feet, whose name was Saul.

The reason why Pastor Mejia is not interested in speaking with mediators and some angry residents is simply because there is nothing to talk about. Proverbs 29:27, “An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.” 2nd Corinthians 6:14-17 teaches that there is no common ground between the righteous and the wicked.

THE TRUTH is only hate to those who HATE the truth!

7.2.17 To Find The Truth In Secular Matters Just Follow The Money (2026-02-17 05:32)

Proverbs 11:24, " There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty. "

I humbly think the present dire situation with Iran is much more about appeasing Israel than protecting the innocent people in Iran.

I humbly believe the same holds true concerning the Danish territory of Greenland. I think President Trump and company are far more interested in acquiring Greenland's trillions of dollars in natural resources, than protecting America from China and Russia.

Since President Trump is stopping the illegal drug trade which has been facilitated and sanctioned by the corrupt CIA and Wall Street institutions for the past half century in America to finance the New World Order, [1]they need a new cash cow. Just between Venezuela's and Greenland's vast mineral and oil resources, the Globalists will tap into an additional estimated $22 trillion.

To find the truth, just follow the money.

On a different disturbing note, [2]Congress has stolen trillions of dollars from American's social security. There seems to be no end to our leader's reckless spending habits.

Social Security is not very secure! The problem is that in the United States there are presently 2.8 workers for every social security recipient, and that ratio is narrowing so that there simply won't be enough money in the near future. In lieu of the 66,400,000 abortions since 1972, there is a massive shortage of workers to support the tens of millions of retiring Baby Boomers. By murdering their own offspring, Americans have shot themselves in the foot.

> Proverbs 22:16, "He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches, and he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want."

Although not technically "socialism," these social welfare programs are simply not sustainable ultimately. It was never the purpose of any government to provide for it's people's needs. The original intent of government was to PROTECT our person, freedom and property. That was it. Yeah, social security is nice, if it works, but it doesn't in the long run. Social Security is facing financial challenges today, with projections indicating that it may only be able to pay about 77 % of benefits starting in 2033 if no changes are made. Recipients can expect to see additional future reductions in payments. Somebody's got to pay the bills.

"The real truth of the matter is, as you and I know, that a financial element in the large centers has owned the government ever since the days of Andrew Jackson."
—President Franklin D. Roosevelt

7.2.18 The Sin Of Ignoring And Shunning God Our Creator (2026-02-18 08:35)

Romans 1:21-22, " For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools.

1st Corinthians 1:18-21, "

For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.

For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

According to Britannica’s article, “

How Was The Universe Created?

> The most widely accepted explanation for the origin of the universe is the big-bang theory, which proposes that the universe began approximately 13.8 billion years ago in an extremely hot, dense state. This initial state was not confined to a single point in space but was the state of space itself at the moment the universe began.
>
> As the universe rapidly expanded, it also cooled, allowing subatomic particles to form. Within minutes, nuclear reactions produced the first light elements, primarily hydrogen and helium, which remain the most abundant elements in the universe today.
>
> As expansion and cooling continued, conditions became suitable for the formation of atoms. These atoms gradually clumped together under the influence of gravity, eventually giving rise to the first stars and galaxies a few hundred million years after the initial expansion. The emergence of these structures marked the beginning of what we recognize as the universe today—filled with stars, planets, galaxies, and other celestial bodies. The expansion of the universe is still ongoing, shaping the cosmos and deepening our understanding of its origins.
>
> SOURCE: [1]https://www.britannica.com/science/How-Was-the-Universe-Create d

Blasphemy! Shame on anyone who attempts to explain how the universe was created without acknowledging God our Creator. …

> “There has always been a devilish supernaturalism in the world, running alongside of the supernaturalism of divine grace and salvation.” —Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980), “Revelation,” p. 211

Unless you specifically include the word “God” in your web search, you won’t be directed to any Christian webpages. Clearly, there is a conspiracy against God. Romans 1:28, “ And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient.

What Saith The Scripture?

God created all things!

>
> In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.
> **”

Genesis 1:16, " And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also."

Genesis 2:4, "

These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens.

Isaiah 45:12, "

I have made the earth, and created man upon it*: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded.

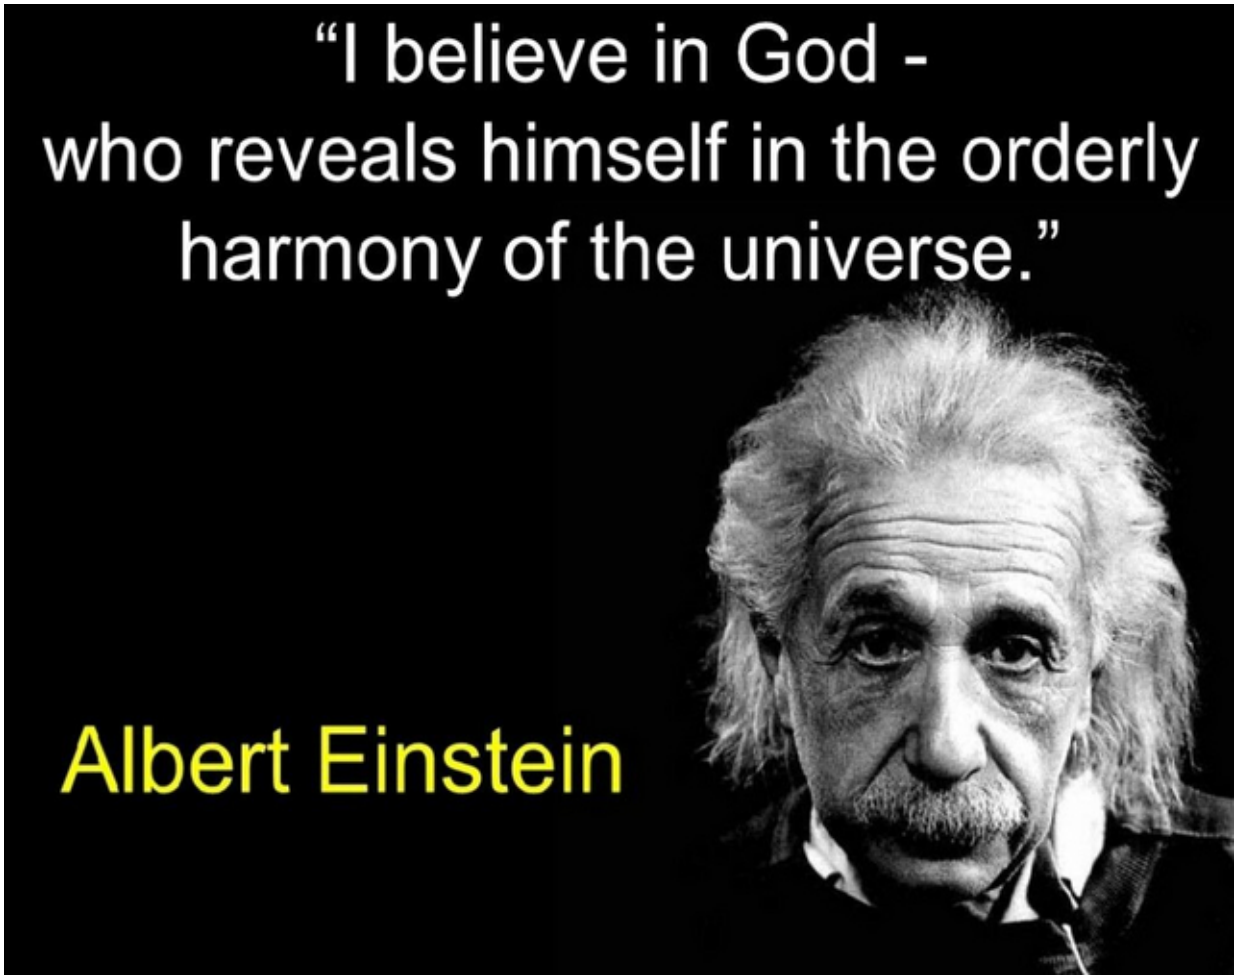
John 1:1-3, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made."

2nd Peter 3:3-7, "Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,



And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old*, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:

Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men."

A Bible believer changes his beliefs to match the words of the Bible. The earth did not evolve as the result of a big bang! God made the earth. When the impressionable minds of children are taught the blatant lie they evolved from stardust and animals, they will behave as animals. Today's morally bankrupt American adults are yesterday's students who were indoctrinated with the fraud of evolution. The workers of iniquity of the last days will be among the worst sinners of history. In recent years in the United States, we've heard relentless disturbing stories in the daily news about [2]criminal youths smashing into stores with sledge hammers, cars and all manner of weapons, stealing billions of dollars in merchandise.

Jesus Christ (an equal member of the Godhead) created all things according to John 1:3. That is what I choose to believe. I am as narrow-minded as the inspired King James Bible.

7.2.19 Who Is On The LORD’s Side? (2026-02-19 18:30)

Exodus 32:22-27, “And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord wax hot: thou knowest the people, that they are set on mischief.

For they said unto me, Make us gods, which shall go before us: for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

And I said unto them, Whosoever hath any gold, let them break it off. So they gave it me: then I cast it into the fire, and there came out this calf.

And when Moses saw that the people were naked; (for Aaron had made them naked unto their shame among their enemies:)

Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on the LORD’s side? let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him.

And he said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour.

I am often reminded of this passage of Scripture. We read in Romans 15:4, "

For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

" Dear friend, God gave us His Word to give us hope and comfort through the promises of the inspired Scriptures. As we read the many biographies of God's children throughout centuries past in the Old Testament, and they wicked alike, we are given a privileged look at their lives before, during and after their time on earth, and how those who walked by faith in Christ came forth of them all.

By the way, that is what the Scripture means in Isaiah 28:16, Romans 9:33 and Romans 10:11,

"For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed." In other words, you will never regret putting your trust in Jesus Christ.

In our text passage of Scripture, Aaron (Moses' blood brother) had succumbed to the Hebrew's request for him to make unto them idols (false gods). Aaron was very carnal and foolish to give into their wicked desires. Aaron wickedly melted a golden-calf for the people and they sinfully worshipped it. When Joshua heard the rock music in the camp, he called it the sound of war. When Moses came down from the mountain with the Ten Commandments, he saw the people butt-naked, dancing shamefully around a golden calf. Moses was a godly man and he became very angry.

Aaron was such a liar! When his brother Moses asked him what wickedness he had done, Aaron said: " Whosoever hath any gold, let them break it off. So they gave it me: then I cast it into the fire, and there came out this calf. " Right! Aaron said he tossed all their golden jewelry into the fire and magically a golden calf just came out. Are you buying that? Moses sure didn't! Golden calves don't just suddenly form and appear, someone shaped and made it that way on purpose to worship it instead of their Creator and eternal Deliverer, God.

I love what Moses said to the people in Exodus 32:26b, " Who is on the LORD's side? let him come unto me. " I humbly believe this is where Joshua found the inspiration to say to the Hebrew people in Joshua 24:15, "

And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD. " Whose side are you on dear reader?

There are tens of millions of worldly Christians in this world, few of which attend church regularly, but if given an ultimatum to choose sides they would instantly come over to the LORD's side, because they are saved. I believe that with all my heart. Many Christian women today wear their ungodly pants in public, behaving like the wicked Jews who gleefully danced naked around the camp in Moses' absence, but they haven't sunk as far spiritually to worship the golden calf. Many Christian men look at dirty computer images that no human eye should ever see, except to whom one is legally married. The sad truth is that most Christians today are already half way to the worldly camp that shocked Moses.

I am on the LORD's side! I settled that a very long, long, time ago in my Christian life. I have never claimed to be a good Christian. I do not think I am. But God knows I work day and night on my website ministry because I love Jesus, my God, Lord, Friend and Savior. There is a "cause," as David asked his brother in 1st Samuel 17:29. I work hard while I still can. John 9:4, "I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work." We are all living in borrowed time from God, our faithful and good Creator.

Jesus is precious!!!

7.2.20 Are You A Godly Wife Or A Spoiled Brat? (2026-02-21 02:30)

Ephesians 5:22, "Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

The inspired Word of God teaches that a wife is to submit (obey) her own husband as if he were Jesus Christ. How many women today ascribe to this belief? I dare say 1 in 10,000. In the Old Testament, King Solomon said that out of 1,000 women (likely his 700 wives and 300 concubines), he could not find even one woman that feared God. Ecclesiastes 7:28, " Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found."

It doesn't surprise me that Solomon couldn't find a female among his haram that feared God, because his worldly type of lifestyle attracted worldly women. I just heard in the news that Sylvester Stallone's third wife has also filed for divorce after 25 years of marriage. She wants his money and she's going to get it! The poor guy married a heathen woman.

Likewise, Actor Robin Williams (1951-2014) commit suicide in 2014. His first two wives divorced him, parasiting off his wealth, using the ungodly courts to forcefully take away hundreds of millions of dollars that he had worked hard to earn. Like Stallone, Robin married heathen women. If Solomon's wives could have gotten away with it, no doubt they would have cleaned him out, taking all his wealth with them. When the Lord Jesus Christ taught His disciples about marriage, adultery, divorce and remarriage, they were horrified and concluded that it's best not to get married. Matthew 19:10, "

His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

" They went MGTOW!

In any marriage, you are uniting two sinners. There will be problems, tension and anger at times, with very rare exceptions. I once heard a Christian man testify that in 10 years of marriage he and his wife had never exchanged any negative words nor fought. Either he is a bad liar, or else one or both of them kept their hurt feelings to themselves, because what he said is very strange and abnormal.

I know a Christian couple who are having marital troubles. The wife became angry at her husband. She is lazy and refuses to pick up after herself. She lets food in the refrigerator rot, which has to be tossed into the garbage. I'm talking green moldy hotdogs! She is a bad wife! She is spoiled rotten! In her anger one day she abandoned her husband to run to a local shelter, which she has often done in the past. She falsely accuses him of being abusive, but the truth is that she doesn't like being corrected for not being responsible as an adult. She had worked outside the home in previous years, but was fired from both jobs for LAZINESS! Whereas she is an abusive wife, she gaslights her poor husband, blaming him instead.

That wicked wife after one week in the shelter started her own new bank account, so she could keep her own money away from her husband. She didn't ask her husband for permission to do that. She applied for a job. She didn't ask for her husband's permission to do that either. She started looking for a local apartment to live in. What's that poor husband to do? When her despondent husband (a nervous wreck by now) kindly reminded her that she is his lawful wife, and biblically he has authority over her, she angrily said:

I don't need your permission!

" What saith the Scripture?

Ephesians 5:22, "Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

" Oh, what a foolish woman! She has a sinful loser's attitude. ...

> Proverbs 14:1-3, "Every wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands. He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD: but he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him. In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them."

I believe these three Bible verses go together. A wife who disobeys and works against her husband does not fear the LORD. She is rebellious! She is a bad wife! She is a spoiled brat! Proverbs 14:3a,

“In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride…”

Any wicked wife who starts her own bank account, applies for a job and secures an apartment without her husband’s permission is blaspheming the inspired Word of God.

Titus 2:4-5, “That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

” Did you read that… KEEPERS AT HOME!

Did you read that… GOOD!

Did you read that… OBEDIENT TO THEIR OWN HUSBANDS!

In deteriorated United States today women have become angry, rebellious and empowered by the ungodly courts. It is almost impossible today for a single guy to find a Christian wife who truly walks in the Spirit, so that **“

The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil

(Proverbs 31:11). If you get married nowadays, there is a high risk that in time your wicked wife will make you a victim through the courts and you will regret that you ever decided to get married. All a poor single guy can do is pray for God to give him wisdom how to choose a loyal wife, but even then people often change for the worse.

The old adage is very true: What you see is what you get! If the person you are considering marrying has some red flags, multiply those bad character traits by TEN after you’re married. You can trust me on this advice! Never even date someone who has a hot temper. Never date a flirt. Never date someone who consumes booze or illegal drugs. Since you always marry somebody that you know, you should NEVER date someone whom you wouldn’t marry. That’s some of the best practical advice you’ll ever hear my friend.

Yes, dear wife, whomever you may be, God does require for you to obtain your husband’s permission to make major life’s decisions. And I’ll go a step further, which may harelip some of you feminists, your lawful husband does have a biblical right to control who your friends are, if he allows you to have friends at all. If you disagree with that, then you do NOT have a biblical mindset toward marriage. Your husband does have a right to insist that you don’t talk to your meddling mother. Meddling mother-in-laws are notorious for ruining marriages!

Your husband has every God-given biblical right to ask where you are going, what you will be doing, who you will be meeting, and when you will be returning, and he has the authority to insist that you stay home instead. If you have a problem with that, then you are a rebel. Proverbs 14:2, “He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD: but he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him.” Woe unto the rebellious wife who continually causes her husband grief of soul, inexplicable emotional pain, financial loss and misery. The only thing worse than not being married is being married and not wanting to be married. It’s much better to wait long than marry wrong! We are living in a generation that does not look up to God. Proverbs 30:13, “ There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up. ”

I realize that less than 1 % of my blog readers will likely agree with the truths I have taught in this article, but this is 100 % biblical. No one can escape life’s responsibilities. When you don’t pull your weight at work, you get fired. When a lazy wife doesn’t pull her weight at home, her husband cannot fire her. All the poor fella can do is verbally correct her. But if she has some spiritual and/or mental issues that compel her to get upset, go lunatic and with blood-curdling screaming explode in anger toward her husband (while he’s nowhere near her), she is wrong. Woe unto the foolish woman who punishes her husband by using her vocal cords to scream as a weapon against him, for no other reason than she doesn’t want to be scolded for her laziness. That dear reader is what you call a “ spoiled brat

I feel so sorry for the fella I shared with you in this blog. He’s a good and responsible guy with a caring heart, but he married a lazy woman with an unscriptural attitude toward her husband’s authority. She does what she wants, how she wants, when she wants, and he dare not try to tell her different, lest she make his life a living hell on earth. Woe unto that ungodly wife when she answers to God sin eternity at the Judgment Seat of Christ. A godly wife obeys her man, period. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) is absolutely right, who said that if your husband tells you to stay home from church with him, YOU STAY HOME and don’t complain!

By the way, females wearing pants, Spandex, miniskirts and other immodest clothing has nothing to do with a wife’s heart toward her husband. I know Christian women who wear pants, but are obedient toward their husband. And I know Christian women who would never wear anything but long dresses who are rebellious brats, a constant burden to their husband. One thing has nothing to do with the other. You cannot always judge a book by its cover.

We need a revival in the United States of wifely submission to husbands. And if you’re a feminist-minded female who’s right now thinking: “Well what about my husband?,” you’re the rebellious brat to whom I am preaching the inspired Holy Bible. GET RIGHT WITH GOD!!!

7.2.21 Reasons Why You Shouldn't Observe The Heathen Religious Practices Of Ash Wednesday And Lent (2026-02-22 05:30)

Matthew 23:23-27, "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone. Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess. Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness."

Because the Old Testament Jewish priests (for religious purposes) used ash in The Temple for worship, and later by Judaism and the Pharisees, it would be both relevant and timely (and in light of the cult of Roman Catholicism) to critically examine these heathen rituals.

Here are reasons why it is wrong to observe Ash Wednesday and Lent:

1. Ash Wednesday (like Infant Baptism) was derived from and copied from pagan Baal Worship.
2. Unlike Communion, it is found nowhere in Scripture nor commanded for the Church.
3. It is the tradition of man versus the teachings of Christ and His Apostles.
4. It disobeys Christ's command that fasting should be personal and private, not a public show and a parade.
5. The "T" shape of ashes on the forehead is historically not the Cross, "T" as in [1]Tamuz, though most believe it is the Cross. [2]Learn the true pagan origins of Ash Wednesday and Lent. Satan is a beautiful liar!
6. The Babylonians worshipped Tammuz and wore the "T" on their foreheads (made with ashes) when they invaded Israel during the Feast of Tammuz in June and July of 586 BC and destroyed the First Temple built by Solomon, which invasion began in 597 BC and didn't end until 582 BC (a total of 15 years). But the persecution didn't end then for the Jews, because they had to witness and be subjected to it for their entire captivity in Babylon which lasted for 70 years, as prophesied by the prophet Jeremiah (2nd Chronicles 36:21; Jeremiah 25:11, 29:10). So, the Jews would have witnessed this billboard of ashes on Babylonian foreheads for almost a century.

In the Ancient Babylonian religion, the evergreen tree symbolized new life springing from a dead stump, and represented the resurrected god of Tammuz. So, no matter what the shape of the ash on the forehead, it was clear to the Jews what it represented; and sadly, many Jews were drawn into this religious rite, and it is the very reason God allowed Babylon to invade Israel and deport the Jews in judgment, clearly revealed in Scripture. However, the Roman's Latin language word for Tammuz is "

Thammuz.

So, it is perfectly understandable why they would use a for their Ash Wednesday. But its meaning and foundation is clearly Babylonian.

Old Testament Versus New Testament Use Of Ashes

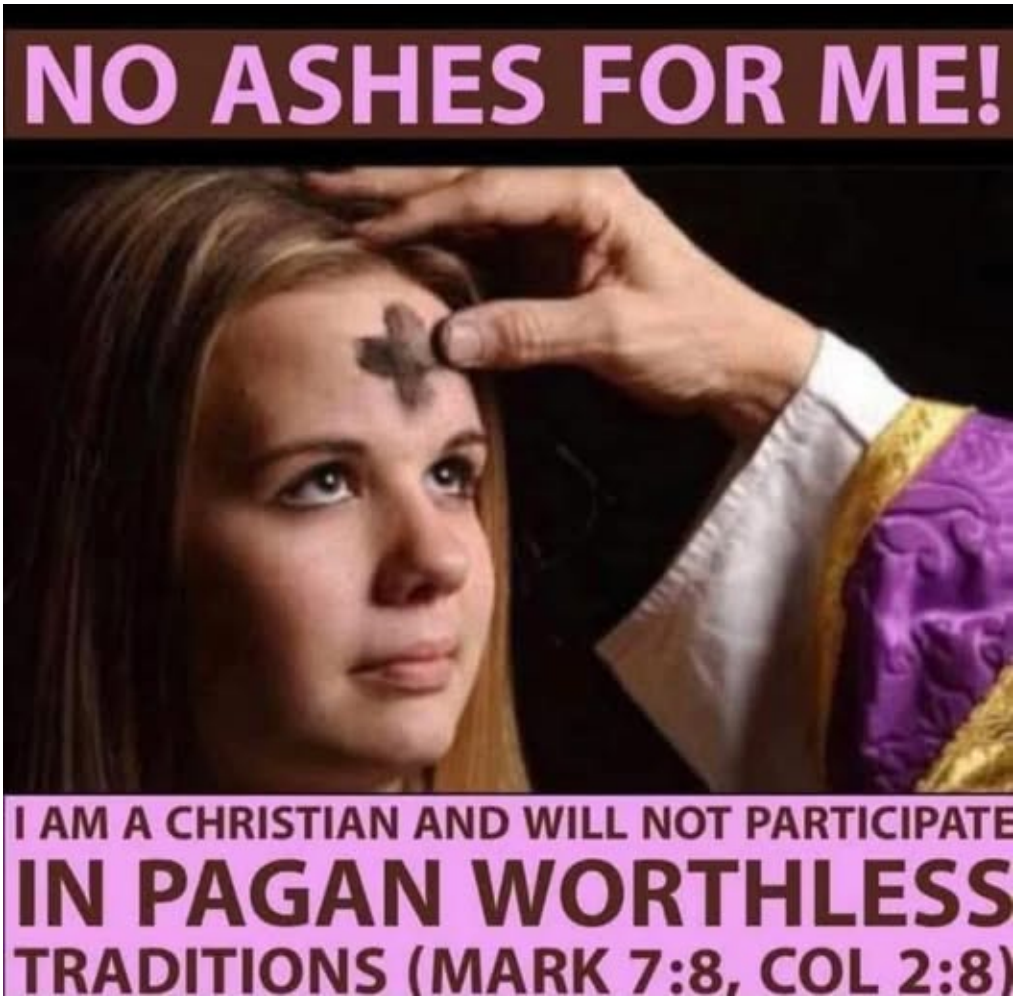
Hebrews 9:13-14, "For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh: How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?"

Let's examine the preceding Scripture passage:



1. Note that ashes do nothing for the soul, no matter where you put them on the body.
2. In order to produce ashes, you have to burn the red heifer's body completely until it becomes ashes, after it has been slain in sacrifice. Jesus was the Perfect Sacrifice, the Lamb of God slain for the sins of the whole world (John 1:29; 1st John 2:2). But here's the problem: Yes, like heifers and lambs, Jesus was slain. But Jesus was never burned to produce ashes and not a single bone in his body was broken. So, it is impossible and farcical (extravagantly humorous) to use literal ashes on your forehead to symbolize Jesus! Yes, ashes symbolize purification, but purification of Christians is only made possible through faith in Christ's shed Perfect Blood applied to the heavenly Mercy Seat (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24).
3. Catholics only fast for 2 of the 40 Days of Lent. Jesus fasted for the entire 40 Days in the Wilderness.
4. Jesus was tempted by Satan during the 40 Days. Where are any of the appearances of Satan to Catholics for the past millennium and a half?
5. Ashes are supposedly used for cleansing. But Scripture says in 1st John 1:9, "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." So, do ashes have anything to do with confessing our sins? No. And that confession is to God above, not a mortal Catholic priest!
6. "Fat Tuesday" reminds me of the Apostle Paul's declarations about the Cretans in Titus, who were gluttons. And the Philippians, "whose God is their belly" and "their end is destruction." So, this prelude alone would disqualify "Ash Wednesday" and "Lent" before the LORD!
7. If Jesus had fasted 40 days before his Crucifixion, there would have been no Last Supper! There is no biblical or historical evidence that Jesus did any of these things 40 Days prior to his Crucifixion.
8. The ashes of a red heifer remained ashes and were never resurrected!
9. Ash Wednesday and Lent are so full of confusion, conflating events and contradictions. And you know who the author of confusion is, Satan (1st Corinthians 14:33).
10. The countdown to Good Friday or Resurrection Day in Lent isn't 40 sequential days in Lent, but 43-44 days to Good Friday, which ends in 46 days on Saturday, the day before Resurrection Day. And this excludes Sundays and Resurrection Day, without which we would all remain dead in our sinful trespasses! This isn't just fuzzy math, but numerology on steroids!

Dear reader, Ash Wednesday and Lent are pagan religious practices. These heathen rituals are an integral part of Roman And Orthodox Catholic worship, the biggest demonic religious cults on the planet. I encourage you to avoid these manmade rituals and instead "Search the scriptures" as Jesus commanded in John 5:39. Jeremiah 10:2a, "Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen..."

7.2.22 The Counsel Of The Ungodly (2026-02-23 12:17)

Psalms 1:1, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful."

THE COUNSEL OF THE UNGODLY surrounds us in American society. The further that our culture deviates from the Holy Bible, the more ungodly people's advice becomes.

Proverbs 21:30, " There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the LORD." Any advice that goes contrary to the Word of God is ungodly counsel. The inspired Word of God warns the child of God not to walk in the counsel of ungodly people. That is, do not seek nor heed their foolish heathen advice.

Spiritually Deadly Women's Shelters

I know a married Christian couple. The burdened husband has a troubled rebellious wife. Her wicked attitude is that she doesn't need his permission to make major life's decisions. She couldn't be more wrong Scripturally! The inspired Holy Bible commands all married women, "Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord" (Ephesians 5:22). That is a divine command. Literally, a wife is supposed to obey her husband as if he were God on earth. Unless your husband is asking you to do something immoral or illegal, you are biblically obligated to obey him. If he tells you to stay home from church, you stay home from church. That is godly counsel. We need a revival of respect for authority in America! All of the insurrection going on in Minnesota inspired by ANTIFA is Satanic! It is anarchy!

The same poor fella's wife is mentally unstable, emotionally fragile, prone to psychotic breaks and manic episodes of anger. One day she got angry at him, for jumping on her case for leaving her shoes and clothes on the kitchen floor for the dozenth time She is lazy and irresponsible.

In anger and defiance against her husband, she went to a local women's shelter for the first time. Within one week a wicked women working in the shelter had convinced the wife to file for divorce. Think about that! It's not like this was the wife's 10th time at the shelter.

For a complete stranger to encourage a frustrated wife to file for divorce, when you never met that person until just 5 days ago, you are of the Devil! That is the counsel of the ungodly! I am preaching on this topic because this has become a serious wicked problem across the United States today. The destructive evil influence of ungodly feminism has crept into our churches and Christian homes, like sewage flowing into a cesspool of iniquity. I cannot warn you enough ladies to always be on guard against ungodly advice from other females. Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life."

The rebellious wife told her husband over the phone that the female shelter counselor advised her: "God never intended for two people who fight continually to remain married." Dear reader, that is the Devil talking! God absolutely expects you to remain married, regardless of circumstances! You can leave if you feel in danger, but you cannot divorce! I triple-dog dare you to show me one passage in the inspired Holy Bible that permits divorce under any circumstances. You cannot. Divorce is always a sin. There are no valid grounds for divorce.

But wait, what about Matthew 19:9, "And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery"? Fornication is sex outside of marriage; adultery is sex if you are married and have sex with someone to whom you are not married. So, these two people are not legally married yet in Matthew 19:9. We see a perfect example of this in the situation when Joseph learned that his fiancée Mary was pregnant, and it wasn't his child. Joseph sought to privily (secretly) put her away (break off the engagement), without humiliating her.

I find it interesting that God didn't give Joseph a heads-up ahead of time. The LORD allowed Joseph to experience the inexplicable deep emotional pain and trauma of betrayal, knowing that his fiancée had cheated on him (so he thought). That is interesting. God tests our faith.

We live in an froward culture in this wicked generation. "Froward" means "a perversity or fraud."

If you are froward, God will show Himself unsavory toward you.

"Unsavory" means "morally offensive, not pleasing." God will not bless anyone who flagrantly lives in sin. We live in an ungodly generation that does not look up to God. There is no fear of God today.

For a wicked female counselor at a women's shelter to recommend to a frustrated wife (who she has only known for less than a week) that she needs to file for divorce is incredibly evil. To add insult to injury, the demonic shelter offered the wife a free apartment to live in for a few months during the divorce. So, they are not only encouraging her to divorce her Christian husband (who doesn't want the divorce), they are also enabling his rebellious wife financially to do so. I hate those damned of God shelters! I hope you do too friend. Psalms 1:1, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful."

Abortion Is Evil Premediated First-Degree Murder

Another example of the counsel of the ungodly is abortion industry.

Psalms 1:1, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in *the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful." There is never any justification for an abortion. If you give sinners an inch, they'll take a foot! If existing laws permit abortion to save the mother, dishonest liberal feminist-minded doctors will claim the mother's life was in danger to murder a child. It is [1]a fact that with today's modern advanced technology that abortions are no longer necessary to save a mother's life. Liberal pro-death losers will disagree, but they are wicked liars! There is no such thing as a situation in 2026 where to save a mother's life, her child's life must be robbed from them. Please DO NOT walk in the counsel of the ungodly!

Anyone who tries to convince you that it is okay for women to wear pants in public, drink booze, smoke cigarettes, get tattoos and other forms of immoral or potentially self-destructive behavior is giving you ungodly counsel. Learn to think for yourself, as you

Search the scriptures...

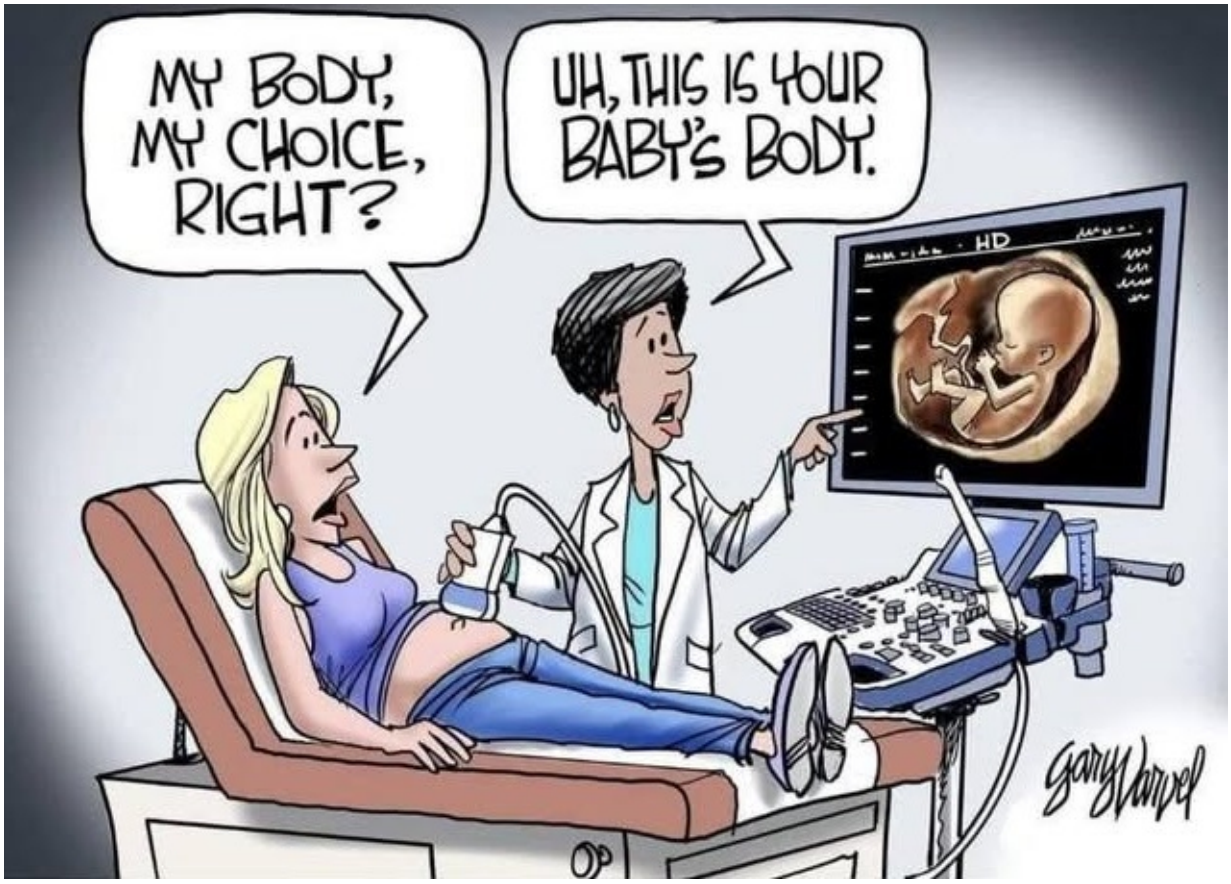
(John 5:39a).



The serpent (Satan) in the Garden of Eden lied to Eve. Satan ruined her life! The Devil started out by mentioning God. Genesis 3:1, "Yea, h ath God said...

" Wicked people who give deadly counsel will often talk about God, pretending to be spiritually minded, when they are really speaking doctrines of devils. Anybody who encourages you to file for divorce or have an abortion is an evil person!

Psalms 1:1, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in *the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful." Ungodly counsel lurks in every nook and cranny of society today, including in the churches. Please don't let some snake-tongued pastor's wife ruin your marriage.

You simply cannot trust 95 % of the bad advice which ungodly people will give you nowadays.

7.2.24 Jesus Lived His Life To Set An Example For Us To Follow (2026-02-25 10:34)

1st Peter 2:18-25, “

Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.

For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:

Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

I cherish this passage of Scripture. Jesus is the Shepherd and Bishop of our souls. The inspired Scripture teaches that Jesus lived His life to set an example of how we should live as Christians. When Jesus was mistreated, He did not seek revenge. When the dear Savior was falsely accused and unfairly beaten, He held His peace. We’ve all been mistreated in life. God doesn’t want us to retaliate with evil.

In 2013, I moved from Guam to Hilo, Hawaii. I had called ahead twice to ask a local chiropractor’s office if they could prescribe the opiate pain medications that I needed. The same woman employee on the phone assured me twice (in two separate phone calls a week apart) that the doctor absolutely could prescribe my medications. So, I moved 4,000 miles from Guam to Hilo, but when I met with the chiropractor he said he wouldn’t even know where to send me. The idiot woman on the phone blatantly lied to me.

When I confronted her kindly at the front office desk about her false information, she couldn’t have cared less. There were two woman working at the front desk. I kindly told her that even though she had horribly done me wrong, I forgave her. But I also told scolded her for lying to me, and told her that God sees and cares about our words. As I finished speaking my peace, I gently walked away and they both laughed at me as I neared the door. I wanted to murder both of them! I contemplated coming back during the night and throwing a big brick through their window, or something malicious I could do to teach them a lesson. But I wisely considered that I would likely be arrested and get into big trouble, while they laughed some more. So, as hard as it was, I let the matter go INTO GOD’S HANDS. To this day I am deeply hurt over what those two MONSTERS did to me, and I want justice from God. Luke 18:7, “

And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

Dear reader, I have literally hundreds of such painful incidents which have happened in my life. From the irresponsible fool who left their abandoned car in the middle of the road in 1992 (which led to the tragic accident involving 3 church buses that caused my permanent neck injury), to the two African American punks who stole our family’s car in Chicago in 2004, to wicked pastor Tom Brennan in Chicago who in 2004 stole $4,800 from my family and gave away our three cats that he had promised to take care of for 6 months for free (yet we paid him $4,800) and our dog that he killed in anger, to Cedar’s Sinai Hospital in Los Angeles who threw me under the bus for dead in 2009 after my neck surgery, to that wicked pastor Marty Herron who forced me out of Harvest Baptist Church in 2014 and banned me from returning, to that wicked hypocrite pastor Jeff Redlin at Pensacola Christian College who also kicked me out of their Campus Church and banned me from returning, to the ungodly slanderous pastors of Dr. Jack Hyles at Family Baptist Church in Pensacola (who wickedly kicked me and my wife Alice out of their damned authoritarian carnal church in 2025)—I WANT JUSTICE FROM GOD!!!

And the good Lord has promised me to avenge me of these evildoers (Romans 12:19-21). You better believe that I want heads to roll. And if I have wronged or hurt any human being, I want the same justice for them against me. I could easily list hundreds more offenses against me by wicked sinners (including ruthless Christian sinners), but I have never a venged myself.

I could have spit in co-worker’s food, but I didn’t. I could have stolen their tools and personal belongings (as they did to me), but I didn’t, not once. I could have stolen their work uniforms (as they did mine), so that they would have had to pay for them (like I did). Not once in all my working years did I steal anything from anybody. I have worked for everything I have.

By far, I wasn’t perfect. Once a guy at work, who was 10 years older than me, kept harassing me. His name was Frank. He threw my radio on the shop floor and smashed it into pieces. I told my boss (the shop foreman), but he couldn’t have cared less. I was 21 or 22 years old at the time. My boss said:

If you can’t take the heat, get out of the kitchen.

That weekend he was driving on his motorcycle southbound on Lake Shore Drive in Chicago (I nicknamed it ’Death Shore Drive’ because of the high rate of auto accidents). Frank hit a big bump and crashed his bike. When he came back to work both of his eyes were red from broken blood vessels. Frank took a hard fall. He asked me if I thought God was punishing him for breaking my radio, to which I replied: “

Hey, you said it, not me.

” I didn’t rub it in, I prayed for him.

Frank in his usual anger grabbed me by the shirt one day in the shop and we scuffled. I ripped all the buttons off his shirt in the incident trying to be freed from him. We had a concrete walled makeshift shower at work with an open top. A few month later in summer, while he was taking a shower at work for a hot date on a Friday night, I poured 80/90 gear lube over his head in good gesture, not hatred. I knew it was a harmless stunt. I heard him yelling, “There’s gear lube in the water!” Frank came running out with a towel around him, asking who did it, and the other guys told him. Frank threw my tool box on the floor and overturned it so that my tools went everywhere. I was hiding in the parking lot...lol.

Thankfully, my boss warned him the following Monday that if he touched me he would be fired, so Frank left me alone. For once my boss stood up for me, but only that one time. At that job, working as a newbie mechanic, I was spit upon by a co-worker, Bob. Don threw 3-pound sledgehammer at me, and thankfully I dodged out of its way. They stole my work uniforms, which I had to pay for. Co-workers placed Penthouse centerfolds on my work locker.

One day someone left a comic strip on my locker which read: “NEWS FLASH! A Tv evangelist has been seen with his wife!” I figured that pun out fairly quickly. Adultery is epidemic in modern-day apostate neo-evangelism and sad to say, in nearly all of the churches. It’s our perverse American culture, which has [1]deliberately been sexualized by Satanists to destroy our nation. Men are under attack like never before by the Devil, which is why I make such a big fuss against women wearing pants in public. IT IS WICKEDNESS!!!

Co-workers put booze bottles in my toolbox, old cigars, and once a highly charged ignition capacitor that caused me to jump a foot into the air when I picked it up, while Dan laughed who put it there, thinking it was funny. My friend at work, Grant (one of our best mechanics and a really nice guy), went to told my boss that the stupid stunt could have stopped my heart, but my boss didn’t care. I could write a lengthy book about my persecutions in the secular workplace, and the corrupt churches. When you are a godly Christian you become a moving target for the heathen world (2nd Timothy 3:12). When you are a Christian the whole world is waiting for you to fall (John 15:19).

I saw a truthful meme recently, which read: “

The more I learn about people, the more I understand why Noah only took animals aboard the ark.

” People equal pain dear reader, as you already know all too well. That is why me and my wife increasingly prefer to stay home as much as possible. We are at the place where we don’t even want to go outside our door anymore, because of how wicked American society has become. Pastor Lester Roloff (1914-1982) was absolutely right, who said:

“[2]We’re in insanity because of sin.”

I am far from a perfect man, but other than that gear lube stunt nearly 40 years ago I cannot remember having done anything to hurt, retaliate or be mean to anyone that I worked with, or at any church. They tore up my daily work-orders at work, which I had to fill out twice. They deliberately stopped up urinals to flood the restroom floor to harass me. Wicked co-workers started and spread ungodly rumors about me, knowing that people go by what they hear.

Yet, I prayed for my co-workers and I prayed for them continually, mainly for God to convict them about their need to be saved. I’ve had a Church of Christ nutcase get angry at me for leaving Gospel tracts in the men’s room. I refused to admit to leaving them out, because he was trying to get me into trouble. Cult members are hateful! The Jehovah’s Witness are some of the most hateful people I have ever met. They are militant in their damnable false religion! The Church of Christ and Lordship Salvation Baptists are nearly just as bad. Beware of the heretical militant “

repent of your sins

followers of nutcase Dr. Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016).

Oscar Wilde (1854-1900) was so right:

No good deed shall go unpunished.

” Everywhere that Jesus journeyed, He was a blessing but wicked sinners hated Him. Jesus said if they hated Him, they will also hate us as saints (John 7:7, 15:19). Christians are often accused of being “ hateful

by the world, and they are right in that we hate sin and evil (Psalms 97:10). But the truth is actually reversed, it is the world who hates the Christians.

> John 15:17-21 “
>
> These things I command you, that ye love one another.
>
> If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.
>
> If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.
>
> Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.
>
> But all these things will they do unto you for my name’s sake, because they know not him that sent me*.
> **”

The world walks in darkness. Jesus is the light who came into the world, but the world did not recognize Him for who He is. John 1:4-5, “

In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

” Judas was sorrowful for betraying innocent blood (Matthew 27:3-5), but he never repented toward God of his unbelief to trust Christ. You see dear reader, repenting of your sins won’t save you.

To get to Heaven, you must by faith (taking God at His written Word) receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was burled, but then physically ressurected after three days from the dead. This is the Gospel (which means ’GOOD NEWS’) by which all who BELIEVE IT are saved (1st Corinthians 15;1-6; Romans 1:16).

May we as God’s redeemed saints strive in the Lord’s grace each day to walk in our dear Savior’s footsteps—forgiving those who have hurt us, loving our enemies, praying for those who despitefully use us, and placing all injurious matters, being defrauded and other offenses into God’s omnipotent hands for judgment (Romans 12:19-21). Romans 12:19b, “

Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

” It is not our place to avenge ourselves against those who hurt us.

Of course, this doesn’t mean that we shouldn’t defend our self and our loved ones against harm or evil. I humbly believe this passage in Romans 12:19-21 applies to the many situations of life where someone has wronged us, and legally there is absolutely nothing we can do to obtain justice. We could break the law by hurting that person somehow, but this is not what God wants for His redeemed children to do. God is much bigger than our problems! And I assure you that nothing is overlooked by God's eyes.

Proverbs 15:3, " The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good." I love those last three word... and the good.

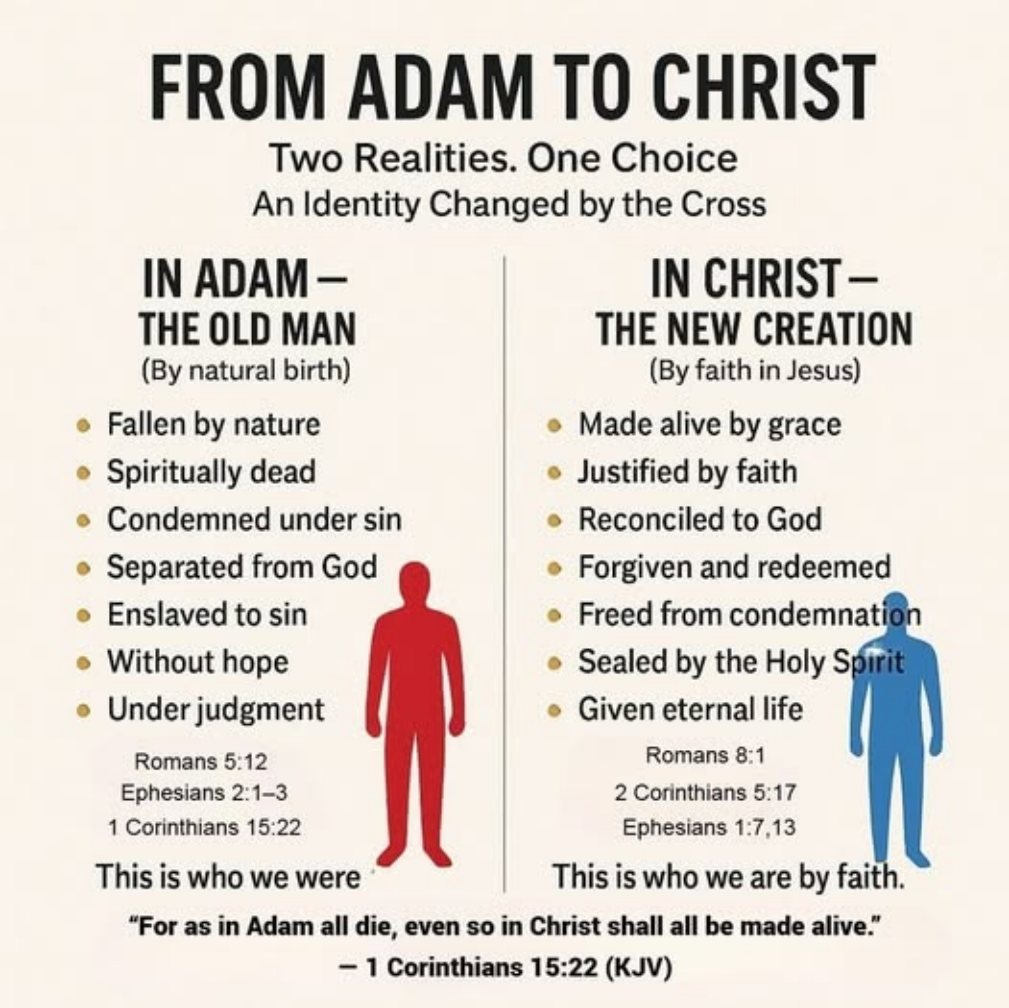
" The faithful Lord sees when we do good. God sees when someone cheats, defrauds, hurts or kicks us out of church for telling the truth, and then we let those offenses go into the Lord's caring hands for judgment. I choose to let a painful matter go, to take the high road instead of seeking revenge. Life is too short to live with a burden of hatred.

Granted, I am not talking about godly fundamentalist Bible preachers who preach against evil, expose incompetent clergy, earnestly contend for the faith, and call out bad religious institutions and corrupt churches for their recklessness in handling God's Word, hurting people and the Gospel. Our Lord was a man "despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not"

(Isaiah 55:3b). Yet, Jesus who could have called twelve legions of angels to free Him (Matthew 26:53), joyfully endured the cross and the shame for you and me dear reader (Hebrews 12:2), because Jesus loves us (1st John 4:19).

Although Jesus took an uncompromising stand against sin and wickedness, it is also true that He unconditionally loved everybody without exception. Jesus hated no one!

Jesus, I humbly think, was the kind of guy who would give you His last dollar if you needed it, but at the same time He suffered no fools.



Jesus was no wimp, as the ungodly Roman Catholic Church always portrays Him to be, decrepit and weak on a religious crucifix cross.

> 1st Peter 2:21-25, "
>
> For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:
>
> Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:
>
> Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:
>
> Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.
>
> For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.
> **"

I often preach THE TRUTH that you don't have to forsake a sinful lifestyle to receive God's free gift of eternal life (Ephesians 2:8-9), and that is a needful truth in defense of a free grace Gospel; but dear reader, please don't think for one second that God doesn't want His redeemed children to walk in perfect holiness. Ephesians 2:10 teaches that we were saved UNTO GOOD WORKS. Not "by" good works, but rather "unto" good works. I think Pastor Lester Roloff said it very well: "Jesus saved you so you wouldn't live like that anymore."

If I could sum up Jesus' life on earth with two words, it would be: "He cared" (1st Peter 5:7).

7.2.25 You Don't Have To be Afraid Of God if You Fear Him (2026-02-26 07:49)

Exodus 20:17-21, "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

And all the people saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they removed, and stood afar off.

And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die.

And Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to prove you, and that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not.

And the people stood afar off*, and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God was.

I love our text passage of inspired Scripture from the Old Testament book of Exodus. Moses had just received the Ten Commandments of God in stone. I humbly believe that God put His commandments for mankind in stone for a couple reasons:

1. You can break God’s commandments, but you cannot bend them. Stone doesn’t bend.
2. God’s commandments cannot be changed, they are written in stone.

We read in the New Testament...

> Romans 3:18-20, “
>
> There is no fear of God before their eyes*. Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.”

In Romans chapter two, the Apostle Paul addresses the Jews concerning their efforts to keep the law to merit eternal life. Romans 2:13, “For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.” Paul fully knew that no man has ever (nor could ever) perfectly keep God’s law to merit Heaven, because we are all wretched guilty sinners, which is what Paul addresses in Romans chapter three. In Romans 2:13, Paul is not teaching that it is possible to earn your way to Heaven by obeying the law, God forbid. No, Paul is simply saying that if you are trying to earn your way to Heaven by keeping the law, then you must perfectly keep all of God’s laws, not just some of them (cf., James 2:10).

Now in chapter three, after indicting the entire sinful human race, Paul summarizes his argument in Romans 3:18-20, “ There is no fear of God before their eyes. Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.” NO ONE has ever been justified in the sight of God by keeping the law. Those who foolishly try (Galatians 3:1) have fallen from grace (Galatians 5:4). That is, they have missed the one bus going to Heaven. There is no salvation apart from faith in Jesus.

By nature humans do not fear God. That is why we read in Proverbs 1:7, “

The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

” And we also read in

Proverbs 9:10, “

The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

” Only a fool does not fear God. We’ve seen [1]widespread chaos across the United States in recent years from [2]revolutionary youth void of the fear of God, nor the law of the land. The depraved mind of a criminal knows no boundaries. They do not fear their Creator!

If today's rebellious youth won't fear God, then why should they fear the law? This is the dire consequence of our ungodly government leaders [3]removing the Holy Bible and prayer from America' s classrooms since 1963. Today's generation have no moral compass. They do not look up anymore to fear a holy God to whom we must all give account in eternity (Hebrews 9:27; Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; Romans 14:10-12; 1st Thessalonians 4:6; Matthew 7:1-5, 12:36; Revelation 20:11-15). PAYDAY SOMEDAY!

In our text Scripture passage from Exodus 20:17-21, we find the Hebrews afraid of God. Moses explained to the people that God was simply showing forth His might (i.e., the thunder, lightning and smoke rising from the mountain) so that they would justly fear Him, so that they wouldn't sin. God is holy and He hates sin.

Unfortunately, the people were afraid of God, which is not what the good Lord intended nor wanted. God created you and me dear friend, and He wants to have sweet fellowship.

Jesus is almighty God!

The Lord is worthy of our admiration, obedience and love. He certainly doesn't want us to be afraid of Him, but we do absolutely need to fear Him. There is a big difference. We should be afraid when we disobey Him.

One of my favorite Bible verses is Proverbs 28:1, "The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion." Shady people who live sordid lifestyles of breaking the law are paranoid, which is why they are always looking over their shoulder from both the police and other criminals. But the man who does righteously, he can stand firm with the boldness of a courageous lion, having no reason to fear or run.

There is no sweeter peace than to live from one day to the next with a clear conscience. I can live with co-workers wickedly stealing my uniforms at work, but I never stole their uniforms. I can live with wicked neo-evangelical pastors kicking me out of their churches because I TOLD THE TRUTH, but I didn't hurt them. I have been deeply wounded by the cruel words and injurious actions of countless people throughout my life, but I can live knowing that I didn't hurt them, they hurt me. I'd 10,000 times rather become a victim, than to be a perpetrator!

> Exodus 20:19-21, "
>
> And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die.
>
> And Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to prove you, and that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not.
>
> And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God was.
> **"

I humbly think that the people were being very foolish, exaggerating their concerns. Whenever has the good Lord oppressed or killed anyone for no reason? If you do right, then you have no reason to fear God. Prolific writer Mark Twain wisely said: "If you tell the truth, you don't have to remember anything."

A common tactic that police detectives use to catch criminals is to question them for extended periods of time. You see, if you are lying you'll have to keep telling more lies to hide the truth, which eventually will cause your house of cards to crumble. That is, your lies will be exposed in time. All the police need to do is just keep pressing you with more questions until your fictitious story falls apart. But if you are telling THE TRUTH, they can intensely question you for three days and your story will never change.

By the way, that is one way we know that the different writers of the Four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke and John) are all telling the truth, because their different accounts vary significantly in numerous places. Some leave out collaborating information altogether. That is because they each wrote from their own perspective, inspired by the Holy Spirit to jot down exactly what God wanted them to record. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God (2nd Timothy 3:16). That is, all Scripture is God-breathed. Jesus said that His Words are Spirit, they are life (John 6:63). I believe the King James Bible is inspired by God, otherwise it was merely inspired by corrupt sinful men and it cannot be trusted. By

I mean they are God’s Words, not man’s.

I love something life changing that Pastor Jack Hyles said...

> “If you want to never do anything that is terribly wicked, then you never do anything that is slightly wicked.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, [4]"Unjust In The Least"

Character is the subconscious doing of right! If you force yourself to do the right thing, it will eventually become your habit. Behind every tragedy in human character was a slow process of wicked thinking. This is why for many years now my favorite Bible verse has been Proverbs 4:23, “Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.” I refuse to hate any human being. I refuse to look at sexual smut on my computer. I refuse to give the Devil an inch, lest he take a foot and become a ruler! Satan is so clever, subtle and suave.

Exodus 20:19-21, “

And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die.

And Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to prove you, and that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not.

And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God was.

” God wasn’t trying to drive the Hebrew people away from Him in fear, the dear Lord was trying to instill in them a healthy fear of sin. Do you know why the people were afraid of God? There is only one reasonable conclusion, which is simply because they intended to continue living in sin. They felt that they couldn’t keep the Lord’s commandments for them.

Dear reader, if you live an upright life, then you have no justifiable reason to fear God.

Hebrews 10:31, “ It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.” I admit that I feel some apprehension about death, not knowing what to expect, but I have peace and full confidence in my blessed God, Savior, Friend and Lord. I feel peace because I have been born again through faith alone in the ’GOOD NEWS’ (Gospel) of the Lord Jesus Christ who was crucified for my sins, buried and bodily resurrected the third day

(1st Corinthians 15:1-6)

. That is my only hope for forgiveness of sins and eternal life.

God knows who's trying and who's not to live right. I speak to the saints. If you are not saved, then God's wrath rests upon your head (John 3:18, 36; 5:40). Please don't perish to die in your sins dear reader, because the dire consequences are irreversible and everlasting (John 8:24; Revelation 21:8). The redeemed saints all die in the Lord (Revelation 14:13).

I enjoy living from day to day with the sweet confidence and peace of knowing that I am right with God—both POSITIONALLY as His redeemed child by faith (Romans 4:4-7; 1st John 1:6-10); and CONDITIONALLY on a daily basis, as I walk by faith (2nd Corinthians 5:7). We live the Christian life the same way we got saved, which is BY FAITH alone (Galatians 2:20-21).

Dear reader, if you live in the fear of God, so that you receive His only begotten Son as your personal Savior; and then as God's child you try with the indwelling Holy Spirit's help to live right (i.e., to love God and love your neighbour as thyself) from moment to moment, then you can and should enjoy the sweet peace of knowing that your heavenly Father is pleased with you. God only asks that you don't give up and keep trying in His grace to do better. Remember, as saints we grow in grace, not in strength (2nd Peter 3:18).

The faithful Lord fully understands that we are merely made from the dust of the earth. Psalms 103:14, "

For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust.

" By the way, this was the favorite Bible passage of Pastor Jack Hyles' godly mother, Mattie Coystal Hyles (1887-1984). I cannot think of a better life's Bible verse for any child of God. God only has sinful dust to work with.

When God gave His inspired Words (" settled in heaven

" - Psalms 119:89) to humanity, he took sinful men and made them holy.

2nd Peter 1:21, "

For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

" Don't anyone dare try to convince me that the King James Bible is imperfect and not inspired by God almighty. Get thee behind me, Satan!

The Creator of the universe was not so inept that He couldn't preserve His perfectly inspired Words to all generations (Psalms 119:140). I refuse to believe that a 90 year old grandmother needs to become a Greek and Hebrew scholar to understand the inspired Holy Bible!

Dear reader, you don't need to be afraid of God, unless you are striving against your Maker. Isaiah 45:9, "

Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands? " Matthew 10:28, "

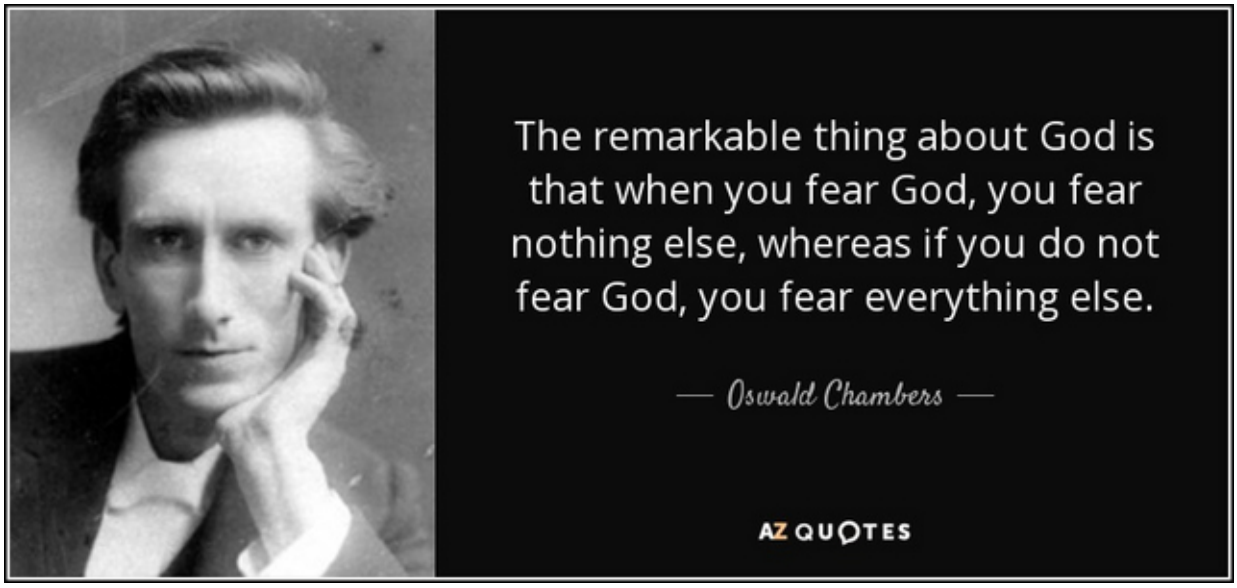
And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

" If you have been born again, then you have peace with God POSITIONALLY. Romans 5:1,

"Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ."

In the Bible, when a father was pleased with his child, he looked upon him proudly. But when a child did shamefully, the father turned away His face in disapproval. This explains Psalms 27:8-9, "

When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek. Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation." This explains



Psalms 88:14,

" LORD, why castest thou off my soul? why hidest thou thy face from me? " If as God's children we are right with Him CONDITIONALLY, then the Lord's face will be toward us.

I want God's face toward me. I do fear God. I don't want to hurt, cheat or upset any other human being. I am far from perfect, but I want to be pleasing to God, the purpose for which we were all created (Revelation 4:11). I am a crooked stick, but thankfully God will still make use of a crooked stick if it is yielded to Him, as was Samson in the Old Testament and Peter in the New Testament. These weren't perfect men, but they took the grace that God gave them as His saints to serve the Lord. We live the Christian life by faith (i.e., we continually look to the Lord for His strength, wisdom, conviction, rebuke, comfort, guidance and encouragement).

Thank you for reading my ministry blog. To God alone be the praise, credit and glory.

7.2.26 Hypocrisy Exists In All of Us (2026-02-27 12:10)

Ecclesiastes 7:20-22, “

For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not. Also take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee: For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.”

The following edifying article was written by my ministry friend Pastor Bob Gray Sr. ...

> A preacher’s son who himself is now a preacher began to change his ideological positions. In doing so he began to drift further from his preacher father. Suddenly he began to expose certain hypocrisies he saw in his father. He was critical of things that he felt his father had been inconsistent on.
>
> I have learned that often times the cry of hypocrisy is often used as a tool of excuse. The truth is hypocrisy exists in all of us. We refuse to watch liquor ads on TV or eating restaurants that serve liquor, but we walk right past the liquor in the grocery store. There is not a one of us who lives a purely non-hypocritical life. I contend it’s actually impossible. If you want to find inconsistencies in my life you will find them and I can certainly find them in yours as well. However, usually we find those inconsistencies and hypocrisies when we want to. And we want them when we feel like we need to justify our own position.
>
> Rather than this preacher son choosing to do what he felt was right, he used stories about his father’s inconsistencies to defend the changes he was making. That tells me one of two things. First, it tells me he is not real sure about his decision so he has to excuse it by condemning or attacking his father. Second, it tells me that he is a rebel and is looking for a reason to turn against his father. Either is wrong.
>
> I have had men who worked with me and had no complaints leave me and began to criticize my inconsistencies and hypocrisies. That is not unusual. Be careful when you hear such an accusation. Usually it is self-serving. It is usually something that they were fine with that the time, but later discovered they needed to use as an excuse.
>
> Be careful about accusing anyone of being a hypocrite. All of us are guilty of inconsistencies. All of us have been hypocritical at times. It is a sign of your weakness when you use that to excuse or justify your own actions or decisions.
>
> Inconsistencies are found in everyone’s life and ministry. Living life is, in essence, a struggle for consistency. Bible principles are available to help keep us on track. Life as it is lived is an adventure for all of us. We learn as we travel and as we view those who have preceded us. Each of us, as we spend time in the Word of God, discover nuggets of truth that God gives as answers to life’s needs that arise to each generation. The Scripture tells us we are not ignorant of Satan’s devices. Each generation will have to fight the same battles of their fathers, which are disguised by the culture of the day. The trap set by Satan is not easily recognizable for he is a minister of light with subtle activities. So, the fight for consistency continues.
>
> Each generation is blind to their own inconsistencies. The inconsistencies which are pointed out by the sons and daughters are blind spots. Soon the sons and daughters will develop their own blind spots as they travel down their path of ministry. There is a reason why the Scripture says “Greater works than these shall ye do.” We can do more if we know more. It is always later on in your ministry travels that you discover your own inconsistencies and correct them. So, be careful in your quick judgments of others' so-called hypocrisy.

Being inconsistent is necessary to being consistent. All have sinned and come short of the glory of God is a statement which tells the tale on our relationship with God, not with man. When we compare ourselves with each other we can easily pick out someone who makes us look good in comparison. However, when we see ourselves in relation to our Saviour we see how short we come compared to Him. So, being inconsistent brings attention to the need to diligently work to be consistent. To use inconsistency as an excuse to be inconsistent is folly.

The pointing out of shortcomings of those who precede us is juvenile. When we spend our time searching for the faults and inconsistencies of those who precede us, we are wasting valuable time on a wasteful activity. The only reason anyone will do such things is to dull their own consciousness of activities they would have never allowed in prior days. Modesty is still modesty for every generation of God's people regardless of the so-called inconsistencies of the previous generation.

The result is misdefining Scripture in order to justify our own inconsistencies. A young preacher quoted "I can do all things…" and even had a t-shirt made up to wear as he and his wife wore immodest clothing. When you point to your parents' struggles to be consistent and see an opening to justify a worldly lifestyle is childish to say the least. You do what you want to do, but in order to not let it bother you it is necessary to point to inconsistencies of those who preceded. To ignore or mis-define clear commands of Scripture by noting your predecessors so-called hypocrisies is dangerous for you and yours.

Understand your parents struggled to stay consistent. Every generation has to fight their own battles with the world, the flesh, and the devil. You will not go through life without having to struggle as your parents struggled. Life is hard enough without bringing up the struggles of those who gave you your very existence as a reason to do what you want to do.

The word "honor" in the Bible concerning your parents means to put your weight down on the good. It means to prize. It means to build up. It means to focus on the good. When at home you are to obey and honor. After you marry you are no longer commanded to obey, but you are commanded to honor your parents. With this God says He will cause you to live a longer life.

Make sure you do not do, what you do not like in others. When young people would come in for counseling concerning their troubled relationship with their parents I would always give them the same advice. I would tell them to make a list of those things their parents did which they felt was wrong and make sure they NEVER do those things. We are so fickle when it comes to what we see in others and our need to correct them while never taking an honest inventory of ourselves.

7.2.27 "Man Of God" Movie Now Released (2026-02-28 08:16)

Ecclesiastes 12:9, "And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.”

I encourage you to watch this 1:24 hour video. A lot of Christians are angry at Pastor Steven Anderson over his preaching, but there’s so much more to the guy than most people know.

I love Brother Anderson and thank God for his ministry. Love him or hate him, God is working through this servant of Christ. I disagree with him on at least [1]a dozen doctrinal issues . That being said, Faithful Word Baptist Church led 10,121 lost sinners to Jesus Christ between 2025-2026. In that time, Pastor Anderson personally led 182 sinner’s to Christ.

[2]MAN OF GOD (FULL MOVIE)

I stand with Pastor Anderson because he is an aggressive soulwinner, because he stands for truth and righteousness, because He is on the LORD’s side (Joshua 24:15). ...

> “They consider me radical, and I am not radical today, and don’t you buy into that. And you know, I don’t like when people from our church think: ’Oh yeah, our pastor is so extreme! He’s so radical.’ That is not true! I’m a Bible-believing preacher. There’s nothing extreme or radical other than what the Bible is saying being extreme. If you want to call it ’extreme’ or ’radical,’ than that’s what you’re saying about the Bible, because there’s nothing that I preach that is not in this Book. And if there is, tell me about it and I’ll change it. I’ll quit preaching it. There’s nothing radical about what I preach. Our society has become radically wicked! And so, when a preacher just gets up and preaches a normal sermon, they think: ’Hey, you crossed the line Buddy!’ No, I didn’t cross the line, you removed the landmark. You moved the line. I’m not crossing the line at all, I’m preaching the Bible today.” —Pastor Steven Anderson, “[3]Man Of God” (February, 2026)

He recently graduated from Liberty University and Arizona State University. The guy has a half dozen different college degrees. Brother Anderson truly is a diligent laboring scholar. For years now he’s been memorizing entire chapters of the King James Bible and reciting them blindfolded on Facebook. We should all be doing that! I encourage you dear reader not to believe all the slander against our dear Brother in Christ. Pastor Anderson is not perfect and he’ll be the first to admit it, but he is a blessing in the LORD to thousands of people worldwide.

I fully agree with Pastor Jack Hyles, who said in his classic sermon titled: ’[4]It Can Be Done Anywhere,’ “

I’d rather have a fellow that’s got wild fire than no fire.

” Most Baptist pastors today are a pathetic joke, lazy, a disgrace to the cause of Christ. Before you consider criticizing this faithful pastor, take a look below at what God has used him to build. The church has grown so big that they moved last year into a bigger building in Phoenix. Praise God!

7.3 March

7.3.1 Learn To Be A Friend At Midnight (2026-03-01 16:26)

Luke 11:5-8, " And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves; For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee. I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth."

Very few people understand what it means to truly be a friend. Jesus tells a helpful illustration of 'A Friend At Midnight.' A neighbour has an unannounced friend visit him at midnight, who is hungry from his long journey, but the man has no bread to feed his friend. So, he goes to his next door neighbour and pleads for bread for his friend who is visiting, but the neighbor is sleeping and tells him to go away. The desperate neighbor is relentless and refuses to go away until he gets some bread for his hungry friend. Finally, his neighbor relents and gives him the bread.

The hero is in story is the caring neighbour who won't go away until he gets some food for his hungry friend. That is what a true friend does, he helps someone when they are in need. Have you ever shared your burden with someone who you considered a friend, but they didn't seem to care? I know that painful feeling. More times than I can remember in life, when I was at the bottom of life and discouraged, people that I thought were my friend crapped on me.

If you confide in someone to share your marital problems with them; someone who claims to be your friend, but they completely ignore you, they are either a selfish jerk or they're being holier-than-thou self righteous. I've met a lot of hypocritical churchgoers like that, religious snobs who look down on others who aren't regularly church attendees. Either way, they're not being a friend at all. I cannot remember one time in 24 years of website ministry when I ignored someone who shared their burdens, problems and broken heart with me.

Dear reader, be a friend to your family and friends. Sometimes the best thing you can do is just a hurting individual know that you will pray for them, and that you sincerely care. If you don't care, just say and do nothing and they'll know that you couldn't care less, or that you are condemning them in your own self-righteous mind. And shame on you if that shoe fits!

Pastor Steven Anderson has been under malicious attack for the past year, being slandered falsely by his four oldest spoiled brat adult children. It is wrong to air one's family's dirty laundry in public. The brats have even talked about what their Mom and Dad do in their own private bedroom (Hebrews 13:4). Despite their rebellious behavior, I see four brilliant young adults who are well groomed, intelligent, educated, hard working and impressive. I've been praying for the whole family because I care.

Brother Anderson's wicked enemies who hate the LORD have shamefully exploited the Anderson's children in a malicious attempt to destroy him and his ministry. They are looking for weaknesses to exploit for their own financial gain. Greedy film maker Paul Wittenberger is selling has new wicked " slanderous video for $50, asking for higher donations. The video features Pastor Anderson's disgruntled adult children attacking their parents. What an ungodly sinner! Woe unto Paul when he answers to God in eternity. Don't ever forget that Satan is **"

Man of God

the accuser of the brethren

(Revelation 12:10b).

By God's grace, I have been a friend at midnight to Pastor Anderson, to encourage him in the LORD.

We are ministry friends.

Faithful Word Baptist Church led 10,121 lost sinners to Jesus Christ in 2025-2026. That is awesome! I and Brother Anderson don't agree on several doctrinal issues, but we are both aggressive soulwinners. We agree on the Gospel of free grace. We agree on the inspiration of the King James Bible. We share a common bond of a love for the truth and righteousness. I refuse to be a fair-weather friend, which equates to being a phony.

> "We must, indeed, all hang together or, most assuredly, we shall all hang separately."
> —Benjamin Franklin

I am going to stand with the faithful fundamentalist Bible preacher who is preaching unapologetically against sin. I am going to stand with the Bible preacher who exposes false prophets, false religions, false bibles and false doctrines. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS! Ephesians 6:13, "Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand."

> “I’ve been preaching a long time, and I’ve watched a lot of things happen. To me the saddest thing that I’ve watched in my life, apart from my own country going to the Devil nearly, has been the change of preachers and churches. I find myself amazed and stunned with near disbelief, as I see men who once stood who don’t stand anymore ... I know every week I cry some, I mean cry, I mean tear cry, > because of preachers who are turning.”
>
>
> SOURCE: Pastor Jack Hyles, from the 1972 sermon titled, “ [1]I Shall Not Be Moved ”

Please don’t ever become holier than thou dear reader. The Bible teaches to view others as being BETTER THAN OURSELVES. Philippians 2:3, “

Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

” That is a command from almighty God! If you avoid and look down on a Christian that you think is not living up to YOUR expectations, you are not right with God.

Even if someone knows better and are choosing to live in open sin, you should at least show concern to let them know that you care, and that you are praying for that individual and their family, and that it is not your place to condemn them. You are not God. Judges 4:12, “There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?” If you don’t, you’ve been brainwashed by some religious cult. Your hatred evidenced that you are not closely walking with your Creator. God doesn’t have love, God is love. Saints who walk with God are full of unconditional love for all sinners, not just the righteous. ...

> “If we could ever hate the sin in ourselves as much as we hate the sin in others, we might have some idea what His [God’s] Book is all about.” —Pastor Jack Hyles (a quote from page 322 of the awesome biography of Dr. Hyles titled, “The Fundamental Man,” by Mrs. Cindy Hyles Schaap)

There is a woeful lack of love and compassion in nearly all Bible colleges and churches today. Tragically, ninety-nine percent of pastors and their wives are only in the ministry for the INCOME, not the OUTCOME. Ephesians 4:30-32, “

And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:

And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ’s sake hath forgiven you.

I have been kicked out of the last five churches I’ve attended; namely, Agana Heights Baptist Church on Guam, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola and Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. Those cults have hateful hypocrites as pastors. They are illegitimate ministers who are wrong on God’s simple plan of salvation. They have hatred toward sinners. They kicked me out of their cults. They all made an issue, not me. They had a problem with me as a fundamentalist Bible preacher! I’ve been kicked out of churches by ungodly neo-evangelical pastors. These are perilous times (2nd Timothy 3:1-7). It's best to just stay home and listen to solid preaching from the internet if you cannot find a doctrinally sound local church to attend.

I encourage you dear reader to be a friend to your friends. If some wicked pastor kicks you out of his church (it's not God's church), that pastor was never your friend at all. A true friend helps a friend to see. I have been a true friend to pastors' Marty Herron, Jeff Redlin, Bobby and Brad Moffett and Bill Adams (to name but a few), but they are wicked neo-evangelical pastors who couldn't care less about loving people or right doctrine. Any church that distributes Chick Tracts is pulling on the same rope as the Devil. Jack Chick (1924-2016) was wrong on Bible repentance!

I have been a true friend to a bunch of ungodly money-driven rotten neo-evangelical pastors who have no business standing behind any pulpit. Proverbs 12:17, "

He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.

" Humans by nature are stupid. They will (with few exceptions) follow anyone who leads them, no matter how wrong they are on God's Word. Very few people search the Scriptures as Jesus commanded in John 5:39. Instead, they will follow any fool who claims to speak for God, fools like Bobby Moffett at the demonic Family Baptist Church cult in Pensacola (they falsely preach that you must turn away from past sinful ways to get to Heaven). I was a friend to them, but they kicked me and my wife out in June of 2025. Woe unto those evil pastors on Judgment Day (Jeremiah 5:31).

Being a friend at midnight can mean a bunch of different things. It can mean telling the truth to a church that has become corrupted by false doctrine. It can mean encouraging a friend going through marital troubles. I had a guy contact me today about his marital problems. I poured out my heart to help and encourage him, as his Brother in Christ (1st Peter 5:9). I am going to be a friend at midnight to anyone who needs my help. Thank you for reading my ministry blog.

7.3.2 Nobody Can Make You Care (2026-03-02 09:23)

Proverbs 18:1, “Through desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom.”

Why is it that one person thieves at hobbies and interests, while another person does nothing but exist? Why is it that one wife is a gourmet chef, but another wife is a lazy slouch? Why is one woman organized, but the next a scatterbrain? Why does one pastor study the Word of God to show himself approved unto God, but the next is lazy and unlearned? Why is it that one mother can singlehandedly raise twelve children, but another incompetent woman cannot raise one spoiled brat? In a word, CARING.

Very few people have the drive, character and persistence to make something of themselves, to become better than the average bear. But those are just unpleasant symptoms of a greater sin, a lack of CONCERN. Nothing worthwhile in life ever came without sacrifice. If you succeed in life without sacrificing, it is only because someone else sacrificed without succeeding. Even more so if you’ve been afforded opportunities and resources that others haven’t in life. Luke 12:48b, “For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.” What talents, resources, gifts and skills has God blessed you with friend? Use them for the King of kings!

Nothing worthwhile in life comes overnight. It takes time to become good at anything. In fact, it requires several thousand hours of diligent work to perfect any skill. The Bible teaches that if you want to prosper, then you need to separate yourself from everything else (the television, internet, phone, video games, et cetera). Proverbs 18:1, “Through desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom.” Most people spend enormous amounts of time doing nothing of value. Yet, they wish they could paint, play a musical instrument, cook, make a website or do any one of thousands of hobbies, pursuits and interests. Sadly, most people don’t have enough character to apply themselves.

Why is it that ungodly incompetent pastors like Marty Herron, Jared Baldwin, Jeff Redlin, Timothy Zacharias, Bobby and Brad Moffett, Josh Thompson, Sean Quinlan, Bill Adams and other wicked fools preach the lie that you must

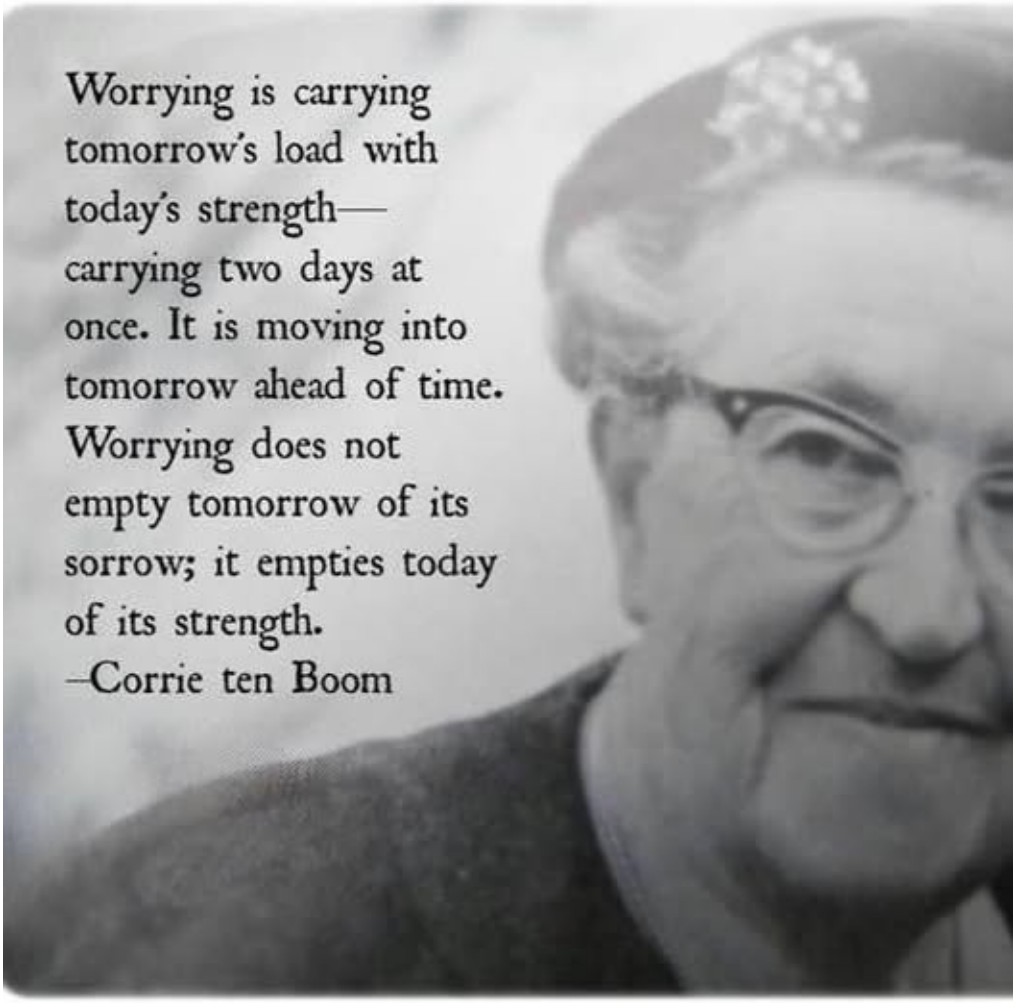
to get to Heaven? There is no such teaching in the inspired King James Bible. The reason why those ungodly false prophets preach damnable heresy is simply because they DON’T CARE! I have personally warned those men about their false teaching, but they laughed in my face and wickedly drove me out of their churches (which are really religious cults). God will punish them! Proverbs 19:5,

“



A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

So, whether it be the incompetent pastor, lazy student, careless wife or the lackadaisical husband—it all comes down to CARING. As a born again fundamentalist Baptist preacher, I CARE. I care about the purity of God’s inspired Word. I care about the accuracy of the Gospel. I care about right doctrine, because right doctrine matters. Jesus cares! 1st Peter 5:7, “Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.”

I personally warned Pastor Marty Herron in 2014 that he ought not be promoting Martin Luther (1483-1546) as a born again Christian, because [1]Mr. Luther taught Sacramental Salvation his entire life. I handed Pastor Herron a hard copy of the eye-opening book by Dr. Max D. Younce, ’[2]Martin Luther: Master Of Deceit.’ Without even reading the book, the fool insisted that Martin Luther was born again. You see, Marty Herron is a wicked hellbound reprobate, who doesn’t think he needs to read THE TRUTH, because he has already made up his mind. What a darn fool! If I had my way, Mr. Herron would spend the rest of his natural life in prison for perverting the Gospel, corrupting God’s Word, and for throwing me under the bus for TELLING THE TRUTH! Hell is coming up to meet Marty Herron and his accursed Lordship Salvation!

Herron’s big problem is that he simply DOESN’T CARE! None of those rotten reprobates pastors care. They are in the ministry for the INCOME, not the OUTCOME! Your attitude determines your altitude in life. The $64,000 question dear reader is: DO YOU CARE? If not, then ask God to give you a caring heart, and until He does just pretend like you care and in time you will. Thank you for reading my ministry blog. To God be the glory.

7.3.3 Anybody Who Advises You To Divorce Is Evil (2026-03-03 12:25)

Genesis 3:1, "Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?"

In the Garden of Eden, the serpent (Satan according to Revelation 20:2) came to Eve to destroy her life and happiness, and that of her family. She fell hook, line and sinker for the ungodly advice. Psalms 1:1a, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly... " Now, kindly said, you listen to me! When anyone (I don't care who it is) comes to you in sheep's clothing advising that you should file for divorce, they are a ravening wolf in league with the Devil himself. That wicked person has been inspired by demons who is recommending a divorce.

I am sick up to here with angry spoiled brats for wives fleeing their husbands to run to women's shelters, where 99 % of the time they meet fools who advice those vulnerable women to get a divorce. Those are bastards! I know a poor fella right now whose wife is in a women's shelter. She wasn't there for one week and she wants a divorce. She told her husband that she met some

Christian counsellors,

and after hearing her story and how she feels, they are advising her that filing for divorce is the best thing to do. THOSE ARE DEVILS!!! There is absolutely nothing even remotely

Christian

" or "biblical"

about their destructive Satanic advice.

Dear reader, especially you females, hear me. It is a sin to file for divorce! Matthew 19:6, " Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder." There are no biblical grounds for divorce. In any marriage you are uniting two sinners. There will be conflicts, fighting, misunderstandings, anger, resentment and problems. When you file for divorce, you're just exchanging one set of problems for another set of problems.

A lot of ungodly spoiled brat women prefer to live on government welfare, mooching off the government, than to submit to a responsible husband. Some women do not like to be corrected by a husband. GET RIGHT WITH GOD!!! Ephesians 5:22, "Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord."

I can only name on one hand the number of musical bands who are still together after 50 years of performing. The Beatles made it 10 years. The 1970's band Bread hate each other's guts. They along with other bands like Boston, Megadeth, The Eagles, Black Sabbath and Styx sued each other in court.

Oftentimes greed was the issue for infighting.

Peter Cetera left the band Chicago in 1985, he said due to "petty prejudices" and "misplaced egos" in the band. They all cannot get along as sinful human beings! A few bands like Rush and The Rolling Stones have stood the test of time. They still had issues in those bands, but they toughed it out and stayed loyal to each other as bandmates.

And if you think Christians are any better you'd be very wrong. Pastors cannot get along, bickering and attacking one another, slandering and gossiping, churches fighting against churches. Many Bible colleges hate each other, or else go along in ecumenical apostasy for the sake of filthy lucre. That's what Pensacola Christian College and Bob Jones University are wickedly doing, pandering to one another while both institutions preach another gospel of Satanic Lordship Salvation. These are houses of Satan! Please do not be deceived dear friend. Those are religious money-hungry cults! There is no genuine love for individual sinners, only the wicked love of money. Individual people do not matter, the institution always comes first.

I don't care how bad your marriage is, divorce is a sin. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was absolutely right, "Divorce is a sin that perpetuates for a lifetime." Sadly, but understandably amidst our corrupt court system in America, U.S. couples are increasing [1]opting to live together without getting married, because of the high pressures of incurred penalties, feelings of entrapment and the hefty financial risks involved if things go south. Let's face it, U.S. federal and state governments today are hostile toward married couples. If you doubt this, just talk to the tens of millions of American men who've been burned by the cruel and unfair system.

There's nothing I hate anymore than devilish losers who take advantage of a weak-minded wife whose going through marital troubles, advising her to quit her marriage and abandon her hurting husband. We live in an evil American culture today of liars, quitters and haters. I want no part of any of it!

Psalms 1:1a, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly... " Those women's shelters are full of welfare types, divorcees, fornicators and all manner of wicked sinners of the likes of Sodom and Gomorrah.

Scumbags who advise you to file for divorce have absolutely nothing to lose by ruining your marriage! The serpent who destroyed Eve's life and her family's life, went his merry way and you never hear from the serpent again. I guarantee you that the wicked pastor's wife, the so-called ungodly that demonic false friend, who recommends for you to divorce, won't be there in the future when you need their help!

Christian Counseller,

When my wife filed for divorce in 2006, her damned of God scumbag lawyer and the piece of crap Baptist pastor's wife on Guam, who helped her divorce me didn't buy her any clothes, shoes, dresses, a coat, hair dryer, kitchen items, pet supplies, a new kitchen table, and even pay her rent for two months 15 years later, I did! I gave her tens of thousands of dollars in gifts and money. I did that voluntarily in kindness for my x-wife because I still love her. Those human trash bins who caused a divorce didn't help her after the divorce, I did! So, think about that ladies before you go destroy your husband's life and flush your marriage down the toilet.

That piece of crap pastor's wife didn't suffer one iota, I did, and my x-wife did. If I have my way in Heaven, that wicked pastor's wife will rot in prison for 100 years! I want justice! Anybody who encourages, nourishes or helps cause a divorce is in serious trouble with God. You are treading on holy ground.

Psalms 1:1a, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly... "

The counsel of the ungodly is everywhere today! You'll find ungodly counsel in churches, Bible colleges, social media, from family and friends, et cetera. I encourage you to search the Scripture as Jesus commanded in John 5:39. Heed godly advice. Proverbs 13:20, "He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed."

When shamed pseudo-Christian music singer Amy Grant abandoned her husband Gary Chapman in 1999, she later blamed bad counsel as being one of the reasons she filed for divorce. I am so sick and tired of wicked people pushing the blame for their sinful behavior off on others. Amy filed for divorce because that is what she wanted to do, period! Her divorce was finalized in June of 1999 and she married adulterous singer Vince Gill nine months later in March of 2000. She monkey branched from one husband to another.

I do not condemn either of them because I feel like I'm the biggest sinner I know (and so should you if you're an honest person who is right with God).

Yet, it absolutely sickens me when I see magazine covers portraying Vince and Amy as “The Ideal Married Couple.” I was standing in a checkout line at K-mart years ago on Guam and read that title on a magazine cover and wanted to puke. That is wicked as the Devil! Teste of Country [2]wickedly praises Vince Gill for his 25 year marriage to Amy Grant. I’ll bet they don’t tell the truth that he abandoned his first wife to run off with a celebrity whore that he favored better. That’s NOT success!!! Why don’t we all just divorce our undesirable spouses and marry someone we like better, and then brag 25 years later how we did it? God hates divorce!

We sadly live in a throw away society in America today.

If a young women fornicates and ends up pregnant, wicked society says to just have an abortion.

If your marriage is rough, fools tell you to divorce and move on to greener pastures. The popular Satanic advice today is that God never intended two people to remain married if they are continually miserable and unhappy. OH YES, GOD DOES EXPECT YOU TO STAY MARRIED!!!

This is the most characterless generation in history. Ecclesiastes 12:13,

“ Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. ” There are no biblical grounds for divorce. I have never filed for divorce and I never will. Over my dead body!

7.3.4 That Ye Should Do That Which Is Honest (2026-03-04 09:37)

2nd Corinthians 13:5-9, “Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection."

I read this passage of Scripture today and a little phrase caught my attention, " that ye should do that which is honest. " We are living in a very dishonest world. The newsmedia lies to the American people all the time, with misinformation, disinformation and blatant lies.

Case in point, I remember back after the September 11, 2001 attack on the World Trade Center that Fox News were on the frontlines of the Media Blackout, lying to conceal the truth that the Bush administration helped orchestrate the 9/11 attacks. The Bush administration definitely had prior knowledge, which is why they ruthlessly [1]murdered FBI Deputy Director John O' Neill, because he knew too much. They got him a new job working at the WTC. His first day on the job was on 9/11. Thankfully, God will punish the evildoers!

Bush's own younger brother Marvin Bush was an executive for the company that handled all electronic security for the World Trade Center complex for the 2-years leading up to 9/11. [2]Marvin oversaw the demolition teams that planted the high explosives in the WTC buildings. Thankfully God will punish them all in eternity (Ecclesiastes 5:8).

The carnal church at Corinth were questioning Paul's apostleship. They also questioned the legitimacy of the other apostles. In today's world they would have said,

Who died and left you in charge?

" Paul responds by saying even if they were reprobates (not who they claimed to be), his only interest was in their spiritual growth in Christ. Paul had an excellent spirit.

Paul said regardless of what they thought about him, he exhorted " that ye should do that which is honest. " I love that. Though the stars fall, do right! do right!

From the dishonest Baptist pastor who says you must forsake your sinning to get to Heaven, to the dishonest spouse who breaks their marriage vow and divorces you, to the lying attorney who financially takes advantage of people at the lowest point of their life, singer Billy Joel is right that

[3]honestly is such a lonely word.

May we as God's redeemed children be just and ethical in our dealings with others in all matters,

" that ye should do that which is honest " (2nd Corinthians 13:7b).

7.3.5 Beware Of False Prophet Pastor Roland Rasmussen (2026-03-05 10:39)

Acts 15:1, “And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.”

In our text passage of Scripture from the New Testament we see a blatant counterfeit Gospel. Salvation has never come to anyone who added words (law) to faith (grace).

Pastor Roland Rasmussen was born June 3, 1929 in Long Beach, California, USA, and died August 11, 2020 in Simi Valley, California, USA. In 1949, Roland Rasmussen promised to become the pastor if God would save his father's life. The next September, Roland left his family and his career in engineering to prepare for the ministry. On one of his many trips to Bob Jones University, he met Margaret Wilkerson. The two fell in love, married, completed their training, and returned to California in 1958 where they served on staff at a church.
In 1960, a newly started church in Canoga Park asked Roland Rasmussen to be their pastor. Dr. Rasmussen pastored at Faith Baptist Church for 50 years.

Tragically, Pastor Rasmussen preached Satan's hard core fraud of Lordship Salvation.

Roland Rasmussen's Heresy Of A Prewrath Rapture

YouTube actually [1]censored and removed this Rapture video from my DaveC6th channel, claiming it was too emotionally traumatizing for some people...lol. Unbelievable! Yet, hypocritically, YouTube allows war documentaries showing decayed dead bodies, graphic videos showing 99 % naked women wearing dental floss, cross-dressing Sodomite transvestites, et cetera. YouTube are such hypocrites! If the coming Rapture traumatizes you, then whatever you do don't read the Holy Bible, because it will scare the Hell into you!

That being said, I respect the view of other Christians who ascribe to a Prewrath Rapture position, but I firmly believe in a Pretribulation Rapture. In my humble opinion, that is the only doctrinal position which prevents us from knowing WHEN Jesus will return. Jesus plainly said that no man, not even the angels, know the TIME of His return (Mark 13:32-37). I believe Mark 13:32-37 speaks of the coming Rapture of the saints, because if it refers to Jesus Second Coming that wouldn't make sense, because Daniel 12:11 gives us the exact number of days until Christ's Second Coming.

The following Scripture passage confirms that the Abomination of Desolation event will happen half way through the Tribulation period, which when cross referenced with Daniel 12:11, is how we know that the Tribulation will last for 7-years. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

I humbly agree with Pastor Steven Anderson that there are two Deal Breakers. One is the free grace Gospel, and the other is the inspiration of the King James Bible. All of the modern English Bible revisions are corrupt! Lordship Salvation and the fraud of "repent of your sins" to get to Heaven are damnable doctrines of devils. If you are wrong on the Gospel you cannot go soulwinning!

I realize that my ministry friend Pastor Anderson preaches a Prewrath Rapture. I have tremendous respect for his zeal for what Pastor Anderson believes. I mean, Faithful Word Baptist Church paid several thousand dollars to mail Brother Anderson's "After The Tribulation" movie DVD's to 6,500 Independent Baptist Churches across the United States. Wow! I love it!

Beware Of Dr. Roland Rasmussen

I remember while I was a student at Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993), that Pastor Jack Hyles mailed a letter to Pastor Roland Rasmussen (1929-2020) in California, informing him that he could no longer preach at Hyles-Anderson College due to his denial of a Pretribulation Rapture. I humbly think this was part of the reason why Tim, Rita and Mark Rasmussen (Pastor Rasmussen's adult children) were among the dozens of disgruntled staff members who turned against Brother Hyles in 1989. Brother Toby Weaver is still married to Rita and he was my teacher for "Christian Manhood" at Hyles-Anderson College. Brother Weaver later apologized to Pastor Hyles and they renewed their friendship.

Brother Hyles said that 1989 was the darkest year of his ministry, which he dreaded. When the college kids did a skit to honor Brother Hyles, going year by year of his ministry starting with 1959 when by God's grace he came to Hammond, Indiana, Pastor Hyles said he was dreading when they got to 1989, but thankfully they skipped over that year. Brother Hyles said that he breathed a sigh of relief. Brother Hyles preached this fiery sermon in 1989 in defense of himself, friends, family and church, titled '[2]Weathering The Storm.'

Dr. Hyles attributed the ruthless Satanic attack to ungodly neo-evangelicals. I can say personally that wicked neo-evangelicals have also been my worst enemies over the decades. I'm talking about ungodly institutions; such as: Pensacola Christian College, Bob Jones University, harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola, Agana Heights Baptist Church on Guam, et cetera. All of these damned religious cults are wrong on repentance and God's simple plan of salvation! I hate Lordship Salvation!!!

Pastor Roland Rasmussen allegedly led Pastor Steven Anderson's parents to Christ. I say allegedly because something was very [3]WRONG with Dr. Rasmussen's plan of salvation.

The following article was written by Pastor Robert N. Wilkin, exposing Dr. Rasmussen for unjustly attacking Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) and Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) for their views on repentance. I agree 100 % with Pastor Hyles, Dr. Hutson and Brother Wilkin...

Repentance Versus the Heresies of Curtis Hutson & Jack Hyles

Repentance Versus the Heresies of Curtis Hutson & Jack Hyles: An Open Letter (dated Dec. 12, 1996) to Dr. Shelton Smith, Editor of Sword of the Lord. By Roland Rasmussen. Published in pamphlet form by Faith Baptist Church of Canoga Park, CA.

21 pp. $1.00.

Having written my doctoral dissertation on repentance and salvation, I read this booklet with keen interest. As the title suggests, this booklet could hardly be described as irenic; it is a strong attack on the Free Grace view of the gospel.

Its thesis is that faith alone is not sufficient to save anyone. According to Rasmussen, sorrow for sin and turning from sins are also required for salvation.

This raises a problem for anyone who believes in justification by faith alone. How can justification be by faith alone if remorse and "abandonment of sin" (p. 13) are also required? However, seemingly unaware that what he is saying contradicts justification by faith alone, Rasmussen rebukes the late Dr. Hutson for teaching that faith and repentance are synonyms. Hutson advocated the change-of-mind view also held by such men as Drs. Lewis Sperry Chafer and Charles C. Ryrie. Rasmussen directly states that "faith and repentance are not the same" (p. 19, though no page numbers appear in the booklet). Clearly there can be no other conclusion than that for Rasmussen there are at least two (or even three) conditions of salvation: 1) faith, and 2) remorse over—and turning from—one's sins. Faith isn't enough. Nor are faith and remorse enough (see p. 13). All three are required.

Rasmussen doesn't say, but one wonders which sins must be abandoned? How would a person seeking salvation know what he or she had to give up in order to be saved? Should we carry around a list of the sins which must be forsaken? If so, where do we get this list? Does the Bible contain a list of sins that must be forsaken to gain the free gift of eternal life? Logically, if sins must be abandoned, then all sins must be abandoned. That would include both sins of commission—things we do which we are commanded not to do (such as lying, cheating, stealing, coveting, being jealous, having outbursts of anger, etc.) and sins of omission—things we fail to do but are commanded to do (such as praying without ceasing, giving, loving our neighbor as ourselves, owing no man anything, loving your wife as Christ loves the church, submitting to your husband, etc.).

There are many biblical difficulties inherent in the view that one must abandon his sins in order to gain eternal salvation—none of which is answered in the booklet. According to the Gospel of John, the only book in the Bible whose express purpose is evangelistic ([4]John 20:31), the only condition of eternal life is believing in Jesus. Repentance isn't mentioned even once.

Jesus didn't tell the woman at the well in [5]John 4:17-18ff that she needed to be sorry for her sins, or that she needed to resolve to give them up. Nor did John indicate that she was sorry, or that she determined to turn from her sins.

Likewise in [6]Acts 15:7-11; [7]16:30-31 and [8]Ephesians 2:8-9 there is no mention of remorse or turning from sins. Salvation is not of works, lest anyone should boast.

If even one passage in Scripture clearly shows that a person is saved by faith alone, apart from remorse or turning from sins (and many do), then we can be sure that faith is the only requirement, since Scripture is without error and doesn't contradict itself.

This booklet contains three citations from seventeenth century Baptist creeds which adopt the view that to be saved one must have remorse for his sins and must either resolve to amend his life or else actually endeavor to do so. While this is interesting, I wonder what it proves. The issue, which surely Rasmussen would agree with, is what the Scriptures teach, not the Council of Trent, Vatican II, the Westminster Confession of Faith, or the Second London Confession of 1688 (one of the Baptist Creeds Rasmussen cites). Even if every Baptist who ever lived held Rasmussen's view—and thank God they have not—if the Scriptures don't teach that view, then it must be rejected.

Herein lies the major weakness of Rasmussen's presentation: The author devotes only about one page (part of [9]pp. 15 and [10]16) in an effort to show that his position is biblical. Interestingly, in none of the limited passages he cites is salvation even mentioned! The closest is [11]Luke 13:3, which says, "Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." That text in no way proves Rasmussen's view. In the first place, some commentators feel that Jesus was speaking of perishing physically. Jesus may well have been promising that, apart from national repentance, Israel would fall and be removed from the promised land and many Jews would die. (This is what happened in the Jewish Wars of A.D. 66-70.) In the second place, even if this is referring to individuals and eternal condemnation, one must still determine what Jesus meant here by "repent" (metanoeō). Rasmussen fails to show contextual evidence that it doesn't mean "change of mind regarding Christ," as Hutson and Hyles would presumably argue. In fact, he merely cites the verse and moves on, with not a word of comment about it.

Rasmussen would like for Sword of the Lord to adopt his view of the gospel. Fortunately, that isn't likely to happen, since Sword of the Lord has long stood for the clear gospel, the free gift of eternal life received by faith alone in Christ alone.

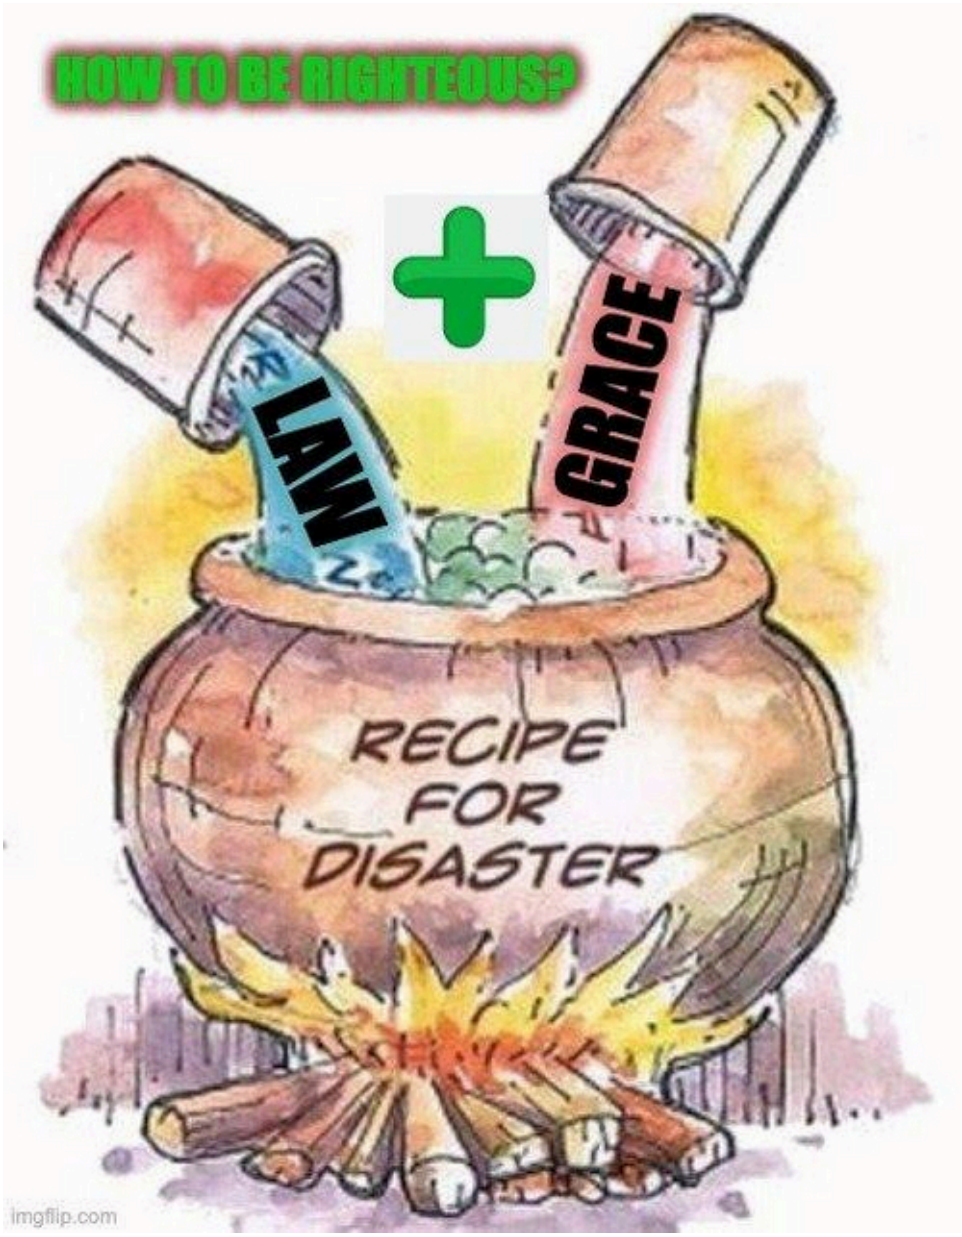
How can a false prophet who is wrong on repentance lead anyone to Jesus Christ? I think not. I am not saying that Pastor Anderson's parents are not saved, because only they know that. Their son [13]Pastor Steven Anderson exposes the fraud of Lordship Salvation, and I know that he is saved. So, I believe his parents are also saved, following the faith if their son.

Unfortunately, Pastor Rasmussen (1929-2020) preached hard core Lordship Salvation, as I just showed you.



Please BEWARE of any false prophet, no matter how suave and likable he may be, who insists that to get to Heaven you must turn from your sinning, or even be willing to turn from your sinful bad habits, because that is works, not grace. Romans 4:4,

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

” Since the only sin that can hinder you from going to Heaven is unbelief, then that is the only sin you need to repent (change your mind) about to be saved. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

7.3.6 My Opinion Of The War Against Iran (2026-03-06 12:10)

Luke 21:24, "And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled."

I don't believe President Trump for one second that Iran would have had a nuclear weapon in just 2 weeks. I think he is a rotten habitual liar! Nor do I believe that Iran would have launched a ballistic missile attack within weeks. Clearly, Trump needs to justify his onslaught against Iran. Right now everybody (especially Zionists) are rejoicing that Iran is allegedly out of the terrorism business, but the New World Order is advancing.

I heard the ambassador of Iran yesterday arrogantly say publicly that the U.S. hasn't changed anything in Iran, because they are about to elect a new leader, and their agenda will continue. Russia or China could give them nuclear weapons overnight! It will be interesting to see what happens to Iran in 5 years when all is said and done. If the U.S. and Israel want lasting change, they will absolutely need to maintain military control over Iran's government. The Satanic ideologies of Islam that hate westernized power, Jews and Christianity are still in place.

Also, I humbly do not think there is any biblical significance to the military conflict presently happening in Iran. The Bible is plain in Luke 21:24, "And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled."

Israel could be nuked off the map tomorrow and it would be perfectly biblical. Present-day modern manmade Israel has no special biblical promise of protection from God against attack. Since 586 BC. God has set the nation of Israel at nought.

The inspired Holy Bible teaches that only when the Jews repent to turn toward God will He restore the true nation of Israel, which won't happen until Jesus' Second Coming. Hosea 3:4-5,

" For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim: Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days."

The Jews may have returned to Palestine, but they haven't returned to God yet. Of the 7,000,000 Jews inhabiting Israel today, less than 2 % (including the cults) profess faith in Jesus as the promised Messiah. Literally, 98 % of Jews are still hellbound in their sin of unbelief without Jesus Christ. No unconverted Jew will ever enter into God's Kingdom or The Promised Land, they will tragically spend eternity burning in the Lake of Fire (Revelation 20:11-15).

I humbly do not think there is any biblical significance to the Iranian conflict presently going on. It is important to understand dear reader that in God's sight Israel hasn't existed since 586 BC, and won't exist again until the Second Coming of Jesus Christ (after the 7-year Tribulation).

That all being said, I think it was long overdue and necessary to remove Iran's thug theocracy. For decades Iran's lunatic leaders have been spewing hate speech; such as, "

Death to Americans!

They have ruthlessly murdered visiting corporation contractors in Iran. Iran's wicked leaders have launched ballistic missiles toward Israel and financially supported numerous deadly terrorist organizations throughout the Middle East. Enough is enough!

So, I applaud President Donald Trump's decision to remove Iran's irate leaders and neutralize the threat in the Middle East. It had to be done! During the recent peace talks, Iran's leaders kept walking away, procrastinating, doing all they could to delay the talks. It couldn't have been more clear that Iran's psychotic leaders had no intent on making the peace, and their remaining Islamic leaders still don't.

7.3.7 My Bible Beliefs On Marriage, Divorce And Remarriage (2026-03-07 08:15)

1st Corinthians 7:1-3, " Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman. Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband."

From our text passage it is evident that the church at Corinth had sent a letter to the Apostle Paul asking him questions about marriage, divorce and remarriage. I encourage you to read the entire chapter of 1st Corinthians chapter 7. Here is what I believe from the Bible. We often here churchgoers talk about "

God's will,

God's will,

God's will,

" but few Christians have a biblical mindset toward God's will. I believe there are three wills of God:

1. God's perfect will
2. God's acceptable will
3. God's permissive will

God's Perfect Will

Regarding marriage, God's perfect will is that one man and one woman get legally married and stay together for a lifetime, come what may. A marriage is two people making a life for each other. Marriage is two people never giving up on each other. That being said, life is much more complicated. In any marriage you are uniting two sinners.

God's Acceptable Will

And then there is God's acceptable will. The Bible teaches in 1st Corinthians 7:12-14 that if one spouse is saved, but the other is still lost as a Christ-rejecter, you should NOT divorce them. However, verse 15 says if they want to divorce you, " let him depart.

" This is God's acceptable will, not His perfect will. God hates divorce (Jeremiah 3:20; Malachi 2:16). I believe there are no biblical grounds for divorce, not even adultery.

When Jesus gave permission to divorce in Matthew 19:9 in cases of fornication, He was teaching Old Testament law instituted under Moses, which said that if a man's fiancée was found to be unclean, he could break off the engagement before the actual marriage was consummated. This is exactly what happened with Joseph and Mary. When he learned that his bride to be was pregnant, Joseph sought to secretly put her away (Matthew 1:19).

But there are no biblical grounds for divorcing an unfaithful spouse who has commit adultery. How silly it would be to believe that a married person could biblically divorce a spouse guilty of adultery, but not for committing murder, kidnapping, bank robbery or embezzlement. In Matthew 18:22, Jesus plainly taught that we are to forgive others 490 times each day! In a divorce, a spouse is declaring their own self-righteousness and refusal to forgive their spouse.

I am against all divorce! I have never, and never will, recommend that anyone file for divorce. That being said, ungodly lawyers prey upon married couples to financially ravish them. Attorney's make a sick living by taking advantage of people at the darkest hours of their life when they are hurting and devastated. No wonder Steven Spielberg has a fierce Tyrannosaurus Rex dinosaur biting a lawyer in half in Jurassic Park (I love that movie). A contested divorce nowadays can cost upwards of $100,000, and lawyers want that!

In any divorce, only one person can file (aka, the plaintiff). The other souse then becomes the defendant. I humbly believe that when one's spouse files for divorce, after doing all you can to stop the divorce, you would be wise not to contest the divorce. Why fight someone who no longer wants to live under the same roof with you? After 19 years of a troublesome marriage, when my wife filed for divorce in June of 2006, U.S. Marshalls came to my workplace on Guam and handed me a summons to divorce court. I was working alone that afternoon at the U.S. Postal Service and went into the maintenance parts room, turned off the lights, and wept bitterly for hours. Thankfully it was a slow night. I felt like my life had ended.

When I went to court, the first thing that ungodly judge said to me was,

"You better get a lawyer!" They asked how much money I had in the bank. They asked if my house was paid for. You see, they are greedy wicked predators! Judges are nothing more than overpaid lawyers, and lawyers are serpents laboring for the Devil. You couldn't pay me enough money to work in the rotten [1] $50,000,000,000 a year American divorce industry!!! Woe unto the wicked! Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was so right, "Divorce is a sin that perpetuates for a lifetime." God hates divorce. Jeremiah 3:20, "Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD. "

Jesus despised lawyers!

Luke 11:46, " And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. " Do you know the difference between a lawyer and a catfish? One is scum-sucking scavenger, the other is just a fish!

The court system is designed to create conflict. Many lawyers encourage their clients to be as aggressive as possible, tempting them with winning more money. And once someone starts making horrible accusations toward you in court, you have no choice but to fight back, which results in lawyers preying upon you for tens of thousands of dollar. Lawyers and judges deliberately create a battleground to profit from your destroyed marriage.

Please watch this shocking documentary dear reader...

Divorce Corp

Please protect your marriage from Satanic attack. The best defense is a good offense! Satan may seem to be on the loose, but he's on a leash. Satan is brilliant, but he's not omniscient. Satan cannot do anything without God's permission, as we see in Job chapter one concerning Job. The Devil needed God's permission to breach the hedge. God does not give us what we can handle, He helps us handle what we've been given. God is greatly glorified when we choose to trust Him through trials, suffering, persecution and tears.

God's Permissive Will

Now, I differ from many preachers in that I believe in remarriage. If you chose to divorce your spouse for any reason, you will be committing adultery if you remarry someone else, but please notice what the Scripture says in 1st Corinthians 7:1-2, " Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman. Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband ." This is as biblical as thou shalt not kill in Exodus 20:13. This is as biblical as thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself in Matthew 19:19. God wants nearly everyone married!

1st Corinthians 7:8-9, "

I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.

But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

" Here we have a direct commandment from God that if you are unmarried (for whatever reason, including if YOU divorced your former spouse), and you are burning with sexual desire from a strong libido, you absolutely need to get remarried. This will prevent the sin of fornication and potential STD's in the church (1st Corinthians 7:1-2).

Sadly, kindly said, they have their heads stuck up their asses at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), where once you are divorced they forbid anyone from ever getting remarried. When I attended their Campus Church in 2021, and sincerely said that I am divorced hoped to find a wife at Campus Church, a group of church staff members literally turned and walked away from me like I had passed putrid gas. What self-righteous hypocrites!!! There is no love for individual sinners at PCC, only the cult system that always come first.

So, dear reader, if you have blown God's perfect will for your life by filing for divorce, or you are the victim of an unwanted divorce, God's acceptable will would be for you to remain single for the remainder of your earthly life (1st Corinthians 7:27). However, if you are burning with sexual desire or the inexplicable pain of loneliness, it is within God's permissive will that you get remarried to someone else. These are my beliefs based upon the plain clear-cut teachings of the inspired Holy Scriptures. Thank you for reading. Jesus is precious!!!

7.3.8 FOX News And Their Immoral Ungodly Immodesty (2026-03-08 05:30)

Proverbs 7:10, "And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart."

SHAME on FOX News for daily showing their females wearing miniskirts half way up to their crotch. The women sit alluring, as if ready to open their legs. It is immoral wickedness!

I watched spoiled brat Shannon Bream promote her new book today titled,

"Nothing Is Impossible With God." I guess her god doesn't believe in holiness, because she looks like a bimbo in a miniskirt on FOX news.

She was shamefully wearing a very short skirt today, as female guests usually do on FOX News, because it's their thing, and God hates it.

Any woman who dresses immodestly, tempting men with her raised skirt to show her thighs, is pulling on the same rope as the Devil. SHAME on such immoral women!

Kindly said, if you think that I (as a fundamentalist Baptist Bible preacher) am wrong to judge women who wear pants, then you are a fool. The heathen world only knows two words in the Holy Bible, "Judge not." If you knew the Bible, then you'd know that God commands us TO JUDGE as believers. John 7:24, "Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment." As a fundamentalist Bible preacher I am judging righteous judgment. I am crying aloud against sin and evil, as a Bible preacher is supposed to do (Isaiah 58:1; Ephesians 5:11; Titus 1:9-14). If I have upset you dear woman, my guess is that your dresser drawer is full of pants. And if the shoe fits, SHAME on you for defending the sin of immodesty.

One angry woman said I will answer to God one day for preaching against women wearing pants. Really? I would remind you that, in fact, we will all have to answer to God someday (Romans 14:10-12). Jesus warned that we will even be held accountable for every word spoken and unspoken (Matthew 12:36). She is wickedly defending the sin of immodesty. I am justly exposing the sin of immodesty. Who do you think God is more pleased with? If she believed the inspired Word of God, then there would be no controversy.

I suppose she also thinks Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was [1]wrongly judging women who wore pants, miniskirts and Spandex; [2]who expose their thighs in public.

I also encourage you to [3]read this article against women wearing pants by Pastor Bob Gray Sr.

The average worldly woman who wears pants only does so because nearly every other female in our perverse American culture is doing it. I'm not saying that every female who wears pants is a harlot, but she looks like one (Proverbs 7:10). No matter how you may attempt to justify sin, it is WRONG for a woman to put on a pair of pants that reveals the shape of her buttocks and thighs. It is a weakness of character.

Since lust is a sin, pants on women is a sin. And since argumentative females don't believe the Bible preacher, why don't you all [4]listen to a worldly Rap singer, Chingy, who plainly reveals what is wrong with women wearing pants.

Kindly said dear reader, anyone who disagrees with my biblical preaching against women wearing pants in public couldn't be more wrong; and YOU will answer to God for your words, unjustly criticizing the Bible preacher, and for your wicked pants if you wear them in public for men to see and lust upon.

The Wickedness Of Family Baptist Church In Pensacola

We were horrified in April of 2025 at the ungodly Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, when Pastor Brad Moffett told me and my wife that it is perfectly okay for his spoiled brat wife to wear her sexy pants in public. His lame wicked excuse was that since a man who walks in the Spirit “shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh

” (Galatians 5:16b), it shouldn’t matter if his wife wears pants. What incompetence in the clergy! What Pastor Brad foolishly said is akin to saying that since a man who walks in the flesh won’t steal, it’s therefore okay to leave your expensive new bicycle unattended and unsecured in public. Say ’goodbye’ to your new bike!

The truth is that most Christian men do not walk in the Holy Spirit who indwells them (Galatians 5:25). And most men are not even a born again Christian, so they do not have the Holy Spirit of God indwelling them (Romans 8:9). The shameful reality of the situation is that when Pastor Brad’s worldly wife wears her sexy pants in public, men are going to think unholy evil thoughts toward her body, and she will answer to God in eternity for the sins she caused by her cavalier sinful attitude toward modesty. Woe be unto her henpecked wimp for a husband, the incompetent fool who is the church pastor!

Brad’s potty-mouthed abusive father Bobby Moffett is ten times worse, who is also a pastor—Bobby is wickedly rude, inconsiderate toward others, insulting, the epitome of a narcissist. To no surprise his wife wears pants too. SHAME on the Moffett family for defying God’s commandment for ladies to dress MODESTLY. 1st Timothy 2:9-10, “In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.” A pastor’s wife who wears pants fits right in with the ungodly world. You cannot tell her apart from the heathen. I speak to her utter shame!

GET RIGHT WITH GOD FAMILY BAPTIST CHURCH IN PENSACOLA!

Shame On FOX News For Promoting Immodesty

It couldn’t be more obvious that FOX News management highly encourages (and likely requires) it’s female employees to dress like harlots. You cannot watch FOX News without seeing a whore right in the middle of the group, who is shamefully wearing a miniskirt nearly up to her crotch. Any red-blooded normal American man is picturing her legs opening, since her long legs and sexy thighs are already exposed, and you can clearly see her thighs uncovered, it is perfectly normal for the male viewer’s mind to run wild with imagination. This is deliberate! All the while they’re talking about the news they are filling viewer’s minds with sinful sexual lust, enticement and temptation, and they do this on purpose. Woe unto FOX News and the lewd women who go along with such wickedness on Judgment Day! The old adage is sadly very true: Sex sells.

We keep hearing from conservative media about the liberal left, but FOX News shamefully represents the liberal right (i.e., controlled opposition). I wish so-called females in the news media would start wearing dresses and modest clothing, instead of helping Satan to further corrupt society. Today’s U.S. prisons are filled with hundreds of thousands of guilty men who succumbed to sexual lust, and the evil guilty women who helped entice them with immodest attire have blood on their hands. Go to any American beach and women wear nothing more than dental floss. They should all be arrested, convicted and put into prison!

Feminism is evil. The LGBTQ agenda is of the Devil. Abortion is cold-blooded murder. Immodest clothing on a woman is evil. There is a direct correlation between women’s clothing styles and the female's attitude toward sexual purity and the sacredness of life in the womb. You won't find hardly any women wearing long dresses who are pregnant out of wedlock and having abortions. She that hath ears to hear, let her hear.

GET RIGHT WITH GOD FOX NEWS!!!

[6]

I only wear dresses in public, so people won't think I have low moral standards. I want to honor my dear Savior.

A godly woman has a modest heart,thats why she covers her body in modesty.

Teach your daughters that they can be properly dressed, fully covered and still be amazingly beautiful.

7.3.9 Biblical Modesty Is Sadly A Hotly Debated Topic Today (2026-03-09 12:40)

1st Timothy 2:9-10, “In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.”

I am going to share three posted comments from [1]my Facebook page by worldly Christians who disagree with me that women biblically ought not wear pants in public. But first, so that you can see the context of what’s going on, here is my unedited original post on Facebook from Friday, March 6th, 2026 at 8:47 am...

Any pastor’s wife who wears pants DOES NOT love Jesus as much as she should. In April of 2025, [3]Pastor Brad Moffett censured my website ministry for my preaching against women wearing pants. He argued that his worldly pants-wearing wife loves Jesus as much as anybody. WHAT A LIAR!!! No, she doesn't love Jesus as a godly woman who wears a full-length dress. When wicked women wear pants to display their thighs and buttocks, they are blaspheming God's Word.

The haters on social media had these negative things to say about me...

Negative Critique #1

Randy writes: More modern Pharisee spirit. Calling other pastors whores. Can't find that in the New Testament. Quite not Christlike.

My Christian response:

I am not the Pharisee Randy, you are. I am upholding the biblical truth that women should dress in MODEST apparel (1st Timothy 2:9); whereas you are defending sin. Wicked neo-evangelicals and the heathen world are the only fools defending IMMODESTY.

American prisons are full of men who succumbed to lustful enticements and committed horrible crimes. What you foolishly call a "Pharisee spirit" God calls a "war against the soul." 1st Peter 2:11, "

Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul.

If you cannot find a fundamentalist Bible preacher crying aloud against sin in the Bible, you are ignorant and unlearned (Isaiah 58:1; Ephesians 5:11; Titus 1:9-14). John the Baptist was beheaded, not for preaching the Gospel, but for preaching against Herod's adultery with his brother's wife.

Jesus said that the world hates Him because He preaches against their evil (deliberate sin). A woman who wears pants is deliberately sinning. She is doing EVIL! John 7:7, "The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil."

Nobody hates sin as much as Christ. He called the Pharisees, like you, serpents.

You are very wrong Sir! SHAME on you.

* As an added remark that I didn't include in my response to Randy, I never called any pastor a "

whore,

but I have said in my Bible preaching at times that a pastor's wife who wear pants looks like a whore (Proverbs 7:10). MODESTY MATTERS!!!

Negative Critique #2

Krissy writes: Ridiculous.

My Christian response:

No Krissy, kindly, you are thinking ungodly. There are hundreds of thousands of men rotting in prisons across America for sins they committed due to lust. What you call "ridiculous" God calls a war against men's soul.

1st Peter 2:11, "

Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul.

" There is nothing MODEST about pants on a woman!

Negative Critique #3

Kathy writes: Stop judging. You not the judge and remember, you will have answer for it.

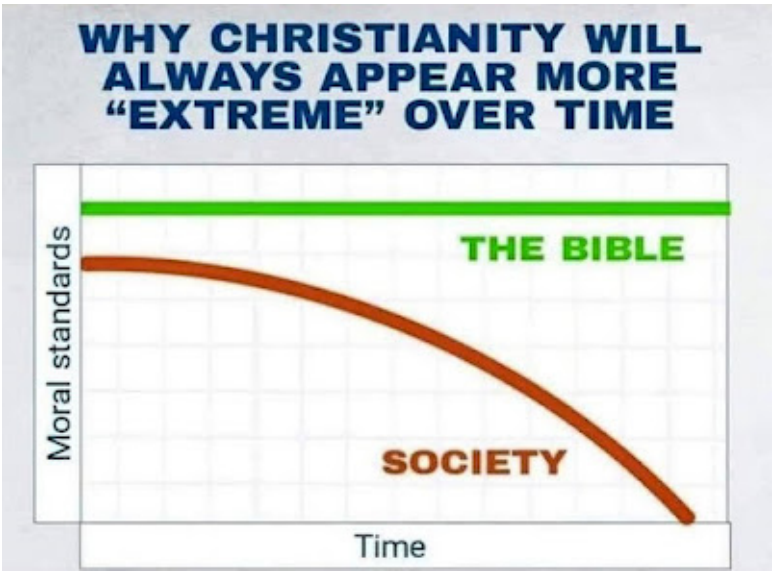
My Christian response: Kindly, you are a fool Kathy. The heathen world only knows two words in the Holy Bible, "Judge not." If you knew the Bible, then you'd know that God commands us TO JUDGE as believers. John 7:24, "Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment." As a fundamentalist Bible preacher I am judging righteous judgment. I am crying aloud against sin and evil as a preacher is supposed to do (Isaiah 58:1; Ephesians 5:11). My guess is that your dresser drawer is full of pants. SHAME on you for defending the sin of immodesty.

I would remind you that, in fact, we will all have to answer to God someday (Romans 14:10-12). Jesus warned that we will be held accountable for every word spoken and unspoken (Matthew 12:36). You are wickedly defending the sin of immodesty. I am justly exposing the sin of immodesty. Who do you think God is more pleased with? If you believed the inspired Word of God, there would be no controversy.

I suppose you also think Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was wrongly judging women who wear pants, miniskirts and Spandex; wicked females who expose their thighs in public...

- [4]Dr. Jack Hyles Preaches On Modesty
- [5]Pastor Hyles Explains From Isaiah That A Whore Uncovers Her Thighs

I also encourage you to [6]read this article against women wearing pants by Pastor Bob Gray Sr.



The average worldly woman who wears pants only does so because nearly everyone else in our perverse American culture is doing it. I'm not saying that every female who wears pants is a harlot, but she looks like one (Proverbs 7:10). No matter how you may attempt to justify sin, it is WRONG for a woman to put on a pair of men's pants that reveals the shape of her buttocks and thighs. It is a weakness of character. And since you don't believe the Bible preacher, why don't you [7]listen to a worldly Rap singer, Chingy, who plainly reveals what is wrong with women wearing pants.

Kindly said, you couldn't be more wrong ma'am; and YOU will answer to God for your words, unjustly criticizing the Bible preacher, and for your wicked pants if you wear them in public for men to see.

As the world sinks further into the dark abyss of wickedness, and the inspired Word of God never changes, fundamentalist Christians who faithfully follow, obey and preach the Holy Bible are seen as radicals, extremists and being out of tough with reality. Yet, nothing could be further from the truth. We haven't changed, the world has changed!

[8]

Even if it harelips every dog in the county, I will go to seed in this important biblical matter of modesty. Only an ungodly incompetent neo-evangelical pastor would dismiss the issue of women wearing pants as legalism. It is a matter of holiness and pleasing our holy God.

> 1st Timothy 2:9-10, "In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works."

If you foolishly think that

for women in 1st Timothy 2:9 allows for females to adorn themselves in hot jeans, pants of any type, Spandex, Daisy Duke short shorts, tight form-fitting skirts, transparent dresses, negligee type fabric, and other whorish attire, you are woefully mistaken. Every Christian woman and girl should wear MODEST clothing. I firmly believe that skirts should rest at least 4 inches below the knee.

Modesty Matters To God

We are at war today spiritually over modesty. [9]Take a close look at what teenage girls today are contending with. Taylor Swift is serving Satan. Her net worth is now at $1,600,000,000. It is blood money! It is ill-gotten filthy lucre, for which money she will answer to almighty God.

When I uploaded my shocking article about '[10]Taylor Swift And Satanism,' weeks later some wicked person published a fake report that Miss Swift is a high priestess in the Church of Satan, which bumped my truthful article down hundreds of notches in the search engines. That is called disinformation and misinformation, which is cleverly and often used by those who control the media to distort information and hide the truth. Since over 92 % of all internet searches filter through Google, the corporation essentially controls public opinion.

Girl's Skirts Should Be Worn Well Below The Knee

The problem I have with knee length skirts goes back to when I was in a Christian high school in Chicago. There were some girls sitting on the church platform while we were doing some skits. My buddy in the pew nudged me in the arm to look up at the platform, and we were looking right up the crotch of a teenage girl. Although her skirt was appropriate length while standing, when she sat down it raised higher, and we could see up her skirt while she was sitting. That's my humble experience, so for me, I prefer that females wear longer skirts at least a few inches below the knee. In my humble opinion, the longer the better.

[11]Dressing For His Glory

In a Christian family, I firmly believe that a husband should control what his wife and daughters wear (as regards standards of modesty). If you disagree, it is only because you have been adversely influenced by sinful feminist ideologies. I hate the evils of feminism, which rebellion against God's Word has rotted American women, ruined marriages and destroyed families.

Many Evils Are Rooted In The Sin Of Immodesty

There is a direct correlation between modesty, sexual purity, wifely submission and the abortion industry. One sin begets another sin and another and another. Evil begets evil. Although their worldly music is beautiful and even genius from a musician's perspective, The Beatles music was used by Satan as a Trojan Horse to introduce all manner of rebellion, fornication, substance abuse, false religion, anarchy and wickedness into American society.

It should not come as a big surprise that the hippie movement of the 1960s, with all their shacking-up in fornication (aka, "

), led to the demonic abortion industry of 1973 (Roe vs. Wade). The vile homosexual movement followed in the decades to follow, until ultimately in 2003 punishment against homosexuality was declared unconstitutional. It's truly nauseating what can be declared

just and moral

under the pretense of law and order in a wicked culture.

Every time I read Isaiah 1:4-6 I am reminded of the United States...

> Isaiah 1:4-6, "Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward. Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment."

The prophet Isaiah said it was no use for God to continue chastising Israel, because they weren't going to repent anyway. They were hardened in their calloused hearts against the truth, against righteousness, against God their Creator. What a sad testimony!

When I hear [12]henpecked Baptist pastors and their ungodly worldly wives defending the sin of women wearing pants in public, I want to vomit. And I assure you dear reader that such immodesty makes God puke! Do you really think God is okay with females wearing nothing more than dental floss to the beach? Yet, tens of millions of American women are guilty of such immoral wickedness! It's not a coincidence that fornication, adultery, lesbianism, abortion and feminism have all skyrocketed along with women putting on men's pants in public.

We need an old fashioned revival across the United States of modesty. We need a return to the proven old paths when women dressed like ladies, wives obeyed their husband, children obeyed their parents, men married women, people had character so that their word was their bond, and society feared God. In short, we need a revival of biblical Christianity. The preaching from the pulpits of one generation will determine the moral character of the next generation!

> "That's one reason why this generation of ours thinks they're doing right, because nobody's ever told them what's wrong. The wind has blown, but it has not been resisted. Sin has run rampant, but it has not been resisted. I have said this before, 'The pulpit is the moral conscience of a nation.' And the morals of a nation will be exactly what its preaching was the last generation." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[13]Ignorance Concerning Self"

I am so thankful for faithful fundamentalist Bible preachers like J. Frank Norris, Jack Hyles, Steven Anderson, Bruce Mejia, Jonathan Shelley and others who STAND for truth and righteousness. They're not perfect men and they'd be the first to humbly admit it, but they're STANDING ON THE PROMISES, while 99 % of other pastors are merely SITTING ON THE PREMISES. They are slack dogs! MODESTY MATTERS!!!

I guarantee you that no Christian woman would wear a pair of pants if she knew Jesus was coming to visit her house. But if you did wear pants, the good LORD would not condemn you. He would lovingly say nothing about your pants. That being said, when you ladies stand before the Judgment Seat of Christ, He assuredly WILL mention your pants, because that will be a time of judgment for the good and bad done in your body. 2nd Corinthians 5:10, " For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad." Every woman will be held accountable by God for her wardrobe.

7.3.10 The Christian's Spiritual Weapons of Warfare (2026-03-10 15:22)

Ephesians 6:11-12, "Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places."

Obeying God is infinitely more important than exposing the New World Order. Our battle as Christians is not against flesh and blood, but against spiritual wickedness in high places and the rulers of the darkness of this world. We must use the proper weapons!

Alex Jones has been making tens-of-millions of dollars fighting a spiritual battle with secular weapons, but the inspired Holy Bible plainly teaches in Ephesians 6:12 that our weapons are spiritual in nature. Notice carefully with me, if you will, something that nearly everyone who quotes Ephesians 6:12 misses, which is verse 11 . . .

> Ephesians 6:11-12, "Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places."

We cannot defend ourselves nor our nation against the attacks of Satan without THE WHOLE ARMOUR OF GOD, which according to Ephesians 6:13-18 is:

1. Lions gird about with TRUTH
2. Breastplate of RIGHTEOUSNESS
3. Feet shod with the preparation of THE GOSPEL
4. Shield of FAITH
5. Helmet of SALVATION

6. Sword of the Spirit, which is THE WORD OF GOD

7. Persevering in PRAYER

The seven things that I just listed from the inspired King James Bible are taken lightly by most people. The average American couldn't care less about truth, righteousness, faith, the Gospel, the inspired Word of God or prayer; yet, these are the very remedies to our problems in the United States.

7.3.11 Beware Of False Prophet Jordan Riley On YouTube (2026-03-11 07:48)

Galatians 3:1-2, " O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?"

Kindly said, Lordship Salvation is a gross perversion of God's grace, which [1]Jordan Riley has been caught up into. Jordan makes money from his website, YouTube channel and other social media sites. What saith the Scripture? Matthew 7:15, "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves."

Jordan Riley in his list of [2]15 pastors that he recommends endorses damnable false prophet [3]John MacArthur (1939-2025). Pastor MacArthur [4]preached a counterfeit plan of salvation.

Sadly, Jordan Riley also preaches a counterfeit plan of salvation...

" What Must I Do To Be Saved | What is The Gospel"

THIS IS A FALSE GOSPEL BY JORDAN RILEY!!!

I am so tired of preachers misinterpreting 2nd Corinthians 5:17 to mean that every saved person must live a "radically transformed life" (as Jordan says in his video) to prove you are really saved.

Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago and their corrupt '[5]UNSHACKLED' radio program are horribly guilty of doing this, lying to their listeners, wresting 2nd Corinthians 5:17, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new."

To the unlearned Bible student, this passage may be misinterpreted to mean that your life must change to prove you're saved. But that is not what this passage means, not even close. The Scripture is simply teaching that when you get saved God indwells and seals you with His blessed Holy Spirit. You have a new nature in Christ, but the enemy of your old untamable flesh is still present (Romans 7:14-25).

Your Salvation Did Not Change You A Bit

One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) is titled: '[6]Your Salvation Did Not Change You A Bit.' In his sermon, Dr. Hyles likens getting saved to when the First Baptist Church of Hammond purchased a former Strip Club down the street. At the time of the purchase (the new birth), there was a transfer of ownership. When you come to Christ by faith to be saved, there is a transfer of ownership from Satan to God. But when the church bought the strip club, it hadn't been renovated yet. The building still had the stripper's platform and pole, the bar and dirty lewd images on the wall. The acquired building needed to be renovated.

The same is true with getting saved. The only thing that you receive at salvation is the gift of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24). Your character hasn't changed one iota. You are still the exact same sinner, but now you are God's redeemed child. 1st Peter 2:2 teaches to grow on the milk of the Word. 2nd Peter 3:18 teaches to grow in the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ. If a local church merely preaches the Gospel to get sinners saved, but fails to mentor them so that their lives can be renovated and made useful for God's purpose, then that church hasn't fulfilled 'The Great Commission' (Matthew 28:19-20).

The ONLY thing that changes when you come to Jesus Christ in faith to be born again is that you receive God's gift of the indwelling Holy Spirit. There has been a transfer of ownership from Satan to God. But now this new babe in Christ needs to be renovated with the inspired Word of God (John 17:17). It is the church's job to mentor new converts according to 'The Great Commission' in Matthew 28:19-20. The sad truth is that there are carnal Christians everywhere who don't attend church. All it would require is for another believer to care enough to go knock on their door to invite them back to church.

Today's churches are pathetic!

They've dropped the ball for Christ, failing to go out into the highways and hedges with the Gospel of free grace. I am talking about biblical soulwinning. Your salvation did NOT change you a bit. You need to grow in the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ by feeding on the milk of God's inspired Word (1st Peter 2:2; 2nd Peter 3:18). Without the love and support of a local caring Bible-believing church, lost sinners won't come to Christ, and what converts that do exist will continue to languish in mediocrity and carnality. We have dropped the ball as Christians!

Salvation Versus Service

Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan said it best, I humbly think...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) said it very well...

> There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for > devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness.

> —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, "Hebrews"; Zondervan Publishing House; 1959 (p. 117)

The heresy of "Lordship Salvation" wickedly combines and mixes service (discipleship) with salvation (sonship). We must always keep these two things separate lest we corrupt the Gospel and confuses people. Right doctrine matters!

7.3.12 If You Are A Christian Wife, Your Husband Is Your Ministry (2026-03-12 00:12)

Genesis 2:18, "And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him."

God's will for nearly every woman is to get married, bear children, guide the house and not cause trouble. 1st Timothy 5:14-15, "I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. For some are already turned aside after Satan." All of these foolish career women today are turned aside after Satan. Many career women are having fewer children due to factors like prioritizing education and work, financial concerns, and the challenges of balancing career progression with motherhood. It is wickedness!

Career Women Are The Most Miserable Group

This ungodly feminist trend reflects a broader societal shift in the U.S. Europe and Australia where women are increasingly delaying family formation or choosing to remain childless. In fact, according to Psychology Today [1]the most miserable group in America are middle-aged career women.

In its Office Pulse survey, Captivate Network, a media solutions company, says it uncovered "profiles of the happiest and unhappiest workers."

Here is the profile of the unhappiest person:

- Female
- 42 years old

- Unmarried (and no children)
- Household income under $100,000
- In a professional position (doctor, lawyer, et cetera)

Those ungodly career woman have all turned aside after Satan, and they are suffering for it. All of Satan's apples have worms. Genesis 2:18, "And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him."

Your Ministry Is Being A " Help Meet " To Your Man

Dear reader, God created a woman to serve as a "

HELP MEET

to her own lawfully wedded husband. The Hebrew word for help

is ezer which means

to aid, to give help or assistance; be of service.

God didn't make you dear lady you to raise children, although that is part of your job as a mother. God didn't create you to go to the shopping mall with your friends on weekends, but that is okay if your husband approves. God didn't create you to pursue your own selfish (or un-selfish) ambitions, hobbies and interests; but again these things are okay with your husband's permission.

You Do Need Your Husband's Permission

Dear woman, perhaps you defiantly say,

"I don't need my husband's permission!" If that is you, then you are not right with God. You have a wicked unbiblical mindset toward your marriage and your husband. Ephesians 5:22, "Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord." God expects every wife to submit (obey) her husband as if he were Jesus Christ Himself. How many American women follow this biblical teaching? Not many I can tell you.

If you have regard for God's Word, then y ou DO need your husband's permission to make any decision that will affect the marriage, finances, children or your home. Like it or not, God has ordained that the man of the home be in charge!

And if you are now thinking, "Well what about my husband?" If that is you, shame on you ma'am for looking for excuses, like did Eve in the Garden of Eden, to justify your rebellious spirit. When it comes to authority in the marriage and home, it is not a 50/50 arrangement.

Your husband is 100 % in charge, and if you have a problem with that, you shouldn't have been married. And it matters not whether you agreed to obey your husband in the marriage vows or not, God commands every wife to obey her own husband as unto the LORD.

Rebellion Is No Different Than Witchcraft

Dear reader, ladies, your husband is your only ministry. One day your children will grow up and move out, but will you still have your husband? Of all your daily duties, cares, obligations and responsibilities, being of service to your man is your primary job. God hates stubbornness and rebellion. HE HATES IT! 1st Samuel 15:23, "For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from being king." Are you on par with a witch ladies? Whether you worship Satan, or mouth off to your husband in defiance against his will, there is no difference in God's sight! You might as well bow down and worship Baal when you sass your man, showing him disrespect and contempt. God hates wifely rebellion!

Nowhere does the inspired Scripture say for a wife to obey a good husband, it says to submit to your husband as unto the LORD.

Nowhere does the inspired Scripture say for a wife to obey a faithful husband, it says to submit to your husband as unto the LORD.

Nowhere does the inspired Scripture say for a wife to obey a fair husband, it says to submit to your husband as unto the LORD.

Nowhere does the inspired Scripture say for a wife to obey a godly husband, it says to submit to your husband as unto the LORD.

Does Your Husband Curse The Day He Married You?

Proverbs 12:4, "A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones." Do you adversely affect your husband's wellbeing due to your bad attitude and rebellion? Are you the rot in his bones? Proverbs 31:28, "Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her."

Does your husband call you

blessed

ma'am with words of praise, or does he say

"God damn my wife!" for the chaos and grief you cause him? What kind of wife are you? God is watching.

What will your husband say about you when you are judged by God in eternity? Hebrews 13:17, " Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you." Someday God is going to ask your husband what he thinks about your behavior as a wife. What will your husband tell God? Woe unto the ungodly rebellious wife! Woe unto you woman, whosever you may be, if you make your husband's life miserable! You will someday reap with regret what you are now sowing.

Are You A Help Meet Or A Hindrance?

While your husband was faithfully working day and night on his ministry for Christ, where were you? Were you faithfully by his side helping him, as his soulmate; or were you continually running to women's shelters to escape your duties, responsibility and life's challenges? Were you cooking him a decent meal every day, or were you surfing social media on your stupid phone half the day? Did you bother to do his dirty laundry without being asked, or did it pile up? Did you show the slightest interest in his ministry work, or selfishly do your own thing?

And what about the refrigerator? Does your husband become frustrated that purchased food sat so long in the refrigerator that it rotted and now needs to be thrown away, because you were too lazy as a wife to be diligent? Does your husband have to scold you for leaving your shoes and clothes on the dining room floor? I know I'm talking to some lazy wives. Hey, if the shoe fits, wear it! You need to hear what I am saying.

God gave your husband an important ministry as his life's work, and the LORD made you to assist him any way possible to make his life easier, less stressful, happier and productive for the Lord Jesus Christ. That is your primary purpose for existence as a woman! When you cause your husband grief by your shameful rebellious behavior, big sassy mouth, angry mood swings, psychotic episodes, blaming him for your failures, and causing him problems, you have now become a hindrance to his ministry. You are effectively his worst enemy, keeping him for serving God. And you listen to me you spoiled little brat, God will deal with you harshly!

Go Hates Divorce

Women file for divorce in America three times more often than men do. The reason why is simply because they can. [2]No-Fault Divorce began in atheist communist Soviet Union in 1918. It spread to other nations and came to the United States in 1969 in California. Today all 50 states in the U.S. allow some form of no-fault divorce, although the specifics vary by state. Some states are considered "true" no-fault states, such as Florida, meaning that neither party needs to prove wrongdoing to obtain a divorce; they simply need to state that the marriage is irretrievably broken. This approach simplifies the divorce process and avoids assigning blame. The truth is BOTH the husband and wife are to blame!

I heard my favorite preacher Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) say that in over 50 years of ministry as a pastor, that he has never once recommend for anyone to get a divorce; but he also said that he has jumped up and down a few times with rejoicing when there was a divorce. Some people are just Losers! Some women are serpent seeds. Some women don't deserve a good husband, and vise versa. A marriage is two people never giving up one each other. A marriage is two people making a life for each other.

King Solomon said that **"

Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom

(Proverbs 13:10). Jesus said in Matthew 19:8b,

" Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so. " God hates divorce!

That being said, although I would never recommend a divorce either, I will never condemn anyone who files for divorce from a spouse who is impossible to coexist with. It is easy to judge from a distance! Dear reader, you nor I can fairly condemn anyone who seeks a divorce when we simply do not know what they are dealing with and suffering through. There are things worse than death and divorce! I'd 10,000 times rather see a man divorce his wife than to spend the rest of his life in prison for murder.

Please do not misunderstand what I am saying, I do NOT approve of divorce, ever, but sometimes I think it is a blessing when it happens. Some couples are like gas and fire. God knows your heart dear friend, whether you are looking for a way to blame your spouse to quit your marriage, or if you sincerely want to make it work out (Hebrews 4:13).

I worked with a black man years ago in Chicago, who told me that he was mowing the grass on a hot summer day. He kindly asked his wife for a glass of water and she snapped back, "Get it yourself!" Woe unto that rebellious wife! God hates rebellion. My co-worker told me that his wife would deliberately provoke him to anger with her sassy big mouth and sharp words, hoping that he would snap and physically assault her, so that she could file for divorce and automatically win custody of the kids, alimony (" as Robin Williams called it), et cetera. You cannot hide your true intentions from God. Proverbs 24:12,

all the money

If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?

" Judgment Day is coming for every human being (Hebrews 9:27; Romans 14:10-12). The $64,000 question is do you fear God?

Here is [3]a helpful sermon excerpt from my ministry friend Pastor Steven Anderson's sermon '[4]Jeremiah 3.' In this excerpt he explains that Jesus' teachings on marriage and divorce caused His disciples to choke on His words. That is, they had a difficult time processing what He was saying. Still today 2,000 years later people choke on this hotly debated topic of marriage, divorce and remarriage. Jesus concluded by saying in Matthew 19:11b, " All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.

I will close by reiterating the main truth I am trying to convey to Christian women in this blog, which is that your whole purpose for existence, for which God made you, is to please God by helping your husband as he serves God in his ministry. Thank you for showing grace by hearing me out in this unpopular subject. To God alone by all the credit, praise and glory.

Proverbs 31:28, “Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.”

7.3.13 If A Pastor Hearken To Lies, All Of His Church Members Are Wicked (2026-03-13 09:17)

Proverbs 29:12, “If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.”

If a church pastor is preaching lies, his congregation that follow him as also corrupt.

A sore evil that I have seen in my lifetime is carnal church congregations who give unquestioning loyalty and support for their corrupt pastor. One such church is Gamily Baptist Church in Pensacola, whose wicked pastors (a father and son team) both preach the damnable heresy that to get to Heaven you must “r epent of your sins.

Dear reader, you cannot show me anywhere from an inspired King James Bible where it teaches to

“

repent of your sins

to be saved. The pastors of Family Baptist Church are theological LIARS!

Sadly, the same thing is true of Smyrna Baptist Church, Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College, Fairfield Drive Baptist Church, Bible Baptist Church and nearly every other church (cult) in the city of Pensacola. The leaders of Bible Baptist Church are greedy and hateful. Their wicked bookstore threatened to sue me a couple years ago for freely sharing .pdf files of Dr. Peter S. Ruckman’s books on the King James Bible. This is the hateful greedy type of authoritarian CULT leadership that drives people away from such ungodly churches. They’re in the ministry for the INCOME instead of the OUTCOME (Romans 16:17-18).

Worse, Bible Baptist Church still wickedly teaches Dr. Ruckman’s perverse idea of seven different gospels in the Bible. Dispensationalism will rot your brain! Ruckman’s nutty dispensationalist followers (e.g., William P. Grady, David Hofmann, Robert Breaker, to name but a few religious quacks) are FALSE PROPHETS! There is no biblical basis for dispensational teaching; it is manmade traditions.

All of these wicked neo-evangelical pastors today who preach Lordship Salvation, and the ungodly foolish church members who follow them, are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. Proverbs 29:12, “If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.”

7.3.14 Italicized Words In The King James Bible Are Inspired (2026-03-14 09:10)

Deuteronomy 8:3, "And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live."

If you have a more expensive quality King James Bible, then you'll find thousands of words in italics. Italicized words in the King James Bible indicate words that were added by the translators to help clarify the meaning, as these words were not present in the original manuscripts. This practice helps make the text more readable while informing readers that these additions are not part of the original text. And yet, we find evidence in Matthew 4:4 and Luke 4:4 which PROVES that italicized words are still inspired by God.

Notice in Matthew 4:4 and Luke 4:4 that the word “ word

is NOT italicized. Yet, Jesus added the word and we know that ALL SCRIPTURE is inspired by God (2nd Timothy 3:16). So added words in a translation, if they are true to the Scripture, are also inspired. That is, all Scripture is “ given by inspiration of God

” (those 5 words are translated from one word in Greek: theopneustos), which means GOD + BREATH (breathed out from God - John 6:63); they are HIS WORDS...

> Matthew 4:4, “But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.”

> Luke 4:4, “ And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.
> **”

Whereas the term “

is in italics (denoting it was added by the translators) in Deuteronomy 8:3 for clarity, from which Scripture passage Jesus was quoting in Matthew 4:4 and Luke 4:4, the LORD added the word, but it is not italicized.

Here’s why the term “word” wasn’t included in Deuteronomy 8:3. The Hebrew term “kol kol” (English: every) can mean “anything that God says,” so it was not necessary to include the term “word.” Kol kol has the same meaning as “every word.” That is, man shall not live by food alone, but by anything that God says. This has led to different translations, with some versions adding “word” for clarity based on interpretations from the Septuagint and New Testament references.

Another example is the word “whale” in Matthew 12:24, which does not appear in the Old Testament book of Jonah (Jonah 1:17; 2:1,10). The Apostle Matthew added the word “whale” (we know because it is not italicized, meaning that the King James translators did not add it). In Jonah the Bible simply calls the creature a “great fish,” not a whale; but Matthew wrote that it was indeed a whale (Greek: ketos). So we see that added words can be inspired as well.

7.3.15 God Doesn't Have Love; God Is Love (2026-03-15 15:11)

1st John 4:8, "

He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.

1st John 4:16, "

And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

I heard a great sermon today from 1982, preached at the First Baptist Church of Hammond by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), that will save your marriage, friendship or church if you'll heed Dr. Hyles' godly counsel. The sermon is titled...

[1]On Trial Every Day
(a 1982 MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles)

Some people continually put God on trial every day for the circumstances in their life.

Dear reader, just decide once and for all that God is good. Psalms 145:9, " The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works. "

Just decide once and for all time that God is faithful. 1st Corinthians 1:9, " God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord."

Just decide once and for all that God is always right. Psalms 18:30, " As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him."

Just settle it once and for all that God is no respecter of persons.

Acts 10:34, " Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons."

Just settle it once and for all that God is righteous and merciful. Psalms 116:5, "Gracious is the LORD, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful." You get the idea.

The phrase "

God is"

appears 90 times in the Old Testament, and 59 times in the New Testament. Ladies and gentleman, we serve a wonderful, fair, loving and kind God.

Let it never be heard from your lips that you hate anyone, for if you do, it will just prove that you never really loved that individual at all. It will reveal your shallowness and immaturity as God's child. Let the heathen talk that way!

God does not have love; God is love. The LORD is the very embodiment of love, because He is LOVE! Why don't you get off the judge's bunch tonight. Why don't you stop putting everybody in your life on trial for the way that they treat you. ...

> Matthew 7:1-3, "Judge not, that ye be not judged.
>
> For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.
>
> And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? "

If I am your friend, there is nothing that you can do to jeopardize that. When my wife cruelly divorced me in 2006, she said that she didn't love me anymore. That means she never did love me at all. Such hateful words never came out of my mouth toward my wife. Once you love somebody, it is for life, if it is true love. I am not talking about falling in love (aka,

). I am talking about God’s unconditional love for every living creature, the same love which nailed Christ to a cross 2,000 years ago for our sins.

I cringe when I hear preachers spewing hatred for sinners. The true test of a Christian’s love is not whether you love Jesus, it is whether you love Judas. I decided a very long time ago that I am going to love every human being on earth, regardless of how good or rotten they become. I hate sin. The Bible commands every saint of God to hate evil, as the LORD hates evil (Psalms 97:10). You cannot be right with God if you don’t hate evil. Evil is planned sin. Abortion is evil. Sneaking around on your husband is evil. Feminism is evil. Anarchy is evil.

Dear friend, we should never accept the sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin. God sent His only begotten Son into the world to die on a criminal’s cross for our sins (John 3:16). Let it never be said that God hates anybody, not even the vilest sinner. Truly, the LORD hates all sin, for which He chose to sacrifice His life in death on Calvary’s cross, but God does not hate anyone. God hates sinners in the sense that they are defiant against His Word, but He doesn’t hate the individual. I learned a very long time ago from Pastor Jack Hyles to view difficult people as being broken, not bad.

Dear reader, let us love one another. There is so much hatred in the world. I watched a few music documentaries over the past couple weeks. I love the music of the 1970’s. I enjoy some of the song by the ban, Bread. I was surprised how much the band’s members hated each other’s guts with a passion. They’d perform without talking to each other, and then go to their separate hotels after the concert, full of pride and resentment. The same can be said of The Beatles, The Eagles, Megadeth, Boston, Hall & Oates and countless other bitter rivals who sued each other in court over money and control over their music. It is so sad.

John 15:12, “ This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.”

7.3.16 Satan’s Attack Against The Family In America (2026-03-16 14:12)

Psalms 1:1-2, “

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

According to [1]data from Domestic Shelters, well over one hundred million U.S. women go to shelters annually in the United States for assistance. The big problem is that in these carnal facilities women do not receive biblical counsel; but rather, they are often encouraged to divorce their husbands. Worse, many shelters work closely with scumbag attorneys to provide free pro bono divorce representation for women. Hell is full of such human trash! Matthew 19:6, " Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder." God hates divorce! Jeremiah 3:20,

"Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD."

I absolutely hate women's shelters. I hate them because they all too often provide an unfair escape for lazy, angry, mentally unstable, rebellious and irresponsible married women. A husband has every God-given right to verbally correct his wife when she fails to pull her weight in the marriage. I don't like the idea of a husband being a "

boss,

but effectively that is what he is to her. Everyone has a higher authority to answer to! No one can escape accountability in life.

What is a poor fella to do who has a lazy, dishonest and irresponsible wife?

What saith the inspired Scripture?

> Proverbs 31:27-31, "She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.
>
> Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.
>
> Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.
>
> Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised.
>
> Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

How about the husband who finds rotting food regularly in the refrigerator? I'm talking black moldy hotdogs months old, and rotten slimy vegetables with white mold on them. LAZY!

Unlike the godly classy woman in Proverbs 31 whose husband praises her, this lazy women's husband is discouraged, frustrated and sad knowing that his wife doesn't care. She's in her own little world. Her priorities are all backwards and wrong. He does what he can to help her, but she is too much to handle, one mess after another. Can you imagine living with someone like that? Many marriages have ended because of these so-called "i rreconcilable differences.

I guarantee you 100 % of the time that when such a dysfunctional problematic wife meets with a psychiatrist, the doctor will NEVER tell her the truth that she is lazy, undisciplined and woefully lacks good character. Instead, the doctor ALWAYS prescribes psychotropic drugs!

> “Everything eventually rises or falls to its character level.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[2]He Purposed In His Heart”

> “What you are is more important than what you can do; for if you are what you ought to be, you’ll do what you’re supposed to do.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[3]He Purposed In His Heart”

When I go to any store, as a habit I always return my shopping cart to the corral where I found it. And I always grab any loose cart in the parking lot that someone else abandoned, and I return it to the store since I am going that way anyway. I do this simply because I care. That is a part of my Christian faith, thinking about OTHERS! To God be the glory (John 15:5).

Why is it that some people care about little things, the details; while others couldn’t care less? Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) is my favorite fundamentalist bible preacher, who made thousands of life-changing statements (truths) in his fiery sermons over 55 years of being a faithful pastor. For example: Dr. Hyles said, “The most important job is the one that doesn’t get done.” That is profound and I use it all the time.

Dear reader, if you don’t care I cannot help you. Without desire nothing else matters. If this is you, pray and ask God to give you a concerned heart. My best advice to someone who doesn’t care is to at least start pretending that you care, and in time it will happen. What saith the Scripture? Luke 12:34, “For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.” If you invest your time, money, resources and prayers into something or someone, in time your heart will follow your investment (i.e., your treasure). I have spent the past 24 years since 2002 working diligently day and night on my [4]website ministry for Jesus Christ. It has become a passion for me, what some might even call an “ obsession.

I enjoy and love the work that I do. Even better, it is helping people prepare for eternity and I’m laying up treasures in Heaven. I give God alone all the praise, credit and glory for the results of my humble ministry labors (John 15:1-5). God is faithful (1st Corinthians 1:9).

Dear reader, I am not against women’s shelters. I understand that there are some truly abusive husbands. But I am against spoiled brat wives running to those shelters just to escape a caring husband who puts his foot down and expects his wife to do her job. That is not an abusive husband. In such cases it is the wife who is being abusive, by her laziness and disobedience. If you don’t think that a wife should obey her husband, you are going against the Scripture. Ephesians 5:22, “ Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

Here is an excerpt from ’THE AGENDA’ by Presbyterian Pastor Louis P. Sheldon (1934-2020), who was the founder and chairman of the Traditional Values Coalition...

> Russian sociologist Pitirim Sorokin, who authored another classic work in this field, The American Sex Revolution, observed much the same thing. In his review of the breakdown of tradition that began in the late 1960s, Sorokin warned that America was in the process of committing "voluntary suicide" through unrestrained sexual indulgence. As individuals began engaging in premarital sex unrelated to marriage, > Sorokin predicted with remarkable insight that the birth rate would decline and our nation would begin to be depopulated.

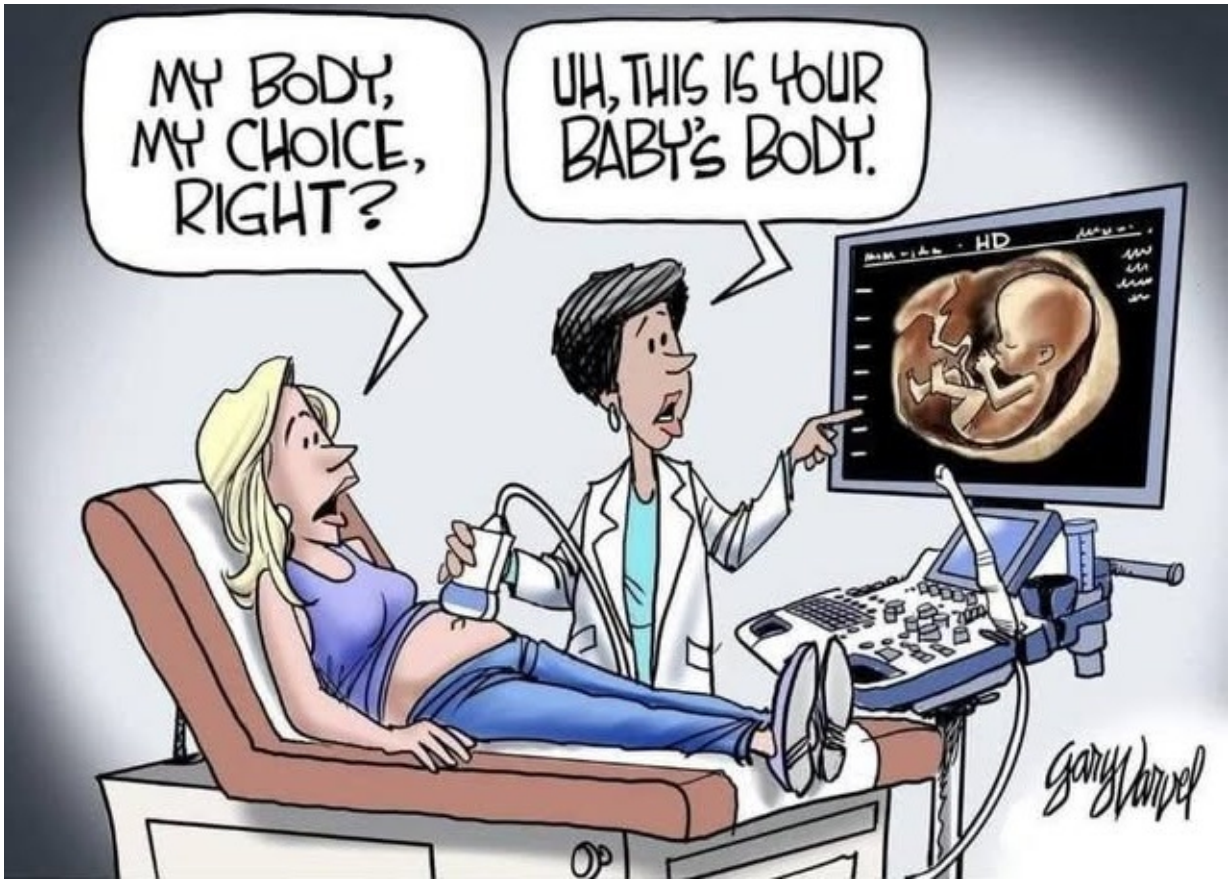
>
> He also predicted the inevitable increase in divorce, desertion, and an epidemic of sexual promiscuity resulting in a rise in illegitimate births and abortions. As we now know, those predictions have all come true in the most heartbreaking ways, and society is paying a terrible price. Sorokin's exhaustive study of decadent cultures convinced him that a healthy society can only survive so long as strong families exist and sexual activities are restricted to marriage.
>
> Centuries of solid evidence make the point only too well: sexual promiscuity and a loss of respect for the sanctity of marriage lead inevitably to cultural decline and eventual collapse.
> In his research project, Carl Wilson found that decadent cultures display seven distinct characteristics of social and moral change:
>
> 1. Men reject spiritual and moral development as the leaders of families.
> 2. Men begin to neglect their families in search of material gain.
> 3. Men begin to engage in adulterous relationships or in homosexual sex.
> 4. Women begin to devalue the role of motherhood and homemaker.
> 5. Husbands and wives begin to compete with each other, and families disintegrate.
> 6. Selfish individualism fragments society into warring factions.
> 7. Men and women lose their faith in God and reject all authority over their lives.
>
> It is not surprising that in such a culture moral anarchy reigns supreme. The loss of religious faith means that virtues such as trust, honor, and respect must fail, and the customs of chastity and self denial no longer restrain society's worst impulses. Then, once families begin to collapse, the entire society follows. The point is very simple. George Santayana said it long ago: "Those who will not learn from history are condemned to repeat it."
>
> And, once cultural decline begins, it's almost impossible to turn things around. [5]SOURCE

Dear reader, Satan's crowd has an agenda to destroy your family. I cannot warn wives enough to steer clear of those ungodly women's shelters, which are wicked havens for ungodly feminist ideologies, ungodly counsel and ungodly breeding grounds for divorce!



> "I don't care how long I'm pastor of this church, as long as I stand behind this pulpit or roam this platform, I'll promise you one thing—the old man's going to be looking for gaps in the hedge. And every time I see one, I'm going to stand right there in the gap." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "There's A Snake In The Hedge"

There are no easy ways out in life! All decisions have potentially detrimental, negative, unpleasant, painful, regretful and dire consequences. I encourage you to live in the inspired King James Bible daily, and to listen to lots of fundamentalist Bible preaching. We all need hard Bible preaching to help us think and live right. This world is a mess today, because we are living in a generation that does not look up anymore. That is, they do not fear God. Psalms 36:1, "

The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes."

With all the Diversity, Equity and Inclusive (DEI) wickedness and insanity (aka, the LGBTQ perversion which has swept across America), public nudity wherever there is water, an epidemic nationwide of substance abuse, corporate covetousness and greed, and the abortion industry still going over one million murders per year strong in the United States, why should God bless America?

7.3.17 What About Pastor Steven Anderson? (2026-03-17 12:28)

John 15:12, "This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you."

9232

I love and respect Pastor Anderson tremendously. We don't agree on everything, just like you and I dear reader won't agree on everything. That is human. Brother Anderson has a right to believe and preach what he believes God wants him to say, and I respect that.

In 2025, the Faithful Word Baptist Church in Tempe, Arizona, led 10,121 souls to Jesus Christ. Pastor Anderson personally led 182 people to Christ. I thank God for Brother Anderson and his soulwinning ministry. We are laborers together with God (1st Corinthians 3:7-9). Gotta love faithful soulwinners!

Pastor Anderson has stepped on my toes at times, and I his, and that is okay. We're both mature enough in the Lord to understand that no two fundamentalist Bible preachers agree on everything. Dr. Jack Hyles used to wisely say that there are more opinions per square foot at Hyles-Anderson College probably more than anywhere else in the world. That being said, we do agree on the two big "deal breakers" (as Pastor Anderson rightly calls them, which is: 1) The inspiration of the King James Bible; and 2) A free grace plan of salvation (aka, "easy believism"). All other doctrines are minor issues.

I agree with Pastor Anderson that those preachers (e.g., Peter S. Ruckman, William P. Grady, David A. Hoffman and Robert Breaker) who teach multiple plans of salvation are damnable heretics! Pastor Hoffman in his 'The Common Man's Reference Bible' for 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 literally teaches that there are SEVEN plans of salvation. That's crazy!

I also agree with Brother Anderson that most believers who ascribe to a pre-Trib Rapture haven't done their homework, they are merely following what their pastor told them. And likewise, the same problem holds true of the New IFB as well. Sadly, 95 % of churchgoers merely believe what they hear and go along with whatever their leader says, which is why over 90 % of all Baptist churches today have been woefully corrupted with the deadly false teachings of Misunderstood Repentance (i.e., turn from your sinning to be saved) and Lordship Salvation (i.e., mixing works with grace; combining service with salvation). These are both damnable false teachings, doctrines of devils.

As Bible preachers we are continually challenging our followers to do their own Bible study and homework, so they can KNOW for themselves why they believe what they believe. I can respect someone who ascribes to a pre-Wrath Rapture position, just so long as they can take an inspired Holy Bible and show me why they believe as they do, even though I am strongly pre-Trib in my faith.

I also fully agree with Pastor Anderson that Dispensational teaching is heresy (all of the nuts I mentioned earlier in the Ruckman camp are dispensationalist wackos). Simple Scripture passages such as Acts 10:43, Romans 3:19-23, 4:4-7 and Galatians 1:6-9 prove that [1]NO ONE has ever been saved by works, which would have made salvation by debt that God owed (Romans 4:4); instead of by grace alone through faith alone. I detest manmade theology and manmade dispensationalism, which just confuse the Bible study rather than edify.

Pastor Jack Hyles exposes Dr. Peter Ruckman's heresy on multiple plans of salvation...

> "And I'm sick up to there, with people talking about three or four plans of salvation. Now you hear me and hear me well. And if you don't believe this, and you teach in our schools, get out! John the Baptist preached the same Gospel that Paul preached. And people will get saved in the Millennium the same way they get saved tonight. Never has been but one plan of salvation. Never will be but one plan of salvation. Why don't you decide to put up all those books by a bunch of pinkos and read the Bible. And I'll fight you to the finish over that! I'll close the doors of Hyles-Anderson College before we'll preach that kind of garbage. We'll padlock the doors! I'm sick > of it! I hate it! And beside that, don't like it. That college wasn't put out there to preach a bunch of hyper-dispensationalism!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[2]He Purposed In His Heart"

Here's a shocking heretical excerpt from Ruckman's sermon titled, "[3]Repentance," in which you can hear him listing all the sins you must forsake to be saved.

What an ignorant unlearned fool!

Tragically, I am fully convinced that [4]Peter Ruckman is burning in Hell forever.

Right doctrine matters!

I heard Pastor Anderson today in a sermon exposing "Hypostatic Union" and "Divine Simplicity," two complicated theological rabbit trails that lead nowhere—blatant hogwash, tomfoolery, balderdash, poppycock and ineffable nonsense. Just give me the old flat-black

7.3.18 Back When People Bought Tickets To Attend Church (2026-03-18 13:48)

Luke 14:21-23, "So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind. And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room. And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled."

Dwight Lyman Moody (1837-1899) was known for his innovative methods of attracting children (e.g., free pony rides and candy) and adults to his Sunday school and church services, often using engaging activities and personal outreach.

Pastor Moody purchased seats in churches so that poor children could attend, as seats were sold like concert tickets at that time. Wow, can you imagine that? It's hard to just get people to come to church nowadays, but back then churches sold tickets! It is quite obvious how the television has woefully diminished church attendance. I wish the television has never been invented. Our world was much better off when life was simple and mundane, so that nearly everyone looked forward to going to church on Sundays. Tragically, the entertainment industry has led America to apostasy!

By purchasing church seat tickets, Pastor Moody aimed to include those who otherwise could not afford to go to church. What a faithful servant of our great Savior!

In 1900, church attendance in the United States was significant, with about 36 % of the population attending services regularly.

> In 2026, church attendance in the U.S. has stabilized after years of decline, with about 20 % of adults attending weekly and around 41 % attending at least once a month. [1]SOURCE

Americans are [2]leaving the churches by the droves! I think it was beautiful back when so many people in the United States wanted to attend church that they had to sell tickets.

God deliver us from today's shameful neo-evangelical churches, and corrupt neo-evangelical Bible colleges like Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary, Moody Bible Institute, Pensacola Christian College, Bob Jones University and Southern Theological Baptist Seminary, to name but just a few cesspools of spiritual sewage, rot and iniquity. Sadly, 99 % of clergy today are only in the ministry for the INCOME, not the OUTCOME. I started my [3]Jesus-is-Savior.com website ministry 24 years ago in April of 2002 for the OUTCOME, there has never been (nor ever will be) any INCOME. The LORD deserves our very best.

That all being said, I cannot blame people for not wanting to go to dead churches anymore. You'd be much better off just staying home and listening to fundamentalist Bible preaching on the internet, than to attend a rotten neo-evangelical cult like Family Baptist Church in Pensacola that preaches Satan's lies of Lordship Salvation [i.e., mixing service (works) with salvation (grace)], and Wrong Repentance (i.e., repenting of your sinful behavior) to be saved. Tragically, most Baptist pastors today are woefully unlearned concerning the inspired Holy Bible, corrupted clowns who arrogantly refuse to repent of their perverse thinking, fools.

One of the biggest mistakes you'll ever make is to trust and rely upon your pastor to keep you spiritual. If you're not careful, he'll lead you away from God and the truth, and ultimately take you to Hell with himself forever. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

7.3.19 Things I Learned From Dr. John R. Rice (by Hymers Jr.) (2026-03-19 10:50)

Pastor Robert Leslie Hymers Jr. (born 1941) is a conservative Baptist preacher noted for his evangelistic sermons and for his emphasis on classical Protestant conversion. He is the founding pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle of Los Angeles. This is one of his sermons...

THINGS I LEARNED FROM DR. JOHN R. RICE

by Dr. R. L. Hymers, Jr.

A sermon preached at the Baptist Tabernacle of Los Angeles

Lord's Day Evening - September 2, 2012

> "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him" (Psalm 126:6).

When I was a teenager I read the life story of James Hudson Taylor, and I felt that God was calling me to become a missionary to the Chinese. I joined the First Chinese Baptist Church of Los Angeles. That fall I went to Biola College (now University). I was finally saved there when I heard Dr. Charles J. Woodbridge preach from the third chapter of II Peter. I failed my classes there, except for the class on soul winning. I got a job and worked in the Chinese church on Friday and Saturday nights, and all day Sunday. About that time I read the Journal of John Wesley, and learned what a revival was. I was praying all the time for revival to come to the Chinese church. I started going to college at night, while working forty hours a week in the daytime, and working all weekend at the Chinese church. I graduated from Cal State L.A. in the spring of 1970. A few months earlier revival began to sweep through the Chinese church. Hundreds came into the church and were converted. From 1969 to about 1973 the church was in the midst of a mighty series of revivals, led by the pastor, Dr. Timothy Lin.

In the Fall of 1970 I went to Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary near San Francisco. During the second year at Golden Gate I started a church there with the help of two friends from the seminary. All three of us were grieved over the attacks on the Bible at the school, but I said little about it for two years. During my third and final year at seminary I was elected the editor of the school's student paper. It was then that I began to defend the Bible, both in the paper and in class. I was told by the president of the seminary that I was getting a bad reputation that would keep me from being hired by a Southern Baptist church. After a great struggle I decided that didn't really matter and went ahead defending the Bible. The professors spoke strongly against the Scofield Study Bible, and against Dr. J. Frank Norris and Dr. John R. Rice. I figured that the Scofield Bible must be good or they wouldn't criticize it so much, so I bought one and have preached from it ever since. But I thought that Dr. Norris and Dr. Rice were weird. I never read anything by either of them. I judged them without really knowing anything about them.

After I graduated I continued to vigorously expose the liberalism at the seminary. I sent mailings and videos exposing the attacks on the Bible at the seminary to the chairman of the deacons of all the Southern Baptist churches in California. One of the liberal professors had to resign, and one of the compromising presidents had to resign in the middle of a semester, as a direct result. Our church sent $600 each month to Dr. Bill Powell to help him mail copies of his Southern Baptist Journal, which exposed theological liberalism, to all the Southern Baptist churches in America. My wife and I went each year to the Southern Baptist Convention to pass out the Journal. People screamed at us, and threatened us. At the last convention my wife was over six months pregnant. They spit in her face and threw things at her, even though she was great with child. When we got back to our room she said, "Robert, how could those people be Christians?" I bowed my head in shame.

As I had been warned, I was "blackballed" by the seminary. They put out letters and mailings against me, and my Southern Baptist friends of a lifetime turned against me. I was deeply discouraged and heartbroken. It was in the midst of this time of deep depression that a friend gave me a copy of Dr. Robert L. Sumner's biography of Dr. John R. Rice, titled Man Sent from God. I sat down to read a few pages of it one night, but I couldn't put it down. I read all night long, finishing it about 9:00 in the morning. I was struck by the similarity of Dr. Rice's experiences with the liberal Southern Baptists and mine. Within a few months I purchased nearly all of Dr. Rice's many books, and eagerly read them all. John R. Rice became one of my guides and mentors, along with my pastor of 23 years, Dr. Timothy Lin.

In the fall of 1980 I went to Murfreesboro, Tennessee, to Dr. Rice's office, and videotaped an interview with him. He passed away a few weeks later, but I have continued to read his many books and sermons on an almost weekly basis. I have learned many useful and helpful things from Dr. Rice, and I am going to share a few of them with you tonight.

At the beginning of the sermon I read Dr. Rice's life verse,

> "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him" (Psalm 126:6).

That was the theme of the life and ministry of Dr. John R. Rice. He was a great scholar and Bible student, but he never lost sight of his main calling as an evangelist, soul winner, and advocate of Heaven-sent revival. Here, then, are four of the things I learned from him. I didn't agree with him on storehouse tithing, the signs of Christ's coming, and some other matters, but he deeply influenced me on these four points.

I. First, I learned a lot about preaching from Dr. Rice.

When I first started preaching in the 1950s I consciously copied the evangelistic style and sermon construction of Billy Graham. He was a great preacher back then. My friend Moishe Rosen, of Jews for Jesus, said his preaching was "electrifying" in those days. But later I was told to preach so-called "expository" sermons. I struggled trying to do that for several years. But I felt constrained and held back by trying to preach from convoluted, intricate outlines on many verses of Scripture, with points, subpoints, and sub, subpoints. I felt strangled and enslaved, held in bondage and restrained, by what I was taught about so-called “expository” preaching. Then I read what Dr. Rice said on this subject. Dr. Rice said,

> No sermon that Jesus preached…did He ever preach what is now called an expository sermon. And so with the sermons in the book of Acts by Peter, by Stephen and by Paul – none were expository sermons. In every case a preacher stood up to preach to get a certain result, and he preached toward that result. So ought preachers today preach toward a certain end, not simply to expound the Bible itself for its own sake (John R. Rice, D.D., Why Our Churches Do Not Win Souls, Sword of the Lord, 1966, pp. 74, 75)

I learned from Dr. Rice that so-called “expository” preaching did not come from our Baptist or Protestant forefathers, who all preached from one or two verses of Scripture. Dr. Rice said the modern “expository” sermon came from the Plymouth Brethren and was popularized by Dr. Harry Ironside, a Plymouth Brethren preacher. Dr. Rice said that Wesley, Whitefield, Spurgeon, and Dr. Torrey preached, “Bold, uncompromising, controversial [sermons] that condemned sin.” He said we need “preaching that condemns sin, that fights heresy, that shows the way out of trouble, that warns people of the wrath of God” (ibid., pp. 77, 78). Dr. Rice said,

> Whence came this horrible breakdown in standards in America? Why is sex everywhere pressed on people, and movies and magazines are more lewd, and women less virtuous, and men more profane than before? Because America, with its millions of church members, has relatively few strong...preachers. There are not many preachers who preach on sin, on the coming judgment, on the awful Hell for Christ-rejecting sinners...The pulpit has failed the churches, and the churches have failed America (John R. Rice, D.D., Bible Doctrines to Live By, Sword of the Lord, 1968, p. 311)

The Bible says,

> “Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins” (Isaiah 58:1).

Dr. Rice said,

> The first aim of every preacher called of God should be to win souls. A minister may say, as an alibi, “I am called to be a teaching pastor. My ministry is to the church. I must feed the flock of God.” But that, I insist, is an alibi for outright disobedience to the plain command of God. The Great Commission is still binding on preachers. The Gospel is to be preached to every creature...Charles Spurgeon was a pastor all his days and never called himself an evangelist. Yet multiplied thousands were saved under his ministry, and [Spurgeon’s church] was called a “soul trap.” The preaching in the church services ought to be strongly evangelistic, as well as in other places (John R. Rice, D.D., Why Our Churches Do Not Win Souls, ibid., pp. 67-69)

I agree with Dr. Rice on those points of preaching. He has encouraged me to follow the old-fashioned, soul-stirring method of presenting the Gospel. And Dr. Rice believed that the Gospel should be preached in every service, telling lost sinners that Jesus loves them, and that He will save them. Dr. Rice said,

> Oh, what a fountain of mercy is flowing,
> Down from the crucified Saviour of men.
> Precious the blood that He shed to redeem us,
> Grace and forgiveness for all of our sin.
> ("Oh, What a Fountain!" by John R. Rice, 1965).
>
> He loves so long, He loves so well,
> He loves you more than tongue can tell;
> He loves so long, He loves so well,
> He died to save your soul from Hell.
> ("He Loves You Still" by John R. Rice, 1960).

II. Second, I learned a lot about defending the faith from Dr. Rice.

The Bible says, "Ye should earnestly contend for the faith" (Jude 3). Dr. Rice strongly contended for the faith throughout his ministry. Dr. Rice said,

> The pastor who does not expect to win many souls can preach nice little sermons on brotherly love. But the man who expects to arouse the conscience, stir the emotions and bring the will to a holy repentance must preach on great truths of the Bible. The great themes of the depravity of the human heart, the atoning death of Christ, the need of the new birth, salvation by grace through faith, a literal Heaven and a literal Hell are all evangelistic themes. And they necessarily involve the deity of Christ, the virgin birth, the bodily resurrection, and they are the fundamentals of the Christian faith.
>
> It is no accident that the great soul winners have been defenders of the faith. Spurgeon carried on a noble campaign against "the Downgrade Movement," now called modernism, and left the Baptist Union of Great Britain and Ireland at a cost of great reproach, and led that great church out, because of sin. And Spurgeon preached wonderfully, upholding the inspiration and authority of the Bible, the deity of Christ and other fundamentals of the faith (Dr. John R. Rice., 'Why Our Churches Do Not Win Souls,' ibid., pp. 71, 72)

Dr. Rice said,

> As long as there is doubt in the mind of the preacher or in the minds of the hearers as to the absolute authority of the Bible as the infallible Word of God, his message is weakened, the impact on the community is watered down, the reason for soul winning is diminished (ibid., p. 73).

Why should I murmur, hold back from sorrow,
Dread to lose money or friends in His name?
Oh, I should welcome perils or scourging
If I might thus have some part in His shame!
All my heart's love, all my fond dreams,
Make them, Lord Jesus, only for Thee.
All that I am, all I could be,
Take me, Lord Jesus, Thine e'er to be.
("All My Heart's Love" by Dr. John R. Rice).

Sing the chorus with me.

All my heart's love, all my fond dreams,
Make them, Lord Jesus, only for Thee.
All that I am, all I could be,
Take me, Lord Jesus, Thine e'er to be.

III. Third, I learned a lot from Dr. Rice on the subject of revival.

The Bible gives us a prayer for revival when it says,

"Wilt thou not revive us again: that thy people may rejoice in thee?" (Psalm 85:6).

Dr. Rice believed in supernatural, God-sent revivals. He said,

> "Let it be settled once for all that revivals are divine manifestations. A revival is a miracle of God. It is not natural, but supernatural. It is not ordinary, but extraordinary. It is not human, but divine. Only God can give a revival" (John R. Rice, D.D., The Soul Winner's Fire, Sword of the Lord, 1969, p. 79)

In his book, We Can Have Revival Now (Sword of the Lord, 1950), Dr. Rice said,

> "The greatest revivals the world is ever to see are yet future. Greater revivals are to come than the world has ever experienced. That is plainly taught in the Word of God, and what a comfort it ought to be to our hearts! When we find that God has plainly promised greater revivals than any the world has yet had, that will certainly prove that the day of revivals is not passed" (p. 29)

Dr. Rice said that in 1950. The Communists were driving all the foreign missionaries out of China when he said that. Over 25 years of torture and imprisonment lay ahead for the Christians in China when he said that. But since 1980, the year Dr. Rice died, one of the greatest revivals the world has ever seen has exploded in the People's Republic of China! Today it is estimated that there are over 120 million Christians in China. More people are now in church on Sunday morning in China than in America, Canada and the United Kingdom combined! Dr. C. L. Cagan estimates that there are over 700 conversions to Christ in China every hour, night and day, twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week! Think of it – 700 conversions every hour! Dr. Rice was completely right when he said in 1950, "The greatest revivals the world is ever to see are yet future" (ibid., p. 29).

I myself have been an eye-witness to three "supernatural," God-sent revivals. At the First Chinese Baptist Church of Los Angeles, between 1969 and 1973, I saw the miraculous power of God draw over 2,000 people into our small church of about 125 people, making it one of the largest Southern Baptist churches in California. I saw services that went on all day Sunday, with tears of repentance and miracle conversions. I myself preached in one of those services where 46 young people were converted, and that was just one of the services that went on night after night! I checked recently and found that nearly every young Chinese person that was saved that night is still in that church forty years later! When my wife and I went there in May, for the 60th anniversary of the church, one Chinese young person after the other came to tell me they were saved during times when I preached in that great revival!

In Marin County, north of San Francisco, in a church I started there in 1972, we saw about 600 Hippies get saved in a few months, stopping their sinful life-style and drugs, and becoming solid Christians. This was the second revival that I saw with my own eyes.

In 1992, my wife and our boys and I attended a conference on Fundamentalism at Dr. Rod Bell's church in Virginia Beach, Virginia. At the very end of the conference, on the last Sunday night, I was scheduled to preach. A member of the church told me, "Whatever you do, don't preach an evangelistic sermon. Everyone in the church is already saved." That made me very nervous because God had laid on my heart to preach a simple evangelistic sermon. Great and famous men of God would be in the congregation. What would they think if no one came forward? I was sweating. I asked my wife to take our boys out of the motel room for a few hours that Sunday afternoon. I fasted and prayed and called on God all afternoon. I was still praying and sweating when we got to the church. They sang and the pastor introduced me. Suddenly I felt the anointing of the Holy Spirit flash through me. I preached that simple sermon with great ease. Three grown men came forward.

One of them was the associate pastor, the pastor's own son! He came forward to be saved with tears streaming down his cheeks! Then the Holy Spirit came down like a cloud. An old man who had been in the church for years crawled on his hands and knees down the aisle screaming, "I'm lost! I'm lost!" A quartet of young girls went to the platform to perform, but they couldn't sing. Tears were streaming from their eyes as they called on Jesus to save them. The service went on until midnight. Seventy-five people were hopefully converted that night in a church where they thought "Everyone is already saved." Ian Paisley's son said to my wife, "I've never seen anything like it." Then the revival really broke out. I flew back from Los Angeles to speak for that pastor again a few days later. In the next three months over 500 people were hopefully saved and baptized in that church!

These are eyewitness accounts of what I have seen God do in three revivals – which Dr. Rice called, “a miracle of God.” I know you can’t “work up” a revival by human means. But I also know Dr. Rice was right when he said, “We can have revival now.” We are praying for God to send a revival to this church in our times of fasting and prayer. One of Dr. Rice’s songs says, > Today we reap, or miss our golden harvest!

> Today is given us lost souls to win.
> O then to save some dear ones from the burning,
> Today we’ll go to bring some sinner in.
> (“So Little Time” by Dr. John R. Rice).

I wish I could take time to talk about Dr. Rice’s belief in the need for the preacher and his people to be filled with the Holy Spirit. I wish I could take time to speak about Dr. Rice’s belief that a Christian should be a fundamentalist but, as he said, “not a nut.” I agree with Dr. Rice that we should not defend the false idea that the King James Bible is itself given by inspiration, and corrects the Hebrew and Greek from which it was translated. I wish I could take time to tell you what Dr. Rice said about making the local church a place of joy and great happiness. I wish I had time to tell you why Dr. Rice said, “I love Christmas.” And I wish I had time to talk about his great book on “The Home, Courtship, Marriage and Children.” I agree with Dr. Rice on those great Bible themes! How I wish that pastors everywhere would go back and read what Dr. Rice wrote on those subjects. But I will end with one final point.

IV. Fourth, I learned a lot from Dr. Rice on the subject of prayer and fasting.

God said through the prophet Isaiah,

> “Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?” (Isaiah 58:6).

In his great book, Prayer: Asking and Receiving, Dr. Rice said,

> I know that real fasting and prayer and humiliation of mind as we wait on God will get the blessing God wants to give us! Have you tried fasting and praying and waiting on God until the victory came?...Dear child of God, do you feel led to try it? Then fast and pray until God meets you in blessing (John R. Rice, D.D., Prayer: Asking and Receiving, Sword of the Lord, 1970 edition, pp. 230, 231)

We will be fasting and praying as a church next Saturday. If you have medical problems, please ask your doctor before you fast with us. Those who are very old or sick may wish to join us in a partial fast by drinking only tomato juice, or some other juices or soups, during our fast day next Saturday. Be sure to drink plenty of water all day. And be sure to take special time to pray during the day that God will bring in many new people to our church this Fall. Pray by name, if possible, for new people that have come in the past few weeks, and for others we will bring in next weekend, and in the weeks to come. Pray that they will be stay in our church and be saved. And remember the life verse of Dr. John R. Rice,

“He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him” (Psalm 126:6).

Please stand and sing the last song on your song sheet, “The Price of Revival,” by Dr. John R. Rice. ...

The price of revival, the cost of soul winning,
The long hours of praying, the burden, the tears;
The pleading with sinners though lonely, a stranger,
Is repaid at the reaping up there.
Reaping, heavenly reaping! For souls won down here.

The treasures of earth, oh, how vain and how fleeting;
They vanish like mist and they wither like leaves;
But souls who are won by our tears and our pleading
Will remain for our reaping up there.
Reaping, heavenly reaping! For souls won down here.

To come to that reaping with wood, hay and stubble,
How sad to appear at the Lord’s judgment seat,
With no one we’ve won to trust Jesus our Saviour
To present at the reaping up there.
Reaping, heavenly reaping! For souls won down here.

Please come up here on the platform, and stand in front of the pulpit, as we sing the last stanza, and Dr. Kreighton Chan will lead us in prayer for our time of fasting and prayer next Saturday, and for the success of our soul winning efforts this Fall.

The wise, they shall shine like the firmament glory
When payday shall come for the winner of souls!
Then they who’ve saved many by salvation’s story
Like the stars, blest forever, shall shine.
Reaping, heavenly reaping! For souls won down here.

(Prayer). You may be seated.

If you are here tonight and you are not yet a born again Christian, please listen very carefully. The Lord Jesus Christ came down from Heaven and was nailed to a cross, where He died to pay for our sins. They put His body in a tomb, sealed it, and set a Roman guard to protect it. But the Lord Jesus Christ rose physically, flesh and bone, on the third day. The risen Christ had fellowship with His followers for forty days. They handled Him, and saw that He was not a spirit. At last Jesus ascended back to Heaven, where He is seated at the right hand of God the Father. When you turn from your sinful life-style and trust Jesus, His precious Blood will cleanse you from all sin, and He will give you eternal life. We are praying that you will come to Jesus and trust Him, and be saved very soon. And whatever you do, be sure to come back here to church next Sunday! God bless you! Amen. [1]SOURCE

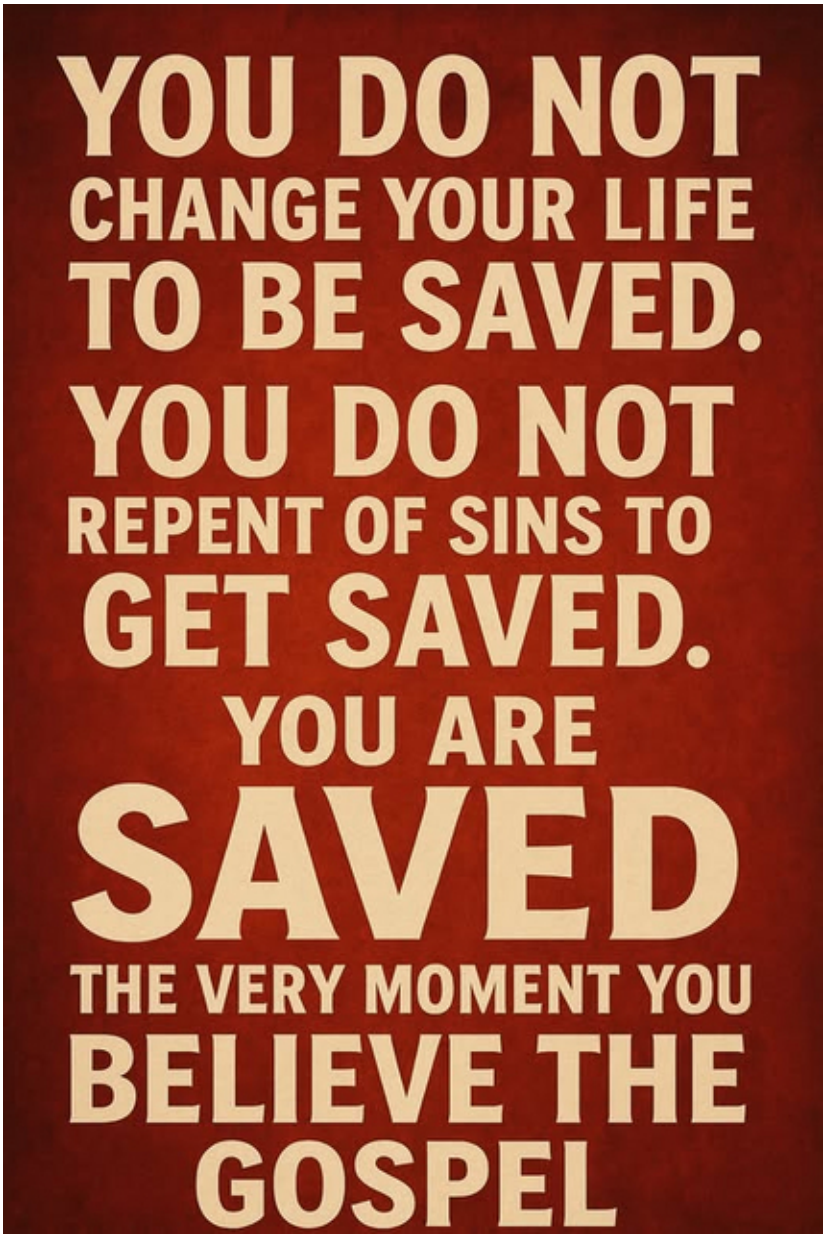
7.3.20 Why Do Some People Believe But Others Don’t? (2026-03-20 12:06)

Acts 28:24,

“



And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

I’ve often wondered why different people adhere to different beliefs and even cults. Why are there 8 million JW’s, 16 million Mormons and 21 million SDA’s? That is interesting to me. Why is it that one preacher reads the Bible and sees Lordship Salvation, but another sees free grace?

I cannot answer these questions, but I am reminded of Jesus’ words in □□□□□□□ □:□, “□□□□□□□ □□□ □□□ □□□□ □□ □□□□□: □□□ □□□□ □□□□□ □□□ □□□.” I humbly believe that anyone who is pure of heart, meaning that they sincerely desire to find the truth, will end up at Jesus’ feet, for He is the truth (John 14:6). They will end up at the inspired King James Bible. They will end up where they belong. John Bunyan understood this truth very well, as illustrated in his book Pilgrim’s Progress. There are many detours, pits and traps along life’s way. The inspired Word of God is the light (truth) that will show men the way.

Social media is full of false teachers. They are proud, arrogant and unlearned in the Scriptures. Dan Corner is one of them, who teaches that you need works to get to Heaven. He denies eternal security. It is so sad. There is a Satanic army of Calvinists, eternal security and Trinity deniers, et cetera. □□□ □□□□□□□□□□□ □□:□□, “□□□ □□ □□□ □□□ □□ □□□□□□□□, □□□ □□□ □□ □□□□□□□□.”

7.3.21 Actor Chuck Norris Preached A Counterfeit Gospel (2026-03-21 00:29)

Galatians 1:6-8, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed."

I was looking back in 2016 at Hollywood actor Chuck Norris' (1940-2026) website, at a resource page titled "[1]FREE GIFT" (his website no longer exists, but I will leave these dead links as evidence that they once existed). Chuck Norris was a professed Christian. Although I admire Chuck's good reputation and his work to help youth, he was theological wrong in some of the things he taught.

First, repentance concerning salvation is always defined as "a change of mind," and never to "turn from sins." Mr. Norris has been deceived no doubt by some of today's apostate religious leaders. On Chuck Norris' website (see quote below) they teach the heresy, "If you are willing to repent of your sin, He is waiting to forgive you." That is not THE GOSPEL. Where in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 are we told that we must be willing to forsake sinful bad habits and cease from intentional sinful behavior? My friend, at best, the only thing you could do is replace your sins with self-righteousness (which is a sin too)!!! Kindly, Mr. Norris has it wrong!

Here is a more lengthy quote:

> "Jesus died for you. You can be saved by asking Him for forgiveness from your sins. If you are willing to repent of your sin, He is waiting to forgive you. It doesn't matter what you have done in the past, if you cry out to Jesus for forgiveness, He will not reject you. The word 'repent' literally means 'to turn away from.' You need to look at your life, admit that you are a sinner, genuinely desire to turn your back on that sin, and ask Him to forgive you. If you do this, He promises to forgive you."
> SOURCE: [2]Chuck Norris, personal website, [3]Christian resource Page: 'Free Gift' (these are now dead links, but there is no reason to believe that Chuck Norris recanted any of these heretical beliefs)

Mr. Norris fails to understand that we don't need to ask Jesus to forgive our sins, but that error in itself won't prevent someone from being saved. But to be biblically accurate, Jesus Christ has already paid for everyone sins on the cross with His precious blood. Therefore, forgiveness is a "gift" that we simply receive to have eternal life.

But more importantly, the word "repent" does not literally mean " [4]to turn away from ." This false understanding can and will prevent the new birth, because it is DEBT incurred by WORKS, not grace. Romans 4:4, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt."

God does not require anyone to "turn away from" sinful behavior to receive what He has already paid for in full on the cross.

Kindly said, Chuck Norris makes three damnable statements, by requiring the unbiblical forsaking of your sinful behavior to get to Heaven:

1. If you are willing to repent of your sin.
2. The word 'repent' literally means 'to turn away from.'
3. Genuinely desire to turn your back on that sin.

No Sir, that is not the Gospel presented by the Apostle Paul (which Gospel Paul received directly from Jesus according to Galatians 1:12)...

1st Corinthians 15:16, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

Now that is the biblical Gospel (which word means "

Glad Tidings

Good News

). The Gospel is three things (none of which involve turning away from your sinful behavior)...

1. Jesus DIED on a cross to pay our debt of sin.
2. Jesus was BURIED (verifying that He was indeed deceased).
3. Jesus RESURRECTED physically from the dead three days later.

The Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract according to John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." Yet, not once do we find any mentioned of repenting, following, submitting, confessing, serving or turning from your sins to get to Heaven. We do find the word "believe" mentioned in the Gospel of John 85 times. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

Chuck Norris no doubt followed what some dingleberry neo-evangelical preacher errantly taught him. To the carnal mind it makes sense that you cannot expect God to forgive your sins when you have no intention of forsaking them. But that is not a gift! Such a requirement to turn from your sinning would make salvation an exchange, a trade of sorts. A "gift" means that you simply take something. I never hear corrupt neo-evangelicals focus on salvation being a gift. I never hear them talk about the imputed righteousness of God.

In fact, in Ray Comfort's 'THE EVIDENCE BIBLE' (2011), he fails to even comment on any of the eight New Testament Bible passages which mention the word "impute." The damnable heresy that God will not save you unless you first commit to forsake your sinful bad habits is of the Devil. No such requirement is taught in the inspired King James Bible. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) nails repentance in [5]this helpful sermon excerpt.

By the way, I cannot warn you enough to stay away from all modern English Bible revisions. The publishers are all blatant liars, who despite claiming that they used the most reliable ancient texts, their work is just another Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort clone. Case in point, the Amplified Bible (AMP) [6]removes all eight mentions of the word "impute"" from the New Testament. With this tragic fact in mind, it is not hard to see why Ray Comfort never once comments in his Bible commentary on the great doctrine of imputation in God' Word. Ray is using the Devil's corrupt seed. Please use only the inspired King James Bible.

The truth is that to be saved you simply come to God as a wretched sinner, just as I am without one plea, and you freely accept by faith (taking God at His written Word) Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, but then raised up from the dead the third day. That's all that God requires. This is the only Gospel by which all who BELIEVE IT are saved (Romans 1:16). Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Wicked Men Changed The Bible Meaning Of Repentance

So, where in the world did religious men everywhere in the world get the faulty unbiblical idea that you cannot get to Heaven unless you are willing to forsake your sinful bad habits? They got it from the Devil, that's where. All of the modern corrupt Bible revisions tamper with the Scriptures, redefining

to mean forsaking you sinful ways, rather than leaving it alone to simply mean

a change of mind

" (Greek noun: metanoia). Here is an example of how the Devil's modern perversions have corrupted the true meaning of repentance.

> King James Bible (KJB) - Hebrews 6:1, "Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God."
>
> [emphasis added]
>
> Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) - Hebrews 6:1, "So we should be finished with the beginning lessons about Christ. We should not have to keep going back to where we started. We began our new life by turning away from the evil we did in the past and by believing in God." [emphasis added]

Whoa! What gross incompetence by the ERV translators! The trustworthy King James Bible teaches to repent from DEAD WORKS. That is, all self-righteous works that you have been foolishly trusting in to get you to Heaven, which includes good works and bad works alike. Turning away from your sins to be saved would fall under DEAD WORKS! Salvation is WITHOUT WORKS (Romans 4:5-7). To turn from your bad works is a good work!

The ERV blatantly perverts the truth of God's Word, requiring the reader to TURN AWAY FROM THE EVIL YOU DID IN THE PAST. Ladies and gentlemen, that is 100 % WORKS; not God's saving GRACE, which is by childlike faith alone in the Gospel. The ERV is of the Devil, as corrupt as can be concerning God's simple plan of salvation. I have shown you just one of Satan's perverted Bible revisions today, but there are hundreds of similar corrupt English versions being sold on the market today. It is filthy lucre and blood money!

RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

In [7]this lame video, Chuck Norris in no way indicates that he has ever been born again. I seriously question whether the 86-year-old actor went to Heaven. YouTube is filled with similar lame say-nothing-of-essence type videos featuring Chick Norris' so-called Christian testimony. I cannot say with any certainty that Mr. Norris went to Hell, but neither can I say that he didn't. I do know of a certainty on the authority of God's inspired Word, that what Chuck Norris posted on his personal website in 2016 is a counterfeit plan of salvation; a false gospel that simply cannot produce the required new birth to enter into God's Kingdom (John 3:1-7).

Chuck Norris tragically adhered to the Roman Catholic definition of repentance, not the true [8]biblical Greek meaning . In Acts 20:21, the Holy Bible speaks of "repentance toward God." Who says repentance means "to turn away from"? Why not toward God? Friend, repentance is toward God from unbelief. It may be that a man's sinful ways hinder him from coming to Christ to be saved (John 3:20). But that sinner doesn't need to repent from his sins to be saved, he needs to repent TOWARD GOD from his unbelief, believing the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and bodily risen from the dead the third day! 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. "

When a man "repents," he thinks differently. He acknowledges that he is a guilty sinner in need of a Savior. He believes the Gospel by faith to be saved. The entire notion of a man turning away from sins to be saved is self-righteousness—a works-based plan of salvation which does not produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God.

Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?"

Notice carefully in the preceding Scripture passage that no mention is made of "turning from sins" nor of "being willing to turn from sins" to be saved. No, rather, we are saved by simply receiving the Gospel by faith when we hear it preached. It is that simple to be saved. On the Day of Pentecost, the apostle Peter preached the Gospel and [9]3,000 souls were saved in one day . Acts 2:41, "Then they that gladly received his word..." Those 3,000 sinners got saved by simply BELIEVING the Good News about Jesus' crucifixtion, burial and resurrection which they heard Peter preach unto them.

Likewise in Acts chapter 10 regarding Cornelius the Italian centurion. The Apostle Peter never told Cornelius and his companions to do anything. Peter simply preached the light of the truth of the Gospel unto them and they were saved they moment that they believed it. Acts 10:44, "While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

” They put their faith in the Gospel they heard and were immediately saved and indwelt with the Holy Spirit, which is also what Galatians 3:2 means, “This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?”

John 3:20, “For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.”

Repentance is not “from sins”; but rather, from the “unbelief” that has been hindering you from being saved. Carefully notice in John 3:21a that the Bible doesn’t say, but he that turneth from his sins cometh to the light.

“

No, it says, “But he that doeth truth cometh to the light...” I humbly think Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951) said it best...

> “Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, ’Repent ye, and believe the gospel.’ Yet we find true believers exhorted to ’repent, and do the first works.’ So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance.” (’[10]Except Ye Repent,’ p. 16)

Amen and amen, I fully agree.

Mark 6:6 and 12, “And he marvelled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages, teaching. ... And they went out, and preached that men should repent.” You don’t need to pray to be saved. The Scriptures tell us that whosoever BELIEVES is saved. 1st Corinthians 1:21, “For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.”

Right Doctrine Matters

Beware of all the dangerous false teachers nowadays which tell you to: “Invite Jesus into your life,” “Ask Jesus into your heart,” “Confess Christ before men,” “Turn from sins,” “Follow Christ,” “Pray a Sinner’s Prayer,” “Have a relationship with Jesus” and “Say ’Jesus is Lord”’ to be saved. None of these things constitute “the Gospel.” Here’s a helpful writing by Pastor Harry Ironside titled, ’ [11]WHAT IS THE GOSPEL?’

The Gospel.

Let that be our proclamation!!! We must refute the popular false teachings nowadays to “Invite Jesus into your life,” “Commit your life to Christ,” “Ask Jesus into your heart,” “Pray a Sinner’s Prayer,” “Say ’Jesus is Lord”’ and “Follow Christ” to be saved. Again, none of these things constitute THE GOSPEL. You may do all these things and yet split Hell wide open when you enter into eternity!!! Satan is smarter than any man. The Devil knows that the best way to take people to Hell is to substitute religion in their life for THE GOSPEL (Matthew 7:21-23). Here is an excellent writing by Dr. Harry Ironside titled, “ [12]WHAT IS THE GOSPEL? ” Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again.

We can only hope that Chuck Norris went to Heaven. Since the only salvation testimony that I could find from Chuck Norris is of him requiring forsaking your sinful behavior to be saved, I doubt his salvation. That is not the Gospel. God does not allow variations of His simple plan of salvation, and if He does, then how much can someone be off the mark concerning the Gospel and still be saved? What about Mormons, Jehovah’s Witnesses, Church of Christ, Seventh-Day Adventists and Roman Catholics who require water baptism to get to Heaven? Are they still saved even though they are in error concerning the Gospel?

How about those who add keeping sacraments to faith, which Lutherans are guilty of doing? Does God cut them some slack because they are sincere in their ignorance? I humbly think not dear reader. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 14:12, “There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.”

If God were to allow an exception for some, but not for others, then He would be a respect of persons. God is not a respecter of persons (Romans 2:11). I contend biblically that the moment you add anything to trust alone in Christ alone, you have perverted the Gospel and cannot be saved.

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. The sad fact that Chuck Norris thought it was necessary to cease from his past sinful behavior to get to Heaven, is not the Gospel taught in the inspired King James Bible. The bottom line dear reader is that what Chuck Norris teaches concerning how to get saved, doesn’t match what Jesus teaches in the Bible concerning how to get to Heaven. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

I fully understand that Chuck Norris was not a Bible preacher or theologian, which is exactly why people like him ought not teach others the inspired Word of God, which they do unto their own destruction and the destruction of those who follow them (2nd Peter 3:16-17). I am glad that Chuck took his website down.

I tried to find out why Mr. Norris removed his website, but couldn’t find any information.

I tried today to find a clear salvation testimony on social media from Chuck Norris, but there is nothing. I found [13]this article that says Chuck gave his life to Christ at age 12, but that is not the Gospel. Judas Iscariot also gave his life to Christ too, and is burning in the fires of Hell forever. The false prophets in Matthew 7:21-23 cast out Devils, just like Judas was given power by Christ to do in Matthew 11:1.

In all his video testimonies, Chuck Norris merely says that in Hollywood he wandered away from his childhood faith which was instilled in him by his mother, and then decades later his second wife Gena influenced him to return to his childhood faith. But Norris fails to tells the world what he actually has faith in, other than Jesus. Every pseudo-Christian religious cult believes in Jesus! The only testimony that we have to go on is from Chuck’s website in 2016, which was unfortunately a counterfeit plan of salvation.

According to Conservative Underground News...

> “Chuck Norris accepted Christ at age 12 at Calvary Baptist Church, then rededicated his life as a young man at a Billy Graham crusade in Los Angeles.” [14]SOURCE

On their website for Calvary Baptist Church in Los Angeles, where Chuck Norris claims he was saved as a 12-year-old boy, here is what they write about repentance...

> “We believe that repentance is a change of mind and purpose toward God prompted by the Holy Spirit; that it is characterized by godly sorrow for sin as offensive to God and ruinous to the soul; and that the true repentance is inseparably needed and related to saving faith. We believe that faith in the Lord Jesus Christ is the only condition to salvation.” [15]SOURCE Show me that in the inspired King James Bible! In fact, Bible repentance is “ a change of mind,

period. We don’t even know what to change our mind about from the word alone, supplemental information is needed. The context of a particular Scripture passage, and comparing Scripture with Scripture, provides that supplemental information.

When the Apostle Peter preached the Gospel to Cornelius and his companions in Acts chapter 10, the word was never mentioned even once. In fact, you won’t find the word “ ” mentioned even once in the entire Gospel of John, which was written for the express purpose of showing the reader how to go to Heaven (John 20:31). In Acts chapter 16, where Paul and Silas show the Philippian jailer at Rome how to be saved, the word “repent” is never mentioned even once. Dear reader, it couldn’t be more clear from the inspired Word of God that repentance is automatically included in believing the Gospel. That is, you have changed your mind from unbelief to belief.

Evangelist Alexander Marshall (1846-1928) gets repentance absolutely correct...

> “I HAVE NOT REPENTED ENOUGH”
>
> What do you mean? “I am not sorry enough for my sins.”
>
>
> Then you are completely mistaken.
>
> “But does it not say, unless we repent we shall perish?”
>
> Yes; but what do you think is the Scriptural significance of “repentance”? If you say “sorrow for sin” you are wrong. It does not mean sorrow for sin: it means > a CHANGE OF MIND (Matt. 21:29). This change will doubtless produce sorrow; but sorrow and repentance are two very different things (Heb. 12:17. margin, and II Cor. 7:9). When God calls on you to "repent, and believe the Gospel," He wishes you to lay aside your wrong thoughts, and believe the glad tidings that He proclaims to you. Formerly you may have imagined that you were required to feel very sorry before being saved. Change your mind. You may have supposed you must first "feel" some great change in order to know you were saved. Change your mind. First believe in God's great love to you, as revealed in His gospel, and you will KNOW that you have eternal life (John 5:24).

Yes, that is excellent. Alexander Marshall is 100 % correct! Yet, [16]some unlearned heretical person changed his tract, completely removing the preceding section on repentance (that I just quoted) from the work, "God's Way Of Salvation."

Marshall plainly says that sinners are saved by BELIEVING THE GOSPEL, that is, he says: "to lay aside your wrong thoughts [Repentance], and believe the glad tidings [Gospel] that He proclaims to you." That is absolutely biblically CORRECT!!! Bravo to this dear saint of God!

I Hope Chuck Norris [17]Repented Of His Wrong Repentance

You cannot biblically say that Chuck Norris came close enough in his salvation beliefs, and so God understands and will let him slide; because if that were true then Roman Catholics (who are very sincere) with their Seven Sacraments (sacramental salvation) would be saved too. But I assure you on biblical authority they are not! There are no extenuating circumstances in God's courtroom when it comes to the Gospel. You either have the Gospel facts right, or you are damned for trusting in ANOTHER GOSPEL (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

I cannot say with any certainty that Chuck Norris went to Hell. But I can say upon the authority of the inspired Scripture that what Mr. Norris posted on his personal website in 2016 is a false gospel which cannot produce the required new birth to enter into God's Kingdom. Not one verse in the inspired King James Bible teaches that to get to Heaven you must first be sorry for your sins and be willing to forsake them. That is not how salvation works!

The correct biblical mindset is that you simply come to God by faith (taking God at His written Word) as a wretched sinner, and you accept Christ's sacrificial death on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that Jesus was buried (proving that He was indeed dead), and then physically resurrected from the dead three days later (because if Christ didn't raise up then our faith is in vain and He cannot save us). This is the official and only "Gospel" according to [18]1st Corinthians 15:1-6.

And then the moment you become born again, God gives you the gift of His Holy Spirit to indwell, teach, comfort, guide, chastise and seal you permanently. The change has nothing to do with the sinner! This is where neo-evangelicals have gone horribly wrong! They require the sinner to be sorry and willing to change their behavior to be saved, placing the burden upon the sinner's shoulders instead of upon Christ who died for our sins on Calvary's cross.

A changed life has nothing to do with repentance or getting saved. A changed life is the "fruit" of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25). But we have a daily choice as saints to either by default walk in the carnal flesh (Galatians 5:19-21), or to deliberately walk in the Spirit (Galatians 5:25). No child of God chooses to walk in the Holy Spirit 100 % of the time. Although I can walk in the Spirit at any given time, I won't always make that right choice because I am still a dirty sinner (and so are you). The Apostle Paul is very transparent in Romans 7:14-25, admitting that he loses the struggle between good and evil on a regular basis.

In other words, just because you are saved (alive in the Spirit), DOES NOT guarantee that you will walk in the Spirit. The world is full of carnal, worldly, immature and backslidden believers (1st Corinthians 3:1). This is correct theology. "[19]Your Salvation Did Not Change You A Bit" (a helpful sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles).

Most professed Christians are wrong on God's simple plan of salvation, as was Chuck Norris. Only Chuck and God knows where he went in the afterlife. I know that a lot of people are going to be upset with me for questioning Mr. Norris' salvation, because he was a good man. He lived above reproach and spent his life helping and mentoring troubled young men, and I admire him tremendously for that. I don't think you could find a better man than Chuck Norris. But consider that Cornelius was also a good man in the Bible, but lost (Acts 10:1-2). Cornelius didn't get saved until Acts 10:44. So, just because Chick Norris was a good man doesn't mean that he was saved. Please understand that I didn't write this blog to cast a negative light on an American hero, God forbid. Chuck Norris is an American hero.

I am simply using Mr. Norris' death as a ministry opportunity to address the tragic reality that Chuck Norris was wrong on God's simple plan of salvation. He had (and still does) have influence on millions of people. Norris' so-called Christian testimony is as lame and vague as can be. He claimed to have received Jesus as his "Lord and Savior" at age 12, but [20]every hellbound Roman Catholic will testify the same thing. Catholics [21]plainly add WORKS to faith. For someone to merely say that they received Jesus as their "Lord and Savior" says nothing. And Chuck Norris foolishly taught that to be saved you must forsake your sinning.

This is so serious a doctrinal matter dear friend, please do not glibly dismiss it as a mere matter of semantics. There is only one Gospel according to Galatians 1:6-9. The false idea that you must be sorry and turn away from your past sinful behavior to be saved is a completely different gospel; than to simply accept Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, but bodily raised up after three days.

I love what U.S. President Abraham Lincoln said:

> "In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!" —President Abraham Lincoln

Why did Mr. Lincoln say that? It is because both the Northern Union and the Southern Confederacy claimed to be doing "God's will" in fighting The Civil War (1860-1965). Both President Jefferson Davis in the south, and President Abraham Lincoln in the north, said they were doing "God's will." As Mr. Lincoln wisely points out, that is IMPOSSIBLE! When two opposing parties, who are warring against each other and claim to be doing God's will, obviously someone is WRONG! That is why Abraham Lincoln made that powerful statement!

Likewise, the Bible is abundantly clear that there is only one Gospel (Galatians 1:6-9). I hear misguided neo-evangelical pastors frequently tell the audience to become "

Christ followers

to be saved. Folks, that is another gospel! The accursed false prophets in Matthew 7:21-23 followed Christ. They did

many wonderful works

in Jesus’ name. They preached in Jesus’ name. They cast out devils in Jesus’ name. So also did Judas Iscariot have power to cast out devils (Matthew 11:1). Yet, Jesus denied knowing those false prophets in Matthew 7:21-23. They had never simply rested in what Christ did for them through Calvary’s cross (John 6:40).

Tragically, 99 % of what is being preached from nearly every pulpit today is NOT the Gospel. Unquestionable, Chuck Norris was misled by ungodly false teachers. Most of the sinners burning in the fires of Hell forever are there because they were lied to by a wicked preacher. Jesus didn’t exhort us to follow the pastor. No, Christ said to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES! John 5:39, “

Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

Hellbound [22]Mormons also believe in taking Jesus as their “Lord and Savior.” The hellbound heathen world does not see a distinction between biblical Christianity (being born again) and the plethora of pseudo-Christian false religions. My point dear reader is that Satan is very subtle, sneaky and crafty and has filled the world with distortions, embellishments and perversions of the Gospel to blind men, “ lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them

” (2nd Corinthians 4:4b).

[23] How Permanent Is Your Salvation?

(Pastor Hank Lindstrom, 1940-2008)

“Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do!”

—Pastor Jack Hyles, “ [24]God’s Reversal Of Psalm 51 ”

1st Corinthians 16:24, “My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.”

7.3.22 Please Remember My Health Afflictions In Your Prayers (2026-03-22 06:11)

Psalms 145:9, "The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works."

Please keep me in your prayers. I don't mention my own suffering very often, because I want to stay focused on the things of God. I was rear-ended by a full-sized 72 passenger school bus in 1992 while driving a church bus for the Lord, at the First Baptist Church of Hammond. I was also driving a full-sized bus. Someone irresponsibly left an abandoned car on the roadway, which set up the accident involving three church buses from Hammond. I slammed on the breaks to avoid hitting the car, but the guy behind me wasn't paying attention. The driver struck our bus so hard that his bus was totaled. His engine and transmission were shattered into hundreds of pieces on the ground. Vehicle fluids were everywhere.

At least two dozen ambulances came to the accident scene. The head of the bus worker sitting in the back seat of the bus went through the window. I saw blood and a big hole in the glass. The insurance company didn't even try to repair the other bus, they just bought a brand new bus for the Illinois Bus Company. Bus director Danny Club said it was the second to worst accident in the history of the First Baptist Church of Hammond. The worst was when a boy stuck his head out the window, and as the bus dipped over the curb leaving the church parking lot, his head was pinched between a telephone pole and the bus, and he died. His mother was sitting right behind him, spattered with his blood. It is so heartbreaking.

That's why there are rules not to lower the window below the halfway line, but I could mention some names (but I won't) of men that I went to school with, who are pastoring today, who broke the rules all the time. It sickens me still today, 35 years later. I actually had one bus captain ask me to drive the church bus over train tracks while the lights were flashing and the gates were down. I refused to do it. Sadly, a lot of young guys are IDIOTS!

Anyway, my driver's seat was broken off its hinges. Try to imagine the amount of blunt force energy required to pass through the chassis of a 72 passenger full-sized school bus, to break the driver's seat off its hinges. I went to the hospital and they took x-rays, but they weren't trained to look for misalignment of my spine. Nothing was broken, but my neck was crooked, and I didn't know it at the time.

That misalignment of my cervical (neck) spine 12 years later led to Degenerative Cervical Disk Disease (which essentially means my neck is falling apart slowly as I grow older).

After 4 months of taking my money and doing nothing, I told the chiropractor that enough was enough. So, he sent me to Chicago MRI in 2004 and they diagnosed me with protruding disks at C4-C5-C6-C7. My chronic burning neck pain and stiff tension literally started over night. I had experienced mild tension previously, but it became much worse in February of 2004.

I wasn't a candidate for neck surgery at the time, because I didn't have any radiating pain, yet. In 2005, I tumbled 15 feet down a mailslide at the U.S. postal Service. Some packages on a conveyor belt had buckled, breaking two fluorescent bulbs. I worked in maintenance and was called to replace the bulbs, which I did. The packages had been sticking to the slide, so my boss in his infinite wisdom handed me some baby powder to give mail processing to make the packages slide better. Well, I slipped on the baby powder and as they say, "The rest is history!" I fell hard which worsened my existing neck injury. I now felt sharp radiating pain down both arms, and 80 % on the right side of my body. I was then a candidate for surgery.

By 2009 I couldn't take the pain anymore radiating down my right arm. So I had my first Anterior Cervical Discectomy and Fusion (ACDF) surgery done at Cedar's Sinai in Los Angels. I lived on the island of Guam at the time. My primary care doctor on Guam said afterwards that they did the bare minimum, so in 2010 I had the surgery redone in Long Beach, California. That second surgery made me 100 % worse, leaving both of my arms feeling inflated with air all the time. My right leg still today goes numb and the whole right side of my body feels half asleep all the time.

The constant agonizing osteoarthritic pain in the bony area of the back of my neck is debilitating. I also suffer from constant neck tension, which I've had for 34 years now. I had totally forgotten about the rear-end collision in 1992, and I remember that at work I used to often wonder why my neck was so tense, when nothing was wrong to make me tense. I had totally forgotten about the whiplash. After the accident, for about 2 weeks it felt like an iron rod was put inside my neck. I felt horrible tight tension until the trauma of the accident had diminished, and then I forgot about the accident, not realizing that my spine was misaligned.

It wasn't until 2004 that a chiropractor told me what had happened, and showed me from an x-ray that I have what is medically known as, "Reverse Cervical Curve." That abnormal alignment on my cervical spine caused the junction between the cervical and thorax spine to eventually deteriorate, which injury is permanent.

I also suffer from constant burning nerves throughout my upper body, which very unpleasant feeling I cannot express in words. It feels like I am on fire, not fire fire, but nerve fire. Both of my arms still feel pumped up with air, doubled in size all the time. I suffer from neck atrophy (stiffness), sometimes scraping the bald top of my head when I get into my car. I have to do regular stretching exercising to prevent further atrophy. There is no medical cure for my adverse afflictions. I've undergone 5 months of torturous physical therapy, 3 useless steroid injections, multiple worthless TENS unit, useless cold and hot packs, non helpful multiple chiropractors, two major surgeries that made me much worse, et cetera. I have prayed hundreds of times over the decades for the good LORD to heal me, but this is my thorn in the flesh. Blessed be the name of the Lord Jesus Christ!

To make matters worse, doctors are afraid of the government today. At one time on Guam (around 2011) I was prescribed 140 mg daily of OxyContin (and another 60 mg of Morphine Sulfate). The good ole days! Now, in Pensacola, Florida, the only pain doctor I could find who would accept me as a patient only prescribes 40 mg a day, which is not near enough pain drugs. Thankfully, she also prescribes 2 pills of Percocet 10/325, which helps for 5 hours a day. I have no complaints to the dear LORD. I see miserable people completely paralyzed in wheel chairs and hospital beds, totally incapacitated. So I count my lucky stars and bless the LORD. Pastor Jack Hyles said that when palsied people came to counsel with him, sometimes after they left he would jump up and down, praising and thanking God for his health.

By the time Dr. Hyles reached his 70's, he suffered from 10 different medical afflictions. He wore hearing aids in both ears. He had a hernia that he never had fixed and died with it. he suffered from cataracts in both eyes. He had a physical heart condition, which he learned about the very same day that his dear grandson was sadly killed in an accident in Florida. Brother Hyles had health issues with his feet. As we grow older, we collect injuries, scars and health problems. It's just the way of life. King David in the Bible speaks of his rotting teeth, the stench of his disease (likely venereal disease from all his philandering with women) and his poor eyesight. Getting old is no fun.

That all being said my ministry friends, please remember me in your prayers. I am hurting much. I rarely feel like going onto social media. I have had to kindly tell several dozen people on social media that I do not "chat" online. I don't have the patience for pen pals, buddies or making small talk online. I welcome and love answering Bible questions, by God's grace, but due to my health afflictions I don't have the energy to chat with people in conversation. I do it from time to time randomly, but try to avoid it as a practice.

One of my favorite sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) is titled, "[2]The Patient Waiting Of Christ," in which he talks about having a burden that will never go away. My heath afflictions are permanent, 'til death do us part. It is only God's grace that sustains me day by day...

> James 5:10-11, "Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience. Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy."

Gratefully, God has given me the perfect website ministry, which I can work on night or day at my leisure. I can and often do walk away from my computer just to go lay down. I need a calm harbor in my life more than anything.

I just turned 59 years old, by God's goodness and grace, and I simply cannot process chaos like I could in my 30's. I live a simple life. I don't sign anything unless I have to. I check my mailbox once a week. I never answer my phone, I let T-Mobile's Voice Mail record all incoming messages. I have a sweet deal with T-Mobile. I only pay $15 a month for unlimited calls and text. I bought my Samsung Galaxy Note 10 Plus on Amazon refurbished for $250 and love it. I digress.

I rarely feel like doing anything, going anywhere or being around people. It is difficult for me to sit though a church service. I have to make myself doing anything. I love playing stringed instruments, but rarely feel like playing them. I have to make myself do it, but can only play for awhile before I need to stop and go rest. I push myself on some days, but due to my pain and related bodily afflictions I am easily irritated and frustrated. One of my all-time favorite sermons by Pastor Jack Hyles is titled, "[3]At First You Just Exist."

I think about that sermon probably more than any other sermon by Brother Hyles, because it is very applicable to my life. Oftentimes I just have to exist, even though I don't want to. I am not suicidal, I just want to go home to be with Jesus. Philippians 1:21, "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain." You won't hear me often complaining about my health afflictions. First, it doesn't make anything better. Second, people don't want to hear it all the time. Third, I have spent the past 24 years of website ministry focusing on helping others, which has given me strength to keep going for Christ. David said in 1st Samuel 17:29b, "Is there not a cause?" Yes, there is a cause and by God's grace I am fulfilling it for my dear Savior. Colossians 4:17, "Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it." One day at a time!

Thank you for visiting my Facebook page and for reading my rants and posts. Also, for those of you who regularly visit my ministry Facebook page, blogs and websites, you know that I can get emotionally upset sometimes, which shows in my writings. I am a musician and musicians are emotional people. That is what drew me to the pedal steel guitar, because it is such an expressive instrument.

Add to that my health afflictions which cause constant pain, burning and suffering and it's not difficult to see why I get so upset at times. But I am doing the best I can by God's grace. I have always believed that when I get upset, that God is glad to see that someone else cares enough about right doctrine, the purity of the Holy Bible and the accuracy of the Gospel to get worked up and angry over it. Throughout the Bible God often got angry. He wanted to kill the Hebrews at Mount Sinai. The Lord wanted to kill Moses for not circumcising his son. God has a righteous temper (Psalms 6:1). Dr. Hyles had a righteous temper. God pity the Bible preacher who never gets angry over sin, heresy and corruption.

My constant debilitating burning neck pain, inexplicable horrible burning nerves, the right side of my body feeling half asleep all the time, stiff neck tension, adverse drug side effects and related bodily afflictions keep me humble in the LORD. God is faithful (1st Corinthians 1:9). Trying to explain to others what I am suffering through is like trying to describe what it feels like to get hit by a car versus getting hit by a car yourself. There is no comparison!

Thank you for your patience with this broken fundamentalist Bible preacher. Fundamentalists are much hated by ungodly neo-evangelicals today. That is why I have been kicked out of most of the churches I have attended over the past 15 years, including Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College and Family Baptist Church in Pensacola. Devils in the pulpit! Neo-evangelicals don't care! They're in the ministry for the income, not the outcome (Romans 16:17-18).

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was so right...

7.3.23 Be Careful About Being Braggadacious (2026-03-23 04:30)

1st Corinthians 10:5-12, "But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.

Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come. Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall."

I cringe when I hear pastors being braggadocios, boasting of their success. I heard a sermon today by a popular independent fundamental Baptist pastor. If I mentioned his name everyone would instantly recognize him, if you are a fundamental Baptist. The sermon is about how him and his wife have stayed married for 25 years. Throughout the sermon he boasts that he and his wife have been careful to avoid bad friends, don't let the sun go down upon their wrath each day, take time for each other, go on cabin retreats with a fireplace, take vacations together every year, enjoy one another, et cetera.

A few years later his wife was getting deep, damp and dirty with a staff member at the church where her husband was the pastor. She fell into the horrible sin of adultery for a couple months, until they were caught and exposed. The pastor resigned. That pastor is no longer braggadocios about his successful marriage.

I am thinking about another married couple. The fella was a well known pastor of one of the largest independent fundamental Baptist churches in the world. If I mentioned his name everyone would recognize him right away, if you are familiar at all with the independent Baptist movement. He and his wife were both braggadocios of their successful marriage. They both wrote books boasting about their successful marriage. In the wife's book she wrote,

“I cannot believe the type of men that some women marry.” She bragged that her future was so bright that she needed to wear sunglasses, and she was wearing sunglasses to enhance her point.

The pastor and his wife relished in boasting publicly about their “ happy marriage.

The cocky pastor slandered other preachers, one in particular, hypocritically accusing him publicly of plowing with someone else’s heifer

(referring to Judges 14:18). Although the pastor didn’t mention the man’s name, everyone knew exactly who he was talking about because his details were so vivid. I knew who he was slandering, and so did the man’s mother in the church.

Well, a couple years later that cocky pastor commit adultery with a 17 year old young woman. He was sentenced to over a decade in prison. His ungodly self-righteous wife divorced him and married a different man, a stranger, a bum. This is the arrogant woman who criticized other ladies, saying,

“I cannot believe the type of men that some women marry.” Uh huh! Look to thine own ways Ma’am! Some of my ministry readers may have figured out the couples I am talking about. I won’t mention their names. I am not anyone’s judge (James 4:12).

I wrote this article to warn others not to become haughty and braggadocios in pride

just because you’ve enjoyed good success thus far in life. The proper Christian attitude should always be, “

There but for the grace of God go I.

Proverbs 16:18, “Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.”

Our text passage of Scripture teaches that God has intentionally shared with us the faltering and failure of the Jews in the Wilderness, and then again when 20,000 Jews were killed by God for the sin of complaining, as ensamples (examples).

God hates complaining!

Romans 15:4,

“For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.”

God has given us hundreds of edifying biographies of Old Testament saints for our LEARNING, that by examining their lives (before, during and after their life on earth), we will find comfort and hope in the Scripture. Whereas they couldn’t see their hand in front of their face during their suffering and tribulation, we have been given a privileged look into their lives. We have the special privilege of seeing the outcome of their faith in Christ (Acts 10:43).

Our text passage of Scripture from 1st Corinthians 10:5-12 teaches that God has given us Old Testament examples of how easily we can falter and go into sin, ruining our testimony. 1st Corinthians 10:11-12, "Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come. Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall." To "admonish" means "to strongly warn; to put on guard." God gave us these intriguing biographies of Old Testament saints as a blessing to help us live right, to warn us so that we will be on guard against evil. Proverbs 4:23, "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life."

I cringe whenever I hear a proud pastor bragging about his successful marriage, his big ministry, his ten thousand sermons or his great character. Proverbs 16:18, "Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall." People compliment and thank me all the time for my website ministry, which the LORD has blessed since 2002 when by God's grace I started my [1]Jesus-is-Savior.com website ministry. I always pass the praise onto the dear LORD. John 15:5, "

I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

In 2003, by God's grace I started [2]Lovethetruth.com . In 2004, I started [3]Godlovespeople.com . In 2005, I started [4]Dividedbytruth.org . In 2006, I started [5]Soulwinning.info . In 2010, I started [6]SteelC6th.com (since I preach the Gospel this music website is also a ministry).

By God's grace, in 2013, I started my [7]Jesusisprecious.org website. Amen and amen! I am not bragging, God forbid. It has only been by God's amazing grace, by His blessed Holy Spirit working through me as a wretched redeemed sinner, that all this has been possible.

Perhaps the greatest comment I have ever received from a web visitor was about 15 years ago. He said,

"Thank you for allowing God to do all this through you." At first I was taken back by his comment. I thought to myself, "Who am I to allow God to do anything?" But then I pondered over his compliment and realized that what he said is 100 % biblical.

Ezekiel 22:30, "

And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none.

" We are not expendable as Christians to God. If we don't yield to serve the LORD, no one else can fill our shoes. For the past 24 years of internet ministry, by God's grace, I have humbly allowed God's Holy Spirit to work through me to preach the Gospel to the lost, and to feed Jesus' sheep.

The Sword of the Lord Is Becoming Toxic

I subscribe to the Sword Of The Lord (located in Murfreesboro, Tennessee), a publication founded in 1934 by the faithful soulwinning evangelist Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980). Brother

Rice's successor was Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995). I cherish both of these faithful men of God. Today the ministry is led by Dr. Sheldon Smith, who I am not very impressed with. Dr. Smith values money more than truth. I kindly contacted the Sword of the Lord a couple years ago in 2022 to warn them about Pensacola Christian College (PCC), warning them that PCC is [8]wrong on repentance and the Gospel. [9]I actually found FOUR different plans of salvation at PCC. Tragically, the Sword of the Lord totally ignored me and couldn't care less about right doctrine. For years now the Sword has been promoting PCC in a large advertisement in each publication. 2nd John 1:11,

"For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

In Volume XCII, No. 5, dated for March 6, 2026, an article appears on page 15 in the Sword of the Lord written by a pastor's wife, Janet Walsh. Her article is titled, "God Doesn't Need Me, But He Blesses Obedience." Dear reader, that is junk theology! What do you mean God doesn't need us? You are the only Jesus that someone knows! To someone you are "the uttermost part of the earth

" (Acts 1:8b). God does need you and me! There are lost sinners that only I can reach. There are lost family members that only you can reach with the Gospel.

Where did that pastor's wife ever get the erroneous idea that God doesn't need us? Get thee behind me, Satan! In Ezekiel 22:30 God said He sought for a man among the people who would stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none.

" God needed a man, but He couldn't find one. God didn't create another man to meet His need. There was no one! God wasn't looking for a woman. All women preachers are false prophets!

The Apostle Paul wro te in Philippians

2:20, "

For I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.

" Paul couldn't find a man who shared his ministry vision and burden, just like God couldn't find a man to stand in the gap in prayer before Him for the land. We are all that God has to work with dear reader. If we do not fulfill God's will for OUR LIFE, there is no one else to fill our shoes. So, yes, God does indeed need you and me, very much.

Please don't ever let some ignorant pastor's wife convince you that God doesn't need you. Regardless of whether it is the Sword of the Lord, BBN (Bible Broadcasting Network), the local church that you attend, or some lifeless religious college—

I encourage you dear reader to learn to THINK OBJETIVELY, questioning everything. 1st John 4:1,

"Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world." Some of the most dangerous places to be on earth today is in Bible college or a local church. A counterfeit gospel is being preached from nearly every pulpit today. Preachers are like parrots merely repeating what other preachers say. I think for myself.

The Holy Bible prophecies in the Old Testament book of Amos that in the last days there will be a famine, not of food, but of the inspired Words of God. Amos 8:11, “

Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD.

” With literally hundreds of English Bible revisions today, the inspired Words of God are being obscured, lost and replaced with Satan’s corruptible seed (Genesis 3:15). Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) uses Genesis 3:15 as his text for one of my favorite sermons titled,

“ [10]The Battle Of The Ages ”

(1994).

It Is Only By God’s Grace That We Can Do Anything

The Christian life is all about God’s grace. As believers we don’t grow in strength, we grow in grace. 2nd Peter 3:18, “But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen. ” The inspired Word of God teaches that Jesus (our Creator according to John 1:3 - King James Bible only) “giveth to all life, and breath, and all things ” (Acts 17:25b).

Jesus plainly said in John 15:4-8, “Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples. that He is the Vine and we as saints are the branches, and without Christ we can do nothing.

” This Scripture passage is talking about soulwinning.

1st Corinthians 3:6-7, “I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.” I cannot save anybody! Romans 1:16 clearly identifies “the gospel of Christ” as “the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth.”

Carefully notice that no mention is made in Romans 1:16 of repenting of your sins, confessing Jesus publicly, getting water baptized, partaking of sacraments, inviting Jesus into your life, becoming a Christ follower, asking Jesus into your heart, being willing to turn from your past sinful ways, surrendering your will to live an obedient life, living a lifestyle of repentance, nor any other garbage; the inspired Scripture simply promises eternal life to “ every one that believeth. ” John 6:47,

“ Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. ”

Dear reader, if my website and blog ministry have been a blessing to you, then know that it is only because of God's blessed Holy Spirit working through me as His child. I have no special in road to God. The very same throne of grace that is freely available to help me is also available to you friend, if you are a born again Christian. ...

> Hebrews 4:14-16, "
> Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need."

I first read and fell in love with this precious passage of Scripture during my first year at Hyles-Anderson College while living in the dorms. Once I read this passage and it burned into my heart the confidence to approach God's throne of grace boldly, I have never forgotten what I learned. Whereas the unsaved sinner has no right to come before God's throne, every redeemed sinner whose faith is in Jesus Christ does. That is a great comfort and confidence!

I have tried carefully over the decades of my ministry not to become braggadocios. My life has been a trainwreck. My marriage has been a nightmare. My health afflictions are many and debilitating. I am a broken sinner saved by the undeserving grace of God. I do not claim to be a good Christian, but God knows that I do truly care. I CARE! The most important job is the one that doesn't get done! Little things are important. Here is a life changing sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles titled,

" [11]The Importance Of Five Minutes. "

> "Nothing is unimportant! Nothing! Every little detail's important!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[12]Unjust In The Least"

The reason why Pensacola Christian College has [13]FOUR different plans of salvation is simply because they don't care. Just like Romans 16:17-18 says, PCC are in the ministry for the INCOME, not the OUTCOME. Romans 16:18, "For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple."

At PCC, they don't pay attention to the details because it's not a priority to them. The accuracy of the Gospel doesn't matter at PCC.

You'll find everything from a free grace Gospel to Lordship Salvation officially being taught at their dungheap for a college. I heard assistant pastor Timothy Zacharias on July 21, 2021 (at a Wednesday evening service) errantly teach that you must repent to change your behavior to get to Heaven. That is another gospel! Such recklessness clearly evidences that they are only in the religious business to make money. PCC take in $175,000,000 each year! I feel sorry for any parent who financially pays for their impressionable child to go to such a blatant cult.

Always Credit God For The Good Things In Your Life

I began this article by mentioning two married couples in the clergy who were braggadocios about their marriages, but years later when calamity struck home and their marriages fell apart, they weren't so cocky. If you have been married for 40 or 50 years, you had better glorify God and testify that it was only by God's goodness, mercy and grace that you didn't end up divorced. Ladies and gentlemen, we don't give God enough due credit...

> Daniel 5:23, "
>
> But hast lifted up thyself against the LORD of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified.

I cringed today as I heard a fundamentalist Baptist pastor giving all the reasons in a sermon why he and his wife have been married for 25 years. A couple years later when his pretty wife was being banged in bed by another man in the church, he wasn't so arrogant and confident about their marriage success. I refuse to boast about any of my own accomplishments. God is the Potter; We are the clay.

Also, please do not ever commit the foolish sin of boasting that your child is an honor role student without glorifying God, because that child could someday break your heart and wind up serving life in prison, overdose to death on drugs, or shame you in a hundred possible ways. We live in a wicked humanistic society in the United States. McDonald's says, but the Holy Bible says you deserve to burn in Hell forever (Revelation 21:8). Burger King says,

"[14]Y

[15]ou Deserve a Break Today,

"[16]Have It Your Way!," but the Holy Bible says to follow God's way (Proverbs 3:5-7).

The food we eat is by God's grace. The roof provided over our head is by God's grace.

James 1:17, "

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

" There are 10,080 minutes in each week. Have we thanked God with even one of those minutes?

Al Capone's Wife Mae Stayed Faithful To Him In Prison

The other carnal pastor's wife I mentioned earlier, who said in her book that she couldn't believe the type of men that some women marry, ended up abandoning her husband while he was rotting in prison and she cruelly married another man. What a wicked thing to do! Marriage vows mean nothing anymore! The marriage license is a worthless piece of paper these days, when courts nationwide allow no fault divorces

for any reason. What do you mean no fault? You're both at fault!!!

And by the way, adultery is NOT biblical grounds for divorce. You mean to tell me that you couldn't divorce a spouse like Al Capone who murdered dozens of gangsters, but you can for adultery? You're a fool if you believe it is okay to divorce an unfaithful spouse! When Jesus spoke of divorcing in the case fornication, He clearly meant during the courtship phase (as is perfectly illustrated in the case of Joseph and Mary in the New Testament).

By divorcing her husband while he was alone in prison, that wicked pastor's wife I just mentioned a moment ago was being self-righteous. She is just as much a rotten sinner as her adulterous husband! She shouldn't have condemned her husband for sinning differently than she did. The wife of infamous gangster Al Capone (1899-1947) [17]stayed faithful to him while he rotted in prison serving an 11 year sentence for tax evasion? What a gal!

Al Capone contracted the disease syphilis from his years of philandering with harlots. He entered into prison with the disease in 1931, but Penicillin (the cure) wasn't discovered by the military until 1939. So, he went untreated in prison. Capone's brain and bones were eaten with holes by the time he was released from prison in 1939. Yet, his wife [18]Mae Capone stayed faithfully married to Al, until death did they part. Shame on that wicked pastor's wife for divorcing her imperfect husband, when the wife of the world's most notorious gangster stayed faithful to her husband all his life. Truly, Christians behave worse than the world sometimes.

There but for the grace of God, go I.

7.3.24 The Inspiration Of The King James Bible Matters (2026-03-24 02:00)

Proverbs 22:28, "Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set."

Revelation 3:2, "Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God."

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) [1]warned the members of the First Baptist Church in Hammond, Indiana, not to allow a half dozen men to change the church when he went to Heaven.

Dr. Russell Anderson (1931-2023) Took A Biblical Stand Against The First Baptist Church Of Hammond

Sadly, that is exactly what happened, so that since 2009 the church and Hyles-Anderson College no longer believe nor teach that the King James Bible is inspired by God. Dr. Russell Anderson (1931-2023) was so upset about the matter that [2]he wrote an open letter to Pastor Jack Schaap.

And Pastor John Wilkerson (in [3]this open letter Dr. Anderson demands that they remove his name from Hyles-Anderson College, since they refused to return to their former position that the King James Bible is inspired and without error.

Both open letters from Brother Anderson demanded that they return to their former doctrinal position that the King James Bible is verbally (Word for Word) and plenary (the whole canon of 66 books) inspired by God, or else he would withdraw his support of both the church and college, and due to their ungodly rejection of his wisdom Dr. Anderson did just that!

[4] The Betrayal Of Dr. Russell Anderson By The First Baptist Church Of Hammond

Read for yourself what Pastor Jack Hyles said about the King James Bible...

[5]

What Dr. Jack Hyles Said About The King James Bible

Again, [6]Brother Hyles warned the church members not to let this happen. Dr. Hyles wisely told each church member to appoint them self as a guardian of one against heresy creeping into the church.

Pastor Hyles warned in 1998...

> “The biggest split that has ever come will come in the next ten years, if not sooner, over the King James Bible - and it couldn’t come soon enough for me. I’m tired of colleges and universities advertising that they ’use’ the King James Bible - tell the whole story! Tell everyone that you do not believe that it is inspired word for word.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, from the Wednesday night Bible study titled, “Revelation to Illumination” (1998)

Shockingly, it was 10 YEARS later that Pastor Jack Schaap wickedly denied the inspiration of the King James Bible. Dr. Schaap in his retarded stupid ungodly booklet titled, "Where Are We Going?," which was passed out at Pastor’s School to over 5,000 delegates disparagingly called King James Bible only believers: "Rats in the woodpile," "Barbarians" and "Ignorant hillbillies." You can [7]read Dr. Schaap’s own self defense of his fallacy in this clearly twisted response, in which he is trying to hide behind his alleged "angry" wife and the "angry" deacons for his incompetence of [8]denying the inspiration of the King James Bible.

Pastor Jack Schaap foolishly said the inspiration of the King James Bible is a "side issue" which "espouses Catholic doctrine." That is blatantly false! Brother Schaap was my teacher at Hyles-Anderson College for 4 years of Church Education in my 8 years there (I had Dr. Ray Young for the other 4 years). Dr. Schaap also taught me Basic Homiletics, Advanced Homiletics and Revelation and I will always cherish those memories.

I still have all my notes from Brother Joe Combs [my favorite Bible teacher who used to preach week long revivals at my home church (First Baptist Church of Marquette) in Chicago when I was a teenager]. My heart breaks regularly when I stop to realize that Brother Combs is serving 114 years in prison for his sins. There but for the grace of God, go all of us! □□□□□□ □□□:□, “□□ □□□□ □□□□□□ □□□□ □□□ □□□□□□□, □□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□□ □□□□□□□□, □□ □□□□ □□□□ □□□□□□□□.”

I still have all my college notes from all my teachers at Hyles-Anderson College, those who influenced me for God, righteousness and truth. Pastor Brad Strand was my second favorite Bible teacher, who is faithfully pastoring a small country church in Texas today. I love these men! My ministry website wouldn’t exist if it weren’t for Hyles-Anderson College. I am forever grateful to all of them.

I do not condemn Brother Schaap for his past sins, for we are all guilty sinners. I am the biggest sinner I know. I won’t tolerate anyone bashing Brother Schaap either. I delete any such comments on my Facebook page. Satan is “the accuser of the brethren” (Revelation 12:10b). I pray for Dr. Schaap regularly as my dear Brother in Christ. Satan sifted him as wheat, as the Devil desires to do to every saint of God. But the damage Pastor Schaap did to First Baptist Church of Hammond by changing their position on the Bible is irreversible.

First Baptist Church of Hammond Still Corrupt in 2026

It also grieves me that in the church’s desperation after Dr. Schaap was arrested, they called Dr. John Wilkerson to be their pastor because of his solid faithful past experience as a pastor, assistant pastor and principle of a Christian school; but knowingly hired a man who admitted upfront while candidating that he is not a preacher, and does not think it a good thing to expose the modern perversions of the Bible. In his own words, Pastor Wilkerson thinks it is [9]"disrespectful" to criticize a baby believer's Bible version, which might do more damage than good. Are you kidding me?

That's equivalent to saying that if you see a deranged man putting deadly poison into the church nursery milk bottles, you wouldn't say anything lest you offend new mothers and they leave the church permanently. What Brother Wilkerson is really admitting is that he doesn't see the spiritual dangers of the Devil's modern perversions of the Bible, or he just doesn't care. Either way, he is partly incompetent as a spiritual leader! RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!

I like Brother Wilkerson. I stayed over at his house in Long Beach California during my college days for a wedding of a friend in college. Brother Wilkerson and his wife treated us kindly. Pastor Larry Chapel performed the wedding. We drove for about 35 hours from Chicago to Long Beach and then back. From all I have seen, Pastor Wilkerson has done a tremendous job as a pastor, but in lieu of the fact that he refuses to return the church and college to their former position that the King James Bible is inspired and without error, I cannot endorse his ministry or the college anymore, and [10]Dr. Hyles said that himself.

Brother Hyles warned about anyone who questions the inspiration and accuracy of the King James Bible...

> "And brother, any time anybody ever casts any reflection upon the accuracy and the inspiration—verbal inspiration—of this Bible, I'll guarantee you he was inspired by the demons. I'll guarantee you! I don't care if he's got a 'reverend' in front of his name. I don't care if he has a clerical collar on. I don't care what school he's been to. He's of the Devil if he says that the Bible is not verbally inspired by God!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, a great quote from the awesome MP3 sermon titled, "Satan's Masterpiece"

Respectfully, from the quote you just read, according to Brother Hyles, and I agree with him, Dr. Schaap was inspired by demons!

Dr. Hyles is correct—a fundamentalist is not someone who simply believes the fundamentals of the Bible; but rather, it is someone who has separated from those who no longer believe the fundamentals...

> "It is rather popular to define the term 'fundamentalist' as one who believes the fundamentals; for example, one who believes the verbal inspiration of the Bible, the deity of Christ, the virgin birth, the vicarious death, the bodily resurrection and the second coming. Now, to be sure, such a one believes the fundamentals, but the term 'fundamentalist' probably should not be ascribed to him if he is still a member of an apostate denomination. The term 'fundamentalist' is given not to those who simply believe the aforementioned fundamentals but to those who have separated > themselves from those who do not. This brings the doctrine of separation into focus as a vital and necessary part of being a fundamentalist." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "What is a Fundamentalist?"; Chapter 15, from the edifying book, "Jack Hyles Speaks On Biblical Separation"

Praise God for the minority of courageous fundamentalist Christians who have "come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord" (2nd Corinthians 6:17b). My heart is with FBCH and HAC, and always will be, but as long as they are presently denying the inspiration and accuracy of the King James Bible, I cannot stand behind them. I breaks my heart that my home college no longer stands behind me as one of their graduates, because I am preaching the same exact truth that Brother Hyles taught and preached!!! God help us!

During the nightmarish attack against Pastor Hyles and ministry in 1989, he said these tremendous words...

> "There is a planned, plotted, plot, right now... This isn't over Jack Hyles—This is over fundamentalism! These are evangelicals fighting fundamentalists! That's what it's all about. And their effort is to destroy Hyles-Anderson College! Over my dead body..." —Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the May 14, 1989 sermon, "Weathering The Storm!

Amen and amen! I am grateful that I was there in 1989 to stand faithful alongside Brother Hyles during the darkest years of his life and ministry. By God's grace, I was a friend at midnight!

> "Students of Hyles-Anderson College, do not give your loyalty to Hyles-Anderson College. You give your loyalty to what we stand for today, and if tomorrow we don't stand for it, you withdraw your loyalty—loyalty to principle, loyalty to right, loyalty to character, loyalty to integrity, loyalty to conviction, loyalty to truth; not loyalty to institutions." —Dr. Jack Hyles, "Filled With All The Fulness Of God"

If the inspiration of the King James Bible is a trifle matter to you, then GET RIGHT WITH GOD dear reader. If we do not have a perfect inspired Holy Bible in the English language today, then we don't have the truth. Jesus said in [illegible] "[illegible]" (Jesus is quoting Moses from Deuteronomy 8:3). If I am to live by EVERY WORD of God, then I need an EVERY WORD Bible! That is, a correct translation!!!

The King James Bible is Inspired by God

Don't anyone dare try to convince me that our omnipotent faithful Creator, who created two trillion known galaxies by the mere Word of His mouth, was too incapable, incompetent or inept to give us a perfect and inspired Holy Bible in the English language today.

And don’t you dare try to convince me that God intended for us to all become Hebrew, Chaldean and Greek scholars so that we could find and grasp the truth of His inspired Words. Which Greek? Even leading language experts cannot agree on which ancient texts are inspired, non-inspired or corrupt.

In the Old Testament there is a remarkable true story of King Solomon and two women fighting over a living child, because one of the mothers unintentionally laid upon and smothered her baby to death. Solomon asks for a sword to cut the baby in half. The one woman agreed to kill the child, each taking half. But the other woman burst out in tears and told Solomon to give the child to the other woman, thus revealing that she was indeed the child’s real mother. Likewise, only the King James Bible only crowd today are crying out not to divide, tamper with or change the Holy Bible, while the Devil’s religious crowd incessantly call for another Bible revision, wanting to divide the Word of God into pieces. Case in point, [11]read this article.

It couldn’t be more obvious that Satan’s paw prints are upon all of the modern English Bible revisions. Dr. Hyles was right, "If you’ve seen one Westcott and Hort translation you’ve seen ’em all." [12]Dr. Douglas D. Stauffer is right that only the inspired King James Bible stands alone!

By denying the inspiration of the King James Bible, Pastor Schaap invited a deadly Trojan Horse into the church and college. And as I type, some of the members of the First Baptist Church of Hammond are using the Devil’s modern revisions, and according to Pastor Wilkerson’s own words he refuses to criticize those fake bibles, lest he be "disrespectful" toward baby believers. What a cop out! Those people should be warned!!! They’re going to get serious spiritual food poisoning consuming the Devil’s corruptible seed.

When I attended the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014, I was driving one day while listening to their KHMG 88.1 FM radio station which is broadcast throughout Micronesia. I heard Jared Baldwin, one of their incompetent associate pastors, quote James 5:16 from the corrupt Easy-To-Read Version (ERV), which says to confess our "sins" one to another. That is what he admitted to doing, confessing his "sins" to Marty Herron, the senior incompetent clown for a pastor. The King James Bible rightly says to confess our "faults" (not sins) one to another. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

Pastor Jack Hyles Rightly Taught That The King James Bible Is Verbally and Plenary Inspired

My dear ministry friend, Pastor David Baker Sr. (1967-2024), faithfully exposed the corrupt First Baptist Church of Hammond for trashing out the inspiration of the King James Bible, and I applaud him for doing it. Dr. I saved Pastor Baker’s work, downloading his entire website for safe keeping, so I can continue his work. Here is one of his website’s articles...

What Dr. Jack Hyles Said About The King James Bible

Dr. Jack Hyles began preaching at the age of nineteen and pastured for over half a century. At the time of his death, First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, had a membership of over one hundred thousand. For several years, twenty thousand folks per year made public professions of faith and ten thousand of those were baptized. Dr. Elmer Towns declared First Baptist Church as the "World's Largest Sunday School."

Dr. Hyles has authored forty-nine books and pamphlets, exceeding over ten million copies in sales. He preached over sixty thousand sermons in every state in the union and in many foreign countries. He conducted an annual Pastors' School where thousands of pastors attended.

The following excerpts were taken from Dr. Hyles' book "The Need for an Every-Word Bible."

"This statement is from the chairman of Bible at one of our well-known Bible colleges. He said, 'There is no perfect translation.' What am I going to take soul winning? If there is no perfect English translation, I have no perfect Bible. My mother was wrong, and so was yours." (Page 26)

"Don't tell me I've been preaching from an imperfect Bible for 50 years! Don't tell me First Baptist Church of Hammond is built on an imperfect Bible! Don't be loyal to some institution! Be loyal to God's Book." (Page 26)

"If the day ever comes that some teacher at Hyles-Anderson College teaches that we have no perfect English translation in the King James Bible, that rascal will never walk on campus again. He'll never teach another class." (Page 27)

"If we have no perfect English Bible, what am I going to preach? What seed am I going to take soul winning? How am I going to live? I have to live by every word. How am I going to get my prayers answered? How can I find the will of God? How can I live a life for Christ when I have to have every word by which to live?" (Page 27)

"There is a perfect English Bible - the King James Bible." (Page 31)

"Verse 16 says, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God..." If "all scripture" means "the total Scripture," then would every book in that "all scripture" be inspired? Would every chapter in every book of that "all scripture" be inspired? Would every verse in every chapter in every book of that "all scripture" be inspired? Then would every word in every verse in every chapter in every book in that "all scripture" be inspired? Yes! (Page 38)

"God revealed His perfect will through a perfect, written revelation, the Bible - our final authority." (Page 41)

"We must have every word, so there has to be a perfect English Bible or we cannot live." (Page 45)

"Brother Hyles, so what if a preacher boy goes down to a so-called Christian college where he sits in a liberal professor's class who teaches, 'We have no perfect Bible.' What difference does it make?"

It makes all the difference in the world! What that preacher better do is take the Bible rather than some institution to which he subscribes his loyalty. What he better do is stop and realize that if we have no perfect English Bible, we cannot live because, "...Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeded! out of the mouth of God." (Matthew 4:4) (Page 51)

"God has preserved His words for us in the King James Bible." (Page 51)

"Every generation has to redefine the Bible for itself. Every generation has to discover for itself that the King James Bible contains the words of God. Every generation has to experience a split because every movement experiences a natural deterioration." (Page 53)

"The biggest split that has ever come will come in the next ten years, if not sooner, over the King James Bible, and it wouldn't come soon enough for me." (Page 54)

"I'm tired of colleges and universities advertising that they use the King James Bible. Tell the whole story! Tell everyone that you do not believe that it is inspired word for word..." (Page 54)

"The issue that is dividing Baptists in my generation is the healthiest issue ever, the Bible. What better issue could divide? We're not going to divide over some piddling issue. We are going to divide over the foundation of our faith and that is, 'What is the Word of God, and where is the Word of God?'" (Page 54)

"Let me explain what I mean when I say that the King James Bible contains the words of God. I believe that every word in the King James Bible is God's Word." (Page 54)

"That means that the Bible I hold in my hands contains the very words of God Almighty. If I believed what most nonde-nominational, so-called Bible colleges believe, I would close my Bible and never preach another sermon." (Page 57)

"I ask you theologian, 'Did Jesus have the very words of God or not?' If I don't, He didn't! If God could preserve His words for 4,000 years when they had no printing presses at all, don't you think He could preserve the words of God for 2,000 years with our modern ways of printing?" '(Page 58)

"If the people in the church at Ephesus had a perfect Bible with which to fight the Devil, 1 have to have a perfect Bible with which to fight the Devil." (Page 58)

"I will give my loyalty to principles and support the institutions that embrace those principles. I've been saying that for over 48 years. Don't be surprised because I've dropped my loyalty to some institutions." (Page 62)

"That revelation which God inspired has been preserved as He said He would preserve it for these 6,000 years, which means we still have those very words..." (Page 63)

"So saint of God who doesn't know any Greek, just open the old King James Bible and look up to God and say, 'I'm going to read it; now You teach it to me.' That is the best form of Bible study any person will ever have." (Page 64)

"If God did not preserve the Words of the Bible, then He is a respecter of persons, but the Bible says that God is no respecter of persons." (Page 67)

"Every preacher whom I know who does not believe there is a perfect Bible, and who claims to preach the Gospel went off to college with a King James Bible. There some dirty professor tampered with him and shook his faith in the Book from which his pastor preached..."(Page 68)

"Is God so weak that He could not preserve His words? Could not the God Who gave His Words to holy men of old preserve His words for our generation?" (Page 69)

"Would God give one generation a sword but another generation a penknife?" (Page 69)

"I believe with all my soul that those preaching from a bunch of false Bibles are planting corruptible seed." (Page 72)

"Would God give all pure words to one generation but impure words to another generation?" (Page 72)

"If the Bible needs improving, it isn’t perfect." (Page 73)

"My Bible says that the words and the Spirit are the same." (Page 75)

"There never was a time when the Word of God did not exist. There never will be a time when they don’t exist. (Page 77)

"We will have in Heaven the eternal words of God that we now have." (Page 79)

"God has provided today’s Christian with a more sure word of prophecy,”’ (Page 90)

"The Bible doesn’t say, "Man shall live by every thought or every meaning." The Bible says, "’every word." (Page 96)

"God gave the words to Jeremiah who gave the words to Baruch, and we still have all the words of the Lord." (Page 97)

"Every single word of God has been preserved in the King James Bible, the only Bible!" (Page 97)

"The word verbal means that every word of the Bible is inspired. Plenary means that the entire Bible is inspired word for word. Verbal inspiration says, 'Look at a word in the Bible; it is inspired by God.' Plenary inspiration says, 'Every word in the Bible is inspired by God; all of it is inspired by God.' Every Scripture is inspired by God! The inspiration of the Scripture is being attacked." (Page 126)

"In our generation, there is nothing under attack more than the King James Bible. Nothing! "(Page 137)

"If the only place in the world where we have a word-for-word inspired Bible is in the original that means that today there is no book that contains the words of God." (Page 138)

"I believe that every word in the King James Bible is the word of God and I believe it always was." (Page 139)

"I'm talking about schools and professors who disguise themselves as fundamentalists, who do not believe that there is a book in the world that con- tains the very words of God." (Page 140)

"My Bible says that the Word of God is pure." (Page 141)

"Where are the words of God? I hold in my hand the words of God - the King James Bible." (Page 143)

"It comes back to the fact that we don't believe that we have an every-word Bible. What we have done is cater to whatever new fad comes out and give them a Bible to please them." (Page 144)

"Let's be people of the Book. Let's defend it. Let's stand for it." (Page 144)

"America needs to get back to the King James Bible." (Page 144)

"We just need one Sword -The King James Bible!" (Page 145)

Thank God For Faithful Servant Pastor David Baker Sr.

I am so grateful to Pastor David Mark Baker Sr. (February 5, 1967 - September 11, 2024) of the lighthouse Baptist Church in Columbus, Tennessee, where he was the faithful pastor for 31 years from 1993 to 2024 Dr. baker faithfully served our Lord Jesus Christ. He admirably served in prison ministries for 28 years, helping men who were captured by Satan (Acts 26:17-18).

Dr. Baker was also involved in a ministry of restoring fallen preachers, called Restoration Care Ministries (RCM). God bless that dear saint of God! Preachers are on the front lines of the war between good and evil today, hated by the Devil's children. John 15:19, "If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you."

Case in point. Long time rock band KISS Frontman Gene Simmons (real Jewish name: Chaim Witz) has [13]boasted publicly of having commit fornication with 5,000 women (Hebrews 13:4), which the American newsmedia sanctions and even rewards, continually praising Mr. Simmons for his musical success. Even [14]U.S. President Donald Trump honored Gene Simmons in 2025. SHAME!!!

Yet, when Pastor Baker was merely accused in 2024 of wrong doing, the wicked media ran with the story as if it were Gospel truth and demonized him without mercy. The poor fella didn't even have his day in court yet before slanderers, haters and the wicked media tore him down. The truth is that they hated Brother Baker because he was a fundamentalist Bible preacher, just like the world hated Jesus (John 7:7). ...

> "There is a planned, plotted, plot, right now... This isn't over Jack Hyles—This is over fundamentalism! These are evangelicals fighting fundamentalists! That's what it's all about. And their effort is to destroy Hyles-Anderson College! Over my dead body..." —Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the May 14, 1989 sermon, "Weathering The Storm!

Whatever happened to a person being deemed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law?

Anyone would feel overwhelmed when the media and haters go after an accused man without mercy to slander and hated on them. Proverbs 11:9,

“An hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered.” Sadly, Brother Baker took his own life on September 11, 2024. I miss my dear ministry friend!

I downloaded and improved the audio quality of these classic sermons by Pastor Baker in defense of the inspiration of the King James Bible...

1. [15]Inspiration Of The King James Bible (2009)
2. [16]King James Bible Inspiration (2011)

The Bible identifies Satan as THE ACCUSER OF THE BRETHREN!

Revelation 12:10,

“And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. ” Lucifer’s day of reckoning is coming, when he will split Hell wide open for his crimes against God and humanity.

When you unjustly accuse someone without proof, you are behaving just like the Devil. That’s why we have a proper legal court system! In the court of public opinion there is no cross-examination, you are automatically presumed guilty and your name and reputation are ruined before you’ve even been to court. That is as evil and Satanic as idolatry, murder, witchcraft and the Church of Satan!

The ungodly media in Columbus, Tennessee, published the slander of one bitter, angry, ungodly woman against Pastor Baker, and that became their sole opinion of Pastor Baker’s entire life. SHAME on the media! Woe unto that news station on Judgment Day. If I, being a broken guilty redeemed sinner (like you are too), can see the utter hypocrisy of the secular media and the heathen, do you think our omnipotent, omniscient and just Creator doesn’t see it? Hebrews 4:12, “Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do. ”

We are living in a wicked generation in the United States where people who go into sin are often kicked in the head by self-righteous haters. Our American news media is toxic! All they do is criticize, find fault, tear down and assume guilty before there is even a proper court trial.

> Matthew 7:1-5, “
>
> Judge not, that ye be not judged.
>
> For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.
>
> And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother’s eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?
>
> Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?
>
> Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother’s eye.

My heart goes out to Brother Baker's family. Pastor Baker is another unfortunate causality of this wicked generation, but be of good cheer dear saints of God because we are on the winning side through faith in Christ Jesus (John 16:33). No child of God has any charges against them in Heaven. Romans 8:33-34, "Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth.

Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us." Brother Baker is safe in the Father's everlasting arms, rejoicing with the saints over souls saved, enjoying the calm and peace of Heaven. Proverbs 4:18, " But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day."

Satan calls us by our sins; God calls us by our name. The world remembers a man for his sins and faults; but concerning the saints, God looks at the entire life (Revelation 14:13). Dear reader, Pastor David Baker fought the good fight of faith in defense of the verbal and plenary inspiration of the trustworthy King James Bible, as I am continually to do.

If you don't have a King James Bible, you don't have an inspired Holy Bible! All of the modern English Bible revisions are corrupt.

To God alone be all the praise, credit and glory. Jesus is precious!!!

7.3.25 I Was Abused At Cedars-Sinai Hospital In Los Angeles (2026-03-25 06:00)

Ecclesiastes 5:8, "If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they."

Genesis 18:21, "I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will know."

When I went for my first neck surgery at Cedars-Sinai Hospital in June of 2009, the nurses had about 40 probes connected to me before the surgery. I had asked the hospital what would be done with my wallet during the surgery and the woman the day before casually told me they'd just put it in a safe, no big deal.

But what she didn't tell me was that a thug security guard would rifle through my wallet without even asking for my permission. My wife has never gone through my wallet because out of respect she feels funny doing so. I am glad I have a considerate wife. Yet, that creepy guard at Cedars-Sinai Hospital had no respect for me as a human being. Clearly he does not know God.

I laid there in a hospital bed with wires connected to my body monotiling my vitals. I was worried about my surgery just minutes away, and I felt helpless as I watched the guard remove every item from my wallet, writing the contents down on a sheet of paper. I felt like I was being raped in my hospital bed. I know why I remained silent as he violated my person, because I was being prepared for surgery and it seemed so much more important than my feelings at the time. I felt scared and overwhelmed. I didn't want to end up paralyzed if something went wrong.

Oh, how I regret staying quiet that day! I wish to God I had kindly told the guard that if he needed to go through my wallet, I would have cancelled the surgery until another day. I would have firmly told that abusive guard, "Excuse me, you are NOT going through my wallet!"

But the rotten ungodly guard did go through my wallet w ithout my consent, examining everything (dozens of items) in my wallet, item by item, writing it all down (no doubt so I couldn't come back later and accuse the hospital of stealing my stuff). I have so often been angry at myself for letting that inconsiderate guard violate my privacy, when I should have kindly told him that there's no way in Heaven or Hell he is going into my wallet.

I was abused, violated and mistreated at Cedar Sinai Hospital in Los Angeles in 2009. I pray for God to avenge me of the years of suffering, grief and pain of soul that guard caused me that day. It's a painful memory that I've had a hard time shaking off to forget. My only consolation is that he is likely a child of the Devil, which explains his abusive Satanic nature; but I am a child of the King, my Lord Jesus.

After my surgery, due to the mental trauma I experienced that morning, the nurse said that my heart was racing 200 mph during the surgery and they had to slow it down to save my life. I was so overwhelmed that I remained silent. I should have told the nurses that their security guard just raped me before my surgery. NO ONE has ever gone through my personal wallet, not even my wife, except that POS rent-a-cop.

I humbly believe that God will some day avenge us of even deeply hurt feelings (Matthew 12:36; Proverbs 24:12). Romans 8:32, "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?"

I want everyone who has ever hurt my feelings to be held accountable by God in my presence, and for those whose feelings I have hurt likewise I want to apologize to them (if I haven't already).

If I were the LORD I sure would avenge my children of hurt feelings, and I'm just a guilty sinner, but God is perfect an holy and omniscient. I want those mean people held accountable for what they caused, even if that guard thought he was just doing his job. To be ethical, he should have asked me first for my consent, to be sensitive and show some humanity. God gave me a big heart as a fundamentalist Baptist preacher, but the flip-side of having a large heart is that I very easily get my feelings deeply wounded. It doesn't take much. I don't give it out (i.e., Smart Alec comments), because I admittedly don't take such gesturing well.

This is one of many painful situations in my life where I regret not speaking up. It would have made all the difference in my world, if I had simply defended my own honor that day as a human being. Instead, I reluctantly allowed that guard to violate my privacy by not speaking up. I was overwhelmed concerning the major neck surgery just moments away. People can be so abusive and cruel without even realized it, but I firmly believe that the guard knew exactly what he was doing that day, being a heartless inconsiderate abusive thug!

Regarding that horrible incident and several other problems, I earnestly complained multiple times to the hospital's human resources office and doctors alike, but they all coldly brushed me off. The hospital mailed me an insincere form letter (that they purchase from the stationary store by the box full), saying essentially: "Too bad, so sad, see ya!" I was so deeply hurt.

I ended up back in the Emergency Room the day after my surgery, because the hospital abandoned me and stuck me in a cab instead of driving me home. To get into traffic, the cab driver gunned the gas pedal and my head lunged back. The pain was excruciating. I was readmitted into the hospital the next day, but they refused to give me enough pain medication for my agonizing neck pain.

So, I told the useless nurse that I was reluctantly leaving the hospital to go home, because there was no use for me to stay if they wouldn't treat my pain. They couldn't contact the doctor because she was away for the weekend having fun.

As I began to leave, the witch nurse threatened to have security come grab me if I left the hospital. So, I laid back down, not wanting to deal with more Nazi guards. I was so angry with the whole damn hospital. They also mixed up my surgery chart with another man before the surgery.

16 years ago, I wrote dozens of angry articles against Cedars-Sinai if you want all the painful details. This is an open book. I pray earnestly for justice from God. I want the hospital and everybody involved to be held fully accountable by God. I want heads to roll...

There's a mountain of angry abused patients who are victims of Cedars-Sinai Hospital in Los Angeles. In their utter incompetence, Cedars-Sinai Hospital killed actor Bill Paxton (1955-2017). They [8]killed a man's pregnant wife, and they are racists at Cedars-Sinai Hospital! I could lists umpteen more injustices committed by Cedars-Sinai Hospital, many of which have become high profile lawsuits and federal investigations. What evil monsters!

What a dung hole at Cedars-Sinai Hospital! I would NEVER step foot into that accursed place again. I wouldn't trust them with our Cockapoo dog. Cedars-Sinai abuses, mistreat, victimizes and kills people! Ecclesiastes 8:12-13, "

Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him: But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

7.3.26 A Christian Marriage (2026-03-26 03:18)

Ephesians 5:28-33, “ So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church: For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church. Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.”

If husbands and wives would simply follow the inspired Word of God in regards to how we treat one another, we could all have peaceful marriages and there wouldn’t be any more divorces. I am thankful that God pointedly tells us in the Scripture exactly what he expects from husbands and wives.

In our text passage of inspired Scripture, Christian men are exhorted to “ love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.” This is a remarkable truth! When I am good to my wife, I am being good to myself, for we are one in God’s sight.

A godly husband and wife should cooperate with each other, meeting one another’s needs, helping one another, “ Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God” (Ephesians 5:21). When spouses become selfish and proud, then problems start.

A husband and wife should read ([1]or listen to) the inspired [2]King James Bible and listen to Bible preaching daily, and then share with each other the truths that you’ve learned. ...

Colossians 3:16-19, “

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another* in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands*, as it is fit in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them."

Wives and husband should teach each other. That is what we just read in God's Word. We should counsel and warn each other. My wife Alice and I love sharing Bible truths with each other as we learn new things. The Bible says to " have grace in your hearts,

" which is the opposite of selfish pride. Remember, as God's saints we grow in grace, not in strength (2nd Peter 3:18). The LORD is our strength!

Psalms 18:1, "

I will love thee, O LORD, my strength.

" What a beautiful Bible truth!

Please notice Scripturally that wives are commanded by the LORD to reverence her own husband. Ephesians 5:33b, " and the wife see that she reverence her husband." To

one's husband means

feeling or showing profound respect

." We don't see much wifely reverence for husbands in today's rotten American feminist influenced culture. In fact, we see the exact opposite from women, who wickedly tear down their husbands, belittle his manhood and treat him like an enemy. Feminism is of the Devil.

The inspired Word of God speaks much of hating or loving one's self. ...

Proverbs 8:36,

But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

Proverbs 11:17, "

The merciful man doeth good to his own soul: but he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh.

Proverbs 19:8, “

He that getteth wisdom loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding shall find good.

Proverbs 29:24,

“

Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

The godly husband who properly treats his own wife with respect, fairness, love and understanding is loving himself. An abusive husband (both physically and emotionally) abuses himself, destroying his own marriage. I regularly do the dishes in our home. I cook meals often. This week I made a special recipe for my wife, [3]Puerto Rican Chicken Fricassee Stew, which she loved. Her Mom was from Kentucky, her step dad was from Puerto Rico. So she grew up around the Puerto Rican culture. I surprised her with this recipe to make her happy, because I love my wife and therefore want to have a servant’s heart. Matthew 23:11, “ But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

The Bible teaches that a backslider follows HIS OWN WAYS; but a good (godly) man lives to please God rather than his own selfish whims (cf., Ecclesiastes 12:13). ...

Proverbs 14:14, “ The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.”

The only reason why there are divorces is because of sinful pride. Proverbs 13:10, “Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.” And Jesus said in Matthew 19:8b, “ Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.” Anyone can live with anybody if you can learn to be a nobody. Galatians

6:3, “

For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

” We were all wonderfully made by God from the dust of the earth.

Isaiah 64:8, “ But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand.”

A happy marriage is two people making a life for each other. A Christian marriage is two people never giving up on each other, just like God NEVER gives up on His own. Hebrews 13:5-6, “Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

By God’s grace, [4]you can be anyone you choose to be. If you’ve been mean toward your spouse, you CAN start being nice simply by trying. We all fail and fail and fail at pleasing God, but all the LORD expects is that we keep trying with His grace. Remember, the Christian life is lived the same way we were saved, which is BY FAITH (Galatians 2:20-21).

Just Hang In Their Faithful To God

Dear reader, when we tough it out and hang in there staying married, even when our spouse is not cooperating and refuses to obey God, we are being faithful to God.

I heard a tremendous sermon this week by [5]Pastor Steven Anderson titled: “[6]Four Dangers Of Servant Leadership.” Don’t let the title fool you, there are some great marriage truths in this sermon. For example: Brother Anderson emphasizes the truth that a wife is commanded by God to obey her husband, even if he is a total jerk. And a husband is commanded by God to love and not be bitter against his wife, even if she is rebellious. Ouch! How many married couples follow these Bible teachings? Sadly, not many. Oh, how we need a revival in our marriages. God hates divorce!

I listened to another edifying sermon this morning by Brother Anderson...

> “Everybody that I have ever known has had marriage problems. I’ve had marriage problems. You’ve had marriage problems. It’s just life. That’s just life. It’s just part of being married. If staying married were easy everybody’d be doing it! Where do you think all this divorce is coming from? Is it coming because marriage is always easy? No, it’s because there are gonna be those low points. There are gonna be those trials and tribulations. And there are gonna be those times where your tempted to just quit, and just say: ’That’s it, I’m leaving!’ and ’She can leave!’ and ’I’m out!’ and ’She’s out!’ and ’He can leave!’ and all this garbage. Hey, look my friend, it’s ’til death do us part.” —Pastor Steven Anderson, “ [7]Enlargement And Deliverance ” (March 15, 2026)

> “Now you say, well, my marriage has been bad for years and it’s just still bad, and it’s been bad for 10 years, 15 years. Okay, well here’s the thing, I understand. I’m not going to give you a pie in the sky that your marriage is always going to be fixed, because you know what, sadly, that’s a reality. Sometimes you are married for 10, 15, 20 years, and it’s just bad, and then it’s more bad, and more, and you try to do the right things, and it’s just bad because it’s the other person’s fault. That’s out there! So, I’m not always gonna say that it’s your fault. You can do all the right things and the other person is just not wanting to play ball, and they just never get onboard, and they’re just never going to be right with God. You know, a husband that’s just never going to love you as Christ loved the Church; a wife that’s just never going to submit unto you and obey you and honor you and respect you. Hey, I get it that that exists. But do you know what what I would say? I would say, continue to be faithful to your spouse. Continue to love your wife that doesn’t respect you. Continue to submit to your husband that doesn’t love you. Continue to do what God has told you to do, and even if He never fixes your marriage, He will enlarge you in other ways.” —Pastor Steven Anderson, “ [8]Enlargement And Deliverance ”

I am not a [9]Pastor Charles H. Spurgeon fan, because he was a [10]2-point Calvinist. Spurgeon taught the Calvinist heresies of Limited Atonement (Jesus only died for the saints) and the Perseverance Of The Saints (a saint must persevere in holiness to get to Heaven). That being said, I fully agree with Pastor Spurgeon in the following quote about marriage...

> "Where there is a lack of this mutual affection, it does not deserve the name of marriage. The pain and anguish of such a relationship would be a heavy load for either heart to bear; but where there is true and genuine love; it is the sweetest and happiest mode of living. It is one of the blessings of paradise, which has been preserved for us after the fall. Without love, wedded life must be like experiencing some of the very pains of hell on earth." [11]SOURCE

Pastor Surgeon preached that sermon in 1867, which was 159 years ago as of 2026. God's saints had marriage problems back then just like today, and throughout human civilization.

In Genesis chapter 27 in the Old Testament, we have the biography of a [12]dysfunctional family. Rebekah was manipulative. She convinced their son Jacob to deceive his father Isaac, and to defraud his brother Esau out of his inheritance blessings. Isaac was stubborn and refused to obey God, who had commanded before their son's were born that the elder would serve the younger. Jacob was a Mama's boy who stayed in the kitchen, while Esau was masculine and a skilled hunter who provided meat for the family. Jacob was a cheat, dishonest, a liar and conniver. He took advantage of his brother Esau. When his father's eyesight had failed so that he could no longer hardly see, Jacob wickedly tricked him. Jacob's very name means a "trickster." God has given us this family's tragic story to give us comfort and hope that everything will work out together for good in the end for God's redeemed saints (Romans 8:28; 15:4). I appreciate that God has given us a privileged look into this dysfunctional family. Every family has dirty laundry!

We Must All Answer To God In Eternity

In any marriage you are uniting two sinners. Sadly, some married individuals intentionally provoke their spouse to anger by deliberately mistreating them, hoping they'll file for divorce so they can blame their spouse for quitting the marriage and claim to be a victim of divorce, when God fully sees that they waned it to happen at the hands of the other spouse. Dear reader, there is nothing hidden from the eyes of God, "but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do" (Hebrews 4:13b). See also Proverbs 24:12.

When you try and fail at being a better spouse, just get back up and try again. Every day is a new day! Proverbs 24:16,

"For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief."

The wicked person doesn't even try to please God, they deliberately live in open sin. That is why lost sinners won't come to Jesus to be saved, lest their evil deeds be reprimanded by the indwelling Holy Spirit (John 3:20, 5:40). Evildoers don't want the Holy Spirit in them, which is why the refuse to come to the light of the truth to be saved. Their love for sin hinders them from getting saved,

That being said, you don't have to forsake your sinning to be saved, nor even be willing to forsake your sins (because that would be works). You do however need to acknowledge that you're a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20). Why is this so? It is simply because you need to know what you're being saved from, which is sin; and why you need to be saved, which is because the penalty of sin is to burn in the tormentuous never-ending fires of Hell day and night without hope or rest forever (Revelation 14:11, 20:11-15, 21:8). Please don't go to Hell.

Jesus doesn't require that you give up your sinning to be saved; but rather, Christ died on a cross 2,000 years ago to save you from your sins.

Matthew 1:21, "

And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

" Salvation is not a matter of what you can do for Christ; it is a matter of what Christ has done for you.

The true Gospel always points you to CHRIST; a false gospel always points to YOU. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Let God be the strength of your marriage dear reader and you'll make it.

Psalms 18:1, "

I will love thee, O LORD, my strength.

Thank you for reading my ministry blog friend. To our faithful God alone be all the praise, credit and glory. Jesus is precious!!!

7.3.27 The Accursed Hellbound Roman Catholic Religion (2026-03-27 05:43)

Mark 7:6-9, "He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me. Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do. And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition."

Kindly said, there is not a more damnable false religion and cult on the planet than Roman Catholicism, whose Satanic organization is located in Rome, Italy. That also includes the Russian Orthodox Catholic religion, whose headquarters is located in Moscow, Russia, but that is for a different article. In this blog I am going to expose the spiritual whore of Roman Catholicism. Satan is a beautiful liar!

The following article titled: "

How To Get To Heaven

exists on the Catholic Answers website...

> Question:
> How do you get to heaven according to the Catholic Church?
> Answer:
> In short, the Catholic Church teaches that salvation is a gift from God, and the normative way we receive that gift is through the seven sacraments, beginning with baptism (see the Catechism 1113ff.). Sacraments are sensible signs Jesus Christ instituted to confer grace, i.e., divine life (CCC 1131; 1114-16). The sacraments are made possible, first of all, by God's becoming man in Jesus, and their saving effectiveness is derived from Jesus' one paschal sacrifice, i.e., his passion, death, resurrection, and ascension (CCC 613, 1085).
>
> Jesus established the Catholic Church as his instrument of salvation through which the faithful are able to receive the sacraments. As a consequence, the Church also teaches that because of God's saving plan, there is no salvation without the Church Jesus established, and that salvation can include non-Catholics (CCC 846-48).
>
> The Church also teaches that we must freely accept the gift of salvation and persevere in it, for, as St. James teaches, justification is by faith and works and not by faith alone (CCC 162, 1814-16; see also 1854-64). [1]SOURCE

Here is my needful biblical response to the preceding damnable heresy:

1. Catholics falsely teach: “In short, the Catholic Church teaches that salvation is a gift from God, and the normative way we receive that gift is through the seven sacraments, beginning with baptism.” This is FALSE! How can salvation be a “gift” when you have to partake of Seven Sacraments to get it? That is a reward, not a gift! It’s an exchange, a trade, but it cannot be a gift if you must do anything other than accept it. Furthermore, where does the Bible teach that partaking of sacraments is the “normative way we receive the gift”? No such false teaching is found in the inspired Word of God. Catholics are liars!

2. Catholics falsely teach: “The sacraments are made possible, first of all, by God’s becoming man in Jesus, and their saving effectiveness is derived from Jesus’ one paschal sacrifice, i.e., his passion, death, resurrection, and ascension.” Again, where does Scripture teach this junk? It doesn’t. The word “sacrament” doesn’t even appear in the Holy Bible.

3. Catholics falsely teach: “Jesus established the Catholic Church as his instrument of salvation through which the faithful are able to receive the sacraments. As a consequence, the Church also teaches that because of God’s saving plan, there is no salvation without the Church Jesus established.” Nowhere does the Bible sanction the demonic Catholic church with their idolatry and Mary worship, removal of God’s Second Commandment, idolization of priests, Baptismal Regeneration heresy, Sacramental Salvation, et cetera. Salvation has never been found through the Church; but rather, through faith in Jesus Christ alone (John 6:47).

4. Catholics falsely teach: “The Church also teaches that we must freely accept the gift of salvation and persevere in it, for, as St. James teaches, justification is by faith and works and not by faith alone.” There is nothing in the inspired Holy Bible about persevering in works to get salvation. The Apostle James plainly wrote in James 2:10 that breaking even one of God’s commandments makes a sinner guilty of violating ALL of them. Even one sin is enough to send a man to Hell, to burn forever! That is why we all need God’s imputed righteousness, which comes only through faith in Jesus (Philippians 3:9). James was NOT teaching works for salvation, God forbid. In Roman the Apostle Paul teaches about being justified in the sight of God by faith (Romans 4:1-7); whereas in the Epistle of James the Apostle James speaks about being justified in the eyes of mankind by works. Scripture is very clear that salvation is without works (Romans 3:19-20, 4:4-5, 10:3-4; Ephesians 2:8-9; Titus 3:5).

It couldn’t be more plain to see that the so-called “

Roman Catholic church

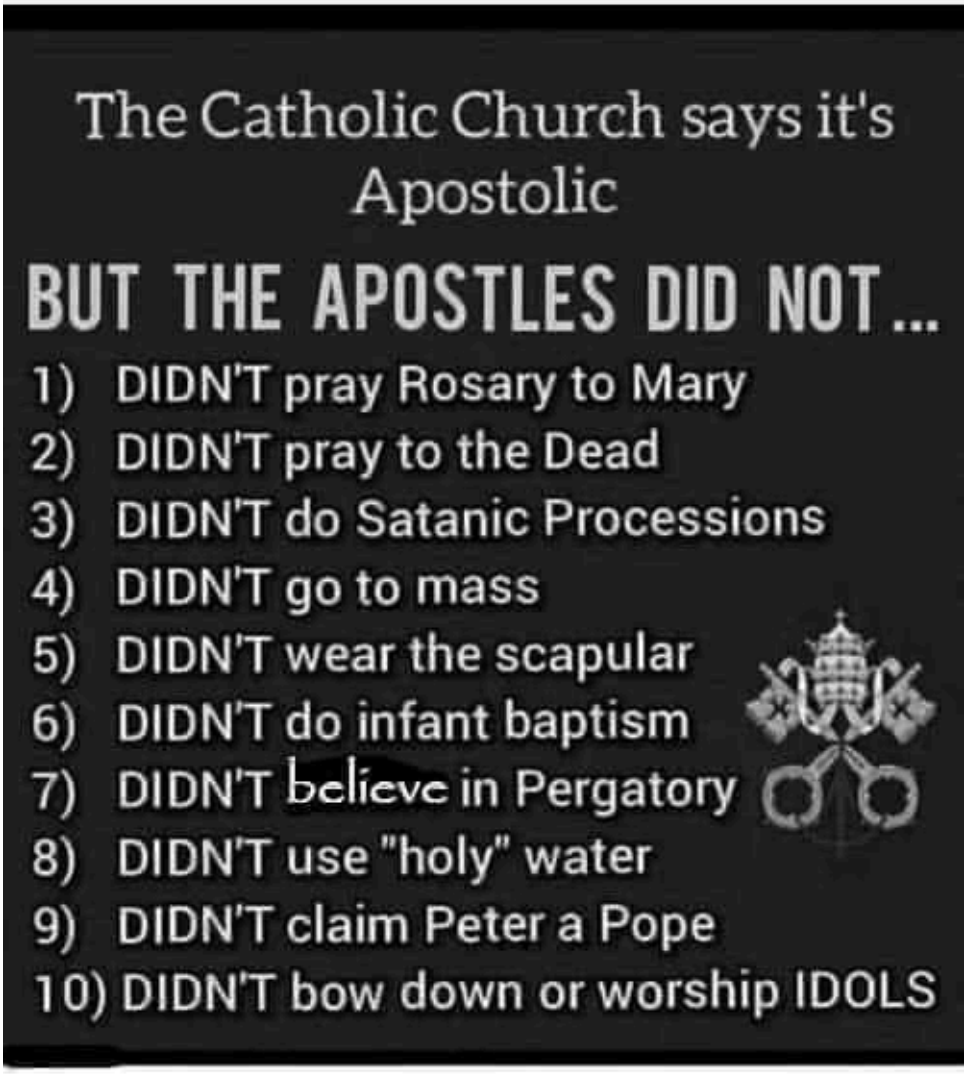
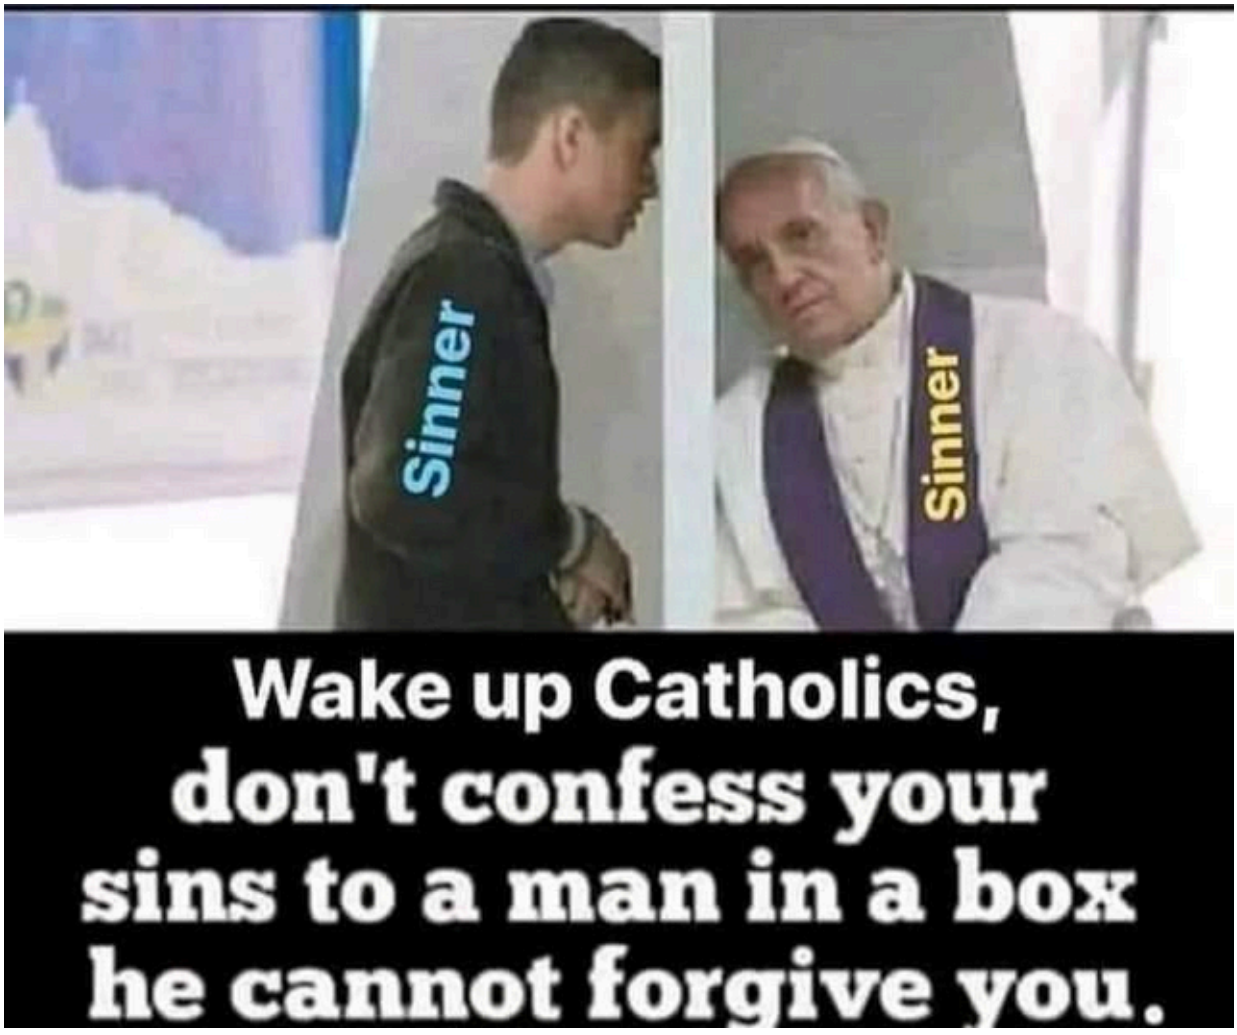
is a Satanic cult whose god is of the Devil, For doctrines they flagrantly teach the commandments of men, not God’s inspired Word. And yet, arrogant Catholics will debate and argue their false religion with a total lack of rationale nor regard for God’s inspired Word. [2]Look how Catholics have removed the second of God’s commandments not to bow down to statues and graven images. Catholics are deliberately wearing horse blinders! They only see what they want to see.



Please RUN away from the prisonhouse of Roman Catholicism!

COLOSSIANS 2:8

Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. KJV



Ashes on your forehead will NOT redeem your soul. Believe ONLY on the Lord Jesus Christ for SALVATION, and STOP trusting rituals and doctrines made from men.

The Catholic Church says it's Apostolic
BUT THE APOSTLES DID NOT...
1) DIDN'T pray Rosary to Mary
2) DIDN'T pray to the Dead
3) DIDN'T do Satanic Processions
4) DIDN'T go to mass
5) DIDN'T wear the scapular
6) DIDN'T do infant baptism
7) DIDN'T believe in Pergatory
8) DIDN'T use "holy" water
9) DIDN'T claim Peter a Pope
10) DIDN'T bow down or worship IDOLS

4. A Different Gospel
Biblical Salvation
• is by grace through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. (Eph. 2:8-9)
Catholic Salvation
❖ is by faith plus:
❖ sacraments (1129)
❖ the Mass (1405)
❖ purgatory (1030)
❖ penance (980)
❖ indulgences (1498)
❖ baptism (1256)
❖ law keeping (2068)

7.3.28 I Oftentimes Disagree With God (2026-03-29 03:30)

Isaiah 1:18, "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool."

Isaiah 55:8-9, "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts."

I heard a tremendous life changing sermon today by my hero of the Christian faith, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). The sermon is titled: " [1]You Can't Reason With God .

" In the sermon Brother Hyles is pleasantly transparent, sharing the many places in the inspired Holy Bible where he disagrees with God.

Pastor Hyles said he disagrees with God in the following Bible matters:

1. Lot's wife being turned into a pillar of salt for just looking back
2. Achan's entire family being killed for his sin
3. God killing Ananias and Sapphira for lying about a financial matter
4. God allowing Satan to afflict Job to ruin his life and kill their 10 children
5. Rahab (a dirty harlot) being mentioned in Hebrews 11
6. God calling David "a man after God's own heart" after what he did to destroy Uriah
7. God choosing to use 3 murderers (Moses, David & Paul) to write 4/11th's of the Bible
8. God using Peter to preach on Pentecost after denying Jesus and curing His name

I so often share Brother Hyles' frustration, feeling that our great God is sometimes unfair. Job said that if any man contend with God he won't win even one in a thousand debates. Job 9:3, "If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand." Who can argue with omnipotence, omniscience, omnisapience and omnipotence? And yet our wonderful Creator lovingly invites every living human being in Isaiah 1:18, "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool." What a terrific God!

I humbly don't think it was fair in the Bible that God allowed Jacob's beloved wife Rachel to die while giving birth to Benjamin.

I humbly don't think it was fair for God to kill Uzzah for just trying to steady the wobbling Ark of the Covenant. Uzzah had nothing but good and pure intentions.

I humbly don't think it was fair when God told the prophet Hosea to go marry a known harlot, Gomer, and then she abandoned him to run off in adultery with her many wicked lovers.

I humbly disagree with God for allowing David to live after ruthlessly murdering Uriah and stealing his beautiful wife Bathsheba, and then David got to keep and enjoy her for the rest of his life, while Uriah was dead. And yet God killed Uzzah for just touching the Ark. That seems so hypocritical, wrong and unfair to me, and I'm sure it does to you also. But like Brother Hyles wisely said, pointing to Isaiah 55:8-9, God's thoughts and ways are ABOVE ours. God sees things that we cannot see. God knows the full story!

The father of Tyler Simmons (a U.S. soldier killed in the Iran war) expressed deep sorrow and shared memories of his only son, describing him as someone who "had a magnetic personality" and could "illuminate" a room. Tyler's Dad last spoke to him just the day before his tragic death, which has left him with profound grief and questions about the war. When I saw [2]Tyler's Dad break down in tears on NBC News, mentioning that he will now never be a grandfather, I wept with him with a broken heart. Life is a veil of tears!

Pastor Hyles made this encouraging statement...

> "I accept the fact that I and God do not always agree. I accept it. I'm not going to stand here this morning and say I'm such a spiritual giant that I just immediately trust God. I do not immediately say to God, 'You know what you're doing.' Sometimes I say to God, 'I wonder if you do know what you're doing.' because [of a] little exercise that I go through. And by the way I go through this every week, and sometimes every day." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[3]You Can't Reason With God"

Pastor Hyles said that whenever he doubts God, he goes through the following mental exercise regularly to help him:

1. I accept the fact that I and God don't always agree.
2. I flee to Isaiah 55:8-9 [God's thoughts and ways are above our thoughts and ways, "as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts" (Isaiah 55:9)].
3. I conclude that God who knows all is right. Proverbs 16:20b, "... and whoso trusteth in the LORD, happy is he. "

I decided decades ago that I refused to place God on trial every time something goes wrong in my life. The heathen world continually puts God on trial. No Sir, I wont do it! I echo with Job in Job 13:15, " Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him. " Life often doesn't make any sense.

"Life can only be understood backwards; but it must be lived forwards." —Søren Kierkegaard (1813-1855)

I humbly admit there are many things about God that I just cannot understand. For example: We know that all babies go to Heaven. God is a just God who would never allow the innocent to perish into Hell. Yet, the Bible also teaches in Luke 13:23-24 that only a "few" people will go to Heaven. So then, isn't abortion a wonderful blessing? All of those billions of aborted babies worldwide since the early 1970's are in Heaven! That truth will mess with your mind. We know that murder is a sin (Exodus 20:13). So, abortion should be made illegal.

We read in 1st Corinthians 2:16, "For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ." Some things of God can be made known to His redeemed saints. We know because of Adam's sin that there is a curse upon the earth for man's sake. Hard work is a blessing from God which keeps a man out of trouble. Lamentations 3:27, "It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth."

That's one of the major things wrong with our nation's youth today, they have too much time on their hands to get into much trouble. I remember there used to be the Washburn Trade School in Chicago for young men, which was a great thing, but due to all the greedy lawyers, politics and selfish adults the school closed their doors in the 1990's forever. Sadly, cities and towns across America today refuse to invest in our youth, who are tomorrow's leaders. NASA spends billions on space exploration. Americans spend trillions on entertainment, sports, pets and vacations; meanwhile our teenagers run the streets in gangs committing crimes, the homeless are ignored and society just becomes worse and worse. When U.S. President Donald Trump leaves office in 2028, the rich will be fattened but the poor will still be poor.

I don't blame God for the mess that this insane world is in today. Ecclesiastes 7:29, "

Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions." Man himself is to blame for the world's problems.

Ladies and gentlemen, we serve an awesome God! Micah 7:18, "Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy." I THANK GOD for the gift of His dear only begotten Son, Jesus Christ, who died in my place on Calvary's cross 2,000 years ago, so that by faith alone in Christ alone without works my sins could be washed away and I could be given eternal life for free. What a great Savior!!!

Ecclesiastes 12:10, "

The preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

7.3.29 God Uses Morons (2026-03-30 08:35)

1st Corinthians 1:25-29, "Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty. And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: That no flesh should glory in his presence."

The

foolish

things " from our text passage of Scripture is translated from one Greek word, moros , which is where our English word comes from. Literally, God uses morons! God uses blockheads and the absurd!

God hath chosen the **"

weak things,

Amen and amen! I thank God that the LORD uses nobodies like me. I have been shunned by church after church for just TELLING THE TRUTH. Of the last six churches that I’ve attended, I was kicked out of three of them and banned from returning; namely, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College and Family Baptist Church in Pensacola.

At Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola, Pastor Bill Adams and his wicked spoiled brat for a wife deliberately mistreated me in 2024, so that I would leave and never return. They are living large, in the ministry only for the INCOME not the OUTCOME. Woe unto Bill and Adams and his ungodly hateful feminist wife.

At the shameful Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam, their incompetent pastor Sean Quinan in 2018 (a PCC intern missionary pastor), rebuked me sharply (in front of several of his church members) for telling a friend in a private conversation that

Bob Jones University sells corruptible seed

(i.e., the Devil’s modern Bible perversions). Pastor Quinlan got angry! He admitted having eavesdropped on my personal conversations over the past several months, and said:

“

You are obsessed with the Bible issue!

Dear reader, you had better believe that I am obsessed over the Bible issue! ...

> “Now you say, ’Brother Hyles, you make an issue.’ You dead sure better know I’ll make an issue!” —[8]BATTLE OF THE AGES (MP3, Dr. Jack Hyles, “The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!”)

This world is going to Hell today because God’s children are hiding their light under a bushel. God needs volunteers. God needs voices! Ezekiel 22:30, “And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none.” God can make use of anybody if you are yielded to Him. Jesus never turned anyone away empty-handed except those who came full of themselves! Dear saint of God, Get out of the SELF LIFE!

Our generation is so characterless. Talent seeks attention; Wisdom pays attention. If you want to be used of God, simply submit whatever you have to Him. Samson was a crooked stick, but God used him because Samson yielded himself.

Moses argued with the LORD, saying that he was the wrong guy or the job to deliver the Hebrews out of bondage in Egypt. Moses told God that was not eloquent in speech and slow of tongue (Exodus 4:10). God told Moses that his brother Aaron would speak for him instead. Moses continued to make excuses, so that God became angry with Moses (Exodus 4:13-16). God refused to take “ no

for an answer from Moses. God told Moses that He would use the stick (a humble rod) in Moses’ hand to work all His mighty miracles. With Moses’s rod the LORD brought the 10 plagues upon the Egyptians. With Moses’ rod God parted the Red Sea to deliver the Hebrews from imminent death at the hand of Egyptian soldiers. With Moses rod God brought forth water from the rock in the Wilderness. Little is much when God is in it!

God uses the little people for His purpose and glory. He uses and blesses morons, idiots and ignoramuses. God makes use of former prison convicts. I don’t care how much of a total loser you may be dear friend, God wants to make use of whatever you have (or don’t have) to serve Him. No one will ever be truly happy in life until they find God’s will and purpose for their life, and they get and stay there. God hath chosen the foolish things of this world to confound the wise. He uses base things, despised things, the poor, maimed, weak and the down and out folks.

Proverbs 23:26, “ My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways. ”

Thank you for reading my ministry blog.

7.3.30 Pensacola Christian College Has Sadly Become More Secular Than Christian (2026-03-31 03:00)

Romans 16:17-18, “

Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

I cannot warn parents enough about Pensacola Christian College (PCC). On the surface they profess to be Christians who love God, but as someone who was kicked out and banned from their Campus Church since 2022, I can testify that there is no love in PCC’s leadership.

I subscribe to the apostate Sword of the Lord bi-monthly newspaper. Sadly, in recent years the Sword of the Lord publication has become a pimp for PCC’s spiritual whoredom. I say that kindly but truthfully. On page 4 of the latest Sword paper (March 20, 2026 - Vol. XCII, No. 06), there appears an advertisement for Mechanical Engineering at PCC college.

Whatever happened to full time Christian service? Evidently student enrollment has dropped significantly and the college is looking for new ways to draw in more money.

[2]PCC Preaches Four Different Plans Of Salvation

I was sickening in my soul as I discovered that the college and their Campus Church actually promote multiple different conflicting plans of salvation. I have dealt with PCC's leaders and they are cocky, stubborn, and arrogant, to say the least. I sincerely tried to reconcile with their leadership in 2022, but they are so hard hearted and distant from God that all they care about is making money and protecting the name of their institution. PCC are foolish.

While the world is going to Hell without the Gospel, PCC are recruiting engineers for the next generation. That is their stupid motto: "

Invest in the Next Generation of Engineers.

" Many parents send their children to PCC because of their fascist style strict rules, but rules without love only begets hatred and resentment.

> “I am all for standards, but I am not for standards without love.” —Pastor Jack Hyles

Dr. Hyles practically gives the address of PCC...

> “The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they’ve been trained by people that have never built churches, and they have no compassion.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[3]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard”

I can testify firsthand about the woeful lack of Christian love, compassion or concern at PCC. Pastor Jeff Redlin treated me like garbage. I even told him so. Do you know what that ungodly incompetent fool said to me? He said, “That’s your global view.” In other words, he was insulting me, accusing me of feeling of feeling like garbage because that’s what I think about myself. The truth is that Mr. Redlin is an abusive person, a cold hearted devil, who never should have been hired to be the senior pastor of Campus Church. What is wrong with PCC?

Dr. Redlin woefully lacks God’s unconditional love for sinners. If he were right with God he would have gladly welcomed me at Campus Church as a divorced man, but instead he wickedly berated and mistreated me as a newcomer, sanctioned by abusive PCC leadership. He did make me feel like garbage, because that is the kind of abusive jerk Redlin is. Sadly, [4]PCC is a religious cult! Their institution represents everything that is wrong with Christendom today in America. While the world is going to Hell, PCC are merely playing church for filthy lucre’s sake. Their mask cannot hide their true hatred, phoniness and lack of love for people.

We don’t need a new generation of indoctrinated religious engineers who woefully lack God’s love for people. And if you are a student at PCC, just fail to dot your i’s or cross your t’s and you’ll find out quickly how much they truly love you a PCC. [5]They’ll throw you under the bus in a second and leave you for dead, even if it means wasting years of college credits when they expel you. In the disturbing truthful words of one of their own students at PCC: “In my opinion they produce more people who love rules than people who love God and understand His grace and what an obedient relationship with Him is like.” I concur! That place is a disgrace!

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was so right, PCC are not church builders, they are educators, so they woefully lack God’s genuine love for hurting sinners. At PCC they just kick anyone out the door who doesn’t meet their manmade hypocritical Pharisaical standards. Touch not, taste not, handle not, but there is no love. There is no understanding. I couldn’t believe how empty of love, understanding and compassion their pastoral staff was when I attended Campus Church in 2021. Tragically, PCC leaders couldn’t care less, having huge egos! God will deal harshly with them, for the wicked way they have sued their own students, threatened others and treat so many people like garbage. That’s not my global view, that’s a fact!

Pensacola Christian College is a dunghill!

7.4 April

7.4.1 Today Is April 1st - National Atheist's Day! (2026-04-01 12:36)

Psalms 14:1, "The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good."

Romans 1:20-22, "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools."

I have a classic book in front of me published in the year 1868, titled "GOD IN HISTORY and GOD IN SCIENCE," authored by London [1]Pastor John Cumming (1807-1881). May I say kindly, there's no such thing as an atheist! Some of the world's wealthiest celebrities have the stench of Hell on them, which is where they are all going, blaspheming the very God Who is kind to them. Luke 6:35b, "...for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil."

On page 139 of his book, “GOD IN HISTORY and GOD IN SCIENCE,” Pastor John Cumming makes a brilliant observation concerning professed atheists...

> Atheism is folly as much as wickedness. But suffer me, before I show this, to say, that it is absolutely impossible that any man can be an atheist, in the strict sense of that word. All that any can say is this: “No spot that I have searched does reveal a God; every organization I have examined does not show traces of wisdom, goodness, and design:” but that individual cannot say; “There is no God;” because he cannot say, “I have soared to the farthest star, I have descended to the deepest mines, I have swept all space, and searched all time, and in the realms of infinite space I have not detected any traces of a God.” In other words, to be able to say, “There is no God,” you must yourself assume to be God, which is a reductio ad absurdum, an utter and a complete absurdity.
> SOURCE: “GOD IN HISTORY and GOD IN SCIENCE,” p. 139; by Rev. John Cumming, D.D.; New York: Published by Carlton & Lanahan; 200 Mulberry-Street; 1868

What a brilliant observation! How can any man claim to be an atheist unless he has traveled to the farthest place in the universe? The nearest star to the earth (after our own sun) is Alpha Centauri, which is [2]4.37 light-years away (25,000,000,000,000 miles away!). This is just one star, being the closest to earth besides our own sun which is 93,000,000,000 miles away. The empty space in between the stars is astoundingly cold, at -454° F (absolute zero is -459.6°

F). The reason why empty space is so cold is simply because it contains no matter, no air, no energy, no anything.

The Hubble Space Telescope launched in 1990 had previously discovered 200,000,000,000 galaxies in the universe, but the new James Webb Space Telescope launched on Christmas Day in 2021 (10 years overdue) has so far discovered an amazing 2,000,000,000,000 galaxies (two trillion). Not just stars, galaxies!!! And each of those galaxies contains HUNDREDS OF BILLIONS of stars! Astronomers now confirm that [3]there are approximately TWO TRILLION galaxies!

I greatly anticipate the next generation of telescopes using Artificial Intelligence.

The [4]Nancy Grace Roman Space Telescope is set to follow the James Webb Space Telescope as the next major astronomical observatory. Its NASA launch day is set for May of 2027. It will focus on exploring dark energy, dark matter, and exoplanets, among other cosmic phenomena. Truly, God is more than amazing!!! Psalms 145:3, “ Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.

The inspired Word of God teaches that God made the stars. I love how Genesis 1:16b is written... “HE MADE THE STARS ALSO.” It’s like the Bible is saying, “Oh, by the way, God also made all the stars!” Genesis 1:16, “And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.” God is amazing, Who knows the exact number of stars that He created? Yet, God calls each star by their own name. Amen!

Do you know that it would take 31,709 years just to count to one trillion (if you could count one number per second, which no one can do)? Realistically, it would take someone at least 200,000 years to count out loud to one trillion, because expressing a number like (say for example) 345,683,484,693 would require several seconds. And yet the Bible says that God CALLS all of the stars by their name. Psalms 147:4, "He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names." That is true omnipotence!

Psalms 145:3, "

Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.

" Who am I that a King should bleed and die for?

Legendary singer Billy Joel is a professed atheist...

> "I gradually decided that just because I didn't have or couldn't find the ultimate answer didn't mean I was going to buy the religious fairytale. As an atheist you have to rationalize things." —Singer Billy Joel

The Bible says the eternally damned think that the preaching of the cross of Christ is foolishness. 1st Corinthians 1:18, " For the preaching of the cross is TO THEM THAT PERISH foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.

> "The inspiration of the Bible depends upon the ignorance of the gentleman who reads it." —Robert Ingersoll

> "Christianity is such a silly religion." —Gore Vidal

The Bible says the unregenerate man thinks that the things of God (including His inspired Words) are foolishness. The atheist can't even begin to understand the things of God. 1st Corinthians 2:14, "

But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

> "...It would be more consistent that we call [the Bible] the work of a demon than the word of God. It is a history of wickedness that has served to corrupt and brutalize mankind." —Thomas Paine

The Bible says the wicked call evil good and good evil. All woe unto them if they don't get right with Jesus. Isaiah 5:20, "

Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

> "Christians are losers." —Ted Turner

The Bible says the unregenerate man thinks Christians are crazy because they don't do the same wicked things he does, and they don't hold the same wicked opinions that he does. 1st Peter 4:3-4, "

For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries: Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you.

> "If we would destroy the Christian religion, we must first of all destroy man's belief in the Bible." —Voltaire

The Bible says the Bible will remain forever. The words of some sinful man will never negate what God has said. Matthew 24:35, " Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words SHALL NOT pass away.

Dear reader, if you are a scoffer or an [5]atheist you have NOT defeated the word of God with your big words and ideas, you have condemned yourself! Repent while you still have the hope of eternal redemption, or you will indeed perish. When you die, it will be everlastingly too late. The wrath of God is hanging over your head like a storm cloud. It's when you lay down, when you wake up, when you are working, having lunch with friends, going on a trip—everywhere you go—that God's wrath is upon your head (Psalm 7:11). John 3:36, " He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him. "

April 1st is "APRIL FOOL'S DAY" in America, which is appropriately fitting for an atheist. Psalms 14:1, "The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good." Nobody hates God as much as the atheist who denies that He exists! According to our text Scripture passage from Romans 1:20-22, there is no such thing as an atheist, only ungrateful sinners who refuse to acknowledge or glorify their faithful Creator. 2nd Timothy 2:13, "If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.

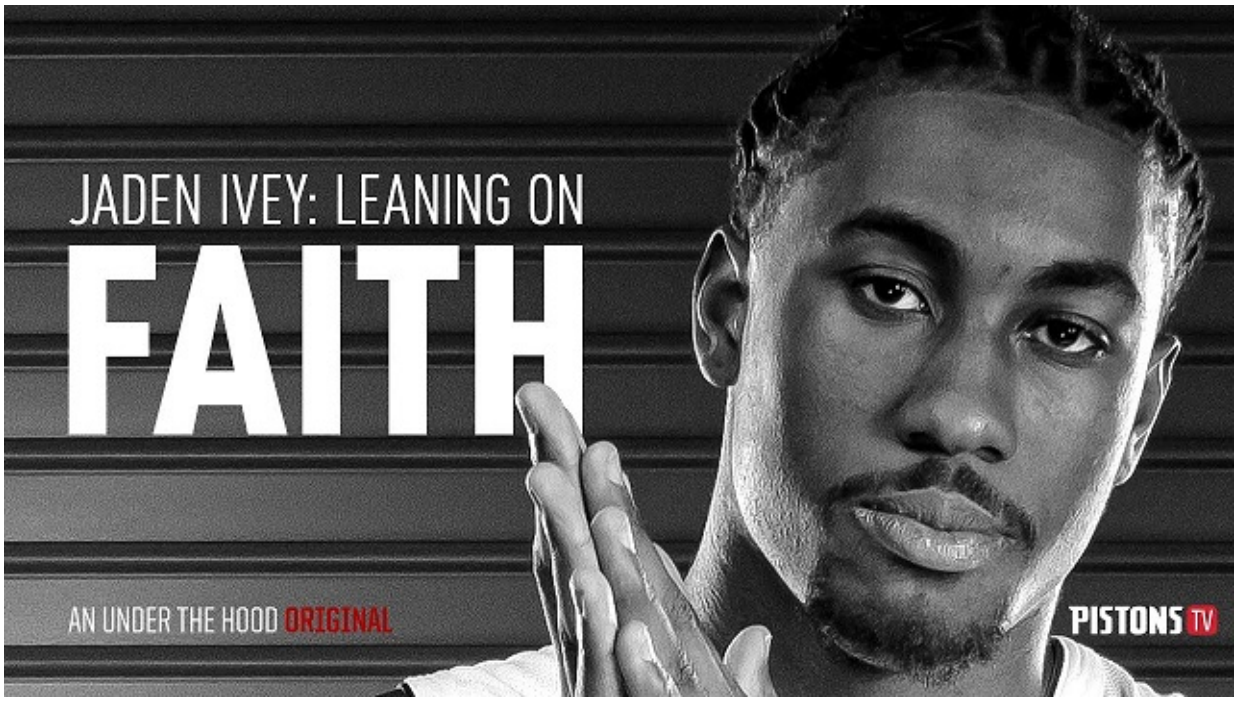
The atheist's creed:



there is no God and I hate Him.

7.4.2 The Shameful Firing Of Jaden Ivey By The Chicago Bulls (2026-04-02 03:00)

2nd Timothy 3:12-13, “Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.”

[1]

On March 30th, 2026, 24 year old [2]Jaden Ivey was fired by the Chicago Bulls for making anti-LGBTQ comments during an Instagram livestream, where as a born again Christian he justly criticized the NBA’s support for the LGBTQ community. The team stated that his conduct was detrimental to the team. What a sick joke! If anything is detrimental to the sport’s team, it is their acceptance of the Satanic homosexual agenda. God will not be mocked. ...

> What comments did Jaden Ivey make that further led to him getting fired?
>
> Jaden Ivey’s anti-LGBTQ remarks have been making headlines lately, and he also received a fair share of bashing. The 24-year-old basketball player reportedly has been posting a bunch of rant videos on social media, according to Fox News.
>
> "The world can proclaim LGBTQ, right? They proclaim Pride Month and the NBA. They proclaim it. They show it to the world. They say, ’Come join us for Pride Month to celebrate unrighteousness.’ They proclaim it. They proclaim it on the billboards," Ivey said in the latest video.
>
> Jaden Ivey additionally said,
>
> "Unrighteousness. So, how is it that one can’t speak righteousness? Who are they to say that this man is crazy?"

> These comments became so viral and intense that the Chicago Bulls ended up waiving Ivey from the team. In a statement posted on Instagram on March 30, the team made the announcement of him getting waived from the team. They additionally stated that the decision was taken "due to conduct detrimental to the team." [3]SOURCE

On September 17th, 2021, my ministry friend Pastor Steven Anderson of the Faithful Baptist Church (now located in Phoenix instead of Tempe) preached an excellent applicable sermon titled, " [4]Only One Viewpoint Is Allowed .

" Brother Anderson is absolutely right, in today's ungodly American culture you are not allowed to have a differing viewpoint from the agenda of the day, which is sadly pro-homosexual. The NBA has just successfully scared all of their players not to dare speak out against the LGBTQ agenda, or lose your lucrative career. That is so evil!

I hope Jared sues the NBA for $100 million for wrongful termination and for violating his First Amendment rights to freedom of speech. When employees can be fired for expressing their personal views (on their personal social media accounts) against the unrighteousness of our perverted generation, you know that we are living in the "perilous times" foretold in 2nd Timothy 3:1-13.

2nd Timothy 3:12-13, "Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived."

The owners of the Chicago Bulls are evil men!

Hell will freeze over and you can fire me from every job on the planet, before you'll silence me about the evils of homosexuality (Leviticus 20:13; Romans 1:24-31; Colossians 3:5-6; Jude 1:7). The same spiritually demented crowd today who are challenging the inspired Holy Bible whether homosexuality is a sin or not, are the same wicked fools (like incompetent pastors' Bobby and Brad Moffett at the shameful Family Baptist Church cult in Pensacola) who challenge the Bible whether it is wrong for their ungodly wives to wear pants in public or not. SHAME!!! Shame on any professed Christian woman who wears pants!

And shame on any professed Christian who defends the gross and unnatural shameful sin of homosexuality. It is gross and wicked!!! I say that kindly. I don't think we should ever bash homosexuals, but every child of God is biblically obligated Scripturally to take a stand against all works of darkness according to Ephesians 5:11, "

And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. "

The Chicago Bulls and the NBA should be greatly ashamed of themselves for firing Jaden Ivey. I can tell you one thing with absolute certainty—the tables will be turned at the Great White Throne of Judgment for the NBA and the owner's of The Chicago Bulls (Revelation 20:11-15). I will never support the NBA or The Chicago Bulls again, because they are bigots against God-fearing Christians.

Christianity aside, this is America where we still have something called our [5]Bill of Rights. It's bad enough that big tech companies are legally allowed to filter American's speech on social media, but companies also have the legal right nowadays to fire employees merely for speaking their honest opinion in private online social media accounts. Tragically, it is [6]conservatives and God-fearing Christians who are the ones [7]being censored.

God bless Jaden Ivey. Pastor Jack Hyles said it best, I humbly think: "To lose something in the will of God is to find something better." God will bless Jaden, but His curse is upon The Chicago Bulls and the wicked NBA. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Ecclesiastes 8:12-13, “Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him: But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.”

7.4.3 Don’t Let Religious Scrupulosity Drive You Crazy (2026-04-03 04:00)

1st John 3:18-21, “My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.

For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God*.

Dear reader, you have to be really careful with our text passage of Scripture. Although it is true that we will have confidence toward God if our heart doesn’t condemn us in the things which we allow in our life (e.g., booze, movies, rock music, smoking, missing church, et cetera), it is also true that many people needlessly torture themselves with guilt because of paranoia over what God thinks. I am guilty of doing this, which is why I am writing about it, to help you.

I am not an optimist nor a pessimist, I am a realist. The old adage is very true: There is a fine line between faith and foolishness. Many adults struggle with [1]Religious Scrupulosity. Most people suffer from much milder forms of the disorder than severe cases, as I also do sometimes. Honestly, I think we all do.

And we must differentiate between legitimate feelings of guilt or Holy Spirit conviction due to present sins in our life (which is a good thing); versus feeling guilt or conviction for eating a steak, or for watching a Hollywood movie, listening to secular music, missing church because you need a break from church, or guilt over sins committed decades ago that you’ve done all you can to rectify (these are all bad things). Yes, these are realities of life that few Bible preachers are honest enough to admit.

It Is Not A Sin To Miss Church; Ignore The Idiots

It all depends on why you’re missing church. I [2]suffer horribly day and night from stenosis and radiculitis in my cervical spine due to being severely rear-ended by a church bus 34 years ago in 1992 (which accident left the bus behind our vehicle in pieces on the street), and a 15' fall at work in 2005 that worsened my injury. I underwent two major neck surgeries in 2009 and 2010 the second of which made me 100 % worse. I suffer 24/1 from burning nerves throughout my upper body, debilitating tension and pain in the bony area in back of my neck, the whole right side of my body feeling half asleep, et cetera.

That being said, sitting through a church service for me is torture! I rarely make it to church these days, or anywhere else. I just need to stay home where I am safe. I used to feel Religious Scrupulosity, guilt for missing church. Even after being forced out, kicked out and banned from six wicked neo-evangelical churches over the past 12 years, for merely TELLING THE TRUTH on my fundamentalist ministry website, they all despised and rejected me for one reason or another. People can be so cruel.

Those ungodly churches are; namely, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (Pastor Marty Herron), Agana Heights Baptist Church on Guam, Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam (Pastor Sean Quinlan), Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (Pastor Jeff Redlin), Smyrna Baptist Church in Pensacola (Pastor Bill Adams), Family Baptist Church in Pensacola (Pastors' Bobby and Brad Moffett). These are prisonhouses of religion, not New Testament churches! They are ALL pathetically WRONG on repentance and the Gospel of free grace!!! SHAME! RUN from these hellholes of apostasy!!!

People are quitting the churches today to walk closer with God. Please don't misunderstand my Bible preaching. We should go to church. The Bible says in Hebrews 10:25, "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching." But this passage of inspired Scripture doesn't mean that you should attend a corrupt church, which is effectively a theological cult if they are wrong on Bible repentance and the Gospel.

Nor does that passage of Scripture mean you should go to church sick so you can infect everyone else. If you are suffering in physical pain, as I do continually, God understands if you stay home. Nobody listens to as much Bible preaching at home as I do. Yet, I have heard pastors foolishly say that if you have to crawl, you should be at church three times a week. Humbly said, I couldn't disagree more! If you are not careful dear reader, other people will drive you crazy with guilt, paranoia and resentment; and you might become bitter as you grow older. I have had to pray much for God's love, wisdom, understanding and patience to cope with self-righteous hypocrites in churches, who like to take liberties to comment about your life.

When I attended the Harvest Baptist Church back in 2014, a young fella in the Navy scolded me for missing church the previous Sunday. I was old enough to be his father. He asked where I was on Sunday and I told him the truth that I was suffering in excruciating burning neck pain. He made the snide remark to me, "F orsake not the assembling of ourselves together, Brother.

" I felt like cussing him out in Jesus' name. What a hypocritical little jerk! But as I often do, I just stayed quiet and absorbed his insensitive and unkind insult. What a hypocrite!

I had one hypocritical woman in 2018 scold me for not coming to the Light House Baptist Church on Guam every week. I explained that I am suffering in much neck pain. She said there is another man in the church with a heart condition, and she said he takes the same medications that I do, and he attends church regularly. I am a gentleman and tend to let people mistreat me, as I did that day. First, she was way out of line for not minding her own business, but I just stayed quiet and let her play the fool. Second, the alleged man with the heart condition is not taking the same prescription drugs as I am for chronic neck pain, radiating pain, burning nerves, et cetera. Years later that same woman quit church with her husband.

What a hypocrite! I'm telling you dear reader, people will drive you bonkers if you let them. There are millions of wounded people who no longer go to church, because some self-righteous POS hurt their feelings by playing God with their life.

Neo-evangelicals Hate Me As A Fundamentalist Christian

God knows that I have been ruthlessly kicked out of six churches since 2009 (3 on Guam, 3 in Pensacola). Seven churches if you go back to 2001. My own father kicked me out of his church. My Dad was a Moody Bible Institute graduate in Chicago, a neo-evangelical. He hated my Bible preaching against booze, movies and sin. Moody college went liberal a half century ago. All my adult life I have been despised, persecuted and rejected by neo-evangelical pastors, even my own father. They are arrogant, wrong on God's simple plan of salvation, and they all have low moral standards. They detest me as a fundamentalist, which is exactly why neo-evangelicals hate Pastor Jack Hyles vehemently.

My father went to Heaven around 2010. I am not sure exactly when he died. My father never talked to me again after kicking me off the Grace Mission Church board of directors in 2001. My father also had a Lutheran pastor on his church board. When I called the Lutheran pastor to see how my Dad was doing (because I couldn't talk with my unreasonable father), that wicked pastor said: "You and that King James Bible heresy!" I kindly replied that any Bible revision which removes the word "begotten" from John 3:16 is going into my garbage pail!

I never should have went to voluntarily work with my father after I graduated from Hyles-Anderson College in 1993, but I did for eight tough years and I paid for it. Dr. Hyles had personally warned me that fundamentalists and neo-evangelicals cannot get along, but I didn't take his advice, for which I regret. I have learned the hard way at a great personal price that neo-evangelicals hate fundamentalists!

I love, forgave long ago and miss my Dad. I hope that he is proud of me for fighting the good fight of faith up in Heaven. Hundreds of lost sinners have come to faith in Jesus Christ since 2002 through my soulwinning ministry, because of God using a humble broken nobody (a wretched redeemed sinner) like me. I am forever grateful to God for His many blessings!

Feeling Guilt Is Not An Indication of God's Displeasure

I admit that whenever I have eaten a steak dinner in a fancy restaurant, I always feel so unworthy and undeserving. Does that mean God is upset with me? Of course not. God knows that I never eat a bite of food without thanking Him for the food and my health to enjoy the food. There are 10,080 minutes in each week. Have we thanked God with even one of them?

I am often reminded of [3]a horrific incident in Europe. In 2012, a stupid group of teenage girls couldn't wait to take their naïve friend on her 18th birthday to the local nightclub to drink her first booze. The young fella who worked at the bar brought the girl a fancy drink fuming with liquid nitrogen. While her senseless were cheering her on like idiots to consume her first alcoholic beverage, she guzzled the drink down, including the pieces of liquid nitrogen, which ate holes in her stomach's lining.

The injured girl fell to the floor screaming in pain. Hours later she woke up in the hospital with her stomach removed. Surgeons did the only thing they could do, they attached her large colon from her esophagus in her throat to her anus.

That poor girl will NEVER eat any solid food again for the rest of her miserable life! No pizza! No cheeseburgers! No steak! No French fries! She has to eat baby food (pulp) 20 times a day just to survive. I'd rather be dead!

I often think about that poor girl when I enjoy all the wonderful foods that God has given to us to enjoy.

Curse those stupid friends of that poor girl! Listen to me carefully dear reader people will get you killed! I'd say ask legendary Ozzy Osbourne guitarist Randy Rhoads, but he was murdered at age 25 by someone whom he trusted. To survive in this insane world of lunatics you have to be smarter than the average bear. I digress.

When I was younger as a teenage, I had heard a lot of Bible preaching against watching movies, listening to rock music, et cetera. I really felt convicted, not because of the Holy Bible, but because that is what pastors were saying from the pulpit.

Much Of Our Guilt Is Self Induced

I actually took a hammer to my Beach Boys collection at age 19. Decades later I found peace with myself and started listening to the Beach Boys again. I went to a Beach Boys concert in Pensacola in 2021 and it was one of the greatest and most enjoyable musical events I ever attended. I am so glad that I went. Are the Beach Boys a Christian band? Of course not. Their personal lives were filled with sin and shame, as well as much charity and good things that the band members have done (just like you and me, and every other human being). But the music itself is beautiful, I humbly think. I see nothing wrong with songs like:

"Be True To Your School" and "God Only Knows" and "Wouldn't It Be Nice" and "Surfer Girl." I am a lifelong stringed instrument musician, so I naturally love all kinds of pretty music. God made the gift of music!

I enjoy watching some Hollywood movies: "

Jurassic Park

and

"The Thing" (1982) and "Star Wars" and "Close Encounters Of The Third Kind." Can you find some fault in those films? Yes, absolutely. But that is true of nearly everything in American culture today. I make no apologies for being a normal human being, having grown up in American culture, and being myself. I love hard fundamentalist Bible preaching, but I learned a long time ago to take it all with a grain of salt, or you'll go crazy with guilt for watching a movie, listening to "

New Kid In Town

by The Eagles, et cetera. I love that song by the way! I make no apologies for being human. I would go crazy if I tried to live a touch not, taste not, handle not type of legalist lifestyle.

I preach against everything on my website ministry, so that Christians can be informed. For example: I preach against the true meaning behind Halloween. But that doesn't mean that I hate pumpkins on Halloween. No one preaches against booze more than I do, but I have used some Brandy in the past to make the famous Steak Diane Flambé recipe. The alcohol burns off in the frying pan. I enjoy cooking because I enjoy eating. If you are worried that you might be tempted to drink some of the alcohol, then don't use it! I take Nyquil (with 10 % alcohol in it) sometimes to help me sleep at night, due to my chronic neck pain. Pastor Jerry Falwell (1933-2007) called Nyquil

Baptist wine.

I like that title.

You're Only As Good A Christian As You Love

Please hear my out dear reader. If you don't watch secular movies, don't listen to secular music, don't chew, don't smoke, don't gamble the lottery, don't drink booze, don't go to the beach, don't miss church, never say a cuss word, et cetera —those things make you RELIGIOUS, but not necessarily a GOOD CHRISTIAN! You're only as good of a Christian as you LOVE God and your neighbour (everyone you meet on the planet). Pastor Lester Roloff (1914-1982) rightly said that the two greatest commandments in the Bible to love God and love thy neighbour as thyself are really just one—

TO LOVE.

I know a Christian wife who writes out Bible genealogies for fun. She loves going to church. She never cusses, never drinks booze, never smokes, never gambles the lottery, and you won't find a better goodie-two-shoes type person! She is RELIGIOUS! But she is rebellious against her husband, sassing him, disobeying his authority and causing him much grief and needless pain. She is a HORRIBLE CHRISTIAN! I hope you are getting my point.

I stopped feeling guilty for listening to secular music 35 years ago. I would feel guilty if I mistreated someone. We've got an epidemic of fundamentalist Christians today who go around avoiding this and avoiding that, and they foolishly think that pleases God. Meanwhile, they treat others like garbage. The wicked incompetent pastor of Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC), Jeff Redlin, would never drink a beer, smoke a cigarette or go to Pensacola Beach in the summer when it's filled with 99 % naked women; but he sinfully kicked me out of their church (in 2022) in his hatred, simply because he could.

I love the guy with Christ's unconditional love, but Dr. Redlin is a HORRIBLE RELIGIOUS PERSON who woefully lacks God's love. I doubt if he is saved because [4]he preaches another gospel . At PCC they're in the religious business for the INCOME, not the OUTCOME. That's why they're now [5]offering engineering classes, going secular . SHAME!!!

Don't Let Religion And Religious People Drive You Crazy

I wrote this blog to encourage anyone who may be driving yourself crazy with religion. Please don't feel guilty for being a human being. I'm not saying that we should play The Beatles' music for the church youth department, God forbid. We should set the moral standards higher than that for our youth. But if you like listening to The Beatles in your own backyard while having a barbeque, I think that is fine (with the exception of certain lewd song, like: "

Let's Do It

In The Street." Use common sense folks. I think lovely songs like: "Penny Lane" and "Strawberry Fields Forever" and "'Til There Was You" are just fine. I love music. I sometimes enjoy [6]Old Christian Radio religious music, but I prefer secular music myself, and I always have, and that is okay. For the past few years [7]I've really gotten into my banjo playing. I'm saying that you don’t have to become religious to still please God. The good LORD loves you just as you are. All God desires friend is that you do better today than you did yesterday.

I enjoy a Christmas tree in December. I actually like to keep my Christmas lights up all year round. They are pretty and cheerful. I enjoy pumpkins on Halloween. I don’t celebrate witches or worship Satan, I just enjoy our traditional American holidays. I think kids should enjoy Easter Egg Hunts on Easter. Just make sure they know that to your family, Easter is about Jesus’ resurrection. You don’t need to feel guilty as a born again Christian for being yourself.

Please understand that I am not sanctioning any form of sin. I just turned 59 years old on March 5th, 2026. I have never smoked a cigarette in my life. I have never drank a drop of booze (Liquid Devil). I have never been drunk, not once. I have never used any form of illegal drugs. I don’t know what a cocaine high feels like, nor a heroine trip. I’ve been an innocent guy all my life, for the most part. I definitely have my own Skelton Closet. There but for the grace of God, go I. I have never claimed to be anything more than a broken redeemed sinner. As I am typing out this blog [8]I found this pretty Christian medley on Old Christin Radio. ...

Let’s Talk About Jesus/I Will Sing of the Mercies of the Lord

Pastor Jack Hyles use to wisely say: “

Don’t be reluctant to admit to others that you have feet of clay, but don’t ever show them your feet.

To that I say amen and amen! I have had countless web visitors over the past 24 years of ministry confess some horrible sins to me. I have always suspected that perhaps they were fishing, hoping that I would confess some of my sins to them. Not a chance in Heaven or Hell! I’m not that dumb. As a fundamentalist Bible preacher I need to be careful to protect myself (Proverbs 4:23). So, never confess your sins to anyone except God, and that includes not even to your spouse.

When my wife divorced me in 2006 after 19 years of marriage, I was absolutely devastated. I've been to hell and back in my personal life. I've been bilked for $77,000 in my lifetime by three greedy lawyers. My wife cost us one million dollars in lost retirement savings. Now I will die a thousandaire...lol. Praise God anyhow! Our God is faithful, good and wonderful!!! Let's talk about Jesus more and more! I forgave my wife a long time ago. We all have to give account to God at the Judgment Seat of Christ. Even though there is no condemnation to those who have faith in Jesus Christ (Romans 8:1), we are still warned in 2nd Corinthians 5:10-11 that we must "give account" for the good and bad done in the flesh on earth. That is, every saint must appear in God's Civil Court, but not Criminal Court.

A lot of Christians struggle with Religious Scrupulosity—feeling guilt, worry and stress needlessly. Relax dear saint of God. Everything is just fine. There have been times in my life when I started thinking too much. I have a bad habit of reading into things, connecting dots that don't exist, worrying. I know that I am not alone in doing this. I tend to blame myself for everything. When my wife became angry at me in the past, I felt like somehow I was always at fault. In truth, I wasn't, but because I have a tender heart I tend to blame myself in humility.

I used to think that God was upset with me. In hindsight, I did that to myself. Preaching will make you go crazy if you don't filter it with Bible truth, common sense and God's love. I know that God loves me (1st John 4:19). I know that God is faithful (1st Corinthians 1:9). I know that God cares about me (1st Peter 5:7). And most of all, I know that **"

God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind

" (2nd Timothy 1:7). God wants all of His children to be mentally stable; not worried, uncertain, fearful or stressed.

I take seven different prescription medications, which also affect my mood. Sometimes I just feel like crying. My constant burning nerves throughout my upper body are overwhelming at times. There is no escape from my torment. My health afflictions keep me humble, kind of like fasting all the time. My neck pain is so bad on a continual basis that is burns. It is my painful thorn in the flesh. I long to receive my resurrected body fashioned like unto the LORD's glorified body at the Rapture (Philippians 3:21; 1st Corinthians 15:51-58).

The way that you treat OTHERS is a direct indication of your walk with God. I dare say that only 1-in-50 born again believers truly walk regularly in the Holy Spirit. That is why today's churches are so pathetic and dead spiritually. When a pastor and his wife couldn't care less if you ever come back to their church, it plainly reveals that they don't walk closely with the LORD, because God cares!!! I care dear reader. That is why I incessantly write to share my heart to help others for Christ. I have never made a single penny from all my ministry labors.

Amidst the tens of thousands of emails I've received over the past 24 years, I have received countless emails from distraught believers who were at the end of their rope. Some were going through difficult marital problems, others talked of taking their own life, and some just felt down on life. I have always counseled them to focus on the things of God, and not the things of this world. Colossians 3:1-3, "

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God." This is why the same Apostle Paul who penned Colossians said in Philippians 4:8 to think on things that are true, lovely, of good report and virtuous, to avoid negativity.

Persecution Will Come If You Live Godly In Christ Jesus

I hope this article has been helpful and edifying. There have been times over the decades when I thought I might lose my mind, but God's grace saw me through. I was devastated in 2006 when my wife of 19 years abandoned and divorced me against my will. She was rottenness in my bones. It's not easy being married these days, which is why there is so much divorce and fewer people are even bothering to apply for a marriage license anymore.

Also, I could write a lengthy book about the intense persecution I endured in the secular work-place all my working career. I fully know what it is like to work in a Hostile Work Environment. In 2009, I was awarded $42,000 in damages (compensation for my divorce costs) from an EEO complaint I filed against the U.S. Postal Service on Guam for relentless the harassment (even death threats) I suffered at the hands of a Filipino clique of ungodly sinners. The day my wife filed for divorce in 2006 was the day I filed my EEO complaint!

My enemies at work were Roman Catholics. They had found my website ministry and declared open season on me as a Christian. The judge who flew in from California blamed the U.S. Postal Service for my divorce, due to the stress caused by working in a Hostile Work Environment. The judge determined that I was a victim of criminal discrimination based on both religion and race. Their incompetent postal management wickedly looked the other way for 4 years while I was being persecuted in a workplace prison.

Some of my co-workers sabotaged the machines I was responsible to maintain. They stole my car, toolbox and house keys. They tore up religious tracts found in the mail and dumped them on my toolbox. They stole my work activity forms. They deliberately overflowed toilets on me. They stalked me around the building, making veiled threats. I was threatened to be murdered multiple times. One co-worker even opened a switchblade in front of the operation's supervisor and threatened to kill me, which she was required to confirm in court hearing testimony.

I could share several dozen equally traumatic events from my life with you. When I went for my two major neck surgeries in 2009 and 2010, I was all alone and wanted to die. My wife had abandoned me in 2006. Pastor Lester Roloff (1914-1982) was so right:

"You'll never know that Jesus is all you need, until Jesus is all you have left."

I flew from Guam to California to get both surgeries. Loneliness is a very difficult burden to carry. At least it is for me because I have a big heart and am a loving person. I get attached to people, pets and things quickly.

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) is my favorite Bible preacher, and for very good reasons. Brother Hyles grew up very poor. He didn't eat his first cheeseburger, eat an egg or use a flushable toilet until he was 15 years old. His older sister worked a job and bought him his first bike when he was 11 years old. Dr. Hyles grew up in a two room home. The stove was in one room, and the bathtub was in the other. Back then the entire family shared the same bath water, and Brother Hyles dreaded bath time because he always went last. I always enjoy hearing Pastor Hyles talk about his poor childhood, such as in this beautiful sermon titled:

[9]Hasty Fruit.

" Unlike Joel Osteen and other infidel clowns in the pulpit today, Pastor Hyles didn't grow up with a silver spoon in his mouth. He had humble beginnings and by God's grace worked hard to build everything he ever accomplished for Jesus Christ.

Another one of my favorite sermons by Brother Hyles is called [10]Wasted Suffering.

" All of the horrible inexplicably painful and traumatic things that I have suffered and endured throughout my life has enabled me to help others through their trials, burdens and problems.

A big part of my website ministry over the past 24 years has been to encourage and guide discouraged Christians. I've even befriended atheists with God's unconditional love, because the dear Savior died for everybody on Calvary's cross 2,000 years ago.

Since I gave my life at age 15 in a church revival to serve God for the rest of my life, all I have ever humbly wanted and prayed for is to be used of God to be a blessing to OTHERS for Jesus Christ. I believe by His wondrous grace that the Lord has used me as His servant, and continues to use this broken redeemed sinner for His purpose and glory. People often contact me and say that their life is a mess. I am quick to encourage them that my life is a mess too. All of our lives are trainwreck! That is what grace is all about dear reader.

[11]God Only Uses Bad People (Pastor Jack Hyles)

Hebrews 12:2,

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

" Just keep your eyes on Jesus! When the Apostle Peter took his eyes off Jesus, he began to sink into the depths of the Sea of Galilea. Peter's mistake wasn't looking at the storm's tempest and raging waves, it was taking his eyes off of Jesus!

7.4.4 Family Baptist Church Kicked Us Out Over Modesty (2026-04-03 15:34)

Ephesians 4:20-32, " But ye have not so learned Christ; If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: Neither give place to the devil.

Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.

Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers. And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

I highly encourage you to read the entire chapter of Ephesians 4, because it all goes together. God wants us as redeemed saints to put off the old carnal man. God wants us to be renewed in our mind. That is, the LORD wants our thinking to be brought into line with the inspired Scripture (2nd Corinthians 10:5-6). I have told people for years that I am as narrow-minded as the King James Bible. Amen.

I want to quote a portion of our text passage, because this TRUTH is so life changing. Ephesians 4:21-24, "

But ye have not so learned Christ;

If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

And be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

" Boy, I sure love that truth!

That being said, no professed Christian women who wears pants in public has put on the nee man which is after Christ. She is carnally-minded, immature, backslidden and worldly. And any henpecked husband who defends his wife wearing immodest clothing is in the same sinking boat. I have the inspired Word of God on my side in this important matter.

Family Baptist Church in Pensacola Kicked Us Out

On the Sunday morning in June of 2025 that Pastor Bobby Moffett shamefully told me and my wife that we're no longer welcomed at Family Baptist Church in Pensacola, he threw it in my face that I referred to Bob Jones University as: "

God damned.

" I make no apologies for my preaching! I stand 100 % behind my biblical comment about Bob Jones University (BJU). Here is my exact comment that Pastor Bobby Moffett read on my ministry website:

> Since [Sean] Quinlan foolishly rebuked me publicly at the entrance of the church, I had to rebuke him back in public in front of his own people, because it was a matter of THE TRUTH. I shouted as I was leaving: "SHAME ON YOU!!!" And I'd gladly do it again 10,000 times!!! I wasn't about to let that fool defend Lordship Salvation, Devil's Bibles, Martin Luther's Baptismal Regeneration and the God damned Bob Jones University crowd! No pastor has a right to hide behind his clergy position while defending gross Satanic error (Titus 1:10-14; Jude 1:3; Ephesians 5:11). Pastor Quinlan falsely accused me of being "obsessed" over the Holy Bible. Yes, you better believe I am "OBSESSED" over the Bible, and so too should you be friend. [1]SOURCE

The Bible is very clear in Galatians 1:6-8, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed." So, it is very appropriate for me (or any other preacher) to refer to the [2]Calvinist false prophets at BJU as

God damned.

" Only a fool would disagree. And by the way, Bobby and Brad Moffett (and their sick Family Baptist Church in Pensacola) are also GOD DAMNED for perverting the Gospel with their heretical "r garbage to get to Heaven, which is nowhere taught in the King James Bible. That unbiblical statement is in their official church's Statement of Faith.

epent of your sins

So, why did Bobby "Dingleberry

Moffett attack me in the church parking lot with false accusations? I'll tell you why, it is because his worldly wife (and his worldly daughter in law) wear their ungodly pants in public. They resent and hate my fundamentalist Bible preaching on my ministry websites. I never told them about my websites in the 45 months that I attended their church (2021-2025), they went and found my ministry on their own, and they despise me for what I stand for and preach. Wicked neo-evangelicals despise Bible fundamentalists! They always have and they always will!

Shame On Pastor Brad Moffett's Ungodly Wife

When my modest wife arrived with a full-length dress at their Family Baptist Church Memorial Day picnic in 2025 at the Lilian Recreational Park in Alabama, the pastor's ungodly wife instantly felt like a whore. We saw it all over her face. She refused to even greet my wife, which is telling. Without saying a single word, the pastor's wife felt convicted. You see, that's what happens when you commit sin, you flee when no man pursueth in paranoia. Proverbs 28:1,

The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

But that's not all, the pastor's horrible wife was so irked by our very presence, that she walked over 50 feet to our picnic table and said:

"I like your shorts!" to a young teenager girl sitting next to us. Of all the thousands of things she could have said to that girl, do you really think for one moment that she randomly just chose those words? Not a chance! She didn't stop at the three picnic tables in front of us. No, she walked all the way over to our table to provoke us as fundamentalist Christians, and to defiantly let us know that she isn't doing anything wrong to wear her immodest pants. Woe, woe unto that ungodly pastor's wife.

Brad Moffett Wickedly Slandered Pastor Jack Hyles

And woe unto Brad Moffett (her henpecked husband) for sanctioning his wife's immodest attire (Proverbs 7:10).

I am going to go to seed in this matter of preaching against women's immodesty!!!

1st Timothy 2:9, "

In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array.

" Brad kept challenging me to show him from the Bible where it says that women cannot wear pants. That's the same wicked argument that homosexuals keep making today, challenging the Word of God. Genesis 3:1b, " Yea, h ath God said...

It was [3]this very article on my website that started the whole ordeal. Dear reader, in the book of Acts in the New Testament when the disciples of Jesus preached THE TRUTH, either revival or a riot always ensued. THE TRUTH is only hate to those who HATE the truth. The Moffett family are not right with God. Their wicked wives are defiant against God's Word in the matter of public decency and modesty. A century ago you couldn't find a female in the United States wearing a pair of pants. Even 75 years ago women all wore skirts or dresses in 1951.

The Satanic women's liberation movement of the 1960s and 1970s finally helped to break down the biblical stigma against women wearing pants, plunging our culture into the depths of Satan. Do you really think that the evils of fornication, abortion, adultery, divorce, murder, covetousness, homosexuality, corporate greed, substance abuse, neglecting the poor and every other form of wickedness imaginable just coincidentally followed the women's liberation movement in America? I hope you're not that naïve. One evil begets another evil.

I Don't Have A Dirty Mind, I Have A Man's Mind

Bobby Moffett's wicked son (also the church pastor) shamefully slandered my hero of the Christian faith Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), essentially calling him a carnally-minded dirty old man when I met with Brad in his church office in April of 2025. Pastor Brad uttered this slander in response to Dr. Hyles' truthful statement, quote:

"I don't have a dirty mind, I have a man's mind" (it is in [4]this article that I quote Dr. Hyles).

Dear reader, you'll never hear a more truer statement than what Brother Hyles just said.

A fella doesn't have to be a dirty-minded pervert to think an impure thought when he sees a pretty pastor's wife wearing pants at a church picnic, because he is a man. I can tell you that when I saw Brad's wife wearing her tight pants last year, I wasn't thinking:

Amazing Grace.

I was thinking:

"Honey, s it on my face.

" Perhaps you say,

“You have a dirty mind.” No, I have a normal man’s mind, and any honest fella and legitimate psychologist would agree.

Male lust is considered a normal aspect of human sexuality. [5]Research indicates that men experience sexual desire frequently, often more intensely than women, but this does not imply that all men are constantly consumed by lust (1st Peter 2:11). Men are aroused by sight. Pastor Brad actually argued this biological FACT with me in his office, claiming that it’s not true. The guy has some serious theological and spiritual issues.

I Refuse To Let This Matter Over Modesty Go

I won’t be quiet in this matter. Being kicked out of one’s church family was cruelty on their part, but we did nothing to hurt them. We were their friends. It was Bobby Moffett’s ungodly way of hurting us, because he is angry that my truthful fundamentalist Bible preaching exposes their counterfeit plan of salvation, and the worldliness of his wicked wife and daughter in law. So, instead of them repenting to do what is right in God’s sight, it was much easier for them to just throw me and my wife under the bus.

Woe unto Family Baptist Church and their God damned pastors on Judgment Day!!!

The Bible warns in Matthew 7:1-2,

“Judge not, that ye be not judged.

For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother’s eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?” They wrongfully condemned us and kicked us out of our church family. They didn’t even have the decency to talk with us first, because they know that they are in the wrong. They just wanted to effectively murder us, to make us go away permanently, but in so doing they murdered Jesus! Matthew 25:40, “ And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

I forgive them for the horrible wicked things they did to us. God knows that I love Pastor Brad and am grateful for the truths I learned from him over 45 months. I have nothing against his wife, but I do have something against her immodest attire and flagrant attitude about it. I do not hate Brad’s verbally abusive father, but the guy is a grudge holding jerk. Bobby is rude, unkind, arrogant and has no business being a pastor since he woefully lacks God’s love.

Nobody has a right to dismissive Bobby’s abusive behavior with such excuses as:

“Well, that’s just the way he is” or “We’ll, we’re all sinners.” Being a sinner doesn’t give anyone a license to be unkind, abusive and rude to people. The first time I introduced my wife to Pastor Bobby, he rudely snapped at me while we were talking with him. Bobby has anger issue with people and needs psychiatric help. Mr. Moffett needs to repent of his contempt for others, and get right with God.

Bobby Moffett continually brags about having started four churches, but the truth is that their carnal religious social club has merely moved into four different buildings over the years. He has a false sense of pride. Proverbs 20:6, “ Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?” They’ve been unfaithful to rightly divide the Word of Truth, guilty of perverting God's simple plan of salvation. Repenting of your sins to be saved is damnable heresy, a false teaching which cannot produce the required new birth to enter into God's Kingdom. RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

I am not belaboring the wickedness that happened at Family Baptist Church merely because they hurt us. God will deal harshly with them, the same way that they harshly dealt with us unjustly. What goes around comes around (Galatians 6:7). I am making a big fuss because they are defending the sin of immodesty at Family Baptist Church. They are defending the sin of preaching another gospel. They are defiant against the inspired Word of God. Somebody's got to care ladies and gentlemen.

Psalms 94:16, "Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?"

God knows that I love the folks at Family Baptist Church, but they shamefully kicked us out of our church family because they are not right with God. They are wrong and they know it. Me and Alice refused to take their shame upon us. And lest anybody falsely accuse me of causing trouble in a church, I never once in the 45 months that I attended their church made any mention of women wearing pants in the church, because it was none of my business.

In fact, it was their ungodly henpecked pastor and his bratty worldly wife who took issue with my [6]fundamentalist website ministry, and drew first blood, for which they will give account to our holy God in Heaven. Pastor Brad boldly declared with contempt in his office on April 30th, 2025: "I am not a fundamentalist!" Yeah, no kidding, who would have guessed? We are innocent in the matter, but they must give account for preaching another gospel, promoting worldliness in the church, and for kicking God's children out the door for telling the truth.

7.4.5 How To Walk With God (2026-04-04 13:34)

James 4:6-11, "But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up. Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge."

[1]HOW TO WALK WITH GOD

(by Pastor Jack Hyles, 1926-2001)

Here are some golden truths that I gleaned from the sermon...

> "I'm not a good Christian, but I'd help my bitterest enemy, and that's the truth." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "How To Walk With God"
>
> "I don't hate anybody; I love everybody!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "How To Walk With God"
>
> "I do care. Nobody ever gets mad at me when I don't cry about it." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "How To Walk With God"
>
> "You have a right to hear a man who's walked with God." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "How To Walk With God"
>
> "Did you know when you walk with God you're not going to be very usual; something very odd about you. Did you know the more you walk with God the more peculiar you're going to be." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "How To Walk With God"

l encourage you to listen to Pastor Hyles' life changing sermon dear friend. There's no secret to walking with God. As a redeemed child of God, you just need to spend time with Him by meditating in His inspire Word (Psalms 1:1-3). Learn to love the inspired King James Bible. Psalms 139:17, "How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!"

Listen to lots of [2]fundamentalist Bible preaching, pray about everything (Philippians 4:6-8). Although I don't agree with Pastor Steven L. Anderson on several doctrinal issues, he is one of the [3]finest soulwinning preachers of our generation. Faithful Word Baptist Church in Phoenix, Arizona (for 2025 to 2026) led 10,121 lost sinners to Jesus Christ. Brother Anderson personally led 182 people to faith in Jesus Christ.

To walk with God, maintain a thankful spirit continually toward God (1st Thessalonians 5:18). The Holy Bible is the most wonderful Book I've ever read. It is a Living Book (Hebrews 4:12). Acts 4:13, "

Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. " When you walk with God, you will be emboldened to stand for truth and righteousness. That is why I preach boldly the way I do, unapologetically with uncompromising truthfulness and transparency. That is why for the past 24 years of website ministry, as a Christian missionary to cyberspace, I have never received a single penny for my 50,000 hours of diligent labor day and night for my blessed God and Savior.

Ye Must Be Born Again

Dear reader, if you have not been born again, you can never walk with God (Romans 8:9). God's wrath rests upon the head of anybody who isn't saved (Psalms 7:11). John 3:36,

"He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

If you don't know 100 % that your name is recorded in Heaven, you can know right now (1st John 5:13).

If you want to go to Heaven, simply acknowledge that you are a guilty sinner under the condemnation of God's Old Testament law (Romans 3:19-20). There is a penalty for your sin, which is to spend eternity burning in the fires of Hell (Revelation 14:11, 20:11-15, 21:8). That's the BAD NEWS! The 'GOOD NEWS' (i.e., GOSPEL) is that God the Father sent His only begotten (biological) Son into the world to die in your place on Calvary's cross 2,000 years ago. Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt of sin we could not pay.

To be saved, you must come to God by faith (taking God at His written Word) as a needy sinner. You need to know what your being saved from. Simply accept Christ's sacrificial death on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, but then miraculously resurrected from the dead three days later. This is **"

the gospel

" according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-6. BELIEVE IT, oh sinner, and the work is done.

Romans 1:16,

"For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." I LOVE THAT! The Gospel is the " power

of God to save whosoever BELIEVES IT. The Gospel is not good advice to be lived, it is GOOD NEWS to be believed. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. It's not what you're doing that gets you to Heaven, it's where you're looking. LOOK TO JESUS! Isaiah 45:22,

"Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else."

That is what it means in John 3:14-15, "And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life." God had sent fiery deadly serpents to bite the Hebrews as a consequence of their persistent complaining against God and Moses. God sent serpents to bite the Hebrews as a punishment for their complaints and lack of faith during their journey in the Wilderness. This incident led them to recognize their sin and seek God's mercy, which He provided by instructing Moses to create a bronze serpent for healing. Moses instructed the Jews to LOOK AND LIVE! ...

> Numbers 21:7-9, "Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee; pray unto the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people. And the LORD said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live. And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived."

That brass serpent which Moses made symbolized Jesus Christ, the sinless Lamb of God who became as sin for us sinners who knew no righteousness (2nd Corinthians 5:21). The way to be saved dear reader is to simply come to God by faith as a guilty sinner (bitten by the serpent of sin), and LOOK TO JESUS! It's that easy, free and simple to get to Heaven.

> John 6:28-29,
>
> "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

Thank you for reading my ministry blog. Jesus is precious!!!

7.4.6 Does Joining With A Harlot Make You Married To Her? (2026-04-05 09:19)

1st Corinthians 6:16, “What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.”

In ancient times, many marriage unions were informal or based on mutual consent without legal recognition, evolving over time to include legal contracts and ceremonies recognized by governments and religious institutions. It doesn’t matter if a couple is married in court, under water, on a mountain, [1]on a llama, et cetera.

The faithful LORD honors and recognizes court marriages as much as He does a church marriage. One is no more or less valid than the other, although a Christian might find some greater memorable value in a church wedding. The marriage is officially consummated when carnal knowledge takes place.

The Bible teaches in 1st Corinthians 6:16, "What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh." When an unmarried man and a woman fornicate, there is a union, a "soul tie" is created. It is not the same as a marriage union, where a commitment is exchanged. If joining with a harlot were to form a new marriage, then how could a husband commit adultery? 1 Corinthians 6:16 discusses the idea that if someone unites with a prostitute, they become one body with her, reflecting the biblical concept that sexual union creates a deep lasting bond. This verse emphasizes the seriousness of sexual relationships and suggests that such actions can have significant spiritual implications.

To engage in sexual relations with someone is to share the deepest part of yourself. That union should be reserved for the covenant of marriage where true commitment exists. Remember that your body is not just a physical entity. It is a dwelling place for the Holy Spirit, and the choices you make have spiritual implications.

The Corinthian culture, known for its wicked sexual liberality like America today, stood in stark contrast to the teachings of Jesus Christ. Consequently, the Apostle Paul urges believers to understand that their bodies are not their own, but of God. The believer’s body is the temple of the blessed indwelling Holy Spirit (1st Corinthians 3:16-17).

Getting married anywhere (including in a court of law) is a real marriage.

Marriage is sacred in God’s sight, not to be taken lightly. Sadly, we live in a throw away society in America today. It is much easier to sin when nearly everybody else is sinning.

7.4.7 Fake Bible Versions Say Religion Makes Us Rich (2026-04-06 07:55)

1st Timothy 6:5, "Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself."

There is no nothing any more evil than today's satanic Bible versions. First I'll quote the accurate King James Bible, and then take a look at what the Devil's modern Bible versions do to corrupt God's Word...

> King James Bible (KJB) — 1 Timothy 6:6, "But godliness with contentment is great gain."
>
> Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) — 1 Timothy 6:6, "Devotion to God is, in fact, a way for people to be very rich, but only if it makes them satisfied with what they have."

Good News Translation (GNT) — 1 Timothy 6:6, "Well, religion does make us very rich, if we are satisfied with what we have."

International Children's Bible (ICB) — 1 Timothy 6:6, "It is true that serving God makes a person very rich, if he is satisfied with what he has."

New Century Version (NCV) — 1 Timothy 6:6, "Serving God does make us very rich, if we are satisfied with what we have."

The KJB doesn't say that devotion to God makes us "rich." Serving God doesn't make us "very rich." It is clear that the new versions mean financial wealth, because they say it is okay to be rich if we are satisfied with what we have; but that is not what the King James Bible says. The Holy Bible is speaking about riches that money cannot buy, not earthly wealth.

I could go on and on and quote hundreds more perversions of the Scriptures! All modern Bible revisions are of satanic origin!!! The average shameful church pastor today couldn't care less. They are sinfully proud and arrogant, more loyal to their clergy peers than they are to the Lord Jesus Christ, whom they falsely claim to love. May I remind everyone that Jesus is the living Word of God.

John 1:1-3 and 14, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. ... And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth."

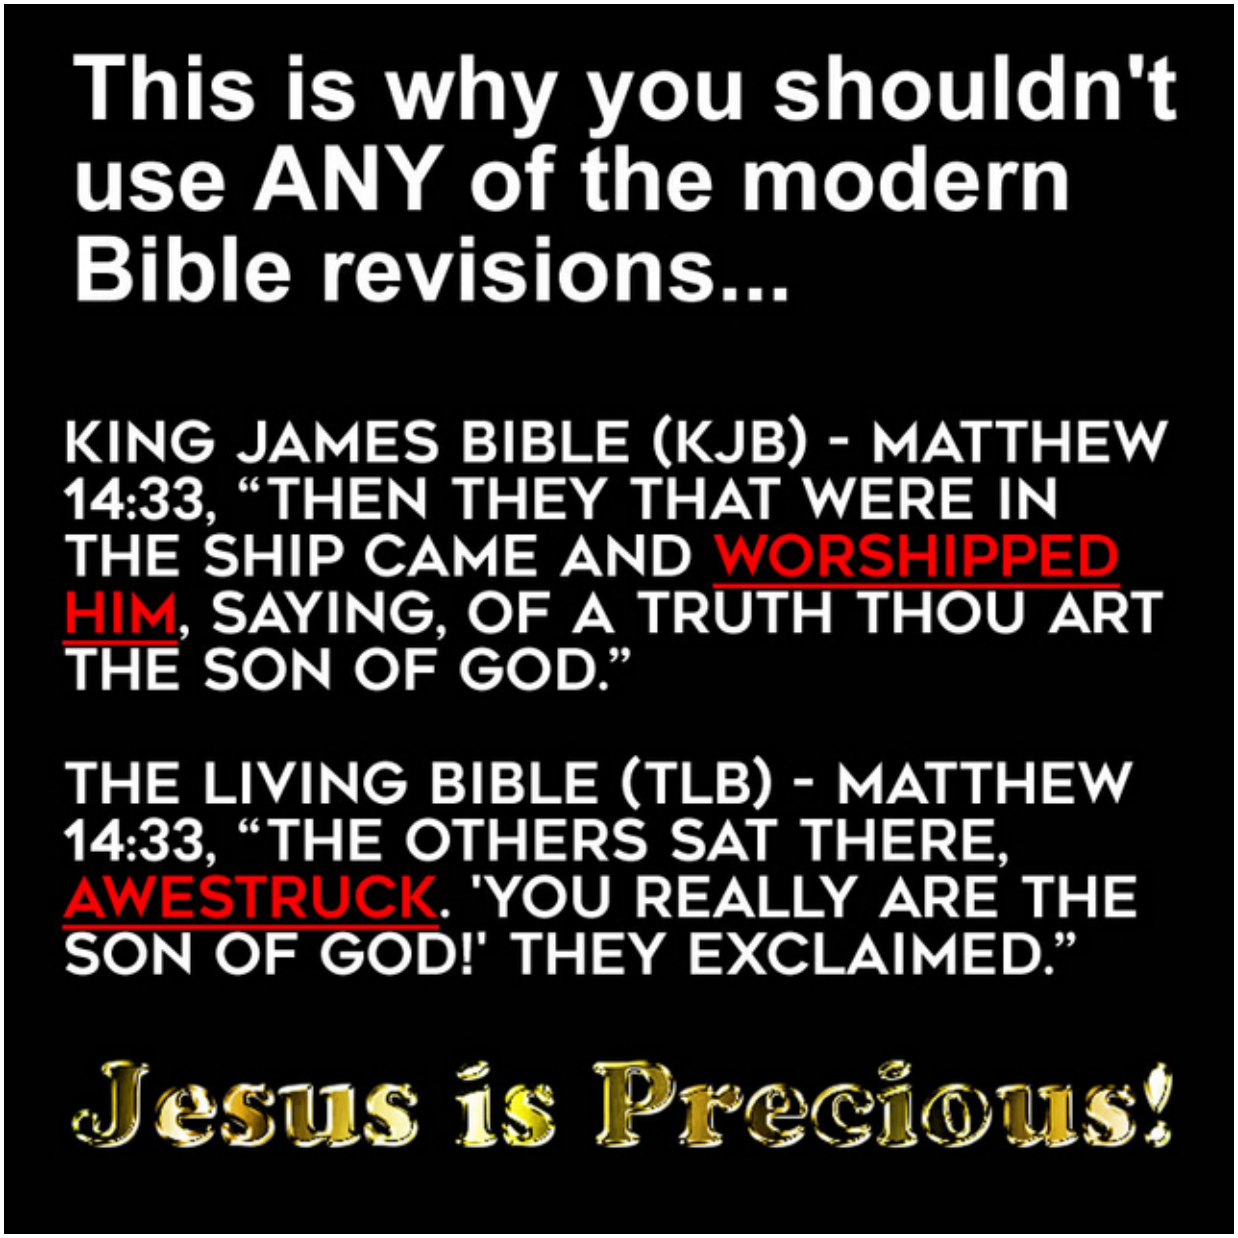
If You're Saved And Content With God's Blessings, You Have Great Gain



The King James Bible accurately teaches that godliness (the Gospel, that is, being saved) with contentment (being satisfied from yourself) is great gain. In other words, if your name is written in Heaven, you can be content with just basic provisions in life. We were born into this world with nothing, and we're going to die and leave this world with nothing (1st Timothy 6:7).

Proverbs 14:14, "The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself." Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) used to say that there are two ways to be rich: Either have all you want, or want all you have! I like that. If your name is written in Heaven, you have something that very few people will ever have, eternal life. Learn to make the best of the blessings you DO HAVE from God, instead of always dwelling upon what you DON'T HAVE. We have much to be grateful for in life. Some of the wealthiest people in this world are hellbound in their sins, paranoid, at war with God, miserable and very unhappy in life.

The greatest things in life aren't things! Many people are miserable, who don't love the Lord, and only live for this temporary world. Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899) once said that the only happy life is to live for the salvation of souls! Amen!!! When all else fails, at least I know that I have a home in Heaven, and have been laying up rewards for many years, winning souls to Christ. Fame and fortune cannot buy that! The true measurement of my success in life won’t be how many people show up to say goodbye at my funeral; but rather, it will be how many people are waiting to greet me when I get to Heaven!

7.4.8 The Safe Thing To Always Pray (2026-04-07 08:30)

Philippians 4:6-7, “
9340

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. "

1st Thessalonians 5:17, "

Pray without ceasing*.

I am making Puerto Rican pasteles today while my dog Pickles watches. I made the filling yesterday and am making the Masa today. [1]Here is the recipe. I've been [2]ordering ready-made pasteles (regular pork flavor) from New York from the Freakin' Rican restaurant, but they're so expensive, so I am trying to see if I can make them on my own. I love pasteles! I ordered the [3]green bananas from Amazon. Unfortunately, stores don't sell green bananas in Pensacola. I thought you might like this too.

Onward! We are commanded by almighty God to pray continually. That simply means throughout the day as we think about things, we should take everything to the LORD in prayer. Supplications are long term prayer requests. When a sad thought enters into our mind, perhaps over something hurtful that somebody did to hurt us in the past, cast that care upon the Lord. 1st Peter 5:7, "Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you."

So often when I pray to the Lord, I become frustrated because God rarely seems to answer my prayers. In fact, at age 59, I cannot even point to even one case of God (no ifs, ands or buts) answering one of my prayers. When it seemed that God answered my prayers, it could just as well have been coincidence. There is nothing wrong dear reader with being honest. To me an answer to prayer needs to be a miracle, not something that could have happened anyway.

I have corresponded with my Christian believers over the 24 years of my website ministry and they have testified the same thing, that it seems like God never answers their prayers. To be very honest, if I looked at my prayer life alone, I would become an atheist. But when I behold the moon, the stars, our Milky Way galaxy and the unsearchable universe, I do not question the existence and omnipotence of our omniscient and omnisapient and faithful God.

When I hear braggadocios Christians (or rather said, professed Christians) boasting that God answers their prayers all the time, I am extremely skeptical and I simply don't believe them. Charismatics in particular really upset me, making bold bogus claims of healing (always in some remote place like deep in Mexico where no cameras were present). It sickens me to the point of wanting to barf when I hear wacky Charismatics boasting of their fake miracles, unbelievable answers to prayer and speaking in tongues nonsense.

Please don't misunderstand dear reader, I DO believe in a miracle-working all powerful caring God. I am simply saying that for whatever reason, I have not seen such miracles in my life, and I resent when religious ungodly hypocrites falsely accuse me of not being filled with the Holy Spirit, or not having enough faith.

In 2009, the scumbag pastor of Victory Chapel Church on Guam (a Charismatic hellhole of false religion) verbally attacked me in a local business parking lot. I had just come out of the House of Brutis' restaurant (no longer in business) and in front of two of his victim church members, the pastor told me that I wouldn't have needed neck surgery if I had been filled with the Holy Spirit. As the gentleman that I am, I kindly smiled and said nothing, but wanted to tell him in Jesus' name to go to Hell. Sadly, he's already headed there in his damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation.

As I mentioned, I often get discouraged when I pray. I am not saying that God has never answered my prayers. That would be presumptuous of me. I simply do not know. I am sure that the good LORD has answered many of my prayers, even before I asked for something, but He answered in ways that I did not anticipate. My mother use to wisely say that God works in mysterious ways. That is what the Bible teaches in Isaiah 55:7-9, "Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

" Don't try to figure out God, because you won't.

I thank God for His never-ending love, provisions and blessings. God has always provided for me and taken good care of this broken redeemed undeserving wretched sinner. I have absolutely no complaints to God. But when I go to pray and start to feel like it's just a big waste of my time, I always resort to a safe prayer. which is simply to ask God that His will be done. That way no matter what happens, I didn't set myself up for a disappointment. I still sometimes ask God for a specific thing, but I always add the words (as did Meshach, Shadrach and Abednego when about to be thrown into the fiery furnace), "

But if not.

" Daniel 3:18, "

But if not*, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

By God's grace, I will continue to pray about everything for the remainder of my time on earth, because that is what God commands me to do to please Him as His redeemed child. If God answers my prayers, great; BUT IF NOT, blessed be the name of the Lord. Job 13:15, "Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him." I refuse to sinfully place God on trial as the heathen world does, challenging His existence and power. Romans 1:20 warns that atheists are all WITHOUT EXCUSE, because even nature itself proves the existence of God.

I love Jesus and thank Him for dying on Calvary's cruel cross 2,000 years ago for my many sins. I am so unworthy of Christ's love and sacrifice. THANK YOU GOD!!!

By God's grace, I will continue to pray without ceasing for the spiritual needs of OTHERS, and for the Lord to work through my humble ministry labors to reach and build OTHERS for Christ. My only heart's desire all my life as a Christian has been for God to use me as a vessel to His purpose and glory. I am God's servant. Damn the torpedoes!

I suspect that a lot of my ministry blog readers feel like you're wasting your time when you pray, but I assure you on the authority of the Scripture that you are not dear friend. I don't believe that prayer makes a difference. You read right! I believe that GOD MAKES A DIFFERENCE!!! I don't believe in the power of prayer, I believe in the power of God.

Jesus acknowledged in Matthew 6:7-8 that even heathens pray, "But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him." Big deal if you pray. Do you have faith in God?

I used to feel that since God doesn't appear to answer my prayers, perhaps it was because there was sin in my life. Who doesn't have sin in their life? I worried that maybe it was because I listened to some secular music, or watched a Hollywood movie, or didn't do something that I should have done that was right to do. That kind of thinking will make you paranoid and nuts. Dear reader, religious scrupulosity will drive you crazy if you let it!!!

I encourage you to keep on keeping on in your prayers. Never stop asking God for what you need, and for the needs of your loved ones and the people you meet. Prayer is not preparation for the greater work; Prayer is the grater work! Never stop casting your cares, burdens and hurt feelings upon the LORD. NEVER!!! By casting your cares upon the Lord, you can walk away with " the peace of God, which passeth all understanding " (Philippians 4:7b).

But when you are not sure what to pray, or feel frustrated as I often do, just pray that God's will be done and then completely REST in the goodness and wisdom of God. The old adage is very true: When you cannot see the HAND of God at work, trust the great HEART of God.

In closing, when it comes to why God never seems to answer my prayers, I have two consuming thoughts to help you:

1. God In Luke 18:1 Jesus said, "And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint." And then He tells a story about The Unjust Judge. A widow appeared in court before the judge, but the Bible says he was a heathen man who couldn't have cared less about avenging the widow. But she kept bothering the judge, coming back day after day, until he finally relented to give her what she wanted. This is called IMPORTUNITY, which the Bible teaches please God. Jesus used this story as an illustration of a Christian's prayer life. Literally, Jesus is teaching that GOD WILL IGNORE US WHEN WE PRAY, not because He doesn't care, but because a faith must be tested. Hebrews 11:6 says without faith no man can please God.

2. The Bible plainly teaches in 2nd Corinthians 5:7, "For we walk by faith, not by sight." When we pray and become discouraged by not seeing visible results, we are walking BY SIGHT, not by faith. This is why I stopped looking for visible results several years ago. Now I just pray and TRUST the character of my faithful God and Savior, knowing that He is all wise, all loving and all powerful; and that is exactly what God desires for us as His saints, and why He seems to ignore us in the first place. God is still on His throne dear reader, and the good Lord knows what He is doing.

One of my favorite songs is Garth Brook's 1990 song, '[4]Thank God For Unanswered Prayers.' Just because God doesn't answer doesn't mean that He don't care. Some of God's greatest gifts are unanswered prayers. That is why I nowadays just pray for God's will to be done, because I know enough to be dangerous in my prayer life. Romans 8:26, "Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. " I sure don't know what to pray for. I need the good Lord's help.

I encourage everyone to keep praying, knowing that we walk by faith and not by sight. Trust the great heart of our good and faithful God.

Thank you for reading my ministry blog. To God alone by all the credit, praise and glory.

7.4.9 God Is Good (2026-04-08 01:00)

Psalms 145:9, “The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works.”

I prayed the other day for the [1]lost serviceman in Iran. The two Airforce soldiers ejected when [2]Iran shot down their F-15E military jet on Good Friday. The pilot was rescued quickly, but the Weapons Systems Officer (WSO) was missing in action. Thank God, he was rescued 36 hours later by his peers in the U.S. military. The soldiers were both wounded in the incident from shrapnel when their jet was attacked by Iranian fire. The missing airman made the right choices. He climbed a 7,000 foot mountain and hid in a ridge to evade capture, and then using his radio made contact on Good Friday, simply saying: “

God is good.

At first the U.S. military thought it might be a trap, because of the religious fanaticism of Islam. But his commanding officers recognized his strong Christian faith and confirmed that it was him. Thank God they had enough sense to accept the soldier's message as valid. The U.S. military went in and rescued their peer on Easter Sunday, thank God! What a blessing!

You definitely know there will be some great movies made about this incident. What a great story! Those two soldiers are an American hero. I am so grateful to God that the Iranian Guard didn't capture him, because they would have slowly tortured him to death on world television.

I am not a Zionist and I am disgusted over the needless murder of 75,722 innocent Palestinians in recent years by Israel, but that doesn't excuse Iran's tyranny. Both Jews and Arabs in the Middle East hate each other with a passion. I remember years ago that some radical Muslims in Palestine had captured an Israeli soldier and tortured him to death. The evildoers had blood all over their hands, literally, and were smiling as they tortured the young man to death. That is something I have never forgot. You couldn't pay me to live in Palestine!

God is good! Amen and amen. God is so good to all of us, whether you realize and acknowledge it or not friend. Psalms 145:9, "The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works." Even if that Air Force soldier hadn't been rescued, God is still good. Thankfully he was rescued, and just in a nick of time. After being self-ejected from the jet, he was injured. Few people realize that the tremendous amount of ejection force can literally damage your spine. I am not sure what type of injuries he sustained, but I'm thinking he likely suffered some lacerations while landing hard.

I am so proud of that Air Force serviceman for honoring God during his hour of crisis. As far as the soldier knew, he was going to die on the Zagros mountain range. Of the thousands of things that he could have said over the radio, he chose to glorify God by uttering: "God is good." The soldier didn't panic. He didn't lose it. He could merely have said: "Please help me" or "I'm okay guys" but he chose to say: "God is good."

What a beautiful thing! God is good dear reader.

U.S. military Secretary of War Pete Hegseth made a beautiful comparison between Good Friday/Easter and what happened to this Weapons Systems Officer. Their fighter jet went down on Good Friday and many people thought the soldier was dead, but then he resurrected alive on Easter Sunday from his situation. How fitting. Praise God!

7.4.10 Rebellious Wives Have No Excuses (2026-04-09 07:28)

Genesis 3:6, " And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat. "

Job 2:10a, " But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh... "

Proverbs 14:1, " Every wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands."

If Eve were alive today and committed the same sin as she did in the Garden of Eden, I can just hear all the ungodly professional doctors making excuses for her sins. Today they would diagnose Eve with everything except THE TRUTH that she is not right with God.

It’s not her fault,
they would foolishly say,
“
She has a chemical imbalance of the brain.
“
It’s not her fault,
they would foolishly say,
“
She has a hormonal imbalance.
“
It’s not her fault,
they would foolishly say,
“
She is suffering from post traumatic stress.
“
It’s not her fault,
they would foolishly say,
“
She has regressive anger from her teenage years.
“
It’s not her fault,
they would foolishly say,
“
She has clinical depression.
It ceases to amaze me how today’s ungodly worthless so-called “professionals” and “experts” cannot see beyond their heathen training. To the man with a hammer in his hands everything starts looking like a nail stocking up. And today's medical quackery disguised as "seeking professional help" is nothing short of lunacy and snake oil salesmanship. The bogus concept of the "chemical imbalance" theory began to gain prominence in the late 20th century, particularly in the 1980s and 1990s. For the past half century neurologists and psychiatrists have been cruelly diagnosing people with a "chemical imbalance" of the brain, pumping their bodies full of potentially lethal drugs (and many have died). Those quacks for doctors should all be in prison! You simply cannot trust the medical industry. Be wise and use common sense.

I guarantee you that 99 % of women who seek psychiatric help are rebellious and create their own problems. No doubt the so-called "professionals" and "experts" would disagree and make disparaging comments about my Bible preaching. I encourage you to listen to my long time ministry friend Pastor Max D. Younce (1935-2023) in this excellent 2-part sermon series...

Pastor Max Younce - Human Wisdom vs. Divine Wisdom, 1 of 2

Pastor Max Younce - Human Wisdom vs. Divine Wisdom, 2 of 2

Dr. Younce is absolutely correct that most people who seek psychiatric help are rebellious against God, which is their real problem. They're not crazy, they're rebellious!

> "Insanity because we're in sin!" —Pastor Lester Roloff (1914-1982), "[1]Steps In The Degeneration Of Our Nation"

There's nothing wrong in the United States that couldn't be remedied by a new generation of preaching fundamentalist Bible preachers who love people unconditionally with God's love (Jude 1:22), preach uncompromisingly without apology against sin (1st Timothy 5:20), earnestly contend for the Christian faith (Jude 1:3), preach a free grace Gospel

(1st Corinthians 15:1-6), only from the inspired King James Bible (Proverbs 30:5-6), and go soulwinning door-to-door as did the early Christians (Acts 20:20).

We are living in a wicked generation of rebels who do not fear God. The vast majority of American women today have become angry, immodest, rebellious, spoiled rotten and empowered by the courts. But a godly woman rejects these trends and seeks to please God.

I know a Christian couple whose marriage was struggling. The fella's rebellious wife left him to go to an accursed women's shelter. Within one week those ungodly sinners running the shelter had convinced the man's wife to file for divorce.

Psalms 1:1a, "

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly... " By the way, they professed to be "Christians." Remember, even Satan appears as an angel of light (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15). Just because someone claims to be a "Christian," doesn't mean you can trust them.

9350

Please don't let down your guard to trust their advice, they could be in league with the Devil.

Do you remember in the New Testament in Matthew 16:23 when Jesus called the Apostle Peter, "Satan"? Peter was thinking like the Devil. I wrote a needful article years ago called, "[2]Satanic Christians." We are living in a dangerous society today in America, surrounded by the never ending counsel of ungodly fools. If you are not grounded and settled in the inspired Holy Bible, you are vulnerable. And just like Eve was the weaker vessel in the Garden of Eden, so are women today more susceptible to Satanic deception (1st Timothy 2:11-15). Women are far more vulnerable to accept someone's demonic advice to file for divorce, than are men.

Rebellious wives have no excuses. I've seen irresponsible wives lift the carpet to sweep dirt underneath, instead of properly disposing of the filth. One teenage girl counted 50 beer cans underneath her mother's couch where she slept. The mother would finish another Old Style can of beer and just shove the empty can underneath the couch. These are Christian women. I am not condemning anyone, God forbid, I am simply saying that if the shoe fits, wear it.

What kind of wife are you? Proverbs 31:28, "Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her." Does your husband call you "blessed" Ma'am? Or does he say with millions of frustrated American men, "

God damn my rebellious wife!" Woe unto you dear reader if you are the latter. God esteems a wife's rebellion as being equal to witchcraft. What saith the Scripture? 1st Samuel 15:23a,

"For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry... " Are you in league with a witch?

Thank you for reading my ministry blog. Jesus is precious!!! To God alone be the glory.

7.4.11 Our Faithful Creator's Greatness Is Unsearchable (2026-04-10 04:00)

Psalms 19:1-3, "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard."

God is more than amazing! I've been watching astronomy videos on YouTube. The universe is absolutely amazing! The temperature in space is -454°F. Absolute zero is -459.6°F. Whereas one cubic yard of earth's air has quadrillions of atoms, one cubic yard of outer space has just one atom. That's why it is so cold.

When you look up at the stars at night, you're looking at light that has travelled trillions and quadrillions of miles. The nearest star to the earth, after our own sun, is Alpha Centauri, which is 25 trillion miles away (4.3 light years). The brightest star in the evening sky is Sirius, which is 50 trillion miles away (8.6 light years). The farthest known star from the earth is 164,601,510,449,141,016,463,851 miles away (165 sextillion miles; or 28 billion light years). Wow!

The intriguing beautiful planet Saturn has 146 moons! Wow!

Venus is the only planet in our solar system that actually rotates backwards. A day on Venus lasts about 243 earth days, which is longer than its year (equivalent to 225 earth days). This means that a single rotation on Venus’ axis takes more time than the planet requires to orbit around the Sun. The earth takes 365.26 days to orbit the sun. I love astronomy!

I took these photos from my front yard this morning...

7.4.12 The Omission Is The Most Powerful Lie (2026-04-11 11:55)

John 8:44, “Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.”

Prolific writer George Orwell correctly said that the “omission” (leaving something out) is the most deadly form of lie, which is exactly what Satan has done to the Word of God...

> “The [1]omission is the most powerful [2]form of lie, and it is the duty of the historian to ensure that [3]those lies do not creep into the history books.” —George Orwell, author of ‘1984’

The most shady and dishonest business people, whether they be realtors, car salesmen, attorneys, pastors or Bible publishers, are the ones who don’t tell you all the facts! We see this evidenced in the dialogue between the serpent and Eve in the Garden of Eden. The serpent (according to 2nd Corinthians 11:3 and Revelation 20:2) was Satan. The Devil didn’t give Eve all the facts! The serpent tricked Eve, deceiving her.

The consequences were devastating! Oh, my friend, the serpent is still making empty promises today, [4]perverting the meaning of repentance , and [5]corrupting the plan of salvation , and [6]distorting the person of Christ in the modern Bible PERversions. YOU CAN’T TRUST THE NEW BIBLE VERSIONS!!! Do you really think God is behind [7]the insane Bible craze? One publisher claims, “This is it, this is God’s Word.”

Another publisher says, “No, this is the one, this is God’s Word!” Which one friend? This one? That one? Ask the average preacher and you won’t get a straight answer. The average churchgoer today has a dozen Bible versions on their bookshelf at home! If they don’t understand one, they consult another. My friend, God only authored ONE BOOK!

For example: You’ll never learn about the threat of “ [8]Lucifer ” in the new Bible versions, because they’ve removed his name completely. [9] Lucifer is creeping into the churches right before our very eyes undetected , in the new Bible versions. The Devil doesn’t mind if the naive world pictures him as a red devil with a pitchfork, who torments people in Hell. Nothing could be further from the truth. God torments unbelievers in Hell, not the Devil (2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9). The Bible teaches that Satan is very beautiful in appearance (Ezekiel 28:17).

We know that this prophecy in Ezekiel 28 against the Prince of Tyrus is a dual-prophecy (i.e., it has a double meaning), which also teaches about Lucifer (because Ezekiel 28:13-19 tells us that he was in the Garden of Eden, as well as placed in charge in Heaven, but his pride ruined him). Take note young people, Lucifer was destroyed because of his beauty and brilliance. Ezekiel 28:17, "Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee." Satan's primary targets are beautiful and handsome brilliant young people. SATAN WANTS YOU!!! Satan always goes after THE BEST!!!

Today's younger generation have been misled and wrongly taught to believe that the King James Bible was only for their grandparents, and is outdated, too prejudiced and old fashioned. I'm sick of hearing about "The Teen Bible" and "The Men's Bible" or "The Woman's Bible." That "Women's Bible" nightmare is straight from the depths of Hell, teaching that God is actually "The Heavenly Mother" instead of The Heavenly Father. Boy, how wicked and dumb can people be? My friend, the King James Bible is everyone's Bible!!! I feel sorry for you if you have been deceived by the Devil and are using a water-down, modern, corrupted, counterfeit of God's Word. The inspired King James Bible, yes, that's the book for me!!!

The younger generation today, and bilingual Americans, are at the mercy of the counterfeit Bible versions, which change and pervert what it means to " [10]REPENT ," thus [11]corrupting the Gospel . WE ARE AT SPIRITUAL WAR WITH THE DEVIL!!!

> "Now you say, 'Brother Hyles, you make an issue.' You dead sure better know I'll make an issue!" —[12]BATTLE OF THE AGES (MP3, Dr. Jack Hyles, "The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!")

7.4.13 It’s Not Okay To Commit Adultery, Even If Your Wife Approves (2026-04-12 12:17)

Exodus 20:14, “

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

The old adage is true: Be careful where you sow your wild oats or you may one day pray for crop failure. In our wicked American culture today, I have heard of numerous immoral situations where husbands and wives have an “ open relationship.

Long time KISS rock band frontman and bassist Gene Simmons (real Jewish name: Chaim Witz) has publicly bragged of his philandering. Gene Simmons finally married his girlfriend Shannon Tweed on October 1, 2011, after dating her for 29 years. During those 29 years

Gene Simmons publicly claimed to have slept with over 5,000 women, [1]confirming the rumors surrounding his ungodly sexual exploits. Tragically, perverse American society today sees no problem with such a wicked lifestyle of fornication. What saith the Scripture? Hebrews 13:4,

“Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. ”

Dear reader, in any marriage, if a wife approves of her husband having a girlfriend that doesn’t exempt him from God’s commandment

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

” If your wife gave you permission to have sex with another women, you didn’t cheat on her, but you did cheat on God! The LORD never gives any married man permission to commit adultery. David was king over all of Israel, yet God punished him for committing adultery with Uriah’s wife, Bathsheba.

A common excuse that adulterous married men make is that “

I am oversexed.

No, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was right,

“

You are under charactered!

” No man or woman ever has God’s permission to commit sexual immorality, regardless of your physical or emotional needs. People will come up with all kinds of crazy ideas to justify their wickedness.

Adultery is a horrible sin that must be shunned and avoided by implementing common sense rules for married couples. It is this humble Bible preacher’s opinion that at no time should any married man or woman be alone with the opposite gender. You’re just making a provision for the flesh if you do. Adultery often starts with seemingly innocent interactions, such as flirting or casual conversations, which can lead to deeper emotional connections. It’s important to recognize that these initial actions can set the stage for more serious breaches of trust in a relationship. This is why I am 100 % against younger wives working in the workplace. The Bible teaches that young Christian women belong at home; so if you don’t like that, get mad at God because He said it (1st Timothy 5:14-15).

Marriages are destroyed from within, not without. All you need to fall in love is a pulse; but to stay married you need a plan. Earnest Hemingway was absolutely right, "All things truly wicked start from innocence." If you are married and desire to please God by being faithful, then you need to declare war on flirtation, lust, neighing after your neighbor's spouse and other seemingly lesser sins that often lead to ruin. God deserves better from all of us.

7.4.14 The Wickedness Of Feminism Is An Ugly Thing (2026-04-13 06:30)

1st Peter 3:1-6,

Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives;

While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price*.

For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

I went through Whataburger’s drive thru yesterday to get a Whatacatch fish sandwich meal. I enjoy eating those tasty sandwiches with a slice of cheese. Yeah buddy! As I sat waiting for my order, I noticed the license plate of the vehicle in front of me and took this

[1]

Nothing To Be Proud Of For A Woman

I couldn’t help but chuckle in amusement. I mean, why boast to the world that you are a female who joined the U.S. military? Ooooh! Are we all supposed to be somehow impressed that a woman became a soldier? Dear reader, that does not impress me one bit. Anyone can enroll into the military. It actually irritates, frustrates and annoys me that many American women are shamefully abandoning their traditional roles as wives, mothers and homemakers. God pity the wicked career woman! 1st Timothy 5:14-15, “

I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

For some are already turned aside after Satan.

” Today most American women are turned aside after Satan!

I would be very impressed if I saw a license plate which read: “

Woman Homemaker

“

I’m a Mother.

But the message

Woman Veteran

” is offensive to me as a man and a Christian. Why does she feel the urge to brag to others that she is a soldier? Clearly she has man issues. It is just a sign of the depths to which feminist wickedness has corrupted American women.

I know that this truthful article will offend some people, and so be it. I am sick and tired of feminism being forced upon society. Due to political activism and feminist bias, you cannot even watch a movie anymore with seeing women giving orders to men, women as top generals and the U.S. President, one woman defeating a dozen masculine men in combat, et cetera. It is as laughable as it is non-plausible. Why does the Devil’s crowd feel so compelled to elevate women to ridiculous heights over men?

You are not right with God dear reader if the following ungodly TV trash commercials doesn’t make you upset. These Satanic commercials shamefully portray boys and men as being dumb, incompetent and inept. Can you image if these commercials instead put down girls and women? There would be a war in society! But men and boys are being horribly disparaged and no one cares! This is just further evidence of the inherent rebellious sin nature of humanity.

The inspired King James Bible teaches that Christian ladies are supposed to maintain a low profile, having a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price

” (1st Peter 3:4b). Godly women don’t go around bragging that they once became a soldier (which by very nature is a masculine thing to do). It just goes against the grain for a woman to join the military. Every female I have ever known to join the military had a bad attitude.

American society has strayed so far from God in 2026 that most women (including Christian women) don’t even realize how much they’ve been adversely influenced by feminist ideologies.

22 Signs That You’re An Ungodly Feminist

Here’s a simple test to determine if you’ve been seriously negatively impacted by the evils of feminism ladies. You are entangled in the Devil’s feminist trap if:

1. You esteem a career as being just as important as being a mother.
2. You don’t believe in having big families.

3. You don’t think you need your husband’s permission to make big decisions.
4. You reject the Bible truth that your husband is your boss (Ephesians 5:22).
5. You wear pants in public (1st Timothy 2:9; Deuteronomy 22:5).
6. You do not show general respect for all men.
7. You defend pro-choice abortion rights.
8. You think homosexuals should be allowed to get married.
9. You support the Democrat party.
10. You resent Sarah in the Bible for calling her husband Abraham, “lord.”
11. You think women have a right to become pastors.
12. You do not feel perfectly at peace with being a Stay-At-Home wife and mother.
13. You approve of ungodly TV commercials that cast men as being dumb and unreliable.
14. You sass your husband and make inflammatory statements to upset him.
15. Your husband’s laundry piles up but you do nothing.
16. Your husband doesn’t eat home-cooked meals on a regular basis.
17. You slander and cast negativity upon your husband behind his back on your phone.
18. You show more respect for pastors than for your own husband.
19. You think it is a good thing for women to join the military.
20. You only submit to your husband when you feel like it.
21. You fail to understand that your whole purpose for existence as a woman is to be a “help meet” for your husband (Genesis 2:18).
22. Your response when reading an article like this is: “Well what about my husband?”

If the things I have just listed offend, shock, unsettle; or God forbid, even make you laugh in scorn, you are not right with God dear woman. A godly woman reverences her husband in the stead of Christ Himself. Ephesians 5:22, “Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.” The Bible doesn’t command wives to obey a perfect husband, it says to submit to your own husband as if he were God.

Granted, this does not include if he tells you to do something illegal that will land you in prison. A wife is never obligated by God to do anything that is unsafe, illegal or immoral. God will defend your right not to obey under those extenuating circumstances as a wife. But if your husband dreads going to church and wants you to stay home with him on Sundays, you obey him and stay home from church! Perhaps you say, “That’s unfair!” Sure it is, life’s unfair, join the club! It wasn’t fair that the perfect sinless Lamb of God was spit upon, beaten beyond human recognition and then crucified for our sins. Talk about unfair! Keep that in mind ladies before you call the cops on your husband, run to a women’s shelter or file for divorce.

Feminism is a very ugly and wicked thing. That female's license plate which reads: "Woman Veteran" speaks 1,000 words as to her sinful pride, feminist bias and wrong attitude toward womanhood. Who cares if you served in the U.S. military as a woman! Why not add some bumper stickers to your car which read: "

I had an abortion,

I murdered my baby!,

" or "I'm a lesbian," because bragging that your a "

Woman Veteran

is nothing to be proud if in God's eyes. Big deal, you learned in Boot Camp how to toss [5]hand-grenades over a wall. You learned how to fire an automatic weapon at other people. You just proved how tough you are as a woman who is commanded by God to be feminine, meek and quiet in spirit. WRONG WAY!

The very fact that she had the message printed on her license plate shows her sinful arrogance, feminist spirit and wicked pride. She is boasting that she did something masculine, of which she is contemptible, not honorable. You may disagree, but that is how I see it as a fundamentalist Bible preacher. I see nothing meek or quiet in spirit about her stupid license plate.

Christian ladies are supposed to maintain a low profile, having a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price

" (1st Peter 3:4b).

Godly women don't go around bragging that they are soldiers, the least most significant thing that any woman could achieve in her lifetime. We have enough shameful G.I. Janes today. What our dysfunctional generation today desperately needs is more stay-at-home mothers and submissive wives. Kindly said, if being a military veteran is the proudest achievement of your lifetime as a woman, as far as I'm concerned you're a LOSER!

7.4.15 Thank God For Fundamentalist Christianity (2026-04-13 16:00)

Jeremiah 6:16, “

Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.

I am humbled that a ministry friend made this photo using A.I. The photo is of his pastor Larry Lowe far left, then Curtis Hutson, John R. Rice, Jack Hyles, myself and Steven Anderson. He said these are his favorite Bible preachers. I don’t think I am worthy to be in the same group of men, but it humbles my heart that the man who made this photo does. Jesus said without Him we can do nothing (John 15:5). If there is any greatness in me at all, it is the precious LORD JESUS CHRIST! Thank God for Christian fundamentalism!

7.4.16 Can A Person Be Saved And Still Pray To Mary? (2026-04-14 12:06)

1st Timothy 2:5-6, "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time."

In my humble opinion, praying to Mary will not prevent you from going to Heaven, if you are solely trusting what Jesus did on Calvary's cross to pay for your sins—believing that He died, was buried, but then physically resurrected from the dead three days later. This is "the gospel," the 'Good News,' by which all who believe it are instantly, irrevocably and forever saved (Romans 1:16). Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

That being said, Jesus is the ONLY Mediator between God the Father and humanity. 1st Timothy 2:5-6, "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time." So, if you do pray to Mary, you are just wasting your time and going against the plain teaching of inspired Scripture.

Mary was a sinner, just like everyone else, and she has no special power of influence with the Son of God. To pray to Mary is the horrible sin of idolatry.

Roman Catholicism is a prisonhouse of false religion. The wicked Vatican has sinfully fabricated many false teachings concerning Mary in an effort to venerate (worship) her. Mary was not immaculately born, she had a human mother and father.

Nor did Mary remain a perpetual virgin as Catholicism strangely teaches. The Bible clearly teaches in Matthew 13:55-56 that Jesus had half brothers and sisters by Mary and Joseph. Joseph was their biological father, but not Jesus' father. Joseph was his Dad that raised Him, but God the Father is Jesus' biological Father. Jesus was virgin born, a miracle wrought by the Holy Spirit without any physical contact with Mary (contrary to what pervert Mormons teach).

Pope Pius XII defined the dogma of the Assumption of Mary on November 1, 1950, stating that Mary was taken body and soul into Heaven at the end of her earthly life. This belief emphasizes her unique role in salvation and is celebrated annually on August 15. [1]Here is a disturbing long list of false doctrines FABRICATED by the Roman Catholic cult over the past several centuries.

God's curse is upon the Catholic religion, which sadly has 1.6 billion followers today. Since Catholics believe that Mary was sinless, and the Bible plainly teaches in Romans 6:23b that " the wages of sin is death,

" they had to concoct another heresy that Mary never died, she was simply taken into Heaven by God. We know that is false! One heresy begets another false teaching, and another, and another; hence, Catholicism!

Getting back to the question question about praying to Mary. It is a sin. Praying to anyone other than members of the Godhead (Trinity) is the evil of idolatry. Catholic leaders are so evil that they've even [2]removed God's second commandment from His Ten Commandments, which forbids bowing to graven images. It is perfectly acceptable to pray to either or all members of the Godhead, in lieu of the fact that there is only one true and living God (Deuteronomy 6:4).

It is difficult for me to comprehend how any thinking person could join such an obvious hoax of a religion. Reports indicate that since 1950, approximately 216,000 children have been sexually abused by clergy in the French Catholic Church alone, with similar patterns observed in other countries, including the United States. The issue has been widely documented, revealing systemic failures in addressing and reporting these abuses. All toll, MILLIONS of defenseless children worldwide have been sexually preyed upon by deranged Catholic leaders. And yet, wicked parents continue to feed their precious children to these wolves in sheep's clothing under the guise of religion.

I cannot warn you enough to steer clear of the deadly cults of Roman and Russian Orthodox Catholicism. They have different headquarter locations (Rome, Italy and Moscow, Russia), but they serve the same boss, Satan (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15). The Devil is a beautiful liar! Catholicism is of the Devil. We should never pray to patron saints like St. Anthony (his statue is often displayed with his dog) because the Bible strictly forbids it.

> Revelation 22:8-9, "And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things. Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God."

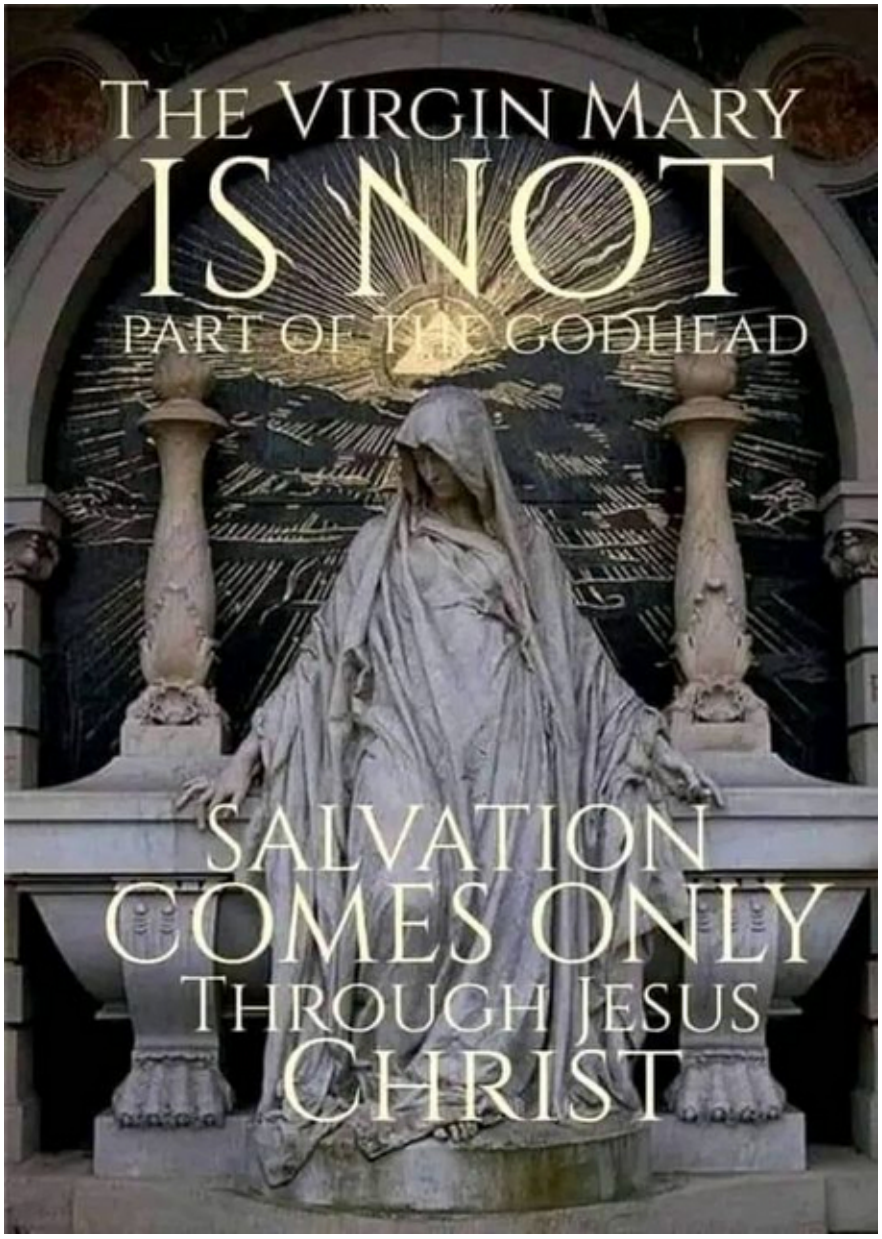
When I lived on the island of Guam for 17 years, I was at my neighbour's house one day and his wife invited some ladies over from their Catholic parish down the street (St. Jude's). At their parish they passed a 3-foot tall statue of Our Lady of Fatima around from house to house, where it stayed at each house for a couple months. Each family would decorate their living room as if God Himself were coming to visit. I saw that wicked group of women bow in prayer to that Satanic statue in idolatry, and I got out of there as fast as I could, because I could feel the Devil's presence. Idolatry is a horrible sin, which brings God's judgment.

I humbly believe it is possible for a Christian to foolishly pray to Mary in ignorance. However, if a person is genuinely born again, the indwelling Holy Spirit will convict that individual about the present sins in their life, including praying to Mary (Hebrews 12:6-8). God is not an absent parent. He will chastise His children. The inspired Word of God is abundantly clear that we are only to pray to the Father in Jesus' name. Someone has said that as believers we pray to the Father, through the Son, in the power of the Holy Spirit. I like that teaching.



That is what 1st Timothy 2:5 means. Man is sinful. God the Father is holy and perfect. Man was unable to fellowship with God, so Jesus (God the Son) came into the world to die on a cross 2,000 years ago to gap the bridge between man and God the Father. Now that Jesus is risen from the dead and has ascended into Heaven as our intercessory High Priest (Romans 8:32; Hebrews 4:14-16), we can access the Father's throne of grace at any time night or day 365.25 days a year. So, there is absolutely no need to pray to Mary. Again, to do so is fruitless. Mary cannot do anything to answer our prayers. Catholics have the weird idea that since Mary is Jesus earthly mother that she has special power of influence with Christ, but that is not true. Even Jesus downplayed such foolish thinking.

Matthew 12:47-50, "Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee. But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren! For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother."

In this passage, Jesus plainly showed that his mother doesn't carry any special power of influence with Him. Jesus clearly said that whosoever obeys the will of the Father (to believe on Him - John 6:40) is equal to His mother. So, people who sinfully pray to Mary might as well pray to you or me. Mary is nothing with God. She was a dirty sinner, although a virtuous young woman as well. Mary needed to trust Jesus as her personal Savior too, or she would have gone to burn in hell forever. Thankfully, Mary did trust Jesus, calling Him "my Saviour " in Luke 1:47.

Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

7.4.17 A Godly Wife Submits To Her Husband As “The Boss” (2026-04-15 10:16)

Ephesians 5:22, “Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.”

Some wives hate being corrected and don’t want a boss for a husband. I saw this meme that

Mrs. Marjorie Younce (Pastor Max D. Younce's wife) posted in May of 2022 on her Facebook page, in which she admirably calls her husband, "The Boss." I love that loyalty! The biblical truth that a husband is THE BOSS in any marriage is a concept that most women resent, hate, reject and punish their husband for trying to be. Like it or not ladies, your husband is:

"The Boss"!

" The Boss and Me "

No godly husband likes to be a "Boss," to a lazy hound dog for a wife. Mrs. Younce has a godly attitude toward her husband, that he is her "Boss" and she submits to him. Pastor Younce went to Heaven on August 11, 2023. I miss my ministry friend. I pray for Mrs. Younce regularly. I wanted to share this godly woman's testimony with other women and wives, because feminist rebellion is the root cause of millions of divorces today in America.

1st Peter 3:1-6, "Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives; While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear. Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands: Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement."
